PEOPLE OF ALL AGES crowded Kennedy Square yesterday to enthusiastically greet Senator Robert F. Kennedy who had come to Detroit to campaign for the Democratic nomination for president. The crowd that met the New York Senator was estimated at between 15,000 and 20,000. Kennedy delivered an impromptu speech on the status quo and the "politics of happiness," met with Democratic Party leaders and flew out of Detroit Wednesday evening to continue his campaign in the West.

THE DEATH COUNT stood at 70 yesterday as a series of tornadoes in 11 states left behind rubble, hundreds injured and thousands homeless. The tornadoes struck the Middle West and lower Mississippi Valley, moving into Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and Oklahoma. At least 67 tornadoes were reported within a 24 hour period.

IN RESPONSE to a speech given by the head of the United States delegation for peace talks in Paris, Averil Harriman, the North Vietnamese dismissed it as a "smokescreen." Mr. Harriman had said the two parties had struck some similarities in their positions, but Nguyen Van Sao, spokesman for the Hanoi delegation, called it "a matter of words, not substance."

Saturday, May 18
THE MICHIGAN SENATE Friday voted to give final approval to the state Open Housing Law. The members accepted amendments to the bill made in the House by a vote of 26-5. The comprehensive law banning racial discrimination in the sale and rental of housing was sent back to the House for a vote to give it immediate effect, following which it will be returned to the Senate for a similar vote. The bill then will go to Governor George Romney's desk where it is certain to be signed into law.

PRESIDENT DE GAULLE faced the prospect of country-wide unrest and a threat of economic paralysis today in a series of meetings with top aids. All over the country more local unions and workers joined in a strike movement. According to the major unions the number of strikers has reached two million.

THE VIET CONG rocket attack in Saigon which marked the 78th birthday of Ho Chi Minh, killed 11 South Vietnamese and wounded 51, all but seven of whom were civilians. Twenty rounds of 100-pound missiles set 150 homes afire in the city. Officials report that the victims included women and children.

Monday, May 20
MILLIONS MORE WORKERS in France occupied factories, mines and offices on Monday sinking the country into almost total paralysis. Housewives stocked up on food, motorists rushed to gasoline stations and depositors staged a run on the banks. Banks rationed withdrawals thus managing to serve their clients for the day. However, their own source of cash the Bank of France, will be closed by strike today. Estimates as to the number of strikers at nightfall on Monday ranged from six to ten million. The ten million figure would encompass half of the country's wage earners.

Tuesday, May 21
CITY COUNCILMAN and former Detroit Mayor, Louis C. Miriani, 73, was convicted yesterday on four counts of income-tax evasion and faces a possible penalty of 20 years imprisonment and $40,000 in fines. The government contended Miriani underestimated his income by $261,100 from 1959 through 1962, while serving as mayor of Detroit. The Internal Revenue Service argued he owed $154,000 in taxes and penalties. Miriani contended the income was in the form of political campaign contributions and tax-free gifts.

Farms Police Accuse Trio of Taking Valuable Purses

One man and two women, arrested by Farms police on two counts and arraigned before Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytell on Thursday, May 16, stood mute as the charges and pleas of innocent were entered for them. They were released on $2,000 bond each, and examination date was set for Wednesday, May 29.

Report Issued on Method Employed in Endorsement of School Board Candidates

Co-Chairmen of Evaluation Committee of Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education Details Procedures Used in Making Decisions

Responding to a request for information concerning procedures involved in the endorsement of candidates seeking election to the School Board, the Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education has issued a report of the co-chairmen of that organization's Candidate Evaluation Committee. The co-chairmen are James Mast and John F. Dodge, Jr. Their report follows.

The Candidate Evaluation Committee of the Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education interviewed six potential candidates for Trusteeships on the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. Each of the six candidates submitted written answers to identical questions which were intended to elicit their opinions and philosophies on the major educational issues in our Cities.

Remove Barrier At New School

The Woods Council voted to remove a street barricade at the dead end of Wedgewood drive, adjacent to the fencing of Grosse Pointe North High School, on Monday, May 6, upon the request of M. K. Thompson of 26612 Wedgewood drive. Prior to the building of the school the street was marked "Dead End". The barricade was originally erected because of the traffic at the school building site.

Wedgewood and Maple Lane residents have offered to landscape the end of the street at their own expense.

Old World Bazaar Set In 'Village'

Commerce and Civic Association Sponsoring Event Which Runs Three Days

It will be fun for all and all for a good cause when Grosse Pointe Village becomes an old world bazaar for the Fourth Annual International Festival in the Village, May 23, 24 and 25.

From Cadieux to Neff, and spilling around the corner of St. Clair to Village Manor, the Village will take on a Mardi Gras atmosphere. Artists will have an exhibit in tents on three corners of the Kercheval-St. Clair intersection; some of them will be doing sketches and caricatures of Village shoppers.

Ethnic groups from churches, clubs and associations throughout the metropolitan area will have booths of their traditional handicrafts, ethnic foods, wearing apparel, art objects, cookbooks, toys, and gift items. All profits from their sales will go to various benevolent and civic projects.

To Festive Costumes With a few festive participants garbed in the costumes of their ancestral provinces or villages, the sellers will be almost as colorful as their wares.

Groups taking part will include: American Indian—McCourt Shoes; Armenian—Jacobson's; Chinese—Village Manor; (Continued on Page 39)

Strike Delays New Park Pool

Because of the building trades strike the swimming pool, now under construction at Grosse Pointe Park's waterfront park, will not be completed in time for the annual Memorial Day opening.

However, there will be picnicking, lake swimming and other customary activities there including the two new children's wading pools, which have just been completed, according to Robert Slone, Park city manager. The Three Mile Drive Park also will be opened for the summer on Memorial Day.

Mr. Slone said it would require 45 days to complete the new swimming pool and bathhouse after the strike is settled.

Lower Tax Rates In Farms, Woods; Budgets Approved

All Taxpayers Will Not Benefit, Due to State Law on Equalized Valuation, Farms Assessor Carroll Lock Points Out

At a public hearing held on Wednesday, May 15, the Farms council approved the city's fiscal 1968-69 budget amounting to $1,737,962, and lowered the tax rate from 13.01 mills to 12.75 mills. The new budget is $173,513 higher than that of 1967-68.

The 12.75 mills ($12.75 per $1,000 assessed State Equalized valuation) although indicating that the tax rate has been lowered, does not mean that all taxpayers will benefit by this rate, explained City Assessor Carroll Lock.

The Farms, just as other communities in Michigan, are compelled under a recently passed State Law, to assess all property at State Equalized Valuation, or 50 percent of the present market value. In a number of cases, taxpayers may find that even under the lowered tax millage, their taxes might be higher, Lock said. This is beyond the control of the city, he added.

Nevertheless, he pointed out, even under the adjusted tax rate, the amount needed is collected to operate the city for the fiscal year.

Budget Broken Down The following is the budget as approved by the Farms solons: Administrative—$138,888; Police—$333,325; Fire—$243,760; Public Service, $31,355; Public Works, $334,049; Recreation, $102,025; Municipal Court, $3,250; Sewage Pumping, $57,585; General, $113,105; Major and Extraordinary, $290,292; and Debt Service, $90,350.

The tax levy is expected to bring an estimated $1,214,337; estimated revenues—State shared fines, permits, license fees, etc., $426,625; and repatriated surplus, $97,000, which makes the total financing of the budgeted $1,737,962.

The Water Fund budget revenue is estimated at $229,220, with expenses set as follows: Filtration and Pumping, $105,107; Distribution and Administration, $96,861; Depreciation, $36,000; Estimated Net Loss, $8,748.

The proposed capital expenditures to be made from earnings are $3,500.

Boys Toss Fire Bomb on Porch

A dangerous plastic container, filled with gasoline, then lighted, was thrown on the porch of Katherine Maellering, 704 Lincoln, on Saturday, May 18.

Fortunately the container was immediately discovered by the resident. The only damage was a stain on the porch cement. Mrs. Maellering told officers that her doorbell rang around 9:15 p.m., when she answered it she saw two boys around 15 to 17 years of age fleeing north of Charlevoix. It was then she discovered the plastic container.

Near the container officers found two empty beer cans. The container was turned over as evidence to the Detective Bureau.

Hope to Reach Center's Drive Goal Memorial Day

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's 1968 Family Participation Campaign has reached the $76,888 mark edging past the amount given last year by this date. Also 4,855 families have been heard from—a record number of givers for this point in the drive.

Center staff and volunteer workers this week are concentrating on the last effort of the drive—namely, a telephone follow up to givers of record not yet heard from.

William F. Huettnerman, president of the War Memorial Association; Harry W. Mellen, treasurer; and William B. Cudlip, chairman of this year's campaign, are all confident that the goal of $80,000 necessary to operate in the new fiscal year beginning August 1 will be met and that a new record number of participants, over 6,000 families, will be achieved.

Mr. Huettnerman is planning to announce appreciation of the community's support of its "living" War Memorial next Thursday at the Annual Memorial Day Service honoring those from Grosse Pointe who have given their lives in national conflicts.

Farms Solons Set Hearing For May 27

Special Session Called to Discuss Recommended Improvements to Cost Estimated $90,000

The Farms council has called a special meeting to be held in the municipal chambers, 90 Kerby road, on Monday, May 27, to hear recommendations for proposed improvements at Kerby Field, Kerby and Chalfonte, which would cost an estimated $90,000.

The report was prepared by a committee of six interested citizens, appointed by Mayor William Butler last November, and chaired by Councilman Richard Hudson. Besides the councilman, the other members of the committee are Mrs. Nancy Waugaman, Dean Riddle, Robert Weyhing and H. Gordon Wood.

The group solicited suggestions and requests, considered all outdoor sports and games, and conducted its own survey, before writing the report and making recommendations. This is the committee's finding:

That all present facilities, (two 60-foot diamonds, one 90-foot diamond, and one football field), be retained, but relocated, so that tennis courts can be added and skating conditions improved; that the present field house be replaced as soon as possible; and that recreational supervision, maintenance and landscaping be improved.

New Diamond Planned

That the easterly 60-foot diamond be dismantled and relocated in the southeast corner of the field. This new diamond should include underdrains and a canopy on the backstop, but, in order to retain the foot ball field, cannot have an outfield fence. Estimated cost is $10,000.

Build a new field house east of the present field house near the present right offed fence. This building should include restrooms, equipment storage rooms, and a large room for skaters warming. Estimated cost $25,000.

In the area now occupied by the easterly diamond, six tennis courts should be built, and arranged in sets of three courts so that one set can be used for hockey and the other, for plain skating in the winter. These courts should be outfitted to accommodate volleyball, badminton, basketball, etc., if possible, and should include permanent floodlighting for evening use. Estimated cost is $40,000.

No Artificial Ice

The committee does not recommend artificial ice skating facilities, since it was advised (Continued on Page 2)

Shores Voters Retain Officials

At a regular election held on Tuesday, May 21, Shores voters returned all incumbents to office, and approved an amendment to the Village Charter which will give municipal employees better pension benefits. A total of 760 electors, out of approximately 1,800 cast their ballots, according to released figures.

Gilbert T. Jerome, unopposed for Village president, and Clifford B. Loranger, unopposed for clerk, drew 702 and 704 votes, respectively. They will serve for two years.

Frank A. Colombo, who was an appointee to the Village Board of Trustees, and who was unopposed for the post which still has one year to run, received 697 votes.

The Trustee incumbents made a relatively good showing for the number of votes cast. Gerald C. Schroeder lead with 587; C. Bradford Lundy, Jr., received 573; and Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., finished with 508. The tenure is two years.

The newcomer who challenged the incumbents, Daniel R. Beck, trailed the election with 357 votes.

The proposition to amend the charter passed; the "yes" vote was 685, and "no", only 59.

BOTHERSOME BOYS
Mrs. Bruce Neff called City police on Tuesday, May 14, to report neighborhood boys were trying to pick up newly-laid stones near her driveway. She told police that she has had similar problems with the boys before but has not reported them to the police. She added that she believed the leader of the group was a 12-year-old boy who lived on Notre Dame. She requested officers to observe her residence while out on patrol. All cars were notified to do so.

Reasons for Quitting Race

ample, the attempt to prevent Dr. Martin Luther King from speaking in a school facility. The record of their actions in creating dissension and in sowing suspicion speak louder than any words that I might add.

Organized Group

"It seems that the same organized group that presented us with these two people is now out to capture the School Board by supporting two new candidates, Dr. Von Gruenigen and Mr. Halsey. Apparently, the same group, well financed, well organized, is again playing upon the fears of the community; innuendoes and pieces of misinformation are being circulated; the anonymous publications are appearing. If successful, these four people: Fuchs, Sandberg, Von Gruenigen, and Halsey will have three more years, three years of School Board majority, three years to tear down rather than build up.

"There are many concerned citizens who are strongly opposed to this organized group and its candidates, and my duty to the community seems clear. I cannot create division among the great majority of people who want a better, not a weakened school system. I am withdrawing on the positive basis that our schools will be served best by the election of Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Allen to the Board, averting a greater catastrophe than has already been presented.

Grateful for Privilege

"In my capacity as a private citizen, I will continue to work for better schools. Serving Grosse Pointe has been a privilege, one for which I thank the many people who have had confidence in me. I hope that their confidence will result in a resounding vote for continued excellence in the Grosse Pointe Public School System and the election of Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Allen."

Malcolm R. Lovell, Jr., who had filed petitions on May 7 as a candidate for the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, has announced his withdrawal from the race.

In announcing his withdrawal, Lovell said, "I believe that this year the Grosse Pointe community is in a position to make some rather significant decisions regarding the direction in which it will move in the years ahead. I believe that a proliferation of candidates at this time would act to encourage the dominance of a minority view rather than to obtain the overall consensus which is needed in our community today.

"Although normally I believe a community should encourage a large number of qualified candidates to seek posts on the school board, I believe this year to be the exception which proves the rule," he said.

"My interest in the Grosse Pointe School System," Lovell added, "is not a fleeting one. I hope the Board will feel free to call upon my services as a concerned citizen at any time it is believed I might be of value. In addition, it is my intention to offer my services to the community as a candidate next year."

Parcells Plans Music Program

The Parcells Junior High School Music Department, under the direction of Donald McNew, will present its 16th Annual Spring Music Program in the Parcells Auditorium, Friday night, May 24, at 8 o'clock.

The 80-member Parcells Symphony Orchestra will begin the program with "Minuetto" from Symphony No. 8, "Finale" from Symphony No. 7 by Carl Ditters von Dittersdorf; "Bouree and Musette," "Allegro for String Orchestra," "Siboney" and highlights from "The Sound of Music."

The Parcells Cadet will follow with a selection of lively numbers including "Summit March," "Prelude" from Sonata Da Camera, Op. 5, No. 8 by Archangelo Corelli; "Appalachian Suite" and "Dancing Reeds" featuring the clarinet talents of William Benzen, Julie Remter and Pam Candler.

Featured in a French Horn quartet, Janet Crossen, Roger Johr, Robert Godefroi and Cynthia Edwards will perform Milton Dieterich's memorable "Symposium."

The Concert B will round out the night with "The Golden Eagle March," "Florentine Festival Overture," "Contemporary" and "The Shadow of Your Smile."

Dr. William L. Craig, principal of the new Grosse Pointe North High School, and Vincent Peterson, principal of Parcells Junior High School, will preside at the annual presentation of scholastic awards.

Tickets may be obtained at the door: Adults, 50 cents; Students, 25 cents.

Pointer Named To Scout Post

Harry J. Chancey of Grand Marais boulevard, has been appointed Lakeshore District Commissioner for the Detroit Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

His appointment was announced by Lloyd Smith, commissioner of the Detroit Area Council, will become effective June 1. The district he will head includes Harper Woods, the Grosse Pointe areas and the eastern portion of Detroit.

Mr. Smith said "this key volunteer position involves recruiting and supervising a staff of 40 other volunteer men working with 135 Cub packs, Scout troops and Explorer posts in the Lakeshore District."

Recruitment will begin shortly, Mr. Chancey said. He added: "Our most immediate task is to find men of outstanding character who will, through their service, affect the lives of more than 5,000 boys. And young people are the most important asset of any community."

A greater number of volunteers is needed, Mr. Chancey said, because of the organization of new units. He pointed out that this is particularly true in the field of "specialty exploring," a program that offers training in automotive work and health services for boys of high-school age.

Mr. Chancey has been active in the Boy Scout movement for 12 years and has served during the last two years as chairman of the advancement committee in the Lakeshore District. A financial analyst in the Ford Motor Company Design Center, he is a three-time recipient of the company's Community Service Award.

Kerby Field Improvements

that two rinks, in addition to the one at Grosse Pointe University School should be sufficient for the five Pointes and, considering the cost, ($250,000 at GPUS), it is not believed the Farms should handle this alone.

The 90-foot diamond should be improved by the addition of tile drains. This diamond sometimes takes two days to dry out after a rain. Estimated cost is $5,000.

The middle 60-foot diamond will soon require a new backstop. When this is replaced, the diamond should be moved eastward to increase the distance between this diamond and the 90-foot diamond. Tile drains should be added. Estimated cost is $10,000.

The changes recommended would require the relocation of the football field, approximately perpendicular to Kerby road, instead of parallel to the road.

Better Maintenance

The committee members said that they believe that the general maintenance of the field should be improved. From a distance, it was said, the field looks green, but a close inspection reveals large areas of more weeds than grass. The permanent tennis-skating facility instead of the present make-shift annual arrangement will improve the situation, but a watering system should be considered and more fertilizer and grass seed, they added.

Depending on conditions, the 90-foot diamond has been sometimes nicknamed "The Dust Bowl," or "The Mud Hole." The underdrains should cure one of those complaints, and the other complaint, (which also offends residents nearby), could be relieved by improved soil and chemical treatment. Too, it is believed that no-bike-riding, nogolfing, no-dog-running regulations should be rigidly enforced.

Programs Suggested

The committee said it believed that some effort should be made to provide recreational programs at the field.

The field is used by the following groups: Little League Baseball, Babe Ruth Baseball, St. Paul Baseball, St. Paul Girls Softball, Little League Football, and St. Paul Football.

