UNITED STATES ARMY troops clashed today with about 400 demonstrators South Korean college students. The South Korean national police reported that 24 students were injured by bullets or rifle butts. GIs from the 2nd U.S. Infantry fired an estimated 20 rounds of warning shots during the two-hour melee on Freedom Bridge a mile below the demilitarized zone, according to police reports.

Friday, February 9

NORTH VIETNAMESE troops made a heavy artillery and ground attack on the United States Marine combat base at Khe Sanh Thursday after taking the Lang Vei Special Forces camp nearby in the northwest corner of the country. AP correspondent John T. Wheeler reported from Khe Sanh that the Red gunners fired more than 300 artillery, rocket and mortar rounds into Marine positions there, and North Vietnamese troops drove the Marines from part of the hilltop out-post a mile from the perimeter of the Khe Sanh base. The Marines counter-attacked with heavy artillery and air support and drove the North Vietnamese down the hill.

THE UNIVERSITY OF Michigan's campus newspaper, the Michigan Daily, in a copyrighted story in its Friday edition, alleged that University of Michigan athletes have been receiving discounts, free passes and part-time jobs in businesses and movie theaters, in probable violation of Big Ten rules. When asked about the discount policy, Wolverine basketball Coach Dave Strack said: "I didn't realize that they were such a common practice, but I knew, of course, that they weren't an uncommon practice. I've never thought about their legality and I am frankly surprised that they are considered illegal aid." John D. Dewey, Big Ten assistant commissioner and examiner, was quoted by the campus paper as saying that he would consider this discount practice a violation of conference rules. There was no indication if the Big Ten planned to investigate the allegations, but Dewey said he planned to be kept informed on any developments. U-M Athletic Director H.O. "Fritz" Crisler said, "I will conduct an immediate investigation and clamp down on anything uncovered."

GOVERNOR NELSON Rockefeller and Mayor John Lindsay have had sharp differences over the settlement of the sanitation strike which has hit New York City. Although sanitation workers have begun to pick up garbage and trash a settlement has not been reached to date. The Mayor and Governor crossed swords over the advisability of calling in the National Guard to remove the garbage and trash that has engulfed the city during the nine-day strike. Mayor Lindsay's request for the Governor was turned down by the Governor.

AN AMERICAN MILITARY spokesman said today that twin-engine pet bombers have been sighted at the Phucyen Air Base 18 miles northwest of Hanoi. The air base is within striking range of the United States Marine stronghold of Khe Sanh. Air Force sources reported that the North Vietnamese might have as many as six such planes. They were described as Soviet-built IL-28's, first built in 1950 and now considered obsolete. They can carry a 6,000-pound bomb load and have a top speed of 550 miles an hour. Their maximum range is 1,000 miles.

Tuesday, February 13

SOUTH VIETNAM'S president, Nguyen Van Thieu, said Monday allied forces can hold the line in Vietnam but more United States troops will be needed to bring the war to a quick end. He spoke while U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese fought together in Hue in an effort to wipe out the last major pocket of Communist resistance in the walled Citadel. South Vietnamese warplanes pounded the fortress.

New Lure Designed to Snare Best Teachers

A new set of teacher recruiting materials has been put into use by The Grosse Pointe Public School System as one means of attracting teachers to fill future vacancies. A folder of materials, described as "a blend of line drawings and photographs based on school activities, warm colors that smack of 1968," has been prepared by the schools' Public Relations Advisory Committee, composed of residents who are professionals in the field of communications, art, and advertising, in cooperation with the office of the Superintendent and the Department of Professional Personnel.

Blood Drive Being Held Here Today

Red Cross Mobile Unit Completing Two-Day Collection At Memorial Church; Donors Are Needed

A Red Cross bloodmobile is in The Pointe today, Thursday, February 15, between the hours of 2 and 8 p.m., at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore.

Blood is a medicine. Whole blood, and its derivatives, is one of the 10 most often used medicines today. However, there is only one source — the human body.

Day or night, anyone may need blood or its products. Every 60 seconds — over ten units of blood are used in this country to treat the ill or injured.

This is the purpose of the Red Cross Blood Program — to provide a continuing blood service to meet requirements for whole blood and blood products without charge for the blood itself. Red Cross provides the channel through which voluntary blood donations can be made. What can you do? You can give when a bloodmobile visits your area.

LOSES MINK BOA. Alice Ohs of 2050 Stanhope, called Wood's police on Sunday, February 11 and reported that she had lost her mink boa, a collar-type fur piece, near Chester and Stanhope. Value of the boa is $60, she said.

Youths Nabbed After Chase Spend Night in City Jail

City police officers Donald Steckman and David Teolis were on routine patrol on Monday, February 5, at 10:40 p.m., when they were approached by three young people who said they had been stopped by four males in a '59 Ford, who attempted to rob them near Farms Drugs on Kercheval. Just as the youths were reporting this to the officers, the car they had described approached. The officers immediately gave chase and sent in general broadcast to all cars in the area. The Ford headed west on Kercheval to West, north on Neff to Waterloo, west on Waterloo, at a high rate of speed. The car was the fleeing car then turned off the car lights, and continued on, disregarding the traffic signal at Cadieux. On the

Advertising Experts And Artists Help In Creation Of New Kit To Replace Out-Dated Booklets Used To Attract Mentors

As plans for recruiting teachers for The Grosse Pointe Public School System for the 1968-69 year begin in earnest this month, administrators report increasing competition for the calibre of professional personnel needed to maintain the community's traditional standard of quality education.

"In fact, we have had to resort to a number of new techniques designed to attract the well-trained person whom other metropolitan districts also find desirable," Lawrence F. Kennedy, Assistant Superintendent-Professional Personnel stated recently.

For example, with the assistance of the schools' Public Relations Advisory Committee, the Department of Professional Personnel has completely revamped its recruiting materials.

Old Booklets Outdated "Our supply of recruiting booklets is exhausted, and although that booklet was a prize-winner in its day, we felt that it had become dated and not descriptive enough of what we believe to be the advantages of teaching in Grosse Pointe," Mr. Kennedy said.

The genesis of the new recruiting materials evolved from the formation, a year ago, of the schools' Public Relations Advisory Committee. This group, under the chairmanship of George T. Edgington, Assistant to the Superintendent, has delved into a number of aspects of school-community communication, with an eye toward improving them.

Grosse Pointe residents who served as committee members who worked on the recruiting materials included Theodore J. Wilner, of J. Walter Thompson Co., David Fairless, of Michigan Bell Telephone Co., and William Ludwig, of Touche, Ross, Bailey, and Smart.

School Staff Helps School staff members, in addition to Mr. Edgington, included Gary Souter, graphics art teacher at Grosse Pointe High School, and Mrs. Joan Kubista, currently on leave from Mason School.

Her husband John, an artist himself and currently a sales representative for a New Center Studios, became interested in the project through his wife's participation on the committee. Mr. Kubista brought the project (Continued on Page 4)

Driver Accused As Hit-Runner While on routine patrol on Monday, February 5, City Police Officer David Teolis observed a blue Corvette going north on Lincoln with license plates corresponding to those belonging to a car that was wanted in a hit and run accident resulting in property damage in the Park on Monday, February 5, at Balfour and Vernor.

Erect Signs To Designate Bike Route

Woods To Mail Brochures To Residents Before Official Opening Scheduled for April

Many Woods residents have noticed the number of bike route signs appearing throughout the city in the last months. This is the latest addition to the Woods' recreational facilities and the result of collaboration between the city's departments of Parks and Recreation and Public Safety. The route was chosen after consultation with authorities on bikes, traffic and recreation.

Comparable routes in many urban communities have met with marked success. The primary intent is to provide a safe, scenic, accessible trail for all residents. Statistics reveal that there are fewer accidents on marked bicycle routes than on unmarked ones.

However, the goal of establishing a bike route is to encourage cycling and is not to be interpreted as an effort to limit all cycling to the route itself. As in the past, one may cycle wherever he wishes. However, it is hoped that the marked trails will receive the heaviest flow of bikes. Past experience reveals that once motorists become familiar with bike routes, automobile traffic along the route lessens.

To Mail Brochures Prior to the official opening of the route in April brochures will be mailed to all residents. (Continued on Page 3)

State Law Says Who May Vote

School officials have been asked recently why all qualified electors, (and their spouses), may vote on Proposition #1 in the February 26 school election, while only property owners, (and their spouses), vote on Propositions #2 and #3? According to State Law, all qualified electors may vote on levies which run five years and less. Proposition #1 in the February 26 election is designated to run for two years. If a millage proposition runs more than five years, according to law, only property owners may vote. If passed, Proposition #2 will run for 10 years. By Michigan law all bonding propositions, regardless of length of time, may be approved by property owners.

Effort Continues To Inform Voters On School Issues

Possible Questions On Proposition 2 Answered In Quiz Prepared By Trustees Of Board of Education

In an effort to inform the community fully on the background to the special school election scheduled for February 26, the trustees of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education are conducting an informal campaign designed to answer all questions that citizens may have concerning the issues. Proposition No. 1 was covered in last week's issue of the NEWS.

Proposition #2 seeks to levy one mill for building and site purposes over a 10-year period to finance additions to elementary buildings as needed, to modernize portions of Grosse Pointe High School, and to improve middle school facilities.

WHY ARE THE TAXPAYERS BEING ASKED TO PROVIDE FUNDS FOR BUILDING ADDITIONS AND REMODELING?

In spite of the fact that Grosse Pointe is an "old" suburb, we continue to grow at the rate of approximately 300 to 400 students per year.

Trombly, Defer and Mason elementary schools and Grosse Pointe High School were opened in the 1920's. And, although all of them have been kept in excellent condition over the years, there comes a time when additions and major repairs are vital. For example, more than $100,000 of the money raised by the proposed building and site levy will be used in the replacement of the original heating plant at Trombly School, built in 1927.

WHY DOES THE BOARD OF EDUCATION WISH TO SPEND FUNDS ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC FACILITIES AT SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL WHEN NORTH HIGH SCHOOL HAS SUCH A COMPLETE AUDITORIUM-INSTRUMENTAL CENTER?

The music classrooms at South High School have been inadequate for many years and are substandard on many counts. There will be no facilities for performance constructed at South High School. All major productions will be held at North High School.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION HAS STATED THAT COMPLETE RENOVATION OF SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL MAY BE NEEDED, FOR WHICH FUNDS WOULD BE SOUGHT AT A LATER DATE. WHAT ARE THE HOPES FOR THE MODERNIZATION OF THAT BUILDING?

Tentative plans call for new facilities in vocal and instrumental music and classrooms devoted to fine arts. Also high on the agenda is the utilization of auditorium space in the best possible manner. With the proposed elimination of the quonset hut, better facilities would be provided for driver education. Other items necessary in the general renovation of a building which has seen 40 years of hard wear are new corridor floors and student lockers and more adequate facilities for the staff.

Board Hears Objection to King's Visit

Trustee Arnold Fuchs Questions Wisdom Of Invitation To Negro Leader

By Pepper Whitelaw The trustees of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education met for a regular meeting Monday, February 12, in the gymnasium of Maire Elementary School. Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, president, chaired the meeting while Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, presented his monthly report.

A half-hour audio-visual presentation on the building needs of the Grosse Pointe Public Library was conducted by William Y. Gard, president of the Friends of the Library, and Robert M. Orr, director of Public Libraries.

In his report on the functioning of the school system, Dr. Anderson provided additional insights into a number of items in his written report. For example, he said that within two months the Board of Education will receive his recommendation concerning the complete future program for the high schools. He indicated that an intensive campaign of high school orientation has been conducted recently by the principals and staff among 8th and 9th graders throughout the system.

Hopes for Improvement Dr. Anderson also said that he hopes to improve the school system's process for evaluating current and proposed programs of instruction.

Reporting on progress in the construction of North High School, Dr. Joe Spagnoli, Assistant Superintendent-Administrative Services, indicated that the possibility of strikes in the various building trades has caused serious concern in meeting the building's May 1 completion deadline. Completion is now slated on four portions of the building between April 1 and May 1. Dr. Spagnoli indicated that there is not much hope that the auditorium-instructional center will be completed by May 1. It was revealed that the electrical work is behind schedule.

Dr. Spagnoli said that the library facilities of the academic wing will probably be completed by March 1. Equipment for the cafeteria will be on hand by the end of the week.

Staff Assignments Among the new staff assignments approved for 1968-69 were the appointment of Joseph Carruthers as football coach of Grosse Pointe North High School and three Instructional Materials Specialists for the middle schools: Mrs. Mary Jane Better for Brownell, Robert Roddewig for Parcell, and Donald Richards for Pierce. Mr. Carruthers is currently at St. Ambrose School. He will also teach Social Studies.

The trustees accepted the bid in the amount of $163,374.52 for furniture for North High School as presented by J. Edward Snell, purchasing agent.

Ray MacArthur, Director of Business and Finance, presented his monthly report, which was approved by the trustees. He also urged interested citizens to make an appointment (Continued on Page 2)

Burglar Steals Coins, Cameras

A burglar used a pair of hedge clippers to force a window to enter the home of Andrew Samson, 1183 Hampton road, on Saturday, February 10, according to Woods police. The thief escaped with sets of collectors' coins and three cameras. Samson, after taking inventory, told investigating officers that the person who broke into his house, took a coin book containing pennies, one containing nickels, another with quarters, and still another filled with 50-cent pieces, and a five-shilling piece that was in a cloth bag. Also missing, Samson said, was a Bell and Howell 8mm movie camera, a 35 mm Revere electric eye camera, and a Model 250 Polaroid camera. Neither the values of these items, nor the market values of the missing coins, were disclosed. Investigation of the break-in was referred to officers of the Detective Bureau.

Help Asked To Identify Biting Dog

Two Boys Must Take Painful Pasteur Treatment Unless Animal Is Found By Saturday

Woods police are looking for a large, shaggy dog that had bitten two Ferry School pupils on Tuesday, February 6. It is important that this animal be located, or the bite victims will have to be given the painful Pasteur treatment for rabies.

The cooperation of citizens who might know the dog is urgently requested, since the information must be in the hands of the authorities by Saturday, February 17, when the treatment of the pupils, both boys, is scheduled to begin.

On the February 6 date, the boys, Robert Roddewig, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roddewig of 1640 Roslyn road, and Robert Doyle, 10, son of the Jerry Doyle of 1516 Blairmoor, while on the way to school, were bitten by a playful dog that eluded attempts to capture and identification.

The animal is described as being a large grey, or grey and white, long shaggy-haired dog, believed to have been wearing a brown collar with silver ornaments.

According to one of the parents of the bite victims, the animal entered the school building, and was seen by many teachers and pupils, before it was chased out of the building.

Information, regardless how insignificant it might seem, should be telephoned to the Woods Department of Public Safety, 886-2700. Time is of the utmost importance, police said.

Deadbeats Drive With Stolen Gas

Mike Smith of Yaklin's Shell Service, 16980 Kercheval, called City Police on Thursday, February 8, to report that two white males had entered the station in a red and white, '56 Ford and asked to have their car filled with gasoline.

