DETROIT TIGER PITCHER Mickey Lolich will face Cardinal pitcher Bob Gibson today in St. Louis for the decisive seventh game in the World Series. Each has won twice in the Series. St. Louis is favored 8-5.

GEORGE C. WALLACE told Associated Press Wednesday that he plans to send his running mate, Curtis E. LeMay, to Vietnam for a first-hand look at the war. The third-party presidential candidate will publicly announce in a speech today from Evansville, Ind., just what LeMay's plans are.

Friday, October 11
HOUSE DEMOCRATS forced passage Wednesday of legislation that could set up televised debates by major presidential candidates after cracking an all-night filibuster by Republicans.

Saturday, October 12
LAWMAKERS ABANDONED plans to wind up the 90th Congress Friday when excessive absenteeism forced the House to quit for the day before an adjournment resolution could be passed. Both House and Senate had finished their legislative workload and were ready to quit until January 3, 1969, when Rep. Delbert Latta, R-Ohio, demanded that a quorum, or a majority of the House's members be on the floor. The call only turned up 188 members, 29 short of the number necessary to remain in session.

THE CREW of Apollo 7 raced Saturday to a successful mock rescue of moon explorers stranded in space. Astronauts were delighted as the three-man spacecraft's big rocket slammed them toward a rendezvous with the burned-out second stage of their Saturn I booster, representing a drifting lunar lander. Apollo 7, steering visually, pulled to within 70 feet of the widely tumbling rocket stage at 5:03 p.m. in the second day of the mission. The maneuver, which is the most intricate and spectacular test planned for the 11-day, 163-orbit flight, went off without a hitch.

Monday, October 14
MISSION CONTROLLERS of the Apollo 7 have reported that the ship and its astronauts, Walter Schirra, Donn Eisele and Walter Cunningham, have all ready achieved, by the third day of the mission, nearly half of the planned objectives. With each perfect orbit they bring closer to reality a Christmas flight to the moon and back by the Apollo 8.

FREE PRESS printer Andrew A. Lapanis, who saw a propaganda picture distributed by North Korean captors of the crewmen of the captured U.S. Intelligence ship Pueblo, discovered that four of the crewmen who posed in the picture were spelling out the word "Help" in the hand alphabet of the deaf mute. The U.S. State Department, which keeps close tabs on the 82 prisoners, had not spotted the plea.

Tuesday, October 15
UNIONIZED TEACHERS in New York struck the nation's largest public school system Monday for the third time since September 9 in an effort to block a plan to place the city's 33 school districts under limited local control. The strike closed most of the system's 900 schools and kept most of the 1.1 million at home.

FORMER PRESIDENT Dwight D. Eisenhower, recuperating at Walter Reed Army Medical Center from a series of heart attacks this summer, waved a five-star general's flag and signaled "V" for victory Monday as he celebrated his 78th birthday.

Foundation For Exceptional Children Honors Artists

ground), president of the Foundation, and ROBERT J. MacMICHAEL, president of the Foundation's Parents Group, (far left), presented the bonds during the October meeting of the Parents Group at the Grosse Pointe Central Library. The Christmas card competition, run in all Grosse Pointe schools, began a few years ago under the administration of past Parents Group president Maurice Vermeulin, who felt that such a contest would help publicize the Foundation and make the community more aware of its contribution to the education of handicapped children.

New Saint John Hospital Corporate-Type Structure Now Being Developed

James T. Farley Appointed President And Chief Executive Officer; Reorganization Program Has Two Significant Goals

Saint John Hospital has announced a major reorganization of its corporate structure. Sister M. Mr. Farley is a native of Chicago, where he received his Bachelor of Science degree from Loyola University and a Masters degree in Hospital Administration from Northwestern University.

A fellow of the American College of Hospital Administrators, he had been vice-president of the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, New York City, for the past 12 years.

Previous Responsibilities
In that capacity he was responsible for the development and execution of the Center's $58 million expansion program as well as holding responsibility for all operating divisions of the Center. Prior to that he had been with St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago.

Mr. Farley has held prominent positions in national and local hospital and health organizations. He also served on the Board of Trustees of Saint Vincent's Medical Center of Staten Island, New York.

A World War II Veteran of the United States Air Force, he is the father of five children.

GP Farms City Manager Explains Police Wage Talks

A comment during police wage negotiations in the Farms, alleged to have been made by City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., in which he was quoted as saying the city "was going broke," was denied by the city manager on Monday, October 14.

Bremer said that during the talks he stated that the Farms has no new source of possible, or available, tax source, because the city is nearly built up, insofar as assessable construction is concerned. To raise more money, now, would necessitate the raising of taxes, or making new assessments, he stated.

The city manager said that this statement was obviously misinterpreted as that the city was going broke. The Farms is not now, nor ever has been, in financial trouble in any fiscal year, he added.

The "going broke" statement was attributed to Patrolman Thomas Kelly, president of the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Officers Association, and a member of the police wage negotiating team. The Association is asking for a raise to $10,000 a year, and is still holding out for that amount.

In regard to the picketing in front of the Municipal Building Monday evening, October 7, prior to and while the city council was in session, when the officers sought to enter the council chambers carrying picket signs, they were ordered not to by Police Chief Jack F. Roh, here, too, there was a mis-

GP Girl Dies In Quick Start Auto Tragedy

Farms Police Seeking Information In Death Of 13-Year-Old Cynthia Jensen

Farms police are looking for the driver of a car, and his two passengers, for questioning in the death of Cynthia Jensen, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horst K. Jensen, of 628 Peach Tree Lane. Cynthia died on Thursday, October 10, as a result of head injuries received when she fell off the automobile.

On Saturday, October 5, at approximately 9 p.m., in the vicinity of 126 Moran road, several girls including Cynthia who were guests at a birthday party, climbed atop the rear deck of this car. The driver took off suddenly, throwing Cynthia to the pavement where she struck her head severely, according to Farms Det. Otto Glanert, who is investigating the case.

Escapes Injury
Another girl rode the vehicle to the corner before she jumped off. She was not hurt. The driver of the auto never stopped, leading police to believe that possibly the person behind the wheel was not aware that Miss Jensen had been hurt.

Glanert said that a thorough investigation in the matter is underway, and that statements have been taken from several witnesses, but more witnesses are needed to clarify what had happened.

Any one having knowledge of this accident, are asked to contact the Farms Police Department. Names of informants will be kept confidential, Glanert said. He added that any one

House-to-House Solicitation Residential Unit Goal is $410,184; Community Business Goal is $49,780

Chairmen for the Eastern Wayne Community residential and business campaigns were handed quotas this week as the 1968 Torch Drive got underway with torchlighting ceremonies and a kickoff luncheon. The residential unit chairman, Mrs. William W. Peattie, of Grosse Pointe Farms, will seek $410,184 through house-to-house solicitations.

From this total, she has assigned area quotas as follows: Grosse Pointe Park, Mrs. Rex Ciavola, $14,012; Grosse Pointe City, Mrs. Henry Peabody, $12,347; Grosse Pointe Farms, Mrs. Richard Fox, $30,553; Grosse Pointe Woods, Mrs. Robert Jurs, $6,155, and Mrs. John Schwan, $3,130; Grosse Pointe Shores, Mrs. Russell R. Noble, $6,216; Harper Woods, Mrs. Floyd DeNardis, $3,171 and Hamtramck, Mrs. Walter Paruk, $1,158.

$49,780 Business Quota
Quota for the Eastern Wayne community business campaign is $49,780. Directing the canvass of neighborhood businesses is A. J. Savage, general plants manager, power train group, Chrysler Corp.

His division chairmen are S. J. FitzSimons, III, treasurer, FitzSimons Manufacturing Co., 3775 East Outer dr.; John W. Coe, manager, the J. L. Hudson Co., Eastland Shopping Center; Thomas H. Sculthorpe, sales promotion manager, Stroh Brewery Co., and Clarence F. Wascher, manager, Jacobson's, Grosse Pointe.

This area's contributions will go toward the overall Torch Drive goal of $2,550,000 which will benefit nearly 200 health and community services.

Community Goals
Of this total goal, residential campaigns in the United Foundation's three-county area are expected to raise $1,011,363. Target for the combined community business campaigns is $333,989.

More than 130,000 volunteers will call on neighbors and families.

Vandal Destroys Decorative Tree

Joyce Kilmer wrote, "only God can make a tree." He might have added, as an afterthought, "only man can save one down."

Grosse Pointe Park police were extremely upset when a report was made by a scout car officer that the top of a blossoming Japanese cherry tree in Kercheval avenue had been sawed down, leaving an ugly four-foot stump.

"Some varmint with a warped mind and a sharp saw or, perhaps, a drunken vandal destroyed one of those beautiful cherry trees in front of 15200 Kercheval," groaned a tree-loving Park police official. "We're out looking for him, and we hope we find him. A nut like that shouldn't be running loose."

Police reported that the decorative trees were planted four years ago, in the business section along Kercheval, east of Wayburn, to beautify the area. The vandalism was discovered last Sunday at 2:40 a.m.

Bon Secours Nurse Wins State Contest Grand Award

Mrs. Jean Woelfel, R.N., In-service Education Coordinator at Bon Secours Hospital, won this year's Grand Award in the 10th of a series of contests sponsored by the Michigan Hospital Association and the Michigan Blue Cross Association.

The purpose of the contests is to search out new hospital achievements. Entries submitted are compiled in manual form and are circulated for utilization by other hospitals and health agencies throughout the state.

Contestants outlined original ideas which can be used to improve hospital operational practices. Thirty-five awards are decided into categories of hospitals according to size but only one Grand Award is made.

Grosse Pointe Education Association Rejects Report Of Leon J. Herman

By Pepper Whitelaw

A dignified man, with a soft but firm voice, asked to be recognized at the conclusion of the regular agenda of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education meeting on Monday, October 14.

The man, Willis Brown, president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association and a member of the teachers negotiating team, then read a letter he had written to President of the School Board Alice Mary Hykes, expressing the teachers' displeasure over the recent report of Leon J. Herman, fact-finder appointed by the Labor Mediation Board.

The letter follows:

GPEA Letter
"On Wednesday, October 9, approximately 400 teachers met at an all-system meeting at Parcels Middle School. At that meeting the teachers voted overwhelmingly to reject the report of Leon J. Herman, fact-finder appointed by the Labor Mediation Board. Some of the reasons behind this action are as follows:

"First, the salary recommendation of that report does not place us in a truly competitive position if we want to attract the best qualified teachers to Grosse Pointe. Second, it does not reward the career teacher who provides the leadership in effecting curriculum development. Third, the salary schedule is not commensurate with the emphasis placed on educational excellence by the community and as expressed through the Board of Education. Finally, it is not in keeping with the significant services provided to the Grosse Pointe communities by the schools.

Teacher Morale Low
The morale of the teachers is low. We are rapidly losing confidence in the negotiation process and even in the Board's willingness to negotiate a reasonable and just salary schedule.

"We are now into the sixth week of school without a salary settlement. Even with the advancement on the present salary schedule, some teachers are taking home less money than they were one year ago because of the increased deductions for taxes and social security.

"We are encouraged, however, by the fact that the

Burning Leaves Harm Asphalt

Farms Director of Public Service John DeFoe is making his annual plea to the citizens of his community to not burn leaves, or debris, on new asphalt pavement, or any pavement, in the city.

The heat from the burning materials, he points out, causes premature failure of the asphalt substance in the pavement mix, and considerably shortens the life of the pavement.

He asks that burning be done on concrete driveway approaches, or in metal trash burners.

He said that the Farms had just completed the resurfacing of a number of local streets. It is important that the burning restrictions be complied with, if these streets, and all others throughout the city, are to remain in good condition for years to come.

Residents living in the following streets, which were recently resurfaced, are especially asked not to burn leaves on the new asphalt:

Lewiston, between Charlevoix and McMillan; all of Beacon Hill; Beaupre, between Moran and Moran; all of Meadow lane; Lethbridge, between Moran and Moran; all of Radnor Circle; all of Handy road; Moran, between Williams and Charlevoix; all of Colonial court; McKinley, between Charlevoix and Kercheval; Fisher, between Chalfonte and Mack; all of Stanton lane; Country Club drive, between Kercheval and Country Club lane; all of Muskoka; the alley behind the Kercheval Business District; and all of Dean lane.

School Negotiations

Board's negotiating team has scheduled a meeting with the GPEA team for 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, October 15. If this session is fruitful, then there is still hope that this impasse can be resolved without a disruption of services and that the Board and the teachers will be able to continue their productive partnership.

Time of Essence
"I hasten to add, however, that time is of the essence. The teachers have made it clear to me that they expect a settlement in the immediate future. I am both by direction and conscience required to keep the teachers informed on the status of negotiations and by mandate to call a general meeting no later than Monday, October 28, two weeks from today."

Following his statement some 700 persons in the audience, many of whom were teachers, gave Mr. Brown a standing ovation indicating their agreement with his statement.

Mrs. Hykes then said, "The Board has read, studied and placed on file the fact-finder's report. As you know, negotiations are proceeding and a meeting of the two teams has been set for Tuesday, October 15, at 8:30 a.m. The Board prefers not to make any public statement regarding negotiations that might jeopardize the principles of good faith bargaining."

George Montie, president of the Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers, then rose to endorse Mr. Brown's statement. Jim Reghi, an English teacher at Grosse Pointe South High School, was then recognized. He reminded the Board that "the heart and soul of a school system is the classroom teacher."

He asked Board members to do some soul-searching and consider the career teacher. He cited an example of a teacher who has been here for 21 years, whose Grosse Pointe educated son, a teacher for 11 years, is currently making more money than his father teaching in a neighboring school district.

He indicated that the Board often disbursed funds for physical improvements but seemed more hesitant when it came to teachers' salaries.
Negotiation Background
Here is some of the background on the negotiations: On September 3, Leon J. Herman was appointed by the Labor Mediation Board as its Hearings Officer and Agent to conduct a fact-finding hearing relative to the matters in dispute between the Grosse Pointe Board of Education and the Grosse Pointe Education Association. Hearings were then scheduled and held on September 5, 11, 17 and 18 in the offices of the Board of Education.

Thomas Coulter, attorney; Lawrence F. Kennedy, Assistant

Superintendent; Richard W. Kay, Director of Community Services; William Mogk, Principal of Pierce Middle School; and Roy MacArthur, Director of Business and Finance, represent the School Board.