The committee suggested that a program of supervised recreation during the summer when school is out should be considered, since the field is in good use in the evenings during school season, but there is a noticeable lack of activity during the summer.

In concluding their report, the committee members recommended consideration of the residential areas. A plan of landscaping should be developed so that recreational activity at the field does not detract from the surrounding residential area.

They said they had not been able to act on all the suggestions and requests received. The baseball interests would like to have outfield fences for all diamonds and the Little League Baseball would like additional Little League diamonds.

Repentant Boys Learn Lesson

Six 12 and 13-year-old boys who broke into a golf shack at the Country Club of Detroit, 220 Country Club drive, on April 11, and damaged property in the amount of $187, have been dealt with by their parents, who have made restitution, it was disclosed by Farms Patrolman John Farley on Monday, May 19.

Farley, who has been assigned to the Plainclothes Detail of the Farms Detective Bureau, has been working on the case since the report was received of the break-in and damage.

The officer said that he had received the complete cooperation of all the boys involved, and the children's parents, the latter promising more severe punishment than a probable reprimand that would have been forthcoming from Juvenile Court authorities.

Farley said that all but one of the youngsters, with their parents, met with him in one of the boys' home, to discuss the matter. The sixth boy was unable to be present, but he later confessed his part in the incident.

The policeman gave the boys a stern lecture on the seriousness of their destructive activity, and especially regarding their breaking into the property. The lads' destruction inside the shack was spontaneous, done on the spur of the moment, Farley added.

Since restitution for the damage was made, officials of the Country Club of Detroit decided to let the matter rest, the officer said.

BULLY UPBRAIDED

City police received an anonymous call on Saturday, May 18, reporting a 12-year-old, wearing a tan jacket, was giving small children in the area of Lakeshore and Maumee a difficult time. Upon arrival officers warned the youth and advised him to leave the youngsters alone.

"Physician to mankind, friend to Saint John Hospital and contributor to his community, Dr. Louis Carbone richly deserves the recognition of all who know him. Therefore, as a tribute to his skill as a doctor, his warmth as a human being, and his generosity as a citizen, we pay tribute to Dr. Carbone as our Man of the Year."

Saint John Hospital honored Louis Carbone, M.D. as their Man of the Year, on May 15. The first president of the Medical Staff of the Hospital was presented with the award at the Annual Dinner of the St. John Hospital Men's Guild, held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

In addition to the distinct honor of first Medical Staff President, Dr. Carbone is saluted for his continued involvement in St. John activities, professional organizations and community affairs.

Born in Pompton Lakes, N.J., Dr. Carbone is one of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Carbone, who immigrated from Al-fadena, Italy. The Carbone family later moved to the industrial town of Erie, Pennsylvania, where Louis Carbone's first job was working as a laborer in the foundries at 32 cents an hour.

Humble beginnings proved to be no handicap to the ambitions of the bright young man. Dr. Carbone took his pre-medical education at the University of Chicago. He received his M.D. degree with honors from Northwestern Medical School in 1930. The Doctor then came to Detroit where, at Harper Hospital, he served both his internship and residency in medicine. He began his practice in 1932.

Dr. Carbone married Marian Rudie in 1937 in Red Wing, Minn. Now a resident of Grosse Pointe, Dr. Carbone is a proud family man. His two daughters are graduates of Northwestern University, and son David is a second-year dental student at Northwestern. His daughter Lois, (Mrs. Roger Williams), is the assistant managing editor of Yearbook Medical Publishers in Chicago. Carol, his youngest daughter, is a Ph.D. candidate in Russian literature at the University of Wisconsin.

Since 1952, when Dr. Carbone became a member of the Medical Staff of St. John Hospital, he has become increasingly active in the development of the Hospital. Election as the President of the Medical Staff came in 1966.

Dr. Carbone has also been chairman of the Executive Committee and is a member of the Joint Conference Committee. He is active in the Wayne County Medical and Michigan State Medical societies and the Michigan Society of Internal Medicine. He is an associate member of the American College of Physicians and has been on the faculty of the Wayne State University Medical School for 15 years.

An avid reader and student of American history, Dr. Carbone is particularly interested in the Civil War period. His other hobbies include a love of opera, traveling and gun collecting. He speaks fluent Italian and is active in the Italian-American community.

St. Paul Pennant Hopes Shattered

By David Fromm

St. Paul's varsity baseball squad lost a heartbreaker to St. Clement, 2-1, Monday, May 20, at St. Clement. Along with the game went the Lakers' hopes of winning the pennant.

St. Clement scored its winning run in the last inning with two away when a triple drove a man on first home. John Cracchiolo scored the one run for the Lakers on a single by Mike Corbett, who got the only St. Paul hit.

The previous Friday, St. Paul slaughtered Bishop Foley 6-1 at Foley. Doug Dzuba had three hits while Cracchiolo had two. Everyone else on the team each had one.

Remember, carelessly driven cars are deadly weapons.

Farms Police Accuse Trio

Additional information about the suspects and the missing purses. Morrison searched the area, and a few minutes later radioed that he had the trio in custody in the municipal lot.

The two women and McAfee were sitting in a Pontiac sedan, and the clerk who followed them to the lot, where she lost them, identified the women as the persons who were in the store.

Twice McAfee was asked for a key to the trunk of his vehicle, and each time he claimed he had no such key. His companions admitted being in the store, but said they were only shopping in the area. The trio were notified of the complaint and placed under arrest. A second clerk identified the women as those who had been in the store.

Three weeks ago, two other women entered the Margaret Rice store, and while one woman engaged sales personnel in conversation, the other picked out several articles of clothing and went to a fitting room to try them on.

The women, each carrying a brown paper bag, left the store at the same time. The next morning, it was discovered that a lady's suit and two dresses, worth a total of $935, were missing from the dress rack.

This matter is still under investigation by officers of the Detective Bureau.

Del. Joseph Miller, who lauded the alertness of the two clerks, for their prompt call to police and the identification of the women suspects, had only a week previously spoken to a group of merchants of the Hill, and warned of shoplifters working in the area, and their methods of operation. The talk proved effective, and he was very pleased, the detective said, and he hopes that other store personnel will also be alert and make prompt calls to police, especially if items are discovered missing.

Candidates' Endorsement

Members of the committee agreed that the task of selecting two candidates from among these five was made immeasurably more difficult by their common agreement on the really important philosophical issues which have recently arisen in the community (i.e., free speech, free assembly and censorship).

(Thus, while many members of the committee had personal preferences among the candidates, based on their conception of the candidates' potential leadership capabilities and their articulation of the issues, most could have supported any of them as intelligent, honorable and highly motivated representatives of the community.)

System Challenged

However, the problem involved not only the selection of two good candidates but also the need to meet a serious challenge to the school system by a highly vocal, ultra conservative minority group. A year ago, the moderates of the district so fractionalized their vote among a number of good candidates, as to allow the reactionary minority to elect two Trustees who received far less than a majority of the vote. The results of that election completely pervaded our educational system to this date. In large part, this occurred because there was no unified attempt on the part of the moderates to act cohesively against this highly organized minority and no organization with which to accomplish that end. This committee has approached its task with this purpose also in mind.

Two Endorsed

On May 13, the Candidate Evaluation Committee voted in secret ballot on its recommendations for endorsement of two Trustees for the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. That recommendation includes the following two candidates: Barbara Thompson and Lee Allen.

The committee recognizes that these two candidates have diverse opinions on some issues in the community but the interest of the committee was not in absolute conformity. The committee recognizes that these two candidates may not necessarily campaign as a team or even welcome the organization's support, but that was never a qualification for endorsement. The committee believes, however, that these two candidates combine experience and a fresh approach, high qualification and great personal motivation. The committee earnestly hopes that moderates throughout the community will put aside the smaller differences between themselves and unite behind these two fine candidates in a real effort to save and improve the Grosse Pointe School System.

PURSE PILFERED

Karen Brown, 1699 Severn, reported to City police on Friday, May 17, that someone had stolen her dark brown decoupage purse from the purse rack at the Neighborhood Club on that date. The purse contained identification, a driver's license and credit cards.

Retiring Chiefs Banquet Guests

A "recognition and appreciation" dinner, sponsored by a Grosse Pointe Park citizens' committee headed by Circuit Judge Carl M. Weideman, will honor both retiring Park Fire Chief William Gravi, and Police Chief Arthur Louwers at the Old Place, 15501 East Jefferson, next Monday at 6:30. Tickets, at $15 each, are still available, said Judge Weideman. Reservations may be made with Carl Schweikert, committee treasurer, at 15317 East Jef-erson. Attendance is limited to 200. Both men and women are welcome.

Ferry Boats Returning to Detroit River

Something new, exciting and fantastic is happening at nearby Peche Island, which seems destined to become one of the top recreation centers in North America. As a result of the bustling activity which has pulsed throughout the island, on next Thursday, Memorial Day, sleek ferry boats will be seen on the Detroit River for the first time in 26 years. They will carry passengers from Detroit and Windsor docks to view, from the boats, the first of three stages of a development which ultimately will cost $35 million.

Historic Peche Island, in Lake St. Clair just above the mouth of the river, long has been a haven of sorts for thousands of boat owners, a substantial percentage of them from the Grosse Pointes.

For many years past Peche has been mostly deserted, and made unsightly, and almost uninhabitable by its dead trees, wild and matted foliage, a thick carpeting of brambles, clogged canals, and piles of debris.

In Canadian waters, a short distance from both the Windsor and far eastern Detroit shorelines, the island has been completely cleared and refurbished under the direction of its new owner, Sirrah Limited, of which Emanuel J. Harris, prominent Detroit business man, is the principal owner.

Debris Moved Out
Now the debris has been removed, the canals cleared and dredged, bridges repaired, and footpaths restored. First visitors to the "new" island will see the results of an extensive spring-planting program, which includes trees, shrubs and flowers.

However, they will not disembark from the ferry boats onto the recently completed quay, or visit a newly-constructed replica of a Nova Scotia fishing village, with restaurant and general store until July 1, when the island opens to the public.

There also is a spic and span sandy swimming beach on the Lake St. Clair side of the island, where a medium but steady current creates, now being prepared for the opening according to Harris, "the most ideal and purest conditions for that sport in the Detroit-Windsor area."

Ambitious Plans
Designed to accommodate three million visitors annually, the over-all plans include a golf course, ski hill, cable cars, boats, beach houses, chalets, hotels, exclusive shops, fine restaurants, observation tower with revolving restaurant, and horse-drawn carriages.

Four all-steel boats of identical design, 70-feet long, with a 23-foot beam, recently completed by Hike Metal Products Ltd., at Wheatley, Ont., will be formally christened at ceremonies in Dieppe Park on the Windsor waterfront, next Wednesday afternoon at 4:30.

Each boat has a 200-passenger capacity, with 60 roomy contour seats on the upper sun deck, and 140 plush vinyl-covered seats on the main deck. They will begin 60 minute cruises to and from Peche Island from Civic Center Drive near Third street, Detroit, and the foot of Ouellette in Windsor at 9 a.m. on Memorial Day. Boats will leave every 30 minutes until 9 p.m.

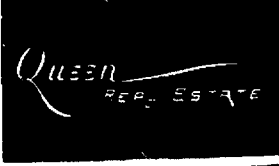

The island now is being serviced from the Canadian mainland by submarine hydro-electric power, and underwater telephone cables. Sanitary sewage is being pumped to the mainland into the City of Windsor's sewage system.

Named by French

Peche Island was named by French voyageurs who stopped there on fur-hunting expeditions a couple of centuries ago. The word is pronounced "Pesch," and has three different meanings in the language of those early trappers—"fishing, peach, and sin." In recent years the name has been Anglicized so that most people now call it "Peach."

For more than 100 years the island has been privately owned. The first recorded holders of a title were the Laforet family. Next, in order, were Hiram Walker of Canadian distillery fame, the Detroit and Windsor Ferry Co., and the Riverside Construction Co.

The present owner, Mr. Harris, purchased the island in 1952.

Why don't you settle that newspaper strike?

The letter reproduced here, while dated April 15, was received by The Detroit News on May 15, 1968. The letter accompanied by petitions signed by 251 News readers carries its own message. We urge you to read it and our reply.

Mr. Martin Hayden, Editor
Detroit News

Dear Mr. Hayden,

We, the undersigned, concerned by the continuing stalemate in your labor negotiations are civically and personally disturbed by the impact you are having on the economic, political, social, educational and entertainment fields of our community.

We do not know of the righteousness of either side's stand, but we do unanimously agree that your private positions must be subordinated to the greater common good of the public.

We believe that your inability to demonstrate the statesmanship required for leadership in our great metropolitan community demands action by those of us who are most affected, the public. Therefore, we the undersigned, hereby promise, if the strike is not settled by April 30, to enforce an economic boycott upon you and the unions to bring the most pressure possible to resolve the impasse and return normalcy to our city. We promise to cancel our subscriptions on that date for a period equal to the number of days you have been on strike since November 1967.

Your good will and concern proved by successful negotiations on or before April 30 is solicited.

A copy of this letter will be sent to the President of the newspaper unions.

cc: Mr. J. Cavanagh,
Mayor of Detroit

Attachment

Dear Petitioner:

As a News reader, you deserve a serious response to your petition to Mr. Hayden.

We share your disturbance over the length of the strike and your wish to settle it promptly. We'd like also to share with you some of the problems that prevent a settlement.

But first may we comment on your last sentence? There is, unfortunately, no one president of the newspaper unions. A loose confederation of newspaper unions exists and meets from time to time. It has no power to negotiate for the 14 unions nor authority to ratify the 23 separate contracts involved. The two newspapers must deal with the individual unions.

Because each union's negotiators are elected by its members, something like a political atmosphere prevails. Each negotiator tries to outdo the other in securing an advantage for his membership. This is understandable—this is partly what each is elected to do. But the effect is a leap-frogging of demands that cannot be met and can result in a long strike by one or more unions.

For a number of years and several rounds of negotiations, Detroit newspaper bargaining has been "pattern" bargaining: the first union to settle a contract set the basic money package for the other unions. The other unions have found this acceptable, until this year.

This year the Teamsters settled first (as they did in the previous round of negotiations in 1965), and settled for a large pay increase. But some other unions want more. They still are competing with the Teamsters and with one another.

While this is not merely an economic strike over questions of wages and hours, the offer accepted by the Teamsters is impressive. It would bring weekly wage scales of craft unions to a much higher rate than the average for their fellow members in the top 20 cities. For example, Detroit printers already are paid a weekly base wage of $164.09. Acceptance by the printers of the newspapers' three-year settlement with the Teamsters would bring this scale up to $175.09 weekly during the first year of a new contract. The average of the top 20 cities as of May 1, 1968, is $160.33.

Some people ask us: "If you are willing to pay such high wages why not give a few dollars more and settle this?" The answer is that money alone is not the answer.

A few unions now are trying to take advantage of this prolonged and most damaging strike to extract fundamental changes in working conditions, management control, and employment procedures. If agreed to, these changes would be detrimental to the long range economic health of the newspapers and thus of their employees.

In short, we are trying to survive.

A number of daily metropolitan newspapers have died in recent years and others are barely alive. The Detroit News is subject to the same ills, pressures and demands that killed five newspapers in New York City in a very few years.

Here are some of the demands we consider unreasonable:

- A demand that a union will decide the number of its members to be assigned to certain jobs, whether or not that number is necessary to get the job done.
- A demand that a union be permitted to control hiring so that the available work force is restricted. This would lead to more shifts at premium rates, and hence to unjustified and unnecessary extra costs to the newspapers.
- A demand that supervisors, members of management, be subject to disciplining by the union members they supervise.
- A demand that a union have control over how many newspapers may be printed within a given time, and the times at which The News will be printed.

These are but a few of the many difficult demands that have been made. Some would dilute the right of management to manage. The result would be chaos.

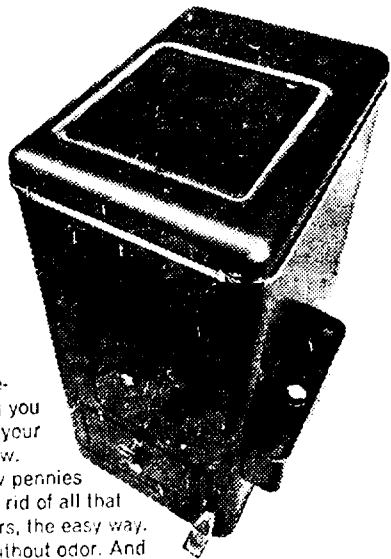

Acceptance of reasonable demands is one thing. Surrender to unreasonable demands for the sake of peace now would be both short-sighted and temporary. We want not only to resume publication soon—we also want to stay in publication after we resume. We believe that you, as a News reader, want that, too.

Again, thank you for the concern expressed in your petition. We care very much about our readers. We are doing everything reasonable men can do to settle these disputes and return to you the newspapers you want—now and for the years to come.

Sincerely yours,

Peter B. Clark

Calvin J. Werner Named Chairman of Torch Drive

A General Motors Corp. vice-president, Calvin J. Werner, of Birmingham, has been named general chairman of the 1968 Torch Drive.

The appointment of Werner, general manager of the Cadillac

Motor Car Division, was announced by United Foundation president Wendell W. Anderson Jr., of Grosse Pointe.

Anderson, president of the Bundy Corp., said the UF officers chose Werner to direct the world's foremost united fund campaign "because of his outstanding leadership qualifications and his wholehearted efforts on behalf of the 1967 Torch Drive."

"We are delighted Mr. Werner has accepted Detroit's top volunteer position and is willing to contribute his time and talents so generously," he added.

At a press conference called to announce the appointment, Anderson joined the new general chairman in paying tribute to Grosse Pointe Robert B. Sample, president of Wyandotte Chemicals Corp., who led the 1967 Torch Drive team to success despite an array of obstacles.

"According to the final report," Anderson said, "Mr. Sample's campaign raised $27,573.109, an amount no other community has been able to approach in a single drive."

"More remarkable," he continued, "is that Bob was able to do this in a year when Detroit suffered unprecedented handicaps including strikes in the automotive industry, civil disorders and increased taxes."

