

SCHOOL SAFETY PLAN ADOPTED

HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, November 28
YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO'S 22,000 public school students and their 900 teachers were released from classes yesterday for five weeks, due to lack of operating funds. The city's voters had been warned in October that unless a 12-mill increase was approved the schools would have to close. The millage proposal was voted on November 5 and defeated by 1,300 votes. This was the sixth millage defeat there since 1966.

Friday, November 29
TWENTY FAMILIES WERE evacuated from their homes in Marshall Township in Calhoun County, on Thanksgiving Day after an explosion of leaking underground gas demolished and burned down the $25,000 home of Raymond Kulick. Kulick was away from home at the time. Authorities feared that further explosions of the escaping dangerous natural gas might occur. The gas leak caused geysers of mud and water 20 feet high.

DESPITE THE RAIN 250,000 Detroiters viewed J. L. Hudson Company's 42nd Thanksgiving Day Parade. There were 20 floats, 12 bands, television stars, baseball heroes and larger-than-life animals.

Saturday, November 30
JOHN CORCORAN, PRESIDENT of Consolidation Coal Company at Monongah, W. Va., announced Friday that plans for sealing shut the Mannington No. 9 mine would begin immediately and that all hope for the trapped coal miners was gone. The mine was rocked by an explosion on November 20 while 99 men were on the job; 21 escaped to safety. There was never any contact from the surface with the trapped men.

VIETCONG ORDERED a new guerrilla and terrorist offensive against American and South Vietnamese units and officials. The order was issued in the name of the Vietcong military high command and beamed to South Vietnam by Radio Hanoi and monitored in Hong Kong.

Sunday, December 1
EMPLOYEES of New York's Consolidated Edison Company walked off their jobs at midnight Saturday, leaving electric and gas service for 9 million persons in the area in the hands of 4,000 supervisors. Company officials assured customers it would be able to maintain almost normal service to the five boroughs of New York City and the section of suburban Westchester County.

Monday, December 2
THE NATIONAL COMMISSION on Violence released a report Sunday charging that the Chicago street clashes during the Democratic National Convention turned into "what can only be called a police riot," for which Mayor Richard J. Daley must share the blame. An investigator's report filed with the commission stated that the city's police were working under "exceedingly provocative circumstances" in coping with thousands of anti-war demonstrators, but the weight of violence was overwhelmingly on the side of the police.

Tuesday, December 3
PRESIDENT-ELECT Richard M. Nixon named Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, 45, a professor of government at Harvard University, as his assistant for national security affairs, one of the vital posts in the Nixon administration. Kissinger is an advocate of firm resistance to communist expansion.

A GRAY WOODEN donkey, 18 inches tall and two feet long, part of the nativity scene at Northland Shopping Center, was stolen sometime between Thanksgiving evening and Friday morning. The donkey, purchased by the late Oscar Weber, was handcarved in the Bavarian village of Oberammergau. Richard Frey, vice-president and general manager of Northland said he would not press charges if the donkey is returned.

Santa Arrives in 'The Village' for Annual Visit

On hand to meet the Genial Gentleman the day after Thanksgiving were, left to right: AL WEED, president of the Grosse Pointe Commerce and Civic Association; City Manager TOM KRESSBACH and his daughter LISA. Santa's helicopter was grounded by fog and he had to complete his journey by car. He was greeted at the Neighborhood Club parking lot before being escorted to the Hospitality Center in Kercheval avenue, where he will be talking to his guests through the pre-Christmas season.

Septic Tank Subject of Club's Plea

Lochmoor Asks Waiver of Building Code to Eliminate High Sewer Installation Costs

Clarence E. Bessert, representing Lochmoor Club, appeared before the Woods Council on Monday, December 2, to request a waiver of the Grosse Pointe Woods-Building Code which prohibits the installation of a septic tank where a public sewer is available.

Mr. Bessert made this request in order that the three bedroom home, which is to be built on Lochmoor Club property for the caretaker, can be serviced by a septic tank because the nearest sewer is 660 feet from the proposed building.

Mr. Bessert had brought this matter to the attention of the Council on Monday, November 18, and at that time whether or not the City of Grosse Pointe Woods had an ordinance prohibiting or controlling the installation of septic tanks to service the proposed building was raised. No reference to such an ordinance could be found at the time.

However, further study by City attorney George B. Catlin revealed that the Plumbing Code of the City of Detroit, which has been adopted by the Woods, has provisions concerning installation of septic tanks. A section of the code provides that septic tanks may be installed.

Farms Council Okays Pay Raise for Election Staff; Will Receive $1.75 an Hour

Kirby Cites Long Hours Required of Workers in Recommendation of Hike; Survey Conducted by City Clerk Caputo

Farms election inspectors were granted a 25-cent an hour boost by the city council on Monday, December 2, raising the pay to $1.75 an hour, on election days.

The pay hike was recommended by Councilman William Kirby, who at the November 18 meeting, pointed out that the election workers are underpaid for the many hours they are on duty during elections and after the polls are closed.

In the national election held last month, he disclosed, some of the workers were on continuous duty for 21 hours.

The council authorized City Clerk Peter Caputo to conduct a check on salaries of the people employed during elections, which he submitted at Monday night's meeting.

Has Seven Precincts
In his report, the city clerk revealed that the Farms maintains seven precincts to accommodate 7,790 registered electors, with each of the precincts staffed by one chairman and four inspectors. The chairmen are required to attend an election class one week before an election, conducted by his office, Caputo said.

Chairmen are paid $7.50 for school time, and $1.50 an hour for duties performed on each election day, and inspectors receive $1.50 an hour.

An election duty day can run from 14 to 21 hours, depending on the type of election held, he said. A national election can turn out as much as 85 percent of the registered voters, whereas, a municipal election will average about 40 to 50 percent.

Are Time Consuming
One major time consuming factor is the matter of absentee ballots, Caputo pointed out. Approximately 6,300 votes were cast at the November 5 national election, of which about 1,145 were absentee ballots, a high number for a community the size of the Farms.

The city clerk informed the council that until two years ago the absentee ballots were registered on the voting machine by the inspectors, as provided by State statutes.

Now, he said, due to amendments of the statutes, inspectors are required to count these ballots and tally them on a separate form provided by the County clerk. This must be done after the polls are closed, and this has added a considerable amount of extra work for the inspectors, Caputo stated.

Chorus Gives Yule Concert This Sunday

Annual Event Scheduled to Begin at 3:30 in Parcels School Auditorium

Grosse Pointe Community Chorus presents its annual Christmas Concert Sunday, December 8, at 3:30 p.m. in Parcels School Auditorium, Mack avenue at Vernier road. In accordance with tradition, a wide variety of sacred and secular numbers will be performed, with particular emphasis on music of the Christmas season.

Among the selections will be Bethlehem Pilgrimage, composed especially for the Chorus in 1956 by Wilma Hutson. Other selections to be performed at Sunday's Concert are: 'Twas the Night Before Christmas—Clement Clark Moore, arranged by Harry Simeone; Somebody's Knockin' at Your Door—Joyce Barthelson; Rise Up Shepherd and Follies—Arr. by Roy Ringwald; Johnny Bring the Pine Tree In—Harold Abbey; Christmas Day—Gustav Holst; I Wish You a Merry Christmas—Arr. by H. R. Wilson; The Friendly Beasts—Arr. by Kenneth Downing; Break Forth O Beauteous Heavenly Light, Thee With Tender Care—From The Christmas Oratorio, J. S. Bach; Thou Must Leave Thy Lowly Dwelling—Richard Berlioz; The Sleigh—Richard Kountz, Arr. by Wallingford Riegger.

At the conclusion of the concert will be singing of traditional Christmas carols, with the audience participating. Tickets to the concert are available from chorus members or may be purchased at the door. Admission is $1.25 for adults and 50 cents for students. Adult tickets may also be purchased together with tickets to the Spring, 1969 Concert at a special combined price of $2 per set, a saving of 20 per cent.

Conductor of the Chorus is Richard B. Johns; Mrs. Sue Hughes is assistant conductor, and Jerry Hughes is accompanist. The Community Chorus was organized in 1953. Two concerts have been presented each year since its founding. Membership in the Chorus is open to anyone past high school age. The Chorus is co-sponsored by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education and the Board of Directors of the Chorus.

Chorus officers are James McMillan, president; James Bungard, vice-president; Miss Judith Hobbs, secretary, and Mrs. Reggie McMillan, treasurer.

Parents Oblivious To Pot Party Held By Their Daughter

Thinned-Out Group of 16 Youngsters Present When City Police Conduct Raid on St. Paul Avenue Home Following Tip

City police took a forward step last Saturday night, November 30, in the prevention of drug and marijuana usage by local teenagers, when they conducted a raid on a St. Paul avenue residence. Acting on information received from a reliable source, City Police Chief Andrew C. Teetaert contacted Judge Douglas L. Paterson and obtained a search warrant.

The Chief, along with Lt. Robert Van Tiem, Cpls. William Plumb, George Brackx, Patrolmen Richard Lanski, Virgil G. Beaupre and Dave Teolis, then presented the search warrant to parents of a 17-year-old girl, who was celebrating her birthday with friends.

16 Teenagers Present
When the police arrived at 11:25 p.m., 16 teenagers, three juveniles and 13 minors, were present. Police indicated that when the party was at its peak as many as 50 teenagers were present.

The girl's parents, who were at home, denied any knowledge of the presence of marijuana or narcotics on the premises.

In the search officers found several items relating to narcotics usage in the basement. They also found a set of hypodermic needles and several suspicious powders and seeds concealed in the television set of the 17-year-old's bedroom.

All those present were taken to the City station and their parents contacted. They were released pending completion of the examination of all suspicious materials found on the premises.

Marijuana Identified
The police laboratory did positively identify some of the material as marijuana. They are still conducting laboratory tests on the other suspicious matter. Chief Teetaert held the NEWS that he and his department are conducting an all-out war on the use of drugs in the community and added that he will not tolerate "pot parties" in the City of Grosse Pointe.

Names of those involved cannot be released until formal charges are made through the Wayne County Prosecutor's office.

Building Permit Request Refused

The City of Grosse Pointe Woods Council, acting as a Board of Appeals, denied Ronald R. Gilbert, 1697 Roslyn road, deviation and variance of the sideyard provisions of the zoning ordinance so as to permit him to erect a carport which would encroach upon the side yard requirements of the Zoning Ordinance.

The Board indicated that Mr. Gilbert could not show undue hardship.

BIKE DAMAGED
John Jeffrey, 16836 St. Paul, reported to City police on Friday, October 25, that sometime during the night of October 18, persons unknown entered the underground garage at his residence and damaged his 26" bicycle. Estimate of the damage was $18.

Convertible Conveys Santa When Fog Grounds 'Copter

Santa Claus proved last Friday in his trip to Grosse Pointe Village that he, like the Pony Express and the fabled Wells Fargo stagecoach, always comes through—even if he does have to make a quick change of transportation.

When the crowds that had filled the Village to the bursting point scanned the murky sky at 3 p.m. Friday, they saw no Santa and no helicopter.

Someone said jokingly, "The 'copter probably got fogged in somewhere." But it was no joke! That was exactly what had happened. As the waiting crowd learned a little later. But Santa arrived, thanks to the efforts of a rescue team that went to meet Santa and brought him to the Village's Christmastime heliport, the Neighborhood Club parking lot.

Compromise Reached on Trial Basis

Traffic Light, Guard Rail Being Substituted for Adult Guard Demanded by Parents

By James J. Njaim
News Staff Writer

The Farms council, at its regular meeting held on Monday, December 2, appeared reluctant to the proposed hiring of an adult school crossing guard for the Kercheval-Moross intersection, as requested by a number of concerned parents of Kerby School pupils. A compromise was arrived at, which seemed to appease the parents, at least for the present.

The council authorized the installation of a traffic signal light at the intersection of Moross and Beaupre, to be paid for by the Farms, although Moross road is a country thoroughfare; the installation of a solid metal railing, as opposed to a chain type, between the sidewalk and street, in front of St. Paul Cemetery, on Moross, from Country Club drive to the end of the cemetery line; and a designated route outlined, which the Kerby School pupils should follow.

Mayor William Butler asked that the suggested safety reforms be on a trial basis, for about three months, or at least a reasonable period, to determine if this will be a solution. Police Officer F. R. Roh, and Sgt. Arnold Parsons, school safety officer, who were present at the meeting, assured the council and the parents that adequate signs will be erected to alert motorists to the school crossings and that there is a traffic light at the Moross-Beaupre intersection. A continual survey will be conducted to determine the effectiveness of these safety features, and enforcement will be stepped up, they added.

Quoted Mayor Butler, during this phase of the meeting, "Contrary to a printed story in the November 21 issue of the GROSSE POINTE NEWS, we ARE concerned with the safety of our children."

He apparently referred to the lead story, headlined "Farms Ignores Safety Pleas," with a story brought to the NEWS' attention that several parents had been trying without success to have their request for a school crossing guard at the Kercheval-Moross intersection, replace the safety patrolboys, still on duty there.

Both Kerby School Principal Custer Homeier and Arthur Gibson, AAA manager of Highway and Traffic Engineering, who recently conducted a survey of the problem, felt fifth graders are too young to handle this crossing.

Gibson's survey report, a copy of which was sent to Chief Roh, recommended that an adult guard be trained by the Police Department and operate under its jurisdiction, to control crossings. Gibson also made an alternate survey, but still preferred a guard, the chief stated.

The chief disclosed that since 1954, there was only one non-injury accident at this intersection, when a boy cyclist was hit by a car, and this did not even happen during school hours.

Mr. Homeier has extended the patrol boys' duty at this crossing at least three times, hoping that a crossing guard would be appointed.

The mayor said that he was opposed to a crossing guard, except as a last resort, although, if one is absolutely necessary, he would vote in favor of this.

Calls for Cooperation
He pointed out that the safety of school children is not solely the problem of the city, but also the problem of the parents, and the schools. All must work together in this regard, he added. Mrs. Edward E. Donaldson, who spearheaded the proposed assignment of an adult guard, to replace the safety patrolboys, and who was the spokesman for the parents, gave a number of guards hired by the Park, City and Woods, and their duties and the annual costs involved. Each thorities, and on Sunday, December 1, went to the Farms station to surrender for questioning and investigation.

The three teens told Glanert that they knew several persons had been sitting on the car, owned by the parents of the driver, but thought all had gotten off when the car started up. A sudden start was blamed for throwing Cynthia to the pavement. In the fall she suffered a skull fracture.

The driver of the vehicle never stopped, leading to the belief that he was not aware that Cynthia had been hurt.

Glanert said that the matter is still under investigation, and that witnesses will be recalled to give their statements and to be questioned.

The results of the investigation will determine whether or not charges will be made against the young driver, Glanert said. In the meantime, the reward offer has been cancelled.

Det. Glanert said on Tuesday, December 3, that an application for petition has been filed with Juvenile Court authorities, and all information pertaining to the case was given to them.

The detective said that the Juvenile Court authorities will review the matter and will determine if charges should be filed against the three teenagers.

rounded Santa at the parking lot, while others formed a long double line down Kercheval avenue from the front door of the Hospitality Center to await their turn to tell him their Christmas wishes. More than two hundred filed in during the remaining hour to make their requests for ponies, dolls, trains, etc., to confide that "my sister has been good all year, too," and to receive a candy cane from Santa.

Throughout the remainder of the holiday season, Santa will be in the Hospitality Center, 16906 Kercheval, from 1:30 to 4:30 daily, to meet his friends. On Saturday afternoons, also from 1:30 to 4:30, he will be at Jacobson's.

The Village has become a favorite meeting place for Santa and his friends, with the crowds last Friday surpassing all previous years. One visitor was heard to remark, "I came extra early and still had to park farther away than last year. The parking lots were filled to overflowing and the stores so full of people you wondered where they all came from, besides the crowd that was outside waiting for Santa."

community pays its guards six dollars a day, plus supplying uniforms and training.

She pointed out that the Shores, since it has no schools, of course, has no need for crossing guards. The annual salary for each guard amounts to approximately $1,800.

Mayor Given Reasons

Mayor Butler stated that one reason he is opposed to crossing guards in the Farms is that they have to be trained and uniformed, and that for each guard, a substitute must be available in the event the guard cannot assume his or her duty station, or if the substitute is unable to take the crossing, a police officer must be taken off his beat to perform this duty. Too, if one is hired, then demands will be made for guards at other school crossings.

He suggested, with the approval of the council, that the proposed safety reforms be tried, to see if this will solve the problem.