Morris D. Andrews and Richard A. Gray of the Michigan Education Association; Willis Brown, President of the GPEA; Donald J. Keith, Vice-President of GPEA; Virginia A. Downs, Past-President GPEA; Don Richards, Past-President GPEA; Maynard A. Leigh, Vice-President; Bob Coleman, MEA; and E. Wernet appeared on behalf of the Association.

Contract Opened
The contract between the parties had been opened for the adjustment of the salary schedule, hospital, medical and surgical insurance, life insurance, dental insurance, extra pay for extra duty, pay for summer school for the year 1969, college course tuition, longevity and levels of training.

The fact-finder's report follows in full:

Fact-Finder's Report
"The primary subject of the negotiations between the parties revolved about the salary schedule. In 1967-68 the bachelor salary began at $6,475 and increased to $10,300 in twelve steps. The master's schedule began at $7,075, going up to $11,700 in thirteen steps.

"Provision was also made for bachelors with 20 hours, masters with 10 to 60 hours in ten hour steps, and doctorates. Nurses and librarians are also in the bargaining unit and are included in the Board's salary structure."

"For 1968-69 the Board has proposed a beginning bachelor salary of $7,300 for the first two years, increasing to $11,000 in 11 steps. The master's index would begin at $8,000 and increase to $12,500 in twelve steps. With increases for other classifications, for summer school and for substitutes, the total increase would amount to $548,609.00.

Association's Proposal
"The Association has proposed a bachelor index of $7,200 to $11,520 in 11 steps, and a master schedule of $8,064 to $13,320 in 11 steps. It estimates the cost of the increase, adding in the other extras as the Board has down, at $1,210,868.85.

"In arguing for its proposed salary increases, the Association contends that Grosse Pointe has been a leader historically on salaries and fringe benefits among the schools in the Detroit area. It insists that Grosse Pointe should remain a leader. It has the money to maintain such leadership.

"To do better than the other area schools, it would have to pay bachelors in a range from $7,254 to $11,437 and masters from $8,001 to $13,348. The Board's proposal is, of course, well below these figures.

Available Funds
"To prove the Board's ability to finance its proposals, the Association points to excess funds available to the Board; an increase of $672,114 in SEV at 97 per cent collectability; 4 1/2 mills voted by the public on September 12th last, which will provide $1,657,288 at 97 per cent collectability; $45,335 in increased state aid; and $1,553,963 in its general fund equity.

"On the basis of ability to pay, this board has the funds and should devote a good share of them to improving the financial status of the teachers and other workers in the system."

"The Board argues that ability to pay is not a factor in these negotiations. It contends that it should pay salaries comparable to those paid in the surrounding area. It does not feel it has to exceed those salaries and benefits just because it can afford to.

"In addition, much of the moneys which the Association wishes applied toward its membership is already committed to other purposes. $1,000,000 of the receipts from the increased millage is reserved toward's next year's expenses. The remainder of the millage receipts will be applied to reduction of the anticipated deficit of $671,161 in the 1968-69 budget.

"Unfortunately, ability to pay is an essential factor in any school salary settlement. The majority of school districts are not well fixed financially. Many of them expect to wind up this fiscal year with a substantial deficit.

"They have, nevertheless, been compelled to pay substantially the going rate of teachers' salaries in the Wayne County area because they must meet competition in order to get and hold teachers; and they must pay a salary which gives teachers a reasonable living wage.

Sole Recipients?

"In fact, however, that this Board now has funds available to it over and above the amount needed for teachers' salaries does not per se mean that the teachers should be the sole recipients this year of every cent the Board has. I can appreciate that the Board and the Association have been proud of the fact that this school is one of the finest in the district and that it has paid in the past salaries at or close to the top for the area.

"This, no doubt, has been a source of considerable satisfaction to both teachers and administration. But if I may be permitted to paraphrase Proverbs, I could remind the Association that pride goeth before a deficit. They should be proud, rather, that their school has the public support to pay their salaries and give them income equivalent to those paid in the surrounding areas.

Board Package In Line

"The package proposed by the Board is very much in line with the settlements that have been made in the area. The $7,300 starting salary is to my mind slightly on the high side and might be better dropped somewhat so as to allow an increase at the second step, and perhaps allow small increases along the scale to the master top of $12,500. This latter figure is comparable to and in many cases, better than that paid in other schools. I do not recommend it be increased.

"I am mindful that the GPEA has emphasized that salaries in business, industry and other professions are higher than those in the teaching profession, and that teachers' income should be equalized with those in other forms of livelihood.

"I agree wholeheartedly that teachers have for years been underpaid. They are entitled to earn a decent wage for themselves and their families, and the public must be educated to this fact. Moreover, the years they have spent in preparing themselves for their chosen profession should be compensated by a fair and reasonable income.

Fair Compensation

"That income, however, be governed by their needs and the value to the community of their services, not by contrast with the incomes of those who choose to enter other potentially more profitable fields. By the same token, the community cannot arbitrarily refuse them their reasonable demands because it has been callous to their worth in the past. The teacher is worthy of his hire, and should be compensated accordingly.

"I find that the Board in this case has been fair and reasonable in assessing teacher salary schedules. It is offering voluntarily salaries that are consonant with those which other Boards in the area have paid through pressure and compulsion. It has opened its books to the Association without reserve.

"I find as a fact that the salary schedule offered by the Board is fair and reasonable, and conforms to the salary pattern found acceptable by both the MEA and the Federation in the area. I recommend that it be accepted by the Association.

Life Insurance

"I make no recommendation as to increased life insurance. The Board presently pays for $3,000 life insurance coverage for each teacher. The severance fund now in effect will contribute an additional sum up to approximately $7,000. This fund will be permitted to expire in another year, at which time the question of increased life insurance per teacher should be considered. I do not recommend dental insurance because of its high cost.

"The Association has proposed that the Board assume the cost of tuition for college courses taken by the teachers, because of the rising costs of college training. I am of the opinion that this cost should be borne by the teachers. In effect the Board repays the cost of advanced education by paying higher increments to teachers with advanced training.

"The nature of the higher levels of training for which the teachers seek reimbursement was not explained.

Disagrees In One Area

"I am in disagreement with the Board, however, as to its Blue Cross-Blue Shield program. It is usual in industry, and finding increasingly greater acceptance in the various school districts, that the Board assume the full cost of full family coverage. Its present program is to my mind inadequate.

"I recommend that the Board undertake to pay full family hospital, medical and surgical insurance under the Blue Cross-Blue Shield plan. The Board estimates the additional cost of such insurance to be $46,473. Added to the proposed salary and fringe benefit package, the total increased cost to the Board would be under $600,000."

The NEWS was informed on Tuesday, October 15, following a meeting of both parties, that further negotiations will not be disclosed because a news blackout has been put into effect.

Homecoming Set At St. Paul's

"An Evening in Paris" will set the stage for St. Paul High School's annual Homecoming Dance this Friday, October 18, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Through the imagination of eight vivacious cheerleaders the cafeteria of St. Paul's High will be transformed into a Paris street. Music will be provided by the John Keats Company.

At the dance the traditional crowning of the Homecoming Queen will take place. The court for the Homecoming, announced by Football Co-Captains Doug MacEachern and Tom Nally, includes Diane Hoernschemeyer, Sue Smolenski, Martha Schick, Mary Philip and Sue Sendelbach.

Following the dance, on October 20, at 2:30 p.m., will be the Homecoming Game.

The Lakers will face Bishop Foley at Grosse Pointe High South field.

At that time, the parade of floats will take place as seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen parade their floats across the grounds as final judging takes place.

New Heating System Could Pay For Itself

by ROBERT A. "Doc" WILLIAMS
(MR. INDOOR COMFORT)

Our service men enter approximately 10,000 basements in the Greater Detroit area every year for either normal maintenance or emergency service of heating equipment. In checking the records of these calls and the information obtained about heating equipment in those homes, it is evident that there are many old, inefficient, unsightly, inadequate and poorly designed heating systems, which cost their owners a lot of money each year in high fuel bills, service calls, and lost space. They also experience much inconvenience, aggravation, and discomfort because of these failings in one of the home's most important systems. Many people believe that they are being very economical by nursing their tired, old heating plants along for years and years; usually saying, "Someday I am going to replace that system when I get a little money ahead." For a free home survey call Williams Refrigeration and Heating at 372-5500.

think they need more than a new heating system, and it is put off again. Unfortunately, what many people don't realize, is that a new heating system will pay for itself, sometimes in as little as 3 or 4 years. A new heating system will save up to 40% on fuel bills alone, and generally eliminates all service except for normal maintenance. When you count up the added blessings of warm rooms with even temperatures throughout the whole house, all of the extra space saved with the newer more compact equipment, the instant response to automatic controls, and the clean filtered air, it's hard to imagine putting up with an outdated system.

Why not let our competent staff check your heating system? Perhaps you are nursing along a tired old heating system that is costing you far more money than you think. Williams Refrigeration and Heating at 372-5500.

Police Wage Talks

understanding, Bremer said. When informed that the pickets intended to enter the council chambers carrying signs, Chief Roh, the city manager said, approached him and asked if this could be done. Bremer said he was uncertain regarding this move, and prior to the council meeting asked the members of the council for a clarification of the matter.

Bremer said that he was told that there is no ordinance prohibiting such action, but that it has been a long-standing policy of the council to ban sign-carrying pickets, or any other groups with signs, because of the disturbance this would cause. Too, such action would be very undignified, since this would tend to create a circus-like atmosphere.

Bremer said that he and his colleagues, representing the city's wage negotiating team, have met nine times with the police negotiators since April 1, and the last meeting was held on September 26. No future meetings have been scheduled so far, he said, although the city is willing to meet with the police for an amicable solution to the talks.

He said that he felt that the city's offer to the police was reasonable in his opinion, in that the city is willing to give the police a wage increase of well over 14 percent, for the first year, which with fringe benefits will raise the amount to more than 20 percent, which in itself would be quite costly to the city.

The city manager said that the fringe benefits would amount to about 80 cents an hour under the contract offered.

He said that the city is seeking a two-year contract because: 1. It is felt that this would be most beneficial to both parties; 2. The city does not have the staff to conduct year-around negotiations; 3. Suburbs in this particular area have set a tenure of two-year contracts; and 4. The Farms has two-year contracts with other local departments, other than Administrative.

Bremer said that the police insist on $10,000 a year now, whereas the city offered to give that amount toward the end of the two-year contract. The police have been offered $9,300 (from the present $8,300 a year), retroactive to July 1; $9,600 on January 1, 1969; $9,800 on July 1, 1969; and $10,000 on January 1, 1970.

He pointed out that the increase in pension benefits voted by the local citizens more than a year ago, is costing the city $400 more for each policeman and fireman.

The city manager said that the city is ready to negotiate the wage question at any time, and as long as it takes, to reach an amicable agreement with the police officers. It is hoped that this settlement will be reached soon, he added.

Dorothy Ashby Appears Oct. 20

The Japanese koto, the jazz harp and gentle voice of Dorothy Ashby await concertgoers on Sunday evening, October 20, at 8 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church in Maumee avenue.

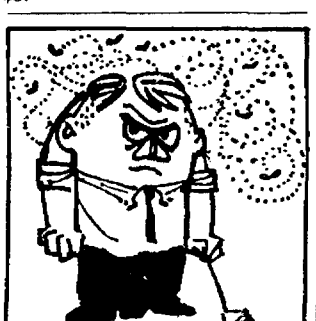

Miss Ashby is one of the few jazz harpists in the entire country. At this concert, a return engagement at the church, she will also play the ancient Japanese koto, a 13-stringed instrument she describes as a metallic harp.

Her husband, John Ashby, is on the drums and Clarence Sherrill is on bass.

"Afro-Harping" is her latest album. Her ninth album, with a Christmas theme, will be released shortly. Her albums will be available at the Church the night of the concert.

The Ashbys' most recent triumph was a two week engagement in Toronto, where their original musical, "Game," was well received, including a favorable review in the New York Times. "Game" will be taken to Washington, D.C., this fall.

Tickets are available at the Church. Reserved patron tickets are $5 and regular tickets are $3.

Parcells School To Host Parents

Parents will have an opportunity to experience a typical Middle School day at Parcells' annual "A Day in the Classroom" scheduled for tonight, Thursday, October 17, at 7:30 o'clock. The evening is designed to be particularly helpful in explaining the innovations of the pilot program, the new grading system, and their advantages in a Middle School.

As the parents follow their child's schedule, they will meet teachers during each class of 10 minutes. Classroom procedures used to accomplish course goals, materials of instruction, methods of recognizing individual differences, help which is available to students outside the classroom and arrangements for individual parent-teacher conferences will be discussed.

Mrs. Stanley Gwillim, chairman of the Seventh Grade Homeroom Mothers, and Mrs. John Shook, mother vice-president and social chairman of the P.T.A., have organized refreshments, which will be available throughout the evening in the girls' gym. Parents are invited to have a cup of coffee during periods marked "study hall" and "lunch" on student schedules.

Parcells' P.T.A. officers for the 1968-1969 school year are: Donald Remter, president; Robert J. Otto, father vice-president; Mrs. John Shook, mother vice-president; William Arbaugh, teacher vice-president; Mrs. Roger Knorr, secretary; and David Scully, treasurer.

Vincent L. Peterson, Parcells' principal, observed, "Occasionally a parent will say to me, 'My, what a beautiful building you have here.' This is true, but if that is the only impression a parent has of our school, then it is not too significant. I hope parents will go away with a better understanding and appreciation of our total instructional program as well as a more positive feeling about the professional competencies of our staff."

HOLD POLICE EXAMS
William P. Ellenburg, Grosse Pointe Park director of public safety, has announced that, within the next 30 days, he will conduct promotion examinations for policemen who wish to seek advancement to the rank of corporal and lieutenant. He will announce the exact date later.

Glanert also said that if the unknown driver voluntarily comes forward, and gives his side of the story, it is possible that he might be entirely innocent of the girl's death. On the other hand, if he is not innocent, and his identity is made known and he is arrested, the law will go harder on him.

Cynthia, a Brownell student, was conveyed to Bon Secours Hospital by Farms ambulance, where she was in a coma until her death. While in the hospital, many of her fellow students, including a number from her eighth grade class, went to their respective churches to pray for her recovery.

She died at approximately 4:30 a.m. on October 10. Funeral services were held in the A. H. Peters Funeral Home, Mack and Vernier, on Saturday, October 12. Burial was in White Chapel Memorial cemetery.

Besides her parents, Cynthia is survived by two brothers, Jeff and Tim; and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Jensen.

