HEADLINES

WEEK
As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, December 5
PRESIDENT-ELECT Richard Nixon has named University of Michigan Professor Paul W. McCracken, as his chief economic adviser and opened negotiations with Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., the Democratic chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, who will have the final say over much of his economic programs.

H. BRUCE PALMER, 60, a former insurance executive who now heads an industrial research organization, and whose wife was murdered last year, announced Wednesday in New York, the creation of Citizens for Justice with Order, which he said will try to involve millions of people in the war on crime. Palmer's wife, Dorothy, 57, was stabbed to death in their New Vernon (N.J.) home on September 29, 1967. A 36-year-old tree surgeon was arrested about a month later and convicted of the murder and sentenced to death.

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT, fearful of another Middle East war, Wednesday night called on Israel and Jordan to stop violating their cease-fire agreement. The move came amid quickening diplomatic and military activity in the Mideast.

Friday, December 6
THE NATIONAL AERONAUTICS and Space Administration announced Thursday that moon-exploring Astronauts Frank Borman, William Lovell and William Anders, who are due to blast off from Cape Kennedy about 7:50 a.m. on December 21, will send back six live 15-minute telecasts during their mission.

THE VIETCONG announced Thursday its troops would observe 72-hour cease-fires for both Christmas and New Year's. American and South Vietnamese headquarters had announced on Monday a 24-hour truce for Christmas only.

PRESIDENT-ELECT Richard M. Nixon conferred with W. Averell Harriman Thursday and announced that he would not send an interim observer to the Paris peace talks to insure continuity in the quest for settlement in Vietnam.

Saturday, December 7
CITY-COUNTY HEALTH Director George Pickett announced Friday that Hong Kong flu appears to have struck the Detroit area. Although no cases have been confirmed in the Detroit area, school absenteeism has increased by 50 percent in the last 10 days. Dr. Pickett said "If what I suspect is true, there will be tens of thousands instead of hundreds like we had last year, the difference is that last year we had a relatively old strain of flu and people had either already had it or been immunized." Vaccine makers had predicted they would have limited supplies available by early December, but there has been only a trickle here so far.

WILLIAM D. ECKERT was fired as commissioner of baseball Friday in a dramatic move directed at regaining some of the sports lost prestige. The 59-year-old former Air Force general was given the ax by the major league owners at the conclusion of their winter meetings. Eckert still has four years remaining on a seven-year contract. He will be paid off for the remaining portion of his contract. His salary is $60,000 a year.

Sunday, December 8
THE UNITED STATES ARMY Corps of Engineers confirmed that it is now studying potential sites in the Troy-Rochester-Pontiac area to bury a nest of hydrogen bombs. The H-bombs will be warheads for a fleet of anti-ballistic missiles that the Defense Department is installing at sites across the country as part of the $5 billion Sentinel ABM system. Col. Elbert Welsh, who is in charge of examining sites in the Detroit area, indicated that construction could begin within a year. The missiles would be operational three years later.

Defer Students Provide A Christmas

Most children visualize Santa as driving a sleigh or even piloting a helicopter. Thanks, however, to the fine efforts of many Defer School students, children in a small rural community near Lenoir, N.C., know Santa as the driver of a truck, a truck loaded with used but serviceable toys collected by Defer School students for their Christmas. Credit for the success of "Operation Toydrive" belongs to many, but the Defer Student Congress should come in for the lion's share of the plau-

des. Because of their fine coordinating efforts, certain Appalachian children will, again this year, have a Christmas to remember. Pictured are members of the SC Standing in the back row (left to right) are ROB WORRELL, RODNEY SHEVE, ANDY NELSON, JANE LAIN and NANCY LITCH. Pictured in the foreground (left to right) are ALLISON ATHEY and CATHY GIROUX.

Amend Code Pertaining To Behavior

City Council Approves Ordinance Specifically Describing Disorderly Conduct

The City of Grosse Pointe Council on Tuesday, December 3, passed an ordinance amending the City Code by adding sections to the Disorderly Conduct Chapter.

The amendments provide specific language to cover various types of conduct and behavior previously covered in a general manner. Wherever possible the language parallels state statutes.

Under Acts Prohibited: No person shall:

Engage in or be about to engage in any illegal or improper diversion or act, or shall use any indecent, insulting, or immoral language, or shall be guilty of an indecent, insulting, or immoral conduct or behavior.

Be drunk or intoxicated or make or assist in making any noise, disturbance, or improper diversion, or any rout or riot, by which the peace and good order of the neighborhood are disturbed, or be guilty of disorderly conduct.

If under the age of 21 years, purchase or knowingly possess, transport, or have under his control any alcoholic liquor.

The changes become effective December 22.

Park Employee Recovers 'Trapped' Diamond Ring

A valuable diamond ring, worth $5,000 but with a sentimental value beyond price, went "down the drain" and was nearly lost forever, it was revealed on Monday, December 9, by Park City Manager Robert Sloane.

Modesty prevented Thomas Stack, of 1118 Nottingham, superintendent of the Park Water Department, from telling the story behind the near loss, but the city manager disclosed the episode when Stack was presented with a 20-year pin at a ceremony in the city council chambers. Stack was one of 12 employees honored at an annual presentation commemorating their years of service to the community.

Burglars Visit Three Homes In GP Farms

Thieves Take Advantage of Owners' Absence; Not Known if Culprits Gained Any Loot

Three homes, in as many days, were invaded by burglars who took advantage of the owners' absence, it has been disclosed by Farms police. Broken into were the homes of Benjamin H. Long, 187 Country Club drive, on Thursday, December 5; Henry E. Mertins, 35 Newberry place, on Friday, December 6; and Alexander D. Blackwell, 165 Lothrop road, on Saturday, December 7.

Entry into the Long residence was discovered by Frezeta Rucker, of 2235 Cortland, Detroit, a domestic, who told police that she arrived for work at 9:30 a.m. and entered the house through the garage. She said she went to the front door to check for mail and discovered that the sideboard of the entryway had been pulled out. She called police.

She told investigating officers that she checked the bedrooms of the house, and later found the side door of the building open. Police surmised this was the method of entry and exit of the thief. Nothing seemed to be missing, it was reported.

Mertins, who called police, said that no one was home from 5:20 p.m. to 10:30 p.m., at which time he came home to find that the rooms of the first and second floors had been ransacked. He said that he has no estimate of a possible loss until he makes a thorough check.

A neighbor told police officers that he had seen a late model car in front of the Mertins house, with several occupants, but could not give any kind of a description of the vehicle or the people.

Discovered By Mailman
The Blackwell break-in was discovered by the local mailman, who called police from the home of a neighbor of the Blackwells.

The mailman said that as he approached the Blackwell residence, he saw two young boys running from the house, with one boy carrying something in his hand. The pair got into a 1967 or 1968 yellow Ford station wagon, with another person behind the wheel. The culprits sped north on Lothrop, and then

Owner of Pointe Store Disappears During Trip North

George Flynn Missing Since November 15; Went to Locate Man Reported to Have Owed Him Large Sum of Money

George Flynn, well-known Pointer, and owner of the Alger Party Store, 17320 Mack, has been reported missing from his home. Mr. Flynn left his residence at 888 St. Clair on Friday, November 15, in an attempt to locate an individual who is said to have owed him a large sum of money.

The police are not ready to divulge the name of the man Flynn was seeking.

He checked in at an Oscoda, Mich., motel, then called his wife, explaining he had not yet located the man.

Mr. Flynn had car trouble at the Singing Bridge Grocery and left his car there. He then went to Taylor's Cottages, south of the Singing Bridge and registered.

Registered at Cottages
After a stay of about 10 minutes, he left there and headed back to the grocery. He has not been seen or heard from since. Taylor's Cottages are situated on U.S. 23, 10 miles south of East Tawas.

The Sheriff's Department, the State Police and the City of Grosse Pointe police are conducting an exhaustive investigation and search of the area.

Chief Andrew C. Teetaert sent Lt. Robert Van Tiem, and Patrolmen Richard Lanki and Edmond Benthuy up to the area to check for information on the disappearance but none was revealed.

Car Returned Here
City police returned Mr. Flynn's car to his home.

Mr. Flynn is described as a 60-year old, white male, weighing about 163 pounds. He is five feet seven and a half inches tall with gray hair and brown eyes. He wears black thick horned rim glasses and speaks with a slight French accent. He is reportedly in poor health.

Anyone with information on Mr. Flynn's disappearance is asked to contact the City of Grosse Pointe police immediately.

TIRES MISSING
City police received a radio call on Monday, December 2, to see a woman regarding larceny from a car which was parked in the Bon Secours Hospital parking lot. On arrival officers spoke to Therese Joyce Gilgallon, who told the officers that she had parked her '65 Chevrolet in the lot at 11:07 p.m. on December 1, and when she returned to it at 7:30 a.m. on the second, found the left front whitewall tire missing, as well as the spare tire and car jack. The window of the vehicle had been rolled down. The hubcaps, rim and nuts were left at the scene. Police are investigating.

BOY HURT
Mrs. Linda Truine, 956 Lincoln, called City police on Wednesday, December 4, to report her son Greg, 5, had fallen on the pavement and injured his face, possibly breaking his nose. Patrolmen Edmond Benthuy took Greg to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment.

A representative of the owners of a portion of the land to be rezoned was also present. He indicated his objections at this time to the proposed zoning change but added that the owners were sympathetic to the development.

Some of the neighbors present expressed concern over the way the area would be landscaped and developed, particularly with regard to the green belt between the area and existing homes. They also expressed concern over the noise and debris they associated with parking particularly in connection with the Neighborhood Club.

Representatives of the Village Businesses emphasized the need for additional parking and said that the parking problem was particularly acute before holidays and school openings.

Pointe Lions' Goal Is $6,000 To Aid Needy

Ask Public to Be Extra Generous in this 39th Annual Project to Raise Funds

At a kick-off luncheon held in the Pfeiffer Bottling company hospitality room in Detroit, on Thursday, Dec. 5, The Grosse Pointe Lions Club announced a goal of $6,000 it hopes to raise by offering newspapers for donations during its 39th Annual Goodfellow Sale.

Sixty Pointe Lions, aided by policemen and firemen of the five Pointes, will be at their appointed corners on Monday, December 16, hawking their wares. The generosity of the donors will help the Goodfellows to provide food baskets filled with all the things that will help needy Pointe families have a happy Christmas.

Because of the mounting responsibility, which seems to increase each year, T. A. Binkowski, club president, appointed Walter Breyer as co-chairman of the 1968 drive, to assist Carl Schweikart, who has chaired the event for the past nine years. Schweikart, however, has been retained as the only chairman to direct the filling and distribution of Christmas baskets.

Investigate Recipients
Names of families submitted for consideration to receive baskets for the holidays, are investigated to make sure they are in need, Binkowski said. Any person who knows of a needy family that is expecting a bleak Christmas, should submit the name of the family to either the police chief, or fire chief, of their municipality, and the chief will in turn forward the name of this family to the Lions Club.

Since the Grosse Pointe Lions Club, who has collected and disbursed more than $200,000 to those in need, and with the help of a generous public, the Lions will continue to make this their avowed practice. They hope that on December 16, buyers of their wares will be extra generous, and make 1968 the most successful Goodfellow.

The Goodfellows will be selling papers from early morning until noon, after which they will meet at the Old Place, Jefferson and Beaconsfield, for refreshments and luncheon.

Park Loans Facilities
As in previous years, the Park council approved use of building facilities at the Waterfront Park, where the Lions will fill and distribute their baskets.

Not only does the organization use money collected during the annual sales to help the local needy, but they also contribute funds for the training of seeing-eye dogs at a school in Rochester, one of three such schools in the United States.

Also, the Lions, comprised of Pointe residents and/or Pointe businessmen, contribute generously to many civic projects, plus paying expenses for eye operations, glasses, and so on for the destitute, who otherwise would be handicapped without this help.

Please, when you are approached by a Goodfellow to buy a paper, don't ignore him, "sock-it-to-'em" generously. Whatever you contribute will help.

Trucks Needed By Post Office

The Detroit Post Office is looking for additional trucks to help deliver the Christmas mail.

Postmaster E. L. Baker has asked that truck-owners interested in hiring out their vehicle for this Christmas period contact the Post Office at 965-3750, Ext. 268, or call at the Post Office Main Garage, 1770 14th Street, as soon as possible, and not later than December 12.

About 75 to 100 trucks are needed, primarily for parcel post delivery, including station wagons, panels, covered pickups and small stakes.

Man Surprised in Home Admits Other Burglaries

Irving Goldfarb, 42, of 3801 Virginia Park, Detroit, stood mute at his arraignment before Shores Judge George Beauchamp on Friday, November 29, and waived examination. Goldfarb is accused of the burglary of a Shores home on November 20.

The accused man was bound over for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court, and his bond of $3,000 was continued. He was released on the bond.

Shores Det. Sgt. Donald Jacobs and Det. Frank Mustazza said that Goldfarb confessed to committing three burglaries and one attempted burglary in the Park in 1963; one in the City, the same year; and two and possibly three in the Woods, also in 1963. Goldfarb also confessed a Farms burglary, and one in St. Clair Shores, both committed in into the bathroom bowl and flushed it.

At the exact moment the water began to run, Mrs. Formanczyk realized a multi-diamond ring was missing from her finger. At the same time, she recognized that the ring, which had belonged to her late mother, must have slipped off her finger and become entangled in the tissue paper she had tossed into the bowl.

Mrs. Formanczyk promptly closed the water shut-off valve and called a plumber, who worked unsuccessfully trying to retrieve the valuable bauble. The plumber finally gave up, but not so the woman.

Knowing Stack through his son, who is a friend of her children, Mrs. Formanczyk called Stack's home. Stack was attending church services, and his son intercepted the call.

Stack said that when he returned home, his son relayed the message from Mrs. Formanczyk, but he thought his boy was joking. Stack said he thought his son was "pulling his leg" because he had read of a similar incident in the daily newspaper about a week previously, and assumed this was what the lad was referring to, so he was inclined to let it pass. Finally convinced, Stack called the woman, who confirmed her need of his assistance.

Stack went to the Formanczyk residence, and, after reviewing the situation, tried unsuccessfully to secure the ring which, if it had not gone through the soil pipe, must still be caught in the trap. He worked for hours, until he finally had to give up for the evening.

Before leaving, however, Stack cut a piece of screening and placed it in a strategic spot in a soil pipe in the basement, leading from the upstairs.

Before going home, Stack advised Mrs. Formanczyk to keep the upstairs shut-off valve closed. Early Monday morning he returned, and made another futile effort to get the ring.

If, he surmised, the ring was still in the trap, there was only one way to force it loose. He advised Mrs. Formanczyk's son to ball up a large amount of facial tissue, drop it in the bowl and flush the paper through, on signal.

In the basement, Stack gave the go ahead. When the wad came through it was stopped by the screening, but with disheartening results; there was no ring.

Refusing to give up, Stack suggested the plan be repeated, and this time the ring was carried through by the paper, and recovered.

City hall officials would not have known about Stack's efforts, Stone said, if Mrs. Formanczyk had not called to express her thanks.

"This is the kind of man Tom Stack is," the city manager said. "He does extra services, even when he does not have to, to help others. We are proud we have people like him working for the city."

Police Accuse Woman Driver

A Harper Woods woman, who voluntarily stopped after a near collision with a Woods scout car, tried to escape when she was requested to get into the police vehicle to go to the station.

