THE SUPREME COURT Wednesday rejected the Nixon administration's plea for a delay in desegregating 30 Mississippi school districts and ordered immediate integration. The court ruled in the controversial case in a two-page unsigned order. The opinion was unanimous, and was the first handed down since Chief Justice Warren E. Burger took over leadership of the court.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY leader Bobby Seale was gagged, handcuffed and shackled to a chair in a federal courtroom Wednesday after he screamed epithets at the judge and prosecutors and fought with U.S. marshals who sought to restrain him. Federal Judge Julius J. Hoffman ordered Seal shackled after he persistently made violent outbursts at the trial of the eight men charged with conspiracy to incite riots at the 1968 Democratic national convention.

Friday, October 31

PRESIDENT NIXON ASKED Congress Thursday for a "buyer's bill of rights," which for the first time would permit consumers to sue in federal court for damages resulting from fraudulent or deceptive trade practices. The suits would be based on a proposed broad new federal law banning fraud and deceptions already condemned by the Federal Trade Commission.

MARINE LANCE CPL. Raphael Minichiello, 20, of Seattle, a Vietnam veteran, hijacked a Trans World Airlines jet over California yesterday and sent it leaping 6,900 miles across the American continent, the Atlantic and Europe. The plane landed in Rome early Saturday, it had been hijacked in California.

PRESIDENT NGUYEN VAN THIEU appealed Friday night to the South Vietnamese people to make more sacrifices in the war effort and said he would leave office if his policies were rejected. He said more American troops would be withdrawn next year.

Sunday, November 2

U.S. OFFICIALS ASKED Italian authorities to surrender world's record hijacker Raphael Minichiello for trial on charges carrying the death penalty. Rome police insisted the AWOL Marine be tried there.

WARNING THAT COLOR television sets pose a "significant" and "unreasonable" fire hazard, the National Commission on Product Safety has asked manufacturers to upgrade safety standards within two weeks. Commission Chairman Arnold Elkind estimated that 10,000 fires each year are caused by aging and faults in high-voltage television parts.

SIX AMERICANS, who hijacked planes to Cuba during the last 18 months, returned to the United States Sunday to face charges of air piracy and kidnapping, apparently disillusioned with the communist regime of Fidel Castro.

PENNSYLVANIA SENATOR, former GOP national chairman Hugh Scott, has decided to oppose the Supreme Court nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynesworth. Scott has already drafted a statement setting out his reasons for rejecting President Nixon's choice for the seat left vacant by former Justice Abe Fortas.

Tuesday, November 4

PRESIDENT NIXON in his address to the nation Monday night told Americans his plan for peace calls for complete withdrawal of all U.S. forces from Vietnam. He appealed for support and unity at home to speed the end of the war. He also revealed three secret overtures to North Vietnam, including a personal letter to Ho Chi Minh, none of which were successful.

Safety Hazard in South High School's Annex

MRS. JOSEPH W. PERRY III, former president of the Mothers Club at Grosse Pointe South High School, and co-chairman of the South High School Study Committee, points out safety deficiencies in the "B" Annex (old Country Day School built in 1902) to LEE H. ALLEN (left), treasurer of the Board of Education and WILLIAM J. ADAMS (right), trustee. The Board has scheduled a Special Election on November 11 to seek funds to renovate the 40-year-old plant, including the demolition of the Quonset hut and the hazardous "B" Annex and to replace them with new buildings to accommodate the growing enrollment.

Russian Spacemen Accompanied by Astronaut Gordon Cooper and Their Wives

By Pepper Whitelaw
The Pointe was alive with State Department security men, members of the Wayne County Sheriff's office, Detroit Police and FBI agents, all of whom were under the co-ordination of Sergeant George Van Tien, of The Farms Police, last Thursday evening when Cosmonaut Major General Georgy Beregovoy and his wife, Russian space scientist, Konstantin Feoktistov, Astronaut Colonel Gordon Cooper and his wife, two interpreters from the United States and two from Russia, were escorted to the Touraine road residence of the Lester F. Ruwes, where a cocktail party was being held in their honor.

The Russians are visiting the United States as guests of NASA.

The entourage was late in arriving at the Ruwes for two reasons, their plane was late and the ladies had to have their hair done. (So you see American ladies aren't the only vain women in the world!)

School Board, Teachers Reach Salary Agreement

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education on Monday, November 3, officially approved the master agreement recently negotiated with the Grosse Pointe Education Association for the 1969-70 and 70-71 school years and authorized the president and secretary of the Board of Education to execute the agreement on behalf of the Board of Education.

The Board also authorized the superintendent of schools to sign individual contracts for all teachers employed for 1969-70 with salaries based on the salary schedules incorporated in the master agreement. The vote was 5-2 with trustee Arnold Fuchs and vice-president Calvin Sandberg voting no.

Last week the Grosse Pointe Education Association approved the contract agreement by a

Community Anxiously Awaiting Historic Game; NEWS Will Present First Trophy To Winning Gridders

An inter-community gridiron classic will get underway at 2:00 p.m., on Saturday, November 8, when Grosse Pointe South's High School's Blue Devils clash with Grosse Pointe North's Norsemen at South's home field in the first meeting in history between two Pointe high school football teams.

The game itself should be a dandy. Powered by the passing arm of signal-caller Tom Bailey, whose accurate aerials helped move the Blue Devils to the top of the heap in the Border Cities League, and the powerhouse running of fullback Brett Benson, South rates as a slight favorite offensively, having been able to move the ball consistently throughout the season. Defensively, Chris Penoyar

Youth Assaulted Walking His Dog

Matthew Hardy, 738 Notre Dame, called City police on Thursday, October 31, to report his teenage son was attacked by two youths while walking his dog in the area.

The youth told officers he was approached by three boys who asked him if he saw anyone throwing eggs. He said no and started to walk away when two other youths assaulted him from behind. They then fled in a black sedan. The lad was bleeding from the mouth and hit on the right side of the face.

and Rick Worrell have bulkheaded South's gang of tacklers all season long, with Penoyar moving into the circle of the elite in recent weeks by making nearly 30 unassisted tackles.

North Backs Are Big
North boasts the finest, and one of the biggest, set of running backs in the area and an excellent quarterback in Joe Puleo. Battering Mickey Reese has demonstrated the ability to grind out tough yardage and Steve Schleicher and Co-Captain Glen Hilger have been standouts offensively throughout North's nine-game schedule.

The defensive edge might lie in North's favor. The Norsemen have given up few points and have recorded two shutouts in the tough Bi-County League and have exhibited some of the best lateral pursuit capabilities in the area.

"We look forward to a fine football game," said Blue Devil Coach Russ Hepner, who led his underrated gridgers to a fine season. "Our staff has the highest regard for the coaches and playing personnel at North and we have been quite impressed with the Norsemen all year."

Will Play By Ear
Hepner claimed that North looks "bigger and faster on paper" but that his team would play this like they have all other games this season.

"It doesn't matter who we are playing, we have to pull together as one, closely-knit unit for every minute of play, if we are to come out on top," he said. "I feel this is probably the most important game in the series because it is the first one."

Norsemen Head Coach Jim Krucki claims this game will find his team up to full strength at last.

"Physically, we should be in the best shape we've been in all season long," said Krucki. "Many of our fellows who have been out with injuries are back and just having them out for practice has given us some much-needed depth."

"It should be a fine, hard-hitting affair," he claimed. "They have turned in a real

6-Alarm Fire Hits Funeral Home in Park

More than 70 Firemen Manning 10 Pieces of Equipment Battle Flames at Verheyden's

A six-alarm fire caused extensive damage to the third floor attic of the Verheyden Funeral Home, 16300 Mack avenue, Monday evening, November 3. Ten engines and more than 70 firemen from seven communities battled stubborn flames for more than two hours before bringing it under control.

Park Director of Public Safety William P. Ellenburg said that the fire is believed to have been caused by either faulty electrical air control motors, or faulty wiring, located at the northeast section of the attic. Through the combined efforts of all the firefighters, the fire was confined to this area, the director said.

Charles Verheyden, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton P. Alandt, and the Alandt children, all of whom reside on the second floor of the funeral home, were safely evacuated from the building.

Bodies Carried Out
Bodies lying in state were carried out by funeral home personnel and firemen and placed in hearses. One body was taken directly to a Detroit church, since funeral arrangements were set for Tuesday morning. The others were conveyed to area funeral homes, where others offered space.

Director Ellenburg said only one fireman, Park Sgt. Paul Wernet, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital, and this was only to remove a foreign object from his eye.

The director said an investigation to establish the actual cause of the fire, is still underway. Damage to the building, by fire, smoke, heat and water is estimated at more than $200,000.

The director disclosed that the first alarm was sounded, when an unknown citizen noticed smoke coming from the upper level of the funeral home, and called the fire department. This was about 10:08 p.m., a few minutes after the place was closed for the night.

Sgt. Wernet called in the second and third alarm at 10:21 p.m., and the City responded with two engines and eight men, and Harper Woods, with one engine and seven men.

Off Duty Men Called
At 10:30 p.m., an off-duty Park firemen were ordered to report to the scene for duty,

Architects Submit Report Covering South High Needs

List Proposals to Update Property to Serve Community for Another 40 Years; Would Scrap Country Day School Annex

How to take a hodge-podge of aging buildings on a limited site and turn them into a high school that will serve the community for a second 40 years? That was the assignment handed the Birmingham architectural firm of Linn Smith, Demiene, and Adams, by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education last summer.

"The cheapest way to solve the critical housing and safety problems confronting Grosse Pointe South High School would be to construct an addition on the front lawn, right in front of the Neo-Georgian facade which has been a community landmark for over 40 years," said Linn Smith, well-known school architect who completed the study of remodeling the building and who made a presentation of his findings to the community on October 27.

"Even such a drastic move would not really solve the schools' basic problems," he said as he outlined the work done by his firm in the past three months.

To Preserve Character
Smith's recommended approach to the building is to preserve as much of its original character, while rendering it usable by today's safety and educational standards.

At most, the difference between the plan Smith has seriously proposed and that of erecting a free-standing structure on the lawn would be $250,000. And even with this "saving," the building would not be as functional as the plan he envisions if his total plan is put into effect.

In evaluating the site for the Board, the architects noted major deficiencies in size of the site, parking facilities, and the fact that there has been no long-range master planning in regard to the best site utilization, "resulting in a haphazard series of additions with no consistent architectural character."

In addition, they have commented that there is no logical front or public entrance to the building, which causes a lack of orientation and control over school. Finally, there is no separation of pedestrian and vehicular circulation because of the scattered parking areas.

Condition Discussed
The architects' report discusses the condition of each of the buildings in detail in terms of the deficiencies in the physical condition of the interior and exterior. "In spite of a good maintenance program, the buildings reflect their age and the types of materials used," Smith said.

For example, "existing for public assembly areas may have to be modified due to present Fire Marshal regulations," and "corridor heating duct enclosures may have to be reworked to conform to the Fire Marshal regulations."

The main building met the requirements of the State Fire Marshal when it was constructed, but the codes have changed and the building is in

Police Probing Stabbing Reported at Memorial

A report of a felonious assault, in which it was claimed that a caretaker at the War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road, had been stabbed, is being investigated by Farms police.

Det. Joseph Miller, in charge of the investigation, said that it was reported that Francis B. Wallace, 43, of 2554 Chalmers, Detroit, was making his rounds on the Center premises at about 8:29 p.m., Friday, October 31, when he allegedly observed two males "fooling around" the employees' entrance at the east side of the main building.

Wallace, it was said, approached the pair and asked what they were doing, and one man grabbed him and threw him to the ground and hit him in the lower abdomen. The assailant was described as being about five feet nine and

City Voters Re-elect All Incumbents

Mayor Burgess, Councilmen Henry, Hamann, Munro Retained to Continue Service to Community

By Pepper Whitelaw

In the second largest voter turnout in the history of the City of Grosse Pointe, voters re-elected David E. Burgess as mayor and all three incumbent councilmen, George N. Munro, III, John R. Hamann and George D. Henry. The final count showed 2,333 of the 4,125 registered voters cast ballots on Tuesday's cold and rainy election day.

Mayor Burgess garnered 1,456 votes. His opponent, Walter Huber, received 891 votes. In the council race, Mr. Hamann, 1,302 votes and Mr. Munro, 1,110 votes.

Ralph M. Burton polled 878 votes, Jeannette H. Duffield, 731 votes, Ernest L. Rushmer, 708 votes, and George Kushman trailed with 621.

Mayor Burgess, 55, has been mayor of the City of Grosse Pointe since 1963. Prior to this he was a member of the City Council for nine years. He is presently a member of the law firm Tolleson, Burgess and Meade and is a practicing attorney specializing in labor relations. He has been a City resident for 20 years. He is married to the former Louise Marie Hawley and has six children.

Mr. Henry, 42, has been a member of the City Council for three years. He and his wife Elizabeth have two daughters. They have lived in the City for nine years and in the Grosse Pointe community for 15 years. He is currently affiliated with New York Life Insurance Company.

Mr. Hamann, 54, has been on the Council for three years. He and his wife Lois have three children and have lived in the City for 14 years. He is presently assistant manager of operations for the Detroit Edison Company.

Mr. Munro, who is 57 years old, has served on the City Council for six and a half years. He and his wife Margaret have three children and two grand-

School Board Asks Backing Of Residents

Voters' Decision on Three Tax Proposals Will Determine Future of Public School System

Some 39,262 registered voters are eligible to go to the polls on Tuesday, November 11, to vote at a very important school election. Three propositions will be on the ballot.

Proposition One—25.45 mills will maintain the public schools' current educational program as suggested by the community-wide representative 50-member Millage Study Committee. This levy will provide over 70 percent of the operation budget for 1970-71. Inflation makes it necessary to allow for increased operating costs, plus an increased student enrollment.

Will Affect Program
Proposition Two—75 of a mill will improve the schools' instructional program along lines suggested by the Millage Study Committee, particularly by adding special instruction for both gifted and children experiencing learning difficulties.

Proposition Three—1.50 mills is for the renovation of South High School and to replace the antiquated and hazardous Annex and Quonset hut with new facilities meeting the requirements of the State Fire Marshal, in line with the recommendations of the South High Study Committee. This proposition is a bond issue and will provide money to make critical improvements at South.

How Much It Costs
With the passage of these three proposals the cost to educate a child in the Grosse Pointe Public School System will increase eight cents per hour or from $1 (current cost) to $1.08 after passage of the millage.

Passage of the three proposals will cost a taxpayer $9.20 more per year for each thousand dollars of the state equalized valuation of his property.

All qualified registered voters may ballot on all three propositions from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the 10 public elementary schools on Tuesday, November 11.

Launch Project Misdemeanant

"Project Misdemeanant," a program in which local citizens assist youthful offenders locally on a one-to-one basis for a year, is underway. The program, suggested for use in The Pointes by Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytel, received an enthusiastic response from residents at a recent meeting at the War Memorial. Over 100 persons attended.

As a result of that meeting, applications were given to potential volunteers and returned to their local judges. Because of the interest people expressed in the program, a training schedule has been set up for volunteers by John Amberger, Supervisor of Training and Treatment for the Wayne County Probation department.

There will be two training sessions. The first at 7:30 o'clock, on Thursday evening, November 13, will be an orientation and introduction to the volunteer program, and its place in the correctional process. Volunteers will be told of the type of problems they may encounter. A member of one of the Pointe police departments will discuss local problems volunteers might face.

The second session, also at 7:30 o'clock, will be held the following Thursday evening, November 20, and will deal with possible solutions to the problems. Mr. Amberger will discuss counseling techniques and typical probation cases. Mrs. Jane Stone, local school social worker, will help staff by hypothetical case and discuss local treatment sources including the Pointe's Family Life Education Council (FLEC).

Anyone interested in volunteering for the program should attend these sessions at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

HIT BY PELLET
Jill Harter, 791 Lincoln, stopped a City police officer on Thursday, October 30, to report that while she was walking east on Goethe she was shot at by a 14-year-old youth with a BB gun. One of the BB's hit her about five inches below the right eye. Officers contacted the boys parents and confiscated the BB gun.

good season, but I think you can forget the record books in this one."

Both coaches feel the game should mark the beginning of an intense but healthy rivalry between the two schools and they are anxious to get the series off on the right foot.

NEWS Given Trophy

The contest will also witness the presentation of the first Grosse Pointe News Trophy donated by the NEWS as a symbol of its respect for the merits of good, clean football, to the winning team. The trophy will be a traveling award, resting for one year in the trophy case of the winning school. In the case of a tie, the award will be shared by each school for a six-month period.

"I think it should be pointed out that this contest will mark the beginning of a rivalry which will consume the interest of the community more than any other football game," said Robert B. Edgar, editor and general manager of the NEWS. "With the community in mind, we decided to establish the NEWS trophy to honor not only the victorious coach and players, but also to honor the school, the students, the teachers and parents. It is a tribute to the entire Pointe community that we now have two fine high schools, offering innumerable scholastic, extra-curricular and athletic opportunities, under the Public School System. We at the NEWS are all anticipating a fine game and a great afternoon and evening of fun."

Both the principals and athletic directors, in addition to the coaches at both high schools have asked the students and the parents to help insure that the rivalry gets off to a good start and remains a healthy and entertaining one by making sure they confine the intensity of the game to the action on the field.

Big Exchange Planned

Principal Gerry Gerich of South and Dr. William Craig, principal at North, have arranged an exchange of football coaches and cheerleaders as well as class presidents at the Friday Pep Rallies at each school as part of their gesture to show that the student bodies of both schools can and will work and play together as representatives of two high schools under the same system.

"We have built our assemblies around fair play, courteous conduct and good sportsmanship and set the stage for great rapport between the students," said Gerich. "We are using the Grosse Pointe News trophy as our symbol of these traits."

Dr. Craig claimed this could be the start of a much-awaited and thoroughly entertaining Fall event, which will be hosted by each school every other year.

"The NEWS trophy in football and the All Sports Trophy, donated by the graduated class of 1968, serve as incentives for great competition and friendly rivalry," he said. "In addition to football, the schools will also compete in basketball, tennis, golf, swimming, track, cross-country and baseball and I'm sure this will provide a lot of fun for the community."

All Urged To Help

Both Chuck Hollosy, of South, and Ed Wernet, of North, the athletic directors of the two schools, claimed that the coaches, players, students, and community can enjoy this series of football games fully, if they all take the right attitude and enjoy the game and the pre-game and post-game activities.

The highlight of the post-game activities will be the first annual South-North football dance, to be sponsored by the Sophomore class of South, the host school, and will begin at 8:00 p.m. the night of the game.

"Both schools have been allotted 900 tickets for the dance," said Sophomore Class President Steve Potter. "No tickets will be sold at the door. Music will be provided by the famous Bob Seger System and they cancelled a one-night stand in New York to be here."

During a break in the dancing, the head coaches of both high schools will be introduced and the NEWS trophy will be presented to the coach of the winning school.

year agreement has been reached at a salary level which appears eminently fair, a two-year period without protracted and exhausting negotiations should be most beneficial to everyone concerned. The Board wishes to express its gratitude to those who made a contribution to the solution of this very major problem."

Salaries for 1969-70 for a teacher with a BA degree begin at $7,900 and go to $12,400, while those with a masters' degree will receive a beginning salary of $8,690 and a top salary of $14,125. The teachers will receive an eight percent increase over 1968-70 on each of the 11 steps of both the BA and MA schedules for 1970-71.