Jr. Great Books Program Begins

The Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools is holding a special meeting at the War Memorial on Monday, October 21, at 10 o'clock, to recruit interest and impart information concerning the Junior Great Books Program.

Several local schools are presently committed to this program and can provide strong testimony to its popularity with youngsters who participate.

The discussion leaders, who volunteer their services to the program, also express enthusiastic endorsement based on the stimulating and thought-provoking reactions they receive from the youngsters with whom they work.

Woods Retains Boat Restriction

Power boaters and sailboaters have never seen eye-to-eye. This fact was brought to light at the Woods Council meeting Monday evening, October 7.

At that time the Council was asked to consider changing the present ordinance restricting the size of boats to 26 feet. Jack D. Wesenberg of the Woods Boat Club requested a change to a 30-foot restriction.

James R. Cann, director of the Grosse Pointe Woods Boat Club, Sailfleet Captain, representing the sailboaters, requested the ordinance not be changed.

He indicated in a communication to the Council, that the docks were too small to easily accommodate boats of that length, that it might result in smaller boats being moved to less desirable locations to give way to larger boats wanting to use the larger slips now occupied, that the height of large moored powerboats would obstruct the view of adjacent sailboaters when pulling away from their slips, that the water depth would eliminate sailboaters from bringing in boats of comparable size, that the amendment would make it almost mandatory that water and electricity be furnished to boats of this size, and that increased dockage charges to offset this type of expense would be strongly opposed by the sailboaters.

Mr. Wesenberg requested that the matter be deferred until sailboaters and power boaters have an opportunity to discuss the issue more thoroughly. However the Council voted against amending the ordinance with the suggestion that the Boat Club members come back with a counter-proposal if they so desired.

Intruders Enter Home in Farms

Farms police are investigating the breaking and entering of the home of Elwood C. Eken, 488 LaBelle, which took place during the night of Saturday, October 5.

Investigating officers said that evidence showed that the culprits entered the house through the front door, and since there were no marks of forcible entry, they must have used some kind of a key. The intruders left by the rear door of the house, it was said.

Eken told police that he locked up the house completely before retiring at 12 midnight, and did not know the house had been entered until he saw the rear and porch doors ajar.

His two daughters, Susan, 11, and Colleen, 9, said they heard voices downstairs, from their second floor bedroom, and that whoever was in the house remained from 3 a.m. to 4:30 a.m. The girls apparently were too frightened to wake their father.

Eken told police that he checked the house and could find nothing missing.

Candidates will also furnish campaign literature, with facts, figures and viewpoints.

Mrs. H. Justin Davidson, Voters Service chairman for the Grosse Pointe League, heads up this activity. She joins the League and the War Memorial in urging all interested and concerned citizens to attend the Open House for Candidates on Sunday, October 20, from 3 to 5 p.m.

ARE YOU AFRAID?

- ... Afraid of whom the next stranger at your door might be?

- ... Afraid to walk to your neighborhood store?
- ... Afraid your very home is in danger?

YOU HAVE REASON TO BE!

Crime is increasing almost nine times faster than the population. Every 10 seconds, a violent crime is committed somewhere in this country.

During the Johnson-Humphrey administration, a murder is committed every 48 minutes, a forcible rape every 21 minutes, a robbery every three minutes, and an aggravated assault every 23 seconds.

DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT NOVEMBER 5TH

Vote for a Congressman who will work to restore effective law enforcement and who will demand that those who break the law be punished.

PETER O'ROURKE says:

"Protection of the innocent should be government's first concern. Instead of punishing criminals, government under the Democrats has told the law-abiding, hardworking citizens that they are at fault.

"As your Congressman, I pledge to work for legislation to help law enforcement officials fight crime more effectively, including measures to change court attitudes that hamper law enforcement by overly protecting criminal suspects."

THE RECORD

Suddenly, my opponent is worried about law and order. He is worried because he now realizes that decent citizens have had enough of excusing lawlessness and violence.

Where was he while the crime rate in the U.S. was rising 88 percent? Where was he while riots and violent demonstrations became everyday occurrences?

He was in office . . . and he did nothing about it.

AN EXAMPLE

The incumbent Congressman from the 14th District had two opportunities to help fight crime in the only city where the Congress has direct responsibility for law enforcement, Washington, D.C.

In 1965 and 1966, a bill was introduced to strengthen the Washington criminal code.

Both times Lucien Nedzi voted against that bill . . . even though most of his colleagues supported it.

Remember that when you are deciding who really stands for effective law enforcement.

Farms Patrolmen Join State-Wide Police Group

The Grosse Pointe Farms Police Officers Association on Monday, October 14, announced through its president, that it has become a charter member of the newly organized Police Officers Association of Michigan.

Patrolman Thomas Kelly, president of the GPFPOA, said that the organizational meeting was held in Lansing and that his association was the first to join, after 25 other police groups, representing approximately 5,000 police officers throughout Michigan, heard talks of the benefits that could result from the formation of a state-wide body.

Kelly and Patrolman Vincent Peters, vice-president of the Farms Association, were authorized to join the State Association by a 15-1 vote of the members of their group. Three members were absent and could not be reached to cast their votes in the matter, it was said. There are 19 patrolmen in the Farms Police Department.

Not only was the Farms the first to join the State Association, but it is the first from The Pointes to do so, it was stated. It was revealed that there were several other police groups, including the State Police Troopers Association, present at the meeting, which did not join, although they expressed enthusiasm and interest.

Only Associations that paid their dues were enrolled as charter members, with such membership to be held open for a short time only.

Kelly was appointed to the Legislative Committee of the new police organization.

Picked to lead POAM, during its first year, was Detroit Patrolman Carl Parsell, president; Pontiac Patrolman Ken Davidson, vice-president; Detroit Patrolman Charles Withers, secretary; and Livonia Patrolman Dan Wilcox, treasurer.

Nine other patrolmen from various departments were elected to the Executive Board, and three others, besides Kelly, were appointed to the Legislative Committee.

It was pointed out that the aims of POAM are to bring professionalism to all police officers in the State; to strive to raise the standards of recruiting and training; and to encourage all cities to increase the professional training of policemen, whereby, they can be in a position to demand professional pay.

The new State Association, which has no objections to being called a labor union, will be able to advise, train and aid its members and their bargaining teams, on how to negotiate effectively. It will also furnish up-to-date facts and figures, legal opinions and advice for fact finding and mediation.

In other words, it was added, POAM aims to professionalize both the police officer and his pay, so as to help him function effectively in today's troubled and sophisticated society.

In this age of gimcracks and chrome, is there a place for a car so "over-engineered" that 90 percent of its value is invisible?

Mercedes-Benz thinks so.

Fairway Drive Crane To Stay

Some 13 residents of Fairway drive recently petitioned the City of Grosse Pointe Woods to remove daily all the large equipment, including the crane, to the seclusion of the open field at the dead end of the street, to insure the safety and beauty of the neighborhood.

City Administrator Chester E. Peterson told the Council that removal of the equipment from a practical and financial standpoint was not feasible.

He pointed out that during the current sewer project many other residents are faced with this problem and as much as he disliked inconveniencing them there is no other course of action. The Council concurred with Mr. Peterson.

Yesterday's dreamboats had enormous tail fins.

Today, it's fastbacks, racing stripes, and shark-mouthed chrome grilles.

Obviously, there are millions every year who are willing to buy a car that's "in vogue"—even though they know never gimcracks and styling quirks will soon erode their investment.

But Mercedes-Benz refuses to play the "planned obsolescence" game.

At Mercedes-Benz, iron-willed engineers, not stylists, rule the roost. And they insist on putting value where they think it belongs: at the heart of their machines.

That's why Mercedes-Benz motor cars can cost anywhere from about $4,500 to $26,000 without, to some tastes, "looking" it.

Form follows function

Make no mistake. The perfectionists at Mercedes-Benz do not apologize for those classic lines—free of faddish touches—that will still be handsome years from now. They simply think form should follow function instead of fashion.

The contours of that 250 sedan at right were dictated by the need to provide proper headroom, hiproom, legroom and protective packaging for five adults. Dictated by the proportions required for nimble maneuverability.

The car is both shorter and leaner than its overweight rivals. Yet it bristles with sophisticated, ultra-performance features available only as extra-cost options, if at all, on domestic sedans.

A superb machine

"Over-engineered," some critics say. Nonsense, retort Mercedes-Benz engineers. If a man can afford to invest thousands in a superb driving machine, he is entitled to get something superb.

What he gets in a Mercedes-Benz is legendary in automotive circles.

An expert from Car and Driver tested the "new" 250 when it was released early in 1968 after an incubation period of five years. His verdict: "Offhand, I can't think of any other 4-door sedan in the world—with the possible exception of the Maserati Quattroporte—that handles, steers and stops like the Mercedes."

Scrapping the solid rear axle system of most domestic cars, the 250 uses an all-independent suspension—plus anti-sway bars front and rear. This endows it with the agility of a scrambling quarterback.

You can blast it over rutted and potholed gravel lanes. It behaves with almost eerie calm. You can thread it through the corkscrew turns of a mountain road, and enjoy yourself.

There's no sloppy play in the steering. No mushiness. When you hold the wheel, you "feel" the road. When you turn the wheel, the car darts instantly where you aim. Suddenly, you are a more confident driver.

Heroic stopping power

Stopping? Unless you have driven a 180-mph Grand Prix racing car or a Mercedes-Benz, chances are you have never experienced the security that comes from having really good brakes.

Disc brakes. A few domestic cars have front-wheel disc brakes, and others offer front-wheel discs as an option. But every Mercedes-Benz comes with massive disc brakes on all four wheels. Standard.

Result: You get more stopping power than you may ever need. But you sleep better at night.

The pinnacle of safety

As for safety, Mercedes-Benz engineers applaud the intent of the new U.S. Government regulations, and carry their protective measures beyond the letter of these laws.

The new Mercedes-Benz 250. To some, it doesn't "look" worth $5,085*. Read why it is.

The 250's best defense against blundering drivers is, of course, its uncanny evasive ability. But, if the worst happens, your Mercedes-Benz is designed to shield you.

The entire passenger compartment is built as a sturdy "safety zone." Doors are designed to stay closed on impact. The front and rear sections of the car are engineered to crumple in a violent crash at a controlled rate, absorbing shock and reducing the threat of serious injury.

Car and Driver's sober conclusion: Of all the world's motor cars, the current Mercedes-Benz line "represents the present pinnacle in safe car engineering."

Value. All of it concealed from the casual eye. But there.

And there's more: Construction of every Mercedes-Benz begins in a shower of sparks. Where conventional cars use bolts to tie body and chassis together, Mercedes-Benz uses thousands of welds to create a single unit of immense strength. After 50,000 miles or so, you may begin to wonder if your 250 will ever rattle.

When welding stops, the raw body is dunked whole, like a taffy apple, into a gigantic vat of primer. It emerges with 24 pounds of rust protection.

More hidden value

Every car gets 20 more pounds of primer and paint. Even the insides of the hub caps are coated. As a final flourish in its armament against corrosion, each car gets a 24-pound factory slathering of undercoating.

The six-cylinder, overhead cam engine of every 250 is bench tested before installation, for more than 60 minutes. A hint of trouble in this grueling test and the engine is torn down and rebuilt. Mercedes-Benz finds the lemons—not you.

Revealing showroom tests

Run a finger along the body of the 250. No "orange peel" texture. Slide in and open the glove compartment. Fully trimmed. Close the car door. Ka-chunk.

Now flex your back. This is no marshmallow seat. It supports you, mile after mile. It should: it was designed with the guidance of orthopedic physicians.

Crank the window and fiddle with some knobs. "Everything worked with delightful precision, eliciting the same sort of satisfaction that comes when the shutter mechanism crackles shut on a good reflex camera," reported Car and Driver's expert.

That's the beauty of the 250. It's built as if it were a 3,000-pound Hasselblad camera!

Over-engineered? By conventional standards, emphatically so. But Mercedes-Benz does not make conventional cars—and never will.

24-page brochure

If you'd like more facts on this remarkable $5,085* machine, mail the coupon for a full-color brochure.

Of course, the quickest way to verify the 250's virtues, both visible and invisible, is simply to test-drive it. Just ask for the keys.

Other Mercedes-Benz models to ponder:

280S Sedan—the most road-worthy car you can buy in the luxury class, $5,990*.

280SL Roadster—a sports car for grown-ups, combines soul-stirring performance with comfort, $6,638*.

220 Diesel—the only diesel Mercedes-Benz makes, gives you small-car economy in a big, safe sedan that may well endure for half a million miles, $4,580*.

300SEL—an understated limousine, $9,525*.

University School News

For many of us summer means hot, lazy weather, days of relaxation on the golf course, hours spent lounging by the pool—a welcome change from the pressures of employment or education. But for an increasing number of University School students, a summer is a means of broadening one's outlook, of involvement in rather than detachment from the reality of the everyday world.

Foreseeing the comforts of home, the lure of carefree, study-free days, many students explored new territories, physical, social, and intellectual, and it is interesting to note a striking similarity in their overall impressions, whether they worked, traveled, or studied.

People, our students discovered, are what make the world what it is. Earning money may be useful; studying new courses is broadening; seeing new and different countries has its excitement; but in all of these experiences personal relationships strike the most responsive chord. The people with whom our students lived and worked and studied were justification enough for the summer's activities.

The following represents the summer program of a number of University School seniors. It does not include the entire class. It is merely an attempt to show the breadth and depth of summer experiences in which Grosse Pointe University School students are participating.

European travel and study occupied a significant number of seniors. Kathleen Gordon, Evelyn Cymbal and Betsy Gram lived in Nantes, France, as participants in the foreign study program sponsored by the Independent Schools Abroad.

Chris McNaughton traveled to Madrid, Spain, to live with a family under the auspices of the Rollins College "Verano Espanol" program. Lisa Bowers, under the "Youth for Understanding" program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches, became a member of a German family in Kiel, and Nancy Chalot spent almost three months in Brazil as an American Field Service student.

Eve Saditsk took a six-week art history study tour through Europe, while Kirk Stanfield spent three weeks traveling through Scotland, England, Ireland, and Wales. Traveling perhaps the farthest distance from home, Craig Dickson went to Australia and New Zealand.

United States travel was elected by Debbie Huster, Cynthia Caskey and Susan Swan, who spent five weeks roughing it in the west on the Chet Sampson western tour.

