HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the

Thursday, January 11

A PROPOSED DRAFT of a stop-and-frisk ordinance was submitted to Detroit's Common Council Tuesday and three council members said they would definitely vote in favor of it. A fourth councilman, William Rogell, said he would "probably" vote for the ordinance. The draft submitted to Common Council is the same as an ordinance passed by the Dearborn City Council last week. If the ordinance passes, persons will be required to identify themselves to a policeman who questions them in a public place and explain their actions.

DETROIT'S TOP LEGAL adviser, Corporation Counsel Robert Reese, Tuesday called the city's proposed stop-and-frisk law "an illegal ordinance." He said, "State law provides the circumstances under which a police officer can make an arrest; a city ordinance can not change a state law."

SPECULATION ABOUT NEW moves to get Vietnam peace talks started was sparked Tuesday by a North Vietnamese announcement that the Cambodian foreign minister, Prince Norodom Phourissara, had paid a secret visit to Hanoi. He is believed to have returned to the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh where special American envoy Chester Bowles is meeting with government leaders.

Friday, January 12
IN WHAT COULD BE his final state-of-the-state message to the Legislature, Governor Romney reeled off a long legislative want-list including open housing and tenants' rights laws coupled with new power and funds for the newly created State Housing Authority and revision of the housing code. Romney's message was well received.

POLICE FRANTICALLY evacuated Archbold, Ohio's business district Thursday after gasoline seeped into the sewer system. They said that even the smallest spark could touch off a blast which might level a six-block-square area. Archbold, a community of 2,348 persons, is about 75 miles from Detroit. The gasoline apparently came from the ruptured underground tank of a service station. They were unable to immediately locate the leak.

RICHARD NIXON'S chances of becoming the Republican Party's presidential candidate soared Thursday when a poll revealed that he was pulling 6-1 ahead of George Romney in New Hampshire, scene of the nation's first '68 presidential primary.

Saturday, January 13
IN HIS FIRST formal campaign address in the New Hampshire primary, Governor Romney, speaking at Exeter Academy, outlined his six-point program for solving what he calls America's urban crisis. He said the solution to the crisis is jobs. He added, "We need a new approach which combines the talents of government, private enterprise, voluntary agencies and individuals, including the people in the ghettos themselves."

ATTORNEYS for Detroit's hippie leader, John Sinclair, Justin Ravitz and Sheldon Otis, voiced arguments Friday challenging Michigan's marijuana law. A three-man panel of Recorder's Court judges took under advisement arguments in a pre-trial motion to dismiss charges against the hippie leader and editor of the underground newspaper, Fifth Estate. He is charged with a third violation of the Michigan law governing sale and possession of marijuana. Conviction requires a minimum sentence of 20 years' imprisonment.

ATTORNEY GENERAL Frank J. Kelley Friday recommended dropping criminal charges against Wayne County Sheriff Peter Ruback so that removal proceedings against him could be held before the November election. Kelley stated that the state would make

Soloist and Director Discuss Concert

TIM PLACE (left), a senior soloist with the Grosse Pointe High School, is featured soloist with the Symphony Orchestra in the Winter Concert to be held at 4 p.m. on Sunday, January 21, at Parcels Junior High School. With him is RUSSELL REED (right), Director. Tim, a student at Allen Chase, first trombonist in the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, has attained many honors in music. Among these are several first division ratings at state solo and ensemble festivals. He has been first trombonist in the Michigan State University Youth Music Symphony Band, in the All-State Orchestra at the National Music Camp, in the Michigan State Fair Honors Band, and in the Michigan Honors Orchestra. This fall, Tim expects to enter the School of Music at the University of Michigan, where he has received a full four-year scholarship.

HS Concert This Sunday At Parcels

Three Music Organizations
Participating In Annual Event Scheduled To Start At 4

The annual Winter Concert of three instrumental music organizations of Grosse Pointe High School has been scheduled for 4 p.m. on Sunday, January 21, in the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School, Mack avenue at Vernier road.

Russell D. Reed, instrumental music instructor, will direct three groups to be featured: the 77-member Symphony Orchestra, the 47-member Concert Band, and the 80-member Symphony Band.

The program will open with the Symphony Orchestra playing Piccini's "Didon Overture" and "Symphony No. 1" by Sibelius.

Tim Place Featured
Tim Place, a trombone soloist, will be featured in Eugene Zador's "Concerto for Trombone." He is president and student conductor of the Grosse Pointe High School Symphony Orchestra and Symphony Band. He holds the position of first chair trombone in each of those ensembles and in the stage band and the St. Clair Shores Symphony Orchestra.

The Symphony Orchestra will conclude its portion of the program with "Dance of the Comedians."

Two Bandits Hold-Up Manor Lounge; Escape with $400

Two armed thugs entered the Manor Lounge, 18450 Mack avenue, on Sunday, January 14, and escaped with $400 in cash after announcing a hold-up. It was disclosed by Farms police, Patrolmen Clarence Reichling and John Kraiza, said they received a radio call to the bar, and on arrival, spoke to Louise Nelson of 4393 Ashland, Detroit, an employee of the establishment, who stated that two men entered the bar by the side door at the rear of the bar room proper.

The woman said that one man grabbed her by the arm, and produced an unknown type pistol and jabbed it into her back. She was ordered to the front of the building and to sit with him at a table, she said. She obeyed. The second bandit pulled out

Park Begins Construction Of Pools in Two Areas; Completion Date Is June 1

Municipal Finance Commission Approves Sale Of Bonds For Which Bids Will Be Opened
On January 22

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley, chairman of the Municipal Finance Commission, disclosed that on Tuesday, January 9, the commission approved the sale of $570,000 of General Obligation Recreation Improvement Bonds for the Park.

The proceeds will be used to defray the cost of acquiring and constructing additional recreational facilities for the City of Grosse Pointe Park, including swimming and wading pools and bathhouse at the Waterfront Park, at the foot of Barrington road, "a wading pool at the Three Mile Drive Park, at the foot of Three Mile Drive, and expanded and improved parking facilities and picnic recreational areas at both parks."

"These bonds," he added "are payable from general ad valorem taxes, to be levied without limitation as to rate or amount. The city is authorized to levy whatever taxes are necessary to pay principal and interest."

Other members of the Commission are Allison Green, State treasurer; and Ira Polley, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

To Open Bids Jan. 22
Park City Manager Robert Slone said that bids for the sale of the bonds will be opened on Monday, January 22, at 5 p.m.

The city manager said that a large, heated tent has been placed over the framework of the 56-foot wading pool at the Three Mile Drive Park, last week, and concrete poured. He said that on Thursday, January 11, ground was broken, and excavation begun for the 12,000 square-foot heated regulation swimming pool, and a 56-foot wading pool at the Waterfront Park.

Slone said that the new bathhouse will be constructed approximately 200 feet north of the location of the present facility, and will be located in the park area adjacent to the parking lot fence, between the recreation building and Windmill Pointe Drive. Work on this should start sometime this week.

The old swimming pool will be filled-in and developed into a parking area along the lake, he said.

June 1 Completion Date
The swimming pool, and the two wading pools should be completed by June 1, the city manager said, if everything goes according to schedule. Every effort will be made to try to complete the bathhouse by the June date, he added.

The approval of the sale of the bonds by the Municipal Finance Commission and the work already started, climaxes the problem the Park had had last spring when the Michigan Department of Health refused to grant the city a permit to use the old swimming pool at the Waterfront Park.

The Health Department, acting on the basis of a report from the city, had ordered the pool closed. The city had been told that the pool was unsafe and that it was a health hazard.

After warning the people not to follow the bandits from the building, their method of escape is not known. Both gunmen were wearing white ski masks with red eye

Supermarket Bandit Admits Pointe Jobs

Arrested By East Detroit
Police On January 3 In The Process Of A
Store Robbery

The bandit who held up the Food Fair Supermarket, (now Farmer Jack's), in Mack avenue last December 8, and the Cunningham Drug Store, Mack and Moross, on two separate occasions, the latest on January 1, has been arrested and identified, according to information released by Woods Detective Gerald Kensora on Monday, January 15.

Kensora said that the man, Porter Edwin Cobb, 39, of 5414 Rohns avenue, Detroit, on the advice of his attorney, admitted to several armed hold-ups, including the Woods supermarket and the drug store, which is located just over the Woods-Farms boundary in Detroit.

The detective said that he took Jack Zafarana of 1165 Alameda, Warren, manager of the supermarket; and Shirley Walton of 31770 Wellston, Warren, an employee of the store, to a show-up at Detroit Police Headquarters, 1300 Beaubien, but on arrival, was informed by a Detroit sergeant of the Hold Up Squad, that the show-up would not be held. The sergeant said that Cobb had confessed to the Woods robbery and to the two at Cunningham's.

Identify Mug Shots
However, Kensora said, to clear the records as far as his department was concerned, the manager and each shown nine mug shots of possible suspects, and each positively identified Cobb, whose picture was included with the other shots.

Cobb was arrested by East Detroit police on Wednesday, January 3, when he tried to

PTA Delegates
Bid to Meeting

Trustees of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education have been invited to discuss the issues of the February 28 public school and library millage, building and site levy and bond issue before the delegates of the PTA Council, it was revealed by Charles A. Parcels, Jr., president.

He urged delegates to attend the 8 a.m. meeting on Monday, January 22, in the Exhibition Room of the Central Library, Fisher road and Kercheval avenue.

Liggett School's Playground Again On Woods Agenda

Council Hears Letter Addressed To Mayor McLeod
Suggesting Details Of Agreement Concerning
Use Of Recreation Facilities

More information is supplied on the continuing saga of the Liggett School playground facilities, the Shores-Woods Home Owners Association and the Grosse Pointe Woods Council.

The Shores-Woods Home Owners Association and the Woods Council have been attempting to come to terms with Liggett School on the use of their playground facilities by neighborhood children.

Discussions pro and con have been going on since as far back as '62 with no meeting of the minds to date. The Homeowners have felt that Liggett School has not lived up to promises made when the school was being constructed and Liggett School has felt that they have offered as much as they are able to offer the Homeowners.

Council Is Buffer
The Council acting as a buffer for the two groups has made attempts to bring both parties to an equitable agreement but efforts along this line appear to have failed.

At the Monday, January 15, meeting of the Council the Liggett matter once again appeared on the agenda, this time initiated by Liggett School in the form of a letter. The letter in its entirety follows:

January 4, 1968
Hon. Kenneth R. McLeod
Mayor, City of Grosse Pointe Woods
2025 Mack Avenue
Grosse Pointe Woods,
Michigan 48236
Re: The Liggett School Playground

Dear Mayor McLeod:
This is sent to you on behalf of the Board of Trustees of The Liggett School in response to your letter of May 13, 1967, in connection with endeavors to reach an agreement with the City which would permit a use of the Liggett playground under certain mutually agreeable arrangements. As early as 1962 this situation was discussed and in 1963 representatives of the school and the City tentatively agreed on a draft of an agreement. Thereafter, the Board of the Liggett School approved the proposed agreement and signed and filed a copy. This agreement contained a variation relating to bathroom facilities, and was never signed on behalf of the City.

Since the occurrence of these events there have been a number of rumors and reports which have greatly distorted the relationship which was contemplated by the School and the administration at the time the School came to Grosse Pointe Woods. This is regrettable and it seems to us that a clear and fair agreement ought to be reached so that the School, the administration and the public will have a complete understanding of the situation. In this connection the School continues to feel that such agreement should limit the use of the playground for some period between June 15 and September 1st so that there will be no interference with the School's use of its own property; that the City be responsible for the maintenance of the playground.

Reports Seeing
Papers Stolen

An indignant man came into the NEWS office Friday morning, January 12, to disclose that he was an eye witness to some low skulduggery in front of the Grosse Pointe Post office branch, Mack and Warren, where the NEWS maintains a newspaper stand.

According to the witness, a man, apparently working for another newspaper in the area, removed a pile of GROSSE POINTE NEWS papers from the stand, and placed them in his car parked at the curb.

The culprit, the witness said, then returned and filled the other paper's stand with his product, after which he drove away.

The alleged incident has been referred to the Farms police, who promised an investigation.

Woods Policeman Accused In Detroit Shooting, Resigns

James A. Farrell, 29, of 20881 Vernier road, Harper Woods, a suspended Grosse Pointe Woods police safety officer, submitted his resignation rather than face a Police Trial Board which was to have been held on Wednesday, January 10, it was disclosed by Public Safety Director Allen Andrews.

Farrell was suspended by the director last November 4, as a result of Farrell's alleged shooting of a Detroit parking lot attendant, Jerome Williams, 29, of 2314 Tuxedo, Detroit, in a lot next to Gagen's Restaurant, 870 West McNichols.

Farrell, when arrested by Detroit authorities, said he shot Williams when the man pulled a knife on him during an argument.

The former patrolman is charged in a warrant with felonious assault, and was arraigned in Detroit's Recorder's Court for a preliminary examination, yesterday, January 17. He had been free on personal bond.

Teacher Pay Big Item in Future Costs

Procedure Used In Determining Request For 1 1/2
Mill Levy Increase Explained By Board

With the passage of Public Act 379 in the summer of 1965, public employees won the right to bargain collectively with their employers. As a result of this action of the Michigan Legislature, local schools as well as districts throughout the state are finding it increasingly difficult to project their budgets and to determine the amount of money needed to run the schools in the future.

The result of this action, coupled with the effects of the nation's current economic inflationary spiral, are two reasons for the Board of Education's resolution setting February 26 as the date of an election for operating millage.

Budget Projections
Recently school officials outlined the procedure used in arriving at the request for a 7 1/2 mill increase in the current operating levy. In projecting the School system's general operating budget through the 1968-69 year, the following factors were taken into consideration:

Future salary adjustments based on those made in the spring of 1967.

Cost of additional staff, supplies and utilities for North High School, scheduled to open in September.

Twenty additional staff members to accommodate enrollment growth throughout the district.

National inflationary spiral which increases the costs of services required by the schools.

Administrators estimate that with the adoption of an operating budget based on the maintenance of present educational standards and including provisions for the four points mentioned above, the schools would face a deficit of $1,821,782 by the end of the 1968-69 year.

Projections based on these factors through the 1968-70 year indicate an additional deficit of $3,268,412.

Therefore, the total deficit for the two-year period in question would approach $5,100,000.

If one divides the $5,100,000 deficit by the amount of the assessed valuation of the property in the school district ($347,000,000), to finance the projected educational program will require approximately 15 mills, or 7 1/2 mills for each of the two years.

The current salary schedule for public school teachers in Grosse Pointe begins at $6,475 for a bachelor's degree and goes to $10,700 in 12 steps, a teacher with a master's degree begins at $7,075 and may earn $11,700.

Plows Hindered By Parked Cars

Farms Director of Public Service John DeFoe is asking the cooperation of the city's residents following snowfalls, in that all motor vehicles be removed from the streets so that snow plows can do a better job of clearing the thoroughfares.

He said that this service, which is rendered by the city, is hampered by the many cars left on the streets, forcing the plows to go around them, thereby causing piles of snow to be pushed against the vehicles, which is unavoidable.

The snow against the cars creates an imposition on the owners, who must go through the back-breaking labor of clearing the stuff away.

An added inconvenience, DeFoe said, is the possibility that the car owners might leave their vehicles parked at the curb with the snow around them, then if the stuff solidifies into a hard mass, the owners might not be able to free their cars until spring, or until this mass melts.

The city is anxious to give its citizens the best service possible, and can do so, if motor vehicles are parked either in driveways, or in garages, keeping them off the streets, where ever possible, after the snow has fallen.

Under the law, Mayor Kenneth McLeod automatically becomes a member of the trial board. He designated council day of March 1968, by first class mail, Lock told the council.

He said that the new values will be used by the governing bodies of the city, school and county, as a basis for spreading the amount of property tax to be raised for 1968.

The city comptroller-assessor said that each year rate taxpayers berate, in person, or by phone, the amount of assessment and taxes levied on their properties. This is not the fault of the city, school district, or the county. These governing bodies are merely complying with the State laws, which set the assessment requirements for the entire State.

To Offer Explanation
Lock, with the approval of the council, announced that there will be a public information meeting for interested taxpayers, in the Municipal Building, 90 Kerby road, on Thursday, January 25, at 8 p.m. to explain how assessments are made and taxes levied.

He said that no individual assessments will be reviewed at this meeting; just a general explanation of what is involved. There will be a questions and answers period, to clarify points not understood.

Teacher Pay

This reflects an upward adjustment made during the fall to keep the local salaries competitive with other area districts. Prior to this, Grosse Pointe had ranked 15th out of 19 in a comparison of base salaries, and 11th out of 19 if fringe benefits were included.

School officials indicate that although Grosse Pointe teachers now rate in fourth place, (including fringe benefits), out of the 19 metropolitan area school districts in the study, there is a strong possibility that the local salaries may not remain competitive for long.

Competition Is Tough
They cite such already-agreed-upon Detroit-area teachers' salaries for 1968-69 as:

Detroit — BA $7,500 to $11,200; MA $8,000 to $11,700.
Bloomfield Hills — BA $6,850 to $10,850; MA $7,500 to $12,400.

Warren — BA $7,000 to $11,620; MA $7,420 to $12,320.
School officials indicate that 82 per cent of the budget is earmarked yearly for salaries in all categories with the bulk of the total (67 per cent) for instructional purposes.

All qualified registered voters, whether property owners or not, may vote on Proposition #1 for operating millage in the February 26 election.

Playground

ance of the facilities and for the restoration thereof after its use; and that the facilities be supervised and policed by the City during the period of use, which in no case shall be earlier than 9:00 a.m. nor later than 9:00 p.m.; that the City indemnify the School for any damages arising out of the use of the playground and indemnify the School for any liability to the public arising out of such use; that a representative of the Department of Parks and Recreation shall be present during periods of use; and that the City will be responsible for locking the premises at the finish of any use of the property.

We continue to be anxious to resolve this problem so that our Board will have kept the promises which were made and so that residents, acting through the public recreation facilities, may enjoy the use of our School property. We have previously indicated this intention by signing and filing a proposed agreement in 1965.

Please let us have your reply to these suggestions.

Very truly yours,
THE LIGGETT SCHOOL
J. Joseph Jennings, Jr.

After the Liggett letter was read at the Council meeting, two representatives of the Shores-Woods Homeowners Association, John Jennings and John Sabel expressed their disappointment and frustration. Mr. Jennings said that he felt "Liggett School has no intention of opening their school for public recreational facilities."