"Mr. Sample set a record for fund raising that will be difficult to equal," declared Werner, who served as the General Motors group chairman for the 1967 campaign's automotive and suppliers unit.

The new campaign general chairman said his first concern will be to select leadership for the Torch Drive's solicitation and promotion units.

"I shall begin immediately to seek another winning team of industrialists, labor leaders, business and professional men, and housewives from all areas of our metropolitan community," Werner said.

He estimated that more than 150,000 volunteers will be needed to carry the campaign message to contributors in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties.

Approximately 60,000 of these will be housewives needed to ring doorbells in the residential solicitation. Others will call on fellow workers in factories, offices and stores.

To promote the 1968 drive, Werner will call on hundreds of the community's top advertising, public relations, press, radio and television personalities.

He will give final approval to the newspaper advertisements, posters, and radio and television announcements used during the campaign.

The general chairman also will approve the 14-minute color appeal film produced before the drive for viewing by more than a million Detroiters in meetings, theaters, and on television.

A native of Dayton, O., where he still maintains a home, Werner came to Detroit December 1, 1959, as general manager of the GMC Truck and Coach Division. He was named a General Motors vice-president six days later.

Promoted to his present position with the company in September, 1966, Werner also is a member of the General Motors administration committee and serves on the board of regents of General Motors Institute.

He joined the General Motors Delco Division as a toolmaker apprentice while a student at the University of Cincinnati where he received his electrical engineering degree.

Between 1945 and 1951 when Werner served as Delco's chief engineer, 64 U.S. patents were granted covering many products still in production and resulting from his efforts.

He was promoted to manufacturing manager of Delco Products in 1951 and was named general manager of the Moraine Products Division in 1955.

The new Torch Drive general chairman is a past president of the Engineers' Club of Dayton, a fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, a life member of the American Ordnance Association and past president of its Michigan Chapter, and a trustee of the Foremanship Foundation.

He also is a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers, Tau Beta Pi and Eta Kappa Nu.

Garden Experts Start Judging

The Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society began judging business locations in this area in mid May. Each year two awards are made for the most attractive and best maintained grounds throughout the summer.

Each month a group of members visit and score grounds in competition.

The awards will be presented to the winners at the Society's annual banquet in November.

Michigan Boasts 6 Famed Bridges

Be a Michigan Minuteman. Take a minute to tell someone about Michigan's big bridges over big water. There are six.

The Rouge River Bridge on I-75 is Michigan's newest big bridge, two miles long and eight lanes wide, finished in December, 1967, at a cost of $28 million. As you drive north it gives you a panoramic spectacular of downtown Detroit; as you drive south, a breathtaking view of Detroit's downriver industry. Toll-free.

Big Mac, stretching nearly five miles over the Straits of Mackinac, is one of the great bridges of the world. When it was completed in 1957 at a cost of $100 million our Upper and Lower Peninsulas were joined, as far-seeking Michigan people had said for decades they one day would be. Toll for an automobile is $3.75. There's hope the toll can soon be lowered substantially.

The International Bridge, two miles long, arches over the St. Mary's River and the famous Soo Locks between Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan and Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario. It was completed in 1962 at a cost of $20 million, financed by the Canadian and American governments and their province and our state. Auto toll is $1.25.

The Ambassador Bridge, a suspension-type span like Big Mac, crosses the Detroit River between Detroit and Windsor. It was completed in 1929 at a cost of $20 million, is privately owned. Auto toll is 60 cents.

The Blue Water Bridge is a three-mile arch over the St. Clair River between Port Huron and Sarnia. It was completed in 1938 at a cost of $4 million, financed by the two federal governments and Michigan and Ontario. Auto toll is 25 cents.

The Houghton-Hancock Bridge over the Lake Superior short cut across the Keweenaw Peninsula, has a four-lane highway on the upper level and a railroad track on the lower. It goes up and down like an elevator to a height of 100 feet. It was opened in 1959. Our State Highway Department built it at a cost of $11 million. No toll.

Be an aggressive Michigan Minuteman by sending the State Highway Commission's attractive folder on Michigan bridges to some people you know in other states, with your personal note inviting them to see Michigan and its bridges. The folder describes 30, including Michigan's six covered bridges. The Commission's Public Information Division, 7th floor, Stevens T. Mason Bldg., Lansing 48926, will be glad to send you a reasonable supply.

Society Inducts French Students

Twenty-seven students at St. Paul High School fulfilled the requirements for membership in the French National Honor Society. They have maintained high semester averages and have given consistent performances not only in French but in other subjects as well.

The candidates were inducted into the Society Honoraire at a school assembly held Friday, May 17, in the auditorium. Francoise Babel, an exchange student from France addressed the students at this time.

In the French IV class, Christelle Lewandowski, Debbie Maloney, and Marie Robert qualified for this honor. French III students Susan DePonio, Michael Ferrell, Elizabeth Kilbourn, Melanie McShane, Patricia Phillip, and James Webb were other candidates. Also inducted were French II pupils Peter DeGalan, Ronald Hagg, Mary Ann Igna, Mary Schaffner, Christine Schneider, Terry Allard, Mary Margaret Tenbusch, Marlene Kain, and Eileen Pomaski.

Others included Barbara Eldredge, Deborah Hendricks, Theresa Gallagher, Rosemary Monaghan, Sarah Cillette, Rosemary D'Hondt, Janet Eagan, Gail Fayad, and Lyn Duffield.

The object of the French National Honor Society is to stimulate interest in the study of French.

- JAN. 21, 1968—Torino starts the season, taking the first 5 places in the Riverside 500.

Out there on the big banked tracks of the NASCAR circuit it's flat out go—no favors asked, none given. All Grand National competitors are specially modified and driven by professionals. So what it all grinds down to is the fact that the car that took the checkered flag packed an extra something the others couldn't come up with. And the fact is that Torino has won 6 out of 9 major NASCAR races held so far this year.

One further fact: The Ford engineers who create the winners on Sunday have built into the Torinos you drive on Monday the kind of ruggedness and reliability you need.

Torino hardtops, fastbacks and sedans have a full 116-inch wheelbase (longer than 38 competing models) for a smoother ride, more room, and up to 20% more trunk space. There's a whole range of Six and V-8 engines and a total of 14 models to choose from.

Is it any wonder that Fairlane/Torino is America's best selling intermediate—today's fastest growing class of cars. Get in a Torino and know what it's like to drive the leader!

Graduation Set For June 13

Grosse Pointe High School's 1968 graduating class will hold an outdoor commencement this year on Thursday, June 13. The exercises are tentatively set to begin at 6:15 o'clock and will be held on the football field. Students and parents will sit on the 50-yard line in the bleachers. Temporary bleachers will be set up on the track for additional seating.

In case of inclement weather, the gymnasium will also be set up. Joe Black, senior class president, said a special ticket system is currently being formulated.

School authorities hope to have Fisher road closed off so outside noises will not disrupt the ceremonies.

Since the senior class is unusually large this year, there will be no adult speakers other than the principal, Jerry Gerich, who will say a few words then formally introduce the class to Dr. Theos Anderson, superintendent of schools.

Stephen Gibson and Mairgrid McIntosh have been selected to be the commencement speakers with Catherine Griffith as alternate. Selections are made through nominations of the entire senior class. Then five boys and five girls who have the most votes are selected to try-out before a committee of seniors and faculty members.

'Living Theater' Brought To GPHS Drama Students

By Pepper Whitelaw

"Living Theater" came to Grosse Pointe High School through the conscientious efforts of three of the High School's teachers.

It all began when Mrs. Elizabeth Gabhart, substitute in Frederick Nelson's speech class, decided her students should have something tangible to hang onto in their study of drama. Fortunately, and quite coincidentally, Geraldine Bertovick and Charles E. Krauz felt the same way. AND all their students were currently studying drama.

The situation was perfect, so Mrs. Gabhart asked them if they would like to join forces in an effort to present to their students "this something special" in the way of drama study.

Four days and a dozen phone calls later, Mrs. Gabhart had made arrangements with Wayne State University's touring company, which was currently presenting Eugene O'Neill's, "The Hairy Ape," to come to Fries Auditorium with this production. All the arrangements could not have been possible without the support of the Michigan State Council for the Arts, 7310 Woodward, in Detroit.

The Council, proposed by Governor George Romney and established by the 1966 Michigan Legislature, provides a wide variety of programs and services in the performing, visual and literary arts, and makes these programs available to community groups and organizations throughout the state.

Over 225 students clamored into seats at Fries Auditorium, students from the three classes, plus seniors and honor students who were just plain interested, to view this expressionistic play with its unusual sets and modern approach. The production was experimental in nature.

One of the most exciting features of this group's appearance before the students was that the students were allowed to watch the stage being set, the sound and lighting effects being arranged . . . actually seeing the background for the production taking shape.

Then a demonstration of the application of a character make-up took place right on the stage . . . they watched an ordinary male transformed into a rough and tough stoker. Following this demonstration they had a better idea of how important a part make-up plays in establishing a character.

Dave Davis, director of the play, conducted a question and answer period after the performance. He later confided to the teachers that he was surprised and thrilled over the students' ability to pick out the weak spots in the production, and at the quality of their questions.

He concluded his presentation to the students by explaining special sound and lighting effects and symbolic acting techniques.

All three teachers were delighted with this opportunity to present their students with theater in action and felt that the students learn a great deal more from witnessing drama and drama production than they ever would have learned through reading about it.

These teachers lifted the curtain of written material and presented the students with drama in its true living form. What an exciting experience for their students! Wouldn't education benefit tremendously if more of the imaginative and creative world were brought into the classroom?

Maybe you as a parent can help. Do you have a gift of imagination and creativity? Why not offer that gift to your son or daughters' teachers? That could be your contribution to the school system!

Students Enjoy Civics Studies

Robert Waldon, Representative for the First State House District and House Speaker, addressed the assembled 9th grade at Pierce Junior High School, on Monday, May 13.

The topic discussed was the law-making process in the State Legislature. The talk was the culmination of Civics studies of State government leading up to a visit to Lansing later in the week by 319 ninth grade students.

On Wednesday, May 15, 183 students boarded four buses at noon. On the way to the capitol they toured the Michigan State University Museum which includes an exhibit on Michigan history. A highlight of the trip for the students was observing the final action on the House floor on the open housing bill. On the way home, the students disembarked at a roadside park on the Red Cedar River to eat sack lunches.

On Thursday, 136 Civic students on three buses experienced a similar field trip. Teachers accompanying the group included Mrs. Kenneth Cook, John Coury, Francis Lamb and Eugene Matecin.

Trio of Young Graduates Get Lesson in Hospitality

The entire eighth grade graduating class of Ely School in Big Rapids, Mich. — three boys — learned about Michigan hospitality from the staff at Greenfield Village just as the State turned its attention to hospitality as the theme of this year's Michigan Week.

The 13-year-olds were graduated from one of the lower Peninsula's few remaining single-room schools.

For the past two years, Fred Knopf, Terry VanWestrenian and Mike Kilmer planned a graduation visit to the Detroit area. Topping their list of attractions to see was Greenfield Village in Dearborn. When the Village heard of their plan, the public relations staff decided to make the trip an outstanding event for the youngsters.

The boys had never been more than 50 miles from home.

Through the cooperation of various agencies, Fred, Terry and Mike had a graduating trip that they will always remember. Their 3-day tour got under way just before Michigan Week, and the hospitality they were shown was intended to be representative of the way Michigan hosts should treat all guest travelers.

The boys, their teacher and two other adults drove from Big Rapids to the Fairlane Inn in Dearborn Saturday morning, May 18. Shortly after arriving they headed to Tiger Stadium to see their first live major league ball game. Following the game the group was escorted south to Canada to enjoy dinner in a foreign country as guests of the Viscount Restaurant.

After church on Sunday, much of the day recalled 300 years of American history as the youngsters strolled through Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village before taking a city-sponsored tour of Detroit.

Dawn broke early on Monday for the boys since they had to rise at 5:30 a.m. to be on time for a television appearance (on WXYZ-TV's "Morning Show"). They then visited the Detroit Zoo before starting on their return to Big Rapids.

As they left, Michigan Week was in progress. The boys then knew first hand what the Week's theme of hospitality is all about.

Causing Accident Earns Fine, Jail

Erskine Harris, 27, of 4780 Townsend, Detroit, was sentenced by Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytell on Monday, May 20, to pay a fine of $100 and to serve three days in the Wayne County Jail, or an additional five days, if the fine is not paid. Harris was found guilty of two traffic violations.

Harris was arrested on Sunday, May 19, by Farms Patrolmen Vincent Peters and Samuel Cardella, who observed the motorist traveling east on Mack avenue in an erratic manner. The policemen witnessed Harris' vehicle run into the rear end of another auto parked in front of 18535 Mack, causing extensive damage to both cars.

The officers said that Harris failed to produce an operator's license and registration to the car he was driving, and at the station, it was verified that the man had never acquired a Michigan license. The vehicle driven by Harris found to be registered to J. C. Harrison of 77 East Canfield, Detroit, who later arrived to prove ownership.

Harris was issued violation tickets for reckless driving and for Michigan license never acquired and was placed in a cell in default of $150 bond. A short time later, he complained of a stiff neck and was conveyed to St. John Hospital for treatment, after which he was returned to jail.

GPARC Parents' Discussions Set

A five-week pilot discussion group for the parents of retarded children will be inaugurated at 8 p.m. Tuesday, May 28, in the Neighborhood Club.

The program is being co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children, the Neighborhood Club and the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic.

The one-and-one-half hour sessions—led by Miss Carolyn Wheeler of the Clinic and Edgar Krattli of the Neighborhood Club—will extend through June 25. A modest fee will be charged.

According to Miss Wheeler and Krattli, the program is designed "to discuss some of the problems, frustrations and even joys of raising a child of limited learning ability."

Parents participating in the pilot project will be asked to share their experiences and knowledge with other parents in an organized way.

Mrs. David Hyde serves as chairman of the planning committee for the program, and additional information is available by calling Mrs. Hyde at 821-4875.

Registration is being directed by the Neighborhood Club, 885-4600.

New Harper Hospital Garage Parks 769 Cars

Construction will begin this week on a five-level, 769-car parking garage for Harper Hospital in the Medical Center urban renewal area.

It is the second phase of Harper's multi-million dollar building program, and the eleventh new development to be started or completed in the 200-acre Medical Center.

The new structure is expected to be open for staff and some public parking early in 1969.

Located at the northeast corner of Mack and John R, the 1.6 acre site was sold to Harper Hospital by the Detroit Housing Commission in 1964 as part of the urban renewal program for Medical Center No. 1 project.

The Medical Center consists of three urban renewal projects in an area generally bounded by Mack, Woodward, East Warren and the Chrysler Freeway.

An eight-story residence building at Mack and Beaubien with 146 apartments for medical staff—the first phase of Harper's expansion—was completed in 1968.

Other phases of its building program include interior modernization of the hospital's main facilities, and construction of a 348-bed, $25-million Webster teaching hospital for which a fund drive now is in progress.

Six other new developments have been completed in the Medical Center since 1963. These include:

Office Building

• A 12-story office building and two-story concourse — part of the $25 million Professional Plaza.

• Spain Junior High School (900 students).

• Friendship Baptist Church.

• A nine-acre recreation field.

• A four-story medical research building, the first of five structures to comprise the new $56 million campus of the Wayne State University School of Medicine.

• The 230-unit Medical Center Courts, the first low and moderate-income housing to be built locally with federal loan assistance.

Currently under construction in the Medical Center is a new $24 million, 320-bed Children's Hospital of Michigan, and a nine-story $22 million Basic Sciences building for Wayne State University, and clinic and consultation facilities for Children's Center of Wayne County, Inc.

In all, Medical Center urban renewal will have required clearance of 974 buildings at a city-federal cost of $26 million.

Over $200 million in new construction, including expansion and modernization by all four of the area's hospitals and a variety of low and moderate-income housing, is planned.

COLD FACTS

Life's hardly worth living for the man who picks his critic, and then he told the truth.

The new president is a native Detroit. He earned his A. B. degree at The University of Michigan in 1929 and a J. D. degree cum laude at the College of Law in 1937.

He was chief of the Legal Division, Office of Internal Revenue Service, Detroit, from 1937 to 1942, an assistant U. S. attorney, serving as chief of the Civil Division, Eastern District of Michigan, for the next two years, then entered private practice.

From 1959 to 1965, when he returned to private practice, Lungershausen was a vice-president of Detroit Bank and Trust Company. He has taught Federal taxation at the Detroit College of Law since 1946, estate planning at Wayne State University Law School for 10 years and served as associate editor of the Michigan State Bar Journal.

In addition to his active participation in the Detroit Bar, he is a member of the Taxation and Real Property Probate and Trust Law Sections, American Bar Association and State Bar of Michigan; Federal Bar Association; American Judicature Society; Scribes; Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity and Joint Conference of Lawyers and Certified Public Accountants.

GPUS Grounds Called Cleanest

During the recent clean-up drive, the Men's Garden Club made several unannounced inspections of fifteen Grosse Pointe School playgrounds between April 29 and May 13.

The inspection committee consisted of S. A. Macy, president; Michael Brady, Charles Cook, Elmore Frank, Joseph L. Leonard, and William Nill.

Grosse Pointe University School was selected first place winner of the "cleanest school ground award." "Excellent" Certificates went to Mason and Monteith Schools. "Very Good" Certificates were awarded Poupard School and Our Lady Star of the Sea School.

The Grosse Pointe Men's Garden Club wishes to compliment all the schools on the excellent condition of their playgrounds. Mr. Macy said: "The children should be proud of their efforts in the Clean-Up Drive conducted by the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council."

For those of you who missed Vernors' new slogan, here it is again.

No slogan? That's right, no slogan. Vernors is so different it doesn't need a slogan. We don't need a lot of square, so-called "catchy" phrases to tell you Vernors and Vernors One-Calorie are very different—that it's different because it's flavor aged 4 years in wood. Try gingery Vernors. The taste is unfiltered by slogans.

