NEW YORK CITY school teachers refused to end their 24-day walkout in exchange for a state takeover of the controversial Brooklyn School district whose activities triggered the citywide strike. Both the City Board of Education and the Ocean Hill-Brownsville School District had accepted the plan earlier, raising hopes for an end to the bitter dispute over teacher assignments in the largely Negro and Puerto Rican district. Albert Shanker, president of the striking United Federation of Teachers, branded the plan "a step backward . . . an attempt to meet the Ocean Hill-Brownsville demands instead of the union's." State education commissioner, James E. Allen Jr. offered the plan on Tuesday.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON ANNOUNCED Thursday night that he was ordering a complete halt to all American air, naval and artillery bombardment of North Vietnam as of 8 a.m. Detroit time Friday. The President did not indicate what concessions he may have received from North Vietnam, but he said the Saigon government and the Vietcong organization, the National Liberation Front, would be brought into broadened and "intensive" peace talks Wednesday in Paris.

Saturday, November 2

PRESIDENT NGUYEN VAN THIEU announced Saturday that South Vietnam could attend peace talks in Paris next week because it objects to conditions under which the session was to be held. He said the only condition which could lead to peace were direct talks between Hanoi and Saigon. He added that South Vietnam could never agree to negotiate with the Hanoi-dominated National Liberation Front as a separate entity.

U.S. BOMBARDMENT of North Vietnam ended Friday in a new American bid to end the Vietnam war at a peace conference. Ships and planes which had been blasting the North since August of '54, swung toward South Vietnam, where new action was reported.

CURTIS E. LEMAY, vice-presidential running mate of George C. Wallace, has lost his job as board chairman of Networks Electronics Corp., the firm's president, Mihai D. Patrii, announced Friday. In a statement to the Los Angeles Times, Patrii said: "We are scientists, not politicians. My obligation as president is to the stockholders, not to Lemay or Wallace." He reported that the corporation's stock has dropped from $13 to $8 a share since Lemay decided to run with Wallace.

GALLUP AND HARRIS polls which earlier indicated Nixon a runaway winner, now show Humphrey is coming on strong at the finish. Nixon is out in front according to the pollsters, but barely. Poll results deal with the popular vote, not the electoral vote. The way Nixon's regional support lines up he appears to have the advantage in the electoral vote.

MADAME NGUYEN THI BINH is being sent by the Vietcong to head its delegation to the Vietnam peace talks. Madame Binh is to arrive from Vietnam, via Moscow today with five other members of an advance group of National Liberation Front, the Vietcong's political arm.

PRODUCTION EMPLOYEES WALKED out at the Fleetwood Fisher Body plant in Detroit Monday. This was the second time General Motors Corporation has been hit by a work-stoppage in three weeks. The strike was called by United Auto Workers Local 15. It idled some 5,000 hourly employees at Fleetwood, W. Fort at West End, which supplies all bodies for Cadillacs except the Eldorado.

An Invitation to Next Summer's Swimming

Park residents deprived of the use of their new swimming pool this past summer because of a Trades Union Builders strike, which halted construction just as it got started, will enjoy this facility in the summer of 1969. The picture shows the completed pool, and in the left background, a wading pool for the kiddies, which the youngsters had the full use of before the season ended. A similar wading pool is located in the Park's Three Mile Drive Park. The pools, a new bathhouse, a new 228 boat-space marina, are all part of the city's $570,000 recreation improvement program, the final touches of which should be completed soon.

Four-Concert Schedule Set by Symphony

Francis Brancalone Soloist for Prokofiev Concerto Opening Program on November 17

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra, directed by Felix Resnick, will present four special Sunday afternoon concerts in the auditorium of Parcels Middle School.

The first of these will be held on Sunday, November 17, with Francis Brancalone playing the solo line to the Prokofiev Concerto No. 3 for Piano and Orchestra. The concert will also include the writings of Wagner, Mozart and Chabrier.

Mary Beth Piel, soprano, will be featured on Sunday, January 12.

Ruth Burczyk, official pianist of the Grosse Pointe Orchestra will be the solo artist on March 16.

Young Artists in Concert will be presented on May 4. Soloists will include Ida Kavafian, violinist; Mark Lawrence, trombonist; Barbara MacLennan, pianist; and Michael Ouzounian, pianist.

Curtain time for all performances will be 3:30 o'clock. There will be Artists' Receptions following each of the concerts, at which time those in attendance will have the opportunity to meet soloists and members of the orchestra.

Pointe Churches Seeking Inter-Faith Action Center

A Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Action Center is under consideration by all local churches. The Grosse Pointe Minister's Association has prepared a proposal for church councils and boards to coordinate all activities in the area of improved human relations, according to information released by the Rev. Paul A. Winchester, president of the Association and associate pastor of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, Mack avenue and Torrey road.

In a prepared statement, Rev. Winchester disclosed that the Minister's Association points out that "One of the main concerns of our country and community, at this time, is the polarization of the races." The magnitude of the prob-

Woods Police Recover Two Stolen Cars Same Night; 12-Year-Old Boy Arrested

One Driver Escapes After Leading Officers on 100-mph Chase; Abandons Vehicle After Crashing Into Two Others

Woods police dispatched to an accident scene in the parking lot at the rear of the Woods Theater on Thursday, October 31, found that one of the vehicles involved was a stolen car.

A second Woods police car, in checking the area, pursued another vehicle, believed not connected with the parking lot incident, at speeds up to 100 miles an hour. After the speeding driver hit two other cars, he leaped out and escaped. This car, too, was found to have been stolen.

Dispatched to the parking lot to investigate and make a report of the accident there, were Patrolmen Donald Sabel and Leroy Tobian. The second car crew was comprised of Patrolmen Robert Setchell and William Lentz.

Sabel and Tobian said that when they arrived, they found both cars involved unoccupied. Four witnesses, two men and two women, told them that a 1967 Chevrolet, with four Negro youths in it, had backed out of a parking space and hit a 1963 Plymouth, causing the Plymouth to roll forward about eight feet.

Four Jump from Car
The witnesses said that the four teenagers jumped out of the Chevy, and ran toward the direction of St. John Hospital. The two male witnesses gave chase on foot. Realizing that the youths had too much of a start, the men ran back to their automobile and drove to the hospital area. They said they saw the boys run across Moross road into Chandler Park drive, in Detroit, and lost them, as the teens ran between houses.

The owner of the Plymouth, Robert G. Lisuk, 20, of 10335 Beaconsfield, Detroit, said he had parked his car in the lot at about 11:20 p.m. and went to Blazo's Restaurant, near the theater, to eat.

Sabel and Tobian radioed their station for information regarding the ownership of the Chevrolet, and received a return report that the vehicle, owned by Fred C. Collins of 1201 Selden, Detroit, had been reported stolen to Detroit police.

The Woods officers said they found no key in the ignition, and after a further check, discovered that the ignition wires had been jumped.

Spot Nervous Driver
In the meantime, Setchell and Lentz, who had been directed to the hospital area by the witnesses, drove to the hospital, and at Chandler Park drive, noticed an automobile with a lone man behind the wheel. They pulled up alongside, which appeared to make the motorist, a Negro, very nervous.

To Open Play At Center On Friday Night

Grosse Pointe Theater Presenting "Witness For the Prosecution" Seven Times

Opening at Fries Auditorium this Friday evening, November 8, is the Grosse Pointe Theatre production, "Witness for the Prosecution," a classic mystery-court room drama by Agatha Christie.

The GPT production is scheduled to run Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 8, 9, 10, and Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, November 13, 14, 15, and 16.

All performances of the season opener are sold out except Wednesday, November 13. Tickets for that performance may be obtained by calling TU 1-4004.

Directing the production of "Witness for the Prosecution" is John Diebel of Loraine Road. His wife Ann is producer. Technical direction and set design are by Roger Shepard of Renaud road and stage manager is Gigi Gaggini of Detroit.

Needle Imbedded In Gift Candy

Mrs. Lois Sibley, of 1444 Ridgeway, called Woods police on Saturday, November 2, to disclose that her son, David, while biting into a candy bar given to him on Halloween, discovered a one and three-quarter-inch needle imbedded lengthwise in the confection.

Young David thought nothing of the wrapper not being sealed, opened it, bit into the bar and needle, pulled the bar out of his mouth and saw the sharp end of the needle protruding.

Mrs. Sibley said that her son had been "begging" on Van Antwerp and Brys drive, between Mack and Canton, but does not know who the "kind" person was who gave him the candy.

Children in St. Clair Shores complained to their parents that several apples they had been given had razor blades imbedded in them. Fortunately, the blades were discovered before anyone was injured. The matter was reported to the authorities.

Roosevelt-Willkie Election Featured In First GOP News

Showed Late Edsel Ford Casting Vote in Grosse Pointe Shores' High School; Students were Mostly Republican Then as Now

Some 28 years, or 1,456 Thursdays, or seven presidential elections ago, the NEWS published its first issue. On that November 7, 1940 our headlines told of the record crowd at local polls. About 12,500 cast their votes either for Wendell Willkie or Franklin D. Roosevelt. This year some 40,000 Pointe residents were eligible to vote.

One City of Grosse Pointe resident sued the city in 1940 to show cause as to why Roosevelt place should not be designated Theodore Roosevelt place, so there wouldn't be any misunderstanding . . . 14 other residents weren't sure after just what Roosevelt their tiny, busy street was named.

One of the more sensible neighbors said that the majority of residents knew perfectly well that their street was named for Theodore more than 30 years before.

The front page picture was of Edsel Ford, one of the early birds at the polls, (Shores), on that rainy Tuesday. Students at Grosse Pointe High School went overwhelmingly for Willkie, casting 801 votes for him and some 427 for Roosevelt.

On this our anniversary day which closely parallels that Thursday, November 7, 1940, we can only say Pointers were just as vocal in their feelings, just as eager to cast their ballots, as they were 28 years ago!

Schools Ready For TV Battle

Grosse Pointe University School meets Detroit Country Day of Birmingham on WWJ-TV's "High School Bowl," Saturday, November 9, 1:30 p.m.

The weekly program matches two teams of scholars from Detroit area schools in a spirited contest of mental agility. Jim Wood, host of Channel 4's popular "Box 4," serves as moderator.

Patterned after NBC's "College Bowl," WWJ-TV's "High School Bowl" presents "Toss-Up" questions on current events taken from The Detroit News. These are worth 10 points. The team giving the correct answer then gets a chance at a "Bonus" question, taken from World Book Encyclopedia. These count 20 to 35 points each.

Speed, as well as knowledge, is important. The first team to sound a special buzzer may answer the question. Each team consists of four panelists and one alternate selected by the school.

THOUGHTFUL BOY!

Thomas Bradley, 830 E. St. Clair, made a lot of hospitalized children at Bon Secour Hospital, happy on Halloween night. Thomas, after trick or treating, took his entire bag of goodies to the city police station and requested that officers take it to children who were ill and could not trick or treat that night. Police Chief Andrew C. Teetart praised the 10-year-old for his thoughtfulness and complied with Thomas' request immediately.

Truck and Expensive Tools Stolen at Service Station

The break-in of Mastro's Service Station, 18480 Mack avenue, was discovered by two Farms police officers shortly after midnight on Saturday, November 2. A number of expensive tools, and a customer's panel truck were stolen, the station owner reported.

Sgt. Eugene Boylan and Patrolman Francois Belanger said they were passing the gasoline station, when they observed the overhead door of the place ajar approximately an inch. The officers said they stopped to check this out, and discovered the place had been entered through the rear window.

The owner of the establishment, Albert Mastroanni, was called at his home, 447 Moross road. After checking he told the policemen that a Ford panel truck, belonging to Gerald Denomme of 460 McKinley road, owner of a cleaning store, was missing. The truck was later recovered by Detroit police, abandoned in an alley at the rear of 2455 Algonquin, Detroit, undamaged.

Mastroanni, after taking inventory, disclosed that the thief, or thieves, had taken numerous socket and ratchet wrenches, open-end and box wrenches, two car batteries, an electric combination wrench, and a Burroughs adding machine. He was unable to give a total value of the items at the time.

When stolen, Denomme said, his truck had six sleeping bags and a 3-foot by 4-foot throw rug in it. The police did not disclose if these items had been recovered with the vehicle.

John T. Short Resigns from School Board

Vice-President Accepts New Position With His Firm in New York; Regrets Expressed

Members of the Grosse Pointe Education Association ratified the salary package tentatively agreed upon by bargainers for their organization and the Board of Education on Monday afternoon.

The teachers cast secret ballots in each building after classes on Monday. Will Brown, President of the GPEA, revealed that of the 515 members eligible to vote, 484 balloted.

He said that the tally showed 390 approved the contract, while 94 voted not to accept it.

At a 10-minute special meeting held prior to Monday evening's educational presentation, the trustees of the Board of Education voted unanimously to approve the salary contract for the 1968-69 year.

Work Without Conflict
Teachers in the local public schools have worked since September 3 without a contract. The provisions agreed upon by both parties provide a beginning teacher with a BA degree a minimum salary of $7,100 and a maximum of $11,285 in 11 steps. A beginner with an MA now receives $7,800 and may reach $12,850 in steps.

Prior to adjournment of the short meeting John T. Short, vice-president of the Board of Education, and a trustee for the past three years, announced his resignation.

He indicated he will accept a new position at his company's headquarters in New York. "It has been a privilege to serve this community," he said.

Expresses Regret
Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, President, expressed the Board's regret on hearing the announcement. She indicated that the trustees would act upon the resignation at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education, slated for 7:30 p.m. next Monday at Monteith School.

Following the adjournment of the special meeting, members of the staff made a presentation, "Elementary Education in Grosse Pointe," the second in a series.

Four elementary principals made brief presentations. Speakers were Frank J. Welcenbach, Trombly; Jack McMahon, Barnes; William Meltsdagh, Barnes; and John Hamel, Monteith.

During the discussion period which followed, they and the other six elementary principals answered questions from the audience.

Speedy Burglars Rob Two Places

It took less than a minute for a burglar to smash the glass of the front door of the Whittier Cleaners, 15010 Charlevoix avenue, grab a cash register, and escape before Park police arrived.

According to information released by police, an alarm came from the cleaners to the police station on Saturday, November 2, at 3:05 a.m., and within seconds all units were alerted and dispatched to the scene.

Sgt. Gordon Duncan, who was closest to the store, arrived at 3:06 a.m., but the thief, or thieves, had grabbed a heavy cash register from a counter near the front door, and was gone. Other officers arrived and searched the area, but without success. The culprits disappeared with the register and an undetermined amount of cash that was in it.

A similar break-in was reported by Detroit authorities only a few minutes earlier, at Stella's Beauty Shop, 15643 Mack avenue, where the front glass was also kicked in, and a cash register grabbed from the counter. Here, too, the thieves made a successful escape.

FREES BIRD

A Cranford lane resident called City police to report a bird in her fireplace. Upon arrival Sgt. Foster Mauck caught and released the bird, a sparrow.

Action Center

 sell Peebles, Rev. Franklin Bennett, Miss Doreene Ritz, and Mrs. William Gard.
 The Inter-Faith Action Center will become a reality, it was said, when a majority of the official church boards, 1. Approve the concept of such a center and, 2. Approve financial support. Laymen of the churches are playing a key role in this endeavor.
 Rev. Winchester said that support is being sought from the churches for an Inter-Faith Action Center in the Pointe, for these reasons:
 1. To study and disclose those elements in the institutions and organizations of society which tend to support or contribute to separatism;
 2. To contribute to better understanding between the races by encouraging and creating opportunities for dialogue between black and white;
 3. To support and provide information for the existing secular and non-secular organizations now active in the community;
 4. To communicate and cooperate with other Inter-Faith Action Centers in the Metropolitan area; and full force of moral snasion of racism as it exists in Grosse Pointe and to bring to bear the full force of moral suasion of member religious faiths to eliminate any vestiges of white racism, and to use the personal and material resources of religious organizations to further that objective.

