

FEW VOTE IN WOODS ELECTION

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, April 2

BASEBALL COMMISSIONER Bowie Kuhn gave Denny McLain a suspension until July 1. The Tigers' pitching ace is also under indefinite probation and must report to the commissioner on his finances. The penalty was lighter than most people had expected.

REPRESENTATIVES OF DETROIT'S largest city government union overwhelmingly turned down Wednesday night Mayor Gribbs' offer of a six percent pay raise for all city workers. The meeting of the city workers was so heated some union officials predicted wildcat strikes by city employees on Thursday.

Friday, April 3

THE GOVERNMENT AND the seven national postal unions reached agreement Thursday on a six percent pay raise retroactive to December 27. The administration wants to see the increase extended to all government employees, civilian and military. Under the agreement postal employees would receive an additional eight percent boost dependent upon a reorganization of the Post Office.

A FEDERAL GRAND jury indicted 12 members of the revolutionary Weatherman faction of Students for a Democratic Society Thursday on charges of conspiring to incite riots in Chicago last October.

Saturday, April 4

PRESIDENT NIXON ASKED Congress Friday for a general postage rate increase up to 10 cents for a first-class letter, to pay for a 14 percent pay raise for postal workers. It appeared certain that lawmakers would approve the wage increases, but serious doubt hung over the presidential request for postal rate increases.

SPONSORS OF SATURDAY'S "march for victory" in Washington urged all patriotic and religious Americans to join them in a massive protest of President Nixon's "no-win" policy in Vietnam. "We may have 5,000 or we may get 100,000 people, I don't know," said radio preacher Carl McIntire, chief organizer of the demonstration and president of the International Council of Christian Churches.

Sunday, April 5

CURTIS CUTLER, 41-year-old U.S. Consul in Porto Alegre, Brazil, was reported in satisfactory condition at a hospital where surgeons removed a single slug from one of his lungs, inflicted by four gunmen, who tried to kidnap him early Sunday then shot him down in a wild street fight.

THE EFFORT to send the disputed Supreme Court nomination of Judge G. Harold Carswell to committee appeared defeated Sunday night when Senator Charles H. Percy, R-Illinois, said he would vote against recommitment.

Monday, April 6

IT IS BELIEVED that lawmakers in Lansing will turn down any requests by the University of Michigan for money to carry out the promises made to increase black enrollment to 10 percent of the student body and step up Negro campus programs. It is estimated that the promises made by U-M officials will cost an additional $5 million.

Tuesday, April 7

SUPREME COURT NOMINEE G. Harold Carswell won a major battle in the Senate Monday. By a vote of 52-44 the Senate rejected a move by Carswell's opponents to return the nomination to the Judiciary Committee as a means of killing it. However, Wednesday will be the final and most crucial vote in the long fight when the Senate decides whether to confirm or reject the 50-year-old federal circuit judge from Tallahassee, Fla.

STAR TIGER PITCHER Mickey Lolich hurled a 5-0 shut-out against the Washington Senators Monday. Lolich gave the Tigers a strongly pitched game, one which they controlled from the first inning on.

April's Practical Joke Not So Funny

The month of April waited an extra day to fool Pointers last week, when it allowed its weather to dump nearly five inches of wet, traffic-snarling snow on the community, dampening spirits and causing residents to wonder whether or not the arrival of Spring last month might have been a false alarm. This wintry scene on McKinley road showed conditions at mid-storm. Some April Fool's joke!

All Pointes Feel Crime Wave Impact

Continuing incidents of breaking and entering highlight week's list of thefts; Police kept busy

Escalating incidents of breaking and entering continued to plague Pointe police departments this week, as seven more such crimes were entered into police logs within the past seven days.

Woods public safety officers recorded two breaking and entering crimes within that community.

Woods officers responded on Wednesday, April 1, to a call from James P. Conroy, of 783 Cook road, indicating that his home had been burglarized.

Upon their arrival, officers spoke with the complainant, who stated that he had been absent from the home between the hours of 6 p.m. to 9:15 p.m. When he arrived home, he noticed that a rear door was standing wide open and it appeared somebody had entered the house.

Investigation by the public safety officers revealed a set of footprints in the fresh snow, which led to and from the rear door. The prints led south through the Hunt Club grounds onto Provincial road, where they disappeared.

Missing from an upstairs bedroom, was a 14-inch portable color television. Further investigation revealed that $100 in bills had been taken from a jewelry box in another bedroom.

Officers responded to a call from a neighbor of Wilson Scott, of 1836 Aline, on Friday, April 3, reporting a broken window in a rear door of that residence.

Sgt. Thomas Kane and Officer Mike Ferrence spoke with the

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Asks Residents to Support '70 Family Campaign Drive

First Week of Campaign Finds Fewer Families Contributing; Center Has Entered Its 21st Year of Community Service

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's 1970 Annual Family Participation Campaign solicitations should now have been received by all Grosse Pointe families in spite of postal delays. Also by now most families should have returned from the Easter spring vacations which took so many out of the city. The Center, therefore, anxiously awaits response to the folded rotogravure type brochure which highlights some of the many activities and services provided by the Memorial for the community in this its 21st year of being.

In the first week of the campaign when many still had not received their brochures or were away just $13,233 was contributed by 723 families as compared with $20,980 from 1,249 families over the same length of time in 1969. However, comparing date to date the campaign is ahead of last year since solicitation was sent out a week earlier this spring.

Gift of Algers
Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center 21 years ago was given outright and forever to the communities as a civic and cultural center by the Russell A. Algers family. The five acres of choice centrally located lake front property with its gardens and imposing Italian Renaissance building cost Grosse Pointers nothing. Later William H. Fries donated the beautiful theatre and ballroom which bear his name. Now annually over 225,000 citizens, including repeats, enjoy and use these facilities in a great variety of activities which provide something for every age group from child to senior citizen and offers something for every interest. To quote the brochure, "There couldn't be more of a community center in every sense of the term than the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. This Center more than any other institution brings together children and adults from all five Grosse Pointe communities. Keeping this institution alive and growing is made possible through your contribution to this annual Family Participation Campaign."

Nearly Self-Supporting
War Memorial actively carries on in the community the activities and kind of living for which Grosse Pointers fought and died. It takes no tax monies or United Foundation funds. It is three quarters self-sustaining through fees which cover the cost of activities, services and accommodations and it is just funds for the maintenance and upkeep of the Center that is sought from the community. Due to careful budgeting this sum, $85,000, has not been increased one cent over last year in spite of rising costs.

Won't you protect this great gift to the community which serves you in so many ways? Your gift is income tax deductible and regardless of size is much needed and will be greatly appreciated.

Following are some of the many generous donors heard from in the first week of this drive to whom the Center's Board of Directors wish to express their deepest appreciation:

Gizi Szanto Will Appear On April 19

Hungarian-born Pianist Will Make Third Appearance with GP Symphony Orchestra

Pianist Gizi Szanto will be making her third appearance as a soloist with the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra at its fourth concert of the 1969-70 season, to be given on Sunday, April 19, at 3:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center of the Grosse Pointe North High School, Vernier at Morningside, Grosse Pointe Woods. She will perform Mozart's Concerto No. 21 in C Major.

Miss Szanto, a Hungarian born pianist who for a number of years has made Detroit her home, was a scholarship student of Isidor Philip at the American Conservatory in Fontainebleau and was awarded an Artist's Diploma with highest honors from that famed conservatory.

Miss Szanto has concertized extensively in the United States, Canada, and Europe. She has appeared as a soloist with the Detroit Symphony six times, with the Detroit Women's Symphony, five times. In Michigan she has also appeared with the Lansing, Saginaw, Battle Creek and Northwest Michigan Symphony Orchestras.

As an interpreter of Mozart's music Miss Szanto has created an enviable reputation. The city of Salzburg presented her with the Max Reinhardt Medal for her contribution to furthering the music of Mozart. Miss Szanto, a member of Sigma Alpha Iota and former president of the Tuesday Musicale, is a well known teacher of piano in Detroit as well as a member of the faculty of the National Music Camp at Interlochen.

Detroit Free Press music critic Collins George has described a performance by Miss Szanto as "... the clearest, most expressive Mozart offering heard in Detroit recently."

Jay Carr, Detroit News music critic, has described Miss Szanto's performance of Mozart as "... sensitively shaped, pliant, and communicative."

The Grosse Pointe Symphony program for the afternoon of April 19th, to be conducted by Felix Resnick, is as follows: Overture to Colas Breugnot by Kabalevsky; Mozart's Concerto No. 21 in C Major with Gizi Szanto, pianist; prelude to The Afternoon of a Faun by Debussy; and Respighi's Pines of Rome.

Mercury Poisoned Fish Pose Threat In Lake St. Clair

U.S. Food and Drug Administration in Detroit Warns Sport Fishermen That They Should Use Caution; Eating of Game Is Not Advised

By Phil Loranger

Alarmed over confirmed reports that Lake St. Clair game fish contain enough mercury to pose as a health hazard to sport fishermen who eat them, the NEWS this week contacted the U.S. Food and Drug Administration in an effort to find out just how serious the problem is.