Cpl. Thomas Kerving and Patrolman James Davidson, while on routine patrol on Monday, November 25, going south on Mack, and approaching Hawthorne, observed a car stop for a stop sign at Hawthorne, and then come out into the intersection, forcing Davidson, who was driving, to swerve to avoid a collision.

The officers said that the driver of the other car, Elaine R. Messner of 20951 Beaufait, Harper Woods, completed the right turn onto Mack and then pulled over to the curb, and in front of a driveway of a business place.

Davidson said that he approached the woman and requested her operator's license and car registration. The woman was unable to produce the license, and was informed that she would have to go to the station.

The patrolman said that three times he asked the woman to pull away from the driveway, and at the third time, he suggested that she get out of the car, and he would move it for her. At this point, it was said, the woman stepped on the gas pedal, and took off at high speed, tires squealing. She was stopped at Mack and Anita.

The officer said that he suggested several times that the woman get into the police vehicle to go to the station, and that she became belligerent and belligerent. She was finally compelled to enter the scout car, and was taken to the station, where she was issued a violation ticket for having no operator's license on her person, and a second ticket for failing to yield the right of way at an intersection.

Memorial Center Skiing Groups Plan Big Season

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Ski groups—including the Adult Grosse Pointe Ski Club, the Collegians, Ski Hi for Teens, and the Junior Youth Council which has organized certain trips for members and guests—are all poised ready to begin the season's operations.

The Adult Grosse Pointe Ski Club is having a party to get ready for the slopes this Friday night, December 13, at 8 o'clock at the home of Dave Droege in Perrien place. Members and prospective members will enjoy refreshments, hand and each other for the small tariff of $2.

While the adults are getting warmed up, Ski Hi, for students in grades 9-12, will set off for Mt. Holly in a charter bus at 4 p.m. on Friday, December 13, for the first "Twilight" ski trip of the year. $5 covers tows, bus and chaperonage. They return at 11 p.m.

The following week, December 20, the Junior Youth Council and guests will have a specially chaperoned "Twilight" trip by bus to Alpine Valley.

At the end of Christmas Day, 40 lucky Ski Hi members will leave via jet for 10 days skiing at Vail, Col., staying at Holiday Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. McBride, Jr. are the trip leaders. Frank was the first president of the Grosse Pointe Ski Club when skiing was introduced at the Center where he and his wife now serve on the Program Committee. One spot remains open on this trip. Package trip is $199.

Another 140 Ski Hi's will leave the following afternoon, December 26, in a fleet of charter buses for a five-day ski trip to Boyne Country, staying at Wolverine and skiing Boyne Highlands, Nubs Nob, Thunder Mt. and Boyne Mt. About 25 places are still open as of this writing. Package price is $42.

Grosse Pointe War Memorial has rented a 26-bed farm house in Boyne Country for the ski season. It will be used by all the Center's ski groups. Already the Adult Ski Club has it filled over New Years. Next activity for the Adults will be a weekend ski trip via charter bus to Collingwood, Canada, on January 17. Transportation, cocktails, meals, lodging in twin-bedded rooms with private bath and all ski tow charges are covered in this all inclusive package for $45.

The younger skiers will go north for five more weekends and each week in between will ski local areas.

The Adult Ski trip to Vail and Aspen, Col., in March by private charter jet is already sold out. There is still time to sign up for a week's skiing in the Laurentians beginning February 6. The package includes jet air fare, transfers, twin bedded private bathrooms with 3 gourmet meals daily at Laurentide Inn and all ski charges and transfers for $207.70.

The War Memorial office is open day and night to accept memberships in any of the ski clubs or to make reservations and take payments for trips.

Plows Hindered By Parked Cars

The cooperation of Farms residents is being asked by Director of Public Service John DeFoe, in that the residents remove their automobiles, or other vehicles, from city streets following heavy snowfalls. The request is made so that snow plows can do a better job of clearing the thoroughfares.

DeFoe said that this service, rendered by the city, is hampered by the many cars parked on the streets, forcing the plows to go around them, thereby causing piles of snow to be pushed against the vehicles, which is unavoidable.

The snow piles against the cars creates an imposition on the citizens, who must undergo the back-breaking labor of shoveling the white stuff to free their autos, he said.

Another inconvenience, DeFoe added, is when the owners leave their cars parked at the curb with the snow surrounding them for days. During this time, the snow would have an opportunity to solidify into a hard mass, which the owners might not be able to remove until spring, or until this mass melts.

The Farms has been giving its residents this type of service for a number of years, and is anxious to continue this function. The car owners can be of tremendous help if they park their vehicles either in their garages, or driveways, and keep them off the streets, where ever possible, after the snow has fallen.

Heed the weather reports, DeFoe pleaded. When, and if, a heavy snow storm is predicted, it takes only a few short minutes to put a car in the garage, or on the driveway. If the snow is falling, when citizens arrive home, day or night, if possible, keep cars off the streets. Plows will be in operation almost as soon as the snow stops coming down, he added.

MESSY INTRUDERS

City patrolmen Edmund Benthuis and Dale Van Dale were on routine patrol on Tuesday, November 26, when they observed the side door of O'Leary Cadillac, 17153 E. Jefferson, was ajar. Upon investigation officers found all the lights on on the first floor, several light fixtures pulled down and a can of paint spilled down the stairway from the second floor. It appeared as though youngsters had entered from the second floor window by climbing a tree on the east side of the building. Police are investigating.

DOG PICKED UP

City police received a call on Monday, December 2, from a woman, who was holding a large, black Labrador, which she found running loose in front of the A and P Store, 17120 Kercheval. Patrolman Edmund Benthuis picked up the dog and took him to the City station. The owner, Daniel D. Jackson, 38 Edgemere, was issued a violation for dog running at large.

Escapes Injury In Farms Crash

Michael T. Buschbacher, 21, of 2111 Country Club, lost control of his car while traveling north on Moross road, on Monday, December 2, at 3:04 a.m., and crashed into an Edison pole, shearing it from its base. He was not injured.

Farms Patrolmen Vincent Peters and John Kraiza, sent to the accident scene, said they found Buschbacher's car on the lawn in front of 417 Moross, between Mack and Chalfonte. The Edison pole was on the ground.

The officers said that the motorist told them he had shifted his car gear, while still in motion, and the vehicle crossed over the "line," "spun out", and jumped the curb on the west side of the street, and struck the pole. He said that he started up from the traffic signal at Moross and Chalfonte. The right rear fender and the trunk lid were damaged, as was the lawn, the policemen said.

Dratted Dryness
Drained Dad's Daiquiri

ROBERT A. "Doc" WILLIAMS

Because of dry indoor air in the wintertime, some homes resemble a desert, even though they don't have the sand and palm trees. This dry condition can be as unbearable without the help of a Carrier humidifier. Take the case of the unfortunate father and his "extra dry" daiquiri.

He was an average businessman and executive. You know... overworked, tired, unappreciated, and constantly late at the office. Yet, his family loved him. The little woman would welcome him at night, lead him drooping frame and taxed brain to the living room, and gently ease him into his favorite chair. After a few minutes of partial collapse he was ready for his favorite beverage.

Trouble was this inevitable thing occurred every night during the heating season. It seems the air inside the house was thirstier than he. He would mix his daiquiri with all the care of the expert mixologist, pick up a cocktail glass, pour, and enter the unit and carries head for that favorite chair, them away to a drain. By the time he reached it, however, the glass was completely empty. The excessively dry air had drained it and soaked it up like a huge sponge.

His friends haven't seen him for several months now. Only his wife is allowed to visit his padded cell occasion-ally. We understand he's not allowed to have any form of glass when he eats. He thinks all glasses are out to get him. Sad cases isn't it. If only the Carrier humidifier before it came unbearable without the help of a Carrier humidifier.

The Carrier does away with dry air indoors during the winter heating season and keeps relative humidity levels at the comfort and safety level. It's an automatically controlled device that is installed on your furnace system. When heat is distributed to the house, moisture is spread right along with it. Since moisture spreads like a gas, it quickly reaches every room indoors.

The moisture helps to keep your furnishings from cracking, and paint from peeling. It helps to prevent colds and respiratory infections by stopping dry nose and throat conditions which can often cause trouble. The Carrier also removes 70% of the dust, dirt, and bacteria that cocktail glass, pour, and enter the unit and carries head for that favorite chair, them away to a drain. By the time he reached it, however, the glass was completely empty. The excessively dry air had drained it and soaked it up like a huge sponge.

For a FREE HUMIDIFIER KIT explaining humidifiers, their types, costs, and methods of installation, call visit his padded cell occasion-ally. We understand he's not

Brownell Plans
Xmas Concert

Tomorrow evening, Friday, December 13, Christmas will officially arrive at Brownell Middle School, when music instructors Dan Evola and Dewey Kalember present approximately 400 vocalists and an orchestra of 55 in the school's eleventh annual Christmas Concert. Beginning at 8 o'clock in the auditorium-gym, each of the three grade groups will be represented by choruses, as well as five specialty groups.

Opening the program the massed chorus, orchestra, and audience will sing "O Come All Ye Faithful," followed by the sixth grade chorus in "Long Ago" and "The Shepherd's Song." Seventh graders have prepared a Sicilian song, "Bagger's Carol," and the humorous "Up on a Housetop" (or "Beat Nick Rides Again") featuring Cliff Liebbold. Eighth grade chorus will present three familiar melodies of modern day: "Silver Bells," Simone's "Carol of the Star," and "White Christmas."

Specialty groups include the girls' A Cappella Choir with "Come Ye Sons of Art," "Sweet Was the Song," "The Carolers," and "The Shepherd"—accompanied by flautists Tish McFadden and Kathy Miotke. Another group of accomplished singers, the eighth grade ensemble, has prepared "We Three Kings" with Kevin Miller as soloist, and Pratorius' "Lo, How a Rose." The Boys' Chorus (spanning grades six, seven, and eight) will also sing "Calypso Niel" and "Coventry Carol."

The double quartet has had fun getting ready for this concert's two numbers, "It's Beginning to Look Like Christmas" and "Let It Snow!" These singers include Connie Hintzen, Kate McLeod, Sue Holston, Chris Klein, Art Mitchell, Jim Gardiner, Kevin Miller, and Chris Martin.

Twelve accomplished girl singers have prepared two difficult numbers: "What Child Is This?" a traditional Old English tune, and "Mary's Lullaby to the Infant King," a German folk song. Called "The Brownells," the group includes Kate McLeod, Connie Hintzen, Sue Holston, Donna Bliss, Tracy Allen, Cathy Lavins, Pam Winchester, Chris Klein, Laurie Chabot, and Chris Duncan.

Accompanists for vocal numbers are the following students: Doug Krieger, Donna Bliss, Tracy Allen, Janis Mendelsohn, Peggy Marshall, Kevin Miller, LilaJan Miller, and Carolyn Reed.

In addition to accompanying the massed chorus in its opening number, Dewey Kalember's orchestra has also prepared three instrumental numbers to demonstrate the proficiency the group has attained since September. These include Von Gluck's "Air de Ballet" (from the opera "Alceste"), Dalley's "Program Prelude" (based on two English folk tunes), and Dittersdorf's "Andante" from "Symphony in F".

The Cup itself was presented to the I.B.F. for this purpose by Sir George Thomas, one of England's most outstanding players, in 1939. Due to the war, however, actual competition was not started until 1948. Has been held every three years. The winner of this battle between the U.S. and Canada, the final American Zone, will go to Indonesia in June.

Badminton is highly rated as a physical conditioner. A recent Baylor University study indicated that there are more arm movements used during a single badminton game than those used by a pitcher in a nine inning ball game.

In an average game between two players, each runs as much as 2 to 2½ miles taking numerous 180 to 90 degree turns, stops and starts.

A badminton shuttle can be smashed as fast as 100 miles per hour, equal to or greater than the speed attained by a big league pitcher's fast ball. A smash is often returned several times during a single rally between players.

Because very few individual sports contain the basic athletic ingredients of skill, stamina and competitiveness evident in badminton for all ages and both sexes, the Lifetime Sports Foundation rated badminton as one of the six lifetime sports. The other lifetime sports include tennis, bowling, archery, golf and competitive bicycling.

Goldfarb came out of the hallway, pushed her aside, and fled from the house.

As he brushed past her, Mrs. Garbarino said, Goldfarb muttered, "I'm sorry lady. I didn't mean. I'm sorry."

The woman called police immediately, giving a description of the intruder and his car and license number. A general alert was broadcast over the police radio.

Farms Patrolman Ronald Wooten, on patrol on Lake Shore, heard the radio alarm, just as Goldfarb was turning north onto Moroz road, and followed. When the complete description of the man and his car was given, the officer knew he had the suspect, and called for assistance.

Harper Woods Patrolman Warren Newton blocked the road at the Edsel Ford Freeway, just as Goldfarb and Wooten arrived, and the two police officers hemmed the man in to prevent his escape. At about this time Shores Patrolmen Robert Besinger and Donald Lupro arrived.

In a search of Goldfarb's person, the officers found a large number of coins and pieces of jewelry, including a watch inscribed with the name "Robert Garbarino."

At the Shores station, Goldfarb told Jacobs and Mustazza that he had tossed jewelry pieces over the viaduct of the freeway. These were later recovered by Mustazza.

The detectives said that two bedrooms of the Garbarino residence were ransacked before Goldfarb was surprised by Mrs. Garbarino. She identified several pieces of jewelry taken from the accused man.

Woman Accused Of Bad Driving

Farms police alerted other departments at 5:16 p.m., on Saturday, November 9, to be on the lookout for a woman motorist wanted for investigation of a hit-and-run accident in the Farms. The woman was arrested by a Park patrolman who spotted her car weaving from lane to lane on Mack avenue.

Police were dispatched to Kerby road and Mack, to investigate the hit-and-run, and were met by Mrs. Shirley Ann Romatz of 4351 Neff, Detroit, who told them that she was traveling south on Kerby and stopped at the alley to Mack to make a left turn.

She said her car was hit in the left front fender by a car driven by Helen Carnes of 1401 Chalmers, Detroit, who was traveling west in the alley, and who caused a collision as she attempted to make a right turn onto Kerby.

Mrs. Romatz said that the other woman produced an operator's license, and told her to call her on Tuesday, and drove off. Mrs. Romatz said that the other woman appeared to be intoxicated.

Park Patrolman William Furtaw saw Mrs. Carnes traveling west on Mack, her car crossing back and forth over traffic lanes. The officer stopped the woman and placed her under arrest and took her to the Park station. While in the station, a call was received from Detroit authorities who said that Mrs. Carnes had been involved in another accident, at Somerset and Mack, on the Detroit side.

Mrs. Carnes was released to Farms police, after which she consented to a breathalyzer test, which she failed completely. She was given a violation ticket for driving while under the influence of liquor.

Woman Injured In LS Accident

Joanne Mary Grubbs of 631 Peach Tree lane, was found unconscious in her automobile by Shores policemen on Wednesday, December 4, who were the first to arrive at Lake Shore and Provincial, when a passing motorist telephoned that her car had been in an accident.

Shores Patrolmen Robert Bessinger and William Marshall sped to the scene in a Shores ambulance, and found that the accident had originated in the Farms and that the woman's vehicle had skidded over the boundary line into the Village. The officers called Farms police, after which they took Mrs. Grubbs to St. John Hospital, for treatment of cuts about the face and the right knee.