Robin Porter and Suzanne Tolleson attended the Project Head Start—Upward Bound programs at Bennett College in Millbrook, N.Y., where they worked with underprivileged children. Marie Valk and Barbara Noyes were enrolled at Cranbrook in seven-week courses involving art, theater and creative writing. George Mesritz took an eight week course in speed reading.

Chris Zukowski attended journalism classes for two weeks at Michigan State, and Linda McPherson went to the University of Michigan for a two week advanced math course.

Locally, Del Dillingham worked for Senator Eugene Mc-

Carthy, ringing doorbells and soliciting signatures on petitions and pledge sheets. Other senior boys were involved in gainful employment which ranged from washing dishes to camp counseling to learning father's business. Increasing social awareness The activities of these young which must accompany a truly people is clear testimony to the liberal education.

Neighborhood Club News

As a result of the Neighborhood Club Jogging Club Meeting, held Wednesday, October 9, it was decided that the first jogging session would begin Wednesday, October 16, at 8 p.m. in Brownell Jr. High Boy's Gym, 260 Chalfonte, with parking in the rear of the building.

Due to the uneven surface and muddy condition on the Neighborhood Club field it was felt inadvisable to use that facility and therefore arrangements were made at Brownell for use of the gym on evenings it is available, and when not, use of the parking lot, and in case of bad weather the Southwest corridor.

Also participants in this program are asked to pay a fee of $5 for an 8-week period to cover cost of leadership and communications.

Clark Lawrence will work with the group the first two weeks on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings and then will be available for the next six Wednesday evenings for consultation at Brownell gym.

A health form may be obtained at the Neighborhood Club office, 17150 Waterloo. Anyone interested may obtain further information by calling TU 5-4600.

GIRL'S FIELD HOCKEY
Girls in 6th, 7th, and 8th grades are invited to Brownell Jr. High Field (in case of rain, girl's gym) to play or learn how to play Field Hockey on Tuesdays from 4-5:30 p.m.

The Neighborhood Club is at tempting to form teams that will compete with local schools and also teams from Bloomfield Hills and Birmingham. Mothers interested in promoting this sport are requested to get in touch with Miss Masak, TU 5-4600. The Club needs your support and help in getting girls to participate.

CREATIVE DANCE
Openings are still available in the Creative Dance Class under the instruction of Mrs. Marcy Shattuck, a dance major from Wayne State and an expert in this dance area. Girls ages 6-9 years of age will be given a background of body movement that will be beneficial for future ballet experience and for physical and rhythmic coordination.

Please call the Neighborhood Club if interested. Class will start as soon as sufficient enrollment is reached.

Woods Accepts Sewer Proposal

Members of the Grosse Pointe Woods Council discussed at their meeting of Monday, October 7, a request by William F. Baker, president of Cox and Baker, to have the city accept the sanitary sewage for both the Grosse Pointe Woods and St. Clair Shores portions of the property Cox and Baker wishes to develop into a Multiple Housing Project in Mack avenue north of Brys drive.

The Council also discussed a letter from the City Manager of St. Clair Shores, D. J. Harm, which stated that St. Clair Shores would not be able to handle the added sanitary sewage load and asked that the Council discuss the possibility of the Woods assuming the sanitary sewer flow.

The Council agreed to formulate a letter to Mr. Harm indicating that the City of Grosse Pointe Woods has adequate capacity and would be able to

Police Accuse Man of Assault

Paul J. Webber, 25, of 17455 Wildwood, Roseville, was arraigned before Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytell on Thursday, October 10, on a warrant accusing him of felonious assault.

Webber is charged with firing a blank .22 caliber pistol against the face of Melvin Gross, 22, of 26477 Clancy, Roseville, while both were in the Manor Lounge in Mack avenue. Gross was taken to St. John Hospital by Farms police and treated for a burn on the right cheek and an inflamed right eye.

At his arraignment Webber stood mute to the charge, and Judge Pytell entered a plea of innocent for him, and released the accused man on $500 bond. Examination date was set for Wednesday, October 16.

Farms Det. Joseph Miller said that when questioned, Webber refused to disclose why he fired the pistol at Gross.

Patrolman Clarence Reichling, who was dispatched to the lounge to investigate a reported shooting, said he found Gross in the bar, holding his wounded face, but Webber had fled the building, chased by John T. Okarski, of 1612 Gray, Detroit.

Okarski had captured Webber just outside the door of the lounge, the officer said, and was kicking Webber who was on the ground. A woman employee of the place, who followed the pair outside, witnessed the capture and kicking. She also saw Webber get to his feet and run east on Mack and escape.

As she returned to the bar, she discovered a plastic bag in the walkway, containing several live .22 caliber blanks, which she picked up and gave to Reichling.

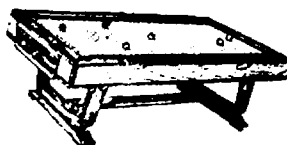

Reichling reported the escape of Webber, and an all points broadcast was sent over the police radio. The man was apprehended in the City, by City police.

Okarski was also taken to the hospital, where he was treated for a sprained big right toe, resulting from the kicks he gave Webber.

Blue Devils Defeat Monroe; Big Game This Weekend

By Craig Carr

When the Blue Devils take the field this Saturday against Wyandotte, there will be more at stake than just a Homecoming victory. Wyandotte, Grosse Pointe, Fordson, and Royal Oak are all tied for first place in the BCL with league marks of two wins and one loss. A Devil win, then, would keep Grosse Pointe in first place with only a game against fifth-place Highland Park remaining.

Wyandotte won the BCL championship last year and seems just as strong this season, and Coach Hepner said, "They're equal to Fordson."

The Bears beat Royal Oak 25-0, last weekend. Their only defeat has been in a sub-par game in which Fordson beat them 26-6.

The Devils won their second game in a row, and the defense turned in their second straight shutout as they defeated Monroe 20-0 last Friday.

Grosse Pointe opened the scoring with a touchdown in the last 20 seconds of the first half. Steve Maun passed 25 yards to Jim Humes on a fourth down play for the TD.

Earlier in the half the Devils drove inside the Trojan 15-yard line and failed to score. Monroe also moved to the Grosse Pointe 10-yard line before a fumble stopped their only scoring opportunity.

Early in the third quarter, leading 7-0, the Devils scored again on a 3-yard run by Jim Montmorency. The touchdown was set up by a 50-yard pass play from Maun to Bill Schleicher that went to the Monroe 7-yard line. The extra point attempt failed.

The final Grosse Pointe score of the contest came on a drive that was helped along by Monroe penalties. The TD finally came when Maun passed 25 yards to Montmorency. Chris Malafouris then kicked his second conversion for the Devils' 20th point.

Temper flared in the game as five different players were ejected. Four Monroe players were thrown out of the game and one Blue Devil was ejected.

Bob Sweeney dislocated his shoulder in the game and will miss the last three games of the season.

The Blue Devil freshmen lost their third straight game 12-0 at the hands of Page Junior High. Although Page was considered an average team, the Grosse Pointe defensive line gave up close to 200 yards rushing.

Fullback Bob Heels led the Devil attack as he carried for a total of 50 yards. Although Bruce Moulson handled the ball well at quarterback, the Devil offense sputtered. Alex McLeod and Pete Gooba led the defense.

Pointe Packers Take 2 Games

By Rick Moore

The Grosse Pointe Packers rebounded from last week's losses at the hands of the St. Clair Shores Black Knights to take two out of three from the Wyandotte Indians.

The Freshmen crushed the Indians, 20-0 on a tremendous team effort. Time after time the Packers' offensive line, led by Chuck Coopel, opened gaping holes for their runners. Coach Werner Lueckhoff credited the great charge of the offensive line, along with a crushing defense lead by Jimmy "Peanuts" Simon and Guy Aubrey as responsible for the stunning victory.

Touchdowns by Dan Matzka, Jim Klumpp and Steve Rewalt on an 82 yard scamper accounted for the scoring with Rewalt and Matzka adding two extra points.

The Junior Varsity won a defensive battle 6-0, when Fritz Lehmann converted an interception into a touchdown. Although the Packers offense controlled the ball much of the game, they could not score again. The Packer defense was at their best as the Indians were unable to mount a single offensive drive.

The Packer Varsity ran into the same problem they have faced all year. The inability to convert long, sustained drives into touchdowns cost them another victory as they were dropped by the Wyandotte Indians 7-6.

Wyandotte scored first and led 7-0 when the Packers started to roll. However, twice they were stopped on the one yard line after long drives in the second half. Mark Carlson ran 82 yards for a touchdown.

Again and again the Packers defense held, but the offense could not hit pay dirt, although running up 15 first downs to Wyandotte's five. Mark Guzzard, Mike Shelton, Phil Simon and Dick Padilla made strong contributions to the Packer effort.

Brownell Middle School Enthusiastic Experiment

By Pepper Whitelaw

This third in the series of articles on the Middle Schools in Grosse Pointe will deal with Brownell Middle School and information received from its principal, William L. Christofferson.

"New" is the best adjective with which to describe the teachers, students and program at Brownell this year. This year at Brownell 39 per cent of the teaching staff is new to the building or the community. Two-thirds of the student body, (200 sixth graders and 332 seventh graders), are new to the school.

This combination is resulting in an enthusiastic, willing group of both teachers and students. All students begin their day at 8:45 and end it at 3:15. The sixth grade modified self-contained program permits a great deal of flexibility in scheduling subjects on a daily or weekly basis, or over a longer period of time.

The seventh and eighth grade students' program provides for seven 50 or 55-minute class periods. Of these seven, six are devoted to the educational program and one is divided into a 30-minute lunch period and a 20-minute home room period. This permits for lunch periods beginning at 11:30 and ending at 1:20 with a closed campus.

All sixth grade students eat during the first lunch period, while seventh and eighth graders are divided among the three. All students are required to eat at tables specifically set aside for their homerooms, but they are free to socialize with other friends when eating and cleanup are completed.

Mr. Christofferson said that although some of the eighth graders objected to the arrangement at first, he feels all the students have adjusted to the change quite well. He added that lunch rooms are neater and students more orderly under this arrangement. Students may go outside during the lunch period, into specific areas, weather permitting.

During this first year in middle school, Brownell is moving slowly into innovative plans cutting across grade lines. The educational program is an evolving one.

Coordinate Efforts

Brownell must also coordinate its efforts with Ferry and Montclair's sixth graders. The sixth grade program at Brownell offers essentially the same learning experiences as the elementary schools, with the addition of more time assigned to specialized areas of study such as art, music and physical education.

Two teacher-teams have regrouped students in academic areas to better serve their needs and abilities.

Unified arts, which consists of an introduction to industrial arts and homemaking studies, is offered to co-educational groups for two five-week blocks of time. Here students are taught the basic use of tools, home safety, home repairs, basic cooking skills, and basic sewing skills. Interestingly enough both sexes enjoy both subjects equally well.

Smooth Transition

The transition from modified self-contained sixth grade to departmentalization in grades seventh and eighth is a smooth one. Two English-Social Studies core groups plan their activities around common learnings.

A special innovation at Brownell is that teachers with classes of the same grade level are planning to regroup youngsters according to their abilities, not for long blocks of time but for units of work or variety of teacher presentations. Thus each child will be progressing according to his potential and at his own rate, with teacher evaluation and reassignment a continuing process. This serves as a challenge to the teachers, who are experimenting with independent study by selected students. This results in greater involvement on the part of the teacher. Team teaching is also utilized for larger groups.

Emphasis in Skills

On the seventh grade level there is the continued emphasis on skills development with the additional offering of exploratory experiences in several areas. Each seventh grade student studies English, Social Studies, and Math, every day and physical education three times weekly, French twice weekly (if eligible) and science daily for one-half of the school year, alternating with shop or homemaking.

In addition to this program, all seventh graders are provided with 13 weeks each of art, vocal music and communication skills. This latter is a new course introduced this year to sharpen students' study skills and basic methods of communication. Grouping for this class is done on the basis of individual needs.

Mr. Christofferson called this course "Learning How To Learn," and well it might be called that, for here the pupil has the opportunity to develop new skills and reinforce basic ones, with an eye to knowing how to go about learning, now and in the future. Although this course does not have a textbook, it uses the students' current classroom textbooks to illustrate to the student just how to go about learning from it. This is a course that has long been needed in the educational scheme of things; it's here at Brownell today. This new course may also help to bring about enrichment study courses in other areas, as electives.

Eighth grade students are scheduled for English, Social Studies, Math and Science daily, physical education three times weekly, French twice weekly, (if eligible), and shop or homemaking daily for one-half the school year, and either art or vocal music the remainder. In addition one section each for seventh and eighth graders is offered in journalism. One accelerated Math class continues in preparing for the high school program. Plans for team teaching are current underway in science and social studies.

Change Approach

The Instrumental Music Program has changed its emphasis from "Public Concert" approach to "How To Play" approach. Here individual skills are developed with a specific instrument. Students in each grade meet one class period per week for small group "sectionals" on a rotating basis. This consists of a lesson-type arrangement, with students receiving help with individual problems. This will prepare sixth and seventh graders for participation in band or orchestra in eighth grade.

Brownell offers a Special Education program for students who need specialized help in basic subjects as well.

Three trained counselors serve students in all three grade levels, not only on an individual basis but also by teaching groups. One of their principal functions this year is coordinating the activities of teachers and students within each of three "houses", consisting of 10 assigned home rooms.

Guidance Oriented

The home room has been designed to be guidance-oriented and attempts to help students make a better adjustment to middle school and to the problems associated with the emergence of adolescence. Close cooperation between home room teachers and students, and between home room teacher and his counselor leader, are essential to the success of this program. This broad-based counseling program provides opportunities for much closer personal contact throughout the year.

The scope of activities in the home room program are wide, varied and dynamic. The goal here is greater pupil independence and self direction. In this area plans are currently underway to use parents as resource people in certain discussion areas.

Healthy Environment

The home room program if meaningful can contribute toward a healthy school environment for each student. It seeks to broaden the base of the guidance program by increasing the opportunity for each student to get extra help and assistance when he needs it. Daily home room contacts makes this possible.

The student activities in the Brownell program are geared to recognize the varying rate of student maturity. They have already had an after-school mixer for sixth graders that proved quite successful. Meanwhile, after school sports for boys and girls comprise most of the extra student activities. Potential plans for combined parties for eighth graders from all three middle schools are being formulated, as well as coordinated programs with other community agencies.

