Thursday, May 9
NEGOTIATORS for the Detroit Free Press and the Detroit News continued to bargain with the Pressmen's Union, one of four on strike, in an attempt to end the 175-day shutdown of the city's daily papers. U.S. District Court Judge Damon Keith said a temporary restraining order barring the intervention of Romney and the legislative committee "will be permitted to lapse" on Friday. He added that he had "advised all counsel for the parties of my view that the collective bargaining process should not be interfered with in any manner." The judge made these comments after the apparent withdrawal of Romney and the legislative committee.

JACK "MURF" the Turned Murphy, a beachboy turned jewel thief, and Jack Griffith, a karate expert, were the subjects of a statewide pickup order which said first degree murder warrants had been issued in Broward County, Florida for the men. The men are wanted in the brutal murders of two former California secretaries, Terry Rae Kent Frank, 23, and Annalie Marie Mohn, 21. Their bodies, weighted with concrete, were found in Whiskey Creek near Hollywood December 8.

Friday, May 10
ENEMY FORCES attacked sectors of Saigon, increasing the death toll of civilians and the flow of refugees in an apparent effort to influence peace talks which are about to open in Paris. About 2,000 troops of the U.S. Ninth Infantry Division were flown into Saigon to force back enemy attempts to enter the city from the south and east.

TODAY MARKED the arrival of the chief negotiators for the United States and North Vietnam in Paris, both emphasizing their serious intent and hopes for moving toward a settlement. There was no announcement of how or when the formal talks and meetings will begin.

Saturday, May 11
DEMOCRATS in the Michigan House agreed to the majority Republican's request for support in beginning debate on Governor George Romney's open housing bill next Monday. The bill, which cleared the Senate 22-14 last month, was at the end of 40 other bills on the House calendar for two weeks and was making slow progress toward reaching the floor.

Sunday, May 12
FIFTEEN COAL MINERS in Hominy Falls, W. Virginia, rode a conveyor belt to freedom today after being trapped for five days in a flooded mine. Ten other men were believed to have lost their lives Monday when a break in the wall to an adjoining abandoned mine shot millions of gallons of water through the mine's passageway.

Monday, May 13
THOUSANDS OF CITIZENS of Panama turned out to vote Sunday in an apparently peaceful election for a new president and 42 members of the unicameral national assembly. The voting climaxed a bitterly contested battle.

THE LAST HOUR appeasement moves by the French government Sunday night were rejected by French labor, students, and teachers, who began a 24-hour general strike at midnight. The aim of the nationwide movement was to protest "police repression" of student demonstrators in Paris, hundreds of whom were injured last week in battles around the Latin Quarter.

THE INITIAL FORCES of the poor people's march on Washington began today erecting their "resurrection city" near the Lincoln Memorial, kicking off the crusade inspired by Dr. Martin Luther King. The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy heading the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in place of the late Dr. King, drove a ceremonial stake to dedicate the many tents, shacks and other shelters.

Woods Halts Use of DDT Elm Spray

Switch to Methoxychlor Follows Legal Action of Environmental Defense Fund

The City of Grosse Pointe Woods, after intensive study, has decided to use Methoxychlor for spraying against Dutch Elm disease, it was announced by City Manager Chester E. Petersen.

Mr. Petersen said the city's supply of DDT has been depleted and that any further spraying will be done with methoxychlor, which is not as toxic as DDT and is less dangerous to birds and animals.

The Environmental Defense Fund, of Brookhaven, N.Y., an organization of scientists, have been fighting the use of persistent, broad spectrum pesticides, such as DDT, in publicly-financed and directed pest-control programs for months, carrying their fight to the courts. All five of the Pointes were included in the staggering list of communities named as defendants or would-be-defendants in the suits.

The suit against the Woods will be dropped as a result of the city's action. Concurring with the Fund members' beliefs are the Kalamazoo Nature Center and the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Petersen added that although the City of Grosse Pointe Woods cannot require individuals to use methoxychlor, they highly recommend its use to residents.

GP Park Council Approves Budget for Fiscal 1968-69

Following a public hearing held in the municipal chambers on Monday, May 13, the Park Council approved the city's 1968-69 fiscal budget, after adding $4,900 to two items, making the total for the coming year, $1,630,558, an increase of $102,115 over the 1967-68 budget. The fiscal year begins July 1.

For the past several years, the Park has held down its tax millage rate, but this year, the millage will amount to 14.10 mills, or $14.10 per $1,000 of assessed State equalized valuation, an increase of 2.10 mills.

The necessity for the proposed increase, it was disclosed by City Manager Robert Stone, is due to the extensive wage and fringe benefits granted to all municipal employees during

Will Present Candidates For Community College Board at Rally on May 21

League of Women Voters Sponsoring Session at Library to Provide Voters with Information Prior to Election on June 10

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters in co-sponsorship with the Detroit Leagues of the East Side and Harper Woods will hold a rally for interested citizens in the Grosse Pointe Library on May 21 at 8 p.m. to introduce the candidates for the Board of Trustees of the Wayne County Community College.

The State legislature recently established seven trustee districts for election purposes. One trustee will be elected from each community college district to comprise the Board. Most of Wayne County was designated as District #1 and includes much of Detroit's east side, all of the Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods.

The date for this non-partisan election for the Community College trustees will be June 10 and any qualified elector is eligible to vote. A candidate for membership of the Board of Trustees must be a registered voter and a resident of the community college district.

Correction!

In last week's issue of the NEWS, an apparent printing error, which was not corrected in the proof, pertaining to the Farms' proposed closing of Roland road, the story read that 34 persons living in Allard, LaBelle and Chalfonte, favored the move. This should have read DID NOT favor the move. The error caused is regretted. The matter will come up again for further discussion at the regular meeting of the Farms council on Monday, June 3.

1967-68: increased costs in rubbish collection and disposal; and increased costs for general supplies and materials.

Before approving the coming fiscal budget, the council voted to add $400 to the Parks and Recreation appropriation, and $4,500 to the Employees Pension and Insurance allocation.

In explaining the tax millage rate, the city manager pointed out that the rate for the 1966-67 fiscal year was $15.50 per $1,000 of local assessed valuation. This produced a total revenue of $785,395.

Beginning with the 1967-68 year, all municipalities were converted from local assessed to the high level of State equalized valuation.

School Board Has Another Hot Meeting

Costs of New High School Subject of Arguments Between Trustees; Real Figures Listed

By Pepper Whitelaw

SRO was once again in effect at the School Board meeting at Mair Elementary School on Monday night.

It is unfortunate that too often worthwhile and exciting presentation such as the one on "Operation Dig," given by Marvin Rants, chairman of the Professional Study Committee, are often cast aside and forgotten for the more controversial issues.

One of the main issues dealt with past history and current reality. The matter was brought to light by Trustee Edward J. Pongracz, who expressed his concern over current rumors and allegations regarding Grosse Pointe North High School. He cited particularly a recent meeting during which he said those present "tossed figures around" that were far from accurate.

He requested that the figures of the current costs of Grosse Pointe North High School be made public so that the residents can be properly and correctly informed.

Flyer Circulated

Vice-president Russell H. Peebles expressed his concern over a recent flyer circulating in the Pointe and allegedly written by Pointe Housewives that indicates that the estimate of the cost of the high school was originally three million dollars.

Here Trustee Calvin J. Sandberg said that he took part in a

Deadline for withdrawal is 72 hours after the petitions have been filed.

All Pointes Primp For Celebration of Michigan Week

Mayors' Exchange Day Set For Monday Is Highlight of Annual Observance; Visiting Officials to Be Feted at Luncheon at GPHYC

All five Grosse Pointes are being mowed, curbed, polished, and otherwise spruced up, as are hundreds of other communities throughout the state, in preparation for their annual observance of Michigan Week, which begins here next Saturday, with "Community Pride Day."

Michigan has aptly been described as the Summer-Winter Wonderland, the Great Lake State, and the Wolverine State. The theme of this year's Michigan Week celebration is "Michigan—Land of Hospitality."

A highlight of the week, in the Pointes, will be Mayors' Exchange Day on Monday, May 20, which has been designated as "Our Government Day."

Hutton to Birmingham
Robert J. Hutton, mayor pro tem of the Park, and Mrs. Hutton, will journey to Birmingham, while Mayor and Mrs. David Breck of Detroit's northern suburb will spend a busy day here.

Birmingham's pro tem mayor and Mrs. Charles Clippert and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, will meet the Huttons at the Municipal Building at 9:30 a.m. Visits will be made to various places of interest. There will be a luncheon and dinner, and attendance at the City Commission meeting in the evening.

NHS Parents Plan Meeting

The Parent Club of Grosse Pointe North High School will hold its second meeting in the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School on Wednesday, May 22, 1968 at 8 p.m.

The Bylaws and Constitution Committee, consisting of Floyd Nixon, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Beck, Mrs. Eunice Shier, Otis Schroeder, Jack Whiteley, Harry Deman, Mrs. Jack Seiber, and Jack Persson, acting chairman for North High Parent Club, have met and completed a proposed constitution. As a result of the action of the Bylaws and Constitution Committee, the Nominating Committee, of which Bernard Rabaut is chairman and John Seiber, co-chairman, met on May 13, for purposes of nominating officers for the new organization.

Refutation of the constitution and the election of officers for the 1968-69 school year will be the primary order of business at the meeting scheduled for May 22.

A cordial invitation is extended to those Grosse Pointe North High School parents who would like to know more about the new school and be a part of the group of people who shape it. All interested parents and friends of North High School students are urged to attend.

Farms Police Department Plans Open House May 18

The Farms Police Department will hold its second annual open house on Saturday, May 18, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. in conjunction with President Johnson's National Proclamation, setting May 12-18 as National Police Week, to honor police officers throughout the country.

Another proclamation, on a local level, was recently signed by Farms Mayor William Butler, to honor all local policemen.

The proclamations were issued to recognize law enforcement and to pay tribute to the police officers who gave their lives in the service of their country and their communities. Farms Police Chief Jack F. Rob announced the second annual open house, to celebrate

7 Candidates In Race for Six Offices

Proposed Charter Amendment Would Increase Employees' Pensions as Urged by Trustees

Seven candidates have filed intentions to seek municipal offices in the Shores, at the regular Village election to be held on Tuesday, May 21, it was disclosed by Village Superintendent Thomas Jefferis. All had filed well ahead of the deadline of 4 p.m. Monday, May 13, the new time and date set by an amended State Election Law enacted last year.

Under the old law, aspirants to public offices were required to file petitions by 4 p.m. on a Saturday prior to a full week before an election.

The approximately 1,800 registered Shores electors will have an opportunity to cast ballots for a Village president, clerk, trustees, and also vote on a charter amendment that would increase pension benefits for municipal employees.

Jefferis disclosed that Gilbert T. Jerome, who became Village president last fall when John Huettnerman resigned the post after moving to another community, is unopposed for the office. Also unopposed is Clifford B. Loranger, for the office of clerk. The tenure in both cases is two years.

Challenged by Beck
Three incumbent trustees are being challenged by a newcomer, for one of their seats. The incumbents are Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., Gerald C. Schroeder, and C. Bradford Lundy, Jr. The challenger is Daniel R. Beck. The term is for two years.

Frank A. Colombo, who was appointed to succeed Jerome when the latter, as president pro tem, stepped into the post of president, is unopposed in his bid to continue in office to finish the unexpired term of one year. Under the law, he must seek election to fill the vacancy.

Shores electors will also decide on a proposed amendment to the Village Charter to update the Village pension program, which has been in effect since 1943.

Public Hearing Held
Residents had an opportunity to attend a public hearing held on Monday, May 6, in the Old Vernier School, at which time they were given the reasons for the changes. The amendment is unanimously endorsed by the Village Board of Trustees.

The proposal would require the Village to increase its total contributions to the pension fund for employees from the present 12 percent to about 16 percent of annual payroll. The additional cost to the Shores would be $11,740 for the coming fiscal year, according to Jerome.

Employee contributions to the retirement system are a percentage of their salaries. The percentages will not change if the proposal is passed, he added.

The amendment is needed if the Shores is to remain competitive with other communities in the area, it was stated.

Committee Formed
More than 100 voters in the Shores have formed a committee to seek the re-election of the six incumbent officials and trustees in the election Tuesday.

Police Pick Up Truant Girls

While on routine patrol on Thursday, May 9, City police officers Cpl. William Plumb and Edmond Benthuy, noticed two teenage girls walking on Fisher. They recognized one of the girls as an habitual truant. She told the officers that she did not have a first hour class. Her companion told officers she attended a private school in Arizona and was home on vacation.

Both girls were taken to the station where police discovered that they were cutting classes. The girl who alleged she attended school in Arizona was found to be a student at the Grosse Pointe High School also. Both were taken to the Wayne County Youth Home, where a hearing date was set.

discussion in 1964 during which time Dr. Charles H. Wilson, then Superintendent of Schools, stated that the estimated cost of a new high school would be around three million dollars.

Here Mr. Peebles interjected are you the publisher of this (holding up the flyer)?

Mr. Sandberg said that his statement of Dr. Wilson's was a matter of record. In an effort to verify this statement the NEWS checked over back issues and found the interchange to which Mr. Sandberg referred in the May 7, 1964 issue of the NEWS. Dr. Wilson stated, "Therefore, a program of ADDITIONS would do an adequate job of housing and would cost around three million dollars." At the time Mr. Sandberg was a member of the Educational Vigilance Committee of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Different Estimate

Further research disclosed that in the March 26, 1964 issue Mr. Pongracz said a "new high school was roughly estimated to cost in the vicinity of four million five hundred thousand dollars. (At that time Mr. Pongracz was treasurer.)

In the interest of fairness we must add however that this figure did not include a Performing Arts Center, which the residents of the Pointe voted for separately and passed, nor did it plan to house as many students. Assistant Superintendent of Administrative Services Joseph Spagnoli said at Monday's meeting, that originally the school was planned to house between 1800-2000 students. Since that time enrollment has jumped 33 percent.

To date, with only three grades in North High School next year, 1900 students are enrolled, the following year, with all four grades in the high school, the figure will rise to 2400 students. A considerably larger number than originally anticipated. The original estimates for the cost of a new high school did not include the Performing Arts Center, the increased number of students or the rise in construction costs.

Current Costs Listed

To help citizens better understand the true facts and so that unfounded allegations are not taken as truths the NEWS is reprinting the current figures of the cost of Grosse Pointe North High School. They are as follows: First off, in computing square foot costs of school buildings, the generally accepted criterion used by architects for comparative purposes is to use the amount for general contracting, mechanical and electrical work.

Figured on this basis the 335,000 square foot building comes in at $28.10 per square foot, for a total of $9,415,806. This figure includes the Performing Arts Center. The total amount of the contract for the building, which includes site development, is $9,880,095. Other costs include piling, $406,686.49; site, $689,626.88 (which includes all fees); equipment, $845,000; and architects' fees, $362,000, for a grand total of $12,183,388.37. These are the facts!

Appointments Aired

The matter of accepting the superintendent's recommendation for approval of administrative appointments then became a major item of discussion. Trustee Arnold Fuchs said the question was "whether we are in the position to negotiate salaries without an approved budget." He then made a motion stating, "That we accept the recommendation of the superintendent to reelect the administrators for the coming year but that salaries could be negotiated only on the basis of an approved budget." The motion was defeated 5-2 with Mr. Fuchs and Mr. Sandberg voting yes.

Mr. Fuchs told the NEWS "My point being that good business dictates that you should know what is available in the budget before you start spending the money."

The members of the Board who voted against the motion, indicated that approval in this manner has always been given to assure administrators that they will be employed by Grosse Pointe in the coming year and that it was simply a "gentlemen's agreement," and that this did not mean that contracts at a specific salary are signed.

They added that a budget must necessarily be an estimate of projected expenses.

Some other items of interest on the agenda included a motion to issue diplomas to Special Education Students at the High School. This was unanimously approved and highly commended by Board members.

Gerich Paid Honor

Dr. Anderson also announced that Jerry Gerich, principal of Grosse Pointe South High School, has been selected as one of two representatives to the North Central Association. He will be one of 10 administrators in the United States to visit a foreign country and study their educational system. Mr. Gerich will travel to Germany for one month next October.

Of special interest to parents will be the change in the school calendar for next year. Dr. Anderson recommended and the Board approved, the following changes: That the Christmas vacation be modified for a full two-week vacation as opposed to the students returning to school on Thursday and Friday of the second week; that school begin one day earlier in September, (September 3 rather than September 4); the changing of spring vacation to the week which includes Good Friday instead of the week after. In this way the teachers will have 187 duty days and the students will have the minimum requirement of school days, which is 180 days.

To Hear Candidates

President Alice Mary Hykes then discussed some of the ground rules for the meeting to be held June 3 at Parcels Junior High School at 7:30 o'clock during which candidates for the School Board will have the opportunity to speak. The Board decided, after discussion among themselves and from the floor, to allow Mrs. Hykes to set up the "ground rules" and submit them to the Board for final approval.

The School Board members handled a full and interesting docket Monday night but then, they always do!

Barnes PTA Sets Meeting

The annual meeting of the Barnes PTA will be held on Wednesday, May 22, in the school gymnasium. This will be the last regular meeting of the school year and all parents are urged to attend.

The program will include selections by the Orchestra at 7:30 until 7:45 o'clock; the Fifth-Sixth Grade Choir, from 7:45 to 8:25 o'clock; a business meeting and election of officers from 8:30 to 8:40 o'clock and the presentation of candidates for the Board of Education from 8:40 until 9:10 o'clock.

The Nominations Committee consisting of William Bokram, chairman, Mrs. Craig Marks and Dr. Roger O'Connor will present the slate of candidates for 1968-69 PTA officerships. The candidates include: Allan Neff, president; William Huettnerman, father vice-president; Mrs. M. Klimchuk, mother vice-president; Mrs. R. Hohl, secretary; and Mrs. Martin Schurr, treasurer. Nominations will also be accepted from the floor.

Hospital Plans Disaster Drills

For several years the staff at Bon Secours Hospital has been planning and drilling in order to be prepared for natural disasters or atomic emergencies. The hospital has put its Disaster Plan to the test both in dress-rehearsal drills and under actual operational conditions.

Now, with the exceptional circumstances that civil disturbances create, a new dimension has, of necessity, been added to disaster planning, and although the basic considerations remain unchanged, the Disaster Program had to be re-assessed to cover this eventuality.

On Saturday, May 18, a full drill employing these new concepts will conclude the hospital's observance of National Hospital Week. Twenty Boy Scouts from the Maitre School Troop 19 have volunteered their services as "victims" of a civil disturbance and will begin to arrive at the Emergency entrance at about midday.

The boys' wounds will be as real as artifice and staging can make them. This helps to heighten the effectiveness and enhance the seriousness of the exercise, but, (with forewarning), it is hoped that such realism will not cause undue alarm to the residents in the surrounding community.

It is hoped that conditions will never necessitate the full utilization of the hospital's disaster facilities but will serve to reassure the community that Bon Secours Hospital stands ready for any emergency.

Two persons were issued traffic violations by City police on Wednesday, May 15. Robert C. Horn, Jr., 90 North Brys drive and Jerry J. Allaer, 1627 Oldtown, Detroit.

Both parties sustained minor injuries.

