HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, August 1

TWO STEEL INDUSTRY giants announced price increases Wednesday less than 24 hours after the United Steelworkers Union won a new billion-dollar labor contract. The nation's second largest producer, Bethlehem Steel, announced an increase of almost five percent across the board. U.S. Steel Corp., the biggest steelmaker and usually the pacesetter for industry prices, posted increases for several of its tin mill products, although some items were reduced. A U.S. Steel spokesman said "This is a price increase. No question about it." There was immediate comment from Washington, President Johnson indignantly stating the increases must not be allowed, as they would have a drastic effect on the nation's economy. Despite this, the smaller companies were following today with their announcements of price increases.

DETROIT DAILIES are expected to be back on the stands by Friday and Saturday of next week now that the Detroit Free Press and the Detroit News have reached an agreement with the Mailers Union. This would put an end to the record-breaking 268-day-old strike that has left Detroit without major local newspaper coverage.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON has summoned congressional leaders of both parties to the White House to discuss the crisis brought about by the increase in steel prices. Informed sources said that the President wished to "brief" leaders on the steel situation but they knew of no specific action Mr. Johnson would ask Congress to take in order to try to bring about a steel price rollback.

Saturday, August 3

PRESIDENT JOHNSON, in a major confrontation with the steel industry, has authorized a boycott of firms who boost their costs, in an effort to try to force a rollback of increased steel prices. He told the Defense Department to avoid buying steel products from firms who put in major price increases, because such boosts could have "dire consequences" for the nation's economy (with possible inflationary results).

Sunday, August 4

A visit from Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey to Detroit and metropolitan area brought hecklers along with larger groups of friendly greeters, in his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination. During his tour of the city, Friday, he dedicated the $30 million Chapoton pumping station and retention basin and attended a voter registration rally/performance at Cobo Hall featuring Frank Sinatra.

A REPUBLICAN PLAT-
FORM has been decided on and will be ready for presentation tomorrow night before the Republican National Convention in Miami, but the stand on the Vietnam War may still provoke more controversy. The work of the convention, with New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Richard Nixon teamed as doves to battle un-announced candidate Gov. Ronald Reagan of California, will apparently boil down to a simple contest between Nixon and all the other candidates out to block him from a first-ballot victory.

Tuesday, August 6

GOVERNOR RONALD REAGAN of California announced his active candidacy for the Republican Presidential nomination following the urgings of his huge California delegation, dropping his "interested spectator" role. Reagan's decision, occurring after the 39th Republican National Convention got under way in Miami Beach, has led to speculation that he may be joining forces with New York's Governor Nelson Rockefeller in a "stop-Nixon" drive.

Liggett Says Residents May Use Grounds

Agreement between School, City and Homeowners Formalized after Long Controversy

Once again the matter of the use of Liggett School grounds by neighborhood children appeared on the Woods Council agenda, this time in the form of a letter written by John R. Jennings, president of the Shores Woods Homeowners Association.

Mr. Jennings also verbally expressed his impatience at the meeting regarding lack of action on this matter.

Mayor Kenneth McLeod told Mr. Jennings that he had spoken with the attorney representing Liggett School, Lewis Rockwell, that morning and that Mr. Rockwell said he was attending to the matter and would get information in the mail this week.

In an attempt to get more information, the NEWS contacted headmaster Dr. Frank Slayden who said that as far as he was concerned the matter was settled and that Liggett would be more than happy to grant the use of the playground under the terms specified in late February agreement.

Mr. Rockwell stated that his letter formalizing the agreement between Liggett School, the Woods Council and Shores Woods Homeowners Association was in the mail, and said that Liggett was more than happy to be of service to the community.

Teenage Girls Tell Police Of Struggle with Youths

Three teenage girls went to Woods police station on Sunday, August 4, to report three boys had tried to assault them at 1929 Mack avenue, the rear of Blazo's restaurant on that date.

They told officers that at 10:30 p.m. they pulled into Blazo's parking lot from Mack avenue and as they did so, three youths jumped in from their car, causing them to stop. The boys then opened the rear doors of the car and jumped into the car.

They began pulling the girls' hair and shoulders. The girls ordered the boys to leave but they refused saying they wanted the girls to drive to the parking lot where they could assault them.

Citizens for Education Endorse School Proposals On September 12 Ballot

Members of Group Hear Report of Special Committee at Meeting Held in Pierce Junior High School on August 1

At a meeting held Thursday night, August 1, the membership of Grosse Pointe Citizens Education unanimously voted to support the two millage proposals to be voted on September 12. At the meeting, which was held in Pierce Junior High auditorium, members heard the report of a special millage committee which had been investigating the matter.

Co-chairmen of the committee were Arthur Sherrman, Jr. of Hawthorne road, Dr. Frank Parcells of Buckingham road and James Mast of Cloverly road. Under their direction, four separate subcommittees considered various aspects of budgeting procedures, basic educational policies, land valuation and sources of revenue, and the need for funding changes, repairs and additions to the physical facilities.

One millage proposal calls for 4-1/2 mills for each of the next 2 years to be used for operating needs while the other proposal would add 1 mill for each of the next 10 years for building and site usage. The 4-1/2 mill operating proposal is 3 mills less than the 7-1/2 mill proposal which the voters turned down last February. In endorsing the current millage proposal, CFE approved a program to publicize its position and distribute information which will lead to greater voter understanding of all facts underlying proposed school budget and the recommended millage increase.

The millage committee concluded that the proposed budgets for school operations over the next 2 years were fair and reasonable and that the proposed millage increase was necessary and appropriate to provide the funds to meet these budgets. One subcommittee, composed of CPAs, reported that, while their investigation was not of the same depth as a normal audit, the school administration appeared to be exercising proper budgetary controls and sound money management procedures. With respect to anticipated revenue, it was noted that the property valuation for the 1968-69 school year has been fixed and that the 1968-69 school year can be forecast with a relatively high degree of accuracy. With regard to the proposed budgets for the next two school years, a $99,000 savings has been forecast in the summer school, cafeteria and adult education programs, as well as in the fringe benefit program for school employees. On the other hand, increases have been allocated for staff salary raises and for additional teachers to be utilized in the three middle schools and two high schools.

Coin Box Thieves Tossed For Loss

Thieves made a mighty unprofitable call on the Pointe Bar, at 1866 Mack avenue, Grosse Pointe Farms, late last Saturday night. They lost a lot of loot when Edward Roussin, of 5303 Ashley avenue, Detroit, an employee, went to investigate a strange noise he heard in the hallway.

When Roussin suddenly appeared around a corner from the bar, he spotted two strange men tampering with a telephone coin box. The burglars were so startled to see him they bolted out the door, and ran north into Detroit, Roussin reported. He summoned Woods' police.

When the thieves fled they left behind a 1965 Plymouth automobile, bearing 1968 license plates. When police arrived they found a canvas bag filled with coins, and several telephone coin boxes on the right floor board of the car. The auto and the abandoned loot were taken to the Farms police station.

Woman Dies In Crash on Own Lawn

Daughter Loses Control of Car and Rams Tree While Delivering Mother Home

One woman was killed and another seriously injured at 12:19 a.m., Sunday, August 4, when the vehicle in which they were riding hit a tree in Stanhope avenue in the Woods.

Killed was Carmella Ciaccia, 81, 2120 Stanhope. She died at St. John Hospital at 1:15 a.m. She was riding in a car driven by her daughter, Flora Benvenuti, 23901 Mackay, Romeo, Mich. The pair had been visiting relatives in Birmingham, Mich. Mrs. Benvenuti was taking her mother home.

From the tire tracks Woods police determined that Mrs. Benvenuti lost control of her car while traveling east. Tracks indicated that the car angled across yards on the south side of the street, curved back onto the street to a driveway on the other side of the street, over the curb and onto the front yard of 2120 Stanhope, hitting a tree on that lawn. Ironically it was Mrs. Ciaccia's own front lawn.

When the officers arrived they found Mrs. Ciaccia and Mrs. Benvenuti both lying in the front seat of the '66 Chevrolet. Mrs. Ciaccia was unconscious and Mrs. Benvenuti was suffering from multiple lacerations. They were rushed to St. John Hospital where Mrs. Ciaccia died an hour later. Mrs. Benvenuti was suffering from lacerations on the face, back of the head and on her legs. She was given four blood transfusions.

Can't Question Her
Officers were unable to question Mrs. Benvenuti because of her condition.

They took photographs at the scene and spoke to persons in the area who heard the crash. One person, Allen Slawik, 18, of 2145 Stanhope witnessed part of the accident and talked to the officers.

GUN GONE

Lawrence M. Scoville, Jr., 801 University place, called City police on Wednesday, August 1, to report the theft of his Smith-Wesson 44 Special Six-Shot Revolver, from the top dresser drawer of his bedroom chest, sometime during the last two months. The gun was chrome-plated with imitation pearl handle grips and was slightly bent. The gun was registered with Farms police while Mr. Scoville was living at 263 McMillan.

Schools' Progress Depends on Voters On September 12

Educational Improvements For All Levels of Instruction Contingent Upon Passage of Millage Proposals at Election

Included in the two-year budget projection of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, contingent upon passage of the September 12 operational millage proposition, are provisions for a number of educational improvements for all levels of instruction.

"Our tentative list is, in our opinion, minimal for a growing school system," Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, said. "We earnestly hope that the public will permit us to keep abreast of the times by making changes in the curriculum and program."

High on the list is additional provision for pre-school and primary education for children with predictable learning difficulties. Creation of a developmental kindergarten room to serve the north end of the district will be considered. The addition of a teacher at each elementary school to work with children with learning disabilities and to provide direct assistance in this field to the classroom teacher is also a possibility.

Additional Teachers
Additional teachers of special subjects for elementary schools are also being considered. Tentatively, it has been estimated that eight staff members are needed to improve the program.

Improved programs of in-service training are projected for the two-year period. Included would be workshops conducted locally.

For some time the schools have been considering the implementation of advanced data processing procedures. The modest beginnings already made will be bolstered by the acquisition of improved equipment and the employment of additional personnel.

Additional staff has been tentatively budgeted for the schools' central Department of Instruction, in an attempt to improve overall coordination of programs.

Based on Survey
Dr. Anderson said that the proposals were based on the recent report of the system-wide Professional Study Committee's survey of the educational needs of the district.

"Although we have not yet prepared our detailed listing of services and programs to be curtailed if the millage fails, we wish to make it clear to the public that with a projected operating deficit of more than $3 million over the two-year period, we shall definitely not be able even to maintain the status quo. Naturally, no program improvement would be possible," Dr. Anderson said.

The Superintendent of Schools said that previously budgeted for the 1968-69 year is $50,000 for the second phase of the on-going curriculum development project, with another $50,000 already budgeted for 1969-70.

"These projects, too, would be curtailed if the millage fails," he said.

The recently-completed, first phase consists of a factual description of the school system's

New High School Issues Instructions to Students

A series of orientation programs is scheduled for all students planning to attend North High School this fall. All ninth grade students will report August 26, tenth grade students, August 27, and eleventh grade students, August 28.

These meetings are scheduled for 9 a.m. in the school gymnasium. The orientation program will include the issuance of student schedules, the lockers, the taking of I.D. pictures.

Students will also have the opportunity to purchase textbooks and gym suits, receive student handbook and calendar, and a tour of the facility.

The student bookstore will be open for sale of textbooks for students at North High School beginning August 21

Ordinances Put Penalty On Hobbies

One Tabled, but Second, Banning Use of Motorized Model Planes, Approved by Council

By Pepper Whitelaw

Youngsters really took a whopping Monday night at the Woods Council meeting. Facing the Council were two ordinances aimed directly at youngsters' hobbies.

The first referred to the use of unlicensed mini-bikes, go-carts, scooters and the like on public or private property other than streets and roadways. The proposed ordinance would prohibit the use of these unlicensed vehicles within the City of Grosse Pointe Woods and they would be considered injurious to public safety.

Failure to comply with the ordinance would mean a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the city or county jail for a period of 90 days or both, at the discretion of the court.

Council members felt the ordinance as written needed more clarification so the matter was tabled and referred to the Committee On-the-Whole, which would report back to Council before further action is taken.

Model Planes Banned

However, another ordinance which would prohibit the operation of motorized model aircraft within the city of Grosse Pointe Woods was passed. Residents near Parcels Junior High School have complained bitterly of the noise and the safety hazard of these craft, which are flown primarily in school playgrounds by model plane enthusiasts. A petition signed by 162 residents was presented to the Council.

The ordinance declares that the operation of internal combustion model airplane engines within the Woods is a public nuisance and the use of such is prohibited. Persons violating the ordinance could be faced with a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment in the city or county jail for a period not to exceed 90 days, or both fine and imprisonment, at the court's discretion.

Would Use Mufflers

Among the audience were many bright-eyed youngsters who were there to defend their right to fly such planes and to suggest alternatives to the ordinance. One of the suggestions made was that model airplane flyers be required to use mufflers on the aircraft, which according to the flyers would cut the noise down almost 75%. Each father and son who spoke indicated that they felt the main complaint of the residents was the noise rather than the safety factor, since these planes require two persons to fly them, one of whom is always there to clear the area of little children.

Unfortunately the Council was faced with a problem of complaining residents, 162 strong, and the eager faces of model airplane flyers. Their dilemma was genuine.

Parents Have Questions

One of the fathers in the audience brought up a question that should not be treated lightly. He said that his sons have been flying these planes for years and added it keeps them out of trouble.

A mother in the audience looked pathetically at the council when discussion regarding the mini-bike ordinance was being conducted and said, "Where will our boys go with these vehicles now . . . they spent months building them?"

These are questions facing our society today . . . important questions. We continuously complain about juvenile delinquency and vandalism and chant that the children have too much time on their hands and too few interests, yet when youngsters do find constructive hobbies, we as citizens complain to our city officials of the noise and force them to protect OJ's rights. What about the rights of our children?

Police Chase Pair After Becoming Suspicious of Their Car Parked On Mack Avenue

City Police officers Edward Miller and Jerome Petz were on routine patrol, traveling east on Mack at University on Tuesday, July 30, at 4:28 a.m., when they noticed a '65 Oldsmobile parked without lights in front of 18136 Mack.

As the police car approached, the Olds left the curb, and the driver turned on the lights. Officers drove along side of the car and determined that the occupants were a white male and a Negro male. Petz and Miller attempted to stop the vehicle to question occupants as to why they were loitering near stores. The car took off at a high rate of speed, ignoring the officers' signal and the flashing blue lights.

The driver then disregarded a red traffic light at Mack and Calvin, Petz and Miller, in pursuit, radioed to all departments advising them of the chase.

Vandal Employs Spray Paint Can

A frustrated artist with a spray can vented his urge for self-expression at the home of Robert McKean, 166 Ridge road, on July 26.

Farms police, who received the report on July 30, said the damage was done in a dressing room and storage shed for the pool, located on the southwest corner in the rear of the McKean residence.

Someone entered the unlocked shed and sprayed baby blue enamel paint on the walls and mirrors. The artwork consisted of the letters "H" and "S" and several obscenities.

A can of spray paint was found by the back fence in the rear of the shed.

The initials "WW" were sprayed on the wooden fence and back wall of the shed.

Farms police photographed the damage and took samples of footprints in the shed but they are pessimistic about the chances of catching up with the artisan.

Salaries comprise 82% of the total school budget.

Among the possible uses of the 1 mill building and site revenues are modifications of the existing middle schools to meet the needs of the "teaching center" concept, remodeling of South High School, library expansion and improved playground facilities. While the 1 mill proposal would not be adequate to handle all of such projects, it was noted that even a partial pay-as-you-go program for these projects would be cheaper than borrowing money and would give the School Board the flexibility to meet rising needs in a timely and expeditious manner.

Hugh Harness of Lincoln road, CFE chairman, noted that the group has plans for continuing "in depth" studies of various aspects of the school system hearing on the budget and millage requirements. At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. Harness announced his appointment of Mrs. Barbara Hoffman of Yorkshire road and Mr. Jack Wood of Ridgemont road as co-chairmen of a committee to disseminate information with respect to the millage proposals and to enlist community support for the proposals.

The third and final stage of the long-term project will be implementation of the revised curriculum.

spotted the car at Mack and Torrey. They cut in front of the Olds forcing the car to spin around and hit the curb ending up facing west on eastbound Mack avenue. Officers Petz and Miller arrived immediately and together with Woods officers Weyhing, Schmatz, and Lt. Jack Paterson, who ran to the scene from the Woods station, arrested Freddie Saunders, 25, Negro male, of 1301 Virginia Park, Det. The driver of the car, Gaspar V. Scola, white male, 30, of 1423 Lakewood, Det. fled, running east on Torrey disappearing in the yards bordered by Torrey and Norton. Scola was apprehended by City police officer Miller and Woods officer Peter Thomas, hiding in the basement casement window of 19661 Norton.

Scola and Saunders were taken to the Woods Police Station and advised of their rights by Officer Miller, and of the charges against them.

It was determined, by evidence found in the car, that breaking and entering must have occurred just prior to the chase. Officer Dwight Scott of the City police and Jack Erskine, of Farms Police, checked the dental office of Dr. Edward G. Kane, 18136 Mack, and found indications that the building had been entered and ransacked. Several business machines were missing.

Upon further investigation Chief Andrew C. Teetaert and Cpl. William Plumb found several bits of evidence on the premises. They determined that entry had been made through a window in the court on the east side of the building. The machines had been taken out of the door on the east side of the building. Both the window and door had pry marks on them.

Employees Arrive

At 8 a.m., two female employees of Dr. Kane, arrived on the scene, and told officers that Dr. Kane was on vacation. One of the girls made a list of the serial numbers of the business machines that were missing from the office. They included an adding machine valued at $76.92; a typewriter, value unknown, and an IBM typewriter valued at $520. These numbers were checked with machines recovered from the back seat of the car Scola was driving and found to be the same. Also found in the car were screwdrivers, saws, lug wrenches and several more business machines, which had been taken from the dental office of Dr. Robert B.

Quellette, 16101 E. Warren, Det. The men were questioned after once again being advised of their rights by Chief Teetaert and Cpl. Plumb.

A warrant was recommended by the Assistant Wayne County Prosecutors office on breaking and entering a business place with intent to commit larceny therein.

Arraigned in City

The two men were arraigned before Judge Malcolm Sutherland in Grosse Pointe Municipal Court and a complaint signed by one of Dr. Kane's employees. A plea of not guilty was entered for the defendants who stood mute and surety bonds of $5,000 each were set. They were given an examination date of August 14. Both were unable to post bond and were held pending examination. A second warrant was obtained against the pair by Detroit Police Department.

The two were taken to the Wayne County Jail by Cpl. Plumb and officer Edmond Benthuis.

Detroit police verified that the prints of Scola and Saunders were those found at the B and E on East Warren. When the duo was confronted with these facts they made full confessions on both B and E's.

Had Expired License

Further investigation revealed that Scola was driving on an expired temporary license and

Woods Council Approves Street Repair Program

The Woods Council on Monday, August 5, unanimously approved a recommendation of City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, for a proposed street construction and maintenance program.

The program includes the widening of Newcastle road, west to Mack to alley, south side; Stanhope avenue, west of Mack to alley, both sides; Oxford road, west of Mack to alley, both sides; Lennon avenue, west of Mack to alley, both sides; Roslyn road, east of Mack to alley, south side; Brys drive, east and west of Mack to alley, both sides, and Aline drive, east of Mack to alley, both sides.

On East Eight Mile road, Mack to Goethe, there will be partial widening of the south side for diagonal parking; curb and gutters will be put on the south side; the drainage will be adjusted and a green barrier will be planted on the north side.

The Department of Public Works Storage Building Ramp will be completed.

The following street sections will be repaired: 843 Hidden lane, 855 Hidden lane, 20169 Fairway drive, 20048 E. Ballantyne court, the southeast corner of Wedgewood and Sunningdale, the area adjacent to Morning-side drive and the entrance to Grosse Pointe North High School, and the Mack and Allard avenue crossover.

Miscellaneous curb repairs and replacements will be made in two areas of the city.

Resurfacing with asphalt will be done on the following streets: Ida lane, Ghesquiere court, Fairford road, both sides from Torrey road and Fairholme to Wedgewood drive, Wedgewood drive from Oxford road to approximately 2045 Wedgewood drive, Crescent lane and Holiday road, Oxford to Fairholme roads.

Parking lots at Anita avenue and Ghesquiere Park, Kenmore avenue parking lot will be resurfaced.

Street sections at 20056, 20045, 20044, 10020, and 19950 Holiday will be resurfaced. Bumps will be removed on Cook and Chalfonte.

Slurry seal will be placed on Holiday road, Cook to Fairholme; Oxford road, Mack to Holiday road and South Oxford road, Wedgewood to Morning-side.