The two then went to the drugstore. After the attendant filled the tank he went back into the station office during which time the two returned and drove off without paying for the gasoline. All cars were notified.

GP Park Residents Protest Proposed Bank Parking Lot

At a public hearing held in the Park council chambers on Monday, February 12, interested residents, including 15 who would be directly affected, proposed the development of an off-street parking lot on Barrington road by the Michigan Bank.

The council, convened at a hearing at the request of Samuel Travis, attorney for the bank, on the grounds that two members of the city body, Mayor Matthew Patterson and Councilman William Luedders, were away from the city. Mayor Pro Tem Robert Hutton presided at the meeting.

The attorney contended that the absence of these officials, if a vote is taken, could be counted as "no" votes, because they were not present to say whether they are for or against the proposed development. Davis asked that the public hearing be postponed at least until sometime in April, at which time all members of the council will be present. This aroused members of protest, and several of the citizens in the audience said that the hearing should be held, since those living within 300 feet of the proposed parking lot had already been notified, as required by law, and were present in the building. They said that they feared that if the meeting is postponed because of the absence of Patterson and Luedders, that at the next meeting, other members of the council might be absent and the hearing could be postponed again. Besides, they said, the people (Continued on Page 6) with him if they do not understand the relationship of the probable reassessment of property to school taxation.

Might Reduce Levy
The Board members reiterated that they will levy only the taxes needed to meet the budgets proposed for the next two years. The requested 7 1/2 mill levy is the maximum the Board would levy. If a reassessment provides a larger tax base, the trustees will levy only the amount needed to cover the estimated $5,000,000 deficit over the next two years.

George T. Eddington, Assistant to the Superintendent, made an informal report on the improved recruiting materials, developed by the schools' Public Relations Advisory Committee, and which constitute a donation of artistic and literary talent estimated at between $10,000 and $15,000.

The work of the Committee was commended by Calvin J. Sandberg, trustee.

It was announced that John T. Short, treasurer of the Board of Education, will represent the local schools at the February 29 budget hearing of the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

To Enlarge Play Area

The Board approved, subject to the approval of the attorney, the acquisition of 8,000 square feet of land adjacent to the Edsel Ford Expressway as an addition to the grounds of Poupard School.

President Hykes invited interested community residents to tour Grosse Pointe North High School from 1:30 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, February 18.

Mrs. Hykes urged citizens to vote in the special school election set for February 26. Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, secretary, said that the switchboard operator at the schools' Administration Building would be on duty to give election results the evening of February 26.

Mrs. Hykes then asked members of the Board if they had any other business. At this point Arnold P. Fuchs, trustee, said he would like to present factual proof substantiating statements he made at the last board meeting regarding Dr. Martin Luther King. At that time Mr. Fuchs indicated that he believed that Dr. King was not the apostle of non-violence as he is purported to be. He then read aloud statements he said were from the National Review, The Congressional Record, and other national publications in making his point.

Cites Police Reaction

Mr. Fuchs also said that he spoke with two local police chiefs regarding Dr. King's visit and found them concerned over Dr. King's visit to the Point.

Here Dr. Joe Spagnoli pointed out that the concern felt by the chiefs was the type of concern involved when any national figure visits a community and that the precautions being taken were those normally undertaken to protect a person of national importance.

Mrs. Hykes then asked members of the audience for any questions. Much discussion took place regarding the request of the local Human Relations Council to use school facilities for an address in March by Dr. Martin Luther King, which the Council is sponsoring. The long-standing policy of the school system has been to permit use of facilities for such purposes by various community groups.

Invitation Defended

Dr. Charles Brake and Dr. Harry Meserve, past president and president of the Human Relations Council expressed their feelings on Dr. King's forthcoming visit and assured the audience that the Human Relations Council were a reliable group of 300 Pointers.

Other questions from the audiences were directed to Mr. Orr and Mr. Gard regarding plans for the libraries, and to Superintendent Theos Anderson regarding administrative salary increases. Dr. Anderson said that there were definite indications that the school administrators would organize in the near future.

The question was also posed as to why the library officials haven't contacted the Ford Foundation regarding donations to the libraries. Speakers on the issue said that some charitable Foundations had been contacted but the Foundations indicated that they would like to see what local initiative would do.

Driver Facing Several Charges

George Mucutza, 52, of 1089 Newport, Detroit, following his arrest by Woods police on Sunday, February 11, on a traffic violation charge, refused to allow the arresting officer to move or park his car, and it was towed away and impounded for being illegally parked.

Macutza was traveling south on Mack avenue, and according to the arresting officer, Patrolman Bruce Marone, at higher than the posted 35-mile speed. Marone said he gave chase and paced the motorist at 45 miles an hour.

Not only was Mucutza speeding, Marone said, but he was weaving from lane to lane. The policeman said he tried to stop Mucutza near the Detroit-Woods city limits, but was unable to do so, but finally halted him at LaFontaine and Mack in Detroit.

Marone said he asked the driver for his operator's license and vehicle registration, which Mucutza was unable to produce. When informed he was under arrest for drunk driving, Mucutza became belligerent and used profane language, the patrolman said.

Marone radioed the station for assistance and Patrolman Thomas Podeszwick and Lee Cochill were dispatched to the scene and aided in taking the errant driver to the station, where Mucutza refused to sign for, or take the breathalyzer test. This uncooperative attitude resulted in the man being placed in the local cell until he was released on $100 bond pending a court hearing.

Marone's report disclosed that since Mucutza's automobile was illegally parked, it was towed to a gas service station, and he will have to pay a tow fee before he can get it back.

HRC Sponsors Visit by King

Martin Luther King Jr. will speak at a public assembly on the evening of March 14, in the Gymnasium of Grosse Pointe High School.

Mr. King's appearance in The Point will be one of three such appearances in the Detroit area. His visit to The Point is sponsored by the Human Relations Council.

Dr. Harry Meserve, minister of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, and a member of the Human Relations Council said of Dr. King's visit, "We believe Dr. King has something important to say not only for communities like ours, but for the whole nation, and we are glad that he has chosen to say it here."

Dr. King's talk is open to the public and tickets will be made available in the near future.

Michigan State soccer players Trevor Harris, Pete Hens and Ernie Tuchscherer were selected to the 1967 All-American team picked by the National Soccer Coaches Association.

State Penalizes 5 Pointe Drivers

Five Pointers were added to the weekly list of Michigan motorists penalized by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing by either having their operators' licenses revoked or suspended, according to a report, dated February 2, received from Secretary of State James M. Hare.

The licenses of three of the Pointers were revoked, and two had their temporarily suspended, it was disclosed.

Banned from operating motor vehicles on the highways and streets of the State, are:

Gene Frederick Lambert of 2100 Lancaster, whose license was revoked on January 22, because of an unsatisfactory driving record and for failing to appear for re-examination; Roger P. Bockenstette of 1350 Maryland, license revoked January 22 because of unsatisfactory driving record and failing to appear for re-examination; and David S. Kiwinney of 1181 South Oxford, whose license was ordered revoked on the same day and for the same reasons as Lambert and Bockenstette.

The two who had their driving privileges suspended are: Jackie Dean Butcher of 21540 Van K drive, from January 18 to March 18, because of an unsatisfactory driving record; and Patie Jane Eveland of 16919 St. Paul, from January 29 to April 29, under the Implied Consent Law.

Hare's report showed that during the week the latest list was compiled, 832 State motorists were taken off the road by having their license temporarily suspended, and 304 more were handed the more severe penalty of revocation.

Bicycle Route Posted

PAMELA and PATTY HALLMAN are deeply interested as TONY GODEERIS, Grosse Pointe Woods employe, erects one of the signs which designate the new route being established in that city. It will be officially opened in April. The story is on Page One of this issue.

One side of the brochure will have a map of the route with points of interest identified. (From time to time the existing routes will be re-evaluated in light of community needs and desires and may be changed. Possible additional routes may be installed in the future). The reverse side of the brochure will contain safe biking tips, a bike maintenance chart, health reasons for cycling, and a brief history of the bike.

Upon receipt of the brochure and prior to their first trip, families are advised to familiarize themselves with the contents of the brochure.

Caution Urged

The need to be extremely cautious in crossing Vernier, Mack, and Marter roads should be stressed. Wherever possible, one should cross these major arteries at traffic signals. This means that cyclists should walk their bikes on the sidewalks for short distances along some portion of the route.

The laws of the city, state, and common sense are, of course, applicable to this route. Riding a bike at night, on or off the route, is not highly recommended. It is hoped that the route will encourage more Woods residents to join the more than 50,000,000 Americans already cycling.

Repots Pistol Taken from Car

Teresa Marie Hay, 13326 Kercheval, went to the City Police station on Wednesday, February 7, to pay towing charges for her car which had broken down at Kercheval and St. Clair on Monday, February 5. The car was towed to the rear of the City Police Station. Upon arrival she discovered that her gun, a German Dryse, 7.65 caliber, eight shot, semi-automatic pistol, had been stolen from the ledge in the back of the dashboard. Police are investigating.

CHILD BITTEN BY DOG

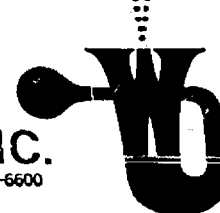

Mrs. Stephen Sweedey, 3 Wellington, reported to City Police on Tuesday, February 6, that her 10-year-old child, Sandy, was playing in the driveway of their home and was approached by two German Shepherds, one of whom bit Sandy on the left leg. Sandy was taken to Bea Secours Hospital for treatment. The owner of the dogs, Frank Donovan, 17160 Jefferson, was notified and advised to keep the dogs in the house for 10 days.

New Lure Designed to Snare Teachers

to the attention of Bill Kastan, a well-known Detroit artist.

Although Mr. Kastan's range of talents and credits is virtually limitless, he had never before worked on a school-related project. His designs have been the focal point of automotive announcement campaigns, he did the layouts and designs of a recruitment brochure for a pharmaceutical house, and currently he is working on the planning stage of materials for the Meadowbrook Theatre.

Has Wide Interests

Mr. Kastan's interest in fine arts include silk screening, serigraph printing, and he dabbles in and collects pop art, and does the announcement for the Franklin Siden art gallery.

The new materials are not a single booklet, but rather a kit containing five attractive folders, each on a topic of interest to the potential teacher.

For example one is devoted to each of the levels of instruction, elementary, middle school, and high school. Another covers the community, while still another covers salary schedules and fringe benefits. A letter to all teaching applicants signed by Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, is also included, as is a map of the metropolitan area.

Paper stock in warm, vibrant colors is used to enhance Mr. Kastan's original black line drawings and appropriate photographs.

A cover showing the lamp of learning interwoven with a stylized row of children also designed by Mr. Kastan provides a unifying touch for the entire kit of materials.

New Symbol Created

A truly distinctive feature of the packet of materials is a modernistic symbol incorporating the letters GP.

"It is envisioned that the symbol may eventually become the 'trade mark' of our school system and perhaps be used on all our publications and letterheads," Mr. Eddington commented.

"We are attracted by the flexibility of the package of materials. In the long run we feel that it will be much cheaper to upgrade one of the small booklets rather than do an entire book," Mr. Kennedy said. "For example, the information on salaries and benefits will probably change yearly, so this package is an economical means of handling changes," he added.

Queried as to how the new materials will be used, Mr. Kennedy said that they will be made available on the more than 75 campuses to be visited by Grosse Pointe recruiters this year.

Mailed to Candidates

In addition, they will be sent to prospective candidates who write in, asking for an application or for information on teaching opportunities in the local schools.

The separate folders may also be made available to new parents of children enrolled in the respective levels of Grosse Pointe Schools.

"We in the Department of Professional Personnel are most grateful for the fine citizen and staff involvement reflected in the new recruiting materials," Mr. Kennedy said.

Regarding cost, he added that the traditional booklet used by the school system cost about 35 cents to print, the new one will cost less than 45 cents.

Credits Mrs. Kubista

"It was Mrs. Kubista, an upper grade teacher, and her interest in elementary education and in art, that spurred us on to the different type of format," Mr. Eddington said.

"We had noticed on our own recruiting trips that the industrial concerns produced booklets of a vastly more imaginative quality than the schools. We now feel certain that as a result of the joint effort of the Public Relations Advisory Committee and the Department of Professional Personnel, we shall

BETTER IDEAS PAY

Better ideas — 28,492 of them — resulted in a $3,000,000 windfall for Ford Motor Company employees in 1967. That was the value of cash, cars and appliances taken home by Ford employees during the year for ideas they submitted under the employee suggestion and management proposal plans. The $3,000,000 payout was the largest for one year in the history of the plans. It included cash, a record 229 new cars and several thousand dollars worth of Philco appliances.

Be sensible — talk to your friends, rather than about them.

be in league with the best of education and the best of industry," he added.

President Pleased

Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, President of the Board of Education, commented on the project. "I have been pleased to participate as liaison between the Board and the Committee," she said. "We on the Board hope that the entire community will realize that we have had the benefit of thousands of dollars worth of time and talent donated freely and generously by such leaders in the communications profession as Mr. Wilner, Mr. Fairless, and Mr. Ludwig.

"The contributions of these three gentlemen are especially noteworthy in that they have all played key leadership roles in the PTA. Mr. Wilner was President of the Defer PTA, Mr. Ludwig of Pierce, and Mr. Fairless of Ferry.

"Mr. Kastan, the Kubistas, and the management of New Center Studios deserve our gratitude for bringing the project to realization. We are indebted to them all," she concluded.

Youths Nabbed After Chase

The men were then handcuffed and placed in two police cars and informed of their Constitutional Rights. They were taken to the City Police Station.

On arrival they were met by a Farms police officer who proceeded to conduct an investigation on attempted robbery.

The car was taken to the station and searched. City officers found an almost empty bottle of wine in the vehicle.

The driver of the car was found to be Albert Robert Tenorio, 748 Van Dyke, Detroit. He was charged with reckless driving and as a minor in possession. Two passengers in the car, Edward E. Ferrante, 3177 E. Layfayette, Detroit, and Isaac Gay Jr. II, 1226 Lennox Detroit, were charged as minors in possession of alcoholic beverages. The third passenger, a juvenile, was filed on in Juvenile Court on the charge of a minor in possession.

The three subjects were held overnight in lieu of $100 bond each and released the next morning. The juvenile was turned over to his father.

Trustee Offers Comparison Of School Taxes in Area

Russell H. Peebles, vice-president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, spoke Monday night to the PTA of Defer School on the need for passage of the three issues on the ballot in the special school election slated for February 26.

In addition to covering the background on the election, Trustee Peebles commented upon a number of related matters.

He indicated, for example, that the trustees of the Board of Education have stated unanimously that in the event of an unexpected increase in the total assessment base of the school district, they will levy only the taxes required to meet the necessary demands of the operating budgets tentatively proposed for the next two years.

The total deficit for the period figure divided by the State in question totals $5,089,047. This Equalized Valuation of $347,911,403, gives 14.656 mills requested, on a maximum levy of 7 1/2 mills each year.