"Although we have no jurisdiction in the area of ordering persons to halt their fishing, we are advising fishermen to use their own judgment in both catching and eating these fish until we know the results of our analyses," Diane Place, consumer specialist for the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, Detroit District, told the NEWS. "Our tests on mercury take much longer than those we run for pesticides and we don't expect to come up with any answers overnight."

The presence of mercury was first reported last week, when Canadian authorities discovered it in Lake St. Clair walleyes. The Canadian officials claimed the fish contained an average of 1.36 parts per million of mercury. The U.S. government tolerance level is a flat zero.

The Canadians further claim that the situation is "extremely serious" and eating the fish could "likely be fatal."

The Dow Chemical Company, located in Sarnia, Ontario, Canada, is the only known source of mercury pollution on the St. Clair River, which empties directly into the Lake. Canadians have been prohibited from conducting any commercial fishing operations in the Canadian portion of Lake St. Clair.

"This actually hampers us," said Diane. "We rely on other agencies' and inter-state commerce in our data-gathering process. With the elimination of fish from Canada, we are hard-pressed to collect information."

The Food and Drug Administration has conducted tests on only a few fish so far. Of these, only a small portion contained mercury and the results have been too small to have any meaning.

"This problem has attracted the attention of the news media throughout the nation," added Diane. "We are going to thoroughly examine the mercury reports and forward our findings to the Bureau of Medicine in Washington, D.C., for evaluation."

Mercury is a silver-white, heavier-than-water substance, which, after being dumped into the Lake, settles to the bottom, where the larger fish roam in search for food. The fish swallow the mercury, when feeding on the underwater plant life.

Although most officials agree that it will take at least a few months to rid the Lake of the poisonous toxin, it probably will take even longer.

Meanwhile, Pointe fishermen are eagerly awaiting the start of another season and are faced with being robbed of another of life's pleasures because of pollution, which daily becomes more of a threat to mankind's very existence.

LaPratt said that he had never seen anything comparable to this type of vandalism, and pointed to the 34 car window "shoot-outs" which occurred during the night of Saturday, February 7, between the hours of 9 p.m. and midnight.

At the time, windows of parked vehicles were either shattered or damaged, as the vandals drove up and down

18th Annual Concert Set For April 12

Grosse Pointe Community Chorus Will Express the Joy of Singing in Spring Show at North High School

The joy of singing will be expressed by members of the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus at their 18th Annual Spring Concert on Sunday, April 12, 1970, at 3 p.m. at the new Grosse Pointe North High School theatre near Vernier Road and Morningside Drive in Grosse Pointe Woods.

Director Richard Johns, accompanist, Jerry Hughes, and board members have arranged a program to entertain the entire family with numbers ranging from "Sheep May Safely Graze" by J. S. Bach to selections from "West Side Story" and "Hair."

Of particular interest, the Chorus will sing five songs from A. A. Milne's "When We Were Very Young" arranged by Mr. William Gard of Dean Lane; and the Simon and Garfunkel Canticle, "Scarborough Fair," especially arranged with guitar accompaniment by the Chorus's assistant conductor, Mrs. Jerry (Sue) Hughes. The guitars will be strummed by Miss Julie Shaheen of Yorkshire Road and Miss Carol Kalamajka of Detroit. Vocal solos to be heard at the concert will be sung by Miss Anne Wagner and Mrs. Donna Ray Doycher, sopranos; Mr. Richard Johns, tenor and Mr. Walter Schlichting, bass.

Also featured will be Mr. Frank Krager, of Hunt Club Drive, a Grosse Pointe North High School sophomore percussion student who recently distinguished himself and our community at the Michigan School Band Orchestra Association's State Solo and Ensemble Festival by receiving two first place awards for solo performance and a first place award for Ensemble Conducting and Original Composition. He and his fellow percussion students will present this original composition, called "Tritemento," at the concert.

Officers of the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus are: Mr. James Kelley, President; Mrs. Martin Schmidt, Vice-President; Miss Claire Yuhase, Secretary and Mrs. Eleanor J. Wise, Treasurer.

Tickets for this concert can be purchased at the box office. Prices are $1.25 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Light Turnout Big Surprise To Officials

Only 3,429 Residents Brave Gray Day to Cast Ballots; Reseat All Incumbents Except One.

By Pepper Whitelaw

What promised to be a hotly contested race for council in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, turned out to be just another Pointe election marked with apathy. Only 3,429 persons balloted out of 12,579 registered voters. This came as a surprise to Woods officials who anticipated a record turnout since 10 persons were trying for the three Council seats.

All incumbents were reelected with the exception of Donald D. Cook who failed to garner enough votes for re-election. His seat will be filled by George S. Freeman, 44, of Briarcliff drive. Freeman eased out Charles F. Woodbury Jr. by a scant 23 votes.

Here's how the balloting went:

Mayor Kenneth McLeod (incumbent) running unopposed 2,444 votes.
Don J. Goodrow (incumbent Judge) defeated Frank Codino. Goodrow received 2,029 Codino received 1,021.
Marvin R. Boutin (incumbent) 1,404.
William F. Huettelman (incumbent) 1,339.
George S. Freeman 1,288.
Charles F. Woodbury, Jr. 1,265.
Robert E. McKenna 988.
Donald D. Cook (incumbent) 952.
Perry W. Lewis 511.
Mary Lee Kelly 496.
Frank S. Perkins, Jr. 345.
Bert H. Wicking 317.

The Board of Education has appointed a committee of local insurance men to review specifications for its comprehensive business insurance policy. At the present time it is planned that approved specifications will be available to insurance bidders after the April 13 meeting.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

College Prexies Here On April 12

Two presidents of Episcopal colleges will speak in the Grosse Pointes on Sunday, April 12. Dr. Prezell R. Robinson, president of St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, North Carolina will speak at the 9:30 and 11:15 services at St. Michael's Church, Grosse Pointe Woods. He is a graduate of St. Augustine's College and holds a Master's Degree and a Doctor of Education from Cornell University.

Dr. Reamer Kline, president of Bard College, Annandale-on-Hudson, will occupy the pulpit at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe Farms at 9:30 and 11:15 also. Dr. Kline who has had a long and distinguished career is a founding member of the Association of Episcopal Colleges. Both men are in Detroit to attend the annual meeting of the Association of Episcopal College Presidents.

STARLING VISITS SPARROWS

City police received a call on Thursday, April 2, from a University place resident, reporting a bird in the house. On arrival Officer Ronald Pryor captured and released the bird, which was a starling. When getting the information for his report Pryor was surprised to find that the resident's name was Sparrows, Mrs. Herbert G. Sparrows, III ... birds of a feather, flock together isn't so far fetched is it?

Stupid BB-Firing Vandals Damage More Parked Cars

Park police are on the lookout for those "stupid, empty-headed idiots" whose idea of having a good time is to shoot BB pellets at, and breaking car windows. In most cases, the cost of replacing the glass falls on the car owner.

Det. Sgt. James LaPratt, and Dets. Robert Salfyrd and Charles Petrie, have promised full prosecution of any one apprehended and charged with this type of vandalism.

LaPratt said that he had never seen anything comparable to this type of vandalism, and pointed to the 34 car window "shoot-outs" which occurred during the night of Saturday, February 7, between the hours of 9 p.m. and midnight.

Grayton, Bishop, Yorkshire and Devonshire.

On Saturday, April 4, Park police received six complaints of owners who angrily reported that their car windows had been shattered while parked in front of their homes in Lakepointe, Balfour and Middlesex. Officers taking the report, said they checked the neighborhoods, and discovered a large number of chipped or broken windows of automobiles, which had not been reported. All incidents took place during the dark hours of night.

"I simply cannot understand what kind of 'kick' those stupid, empty-headed idiots get out of breaking car windows," LaPratt said. "I see no point in this type of vandalism, or any vandalism, for that matter. Wanton destruction of property, either

INTEGRATION AND PROPERTY VALUES

Contrary to the myth that integration means lowered property values, Luigi Laurenti's Property Values and Race (U. of California Press) shows that when neighborhoods were racially mixed, only 15% showed a drop in property values, while in 40% there was no difference, and in 45% property values rose appreciably.

Mr. Laurenti's study includes a five year analysis of 10,000 home sales in Oakland, San Francisco, and Philadelphia, undertaken with the aid of expert appraisers and local brokers, and including data based on years of research.

North Central Association Sends Team to South High

April 14-16 marks the long-awaited visit of the Accreditation Team of the North Central Association to Grosse Pointe South High School. Principal Jerry J. Gerich said that the staff has involved itself in a series of in-depth studies and activities in preparation for the forthcoming visit which will determine the school's future standing with the Association.

The program of self-study began with the appointment of a Steering Committee, continued with the selection of a North Central handbook to follow, and included the writing of a school philosophy. Other steps, according to Principal Gerich, were the organization and implementation of departmental self-study committees, presentations by each department to the entire staff, and Steering Committee presentations to non-faculty groups.

Jack Coury, social studies instructor at South, served as Chairman of the Steering Committee. He was assisted by Richard Alexander (guidance), Mrs. Loujane Beynon (practical arts), Mrs. Rita Cary and Mrs. Ann Lewis (foreign language), George Descamps (science), Miss Frances French (administration), Mrs. Harriet Malone (English), Miss Ottilia Schubert (social studies), Jack Summers (fine arts), and Don Yerkes (mathematics).