Alleys at Bournemouth road to Stanhope avenue; Allard avenue to South Ghesquiere Park; North Ghesquiere Park to Kenmore drive and Norwood drive to Lochmoor, will get two treatments, one and a half inches of stone, plus Slurry seal.

A major share of the street widening will be financed out of monies available in the parking meter fund. The rest of the program would be financed out of the gas tax refund monies included in the current budget.

Mr. Petersen indicated that this program should be completed before winter sets in, provided bids received are acceptable.

Woods Police Take Part In Auto Accident Survey

Grosse Pointe Woods Police recently received a detailed analysis of local traffic injury accidents which were part of a statewide, in-depth study of more than 1,100 injury accidents conducted by Automobile Club of Michigan. The samplings were based on an analysis of accidents occurring in July and August of 1967 and over the Memorial Day, July 4 and Labor Day weekends of that same year.

Grosse Pointe Woods police, and officers from 39 other Lower Peninsula agencies, cooperated with the Auto Club by filling out detailed accident research and analysis forms at the scene of each injury accident.

The 24-page study, entitled "Portrait of a Year," is a companion to Auto Club's 1966 study of Michigan traffic fatalities. "The second study is aimed at cross-checking what Auto Club learned in the first investigation and isolating some of the factors that spell the difference between injury and death," said Fred Rehm, general manager of the Club and secretary of the "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" program.

The local report indicates that 11 drivers fell into accident patterns very similar to those reported in the rest of the state. The study showed that:

Driver error was responsible for 87.5 percent of injury accidents as compared with 85.5 across the state, and nearly 90 percent state-wide in a parallel Auto Club study of traffic deaths in 1966.

All of the reported accidents occurred within 25 miles of home; the state-wide total was 78.4 percent.

Under-21 drivers represent about 12 percent of the total Michigan driving public, but were involved in 28.1 percent of the injury accidents statewide and in 36.4 percent here.

"Alcohol involvement here was below that reported in the rest of the state—9.1 percent, compared with 10.5 percent. But in any event it was below the 44 percent reported in the 1966 fatality study, indicating one of the key differences between fatalities and injuries," Rehm said.

"Drivers and passengers here apparently were more conscientious than in other parts of the state about the use of seat belts. Statewide; they were used in 10.4 percent of injury accidents; here the frequency rose to 27.4 percent. This indicates another major difference between injury and death accidents," Rehm added. In the previous year's fatality study they were reported used in four-tenths of one percent of accidents.

The average driver's biggest mistake here was control, the same as the rest of Michigan where failure to keep the car under control and right-of-way violations were the most common offenses. The average driver apparently did not see danger until too late. Even though he was traveling at an average speed of only 16.7 miles per hour, he was scarcely 30.8 feet away when he saw trouble ahead; he was traveling at 16.2 miles per hour at the moment of impact.

"This almost forces us to conclude that inattention was involved—since 81.8 percent of the drivers said their vision was not obstructed at the time of the accident," Rehm said. Yet only 9 percent of the drivers admitted to being distracted, and zero percent said they were disturbed because of family, friends or work.

Here as elsewhere, most of the accidents, 45.4 percent, occurred on the homeward bound leg of a short pleasure trip.

In 63.6 percent of the accidents the driver was in a car he always drives (compared to 76 percent statewide), and in 72.7 percent he was awake and in good physical condition, compared to 88 percent statewide.

"Another unusual facet of this study is our investigation of ambulance service throughout the Lower Peninsula," Rehm said. "We believe this is the first statewide study of this facet of traffic injuries."

Traffic victims in Grosse Pointe Woods were better off than in many other areas of the state. The average wait for an ambulance here was 4 minutes. The statewide average was 8.9 minutes.

The average for urban areas was 6 minutes; in incorporated townships it was 9.5 minutes and in rural areas it was 12 minutes.

"Without the wholehearted cooperation of law-enforcement officers in the Grosse Pointe Woods area, this study and its findings and conclusions would never have been possible," Rehm said. "We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Department publicly."

POP BOTTLE DENTS CAR

Ronald Beach, 1411 Edmunton, called Woods police on Saturday, August 3, to report that while his car was parked in front of his residence the night before, persons unknown had thrown a pop bottle at the vehicle and dented the chrome strip above the grill. He told usual noises during the night. The officer he heard no un-

*One thing we did was increase the number of times interest is compounded to the highest number mathematically possible. To continuously compound means we compute interest something like every minute of the year. Only more so.

Five percent, of course, is the legal maximum rate any bank is allowed to compound. (If numbers are important to you, 5% continuously compounded for four years equals 5.53% annually when expressed in terms of simple interest.)

To help make withdrawal easier we developed a 10-day privilege period every calendar quarter. You can take out whatever principal and interest you've had on deposit the legally-required 90 days... without giving us notice.

Safety Programs Capture Awards

Harper Woods, Grosse Pointe, Grosse Pointe Farms and Grosse Pointe Park are four of 46 Michigan communities receiving safety awards in the 29th annual AAA National Pedestrian Safety Program.

Harper Woods is the only Michigan community receiving an Award of Merit, equivalent to second place, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

The Award of Merit is presented to cities competing in the program for achieving 80 percent or more of the over-all total possible point score in its category.

Harper Woods competed among cities in the 25,000 to 50,000 population class.

Grosse Pointe, Grosse Pointe Farms and Grosse Pointe Park are three of 30 Michigan towns receiving the Pedestrian Safety citations.

This citation is awarded to cities competing in the program which record no fatalities for at least one year. This is the fourth consecutive year without a pedestrian death in Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe Farms while Grosse Pointe Park reported no pedestrian deaths in 1967.

In addition to the no death requirement, citizens must have an effective pedestrian education program.

George Measel, Auto Club area manager presented the awards to the mayors of the four communities on Wednesday, July 31, at the regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee.

Absent Violators' Bonds Forfeited

Several warrant bonds were forfeited when traffic law violators failed to answer charges against them Wednesday, July 31, in the court of Grosse Pointe Park Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger.

Among them is William A. Motschall, of 880 Eastlawn avenue, Detroit, who was charged with not only speeding 45 miles an hour in a 35-mile lane, but also without having his car registration certificate in his possession. He forfeited two bonds totaling $22.

Dennis Stillwagon, of 17717 Winston street, Detroit, forfeited bonds amounting to $25 for speeding and running through a red light. Karen Swindell, of 3504 Lycaete, Detroit, charged with making a prohibited left, also failed to appear in court. She forfeited a $15 bond.

Harold McInnis, of 973 Bal-four road, Grosse Pointe Park, charged with a signal light violation, forfeited a $10 bond. Thomas Trombley, of 130 Kerby road, Grosse Pointe Farms, was ticketed for driving 50 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone. His bond was for $25.

Charles Ireland, of 20907 Hawthorne street, Harper Woods, made a prohibited right turn, and Martha Walilko, of 1417 Manistique, Detroit, was charged with jay walking. Each forfeited a $10 bond.

Richard Montmorency of 1515 Aline drive, Grosse Pointe Woods, had a $17.50 bond cancelled when he failed to answer a speeding charge. Oswald Ashurst, of 829 Trombley road, Grosse Pointe Park, appeared in court to answer a "backing accident" charge. Found guilty by Judge Belanger, he paid a $15 fine and $2 costs.

James C. McCandless, of 694 Lincoln road, Grosse Pointe, charged with driving 35 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone, failed to appear. His warrant bond was $25. His case was reported to Lansing. James E. Miller, of 2254 Baldwin avenue, Detroit, charged with causing an accident while changing lanes, suffered the same fate. His bond was $25.

TRUCK AFIRE

City firemen extinguished a fire in a truck on Kercheval avenue between Neff and Lakeland, on Monday, August 5. They found a broken hose in the engine of the truck had caused the padding under the hood to catch fire. They used a booster line to extinguish the fire and wet down the padding.

Join the Deltagation to Miami Beach.

Choice of Miami Beach as a political convention site indicates what a truly great summer spot it is. Even the busiest delegate has a white-capped sea at his door, a pool below his window.

Deep-sea fishing cruisers rigged for marlin cruise just offshore. When vacation hours are valued, this is the place to be. There's a Florida band wagon everybody is getting on: it's a Delta jet cruising to Miami at a cool 600 miles an hour.

This is a caucus, Florida style. It goes on all the time. Around the pools. On the beach. In sybaritic restaurants, Latin cafes and Polynesian gardens. You can join any time. Just tell your travel agent you want a Delta Dream Vacation package. That's the winning ticket, any year!

Delta gets the majority vote to Miami!

Delta has consistently outpolled all other candidates, summer and winter, since the days of the first jets. With up to eight jet services a day, to Miami, including two non-stops, Delta's the most! Departures round the clock offering space for up to 924 Deltagates every day! Night Coach flights (daily with doubles on week-ends) can save you $16 each way. Best thing that ever happened to air travel Nights make for exciting sessions in Miami. Sleek greyhounds run for pari-mutuel riches at nighttime dog tracks. You go to Broadway musicals... concerts under the stars... play Par 3 golf on a palm-lined, flood-lighted course or take in a top-talent roof-top show along the luxury row of Miami Beach. You can go Latin for an entire evening, in food and drinks and dances. Vacations achieve round-the-clock variety in this Florida setting.

Eyes of the nation will be focused on the dramatic events inside this new addition to glamorous Miami Beach, during the first national convention ever held in Florida. Efficient host-city Miami Beach made it all possible by a huge expansion of its meeting facilities, located just a sea shell's throw from Atlantic surf or Biscayne Bay. And here, amid all the Miami Beach flamboyance and luxury, is where you can be to politic or play... in such a few cool hours on Delta.

Cottage Hospital Pioneers With Computer Program

Hospitals have not yet automated the back-rub, but this week Cottage Hospital and Michigan Blue Cross made another kind of electronic breakthrough.

The first Michigan hospital to participate in Blue Cross's new Hospital Computer Service Program, Cottage last week began transmitting essential business office information via teletype to Blue Cross 15 miles away where it will be stored, sorted and serviced by data processing computers.

Concurrent with the inauguration of what is expected to become a state-wide network of similar hook-ups, Ralph L. Wilgarde, Administrator of Cottage, was elected first chairman of the newly formed Blue Cross Hospital Computer Services Advisory Council. The organization will serve as intermediary between hospitals participating in the computer program and Blue Cross's Hospital Computer Services Division.

Essentially this division receives business office data transmitted from Cottage Hospital by means of two automatic sending and receiving devices located in the hospital, thus saving literally thousands of man-hours a month and ultimately freeing personnel for critically needed patient care services.

"One thinks first of a hospital as a place of healing," stated Mr. Wilgarde, "but it is also a very complex, highly refined business operation involving payrolls, census reporting, patient accounting, accounts payable, personnel records, and financial accounting."

In a hospital the size of Cottage (115 beds), these areas alone routinely process literally hundreds of reports and hundreds of figures weekly. Electronics make such business functions possible swiftly and accurately.

And, since the advent of Medicare and its accompanying, complicated reporting requirements, the availability of centralized computer services of the type instituted by Michigan Blue Cross and inaugurated at Cottage is particularly valuable.

"Today there is an almost insatiable demand for statistics, records and forms in the running of a hospital, making it increasingly essential for several hospitals to pool certain common problems and tap common resources," said Wilgarde.

"We, therefore, wasted no time looking into Blue Cross's new shared computer service, and we are pleased to have been selected the first Michigan hospital to participate in and pilot the new program," he added.

As a result of this decision, personnel at Cottage Hospital worked with Blue Cross computer specialists for months to program the new electronic business office procedure. Because the financial records of all patients in the hospital, as of midnight of July 31 had to be translated to computer code, hospital employees from the medical records department, business office, dietary department, laboratory and administration worked literally night and day to make the electronic transition possible.

The Cottage Hospital administrator also said he believed that the ultimate clinical application of computers promises to be one of the most exciting events in the future of hospitals. Michigan Blue Cross, in fact, is the first Plan in the country to have a pilot computer project directly involving hospital personnel concerned with patient care.

Wilgarde said he believed it entirely conceivable that within the next five years nursing stations will be wired into master computer consoles, that physicians' orders will be stored on electronic tape, that drug scheduling, selective menu ordering and instant billing on discharge will all be computerized.

"Far from de-personalizing hospital-medical care, the computer may well eventually be credited with the rebirth of tender loving care by finally freeing the nurse, the doctor and the technicians of the burdens of paperwork," said Wilgarde.

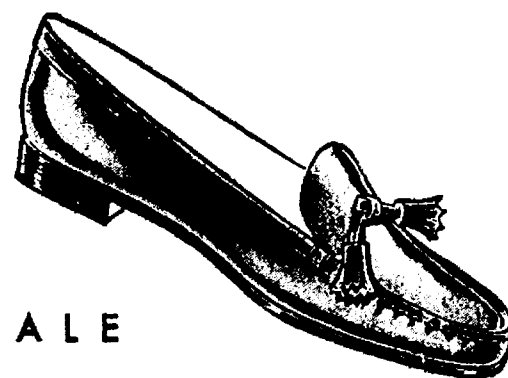

It has been estimated by hospital cost accountants that approximately 30 per cent of the cost of operating a hospital is tied in with paper work and processing patient information, another reason why, according to Wilgarde, centralized data processing is an especially welcomed technological innovation in the hospital field.

According to Michigan Blue Cross, Detroit Art Center Hospital will be the second to participate in its Hospital Computer Service network in September, with Sinai following in November. Across the state 25 additional hospitals have indicated an interest in participating.

With respect to Cottage, Frank Teodecki, General Manager of the Blue Cross shared computer service, said: "We felt that in Cottage we had an excellent prototype because it provides the essential services of a community hospital, is of manageable size, and is efficiently administered to serve as a kick-off for our new program."

Drinking Driver Detained in Jail

Eugene E. McGowan, 2188 Hollywood, was observed by Woods police officers Cpl. Thomas Kerving and patrolman Michael Ferrence, at Norwood and Mack, driving a '62 Rambler north on Mack.

The officers turned left from this intersection into northbound Mack and noticed that McGowan's car was weaving from the right hand lane to the center lane.

Several cars had to apply their brakes in order to prevent accidents.

At Vernier and Mack the scout car pulled to the left side of the car with rotary beacon on, horn sounding and indicated to McGowan to pull over to the curb. The scout car then pulled in behind the McGowan car. McGowan moved to the inside left lane.

Once again the officers indicated to McGowan to pull his vehicle to the curb, and again McGowan ignored the signal. He then made a left turn through the island crossover at Hollywood and stopped his car.

Kerving and Ferrence asked McGowan for his driver's license and registration, at that time they noticed that McGowan appeared to be intoxicated. McGowan was unable to locate his car registration. Officers placed him under arrest for driving under the influence of liquor, and took him to the Woods police station.

Upon arrival at the station he was advised of his rights. He told officer Kerving that he understood his rights then refused a chemical test. He was then fingerprinted and photographed. He was permitted to make a phone call. He told officers he could not raise the bond money. He was held at the Woods police station in lieu of $100 cash bond. His car was held at the rear of the station.

HHH's 'Politics of Joy' Bore St. Clair Shores

By Robert Wells
 Under boiling thunderclouds that boded ominously of rain, Hubert Horatio Humphrey came to St. Clair Shores last Friday. He spoke at the dedication of a new pumping station located beyond the Edsel Ford estate but just this side of Burkemo's and the Great Lakes Yacht Club.

It was a very traditional political event in the best baby-kissing tradition. The Lakeview High School Band. Every politician from Macomb County up on the podium to get his picture taken with the Happy Warrior. Kids. Cops. Demonstrators. The Vice President's ostensible purpose for visiting was to help dedicate the Chapaton Retention Basin, a fancy piece of plumbing built with federal money. He called the project "a combination of local initiative and leadership, careful regional planning and federal back-up." He praised all the mayors and drain commissioners in-involved in the feat. He also said the plant "symbolizes an important new departure for America," toward "ensuring a living environment" free from pollution, improving transportation, and perhaps creating "totally new Regional Planning." Authorities in many regions. Applause was polite but weak.

The only real animation visible in the audience was as they picked out their favorite T.V. newscasters in the press gallery. In his speech from the balcony of the ugly orange brick sewage pumping station with an imitation mansard roof, Humphrey thanked every local politician in the county, even the ones such as Macomb County drainage commissioner Tom Welch who drew mostly boos from the apathetic audience of about 800. The audience, at least half of them children, stood patiently on the gray pavement of a parking lot and listened to their Vice President.

As he drolled through his prepared text, ad libbing an occasional rhetorical embellishment, Humphrey was continually interrupted by a group of about 20 demonstrators who called themselves "Counter-Thrust" and "The Young Patriots." Doesn't Counter-Thrust sound like a synonym for backlash???

Many wore "Wallace for President" buttons. They carried posters with such messages as, "Remember the Cleveland Police," "Win in Vietnam," "HHH Gives Into (sic) Black Power," and the like. They shouted to their Vice President to "Arrest Carmichael," "Get the Subversives out of the Poverty Program," and so on.

When the big row of movie cameras began to turn toward the demonstrators, Humphrey chided the cameramen. "Boys, this is where the action is. Turn your cameras this way." He criticized the demonstrators for "using storm trooper tactics and breaking up a decent meeting."

A group of about five anti-war demonstrators were also present, one of them carrying a home-made McCarthy sign and a peace symbol, and another wearing a Humphrey button which he had bent so that only the letters "HUMP" were left.

"We decided not to demonstrate, except for one of us, who said 'Get out of Vietnam' a couple times," the McCarthy sign-bearer said. "But we just had to come, just to let him know we haven't forgiven him yet. We'll be in Chicago to say our thing there, too. We're going to stop Hubert, you dig???"

Malicious Teens Smash Gas Light

Woods police received a report of malicious damage to property on Saturday, August 3, from a resident of Pear Tree road.

The informant told officers that at 1:21 a.m. she observed a tan Chevrolet, with four teenagers inside, stop in front of 644 Pear Tree. One youth got out of the vehicle broke the glass in the gas lawn light and then reentered the car.

The car took off, heading west on Pear Tree, then turning north on Wedgewood. Officers searched the area but could not locate the car.

Young Intruder Conducts Tour

A juvenile intruder who climbed through an unlocked downstairs window of a vacant house with a "For Sale" sign on the front lawn, remained inside and obligingly showed two potential purchasers through the residence, police reported.

The youngster crawled through a window at 910 Grand Marais boulevard, early Saturday morning, August 3, according to police. His somewhat irregular entry was sighted by Mrs. George T. Halsig who lives across the street at 925 Grand Marais.

She summoned Grosse Pointe Park police who arrested the 16-year-old trespasser on a charge of burglary. Police said the house had been emptied of furnishings by the former tenants, so nothing was stolen.

The youth told police he had been staying overnight with friends in the neighborhood. He gave no reason for his act.

However, the youngster reported an ironic twist in connection with the incident. He said that while looking around inside the residence, a man and woman who had seen the "For Sale" sign, came up the sidewalk to the front door and rang the bell.

The boy welcomed them cordially, as they asked to be shown through the house. He accompanied them on a brief tour through the building. The couple thanked him and left, apparently not suspecting anything was wrong. A few minutes later the youth was apprehended by the Park police.

New Fire Bomb Incident Probed

City police had another incident of the throwing of a fire bomb at a residence on Monday, August 5. Fortunately the bomb burned itself out in front of the house.

Three juveniles were spotted running from the scene. Another resident saw three youngsters enter a house in the neighborhood. Police checked the house but the parents told officers that their sons had been home all evening. Police discovered however that three other boys were visiting at the home earlier and had left. They are checking into this. The boys at home denied any knowledge of the fire bombing.

Particulates of the firebomb were taken to the station. Police are conducting a thorough investigation.

Family Reunion Day August 11

The mayors of all the Grosse Pointes have officially declared Sunday, August 11, as Family Reunion Day in the Grosse Pointe community.

The day was established by Kiwanis to reaffirm the importance of the family to its members and to affirm the strengths that the family provides and our nation needs. Family Reunion Day is one of the biggest, most important and significant of all Kiwanis Special Emphasis Programs.

The mayors' proclamations ask that Pointers set aside this day for family activities; picnics, reunions, dinners and similar activities designed to dramatize the family as the basis of all that is good across our land today.

Most things are governed by the law of demand, but making mistakes isn't one of them.

Tape Recorder Taken from Car

James McClanaghan called City police on Tuesday, August 30, to report that while his '68 Opel was parked in the rear of Peck and Peck on Kercheval, someone broke into the car and took a tape pack and tape recorder.

The lot attendant said he saw a white male, about 17 years old, wearing a gray checked shirt, walking away from the car with the tape pack and tape recorder.

When the attendant confronted the boy, he ran down Kercheval place, dropping the recorder but fleeing with one tape.