The council, with the approval of Chief Roh, also approved a suggested route outlined by Councilman Mark Stevens, for the total of 28 Kerby School children living a distance from the school. The route, which it is hoped that the parents will instill in the minds of their offspring, is as follows:

The eight children living south of Kercheval and east of Moross, should walk on Kercheval to Kerby, and down Kerby to the school; the 20 living east of Moross and north of Kercheval, should either walk on Lakeview or Moross, with those walking on Lakeview turning on Country Club Lane to Moross, walk on Moross to Beaupre, turn on Beaupre to Kerby, to get to the school.

City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., at the request of the council, said that the guard railing will be installed immediately in front of the cemetery, and that the Moross-Beaupre light will be requested of the county, with the hope that it will be erected sometime this month, or possibly after the holidays.

Church Offering Christmas Play

The public is invited to attend "The Coming of Christ" on Sunday, December 8 at Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church, 211 Moross road. This choral and dramatic presentation celebrating the opening of the Advent season will be given at 5:30 and 8:00 p.m. "The Coming of Christ" was written by the late John Masefield, poet Laureate of England, with music by Gustav Holst. The original staging was on the great levels of the chancel steps in Canterbury Cathedral.

The first movement consists of four divine spirits or angels who seek to persuade the spirit of Christ not to take man's body and go to earth. The next movement presents the coming of the Wise Men and the Shepherds to Bethlehem. The play reaches its climax with Mary and the Child in the stable, the three kings offering their royal gifts, the wondering shepherds their humble ones, and the choir singing its angelic welcome.

Mrs. Robert Sutton, of Hamilton court, will direct the Chancel and high school choirs and Mrs. Charles Sortor, St. Clair Shores, assisted by Reverend Perry A. Thomas, will direct the players.

The cast is composed of Herbert Smith, Fairford road; Paul Pierron, St. Clair Shores; Mrs. Robert McGee, Wedgewood drive; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Moin, St. Clair Shores; Charles Stone, Nottingham road; William Montgomery, Washington road; Neil Tuttle, Oxford road; Miss Lynn Thompson, Grayton road; Allen Hoffman, Hampton road; Jerry Croy, St. Clair Shores; David Ellis, Newcastle road.

Trumpeters are: Steve Reed, of Vernier road, and Bob Guske, of E. Emory.

Okay Secretary To Help Police

The Farms Police Department's petition for the hiring of a part-time secretary to help alleviate most of the paper work now being done by police personnel, was approved by the Farms council on Monday, December 2.

The request for a civilian part-time employee for the department was made by Police Chief Jack Roh, and recommended by City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., who said that the employee will work approximately 20 hours a week. The amount of $2,500 has been budgeted for this purpose, the city manager added.

He asked the council to establish the position and to authorize a beginning pay of $2.79 an hour; after six months, $2.93 an hour; one year, $3.03; 18 months, $3.13; and two years, a maximum of $3.21 an hour. The establishment of the position and the pay rate was unanimously passed by the council.

The police chief said that the work load of the Police Department has made it necessary to have the assistance of a secretary.

He said that the constant increase in reports, many of which have been brought about since 1966, court work, correspondence from both the Office of Chief of Police and Detective Bureau and the Municipal Court, and the maintaining of proper files, has added much over-time work to the officers of these bureaus.

With the assistance of a civilian employee, the over-time can be discontinued and officers would have more time for follow-up work on criminal investigations, and would increase the efficiency of the operation of the Police Department.

Roh said that the secretary would work out of his office, and would be under his direct control. Her duties would be varied, with work being done mainly for his office and that of the Detective Bureau.

The chief said that her past history in the field of being a legal secretary would add much to the efficiency of his department.

Septic Tank

(Continued from Page 1) stalled only where no public sewer is available and further provides when facilities for public sewerage lines are made available which either abut the property or are made available through the granting of an easement or right of way through adjoining property, such use of septic tanks shall be discontinued.

Mr. Catlin advised that since authority to deviate from these provisions does not exist, an amendment to the City ordinances would be required.

The Council discussed the matter and turned it over to the Committee-of-the-Whole for further study.

Mr. Catlin was asked to prepare a proposed amendment for the Council's approval.

Mr. Bessert indicated that the Club wishes to install a septic tank because of the extreme expense of sewer installation. He indicated that estimates received by the Club for sewer installation were as high as $10,000 as compared to $1,000 for installation of a septic tank.

Christmas Carnival Opens At Cobo Hall on Dec. 14

When the doors to the 1968 Christmas Carnival open Saturday, December 14 at Cobo Hall, early visitors to the 7th annual City of Detroit show will walk into a wonderland of Christmas scenes reflecting the many moods of the holiday season.

"A 60-foot-long Nativity scene with life-size figures and live sheep will be the central feature of the show this year," said Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh, who established Christmas Carnival in 1962.

"This inspiring scene will be enhanced by dramatic 30-foot tall backdrops forming the stable and by special effect lighting and palm trees."

Every youngster can count on having an individual chat with Santa Claus in the Christmas Castle. Santa will be hearing requests up through Christmas Eve. After Christmas he will still be at the Carnival to greet young visitors and to take advance orders for next year. Every child will receive free candy and a comic book.

Christmas Carnival will be open free every day December 14 through December 29, except Christmas Day. The hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. with the exception of 6 p.m. closings on Christmas Eve and on the last day, December 29.

The show is planned by Detroit Parks and Recreation in cooperation with many organizations and businesses.

"One of the unique features of this show is the number of things a child can actually do here," Mayor Cavanagh said. "We have always worked to keep Christmas Carnival from becoming a 'look, don't touch' show."

Many new or expanded displays and activity areas have been added to this seventh annual Christmas Carnival. Among them are the three all-new playlands for youngsters to actively enjoy.

Two contain "bounce-on," "jump-on" animal figures mounted on large springs. The third has free-form sculptures that children will love to climb on and over.

These pieces of play equipment are a small preview of the equipment which will be placed on City of Detroit playgrounds next summer.

Back again to entertain visitors of all ages will be Oopsy, the Clown and Friends and two puppet troupes.

New displays include the Detroit Historical Museum's "Do You Remember" display where youngsters and their parents or teachers can try to match pictures of old-fashioned household items with their modern counterparts. A correct answer will bring a flashing light.

Another display will be the Dickens Village Street scene with street lamp lights and quaint shops with multi-paned windows. Inside the shops will be almost life-size figures of shoppers of yesteryear—in stove pipe hats and yards of mufflers.

The Detroit Public Library is coming into the Carnival this year with a brand new "walk-through" display called the "Book Worm." Here youngsters will see a series of Christmas scenes. As an added attraction, a free, specially selected children's book will be given away each hour to some lucky boy or girl.

The Detroit Institute of Art will bring in its "artmobile" and the Detroit Children's Zoo will contribute its "circus wagon" complete with many interesting animals.

Carnival Favorites include the 30-foot snowman slide which provides a challenging curving ride through the inside of the snowman. The double slide will have an attractive 16-foot-long "three Bears" facade. Youngsters will also enjoy the three "child-size" telephone booths where they can call direct to Santa's workshop and talk with one of his helpers.

Live animals from the Rouge Park Nature Center will be featured along the charming wintertime nature trail.

An animated life-size figure of Santa Claus will wave goodbye at the Christmas Carnival exit.

Halls A and B of Cobo Hall, Detroit's multi-million dollar convention facility, will be further transformed into a holiday setting by lighted Christmas trees and arrangements of snow drifts, peppermint sticks and stuffed animals and toys. On the ceiling will be new garlands and ornaments.

Christmas Carnival provides the perfect setting for photography. Carnival officials advise photographers to come equipped with battery-powered lights for movie cameras or flash units for still cameras.

Some displays may be photographed with available light, but many require artificial lighting.

Two concession areas are located in Christmas Carnival for refreshments and light snacks. An area also has been set aside for persons, particularly school groups, who wish to bring their lunches.

Library Offers Family Films

The special Christmas Family Film Night Program will be held at Central Library in the Exhibition Room on December 6, at 6:30 and 7:45 o'clock. This family film program has been especially planned to add to the excitement and enchantment of the Holiday Season and we hope families will attend.

Big People - Little People—Color—9 min. A fantasy in which children run the Big City, and then send for adults to take over the work. It isn't that running the city is too big a job for them, it's just that it doesn't leave much time to do and enjoy the things children do.

Christmas Visitor—Color—7 min. An animated cartoon of St. Nicholas' visit on Christmas Eve in which the music box, sailor, and jack-in-the-box join other toys in playing under the Christmas tree. Narration quotes opening and closing lines of "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

Jazzoo—18 min.—color. Photographed at the world-famous St. Louis Zoo, the film joins striking visual images and a lively, original jazz score to create a spectrum of moods, shapes and textures. Jazzoo is designed to capture the beauty, color and activities of a zoo in the early hours of a summer morning.

A Little Child—Color—15 min. The traditional Christmas story is here depicted in a refreshing manner—as a pageant given by a group of small children. It is sometimes very amusing, but always reverent and appealing.

The Grosse Pointe Public Library has Christmas records and tapes available for the holiday season; they are listed by title and composer in the general catalog in each building. Come in and look them over.

Officer Candidates Now Navy Ensigns

Navy Ensigns Stephen K. Fischer, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul P. Fischer of 410 Lakeland, and Richard H. Allison, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Allison of 39 Radnor circle, on graduation from Officer Candidate School at Newport, R. I., were commissioned ensigns in the United States Naval Reserve. Their academic program consisted of 565 hours of instruction on naval organization, tactics, naval engineering, seamanship, weapons, navigation, and related subjects.

The 16-year-old Naval Officer Candidate School at Newport is currently undergoing a building program scheduled for completion in 1973. The campus complex, with an addition of eight modern buildings, two drill fields, a small craft facility, a swimming pool and two gymnasiums, promises to be the most advanced facility of its kind in the Navy.

William Remick Fatally Burned

William P. Remick, son of the James A. Remicks of University, died on Thursday from burns suffered when fire swept through his apartment at 497 Prentiss on Sunday, November 24.

Remick, 21, had been in critical condition at the hospital since Sunday, November 24, with burns over 40 to 50 percent of his body. The Detroit Fire Department is currently investigating the cause of the fire which broke out at 3:30 a.m. Sunday. Firefighters worked 54 minutes to control the blaze.

Remick was graduated from Austin Preparatory School and attended Westminster College in Fulton, Mo.

He is survived by his parents; a brother, James Remick, of California; two sisters, Mrs. Peter B. Schreier, of Buffalo, N.Y.; Mrs. John W. Wessell; his grandmother, Mrs. William R. Post. He was the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jerome H. Remick.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, November 30, at St. Paul's on-the-Lake. Private interment was in Elmwood Cemetery. A Rosary was said on Friday, November 29, in the Chapel of The William R. Hamilton Company.

Memorial tributes may be sent to the Intensive Care Unit of Detroit General Hospital.

Habit is a cable; we weave a thread of it each day, and at last we cannot break it.

HONDA HELD
Ronald A. Smith, 17, of 3416 Anderson, Detroit, was issued a violation by City Police on Thursday, November 14, for speeding 40 mph in a 25 mile zone. Smith was driving a red ownership. Smith did not have Honda which was held at the registration for the cycle on his City station pending proof of person.

GIBB'S

World Wide Wines
Beer & Cigars

With the holidays close at hand, many festive occasions will be enjoyed at home, or at a friend's house, including dinners and luncheons where wines will be served with food. Many folks like wines but need help in buying and selecting the right wine for each food. It's not too hard, but if you are not sure and need help, we can help you. Our personnel have years of wine experience and enjoy helping and explaining what you will find in each different bottle and which wine to serve with different foods and dinners.

For chicken, turkey, veal, fish, ham, cheese and most white meats and sea foods we recommend dry whites like Chablis, Pinot-Chardonnay, White Bordeaux, Italian Soave, White Burgundy, Dry Champagne, German Rhines and Moselles, Swiss, Yugoslav-Riesling, and many fine generic and varietal white wines of California, plus those of New York State.

We have hundreds of these fine white, dry dinner wines, including semi-dry and semi-sweet dessert wines for after dinner and a little glass between meals and with friends. They are excellent with fruit, nuts, cakes and cookies.

For steaks, roast beef, hamburger, cheese, lamb, spaghetti and red meats, we recommend dry reds such as French Burgundy, Bordeaux, Beaujolais Rhine, etc. Also Italian reds, such as Chianti, Bardolino, Valpolicella, Barbera, Barolo, etc. California has a large variety of fine generic and varietal dry red dinner wines, such as Cabernet-Sauvignon, Pinot-Noir, Burgundy, Zinfandel, etc.

If you like wines for dinner, a good suggestion would be to have a mixed case of wines on hand to save you trips out in bad weather, and it costs less by the case, even if it is a mixed case (12 bottles) or more.

A good suggestion for your first mixed case would be from France - three dry red Bordeaux, one dry red Burgundy, one dry white Burgundy, one dry white Chablis, one Bordeaux sweet Sauterne white. From Italy: one Chianti red dry, one Valpolicella red dry. From Germany: one white semi-dry Mosel. From California: one red dry Pinot-Noir, one red dry Cabernet-Sauvignon. This recommended case would be all good wines.

The next case buy some of the ones you liked from the first case, leaving out the ones less desirable and replacing them with different. Save the labels, make notes on them. By buying mixed cases, more knowledge is gained. We have over 1500 of the world's greatest wines to select from. At Gibbs World-Wide Wines our wines are selected, tasted and recorded. We order only the best the second time.

Ferry Speaks About New Book

W. Hawkins Ferry, author of "The Buildings of Detroit: A History," spoke to friends of the Detroit Public Library and guests Wednesday, December 4. He used 50 of the pictures in the book to illustrate his talk.

The architectural history, published by Wayne State University Press, was in preparation for more than two decades. It spans the history of Detroit buildings from the cabins of the fur trade to the "Grosse Pointe and Bloomfield residences of motor magnates."

Mr. Ferry, of Lakeshore road, is the grandson of Dexter Mason Ferry, a founder of Gardner, Ferry and Church in 1856, which became D. M. Ferry and Company in 1879 and, following a 1930 merger, the Ferry-Morse Seed Company.

He was educated at the Grosse Pointe University School, at Cranbrook, and at Harvard University, where he did graduate work at the School of Design. He has worked as an architectural designer, and as an instructor in art and in architectural and industrial design at Wayne State University.

Mr. Ferry is an honorary curator of architecture, chairman of the Friends of Modern Art, and Trustee of the Founders Society at the Detroit Institute of Arts. He has been a member of Friends of the Detroit Public Library for 20 years.

PTA at Maire Offers Films

The final presentation in the two-part educational program sponsored by the PTA of Maire Elementary School, 740 Cadieux, is scheduled for 7:45 p.m. on Wednesday, December 11.

The audience will view two thought-provoking contemporary educational films followed by a discussion of them by members of the professional staff of The Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Panelists include Dr. William P. Sosnowsky, chief psychologist and moderator of the program series, as well as Mrs. Lynn Adams, school social worker. Others are Miss Nancy Hogan, sixth grade teacher at Pierce Middle School and Miss Helen Zissis, second grade teacher at Maire.

The films to which they will react are "Schools and Delinquency" and "The Teacher as a Social Animal."

The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting free of charge.

MAN INJURED

Irene Smith, 867 Neff, called City police on Tuesday, October 29, to report a friend, Walter Hakim, 66, of 767 St. Clair was visiting and fell down the basement stairs. Officers, Virgil Beaupre and Richard Lanskil took Mr. Hakim to Cottage Hospital for treatment to his injured legs.

Auto Show Now on in Cobo Hall

The chairman of the 1968 Detroit Auto Show predicted that a new attendance record would be set at this year's show which opened Saturday, November 30 at Cobo Hall for a nine-day run.

Harry Tennyson, serving as chairman of the Auto Show Committee for the fourth straight year, based his record-breaking forecast on "the tremendous increase in advance ticket sales and the assurance of full support this year from all media."

He made his prediction at the traditional Auto Show preview luncheon for newsmen. Tennyson said he and his seven-man show committee are confident that "1968 attendance will hit about 300,000," a 19 percent increase over the previous record of 253,000 set last year.

In addition to being one of the nation's largest, this year's show is the most exciting, he said. "There's something for everyone."

Exhibited will be 300 of the latest model cars, domestic and import, sport and recreational vehicles and way-out kookie and futuristic cars.

There will be twice-daily stage shows (at 4 and 8 p.m.) featuring organist Denny McLain and singer Mickey Lolich, plus Bob Durant and his orchestra, singer-comedian Paul Lennon, and ventriloquist Jimmy Nelson.

And noted personalities such as "Indy 500" winner Bobby Unser and runnerup Dan Gurney, golfers Arnold Palmer and Byron Nelson, Miss America, the Dodge Fever Girl, Miss American Teen-Ager, Miss Firebird, and members of the Detroit Lions and Tigers will make show appearances.