Emmy or Enemy Awards Prove TV's Greatest Fiasco

By Pepper Whitelaw

The Emmy Awards or Enemy Awards were presented Sunday evening ... I say "Enemy" because that production (?) proved to be television's worst enemy to date.

From the start chaos was the keynote of the program ... intermingled with Nehru Jackets and beads, turtleneck shirts and beads, beads and beads, moustaches and beads and beads ad nauseum.

The apparel for women was shapeless, floor-length gowns reminiscent of the 20's, in shimmering satins designed to be revealing ... unfortunately the revelations were disappointing. Feathers too were favorites ... apparently blinding the wearers to the ridiculous picture they created.

But we could chalk all this up to Show Biz if those were the only flaws in the evening. But to sit and suffer while Dick Van Dyke, bumble and bewildered, tried desperately to illicit a laugh from the sophisticated New York crowd while frantically trying to read the presenters' names off illusive idiot cards, was just too much. Now we know why they're called idiot cards. Van Dyke with his new long hair-do somehow lost all his lovable elfin appeal and came out looking like a weak grown man.

Frank Sinatra emceed the Hollywood contingent, wearing a tucked turtlenecked shirt and beads (of course), presented the only refreshing and professional moments of the entire evening. The presenters of the Emmys had to be seen to be believed! The Smothers Brothers appeared with the weak one wearing what appeared to be black electrical tape above his lip ... later we found out it was called a moustache. Bill Cosby, another presenter, appeared playing the role of a frock-coated preacher complete with granny glasses and a handlebar moustache.

We could go on and on but it would take more pages than our complete paper to tell the whole story, however I am sure most of the viewers were sorry they had said "sock-it-to-me" when the Awards broadcast came on, and were muttering "here come ds Judge" after the criminal way the entire evening was handled.

Phi Beta Kappa Honors Seniors

Twenty-five Grosse Pointe High School seniors were presented the Certification Award of the Detroit Association of Phi Beta Kappa on Thursday, May 9.

To win a Phi Beta Kappa certificate award a student must have achieved at least a 3.6 grade point average on a 4.0 scale during his sophomore and junior years and the first half of his senior year. Extra points for honors or accelerated courses are not included in this average. Only college preparatory courses are counted when computing the grade point average.

According to the Detroit Association of Phi Beta Kappa, although the award is a rating of high school scholarship based on academic work, "Students must have maintained a good citizenship rating throughout the three years of senior high school."

Grosse Pointe High School students who received the award are Carol Brand, Reay Brown, Wes Burnett, Cindy Clark, Lynne Cooper, Bill Crowley, Cathy Griffith, Ken Gustke, Mark James, Dale Johnson and Alice Kennedy. More are: David Lapeza, Jean McIntyre, Dave McLaughlin, Lee McLaughlin, Rita Meech, John Miller, John Palzer, Chris Polkinghorne, Lynn Ruprecht, Kurt Schmitt, Sue Schwab, Paul Simon, Nancy Teague and Steve VanBever.

ENOUGH ON NEFF

City police received a report on Saturday, May 18, from a Neff road resident, stating that sometime during the previous night persons unknown had driven a car onto his lawn at 754 Neff. Upon investigation officers found that the car also had driven over the lawn at 780 Neff.

A good slogan for motorists day: Honor the dead on Memorial Day, but don't join them.

Nature Center Subject of Talk

An illustrated story on the growing use and facilities of the Seven Ponds Nature Center will be presented by naturalist Walter Jones, as the main feature of the second annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Chapter-Michigan Audubon Society, Tuesday, May 28, at 8 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall behind the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17150 Maumee. There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of the Michigan Audubon Society was organized two years ago. Officers of the Chapter nominated for election at a brief business meeting before the film are: David C. Gillis, president; Milton W. Volkens, vice-president; Mrs. Robert T. Herdgen, Jr., secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Stewart McFadden, assistant secretary-treasurer; and H. Ripley Schemm, chapter representative to Seven Ponds Nature Center.

Grosse Pointe is one of the four Michigan Audubon Society chapters sponsoring Seven Ponds Nature Center on Crawford road near Dryden, Mich. Just an hour and a half from Grosse Pointe, Seven Ponds Nature Center offers 100 acres of marshes, lakes, streams, woods, and fields for Grosse Pointers who enjoy wildlife outings, whether individual or school and club groups. Volunteers from the four chapters prepare nature trails and natural history exhibits for the new educational building.

Those interested in joining the chapter are asked to phone Mrs. Milton Volkens at TU 2-7266, or Mrs. James Kasl at TU 1-0391.

Strike Affecting New High School

Construction of the new Grosse Pointe North High School, is approximately 99 percent completed, except for the auditorium, with the final completion delayed by the Building Trades Union strike, which began on May 1, according to information released by Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, Assistant Superintendent of Administrative Services.

Dr. Spagnoli disclosed that about 90 percent of the furniture for the classrooms is in the school building, but cannot be assembled and placed because this is the function of the carpenters, whose union is among those on strike.

The electricians, he said, are working on a day-to-day basis, and the electrical work is progressing. The painters, too, are still working.

The plasterers are on strike, but this does not have too much effect on the work to be done, since all that remains to this phase of the job is small sections of ceilings in the corridor area near the gym and the dining room area.

The pavers are still working, and for the past 10 days have been pouring asphalt on the parking lot area and driveways. This work should be completed within about two weeks, he added.

A major portion of the lighting is completed, due to the fact that the electricians are still working, but it would not be possible to complete the gym before school opens in the fall, even if the strike should end now, Dr. Spagnoli said.

Shake hands with Floyd T. Blanzky

Drop in our office and meet Floyd T. Blanzky, new Metropolitan Manager. He's here to supervise your "at home" insurance service in Grosse Pointe.

Mr. Floyd T. Blanzky, who is the new Manager of Metropolitan's local office at 18780 Mack Avenue, has been with the Company since 1956. He made his start as an Agent, was promoted 2 years later to Assistant Manager, and, in 1965, became associated with the Field Training Division. Prior to his appointment as Manager in Grosse Pointe, Mr. Blanzky was a Field Training Counselor. In taking over his duties, Mr. Blanzky, with his staff, is dedicated to the purpose of continuing and extending the high quality life insurance service for which Metropolitan is so widely and favorably known.

Only with an insurance man familiar with local problems can you work out the best insurance program to meet your needs. This "at home" service is important. Metropolitan is the insurance company that employs local people to give you friendly "home town" service.

Now Metropolitan, the Company you look to for authoritative information on physical health, offers a way to check your family's financial health—The Family Security Check-Up. It is available to everyone—whether you need insurance or not—and whether or not you have a Metropolitan policy.

Metropolitan representatives have been trained in Metropolitan's own schools and are qualified by solid experience to bring you this service. They are equipped with businesslike charts and tables that show you clearly, exactly where you stand.

Remember, Metropolitan is as local as Main Street... as close as your phone. There is no obligation—except to those you love.

Here are the members of our staff serving at 18780 Mack Ave.:

Brownell Holds Concert Friday

Brownell Junior High School's music department will present its tenth annual spring concert Friday evening, May 24, beginning at 8 o'clock in the auditorium-gym.

The 65-piece symphony orchestra, under the direction of Dewey D. Kalember, will play six selections, including: "Andalucia," by Lecuona, and "Theme from the Man of Independence" by Dello Joico, a modern composition for a film on the life of Truman. Another number will be "Profiles in Courage March" by Nelson Riddle and dedicated to President Kennedy. The string section will be featured in two numbers: "Villanelle" and "The First Sonatina" by Pleyel. Kathy Simon and Karen Walker, pupils of Mr. Tiekert, will team up to play "The Sonata in D Major for Two Violins," accompanied by D. Fisher.

Vocal groups under the direction of Daniel Evola have prepared a variety of selections to appeal to many musical tastes. Opening the concert will be the one hundred sixty-five member seventh grade chorus with two classical numbers: Handel's "Thanks Be to Thee" and Franck's "O Lord Most Holy." Ninth grade chorus will sing several variety numbers with instrumental accompaniment: "There's Always an Extra Potato" with Ken Barker on string bass, "Cecelia" and "Play a Simple Melody" with Paul Sikorski on drums, and the Cuban "Guantanamera," accompanied by Debbie Fisher (flute), Ken Barker (bass), and Paul Sikorski (drums).

Other groups include the Select Girls' Ensemble, Select Boys' Ensemble, and the Boys Glee Club.

A feature of the evening's performance includes the ambitious contemporary work (published in 1967) by Luigi Zaninelli, entitled "The World Is So Full." It is based on a collection of poems from "A Child's Garden of Verses" by Robert Louis Stevenson and classed as a Song Cycle for Treble Voices. This will be sung by the Girls' A Capella Choir.

Closing the evening of harmony will be the mass chorus and orchestra performing "From Sea to Shining Sea," based on themes from "America the Beautiful."

Student accompanists for all numbers include: Kathy Mast, Debbie Fisher, Linda Crandall, Don Daher and Christine Duncan.

Vandal Invades Monteith School

A Woods police report revealed that sometime between 7 a.m. on Saturday, May 18, and 4:15 p.m. on Sunday, May 19, an unknown person, or persons, entered the Monteith School, 1275 Cook road. Two teachers' desks were opened and contents disturbed, it was stated.

Patrolman Martin Trombley, dispatched to the school, said the culprit entered the building through a window at the southwest side of the edifice. The break-in was discovered by the school custodian, Charles Castle of 22603 Manor, St. Clair Shores.

Trombley's report revealed that the invader entered the window of Classroom 109. Two teachers' desks, one at each end of the room, had been tampered with, the officer stated, but it is not known if anything had been taken.

The intruder marked up a student's desk with crayons, then splashed white paste on the window panes before leaving, through the same window by which he had entered.

Set Pillar Chapter 475 Special East-West Night

Pillar Chapter 475 will hold a special East-West Night Thursday, May 23, at Pillar Temple on Kercheval avenue. The meeting will open at 5 and will be followed by a dinner at 6:30 o'clock.

Reservations should be made with the secretary, Betty Lou Stone, at TU 5-5835. The meeting will reconvene at 8 o'clock.

Herbert Shanks Receives Award

Herbert J. Shanks, director of the Protestant Children's Home, of Detroit, on Cook road, was recently awarded a special citation by the Michigan Association of Children's Agencies for his leadership role in the founding of that association and for his many contributions to the field of child welfare.

Mr. Shanks was one of the group's early presidents and attended the original meeting which gave it life in 1947. He has been active in this association ever since its beginning.

Mr. Shanks recently celebrated his 25th anniversary as director of the Protestant Children's Home. Prior to coming to Detroit, he served in other capacities in the same field in New England. His tenure in one locale is indicative of the confidence and trust in which he is held by his own Board of Trustees and other Child Care Agencies and Officials throughout the state of Michigan.

During his tenure the Home has changed from a single building in the city to a cottage institution covering 18 acres. It now has a recreation center and on-campus classrooms as well as a full program of remedial teaching and supervised study. Mr. Shanks' recruitment of young men and young women as summer counselors has greatly enriched campus life.

Traffic Safety Experts Warn Against Hotheads

Drivers who lose their temper in traffic, those who exceed the safe speed limits, and those who drink in excess and attempt to drive, usually can't control themselves let alone their cars, according to Garnet M. Griffin, managing director of Detroit's Traffic Safety Association of Detroit.

"Loss of control is one of the major contributing factors in the rise of Detroit-area traffic accidents this year," said Griffin. "One rash move brought on by loss of temper, or a thoughtless act in traffic caused by excess drink or speed, can lead to a tragic accident and, too often, those injured in the accident are innocent and unsuspecting motorists and pedestrians."

Griffin pointed out that a baseball pitcher who loses his control usually ends up being sent to the showers, but in driving, a motorist who loses control of his car or himself may wind up in traffic court or a hospital.

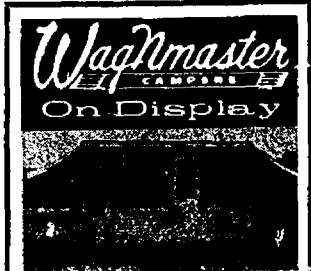

"We are now experiencing the warm weather, which we waited for so long," Griffin said. "Driving is once again a pleasant experience and the urge to 'open up a little bit' on the highways is felt by many drivers. Summer-like weather also means more persons will be taking to the road for trips and visits they had to pass by in the winter. Renewing old friendships often calls for a few rounds of cheer. Although there is no harm in getting out on the road again or having a few drinks with old friends, motorists should make sure they obey the posted speed limits and don't try to drive if they feel they've had one too many." That's why the Traffic Safety Association this month prepared colorful posters, bearing the message, Control Both Your Car and Yourself, to remind drivers that lack or loss of control could spoil not only their plans for a summer of carefree driving but also the plans of others.

Approximately 1,200 of these posters are erected on street-side standards in Detroit. In addition to the Traffic Safety Association posters, another 1,200 bearing the same message and provided by local safety organizations are posted in communities throughout the state.

Teenage Cyclist Hurt in Crash

A 13-year-old cyclist was taken to Bon Secours Hospital on Saturday, May 18, with head injuries and bruises sustained when her bicycle ran into the back right side of an automobile at Kercheval and St. Clair.

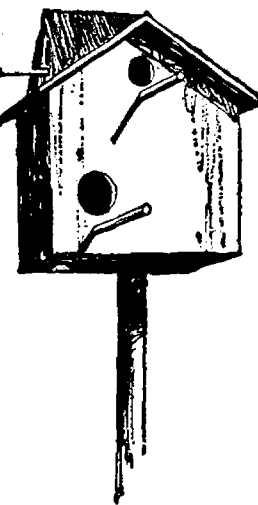

The cyclist, Debbi Tunnecliffe, 1205 Bedford, had no knowledge of what happened due to her head injuries. However, the motorist involved, Harry Giesecking, 78, was just completing a left turn when he was struck by Debbi's bicycle.

Mr. Giesecking was taken to Bon Secours Hospital after the accident because he was having difficulty breathing. When he was released from the hospital he went to the City police station to complete the accident report.

Mr. Giesecking was issued a violation for failure to yield the right of way and given a court date of May 28.

Has No License,
Driver Arrested

Trifon Kelepouris, 30, of 22941 Pleasant, St. Clair Shores, was arrested by Woods police shortly after midnight of Wednesday, May 15, when he was observed driving south on Mack avenue without lights.

Cpl. Thomas Kerving said he was on routine patrol when he saw Kelepouris, and stopped him in front of the Municipal Building, 20025 Mack.

When the officer requested the motorist's operator's license and car registration, Kelepouris claimed that he had changed his clothes at his place of employment and had left them in his wallet at the establishment.

Taken inside the station, Kelepouris confessed that his operator's license had been taken by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing. He was given a violation ticket for driving while his license was revoked.

He was released on $100 bond, and is scheduled to appear before Woods Municipal Judge John D. Goodrow on Saturday, June 8.

Driver Crashes
Car Into Fence

A Woods motorist, traveling alone west on Lake Shore road at 7 p.m. on Saturday, May 11, narrowly escaped death, or serious injuries, when his car went out of control and smashed into a fence in front of 60 Lake Shore.

John S. Scherer, 28, of 551 Oxford, emerged from his smashed up Jaguar with only bodily bruises and cuts on the hand. He told investigating Farms police officers that another driver forced him off the road.

Scherer claimed that he was traveling at 35 miles an hour, when he lost control. However, policemen at the scene said skid marks from the vehicle's tires measured a full 276 feet, from the point where he lost control, to the fence. The marks showed that the car went forward part of the way, slid sideways, and ended up with its rear to the fence.

Total property damage to car and fence was estimated at about $8,500, according to an official accident report.

Scherer was issued a violation ticket for reckless driving. A court date is pending.

Babe Ruth League

WOODS-SHORES National League

In the first game of an exciting week of baseball, the Giants trounced the Phillies, 6-1. For six and two-thirds innings, the Phillies were held hitless and scoreless. Then Louie Bruno singled and Tom VanLokeren followed with a double, driving in the Phillies' run. The only other extra-base hit in the game was a double by the Giants' winning pitcher, Steve Kennel.

On Tuesday, the Cardinal-Dodger game was rained out. This game was replayed on Saturday afternoon and was a real thriller. The Cardinals scored first and were leading 3-1 until the Dodgers rallied in the fourth inning, scoring 7 runs on singles by Moore, Rohn, Eppings, Court, Sans, Albert, and a double by Court.

The Cardinals were down, 8-3, but definitely not "out." They tallied three runs in the fifth inning and four more in the sixth, to come from behind and claim the victory, 10-8. Winning in relief was David McShane. Extra base hits were a three-bagger by Carachi and a long double by starting Cardinal pitcher, George Massau. The Fitzgibbons, caught a tough fly ball and threw to second baseman, Stavale, to double the runner.

The Giants handed the Braves a 7-4 victory by committing six errors while outbidding the Braves, 5 to 4. Winning pitcher, Brian Kingsley, was also the leading batsman for the Braves, with a triple and a single. P. G. Shirar's mighty triple accounted for most of the Giants' scoring. Chet Brown distinguished himself by making all three outs in the bottom of the second inning, handling two hot grounders and making a beautiful running catch of a long fly ball.

The Cardinals needed a win from the Phillies to remain tied for first place, but pitcher Louie Bruno combined with hitters Jack Gardner and Steve Hamman to bring the Phillies the victory, 11-3. The Cardinals committed 13 errors in the "giveaway."

On Friday, the Dodgers and the Braves met under adverse conditions when they played a cold, rainy game that was called because of darkness in the sixth inning. Winning pitcher was Mike Getz; Brian Kingsley hit three doubles and a home run, and Johnny Bell slammed out two doubles for the victorious Braves. It was a close game, with the Dodgers leading 3-1 going into the fourth inning. Then the Braves scored four runs in the fourth and six more in the fifth. Final score, 11-3 in favor of the first-place Braves.

On Tuesday Midland handed Boutin their first loss 16 to 1. Don Dilaure, the winning pitcher struck out 9 Boutin batters and added a single and a double to the Midland streak. Bob McPherson had three hits and Dave Doye had two off of losing pitcher Dennis Brys. Alan Barbaglia had two hits for the losers.