Farms Patrolmen Earl Field and Sam Cardella, who completed the investigation in the matter, said that Mrs. Grubbs was traveling alone east on Lake Shore, at about 1:39 a.m., when somehow she lost control of her car in front of 475 Lake Shore.

The report disclosed that the woman's auto traveled a total of 362 feet from the east roadway to the point where it came to a stop.

The car jumped the curb of the island, struck a tree on the island, bounced off, crossed the west bound lanes of the road, went over the curb sideways, hit a second tree in front of 489 Lake Shore, traveled east on on the grass and hit a fire hydrant head-on before coming to a stop, just six feet over the boundary in the Shores.

Damage to the auto was estimated at about $2,000. Damaged was the front end, both sides and the rear. There were no witnesses, and no ticket was issued.

An election should be held to decide which half of the people will reform the other half.

University School News

The Grosse Pointe University School's winter athletic program is now fully under way. One girls' and three boys' varsity teams will represent the school in interscholastic competition. The wrestling and hockey teams have already begun their schedules; the basketball team opens its season on December 14; and the girls' volleyball team plays its first game on January 8.

Coach Bob Wood's basketball squad boasts only three returning lettermen from the team which lost in the finals of the district tournament last year. They are seniors Ed Larson, of 576 Shoreham, Kirk Stanfield, of 1630 Fairholme, and Tophar Ware, of 400 Washington.

The season and home opener against Maumee Valley Country Day will be the first real test of the team's prospects for a successful campaign. Coach Wood is also looking forward to the team's participation in a Christmas tournament in Carsonville, Michigan, December 28-29. Six schools will be represented at this tournament, and so by the time the new year rolls around some questions should be answered about this year's squad.

The hockey team coached by Tony Elliot, a newcomer to the University School staff, has already played two games, the first a loss to Bloomfield Andover and the second a decisive victory over Aquinas High School on December 6. The team, made up of sophomores and juniors, has only four returning lettermen.

Sophomore Davy Hoag, of 501 Washington Road, juniors Gary Burke, of 25 Woodland Shore Drive, and George Finkenstaedt, of 423 Fisher, and senior Jim French, of 174 Ridge, are the only returnees. The team is a member of the International Hockey League, whose third division it won last year, but because the league will comprise only two divisions this year, the competition is bound to be stiffer. The first league game will take place on Friday, December 13, against St. Ambrose.

The wrestling team, an enthusiastic but inexperienced squad, also is coached by a newcomer to G.P.U.S. He is Philip Lorange, a life-long resident of Grosse Pointe Farms, who is currently the Editor of the South Macomb Bureau of the "Macomb Daily Newspaper."

A graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Mr. Lorange coached baseball and wrestling in the Marine Corps, in which he attained the rank of Captain. The team lost its first match to Mt. Clemens, but hopes to have gained valuable experience from that encounter which will be useful in its next match, a January 7 meeting with Grosse Pointe North.

The girls' volleyball team represents the fourth varsity squad which will see action this winter. The team plays a nine game schedule, beginning on January 8 and ending on January 28. Following this season, girls' basketball begins as a fifth varsity sport, with 10 games scheduled in February and March.

The University School is proud to note that its sports program is not confined to varsity, junior varsity, or even interscholastic competition, however. Beginning as early as grade 5, youngsters are exposed to at least one hour of sports every day. The boys in grades 5 through 8, for example, are divided into three teams, Reds, Whites, and Blues.

Each team participates in hockey, wrestling or basketball for approximately three and one half weeks. After each group has had exposure to each sport, all the boys are divided by ability and put into an intramural program in all three sports. For grades 7 and 8, six interscholastic games or matches are arranged in all three sports.

The girls likewise have an active program. They may choose volleyball, badminton, skating, or modern dance as their athletic activity. The latter choice, a new offering at the school and coached by Miss Kathy Sutter, is required of ninth graders two days a week. At the mid term break in February, basketball will substitute for volleyball, and gymnastics will replace modern dance.

Most important in the University School's winter athletic program, as is true in the other seasons as well, the emphasis is on participation. All students participate at some level in one of the sports offered. Happily, there is a spot for everyone, regardless of his or her interest or ability.

Additional Funds Allocated For North High School Use

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education voted on Monday, December 9, to allocate an additional 5 per cent to North High School's equipment and furniture account from existing funds resulting from the proceeds of the 1965 North High School Bond Issue.

This 5 per cent allocation is said to be necessary due to the increase in costs and inflationary factors that have developed since the budget was originally estimated by Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, then secondary planning director for North High School, some three years ago. This allocation would add $40,000 to North's account.

The money will be used in 24 different areas, which include furniture and equipment for the library, science, performing arts center, business education, special education, art, practical arts, language arts, large group learning space, social studies, mathematics, administration, bookstore, cafeteria, driver education, custodial and engineering, group guidance, lobby, student center, classrooms, seminars, audio-visual and consumable materials.

Lee H. Allen, trustee, made a motion to make this allocation. Edward J. Pongracz, treasurer, seconded the motion.

the detriment of other departments, such as the library. She expressed the hope that these funds will be used to treat all departments equitably. She added that school people must realize that the Board of Education allocates the funds but decisions as to how they are spent are made at the school itself.

Arnold Fuchs then stated that he had asked for an itemized list of what the school would not have if the allocation was denied and that he had not received it.

Mrs. Hykes then indicated that what the Board had received was a dollar and cents explanation of the situation and that as lay people, the Board members were not qualified to say what would or would not be necessary to the school.

Mr. Fuchs said he accepted that but felt that he would have liked to see an itemized list to determine whether any of the items could be put off until next year.

When the vote was taken Mr. Fuchs voted nay. The allocation of funds was approved 6-1.

Farms Submits Building Report

Building of homes in the Farms seems to have reached a saturation point, according to a monthly report submitted by Public Director John DeFoe, which revealed that from January 1 through November 30 of this year, only five residential construction permits were approved. Only nine were granted during the same period in 1967. Last month, DeFoe's report disclosed, one application for residential construction, for an $84,000 home at 247 Lake Shore road, was requested and approved, as compared to one okayed in November 1967, for a home valued at $25,000. During the 11 months of 1968, not a single application was received for a permit for construction of a commercial building, and only one was approved for a $30,000 commercial structure during the same time last year. Last month, the Farms Building Department granted a permit for a non-assessable construction, a $3,000,000 addition to Cottage Hospital, the only such type permit this year. One was applied for from January through November of 1967. The total number of miscellaneous construction permits approved last month was eight, and they were for buildings valued at a total of $88,400 and in November of 1967, the number was four, valued at $23,000. From January 1 through November 30 of 1968, the number of miscellaneous permits approved was 84, having a total valuation of $494,800, and for the same period of 1967, the number was 91, valued at $509,800. Spare the rod, and the seat of the trouble will never be tapped.

Red Cross Warns About Hazards of Ice Accidents

"Getting into hot water" is only a synonym for trouble, but trouble from getting into cold water is a reality, and sometimes a tragedy, for many Americans each winter.

"All too frequently this trouble comes from going on the ice too early," says George Wibby, director of Safety Services, Southeastern Michigan Chapter of the Red Cross. "The first ice of the season is deceptive because normally it is not uniform in thickness. Wait until the ice is safe."

Mr. Wibby made these additional suggestions for winter sports enthusiasts:

Skate in supervised areas, ideally a shallow pond or lake in which the water is not more than waist deep.

Skate with a companion.

Avoid congregating on the ice in large groups.

Build fires on the bank — NOT on the ice.

Do not drive cars onto the ice. Remember that ice is especially dangerous during thawing spells and toward the end of winter.

Keep simple rescue equipment handy at skating areas—ropes, poles, ladders, or planks — in case of accident.

If you try to rescue someone who has fallen through the ice, this is the safest method:

1. Extend a line or a pole if the victim is near the shore. When he has grasped it securely, pull him to safety.

2. Do not stand up on the ice when executing a rescue.

3. If the victim cannot be reached from the shore, lie flat on the ice and extend a ladder, plank, or similar device. When he has grasped it, pull him to safety.

4. If no rescue equipment is at hand, several persons can form a human chain by lying flat on the ice, holding onto the ankles or skates of the person in front. They work their way toward the victim, the foremost man grasps the victim's wrist, and the whole line wriggles back to safety.

If you are alone and fall through the ice, don't try to climb out. Instead, extend both arms along the surface of the ice and kick vigorously. This will tend to raise the lower part of the body and help propel you onto solid ice. Then roll to safety.

Mr. Wibby also warned against the dangers of prolonged immersion in cold water. Even expert swimmers can drown if they stay in near-icy water long enough to lose the capacity to move their arms and legs, he said.

"If an accident tumbles you into the cold waters of a lake or river, don't try to remove your clothing," he added. "The clothing will help you retain body heat and it can also hold and trap air which will add to your buoyancy. The important thing is to get out of the water as soon as possible."

Devil Cagers Bomb Dearborn

Although the Blue Devil South High School cagers bombed Dearborn last Friday night, 85-50, their real test will come this weekend when they play back-to-back games with Wyandotte and East Detroit.

The Wyandotte contest will be at home this Friday, and it will mark the opening of BCL competition for the Devils. The Bears haven't played as yet, so the way their team shapes up is presently a mystery. Last year, however, they finished third in the BCL.

The Devils play at East Detroit the following night and although the Detroiters lost their first game to Romulus by four points, they displayed an explosive offense by tallying 77 points of their own.

The Blue Devils showed in the romp over Dearborn that they, too, possess an excellent offense. However, the defensive play was equally superb as Dearborn scored only six points in the second quarter, and trailed at halftime 46-20.

Jim Humes led the Devils with 17 points in the game, but he was only one of four Grosse Pointe players who scored in double figures. Bill Roberts also contributed 16 points while Chris Malafouris scored 15 and Larry Ulmer netted 13.

Much of the scoring came on some fine outside shooting, but the Devils were also able to drive through the weak Dearborn defense and score on easy lay-ups.

The outcome of the game was never in doubt after the Devils broke an early 4-4 tie and eventually jumped to a 27-14 first quarter lead.

As Grosse Pointe gradually built up its lead, coach Chuck Hollosy substituted freely and everyone on the squad gained some valuable playing experience.

Glenn Crane Serves On USS New Jersey

Signalman Third Class Glenn T. Crane, USN, 20, son of Mr. Leslie C. Crane of 1092 Blairmoor court, is serving aboard the battleship USS New Jersey off the coast of Vietnam.

His ship blasted enemy fortifications near the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) inflicting some of its heaviest damage since joining the Seventh Fleet in September.

The battlewagon's 16 and five-inch guns destroyed 11 structures, seven underground bunkers, a concrete tower, nearly 100 meters of trenchline and three supply lines.

Airborne spotters reported nine other structures and five bunkers damaged, and sighted at least seven secondary explosions.

Since the bombing halt north of the DMZ, New Jersey has moved to South Vietnam, where the ship destroyed enemy occupied caves and bunkers. Three secondary explosions were reported by airborne spotters.

GPSHS Natators Fourth in Relays

The Grosse Pointe South swimming team finished tied for fourth in the Royal Oak Kimball Relays, Saturday. Kimball took first with 50 points and was followed by Allen Park with 46, Birmingham Groves with 42, and Birmingham Seaholm and South with 38 points.

It was a disappointing beginning for the Devils this season. The breaks just didn't seem to come for them. Grosse Pointe had the best qualifying time in both the 200 and 400-yard freestyle relays, but neither relay team could finish first in the finals. The backstroke relay, which was supposed to be strong, couldn't even qualify.

Allen Park took first in the 400-yard freestyle relay and South's team of Chris Cassell, Mark Goodheart, Charlie Brown, and Pete Maxon finished fourth.

The 200-yard breast stroke relay was won by Birmingham Grove's record-breaking time of 1:59.4. Brian Ferry, John Walters, Bob Lieder, and Max Gardner took second for South.

The 400-yard individual medley relay was won by Ann Arbor Pioneer. The Devils finished fifth with Lincoln Lee, Brian Ferry, Max Gardner, and John Fountain swimming.

Allen Park won the 200-yard medley relay with Mark Boerner, Bob Lieder, Charlie Brown, and Dave Grunewald finishing third for Grosse Pointe.

Southfield took the 200-yard freestyle relay. The Devils' Chris Cassell, Dave Grunewald, Mark Goodheart, and Pete Maxon finished second. The Devils were first in the preliminaries but they didn't get the same performance in the finals.

"This shows we need some work," said coach Carl Schoessel. "Of course, we want our best performance at the state meet, rather than at the beginning of the season."

South first BCL meet will be against Wyandotte this Friday. Wyandotte has a good breast stroker in Roy Wright, but they don't have as much depth as the Devils. Mr. Schoessel expects to experiment against Wyandotte by trying some new swimmers and juggling his relay teams.

Robert E. Pickup, Jr. Trains at Ft. Benning

Robert E. Pickup Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Pickup, 355 Chalfonte, a student at the University of Michigan, has completed the nation's only basic Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps summer camp at Ft. Benning, Ga.

The basic summer camp provides active-duty training in lieu of two years on-campus study, allowing him to enter the advanced ROTC program at the university.

During the six-week encampment, he received intensive training in leadership, rifle marksmanship, physical conditioning and other military subjects.

Upon completion of the advanced ROTC program and graduation from college, he is eligible to be commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army.

Cadet Pickup is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, and a 1964 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School. His wife Elizabeth lives at 871 Harrington, Mount Clemens, Mich.

World Wide Wines

Beer & Cigars

With World travel being as great as it is today, our American folks have developed their wine knowledge, and have acquired tastes for many new wines during their travels. Each country they visit they find many new wines they have never tasted or heard of before. Many folk have planned their whole vacations visiting the famous wine countries, both in America and abroad. Now that summer is over and most folks are home again till next summer vacation, and find their wine stock a little low, will start on a tour of local wine shops trying to find some of the wines they had tried during their vacation. Many shops they visit the answer is about the same, they don't have the wines or have never heard of them.

At Gibb's World-Wide-Wines we feature over 1,500 different wines from most of the wine countries through the world. California is America's largest wine producing state. California produces hundreds of fine wines, their dry table wines being the largest produced. California constantly improves their wines. The state of California is largely responsible for the increased consumption of wines in America. California has helped every wine growing state in America. Their strong support to the America wine selling dealers, with a constant flow of wine information in booklet form, lectures, films, ads, etc., has helped us all to help the wine drinkers of America know and try wines. California produces many economical table and dessert wines in 1/10, 1/5, 1/2 gallon, and gallon bottles.

The state of California gets its revenue to finance this huge enterprise project, by charging a small fee on each gallon of wine produced, and is paid for by the producer of the wine. A finer grade of California wines are also produced by some companies called generic, such as, Rhine, Sauterne, Burgundy, Chablis, etc., these being named after European areas. They are made from special grapes, and generally located in the better wine areas of California. The finest wines of California are called varietal wines. These wines are named after the variety of grape from which they were made, such as Pinot-Noir, Cabernet-Sauvignon, Johannisberg-Riesling, Pinot-Chardonnay, Chenin Blanc, etc. These wines are all the cream of American wines. All these famous California wines are available at Gibb's World-Wide Wines.

France produces some of the world's finest wines. Bordeaux and Burgundy being the greatest areas. The only genuine champagne in the world comes from France.