Plan Program On Great Books

Persons interested in registering for the fourth year program of a Great Books Discussion Group may get more information from the Central Library, 10 Kercheval at Fisher road, 884-2200, or by contacting Mrs. C. Kenneth Harle, Jr. at 963-6420 or 885-1057.

The first meeting of this group will be held on Thursday, September 12, at 8 o'clock p.m. in the Friends Room of the Library. Subsequent meetings, which consist of a two hour discussion period, are held on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month.

All adults in the community are welcome. There are no tuition fees and no special academic background, nor previous Great Books group participation, is required. It may sound easy, but the hardest thing in the world to get is an honest opinion.

They Face Sad Parting

By Pepper Whitelaw
LISA FRASER is one year old. She lives in Notre Dame avenue. She loves The Pointe's clean air and country-like atmosphere. In fact, she loves everything about The Pointe except the Blue Jays, who are too noisy and precocious to suit her. Lisa also loves her family which consists of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fraser, Jim, 17, (pictured above), Tom, 15; George, 14; and Mary Beth, 9. Incidentally Lisa is a Buteo jamaicensis, commonly known as a Red-tail hawk.

Jim found her in Mount Clemens . . . she had fallen out of her nest and was lost, frightened and alone. Jim took her home and she's been a member of the family ever since. Jim, a senior at Grosse Pointe South High School, has been interested in falconry for four years (he had another Red-tail hawk a few years back but released it because it was much too wild).

Responds to Name
Lisa is not wild . . . according to the Fraser's she's anything but. She responds to her name . . . takes a bath twice a week (with an assist from Tom and the garden hose).

She has a home of her very own too . . . a utility shed complete with window, cozily nestled in the Frasers' backyard. Also in the backyard is an outdoor perch where Lisa can ponder the wonders of nature. There's also a perch in the basement when the cold winter sets in.

On these hot summer nights, Lisa often is taken for long drives along with the other members of the Fraser family. When the family takes long trips Lisa is often along . . . the family has startled many a waitress with requests for a quarter of a pound of raw liver or steak. Lisa eats either of these delicacies once a day. Her liquid intake is limited to drops of water from the garden hose during her bi-weekly baths.

Needs More Room
The Frasers have been trying to find a place with more room for Lisa . . . a place where she won't be so confined, since she has grown so of late (she now has a four-foot wing spread). She can't be released to fly on her own because she is too tame and her beak too soft.

Jim did take her to the Detroit Zoo recently, intending to leave her there, but returned with Lisa in tow when he found the cages were small and the food unlike Lisa's regular diet.

A few weeks ago the family drove some 700 miles all over Michigan trying to find the proper place for Lisa. They finally took her to Peleton, to the University of Michigan's Biological Center but they rejected her

Confiscate Gun Used by Youths

Dortha White, 289 Rivard, reported to City police on Thursday, August 1, that while she was stopped at Rivard and Maumee at 5 p.m. on that date, she heard BB shots bouncing off her car and the pavement around her.

She noticed movement in the upper window of a nearby residence. Police checked the house and found two juveniles, who admitted shooting BBs and a pellet gun from a bedroom window.

The guns were confiscated and held at the station and the boys' parents notified.

Sidewalk Owner Loses Argument

A unanimous vote by the City Council of Grosse Pointe Farms denied the request of Carmen Mitchell of 281 Moross, asking the city's aid in repairing the sidewalk in front of his home at a meeting Monday night, August 5.

Mitchell, who is one of a list of property owners who were notified by the city of their special sidewalk assessment, asked why the walks were not repaired in 1964 under the preceding owner.

When questioned by Mayor William G. Butler if he was aware of the cracked sidewalk when he purchased the home in 1964 and that as a citizen he was responsible for their repair, Mitchell replied positively, but claimed that because of "out-and-out neglect on the part of our city officials" the previous owners were not forced to make the repairs and now the job is being forced upon him.

Mitchell explained that after careful research, he found the cause of ten squares of broken sidewalk, which was installed in 1923 and whose repair has been estimated at $176.00, is due to improper sidefill of the sewer along the street.

This caused the side walks to slant, making a very dangerous condition when icy.

Council officials felt that since the sidewalk has lasted nearly 45 years, that they saw no reason why this improper sidefill problem would immediately affect a newly laid sidewalk.

The mayor pointed out that by asking the city to assist or take care of the sidewalk assessment, Mitchell was asking his neighbors to pay for his responsibilities through taxes.

Hear Sentence In Woods Court

The City of Grosse Pointe Woods Municipal Court convened on Saturday, August 3, with Judge Don J. Goodrow presiding.

Three persons were charged with removal of public property. Daniel Martin Parker, 5708 St. Lawrence, Detroit, John Joseph Sherwin, 1971 Morrell, Detroit, and Benny Bolek, 5847 Tarnow, Detroit, all were fined $23.20.

Frank Reno, 14433 Wilfred, Detroit, was charged with having only one license plate. He was fined $5.

James Albert Ryan, 1040 Chalmers, Detroit, was charged with driving on an expired driver's license and fined $25.

Thomas Wayne Harrington, 1544 Brys drive, appeared for driving without license plates and was fined $25.

Charged with improperly displayed license plates was William Garner Van Hook, 2536 Deacon, Detroit. He was fined $13.

Antonino Daleo, 18944 Moon, Detroit, appeared for failure to maintain lighting equipment and was fined $15.

Fined $10 for driving the wrong way on a one-way street was Michael Charles Dallas, 23798 Fenton, Mt. Clemens.

Barbara Jane Buschbacher, 5808 Radnor, Detroit, was fined $5 for making a prohibited left turn.

John Jay Trupiano was charged with failure to stop in an assured, clear distance resulting in an accident. He was fined $15.

Martin Doyle, 22851 Lake Shore drive, St. Clair Shores, was charged with driving under the influence of liquor and fined $75. His license was suspended for 90 days.

Two persons had their sentences suspended. Five cases were dismissed and 35 defendants failed to answer their summons. Judge Goodrow signed warrants against them.

Everetta Stark, 4899 Opal, Detroit, who was charged with driving on a revoked license, was found guilty and fined $50 and given five days in Wayne County Jail. She appealed the case and posted a $250 bond.

HUBS CAPS MISSING

Mrs. Robert Sumner, 333 Roosevelt, called City police on Wednesday, July 31, to report four hub caps were stolen from her '65 Ford Mustang which was parked in front of her residence. The hub caps were spinner type and valued at $80. Mrs. Sumner told officers that she believed they were stolen by two white teenagers in a grey and black Mustang. Police are investigating.

Driver Trapped By Snow Tires

An automobile, equipped with steel-studded winter snow tires, didn't seem exactly proper to Park Police Sergeant George Blair, on a sultry August night.

So the sergeant dutifully halted the movement of the vehicle as it joggled along Jefferson avenue on Sunday, August 4, at 1:07 a.m. The driver was Don Amigo Lopez, of 11743 Longview avenue, Detroit. He was unable to produce a driver's license. His arrest followed. At the police station it was found that Lopez's operator's permit had been revoked by the Detroit Traffic Court.

Later he was released on bond, after he had been assured that there wouldn't be any snow around for a few months, and that he'd better get the studs off his tires before he came to court to answer charges. Police say Lopez's wife came to his rescue, drove him home, promised to have the tires changed.

Berkshire Choir Accepts Pointer

John Gage Parke of 364 University place, Grosse Pointe, a chorister with the Christ Church Choir in Grosse Pointe, has been accepted as a member of the Berkshire Boy Choir at Lenox, Mass., now in its second season.

The 1968 Choir consists of 46 treble boys, chosen after highly competitive auditions, and 14 professional adult singers. They have been divided into two groups, the concert choir and the cathedral choir. Musical standards of both are identical, with membership in each group determined solely by the age of the boys.

Under the musical direction of Brian Runnet, one of England's foremost choir masters, the Berkshire Boy Choir has already appeared this summer at the music festivals in Hartford, Connecticut; Castle Hill at Ipswich, Massachusetts; Bydenwood at Reading, Pennsylvania; and at the universities of Rhode Island, Rutgers, Syracuse, and State University of New York at Potsdam. Performances are also scheduled at the Saratoga Festival and the National Cathedral in Washington.

Earns Scouting's Top Rank

DAVID RIDDLE became the 25th Eagle Scout in the long history of Troop 156 of Christ Church when he was presented scouting's highest award at the troop's Court of Honor. David, shown here with his father DEAN, and mother, WINIFRED, lives at 419 Hillcrest. David also received a God and Country award earlier this year which is the highest religious award in scouting.

Hamilton Court Rats Conquered

Hamilton court residents, who attended the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Farms City Council Monday evening, August 5, were relieved of their grievance of rodent trouble.

In answer to a recent complaint of rats coming up out of the sewers, a local exterminating company was sent to investigate.

All of the manholes on Hamilton court were baited while manholes throughout the Farms were spot baited.

The residents reported that the last time a rat was seen was two weeks ago.

City officials said a regular watch would be kept on the condition and warned residents not to encourage the rats by throwing food out for birds, or loosely sealing their garbage.

This man is weeding his lawn!

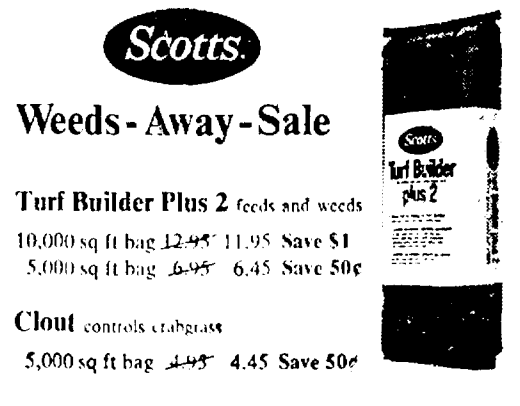

YESTERDAY he used Plus 2. Now, while he sleeps, the dandelions, the plantain, the chickweed (and similar kinds of rosette and vining weeds) are on their way out. And one morning a little later, he'll look at his lawn and notice that they have completely faded away.

How things change. Once upon a time people used to dig out weeds, one at a time. A backbreaking job. And worst of all, it didn't really work. If you didn't get every bit of it out, the weed would grow right back up again.

Today, in minutes, America spreads Turf Builder Plus 2 and gets to the root of the matter. Rosette and vining weeds soon vanish and the grass itself gets thicker and greener because Plus 2 feeds as it weeds.

When's the right time to use it? Right now while your Scott's dealer is having a money-saving Weeds Away Sale. You'll be on your way to a better than ever lawn this fall.

Crabgrass a problem? Clobber it promptly with two applications of Clout. At special sale prices right now.

Never Bother Bothers, Til Bothers Bother You

By Walter W. Fuller

Right out of an azure, cloudless sky, from which a blazing sun poured down its August heat upon the damp earth to cook up a huge batch of debilitating humidity, a perspiring but cheerful friend sauntered up and, for some unknown reason, threw me a quizzer. "Doesn't anything ever bother you?"

And, dagnab it, the only answer I was able to wheeze out was, "Yes, the humidity."

Then, with his shirt sticking to his chest, he persisted: "Tell me, what bothers you most?"

"Are you taking a poll, or something?" was the only retort I could muster. And I walked away, brushing the humidity from my eyes, as he stared into space.

Then thoughts which turned into memories tumbled across my cerebrum. That evening after dinner I locked myself in my customary hideaway, and tried hard to think of some things that bother me, as a result of the seed planted over on Kercheval avenue by that overheated pedestrian.

White Salt Bothers

One of my main daily bothers is white salt. Not the devouring of it, mind you, but the color of it. Why does salt have to be white? Never, never, do I know how much of that stuff filters onto the white of an egg, a cob of sweet corn, an onion, mashed potatoes—and so on. After all pepper and paprika are not white. So why can't salt be purple—or something?

Then, another thing that bugs me is this David Brinkley-Chet Huntley "goodnight" bit they use when they sign off their TV program. If Chet calls David David, why doesn't David call Chet Chester? That would only be fair. Still Chet always says David, and David never says Chester. And if that isn't one of the silliest "bothers" I have, it's perhaps because August always is the silliest month of the year . . . so fo'give us.

But, now, here's another thing that gits me. Did you ever notice when you dial a wrong telephone number . . . or some other such thing . . . the dulcet voice of an operator comes on the line and purrs: "I am sorry, the number you have reached is not in service at this time." Doesn't that nice gal realize that no number has been REACHED. I think Mr. Day who is the phone company's top operator, should change "reached" to DIALED, don't you?

How About Policemen?

And, say, what about policemen . . . those who once walked beats. Sure I know they're mostly riding. But there once was a nice sentimental song which chorused: "If you want to know the time, ask a policeman . . . every man on the force has a watch and chain, of course . . ." and so on.

These days, if you wanted to ask a policeman what time it is you'd have to flag down either a scout car, or a motorcycle. And, if you did that you might get tossed into a looney bin, or be handed a ticket for brutality to those nice men in blue.

Did any of you, perchance, ever awaken in the early morning to the clomp, clippety, clomp of a milkman's horse? That's something that doesn't bother me too much, but every now and then I find myself wide awake early in the mornin', imagining I hear the hooves clomp clippety on the pave. Instead, all I hear is some noise: guy next door, mowing the lawn, or traffic roaring toward the big city.

Then, a summer bother, is the automobile driver who thrusts his arm out the front left window of his jalopy, trying to make you wonder what he's going to do. He may be flicking out some ashes, but also he may be going to make a turn. Certainly the person in the car behind him doesn't know.

Drafted Stamp Machine
Among my 47 other unimchine a few well-placed smacks. Then, there's the dirty windshield. You drive into a gasoline station, buy a couple of gallons of gas, and the man cleans your front glass, side glass and back glass for free. So you drive up to a fine restaurant with a dirty windshield. You spend 20 bucks or so wining and dining. You tip the fellow who returns your car. And you still have the same filthy windshield. I can't think what it is, but there must be something wrong with the system. Howsoever, if I kept worrying about all these minor bothers that bother me, I'd probably go daft. My goodness, don't look now . . . perhaps I have gone there — daft, that is!

Self-sympathy is the super highway that leads to misery.

It takes a clever man to make use of second-hand experience.

Babe Ruth Champs City, Park and Farms

Youths Facing Double Charges

Two 18-year-old youths, Albert Edgar, 26107 Colman, and Robert A. Nasierowski, 8934 Astor, were charged as minors in possession and with littering by City police on Sunday, August 4.

They were spotted by officers throwing beer cans out of their car at Maumee and Neff. Officers picked up the duo at Bishop and Maumee, with five full cans of malt liquor and two open cans.

Both were released on $100 bond each pending their court appearance.

Lochmoor Tank Team Triumphs

Roy Pouliot is still unable to walk on water. But following Lochmoor's Inter-Club Championship triumph, the master swim director was floating high.

Tallying 744 points, including 19 gold medals and 10 second place finishes, Lochmoor far outdistanced its nearest rival, Dearborn Country Club, by nearly 200 points. In addition, Pouliot's powerful cast established seven new records.

Of the 40 events, Lochmoor swimmers currently claim 17 records.

Playing leading roles in last weekend's festivities were Gary Hoffman, Tom Heholt, and Lisa Beckenhauer. All three were double victors in individual races and swam on winning relays.

Miss Beckenhauer, who since 1962 own eight individual records, easily captured the 13-14 freestyle and backstroke races. Her free time of 29.2 was just two-tenths off her record-setting pace of last year. Lisa's 34.2 for the 50-meters backstroke set a new record. Lisa also anchored the winning freestyle relay of Pam Wyborski, Mary Ambrose and Susie Heholt.

Tom Heholt, a freshman-to-be at the new Grosse Pointe High North, grabbed the butterfly and free events. The 29.1 clocking for his 50-fly was another record.

Woods Tankers Capture Crown

In winning the Annual League Championship meet held August 3, at the Grosse Pointe City Pool, Woods swimmers put the frosting on their cake as they completed a perfect season with five victories and no defeats.

Woods swimmers compiled a total of 288 points as against Grosse Pointe City's total of 200, Grosse Pointe Farms 182, Grosse Pointe Shores 158, Grosse Pointe Park 107, and St. Clair Shores 87 points.

At the conclusion of the meet the Woods team, coached by Peter Biglin, was awarded the League's dual meet trophy in recognition of the perfect season. In addition, the team was also presented with the Championship Meet trophy.

At a team picnic held August 5, Grosse Pointe Woods team swimmers were honored with individual trophies. Individual members were singled out for outstanding effort and accomplishments in various categories among which were those who had accumulated a total of 907 points or 54 per cent of the 1,484 points earned by the Woods team in competition this summer.

Coach Biglin pointed out that the perfect record compiled this season was the result of a total team effort and could not have been accomplished without the enthusiasm and hard work which was put forth by every member of the team.

A man may be self-satisfied, but it's the other fellow's opinion that really counts.

MAN'S DAIQUIRI

Most men seem to like their Daiquiris on-the-rocks, in a glass they can get a grip on.

1/2 oz. lime juice and 1 level tsp. sugar (or use a prepared mix), 1 1/2 oz. white or silver Puerto Rican rum. Shake with ice and strain over ice cubes in a husky old-fashioned glass.

PUERTO RICAN RUM is light and dry and outsells all others 3 to 1

The new Mercedes-Benz 250: so "over-engineered" it won't mush, sway or wallow—even on cloverleaf turns.

On today's high-speed turnpikes, it's easy to forget how fast you're driving. Mentally, you're "velocityized," as one expert put it. So, sometimes you take the off-ramp at a cloverleaf intersection a little faster than you meant to.

You crank away on the steering wheel but your car tugs straight ahead like a dog straining at the leash. The tires squeal and your passengers squirm. One of life's embarrassing moments.

What "over-engineering" can mean to you

You probably could have avoided the drama if you'd been driving the new Mercedes-Benz 250. It runs rings around most cars. It out-handles and out-maneuvers them to help you avoid anxious moments.

How does Mercedes-Benz make a 4-door sedan with the agility of a sports car? In the words of one critic, the new 250 is "over-engineered."

He's right. And Mercedes-Benz is proud of it. By conventional standards, the new Mercedes-Benz 250 is "over-engineered." It's built to far more exacting standards than ordinary cars.

A patented improvement

The 250's suspension system is patented—one of the more than 5,200 basic engineering patents held by Mercedes-Benz. The engineers simply would not tolerate poor roadholding or a jarring ride.

Their ingenious solution: a pair of anti-sway bars—one in front, one at the back. Without these concealed torsion bars to fight body lean, the suspension's springs would have to be so stiff that the ride would be ruined.

With two anti-sway bars (most cars have one), the 250's suspension is soft enough on a washboard road to absorb annoying jolts. And on a tight turn, it's firm enough to prevent mush and wallow.

A suspension that sacrifices neither ride nor handling is a good example of how "over-engineering" works for you. Here are some more examples:

A superior braking system

Many ordinary cars still use old-fashioned drum brakes.

Today's 180-mph Grand Prix racing cars use disc brakes. So does the Mercedes-Benz 250. And not just on the front wheels, but on every wheel. Drum brakes are cheaper, but tests prove that disc brakes provide the most precise braking possible—at any speed. So Mercedes-Benz engineers insist on 4-wheel disc brakes as standard equipment. With 421.1 square inches of braking area, it's virtually impossible to outrun the 250's brakes.

10,000 body welds

Most conventional cars have a separate body and chassis, held together with bolts. After a while, the bolts can work loose. On a washboard road, the rattles can be deafening.

Mercedes-Benz eliminated the body bolts. In their place are over 10,000 individual welds. The result is a structure of immense strength and rigidity. After 50,000 miles or so, you may begin to wonder if your 250 will ever rattle.

Overhead-cam engine

Usually, your car's engine is either tuned for power or economy—not both. By employing a sophisticated overhead-camshaft layout borrowed from Mercedes-Benz World Championship sports/racing cars, the engineers were able to improve the engine's volumetric efficiency (its ability to "breathe"). This remarkable engine gives the 250 a top speed comparable to a standard V-8 with the fuel economy of a Six.

"Fatigue-proof" seats

Take a day-long trip in some cars and you'll wind up feeling like a damp washrag. The Mercedes-Benz 250 is engineered as much for human comfort as it is for mechanical efficiency. Orthopedic physicians were consulted in the design of the 250's seats so you'll have proper support on cross-country tours as well as short hops to the supermarket. When you first slip into one of the 250's carefully contoured seats, it may seem firm, but once you get used to it, you'll never settle for "marshmallow" seats again. Mercedes-Benz engineers have respect for your backbone.

These are just a few of the many advanced engineering features of the Mercedes-Benz 250. Taken together, they add up to one conclusion: at $5,060,* this car is one of the shrewdest investments on wheels.

Shoplifter Gets Leather Jumper

Good taste. That's what the shoplifter had who struck at the Village Store, 88 Kercheval, on July 29.