Park-Detroit Boundary Change Needs Only Petition

If residents living on the west side of Barrington desire to have all of their property located in the Park, a petition signed by every property owner of that street must be presented to both the Park council and the Detroit Common Council. Park councilmen were informed by City Attorney Richard Rohr, on Monday, May 13.

Rohr was instructed at a meeting on April 8, to sound out Detroit on the possibility of changing the boundary lines west of Barrington, south of Jefferson, back to Alter road. Approximately 85 residential properties from Jefferson to Windmill Pointe drive, would be affected by the proposed change.

The matter was first brought to the attention of the Park solons at the March 31 council meeting, by Eberhard Dettman of 837 Barrington, who asked the city lawmakers to look into the situation.

He had pointed out that residents living in this street have been paying split taxes for years, and that a majority are anxious to have their homes completely located in the Park.

Property owners on the west side of the road, pay Park city taxes, Wayne County taxes and Grosse Pointe School System taxes, on the sections in the Park; and county and Detroit's combined city-school taxes, on sections in Detroit.

Rohr said that he contacted Detroit's corporation counsel regarding the boundary switch, and was informed that no problem is anticipated.

The city attorney said that all that is needed to affect the change is a petition with 100 percent of the names of the west side Barrington property owners, with copies of the petition sent to the Park and Detroit councils, who must consent to the shifting of the city limits line.

Dettman said that under a present State law, wherever property extends further into a community, the owners can request to become fully part of the community. This differs from the situation on the west side of Wayburn, from Jefferson to Mack avenue, where only a small section of homes are in the Park, and a large section in Detroit.

It was pointed out that 70 feet, and in some cases more, of property in Barrington is in the Park, and about 65 feet, or in some cases less, is located in Detroit.

Dettman said that he will begin circulating a petition among the residents concerned without delay.

Settlement of the matter will solve which city has jurisdiction over what, such as, police and fire protection, taxes, issuance of building permits, and a myriad of other dual problems.

Park Budget

(Continued from Page 1) valuation for property. However, in doing this, the city decided to reduce the tax rate to offset the increased valuation, hence, no net increase to the taxpayer.

The 1967-68 tax rate was set at $12 per $1,000 of State equalized valuation, and produced $786,931.

In order to balance the budget in 1967-68, Slone said, the city was able to appropriate $79,006 from surplus and a very "tight" budget in the amount of $1,630,558, which left very little "cushion" for a substantial surplus to be built up for the 1968-69 fiscal year.

In order to balance the new budget, it was stated, it was required that the general operating tax levy be raised to $13.50 per $1,000 State equalized valuation, which added to the Debt Service Tax for the Park Improvement Bond Issue in the amount of 60 cents per $1,000 State equalized valuation, resulted in the total tax rate of $14.10.

The following are the amounts set for the various departments for the coming year: Administrative and General, $136,363; Public Safety, $553,964; Parks and Recreation, $87,963; Public Works, $467,823; Employees Benefits, $159,385; Special Appropriations, $85,000; Contingency, $95,000; and Debt Service Requirements, $45,060.

Reverend Groll Speaks Sunday

"Christianity and Latin America" will be the subject of the Reverend Douglas Groll as he speaks at St. James Lutheran Church on Sunday, May 19 at 3 o'clock. Reverend Groll is a 1966 graduate of Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Mo., and is presently serving Lutheran congregations in Maturin, Venezuela.

Reverend Groll has been able to formulate some rather interesting tentative conclusions about his role, the role of the church and the role of the Christian citizen of the United States from his vantage point in Venezuela. Pastor Groll will share some of these tentative conclusions in his presentation at St. James, McMillan Road at Kercheval. An invitation is extended to all.

Jacob Sumeracki Retires June 15

Jacob P. Sumeracki, of Bal-four road, frequently referred to as the Dean of County Officials, will retire on June 15. He has served the County of Wayne in a legislative, administrative and executive capacity since 1929. This extensive period of public service commenced when he became a member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors in 1929, continued on when he became County Treasurer, having been elected to that highly important office of public trust in 1932, and presently in the post he now fills as a member of the three-man Board of County Auditors and its present chairman. During this long period of time, Wayne County has felt the full impact of the bursting bubble of 1929, the terrifying depression of the early 30s, the tooling, gearing and production stages of the 1940s, and the surging social changes of the 60s. During this transitory period, Jacob P. Sumeracki has unflinchingly accepted his full measure of civic responsibility. From the headline pages of this history of public service would be found such items as the discarding of out-moded systems and the installation of modern methods of operation in the County Treasurer's Office; the setting up and administration of two 10-year payment plans for delinquent taxes, whereby friends and neighbors were enabled to save homes that would have passed on to the tax buyers; the faultless handling of huge sums of Federal money as disbursement officer for the C.W.A.; the rigid insistence on sound budget procedure and thorough auditing of all branches of County Government to the end that the law of checks and balances would prevail.

Center Again Schedules Memorial Day Ceremony

The lakeside lawn and terrace of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will be the beautiful setting for Grosse Pointe's Annual Memorial Day Service. The brief but impressive observance will take place at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, May 30.

The Board of Directors of the War Memorial Association urges as many families as possible to take their places on the lawn on this occasion as a mark of respect to those who have given their lives in conflict. In case of rain, the ceremony will take place as scheduled in Fries Auditorium.

Raising and half masting of the Colors by Boy Scout Troop 96 of the Memorial Presbyterian Church will mark the beginning of the service. Commander Goodman of American Legion Post 303 will introduce the officiating dignitaries and William F. Huetteman, president of Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association, will extend a welcome. Commander Larry Light of Alger Post 995 V.F.W. will advance and place the colors.

The principle address will be given in a brief talk by Reverend Harry Meserve of Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church. This will be followed by Mayor William G. Butler reading the Gold Star list of the war dead.

Girl Scouts of Cadet Troop 1463 St. Paul Lutheran Church will assist the Auxiliaries of Alger Post 995 V.F.W. and American Legion Post 303 in placing wreaths under the plaques in the Memorial's foyer.

Volley, Taps and Echo will sound over the lake, executed by the firing squad of Alger Post 995 V.F.W. and V.F.W. buglers Ronald Maciasz and Tim Brugseo.

A prayer by Reverend John E. McLaughlin, O.S.A. of Saint Clare de Montefalco Roman Catholic Church will conclude the service.

American Legion Grosse Pointe Post 303 invites all who have been service men to join and participate in their activities at 20916 Mack avenue.

Confused Youth Aided by Police

City Patrolmen Dwight Scott and Edward Miller picked up a dazed and confused youth, whom they observed while patrolling on Mack between Lakeland and University on Tuesday, May 7.

The youth was running across Mack avenue. He appeared to have come from the direction of the Clark gas station on the Detroit side of Mack. He narrowly avoided running into the side of the scout car. Upon seeing the officers he requested a ride to his home in St. Clair Shores.

He was taken to the City Police Station and identified. Although the youth did not appear drunk, his condition was such that he could not be interrogated.

Officers took him to Bon Secours Hospital and his parents were contacted. The boy's father told officers that he could not control the youth and that he suspected his son was under the influence of drugs, possibly Marijuana.

He admitted he had been smoking "grass" and told officers he had purchased the "grass" in Detroit. He was released to his parents after being charged as a disorderly person. He had no "grass" on his person at the time of his arrest.

Chief Andrew C. Teetaert talked to the boy's father and advised him to appear in court with the boy on May 14.

An Invitation to Citizens of Grosse Pointe

The Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council invites you to join in the observance of the week of May 19, 1968 as BETTER HUMAN RELATIONS WEEK, with focus of attention upon RECONCILIATION, the main emphasis in its platform since its conception. We submit the following suggestions as means of attaining the end we all heartily desire, a peaceful and healthy climate in all our community relationships.

Reaffirmation of our belief in, and support of, the principles laid down in our Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States.

Educational programs in public and non-public schools, of children and adults, which stress the development of the individual along creative, socially oriented, and service-centered lines to the end of enabling us to meet the challenges of today and tomorrow.

Commitment to the principle of reconciling diverse opinions and convictions in social and civic issues through friendly dialogue and the orderly processes of law.

Opportunities, economically, educationally, and environmentally, equal to all, regardless of race, creed, color, or nation of origin.

Neighborliness, as a matter of real concern for the welfare of others. Man-made boundary lines on a map are barriers to concern, only to those who treat them as such.

Calmness on all occasions, with abhorrence of violence, unwarranted fears, unfounded rumors, caching and contemplating use of firearms.

Intelligence, in amelioration of unsatisfactory situations and solution of civic problems through exercise of mental and moral powers rather than through physical confrontation.

Love, with full awareness that it is the greatest force available to man, through the expression of which, peace and understanding can be achieved.

Integrity, individual and corporate, to the end that fairness, confidence, and equity may prevail. Communities have reputation and character as do individuals.

Action, as individuals and groups, in support of all programs aimed at implementation of the principles which challenge the very best that is in us. Indifference is the greatest threat to reconciliation we face.

Truth, which to know and to cherish, makes us free, of alarm, of hatred, of prejudice, and of fear. Let us check out all rumors, at source.

Idealism, a prerequisite to progress. Dreams must always precede reality, socially as well as scientifically.

Oneeness, the basis upon which all group life rests, in family, community, state and nation.

New approach to building a Grosse Pointe community in which all citizens may be guaranteed the rights, equal to all, to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

A cordial invitation is extended to attend the annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council to be held on Wednesday evening, May 22, 1968, at 8:00 P.M., in Fellowship Hall, Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lake Shore Road. The program for the evening will feature a panel discussion by student representatives from the high schools of Grosse Pointe, public and non-public, on ways and means, as youth sees it, of promoting better human relations in our community.

The main library, Kercheval at Fisher, will display a special section, featuring books relating to the area of human relations throughout the week.

Seven Candidates Seek Office in Shores Election Scheduled for Tuesday

Shores Committee to Re-elect the Incumbent Officials, the group is endorsing Gilbert T. Jerome for Village President; Gerald C. Schroeder, Alfred R. Glancy Jr. and C. Bradford Lundy Jr. for two-year trustee terms; Frank A. Colombo for a one-year trustee term, and Dr. Clifford B. Loranger for Village clerk.

In a letter mailed this week to Shores voters, the committee praised the achievements of the incumbents for improving Village services "without any marked increase in our property tax rate."

Projects Praised
"A harbor renovation project has increased our park area, controlled silt buildup and improved boating facilities. Our families are enjoying a new swimming pool, enlarged auto parking area and a ski slope. The Village hall and fire station have been modernized."

The committee also noted that "the Board of Trustees is supporting a charter change to upgrade pensions for our Village employees, which also will not increase taxes." The proposed charter amendment will be on the Village ballot Tuesday.

The Committee's letter cited the following record of activities of each of the six candidates:
Gilbert T. Jerome, a consulting municipal engineer, was elected president by the Board of Trustees in 1967 to fill the vacant position after 12 years as trustee.
Gerald C. Schroeder, a certified public accountant, is president pro tem of the Board of Trustees and chairman of the Budget, Finance and Public Relations Committee. He has served on the board for 13 years.

Alfred R. Glancy Jr., a real estate developer, is chairman of the Harbor and Boatwell Committee and has been active in efforts to improve Village park, boating and recreation facilities. He has been a trustee since 1964.
C. Bradford Lundy Jr., a manufacturer's agent, is chairman of the Committee on Municipal Buildings, Permits and Zoning. He has been a trustee since 1964.

Frank A. Colombo, executive vice president of the J. L. Hudson Co., has led the effort to improve the Village employee pension plan. He was appointed to a vacant trustee position in 1967.
Dr. Clifford B. Loranger has served the Village and board as clerk since 1934.

Human Relations Week Scheduled

The Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council announces the dates of May 19 through May 25 as Human Relations Week for all the Grosse Pointe communities. It is hoped by the council that all residents will make themselves more aware of the problems of race facing all citizens as a community and a nation.

Dr. Charles E. Brake, a past president of the council, is chairman of the events of Human Relations Week.

On Sunday, May 19, local churches will give recognition to the common responsibility to work toward improved human relations. Posters in stores and places of business will serve to remind the community of its responsibility and need for concern. The main branch of the Grosse Pointe Public Library is featuring a special section of books on Negro culture and relations between blacks and whites.

On Wednesday, May 22, at 8 p.m. the Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council will hold its annual meeting at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. After the regular business meeting and the election of officers and directors, a youth panel representing various high schools in the area will discuss the problems of racism.

"The Now People" Art Festival will be held on Saturday, May 25, 12 through 7 p.m. at the Brewster Recreation Center, 4535 aFurview near Warren, in Detroit. The festival will feature all forms of art media including photography, music and the dance.

The event is co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council, East Side Churches, Encounter, and the North East Detroit Human Relations Council. East side public and private schools will be participating, kindergarten through adult education classes.

Sport Forum, Car Rally Planned by Center Group

The "Group" for young men and women in their twenties at Grosse Pointe War Memorial has two major events coming up.

On Thursday, May 23, there will be a supper and Sports Forum with Pete Waldmeir, sports editor of the Detroit News and on Sunday afternoon, June 2, there will be a Sport and Stock Car Rally leaving the War Memorial at 2 p.m. for an undisclosed rendezvous for a "Grasser."

Everyone in their twenties in the area is invited to participate in these two events and they will be invited to become group members. Future functions will be geared to members, with guest fees being higher.

The supper with Pete Waldmeir will be served promptly at 7 o'clock. After dinner, Pete will bring everyone up to date on the sport scene which has been so difficult to follow in the absence of daily newspapers. He'll give his opinions, tell anecdotes about sport figures, and answer all questions about the sport scene including players, trades, chances, management, etc.

After his talk and the forum, the group will adjourn for refreshments and continued discussion at Diamond Lil's. No dates are necessary for this function. Business clothes will be worn.

Everyone interested in taking part in the Car Rally June 2 is asked to give their names and a $1 entrance fee to the Center office as soon as possible. Prizes will be given for those who best follow and time the rally route. Men are asked to furnish the six packs and the girls are asked to pack lunches for the "grasser" that winds up the rally.

To organize the "Group" and get ready for these two functions, an invitational get-together was held Sunday night at the "pad" of Ben Henderson and Peter and Mike Murray in Beaconsfield avenue.

PTA at Kerby Meets May 21

The Kerby Parent-Teacher Association will hold its final meeting of the school year on Tuesday evening, May 21, at 7:30 o'clock. The classrooms will be open for parent-teacher visitation between 7:30 and 8:00 o'clock. The election of P.T.A. officers for the ensuing year will be held at this meeting.

A musical program planned and directed by Mendel Lucatsky will be presented for Kerby parents. The theme of the program "Music Around the World" will be depicted by folk songs from many countries of the world. All second, fourth, and sixth grade pupils will participate in the presentation. The Kerby Chorus and Orchestra will also be performing at this event.

A social hour will follow the general meeting. Mrs. James Teetzel and Mrs. Anthony Moustakas, social committee co-chairmen, have appointed Mrs. Peter Clark to arrange for table decorations. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. John Bradfield, Mrs. Don Ash, Mrs. William Waigaman, Mrs. Victor Merta, Mrs. Howard Face, Mrs. John Williams, and Mrs. Clarence McLeod.

Top Recruit

A recruit of the Woods Department of Public Safety, hired on March 1, was graduated from the Oakland Community College Police Academy Basic Police School, with the highest honors ever accorded a new policeman.

Woods Director of Public Safety Allen Andrews, commended Public Safety Officer William Lentz, in a letter, for his dedication to excellence which achieved a final grade of 99, and a course grade of 97.26 in a class of 33 recruit policemen from surrounding communities.

For his achievements, Lentz was awarded a trophy for firearms marksmanship, and another for being the first in his graduating class, with the presentation of both being witnessed by Director Andrews on April 12.

The director said that the audience reacted in astonishment when Lentz was presented the trophies. Andrews said also he knows of no case in the 11 years that he has been associated in police work, of a recruit winning both firsts.

"My investigation of the circumstances with the school coordinator revealed how extremely hard Patrolman Lentz worked to earn the honors," the director said.

In his letter of commendation to the officer, Andrews stated: "Your diligence, perseverance and determination have set a mark in that academy which will seldom be equalled in the future. Your achievement has brought much favorable comment and attention to the reputation of this department and reflects creditably on all its members."

Lentz, who presently lives in Berkley and is looking for a home in the Woods, is a 1961 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School. He formerly worked for The Ethyl Corporation of Ferndale, before joining the Woods department.

He is 25 years old, and married to the former Carole Men-denhall of Warren.

Lentz joined the United States Marine Corps in April 1961, and is in the Active Reserve. He holds the rank of sergeant.

Michigan's largest bank is more than a bank...

Can you fill in those three missing words?

In these fast-moving times, one thing we don't need is a longer name.

But three extra words would give you a much truer picture of what we do: National Bank and Trust Company of Detroit.

Thousands of families have received hundreds of millions of dollars from our Trust Department. They may not even bank here. Some live in other parts of the world. They think of us simply as one of the nation's major trust institutions—executor, trustee, investment adviser, guardian....

We are.

Remember those three words that aren't there.

Candidates Evaluated by Committee

Jackie Pitts, Dr. and Mrs. Doug. Las Sargent, Marty Schurr, John Schoneberg, Arthur Sherman, Jr., Willard Smith, E. A. Steiner, Jr., Mrs. Connie Tily, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Van Leeuwen, Dr. Ellis J. Van Slyck.

Mrs. Jayne Warner and John H. Wood.
All Were Invited
The committee extended an invitation to all known candidates. Six of these candidates generously submitted questionnaires and gave this group the opportunity to discuss at length their views on education in Grosse Pointe and to make their positions known on the crucial educational issues in this community.

Two candidates refused to submit questionnaires or talk with the Evaluation Committee. All those candidates who were reviewed were commended on their willingness to serve and their courage in submitting to the questions and probings of this newly formed organization.

Citizens for Education has among its over 500 members and executive committee a broad cross-section of Grosse Pointe residents who represent a great diversity of political, social, educational philosophy and background, but all of whom are interested in the future of public education in the Pointe.

The following reprint, according to the committee, might be about a parallel situation in this community, "where anonymous mailings, misrepresentations, partial truths and fairytales are used as a weapon of a minority group."

Contents of Reprint

The reprint is from: "School Boards and Superintendents," by Ward G. Reeder, Professor of Education, Ohio State University.

"In every community, care should be taken to obtain the best qualified public officials year in and year out. Eternal vigilance is always the price which all the people must pay to obtain the most competent public officials and to prevent their business being run by minority cliques, often for their own aggrandizement. Civic organizations and individual citizens of the community should urge persons of the highest type to become candidates for the school board and should support their candidacies by every fair means.

"In trying to obtain the election of competent school board members, the public-spirited elements of the community must be practical politicians, and they can always use fair means in being such. For example, when they learn that any selfish group is uniting on a poorly qualified or otherwise questionable candidate and is likely to elect him, they should not divide their votes among several competent candidates; rather they should attempt to obtain the withdrawal of all competent candidates except the number to be elected, then vote for the number in opposition to the candidate or candidates of the selfish group. In many communities these matters are handled through a caucus of representatives of the various civic organizations. The caucus approves candidates and organizes a campaign to obtain their election."

Scholarship Won By Rita Meech

The art work of Rita Meech, a Grosse Pointe High School senior, has gone a long way since she entered a local art contest sponsored by National Scholastic magazine. After becoming a semi-finalist and sending a portfolio of her work in to New York for judging last March, she became a national winner.