Changes Indicated

With this type program, needs develop. Although Brownell is only 10 years old, it was constructed with the traditional school programs in mind. Now as Brownell moves closer to the basic idea of middle school, structural changes are necessary, such as large group areas for bringing more than one class together for lessons or demonstrations; an instructional materials center where students can individually or in small groups do research using learning materials and equipment. Currently the library seats only 60 pupils, or about 5 percent of the student body. North Central Association requires that a library seat 10 percent of its enrollment for accreditation; specialized rooms such as science and art facilities, shop, locker rooms and more cafeteria room are necessary in the event that all sixth grade students in the district are moved

Maximum Enrollment
Brownell is now functioning at a practical maximum in terms of pupils enrolled. If enrollment is increased, more academic classrooms and enlarged specialized rooms must be provided, or the less favorable alternative is large class size and/or stripped down curricular offering.
Mr. Christofferson stressed that each Middle School is working on different innovations which they will evaluate periodically for possible use in the

In 5 years you can save over $140.00 with a new Gas dryer.

Work it out for yourself. It takes less than 2¢ to dry a load of clothes with Gas. And you can dry 5 loads in a Gas dryer for the cost of drying 1 with electricity.

Based on the number of loads an average family dries, there's a saving of $28 or more a year—$140 in 5 years. Your Gas dryer can actually pay for itself in 5 years with the money saved in operating costs.

There are no hidden expenses, either. Installation is free. Maintenance comes to less than 20¢ a year, on the average (or the amount you can save on a few loads).

No wonder 7 out of 10 families that now have dryers have Gas dryers. Money aside, Gas finishes loads up to 10 minutes faster, so you can get more loads through in a day. Clothes come out fresh, soft and looking like new, including all your permanent-press things.

Gas makes the big difference... costs less, too. Not just for 5 years, either; but as long as you use it. See the latest dryer models at dealer or Gas Company showrooms.

Isn't it time you bought her a new Gas dryer?

Hayride Planned For The Group

Next activity for "The Group," (young people in their 20's in the Grosse Pointe area and their friends), will be a hayride and party at Long Horn Ranch, Washington, Mich., the evening of Friday, October 25. Since "The Group" is based at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, participants will gather at the Center in Lakeshore road at 7:30 o'clock and consolidate into fewer cars for the caravan out to the ranch. There all will literally "hit the hay" for an hour and a half's horse-drawn ride with refreshments permitted on board. Afterwards "The Group" will adjourn to a rustic club room with music for dancing and B.Y.O. Cost of this excursion is $1.50. Reservations may be made at the War Memorial. Just 50 can be accommodated.

FINDS STOLEN CAR

While checking parking meters along Mack avenue on Friday, October 11, an alert Grosse Pointe Park police patrolman, Richard Warren, came across an automobile that Detroit police had reported stolen the previous day from 12932 Jefferson avenue. The car was owned by Emery Ramsdale, 1569 Drexel.

Dr. Richard Swanson is in his second season as Wayne State University cross-country coach.

Lion Gridders Win 2, Lose 1

By DuWayne Peterson
The Grosse Pointe Little League footballers traveled to East Detroit last Sunday and came away with two victories and one loss. The Varsity ended on top 6-0 as did the Junior Varsity, 8-0. The Freshmen came out on the short end, 18-0.

The Varsity tally came midway in the first quarter when Steve Morrison hit Dave Hyde in the open for a 59-yard touchdown pass play. Chris Montague threw a key block to spring Hyde loose.

At the start of the second quarter Mike Monaghan ran nine yards and Joe Briggs smashed ahead for the first down. The Tiger Cats intercepted to stop the drive and began a sustained drive to the Lions 10 yard line. Dale Hyde intercepted on the five as the half ended.

A powerful defensive team led by Mike Monaghan fought off the Tiger Cats the rest of the game. Other strong defensive players were Hyde, Barry Quinn, Don Chouinard, Myles Wilson and Dave Coleman. The opening kick-off was a tip-off to how tough the Junior Varsity was going to be with Jon Banks recovering a Tiger Cat fumble on the Lions 47. After the ball changed hands, Banks picked off an East Detroit lateral and scampered to the Lion's 44. A 36 yard pass from Jeff Gardner to Dave Maxwell featured a drive that eight yard line. The defense put the Lions on the scoreboard when Rick Frame nailed the runner in the end zone for a safety.

The Lions offensive juggernaut pounded away at the Tiger Cats line until Alan Killian went four yards for the touchdown. Along with Killian, Jeff Gardner and Joe Griffin made good runs.

The second half was dominated again by the Lions. Maxwell and John Codde sparked drives. Standout defensive plays were a blocked punt by Art Behn and fumble recoveries by Pat Crandall and Jerry Drolshagen. The offensive line of John Pollina, Joe Addison, Matt Rohr, Jim Gough, Ed Zerwick, Don Brower and Chuck Roarty deserves credit for opening big holes in the Tiger Cat line.

The Freshmen had their hands full with the speed of the Tiger Cats. Brian Myers again was the outstanding defensive player on the field making 80 percent of the Lions tackles. Others that were strong on defense were John Williams, John Luine and Charles Ladd.

The Freshmen offense had two bright moments. In the second quarter Chris Cornwall ran nine yards and John Williams went 10 yards in two carries to the East Detroit nine yard line only to be halted by a pass interception.

The next big moment came when John Huvaere scampered 59 yards for a touchdown only to have it called back for clipping. The next set of games will be Sunday, October 20, against Belleville at Neighborhood Field. The first game begins at 1 p.m.

Lakers Capture Sunday Thriller

St. Paul Lakers won a thriller Sunday night as they beat East Catholic, 7-6. The Lakers' solid defense stopped a late East Catholic drive to capture the victory.

East Catholic was the first to score on a five-yard run by Bob Habib in the second quarter. The Lakers stopped the extra point as linebacker Dennis Nally knocked down a Hibib pass.

The Lakers scored in the third quarter as quarterback Gordie Piche passed 13 yards to end Dennis Hayes. After the first extra point was nullified by a penalty, Gordie Piche kicked the ball through the goal posts to give the victory to St. Paul.

Pointe Drivers Taken Off Road

One Pointe motorist was deprived of his operator's license for a full year, and another had his revoked, according to the latest report, dated September 20, received from Secretary of State James M. Hare.

The Secretary of State disclosed that Frank J. Saile, III, of 779 St. Clair, had his license revoked, as of August 30, because of an unsatisfactory driving record. There was nothing to indicate if it had been restored.

Raymond F. Laethem, Jr., of 880 North Oxford, had his license taken away from September 15, 1968 to September 15, 1969, for driving with an altered operator's license.

Hare stated in his report that during the week of September 15-21, a total of 1,233 Michigan motorists had their licenses suspended, and 448 had theirs revoked.

Speeders Fined By Park Judge

After pleading not guilty to a charge of driving 50 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone, Carl Cobb, of 1008 Devonshire road, Grosse Pointe Park, was found guilty and sentenced by Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger to pay a fine of $35 or spend five days in jail, on Wednesday, October 9. He paid.

Patricia Riley, of 1471 Maryland avenue, Grosse Pointe Park, was found guilty of failing to obey a stop street sign, and paid a fine of $7.

For failing to appear in court to answer a "no operator's license" charge, Marshall Acquaviva, of 462 Philip, Detroit, forfeited a $50 bond. A bond of $30 was forfeited by Geoffrey Do Polo, 21853 Superior street, Taylor, for the same reason. The charge against him was speeding 55 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone.

Charged with causing an accident while entering an intersection, Violet O'Connor, of 12450 Waltham, Detroit, was found guilty and sentenced to pay $25 and $2 costs.

For failure to "stay at a clear distance," and causing an accident, William Penman, of 22327 Maxine avenue, St. Clair Shores, who entered a plea of not guilty, paid a $15 fine.

Stand UP And Be Counted!

Two weeks from next Tuesday — November 5, 1968 — American voters will have the future of their country in their hands. What they do on that day will affect generations yet unborn.

For on that day they face the awesome responsibility of going to the polls, casting their ballots and electing a president of the United States for the next four years, which may be the most significant era in the history of our nation.

Millions of sound-thinking, patriotic Americans will show their love of country by meeting their responsibility. On the other hand, there is a vast cross-section of disgruntled, dissident vote-dodgers numbering in the millions who should be pinned with a "Shame On Me — I Didn't Vote" badge the day after election.

As national General Election day swiftly approaches, our differences and indifference should be discarded. Our best American foot must be put forward, and our dangerous apathy must be replaced by a patriotic fervor which could prove to the world that citizens of the United States deeply appreciate their right to cast a free and secret ballot for the candidates of their choice. Awaken your lethargic conscience and let it be your guide on November 5!

Last week the U.S. Census Bureau predicted that "about 74 million Americans will vote in the November 5 Presidential election, a million more than voted four years ago." Also, there now are 121.5 million persons eligible to vote.

So, what's wrong with that, you ask? Well, for one important thing, the Bureau announces that there is now an increase of 7.1 eligible voters over 1964, when 70.7 million, or 62 percent of the people cast their ballots.

By simple arithmetic this seems to indicate that an astounding 47 million citizens will fail to vote on November 5. And that is 7 million more than did not go to the polls in 1964! Also, to bring the problem home, there were 3 million vote shirkers in Michigan that very same year.

So, Grosse Pointers, where does this leave us? It leaves us with perhaps the greatest voting responsibility we have ever had. Never forget that!

It's up to you to see to it that, for the love of the United States of America, you don't forfeit the power of your vote by sitting this one out, as so many renegades have threatened to do. Let's not lose any more of our freedoms by default. Stand up proudly, wave Old Glory, and be counted like a real nephew of Uncle Sam should.

When Charles Edison was governor of New Jersey several years ago, he issued this significant statement the day after an election: "Citizens will die for democracy, pay taxes for it, and give their blood for its soldiers. But vote. Work at democracy. It takes a revolution, or a miracle, to arouse them." Now, go sit in a corner, parse that one carefully, and see what you come up with.

And then swear, by the wondrous nation which has long been blessed by God's Holy Light, that you will cast your ballot on November 5. Whatever else you may be, don't be a vote dodger.

W.W.F.

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson,
Superintendent of Schools

Most of you who are interested in public education in Grosse Pointe know by now that we are in the process of establishing three School Study Committees. One group will study the needs of the district in connection with millage, a second will study the middle schools, while the third will devote its attentions to South High School.

Committees of this kind have been formed in Grosse Pointe in the past. Cross-sectional representation is vital to the solution of complicated and far-reaching school-community problems. The dilemmas facing us are no different from those facing school districts across the nation. Citizens' committees of various kinds are constituted daily to enlist community thinking and support.

For example, Superintendent Raymond L. Collins of Manhasset, N.Y., introduced citizens' advisory committees more than 22 years ago. Today there are nine committees with 125 lay persons serving the system of 2,600 pupils in four schools. Membership comes from all parts of the community and includes persons with no children in school.

In some school districts, an Education Committee studies the curriculum, meets with leaders in the field under study, observes other school systems and makes recommendations to the Board of Education.

Another system might have a Citizen's Advisory Committee on the Adult School to advise on course offerings and keep the community aware of the program.

Another group might provide general advice and guidance on the summer recreational programs and youth center.

A community might have an advisory committee on buildings and grounds to make periodic tours of the school plant and advise at budget time on construction and repair projects.

A citizens' committee might work closely with the Vocational Industrial Cooperative Program and place students in part-time employment. And a publication committee might work with the staff in developing topics to be covered in releases to the local papers or in special brochures.

And, a community might have a Citizens' Advisory Committee on New Construction to make recommendations concerning the building of new schools or additions.

Obviously, all of these committees will not be duplicated in Grosse Pointe, but the preceding examples will give readers an idea of how other school systems employ community talent in solving long-range problems.

GODFREY J. HAMMEL, III, son of the GODFREY HAMMEL, of Harvard road, was recently promoted to Captain in the United States Marine Corps. He was commissioned upon his graduation from Xavier College, Cincinnati, O., spent 13 months in Vietnam where he was wounded three times in one action in July of 1967 and, upon his recovery, returned to active combat in Vietnam, completing his tour of duty there in April, 1968. Returning to the States, he was assigned to duty at Camp Lejeune, N.C. Captain and Mrs. Hammel, (the former PAMELA L. WALLACE, of Bedford road), left for a European vacation September 26, on a 30-day leave. After driving through Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Northern Italy and along the Italian and French Riviera, they will return to make their home in Surf City, Topsail Island, N.C., at the end of this month.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

It was a beautiful, sunny, early-fall day — a fine afternoon, I decided after lunch, to do some branch visiting. It had been some time since I've written a column about the Park and Woods Branches, and I certainly don't want to neglect them.

My first stop was at the Park Branch. As I entered the door, my eyes were drawn immediately to the children's room, alive with youngsters listening raptly to Mrs. Sue Neff, the children's librarian, tell her stories. Sue always does a good job, and so they were intent and interested.

Soon there was some bustling as these Defer youngsters went about picking and choosing the books they wanted to read. Miss Gerda Bielitz, the effervescent and enthusiastic Branch Librarian, was darting hither and thither, helping patrons, talking to me, showing me new displays, certain changes that had taken place since I'd last visited her, helping with the children, and talking to the man who had come in to connect up the new Coronastat which is brand new to this Branch.

The library looked neat, colorful with the many-hued book jackets; the displays were effective. The new rug in the back room, covering the crowded area for pre-school story hour, was duly admired. The only jarring note was the overflow of books neatly arranged on tables in the adult room — no more shelf space.

I liked the uniform yellow labeling of areas and collections. Also, having had to look for JE books, on various occasions, in different libraries, I was delighted to see how the idea of color-coding the JE books at this Branch would have both librarian and patron time in locating a favorite volume.

Miss Bielitz told me that a dual program was usually put on during a pre-school visit. While the small fry listen to Mrs. Neff, Miss Bielitz gives talks to the mothers of these children — and to any other interested adults.

At this point I glanced at my watch, said good-bye to Mrs. Nixon, Mrs. Burroughs and Mrs. Anderson, as well as to Mrs. Neff and Miss Bielitz, and turned my car towards the Woods Branch.

Before I got past the first door, I was struck by this fine display entitled: "Challenge of the Sea," with background displays of books and foreground

"fish" representing the uses of the sea, such as "Frontier," "Playground," "Food," "Power" and "Oil." Mrs. Seifert was discovered hard at work at the Reference Desk; in back of her was a display showing a defiant tiger about to pounce on a cardinal!