Tennyson said the record attendance projection is based primarily on advance ticket sales which as of today represent a 440% increase over the same period last year. Advance tickets are available through November 29 at $1 at all Sears and Hudson's stores in Metropolitan Detroit. The box office price jumps to $1.50 when the show opens.

"In addition," Tennyson said, "Sears is giving away free a 2'x3' four-color poster of the Detroit Tiger team with every purchase of an adult advance ticket."

Mom Finds Back-to-School Night Exciting, Exhausting

By Pepper Whitclaw

I've just been to "Back To School Night" . . . or "School On Schedule" . . . or "Don't Embarrass Me, Mom, Night." For the unenlightened, that's the night parents become acquainted with the teachers their children have been psychoanalyzing since the day school opened.

Since this was my third year at the game, I felt like an old hand. After all, I didn't spend two years going to "Back To Schools" at the Junior High, (oops—Middle School), without gaining some insight into how a mother conducts herself in the classroom. But this year I was in the big leagues . . . the high school . . . Grosse Pointe South High School.

I hadn't visited two classrooms before I regretted ignoring the little footnote at the bottom of the parents' fact sheet reminding mothers to wear walking shoes. (When I read it I took it as a personal insult and wore my regular shoes to prove a point. . . this was my first mistake.)

The Second Mistake
My second mistake was assuming that once inside the building I wouldn't need my coat. Unfortunately, my son's schedule is a cross between the 100-yard dash and a test of one's ability to endure the chill winds of winter. As soon as I got the message, which I am ashamed to admit was after walking to and from the annex, up fire escapes and around buildings a couple of times, I buttoned up and was on my way. It was tough enough to get my legs moving quickly enough to reach each class on time, but with numb, cold feet, it was next to impossible.

Besides suffering from cold feet, I was suffering from the not so pleasant memory of a few years back when I attended math and science classes and was confronted with problems and theories completely incomprehensible to me, so you can see what shape I was in when I entered the math room. My math teacher for the evening was pleasantly a petite blond (young enough to be a child of mine) who wisely, after "easing" the group, steered clear of any complicated explanations and merely discussed the course simply and thoroughly.

Jarring Signal System
Differing from the Middle School, the High School has no pleasant voice reminding you to move on to the next class. Instead it has an alarming no-nonsense bell which jared the jangled nerves of middle-aged students and had us waiting at the post for the starting bell. When it rang we were off and running, determined to keep our promises to our youngsters of not embarrassing them by barging into the classrooms out of breath and late. Late, I wasn't . . . out of breath I couldn't help!

Groping my way to the science class I was greeted by a young man who explained that his was a lab course. He also mentioned that often he discusses current problems with the students and added that they had been discussing the hazards of cigaret smoking.

Subject Was Smoking
My whole attitude toward the young gentleman changed quickly . . . for he was at least in part responsible for the continuous derogatory remarks I had been receiving of late regarding my foul habit of cigaret smoking . . . all of which are perfectly logical, but being rather illogical and addicted as well, I resisted even contemplating giving up my evil little pleasure.

The bell again and off . . . this time to English class. Since English has always been my favorite subject, I hurriedly located a smiling guide and had him point my nose in the direction of the classroom. Here I found a young instructor whose approach and outlook were delightful. The bell found me clinging to my seat. This was my third mistake . . . for my next class was a considerable distance away and it was pretty difficult to look calm and collected while huffing and puffing.

One Has To Know

In this next class especially I wanted to look as if I had my wits about me, because I had been told that here in Civics you don't speak unless you know what you're talking about. Naturally, after finding my seat, I remained silent.

A meticulously dressed man with an interest in his students that was incredible, handed each of us a course outline, part of which was devoted to "critical thinking." I'd never seen this included in any Civics course and was both delighted and awed.

The now familiar reminder of still another class interrupted a discussion I would have liked to continue.

My next class was gym. Need I add I wasn't ready for it? Looking as if I had just flunked the President's Committee's Course in physical fitness, I staggered into my seat and listened while a team of athletic men discussed a program that was even too strenuous for me to listen to at this stage! But if I had been a high school boy, I would have been thrilled with the offerings.

An Untimely Giggle

From gym to the art class; all types of art forms were beautifully displayed. The instructor did mention that some students waste time that they could be putting to good use. Unfortunately I couldn't suppress a guilty giggle, since it was that very morning that my son informed me his grade wasn't going to be as good as he had expected because of his citizenship. (After that loud giggle I'm convinced the teacher thought poor citizenship was an hereditary factor.)

With the closing bell I made my way to the gym and that promised cup of coffee. This year, as in past years, I had to wait 'til school's end before I could take advantage of the coffee offer.

"Come in on your child's study hall and have a cup of coffee."

You guessed it . . . my son's a ninth grader and doesn't have a study period . . . but that's the way the whole evening went.

As I was leaving the building I had a horrible thought . . . next year when the old school bell rings I'll have two schedules to follow AND be one year older!

REPORTS THEFT

Judith DuRoss of 1628 Severn complained to Woods police on Friday, October 25, that an unknown person entered the garage on her property and removed a start-kicker ignition key from a Honda motorcycle stored there. Also taken was the cycle's battery and a woman's helmet. The horn rim of the machine was dented by the thief, she added.

Life is full of ups and downs —and folks are handed considerably more downs than ups. If a man has good points or bad points adversity will bring out his true colors.

December 2 to 8 Leader Dog Week

Governor George Romney has proclaimed December 2 through December 8, Leader Dog Week. During this week attention is called to the important rehabilitation program being conducted at the Rochester, Mich., Leader Dog School.

The non-profit school, Leader Dogs for the Blind, was founded in 1939 by Lions of Michigan and has since trained some 2,600 Leader Dog "teams" (Leader Dog and blind person). Leader Dogs are furnished, without charge, to all eligible applicants.

A Leader Dog enables its owner to enter fully, despite a handicap, into the life of the community and to live an active and contributive life of his own. Lions arrange the enrollment of every eligible person who expresses an interest in obtaining a Leader Dog. Lions sponsor projects that are largely responsible for the success and growth of the unique school that provides happiness and confidence to blind men and women.

In addition to furnishing operating funds, Lions are always on the lookout for good, friendly German Shepherds, Labrador and Golden Retrievers, ages one or two years, for the Leader Dog training program. All dogs are contributed; none are purchased.

The Grosse Pointe Lions Club will present a check for $500 to the Leader Dog School at a meeting of the Eastside Lions Clubs on Wednesday, December 4, at the Whittier Hotel.

Dr. Theodore Binkowski, president of the Grosse Pointe Lions Club, asks anyone knowing of a blind person interested in obtaining a Leader Dog to call him at TUxedo 6-0051 or write him at 1608 Hampton road, Grosse Pointe Woods, Mich., 48236.

Anyone interested in contributing a potential Leader Dog should write in care of Leader Dogs for the Blind, Rochester, Mich., 48063.

Motorist Accused Of Drunk Driving

James R. Keller, 45, of 35950 Six Mile road, Livonia, was arrested by Shores' police on Wednesday, November 27, and charged with violation of the State Drunk Motor Law.

Patrolman Ronald Forth, who made the arrest, said that he was on routine patrol on Lake Shore road, when he observed a car approaching his police car at what appeared to be a high rate of speed, traveling north.

As the vehicle pulled alongside of the scout car at Moorland, Forth said, the driver, Keller, stepped hard on the gas pedal and took off at a still higher speed. The policeman said he gave chase and paced Keller at more than 75 miles an hour.

Keller was stopped at the Milk River, where the officer requested the man's operator's license and car registration. The motorist produced the required documents.

Forth said that he noticed Keller's eyes were glassy and that there was a strong odor of alcohol on the man's breath, and ordered the man out of the car. Keller could barely stand, the patrolman said.

Keller consented to taking a breathalyzer test, which was done at the Woods station. The motorist failed two such tests, and was taken back to the Shores station, where he was issued a violation ticket for driving while under the influence of liquor.

He was released after posting bond of $150. His court date is December 11.

MR. HUMIDIFIER

"How Dry I Am!"

by
ROBERT A. "Doc" WILLIAMS

Remember the little musical toys of the obviously intoxicated man that whistled "How Dry I Am" when the proper machinery was put in operation? Well, we have a feeling, if your house could whistle, that it would be whistling the same tune during the next few months.

January, February and March are the months where the need for proper humidity control is needed in your home. You might say that your house has undergone a "drying out" process before this time that added it of the humidity content it builds up during the more humid months of the year. During these months, conditions can become very dry.

The villain is artificial heating. It robs the air in doors of its natural moisture content, and then goes about stealing moisture from everything thirsty dry air contacts your furnishings, plaster, rugs, drapes, and even the human body. Relative humidity conditions become so low, that readings lower than that of the Sahara Desert are not uncommon. Even the glue in furniture joints dries out and falls away. Plaster cracks and becomes brittle; and your furnishings lose their fresh, new look.

Your health may suffer, too. Colds and respiratory infections can become a problem because of lack of moisture. The mucous membranes in the nose and throat have become a natural resistance to infection when they are moist; but lose much of their effectiveness when dry air prevails.

The answer to dispelling dry air is the Carrier humidifier; installed right on your present furnace system to raise relative humidity levels with its supply of soothing moisture. The Carrier has the capacity to provide more than enough moisture indoors 24 hours a day. And it has a drain that carries away harmful mineral deposits that are found in water. A humidistat in your living quarters allows you to set the desired humidity level you want.

How about your furnace? About seen its days and you're ready for a new one? Why not look into the purchase of a new Carrier furnace from Williams? Furnaces are noted for their long life, outstanding performances and lower fuel bills. There are 10, 20, and 25 year warranty models available that we can custom fit to your home. A free survey of your home is available at no obligation.

For information on the Carrier humidifier or Carrier furnace, call 372-5500. For a FREE HUMIDIFIER KIT explaining humidifiers, their costs, types and methods of operation, call "Doc" Williams at 372-5500. Williams Refrigeration and Heating.

DR. PAUL B. RICKARD
A memorial service for Dr. Rickard, 58, formerly of 900 Crescent avenue, more recently of Mount Clemens, will be held today, Thursday, December 5, at 11 o'clock, in the Chapel of Flowers at the White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, 621 W. Long Lake road, Troy.

Dr. Rickard, Wayne State University's first director of Radio and Television, died Saturday night, November 30, of a blood ailment at the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, in Miami, Fla. He was on sabbatical leave from the University.

Dr. Rickard is survived by his wife, Florence; two brothers, James W. of Detroit, and John B., of Toledo; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Davis, of Chicago, Ill.

A member of the WSU faculty since 1937, Dr. Rickard was named director of Radio and Television in 1947 serving in that capacity until 1963. He continued as a professor in the Department of Speech.

Born in Owensboro, Ky., Dr. Rickard was graduated from Mackenzie High School in 1934. He received his BA degree in 1937 and his MA degree in 1939, both from WSU. He earned his Ph.D. degree from Northwestern University in 1946.

Prior to joining WSU, Dr. Rickard was active in the field of radio in Detroit as an announcer and newscaster. He served with the U.S. Marine Corps from 1942-46 and retained a commission as Lt. Colonel in the Marine Reserve.

Dr. Rickard was formerly executive secretary of the Detroit Educational Television Foundation and was appointed by the Speech Association of America to chair its first committee created in 1947 to study problems in educational television.

In 1951, he was named chairman of a new WSU Television Activities Committee.

Dr. Rickard was a member of the Mayor's Inter-racial Committee of Detroit and the Mayor's United Nations Committee.

Bodkin Daughter Perishes in Fire

Nancy Maxwell Hall, 33, daughter of the Edwin O. Bodkins, of Trombley road, died in a fire in her Haverford, Pa., home on Sunday, December 1. A neighbor, Ellen Fallon, was awakened by her dog barking around 11:14 p.m., noticed the fire, and immediately called the fire department. Bryn Mawr and Ardmore departments responded.

Two firemen, Joseph Nagel and Larry Kelly, entered the house and found Mrs. Hall on the floor of the living room badly burned. She had apparently died of asphyxiation. They ran upstairs to the second floor and rescued Mrs. Hall's two sons, Jonathan 2, and Cameron 7. When the firemen got to the boys, Jonathan was no longer breathing. He was revived by Jack Dolan, an Ardmore electrician. Cameron was given artificial respiration by a pre-medical student, who was passing by the residence at the time of the fire. Both boys were rushed to a nearby hospital. Firefighters indicated that most of the house was intact and damage was confined to living room furniture, and smoke and water damage.

Mrs. Hall's funeral services were held on Tuesday, December 3, in St. Asaph's Episcopal Church in Bala Cynwyd, Pa.

St. Paul Drama Club Is Winner

St. Paul High School's Drama Club has what it takes. They proved it on Sunday, November 17, at the Gonesian Drama Festival Competition.

Bright and early the cast and crew of the play "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" set out for Benedictine High. They returned with a first place medal for their division.

On Sunday, November 24, they joined four other winning schools from various districts at Rosary High School. There they received an excellent rating from the judges. To add to their winning streak Sue Sendlebach earned the best actress gold medal for her lead role as Mrs. Dowey and Bob Hurley earned a bronze medal for his role as Kenneth Dowe.

Other members of the play include Helen Rabaut, Anne Walsh and Kris Morris, the charwomen; Doug Mac Eachern, Rev. Willings, and Bob Martin, narrator.

Church Offers Advent Music

The Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church at 19950 Mack avenue, at both the 9 a.m. and 11:10 services, Sunday, December 15, will present an Advent Service of Worship through Music.

The "Gloria," by Francis Poulenc, will be sung by the Chancel Choir under the direction of Richard B. Johns, Choirmaster, assisted by a 25-piece orchestra of selected musicians from Grosse Pointe High School South and several adult members of the Church.

Russell Reed, Director of Instrumental Music at the High School, has trained the orchestra. Soprano soloists for the presentation are Mrs. Earl Nelson, Mrs. Richard Johnson, and rs. Douglas West, all members of the choir; and Mrs. Joseph Shaheen, Mrs. Robert Updyke and James Tepe, members of the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, will augment the group for this occasion.

Faces Charges Following Crash

City police apprehended and charged William H. Rieman, Jr., of 1010 Whittier, with leaving the scene of a property damage accident and as a disorderly person on Wednesday, November 27.

On that date Rieman was driving a white Cadillac with rear end damage that was said to have been involved in a hit and run accident earlier in the day.

The accident occurred when the driver of a white Cadillac, which was traveling west on Kercheval, made a left turn south in front of a car driven by Jerome W. Kohl, 1337 Wayburn. The driver of the Cadillac made no signal. He then fled the scene, dropping his left taillight and a chrome case for the light into the street.

Kohl's car had to be towed from the scene. Upon his apprehension at St. Paul and Lakeland Rieman denied having been involved in the accident.

Edmund Benthuyts, City patrolman, took the taillight to the scene of the accident where it was found to fit Rieman's '57 Cadillac. Rieman was informed of his rights and taken to the City police station, where he once again was informed of his rights. He was asked if he had been involved in the accident and once again denied any knowledge of it. He told police the car had been damaged for over a year.

Rieman was released on $50 bond pending a court appearance December 10.

Hopp-Wardlaw Troth Revealed

Plans for an April 19 wedding are being made by Karen Grace Wardlaw and David Emerson Hopp, Jr., whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mrs. O. H. McDonald, of Detroit, and George L. Wardlaw, of East Detroit.

The bride-elect was graduated from Wayne State University. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Hopp, of University place, was graduated from Western Michigan University.

Methodists Plan Mission School

Under the leadership of Charles Fine of 1762 Bourne-mouth, the members of the Commission on Missions and Christian Social Concerns of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church have begun preparations for a School of Mission.

Structured for all members of the family, the school will concentrate its studies on the countries of Southeast Asia. It will be presented during the four Sundays in January.

On Thursday, November 21, members of the staff met to evaluate materials and finalize the working time schedule. Present at the meeting were Rev. Perry A. Thomas, minister; Mrs. Evelyn Griffith, school chairman; Mrs. Wilson Moin, program co-ordinator; Mrs. Dale Naturkas, first and second grade leader; Mrs. Helen Smart, publicity and third and fourth grade leader; Miss Mary Lu Eyster, fifth and sixth grades; John Chosy, leader for youth groups.

Others on the staff include Dr. Peter Beckett, adult leader, and Mrs. Edward Brooks, in charge of the nursery.

Stores Visited By Shoplifters

While cruising on Notre Dame and Kercheval on Saturday, November 30, City patrolmen Edward Miller was stopped and informed that several boys had stolen burglar alarms from the Kresge store at 17101 Kercheval.