Rita has been awarded one year, full-tuition scholarship at Rhode Island School of Design in Providence, R.I., for her outstanding work. This school is one of the largest schools of design in the world, and is noted for its quality in the field.

Mr. Robert Rathburn, High School art teacher, commented that Rita's portfolio is one of the most creative that was submitted from Grosse Pointe. She is also honored for being the first Grosse Pointe student ever to win in the national art competition.

Photographers Having Parley

Detroit will host for the first time, a regional convention of the Photographic Society of America. Headquartered at the Whittier Hotel, the convention will open Friday noon, May 17, and close on Sunday, May 19. There will be color, print, nature and movie "dens" where photographers with similar interests will meet. Models will be available at the hotel for a shooting session in the hotel gardens.

Friday evening there will be a social evening featuring a program on nature photography. Saturday at 9 a.m. a complete schedule of programs will begin: talks, demonstrations, judging sessions and shows. Special awards will be made for slides and pictures submitted by registrants at the convention.

All phases of photography will be featured: travel movie tips, color printing, slide creations, blacklight magic, portraits, etc. The day will be climaxed by a banquet featuring an exciting and imaginative presentation, "EXPO '67", a photo-report.

An early Sunday morning field trip is scheduled for Greenfield Village. In a picturesque setting, models will pose in early American costumes, and craftsmen will ply their trades for the photo fan.

Every photo hobbyist, whether a member or not, beginner or advanced worker, is welcomed to attend. For registration forms, contact the Registration Chairman, c/o the Grosse Pointe Camera Club, Grosse Pointe War Memorial, Grosse Pointe, Michigan, 48236.

Defer PTA Plans Concert Finale

Defer Elementary School Parent Teachers Association will close out the school year with a giant Music Festival and Political Rally, according to PTA president James Maurer, on Friday, May 17, at 3:30 p.m.

The star-spangled event will take place in Pierce Junior High School auditorium and will feature the musical offerings of the Defer fifth and sixth graders. Highlights will include selections by the Defer string ensemble, concert band and living chorus. There will be two tableaux by the group, directed by Miss Viola Oestreich.

Prior to Festival, the PTA nominating committee will submit a slate of officer candidates to the membership for the 1968-69 school year: J. D. Owens, president; Dr. Gerald Stronski, vice-president; Mrs. Mary Friend, second vice-president; Mrs. Benjamin Thomas, third vice-president; Mrs. Ronald Halter, fourth vice-president.

Mrs. John Nelson, recording secretary; Mrs. Lorne MacDonald, corresponding secretary and James Laffer, treasurer, complete the list.

Scholarship Won By Mark Pachla

When the NEWS announced local National Merit Scholarship winners last week it neglected to mention Mark Pachla, of Vernier road, who attends Notre Dame High School.

Mark won one of the 500 new awards called National Merit $1,000 Scholarships. This is a one-time, nonrenewable scholarship. Winners were chosen in open competition, state by state, by a selection committee. Fifty-five were underwritten by various sponsors and the remainder by Merit Corporation funds.

Other honors Mark has received are an Honorary State of Michigan Competitive Scholarship, Oakland University Honorary Scholarship, a Certificate Award from the Detroit Association of Phi Beta Kappa. Mark is a member of the National Honor Society.

Bankers' Outing Set at Lochmoor

The annual golf outing of the Mortgage Bankers Association of Michigan will be held Tuesday, May 21, at Lochmoor Country Club.

Announcement of the all-day outing was made by James A. Aliber, president of the association, who said that, because of the club's limited capacity, attendance would be for members only and their staffs.

Golfing will begin at 10:30 a.m. and special prizes will be awarded for the longest drive, closest to hole and chipping contest.

Special entertainment will be provided from 5 to 8 p.m. and there will be a man-size steak dinner.

Aliber said that reservations should be sent early to Edward A. Proctor, Jr., secretary, at 1400 Dime Bldg., Detroit.

Members of the outing committee are Leland P. Allcut, chairman; Edmund J. Buck, Richard G. Bush, Clifton J. Buslepp, Lawrence W. Dooley, Frank G. Ebner, Howard L. Gay, H. R. Moody, Robert T. Tracy and Secretary Proctor.

Pointers Named To Heart Board

Three Grosse Pointe men were elected officers of the Michigan Heart Association at a meeting of the Board of Trustees, during the annual Heart Days and Scientific Sessions at the Rackham Bldg., Friday, May 10.

Elected were: chairman of the board, Denis J. Bracken, 88 Webber place, vice-president, Ford Motor Co.; second vice-president, Edgar B. Galloway, 28 Beacon Hill, vice-president, National Bank of Detroit; and secretary, Cleveland Thurber Jr., 34 Edgemere road, vice-president, Detroit Bank and Trust Co. All will serve two year terms.

A former vice-president of the Association, Bracken has been active in its Budget and Finance, Long Range Objectives, and Rehabilitation-Occupational Health Committees for six years. He succeeds H. Gordon Wood, 240 Touraine road, a member of the Detroit law firm of Dykema, Wheat, Spencer, Goodnow & Trigg. Mr. Wood remains as a member of the Board and as chairman of the Fund Raising and By-Laws Committees.

Other members of the Board include: Robert B. Healy, 354 Mt. Vernon, vice-president and general manager, Detroit Coca Cola Bottling Co., and John W. Paynter, 1672 N. Renaud road, senior vice-president, finance and treasurer, J. L. Hudson Co.

Elected president and vice president were, respectively, Dr. Michael C. Kozonis, of Birmingham, a Pontiac cardiologist, and Dr. Edward W. Green, of Farmington, a pediatric cardiologist at Ford Hospital.

Road Widening Discussion Held

A public hearing was held on Monday, May 6, in the Woods Council Chambers, regarding the construction of curbs and gutters and the widening of a portion of Eight Mile road between Mack avenue and Goethe, on the south side of the street.

Ed Russell, representing Grosse Pointe Baptist Church, the only property owner involved in the assessment district, indicated that the widening of a portion of Eight Mile road to accommodate diagonal parking is a matter of convenience and that the church does not want to participate in widening costs.

He further indicated that since the church donated the right of way for Eight Mile road to the county, that should sufficiently cover the expense for which the church is responsible.

City Manager Chester Peterson said that the current policy of the city requires all property owners to pay their share of paving and gutter costs. He added that outside of Vernier road, this is the only street without curbs and gutters.

The complete project would cost the church some $20,000. If only curbs and gutters were installed the cost to the church would be approximately $15,000.

The matter was turned over to the committee-of-the-whole, which will meet with representatives of the church for further study.

FEW THE COOP
Charles Cawley of 377 Rivard reported finding a parakeet on Monday, May 6, to City police. He told officers that the owner may claim the bird by calling 882-6296.

Find Container With Marijuana

A vial of suspect material sent to the Detroit Police Scientific Laboratory by Woods police for analysis on April 22, was found to be marijuana, it was disclosed by Woods Det. Lt. Henry Marchand on Friday, May 10.

The vial was discovered in the lot of Howard Johnson's Restaurant, Mack and Vernier, at about 2:30 a.m. on the April date, by a woman employee, as she was leaving work to go home.

When she arrived home, the woman, whose name was not given, noticed that the contents of the bottle had a tea-like appearance, and a distinct odor, and promptly called her supervisor, who instructed her to take the vial directly to the Woods police station. The woman complied with the direction.

The following day, Det. Gerald Kensora took the container with its contents to the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, from where it was sent to the Detroit Police Scientific Laboratory.

Lt. Marchand said that when the report was received from Detroit, it revealed that the vial contained 58.75 grams of marijuana.

The lieutenant said that an investigation in the matter is still being continued to determine how the weed was dropped in the lot, and who possibly might have carried it there.

FLOODLIGHTS STOLEN

An unidentified resident of the terraces at Roosevelt and Jefferson called City police on Saturday, May 11, to report someone had stolen two floodlights from their backyard.

Walks A Beat

By Pepper Whitelaw

Being ticketed in the Woods may turn into an unexpected pleasure these days, for the males of the species anyway! For you see, the Woods has a Meter-Maid.

Bright-eyed and pert, Judith Ann Walker, of Stanhope road, has been added to the force. Judith is 18 years old and a sophomore at the University of Michigan, where she is majoring in Russian Studies. She swears all her ticket writing is confined to the good-old-English language, however.

Judy's shift is from 9 to 5 o'clock, Monday through Saturday. Currently her route is from the Woods Theatre to the St. Clair Shores boundary line on Mack. If she had her way, she'd be singing and strumming her guitar on the job—they're her favorite "fun" interests.

Judy concentrates her efforts on issuing tickets for expired meters although she can write other parking violations such as "not within the designated space" and "not within 12" of the curb."

Judy walks her beat... no motorized vehicles for her... and the in-group at the station tells us that after a full day on the job she still has enough energy left to run home, change her clothes and play a couple of sets of tennis.

Judy's employment by the Woods is part of that city's campaign to provide youth with employment during the summer... and from all indications, it's turning out to be a whale of an idea!

Named to the University of Denver Dean's List for high scholastic achievement during the winter quarter of the 1967-68 academic year is JUDITH LE BEAU, of Doyle place west.

Dempsey to Talk On Housing Law

In his first major public appearance since appointment as co-chairman of the Michigan Civil Rights Commission, Jonn T. Dempsey, assisted by William F. Bledsoe of the Michigan Attorney General's Office, will speak on "The 1968 State Fair Housing Law and You," at Fries Auditorium, Grosse Pointe War Memorial, at 8 p.m. on May 22, (Wednesday).

Dempsey and Bledsoe will discuss procedure and safeguards of the new law with respect to homeowners' rights, as well as field questions from the audience.

Byron Bischoff, chairman of Political Research for the Eastside Young Republicans, announced this is a first in a series of programs sponsored by the Eastside YRs to inform and stimulate community discussion of today's issues. A donation in advance of $1, or at the door of $1.50 is requested. Tickets can be obtained by calling Charles S. Davis, vice-chairman, at 965-1100, or through your church.

Mr. Dempsey was appointed by Governor Romney to the Civil Rights Commission in 1967 then re-appointed in 1968. He is professor of political science at the U of M Dearborn campus. Mr. Dempsey was State Chairman of Romney Volunteers between 1962 and 1964, and from 1963 to 1966 served as occasional Special Assistant to the Governor. He was Special Assistant during 1967 to U.S. Senator Robert P. Griffin. Mr. Dempsey was Television News Analyst and Director of News and Public Affairs for WJBK-TV between 1956 and 1962.

William F. Bledsoe is serving as an Assistant Attorney General for Michigan, Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Division. Graduating from Wayne State University Law School in 1955, Mr. Bledsoe engaged in private practice and was Assistant Wayne County Prosecuting Attorney before his appointment to the Attorney General's Office.

Martin A. Brennan, Chairman of the Eastside YRs, said if the Fair Housing Bill has not passed by May 22 there will be some spirited debate on the subject. However, the Bill is expected to become law before the program.

Charles S. Davis, vice-chairman of the club, urged young people between 17 and 36 interested in meaningful political activity or in meeting other interesting young people, to join the Eastside YRs by attending their functions or calling him at 965-9425 during days.

War Memorial Campaign $10,000 Short of Its Goal

To date more than 4,600 families have contributed $70,000 to Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Annual Family Participation Campaign but the drive is still $10,000 short of the goal necessary to operate in the new fiscal year beginning August 1.

To do everything possible to bring the campaign to a successful conclusion on Memorial Day, the target date, a second follow-up letter was mailed to all givers of record this week. Beginning next week the Center staff and volunteers will start a telephone follow-up.

The Center's Board of Directors is greatly encouraged by the growth in numbers of givers which to date is greater even than last year's record pace. They hope confidently to exceed the 6,000 family mark set in the last year's drive and earnestly hope that everyone will give in the next two weeks so that the goal can be reached without further expense and effort and plans can be laid for next season's program.

Many thanks go to the following recent contributors whose gifts have so helped to boost the drives thermometer:

Need Teenagers As Volunteers

Boys and girls of high school age will be needed to give volunteer assistance during July and August in many of the various agencies and programs serving the Metropolitan Detroit area. Unpaid in money but rich in experience, volunteer service often means the difference between a busy, exciting summer and a long two months with nothing much to do. At the same time, young volunteers are of tremendous importance to the success of summer programs many of which would not be able to operate without their willing help.

A wide variety of volunteer opportunities is available to students 14 years of age and older. Depending on the volunteer's age, geographical location, free time, abilities and preferences, and parental approval, choices may be made among play activities with pre-school or school-age children, recreation for retarded or handicapped, tutoring sessions with the disadvantaged or deprived, programs for the elderly, day camping and outdoor activities, clerical responsibilities in agency offices, "interest" groups in art, crafts, games, sports, swimming and other specialties. Boy volunteers are especially needed to help with younger children, many of whom lack the attention of older brothers or fathers in the family. Volunteers at least 16 years of age will find opportunities to assist in hospital or clinic settings, where their service may lead them towards careers in the medical field.

Many students may have already made their plans for the summer or may have been recruited to volunteer service by friends, parents or nearby their service may lead them would like to offer their assistance but don't know how to agencies. However, to those who go about it, the Central Volunteer Bureau of United Community Services stands ready to provide information, advice and guidance.

"Interview stations" have been arranged in various parts of Detroit and suburbs to which interested boys and girls may come on the day and at the time stated. Adult interviewers will register prospective volunteers, talk to them about what they would like to do, and help them select those programs or agencies which seem most suitable, convenient and interesting. An interviewer will be at Grosse Pointe Public Library, Kercheval at Fisher, from 3 to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, May 28.

Alleged Loan Shark Leaders Arraigned in City Court

The City of Grosse Pointe Police station was the scene of the processing of five of the eight men arrested early Tuesday morning for conspiracy to commit extortion in what Attorney General Frank Kelley called "a large scale loan shark racket."

After the five were fingerprinted at the City Station the eight were arraigned before Judge Douglas L. Paterson in City Municipal Court. Among the men arrested were two Grosse Pointe men and alleged Mafia figures, Tony Giacalone, of Balfour road and Vito Giacalone, of Weber place. Tony was released on $2,500 bond and Vito was released on $5,000 bond.

Others arrested were Bernard Marchesani, James Caralla and Clarence Stephen, who were released on $10,000 bonds, and Russell Badamo, Amos Neff, Leo Moceri all of who were released on $1,000 personal bonds, because they had no previous criminal record. All of the men stood mute.

Also implicated in the conspiracy was Robert Dunaway, of Grosse Pointe Woods, who was recently found dead in the trunk of an automobile in Atlanta, Ga.

The arrests of the eight men involved authorities from the Wayne County Sheriff's Office, Internal Revenue Department, Sterling Township Police, Michigan State Police and Detroit Police.

All eight men are to appear for examination on Tuesday, May 21, in the City of Grosse Pointe Municipal Court before Judge Douglas L. Paterson.

GPUS Students Hear Dr. Leonard Roellig

Dr. Leonard O. Roellig, physics professor at Wayne State University, was guest speaker at the Grosse Pointe University School recently. After speaking at the morning assembly, Dr. Roellig visited several classes to discuss the ideas he presented and any other ideas in which the students were interested.

Dr. Roellig received his Ph.D. at Michigan under the direction of Professor Donald A. Glaser. Part of his research under Dr. Glaser consisted of work on the bubble chamber for which Dr. Glaser was awarded the Nobel Prize in physics in 1960.

Dr. Roellig's primary interests are: matter-antimatter and annihilation, the behavior of ions in liquid helium, superfluid properties of liquid helium, and general problems in low temperature physics.

Dr. Roellig has recently co-edited a book, Positron Annihilation. He lives in the Windmill Pointe section of Grosse Pointe Park and enjoys sailing on Lake St. Clair with his three sons.

Need Summer Teen Volunteers

Summer vacation is almost upon us. How many of you mothers dread hearing that old saw "There's nothing to do"? Well, here's your chance to suggest an activity to your teenager BEFORE he/she gets bored.

The Neighborhood Club is having a Volunteer Program for teenagers in High School, that is something special! This Volunteer Jobs Program offers teenagers the opportunity to gain work experience while helping those in need. The teenager can work right here in the Grosse Pointe area or in the near East Side of Detroit or in the City of Detroit.

Under this program volunteers are given training, orientation, and supervision both before starting their assignments and while on the job.

Mrs. Louis TeWalt, Neighborhood Club Volunteer Co-ordinator, tells us that all an interested high school teen has to do is obtain a work permit (for some of the jobs) from the Board of Education office, get his parents' permission and be dependable, punctual and willing to work on a cooperative team basis. Applications are available at the Neighborhood Club.

Volunteer opportunities are available as Recreational Aides, Day Camp Aides, Nursery School Aides, Retarded Children Recreation Aides, Nursing Home Aides and for those teenagers with performing talents an Entertainment Unit. All these activities are in the Grosse Pointe area.

In Detroit, the near east side and city area, the following volunteer jobs are available: Tutors and Recreational Aides, Operation Headstart, Nursing Home Aides with Senior Citizens, Public Housing Recreational Aides and Resident Camping Aides.

The jobs run anywhere from four weeks to two months. Some meet twice a week and some are daily Monday through Friday. Any question on the program may be directed to the Neighborhood Club, TUXEDO 5-4600.

Don't wait for the summer doldrums to set in before you make this suggestion to your high school teen... do it today. Here's a great opportunity for him/her to have a satisfying and productive summer!

HALT RECKLESS DRIVER

Lawrence H. Carabelli, 3912 Terrace, Ionia, Mich., was issued a violation for reckless driving by City police on Saturday, May 11. Carabelli was observed by officers Ronald Pryor and Edward Miller driving east on Mack at 45 m.p.h. He changed lanes and barely missed hitting a motorcycle. He was sent home in a cab after posting a $75 bond. His court date was set for May 28.

WRONG SEASON

City police received a report from Mrs. Ledger Chauvin, 672 University, on Monday, May 6, concerning the theft of an ice scraper and a shovel from the garage of her residence. She last saw the items two weeks ago. Total value of the scraper and shovel was estimated at $9.

THEFT REPORTED

J. W. Taylor of 241 Hillcrest notified Farms police on Sunday, May 12, that an unknown person broke into his garage and stole his lawn mower. The theft took place sometime between 8 p.m. on May 10 and 8 p.m. Sunday, when the grass cutter was discovered missing.

Pierce Pupils Study Politics

A group of nearly 100 students in the ninth grade at Pierce Junior High School attended the Republican State Convention on Saturday, April 27, at Cobo Hall. The only school group there, they were introduced to the assembly by the acting chairman and afterwards met briefly with Robert Waldron, Representative from Grosse Pointe and Speaker of the State House of Representatives.

The visit to the convention was an important part of their study of government currently in progress of Civics classes.

As a follow-up to the convention, Richard Durant, chairman of the Fourteenth District Republican Organization, addressed the entire ninth grade class at a special assembly held on Tuesday, May 7. He shared some insights and stories about politics and party organization and then answered many interesting questions posed by the students.

During the next few weeks, the classes will have additional opportunities to meet with people in government and to see the political process in action.

Maytime Christmas, Banner Welcome Vietnam Veterans

Christmas in May and a huge banner strung across the house welcomed home from Vietnam the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Hammel of Harvard road and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Van Horn of Merriweather road.