Palmer Moving defeated Kiwanis 15 to 11. Gary Eugenio picked up the win in relief as Bill Jenzen had two singles and a triple for the winners. Giving support to losing pitcher Mike Miller's cause were Doug Brown and Jay Sielaff with two hits each. Flame and Cox & Baker were rained out.

Thursday saw Palmer defeat Cox & Baker 10 to 5, as winning pitcher Jim Allard went the full seven innings. Alan Abbott received credit for the loss while relieving Ed Rood. John Konacka had two hits for Cox and Baker while Jim Allard had four for Palmer. Gig DeBacker also had three hits and Bill Jenzen. Continued on Page 22

The Braves knocked the Red Legs out of first with a 9-1 decision. The Braves sent 11 men to the plate in a big eight-run fifth inning to break a 1-1 deadlock. Tony Krauss and Dave Schadler came up with the key hits of the game.

The Cards upset the Cubs and Phil Simons pitched a two-hitter and Dan Lenahan came up with some sparkling fielding plays.

Despite a 13-4 loss for the Dodgers, Frank Munaco drove in the four Dodger runs and made a brilliant catch in short left field from his shortstop position.

Flame Furnace had to score four runs in the bottom of the eighth to edge out Boutin 9 to 8. Don Daher, who picked up the win in relief, had two singles. Ken Conlon had two doubles and a single and John Capostoto had two hits for Flame. Losing pitcher John Stitzel had two hits and was helped by a double and a single off the bat of Alan Barbaglia.

On Friday Kiwanis beat Boutin 10 to 7 as Bruce King broke out of a batting slump to start a five-run rally for Kiwanis. Winning pitcher Mike Miller also had support from Bill Horseley's two hits. Losing pitcher Alan Barbaglia had a triple and a single.

Midland edged out Cox and Baker 4 to 3. Bob McPherson had two singles and a triple and Steve Fleming had two hits to help George Quirk pick up the victory. Losing pitcher Mark Nehra had support from John Short who had a single and a double.

Palmer came from six runs behind to hand Flame their first loss, 13 to 12. Winning pitcher Gary Eugene had four hits including a triple and Mike Gill had three hits and knocked in the winning run in the bottom of the seventh. Gig DeBacker and Jim Allard each had two hits for Palmer. Don Daher had a double and a single and Jim Voight had an important base hit to help losing pitcher John Capostoto. The boys and coaches of the East Division wish to express thanks to those faithful parents who have been coming out to the games. Now that the weather is getting better they all hope to see many more mothers and fathers out to cheer.

WOODS-SHORES All-American League— West Division

After the second week of the season the All-American League, West Division, has a new leader. Pioneer Furniture jumped from a tie for second place to first, on the strength of two wins and a tie, as the final week leader, Locke Lumber, lost three games.

The boys have all played well and, undoubtedly, would play even better if the parents, relatives and friends would come out and watch the exciting baseball being played. The chilly weather has greatly cut down the attendance, and the teams hope it will pick up when it warms up.

On Tuesday the Ray Whyte team notched its first win by wallowing previously undefeated Locke, 13-1. Doug Shephard struck out nine, while allowing only two hits in his nine-inning performance. Mark Crane scored three runs, and Steve Parker had two hits to lead the Whyte attack.

In an old-fashioned slugfest,

Valley Die Cast and Pioneer Furniture battled seven innings to an 11-1 tie. Pioneer collected 15 hits but contributed an equal number of walks.

On Thursday, May 16, Pioneer defeated City Messenger, 12-9 as Dave Clark picked up the win with a 12 strikeout effort, adding three hits to his batting average.

Valley defeated Locke in a well played and exciting game, 6-4. Dave Hosea was the winning pitcher, receiving offensive support from John Tew and Joe Davey, each registering three hits and scoring two runs. Friday saw the close games, all decided in late innings. City Messenger avenged an opening day defeat by trimming Locke, 5-4. Larry Pappas tallied 11 strike-outs, but needed last inning relief from Joe Oskin and Mike Alkire to nail down the win, as Alkire got the final out with the bases loaded.

Pioneer edged Harbour Nine by getting two runs in the bottom of the seventh to win 7-6. Rick Onofrey did a good job for Harbour, striking out the side in the sixth, after the leadoff batter reached third with the potential tying run.

In the concluding game, Whyte bested Valley, 8-4, as Mike Day pitched a four-hitter, struck out nine, and had a double and a triple.

City Messenger and Harbour were rained out Tuesday, will play the make-up game Saturday. Whyte and Harbour also have a game to resume, as their Thursday encounter was halted by darkness in the third inning.

FARMS, PARK, CITY American League

The league-leading Red Sox came up against one of their more formidable opponents on Monday when they played the Indians. It took some fine pitching by Van Baman, who allowed only two hits, to get a Red Sox 3-0 victory. Along the way he struck out 12. Jay Imesch, pitching for the Indians, struck out 8. The score was 0-0 until the 5th when Guttwald singled and was driven in by Murtaugh. In the 6th Guttwald tripled bringing home Jeff Moran and Chip Jahn.

When the Yanks met the White Sox on Tuesday it was 3-0 in favor of the Sox. Kampfer pitched for the winner and it was "3" day for him. Besides the 3-0 score he got 3 hits for 3 times at bat.

The Red Sox bats boomed out again on Wednesday when they beat the Tigers 9-2. Tom Townson pitched for the winners. The score was 1-0 until the 6th when the explosion came, with Sox putting across 4 runs. They added 4 more in the 7th. Guttwald had a single, a triple and a home run. Pat Murtaugh got 2 hits to boost his season's average to .528.

The Indians managed to squeak by the Yanks on Thursday 7-6. Chris D'Hondt, pitching for the Yanks, lost a heart-breaker when he allowed only 2 hits. Jim Stevenson pitching for the winners gave up 5 hits. The score was 6-6 in the last of the seventh with bases loaded, when Jim Parker, returning to the Indians from High School play, hit a ball down the first base line to score the winning run.

The White Sox kept close on the trail of the Red Sox when they beat the Tigers on Friday 9-2. Saber of the Sox allowed 5 hits. Bert Foote led 3 for 3 while Bachma, Wells, and Saber each had 2 hits. Chaple for the Tigers had 2 hits, a double and a single.

Richmond won both games this week to capture first place in the International League.

In a nine-inning battle, Rochester outlasted Tampa 4-3. Joe Ventimiglia blasted a single to bring home the winning run. Jim Klimchuk picked up his third straight victory against no losses as he pitched Rochester to 12-9 victory over Montreal.

Toronto swept past both their opponents this week. Johnny Colandro picked up four RBI's with three doubles and Jeff Lubek pitched three no-hit innings to pace Toronto to a 10-5 decision over Hollywood. A grand slam homer off the bat of Jeff Schotzberg helped Toronto blast Buffalo 12-5.

Buffalo fought to a 5-4 decision over Columbus. Mark Peyser scored the winning run on Bill Duncan's single. Bruce Duncan did a good job for Buffalo on first base.

Columbus bounced back to pick up their first win of the season 3-1 over Hollywood. Jeff Bame was the winning pitcher. Tampa squelched Syracuse 13-8 on a home run by Steve Rogers.

The Pirates won their third straight on Monday, beating the Phillies in eight innings, 7-6. The winning pitcher was Steve Nitsche, who came on in the sixth.

The Pirates scored four runs in the top of the second, and the Phillies came back for three in their half. The Pirates made it 5-3 in the fourth only to fall behind as the Phillies scored three in their half of the fifth inning. David Domin tied it up in the top of the sixth, coming in from second base on a double throwing error.

Tom Coles, who went to right field after pitching the first three innings made a spectacular one-hand running catch of a hardhit liner over behind first base to save the game for the Pirates in the seventh inning, and after Tom Lott scored the Pirates' seventh run in the top of the eighth inning on Rod McHugh's single, Nitsche struck out the side to wrap up the win.

Saturday, May 18
Phillies vs. Yankees

The Yankees needed all the hitting power they could get today to beat the Phillies, 14-8. It started out as a one-sided game with the Yankees picking up seven runs in the first two innings. Yankee pitcher, Gil Kernan, turned in a fine performance, allowing the Phillies only two runs in the three innings he pitched. The Phillies' fourth inning was a big one as they scored five runs, featuring a two-run home run by Ken Reynolds and a double by Steve Perry, who had earlier hit an inside-the-park homer. The Yankees rebounded in their own fourth inning scoring five runs on Pete Collinson's second hit and Mike Wellard's triple. Yankee pitchers were Gil Kernan, Kelly Kelp and Kevin Kluesner. For the Phillies, Mark Emery and Steve Green.

Yankees vs. Tigers

Today the Yankees beat the Tigers, 5-4, in a close, well-played game. The Tigers scored first picking up two runs in the first inning on singles by Steve Colicchio and Dave Marrs. Yankee starting pitcher, Kelly Kelp, took control for the next two innings allowing no runs on no hits, while the Yankees tied the score with single runs in the second and third innings. Kevin Kluesner took over on the mound for the Yankees in the fourth inning and was going along well until he ran into a control problem in the fifth inning walking in two Tiger runs. Tiger pitcher, Randy Christoferson, had held the Yankees to two runs for the first five innings but got into trouble early in the sixth, giving up back-to-back singles to Gil Kernan and Kevin Kluesner. Randy looked like he was about to work his way out of trouble when he got the next two batters but Pete Collinson then hit the game-winning home run.

Senators vs. Yankees

The Yankees, led by Gil Kernan's pitching and hitting, beat the Senators, 15-2. Gil pitched the first three innings giving up only one run on one hit, a single by Dave Hein. Gil and Pete Collinson led the Yankee hitting, each getting a single, double and four RBI's off the three Senator pitchers, Jeff Palms, Steve Brown and Clark Standish. Kevin Kluesner took over the pitching duties for the Yankees in the fourth inning and allowed one run on no hits and struck out six in the last three innings. Steve Brown and Clark Standish shared the catching duties for the Senators while George Maghie went the distance for the Yankees behind the plate.

Clinic League Climaxes Year

Climaxing another "very rewarding year," the Assistance League to the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic recently held its annual meeting and luncheon at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and announced a total 1967-68 contribution to the clinic of $5,000.

The League's president, Mrs. Webster Knight, turned over her gavel to newly-elected president Mrs. Weston Jenkins.

Other newly elected officers are Mrs. James St. Denis, first vice-president; Mrs. Robert Olsen, second vice-president; Mrs. Donald Mandich, third vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth MacLeod, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Vallee, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Arthur Pfannenichmidt, treasurer.

AN HONEST WOMAN!

Mrs. William Wundram, 534 Lakepointe, went into the City police station on Wednesday, May 15, with $156 she had found in the parking lot on the south side of the Farms Market, 355 Fisher road. The money was in a silver money clip. Police found that the money belonged to Paul Gach, 345 Fisher road, and returned it to him.

Lest We Forget!

"Lord, God of Hosts, be with us yet, lest we forget—lest we forget!"

One hundred years ago next Thursday . . . May 30, 1968 . . . Gen. John A. Logan, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, ordered the creation of Memorial Day, "for the purpose of strewing with flowers, or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the great rebellion."

Since that time Memorial Day has been dedicated to ALL Americans who have given their lives in ALL wars that "this Nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom."

And so, on this 1968 Memorial Day, with thousands of America's finest youth once again dying on distant battlefields for their country, let us again resolve that "from these honored dead we take increased devotion."

Right this very second, as you pass over these words—NOW!—some sturdy American lad you may know is giving his "last full measure of devotion," so that "Government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Somewhere, at this very moment, kids who a year ago next Thursday were observing Memorial Day here at home, are facing enemy bullets half way around the world.

Memorial day becomes more hallowed as the years pass, and still another war takes the finest of our youth. War is not a game for weaklings, thus the weaklings are spared while the strong die. That is the horrid irony of all wars!

And, so, on this one hundredth anniversary of Memorial Day let us "highly resolve that those dead shall not have died in vain"—and please, dear God, let us NOT forget the maimed, the shell-shocked, and the blind, of this and other wars, many of whom face a fate much more cruel than death.

Let us not forget—EVER!

They're At It Again

After a recess of four years they're at it again! If you've been listening to newscasters on radio or television recently, you know that some of them already have become self-appointed (and perhaps self-anointed) political hatchet men. They once more are unfairly using their personal power to oppose a candidate for the office of President of the United States whom they do not favor. This is a suave gimmick long and unjustly employed by unscrupulous men at the "mike."

These characters are blatantly and blandly defying the code of ethics which is supposed to govern them. They have become the "yellow journalists" of the air waves. These once "bright young men," now showing their ages, are baring their fangs to nation-wide audiences during the minute or so they emit their venom, and should be gagged both by their sponsors and by their networks.

It just is not cricket for a smart-alec newscaster, who claims a vast following, to attack ANY candidate at any time for any reason during his program. This is not, in any sense, straight reporting. It is a nasty type of vilification which should not be tolerated. Besides, the attacked candidate has no defense, is not permitted equal time to answer the remarks made against him.

It certainly is not now, and never has been, the prerogative of any newscaster to act as a propagandist for the candidate of his choice, nor to do a hatchet job on other candidates. Certainly his job is to report the facts, and let the people form their own opinions.

Freedom of speech? You bet your boots—and all the way! But not the freedom of some eager-beaver poison dart hurler who should be duty-bound to be completely and honestly objective.

We have no objection to Rockefeller lambasting Nixon, or to Dick hurling rocks at Nelson or Ronald, or vice versa. We have no criticism when Bobby whacks at Hubert or Gene. They are all politicians, and that's the name of the game. Hit 'em hard and often!

But, when some of our top newscasters who are supposed to be bound to objectivity in their broadcasts, blatantly take sides and endeavor to sway the public in such an important event as a Presidential campaign, they have lost us. This sort of thing is strictly for editorial pages and editorial commentators.

They certainly have a right to their opinion but never should use their programs to personally propagandize a favorite candidate. Never! Besides all this, it may do their man more harm than good! W. W. F.

The Best, The Worst!

Today's "Quickie Editorial" was written 100 years ago by Charles Dickens (Tale of Two Cities): "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was an age of wisdom, it was an age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair." That's it!

Public Schools in Focus

Dr. Theos I. Anderson,
Superintendent of Schools

At the recent Board of Education meeting it was requested that I submit up-to-date facts about Grosse Pointe North High School.

First, let me discuss the cost of the building. The 335,000 square-foot facility cost $9,413,806, or $28.10 per square foot, including the performing arts center. Incidentally, the public approved the performing arts center on a separate proposition at the time it approved the construction of the building itself.

Now, how does this cost compare with comparable facilities being built today? And let me stress the word comparable. Here are some facts.

Ann Arbor's Huron High School, bid at approximately the same time as our North High, cost $8,831,000 or $30.63 per foot. With a design capacity of 1800 students, it contains 288,311 square feet, and its features include air conditioning, an auditorium, and a swimming pool.

A large addition to Southwest High School in Detroit, costing in the vicinity of $3 million, has a square foot cost of $27.90. A classroom addition to Evanston (Illinois) Township High School which opened last September cost $25 per square foot. You may be interested that architects' estimates put the price of the addition at $8,200,000. When the bids were opened it was necessary to ask the voters to approve an additional $6 million. Although the building contains classrooms, resource centers, administrative and guidance offices and laboratories, and has tinted glass and is air conditioned, it contains no auditorium and no swimming pool.

Figures provided by the J. A. Ferguson Construction Co. for the soon-to-be built second high school in Plymouth indicate a square foot cost of $26.54. The building has an auditorium and a swimming pool, but no air conditioning. Estimated cost for the 320,000 square foot structure is $8,492,000.

And, a small (180,000 square foot) high school in Waterford Township which has no pool, no auditorium, and no air conditioning, has a per square foot cost of $21.45.

A word about facilities: Grosse Pointe North High contains only one swimming pool. There is no statue and there is no escalator. Air conditioning, regarded as a virtual necessity in the drug store, super market and office, is computed at $2 to $3 per square foot over regular construction. With plans to conduct summer school at North High in the future, air conditioning is a necessity.

I might add that in addition to the cost of the building other factors enter into the construction picture. In all cases a site must be purchased and developed, architects must be paid for their design, and the building has to be equipped. These factors are not computed in the square foot cost of any of the buildings cited above.

In the case of Grosse Pointe North High School, the total figure is $12,183,383.37. This includes: piling at $406,666.49; site development at $464,289; site purchase at $689,626.88 (including all fees); architect's fees, $362,000; equipment $845,000.

There's more to be said, but it will have to wait until next week.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

In regard to the article "Women Dislike Shoulder Belts" I would like to comment.

First, I wonder what women Miss Charlotte Fancett is referring to in the May 13 Automotive News. Most of the women drivers around here can't even bother fastening their seat belts.

Secondly, since I am a woman, and know something about safety, I am horrified every day by the numbers of young mothers driving large cars too fast for safety, with young children standing or crawling around the interior. Obviously, they do not expect to ever have to stop suddenly. Also, they must assume that every other driver on the road is courteous and cautious. In the event that either of these two premises proves wrong, as they do daily, these young mothers should realize that their children will fly through the car, and/or the windshield, at impact.

God help them—as even relatively low velocity can produce broken necks, crushed skulls and many other things too horrible to mention. Shoulder belts yes or no—but at least restraint for all passengers of any age should be standard operating procedure. This should apply particularly to the young, who do not understand the lethal possibilities of an automobile.

Dear Editor:—

This week I received a "letter" through the mail, dealing with the coming school board election and it made me so angry I had to write to you.

I feel people behind the "Grosse Pointe Spectator", published by the ad hoc Committee for better schools, are bringing unsavory campaigning to our community.

People who hide behind anonymous letters are usually making scurrilous remarks about their betters. This case is no exception. Come out from behind the smoke screen, ad hoc, and tell us who you really are!! Just a couple of housewives with a few thousand spare dollars of pin money to invest in a cutesy letter, no doubt!! Where is your editorial staff listed? Tell us the truth about yourselves so that we can better judge the truth of your allegations.

You haven't the nerve, of course.