The chairman of the visitation team is Richard Lyden, Principal of Groves High School in Birmingham. The group due in Grosse Pointe next week includes approximately 40 educators and includes administrators, college professors, and high school teachers.

Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, said that one statement from Principal Gerich's paper, "Thoughts on the Value of Accreditation by Voluntary Regional Associations," seemed especially relevant to him at a time when many districts throughout Michigan appear to be abdicating their control of education at the local level by refusing to support operational millages.

"The American system of education from its inception has been kept as close to the local community as possible. While state control is constitutionally empowered, the experience has been to give the local school district wide latitude and broad scope in carrying out the authority delegated by the states. Fundamental educational decisions, policy determination, and prime funding have traditionally been local operations in the structure of American Education."

South High School's Statement of Philosophy and Objectives follows: "The educational process should reflect the rights and freedoms as well as the obligations and responsibilities inherent in the traditions and ideals of our country."

"The school environment influences the development of young people through curricular and extracurricular activities. The school seeks to provide each individual with opportunities to enhance his feeling of worthiness and view his educational experience as an integral part of his life."

"The instructional program is committed to the development of teaching strategies that stress the inquiry method, conceptual approach, individualized instruction, and independent study."

"In accordance with this philosophy, the school attempts to help each student to:

1. Acquire the skills of observing, organizing and analyzing information and the tools for communicating ideas.
2. Select a satisfactory career commensurate with capabilities and interests.
3. Appreciate the value of good physical and mental health.
4. Develop responsible attitudes toward authority, property, self, and others.
5. Uphold personal ideals and convictions, while maintaining an open mind.
6. Develop interests which provide for the creative use to leisure time.
7. Gain insight into the role of home and community in his development.
8. Meet the needs of a changing society in the world community.

"Effective learning situations enable the young person to accept responsibility and to experience teamwork, competition, and leadership. The home, the community, and the school, working together, provide the climate in which the young person can become an effective member of society."

OPINIONS DIFFER

Any man who insists women's place is in the home will always find his most appreciative audience at the club.

Feel Crime Wave Effects

neighbor, who said her son told her about the condition of the door. The officers entered the home and found that a breaking and entering had taken place.

A downstairs bedroom had been ransacked and dresser drawers in another bedroom had been pulled out. Prints leading from the rear door of the home were traced to where they disappeared in the rear of the Grosse Pointe Baptist church. Investigation continues in that case.

In the City, officers reported two breaking and enterings and an attempted crime of the same nature.

Leonard Szydzik, a delivery man for Sanders store, at 17043 Kercheval, found both rear doors of that business locked as usual upon reporting to work on Monday, April 6, but noticed that the lock was off the front door. Upon checking the safe room, he saw two large screwdrivers on the floor in front of the safe.

He immediately notified the store manager, who called the City police. Officers checked the scene and found that one section of glass had been broken out of the skylight on the roof of the store. A padlock on a metal grating in the roof had been knocked off and the dial and knob of the safe had been smashed. Apparently, no entry was gained to the safe, which contained about $900.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, of 1 Woodland place, called City police last week to report a thorough ransacking of her home.

Mrs. Wilson said she had left her home at about 5:30 p.m. with her daughter to take her son to the airport. A boarder at the residence, Lou Maxon, left shortly thereafter to work at the Campus Shop.

When the lady returned at about 8 p.m., she found the front door standing wide open and evidence that somebody had entered her home.

Investigation revealed that the upstairs had been ransacked by burglars and an extensive number of items were missing.

Taken from the home were a 12-inch portable television set, a 19-inch Panasonic TV, a 19-inch portable color television set, two tape cassettes, a stereo amplifier, an automatic turntable and $40 in cash. The money was taken from a chest in one of the bedrooms.

Officers believe that entry to the home was gained through the double doors of the back porch which were left unlocked.

Douglas Lott, of 601 Washington, also reported a case of breaking and entering into his home on Tuesday, March 31.

Lott told investigating officers that he had left home on that date at about 8:30 p.m. and returned shortly before 11 p.m. and found his front door ajar.

Missing from his home was a fifth of Canadian whisky, 20 stereo records and a 19-inch portable television set.

Park police reported that Pierce Middle School was burglarized on Saturday, April 4.

Entry into the building was gained by breaking the glass of a rear window in a first floor classroom. The thieves broke through the door into the Public Library branch, where they completely smashed a vending machine and took an undetermined amount of change.

The bandits proceeded to enter the library itself, taking $35 from a cash register and ransacking the offices. They reentered the school building, smashing desks and taking some money from the desk of the assistant principal. Blood spots left at the scene indicated that the thief or thieves were injured during the crime.

Delivery Man Beaten, Robbed

An employee of Marino's Restaurant, 17447 Mack avenue, while making a pizza delivery, was beaten and robbed by two teenage boys on Tuesday, March 31, according to information released by Farms police.

The victim, Clay Baldwin, of 2049 Van Antwerp, authorities said that a call was received to make a delivery to 321 Merriweather, late Tuesday night. The place was the residence of regular customers, Baldwin said.

He said that he parked his delivery truck in the driveway of the Merriweather address. He noticed the garage door open and the house in darkness, but he walked to the front of the building, with the package in hand.

Baldwin said that as he approached the front door, two young males leaped at him from behind a row of bushes near the right side of the porch, and knocked him to the ground, face down. The pair hit him about the head, and took his wallet from his back pocket. It contained about $4, his license, and personal papers, the victim told police.

After taking his wallet, the teenagers fled on foot, going south on Merriweather, and east between houses and disappeared.

Baldwin said he could only describe one of his assailants, who he said was about 18 years old, about six feet tall, between 170 and 180 pounds, with medium length hair, and wearing a three-quarter length dark jacket and dark trousers.

The matter was referred to officers of the Detective Bureau.

Community Gets Warning

peers begin to dominate the scene. The youthful tendency to experiment in the substance abuse area continues with attention turning from glue sniffing to marijuana. The middle school years mark the phasing out of the inhalation stage to the actual use of drugs, though on a limited basis. These data show that middle school students recognize the presence of a drug problem.

As reported earlier, the Grosse Pointe data showed that 36% of the senior high school students rate the drug problem as serious, although 73% have never been involved with drugs in any manner. Peer pressure reaches a high level of activity in the senior high school. The shift from inhalation to drugs that was noted through the middle schools is virtually complete.

Although students use and transfer drugs in numerous places within the community, the maximum activity appears to occur in private homes, according to the data.

School officials said that all fifth and sixth graders in the local public schools were polled, and 10% of randomly selected students in grades seven through twelve were included in the probability sampling.

"Ours is a drug-oriented society," Dr. Spagnoli said. "It must appear to youngsters who spend a great deal of time watching television that no suffering is necessary. Both the advertising and many of the stories seem to promise a euphoric state for most people as being the ideal," he said. Dr. Spagnoli said that although the problem is one of community-wide nature, the schools have been moving as fast as possible in many different ways to solve it.

These include workshops currently being held with a total enrollment of 135 teachers, including local parochial personnel. In addition, drug education is a "top priority" agenda item in the curriculum council of each of the system's 10 elementary, three middle, and 2 senior high schools. Informational kits for teachers' use have been placed in each school. The various PTA groups have also sponsored meetings on the drug topic.

public or private, by vandals, illustrates what small minds these vandals have.

When, and if, BB gun wielding vandals, or vandals using any type of missiles to cause damage, are apprehended, the detectives said, their department will press for full prosecution and penalty. Under a Park city ordinance, on arrest and conviction, a vandal can receive 90 days in jail, or a $100 fine, or both.

If damages incurred are $100 or more, then it becomes a felony under a State law, in which case, the vandals can receive a stiffer penalty in circuit court.

Where juveniles are concerned, under Michigan law, parents are responsible for any damages caused by their offsprings, and the parents are obligated to make restitution. Not only this, but there might be punishment meted out by the Juvenile Court authorities, to the young culprits involved.

Community Services Offers Wide-Range Adult Classes

Spring is here and with it the beginning of another season of Adult Education Classes being offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System.

This year more than ever before offerings are available to over 60 of them... ranging from Bridge (always a favorite) to Foreign Languages.

Are you one of those housewives who has been aching to get out and do something? This is your opportunity. Have you and your husband spent a rather sedentary winter? Dad at the old television set viewing athletic activities and you with your knitting? Why not enroll on a duo-basis... have your hubby try Volley ball... and you enroll in one of those tennis classes. You'll shock the small fry in the house with your joint athletic prowess.

Or has winter been a time of rather dull and boring menus? Cooking is being offered and promises lots of new and exciting recipes to tickle your family's palates.

Or has winter let you with a yen for the ethereal? How about taking a course in creative writing, arts and crafts or music and dance?

Or if you decided that you want to try the intellectual bit how about a course in French, German or Spanish? Si?

After a long cold winter these spring courses sound like just the tonic we all need. Call the Department of Community Services NOW at 885-3808 or 885-0271 and make your reservation.

Farms Submits Building Report

The Farms Building Department approved one permit for residential construction during March, for a home worth $25,000, according to information released by John DeFoe, director of Public Services. The application for this type of permit was the first since the beginning of the year.

Records disclose that only one residential construction permit, for a home valued at $80,000, was granted in March 1969, which was also the only one since January 1.