The Hammels had saved their son Godfrey's (Jeff) Christmas presents plus those from his February birthday and an Easter basket and put them under a tree which the family had decorated for his homecoming on May 4.

"We just set everything up like Christmas," said Mrs. Hammel. "We're all crazy about holidays."

Jeff, 26, the oldest of four brothers and three sisters, is on leave from his service in the Marines. He has served thirteen months in Vietnam, finishing his term there, and will report to Camp Lejeune, N. Carolina, June 5.

In spite of John Peter Van Horn's unexpected arrival two weeks early from Vietnam, the Van Horns had a large banner tied to the front of their house saying, "Welcome Home, Johnny."

John, 23, has completed his two years of service in the army as a sergeant, and is now planning to continue his education in aviation and administration.

He was graduated from Northwood Institute and has six brothers and sisters.

Austin Players Will Compete

The Austin Players will present an evening of student-directed, one-act plays on Sunday, May 19, at 8 p.m. in Pierce Junior High School's auditorium, Kercheval at Balfour. Tickets are $1 and will be available at the door. The student directors are Tim Frederick, Mark Hodgman, Jim Moffa and Tony Vehar.

This annual event of the Players is judged by three outside drama coaches. Trophies for the best directed play, the best actor and the best actress are awarded by Thomas Bailey, Vice Principal of Activities.

Other events at Austin in May include the election of the Senior gift by the seniors on May 14. The seniors raised money by a dance and by donation to buy the school a gift. The presentation of this gift will be done at the Senior Prom on May 24 at Lochmoor Country Club.

The Senior Farewell Assembly will take place on May 16. This series of skits was written by Joe Shea and Tom Misuraca.

The Austin Senior Prom will feature Mell Ball and his orchestra on May 24 from 8:30 to 11:30. One hundred twenty-six couples and the faculty and the parents of the Senior Committee are attending.

The final dance of the season will be sponsored by the Junior and Freshmen Classes. The dance will be on June 1 at Austin. The time is 8 to 11 p.m. All students are invited.

Citizen Group Presents Check

The Citizens Association of Grosse Pointe Woods donated a check for $174.92 to the City of Grosse Pointe Woods on Monday, May 6, to be used for a general recreation project in which all residents of the city could participate.

Although the group is no longer active, its particular interest in past years had always been community recreation.

The Council members thanked Howard Gandlot, president, and Mrs. Eugene Most, treasurer, for the check.

Walking Couple Attacked by Dog

Walter Costello, 402 Neff, reported to City police on Thursday, May 9, that his wife was attacked by a black and white spaniel, while they were walking at Maumee and Lakeland.

An employee of Maxons Brothers Realtors came to their assistance and the dog ran off.

Police have had several complaints recently regarding this dog who has been chasing people in the area. He is believed to belong to a Lakeland resident.

Police are investigating.

Men Favored in Report By Famed Psychologist

People are funny. This is a psychologically established fact. And the female of the species is funnier than the male! That is a psychological truism.

Most men prefer not to lie, but they are pushed into it by a woman. Lying comes more easily to women. If a man tells a story which sounds wildly complicated, he's not lying. If the woman's story sounds idiotically simple-minded it might be true.

These are just a few of the statements made by pretty, petite and blonde Dr. Joyce Brothers, famed psychologist at a luncheon of Detroit's Adcraft Club the other noon. She is heard over the NBC Radio Network seven days a week, and drew a whooper of a crowd to listen to her professional analysis of people, much of which came from a council of top American psychologists.

Dr. Brothers also may be remembered by many for winning a sizeable pot of money a few years ago on a TV question show. Incidentally, her subject was "Boxing."

She also revealed that experts claim nine of 11 spats between husbands and wives are started by the wives, and that when a couple is dining out men order the "old stand-bys," while women like to experiment with food.

Continuing with the findings of Dr. Brothers — women are more likely to go to pieces in trying circumstances . . . women have nightmares twice as often as men — "perhaps because they have more to worry about," she slyly added.

Women are more difficult, and critical, and harder to please. Men are more romantic than women. Women have more colds, (3 to 2 ratio) . . . more complaints, require appreciably more sleep . . . and, they complain more about their husbands than vice versa.

Men have stronger intuition (E.S.P.). Men lie more about their age, but they only subtract a year or two. "When a woman does lie about her age," said Dr. Brothers, "she really tells a whooper."

Beauty has very little to do with women holding a man . . . what really counts is 'disposition.' Men change their minds two or three times more often than women.

Husbands have more trouble getting along with their mothers-in-law than wives with theirs. Husbands are smarter than their wives.

Dr. Brothers then declared that a husband has only about nine minutes to persuade his wife to his views. "After that period of time she completely closes her mind," she added. "And, always remember, that no one can be persuaded about anything until after 10 a.m."

Fly Your Flag For Peace Talks

"Fly your American Flag during the Vietnam peace talks as a symbol of national solidarity," urges Miles S. Ansbaugh, State Commander of The American Legion of Michigan.

This "Show Your Colors" campaign is part of a national effort by The American Legion to show all of the world that America is united behind our government in its sincere attempt to bring an honorable peace to the war-ravaged nation of Vietnam.

Commander Ansbaugh, of Reading, asks the mayors of all Michigan communities to support this endeavor by issuing proclamations asking American citizens to display the flag during this period.

"With Flag Day coming up on June 14," adds Ansbaugh, "let's all fly the flag."

Michigan Waters Provide Easy Access for Boating

Michigan has been the automobile capital of the world ever since Henry Ford put the world on wheels. And where are the folks wheeling to? From a look at the latest figures, the Michigan Tourist Council says a great many of them are wheeling to put their boats in the water. Michigan consistently is among the top three states in the nation in boating registration. More than 400,000 powerboats are registered here and there are an estimated 50,000 non-powered craft such as sailboats, rowboats and canoes.

It figures, The Water Wonderland has 11,037 inland lakes, 36,500 miles of rivers and streams and 3,121 miles of Great Lakes shoreline. Nowhere in Michigan is a boater more than six miles from a lake or stream or more than 85 miles from one of the Four Great Lakes bordering the two peninsulas.

The easy availability of water, the technical advances in outboard motors, boat prices for almost all budgets and more leisure time for Americans have contributed to making the mid-west's boating mecca.

There's boating of all sorts in Michigan for all tastes. There's easy rowboating on a small lake to swift, synchronized crew racing on the Detroit River.

There's water skiing behind an inboard, fishing from an outboard. There are hydroplane races from the smallest class up to the big, roaring, rooster-

Judge Belanger Hears 13 Cases

Thirteen violators of traffic laws—12 men and one woman—appeared in court, and were sentenced by Park Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger on May 9.

Van Turner of 1748 St. Anne, Detroit, entered pleas of guilty to two separate charges. The first was an improper U-turn during which he interfered with traffic, for which he was fined $15 or five days in jail. He also received a $40 or five days sentence for not having a valid Michigan operator's license. Turner paid the $55 fines.

Michael Louis Beaupre, 2622 Ashland, Detroit, pled not guilty to a signal light violation, was found guilty, paid a $10 fine.

Charles Bartkus, 2086 Stanhope, Grosse Pointe Farms, was found guilty of driving 30 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone, and paid a fine of $10.

After pleading guilty to a left turn violation, Clayton White, 4709 Lakepointe, paid a fine of $6. Roger Dale Harrah, 1294 Lenox, Detroit, was fined $20 for not having a chauffeur's license.

Two separate charges also were placed against Casimir Lesinski, 5175 Casmere, Detroit. For speeding 40 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone it cost him $15, and for no operator's license on his person, $3.

Heaviest sentence of the May 9 court session was one of $65 or 10 days in jail given Jesse Parkham, 14733 Klenk, Detroit. Charged with reckless driving, he entered a guilty plea, paid

PTA at Mason Meets May 22

The final meeting of the year for the Mason School PTA will be held on Wednesday, May 22, at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The program will begin with the introduction of the candidates for the Grosse Pointe School Board. Each individual will have an opportunity to speak to the group for a short interval. Parents are strongly urged to attend this meeting so that they may be better informed on the important issues involved in this election.

The second half of the program will consist of a talk by Vincent Peterson, Principal of Parcels, on the Middle School.

This represents an excellent opportunity for parents to understand what is involved for both the children and their teachers in this relatively new educational concept. A question and answer period will follow Mr. Peterson's speech.

There will be no room refreshments at this meeting. Refreshments will be served following the program.

Camera Club Meets Tuesday

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will meet Tuesday evening, May 21, at 8 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for a social and educational program. Ray and Laura Harvey's presentation, "Highlights of the Club Canoe Trips," will be followed by a coffee hour. Guests are welcome.

MEMO TO:

Registered Voters of Grosse Pointe Shores

Don't forget to vote on Tuesday, May 21, and when you do, vote for the incumbent officers and trustees for continued good government.

Grosse Pointe Shores Committee to Re-elect Incumbent Officials.

New Teachers Need Housing

Every year the Grosse Pointe Public School System makes a concerted effort to recruit the finest, most reliable new teachers the country has to offer. Evidence of the success of this pains-taking process of searching for, and acquiring new teachers, is reflected in the quality school system that we all enjoy.

Every year these new people come to Grosse Pointe ready to serve our young people, but they are confronted with a serious problem of housing before they ever step into a classroom. The general public has always been alert to this problem, and has responded well to the plea that school officials make for rooms, apartments, flats and houses.

Once again, the appeal is being made to anyone who can provide, or locate, desirable housing for some of the finest tenants available. The Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools will happily receive listings and then direct interested new faculty members to appropriate respondents.

Grosse Pointe residents can offer a valuable service to the community and to teachers if they will make their rentable housing available by calling Tuxedo 5-3808 or Tuxedo 5-0271.

Eastern Star Chapter Slates Card-Luncheon

Eastern Chapter 420, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its annual spring card party and luncheon at the new Pointe Masonic Temple on Vernier road today, Thursday, May 16, beginning at 11 o'clock.

In addition to lunch, there will be prizes and favors. Mabel Dunn is chairman of the benefit. Tickets are being sold at the door for $1.50.

The one-flight airline.

The current Delta timetable makes pretty impressive reading.

Sixty-four pages thick. Column after column of paired numbers, each one a takeoff and landing.

Do you care?

Of course not.

You're interested in only one column in that table, because you're only concerned with one flight.

The one that's going where you're going. The one you're booked on.

But if it's late, or oversold, or if we've slipped up on your reservation, our big, fat timetable carries no weight with you at all.

If we couldn't even manage to get you to Atlanta, you certainly don't want to hear about how easily we could have gotten you to Miami.

That's why we call Delta the one-flight airline.

It's natural to feel that the flight you're taking is the only important one we're running all day.

And although you may see only your ship's crew, there are for every flight some 25 Delta people as vitally concerned with your trip as you are. To them, Delta is a one-flight airline. And their aim is a perfect flight for you.

The one flight that matters is yours.

The Indians are a strong leader in the American with 4 wins and no losses. Second spot is occupied by 3 teams with 2-2 records. The Indians dropped the Senators 12-7, then Haddad had a big game giving up 2 hits, fanning 11 and blasting two doubles to lead the 3-0 win over the Athletics. Finally the Orioles bowed to this same team with Schaffner pitching a stingy one hitter and Haddad unloading a homer.

The Yankees won 2 of 3 with Matt Rohr and Kelley MacLean getting 3 hits in a 14-1 win over the Orioles. In their 5-4 victory over the Athletics, MacLean and Peters combined for 15 strikeouts while giving up 2 hits.

Dick Redmond has been rapping doubles consistently, getting four for this week as his Athletics pulled out one against the White Sox 10-2.

The Senators' Steve Pemberton pitches like a magician but is in tough luck. Despite his 2 hitter with 11 strikeouts he lost to the White Sox 2-0.

The Orioles passed the Senators 13-8 with Barr and Downer doing most of the hitting. While in the White Sox 17-0 runaway over the Yankees Gardner, Cole, Michael and Connolly each collected 3 hits.

In the National League this early race is closer with the Braves and Giants at 2 victories. Much depends on the finish of the delayed game between the Braves and Pirates which was stopped at 6 a.m. The Giants won two games of different character 3-2 over the Cardinals and 18-6 over the Dodgers. Patterson pitched against the Cardinals and stole home in the last inning to insure his victory. Patterson and Joe Oliver each collected 4 hits against the Dodgers.

George Sikich of the Dodgers pounded 3 doubles and a single to help John Weisknar to a 11-7 victory over the Red Legs. Bill Speer brought the Red Legs into the win column 5-1 over the Pirates. Tony Cofy swished two round trippers and Joe Briggs swung out 3 hits in the Braves 9-1 downing of the Cardinals. Phil Bowersox put one over the fence for the Red Birds.

Minors

Minnesota is setting the early pace in the National Division with 3 wins and no losses. In their 25-4 romp over the Air Force, Neumann, Fountain, Connors and Tocco blasted 3 hits apiece with Tocco's all being triples. While downing Alaska 17-11 Tocco connected 3 more times and Neumann hit a round tripper. The Klondike boys were not idle however with Patzer getting 3 and Howard a homer among his 4 hits.

Illinois, with Bill Spencer hitting like a demon with 5 hits including a 4-bagger and 7 RBI's, downed Iowa 23-15. Freeman circled the bases on one for the losers. Despite Indiana's 6 hits in the first inning, they eventually lost to Northwestern 12-7.

Howard of Alaska connected for another however against Navy but in a losing cause 12-5. Renfro was the winning pitcher, aiding his own cause with a round tripper.

Northwestern passed Illinois 18-5 while McTighe hit 4 times Costopovlos deserved the win while striking out 15.

Iowa's Greg Freeman and Indiana's Pete Wilson swapped home runs while Iowa prevailed 20-18.

Ohio State and the Marines lead the American Division in a close race. The Ohioans bested Michigan 11-9 and Michigan State 12-8. Joe Fikany and Ruble lead the way. Michigan State's Mike Day picked up five hits in two losing causes.

Purdue was also a double winner 12-9 over Michigan State and 17-6 over Michigan. The Marines picked up a pair of wins 10-8 with Wisconsin and 10-2 up on Army. With the week a consistent double show Hawaii knocked off Army 13-10 and Wisconsin 16-9 while Pitts, Duemlin and Giambruno slugged triples. Williams of Army and Kellett and Sullivan of Wisconsin also triggered 3 baggers.

Michigan ranks fifth or higher in production of more than 20 major food crops, although ranking only 22nd in land area.

First, the entire Detroit Free Press staff won a prize for its comprehensive coverage of the Detroit riot. And, second, John S. Knight, editorial chairman, received a prize for his column, "An Editor's Notebook," which appears in the Free Press each Sunday.

The staff citation reads in part, "The prize for a distinguished example of local, general or spot news reporting, giving consideration to alertness, resourcefulness and high quality of writing: Awarded to the Detroit Free Press for its coverage of the Detroit riot of 1967, recognizing both the brilliance of its detailed spot news staff work and its swift and accurate investigation into the underlying causes of the tragedy."

The prize honors more than 100 Free Press staff writers who worked around-the-clock for seven days to report the Detroit riot. As the Columbia University trustees said in announcing the award, "In many ways this was the most difficult journalistic assignment domestically

LEARN, BABY, LEARN

The Free Press did— with a pioneering study that the President's Riot Commission labelled "brilliant."

Again the Detroit Free Press was named the only newspaper to report on the riot in a way that was both accurate and comprehensive. Women Dislike Shoulder Belts

The woman of the house is the strong supporter of automotive safety efforts, but it is going to take a bigger effort to sell her on the use of shoulder belts, says writer Charlotte Fancett in the May 13 issue of Automotive News.

Mrs. Fancett, who advises the auto industry on dealing with women in the trade publication, reports that women look with suspicion on the devices which are now mandatory on new cars.

Some mothers reported that they were fearful of what youngsters playing cowboys and Indians might do with the devices. Chief complaint, real or imagined, is that the shoulder belt is not properly designed for the female figure. They also see the devices as ugly contraptions "stuck on the car ceiling," and they don't want to be bothered with another piece of equipment to unwind, fasten, unfasten and store away every time they step in and out of their cars.

It also annoys them to have to unbuckle when leaning across to open or close doors and windows on the rider's side or get something out of the glove compartment.

If it were not for the possibility of hurting the resale value of their cars it is likely, Mrs. Fancett said, that many women would remove them.

Mrs. Fancett cites the efforts the auto makers have made to instruct owners in the proper use of lap and shoulder belts, but concludes that a great deal more must be done to win women to their use.

Quinn was credited with the loss.

Tuesday's games saw Flame continue on its winning ways as Ken Conlon pitched four and one-third innings of scoreless relief to beat Midland 12 to 5. All-American League West Division

Following a week of play, Locke Lumber is the only unbeaten team in the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Babe Ruth All-American League's west division.

The season opened May 5 and, for the four new teams in the Division, the 14th annual opening day was the beginning of what looks like an uphill battle against the two established clubs for the title.

Locke Lumber, an established club, started off on the right foot opening day by scoring four runs in the bottom of the seventh to edge City Messenger 8 to 7. Dave Brown was the winning pitcher. Sandy Smith drove in the winning run with a single.

Pioneer Furniture broke open a close game with six runs in the fifth to beat Harbour 9 Marina, 16 to 9. Greg Cook pitched a four-hitter for Pioneer. Valley Die Cast opened the season by edging out Ray Whyte Electric, 4-3. Valley's Dave Hosea pitched a strong two-hitter.

On May 7, Locke smothered Harbour, 14-2. Bill Schipert pitched a 4-hitter for Locke. In their second game City Messenger knocked off Valley, 13 to 3. City's Larry Pappas allowed only three hits, and tallied 13 strike-outs. Tim Groesbeck and Rick Walter led the hitting with six hits between them.

The Giants won their first game of the season on Monday, by defeating the Cardinals 6-2. Steve Kennel pitched two-hit ball for six innings, but ran into trouble in the last inning when he walked the first two batters. Wid Knight came on in relief and quickly retired the next three Cardinals. The Giants scored 4 runs in the first inning when lead-off man Steve Bowersox slammed a double, followed by Steve Kennel's single, and triples by John Renard and John Knight. The outstanding fielding play was Mario Carachi's one-handed stab of a pop fly just inside the out-of-bounds line.

On Tuesday the Phillies and the Dodgers duelled for 8 innings in a game that was called because of darkness with the score dead-locked at 5-5. Dodger pitcher Fred Rohn collected three hits while Phillies pitcher Louis Bruno hit two singles.

This game was replayed on Saturday, when Tom Court pitched for the Dodgers and won, 5-2, in a game that was called in the top of the 7th inning because of rain. The Dodgers belted 12 hits, led by Jim Moore who had three hits, including a double, and Jan Sans who stroked three singles. Tom Bailey, catcher for the Phillies, blasted what manager Gil Metry described as "the longest home run ever hit at the Neighborhood Club Field."

In a tight game on Wednesday, the Cardinals handed the Braves their first defeat, Tim Cornellie was the winning pitcher. It was a scoreless game until the fourth, when the Braves pushed across one run. The Cardinals tied the game in the fifth and went ahead in the sixth. George Massau, center fielder for the Cardinals, was the outstanding defensive player. Final score: Cardinals — 3; Braves — 1.