Officer Miller and his informants went to the store and confirmed the information. An employee, Mrs. Mary Jeffrey and assistant manager William Dauble, told Miller they had placed six of these radar burglar alarms valued at 93 cents each near the check-out counter at 10:45 and that at noon all six were gone and that the check-out girls had not recorded one sale of these items.

Officer Miller located the boys involved, all of whom were juveniles. Four of the boys were charged with larceny from a store and two were charged as accessories. Their parents were notified and they were released with warnings. All alarms were returned or paid for by the youths.

One of the boys also admitted stealing two batteries from the Revco Store and a bottle of Vicks VapoRub from the Kroger store, both on Kercheval.

Police Capture Elusive Canine

"Girly" the Park's wandering, pregnant German Shepherd dog, who has had residents, the police department, and the Anti-Cruelty Association attempting to apprehend her and find her a good permanent home that she'd stay in, has left Grosse Pointe Park.

Being a free soul took its toll on "Girly." Her disposition changed a while back and she began attacking other animals... nearly killing another dog. Then the Park police began receiving complaints about her attacking children. Something had to be done for both her sake and for the sake of residents. The police had been making a continuous effort to apprehend "Girly" and find her a good home but now her wanderings and actions had become a matter of public safety.

Then 10 days ago, "Girly" was spotted between the Park and Detroit... both police departments worked together to apprehend her. She was turned then over to the Humane Society.

Park Imposes Parking Change

New on-street parking controls have been applied to the south side of Mack avenue, during the rush hours, it was disclosed by Park Director of Public Safety William Ellen-burg, on Monday, December 2.

A letter signed by the director, and sent to all Park merchants from Somerset to Cadieux roads, explained that the changes have been brought about as a result of extensive surveys by the Park Police Department and the Wayne County Road Commission.

The director stated that the changes have been made necessary because of the increased traffic flow and accident rate on Mack avenue, and will remain in force until this section of Mack can be widened. The regulations are as follows:

1. Existing metered areas and the all day areas may be utilized from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

2. Signs, with the legend "No Parking, No Standing, 3 p.m. to 7 p.m." will be placed along the entire south side of Mack, from Somerset to Cadieux.

3. Metered areas in this area may NOT be used during the period from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m.; and

4. Officers of this department (Park) shall be instructed to enforce these regulations immediately following installation.

Ellenburg said that the north, or Detroit side of the avenue, is of course, under the control of the Detroit authorities, and whether they will follow suit depends on them.

Men Gardeners Hold Election

A new staff of officers, headed by William Nill of East Detroit as president, will conduct affairs of Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe during 1969.

Replacing Mr. Nill as first vice president, and in charge of visiting speakers' programs, will be Clifford C. Currie. Charles C. Cooke succeeds Hugh V. Foley as second vice-president in charge of the club's school garden program. Mr. Foley declined re-election.

Other officers chosen are: Forest L. Geary, recording secretary; James G. D'Alessandro, corresponding secretary; Stanley R. Remus, treasurer; and Kenneth R. McKenzie, David T. Sickelsteel, Joseph Leonard and Robert Downie, directors.

REPORTS THEFT

Harry Altman of 1761 Broadstone, complained to Woods police on Sunday, October 20, that someone entered his garage, and stole his brand new rotary lawn mower. He said he discovered the garage door open, and on investigation found the mower gone. The machine is valued at $100.

Woman Injured In LS Accident

June Lois Girardi of 75 Crestwood, suffered severe facial injuries, when she lost control of her car and crashed into an Edison pole in Lake Shore road, on Thursday, November 28.

Shores Patrolmen Daniel Healy and Donald Lupro, who were dispatched to the accident scene, in front of 1040 Lake Shores, said that the woman was traveling north on the road, when she lost control. Her vehicle struck the pole, and then skidded approximately 60 feet before coming to a stop.

Mrs. Girardi was bleeding from severe lacerations about the face and head, and was conveyed to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of the injuries. There was no evidence to indicate that the woman had been speeding, the officers said.

The entire front end of Mrs. Girardi's automobile was completely caved in, and the vehicle had to be towed to a service station.

The accident report indicated that no violation ticket was issued.

PTA at Mason Meets Tuesday

The Mason School PTA will meet on Tuesday, December 10, at 7:30 o'clock.

Parents will have a 30-minute room visitation period after which they and the teachers will assemble in the auditorium for a short business meeting.

and to Martin Trombley, member of the Public Safety Department, speak on the growing use of narcotics in the community. A question and answer period will follow.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

School Board Meets Dec. 9

The regular monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, December 9, in the gymnasium of Monteith School, 1275 Cook road.

Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, president, will conduct the meeting. Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, will present his recommendations for the trustees' action.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Busy Schedule For Ski Hi Club

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Ski Hi Club for Senior High students in grades 9-12 (membership $3 per year), opens the season with a twinnight ski trip to Mt. Holly on Friday, December 13 from 4 to 11 p.m. Charter bus, tongs and chaperone will cost $5.

Christmas night, December 25, at 8 p.m. 40 lucky Ski Hiers will leave for 10 days skiing at Vail, Col., through January 4, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. McBride, Jr. Cost of $199 includes round trip jet air fare from Detroit to Denver, charter bus transportation up to Vail lodging at Holiday Inn and chaperonage. Tows and meals are extra. As of this writing, one place remains open.

December 26-December 30 Ski Hiers will leave for a five-day ski trip to Boyne Country. Only 140 can go; 100 have already reserved. The $42 fee covers charter bus transportation, meals except en route and at slopes, all lodging and chaperonage. Tows are extra. Special northern weekends are scheduled at the Center's rented ski farmhouse and, in between, there will be local Friday twilight trips and Saturday day trips to local areas. A four day trip to Boyne is planned Thursday, January 30 through Sunday, February 3, when school is closed for curriculum planning.

University School News

The Grosse Pointe University School assembly program, now in its fifth year, is once again offering a stimulating and refreshing change of pace in the weekly routine of the school. Assemblies are held twice a week, one for grades 7-12, and the other for grades 9-12. Each assembly program features an outside speaker or one or more talks by students on a variety of subjects.

The assemblies are especially effective and enthusiastically received because they provide a number of social, intellectual, and entertaining services. Talks by students are beneficial both to the speaker, who gains the experience of addressing a large gathering, and to the audience, which must appreciate the scholarship and effort of students on its behalf.

Outside speakers bring fresh outlooks on many subjects to the school. Most of these subjects are non-academic. Some are controversial. Because the assembly program often provides for a visiting speaker to remain at school for a full day, opportunity is made available for students to meet with the speakers in seminars and informal gatherings so that there can be a free exchange of questions and ideas.

Every senior, as a prerequisite for graduation, must deliver a 10 to 15 minute speech on a subject of his choice, and so frequently the assemblies are devoted to these talks. For example, Kathy Gordon, of 818 Sunningdale drive, addressed the audience on the subject of George Gershwin, his life and his work. She concluded her presentation by playing the final portion of the justly famous "Rhapsody in Blue." Following Miss Gordon's well-received performance, A.F.S. student Rita Demetriou gave an illustrated talk about her native Cyprus. She showed pictures of her home, her family, and several historical sites on this busy Mediterranean island.

Bill Rider Stars With Hat Trick

Bill Rider, high scoring center, celebrated his 17th birthday by scoring the "Hat Trick" to lead the undefeated Grosse Pointe Chiefs to a 7 to 2 victory over Huron Point.

This three-goal "trick" means Bill joins the ranks of the privileged few who wear a patch awarded by the Michigan Amateur Hockey Association.

The rest of the Chiefs proved they were out after a few scalps by putting the puck in the net four more times. Jim Griffin deflected Bob Buckman's pass to put the light on next. To prove his power Jim took a pass from John Ozark and sailed it past the goalie.

Bill Rider still on his birthday spree, passed the puck to Bill McIntyre, who promptly posted goal number 6.

Goal number 7 was scored by John Ozark, who picked up the pass from center Mike Gill and scored.

The boys as usual played as a unit with pep and fight especially from Tony Krol, Mike Stewart and Doug Maxwell. These boys put the spirit into the team to keep them number one in the Juvenile Division of the South East Michigan Hockey Association.

The Grosse Pointe Chiefs next game will be played at 10 a.m., at McCann Rink in Cook Road, against a strong Southfield team.

Ehrlich Album Is 'Outstanding'

A record album conducted by Sixten Ehrlich, leading the Stockholm Radio Orchestra in Music by Franz Berwald, was named one of the 26 outstanding recordings of 1968.

The selection was made by an international jury of music critics. The awards were announced in the current edition of High Fidelity magazine.

Ehrlich also recorded works by Berwald with the London Symphony in an album that will be released next month.

Austin Prep School News

The Austin Players open their eleventh theatrical season Saturday, November 30, at 2 p.m. and on Sunday, December 1, at 8 p.m. with the musical comedy "Around the World in 80 Days." The production will be staged at Pierce Auditorium, Kercheval at Balfour, with tickets available at the door for $1 and special rates for groups by calling Austin.

The show is based upon the Jules Verne novel of the same name in which Mr. Fog and his partner in travel Passpartout travel around the world in a time limit to win a wager from their London friends. In their travels, Mr. Fog falls in love with an Indian princess and evades the eyes of his following detectives, Mr. and Mrs. Fix. The male cast members come from Austin while the females are supplied from Star of the Sea High School. Director and founder of the Players is Thomas E. Bailey, Vice-Principal of Studies and Activities.

As their Genesee Drama Festival entry, the Austin Players presented "A Christmas Carol" on November 17 and November 23. Under the direction of Rev. L. Dore, the production was in the annual one-act completion which saw Dave Oliver, the narrator of the play receive a Genesee Bronze Medal. Other members of this winning production were George Shea, Mike Braun, Terry Murphy, Rick O'Connor, Randy Tallero, George Young and Jim Zakem.

Austin will again participate in the American Red Cross program for high schools during the week of December 1. Under Dwight Van Steenkiste, student chairman, a coin drive will be staged for funds and Red Cross magazines will be distributed.

On November 10, Rev. Thomas Osborne, and Rev. Lawrence Dore, sponsored a Mass and Breakfast for the Letterman's Club. At this Mass 38 students received Athletic Letters. Mr. Mel Giovannucci awarded letters for Cross Country and Mr. Lawrence Rancilio awarded letters for Football. The recipients were: football, Anthony Riccobono, Michael Oliver, John Varty, Ray Hermann, Larry Pfaff, Mark Kelly, Chester Rogulski, Mike Varty, Pat Kawa, Dick Rancilio, Camel Hanna, Spencer Akers, John Jacobelli, Paul Misiewicz, Brian Fausone, Joe Di Fatta, Mike

Cross Country: Fred Slatin, Gary Gilbert, Terry Murphy, Kevin Day, Robert Hammer, Manager, Daniel Doherty.

Hockey: Tim Russel and Walter Gallas.

Bowling: Mike Bolton, Doug Bandol, Richard Mtschall and Richard Michael.

Austin's Basketball season opens on Friday, November 29, with Salesian at Austin, Junior Varsity 6:30 followed by Varsity Team.

On Thursday, November 21, the Austin Dad's Club sponsored an All Sports Dinner at the K. of C. Hall on Warren avenue (next door to Austin.) Gates Brown of the Detroit Tigers was the guest speaker.

The Austin Debaters began their season Monday with a victory over Regina High School. Throughout their league, Austin will compete with St. Cyril, Roseville, Rochester and Sacred Heart. The team has had good participation from new members and together with their coach, Mr. Geller, are hopeful of winning. The members of the team are R. Kohn, N. Kaminski, D. Gekiere, D. Trombley, A. Hillebrand, J. Knox, R. Lane, M. Rizzo, T. Urbani, M. Oliver, P. Raykov and R. Schramm.

Babe Ruth Loop Elects Officers

The Babe Ruth League of the City, Park and Farms held a meeting on Thursday, November 21, at which officers were elected for the coming year.

Dick Williams was elected president, Dick Fox will return as secretary, and Bill Pankhurst will continue as treasurer. Mr. Williams has been active in Babe Ruth for the past two years. He was chairman of the very successful district tournament held at Kerby Field in July 1967. During the past year he served as the commissioner of the American League and as vice-president. Before coming to Babe Ruth, he was active in Little League work.

Any father of a Babe Ruth player who would like to take part in the League's activities should call Dick Williams at 881-4228.

Winter Sports Map Available

The 1968-69 edition of the popular Michigan Winter Sports Map which pinpoints the state's 78 winter recreational centers and catalogues their facilities, is now available, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

The map, compiled by the state's four regional tourist associations and published by the Council, details specific information on locations of ski and winter recreation areas and includes information on accommodations, slopes, lifts, tows, entertainment and other features of interest to winter sports fans.

To facilitate indexing and locating resorts, the map is divided into four areas: Upper Peninsula; West Michigan; East Michigan and Southeast Michigan.

Free copies of the Winter Sports Map may be obtained by writing: Ski Map, Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing, Michigan, 48926.

OFFICE ENTERED
Ray Lewis, manager of Siloway and Company Real Estate, 16825 Kercheval, reported to City police on Friday, November 29, that when employees arrived at work that morning they found the front door unlocked and ajar. Officers checked the premises and could find no signs of forcible entry. The only sign of entry was the theft of $3 from a box which was on a desk in the front office.

Bob Zink Has Good Year on Gridiron

Providence, R.I. — Bob Zink, former three sport headliner at Grosse Pointe High, has concluded the freshman football season as Brown University's quarterback.

The 6-foot, 2-inch, 180-pounder was a steady performer in leading the team to five wins in six starts. Zink directed an offense which amassed 2029 yards total offense and scored 133 points. The talented lad completed 36 passes in 79 attempts for 476 yards and three touchdowns. Zink also scrambled for 85 yards rushing and was the team's second leading scorer with 30 points.

The Bruin frosh concluded the season with a satisfying 15-6 victory over Harvard. Only a last minute win by Columbia spoiled the Brown slate.

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson
Superintendent of Schools

Although I wish to devote this week's column to a topic some of you may consider shocking—drug addiction among students—I assure you that my only intent is to inform the public about the problem and alert parents to a danger facing their children.

Presently about 40 students in both our high schools are under observation for possible involvement in drugs. With a total of 4,523 youngsters in grades 9-12, this is less than one percent of the student body. Nevertheless we are greatly concerned and are taking steps to cope with what we consider to be a serious problem.

First, we are working closely with the police. Officers have reported to us that narcotics are easily available and relatively inexpensive.

Second, we are attempting to educate our building staffs to various aspects of the problem. For example, discussions at North High have been held with teachers, counselors, and social workers. Copies of a reprint of a recent magazine article, (McCall's for September), have been distributed and the topic will be discussed at the next meeting of the entire staff.

Third, consideration is being given to the inclusion of a unit on narcotics in the ninth grade civic curriculum, similar to that outlining the effects of tobacco and alcohol. Another example of concrete steps being taken is contained in recent minutes of a meeting of the science department at South High School.

They show that Public Affairs Pamphlet No. 390, "What We Can Do About Drug Abuse," containing information that can be incorporated into science classes, was distributed to each science teacher. The minutes indicate that on December 2 the Humanities Interdisciplinary Teaching program will feature a speaker from the Federal Administration and that a future program will be devoted to drugs.

Up to now we have no direct evidence that narcotics have been used on school premises or at any school-sponsored activity during the current school year. We ask that anyone in the community with additional information about this serious problem contact school officials or the police.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

As subscribers of the Grosse Pointe News we do not object to your full coverage of the news.

We particularly refer to the objections raised by the Secretary of Social Responsibility Comm. of Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, because you described the suspect in robbery of the Wan Kow restaurant as a young Negro about 18 to 20 years old.

I would answer as follows: (the objections.)

1. We expect and want all the facts pertaining to an item of news if the suspect was a Negro, its part of the news.

2. White citizens are uneasy at the increase in crime and Black citizens should be also. (And most of them are). There is nothing distorted in printing the facts of a crime. The Detroit News is commended for doing so in the face of so much pressure not to do so.

3. As for the Kerner Report, which has some value, I wish to refer to Editorial in Commonweal of March 29, 1968 (page 39) titled: "The Riots Report: A Glaring Omission." As far as 'how must the black community feel'—I would say that all of us have to take some bumps; and are not too proud of the actions of some of our countrymen. In light of some of the news Lou Gordon is printing as regards the work of the Mafia and Politicians, this lady should think to be demanding a real Grand Jury to settle this matter, just as public indignation brought about the Grand Jury of 1940 which indicted the whole administration of Mayor Reading of Detroit, including Wayne County Officials.

I recently discussed this publication of these facts with another member of the A.C.L.U. and it is very surprising that when I asked this same question the answer was that they couldn't get very interested in that (Grand Jury). When I asked if this was not a good example of apathy, the response was that "yes it was but there was a question of priorities!"