Bordeaux's greatest reds come from the communes of St. Estephe, Pauillac, St. Julien, Margaux, Graves, St. Emilion and Pomerol. In the greater Bordeaux vineyards the wines are all bottled and sold as one wine with one single label. These wines are all bought by wholesale distributors and brokers, then shipped to shops like Gibb's World-Wide Wines throughout the world. The word Chateau precedes the bona fide name of these individual vineyards which produce some of the world's finest red dry wines. (ex Chateau-Smithe, Chateau Jones, etc.)

In the great Burgundy vineyards of France, one person seldom owns the whole yard. As many as 40 owners may each own a small section of each yard. For example Chambertin with many owners each owns wine will vary in quality. Even though they may all read Chambertin on the label the growers or owners name should be on the label. This of course distinguishes one from the other. Example Chambertin produced by John Jones or Frank Smith. These small names on the label helps you to identify the one you may have had and liked or disliked. There are several Gevrey-Chambertin, you should pick them the same way by the producer or owners name. Gevrey is a lesser grade generally, but is also less in price. Gevrey is the name of the town, Chambertin the yard, and so on with most of the better Burgundy vineyards of France. Burgundy greatness is a combination of the Pinot-Noir grape, plus the Burgundy soil a strip of land, 38 miles long varying from 1/2 to 2 miles wide. The whole strip is named Cote De Ore (golden-slope). The northern 19 miles called Cote De Nuits, and the southern 19 miles Cote De Beaune. Both together 38 miles of the only authentic Burgundy wines in the world. North to south, Dijon to Santenay.

So Bordeaux wines are easier to select than Burgundy.

Gibb's World-Wide Wines is not just a common retail store or shop to buy wines, but a collection of the world's finest carefully tried and selected wines. Gibb's World-Wide Wines has no expensive glass doors, no red carpets, no polished woodwork—but is a shop filled to the rafters with the world's finest wines. Our personnel are all well qualified to help you select wines for your cellar, for parties, for dinners, for gifts, and they know what each bottle contains, and its proper uses. If it's sweet, if it's dry, if it's the right wine for your needs. To be sure, make your selections at Gibb's World-Wide Wines.

Austin Prep School News

Preparations are now being made for the annual Christmas Ball at Austin Prep. on Saturday evening, December 14, from 8:30 to 11:30. The featured band will be "The Well Respected Men." Tickets will be $4 per couple and are available at Austin or at the dance.

This couple dance is very dressy, yet it is not a full formal. Under the direction of Thomas E. Bailey, Vice Principal of Studies and Activities, the dance will have special decorations as well as a visit from Santa Claus with whom students can have their pictures taken. Dance decor is designed by the Dance Committee and Rev. L. Dore, O.S.A. Tickets are available for couples outside Austin through Austin Senate.

The Office of Activities announces the recipients of awards for its students. Tim Garvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Garvey, will receive the Detroit Police Citizenship Award. This annual award is given to a senior for his outstanding leadership, character, and civic citizenship by the Detroit Police Department. Tim is President of the Student Senate, a team manager, active in the Austin Players and Forensics. He will attend the Cobo Hall Celebration and will receive his plaque.

Richard P. Koller Aids In Rescue

Fire Control Technician Second Class Richard P. Koller, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koller, of 1528 Roslyn road, participated in the rescue of two downed Marine Corps pilots in the South China Sea while serving aboard the USS Towers.

The Towers, a guided missile destroyer, received word that the Marine pilots had been hit by ground fire. They were flying as spotters for the battleship USS New Jersey, which along with the Towers was providing gunfire support for the Third Marine Amphibious Force.

The pilots were spotted as they parachuted into the water about three miles off the coast. A small boat was sent out when the pilots were within 100 yards of the Towers. The small-boat crew was surprised when one of the pilots greeted them with, "What's for chow?"

The Outstanding Teenager of America Award has been awarded to three Austin Students. George Shea, a junior, received the award. George is editor of the school paper, The Friar, has served on the Student Senate, and has been active in the Austin Players, Dance Committee and Forensics.

Mike Maurice, a senior, has received the award. Mike's credits include Student Senate, the Austin Players, a Forensic winner, the Dance Committee, and the Austin Academy.

Mike Oliver, has received the award for his leadership in football, as co-captain, in the Austin Players and in Student Senate.

City Replacing 16 Lost Trees

The City of Grosse Pointe Council on Tuesday, December 3, approved the recommendation of City Manager Thomas Kressbach based on a survey of locations where City street trees were lost this past year due to Dutch elm disease, storm damage and other causes, to replace 16 trees.

Ten of the replacements represent Dutch elm disease loss, the remainder diseased maples and other causes. The locations and type of trees suggested for planting have been selected on a basis to permit proper growth of the new tree and also to provide an aesthetic balance with existing trees.

City Manager Kressbach also suggested, and the Council approved, a study to determine what the scope and cost of a reforestation program would be and if budgeting consideration would permit the undertaking of such a program. He pointed out that many areas in the city, where trees could be planted with a proper planting distance, are void of trees because trees lost a number of years ago have never been replaced.

The Council approved purchasing the trees at the price of $70 per tree from Shock Brothers, Inc. The price includes the survey, selection of planting sites, and species to be planted. They are wrapped, wilt-proofed, fertilized and guyed and are from one to two and a half inches in diameter.

Be alert and aggressive — stumbling blocks for one man are stepping stones for another.

St. Paul Teams All Successful

By Bill Welch
 St. Paul Athletics have been nothing but the best this year. The cross country team took first in the region and sixth in the state. The football team had a record-breaking season. Both teams had all city and all state members. And after only two league games, it is clear that basketball will be no exception.

The team has a 2-0 league record, with only one non-league defeat, to Bishop Gallagher. The starting five of Mike Corcoran, Tim Bigham, Mike Ferrell, Jim Martin and Dennis Hayes have shown that they have the skill and experience to succeed.

In the first league game against St. David, the Lakers soundly defeated their opponents, 59-37. Tim Bigham was top scorer with 11 points and all team members took part in the victory.

The following week they once again showed their power with a victory over St. Ladislau's greyhounds, 69-55. Bigham was again top scorer with 21 points, followed by Mike Corcoran with 13 and Jim Martin with 10.

One thing to remember is are—not as you imagine you that others know you as you are.

Car Racing Team Has Great Year

In exactly a year and a day after they combined forces as an owner-driver team in championship car racing, Oscar L. (Ozzie) Olson, of 66 Renaud road and Dan Gurney wrapped up what has to be the most successful beginning for such a partnership in the history of the sport.

When Gurney, auto racing's most versatile star, sped home in record-breaking time to win the Rex Mays 300 at Riverside (Calif.) International Raceway on December 1, his record in the Olsonite Eagle moved to three victories and a second-place finish in four attempts.

It was at Riverside where it all began on December 1, 1967, when Gurney won the first running of the Rex Mays 300 over the hilly, curving road course less than two weeks after he and Olson, industrialist and sportsman, had formed their team.

Then came the Indianapolis 500, where Gurney finished a very respectable second, and a second Olsonite Eagle, driven by Denny Hulme, came in fourth.

Another stirring victory, again in record time, followed in the 200-mile Telegram Trophy Race at Mosport, Ont., in June before Gurney scored his repeat win at Riverside.

Notable, too, were the fantastic speeds which Gurney recorded in scoring his victories. In each of his winning starts — at Mosport and two at Riverside — he not only established new track records in winning the race but set new lap records before each in capturing the pole position.

Christmas Program Held By Pi Lambda Thetas

The Alpha Pi chapter of Pi Lambda Theta, a national honor and professional association for women in education, had a Christmas program at the Alumni House at Wayne State University on Sunday, December 8, at 2 o'clock.

This primarily social event was highlighted by a choral presentation by the Highland Park High School Ensemble under the direction of Keith Sturtevant and was enjoyed not only by the members of the sorority but by members of their families and a group of foreign students and their families who also attended.

One glaring fault found with many people is that they never know what to say — and do.

Radio Station Honors Officer

Wood Public Safety Sgt. Bernard Kelly was honored by Radio Station WWWW (W-4) with a "Citizen of the Day Award" in recognition of outstanding contribution to the community. A certificate was presented on Monday, November 18.

In a letter of congratulations from John J. Danahy, general manager of W-4, it was revealed that Kelly's name was mentioned 14 times between 1 a.m. and 11 p.m., on Wednesday, November 20, in a salute to the officer.

The sergeant's name was submitted to WWWW for a "Citizen of the Day Award" by someone who expressed appreciation for his kindness and his help when it was needed.

Kelly is a lecturer at Mass at St. Joan of Arc Church, and is a frequent speaker in recruitment classes in all phases of police communication. He is also responsible for setting up an all new records system for the Woods Public Safety Department.

Former Pointers On Bishop Show

If you're a Joey Bishop fan and if you were watching on Tuesday, November 12, you were entertained by three charming little girls called the Whaler sisters.

The girls, former Pointers, were to have appeared with their father, Norman, but he was unable to cross the picket lines set up by network musicians who were on strike at the time. However the girls, Gail, 10, Diane, 13, and Carroll, 14, appeared without papa and did a bang-up job.

Their dad was delighted with their performance but disappointed that he couldn't perform with them.

The Whalers left Grosse Pointe and moved to southern California some three years ago because of Carroll's bronchitis. According to Mrs. Whaler the climate there has really helped Carroll.

The Whalers have made appearances at the National Orange Show in San Bernardino, Cal., supermarket openings, shopping center promotions, charity and club affairs and veterans hospitals, but Joey Bishop's show was the big time and they came through like real troopers!

Norman began teaching his daughters to sing some six years ago. He started with Christmas carols. The girls enjoyed singing so much they begged to be taught other songs and more difficult arrangements... and an act was born!

Find Stolen Car; Items Missing

A thief who stole a car belonging to John M. Schade, of 1830 Stanhope road, abandoned the vehicle in Harper Woods, but not before he looted the car of several valuable items.

Schade called Woods police on Wednesday, December 4, and reported his loss. He said he had parked and locked his car in front of 1835 Stanhope at about 8:30 p.m. the previous evening.

He said his father arrived home at about 2:30 a.m. and did not see the automobile, but assumed that his son was still out for the evening and thought no more about it.

Shortly after reporting the theft, Schade was informed by Woods authorities that his vehicle had been recovered by Harper Woods police in front of 21421 Severn in their city.

When the car was returned to him, Schade said, he discovered that whoever had stolen the auto also took the following items that were in the car:

A stereo-tape player, valued at $80; an FM-AM stereo radio mounted on the car floor, $125; a portable AM-FM stereo radio, $80; a brown leather case with a coin changer, taken from the trunk, $20; a complete 200-piece set of Craftsman tools in a large metal case, from the trunk, $200; and an electric drill, also taken from the trunk, worth $35.

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools

As those of you who have been following the organization of the three School Study Committees know, the Committees are to present their findings to the Board of Education as soon as possible, but not later than May 1, 1969. And, as you may also know, there will be no interim publicity on the proceedings of the three groups. However, to give citizens a better picture of what those on the committees are doing, perhaps readers will be interested in learning some of the recent "behind the scenes" activities of the three groups in question.

For example, at the initial meeting of the Millage Committee, following presentations on school finance by Ray MacArthur, Director of Business and Finance, and on school system organization and staffing by Lawrence K. Kennedy, Assistant Superintendent - Personnel, the group formed an Agenda Committee under the leadership of Chairman William Porter. Its 10 members met November 19 to develop procedures to be followed during the deliberations which will evolve into a set of recommendations to the school trustees in the spring. They met again on November 25 to discuss the formation of six possible subcommittees to enable them to carry out their work: elementary, middle school, high school, special education, administration, and public library.

Because of the magnitude of the task, the group will, of necessity, limit itself to deliberations involving major kinds of high priority items in its general area of concern and will seek to devote energies to necessary improvements.

As thorough a look as possible at the entire educational program will be attempted. The key question to be answered is: At what level should the Grosse Pointe school program operate? Once agreement is reached on that point, the next question is: How do we finance it?

On November 18 the Middle School Committee heard a panel discussion by three teachers: George Pamerleau of Parcels, Francis Lamb of Pierce and David Thomas of Brownell.

Prior to the meeting the members had completed a questionnaire on their interests. In addition, with the cooperation of the public library, a variety of resource materials were put on reserve for committee members to read and study. In an effort to understand middle school education, all committee members will visit each of the three schools to observe conditions first-hand. And, one subcommittee is preparing a report to the total group.

The members have also toured North High School to gain an understanding of what a contemporary school is. This is an important activity because school facilities have changed since the committee members were students themselves.

In its first session, the South High School Committee met for a general discussion of possible needs of the 40-year-old building. Co-chairmen of the South High School Committee are Mrs. Joseph Perry and R. J. Hummel. They, along with Board Treasurer Edward Pongraz, Benjamin Zenn, recently appointed Director of Administration, and Principal Jerry J. Gerich, form the Agenda Committee that met on December 2 to prepare for the second general meeting on December 16.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank again the 150 civic-minded residents who have accepted committee assignments. They have been assured that the Board of Education has no preconceived notions as to what recommendations will evolve.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

An Open Letter to the Teenagers of Grosse Pointe

I was with several of my friends the other day and we saw a small crippled youngster walking down the other side of the street. I listened to their remarks of how sorry they were for these poor people who could not lead a normal life. It was strange to hear them say these things. They were crippled, but in a worse way. Their crutches were the drugs and pot and alcohol they took at various times.

We use drugs and alcohol knowing that it may be destroying our lives, our bodies or our minds. Is it worth it? Is getting drunk worth that seemingly impossible chance that you might hit a person with your car? A crutch is usually temporary but it can become permanent as in the case of alcohol. We are the hope of tomorrow. We have the chance to really make this world a better place to live in and live life. We may have a car right off the assembly line and a thick wallet but our life and our future are still the most important things we have. Is taking pot worth it just to keep with the latest fad?

It's odd that these so-called mind-expanding drugs can destroy the mind. We will find it more rewarding in the future if we live free of crutches. The youth of today is supposed to be independent, so let's be independent.

A Concerned Teenager Tom

Dear Sir:

I want to publicly give recognition to the Grosse Pointe Woods Fire and Police Department for their quick response and courteous services rendered my father during an emergency call at 5 a.m. on October 6.

My father was gasping for air; his tongue was swollen to the point of asphyxiating him.

My call to the Fire Department for help was immediately answered. Within a matter of two or three minutes, an ambulance with a police escort arrived, with life saving oxygen. My father was rushed to the hospital, where doctors were waiting to receive my father who was very critical.

The Fire and Police Department's alertness and quick action helped to save my father's life.

On behalf of our family, I wish to express our thanks and appreciation.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. James Algodelis
2312 Allard Avenue

Gentlemen:

If you publish this after most Farms people have received tax bills it would be interesting to know how many taxpayers are concerned about the increasing taxes.

Ours was up 13 per cent—'67 over '66 and now over 25 per cent over '67—just looks like we should have a "Boston Tea Party."

Respectfully,

R.W.R.

Policeman Quits Farms Force

Farms Patrolman John D. Erskine resigned from the Police Department, effective as of Sunday, November 24, it was announced by Police Chief Jack F. Roh. He will be continued on the payroll until December 14 because of accumulated leave and sick time.

Erskine was appointed to the force on June 3, 1967. He is a graduate of the Metropolitan Police Academy.