Features of the agreement include:

1. A two-year contract, including a salary schedule, eliminates the necessity of time-consuming negotiations each year.
2. The improved package of fringe benefits includes payment on a percentage rather than a flat rate formula designed to place a higher premium on improved preparation and advanced training.
3. Provisions for improved longevity pay on a percentage rather than on a flat-rate basis will benefit the veteran teacher.
4. The school system's calendar for 1970-71 will be similar to that currently in effect and provides for the same number of days of instruction for pupils.
5. The public librarians who are represented by the teachers group will be paid an additional five percent more on their base pay beginning with the 1970-71 year in recognition of their services to the community.

In 1968-69 salaries accounted for 84 percent of the operating budget, with the remaining 16 percent covering other expenses. Since 84 percent of the schools' operational budget is earmarked for salaries, that percentage of Proposition #1 in the upcoming Millage Election will be used for salaries of employees in all categories, with the balance to be used for operational expenses.

Officials of both South and North High Schools in urging and inviting all Pointe residents to come on out and watch the ballgame. Prediction: South 20, North 20. And you can't pick 'em any safer than that.

where local hairdressers Vito and John were given an emergency call. With combs and brushes in hand the pair appeared at the hotel where they styled Mrs. Beregovoy's and Mrs. Cooper's hair. According to the boys, both ladies preferred casual hair-dos.

Vito said it was a strange feeling doing hair with security men surrounding him. He said a lighter moment was provided when he was washing Mrs. Beregovoy's hair. Mrs. Beregovoy spoke only one word of English during the entire operation... the word was "hot." Unfortunately Vito, always one to satisfy a customer, graciously increased the hot water everytime Mrs. Beregovoy said hot... finally when steam was permeating the room Mrs. Beregovoy jumped from her chair and shook her head. She was trying to say "too hot" not "hotter" said Vito.

They Were Charming

According to Mrs. Ruwe the visitors were absolutely charming and enjoyable. She was particularly impressed with Major General Beregovoy who bowed and graciously said "Thank you very much," (almost all of the English he knew), after each conversation was translated for him.

All Pointers who met the group agreed that it was a delightful experience which they will always remember... and most assuredly an experience that will go a long way toward improving Soviet-American relations.

Girl Suffers Eye Injury When Hit by Thrown Egg

Paula Bartoszewicz, 14, of 274 Kerby road, was standing in front of her home, talking with two girl friends, Thursday evening, October 30, when a late model car, make and license number unknown, sped by. A passenger in the vehicle tossed an egg at the girls, which hit Paula in the left eye.

Paula, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Bartoszewicz, was rushed to St. John Hospital by her father for treatment. The girl was admitted as a patient when examination of the eye revealed the possible detachment of the retina.

Farms Det. Joseph Miller said that the incident happened so fast that the make of the car and the license number were unable to be obtained. The girls were also unable to identify the persons in the automobile.

"It is bad enough that eggs are thrown at all, whether at houses, cars, or what have you," the detective said, "but it is certainly no joke to throw eggs, or any object, hard or soft, at people or property."

"I cannot conceive anything funny about egg tossing. It is a stupid way of trying to have so-called 'fun.' A splattered egg is a mess to clean up, especially when the yolk and white dry up. In the case of Miss Bartoszewicz, it is very serious. We will continue to investigate this matter, and if the person responsible is ever apprehended, he will be dealt with to the limit of the law," Miller stated.

Mrs. Bartoszewicz said that sons and have lived in the City for 16 years. He is presently Vice-President - Administration with Manufacturers National Bank.

The mayor serves for a two-year term and the Councilmen for four-year terms. The most hotly contested in any of the Pointes in many years. Openly opposing the incumbents was the Citizens Advisory Committee, an organization formed in 1963 by residents of the Cadieux avenue area as a direct result of the expansion plans of Bon Secours Hospital. Committee members began openly opposing the expansion at that time and have continued to do so up until the present. Recently the group opposed a proposed plan presented by Liwyd Ecclestone, Jr. and James Barnes, Jr. for a 36-unit $70,000 per unit condominium on the old O'Leary Cadillac property.

The CAC backed four candidates, Walter Huber, Ernest Rushmer, Jeannette Duffield and Ralph Burton.

her daughter was released from the hospital on Monday, November 3, and is recuperating at home. Barbara will have to remain in bed for at least a week, the mother said, adding that doctors were of the opinion that the eye will heal without impairment.

Det. Miller said that one of the girls with Barbara was able to give a description of the vehicle, from which the egg was tossed.

The girl said that the auto was a 1966 white Ford station wagon, with wooden paneling on the sides. There was a luggage rack on the roof of the car. There were six boys in the vehicle, one a fat youth who was sitting on the right-hand side.

Cottage Hospital Holds Clinic Day

The Annual Clinic Day of Cottage Hospital, conducted for the benefit of the medical profession, was held this year on Wednesday, November 5, in association with the University of Michigan Medical Center.

Two physicians from the Medical Center, Thomas J. DeKornfeld, M.D., Professor of Anesthesiology and Josef R. Smith, M.D., Associate Professor of Internal Medicine and Associate Director of the Pulmonary Function Laboratory, were guest speakers.

Members of the Cottage Hospital Medical Staff attended the morning clinic session. The afternoon session, held at the War Memorial, centered on "The Diagnosis and Management of Severe Chronic Respiratory Insufficiency." Specialists in Inhalation Therapy and Pulmonary Function from area hospitals were in attendance.

Citizens Group Presents Panel

The Committee for the Preservation of the Grosse Pointe School District will give local residents the opportunity to hear "What the Governor's Education Reform Program Means to the Grosse Pointe School District," at 8 o'clock, on Friday, November 7, in Parcells Middle School Auditorium.

Larry Carino, general manager and vice-president of TV-2 will moderate a panel consisting of Senator Charles Youngblood, Representative Robert Waldron, Senator Robert Huber and James Phelps of the governor's office.

Invited as reactors to the panel are president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, Alice Mary Hykes; legislative chairman of the PTA Council, Cedric Richner; superintendent of schools, Dr. Theos I. Anderson, president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association, Dave Baschore, and representatives of The Citizens for Education, The Friends of the Grosse Pointe Schools and Citizens for Educational Freedom.

Secretary of the Committee for the Preservation of the Grosse Pointe School District, Edith Wilson, said time will be allowed for members in the audience to ask questions.

VIOLATION ISSUED

Robert Niederoest, 262 Fisher road, was issued a violation by city police on Saturday, November 1, for careless driving. Niederoest was driving south on University place from Mack and lost control of his car and hit a tree in front of 896 University place.

6-Alarm Fire

At the same time, the fourth alarm was given, and the Farms dispatched a ladder truck and an engine and eight men, and at 10:30 p.m., it became necessary to sound the fifth alarm, and the Woods sent its Snorkle and seven men.

At 11:20 p.m., a request for help was sent to Detroit, and an engine and 10 firefighters sped to the scene. At 12:10 a.m., the fire was brought under control, and two minutes later, the Detroit compliment was released to return to their station.

Director Ellenburg said that three off-duty Harrison Township (Macomb County) firemen, who were driving by, stopped and volunteered their services, which were accepted.

It was also disclosed, that the Grosse Pointe Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge No. 102, comprised of officers of the five Pointes and Harper Woods, were attending a regular monthly meeting at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, when news of the fire was received. All, of course, were off duty.

Without hesitation, all the policemen, many still in uniform, cleared the building and rushed to the scene of the fire to offer their assistance. Woods and Shores public safety officers, who are both policemen and firemen, donned firefighting gear and were pressed into firefighting service, and the policemen in uniform aided in directing traffic and controlling the crowd that had gathered to watch the conflagration.

At 2:45 a.m., the fire was completely out, and all engines and personnel returned to their respective quarters.

At 3:10 a.m., and again at 7:18 a.m., Park firemen sped to the funeral home when smoke was sighted, the first caused by a smoldering couch on the second floor, and the latter, caused by smoke from a suitcase filled with foam rubber at the east end of the attic.

Importance of Pact
"A bad fire of this type illustrates the importance and the value of the Mutual Fire Aid Pact between the Pointes and Harper Woods, and the pact with Detroit," Ellenburg said. "I cannot find enough words to praise the firemen who participated in this emergency. They did a tremendous job."

"The fire had a good start, shooting through the air vents and heating system, but through the combined efforts of all the firefighters, the blaze did not have a chance to spread, and was confined to the area in which it originated. These men were really great. I am grateful that no one was hurt or killed," the director added.

PARTY TIME?
Mary Mitchell, of Rivard avenue, called City police on Tuesday, October 28, to report that while she was at work persons unknown had entered her home and ransacked it. Doors to the closets were ajar, the television set was on, the front door open and $90 was taken from a dresser drawer. The intruder also took small quantities of food and drink.

South High Needs Report

(Continued from Page 1) need of upgrading, he said. In the Industrial Arts Annex, for example, cracked concrete floors, in the metal shop need to be patched and the building should be repainted with fire retardant paint to conform to Fire Marshal regulations.

Regarding the former Grosse Pointe Country Day School, the so-called "B" Annex, the Smith report says that it is "in serious violation of fire regulations in terms of materials used, dead-end corridors, and non-enclosed stairways. To correct these violations cannot be economically justified in relation to the amount of money required compared to the small usable area gained. The report recommends that these buildings, because of their obsolescence, in terms of usable space, electrical and mechanical systems and Fire Marshal violations, be phased out to allow for their replacement."

Regarding the condition of the Wicking Library, the report indicates that the relatively new structure is in excellent condition. The Smith report describes the Quonset hut as "of temporary nature, poorly located, unsightly and should be removed to allow for new construction."

Structure Values
The architects' analysis included attention to the basic structure value of the various buildings. In the main building, for example, existing classroom spaces would have to retain a similar function and could not be converted to lecture rooms or public assembly areas without major structural revisions. The architects do not anticipate any major difficulty in remodeling in the gymnasium addition. Based on visual observation, the main building, Industrial Arts building, and Wicking Library appear to be structurally sound with no indications of stresses or weak condition.

This is not true of the "B" Annex buildings. The report states that they would "be very difficult to alter to correct functional or Fire Marshal deficiencies." The architects' report covering mechanical aspects of the plant indicates that the boilers in the main building could be used to heat the proposed addition.

A number of changes are suggested to correct electrical deficiencies in the various buildings.

Cites Major Deficiency
A major functional deficiency in the existing facility is that the circulation pattern is inefficient and that the sizes of most rooms and departmental areas are below normal high school standards. In addition, the school is fragmented educationally, with virtually all departments located in widely separated areas.

In summary, the Smith report states that detailed information covered in the various areas in each of the buildings has led his staff to establish a conceptual plan, outlined as follows:

1. Both the "B" Annex buildings, because of their age, inefficiency, and difficulty in upgrading and the Quonset hut should be removed to allow for necessary new construction.
2. The Superintendent's house should be retained.
3. Pedestrian circulation pattern should be completely enclosed if possible and be in the conceptual form a circle.
4. All departments should be consolidated and related departments should be adjacent.
5. A new public entrance for guests and community functions should be created.
6. Parking should be increased, consolidated and related to the new public entrance.
7. The existing character of the main building should be retained as much as possible and the new construction, even though contemporary, should relate to form a background for the main building and visually unite the present diverse styles of architecture.
8. The existing facilities should be upgraded to conform to present Fire Marshal regulations, to replace or correct deficiencies due to obsolescence of materials, to correct mechanical and electrical system deficiencies, and to create a more pleasant atmosphere.

Children's Book Week Coming Up

November 16-22 marks the 50th Anniversary of National Children's Book Week. Book Power, this year's slogan, is proclaimed by a young soap box orator—standing appropriately on a pile of books—in the official poster.

The Children's Department of the Grosse Pointe Public Library will observe this special time of the year over a two-week period. Beginning Wednesday, November 12 a tea will be held at the Central Library from 3:45 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Three children's librarians, Miss Beatrice Adams of the Central Library, Mrs. Sue Neff, Park Branch Library, and Miss Paula Preuthner, Woods Branch Library, will talk about recent books for all ages. An array of new books will be there for examination.

Also, various annotated book lists, suggesting titles for gift-giving or borrowing, can be picked up. Any interested adult is welcome. A response to this invitation would be appreciated by Harriet Helms, Coordinator of Children's Services, 10 Kercheval avenue, Telephone 884-2200.

During Book Week, each of the three libraries will display new additions, which will remain there all week so that every one will have an opportunity to look them over thoroughly.

Book Week is worthy of a special celebration. However, each week is a festive time in the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries when children "line-up" for stories. Through November, School Age Story Hours will continue on Tuesdays at the Central Library, and Wednesdays at the Park and Woods Branches. The time is 4 p.m.

announces life insurance.

Life insurance priced so incredibly low that after we answer all your questions about it you'll want to send us $21.

We've never made a life insurance service available before.

But now we have one of the most outstanding life insurance policies that has ever been available anywhere. A life insurance policy that's been tailored to a very select group of Michigan people: The 860,000 members of the Automobile Club of Michigan and their families.

MemberLife

We also think that this life insurance policy is such a great buy that you'll want it. Either for yourself or for someone else in your family.

We call this insurance MemberLife, and we'd like to answer all your questions about it:

Exactly how much is MemberLife going to cost me, and how much life insurance am I buying?

The first year MemberLife is going to cost you $19, plus a $2 enrollment fee... regardless of your age.

The second year MemberLife will cost you even less: It is guaranteed that the renewal rate for the second year will be $19... and that there will be no additional enrollment fee.

But because MemberLife is a decreasing term policy, the amount of coverage you can buy will depend on your age at your last birthday.

The Schedule of Insurance table below will show you at a glance how much coverage $21 buys you right now:

Schedule of Insurance

AGE	SUM INSURED	AGE	SUM INSURED
16 thru 24	$10,000	45 thru 49	$2,500
25 thru 29	8,500	50 thru 54	1,500
30 thru 34	7,500	55 thru 59	1,000
35 thru 39	6,000	60 thru 64	500
40 thru 44	4,000	65 thru 69	250

*Available to this age group only on renewal policies.

Exactly what kind of life insurance is MemberLife?

It's level premium guaranteed renewable decreasing term insurance.

Sounds confusing, right? It's not, really. Let's take MemberLife apart and examine it closely:

Level premium. This simply means that everybody, regardless of age, pays the same low yearly premium.

Guaranteed renewable. MemberLife is guaranteed renewable each year up to age 70 as specified in the policy—without a medical examination.

Annually renewable. To keep MemberLife in force, you renew each year.

Decreasing term. Although the yearly premium remains the same, the total amount of coverage decreases as your age increases.

Isn't it possible that I can find a lower rate than MemberLife's somewhere else?

It's possible that someone somewhere in Michigan is offering a lower rate.

But we haven't been able to find a lower rate, and we don't think you'll be able to, either.

How can MemberLife provide so much coverage at such a low yearly premium?

Good question. Here are the answers:

Low cost handling

As you know, MemberLife is guaranteed renewable each year and has a single rate for all age groups. This means less paper work and lower cost of handling. To you it may mean the lowest cost term insurance you can buy.

MemberLife is for our members

And there are over 860,000 of you. That's a lot of members. It adds up to volume. And volume means MemberLife can sell for less.

The nature of Triple-A

We are essentially a non-profit organization. Our main concern is to provide services at the lowest cost possible to our membership.

Like all our services, MemberLife is designed to provide the maximum benefit for the lowest possible cost.

I'm 21-years-old, married, with one child. Why should I buy MemberLife?

Check the Schedule of Insurance table. You can buy $10,000 worth of insurance for $21 right now.

And, chances are, you need that coverage more than anyone else. You've got a family. Responsibilities. And lots of money going out. But because you're young, you haven't reached your income potential yet.

That's why MemberLife is an especially great buy for you. It gives you a great deal of insurance coverage for a very little cost. We don't think you can buy $10,000 worth of term insurance anywhere else for only $21.

I'm a 19-year-old college student. Why should I buy MemberLife?

How much life insurance do you have?

Ask your parents. You may discover that you have none, or that policies purchased earlier by your parents are not adequate to meet today's needs.

If you're a Triple-A member, or living with parents who are Triple-A members, you can buy $10,000 term insurance for just $21. We think that's an unbeatable deal. And a great buy for a responsible gal or guy like you who has to live on a limited budget.

I'm a 33-year-old family man. Why is MemberLife such a good deal for me?

You can buy $7,500 worth of MemberLife. And for only $21. This, we believe, is still the best term insurance plan you can buy for the money.

I've got all the life insurance I need. Why should I buy MemberLife?

Maybe you shouldn't. We're making available MemberLife as a service to those Club members who may need additional insurance coverage. If you already have enough life insurance, that's great. You might, however, consider MemberLife as:

A hedge against inflation

MemberLife coverage will supplement the value of existing life insurance policies.

A policy for someone in your family

You can buy MemberLife for your wife or children over age 16 to increase the insurance protection of your family.

A bequest

You may choose to make a charitable, religious, club or fraternal organization your beneficiary under MemberLife.

I'm 18 years old, and like most guys my age, I have to think about my service obligation. Will my MemberLife insurance remain in effect while I'm serving my country?

Yes, it will.

One of the features of MemberLife is that it does not have a war clause excluding men or women who are serving their country.

You're eligible for $10,000 worth of protection like anybody else in the 16-24 age group.

Life insurance available through the Automobile Club of Michigan? I'm amazed.

You really shouldn't be. We've never been a "sit still" organization.

Consider our slogan: "You Lead the Way With Triple-A". We mean that. Sincerely,

We exist to serve people... members of the Automobile Club of Michigan... and we can see no reason why we should limit that service.

After all, it's not cars we're concerned about, it's people.

I'm a very busy man. I'd be interested in MemberLife, but I don't have time to take a physical examination or talk to a salesman.

You don't have to do either. Here are the simple requirements for eligibility:

1. Be a current member of the Automobile Club of Michigan, or a relative residing in the household of a member.
2. Be at least 16 years of age, but less than 65 years of age.
3. Be able to meet the physical requirements shown on the application below.

If you meet these requirements, fill out the application and mail it. MemberLife will be sent to you.

No physical examination. And no salesman... unless you want to see one.

I'm not a Triple-A member. Am I eligible for MemberLife?

Nope.

You must be a Triple-A member to be eligible. But we think MemberLife is just one of the important services you get with Auto Club membership.

And just to name a few others: Insurance and financing for your car, camper or vacation vehicle. Emergency Road Service. World-Wide Travel Service. Road maps. Trip-Tiks. And bail bond protection.

Hope you join us. Soon.

Complete the MemberLife application below and enclose with check or money order for $21 made payable to the Automobile Club of Michigan. Mail to: AUTOMOBILE CLUB OF MICHIGAN, 150 Bagley, Detroit, Michigan 48226

Police Nab Two Young Burglars

Park police disclosed on Monday, November 3, the arrest of two juveniles, one 16 years old and the other 13 years old, whose confessions cleared at least 10 burglaries reported by Park residents.

Det. Charles Petrie, who released the information, said that the pair broke into homes in the 1300 blocks of Grayton and Bishop, and other locations near these streets.

A lead that started the investigation, climaxed by the apprehension of the teenagers, was given by one of the burglary victims, a woman who saw the younger boy leaving her house, after he had pilfered her purse. The woman gave police a description of the boy, which fit a lad who had been questioned by police on other occasions, Petrie said.

The boy was taken into custody, at his home, and under questioning at the Park station, he implicated his 16-year-old companion, who was arrested.

Petrie said the pair would enter the homes of their victims through milk chutes, and in one case, broke a rear door glass to enter a house. The boys would search a house thoroughly, looking only for money. The largest single amount they obtained was about $60, the detective said.

In most of the burglaries, the young thieves daringly entered and searched houses while occupants were in the front yard raking leaves.