Very truly yours for democracy,
Marion Touseancy

Dear Editor:

In view of the multiplicity of civic issues that face us these days, it is only to be expected that some vital decisions may be treated lightly, unless attention is called to them through the press. I refer specifically and pointedly to the election of trustees to the governing board of the recently constituted Wayne County Community College District, which encompasses the entire area of Wayne County except the portions contained in the Dearborn Community College District and the Schoolcraft Community College District.

On June 10, as we vote for members of the Board of Education of our local school district, we shall also elect a trustee of the Community College District from District One, which includes the Grosse Pointes, Harper Woods, and a portion of Detroit. May I urge most careful consideration of the qualifications of the some seventeen candidates? The task the trustees will face is a stupendous one, indeed. Let us look for unquestioned integrity, depth of experience in school affairs, intense devotion, ample time to devote to the task, breadth of understanding, and a good business sense.

May all citizens give the selection a matter of highest priority.

Respectfully,
Charles E. Brake

CAR HIT

City police received a call from Robert Scheller, 1418 Grayton, on Tuesday, May 14, reporting a car had struck his wife's car while it was parked in back of Jacobson's that day. Mrs. Scheller obtained the license number of the vehicle. Mr. Scheller requested police to check the name of the owner so he could contact him.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Whether you know it or not, you have been observing Michigan Week and Human Relations Week—May 19-26. So you are really right in the middle of it, and we hope you will hurry to our three libraries to note our Michigan displays, perhaps take out some material pertaining to these two fields, and do some thinking about the significance of our fine state. As for human relations, can you think of a more meaningful and pertinent subject right now?

To aid you in your quest for material on the American Negro, we have compiled a listing of our holdings on this topic, and we hope you will pick up a copy of it when you are using our libraries. We are indebted for much of our material to a bibliography entitled THE NEGRO FREEDOM MOVEMENT: PAST AND PRESENT, put out by the staff of the Wayne County Intermediate School District Desegregation Advisory Project. This is most comprehensive, covering both adult and juvenile books, and broken down into such categories as history, biography, civil rights, social affairs and fiction. Perhaps you would like to know about some of our books regarding the American Negro.

Arna Bontemps has written 100 YEARS OF NEGRO FREEDOM, dealing with Negro leaders of the past, with brief comments on current leaders and their achievements. Eli Ginzberg, in his THE TROUBLE-SOME PRESENCE, reviews the 350-year history of slavery. August Meier's NEGRO THOUGHT IN AMERICA, 1880-1915, is an authoritative study of Negro thought and culture spanning the period of the close of the Civil War. The subject of slavery is also treated in M. L. Starkey's STRIVING TO MAKE IT MY HOME. Race riots are, of course, also treated. There is A. J. Waskow's FROM RACE RIOT TO SIT-IN, written in 1966.

In the field of biography and autobiography, we call your attention to Marian Anderson's MY LORD, WHAT A MORNING, Lerone Bennett's WHAT MANNER OF MAN, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., Claude Brown's MANCHILD IN THE PROMISED LAND, Roy Campanella's IT'S GOOD TO BE ALIVE, Sammy Davis' YES I CAN, Althea Gibson's I ALWAYS WANTED TO BE SOMEBODY, Ruckham Holt's GEORGE WASHINGTON CARVER, Langston Hughes' I WANDER AS I WANDER, and Booker T. Washington's UP FROM SLAVERY.

An interesting subject heading is "The Negro and the Arts" and includes such titles as James Baldwin's BLUES FROM MISTER CHARLIE and THE FIRE NEXT TIME, Arna Bontemps' AMERICAN NEGRO POETRY, Lorraine Hansberry's A RAISIN IN THE SUN, LeRoi Jones' BLUES PEOPLE, and Sylvester C. Watkins' ANTHOLOGY OF AMERICAN NEGRO LITERATURE.

Under civil rights, desegregation and integration, we find the following: Daisy Bates' THE LONG SHADOW OF LITTLE ROCK, Jerry Cohen's BURN, BABY, BURN, James Farmer's FREEDOM—WHEN?, Harry Golden's MR. KENNEDY AND THE NEGRO, Margaret Halsey's COLOR BLIND, Oscar Handlin's FIRE-BELL IN THE NIGHT, Martin Luther King's WHY WE CAN'T WAIT, Walter Lord's THE PAST THAT WOULD NOT DIE, James Meredith's THREE YEARS IN MISSISSIPPI, and THE DETROIT RACE RIOT, by Robert Shogan and Tom Craig.

Another grouping encompasses the social, economic, political and religious affairs of the Negro. Here are to be found Arna Bontemps' ANYPLACE BUT HERE, E. F. Frazier's THE NEGRO FAMILY IN THE UNITED STATES, Gunnar Myrdal's AN AMERICAN DILEMMA, Arnold Rose's THE NEGRO IN AMERICA, Charles Silverman's CRISIS IN BLACK AND WHITE, and J. R. Washington's BLACK RELIGION, THE NEGRO AND CHRISTIANITY IN THE UNITED STATES.

And what of fiction? Perhaps some of these titles will be familiar to you. James Baldwin's ANOTHER COUNTRY and GO TELL IT ON THE MOUNTAIN, Ralph Ellison's INVISIBLE MAN, Harper Lee's TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD, Sinclair Lewis' KINGSBLOOD ROYAL, Carson McCullers' THE HEART IS A LONELY HUNTER, Paule Marshall's BROWN GIRL, BROWN STONES, and, of course, UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

With a subject so vast, this can only be, in part, a recital of authors and titles. But we hope we have stimulated your reading interests in certain directions, recalled a few already-read titles, and make you reflect a bit soberly perhaps, on this serious and controversial problem. So—give some thought to the Negro—and to our Michigan.

Tickets are available at any Tour House while the Tour is in progress, or at the Cottage Nurses' Residence in Ridge road, where tea will be served and a Bake Sale held during Tour hours.

Strawberry Festival

The Young Episcopal Women of Christ Church are praying for wonderful weather tomorrow evening, for that's when they've scheduled their Strawberry Festival on the Church lawns in Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Of course, if it SHOULD rain, the Festival will move inside, to the Undercroft . . . But it would be MUCH more colorful outside, with husbands dressed in red-and-white striped aprons serving fresh strawberry shortcake against a backdrop of velvet green grass and mellow stone Churchwalls . . .

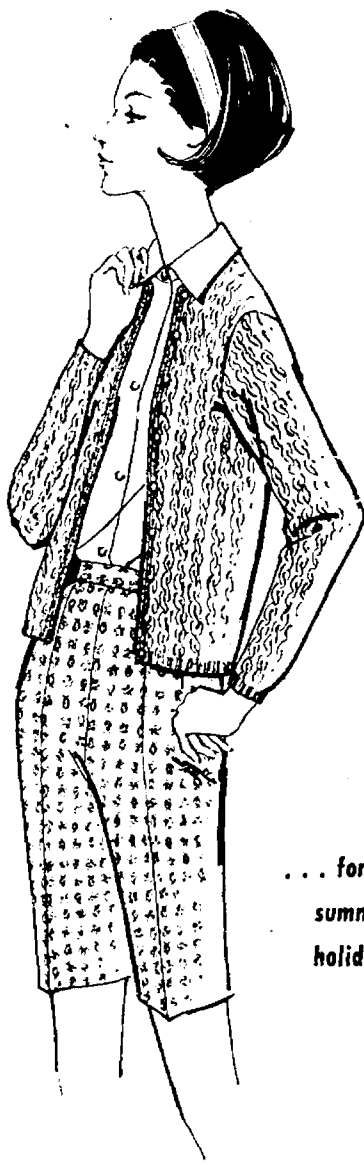

Strolling musicians will play, inside or outside. The Festival, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Williams Stevens, starts at 6:30 o'clock.

The same detail was carried out on her Watteau train and three-tier silk illusion veil headpiece. She carried an arrangement of white roses and stephanotis.

A sister of the bride, Patty Pattyn, acted as maid of honor. Attendants included Mrs. Robert Pattyn, sister-in-law of the former Miss Pattyn, her sorority sisters Kathleen Keegan and Denise Platt and cousin Beatrice Van Steenkiste.

They wore A-line frocks of yellow linen styled with semi-scooped necklines and elbow length sleeves. Each carried an arrangement of yellow roses and daisies.

symphonic music at its best, engaging outstanding artists for solo appearances.

This year, the Orchestra played its first concert for fifth and sixth grade school children. Richard W. Kay, director of Community Services and a member of the Symphony Board of Directors, coordinated the efforts of the Grosse Pointe Public and Parochial Schools and the Orchestra's director Felix Resnick.

Mr. Resnick met with the public school music teachers to discuss preparation of the concert and the choice of compositions to be programmed. The Lakeshore Coach Lines provided transportation for the children.

Jerry Hodak, who once emceed a radio broadcast of classic recordings, did the narration on concert day. Concertmaster Emilio Llinas was the soloist.

Working with Richard Kay and Felix Resnick were Mrs. Bogdan Baynert, Robert Orr and Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell Jr.

Festivities begin Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock.

The Music Hour following dinner will be devoted to Dave Brubeck's original two-piano score of "Points on Jazz" with Janet Young, of Grosse Pointe court and former Pointer Harriet Collins at the pianos.

The history of "Points on Jazz" began on a cold day in March, 1958. Traveling through Poland, between the cities of Lodz and Poznan, Brubeck jotted down a romantic, melancholy theme that seemed to express the feeling of those who sat with him on the train staring out at the barren winter landscape.

His Quartet was on a State Department-sponsored tour behind the Iron Curtain and his final concert in Poland was scheduled for the next evening in Poznan.

That night in Poznan, at concert intermission, Brubeck

Mrs. Theodore Trefzer, III

The wedding vows of NANCY PATTYN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pattyn, of Barrington road, and Mr. Trefzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Trefzer, of Kenwood court, were exchanged at a candlelight ceremony in St. Ambrose Church on Friday, May 17.

played the theme for the members of his group and suggested to their announcer-interpreter, Roman Waschko, that they play the new composition as an encore, dedicated to the people of Poland, to express some measure of their gratitude for the warmth with which they had been received in Poland. He called the composition "Dziękuję," the Polish word for "thank you."

The audience responded to it with stunned silence, then with applause and tears.

When Brubeck returned to the United States in spring, he sent printed copies of the music back to Poland. This printed music appeared as the cover of the Polish Jazz Magazine. Soon it was being performed by Polish Jazz musicians. Brubeck's Quartet often played "Dziękuję" on concert tours in the United States and in Europe and finally recorded it in the Album of Jazz Impressions of Eurasia.

Dania Krupska, an American choreographer of Polish descent, heard the recording and suggested to Brubeck that he write music for a Jazz Ballet she was then preparing. Thus, improvised variations of the theme "Dziękuję" became the basis for a composition later commissioned by the American Ballet Theatre, "Points on Jazz."

The Society's president, Edward P. Frohlich, will call the annual meeting to order at 8:30 o'clock. Reports of the year's business will be given, and new officers and board members will be elected and installed.

Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., is general chairman of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Bernard Whitley.

Reservations may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Jewell.

Eileen Janet Toepel Weds Mr. Van Wie

Toepel Family Returns to Grosse Pointe for Wedding; Bride Wears Gown of Organza, Re-embroidered Alencon Lace and Seed Pearls; Couple Vacationing in Florida

A Saturday evening, double ring ceremony May 18 united Eileen Janet Toepel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Toepel, of Boynton Beach, Fla., formerly of Lochmoor boulevard, and Paul Josef Van Wie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Josef Van Wie, of Huntington Woods. The Toepels returned to Grosse Pointe, after moving last January, to hold their daughter's wedding in the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church.

The Reverend John William Estes officiated at the rites, assisted by Mr. Maynard Hammond. A supper reception at The Harmonie Club followed.

For her wedding, the bride selected an A-line gown of organza fashioned with an Empire bodice accented with re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls. She wore her sister-in-law's crown headpiece of crystals and pearls and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Donald Totzke, of Columbus, O., served as the bride's matron of honor. Also attending the bride were her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Toepel, of Rochester and Elizabeth Evans, of Warren.

They wore identical floor-length gowns of powder blue ribbed linen accented by bodice jackets of Ecru lace and a satin trimming. They carried baskets of royal purple chrysanthemums and trailing ivy.

Assisting the bridegroom as best man was his brother, Peter Van Wie, of Lanham, Md. Ushers were the bride's brother, John Toepel, Robert Jones, Michael Kapral and Glenn Watkins, of Marion, O.

The mother of the bride chose a three-piece mint green silk cocktail suit with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a shrimp-toned re-embroidered linen dress with matching accessories.

Their ensembles were accented by corsages of double cymbidium orchids.

After a Florida vacation, the couple will reside in Detroit where the bridegroom is a member of the Detroit Police Department and the bride will continue teaching in the Warren Woods Schools.

Foster Parents—For Three Robins!

The artificial topiary trees flank the front door entrance to the Peter Koenigs' home in Sheldon road . . . so, when the Koenigs returned from a Florida vacation they were astonished to discover that a slightly mixed-up robin had mistaken one of these artificial trees for the "real thing," and had built a nest on top of it!

Inside the nest are three small eggs—and the Koenigs, who take their Foster Parent responsibilities seriously have been asking all their guests to come in via the back door so as not to disturb Mama Robin and her about-to-be-hatched offspring.

Something New In The Way Of Weddings

We're sure they'll be talking about the wedding of Kristen Reuss Johns and Ensign Thomas Benton Stevens, to be held Friday evening, May 31, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, for years to come . . .

Kristen is the daughter of Professor and Mrs. Malcolm Johns, of Rivard boulevard. Ensign Stevens is stationed at the Submarine Base at Key West, Fla., where the young couple will be living following a "surprise" wedding trip his father, world-traveler Mark Stevens, of Moross road, has mapped out for them. Their destinations will be revealed as a series of envelopes are opened at specified times and places!

The music for the wedding finds its inspiration from the Johns' sabbatical in Germany, when Kristen and her parents (her father is a Professor of Music at Wayne State University as well as organist and choirmaster at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church) were living with Dr. and Mrs. Heinz Werner Zimmermann in Heidelberg.

Mrs. Zimmermann (Renate) is a well-known German recital organist, and Kristen had mentioned to her that she hopes she (Renate) would be able to play at her (Kristen's) wedding someday, as Kristen would prefer her own father not to be on the organ bench on just that one occasion.

Mrs. Zimmermann, who now lives with her young daughter and composer husband at the Spandau Church Music School in Berlin, flies in today to begin practicing for the wedding on Memorial Church's Sheldon Memorial Organ.

Since Dr. Zimmermann cannot attend because of his duties as director of the Church School, his wife will play his composition, "Two Psalms," during the pre-service music which will begin at 7:30 o'clock. She'll also play two Bach works.

A recording of a concert played in an old German castle was among the effects the Johnses brought back with them from Germany. From this Kristen chose her processional and recessional music.

A letter to the record company revealed the publisher of the Hassler music—and the information that the Lully works had been copied from the bound complete works of the composer. The publisher was unwilling to lend the large volume or send the manuscripts.

Armed with this information, the Johnses contacted Kurtz Meyers of the Detroit Public Library, who reported: "Would you believe the ONLY place in this area that owns these rare volumes is the Wayne State University Music Library?"

Mrs. Johns immediately went to work to orchestrate and create the instrumental parts to be used at the wedding. Her brother, Dr. Thor Johnson, conductor of the Nashville Symphony Orchestra, has advised on the other works which a Chamber Orchestra will play during the ceremony and, since Kristen wants her uncle in the family pew and not "working" as conductor, he's bringing his assistant conductor, Harold Cruthirds, to direct the Chamber musicians.

Mr. Cruthirds will also play unaccompanied the cello solo which Pablo Casals uses as his traditional encore, the Andalusian Folk-Song.

A recorder quartet, featuring Dr. Ruth Wylie, William Pratt, Nicholas Batch and Mary Johnson, will provide a Baroque flavor with some 17th century selections.

Russel Smith will begin the wedding service by singing an improvised Introit on the text of the 150th Psalm, and the Choir Guild of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will serve as hosts and hostesses at the reception following the ceremony, which will be held in the Church.

Even Mother Nature is cooperating with the Johnses and the Stevenses in planning this wedding: Tom's sister, Mrs. Robert Sutton, of North Oxford road, gave birth to the newest Sutton, Holley, May 16.

Holley's sister, Betsy Anne, and brother, Jackie, will be junior attendants at their uncle's wedding.

Pattee-Beach Vows Spoken

The La Jolla Methodist Church, La Jolla, Calif., was the scene of the wedding Friday, May 17, of Mrs. Janet C. Beach, the former Janet Clarke, of Grosse Pointe, to Walter J. Pattee, of La Jolla. The Reverend Fred H. Coots, Jr. officiated.

The bride, a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clarke, of Grosse Pointe, and for many years was associated with the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

Mr. Pattee, whose great-great-grandfather was one of the founders and builders of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Ypsilanti, where his forebears resided, is a native of St. Louis, Mo., where he was graduated from Washington University.

PAUL H. STOETZER, of Prestwick road, will receive his Bachelor of Science degree in History during Northern Michigan University's June 2 commencement ceremonies.

Wedding vows were exchanged by Arlette Ann Pyczynski and Willard Harry Swain, of Battle Creek, at a 6 o'clock mass celebrated by The Reverend Garret Barton, Friday, May 17, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pyczynski, of Sunningdale drive. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Day Swain came to Grosse Pointe from their home in Crockett, Calif., for their son's marriage.

Before leaving on a vacation for Bermuda, the couple received guests at a reception in the Crystal room of the Whittier Hotel. On their return, the newlyweds will make their home in Battle Creek.

A gown of organza fashioned with a sabrina neckline and accented with applique Rose-pointe lace and seed pearls was selected by the bride. Her flowing illusion veil was crowned with a rosepointe and seed pearl mantilla.

The former Miss Pyczynski carried a single, long-stemmed rose entwined with a trelis of ivy.

She was attended by her maid of honor, Ruth Ritter, and bridesmaids Mrs. Lynn Goss, of Lansing, Paula Lindke, of Port Huron, Carol Pasha, of Trenton, and Patti Sutula, of Elkhart, Ind.