Store employees reported to Farms police that someone who entered the store at around 4 p.m. on that date was guilty of the theft of one item, a beige jumper made of goat skin and leather, valued at $110.

Salesman recalled a man and woman who came in together, piled several articles on the checkout counter, and stated they would have to go to their car to get money. They didn't return.

When the two left the store they were carrying a pair of sunglasses they had purchased, and a large paper bag they came in with.

THE GRIND

Today the average man spends nine-tenths of his time trying to earn enough money to enable him to enjoy the other tenth.

Ceremony Pays Tribute to Ford

"America's most creative 'moonlighter' is the way Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson described Henry Ford during a first day of issue ceremony at Greenfield Village, on the 105th anniversary of Ford's birth.

Watson delivered his remarks during a program that marked the first public sale of a new 12-cent "Prominent Americans" series U. S. postage stamp honoring Henry Ford.

The Postmaster General recalled Mark Twain's observation that thunder is loud but lightning does the work. Watson said, "Far too often today Americans seem to be fascinated by the producers of thunder, and to overlook the generators of lightning. Henry Ford's career was one of repeated, brilliant, productive flashes of lightning."

Henry Ford II responded to Watson's remarks on behalf of the Ford family. In his response he brought in a political note by saying that he was proud to have the Henry Ford stamp released during the administration of Lyndon B. Johnson, whom, Ford said, he admires greatly.

Also taking part in the ceremony in front of Town Hall in Greenfield Village were Congressman John Dingell of Michigan's 18th district, Dearborn Mayor Orville Hubbard, Deputy Postmaster General Frederick Belen — a native of Michigan, and Dr. Donald A. Shelley, president of the Edison Institute. The Institute includes Henry Ford Museum, Greenfield Village and the Greenfield Village Schools.

Prior to the ceremony, a parade of horse-drawn and mechanized vehicles recalled the various forms of transportation that were known during Ford's lifetime. Overhead, as the parade advanced, a 1928 Ford Trimotor plane circled the Village.

An Air Force band from Chanute Field, Illinois performed before and after the noon ceremony.

The dignitaries formed a receiving line in Lovett Hall in Greenfield Village and greeted several hundred invited guests. Estimates place the total crowd on hand for the ceremony at about 4,000.

MR. and MRS. THOMAS L. ORR, JR., of Darien, Conn., announce the birth of their third child, WILLIAM DENNISON, August 1. Mrs. Orr is the former BARBARA LEONARD, daughter of MR. and MRS. RAYMOND C. LEONARD, of Merriweather road. Paternal grandmother is MRS. THOMAS L. ORR, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Stolen Motor Found on Bike

Woods police, while on routine patrol on Sunday, August 4, observed two teenage boys riding mini-bikes in the Manufacturers Bank parking lot at 20205 Mack. While talking to the youths officers noticed that both bikes had lawn mower motors.

The serial number on one of the motors had been removed and an attempt had been made to paint over the numbers. The boy who was riding that mini-bike told officers he had purchased the bike from a boy for $15 and had paid the boy $6 toward the purchase. He said he did not know if the motor had been stolen.

Later in the day the two youths returned to the station. One of the boys told officers that he wanted to clear the situation up. He then told officers that the boy he purchased the mini-bike from had told him that the motor had been stolen from a garage at Lancaster and Jackson.

Officers checked the area and found that just such a motor had been taken from 1953 Lancaster earlier in the summer.

Park Car Thefts Probed by Police

Grosse Pointe Park police received reports of two stolen cars in the area last Sunday. Durward A. DeCavitt, of 829 Pemberton road, said his 1965 Plymouth convertible was taken from the street, in front of 711 Barrington road, where he was visiting.

Kathleen Fontaine, of 969 Berkshire road, reported someone entered the garage and stole her 1968 Mustang convertible. Police are investigating both thefts.

Tennis Tourney Winners Listed

The 3rd annual Roland Gray Tennis Tournament, held the week of July 20, attracted scores of young players. The tournament, held at the Neighborhood Club courts, was sponsored by the Roland Gray Youth Fund. The late Mr. Gray was an enthusiastic supporter of the Neighborhood Club and an avid tennis fan.

The following winners and runners-up received trophies.

In girls' 12-and-under singles competition Debbie Mascarin defeated Cathy Mascarin 6-3, 6-1.

For 12-and-under boys Chuck

Caulkins defeated Hank Fink-entad, 6-3, 6-0.

The 14-and-under girls' contest saw Betsy Tolleson defeat Susan Valk, 6-1, 6-2.

Boys' 14-and-under champion was Hank Murray, who edged out Doug Campbell, 7-5, 4-6, 6-3.

Lynn Coddington defeated Laurie Smith, 6-3, 6-2, in girls' 16-and-under.

Gary Hughes beat John Williams, 6-4, 6-3, in boys' 16-and-under.

Girls' 18-and-under winner was Chris Schneider, who defeated Sue Koeber, 6-4, 8-6.

Boys' 18-and-under winner Topher Ware defeated Art Schroeder, 6-4, 8-6.

There were two age categories in doubles competition.

In boys' 14-and-under Bill Baubie and Doug Campbell defeated William Campbell and Jim Whims, 6-4, 6-3.

Betsy Tolleson and Susan Valk defeated Ginger Horne and Lynn Donald, 6-4, 6-4, to win the girls' 14-and-under doubles.

Topher Ware teamed up with Chris Olsen to beat Art Schroeder and Dick Woolfenden, 6-3, 6-2, in the boys' 18-and-under doubles.

Chris Schneider and Janet Rooper had a 6-2, 6-1 win over Sue Koeber and Laurie Smith in the 18-and-under girls' competition.

Woods Receives Safety Award

Grosse Pointe Woods is among three Michigan Communities receiving an Award of Excellence in the 29th annual National Pedestrian Safety Program.

The Award of Excellence is presented to those cities and states which achieve top ratings in their casualty record and pedestrian program activities score, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

Grosse Pointe Woods won the award in competition with 694 other cities from across the nation in the 10,000 to 25,000 population class. Grosse Pointe Woods shared first place honors with five other cities in its class: LaGrange, Springfield Township, Penn. Grove City, O.; Beech Grove, Ind. and Amherst, O.

In addition to its outstanding pedestrian protection program conducted by local police, school and safety officials, Grosse Pointe Woods was commended by Auto Club for not recording a pedestrian fatality in 1967.

Since 1949, Grosse Pointe Woods has won 19 awards in the National Pedestrian Safety Program. These include: Five no-death awards, six special certificates for pedestrian program activities and in 1966 the grand award plus the award of excellence.

In addition to Grosse Pointe Woods, Greenville and Detroit were the only other Michigan cities to receive awards of excellence, in the under 10,000 population and over one million population classes.

George Measel, Auto Club area manager presented the plaque to Mayor Kenneth R. McLeod on Monday, August 5, at 7:30 p.m. at the commission meeting.

Sextet Tangles With City Police

While answering a call on persons tampering with parking meters on Sunday, August 4, at Notre Dame and Kercheval, City Police officers found four adults and two juveniles in possession of City signs. The six were parked in the lot.

One of the juveniles told officers that she, another juvenile girl and 21-year-old Susan White, went to a restaurant on Warren and Connors, where they met three 17-year-old boys, Raymond L. Melton, 219 Lakeview, Jim Goforth, 802 Lenox, and E. D. Jelickman, 8115 Elm.

The boys asked them if they would like to go for a ride. The girls agreed. They told police they found the signs on the curb at Outer drive and Lakewood and stopped to pick them up.

Officers talked to the juveniles and contacted their parents. Susan White, 21, mother of two children, was most abusive at the station to police officers, they said. All parents came to the station, and posted the $25 bonds.

The four adults were charged as disorderly persons. The two juveniles were filed on in Juvenile Court. They four received court notices to appear as disorderly persons on August 13.

Bicycle Thieves Active in City

City police received reports of four more bicycle thefts, three from the City park in a three day period. The first report was made by Dan Duffield, 525 Rivard. He told police someone entered the garage at that address and removed his green, 27" Schwinn, 10-speed bicycle on Wednesday, July 31.

The second report was from Arthur Behm, 891 Washington, who told officers he parked his 26" Royce Union, red and white, 10-speed at the City park at 5 o'clock, and when he returned at 5:53 his bicycle was missing.

The third report was from Jim Meathe, 329 Grosse Pointe boulevard, on Thursday, August 1. Jim said he parked his olive green, 20" bicycle in the Park bike rack at 1 p.m. When he returned at 4 p.m. the bicycle was missing.

The fourth report came from Kevin Corbett, 160 Kerby, who told officers that on the same date he parked his 26" blue, Schwinn at the City park and when he returned at 5:15 the bicycle was missing.

Frequent collisions are bound to happen when great minds run in the same channel.

Law Curbs Smut Mailers

Citizens who are offended, as millions are, by the pandering advertisements they receive through the United States mails may be relieved to know that they can now take steps to curb the delivery of such obscene nuisance literature.

Following a somewhat startling decision by the United States Supreme Court, which declared most of this objectionable material as "legally obscene," the mails were flooded with nauseating smut brochures, catalogs and pamphlets. These so-called advertisements certainly cannot be classified as proper reading material for grandmothers, or bedtime stories for the kiddies. They certainly are, (or should be), extremely offensive to the vast majority of those who receive them against their wishes.

Detroit's postmaster, Edward L. Baker, states that a recently-adopted law gives each family the right to decide whether the ads he receives are "erotically arousing, or sexually provocative."

When such material sent through the mail is offensive on these grounds, a postal patron may ask the postoffice to order the specific mailer to send no more to him, and to "immediately remove his name from the lists the mailer owns, controls, or rents." Therefore the new law does give some protection to American families offended by receipt of this sum, if they desire it.

Last year the Post Office Department received more than 140,000 complaints from those victimized by mail from the panders. In most cases, however, the ads were "legally obscene" and were, therefore, legally mailable, despite their offensiveness, as a result of the Supreme Court's decision.

Under the new law, Postmaster Baker asserts, if the mailer fails to respect an order to strike the complainant's name from the mailing list, the attorney-general of the United States may later apply for a Federal Court order directing compliance. Failure to comply may be punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment.

Those citizens interested may obtain a brief pamphlet, "How You Can Curb Pandering Advertisements," which explains the statute, and are now available at all Detroit postal stations and branches. Why not pick one up today, and help curb this nauseating nuisance mail?

Youth Problem Not New

For the information of those who rave and rant at the devilment of a tiny segment of today's youth, let it be known that juvenile delinquency, in one form or another, has been with us since the beginning of humankind.

Forsooth, it should be added, that many adults who complain the loudest at what some call these years, the "satanic cycle," of our younger generation, might do well to review their own behavior in the seedtime of their lives. Odds are that they were no paragons of virtue in their younger days. How easy it is to forget our own shortcomings when we were a part of the younger generation.

True the actions of youth today are extremely irritating and, shall we say, non-conformist. But, remember this, not ALL youth, by a long shot! The vast majority of our young people are sane, solid, sober folks who will help shape the world tomorrow, trite though the expression may be.

And, one day, the hippies will shave off their beards, cut their hair, throw away their beads, take a bath, stop running around in dirty bare feet, and become fairly sane again.

So let's cool it! This juvenile delinquency problem comes and goes in cycles — and so do those who try to solve it.

Ever since people came on earth there have been transgressions of one degree or another. What about the Garden of Eden? Ever since juveniles first became adults there have been crime waves. Ever since there were families or clans there have been wars. It's what is known as "the nature of the beast!"

And for thousands of years in the past there always have been reformers of various sorts who have endeavored to put a stop to these evil doings. But, actually, you can't stop any of them any more than you can reach up and pluck a star from the heavens. So quit worrying, fretting and fuming. This, too, shall pass, eventually.

All you have to do is take a bit of time out to do some research, and you'll soon find that more than a thousand years before the birth of Christ, gaunt and bearded old men sat around the equivalent of a cracker barrel, in the city of Ninevah, clacked their tongues and shook their heads as they lamented over the way their wastrel sons and evil daughters spent their days and nights in the town's taverns "carrying on their wicked ways."

Some 3,000 years ago there were bands of young people who traveled from town to town vandalizing and causing quite a ruckus. And, the oldsters swore, by the great hornspoon, that the world was going to you know where in a hand basket because the kids were so unruly.

Even Tacitus, the great Roman historian who lived 1,900 years ago, recorded: "In the good old days every man's son was brought up in his mother's lap, and at her knee, not in the chamber of some hireling nurse. Nowadays, parents make no effort to train their little ones. They grow up in an atmosphere of laxity and perversity."

With all of the long history of juvenile delinquencies the world continues to thrive. And those children the ancient old boys worried about became inventors, authors, generals, lawyers, kings, civic leaders, physicians, ministers, and, they also fought the wars to protect their elders.

And that's the way it'll be in the adult years of

Austin Surveys Its Graduates

Austin Prep. has just finished making a survey of the future plans of its graduating class of 1968. Under the supervision of Thomas E. Bailey, Vice Principal and Senior Moderator, the survey showed that 98 per cent of the graduates, which numbered 140, were accepted into colleges, universities or technical institutions.

Of the 135 college-bound graduates, 26 were going to out-of-state colleges while the remaining number were attending institutions within the state.

The totals showed 21 students accepted at the University of Detroit, 18 at Wayne State University, 15 at Macomb Community College, 13 at Michigan State University, 12 at the University of Michigan, 10 at Eastern Michigan University, six at Ferris State College, five at Aunias, Grand Rapids, and four at Joan Carroll University, Cleveland.

Three Austin grads were accepted at each of the following colleges: University of Notre Dame, Northwestern Institute, Georgetown, Washington, D.C., and Western Michigan University.

Each of the following schools have accepted two of the graduates: Detroit Mercy College, University of Dayton, College of the Holy Cross, Northern Michigan University, and Detroit Institute of Technology.

One graduate will attend each of the following: Brown University, St. Joseph College, Indiana, Villanova, Augustinian Novitiate, Xavier of Cincinnati, College of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Ohio Wesleyan University, Oakland Michigan University and Regis College.

In the class of 1968 there were 45 scholarships and grants given to these college-bound students. Of the five students not attending universities in the fall, three are going into the Armed Services, one to the Detroit Police Cadet School and one student into private business.

The program emphasizes the role of student planning and decision-making. Guidance activities will function as an integral part of the instructional program.

These changes are the result of much hard work and detailed planning. For example, during 1967-68 the master strategy was developed by the Central Planning Committee. Prior to this many teachers in grades 5-9 attended a weekend planning conference at Hidden Valley co-sponsored by the Kettering Foundation and Henry Ford II.

In addition, members of the planning committee visited middle schools in Michigan and elsewhere. Last summer teachers and administrators drafted a philosophy statement which has guided the development of the concept. And this summer teachers have been writing curriculum units.

Much remains to be done. During 1968-69 a steering committee in each building will plan the program, visits will continue, exchange teaching among elementary and junior high teachers will be scheduled and program development must advance.

If Grosse Pointe's middle schools are to develop into "ideal" organizations, within the not-too-distant future the buildings must be modified, self-teaching materials must be prepared, and improved avenues of in-service training for teachers must be developed.

Educational innovation is never easy. However, I am well satisfied that all our middle school modifications to date have been planned with the care that will result in improved education for our children.

the present generation. So, let us not get too excited about the situation which today is disturbing so many adults.

Did you ever happen to think about trying to balance the youth-adult delinquency in any given community? It may surprise you to find that, if the truth were known, the adults might show up on the red side of the ledger. Horrors, you gasp, that is absurd, impossible!"

Still, youth might point an accusing finger at the older generation, and say: "If you people who claim you are so sanctimonious, desire to reform us, will lead the way and behave like human beings are supposed to, we will follow your example." So mote it be!

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

As of July 15, we have a new Chief of the Central Library. His name is Kenneth Nielsen. He has an impressive professional background, he is rapidly learning all the ins and outs of ways of doing things—and he is handsome, dark and tall.

Mr. Nielsen hails from Montana—Havre, to be exact. This is also where he attended junior college. He received his A.B. and M.A. (in history) from Bowling Green (Ohio) State University. At that time, he was interested in college teaching, so the next step was the University of Wisconsin where he worked on a Ph.D. for about a year and a half. Then, (the year was 1955) Ken was drafted into the Army for about 13 months. (He had previously served a hitch in the Navy for 11 months—in a submarine tender in the Pacific).

Backing up for just a moment to the University of Wisconsin days, you'll be interested to learn that Ken worked part-time at the YMCA. The YMCA had a bookkeeper and a secretary, and the secretary's name was Donna. So of course you've guessed what happened — Donna and Ken were married while Ken was in the Army.

Next — out of the Army — a change of plans — a change of direction — and we find Ken Nielsen attending Library School at the University of Wisconsin, where he received his degree in 1957.

His first professional assignment was at the Detroit Public Library. First at the Montclair Branch for two years; next at Lincoln Branch for two years; then on to the Parkman Branch for about a year and a half; and finally Branch Librarian simultaneously of both the Walker and Gray Branches. The last move was made in November, 1963. (Ken remembers this date so well as it coincided with the assassination of President Kennedy).

What of Ken's family life? Besides his wife, Donna, the light of his life is his two year old son, Eric. While talking to Ken I asked him if he just happened to have some photographs of his son—and it didn't take him long to whip out two from his wallet! A most handsome, blond boy — any parent would be proud of him.

An inquiry into Ken's hobbies, outside interests, etc., brought forth an interesting grouping. In the field of music, it's jazz records. For spectator sports, he likes basketball, baseball and football. (What a time he and Eric will have in a few years! And if I hadn't liked Ken already, I would have become a firm friend when he mentioned bicycling — one of my own pet outlets for energy and enjoyment.

In the area of books, Ken has already had experience at DPL in leading a Great Books group, helping out with a Junior Great Books group, and giving weekly book talks to mothers in the library while their small fry attended story hours.

Once again, anent books, I felt his answer to my question: what are your reading interests — most succinct and well put. His reply? The history of ideas. Can anyone think of a better way of combining history and philosophy?

So — if you are a patron of our Central Library, we hope you will come in and get acquainted with our new Mr. Nielsen. He will be working on the floor quite a lot, so you shouldn't have too much trouble finding him. I think you will react to him much as the whole staff has — we find him friendly, deeply interested in all the workings, both large and small, of our libraries, understanding, and most knowledgeable in library lore. He's still finding his way around in the Grosse Pointe milieu, still meeting staff members, but his intense interest and background will soon make him quite oriented, we're sure.

So — we're glad to welcome Ken Nielsen aboard formally. The Grosse Pointe Public Library is happy to have him as a member of its staff, and we are sure that you, as patrons, will find him most helpful — and will like him as a person.

These changes are the result of much hard work and detailed planning. For example, during 1967-68 the master strategy was developed by the Central Planning Committee. Prior to this many teachers in grades 5-9 attended a weekend planning conference at Hidden Valley co-sponsored by the Kettering Foundation and Henry Ford II.

In addition, members of the planning committee visited middle schools in Michigan and elsewhere. Last summer teachers and administrators drafted a philosophy statement which has guided the development of the concept. And this summer teachers have been writing curriculum units.

Much remains to be done. During 1968-69 a steering committee in each building will plan the program, visits will continue, exchange teaching among elementary and junior high teachers will be scheduled and program development must advance.

If Grosse Pointe's middle schools are to develop into "ideal" organizations, within the not-too-distant future the buildings must be modified, self-teaching materials must be prepared, and improved avenues of in-service training for teachers must be developed.

Educational innovation is never easy. However, I am well satisfied that all our middle school modifications to date have been planned with the care that will result in improved education for our children.

Did you ever happen to think about trying to balance the youth-adult delinquency in any given community? It may surprise you to find that, if the truth were known, the adults might show up on the red side of the ledger. Horrors, you gasp, that is absurd, impossible!"

Still, youth might point an accusing finger at the older generation, and say: "If you people who claim you are so sanctimonious, desire to reform us, will lead the way and behave like human beings are supposed to, we will follow your example." So mote it be!

In the class of 1968 there were 45 scholarships and grants given to these college-bound students. Of the five students not attending universities in the fall, three are going into the Armed Services, one to the Detroit Police Cadet School and one student into private business.

The program emphasizes the role of student planning and decision-making. Guidance activities will function as an integral part of the instructional program.

Grosse Pointe's well-known astrologer, Lou (Mrs. Aaron) Wilcox, of Loraine road, recently "did a guest speaker bit" at Detroit's Statler-Hilton Hotel, explaining "What's In Your Stars" to Delta Theta Tau conventioners.

Over 500 women from all sections of the United States were in her audience, Lou reports, adding, "My years of studying and casting charts as a hobby are paying off, as everyone seems to be interested today . . ."

An Early Prediction Comes True

"Speaking of charts," she continues, "you know I did one for Martha Henry when she was four years old."

