PRESIDENT NIXON TOLD the nation Wednesday night that "all our major military objectives" in Cambodia have been achieved and that 50,000 American fighting men will be withdrawn from South Vietnam by October 15. The 50,000 are part of a total of 150,000 that Mr. Nixon announced on April 20 would be withdrawn within a year.

WITH ALL BUT A handful of Alabama's 4,420 precincts reported George Corley Wallace defeated his one-time lieutenant, incumbent Governor Albert P. Brewer, by about 32,000 votes out of 1.1 million cast. The Democratic primary victory virtually assures Wallace of election in November as governor.

ARTHUR G. BARKLEY, an Arizona bakery truck driver with a taxpayer grudge against the government hijacked a jetliner with 58 persons aboard for eight hours Thursday before his dream of a $100 million ransom ended at the hands of FBI agents. Barkley entered the cockpit of Trans-World Airlines Flight 486 over Las Vegas and demanded to go to Washington. The end came at Dulles International Airport, where authorities lured the hijacker to a second landing with bags full of phony money along the edge of the runway, and an FBI agent with gun drawn crawled into the cockpit and arrested Barkley.

Saturday, June 6

PRESIDENT NIXON, expected to appoint a top-level commission soon to investigate what can be done to stop airline hijackings, telephoned Friday to tell the wounded pilot of a commandeered jet, Captain David C. Hupe, 50, that "he is a national hero." Hupe underwent three hours of abdominal surgery to repair a gunshot wound he suffered in the capture of the hijacker at Dulles Airport in Washington last Thursday.

ARTHUR ROSS, 54, vice-president for state relations and planning at the University of Michigan, was found dead Friday in an Allen Park motel room. Lt. John McKeever of the Allen Park police said it appeared that Ross died of natural causes.

ROBERT H. FINCH, the youngest and most politically glamorous member of President Nixon's cabinet, became the first to go Saturday. Finch, 44, relinquished his post at the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and was appointed one of three principal counselors to President Nixon. The president designated Undersecretary of State Elliot Richards to succeed Finch in the HEW hot spot.

THE COMMANDERS of the Argentine army, navy and air force ousted President Juan Carlos Onganía Monday and announced they would appoint a new chief executive within 10 days. The officers said they were acting to bring "an authentic representative democracy" to Argentina. Onganía at first called loyal troops to his side for a last ditch fight at the presidential palace, but later decided to bow to the demands of the military.

Center Drive Gets $84,445 From 5,024

War Memorial's Board of Directors Calls Annual Family Drive Successful

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's 21st Annual Family Participation Campaign has been officially proclaimed a success by the Center's Board of Directors.

The Center hopes to match or exceed its goal of $85,000 before the end of the week. To date, $84,445.50 has been received from 5,024 families compared to $84,668.93 received in 1969 from 5,115 families over the same period of time. Delayed solicitation due to mail and trucking strikes caused the campaign to run slightly behind schedule this year.

The Center's board of directors wishes at this time to publicly thank the following generous donors whose gifts have recently been received:

Construction Gets Started On Site Formerly Occupied By First Garage in Pointe

Housing Complex Will Contain 36 Units Including Two Penthouses; Two Old Residences, Livery Stable Also Razed for Project

One of Grosse Pointe City's automotive landmarks that dates back almost to the beginning of the motor industry—but which had become an eyesore in recent years—is giving way to a multi-million dollar luxury condominium in Jefferson avenue between St. Clair and Neff.

Construction crews have leveled what was formerly the O'Leary Cadillac dealer showroom and garage fronting on Jefferson, along with other structures that form part of the Pointes' turn-of-the-century history.

Groundbreaking ceremonies were attended by Mayor David Burgess, Councilmen George Henry and George Monro, representing the City, Cameron L. Kage of Sebold & Kage, Inc., contractors; Morris Webster and Michael E. Matczak of Clifford N. Wright Associates of Birmingham, architects.

To Have 36 Units
Jefferson Terrace will contain 36 units, including two penthouses, selling in a price range of over $70,000 to $120,000. Each unit will have two bedrooms, living room and separate dining facilities, a foyer, two baths, and basement. They'll be of brick construction.

Among structures, besides the old Cadillac showroom, which are coming down to make room for the luxury development—first of its kind in the Pointes—are the old Norbert P. Neff home from which Neff road was named. The Barnett house on the St. Clair avenue corner also is being torn down.

In the rear of the property another building, once used as a livery stable before automobiles altered the nation's transportation mode, also is coming down.

Since 1954, the bulk of the property had been the site of the Cadillac agency until it was closed a few years ago. The showroom and garage had lain empty. Rezonning for multiple-dwelling units enabled the luxury condominium project to get underway.

First Pointe Garage
But long-time residents recall that most of the land now being converted to residential use had always been employed commercially to provide services for the auto industry—going back as far as perhaps 1907.