Does this lady also have priorities? If she sincerely deplores the organized crime situation she can raise her voice in loud indignation and insist a Grand Jury (with authority) at least clean it out of our County. I'm sure many would join her. I will. Or does she also feel apathy when an ACTION is called for?

I do not worry about the News media in the same way this lady does. I am more concerned with the "MANAGED NEWS" aspect we are hearing more and more about.

Finally, I am not one of those citizens of Grosse Pointe who is ashamed or afraid to stand up and say "I love Grosse Pointe." It is a good community, a beautiful community and one where we pay high taxes and try to keep the standards high. This is not to say that there is not room for self-examination, to find ways to make it ever better! This is part of the duty of the citizen, to be ever vigilant.

Thank you for listening to me say some of the things which concern me and I believe many others, who do not bother to write and let you hear them.

My observations of A.C.L.U. (I'm an ex-member) is that they make an intellectual attempt to justify the tearing down of our institutions but never have any ideas or suggestions of what to build in their place.

Best Wishes of the coming Christmas Season. (If you wish to use this letter in any way, I do not wish my name printed or used.)

To the Editor:

I think the secretary of the Social Responsibility Committee of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church is seeing ghosts when he accuses the Detroit Press of inflaming racial tensions by their manner of reporting.

The incident involving an unwarranted attack on Negro youths in the Veterans Memorial Building by off duty policemen came through loud and clear; the press clearly stated that these attackers were white. Because they were white made no difference in the reporting of the incident in the press. This is the way it should be.

Further, if I were feeling particularly sensitive myself, I might object to the association of my church's name shown on Mr. Thomas' letter. People might assume he was speaking for me. Or, I might feel it unfair that Negroes attaining high office receive unusual attention by the press. If indeed the press is trying to put the Negro in an unfavorable light, then why do they bother to report on their martyrs in such a compassionate way, or mention the first Negro Congresswoman?

Very truly yours
(Mrs.) Jean A. Taylor

December 1, 1968

Dear Sir:
I would like publicly to express my admiration and thanks to the Grosse Pointe Park policemen for their courtesy, compassion and professionalism in caring for an injured elderly man in my home last Saturday night.

Sincerely,
Kenneth J. McKinnon
1009 Kensington road

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Drew Pearson has certainly been busy this year. He has published two books, one fiction and one non-fiction, which are currently appearing on the Best Seller list. The non-fiction title is THE CASE AGAINST CONGRESS. Here he names and points fingers at corrupt, real figures in Washington. In his fiction volume, THE SENATOR, he does the same thing—only the names are invented, and the disguises, at best, are very thin. Mr. Pearson has put himself in the latter book—he is Lou Parenti, a brash, impossible, irresponsible journalist who is the gadfly of the protagonist, and finally, with some help, manipulates his downfall.

The setting of THE SENATOR is the city of Washington in the 1970's. The story is told in first person by Edward Deever, a youngish, personable man, who is right-hand man to Senator Benjamin Hannaford, the main character of the book. Deever is purposely not made too strong a person; he is raucous and Hannaford is the wheeler and dealing Master Builder. The beginning of the decline and fall of Senator Hannaford is a $250,000 payoff to Deever, acting for Hannaford; the scene takes place in the Washington Zoo. The money was to have sweetened Hannaford's feelings about the mortgage-and-loan tax, important to a lobbyist, Albon Blake, who did not know, at the time of payment, that the issue was already dead. Ben Hannaford feels the money can be used to influence the voting of certain Senators in some of his bills and schemes. First, there is his New Wilderness Bill—S.671—which, in reality would become a blank check for mining and timbering in 15 million acres of the National Wilderness. And behind him is the Conglomerate, a group of seven or eight corporations, of which he will be the chairman.

The Conglomerate plans become public knowledge, thanks to a disgruntled clerk in Hannaford's office—a girl who has become very close to Lou Parenti, our Drew Pearson-like journalist. There is the Senate Ethics Committee to fear, but Ben appears on the Sunday television program, "For the People," and clears himself with the Committee. But, the damage is done, and S.671 is defeated.

However, you don't keep a man like Ben Hannaford down for long. He has another project; this time it will be the takeover of the Arab sheikdom of Djarak. Once again, Hannaford needs Senate votes, so uses part of his $250,000 to sway two of the more vulnerable Senators. Guess who exposes these unsavory transactions of the fourth estate? You're right—Lou Parenti! It just so happens that at the Washington Zoo transaction, a tape recorder was hidden somewhere on the person of the man fronting for Albon Blake. Deever sweats this one out for a while; Hannaford is out of town, but Deever knows he will have a solution, he explains that Deever will have to take the rap for this caper, in order to save Hannaford's skin, and Deever, always deeply immersed in hero-worship, says he will.

The day arrives when Deever must appear before the Senate Ethics Committee. He denies everything at first, trusting to the poor quality of the tape to be presented. But a witness appears who actually saw Deever with the black attaché case, and so, suddenly, he blurts out the true story, and thus ends Hannaford's career. Or does it? He is censured, to be sure, but he immediately resigns from the Senate, manipulates his nephew into running for the vacancy, and at the end, he and a forgotten Deever are planning further machinations involving the Conglomerate.

It has been charged that Gerald Green wrote a great portion of this novel, and I suspect he did. Certainly he must have to take the rap for this girl in the story—young exquisite Maria Valdez—Mexican daughter of an old construction worker of Hannaford's. Ben fails completely in love with her. Ben, who had always been scrupulously faithful to his wife, Fern, woman of wealth and family background—the perfect wife for his ambitions. He cannot or will not divorce her, and will not touch Maria because he is married to Fern. Finally, after actually living at the Hannaford house, Maria can no longer stand the menage a trois, and returns to her home in the West. This is the only love interest in the book, except for a brief fling of Deever's with one of the clerks in the office—the one who turned to Lou Parenti for solace and later ultimately betrayed Hannaford to Parenti.

Throughout this book there is a long line of Senators—many of whom you would recognize. Parenti Pearson likes some and loathes many. And through the entire book are entwined the ugly weeds of muckraking, wheeler and dealing, name-calling and back-biting which, apparently, Drew Pearson sees and deals with every day.

A.G.A. Re-Elects Mr. McElvenny

Ralph T. McElvenny, of Cloverly road, president of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, Detroit, has been re-elected to a two-year term on the American Gas Association's Board of Directors.

The Grosse Pointe Farms resident was re-elected during the closing session of the 50th annual convention of the gas industry's national trade association in Philadelphia.

A native of Tacoma, Washington, Mr. McElvenny received A.B. and J.D. degrees from Stanford University before beginning legal, accounting and investment work with the Guaranty Trust Company of New York in 1930. In 1933 he went to Washington, D.C., as a conservator in the office of the Controller of the Currency.

From 1934-1945 he was an attorney and administrative officer on the Securities and Exchange Commission staff. He then joined the United Light and Power Company system which owned various gas and electric utilities principally in the Midwest.

Mr. McElvenny joined the American Natural Gas Company system in 1950 and was elected president in 1953. In 1959 he became president of Michigan Consolidated.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will welcome members and their guests to an old-fashioned Christmas Tea next Tuesday, December 10. Mrs. John A. Dodds is general chairman of the 1:30 o'clock festivity.

The program in the sanctuary, planned by Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., will feature an Interpretive Reading by Dr. Evelyn Sevier, professor of English at Wayne State University, followed by a musical presentation including a solo by Jeannette Daggar, soprano, a member of the Memorial Church Chancel Choir, and group carolling under the direction of Professor Malcolm Johns.

Decor theme for the tea in Fellowship Hall will be "The March of the Magi." A trio of Magi, 25 inches tall, will be used as the tea table centerpiece, with smaller magi groupings made by Church women for the 1967 Fair at each serving station.

Assisting Mrs. Dodds with the holiday party plans are decorations chairman Mrs. Arthur P. Nauman and co-chairmen Mrs. Arnold F. Malow and Mrs. Edward A. Wishrope; dining room co-chairmen Mrs. William C. Boydell, Mrs. Joseph O. Reed, Jr., and Mrs. Jack A. Tompkins; ticket chairman and co-chairman Mrs. Edward G. Acomb and Mrs. John R. ## Pointe U. of M. Club Plans Winter Dinner

Former Dean of Students Erich A. Walter to be Featured Speaker; Grosse Pointe North's "Red Berets" to Sing

The annual winter dinner of the University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe will be held next Thursday evening, December 12, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. All alumni and friends of the University are cordially invited to participate in this festive holiday event.

Featured speaker will be Erich A. Walter, formerly U. of M. Dean of Students, who has almost 50 years of service with the University.

Club President John W. MacKay is particularly delighted that Dean Walter could adjust his calendar to appear in The Pointe.

Erich A. Walter, who joined The University of Michigan faculty in 1919 right after receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree, fulfills a dual role at the U of M. He is secretary to the Board of Regents and assistant to President Robin Fleming. He also has an appointment as a professor of English.

As secretary of the Regents, he makes up the agenda for the monthly meetings, keeps the minutes and is the custodian of all official documents and the seal of the University.

As assistant to the president, he performs numerous and various assignments including making arrangements for University convocations and Commencement exercises, entertaining visitors from foreign countries and preparing citations and memoirs.

Dean Walter was born in Zanesville, O., July 5, 1897, but is a 1915 graduate of Ann Arbor High School.

He received a Master of Arts degree from the U. of M. in 1921 and an associate professor in 1935 and a professor in 1947.

Teaching duties in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts became mixed with administrative assignments in 1927 when he became chairman of Freshman English and in 1935 when he became chairman of Academic Counselors. In 1938 he was made assistant dean and in 1945 he became associate dean.

In 1947 he was appointed director of the Office of Student Affairs, a title which was changed to Dean of Students in 1948. He remained on this assignment until his appointment in 1953 as assistant to the president. On July 1, 1958, he assumed added duties as secretary to the Regents.

Dean Walter was chairman of the planning committee for the Michigan Memorial-Phoenix Project in 1946 and 1947. He was editor of "Religion in the State University," published in September of 1958 to help mark the 100th anniversary of the University's participation in student religious work.

He was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Ann Arbor Public Schools from 1933 to 1939, serving as president during his last year on the Board. From 1946 to 1953, he was a member of the Board of Directors of Cranbrook School for Boys, Bloomfield Hills, filling the role of secretary in 1949. From 1949 to 1955 he was a member of the Board of Directors of the Ann Arbor Chamber of Commerce.

The evening will begin with a reception at 7 o'clock followed by dinner at 7:30. Tickets, at $5 per person, may be obtained by contacting either John W. MacKay at 882-6206 or Mrs. Edward D. Trowbridge at 885-9299.

Nancy Ann Tiedeck Marries Mr. Sertich

Newlyweds Vacation in Miami Following Morning Rites in St. Clare de Montefalco Church; Will Return to Live in Royal Oak

A reception at the Detroit Yacht Club followed the Saturday morning, November 30, wedding of Nancy Ann Tiedeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Tiedeck, Jr., of Kensington road, and Mark G. Sertich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Sertich, of Royal Oak.

For the rites in St. Clare de Montefalco Church, the bride selected a gown of ivory silk ottoman accented with Venetian lace and seed pearls and ending in a sweeping train.

A lace and pearl-trimmed headpiece caught her elbow length silk illusion veil. She carried an arrangement of stephanotis with white roses and wore, as her "something old," the pearl necklace given by her maternal grandfather to her grandmother on their wedding day.

Maid of honor Catherine Tink and bridesmaids Mary Catherine Tiedeck, sister of the bride, Suzanne Germain and Nada Sertich, the bridegroom's sister, wore floor length frocks and matching bonnets of antique gold corallo.

They carried loose bouquets of daisy pom-pom mums and brown startflowers, tied with brown velvet ribbons.

The bridegroom asked William Bucciero to act as best man. Ushers were Richard Gibb, James Siffermann, Joseph and Michael Tiedeck, the bride's brother, and Timothy Lodish.

The mother of the bride wore a street length dress and matching coat of shell pink antique silk, and pinned a corsage of pink Sweetheart roses to her white mink muff.

The bridegroom's mother selected a gown of lime green peau de soie and a corsage of double pale green cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds are vacationing in Miami. They will return to make their home in Royal Oak.

Mrs. Mark G. Sertich

Married to Mr. Sertich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Sertich, of Royal Oak, at a morning ceremony Saturday, November 30, in St. Clare de Montefalco Church was NANCY ANN TIEDECK, daughter of the George M. Tiedecks, Jr., of Kensington road.

Miss Dwaihy Says Vows To Mr. Kraus

Bride Wears Family Wedding Gown Fashioned of Re-Embroidered French Lace; Attendants Choose Victorian Red Velvet Frocks

At a morning Nuptial Mass, November 30, in Saint's Peter and Paul Jesuit Church, Elizabeth Ellen Dwaihy and Robert John Kraus were married. The Reverend Clement Singer, S.J. officiated at the rites.

A reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club followed the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Paul J. Dwaihy, of Devonshire road, wore a family wedding gown of re-embroidered French lace and a matching lace-edged veil. She carried an arrangement of white roses and stephanotis.

Margaret Dwaihy served as her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. John Kraus, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Rachelle, Marian and Jane Dwaihy, sisters of the bride, and Rachel Shaieb, the bride's cousin.

They wore identical Victorian floor length gowns of red velvet and carried nosegays of tiny red and white carnations and roses. John J. Kraus acted as best man for his brother. They are the sons of Dr. John J. Kraus, of Moross road, and Mrs. Adele Kraus, of Detroit. Ushering were John, Norman and George Dwaihy, brothers of the bride, Frank Murphy and James Gonyeau. Ring bearer was Francis Edward Murphy, Jr., the bride's nephew.

The mother of the bride wore a fur-trimmed brocade dress and coat ensemble. The bridegroom's mother selected a red velvet dress, a fur cape and hat. The newlyweds will make their home in Grosse Pointe Park.

Set Barton-Peabody Rites In St. Paul's

Home in Clayton, Mo., Awaits Newlyweds upon their Return from Vacation in Acapulco and Mexico City.

St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore was the setting for the Saturday, November 30, ceremony at which Mary Andrea Peabody and Rufus King Barton, III, exchanged marriage vows.

Following the 12:30 o'clock service, the bride's mother, Mrs. Powell Peabody, of University place, entertained at a reception in the Country Club of Detroit.

The Right Reverend James P. Kelly came from Suffern, N.Y., and The Right Reverend John Fitzgerald came from Oak Park, Ill., to celebrate the wedding mass with Monsignor Frank McPhillips.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Robert Peabody, wore a gown of ivory peau de soie styled with a tracery of bodice embroidery matching the Alençon lace accents on her Cathedral length heirloom veil, gift of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Robert Powell. Her bouquet was fashioned of miniature orchids, and stephanotis.

Bands of pink satin accented her attendants' floor length buchia velvet frocks. Their headpieces were matching satin bows with tiny corkscrew satin curls, and they carried arrangements of Sweetheart roses and ivy.

The former Miss Peabody asked her sister, Mrs. Richard Hayes, of Indianapolis, Ind., to act as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Peabody, Mrs. Henry Ellwood Peabody, Jr., of Columbia, S.C., Mrs. H. Meade Summers, Jr., of St. Louis, Mo., the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Michael Gallagher, of St. Louis, Mrs. Douglas Travis, of Gainesville, Fla., Lyn Cumiskey, Susan Adams and Mrs. Timothy Mc

Carthy, III.

Junior attendant Beth Peabody, the bride's eight-year-old niece, wore a floor length dress of white tulle and organza, sashed with rose-colored velvet, and a cluster of tiny pink satin curls in her hair.

Serving as best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus King Barton, Jr., of Festus, Mo., was H. Meade Summers, Jr.

In the usher corps were Henry Ellwood Peabody, Jr., and John Bernard Peabody, brothers of the bride, Robert Barlow, William Hausman, Claude McElwen and Daniel Wallager, all of St. Louis, Stephen Rutledge and William Spenser, Jr., both of Cincinnati, O., and Vance Campbell, of Dallas, Tex.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Peabody selected a coat and dress ensemble of champagne brocade, trimmed with black diamond mink, a matching mink headband and a purse corsage of champagne orchids.

Mrs. Barton, the bridegroom's mother, wore a coat and dress of leaf green peau shot with gold and silver threads, with matching accessories, and pinned a corsage of cymbidium orchids to her purse.

The newlyweds are vacationing in Acapulco and Mexico City. They will make their home in Clayton, Mo.

Mrs. Charles F. Merz

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday, November 30, in SS. Peter and Paul Church were JULIE MERILL WILLIAMS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Williams, of Grand Marais boulevard, and Mr. Merz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merz, of Chicago, Ill.