Last month, a total of five permits were okayed for miscellaneous constructions (garages, additions, etc.), valued at a total of $11,000, whereas in March 1969, the total permits granted were 12, having a valuation of $39,950.

The five miscellaneous permits cleared last month makes a total of 14 approved so far this year, as compared to 25 for the same period in 1969, with total valuations of $101,000 and $157,150, respectively.

No applications were received for commercial construction permits, and none for nonassessable buildings.

The lone permit granted last month, was for a new building at 375 Kercheval avenue.

Half the world doesn't know how the other half lives, but it has its suspicions. There are only a few things money won't buy—and very few people want them.

Are your important papers kept together in a safe place? Does your insurance sufficiently protect you from lawsuits, results from accidents? Are your home and personal effects insured? Do you have some cash in a savings account which you could fall back on in an emergency?

These are just some of the questions being forwarded by representatives of the law, banking, insurance and accounting fields during Family Affairs Month.

FAM is being conducted through April as a public service by these professionals in an effort to help families take stock of their financial affairs and establish plans for financial security and retirement.

Pointers Ralph J. Ladd, of Doyle Place West, is general chairman of the program for Metropolitan Detroit. He is president of the Michigan Mutual Liability Corporation. Robert L. White, a partner of Alexander Grant and Company, who lives on Westchester avenue, is vice-chairman.

Pointers serving on the Advisory Committee included Gerald E. Warren, of Merriweather road, vice-president of National Bank of Detroit; and David D. Williams, of Lakeshore road, Senior Vice-President of the same bank.

During this month these professionals will remind the public of the need to establish plans etc. through television spot announcements, local and metropolitan newspapers.

They will follow-up these reminders with a Speakers Bureau composed of professional from the fields of law, banking, insurance and certified public accounting, who will address PTA groups, Service Clubs, men's and women's organizations, free of charge, with suggestions on all aspects of planning for future financial security.

Every bank in the Detroit area and suburbs have Family Affairs Month check lists available for their patrons free of charge.

One dandelion is a lovely thing...

...but a lawn full is a mess!

There may not be a dandelion in sight right now, but before long they'll start to bloom. One is almost pretty. And certainly there's no worry if you have one or two in your lawn. But unfortunately, one dandelion generally means more—lots more. And that makes your lawn look a mess. Fortunately, however, Scotts has two products that clear out dandelions easily and surely (see below). Select the one which suits your needs, and spread it on your lawn after dandelions start to bloom.

To clear them out as you fertilize...

TURF BUILDER PLUS 2 is the answer. It takes care of dandelions and a couple dozen other non-grass weeds. PLUS-2 also fertilizes at the same time and helps good grass fill in where dandelions used to be. Stock up now while it's on sale.

To clear them out without fertilizing...

If you've already fed your lawn recently and dandelions and other non-grass weeds are a problem, then Scotts KANSEL is the answer. KANSEL gives you all the benefits of Plus-2, minus the fertilizer. It's sale priced now too.

The day the Free Press didn't come.

It started about 6:30, the time Mr. Randolph usually got the paper. It wasn't there. He told his wife Martha. "It'll be here shortly," she said calmly, "The boy is never late."

But it didn't come.

7:30. Her husband went to work. No Free Press.

7:45. The children went to school.

Mrs. Martha J. Randolph, wife, mother, substitute bowler, was left alone without the Free Press.

"What'll I do?" she said as she spilled her coffee, "Alone without the Free Press, it's never happened before."

Her hands began to tremble.

There were no women's pages to relax her. No entertainment section to fill her in on the night life. No fashion hints. No want ads. No recipes. No Action Line. No shopping information.

Just then she heard the paper boy at the door.

"Where have you been?" she said, snatching the paper from his hand. "I'm sorry Mrs. Randolph," the boy said meekly, "I hope you're not mad."

Suddenly things seemed right again.

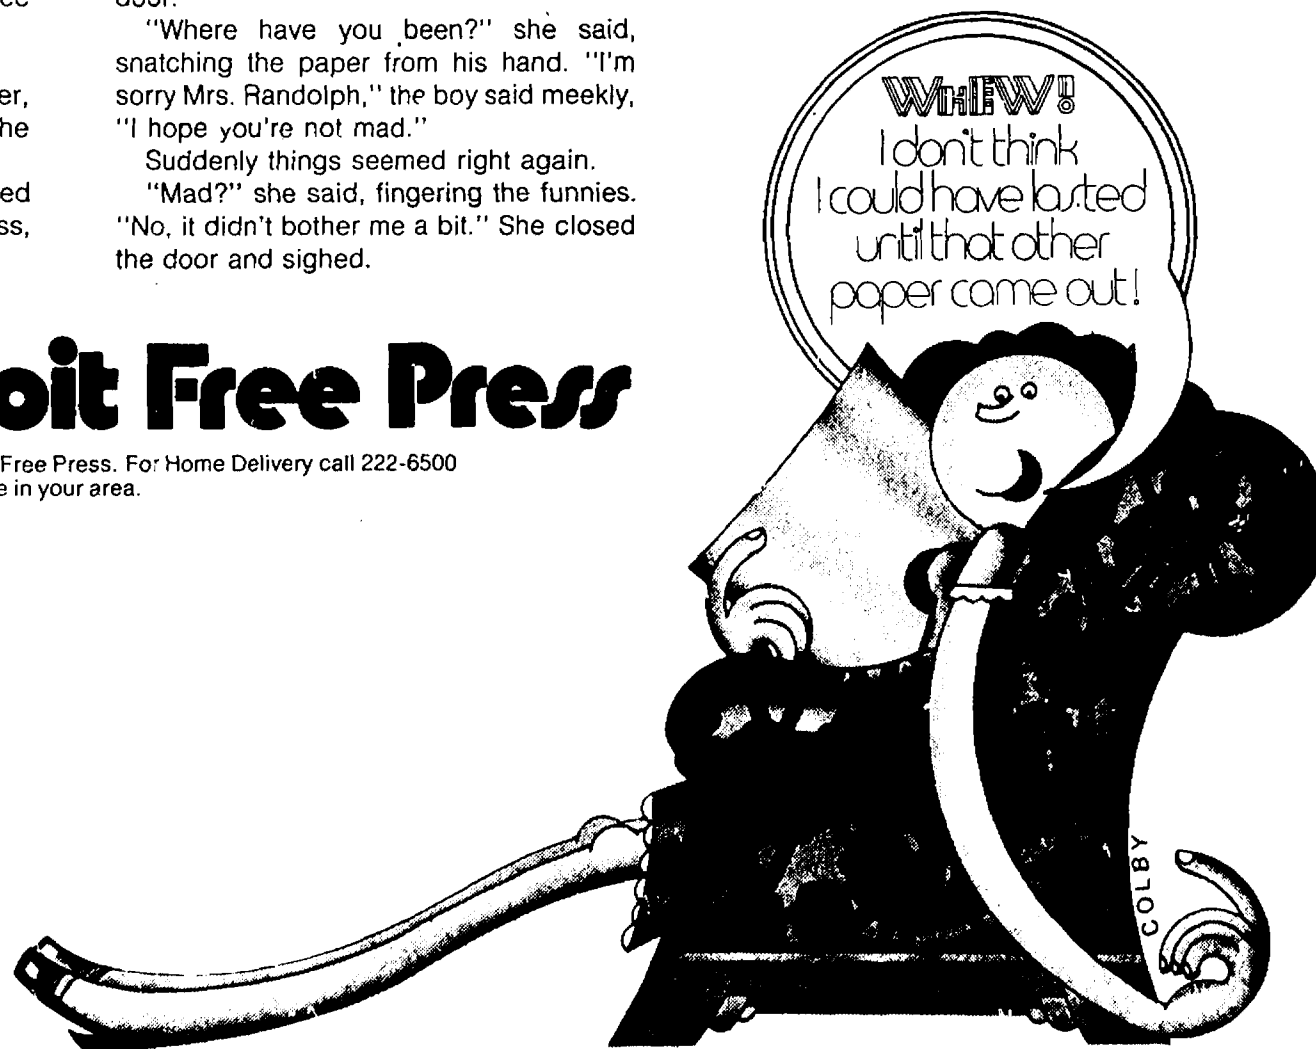

"Mad?" she said, fingering the funnies. "No, it didn't bother me a bit." She closed the door and sighed.

"Good heavens," she gasped, "What do women do without the Free Press in the morning? I don't think I could have lasted until that other paper comes out."

Moral of the story: If your morning is rather empty, fill it with the Free Press. It gives you so much more than just the news.

Planet-Watchers Busy This Month

All of the planets can be seen for varying lengths of time in April, according to University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

For this reason, she says, this year's April is "really a month of planets."

Jupiter, the largest of the planets, is the only one that will shine the whole night through. Prof. Losh points out, "Located in the constellation of Virgo, it comes over the eastern horizon around sunset, and is found to the east of Spica."

In the same region another planet, Uranus, is located to the north and west of Spica and Jupiter. Uranus is visible to the unaided eye on a clear moonless night. Prof. Losh says.

In the same general vicinity is Neptune, farther east and to the south of Jupiter. A little farther west is found the faint Pluto. Optical aid is necessary to view both Neptune and Pluto, Prof. Losh says.