Ben Warren

 when he will be gone for a period of three months. Leaving his post will give the council an opportunity to appoint someone to serve out the remainder of his term, which will expire in April 1969. He will not seek a return to the council, he added.
 Warren's resignation was accepted by Mayor William Butler, who said that it was being accepted with the deepest regret on behalf of the members of the council and the people of the community. The mayor commended Warren for his devotion to duty and for his service to the Farms.
 Life-Long Resident
 Warren, who is married, resides at 45 Lakecrest. He is a life-long resident of the Pointe, and has been a practicing attorney for more than 25 years. He is a veteran of World War II.
 He was first elected to the Farms council on April 1, 1963, receiving the second highest number of votes, which entitled him to a four-year term, as set forth in the Farms City Charter, which provides that the first three elected candidates, by virtue of polling the longest number of votes serves for four years. The fourth candidates reviewing the least number of votes, serves only for two years.
 On April 3, 1967, Warren was re-elected to the council, but came in fourth. His two-year tenure expires in April 1969.
 Mayor Butler said that he hoped Warren would serve out his term, but knowing that the councilman's health was not good, he and the members of the council will respect Warren's decision.

Recover Two Stolen Cars

 whether damage to the cars were serious.
 Setchell and Lentz arrived at the scene, where Chandler Park drive turns and becomes East Outer drive, and Manistique, where they were informed by an unidentified citizen, that a lone colored male was seen running south between houses, west of Outer drive. Another citizen called out that two males were seen leaving the hit-and-run car. The culprits made a successful escape.
 Picked Up Youngsters
 Kraiza and Wooten arrived at the Outer drive-Manistique accident scene, with a 12-year-old colored boy, who, they said, they took into custody at Warren and Harvard in Detroit. The youngster was taken to the Woods station by Setchell and Lentz.
 At the station, the boy confessed that he and three other boys, two of them 14-year-old twins, and a 15-year-old, had stolen Collin's vehicle at about 8 p.m., but was not sure of the location. The older teen was the driver.
 The captured juvenile gave police the names of his companions, and in turn, the names were given to Detroit authorities. The juvenile was released to Detroit police for his part in the car theft.
 Setchell and Lentz checked and found that the car that they had chased was owned by Ellwood Wachter of 1844 Severn, and had been stolen from a parking lot at Kerby and Mack, where it had been parked by Wachter's son, John C.

North High Plans Football Festival

Grosse Pointe North's first all-school football festival will be held on Saturday, November 9. First on the agenda will be a three mile parade starting at North High at 12:30 o'clock and ending at South High's football field, where North's Norsemen will take on the Dearborn Heights Annapolis Cougars.
 During the half-time activities the festival queen will be crowned. Climaxing the day's events will be a semi-formal dance from 9-12 with the Ellie Pop and Fruit of the Loom Bands. The theme for the dance will be "The Look of Love." The dance will be held in North's main gymnasium.
 The only men who get ahead are those who go ahead alone.

Would You Believe A Computer Mona Lisa?

South High's New Course Fascinating

Computer Math, Pilot Program, Offers Students, Reporter, Glamour and Excitement

By Pepper Whitelaw

Computer Math, a new Pilot Program at Grosse Pointe South High School, is being taught as it should be... with all the glamour, fascination and excitement that a program of this sort can engender.

We sat in on H. E. Richardson's class last week intending to visit for a few minutes, we ended up staying the entire period completely fascinated by the teacher and the course!

Let's begin with the teacher. Mr. Richardson is what every school teacher should be, dedicated, enthusiastic, intelligent, and completely absorbed in his students, his subject, and the world they both represent.

The facility with which he explained his subject to the students and the manner in which they understood his explanations was nothing short of fantastic.

Two Masters Degrees Mr. Richardson, who was graduated from Wayne State University, has an ME from Wayne State University, and an MA in mathematics from the University of Detroit. He is currently working on a third in Computer Science. He attends Wayne State on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. He spent part of last summer at Penn State University on a National Science Foundation Grant.

The 15 students in Mr. Richardson's class all have had two years of algebra and are among the top math students. Although South has no computer equipment as yet, they are utilizing a special program designed by Control Data Corporation which offers them a course in programming technology, known as School Computer-Use Plan. The program centers around two kits of 1,000 pre-punched computer cards each containing the combinations of variables necessary for solving mathematical problems posed in two course textbooks.

Students Write Programs Students write their programs and select appropriate cards from either of the kits. The cards are then mailed to the Control Data Institute in Southfield for processing on a Control Data 3000 Series Computer. Processed results are placed in the return mail to South High within 24 hours for both students and teachers to analyze and determine if the program was properly written.

In the first phase of the plan, "Orientation Course," the students deal with interger Fortran arithmetic concepts. Here the student learns the basic concepts and skills associated with computer programming and is gradually introduced to actual programming. With the basic concepts of Fortran explained and the cards kit readily available, the students are able to write a program in the first class meeting.

The Second phase of SCUP, the "Competency Course," covers non-integer Fortran concepts. This course contains non-integer and more advanced topics and applications. Again, the format of this course places the student in an immediate program writing situation.

Would Involve All Hopefully one day Grosse Pointe South will have some of its own computer equipment so students will be able to have "hands-on time" at the machine and immediate results, but more important, a computer at the school would allow involvement by the entire student body.

Today the computer program is a must in the educational picture. Currently Waterford Township, Livonia, Macomb County, Cass Tech, Butzel Junior High, East Detroit schools, Bishop Gallagher, and many Detroit schools have computer

U. of M. Poison Control Center Head Speaks Here

One million people in the United States annually are the victims of poisoning.

The poisons are usually self-induced—and most poisons are found at the bedside table, under the kitchen sink and in the bathroom cabinet.

These simple but perhaps shocking disclosures were made Wednesday, October 30, at the annual Cottage Hospital Clinic Day in a talk given by George H. Lowrey, M.D., of the University of Michigan Medical Center.

Dr. Lowrey is the head of the U-M Poison Control Center, established nearly ten years ago.

"In those ten years," Dr. Lowrey told the Cottage Hospital physicians and other medical men and women from the Detroit area, "there has been no real reduction in the number of poisonings that occur."

"I hope that is not an indication that people just don't care," the poison expert said of the tragic situation.

Recent statistics show that more than 1,400 deaths from poisoning occur annually in this country. Of the million non-fatal poisonings, approximately 80 percent occur in children under six, with the largest number in the age group from one to three years.

The many ways people can poison themselves beggars description. Medicines (especially aspirin) and cleaning agents are the greatest causes of poisoning. Countless other substances follow: mother's face cream, dad's shoe polish, pesticides, kerosene and daffodil bulbs are just a sample of the hazards.

There are more than 700 species of plants that can cause death and illness, and each year some 12,000 children in the United States eat potentially poisonous plants.

Primarily, however, most poisonings occur right inside the home with mother present. It is in the kitchen that 38 percent of the poisonings are found; in the bedroom, 22 percent; in the bathroom, 16 percent.

The shameful fact is that most substances are adequately marked as being poisonous—but people don't take time to read the warning. Or adequate precautions are not taken to keep them away from inquiring youngsters.

"As in the case of infectious diseases, the prevention of poisoning rather than its treatment is the preferred method of control," Dr. Lowrey says.

In conclusion, Dr. Lowrey offered simple precautions for parents to follow. Keep all drugs, known poisons and other chemicals out of reach of children, or, better yet, under lock and key.

Take a periodic inventory and discard old medicines and other chemicals in such a manner that they cannot be reached by children or pets.

Read all labels carefully and follow directions. Do not store potentially poisonous substances in food or beverage containers.

When using cleaning fluids, be sure there is adequate ventilation and they are put away in a safe storage area.

When using pesticides, be careful not to contaminate food. ("If it can kill a bug it can kill a kid," Dr. Lowrey emphasized.)

Instruct children not to eat any type of plant or other vegetation without first showing it to mom or dad.

If there is any possibility that a child may have been exposed to a poisonous substance, keep the container and its label and call your doctor immediately.

Firemen in City Win Promotions

Andrew C. Teetaert, Director of Public Safety for the City of Grosse Pointe, announced the following promotions based on examinations, for the Fire Department:

Robert J. Marshall, 43, has been promoted to Captain. Bob and his wife Jane live at 810 St. Clair with their two daughters, Pamela 19, and Janis 15. He joined the department in May of 1956. He was promoted to pipeman in May of '57 and to Sergeant in July, 1967.

Timothy A. Champagne, 34, has been promoted to Lieutenant. Tim and his wife Phyllis live at 20615 Gaulker with their four children, Michael 12, Suzi 10, Jackie 8, and Lynn 6. He joined the department in December of 1957 and was promoted to pipeman in December, 1958 and to Sergeant in July of 1967.

William E. Taylor, 34, has been promoted to Sergeant. Bill joined the department in May of 1958. He was promoted to pipeman in May of '59. He and his wife live at 9404 Outer Drive with their two sons, David 2½ and Jeffrey 1½.

All promotions became effective Saturday, November 2.

REPORTS VANDALISM

Farms police recorded a complaint received from Mrs. Dominic Venditelli of 431 Madison on Friday, November 1, in which she reported that an unknown person tossed a pumpkin through the front window of her house, smashing the glass. This occurred between 10:15 p.m. and 11:30 p.m., when no one was home, she said.

equipment at their own facilities.

Mr. Richardson stressed that his course is not geared to programming per se but is geared to teach students how to think in a sequential order, how to appreciate the computer and how to give specific instructions to the "black box" without fearing it.

Not Exactly New

He also pointed out that computers were first used for scientific research as far back as 1948 but that it wasn't until 1960 that they became widely used in business. Businesses found that data could be processed more rapidly and efficiently through the use of computers. He added that the computer in no way replaces a human being.

Computer Math is another step in contemporary education in the Grosse Pointe School System.

CHILDREN BEHAVE

City Police Chief Andrew C. Teetaert reported a generally quiet Devil's Night and Halloween. He told the NEWS that the pranksters limited their activities to egg throwing and tissue paper decorating. He said there were no serious incidents in the City, and he was pleased with the manner in which the children handled themselves.

A coffee break is worth the most of one who makes good use of his work breaks.

School Board Meets November 11

The regular monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education has been scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Monday, November 11, in the gymnasium of Monteith School, 1275 Cook road.

Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, president, will conduct the meeting and Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, will present his monthly report for the trustees' consideration.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

When people think for themselves they're bound to disagree.

Is your home going to turn into a desert this winter?

A lot of homes will.

In wintertime, people in houses with flame-type heating wake up mornings with that stuffed-up feeling. With hoarse, dry throats. Furniture dries out and starts creaking.

Sound familiar? You bet it does. The best way to stop it is with electric heat.

You see, electric heat isn't a dry or drying heat. So you usually don't need a humidifier. The moisture from bathing and cooking is all you need for natural comfort.

An Edison-Approved Electric Heating Contractor will be glad to tell you all about comfortable electric heat. He'll figure your operating cost, and explain the guarantee. And now, your contractor's offering a $100 trade-in on your old heating system.

Call him for a no-obligation electric heat survey. Look in the Yellow Pages under "Electric Heating—Equipment and Systems."

He'll show you how to turn your desert into an oasis.

People-Shy 'Girlie' Has Park on Dog Hunt Again

By Pepper Whitelaw

Grosse Pointe's "Littlest Hobo" is at it again. You may recall that back in July the NEWS ran a story on "Girlie" the "mostly German Shepherd" dog who was deserted on Windmill Pointe drive and left to fend for herself.

Girlie, then about two years old, began running Park police and Park residents a merry chase during the previous fall. Many kind-hearted people tried to help her but her fear of people kept "Girlie" from getting the love and care that so many wanted to give her.

She wandered through the Park during the entire winter, stopping for food that concerned residents had left out for her . . . but never approaching when people were in evidence.

Find Her Puppies

Then in March, "Girlie" was once again sighted and she was pregnant. Mrs. Robert Kennel of Middlesex road found several puppies under the bushes in her yard in April. Three of the smallest ones were left under the bushes where Girlie could come back to feed them. (Ultimately all the puppies were given good homes). Sgt. Gordon Duncan of the Park police found homes for the two larger puppies.

The search for "Girlie" continued. A whole caravan of people, teenagers, housewives, members of the Anti-Cruelty Association and the Park police continued the search. Nets, tranquilizers and just plain chasing couldn't capture "Girlie."

In May, Mrs. Kennel transferred the puppies to her garage, and being a good mother "Girlie" followed them in. The Anti-Cruelty Association was immediately notified and with some clever maneuvering they captured the wandering dog and immediately took her to a veterinarian to be checked. Then Mrs. Dorothy Dyce, president of the Anti-Cruelty Association, and her husband, bought "Girlie" a collar and took her to her new owner Mrs. Kennel.

Back to Wandering

Unfortunately "Girlie," still wary of people, slipped her collar after only one day in her new home and began the life of a wanderer again.

Soon Park police and the Anti Cruelty Association were receiving calls about "Girlie" . . . she was spotted all over the Park. Once again she would eat the food lovingly left out for her . . . but never when anyone was around.

Last week she was sighted once again and once again is pregnant . . . hardly able to navigate. Now Park residents are worrying about the soon-to-be-born puppies. Although "Girlie" is a good mother she doesn't have a warm place for her puppies, so the Anti-Cruelty Association, and Park police, urge anyone sighting a very pregnant "mostly German Shepherd" to call the Anti-Cruelty Association at TW 1-7188 immediately or Mrs. Dorothy Dyce at 534-7959, and someone will come out and get her.

Thief Gets Cash In Tailor Shop

A witness observed a male figure toss a hard object through the front door glass of the Woodcraft Tailors, 20792 Mack avenue, at about 5:16 a.m., on Friday, November 1, and called Woods police. The man entered the place and left with something in his hand.

The witness told investigating officers that he saw the man break the door glass, then run to a car parked on the south side of Hawthorne, to wait the passing of approaching traffic.

The man then ran back to the tailor shop, entered and emerged with what appeared to be loose clothing in his hand.

Police called the shop owner, David Weisman of 13730 West Ten Mile road, Oak Park, who arrived to look over the situation.

After looking over his stock, Weisman said that all he could find missing was $10 in quarters and $10 in assorted smaller change, taken from the cash register.

Dial direct and let the savings roll in.

If you'd like to save some money, you'll be interested in Direct Distance Dialing. It's a more economical way to call Long Distance because direct dialed calls are all Station-to-Station instead of Person-to-Person.

It's easy, too. Just dial "1", then the Area Code, if it's different from your own, and the number you want. For an idea of how much you can save, here's an example. A 3-minute Person-to-Person call between Detroit and Chicago costs $1.30 at the day rate. Dial direct and the cost is only 85¢.

So whenever you're reasonably sure the party you're calling will be there, dial direct and let the savings roll in!

put NBD to work on your TAX-DEDUCTIBLE RETIREMENT PLAN

This year, for the first time, you can get a dollar-for-dollar income tax deduction for money put aside in a special fund to use when you retire.