Having greeted some of the other staff members, Mrs. Kaser and Mrs. York, and noted the special collections, a Dr. Dolittle mobile, the already-functioning Coronastat, inviting labels such as "Let the Leaves Fall, Curl Up With a Good Novel," I sat down to find out something about Mrs. Jeanne Bertelsen, the new clerk at this Branch.

Dark, sun-tanned, pert and alert, Mrs. Bertelsen informed me that she was married, had five children — one girl married and teaching at Ferry, one girl at Western, two boys at Grosse Pointe North, and one girl at Ferry School.

Her interests? Sailing, racing (her husband built their boat), and camping. They have a home-made camper (they really are do-it-yourselfers), so they put the boat on top of the camper, pour the children in, plus a dog, a cat, (I forgot to ask if the snakes and parakeet go too) and away they go for fun and adventure!

Oh yes, Jeanne likes to read too, although I wonder when she finds time to do any. So we welcome Jeanne Bertelsen to our Staff — she is indeed a fine addition.

I was indeed impressed by the appearance of the Woods, just as much as I was at the Park. I had a little trouble cornering Betty Seifert long enough to talk to her — she was busy with telephone reference questions and patrons. But she glows when she talks about her Branch — you can see she is truly proud of it. If, in certain areas, it too seems crowded, it's because it is — with books, and most of the time, with people.

I glanced once again at my watch — just in time to beat the school closing at Parcels, when both outside and into the library. So I beat a strategic retreat, hoping also to jump the gun on the Grosse Pointe South students and get back to Central in time to get a place to park. And I made it!

I had enjoyed the afternoon, and I vowed I would make this sort of a visit more often — whether in search of material for a column or just to keep communication open a little more between the Central Library and the two branches.

Mr. Sheridan-Books, 81 Kercheval, recommends a beautiful new love story, "The Wine and the Music" by William Barrett, the author of "Lilies of the Field." Call 381-1671 or 881-2916 for delivery.

It's no longer "I have a knit." ... knits have been recognized as much a part of a well dressed woman's wardrobe as a coat and a suit. In fact, many of the imported knits in the new stitch are identified with suits, cocktail clothes and costumes. They are a way of life which will not change for a long, long time to come. Margaret Rice has always believed in the IMPORT KNIT and she has four of the most outstanding and best known knit lines available.

Have you seen ... the stunning new collection of clocks at Virginia Williams by Bey-Cor Creations? Most of them are colorful enamels on copper, framed in wood. They'll pick up the colors in your room ... 79 Kercheval.

Pots de Creme ... those decorative little pots in which to serve custards, mousses, creams, are in an interesting collection in the gourmet corner of the Mermaid.

What's in a name? ... Clever identification for gift items at Trail Apothecary, 121 Kercheval. Morning After is an ice bag. Whose the Fairest? Is a double mirror. Must is an electric razor. Let's Make Up is of course a make-up kit. These and more come in satin covered plastic. The color choice shocking, blue, and gold.

Antique Books ... provide the setting for a liqueur decanter and four glasses. This entertaining decorative set is found at Denler, 77 Kercheval, and would make a great host or hostess gift.

Joe Wagstaff ... will be entertaining at the piano bar in the Bronze Door, 123 Kercheval, beginning October 22nd. For dinner and luncheon reservations, call 886-1930.

Yard sticks ... are practical and pretty at the League Shop, 98 Kercheval. They come in Florentine gold and white with a Florentine metal hook for handy hanging in milady's closet ... seven dollars.

Hamlin's have ... Chocolate Cups a la Mode for serving ice cream and desserts. A box contains six cups with doilies and costs two dollars. Chocolate Cups for serving liqueur come six in a box for a dollar sixty-five.

From Another Pointe of View

Students at the Grosse Pointe University School and their parents may well be up to their elbows in flour tomorrow night, October 18, as they prepare to serve pancakes, sausages and coffee to lucky diners at the school's Annual Pancake Supper. It will be held in the GPUS gymnasium in Cook road from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock.

The Pancake Supper venture was started two years ago to help finance the American Field Service Student Exchange program at the school . . . and this year GPUS has two AFS students in the senior class.

Julia Daysh, who calls New Zealand home, is spending the year with Mr. and Mrs. H. James Gram, of Moran road, while Ritz Demetriou, from the isle of Cyprus, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Bowers in their Touraine road home.

But back to the pancakes . . . Mrs. H. Gordon Wood and Mrs. Donald D. Lennox are co-chairmen of the supper and Mrs. Harvey C. Parke is busy signing up the students and parents to help keep everyone's plate heaped with those golden flapjacks. Ticket chairman Mrs. Edwin N. Peabody will be happy to sell you one ticket or lots of tickets . . . adults $1.50 and children $1. Mrs. Peabody says that tickets can also be purchased at the door.

As a bonus this year for children, movies will be shown in the auditorium between 6 and 8 o'clock . . . could be a bonus for the parents, too.

Ski Mystery

It may be too early for some of us to Think Ski but it's not too early for members of the Theatre Arts Club of Detroit. The Club will open its 58th season on Friday, October 25, with a production of Anne Coulter Martens' "Mystery at The Ski Lodge" . . . or Death on the slopes.

Word comes to us from those in the know that Otsego was never like this production. The cast of 11 includes several "real" skiers who are busy getting their ski togs out of the mothballs and starting to create the spirit of the play by "thinking snow."

We don't know, though, whether the old theater adage of "break a leg," which to actors means good luck with the play, would apply to "Mystery at The Ski Lodge."

Mrs. Donald M. Worley is directing the production and Pointers in the cast include Mrs. Walter A. Bailey, Mrs. Glenn W. Carpenter, Mrs. Harold B. Davis, Mrs. Armand De Daetano, Mrs. Wilfred Harrison, Mrs. Diamond T. Phillips, Mrs. Milan Russell and Mrs. Bernard Whitley.

Miss Danforth Bride Of Dennis O'Keefe

Reception At Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Follows Early Afternoon Rites; Newlyweds To Make Their Home In Vernier Road

Father Thomas Finnegan and The Reverend Gary Gruber, of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, officiated at the Saturday, October 12, ceremony, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, at which Susan Carol Danforth spoke her marriage vows to Dennis Edward O'Keefe.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James C. Danforth, Jr., of Willow Tree place, who entertained at a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club following the 1 o'clock rites.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene T. O'Keefe, of Houston, Tex.

For the early afternoon service, the former Miss Danforth selected a chiffon gown. Her skirt fell in soft pleats from a wide satin band, and her bodice was fashioned of sheer netting re-embroidered with seed pearls and crystals in a floral motif matching the cut-out motif of her elbow length white kid gloves.

Her train was chiffon, and her shoulder length silk illusion veil fell from a Camelot crown of re-embroidered seed pearls and crystals.

She carried a cascade of gardenias and stephanotis, accented with trailing ivy.

Honor matron was Mrs. John S. Blum. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Fenske, of Milwaukee, Wis., Carol Kohne and Judith O'Keefe, the bridegroom's sister. Junior attendant was Wendy Lynn Danforth, sister of the bride.

Their floor length frocks of willow green chiffon were similar in style to that of the bride, and featured trains falling from their shoulders. Their headpieces were wide, Sweetheart bows, and they carried loose, floor length bouquets of fall mums and ivy.

Douglas O'Keefe came from Charlotte, N.C., to serve as his brother's best man. Ushers were Henry H. Hubbard, Paul J. Keeler, William D. Leonard and James C. Danforth, III, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Danforth selected a Malcolm Starr coat and dress ensemble of coral and white brocade, coral accessories and a corsage of gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. O'Keefe, the bridegroom's mother, chose a dress of yellow-gold Alaskine styled with an overlaid lace front panel, matching accessories and a corsage of pale gold cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds, traveling from San Francisco down the California coast, will return to make their home in Vernier road.

road. While here they will also visit Mr. Knickerbocker's family in Chelsea and attend the Olivet College homecoming.

'68 Christmas Mart Opens October 22

Tenth Anniversary Birthday Party Salutes Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman, of Stonehurst in Lakeshore Road, the Mart's "Guardian Angel"

Committee members working on the 1968 Christmas Mart, sponsored by the Planned Parenthood League, invited all members of past Christmas Mart committees to join them at the Country Club last Friday to celebrate the Mart's 10th birthday.

Mrs. Nelson Holland, of Cambridge road, was chairman of the anniversary luncheon which, like all birthday parties ended with a cake.

But the initials on the cake weren't, as might be expected, "P.P." (for Planned Parenthood) or "C.M." (for Christmas Mart).

They were, instead, the initials of Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman, of Stonehurst in Lakeshore road, and we think it's particularly fitting that Mrs. Schlotman should be honored in this fashion: We've always felt a birthday party should focus as much on the mother as on the child.

In a very real sense, Mrs. Schlotman, serving again this year as the Mart's honorary chairman, is "mother" of the Christmas Mart. Or, to put it another way, the way, in fact, that the birthday party planners put it, she's the Mart's "Guardian Angel"—and they told her so, underscoring the telling by presenting her with a carved, gilded angel.

Luncheon tables were centered with miniature Christmas trees, the Mart's new symbol, designed by '68 Mart publicity chairman Mrs. Robert Scherer, Jr., of Lakeshore road.

This year's Mart opens next Tuesday, October 22, at 5 o'clock, in Detroit's Veterans Memorial Building.

It closes at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, opens again Wednesday, October 23, when it runs from 10 in the morning until 8 in the evening, and re-opens for its final day Thursday, October 24. Thursday hours are 10 to 5 o'clock.

Luncheons will be served Wednesday and Thursday, from 12 until 2 o'clock, in the "Top of the Mart" on the eighth floor of the Veterans Memorial. Cocktails will be served at luncheon and after 5 o'clock.

More than 25 out-of-town specialty shops, offering everything from classic shoes for men and women to gourmet foods, plus the local Planned Parenthood League's own booth, "Mistletoe Madness," under the direction of Mrs. Harvey Fruehauf, of Ridge road and Mrs. Henry Earle, of McKinley avenue, will be featured at the Mart.

Featured too will be "The Boutique," billed as "a potpourri of really great finds," containing a collection of displays from shops too small to send a full-fledged booth. Mrs. Arthur Hudson, of Merriweather road, and Mrs. Harry Jewett, of Vernier road, are Boutique chairmen.

And, for the first time, the League will be selling its own Christmas cards. In charge of these cards and the Mart signs is Mrs. James McCready, of St. Clair avenue.

Orders for all items on display will be taken at the Mart. Pre-holiday delivery is guaranteed.

Chairman ex-officio of the '68 Christmas Mart is Mrs. Theodore Buttrick, of University place. General chairman Mrs. Gilbert Hudson, of Beverly road, is being assisted by East Side co-chairman Mrs. Willard Kerr, North End co-chairman Mrs. Maurice Klein and Birmingham co-chairman Mrs. Bruce Craig.

Mrs. Richard Chadwell, of Cloverly road, is serving as secretary. Mrs. William P. Harris, also of Cloverly road, assisted by Mrs. Richard Turner, of Hendrie lane, as treasurer, and Mrs. John Vanderzee, of McKinley avenue, assisted by Mrs. Peter Stalker, II, of Lakeland avenue, as food and bar chairman.

Mrs. William Cunningham, of Cloverly road, chairman of the Arrangements and Display committee, is being assisted by Mrs. Douglas Koby, of Moran road. Mrs. Henry Bodman, of Winthrop place, Mrs. George Nicholson, of Colonial road, in charge of props, and Mrs. David Halter, of Bedford road, assisting Mrs. Nicholson.

Other committee chairmen include Mrs. Glen Fortinberry, of Merriweather road, Mrs. Robert Rigger, of Lincoln road, Mrs. Clayton Purdy, of Deming lane, Mrs. Stephen Smith, of South Oxford road, Mrs. Hudson Holland, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, Mrs. Ross Wilkins, of Muskoka road, and Mrs. John Purvis, of University place.

More are Mrs. Lloyd Semple, of Ford court, Mrs. Charles McCabe, of Deming lane, Mrs. Murray Sales, of Audubon road, and Mrs. William Tost, of Cloverly road.

Mart proceeds will be used to support the Planned Parenthood League's programs in the Tri-County (Wayne, Macomb and Oakland) area.

Metropolitan MS Chapter Formed

The first luncheon meeting of the Board of Directors of the newly-formed Metropolitan Detroit Chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society was held Tuesday, October 8, at the Wayne County Medical Society Building in Antietam street, Detroit.

Carl T. Crabb, executive director of development, and Suzanne V. Lawther, R.N., field consultant, represented the Michigan Chapter.

James G. Gibson, president of the new Chapter, presided at the luncheon. Among the members of the new Board are two Pointers: Michael W. Hoey, of Washington road, and Walter W. Fuller, of Trombley road.

Others include Wilfred B. Doner, Michael Mullett, Jr., Dr. Donald B. Shumaker, Robert Theisen, James F. Finn, C. W. Van Lopik, Earle Rissman, William Popko, Mrs. Jack Foley, Mrs. Emily Hedgeman and Mrs. Mary Kostead.

It was reported that there are nearly 1,500 persons afflicted by Multiple Sclerosis in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties, 500,000 in the United States.

Research has shown that a vast majority of those stricken by the mysterious disease are between the ages of 20 and 40, and that there are more sufferers of MS in the north than in the south. Specialists are endeavoring to find the causes of and cures for the ailment, according to a report made at the luncheon by Crabb.

District Nursing Society Hears Bay Court Report

The 28th successful season of Bay Court Camp was reported to members of the District Nursing Society, operators of this Torch Drive service, at the Society's first fall meeting Wednesday, October 2. Mrs. Roger Van Der Kar, chairman of the Camp committee, and Donald Bassett, Camp director, told Society women gathered at the Kercheval avenue Hospitality Center of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company that 602 campers had attended Bay Court Camp this past summer for two-week sessions.

Many of the mothers and children were aided by "camper-ships" financed through the District Nursing Society's annual Christmas Fund and through the generous cooperation of various civic groups, clubs and individuals.

Mrs. John Zile, president of District Nursing Society, announced with great regret that Mr. Bassett had found it necessary to resign the directorship of the Camp due to his promotion this year to Principal of Mair School.

Mr. Bassett, who spent three summers in leadership positions at Bay Court, became director this year following the retirement of former director Ernest W. Deason.

The monthly sewing meetings of the Society resumed on Wednesday, October 16, when members met at the home of Mrs. Richmond W. Smith, Jr., in Lincoln road.

Each year, District Nursing Society prepares layettes for distribution to needy families by the Visiting Nurse Association and the Frontier Nurses of Kentucky. Members also knit large numbers of sweaters and provide other articles of clothing for mothers and children at the Camp.