Mr. Peebles stated that in terms of total school tax, Grosse Pointe ranks 29th out of 43 school districts in Wayne County. Grosse Pointe ranks 25th out of the same 43 in operational tax. Grosse Pointe ranks 29th out of 43 in debt service (for buildings).

Mr. Peebles provided comparative tax data with such suburbs as Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. For 1967-68 Birmingham's millage is 30 and its debt service amounts to 5.20, for a total of 35.20. Bloomfield Hills levies 22.10 mills for operation and 7.26 for debt, for a total of 29.36. Grosse Pointe currently levies 25.45 mills total.

"If you agree that our position is relatively favorable at the current time, you may well ask how Grosse Pointe's school tax rates will compare with other area districts if the proposed bond and millage requests are successful," Mr. Peebles said.

"The results of a recently conducted survey indicate that at least 20 Wayne County school districts contemplate requests for increased operational millage in the next two years. The amounts of the proposed levies range from one to 10 mills," he commented.

"If Grosse Pointe schools are to remain as firmly under local control in the future as they are now, additional local financing is necessary," Vice-President Peebles concluded.

Students to Get African Pen-Pals

The Student Council of Grosse Pointe High School has appointed Sue Scheller, Gwen Halbert, Dulce Greene, Carrie Loomis, Shelly Boyd and Lorrie Smith, as a six-member group to organize a committee to establish contact with students in the Tanzanian school sponsored by Grosse Pointe High School.

Students who join this committee will be assigned pen-pals in the African country. The group is also planning a scrap book, which will include pictures and written material which will give the Tanzanian people a picture of the high school.

The committee will also receive lists of articles which the Tanzanian school needs so they will be able to raise money toward these needs.

In an effort to know each other better, both schools will exchange pertinent school publications. The high school is plan-Tower and Proem to the Tanzanian correspondents.

Sue Scheller, who is chairman of the committee, said "People are needed to write letters to adults or teenagers in Tanzania and help compile the scrap book."

She added that the group will not hold any regular meetings and that a student will only be responsible for correspondence with his or her pen-pal.

Interested students will be kept informed of the groups activities through school announcements and The Tower.

WATER CAP MISSING

City Police informed Doug Collision of the Highway Department on Friday, February 9, that the water turn-off cap was missing from the watermain on the southwest corner of Fisher and Maunee. The Highway Department attended to the matter.

Monteith School Holds Assembly

Jean Palazzolo's fifth graders at Monteith School recently held a patriotic assembly for the whole school. Through the use of poems written by the children, and music played by members of the class, a most delightful, appealing assembly was presented.

The flag was very much in evidence as each child marched into the roll of drums, carrying the stars and stripes. Activities of this kind are typical of those conducted throughout the school system to reinforce a respect for American ideals.

WANDERING DOG FOUND

A group of children took a black, female Labrador Retriever to the City Police Station on Wednesday, February 7, whom they found wandering in the area. The owner of the dog,

Mrs. Jack Rowe, 676 Washington, was notified to pick up the dog.

Oppose Bank Parking Lot

directly affected have been inconvenienced in that they had to give up plans for the evening to attend the meeting. What would happen, they asked, if at the next hearing, one or more councilmen are absent, say due to sickness? Would the meeting be postponed, again?

Travis said that he would go on record as agreeing that if any council member is absent due to sickness at a future hearing, the bank would favor holding the session, regardless. He also went on record as saying that the bank is willing to pay for the advertising of the postponed public hearing, and sending out the notice to those living within 300 feet of the proposed project.

The residents protested against any postponement, and said that if the Board of Appeals does grant it, they still would like to be heard at this current hearing, as long as they were present. Hutton consented to this.

On a voice vote for the postponement, Hutton and Councilmen Douglas Graham, George Verdonck and Warren Cougar approved the delay, and Councilman Charles Bowerman, voted against it.

The controversy involves a house at 967 Barrington road, on lot 347, owned by the Michigan Bank. The bank wants to demolish the house and construct an off-street parking lot for the convenience of its customers.

This, the affected residents are against because, they said, the property is zoned residential, and the house is already on the lot. The bank, they charged, knew this was residential at the time they purchased the property.

In spite of the fact that the proposed development was recommended by the Park City Plan Commission, and Vilcan-Leman and Associates, the city's planning consultants, the residents asked the council to reject the bank's request for the proposed lot.

On January 4, the Plan Commission held a special meeting to discuss the request for the off-street parking, along with the proposal of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education's plans for the purchase of Lots 354, owned by the Brandau Family of Detroit, and 355 and 356, owned by the Park, for construction of a branch library building, at Jefferson and Pemberton.

After rendering an opinion, the Plan Commission contended that the bank parking lot and the proposed new library would be a great asset to the total Grosse Pointe Park Civic Center Area.

City Manager Robert Slone read the complete findings and recommendations of the Commission at Monday night's hearing, but it was apparent that the big majority of the people in the audience was not swayed, especially those living within the 300 feet of the proposed project, and they asked the Board of Appeals to turn down the bank's request.

One or two persons favored the parking lot, but they admitted that they did not live in Barrington, or anywhere close to the affected area. One person said he lived in Windmill Pointe drive.

The Michigan Bank had asked the Board of Appeals to grant them a permit for the parking lot in January and February of 1967, but because of the storm of protest by the residents of the Windmill Pointe Subdivision, the bank withdrew its request in the interest of good public relations with its neighbors.

PTA at Mason Meets Feb. 19

The PTA of Mason School will conduct its next meeting on Monday, February 19, at 8 p.m. John Short, treasurer of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, and Ray McArthur, Director of Finance for the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, will speak to the group regarding the impending millage election.

Every effort is being made to acquaint the voting public with all the facts of this vital issue. Questions from the assembly will be welcomed by the speakers.

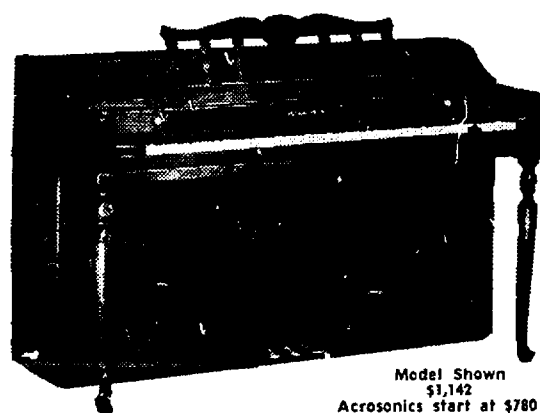

Two children's groups will also contribute to the evening's program. There will be a flag ceremony by the Girl Scouts. Troop No. 887 under the direction of Mrs. Betsy Martin and Mrs. Betty Juenneman and Troop No. 78 under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Chase and Mrs. Cathy Christiansen will participate.

Tony May will present a brief description of the aims and activities of the Indian Guides. Mr. May is Chief of the Longhouse and Chief of the Warriors. Room visitation will begin at 7:30 p.m. and refreshments will be served immediately following the program.

Picture of Ferry Given to School

A picture of the late Dexter M. Ferry, Jr. was donated to Ferry School by his son, W. Hawkins Ferry, and the Ferry family recently. PTA president Charles A. Eckert and principal Edwin Wendt, officially thanked the family by saying that the picture will have a place of honor in the school lobby.

Library Expansion Need Documented by Director

William Y. Gard, president of the Friends of the Library, and Robert M. Orr, director of Public Libraries, spoke at Monday's meeting of the Board of Education on the need for support of Proposition No. 3 in the February 26 community-wide public school and library expansion program.

Using colored slides and transparencies taken in Grosse Pointe's three public libraries, Mr. Orr presented an impressively documented case for improved facilities.

"We of the staff feel responsible for achieving maximum of the facilities made available to us. Present facilities are used to capacity. Expansion of these facilities is necessary if we are to maintain the high quality of library service offered in the past," Mr. Orr said.

"Our Central Library was the first of the suburban public libraries erected after World War II. I planned it, and it should have been twice as large! Suburban libraries since built, serving comparable communities, have been much larger. And the fact that there has been no addition to our facilities in 15 years has hurt," Mr. Orr said.

"Between 1950-51 and 1965-66, the community has sustained a 50 percent increase in population. Registered library users have increased 150 percent and total circulation is up 170 percent. Per capita circulation of books has gone from 4 to 7.3, with no increase in facilities for the past 15 years," he commented.

"But perhaps most important of all—based on a population of 70,000, we should have two-thirds more books than we now have!" Director Orr said.

Mr. Orr said that the congestion among patrons and lack of facilities for staff, so apparent at the Central Library, are equally serious in the Woods and Park Branches. Compounding their problem is the fact that both facilities, housed in junior highs, are materials Centers as these buildings are developed as middle schools, beginning in the fall of 1968.

CHURCH VANDALIZED

An official of St. Michael's Episcopal Church, 20475 Sunningdale, called Woods police on Saturday, February 10, to report that vandals smashed 15 small windows on the south side of the church building, and damaged the metal frames. It did not appear as though someone tried to break into the building, it was said.

"Without this proposed expansion program, the Grosse Pointe Public Library will be even more handicapped in trying to give you the library service you deserve! The choice is between second class facilities or facilities which will make possible a program of excellence!" Mr. Orr concluded.

The "why's" of the forthcoming school millage election will be detailed for members of the Richard School Community at a meeting of the Richard P.T.A. Tuesday, February 20, at 8 p.m. in the school's auditorium-gymnasium.

Mrs. Alice Mary Hykes, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, will speak on "The Millage Election—What It Will Do and What It Won't Do for children."

Following her talk, Mrs. Hykes and George Eddington, assistant to the superintendent of Grosse Pointe schools, will answer questions from the audience.

PARKING METER STOLEN

Cpl. Edward H. Behrend of the City Police reported that sometime between February 2 and February 5 persons unknown had stolen a parking meter from the commercial parking lot in the rear of 17000 Kercheval. The meter was located on the south side of Kercheval between Notre Dame and St. Clair.

School Election Questions

programs geared to the needs of the pre-adolescent and early adolescent rather than being patterned after the senior high school.

WILL REMODELING BE REQUIRED TO CONVERT THE PRESENT JUNIOR HIGH BUILDINGS INTO ADEQUATE MIDDLE SCHOOLS?

Concern for building renovation at the middle school level centers about two areas: (1) enlarging and equipping the libraries so that they may function effectively as learning centers; and (2) development of more flexible classrooms.

Unless the middle school libraries are improved, none of these may be accredited by the North Central Association. And, at Pierce and Parcels, the space currently occupied by the public libraries is needed for school purposes.

Some walls may be removed to provide large-group instruction areas and some lighting and water facilities may be relocated. At Pierce, for example, centralized office space for counselors is also needed, as is storage for audio-visual equipment, and team planning centers adjacent to the instructional areas.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A LEVY FOR "OPERATING MILLAGE" AND ONE FOR "BUILDING AND SITE"?

Any monies in a building and site levy must go for "brick mortar" (capital improvement) and land. Operational millage must be allocated to salaries, supplies, and operating expenses (heat, light, water).

HOW DOES A "BOND ISSUE" DIFFER FROM THESE?

The Board seeks permission to borrow money and issue bonds to provide funds to construct and equip new buildings or additions through proceeds of a bond issue. Money from the sale of bonds can be used only for purposes outlined on the ballot.

MAY THE FUNDS PROVIDED BY THE PASSAGE OF PROPOSITION #2 BE USED FOR THE PURCHASE OF SCHOOL SITES?

Yes, if the Board of Education deems such a move necessary for the construction of new schools or to enlarge existing sites.

City Managers Honor R. A. Slone

Park City Manager Robert A. Slone was elected president of the Michigan Chapter of the International City Managers Association, following the 20th Annual Meeting of the organization held at the Rackham Building, Ann Arbor, on February 7 through 9. The tenure is for one year.

Other officers picked for 1968 are: Bruce Love of Royal Oak, first vice-president; R. L. Larson of Sault Ste. Marie, second vice-president; David E. Firestone of Portage, third vice-president; and Kenneth Northus of Manistee, fourth vice-president.

The International City Managers Association Conference is scheduled to be held in Detroit on October 20-25, in Cobo Hall. An estimated 1,000 city managers are expected to be in attendance, it was said.

PTA at Kerby Meets Feb. 19

A program designed to increase its members' understanding of local education has been planned by the Kerby PTA for 8 p.m. on Monday, February 19, it was announced by John Wood, President.

Featured speakers include Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, and Richard W. Kay, Director of the Department of Community Services for The Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Mrs. Hykes's remarks will provide background for a better understanding of the issues of the February 26 special school election. A long-time community resident with an outstanding record of civic involvement, Mrs. Hykes is the first woman to be elected president of the local Board of Education.

Mr. Kay, formerly principal of Richard School, will describe new programs and classes provided by the Department of Community Service for virtually every age and interest group in the Grosse Pointes.

The program in the gymnasium will be preceded by room visitation and followed by a social hour. Mrs. James Teetzel and Mrs. Carl Sultzman are social co-chairmen and Mrs. Joseph Hartmann is in charge of the decorations.

The committee consists of Mrs. Albert Perlin, Mrs. James Kasl, Mrs. Walter Payne, Mrs. Richard Frost, Mrs. Kim Nuyn, Mrs. Muir Snow, Mrs. Jack Siekmann, Mrs. Harold Paget, and Mrs. Ronald Edmunds.

Art Teachers Having Exhibit

The art teachers of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools are currently having an exhibit of their work at the Hospitality Center of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company in Kercheval avenue in the Village.

This show, which will run through February 28, includes drawings by Robert Rathbun, mosaics by John Wargelin, photo collages by Emily Scott, jewelry by Lorraine Krentzin, etchings by Arlene McFeaters, and paintings by Esther Mel-drum, Allan Ebert, Julia Meighan, John Wargelin, Robert Rathbun, Mimi Williams and Charles Jorgensen.

The Hospitality Center is open daily except Saturday and Sunday, and the public is invited to this exhibit.

REPORTS THEFT

Albert F. Welch of 1095 Cadieux, called Farms police and stated that while he was swimming in the pool at Brownell Junior High School, an unknown person broke into his locker and stole his wallet which contained $2 and personal papers. Later, the same day, Wednesday, February 7, the wallet was found by a school employee, with the contents missing.

People who live within their income today find it a very effective way to reduce.

GP Woods Fur Store Robbed

The burglar, or burglars who broke into the Kay Anos Furs, 19261 Mack avenue, during the night of Thursday, February 8, were in the place for only three minutes, Woods police were informed by an official of the Guardian Alarm company of Detroit.

Woods Patrolman Lee Cochill, who was dispatched to the shop at 3:30 a.m., to investigate the alarm ringing, said he arrived at the scene and was met by Farms Patrolmen John Erskine and John Kraiza, both of whom went to the rear of the building, while Cochill covered the front. The three policemen entered the store together and began a search, but no one was in the building.

The policemen found that the burglars broke into the building through the window at the rear of the edifice. Whoever broke in, they said, kicked in and made a 12-inch hole in a quarter-inch plywood wall, which forms the north, or inside wall of a passageway leading to the fur storage room.