Members of the Council expressed their views. Councilman William Heutteman said that he felt that Liggett was trying to be "a good neighbor." Councilman Benjamin Pinkos said that he felt the offer should be considered and discussed since any other action would be a negative approach.

The matter was then referred to the Council, meeting as a Committee-of-the-Whole, behind closed doors, with a promise of reporting back as soon as the matter is resolved.

Park Pools

ing under a new law, which went into effect on January 1, 1967, giving the department jurisdiction over public swimming pools, refused to grant the Park a permit to use the pool on the grounds that it was obsolete and failed to comply with even the minimum health standards.

After many meetings with city officials, the Department finally consented to allow the use of the pool during the 1967 season, but only under severe restrictions, with the understanding that the city take the necessary steps to construct a new pool.

DOUBLE TROUBLE
Willie Horton slugged two home runs in two different games for the Tigers in 1967. He had 19 in all.

dians" from "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana.

The Concert Band will play Sousa's "El Capitan March" and Holst's "First Suite in E-Flat for Military Band."

Sipos to Conduct
Selections from "The Sound of Music" by Richard Rodgers will be conducted by Keith Sipos, student teacher from Wayne State University. Mr. Sipos, a former student at Grosse Pointe High School, will graduate from Wayne State University in the spring with a BA degree in music education.

Following the intermission the Symphony Band will perform a widely-varied program which includes "Manhattan Beach March" by Sousa and "Symphony No. 5" by Shostakovich as well as selections by Wagner and Williams.

A highlight of the Symphony Band's performance will be "Spectrum" by Bielawa. This composition, written in 1967, features electronic sounds pre-recorded on tape.

"It is composed in a modern idiom and uses the twelve-tone system in which all notes of the scale are treated in succession and each tone is treated with equal importance," Director Reed stated.

Tickets for the concert are available from band and orchestra members and cost $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

LOSES THREE RINGS

William Shea, 14708 Rosemary, Detroit, reported to City Police on Thursday, January 4, that a friend, Mrs. Harry Lauer, of Monroe, Mich., had lost three rings valued at $2,500 in the area of 343 Fisher. The rings included a diamond solitaire, an oblong dinner ring and a gold wedding band.

City Approves Dutch Elm Bid

The City of Grosse Pointe approved a quotation of Shock Brothers for the 1968 Dutch Elm Disease Control Program at a meeting on Monday, January 15.

The program will include the application of a dormant DDT spray for approximately 2,450 elm trees located on city-owned property. It also includes two Dutch Elm surveys conducted during the summer.

As part of the defense against Dutch Elm disease, the City requires property owners to spray private elm trees. Shock Brothers will apply dormant spray to private elm trees for $3.25 per tree, a 25 cent increase over last year's price of $3 per tree. The price for City elm trees remains the same as last year, 90 cents per tree. The Dutch Elm surveys will cost $200. Based on these figures the City's program will cost an estimated $2,405. Shock Brothers will guarantee removal of all City elms lost to the disease after 20 trees, provided these trees have been infected by the elm bark beetle.

FARMS PAYS BILL

Ernst and Ernst, city auditors, presented the Farms council with a bill amounting to $4,700, for auditing service rendered. The council voted to pay the firm when the matter came up at its regular meeting on Monday, January 15.

School Officials Provide Library Background Data

School officials have provided background data on the public library issue (Proposition #3) of the February 26 election.

They indicated that the last expansion of the community's public library system occurred with the opening of the Central Library in January, 1953, a gift of Dexter M. Ferry, Jr. Since that time the population of the Grosse Pointes has increased from 47,000 to 70,000.

Over these 15 years the number of library users has increased from 11,000 to 31,000, the percentage of registered users has climbed 19 per cent, and the per capita circulation has increased from four books in the early 1950's to seven in 1966-1967.

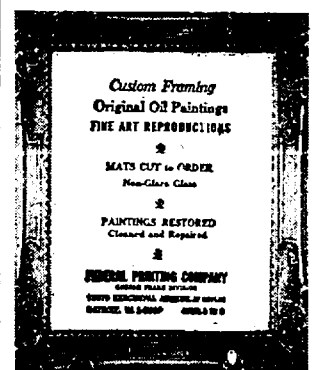

The proposed expansion of the Central Library, which includes additions to areas devoted to processing, reading room, children's room, offices, conference room, stacks, and audio-visual services, would amount to $1,385,950.

The growth of the community and the need for improved services is reflected not only at the Central Library but also in the branches. The space currently occupied by the Woods Branch in Parcels Junior High School and by the Park Branch in Pierce Junior High School, is urgently needed for student use at both locations. For example, for the past seven years the Woods Branch meeting room has been taken as a classroom.

The proposed new Woods Branch, to be constructed on the site of Parcels Junior High School, at Mack avenue and Vernier road, is slated to cost $399,000. It would house a work room, charge desk, reading room, children's room, stacks, and conference room.

The proposed new Park Branch, tentatively slated for a site in Jefferson avenue, would cost $309,000. The facility would include the same features as the proposed Woods Branch.

Cold Keeps City Firemen Hopping

The cold weather has kept City firemen hopping. On January 8, they responded with all apparatus to 460 Lakeland, the residence of Dr. Robert J. Silvery.

The firefighters found that the low water cutoff on the furnace had caused its malfunction and created the burning odor. They advised Mrs. Silvery to contact a serviceman.

On Sunday, January 7, they responded to a call from 400 Cadieux, and found the furnace would not stay lit. They shut off the furnace and again advised the resident, Mrs. Jerry Speck, to contact a serviceman.

Again on the 7th firemen responded to a call at 817 Washington, for a smoking fireplace. They found that a resident was burning Christmas tree branches in the fireplace and forgot to open the damper.

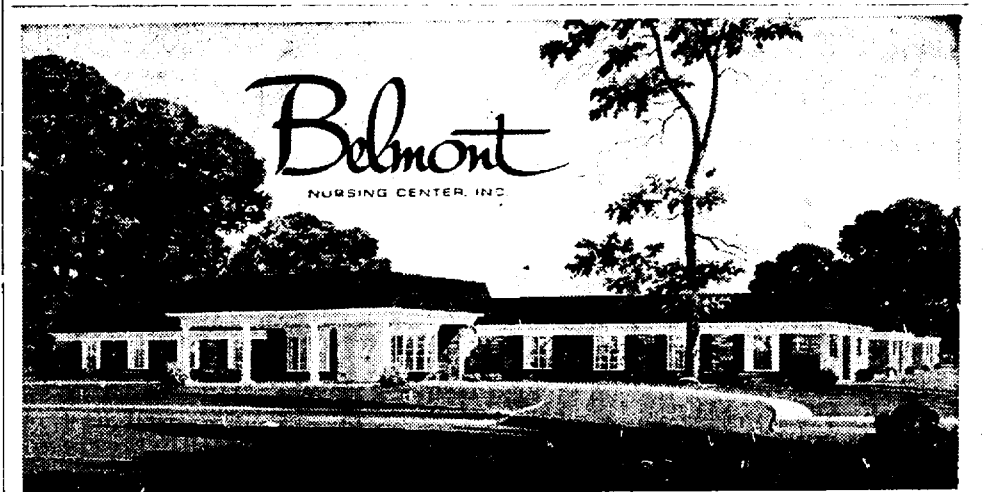

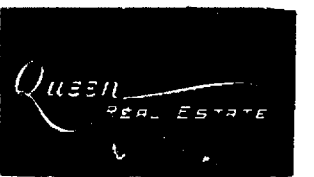

The smoke backed up through the house. Firemen opened several windows and used the Vac-U-Fan to clear it out.

Camera Club Meets Tuesday

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will meet Tuesday, January 23, at 8 o'clock in the evening, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, for social and educational session at which "The Fascination of Stereo" will be presented by Ed Hahn's "mystery guest."

Interested residents are welcome to attend the meeting.

Adopt Program For Freeways

A new engineering and enforcement program, aimed at making travel on Detroit's freeways safer and more efficient by assuring that all traffic in two lanes moves at the same speed and by restricting slow-moving traffic and trucks to the right lane, got underway on January 15 on the Ford Freeway between Livernois and Gratiot, according to Alger F. Malo, head of the Detroit Department of Streets and Traffic.

Under the experimental program, signs reading, MAXIMUM SPEED LANES... NO TRUCKS, are installed above the left and middle lanes of the freeways. Additional signs reading, LEFT LANE MAY BE USED FOR EXIT, are erected at interchange and exit locations in an attempt to fashion a more homogeneous grouping of traffic as to type and speed of vehicle.

Inspector Reuben Ricard, commanding officer of the Detroit Police Motor Traffic Bureau, whose unit handles the bulk of freeway traffic enforcement, pointed out that all vehicles should maintain maximum speed in the left and middle lanes when conditions permit, and that trucks and slow-moving vehicles should stay in the right lane.

Basically, any large truck or those which block the view of the road must keep in the right lane. If a vehicle ahead of the truck is stopped because of an accident or fails to maintain minimum speed, a truck may pull into the middle lane to make a reasonable pass, according to Ricard, but if the vehicle ahead is going 40-45 m.p.h. the truck should not attempt to pass.

Ricard also pointed out that trucks and slow-moving vehicles may use the left and middle lanes immediately prior to ramp or interchanges to make an exit or left turn maneuver. Otherwise they must stay to the right. He said the purpose was not to create two "fast tracks" but to keep traffic moving at maximum speeds, when conditions permit, during all hours of the day. Following an educational period, police will begin issuing violation tickets February 1.

Detroit Traffic Court Judges Richard M. Maher, John R. Kirwan and Andrew C. Wood have promised to give full support to the new program.

If the new program proves effective, it will be expanded to other freeway sections in Detroit and other locations throughout the state. It is a joint effort on the part of the Detroit Department of Streets and Traffic, the Detroit Police Department, Detroit Traffic Court, the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit, working through the Mayor's Traffic Action Committee, and the Michigan Department of State Highways.

Robert B. Evans, Jr. In Marine Training

Marine Private Robert B. Evans, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Evans of 984 Lakeshore road, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego, Cal., recently.

He will undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, the develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.

Ens. Thomas J. Cox On Aircraft Carrier

Navy Ensign Thomas J. Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Cox of 280 McKinley avenue, participated in "Bead Stringer" as a crewmember aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Bennington.

"Bead Stringer," a U.S. First Fleet training exercise, was held off the coast of Southern California and lasted from January 4 through the 13. It was planned to prepare the 23 ships and nine air units that participated, for conditions prevailing in Southeast Asia.

The exercise included advanced training in surface warfare tactics, anti-submarine, air and PT boat warfare operations, and shore bombardment. It was highlighted by surface-to-air missiles fired against drone aerial targets, live rocket and bombing attacks against targets in the San Clemente and Chocolate Mountain impact ranges, surface gunnery and air strikes to sink the target ship Ex-USS Abercrombie.

And now for the losers...

of the 1968 Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials.

Since everyone seems to be announcing the winners...
Ford thought you might like to know a few of the losers.

Class IV: Among the losers were Chevrolet Biscayne, American Ambassador, Chevrolet Impala, Plymouth Fury I and Plymouth Fury III.
(Ford Custom won and Ford Galaxie 500 was second.)

Class IX: Among the losers were Chevrolet Camaro, Plymouth Barracuda, Pontiac Firebird and Javelin. (Mustang won.)

Class VI: Among the losers were Buick Special Deluxe, Dodge Coronet, Olds F-85, Pontiac Tempest, Plymouth Belvedere, American Rebel—and Ford Fairlane. (Yes, Fairlane. It missed being overall winner by half a point. Still, it was the only car to place first in two out of three events.)

Ford Motor Company won more classes than all other car makers combined in the 1968 Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials just completed at Riverside International Raceway, California. NASCAR supervised the trials and determined winners on the basis of points scored in economy, acceleration and braking. If superiority in economy, acceleration and braking are among the qualities you want in a car, see the Better Idea cars from Ford.

Good Listening Series Offered

"Meet the Masters" is a course offered by the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society, the Grosse Pointe Public Library, and the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, and will open its Winter Series on January 24 with an exciting new venture in better listening.

"The Old and the New" could be the hoop skirt versus the "Mini"; the "Model T" versus a new sports car; or a Baroque Concerto of Bach's versus a modern version by Shostakovich. Each class of "Meet the Masters" will explore a musical example from the past and compare it with a similar form written in the twentieth century.

The music will be played on record and piano, analyzed and discussed during a "coffee break". Theme sheets, illustrating important melodies of the compositions to be played, will be passed out at each class. These have proven to be of great help in gaining a better understanding of the work.

Ruth Kaiser, a graduate of the Eastman School of Music with advanced study at the Cleveland Institute of Music and the Oberlin Conservatory, where she taught theory, will continue to conduct the "Meet the Masters" Series.

Appearing with Mrs. Kaiser on the February 7 program will be Bettejane Crossen, trombonist, and on February 21, James Upstill, clarinetist. Both Mrs. Crossen and Mr. Upstill are members of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra. They will better acquaint their listeners with their instruments and demonstrate with short musical selection, accompanied by Camella Ehrlich, pianist. Participants will be indebted to these guest artists for providing their talents.

A two-fold benefit is available to those who join this class. Coupled with the pure enjoyment of a rich musical experience will be the satisfaction of knowing that the major portion of the five dollar ($5.00) fee for the course will be used to provide summertime music scholarships to worthy Grosse Pointe High School students.

A reservation for the class may be made by calling the Department of Community Services at 885-3808 or 885-0271. The first meeting of the class will be January 24 at the Central Library.

Understanding Is Important

By Pepper Whitelaw

Although wars are won by firepower and brawn, the peace is sometimes assured by an outstretched hand and understanding of other people's problems. One of those with outstretched hands and understanding is Dr. Richard C. Mertz, Jr., a naval lieutenant, and son of the senior Mertz of Hampton road, who is in Camp Shields Chu Lai, Republic of Vietnam.

Chu Lai, which translates as "Little General" named after a Marine general, runs 10 miles along the beach and is only six miles deep. It is surrounded by mountains and lush growth.

In Chu Lai Dr. Mertz heads the Naval Mobile Construction Battalion Forty's civic action work. This is a purely voluntary job over and above his duties as sole medical officer for his battalion of 800 Seabees. The work centers around a medical and dental program called MEDCAP.

Must Work Fast

In this program Dr. Mertz, accompanied by a dentist and some military escorts enters small villages and hamlets, often by helicopter, to assist villagers. The group treats them, teaches them the need for personal cleanliness and dispenses much-needed medicines. Their work must be completed quickly because Viet Cong snipers are often near at hand and almost invariably alerted of the medical team's arrival.

Dr. Mertz is especially concerned about the children in Vietnam. Their mortality rate, he says, is appalling. In practically every tape he sends home to his parents he mentions the children, and his prayer that in some small way he has helped them.

Many of the Seabees feel the same way... so they decided to do something about the children this Christmas. They invited 137 children from a nearby Protestant Orphanage and children from nearby hamlets, to come and enjoy Christmas with them. They planned quite a day for the youngsters, most of whom had never heard of Santa Claus. The Seabees served them cookies, candy, fruit and Kool-Aid, which the little ones called "sweet drinking water."

See First Films

The Seabees arranged for the children to see films, one with a Vietnamese narrator, the other, silent color scenes of life in the United States. These were the first films many of these youngsters had ever seen and according to Dr. Mertz they were spellbound.

After the movies the children were given gifts which included combs, soap, wash cloths and first aid supplies, besides the usual dolls, model planes and rubber balls. Each child was assigned a big brother who showed the youngsters around the camp.

The children had a Christmas they'll never forget and the Seabees a "sharing" Christmas.

Dr. Mertz will be back in the States in June, serve one more year with the Seabees and then take up his residency in ophthalmology at Ford Hospital. But he'll remember his stay in Chu Lai and those faces of eager, hungry children for many years to come.

Correction

The News erroneously reported last week that Charles D. Bushey, 1810 Huntington, was issued a court notice to appear for improper backing on December 28. Mrs. Bushey was driving the car at the time of the accident and no violation ticket was issued. The News regrets the error.

St. James Church Seminar Jan. 21

"The Interaction of Faith and Reason" is the timely topic of the Sunday seminar to be given in an interesting and thought-provoking manner by scientist Dr. Leonard Roellig, of Grosse Pointe, on January 21 at 3 o'clock in the Green Room of St. James Lutheran Church, McMillan and Kercheval.

Historical evolution of the scientific method will be presented to illustrate the continuous interaction between faith and reason, according to Dr. Roellig, an elder of St. James and a physicist at Wayne State University. This review will lead to consideration of the similarity of and the difference between religious and scientific thought, and limitations of each will be discussed.

In addition to holding membership in the American Physical Society, he is also a member of the University Research Committee, the Faculty Advisory Committee, N.S.F. Institution Grant, and the Liberal Arts Grievance Panel. He is present chairman of the University Advisory Committee for Religious Affairs, and last summer was director of a Physics Research Program for inner city high school students.

Annihilation of matter and antimatter, particularly the annihilation of the anti-electron — the positron, is Dr. Roellig's special professional study interest. The scope of the investigations is also applicable to studies on the composition of the universe.

"Positron Annihilation," a book Dr. Roellig co-edited with A. T. Stewart, was published in 1967 by the Academic Press. He has also edited and authored numerous papers for scientific journals and professional meetings, which included conferences in London, 1963, and Moscow, 1966.

The entire community is invited to attend this first in a series of five stimulating Sunday seminars at St. James Church.

Parcels Having Parents Program

Parents of eighth and ninth grade students of Parcels Junior High are invited to attend an informal high school orientation program on Thursday evening, January 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Dr. William Craig, Principal of Grosse Pointe North High School, Mr. Welch and Mr. Curlett, Assistant Principals, and several others of the North staff will join Mr. Vincent Peterson, Principal of Parcels, Mr. Engelhart and Miss Wog, Assistant Principals, and the Parcels guidance staff in greeting parents and answering questions concerning enrollment procedures and other topics relating to those students who will attend Grosse Pointe North High School next September.

Questions, areas of concern, and suggestions relating to the "new" high school are encouraged in advance and may be sent or telephoned to Parcels. Additional questions may be presented at the evening meeting.

The first man was described as being about five feet ten inches tall, medium build and weighing about 160 pounds, and wearing a three-quarter length coat with a fur collar.

The second fellow was said to be between five feet eight inches to five feet ten inches tall, and wearing a waist-length jacket with a knit collar and belt. He was also wearing dark blue suede leather gloves. He was said to be slightly portly and possibly left-handed.

Investigation of the robbery was assigned to officers of the Detective Bureau.

He was arraigned in East Detroit Municipal Court, and remanded to the Macomb County Jail in default of $50,000.