The Braves bested the Phillies in a close game on Thursday. The Phillies scored one run on two hits, and the Braves tallied two runs on four hits. Mike Getz was the winning pitcher.

On Friday, the Giants lightened the race by defeating the Dodgers, 6-2. John Knight was credited with the win, but the Giants again had excellent relief pitching when Doug Gra-

Crack Sailors to Appear In Regatta on Saturday

Crack Detroit area sailors (including a woman), all widely known 1967 class champions of the Detroit River Yachting Association, will participate in one of the most unique of all sailboat races—a one-of-a-kind regatta matching a dozen recognized classes of boats.

The three-race series, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Sail Club, will be run on a triangular, 4½-mile course off the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, running west from the club toward Detroit. There will be a morning race at 10 o'clock, and two afternoon races, at 1:10, and 3:30 minutes after the finish of that race.

A large fleet of spectator boats is expected on Lake St. Clair to view all three races. "With the kind of sailors involved, all of them launching and tuning their boats early for this event, it should be a whale of a Saturday on Lake St. Clair," said Hal Stead, GPSC's race chairman.

The class champions who have accepted invitations to test themselves and their boats, are such renowned one-design skipper as:

Al Gregory, of Bayview, who will sail a Raven, a 24-foot powerhouse often regarded as the world's fastest conventional one-design.

Tom Rochford, of Crescent, a longtime racing expert, who will represent the 19½-foot Mariner class.

John Pappas, of Bayview, the DRYA champion in the sleek, new Tempest, a 22-foot, all-out racing machine.

Marilyn Perry, of the Detroit Yacht Club, who will compete in the popular 19-foot Flying Scot. James Tuscany, of the Grosse Pointe Club, who will race a 25-foot Folkboat, a rugged and beautiful cruising class boat.

Don Criner, of Bayview, who will represent the Crescent class, a 24-foot, locally-designed boat that revels in heavy weather.

Two of the oldest classes will be the 22-foot K-Class catboat, which will be sailed by Detroit

American League

The past week saw all American League teams of the Babe Ruth League in the City, Park and Farms settling down to a full schedule.

The big noise was made by the bats of the Red Sox on Monday as they handed the Yankees their second defeat. Van Eaman was the winning pitcher.

A match of last year's number one and two teams saw the White Sox beat out the Indians 6-2, with Frank Kampher, the winning pitcher, allowing 5 hits. The White Sox scored 3 runs in the first inning. Mark Saber hit a triple with 3 men on to help the cause.

The Yanks got in the winning column on Wednesday when Chris D'Hondt pitched them to a 7-3 victory over the Tigers. In addition to starring on the mound D'Hondt supplied the offensive punch getting 3 hits out of four times at bat.

Continuing their winning ways, the Red Sox beat the White Sox 6-3 on Thursday. Chip Jehle scored his second victory allowing eight hits. The Red Sox were able to hunch their 6 hits to come home with this one and stay on top of the heap.

The Indian bats came to life on Friday when they played the Tigers. Jim Stevenson, a 13-year-old, pitched a two hitter and chalked up a 10-3 win. Bill Vogt, a 15-year-old playing his first year in Babe Ruth, hit a home run, a triple and a single accounting for six Indian runs. John Keogh drove in 3 more with a bases-loaded triple.

Is your family being exposed to harmful X-Rays by your Color TV set?

A simple scientific device, marketed by Laboratory Analysis, Inc., can now be used to determine the presence and intensity of X-Ray emission, if present, from a color TV set in the positions used for seating, while the set is in operation in the home.

The color TV set owner can set the Video-Monitor device up, in minutes. The device, after exposure, is returned to Laboratory Analysis by mail, which reports back to the home-owner on the level of X-Ray emission from his set. The Video-Monitor device operates on the same principle as that used by scientific workers in laboratories where X-Ray and radioactive isotopes are used.

Governmental concern over the potential danger from X-Ray radiation by color TV sets is reflected by current hearings on the matter in Washington. The Surgeon General and the Public Health Service have advised that the potential for harm is low, but high enough that this danger should be avoided by maintaining a minimum viewing distance of 6 to 10 feet from the front of the set, and avoiding any prolonged exposure to the rear and sides of the set while it is in operation. At the same time that this warning was given, however, it was also noted that young children tend to watch television from much closer viewing distances.

In a government survey in the Washington area, some X-Ray emission was found from 268 of the 1,124 sets surveyed. In this sample, one out of 16 sets was dangerous according to standards set by the National Council for Radiation Protection and Measurements.

Improper shielding of certain tubes within color TV sets is the main cause of excessive X-Ray emission. In some cases, rear-of-set adjustments, made by set owners or TV repairmen, to improve picture quality, will result in increased voltage within the sets, and a consequent hazardous increase of X-Ray output.

Use coupon, below, to order Video-Monitor Kit. You will receive complete, simple instructions, plus Video-Monitor unit. After exposure, you return Video-Monitor Unit to us, in postage pre-paid envelope, and within ten days, you receive, from us, an easily understood analysis of our findings. Your satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded. $6.75 fee is all inclusive. There are no other charges.

J.D. Owens is planning a hunt in Kuala Lumpur. Want to go along?

Mr. J. D. Owens of Buckingham Road, Grosse Pointe Park: former news correspondent, ex-columnist, world-famous raconteur, professional PR consultant and patron of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association.

There's nothing Mr. Owens would rather do than stalk the wily Malay tiger or Africa's elusive dik-dik, especially from the safety and comfort of a theatre seat in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Mr. Owens is an avid fan of George Pierrot's Adventure Series, a recent addition to the Center's regular program schedule. He and his family have discovered an almost unlimited variety of cultural, social and recreational activities at the Center, ranging from legitimate theatre and chamber music through bridge clubs and French classes. Mr. Owens is checking into the Gourmet Club and, of course, the Adult Ski Club. He's a War Memorial contributor.

You see, the Center earns about three-quarters of its operating expense, but that just isn't enough; so each year people like you and Mr. Owens—from all the Pointes—join in a Family Participation Campaign to meet the rest of the budget, so we can continue our full schedule. This year our goal is $80,000. Any size gift is greatly appreciated.

Want to go along on one of Mr. Owens' "trips"? Great. You've probably already received a Free Activities Pass in the mail. It includes five excellent programs for every member, every age group of your family. This Pass is good only through April 19th, but there are worthwhile events every day of the week, no matter when you come. See for yourself.

We think that once you get acquainted you'll agree a contribution to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center is just another way of supporting your own family.

Indubitably.

Michigan, My Michigan

Perchance, some of the host of readers of this newspaper may be able to recall an old grade school song, the chorus of which opened with "Heart of my heart, I sing to thee, Michigan My Michigan . . . The lake-bound shores I long to see, Michigan My Michigan."

Sadly, from that point on, this scribbler is completely lost . . . no more of the words come to mind. But, he thought it might be a rousing idea to resurrect that lulling ditty, hoping that some one or two people might like to try and refresh your memories, in view of the fact that another Michigan Week cometh as the Ides of May fade again into oblivion. In fact, this gala event is being celebrated here, there and yon, throughout our beautiful state during the next week.

Truly Michigan is one of the finest, greatest, loveliest and most salubrious states in our entire Nation. A generous Nature has blessed it with an abundance of nearly everything for which anyone could ask.

For instance, what other state is bounded by four of the Great Lakes? What other state has a vast network of toll-free super highways? What other state is shaped like a mitten? Where else is fresh water fishing more abundant? What other state produces so many automobiles — and on and on, ad infinitum?

And, by the by, where else than in Grosse Pointe can you find such a beautiful charming, and cultural lakeside residential community, nudging smackdab against a huge and bustling metropolis like Detroit? Where else can you find a gorgeous island park in the center of a blue-water strait like Belle Isle? Or zoological park like the one operated by Detroit?

Whether you are called a Michigander, a Michigander, or a Wolverine, you should be mighty proud of your state, for myriad reasons.

The only sad note in this pride-in-Michigan bit is that there are so many thousands of citizens in our area who have no idea of the fascination of this gorgeous state, who never have crossed the "Big Mac" bridge, which spans the straits of Mackinac, never have set foot on our great Upper Peninsula, or visited the world-famed Soo Locks, or seen Tahquamenon Falls, or driven along the shore of Lake Superior.

So why don't more of us make an extra effort to see the wonders of our own state — it has so much to offer — before we go traipsing off to some foreign shore which may have much less and cost much more?

And, oh, yes — and by the way — a very happy Michigan Week to all, you all! W.W.F.

Youths Need Summer Jobs

Creating summer jobs for the youth of America has become one of the nation's greatest problems — and responsibilities.

Soon . . . with the closing of the school year . . . about 13.5 million youngsters throughout the United States — hundreds of them from the Grosse Pointes — will be seeking jobs. That is an increase over last year of more than a half million 16 to 21-year-olds who are eager, capable and anxious for profitable employment, something constructive to do.

Statistics show that more than two million of these youngsters will NOT find work without the help of adults.

For the past three years the "Summer Jobs For Youth" campaigners have worked faithfully in an effort to transform youthful idleness into youthful productivity and, in 1967, an extra 1.1 million youth received seasonal paychecks.

America's business men and industrial leaders, sensing their responsibility to ambitious young people, led the way in the nation-wide campaign.

This year even more jobs are needed to hold the line in providing youth employment. The stakes in this massive summer job hunt are high — for both youths and adults.

For many youngsters . . . the children of privation . . . a summer job is no luxury. It is necessity! They must earn enough money during the three months ahead to make certain they will be able to return to school in the fall. However, all young men and women now searching for summer jobs, are kids who care, and are eager to build now for their future — and for the future of their country.

An appeal has been made by the "President's Council on Youth Opportunity," to management, labor, civic groups, fraternal orders, churches and schools, to labor

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Once again it's that time of year, when, on the first Monday of May, the Pulitzer Prizes are awarded. We won't keep you in suspense (unless you've already read about it in the papers) — William Styron won the coveted prize, in the fiction category, with his powerful CONFESSIONS OF NAT TURNER. I shan't take the time or space to give you a precis on this book — if you haven't read it, you doubtless have read reviews of it. I found it disturbing and rather bruising to read, but fine as it is, I never felt the author really got inside the skull of the slave, Nat Turner. I am not surprised he won; I feel he well deserved it.

For the tenth time in Pulitzer history, there was no award made for drama. Apparently, no one felt strongly enough to push any one play. Last year, you may remember, Edward Albee won the award for his A DELICATE BALANCE.

George F. Kennan should be feeling quite proud of himself.

He won the prize in the area of biography for his MEMOIRS (1925-1950), and in 1957 won the history award for his RUSSIA LEAVES THE WAR. Both Kennan's recent book, and the one by Styron have been on the best-seller list for some time.

Will and Ariel Durant (he is 82 and she will soon be 70) won the prize for the best non-fiction, ROUSSEAU AND REVOLUTION. This is the fourth and concluding volume of "The Story of Civilization" series, on which they have been working for 40 years. This has been a happy and romantic marriage; the Durants were married when she was fifteen and he, twenty-eight. She was born Ida Kaufman, but he called her Ariel because "she was strong and brave as a boy, and swift and mischievous as an elf."

The poetry prize went to Anthony Hecht for his THE HARD STONES. Here is a poet whose work has been noted from the appearance of his first book in 1954. He was born in New York, won a literary fellowship from the American Academy in Rome, and is currently teaching at the University of Rochester.

Although this column is only dealing with the literary awards, it is interesting to note that the DETROIT FREE PRESS, which has been on a strike to these many moons, won a staff prize for general, local reporting of the 1967 Detroit riots and their causes.

John K. Hutchins has written a philosophical, reflective article on the Pulitzer Prizes in the SATURDAY REVIEW. Looking backward, he wonders why, in 1941, there was no fiction award, when Hemingway's FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS was a possibility. He suspects that frequently the Pulitzer people make amends for an error of omission. In 1962, for example, Edwin O'Connor won for THE EDGE OF SADNESS — a good novel, granted—but not as good as his THE LAST HURRAH, which did not win in 1957. Katherine Ann Porter had to wait until 1966 to be recognized for her COLLECTED STORIES, when she had written finer things earlier.

It is even more startling to consider some well-known authors who have never received a Pulitzer at all. Theodore Dreiser, F. Scott Fitzgerald, John O'Hara, John Dos Passos are some who could be mentioned.

And then there was the year, 1926, when Sinclair Lewis declined the prize for ARROW-SMITH because he was still bitter over Edith Wharton's edging him out with her AGE OF INNOCENCE — over his MAIN STREET. Apparently the rejection was never accepted as the Arrowsmith award still appears on the Pulitzer roster.

Do you know who won the first (1918) fiction award? Ernest Poole for HIS FAMILY. Prize poetry champion with four awards. Do you know what other poet has come close—with three awards? Edwin Arlington Robinson.

So it goes. Now that we have heard the 1968 announcements and have found that perhaps we have read some of these books, it might be fun to watch what is being published this year and see how close we can come to guessing the winners in May, 1969.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:—

In answer to the letter from Mr. Gerald L. Thorpe of Grosse Pointe Woods criticizing Mr. Arnold Fuchs' questioning of a course in government taught in our high school, I would like to suggest that Mr. Thorpe read the State of Michigan "General School Laws." In Chapter 9, Boards of Education—General Powers and Duties, Sections 324 through 385, he might pay particular attention to Section 348, which states that the school board shall establish grades, schools and departments necessary to maintain and improve schools and determine the courses of study to be pursued and taught. Chapter 26 entitled "Textbooks" states in Sections 490 and 491 that the Board of Education in each district shall select and approve the textbooks to be used by the pupils. These laws also give the right to the school board to change any books in less than five years with a majority vote of that board.

Therefore, it is not Mr. Fuchs' right and duty to his community to bring attention to whatever books or courses he thinks should be discussed by the board? How could he be considered to be showing a disregard for public education?

On the contrary, I feel Mr. Fuchs is performing his duties well, with courage to raise questions when he has them. I hope that our other trustees are as dedicated to their responsibilities for the education of our children.

Sincerely,
Mrs. James A. Wilson
703 Lochmoor Boulevard,
Grosse Pointe Woods

Dear Editor:—

As a mother with three children presently enrolled in the school system, I would appreciate the opportunity to comment on Mr. Thorpe's letter taking assiduously to help solve this huge unemployment problem . . . and to keep our young people from a summer of frustration and idleness. Let us all hope that the campaign is a huge success. W.W.F.

Hi There, Mr. Yokum!

A front page item in a Saturday, May 11, Philadelphia newspaper, began: "Arthur M. Yokum, chief economist for President Johnson, at a meeting of the 'Business Council' in Hot Springs, Va., hinted broadly that LBJ feels a form of wage-price control may now be necessary."

But, hold the phone! The very next day, on the front page of a Chicago paper, President Johnson was quoted as telling the same group: "I do not advocate any system of mandatory direct controls on prices or wages."

Hi, there, Mr. Yokum! That is today's "Quickie Editorial."

Your Public School In Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools

A question that came to my attention a few days ago is this: Why are the public schools particularly interested in cooperating with Grosse Pointe University School?

This question must have been generated by a newspaper account and picture of a joint meeting held by the two administrative staffs at Grosse Pointe University School on Tuesday, April 23. We were there because we were invited by Mr. Riddleberger, headmaster of Grosse Pointe University School, to attend.

Because we found the discussions so fruitful, some time during the coming year we intend to reciprocate. When we do, I imagine that we shall invite all non-public schools in the community to send representatives. As the single municipal agency serving all the Grosse Pointes we are, quite naturally, interested in maintaining as close ties as possible with all segments of the communities concerned.

Since the passage of Public Act 343 by the State Legislature we have had rather close contacts with the parochial schools. At the present time we are providing a number of services through our Department of Pupil Personnel to these schools: St. Paul, St. Clare, Christian Day, Our Lady Star of the Sea, St. Peter, and Convent of the Sacred Heart. Public school staff members in the fields of remedial reading, social work, psychology testing, nursing, vision and hearing screening, speech correction, and home-bound teaching are now working in the parochial of our children, our community, and our country?

All this furor over censorship is deeply mystifying and is suggestive of much more profound motivations. Is it possible that this whole censorship routine has been perpetrated on the public and highly bloated to manufacture a campaign issue for incumbents of the upcoming Board of Education election?

Also, since Mr. Thorpe is speaking from a pedagogic point of view, I think it is reasonable to assume that it would be extremely difficult for him to formulate an objective evaluation of freedom in the classroom. Teachers are super-sensitive on the subject of academic freedom and yet if we analyze the recent disgraceful events at our institutions of higher learning across the Nation, (the raising of the Vietcong flag at Wayne State and the civil disobedience witnessed at Columbia), we might better ask ourselves if academic freedom has not indeed been replaced by irresponsible license!

I, too, have great faith in our younger generation but I am also a realistic parent. I would rather "play it safe" and expose my children to concepts and inculcate doctrines which are directed toward positive ends.

Further, apparently because Mr. Fuchs prefers to accept his own responsibility, to do his own homework, and make his own decisions, he is condemned for not displaying unequivocal faith and confidence in the teachers and administrators of the school system.

Now, without a doubt, we do have capable and brilliant individuals on our staff, but neither teachers nor administrators are infallible beings. Tragic errors and grave mistakes have been committed in the past; our school system has the scars to prove it.

And as to Mr. Fuchs foisting his values on the community—who really has more access to the minds of our youngsters, the teacher or the trustee? What most educators refuse to acknowledge is that education should be viewed as a "conservative force" and that Board Members are obliged to protect and preserve the standards and values of the community. "Winston Churchill once declared that he did not become Prime Minister to provide over the dissolution of the British Empire."

Grosse Pointe is a gentle, gracious community given to conservative leanings reflected in her political persuasions, social traditions, and economic policies. She has never paraded herself before the public eye. Responsibility should be delegated to those in the community who wish to perpetuate this way of life.

Sincerely,
Mrs. D. J. Hallmann
533 Robert John Rd.
Grosse Pointe Woods

As our third and youngest child is about to graduate from Grosse Pointe High School, I would like to publicly commend our school system, our teachers, and our Board of Education for a job well done. Since my husband is also a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, this represents a total of 52 years in the system for our family.

Parents cannot recognize the value of a good public education schools. With such a large number of our staff involved, we already feel well-acquainted with the aims and objectives of the parochial schools in Grosse Pointe.

In addition, The Grosse Pointe Public School System provides countless benefits to everyone in the community. For example, the Adult Education Program conducted by the public schools is a tremendous asset, with a registration last year of approximately 6,000 people in 292 classes of various kinds. Thousands more take advantage of swimming programs and the summer playground activities.

And what can I say about the marvelous service provided by the staff of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, an integral division of the public schools for almost 39 years? Do you realize that as of July 1, the three public libraries had 31,256 registered users out of a population of 70,014? An enviable record!

I might add that the value of your real estate is tied to the quality of the schools and related services. Realtors do not hesitate to mention the public schools as a major selling point. If the public refuses again to support the schools in any forthcoming millage election, very likely this will be reflected in the overall reputation of the community as a desirable place to live.

How many of you know cases similar to this one, which appeared in the classified section of the local paper on Thursday, April 18? "Widow desires to keep daughter in Grosse Pointe School System, needs flat, apartment or small house."

When your property was reassessed recently, it was in large part because of the reputation of your public schools.