A professional man, business proprietor or any other self-employed individual can put aside as much as $2,500 annually, but not more than 10% of his earned income.

Tax deferment helps the retirement fund grow: Investment income and any realized gains are reinvested tax free. And while withdrawals after you retire are taxable, retirement generally brings significantly lower tax brackets.

MR. INDOOR COMFORT

Are You A Thermostat Jockey?

by
ROBERT A. "Doc" WILLIAMS
(MR. INDOOR COMFORT)

With Pop and Junior talking about a World Series, and Mom worrying about all the back-to-school clothes for the kids, we feel it's about time to talk about fall and winter heating.

Now we wonder if baseball and clothes are as important as the one household element your family doesn't really know much about. As a matter of fact, it's almost a complete stranger in your home. It's your heating system.

This household element is a very important one for your family's comfort. . . . almost everyone knows that. Yet no one seems to know much about their heating system.

Some "thermostat jockey" reading this will say, "Well, why should I know anything about my furnace; it's been working all right for 6 or 7 years now."

This may be true, but what about this year? Chances are that the furnace, which incidentally is only half of a heating system, may be completely out of balance as far as the proper distribution of its heat. That furnace is connected to a system of ductwork, registers, return air intakes, and controls which govern the operation of the system.

Darwin Theory Lecture Slated

"Darwin and DNA are an incomplete story," insists Sir Alister Hardy, professor emeritus of Oxford, England. Sir Alister will explain his criticism of the Darwinian evolution theory and his important theological conclusions at a lecture, "Revolution and Evolution," on Wednesday, November 20, at 8 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church on Maumee. Admission is $2.

Contending that conscious behavior plays an important part in evolutionary selection, Sir Alister further sees a "transcendental factor," a power linked with the physical system but belonging to a different order of nature.

After years of research in zoology and oceanography, Sir Alister has recently founded, and is director of, the Religious Experience Research Unit at Manchester College, England. Here he is using scientific methods to research religious experiences. He hopes that, "Religion could become animated by a more vital and dynamic faith than one which rests mainly upon acceptance of dogmas from the past. What might mankind not do," he continues, "if he uses the tools of modern science with the faith and inspiration of the cathedral builders?"

Sir Alister is a professor of zoology at Oxford and was Gifford Lecturer at Aberdeen from 1963 to 1965. Years of research in oceanography resulted in "The Open Sea," two volumes dealing with plankton, fish and fisheries. His lectures have been published in two volumes, "The Divine Flame" and "The Living Stream." He is an Honorary Fellow of Merton and Exeter Colleges, Oxford and is touring the United States for two months under the sponsorship of the Unitarian-Universalist Association.

Virginian Makes Historic Speech on Liquor Problem

By Walter W. Fuller
You've probably never heard of Tom Frost, (no relation to Jack). Neither did I until then. And I haven't since!

However, the other afternoon I was sitting in my cluttered but well-equipped den, pondering on the mournful state of just about everything anyone can think of, when, for some unknown reason the name of Tom Frost flew into the top of my noggin.

The aforementioned "until then" was the day I met Tom Frost at the Statler, and heard him speak at a luncheon where I was perched, as usual, at the Press Table. Tom ran an auto agency in a small town called Warrenton, in Ol' Virginia. He was, at that time, a glib, personable, heavy-set guy, with a great sense of humor, and a true gift of gab. He also was a member of the Legislature in the Old Dominion State.

The main thing I recall about Tom Frost is the story he told about the time the solons down there were wrestling with the techy problem of legalizing whiskey by the glass, where it was sold only in quart and pint bottles at a liquor store.

A Great Oration
Tom claimed that one of the oldest men in the state Legislature down there in Richmond, who was known to imbibe quite freely on occasions, and who had strong opinions on the question at hand, rose unsteadily to his feet, wavered a bit and then launched one of the greatest orations Tom said he had ever heard. In fact, Tom recited the speech during his own address, and mailed me a copy of it a week or so later. To me it is a gem.

Among all the hodge-podge and omnium-gatherum in my hide-away cubicle, I did something my attentive wife didn't believe was possible—for me, that is. I opened a drawer to a file, and immediately located a copy of that famed oration. And here it is, lock, stock, and word for word:

"Mr. Speaker . . . We are here today to talk about the very important problem of selling whiskey by the glass in the great and glorious Old Dominion State.

"Now, I surely had not intended to discuss this highly controversial issue at this time. However, it is my desire that my colleagues here know that I never run from any controversy at any time. So, my brothers, this is how I stand on the issue now—contending us. Many of my constituents have asked me how I stand on whiskey. Thus I will clearly and publicly state my position, without malice aforethought.

Devil's Brew
"If, when you say whiskey, you mean the Devil's Brew, the Poison Scourge, the Bloody Monster, which defiles innocence, dethrones reason, creates misery and poverty, yea literally takes the bread out of the mouths of babes.

"If you mean the evil drink that topples the Christian man and woman from pinnacles of righteousness, and gracious living into the bottomless pit of despair, and degradation, shame and helplessness, and hopelessness, then certainly I am against it with ALL MY POWER!

"But, if, when you say whiskey you mean the oil of conversation, the philosophic wine and ale that is consumed when good fellows get together, that puts a song in their hearts, and laughter on their lips, and the warm glow of contentment in their eyes.

"If you mean Christmas cheer, if you mean that stimulating drink that puts the spring in an old man's step on a frosty morning. If you mean the drink that enables a man to magnify his joy and happiness, and to forget, if only for a moment, life's great tragedies, and heartbreaks, and sorrows. If you mean that potion from which our government tried to deprive us, and made us all law-breakers.

Provides Many Dollars
"If you mean that drink, the sale of which now pours into our state and national treasuries untold millions of dollars, which help to provide tender care for causes nasal changes similar to hay fever. Another member of the team, Dr. Quinton Cal-lies, has been studying antibodies to ragweed which appear in saliva and nasal secretions. These may be important although they appear not to correlate closely with the antibodies in the skin and bloodstream.

It's just one more mystery of the elusive, annoying disorder. And until the scientists find the answers, the best medicine is the autumn's first frost. Our little crippled children, our blind, our deaf, our dumb, and our pitifully aged and infirm, to build great highways, marvelous hospitals, beautiful schools, spacious parks, then, my brothers, I am all for it.

"This is my stand, gentlemen, I will not retract from it, I will not compromise. This is very definitely my stand. But, you'll pardon me, if I say I am afraid we still will drink from the bottle here in this grand and glorious state of Virginia."

As he ended this great oration, Frost said, the legislator removed a huge red bandana from his pocket, wiped the perspiration from his forehead—and the tears from his eyes. Then he loudly blew his nose . . . and sat down amidst raucous applause, looked coyly around—and grinned at his effusive brethren. As Tom Frost said, it really WAS quite an oration!

SCRAMBLER

A new idea in action fun!

A new concept in mobility. Six wheels of go-anywhere, do-anything excitement. A "SCRAMBLER" is for anywhere that roads aren't. It makes its own. Through sand, swamp, snow or what-have-you. "SCRAMBLER" is amphibious. It'll ford a stream. Cross a pond. Get you to a duck blind. You can Scramble up 45° grades. If there's snow on the ground, "SCRAMBLER'S" a snowmobile. If there's a swamp to romp through, it's a swamp buggy. If there's ground around, it's a go-kart. But mostly a "SCRAMBLER" is just plain fun. For sportsmen, hunters and families. Reading about a "SCRAMBLER", even seeing one in action doesn't communicate the thrill of Scrambling. You have to try it yourself.

KLM flies you over. You're taken to your hotel. Put up for 13 nights. Fed breakfast every morning. Given a set of "Living Language"® records, with a manual and dictionary. And sent off to learn the language of the country.

The price? $357 for French. $377 for German. $387 for Italian. And $397 for Spanish.

In France and Italy you even get student cards. Good for free or reduced admissions to museums and theaters. And special student restaurants in Paris.

How much can you learn in two weeks? You'll be getting at least 40 hours of professional instruction in the language you choose. But every waiter, street sign and passerby is an instructor, too. You're learning something every minute.

*Based on the leading language school's rates.

You can enroll for any two-week session from now until the end of March.

The "tuition" is per person, based on double occupancy rooms and 15-person, 14/21-day GIT economy fare from New York. If you'd like to go single, there's a small extra charge.

If you'd like all the particulars, fill out the coupon. Or see one of our admissions officers (otherwise known as your travel agent). Or call KLM at WO 5-1650.

Pointers Named Church Leaders

Two local church leaders have been elected to positions in the recently organized Synod of Michigan of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. The Rev. John Olert, Jr., pastor of Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, was chosen to serve on the Division of Planning. Howard Hush, 2063 Allard avenue, was made a member of the Department of Personnel Development. He is an elder in the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian Church, Detroit.

Farms Boaters Hold Masquerade

The Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club held its annual Masked Costume Party Saturday night at the Farms Pier. Led by Commodore Skip Gmeiner, spooks and hippies danced together in the decorated Boat House following cocktails and dinner.

Past Commodore Anthony Delsener and a panel of judges awarded prizes to the mysterious guests and members for best costumes. A couple from Outer Space won 10; two Pumpkin Heads stalked off with $7; and a pair of gorgeous Grecians won $5. Chiquita the Banana and partner won perfume and a cuff link set, and an angel and devil drifted off together with a cigarette lighter and cocktail shaker. Door prizes were also awarded. All arrangements were made by Entertainment Chairman Jerry Malooley.

By the end of the evening the revellers were ready to unmask and begin planning for the interesting and exciting year ahead. A newsletter will go out to each member asking for active participation in one of the Club's many activities which culminate in the popular Regatta festivities held at the Pier each summer for the enjoyment of the community.

WIPERS SWIPED

Mary Ann Odde, 2013 Hollywood, called City police on Thursday, October 31, to report that her antenna and windshield wipers were broken off of her '67 Cougar while it was parked in front of 459 Neff.

To Have Exhibit Of Photography

Through the auspices of the Fine Arts Committee the Central Branch of the Grosse Pointe Public Library will be the first organization in the State of Michigan to exhibit "Group 17," the newest addition of touring attractions provided by the Michigan State Council for the Arts.

Photography as a creative medium is illustrated in this show of approximately 60 photographs in both color and black and white. Illustrations range from abstract and experimental to stark realism. "Group 17" of Detroit has a membership of professional photographers, artists and designers. Its purpose is to stimulate interest in photography as a fine art and show how skilled, sensitive craftsmen communicate feeling and abstract observations to the viewer. The uniqueness of the exhibit lies in the variety of work and skill employed to produce this viewer impact.

The Fine Arts Committee hopes that all Grosse Pointers will avail themselves of this opportunity to see this exciting exhibit and feels that anyone interested in photography can learn a great deal just by seeing these magnificent pictures.

The Arts Council which put together this exhibit is a state agency established by the 1966 Michigan Legislature on the recommendation of Governor Romney. It sponsors a wide variety of cultural programs and services available to community groups and organizations throughout the state. The Grosse Pointe Public Library has obtained through them in the past such outstanding exhibits as Thirty Contemporary Drawings, Founders' Prize Winning Paintings and Architecture in Michigan.

She was the wife of the late Federal District Judge J. Waties Waring, and is survived by a son, David N. Mills; a daughter Mrs. Ann M. Hyde and eight grandchildren.

Juvenile Book Author To Talk

The Grosse Pointe Public Library will present Martha Bennett Stiles, author of three juvenile books, on Wednesday, November 13 in the Central Library, at 3:45 p.m.

Her most recent title is DARKNESS OVER THE LAND. This chronicle gives young readers between 12 and 16 the idea of how it felt to grow up in the time of terror and grimness during Hitler's rise, and experience the disillusioning years that followed. One of the many favorable reviews states, "Intricacies of plot added to the drama of time and place make an absorbing, powerful book." Readers of the book agree heartily. It is being translated into the French language. Her earlier titles, ONE AMONG THE INDIANS, suitable for ages 10-14, and THE STRANGE HOUSE AT NEW-BURYPORT, for ages 8-12, have American historical backgrounds, and are available in German. All three were published by The Dial Press.

Mrs. Stiles lived in Germany for a year, and is an Ann Arbor resident at present. With charm she speaks of the craft of the writer, based on her own interesting experiences. She welcomes the idea of teen-age readers in her audience, as well as adults.

As a prelude to National Children's Book Week, November 17-23, new books will be displayed for examination, and lists will be available. During the following week, Book Week, new books will be in each of the three public libraries, so that children and adults may choose titles for future reading, or purchase.

The regularly scheduled Story Hours for children of school age will be conducted that week in the Central Library on Tuesday, November 19 at 4 p.m., the Park Branch at 3:45 p.m., and at the Woods Branch on Wednesday, November 20, at 4 p.m. Pre-school Story Hours, for children between the ages of 3½ and 5, will be in session, also.

MINI-BIKES IMPOUNDED
City police impounded two mini-bikes on Thursday, October 31. Two 14-year-old youths were riding the bikes on the sidewalk on the south side of Maumee at Lincoln. The boys were released and told their bikes would be released only to their parents.

South High Hlods Mock Election

In the mock election at Grosse Pointe South High School held on Wednesday, October 30, only students were permitted to vote. The polls were open before school, during all lunch periods, the sixth hour and after school until 4 p.m. The paper ballots included all of the partisan candidates for President-Vice President, Congressman-14th District, and State Representative-1st District. In addition they included State Proposals 1 and 2.

The Presidential results showed Nixon-Agnew the winners with 831 votes. The other candidates' results were as follows: Humphrey-Muskie 361, Wallace-Lemay 128, Cleaver-Hockman

(New Politics) 53, Halstead-Boutelle (Socialist Workers) 4, and Blumen-Taylor (Socialist Labor) 3.

In the Congressional race for 14th District, the Democratic incumbent, Lucien Nedzi, barely edged out his Republican challenger, Peter O'Rourke, by only 2 votes (680 to 678).

Robert Waldron, Speaker of Michigan's House of Representatives, had no trouble defeating his Democratic challenger, Walter Collins, by the largest margin in this election, 1126 to 225.

State Proposal #1 to permit a graduated income tax was soundly defeated 861 to 478.

As expected, the students, anxious to extend daylight hours in the evening, strongly supported State Proposal #2 to observe daylight savings time by a vote of 1004 to 364.

The ninth graders, in their first year at the high school, surprised everyone by demonstrating a much higher voter turnout percentage than any other grade at the school.

The man behind the gun must take careful aim if he expects to hit the mark.

Citizens for Education To Establish Committee

Ten persons were elected to new three-year terms on the Executive Committee of Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education at the annual meeting October 29 in Parcels auditorium.

Serving until October 1971 will be Mrs. George Gillis, Alfred R. Glancy Jr., Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Malcolm Lovell, Robert Martin, Mrs. James P. Mayhark, Allan Neel, Mrs. John Nelson, Mrs. Robert Snyder and John Study.

Current Board members who will serve until October 1970 are Kenneth F. Bergman, Gene Cioe, John F. Dodge, Jr., Dr. Max L. Gardner, Edward C. Huppert, Hugh Harness, Mrs. Barbara Hoffman, Charles Kalvelage, Dr. Frank H. Parcells and John W. Wood.

Those serving until October 1969 are Mrs. William Bokram, Norman A. Bolz, Mrs. E. Dawson Fisher, R. F. Kolowich, James Mast, Mrs. Lewis B. Morrow, Floyd Nixon, Richard Smart and Mrs. William Wau-gaman.