Both boys were taken to the Wayne County Youth Home and held. Charges have been filed against them with Juvenile Court authorities, it was said.

Judge Paterson Hears 5 Cases

The City of Grosse Pointe Municipal Court convened on Tuesday, October 28, with Judge Douglas L. Paterson presiding. Five cases were heard.

Two persons were charged with failure to yield the right of way, resulting in accidents. They were Helen Rudnick, 538 Lincoln, and Elizabeth Kuhlman, 80 Lochmoor. Both pled guilty and both were found guilty and fined $25 each with sentences suspended.

Charged as disorderly persons were Bobbie Ann Sublett, 13503 East Ten Mile and James Brock, 24 Bonand. Miss Sublett stood mute and was found guilty and fined $100 and costs. She was placed on two years probation and given 60 days in the County Jail. She was told to make restitution. Brock was also charged with resisting arrest. He pled not guilty and was found guilty and fined $50.

John Gillis, Jr., 9 Colonial, was charged with interfering with moving traffic. He stood mute and was found not guilty and the case was dismissed.

City Gets New Rubbish Trucks

The City of Grosse Pointe has received delivery of two new 25 cubic yard rubbish packer trucks. The trucks are also equipped with mountings so that snow plows can be easily attached. This permits the trucks to be used for snow plowing operations as well as normal rubbish collection operations. The new trucks replace six year old units of small size.

City Manager Thomas Kresbach says the new trucks will help us improve our rubbish collection in several ways. We have been experiencing some breakdowns with our older equipment which usually results in the rubbish collection for some residents being a day later than regularly scheduled. We anticipate the new equipment will virtually eliminate this problem. Also we're keeping one of the old units as a spare. This will improve our ability to make special pick ups, transport leaves to the landfill, and serve as a backup in the event of breakdown. The larger capacity of the new trucks will also permit greater efficiency by reducing the number of trips to the 23 Mile Road sanitary landfill from two to one trip daily.

The new trucks cost $20,154 each. One truck is being placed in service this week. The other truck, requires a packer body mounting yet, and will be placed in service in early November.

Don't expect the fellow whose nerves are constantly on edge to cut much of a figure.

School Board's Meeting Nov. 10

The regular monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education has been scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Monday, November 10, in the auditorium of South High School.

Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, will present his recommendations for action by the school trustees. Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, President, will chair the meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend.

DAY-BY-DAY

Don't try to change the past or ruin the present by worrying about the future.

Our schools are running for their lives Nov. 11.

Vote yes, yes, yes, on Propositions 1, 2, 3.

Deprive a flower of water and it will lose its beauty, wither and die. Deprive our schools of proper operating funds and they, too, will die.

Next Tuesday, November 11, you will vote on three propositions that will determine the future of Grosse Pointe's public schools...

Proposition One: The money you have voted to operate your schools runs out the end of this school year. This proposition provides 70% of the money to continue operating your schools at the current level for 2 more years. Inflation, plus an increase in student enrollment, makes it necessary to allow for increased operating costs.

Proposition Two: Some children need special attention. If you've ever watched a bright 6th grader who can't read... seen the frustrated first grader whose fingers won't do what his mind wants... or known a gifted child bored by the 2nd grade... then you know what Proposition 2 is all about... to provide the help these children need.

Proposition Three: South High needs help. Behind the pleasant facade of Grosse Pointe's South High lies an ancient electrical system, much of which is unsafe... less teaching space per pupil than in a school that meets present-day educational requirements... classroom entry through fire escapes... exposed plumbing in basement classrooms... and many more safety and educational deficiencies. This is what Proposition 3 is all about... to correct these conditions at South High.

How much will it cost? This depends on the state equalized evaluation of your property. The total additional cost of all three propositions will be only $9.20 for each thousand dollars of assessed valuation. Compute this increase for your own home, but remember to use assessed valuation, not market value. Right now you are paying a lower millage rate to operate your schools than residents of Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Oak Park and Lake Shore (St. Clair Shores) Districts.

Sure, everything's going up like crazy these days... but why take it out on your children?

Our schools are running for their lives Nov. 11. Vote yes, yes, yes, on Propositions 1, 2, 3.

This advertisement was paid for by private donations to the Millage Steering Committee, Grosse Pointe, Michigan.

South-North Students to 'Cut a Rug'

The First Annual South-North Football Dance will be held in South's gymnasium on Saturday, November 8, following the first intra-community grid contest between Grosse Pointe South's Blue Devils and the Norsemen of Grosse Pointe North. The dance was the "brainchild" of South's Class of '72, whose officers gathered recently for a final planning review in the office of Jerry Gerich, South High principal. Present at the meeting were (from the left) JUDY BOWERMAN, secretary; RUTH MASON, recording secretary; BECKY BEYER, treasurer; NORM DU-COIN, faculty class advisor; PRINCIPAL GERICH, and STEVE POTTER, class president. The dance is aimed at establishing a rapport between the student bodies at both high schools.

Symposium Set At Bon Secours

Robert H. Bartlett, M.D. of Boston will be the speaker at the Fall Symposium of Bon Secours Hospital on Wednesday, November 12, at 10:30 a.m. in the Science Hall of the hospital. His subject will be "Pulmonary Function and Failure in Surgery."

Dr. Bartlett is Instructor in Surgery of Harvard University Medical School and Chief of the Pulmonary Function Unit of Peter Bent Brigham Hospital. He will present the results of his research and clinical experience on the Surgical Service of Dr. Francis Moore, Professor of Surgery and Head of the Department of Surgery of Harvard University Medical School, with whom he has worked in close association. The study focuses attention on preoperative evaluation of pulmonary function and brings to light the large number of individuals who have trouble due to air pollution, chronic respiratory infections and allergies. When such individuals are found, steps can be taken to prevent serious trouble at surgery or during illnesses related to other organs and systems.

A buffet luncheon will be served following the meeting. At this luncheon the Semmes Award will be presented by Prwitt Semmes to the most outstanding Intern or Resident of the House Staff as determined by a poll of a representative committee of the Attending Staff of the hospital.

Pierce Parents To Visit School

Parents of students who attend Pierce Middle School will have two opportunities to visit the school during the next week. On Monday November 10, all classrooms will be open for visitation during the day in honor of American Education Week. Mothers and fathers are welcome to sit in Johnny's or Mary's classes and see their children in action. No special programs are planned—just a day of normal school activity.

On Thursday, November 13, the second regular monthly forum for parents will be held at 1:30 p.m. in room 223. Scheduled on a different day of the week and a different time of day each month, these forums are designed to allow parents to meet informally with William Mogk, the school principal, to discuss any concerns or to ask any questions which they may have.

Both events are part of a continuing plan to maintain open lines of communication between the home and the school.

Cub Scout Pack Planning Ahead

On Tuesday, October 21, Cub Scout Pack 61 started the new season with a well attended meeting. Among other activities, a movie was shown of a canoe outing by Boy Scout Troop 61 on the Au Sable in order to point out future fun for the boys and their Dads. The evening ended with the serving of refreshments to all. The following Monday afternoon, October 27, the Den Mothers planned a Treasure Hunt at the Farms Pier. Each Den had its own map to follow. Other Mothers provided transportation and the cocoa.

The Cubs are eagerly anticipating two big events in November. The first will be an outing on Saturday, November 15, to Fort Wayne Military Museum with the Den Fathers. The second is to be the Pack Meeting on November 18, more specifically, the Space Derby. All the Cubs are busy shaping their entry under Dad's supervision. With the helpful cooperation of the parents, the Den Leaders are projecting a very active year for Cub Pack 61.

CLUTCH AND BRAKE STOLE

John Pagel, 825 Lakeland, reported to City police on Sunday, October 26, that persons unknown had entered his garage and removed the clutch and brake from his mini-bike. The value of the clutch was $15; the brake, $12.

"Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery." But when it comes to U.S. Currency it's COUNTERFEITING.

Can you detect a phony bill? Experts say, one way is to smell it. Bogus bills often have a coffee odor, because counterfeiters use coffee to age them.

A popular notion, that only bad bills shed color when rubbed over a piece of paper, is a fallacy. Ink will rub off from good, as well as bad bills.

According to the government, the best way is to check the fine patchwork of lines on the borders of bills—on most counterfeits the crossings are filled with ink, or are otherwise distorted.

Good Works Wrecked By Vandals

JAMES MONTGOMERY, Sexton of St. James Lutheran Church is pictured viewing the havoc created by vandals on Sunday evening, October 19, in the parking lot behind Wrigley's On The Hill. The youth group at St. James had collected a truckload of newspapers during their recent paper drive, the truck was left overnight Sunday. Monday morning, pick-up day, Mr. Montgomery found newspapers scattered all over the lot. Thanks to the kind efforts of City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., the City of Grosse Pointe Farms sent a large truck and scoop to clean up the area or Mr. Montgomery would have had to do the entire clean-up job himself. The NEWS wonders just what kind of pleasure vandals get out of this kind of destruction.

Bird flight near

KINGSVILLE, Ont.—The best period for watching the great bird migration flight at the Jack Miner Sanctuary here is expected this year in the last week of October and the first two weeks of November. Manly Miner, son of the founder, said he expected 25,000 or more geese to be in the sanctuary then. The vanguard of the migratory flight has arrived, but there are only about 1,000 geese now. Miner recommended that visitors arrive by 3 p.m. to see the evening flight of geese in from Lake Erie to the feeding grounds in the sanctuary. The sanctuary is open daily except Sunday. There is no admission charge.

Worship Services Moved to Evening

There will be no church worship services or Sunday Church School at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning, November 9, 1969.

Rather, members of the congregation in teams will call in the homes of the church families between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. on that day for the purpose of enrolling them in the Stewartship Commitment program of the church. The teams will be meeting in the Andrew F. Rauth Fellowship Hall for a continental breakfast in preparation for the calling.

The congregation will worship together that night at 7:00 p.m. to dedicate the Stewartship Commitments made that day.

Mr. Frank Kaufman of 1201 Torrey Road is general Chairman of the program. He is assisted by Mr. Bruce Stewart, Dr. Harry Sellers, Mrs. Andrew Campbell, Mrs. Glenn Himmelsbaugh, and 125 teams of callers.

The only things new under the sun are the modern methods of distorting the truth.

DISCORD

Ability seldom counts when a man sings his own praises—he always gets the wrong pitch.

MAKE IT PAY

Make experience of the past pave a highway for the future—not a road block.

Do you want to believe in God?

You can. Not just because of what someone says about God. But because of what you yourself can learn and prove about divine Love.

Like the woman who was instantly freed by an assailant one night—when she turned to God in prayer. Or the entertainer whose back was healed through prayer after he was told he couldn't walk without surgery.

These individuals found that divine Love meets even the most challenging human needs . . . that powerful spiritual laws are available for anyone to use.

Sacred Heart Enrichment Program Still Flourishes

By Pepper Whitelaw

The Sacred Heart Enrichment Program, or SHEP as it is more familiarly known, was initiated at Sacred Heart-Grosse Pointe by Sister A. Zippel in the summer of 1966. Because of the success of the program it is being continued as an integral part of the educational operation of Grosse Pointe Academy.

The first summer the program consisted of a four-week on-going program for some 90 seventh and eighth grade girls from parochial schools in the city of Detroit. The program provides the girls with both cultural and intellectual stimulation and prepared them for admission into parochial or independent high schools through scholarship awards.

Because of the extreme interest in the program and the wonderful results it was expanded to a six-week on-going program for 175 fifth and eighth grade girls from public and parochial schools in Detroit. The program recognizes and benefits both the high and average academic achiever and the under achiever. It also provides one of the sources of scholarship material for Grosse Pointe Academy and University-Liggett.

The goals of the program are based on respect for the person of each student and leads to her total development through making her aware of her personal worth and her responsibility to her family, her neighborhood, her school and her community.

It provides the girls with new and varied stimulation, develops inherent abilities, allows for the growth of initiative and creative ability in the arts and humanities, offers strong tutorial help with a focus on creativity, develops an awareness of and responsibility toward key social issues through the medium of a strong social studies focus and provides myriad cultural experiences.

The academic focus is on English, literature, creative writing, language and communication skills, journalism, individual reading appreciation and interest, small group dynamics, role playing, experience in a wide range of literary studies, world religions and current events.

Also included in this enrichment program are art and music appreciation, choral speaking, singing, creative art, creative dance, dramatics, and field trips to various cultural centers.

Many new dimensions were added in 1969. To begin with mothers of the SHEP girls actively participated in the program by becoming teachers' aides in classes, assistants in creative activities and chaperones on field trips. City schools, represented by the SHEP enrollment, began to participate in the program. Members of the black community joined the administration and staff and the program was geared to the 80% black enrollment. Many former SHEP girls returned to the program to serve as counselors. SHEP scholars who attend Grosse Pointe Academy returned as students in the summer program, more effective use was made of the social worker and reading consultant. The staff and student counselors to SHEP attended a series of planning meetings and tours of Detroit highlighting education, housing and recreational facilities were conducted.

The Pointers actively involved in the project were delighted with the results. One mother said, "In this day when blacks and whites, rich and poor, distrust each other so much, this small effort seems to have worked an enormous miracle. Grosse Pointers were involved at the most basic level with some of the problems of the Inner City and Detroit children got a better understanding of a white community through their relationship with Pointers. The girls felt we were reaching out to teach and learn and they responded by taking our hands and working together."

One of the reasons this program is so successful is that it is based on enjoyment and awareness in achievement rather than the accumulation of facts that is so often stressed in their own schools. The classes are small (only eight to twelve per class) and create relaxing instruction and easy class discussion.

Although each teacher is given the goals of SHEP and a few guidelines, she has complete freedom as to her course of instruction. Among the topics discussed were black history, brotherhood, community problems, current events and personal achievement. Creativity and personal expression are stressed in all the classes and carried over into the art, music and sewing classes.

One of the teachers spent three days discussing the good and bad aspects of Detroit and the country. The stress was finding solutions to these problems not complaining about them. At the end of the three days, each girl wrote a letter to President Nixon expressing her complaints and solutions. Within several weeks the teacher received a reply from the President that expressed his approval of the SHEP program and his appreciation of the problems written in the letters. SHEP has been successful, but success must not stop innovation and change. In order to continue this success, SHEP needs more community support and involvement. Visitors are urged and welcomed to visit during the summer program or one of the SHEP happenings scheduled throughout the year.

The first "Happening" was held recently at Grosse Pointe Academy. The girls spent the day picnicking, playing, discussing their summer experiences and expressing their ideas for next summer's program.

SHEP can always use more volunteers in the athletic program, in the art and sewing classes and in handling of the clerical work. Since the organization is funded solely by donations and private foundations any support in this area can keep the program going and provide more books and materials which are greatly needed. Your participation in this program will prove to these youngsters, their families and friends that "Whitey" is not a monster... that he cares and is doing

William P. Clark Gets Air Medal

First Lieutenant William Petzold Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Clark, of 60 Kenwood road and a member of the United States Marine Corps, recently received the United States Air Medal (1st Strike/Flight Award) for meritorious achievement in aerial flight as a designated Naval Aviator with Marine Observation A Squadron Six in Vietnam.

Clark received the award for his actions while participating in combat support mission in support of the Republic of Vietnam during the period of August 1 to 8.

His courage and devotion to duty in the face of hazardous conditions were "in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service," part of the citation read.

Jaycees Endorse School Tax Plea

Alan Lang, president of the Grosse Pointe Jaycees, has announced that following a study of the three school millage propositions to be considered by Grosse Pointe residents on November 11, the chapter has decided to encourage approval of all three.

Rising costs, not only salaries, but also administrative, maintenance, and operational, are causing a steady upward pressure on the school district's budget. The Jaycees believe the proposed budgets for 1970-72 to be realistic in light of rising costs and increased enrollment.

Since proposition One will only keep the school system operating on the same level as this year, the Jaycees also encourage the approval of proposition Two which will permit limited hiring of personnel to assist in remedial reading and mathematics, special education classes, along with some improved in-service training for the present professional staff.

One careful look at South High School dictates the passage of proposition Three, the Jaycees believe, especially considering the rising costs of construction. The completion of North High School only partially alleviated the crowded conditions of South High and the proposed bond issue will provide funds for some additional space as well as much needed renovation of portions of the existing facility.

The Jaycees urge all concerned voters to vote "Yes" for all propositions.

City Accelerates Leaf Collection

Leaf collection in the City of Grosse Pointe is in high gear. The City does not permit the burning of leaves. Using its vacuum suction truck, the City collects all leaves which are placed between the curb and sidewalk. Public Works personnel are currently operating the collection equipment on a 10 hour per day, six day per week basis.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach reports that a total of 450 manhours have been spent in collecting 1300 cubic yards of leaves so far this fall. The City started its leaf collection on September 26 and has made 9 complete cycles through the City since that time. This equates to about two pick-ups each week.

City Manager Kressbach says when the leaves are falling at their heaviest rate, the collection cycle lengthens to about 5 or 6 days. The City operates the equipment on an overtime basis during the period of heavy leaf fall to keep the collection as short as possible. To keep the vacuum suction equipment in actual collection operation as much as possible, the collected leaves are dumped in the City Park. From that point they are loaded into refuse packers and hauled to the Grosse Pointe-Clinton Sanitary land fill at 23 Mile Road for disposal.

Parents Invited Back to School

North High School parents are invited to Back-To-School-Night, Monday, November 10, at 7:30 o'clock. Parents will follow their children's schedules and talk generally with their teachers. They will also have this opportunity to inspect the new Performing Arts wing of the school.

Coffee and refreshments will be served to parents during study halls and lunch periods and at the end of the school day in the cafeteria and commons room.

Parents are reminded to have a copy of their children's schedules with them that evening and to bring along the map of the school with them which will facilitate their adventuring through the school.

Low-heeled shoes are recommended. Parents are urged to wear their name tags.

Library Offers Family Movies

The second Family Film Night Program for the fall season will be on Friday, November 7, at 8:30 and 7:45 p.m. The program will be held in the Exhibition Room of the Central Library and should be interesting to family groups. The films have been selected with a definite theme in mind. This month we have planned the program around ANIMALS.

ADVENTURES OF A BABY FOX—13 min. A story told in rhyme of the adventure of a fox as it explores the forest for the first time.

PIGS—11 min., color—Day in the life of pigs on a farm; their sights, sounds, textures, rhythms; feeding, sleeping, rooting and playing.

WHITE THROAT—10 min.,

color—The film features the White-Throated Sparrow filmed in the Algonquin Forests, one of Canada's loveliest national parks.

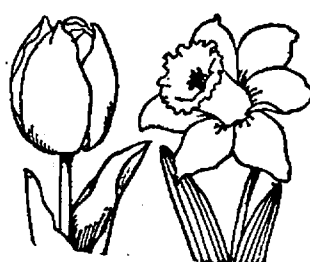

SLED DOG RACE—14 min., color—The international Sled Dog Derby is the crowning event of the Laurentian Snow Festival held annually at St. Agathe, Quebec. Over 15 miles of grueling trail, team after team plunges ahead until the 10-mile marker is passed.

CORRAL—12 min.—The roping and riding of a high-spirited horse. Movement and music tells the story without words, set in the foothills of Alberta, of a man's struggle to master a horse.

What Turns You on About Grosse Pointe...?

Maybe you're fond of congenial neighbors with whom you share common concerns and aspirations. Perhaps you've enjoyed watching the steady increase in your property value. Possibly you like the "small town" atmosphere with its emphasis on local governmental controls. Or it is simply that this is a fine town in which to raise a family?