As a parent, I also share the fear Mr. Thorpe so aptly put forth in his letter of May 9, 1968 in the Grosse Pointe News. However, he is at the beginning of the public education, and we are nearing the completion for our children. The threat to our school system as it now exists, with our recently elected Board members going beyond their specialties to impose limited knowledge in the field of education must not be allowed to continue or to be increased. Curricula should only be determined by those trained to do so.

I cannot urge too strongly that all voters, but parents in particular, look closely at the issues involved in the coming school election. Diligently separate rumor from fact, negativism from positivism, and vote for the candidates sincerely interested in maintaining the excellent school system we have had for so many years. Do not sacrifice your child's education for the sake of pettiness. You will be giving up too much.

Sincerely,
Betty R. Teague
(Mrs. David G.)

To the Editor:—

As a long-time reader of the Grosse Pointe News, I would like to thank you for printing the timely, scholarly, and informative "letter to the editor" by Mr. Gerald Thorpe of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Facts, such as were presented, are essential to an understanding of some of the more important and real issues to be considered by the voters in our approaching School-board election.

Please continue in your fearless presentation of the FACTS, as they are.

W. R. LENZ, M.D.
Sincerely,

Pointe Garden Tour Slated May 18, 19

Mesdames Lynn McNaughton, Frederick Schumann Edwards Help Plan Event for Detroit Garden Center

Seven lovely gardens will be open to the public in the Grosse Pointe Garden Tour to be presented by the Detroit Garden Center this Saturday and Sunday, May 18 and 19, between 1 and 6 o'clock. Tickets, at $2 each, will be available at any Tour Garden on Tour days. Children under 12 years of age will be admitted free.

The first garden on the agenda is that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver D. Marcks in Three Mile drive.

It includes a woods path as well as a formal garden blossoming with old favorites such as coral bells, phlox, columbine and primroses. A wall fountain also can be found on the grounds, cooling the pieris florabunda in a tiny court.

A haven for birds and a tamarack tree grace the grounds of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond K. Dykema, of Lothrop road, the second home on the tour. This garden lies along the edge of a ridge, planted many years ago with white pine.

Beyond the stately brick home of Mr. and Mrs. John Owen, III, of Stephens road, lies mahonia, azaleas, rhododendrons, a bed of ivy and another of roses. A separate picking garden and a green garden are also included.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Renville Wheat, of Touraine road, provides the setting for a small pool set in a flagstone terrace beside the house, flower beds edged with iberis and a playground for grandchildren.

Mrs. Charles H. Hodges, Jr., designed and cultivates the garden of her home in Ridge road. Dogwood and rhododendrons make a pleasant contrast with a small wild garden which nestles in a hollow under tall old pines.

The garden of Mrs. Richard H. Webber, of Lakeshore road, is noted for having the finest collection of iris herabouts. The owner is an expert hybridizer and her grounds include a series of small gardens, rhododendrons and perennial plantings in raised beds, an old grape arbor and rows and rows of blue and yellow pansies.

The tour ends with the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo S. Highie in Provencal road. These gardens were designed by the English landscape architect Fletcher Steele. Rhododendrons and raised beds of perennials can be found in abundance surrounding gravel walks.

Area women assisting the general chairman, Mrs. Max Faulkner, in planning the tour are Mrs. Lynn McNaughton, Miss Christine Edwards, Mrs. Frederick Schumann and Mrs. Frederick Gould.

Further information concerning the tour may be obtained by calling the Detroit Garden Center at 961-8485. Proceeds go to assist the Detroit Center to continue its services to gardeners, including a library, horticulture consultation regarding gardening problems, lectures and workshops.

Entertaining at one of a series of cocktail parties last Sunday afternoon, May 12, were MR. and MRS. OLIVER DEWEY MARCKS, of Three Mile drive.

Appointed to continue as Grosse Pointe neighborhood chairman for the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit are MRS. VINCENT LYNCH and MRS. ALBERT COOPER. Newly appointed are Pointers MRS. ROBERT A. MARTIN, MRS. EDWARD ROBERTSON and MRS. THOMAS E. COULTER.

To Hold IWV Unit Meetings In May

Reports to be Given on National Convention and Petition Campaign to "Get Michigan Courts Out Of Politics"

"Man's inhumanity to man is paralleled, and often exceeded, by his inhumanity to children" is a quote widely used in the analysis of the methods employed by the United States' Juvenile Court System in protecting the rights of children and youth.

This topic of major concern, "Juvenile Courts," questionable, is the institution will be presented at the best suited for nurturing children into stable adults.

What then do we want of our Juvenile Courts? Why are Juvenile Court records always kept on file? Who has access to these records? Why, if an adult can request that his record be expunged, cannot his records as disturbed by conflict or morally a child be expunged? Must these records follow him through life?

These questions and many others League members and guests may pose will be discussed informally at the Unit meetings.

Mrs. J. Howard Kay, of Grand Marais boulevard, chairman of the Juvenile Courts Item, has been assisted by committee members Mrs. Frank M. Clements, Jr., Mrs. William A. Fisher, II, Mrs. Charles R. Kinaird, Mrs. Perry Porter, Mrs. James Stickford and Mrs. James S. Sanford.

Mrs. Carl J. Fischer, Jr., president of the League, and her vice-president and past League president Mrs. Leonard Slowin, will be reporting on the activities and the directions taken at the League's National Convention which they attended in Chicago the week of April 29.

An up-to-date report will also be given on the progress of the petition campaign for the proposed constitutional amendment of the judicial article to be placed on the November 5, 1968, ballot.

For those who have not signed a petition to "Get Michigan Courts Out of Politics," League members will be stationed at Wrigleys-on-the-Hill, Wrigleys at Seven Mile, Jacobson's, Farmer Jacks at Mack near Eight Mile and Packers at Mack and Cadieux to receive signatures and to give full information about this important constitutional amendment.

The highlighting features of the amendment provide for high qualifications of all judges, a greatly improved method for judicial selection and a fair and effective method for disciplining the judiciary.

All three topics, the Juvenile Courts, the report on the National Convention and an up-to-

Benefit Concert Nets Scholarship Monies

Summertime Music Funds Are Raised Via Pianist Ruth Bruczyk's Appearance Under Sponsorship of "Meet the Masters"

Seventeen Grosse Pointe women, members of a benefit committee headed by Mrs. Jerome W. Benson, joined by concert pianist Ruth Bruczyk, have successfully pooled their efforts to raise $1,691.99 for the benefit of the Grosse Pointe Schools' Summertime Music Scholarship Fund.

Friday, April 26, was the evening Ruth Bruczyk appeared in a benefit recital at Parcels Junior High School Auditorium.

Rarely has a reputation as one of the area's most distinctive personalities been so justified, rarely too has an artist exhibited the profoundly impressive piano playing Mrs. Bruczyk did that night.

Articulate, incomparably expressive, she presented a performance that may long stand as a model for other pianists. With the playing of Chopin's Waltz in C Sharp Minor as her third encore, generous bouquets of flowers rewarded the artist amid thunderous applause and "bravos" from the audience. This was the night to "Meet the Masters"—all who were there agreed they had "Met a Master."

Proceeds from Mrs. Bruczyk's recital were added to those of "Meet the Masters," an adult music appreciation class conducted by Ruth Kaiser and sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Public Schools' Department of Community Services and the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

The Summertime Music Scholarship Fund, established in 1959 by the Band and Orchestra Parents Club of Grosse Pointe High School for the primary purpose of providing talented high school students with an opportunity to further their musical studies, is supported solely by contributions.

High school students who are members of a band and orchestra while attending the public and non-public schools of Grosse Pointe may obtain applications for scholarships from Russell D. Reed, Instrumental Music director, Grosse Pointe High School, 11 Grosse Pointe boulevard, Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48236.

Other than music ability, a brief analysis by the counselor of the student in relation to (1) over-all citizenship (2) scholastic record (3) financial need, if any, are also deciding factors.

Mr. Reed reports that 39 applications have been received so far this year. Last year, 16 students attended the schools or music camps of their choice on full or partial scholarships provided by the Fund.

Summer music camp experience for high school instrumentalists has proved a splendid opportunity for students to gain appreciably in a musical way.

It provides opportunities for studying with a master teacher on his instrument as well as playing in an outstanding ensemble under the direction of a well-known conductor. Significantly, students often generate enthusiasm and leadership which is carried back to local school groups.

The Grosse Pointe High School Symphony Band and Symphony Orchestra have been recognized as among the finest groups in the State of Michigan, receiving top honors in various competitions.

Among those named to the Kalamazoo College Dean's List for the winter quarter is sophomore JULIA A. KIRBY, daughter of MR. and MRS. WILLIAM J. KIRBY, of Handy road.

They Planned A Lovely DBC Party

DYC Ladies Plan Sun Style Show

"Flowers Galore" will be the theme of the Sun-and-Fun fashion show to be presented by the Ladies' Card committee of the Detroit Yacht Club at the Club next Tuesday, May 21.

Luncheon, at 12 noon, will be followed by a parade of summer styles from "The Sound of Music."

Colorful prints of the easy-care materials used to fashion the clothes will be matched by bright floral arrangements on tables, in the ballroom and in the lobby of the DYC.

Party chairman is Mrs. Eric Daniels, of Balfour road. Co-chairmen are Mrs. George Timco, Mrs. Donald Burgess and Mrs. Kenneth Eystone.

Miss Craig Speaks Vows To Mr. Smith

Alencon Lace Accents Bride's Gown and Edges Her Illusion Veil; Attendants' Frocks Fashioned of Aqua Saki Cloth

The Reverend John McLaughlin, O.S.A., pastor of St. Clare de Montefalco Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony Saturday morning, May 4, at which Elizabeth Anne Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Craig, of Buckingham road, and Harold Ray Smith exchanged marriage vows.

The 10 o'clock Mass was followed by a reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom. Alencon lace accented the bride's gown of ivory peau de soie and edged her illusion mantilla veil. She carried an arrangement of Calla lilies.

Her honor attendants Mary Anne Young and Mrs. Stephen Valentine wore aqua Saki cloth gowns and matching headpieces and carried daisy ball bouquets.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Smith, of Lansing, asked Walter Panek, also of Lansing, to act as best man. Stephen K. Valentine, Jr., seated the guests.

Mrs. Craig chose, for her daughter's wedding and the reception, a blue brocaded ensemble. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige silk-and-linen costume. Both mothers selected orchid corsages.

The newlyweds vacationed in New York and will make their home in Morang avenue, Detroit.

Mrs. Hoyt has recently announced the introduction of many new and exciting techniques in her continuing classes of decoupage. Those hundreds of students who have participated in the basic classes of decoupage are moving into such new phases of the art as Repousse, Design and Color, Gold Leafing, Opaline and Pearlizing on Glass, and View Optique. Over two hundred of the most unique classes ever seen have been produced by her students during this past year, each one designed in beautiful and personalized fashion.

Mrs. Hoyt was a student at such well known studios as the Francis Wing Studio in Sarasota, Florida, the Hiram Manning Studio in Boston, Massachusetts, and the Patricia Nimoch's Studio in Louisville Kentucky. Announce Law Day '68 Contest Winners

Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives First Place Essay Prize Goes to St. Paul High School Student Susan DePonio, Poster First Prize to Pierce's John Gianakes

At the 1968 Law Day U.S.A. program held May 1 at St. Clare de Montefalco Church auditorium, winners were announced in the Essay Contest on the subject, "Only A Lawful Society Can Build A Better Society."

First prize went to Susan DePonio, of St. Paul High School; second prize to Nancy Chapman, of Grosse Pointe University School; and third prize to Polly Parke, of Grosse Pointe University School.

Honorable mention went to Marilyn Sue Kriehoff, of Leggett School, and James Webb, of St. Paul High School.

The Poster Contest winners were: First prize—John Gianakes, of Pierce Junior High School; second prize—Richard Connolly, of St. Paul High School; third prize—Drema Kalazian, of Pierce Junior High School; and honorable mention—Nancy Donahue, of St. Paul High School, Tom Fernstrum, of Pierce Junior High School, Mimi Garrett, of Pierce Junior High School, Bill Hurley, of St. Paul High School, and Drew Lachusa, of Brownell Junior High School.

The program was sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives, who consider Susan DePonio's prize-winning essay so outstanding they would like to share it with all Pointers. The essay follows:

"All legal systems, from the most primitive to the most advanced, have their roots in the society which they govern. Law, as applied to the life of man in society, is a body of conventions and rules which define the social organization and determine the relations of its members to society as a whole, and to one another. Law is the aggregate of the rules of human conduct which the state enforces by means of appropriate penalties for their violation.

"The objective of law in society is the regulation of the way or manner of living of the individual in accordance with the will of the community, and to secure certain standards of human conduct that the community deems necessary to its well-being. In most instances, obedience to law is secured through social pressure, by the threat of ridicule, contempt, scorn, or ostracism. These methods of compulsion may be described as moral or social sanctions, and the law so enforced, as moral or social law.

"Law must be directly applicable to the individual. It must not continue to be remote from him. There must be basic recognition of the interest which the whole society has in its observances of law. Breaches of law must not be considered the concern only of the state.

"We often think of law as a stabilizing influence—if not the most important factor promoting stability—in our society. Law promulgates stability and order because it satisfies the reasonable expectations of those who live under it.

"The law, in working for a stable and harmonious society, cannot remain static, but must constitute a flexible, living, and dynamic force in society. It must remain capable of satisfying the reasonable demands for equal justice of both the rich and the poor alike.

"A well-ordered society is a prerequisite to the functioning of any legal system. If there is no body of laws governing the solution of the conflicts inherent in any human relations, frictions and tensions will develop to a point which will bring about breaches of the primary rules of society. Even in the most highly-developed societies, underlying inequities will produce riots, revolutions, and civil wars.

"Man's security was once the family, then the tribe. Today, it is the nation. His security lies in the arrangements which his government has made to ensure his rights. These arrangements are the laws of a nation.

"Law is indeed a human necessity. There are advocates of 'more government' and 'less government' in human society, but only the most philosophic minds contemplate the utopia of anarchy—that perfection of the human spirit in which no rules or controls are necessary to enable human beings to live together in peace and harmony. Law must govern social relationships, if they are to be peaceful—and only if they are peaceful, can they become better.

'Operation Yorkville' President To Speak

Public Invited to Attend Free Program at War Memorial; Special Invitation Issued to Youth Group Leaders, Church, Womens' and Service Organizations

The Reverend Morton A. Hill, S. J., president and administrative director of Operation Yorkville, will speak at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Tuesday evening, May 21, at 8 o'clock.

Father Hill's subject "Do You Know What Your Children Know?" is an expose of the $2 billion smut racket in the United States. Operation Yorkville is a program for the prevention and control of obscene and pornographic material in New York in bringing to court violators who publish or distribute such material.

A group of inter-faith organizations in the Detroit Metropolitan area has invited Father Hill to speak, not only because of his experience with the New York project but because he is one of the 18-member Presidential Commission on Obscene and Pornographic Material and its Incitements.

This Commission has promoted not only enforcement of existing laws in many states but has succeeded in arousing community action toward the passing of new legislation.

The lecture at Grosse Pointe War Memorial is free and open to the public.

Youth group leaders, church organizations, women's and service clubs and any others concerned with this problem are urged to attend.

Sponsoring the starting of a local program similar to Operation Yorkville are Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Tracy, Dr. and Mrs. J. Russell Bright, Dr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Wenzel, Mr. and Mrs. Gerard R. Slattery, Dr. and Mrs. Robert K. Whiteley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl I. Heenan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Alden F. Shaw, Mrs. Dale Lio Woodward Schroeder, Mrs. Lorene W. Babcock and Mrs. Reginald T. Murphy.

The regular meeting of the Executive Board of the Grosse Pointe High School Mothers' Club was held on May 6 in the Board of Education Building with 23 members present.

President Mrs. William Ludwig expressed appreciation to Mrs. Douglas Smith and her committee for the very successful Scholarship Tea held May 1. An anonymous donation of $2,000 made to the Scholarship Fund will greatly add to the benefits realized from their efforts.

In her report, Mrs. Ludwig advised that a constitution and by-laws have been formed by North High School Parents' Club.

Reports were presented by president-elect Mrs. Joseph Perry, vice-president Mrs. James Mayhew and treasurer Mrs. Leland Symons. Mrs. Mayhew reported that 24 senior students have applied for financial help for next year and interviews are being held.

Mrs. Benson McClure, faculty representative, announced that pianist George Shearing will present a concert at the high school on May 28 during Sixth Hour.

Mrs. McClure recently visited Alma College, where she interviewed 24 of the 35 Grosse Pointe High School graduates in attendance there. All are doing well scholastically.

Criticism of textbooks was discussed and defined as the function of department heads and the Superintendent of Instruction, with their choices recommended to the Board of Education.

Membership in the Mothers' Club for this past year reached 1,070 with dues received amounting to $2,140. Neighborhood Groups realized an additional sum of $1,137. Profits from the two Pointe Players plays totalled $3,319.

Homeroom periods for 9th, 10th and 11th grades will be held twice a week next year. Other arrangements are under consideration for seniors, Mrs. McClure explained.

Senior Activities chairman Mrs. Robert Ambrose announced plans for the senior party as based on results of a questionnaire submitted by the students. Accordingly, on June 13, The War Memorial will become "Our Beautiful Balloon," with the theme, "UP, UP, and AWAY." Casual atmosphere will prevail, and a limited number of guest tickets will be available. The party will follow commencement exercises.

Board of Education delegate Mrs. Arthur Sherman reported on the meeting April 22 and again urged Mothers' Club Board Members to attend these meetings.

Mrs. Perry TeWall expressed the importance of coordination of activities in the service club area. She reported that one volunteer per class will begin work in the Head Start program, and that volunteers will also begin work in camping. Air Mail Service Marks 50th Year

Fifth years ago, (May 15, 1918), President Woodrow Wilson briefly left the pressure of his World War I duties, and was driven to Potomac Park Polo Field, where he witnessed the inauguration of the first scheduled United States Air Mail, (then called aerial mail), service in history.

After an embarrassing delay — no one remembered to put gasoline in the plane — Army Lt. George Boyle climbed into the open cockpit of his 150-horsepower biplane, and took off. He was scheduled to fly north to Philadelphia on the first leg of a one-stop flight to New York. Instead the pilot landed in a field in nearby Waldorf, Md., south of Washington, breaking a propeller in the process.

However, the debut of Air Mail was not a complete disaster. At about the same time of the Boyle takeoff another plane took off from Belmont Park race track in New York, bound for Washington via Philadelphia. He made it! Strangely, his name is not mentioned in the service's history.

To celebrate Air Mail's Golden Anniversary in this area, a luncheon was held yesterday at the Detroit General Postoffice, with Postmaster Edward L. Baker as the official host. There also was an exhibit of rare Air Mail Stamps and First Day covers.

Despite the early skepticism of air mail by Congress, and the defeat, (between 1910 and 1916), of many proposals for appropriation the service took hold, and started to expand. By 1931 more than 8.5 million pounds of mail were carried by air, and, in 1965, the postal services handled 172.9 million pounds.

Ironically, today, air mail as a separate, premium service, is nearing the end of its journey. By next year it is expected that the Post Office department will ask Congress to abolish air mail as a separate category, and establish a single priority mail service, all of which will be by air.