"Her mother reminded me the other day that I told her to give Martha plenty of music, dancing and

Barbara Susan Boyd Says Vows July 13

Bride's Two Cousins From Marion, Kansas, Officiate At Concelebrated Mass In Our Lady Star Of The Sea Church

A breakfast reception in the crystal ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the nuptial Mass on Saturday, July 13, of Barbara Susan Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Boyd of Torrey road, and David Jennings Hodgson, of Skokie, Ill., son of Mrs. Jane Hodgson of Rolling Meadows, Ill., and Harold J. Hodgson of Rockford, Ill.

Officiating at the concelebrated Mass in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, were the bride's cousins, Rev. Michael H. Pathe, CSSR and Rev. Gerald Pathe, of Marion, Kansas.

For her wedding, the bride chose her sister's gown of ivory peau de soie, accented with re-embroidered Alencon lace, and designed with a bateau neckline and a Cathedral train.

Her garland headpiece and long illusion veil were accented with lace which has been in the bride's family for nearly 70 years. She carried a bouquet of Easter lilies.

Mrs. Michael G. Sperry attended her sister as matron of honor and the bridesmaids were her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Milton J. Boyd, Jr.; Mrs. Bruce Boyd; the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Anne Peterson; Karyn Klein and Mrs. Patricia Broderick.

They wore aqua chiffon floor length dresses, and the back panels were attached to a deep v-neck of aqua and white embroidered organza. Their head pieces were of curled grosgrain ribbon into which ivory had been tucked. They all carried loose arm arrangements of white roses.

Tracey Sperry, niece of the bride, served as flower girl and wore a long frock of Swiss embroidery, sashed in aqua ribbon reaching to the hem. She carried a basket of aqua daisies.

Serving as bestman was Mr. Lawrence C. Vaughn, of Barrington, Ill. In the ushers corps were the bride's brothers Richard, Vance and Gregory Boyd; Michael G. Sperry, of Fenton; Michael B. Jones; John E. McHenry and David L. Hunt, all of Skokie, Ill.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Boyd chose a mint silk frock fashioned with a jeweled collar. Mrs. Hodgson, the bridegroom's mother, wore an apricot silk ensemble with a beaded mandarin collar. Both mothers pinned gladioli to their purse.

Out of town guests included: Deborah and Judith Hodgson, of Rolling Meadows, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. James E. Carnal of Ann Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Vibert, and Susan, of Oak Park, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Freeman, of Stow, Ohio; Sarah Kerr, of Evanston, Ill.; James Nash and Robert Avery, of Chicago; Peggy Leyman of Cincinnati, O.; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Tip-ton of Northfield, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Jodway, of Buffalo, N.Y.; Lillian Boyd, of Taunton, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Hans Weismann of Mentor-on-the-Lake, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Boyd, of Forest Hills, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. James J. O'Connor, of Manassas, L.I.; and Mrs. John Pantelmon of Middleburg Heights, O.

Roaring 20's Party Scheduled At DBC

"Speak-Easy Escapades" Will Feature Hot Jazz in an Outdoor Setting Next Wednesday Evening

If you listen carefully you can hear sounds of the 20's in the Grosse Pointe homes of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Locke and Mr. and Mrs. James Hughes.

Then if you cup your ear, you can hear more goings-on in the homes of the other committee members, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shannon.

What's all this noise about? All of these folks are working hard on "Speak-Easy Escapades," a Roaring 20's party to be held at the Detroit Boat Club next Wednesday, August 14.

There will be prizes for the best flapper costume, the best man's raccoon coat and the best Charleston dancers.

"Bathtub gin" and other potables will be served at 7 o'clock, dinner at 8. Tables with gay checkered cloths will be placed in the hand shell area of the Club.

Guests will be entertained by "Mothers Boys," a popular recording band that specializes in traditional jazz. Songstress Kerry Price, "New Queen of the Red Hot Mammas," will be featured.

MR. and MRS. W. MERRITT JONES, JR. and family of Kenwood court are sponsoring CLEMENT, a 13-year-old American Indian boy of the Pima Tribe, through Save the Children Federation, international child welfare organization of Norwalk, Conn. The sponsorship will provide the clothing, school supplies, personal books and spending money which will enable the child to take part in school activities. The average Indian youngster leaves school before the eighth grade often for lack of these bare essentials.

Newlywed Pisulas Making Home In South Bend, Indiana, Where He Will Begin Graduate Studies At University Of Notre Dame

Traveling in the Bahamas following their Saturday, August 3, wedding in Christ Church, are the new Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Edward Pisula. She is the former Barbara Ann Rochford, daughter of the Thomas H. Rochfords of Belanger road.

The bride groom is the son of the Edward C. Pisulas of McMillan road. A reception in the Fries Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the evening services, at which The Reverend Franklin P. Bennett officiated.

Chantilly lace appliques and seed pearls trimmed the Empire silk organza over taffeta gown and Cathedral train of the bride. A headpiece of stephanotis and holly leaves held her elbow length, silk illusion veil and she carried an arrangement of stephanotis, gardenias and ivy on her mother's prayerbook.

Adrian Pisula served as her sister-in-law's maid of honor with bridesmaids Mrs. Robert Helms, Suzanne Lehr, Deanna Duncan and Charlotte Neagle of Battle Creek.

They wore lime green, A-line, Empire dresses with headpieces of star flowers, baby's-breath and ivy. Their bouquets were of purple asters, baby's-breath and ivy.

Edward F. Raffo of Burlingame, Calif., acted as best man with ushers James B. Blackburn, III; Barton Stuck; Martin J. O'Hagen of New York and Michael Knapp of Oklahoma.

A champagne raw silk dress and coat ensemble was chosen by the bride's mother and a pink, A-line outfit with a jeweled neckline was worn by the mother of the bridegroom.

Both pinned a cymbidium orchid corsage to their purses.

Upon their return, the couple will reside in South Bend, Ind., where the bridegroom will begin graduate studies at the University of Notre Dame.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGregor of Port Washington, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Gust Servis of Buffalo, N.Y.; Dr. and Mrs. Graley Cody and Richard of Fairfield, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Melville of Buffalo, N.Y.; the William Northwoods of Washington, D.C.; the William Kirks of Darien, Conn.; Mr. Joel Garreau of South Bend; and Michael McHarg and James Larkin of New Jersey.

JOANNE CONDINO, of Audubon road, has been admitted to Montclair College of Wayne State University for the fall 1968 quarter.

Set Waldo-Gelts Winter Wedding

Planning a February wedding are Susan Dianne Gelts and Gari Gordon Waldo, whose engagement has just been announced.

The bride-elect, daughter of Norman Gelts, of Lochmoor boulevard, and the late Mrs. Gelts, was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School and attended Michigan Lutheran College.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon C. Waldo, of Bluehill road, Detroit, attended Northwood Institute, Midland, and is currently serving with the United States Coast Guard, stationed in St. Clair Shores.

Miss Janis Kasper Marries Mr. Zaranek

Bride Selects Ivory Empire Gown Of Veiled English Net; Accented With Alencon Lace; Newlyweds Vacationing In Miami

The Reverend Ralph V. Barton officiated at the ceremony which united Janis A. Kasper, daughter of the George D. Kaspers of Blairmoor court, and Pierre J. Zaranek, son of the Casimir Zaraneks of Anita avenue, on Thursday, August 1.

A reception and dinner in the Gourmet House immediately following the evening services in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

An ivory empire gown of veiled English net with hand-corded Alencon lace forming the bateau neckline and gracing the controlled skirt and Watteau train was selected by the bride.

A small open pillbox secured her court veil and she carried a cascade of miniature carnations and tea roses.

Maid of honor and sister of the bride, Gayleen Kasper and bridesmaids Mrs. Louis Zaranek and Mrs. Leroy Beyer wore nile chiffon dresses with Watteau panels and satin banding creating an Empire effect.

A tapered ring of matching satin held their butterfly veils and they carried colonial arrangements of apricot Elegance carnations and straw flowers.

Louis Zaranek acted as best man with ushers Richard Zaranek and Charles Schimick.

The mother of the bride chose a yellow mist silk and wool worsted gown with a crystal beaded stand-away collar. She pinned two yellow cymbidium orchids to match her matching handbag.

The bridegroom's mother wore a mint silk and linen ensemble with beads and crystals trimming the scooped neckline.

Parties To Honor Ewa M. Fuger

Three showers are scheduled in the coming weeks for Ewa M. Fuger, daughter of Mrs. Frederick William Fuger, of Cadieux road, and the late Mr. Fuger, who will become the bride of William J. Warner, Jr., son of the William J. Warners, of Lochmoor boulevard, Harper Woods, September 27.

Mrs. Daniel Goodenough, of Lothrop road, will give a recipe shower for Ewa August 18.

Miscellaneous showers honoring the bride-elect will be hosted by Mrs. W. B. Schoenrock and four of Ewa's friends, Mrs. James Bregi, Mrs. Leo Steini, Mrs. Patrick Blohm and Mrs. Donald Jaeger.

Mrs. Fuger will entertain at a reception and dinner at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club following her daughter's wedding in St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore.

A corsage of white orchids was pinned to her purse.

When the new Mr. and Mrs. Zaranek left for a vacation in Miami, the bride wore a pink, raw silk jacket dress with matching accessories.

Our Lady Star of the Sea Church was the setting for the Thursday evening, August 1, marriage of JANIS A. KASPER and Mr. Zaranek. She is the daughter of the George D. Kaspers of Blairmoor court and he is the son of the Casimir Zaraneks of Anita avenue.

Sievers-Miller Vows Spoken

The Reverend Wilfrid Holmes-Walker officiated at the Friday evening, August 2, ceremony, in St. Philip and St. Stephen Church, at which Georgia Miller, daughter of Mrs. George Miller, of Moross road, Detroit, and the late Mr. Miller, became the bride of Alfred A. Sievers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max A. Sievers, of Lochmoor boulevard.

For the 6:30 o'clock double ring ceremony, the former Miss Miller selected an A line dress of off-white Italian silk accented with Alencon lace. Her shoulder length illusion veil fell from a crown of matching lace, seed pearls and crystals.

She carried a Colonial arrangement of white roses, carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Frank Plecas served as her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Dorothy Hebert and Karen Erdmann, sister of the bridegroom, and Jessica Plecas, the bride's niece, was flower girl.

Acting as best man for his Pa-brother was Robert Sievers. John Mitchell and Brian Bessert seated the guests, and Stephen Mitchell was ring bearer.

Walter Adamczyk, a close friend of the Miller family, gave the bride in marriage.

The mother of the bride wore a jewel-necklined gown of mint green raw silk, while the bridegroom's mother chose a beige lace-over-satin ensemble, also fashioned with a jeweled neckline. Both mothers pinned cymbidium orchids to their purses.

Following a reception at London House East, the newlyweds left on a motor trip to the West Coast. They will return to make their home in Detroit.

Fete Ann Fisher Before Wedding

Ann Fisher, of Pontiac, who will become the bride of John R. Randall, of Lewiston road, August 10, has been fete'd at many parties in Pontiac and Bloomfield Hills and last week was guest of honor at two parties in The Pointe.

Mrs. Fred Lewis of Lincoln road entertained for the bride-elect at a supper party, and last Thursday Mrs. Walter Trovelli, of Sloan drive, Detroit, and Mrs. Wesley A. Randall, of

First Lieutenant Dan Telep USMC flew in from Vietnam July 19 to spend 30 days' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Telep, at their home in Wayburn road. He will leave August 21 for another six months in Vietnam.

Suzanne Lehr, daughter of Russell W. Randall, of Lewiston road, will be hosts at a buffet brunch August 9 in their home, and that evening, after the rehearsal, the men in the wedding party will give a bachelor dinner.

THEY'VE ARRIVED

DEAR PAT,

So excited, I can scarcely wait to share all that I have seen with you. That's why I'm attempting to dash this off while showing a smattering of enthusiasm for my cab driver (I seem to be having a run on them) who is waxing vocal about a best seller he is writing — title's not bad — he calls it "Behind My Back" which I thought snappier than his first choice "Up One Street and Down Another." Whatever he calls it I hope he gets as many raves as the clothes coming into T.O.E. are bound to receive.

This is positively the year for women to look like women. Her own kind of woman. The feeling is terribly feminine. Nothing tricky — nothing faddy. She's on her own to dress to suit her own personality and it couldn't be more thrilling.

For real thrills, I had an afternoon appointment at Rembrandt — (they really do provide the best chocolate candy in the market). I chatted with that darling Ole Borden who is their fantastic designer. This man is really something else. He commented on his silhouette. In essence, he has interpreted G-I-R-L to be L-O-V-E-L-Y.

You know what an interest he has in fabrics and the combination of unusual duos. He again employs this talent.

Rembrandt's shaping is closer to the figure, but, subtle and tasteful. The first to arrive at Touch of Elegance will be a transition group — lightweight woven cottons — in some cases reversing the pattern colors from dress to jacket. Perfect in August, September and early October.

Following on the fashion heels of these will be a velvet group in blacks and rich, deep colors. I needn't remind you how I feel about that little, black something dress.

Oh, I almost forgot — the sheer wools — the "must" dress for afternoon meetings — dinner with him or whatever short of badminton. Beautiful shaping, tender, loving fabrics; styling for everyone. Honestly, I can't get the words out fast enough. To capsule the entire attitude about women's ready to wear — We're going to be individuals!!

The Hemingway of the dodge-em cars has managed to conclude his last chapter synopsis just as we pull up for my next appointment. I won't tell you where but I'll give you a clue — It's a totally man's world.

Best Love,

Jo

MRS. J. ROBERT FOLEY has returned to her Somerset road home after vacationing with her brother-in-law and sister, MR. and MRS. JAMES D. MEIER, of Granada Hills,

Calif. Mrs. Meier is the former PEGGY WALKER, of Grosse Pointe. MR. FOLEY also visited the Meiers, but returned earlier to resume his work; while in California, the Foleys toured a television studio and observed the filming of a "Mothers-in-Law" episode with KAYE BALLARD and EVE ARDEN. They also attended a Sacred Heart Alumnae cocktail party at the Tarzana, Calif., home of TV producer EARL BELLAMY. Both Mrs. Foley and Mrs. Meier attended the Lakeshore road Academy of the Sacred Heart and Sacred Heart colleges as well. A week-end jaunt to the San Diego Zoo and Sea World was especially enjoyed by the Meiers' three children: LYNDY, seven, JENNIFER, five, and JIMMY, JR., 20 months.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Coleman, of Webber place, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, CAROLYN VIRGINIA, to Joseph A. Sieffert, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Sieffert, of Lathrup Village.
The bride-elect was graduated from the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lakeshore road and the Rhode Island School of Design, Providence, R.I.
Her fiancé was graduated from St. Paul High School and attended St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Tex.
A September 14 wedding is planned, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

All Music Shell, Grandstand and Coliseum entertainment will be free to visitors to the 119th Michigan State Fair. The Fair opens in Detroit August 23 and continues through September 2.

Golden Wedding Couple Honored

A formal dinner party and dance in honor of their Golden Wedding anniversary was held August 3 in the Grand Ballroom of Kingsley Inn, Bloomfield Hills, for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marshall Edwards, of Belanger road, who have resided in the Farms for 27 years.
The anniversary couple were toasted with champagne by their youngest son, Graham C. Edwards, of Skyline drive, Roseville, and their 150 guests.
Presiding at an after-dinner ceremony were the Reverend A. H. A. Loeber, of Messiah Lutheran Church, and the Reverend Marvin L. Martin, of Our Saviour Lutheran Church, Midland, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edwards. Mrs. Theron Nelson, of Country Club drive, sang "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Marion Yake, of Balfour road.
Mrs. Edwards wore a gold-beige dress trimmed with sequins and seed pearls.
Flowers for the occasion were yellow roses, yellow baby mums, disbud mums, and gladioli.
Celebrating with the Edwardses were their three children, eight grandchildren and first great-grandchild.
A mint green chiffon-cage over-brocade ensemble was worn by their daughter, Mrs. Fredric S. Altman, of Hillcrest road, who was accompanied by her husband and children, Lynn, Gary and Sharon and her husband with their son, the Edwardses' great-grandchild, Stephen Courtney Palencar.
The Edwardses' sons and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Edwards with Constance, Dale, Janet, Harold and Lyle, and Mr. and Mrs. Graham C. Edwards, attended.

Farms Submits Building Report

Fourteen building permits have been granted in the month of July from the city of Grosse Pointe Farms, in comparison to 13 granted at this same time last year.
One permit was for a residence valued at $35,000 at 210 Chalfonte, and the other permits granted were for miscellaneous building, valued at $99,300.
One residence permit was granted in the month of July, 1967, with 13 miscellaneous grants totaling $94,300.
So far this year, there have been three residence grants and 51 miscellaneous permits worth a total value of $373,400, in comparison to building permits valued at $677,100 from January to July of 1967.

Nomads Travel At Drop of Hat

It's easy to become a world traveler. All you need is the love of flying and a yen to travel. The Nomads, comprised of Michigan, Ohio and Windsor residents, a non-profit private travel club, have purchased a 300 MPH, four-engine DC-7B Douglas airliner and are winging their way to glamorous vacation spots for a week or two or even a weekend without depleting the family budget.

At the start of their fourth year in operation, President Joe Benich recently announced that their flying clubhouse, credited with 201,554 aircraft miles, (more than eight times around the world at the Equator), has completed 68 trips to such exotic ports of call as Honolulu, San Juan, Paramaribo, Rio de Janeiro, Lima, Curacao, San Andreas, San Salvador, Fairbanks and Whitehorse.

Future trip plans include Lake Louise, Las Vegas, New York, Nassau, Freeport, Jamaica and Trinidad.

The club was founded on August 6, 1965 by Joseph Benich of Warren together with Detroit Recorder's Judge Joseph A. Gillis, Jr.

At the present time 1,200 members, including many Pointers, have accumulated 17,585,602 passenger miles. The membership includes all age groups from all walks of life from the executive and professional level to single people families and retirees who enjoy congenial companionship with fellow neighbors.

Headed by Art Chadwick as chairman of the Board, all officers and Board of Directors members have aviation experience.

Professional airline personnel fly, service and maintain the aircraft under the supervision of Bob Barger and Hugh Whaley. Operating like a business, the Nomads office is located in North Woodward avenue, Royal Oak, with June Smith handling the office chores.

Daydreaming about fabulous vacations is a thing of the past for the Nomads. They just hop on board and fly away to their heart's desire.

Plan Fall Tennis and Crumpets

Tennis and Crumpets Incorporated — 1968, a tournament to benefit Children's Hospital of Michigan, which at its inauguration last year pledged itself to raise funds to equip a playroom in the new Children's Hospital, hopes to prove even more successful in its second season than it was in its first, when $10,000 was grossed and $4,700 netted.

Tournament play is scheduled on two fall weekends. Contest matches will be played September 14 and 15, and on Friday, September 20, the winners will appear in an exhibition match against professional tennis stars.

Cocktails and a buffet supper will follow the exhibition.

First introduced into the Grosse Pointe area last fall, the tournament is a "fun" event rather than a test of skill involving accomplished players.

Participants will be placed according to their abilities in A, B and C (rank beginner) classes.

Benefit chairman is Mrs. Miles M. O'Brien, Jr., of Hall place. Her committee chairmen include the Mesdames David Robb, E. Clifford Norris, David Summers, Robert Peabody, Clune Walsh, Jr., Richard Marsh and George McKean.

More are Mrs. George McMullen, Mrs. Raymond Biggs, Mrs. Charles Matthews, Mrs. Alfred Glancy, III, Mrs. James Rauh and Mrs. Maurice Longworth.

'Show Boat' Docks At GPYC Saturday

Prizes Are Awarded for Best Sail and Power Boat Decorations in Commodore's Review; Tower Bell Signals Start of Fleet Parade

Commodore and Mrs. John F. DeHayes were hosts last Saturday evening, August 3, to one of the most beautiful "Show Boat" parties the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club has ever had. Review boat for the occasion was the Jerry Schreiber's "Opal M."

On board were Commodore and Mrs. DeHayes, wearing a yellow lace gown with a scalloped hem, Mrs. Schreiber in white with en-crust crystal and pearl beading, Vice Commodore and Mrs. O. James Gagne, in yellow accordion-pleated chiffon, and Rear Commodore and Mrs. Roger K. Smith, also in yellow.

Out-of-town guests of the DeHayeses were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Shearman, of Jamestown, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Bastien, Jr., of Gull Lake, Mich.

The DeHayeses' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. DePlace, Jr., and son John DeHayes, Jr., escorting Tina Fisher, were on hand too, as was Mrs. DeHayes' mother, Mrs. Edward Henkel, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maliszewski, close friends of the family.

As the boats passed in review at the beginning of the party, they were saluted with cannon fire from the "Opal M" while the three Commodores stood at attention and saluted each boat in turn.