That's when the site was Bob Darling's garage—the first garage for auto repairing and housing in the Pointes.

Neil Blondell of Rivard boulevard remembers when, in his youth, Grosse Pointers drove their Packards and Cadillacs to Darling's Garage, where young men like himself would hop in the now classic vehicles, drive the residents to their homes or summer homes and then bring the car back to the garage.

"In those days," he points out, "the automobile was so new that homes had not been built with their own garages. So the families that had cars used Darling's to house their vehicles."

He also remembers Neff's Road House at the corner of Neff and Jefferson, which served an elaborate seven-course meal of fish, steak and frogs legs for early touring motorists.

Safe Burglars Didn't Make It

Burglars were unsuccessful in their attempt to break into the safe of the Grady Roofing company, 15135 Charlevoix avenue, apparently frightened away before they could accomplish their mission, according to Park police.

Det. Charles Petrie disclosed that the thieves broke into the business place on Saturday, June 6, during the dark hours, by removing the lock cylinder from the rear door.

The intruders then took a number of tools from the shop area, including a drill, which they used to puncture holes around the safe dial. Several holes were drilled, but for some reason, it is believed, the burglars became frightened and fled the building.

Entry into the safe, a double-door type, was not made, Petrie said, and according to officials of the firm, nothing seems to be missing.

Evidence indicated, however, that the thieves had planned to take two electric typewriters and an electric adding machine, all of which had been disconnected from wall outlets.

TELLS OF THEFT

Joan Warren of 61 Merriweather, phoned Farms police on Friday, June 5, and complained that sometime between 3:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m., someone entered her garage and stole the power mower stored there. The mower is valued at $155, she said.

School Board Adopts Policy On Discipline

Copies of Code Available at All Buildings of Public System for Interested Parties

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education has unanimously approved a Student Discipline Policy, formulated by the Student Discipline Committee chaired by Richard W. Kay.

Other committee members include board trustee William Adams; legal counsel Doug West; assistant principal of South High School, John Thurbay; assistant principal at North High School, Jim Cooper; principal of Maize Elementary School, Donald Bassett; and Russ Jones, chief psychologist for the Grosse Pointe School District.

Mr. Kay told the NEWS that the committee spent countless hours of research and consultation on the policy. The Board was urged to pass the program immediately by administrators and committee members. Mr. Kay said the element of urgency was prompted by the many questions confronting principals daily regarding the legal basis for the school system's exclusion policies and because of recent Supreme Court decisions which more clearly define the civil rights of the students.

Three Categories

Exclusions from the Grosse Pointe Public School System fall into three categories: Temporary Separation, Suspension and Expulsion. The policy adopted Monday night clearly defines these exclusions and outlines procedures and personnel involved in each category.

Mr. Kay said, "We need an orderly way to protect all students and specify policy providing due process in exclusion cases." He emphasized that this was the first step and that amendments and additions will be made on discipline policies and procedures in the future.

Will Hear Suggestions

Present at the session was Pointer and attorney Robert Pisarski, who had a number of suggestions regarding the Student Discipline Code, which he presented to the Board in written form and which he asked them to consider before voting on the proposal.

Because of the immediate need to have guidelines on student exclusions the Board approved the proposal with the promise that the committee and Mr. Pisarski would meet in the immediate future to consider his suggestions and recommendations.

Copies of the Student Discipline Code are available at each Pointe school for public perusal.

VANDALS DAMAGE CAR

Nancy Boyce, of St. Clair Shores, called City police on Saturday, June 6, to report persons unknown had broken the front window of her car, which was parked at 571 Lakeland. The vandals also broke the air cleaner and removed the wires under the dashboard.

Park Council Acts To Bring Relief to Mack Businesses

Proprietors Agree to Survey Recommendations, Including Making Alley One-Way; Ban on Street Parking to Continue

The Park council on Monday, June 7, approved several measures which it is hoped will alleviate alleged hardships to commercial trade in Mack avenue, between Cadieux and Harvard, brought about by the ban on parking from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. daily in front of the businesses.

One measure approved was making the alley behind the commercial buildings one-way, with entrance on Cadieux.

At its last meeting, May 18, the council authorized a survey to determine what steps should be taken in this area to help increase business. Funds for a proposed widening of Mack between Cadieux and Harvard, were refused by the Federal, State and County governments because the widening was solely to provide parking.

Joint Survey Made

The survey was conducted by Park Police Chief Gerard Kesteloot, and Oscar Gunderson, chief traffic engineer for the Wayne County Road Commission, and another county traffic engineer.

A report of the study was given to City Manager Robert Slone, who in turn presented it to the council at Monday night's meeting.