If any of these considerations are of importance to you, you owe it to yourself to vote "YES" on the school millage and bond proposals, November 11th. The excellence of a community's schools is of importance to practically every aspect of community life. You don't have to have children in school to be concerned with adequate school financing. Why do we make this claim and why do we urge you to vote "YES" on November 11th. Well,

Would You Believe...?

—The 25.45 operating millage request has been carefully computed to yield only the money required to maintain the present level of education. There is no built-in "cushion." No fat! It is only what is needed to prevent a disastrous cut in the school program.

—The .75 mill request for program improvement will help to develop new courses and teaching techniques and to evaluate existing curricula. Merely "standing still" in today's age isn't good enough. What successful business doesn't spend money on product improvement?

—The 6.8 million dollar bonding proposal for South High will cost an estimated 1-1/2 mills—a small price to pay for correcting dangerous "fire trap" conditions, replacing ancient and substandard annex buildings and expanding the school to handle increasing enrollment. South High is basically a beautiful lady but she is in desperate need of renovation and enlargement.

—All seven school board members enthusiastically support the school millage and bonding proposals. When was the last time they agreed unanimously on anything?

—There is no reasonable likelihood of state government enacting legislation to provide the money we need now. In fact, our failure to adequately fund our schools at the local level can only help us to lose local control.

—The high quality of our schools is the greatest single factor in maintaining high property values and attracting people to Grosse Pointe (check with your real estate broker on this one). When a house in Grosse Pointe typically sells for $5,000-$10,000 more than the same house a few blocks away in Detroit, there have to be strong reasons for it. The Grosse Pointe public school system is undoubtedly the strongest.

Whats It All About...?

Voting for school taxes isn't just a matter of taking income tax deductible dollars out of your pocket. It is a matter of giving our children the education we have come to expect from our schools, preserving property values, retaining local controls and keeping Grosse Pointe the kind of community in which we can take justifiable pride.

Scoring the Pointes

By Phil Loranger

EDITOR'S NOTE: Because all six Pointe area football teams did not engage in grid-iron encounters over the week-end of November 1 and 2 and because the NEWS has been busy analyzing each team in order to pick the 1969 All Pointe grid squad, Scoring the Pointes will be done in capsule form this week.

Warming up for this week-end's encounter with Grosse Pointe South, the Norsemens of Grosse Pointe North barreled past Bi-County League Rival, Lakeshore, by a count of 14-6 in a Dads' Day game at home.

Co-Captain Glen Hilger blasted six yards for the first North tally and Phil Gurbada slipped in from the one for another six points. North's defensive unit turned in its strongest showing of the season. North will carry a 4-4 record into its encounter with South.

Grosse Pointe South bowed to highly-touted Lincoln Park 18-0 as the Parkers launched three long scoring drives in the contest, which the Blue Devils, who share the Border Cities crown, failed to halt.

The victory marked the eighth straight win for the Railsplitters, who choked off the Blue Devils throughout the contest. Although South was unable to muster a scoring threat in the muddy contest, its defensive unit, led by Jim Marshall, Chris Penoyar, Bob Bowerman and Ralph DiDonimmo played an outstanding contest. South now has a record of five wins and three losses as it prepares to meet North in a classic grid battle.

St. Ambrose's Cavaliers finished their season at six wins and only two defeats as they slammed Holy Redeemer 34-0, after rolling to a 28-0 halftime lead on the passing arm of Joe Bommarito, who displayed a talent heretofore unseen by opponents. Signal-caller Mark Sopoliga tallied for the Cavaliers and Jim Orlando also gathered a TD and Ron Mele ran wild, collecting three scores, two of which were the result of Bommarito's aerials.

University-Liggett School got touchdowns from quarterback Mark Kulek on runs of 66, three and one yards, as the Knights cruised by Michigan Lutheran Seminary of Saginaw in the rain and mud by a count of 18-0.

Kulek picked up 181 yards in 27 cracks at the line and University-Liggett finished its season with a five win-three lost record for the second straight year.

The Austin Friars pummeled Pontiac Catholic by a count of 26-21 as the Austinites finished their season with a flourish.

St. Paul's Lakers finished their season last weekend, by dropping a heartbreaker to Roseville Sacred Heart.

Hockey Bruins Rally For Tie

Grosse Pointe Bruins and the Mavericks fought for first place in the Tri-County Hockey League. The Mavericks opened the scoring in the first period and Grosse Pointe then came back by Murray MacDonald's unassisted goal to tie the score. Then early in the second period Bryan Eugenio found the net twice to put Grosse Pointe in the lead 3 to 1.

At the close of the second period the Mavericks came back to tighten the game 3-2. Early in the third period the Mavericks scored two quick goals to take the lead 4-3. Then in the closing minutes of the game trailing by one goal Murray MacDonald picked the puck up at his own blue line and raced down the right side and beat both defensemen and tucked the puck away with a neat back hand to tie the game 4-4.

The left Grosse Pointe and the Mavericks still tied for first place in the highly rated Tri-County Hockey League.

Receiving an assist on Bryan Eugenio's first goal was Craig Maslak. Again the outstanding player for Grosse Pointe was their iron man Bryan Eugenio playing both ways as a center and a defenseman on penalty killing lines.

One of the leading players on the Mavericks is the son of Detroit Red Wing Alex Delvecchio.

NEW HOUSE HIT AGAIN

GP Lions Win One, Lose Two

The Grosse Pointe Lions completed their 1969 season by winning one and losing two games against the Northeast Detroit Shamrocks last Sunday.

The Varsity came up with the big game this week as they beat the Shamrocks 6-0. The big stars were on the defense as they rose up time and again to thwart Shamrock drives. Rene Vandembroek, Kevin MacConnachie and Pat Crandall were all over the field making key plays. Vandembroek's jarring tackle in the second quarter caused a Shamrock fumble. Then late in the first half Vandembroek killed another drive with a pass interception.

Early in the second half MacConnachie stopped what appeared to be a sure touchdown with a diving tackle on the 20 yard line. Then Pat Crandall picked off a Shamrock pass on the 15 yard line. Jimmy DuFour also came up with two brilliant defensive plays by deflecting passes with last second dives. Also strong on defense were Tim Quinn, Myles Wilson, Mike Barlow and Dave Kaufman.

The Lion offense had tough going most of the afternoon against a determined Shamrock line. A drive finally got going in the second quarter with strong running by Todd Richardson and Jeff Gardner and key blocks by Steve Kelly and Chuck Roarty. Then Steve Peterson hit Jeff Gardner in the end zone on an 8 yard pass for the only scoring in the game. Late in the fourth quarter the Lions demonstrated good ball control when it counted as they picked up three straight first downs. Key plays were Peterson's 30 yard pass play to Tom Marantette and strong running by Peterson, Gardner and Richardson.

The Junior Varsity played good solid football, but went down to defeat 6-0. The defense stopped everything the Shamrocks had to offer except a mix-up in signals on a pass that caused a touchdown.

The sign of the zodiac on the day following the birth of a child determines whether the next child is to be a boy or a girl, according to Pennsylvania Dutch superstition.

The average man who begins shaving at age fifteen will ultimately scrape a total of 27½ feet of whiskers from his face. He will spend 3,350 hours, or 139 days, getting rid of his stubble.

Long-term use of some tranquilizers and energizers may lead to heart abnormalities, according to Dr. Carl Alexander of the Veterans Administration Hospital in Minneapolis. This is one of the many reasons why you should always check with your physician before refilling prescriptions over a lengthy period.

Red Barons Shoot Down Rival Lions

By DeWayne Petersen

The Grosse Pointe Red Barons took three games from the Grosse Pointe Lions at the Neighborhood Club Field on Sunday, October 19.

The Lions Freshmen started strong when Dan Oliver blocked a Red Baron punt on the 18 yard line. Strong line play by Ken Stockwell, Jeff Stafford, and Denny Knoll of the Red Barons stopped the Lions. The Red Baron started a solid drive that ended with a 40 yard touchdown run by John Leslie on a reverse.

In the second quarter the Lions fought back with defensive pressure being supplied by Gerry Brosnan and Oliver. Brosnan also intercepted a pass on the Red Baron 45. Steve Archer got the ball back for the Red Barons on an interception. The teams traded fumbles as Dan Oliver and Chris Carey recovered for the Lions and Steve Krauss got one for the Barons.

The Red Barons jumped on the scoreboard early in the second half when Steve Archer intercepted a pass and then ran 47 yards on an end run for the touchdown. The Lions defense held for the remainder of the game with sharp play from Nino Tocco, Chris Fielding, Matt Neumann, and Tim Fleming.

The Lions offense came to light late in the game when Bill Anderson connected on long pass plays to Mac Kinner. Kinner also picked up good yardage on end around plays. The final score was 13-0 in favor of the Red Barons.

The Lions Junior Varsity just missed their fifth shut-out as they lost in the final minutes 6-0. Bob Conlan got the defense started off right by recovering a Red Baron fumble on the Red 10.

Ski Club Gets Set for Season

The Grosse Pointe Ski Club will have a free ski lesson and conditioning class Monday evening, November 17, when certified Austrian ski instructor Helmut Heitzler from Stowe, Vt., will be in charge. Those who wish are asked to bring their ski equipment and all may consult with Hell with same.

Cocktails and dance are planned at Grosse Pointe Hunt Club the Friday of Thanksgiving weekend. (Members $2.50; guests $1 more.)

The first ski trip is a four day New Year's blast to Boyne Mt. December 31 to January 4, staying at Char-Boyne right in Boyne City. Four nights lodging (two to a room), seven delicious meals plus a special New Year's Eve buffet with band is included for $55 for members-$3 additional for guests. Transportation is by car pool and reservations are limited to 40.

REFUSES BREATH TEST

Wilson Young, 2462 McCormick, Detroit, was issued a violation under the Drunken Motor Law on Saturday, November 1, by City police. Young was first observed by officers traveling east on Mack at River without lights. Officers followed the car to Fisher during which time the driver hit the island curb three times. They stopped Young, advised him of his rights and took him to the City station. Young refused to take a breath test. He posted $100 bond and was released pending his court appearance.

Austin Prep School News

The Office of Activities of Austin Catholic Prep School announces the following events taking place in the near future.

A Coffee House under the chairmanship of Jeff Vaughn will be held on Sunday, November 9th from 7 to 10 p.m. The admission is free and coffee will be served to the audience while students from Austin and other schools will perform original acts.

The annual All Sports Dinner sponsored by the Austin Dads Club will be held on Thursday, November 20, at 7 p.m. at the K of C Hall, 18000 East Warren avenue. The guest speaker will be Robert Kowalkowski, starting left guard for the Detroit Lions. The purpose of this dinner is to honor all the boys who participated in the Athletic program at Austin during the past year. The admission is $3.

Austin is also participating in the Tri-county Canned Food Drive sponsored by the University of Detroit Arnold Air Society. The school went on a special schedule on Tuesday, November 4th to enable students to make collections of canned foods from homes, stores, and businesses. The Austin Student Senate has set the goal of 10 cans of food per student. At the completion of this drive, November 8th, the collected food will be given to the needy in this area.

The Austin Players under the direction of Thomas Bailey will open its 12th season with the musical hit, "Bye, Bye, Birdie."

High Rating Won By North Pointe

A First Class rating was awarded the North Pointe, the student newspaper at Grosse Pointe North High School, by the National Scholastic Press Association at the University of Minnesota in the 81st All American Critical Service. Approximately 1,600 school newspapers from throughout the United States were evaluated.

Newspapers published from January through May were judged on coverage and content, writing and editing, editorial leadership, physical appearance and photography. Marks of Distinction for superior achievement may be awarded in each of the five categories and a paper must receive at least four such credits to be rated All American.

The North Pointe received Mark of Distinction credit for superior accomplishment in Physical Appearance. Ratings of First Class (excellent), Second Class (very good), and Third Class (good) are given on the basis of total numerical scores achieved in the five classifications.

"Competition for top ratings is tougher each year," Otto W. Quale, NSPA executive director stated. "High school editors, writers and photographers of today grew up in a whole new world of mass communications and their newspapers reflect this sophistication. There is more in depth reporting and significant editorial content than was apparent five years ago."

"It is a responsible press challenged by great insight to the problems and progress that are a part of their lives today," Quale added.

New Dramatic Group Formed

A newly formed drama group of student age Grosse Pointers has announced the performance dates for their first production, "Comedy of Errors" by William Shakespeare.

Performances are scheduled for Thanksgiving week with opening night November 26 and continuing performances Friday, November 28. There will be matinees on Saturday and Sunday, November 29 and 30, all in Fries Auditorium at the War Memorial Center.

The group is calling itself the "Pasture Creek Players" both as a spoof of and a tribute to the more experienced and professional Meadowbrook Theater. At present, the Pasture Creek Players is entirely composed of young people between the ages of 14 and 18 but the group hopes to attract college age young people to enlarge its ranks for future productions.

The group has enlisted one overage adult, Larry Nathan Burns, as producer-director. Mr. Burns, a nine year resident of Grosse Pointe Park, has directed opera and theater in the South as well as operating his own professional summer theater in the Irish Hills in the early 1960's. Mr. Burns, a bearded investment counselor, prefers to keep his 44 years a secret from the company whose youth unnerves him and whose enthusiasm astounds him.

The slightly autocratic director is aided by an 18-year-old president of the group, James H. Freeman of Ida Lane, and a self appointed executive committee of founder-officers, Lorie Brown, 18, senior at Grosse Pointe South is business manager. The acting company has funded the operation themselves by charging $5 initiation dues and are trying to augment this inadequate budget by enlisting parents and friends as patrons at $10 which includes two reserved seat tickets to the opening performance.

The Pasture Creek Players, needing both a local sponsoring group and rehearsal space, were fortunate to find the Neighborhood Club receptive for this purpose and the Players intend to apportion a percentage of the gross box-office receipts of one performance for the benefit of the Neighborhood Club. Jim Freeman, president of the Pasture Creek Players says that the kindness and help of the Neighborhood Club cannot really be repaid.

Judy Davis, 17, senior, will supervise the making of costumes. Several students are learning to knit in order to make the chain mail for soldiers who appear in the play. Lights will be under the supervision of Steve Housley, senior of Grosse Pointe North; Tim Clayton of South High is in charge of the set and James Thomson, 15, of Saddle Lane is assistant director and stage manager and has the additional responsibility for composing music to produce the fulfillment and playing the incidental music for the performance.

Maire School Fifth-Graders Go to Washington

Pictured in front of the Capitol Building are 55 fifth grade students at Maire School and their chaperones, who recently took a three day trip to Washington, D.C. Mrs. Carl Fisher, of Notre Dame avenue, and Mrs. Jack Leverenz, of Bishop road, were co-chairmen of the annual tour. Students visited The White House, Arlington National Cemetery, FBI Headquarters, the Supreme Court, Jefferson and Lincoln Memorials and the Washington Monument.

Young Loiterer Given Jail Term

Reed Wilson, 17, of 706 Rivard boulevard, was sentenced to serve five Sundays in the Park police headquarters cell, by Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer on Wednesday, October 29.

Wilson, who was ticketed for loitering at Dob's Restaurant, Jefferson and Westchester, last July 18, was found guilty as charged and sentenced to six months probation, during which he was forbidden to return to an adjacent gas station.

On September 10, the youth was arraigned before Judge Speer for violation of the terms of probation, and was given the five-day jail sentence. Wilson announced that he wished to appeal, which was granted by the court. The appeal was scheduled to be heard in Circuit Court.

On October 29, the young man appeared again in the Park court to announce that he had withdrawn his appeal, and the judge ordered the imposed sentence be carried out, beginning with Sunday, November 2.

Whittier Hotel Changes Name

The Whittier Hotel, long one of Detroit's famous landmarks and distinguished hotel will undergo its first name change in its 40-year history, when it becomes Whittier Towers after January 1, 1970.

The Michigan Baptist Homes and Development Company (a Ministry of the Michigan Baptist Convention) will take over the ownership and operation of the fabulous Whittier Hotel on January 1, 1970, and operate it as a retirement center with 500 units, for gracious living.

This will be the fourth Retirement Center to be operated by the Michigan Baptist Homes and Development Company, it was stated by Lee A. Trumble, Treasurer-Administrator. Other retirement centers include the Olds Manor (formerly the Rowe Hotel) in Grand Rapids; the Whitcomb Tower (formerly the Whitcomb Hotel) in St. Joseph; and the Hillside Terrace (entirely new building) in Ann Arbor.

Located at 415 Burns drive, at East Jefferson just upriver from the downtown district, the Whittier Towers will offer older persons of every faith the opportunity to remain in the mainstream of life; the opportunity to experience a full, active, purposeful and rewarding kind of living in the later years. Most of the services offered by the Whittier Hotel will be retained in the new operation, it was stated by Trumble.

At Whittier Towers, the opportunity for fellowship will be happily combined with the feeling for independence and pride of retirement living.

Drinking Driver Stopped in City

Harold Reddic, 39, 11514 Cardoni, Detroit, was charged under the Drunken Motor Law, by City police on Tuesday, October 28.

While on routine patrol, city officers heard a be-on-the-look-out broadcast from the station on a late model gold Ford traveling on Jefferson. The officers saw two men in a car matching that description and followed the vehicle.

Reddic and his passenger, James Chapman, 11404 Grand Haven, Hamtramck were taken to the City Station. Reddic was then taken to the Woods station for an alcohol test which showed him to be under the influence of alcohol.

He was charged under the drunken motor law and released on $2,500 bond.

Dean Sells Here on November 18

"What's Happening on the College Campus Today?" is the title of Dean Sells' address November 18, sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library at Parcels Middle School auditorium. Duncan Sells has been Dean of Students of Wayne State University since January of 1967 and was formerly Director of Student Organizations at the University of Michigan. Before joining U of M, he held the post of Dean of Students at Oakland University from 1961 to 1964 and prior to that was at Cornell University in a variety of posts including Director of The Office of Financial Aids, Assistant to the Dean of Men, and Faculty Counselors and Graduate Manager of the Cornell University Glee Club.

Dean Sells' background and present work enables him to offer an overview and perspective of the campus scene that few can match. The troubled atmosphere and delicate balance on today's campuses make his address at this time of interest to all and in particular to those, or the parents of those, who are or will be attending college soon.

The Friends have invited Professor Wilbur C. Nelson, Chairman of the Department of Aero-Space Engineering at the University of Michigan on January 13. Professor Nelson will speak on "The Moon Landings—Immediate and Future Benefits."

Dr. Milton Covensky, Professor of History at Wayne State will speak on "The Book and the Computer: Friends or Deadly Enemies," on March 10.

The series of programs will close on April 14 with Franklin McNamee, Director of the Seven Ponds Nature Center, addressing the audience.

The public is cordially invited to any of these programs.

GPHRC Gives Books To Highs

The Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council presented separate collections of books on Negro culture to the six non-public high schools in the Grosse Pointe area recently. These books were part of the contribution in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. to the young people of The Pointe.

Three sets of the Encyclopedia Britannica on Negro history and culture were presented to the public school system at an assembly in South High School's gym last March commemorating Dr. King's appearance there a year before.

Among the volumes in the school collection are the poetry of Langston Hughes and Geraldine Brooks, Negro Literature in America, Editors Emanuel and Gross and the biography of Sojourner Truth.

At the formal presentation ceremony Mrs. Ray Rutledge, Jr. said, "We are pleased to be able to serve the community and our young students by adding this dimension to their studies. Dr. King brought his message of peace and hope for our country to Grosse Pointe and we honor his memory in this attempt to replace ignorance of his race with the enlightenment of knowledge. We hope to be able to enlarge this collection as our resources permit."