The bell in the GPYC tower signalled the start of the Review.

Aboard Vice Commodore and Mrs. Gagne's "Imperial V" were, among others, Past GPYC Commodore and Mrs. Harold Cross, Past Commodore and Mrs. Edward Schoenauer, Past Commodore and Mrs. Paul Moreland, the Frank Colkers, the Walter VanGoethems, Jr., the Charles D. LaFonds and Past Commodore and Mrs. Earl Fraser, who served as hosts on the Gagne's yacht while the skipper and his wife were aboard the Review boat.

The Sam Braxtons entertained aboard their "Entre Nous," which also flies the Bahamian flag. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. John B. Reinhart, Jr., residents of Man of War Key, Abaco, Bahamas.

The Braxtons, whose boat was one of those cited for original decorations, retire as of September 1 to their new home on Man of War Key.

Prizes in the power boat division for the best decorations were awarded to Curtis C. Carmichael's "La Colombe d'Or," first, and Dan Carnes' "Carnival," second.

In the sailboat division, first prize went to Robert B. Sells' "Assault 2," towed by runner-up Harold S. DeOrlow's "Harpoon II."

Another runner-up was Art G. Sherman, Jr.'s "Art's Ark," which reverted to its proper name, "Maradon," after the party.

Back from a 22-day vacation in eight European countries, Illinois Wesleyan University's first annual Alumni Association European tour, is Mrs. FRANCES LAHEY, of McKinley avenue. The tour began in Paris July 10 and concluded in London July 31. Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Germany, Holland and Denmark, as well as France and England, were the countries visited.

SHEP Program Held At Convent

The third successful summer of S.H.E.P., the six-week Sacred Heart Enrichment Program for inner-city children, has just been concluded at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lake Shore road.

Brainchildren of the Academy, Sister Zippie and Reverend Mother Healy, who felt that the school's spacious grounds should not go unused during the summer, have seen S.H.E.P.'s enrollment rise from 80 the first summer to this summer's 175.

Participants are fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade girls from 16 different East Side inner-city public and parochial schools.

Staff members this year included 25 professional teachers, counsellors and reading consultants, representing the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, the Lakeview Schools, Ottawa Junior High, South Lake, Wayne

State Teachers Corp., (S.H.E.P. is in the WSU Catalog as a Field Service Class for which the Teacher Corp. will give credit), Marygrove College, Mercy College and the Academy's Religious, who volunteered their services.

Also assisting with the program were a Grosse Pointe area "Great Books" group and a corps of teenage assistants, students in The Pointe's public and parochial schools, who helped, in the classrooms and during cultural activity, sports and sewing periods.

Basically, S.H.E.P. is a tutorial program — but with Drama, Art, Creative Dance and Personal Hygiene added.

The children are recommended to the program by their teachers on the basis of interest and potential. They are not forgotten at the end of the summer. Each child receives a birthday card and a personal phone call from one of the S.H.E.P. volunteers once a month.

The children arrive at the Academy, via bus, shortly before 9 each morning. They leave at 3:45 o'clock, after a day which has included social and cultural as well as educational activities.

All are required to participate in Creative English classes and a Social Living Period, which may include film studies followed by small discussions, speakers on social problems, a "charm school," music and art appreciation sessions.

The volunteer staff, full-time and part-time, (young mothers who can only give one hour a week as well as those who can put in every-day appearances), Catholic and non-Catholic, are united in their concern to give these children a sense of personal worth and well-being, to show them how they can develop themselves and to instill in them a sense of Christian brotherhood.

Other S.H.E.P. supporters contribute money. (S.H.E.P. runs only on funds donated FOR S.H.E.P.), yard goods, books, ice cream treats . . . Every form of assistance is appreciated, anything is most welcome.

S.H.E.P. takes whatever help is offered, and uses it to "help" . . . and in these midsummer mid-60s days, when so many people are wondering not IF but HOW to express a personal commitment, it's nice to know that something truly positive is being done here in Grosse Pointe.

No man is so blind as the one who refuses to see himself as others see him.

MR and MRS. RAY SCHWINK, of Blairmoor court, were recent guests at Rosedown Plantation and Gardens, St. Francisville, La. Rosedown is a restored plantation in the Felicianas, the region where the artist-naturalist John James Audubon painted more than 30 of his famous birdlife studies. The Schwinkes' visit coincided with the bloom of ancient and modern roses, thousands of century-old gardenias and blue hydrangeas.

Boyd-Kendall Vows Exchanged August 3

Abner W. Boyd, Father Of Bridegroom, Serves As Best Man With Maid Of Honor Catherine H. Layne; Attendants Wear Yellow Linen

Guests were received at the Berkshire road home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren F. Kendall following the marriage of their daughter, Patricia Ward, to David Allan Boyd of Cambridge, Mass., on Saturday, August 3.

The Reverend Erville B. Maynard officiated at the four o'clock services in Christ Church, assisted by David Van Dusen. Following a wedding trip to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., the newly wed Boyds will make their home in Lexington, Mass.

Lemon yellow linen dresses trimmed with moss green velvet ribbon were worn by maid of honor, Catherine H. Layne and bridesmaids Mrs. Paul W. Malquist of Ironriver; Joan Boyd, sister of the bridegroom; and Eleanor T. Jones of Milton, Mass.

They carried bouquets of daisies except for the honor attendant, who also carried white roses.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abner W. Boyd of Chattanooga, Tenn., asked his father to act as best man.

Ushers were James D. and William B. Kendall, brothers of the bride, Ronald S. Finn and Gerald K. Austin of Cambridge.

Mrs. Kendall chose a champagne silk dress and jacket ensemble, to which she pinned a cymbidium orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom selected a porcellana blue silk outfit accented with a corsage of Sweetheart roses.

Leisure Planning For Later Years

Leisure can be a problem. For older people extra hours mount up suddenly with retirement from the tight schedule of the working world. The 50 hours a man once spent working and traveling to and from work each week become 50 hours of leisure.

But Mrs. June Sears, Home Economist with the Cooperative Extension Service in Wayne and Oakland counties, says the leisure time problem may develop gradually for homemakers.

With small children, days seem short to get everything done. As children grow and leave home, the women's responsibilities may lessen gradually and eventually she has time to spare.

Busy working people often give little thought to the days when they will have time on their hands. They make little effort to develop interests which can continue into later years.

The Home Economist points out, "With the prospect of longer lives for coming generations, future planning is wise." Mrs. Sears suggests taking a "leisure inventory" by reviewing activities enjoyed in youth, those set aside because of work and family, things about a job which are most satisfying and the activities you've always wanted to try.

The Home Economist says this last area shouldn't be a trap.

Things you've never considered could provide much satisfaction. She notes that many people enjoy baseball and basketball because they have watched it on television. You may enjoy painting or writing if you try it.

Extra time in later years can fill a variety of needs. Physical exercise can be enjoyed by regular walks, which also offer an opportunity to enjoy the outdoors and children at play," the Home Economist says.

"It is a chance to learn something new and interesting; a time for useful work. Serving others as a hospital volunteer or lending a hand to a young mother who is tied down with children and housework can benefit both parties."

As contacts lessen, the older person may have to make greater effort to meet people and avoid isolation. Mrs. Sears suggests developing friendships with people of all ages. Still trying to become the kind of person that others enjoy knowing helps friendship for any age.

A well and able person can help himself stay active and enrich his later years. But the community can help. Many cities now have centers and clubs which provide social contacts and classes for senior citizens.

Mrs. Sears notes that planning retirement has become very smart and fashionable, as important as planning a work career. She suggests taking a positive view of older age. One might say, "I've done this all my life, and now is the time to try something different."

PHIL GOOLD, son of MR. and MRS. PHIL GOOLD, of Rivard boulevard, is participating in a service project sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee this summer. Approximately 325 young Americans are currently participating in AFSC projects, which include construction of self-help housing for farm workers, aid in recreational and educational activities, work with mentally-handicapped people and support of community relations and Civil Rights programs in the North and South.

Fifteen free horse shows are scheduled at the Michigan State Fair, August 23 through September 2. And Arthur Godfrey and Goldie will be featured August 29, 30 and 31.

Parties Honor Engaged Couple

A linen shower given by Mrs. William Evans, of Wellington place, on Tuesday, July 23, began a long line of pre-nuptial parties for Prudence Beryl Frey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bowers Frey, of Washington road, and her fiancé, Eugene Anthony Casaroll, Jr., son of the senior Casarolls, of Elm court, who will be married August 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Currier held a "Mr. and Mrs." paper shower at the Detroit Boat Club for the young couple last Friday, August 2.

This will be followed by a miscellaneous shower and luncheon at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Wednesday, August 21, hosted by Mrs. William Athanston.

Friday, August 23, will be a busy day. Maid of honor Elizabeth Mower has scheduled a Spinster Luncheon at her Roosevelt place home that afternoon and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Casaroll will entertain about 50 guests at the Rehearsal Dinner in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Out-of-town guests will brunch at the Handy road home of Mrs. Alfred Taylor, who will entertain along with Mrs. Charles Benner of Bloomfield Hills, on the day of the wedding.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT F. CAVANAGH, of Colonial court, will have as their houseguest for six weeks ROBERTO SAENZ, son of SENOR and SENORA JOSE RAFAEL SAENZ, of Quito, Ecuador. Roberto is a brother of ANSELMO SAENZ, who visited the Cavanaghs last year.

Favors are always charged up with high interest attached.

Lorraine Stryjak Weds R. B. Roy

A reception at the Huntington Boulevard home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. S.

Stryjak, followed the Friday evening, Aug. 2, wedding of Lorraine Rosemarie Stryjak and Richard Brooks Roy.

For the 8 o'clock rites in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, the bride selected an 1890's pattern gown of Alencon lace and Roncelon. Her elbow length illusion veil fell from a headdress of old-fashioned curls and fresh flowers.

She carried a small Colonial bouquet of white butterfly roses and pale blue stephanotis.

Honor attendant Margaret Hammond and bridesmaid Carole Petersen were gowned in teal blue and pale blue peau respectively, and carried carnations dyed to match their frocks.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Roy, of Royal Oak, asked H. Berry Myers, of Flint, to act as best man, Richard Luther seated the guests.

The mother of the bride wore a white lace coat over a yellow sheath. The bridegroom's mother selected a pink sheath with an embroidered collar, and a matching jacket.

The newlyweds will make their home in Detroit.

Too many people are influenced by everything but facts.

Aronson-Harper Rites Are Read

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was the setting for the Saturday, August 3, wedding of Cheri Lyn Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harper, of Saginaw, and Peter M. Aronson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Aronson, of Newberry place.

The Reverend Ben Tallman officiated at the 2 o'clock rites, which were followed by a reception in the Fries Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The bride's short-sleeved, empire gown of silk organza featured a tucked bodice and heavy tating around her hem, neckline and sleeves. Her Belgian lace veil, a gift of the bridegroom's mother, fell from an organza bow. Her flowers were stephanotis.

She was attended by her sister Mrs. H. A. McConnell, of Hollywood, Fla., as matron of honor, and her nieces, Lori McConnell and Donna Harper, and Ann Aronson the bridegroom's sister, as bridesmaids.

Their sleeveless, floor length frocks were fashioned of turquoise chiffon over silk. They wore matching floor length veils and carried nosegays of multi-colored garden flowers with turquoise streamers.

David Aronson served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Lauren Bowler, Terrence Donovan and Richard Parker, of Bristol, Pa.

The newlyweds are touring in Canada and the United States.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. S. A. McConnell, of Boca Raton, Fla., Jeffery Newfield, of West Hartford, Conn., Arthur Bartholemew, of Greenwich, Conn., and Mrs. Clarence Baiter, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

SUNTAN

of special interest to "Sun-Sensitive People"

The world renowned suntan preparations of ERICH DYBAL of Bregenz, Austria, are now available in a number of retail stores in Grosse Pointe.

Snik creams have been so popular on the Continent because they produce such beautiful, natural tans. This is because of the wonderful cosmetic base, containing only natural ingredients for the preservation of the skin, in contrast to the artificial chemicals used in most suntan products.

Snik protected effectively in the highest mountains of the world the Austrian Himalaya-Dhaulagiri Expedition of 1959. Snik is certified by the Austrian government.

The Olympic skin teams of Austria, Germany and Italy used Snik in the Olympic events at Innsbruck, Squaw Valley and Grenoble.

Snik protects from Sun, Wind and Weather every day of the year; tans even on overcast days. Spares the use of other cosmetics for aftertans.

Now Programs To Aid Children

Save the Children Federation has announced four new sponsorship programs for underprivileged children in the Southern Appalachian Mountains of the United States, the Dominican Republic, Honduras and Baja California, Mexico.

In the Appalachian Mountains child-family community self-help sponsorships are being administered by the Federation in the form of interest-free loans that will enable the proud mountain people there to help themselves.

Funds given to families through sponsorship will be used to help them improve their economic situation by investing in a self-help project that will raise their annual income.

In addition to the funds which give the family a chance to achieve a decent standard of living, the sponsorships also provide the encouragement of the sponsor's personal concern.

Sponsors are encouraged to exchange letters with sponsored children and they will also receive an annual progress report from SCF field workers.

The Federation has worked in the Appalachian area for more than 35 years. It knows from experience that the people do not want "hand-outs" but they do need some financial backing and advice and encouragement for self-help projects. Families of sponsored children select a variety of self-help projects. Some have purchased a cow or two in order to offer dairy products and eventually calves for sale; others are engaged in the raising and selling of pigs; some families are raising potatoes and other crops for sale and still others engage in handicraft turning out such items as Christmas wreaths, quilts and furniture pieces that will be for sale in community centers and other outlets.

In announcing its sponsorships for Honduras, Federation officials stated that the people are interested in education but educational opportunity is limited. The national illiteracy average is 50 percent.

In order to help the populace educate its young, the Federation is appealing for sponsorships that will go in the form of grants to the children for educational purposes plus an interest-free self-help loan to communities in which the children live in order that the community as a whole can establish an income-producing project.

The first sponsorships in the neighboring country of Mexico will be in the State of Baja California and will be concentrated around the communities of Tecate and Ensenada.

Sponsorships will be in the form of grants to the sponsored child and the community in which the child lives. Tecate and Ensenada have already selected the self-help projects that they will undertake as a result of sponsoring funds. Tecate plans to complete a town library with its funds. The residents of Ensenada have voted to build sanitary facilities in the school attended by most of the sponsored children.

In both towns the parents will volunteer their labor for the projects and funds will be used for necessary materials. In addition, the parents of sponsored children in Ensenada have pledged 72 bags of cement for use in work on the school house.

The sponsorship plan for the Dominican Republic will work along the same lines as that for the Southern Appalachian Mountains.

Through sponsorship of their children families will be granted interest-free loans to start a self-help project that will add to their annual incomes.

The Dominican Republic is currently engaged in large scale community development programs through its National Office of Community Development. The Federation hopes that through sponsorship of individual children and their families, the people of the various villages will be encouraged not only to improve their own individual situations but be spurred on to engage in community development work as well.

Sponsors of children in Honduras and the Dominican Republic will also be encouraged to correspond with the children they sponsor and they will receive reports from the Federation as to the families' progress.

Persons wishing to join in any of the Federation's new sponsorship plans should write: Save the Children Federation, Boston Post Road, Norwalk, Connecticut 06852.

Parking Meter Rates Clarified

The City of Grosse Pointe Woods Council, on Monday, August 5, upon the recommendation of City Administrator Chester E. Peterson, voted unanimously to adopt a resolution clarifying the parking meter rates for both on-street and off-street parking spaces.

The resolution reads as follows:

Be It Resolved, that, in accordance with the authority vested in the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, the legal parking or standing for the period of time conforming to the limit of parking time which has been or may be established for a particular parking space in a designated area or zone of the on-street or off-street public parking system, upon which a parking meter is installed, shall be governed by one of the following rates:

- (a) One cent U.S. coin for a period of time up to six (6) minutes
- (b) Five cents of U.S. coin for a period of time up to one-half (1/2) hour
- (c) Ten cents of U.S. coin for a period of time up to one (1) hour
- (d) Two ten cent U.S. coins or a combination of any of the above U.S. coins for a period of time up to two (2) hours
- (e) Five cents U.S. coin for a period of time up to two (2) hours
- (f) Ten cents U.S. coin for a period of time up to four (4) hours

(g) Twenty-five cents of U.S. coin for a period of time up to ten (10) hours.

All U.S. coins shall be deposited in the proper slot as indicated on the parking meter. The resolution does not change the rates but merely clarifies them.

When in doubt it's always a good idea to tell the truth.

BROKEN GAS MAIN

City firemen responded with all apparatus to St. Paul and Neff lane on Monday, August 5, for a gas leak in street. Firemen discovered on arrival that a lawn service employee had hit the gas main with a lawn mower and broken the pipe. They put a wooden plug in and stood by until the gas company repairmen arrived.

While on standby they were asked to check for a gas leak in a St. Paul residence. Firemen checked and gas company employees corrected a leak in the gas water heater.

Mrs. James Alan Cardoza

MARCIA LYNNE NOWOSAD and Mr. Cardoza exchanged wedding vows in St. Clare de Montefalco Church last Saturday, August 3. She is the daughter of the Felix T. Nowosads of Yorkshire road and he is the son of Mrs. Lawrence Kell of Suisun City, Calif., and the late Ernest Cardoza.

Marcia L. Nowosad Weds Mr. Cardoza

Attendants Dressed In Lime Green Sleeveless A-Line Ottoman Gowns With Hot Pink Sashes Marking Empire Waistline

An ivory net cage over satin gown, with Alencon lace trimming the dress and bordering the Cathedral train, was selected by Marcia Lynne Nowosad for her marriage to James Alan Cardoza at 6:30 o'clock Saturday, August 3.

She carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias and daisies during the service in St. Clare de Montefalco Church, at which Father MacLaughlin officiated.

Following a dinner in the Al-lard House, the couple left for a wedding trip to Nova Scotia.

The bride is the daughter of the Felix T. Nowosads of Yorkshire road.

Wearing lime green ottoman, sleeveless A-line dresses with a hot pink sash accenting the Empire waistlines were honor attendant, Linda Jean Guenther and bridesmaids Jean Pierson of Saginaw, Susan Johnson of New Jersey, Mrs. John Gerich of Ann Arbor and Cynthia Guenther.

They carried wicker bird-cages filled with pink Sweet-heart roses, daisies and ivy.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Lawrence Kell of Suisun City, Calif., and the late Ernest Cardoza, asked Ian Brownlie to serve as best man, assisted by Steven Bayer, Jerry Brown of Tawas, John Gerich and Michael Wolk.

Wright W. Wilson was ring-bearer and Dawn Marie Weishe was flower girl wearing a dress identical to that of the bridesmaids and carrying a basket of the same flowers.

Mrs. Nowosad chose a gray linen dress and jacket ensemble with white and yellow accents and the mother of the bridegroom wore a mint green silk outfit with a beaded collar on the dress.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Cardoza are making their home on St. Clair avenue in Grosse Pointe.

Top high school musicians from all over the state, selected by audition will appear in Music Shell concerts Friday through Sunday, August 23-25, at the Michigan State Fair. The Fair opens August 23 and continues through September 2.

Brochure Describes Detroit's Cultural Facilities

A new brochure describing Detroit's major cultural arts facilities and programs is being distributed by the Mayor's Committee, Cultural Center.

The 12-page brochure lists the features, schedules and locations of all major facilities in the Cultural Center — a 20-block area north of Warren Avenue between Wayne State University and the Chrysler Freeway.

The brochure preparation and distribution is part of a community-wide effort to promote the Cultural Center as a metropolitan public service.

The goal is to make more people aware of the educational and cultural facilities available to all citizens at this central location.

Facilities described or illustrated in the brochure are: the Detroit Institute of Arts, Public Library, Historical Museum, Childrens Museum, and the International Institute.

Other facilities include the Rackham Education Memorial, Merrill-Palmer Institute, Art School of the Society of Arts and Crafts, and major apartment and parking accommodations in the area.

Former servicemen will be honored on Veterans Day, Saturday, August 24, at the Michigan State Fair. Veterans and Servicemen, with credentials, will be admitted free until 3 p.m. The State Fair opens August 23 and continues through September 2.

The brochure also describes several additional buildings which will comprise future expansion of the Cultural Center. These include separate facilities for exhibiting natural history, astronomy, technological development, and for theatrical and musical arts productions. Copies of the brochure are available to individuals or groups from the Mayor's Committee, Cultural Center, 5200 Woodward, phone 831-0360 or 832-3700.

drama lessons, as she had the makings of a star . . .
Martha is currently appearing as Titania in "Midsummer Night's Dream," as Elmire in "Tartuffe" and as Lady De Wynter in "The Three Musketeers" at the Stratford, Ontario, Festival.