Merz-Williams Rites Read November 30

Reception at University Club Follows Early Afternoon Ceremony in SS. Peter and Paul Church; Pair Vacation in New Mexico

A gown of silk-faced peau de soie appliqued with re-embroidered Alencon lace encrusted with pearls and crystals and a triple-tiered Cathedral length illusion veil were chosen by Julie Merill Williams for the Saturday, November 30, ceremony at which she became the bride of Charles Francis Merz.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Williams, of Grand Marais boulevard. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merz, of Chicago, Ill.

Father Paul Megan came from New York to officiate at the 12:30 o'clock rites in SS. Peter and Paul Church.

Honor matron Mrs. John McGraw, the bride's sister, and bridesmaids Sarah Williams, another sister, Mrs. Menno Vorster, of Toronto, Ont., Mrs. Peter Kain and Patricia Maher wore floor length skirts of floral-printed wool and shocking pink crepe blouses accented at their necks and wrists with ruffle cascades.

Their headpieces were shocking pink calotes with three layers of maline falling to their hemlines.

The bridegroom asked George Sayer, of Buffalo, N.Y. to act as best man, and Ronald Clouse, Mark Williams, the bride's brother, Peter Kain and Terrence Carolan to usher.

Flower girl was Allison Lee Kay and Peter Williams, another brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception at the University Club following the service, Mrs. Williams selected a floor length gown of royal blue silk crepe trimmed with crystal beads.

The bridegroom's mother's gown, also floor length, was fashioned of fern green silk-and-worsted.

The newlyweds are vacationing in New Mexico and will return to make their home in Detroit's West Side.

Zoar Schedules Bazaar, Supper

The annual Holiday Bazaar and Supper of the Zoar Society will be held Saturday, December 7, from 5 to 7 o'clock at the Evangelical Home for Children and Aged in West Outer Drive, Detroit.

Among the many lovely bazaar items will be handmade aprons, ornaments, knitted and crocheted goods, homemade jams and baked goods. The traditional supper will be prepared and served by members of the Society. All proceeds from this event will be used to assist in the support of the Home.

Assisting the president, Mrs. Ernest Phipps, in planning the affair are local ladies, Miss Edna Hack, Mrs. William Ludwig, Mrs. Charles Mauser, Miss Gertrude Schwartz and Mrs. Henry Neithofer.

Drummond; third vice-president, Mrs. Fred Tew; recording secretary, Mrs. Edward V. Wright; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Robert L. Brehm; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur F. Churchman; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Richard A. Fellows; and ex officio board member, Mrs. John Olert, Jr.

New Circle leaders for 1969 will be Mrs. Robert C. Boyu, Mrs. Stanton C. Crawford, Mrs. Alexander G. Gill, Mrs. Cecil B.

Hastings, Mrs. Lee Johnson, Mrs. Frederick C. Kroenig, Mrs. Nein Van Oostenburg, Mrs. John M. Easton, Mrs. William M. Frederick and Mrs. Paul M. Weamer.

The nominating Committee will include Mrs. William B. Shaffer, Mrs. Charles C. Bryant, Mrs. James A. Fournier, Mrs. William B. Hill, Mrs. Hugh W. McTavish and Mrs. Jack Rowe. After the installation, a musical program will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Clark, featuring Mrs. Earl Nelson, Mrs. Douglas West, Mrs. Richard Miller, Mrs. Russell Reed and Mrs. Charles Barlow. Guest organist for the program will be Mrs. Robert Summerville.

Tea will be served in the Lounge with Mrs. Olert and Mrs. Andrew Rauth presiding at the table. Additional pourers will be Mrs. Paul Winchester and Mrs. Gerald Blevins.

Hostess Circles for the afternoon are Lydia, Mary and Miriam.

Mrs. Richard Reyntens

Married Friday evening, November 29, in St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore to Mr. Reyntens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Reyntens, of Lakepointe avenue, was NANCY ALICE DARGEL, daughter of the Robert C. Dargels, of Radnor circle.

Nancy Alice Dargel Weds Mr. Reyntens

Chantilly Lace Accents Bride's Beau de Soie Gown; Attendants Wear Pink Satin-Trimmed Rouge Velvet Frocks

Planning to make their home in Cadieux road when they return from a vacation in New York City are Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Reyntens, who exchanged marriage vows Friday evening, November 29, in St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore.

Mrs. Reyntens is the former Nancy Alice Dargel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Dargel, of Radnor Circle. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Reyntens, of Lakepointe avenue.

The 7 o'clock rites were followed by a reception at The Old Place.

The bride's beau de soie gown was trimmed with Chantilly lace and fashioned with a high neckline, long sleeves and a Cathedral train. A beau de soie bow, accented with orange blossoms and crystals, caught her bouffant silk illusion veil.

She carried an arrangement of white Sweetheart roses, centered with a red rose on a white fur muff.

Mrs. Bertram R. Lerchen, III, of Mount Clemens, who served as her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids Deborah Hoben, Mary Ann Donath and Luanne Dargel, another sister of the bride, junior attendant, wore floor length frocks of rouge velvet trimmed with pink satin.

Their headpieces were matching veiled Dior headbows, and they carried round bouquets of pink pompoms edged in lace and accented with ivy streamers.

Best man was Richard Weigel. Michael Crandall, Robert C. Dargel, Jr., brother of the bride, and David Reyntens, the bridegroom's brother, seated the guests.

The mother of the bride chose a floor length dress and coat of pale pink Alaskine, bordered in rhinestones, and pinned pink Sweetheart roses to her purse. A floor length gown of peach silk worsted trimmed with sequins and a purse corsage of peach Sweetheart roses were selected by the bridegroom's mother.

'Group' Holding Dinner Friday

"The Group" organized by Grosse Pointe War Memorial for the young single set of business and professional people is staging a progressive dinner party this Friday night, December 6. Beginning with cocktails in Lincoln road, the group will have each course from soup to nuts in different homes in the Grosse Pointe area. Stops of about 45 minutes will be made each place. The party will wind up in a home with a recreation room large enough to accommodate all for beer and dancing for the remainder of the evening.

The $3 charge covers the entire evening. Tickets should be picked up immediately at the Memorial's office where the map to the first hosts' home will be given. Maps to each succeeding home will be given out from house to house. Dates are welcome but not necessary. Dress may be anything from sport jackets and knit dresses to dressy blues and cocktail gowns.

The honeymoon is over when the bride wishes she'd changed her mind instead of her name.

VANDALISM REPORTED
Steve Szarek of 1240 Elford court, reported to Woods police on Sunday, October 20, that an unknown person tossed a piece of concrete through his kitchen and storm windows, shattering the glass. The missile also damaged the Venetian blind, he said. He did not give the amount of damage.

St. James Guild Sets Xmas Tea

The Women's Guild of St. James Lutheran Church will celebrate its annual Christmas tea Wednesday evening, December 11, at 7:30 o'clock. The women will gather in the candlelit church to begin the evening with the celebration of Holy Communion.

A spotlighted chancel drama, "Come Worship The King," will be presented, and Christmas carols will be sung by a Youth Choir. Carl Munzel is organist and choir director.

Following the program, the traditional holiday tea will be held in the Green Room. Mrs. Richard Shannon and Mrs. Arnold Launs will co-chairman the hostess Lydia Group.

Mrs. Leon S. Jones

Exchanging wedding vows Friday, November 29, in St. Philomena Church were DONNA MARY TOBIN and Lt. Jones. She is the daughter of Captain and Mrs. Donald E. Tobin, of Neff road, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jones, of Ypsilanti.

Donna Mary Tobin Wed To Lt. Jones

Donna Mary Tobin, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Donald E. Tobin, of Neff road, became the bride of Lieutenant Leon Stanley Jones at a Friday, November 29, ceremony in St. Philomena Church.

A reception in the Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the noon ceremony.

The former Miss Tobin selected, for her wedding, a gown of organza accented with lace at her bodice, sleeves and hem. Seed pearls studded the bodice lace.

Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a satin and lace headpiece, and she carried a bouquet of white split mums and yellow roses.

She was attended by Paula Matrosic, whose gold peau gown featured a lace bodice and sleeves and who carried a basket of mixed garden flowers.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jones, of Ypsilanti, asked Douglas Breed to act as best man.

Ushers were Gary Jones, brother of the bridegroom, and Allan Tobin, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore an ice blue silk gown, styled with a jeweled neckline, while the bridegroom's mother chose an aqua silk ensemble. Both mothers selected orchid corsages.

The newlyweds, vacationing in Canada, will make their home in Fort Riley, Kans.

Shores Garden Club To Meet

Butler-Bass Vows Exchanged Friday

Bride Chooses Traditional White Satin Wedding Gown; Evening Double Ring Ceremony is Followed by Reception at Gourmet House

Vacationing in Miami Beach are Mr. and Mrs. Stuart G. Butler, whose Friday evening, November 29, wedding in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church was followed by a reception at the Gourmet House.

For the 8 o'clock rites, at which the Reverend Paul W. Alandt officiated, the bride, the former Kathryn Ann Bass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bass, of Manchester boulevard, selected a floor length traditional gown of white satin, styled with a double ring neckline and three-quarter length sleeves edged with matching double satin rings.

A matching Dior headbow caught her illusion veil, and she carried an arrangement of white roses centered with a cluster of blue chrysanthemums.

Her attendants were her sister, Mary Elizabeth Bass, who served as maid of honor, and bridesmaids Mrs. Richard Bass, Nancy Rice, Arlene Rice and Mrs. Frank Szymanski.

Their Capri blue peau frocks were similar in style to the bridal gown. Shoulder length veils fell from their Dior headbows, and they carried ivy balls accented with blue mums.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Butler, of Shilawasse road, Detroit, asked C. George Bolda, of Fort Benning, Ga., to act as best man.

Ushering were Richard G. Bass, brother of the bride, William Bassaras, Donald Gray

Mrs. Stuart G. Butler

Speaking their wedding vows Friday evening, November 29, in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church were KATHRYN ANN BASS and Mr. Butler. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bass, of Manchester boulevard. The Walter R. Butlers, of Detroit, are the bridegroom's parents.

and Gordon M. Butler, the bridegroom's brother. Another brother of the bride, James J. Bass, served as altar boy during the double ring ceremony.

A street length sheath of aqua raw silk, styled with a jeweled stand-up collar, was Mrs. Bass' choice for her daughter's wedding and the reception. She pinned ivory cymbidium orchids to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother selected a costume of celery raw silk, fashioned with an amber beaded collar, and a corsage of green cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds will make their home in Southfield.

Sturtevant-Cole Announce Troth

Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley Cole, of Beaconsfield avenue, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Diane Lee, to Mark Davison Sturtevant, son of the Mark Jackson Sturtevents, of Washington road.

Both the bride-elect and her fiancé were graduate from Grosse Pointe High School. He attended Eastern College and is presently associated with the J. L. Hudson Company.

An April wedding is planned.

A Very Happy Birthday Party was a Very Great Surprise for MARK TOCCO, of Lothrop road, on Wednesday, November 6. Approximately 25 of Mark's senior classmates at Austin Prep. School arranged everything from entertainment to serving the traditional teen party fare: Pizza and Coke.

AAUW To Hold Holiday Dinner

The Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its annual Christmas dinner party for members, husbands and guests at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center Friday evening, December 13.

Featured entertainment will be an outstanding program of unusual Christmas music sung by the popular Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers under the direction of Edgar Billups.

The Chamber Singers have performed for the Concert-Exhibition Series at Oakland University, The Michigan School Vocal Association, the Detroit Chamber Music Workshop and on TV Channel 56.

Mr. Billups, currently organist and choirmaster at Christ Church, received his Masters degree in music from Syracuse University, worked with Helmut Walcha on a Fulbright Grant and studied choral techniques with Robert Shaw.

The AAUW dinner party will start promptly at 6:30 o'clock. Reservations should be called to 884-2431 or 778-9711 no later than Tuesday, December 10. Mrs. Edward Suits and Mrs. Theodore Suits are in charge of arrangements for the evening.

December AAUW study meetings include the International Relations Group which meets Thursday afternoon, December 5, at the home of Mrs. Richard Edin, in Pemberton road at 1 o'clock to hear Mrs. Edgar Hahn give a paper on South Africa.

Members of Art Appreciation Group will meet Friday morning, December 6, at the Detroit Institute of Arts to see the special "Art of France" exhibit currently displayed. Mrs. W. T. Krebs is in charge of arrangements for the tour.

MRS. RUDY SPEERSCHNEIDER and general chairman MRS. WILLIAM DRE-VANT. The 3 to 5 o'clock party is scheduled for Monday, December 9, at the War Memorial.

Will Wed

At an Open House in their Ballantyne road home November 30, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bradford Lundy, Jr., announced the engagement of their daughter, MARILYN, to Terrence M. McCaffrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. McCaffrey, of Palatine, Ill.

Miss Lundy, a graduate of Our Lady Star of the Sea High School, is completing her senior year at St. Louis University, where she is president of her sorority, Theta Phi Alpha, and has been appointed to the Jesuit Women's Honor Society, Gamma Pi Epsilon.

Her fiancé, affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon, was graduated last year from St. Louis University and is currently working toward his Master's degree in Business.

The couple plans a July wedding. Coming from Chicago and St. Louis, respectively, for the party were Terry's parents and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John M. McCaffrey, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mueller, with Jim, Tom and Bill.

Also here from Chicago and sharing the announcement party spotlight were Mr. and Mrs. William P. Bradley, Jr., (Mrs. Bradley is Mr. Lundy's sister, Elizabeth), celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary.

Women's Symphony Sets Three Concerts

Prospects for a successful Detroit Women's Symphony Orchestra Season were sparked by two recent luncheon meetings. One was that of the Executive Board of the Detroit Women's Symphony Society held at the Detroit Press Club.

A center piece of garden flowers surrounding a metronome and musical scores indicated the tempo set by president Mrs. Thomas I. Young, of Grosse Pointe court, and board members Mrs. Vernon L. Venman, honorary president; Mrs. John C. Owen, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Gartin, second vice president; Mrs. Harry G. McQueen, Recording Secretary; Miss Bernadine Ment, Corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ronald J. Ladd, Treasurer; Mrs. Richard A. Wilde, Ticket Chairman; Mrs. Daniel G. Alan, Printing; Mrs. John Edgar, Publicity; Mrs. Donald Lahti, Mrs. Walter Winkler and Mrs. Frank Zocharski.

Mrs. Young announced the DWSO 22nd season's offering of three concerts and guest soloists.

Opening night, November 19, featured concert pianist Gizi Szanto. This was a return engagement for Miss Szanto, who is a faculty member of the National Music Camp in Interlochen.

Roma Riddell, soprano, will appear on March 4. Mrs. Riddell has been a leading soprano of both the Toronto Opera Festival Company and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Opera Company.

The final concert on May 6 will feature the orchestra's concertmaster, Emily Mitter Austin. This will be a return engagement for Mrs. Austin, who is also a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

This year the concerts are being held in the Horace H. Rackham Auditorium on Tuesday evenings at 8:30 o'clock, (convenient underground parking is directly across the street).

The other meeting was that of the Women's Auxiliary of the Society which took place at the Detroit Boat Club. Autumn floral arrangements by Mrs. Arthur Knoff added to the beautiful fall day membership gathering.

Mrs. John I. Cuniff, Auxiliary president, extended a welcome and presented officers and chairmen: Mrs. Elmer Voltz, vice-president; Mrs. Daniel G. Alan, secretary; Mrs. Joseph F. Radys, treasurer; Mrs. Vernon L. Venman, contributions chairman; and Mrs. Samuel B. Danto, public relations chairman.

She called upon Society President Mrs. Young, who emphasized the importance of the Auxiliary's function: To provide financial support for the Orchestra.

She also introduced Mrs. Nathan Gordon, wife of the Orchestra's conductor, who expressed best wishes on behalf of her husband and herself and whose voice embellished the message—with no wonder—for she is Marjorie Gordon, a prominent coloratura soprano.

A note of an enthusiastic pitch was felt by all present as Mrs. Cuniff related the Auxiliary's forthcoming "Fun-Fund-Raising" projects. Above all, a "full-house" selling action for 1968-69 season concert memberships is the goal of the Auxiliary.

Membership in the Detroit Women's Symphony Society may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Richard A. Wilde, 22482 Alexander road, St. Clair Shores, Mich. 48081 (778-2762). Active membership is $7 and Patron membership is $10, which includes admission to all three concerts and voting privileges. Contributions are most welcome.

The meeting closed with an enjoyable musicale by DWSO members. A group of selections was played by Hanna Lahti, flutist, and Ernestine Barnes, French horn. Accompanist was Alice Berberian Haidosian. Clarinetist Linda Borushko offered a group of solos with Rosemary VanGordon accompanying.