Youth Council Plans Car Wash

In response to a plea for cadet uniforms for the boys team at Parkside Housing Project—an organization sponsored by the Metropolitan Council of Churches' Big Brothers Organization, the Junior and Senior Youth Councils will stage a car wash this Saturday, November 8, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the parking lot of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore Road. Charge will be only $1.

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Youth Councils are made up of students from the Grosse Pointe public, private and parochial schools. They are perhaps best known for their planning and staging of "Other Side" dances, Easter and Christmas programs and other activities for their peer group in the community. However, one of their objectives is to seek ways to contribute not only to their own community but to serve those less fortunate.

Let them spruce up your car for the weekend and you will have the satisfaction of knowing you are supporting the excellent and needed work of the Big Brothers and encouraging our own Grosse Pointe Youth in becoming constructively involved.

Picked to Head Baptist Center

Reverend Herman E. Meyer, has been appointed Director of Development for Whittier Towers, it was announced by Lee A. Trumble, Treasurer-Administrator of Michigan Baptist Homes and Development Co., who will take over the ownership and operation of the Whittier Hotel on January 1, 1970.

On that date the Whittier Hotel will be known as the Whittier Towers, one of four retirement centers owned by the Michigan Baptist Homes and Development Center, a ministry of the Michigan Baptist Convention.

Mr. Meyer has served pastorates in Valparaiso and Liberty Center, Ind. and Bay City, Mich., as well as serving as interim pastor in Michigan City, Ind., and Parkwood, Ill., and the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Mr. Meyer traveled in the interest of public relations for Northern Baptist Theological Seminary for two years. He served on the boards of the Maywood Baptist Old People's Home, Maywood, Ill.; the Central Baptist Children's Home at Lake Villa, Ill.; and Judson College, Elkhart, Ind., as well as the State Board of Managers for the Indiana Baptist Convention and is presently serving as a trustee for the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has been active in the insurance business and sales management for the past eight years.

Mr. Meyer resides at 1190 Torrey road. His wife, Eva M., is also an alumnus of Judson College and Northern Baptist Theological Seminary. A son, David Paul, is a junior at Grosse Pointe North High School. His daughter, Sharon Sue, lives in Savannah, Ga. Both Sharon Sue and her husband, Ronald Gutwein are alumni of the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago.

Pierce Students To Help 'Hope'

Boys' and girls at Pierce Middle School, through their Student Government, have selected the hospital ship Hope as the target of their fund-raising projects for the year.

With a goal of $1,000, students will undertake a series of money making activities between now and June to help bring the knowledge and skills of American medicine to the people of developing nations.

Since teenagers are usually hungry by the time school is dismissed, many projects will concern food: bake sales, sucker sales, and apple sales for a beginning. Proceeds of the sale of popcorn at football games have also been donated to the fund.

The student Government is certain of success. Recently the school was notified that the $1,000 raised last year for the Peace Corps had been allocated to two schools, one in Upper Volta and the other in Adamo, Ghana.

Support Your School System

School officials and citizens interested in the maintenance of public education in Grosse Pointe this week are concluding a three-week campaign designed to inform the entire community of the importance of the November 11 Special School Election. The NEWS strongly urges the voters to approve all three of the propositions on the ballot.

In June of 1970, the public schools will have no voted millage unless approval is given the proposals at the polls next Tuesday. The schools' income will amount to 8.90 mills, which will provide only 25 per cent of the current program.

Although the school system's current voted operational millage is 18.50, the district is spending at the rate of 21.36 mills, with the balance coming from a reserve built last year for this purpose.

If the schools were to ask simply for a renewal of the 18.50 voted mills, the beginning of the 1970-71 year would find the program and staff cut, with one-third curtailed by 1971-72.

Following eight months of study, the 50-member, community-wide, representative Millage Study Committee, recommended to the Board of Education that the current educational program offered in the system's 10 elementary, three middle, and two senior high schools be continued during the two-year period beginning July 1, 1970.

Proposition #1—25.45 mills will maintain the public schools' current educational program as suggested by the community-wide representative 50-member Millage Study Committee. This levy will provide over 70% of the operating budget for 1970-71.

Members of the Millage Committee were: Dr. A. Beaulieu, Dr. Charles Drake, John E. Calkins, John Cobau, Donald Dungan, William Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. David Gabbart, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Giles, Mrs. George Gillis and Alfred R. Glancy, Jr.

Also: Dr. Virgil Goodman, Mrs. Douglas Graham, Clifford Gray, Mrs. John Grylls, Hugh Harness, Mrs. John Johnson, William E. Kennedy, Rev. Paul Keppeler, Mr. Armand Kerber, R. Fred Kolowich, and Richard Koslowski.

And: W. W. Laitner, Carroll Lock, C. B. Lundy, George B. Martin, Mrs. James P. Mayshark, Mrs. Lewis Morrow, Jay N. Mossman, Paul D. McCarthy, Mrs. Ernest Olde and Charles A. Parcells, Jr.

Included also were Dr. Frank Parcells, William T. Peters, William Porter, Arthur G. Reeves, Mrs. Robert Roddewig, Arthur Sherman, Jr., Mrs. David Shrock, Peter Stalker and Mrs. Donald Stewart.

Others were Dr. Donald Sweeney, Gary Talmage, H. Gordon Tanner, Miss Barbara Theophelis, Eric H. Truhol, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wettengel, John Williams, Hazen Ziegler and Miss Helen Zissis.

Proposition #2—75 of a mill to improve the schools' instructional program along lines suggested by the community-wide representative 50-member Millage Study Committee.

The Committee's recommendations include hiring additional staff to improve programs in remedial reading and remedial mathematics, to expand special education classes, and to provide improved in-service training for the professional staff.

Additional projects under consideration include a better approach to testing and evaluation for the entire school system. It is hoped that passage of Proposition #2 will help to solve educational problems at the elementary level which will have continuing benefit through the middle and high school levels.

In addition, the intellectually gifted student may be provided with expanded opportunities for individualized instruction which will better prepare him for college.

A comprehensive plan for the renovation of Grosse Pointe South High School was presented to the community by the architectural firm of Smith, Demme, Adams, Inc. on October 27.

Lynn Smith, who heads the organization which is well known for its school designs, recommended the phasing out of the two "B" Annex buildings and Quonset hut and replacing them with additions to the main high school building.

Both the architectural firm and the citizen's committee recommended extensive changes in the South High complex in order to meet current educational and safety standards and to accommodate a growing student body.

The architect's plans recommended that the existing facilities be upgraded to meet present Fire Marshal regulations, to correct mechanical and electrical deficiencies, and to improve instruction.

In studying the "B" Annex buildings, it was found that while the buildings are in good condition for their age (constructed in 1902 and 1915) they are in serious violation of fire regulations in terms of materials, "dead-end" corridors and non-enclosed stairways. The firm reported that the cost of such repairs could not be justified economically in relation to the small usable space to be gained.

Proposition #3—1.50 mills to renovate South High School and to replace the antiquated and hazardous Annex and Quonset hut with new facilities, meeting the requirements of the State Fire Marshal, in line with recommendations of the 50-member South High Study Committee.

Funds will be used to modernize the physical plant at South High School by:

1. Bringing it up to the requirements of the State Fire Marshal.

2. Demolishing the Annex and the Quonset hut.

3. Adding 120,000 square feet of new space to house classes in science, business, homemaking, music, special education, and driver training.

Other new space would be used for the cafeteria, materials center, and additional classrooms. The net gain would be 95,000 square feet.

4. Remodeling the interior of the front section of the main building to provide classrooms of 800 square feet.

5. Remodeling the present Industrial Arts Annex for improved housing of classes.

It is estimated that 1 mill to 1 1/4 mills will finance the program over a 20-year period.

I have ever read a more disgusting ad! I feel it is an insult not only to our community, but also to the leadership of this council.

If the purpose of this organization is to promote good human relations among ALL people (not just between races), I feel some re-thinking as to how best to achieve this goal is in order.

Some of the past ads of this group have been good—I have even clipped them. This one I would not want my children to read, for this type of reasoning could start a child to think and act with prejudice.

I do hope any future ads will be in better taste and more constructive.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. W. E. Davey

To the Editor:

Well, Devil's night has come and gone, and I've just come in from trying to scrub a four letter word off my sidewalk, my windows are soaped and covered with shaving cream, toilet paper is wrapped around my tree, and my fence is dotted with soap, wax and paint. Tonight I'm expected to hand out candy to the same little ones who played these little "tricks" on me last night.

The children cannot be condemned, but their parents should be. Hardly a street in this superior community escaped. Park, City, Shores, Woods, Farms all have the same "decorations" this morning. Where were the parents last night when their little darlings walked out of the house laden with half the bathroom? One of the biggest problems parents face is how to teach their children to have regard for the other person and his property.

Most parents would insist that they are diligently trying to teach this to their children, and yet those same parents will give their six-year-old a bar of soap and their blessings on Devil's Night, their reasoning being "Everyone else is doing it, my house gets it, why shouldn't my kids join the fun?" I'd just like to know when two wrongs make a right, and if children don't begin learning to respect others and their property at home, when will they learn? If parents feel so strongly about the children being one of the group, even if it's a destructive group, how will they feel later on when these same children smoke, drink, or experiment with drugs because they MUST be one of the group?

I think it's about time that parents began to think about what kind of future adults they are raising; these seemingly little things are important in the early years. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," is the way the motto reads, and I for one think it's a pretty good thing to try and remember.

An irate Grosse Pointer

My Dear Editor,

I would like to publicly thank Lisa Hoffman, of Yorkshire road. Miss Hoffman found my purse which contained a fair amount of cash, some travelers checks, house keys, driver's license, club cards and other personal papers. The purse was returned to me intact. This was unusual, people usually rummage through things they find.

Thank you, Miss Hoffman. It is teenagers like you who will help steady our badly rocking society and make life on this earth worthwhile again, as I knew it to be when I was a teenager.

God Bless You,
Mrs. G. J. Rivard

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

BOOK POWER is the slogan for this 50th Anniversary of National Children's Book Week, to be celebrated November 16-22, 1969.

Until this moment I have not taken time to give serious consideration to its true connotation. But "Pow!" Suddenly I feel the impact. In reflecting on children's books and their readers I experience a renewed excitement. There are so many innovations in multi-media, that I find it difficult to confide my thoughts and comments. In order to bring home some semblance of organization to this article, I will confine my remarks to Book Week and books.

Fifty years is a long time for an idea to remain alive, fresh, and widespread. How did it all start? Back in 1917 Franklin K. Mathews, librarian to the Boy Scout movement promoted a Boy Scout Book Week in connection with a campaign against inferior books. Frederick G. Melcher took up the cause and Book Week, as we know it, came into being in 1919. It seems impossible that any one individual could have done so much for future generations as Frederick Melcher, who had a passion for books—good bookmaking and the wide circulation of books—in the United States and throughout the world. He is best remembered as the founder of Children's Book Week, and the donor of the Newberry and Caldecott Awards.

Once again we approach Book Week with enthusiasm, and hence our conviction that books do have power will be felt by young and old alike. Concrete examples of our feelings are expressed in many ways in the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries. First and foremost of our wares are hundreds of new books. A preview exhibit will be available on Wednesday, November 12, from 3:45 to 5 o'clock, at the Central Library. All adults are welcome to take, followed by book talks given by the three children's librarians. During the following week children and adults will have the opportunity to handle and choose, according to their tastes, a book for future reading or ownership. Annotated book lists will be available in order to suggest a suitable gift for a giver, or help a young reader find something to borrow on his library card.

Children's librarians feel that any book which they have selected is worthy of shelf space.

However, we cannot always remain entirely objective. One of the new books which I find particularly fascinating is SOME HAYSTACKS DON'T EVEN HAVE ANY NEEDLE: AND OTHER COMPLETE MODERN POEMS, compiled by Stephen Dunning, Edward Lueders and Hugh Smith (Lothrop). These poems communicate with the "now" generation, expressing realism, and are accompanied by modern art. Incidentally, two poems in the collection are by Donald Hall, who is Associate Professor of English at the University of Michigan. Last May he spoke to a rapt audience at the annual dinner of the Friends of the Library.

Among the many appealing picture books an especially handsome one is HOW HIPPO! by Marcia Brown. This short tale describes Little Hippo's first and almost disastrous venture away from his mother.

Another of the more attractive picture stories is USHA, THE MOUSE-MAIDEN. It was probably first told in India several thousand years ago, and is part of the Panchatantra. This wise fable of a mouse changed into a beautiful baby girl is brought to today's children by Mehli Gohai.

IN THE HAPPINESS FLOW-ER, by Eva-Lis Wuorio, young American girls meet a lonely Finnish girl and share a delightful summer with her and a special friend—a little peacock (a good elf). Boys will find adventure in a small fishing village on a West Indian island, as they read about 13-year-old Bonus Hamilton's experiences with the local witch, a prison escapee, and a French rum runner in THE BONUS OF REDONDA, by Robert D. Abrahams.

It is not easy to stop writing about more and more of the many books which make this a time of celebration. But I will end with the Book Week poem by Gwendolyn Brooks, who won the Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1949. She is the only Negro American poet to receive that award.

BOOKS FEED AND CURE AND CHORTLE AND COLLIDE In all this wilful world of thud and thump and thunder man's relevance to books continues to declare. Books are meat and medicine and flame and flight and power, steel, stitch, and cloud and clout, and drums beats on the air.

What's New on THE HILL

By Sibyl

Gee! We're already at the G's in our alphabetical tour on the Hill. John S. Goodman, real estate, has a handy location, 93 Kercheval, right over the National Bank of Detroit. Many of you remember Ann Goodman used to contribute clever items to the column. Here she is again. "Ladies and gentlemen... are you disturbed? Can't sleep? Ears ring? Are there spots before your eyes and your appetite is gone? You need a new house! Call John S. Goodman, Realtor, for expert advice in these matters... 886-3060."

Colorful Christmas Tree Glasses... are now at the League Shop. They come in sets of eight for ten dollars... in high ball and old fashion sizes. They're so gay for holiday entertaining and "our house to yours" gifting.

It's Fun Fur... for pillows at Denler, 77 Kercheval. Choose zorro, zebra, calf or opossum. Mix textures and colors. Delightfully decorative!

Interview With Margaret Rice... "Spring showings have been going on since the middle of October. After viewing at least fifty collections, I am more and more convinced the customer who looks to the small fashion shop for guidelines is the one who will be less likely to make a mistake in her selections. The specialty shop of her choice cares what she looks like and how she feels in her clothes. It is only through the eyes of the customer that a small shop reflects a real image. It is with each individual customer in mind that a shop makes a choice among hundreds and hundreds of clothes. I have often been asked... 'why don't you have this and that?' My reply has always been I choose clothes for my customers and not for the general public. We are not a department store which depends on the general public. I much prefer to be the best in one category than fair in many."

New Arrivals... at Picard-Norton, 92 Kercheval, are A. Sulka neckwear and handkerchiefs. By the way, the handkerchiefs are of fine linen imported from France and come with colored borders to match the ties. They are three fifty. Select several and coordinate your own sets for gifts.

Window Shopping... at Virginia Williams, 79 Kercheval, we are reminded by all the gay Christmas wrap, decorative ribbon and yarn, it's time to pick your paper. Tie up the coordinated ties... while there's such a good selection.

"The Swinger"... is the name of the new Femme-lite illuminated make-up mirror. It has an easel back and comes in pink, blue or white and carries a light price tag of nine ninety-five at Trail Apothecary, 121 Kercheval.

Entertaining Ideas... for the holidays come from Spode and are at the League Shop. Spode Christmas tree platters, coffee pots, place settings, mugs, bowls and individual ash trays are great for at-home festivities or to give your favorite holiday hostess.

"We Are Growing Our Own" says Bobbie Vance. She's referring to the talented crop of artists in this area and continues showing the work of local artists at the Grosse Pointe Studio, 119 Kercheval. Right now Marguerite Joseph's one man show displays her beautiful oils as well as her delightful miniatures which are framed and ready for "original gifting." The miniatures range in price from four to ten dollars.

Window Shop... the Mermaid. The windows are full of gift ideas for men. There's a sportsman's mail box, an on-tap china beer barrel for the bar, duck lamps for the library, beautiful game bird prints, a variety of trays and a handsome ice bucket.

Out Of This World... are the "spacial" futuristic lucite glasses, trays and ice buckets at the Card Rack, 93 Kercheval. They come in gray, smoke, blue, green or red. The ice bucket is nineteen ninety-five. A set of four glasses is ten dollars and the tray is eleven fifty.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
Grosse Pointe South High needs your help! I am a student at South with art classes in the third floor of the Annex (the old Country Day School). Last week when we had a fire drill, we realized just how dangerous that building could be. There is only one door into the third floor, the one at the top of the stairs. We looked at the fire escape door and found it chained shut with a sign saying it is closed by order of the Fire Marshal. (The fire escape is falling away from the building on the third floor anyway).

Most people know that smoke and heat rise up stairwells in fires. What would happen to us if there were a fire?

We hope you voters will think of us and vote yes on Tuesday!

Sincerely,
John Specht

M. Charles Lucet, French Ambassador to the United States, and Mme. Lucet are coming to Detroit for a very special occasion: The opening of the Balthus Exhibition November 24, a benefit for the bilingual City School of Detroit.

Festivities begin with the Exhibition itself at the Donald Morris Gallery on Livernois avenue and continue with a reception, under the patronage of M. and Mme. Lucet, at the City School just three blocks north of the Gallery.

The Balthus Exhibition Benefit committee, already has begun preparations for Opening Night by selecting several of its members to head various subcommittees.

In charge of reservations for the $100-a-couple gala is Mrs. Thomas Morrow, of Vendome road. Collecting hostesses for the evening is Mrs. W. S. Wilkinson, of East Jefferson avenue. Mrs. Peter Stroth, of Park lane, is publicity chairman. (We can't help a digressive comment here on the beauty of this trio's first names. Thirza . . . Mireille . . . Nicole . . . To say them is to hear soft bells chiming.)

Chairman of the reception buffet—and all other edibles—is Mrs. Donald Neilson. Mrs. Charles Bachrach's her assistant. Chairman of contributions is Mrs. Carl Luckenbach.

Coordination of committee heads is in the capable hands of Mrs. Harold Berry and reception decorations will be devised by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Demant of Walter Hertz Interiors.

And yes—there WILL be gallery-to-reception transportation.

This is a red thing.

We have red things too. In bottles. That we mix with other red things in other bottles. That we add little golden things to. And maybe mix with some coppery stuff. And then we can brush it all into your hair and put you under a little baking machine and then when you're all washed and set and combed out, you're what every girl should be at least once in her life. Gloriously, unforgettably red-headed. If you've been seeing red, but hesitating—stop all that nonsense. Fall is here, and it's time to get off that silly old unfashionable fence.

AAUW Unit Begins Foreign Policy Study

Studio Arts and Art Appreciation Sessions Also on Local Branch's Current Agenda; New Guitar Group Being Formed

Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women is beginning a two-year study of American Foreign Policy and members of the International Relations Study Group will have an opportunity to hear an historical survey of the subject when Mrs. C. G. Turrell speaks about "The Burden of Power—the Evolution of American Foreign Policy."

Miss Louise Rau will be hostess to the Group at her residence in Neff road this afternoon, Thursday, November 6 at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Fred A. Gies is co-hostess.

AAUW's Studio Arts Group is back in business by popular demand. Members will make Christmas plates for cookies and chairman Joan French cautions workshop participants to bring containers to carry the plates home in case they are not ready for bisque firing.

This Group will meet at the home of Mrs. Ralph Kimble in Fisher road every second Thursday of the month at 7:30 o'clock beginning tonight.