He was a former patrolman with the Grosse Pointe City Police Department, from which he resigned to become employed in private industry. He retained this job for about two years before deciding he wanted to continue his police career, and he applied and was appointed in the Farms.

Erskine gave the reason for his recent resignation as that he was offered a position as a claims investigator with the Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield Insurance, at a substantial increase in salary.

He said that he owed it to himself and to his family to try this type of employment, but he is still very much interested in police work. He said if he is not successful in this latest venture, he will apply for employment as a trooper with the Michigan State Police.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

On November 25, the American writer, Upton Sinclair, died at the age of 90. He had produced one book for every year of his life; the most famous, probably, being THE JUNGLE—a novel pointing up the filthy conditions in the meat plants. Immediately President Theodore Roosevelt was besieged with letters demanding that he do something about the situation. An investigation was made which culminated in the first Federal pure-food statute.

Upton Sinclair was born in Baltimore in 1878. His father was a salesman of whiskey, straw hats and men's clothing; the first-named was his downfall, thus explaining possibly why his son was a Prohibitionist. His mother supervised his education until he was 10 and entered school. By this time the family was living in New York and Upton went through eight grades of school in two years. At the age of 14 he made his first literary attempt—he wrote a story about a pet bird; ARGOSY Magazine paid him $25 for this. After he graduated from City College he was a pulp writer for five years, turning out 8,000 words a day. He was also a prodigious reader and self-teacher. At one time he taught himself French in six weeks, and was then able to read such authors as Musset, Daudet, Hugo and Balzac.

In about 1902, Sinclair became interested in Socialism, and began writing for Socialist periodicals. He was urged to write a book about wage slavery, so this led him to Chicago where he researched the packinghouse district. The result was THE JUNGLE.

In California he came under the influence of Bernard MacFadden's diet fads and physical culture ideas. Upton had been bothered with digestive problems and MacFadden became his guru. Also, this period in his life saw the breakup of his first marriage—to Meta Fuller. Meta had fallen in love with Harry Kemp, a poet, and in 1911, Sinclair obtained a divorce. He then travelled extensively in Europe. Upon returning home he married his second wife, Miss Mary Craig Kimbrough, with whom he lived contentedly until her death in 1961. His third wife, the former Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Willis, died in 1967.

But back to the 1911 era, we find that Upton was soon engaged in the strike of silk-workers in Patterson, New Jersey. He was joined in this by many radicals; many future Communists.

In 1917, Sinclair's dedication to the Socialist Party was suspended when the United States entered World War I. He stood behind his country by putting out a magazine to support our entry into the conflict. Later, the author regretted his stand on the war as he was greatly disappointed in the peace settlement. After the war he was readmitted to the Socialist Party, but his enthusiasm was never the same again.

From then on Mr. Sinclair became involved in such crusades as civil liberties, suppression and distortion of news, educational reform, world literature, and the oil industry. Later he also became interested in psychic phenomena, Prohibition—and Hollywood.

Over the years Upton Sinclair had sought office as a Socialist—in both the House and Senate, and later, as Governor of California. The latter attempt, in 1934, was quite a dazzling affair. His platform was EPIC—End Poverty in California, and, to everyone's astonishment including his own, he won the primary! However, he had many powerful forces out to see that he would lose the election—and he did. Retiring from politics for good at this time, he withdrew to continue his writing, which included a play, some novels, and the Lanny Budd series. By the 1950's his pace had slackened to only eight books in ten years. In 1962 his autobiography appeared. He himself felt, a few years ago, that he had brought about 10 specific achievements: clean meat, better newspapers, the ending of wage slavery in the Rocky Mountain mining camps, the spurring on of interests in psychic phenomena, his help in organizing the American Civil Liberties Union, his EPIC campaign, his democratic influence in Japan (where his books were widely circulated), his campaign against drinking, his founding of the college Socialist society, and his series of Lanny Budd books.

One book in this latter series, "Dragon's Teeth," dealing with the rise of Hitlerism in Germany, won the Pulitzer Prize for 1943. However, as a writer, most American critics never felt that Upton Sinclair was a "great." In Europe, however, he was more generously received, and his works were translated into all major languages. I think we will all remember Upton Sinclair largely for his passionate concern for social justice—for the underdog. Certainly he deserves to be remembered for the effect he had on many of the economic and social evils of America. Today the consumer has better information and protection because of a book that was written in 1906—"The Jungle."

Vandals Damage Medical Clinic

The Medical Clinic at 17220-30 Mack, was vandalized on Friday, December 7. Persons unknown broke a large plate glass window next to the rear door of the clinic. City police entered through the opening and found all the inner doors of the clinic secure and no sign of any attempt to enter the building.

A check of the exterior revealed that the doctor's directory had been forced from its supports and thrown on the ground near by.

Police notified Dr. F. M. Barrett, 285, Touraine. He and the officers checked all the offices in the clinic. They were found intact.

Thirty years ago, Mrs. Ralph G. Lagerfeldt, of Audubon road, (she was Gladys Anderson then), appeared as the Jenny Lind Club's "Lucia" at the Club's first Lucia-Fest.

That party was held in the home of her mother, Mrs. Robert Anderson. . . but, over the years, the Lucia-Fest has grown too large for a private house.

This year's Jenny Lind Club Lucia-Fest will be presented Saturday evening, December 14, at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, with a smorgasbord of Swedish cheese, herring, dark breads and other Scandinavian delicacies preceding dinner and dancing.

Anne Brown, of Sunningdale drive, is the 1968 "Lucia," the Saint of Light who traditionally heralds the start of the Christmas Season in Sweden.

Her brother, John Brown, and her cousin, William Wood, of Renaud road, are her "Star Boy" attendants.

Mrs. Elmer Benzin, of Lochmoor boulevard, is chairman of the party. Mrs. Carl Erickson, of Deeplands court,

The Reverend Lawrence Jackson officiated at the 7 o'clock rites in St. Germaine's Church, St. Clair Shores, for which the bride selected a gown of ivory satin faille accented with bands of Princess lace at her hem and sleeves.

Matching lace trimmed her floor length Court mantilla veil, and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with an orchid.

Her attendants' frocks were also floor length, fashioned of Oriental pink velvet and edged at their necklines with pleated ivory chiffon. They wore matching velvet headpieces and carried Colonial arrangements of pink and white baby carnations.

Mary Lynne Winter came from Painesville, O., to serve as her sister's honor maid. Bridesmaids were Patricia Gorman and Bev Bowling, of Cincinnati, O.

Paul Terrien, of Louisville, Ky., acted as best man for his brother. In the usher corps were James Brankov and Marty Terrien, another brother of the bridegroom.

Yarrow-Edelen Troth Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Monte J. Edelen, of Balfour road, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Wood, to Douglas O. Yarrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Yarrow, of Swarthmore, Pa.

Her fiancé, who was graduated magna cum laude from Carleton College, Northfield, Minn., is in Community Education work in West Virginia.

This is yesterday.

Once upon a time, there was a hair-do known as the bouffant and it was very chic and lots of famous ladies wore it and the only trouble is that lots of ladies still wear it and it isn't at all chic anymore. Today's hair is far more natural. And softer. And prettier. Even curly. It may be teased, but it doesn't announce it. If you'd like a new very-today do, see us. We can make it happen. Tomorrow.

THEY'VE ARRIVED

DEAR PAT,

I certainly don't mean to be a crepe hanger during this happy season but wouldn't you agree that there is a large bunch of rather seedy Santa's about this year. The street corner Saint Nick selection maybe a bit more discerning in G.P., but in N.Y., I'm sure the derelicts in the city jail were forced to draw straws and the losers were provided with red suits and bells and pushed at bayonette point out into the streets. If I were a kid (and I am at heart) I'd be mighty disillusioned. Children are reasonably safe but if you're a girl (any age) these guys forget all about Mrs. Clause.

There is a red-suiter ding-a-linging outside my hotel, this meaning I, soft soaper that I can be, dropped my offering into the caldron. This reject leered at me over his shaggy clip-on beard and said "thanks, Baby. How about your phone number?" Now, really, there are some things you'll take from a truck driver (after all, they only dine at the finest road-stops) but from Kris Kringle—Ugh, ugh.

I might have retorted with something acid and stinging but my schedule was very full and my cab was waiting to rush me on to check all of our Christmas suppliers.

I did my favorites first (those are the places that serve real Chocolate candy) they, as well as the hard candy concerns, assured me that everything was on it's "Merry Christmas" way and no doubt in T.O.E. at this very moment. If that's the case, Patricia, you have already checked them in. Have you ever seen such "I could have danced all night dresses?" I'm just delighted that all of these lovelies are in our shop for our customers holiday selections. Colors, Wow! Fabrics — Delightful — styling — for everyone. Not only party clothes but that marvelous array of resort wear and knits in lush new colors.

Our gorgeous, little shop must be bulging with good things because my check out proved that your men's selections were well on their journey to us. I have never seen softer, more handsomely styled sweaters for males than you picked out. By the way, Mrs. Nicholl, I do applaud your know how with ties. These have got to be the best looking I have ever seen.

I don't know where we'll put all this wonderful gift stock as it arrives, but there is no Xmas list that cannot be completed at Touch of Elegance this year — ashtrays, clocks, egg cutters, lighters, ice buckets, pepper mills, figurines, glasses, pill boxes, soap dishes, jewelry boxes, umbrellas, wall plaques, stuffed animals, sweaters, lingerie, hand bags, scraves, breakfast trays, T.V. tables — Well, you, of all people, know what I mean. Oh, by the by, has Emily Wolf brought in the dear miniature paintings that we all love so—? There is another lady with know-how.

It was with happy exhilaration that I maneuvered my way back to my hotel through busy crowds. There was a new tasseled capped gent at the Central Park corner when I returned. I gave it another go and was rewarded. "Bless you, lady." — "Bless you sir."

Best Love,

JO

Rotary Club Essay Contest

The fourth winner in The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club's Youth Forum Contest is Debbie Kitchen, a senior at Grosse Pointe South High School. Debbie wins $25 for her entry which follows.

Every week there are articles dealing with vandalism in the Grosse Pointe News. Why does this problem involve teenagers, for the most part, and why does it exist here? There are many answers to this question. Perhaps one is, simply, that young people want to tempt the law, and see to what extent they can go without being caught. Another answer might be that Grosse Pointe teenagers have more than most young people. Money and cars are easily accessible to them, so that practically anything is within their grasp, making them continually seek newer, more daring adventures.

Last year, at Grosse Pointe South High, the Student Council had quite a problem with vandalism. Students ripped telephones off of the walls, ruined desks and chairs by scratching and writing on them, and generally defaced the school. As a result, Student Council almost dissolved because of lack of interest in the problem and widespread apathy among the students.

This year, the situation has improved a great deal—Grosse Pointe South is again the beautiful school it has been in previous years. However, now there is a new addition to the Grosse Pointe Public School System—Grosse Pointe North, a school which exemplifies the care of the citizens for the education of their children.

The question which would seem the most logical now is, how will the students react to all of the equipment and resources which they now have in their use? Will they use these resources to their best advantage or will the students destroy and mutilate them, so that they are obsolete and unable to be used efficiently by other students.

Questers Group Sets Workshop

Commodore's Ball Turns GPYC Aglow

Traditional Formal Party Ushers in Holiday Season at Club; Commodore and Mrs. O. James Gagne Lead Grand March Into Ballroom

Ropes of greenery, ablaze with twinkling white lights, led the way to the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club rotunda Saturday evening, where Commodore and Mrs. O. James Gagne received their guests at the traditional Commodore's Ball.

Receiving with the Gagnes were Vice Commodore and Mrs. Roger Smith and Rear Commodore and Mrs. Ralph J. Kliber.

The ladies' gowns, like the decorations, glittered. Mrs. Gagne selected a costume of gold sequins over white georgette, fashioned with Bishop sleeves.

Mrs. Smith, (she and Vice Commodore Smith were chairmen of the party, with Mr. and Mrs. Chilton Drysdale serving as vice-chairmen), chose an ensemble featuring a dark blue skirt and a velvet bodice, beaded at the neckline.

Mrs. Kliber wore a gold and white gown, styled with an A line skirt and Empire bodice. Among those presented to Commodore and Mrs. Gagne were fellow Commodores from 11 area yacht and boating clubs, introduced by master of ceremonies Frank McBride.

The receiving line formed at 7:30 o'clock and at 8:30 Commodore and Mrs. Gagne led the Grand March into GPYC's ballroom, festooned with more lighted greenery ropes and green and white decorations.

Guests of the Gagnes included Mr. and Mrs. Hans Gherke, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Brad Lundy, Mr. and Mrs. William Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. John Gorman, Hene Meier, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vaughn.

More were Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gurns, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Andes, Mr. and Mrs. Al Gagne, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevenson, who flew in from South Africa for the party, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lonsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carlin, Mr. and Mrs. Al Kaline, Shirley and Steve Gagne, Commodore and Mrs. Gagne's daughter-in-law and son, and daughter Suzie Gagne and her escort, Mike Whyte.

The John D. Heads, of Rome, Italy, who came to Grosse Pointe to spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Head's mother, Mrs. N. W. Seidel, of Rivard boulevard, were among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. LaFond, and Carol Head's floor length grey crocheted straw gown and matching coat, made in Florence, Italy, was an outstanding ensemble among

The LaFonds are entertaining in Carol and Jack Head's honor at a December 14 Open House in their University place home. Al Navarro and Phil Skillman provided music for the party.

Serving on the 1968 Commodore's Ball committee were Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Shaw and five past Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Commodores and their ladies: Commodore and Mrs. Edward J. Schoenherr, Commodore and Mrs. Paul Moreland, Commodore and Mrs. Harold E. Cross, M. D., Commodore and Mrs. John W. Paynter and Commodore and Mrs. J. Earl Fraser.

W. E. Harwell, Jr. Weds In Ohio

William Earnest Harwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Earnest Harwell, of Dunedin, Fla., and Grosse Pointe, claimed Dianne Joyce Thompson as his bride Saturday evening, November 30, in United Methodist Church, Willoughby, O.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Thompson, of Mentor, O., chose for her wedding a floor length A line gown of white silk velvet, fashioned with collar and cuffs of white fur, and a floor length silk illusion veil caught by a fur and velvet bandeau.

She designed the headpiece and gown, and also wore the bridegroom's gift necklace, a single strand of matinee length pearls. Her flowers were lilies-of-the-valley.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Alan R. Dynes, who served as matron of honor, bridesmaids Christine Wolf, Susan Meibuh and Mrs. Jack Thompson and junior bridesmaids Carolyn and Julie Harwell, twin sisters of the bridegroom.

They wore matching floor length frocks of blue silk velvet and carried white fur muffs, matching their white fur head circlets, decorated with red and white roses.

Gray N. Harwell served as his brother's best man, and Alan R. Dynes, John Ritek and Andrew James Brodie, II, seated the guests.

The mother of the bride wore a pale blue velvet dress and jacket ensemble, while the bridegroom's mother chose a sleeveless pink crepe gown. Both mothers selected white orchid corsages.

The ceremony took place in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Hold Holiday Party, Sale At Saint Joseph Home

The Carmelite Guild of Saint Joseph Home for the Aged in Cadieux road, Detroit, held its annual Christmas luncheon, card party, holiday and bake sale at the Home, Tuesday, December 3.