The only male member of the Orchestra is Nathan Gordon, eminent solo violinist of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, who begins his seventh season as conductor of the DWSO.

Under his superior musical direction, this distinctive woman's organization is attaining new heights of musical sound and interpretation. He probably is the only male in the city who says "sh-sh" to 55 women—and they "sh-sh"; it's his prerogative, for he's only asking for a "pianissimo."

However, when the musical score indicates a full "forte," he demands it and gets it—fair sex or no fair sex!

Program notes are by Ruth Kaiser, known for her interesting series of music appreciation lectures, "Symphony Kaleidoscope," sponsored by the Women's and Junior Women's Associations for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and "Meet the Masters," co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Public Schools Department of Community Services and the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

Curtain time presents a most unique concert scene: The audience is listening to the oldest existing all-woman symphony orchestra in the United States, and one of only seven such symphonies in the entire world.

Women's symphonies began in 1884, when the American violinist, Marion Osgood, organized the Marion Osgood Ladies' Orchestra of Chelsea, in Massachusetts, (with a starting number of 12 instruments).

An earlier attempt was made by John Brahms, a then well-known and able musician of Boston, when he organized an "Adamsless Eden Orchestra" which was supposed to have been made up wholly of women; however, he was forced to depend upon some men whom he had masqueraded as girls, and so necessarily there were a few Adams sprinkled in among the Eves.

Unfortunately, this masculine femininity became the joke of the town when the men forgot to keep their boots hidden under their long skirts.

The limited number of women instrumentalists in some sections of the globe always poses a recruiting problem; thus many fine groups fail to survive.

The Detroit Women's Symphony's prominence in the field of music had a casual beginning. When the sound of automobile racing at six miles an hour began to fill the streets of young Detroit, there was in complete contrast a rather sound: The sound of music as 12 ladies of Detroit Society gathered in their parlors to perform their musical skills in piano for each other.

From this pleasurable association grew one of the oldest music clubs of professional women in the United States, the Tuesday Musicales of Detroit. It was founded in 1885 by one of the 12 ladies, Elizabeth Stridiron.

A need for activity for the woman instrumentalist prompted the Tuesday Musicales to organize the Detroit Women's Symphony Orchestra. Through the leadership of then-President Mrs. Vernon L. Venman and inspired members Mrs. Arthur B. Tilton and Mrs. Joseph N. Jennings, the DWSO made its debut on May 17, 1948, under the baton of Victor Kolar with Tuesday Musicales member Gizi Szanto, concert pianist, as solo artist.

Mr. Kolar was also, at that time, assistant to Ossip Gabrilowitch, conductor of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Succeeding conductorship honors were given to John Sweeney, Wayne Dunlap, Michael Bistrizky and Orien Dalley.

Outstanding guest artists, of which a good majority represent Detroit's own talent, have appeared with the Orchestra throughout the years.

The Orchestra continued to grow. In 1956 a Women's Auxiliary was formed under the leadership of Mrs. Phillip R. Flinders.

From the young student to the silver-haired grandmother, this dedicated group of women instrumentalists, professional as well as non-professional, has the opportunity to use its musical training for its own self-expression, resulting in an inspirational quality which has earned them recognition as one of the leading community orchestras in the Motor City.

This recognition resulted from a great deal of preparation, practice and regular rehearsals, combined with fun and enjoyment. The Orchestra takes pride in the fact that several of its original musicians are still active participants.

For the housewife who didn't give up music at the altar, rehearsal night has become something of a "mothers'-evening-out-with-the-girls," when domestic duties are taken over by baby sitters.

The evening also brings many an escort assisting his musical young lady by toting her instrument. Faithful parents alternate transporting their talented daughters so that they may age musical discipline and experience.

Rehearsal night is also a welcome diversion for women of all professions; represented are librarians, real estate agents, teachers, office workers and many others.

These women musicians come from all parts of metropolitan Detroit. They gather in the well as from surrounding communities. They gather in the Outer Drive Faith Lutheran Church for 7 to 9 o'clock Monday rehearsals. Anyone, (that is, any female), wishing to perform with the orchestra may call Mrs. Robert Martin, 925-8265, for further information.

All Aboard For The Christmas Walk!

They'll be traveling by private car next Thursday, December 12, when Phase One of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's 1968 Christmas Walk, the Grosse Pointe Walk, is scheduled between 1 and 5 o'clock, but come Friday, December 13, MRS. FRANK MILLER, JR. (left), general ticket chairman, and MRS. ROLAND RINKE, co-chairman with Mrs. Richard S. Campbell of The Pointe part of the pilgrimage, will join other Pointers aboard a bus, scheduled to leave the Grosse Pointe War Memorial at 12:30 o'clock and return about 5:30, and travel en masse to Birmingham-Bloomfield to "see how the other half lives." Seven Pointe homes and seven Birmingham-Bloomfield homes, all decorated for the holidays, will be open, the former on Thursday, the latter on Friday. Ticket information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Miller, Valley 2-9613, or the Symphony office, 961-0700.

Newcomers Schedule A 'Holiday-In'

The 1968 annual Grosse Pointe Newcomers Christmas Ball will be a "Holiday-In" held in the Crystal Room of the Whittier Hotel Saturday evening, December 14. Members and their guests plan to gather at 7:30 o'clock for a buffet dinner to be followed by dancing to the music of the Ter-Cels. Working on final preparations for the party are (left to right) MRS. WILLIAM ECKHARDT, MRS. RICHARD SILVEN, MRS. RO-

ERT BLAINE and MRS. LEE TERRILL. Mr. and Mrs. Blaine are the Club's "President Couple" and serve as chairmen for the party; the other ladies and their husbands are committee members. Table centerpieces will be psychedelic wreaths fashioned of pine cones, candles, glass balls and ribbons, and a "Guru Santa" will pay a visit during the evening to pass out gifts.

Detroit Review Sets '68 Finale

A Christmas luncheon and a musical program will end the year for the Detroit Review Club. Members will have their last 1968 meeting next Tuesday, December 10, at the Women's City Club.

The luncheon, in charge of Mrs. Louis Thurmon, will be held in the club's main dining room. Christmas decorations and angels dressed in velvet will decorate the tables. Mrs. N. Conner Gunn, DRC president, will act as official hostess.

The Detroit Review Club has, through the years, presented many outstanding musical artists in their debut performances and this year Mrs. Joseph Gauthier, music chairman, is continuing the Club policy of encouraging promising young artists in the field of music.

Twenty-two-year-old Karen Sutherland, soprano, of Windsor, will make her premier as a soloist. Miss Sutherland's voice has been evaluated by Professor George Lambert, of the Royal Conservatory of Toronto, who emphatically encouraged her continued study.

She competed and won first prize at the 1968 Chatham Festival and is now a member of the Double Quartet at the Metropolitan Methodist Church.

Miss Sutherland will be accompanied by James F. Hunt, pianist and organist and choir director at several area churches. Mr. Hunt is also Minister of Music at the Metropolitan Methodist Church.

By request the program will feature special Christmas music.

Slate Fox Creek Quester Meeting

The Fox Creek Chapter of Questers will meet Thursday morning, December 5, at the Warrenton road home of Mrs. Melvin Bork at 11 o'clock. The chapter will have a potluck luncheon. After the luncheon there will be a recipe sale and an antique gift exchange. The November 7 meeting was held at the Handy road home of Mrs. Louis Sendelbach.

Grand Marais Club To Meet

Members of the Grand Marais Branch of the Michigan Division of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will gather next Monday, December 9, in the Harcourt road home of Mrs. Harold Davis for a special Christmas program featuring four local exchange students, Maria de Sousa from Brazil, Ulla Jensen from Denmark, Roger Carey from England and Lenine Bologot from the Philippines, who will describe holiday customs in their countries.

Mrs. Donald Schuur and Mrs. William Barie will serve as co-hostesses.

Guest Conductor With Symphony

Jean Martinon, former music director of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, will lead the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in a program of 20th century music in concerts Thursday and Saturday, December 5 and 7. The performances will begin at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium.

Works on the program include Ralph Vaughan Williams' Overture to "The Wasps"; Marius Constant's "Chaconne et marche militaire" and Gustav Mahler's Symphony No. 10.

Vaughan Williams' "The Wasps" was composed in 1909 as incidental music to a Cambridge University production of an Aristophanes' play. The overture was first performed as a separate piece the next year.

The Constant work was given its U.S. premiere in March, 1968, when it was played by the Philadelphia Orchestra. Constant, a native of Hungary, studied composition with Nadia Boulanger and Olivier Messiaen. Mahler had not completed the orchestration for his Symphony No. 10 when he died, and the Symphony will play the version prepared by Deryck Cooke.

Martinon, a native of Lyon, France, became music director of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in 1963. Previously he had been conductor of the Israel Philharmonic and associate conductor of the London Philharmonic.

He won the Grand Prize of Paris in 1945 for his composition "Psalm 136—Song of the Captives," a work written after his service with the French Army in World War II, when he was a prisoner of the Germans. He devotes several months each year to composing.

He made his debut in this country in 1957 as guest conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. He made his American operatic debut in 1965, conducting the San Francisco Opera in "Pelleas and Melisande."

Martinon shared the podium with Charles Munch, who died last month, on the recent tour of the Orchestre de Paris.

Martinon is the first of six guest conductors who will appear this season with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Tickets are available at Ford Auditorium Box Office, (961-0700), all Hudson's and all Grinnell's stores.

Sixten Ehrting, conductor and Music Director of the Detroit Symphony, is currently in Europe for a three-week series of guest conducting engagements, including performances with the Cologne Orchestra and the Stockholm Radio Orchestra.

Slate Goodwill Ladies' Meeting

Gifts of money for its projects of service for the handicapped employees of Goodwill Industries will decorate the Christmas tree at the December meeting of the Women's Association to the Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit.

The meeting will be held next Wednesday, December 11, starting at 1 o'clock, in the Goodwill Building, Brush street at East Grand boulevard.

The money will be attached to paper candles bearing a poem written by Anne Campbell especially for the event.

A program of Christmas music will be presented by Mrs. Nathaniel Banks, program chairman, featuring Eileen Littell, soprano, Dorothy Douglass, mezzo, and Beulah Glassley, accompanist.

Miss Littell is a member of Detroit's Tuesday Musicales, soloist at St. Mark's United Methodist church and sings in the quartet long associated with the "Church at the Crossroads" radio and television program of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches.

Mrs. Douglass and Mrs. Glassley are members of the Royal Oak Musicales. Mrs. Douglass until recently was soloist at the Drayton Avenue Presbyterian Church and Mrs. Glassley is organist at the St. Paul Methodist Church, Ferndale, official accompanist for the Royal Oak Musicales and the Detroit Baptist Women's Missionary Society.

The afternoon's inspirational message will be given by Mrs. Boisey S. Wyche, delegate to the Women's Association from the New Bethel A.M.E. Missionary Society.

Hold 'Heart Of Gold' Planners' Luncheon

Deadline for Awards' Nominations December 1; Many Pointers Serve on Sponsoring Council; Recognition Ceremony Scheduled February 11

Grosse Pointers serving on the year-old Volunteer Award Council attended a luncheon meeting at noon Monday, December 2, in the Statler Hilton Hotel to plan the second annual "Heart of Gold" ceremony honoring outstanding women volunteers.

Presiding at the meeting was the Council's chairman, Mrs. Semon E. Knudsen, of Birmingham. Serving with Mrs. Knudsen as the council vice-chairman is Pointer Mrs. Joseph L. Hudson, Jr., of Washington road.

Council members from this area include Mrs. Edward Acomb, of Hall place, representing the Central Volunteer Bureau of United Community Services; Mrs. Charles R. Berger, of south Edgewood drive, for the Greater Detroit Unit of the Michigan Cancer Foundation; and Mrs. William Y. Gard, of Dean lane, Junior League of Detroit.

More are Mrs. Gaylord W. Gillis, Jr., of Merriweather road, Founders Society of the Detroit Institute of Arts; Mrs. John F. Hering, of Kercheval avenue, Southeastern Michigan Chapter of the American Red Cross; and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, of Pemberton road, Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Still more are Mrs. Ralph T. McElvenny, of Cloverly road, Women's Committee, Detroit Grand Opera Association; Mrs. Harold Meinke, of Fair Acres drive, Council of Lutheran Women; Mrs. William Nagel, of Bedford road, Southeastern Michigan Division of the Michigan Association of Hospital Auxiliaries, and Mrs. Leonard R. West, of Hawthorne road, College Women's Volunteer Service.

Mrs. Edwin O. Bodkin, of Trombley road, is serving as a member-at-large. The second awards luncheon is scheduled for noon February 11 in Cobo Hall. It will honor a group of six to 12 women selected for significant contributions to the community during the past year.

Symbolizing all those in the Wayne-Oakland-Macomb area who give their time and talents to community service, the women will receive "Heart of Gold" awards in recognition of their efforts. Nominations for the awards were sought from all segments of the community and must have been submitted by December 1 by any organized group or individual. Only previous winners are ineligible for recognition.

Entry forms may be obtained from the Volunteer Award Council, 1528 Woodward avenue, Detroit 48226. All nominations will be acknowledged and entries

Still others are Greater Detroit Unit of the Michigan Cancer Foundation, Michigan Consolidate Gas Company Girls' Club, Michigan United Fund, National Bank of Detroit Women's Club, Detroit Section of the National Council of Negro Women, Parke-Davis & Company Girls' Club, Pilot Club of Detroit, Village Women's Club, Women's Advertising Club, Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Women's Committee of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, Women's Committee of United Community Services and Wyandotte Chemicals Corporation Girls' Club.

Rotary Club Essay Contest

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club has announced the third winner in its Youth Forum Contest. She is Nancy Chalut, a senior, at Grosse Pointe University School. Nancy wins $25 in cash for her entry entitled "An Idealist Never Knows When He Has Been Beaten," which follows.

They watched us with a certain amount of hope. Outwardly they disapproved of our demonstrating, protesting, experimenting, and revolting, but they attempted to quell our spirits were sporadic. They were tired, tangled in pragmatism, flooded with outdated values and tired of compromising, but they had had hope in the new generation.

We stood for simple love. Our parents saw love die in the light of divorces, complicated lies, responsibilities, and jealous, but they saw promises of something better. We stood for equality, gave our parents tongue-lashings for their petty prejudices, and we would preach about a new way to live together.

Too soon I realized that the president had graduated in the same year that I had. My younger brother was the head of a great monopoly. My friends were in various businesses with families, and had the same narrow middle class views that we had sought to destroy. None of us dared to mention the old days. The memory of our dream days. The memory of our dreams and past idealism was rather embarrassing. Actually it was not our fault. We were infected by the society before we were old enough to do anything about it. We had to compromise in order to survive at all. We had to succeed, but listen to the new generation. There is hope for society.

Party to Fete Senior Ladies

The Senior Ladies Club of Grosse Pointe War Memorial will have its Annual Christmas Party at the Center Wednesday, December 11. They will gather for festive Christmas snacks and refreshments in the panel Josephine Gregory Room of Alger House at 12:30 noon.

At 1:30 the ladies will move into the Great Hall around the large Christmas tree where they will be treated to a concert of Christmas music by the Junior League Glee Club.

The remainder of the afternoon will be spent gathering gifts for Children's Hospital, exchanging gifts among members and enjoying each other around the card tables set before the big fireplace.

All senior ladies, (60 or over), in the Grosse Pointe area are welcome whether club members yet or not. There are no dues and a nominal 75c is charged for refreshments. If transportation is a problem, it can be worked out by calling the Center.

Pointe Garden Club To Meet

The Pointe Garden Club's Christmas luncheon and meeting will be held Monday, December 9, in the Lakepointe avenue home of Mrs. Joseph Smith, who has asked Mrs. Adam Cook and Miss Louise Owen to assist her with hostess duties.

Each member will bring a Christmas arrangement as well as a donation to the National Education Center.

Johnstone & Johnstone

WE'VE GOT a good thing going. And if you're in the know, then... you'll realize a center hall colonial first time offered always attracts a great deal of interest. We have two such offerings, one with three bedrooms and two baths on the second floor. The other boasts four bedrooms up with two full baths. Both owners have recently purchased houses in the Pointe, making them serious sellers. The three bedroom is on Lincoln Road, first block off of Kercheval. The four bedroom is on Yorkshire, between St. Paul and Maumee.

IN THE FARMS we uncork a cute three bedroom colonial with a larger than normal kitchen and two car garage. Don't let today's high prices bottle you up. This one can be yours if you pop for $32,900.

IF YOU'VE BEEN peeking about looking for something with tremendous curb appeal, and only require three bedrooms but must have two baths and a first floor lavatory, then this southern colonial could be the solution. This compact offering has a comfortable extra room with access on either side of the living room fireplace. There is a separate dining room and attached garage.