Gray T. Smith, 1704 Vine-wood, Detroit, was issued a violation by City police on Thursday, May 9, for improper backing, resulting in an accident. Smith backed out of a driveway at 823 Neff and into the side of the car of Allen E. Weed, Jr., 822 Neff, which was parked at the curb.

Section 12. (a) Any member, who has attained or attains his voluntary retirement age and has 10 or more years of credited service, may retire upon his written application filed with the Commission setting forth at what time, not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days subsequent to the execution and filing thereof, he desires to be retired.

(b) A member shall be separated from Village employment the first day of the calendar month next following the month in which he attains age 60 years if he is a public safety member, or age 65 years if he is a general member, except as provided in subsection (c) of this section.

(d) Upon his separation from Village employment, as provided in this section, a general member shall receive a pension provided in section 13, and a public safety member shall receive a pension provided in section 13.1.

Pension—General Member:

Section 13. (a) Upon his retirement, as provided in this Chapter, a general member shall receive a straight life pension equal to the number of years, and fraction of a year, of his credited service multiplied by the sum of 1.2 per cent of the first $4200 of his final average salary plus 1.7 per cent of the portion, if any, of his final average salary which is in excess of $4200. Upon his retirement he may elect to receive his pension under an option provided in section 14 in lieu of a straight life pension.

(b) According to such rules and regulations as the Commission may from time to time adopt, any general member who retires prior to his attainment of age 65 years may elect to have his straight life pension actuarially equated to provide an increased pension payable to his attainment of age 65 years and a reduced pension payable thereafter. His increased pension payable to his attainment of age 65 years shall approximate the sum of his reduced pension to be payable after his attainment of age 65 years and his estimated social security primary insurance amount. This subsection shall not be applicable in the case of a retiree who elected option A or B provided in section 14, nor a retiree who retired under section 15.

Pension—Public Safety Member:

Section 13.1. Upon his retirement, as provided in this Chapter, a public safety member shall receive a straight life pension equal to 2 per cent of his final average salary multiplied by the number of years, and fraction of a year, of his credited service not to exceed 25 years, plus 1 per cent of his final average salary multiplied by the number of years, and fraction of a year, of his credited service which is in excess of 25 years. Upon his retirement he may elect to receive his pension under an option provided in section 14 in lieu of a straight life pension.

Terminal Payment:

Section 13.2. In the event a retiree dies before he has received in straight life pension payments an aggregate amount equal to his accumulated contributions standing to his credit in the members savings fund at the time of his retirement, the difference between his said accumulated contributions and the said aggregate amount of pension payments received by him shall be paid to such person or persons as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the Commission. If no such designated person survives the retiree such difference, if any, shall be paid to the retiree's estate. No benefits shall be paid under this section on account of the death of a retiree if he elected to receive his pension under option A or B provided in section 14.

Pension Options:

Section 14. Prior to the effective date of his retirement, but not thereafter, a member may elect to receive his pension as a straight life pension payable throughout his life; or he may elect to receive the actuarial equivalent, at that time, of his straight life pension in a reduced pension payable throughout his life, and nominate a beneficiary, in accordance with the provisions of option A or B set forth below. If a member does not have an option election in force at the effective date of his retirement his pension shall be paid him as a straight life pension.

Option A—Joint and Survivor Pension: Under the option A upon the death of a retiree his reduced pension shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the Commission prior to the effective date of his retirement; or Option B—Modified Joint and Survivor Pension: Under option B upon the death of a retiree one-half of his reduced pension shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the Commission prior to the effective date of his retirement.

Pension—Death of Member:

Section 14.1. (a) A member who continues in Village employment after he either (1) acquires 10 or more years of credited service and has attained his voluntary retirement age, or (2) acquires 25 years of credited service, may, at any time prior to the date of his retirement, elect option A provided in section 14 in the same manner as if he were then retiring, and nominate a beneficiary whom the Commission finds to be dependent upon him for at least 50 per cent of his support due to lack of financial means. Prior to the date of his retirement a member may revoke his election of option A and nomination of beneficiary and he may again, prior to his retirement, elect option A and nominate a beneficiary as provided in this subsection. Upon the death of a member who has an option A election in force his beneficiary, if living, shall immediately receive a pension computed in the same manner in all respects as if the member had retired the day preceding the date of his death, notwithstanding that he might not have attained his voluntary retirement age. The said option A shall be applied to a pension computed according to section 13 for a beneficiary of a general member, and according to section 13.1 for a beneficiary of a public safety member. If a member has an option A election in force at the time of his retirement his election of option A and nomination of beneficiary shall thereafter continue in force, unless prior to the date of his retirement he elects to receive his pension as a straight life pension or under option B provided in section 14.

(b) A member who continues in Village employment after he either (1) acquires 10 or more years of credited service and has attained his voluntary retirement age, or (2) acquires 25 years of credited service, and does not have an option A election in force as provided in subsection (a) of this section, and (1) dies while in Village employment, and (2) leaves a widow, or in the case of a female member leaves a widower whom the Commission finds to be totally and permanently disabled and to have been dependent upon the female member for at least 50 per cent of his support due to lack of financial means, the widow or widower shall immediately receive a pension computed in the same manner in all respects as if the member had (1) retired the day preceding the date of his death, notwithstanding that he might not have attained his voluntary retirement age, (2) elected option A provided in section 14, and (3) nominated his said widow or widower as beneficiary.

Disability Retirement:

Section 15. Upon the application of a member, or his department head, a member who (1) is in the employ of the Village, (2) has 10 or more years of credited service, and (3) becomes totally and permanently incapacitated for duty in the employ of the Village, by reason of a personal injury or disease, may be retired by the Commission: Provided, that a physician, designated by the Commission, after a medical examination of the member, reports to the Commission (1) that the member is physically or mentally incapacitated for duty in the employ of the Village, (2) that such incapacity will probably be permanent, and (3) that the member should be retired. The 10 years of service requirement shall be waived in the case of a member who becomes in receipt of workmen's compensation on account of his disability arising out of and in the course of his Village employment.

Disability Pension:

Section 16. (a) Upon his retirement on account of disability, as provided in section 15, a general member shall receive a disability pension computed according to section 13, subject to section 17. His disability pension payable to his voluntary retirement age shall not be less than 17 per cent of his final average salary; nor shall his disability pension payable after his voluntary retirement age be less than the sum of 12 per cent of the first $4200 of his final average salary and 17 per cent of the portion, if any, of his final average salary which is in excess of $4200. Upon his retirement he may elect to receive his pension under an option provided in section 14 in lieu of a straight life pension.

(b) Upon his retirement on account of disability, as provided in section 15, a public safety member shall receive a disability pension computed according to section 13.1, subject to section 17. His disability pension shall not be less than 20 per cent of his final average salary. Upon his retirement he may elect to receive his pension under an option provided in section 14 in lieu of a straight life pension.

(c) If a disability retiree is paid workmen's compensation on account of his disability arising out of and in the course of his Village employment, upon termination of his workmen's compensation period, or at his attainment of age 65 years, whichever occurs first, he shall be given service credit for the period he was in receipt of a disability pension and his pension shall be recomputed to include such additional service credit. His disability recomputed pension payable to his attainment of age 65 years shall not be less than his weekly workmen's compensation converted to an annual basis.

Re-Examination of Disability Retirees:

Section 17. At least once each year during the first 5 years following the retirement of a member with a disability pension, and at least once in each 3 year period thereafter, the Commission may require a disability retiree, who has not attained his voluntary retirement age, to undergo a medical examination to be made by or under the direction of a physician designated by the Commission. Should any such disability retiree refuse to submit to such medical examination in any such period the Commission may suspend payment of his disability pension until his withdrawal of such refusal. If such refusal continues for 1 year the Commission may revoke his disability pension. If upon such medical examination of a retiree the said physician reports to the Commission that the retiree is physically able and capable of resuming employment with the Village he shall be returned to the employ of the Village and his disability pension shall terminate; provided, that the report of the said physician is concurred in by the Commission. In returning the retiree to Village employment reasonable latitude shall be allowed the Village in placing him in a position commensurate to his type of work and rate of salary at the time of his retirement. A disability retiree who has been or shall be returned to the employ of the Village shall again become a member of the retirement system. His credited service in force at the time of his retirement shall be restored to full force and effect. He shall be given service credit for the period he was receiving a disability pension if within the period he was in receipt of workmen's compensation on account of his total and permanent disability arising out of and in the course of his Village employment; otherwise he shall not be given service credit for the period.

Members Savings Fund:

Section 18. The members savings fund is hereby created. It shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated, at regular interest, the contributions made by members to the retirement system, and from which shall be made refunds and transfers of accumulated contributions, as provided in this Chapter.

(a) A public safety member's contributions to the retirement system shall be 5 per cent of his salary. A general member's contributions to the system shall be the sum of 3 per cent of the first $4200 of his annual salary and 5 per cent of the portion, if any, of his annual salary which is in excess of $4200.

(b) The officer or officers responsible for making the payroll shall cause the applicable contributions provided for in this section to be deducted from the salary of each member on each and every payroll, for each and every payroll period; so long as he remains a member of the retirement system. The members' contributions provided for herein shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided by law for any member shall be changed thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made and provided for herein and payment of his salary less said deduction shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by him during the period covered by such payment, except as to benefits provided by this Chapter. The said contributions when deducted from the salary of a member shall be paid to the retirement system and shall be credited to his individual account in the members savings fund.

(c) In addition to the contributions deducted from the salary of a member, as hereinbefore provided, he shall deposit in the members savings fund, by a single contribution or by an increased rate of contribution as approved by the Commission, the amount he might have withdrawn from the members savings fund, together with regular interest from the date of withdrawal to the date of repayment. In no case shall any member be given credit for service rendered prior to the date he withdrew his accumulated contributions until he returns to the members savings fund all amounts due the fund by him.

(d) Upon the retirement of a member his accumulated contributions shall be transferred from the members savings fund to the retirement reserve fund. At the expiration of a period of 3 years from the date an employee ceases to be a member any balance standing to his credit in the members savings fund, unclaimed by the member or his estate shall be transferred to the pension accumulation fund.

Refunds of Accumulated Contributions:

Section 19. (a) Should any member cease to be an employee of the Village, for any reason except his retirement or death, before he has satisfied the age and service requirements for retirement provided in section 12, he shall be paid his accumulated contributions standing to his credit in the members savings fund upon his request in writing on forms furnished by the Commission.

(b) Upon the death of a member, if no pension becomes payable by the retirement system on account of his death, his accumulated contributions standing to his credit in the members savings fund at the time of his death shall be paid to such person or persons as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the Commission. If there be no such person surviving the member his accumulated contributions shall be paid to his estate.

(c) Refunds of accumulated contributions, as provided in this section, may be made in a single sum or in installments, as the Commission shall determine.

Retirement Reserve Fund:

Section 20. (a) The retirement reserve fund is hereby created. It shall be the fund from which shall be paid all pensions payable as provided in this Chapter. Should a disability retiree return to the employ of the Village his pension reserve at that time shall be transferred from the retirement reserve fund to the members savings fund and the pension accumulation fund in the same proportion as the pension reserve was originally transferred to the retirement reserve fund.

(b) If, at the end of any fiscal year, the total of the pensions paid from the retirement reserve fund during the fiscal year is more than 12.5 per cent of the sum of the balances in the retirement reserve fund and the pension accumulation fund the pension payable in the next ensuing fiscal year shall be reduced pro-rata so that the total of the pensions so reduced shall not exceed the sum of the balances in the members savings fund and the pension accumulation fund. The pro-rata reduction shall be applied to all pensions payable to retirees and beneficiaries in the said ensuing fiscal year.

Expense Fund:

Section 21. The expense fund shall be the fund to which shall be credited all moneys provided by the Village to pay the administrative expenses of the retirement system and from which shall be paid all administrative expenses of the system.

Pension Accumulation Fund:

Section 22. (a) The pension accumulation fund is hereby created. It shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated reserves for the payment of the portions of all pensions payable from moneys provided by the Village. Upon the basis of such mortality and other experience tables, and regular interest, as the Commission shall from time to time adopt, the actuary shall annually compute the pension reserves (1) for pensions being paid to retirees and beneficiaries, and (2) covering service rendered and to be rendered by members. The said pension reserves shall be financed by annual appropriations to be made by the Council, determined according to paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this subsection, subject to subsection (b) of this section.

- (1) The appropriation for members' current service shall be a per cent of their annual salaries which will produce an amount which if paid annually by the Village during their future service will be sufficient to provide the pension reserves, which are not financed by their accumulated contributions, for the portions of the pensions to be paid them based upon their future service; and
 - (2) The appropriation for members' accrued service shall be a per cent of their annual salaries which will produce an amount which if paid annually by the Village over a period of years, to be determined by the Commission, will amortize at regular interest the unfunded pension reserves for the accrued portions of the pensions to be paid them; and
 - (3) The appropriation for pensions being paid to retirees and beneficiaries shall be a per cent of the annual salaries of members which will produce an amount which if paid annually by the Village over a period of years, to be determined by the Commission, will amortize at regular interest the unfunded pension reserves, if any, for pensions being paid to retirees and beneficiaries.
- (b) Anything contained in this Chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, the Commission shall never certify and the Village shall never be required to pay into the pension accumulation fund, in any year, a sum larger than 20 per cent of the aggregate salaries received by all members during the preceding fiscal year.
- (c) Upon the retirement of a member the difference between his pension reserve and his accumulated contributions shall be transferred from the pension accumulation fund to the retirement reserve fund. The Commission may from time to time transfer from the pension accumulation fund to the retirement reserve fund such additional amounts as it determines to be necessary for the proper maintenance of the retirement reserve fund.

Investment of Moneys:

Section 23. The Commission shall be the trustees of the assets of the retirement system. It shall have full power and authority to invest and re-invest such assets subject to the provisions of Act No. 314 of the Public Acts of 1965, as amended, and as it might from time to time be amended or replaced by successor acts.

The Commission shall have full power to hold, sell, purchase, assign, transfer and dispose of any securities and investments in which any moneys of the system shall have been invested, as well as the proceeds of said investments and any moneys belonging to the system.

Method of Making Payments:

Section 23.1. No money shall be paid by the retirement system except upon a warrant signed by the Village Treasurer and countersigned by the chairman of the Commission or such other commissioner as may from time to time be duly authorized by the Council. No warrant shall be issued unless it has been previously authorized by a specific or continuing resolution adopted by the Commission. All payments by the system shall be made in accordance with procedures for payments of moneys from the Village's general fund.

Allowance of Regular Interest:

Section 24. All interest and other earnings on moneys and investments of the retirement system shall be credited to the pension accumulation fund. The Commission shall, at the end of each fiscal year, allow and credit regular interest on the members' individual balances in the members savings fund at the beginning of the fiscal year; and on the mean balance in the retirement reserve fund. The amounts of interest so allowed and credited shall be charged to the pension accumulation fund.

Assignments Prohibited:

Section 25. (a) The right of a person to a pension, to the return of accumulated contributions, the pension itself, any optional benefit, any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this Chapter, and the moneys belonging to the retirement system shall not be subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, the operation of bankruptcy or insolvency law, or any other process of law whatsoever, and shall be unassignable, except as is specifically provided in this Chapter: Provided, that the Village shall have the right of set off for any claim arising from embezzlement by or fraud of a member.

(b) If a member is covered by a group insurance or prepayment plan participated in by the Village, and should he be permitted to, and elect to, continue such coverage as a retiree, he may authorize the Commission to have deducted from his pension the payments required of him to continue coverage under such group insurance or prepayment plan.

Correction of Errors:

Section 26. Should any change in the records result in any person receiving from the retirement system more or less than he would have been entitled to receive had the records been correct, the Commission shall correct such error, and as far as practicable shall adjust the payment in such manner that the actuarial equivalent of the benefit to which such person was correctly entitled shall be paid.

Section 27. (Reserved).

Section 28. Pensions and retirement allowances being paid as of the effective date of this amendment to the Village Charter shall be continued to be paid according to the provisions of the Village Charter in effect the day preceding the effective date of this amendment.

Effective Dates of Amendments:

Section 29. The effective date of the 1957 amendments to Chapter XI of the Village Charter is September 23, 1957. The effective date of the 1968 amendments shall be May 1, 1968.

Girls' Softball

The Clark Gassers defeated the Sock-It-To-Me's 24 to 10 in their first meeting of the season. The victory left the Gassers in first place all alone, with a 2 won 0 lost record, in the Neighborhood Club Girls' Softball League.

The game opened with the pitchers from both teams having trouble finding the plate in the early innings as both teams picked up 8 runs each in the first inning. The Gassers picked up 2 more runs in their half of the second but the lead was short lived as Pat Monaghan came on to pitch for the Gassers giving up 2 runs to the Sock-It-To-Me's to tie the score 10 all after 2 full innings of play.

The third inning saw the Gassers pick up 10 big ones on a single, 3 doubles and 8 walks. The bottom of the third proved fatal to the Sock-It-To-Me's when Pat Monaghan regained her pitching control to throw shut out ball the rest of the game for her second straight win of the season.

The Gassers managed to add four runs in the 4th but failed to score in the 5th behind the clutch pitching of Joyce Schiapacasse of the Sock-It-To-Me's, with the game being considered completed after five full innings rather than the standard seven innings due to the one and a half hour time limit allotted to the Girls' League.

Jane Greifenstein led the Gassers' attack with a perfect day at bat, getting 4 for 4, running her hitting streak to 7 hits in 2 games thus boasting a perfect batting average of a thousand.

Fine defensive and offensive performances were turned in by all members of both teams. The rosters are as follows: J. Greifenstein, M. McDonald, D. Kalajian, P. Cain, M. Bott, T. Lane, W. Bayes, J. Heamon, J. Balan, L. Montague, C. Marinch, M. Cox, P. Perkins of the Clark Gassers with Mrs. Barbara Kelp and Mrs. Rosetta Kalajian coaching.

A. Shook, J. Shafsa, K. Drexel, C. Dooley, K. Charlton, J. Cashman, C. Williams, J. Am-bill, D. Dysarczyk, J. Schiappacasse, G. Liston, M. E. McDonald, B. Williams, L. Pollard, J. Hookinson, A. Beebe, A. Wet-tengel of the Sock-It-To-Me's with Mrs. Kitty Cashman, Terry Case, and Jan Drexel coaching.

Submitted by Coaches Barbara Kelp, Kitty Cashman and Rosetta Kalajian.

Rain threatened Thursday, May 9, as the Neighborhood Club Girls' Softball teams met for their second game of the season. However, a few sprinkles didn't dampen the spirits of the Farms Texaco Stars as they chalked up their first victory over the Purple Pickles with a score of 8 to 7.

The Farms Texaco Stars came to life in the 4th, scoring 7 runs with triples hit by Susan Mogk and Barbara Bolton. They stretched their lead to 3 runs in the sixth with another run scored by Pat Fellows.

The Purple Pickles gained 2 runs in the 7th with another homerun by Sue Gardiner, bringing the final score 8 to 7. Winning pitcher was Cindy Pierce.

BRICK COLONIAL

Modern kitchen and bath. Full basement, recreation room, toilet, glass enclosed porch. Double garage. Phone 882-2185 or 884-5357.