Saturn sets in the west about the same hour as Jupiter is rising in the east, the U-M astronomer explains. Mars will be visible throughout the month of April in the southwestern sky as a reddish object.

On April 18, Mercury will reach its greatest angular distance from the sun, and might be spotted just above the western horizon, Prof. Losh says.

The other four days are named after Scandinavian gods . . . Tuesday after the War-god - TIV, Wednesday after the god of Storm - WODEN, Thursday and Friday after the god of Thunder - THOR and his wife - FRIGGA, herself the goddess of Love.

Ninth-Grade Civics Course Is Exciting at North High

By Pepper Whitelaw

Ninth Grade Civics-Required. Doesn't sound too exciting at first, but listen to what's happened to civics' teaching since our school days.

At North High School, Ernest J. Hurst and some ninth grade volunteers recently returned from a trip to Lansing, where they met Governor Milliken, toured the Capitol, visited Michigan State's Museum (where exhibits on Michigan history are featured) and spoke to Governor Milliken's aid-in-charge-of-policies-and-programs, James C. Kellogg. (Mr. Kellogg was a student of Mr. Hurst's some 20 years.)

The students had the opportunity to ask Mr. Kellogg about the Education Reform Bill, the pollution problem on Lake St. Clair and whether the Governor plans to run for re-election.

On their way home the students stopped at the State of Michigan, Historical Museum.

This is just a part of Ninth Grade Civics-Required. Sounds interesting doesn't it? Well, sit tight there's more.

The course is a combination of textbook study, visual aid study and live (and lively) speakers. Throughout the year representatives from local and state government speak to the students... men like Lucien Nedzi (one of the pupils' favorites) and State Representative Robert Waldron. Just this past week State Senator Charles Youngblood addressed the youngsters.

The course covers Immigration, Naturalization; Family and Religion in America; Education in American (national, state and local); Public Opinion and Communication; Voting and Political Parties; Taxation (national, state and local); Conservation; The U.S. Constitution; Bill of Rights; and Drug Abuse Program, Smoking Problem, Alcohol Problem.

It also includes Kuder interest inventory when ninth grade counselors meet with students for "three year planning" of their careers. At this time they have the opportunity to explore and study careers open to them.

They also study Congress and are introduced to the Federal Government Unit; Foreign Relations; the Cold War and Communism; Michigan and State Government; Local Government; Urban Affairs and Problems; The American Negro's Urban Problems; The American Economic System; Comparative Economic Systems; Business Organization; Rise of Organized Labor; Consumer Economics, and Providing Economic Security.

The entire course is then reviewed at the end of the semester.

Mr. Hurst told the NEWS that school administrators have encouraged the use of speakers to implement the usual teaching aids. Speakers, closely related to the current subject under discussion, are invited regularly to give the youngsters an opportunity to hear about the subject first hand.

Mr. Hurst said that to date the most popular course topics appear to be the Career Study unit and the Urban Affairs unit, interest in the course usually accelerates when professional speakers appear.

Ninth Grade Civics-Required sounds a lot more interesting now doesn't it?

Fire Damages Park Residence

A fire severely damaged the basement of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roman Lester, 1135 Lakeside, on Sunday, April 5. Park Fire Chief Henry DeClerck said that the fire started while Mrs. Lester was cleaning her husband's neckties with gasoline, and she was doing the chore too close to the basement incinerator.

The alarm was relayed to the fire department by Park police, who in turn relayed the message from the Detroit Fire Department, where the alarm was originally turned in.

Chief DeClerck said that the fire caused considerable damage to the basement ceiling and wall, the vestibule and the stairway. Firemen battled the flames for 30 minutes before returning to the station. The actual amount of damage will have to be determined by insurance adjusters, it was said.

The man at the top is the one who has the habit of getting to the bottom of things.

A TO Z Guide Offered At Show

An "A to Z" guide to antiques and collecting is contained in the wide selection of reference works at the Grosse Pointe Rotary Fifteenth Annual Antiques Show-Sale, in the War Memorial Center, Friday through Sunday, April 24, 25, and 26.

Titles range from American Art Glass Nouveau through Antique Jewelry Identification, Art of Decoy, Bennington Pottery and Porcelain, Button Parade, Cambridge Ohio Glass, Powder Flasks, and Staffordshire Blue China, to Weathered and Whittled, Reddiging the West, and a host of others.

George Bolton, of Great Lakes Books, Cleveland, will bring his complete selection of books on antiques, art, artifacts, collections, and collecting to Grosse Pointe for the first time in this show.

After the show visitor equips himself with reference works for his library, he can add to his collections in almost any category of antiques or collectibles from the other exhibits.

Displays tastefully arranged for the browser or buyer will offer tapestries (including some of the rare "Forbidden Stitch" tapestries), furniture, dolls, tools, lamps, china, jewelry, porcelain, Oriental rugs, statuary, primitives, Lake Michigan shipwreck salvage furniture, art glass, and silver, to name only a sampling.

This year's show, Grosse Pointe Rotary's Fifteenth Annual Antiques Show-Sale, will bring several outstanding exhibitors into Grosse Pointe for the first time in any show, according to an announcement by Dr. Max L. Gardner, chairman, and Stephen A. Balogh, president of Grosse Pointe Rotary.

Proceeds from the antique show make possible Grosse Pointe Rotary's continued support of many educational and civic projects, including scholarships, student assistance, and Family Life Education Council. Tickets may be purchased from Rotary Club members or at the door.

Old time movies will be shown continuously in Fries Auditorium from 5:00 to 9:00 p.m., and food service will be available on the premises. Show visitors will park free on the grounds at War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore Drive. Hours of the Fifteenth Annual Grosse Pointe Rotary Antique Show-Sale will be from 1:00 to 10:00 p.m., Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, April 24, 25, and 26.

Children Offered French-German

Both beginning French and German classes for children of elementary school age will be taught at Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Saturday mornings this spring. Both courses begin this week end Saturday, April 11.

The German class will convene from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. under the direction of John Prost, German teacher on the faculty of Kimball High School, Royal Oak. Mr. Prost is a native of Germany though now a U.S. citizen with a B.A. and Education degrees from Wayne State University. In addition to his regular German classes, he formerly taught evenings at St. Petrus German School in Detroit.

Mr. Prost is the young father of two young boys himself and is adept at getting young people to understand and talk a language in addition to English. This he stresses rather than grammar. They will, of course, learn the alphabet phonetically in German, learn basic vocabulary, simple stories and songs as well as beginning conversation. The fee is $20 for ten 1½ hour lessons.

French for children will begin a new term Saturday morning, April 11, under the instruction of Mlle Henriette LaCroix. There will be two groups meeting an hour each—at 10 o'clock and again at 11 o'clock. The children will be assigned to one or the other according to ability and experience rather than age. Mlle LaCroix is a native of Cognac, France where the splendid brandies of the same name are distilled; in fact, her father produced the corks for the principle bottlings. She has taught many seasons in the Grosse Pointe Board of Education's Community Services program and also at the War Memorial. In her classes, the children learn simple French conversation, grammar and idioms as well as enjoying songs and stories in French. The fee is $15 for 10 one hour lessons.

PWP To Meet Friday, April 10

Mrs. Alice Deming, co-ordinator and moderator for "Women Alone" at Oakland University, will address the Grosse Pointe chapter of Parents Without Partners on Friday, April 10, at 8:30 o'clock, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Her topic will be "Stop the World—I Want To Get On." She will discuss the importance of creative involvement of the single woman in the social and business world.

U-L Vies On High School Bowl

University-Liggett School meets Detroit Country Day on WWJ-TV's "High School Bowl," this Saturday, April 11, 1 o'clock.

The weekly program matches two teams of scholars from Detroit-area schools in a contest of current events knowledge. Jim Wood serves as moderator. Patterned after NBC's "College Bowl," WWJ-TV's program "toss-up" questions to each team of four panelists. The first team to sound a special buzzer and give the correct answer then gets a chance at a "Bonus" question. Each of these count 20-35 points.

Team members and their coaches are awarded a variety of educational books. The library of each competing school receives a dictionary and a modern Atlas.

"High School Bowl" with Country Day and Grosse Pointe University will also be broadcast by WWJ Radio on Monday evening, April 13, 7:30 p.m.

Prices have gone so high that people are using second hand material to build air castles.

Pollution Is No Goliath

With the recent discovery of Mercury-poisoned game fish in the ever-darkening waters of Lake St. Clair, even more attention has been brought into focus on the problem of pollution and its saddening effects on the daily life of our country and community.

No longer, warn the experts, can we sit back and pay only lip service to this problem, which, perhaps, will prove to be the most serious problem with which the nation will come face to face in this decade.

Although most of the blame for the poisoning of our environment has been correctly placed on the shoulders of the large chemical manufacturing companies and the toxic-spewing automobiles, the onus shouldn't end there. The "Little Polluters"—private citizens—have long done their part to wreck the natural beauty of our landscape, including those who reside in The Pointe.

It is ironic that those who cry loudest about the pollution problem, jabbing their fingers at the "Big Polluters," are also the persons responsible for throwing still-smoking cigarette butts from the windows of their moving autos and who are wont to scatter used beer cans on a beach.