Hugh Harness, president, announced that Citizens for Education will establish two study committees on the Grosse Pointe schools, one on school curriculum and one on financial support of the schools.

"We anticipate that both committees will establish challenging sub-committees on topics of interest to everyone," Harness said. "For example, sex education, adult education, and special services such as counseling or remedial reading are possible sub-committees for the Curriculum Committee. Legislation and long-range capital improvements are possible sub-committees for the Financial Support Committee."

Education Week Celebration Set

The Kercheval in the Park Business Association members have invited local schools to display students' work or assist the schools in any meaningful venture during American Education Week, November 10-16.

Mrs. Sybil Jaeger, Home-making teacher at South High School, reports that student dresses will be displayed at the following shops: Ready-to-Wear, 15106 Kercheval; Mr. Julian Fashions, 15113 Kercheval and Florence Riley Fashions, 15133 Kercheval.

Eugene Wolonick, Industrial Arts teacher at South High School, states that student projects will be on display at the Country House Furniture, 14922 Kercheval.

Muller's Market, 15215 Kercheval, will display students' mosaics and food posters contributed by Defer Art Teacher, Mrs. Maria Parks and Defer Third Grade Teacher, Mrs. Brenda Harris.

J. M. Richards Laboratories has extended an invitation to all students and parents informing them that a test for Coordination and Balance is available free. Interested parents should phone 823-5885 for an appointment for children.

House "C" of Pierce Middle School preempted American Education Week by conducting a Flea Market sale this past Saturday, November 2, in the empty show room at 15100 Kercheval, courtesy of Richard Buick. Proceeds from the sale are earmarked for a school yet to be built in Africa.

Parents and students are cordially invited to visit Kercheval in the Park during American Education Week, Avant-Garde.

The annual membership fee is five dollars, and includes husband and wife. Persons interested in joining or in renewing memberships may send checks to Citizens for Education, P. O. Box 6872, Grosse Pointe Farms, and are invited to specify interest in particular study areas.

Participating in a discussion to "Tell It Like It Is" to the citizens group following the business meeting were Priscilla Cooper, junior, and Robert MacDonald, social studies teacher at North High School; and Karen Ellis, senior, and Howard Laurence, chairman of the social studies department at South High School.

Pierce Students Contest Winners

Pierce Middle School students claimed all the honors in the Kercheval-in-the-Park Business Association's Motif Design Contest depicting the slogan, "Kercheval-in-the-Park; Gateway-to-the-Pointes."

Students from Grosse Pointe South High, Pierce Middle School, Defer Elementary and St. Ambrose Grade and High School were invited to participate.

First prize winner was Walter Levick. Second prize went to Pam Schnur, and third prize to Signi Larson. Emily Webbers and Barbara Shea received honorable mention.

In addition to commending the Pierce Middle School Winners contest judges commended Pierce art teachers, Mrs. Emily Scott and Charles Jorgensen for their excellent leadership in directing their students' fine efforts.

Posters of all participating students including the award winners, will be displayed in Kercheval-in-the-Park Business Association stores during American Education Week, November 10 through November 16.

Cinema League Meets Tonight

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present a varied program in Alger House of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on Thursday, November 7, at 8 o'clock. The program will be open to the public and free of charge.

Jerry Oullette, of the Studio Camera Shop, will present a program of instruction on editing movies. Warren Lapham will show a film on decorating The Detroit Yacht Club for their annual gala holiday, Venetian Days.

Sixteen millimeter movies of the Scenic Hiawatha Land—the Upper Peninsula of Michigan will be shown by George Leggett. The movies include Burnt Bluff, Indian Paints, Pinery Indian Burial Ground, the abandoned Ghost Town of Pequaming, and the Grand Canyon of Michigan, which is the deepest canyon this side of the Mississippi River.

TIP TO MORTORISTS
 One way to keep an auto from breaking the speed limit is to let common sense control the horsepower under the hood.

Symposium Set At Bon Secours

Dwight L. Wilbur, M.D., President of the American Medical Association will be the speaker at the Annual Fall Symposium at Bon Secours Hospital, Monday, November 11 at 10:30 a.m.

Dr. Wilbur is an internist and gastroenterologist of international reputation, practices in San Francisco, Calif. and is Clinical Professor of Medicine at Stanford University School of Medicine. Like his father before him he is interested in civic affairs and has served on many national committees and in many scientific endeavors. He was formerly in charge of a division of the Mayo Clinic.

Dr. Wilbur's father, Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, was Secretary of the Interior in the Administration of President Herbert Hoover. His son, Dr. Dwight L. Wilbur, III is also an internist and gastroenterologist and practices in California.

Dr. Wilbur is especially well qualified by his long experience in teaching and practice to forecast the needs for physicians and nurses and health personnel in the future. He will review and detail plans for making new methods of medical care available to the rapidly increasing population of the United States.

Invitations to Dr. Wilbur's talk have been sent to Grosse Pointe doctors, civic leaders and educators. The meeting will be held in the Science Hall of Bon Secours Hospital.

Norsemen Gridders Score 7 to 0 Win Over Fraser

By John Edwards, '71

It was another hair-raising contest as the Grosse Pointe North Norsemen gridders squeaked by the Fraser Ramblers on November 2 by a slim margin of 7 to 0 in the closing moments of the game.

The first quarter set the tone of the contest with little offense and lots of defense. At the close of the quarter, Steve Schleicher '71 recovered a Fraser fumble on the Rambler 44-yard line. The offense moved the ball down to the Rambler 24 on a pass from Lenny Constantine '71 to Jim Shelton '70, and a nine-yard run by Bruce Joder '70, to end the quarter.

Fumble Is Costly
Another pass by Constantine to Shelton putting the ball on the Fraser 16, opened the second quarter. On the next play Grosse Pointe fumbled and Fraser recovered on their own 14.

The Norsemen received the ball shortly on their own 43. Several plays later, a dash by Mickey Reese '70 of 23 yards put the ball on the Rambler 30. They couldn't, however, get across the goal line and gave up the ball to Fraser.

Near the end of the quarter, Fraser started to move dangerously close to scoring. It started with Greg Buss of Fraser intercepting a Norsemen pass and running back to the Grosse Pointe 43. Then a screen pass to the Rambler's Gary Palmeri took the ball to the Norsemen 24. Glen Hilger '70 batted down a pass that would have been a touchdown. On the next play, he intercepted a pass which ended the Rambler's threat.

Pointe Fumbles Again
In the middle of the third period Grosse Pointe fumbled deep in their own territory and Fraser recovered on the Norsemen 21. A holding penalty on Fraser helped Grosse Pointe and the defense held.

In the fourth quarter Fraser obtained the ball on their own 12 and got up to the Rambler 30. A screen pass went for 35 yards but it was called back because of a clipping penalty. This and the Norsemen defense shut the door and Fraser gave up the ball.

Then Grosse Pointe, after receiving the ball on their 33, went to Fraser's 46 before Buss intercepted a Grosse Pointe pass to halt that drive. Schleicher took the same measures to regain the ball when Joe Higgins of Fraser practically put the ball in Steve's hands, which gave the Norsemen possession on the Rambler 33.

Penalty Helps Pointe
A 15-yard penalty on Fraser put the ball on the Rambler's 18. Hilger tossed a short pass to Reese that put the ball on Fraser's 10.

On fourth down a fake field goal attempt turned into glory as Constantine tossed 10 yards to Al Fiorello '70 for the touchdown. Wally Foraker '70 kicked the extra point and it gave the Norsemen a 7 to 0 lead with 40 seconds left. The Grosse Pointe defense held Fraser and the Norsemen took home their second win.

On November 9, the Norsemen play Dearborn Heights Annapolis as part of the Fall

Lions Conquer Packers Twice

By DuWayne Peterson and Rick Moore

The two Grosse Pointe Little League football teams tangled in their traditional game last Sunday and the Lions got the best of the Packers by winning the Varsity and Freshman games and losing the JV match.

The opening game was a titanic defensive struggle between two evenly matched Freshman teams. The first half was scoreless with neither team sustaining a drive.

Bob Conlan put on a brilliant display of defensive work at the beginning of the second half with two slashing tackles and a blocked punt.

Guy Aubrey then intercepted a pass for the Packers. Jim Quinn and Charles Ladd drove the Packers back with good tackles and the Lions took over on the Packers' 47. John Linne ran 40 yards to the seven, but a strong Packer defense led by David Ludwiczak, Tony Smith, Jim Simon and Keith Williams held.

The Packers fought their way to their 31-yard line only to have Mike O'Sullivan intercept for the Lions. The Lions put pressure on again, led by Brian Myers' 15-yard run. Guy Aubrey stopped a touchdown by knocking down a pass in the end zone.

The Lions would not be denied as they pushed the Packers into their end zone for a safety on a powerful rush led by Tony Montague. The final score, Lions 2, Packers 0.

The Packers' Junior Varsity team showed they were ready to play as they marched to the Lions' 18 on their first series, led by Fritz Lehman and Whit Boyd. Rick Frame's great defensive play kept the Packers from scoring.

After a scoreless first quarter the Packers connected on a 46-yard pass play to Jim Neville. Pat Crandall and Jerry Drolshagen then sparked a defensive stand on the six-yard line.

The Packers' pressure became too much for the Lions late in the second quarter when Whit Boyd broke loose for a 14-yard touchdown run. Boyd ran for the extra point to make the score 7-0 at the half.

The Lions' offense came to life in the third quarter as they controlled the ball for all but two plays. Jeff Gardner had a 30-yard run called back for a penalty and he connected on a nine-yard pass to Dave Maxwell. Rick Borlund demonstrated his throwing ability by clicking on a 16 yard gain to Maxwell.

Ray Spitzley, Mark Hosea and Rick Hawley pulled the Packer defense together to end the Lions' threat. The fourth quarter was all Packers as they marched 80 yards with Boyd going the last two. The march was sparked by Boyd and Lehman. Rick Hawley blasted over for the extra point and the final score was Packers 14, Lions 0.

Mike Monaghan and Bill MacConnachie led the defense to stop the Packers on their 41. On the first play Steve Morrison found Mark Neumann all alone for a 59-yard touchdown pass. Before the Packers knew what happened it was 12-0 Lions.

When Dad unpacks his lunch these summer days, will he end up with hot tired sandwiches when you packed cold appetizing ones? We hope not. Be sure his sandwiches are just as appealing and appetizing as they were when you prepared them. Thermos, the same company that originated the Thermos vacuum bottle so hot and cold beverages could be carried from home, has introduced an insulated lunch kit for Dad which will keep his meal away from home kitchen fresh for hours. Attractively styled in black and white polypropylene, the kit divides into two sections. The roomy lower half, which is completely insulated, holds sandwiches and other foods. The top section stores a pint Thermos vacuum bottle. The new kit, complete with vacuum bottle, retails for about $7.49. Incidentally, Dad had better keep an eye on this kit. Teen-agers will find it just the thing for beach picnics.

Lions Hope to Improve Passing Game

Football Prospective

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor

IMPROVEMENT in the passing game was the No. 1 objective of head coach Joe Schmidt of the Detroit Lions this year and the acquisition of Bill Munson, Ram quarterback, was the prime move.

The Lions gave up three vets, quarterback Milt Plum, flanker Pat Studstill and running back Tommy Watkins, but figure Munson and Karl Sweetan, starting his third season, will improve the passing game which ranked 13th in the NFL last year.

The Lions' running game, which put the Lions third last year, could be better with Mel Farr and recovered Nick Eddy ready to go. A rookie hopeful is flanker Earl McCullough, from USC.

Rookie Lem Barney last year added strength to the defense and a new running back on offense is Dave Kopay, from San Francisco.

The backbone of Detroit's defense last year is intact. John Baker, 270-pound defensive end, was acquired from the Steelers. Either he or Joe Robb, from St. Louis, are hoping to step in for retired Daris McCord at defensive end.

The Lions were 5-7-2 last year and rookie back Mel Farr scintillated with 860 yards on the ground and 317 as a receiver.

Add 25th Hour to Your Day

Time once again for making resolutions for the new year. Why not head your list with a resolve to add a wonderful 25th hour to every day? But how? You can do it by having a mini-lunch of Slender from Carnation. This delicious balanced diet meal in a glass can be downed in just minutes, freeing your whole lunch hour for more stimulating pursuits. This resolution might change your life, for it can result in a trimmer, more attractive, more interesting you!

Slender diet food is a powdered product that's available in five yummy flavors. It's packaged in handy one-serving envelopes that you can carry anywhere. Just empty the powder into a glass, stir in 8 ounces of fresh whole milk and you have a 225-calorie meal. Use skim milk to lower the calories to only 144. This mini-meal is completely satisfying, nutritionally balanced and, best of all, it tastes great...not at all like a diet meal. Use it several times a day to aid in taking off excess weight if weeks of rich holiday foods took their toll, or once a day to help maintain your correct weight.

And just think of all the exciting things you can do with that new-found hour! Join an exercise class, play a game of handball, balance your checkbook, have a physical, look for a new apartment, get fitted for false eyelashes, have a massage, have your ears pierced, buy a wig, pick up a marriage license or just build a better mousetrap. You'll have a whole new outlook on life and a slimmer figure to boot.

Present Movies Deplored

The board of directors of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council has recently approved the following release, written by Floramae Kliber, vice-president of the Council. The NEWS complies with the request of the board to print the release in the form of a guest editorial.

So you don't go to the movies much anymore? Most of the current crop has too much violence, or sex is to blame? Well, come out from under the rug parents... for our teens and young adults are going! Have you noticed how many new teachers have opened in our own metropolitan area? It is alleged that approximately 80 per cent of the tickets sold in theaters are sold to those between the ages of 18 and 25. The mass media, movies, television, magazines and newspapers have saturated our culture with THE IMAGE!

All media come to grips with these images which influence our society. The industry argues that they merely reflect society, but this is pure naïveté. Have you noticed, for example, how fashions are influenced. There's the "Bonnie & Clyde Look" and the "Gone With The Wind Influence." There is much controversy as to whether or not some of the recent crimes have resulted, because the accused had seen similar crimes portrayed on the screen.

Though we live in an "anything goes" society, where freedom seems to be synonymous with absolutely no limitations, every society needs guidelines, a point beyond which one must not venture to be part of that society. Justice Harlan stated that constant exposure to obscenities will gradually erode, until they become acceptable. Various psychologists are aware that some youngsters, upon reaching adulthood, have problems in relating properly to the opposite sex, because they have been exposed to so much information before they are mature enough to know what to do with it.

Now we are given the flash... Jack Valenti announces that the Motion Picture Producers Association has adopted a voluntary classification system, whereby films will be rated in four categories: G—for general audiences; M—for mature audiences; R—for those over 16 unless accompanied by an adult; X—for films to which those under 16 will be barred.

This would seem to indicate that the movie industry itself, has felt the pressure of a good segment of the society. Senator Margaret Chase Smith recently introduced a bill calling for appraisal of the industries' products, to determine whether or not compulsory classification should be legislated. Mr. Valenti has reaffirmed the movie industry's opposition to governmental censorship or classification.

We commend the MPAA for being sensitive to grass-root reaction and indignation to the general trend of movies today, and for their concern for the ultimate effect on children. However, did you notice that the proposed classification lowers the age to 16? Currently, the label "Suggested for Mature Audiences" implies that the movie is for those over 18. Since most theaters do not enforce this restriction (anyone under 18 is usually admitted without question), it has been of little value. Now we are being cajoled into exposing 16-year-olds to emotional dynamite.

The Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and TV Council is opposed to his lowering of age, even though they encourage the voluntary censorship on behalf of the producers and exhibitors. Young adults are like sponges, absorbing and attempting to establish a philosophy of life. Many films portrayed give false impression of what normal behavior is.

Our local theater, the Punch & Judy, has exhibited concern for our community's standards. The owners recently withdrew a movie on homo-sexuality, when they learned that many of the residents objected. We should patronize those theaters which respect the standards of the communities in which they do business. We should support good movies when they appear. Theaters are a profit-making venture and those types that make money will be repeated.

Our best weapon against objectionable films is absence at the box office. We must develop moral and artistic criteria, judging the intent and artists' attitude. Any human attitude dealt with properly and respectfully is acceptable. We must develop discernment. We should seek information and appraisal of a film, before buying that ticket. Certainly, parents, by example, must help our young adults to do likewise.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Grosse Pointe Motion Picture & TV Council

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Would you please print the following letter in your Public Letter Box.

I did not sign my name because of the possible repercussions my children might encounter, (they are in school), and my status as a teacher in Grosse Pointe.

I would like the City of Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe Farms explain why their policemen did not stop the youngsters who were playing games with their cars out along Fisher Road during the South High homecoming football game on Saturday afternoon, October 19, 1968.

It was deplorable to see this incident ignored by the police. There were hundreds of students lined up along Fisher Road watching the cars spinning their wheels on the purposefully oiled street. The kids thought it was fun because the police did not try to stop it. I wonder what the reaction would have been if one of these youngsters lost control of their car during the high acceleration and crashed into the crowd of students. Then what?

The very same thing happened last year. I had my children at the game and my wife came to pick them up after the half time festivities and she was almost hit by one of these dragsters. This year they were afraid to go along, so I went alone.

Last year it took the police more than 45 minutes to stop the drag racing. This year they ignored it completely and the drivers had a field day. I wonder what it will be like next year.

There were more kids watching the cars spinning and burning their tires than there were watching South High beat Wyandotte.

It's a shame that a person cannot take his family out on a Saturday afternoon and enjoy a football game.

I wonder why the police ignored this deplorable situation. If the police have a grievance they shouldn't take it out on the kids by letting them race and possibly injure themselves.

A Concerned Teacher and Resident of Grosse Pointe

To the Editor:

It was my privilege to have been invited to speak on a panel concerning movies on the "Ivory Tower" show which will be shown on Channel 56 on Thursday night, November 7.

It was my understanding before the informal discussion, that the topic would be the new classification system which has just been announced by The Motion Picture Producers of America.

It is to the interest of this community that everyone hear what actually transpired on that program after it began to be taped, because the deviation and the real reason why the former president of The Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and TV Council was invited to appear becomes apparent.

The same people who are loudly demanding for freedom of expression are trying to stamp out the voices of dissent coming up in shock at the low level of the new so called "Art" movies.

There is one right which is even more sacred in America than the freedom of speech and action, and is the right of dissent when you feel that privilege has been violated.

Yours sincerely,
Aida J. Heglin
Mrs. Edward K. Heglin
Immediate past-president
Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and T.V. Council

To the people of Grosse Pointe:
Are we a narrow-minded community? Today I watched a G.P. policeman stop and send packing two young Negro boys. Their offense? Selling door to door.

I can understand why people would not want salesmen hanging on their doors, but would we rather have young men like these back on the streets of Detroit learning how to fight with fists and knives? These two young men were clean and friendly. They were only working to pay for books and clothes.

I believe that a thorough examination should be made of our laws concerning solicitation, and let's give these young men and young men like them a chance.

Sincerely,
Thomas J. Wallace

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Guest Columnist: Harriet Helms
National Children's Book Week,
November 17-23

Since I am a children's librarian in a public library, this week's column will be devoted to children and their books.

In a country where material "things" and creature comforts are in abundance, it is sad to observe that many children are culturally deprived because of their lack of acquaintance with the great wealth of pleasure and knowledge found between the pages of books. In an effort to implant a life-long love of books and reading, children's librarians in the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries hold two weekly sections of pre-school story hours for children between the ages of 3½ and 5 years.

When we meet a great number of these youngsters returning for books and friendly conversations as they grow up, we know our efforts have been successful. Those of school age are led into the realms of imagination, and introduced to the world's richest literature in the weekly, after-school story hours. Expressions of delightful wonderment, and chuckles from listeners are our reward for the hours spent in preparation.

Every week is Book Week in the children's rooms of the three Grosse Pointe Public Libraries; however once each year during National Children's Book Week, we call attention to our collections and special programs. This year's theme is "Go Places With Books." What vehicle can better provide transportation to the world of the past, the present or the future? Real and legendary heroes and heroines become known to today's children who are seeking ideas and ideals with which to fashion their own lives.

CONSTANCE: A STORY OF EARLY PLYMOUTH, by Patricia Clapp (Lothrop) is an example. This is an excellent picture of colonial life and its hardships, as a girl records her life between her fourteenth year and the time of her marriage in 1626.

Without imagination there would be no creativity. What better means for nurturing imagination than the fairy tales, and those of fantasy? A treasure house of discovery awaits both the child and the storyteller in FAIRY TALES OF LUDWIG BECHSTEIN (Abelard-Schuman).

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Membership in the Grosse Pointe Garden Center includes many "dividends," such as the annual Raymond H. Berry Memorial Lecture which brings a noted speaker to The Pointe each fall.

Several years ago, Mrs. Berry established an endowment fund that provides for these autumn lectures as a memorial tribute to her late husband. This year's speaker is Harold C. Cook; he'll appear next Wednesday morning, November 13, at 10:30 o'clock in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium.

"Decorating for the Holidays—Advent Through Twelfth Night" is Mr. Cook's topic. He's promised to demonstrate fresh ideas for adorning doorways, halls, walls, small tables and dining tables, and to include some especially eye-catching arrangements guaranteed to charm children.

All of Mr. Cook's decorations, he emphasizes, are designed to reflect the true spirit of Christmas and to emphasize its religious importance to members of the Christian faith.

Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson, a Garden Center vice-president, is chairman of the Lecture. She is being assisted by committee members Mrs. Donald A. Williams and Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson, who will introduce Mr. Cook.

Greeting members will be hostesses Mrs. John Mulford, Garden Center president, Mrs. John Crawford Frost and Mrs. Harold R. Smith.

And of course Miss Marie Louise Anderson, dedicated chairman of membership since the Garden Center was founded, will be there, with a pocketbookful of membership blanks: You never know when someone's guest might decide she'd like to join the Center!

A total of 1,000 invitations to the Lecture have been sent out, and arrangements have been made for 250 Center members to stay on for a subscription luncheon in the Fries Crystal Ballroom. But for this, reservations must be in before November 8.

White Christmas Ball

Once again, the White Christmas Ball, sponsored by St. John Hospital's Fonthonne Auxiliary, will be a "heart to heart affair," with proceeds from the party, planned "from the hearts" of committee members, to be delivered to the hospital for its new Coronary Care Unit.

Fete DBC Presidents At November 2 Ball

Incoming and Outgoing Chief Executives Are Honored at Formal Party; The Arthur O. A. Schmidts Head Ball Committee

The traditional formal Detroit Boat Club's "Presidential Ball" was held Saturday, November 2, honoring retiring President Dr. Ralph M. Burke and Mrs. Burke and also incoming President David R. Crandall and Mrs. Crandall.

Commodores and Presidents of all Detroit River Yachting Association Clubs, with their ladies, were also honor guests.

Myriads of tiny Italian lights cascading from the ceilings with colored spotlights dramatizing the distinctive architecture of the Club Rooms, and large bouquets of white, pink and deep red flowers highlighted the decor. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. A. Schmidt were co-chairmen of the Ball committee. The Earl G. Merers, Sheldon Drennans, Steven Whittleseys, Curtis Mowers, Daniel Carnes and Woodward Warricks assisted with party preparations.

The Jack Qualey Orchestra played for dancing following dinner.

To Raise Funds For Auxiliary Projects

The Women's Auxiliary to the Wayne County Medical Society is presenting "Prelude of Holiday Fashions" next Tuesday, November 12, at the Latin Quarter. Many Pointers are active in the Auxiliary and in the fashion luncheon planning committees, including (left to right) Auxiliary president MRS. ELI

J. IGNA, "Prelude" courtesy chairman MRS. WILLIAM B. MCINTYRE and ticket chairman MRS. ARTHUR J. JOHNSON. Funds raised via the party, which will feature styles by Jacobson's, will benefit the Auxiliary's medical and nursing scholarships.

Church Women Plan Programs

At the program meeting of the Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Tuesday, November 12, at 10:30 o'clock in the church, Mrs. Howard Cottman, presently serving on the National Executive committee of United Presbyterian Women and on the Christian Education committee of St. Mark's Church of Detroit, where she is a member, will lecture on "Christ and the Faiths of Men."

Mrs. Ralph Bleich is chairman of the meeting. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Richard Mitchell. During the noon luncheon Mrs. Cottman will describe her work on the National Executive Committee.

After graduating from Bennett College for Women, Roberta Cottman earned a Masters degree at New York University. She is now a Doctoral applicant at Wayne State University, at the same time acting as director of the Departments of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital.

Luncheon reservations must be made no later than Friday, November 8, by calling the church office.

Mrs. Paul D. Cornelisen, of Fairway lane, will entertain the Evening Sewing Group Wednesday, November 13, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Maurice Roberts and Mrs. Fred Buerstetta will act as co-hostesses.

The Friday Book Review Group meeting November 15, at 1 o'clock in the church, will hear Mrs. Pierre Pamentier give a travelogue on Europe.

Mrs. Fred Flom will lead the devotions.

Preceding the program, tea will be served in Fellowship Hall with Mrs. Harold Merrill as hostess. Her co-hostesses will be Miss Irma Bielenberg, Mrs. M. L. Vandagans, Mrs. Edna Fisher, Mrs. Paul Grubbs, Miss Fayetta Martens, Miss Irma Martens, Mrs. Walter McAdow, Mrs. William Oddy and Mrs. Selmer Ramsey. All members of the Women's Association and their guests will be welcomed by Mrs. Clarence Maguire and Mrs. James Cooper, who are acting as greeters.

C. JACKSON FRANCE, of Berkshire road, has been elected first vice-president of the Wayne State Fund, created in 1954 by a group of former students to encourage annual giving by alumni and friends of the University. New directors of the Fund include LEWIS DAVIES, of Lincoln road, and RITA WESCOTT, of Devonshire road.

AAUW Groups Plan Meetings

"Feast or Famine?" is the topic to be taken up by an Economic American Association of University Women Study Group meeting on Wednesday evening, November 13, at the home Miss Virginia Johnson in Edgefield road.

The question of why one country is successful in the same area in which another fails will be explored by Miss Virginia Hoeltzle and Mrs. Frederick Heath.

For the American Folk Music Study Group, Mrs. Thomas Roach will give a program on "Lonesome Love Songs" showing how history of the Southern U.S. mountain areas influences courting customs. Miss Roach will be hostess for this meeting on Monday afternoon, November 11 at her home in Westchester road.

Mrs. William Heitman, of Bishop road, will be hostess to the Samplers, a group made up of new AAUW members, on Thursday evening, November 14. Mrs. Charles Oakman will present a program of folk music and original stories. A combination meeting of the Contemporary Literature and the Current Values Study Groups will be held on Wednesday evening, November 20, at 7:45 o'clock. It will be a post-discussion to "Action for a Unified Society" held in Grosse Pointe last Saturday.

Plan 'Star!' Premier To Benefit Symphony

Mrs. John Wendell Anderson, II, and Mrs. Sixten Ehrling Serve as Honorary Chairmen of Junior Women's Film Evening

A red carpet, celebrities, music by the Hank Warren Trio, an Afterglow at the Harmonie Club . . . The premier showing of "Star!" next Wednesday, November 13, at the Madison Theatre, literally has everything going for it!

This first performance in Detroit of the film biography of Gertrude Lawrence, starring Julie Andrews as Miss Lawrence and Daniel Massey, who'll be on hand at the theatre and the Afterglow, as Noel Coward, is a benefit sponsored by the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Mrs. Girard F. Smith, general chairman, feels very fortunate in having such enthusiastic honorary chairmen as Mrs. John Wendell Anderson, II and Mrs. Sixten Ehrling.

Patrons chairman Mrs. Bror Hanson and her committee have sent out invitations, and now Mrs. E. Bud Wittus, ticket chairman, and members of her committee are busily filling orders.

A few of those who already have their tickets in hand are Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Remick, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William W. Peattie, Mr. and Mrs. Brandon M. Rogers, the Richard E. Loyers, the Peter S. Tillotsons, the Elving Andersons, Dr. and Mrs. Roger F. McNeill, the Richard K. Millers, Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Black and the James E. Gothams.

Afterglow plans have been completed under the direction of Mrs. Frederick C. Hertel and Mrs. Philip K. Mebus, Jr.

Some of those who will be enjoying the smorgasbord and complimentary champagne are Mr. and Mrs. James Flom, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Harness, Dr. and Mrs. Donald R. Briggs, (she's president of the Symphony Juniors), Mr. and Mrs. William Fiscus, the Peter Van Osdel and the Donald F. Chamberlins.

At a luncheon meeting today at the Statler Hilton, Mrs. Briggs will announce the name of the Symphony Junior who has sold the most tickets to the premier to date. The Dave Gabharts have donated the use of their 1934 Rolls Royce as premier evening "prize" for this champion ticket-seller.

Navy League Women Plan 'Bella Festiva'

MRS. ROBERT KALES, of Cloverly road, (left), president of the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League of the United States, checks arrangements for the Council's "Bella Festiva," a luncheon-fashion show featuring styles by the Juliet Shops, to be held next Thursday, November 14, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, with MRS. LOIS NAIR, (center), member of the Council since its inception during World War II, and MRS. ALBERT NAVARRO, of Stephens road, general chairman of the benefit which will raise funds to purchase tape recordings via which hospitalized veterans on the "USS Repose" in Vietnam may send messages home.

Anyone who would like to join the Juniors on this exciting evening may call the Symphony office, Woodward 1-0700, for ticket information.

June Bride

Photo by Bransby Studio June 14 wedding plans are being made by JANETTE MARIE GODIN and Christopher Mark Fischer, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford A. Godin, of Loehmoor boulevard.

The bride-elect was graduated from the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lakeshore road and attended Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wis.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Fischer, of Fox Point, Wis., was graduated from John Carroll University, Cleveland, O., where he affiliated with Alpha Kappa Psi national business administration fraternity, and is presently a junior in Marquette University Law School.

Unitarian Ladies To Visit Court

Car pools will be formed at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church at 8:45 o'clock next Tuesday morning, November 12, for the Church Women's Alliance field trip to Detroit's Recorder's Court.

A baby-sitter will be at the Church from 8:45 until 3 in the afternoon. The cost of the sitter will be shared equitably by field trip participants.

A committee headed by Lynn Loftis will provide dessert and coffee when the group returns to the Church at 12:30 o'clock. Each participant is asked to bring her own sandwich.

Following luncheon, Arnie Mastonen will speak on "Courts and Court Watching."

Interested women may come for the whole day or any part of it. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Warren Gauerke, 884-2699, or the Church office, 881-0420.

Mr. DeMunnik Weds In East

The Old Presbyterian Meeting House Church, Alexandria, Va., was the setting for the afternoon marriage of John J. DeMunnik, Jr., and Marsha Dianne Jenkins on Saturday, October 19.