Cobb was re-arrested by Detroit authorities on warrants charging him with the armed robberies of the Cunningham store, and arraigned in Detroit's Recorder's Court. He was returned to jail, after bond of $3,500 was set.

The Woods supermarket hold-up netted Cobb more than $1,100. It was not disclosed what his loot was in the two drug store robberies.

Police said that Cobb specialized in holding up supermarkets and drug stores in the Detroit Metropolitan area.

QUESTION:

"Where can I get the highest interest on bank savings in Detroit?"

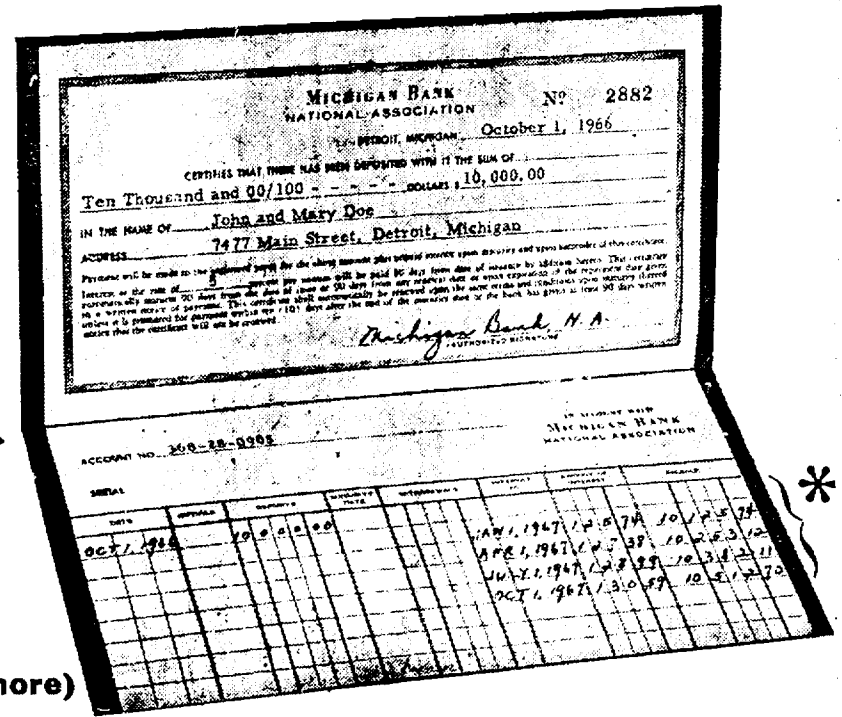

ANSWER:

At Michigan Bank. We pay 5% interest on time savings over $1,000.00. Since this interest is compounded daily and paid four times a year, you earn the highest interest in dollars and cents at Michigan Bank. Interest is paid every three months by adding to your time deposit passbook, credit to your regular savings passbook or by check, sent to your home.

THIS IS THE HIGHEST RATE THAT FEDERAL LAW WILL ALLOW ANY BANK TO PAY (except on certificates of $100,000 or more) AND IT'S AVAILABLE RIGHT NOW!

ACT NOW! Compare the interest you are now receiving on your savings at other financial institutions. Bring in your passbook and in a few short minutes you will be earning 5% compounded daily and paid quarterly with the safety and peace of mind that only a bank can provide!

Automatically renewed at every 90-day maturity unless you or the Bank have given notice that the time savings certificate will not be renewed.

 NOTE THE COMPOUNDING EFFECT:

Woods to Buy DPW Building

The City of Grosse Pointe Woods Council, at the meeting on Monday, January 15, voted to accept the bid of the Garrison Company of Oak Park for a prefabricated metal building for the Department of Public Works.

The Council, on the recommendation of City Manager Chester E. Petersen, had previously rejected bids for this project because Mr. Petersen felt they were too high. The bid received and accepted last night seems to bear out Mr. Petersen's decision.

The current bid includes an additional floor space of more than 300 square feet over the combined total floor space for the two buildings included in the previous bid. The rejected bid price for only the two buildings was approximately $102,000. The current bid for total construction costs is $61,444.

A more equitable comparison of construction costs can be made by comparing the cost per square foot of constructing the metal building only in the rejected bid price with the current bid. The rejected bid price was approximately $14 per square foot, while the new bid amounts to approximately $8.35.

Based on the rejected bid price, the new building, having 7,344 square feet of floor space would have had a construction cost of $102,816 plus architect and contingency fees, this bid reflects a construction cost of $61,444 plus architect and contingency fees, which amounts to a net savings of $43,800.00.

No alternate bids and specifications were prepared for a conventional masonry block building of the same size because previously bids for this type of building were higher than the prefabricated building and because it would have entailed the additional expense of a new set of plans and specifications prepared by the architect.

The building should be completed by the middle of May according to City Manager Chester E. Petersen.

DOUBLE DEFLATION

Mrs. Mary Palms, employee of Revco Drug Center, 17027 Kercheval, reported to City police on Friday, January 12, that twice in the past four days air had been let out of her tires, while her car was parked in the Area # 2 parking lot. It is believed that children did this as a prank. Police will keep a check on the area.

Honor Guest

VERY REVEREND LEO J. BURKE, O.S.A., will be the honored guest at the Eleventh Annual Benefit Dinner for Austin Catholic Preparatory School to be held Thursday, January 25, at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Father Burke is Prior of the Augustinian Community at Austin where he served for almost 15 years. During these years he has been Teacher, Prefect of Discipline, Golf Coach, and Director of Athletics. His continuing support of athletics at Austin will be recognized and rewarded by the completion of a playing field for baseball, football, and track which will be dedicated this spring as "Burke Field."

In addition to Father Burke's assignment at Austin, he is known by many Grosse Pointers for his work at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. As the first priest to assist the pastor, Rev. Ralph Barton in the new parish, he said Sunday Mass at Parcels School before the present Church was completed.

Proceeds of the Annual Benefit Dinner are used to supplement salaries of the lay faculty at the school.

WALTER ALLEN CROW

Walter Allen Crow, vice-president and secretary of the J. L. Hudson Company, died on Tuesday, January 16, in Grace Hospital.

Born in New York on January 6, 1915, Mr. Crow joined Hudson's in 1946. His service at Hudson's followed four years as a Special Agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Illinois and New York.

During many of his 22 years with Hudson's he held the position of corporate secretary. In 1966 he was appointed vice-president and secretary.

He attended Highland Park High School, Michigan; was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1937; and received an LLB from Harvard Law School in 1940.

Long active in community and civic affairs, Mr. Crow was associated with: Michigan Retailers Association; United Foundation; Detroit Symphony Orchestra; Institute for Economic Education; Michigan State Chamber of Commerce; United Service Organizations of Metropolitan Detroit; Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council, Inc.; Michigan State Bar Association; among others.

He was a member and past Director of the Detroit Athletic Club. Among other activities were the Adcraft Club of Detroit, Detroit Golf Club, The Hundred Club and the Country Club of Detroit.

He is survived by his wife, Janet; and three sons, Allen, Stephen and Jeffrey. Also surviving are his father, Allen B. Crow, and a sister, Mrs. Raymond A. Coppenger.

The funeral will be held Thursday, January 18 at 1:30 o'clock, from the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church in Lakeshore drive. The family has requested that any memorial gifts be sent to the Tribute Fund of United Community Services or the Harper-Webber Medical Center Fund, Harper Hospital. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

HOMER J. CRAIN

Funeral services for Mr. Crain, 83, of 220 McKinley avenue, were held on Monday, January 15, in the Verheyden Funeral Home. He died in his residence on Saturday, January 13.

Born in Ohio, Mr. Crain is survived by his wife, Olive; a son, Joseph; two daughters, Mrs. Paul Rickman and Mrs. Mary Allen; one sister and a brother.

He was a member of the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe.

Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Funeral services for Mr. Stephens were held on Saturday, January 6, at the Harris Funeral Home. He died suddenly on Thursday, January 4, in his residence at 829 St. Clair avenue.

He was retired from the Internal Revenue Department and was interested in civic and philanthropic activities.

Mr. Stephens was a past president of the Detroit Parliamentary Law Club and served as a member of the Board of Directors of First Church of Christ Scientist—Grosse Pointe. He was affiliated with Sigma Nu Epsilon fraternity, Detroit College of Law, and Liberty Lodge #209, F and AM.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia B., and two brothers, James A. and Thomas M. Interment was in Sommerset Center Cemetery.

Does one customer make an extra special year?

At Manufacturers Bank we think he does. And in 1967 we made additional efforts to better serve each of our present customers and to attract new ones. Manufacturers' traditional friendly service was emphasized. New banking services were initiated. Like Unichex, the first complete bank account. And a new personal checking account that did away with service charges. And a data transmission service designed to help businessmen speed up their cash flow. The result was a rise in total resources from $1,631,232,609 to $1,817,549,224. But it really came as no surprise. Because long ago we learned that personal attention to each individual customer is the best way for a bank to grow and prosper.

FINE FOODS ON THE HILL
WRIGLEY

The Story of Old Fashioned Personalized Service...

We haven't forgotten the "good old days" when fresh meat was cut especially for you by a friendly butcher who knew just what you wanted. Old Fashioned? Yes. Out Dated? No. Old fashioned good service and friendliness never go out of style at Wrigley on the hill.

HERE'S AN UNUSUAL AND
EXCITING NEW IDEA
FROM WRIGLEY...

"If your family likes hearty dishes, Wrigley has prepared a meat to enhance the flavor of this ever-popular specialty..."

BEEF for CHILI
CON CARNE

Heres an exciting recipe from Wrigley...

Crumble and brown 1-lb. ground beef in heavy skillet. Add 1 large sliced onion and one chopped green pepper; cook until almost tender. Add 3/4 cups canned tomatoes, 1 large bay leaf, 1 to 2 tsp. chili powder, 2 tsp. salt, 1/8 tsp. cayenne pepper and 1/8 tsp. paprika. Cover. Simmer gently 2 hours, adding the liquid of one 15 1/2 ounce can of kidney beans and water a little at a time, if needed, to keep consistency of thick soup. Add kidney beans; heat through. Remove bay leaves. Serve in small bowls. Serves 6.

Prices good thru Jan. 20.
Right to Limit

...and Old Fashioned Friendliness, too!
... a friendliness that just isn't found everywhere.

PTA at Maire Meets Jan. 25

Maire School will hold its first PTA meeting of the 1968 year on Thursday, January 25. Lawrence Kennedy, Assistant Superintendent of Professional Personnel and Edward Pongracz, Board of Education Trustee, will be guest speakers. They will discuss the forthcoming school election which will be held on February 26.

The classrooms will be open at 7:30 p.m. and the business meeting will begin in the gym at 8 p.m. followed by the millage discussion. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. All parents are urged to attend.

Chrysler Honors Sidney L. Terry

Sidney L. Terry, of 58 Moross road, was elected a vice-president of Chrysler Corporation at a meeting of the board of directors held in New York on January 11. He is director of engineering for the corporation.

Terry was born April 5, 1920, in Huntsville, Ala. He was graduated from Stanford University in 1941 with a bachelor's degree in engineering and with Phi Beta Kappa and Tau Beta Pi honors. He received a master's degree in automotive engineering from the Chrysler Institute in 1943.

SENIORITY

Tiger batting coach Wally Moses was in the major leagues for 17 years, but he played in only one World Series — with Boston in 1946.

School Election Looks to Future

Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, has announced three additional programs to be sponsored by PTA groups designed to inform citizens about the February 26 public school and library bond and millage election.

These are: Maire, Thursday, January 25, 8 p.m.

Kerby, Tuesday, February 13, 8 p.m.

Pierce, Thursday, February 22, 8 p.m.

Mrs. Hykes urged interested citizens to take advantage of these opportunities to inform themselves of the need for additional funds to maintain the present quality of the community's schools and libraries.

One of the school trustees will speak at each gathering.

Sex Offense Case Reported in City

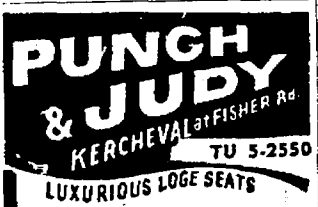

City Police received a report of indecent exposure from a resident on Tuesday, January 9. The woman told officers that her 10-year-old daughter had been approached while returning from ice skating at the Neighborhood Club.

The girl was at Neff and Waterloo when she was approached by a white male, about 30 years of age, with black hair, wearing a black jacket. He was driving a white car with a blue racing stripe down the side.

After inquiring if the 10-year-old knew a certain party he exposed himself and made a remark to the 10-year-old. He then headed west on Waterloo. Police are investigating.

Pierce School Concert Friday

Three instrumental music groups will combine their talents to present the twenty-seventh annual Winter Concert at Pierce Junior High School at 8 p.m. on Friday, January 19.

The Symphonic Strings will begin the program. In reality the string section of the Pierce Symphonic Orchestra, the 38 musicians will offer four numbers, an old English round, an early Sinfonia of Rancieri, the "Allegro" of LeClair, and an ancient dance tune of the mid-sixteenth century.

Next, a new group organized just this year, composed of 77 students, the Symphonic Band will begin its portion of the program with the famous march "Military Escort," by Harold Bennett.

This will be followed by "Westward Ho!", which concerns itself with episodes in the life of the migrating settlers of the West; the theme music from the television production "Wells Fargo"; and finally, "Sunnyland Overture," presumably written in honor of the state of California and its beautiful climate.

For the final portion of the evening's program, the Pierce Concert Band will present nine compositions of contrasting nature, beginning with the popular "The Billboard" march by Klover.

The remainder of the performance will be composed of an overture to the operetta "Lustspiel" by Keler-Bela; "Blue Tango," a popular favorite by Leroy Anderson; a fantasy based on Irving's classic story, "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," during which the audience will be able to follow in music the adventures of Ichabod Crane; two numbers in the style of the Tijuana Brass, "A Taste of Honey" and "Whipped Cream"; a novelty number, "Dry Bones," to challenge the ability of the percussion section; Harold Walter's suite based on the folk tunes of Jamaica; and, to conclude, a jazz number representative of the "big band" era, "Limehouse Blues."

Three students will announce the portions of the program, flutists Marie Farina and Donna Grunewald, and violinist Beth Kackley.

No band operates well without excellent work from the band managers. Pierce School has Bill Zeigler, Darwin Martin, Joe McDaniel, and Dave Woodrow in these important positions.

Tickets for the evening's performance are 50 cents for adults or 25 cents for students with activities tickets, and may be purchased at the box office the evening of the concert. Everyone in the community is invited to attend this annual event.

Woman's Club Group To Meet

Painting a picture with dried flowers?

That's exactly what members of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club Garden Group will be doing on Wednesday, January 24, at 12:30 o'clock when they meet for a workshop at the Hospitality Center, Kercheval avenue in "The Village."

Mrs. Arthur Smith will conduct the workshop.

Reservations may be obtained by calling 884-0532 or 885-5945.

"DA NANG IT ALL!"—A U.S. Marine picks himself up after a rice paddy spill 20 miles south of Da Nang, the big U.S. base in South Vietnam. The Marines were rushing across the field and exchanging shots with North Vietnamese regulars.

SOME WAGGISH U.S. Marine put up this sign at Da Nang in South Vietnam, and the sentiment probably is general.

HEART TRANSPLANT SURGEON Dr. Christian Barnard looks vehement as he tells reporters about the condition of his patient, Dr. Philip Blaiberg, in Cape Town, South Africa.

"EXCELLENT QUALITY" photos of the Moon's surface are coming from Surveyor 7 to Pasadena, Calif., and this close-up shows Surveyor's omnidirectional antenna boom with photometric chart mounted on the end. Scientists decided the rock debris was ejected from the crater Tycho some 18 miles distant in the distant past, like millions of years.

MEDICAL COST PROBE—These four Democrat senators head committees shaping a four-way investigation of medical costs, with emphasis on hospital charges and doctor fees. Senator Long's Finance Committee has Medicare under its wing; Senator Hill's Labor and Public Welfare Committee is delving into the overall hospital situation; Senator Hart's Judiciary Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly has been putting the scapel on the "fat doctor" business, those who give one examination to overweight persons and charge $10 for each succeeding visit while prescribing the same pill each time; Senator Ribicoff's Government Operations Subcommittee is going to look into the increases in doctor fees, 3.8 per cent in 1965, another 7.8 per cent in 1966 and about 7 per cent in '67.

A HALLMARK OF MEMORY—Earlier years are recalled by Mrs. Carl Sandburg, widow of the poet, as she looks at a 1923 photo of herself and her late husband at an exhibition in the Hallmark Gallery in New York. Show runs to Feb. 29.

FROM THE MOON, Surveyor 7 sends back this photo of Earth. Sunlit portion includes Australia, the East Indies, the Philippines, Eastern China and Japan. The North Pole is just to the right of the crescent's top horn.

TRANSPLANT FAILS—Dr. Adrian Kantrowitz talks about his second heart transplant patient (the world's fifth), from a 29-year-old woman's body to that of Louis Block, 57, a retired fireman, at Maimonides Hospital in Brooklyn, N.Y. It, too, failed because the heart was too small to pump blood fast enough for his body.

THE FEELING expressed by the message on this U.S. Marine's helmet no doubt is universal in South Vietnam. He is having chow after battling with North Viet 20 miles south of Da Nang.

HEARTFELT THANKS is no doubt the sentiment of Mrs. Ferne Kasperak as she meets Charles W. White, who authorized donation of his late wife's heart for transplantation into Mrs. Kasperak's husband. The meeting is in Palo Alto, Calif., where the historic operation took place.

WARSAW OUSTER—The Polish government ousted U.S. Army Lt. Col. Metzger, 42, a military attache at the U.S. Embassy in Warsaw, is from Quincy, Mass.

City to Install Lights in Alleys

The City of Grosse Pointe Council, at a meeting on Monday, January 15, approved the installation of lights in the alleys at four locations.

Upon the request of Paul Rouso, of Grosse Pointe Valet Cleaners, 17854 Mack, a street light will be installed in the alley behind the buildings on Mack, between Rivard and Washington.

In making a review of the area the Police Department also recommended that one street light be installed at approximately the middle of the alleys behind Mack, between University and Lincoln, and Lincoln and Fisher. They felt that the addition of these street lights would produce better pedestrian and traffic safety and assist in general police protection of these areas.

The cost of the installation of these lights, 175 watt mercury vapors at all four locations will amount to $192 in annual operating costs.