First "Starred" In Pointe

Lou recalls Martha's first personal appearance. The Wilcoxes and Martha's parents, Mrs. Kathleen Buhs, who now makes her home in Birmingham, and the late Lloyd Buhs, were Lochmoor boulevard neighbors when Martha was a very young child.

Martha made her dramatic debut, Mrs. W. remembers, on February 17 at Lochmoor boulevard.

"She quickly picked up the idea of becoming an actress," Lou says, "although she was so serious about everything she did you could hardly believe she would be able to 'let herself go' in a part."

Worked, Studied

But Martha had determined to make the theater her career. She took up Speech and Debating in grade school, then won a partial scholarship to Kingswood, where she became an avid Drama student.

She made her first professional appearance at 16 as the daughter of George C. Scott in "Goodbye My Fancy" at the Will-o-Way Playhouse.

She earned her B.F.A. at Pittsburgh's Carnegie Institute of Technology and after summer stock in Michigan, Pennsylvania and Canada during vacations drifted over to Toronto to do some television on CBC.

Begins To Get Roles

Since then, she has been featured in many CBC productions, including a starring role with Franchot Tone in "The Master Builder."

She did leads at Toronto's Crest Theatre too, but though she was getting a great deal of publicity and good reviews, she decided she wanted to become a really GOOD actress in the classic tradition and joined the National Theatre School in Toronto, where she studied Latin, Greek and French along with Drama.

The School spent the summer of 1961 in Stratford, and Martha was asked to join the company the following year.

Olivier's Champagne Party

In past Festival seasons, Martha has appeared as Cressida, Viola, Lady MacDuff, Miranda and Shakespeare's Joan the Maid.

When the Company was invited to participate in the 400th Shakespearean Festival in Chichester, England, she was asked to do Rosalind in "Love's Labours Lost."

She performed in Sir Lawrence Olivier's National Theatre, and one of the highlights of her "working visit" there was a Command Performance for the Queen Mother and her party.

Olivier gave a champagne party for the cast and Royal visitors—and Martha is still talking about it!

Married To Actor

Martha married veteran Stratford star Douglas Rain early this year in Winnipeg, Canada. A graduate of the Old Vic Theatre School, he's appeared in the Edinburgh and Chichester Festivals.

He's been in over 200 CBC television productions too, and is currently fascinating movie audiences as the voice of HAL, the computer in "2001."

At this summer's Stratford Festival, Douglas is appearing as Bottom opposite his wife's Titania, as Orogan opposite her Elmire and as D'Artagnan in "The Three Musketeers."

Wilcoxes In Audience

"We saw them do the starring roles in 'Look Back in Anger' in Washington, D.C., last year," Lou Wilcox notes, "and they were terrific!"

The Wilcoxes try to see Martha in as many of her roles as possible — after all, they were her "first audience." Lou knew Martha's mother before she was married, Martha calls Mr. and Mrs. W. "Uncle Ed" and "Aunt Lou" . . .

Last weekend, taking along Mrs. Buhs, they drove to Stratford to see "their" star in "Tartuffe." The trio came back raving, like the critics, over her performance.

Grosse Pointers, Lou feels, have a special right to be proud of Martha; after all, she's a native, and despite the fact that the Canadian press and magazines have praised her for years and claim her as their own, Grosse Pointe remains her First Home.

Put even Lou admits that Canada is Martha's home now. Especially since her marriage . . .

"I suppose," says Lou, speaking of the Rain-Henry merger, "they will be a celebrated husband and wife team . . . Although, she being an Aquarian and he a Taurus, they will surely be INDIVIDUALS!"

Shooting Stars Staging Show

The annual shower of shooting stars will reach its peak between August 10 and 12, University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh says.

The Perseid meteor shower, one of the most dependable of the yearly displays in the sky, exhibits shooting stars at a higher rate than at any other time of the year—as many as one per minute.

The meteors, or pieces of iron and stone, are probably no larger than a grain of sand, Prof. Losh notes. They become visible only when they enter the earth's atmosphere. The friction sets them burning, and most of them are consumed in the plunge.

"Although Perseids may be seen in any direction, their paths, traced back, seem to intersect in the northeast where the constellation Perseus will be rising around 11 p.m. Hence the name given to this show," Prof. Losh explains.

This constellation, sometimes called The Champion, resembles a letter "K." The U-M astronomer adds, "At the upper arm corner of the letter is the noted eclipsing binary, Algol, or The Demon, with two components revolving around each other. One is brighter, the other much darker."

"For two and one-half days, Algol does not change in brightness, but when the dark star passes in front of the brighter, it dims about one magnitude in five hours. In another five hours, it regains its lost light. This light variation may be observed with the unaided eye, and is considered one of the most remarkable sights nature presents to our view."

About midway between Perseus and Cassiopeia are "two of the most beautiful telescopic objects in the whole heavens—the double star cluster," pair of faint patches separated by about 0.4 degrees. However, slight optical aid will resolve each into hundreds of stars.

Engaged

At a cocktail party in their Grand Marais boulevard home last Sunday, August 4, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Williams announced the engagement of their daughter, JULIE MERZ, to Charles Merz.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merz, who came from their Chicago home to attend the party.

The bride-elect and her fiancé both studied at the University

GIRL INJURED

City police took Jeanette Rice, 12, 734 Washington, to Bon Secours Hospital on Monday, August 5, for injuries sustained while playing around the front gate at the City Park. Jeannette fell and jammed her right leg on a pointed bar of the fence.

WINDOW BROKEN

Chip Earl, attendant at the parking lot behind Kregge's in The Village, called City police on Friday, August 2, to report three boys had thrown a rock through the north door of the parking booth and broken a 24" by 36" window.

Gesture Is Universal

Three handsome, young travelers visited The Pointe last week, and demonstrated in front of The News office, how they have been getting around the country. Their story follows.

"SIDEWALK ART FAIR" SAT. & SUN., AUG. 10 & 11

The usual and unusual in art and antiques will be featured at the "Sidewalk Art Fair" on Saturday, August 10th and Sunday, August 11th, from 1:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. at "The Potpourri" restaurant, 16624 Mack Avenue at Harvard, Grosse Pointe Park.

Some of the featured artists will be Michael Dillon Gallagher who will leave for Rome in November to study at the Academy of Fine Arts, Michael was awarded a scholarship to attend the Academy.

Anthony Orlando, a graduate of the Cleveland Institute of Fine Arts.

Diane Voss, who attended Monteith College at Wayne State University. One of Diane's sculptures graced the cover of the November, 1962, issue of The Ford Times.

Some other artists are Carol Miller, Joseph Lucido, Floyd Powell, Marilyn Powell and others.

Most of the artists are members of the the Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts, and the Progressive Art Club.

The art being shown will include oils, water colors, charcoal, etchings and lithographs.

On display inside "The Potpourri" will be a Pope Pius VI papal letter from about 1775 A.D. and a porcelain Ming Buddha.

The antiques offered will be primarily "paper antiques" such as cards, posters, books, magazines, song sheets, etc.

The City of Grosse Pointe Park and its City Manager, Mr. Robert A. Slone have graciously given their permission for this first art fair ever to be held in Grosse Pointe Park.

By Pepper Whitelaw

Since the only French I know is "Vin Rose" (and I love it, "tres bien," "oui," "Freres Jacques" (off key), "mademoiselle" and "monsieur," interviewing three handsome, French students, who are hitch-hiking through the United States, was a real experience.

I met these fine young men through a funny happenstance. Barbara Cichy, of the NEWS advertising department, came into the office one day and told us of the three young men, whom her father had found in a service station on Mack, trying to put francs into a pop machine.

After Mr. Cichy (Cass) explained that the machine just wasn't equipped to take foreign coins, he tried talking to the boys. He likes them and found out, through the only one who spoke English, that they had come to Grosse Pointe to visit friends, only to find them out of town. Neighbors had offered to put them up for the night but the boys had decided to go on their way.

Price Is Right

The boys asked, Mr. Cichy where a good, INEXPENSIVE place to eat might be. Mr. Cichy said he knew of a great place and promptly took them to N. Renaud. Before they knew what hit them they were being introduced to Mrs. Cichy, eating American food in her home and being asked to spend as many nights as they liked.

Barbara thought the boys so interesting that she brought them to the office for an interview. What an interview! The major part of which was done with my hands, heaven knows what passerby thought.

However, Francis Cayzele, 23, from Roubaix, France, a student in the Art School of Lille, spoke some English. Jean Louis Duharr, 20, Roubaix, France, a student at the Electronic University, and Jean Louis Combelles, 19, from Lille, France, who was attending Business School, gave their answers through Francis. All three hope to have the French newspaper, "Nord Eclair," print their adventures in America.

Get Student Rate

Francis told us that they flew from Paris to New York, round trip for Air France student rates of $200 apiece. They arrived in New York on July 26. They were met by one of the Jean Louis, (never could get them straight), relatives and spent two days in Yonkers. They toured Manhattan. Their comment, "Et es a beeg planet!"

From there they hit the turnpikes getting permission from turnpike authorities to sleep along the roadway in their sleeping bags. They hitched rides and said they had no problem being picked up. The rides usually came from young people according to the boys. Often they were asked if marijuana was used in France. One of the kind souls that gave them a lift was visibly impressed when Francis confided that he had tried "hasish" while traveling in Afghanistan. Here the boys made it very clear that only left Bank beatniks smoke or use any kind of drugs in France.

Lodged in Jail

When the boys finally reached Norwalk, O., they went to local police who gave them lodgings in the jailhouse . . . they were tickled to death to see an American jail (even had pictures taken behind bars).

Their next stop was Michigan . . . and Grosse Pointe. Their impression of Grosse Pointe? They felt very much at home here, because of the predominance of streets with French names . . . and they loved the "Openness" of the residential areas . . . in France walls usually separate houses, according to the boys.

From here they plan to head for Chicago, then Caspar, Wyo., where they hope to study the Indian tribes, then the Rocky Mountains, Los Angeles, San Francisco, (where they will check on the hippies), New Mexico, Arizona, New Orleans, ("We would very much like to see a New Orleans Funeral"), Miami, Fla., Washington, then back to New York and home.

All Well-Travelled

The boys all belong to a student travel association called Association Flandre Exploration. All three have traveled to many countries.

Here are some of their thoughts on American food. Big, American breakfasts—"so beeg in France we 'ave only cafe" . . . pancakes . . . "so theek" . . . fried chicken . . . "eh, in France we never see shickin like thees, good" . . . They were surprised at how often Americans eat. According to them Frenchmen always leave the table to . . . "how you say, too feeled?"

They were very proud of the fact that most of their French friends have one car, one television, one refrigerator and one washing machine. They added that color TV is too expensive for the average Frenchman. (We assured them that it is too expensive for the average American, too).

They said many of their student friends visit the United States and love it also. What are their plans for next year? A world trip, of course. As we said "au revoir" I couldn't help thinking how much good, fine young men like these for international relations!

SUITS STOLEN

Mrs. Richard Kimbrough, 520 St. Clair, called City police on Thursday, August 1, to report the theft of men's clothing from her automobile. She told officers that the items may have been taken while the car was parked on the street, during a move from Jefferson to St. Clair, on that date. Missing were one man's light blue sports jacket, size 41, one man's light gray suit, size 42, and one beige, summer weight suit, size 42. Police are investigating.

Acrobatic Flying at Detroit City Airport

Skylark Flying Service, Inc., at Detroit City Airport is giving a "Learn to Fly Party" Sunday, August 11, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. At the party the new GAT 1 Flight Simulator, the first one in the area, will be introduced. For those who want to fly, $5.00 Introductory Flights are being given in Cessna Aircraft. For those who really LOVE to fly, they're offering an introduction to Aerobatics in the "fun one," Citabria by Champion.

There will be fun, flying, prizes and refreshments for everyone. Pilots and potential pilots who are interested should plan to visit Skylark at Detroit City Airport on Sunday, or call 521-5200 for more information.

BED BURNING
City firemen responded to a call from 18817 Cranford Lane, the Michael Mikos residence, on Sunday, August 4. Firefighters found a hide-a-bed burning. They removed the bed and used an exhaust fan to blow the smoke out of the den, bedroom and bathroom.

HEADLIGHT GONE
City police received a report from Edward Millenbach, 1350 Three Mile, on Monday, August 5, that persons unknown had stolen the headlight and generator cable off of his Honda, which was parked at his residence.

First Society Benefit Slated for August 18

Setting for Invitation-Only Party to be Lakeshore Road Home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, Jr.; Proceeds To Go To Child Guidance Clinic

A distinctly political theme will highlight the annual outdoor summer benefit sponsored by the First Society of Detroit Sunday, August 18, at the Lakeshore road home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, Jr.

Candidate's bunting, historical political posters and a banjo band will provide atmosphere for the party.

Proceeds from the benefit will go to the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic.

The First Society of Detroit is a group of single young adults drawn from throughout the Detroit metropolitan area. The non-profit organization sponsors three benefit parties a year and turns the proceeds over to a specific charity. Attendance at First Society parties is by invitation only.

An informal lawn party setting will highlight the upcoming benefit, says First Society President Glynn Armitage. Included in the festivities will be a circus tent, prizes and dancing to music provided by "The Plain Brown Wrapper."

First Society functions are coordinated and staged by an 18-member executive committee.

Special senior citizen contests will be featured Old Timers' Day, Monday, August 26, at the Michigan State Fair. All senior citizens will be admitted free until 3 p.m. that day. The Fair opens August 23 and continues through September 2.

A fall wedding is planned.

Surprise Luncheon Honors Departing Gowan Golfers

Mrs. Larry Clouthier, of Hawthorne road, president of the Board of the Women's Golf Association of Gowan Golf Club, presented the Board's gift to Mrs. Walter Opel at a surprise luncheon given by the Board in Mrs. Opel's honor July 29, at the Mount Clemens home of Mrs. Jack Blom.

Mrs. Opel has resigned her office of 1968 Golf chairman as she will be leaving for Stuttgart, Germany, August 30, to reside there with her husband and son, Kenneth, for the next three years. Mr. Opel is moving to Stuttgart for a business assignment.

The Opel's other son, Robert, and daughter, Lynn, will remain in the States.

TO HEAD AUTO SHOW

Harry Tennyson, of 160 Hillcrest lane, has been appointed Chairman of the 53rd Detroit Auto Show. It is Tennyson's fourth straight year as show chairman. The nine-day show, featuring all of the 1969 domestic and import cars and recreational vehicles, will be at Cobo Hall November 30-December 8.

The appointment was announced by Douglas Dalgleish, President of the 250-member Detroit Auto Dealers Association which sponsors the show.

Tennyson, a native of Chicago and a University of California graduate, organized his dealership in 1955. Since then the size of the company has more than doubled.

Tennyson is active in industry and community affairs. He is a past president and currently a director of the following organizations: The Detroit Chevrolet Dealers Association, the Michigan Car and Truck Rental and Leasing Association, and the Livonia Chamber of Commerce.

STAPLES

Don't worry over non-essentials, and you'll find there is very little to worry about.

Plan Expansion Of Metro Airport

Plans for a $100-million expansion of facilities at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport to keep pace with the growth of air travel have been approved by the County Board of Supervisors.

The expansion will be financed by revenue bonds, with the airlines which use the airport bearing the entire cost. No tax funds will be used.

A spokesman for the Wayne

County Road Commission, which operates the airport, said financial negotiations with the airlines are nearly completed, and that construction could start late this year or early next year.

Issuance of $100-million in bonds was approved in principle by the Board of Supervisors Thursday, July 25.

Plans call for construction of two additional all-weather instrument approach runways, 2,000 additional deck parking spaces, additional baggage claim area in the L. C. Smith Terminal, a new airport maintenance building, a new air cargo area, expansion of the airport road system, and another terminal development program. The latter would start in 1972.

Music Is God of Today's Young, Says Hippie Agent

By Robert Wells

Mike Quatro would make a good recreation director on a yellow submarine.

Right now Mike is operating a musical booking agency out of his two-story red brick home and office at 150 Kercheval, opposite the Cottage Hospital. He calls himself Mike Quatro, Inc.

We were sitting in Mike's office last Friday morning. Drinking coffee, petting the affectionate silver-gray cat, and rapping. The office is austere: furnished with bare wooden floors, a couple of couches and desks, some colored glass partitions to break up the space. On the walls are pictures of some of the 200-odd music groups Mike has booked into parties and dances everywhere from Little Club coming-out parties to the recent Saugatuck Pop Festival, a two-day music melee on the shores of Lake Michigan that was Quatro's from start to finish.

Study in Contrasts

He dresses funny. We found him wearing white bell bottom slacks, a blue velvet long-sleeved shirt with Nehru collar, and a wooden bolt-shaped medallion on a string around his neck. His wife Lynn, who like Mike is 25, was dressed very straight by comparison.

We kept getting interrupted. First it was a long-haired boy of about 20 who wore a T-shirt and smoked a cigar. He identified himself as a member of a rock group called Poor Richard's Almanac. Mike and he and another very business-like fellow in a gray pin-striped suit talked for a while about "gigs" (that is, concerts) coming up for the band. They talked about money and signed contracts. Mike beamed as they left and told me the group was appearing at the War Memorial on August 14.

Busy Office

A little later another musician, this one with long red hair and a full beard, came in and took Mike aside to tell him something about someone "getting busted." A girl came for some posters. Later, three members of an all-girl rock band piled out of a Volkswagen bus, their hair up in pin curlers. Phones rang. A pretty blonde secretary talked on the phone conveyed messages, typed letters.

Amid such a flurry of activity, Mike Quatro has built his business up in about three years to a point where he hopes to handle a half million dollars' worth of bookings this year. Not bad for a guy of 25 who never went to college.

Prodigy to Producer

There's some kind of sweet irony in the fact that the Hippie Entrepreneur of today started out as a child prodigy piano star on the super-straight network television show of Lawrence Welk. He appeared on television shows throughout his early teens—Ed Sullivan, Jerry Lewis, and such things. Although high school "wasn't very exciting" to him, he graduated from Grosse Pointe High in 1961.

Many Pointers remember him as that affable young piano player at the Bronze Door, where he appeared for more than two years. He had a band of his own which worked at debutante parties; new car intro parties, weddings and the like grinding out the good ol' danceable society two-step.

Then, at age 20, he decided to go into booking and developed a string of clients to whom he provided "everything in the field of straight music," as he now puts it.

Revolution in Music

Then came, (in case you didn't know), a whole revolution in popular music which began with the Beatles and their American imitators. Mike decided that rock music was going to be Big, and started handling more and more rock groups.

"I'm doing something that drives me," he explained. "My first goal when I got into it was to build a very solid business." He's done it. "My second goal now is to have one of my bands reach the very top echelon in the entertainment world." He's not quite there yet, but keep an eye on the M.C. 5 and the Ambassadors, two Michigan groups that are now moving toward national prominence with Quatro's help.

Where Are Teens At?

The main reason we came to see him, we told Mike, was to ask his views about Grosse Pointe teenagers, since he sees them almost every night. What do they believe in and where are they going? That trip.

After a few casual comments, Mike shifted into a more serious tone that suggested that he had "kicked out all the jams" to tell us the straight stuff.

"The gods of today's kids are the rock 'n' roll stars. Now some parents might not dig hearing that, but they should know it." In rambling fashion, Quatro spilled out his thoughts. He seemed to be saying that a generation of kids have lost sight of the Church, no longer revere their parents or their government, and "can take school or leave it."

Music fills the void. "Rock

Pays for Making Advances to Girl

Thomas Won Lee, of 1057 Windsor avenue, Windsor, Ont., was arrested Saturday, July 27, by Grosse Pointe Park police on a charge of disorderly conduct after he allegedly made advances to a 19-year-old girl during a bus ride from downtown.

Lee is said to have followed the girl off the bus at the Park City Hall. The girl reported him to the police. He was arrested, and held overnight.

The following day he was released after he paid a $15 fine, assessed by Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger.

tion as moral influences if they'd only try to be relevant, he feels.

The schools could once more become an "in" thing if they'd use "much filming and TV work and direct hook-ups of lectures by people who really know what's happening." Books are all right too in their place, he said. But they're not immediate enough for the Electronic Age's kids.

As for parents, they've got to have a go at reforming those laws or at least appreciating their children's grievances against the law. Next, "They've got to try to dig the music. Tell them to start with 'Sergeant Pepper'."

Although he was raised Catholic, "he can't dig it anymore." Catholic "Bummer"

"The latest development in religion was Pope Paul's declaration on birth control. Wow! He's got to have made a bummer out of the whole Catholic Church." ("Bummer" is hippie slang for something bad.) He said he could understand the theological argument for the Pope's position; but, he said, "people are starving in India. People are starving and dying with needless babies."

But the church "could very easily get back in a position of influence. It could become a rock and roll church!"