Mr. and Mrs. John DeMunnik, the bridegroom's parents, of Lancaster road, their daughter, Sue Leahy, and Roger Bobier traveled to Alexandria for the wedding. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jenkins, of Northeast, Md.

The Reverend William R.

Sengel officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bridegroom was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in June, 1961, and holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Industrial Design from The Society of Arts and Crafts, Detroit. The bride has a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Maryland.

The bridegroom is currently serving in the United States Army Exhibit Unit at Cameron Station Alexandria, where the couple is making their home.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

Judge Will Speak At LWV Luncheon

The Honorable Horace W. Gilmore, Wayne County Circuit Judge, will be guest speaker at the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters' monthly luncheon next Wednesday, November 13, at 12:30 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

His topic will be "The Circuit Court and the Juvenile." He will be introduced by Mrs. J. Howard Kay, of Grand Marais boulevard.

This fall and winter, Leagues throughout the state are concluding a study of the Michigan Courts as they relate to children and juveniles.

Material covered last year is being reviewed. Discussions center around the Circuit Court and the role of the Friend of the Court, plus the presentation of material about the Family Court.

Mrs. Kay, who heads up this topic for the local group, says, "Because children are involved, we have a responsibility. As citizens and parents we must become better informed in order to act effectively."

The appearance and comments of Judge Gilmore, a respected jurist, able public speaker, legal scholar and active participant in the community affairs of the Greater Detroit area, will provide Leaguers with a professional and well-informed viewpoint on the child and the law.

Judge Gilmore was admitted to the practice of law in 1946, was Deputy Attorney-General of Michigan in 1955-56, was appointed Wayne County Circuit Judge by Governor G. Mennen Williams in 1956, was elected to that office in 1957, re-elected in 1959 and then, in November of 1966, was again re-elected for a term ending in January, 1977.

He has been for several years a member of the faculty of the Institute of Continuing Legal Education and during 1966-68 a part-time faculty member at Wayne State University Law School.

A much-in-demand speaker for legal discussion groups and conferences, he has also authored several treatises on aspects of the law.

Judge Gilmore is a member of Michigan's Commission on Crime, Delinquency and Criminal Administration and chairman of this Commission's subcommittee on Police and Public Safety. He also chairs the Committee on Police Community Relations of the Citizens' Committee for Equal Opportunity.

Interested Grosse Pointers are invited to join members of the League of Women Voters at the November 13 luncheon, which is priced at $3.25. Reservations are required and must be made by Monday, Nov. 11, by calling Mrs. Bruce Miller at 882-9561.

Entertaining some 50 guests at a cocktail-supper in their Whittier road home November 15 will be MR. and MRS. ROBERT B. POWERS.

Plan Fashionable Afternoon

All dressed up in the prettiest of party clothes are, (left to right), MRS. ROBERT KAZMAREK, MRS. CLAY BALDWIN, MRS. JOHN WHITE and MRS. RICHARD SCHOTT, planning "C'est La Mode," the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club's scholarship luncheon, fashion show and card party, to be presented Wednesday, November 20, in the Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium. Mrs. Kazmarek is chairman of the party. Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. White and Mrs. Schott will be among Club members modeling fashions from The Corner Boutique of Grosse Pointe and Birmingham.

Mr. Kubitsky Claims Bride

At a morning ceremony Saturday, October 12, in Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Church, Roseland, N.J., Matthew Frederick Kubitsky, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Matthew S. Kubitsky, of McKinley avenue, claimed Grace Hughes Leonard as his bride.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Ralph H. Leonard, of Roseland, and the late Mr. Leonard.

Officiating at the 11 o'clock rites, which were followed by a reception at the Caldwell Women's Club, Caldwell, N.J., were The Reverend John Byrne, of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, and The Reverend Richard C. Gilbert, of Roseland United Methodist Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, Everett N. Leonard, wore an A line Empire gown of organza, fashioned with a bodice and sleeves of Chantilly lace. Matching lace motifs bordered her skirt and accented her skirt and accented her detachable Chapel train.

A headpiece of roses and organza petals accented with lace and pearls caught her illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Honor matron Mrs. Richard B. Newman, cousin of the bride, of Westland, Mich., and bridesmaids Karen Long, of Newmarket, N.H., and Mrs. Peter Philip, of Bowie, Md., wore moss green Saki cloth and velvet frocks, trimmed with Venice lace, and carried arrangements of yellow and rust pompoms.

Matthew S. Kubitsky acted as his son's best man. Ushering were Lieutenant Charles A. Kalsner, of Redstone Arsenal, Ala., Thomas R. Quilter, III, and Mark Callan, of Chatham Township, N.J.

The mother of the bride wore a two-piece ensemble of aqua silk worsted, while the bridegroom's mother selected a mink-cuffed costume of taupe Alaskine. Both mothers chose white phalaenopsis orchid corsages.

The newlyweds have returned from a vacation in Nassau, The Bahamas, and are making their home in Cranford, N.J.

Among those traveling East for the wedding were Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Herz, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roehl and Tom Cusack, and Detroiters Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eppens, Dick Lock and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bender.

The circumstances that alter cases can never correct a defect in anyone's character.

Center Holding Austrian Night

The George Pierrot selected Grosse Pointe Adventure Series at Grosse Pointe War Memorial will present on Tuesday evening, November 12, "Portraits of Austria" by Curt Nagel and William Moore, personally narrated by Mr. Moore.

The colorlogue will be preceded by a delightful Viennese banquet served at 7 o'clock in the Crystal Ballroom.

The Austrian dinner will include cucumber soup, "Tafel-spitz" or prime beef with chive sauce, an apple and red cabbage mixture, potatoes with cheese and a Romaine salad of peas and cauliflower. A delicious Bavarian cream will be served as dessert.

Following dinner, guests will adjourn to the Theatre where they will be greeted by Mr. Moore, who graduated from Theatre Arts into Technicolor and Tiffany Films, from which he went into association with Curt Nagel to produce "Paramount Color Cruises" and "The Magic Carpet" films of Twentieth Century Fox.

Now the team produces its own famous "colorlogues" of which "Portraits of Austria" is one of the best. Nagel's and Moore's colorlogues play all the important houses from New York's Town Hall to Seattle's Opera House.

Immediate paid reservations are necessary for this evening at the Memorial's office, 32 Lake Shore Road. The complete evening — dinner and show — is $4.75, tax and service included. Performance only is $1.50. Tickets are limited.

Don't worry about what people say or do — just be careful that you don't do worse.

Inter-Branch Action Approved By AAUW

Temporary Organization to Facilitate Leadership Toward a More Unified Society Now Being Formed Throughout State

Approval for formation of a temporary inter-branch American Association of University Women organization to solidify action toward a more unified society was voted on Saturday at a workshop of more than 160 members of the American Associations of University Women from 29 Michigan cities.

Held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, the meeting was called to explore and study the Kerner report and to open the way to consideration of programs in which individuals and organizations might participate.

The all-day workshop was sponsored by AAUW branches from Ann Arbor, Birmingham, Grosse Pointe, Oakland, Union Lake and St. Clair Shores.

Following a morning devoted to study of the Kerner report, women participated in a "pulse feeler" vote in which they indicated grave concern over the report's premise that this society is moving toward two societies. One hundred and fifty participants signified they would work for greater understanding within the white community.

129 voted in favor of forming a temporary inter-branch organization to facilitate leadership towards a more unified society. "This is the beginning of a concerted thrust for action," said Miss Carolyn Barth, Detroit, general chairman of the day. "Representatives will report to their memberships; then a committee will be formed to

Preparing To 'Zip Out' Ball Invitations

Checking Zip Codes on the invitations they're sending for the Detroit-Macomb Hospital's 18th Anniversary Ball, to be held November 30 at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, are, (left to right), MRS. FRANK PUGLASI, of North Rosedale court, vice-chairman of the party, MRS. VOLLRAD J. VON BERG, of North Rosedale court, general chairman, MRS. NORMAN ARENDS, of Sunningdale drive, and MRS. ARTHUR A. ULMER, of Greenbriar lane, in charge of favors. These ladies and other members of the Ball committee gathered in GPYC's Terrace Room to finalize the invitation list. Mrs. Marvin Tait, of Warren, is president of the Detroit-Macomb Hospitals' Auxiliary, sponsor of the party.

Patricia Shaw Wed In France

Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Shaw, of East Jefferson avenue, Detroit, formerly of South Oxford road, announce the marriage of their daughter, Patricia Ann Shaw, to Bernard Lucien Dambron on October 21, in Tourcoing, France.

Mr. Dambron is the son of Emil Dambron and the late Mrs. Dambron. Following a trip to Switzerland, the newlyweds will live in Tourcoing until their apartment is ready in Lille, France, where Mr. Dambron is a professor at the University of Lille.

JIM ZADE, of Broadstone road, was one of 10 male Junior Achievers invited to attend the November 4 luncheon meeting of the Detroit Economic Club, at which The Honorable CHARLES H. PERCY, United States from Illinois, was speaker of the day.

set up programs."

Suggested programs included the taking of active leadership in white communities to reduce prejudice and discrimination; to work with problems of early childhood development to strengthen and extend such programs as Head Start; and to help in dissemination of information about social services already available in Inner-City communities.

Mrs. Charles Goldner, president of the Michigan Division of AAUW, from Niles, and Mrs. James Davis, state AAUW implementation chairman, attended the conference, as did representatives from Port Huron, Waterford, Wyandotte, Wayne, Dearborn, Farmington, Jackson, Plymouth and Pontiac.

Grosse Pointe women who assisted at the workshop included Mrs. Lewis Morrow, Mrs. David Pethick, Mrs. E. R. Bunn, Mrs. R. S. Kray, Mrs. Robert Snyder, Mrs. John A. Nelson, Mrs. E. C. Hanpeter, Mrs. Burkhard Scheider, Mrs. John Schonenberg and Mrs. Ritter Newell. St. Clair Shores women participating included Mrs. Jerry Thomas, Mrs. Robert Hader, Mrs. James K. Pope, Mrs. David Sulfridge and Mrs. Gordon N. Raynor.

MRS. ROBERT FANCETT, of West Emory court, Women's Market editor of "Automotive News," is among judges who will select the Queen of the 1968 Detroit Auto Show.

Congregational Women To Meet

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Women's Association will meet Tuesday, November 13, at 12:15 o'clock in the Church lounge. Mrs. Alfred Tappert, president, will conduct the meeting.

Following the business session, luncheon will be served in Fellowship Hall. Group Eight will serve under the direction of Mrs. Jay Donaldson, culinary chairman.

For the afternoon program, Mrs. John Bradley will present a book review of "Everything to Live For" by Paul Horgan. Mrs. Bradley will be presented by Mrs. Robert Agne, program chairman.

Group Five is also meeting next week. Members are gathering on Wednesday evening, November 13, at 7:30 o'clock in the Church lounge to hear Robert Orr present his "Booktalk." Mr. Orr is director of the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries.

MAIRGRID MCINTOSH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McIntosh, of Lincoln road, is a new member of the second soprano section of the Allegheny College Choir, Meadville, Pa.

JUST ABOUT AS NICE AS THEY COME . . .

Nothing has been forgotten to make this home complete in every respect. The family room, for instance, is oak paneled—has a bar, fireplace and pegged flooring. There is also a fine games room with fireplace and bar in the basement and 2 attic fans do the job of keeping out summer heat.

The 3 car garage has electrical door openers; the grounds are automatically sprinkled with a time control unit; and at the rear of the professionally landscaped site is a beautiful secluded patio with an elaborate grill and sink having hot and cold water.

Most of the carpet and all the draperies are included.

Panhellenic Ball Slated Saturday

Detroit Panhellenic Association is hosting its annual benefit ball from 9 until 1 o'clock Saturday, November 9, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Guests and members will dance to the music of Dick Stockwell.

Party chairman Mrs. Thomas Ewart, of Warren, has been assisted by co-chairman Mrs. John Baetz, of Moross road. Serving on their committee are Mrs. George Zinn, Jr., and Mrs. Joseph York.

The Panhellenic Scholarship Fund will receive a portion of the proceeds from the dance. The participating sororities of the Association will also receive proportionate amounts, to be used for each group's various philanthropic project.

Mrs. Baetz, ticket chairman, is encouraging the sale of advance tickets but will also be on hand to welcome guests at the door that evening.

JANET GRACE PEAT, daughter of DR. and MRS. ALEXANDER C. PEAT, of Devonshire road, has been named to the Dean's List for the past year at the Dental Hygiene School of the University of Kentucky.

The Ball will be held Saturday, December 14, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Proceeds from last year's gala contributed substantially to the opening of St. John's Progressive Coronary Care Unit, the only one of its kind in the City of Detroit.

"We want very much," says Sharon (Mrs. Michael C.) Burke, of Cloverly road, general chairman of the 15th annual Ball, "to add to and secure this remarkable intensive care facility, and to leave no doubts in the hearts of families that the hearts of those about whom they care will at all times receive the best that is available in modern coronary care."

To assure the success of the Ball, Sharon has surrounded herself with an exceptionally dedicated corps of committee chairmen and workers, including Mrs. Walter L. VanGoethem, Jr., general co-chairman. Mrs. Robert Knop is president of the Auxiliary.

Committee heads include the Mesdames Roger Rinke, Charles J. Burke, William F. Baker, A. Joseph Hoski, James N. Mutschall, Dominine Vendittelli, J. Addison Bartush, William E. Carroll, Charles Gardella, William B. McIntyre, James E. Coyle, Richard Shalla, Mack J. Phillips, Charles Dawood, Chilton I. Drysdale, Claude A. Greiner, Roland Rinke, C. Don Steepe, Cletus J. Welling, Stephen Zielinski, Leo A. Marx and Theodore W. Berendsohn.

Navy League "Bella Festiva"

A party as pretty as its name, "Bella Festiva," is being planned for next Thursday, November 14, by the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League of the United States.

Theme of the luncheon-fashion show, to be presented in the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe Memorial, is Italian. Its purpose is to raise funds for the purchase of tape recordings; these tapes will be sent to Vietnam, where they will be used by hospitalized veterans aboard the USS Repose to record messages for families in The States.

President of the Women's Council is Mrs. Robert Kales, of Cloverly road. Fashion benefit chairman is Mrs. Albert Navarro, of Stephens road, who with fellow Council members Mrs. John Lavrakis, Mrs. John Petrakis, Mrs. Robert Rathbun, Mrs. Frederick Weiss, Mrs. H. Weston Burnett and Mrs. Thomas Walworth will model styles from the Juliet Shops.

Mrs. Aaron Wilcox will act as commentator and Al Navarro will provide the appropriate Mediterranean musical background. Mrs. Theodore Foster is in charge of decorations, Mrs. Walter Cornelius of prizes.

To a secretary interested in an exciting engagement with someone in advertising:

When you become a secretary in a big advertising agency such as ours, there's one thing you'll notice in a hurry. You'll notice that there's something about ad making that's contagiously exciting. When your boss gets caught up in the fast moving tempo of an important presentation, you'll find yourself a little short of breath too. The atmosphere here is like that. You'll find your typing and shorthand have become your passport to something a lot more interesting than just another average job. If you've been doing something almost dull for two or three years and you're ready for something extraordinary, give us a call for an interview.

Dee Kalember Home At Last

The Dewey Kalembers are pretty happy folks these days. Their 17-year-old daughter, Dee Ellen, is home again. Dee, who was thrown from the rear of a motorcycle last July 15 near Suttons' Bay, has had tough sledding ever since.