Scott to Talk About Vietnam

John Scott, special correspondent for Time magazine and assistant to its editor, will lecture at Grosse Pointe War Memorial, Monday evening, January 29, at 8:15 p.m. on "The Political and Economic Implications of Vietnam". In the tradition of Fries Forums, the audience will be invited to submit questions to Mr. Scott following his talk. They may range over the whole spectrum of the problem and no better authority could be found to answer them.

Mr. Scott, as well as being perfectly informed, is an excellent speaker. He comes to Fries Auditorium following an appearance before Detroit's Economic Club where he is much in demand. His appearance in Grosse Pointe will give couples, women, families, students and teachers a chance to be brought up to date on Vietnam. The Center hopes as many as possible will avail themselves of this opportunity. The admission is $1.50 with special group rates for students.

To Air School Election Issues

When local voters ballot in the February 26 public school and library millage, operating levy, and bond election, they will have the opportunity to help provide funds for more adequate facilities for many years to come.

School officials indicate that projected September enrollments through 1980 indicate a potential school population of more than 15,000 by then, as compared to today's enrollment of 12,623.

Proposition #2 authorized by the school trustees requests permission to seek a one-mill building and site levy for a 10-year period to finance a number of community-wide projects for Grosse Pointe's growing population.

For example, high on the list of priorities is the addition of classrooms to Barnes, Kerby and Maire Schools.

Other proposed uses for the funds to be provided if voters approve the one-mill levy for 10 years are these:

1. Remodeling of the junior high schools to include facilities needed to render them more functional as middle schools, such as instructional materials centers, large and small group learning areas.

2. Renovations and improvements at the present high school, including more adequate facilities for vocal and instrumental music, as well as a general modernization of the plant.

3. Replacement of the 40-year old heating plant at Trombly School.

Experts Giving Talks on Wines

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's "Know Your Wines" series which started Wednesday evening, January 17 at 8 p.m., with Joan Borgman O'Connor, proprietor of The Pontchartrain Wine Cellars, offering eight Burgundy wines for taste, comparison and discussion, will continue next Wednesday, January 24, at 8 p.m., with Mme. Charity Suezek leading discussion of the Bordeaux wines.

The wine course is $10 for a series of three evenings ending January 31 with Lester Gruber, proprietor of The London Chop House, discussing the German wines. One may purchase single evening tickets for $4.

GPHS Students One-Two in Test

Grosse Pointe High School students Dave McLaughlin and David Lapeza were winner and runner-up in the National Council of Teachers of English Achievement Test given last spring it was recently announced.

Over 8,000 English students throughout the United States took this test and Dave and David's scores were two of the best 800. The results of the test are sent to all the universities in the United States for scholarship recommendations.

The test, which was taken over a four-day period, involved English usage, skills, punctuation, autobiography, an impromptu, and a term paper. Dave McLaughlin would like to attend Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He plans to pursue a career in engineering technology.

Dave Lapeza has been accepted at University of Michigan. He plans to begin college with a liberal arts course and later study foreign languages.

CLOTHING STOLEN

Carl Larson of 34 Putnam place called Farnis police on Wednesday, January 10, and informed them that while his car was parked in the lot at the rear of Sears, Mack and Moross, a thief broke in and stole three suits and a sport coat from the rear seat. The loss is totaled at $221.

Pointe Players Making History

A first in Grosse Pointe High School's Pointe Players history will be the presentation of an original drama. The drama will be presented on Thursday, January 25, at 8:00 o'clock, in the auditorium. The title of the show is "History in the Breaking."

The skits for the production were written by Penny Blank, Dave Butler, Judy Davis, Bill Harrison, Linda Jensen, Theo Kanny, Chris Larsen, Kathy McLaughlin, Sue Morgan, Bob Taylor, Pete Tucker and Dennis Wickline, who worked on the skits after school and during Christmas vacation.

The skit will present the humorous side of such historic events as the stabbing of Caesar, Michelangelo painting the Sistine Chapel, the American Revolution and the discovery of the moon.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
I have been a resident of Grosse Pointe Woods since 1946 and a reader of the Grosse Pointe News for about this same period and am quite aware of the paper's policy regarding publication of civil and social activities. Also, as an officer of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, I have been keenly interested in the various articles which have appeared in your paper regarding safety on the highways and waterways.

For the past several years I have mailed you news media releases on the Auxiliary's Safe Boating Courses which included class schedules for our Division XII (Metropolitan Detroit area). For some reason unknown to me, the releases have never appeared in your paper. True, only one class on the schedule is held in the Grosse Pointes and this is the one at the War Memorial Center. This class has received its publicity releases from the Center. Other classes have been scheduled close to the Pointes and many Grosse Pointers who were unable to schedule their time to enroll at the War Memorial Center have enrolled at these neighboring classes.

In the interest of safety on the water and as a service to Grosse Pointers, I would like to see you at least publish the neighboring area classes so that your readers would be able to take advantage of other classes not too far from their homes. I have particular reference to the classes scheduled at the Public Health Service Hospital at the foot of Alter Road and those in St. Clair Shores and Warren, which are held on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. A copy of our current release and class schedule is enclosed.

The matter of boating education takes on a very serious tone this year in view of the State of Michigan Marine Act of 1967 which requires children between the ages of 12 and 16 to enroll in an approved State boat safety course to qualify for a boating safety certificate. As you know, there are many adults operating boats who would be much better boat operators if they were to enroll in these classes. The Coast Guard Auxiliary 8-Lesson Basic Seamanship Course is on the State of Michigan Conservation Department approved list of courses for instruction in safe boat handling.

Newspapers, in my opinion, are the finest media by which the safety message can be put across to the boating public and make them realize that broader education in safer pleasure boat handling will go a long way in forestalling possible boat operator licensing, which has been and is being commonly discussed in legislative circles.

If we can be of any further assistance to you in this respect, please call me at 884-6878 or 564-5258.

Sincerely,
August A. Behrens, PRCO
Public Relations Officer
9th Coast Guard District

To the Editor:
The Grosse Pointe Motion Picture & TV Council, in response to a letter published recently in the Grosse Pointe News, is grateful for this opportunity to answer some of the questions raised in Mrs. Charles Hoskins' letter to the Editor. At the same time, perhaps, we may appraise the community of the aims and accomplishments of our organization.

The television listing of programs issued in December, to which Mrs. Hoskins refers, was preceded by a resume of the purpose of the Council. Evidently it is not understood that the TV Bulletins are aimed at the elementary school level. As we stated, the list is sparse, and certainly does not cover all shows on TV. Shows reviewed are those which begin up to 9:00 p.m., assuming children are in bed thereafter. We do not seek to "promote bits of fluff . . . and tapscia pudding," but to assess what is offered; some are not good productions, but they are harmless to children. As stated in our bulletin, we use a positive approach, recommending but not condemning. It is our practice to commend the TV stations when they schedule worthwhile shows. Most recent was a letter sent to WXYZ (7), applauding their selection of movies for juveniles on the 6 o'clock Movie during Christmas time.

You will note that we suggested consultation of the TV guide for programs on Channels 50 and 56. We support WTVS (56) however, their schedule is unusual, some programs lasting 10 minutes to an hour. Not all hours are filled, thus daily appraisal would be too lengthy to be printed by us. Channel 50 is mostly reruns which have already been reviewed, or movies.

We realize that the TV Bulletin could be improved. We have been issuing them only twice a year, and thus have not been able to include the "Specials" and "White Papers." We have, however, requested advance notice from the TV stations regarding these special programs, and they will now be added to our monthly Movie Bulletins. We hope you find this helpful.

Our recent edition encourages letters to producers of TV, and may we add that letters to sponsors are effective. The editor of PTA magazine wrote, "They (networks) have said repeatedly that they are only concerned with ratings and profits in order to survive . . . Unless there are enough Americans to set up a strong demand for worthwhile programs, we cannot expect an adequate supply. For supply and demand work in communications as they do elsewhere." She urged members to write directly to sponsors, demanding higher quality programs.

We have been effective in several areas. The National Federation of Motion Picture Councils in convention last year, noted our efforts in encouraging classes in the schools covering the entertainment media. Discussion and analysis would help young people to be more discerning in their selections, as they are taught to be with reading material.

Again, we appreciate Mrs. Hoskins' interest. We welcome all constructive suggestions and criticisms. We suggest she attend one of our meetings, in order that she may be informed that our Council is a volunteer organization, making a sincere effort to uphold high standards in entertainment in this community.

Very truly yours,
Eileen D. DeClerq

Dear Sir:
There are many kind, considerate people in our Grosse Pointe area who see that food is provided for the songbirds during these bitter winter days.

However, many people do not feel it necessary to provide food for the sparrows. These brave little birds are very important in Nature's plan; they were important to the good Lord, and they should also be important to all of us.

Shouldn't we see that they get a "hand-out" too?

Sincerely,
MARGOT WRIGHT,

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

On January 25, the Grosse Pointe Central Library will be celebrating 15 years of service to the public. In the past decade and a half, we have come a long way in growth, change and service to the public. What now lies ahead? We would, of course, hope to "keep pace" and continue our good record for another 15 years. However, we have about reached the point where we wonder if we can improve on it with our present facilities. To put it succinctly, we need more room. This is true not only at the Central Library, but at both of our branches.

Parents of the very small fry, tune me in. Do your youngsters attend story hours? If so, I know they enjoy them, and my hat is off to the excellent job that all of our children's librarians do in story-telling. But, with better and/or larger facilities, there would be no need to use the Adult Room at Central (thus depriving adult patrons of its use), Staff rest rooms, or public areas that overlap or are adjacent to those used by adult patrons.

Are you a devotee of Family Film Night? Do you attend meetings of various sorts in our Central Building? Then you must have been witness at least once to how crowded some of these get-togethers can be. We do our best, but smallish rooms can only hold so many people.

Have you ever walked into our various reference rooms at peak hours (usually evenings)? Then have you checked our other areas for the overflow? And then have you, an adult patron, wondered where you were going to sit? Now, wouldn't it be nice to have a larger library, that could house the grownups, teenagers and children all at once, without overcrowding? We think it would.

Have you ever gone "behind the scenes" in any of our libraries? If you have, you would see work room space for all the staff at a premium. You would see book trucks loaded with books, blocking everyone's way. You would see gift (donated), books piled on the loading dock. You would see books and supplies stashed away under tables. You would see books, books, books everywhere, in piles, on shelves, under tables, on desks, in boxes and on trucks. We can seldom even see our cataloger—she's completely surrounded!

We are extremely proud of our audio-visual department and the fine work that it does. But physically, it is a "department" in name only. Mr. Titterington

On January 8, Mr. E. H. Maguire, the Canadian Consul in Detroit, presented to Mr. Titterington, our Audio-visual Head, seven 16-mm. Canadian travel films which will temporarily become part of the audio-visual collection in our Grosse Pointe Public Libraries. This generous loan was arranged by Mr. John Duerkop, Central United States Representative of the Canadian Travel Film Library. These films have just been released and will be in our collection for at least one year.

Students Hear Officials Talk

Woods Councilman William Huettelman and Park City Manager Robert Stone spoke before Jack Ford's American Government classes at Grosse Pointe High School in December.

Mr. Ford said he selected these speakers because they could give the students eye witness accounts of governments in action.

Mr. Huettelman spoke to the students on the operation of government on the city level and explained problems of city government.

Mr. Stone gave a background of the city of Grosse Pointe Park and explained the Council-Manager form of government.

Both speakers centered their discussions around problems that were of particular interest to the students.

What's New on THE HILL . . .

By Sibyl

Look Forward . . . to every morning and a cup of Hamlin's own Mocha Java coffee. This is just not company coffee and you might just as well be good to yourself every day. It's available in bean or ground at 89 Kercheval. Call TUXedo 5-8400 to order.

Forecast . . . the sun will shine at Margaret Rice January 18th and 19th. We predict this because Helga of California will be showing her sunny Spring and Resort Collection. Looking for a bit of brightness? Be sure to drop by and enjoy the balmy atmosphere and breezy styles.

Snurfing Anyone? . . . Join the fun this winter. Get the new "Snow Snurfer" at Gray's Racquet and Sport Shop . . . nine ninety-five. At 106 Kercheval, you'll find an excellent selection of winter sports equipment . . . CCM skates, Northland hockey sticks, toboggans . . . along with headbands, cozy caps and other keep-warm accessories.

Pick Patent . . . White is the winning fashion choice for Spring '68. It is found at the Touch of Elegance, 63 Kercheval in the Colonial Federal Building in style-size smallish handbags and the new "mini trunk." Colorful patents and navy are popular as ever. You have a choice of pure shape with no trim or a treasure of hardware accents.

Beauty Bonus . . . There's a special on Elizabeth Arden's Hand Lotion. The sixteen ounce size is three dollars until the end of the month at Trail Apothecary, 121 Kercheval. The fragrances are Blue Grass, June Geranium and for the first time in the hand lotion . . . Memoire Cherie.

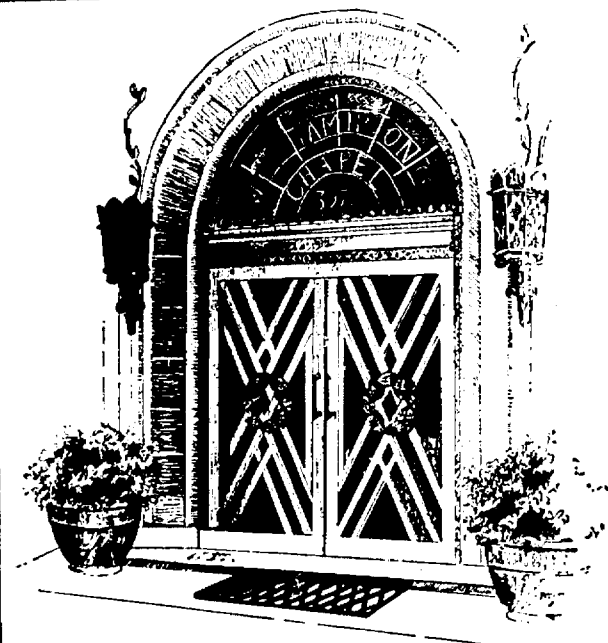

Brighten Your Correspondence . . . with the hi-colors of the new fresh note papers at The Dants —The League Shop. Since you're "Top Shopping," pick a few hearts, flowers and smiles while you have the best pickings of valentines.

Do You . . . like unusual and beautiful furniture? There is a French chair at Denier, 77 Kercheval, with an interesting nutmeg finish. It is armless with a velvet, loose cushion. See this unique and charming chair. It might be the perfect extra chair for your living room.

Virginia Williams . . . reminded us to check the sale at 79 Kercheval. We did. It's worth looking into . . . While you are selecting messages and cards for your many valentines.

A Flock . . . of signed bird prints flew into the Mermaid after the holidays. They are cheering up the place along with new floral and nautical prints. They are all handsomely framed. Artist approved and signed reproductions of the original drawings of Jean Harding Brown are matted but not framed. These would be excellent for a man's office or library. They are scenes from her Metropolitan Detroit Collection.

Get Away From It All . . . One convenient trip we know is to the Bronze Door, 123 Kercheval. You can adventure through a menu of delicious food and gourmet specialties while Les Osborne provides the delightful traveling music. Reservations . . . 886-1932.

Over a century of service.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Tonight's a Special Night at the Detroit Yacht Club, for tonight DYC officially opens its 100th Anniversary Year.

And tonight's a Special Night for Richard S. Daley, of Lakeland court, 1968 DYC Commodore who, with Mrs. Daley, will host the Commodore's Cocktail Party which concludes with the impressive and traditional Grand March signaling the start of DYC's 1968 Officers' Ball.

Second-generation Commodore Daley will be following the footsteps of his father.

Thirty years ago, in 1938, Commodore R. Ray Daley led the Grand March, wearing the same diamond pin of office his son, Commodore Richard Daley, will wear this evening.

Commodore Daley and his wife, Dorothy, will have as their special guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelleher, of Boston, Mass., and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Daley, of Minneapolis, Minn.

Following close on Commodore and Mrs. Daley's heels in the Grand March parade will be DYC's other 1968 officers and their ladies: Vice Commodore and Mrs. Kenneth E. Gunsolus, Rear Commodore and Mrs. William D. Cohan, Secretary and Mrs. Joseph M. Bellardi, Treasurer and Mrs. G. Ray McPherson, Jr., Fleet Captain and Mrs. Donald H. McIver, Honorary Fleet Captain and Mrs. Fred W. Ryppam, Fleet Surgeon F. Sinclair Finch, M.D., and Mrs. Finch, and Fleet Measurer and Mrs. Menor Hewitt.

Open House at GPYC

Traditionally, Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's officers and directors host their annual Open House at the Club on New Year's Day — but this year, New Year's fell on a Monday, and the Club is ALWAYS closed Mondays, and besides, everyone was tired out after two solid weekends of partying . . . so, the annual GPYC Directors' Open House was postponed until the following Sunday afternoon, January 7.

And, perhaps because everyone was "rested" for the party, everyone agreed it was one of the BEST GPYC Directors' Open Houses ever . . .

Commodore and Mrs. John F. DeHayes were at the head of the receiving line to greet GPYC members as they entered the ballroom.

Short and to The Pointe

Students named to the Dean's List for the Fall Term at Alma College include: ELIZABETH CODDINGTON, daughter of MR. and MRS. WILLIAM H. CODDINGTON of Lincoln Road, who had a perfect 4.0 average. A senior, she is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

SYLVIA RUTLEDGE, daughter of MR. and MRS. AARON L. RUTLEDGE of Kensington road, who had a 3.66 average. A junior, she, too, is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

MARY JOY WOODROW, daughter of MR. and MRS. ALAN WOODROW of Maryland avenue who had a 3.70 average. She is a freshman.

DAVID C. MCKEE, son of MR. and MRS. MARTIN T. MCKEE of Ridgemont road, who had a 3.50 average. A senior, he is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

LINDA STEIGER, of Allard road, was among the 68 outstanding high school seniors learning about police-community relations this month as a winner of the 1968 Detroit Police Department Youth Award. The program is part of the first major innovation in the Youth Award since it was started by Chrysler Corporation in 1957. The winners are selected on the basis of character, loyalty, leadership, activities, reliability and scholarship. Linda attends St. Mary's Commercial High School.

M. LLOYD MARTIN, son of MR. and MRS. M. L. MARTIN, of Roslyn road, has been accepted and has begun his studies at the Detroit College of Business, where he is a candidate for a Bachelor degree and is majoring in Data Processing.