In addition to cans and butts, the Little Polluters specialize in the wanton discarding of such landscape-smearing items as candy wrappers, old papers, throw-away bottles and cartons, gum, junk car parts, broken pottery and assorted household and sporting items.

The NEWS suggests that those Pointers who want to do their part in fighting pollution should first put their own house in order. We must start our fight at some point and, perhaps, in this case, we should start at the bottom rather than the top. Let's stop squawking and start working at cleaning up our community. Let's stop screaming and start stooping over to pick up our own junk. Let's start fighting this problem. David bowled over Goliath and set an inspirational example for the little men for hundreds of following generations. Pollution isn't anywhere near as menacing as was Goliath, but it's killing us anyway.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sirs:

Yesterday I noticed something in the Village—nothing really too horrible, yet I cannot get it off my mind.

As I pulled into a parking space in front of Himeloch's, there was a crowd of 20 to 25 kids, idling around, darting in and out of the stores, sitting on the cars, teasing an old man with a foreign accent as he passed by and annoying a salesgirl.

They were up to no good these girls and boys, yet doing no terrible harm. But why in the world were those little ones, and I do not think they were older than fifth graders (10 years old), allowed by their parents to be in such a situation.

Just by their actions, I would not be totally shocked to hear these babies were approached by dope pushers.

Let's wake up, Grosse Pointe parents. Let's quit blaming the schools, the teachers, the police and society. Let's train our children in the homes, supervise them, play with them, discipline them, keep track of them and love them. They are our responsibility and it's up to us to do the best we can!

A Concerned Parent

Dear Sir: In behalf of the students of Grosse Pointe South High School I wish to thank you and your staff for the excellent picture and story which promoted our spring production, Alas Babylon. It was the particular "boost" we needed just prior to opening night, and was probably responsible for a larger audience than we had expected.

Sincerely,
(Mrs.) Ruth V. Briggs
Director & Sponsor.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

National Library Week is about to appear! This year the dates are April 12-18, and we hope you will all come to visit us and help us celebrate.

Have you ever wondered about the origins of this famous week? It is sponsored by the National Book Committee, Inc. in cooperation with the American Library Association. In addition, more than sixty national organizations of all kinds participate in this program—organizations such as the Adult Education Association, American Booksellers Association, Association of American University Presses, General Federation of Women's Clubs and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The American Library Association was founded in 1876 as an organization to "promote library service and librarianship," with a membership made up of more than 25,000 librarians, trustees and friends of libraries from the United States, Canada and over fifty foreign countries. The National Book Committee, Inc. was formed in 1954—an independent, non-profit citizens' organization, made up of people from all endeavor and representing the public interest in books and reading of all kinds.

Plans for the first National Library Week were made in April, 1957, and the first year's program was concluded in March, 1958. Thus, National Library Week was born, dedicated to the long-range goal of encouraging lifetime reading habits, increasing the use of libraries, and expanding and improving the entire reading and library resources of the nation. In 1958, there was great public response to this new program, thus encouraging its continuation.

Now, what of National Library Week, 1970? This year the slogan is: "Reading Is For Everybody"—and we heartily endorse this sentiment. At our Central Library a gay mobile hangs over the main charging desk, endorsing three themes—READ-LOOK-LISTEN. While it is a butterfly motif, it carries a vital message. The first butterfly is READ—showing parts of the pages of a book on its wings. The second is LOOK, with two eyes on the butterfly's wings and a film strip down the center. The third is LISTEN, with the wings shaped as ears and a tape recorder for a body.

Another gay small poster shows a public library in the background, with people in the foreground doing all sorts of things—such as driving, painting, loafing, reclining, selling balloons, playing baseball, riding a bicycle, beating a large drum, minding a baby, walking a dog, boating, horseback riding, flying a kite, parachuting, flying a plane, standing on one's head, track stars in motion, sitting in a tree—but in every case—reading!

Through the courtesy of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, the Philip Molby Marionettes will perform as follows: Wednesday, April 15 at 4:00 p.m.; Thursday, April 16 at 4:00 and 5:00 p.m.; and on Friday, April 17 at the Park Branch Library at 4:00 p.m. We should mention that this is the first time during National Library Week that we have been fortunate enough to have a puppet show at both the Central Library and the two Branches. And our thanks for this opportunity goes to the Friends. These performances at the Branches will be held in the Middle School auditoriums so that space will not be a problem.

Then, on Saturday, April 18, at the Central Library only, Ted Johnson, Mr. Trick, magician extraordinaire, will give two performances — at 10:00 and 11:00 a.m. This entertainment is also courtesy of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

When you come in during National Library Week (and we know you will), we hope you will take a good, long look at our display cases where you will find three very interesting puppets, complete with book accompaniments showing some of our holdings in the field of puppets and marionettes. The two knights in armor, Tony Sarg puppets, were loaned by Mrs. John Caulkins. The striking Javanese puppet, loaned to us by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colby, seems to represent a Javanese dancer.

So, you see, we really are celebrating National Library Week. But, upon reflection, we hope that all of our good library users—both actual and potential—will try to think of each year as having 52 weeks of library usage. Recognition is good, healthy and necessary, but year-around beating-a-path to our doors is what keeps us in business and what widens your horizons, increases your knowledge, and gives you the pleasure that only a BOOK and other NON-BOOK materials can give you.

What's New on THE HILL

By Pat Rousseau

Tony Morse . . . who is President of the Hill Association is also President of the Sign of the Mermaid. He told us this family business started in Detroit forty years ago and moved to Grosse Pointe in 1939. The name had its origin in sixteenth century London and the Tudor style building at 75 Kercheval was designed specially for the shop which specializes in silver, china, accent pieces of furniture, antiques, gourmet cookware, gift items and a very popular bridal registry. Tony Morse travels to the markets in New York, to London and Ireland to discover new sources, find the newest merchandise and beautiful antiques for the Mermaid.

Memo From Margaret Rice

"The Gayle Kirkpatrick Collection for Summer '70, being shown in our shop today and tomorrow is really an exciting event. Mr. Kirkpatrick's clothes are young, feminine and reasonably priced. Although new to our shop . . . Mr. Kirkpatrick, one of America's top designers, has long been identified with the excitement he gives the garment and the sureness it gives the wearer. Informal modeling will be from 11 to 4. Do come in."

For Collectors . . . At Denier, 77 Kercheval, a plexiglas shaping shows off unusual shells or interesting minerals. They can be used decoratively and as paper weights. There's a new blooming of ceramic flowers to add to your bouquet.

Entertaining Ideas . . . from the League Shop include a delightful new selection of dessert plates. Choose, bird, flower or fish motifs. . . cane or plain. New hemp place mats come with linen napkins and some new ice buckets have matching trays.

Where Is Stoneware? . . . At Virginia Williams, 79 Kercheval. There's a new shipment which includes four and six quart casseroles, pitchers in three sizes, salt and pepper shakers. They come in soft yellow with green or gray with blue and they are ever so nicely priced.

Spring Time . . . is Little League time and right now Gray's Racquet and Sport Shop have Little League baseball shoes very specially priced. Hurry to 106 Kercheval and save!

Beauty Specials . . . at Trail Apothecary, 121 Kercheval, include . . . Dorothy Gray's Satura Moisture cream with hormones, regularly ten dollars now six dollars . . . Revlon's Intimate Super Moisture lotion, fourteen ounces for a dollar ninety-five . . . Arden's Hand Lotion regularly four fifty now three dollars and Memoire's Cherie or Blue Grass. Scent specials include Madame Rochas or Femme Eau de Cologne packaged with Parfume Toilette for six fifty.

Tennis Types . . . there are tennis shoes for men and women . . . by Jack Purcell, Topiders, Keds, B. F. Goodrich at Sherman Shoes 114 Kercheval.

Window Shopping . . . at the Mermaid, we admired the handsome copper and bronze flower arrangement and sculptures by John Steck.

Enjoy, Enjoy . . . the Bronze Door for dining out and for parties at home. They will cater in your home for parties of twenty-five or more. We have sampled the food and service both ways and it is great. Call 886-1931 for more information.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Jackie (Mrs. Kenneth B.) Washington, of Oakman boulevard, Detroit, putting her organizational talents to work as invitations chairman for the Laser Ball, the May 23 gala sponsored by the Junior Council of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts, recruited Pointer Mrs. David D. Mitchell to hostess the first of a series of addressing sessions.

And so, assembling this morning, pens at the ready, in the Mitchells' Hillcrest road home were a group of local young matrons including Mrs. Walter Buhl Ford, III, who, with Birmingham residents Mrs. Walter B. Denison and William J. Markley, serves as general chairman for the sure-to-be-memorable evening.

More were Mrs. John Winans, Mrs. Robert H. Kanzler, Mrs. Robert Roney and Mrs. Harry Jewett, II, all, like Mrs. Ford, on the Junior Council's Advisory Board; and Mrs. Robert Spencer, Mrs. Walter Howell, Mrs. James Teetzel, Mrs. Ralph Thomas, Mrs. John Hoey, Mrs. Joseph Maycock and Mrs. William Denier.

The Junior Council Laser Ball, a "multiple experience" featuring laser projections and free-standing holograms in areas of the museum while guests enjoy cocktails, dinner and dancing, (to the music of Lester Lanin or, alternately, the beat of Detroit's own Sunday Funnies), is open to all 21 through 40 Founders Society members.