In kicking the wall, it was said, the thief caused a rack filled with numerous boxes to collapse and spill the boxes into the aisleway.

Armen Anos, 33, of 19823 West Ida Lane, owner of the store, arrived at the scene, summoned by the Alarm company. Shortly after, Capt. Romal Griggs of the farm firm came to the store.

Griggs told the officers that whoever had been in the store, remained only three minutes. He said that the store is wired with an "Ultra-Sonic" Alarm, which fills the shop with sound waves. When the person, or persons, entered the shop, they set off the alarm and when they left, the alarm went off. According to this, Griggs said, the alarm recorder at Guardian Alarm Headquarters showed a three-minute ringing.

Anos took inventory, and revealed that about seven or eight hats had been taken from a showcase in the store. The glass of the case was smashed.

The store owner said that the hats are valued at between $32 and $42 each.

Officers of the Detective Bureau were assigned to further investigate the burglary.

Developmental Kindergarten Is Fun

Pilot Project Kindergarten At Trombly Big Success

By Pepper Whitelaw
When we heard about the Developmental Kindergarten, a Pilot Project being conducted at Trombly School it sounded like a theoretically perfect approach to the child of kindergarten age who for reasons of immaturity and/or developmental lag does not enter regular kindergarten too demanding.

After seeing the class in action we believe that the project is a lot more than theory. It is a wonderful working arrangement—a labor of love between teacher and student—a time of maturing—and a fun time too. (This was quite apparent in the children's faces.) Each time one of them had anything to say the other children listened and most important of all, their teacher, Mrs. Betty Maynard, listened, commented and congratulated them. It was a delight to behold.

The Department of Pupil Personnel with the encouragement of the Superintendent of Schools and the Grosse Pointe Board of Education had the foresight to see that this type of pilot program could develop into just what we described.

The general aim of the program is to provide nurture to abet nature. The main principles guiding the program are: Future learning disabilities may be prevented. The Developmental Kindergarten therefore serves preventive, remedial, and intensive functions. Early diagnosis is essential in both the prevention and remediation of learning disabilities of the present and of the future. Some children do "outgrow" certain "immaturities" while others do so only in varying degrees, if at all.

As yet there is no adequate means of foretelling which children will do so and which will not. Therefore extended observation is necessary; many "immaturities" may be properly developed or significantly attenuated to insure better adjustment as the child proceeds through his school career. The program must be flexible, designed to fit the children enrolled and not the children to the program.

The purpose of the Developmental Kindergarten is to provide an intensive, stimulating program for children with potential learning disabilities, with special emphasis given to speech, language, gross motor and visual motor development. Further purposes of the program are to provide an extended observational period, to provide an extensive diagnostic period, to remediate existing problems through educational and clinical efforts by means of a multidisciplinary approach but most essentially to provide the children with the opportunity to be in school under the guidance of a staff that is dedicated to the philosophy of providing for individual differences.

Classic Offered By Film Forum

THE INFORMER, a classic of betrayal and punishment, is the film to be presented by the Friends Film Forum and the Grosse Pointe Public Library on February 16, at 9:15 p.m. in the main Reading Room of the Central Library. This is a series which is especially planned to provide unusual and outstanding films for discriminating viewers.

This month's film was directed by John Ford and is based on a novel by Liam O'Flaherty. It stars Victor McLaglen with Margot Graham, Heather Angel, Preston Foster, Wallace Ford and Una O'Connor.

THE INFORMER is set up against a background of the 1922 Irish Rebellion and has been widely praised for its maturity of subject, classic unity of time, and place imaginative direction and artistic photography. The psychology of the informer is depicted with a sureness and effectiveness rare in the cinema, through the subjective use of images and inner monolog. It has been called a classic drama of man's conscience.

The film won four Academy Awards, the New York Film Critics' Awards for Best Motion Picture and Best Direction; Best American Film of the Year and an award for Best Scenario at the Venice Film Festival in 1935.

The general public is invited to attend this program and other Film Forum programs which are presented on the third Friday of each month, October through April.

Anyone can be proud of making his mark in the world except when he's in red ink.

St. Paul Holding Winter Carnival

With snow on the ground and the temperatures again falling, the setting is perfect for the St. Paul's Annual Winter Carnival, to be held the weekend of February 16-18.

Sponsored by the St. Paul's Student Council, the weekend will open with an exciting basketball game between the Lakers and St. Clement. Tip-off time is 8 p.m.

Saturday will be a time for all prospective Red Wings and Olympic skaters to enjoy themselves at the Farms Pier.

In the evening the Student Council has rented the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club for a semi-formal dance featuring the "Red Carpet Treatment."

Sunday afternoon, Winter Carnival weekend will close with a toboggan trip to Warsaw Park.

No man who is enjoying life can ever be termed a failure.

Cub Pack Holds Annual Dinner

Cub Pack 85, of Monteith Elementary School held its annual Blue and Gold Dinner on February 6 at the Allard House in Harper Road. One hundred and fifty Cub Scouts and their parents sat at tables decorated by each den.

Magic tricks and humorous sketches by the Safety Ranger provided the entertainment for the boys. In addition to awards to the Cub Scouts, a special trophy was presented to Dr. James E. Greer, Cubmaster.

Hockey Players Host Canadians

The Grosse Pointe Hockey Association hosted six teams from Watford, Canada last weekend, February 10 and 11, at McCann ice rink, through the courtesy of Grosse Pointe University School.

The Mayor of Grosse Pointe Woods, Kenneth McLeod opened the competition by dropping the first puck. Despite the extremely cold weather, the teams put on a fine display of skill and sportsmanship. After the first session Saturday, the Grosse Pointe team members invited their counterparts from Watford to spend the night in their homes.

The G.P.H.A. made a fine showing by winning five games in the six divisions, the Squirts, ages 8 to 10, the Pee Wee All Stars and the Pee Wee Travel Squad, ages 10 to 12, the Bantams, ages 12 to 14, the Midgets, ages 14 to 16. The only loss came in the Juvenile division, ages 16 to 18.

The final scores were; in the Squirt Division 6-0, goals by Brian Cammett (3), Randy Christofferson (2), Chad Morris (1); in the Pee Wee All Star division, 7-0, goals by Dennis (4), Bruce McDavitt (2), Tom Gottfredson (1); in the Pee Wee Travel division, 5-3, scoring for Grosse Pointe were Rick Linzell (2), Chip Lenahan (1), Dennis Godin (1) and Jay Henderson (1). Scoring for Watford were Robert Richardson (1), John Saunders (1), and Peter Van Lieshout (1); the Bantam final was 3-1. Scoring for G.P. were Mike Keay (2), Pat Costello (1), scoring for Watford, Glenn Thompson; Midgets, 3-2, scoring for G.P., Mike Stewart, Chuck Socia, Keith Olsen all had one goal, for Watford, Tom Shea and Rick Williamson each had one goal.

The only set-back came in the Juvenile division. Grosse Pointe suffered a heart breaking defeat at the hands of a stubborn Watford team. The final was 4-2. Goal scorers for G.P. were Greg Ulmer and Doug Kavelage. Mike Blunt scored three goals and Randy Brown scored one giving Watford their only win in the two day meet.

Lakers Conquer St. David Five

Laker Jeff Ploen sunk four free throws in the last minute of the final quarter to lift St. Paul's varsity basketball team to a 51-48 victory over the Aviators of St. David. St. Paul's record now stands at 7-5. The lead exchanged hands several times during the encounter played in the Laker gym on Friday, February 9.

St. Paul scored the first four points of the game but the Aviators came out on top, 14-9, at the end of the first period. Second quarter play terminated in a 28-28 tie. The Lakers really hustled in the second half and recaptured the lead, 42-35 in the third period.

Jeff Ploen led the Laker scor-

Salesian Beats St. Paul Tankers

Salesian High School splashed by the St. Paul Tankers last Friday, February 2, at Brownell Junior High by a score of 54-49.

Though Salesian led the entire meet, the Tankers gathered five firsts and six seconds, trailing by only a few points throughout the encounter. The final decided the victor.

Salesian's 200-yard medley relay team whipped St. Paul's combination giving the squad an 8-4 lead. In the next event, the 200-yard freestyle, Andriun of Salesian touched out Tanker Dave Fromm by one-tenth of a second. This increased Salesian's lead to a five point margin.

Jim Hayes of St. Paul grabbed a first in the diving event and Jim Webb won the 100-yard butterfly. Pete Peacock and Bob Hurley nailed down number one positions in the 100-yard freestyle and 100-yard backstroke events respectively.

Jim Webb's first in the 100-yard breaststroke narrowed Salesian's lead to only one point. But the opposition's 400-yard freestyle relay entry easily outdid St. Paul's foursome for a five point marginal victory over the Tankers.

Park LL Holds Annual Election

The annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Park Little League Baseball was held at the Main Library, Kercheval and Fisher, on Monday, February 5, with President Ralph Sandt conducting the session.

The annual election of officers and directors was held, with the following chosen to serve for 1968: Warren D. Couger, president; Neil A. Patterson, vice-president and player agent; Jack W. Tocco, vice-president; Richard D. Rohr, secretary; Norbert T. Madison, treasurer; Daniel D. Barich, field operations; Jerome S. Glendening, sponsors and program; and James L. Maxwell, equipment.

Many items were discussed with several needing additional attention. Among those concluded, were: Pierce Junior High School meeting for parents and players, Wednesday, March 13; Tryouts on Saturday, March 30 and Saturday, April 6; and Opening Day, Saturday, May 4.

The Board of Directors is looking forward to another great year of baseball, sportsmanship and fun, with an anticipated 12 Major League teams, 14 Minor League teams, and more than 450 boys participating.

Any Grosse Pointe Park resident born August 1, 1955, through July 31, 1959, is eligible.

In the junior varsity game Laker Gordie Piche scored 18 points for an easy 54-36 St. Paul win over the Aviators' J.V. squad.

Plan Open House At New School

Residents are cordially invited to attend an Open House at Grosse Pointe North High School on Sunday, February 18, it was announced by Dr. William Craig, principal.

"We invite those interested to stroll around the building from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Much progress has been made on the project in recent months. Although there is no real need to schedule tours of the premises to gain an understanding of the facility, student leaders will be available for conducted tours and to answer questions," Dr. Craig said.

Dr. Craig will be on hand to answer questions and every department will be represented. Robert D. Welch, Assistant Principal-Instruction, is in charge of the affair.

Dr. Craig advises visitors to park in the North Parking lot, with access from Vernier road, and enter the building through the cafeteria.

Architects' renderings and simple diagrams will be available for visitors. Light refreshments will be served in the cafeteria.

Grosse Pointe North High School will receive its first students in September.

Pilot Project

The show-and-tell period was particularly impressive. Each child had something important to say, from announcing that Cinderella was going to be on television, to meeting a school chum at the shopping center, to telling that his father bought a new pair of shoes. Each story was received by the children and teacher with interest.

Mrs. Maynard was quick to pop in bits of educational information at every opportunity. For example when the young man mentioned his father's new shoes, Mrs. Maynard asked "Where did he get them? How did he pay for them?" When the little fellow with blonde hair mentioned seeing his classmate in the shopping center, she queried in what kind of a store and what could be purchased there. These are just examples of the few painless lessons Mrs. Maynard teaches everyday with infinite patience and understanding.

Before we left we learned that a heart can be made by putting your two pointer fingers together, up to hills and down to meet the two fingers at a point... we also learned that heart is what Mrs. Maynard gives to her children.

EYES ON GOAL

It pays to stick to a fixed course of action — every endeavor has its ups-and-downs, but there is really no place for in-and-outers.

Even if a fellow gains but an inch he hasn't put his best foot forward in vain.

Trombly P.T.A. Students Busy

School program and school finance are timely topics for discussion at the Trombly School P.T.A. meeting Monday, February 19, at 8:15 p.m.

Principal William Mogk, Pierce, will discuss plans and program at the Pierce Middle School. Present fifth and sixth graders at Trombly will be "Middle Schoolers" next September.

Russell Peebles, vice-president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, summarizes the issues in the coming school election Monday, February 26. A "town hall" discussion will follow Mr. Peebles' presentation.

Parents are cordially welcomed to visit in the classrooms prior to the general meeting. Mrs. Shirley Schoenith and Mrs. Doris Austerberry, together with Mrs. Lucy Scheer, Mrs. Sally Farrell and Mrs. Carole Blaine will host the informal social festivities following the auditorium meeting.

Pierce School Invites Parents

Parents of students who attend Pierce Junior High School are invited to come to the school Wednesday evening, February 21, at 8 o'clock to participate in an informal discussion of the millage and bond election.

Unlike previous meetings, this one will be held in the girls' gym, where refreshments will be served during the discussion. The Hospitality Committee, led by Mrs. George Lauth, plans to serve coffee and dessert to all who attend.

Five school and PTA officials will attempt to answer any concerns or questions still remaining before the school election, scheduled for February 23. Mrs. Alice Mary Hykes, president of the Board of Education, Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, Assistant Superintendent-Administrative Services, Jordan Greene, PTA vice-president, Gene Cioe, PTA treasurer, and Principal William Mogk will discuss with interested parents any aspects of the proposals, but particularly those which will affect Pierce School itself.

Teachers will be available for conversation throughout the evening. Prior to the meeting in the gym, they will be in their classrooms from 7:30 to 8 o'clock, where parents may view students' work.

Monteith P.T.A. Hears Panelists

Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, secretary of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, was one of three panelists who appeared before the P.T.A. of Monteith School on Wednesday night to explain the issues of the February 26 school bond and millage election.

Appearing with Mrs. Thompson were Russell H. Peebles, vice-president of the board, Robert M. Orr, Director of Public Libraries, and Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, board president, who introduced the speakers.

Mrs. Thompson stressed the need for support of Proposition No. 2, a one-mill building and site levy which is proposed to run for 10 years to provide funds for additions to elementary schools, for the development of junior high schools into middle schools, to continue the modernization of South High School.

"The proposed building and site levy is a relatively economical means of accommodating population growth at the same time enabling us to meet the demands of an aging physical plant," Mrs. Thompson said.

"Because no interest is charged, this type of financing is best used for the limited building programs we envision. We shall 'pay-as-you-go' until we learn whether any more large building projects are dictated by the rising population. Passage of the proposition will bring closer to realization our hope for good, long-range planning, to which we have long aspired," she said. "Inherent in the proposed levy is the flexibility needed to solve problems before they reach the crisis stage," Mrs. Thompson commented.

"The amount of money in the building and site fund, coupled with the availability of funds for additional staff members, will determine the size of classes as our enrollment continues to increase," she added.

QUESTION:

"Where can I get the highest interest on bank savings in Detroit?"

ANSWER:

At Michigan Bank. We pay 5% interest on time savings over $1,000.00. Since this interest is compounded daily and paid four times a year, you earn the highest interest in dollars and cents at Michigan Bank. Interest is paid every three months by adding to your time deposit passbook, credit to your regular savings passbook or by check, sent to your home.

THIS IS THE HIGHEST RATE THAT FEDERAL LAW WILL ALLOW ANY BANK TO PAY (except on certificates of $100,000 or more) AND IT'S AVAILABLE RIGHT NOW!