MR. and MRS. JAMES A. ECKEL, both former Pointers, received their Masters degrees from the University of Michigan in December. James received an MA in Business Administration and his wife, the former SUSAN GROEHN, received her Masters in the Arts. Both Susan and James are 1961

Enjoy President's Preview

Intermission conversation occupies MRS. WILLIAM D. LAURIE, JR., (left), of Merriweather road, and MR. and MRS. FRED H. MCINTIRE, of South Edgewood drive, at the fifth annual President's Preview, inaugurating the fifth season of Wayne State University's Hilberry Classic Theatre. The Saturday night, January 6, performance of Georges Feydeau's French farce, "A Flea In Her Ear," raised $28,000 in fellowship funds for the theatre's 37-member resident student company. A goal of $25,000 had been sought by the Hilberry "Understudies," a group of Detroit-area women which sponsors the annual preview. The "Understudies," under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph A. Vance, Jr., of South Deeplands road, raised the fellowship money through the sale of tickets at $100-a-couple to the black tie Preview.

Grosse Pointe High School graduates and both received their Bachelors degrees from the University of Michigan in 1965. They have resided in Ann Arbor since their marriage in August, 1965. Susan is the daughter of MR. and MRS. THOMAS E. GROEHN, of Lochmoor boulevard, and James is the son of former Lochmoor boulevard residents DR. and MRS. ALBERT ECKEL.

MR. and MRS. BRUCE D. BIRGBAUER, of McKinley avenue, announce the birth of a son, JOHN WOOD BIRGBAUER, January 13. Mrs. BIRGBAUER is the former MARGARET ANNE WOOD, daughter of MR. and MRS. H. GORDON WOOD, of Touraine road. Paternal grandparents are the GORDON J. BIRGBAUERS, of Sunningdale drive.

Grosse Pointe Farms "Junior Miss" MARILYN HORN, a student at St. Paul High School, will be one of 47 outstanding Michigan High School seniors participating January 27 and 28 at Pontiac Northern High School in the 10th annual Michigan Junior Miss Pageant, sponsored by the Pontiac Jaycees.

Plans For April 4 Fashion Luncheon To Be Discussed At Annual Gathering; New Officers To Be Elected

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee will hold its third annual meeting and election of officers at the Lochmoor Club next Thursday, January 25. The day will begin with a social hour from 11:30 to 12:30 o'clock.

This will be followed by luncheon, the meeting and a musicale.

Luncheon reservations are being received by Mrs. Edward Fromm, of Seminole avenue, Detroit, until Tuesday, January 23.

Program chairman Mrs. Philip C. Baker has announced that the soloist for the Musicale will be Mrs. Hubert P. Watson, pianist. Mrs. Watson has a Masters degree in Piano Music from Wayne State University.

She spends her summers studying at Fountainbleau and is a pupil of Madame Gautier and the younger Casadesus.

Officers and chairmen will submit their annual reports at the meeting.

The new business before the assembly for discussion will be a Fashion Show Luncheon scheduled for April 4.

Plans for this January 25 annual meeting are being supervised by Mrs. R. Gerald Jordan, social chairman.

Nimocks-Haas Rites Read In November

Bride Designs Her Own Wedding Gown Of White Thai Silk; Newlyweds Are Making Their Home In California

A reception at the Stanhope avenue home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Haas, followed the Saturday, November 18, wedding of Mary Katherine Haas and Lieutenant Robert Franklin Nimocks, IV, USA.

The Reverend Richard Boulet, O.P., of Providence, R.I., officiated at the 1 o'clock ceremony in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church.

The bride designed her wedding gown of white Thai silk. Her short, bouffant veil was fashioned of illusion, and she carried an arrangement of Fuji mums.

She was attended by her sister, Ginni Haas, who wore an aqua silk dress and carried a bouquet of Fuji mums. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Franklin Nimocks, of Hattiesburg, Miss., asked his father to act as best man.

Seating the guests were the bride's cousins, John S. Kushman and James A. Kushman. For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Haas selected a pale pink dress, with silver accents, pink accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose an ice blue dress with home accessories. Her corsage, too, was fashioned of pink cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds are making their home in Mill Valley, Calif. Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's sisters, Frances Gayle and Mittie Jo Ann Nimocks, both of Hattiesburg, and Patsy Vlkjan, of Boulder, Col. The bride's two grandfathers, John J. Haas and Arthur A. Meyer, were also present.

The bride is a 1966 graduate of Ursuline College for Women, Louisville, Ky. Her husband was graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1965.

Frenzel-O'Brien Troth Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur William O'Brien, of Port Huron, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Robert Charles Frenzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leo Frenzel, of Kenwood court. A June wedding is planned.

Miss O'Brien was graduated from Marygrove College in 1965 and has been teaching for the past three years at St. Bede School, Southfield, and Guardian Angel School, Detroit.

The prospective bridegroom was graduated from Loyola University, Chicago, Ill., in 1963.

July Bride

Planning a July 20 wedding are KATHLEEN ELLEN WENZEL and James Devereux Kendall, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Wenzel, of Country Club drive.

The bride-elect attended Michigan State University and is presently completing her junior year at Eastern Michigan University.

The prospective bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren F. Kendall, of Berkshire road, is a junior at the University of Michigan, where he is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

LYNN TOWNSEND was the principal speaker at a January 10 dinner honoring HANS GEHRKE, Jr., of North Deeplands road, recently elected president of the United States Savings and Loan League.

Elect Children's Hospital Heads

The annual meeting and luncheon of the Children's Hospital of Michigan was held Wednesday, January 17, at the Statler Hilton Hotel, with the board of trustees and the members of the medical staff in attendance.

At the business session Mrs. Gerard R. Slattery, of Lakeshore road, was elected for her 13th term as president of the board, with all other officers returned to their present positions.

The four vice-presidents are John W. McEachren, Eugene J. Arnfeld, Mrs. Lynn A. Townsend and Mrs. Gaylord W. Gillis. A. C. Ledyard was re-elected secretary, Mrs. John S. Coleman, assistant secretary, William G. McClintock, treasurer, and Chester F. Ogden, assistant treasurer.

At the luncheon, Mrs. Slattery paid tribute to Clifford D. Benson, M.D., who is retiring as Surgeon-in-Chief of Children's staff, and Frederick J. Fischer, M.D., who retired during the year as Orthopedic Surgeon-in-Chief.

She also announced the appointment of Jack H. Hertzler, M.D., as the new Surgeon-in-Chief successor to Dr. Benson.

Re-appointed were John J. Pollack, M.D., Chief of Staff and the following: A. Jackson Day, M.D., Orthopedic Surgeon-in-Chief; Cecil W. Lepard, M.D., Ophthalmologist-in-Chief; Joseph

O. Reed, M.D., Radiologist-in-Chief; Lyle G. Waggoner, M.D., Otorhinolaryngologist-in-Chief; Paul V. Woolley, Jr., M.D., Pediatrician-in-Chief; Wolf W. Zuelzer, M.D., Pathologist-in-Chief.

Mrs. Slattery extended an official welcome to Wendell W. Anderson, Jr., who accepted the Board's invitation to become a trustee of Children's Hospital.

As president of the United Foundation, Mr. Anderson has long been familiar with the services and programs of the hospital and its plans for its new building in the Medical Center to be completed late next year.

Of great interest was the address given by Professor Arthur F. Southwick whose topic, "Whose Responsibility for Quality Care—the Hospital's or the Doctor's?", brought many areas of liability to the attention of the trustees and medical men present.

This was a program which H. V. Hullerman, executive vice-president of Children's, heard at a professional meeting in Denver last summer; then he invited Professor Southwick to Detroit for this occasion.

Special guests for the luncheon were Mrs. John N. Failing and Mrs. Benjamin Young, of the Medical Center Development Corporation Honorary Trustees Icie Macy Hoobler, Ph.D., and Edwin J. Anderson; Jacques Cousin and Edward Tiescher, of the United Foundation; Richard F. Huegli, of the United Community Services, and D. Eugene Sibery, of the Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Junior Group Active

The Junior Group of the Detroit Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma met on Tuesday evening, January 16, at 8 o'clock at the Colonial road home of Mrs. Thomas Chuba, who had asked Mrs. Harry G. Sellars to serve as co-hostess.

Following a business session at which Mrs. Frank Penirian, Jr., presided, the women made Valentine favors for Rehabilitation Institute patients.

GEORGE R. SHORT, of Barrington road, will receive his Bachelor of Science degree from Northern Michigan University at commencement ceremonies Saturday, January 20, on NMU's Marquette campus.

Couple to Talk About Africa

"Africa's Our Home" is what the handsome young couple, Betty Bruce and Jock Leslie-Melville will talk about at their Detroit Town Hall appearance Wednesday, January 24.

This husband and wife team conducts "non-hunting tours for non-rich Americans" out of Nairobi, Kenya. Somehow, in their lecture, they manage to convey not only some of their misadventures in an adopted country but some of the historical and political problems as well.

Betty Bruce is an ex-fashion model and photographer who contributes to McCall's, Cosmopolitan, and other top name magazines. She was associate producer of a NET special on Ethiopia and acted as cameraman on an award-winning documentary on leprosy in Africa.

Jock is the grandson of a Scottish Earl and has lived in Africa most of his life. He has been executive officer of the first non-racial political party in Kenya and speech-writer to African nationalist leader Ronald Ngala.

The program will be held at 11 a.m. in Fisher Theater, followed by luncheon at the Rathskeller.

DENNIS MAXEY, of Severn road, is among the nine-member Hillsdale College Alumni Traditions Committee which sponsored a series of historic exhibits currently on display at Hillsdale.

Lawyers Wives Plan Art Tour

The Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives have planned "An Afternoon of Art" at the Detroit Institute of Arts on Tuesday, January 23.

Luncheon will be served at 12 noon and afterwards there will be an hour's tour of the galleries. Guests are cordially invited.

Marilyn Koch Wed To Gregory Bielski

Newlyweds Leave For Vacation In Puerto Rico After January 5 Ceremony In St. Matthew's Church And Reception At Vintage House

A reception at Vintage House, Fraser, followed the Friday evening, January 5, wedding of Marilyn Koch, daughter of Mrs. Rosemary Hodel, of Anita avenue, and Ralph Koch, of Olympia, Wash., and Gregory Bielski, son of the Edward Bielskis, of Dearborn.

Scene of the 6:30 o'clock double ring ceremony, at which The Reverend Daniel Compto officiated, was St. Matthew's Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown, accented at waist and hemline with lace and pearls. Her illusion veil fell from a lace-and-pearl-trimmed satin headpiece, and she carried a spray of white carnations and rosebuds.

In a pink chiffon frock, carrying an arrangement of dark red roses, was Mrs. J. Ralph Chamness, matron of honor.

Bridesmaids Mrs. Hal Lancaster, Mrs. Jay Hooker and Kathleen Bielski wore raspberry chiffon dresses and carried sprays of pink carnations and red rosebuds.

Mr. Johnstone To Claim Bride

The engagement of Anne Marie Stone, daughter of Mrs. Frank J. Stone, of Shore Club drive, St. Clair Shores, and the late Mr. Stone, to Peter Barnard Johnstone was announced recently at a small family dinner at the Lochmoor Club.

The bride-elect was graduated from St. Paul High School and is presently associated with American Airlines.

Her fiancé, son of the W. Gordon Johnstones, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, is a graduate of the University of Michigan and Wayne State University and former Naval Officer.

A March 23 wedding is planned.

Fine Pointes of Real Estate

By C. W. Toles, Jr., Realtor
"WHAT, NO ZONING?"

Newcomers to Grosse Pointe, as well as many longtime residents, are puzzled by the sight of a street containing homes worth $75,000 adjacent to one lined with houses worth only a fraction of that amount, or by the existence of a store in a residential area. Since newer communities have more uniformity in land development, they ask if the Pointes have no zoning ordinances to control growth.

The Pointes do have very strict zoning ordinances now, but they did not come into general use until after a certain Supreme Court decision in 1926. Prior to that, communities attempted to control growth and development with other ordinances, such as those excluding nuisances. A lack of uniformity in any community which was in the development stages for many generations before controls were enacted.

When the first subdivisions were established at random throughout the Pointes, this was largely a farming area. An ordinance adopted by the Village of Grosse Pointe in 1921 read, "Every slaughter house in this Village shall be white-washed inside at least once in every month between April and November." Any community concerned about problems such as this obviously didn't foresee becoming one of the country's leading residential suburbs, and didn't have the means to plan ahead very effectively even if it had anticipated it.

Park Avenue Hillbillie To Give "Preview" Performance At Club's Annual Fathers And Sons Get-Together Saturday Afternoon

There'll be "Feudin', Fightin' and A-Fussin'" when Dorothy Shay, the Park Avenue Hillbillie, comes to the Detroit Athletic Club for a week's stay beginning Saturday, January 20, as the star of the Club's first floor show of the new year.

Miss Shay, who parlayed a hillbilly tune into a million dollar career, is being awaited by a sell-out crowd anxious to hear her give out with the many old standbys that have made her dear to the hearts of a generation of DACers.

She'll be heard nightly through Friday, January 26, except for Sunday, and she's also slated to woe another generation of DACers when she sings for the annual Fathers and Sons Get-Together at the Club on the Saturday afternoon of opening night.

Among those looking forward to an evening of gaiety are Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. McCaffrey, who have invited some 40 friends to join them. They'll greet their guests in the Club's private dining rooms where cocktails will be served, then move on to the main dining room where places will be marked at two long tables.

The guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Janarius A. Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Koenig, the Gerald Hahns, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O. George, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold D. Freydl, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Howenstein and the Louis A. Fishers.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bartrop, the C. Lyman Cranes, Mrs. Robert J. Byrnes, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Conway, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Connolly, Dr. and Mrs. Nelson W. Diebel, Mr. and Mrs. Jervis C. Webb and the Thomas K. Fishers.

Still more in the McCaffrey party will be Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R. Slattery, Dr. and Mrs. Edward J. Shumaker, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet E. Tracy, the Herman L. Wecklers, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Walker, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whyte.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Goodnow have invited Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. J. Kotcher and Judge and Mrs. Edward S. Piggins to join them. Among others planning to be present are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rentschler, who will have a table for eight, the George J. Codd's with places marked for 14 and the Senior Gardellas, who will have a table for six.

Also with reservations for opening night are H. F. Verbiest, Chester Jankowski, Otto F. Hamlin, Charles W. Elliott,

Mermaids Win For Star of Sea

By Chris Thiemann
In an unexpected victory, Tuesday, January 9, Star of the Sea swimmer, downed their traditional rivals, Rosary High School, by an unbelievable 53-34.

Mary Beth Ryan, a sophomore turned in two firsts in the 50-yard freestyle and the 100-yard freestyle. Maureen Shields and Sharon Grob got one first each, in the breast stroke and back stroke respectively.

Other outstanding performances were turned in by Sue Sneathcamp, freshman, and Kathi Ruta, diver, and Our Lady Star of the Sea's medley relay team consisting of Martha Meyers, Sue Gorski, Maureen Shields and Sharon Grob.

If Star of the Sea can beat St. Paul at their next meet they may be well on their way to another Duo-Meet Trophy.

St. Paul's Girl Cagers Victors

After a hard fought 36-17 victory over an experienced St. Cyril's team, the St. Paul girls' basketball team scored another victory over their neighborhood rivals, St. Ambrose, 39-19, last Sunday.

The Lakerettes now hold sole possession of first place in their CYO division. The other contender, St. Martin's was beaten Sunday by St. Philip Neri.

Jan Gilbert led the scoring for the Lakerettes with 16 points and provided the team with 12 offensive rebounds.

Elaine Quinn followed up with 8 points while Sue Smolenski and Karen Schoele each added six points.

Slate Theatre Arts Production Jan. 26

Not everyone is resigned to mid-winter doldrums, content to hibernate until "The Big Thaw." A number of Grosse Pointe members of The Theatre Arts Club of Detroit have been braving the icy blasts to journey to The Players Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue for regular rehearsal sessions.

Their polished roles are ready for the drama group's second production of the season on Friday, January 26, at 1:30 o'clock.

The afternoon program will include something for everyone: Drama, comedy and music.

Mrs. Joseph N. Jennings will direct and accompany the women's chorus as they blend their voices in selections from Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Sound of Music."

Vocalists are Mrs. Henry R. Klein, Mrs. Ellsworth W. Allison, Mrs. Richard C. Lutey, Mrs. Charles F. McLaughlin, Mrs. Robert E. Schultheiss and Mrs. Armand DeGaetano.

Two one-act plays are scheduled for the afternoon's entertainment: "Apple Pie," a drama by Margaret Kressman, and "Tincture of Spells," a comedy about witchcraft and magic potions written by Joan Pearson.

The cast of "Apple Pie" includes Pointers Mrs. Milton W. Volkens and Mrs. R. Sidney Sinclair.

Roles in "Tincture of Spells" are filled solely by area residents Mrs. John W. Nelson, Mrs. Frederick S. Neumann, Mrs. Rex L. Brophy, Mrs. John Denler, Mrs. Kenneth P. Locke and Mrs. Glenn W. Carpenter.

Barbara Tarbuck-Jones is guest director for the two plays. Throughout the weeks of rehearsals there has been obvious a somewhat special director-performer rapport.

The cast proudly remembers that just a few years ago Barbara was "their" student of dramatic art at Wayne State University. At that time she was the recipient of Theatre Arts' Eva Woodbridge Victor Scholarship.

After graduation she appeared with several repertory companies, did summer stock, received a master's degree in theatre from the University of Michigan and spent a year in England on a Fulbright at the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Arts.

In addition to her role of director for Theatre Arts' second production, Barbara has also designed the sets, costumes and properties for the two plays. Her imaginative and unique staging results in a technique suggestive of theatre-in-the-round.

Assistant to the director is Mrs. Kenneth Howard and production adviser is Mrs. James B. Doll.

Committee details have been delegated to Mrs. Oliver E. Frey, costumes; Mrs. William R. Evans and Mrs. Walter E. Willard, properties; and Mrs. William H. Bundesen and Mrs. Montford R. Graybiel, makeup.

Radke, Walter L. VanGoethem, Jr., and James A. Zinn.

This year, four girl violinists, dressed in green sequined mini-dresses, provided the entertainment, and the Club set out a gourmet buffet of assorted hors d'oeuvres.

And many members who brought their families to the Open House stayed on to enjoy a relaxed buffet dinner at the Club.

GPYC's ladies have a special activity of their own planned for today, a "travel" fashion luncheon featuring resort and cruise wear collected by Touch of Elegance.

Chairman of the party, which begins with cocktails at 11:30 o'clock, is Mrs. Robert M. Frazer.