THE ONLY STEP you'll have to take is the one to your phone. We'll tell you just enough about this three bedroom, two bath ranch house to entice you into seeing for yourself. It is situated on a small court in the Farms, yet is only a few steps to shopping and schools. Priced to be picked off in the low forties.

FOR YOU WHO want to own an income property, we have one of the few remaining lots in the Pointe which is zoned for two family dwelling. Live in one unit and let your tenant make the payments which will amortize your investment.

FOR THE DO-IT-YOURSELF breed: We have a lot on Cameron Place. One of those new streets which deadends at the lake edge, and has attracted some of the newest and most magnificent of the Pointe's recently built residences. Build yourself that personal home you never have been able to find in a used home.

A PERFECT BLOCK will help you up for this play. And the block to which we refer is just one block from the lake in Deeplands. You'll find no interference with your view of the water from the front yard. A thickly planted backyard perimeter will give you the protection you want for that screen play. Why not pick up the ball and run with this one!

"Who comes earliest leads the way."

C. Turner, Mrs. Harley G. Higbie and Mrs. William McCoy.

Pourers will include the Mesdames Joseph E. Bayne, James H. Cooper, Waldo E. Fellows, Raymond W. Eddy, Grant M. Hales, C. Bayard Johnson, Theodore G. Osius, Walter E. Pattee, Frank J. Sladen, Jr., Herbert B. Trix and Philip I. Worcester.

Pointe Symphony Tea
Fires will be burning in the great hearths of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial and its rooms will be bright with Christmas decorations Monday afternoon, December 9, when some 300 members of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee gather there for their second annual Christmas Tea.

Women's Committee chairman Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford and Board members Mrs. Robert P. Armstrong, Mrs. Louis Mushro, Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., (now there's a busy lady), Mrs. Clarence J. Williams, Mrs. Waldo E. Fellows and Mrs. Bernard Whitley will form a receiving line to greet guests as they arrive.

A "Sugar Plum" Committee, headed by Mrs. Ferdinand H. Steteluh, is busy making holiday sweets to grace a huge chateaufort and silver tea table. Bouquets of Fuji 'mums will be featured in the dining room; project "Deck the Halls" is in the hands of Mrs. Jewell and Mrs. Rudy Speersneider.

From the sun parlor, throughout the afternoon, will come the sounds of Christmas music played by Mrs. John Ehrlich, Mrs. Robert Crossen, Mrs. Lester A. McIntosh and Mrs. Flavio Vancelli under the direction of Mrs. John W. Nelson.

Mrs. William Drevant is general chairman of the party. Hostesses for the day will include Mrs. Ernest P. Lamb, Mrs. Jack Tucker, Mrs. Angus MacLeod, Mrs. Clarence Maguire, Mrs. Truman H. Schneider, Mrs. Pierre Heffler and Mrs. D. D. Robertson.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mesdames Florence Sisman, John W. Nelson, William Barry, Carl M. Weideman, Lester McIntosh, Wight M. Nelson, Jr., L. Gaylor, Hubert, Ferdinand H. Steteluh, Edna Lee Root and Peter O. Peterson.

Farm And Garden Christmas Tea
There's another Pointe Christmas Tea on Monday's agenda, the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club's annual Christmas Tea, to begin at 3:30 o'clock in the East Jefferson avenue home of Mrs. Russell H. Lucas.

Assisting Mrs. Lucas as hostesses will be Mrs. Jesse G. Vincent, Mrs. James B. Lewis and Mrs. Philip I. Worcester.

A program of Christmas music is traditionally a feature of this party, and presenting the program this year will be Professor Malcolm Johns, playing the piano, (not the organ—though Mrs. Lucas has one), as an accompaniment to vocalist Elsie Inselman.

As a special project, each Club member will bring the gift of an unbreakable container with stones and bulbs of Paper White Narcissus to the Tea. These are to be presented to the blind children at Plymouth State Home, so they may experience through touch the miracle of plant growth and finally the pleasure and fragrance of blossoms.

Scandinavian Winter-Fest
A change of pace from tea parties is the Scandinavian Winter-Fest planned by members of the Michigan Circumnavigators Club as their annual Christmas Season party. The black tie dinner-dance, one of two annual events to which Circumnavigators invite their ladies, (all other Club functions are strictly for-men-only), will be held Friday evening, December 13, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

According to Circumnavigators' president John Kinsey, the arrangements committee is developing a complete Swedish theme for the party with the help and advice of members who have lived in Sweden or who have traveled there over the years.

Highlight of the program will be the arrival of Santa Lucia, the Queen of Light, whose ceremonial appearance in mid-December traditionally launches the holiday season in Sweden.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul I. Moreland, of Harvard road, are co-chairmen of the Winter-Fest. Their assistants include Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Richardson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John O. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Zwickley and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O. George.

Set Park Garden Club's Meeting
The monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club will be held Monday, December 9, at 12:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Kenneth S. Patten in Bedford lane. The program will be a Christmas party, with an exchange of gifts and a flower quiz.

A young woman was admiring an antique chair in her neighbor's home. "This is beautiful!" she said enthusiastically. "What is it—a Sheraton 1875, Hepplewhite 1732 or a Chippendale 1753?" "It's none of those," replied the neighbor. "It's a Macy $14.93."

Pointer Of Interest

MRS. MICHAEL C. BURKE, OF CLOVERLY ROAD

By Pepper Whitelaw

Blond and regal Sharon Burke, general chairman of the St. John Hospital Fontbonne Auxiliary's 1968 White Christmas Ball ... mother of four active children ... skier ... party giver ... traveler ... and WOMAN ... has a pretty busy schedule all-year-round but these past few months might have really gotten to a lesser woman!

On the day we interviewed her, (apparently a typical day for Sharon), two of her children were home with colds ... she was getting ready for a trip ... putting some last minute touches on plans for the Ball ... and was perfectly relaxed!

With a welcoming smile, before a roaring living room fire, she talked eagerly of the 15th White Christmas Ball scheduled for Saturday, December 14 at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, and the St. John Hospital service made possible through its proceeds.

Helped Start Unit
Last year's Ball proceeds were used to procure electronic equipment, (cardiac monitors). "But the hospital went one step further," Sharon notes. "The Coronary Care Unit it established is a progressive unit, and the only CCU of its kind in Detroit hospitals. We're mighty proud of that." Sharon adds, "This unit accommodates coronary patients as they progress from 'critical' to 'fair' to 'good' condition. The continuation of this $50,000 unit is what this year's Christmas Ball is all about."

The evening promises to be a gala one. The theme will be that of an old-fashioned traditional Christmas with a touch of elegance and splendor, thanks to the creativity of Sal Bonarito who is handling the decorating chores. (Sharon will be looking pretty elegant, too, in her pink chiffon gown with green overlay.)

Phil Skillman to Play
There will be cocktails, strolling musicians and dancing in the ballroom to the music of Phil Skillman ... "Fun ... and all for a worthy cause," Sharon smiles.

"You know, at the St. John PCCU, the patient is guided through three phases of recovery, each phase preparing for a successful post-ceremony life at home."
"In Phase I," she continues, "the care is most intensive and all electronic devices are in service for the patient. These include the oscilloscope, which monitors the number of heartbeats per minute and signals automatically when the heartbeats go above or below the safe limit; the electrocardiograph, which records the heartbeats on a graph paper either on command or when an emergency occurs, automatically, to record the action of the heart immediately before and after the onset of the emergency."

Faces Three Phases
"A patient will usually spend five days in Phase I before he can progress to Phase II," adds Sharon.
"This is the phase of limited ambulation. Monitoring is continued, but now the patient is allowed out of bed. Patients stay in Phase II for about a week before they go on to Phase III. This is the last part of the hospital stay for a recovering coronary patient. Monitoring is discontinued, but the patient is kept under observation by the specialized nursing staff. The atmosphere is considerably more relaxed, in keeping with the patient's recovery."

St. John's PCCU has 33 beds. The nursing staff has had specialized training and is continually instructed by the cardiologists who serve as consultants.

"So you can see," says Sharon, "funds are needed if lives are to continue to be saved. And the Christmas Ball will do just that!"

To Launch Third Skier
We mentioned before Sharon's busy year-round-schedule. Most of her time is spent up north near Gaylord, where Kevin, 10, Kelly, 7, Brian, 5, and Sean, 2, and her husband, Michael, who is a native Pointer, spend a great deal of time.

Kevin and Kelly ski and this year Brian will be getting ski equipment for Christmas. Sharon laughingly relates, "When we were discussing buying skis for Brian, I told him he'd get the whole kit and kaboodle ... so now when anyone asks him what he's getting for Christmas, he smiles and says 'I'm getting a kit and kaboodle!'"

Home "up north" is a lovely A-frame house the Burkes built near Otsego.
"I did all the decorating myself and furnished it with completely modern pieces, differing from the traditional furniture we have here in our Pointe home," Sharon explains. Her home in Cloverly road is truly elegant with a beautiful studio living room, decorated in soft tones of beiges and golds.

Sharon says, "you know, we spend so much time up north it seems like we're only in The Pointe when all the leaves are off the trees and it's muddy."
Loves to Travel
"But I love the activity of travel ... I can hardly wait to see Morocco. We'll be there four days and then go to Italy, Spain, France and finally to Ireland." Asked if she or her husband has any relatives there Sharon grins and says, "Well my maiden name was Kelly, so I'm sure we'll have no trouble locating Kellys and Burkes in Ireland!"
Traveling has always been a part of Sharon's life.

PERCEPTION
Diplomacy has been defined as the ability to describe others as they see themselves.

COCKTAIL MEATBALLS

Contributed by Mrs. Martin Hawley From The Congregational Kitchen Cook Book

1/4 tsp. Tabasco sauce
2 Tbsp. minced onion
2 Tbsp. chili sauce
1 tsp. salt
1 lb. ground chuck
1 Tbsp. margarine
Combine Tabasco sauce, onion, chili sauce and salt. Mix with ground chuck; shape into 3/4" balls. Brown balls a few at a time in margarine. Remove balls from pan.
2 Tbsp. flour
1 C. water
1/2 tsp. Tabasco sauce
1/2 tsp. salt
1 Tbsp. dry mustard
1 Tbsp. horseradish
1/2 tsp. celery seed
1/4 tsp. Kitchen Bouquet
Stir flour into warm margarine in pan and blend in a generous cup of water. Cook, stirring, until mixture thickens and boils. Add and stir into mixture Kitchen Bouquet, salt, mustard, horseradish, celery seed and Tabasco sauce. Add meatballs to sauce and simmer, uncovered, for 15 minutes. Keep hot in chafing dish. Yields about 50 meatballs.

Bride-Elect

The engagement of JILL LEPLA and Loren Edward Musilek was announced by her mother, Mrs. W. F. LePla, at a family dinner in her Berkshire place home November 28. The bride-elect, who is also the daughter of the late Mr. LePla, was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School and is presently a senior at Albion College, where she is affiliated with Kappa Delta.
Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Musilek, of Birmingham, was graduated from Birmingham High School and is also in his senior year at Albion College, where he is president of the Albion Chapter of Sigma Chi.
A February wedding is planned.

Pack Sunshine ... in your suitcase and head south for the holidays. At Walton-Pierce see the newest, sunniest dresses. Our favorite for day is a bright linen by Molly Parnis. Her color splashed, golden streaked lame chiffon is heavenly for southern evenings. Sketched in this issue is one of Vera Maxwell's versatile travel ensembles. We've mentioned a few highlights from the new cruise collection which is arriving daily and we might add, departing daily into the smartest resort wardrobes.

Falls Go To Any Length ... to have you fall in love with them ... short, medium and swinging 10-0-9! They pay you such beautiful compliments and let you change your look as you change your mind. They are always ready to go out and have holiday fun. Go ahead, fall in love with a fall at Leon's, 17888 Mack Avenue. Christmas is coming. TUxedo 4-9393.

Glamour Glasses ... now are the ones with metal frames and big colorful lenses. Try them on at Michelle's Boutique at Leon. Collect a few colors. They're only five dollars each. More glamour ... the glittering evening purses for ten dollars make delightful gifts.

The Aroma of Christmas ... is a combination of many good things. Right now we're thinking of your Mutschler Kitchen and all the treats made there. The atmosphere is cheerful and the working areas have appliances well placed. Holiday goodies are so easy to prepare ... more fun, too! Mutschler's address is 20227 Mack Avenue.

In Martha's Closet ... 373 Fisher Road, you'll find gaily striped LaPuma shoes with little striped heels. They are a perfect foil for black, white or brightly colored party dresses ... twenty dollars.

Not Becoming? ... You ought to be coming! Hair can be your crowning glory, but generally it has a mind of its own. The group at Robert's Place has a knack with headstrong hair. For a low-ly appointment, call 886-4130. Robert's Place is located at 405 Fisher Road.

Santa Himself ... would love a Lochlana sport shirt by Hathaway. Made in Switzerland of one-half cotton and one-half wool, there are tartan and solid colors and a choice of many styles ... including mock turtle and turtle necks. Prices range from fifteen dollars to twenty-one dollars at E. J. Hickey, 17140 Kercheval.

From The North Pole ... they'll receive a reply if you drop the children's "Dear Santa" letters in a special box in Jacobson's toy department. But do it before December 10th. A more direct approach is for the children to visit Santa himself ... Saturdays.

A Vision of Sugar Plums ... is for real at The Sphere. See them as wreaths and trees. They look tempting enough to eat but they are meant to decorate. By the way, if you are looking for old fashioned tree candlelights, you will find them at 19849 Mack Avenue.

Gentlemen Prefer ... Kent of London, That Man, Pub, Carven, St. John's Jaguar, Old Spice, Royal Regiment, Black Watch, Chanel, Christian Dior, Canoe, Max Factor, Shulton. The Notre Dame Pharmacy has them all ... so stock up on his preferred brand for Christmas.

The Kaleidoscope ... sees "The Night Before Christmas" as an ornament scene for your tree. At 16135 Mack at Bedford, Santa, the mouse, mama, the children in bed ... well the whole cast of characters ... will cast a charming spell on your tree.

Be a Christmas Angel ... The loveliest decoration in your home. Wear a halo of newly shaped hair by the heavenly stylists at Edward Nepe Parrucchiere, 19463 Mack Avenue. TUxedo 4-8858.

Christmas Portraits ... should be planned now. Call Eddie McGrath, Jr., 884-4280 for an appointment. His color photography is outstanding and conveniently available at 16839 Kercheval.

Refurbishing For The Holidays? ... Hurry to Wright's Gifts and Lamps, 18650 Mack Avenue. Bring your lamp with you for perfect balance and if you want it elongated through the top, they can increase the size from four to six inches ... TUxedo 5-8839.

Entertaining Ideas ... from The Four Winds, 13800 East Eight Mile Road, includes a miniature hibachi for cooking canapés, Hong Kong cascade multi-colored papers for atmosphere and fortune picks and matches for fun!

Do You ... look forward to holiday entertaining as a time for good food, good friends and good fun or a time for drudgery and kitchen fatigue? If you have a new kitchen by Kitchen Remodelers, 15218 East Jefferson, you'll enjoy holiday entertaining because your kitchen will be so beautiful, modern and efficient and friends will want to share it with you. If you don't have one this year, plan one for next.

A Magic Carpet ... you don't need to transport you to fabled lands. Keshan, Kerman, Bokhara and Sereghan conjure distant places and wealth of ancient design. Pick your carpet at Ed Maliszewski's, 21435 Mack Avenue. It will land right in the decorative picture for 1969 because the trend is to oriental rugs. You don't need a pocket of gold for these excellent reproductions from Belgium. A 9x12 flies out of the store for about three hundred nineteen dollars.

Every Thursday ... Westfield's feature family style shrimp fry ... all you can eat ... one forty-nine for adults ... ninety-nine cents for children. Besides the shrimp, you're served cole slaw, roll n' butter at Westfield's, 25506 Mack at Somerset ... TUxedo 5-1063.

4 Ways ... to get from the east side to Metro Airport ... 1. Take a cab, direct. 2. Take a cab downtown and transfer to a bus. 3. Drive your car. 4. Ride the Royal Coachman Limousine direct, at one-half the price of a cab, with no inconvenient transfers to make and avoid parking problems. If you prefer number 4 ... phone the Royal Coachman, TUxedo 6-1322.

Pre-holiday Happening ... at the Canvas and Brush, 16209 Mack Avenue, is a SALE on paintings.

Do Your Own Thing ... with a furniture find from The Ports of Call, 23220 Mack near Nine Mile. Interesting tables, chests, beds are awaiting to be refinished with flare and in time for Christmas. Coffee Night, every Friday from 5:00 to 9:00, gives you extra time to browse relaxed and imagine ... imagine!