She suffered a brain concussion and was unconscious for four weeks after which she spent nine more weeks in Traverse City Hospital learning how to do the ordinary things all over again... how to talk, to walk and to sing. But being a plucky girl, she did just that. Now she is able to sing. Speech is no longer a problem for her and hopefully it won't be too long before she's walking back to school. Walking is what Dee is concentrating on right now. She's undergoing therapy at home with the help of her mom and dad and will soon have professional therapy. A little more practice in walking, a little dental work, and she'll be her old self again.

In the meantime she's receiving callers, so if any of her old friends would like to stop by 1374 Anita and say hello, or would like to drop Dee a note, she'd be delighted.

Home again in East Boothbay, Me., are ADMIRAL and MRS. WILLIAM F. ROYALL, who were here visiting the FRANKLIN M. WALKERS, of Lincoln road, and rendezvousing with family, including Mrs. Royall's mother, MRS. HIRAM H. WALKER, and friends.

January wedding plans are being made by JUDY ANN CARSTENS, of Kerby road, and William L. McCandless, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Carstens, formerly of Kerby road, now of Clearwater, Fla.

The bride-to-be was graduated from Michigan State University and the University of Hawaii and will receive his Bachelor of Arts degree in June from Wayne State University.

Church Circles Slate Sessions

The Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Women's Association monthly Circle meetings are scheduled for next Tuesday, November 12.

Afternoon Circles, meeting at 12:30 o'clock, include Abigail, gathering at the Torrey road home of hostess Mrs. Lloyd Jeffries, who has asked Miss Hildegarde Squire and Mrs. Fred Olmstead, 884-4534, to serve as co-hostesses; Deborah, meeting at the Beaufait road home of Mrs. Kenneth Smith with Mrs. Russell Bradley, 884-3649, as co-hostess; and Elizabeth, meeting at the North Edgewood drive home of Mrs. Ivan Taylor with Mrs. Cecil Hastings, 885-3214, as co-hostess.

More are Esther, gathering at the Anita avenue home of Mrs. Hennell Pack, whose co-hostess is Mrs. C. E. Netherton, 884-5229; Hannah, meeting at the Wickes lane home of Mrs. Kenneth McLeod with Mrs. Glen Himmelsbaugh, 884-2567, as co-hostess; Lydia, meeting at the Anita avenue home of Mrs. Al Ghesquiere, with Mrs. Norah Hoadley, 884-1719, as co-hostess; and Martha, gathering at the Denver street, Detroit.

Center 'Group' Holding Forum

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's "Group" for young singles in the area is holding its monthly Supper Forum Thursday evening, November 14, in Alger House, 32 Lake Shore road. The Happy Hour begins at 6:30 with supper served at 7:15 buffet style.

Following dinner, Peter Logan will talk on "Investing Before Marriage." Peter has chaired the Investment Lecture Series in Fries Auditorium for several years for the Investment Bankers Association, and has taught investing for many seasons for the Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

Also on the Forum this evening will be George Wilson, executive regional manager for a major insurance concern, who will stress the importance of beginning an insurance program at an early age.

Both gentlemen will field questions from their audience and try to suggest portfolios and programs to fit individual needs.

Paid reservations for sundowners, dinner and the forum at $2.50 for "Group" members and $3 for guests, should reach the War Memorial no later than Monday, November 11.

Slate St. Mary Alumnae Party

A Communion Breakfast for St. Mary Academy Alumnae and their friends will be held Saturday, November 9, at 10:30 o'clock in the Lochmoor boulevard home of Mrs. Eugene Freitas.

The Reverend Thomas Finnigan, of Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, will discuss "The Reasons Behind The Changes." Reservations, at $3 each, must be made by contacting Mrs. Freitas, TUxedo 1-7103, or Mrs. Paul Gracey, TUxedo 5-9275.

East Side Kappa Deltas Plan 'Husband's Night'

The East Side Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta will serve a buffet dinner at its annual Husband's Night at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday, November 13, at the Balfour road home of Mrs. Edward Bunn. An evening of games has been planned.

Assisting as co-hostesses will be Mrs. C. R. Moore, Mrs. Richard Edin and Mrs. Robert E. Terry. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Angus McGarvah at 881-1288.

Slate Deeplands Club's Meeting

Members of the Deeplands Garden Club will meet Monday, November 11, in the North Deeplands road home of Mrs. Murray MacDonald. The program will feature a one-hour demonstration of the making of Christmas decorations.

DR. FRANCIS P. BLAKE, of Trombley road, has been named a fellow of the International College of Dentists.

GPYC Previews Elegant Holidays

Home of Mrs. C. J. Carlson with Mrs. Everett Hall, 882-1095, and Mrs. Donald Neill, 881-7790, as co-hostesses.

Evening Circles, meeting at 8 o'clock, are Mary, at the Holiday road home of Mrs. John Munger whose co-hostess is Mrs. Richard Kray, 881-0558; Miriam, at the Hampton road home of Mrs. Gordon Cameron whose co-hostess is Mrs. Robert Ebersole, 881-8884; and Naomi at the Washington road home of Mrs. Richard Miller whose co-hostess is Mrs. Chalmers Zech, 886-1606.

"Holiday Elegance," presented by Jacobson's, will highlight Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's October luncheon-fashion show.

Chairman of the party, which begins at 12:30 o'clock today, Thursday, November 7, is Mrs. Thomas C. Wayne. Co-chairman is Mrs. Glenn E. Walker.

Committee members include the Mesdames William R. Fox, Charles E. Motter, Arthur J. Schultz, Robert E. Thomas and Joseph A. Van Deweghe.

13—REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

REGARDLESS HOW your candidate fared this week our house candidate is a shoo-in if you demand prime location, a half dozen bedrooms and immediate occupancy. All this comes on Deeplands Road, within easy walking distance to both public and parochial schools. Register now for an appointment or come by Sunday afternoon. We're sure this one will get your vote.

OUR POST ELECTION special is a non-partisan nominee which is sure to please either party, whether you are seeking a single story or two story house. The first floor includes two bedrooms, but there are two more upstairs with a second bath. The large family room is accessible to both the kitchen and dining room. Two car garage attached to the house provides a lovely backyard with patio and good plantings. Located on a deadend street near GPUS, Barnes and Star of the Sea.

WITHOUT A DOUBT the best single story home offered in its price category today. Three honest-sized bedrooms with two full baths and a basement with many possibilities for further development. Located on a cul-de-sac near GPUS and Monteth.

NONE OTHER like it in the Farms. Check these features: Four gigantic bedrooms and two baths up. Gracious entrance foyer with a living room running the full depth of the house on one side and a large library on the other. The dining room is in the middle, rear of the house and looks out into the deep backyard which is completely private. Priced far below what other house would sell for in this neighborhood.

COULD IT BE that you actually would make a move if you could "trade" that larger house you now rattle about in for a petite mansion with just the room you really require. Colonial by design, this gem has only a master suite and two other bedrooms on the second floor. There is a formal library and informal family room. Heated swimming pool and walled garden make fine viewing all winter and are guaranteed to get you outside next summer.

AND WHY SHOULDN'T your family enjoy its Thanksgiving dinner in the magnificent dining room of this stately home on Woodland Shores. The house has plenty of room to stretch out in after the feast. There is a sumptuous living room and family room to end all family rooms. Four bedroom, which includes a master suite complete with fireplace and sitting room. The house has been recently painted inside and out, the carpeting is like new... all that is lacking is your furniture.

FOR THE DO-IT-YOURSELF breed: We have a lot on Cameron Place. One of those new streets which deadends at the lake edge, and has attracted some of the newest and most magnificent of the Pointe's recently built residences. Build yourself that personal home you never have been able to find in a used home.

FOR YOU who want to own an income property, we have one of the few remaining lots in the Pointe which is zoned for two family dwelling. Live in one half and let your tenant make the payments that will amortize your investment.

1794 ALLARD is not just another three bedroom one bath house, but a particularly attractive offering on an attractive street, and available at an attractive price. If Colonial is your type of architecture and you need "in" soon, then put this on your list.

YES... you can buy a three bedroom home for under twenty-four thousand dollars. We are showing such a house Sunday, at 3984 Buckingham. Both house and owner are all dressed up and ready to go. The next move is yours?

November's sky is chill and drear,
November's leaf is red and sear.

Point of View

WE HAVE DISCOVERED two different groups among buyers of luxury homes. Each with its own ideas about what a $100,000.00 home should be. One point of view desires the new from the ground up, the ultimate in design for sophisticated living, but with a flair for the traditional in style. The other group has a taste for the established grand style with its aged hand rubbed woods, solid oak doors and the richness of an old world crystal chandelier in a formal dining room. There is even the idea that the master of the castle should have a private, paneled den. When it comes to the culinary arts, the kitchen should afford space and facility to render a sumptuous meal. So, there is an opinion we place before you. If your's agrees with the latter, then we offer 587 LOCHMOOR, a custom built, 5 bedroom, fine traditional colonial.

1701 NORTH RENAUD is a center entrance colonial with three large bedrooms on the second floor serviced by two baths. That all important extra room is on the main floor, which complements the living and dining rooms.

466 SHELBOURNE COURT, is sure to please the ranch house seeker who must have three bedrooms and two full bathrooms. There is a two car attached garage and full basement.

187 STEPHENS ROAD offers the only larger, four bedroom colonial on the market today which is situated in this most desirable area of The Farms. You will be impressed how well this one "opens up" inside, and we think the backyard view of the house is as pleasing as the front.

40 WOODLAND SHORES shows like a spanking new house, but this one is actually three years old. Already it has been completely redecorated and with colors and fabrics we believe may complement most any furniture period. If you have always wanted to be just a few steps to the lake and move into a newer, trouble free house, then this should be a "must see."

Monday Meetings: Two To Note
Members of the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club will gather for their second meeting of the season next Monday afternoon, in the Touraine road home of Mrs. Valentine Guenther.

Mrs. Ford Ballantyne and Mrs. Ivor David Harris will share hostess responsibilities with Mrs. Guenther. The program, "How to Do an Arrangement with Dried Flowers," will be presented by Mrs. Fred Stefansky.

Another meeting scheduled Monday is Libri's pre-Thanksgiving gathering, to be held at the Detroit Athletic Club with the Mesdames Claude McDonald, Sherod Scott, Elmer Conway, David Gamble and Joseph Reader serving as hostesses.

Alice Shepard will give a book review on "First Ladies of the World."

Lions Conquer

Dennis Livingston recovered a fumble on the Packer 24 and the Lions were on the march again. Dave Coleman ran for five yards. Morrison passed to Montague for 15 yards and John Chancy blasted to the one yard line. Dave Kaiser and Ed Tropp then inspired the defense and the Packers held.

The opening play of the fourth quarter thrilled the Packer fans as Stu Thiede picked off a Lion pass and galloped 70 yards for the score. Mark Rinko threw a key block. Mike Shelton dove over for the extra point and it was 12-7.

The Packers were an inspired team in the closing moments with John O'Neill, Mike Mullinger and Joe Carolan leading the defense. The Packers took over the ball on their 12-yard line with two minutes to go. Mark Carlson and Kim Adler made long gains and Chris Cotzias blocked well but ran out with the ball on the Lions' 36.

The final score was Lions 12, Packers 7, for the Lions fourth straight victory.

ANTENNA BROKEN
City police received a call on Tuesday, October 29, from William Pierce Huntington, 21623 Moross, reporting that persons unknown had broken the antenna off of his '65 Mustang when it was parked in front of 347 St. Clair.

Short and to the Pointe
Chosen 1968 Homecoming Queen of Olivet College was Karen, G. Schram, daughter of former Pointers MR. and MRS. BYRON C. SCHRAM, who now make their home in South Bend, Ind. A sociology major, she's a member of the Sororian sorority. She will be graduated from Olivet in January, 1969.

Home again in The Pointe after a stay in Washington, D.C., where they attended a gathering of the Colonial Dames of America, are MRS. CHARLES B. JOHNSON, JR., of Rivard boulevard, who presented a report on the activities of the Michigan Chapter of the Dames, and MRS. WILLIAM H. LEDYARD, of Dvar lane. In Washington, Mrs. Johnson was the houseguest of MR. and MRS. W. JAMES SEARS, JR., of Chevy Chase, Md. Mrs. Sears is the daughter of the WILLIAM R. PIERCES, of Beverly road.

Participating in Stephens College Parents' Weekend activities October 25 through 27 on the Columbia, Mo., campus were MR. and MRS. HOWARD SHAW, of Harbor Hill, and MR. and MRS. JACK L. OTTO, of Moorland drive, parents of freshmen NANCY SHAW and LINDA OTTO, and MR. and MRS. FRED SOMES, JR., of South Duval road, parents of sophomore JENNIFER SOMES.

Participating in Father-Daughter Weekend activities at Briarcliff College, Briarcliff Manor, N.Y., October 25 through 27 were DONALD C. LONG-YEAR, of Grand Marais boulevard, and his daughter, BARBARA, and WALTER B. FORD, II, of Provincial road, and his daughter, JOSEPHINE.

MR. and MRS. JAMES FRINK, of Pittsburgh, Pa., announced the birth of a son, JAMES BRADLEY FRINK, October 30. Mrs. Frink is the former DIANA GROSS, daughter of MR. and MRS. WALTER GROSS, of Lakeland avenue. Paternal grandmother is MRS. HELEN FRINK, of Rochester, Mich.

GERALD C. MARNELL, of Yorkshire road, has been named University of Detroit public relations director by The Reverend HUGH E. DUNN, S.J., vice-president for university relations. Mr. Marnell has served as assistant to the president of the University since August, 1967; his special projects have included the implementation of a university identity program and coordination of university publications. He is a graduate of Redford High School and the University of Detroit, receiving his Bachelors degree in Education in 1957 and his Masters degree in 1959.

The BRUCE BOARDMAN residence in St. Clair Shores will be the scene of a cocktail party honoring FLORENCE and WILLIAM PETERS, of Hawthorne road, on their 35th wedding anniversary Saturday, November 9, (their anniversary is actually November 8, but the party hostesses, JOANNE BOARDMAN, JACQUELINE BAYE, JUDITH BAYE, JUDITH KELLEY and JENNIFER GAUTHIER, the Peters' four daughters, decided Saturday was a better party day). Among those who'll be on hand for drinks, hors d'oeuvres and a wedding cake — this will be Mr. and Mrs. Peters' "first" wedding cake; they didn't have one when they were married 35 years ago in Detroit — will be relatives and close friends, including WILLIAM C. PETERS, of East Detroit, EMMA HOFFMANN, of Detroit, the OSCAR AMORIS, of Hawthorne road, MRS. ALICE MILLER, of Hollywood avenue, MR. and MRS. BRUCE HAYWOOD, of Madison Heights, and former Pointers MR. and MRS. John DOELLE, who now make their home in Monroe.

MR. and MRS. GORDON E. MORLAN, of St. Clair Shores, announce the birth of their second son, ANDREW BENJAMIN MORLAN, November 1. Young Andrew's father teaches at Grosse Pointe North High School. Mrs. Morlan is the former JUDITH GREEN, daughter of MR. and MRS. STANLEY A. GREEN, of Dearborn. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. C. E. MORLAN, of Titusville, Pa.

CHRISTINE A. GRAVES, daughter of DR. and MRS. JAMES H. GRAVES, of Buckingham road, a senior at Emma Willard School, has been awarded a Letter of Commendation by The National Merit Scholarship Committee.