Her committee members include the Mesdames Charles Gauss, William Goodson, C. Keith Manglos, Telesforo Mascarin and Walter L. VanGoethem, Jr.

Junior Founders' Dinner

Not to be outdone by their "elders," who've scheduled several programs in conjunction with the "Romantic Art in Britain" exhibit currently on display at the Detroit Institute of Arts, the Junior Council of the Institute's Founders Society has planned a special program for this Tuesday evening, January 23.

The Juniors will gather in the Institute's Sculpture Court for cocktails at 6:30 o'clock, dinner an hour later and a talk on the exhibit by Dr. Frederick Cummings, Assistant Director, Detroit Institute of Arts.

1968 Opera Luncheon

The Detroit Institute of Arts seems to be a very popular gathering place this season: It's to be the scene Monday, January 22, of the 1968 Opera Luncheon sponsored by the Detroit Grand Opera Association.

At the luncheon, which begins at 11:45 o'clock in the Institute's Great Hall, plans for the 1968 visit of the Metropolitan Opera to Detroit and the schedule of performances for Overture to Opera VII will be announced.

Francis Robinson, the Met's assistant manager, will be the guest speaker.

The afternoon will conclude with the Detroit Grand Opera Association Grinnell Foundation auditions, to be held in the Arts Institute's Auditorium.

Navy League Women's Council

Members of the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League of the United States will gather next Thursday, January 25, in the Detroit Athletic Club's Georgian Room, for a luncheon and meeting.

Mrs. Robert G. Kales, of Cloverly road, and Mrs. Frank B. Nair, of Detroit, are taking reservations.

Sisters Of Sick Poor Benefit Night Slated

World Premiere of "George M." Starring Joel Grey Is Scheduled At Fisher Theater In February; "Friends" Sponsor Evening

The world premiere of "George M.," a musical version of the life of George M. Cohan, which opens at the Fisher Theatre Saturday evening, February 10, at 8:30 o'clock, will be a benefit performance, with all proceeds going to the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor, of West Boston boulevard.

"Cabaret" star Joel Grey will appear in the title role, and the songs are Cohan's own.

The Sisters' Auxiliary, "Friends of the Sick Poor," is sponsoring the theater party.

Assisting area chairman Mrs. Walter B. Fisher and honorary chairman Mrs. Januarius A. Mullen are Pointers Mrs. L. Verne Ansel, Mrs. Joseph E. Bejin, Miss Margaret Bradford, Mrs. Harry C. Dunn, Mrs. Harry B. Howenstein, Mrs. Arthur G. Kirchner, Mrs. Harry J. Mack, Mrs. Robert E. Thibodeau, Mrs. E. Tomicec, Mrs. Emmet

E. Tracy and Mrs. George L. Van Antwerp.

Patron tickets, at $25, or other main floor and mezzanine tickets, at $10 each, may be obtained by contacting any committee member.

Playgoer Subscription Tickets will be refunded if Subscription Ticket holders prefer to attend the benefit premiere.

For 38 years, without remuneration, the Sisters of the Sick Poor have given professional nursing care in the homes of the needy throughout Detroit's Metropolitan area, regardless of race or creed.

Library Friends Offer Movies

The January program of the 1968 Friends Film Forum, which is co-sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library and the Grosse Pointe Public Library will be shown on Friday, January 19, at 9:15 p.m. in the main Reading Room of the Central Library, 10 Kercheval.

This is one of a series which is planned to provide an opportunity for discriminating viewers to see films of special interest or merit. The program is presented on the third Friday of each month, October through April with no showing in December.

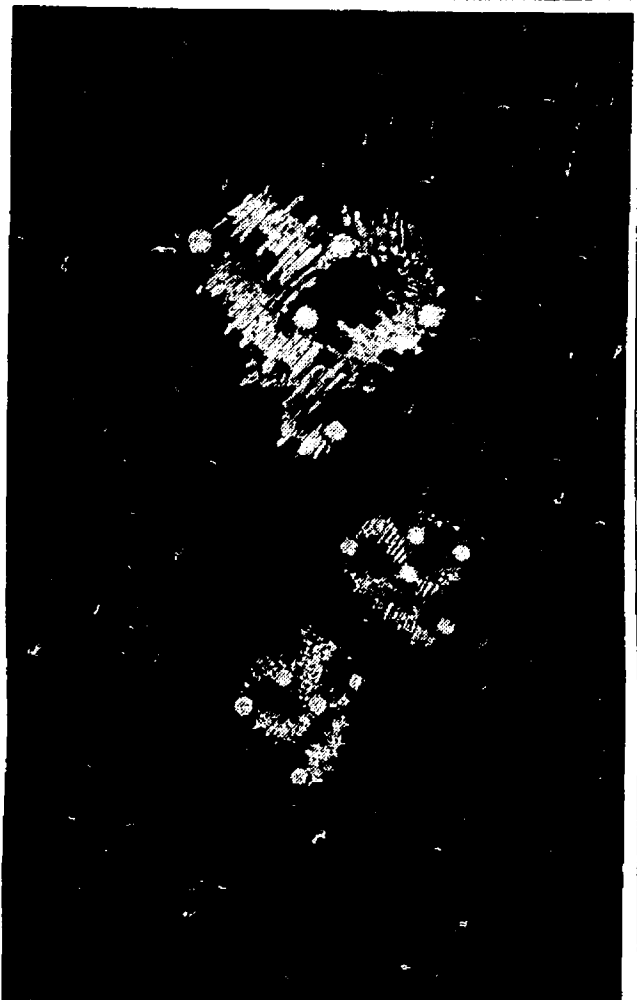

The film this month is "PLISetskaya DANCES" which stars Maya Plisetskaya with Nikolai Fadeyevich and the corps de ballet of the Bolshoi Ballet, Moscow. It runs 78 minutes and was filmed in 1964 with English narration.

A close and revealing look at one of the greatest dancers of our times, Plisetskaya, prima ballerina of the Bolshoi Ballet, in a prize-winning film program of dances from her repertoire.

Plisetskaya gives a stunning performance in scenes from her past and present roles in "Swan Lake," "Laurencia," "Spartacus," "The Little Humphreys Horse," "Khavanchina," "Raymond," "The Stone Flower," "Walpurgis Night," and "Don Quixote." A devastating flow of performances. . . wonderful!

New York Times. . . justly deserves its recent American Film Festival award — Chicago Sun Times. Awards: Blue Ribbon Award, E.F.L.A. American Film Festival, 1966; Special Award, Bergamo, 1964.

The general public is invited.

Discuss Fashionscope Plans at Tea

Members of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra gathered recently to discuss plans for Fashionscope, the glamorous annual spring benefit fashion show sponsored by the Association and staged at Hudson's Downtown, at a champagne tea. MRS. RICHARD H. CAMPBELL, Grosse Pointe area Fashionscope patroness ticket chairman, MRS. JOHN H. ORTMAN, tea co-hostess with MRS. JOSEPH W. LOUISELL, in whose Three Mile drive home the party was held, and MRS. THOMAS W. McMAHON, patroness ticket general chairman, (left to right), were among those who met to talk over the project. Fashionscope will be presented the afternoons of February 27 and 28.

Shores Garden Club To Meet

The February meeting of the Grosse Pointe Shores Garden Club will be held Friday, February 2, at the home of Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson in South Oxford road. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Henry Walker and Mrs. Paul Giffin.

At this International Cooperation program, Mrs. F.G. Garrison will speak on the 1968 Conference of Country Women of the World.

Good Citizens Selected By Elizabeth Cass DAR

Three senior girls from Grosse Pointe high schools have been selected to receive Good Citizen Awards from the Elizabeth Cass Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Victoria Klose, of Sacred Heart Convent, Lynn Duffield, of St. Paul High School, and Malgrid McIntosh, of Grosse Pointe High School, will be presented with Good Citizen pins and Certificates of Award at a tea in their honor on Monday, February 5, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

The awards are presented annually to high school senior girls who possess outstanding qualities in Leadership, Dependability, Service and Patriotism — areas specified by the National Society DAR.

The girls are selected by their class members and their faculties. Over 500 Michigan schools participate.

Austin To Host Saturday Dance

The Austin Catholic Prep School Student Senate, under the direction of Thomas E. Bailey, vice-principal of activities, is planning an exciting beginning to the second semester, a "Welcome '68 Dance," to be held Saturday evening, January 20, from 8 to 11 o'clock at Austin.

Music for this event will be provided by an all-female band, "The Little Sisters." Dress is "dresses" and admission at the door for all students of all schools is $1.

To complete the first semester, Austin's Student Senate, under the direction of Senate President Tom Misuraca, distributed the Senate Report to the student body.

Within this report are lists of all the semester's rallies, dances, assemblies and civic drives.

The Senate has just invited the GM "Preview of Progress" Show to Austin. At the Senate's last assembly, the Friar's basketball team was honored before the Catholic Central game, as well as the Austin hockey team which now holds second place in the league standings.

Soprano To Star With Detroit Symphony

Soprano Elizabeth Schwarzkopf, whose artistry has enchanted both European and American audiences, will appear with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Thursday and Saturday evenings, January 25 and 27, at Ford Auditorium. Concert time is 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Schwarzkopf will sing Verdi's "Salce, Salce" and "Ave Maria" from "Otello" and six songs by Richard Strauss.

Sixteen Ehrlich will conduct. Under his direction, the Orchestra has just completed a tour to five neighbor cities: Ypsilanti, Mt. Pleasant, Bryan, Ohio, Battle Creek and Kalamazoo.

The program also will include two works performed for the first time by the Orchestra: Sibelius' Symphony No. 6 and Webern's "Im Sommerwind."

Tickets are available at Ford Auditorium Box Office, (961-0700), all 15 metropolitan Grinnell's stores and Hudson's.

This will be Miss Schwarzkopf's second appearance with the Symphony. She appeared here in February, 1960, singing the closing scene of Strauss' "Capriccio."

Her first American appearance in 1953 was one of the most spectacular and widely discussed debuts in this country. Since then, she has made annual visits during which she appears in opera, recital, and with orchestra.

She is the recipient of many awards including the Lilli Lehmann Medal and the first Golden Orpheus Trophy awarded by the City of Mantua for the year's best operatic performance.

Dr. Parcels Speaks To Junior League

Addresses Group At January Membership Meeting Yesterday; Local Delegates Will Attend Communications Media Workshop in Ohio

The Junior League of Detroit held its January General Membership Meeting at the Country Club of Detroit on Wednesday, January 17.

Speaker of the day was Dr. Frank H. Parcels. His topic was "Sex and the Teenager."

Dr. Parcels is an assistant professor at Wayne State University Medical School. He also teaches at Herman Kiefer Hospital and at Children's Hospital.

A psychoanalyst, Dr. Parcels received his B.A. from Yale University and continued his studies at Wayne State University Medical School.

He is on the Board of Directors of Boys Republic and is a past president of the Grosse Pointe School Board.

Following Dr. Parcels' speech, there was a short period for questions and answers.

Representatives for 15 Junior Leagues in Ohio and Michigan are expected to attend a Communications Media Workshop sponsored by the Junior League of Columbus, O., January 22 to 24 at Stouffer's University Inn in Columbus.

Grosse Pointers representing the Junior League of Detroit will include Mrs. Robert H. Healy, of Grand Marais boulevard, and Mrs. William W. Cunningham, of Cloverly road.

The workshop will include a training session in public relations and publicity techniques, a demonstration of League-produced audio-visual materials and a visit to the Educational Media Laboratory at Ohio State University.

Techniques in production methods including script writing, off-camera voice dubbing and ETV programming will be demonstrated by OSU personnel. Delegates will discuss practical applications of these techniques during the final seminar set for January 24.

Key participants will be Mrs. Joseph V. Connolly, Jr., consultant on Public Relations, Radio and TV for the Association of the Junior Leagues of America, Inc., in New York City; David Selby, assistant director, Telecommunications Center, and Dr. Robert Wagner, chairman of the Photography Department, both Ohio State University.

"Bridging the Communications Gap" will be the keynote.

Church Circles Slate Sessions

The Woman's Society of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church has designated Tuesday, January 23, as meeting day for its various Circles.

Morning Circles which will be meeting at 9:30 o'clock are Rebecca, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Ballen, and Martha Mary, at the home of Mrs. Sidney Ochs.

Afternoon Circles with a meeting time of 12:45 o'clock are Alpha, Naomi and Susannah Wesley. Mrs. Perry Thomas will be entertaining members of the Alpha Circle at the Parsonage.

Mrs. Thomas Munson is to be hostess for the Naomi Circle and Susannah Wesley will meet at the home of Mrs. Marlin Wickline.

Doris White Circle meets at 8 o'clock in the evening at the home of Mrs. Bert Prisk.

A challenging program is planned for all Circles. It is entitled: "Search for Identity in a Changing World."

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Girodat, of Lakecrest lane, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, SUSAN LOUISE, to Michael R. Buese, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Buese, of Alma, Mich.

Miss Girodat is a graduate of the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lakeshore road and will be graduated from Aquinas College, Grand Rapids, in May.

Her fiancé, an Aquinas College graduate, is presently teaching in Grand Rapids.

An August wedding is planned.

MR. and MRS. O. D. HERON, of Webber place, and MR. and MRS. T. J. SINCLAIR, of Ann Arbor, entertained at a dinner party recently at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, honoring MR. and MRS. GEORGE CONNELLY, of Birmingham, on their Silver Wedding anniversary.

A man's never too old to learn; he's never too old to learn.

Inside The Mothers' Club

The January meeting of the Executive Board of the Grosse Pointe High School Mothers Club was held January 8 in the Grosse Pointe Central Library, with 26 members present.

President Mrs. William Ludwig outlined her activities for the month and received reports from president-elect Mrs. Joseph Perry and Mrs. R. L. Brines and treasurer Mrs. Leland Symons.

Scholarship chairman Mrs. J. P. Mayhark reported that seven of the 15 students who attained scholarship grants have received their final checks. The grants range in amount from $100 to $700. These students attend the University of Michigan, Wayne State, Oakland, Western Michigan and Michigan State Universities.

GPHS Principal Gerry Gerich spoke about tentative plans for improvements at the High School. Classrooms and teaching conditions will have priority. With 2,700 students expected, enrollment will still be high and teaching stations used to the maximum, which limits major projects.

Furniture replacement will begin, and under consideration are increased receiving room facilities, a modernized auditorium and swimming pool, improved music department facilities and various other renovations.

Faculty representative Mrs. Benson McClure discussed two continuing high school problems: Finding a way to make the new student feel welcome and the declining interest in school club activities. Interest has increased toward service projects.

Mrs. McClure mentioned the exciting expansion of curriculum in some academic areas.

In Homemaking, for example, emphasis is on such concepts as self-management, family management, interior and fashion design.

In Music there is now a course in Theory as well as Music Literature. There is a two-year French Humanities course and an English Humanities course. Computer Math and Data Processing are explored in the field of mathematics.

Membership chairman Mrs. Kenneth Adler reported six new memberships, bringing the total to date to 1,037.

Mrs. C. Reed Randall reported the sum of $1,690 has been received for play tickets, to be used for scholarships.

Eight hundred guests were served at the Christmas Tea, and Mrs. Edward Devine complimented the 34 Y-Teens assisting the hostesses.

Spring Benefit chairman Mrs. Douglas Smith suggested that publicity stress the Scholarship Fund relationship. Discussion followed, with a vote that the traditional afternoon card party be held.

Mrs. Perry TeWalt praised the Y-Teens for their successful drive for food contributions to Scripps School families, and the students of Harper Woods J.C. for the Christmas party they gave for the kindergarten pupils.

A workshop is in process for tutors under the Detroit Volunteer Program and transportation is badly needed, as well as reference books.

The Nominating Committee consists of chairman Mrs. Perry TeWalt, Mrs. Donald Barr, Mrs. Thomas Maurer, Mrs. William Montgomery, and Mrs. Robert Schuler.

Parliamentary Law Club Holds 'Review' Program

The Detroit Parliamentary Law Club met on Wednesday, January 17, from 10 o'clock to 12 noon, at the Federation of Women's Clubs Building in Second Avenue, Detroit.

The program was conducted by Mrs. Florence E. Pierce on "Review."

Original Pieces Form Program

Works of 10 composer-members will be performed at the next concert of the Tuesday Musicales of Detroit which will be given at the Detroit Institute of Arts on Tuesday, January 23, at 10:30 o'clock.

The program is dedicated to the "Parade of American Music" of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Three songs composed by Elizabeth Coulter, a Grosse Pointe resident, will open the program. Deane Taylor, soprano, former president of the Musicales, will perform the songs with the composer at the piano.

Mrs. Coulter has written many songs as well as works for the violin and piano.

Marguerite B. Bichel, composer member living in East Detroit, will perform three of her compositions for the piano. A pupil of the late Dr. Francis L. York, studying composition, Mrs. Bichel is currently pianist, composer and teacher. She has written for both the voice and piano.

Dr. Roberta Bitgood, Musicales member living in Bay City, will be at the piano when her "Poeme for Flute and Piano" is performed.

Organist, composer, director, teacher, Dr. Bitgood was a gold medal graduate of the Guilman Organ School of New York City. She holds a Masters degree more than 100 of the paintings in the big show, may be seen in "Britain's Century of Masterpieces" at the Detroit Institute of Arts through February 18. The unprecedented U.S. exhibition under the patronage of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II will be seen in America again in our age and President Johnson will be displayed only in Detroit and Philadelphia. More in Music Education from Columbia University and Masters and Doctors degrees from Union Theological Seminary, New York.

She has written anthems, sacred solos and organ works which have been performed all over the U.S.A. In 1966 she was nominated for an award by the Standard Awards Panel of ASCAP.

Flutist member Hanna Lahti will perform Dr. Bitgood's "Poeme," while her Variations on "Veni Emanuel" will be performed later in the program by Peruz Kavafian, violin, Cecelia Mahoney, violin, Margot Krumel, viola, and guest artist Grace Konopka, violoncello.

Composer member Dorothy James has written "Tuesday Morning Music" especially for this program, to be performed by Lucille Zumstein, pianist.

Also given at this concert will be her "Recitative and Aria" for solo viola and string quartet, performed by Margot Krumel, solo viola, Peruz Kavafian, violin, Grace Konopka, violoncello, Cecelia Mahoney, violin, and Gayle Masarie, cello.

Dorothy James lives in Ypsilanti. Master of Music, she is Head of Theory and Composition at Eastern Michigan University. An outstanding American composer, her works have been performed by "top" USA soloists and major symphony orchestras.