An extra Studio Arts attraction, Creative Stitchery, will be directed by Candy DeMaggio.

Mrs. Keith Leibbrand will welcome AAUW's Art Appreciation Group at her Fisher road home tomorrow morning, Friday, November 7, at 9:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Ralph Kimble will discuss "Artists of the Colonial Period" including Benjamin West, Charles W. Peale, Gilbert Stuart and John S. Copley, using as resource material the book "America's Old Masters."

by Thomas Flexner. New and prospective members are cordially invited.

A new Study Group will lure all guitar players — and those who yearn to learn — to the home of Mrs. James Cook in Wedgewood drive next Monday, November 10; 881-0321 is the number to call for the time.

LINDA JEAN OTTO, daughter of MR. and MRS. JACK OTTO, of Moorland drive, has been appointed a student member of the faculty Education and Orientation committee at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo.

Grosse Pointe University School graduate NANCY J. CHALAT, daughter of DR. and MRS. NED I. CHALAT, of Middlesex boulevard, is a member of the freshman class at Pembroke College, the women's coordinate college at Brown University, Providence, R.I.

Entertaining at a Halloween costume party Saturday night were DR. and MRS. MURRAY THOMAS, of Berkshire road.

Lutheran Ladies Work For Mini-Fair

The Women of First English Lutheran Church, Vernier road at Wedgewood, will present their Mini Holly Fair next Wednesday, November 12, from 10 to 4 o'clock at the Church. Luncheon will be served at noon. Previewing some of the items to be featured in the Coun-

Fitting Flying Buffalo Finale

The Maurice Declercq, of Buckingham road, are holding their annual "Flying Buffalo" crew party tomorrow evening, Friday, November 7—and this year's party promises to be a very special one.

Because the "Flying Buffalo" has been sold the guest list includes everyone who has sailed a race on the Buffalo during the past seven years. Add wives and that guest list numbers well into the 80's!

This year's regular crew and their ladies will be there: Dr. and Mrs. Joseph (Mike) Tapert, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Black, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ness, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Davis and Alex and Bob Declercq. Honor guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ness, co-owners of the boat.

Out-of-town guests include

Mr. and Mrs. E. Llywd Ecclestone, Jr., of North Palm Beach, Fla., formerly of The Pointe, and the James Kemps, of Evanston, Ill.

The dinner, which will include buffalo stew, will be served entirely on silver trophies won by the flying Buffalo. Champagne will be ladled all evening from two large silver punchbowls, the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Blue Regatta trophy and the over-all trophy from the Toledo Yacht Club's "Mills Race."

The silver champagne glasses are mementos of Mr. Declercq's seven-year rule of the Great Lake's catboat sailors.

Maury Declercq designed the Flying Buffalo in 1960, rented a building in The Park and started building in the fall of that year. In the winter of 1961 he was joined in partnership by Mr. Ness.

The boat was launched in June 1963. Her first race was July 4: She was 25 minutes late to the starting line and finished first. With Skippers Declercq and Ness she has won every prize for which she qualifies on the Great Lakes.

Mr. Declercq is currently in the process of tank-testing his new boat design at the University of Michigan. The size of this boat depends on the test results—but Maury vows he will be back in competition soon.

At the Bayview Yacht Club Thursday night, October 30, Mr. Ness and Mr. Declercq picked up a trophy on the Flying Buffalo's behalf for season over-all in her class. This is the seventh time they have accepted this honor in as many years.

Mr. Declercq was elected Rear Commodore of the Cruising Club of Detroit that night. He is a Past Bayview Commodore and a Past Commodore of the St. Clair Yacht Club and the Detroit Ice Yacht Club.

Mr. Ness is a Past Commodore of Bayview Yacht Club and the Cruising Club of Detroit.

North's Scholars Win Bowl Quiz

Top Scholars from Grosse Pointe High School defeated Riverview's Gabriel Richard High School Scholars last Saturday, November 1, on the weekly television quiz program, "High School Bowl" by a score of 240-185. The contest was telecast over WWJ-TV.

For their victory, North High's team members, Fred Amrine, Kathy Krieger, Rich Schott, Cheryl Huckins and Ken Lewis, each received copies of the World Book Yearbook and the World Almanac. Both school libraries received the World Book Dictionary and Atlas.

Last Saturday's program was the second in a series of 28 color telecasts to be aired over the station during the school year.

Dr. Rebecca Monaster, supervisor of oral languages for Detroit Public Schools judged Saturday's program.

The teacher representative and debate coach of North's team was Roger W. Flowers, Jr.

Only a poker player is really happy when he has the blues.

Set Pro Musica Opening Concert

The Guarneri String Quartet will open Pro Musica Society's 43rd concert series Friday evening, November 21, in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The program will feature Mozart's Adagio and Fugue in C minor, Alban Berg's Lyric Suite for String Quartet and Ravel's Quartet in F major.

Each of the Guarneri, violinist Arnold Steinhardt, violinist John Dalley, violist Michael Tree and cellist David Soyer, is an outstanding virtuoso. The group's sold-out tours have taken them all over North America and Europe.

The Quartet has made 14 recordings, four with pianist Arthur Rubenstein. It plays the work of 20th century composers but does not specialize in modern music. Its repertoire is traditional.

Pro Musica's social committee headed by Mrs. Edward Roth, of Hawthorne road, has completed arrangements for an artists' reception immediately following the 8:30 o'clock concert.

Assisting Mrs. Roth are committee members Mrs. Terrance Bannan, Mrs. Edward Frohlich, The Misses Margaret and Inez McEvoy and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Karpas.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening are Miss Rose Barton, Harry G. Bradlin, Mr. and Mrs. Frohlich, Tracy Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. David A. Coolidge, Miss Marguerite Domine, Ian Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre V. Heffler, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Kondak, Mrs. Ivan M. Kirilin, Mrs. C.H. Koebbe, Miss Hazlett Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Dominic J. Rossi, Reginald R. Thomas and Mrs. Albert R. Zanoli.

Reception setting will be the Arts Institute's Romanesque Room.

Juniors Make Ready For Antiques Market

Forty Dealers Will Exhibit at Goodwill Industries Plant; Sale Continues Through Next Tuesday, November 11

Enthusiasm never dims among members of the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries. Their 22nd Annual Antiques Market and Sale opens tomorrow, November 7, with an invitational Champagne Preview and continues through Tuesday, November 11. Plans and arrangements are in the final stages.

To introduce the public to the show there will be a free catalogue which includes a floor plan to help in locating favorite dealers and articles and pictures of special interest to antique collectors.

The show will be a very colorful event this year as Mrs. Robert F. Rentenbach and her committee have been working through the summer to complete the charming costumes all Juniors will wear.

Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Mrs. Albert Steinbach and Mrs. Daniel Carne report that the Dining Room will be using recipes from the Junior's own cookbook "Deliciously Yours" and that on Monday and Tuesday of the Sale there will be a fashion show by Maria Dinon. In charge of the attractive French Empire Ice Cream Parlor is Mrs. John W. Hamal.

For those who wish to buy cheeses and candies there is the Country Store. Mrs. William Geer says there will be many new items this year including tote bags, slates for the kitchen and mitts for hot pads.

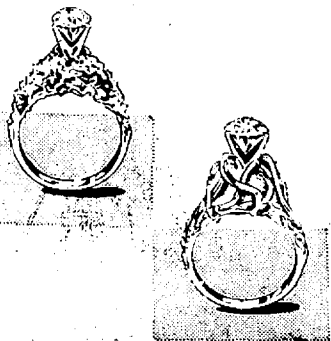

Mrs. Truman Schneider is very busy with last minute arrangements for the 40 antique dealers who will be exhibiting and selling at the Goodwill Industries plant, Brush street at East Grand boulevard, Detroit.

Although Mrs. Richard Moeller has sold many advanced tickets to the event she reminds prospective market-goers that tickets may be bought at the door.

Other committee chairmen working to promote interest in the show are Pointers Mrs. G. Norman Gilmore, Mrs. Harvey A. Fischer, Mrs. Jesse C. Hurley, Mrs. A. P. Fuchs, Mrs. John Barlow, Mrs. James Stewart and Mrs. Julian McIntosh.

Clinic League Plans Pointe Theatre Night

The Assistance League to the North-eastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic has planned a Theatre Night featuring the Grosse Pointe Theatre's production of "Wedding Spells" in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium next Wednesday, November 12. Many League members and friends will gather for dinner at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club before the performance. MRS. LEONARD RADTKE, ticket chairman, MRS. JEROME JOHAN-NIGMAN, general co-chairman, and MRS. ROGER McQUEEN, chairman, (left to right), have high hopes that their group's first fund-raiser of the season will be a great success. MRS. DENNIS MAXEY is play tickets' co-chairman. MRS. ROBERT WACHTER, in charge of dinner reservations, has set Monday, November 10, as her reservations' deadline.

Church Circles Slate Sessions

Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Women's Association Circles will gather next Tuesday, November 11, in members' homes.

Meeting at 12:30 o'clock will be the Afternoon Circles including Abigail, at the South Oxford road residence of Mrs. Vern Adams with Mrs. Walter Kuehn, 881-8186, as co-hostess; Deborah, at the River road residence of Mrs. Stanton Crawford with Mrs. Cecil Finerty, 884-7721, as co-hostess; and Elizabeth, at the South Oxford road residence of Mrs. Richard Fellows with Mrs. Elmer Gabriel, 886-0630, as co-hostess.

Esther will meet in the Huntington road home of Mrs. Mel Osborne with Mrs. Charles Osborne, DR 1-8329, as co-hostess; Hannah in the Hampton road home of Mrs. Bernard Kirk, 881-4165; Lydia in the North Shore drive home of Mrs. Walter Brey with Mrs. Richard Mertz, 881-8574, as co-hostess; and Martha in the Hawthorne road home of Mrs. Charles Brownell with Mrs. William Maschmeyer, 886-5942, as co-hostess.

Evening Circles, convening at 8 o'clock, are Mary in the Roslyn road home of Mrs. Victor Anderson with Mrs. Robert Loman, 881-5194, as co-hostess; Miriam in the Willison road home of Mrs. Richard Fernstrum with Mrs. Clarence Honkanen.

Wayne Medical Auxiliary Planning Fashion Benefit

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Wayne County Medical Society will present a noon fashion show-luncheon next Tuesday, November 11, at the Raleigh House in Southfield with proceeds to be added to a Medical Scholarship Fund for students of Medicine, Nursing and Laboratory Techniques.

Pointer Mrs. Arthur J. Johnson is chairman of the affair. Mrs. Winthrop Hall is Auxiliary president and Mrs. Edward J. O'Brien is in charge of press relations.

Among those who've reserved tables is party patron Mrs. L. Murray Thomas, of Berkshire road. Looking forward to a delightful day with her are Mrs.

Warren Couger, Mrs. Charles Grimshaw, Mrs. Peter Tainsh, Mrs. Georg von Pirch, wife of the German Consul General, Mrs. Roy MacGregor, the British Consul General's wife, and Mrs. John Blackwood, wife of the Canadian Consul in Detroit.

Mrs. Rai Gravel, who has just arrived from Chili, will be joining the group. Her husband is the Canadian Consul General here.

Mrs. John Christman and Mrs. Gianfranco Dal Santo will round out the table of 10.

THEY'VE ARRIVED DEAR PAT,

You exited just in the nick of clean up time—I, on the other hand, am still scraping soap off windows (house, car and shop) and hosing off smashed pumpkin debris from the premises. I found this most unjust inasmuch as we had four—count them 4—imaginatively carved Jack-O-Lanterns welcoming the little loves and distributed a really cunning box containing toothpaste and brush (that's how it is when you're married to a dentist). We're lucky they didn't break all of our windows.

Before they discovered that the treat offered was not a giant Milky Way the kids were terribly animated, cute and I might add wise. I spent an educating interlude with two future fashion coordinators. One was in her version of the MIDI—to mid-calf—slit up the sides—very fetching with sneakers I thought. With the amount of make-up she wore she looked more like Sadie Tompkins—done in. The other wore a snappy bit of MICRO-MINI. Had she been six years older she would have been arrested for you know what. They stayed long enough to banter the dress length question around—pros and cons—concluding rather succinctly that fat ladies should wear long skirts and skinny ladies should wear short skirts.

Makes good sense to all of us and hopefully I will never have to make more comment on the topic than the following:

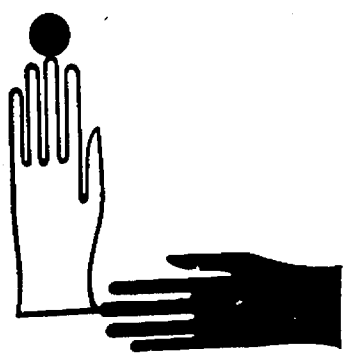

I do not mean to refute what was written recently by another lady—heaven knows, the length of my mini indicates what side of the her:line I'm on. Conversely, I am not about to drain the excitement that is there if received with a young mind—Very true, (as I've mouthed for two years) the decision is personal but the best part is that the length can fluctuate with our own whims and moods—this creates the fun in fashion.

The lady suggests there is nothing new about a MAXI evening coat—we have always had these. MADAM, EVERYTHING ABOUT IT IS NEW if a Maxi coat is worn over a mini cocktail dress (provided you've got the legs for the look.) If you're not blessed in this limb direction try wrapping that same coat around a smashing pant something.

My midgit authorities declined to comment further—one little witch opened the box and that ended that interview. As she scooted out the door I know I saw her reach for her Camay Gold.

Best love,

JO

Double Treat Week For DAC Members

Dinner-Theater Party Was Last Evening; Floor Show Open Tomorrow Evening; Many Pointers at Both Events

A double-barreled treat entertains members of the Detroit Athletic Club and their guests this week. First on the agenda was the DAC's dinner-theater party last night, Wednesday, November 5. The Club's opening floor show is scheduled for tomorrow evening.

With only 500 seats available for the premiere showing of "Paint Your Wagon" at the Madison Theater Wednesday, reservations went like hotcakes and a full complement was in attendance at the Club for a special dinner at an early hour.

Buses saw to it that first nighters were on time for the 8 o'clock curtain and returned later to bring them back to the DAC.

One large group of friends getting together for the occasion included Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Nichol, the Donald A. Dykstras, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Adler, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Macaddino, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander P. Venetis, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Kohle and Mrs. Lee Schoenith.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Kingswood asked the H. Glenn Bixby to join them. Other localities with reservations for four-somes and sixsomes included Mr. and Mrs. Elving N. Anderson, the Joseph L. Cobanes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hauschild and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Moran.

Still other Pointers were the Mervyn G. Gaskins, Dr. D. W. Lindner, C. M. Verbiest, Gerald Schroeder, William Roney, E. G. Evenden, Mr. Thomas P. Moore and Brian T. O'Keefe.

Featured Friday evening, opening night for the Club's monthly floor show, will be the Arbors and Joe Sodja, longtime Club favorites. The Arbors are an exciting new musical group hailing from the University of Michigan. Joe Sodja is a talented guitarist long featured with Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians.

DAC President Lynn Townsend and Mrs. Townsend chose this "opener" for their dinner to honor officers and directors of the Club and their wives. Cocktails will be served in the big private dining room with guests moving later to the main room for dinner and the evening.

Among those invited to attend are Mr. and Mrs. M. Frank McCaffrey, the Carl Johnsons, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Prew, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Couzens, Judge and Mrs. Edward S. Piggins, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Colombo, the Lloyd H. Diehl, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Moran.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. William M. Walker, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm L. Denise, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Rollins, Jr., the Bixbys, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Colombo, Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Pingel, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Campbell.

Pointe members with reservations for other floor show evenings include Arthur R. Hoffman, Pierce E. Wright, Mrs. C. R. Pelton and E. G. Evenden.

Miss Cary Married To Ensign Downie

Newlyweds to Live in Athens, Ga., While Bridegroom Attends United States Navy Supply Corps School

Nancy Ann Cary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Cary, of Fisher road, and Ensign Robert Hastings Downie, USNR, son of Mrs. J. Hastings Downie, of Fleetwood drive, and the late Mr. Downie, exchanged marriage vows Saturday afternoon, November 1, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The Reverend Ben Tallman officiated at the 2 o'clock rites. A reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom followed the ceremony.

For her wedding the former Miss Cary chose a gown of candlelight velvet fashioned with a scooped neck and long sleeves and trimmed with Venice lace and pearls at her Empire waist and cuffs. A matching Cathedral length mantilla completed her ensemble.

She carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums, Sweetheart roses and ivy.

Mrs. Victor Trowbridge, of Fort Wayne, Ind., cousin of the bride, served as matron of honor. She and bridesmaids Janet Cameron, of Cincinnati, O., Mrs. John Huber, of Troy, and Marilyn Horn wore Empire frocks of olive green crepe and matching headpieces of velvet leaves with short veils.

Their bouquets were nosegays of yellow and russet chrysanthemums and ivy.

Flower girl Debbie Wedge, the bridegroom's niece, was dressed in a short frock of pale yellow organdy and carried a miniature nosegay of yellow and white baby mums.

Ensign Downie chose his brother, Ronald, to act as best man. Seating the guests were William Lang, Jack Wedge, of Kalamazoo, and Joseph Moran, of Ann Arbor. The bridegroom's nephew, Scottie Wedge, was ringbearer.

For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Cary chose a sheath of candlelight French wool gabardine. Mrs. Downie selected a pale yellow silk worsted sheath with yellow accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of russet and yellow baby mums.

The newlyweds will make their home in Athens, where Ensign Downie will attend the United States Navy Supply Corps School.

ROBERT E. FORD, son of MR. and MRS. FREDERICK S. FORD Jr. of Renaud road, has enrolled as a freshman at Lake Forest College. Lake Forest, Ill.

Violinist Gitlis With Symphony

Violinist Ivy Gitlis will appear with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra tonight and Saturday, November 6 and 8, at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium. It will be his first appearance with the Orchestra.

A highlight of the concerts will be a performance of the Bela Bartok Concerto for Violin and Orchestra (1938) with Gitlis as soloist.

The program on November 6 will also feature Mendelssohn's Symphony No. 3, A minor, Opus 56 ("Scottish") and the modern "De Natura Sonoris," Krzysztof Penderecki's essay on the nature of sound.

Saturday night, November 8, Verdi's Overture to "La Forza del Destino" will replace the Penderecki composition.

Gitlis was born in Haifa, Israel, of Russian parents. He was brought up in a musical atmosphere—his mother a singer and his father a cantor in a synagogue.

He started to play the violin at the age of six and gave his first concert at ten. He studied at the National Conservatory in Paris and was awarded its first prize when he was 13 years old.

Gitlis makes his home in Paris but enjoys an international career. His frequent tours take him to the United States, Canada, South America, Western Europe, Russia, Rumania and Poland.

He has performed with many of the great symphonies of the world under the batons of such eminent conductors as Cluytens, Comissionea, Dorati, Horenstein, Mehta, Ormandy and Szell—to name only a few.

Set Kappa Delta East Meeting November 12

Kappa Delta sorority's East Side Alumnae Association will meet at 7:45 o'clock Wednesday, November 12, at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Hollidge in Audubon road. Mrs. George B. Hubbard and Mrs. E. Ward Sussex will be co-hostesses. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Sussex at 538-6771.

Lillian Touliot of the Petite Flower and Gift Shop, will show how to make Christmas arrangements for use in the home and as gifts.

Members are asked to bring Christmas gifts for children in the Richmond, Va., Crippled Children's Hospital, their sorority's national philanthropy.