ACT NOW! Compare the interest you are now receiving on your savings at other financial institutions. Bring in your passbook and in a few short minutes you will be earning 5% compounded daily and paid quarterly with the safety and peace of mind that only a bank can provide!

Automatically renewed at every 90-day maturity unless you or the Bank have given notice that the time savings certificate will not be renewed.

* NOTE THE COMPOUNDING EFFECT:

Effective Rate of 5.1%	When Held
Effective Rate of 5.5%	12 Months
Effective Rate of 6%	46 Months

You'll buy a new furnace maybe once in your life. Here's how to do it right.

First, call Edison. We'll give you the names of electric heat contractors near you. Each has been Edison-approved as capable and reliable.

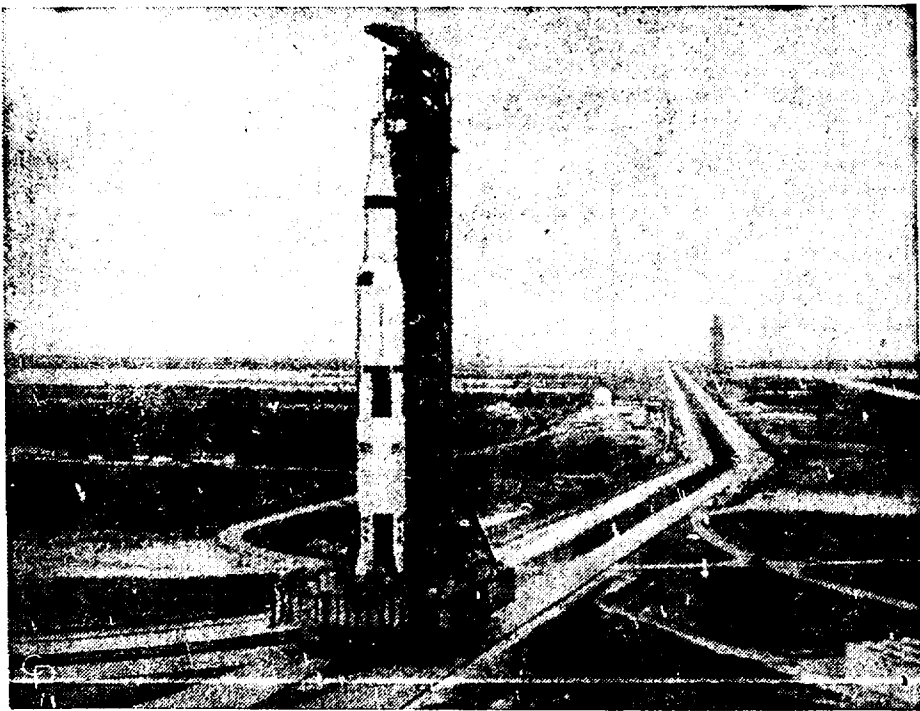

Next, the contractor will check your home, review your needs, and recommend the type of heat best for you. He will estimate both installation and operating cost and give them to you in writing. All without obligation. We'll check the quotes if you like.

Then, after your new electric heat system is installed, Edison and your contractor will make any adjustments necessary to the system if operating cost exceeds the original estimate during the first three years of use. At the end of this time, if operating cost still exceeds the estimate, and you aren't satisfied, Edison will remove the system and refund your original price.

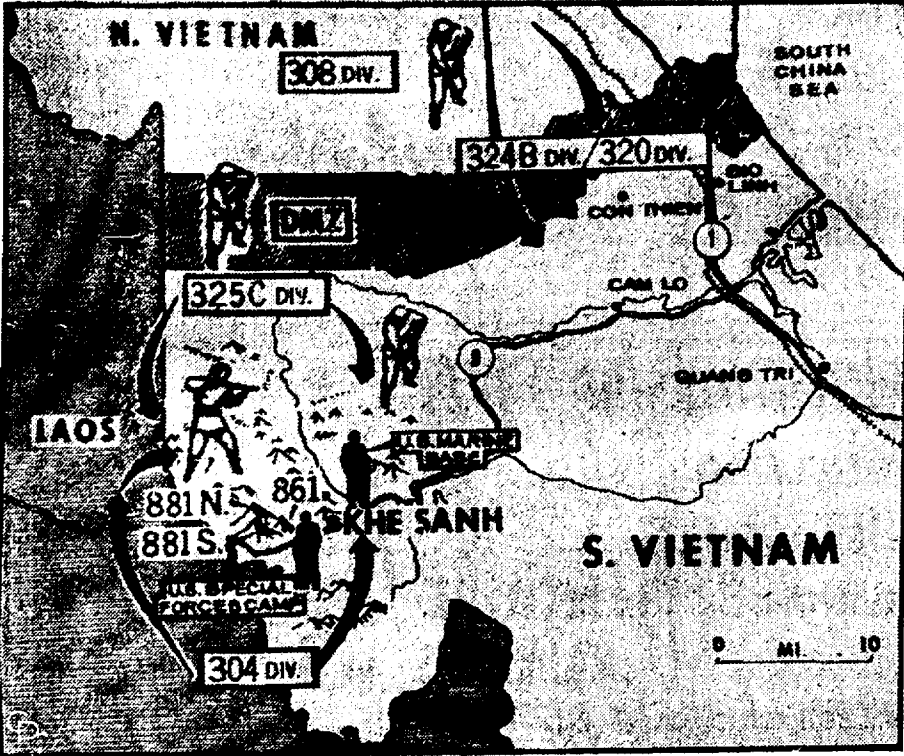

That's our new Three-Step Protection Plan. Remember the first step. Call Edison.

Letters to the Editor

1483 Yorktown
Grosse Pointe Woods
Feb. 5, 1968

Dear Sir:

As a Grosse Pointe property owner I would like to state an opinion and possibly be heard. Where better than a letter published in the GROSSE POINTE NEWS? My letter is being sent to the NEWS because it seems that with every issue lately comes a plea for more money for education and the "pro" side of this question is voiced in the NEWS. How about a little space in the NEWS for the "con" side of school tax increases in the Pointe?

Those of us who sent our children to private schools are a little sick of being taxed to death. Also, consider our senior citizens with a fixed income. How long can these people continue to maintain homes where school taxes and property valuations are increased at the same time?

Mr. Pongracz's speech in favor of the Board of Education's Feb. 26 election for a school tax increase states that education in Grosse Pointe is a bargain. Mr. Pongracz is very appreciative of his children's education. Fine! However, please be realistic, Mr. Pongracz. You paid $8,100 in school taxes and received $15,000 worth of education. Who paid the $7,500 difference? Not the Board of Education! Be grateful to them, yes, but acknowledge to those of us who paid the balance of your children's educational bill. Your balance was paid for by taxpayers who do not use Grosse Pointe school facilities. Whether they have no children or whether they send their children to a private school is beside the point. The point I want to stress is, put credit where credit is due. You did not receive $15,000 worth of education from the Board of Education because you paid a SMALL tax but because all of your fellow taxpayers paid THEIR tax. Education in Grosse Pointe may be a bargain for Mr. Pongracz but it is a burden for many of his fellow taxpayers.

Maybe Mr. Pongracz, and others, would be interested in a few of my figures for the cost of our children's (we have four) education. During the three and one-half years we have lived in Grosse Pointe (both my husband and I are native Grosse Pointers) we have paid school taxes in the amount of $1,343.92. Our 1967 Grosse Pointe school tax was $491.81. On top of this we are paying $115 a year for three children in elementary school and $400 a year for one child in high school. Next year we will have two in high school. In the year 1967 alone we paid $1,006.81 for education—he it in the form of tuition or school tax. I do realize there are people living in Grosse Pointe who pay far more than this sum. This is the situation I wish some educators and advocates of increased school taxation would awaken to!

I can hear the remarks already. The education is there for the taxpayer with children. Yes, I will agree. Except, we also have freedom of choice and we choose to send our children elsewhere.

My whole point is not AGAINST your educational system but WITH your continual tax increases that eventually will take our freedom of choice away from us. We will in the next year or two have to send our children to public schools out of financial necessity. This does not look to be in the too distant future for many parents. Watch your taxes soar at the time when private schools close their doors and the public schools must take these students. If the Board of Education can not get along now with the money they receive what are they going to do faced with this new problem when it arises?

My humble solution? Charge a reasonable school tax and then charge a head tax to those attending the public schools. This would be a far more just way of handling today's rise in educational costs. If our tax increase due to the State Equalized Valuation would handle some of Grosse Pointe High North's cost then maybe a head tax would handle the rest and no increases in school tax would be necessary. We certainly do not have to raise taxes for libraries in this community. Whenever I have used the library facilities I have never had to stand in line to get a book. Library facilities are adequate unless we start believing some outsider who wants to earn his survey fee.

I do hope that all get out and vote on the school issue February 26th, be they "pro" or "con" on increased school taxes for Grosse Pointe.

Thank you for publishing this letter so that all could read the opinion of one who is against school tax increases in Grosse Pointe.

Sincerely,
MARGARET K. FAUSONE
(Mrs. Bruce)

Dear Sir:
The Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children wishes to officially express its support of the millage requested by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education at the February 26 election.

The Grosse Pointe School Administration and Board of Education have fostered programs servicing over 150 mentally retarded within the Grosse Pointe communities. This servicing includes psychiatric testing and evaluation, vocational training programs geared to making retardates employable (in other words tax payers rather than tax burdens), and seven special education classes in schools located throughout the Grosse Pointe communities. In addition, the Grosse Pointe Board of Education participates in the Intermediate School Program for trainable mentally retarded from the ages of 6 through 18.

We believe the millage request should be supported, not because of the aforementioned programs in particular, but because they represent the quality of educational assistance provided in Grosse Pointe.

Sincerely,
Robert E. Brown
President
Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children

To the Editor:
AN OPEN LETTER TO THE CITY COUNCIL AND THE PUBLIC SAFETY DIRECTOR OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS.

The top executives of the industry keep telling us that the automobile will be a leading mode of transportation for some time because people have found nothing that matches it for convenience.

But this convenience is constantly being eroded by the efforts of public officials who come up with some dandy ideas to complicate further the problems of freeway frustration and auto-ongestion just about anywhere you care to look.

Certainly the latest proposal by Allen H. Andrews, Grosse Pointe Woods public safety director, qualifies as an award-winning entry in the nonsense division of the traffic solution derby.

He has suggested that Helen avenue, be closed to through traffic at Vernier road because it is a high-accident intersection. Director Andrews reports (Grosse Pointe News, Feb. 6) that the August State Highway Department has concurred in his recommendation. And the Woods Council has clamored aboard this happiness special by suggesting that, instead of a barrel barricade mentioned by Andrews, a curb be built across the offending street.

Now we're getting somewhere. We might further suggest that, since Helen avenue would thus become useless as a thoroughfare in a major way, perhaps we should dig up the concrete and plant flowers. Ridiculous, you say. Exactly. Even monstrous. But this is simply the reduction absurdum of the thinking of Mr. Andrews and the Woods Council and the State Highway Department. Monstrous, yes, because there is a better idea—an idea which by the way has been suggested long since to Director Andrews and State and local traffic authorities, who seem, however, to prefer traffic traps to sane solutions.

The better idea Restore the left turn for northbound traffic on Mack at Vernier.

This is the main source of the traffic, as has been pointed out to Andrews et al., that causes the worrisome accident situation at Helen and Vernier.

Of course, the highway and traffic people will tell you that they have provided a nice little system for left-turners at Vernier and Mack: just turn right and swing around an island.

But motorists in large numbers who are northbound on Mack find it easier to turn left on Van Antwerp, one block south, and reach Vernier via Helen, the next street west. This maneuver also brings a share of what should be trunk-line traffic to other side streets below Van Antwerp—Lennon, Beaufort, etc.

The Andrews proposal would indeed cut traffic on Helen and of course reduce the incidence of smashups at Vernier. But this would be like shooting a squirrel with a howitzer.

And wouldn't motorists just drive a block further west to Canton, which would dump the problem on neighboring Harper Wood? Wouldn't that city be forced to close Canton at Vernier to prevent a similar accident buildup?

I am in favor of safety. I would even claim a modicum of expertise in the field, having written about automobiles and safety and traffic for the Detroit Free Press for a number of years.

But I also favor common sense instead of Rube Goldberg contrivances in meeting traffic problems.

A better idea? Yes. For example, a traffic signal at Vernier and Helen might be one solution — and this has been suggested too.

But the best solution is keeping the trunk traffic where it belongs — on the trunkline streets, Mack and Vernier, instead of nearby residential streets.

Mack is built with an extra lane approaching Vernier expressly for accommodating left turns with least interference. A green arrow to prolong the left-turn span might help.

But close streets to assure safety? A policeman's dream, ridiculous and fantastic!

Signed,
FRED OLMSTEAD,
2080 Van Antwerp Ave.,
Grosse Pointe Woods

The recent invitation to the Reverend Martin Luther King, as extended and then arranged for by Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council, of which I was an early member and am still a member, to speak at the Grosse Pointe High School this coming March, has apparently caused residents of our community, among them some highly prized friends of mine to be apprehensive and critical of that group of our residents.

This apprehension and criticism has, unhappily, been evoked by the distribution of a six page folding leaflet, edited and printed anonymously. The leaflet imitates the form of the issue of the Congressional Record (House of Representatives) dated October 4, 1967, and was apparently intended by its unidentified printer to create the impression of government opposition to the Reverend King. The extension of remarks by The Honorable John M. Ashbrook, Congressman from Ohio, appears to be a facsimile copy of some thoughts which he arranged to have published (although never actually spoken on the floor), but the contents of the front page box and the pictures on the second and fourth pages and the complex of pictures and quotations on the sixth page never appeared in the Congressional Record.

Nowhere on the leaflet is the publisher named or identified. It is described on its face as a reprint containing "about one-half of the original speech". No such speech was made, as an examination of the Congressional Record itself showed. While Americans should really ask themselves today, looking squarely into their own faces and eyes, this question: Are you, Mr. (or Mrs.) American, satisfied with what you and your neighbors and your ancestors have done over the past two hundred years with the descendants of the people that your ancestors brought here from Africa in chains?

I fear, from reading the "remarks," extended although never spoken by Mr. Ashbrook, that he would regard the above question to be incendiary in nature. There are, however, those who believe that the American people can stand being asked a straight forward question even though the answer may be disquieting.

And while speaking of possibly incendiary statements or questions, may not the publication of that leaflet with its "extension" of remarks which were never actually made, be more incendiary than anything that The Reverend King has ever said, even when taken out of context? What does the Congressman expect and what does the anonymous publisher expect from the followers of an undoubted leader of an ill-treated minority group?

Congressman Ashbrook, in his "extension", quoted the United States Supreme Court's criticism of The Reverend King in its opinion of June 12, 1967, in WALKER V. BIRMINGHAM, which sustained a conviction of contempt in violating an injunction against marching, four Justices of the Court dissenting. The language quoted by the Congressman referred to the failure of the marchers to apply for a permit to march and to their failure to ask the Alabama courts to set aside the injunction before submitting to arrest and conviction and then appealing on the grounds of denial of free speech.