Vacationing recently in Honolulu were MR. and MRS. FRANK ADAM, of Middlesex boulevard. Mr. Adam won the all-expense paid one-week vacation for himself and his wife for his outstanding sales performance in Lincoln-Mercury Division's Hawaiian Holiday sales contest.

June Bride

The engagement of BARBARA JO ERICKSON and William A. Boyce, of Moultrie, Ga., is an assistant professor of Speech at Wayne State University in June.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Boyce, of Moultrie, Ga., is an assistant professor of Speech at Wayne State University and is working toward his Doctorate from Northwestern University.

A June wedding is planned.

Members of The Soroptimist Club of Grosse Pointe and their guests gathered at the Village Manor for the Club's Annual Christmas Party Wednesday evening, December 11.

Arrangements were the responsibility of program chairman Carolyn Thomson. Santa Claus paid a visit during the evening to distribute gifts to those present.

The most important part of the evening was the collection of provisions members brought for the Club's Christmas Basket. This year, as in several years past, the overflowing basket will go to a local widow with two children. The mother has multiple sclerosis and is unable to work.

The Christmas contributions of the Soroptimists each year stock her shelves so that she is able to eke out a living for herself and her children.

Another annual contribution of the Club is the provision of large and substantial toys for the children at the Foundation for Exceptional Children. These will be on hand this year for the Foundation's Christmas Party December 20.

Korean Violinist With Symphony

Petite Korean violinist Kyung Wha Chung, a Leventritt award winner, will make her Detroit debut with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in concerts this Thursday and Saturday, December 12 and 14.

Miss Chung, five feet tall and 20 years old, will perform the Stravinsky Violin Concerto, Valter Poole will conduct.

The concerts will be at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium.

Orchestral works on both evenings will be the Vivaldi-Silotti Concerto in D minor, Richard Strauss' "Dance of the Seven Veils" and Saint-Saens' Symphony No. 3, the latter with Frederick Marriot as organ soloist.

Miss Chung won the Leventritt award, the most coveted among violinists and pianists, in 1967. The award is given only when the judges believe a young artist is capable of starting a major career immediately. Previous winners include Van Cliburn, Gary Graffman and John Browning.

"I've found that the award is a big responsibility. I must prove myself over and over during concerts," Miss Chung told a reporter in 1967.

Since then she has made a coast-to-coast tour of the United States.

Miss Chung was born in Seoul but now lives in Seattle. She comes from a musical family, and all six of her brothers and sisters play instruments and have performed on tour.

She has been a pupil of Ivan Galamian at the Juilliard School of Music since she came to this country in 1961. Previously she had appeared with the Soul Philharmonic and had toured Japan with her sister, a cellist, performing under the sponsorship of the Korean government.

Tickets are available at Ford Auditorium Box Office, (961-0700), all Hudson's and all Grinnell's stores.

Carolyn Marie Becker, in a line red velvet frock, carrying a bouquet of red roses, pink carnations and baby's-breath, attended her sister.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Slameka, of Hollywood avenue, Detroit, asked Jerry Vaness to act as his best man.

The first will be Monday evening, December 23, from 8:30-11:30 when there will be a casual "Super Other Side" featuring the Bog Seger System band which is one of the hottest entertainment units on the road.

The dance is from 9 to 1 a.m. and the $2.50 per person admission covers special decorations, favors, and a midnight ham and turkey buffet following lights out when every couple will be able to greet the New Year in proper fashion. Five hundred is the limit for this dance. Tickets should, therefore, be picked up in advance.

Lynn Joanne Palmer Is November Bride

Newlywed Ronald F. Tracys at Home in Detroit following Nassau Vacation; Bride and Attendants are Serenaded as They Leave for Church

Lynn Joanne Palmer, daughter of Mrs. F. Roger Bacon, of Chalfonte avenue, became the bride of Ronald F. Tracy at a late afternoon ceremony Saturday, November 30, in St. Anne Church, Detroit.

The Reverend Matthew Killoran celebrated the Nuptial Mass, for which the former Miss Palmer, given in marriage by Mr. Bacon, selected an A-line gown of taffeta peau, styled with a Chantilly lace bodice featuring teacup sleeves, beaded applique skirt accents and a Chapel length train.

A matching peau, lace and pearl headpiece caught her triple tier bouffant illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of white roses.

Following an old Polish custom, the bride and her attendants, honor matron Mrs. Bruce Dusette and bridesmaids Sylvia and Cynthia Tracy, sisters of the bridegroom, Mary Jo Gula-toto and Christine Corcoran, the bride's cousin, were serenaded by a band as they left the Bacon home for the church.

They wore floor length burgundy velvet frocks. Pink floral trimming defined their Empire waistlines, and they carried arrangements of pink carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tracy, of Detroit, asked John Wojnar to serve as best man.

Seating the guests were Joseph Myers, Kenneth Demkowski, Skip Cigola and Joseph Runski.

A street length sheath of rose silk shantung with a jeweled neckline, was Mrs. Bacon's choice for her daughter's wedding and the reception in American Serbian Memorial Hall following the service.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink silk ensemble. Both mothers selected orchid corsages.

The newlyweds have returned from a Nassau vacation and are at home in Detroit.

Out-of-town guests include the bride's grandfather, A. H. Rupp, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and her uncle and aunt, Major and Mrs. W. A. Rupp, of Dayton O.

Goodwill Is Seeking 'Dolly Derby' Goods

Donations Wanted Now for Camp Fire Girls' Doll-Dressing Contest, to be Judged Next Spring

Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, Junior Hi and Horizon Club girls of the Detroit area are laying plans for the dolls they will dress in the second Camp Fire Girls-Goodwill Industries "Dolly Derby," a doll dressing contest that offers the girls a community service project as well as an opportunity to develop and display their creative ingenuity.

The dolls, which come to Goodwill in Goodwill bags and through Collection Center donations are being cleaned and renovated by handicapped workers at Goodwill Industries. Some 1,000 dolls will be ready for distribution the week following Christmas.

Loving hands and careful stitches will transform them into doll-creatures of new beauty and attractiveness for other little girls.

Proceeds of the sale after the contest is completed next spring will implement the pay checks and job skills training of handicapped persons at Goodwill Industries.

All girls dressing dolls will receive honor ribbons with special recognition for the winners at an April Camp Fire Ceremonial.

Originated at the Akron, O., Goodwill Industries, "Dolly Derbies" have been conducted under co-sponsorship with girls' groups at Goodwill Industries facilities throughout the United States. The three Detroit Best-of-Show dolls will be entered in a national contest to be held the following winter.

Over 900 girls from 78 Camp Fire groups participated in the Detroit Area 1968 "Dolly Derby." Mrs. Frank Newberry, a Camp Fire volunteer and chairman of the 1969 "Dolly Derby," anticipates an even greater participation and interest in the upcoming contest.

That no Camp Fire Girl who wishes to dress a doll may be without a doll to dress, an appeal is made by Goodwill for dolls to be dropped in a Goodwill Collection Center now, marked for "Dolly Derby."

Italian Tenor Stars At DAC This Month

December Floor Show Opens Tomorrow Evening; Many Pointers Make Plans to Hear Sergio Franchi During Engagement

Italian Tenor Sergio Franchi, long identified with Richard Rodgers' "Do I Hear a Waltz?," is the star of the December Floor Show at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Having charmed audiences all the way from South Africa to London and across the sea to Carnegie Hall, he's bound to add dozens of new fans to his ever-expanding group of admirers.

Franchi is appearing every night in the Club's Main Dining Room from December 6 through December 14, excepting Sunday, December 8.

DAC President Nathan B. Goodnow and Mrs. Goodnow, who usually attend the openings of club shows, elected to hear the star on Tuesday evening when they joined Mr. Goodnow's Friday 8:15 Bowling Group, which planned to be together that night.

But many other Pointers on hand for opening night, among them Judge and Mrs. Carl Weideman, who had a table for six as did the H. F. Verbiests.

Others with reservations for the evening include Dr. J. W. Harrison, William Schmidt, C. F. Bachle and D. C. Turner.

Saturday, December 7, reservations were made by Dr. Leland F. Carter and Frederick R. Keydel. George DeClerk invited guests for the following Tuesday.

The Detroit USO needs volunteers 18 through 24-year-olds to serve as volunteers in the USO Dance Program. There is also a need for volunteers 25 and older to serve as chaperons.

The USO hostesses attend weekly dances at Selfridge Air Force Base and at the downtown USO Center, 306 Michigan avenue.

To participate in this program, please obtain an application blank at the USO or by phoning 962-5044.

Plans for a February 15 wedding are being made by REBECCA MARIE TOWSON and Nelson W. Schlaff, Jr., whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Don Towson, of McKinley avenue.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson W. Schlaff, of Maumee avenue.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Westphal, of Blairmoor court, are announcing the engagement of her daughter, LINDA GAYLE MARSHALL, to Christopher Lee Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, of East Leroy, Mich.

Miss Marshall, who is also the daughter of Oliver Marshall, of Madison Heights, and her fiancé are both juniors at Spring Arbor College, Spring Arbor, Mich.

UM Club Dinner Set for Tonight

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will be the scene tonight of the annual winter dinner of the University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe. Even at this late hour tickets are available for anyone who still can arrange their schedule to attend.

A very entertaining evening will feature Erich A. Walter, former U. of M. Dean of Students as the principal speaker, while a well-known local group, the "Red Berets" will supply the music.

The "Red Berets" are an all female singing group who are bilingual. Insiders believe that the Michigan "Alma Mater" will be sung in French by the talented group. In addition, word has it that a spoof on the current French political scene will be presented to the tune "Charlie, My Boy," of course. Finally, a few Christmas carols will be performed.

All members of the "Red Berets" are students at Grosse Pointe North and are in the classes of their leader, Mrs. Sandra Boak. Mrs. Boak is a popular teacher of French at North High.

The lucky 13 girls who comprise this group are all freshmen and sophomores and include: Cathy Christenson, Nancy Frede, Pam Frisbie, Sandy Gandoli, Chris Graham, Jan Kuhl, Jan Long, Karen Larson, Jill Munger, Terry Reilly, Karen Roberts, Jeanne St. John and Rochelle Welson.

Dean Erich A. Walter has almost 50 years of service with the University. He joined the University of Michigan faculty in 1919 following his graduation. He is secretary to the Board of Regents and assistant to President Robin Fleming. During his long career, Dean Walter has held many varied positions and his innumerable academic accomplishments.

The evening will begin with a reception at 7 o'clock, followed by dinner at 7:30. Make reservations by calling either John W. MacKay at 882-6206 or Mrs. Edward D. Trowbridge at 885-9299. Tickets are $5 per person.

Friends that promises bring will not last when excuses are used to replace fulfillment.

assisted by Mrs. Gustave Dahlen, of Devonshire road, heads the decorations committee.

A large "sparkstotting" (Swedish sled), pulling a live tree, is to be placed in front of the Hunt Club's huge fireplace, and table decorations will feature small replicas of the sparkstotting, made by Knut Eriksson, of Mount Clemens, husband of one of the Club's associate members, filled with greens, cones and miniature red apples.

Christmas North, Christmas South

Lucky little Anne Foster Barrows! She'll be spending her first Christmas in Christmas Country, i.e. Northern Michigan — and how many other less-than-a-month-old misses can say they're planning a holiday vacation?

Anne, born November 29, is the second daughter of Foster and Betty Barrows, of Whittier road, granddaughter of Mrs. Frank C. Barrows, of Lothrop road, and Mrs. Robert Coon, (mother is the former Betty Coon), of Perryburg, O.

She'll be christened December 30, in the Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Petoskey, where her parents and sister, Peggy, (delighted as only a four-year-old can be with her holiday present of "a real live doll"), have enjoyed many summers and winter ski weekends, and will enjoy this Christmas and New Year's.

The quartet leaves soon to set up the family tree in their vacation home at Menomona Beach, Harbor Springs.

Lucky Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Adelsperger, III! And lucky Adelsperger offspring! They'll start their Palm Tree life with a 1968 Palm Tree Christmas.

The Adelspergers are moving from McMillan road to the Bahamas. They leave December 15 — which should put them in Palm Tree country in plenty of time to acquire beautiful Christmas tans.

Christmas Walk Flash!

Things got a bit panicky late last week, when the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra learned that parking would NOT be permitted on East Jefferson avenue near the Warren S. Wilkinson house, opened for the Juniors' 1968 benefit Christmas Walk today — and then came Chuck Muer, with his fire engine red double-decker Pontchartrain Hotel bus to the rescue!

Walkers who want to visit the Grosse Pointe City are advised to park their cars in the Wilks Pointe City Neff Memorial Waterfront Park. Chuck's bus will ferry them to and from the Wilks Pointe.

Princeton Triangle Show

If you're wondering whether there's REALLY something "different" about "A Different Kick," the 1968 Princeton Triangle Show, playing a one-night stand here December 30 at the Detroit Institute of Arts, read on...

For the first time, there'll be women (!) trodding the Triangle boards. The two tradition-breaking ladies are undergraduates in Princeton's Languages department, which has admitted coeds for several years.

The musical this year will be part of an evening of fun, including, for an additional cost, a pre-theater buffet and post-show dance, both to be held "across the street" from the Arts Institute at Engineering Society of Detroit headquarters in the Rackham Memorial Building.

Tomorrow's the deadline for preferred ticket reservations, which must be in the mail to the Princeton Club of Michigan, P.O. Box 1703, Ann Arbor, 48106 by December 13. Show ticket prices are $6.60, $5.50 and $4.40.

General ticket sales begin after December 18, at the ticket offices of all major J. L. Hudson stores.

Buffet dinner and cocktail party reservations and information may be obtained by contacting Dick May, Woodward 1-0200, during working hours.

Second City Benefit

The Second City Society, a group of young single adults, will sponsor a semi-formal party, a benefit for the Volunteer Placement Corps which works to assist Inner City high school students to find places in colleges, job training programs and actual jobs, tomorrow evening, in the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel's Washington Room.

Chairman of the party, featuring music by Pee Wee

Hunt, is Susan L. Jeffries, of Harvard road. Other Pointers serving on the benefit committee include Dieter Boehm, of Rivard boulevard, Mary Kotcher, of Mapleton road, and Robert A. Smart, Jr., of Lakeland avenue.

Set DYC Ladies Xmas Festivity

Some 500 women, members and guests of members, will gather Tuesday, December 17, for the Detroit Yacht Club Ladies' Bridge Luncheon and Fashion Show committee's Christmas festivity.

Luncheon at noon will be followed by a program in the DYC Ballroom at 1:30 o'clock. Theme of the party is "Christmas in Mexico."

Commodore and Mrs. Kenneth Gunsolus will be on hand to personally bring their Yuletide greetings to the ladies, and Mexican Consul Jorge Aguilar's presence will lead an authentic "South of the Border" touch to the proceedings.

The Detroit Yachtsmen's Chorus, under the direction of Ed McCarthy, will present a "Carols Spectacular." Edward Hebert is president of this group of business and professional men.

Hold Xmas Tea

The Grosse Pointe boulevard residence of Dr. and Mrs. Theos Anderson was the scene of the second annual Grosse Pointe Faculty Wives Christmas Tea on Sunday, December 8, from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Co-chairman for the event were Mrs. Donald Keith and Mrs. James Cooper. Their committee included Mrs. Neil Curtis, Mrs. Joseph Devine, Mrs. Claudia Clark, Mrs. Donald Messing and Mrs. Raymond Ritter. Eight members of the Executive Board poured.