Elected officers of the Trinity College Parents Association November 2 were JOHN S. PINGEL, of Peach Tree lane, the new president of the Association, and CHARLES W. WRIGHT, III, of La Salle place, chairman of the Parents Fund. Mr. Pingel's son, ROY, and Mr. Wright's son, CHARLES, are both juniors at the Hartford, Conn., liberal arts college.

MR. and MRS. HENNING FREDEN, of Barrington road, entertained at a family dinner at the Detroit Yacht Club Friday evening, November 1. Honor guests were the Fredens' son and daughter-in-law, DR. and MRS. KARL FREDEN, returning to their Pasadena, Calif., home after attending the National Dental Convention in Miami, Fla. On hand for the festivities were the Fredens' other son, ALAR, and his wife, of Farmington, and daughters Irene, who makes her home in The Pointe, and HELEN and her husband, of Dearborn.

Thought you might... like to know just who-all is serving on the Archives of American Art Jewelry Auction's Grosse Pointe Committee... Well, Karla (Mrs. Peter R.) Fink, of Stephens road, is chairman... and her assistants include Lolli (Mrs. Raymond J.) Biggs, of Lincoln road; Dottie (Mrs. Henry E., II) Bodman, of Winthrop place; Charlotte (Mrs. Richard H. W., Jr.) Chadwell, of Cloverly road; Sarah (Mrs. Ferdinand H.) Cinelli, of Voltaire place; Sally (Mrs. John W.) Coe, of Meadow lane; Joan (Mrs. Frank, Jr.) Couzens, of Lothrop road; Melinda (Mrs. Henry, III) Earle, of McKinley avenue; Elise (Mrs. George R.) Fink, of Tonnacour place; Slim (Mrs. Hugo S.) Higbie, of Provencal road; Helen (Mrs. Livingstone) Howard, of Merriweather road; Jo (Mrs. Harry J.) Mack, of Rivard boulevard; Joy (Mrs. J. C.) Ray, of Merriweather road; Elise (Mrs. Samuel B.) Sherer, of Sunningdale drive, and Jane (Mrs. John B.) Vanderzee, of McKinley... The Jewelry Auction at the Detroit Institute of Arts is scheduled for Friday evening, November 22... There'll be a gala cocktail preview the preceding Saturday, November 16...

And speaking of Auctions... (this DOES seem to be the year for them!) The Men's Club of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church in Chalfonte avenue will hold its Charity Auction Friday, November 15... Abe Farris, one of Detroit's leading auctioneers, has donated his time to knock down a vast array of goods and services to the highest bidders. Proceeds will be donated to the Franklin Settlement Camp, Lake Orion, to provide needy inner city children of all religions, races and nationalities with positive summer camp experiences... All Pointers are invited to attend the Auction, which will begin in the Social Hall of the Church at 8 o'clock. A complimentary dinner at 6 o'clock will precede the bidding; anyone interested in attending is asked to call the Church office, 884-3075... P.S. Donations of all kinds are still being gratefully accepted. Contact Jack Wheeler, 886-1765, or Clifford Sadler, 881-6659, if you have something to offer...

The last... Liggett School Lecture in the 1968 Series is scheduled for next Wednesday, and it should be fascinating!... Dr. Harriet Mills, associate professor, Chinese Language, University of Michigan, will describe "What China Is Like Today" at 10 o'clock in Liggett's Kresge Auditorium... And in case you wonder how Dr. Mills can KNOW what China is like today, we beg to advise you that she was imprisoned in Peking by the Chinese Communists from 1951 to 1955 and served as director of the Interuniversity Program in Chinese Language Studies Administered by Stanford University in Taiwan from 1964 to 1966... There's lots more we could tell you about Dr. Mills' background, too (she was born in Tokyo, Japan, spent the first 17 years of her life, except for two years in The States and two short periods in Japan, in China, attending the Nanking American School and graduating in 1937 from the Shanghai American School...), but we think this is enough to whet your appetite for her personal appearance...

And speaking of lectures... the second speaker in the Grosse Pointe Celebrity Series, sponsored by the Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League, will be Philippe Halsman, appearing next Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in the Esquire Theater... This famous photographer (he has NINETY-SEVEN "Life" magazine covers to his credit), will illustrate the fascinating anecdotes he's promised to relate with his own photographs...

Do you like cats?... Carolyn Hubbard Lucas does—and when Mrs. Lucas likes something (or is intrigued by something, or is "struck" by something), sooner or later, that "something" appears in one of her poems:

SIAMESE

Pale and slim and full of guile
Bidding for caress and smile
"Mousse" our treasured feline pride
Velvet-footed, gentian-eyed
Passes through this world of woe
Poised, deliberate and slow.
She is finicky and proud
And if tones perchance seem loud
Disregards our every rule
Stalks away, sedate and cool.
She is fickle: Hard to please
Yet she holds our hearts with ease
As reward we see her sail
Through our house with waving tail
Grace in every move—and that's Personality for cats.

PILFERINGS

After much coaxing, an old country woman finally consented to spend a day with a daughter living in the city. It proved an ordeal from the beginning. Buses were packed, people stepped on her feet—and it poured rain. Upon arriving home at last, her granddaughter asked her, "Did you have a good time?"
"Good time?" repeated the old woman wearily.
"Lord bless you, child, I'm so glad I'm home that I'm glad I went."

MRS. EARL G. DEARY, OF LAKEPOINTE AVENUE

By Janet Mueller

Okay, kids, the secret's out: Mrs. Deary's first name is Sylvia—but the first boy or girl who calls out "Hey, Syll!" had better be wearing a good, strong pair of running shoes. And he'd better be prepared to grow up ignorant: Who DARE return to Defer or Pierce knowing that a wrathful Mrs. Deary was waiting for him?

Well... maybe after a day or two, he might TRY sneaking back, hide himself in the middle of a waiting-for-the-light-to-change group of children, cross with them, keeping carefully in the middle of the group and in the middle of the crosswalk... and maybe Mrs. Deary, who had noticed him FROM THE VERY FIRST MINUTE he turned a corner onto Kercheval avenue, MIGHT decide to overlook his past indiscretion...

But that's a lot of "maybes." So take our advice: Forget you ever knew Mrs. Deary's first name. Think of her, refer to her, as simply "Mrs. Deary," just the way you always did, the way your older brothers and sisters did, the way children at Defer and Pierce have been thinking of and referring to her for 10 years.

Big Name in Pointe

It's a short name but a Big Name in Grosse Pointe. Just ask the teenagers who drive past the Pierce-Defer crossing on the day they get their licenses, tooting their horns to let Mrs. Deary know they "made it," traveling carefully, observing all traffic rules, well under the 15-mile-an-hour school zone limit... Ask them what they think of Mrs. Deary.

"Mrs. Deary?" they'll answer, (not, you'll notice, having to pause for a minute to think, what they think of Mrs. Deary. "She's great!")

Or ask the little ones, the first and second graders who criss-cross Kercheval daily under Mrs. Deary's direction, what they think of their "Crossing Lady."

"I love Mrs. Deary," one by one they'll respond.

Ask Most Anyone

Ask the principal of Defer, the principal of Pierce, the teachers at both schools, Sergeant George Blair, of the Grosse Pointe Park Police, who taught Mrs. Deary how to shepherd her young charges across a busy street...

Ask the mothers and fathers of those young charges... Then ask Mrs. Deary what SHE thinks of the children, teachers, mothers, fathers, Park police, teenagers...

"I don't think there's anything in life as nice as children and the outdoors," she says. "There isn't a medal big enough to pin on a teacher," she says.

"I suppose one of the nicest things about my job is the compliments. It makes me feel good that so many take the time to tell me I'm doing a good job. The greatest reward of all is the friendship of the children. You can't HELP but be happy when a mother comes up to you in September and says, 'Mrs. Deary, I think these children come here more to see you than to go to school!'"

She Gets Fan Mail

"I just got the cutest letter from a little girl, a third grader, saying how nice it is to have me at the crossing. She told me she wrote it in catechism—I wonder what Sister thought! But it's a sweet letter..."

THEN ask her what she thinks of SOME drivers... And stand well back as the sparks fly! This is Mrs. Deary-With-A-Cause speaking:

"There are twice as many nice ones as the others—but THE OTHERS! They don't know there's a light there, they don't think of anybody else's children. They let their own kids off IN THE CROSSWALK, the ONLY place the children are permitted to cross, holding up everybody... Then, when they've let THEIR children off, they pull right out into traffic... I've been sworn at, hollered at by drivers I've tried to tell to obey the rules. They act like they couldn't care less...

They Invite Accidents

"As far as I'm concerned, anybody who runs a light in a school zone or goes 30 miles an hour instead of 15 is looking for an accident—and, someday, he's going to find it! I just wonder how these drivers act in other parts of the city: You can't tell me they'll race past a school and then suddenly turn into 'courteous' drivers on an expressway!"

"Sure, some of them are teenagers: I've seen them make two wheel turns onto Nottingham. Some of these parents should check on their children and see how they really DO drive."

"But some—a lot!—of the older people should go back to school themselves and learn the traffic safety rules. I see them coming, going too fast, weaving from side to side, and I holler at them: 'Do you own Kercheval avenue? If you don't, drive like you don't...'"

Sylvia and Earl Deary have made their home in Lakepointe avenue, in the house they bought a month after they were married for 21 years.

Dogs and Children

They have two children: Gary, 20, graduate of Defer, Pierce and Grosse Pointe South High School, now in the United States Air Force Band, and Deborah, 16, a South High student.

Earl's a Letter Carrier with a soft spot in his heart for dogs. Samantha, part-poodle, part-, is the second stray he's brought home.

"Up in the Warren-Outer drive area, where my husband works," Sylvia explains, "a lot of people drop dogs off. I suppose they think, because there's a lot of traffic, that the animal will be killed or picked up; in any event, that THEY, the owners, won't be traced..."

"When we got Sammy, four years ago, she had a bad hip. We figured she'd either been hit by or dropped from a car. We advertised, but no one showed up to claim her..."

Sammy Knows Routine
Sammy's hip is healed now, and she's a fully-integrated member of the Deary family, gregarious and fond of the outdoors, like her mistress. The Dearys don't say the word "walk" aloud unless they're prepared to take Sammy on one; when she sees Sylvia begin to don her Crossing Guard clothes, prepare to leave the house. Sammy runs into a bedroom and sleeps until the sound of a key turning in a lock tells her someone's home again.

Sylvia's active in her church, Messiah Lutheran. She sings in the choir and is president of the Women's Evening Guild.

She and Earl are fascinated by antiques. They take in all the big shows and estate sales, picking up pieces when and as they can: A more-than-a-century-old occasional table, standing now in front of their fireplace, and, holding, when we were there, the most glorious bunch of yellow and orange fall flowers we've ever seen!; a Tiffany lamp—their pride and joy—overhanging their dining room table.

Replaced Neighbor

Sylvia became a Crossing Guard rather by accident. "A neighbor lady, the woman across the street, was one," she reminisces, "and we got talking in... I put my application in, and when my neighbor got sick, I replaced her. I was a six-week replacement..."

"Then my neighbor decided not to go back because of the cold weather, so I took over her job. I took it on a one-year basis..."

That was 10 years ago.

Why does she come back?

"There's something about it, something about working in the out-of-doors, with children... I can't tell you just WHAT it is exactly—but I can see why teachers come back..."

"It's VERY, VERY healthy. I NEVER catch a cold, NEVER see a doctor. I've been off sick maybe two weeks in the entire 10 years. I come home after a rainy morning soaked to the skin, change everything and go out again for the noon shift—and I never even get a sniffle."

Trained by Police

The School Crossing Guards, (there are six in the Park, two men, four women, two stationed at Defer, three at St. Ambrose and one at Maire), are hired and trained by the Park Police Department.

They receive a salary... "And I wish," says Sylvia Deary, "drivers would realize that one of the reasons we DO shout at them is because we ARE paid, by them, to protect THEIR children!"

Sylvia works three shifts, a half-hour in the morning, a half-hour in the afternoon and an hour-and-a-half at midday. She works in all weather. "We're like the Letter Carriers," she laughs, "neither rain, nor sleet, nor snow stop us..."

On good days, she bikes up Lakepointe to her school crossing. "The kids at Pierce just think that's a riot," she says, referring to the sight of herself, in uniform, arriving by bicycle at the schools. In bad weather, when the pavements are icy, she "slides" to work.

Dedicated to Her Job

She's a professional, a woman who knows her job and is dedicated to it. She'll take no nonsense from the children: She's there to protect them and, in order to protect them, she must be obeyed.

"I train them NOT TO FOLLOW ME into the street. I go out first, on the amber light, to make sure the cars have stopped both ways before I let one child put his foot into the street... THEN, when I KNOW all traffic is stopped, I signal them: 'Let's go!' That's the way I was taught by Officer Blair; that's the way I do the job..."

There've been no accidents at Mrs. Deary's crossing since she took command, but there have been a few close calls. "I've grabbed back at least three or four children who darted out directly in the path of oncoming cars," she notes. "If you ask them later why they did it, they'll say, 'I don't know!'"

And Sylvia Deary knows her kids, knows this is an honest answer, knows that no matter how well she's trained the children at her crossing to obey her commands, to obey the Safety Boys at all the corner

GRACE'S HAM YAM CASSEROLE

Contributed by Mrs. Horace Prunk

2 cups cubed cooked ham
2 cups cooked green beans
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
4 medium yams, cooked and peeled.
1/4 tsp. nutmeg
1/4 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. salt
1 Tbsp. butter

Combine ham, beans and soup. Turn into 1 1/2 quart casserole. Mash yams, beat until light. Fold in spices, salt and butter. Pile yam mixture over ham mixture. Bake 30-35 minutes 350 degree oven. Serves 6.

crossings, some day, for some unknown reason, one of them may run out in the street...

One Never Knows

And a car may be passing by just at that moment, going 10 miles or so above the school zone speed limit; the driver may be day-dreaming...

"I tell those kids and tell them to obey the Safety Boys. If they have their arms out, it's because a car is coming."

"I wish I could get through to the drivers, too: When you see an orange belt, RESPECT IT! The Safety Boys who wear those orange belts are good, faithful kids—they know what they're doing..."

So does Mrs. Deary.

When a driver runs a light at a school crossing, she sees red. When a six-year-old child returns to school after lunch with jelly smeared all over his face, announcing that his mother wasn't home so he got his own sandwich—she'd like to tell something to that mother!

Sometimes She Yells

When a boy puts his foot in the crosswalk before she gives the signal, or a girl tries to "half-ride" her bike across a street, (school rules call for all bikes to be walked across), Mrs. Deary yells out, loud and clear.

And still the kids love her; they know she's yelling not so much AT them as FOR them...

"I remember," she says, "when Gary's friends would come up to him in school and say, 'Boy, did your mother holler at me today?' You know what he used to answer? 'Well, what did you do wrong?'"

Sometimes, Love must raise its voice.

This is being written on Monday, but it has to be said. And may not be pertinent by Thursday.

From the "poison pen" letters I received, some people who didn't read all of last week's column thought I was promoting Wallace. Heaven forbid!

I think Wallace's election would be a disaster because of the bitterness it would create in our country.

What I was trying to say was, that with the great and terrible problems facing us—we need LEADERSHIP and I would like to have seen Nixon and/or Humphrey come out for square for or against real issues—with the fervor of Wallace—rather than vague promises.

I am sure this country will survive any president, because the vast majority of us are decent, generous, and wonderful—but it won't be easy.