Her works have been commissioned and performed at many May Festivals in Ann Arbor. A group of songs by composer Ester B. Frost who lives in Birmingham will be performed by Virginia Person, soprano, (currently first vice-president of Tuesday Musicales) and Barbara MacIntosh, accompanist.

Mrs. Frost, University School of Music at Ann Arbor graduate, has written many, many, songs and choral pieces. Part "Invention" composed by member Emma Hartop, of Mount Clemens, will be performed by Cecelia Mahoney, violin, and Gayle Masarie, violoncello.

Mrs. Hartop, pianist, composer, teacher with Bachelor, and Masters degrees in Music, is Dean of the Hartop School of Music and Director of Hartop Symphony Orchestra and Chorus. She has written a symphony, string quartet numbers, for the organ, piano and voice. "Grazioso poco ridente from 'Trio for Strings' composed by Violenda Seppala Nelson, of Grosse Pointe, will be performed by Peruz Kavafian, violin, Margot Krumel, viola, and Grace Konopka, violoncello. Mrs. Nelson is chairman of the day and is also chairman of the Composers group of the Tuesday Musicales.

She has both Bachelors and Masters degrees in music, and is pianist, organist, composer, choral director and music educator. She has written for solo voice, choral works, chamber music and symphony orchestra.

A group of songs, closing the program, were composed by Evangeline Lehman, Alma S. Chapman, Verna Mae Bryant and Mrs. Bichel, mentioned earlier. This group will be performed by Dorothy Allison, soprano, with Elizabeth Sladen as accompanist.

Composer member Evangeline Lehman Dumesnil, an honorary member of Tuesday Musicales, is a graduate of Oberlin Conservatory of Music, a composer and singer (contralto).

Seaman Apprentice ROBERT J. KELLY, USNR, 22, son of MR. and MRS. ROBERT J. KELLY of Kerby road has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Temple BooksKhachaturian

Soviet composer Aram Khachaturian, acclaimed widely as one of the world's greatest living composers, will appear at Detroit's Masonic Auditorium on Sunday, February 4, at 3 p.m. On his first concert tour in the United States, Khachaturian is scheduled to perform in only four other American cities.

In his Detroit appearance, Khachaturian will conduct the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra in a Benefit Concert. The program will include some of his major works and will feature the 22-year-old Soviet cellist, Karine Georgian, performing Khachaturian's Cello Concerto.

Miss Georgian, who is accompanying Khachaturian on his American tour, has won every major cello competition throughout the Soviet Union, including the First Prize in the 1966 Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow. She has been heralded not only by the Moscow press, but she has earned the praise of two world-famous cellists, Gregor Piatigorsky and Mstislav Rostropovich.

All of Khachaturian's compositions are noted for their lush melodies and exotic rhythms which, according to the noted composer, are based on the folk themes of his native Armenia. He wrote his earliest composition while a student at the Moscow State Conservatory. His brilliant Piano Concerto brought him fame throughout the musical world. But it was not until he composed his gay and exhilarating GAYNE BALLET that his name became well-known in America with the jukebox popularity of the "The Sabre Dance," an excerpt from the Ballet.

Like Shostakovich, the other renowned Soviet composer, Khachaturian does not spend his time entirely in writing music. He is involved with the Union of Soviet Composers; he teaches at the Moscow State Conservatory and the Gnesin Musical Institute; and he works with the Soviet commissions, art councils, colleagues and gifted pupils.

Khachaturian's appearance in Detroit is considered a rare treat for music lovers. His concert will be a Benefit performance sponsored by the Armenian General Benevolent Union of America, an international organization which provides educational and charitable services for Armenians throughout the world. Tickets for the Khachaturian Concert on February 4 are still available at Masonic Temple, J. L. Hudson Company, and Grinnell's.

JEANNE RUSSELL, daughter of MR. and MRS. DAVID W. RUSSELL, of Harvard road, a freshman at Eastern Michigan University, is a member of the EMU Madrigal Singers who appeared in concert yesterday evening, January 17, in EMU's Peace Auditorium.

Fete Marilyn Marks Before Her Wedding

Pre-Nuptial Festivities Will Conclude Tomorrow Evening, When Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Joseph Stedem Give Rehearsal Dinner At University Club

Parties for Marilyn Therese Marks, who will speak her wedding vows to Edwin Joseph Stedem, Jr., at a double ring ceremony this Saturday, January 20, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, began nine days before Christmas.

First to entertain for the bride-elect daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Louis Marks, of Fairford road, was Mrs. Peter Allen, of Moorland drive, who gave a luncheon and miscellaneous shower at the Detroit Golf Club.

Shortly after New Year's, on January 4, Mrs. Arthur Marks was hostess at an evening kitchen shower in her Harrison Township home.

Four of Marilyn's attendants, Mrs. George Ginger, Mari White, Madeleine Hendrixson, who will be maid of honor, and Mrs. Lloyd Brennan Marks, joined forces to fete the prospective bride and bridegroom at a bar shower.

Scene of the January 5 party was the Gingers' Bloomfield Hills home.

Marilyn's fifth attendant, Mrs. William Adkins, will come from her Rochester, Minn., home to be in the wedding party.

Mrs. Mario Iacobelli gave the Spinster Dinner in her St. Clair avenue home yesterday evening.

Ecumenical Day At Star of Sea

The Junior class of Our Lady Star of the Sea High School will hold its Second Annual Ecumenical Day today, Thursday, January 18.

The purpose of Ecumenical Day is to discuss with teenagers of other religions some common problems of life. The goal of these students is World Wide Unity. They are aware that the responsibility of the world will someday be theirs and there is no time like the present to start preparing for it.

This program entitled "Freedom to Be, Walking Hand in Hand" is under the supervision of Sister Martha Ann with Sharon Plotzke and Patti Steele working as general chairmen. The guest list includes students from Grosse Pointe High, Grosse Pointe University School, Finney, South Lake, and Lutheran High East.

The different religions represented are Methodist, Episcopal, Jewish, Lutheran, Islam, Atheist and Catholic.

SALLY SEXTON CHALMERS, a senior at Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Ill., is president of her Lake Forest housing unit for 1967-68. A 1964 graduate of Emma Willard School, Troy, N.Y., Sally is the daughter of MR. and MRS. BRUCE CHALMERS, of Grosse Pointe boulevard. Sally is majoring in Psychology.

Elderly Couple Hurt in Crash

An elderly Garden City couple sustained minor injuries on Tuesday, January 9, when the car in which they were riding crashed into an automobile opposite 7 Vernier road.

Injured and taken to Cottage Hospital by Shores police ambulance were Charles M. Gilbert, 79, of 29117 Beck, and his wife, Stella, 78. Mr. Gilbert was driving, police said.

According to an accident report, Gilbert was driving west on Vernier, and was not paying attention to the road ahead, but was looking at the Village Fire Station, when his car swerved and crashed into the rear of an auto owned by John W. Mason, 33, of 37 Putnam place, and parked at the north curb of the road.

At the hospital, Mr. Gilbert was treated for a whiplash neck, and Mrs. Gilbert for minor cuts and bruises. Both were released after treatment.

MR. and MRS. JAMES ADAMS MATHEWSON, of San Jose, Calif., announce the birth of a daughter, KRISTIN LYNN, January 8. Mrs. Mathewson is the former JILL OGDEN, daughter of the C. H. OGDENS, of Hawthorne road. Paternal grandparents are PAUL S. MATHEWSONS, of Lakeland avenue.

Takes Special Course At Medical Center

Army Doctor (Captain) Maurice B. Landers, 29, son of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice B. Landers, 449 Lincoln road, completed a medical service officer basic course December 15 at Brooke Army Medical Center, Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

The six-week course provides basic branch training and orientation for newly commissioned Medical, Dental and Veterinary Corps officers. Instruction included the organization and function of the Medical Service, military law, field medicine and surgery, plus military preventive medicine.

Doctor Landers, whose wife,

Barbara, lives at 5210 Iroquois Rd., Bethesda, Md., received a M.D. degree in 1963 from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

Brick Colonial center entrance kitchen with breakfast area. Dining room, living room, glass and screened terrace. 3 bedrooms, 1½ baths. Ty owner. 882-5465.

WE FULLY EXPECT to be snowed under with calls on this first advertised offering in Deeplands. Cape Cod by design, this one is sure to surprise you when you step inside. Large entrance foyer and a graceful staircase leads up to two enormous bedrooms each with its own bath. Both first floor bedrooms also feature private bathrooms. Large library with fireplace and hidden bar. The living room is 29 feet long and features sliding glass door walls leading to a rear patio. Kitchen is complete with built-ins and plenty of area for informal dining. Central air conditioned and electrostatic air filter system. Won't you be frosty if this one gets away?

LET IT SNOW, let it snow, let us show you one of the better buys available in the Pointe today. Baby it's cold outside, so come on in and warm up to this four bedroom with three full baths on the second floor. Recently decorated throughout, and this includes a revamped kitchen. We've got our love to keep you warm; so come by Sunday between 2:30 and 5:44 Lakepointe.

BUTTON UP your overcoat, and we'll turn up the thermostat. The owner of this larger house on Barrington, is tired of keeping this on ice. We think a hot deal will be forthcoming because our client tells us his selling resistance is melting. This is the only five bedroom two bath house we could cook up in the thirty thousand range.

KEEPS COMING on like a song, and this little ditty can be had for a song. Any kind of offer might be sweet music to the ears of the owner of this small two family flat. Both units now have an empty ring, and this strikes a sour note with our seller. He's instructed us to launch a full scale selling effort. $14,900 is all the do re mi required.

"And now there came both mist and snow, and it grew wondrous cold; And ice, mast-high, came floating by, as green as emerald." Coleridge

THE NUDE BODY of a Southgate mother of four, Mrs. Ellen McLeod, 25, was found Saturday beneath a bridge over Merriman road, a quarter of a mile south of Sibley road in western Wayne County. Wayne County Road Patrol officers who identified the victim, said she had been raped and beaten to death and her body thrown over the bridge. Held for investigation by Taylor police was Donald P. Girard, 37, a sign painter, of 2215 Eureka, Taylor, who walked into the Taylor police station about 3 a.m. Saturday and admitted the slaying. Police said it appeared that Mrs. McLeod had been killed when her car had a flat tire and someone stopped to assist her.

CAPTAIN RICHARD G. ALEXANDER, 43, who publicly defended a controversial fellow officer has been stripped of a battleship command and re-assigned by the Pentagon to a "graveyard" post. Last November, Alexander filed a sharply worded 27-page statement with Navy Secretary Paul R. Ignatius, protesting the reprimand and beating of Lt. Cmdr. Marcus A. Arnehter, 42, former skipper of the USS Vance, a radar picket ship. Arnehter was stripped of his command for "gross lack of judgment and an inability to lead people" after junior officers aboard the Vance complained about ship-board conditions while off Vietnam. In his statement to Navy Secretary, Alexander criticized four admirals for their part in the Arnehter case, and said their decision was an "improper, cowardly, peremptory action."

SIX ICE FISHERMEN were rescued from a floe in Lake St. Clair by a Coast Guard helicopter late Saturday, after waving a lantern to summon help, for hours. The men were lifted off the ice about 11 p.m. Saturday and taken to Belle River, 15 miles east of Windsor. They had left Belle River about 5 p.m., Saturday. Pulled from the floe were Andrew Kriska, 62, of 19939 Pierson; Frank Greenhalgh, 35, of 19634 Biltmore; William Coughenour, 35, of 28947 Parkwood; William Kriska, 34, of 5106 West Pointe; Thomas Kriska, 29, of 21195 Eight and a Half Mile, and John Kriska, 24, of 15717 Strathmoor.

SNOW, SLEET AND RAIN whipped through an 11-state area Sunday in a continuing week-long storm which claimed more than 100 lives. Hazardous driving warnings were posted in a widening arc, stretching south and east from Michigan and Ohio. Gale warnings were up from Block Island, R.I. to Cape Fear, N.C. The bitter weather was caused by a large low pressure area that sat above Kentucky and Virginia, bringing an accumulation of as much as 10 inches of snow from the Midwest, across the Ohio and Tennessee valleys and into Western Pennsylvania.

DONALD P. GIRARD, 37, of 2215 Eureka, Taylor Township, has been arraigned on a first degree murder charge in the rape-slaying of Mrs. Ellen McLeod, 25, of 14405 Longtin. Grosse Ile Justice of the Peace T. Edward Dunlap entered a plea of innocent for him. Girard was arrested after Wayne County Road Patrol officers found Mrs. McLeod's body beneath a bridge over Merriman road, south of Sibley road. Girard walked into the Taylor police station on Saturday and admitted the slaying. The Wayne County Medical Examiner's office reported that Mrs. McLeod died from multiple internal injuries as a result of a severe beating.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY, in a 3,500 word speech before a packed audience at Keene State College, Keene, N.H., made a major pronouncement on the Vietnam War. He offered a bold program of neutralization involving withdrawal of U.S. and allied troops and a halt to the fighting.

A WAVE OF EARTHQUAKES smashed the western tip of Sicily Monday killing at least 280 persons. Authorities fear the toll might reach 500 when communications are restored in isolated villages. Montevago, a village of 3,000 and Gibellina, a town of 7,000 were reported to have been leveled. At least six other towns and villages were reported in ruins. The quakes centered in a mountainous farming region considered to be the stronghold of the Mafia.

Post-Holiday Fun Possible By Guessing at Yule Gifts

By Pepper Whitelaw

Here's one post-holiday fun for all. It's a game called "What Did They Get for Christmas?" All that's necessary are a pair of good eyes, a little imagination and some friends. It goes something like this:

That friend you haven't seen for just ages suggests dinner and a night on the town. What did she receive? Why of course, a new mink stole.

The couple next door invites you over for a casual evening at home. What did they get? Either a color television set, a new stereo or mother got a darling new "at home dress."

The best restaurant ever you know calls up and invites you and friend husband for Sunday brunch after church. She got a waffle iron.

Or that certain acquaintance of yours who never exercised anything more than her lips, suddenly calls up and suggest that bowling is good for the waistline. Of course, a bowling ball and bag.

Then there are those who immediately after Christmas appear to be suffering from some kind of physical handicaps.

That dear friend who appears to have suddenly lost the use of her right hand. She received a stunning new wedding ring.

Or the gal who is exposing her ears extravagantly and looks rather lopsided . . . she just had to show those fancy new earrings.

The fellow you knew who walks as if he just caved in . . . what else but a tie from his wife, which he is ashamed of. (The hunch results from pulling his coat lapels together).

The teen agers are less concerned with being subtle. They do obvious things like running around with their coats unbuttoned because they received new sweaters and skirts. Or wear boots when there's nary a puddle in sight, because they received "those new above the knee boots." Or suddenly take to calling your daughter three and four times an evening, (much to your dismay). They got their own private lines for Christmas.

The tiny tots are fun to watch. Here subtly is thrown to the winds. Johnny got a drum and Sammy a gun and neither of them can figure out how they can play together and both use their new gifts. (Too bad they are too young to think about drumming Johnny Packo out of the regiment.)

Men who never were the least athletic suddenly are calling friend husband to go skiing or hunting. Their wives, who are better managers than you are, somehow managed to give their husbands guns and skiing equipment for Christmas.

We could go on and on but think we'll call up a friend or two and see if they want to play a little ping pong . . . it's good for the waistline.

Short and to the Pointe

MRS. WILLIAM J. SAILE has returned to her Lochmoor boulevard home after a holiday at Freeport, Grand Bahama Island.

Participating in the first short term of independent study at Hollins College, Va., is Hollins senior CLARE BRACKETT MORISON, daughter of MR. and MRS. AYERS MORISON, of Three Mile drive, who will prepare a Set Design for Edward Albee's "A Delicate Balance" during her month-long period of independent study on campus.

H. TERRY SNOWDAY, of Harcourt road, has accepted appointment as Class Agent for the 1968 Alumni Fund campaign of Centre College "Praying Colonels" football team which defeated Harvard 6-0. Centre Fund Class Agents direct the drive within their respective classes as a part of the general plan of Centre College "Praying Colonels" fund drive.

Pointer MARGARET NEUDECK is Civics Department International chairman of the Catholic Study Club of Detroit, which will meet Monday, January 22, at 1:30 o'clock at Club headquarters in Parsons street, Detroit, to hear a talk by DR. HARRY M. KAVANAUGH, who recently returned to Detroit after serving aboard the S.S. Hope in Columbia, South America. Dr. Kavanagh will illustrate his talk with slides, and the program will include a sound film on "Project Hope."

Pointers MR. and MRS. HORACE CARPENTER and their daughter, MARGARET, MR. and MRS. DAVID BARKER, MR. and MRS. WILLIAM S. BLAKESLEE, JR., MR. and MRS. ALLEN M. LOMAX and their daughter, HOLLY, MARGARET K. HARVEY, the JOHN B. MCKERNANS, RICHARD S. SMITHS and MR. and MRS. H. WESTON BUNNETT, JR., are among a group of Hood College alumni and friends gathering tomorrow, Friday, January 19, at Dearborn Inn, to hear a talk by Hood president DR. RANDY ELLIOTT. Head is a small liberal arts college for women located in Frederick, Md.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED

William McBrearty, 653 Neff, reported to City police on Sunday, January 7, that his '63 Pontiac-Grand Prix, was stolen from in front of his residence. He told officers that he left the keys in the ignition while he ran into the house to deliver a parcel. When he returned minutes later the car was gone. City police located the car the following day parked on St. Clair avenue bearing Pennsylvania license plates. The owner was immediately notified.

REPORTS STOLEN COAT

Steve Scott, 17, of 797 Lincoln, called City police on Tuesday, January 2, to report his topcoat was stolen from the neighborhood Club on Friday, December 29. He did not report the theft earlier because he thought his coat had been taken in error. The coat was described as brown and black, three-quarter length with a fur collar.

propaganda efforts and "damaged the success of our common cause." He also said that any suggestion that the U.S. halt bombing of the North was "preposterous and absurd."

Warning Issued To Ice Skaters

Ice skating can be fun. It can also be dangerous.

"Every year we see or hear of skating accidents that could have been prevented," said Dr. John J. Hanlon, Detroit health commissioner. "None of us want to toss a wet blanket on the enjoyment so many youngsters receive from such healthy exercise as ice skating. But there are a few rules that boys and girls could observe that would allow them to skate worry-free."

Dr. Hanlon suggests:

1. Skate only in skating rinks or on small bodies of water such as ponds and pools. Ice freezes less easily on large bodies of water.
2. Never skate alone.
3. Be sure the ice is at least two inches thick and at least four inches thick if you are skating with a large group.
4. Make sure the water is less than waist deep.
5. Never skate on crystallized ice — it can crumble even if two feet thick.
6. Make sure there is no hidden, swift flowing current — it can pull you under if you fall in.
7. Do not skate on new ice at midday or when the temperature rises, for ice weakens then.
8. Head for shore if you hear the ice crack.
9. Stay closer to shore because ice tends to be stronger there than near the center.