That same United States Supreme Court has, sad to say, many times been obliged to criticize disobedience of the law of the land by public officials who have denied the members of a minority race of their constitutional and their human rights.

Our community is fortunate that it will soon have the opportunity to hear and to judge The Reverend King. The problems of an ill-treated minority race (is that expression incendiary?) in our midst in our metropolitan area can be solved and can stay solved only as people of good will are ready to listen to a leader of that race. Those problems can never be solved by the distribution of anonymous leaflets that purport to be something they are not.

The Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council is composed of people of good will who are not satisfied with what has been done with the African people and their descendants. The larger membership in the Council, and the more residents who participate in its program, the better that program will be, and ultimately perhaps the above question can then be answered more comfortably to any one who has ventured to ask it of himself.

Very truly yours,
Renville Wheat

Dear Editor:
There have been many discussions in regard to the uniting of the five Grosse Pointes. So far, nothing has been done about it. Many people think that the Grosse Pointes could have a better government, a stronger police force, a better fire department, and a strong voice in both the state and federal governments.

I believe that if we had only one government we would save very much money. For example, we would have only one police force to pay, there would be only one set of government officials to pay, and we would need only half as many city trucks for all of Grosse Pointe.

If this issue were brought to a vote by the five Grosse Pointes, I believe we would find a majority of the people of Grosse Pointe would vote "Yes" on this issue.

I would like your views or any information that you may have concerning this letter.

Very truly yours,
BOB MCCARTHY
1943 Huntington Blvd.

Gentlemen:
I note in the Grosse Pointe News that the Grosse Pointe Woods Council has ordered Director Andrews to close Helen avenue for exit at Vernier road for one year.

This is a continuation of the fallacious theory that the way to cure traffic problems is to put more obstacles in the motorists' way: more stop signs, more stop lights, more "no Parking" signs.

Closing Helen avenue will merely channel more cars into the Vernier-Mack intersection, which is already overcrowded; or over to Canton avenue one block west, which will then have all the cars which now use Helen and Canton avenues.

Helen and Canton are the only two streets between Mack and the Edsel Ford Expressway which give access to Vernier road. Closing one will only double the traffic on the other. Logically, closing one could lead to closing the remaining one in which case, any driver seeking to leave or enter this large area would have to use Mack or Harper avenues. Harper avenue is a service road along the Expressway so this would mean that a motorist would have to cross the Expressway twice to get onto Vernier road.

Diverting traffic to these streets will only compound the problems already present at the Mack-Vernier and Harper-Vernier intersections.

The present situation is not a happy one; but further restriction of traffic flow, in my opinion, is not a step in the right direction.

Yours very truly,
Clifford B. Loranger, M.D.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

The month of February is with us—a month which derives its name from the Latin verb, februare, meaning "to purify". The Saxons called the month "Sprote-kale" from the fact that kale sprouted at that season. February was not in the early Roman calendar, but was added to the end of the year following December. The month of January was also added, but the sequence of these two months was not changed until the year 453.

To us, what does February mean? First of all, I'll be just a bit personal and say that it is a great month for me, as I celebrate both my wedding anniversary and my birthday during this 28 day (usually) span! But to others, it may at times be a bit draggy, since the Yuletide holidays are over and spring is still not with us. Those with a little bit of luck go south for a vacation; others revel in skiing—but most of us get tired of shoveling snow and long for an early spring.

The month of February, by proclamation of the Governor, is also American History Month. This year you will find an excellent display at the Woods Branch Library depicting the pillars and porch of the White House, complete with American flag flying. There is also a picture of the signing of the Constitution, a display of early flags of American liberty, a colored picture of George Washington, and other symbols of our American heritage. The Park Branch and Central Library will also have exhibits honoring American History Month. At the Central Library, there will be one case devoted to Abraham Lincoln, to be followed later in the month by a similar arrangement with George Washington as the central theme.

I think one instinctively remembers this month as containing the birthdays of these above-mentioned "greats," but there were other notable people born at this time. We can mention Mark Hopkins, the noted

Snow Clearance Starts Argument

City Police received a report of property damage from Mrs. Gabrielle Maertens, 524 St. Clair, on Monday, February 5. Mrs. Maertens said that snow had been piled along the fence at the rear of her property.

This piling, she claimed, had ruined the fence and some lilac bushes. She said the snow was piled there by Richard Blondell, who clears the rear drives of the terraces on the northeast corner of St. Clair and Maumee.

Chief Andrew C. Teetart and officer Dwight Scott checked the area and found the snow pushed and piled on top of the fence and shrubs.

Blondell told City Police that the owners of the terraces, the Michigan Realty Company, had directed him to pile the snow there. He was told to contact the owners and settle the matter with the Maertens.

Opera Overture VII Performances Slated

This Year's Programs Will Open March 10 With An Evening Production At The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center

Overture to Opera VII, the Detroit area's opera education program, will enter its seventh year with five evening performances and 15 student performances from March 10 to May 2.

Dr. David DiChiera, of Oakland University, is producer and musical director of Overture and will also act as commentator at the evening performances.

Overture is jointly sponsored by the Detroit Grand Opera Association, Oakland University and the University Center for Adult Education.

This year's productions include Menotti's "The Medium," Cherubini's "The Portuguese Inn" and Act I of Puccini's "La Boheme."

Highlights of the 1968 season include a gala performance in the main auditorium of the Detroit Institute of Arts Wednesday, March 27, at 8:30 o'clock.

Muriel Greenspon, soprano with the New York City Center Opera, will appear as guest artist and will sing the role of Madame Flora in "The Medium." William Byrd will conduct members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Other evening performances of Overture will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial March 10; Pontiac Northern High School March 15; Mt. Clemens High School April 3 and Northville High School April 6.

The company will also travel to Coldwater on April 27 for an evening performance at the Tibbitts Opera House.

Student afternoon performances will be given in Pontiac on March 15 and 18; in Dearborn on March 29; in Mt. Clemens on April 3; in Southfield on April 9, 10 and 11; in Hamtramck on April 18; and in Trenton on May 2.

Detroit public school performances will be March 26, April 22 and April 29.

Mercy College will have its Overture performance on March 13.

Tom Aston, of Oakland University, has designed portable sets to be used in the performances of the three operas. To assist performers in gaining intimacy with their audiences, Aston has built each set on a slanted stage and will also employ a rear-view projection screen in "The Medium" and "La Boheme" to give those productions added dimension.

John Broome, who has directed operas for Covent Garden in London, England, will direct Overture's productions of "The Medium" and "The Portuguese Inn."

J. Michael Bloom is the stage director and costume designer for "La Boheme."

The Overture cast has been recruited from leading operatic voices in this section of the country. Singers familiar to Overture audiences who are returning this year include Faye Turner, Doralene Davis, Edward Kingins, J. Phillip Zaugg, Jr., (winner of the 1968 Grinnell Scholarship award), Jane Purdy, J. Michael Bloom, Kenneth Young, Elsie Inselman, Phyllis Gaide, Russell Smith and Mack Perry.

Naomi Amos will again provide the piano accompaniment for the performances.

Newcomers to Overture include Conwell Carrington, of Detroit; Emily Derr, of New York; Eleanor Felver, of Windsor; Nancy Fox Hoover, of Clarkston; Harley Hulce, of Marshall; Suzanne LaCroix, of Bloomfield Hills; Anne Jaffe, of Oak Park; and Aureliano Ugolini, of Detroit.

Schooler-Anderson Rites Read Feb. 10

Home In Troy Awaits Newlyweds Upon Their Return From Vacation In Acapulco And Mexico City; Venetian Lace Accents Bride's Gown

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was the setting for the Saturday evening, February 10, wedding of Sallie Jeanne Anderson, daughter of Mrs. David Rennie Anderson, of Notre Dame avenue, and the late Mr. Anderson, and Richard D. Schooler.

A reception at the Detroit Press Club followed the 6:30 o'clock rites, at which The Reverend Ben L. Tallman officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, George Johnston, of Lakeland avenue, wore an ivory peau de soie gown. Accents of Venetian lace formed her neckline, edged her wrist-length, fitted sleeves and bordered the hem of her dress and Chapel train.

Her silk illusion veil fell from a matching lace headpiece, and she carried an arrangement of phalaenopsis orchids, tropicana roses and ivy.

She was attended by her sister, Betty Anderson, who wore a floor length ensemble of pale pink and silver-green brocade. Her floral headpiece was fashioned of pale pink roses and pale green cymbidium orchids, and she carried a matching nosegay bouquet.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. W. Roy Schooler, of Detroit, and the late Mr. Schooler, asked Robert H. Broom, of Chagrin Falls, O., to act as best man.

Roy Schooler and Frank Skinner seated the guests.

A crystal bead-accented costume of antique gold silk and matching pillbox hat were chosen by Mrs. Anderson for her daughter's wedding and the reception.

The bridegroom's mother selected a pearl gray silk gown, trimmed with crystal beads, and matching accessories.

The newlyweds will return from a vacation in Acapulco and Mexico City to make their home in Dorchester place, Troy.

Gold Cup Race Benefit Slated

The Pointes were well represented at the Gold Cup Benefit's opening tea Wednesday at the Vendome road home of Mrs. George Simon.

Over 100 women from metropolitan Detroit and neighboring communities met to discuss benefit plans over their tea cups.

While it may be the men who will launch the big boats on the Detroit River to compete with others from all over the nation in the Gold Cup Race, June 30, the women are doing their launching now. They hope to raise a sizable portion of the needed funds to support this world famous race when they put on their gala benefit preview of the Detroit Spring Antique Show, March 6.

The Preview will start at 8 p.m. and run until 11, with spotlights and a doorman to set the "red carpet" mood from the time patrons turn into the drive at the Light Guard Armory.

Refreshment will be hors d'oeuvres and champagne (non-alcoholic beverages, too). Prizes of a television, hair dryer, gift certificates, and many other items will be awarded to lucky ticket holders.

Guests will have an opportunity to browse and shop among rare and historic antiques displayed by 100 leading dealers from the Midwest and Eastern Seaboard states.

Appropriately for a Gold Cup benefit, the tickets are on gold paper, and you will be seeing them in all the best places soon. If you don't, it won't be the fault of Mrs. Simon and the women who attended the tea. All of them have a supply of the tickets and will be making available to all interested in antiques, boats, or parties.

The Detroit Spring Antique Show was chosen to be previewed because it is recognized as the largest in the Midwest and ranked third in the nation. An added distinction: was given it this year when the National Association of Tourist Organizations, Washington, D.C., named it to the top twenty tourist attractions in the U.S. for March.

Attending from the Grosse Pointe area were Mrs. Joseph Carollo, Mrs. D. E. Draper, Mrs. James Elias, Margaret Fausone, Mrs. M.G. L'Heureux, Mrs. R. E. Johnston, Mrs. Kathleen Kirsch, Mrs. J. J. Kuhn, Susan Miszeak, Mrs. Wm. Richerzhausen, Mrs. E. T. Shelton, Mrs. Robert Sillery, Mrs. E. R. Switzer, Mrs. A. H. Trowell, and co-chairmen assisting Mrs. George Simon (chairman), Mrs. E. A. Steiner, Jr., Mrs. A. J. Tocco, Kathy Withers, Betty Dawood, Ruth Foster.

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday evening, February 10, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church were SALLIE JEANNE ANDERSON, daughter of Mrs. David Rennie Anderson, of Notre Dame avenue, and the late Mr. Anderson, and Mr. Schooler, son of Mrs. W. Roy Schooler, of Detroit, and the late Mr. Schooler.

Young People's Concerts Slated

Conwell Carrington will narrate "The Story of Celeste" at the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's next Young People's Concerts on Saturday, February 17. Concerts will begin at 11 o'clock and 2 o'clock in Ford Auditorium.

Valter Poole will conduct the Orchestra.

"The Story of Celeste" by Kleinsinger is about a lonesome little tune whose search for someone to belong to leads her into misfortune.

Many characters come alive through the sounds of instruments and the story has a Cinderella ending when Celeste finally meets her Prince Cello.

Other works to be heard on the program are Mozart's "Abduction from the Seraglio," Bizet's "Carmen Suite No. 1," Riegger's "Dance Rhythms" and Borodin's Polovetzian Dances from "Prince Igor."

'Group' Plans Parties, Trips

"The Group", a swinging bunch in their twenties, has a Fun and Games Night scheduled Sunday evening, February 18, at 7 o'clock in The Old English Tavern room of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, its parent organization.

It's absolutely free to members, ($3 a year). Everything from charades and sardines to twister and pinocle is planned. Bring your own snacks and thermos.

A ski weekend at "This Ole House" in Boyne Country is set for Friday, March 1 through Sunday, March 3. Food and lodging with bar and band available are offered for the weekend at $18. The journey is by car pool. Checks should be sent in at once indicating whether needing a ride or driving with passenger space.

"Chicago or Bust" is planned for the weekend of March 29-31. Transportation and hotel are included for $25. An excellent Chicago bachelor guide is thrown in. A private railway car may replace the charter bus. Members should reserve by check early. Others are welcome to become members and "ditto."

Honor Two Pointers With 'Hearts Of Gold'

Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman, Of Lakeshore Road, And Eileen Troester, Of Lakepointe Avenue, Cited For Community Activities

"Heart of Gold" awards for outstanding volunteer service went to two Grosse Pointe residents yesterday, February 14, in Metropolitan Detroit's first community-wide recognition ceremony attended by more than 1,500 women.

The Valentine's Day event, staged by the newly formed Volunteer Award Council, honored Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman, of Lakeshore road, and Eileen Troester, of Lakepointe avenue, along with 10 other tri-county area volunteers.

They were saluted for symbolizing the many thousands who contribute their time and talents for community betterment.

Gold hearts and red roses decked Cobo Hall for the recognition luncheon sponsored by the new council comprised of representatives from 35 leading women's organizations working in cooperation with Women for the United Foundation (WUF).

Actress-author Cornelia Otis Skinner, star of stage and radio, was guest speaker.

Table centerpieces were made by Camp Fire Girls from Lincoln Park and Allen Park.

"Heart of Gold" award bearing a "Spirit of Detroit" charm was given each of the 12 winners along with a marble paperweight in which was embedded a medallion of the "Spirit of Detroit."

The new council's co-chairmen, Mrs. Gerard R. Slattery, of Lakeshore road, and Mrs. Lynn A. Townsend, of Bloomfield Hills, presented the gold heart awards as citations were read detailing each volunteer's accomplishments.

The paperweights, gifts of the Central Business District Association, were presented by CBDA President Frank Colombo, vice president and general manager of the J. L. Hudson Company, and Mrs. Diane J. Edgecomb, CBDA promotion director.

Mrs. Schlotman was cited for actively participating in a wide range of charitable and cultural organizations since her youth and for her continued support of these community causes though she now is in her late eighties.

Among the groups benefiting from her efforts are United Community Services Women's Committee, of which she was a founder, the United Foundation Planned Parenthood League, Cottage Hospital, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Detroit Historical Society, the Society of Arts and Crafts and a number of organizations for the blind and for servicemen.