Obstacles seldom show up if you keep your eyes on the goal.

GROSSE POINTE FARMS

Excellent condition — quick possession — in by Christmas. In St. Paul and Richard school districts. Close to shopping. The room arrangement is also convenient. Ask us for floor plan. It embraces 3 Bedrooms, 1 1/2 Bathrooms and a jalousied terrace. There is a Recreation Room in basement. Shown by appointment.

'Two Cap' Gathering Scheduled For LWV

Serious Discussion of Michigan Courts as They Relate to Children and Juveniles to be Followed by Yuletide Party

Members of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters will be wearing two caps at their combined units meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Robert Jessup in Lakepointe avenue next Tuesday evening, December 17, at 8 o'clock.

One cap will be a thinking cap. For two years League members all over Michigan have been listening and learning about the supreme important topic of Michigan courts as they relate to children and juveniles.

Local Leaguers will bring their viewpoints into focus and express their attitudes on a variety of consensus questions

Tuesday.

It is the citizen's role to make broad policy decisions; it is the professional's role to administer these citizen decisions. As concerned, curious, conscientious and informed Michiganders, Leaguers will get down to brass tacks about the courts December 17.

Another cap G.P. Leaguers will be wearing that night is a fun cap.

Men Gardeners To Fete Ladies

Men's Garden club of Grosse Pointe will have its annual holiday meeting with the ladies as guests at War Memorial Building, Thursday evening, December 19.

An especially interesting program has been prepared to follow the brief business session. John Brickner, of the Greenfield Village staff will lecture on the White House and its grounds and gardens, illustrated with an unusual collection of slides.

Members and their friends and ladies are invited to attend. A social session and refreshments will follow.

After the serious discussion there will be a punchbowl and refreshments to salute the Yuletide and the group's last get-together before the New Year. These are the serious questions to which Leaguers will be seeking answers:

1) Should the Juvenile Court continue to adhere to the concept of "individualized justice" for children?

2) Should the people before Juvenile Court be assured the same procedural rights — the safeguards of due process of law—accorded to adults in adult court?

3) Should the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court include social offenses not categorized as unlawful when committed by adults?

4) Should Juvenile Court services be limited to those matters which aid the court in making wise disposition and in seeing that its orders are carried out?

5) Should uniform procedural rules be established for the Juvenile Court?

6) If we agree that all court personnel, (including the Friend of the Court), should be adequately trained and compensated, what efforts should be made to insure this?

7) Do you favor: a) the establishment of a family court in Michigan either as a separate court or a division of an existing court; b) the unification of staff and services for all courts in Michigan without the establishment of a family court; c) the retention of court structure, staff and services as they are now in Michigan?

Mrs. J. Howard Kay has been in charge of the Michigan Courts study for the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters.

Wayne Women Gather Dec. 3

Members of the Grosse Pointe Women of Wayne Alumnae Club gathered Tuesday evening, December 3, at 7:30 o'clock at the Hospitality House, Kercheval avenue in "The Village."

In keeping with the holiday season a program, "Christmas Around the World," was presented by a Home Economist from the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company.

Clever ideas for making Christmas decorations by utilizing miscelany found around the home and suggestions for festive food gifts, including packaging, were demonstrated.

All Women of Wayne were invited to attend the meeting and renew friendships over coffee.

Final arrangements for the Women of Wayne's Incentive Scholarship Fund Benefit, an opening night performance of "Fiorello" to be presented by the Grosse Pointe Theatre on Wednesday, June 11, in Fries Auditorium, have been completed and tickets, priced at $4 and $6, are available now as Christmas gifts.

Yachtswomen Meet Tonight

The Yachtswomen will gather this evening, Thursday, December 12, at the St. Clair Yacht Club for their annual Christmas party, beginning with a cocktail hour and including dinner, entertainment and a gift exchange.

Co-chairmen for the affair are Mrs. William Smith and Mrs. Frank Weyburn.

Mrs. Donald H. Bohlinger, of Anita avenue, is the new president of the Yachtswomen, elected at the group's November meeting.

Vice-president is Mrs. Joanne

Green, recording secretary is Mrs. Alan Rogerson, corresponding secretary is Mrs. Erwin Ostermair, treasurer is Mrs. Kenneth Johnston, assistant secretary-treasurer is Mrs. Robert Kellstrom and members-at-large are Mrs. R. R. Strnad and Mrs. Lois Williams.

Pre-Season Picks

WE KNOW OF NO reason why your family can't be in by Christmas. This seven bedroom house in Deeplands has recently been vacated and is yearning for a new owner. No one should have to spend the holidays alone, and we'll do everything possible to make sure this forgotten one has another family soon. Priced to be looked over, no overlooked.

'TIS THE SEASON to be jolly, but we're ecstatic over this story and a half brand new listing in the Shores. Five bedrooms all on the second floor, and a kitchen which was recently on the "kitchen tour" New carpeting throughout. At $69,000 this pretty package can be wrapped up for early delivery.

ANOTHER FIRST offering is a three bedroom in the City on University Place. The owner wishes this one could be picked up and moved, but why don't you take advantage of his transfer and snap this one up before someone else does.

CENTER ENTRANCE colonials are always high on everyone's list, so this house on Renaud should appeal to many shoppers. If your family really only requires three bedrooms and two baths on the second floor, then this one should be inspected. We guarantee you won't come away dejected.

IF YOU MUST have the fourth bedroom, we also have a newer listing on Yorkshire Road. The house has a new kitchen, large family room, separate dining room, and all settled nicely on a double lot between St. Paul and Maumee.

WE SALESMEN are often hard pressed to find a neat colonial with three bedrooms which is priced in the low thirties and requires little if any redecorating. In the Farms we have just such an animal, but we'll bet it won't be around long yet.

IF YOU'VE BEEN peeking about looking for something with tremendous curb appeal, and only require three bedrooms but must have two baths and a first floor lavatory, then this southern colonial could be the solution. This comfortable extra room with access on either side of the living room fireplace. There is a separate dining room and attached garage.

IN THE FARMS we uncork a cute three bedroom colonial with a larger than normal kitchen and two car garage. Don't let today's high prices bottle you up. This one can be yours if you pop for $32,900.

MR. and MRS. HENRY EWALD, Jr., of Moross road, recently attended the Parents Weekend at Abbot Academy where their daughter WENDY is currently a student and head of the Abbot student government. Over 250 parents attended the weekend festivities on the Andover, Mass. campus. The main event was a convocation for the installation of the new principal, Donald A. Gordon.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT H. ESCHER, of Moross road, announce the birth of a daughter, EMILY DENISE, October 31. Mrs. Escher is the former CONSTANCE HAMMAN, daughter of MR. and MRS. PAUL HAMMAN, of Oxford road. Paternal grandparents are WILLIAM ESCHER, of Okemos, and MRS. VEEDEA H. ESCHER, of St. John's, Mich.

Appearing in "Fall Concert, 1968," presented by the University of Detroit Chorus under the direction of DON LARUE Friday evening, November 22, in the U. of D. Student Union Ballroom, was Dominican High School graduate ANNE M. SHAHEEN, daughter of the JOSEPH SHAHEENS, of York-shire road, a Freshman French major in U. of D.'s College of Arts and Sciences.

BILL BIGHAM, son of MR. and MRS. EARL BIGHAM, of Merriweather road, has been named to the 1968-69 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." Bill, a junior at Aquinas College, Grand Rapids, was graduated in 1966 from St. Paul High School.

Here for a five-day visit with his mother, MRS. ALBERT A. GRIFFITHS, of Edgemere road, recently was FREDERICK J. GRIFFITHS, of Washington, D.C. Mrs. Griffiths and her son joined the HAROLD A. BEAT-TYS for Thanksgiving dinner in their McKinley avenue home, and the day after Thanksgiving the WILLIAM D. LAURIES, JR., entertained in the visitor's honor in their Merriweather road home.

MR. and MRS. STEPHEN D. BRADLEY gave a miscellaneous shower Friday, December 6, to honor MARY JOAN VANDER-PLAZ, of Berkey, and WILLIAM PIERCE HUNTINGTON, of Saint Clair avenue, who are planning a February wedding. The setting of the party was the penthouse of Shoreline East. It was decorated in a White Christmas theme.

Open Schooling Show At GPHC

The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club presented its first Open Schooling Show of the 1968-69 season last Saturday, December 7, in conjunction with the first Junior Olympic Competition Sunday, December 8. William C. Beardslee served as chairman of the event. Judge was Robert C. Egan, of Niles, Mich., announcer was Kenneth F. Kahn and Miss Ethyl Flinn presented the ribbons and trophies. Mrs. William J. Lilly, Mrs. E. E. Peabody and Miss Sally Lenahan acted as secretaries. The show, which has been in effect nine years, featured horses from Ohio, Indiana and Michigan.

Junior League Works For CPT

The Junior League of Detroit was the force behind a new television program called CPT, Detroit's first all-black television show.

Members of the League had been talking about the need for helping Detroit's black people before the 1967 riot.

"When the riots came we realized it was imperative to do something," says Mrs. Henry M. Woodhouse, of Renaud road, chairman of the project. CPT was chosen because it was a new idea and provided blacks the opportunity of expressing themselves through public communication.

The Junior League of Detroit and Title I of the Higher Education Act originally funded CPT. The New Detroit Committee believed in the value of the program and awarded $47,000 on November 8, to enable it to continue beyond its original 13-week schedule.

The Junior League's role is not production, but publicity, promotion and conducting telephone research surveys in conjunction with Market Opinion Research Company of Detroit.

At this time, League volunteers headed by Mrs. David Halter, Mrs. Gordon Maitland and Mrs. Peter Dow are providing information to Detroit and suburban schools about the show, which appears every Wednesday night at 10 o'clock, or Friday night at 8 o'clock, on Channel 56.

The response from school officials has been excellent.

CPT provides black expression, but it also provides white people with good entertainment and an opportunity to become acquainted with the black man as he really is.

CPT is an hour-long show staffed by black producers, writers and actors. It features local and national black entertainers with emphasis on "new faces," local news, black history, a community calendar of events, music, drama and a regular weekly documentary on a specific issue of interest to the black community.

Executive Producer for the weekly CPT series is Gilbert A. Maddox, who explains the concept of the show as a healthy family image.

Meadow Brook Party Planned

The complete evening is just $11.50.

The play tickets alone are hard to come by. Reserve by check immediately. Just 26 tickets are available.

Leon Featured In Beauty Book

"Beauty and Hair Fashions" is a brand new how-to-do-it book by Alice Richardson who was an editor at Harper's Bazaar, Mademoiselle, and Life magazines. She gives top secret tips on hair care, make-up magic, proper diet, stimulating exercises plus thirty-three smoothie, new hair-dos. These are complete with easy-to-follow setting instructions and sketches from America's leading hair stylists. They include Julius and Enrico Caruso, Kenneth, Michael Kazan, Enny of Italy and Grosse Pointe's own Leon Schoyan of Leon Hairdressers, 17888 Mack avenue.

Two hair styles by Leon which were selected and illustrated are called the Crowned Glory and the Baby Bouffant. Both have day and evening versions.

The younger generation has one advantage over the old—it will outgrow what ails it.

At a recent dinner party in their University place home, Mr. and Mrs. John Walsh announced the engagement of their daughter, SUSAN, to Gregory Johnson, son of the Gregory Johnsons, of Grosse Ile.

Miss Walsh was graduated from Bloomfield Hills High School and attended Lasell Junior College, Newton, Mass.

Her fiancé attended Western Michigan University, served in the United States Marine Corps and is presently associated with the Ford Motor Company and completing his education at Detroit Institute of Technology.

Children Invited To Xmas Party

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will have its Annual Christmas for Children Sunday, December 22. Santa Claus will receive beginning at 2 o'clock in the beautifully decorated Crystal Ballroom where candy canes, cookies and cocoa will be served by Santa's helpers who are all members of the Center's Youth Council.

Two Christmas performances will be given for the children during the afternoon—one at 2 o'clock, the second at 3:30. Ellen Proctor from the Detroit Art Institute will bring her famous Christmas Punch and Judy Puppet Show to Fries Auditorium. This is the same show to be performed in Cobo Hall. The traditional English show has had the violence removed and includes now a merry ghost who plays hide and seek, Punch's baby who looks just like him, a puppy dog and even Santa himself.

Following Punch and Judy, Grosse Pointe Children's Theatre will give a short play, "Lilies of Bethlehem," written and staged by Mrs. Sydney Reynolds, director. It is the story of a little lame shepherd boy who, because he is forced to linger behind, sees the Christ Child.

Tickets for both performances are 50c. Numbers are limited and parents are urged to pick up tickets at the Center's office in advance. Santa will visit with the children until 4:30 and refreshments will be served continuously from 2 to 4:30.

Don't judge a man's future by his past — experience may have taught him a lesson.

Santa To Visit DBC On Sunday

When Santa Claus is involved in a party, it becomes something-for-everyone.

That's what the Women's Committee of the Detroit Boat Club has discovered in connection with its Children's Party scheduled for this Sunday, December 15, at 1:30 o'clock.

The title of the festivities is traditional, but misleading, because there will be something afoot for every age group from sandboxes to great-grandparents.

True, the older generations may have their eyes only on cocktails and the special family dinner dreamed up by Chef Helmut—the price said to be right—but their offspring will have other lures.

Teenagers will have their own discotheque in the third floor lounge throughout the party, and everyone will tote his own favorite recordings so that the variety will be vast.

Santa himself will be established on a Christmas throne in the Directors' Room, the mecca for all teeny Boat Clubbers with big messages to pour out.

In the ballroom, meanwhile, "Christmas Carol" will lead songs and games between original puppet shows to be presented by Sy Sims. Each of his shows will be completely different, with some magic tricks thrown in for good measure.

Gifts, favors and candy have been on chairman Mrs. David W. Courtney's Christmas shopping list and just to make sure everything goes into the record, Eddie McGrath, Jr., will be on hand with lots of color film.

Mrs. William Miller, Jr., is co-chairman. Others who have been juggling party arrangements in their busy minds are Mrs. Roger Bailey, Mrs. James Gibbs, Mrs. Henry Gilder, Jr., Mrs. Ben Gravel, Mrs. Joseph LaGrasso, Mrs. Kenneth Locke, Mrs. Paul Schultz and Mrs. Steve Whittlesey.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Just before Christmas last year . . . we ran the following information, and we figure it saved our readers, (and ourselves), approximately 128 hours of telephone—"My daughter's getting married; what do I do?"—instruction sessions. Now the calls are beginning again . . . so we thought we'd run the information again . . . and ask you PLEASE, if you're planning a wedding in the next few months, CLIP and SAVE this column:

Moving into The Winter Bridal Season . . . we've begun to get our usual quota of calls on "How do I announce my engagement? . . . wedding? . . . Should I submit a picture? . . . How far in advance must I submit the information?"—so we decided it might be time and energy-saving all around if we gave our readers a brief resume of the NEWS policy on engagement and wedding announcements.

Engagement announcements . . . are printed as soon after they are received as possible, on a first-come, first-served basis. They may be submitted in advance of the actual announcement date, marked "Hold until such and such a time" or "Do not release until such and such a time."

Wedding announcements . . . should be submitted at least one week in advance of the actual wedding date. Like engagement announcements, they are printed as soon after they are received as possible, on a first-come first-serve basis—but they take space precedence over engagement announcements, (in other words, some weeks our space is limited, but brides ALWAYS come first . . . if it's a choice between running two engagement announcements or one wedding announcement, the wedding announcement goes in; the engagements are "held" until space becomes available).