MRS. EDGAR NETHERTON opened her North Duval road home Tuesday, November 4, for a meeting of the Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club. Her co-hostesses were MRS. ARTHUR HOLLINGER and MRS. NEIL McDONALD. The ladies made Christmas arrangements and decorations for Herman Kiefer Hospital.

Mrs. Robert H. Downie

Speaking their wedding vows Saturday afternoon, November 1, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church were NANCY ANN CARY and Ensign Downie. She is the daughter of the Kenneth F. Carys, of Fisher road. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. J. Hastings Downie, of Fleetwood drive, and the late Mr. Downie.

Emmons-Krusell Troth Revealed

Mrs. Maurice Baldwin, of Charlotte, Mich., is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Julie May Krusell, to Oren Scotten Emmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunter Emmons, Jr., of Radnor circle.

Miss Krusell attended Ferris State College in Big Rapids where her fiancé, a graduate of Governor Dummer Academy, Byfield, Mass., is studying.

The prospective bridegroom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunter Emmons, of Detroit, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Louis Frederick, of Grosse Pointe.

A December wedding is planned.

All the safety laws in today's world are useless unless motorists become safety-minded.

Review Club Meets Nov. 11

Robert J. McBride, director of News and Community Affairs for WJBK-TV, will be guest speaker for members and guests of the Detroit Review Club next Tuesday, November 11, at the Women's City Club. A luncheon will precede his lecture.

Mr. McBride started in Journalism in 1944 as a copy boy for United States News and World Report in Washington. In 1953 he was named Virginia's outstanding news commentator.

Two years later he became director of research and held various other positions with the Detroit Free Press until he joined WJBK-TV as program manager in 1961. He was named director of News and Community Affairs in December, 1963.

East Siders who will attend the program luncheon include Review Club Board members Mrs. Charles Brundley, Mrs. Robert G. Kales, Mrs. H. Lloyd Patterson, Mrs. Benjamin R. Springborn and Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox.

Others are Mrs. Beulah Crockett, Mrs. Robert T. Harris, Jr., Mrs. Frank Scott Perkin, Mrs. Irma Webber, Mrs. C. D. The Straw Mart

16125 Mack Avenue Detroit, Michigan

November 6, 1969

Dear Friends,

This is a difficult letter to write. But I feel things can best be explained this way in answer to your many inquiries as to the future of The Straw Mart.

My sister, Mildred Anderson, passed away October 4, 1969 after a brief two-week illness. Surely her sense of humor, quick wit and honesty will be missed in "The Block," which she helped to create. In 1962 Mildred and I opened The Straw Mart. After the second year, I went into the then new Marie Mitchell Decoupage Center and Mildred stayed with The Straw Mart.

I have kept a slight association with The Straw Mart through the years and I feel, with the help of a good manager, that we can carry on. Many of you know Patricia Simmons, who has worked with Mrs. Anderson for the past two years. Mrs. Simmons has accepted the new management of The Straw Mart and I have every confidence in her ability to assist me.

We deeply appreciate your patronage of the past, and we look forward to serving you in the future.

Sincerely,

Edythe Forcier

Fine Arts Will Open With Moss Hart Play

Opening Night Bonus Feature to be Photographic Exhibit of Members' Works in Lobby of Players' Playhouse

The Fine Arts Society of Detroit opens its 64th season at the Players Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue Friday evening, November 14, presenting Moss Hart's "Light Up The Sky," a comedy in three acts directed by James B. Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Evans, of Wellington place, are the producers. Set design is by Albert Siewert.

In the cast are Donald Bliss, Mrs. Henry Klein, Mrs. Charles C. Hicks, Arthur Gohle, Robert Rodger, Michael W. Hughes, Mrs. V. Inogene Little, Anne Rosch, Mr. Hughes, Kenneth Howard and Walter Bailey, all Pointers.

Mrs. Robert L. Megowen, of Fisher road, is "holding book" and prelude melodies will be furnished by Jolly's Sixty-Niners.

Mr. Bailey's doubling behind the scenes as stage manager.

Responsible for stage and technical details are Mr. and Mrs. Corless. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Worley are in charge of lighting effects. Dr. Chester Bogan of sound effects and Mrs. Raymond J. Duffy, Mrs. Evans and Stanley M. Huestis of properties.

Make-up will be supervised by Mrs. Mike Mikos. Costumes are being fitted and designed by Mrs. Wilfred Harrison, chairman of the costume committee, assisted by Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Rodger.

And, since the Fine Arts Society embraces all the arts, there will be a bonus to the evening: A lobby Art Exhibit featuring photographic works of Joseph Maniscalco, Jac Purdon and Bernard Pearse.

For the first time in more than 50 years, since the 1916-17 term of the late Mrs. Henry B. Joy, Fine Arts has a Madame President. She is Mrs. Donald W. H. Rothang, of Birmingham, who will direct the cultural organization during 1969-70.

Executive officers assisting Mrs. Rothang in the current season include Roswell J. Black, first vice-president, Mrs. Bernard P. Pearse, second vice-president, Mrs. James B. Doll, secretary, and Richard S. Shannon, treasurer.

Josiah Harmar DAR To Mark Anniversary

The General Josiah Harmar Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, with state regent and chapter regents from this area as guests will celebrate the 31st anniversary of its founding as a Grosse Pointe Park Chapter with a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock at the women's City Club Saturday November 15. A filmed tour of Alaska will be shown by Miss Marion Koepcke.

From Another Pointe of View

Visitor from Britain

Sir Geoffrey Aldington, K.B.E., C.M.G., of London, England, will be the guest speaker at this season's opening meeting of the English-Speaking Union, Detroit Branch, Tuesday evening, November 18.

Following a social hour and dinner at 7 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium Sir Geoffrey will speak "In Defense of Diplomats," a subject on which he's sure to wax eloquent: He spent 17 years in China as a member of the British Consular Corps before World War II, was interned by the Japanese for nine months after Pearl Harbor, spent the balance of the War in New Delhi as Director of Political Warfare, Far Eastern Bureau, returned to England and served as Head of the British Foreign Office's Information Services Department until 1950, went back to China to act as Political Advisor to the Government at Hong Kong . . . then to Zagreb, Yugoslavia, as British Consul-General . . . then to Philadelphia, as British Consul-General . . . and finally to Luxembourg where he served as British Ambassador until his retirement from the Diplomatic Service in 1966.

Rather an impressive background, what?

The well-traveled Sir Geoffrey will find many individuals anxious to trade East-of-Suez stories with him at the November 18 gathering.

It's a Double Purpose affair, a "welcome home" to the 142 Detroit Branch members who deplane at Metropolitan Airport late this Saturday evening after a flying tour around-the-world—in 30 days—as well as a program meeting.

The group's journeying under the guidance of Branch President Leslie C. Putnam, of Earl court, and travel committee chairman John Kinsey. Right now, after a houseboat idyl in Kashmir, temple viewing in Angkor Wat and a trip through the Khyber Pass, (to name just a few of this year's "stops"—those ESU'ers DO get around!), they're about to leave Tokyo for Alaska, last port-of-call before home.

Mr. Putnam, by the way, was re-elected president of the Branch's Board of Directors at Detroit ESU's annual meeting.

First vice-president is Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson who, with Mr. Wilson, will be back from a West Coast trip in time to hear Sir Geoffrey. The Wilsons represented the Michigan Division ESU at the National Council's annual meeting in Los Angeles, Calif., October 26 through 30 and are visiting several friends, former Pointers now making their homes in La Jolla, Rancho Santa Fe and Santa Barbara, before returning to residence in South Oxford road.

More vice-presidents are Mrs. Ward A. Detwiler, Mr. Kinsey and John C. Ray. Mrs. Otis U. Walker serves as secretary and Theodore G. Osius who, with Mrs. Osius, is chairman of the upcoming meeting, as treasurer.

Other pointers serving on the Board are Honorary Trustees Mark C. Stevens and Sir James and Lady Easton and directors Mrs. Fred P. Maibauer, J. Lawrence Buell, Jr., Dr. Charles H. Ewing, Ralph B. Netting, Sterling S. Sanford and Mrs. Edward J. Tutag.

Has Anyone Seen Wilbur?

He eats only grass and he hisses when he is picked up. He's a Florida land turtle, about a foot square, with a black shell.

He was brought up from the South via flight bag over a year ago, let out one recent night for his usual supper OF the backyard, wandered off during a hot tetherball game and hasn't been seen since.

He belongs to Elizabeth Grenard, of Shelbourne road. Elizabeth's four-and-a-half. She hopes she hears from Wilbur before winter really sets in because he isn't used to our temperatures.

Servite Card Party

A card party will be sponsored by the Servite Mission Guild Thursday, November 13th at 8 o'clock in St. Julian's church, Chalmers and Longview. Donation is $1.50.

Church Women Meet Tuesday

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Women's Association will meet next Tuesday, November 11, at 12:15 o'clock in the Church lounge. Mrs. Alfred Tapert will preside at the business session preceding a luncheon to be served by members of Group Three.

Guest speaker for the afternoon program will be The Reverend Mr. Robert Eugene Crawford, pastor at Bushnell Congregational Church, Detroit. His subject will be "Insights into Central America."

Mr. Crawford was graduated from Ohio University, received a Masters degree in Latin American Studies from Boston University and was graduated from Harvard Divinity School.

He is not only well known and active in his profession and denomination but is involved in many civic and service organizations.

Members of the Women's Association will participate in a Thank Offering Service before the program at 2 o'clock. Luncheon reservations may be made in the Church office and baby sitting will be provided.

Opportunity For Criticism

A unique critique is the unusual program scheduled for the Bloomfield Art Association Friday, November 7, at 8 o'clock, at its gallery in Birmingham. A distinguished panel of artists will criticize paintings by members and guests of the BAA who are invited to submit one original work of art in any medium. It can be a work they have executed themselves or one they have purchased. The program, which will be preceded by a reception for the panelists, is open to the public for an admission fee of $1.

and MRS. CLYDE FISHER, of Toledo and Deerfield Beach, Fla.

What Are You Doing Here...?

Here in Grosse Pointe, that is. Undoubtedly there are many reasons why a family selects a particular suburb in a large metropolitan area. Real estate brokers agree, however, that high quality schools lead the list in influencing this decision and in keeping property values high. In recent years Grosse Pointe property values have risen steadily (faster than school taxes) and a Grosse Pointe home will typically sell for $5,000-10,000 more than the same home a few blocks away in Detroit. However, our ability to protect our property values by maintaining the kind of school system we have come to expect in Grosse Pointe is being threatened.

What's The Problem...?

To be very basic, it is a combination of inflation and a continued growth in the school population. More specifically, however, all of the school's voted operating millage expires this year. Without new voted millage, we won't be left with enough of our school system to even recognize it. Furthermore, the deplorable interior condition of South High and our increasing school population has created a compelling need to enlarge and renovate this structure. To meet this situation two millage proposals and a bonding proposal to borrow money for South High have been placed on the November 11th ballot.

Admitting the need, are the millage and bonding proposals really necessary? Are they sound? The schools may have a problem, but you may well ask . . .

What Are The Facts...?

—The 25.45 operating millage request has been carefully computed to yield only the money required to maintain the present level of education. There is no built-in "cushion". No fat! It is only what is needed to prevent a disastrous cut in the school program.

—The .75 mill request for program improvement will help to develop new courses and teaching techniques and to evaluate existing curricula. Merely "standing still" in today's Jet age isn't good enough. What successful business doesn't spend money on product improvement?

—The 6.8 million dollar bonding proposal for South High is based on a thorough architectural survey of the facility. The estimated cost to the tax payers of 1 1/2 mills is a small price to pay for correcting dangerous fire trap conditions, replacing ancient and substandard annex buildings and expanding the school to accommodate an additional 600 students.

—All seven school board members enthusiastically support school millage and bonding proposals. The entire school budget has been studied thoroughly by hundreds of citizens to insure that we are getting the most for our dollar. In addition to Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education, the PTA Council, and the League of Women Voters have endorsed the proposals.

—There is no reasonable likelihood of state government enacting legislation to provide the money we need now. In fact, our failure to adequately fund our schools at the local level can only help us to lose local control.

What Are The Alternatives...?

Failure of millage proposals in Livonia have forced that city to limit many children to only 2 1/2 hours of school a day. Some cities are platooning children on half day sessions. Other school districts are meeting their obligations, however. Both Bloomfield and Birmingham have voted higher school taxes than we will have even if all of our proposals pass. In which category would you say we belong?

How Do You Decide...?

Voting for school taxes isn't just a matter of taking income tax deductible dollars out of your pocket. It is a matter of giving our children the education we have come to expect from our schools, preserving property values, retaining local controls and keeping Grosse Pointe the kind of community in which we can take a justifiable pride.

Fair Share Spotlights With Harvest Dinner

Buffet and Gift Display to be Featured at Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Tomorrow Evening

There's an evening of family fun, food and festivity in store for members and friends of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church tomorrow, Friday, November 7. The Church's annual Harvest Dinner will share the spotlight with a Mini-Fair.

Mrs. James Fournier, Mrs. Carl Asmus and Mrs. Mel Anderson, general chairman, have planned a bountiful buffet to be served from 5 to 8 o'clock in the Andrew Routh Fellowship Hall.

The Hall will be decorated in a harvest theme by Mrs. James Weaver and her assistants. High school students from the Church membership will assist in the dining room during dinner.

The Mini-Fair, open from 4 to 8 o'clock in the Junior High Room of the Church, will feature many items for early Christmas shoppers.

Mrs. Stanley Maples, chairman, and her co-chairman Mrs. Olaf Hestad have gathered together beautiful and charming gifts made by the many talented women of the Church.

There will be homemade goodies for sale and a fish pond for the children as well as a Treasure Chest from which they may purchase gifts.

Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling Mrs. Anderson at 884-9694 or Mrs. Lornen Kister at 884-1062. Dinner tickets are $2.50 for adults and $1 for children.

MR. and MRS. RONALD EDGAR LAUNS, of Buckingham road, will host a dinner party for 20 guests this Saturday, November 8, preceding the interfraternity Pannhellenic Ball to be held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Mrs. Launs is a member of Alpha Xi Delta.

Pancake Supper At North High

Pancakes, sausage and apple sauce are on the menu at North High School's Second Annual Pancake Supper slated for Monday, November 17, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., in the school cafeteria. A German band will provide the music.

Dr. Loyd Jodar, chairman of the event, said two service lines will be in operation so there will be no waiting. He also urges parents to take this opportunity to see the new high school.

Assisting Dr. and Mrs. Jodar are: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Verical, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCurry, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kodidek, Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes, Judge and Mrs. Blair Moody and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Huckins.

Tickets may be purchased at the door, $1.50 for adults and $1 for students, or $6 per family.

MR. and MRS. PETER MONROE of Cambridge, Mass. will arrive Friday to spend a long weekend with his mother, MRS. BENJAMIN BREWSTER, of Moross place. They will return to Cambridge on Tuesday.

Libri To Learn Stock Secrets

Members of Libri Club will gather for luncheon at the Notre Dame avenue home of Mrs. Bruce A. Kirk next Monday, November 10, at 12:30 o'clock. Assistant hostesses are Mrs. Charles L. Wenger, Jr., Mrs. Henry E. Wenger, Mrs. Carleton Healy and Mrs. Robert H. Healy.

The afternoon program will feature a talk about stocks and the stock market by Edwin D. Clarke of the brokerage firm Paine Webber Jackson and Curtis.

Woman's Club Plans Scholarship Benefit

Members Will Model Fashions; Mrs. Alexander King Serves as Chairman and Mrs. Thomas Pearsall as Co-Chairman of Event

The Grosse Pointe Woman's Club has scheduled its annual scholarship luncheon and card party for Wednesday, November 19, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom.

Purpose of the event, scheduled to begin at noon, is to raise funds for Achievement Awards to be presented to two students from Grosse Pointe high schools at the end of the school year.

There will be prizes and a fashion show with Club members Mrs. William H. Albrecht, Jr., Mrs. Alvin Borchardt, Mrs. Andrew Bremer, Mrs. James Doherty, Mrs. James Funk, Mrs. Lawrence Holmes, Mrs. Donald Leahy, Mrs. Fred Matzka, Mrs. Joseph M. Scanlon and Mrs. William B. Stuck modelling clothes by Juliet-on-the-Hill.

The program is under the direction of chairman Mrs. Alexander King and co-chairman Mrs. Thomas Pearsall.

Party committee members include the Mesdames John Kelly, Harold Lee, Stuart Micklethwaite, Russell Phillips and A. E. Tamarelli.

Reservations may be obtained by contacting ticket chairman Mrs. Robert Whiteley, TUXedo 2-0359.

Parents to Hold Hunt Club Party

The Parents' Association of University-Liggett School are sponsoring a dinner-dance tomorrow evening, Friday, November 7, at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club. Co-chairmen of the party are Mrs. William Dahling and Mrs. Dwight Nelson, Jr.

BLUEPRINT

Draw up a workable plan and then keep hammering away until success comes your way.

But How Will It Look On?

It will look very well indeed; after all, MRS. ANDREW BREMER will be wearing it. Mrs. Bremer's one of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club members who'll model clothes by Juliet at the Woman's Club's annual scholarship luncheon and card party Wednesday, November 19, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom.

Artists Market Schedules Show

The Detroit Artists Market's next exhibit, an Artists Craftsman Show, opens Friday, November 14, with a 3 to 7 o'clock reception. It will continue through January 6 at the Gallery in Randolph street, Detroit.

Gallery hours are 10 to 5 o'clock Monday through Saturday.

New Hunt Club Officers Named

The members and directors of the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club elected Charles Bachrach president, succeeding William J. Lilly, at their 58th annual meeting recently.

William C. Beardslee was elected vice-president, Richard H. Childress was elected secretary and Herbert Schollenberger was re-elected treasurer. New directors elected to three-year terms are William E. Barry, William H. Clapp and John H. Sarvis.

Memorial Fair Set for Today

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Christmas Fair, largest of the local church fairs, (it's presented every other year, alternating with Christ Church, Grosse Pointe), opens this morning, Thursday, November 6, at 10 o'clock and will continue all day at the Church complex next to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial in Lakeshore road.

Forty different booths and departments are featured, offering handmade, often one-of-a-kind items. There's a lunch room and snack bar for tired, hungry shoppers.

Entertaining recently at a champagne party honoring M. and MME. CLAUDE TAITTINGER, wine growers, of Reims, France, (it's their champagne the guests sipped), were MR. and MRS. ALFRED R. GLANCY, Jr., of Lakeshore road.

Deeplands Club Meets Monday

A member workshop and Christmas decorations display will be the theme of Deeplands Garden Club's meeting next Monday, November 10, at noon in the Cook road home of Mrs. Stuart Davidson.

Each member will bring her favorite sandwich. Tea and coffee will be furnished by the hostess, Mrs. Davidson, who is also co-chairman for the program.

After a brief social hour sleeves will be rolled up and the ladies will complete work on holiday centerpieces and home arrangements.

Alliance To Hear Jacques Doyen

Jacques Doyen, official speaker of the Alliance Francaise de Paris, will talk to members of Detroit's Alliance Francaise this Saturday afternoon, November 8, at 2:30 o'clock in the Detroit Athletic Club's Pontchartrain Room.

Preceding the tea and program M. Doyen will have luncheon at the Detroit Club as Guest of Detroit French Consul M. Dircks-Dilly and Mme. Dircks-Dilly.

Set Park Garden Club's Meeting

The Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club will meet Monday, November 10 at noon in the Bedford lane home of Mrs. Kenneth S. Patton. Co-hostesses for the gathering are Mrs. E. B. Cooper, of Maryland road, and Mrs. Albert Cooper, of Stephens road.