New members are welcome. The membership office, 832-2298, can provide complete information.

Slate Garden Center Morning Workshop

Program on Lawns to be Feature Next Wednesday in Alger House of Grosse Pointe War Memorial; Lecture Free to Center Members

"Lawns," the theme of Ed Soulliere's talk at the next Workshop of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center set for Wednesday morning, April 15, at 10 o'clock, will give Center members practical information for the spring care of their grass.

In arranging for Mr. Soulliere to give this talk Mrs. Wesley R. Johnson, Workshop chairman, is presenting a voice of experience. Ed Soulliere learned from his father, founder of the well-known Soulliere Peat and Sod Company, Inc., in 23 Mile road, Macomb Township.

Countless Pointe yards are carpeted by Soulliere sod — and no doubt some favorite golf green as well. Early in May or June the company is opening a nine-hole golf course.

Garden Center members know that grass is a basic background for a well-cultivated garden.

Pointers not already Center members may join at the Workshop by paying dues of $3 a year.

The lecture is free to members as one of the educational services offered by the Garden Center and is to be held in the Garden Center's Room on the second floor of Alger House at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Barbara Anne Grant Wed To Mr. Harness

Mid-Day Rites in Memorial Church Are Followed by Reception in Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robert Harness, who spoke their marriage vows Saturday, April 4, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, are vacationing in Bermuda and will return next week to make their home in St. Clair Shores.

Mrs. Harness is the daughter of Mrs. Schurchan Grant, of Cadieux road, and Donald W. Grant, of Southfield.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes Harness, of Bloomfield Hills.

A reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom followed the 12:30 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Richard Mitchell presided. Pale blue satin ribbon accented the high neck of the bride's Victorian gown fashioned with a bodice and sleeves of Alencon lace, an A line skirt and a detachable Chapel train.

Her elbow length bouffant illusion veil fell from a matching lace headpiece and she carried a Colonial bouquet of baby's-breath, white baby carnations, white tea roses and forget-me-nots.

Flower trimming edged the wrists and neck of honor maid Maureen Shaw's Victorian frock styled with a bodice of white organza pleats and a mimosa yellow A line skirt.

Bridemaids Sally Bristol, Bonnie Morrison and Mrs. Gregory Kelly, of Lansing, wore similar frocks with pale yellow skirts. Their headpieces were yellow flowers and yellow illusion veiling and they carried baskets filled with pink carnations, bachelor buttons, yellow daisies, pink roses and ivy.

Richard Joppie, of Lansing, acted as best man. Ushering were Gregory Kelly, Gary Long, of Mount Pleasant, and Robert Dietrich, of Lansing.

The bride's mother chose a pale aqua coat and dress ensemble of silk-and-worsted and a corsage of yellow tea roses while the bridegroom's mother selected a pink silk brocade costume and pink tea roses.

When the newlyweds left for Bermuda the bride was wearing a light blue linen coatdress.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Port, of Chicago, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin T. Matby, of Toronto.

Opposition is sure proof that you're on the right track.

The Priceless Ingredient

In the City of Bagdad lived Hakeem, the Wise One, and many people went to him for counsel which he gave freely to all, asking nothing in return.

☆ There came to him a young man who had spent much but got little, and said: "Tell me, Wise One, what shall I do to receive the most for that which I spend?" Hakeem answered, "A thing that is bought or sold has no value unless it contains that which cannot be bought or sold. Look for the Priceless Ingredient." "But, what is this Priceless Ingredient?" asked the young man.

☆ Spoke then the Wise One: "My son, the Priceless Ingredient of every product in the market-place is the Honor and Integrity of him who makes it. Consider his name before you buy."

Quartet Of New Walton-Pierce Made-to-Order Models

Sketched for the Grosse Pointe News are four original models from the Walton-Pierce Made-to-Order Collection which features a very soft, feminine construction and hemlines lengthened to cover the knee.

Picturing is a sculptured silk evening gown of a rose floral print. The neck is Vee'd and the skirt ends in a flirtatious flounce, caught with bows. An entertaining idea for the hostess is the jade green silk tunic, deeply slit and laced at the sides to show embroidered white eyelet trousers. A slender shaping of silk in a mocha, violet and blue print features long sleeves, round neck which ties in a bow at the back. The waistline is punctuated with a matching bow closing. The go-everywhere ensemble is navy. The elongated line of the collarless jacket is precisely reflected in the V detailing of the dress.

For afternoon ciel blue silk is dotted with white. Rows of Val lace form a deep yoke and trim the elbow length sleeves. A gay red, white and blue silk print with large deeply cuffed pockets has deft seaming which releases pleats front and back.

Theatre goers will love the woven brocade coat and dress costume striped with pink, peach and antique gold. The neck of the sleeveless dress is squared and there are three graduating bias bands at the hem. The single breasted coat has three frog closings and frog accents at the cuff. In a gala mood, there is a cyclamen pink and white printed organza with a high neckline, billowing long sleeves and a long full dancing skirt. A burst of colorful giant blooms... green, purple, blue, golden yellow and red on white lustrous cotton is sleeveless and cut long and slender with a Vee'd neckline.

San Jose's a health spa and their very first day there they all—father included!—had mud-pack facials.

The bullfights disappointed them a little. "We expected the very best, but they were not as good as Madrid's or the ones we saw on our first trip to Mexico 15 years ago."

No matter . . . they arrived at the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe to find an Easter procession in progress, a fascinating mélange of young and old, rich and poor, town facilities and families from back-country villages on pilgrimage.

But one can't stay forever on Cloud Nine. So the Raymond J. Duffys, Jr., are home in Handy road, 11-year-old Debby back in classes at St. Paul's, 19-year-old Denise at her job again . . .

By my! It was a lovely trip!

Remaining in Hawaii

Or CAN one stay forever on Cloud Nine? Kay (Mrs. Carl) Lanz, of Chalfonte avenue, is giving it a try.

Kamaaina (old-timer) Kay has converted her third vacation in Hawaii into a temporary residency. And if her negotiations with the Hawaiian Civil Service are successful she'll very likely be hired by the Hawaiian Department of Social Services as a Vocational Rehabilitation Specialist. In which event Mr. Lanz, who accompanied his wife to Honolulu but has since returned, will wind up affairs stateside and they'll both live forever in The Islands.

Meanwhile, while mother marks time in Cloud Nine Country—the temperature, she reports, hovers constantly in the low 80s and skies are always sunny—Jim and Jerry, two of the Lanzes' four sons, prepare to spend the summer in Europe.

Jim will be graduated May 2 from the University of Michigan and Jerry finishes his junior year at Western Michigan this month.

Joining the Lanz Brothers on their travels will be Pointers Bill Bockstanz, Dave Bowerman and Paul Swanson.

The five young men plan to purchase a camper bus and journey through several countries. The Lanz boys especially anticipate a stop in Friedrichshafen, Germany, and a reunion after 10 years with uncles Josef, Gustaf and Georg Lanz.

Want to take bets on how long it will take one of the uncles to get around to "My, how you're grown!"?

Dates, Times, Places

Monday, April 13, 12:30 o'clock: Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club's annual meeting and subscription luncheon will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial with Mrs. Charles F. Navin, Mrs. J. ## Pertman Plays With Symphony

Itzhak Perlman, the young Israeli violinist, is featured with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra this Thursday and Saturday, April 9 and 11, in concerts at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium.

Sixteen Ehrhings will conduct both performances. Perlman will be heard in the Lalo "Symphonie Espagnole." Ehrling also will conduct the Orchestra in the Bruckner Symphony No. 4 (Romantic).

Perlman's reputation has risen rapidly since he won the International Leventritt competition award in 1964. This season he is playing 51 concerts in 36 cities in North America alone.

Last summer he played in such major events as Hollywood Bowl, New York's Lincoln Center, Chicago's Ravinia Festival and with the London Symphony in Daytona Beach.

To 'Show-Tell' All About Roses

"Show and Tell" will have a practical application when the Grosse Pointe Rose Society presents its popular annual pruning demonstration beginning at 2 o'clock Sunday, April 12.

Rose bushes in the fully landscaped garden and grounds of Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Shimm, of Devonshire road, will be trimmed and shaped by such practiced hands as Forrest L. Geary, Harold B. Lee, Jerry Kulala, Angelo Taveggia and Society president James Turnbull.

Questions regarding the planting and culture of rose bushes will be answered by the volunteers during a clinic session.

Besides the actual help of seeing how to attain necessary preparation for success during the coming season visitors will be given specially drawn series of sketches showing just where cuts should be made under various circumstances of growth during the last season or damage during Michigan's fretful winter.

The handouts were drawn by Candace Lee, Grosse Pointe South High student, daughter of the Harold Lees, of Lakeland avenue.

Slate Biennial State Day For All Alpha Delta PIs

All members of Alpha Delta Pi have been invited to attend the group's biennial Michigan State Day to be held Saturday, April 11, at Dearborn Inn. The Detroit West Suburban Alumnae Association is hosting the affair.

Registration and coffee at 9:30 o'clock will be followed by a business meeting and luncheon with Mrs. E. Edward Staker, of Newark, O., Grand Vice-President of Alumnae, as main speaker.