Theories that don't allow for friction will get a hard rub.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Gunter J. Kemp, of Anita avenue, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, NANCY JO, to Michael Kent Wilmot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Wilmot, of Elkhart, Ind.

The prospective bridegroom attends Holy Cross College. Nancy Jo is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

The couple plans a January 25 wedding.

Success always comes to those people who know when to expect and when to expect it.

This Thursday, October 17, general meeting will take members and guests on a tour of four Detroit churches to study their art, history and architecture.

Mrs. Guy B. Willett, program chairman, will conduct the tour through the Serbian Orthodox Church, the First Congregational Church, St. Anne's Catholic Church and Mariner's Church. The tour will pause at the Women's City Club for luncheon.

Boarding a chartered bus at the Grosse Pointe City Park at 9:30 o'clock will be Ibox president Mrs. John B. Hastings, vice-president Mrs. Daniel W.

Bowen, Mrs. Donald E. Brown, Mrs. David L. Gamble, Mrs. Thomas J. Burke, Mrs. Richard D. Anslow and others.

The ancient craft of Macrame, the art of knotting, will keep the Ibox Arts and Crafts Group, chaired by Mrs. Milton W. Volken, busy when members Mrs. Lawrence J. Verdier and Mrs. Charles W. Gauss conduct classes in the Verdier home on Cloverly road five Wednesday afternoons beginning October 18.

Using the basic method of tying string, artistic and useful items such as place mats, wall hangings, and even hammocks will be created by Mrs. Walter Wood, Mrs. Charles Wright, III, and new member Mrs. Ronald Gilbert, (her mother is Mrs. J. Vernon Davis, a long time member of Ibox).

The Ibox Music Group swings into song October 29 with Mrs. Frank H. Parcells as chairman. A chorus, under the baton of Mrs. Jack E. Rosch, (she'll be directing her own mother, Mrs. Clark T. Wells), will meet Tuesday evenings at the home of Mrs. Peter Clark in Stephens road.

Among those who will be preparing special music for a very special event February 14 will be Mrs. Thomas Brandt, Mrs. James Allen, Mrs. John B. Renick and Mrs. Mike Mikos.

Ibox literary buffs divide themselves into Book Group One, under the director of Mrs. Arnold M. Combrinck-Graham, and Book Group Two, with Miss Hope Whitten as chairman.

Group One will explore South America through books this year, with Brazil as the October country. Mrs. Joseph M. Mengden, Mrs. Lionel M. Chicoine and Mrs. Donald Blain were among those attending a September 30 meeting at Mrs. Combrinck-Graham's home.

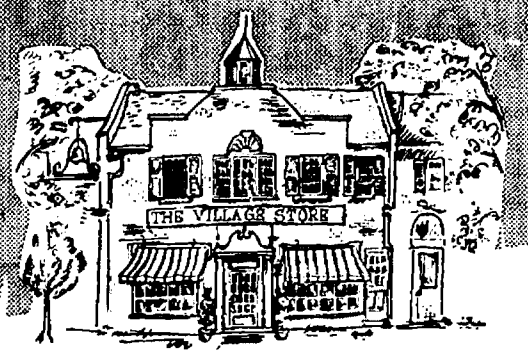

Group Two will gather Tuesday, October 15, at Mrs. David

D. Williams' home to discuss "Capable of Honor" by Allen Drury, under the leadership of Mrs. Francis B. Van Deusen and Mrs. William J. Dennes, (just so nobody gets behind, "The Queen's Confession" by Victoria Holt will be the November book).

Among those polishing their reading glasses for this Group are Mrs. Harold H. Emmons, Mrs. John Denier, Mrs. Kenelm Winslow, Mrs. Douglas Adair, Mrs. Thomas W. Baumgarten, Mrs. Charles R. Beltz, Mrs. Donald R. Flinterman, Mrs. Arthur W. Kleinschmit, Jr., and Mrs. Robert F. Weber.

National Secretaries

The Detroit Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) will hold its monthly dinner meeting on Wednesday, October 23, at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

The Village Store... A SAGA

Once upon a time in merry old Birmingham when parking spaces were plentiful and stores were scarce, THE VILLAGE STORE was born amid great rejoicing. Celebrations and orgies of JOYOUS BUYING ensued. All the young in heart (known as swingers) rejoiced in having their VERY OWN STORE. They rushed to buy all those SPECIAL CLOTHES they had read about in magazines and heard about from the fashion grapevine. They couldn't find them anyplace but at THE VILLAGE STORE. In those merry old days it was bermuda shorts, McMullen blouses and shirtwaist dresses. OH JOY! OH DELIGHT!

Then came upon the land a great blight CONFORMITY. Suddenly every store in Birmingham had paisley prints and button-down shirts. The people were overgrown with ivy league. Oh Woe! What was The Village Store to do for all their FAITHFUL CUSTOMERS who counted on them for help during this plague of conformity. They travelled to far off lands in search of ORIGINALITY. They met a wily ASTROLOGER known as FASHION SENSE. For a tidy sum, he gazed at the stars and told them what everyone would be wearing next and where in the world to find it. That is why the Village Store always has tomorrow's clothes TODAY.

All the customers are again rejoicing because the Village Store is the FASHION SCENE with HARLOW PANTS, those wide swinging, alluring pants. The rage of Paris. Be the rage of Birmingham, the first to wear wide pants to a party, not as a hostess, but as a guest. MIDI COATS, with tall boots and a fur hat, you can do the ANNA KARENINA BIT. Wildly romantic and no more blue knees. FABULOUS FAKES, incredibly "real" jewels you can instantly inherit from The Village Store. Antique chains by the yard. Rings for every finger. CREPE BLOUSES, soft feminine and so pretty in luscious peach, lime, lavender. A must with TWEED DIRNDL skirts. A wardrobe of SCARVES. They have found new places to go. Around the waist like a pirate sash. Around the head like an Indian. Flowing from an epaulette like Napoleon. VESTS, furled or sueded, sweated or lavishly embroidered. Gaze upward. It's in the stars. You're coming to THE VILLAGE STORE. THE DIFFERENT STORE FOR SPECIAL PEOPLE LIKE YOU. OH JOY! OH DELIGHT!

Set Junior Goodwill Antique Market-Sale

Three Floors Of Brush Street Building To Be Devoted To Show; Many Pointers Working On Planning Committee

The 21st Annual Antiques Market and Sale, sponsored by the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries, will open Friday evening, November 8, with an invitational champagne Preview Party, at the Goodwill Industries plant, Brush street at East Grand boulevard, Detroit.

Honorary chairmen of the Preview are Governor and Mrs. George Romney. Co-chairman is Mrs. George M. Brooks.

Proceeds from the Preview and the general admission Show tickets will be used to benefit the handicapped employees of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit.

The show will open to the public Saturday, November 9, through Tuesday, November 12. Hours are 11 to 9 o'clock except on Tuesday, when the show will close at 6 o'clock. Admittance each day is $1.50.

Tickets may be obtained from Junior Goodwill members, by contacting the Goodwill plant or at the door during the Show.

This year, there will be no need to worry about finding a parking space or inclement weather. Parking attendants will take cars at the door and deliver them when Show visitors are ready to leave.

General Show chairmen Mrs. Robert Bennett and Mrs. Robert H. Dodd advise there will be a new look this year.

One of the new features will be that all Junior Goodwill members will be in costume, department with a different style and color.

Mrs. Dodd says that on the first floor 38 antique dealers, many new this year, from all parts of the Midwest, will be featuring in their booths, various antique clocks, pewter, jewelry, silver, pictures and prints, fine china, crystal and pressed glass, plus many pieces of Early American, English and French furniture.

Mrs. Bruce Hines is the secretary for the Show.

Mrs. George L. Domine, Jr., and her co-chairman Mrs. Truman Schneider are involved with all the arrangements in the building.

First floor visitors may enjoy a quick snack and rest at the "Ice Cream Parlor" with its pink and white color scheme. Mrs. George N. Payne advises this is one department where the Junior Juniors, (daughters of members), will be found assisting, dressed in pink and white pinafores.

On the second floor visitors will find the Goodwill Industries Booth. Here treasures received through household discards are refinished during the year by employees especially for the Show. Other items of special interest are jewelry, silver and all kinds of glassware.

Planning For Garden Tour

MRS. FRANK W. DONOVAN, JR. welcomes MRS. RAYMOND J. DUFFY and MRS. GEORGE J. RAPP, (on the right), to her East Jefferson avenue home, one of the eight homes included in the Grosse Pointe Garden Center's House Tour planned for Saturday and Sunday, October 19 and 20, from 1 to 5 o'clock. Mesdames Duffy and Rapp, properties chairman for the Tour, will measure the Donovan house for canvas carpet covers. Tickets may be obtained at the doors of the homes the day of the tours.

Junior women costumed in old-fashioned print dresses and aprons suggest a visit to the Country Store, one of the original of such stores found at antique shows, and buy candy similar to that sold at the turn of the century, or country cheese. This year something new will be on the shelves: A variety of miniature Christmas tree ornaments.

Down the "lane" is the Pantry Shelf, for which many oldtime favorite recipes of jams, jellies, pickles, chili sauces, spiced peaches and other delectable items have been prepared by Junior Goodwill members.

This year there will be a special Goodwill Employee Exhibit. This exhibit will enable the public to actually see employees involved in the work they do daily during the year: Women receiving calls for truck pick-up, men working on shoe repairs, dress and suit re-weaving, jewelry repair, the amazing way an old doll can be made new again . . .

There will be a demonstration of rush weaving and caning of chair seats, work on electrical appliances and many other parts of Goodwill's vast training program.

On the third floor, American Interior Designs will again have 25 vignettes showing "Antiques in Contemporary Settings."

Mrs. Glen W. Carpenter and her co-chairman Mrs. David M. Davidson report that a selection of gourmet lunches and dinners will be available in third floor dining room, served by Junior group members and also by the Junior Juniors.

Mrs. Sidney Marsh, who is in charge of the dinners, says there will be a different speciality each evening.

Mrs. Fred S. Neumann and Mrs. Robert F. Weber are in charge of admissions.

Advance tickets are being handled by Mrs. S. Allen Neff and Mrs. Robert P. Seiber.

Mrs. Robert F. Retenbach is chairman of decorations. Other Grosse committee chairmen include Mrs. Rex L. Brophy, Mrs. John A. Moekle, Mrs. Ralph A. Dewey, Mrs. Franklin Carr, Mrs. Robert H. Kennedy, Mrs. Sheldon L. Drennan, Mrs. A. P. Fuchs, Mrs. Jesse C. Hurley, Mrs. Daniel M. Carne, Mrs. Julian G. McIntosh, Mrs. Milton W. Volkens, Mrs. G. Norman Gilmore, Mrs. Clayton J. Barker and Mrs. Warren F. Kendall.

The Goodwill Juniors are extremely proud of the growth of this, their major fund-raising project. In the 36 years that the Junior Group has been in existence, it has raised over $460,000 for Goodwill Industries.

This money has provided mentally retarded, physically and socially handicapped employees with rehabilitation facilities, equipment, medication, insurance, school tuition and prosthetic devices. Building repairs and improvements have also been made available.

The Junior's greatest reward is to see the return of handicapped individuals to a useful, self-supporting role in community life.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT CHANDLER, of Bishop road, announce the birth of their second child, STEPHANIE LYNN, September 24. Mrs. Chandler is the former ANN CRONENWETH, daughter of the RUSSELL CRONENWETHS, of Sheldon road. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. MILTON CHANDLER, of San Carlos, Cal.

Could be . . . because some folks say our line is all way-out, arty. They don't see the "Spicecrafts" for the Brave New Worlds. Slate Eastern Shrine 35

Ceremonial October 21

Eastern Shrine Number 35 will hold a ceremonial honoring Supreme Appointments at 8 o'clock Monday evening, October 21, following a 6:30 o'clock dinner at Pillar Temple.

Production problems are being handled by Mrs. Frank W. Hausmann, Jr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Jennings, while Mrs. Oliver E. Frey will handle the costuming of the skiers; Mrs. Alan T. Pritzel the makeup details and Mrs. Philip A. O'Connell the set design. Holding the script will be Mrs. Franklin D. Carr.

The curtain goes up at 1:30 o'clock at The Players Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue . . . and you don't have to be a skier to attend.

A Bit of Las Vegas in The Pointes

Some Pointers are going to be treated to a taste of Las Vegas Saturday night, October 19, when they attend the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's "First Millionaire's Party." The tables will open at 9 o'clock and will run—I guess 'til the money runs out! A midnight buffet will be served to guests, who are urged to come in very casual clothes.

Serving on the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Roland Rinke, Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Yuan, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Rinke, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Shreve and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shalla.

Others helping to make the evening a "blast" are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olds, Mr. and Mrs. Joe LaBonte, Mr. and Mrs. Jock Simmer, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Greiner, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Chaplow and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Shelton.

Mr. Shalla will be the auctioneer during the festivities and guests are urged to save their $100,000 bills as a bonus for the auction. Now I wonder what that means?

Follies and Funds

It's hard to believe but . . . The Junior League of Detroit already has plans for us next May 23 and 24. On those two evenings in 1969, it will present "Follies and Funds for Detroit" in the Ford Auditorium. The variety show, which will feature the talents of League members and their husbands, is being produced to raise funds to support the various community projects sponsored and supported by the League.

Activities for the "May happening" were officially kicked off last Sunday afternoon with a cocktail party in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Halter in Three Mile drive for preliminary planning committee members and their husbands. Assisting the Halters with host duties were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fruehauf, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. James F. Brock.

The Halters' home, incidentally, was great for holding a kickoff to-do. It's so recently purchased that they haven't moved in yet . . . so no rugs to worry about spilled drinks on, no chairs to receive cigarette burns. Just a nice place for Mrs. Pierce Smith, general chairman of the Follies, to urge her committee members on to terrific success.

Writers Meet At Oakland U.

The seventh annual Writers' Conference to be held Saturday, October 26, at Oakland University, Rochester, will give aspiring writers an opportunity to meet editors and practicing authors in such diverse fields as poetry, short story, articles, books, drama, juvenile, editing and marketing.

The Conference is co-sponsored by the Detroit Women Writers and Oakland University's Division of Continuing Education. More than 500 persons are expected to attend.

A staff of 63 authors and editors including such well-known names as Harriette Simpson Arnow ("The Dollmaker") and Joyce Carol Oates ("A Garden of Earthly Delights") will conduct round tables.