Mrs. Schlotman was recognized for "increasing the interest and support of many others in these causes through her gentle, gracious and unfailing strength" and for sharing her home with a wide range of community groups.

Miss Troester received a "Heart of Gold" award for her work at St. Francis Cabrini Clinic, Porter and LaBrosse streets, and as service committee chairman of the Parke Davis Girls' Club.

She has served as volunteer administrator of the clinic for two evenings each week and on Saturdays since 1950.

Her duties include training new receptionists, orienting non-professional volunteers, soliciting and preparing clinical materials, assisting the doctors and nurses, driving emergency cases to the hospitals and staying with them until they are settled.

Married

JEANNE JO L'HEUREUX, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wilfrid J. L'Heureux, of Cadieux road, and Robert D. Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dallas, of Detroit, were married Saturday, February 3, in Pasadena, Calif., at a small ceremony attended by members of both families.

The bride was graduated from Liggett School and attended Eastern Michigan University. Her husband received his degree in Economics from the University of Michigan.

The newlyweds will make their home in Pasadena until August, when they will move to Cambridge, Mass. They plan to remain in Cambridge two years, while the bridegroom studies for his Masters degree in Business Administration at Harvard.

ing with them until they are settled.

Miss Troester was cited specifically for "the compassionate care she gives some of the city's most forgotten, abandoned and neglected citizens."

In her volunteer post with the Parke Davis Girls' Club for 13 years, she has participated in volunteer work at Children's Hospital, organized parties for veterans hospitals, collected and distributed Christmas baskets and eye glasses, served as chairman of fund-raising events for charitable projects and acted as liaison for club members and the company in cases involving long illness or other emergencies.

Other winners were Mrs. Milton B. Osgood, Nancy Klesko, Mrs. Edward Davis, Mrs. Woodie Brown, Mrs. Max Biber, Mrs. John J. Hock, Mrs. Irene Auberlin, Mrs. W. E. Coates and Mrs. A. Warren Brock, all of Detroit, and Mrs. Fred Wunderlich, of East Detroit.

Nominations for the awards were submitted by Wayne Oakland and Macomb County agencies and organizations as well as individuals.

The recognition luncheon culminated nearly a year of planning and organizing activities by women from throughout the tri-county area.

Other chairmen serving with Mrs. Slattery and Mrs. Townsend included: Structure and reservations, Mrs. Harold J. Schachern, WUF past president; tickets, Mrs. Francis W. Smith, of the American Red Cross and Women's Association of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra; hostesses Mrs. Bert Vandevusse, of Mt. Clemens; screening and judging, Robert T. Ross, manager of the employment programs department of Ford Motor Company prior to his retirement last summer; and nominations, Mrs. Fran Harris, of the Women's Advertising Club.

The Women's Advertising Club pioneered in providing recognition for women volunteers and, along with the Central Business District Association, has maintained an interest in launching the new program.

MRS. PAUL D. BAGWELL, of Devonshire road, was recently elected to the Detroit Society for Crippled Children and Adults. She is a board member of the latter two organizations.

Auxiliary Important To Cottage Hospital

"Dedication" Is Distinguishing Characteristic Of Ladies In Pink Pinafores; Funds And Service Provided By Group

Contributions from the Women's Auxiliary of Cottage Hospital amounted to 9,365 hours of service and more than $15,500 in funds, according to the Auxiliary's 1967 Annual Report issued last week.

In its 14th year of service, the Auxiliary reported more than 8,800 hours spent in administrative and guild work. It also co-sponsored the Future Nurses' Club, whose members contributed 2,000 hours of aid to the hospital.

Who are the ladies in the pink uniforms? At Cottage Hospital, it doesn't take long for patients to learn that the ladies' crisp pink pinafores are a sign of one of the most familiar and welcome services at the hospital. The proof is in the statistics.

The women? The average Auxiliary has her own family and large home to care for, she is active in civic affairs, and she belongs to any number of organizations. Yet, according to Ralph L. Wilgarde, Cottage administrator, "She is always there when she is needed."

The amount of money raised

Party Precedes Hawaiian Trip

A complimentary pre-trip party for Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Travel Club members who are going nearly 100 strong on the Club's initial trip to Hawaii in March will be held in the Center's Crystal Ballroom Sunday, February 25, at 5 o'clock. All other Travel Club members are cordially invited to the party too.

Purpose of the party is to get the travellers acquainted, to discuss details of the trip and to see movies of the four island tour which begins March 9.

Each year depends on the hospital's requirements. Mrs. Clinton Amuluxen, president of the 380-member group, puts it this way: "If the hospital needs it, the Auxiliary can come up with it."

The funds are used to purchase needed new equipment, such as the comfortable all-electric beds Cottage patients now enjoy.

Patients at the hospital are probably most familiar with the members of the Auxiliary's Volunteer Guild. These are the ladies you see all about the hospital, providing the patients with all the little extra services that the busy hospital staff sometimes doesn't have time for.

They are out on the floors by 8:30 in the morning, delivering the mail, bringing water and food trays, taking care of the patients' plants, transporting patients, helping the staff in the supply rooms, etc.

The volunteers always seem to have time to run errands for both patients and hospital personnel, or just to stop and chat or visit with someone who needs a little company.

There are also several other guilds devoted to making the patients' lives happier. The aptly-named Sunshine Guild meets regularly to make favors and decorations which brighten up the food trays on holidays

Bride-Elect

Planning a June 29 wedding are MARCIA KAREN BOCK and Peter R. Hergenroether, whose engagement was announced at a small family dinner party by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Bock, of Lakepointe avenue.

Both Miss Bock and her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hergenroether, of Roslyn road, were graduated from Grosse Pointe High School and are currently completing their junior year at Michigan State University. They plan to continue their education at MSU following the summer vacation.

and special occasions.

Patients can select books and the latest magazines from the cart brought up to their rooms daily by representatives of the Book Cart Guild.

Both patients and visitors appreciate the attractive little Gift Shop on the first floor of the hospital that stocks everything from A to Z in the way of gifts and personal items. This is a project of the Gift Shop Guild as is the Gift Card which brings choice items from the shop up to the patient rooms every day.

There is also a General Guild consisting of temporarily inactive members who lend their financial and moral support to Auxiliary activities.

The Cottage Auxiliary also sponsors a Future Nurses group. It advises and supervises the high school girls who act as volunteers during summer and during holidays.

Fund raising is a very important part of the Auxiliary's work for the hospital. Money is raised through a variety of activities throughout the year. Profits from the Gift Shop are important, as are funds from the volunteers' baby picture project which involves taking photographs of new babies, which parents may purchase.

The whole community looks forward to some of the other special fund raising projects which the women plan.

One of these is the Spring Kitchen Tour. Every year, six homes in the Pointe area with outstandingly decorated kitchens are chosen for a guided tour by Auxiliary members.

All year long the members of the Gift Shop Guild meet to make attractive handmade items for the annual Christmas Mart which is held each November in the Nurses' Home.

Other functions include card parties, and a donation tea to which board members and the medical staff are invited.

Of course, as Mr. Wilgarde points out, it is impossible to list all of the activities of the Auxiliary.

"The service hours, which are recorded by the Auxiliary are only an indication of the real time, energy and creativity which these women expend in working for the hospital," he said.

"Perhaps the best way to describe them is to say that they possess that intangible quality

Parcells Pupils Planning Party

The first teen high dance coordinated by the newly elected student government officers of Parcells Junior High School, and sponsored by the Parcells P.T.A. will be held Friday, February 16, from 7:30 to 10 p.m. at the school gym.

Backing up the theme of "A Chiropractor's Nightmare" will be the music of an up-coming talented group called "My Back Pages". This group features a new sound never heard before in the Pointe area. Members of the group include Pete Tosto (drums), Rick Sewick (organ), Mike Bocynski (bass guitar and vocals), John La Fave (rhythm guitar), Tim McClosky (lead guitar and vocals), John Pavol (lead singer), and Miss Mona, their manager.

Other entertainment for the festive evening will include a variety of games including ping-pong, and prizes will be awarded. The dance attendance is limited to students of Parcells Junior High.

known as 'dedication'."

If you still want to know who the "lady in the pink pinafore" is, just ask patients or staff members at Cottage Hospital. They will tell you she is someone special — someone they couldn't do without!

"University of Texas Exes," including MRS. THACHER REA, of Merriweather road, MR. and MRS. LUD SCHOMIG, of River road, and MR. and MRS. JOHN A. MOEKLE, of Stephens road, are planning a Texas Independence Day celebration and annual meeting March 2, at Topinka's Country House.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Connelly, of New York City and Pemberton road, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, MAUREEN VIRGINIA, to Harrison Alderfer Schaffhauser, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Schaffhauser, of Grosse Pointe and Wyomissing, Pa.

The prospective bride and her fiancé were both graduated from Grosse Pointe High School. She is majoring in Music at Western Michigan University, where she is affiliated with Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority.

He is majoring in Mathematics at Kalamazoo College, from which he will be graduated in June.

A June 22 wedding is planned, at St. Patrick's in New York, followed by a reception at the New York Athletic Club.

Ski Club Plans Season Wind-Up

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Adult Ski Club is planning its season wind-up. Next Friday, February 23, there will be a trip to Traverse City to ski nearby Sugar Loaf Mountain.

The group will travel via charter bus with complimentary bar and facilities. They will stay at the Park Place Motor Inn with its roof top night club and indoor swimming pool. Meals and a cocktail party at the slopes are included.

The trip package is $36.50 for members. Guests are welcome for an additional $3. The party is limited to 36 and paid reservations are requested by mid week in order to make final arrangements at the hotel.

Wednesday evening, February

28, Bill and Lynn Adams will host a b.y.o. cocktail party at their home, 1012 Yorkshire road, for the 96 who are leaving Friday, March 1, via charter United Airlines jet for 10 days skiing in Vail and Aspen, Col. This trip has been filled and eagerly awaited since fall. Bill who is club president, will be trip leader, assisted by vice-president Bill Bokram. Plush accommodations are reserved at the new Holiday Inn at Vail and at Snow Mass Inn and Pokolodi Lodge, Aspen.

A possible week-end to Boyne Country for spring skiing March 22 will wind up the Club's season.

American Legion Auxiliary Proud To Be 'Flag Waver'

"It is imperative that we who are proud we are Americans 'Speak Up For America'." This is the observation of Doris Nielsen, president of Grosse Pointe Unit 303 of the American Legion Auxiliary in Grosse Pointe.

"Today we face one of the greatest challenges of our time—the preservation of Americanism. There was a time when people referred to The American Legion and The American Legion Auxiliary as 'flag wavers' or 'super patriots,' titles we should be proud to have," says Miss Nielsen.

"Most people now recognize that the 'Stars and Stripes' is a very significant flag to see waving, and that in these days of national danger we cannot have too much patriotic devotion."

"Our Americanism chairman has urged everyone living in our area to fly the flag on February 22, the birthday of the Father of our Country. With people living in Communist slavery not many miles from our shores, it is time that all of us looked up to that flag with determination that it shall ALWAYS wave over the United States. Yes—we should all be proud to be called 'flag wavers'."

Slate Pear Tree Quester Meeting

The Pear Tree Chapter of Grosse Pointe Questers will meet at the home of Mrs. Mark D. Littler, of Webber place, today, Thursday, February 15.

Mrs. Littler, a member of the Grand Marais Chapter of the Questers, has been asked to present a paper she first presented to her own Chapter, on Oriental Porcelain's.

A chance purchase of an unusual cocoa pot at a Cottage Hospital Fair prompted Mrs. Littler to do research as to its origin. This started her on a new and fascinating hobby.

DBC's 129th Birthday

Mrs. Clayton J. Barker, of Hillcrest lane, has a history-conscious committee working with her on Detroit Boat Club's 129th birthday celebration.

And the ladies expect a bit of genteel "ooh-ing" and "ah-ing" when DBC's Women's committee gives its annual kickoff-of-the-new-year bridge party February 21.

A giant-sized birthday cake will be the focal point in the lobby, where members and guests will gather for pre-luncheon cocktails. Scattered elsewhere throughout the Club will be evidences of DBC's present and past glories.

Mrs. Emil J. Heinrich and Mrs. Cecil G. Shuert have raided the Club's showcases for trophies dating back to 1903, which they're filling with greens and flowers for the occasion.

A treasured three-handled silver tankard, a copper mug inlaid with silver, loving cups in squat, slim and magnum sizes plus engraved bowls of every shape and description will be among the heirlooms on display.

Committee vice-chairman Mrs. Milton R. Weed, of Berkshire road, has even unearthed what seems to be the oldest award in the Club's possession: A swimming medal dated 1874.

After 128 birthday celebrations, one might suppose a committee would be a little hard-put to come up with something novel, but not so Mrs. Barker's aides — they've made so many tantalizing arrangements for the fete they're keeping some secret until party day.

They're dropping hints, though, and we can report that favors, centerpieces and prizes will all be velvet-trimmed and conform to a color scheme of avocado and white.

Since the Club was closed in January, many members will be viewing the new bittersweet and green carpeting in the dining room when luncheon is served there at 12:30 o'clock next Wednesday.

Mrs. Harold Davis, Mrs. Joseph J. Brennan, Mrs. Clinton P. Hardy, Mrs. John B. Hastings, Mrs. John C. Cook, Mrs. William Sehn, Mrs. Robert H. Kennedy and Mrs. William H. Miller are some of the ladies working on this first DBC Women's committee gala of the Club's new year.

P. Whittier.

To Hold Cherub Ball Benefit February 23

Mrs. Sixten Ehrling Is Honorary Chairman Of March Of Dimes Fund-Raising Affair; Mrs. Frank A. Germack, Jr., Is General Chairman

The newest "happening," and one of the most exciting events scheduled for the Detroit area this month, is the "Cherub Ball" to be presented at the Roostertail Friday, February 23.

Sponsored by MOD-WACKEY, the recently formed March of Dimes Women's Advisory Council of KEY volunteers from Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties, the black-tie affair is by invitation only and limited to the first 200 reservations, at $50 per couple.

A benefit premiere performance of "Molly Brown," the New York Broadway musical, starring Ann Hilton and Peter Leeds, promises a sparkling evening of entertainment.

Highlighting the evening will be the presentation of the first Scientific Progress Award in Research, honoring a scientist who has made an outstanding contribution to humanity in research supported by The National Foundation — March of Dimes.

The Cherub Ball will establish a "first" for what will hopefully grow into an annual tradition. The Ball was named by Mrs. Jack J. Lucido, of Berkshire road, who has five healthy cherubs of her own.

The name seemed exceedingly fitting for this event to point up the need for research, improved diagnosis and treatment for the 250,000 babies born each year with birth defects.

The National Foundation is celebrating its 30th anniversary this year as a voluntary national health organization, and its 10th year in the field of birth defects.

Honorary chairman for the first Cherub Ball is Mrs. Sixten Ehrling, of Trombley road. Chairman is Mrs. Frank A. Germack, Jr., of Perrien place. Co-chairmen are Mrs. William E. Johnston and Mrs. Eugene Hunter.