The afternoon feature is a panel discussion by two college members from each of the Michigan active chapters at Wayne State University, Michigan State University and the University of Michigan. Mrs. Gary Bean is moderator.

A coffee honoring Mrs. Staker and Miss Maxine Johnston, Regional Alumnae director, will be given at the home of Mrs. Donald Voelker's Archdale avenue, Detroit, tomorrow evening.

Mrs. J. Gilbert Purse is general chairman.

Her committee includes Mary C. Peters, Mrs. Glen E. Dreiback, Mrs. Larry Campbell and Mrs. Clarence McTavish. Mrs. Herbert B. Gaston is taking reservations for both Friday evening and the Saturday luncheon.

Fashion Evening For Jenny Lind

Instead of the usual luncheon-fashion show Jenny Lind Club members have planned an evening benefit this year. Members, their husbands and guests will gather for fun and funds at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Carlson, in Country Club drive, Bloomfield Hills, Saturday, April 18.

Cocktails at 6 o'clock, will be followed by dinner at 8 o'clock and an evening fashion show courtesy of Maria Dinon, of Kercheval avenue, who will not only supervise the fashions but will donate one of her lovely knits for a prize.

Jenny Linders will be modeling include Pointers Mrs. Y. Crosby, Mrs. Joseph D. Hadley, Mrs. John Memmmer, Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mrs. Dwight Nelson and Mrs. Robert S. Peebles.

Mrs. George Baer, of Balfour road, and Mrs. Dwight Nelson, of Windmill Pointe drive, chairmen, have planned and prepared details of the benefit assisted by Mrs. Fred Flom, Mrs. Fred Merner, Mrs. R. Dort Peltis, Mrs. Pehr Wingardh, Mrs. Hugh Carney and Mrs. Milton Bergdahl.

FIRST OFFERING

WIDE OPEN SUNDAY 2-5

Once upon an April day, there was a spacious Ranch hidden on a quiet lane in the woods, just a chip-shot from a nice Golf course. It had many treasures like 3 big bedrooms, 2 full baths, attractive family room and a country-sized lot. Only the price is hard to believe... it's too low.

IN THE FARMS, OVERLOOKING THE WATER

There's an old saying that "money can't buy good taste." But once in a great while, an outstanding home in a prime location will prove the exception to the rule. We feel that those who appreciate excellence will applaud both the craftsmanship and technology evident throughout this elegant Southern Colonial Structure. In addition to the carriage house, there are six generous bedrooms and four baths. Yet with all its charm and sophistication this home has five special-purpose rooms to serve the contemporary needs of an active family: The library, exquisite family room, private office, children's activities room and one of Grosse Pointe's most attractively decorated lower level party rooms. Finally to add that certain gentle touch throughout, fresh green house, next to the three-car garage. Rarely is an investment of this caliber available. Your inquiries are welcomed.

MRS. G. MENNEN WILLIAMS, OF TONNANCOUR PLACE, (RIGHT), WITH HER SISTER MRS. W. BRACE KRAG, OF MERRIWEATHER ROAD.

By Pepper Whitelaw

A sun porch abloom with giant poinsettias, African violets, begonias and azaleas is the perfect setting in which to interview Nancy Williams, wife of Michigan's ex-governor and active member of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

When we talked with her Mrs. Williams was excited over the coming Wright Kay Flower Show, a 10th anniversary event for the Michigan Division of Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

The show will be presented April 29 and April 30 at Wright Kay's Woodward avenue store. Theme this year is "A Sentimental Journey." There will be over 80 entries, (many submitted by Pointers), in such categories as Poinsettias of Yesterday, Paths of Travel, Paths of Jewels and Path of Love.

All will be portrayed in the flower arrangements and table settings.

Always Have A Garden Mrs. Williams comes by her enthusiasm for flowers naturally. She has been a member of WNF&GA for many years and was Conservation Chairman for the Michigan Division from 1954 through 1956.

Regardless of where they make their home the Williams have a garden.

While in the Philippines where her husband served as Ambassador Mrs. Williams grew exotic flowers including many varieties of orchids.

In her Tonnancour place residence she has a lovely garden with flowering trees and rhododendrons.

A Family Tradition Membership in WNF&GA is a family tradition. The late Mrs. Henry Williams, Nancy's mother-in-law, was an active member for over 25 years and served as National President in the 1950s.

Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. W. Bruce Krag, has been International Co-operation Committee chairman for the last few years. This Committee raises funds for scholarships for youths from all nations interested in farming and 4-H projects.

Mrs. Krag has been a WNF&GA member 12 years and served on its board for four of those years. Nancy Williams' interests are many and varied. Currently she is working actively with the Junior League, the League of Women Voters and the American Association of University Women.

A Dedicated Volunteer Her past activities include

it's a little frustrating when you can't find the merchandise in shops. If you're on the area rug hunt . . . head for Ed Maliszewski, 21435 Mack Avenue. He stocks the latest decorator selections.

The Following Recipe . . . is an example of what will be taught in the series of cooking lessons at La Boutique Culinaire, 16650 East Warren at Yorkshire. The series starts Monday evening May 4 for former students, Tuesday evening May 5 for new students. A series of six classes is thirty dollars. Call 886-3518 for reservations.

who, where and whatnot by whoozit

It's a wild, whacky, wonderful . . . sort of Happening. We refer, of course, to tomorrow's Donkey Basketball Game, Grosse Pointe North and South High School students pitted against North-South faculty in what promises to be the Crazy Contest of the Year . . .

And just what IS . . . a Donkey Basketball Game? Well . . . a player must be astride to score . . . and they say the "donkeys" sit down when you try to shoot a basket . . . and the whole thing might best be described as Controlled Pandemonium . . . or How To Bridge The Generation Gap By Putting All Of Us In The Same Boat, (the metaphor's mixed, but we're sure you get the picture) . . .

The Donkey Game's . . . sponsored by the Pointe Adult Committee for American Field Service and Youth for Understanding against students . . . Starting time's 8 o'clock at the South High Gym where tickets, (75c for students and $1.25 for adults), will be available at the door . . .

They've been on sale . . . at the high and middle schools since April 6 . . . and from individual students and committee members . . . All proceeds benefit the AFS-YFU programs, (that FABULOUS Winner's Trophy, a gold bucket and broom, is a donation-to-the-cause) . . .

Half-time . . . should be interesting enough in its own right to keep spectators in their seats, for there'll be a performance by trained dogs . . . And if dogs aren't your dish check the Northern Lights cheerleader corps led by Ruth Gibson, starring, from Sweden, Ewa Nyberg and Eva Bergstrom, from Iceland, Solveig Benjaminsdottir, and from Finland, Arja Hokkanen . . .

Now for the players . . . Under Faculty Team Captain Jim Cooper, (North High Assistant Principal in his off-the-court hours), are, from North, Rich Beadle, Guido Regelbrugge, Paul Kinney, Don Dungan, Bill Craig and Don Richardson . . . from South, Richard Underwood, George Duditch, Bryan Forster, Tom Berschback, James Garlough and Harvey Richardson . . .

Heading the Student Team . . . is South High's Pete Farmer . . . whose players include, from North, New Zealand ace John Henderson, Mike Day, Allan Pearsall, Gary Bennett, Dawn DeCook, Betsy Bangs and Bob Cleary . . . from South, Sara Moore, Elaine Majester, Bob Bowerman, Skip Shirar, Tom Biley, Hal Faser, from Turkey, and Eric Fischer, from Germany . . .

And we WON'T . . . tell you which side we're rooting for!

So you see . . . we DO try to keep you up-to-date on what the "good kids" are doing . . . we DON'T just write about teenage "junkies" . . . we admit the vast majority of our high school youth is responsible, competent, well-intentioned . . . but we can't close our eyes to the problems of the maladjusted minority . . .

Here's Carolyn Hubbard Lucas . . . telling it like it is for many adults, parents and grandparents who admit to bewilderment but continue to love in the face of something they can neither condone . . . nor understand . . .

THE TRAP

Why do they do the things they do?
Why do they choose those things?
So far beyond the ways they knew
Into a world that swarms,
Fearfully near the tightened breath,
Luring them close to the edge of death.

What is the need that leads them there?
What is their changing view?
Is it too late for a word or prayer?
God help them see it through
Into a life that fulfills their lack.
Form this bewilderment—bring them back.

Postscript . . . to last week's Pointer of Interest, an interview with Melissa (Mrs. George T.) Maghielse, of Lakeland avenue, chairman of Grosse Pointe Delta Gamma Alumnae's Pre-School Vision Screening Project . . . That's not the Delta Gamma's C.N.L.Y. community contribution . . . They sell pecans to raise funds for donations to the local Braille Club, the Kresge Eye Institute at Children's Hospital, Rochester's Leader Dog Institute . . . They've given money to be used by the Detroit Public Schools in connection with their special classes for the blind, and have made aprons for the blind children at Marquette School . . . They've provided blind boys and girls with tickets to the Detroit Symphony's Children's Concerts . . .

Now, in case you've forgotten . . . Their free Vision Screening Test may be taken by children NOT enrolled in any nursery school next Wednesday or Thursday, April 15 and 16, between 9 and 11 and 1 and 3 o'clock at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church . . . No appointments are required.