There will also be panel discussions and demonstration workshops in light verse and lyric verse with conferees invited to submit ahead of time up to 16 lines of verse for analysis.

Grosse Pointe will be represented at the Conference by Josephine Wunsch (Mrs. Ed-

Local Alpha Chi Omegas Awarded National Trophy

The Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae Board for the Detroit Area held its first fall meeting on Monday, September 9, at the home of Mrs. Nelson C. Frolund, of Hawthorne road.

Board president Mrs. Robert G. MacDonald, of Livonia, announced that the Detroit Area Alumnae Chapter had been awarded the National Council Trophy as the outstanding Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae Chapter in the nation at the sorority's national convention held June 20 through 24 in Dallas, Tex. This is the second time in a row that the chapter has been selected from among the 280 alumnae chapters in the United States and Canada for this honor.

The Detroit Area Chapter was a strong contender for the award this year due to several new projects started during the past two years.

One has been the aiding of a visiting teacher, who is on the staff of the Detroit Public School System in the Inner City, with supplies and money for extra projects. This project started under the direction of Miss Helen Loomis, of Cadieux road.

Another has been the Children's Theater Party at the Bonstelle Theater, with all proceeds going to purchase magazines for Children's Hospital. This was under the direction of Mrs. Frolund.

What might be called "the project with the impact" has been the distribution of new and used children's literature, teenage books and magazines, at Children's Hospital and in the Inner City. To date nearly 6,000 books have been distributed, plus a book that he can call his very own into the hands of a young person.

Distribution and collection have been under the direction of Mrs. R. D. Armbruster, of Berkshire road, and Mrs. John C. Krato, of Calumet avenue.

Anyone having books or magazines he would be interested in donating to this project may call Mrs. Krato at 885-3048.

ward S.) who will participate in a panel discussion, "A Demanding Job with a Double Reward—the Juvenile Novel," Vera Henry, moderator. Mrs. Wunsch will also deal with "Writing the Modern Teen Novel" in the last session.

She is the author of three teen novels, "Flying Skis," "Passport to Russia" and "Summer of Decision," as well as a variety of short stories and articles published nationally.

The $10 Conference fee includes registration, tuition, and a served luncheon. Further information may be obtained by calling Oakland University 338-7211, Extension 2175.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

On this the morning of Friday, October the 11th, this writer finds it difficult to face the typewriter and the chores of the day. Our heart and mind are still with those beautiful, glorious, fighting Tigers whose stalwart spirit and brilliant play brought to the Detroit community the 1968 World Series banner. But not only did their victory bring international fame and honor to us but it also brought a feeling of warm togetherness . . . which in these days of rebellion and divisiveness is welcome . . . and even more necessary.

One could not go about Grosse Pointe during the Series without striking up a conversation with a complete stranger on how the Tigers were faring, the odds on taking the game that day or whether or not Bob Gibson was invincible. Errands took longer because one lingered before a store's television or radio set to be sure Lolich would "get the side out." Baseball buffs aided novices by instructing them on the virtues of each Tiger. And to this writer, at least, there was a mood of friendship between all that was revealed through smiles, winks and "How about that's."

When the moment of total victory arrived, The Pointe exploded with honking horns, ringing phones, barking dogs, floating paper, shrieking children and exuberant adults.

We won . . . what more is there to say . . . except Thank You Tigers for making us, once again, one, big happy family.

While we're in a congratulatory mood, we'd like to send some to Edgar A. Hann, of McKinley Avenue. He was recently awarded the Associateship in the Photographic Society of America at the international convention of that organization in Oklahoma City, Okla. A consulting engineer, his photography is done in the Stereo Division of PSA. He has been actively working on all areas of stereo photography on both local and national level . . . judged several international salons and many local competitions . . . taught courses in stereo photography . . . presented three programs for PSA conventions. In addition, Mr. Hann is a member of the Motor City Camera Club, the Photo Guild, the Grosse Pointe Camera Club, the Senior Men's club of Grosse Pointe, the Engineering Society of Detroit, The American Society for Metals and the Electro-Chemical Society. Is it any wonder that the citation he received from PSA reads, "For untiring work on behalf of both beginners and advanced workers, personal efforts and through lectures at all levels of organized photography?"

Dr. Kenneth McFarland will visit The Pointe Wednesday, October 23, when he delivers the second talk in this year's Liggett School Lecture Series. One of the nation's outstanding guest speakers, Dr. McFarland is an educator, industrial advisor, civic leader and author of "Eloquence in Public Speaking." His lecture at Liggett next Wednesday morning will be on "Lawless America."

Pointers and non-Pointers will have an opportunity this weekend to spend a delightful Saturday or Sunday afternoon touring eight outstanding Grosse Pointe homes and their gardens. Sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Garden Center, the tour includes homes of varied architecture . . . such as the Williamsburg type house of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Donovan, Jr., of East Jefferson Avenue, which is furnished in magnificent Italian and French antiques. Strollers can then go to the English Country house of the Adam Richard Stannys, with its well planned landscaping, and then on to the Lakeshore road home of Mr. and Mrs. Gale R. Beardsley, which is a perfect example of a reconstructed French town house, furnished with superb antiques. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boomer, of Cloverly road, will open their wonderful English Tudor home for the tour. Built in the 20's by the late Phelps Newberry, the interior features fine old paneling, antique Sheffield sconces and an unusual pegged floor . . . and then to the warm and hospitable home of Mrs. Henry T. Ewald, of Vendome road, which is French Provincial in feeling, with the interior done in authentic panelling brought from the south of France. Visitors to the Kerby road home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Hughes will be treated to an Early American-designed brick house, nestled in a setting of old trees and gracious planting. The wonderful old home of Raymond C. Smith, of Lakeshore road, is sure to bring "oos" and "ahs" from the tour guests. Built at the turn of the century, the house has a majestic stairway and is hung with handsome oil paintings. Charming is the word for the Georgian home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell C. Goddard, of Provencal road. It is furnished with cherished family possessions and faces the golf course of the Country Club of Detroit. A special feature of the Goddard home is a greenhouse which was included in the planning of the house.

A memo to Mrs. R. H. Snyder, of Balfour road . . . the Maple Lanes Bowlerettes would like to thank you for all the work and time you put in each week in computing scores and team standings. Tell Mr. Snyder it really isn't a thankless job because each member of the group sends you a personal "thank you."

LAWRENCE F. DU MOUCHELLE, OF MCKINLEY AVENUE

By Janet Mueller

"If you can adjust to confusion, you're all set." That's Larry Du Mouchelle, describing the Life of an Auctioneer—and all you 9-to-5 workers, whose chief complaint is boredom, how'd you like to trade your regular (more or less) schedules for Larry's non-routine routine?

"We move from one thing to another." Take, for example, a single September week in Larry's life: Monday, he was in Flint, running a sale for a museum . . . Tuesday it was back to Detroit, to touch base before hopping a plane for New York that evening . . . He spent Wednesday and Thursday in Manhattan . . . and Friday morning he was at Sault Sainte Marie, making an appraisal . . .

"It's a very interesting business and, amazingly enough, fast-moving. Every day, there's something new."

"One day, I'll be out appraising for all sorts of organizations; Insurance companies, Railway Express . . .

"Another day, I'll be conducting a sale—We handle sales in the store and out . . .

Auctioned Hats, Dresses

"I've auctioned hats and dresses for the Fashion Group of Detroit and worked at Cranbrook, auctioning off art works the students have contributed."

"About the only things we (here Larry's using the editorial "we") refer to the family firm, Du Mouchelle Galleries, haven't sold out of a house are the furnace and the kitchen sink."

"We've auctioned panelling: I remember, when my father did the David Whitney House a few years back, we auctioned off the floors, walls . . .

"We've auctioned on farms and on estates, practically everywhere in Michigan and Ohio . . .

Sounds, doesn't it, as if there's nothing "new" for Larry to auction?

Always Something New

Remember, though . . . This is the man who's just observed, "Every day, there's something new."

Of course, there's "new" and "new"—and, occasionally, there's something so "new" that even Larry is a bit amazed to see it come up on the block.

Who would have thought, a year ago, that among the "items" he'd be scheduled to auction November 1 would be round-trip 21-day excursion economy class airplane transportation to London, England?

Or once-a-week hairdressing for one year? Or use of Mrs. Diego Rivera's house in Acapulco for four people for 10 days? Or a course of flying lessons? Or the use of a brand-new luxury car for one month? THIS IS NEW!

Action Auction '68

These "items" plus 100 or so others, ranging from an antique punch ladle to cake, favors, games and all the trimmings for a children's party of 10, will be knocked down to the highest bidder at Action Auction '68, a benefit for the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lakeshore road, to be held Friday evening, November 1, at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Sponsored by the Mothers Club, the Fathers Club and the Alumnae Association of the Lakeshore road Sacred Heart Academy, Action Auction will begin promptly at 7 o'clock, following a 5:30 o'clock cocktail party Preview and Display of the "material" items being offered.

Admission tickets of $25 per couple entitle the bearers to cocktails and hors d'oeuvres and include a $10 Purchase Credit toward any item on which the ticket holders wish to bid.

Mrs. Daniel Jindall, of Audubon road, 881-9780, is in charge of reservations.

Larry Du Mouchelle is auctioneer—and he admits Action Auction will be just about the most "different" sale he's ever conducted.

A Different Sale

"I'm used to auctioning antiques, furniture, paintings . . . he says.

He's not nervous about tackling something so out-of-the-ordinary; rather, he's intrigued.

"I think the prime objective of the whole auction is to make it so interesting—both in the items offered and as an event-in-itself—that people will attend," he observes.

"Everything has been donated. Everyone connected with the Academy was asked to make an Action Gift; just about everyone responded."

"People who have a unique service to offer are donating that. Myra Thibault has pledged to cook a gourmet dinner for six, Toni Robinson will refinish a piece of furniture . . .

Everyone Invited

Clearly, Action Auction has caught its planner's fancy. And its planners are determined it will catch the public's fancy, too: They want EVERYONE to join in the fun, to come, whether they plan to bid and buy or not, to what they promise will be a Great Party . . .

Mary Jo Du Mouchelle, Larry's wife, is a "Convent Girl," though not a Lakeshore road "Convent Girl." She attended the Sacred Heart Academy on "the other side of town." (It has since moved from Lawrence Avenue to Bloomfield Hills.)

The two oldest DuMouchelle girls, Laurene, 11, and Nanette, 8, are both students at the Lakeshore road Academy, and Susanne Du Mouchelle, 5, will follow in their footsteps—as soon as she's "graduated" from Richard School kindergarten.

The two other young Du Mouchelles WON'T be studying at Sacred Heart. Barred by virtue of their sex are Joseph, 6, (he's right next door at St. Paul's, though), and Robert, 3, (he's still hanging around the house).

Nextest member of the Du Mouchelle menage is Gigi, a nine-week-old Labrador Retriever.

How Gigi Arrived

Seems that, one day last summer, a dog down the street had six puppies . . .

"I came home," Larry recalls, "and there were the children, with the dog, and their first words were, 'Mother said it's okay for us to have her . . ."

Gigi is fitting into the family beautifully.

Tinkerbell and Laurabell have been fitting into the family beautifully for some time now. Tinkerbell and Laurabell are parakeets, one purchased, in the usual manner, the other found one day at the Farms beach. The Du Mouchelles tried to locate its original owner . . .

Two-Parakeet Family

"I put an ad in the paper," Larry grins, "and some people came out to the house, but they kept looking at OUR bird. So, after they left—finally—I said, 'That's it! No more ads!'"

And that's how the Du Mouchelles became a Two-Parakeet Family.

How Larry became an auctioneer is a somewhat longer, but equally logical, story.

"My father started (Du Mouchelle Galleries) in the early '20s," he explains, "and I began working down there when I was about 14, as a stock boy, a silver boy . . .

"Later, I thought I might go to Law School. I was studying Accounting at the University of Detroit when my father got sick; I left school to help out with the business."

Larry's never regretted this decision to trade Law for Auctioneering; he finds his life fascinating. He'd like it if one of his sons found it fascinating, too—but he'd be neither disappointed nor upset if both chose careers:

Sons Will Decide

"I want my sons to make their own decisions. My father never said you HAVE to come into the business; he never even really asked me to . . ."

Larry remembers the first time he ever stood up alone to conduct an auction. He didn't think he was nervous—until he heard an assistant voice hiss from the sidelines, "You've forgotten you're smoking! Take that cigarette out of your mouth!"

"The first year I auctioned, you could compare to a rookie baseball player's year," he reminisces. "The rookie generally does pretty well."

"The second year, I had Second Year Jitters."

He's over that now; when he stands up to conduct a sale he's relaxed, in command.

But he admits: "Before every sale, whether we've been working on it for months—and there's a tremendous amount of preparatory work that goes into each sale we do, inventories and appraisals that must be made if the job is to be done right—or days, I get a touch of what you might call a 'keyed-up feeling'."

Some Disadvantages

Certainly, there are disadvantages to an Auctioneer's life. "Sundays are about the only times I have with my family," Larry notes.

"Often, after an evening sale, I'll get home at 1, 2 o'clock in the morning."

"Of course, I was brought up in this business, and the hours have always been crazy. Up until about eight years ago, the Galleries were open seven days a week. They were open for viewing on Sundays: I cut that out!"

Summer Sundays, the Du Mouchelles head for the Farms Waterfront Park. "Summer is the time we really love to be out here," Larry says. "I look forward nine months of the year to those three months of summer."

He tries to make his time with the children "count"—sometimes with unforeseen results:

"My Father Hit Me"

"Last year, when Joe was five, I thought it was about time I taught him to play baseball. So I got him a mitt, got a ball, took him out in the backyard and we started throwing . . . Well, pretty soon Joe missed a catch and the ball got him right in the eye."

"The next day he went to school. The teacher asked, 'What happened?' My father hit me," Joe answered—and that's all he answered! I hope that teacher doesn't still think I beat my children!"

Hardly likely . . . Larry Du Mouchelle just isn't the child beating type.

Come to think of it, he's not what we think of as the Auctioneer Type either—or at least what we USED to think of as the Auctioneer Type. (the brass of Burt Lancaster in "The Rainmaker" combined with the cool of Jackie Gleason playing "Minorsot Fats"), before we sat down for an hour's chat with Larry.

Obviously, our "picture" of an Auctioneer was wrong. So we've changed our picture.

From now on, we'll simply think of an auctioneer as a man who's adjusted to confusion. That's Larry Du Mouchelle.