"Also, they've got to stop collecting money before the sermon."

But, we asked, don't you collect money before your concerts?

He thought a minute. "Yeah, maybe you're right. Maybe it's all right for them to collect money in church."

Outboard Motor Reported Stolen

Mrs. Marguerite Duffy, of 1473 Maryland avenue, reported to Grosse Pointe Park police that a 15-horsepower outboard motor attached to a boat stored in her garage had been stolen sometime Saturday.

Mrs. Duffy reported that she had been storing the boat and motor for her father, August De Witte, 19000 Chalmers, Detroit. She was away from home at the time.

Most people consider the past at the expense of the future.

13—REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

REGARDLESS how your candidate fared this week our house candidate is a shoo-in, if you demand prime location in the Deeplands area. There are two large bedrooms on the first floor plus a large dining room, living room, family room and spread out kitchen. The second floor has five more bedrooms and three more bathrooms. We're certain this one will receive all your votes if you require rooms for those strange bedfellows.

OUR PRE-ELECTION special is a non-partisan nominee which is sure to please either party whether you prefer your bedrooms upstairs or down. The large entrance hall has an elegant feeling with a wide staircase which leads to two ballroom-sized bedrooms each with its own bath. There are also two bedrooms on the first floor. Caucus in the richly paneled library with its wood-burning fireplace to augment the cigar smoke.

STOP WHISTLE stopping around town seeking out the best three bedroom colonial available today. Our poll shows this little gem with its white pillars definitely has White House characteristics.

CERTAINLY NOT a conventional house, this center hall colonial is the front-runner of all the six bedroom houses offered for sale in the Farms. Three bathrooms on the second floor and two lavatories. Although the recessed heating units work beautifully, there are five fireplaces throughout the premises. Just perfect for burning the ballots after you've made your selection.

YOUR FAVORITE son will love the complete apartment on the third floor of this gracious two family dwelling we are offering on Trombley Road. Come up with cash to a mortgage then let your tenant "buy" the place for you. This "house divided" is sure to "stand" your closest scrutiny.

WE'LL GO ON record that the past market performance of five bedroom Georgian colonials has been nothing short of spectacular. Always a winner, this candidate has rarely been campaigned long before being "wrapped up." Influenced by the traditional conservatism of the past, this younger aspirant is full of the newest building ideas.

ALL YOU delegates from Missouri who have to be shown, will be just as pleased with the inside of this southern colonial with its balcony reaching across the front of the house. Seeing is believing, and now that you know, we think we'll have your vote that it will win with a landslide. The fact that it is built on the side of a hill is purely coincidental.

A POPULAR nominee which is again in the running, was sold a few years ago within its credentials. Like the '68 Nixon, this one has a face-lifting and new paint job. Appealing to the young or mature family, it has three large bedrooms, two baths up, a California room and large yard for the dog. Do not let this one be an "also ran."

"A quick promiser, a quick forgetter."

Ticket Issued To Dog Owner

Mrs. Rose Diazazzo, 1501 Bourne, called City police on Saturday, August 3, to report a black and white, mix breed, dog had chased her sick husband into the house. This same animal has been loose and a nuisance before according to Mrs. Diazazzo.

Upon arrival Cpl. Donald Collins found the dog belonged to Harvey Jewell, 1621 Bourne. The officer drove to that address and the dog followed him.

The dog would not let the officer out of the car. Collins called the dispatcher who called the Jewell residence and asked Mr. Jewell to get his dog. Jewell complied with the request.

Cpl. Collins issued a violation to Jewell for dog running at large.

Ordinance No. 130
CITY OF GROSSE POINTE

(Note: Following is the text of Ordinance No. 130 adopted by the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe July 29, 1968, to be effective ten days after publication.)

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE CODE OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE BY ADDING NEW SECTIONS WHICH NEW SECTIONS SHALL BE DESIGNATED AS SECTIONS 9.26 AND 9.27 OF CHAPTER 110 OF TITLE IX OF SAID CODE, BEING AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE THE CUTTING AND DESTRUCTION OF NOXIOUS WEEDS AND OTHER WEEDS, GRASS, BRUSH AND UNCONTROLLED TREE GROWTH AND THE REMOVAL OF REFUSE AND DEBRIS UPON LANDS LOCATED IN THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE ORDAINS:

9.26 Noxious Weed Control.

(1) For the purpose of this ordinance, "noxious weeds" shall include Canada Thistle (Cirsium arvense), doddars (any species of Cuscuta), mustards (charlock, black mustard and Indian mustard, species of Brassica or Sinapis), wild carrot (Daucus carota), bindweed (Convolvulus arvensis), perennial sowthistle (Sonchus arvensis), hoary alyssum (Berteroa incana), ragweed (ambrosia elatior 1.), poison ivy (Rhus toxicodendron), poison sumac (Toxicodendron vernix), dock weeds (Rumex crispus) or other plant which in the opinion of the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe is regarded as a public nuisance.

(2) In order to effectively enforce and control the elimination of noxious weeds, all noxious weeds, wild brush or grass which are of a height of six (6) inches, or more growing or lying upon any property in the City of Grosse Pointe, are hereby declared to be a public nuisance.

(3) It shall be the duty of every owner, possessor or occupier of land and of every person or persons, firm or corporation having charge of any land in the City of Grosse Pointe to cut or destroy, or cause to be destroyed or cut, all public nuisances enumerated in section 9.26 (1) and (2).

(4) The City Clerk shall on or before the fifteenth (15) day of May of each year give notice of the requirements and provisions of this ordinance in accordance with the provisions of section 1.11 of this Code.

(5) If any such person, firm or corporation mentioned in Section 9.26 (3) above shall fail to comply with the provisions of said Section 9.26 (2) the City Manager shall, through the appropriate department or agency of the City, cause all such noxious weeds to be cut or destroyed upon the land of said person, firm or corporation who or which has failed to comply with the provisions hereof, and the cost thereof shall be charged against the premises and the owner thereof in accordance with section 1.13 of this code.

9.27 Refuse and Debris Control

(1) Any rubbish, trash, concrete, junk, dirt piles, logs, fallen branches or trees, old building materials, used appliances, used machinery, junk automobiles or motor vehicles without current license and not in operating condition or parts thereof, or any other materials, refuse or debris lying upon any property, either public or private, in the City, are hereby declared to be a public nuisance.

(2) The City Manager may order the abatement of the nuisances set forth in section 9.27 (1) by giving notice in accordance with provisions of section 1.11 of this code to the owner of the premises upon which such nuisance is located, to remove or dispose of same within ten (10) days after service of said notice.

(3) If, at the expiration of the time limit in said notice, the owner has not complied with the requirements of said notice. The cost thereof such abatement may be charged against the premises and the owner thereof in accordance with the provisions of section 1.13 of this Code.

THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE WITHIN ORDINANCE NO. 130 SHALL BE TEN (10) DAYS AFTER PUBLICATION THEREOF.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE

$3,735,000.00

THE GROSSE POINTE PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM
WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN

TAX ANTICIPATION NOTES

Sealed bids for the purchase of tax anticipation notes of The Grosse Pointe Public School System, Wayne County, Michigan, of the par value of $3,735,000.00 will be received by the undersigned at the Board of Education Room, 389 St. Clair Avenue, Grosse Pointe, Michigan, until 7:30 o'clock p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving time, on the 19th day of August, 1968, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

The notes will be dated August 1, 1968, will mature June 1, 1969 and will bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding 4 % per annum. Both principal and interest will be payable at a bank or trust company to be designated by the original purchaser, subject to the approval by the School District. Form and denominations of notes to be at the option of the purchaser. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such notes must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

Said notes shall not be subject to redemption prior to maturity.

For the purpose of awarding the notes the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the notes from September 1, 1968 to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to The Grosse Pointe Public School System, Wayne County, Michigan. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the notes or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

The loan is in anticipation of the Operating Tax due and payable December 1, 1968.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of 2% of the par value of the notes; drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the Board of Education, The Grosse Pointe Public School System, Wayne County, Michigan, must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the notes. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys of Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the notes, to be secured at the School District's expense. The purchaser shall furnish notes ready for execution at his expense. Notes will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Notes."

The Crystal Ballroom . . . of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will be the setting for a very special Benefit-Dinner-Dance on Wednesday, September 4. Guests will start arriving around 6:30 for a social hour, followed by dinner and dancing, to help the brother of Pointer Mrs. Ralph Woodbury, of Blairmoor court, who met with a tragic accident last March 31.

Mrs. Woodbury's brother . . . Bob Crough, 41, sales manager for a large corporation, stopped for a snack that night following a sales meeting. He selected a restaurant in East Outer drive . . . Unfortunately, so did a rifle-toting hold-up man, who entered the lounge, shouted "I don't like any of you," and then began firing at will. He felled five persons. One of these persons was Bob Crough. . . . The gunmen fled after robbing the five and forcing an employee to open the cash register. The employee called the authorities. When the authorities arrived they found two persons dead, two in critical condition and one with minor injuries. Bob was in critical condition.

The bullet that struck Bob . . . shattered one kidney and tore four inches of his aorta. He was operated on at Holy Cross Hospital. During the operation his other kidney failed . . . Thirty-six hours after the incident, Bob was rushed to Hutzel Hospital where another operation was performed in an attempt to save his life and his other kidney. The kidney did not respond . . . two days later he was once again taken to an operating room, this time to insert a permanent shunt in his right arm, which is necessary in order to attach a person to an artificial kidney machine.

Bob remained in Intensive Care . . . for 27 days. Recovery seemed hopeless. And then, miraculously, Bob began to rally . . . He was moved to a regular room . . . After 37 days he was told he could go home. Bob and his wife, Maxine, were thankful, even though Bob will have to use the Artificial Kidney Machine for the rest of his life in order to stay alive, and the machine and operation of the machine is expensive . . . But once again they were fortunate. The Veterans Administration Trust Foundation of Oakland County donated a machine, saving the Croughs $2,700. Now they need another $2,900 for hook-up and parts, plus $5,000 annually to operate the artificial kidney apparatus. . . . This is where Bob's sister and her friends stepped in and began organizing benefit dances like the one set for September 4.

Donation for the dance . . . is $10 per person. Proceeds will go to help the Croughs finance the operation of the machine. Committee members include Pointers; Mrs. Richard Stemmel, Mrs. C. J. Treder, Mrs. Paul Rizzo, Mrs. James Kennary, Jr., Mrs. Calior Worrell, Mrs. Lawrence French, Mrs. Dalton Black, and Mrs. Voy Pradetich . . . More are Mrs. Ray Cracchiola, Mrs. James Elias, Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. Thomas Cracchiola, Mrs. Fred Van Assche, Mrs. Herbert Hagermoser, Mrs. James Edward, Mrs. William Harrity, Mrs. Greta Brilowski, Mrs. Carole Treder, Mrs. Eugene Kristoffy, Mrs. Richard Toepfer and Mrs. Williams Jevons.

Teenagers will have an opportunity . . . to help the Croughs too. A "Teen-Hi Dance" will be held on Friday, September 20, at Our Lady Star of the Sea gymnasium. Donation is $1. Dancing to the "Sounds of Night" will be from 8 to 11 o'clock.

There are still some reservations for the Dinner-Dance, September 4. If you'd like to attend, call Mrs. Woodbury at TUxedo 4-7337, before August 28.

Pointer of Interest

DR. GENE B. MONTAGUE, OF UNIVERSITY PLACE

By Janet Mueller

His credentials are excellent. Bachelor of Arts (1950) from Central Washington College. Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy in English (1956) from the University of Texas. Attended both the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, Mass., where he was a Hobson Fellow and Convention Scholar, and Harvard Divinity School from 1965 through 1967.

Served as Protestant Chaplain of the Cambridge Infirmary 1966-67. Has been on the faculties of Florida State University, the University of Texas, Arizona State University, where he was the director of the Honors Program from 1963 to 1965, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Central Washington College, the latter as a visiting professor.

Was ordained Deacon a year ago last June, at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, Detroit. Was ordained May 11 to the Episcopal Priesthood, also at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul.

Has published extensively in scholarly periodicals and is the author of "The Experience of Literature," (Prentice Hall, 1966), and with M. B. Henshaw, of "Colloquium," (Little, Brown & Co., 1962).

Have Four Children

Married for 19 years; he and his wife, Barbara, have four children: Chris, 12, Lisa, 10, Tony, 9, and Andy, 5.

This brief biographical resume would seem to indicate that Dr. Gene B. Montague is almost the Perfect Choice for a Protestant Chaplaincy at a fairly large, cosmopolitan university. A few minutes' conversation with Dr. Montague leads one to the conclusion that he has the personality for the job, too.

And that — Protestant Chaplain at a fairly large, cosmopolitan university — is exactly what Dr. Montague is . . . but there's a "quirk" to this story.

The fairly large, cosmopolitan university of which Dr. Montague serves as Protestant Chaplain is the Roman Catholic University of Detroit, and he's the first, (and so far the only), Protestant Chaplain ever named there.

"We are very pleased," said Father Malcolm Carron, S.J., U. of D. president announcing Dr. Montague's appointment as Protestant Chaplain last May, "to join the growing list of Catholic Universities that have established Chaplaincies to serve the religious needs of Protestant students. We feel especially fortunate in having a man of Dr. Montague's experience and ability in this post."

Grateful to Bishop "We are grateful to The Right Reverend Richard S. Emrich, Episcopal Bishop of Michigan, for allowing him to serve both as a faculty member and as Protestant Chaplain."

Dr. Montague, professor of the U. of D.'s English faculty since last August, arrived in Detroit two weeks before last summer's riots. Attached to the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, he was named Night Director of the Inter-Faith Emergency Service set up at the Cathedral during the disturbances.

"We handled 40 tons of food," he recalls. "I got to know the city in an awful hurry . . ."

The Montagues looked for a home in Grosse Pointe "because of the schools." With Andy starting kindergarten at Mairre this fall, all four of their children will be studying at Grosse Pointe Public Schools.

The oldest three are ball players, Chris and Tony in Little League, Lisa in girls' softball league. "Golf and tennis are my games," their father says, "but when the baseball season starts, and your own boys are playing—you're a baseball fan!"

Loves to Fish

Given his choice of sports, Dr. Montague prefers fishing. Every night between 10 and 11 o'clock, whenever I can get free, I'm down on the dock at the City park." His luck's not bad, and he likes to eat his catch: "We had three two-pounders for dinner last night . . ."

The Montagues enjoy camping, for which they have "all the equipment."

Dr. Montague didn't start out to be a minister. "I think it's fair to say that I had no religious background," he muses. "I wasn't even baptized until I was 23."

His father was a trouble-shooter for a small grocery chain, and the family moved around a lot; Gene became used to new towns, new friends, new schools—and new churches: Presbyterian, Lutheran, Episcopalian, whichever was closest to his home at the moment.

He began to get interested in religion when he was in college. "I came to it intellectually," he explains. "I carried a double major, Literature and History, and the more I studied, the more I realized that you could not explain either one without a religious background."

A Personal Concern

"What had been a professional concern suddenly became a personal concern."

He volunteered to teach Sunday School, became a Lay Reader, a Licensed Lay Teacher . . . "I was obviously moving more and more towards the Church."

His Moment of Truth came when he was offered a very substantial administrative post at Arizona State. He realized that taking the job would lock him into a career as an educator, freeze him there . . .

"Those years in Massachusetts were really something," Dr. Montague remembers. He was teaching a two-thirds load at MIT, studying full time at Harvard Divinity School, serving as assistant at a suburban church on weekends, as assistant at Christ Church Cambridge.

"I wasn't the oldest student in my class," he notes. "There was an M.D. in his mid-50's. There were ex-insurance executives, ex-engineers, ex-computer experts . . . And all of these men had had highly successful careers."

"It was almost as if, having proved to themselves that they could be successful in business or a profession, they were now going to do what they really wanted to do. I think this is the trend: The better the seminary, the higher the age level of the students."

Don't Depend on Church "One advantage is that most of these older seminarians with profession don't have to be supported by the Church. My support, oddly enough, comes completely from the Roman Catholics: Half from the Chaplaincy, and half from the English professorship."

One of the reasons Dr. Montague applied for a U. of D. professorship, was that he had never had the experience of teaching at a denominational school.

"We get along beautifully," he says. "I don't think there are any differences in 'teaching,' although there is a slight difference in curriculum, a few required courses in Philosophy, for instance, that would not be required in a non-sectarian school."

"I feel right at home. In the first place, among people in religious orders, the best teachers in the world have GOT to be the Jesuits."

Historical Accidents

"So many of the differences between us are historical accidents. They believe and I believe there's nothing in the world that two intelligent people can't sit down and discuss rationally. Nobody's trying to convert anybody . . ."

No one, Dr. Montague claims, could have been more surprised than he when he was offered the Chaplaincy. The U. of D. Jesuits, however, had been thinking about a Protestant Chaplain for a long time . . .

"They have a philosophy I agree with," Dr. Montague explains. "The old way of appointing a college chaplain was to decide one was needed, go to the parishes, pick out a bright young priest and bring him in . . ."

"The trouble with that was he wasn't part of the university community; he sort of hung around the fringes . . . The Jesuit philosophy, and my philosophy, is that you've got to be part of the community FIRST—you've got to 'talk the language.'"

"If you can't talk the language, you can't talk at all."

Surprised by his appointment, Dr. Montague is nonetheless delighted and intrigued by it. "I am grateful," he says, "as a Protestant, as a clergyman, as an individual, for the creation of the Protestant Chaplaincy at the University. Fr. Carron's action was gracious, in both the contemporary and the New Testament senses of the word. Like most gracious acts, there is more than meets the eye."

Has Broader Meaning

"While it is true that over 1,000 Protestant students are enrolled at the University of Detroit, the principle behind the appointment was not that these 'unrepresented' students should have their own clergyman and that now we should proceed to split the campus into Protestant and Roman Catholic congregations."

"Quite the opposite: Father Carron's act is a recognition of the essential unity of all Christians. In my discussions with Father Norman McKendrick of the Office of Religious Activities, our purpose has been to plan programs of increased cooperation based on an awareness of our common ground. This was not, incidentally, an understanding we had to arrive at: It was the understanding from which we started."

"Obviously, some sacramental acts we cannot share fully; regular Protestant services will, therefore, be held on campus. Equally obviously, we disagree on substantive points of doctrine. But the existence of the Protestant Chaplaincy should provide a means for defining our differences and revealing our similarities more clearly than in the past."

Is Doubly Catholic "The University of Detroit has a distinguished history as a Catholic university. It now begins another as a catholic university."

Dr. Montague remains a full professor of English at the U. of D. and will continue to teach several courses there, wearing in class, as he always has, his clerical collar.

He's worn the collar all the while he's been at U. of D.; he's never made any secret of the fact that he was an Episcopal Deacon, is an Episcopalian Priest.

The collar is his Badge of Office — and there's his only professional occasion when he takes it off.

Among the major figures in the 19th Century English Literature is John Henry Newman, who began his ecclesiastical career as an Anglican Minister and ended it as a Roman Catholic Cardinal.

Dr. Montague teaches Newman in mufti.

Farms Employees Picket City Hall

Carrying placards which read "No Contract—No Work," 14 employees of the Grosse Pointe Farms highway department, water plant, and sewer pumping station, picketed that community's city hall, Monday evening.

Andrew Bremer, Farms' city manager, described the picketing as a "surprise move, totally unexpected." Serving with him on the negotiating team are Peter Caputo, city clerk; Carol Lock, city controller, and John O'Mara, attorney.

Representing Council No. 23 of the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, at the bargaining table is Clyde Alsop, from the group's international office.

Bremer said negotiations between the city and the union have been discussed since mid-May. He added: "We are now at the fact-finding stage, but have not reached a wage agreement. We hope the matter will be settled soon."

The employees are seeking an increase in pay and, it was announced that the only area of disagreement at the present time is the "economic problem."

Motor Cyclists Ride Over Lawns

Rosemary Martin, 1381 N. Renaud, called Woods police on Sunday, August 4, to report two boys were driving their motorcycles over lawns. She said the two white males drove the cycles over the curbs, one on the north side of the street the other on the south side. They then proceeded west over the front lawns of several houses.

Officers checked the Martin lawn and found one single tire track about eight feet long, running from the curb to the public sidewalk. Similar tracks were found on the front lawns of 1380 N. Renaud, 1391 N. Renaud and 1390 N. Renaud.

Mrs. Martin told officers that prior to the incident the youths were carrying two young girls on their cycles. She said the girls then got into a two-tone black and white Pontiac with Florida license plates.

While on routine patrol at 12:20 a.m., on August 5, officers talked to the two girls who were parked in front of 20945 Mack. The girls said they were not with the boys at the time of the incident and gave officers the boys' names but could not give their addresses. Police were unable to locate the boys' addresses. They are still investigating.