They chose gowns of shocking pink flowing chiffon styled with high rolled necklines and accented with sleeveless illusion bodices, wore floor length veils and carried single roses entwined with ivy.

Harold Seybold, of Carmel, Calif., acted as best man. Serving as ushers were Bob Aubachon and Don Keaton, of Battle Creek, Gene Schmidt, of Chicago, and Bill Bailey, of Florida.

The bride's mother wore a gold peau de soie floor length dress accented with imported lace and a matching floor length coat.

The mother of the bridegroom selected a floor length aqua silk coat dress accented with silver accessories and highlighted by a cowl neckline and rhinestone buttons.

A cymbidium orchid was pinned to each of the mothers' purses.

Miss Wilson Bride Of Mark Davidson

First Catholic-Episcopal Wedding Ceremony Held in St. Clare de Montefalco Church; Newlyweds Are Vacationing in Bermuda; They Will Reside in Port Huron

A reception at the Hillcrest Country Club followed the noon marriage of Jane Ann Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Wilson, of Grayton road, and Mark Henry Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur S. Davidson, of Port Huron, Saturday, May 18.

The ceremony, at which The Reverend John McLaughlin, O.S.A., officiated, took place at St. Clare de Montefalco Church. The Reverend T. Edward Bennett, Pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Port Huron and the Davidson's minister, also actively participated in the ceremony.

This was the first time that a Catholic-Episcopal wedding ceremony had been held in St. Clare Church.

After a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple will make their home in Port Huron.

The former Miss Wilson

selected an ivory satin gown accented with appliques of Alencon lace and fashioned with a matching train falling from her neckline. A satin petal headpiece held her silk illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of soft pink roses sprinkled with white daisies.

A sister of the bride, Beth Wilson, served as maid of honor, with Annettes Cook, Laurel and Peggy Davidson, sisters of the bridegroom, Nan Sarber and Lisbeth Carson acting as bridesmaids.

They wore soft pink crinkle crepe floor length dresses styled with scooped necklines, short sleeves and small bows beneath their Empire bodices. Each attendant carried a bouquet of pink daisies.

Larry Cressman, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man with ushers Doug Osborn of Port Huron, cousin of the bridegroom, Bud Wilson, brother of the bride, Dave Zimmer of Birmingham, Jim Bonadio of Port Huron and Ted Jeffries.

Mrs. Wilson chose a three-piece turquoise, raw silk suit. The bridegroom's mother selected a silk jacket-dress ensemble in shades of blue. Both mothers pinned corsages of pink roses to their purses.

Thomas Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. A. Schmidt of Lakecrest lane, has received a scholarship for the summer at The Institute for Arctic and Alpine Research in Nederland, Col. He will be working under Dr. John David Ives, a very prominent glaciologist. Tom, a senior student at the University of Colorado, is majoring in geology. He will be home early in June prior to starting on this project.

A little theoretical wisdom has been known to turn into a mass of practical folly.

A HYGIENIST TALKS ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF PERINEAL HYGIENE

By Mrs. Marjory Caldwell

Unlike many other personal matters such as feminine hygiene, with implied use of douches, or body odors and bad breath with their unhappy social consequences, perineal (which is to say rectal and vaginal) hygiene or cleanliness is pretty generally ignored. This is strange, too, because improper cleansing procedure and neglect in these areas can lead to more serious consequences than neglect of oral hygiene (bad breath).

In Europe they have been conscious of this cleanliness problem for years and no bathroom on the Continent is considered complete without a Bidet. There, toilet paper is for American tourists. But in this country, toilet paper is still socially acceptable though just a moment's reflection must convince even the most indifferent person that it is totally inadequate.

Isn't it time we admit that we have ignored the problem of perineal hygiene and accepted toilet paper because there was nothing better available? There are two good reasons why toilet paper should be made a social outcast.

1. Dry paper cannot clean the perineum any better than dry paper can clean the hands or face. It is generally accepted that these must be washed and, if paper is used, it is for the purpose of drying.
2. Toilet paper requires the use of hands which then, in turn, become soiled. So now we have a soiled perineum and soiled hands, too.

Of course, we wash our hands and that takes care of that. Or does it always? As every mother knows, the admonition to Johnny to wash his hands before coming to the table often results in a pretty sketchy performance, the consequences of which are not really nice to think about, are they?

Mother, of course, is more particular because she knows the importance of scrupulous cleanliness and because it is she who prepares the food.

But the nasty little germs that inhabit the intestinal tract aren't easily discouraged and can hide in some pretty small places, such as under the finger nails, in the crevasses of lesions, and so forth. I'm reminded of the care the surgeon exercises, scrubbing for minutes with strong soap and a stiff brush, after which he dons sterile gloves. Such a procedure is hardly practicable as a regular routine.

Did I mention germs? Yes, I did, and they are important. One of the marvelous defenses of the human body is its ability to tolerate bacteria, sometimes the most virulent types, in the intestinal tract. Yet these same bacteria, when introduced into the body through the mouth, can be dangerous, indeed. Infectious hepatitis belongs high on this list.

The Communicable Disease Center of the U.S. Public Health Service calls infectious hepatitis one of our most serious communicable-disease problems. The virus, incubating in the intestines, is excreted by the victim before and for some time after the onset of the illness. Also, like the typhoid bacillus, it can be shed by innocent carriers who have no apparent symptoms of illness. Without scrupulous hygiene, the disease can be spread by contaminated hands, dishes, food, clothing and towels. The toilet paper roll is a proved offender.

E. Coli are the nasty little germs that those of our officials, charged with keeping our water supply pure and wholesome, worry about. They don't want any in the drinking water and mostly they are successful in keeping them out. Yet, these bacteria are present in the intestinal tract. A survey made by the New York Post a few years ago showed a high bacteria count, of intestinal origin, in hamburger samples from a number of restaurants picked at random. Edwin Ludwig, Health Department food and drugs head, concluded that "Somebody's hands contaminated the food."

Have you heard about pin worm infection? It's quite common among school children. Dysentery and diarrhea are not uncommon either, as are other disorders traceable to intestinal origin.

So long as we use toilet paper we have no defense except scrupulous hygiene. Which means a thorough scrubbing of the hands after use of the toilet. This takes care of the hands and, if thoroughly done, prevents unpleasant consequences from this source.

Unfortunately, this still leaves the perineal area something less than completely clean. Again, only water washing will take care of this problem. Just recently we heard an authoritative source, Cornell University, endorsing this viewpoint. A 7-year study of the American bathroom by Prof. Alexander Kira culminated in the conclusion that only water washing cleans completely.

If it is still true that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure then let us, for the sake of our family's health, discard our taboos regarding personal toilet care. We can no longer excuse our neglect in this area of personal hygiene on the grounds that nothing better than toilet paper is available.

The appliance, known as the American Bidet, is a tested and proven device, approved by medical authorities, Underwriter's Laboratories and health and safety codes. You, and even your little children, can use it in perfect safety.

As an adjunct to good health the American Bidet performs a vitally necessary job. But there's another side that will surprise you. Once you've used it and grown accustomed to it you'll find the American Bidet gives you a feeling of clean well-being that makes it a positive pleasure to use. You know how you feel when you step out of a shower!

Of course, it makes feminine cleanliness very easy but, if I may speak very frankly and intimately, the wonderful feeling of relaxation it induces results in an improvement in elimination that is difficult to believe until you experience it.

I hope this frank discussion has been helpful toward a better understanding a family health problem that should no longer be ignored.

Mary Agnes Weir Becomes Mrs. Bell

Setting for Ceremony is St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore;
Bride's Gown Fashioned of English Net and Lace Over Peau-de-soie; Couple
Vacation in Hawaii

A gown of English net encrusted with re-embroidered Alençon lace over peau de soie was selected by Mary Agnes Weir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Weir, of Charlevoix avenue, for her Thursday evening May 16, wedding to Neil John Bell, son of the Alex C. Bells, of Vernier road.

A reception at Allard House followed the ceremony in St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore, at which The Reverend Leonard Wallace officiated.

The bride wore a lace cluster headpiece holding a double-tiered illusion veil scattered with lace appliques. Her bouquet was fashioned of white orchids and stephanotis.

Attending her were Connie Denek, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Dorothy Robison, Marty Morgan and Mary Odo. They wore apricot party A-line dresses with mint accents and waist length illusion headpieces. Each carried a cascade of apricot and white carnations.

The bride's brother, Robert Weir, acted as best man. Ronald Bell and Thomas and James Moore seated the guests.

Mrs. Weir chose a wheat silk dress with a jeweled yoke and matching coat. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink silk linen outfit with a jeweled neckline. Both mothers selected orchid corsages.

The newlyweds will make their home in East Seven Mile road when they return from a trip to Hawaii.

CINDY FLEMING, of Huntington boulevard, a student at Michigan State University, entertained her suitmates over the weekend at her family's East Tawas summer home. Cindy's guests were KIM DOUGLAS, DONNA KARZUCK, JUDY WHEELER, DONNA CHRISTMAN and KAREN KIEPPE.

Health-O-Rama Set To Open At Eastland

Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, III, and Mrs. R. Alexander Wrigley Are Co-Chairmen of '68 Series of Free Medical Unit Community Visits

Health-O-Rama, the most ambitious community service project ever undertaken by Women for the United Foundation (WUF), comes to Eastland Shopping Center this week with Grosse Pointers cast in leading roles.

Free medical testing will get underway and some 30 exhibits will be unveiled at an opening ceremony set for 10 o'clock today, Thursday, May 23.

Third in a series of four planned by WUF for the tri-county area, the Eastland Health-O-Rama will be open from 11 to 9 o'clock daily through Saturday.

Mistress of ceremonies for the opening will be Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, III, of Cloverly road, who is serving as co-chairman of the series with Mrs. R. Alexander Wrigley, of Bishop road.

Official starters will be two Mt. Clemens youngsters, both cystic fibrosis patients, nominated by the Metropolitan Detroit Chapter, National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

They are Michael Wayne, 2½ son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wayne, and Ricky Hennemeier, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hennemeier. The children, whose mothers are sisters, will symbolize the many persons benefiting from Torch Drive health services.

Eastland officials on hand for the opening will include William J. McGraw, of Cloverly road, president, Eastland Chamber of Commerce, and manager, the Detroit Edison Company branch at Eastland, and John W. Coe, of Meadow lane, manager, the J. L. Hudson Company store at the shopping center.

The screening tests will be administered by physicians and parimedical staff members of Torch Drive health agencies. Assisting will be volunteer medical technologists and student nurses from Detroit area schools of nursing.

Health-O-Rama testing will include a heart check-up geared to reflect such risk factors as elevated blood pressure and serum cholesterol, overweight, cigaret smoking and insufficient exercise.

The purpose of the heart check-up will be to identify the presumably well individual with previously undetected symptoms of early or potential cardiovascular disease so that he may be advised to seek medical care.

During the oral health check-up, the face will be examined for unusual skin pigmentation and any asymmetry or other abnormalities. An intraoral examination also will be included to inspect lip color and texture, and the soft tissue of the mouth and neck will be palpated for growths.

For children between 3½ and 5 years of age, Health-O-Rama will offer a preschool vision screening to detect any sight impairment at an early, and frequently corrective, stage.

Qualified ophthalmologists and nurses will administer the test for glaucoma, an insidious eye disease which causes blindness if not detected and treated early. This test involves measurement of intraocular pressure.

Early stages of glaucoma frequently occur without symptoms, but prompt treatment is essential to preserve sight.

The Health-O-Rama hearing test will determine the ability to hear sounds of varying degrees of intensity. A major purpose of the test is to detect hearing loss at an early stage when corrective steps can be taken most easily.

Scales will be available at the Health-O-Rama to accurately determine height and weight. Because weight is related to many diseases, studies reveal men and women live longer if an approximately ideal weight is maintained.

A blood sugar test will be offered to detect diabetes, a disease for which there is still no known cure but one which can be controlled through proper treatment.

Should the screening test reflect an increased amount of sugar in the blood, the individual should consult his physician immediately for the condition could indicate the presence or onset of diabetes.

For the most meaningful results, the test should be administered approximately two hours following a regular meal. Those planning to undergo the Health-O-Rama test should eat a full meal immediately before leaving home.

Another test measuring the number of red blood cells in the body will be offered to detect anemia or polycythemia.

Insufficient red blood cells may indicate anemia; too many could reflect polycythemia. Both conditions respond to modern medical treatment.

The Health-O-Rama chest X-ray will be carefully studied for evidence of tuberculosis and other chest and respiratory disorders including enlarged heart and cancer of the lung.

Early discovery of these conditions followed by proper treatment increases the possibilities of complete recovery.

All women who are 21 years of age and over attending the Health-O-Rama will be given an opportunity to make appointments with the Michigan Cancer Foundation for a free Papan smear examination for early detection of uterine cancer.

Appointments also will be made for men desiring a complete examination for cancer. These examinations will be made at the Cancer Detection Center, 4811 John R.

Cosponsors include the Detroit District Dental Society, Detroit Society of Medical Technologists, Macomb County Medical Society and Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons.

More are Michigan Ophthalmological Society, Michigan State Medical Society, Oakland County Medical Society, Shopping Centers, Inc., Wayne County Medical Society, Wayne County Osteopathic Association and Wayne State University.

Grosse Pointers serving as chairmen for the Eastland Health-O-Rama include Mrs. Charles R. Berger, of South Edgewood drive, and Mrs. Paul F. Decker, of Notre Dame avenue.

Co-chairmen of agency participation for the entire series are Mrs. Joseph A. Vance, Jr., of South Deeplands road, and Mrs. Edwin O. Bodkin, of Trombley road.

Among area residents serving as hostesses will be Mrs. Henry J. Roesch, Jr., of Merriweather road, Mrs. Thomas H. Marcier, of University place, Mrs. Robert Steiger, of Merriweather road, and Mrs. Edward-Donaldson, of Lakeview road.

Moro are Mrs. Henry T.

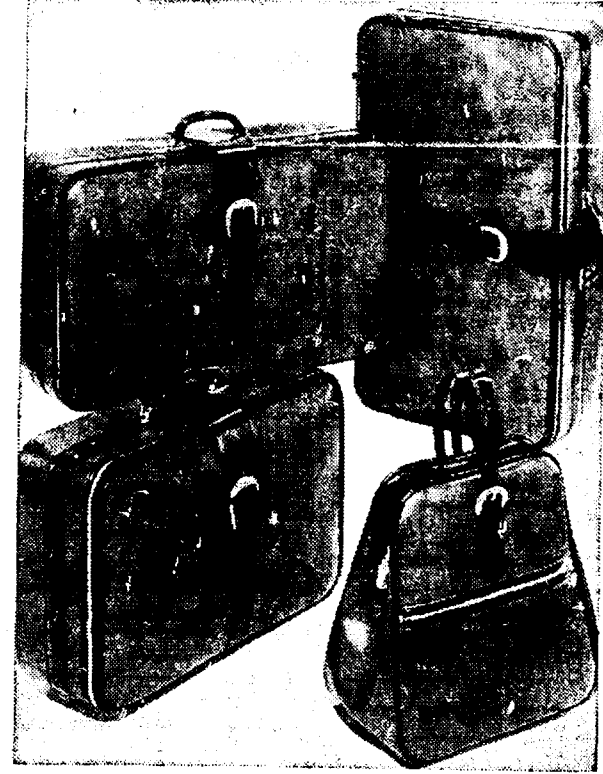

Ewald, Jr., of Moross road, Anne Clark, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, Mrs. John S. Hoey, of Lakeland avenue, Mrs. Thomas E. Creek, of Colonial road, and Mrs. Thomas B. Walker, of Hampton road.

Test reports will be mailed to each individual's private physician for evaluation and follow-up.

LESLIE ANN BRILLOWSKI, of Aline drive, has been awarded a scholarship to study Spanish this summer at the Monterrey Institute of Technology, Monterrey, Mexico. Leslie, a junior at Western Michigan University, has been elected president of WMU's Ernest Burnham Hall for the coming year.

Receiving degrees from the University of Pennsylvania Monday, May 20, were CALVIN J. GAUSS, III, of Bishop road, Master of Business Administration; JULIA PENROSE HODGES, of Washington road, Master of Arts; and JOHN S. SNYDER, of Hillcrest road, Master of Business Administration.

Now Being Collected for Next Fall's
Used Book Sale

Members of the Grosse Pointe Branch, American Association of University Women, are turning their spring housecleaning into a profit-motivated venture that will hopefully result in the granting of more AAUW graduate fellowships.

Books, paperbacks, text-books, the AAUW Used Book Sale books, magazines, games, records and sheet music will be held next fall, October 1, 2, 3 and 4, in the needed in abundance for Unitarian Church Annex, Maumee avenue.

Mrs. Urban Borech, chairman, invites all Pointers to join the clean-sweep campaign. "Please search your attics, bookshelves, basements, children's rooms, closets . . . and if you have a book to spare, please share it with us," she asks.

Collection is underway right now. The number to call for pick up is 882-1875.

Books may be taken directly to the following collection centers: 1590 Oxford road, 459 River boulevard or 16935 Maumee avenue.

The Used Book Sale will be extended to four days this year. The committee hopes it will be the biggest and best sale yet.

Pointe AAUW members already at work collecting and sorting donated materials are Mrs. Allen Andrews, Mrs. Richard Edin, Mrs. Richard C. Edwards, Mrs. Thaddeus Ketchum, Mrs. Keith Leibbrand, Mrs. Mark Littler, Mrs. John MacKay and Mrs. David Neal.

The sale offers excellent reading to Pointers at greatly reduced prices and most importantly increases the AAUW Fellowship Fund which gives monetary aid to college women from this country and abroad for advanced degrees and research.

Fontbonne Auxiliary Officers Installed

Check for $35,000 Presented to St. John Hospital Administrator During Annual Meeting Held Last Thursday, During National Hospital Week

Cardiac monitors for victims of heart diseases and closed-circuit television system in the maternity section of Saint John Hospital became fulfilled plans last week when the Fontbonne Auxiliary presented a check for $35,000 to Sister M. Ricarda, S.S.J., St. John Hospital administrator.