St. Andrew's Ball

St. Andrew's Fellowship of the Sts. Constantine and Helen Church of Detroit will hold its fourth annual Champagne Ball in the Whittier Hotel's Crystal Ballroom Saturday evening, February 24, beginning at 9 o'clock.

He will also conduct subscription concerts on February 29, March 2, 7, 14 and 16; a portion of the Wayne State University Centennial Concert on February 25; and a Windsor concert with the Detroit Symphony on March 10.

Show Extended At Arts Institute

Detroit's most popular art show of the last five years—and second best-attended in the history of the city—has been extended one week.

Willis F. Woods, director of the Detroit Institute of Arts, has announced that "Britain's Century of Masterpieces," formally titled "Romantic Art in Britain: 1760-1860," will now be open through Sunday, February 25, before dismantling and shipment to Philadelphia for a March 14 opening there.

The show has been called the most important and original exhibition of British art even held here or abroad. It is exclusive to Detroit and Philadelphia.

More than 36,000 persons have viewed the 236 masterpieces by 85 British Romantic painters so far.

Starting its fourth week, the handsomely-mounted display in six galleries has already become the second most-attended art show in the history of Detroit. It is expected to be surpassed only by the "Wonderful World of Van Gogh" which ran seven weeks five years ago.

Equally impressive in the city's response, Mr. Woods said, is the attendance at the museum itself during the special event.

While 6,200 people saw the British paintings on one Saturday and Sunday alone a total of 20,485 toured the remaining 74 free galleries of the Art Institute. Nearly 87,000 people have visited the Detroit museum, including the $1 admission British masters, since the special exhibition opened January 9 in sub-freezing weather.

GROSSE POINTE WOODS. 3 bedroom, 2 1/2 baths bungalow. Owner, 881-6731.

WE OFFER for the first time this surprise package in the form of a center entrance, Farm colonial in the heart of the City. If you are sweet on fancy kitchens, paneled libraries, family rooms, separate dining rooms, attached garages and four bedrooms, then put the heat on your Valentine to get out and see this one before someone else seals it . . . then all you can do is kiss it goodbye.

IF YOU'VE BEEN pining for a spacious, seven bedroom home overlooking the lake, Cupid suggests you investigate this possibility. Estate-sized grounds and a separate building which contains a three-car garage and apartment.

THE EVER POPULAR center hall colonial becomes even more popular when it is situated on a hillside in the Farms. Four family bedrooms seem to be what everyone wants, and that one-time maid's room and bath over the attached garage seems to get a lot of use from any family. There is a card room off the living room and a small den at the rear of the center hall. Quit hoping and get hopping.

FOR ALL of you who have been searching in vain for that four bedroom dream which will sell in the forty thous and range, this listing may be what you have been waiting for. Two fireplaces on the first floor for winter, and in summer enjoy the gigantic patio which is screened and covered. Located near Windmill Pointe Drive.

"Nothing succeeds half so well as a well-placed rumor."

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

By Whoozit
Grosse Pointe's favorite poet . . . Carolyn Hubbard Lucas, is vacationing now in warmer climes, but she's thinking of us . . . Here are three of her latest verses, the first two very apropos our unique Michigan weather, the third a nostalgic re-creation of a late Victorian conversation, (change a few words — "gig" to "sports car," "prig" to "jerk" — and it might be overheard today):

"IF WINTER COMES, CAN SPRING BE FOR BEHIND?"

This is the piercing moment: Gentle days
Have passed into a dream of golden haze.
Now earth seems bound by winter's heavy breath
That holds all nature in a ring of death.
Our footsteps in the iron furrows yield
A hollow sound across the frozen field.
Yet drifting snow leaves stars upon our lips,
The silvered bough breaks at our fingertips,
And though remembered summer warms the heart
These fiercer days of winter play their part.

SPRING SONG

Cleaning the earth for a visit from spring
March-coming-April's a wonderful thing;
Sweeping the last of the mid-winter snow,
Making a place for the jonquils to grow,
Washing the sky to a heavenly blue,
Leaving a space for the clouds to pass through Leafing the trees for the new birds to swing . . .
March-coming-April's a wonderful thing!

EAVESDROPPER

From the gaslit hall I hear
Voices low, in conversation;
Of another beau I hear,
Flinging me with consternation.

"He is waiting for you now
With two horses and a gig.
He has manners, you'll allow . . ."
"Mama! He is such a prig!"

"Though he's older, I'll admit,
His position is secure."
"But his clothes don't seem to fit
And his hair I can't endure."

"What that other — Lark-a-dim!
But on earth you see a guy!
Then I hear my darling say,
"Mama, he is young and slim . . ."
And her mind's made up, I know.
And her heart is mine to win.
Yet I'm sorry for that beau —
He is out and I am in!

PILFERINGS

It was on one of those sad TV shows where people wall out their woes and get help. A woman appeared wanting a crib for her baby. "What are you using for a crib now?" asked the sympathetic emcee.
"Oh," she replied, "the box the television set came in."

No one stirred up so much controversy in 19th century England as Charles Darwin with his theory of evolution. At his death, however, Britain acknowledged his genius and buried him with much pomp in Westminster Abbey. After the ceremony, pallbearer Thomas Huxley was asked by a worried-looking peer, "Do you believe that Darwin was right?"

"Of course he was right," replied Huxley.
His lordship surveyed the Abbey with a pained expression, then observed in a low tone, "Couldn't he have kept it to himself?"

—Herbert Wendt, "In Search of Adam"

Sometimes a man finds it hard to play his proper role with aplomb or even with good will. I asked a worldly man I know what annoys him most in the area of women and etiquette. After considerable thought, he said, "The woman who takes men for a salaried doorman when I hold open the door for her in a public building."
He thought some more. "And," he added, "the 40 women right behind her who know a good thing when they see it."
—Peg Bracken, "I Try to Behave Myself"

To Give Lecture On Reformation

"A Roman Catholic View of the Reformation" is the topic to be presented by Rev. Michael J. Hunt of the Paulist Fathers, on Sunday, February 18 at 3 p.m. at St. James Lutheran Church, McMillan and Kercheval, as part of a continuing year-long celebration of the 450th anniversary of the Reformation.

Theological issues of the Reformation and the historical development of the divergent theologies will be sketched by Rev. Hunt. Re-evaluation by the contemporary Roman Catholics of the Reformation and of Martin Luther since the turn of the century will also be considered, in addition to post-Vatican II positions.

Current dialogues between the Catholic Bishops Commission and representatives of the Lutheran Churches will be another issue discussed at the Sunday Seminar held in the St. James Green Room, to which the entire community is invited.

Rev. Hunt, as associate Catholic Chaplain at Wayne State University, is affiliated with the Newman Apostolate. Prior to ordination in 1967, Rev. Hunt was a member of the campus ministry at West Virginia University and the University of Texas.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. CHESTER G. CLARK, OF SEVERN ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Fairs are Number One on Ena Clark's list of Favorite Things — right now. Six weeks from now, bowling may occupy Ena's Number One FT position; six months from now, it may be cooking . . . or upholstering . . . or candle-making.

Or something completely new, something she's never tried before, (although it's getting harder to find something Ena's never tried before . . .)

And what was once Number One will move down the list, to second place, or fourth, or eighth, or eighteenth, or again, down again, up higher, jumping from position to position, perhaps returning to first place, perhaps failing to last.

But never sliding off the list entirely. Ena doesn't drop her Favorite Things. She just adds to them.

Currently, Fairs are Number One because Ena, with Mrs. John Boomer, is serving as co-chairman of the first Monteth Elementary School Fair, planned for Saturday, March 16.

Something for Everyone
It's to be an all-day, (10 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon), all-age, (games and activities for children, teens, adults and adults), family festival, with a "Swing Into Spring" theme.

Colorful flowers, created by a decorations committee under Mrs. Clayton Shors' direction, will bloom in the corridors and classrooms of Monteth's ground floor. There'll be a luncheon set up in the school's gymnasium, a bake sale, a White Elephant department.

There'll be, in short, a Fair — and Ena, who counts Fairs among her Favorite Things, will be right in the thick of it.

Christine, (she was christened Christine, after her mother, and promptly called Ena, to distinguish her from her mother — "I don't think anyone knows my real name EXCEPT my parents, and they'd have to think twice if someone started talking about 'Christine Clark,'" she laughs), and her husband, Ches, an engineer, have two sons, Jeffery, 16, at Grosse Pointe High School, and Greg, 11, at Monteth.

Two School Moves
Both boys have School Moves coming up this fall. Jeff will go to Grosse Pointe North High School, a member of the new North High School's first graduating class.

Greg will go to Brownell Junior High School and eventually, like his brother, to Grosse Pointe North.

Ches and Ena will stay right where they are, in Severn road. They've been Pointers for almost six years, lived before that in Detroit. Neither was born in the United States.

Ena's family left Scotland when she was four, settling in Ohio. Her parents live in with their Clark grandsons, while Ena and Ches go off on a two-week vacation of their own.

Ches was born and brought up near Calgary, Alberta, Canada. "I don't think you could say I'm 'proficient' in any one thing," Ena muses aloud, mentally checking off her list of Favorites, "but there are lots of things I take a crack at."

Bowls, But Not Well
"I bowl Mondays at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Group. I'm undoubtedly the worst bowler in the city—I can just see the girls in my league laugh when they read I've said 'howl'! I'm sure they can think of lots of words to describe what I do at the bowling alley Mondays, but 'howling' isn't one of those words!"

"I golf with Suburban Women Golfers, the Nine-Hole Group because Greg still comes home for lunch."

"I like to make decorations for the house, flower arrangements, things like that."

Son Loves Fish
"Our oldest son is a fishing bug," she explains, (Jeff likes not only to catch them, but to collect them: His tropical fish tanks currently hold some 80 specimens), "and he conned us into saying we'd take him camping this summer. I never really had any DESIRE to go camping."

But Jeff won't let his parents forget their promise. He has a part-time after-school job in a paint store, and is saving his money to buy "a tent and four tires," the latter items to go on an old car he plans to fix up. (Ena has some reservations about the Old Car Project, too.)

Last summer, the Clarks' oldest son had a marvelous experience. Friends of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Maxwell, who live in England, invited Jeff to visit them—and off Jeff flew.

He spent seven weeks abroad traveling up to Scotland to meet relatives, sight-seeing in France and Italy with Mrs. Maxwell . . .

She'll Wait for Bridge
Greg's been promised a similar trip when he turns 15. Ena would like to go abroad herself, "but I'll wait 'til they build the bridge." Flying is NOT one of her Favorite Things.

Wall-painting is, though, and assisting her husband at outdoor barbecues, and collecting charms, (she has two bracelets full, each charm with a "story" behind it).

And, of course, Fairs . . . Ena and Ches are both members of the Monteth Parent-Teacher Association, the Fair sponsor. Ena was a PTA mother vice-president last year and is secretary of the Association this year, under President Bill Babcock.

"Every year," she explains, "the PTA sponsors some kind of money-making project for the school. Last year, we had a Book Fair. It was successful, but it seemed to us to be a lot of work for relatively little compensation."

"Throughout the school year, the PTA sponsors other, smaller projects, card parties, for example, but these are all for adults. We wanted our Big Project to be something the kids themselves could get involved in."

Has Had Experience
Ena served as president of Detroit's Wayne Junior High School PTA when Jeff was a student there during her term of office, the Wayne Parents and Teachers had a Fair, so Ena has a good idea of how such things are run.

Monteth Principal John Hamel was very receptive to the Fair idea. So were the parents. And the children, of course, were delighted.

"We decided definitely to have a Fair just before Christmas," Ena reports, "and all the chairmanships are filled now. We're going to have a kitchen-restaurant. We've been collecting stamp books, to be turned in for prizes."

"We've asked the teachers to compile a list of projects for which the money we raise might be used. We're trying to involve every Monteth parent in the Fair. We've had the Room Mothers contact all the mothers in their rooms, and we've sent out brochures listing the various committee chairmen and their telephone numbers."

"Monteth Scouts will patrol the halls and help with the clean-up, but by and large we've tried not to involve the kids with the actual WORK of the Fair. We want it to be primarily a 'fun day' for them."

Split Into Shifts
"We're trying to put volunteers on two-hour Fair day working shifts. But for those who can't work two hours, one hour will be fine. We'll have 14 different games, an ID bracelet booth, a cartoon theater, which the faculty is going to run, 'Mr. Many Pockets'—Jeff's agreed to dress up as the clown. PROVIDED he can get the day off from work."

"The Monteth Art Department students are making 50 posters, to be distributed to local stores. . . . The Grosse Pointe Woods Police have been cooperating with us in every respect. . . . EVERYBODY has been cooperating."

Ena talks, explains, describes — and smiles. Obviously, the Monteth School Fair is her Number One Favorite Thing.

And, equally obviously, Ena's not the sort of person who can be blasé about Favorites.

SWEDISH TEA RING

Contributed by
Mrs. Chester G. Clark

SWEET DOUGH:

- 1/4 C. warm water
- 1 packet dry yeast
- 3/4 C. lukewarm milk
- 1/4 C. sugar
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 egg
- 1/4 C. soft shortening (or oil)
- 3-3 1/2 C. flour

Dissolve yeast in water in small container. Blend milk, sugar, salt, egg and shortening in bowl. Add yeast mixture. Gradually add flour, 1/2 cup at a time, blending in with hands until all flour is away from the side of the bowl. Knead on breadboard about 2 minutes. Put in greased pan, (small Dutch oven size), and cover with a damp cloth. Set on top of hot water to steam. Let rise for 1 hour, punch it down, let rise for another 1/2 hour. Take dough out, roll it on breadboard to about 12 by 8 inches. Butter it thoroughly with pastry brush. Cover with mixture of

- 1/4 C. cinnamon
- 1/2 C. raisins
- 3/4 C. slivered almonds

Roll dough into a long roll, so that the two ends joined together will form a ring. Join ends together. Take kitchen scissors and cut dough through to bottom at 1-inch intervals all around the ring. Twist each piece until it lies flat, like a petal. Place on unbuttered cookie sheet and bake at 375° about 25 minutes. Remove from oven.

While ring is still warm, pour thin consistency mixture of Confectioner's sugar and milk over top.

Lakerettes Win Division Title

St. Paul Lakerettes captured the Southeast Division Basketball Title Sunday by defeating second place St. Cyril's, 31-21, in one of the toughest games of the season. Jan Gilbert led the team to their sixth straight victory in a row, netting 14 hard-earned points. Nine more counters were contributed by Sue Smolinski.

Defense was given a run for the money and fouls were a big problem to the team, but a burst of spirit and better ball control in the fourth quarter pulled the game out of the fire for the Lakerettes.

One more league game remains to be played but the St. Paul squad is assured of a berth in the City Playoffs. With the spirit this year, the girls may go all the way to the City Title.

FINDS ABANDONED BIKE

George Caulkins, 552 Rivard, called City Police on Sunday, February 11, to report that he found a bicycle in the bushes on his property. Police picked up a 26", Schwinn red and white bicycle and tagged same, for pickup by owner.