THERE'S ALWAYS something new under the sun at Purdy & Edgar, and this week we have four shining examples in the "first offering" category. We beam with pride in showing this wide-hall center entrance colonial on Rivard Boulevard. The sparkling newer kitchen will dazzle you with its smart built-ins and generous cupboard space. On the shady side of the house is a patio and covered terrace large enough to contain a cocktail party. Upstairs are four bedrooms and a full third floor.

ANOTHER FIRST. This one is on Washington, and offers a full bath and sleeping room on the first floor. At $31,000 we know of no other house on the market today, which can boast four bedrooms.

ON LAKESHORE LANE we can show you three bedrooms, two and a half baths, a jazzy kitchen and both a family room and library. The two-car attached garage makes a hit with the kids 'cause there's more play area in the backyard. Don't run off half-cocked and miss this house, because it's loaded with extras.

IN THE FARMS—with five bedrooms and four full baths, is this first offering located close to transportation and HHI Shopping. Not far from the lake where the onshore breezes keep the curtains full if you leave the windows open. Your house seeking venture should be smooth sailing from here on if you've been touching port all over town but haven't yet found a home you wanted to tie up. Better call today, or you may be left on the dock again.

TRADITION, CONDITION, and your ambition might be the formula which will put you into this six bedroom colonial on Grand Marais. Both the living room and library have fireplaces, and the large screened and covered porch has access to both the above rooms. For those who desire a large and modern kitchen, this could be what you have been waiting for.

NOW WE CAN GIVE you a choice of two larger two-family flats on Trombley Road. Both buildings have four bedrooms in each of the first and second floors, and there are also bedrooms on the third floors. If you want space in your next home and the opportunity of having a tenant to contribute to your living, then these are "must sees."

ONE OF THE FEW remaining

lots with 100 feet frontage available in Grosse Pointe City. Located on a street of stately mansions.

'King' Once Ruled Island, Now State Vacation Site

A Mormon king, a Russian count and an Emerald Isle. It sounds like the plot of an historical novel and, indeed, thousands of words have been written about "King" James Jesse Strang, Count Feodora Portar, and Beaver Island.

Anglicized from the French le du Castor, Michigan's Beaver Island was so named because on old maps, it looked like a stretched out beaver skin.

The island is 32 miles offshore from Charlevoix in northeastern Lake Michigan. It's 14 miles long, six wide and the largest island in Lake Michigan.

Beaver Island originally was a haven for wild life, and a target for Indian hunting parties, until Strang led a small band of Mormon settlers to the island in 1847.

Strang splintered from the main Mormon group after losing a fight with Brigham Young for the sect's leadership. Young and the main body headed west to Utah. The Strangites journeyed to Beaver Island.

Strang proclaimed himself "king" and the island's only city, St. James, was named after the "monarch."

Strang's Power Grew
Strang's flock grew, so did the power of the only monarchy in continental United States. Despite the small size of the island, its population was greater than that of Emmet County on the mainland, and Strang was able to control the county government.

Strang's autocratic rule and religious tenets didn't sit well with the mainlanders, mainly Irish settlers and fishermen, but it was two members of Strang's own colony who shot and killed him in 1856.

The colony disintegrated, and the Irish gradually began taking over the island. They burned most of the Strangites' buildings, but some still remain including the print shop which has been converted into a museum.

With the Irish takeover and because of its forestation, Beaver Island soon became known as the Emerald Isle and to this day the biggest holiday on the island is St. Patrick's Day.

But another patron of the island was a Russian nobleman, Count Feodora Protar, who was banished by the czar because he freed his serfs. Protar, a doctor, spent 30 years on Beaver Island, taking care of the islanders' medical needs without charge.

Has Rustic Charm
Beaver Island today retains the rustic charm of the past, and is an ideal vacation spot for people who want to slow down, discover the wild life and see spectacular lake sunsets.

A trip to Beaver Island starts leisurely with a cruise on the modern motorship, "Beaver Islandier," from Charlevoix. It's a two hour and 15-minute trip, and you can take your car. The ship makes two round trips daily during the summer months. There's also air service from Charlevoix.

Beaver Island has 75 miles of improved highways, numerous bathing beaches, inland lakes, and modern accommodations. There's a nine hole golf course, good fishing, and hunting in season.

The island is a delight for photographers with weathered split rail fences, beached boats and the Beaver Head light house at the south tip of the island, third oldest light house on the Great Lakes.

Bald Eagle, Symbol of Nation, 'Fades' in State

The American or bald eagle, proud symbol of the Nation, is declining in numbers in a State where it made one of its most determined stands for survival: Michigan.

Inroads from pesticides, encroaching civilization, vandals and other causes have biologists concerned that the big bird may be on its way out over the North American continent, the only continent where it is found, the bird is disappearing fast, says the National Audubon Society. There are probably no more than 1500 of them that nest south of the US-Canadian border and perhaps 3500 more that winter in the contiguous states but return to Canada or Alaska to nest.

The bird is protected by Federal law, but shooting through misidentification is only one of the menaces to its survival.

Prof. William L. Thompson, a Wayne State University biologist who has given years of study to Michigan bird life, emphasizes the menace of insecticides to the eagle's survival.

Pesticides Blamed
Pesticides used in the extensive vegetable and fruit growing areas along the Great Lakes shores find their way into the water and are ingested by fish. The eagles appeared to suffer in some way after eating the fish.

Whatever the chemical effect the insecticides have on the big birds, the pairs which inhabit the Great Lakes shores are reproducing at a low rate, apparently lower than in the past, Dr. Thompson says.

This goes along with the belief of numerous biologists that certain of the chemical compounds used interfere seriously with the birds' reproductive processes.

Sergej Postupalsky, a Wayne alumnus who specializes in biology, has been studying bald eagles in Michigan since 1960.

After personally locating 92 pairs in the State during 1967, he estimates Michigan's population at between 100 and 110 pairs, about 70 per cent residing in the Upper Peninsula. His research is being aided by the National Audubon Society and the Detroit Audubon Society. Michigan is Third

The estimate would put Michigan third in eagle population. Alaska, which has the most eagles, is estimated to be the home of several thousand pairs. Florida is second.

The white headed eagle or bald eagle was chosen for our national bird on June 20, 1782, despite Benjamin Franklin's proposal that the turkey be the nation's bird. Earlier the eagle was the supreme totem of the Six Nations of Iroquois Indians.

Long ago Indians kept the eagle as a domestic pet. Up to 1900, these Indians would take the young eagles from their nests and raise them in cages or tied by thongs to rocks. They would then harvest eagle feathers for magical, medicinal or religious rites; also for arrows or mere decoration.

Consolidated sales in the first quarter were $ 3,989,800,000, a record for any quarter and 36 percent higher than the first quarter sales of $2,870,500,000 in 1967.

The company's consolidated net income in the first quarter of 1968 was $222,400,000, compared with $120,600,000 in the first quarter of 1967.

Henry Ford II, chairman of the board, and Semon E. Knudsen, president, have announced. First quarter earnings were $2.03 a share in 1968, and $1.10 in 1967, an increase of 85 percent.

The company's consolidated net income in the first quarter of 1968 was higher than in any other first quarter in the company's history. The increased profits reflected partial recovery of production losses caused by the UAW strike against the company in the fall of 1967, as well as higher industry demand for cars and trucks. No provision has been included for a proposed U.S. tax surcharge.

Michigan's Upper Peninsula is as big as Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts and Rhode Island combined.

Headlines of the Week

THOUGH NO TIME for the first meeting of the negotiating teams of the United States and North Vietnam has been set, U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and North Vietnam's Xuan Thuy, it was expected to take place this afternoon in the former Hotel Majestic close to the Arc de Triumphe. The North Vietnamese demand that the U.S. unconditionally halt its bombing of North Vietnam, extending the curtailment President Johnson ordered March 31 to the whole country, was at the top of the agenda.

A RECORD HIGH welfare spending measure, which was increased by $12.2 million at Gov. George Romney's last-minute request over his original recommendation, reached the senate floor Friday for debate next week. The large welfare bill, representing the biggest part of the state's budget after education, brought tentative general fund spending figures for 1968-69 to $1.34 billion.

NAPALM AND HIGH-EXPLOSIVE bombs were dropped by United States two miles from the center of Saigon Sunday night in an effort to eliminate the Viet Cong who have been harassing the city. The Viet Cong have been lobbing rockets and mortar shells into the South Vietnamese capital, shooting in the streets, and fighting with allied forces on the fringes of the city for eight days. Though the American pilots did not attack within city limits, bungalows, shanties and apartment buildings in the urban area were destroyed.

THE MAJOR PART of the nine-day-old communist attack on Saigon has been quelled by American and South Vietnamese force, leaving more than 5,200 enemy soldiers killed or captured. The allied losses numbered 210 killed, 67 of them being Americans; and 979 wounded, including 333 Americans.

THE UNITED STATES has been defeated in the war according to North Vietnamese delegates in Paris today. They said that Washington must end all bombing and other attacks on the North before there can be peace talks. Hanoi's chief delegate, Zuan Thuy, charged Washington with being guilty of "monstrous crimes against human rights."

Mrs. Helda F. Rothschild, who studied under Dr. Maria Montessori in France and received her Montessori Teacher's Certificate there in 1934, will appear next Wednesday evening, May 22, at 8 o'clock, at the Lakeshore road Academy of the Sacred Heart auditorium, which can be reached via the school entrance from Moran road.

Mrs. Rothschild will present a slide-lecture on Montessori education from a child's and director's point of view. Parents of present and prospective pupils are invited to attend, to hear and meet this past-president of the Cincinnati Association for the Education of Young Children, a member of the Board of the American and Cincinnati Montessori Societies.

Here's the latest . . . on Myron Everett Ranney, son of the Ralph R. It's spring . . . and Grosse Pointe's poet laureate Carolyn Hubbard Lucas has a few words to say about her favorite season:

ONCE MORE WITH FEELING

Another spring — and I have lived so long
The turn of seasons brings few memories.
I sit beneath the cherry orchard trees
And listen to the birds' sweet ceaseless song.
There — for a moment — Martha seems to be
Beside me — on the path her light-step falls.
Her hand is in my hand and I recall
The loveliness of life she gave to me.
I hear her saying, "It is spring, my dear,
See how our trees are white with snowy bloom:
Do you remember in a bygone year
We watched their beauty from our little room?"
And then I raise my eyes her face to see —
But only birds fly in the cherry tree.

PILFERINGS

A rather small boy was frightened of a large bulldog that occupied the yard next to his home.

One day, feeling rather adventurous, the little boy climbed the fence and the huge bulldog rushed up to him and licked his face.

The boy began to scream and his mother arrived on the scene almost immediately. "Did he bite you, darling?"

"No," whimpered the little boy, "but he tasted me."

—Between The Lines

Explaining the difference between the two basic printing processes—letterpress and offset—a professor whose sense of humor paralleled his knowledge of printing arts reduced the comparison to basics for a college journalism class. First he called a comely coed to the front of the class. "Apply a fresh coat of lipstick," he told her. "Then kiss me."

"That," he told the class, pointing to his red-emazoned cheek, "is letterpress."

The teacher then removed a white linen handkerchief from his breast pocket. Tenderly he blotted the impression of the coed's lips on his cheek. Holding the folded handkerchief up so the class could see the clean impression of the kiss, he quietly said, "And this, my friends, is offset. The final result is similar to that obtained from letterpress, but the process isn't nearly as interesting."

MRS. RALPH T. McELVENNY, OF CLOVERLY ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Family pictures and fresh flowers and warm-toned Oriental rugs . . . these are some of our first impressions on entering Betsy (Mrs. Ralph T.) McElvenny's home. But the room we DIDN'T see intrigues us most . . .

It's Betsy's "Painting Room" — "I don't call it a studio; I'm not good enough for that," she says — and it's her Very Own Special Private Place, to which NO ONE is admitted.

Oh, very rarely Betsy will allow a family member to stick his/her head around the door — but the family member usually retreats on his/her own accord: In Betsy's Painting Room, everything is EXACTLY where Betsy wants it to be, and NOBODY wants to be responsible for moving something from its appointed place, (no matter how unusual — to an "outsider" — that appointed place may seem to be . . .)

Betsy uses her Painting Room for, (naturally!), painting; she likes to work in oils. And she uses it for her "office," currently, it's where she's keeping all the files and lists and memoranda she works with as general chairman of the Detroit Grand Opera Association.

Now, just a few days before New York's Metropolitan Opera Company opens its short, (seven performances), season in Detroit, Mrs. McElvenny's sojourns in her Painting Room are All Opera — No Painting.

First Opera May 20 — The "Met" will be at Detroit's Masonic Temple Auditorium May 20 through 25. The season opens Monday evening with a benefit performance of Verdi's "Luisa Miller," closes Saturday evening with Gounod's "Romeo et Juliette."

In between the operas to be presented are Mozart's "Le Nozze Di Figaro," Tuesday evening, May 21; Verdi's "La Forza Del Destino," Wednesday evening, May 22; Bizet's "Carmen," Thursday evening, May 23; Puccini's "Madame Butterfly," Friday evening, May 24; and Puccini's "Tosca," Saturday afternoon, May 25.

The Opening Night performance begins at 8:30 o'clock, all other evening performances at 8 o'clock and the Saturday matinee at 1:30 o'clock, and Betsy advises anyone who'd like to see one or more of the operas to give Detroit Grand Opera Association, Inc., headquarters at Ford Auditorium, (Woodward 52940), a call — some tickets may just still be available.

The McElvennys will, of course, be in the audience Opening Night, traditionally a benefit for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Inc., and the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts.

Afterglow Scheduled — And they'll go on to the Arts Institute after the show for the equally traditional, always-beautiful Opera Afterglow, at which guests and stars of the Metropolitan Company mingle and enjoy supper.

Betsy's especially looking forward to the Afterglow; it's always been one of her favorite parties of the year.

She's looking forward, too, to "Supper With The Stars," another Detroit Grand Opera Association tradition.

Each year, the night before the Opera Season opens in Detroit, (this year that will be Sunday evening, May 19), the Met's assistant manager, Francis Robinson, plus one or two Met stars scheduled to appear in Detroit performances, are guests of honor at a special supper party at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

After supper, the Met personalities participate in a panel question-and-answer program, moderated by Donald M. D. Thurbur, one of the Detroit

Opera Association's vice-presidents.

Is Open To Public

The "Supper" is open to the public. "Everybody may buy tickets," Betsy says, adding, "I think it's a 'fun' evening. I think . . . Don Thurbur is exceptionally good, asking questions, fielding questions from the audience to the stars . . . He has a lot of background information on opera . . ."

Mrs. Mark Littler, whose husband is treasurer of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, and Mrs. Arthur Seder are co-chairmen of the 1968 "Supper With The Stars."

"Stars" scheduled to appear this year are Mirella Freni and Giorgio Tezzi, who will sing the roles of Susanna and Figaro in the Met's Tuesday evening production, "Le Nozze Di Figaro." Mrs. McElvenny saw her first opera, a performance by a touring Metropolitan company featuring Rosa Ponselle, in Washington, D.C., before she WAS "Mrs. McElvenny."

Senator's Daughter — She was Betsy Steiwer then, daughter of United States Senator Frederick Steiwer, Republican Keynoteur at Cleveland in 1936.

"I was brought up in Washington," she says, "and it was lots of fun — of course, I wasn't old enough most of the time to really appreciate it, appreciate it as I would now. But it was pleasant to know people who were so interesting, so vital . . ."

"We had a good Symphony in Washington but, at that time, no regular opera. Touring companies came to us regularly, though . . ."

And, when they came, Betsy Steiwer was sure to hear them. She made her debut in Washington to Ralph Talbot McElvenny, now president of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, then working for the government on the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Children All Married — Their three children were born in Washington. All are married now, and the oldest, Alice (Mrs. Theodore H.) Oldham, is the mother of Betsy's three favorite little people: Elizabeth, seven, Theodore, Jr., six, and Kathryn Oldham, two.

The Oldhams live in Kenwood Court, to Betsy's great delight. She loves being a grandmother!

The two younger McElvenny offspring both live in the East. Elizabeth (Mrs. Frank) Nardine, whose husband is an assistant professor at Harvard, makes her home in Cambridge, Mass. Columbia Law School student Ralph Talbot McElvenny, Jr., claimed Jeanette Kittredge Watson as his bride last June in Greenwich, Conn.; they're living in New York.

When Betsy's not busy with opera work, ("Don't say how many hours a day I spend on it," she exclaims, "or they'll NEVER get a chairman for next year!" — But we don't believe her: One thing we've noticed about everyone we've ever met in connection with the Detroit Grand Opera Association is a willingness to work — hard! — for opera in Detroit), she's generally in her garden.

Loves Gardening — A Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club Board member, she likes nothing better than to be out in her backyard, among her flowers, nursing them, helping them to grow, worrying about them if they DON'T grow . . .

Except, perhaps, fishing. Betsy will fish anywhere, at any time, under any conditions. She just plain LIKES to fish. But fishing and gardening both take second place to opera right now.

"I've been working for opera (in Detroit) forever," Betsy says. That "forever" stretches back to the days before the Met came to Detroit.

"I think this, (working for opera), was the first thing I did when I came to Detroit, (in between Washington and Detroit the McElvennys lived in Philadelphia and Chicago, "neither of which," Betsy observes of her interim cities, "is as nice as Detroit")."

"I'd known Betty (the late Mrs. Frank) Donovan for a time, and she got me interested in the Detroit Grand Opera Association."

Anniversary Year

Mr. Donovan is the current chairman of the Association in this Special Anniversary Year, the Tenth Anniversary of the Metropolitan Opera Company's appearances in Detroit and the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, Inc.

So Betsy McElvenny has taken on a Big Opera Job in a Big Opera Year. "I started the chairmanship last September," she recalls, "and, really, I've enjoyed it very much. I've found people who work with opera are so pleasant, so attractive . . ."

As general chairman, she's responsible for setting up and coordinating opera committees and events, for finding committee chairmen . . . "That's not as difficult as it seems," Betsy says. "So many people are so very kind about saying, 'Yes, I'll do it for another year' . . . We always have a few new chairmen each year, of course, but it helps to have a core of people who've been through it all before . . ."

As Betsy has herself . . . During her "hours of duty" with the Opera Association she's come to know personally a good proportion of the 750-or-so women, women from all sections of the Metropolitan Detroit — and Windsor — areas, who comprise the Association's Women's Committee.

Involves Much Travel — She's come to know women from outside the Metropolitan Detroit area, too: She traveled about Michigan with last year's general chairman, Jane (Mrs. William M., Jr.) Walker several years ago when they served as Opera Association Outstate co-chairmen.

Sales promotion, publicity, the famous "Overture to Opera" series utilizing excellent local talent in operatic performances at schools and community centers throughout the Metropolitan Detroit area, the annual Opera Women's Committee luncheon, "Supper With The Stars," the Arts Institute Afterglow . . . These are some of the events for which Betsy McElvenny, as general chairman of the 1968 Detroit opera season, is ultimately responsible.

She couldn't begin to count the number of luncheons, dinners, meetings she's attended in connection with her chairmanship.

She won't have a free evening next week; she plans to attend every opera — plus the Sunday evening "Supper," of course, and the First Night Afterglow.

They're what she's been working for, looking forward to, since September . . . And she intends to enjoy every minute of "The Met" in Detroit.

It promises to be a glorious week.