Sister Ricarda accepted the donation on behalf of the hospital at the Auxiliary's annual meeting and installation of officers last Thursday, May 16. The Hospital at the Auxiliary's annual meeting and installation of officers last Thursday, May 16. The Hospital at the Auxiliary's annual meeting and installation of officers last Thursday, May 16.

Mass in St. John's and St. Edward Chapel.

Held during National Hospital Week, the meeting included an address by Margaret Cronyn columnist for The Michigan Catholic weekly newspaper.

Mrs. John Madison, outgoing Auxiliary president, presented the check which primarily will finance the installation of cardiac monitors in the Hospital's Coronary Care Unit, becoming operational next month, and a closed-circuit television in the maternity section.

The television system will largely be used to give demonstrations on post-partum care to new mothers.

Newly elected officers of the Fontbonne Auxiliary were also formally installed at the meeting.

Mrs. Robert Knop received the presidential gavel. Smilift

ORAL FACIAL EXERCISER
by Betty Robbins

It is impossible to smile without moving your lips; they are the "key" to muscles of facial expression!

"Smilift" is a new oral facial exerciser designed to fit inside your mouth between the lips and gums where it applies internal resistance against the lip muscles. A few simple exercises, mostly in the manner of a smile, can strengthen and condition weakened facial muscles and smooth away lines. Resistance exercise — with "Smilift" — can safely reverse the aging process by rejuvenating your facial muscles from within!

J.D. Owens is planning a hunt in Kuala Lumpur. Want to go along?

Mr. J. D. Owens of Buckingham Road, Grosse Pointe Park: former news correspondent, ex-columnist, world-famous raconteur, professional PR consultant and patron of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association.

There's nothing Mr. Owens would rather do than stalk the wily Malay tiger or Africa's elusive dik-dik, especially from the safety and comfort of a theatre seat in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Mr. Owens is an avid fan of George Pierrot's Adventure Series, a recent addition to the Center's regular program schedule. He and his family have discovered an almost unlimited variety of cultural, social and recreational activities at the Center, ranging from legitimate theatre and chamber music through bridge clubs and French classes. Mr. Owens is checking into the Gourmet Club and, of course, the Adult Ski Club. He's a War Memorial contributor.

You see, the Center earns about three-quarters of its operating expense, but that just isn't enough; so each year people like you and Mr. Owens—from all the Pointes—join in a Family Participation Campaign to meet the rest of the budget, so we can continue our full schedule. This year our goal is $80,000. Any size gift is greatly appreciated.

Want to go along on one of Mr. Owens' "trips"? Great. You've probably already received a Free Activities Pass in the mail. It includes five excellent programs for every member, every age group of your family. This Pass is good only through April 19th, but there are worthwhile events every day of the week, no matter when you come. See for yourself.

We think that once you get acquainted you'll agree a contribution to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center is just another way of supporting your own family.

Indubitably.

Won't you send your check today to:

13—REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

FIRST OFFERING. 265 feet right on the lake in Grosse Pointe Shores. Custom built home for original owner. Never on market before. Subdividing possibilities excellent.

IN THE SHORES and a first. Suit your corporate image in this handsome, well appointed five bedroom beauty. Sizable library and family room both cheered by well executed fireplaces. Perfection in decor and maintenance make moving a pleasure for the fortunate new owner.

ANOTHER FIRST—and to use a word almost deleted from our present vocabulary, "reasonably priced." A three bedroom, bath and a half PLUS a reading and living room. This is our week for fireplaces, and we also point to a full attic.

IN THE FARMS away from the maddening crowd with privacy for all concerned. Barn sided family room with barbecue arrangement on one hand; library and copious living area on the other. Five bedrooms (one of which is situated on the first floor) and four baths, carpeted, built-in kitchen to complete this maintenance free home. Close to transportation, shopping and schools. We challenge you to find a comparable offering.

THE WARMTH of a fine Farm Colonial on a desirable street leading to the lake. Fireplaces in the living room and library permeates the atmosphere. Six bedrooms and sizable covered terrace further completes the setting for overlooking a handsome garden. Wouldn't it be lovely-ly!

ONE OF THE FEW remaining lots with 100 feet frontage available in Grosse Pointe City. Located on a street of stately mansions.

ON LAKESHORE LANE we can show you three bedrooms, two and a half baths, a jazzy kitchen, and both a family room and library. The two-car attached garage makes a hit with the kids "cause there's more play area in the backyard. Don't run off half-cocked and miss this house, because it's loaded with extras.

NOW WE CAN GIVE you a choice of two larger two-family flats on Trombley Road. Both buildings have four bedrooms in each of the first and second floors, and there are also bedrooms on the third floors. If you want space in your next home and the opportunity of having a tenant to contribute to your living, then these are "must sees"

NESTLED ON A HILLSIDE lot which was landscaped by one of the Pointe's finest architects, this charmer has three family bedrooms and a fourth for stay-in-help. Separate dining room and library to get away in. We think you'll be tempted to take a swing at this one when you see how magnificently it sits on its terraced lot. Wouldn't you like to sit there too?

FOR THE INVESTMENT minded we offer a two-family within the middle thirty thousand price range. The building is brick and relatively new. Two bedrooms in each unit.

SPARKLING, SPACIOUS is this three bedroom, brick ranch in St. Clair Shores on Avalon. One bedroom will take a king size bed. This home has a beautifully finished recreation room, as well as large living room and dining area which will accommodate a full sized dining room set. Don't wait! Won't last... Price reduced!

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Just before Christmas . . . we ran the following information, and we figure it saved our readers, (and ourselves), approximately 128 hours of telephone—"My daughter's getting married; what do I do?"—instruction sessions. Now the calls are beginning again . . . so we thought we'd run the information again . . . and ask you PLEASE, if you're planning a wedding in the next few months, CLIP and SAVE this column:

Moving into The Summer Bridal Season . . . we've begun to get our usual quota of calls on "How do I announce my engagement?" . . . wedding? . . . Should I submit a picture? . . . How far in advance must I submit the information?—so we decided it might be time and energy-saving all around if we gave our readers a brief resume of the NEWS policy on engagement and wedding announcements.

Engagement announcements . . . are printed as soon after they are received as possible, on a first-come, first-serve basis. They may be submitted in advance of the actual announcement date, marked "Hold until such-and-such-a-time" or "Do not release until such-and-such-a-time."

Wedding announcements . . . should be submitted at least one week in advance of the actual wedding date. Like engagement announcements, they are printed as soon after they are received as possible, on a first-come, first-serve basis—but they take space precedence over engagement announcements, (in other words, some weeks our space is limited, but brides ALWAYS come first . . . if it's a choice between running two engagement announcements or one wedding announcement, the wedding announcement goes in; the engagements are "held" until space becomes available).

Wedding "forms" . . . are available at the NEWS office. We have no engagement forms; we advise our readers to use engagement announcements that have appeared in last week's paper as their "form," (there's really only one way to announce an engagement).

ALWAYS . . . include a telephone number, where information can be checked during the day, when submitting ANY item to ANY newspaper!!!

It's not necessary . . . to write up your own engagement or wedding announcement. You supply the facts, we'll supply the sentence structure, (of course, if you find it easier to submit your announcement in "story" form, by all means do so; sometimes you make a far better job of it than we do . . .).

But, PLEASE . . . type your information or, if you're filling out a form, PRINT proper names. Americans are not noted for their legible handwriting, and we have no resident cryptograph decoder on the NEWS staff.

Photographs submitted . . . should be "glossies," (shiny surface), 5x7 or 8x10. We're sorry, but because our space is limited, we can only print pictures of local girls, girls whose families are living in Grosse Pointe AT THE TIME OF the wedding. This is a right-down-the-line rule, with only three exceptions. We print engagement and wedding pictures for teachers who work in the Pointe School System and nurses who work in Pointe hospitals, and wedding pictures for girls whose families have recently (within six months), moved from The Pointe but who return, with their families, to celebrate their wedding here.

What about Pointe boys who marry . . . out-of-Pointe girls, or ex-Pointers who want their former neighbors to know of their son's or daughter's engagement/wedding? We print their complete stories, as submitted, WITHOUT photograph, (the reason for this, as explained in the above paragraph, is limited space—not, as one irate mother-of-the-bridegroom once charged "because you hate men!").

And what about . . . returning submitted pictures? We're sorry but we haven't the staff to handle that . . . We do hold all submitted pictures at the office for three months, however, and we'll be happy to give them back—if somebody comes in to pick them up.

PILFERINGS

Marriage resembles a pair of shears, so joined that they cannot be separated, often moving in opposite directions, yet always punishing anyone who comes between them.

—Sydney Smith

A woman must be a genius to create a good husband.

—Honore Balzac

Marriage is the one subject on which all women agree and all men disagree.

—Oscar Wilde

It is better to know as little as possible of the defects of the person with whom you are to pass your life.

—Jane Austen

A good husband should be deaf and a good wife blind.

—French Proverb

Pointers of Interest

THE ROBERT T. BARRETT FAMILY, OF LAKEPOINTE AVENUE: BOB, JEANETTE, TODD AND WENDY

By Janet Mueller

Young Bob Barrett had three dreams. All came true. He always wanted to go to West Point. He always wanted to fly. And he always wanted to become a Medical Doctor. Which, in the above order, is exactly what he did . . .

Jeanette Cameron Barrett has a special dream of her own. She enjoys her part-time job as Speech Correction teacher in two Detroit Inner City Schools. But she looks forward to the day when she'll return to being a full-time housewife.

"I love homemaking," says Jeanette, who sews all her own clothes and most of Wendy's. "I didn't work at all the first five years of our marriage; I was perfectly happy at home."

"I'm lucky in my work, lucky to have a specialty. I feel I'm doing for pay the type of work that most of my friends are doing as volunteers."

Todd and Wendy Barrett have dreams, too: Children's dreams, of being a prima ballerina, (Wendy), or a champion softball player, (Todd). And they, like Jeanette, share Bob's Third Dream.

There wasn't a prouder trio than Jeanette, Todd and Wendy at the Rackham Memorial last Saturday afternoon when Bob, a member of Wayne State University's Centennial Year School of Medicine graduating class, received his M.D. degree.

Fulfillment Takes Time

It takes more time, of course, for three dreams to come true than one. Bob, at 35, is 10 or 11 years older than the majority of his approximately 130 classmates.

He didn't exactly spend those extra 10 or 11 years sitting around.

An Easterner, born in New Jersey, brought up in Pennsylvania, (his parents, the Robert W. Barretts, came from their home in Mount Lebanon for Saturday's graduation exercises), he met Jeanette while he was a West Point cadet.

She was a coed at the University of Michigan.

The United States Military Academy football team, plus a large cadet "roving section," came to Ann Arbor for a game with the U. of M. team. Jeanette's sorority, Delta Delta Delta, (she's active in the local Alumnae group), invited the West Point First Classmen over for dinner.

"It was," Bob recalls, "love at first sight."

And so, eventually, they were married—after Bob, among the 25 percent of his class commissioned in the United States Air Force, (the Air Force Academy was not then in operation), completed Pilot Training.

Bob had every intention of being a career officer. Jeanette liked the life of an Air Force Wife. They had two children: Todd, eight now, and Wendy, six.

Flew in Vietnam

Bob spent a year in Vietnam in the early '60s. He went over with one of the first Air Force Units sent there, flew 56 combat missions in Assault Transport type aircraft, designed to take in supplies and evacuate wounded, and maintained an apartment in Saigon.

Jeanette, looking back, admits she wasn't particularly worried about him. "Remember, that was at the very beginning of the Vietnam buildup," she notes. "Things weren't really very bad there then . . ."

She expected Bob to return, safe and sound, to the home they had bought in Fayetteville, N. C., near Pope Air Force Base. And return he did—bringing his Third Dream with him.

He wanted to become a doctor.

Request Denied

He did not want to leave the Air Force. "I tried to obtain a leave of absence from the Air Force, so I could go to Medical School, but my request was denied," he explains. "So I resigned my commission."

Bob was a Captain by then, and had been for three years. He was an instructor of Instrument Flying, with almost 3,000 hours of military flying experience.

He loved to fly. He still WOULD love to fly—but he doesn't. "Civilian flying is prohibitively expensive," he explains, "and military flying would involve several weekends a month at Selfridge; I can't afford the time."

"But," Jeanette interjects, "he still looks up at all the airplanes that go by!"

Bob Barrett, training to be a doctor, had to begin at the very beginning. "At the time I went to West Point," he says, "the curriculum was about 52 percent Engineering, the rest Humanities. I had no Natural Science or Pre-Med background."

Accepted at Duke

"I was accepted at Duke University for Pre-Med. We kept our house in Fayetteville and I took a room in Durham, N. C., for a year . . ."

Jeanette began to teach, full-time. "My grandmother, Mrs. Ralph R. Johnston, (formerly of Roslyn road, now residing at the Presbyterian Village in West Fayetteville to live with us and Six Mile road), came down to care for the children during that 1963-64 school year," she notes.

"She stayed with us until June, when we all moved to Grosse Pointe. Needless to say, we might not have made it through that Pre-Med year without her help!"

Bob applied to several Medical Schools. Wayne State was the first to accept him. "I had been up here the Christmas before, and was able to get a personal interview with the Admissions Committee," he recalls. "I think that undoubtedly helped . . ."

Was First Choice

Wayne State was Bob's first choice, too. And Jeanette's. Daughter of the Gordon N. Camerons, of Hampton road, she was brought up in The Pointe. She had friends here. She liked the Pointe Public School System. She would be happy to see her own children enrolled in it.

She liked the recreational facilities The Pointe offers, especially the waterfront parks. The Barretts all have bikes and ride down to their waterfront park on warm summer evenings, bringing along provisions for family cook-outs.

Jeanette's brother and sister-in-law, the Gordon N. Camerons, Jr., live in The Pointe, in Colonial court.

Bob was accepted at Wayne State in February, and Jeanette's parents immediately started looking for an apartment in The Pointe for the four Barretts. It took a while, but they began paying rent on their present comfortable quarters in Lakepointe avenue in mid-May.

Bob finished his Pre-Med studies that summer, at the University of Detroit, and started his four years of study at Wayne that fall.

Likes Personal Contacts

"The first two years of Medical School are all lecture halls and labs," he notes. "The last two are mainly working in the hospital with patients. This working directly with people is what I most enjoy, so I would say my last two years have been considerably easier than my first two. You develop confidence working directly with patients . . ."

The financial gulf between an Air Force Captain's and a Medical Student's family is broad. Bob has worked in the summers for his father-in-law, who designs and manufactures machine tools.

He held a night watchman's job at the Wayne County Medical Society until last year, but was forced to quit because of the frequent overnight hospital stays required of students during their last two years of Medical School.

The Barretts have had health profession loans, and Jeanette thanks her lucky stars for her training as a Speech Correctionist: Part-time jobs are easier to find if one is in a specialized field. Her children are still young; she doesn't like to spend all her time away from home.

Has Wakeful Nights

"You lie awake nights, thinking: 'Whom do I owe my allegiance to, my husband or my children?'" "I can't justify being away from home on a full-time basis, but I feel I should help Bob. I WANT to help him."

"I remember one big worry I had when Bob first started his medical studies. He'd been such a good father, and I worried that he wouldn't have time to be a father any more."

"I knew, for instance, that good students study all the time; they eat with a book propped up in front of their plates. That's NOT the way a good father behaves . . ."

Jeanette's worries were unfounded; both young Barretts, students at Defer, are well-adjusted, bright—and proud of their parents.

Pretty Wendy, a kindergarten, is clever with her hands and looking forward to her premiere performance in a ballet recital next month. She's a student in Mary Ellen Cooper's Grosse Pointe War Memorial classes.

Todd, whose favorite school subjects are Reading and Art, is learning to play softball at the Neighborhood Club. He and Bob are full-fledged members (they've been on two "overnights") of the Hannan YMCA Indian Guides.

Exams Lie Ahead

Dr. Barrett has his medical degree now, still, the family's "long pull" isn't over. Bob takes his State Board exams in June, begins his year of internship at Detroit General Hospital in July.

And, after that . . . "I have a lot of ideas," he says. "Pediatrics, General Surgery and Aerospace Medicine are the things that have interested me most . . . but medical students and interns have been known to change their minds during their training . . ."

Although, as an intern, Bob will be drawing a salary, Jeanette plans to continue her part-time teaching job for a least one more year. It's easier for her now, with both children in the same school, and that school within walking distance of the Barrett's home, not at all like that first year in The Pointe, when Jeanette drove Wendy out to her grandmother's home in Grosse Pointe Woods every morning, then drove Todd to a nursery school in Whittier road, THEN drove to work herself.

"I drove about 30 miles every day before I even GOT to work!" she recalls, marveling.

And Bob, thinking of all that Jeanette has done, marvels, too. "None of this would be possible without Jeanette," he says.

Jeanette, in turn, praises the children. "They've been wonderful," she says. "Todd's waiting for me to stop teaching so I can be Room Mother . . . And, speaking of 'wonderful' people, Bob cites Jeanette's parents, Jeanette cites Jeanette's parents, Jeanette cites Bob's, without Jeanette," he says. ("We've gone to his parents' home for the last few Christmases. They spoil us dreadfully!—And we love it!").

These Working-To-Make-Bob-Barrett's Third-Dream-Come-True years have been busy, hard—and amazingly rewarding for all four Barretts.

In addition to her teaching, in addition to their commitments to their own family, Bob and Jeanette have managed to be active in the Young Married Group at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, to serve as Memorial Church Sunday School teachers.

Jeanette has served three years as an officer in the Wayne State chapter of the Women's Auxiliary of the Student American Medical Auxiliary. She received her Ph. D. ("Putting Hubby Through") degree at the Auxiliary's "graduation dinner" a few weeks ago.

She's proud of that degree. But she's prouder of Bob's. He has no regrets. "Medicine is going to be my life from now on," he says. "If I do decide to go into Aerospace Medicine, that will combine the two fields I've wanted to be in ever since I can remember."

Sounds like Bob Barrett's beginning to dream his Fourth Dream, doesn't it?