Following luncheon Betty Finnegan, secretary of Partners of the Alliance, will speak and show slides on World Gardening in Honduras.

Farms Boaters End '69 Season

Members and guests of the Farms Boat Club made Commodore Joe Crea's first party a complete success last Friday night, when they gathered for their traditional Halloween party. The Pier was transformed into a witches and goblins' den for the evening, with members wearing gay, and original costumes.

Walking off with first prize for their "King and Queen" costumes were Mr. and Mrs. D. Giroud. Capturing second place were Mr. and Mrs. A. Keith dressed as "the old man and Ruth" from "Laugh-In". The Joe Crea's and the Donald Burns were third and fourth place winners.

PATTERN
Despite the speed of modern living a go-getter saves time enough to plan his next move.

Spring Bride

Spring wedding plans are being made by CAROL ANN KALKMAN and James E. Fraser whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kalkman, of Fisher road.

The prospective bride is on the Fashion Bureau Staff of the J.L. Hudson Company.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Fraser, of South Deeplands road, is a student at Northwood Institute, Midland.

PWP Planning Military Ball

Grosse Pointe arents Without Partners, Inc., Chapter 192, of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, is sponsoring a military ball in the Officers' Club at Selfridge Air Force Base, on Friday, November 14, with all 15 chapters of the Eastern Michigan Regional Council, members only, invited.

Cocktails will be served from 7 to 8 o'clock, with a buffet dinner at 8:30 o'clock. The rest of the evening will be devoted to dancing to live music. Due to military restrictions, advance reservations are a must. Social activity chairlady, Marge Damman, at 881-5010, or her assistant, Joanne McManus, 823-6691, will accept reservations up to November 7.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE MOELLER, of Battle Creek, announce the birth of a son, SCOTT TERRELL, October 17. Mrs. Moeller is the former BARBARA MAYNARD, daughter of the ROBERT MAYNARDS, of Bedford road. Paternal grandparents are the EVERETT MOELLERS, of Roland court.

Half the world suspects the other half expects the best of it.

'Goodbye Mr. Chips' Benefit Set Sunday

Women's Association for Detroit Symphony Sponsoring Premiere to Assist Orchestra's Maintenance Fund

The Detroit premiere of MGM's new movie "Goodbye Mr. Chips" will be presented this Sunday evening, November 9, as a benefit for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Maintenance Fund.

The film, starring Peter O'Toole and Petula Clark, will be shown at the United Artists Theatre at 7:30 o'clock.

Tickets at $10, $25 and $50 are available at Ford Auditorium Box Office, Hudson's Downtown and at the Theatre box office.

The $50 tickets are for patrons and include both cocktails at 6 o'clock and a dinner-dance in the Statler-Hilton Ballroom after the movie.

The event is a presentation of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The Symphony's Maintenance Fund is administered as an annual fund-raising drive and is the Symphony's principal source of contributed support.

The total amount raised in each campaign is used to help close the gap between earned income and expense for the current fiscal year.

Cubs, Dads Plan Overnight Tour

The Kerby School Cub Scout Pack #481 will go to Greenfield Village next Saturday, November 8, for their annual father-cub overnight. The overnight will include an official tour of Greenfield Village, gym-swim events, meals at the Clinton House, and an optional visit to the museum.

GROSSE POINTE, FIRST OFFERING — Brick 5 family, 4 rooms and bath each. Steadily rented. Owner leaving state and priced under $40,000. Excellent investment.

ROBERT C. MOORE VA 2-5052

OPEN SUNDAY

2:30 to 5

REGARDLESS how your candidate fared this week our house candidate is a shoo-in if you demand prime location, four family bedrooms serviced by three full baths, formal dining and living rooms and a casual family room with antique brick floors and beamed ceiling and all on a deadend street which leads to the lake. Meet our candidate Sunday afternoon, when we'll hold open house at 12 Alger Place, the right place to be.

OUR POST ELECTION special is a non-partisan nominee which is sure to please either party whether you are seeking a single story or two story home. The first floor includes two bedrooms and the beautifully appointed living and dining rooms, and there are two more large bedrooms on the second floor. Stop and see for yourself Sunday afternoon, when we will introduce 808 Notre Dame to all interested. We're sure this house will get your vote.

AND BY APPOINTMENT

RARELY is so much house offered at so little money. Consider that this offering boasts a modernized kitchen, plus combination living and dining room. There are two first floor bedrooms and a large bedroom with a lavatory on the second floor. Priced $31,500.

SHOULD INTEREST all those of you who must have four bedrooms but must stay in the forty thousand range. This colonial also has a two-car attached garage which affords a large backyard. Located on Oxford Road, in a block where many houses will bring better than $50,000.

489 SADDLE LANE is the address of this almost new colonial with three bedrooms and two full baths on the second floor. There is a generously proportioned family room to complement the living and dining rooms.

500 WASHINGTON — another Old English, but with more bedrooms, in the same price range. The second floor contains four bedrooms and two baths. The third floor has two more bedrooms and a bath. And the first floor has two most-desired features—a den and a lav. Assumable mortgage of more than thirty thousand dollars.

Public Schools in Focus
This week I am devoting this space to a continuation on the series of questions and answers on the critical November 11 election. As you may recall, Proposition #1 will provide the public schools with 70% of their operating budget for 1970-71.

What is the daily per pupil cost to educate a child in the Grosse Pointe public schools? During the 1968-69, the last year for which complete figures are available, it cost $8.40 per day (or 90 cents for each hour of a six-hour day) to educate a child in the public schools.

When will the new taxes be levied? The rate will be applied to the taxes levied in December, 1970.

What will the passage of the three Propositions cost a taxpayer? The cost will vary, depending upon the value of one's property. For each $1,000 of state equalized valuation multiply by 1.00 mill for a total of $1.00 per thousand of state equalized valuation. For example, the millage value of Proposition #1 is 6.95, Proposition #2 is .75, and Proposition #3 is estimated at 1.00, for a total of 8.70 mills, or $8.70 per thousand dollars of state equalized valuation.

Why does the school system not wait to schedule an election until it learns what changes in school financing recommended by Governor Milliken's Educational Reform Commission will be implemented? It is doubtful that any package of educational fiscal reform will benefit a school district with a State Equalized Valuation comparable to Grosse Pointe's. It is unlikely that recommendations made to the State Legislature will have been acted upon by the time all voted operational millage of the Grosse Pointe schools expires on June 30, 1970. A number of the proposals may require amendments to the State Constitution, a time-consuming process that could take two or three years. For example, if the property tax base is lowered, it may mean a shift to an income tax. Grosse Pointe cannot look to the State of Michigan to finance local public education to any greater extent in the future than it has done in the past.

What do the Grosse Pointe public schools receive from the State of Michigan in the form of financial aid per pupil? For the current year (1968-70), the Grosse Pointe schools receive $141.81 per pupil in State Aid compared to $144.19 per pupil in 1968-69, a decline of $2.38 per pupil.

Public Schools in Focus

All types of State Aid account for 15.56% of the 1968-70 budget.

How much do the public schools currently receive from local property taxes? Current local property taxes provide the schools with 72.28% of the general fund receipts for the 1968-70 budget, plus 6.97% from reserves collected last year.

How much do the public schools currently receive in the form of aid from the federal government? Funds from federal sources amount to .06% of receipts in 1968-70. Are these percentages expected to remain constant in the future, for 1970-71, for example?

Estimated revenues for 1970 show that local taxes (voted and allocated) will provide 83.19% of the operating budget. State School Aid is expected to drop to 12.65% and federal aid will decline to .06%, with other revenues accounting for 3.10% of the total.

St. Paul Gridders Take CYO Crown
For the first time in 18 years, the St. Paul Grade School football team, (seventh and eighth graders), captured the Southeast Division CYO football title, winding up its season with a 18-0 triumph over St. Brendan.

The Lakers swept to the Division championship on the strength of an undefeated season in which they allowed few points and thoroughly led the league in every offensive and defensive phase of the game.

In the victory over St. Brendan, Rob Heidt hit Terry Corbett with a pass, which was lateralled back to Tom Klump and the speedster tore 60 yards to pay dirt in the second quarter.

Late in the fourth period, Heidt picked off an errant St. Brendan lateral and returned it 75 yards for six points. He then hit Corbett with a conversion pass good for another two points and the final tally.

Head Coach John Garvin and his assistant Greg Pilarski combined to turn in one of the finest grade school coaching jobs in the Pointe's history and the NEWS salutes them and their fine team.

While . . . the Walton-Pierce buyers are in New York thinking spring and seeing the spring fashion showings, Christmas is arriving in the gift department. As a matter of fact, we heard "Silent Night" coming from a beautiful imported creche. Back again, by request, are the popular velvet ball ornaments that play familiar tunes. There are handsome travel clocks, passport cases and wallets, telephone book covers of Italian leather, address books covered with velvet, velvet desk sets, Herrend china, desk accessories for men, Spanish porcelain figurines, and charming bronze figures of a boy flying a kite and boy on the run, swinging his school books.

What's Going on in hair? . . . Braids! What's going on in braids? Wiring! Nino at Leon's wired a blonde braid for us and shaped it into a double bow to pin on high in the back of our hairdo. It's a fabulous fashion accent and in an emergency can rescue an otherwise impossible, do-it-yourself hair comb. Braids are also going on in hairpieces. Bring one of your hairpieces to Leon, 17888 Mack Avenue, and have it re-done and braided for one of the newest, prettiest, most fashionable looks . . . TUxedo 4-9393.

Don't Miss the special purchase at Michelle's Boutique at Leon's, 17888 Mack Avenue. It will be offered to mark the opening of the new shop right next door at 17864 Mack Avenue.

Expert Advice . . . business and individuals have consulted Mr. Mozena, president of Mutschler when planning either exhibit or home kitchens. He is a well-known authority who can help you express your own ideas. As for style and decor, the models at 20227 Mack Avenue are beautiful examples.

People are meeting more people and meeting more people at Kimberly's where everything is totally new-new-New York! . . . Where people are meeting people, are meeting more people . . .

In Martha's Closet . . . 373 Fisher Road, pick an adorable bouquet of straw flowers on a wood base, covered by an hour glass (see fifty). Speaking of time, you can select a handsome plexiglas clock, very contemporary in design in either cube or pedestal shape and in different colors. It would make a perfect time piece for a man's desk.

When It's Semi-Formal . . . choose the stroller combined with ease of fit that makes the stroller and striped trousers the favorite for semi-formal daytime weddings . . . TUxedo 6-5330.

Special . . . at the Notre-Dame Pharmacy Dorothy Gray's Dry Skin Cleanser and Salon Cleanser. The five fifty value is three fifty. Dorothy Gray's hand-cream . . . the two fifty value is one fifty and her hand lotion, usually three fifty is now one seventy-five.

Aye! . . . There's a bonnie color choice of George McGee of Scotland shawl sweaters at Mickey's, 17146 Kercheval. They are fall fashioned with crew neck and cost a thrifty seventeen dollars. This is the perfect put-away-present for Christmas.

Timely and Tempting . . . During the month of November, Jacobson's will be having their Annual Fall Fur Sale. There are marvelous values in natural mink coats, stoles, capes and jackets . . . also Persian lamb, broadtail and muskrat. Make your selection and save before the snow flies and Santa asks you what you want for Christmas.

The Kaleidoscope . . . sees colorful wall plaques adding interest to your walls. There's a new group which includes early American, painted soldiers, "table for ladies," and other directional finders. At 16125 Mack at Bedford, prices range from two fifty to ten dollars.

The Sphere . . . 19849 Mack Avenue, caters to gourmet taste with a selection of fondue pots, plates and forks . . . also escargot dishes, forks and holders.

Mr. Q . . . knows about a gala New York theatre holiday which includes orchestra seats for "Promises, Promises," "Forty Carats," and "1776" . . . plus five days and four nights at a top New York hotel. The price includes transfers and dinner at Voisin, the Rainbow Room or the Tower Suite . . . just ninety-nine dollars plus air fare. For more information, call TUxedo 6-0500.

In Orbit . . . keep your eye on oriental rugs . . . at Ed Maliszewski, 21435 Mack Avenue. Copies and contemporary translations of oriental patterns, using pleasing overall designs is the great trend in rooms with multi-plied patterns.

Tennagers . . . The fashion forecast is for healthy lively hair. So lady be good, extra good to your hair! Come to Edward Nepl for conditioning with oil or a protein treatment. "Break a leg!" It's an old showbiz saying, a good luck wish for anyone whose production's about to debut. No one expected Maya Elmer'd take it SERIOUSLY. Least of all Maya.

I mean: There she was, all the children finally grown up enough to leave alone, all previous and anticipated commitments attended to, everything under control . . .

There she was, with Bill, on the slopes at Zermatt — Zermatt! — doing her thing . . .

There she was, in bed, in the clinic-over-the-bar, listening to the thump . . . thump . . . of the combo under-the-floor . . .

One thing about that clinic: You can dress up every meal with an appropriate beverage. That was March. Fade-out, as they say in the Cinema Game. Cut to November.

In Second Cast Here's Maya Elmer, in her second cast. The production's about to debut.

Don't you DARE tell Maya to "Break a leg!"

"We were in Switzerland, on our first real vacation together since the children began to arrive. It happened my third day out. Bill? . . . Well, Bill had a marvelous time skiing for 16 days . . .

And what about the production? What's happened to the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church Holiday Fair?

It's on, as planned, next Thursday, November 13, under Maya Elmer's general chairmanship.

Any woman who could cope with four children under four for six months can handle the Holiday Fair general chairmanship. With two broken legs!

They're all big boys and girls now. And look what they're doing . . .

And Annabelle, who'll be 22 in December, living on the West Coast with her year-old daughter Tasha, attending Art School.

And 20-year-old Lucy; she's in Berkeley too.

And the twins, 18, Jamie going to Wayne County Commu-

She's a member of the Grosse Pointe Democratic Women's Discussion Group which meets once a week.

Has Other Interests

She's a member of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters, the Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council and Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education. She reads constantly, voraciously, "like a house on fire."

That's characteristic of Newspaper People. Exes included.

Maya met Bill, originally from Dearborn, on the University of Michigan's Michigan Daily. "I was a junior night editor and he was a junior night editor . . .

"We were one of the first couples — I think there were only three in our U. of M. class — to be married before graduation. That situation's certainly changed!"

Maya sews. "I'm very tall, and I love textures and colors. Up until last year I made almost all my own clothes." She's contemplating a personal Renaissance.

"When the children were growing up I always said: 'When I get to be 50 I'm going to Cranbrook.' Well, I'm nearing there . . . And I really think I WILL go to Art School. 'Maybe not Cranbrook. That's pretty far. But SOMEWHERE . . .

"And here's something I'm VERY proud of: We went on the MORC (Midwest Ocean Racing Club) race from Sarnia to Alpena last year — and made it!"

That race took two-and-a-half out-of-the-water days. Plus six weeks out of Maya's life.

There was the Bringing The Boat To Sarnia Day, the Making It Ready Day, the Provisioning Day . . .

"We started out in a dead calm. And wound up crossing the finish line in gale winds! "Bill and I and the twins were aboard. We crewed two on and two off, Jamie and I, Laurie and Bill . . .

We'll be there.

And another celebrity . . . Dr. Robert J. Gaulker, comes to town next week too . . . Dr. Gaulker, Supervising Analyst, Philadelphia Psychoanalytic Institute . . . Clinical Assistant, Professor of Psychiatry, Temple University Medical School . . . in private practice, Psychoanalysis of Adolescents . . . appears Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock, as the final speaker in this season's Liggett School Lecture Series . . . His topic in Liggett's Kresge Auditorium will be "Perspective in Turbulent Times" . . . We'll be there . . .

Now how about some news . . . of Local Celebrities . . . Bet you didn't know that "We're All We've Got," theme song for this year's United Foundation Torch Drive, was developed as a part of the United Foundation Radio and Television Committee under the chairmanship of a Pointer? . . . He's Rod Burton, of Buckingham road . . .

And did you happen to catch . . . former Pointer Harold O. Smith in that recent segment of TV's "The Good Guys?" . . .

Ever want . . . to christen a ship? . . . or cut a ribbon? . . . Mary Louise (Mrs. William) Krebs, of Kenwood court, played a starring role in a recent ribbon-cutting ceremony . . . She officiated at the opening of Eastern Michigan University's Hoyt Residence Hall, part of the new Hoyt-Pittman-Hill Residence complex on the Ypsilanti campus . . . Why Mary Louise? . . . Well, her maiden name is Hoyt; she's the granddaughter of the late Charles Oliver Hoyt, professor of Pedagogy and head of the Department of Education from 1896 to 1928 during his tenure at Eastern, for whom Hoyt Hall is named . . . and she's Professor Hoyt's only living relative who's also an EMU alumna . . .

Speaking of "starring roles" . . . and Eastern Michigan University . . . Guess who's appearing in "Paint Your Wagon" at EMU's Daniel L. Quirk Auditorium through November 8? . . . None other than Robert Gonas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gonas, of Lakeland avenue . . . Bob's an EMU junior, Speech and Drama major . . . He probably wouldn't describe his role as "starring"—but he's up there on stage . . .

Yes, that WAS . . . Susan Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scott, of Ridgemont road, sharing honors on the inside front cover of a recent issue of LIFE magazine with a real live cougar . . . Beautiful Susan's been featured in many national newspaper, magazine and television ads . . . Remember when she told you all about her life as a New York model last August? . . . She made a fascinating—as well as gorgeous—Pointer of Interest . . .

If you'd like more info . . . on the ways and days of a top model we suggest a kaffeeklatsch with Judy (Mrs. Bruce) Bartsch, of Lakeland avenue . . .

Celebrities "en famille" . . . are the Steven J. Yays and the Ralph Vigliottis . . . We happen to think wider celebrity for these pairs of pairs wouldn't be amiss . . . The Yays, of Harvard road, celebrated their SIXTY-FIFTH wedding anniversary October 19, at a gathering with a few close friends and relatives in the Ballantyne road home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Pehrson . . . the Vigliottis are looking forward to November 27 when they'll celebrate SIXTY years of togetherness at a party in their North Renaud road residence . . . Expected to be present are FIVE children, THIRTEEN grandchildren, TWENTY-SIX great-grandchildren . . . and ONE great-great-grandchild! . . . Now that, right there, is a party! . . . Ralph, by the way, a native of San Felice, Italy, came to Detroit in 1907 while enroute to San Francisco . . . After 60 years we think it's safe to say he's no longer enroute . . .

PILFERINGS

The symbol of the mid-19th century was a pioneer family in the prairie schooner. The symbol of the mid-20th century is a crew in a space capsule—all the universe in view, but no room to turn around.

—R. J. Blakeley, Adult Leadership

An Easterner was being driven by a rancher over a blistering and almost barren stretch of West Texas when a strange bird scurried in front of them. Asked what it was, the rancher replied, "That's a bird of paradise."

The stranger from the East rode on in silence for a moment, then said, "Long way from home, isn't it?"

Seems as though everyone is taking "pot" shots at the younger generation, so in all fairness, the good deeds deserving publicity also. The following is from their brochure:

Some people wonder what the younger generation is coming to. On November 16, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 they're coming to Ford Auditorium.

They're coming to help the older generation.

On that day the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will present The Interlochen Arts Academy Orchestra in a performance of Mozart's Concerto No. 2, Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition, and Carl Nielsen's Symphony No. 2, "Four Temperaments." Nicholas Harsanyi will conduct.

All proceeds go to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Maintenance Fund, the Symphony's principal source of contributed support.

Tickets $5 at Hudson's and Grinnell's, as usual.