Dr. Hanlon also advises youngsters to take proper care of their skates to prevent rusting and to keep the skates sharpened so that a dull blade cannot catch on the ice and cause the skater to slip or fall.

If an accident, such as a skater falling through the ice, does happen despite proper precautions, what can the other skaters do to aid the victim?

"First, keep the victim calm," counsels Dr. Hanlon. "Ice chunks generally break off if the victim tries to pull himself out of the water. Tell the person to kick his feet to the surface so they won't jackknife under the ice's edge. He should extend his arms on the top surface of the ice."

"Standing beyond the weakened ice, extend anything — a ladder, pole, rope, hockey stick, even a piece of clothing — to the victim. If nothing is available, They're having a birthday party . . . are the members of Louisa St. Clair Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, who will celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Chapter's founding on Saturday, January 20 . . . Past Regents of the Chapter, Mrs. Clarence E. Carroll, Mrs. Roy E. DeHart, Mrs. Robert O. Artner and Mrs. Raymond H. Berry, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Norman L. Parker, are arranging a beautiful luncheon, to be held at the Detroit Athletic Club at 12:30 o'clock . . .

. . . Mrs. Cornelius G. Egan, present Regent, will honor Louisa St. Clair's 50-year members, including Pointers Mrs. Louis M. Edgar, Mrs. William J. Scott, Mrs. Charles G. Welch and Mrs. Orison S. White . . .

. . . Seventy-five years ago . . . on January 19, 1893, the Louisa St. Clair Chapter was born, named after the only daughter of General Arthur St. Clair, Governor of the Northwest Territory following the Revolutionary War . . . Eight women were present at the first meeting in the home of Mrs. William Fitzhugh Edwards, and by February 13 ten more had joined, making 18 charter members . . .

. . . Louisa St. Clair . . . was the first DAR Chapter in Michigan and the 30th in the National Society, which had been organized in Washington two years before . . .

. . . Throughout the 75 years . . . of Louisa St. Clair's existence, its members, who live in all parts of Michigan and the United States, have dedicated themselves to pursuing projects in the fields of Education and Historical and Patriotic endeavors . . .

. . . Among their "good works" . . . have been furnishing the lounge of the New Helen Newberry Joy Dormitory at Wayne State University, establishment of a revolving fund from which Wayne students may borrow, presentation of flag poles to Fort Wayne Museum and the Detroit Public Library, presentation of gifts of money to the Dossin Museum on Belle Isle to restore the old D & C steamer "City of Detroit" Gothic Room, and the setting up of a $75 annual gift to the High School student from Michigan who wins the DAR Michigan History Award . . .

. . . Guest speaker . . . at the Birthday Luncheon will be Mrs. Edgar O. (Kay) Lardie, well-known in Detroit and out-state Michigan for her work in radio and television for the Detroit Public Schools . . .

. . . Mrs. Lardie . . . has served as manager of WDTR (FM) radio, which broadcasts 114 programs per week, including "Storyland" and "Musical Youth," presented in cooperation with WWJ, and "Junior Town Meeting," in cooperation with WJR . . . Mrs. Lardie received the Wayne State University Mass Communications Award for "Creative Leadership in Educational Broadcasting" in 1963 . . .

. . . Elizabeth Cass . . . named after the wife of General Lewis Cass, Governor of the newly-opened Michigan Territory in the early 1800's, recently celebrated an anniversary of its own, the Silver Jubilee of its founding on October 30, 1942, (Mrs. Cass, incidentally, daughter of Dr. Joseph and Deborah Spencer, born September 17, 1786, in Millington, Conn., was a true Daughter of the American Revolution, as both her father and her grandfathers, General Joseph Spencer and Colonel Samuel Sheldon, served in the Revolutionary War forces — on "our" side, of course . . .)

. . . But this . . . is Louisa St. Clair's story, and as the oldest DAR Chapter in Michigan, we think Louisa St. Clair deserves a Very Special Salute in its Diamond Jubilee Year. And we're more than happy to salute Our State's "first" DAR Chapter.

PILFERINGS

One evening shortly before the turn of the century, when the wealthy railroad executive Stuyvesant Fish and his wife were staying at their home in New York City, Mrs. Fish was seized by a sudden fit of coughing.

"Can I get you something for your throat, my dear?" Mr. Fish inquired solicitously.

Mrs. Fish stopped short. "Yes, you can," she replied. "That diamond and pearl necklace I saw today at Tiffany's."

MRS. ROBERT VALLEE, OF THORN TREE RD., (L.), AND MRS. GERALD JORGENSEN, OF MOORLAND DR.

By Janet Mueller

They're planning a party, and they couldn't be more delighted. They're Pat Jorgenson and Virginia Vallee, members of the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic Assistance League, co-chairmen of the League's Valentine Ball — they hope it will be the first of MANY annual Valentine Balls — to be held February 3 at the Detroit Athletic Club.

They've worked together before, but never on a Clinic Assistance League project. They met through their church, First English Evangelical Lutheran; Virginia relinquished the presidency of her Church Circle this year, after a two-year tenure, to Pat.

Fellow Circle members, they tackled many projects as a team. The projects turned out well; Virginia and Pat discovered they enjoyed handling assignments in unison.

Started at Party
They're both relatively "new" Assistance League members. Virginia became interested in the League's work for the Clinic when a friend, whose child was being treated at the Clinic, invited her to attend a Clinic benefit card party at the Lakeshore road home of Betty, (Mrs. R. J. Glancy, president of the Clinic's Board of Trustees).

The Glancys, with Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brake, are serving as honorary chairmen of the Valentine Ball.

"I was so impressed by the friendliness of the hostess . . . All the girls seemed so interested, so enthusiastic," Virginia recalls her first impressions of League "people."

Two years after that luncheon, she formally joined the League.

Pat first learned of the League and its work through her good friend Mary (Mrs. George P. Shammass), one of the earliest League members. (No one, by the way, is more delighted at the prospect of the First Annual Valentine Ball than Mary Shammass, whose dream has ALWAYS been to have a very lovely, formal League-sponsored Ball.)

Not Real Joiners
Pat joined the League about the same time as Virginia.

Neither Pat nor Virginia is an indiscriminate "joiner." The lives of each revolve, fundamentally, around their homes and children. The two "outside" organizations to which they belong, their Church Group and the Assistance League, are associations whose purposes they believe in, for which they are willing to work actively . . .

Pat, her formal name is Jean Patricia, but everyone calls her "Pat"; Jorgenson and her husband, an engineer, are the parents of two children, Celeste, 17, who will be graduated from Grosse Pointe High School this June, and Lisa, six, a Ferry School first-grader.

"My real hobby," says Pat Jorgenson, "is darning. (Isn't everyone's?) but I also like to paint and sew . . ."

Is An Art Student
She's taken art classes at Grosse Pointe High School "off and on" for several years, is currently "on sabbatical" until after the Ball.

She's worked in all media, but likes charcoal sketching best. (Celeste, incidentally, appears to have inherited her mother's talent: She's turned out some very creditable oils in her own Grosse Pointe High School classes.)

Pat's sewing ability is a recent discovery. She started just a couple of years ago, "making a few things," now makes most of her own and her daughters' clothes and was absolutely delighted when her husband got her a "nice new Singer" for Christmas.

"I began to sew because I like lots of clothes, good clothes," she explains, "and they're a fortune to buy . . . And, even when you do find something you like in the stores, very often it's not quite right—you're not exactly satisfied with the fabric, the style, the color . . ."

So now Pat "lets in and lets out," takes the top of one pattern, the bottom of another and creates costumes that are Perfect-for-Her.

Admires Workers
She admires women who devote their time to many separate organizations and projects—and wonders, frankly, where they find the time to devote.

"I think some of us must take more vitamin pills than others," she muses. But she herself is a "soft touch" as far as volunteering-in-a-good-cause is concerned.

"It depends on how busy I am," she says. "A few days ago, I got a call asking me to do some door-to-door solicitation for the March of Dimes. I AM busy right now, and I told the lady who called me I was busy, but then I said if she couldn't find anyone else to do it, I was ready to help."

"Frankly, I feel sorry for the poor people who have to call and get volunteers; it's not an easy job . . ."

If all goes well, the braces on Virginia Vallee's teeth should be off in time for the Valentine Ball. Virginia has her fingers crossed.

Yule Gift Postponed
She was promised "Free Teeth" for Christmas, but shortly before the holiday her orthodontist begged her to stick with him just a few weeks more . . .

Virginia agreed. After all, when you've waited a decade and a half to have your teeth straightened, what do a few weeks matter one way or the other?

"Dentists had been encouraging me to have my teeth fixed for 15 years," Virginia laughs, "but I just kept putting it off."

"Finally, about a year-and-a-half ago, I went to my dentist for a regular appointment, he asked me to sit still long enough for the orthodontist next door to take a look at my teeth—and, before I knew it, I had a mouth full of metal!"

She also was missing three teeth—one in the dead center of her mouth.

"The orthodontist handed me a mirror and said, 'I think you are going to find out right now if your family really loves you or not.' Well, they DID love me . . . But I didn't know I could ever face my friends . . ."

"It WAS an adjustment at first—I came home after that first appointment and said, 'I will never go out. I will never leave the house . . . but once everybody sees you, you're okay . . ."

Has Its Bright Side
"Actually, my braces turned out to be a marvelous conversation piece . . . And it seems that in the last year-and-a-half, since I've had them on, I've been to more interesting places, met more interesting people than ever before . . ."

Still, she'd like them off for the Ball.

Virginia and Bob, (he's in exhibit and display advertising), Vallee have four children, Bob, Jr., 14, at Brownell; Larry, 10; Lisa, eight, and Janet, six, all at Barnes.

Unlike Pat Jorgenson, Virginia's not a "handy" woman. "I'm not a 'maker,'" she admits, although in summer she does enjoy working outdoors, in her garden, and is known as Thorn Tree road's finest Lawn Sprinkler Mover.

Is Tennis Buff

She's a tennis buff, takes off for the Lakeshore Tennis House courts at every opportunity.

"I can't seem to get enough of it (tennis)," he says. "Maybe it's because I waited so long to start; I only began to play the game a year-and-a-half ago . . ."

"I remember, shortly after I started lessons, reading an article that said everyone over 35 should play doubles and thinking, 'Well, I'm doomed before I even had a chance to know whether or not I could be good!'"

(She wasn't doomed of course: Braces glinting, legs pumping, arms swinging, Virginia Vallee vanquishes a good proportion of her opponents, in doubles AND singles matches.)

She bowls once a week, too, and the whole Vallee family "escapes" whenever possible to a highway cottage in Northern Michigan for a day, a weekend or a week of skiing.

Much of Work Done
There'll be little chance for Virginia to escape before the Valentine Ball. True, a good bit of the Ball "work" has been done: The date is reserved at the Detroit Athletic Club, entertainment chairman Mrs. Thomas W. McMahon has arranged for Al Navarro's Orchestra to provide the music.

It has been decided that the cocktail hour will begin at 7, dinner will be served at 8:30. But there's still the program to be prepared, under the direction of Program co-chairmen Mrs. Robert S. King, Jr., and Mrs. Arthur R. Pfannschmidt.

There are still invitations to be mailed, under the direction of Mrs. Robert White, reservations to be taken, under the direction of Mrs. John Fleck, final decorations to be decided upon, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Voigt . . .

There are still the thousand and one small details that make the difference between a "good" party and a "magnificent" party to be attended to . . .

And the persons ultimately responsible for attending to these details are Virginia Vallee and Pat Jorgenson.

Have Ambitious Plans
Both Pat and Virginia want their Ball to be magnificent. "This is the first time the League has ever done anything like this, the first time it has ever sponsored a large Ball," they say.

"We want it to be a truly elegant party, a truly enjoyable party . . . And, of course, we want it to be a financial success. Tickets are $50 a couple, with all proceeds going to the Clinic . . ."

"The League's purpose, don't forget, is not 'To Have A Ball.' The League's purpose is, through a variety of ways, to raise money to assist the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic . . ."

The Clinic, located in East Warren avenue, is a public facility designed to diagnose emotional problems in children and handle such problems as are treatable on an out-patient basis.

Staffed by Pros
It is staffed by professionals, averages, (in a conservative estimate), eight new intakes per week, 20 continuing cases per week and 20 telephone consultations per week.

Emergency help is available on a 24-hour basis. Night Clinics are scheduled three times a week, an Emergency Drop-In Center for disturbed teenagers once a week, on Monday afternoons, (the weekend is usually the "crisis time" for teens).

The Clinic also sponsors a Pre-School Child Development Study Group, which meets at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

Pat Jorgenson and Virginia Vallee both joined the Assistance League because they be-

Boy Scout Week February 7-14

Hundreds of Scouts in The Pointe will join with nearly 67,000 fellow Scouts of the Detroit Area Council to celebrate the 58th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, February 7-13, Scout Week.

Local Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer Posts will be busily engaged in Blue and Gold Banquets, Courts of Honor and Family Night programs which will attract parents, friends, relatives and Scout alumni.

Some of the highlights of this year's Scout Week program includes: Uniform Day, Wednesday, February 8 — all across America, the Scouts will don their uniforms and wear them to school to dramatize the great number of boys who are Scouts.

Friday and Saturday, February 9 and 10, have been designated as Scout Sabbath for boys of Jewish faith, and Sunday, February 11, will be Scout Sunday. Special church services in hundreds of religious organizations will mark these significant dates, as boys take part in religious programs, and receive Scout religious awards from their spiritual leaders.

Saturday, February 10 is also the date of the Detroit Area Council's Scoutleaders Potluck Dinner — billed as the largest "indoor picnic in the world".

Dozens of leaders from this community will take part in this annual event which provides recognition for the men and women volunteers who give leadership to Scouting.

Helping call attention to their 58th birthday, local Scouts will have displays and exhibits in store windows, take part in street corner camping and cooking demonstrations, and serve as honor guards for flag ceremonies at school and public places.

Boys from this community who attended the 12th World Jamboree at Farragut State Park, Idaho this past summer, and those who took part in camping expeditions to Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico, attended the National Order of the Arrow Conference at Lincoln, Nebraska, and other high-light adventures, will serve as Scout Week speakers at many civic, fraternal, and service club dinner programs.

The Fashion Group . . . asked Walton-Pierce to show certain American designer fashions in a presentation to their professional membership today. These styles are duplicates of the ones which were used in an important Fashion Group show in New York. Last week, Mrs. John Huntington called the designers and manufacturers to hasten her order and they were flown in this week. They are beautiful and represent the new belting and newsty fitting in the most flattering ways. You'll love them and the extra early chance to see and buy them.

Mr. Leon . . . introduced Mr. Wahib and suggested he do our hair in one of the new short, curly French styles. It was interesting talking to this international stylist. He is a member of the exclusive Cercle Creative, International de la Coiffure . . . and is known in Germany, Switzerland, Jordan . . . Alexandre of Paris gave him a special pick flou to put tight finishing touches on coiffures. Mr. Wahib really loves styling long hair. He has created hair-dos for films made in Europe. Now he is booking appointments at Leon's, 17888 Mack Avenue . . . TUxedo 4-9393. By the way, now we have a delightful short curly French hairstyle. Merci!

Robert Mozena . . . president of Mutschler Kitchens told us kitchen carpeting has become very popular because it's so easy to care for and a delight to have under foot while preparing a meal. It does a better job of killing noise than an acoustical ceiling. When planning a kitchen or remodeling one ask the experts at 20227 Mack Avenue about the newest and best ideas.

Narcissus White . . . geranium red, daffodil yellow and fern green . . . Michelle gathered these for a lovely spring bouquet of light weight wool dresses with fresh new styling. Pick several at Michelle's Boutique at Leon, 17888 Mack Avenue. Perfect accessory choice for these fashions are her newsty mini bags.

Martha Gorey . . . and her partner Mary Jo Kerns don't want to take a lot of things with them when they move to Fisher Road because they are planning to stock Martha's Closet with all new things. They have marked the goodies and fashions at Tres Chic Boutique, 18700 Mack Avenue, way down so they'll move advantageously into your closet.

Beautiful Buys . . . at the Notre Dame Pharmacy, 16926 Kercheval include . . . Tussy Hand Lotion, the four dollar size is twenty-five. Tussy Hand Cream is very specially one dollar. Intimate Hand Lotion, the three-fifty size is one seventy-five. Coty's Hand Lotion was three-fifty . . . now two dollars. Dorothy Gray's Hand Lotion is a bargain at one dollar as is her Hand Cream at one-fifty.

Spotted Dots . . . at The Sphere, 19849 Mack Avenue . . . polka dots on earrings in the newly arrived Spring and Resort Collection of costume jewelry. We've always loved daisies and were happy to find them ready to be picked as pins and earrings.

New Product News . . . from Fashion Two Twenty, 20445 Mack Avenue . . . 14K Dawn is a soft glowing iridescent pink . . . available in nail polish and glamorous eye shadow.

Curls Created . . . individually for you . . . for the new curly look at Edward Nept Parrucherie, 19463 Mack Avenue . . . you can have pin-curls . . . one at a time or in clusters. What . . .! More fun . . . real hair clip-on bows match your hair and can be done while you wait. Dark colors are twenty dollars. Streaked bows are twenty-five dollars. For more information or an appointment call TUxedo 4-8858.

Decorators . . . have used shags as accents for years. Now they have come into the popular price area. At Ed Maliszewski Carpeting, 21435 Mack Avenue, they are available in many materials. Cabin Crafts' shag carpets have interesting textures and come in so many colors. Go ahead be a decorator . . . it's easier than you think . . . 776-5510.

Mr. McHugh . . . stresses the importance of musical training before the child actually begins learning to play an instrument. This exposes him to rhythm and melody in simple terms and helps the instructor make a better evaluation of his potential ability and particular interests. Sessions of Pre-instrument at the Music Playshop, Fisher Road, are excellent ways to entertain and educate children in a way appropriate for his years. Classes are limited. Call TUxedo 5-6215 for more information.

Come In . . . and see the new Hotpoint built-in appliances at Kitchen Remodelers, 15281 East Jefferson. Let one of their experts show you how to save money on kitchen remodeling through proper planning. Their interior decorator will do a color rendering of your proposed new kitchen so you can see how it will look before you decide to go ahead . . . LO 7-2400.