Wedding "forms" . . . are available at the NEWS office. We have no engagement forms; we advise our readers to use engagement announcements that have appeared in last week's paper as their "form" (there's really only one way to announce an engagement).

ALWAYS . . . include a telephone number, where information can be checked during the day, when submitting ANY item to ANY newspaper!!!!

It's not necessary . . . to write up your own engagement or wedding announcement. You supply the facts, we'll supply the sentence structure, (of course, if you find it easier to submit your announcement in "story" form, by all means do so; sometimes you make a far better job of it than we do . . .).

But, PLEASE . . . type your information or, if you're filling out a form, PRINT proper names. Americans are not noted for their legible handwriting, and we have no resident cryptograph decoder on the NEWS staff.

Photographs submitted . . . should be "glossies," (shiny surface), 5x7 or 8x10. We're sorry, but because our space is limited, we can only print pictures of local girls, girls whose families are living in Grosse Pointe AT THE TIME OF the wedding. This is a right-down-the-line rule, with only three exceptions. We print engagement and wedding pictures for teachers who work in the Pointe School System and nurses who work in Pointe hospitals, and wedding pictures for girls whose families have recently (within six months), moved from The Pointe but who return, with their families, to celebrate their wedding here.

What about Pointe boys who marry . . . out-of-Pointe girls, or ex-Pointers who want their former neighbors to know of their son's or daughter's engagement/wedding? We print their complete stories, as submitted, WITHOUT photographs, (the reason for this, as explained in the above paragraph, is limited space—not, as one irate mother-of-the-bridegroom once charged "because you hate men!").

And what about . . . returning submitted pictures? We're sorry but we haven't the staff to handle that . . . We do hold all submitted pictures at the office for three months, however, and we'll be happy to give them back—if somebody comes in to pick them up.

Pointed of Interest

MRS. THOMAS C. FOX, OF RADNOR CIRCLE

By Janet Mueller

She never tried, she never wanted to be Super-volunteer. "As soon," says Betty Fox, "as I knew I was going to do a job (the presidency of Goodwill Industries' Junior Group) for Goodwill, I gradually diminished my other activities."

"There's a limit to how thin I can spread myself and still do a job the way I think it should be done."

So . . . one thing at a time, (or two, or even three, if they're sufficiently "little" things), for Mrs. Fox. But always, at least, One Thing . . .

The Foxes—he's a manufacturers' representative—met at Denison University. He's a native Detroit; she's from Glenview, Ill., on Chicago's North Shore.

They moved here after Tom was released from the Army. They've lived in their present home in Handy road for 19 years.

Have Three Children They have three children. Marcia, who teaches in Greenfield, Mich. (that's near Grand Rapids), is Mrs. Dale W. Johnston now, and the Johnstons will make the Foxes grandparents in February.

Needless to say, Betty's delighted.

Bruce Fox, 21, is a senior at De Pauw University in Indiana. An Economics major and French minor, he spent a semester in Belgium last year, studying the European Common Market.

Brian is a senior at Grosse Pointe South High School. He hopes to go to Albion College, and would like, eventually, to study Medicine.

And then there's Treysa, the Fox family's Miniature Schnauzer, beautifully groomed, (Betty clips her herself, once a month) and possessed of a Geographic Name.

Named for River "We found it (Treysa) on a map of Germany," Betty explains. "It's the name of a river—and we named Treysa that because, when she was a puppy, she WAS sort of like a German river!"

(Treysa's no longer Puppy Riverish, but she still expresses herself via water: The Foxes know she's irritated when she pushes her water dish around the kitchen floor.)

When her children were growing up, Betty did the usual Mother Bit, serving two years as a Brownie leader and one year as Grosse Pointe area Girl Scout Cookie chairman.

"I never," she reminisces, "counted so many pennies in my whole life!" And she never was justifiably prouder of herself than at the end of the Cookie Drive, when her books balanced.

Also Did Church Work She's "done things" for her Church, Grosse Pointe Memorial, too. One year, she was co-chairman of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Fair Public Dining Room. Another, she was Fair Finance Committee teller. She's knitted and baked for her Church Fairs. Given a choice, Betty frankly prefers knitting to baking: "I'm an avid knitter," she says, "and I don't mind cooking at all, but I wouldn't say I'm an 'inspired' cook: I make good, wholesome food."

"Kids," she adds, (and every mother will bear her out on THIS), "don't like fancy food. When I cook for company, I often experiment . . . I wouldn't say I'm brave, but the COMPANY is . . ."

Many of her favorite recipes come from the Junior Goodwill Cook Book, "Deliciously Yours." Betty's helped serve Tuesday lunches at Memorial Church. She was a Cottage Hospital volunteer for two years, working in the Record Library, an assignment she found "fascinating," and a volunteer worker at the Planned Parenthood Clinic for one year.

Planned Parenthood, incidentally, is one of her Continuing Interests: She's worked on its fund-raising committees in The Pointe area several times.

Headed Sorority Group She was president of her sorority alumnae group, Kappa Alpha Theta, for two years after she was graduated from college, and served on its Board several more years.

She spent "about four years" on the Cystic Fibrosis Board for United Community Services, acting part of the time as recording secretary for the 12-member group, (four representatives, like Betty, "from the community," the eight others representing two different groups in the Detroit area interested in Cystic Fibrosis).

Her leisure time activities might be classified as Mildly Athletic. She likes bowling very much, and has bowled "at least 20 years" on one, sometimes two, winter leagues.

She served three years, one as co-chairman, on the Country Club of Detroit Ladies' Bowling Committee.

Both Enjoy Golf Betty and Tom Fox both enjoy golf and are members of the Country Club's Mixed Twilight League. (Betty spent two years as the Twilight Golfers' Food Committee chairman.)

"He," says Betty, describing her husband's prowess on the golf course, "is good."

How about her own fairway-green abilities? "I," she says, "am a MUCH better bowler!"

"I attempt to ski, too," she adds, "but my family goes down (the slopes), at least five times to my one."

Most of the Foxes' skiing is done at Otsego, although Brian, whom his mother describes as a "nice skier," has been out West several times and is planning to go again this Christmas.

With Goodwill 20 Years Betty Fox joined the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit 20 years ago. In the past 10 years, she's been a non-Board member exactly once!

She's served twice as Junior Goodwill's corresponding chairman, twice as Junior Goodwill Antiques Market program chairman, once (in 1959) as Antiques Market general co-chairman.

She's been Antiques Market patrons chairman and finance chairman. She's been chairman of the Goodwill Juniors' Membership and Finance Committees and co-chairman of the House and Hospitality Committee, served on the Art Committee for the last cook book published by the Goodwill Juniors, served as knitting chairman for two Junior Goodwill Fairs and as knitting co-chairman for last spring's Fair, as the Goodwill Juniors' assistant corresponding secretary and, for two years, as the group's first vice-president.

"Our officers," explains President Fox, "come up through the ranks, so by the time they get to the top they know pretty much what they're doing."

And this is fortunate, because Junior Goodwill officers have a lot to do.

Nice To Work With "We're a working group, not a social group," Betty notes. "The Goodwill Juniors really do work hard—and they're all such nice women to work with!"

The Goodwill Junior Group was founded 38 years ago by Jean (Mrs. Edwin O.) Bodkin, whose mother, Mrs. J. B. Taylor, started the Women's Association of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit and was the first woman to sit on the Board of Goodwill Industries.

In the early 30's, during the Depression, Mrs. Taylor asked her daughter to recruit 12 friends to usher at a Christmas concert she had organized at St. Paul's Cathedral to raise funds for Goodwill Industries.

The young women became interested themselves in Goodwill. Each interested one other friend, and the Junior Group—the first of its kind, although it is now national—was formed.

Has 275 Members Currently, the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit lists more than 275 members, regulars, associates and probationers.

The Juniors are not a service group. "Our sole purpose," Betty Fox reports, "is to assist Goodwill by raising money."

Favorite Recipes of People in The Know

RUM PUDDING

Contributed by Mrs. Robert B. McFadden (From "Let's Eat," the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church Cook Book).

3 C. cream or half-and-half
½ stick vanilla bean
1 env. unflavored gelatin
2 Tbsp. cold water
4 eggs, separated
6 Tbsp. sugar
3 Tbsp. rum
½ C. whipped cream.

Cut open and scrape vanilla bean; add to cream and heat slowly about five minutes. Soak gelatin in cold water, then stir into hot mixture. Beat egg yolks until lemon-colored; beat in sugar. Add egg mixture to cream and cook over low heat until thick. Stir in rum. Beat egg whites until stiff, fold in, then fold in whipped cream. Chill and serve with warmed raspberry or strawberry sauce.

private industry, is one of the ways Goodwill employs a great many people. This sort of operation is very profitable; Goodwill is trying to increase it.

But last year, Goodwill was happy to receive the Juniors' operating expense money. And the Juniors were happy to give it.

It's their way of helping an organization they believe in, are strongly committed to—so strongly, in fact, that they insist on doing a good job for it.

No half-way measures then, for either Junior Goodwill or its president, Betty Fox. No stretching the members, or their president, too thin . . .

No Supervolunteers, women who lend their names and or a few hours a year to dozens of causes, projects, drives . . .

"We're a working group," says Betty Fox.

This One Thing is super enough . . .

Collegians Bid To Center Party

All Grosse Pointe collegians are cordially invited to drop by Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Alger House Sunday evening, December 22, at 5 o'clock. A register will be set up to let everyone know who is in town and organizations planning holiday functions for the college set are welcome to have notices present.

Through the Center, Grosse Pointe Collegians, headed by Jim Schrage, are planning a ski trip to Boyne Country beginning December 30, occupying their own lodge for 45 with fire places and party room. Those interested should contact the Center at once. Lodging and food 'til January 3 are covered for $35.

Alger House is beautifully decorated for Christmas. The big fireplace will be lighted in the main rooms for the December 22 College Open House and free coffee will be served. It's hoped all collegians, both from local campuses and from out of town, will drop by to renew friendships and find out the "happenings" of the Holiday scene.

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Meet Monday Evening

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Grosse Pointe held a Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. William Grierson in Hawthorne road Monday evening, December 2, at 8 o'clock. The meeting was the group's annual "Cookie Shine."

Leave It To Fashion . . . to find a new scene, a new part for you to play with new costumes to wear. We're talking about the more important than ever "a home" wardrobe. Whether you're dining a deux, entertaining a dozen or a hundred close friends, there's a charming hostess tunic, pants costume, or gown at Walton-Pierce. Velvet tunics over swinging satin pants, a harem bolero with trousers, dashing sashed or jewel colored long sweeps of lovely fabric encircled with sparkling links. The cocktail and dinner dress will always be assured their places but "at-home" is an exciting fashion world all its own.

Fashion Is Change . . . so it was inevitable that the new trend in hair fashion is to a smooth hairline. The natural shape of the head will remain unchanged but there's less teasing, less curl, more swing, blunt cuts and newy braids. One advance style is longer hair pulled back or to the side with plaited hairpieces. Yes, hairpieces have remained very "in" and are the perfect beauty answers to growing out and building this newer look. Of course, Leon, 17888 Mack Avenue, is the perfect place to find the newer longer falls and to have hairpieces newly styled . . . TUzedo 4-9393.

Fashion By The Yard . . . Give sixty inches of colorful silk with designer patterns to wrap and tie with flare. These new scarves at Michelle's Boutique at Leon go to great lengths for style, as do the long gold ropes and coin chains.

Time After Time . . . It isn't easy to maintain high standards. That's why so few kitchen manufacturers attempt it. Perfection is a habit at Mutschler, 20227 Mack Avenue. That's why homemakers who appreciate that extra measure of quality turn to Mutschler when they begin kitchen planning.

Midge Grant . . . has sent a new supply of hostess dresses and skirts to 373 Fisher Road. We don't have to tell you how popular her fashions are or that they are found exclusively in Grosse Pointe in Martha's Closet. See the great new color and fabric combinations.

Stocking Stuffers . . . come in many sizes, shapes and scents at the Notre Dame Pharmacy. We'd love to find our favorite purse-size perfume, bath spray, and a new color in nail polish with lipstick. What would you like to find? Find it at the Notre Dame Pharmacy.

Instant wonderfulness . . . is a comb-out at Roberts place, 405 Fisher Road. Call 885-4130.

Quality . . . usually looks expensive but often it is the very best buy. For example, at Ed. Maliszewski's handsome showroom, 21435 Mack Avenue, Cabin Crafts quality carpeting is reasonably priced from four ninety-five to twelve ninety-five. You will enjoy shopping there . . . 776-5510.

American Bravo . . . presents magnificent Spanish period accent pieces, hand-crafted by the mountain artisans of Spain from the wood of Madera de Aliso. They include Spanish fireplace bellows of wood and sierra leather. Swords from Toledo, Spain . . . displayed on a dark granada wood plaque and a Spanish chest for your cherished treasures. Find this collection at The Sphere, 18849 Mack.

The Kaleidoscope . . . 16135 Mack at Bedford, is open Thursday and Friday evenings until 8:30 for more convenient gathering of their gift goodies.

Check . . . The highly decorative chess sets at 16237 Mack at Three Mile. They are made of onyx in white, beige, black or natural green combinations. The chessmen come in idol or English styles and the boards are of onyx. There are also handsome hand-carved wood chess sets. Ole is open Thursday and Friday evenings until 8:30.

A Perfect Hair Cut . . . is the basis of a perfect hair style. At Edward Nepi Parrucchiere, 19463 Mack Avenue, you'll find both. Edward's flawless technique in hair cutting is well known and you'll be delighted to know that each of his stylists is trained intensively by him.

The Four Winds . . . that direct import treasure house and a long time favorite with Grosse Pointers, has received a shipment from India which includes hand-carved screens, boxes and a multitude of trinkets. See all the exciting Far Eastern decoratives at 13800 East Eight Mile Road. The Four Winds is open Thursday, Friday and Saturday until 8 p.m. . . . DR 1-5666.

Fish Fry . . . all you can eat! Every Friday! Fresh lake perch with French fries, cole slaw, fresh roll and butter . . . just a dollar forty-nine at Westfields, 25506 Mack at Somerset. TUzedo 5-1003.

Pine accessories . . . for wall decoration, wood compotes, candle sticks, book ends, and many other Early American gifts are plentiful at Wright's Gifts and Lamps, 19650 Mack Avenue.

Come In . . . and see the new Hotpoint built-in appliances at Kitchen Remodelers, 15281 Jefferson. Let one of their experts show you how to save money on kitchen remodeling through proper planning. Their interior decorator will do a color rendering of your proposed new kitchen so you can see how it will look before you decide to go ahead . . . LO 7-2400.

Which Way Did He Go? . . . He went from the east side to Metropolitan Airport via the Royal Coachman Limousine and left his horse-power in the garage. RCL took him directly to the airline of his choice with no parking problem. We remember the long snowy walk we had a short time ago. We are going and coming back RCL next trip. Call TUzedo 6-1322.

Set Your Course . . . destination, The Ports of Call, 23220 Mack near Nine Mile. If you arrive on a Friday evening, you'll be treated to coffee and cookies until 9:00 p.m. They will sustain you as you navigate through brimming gift stalls and around all the antiques and fun-tiques.