It was disclosed that a suggested left turn at Mack east onto Cadieux, during certain hours, is prohibitive because of the narrowness of the island at the intersection.

Slone said that a meeting was held with the business proprietors and their landlords, in the area affected, who were given the results of the survey. The business people agreed to recommendations resulting from the survey, pending approval by the city council, including that the alley behind their places be made one-way, with the entrance to be at Cadieux.

Other Measures

Other measures agreed to, with council sanction, are:

The businesses affected consolidate their rubbish containers, rather than have containers behind each building; a shed behind the Pointe Restaurant be demolished to provide more room for parking in the alley. Parking will be permitted close to the buildings.

To further help commercial trade, metered parking on Mack in the affected area, will be increased from one hour to two hours, with one meter in front of the hardware store at Cadieux set for 30-minute parking only.

Slone said that the survey showed a definite need for the 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. parking ban, imposed since last October. This will remain in force because of the extremely heavy traffic flow in the area.

He said that the city does not contemplate widening of Mack, at least not this year, but if it is decided in the future that this must be done, it will have to be under special assessment because of the Federal, State and County governments' refusal to participate in the program.

THIEF TAKES MOWER

Robert Pickup of 355 Chalfonte, informed Farms police on Saturday, June 6, that his $115 power rotary mower, purchased two months ago, was stolen from his garage. He said he last saw it on May 29.

Mrs. Anna Thomson Dodge Dies in Home at Age 103

Mrs. Anna Thomson Dodge, one of The Pointes' finest ladies, and one of the richest women in the nation, died on Tuesday, June 2, in the Lake Shore drive home she loved, "Rose Terrace," built in 1934 and designed as a French Louis XV chateau on the shores of Lake St. Clair by Horace Trumbauer.

Much of the decor was retrieved by Sir Joseph Duveen from the imperial palaces of Russia. There are French inlaid furniture, Beauvais tapestry chairs, four cases of Sevres porcelain and paintings by Boucher, Gainsborough and Van Dyck.

Mrs. Dodge died at the age of 103 as quietly and inconspicuously as she had lived in latter years.

Shores Adopts Traffic Code

The Shores Village Board of Trustees on Thursday, May 26, approved a resolution calling for the adoption of the Uniform Traffic Code for Michigan, repealing its old traffic ordinance, which had been on the books since 1955.

Village Police Chief Joseph Vitale, who also serves as the community's traffic engineer, pointed out that the new ordinance includes only one amendment from the Michigan Traffic Code.

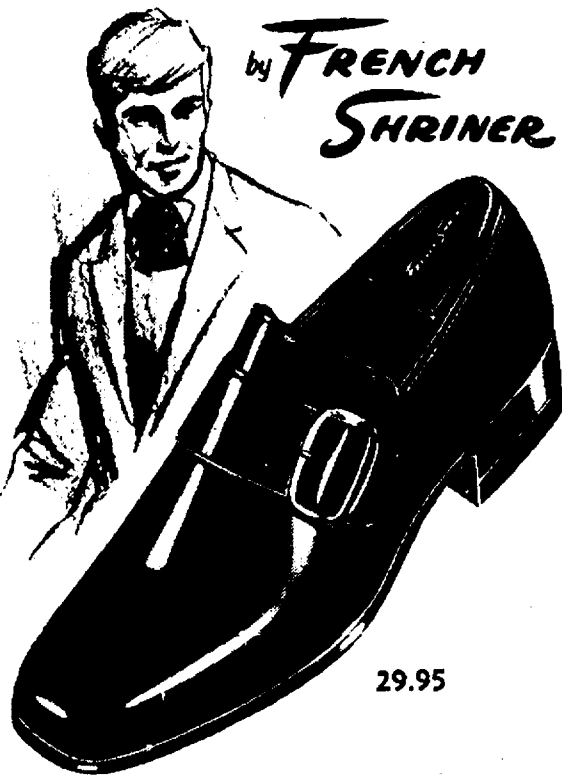

"Our ordinance makes it unlawful for any person to park any motor vehicle on any street for the purpose of washing it, to display it for sale, for advertising purposes or for selling merchandise," he said. "It further prohibits the parking of vehicles on any street between the hours of 2 to 5 a.m. In some cases this might impose an hardship and we will study such situations and make any necessary special arrangements."

The new enactment takes effect on June 15.

CAR BATTERY TAKEN

Fare Boost

tion, decided to withdraw its opposition to the fare increases, clearing the way for the coach line to proceed with the boost. The Woods had been the only one of the six communities served by the firm—the five Pointes and St. Clair Shores—to oppose the fare hike.

The Woods asked that the increase in fares be brought before the Public Service Commission for a hearing to determine whether or not the rates were justified.

Attorneys for the transportation firm claimed that such a study could drag on for as long as six months. In such an instance, they claimed, the company could not afford to continue operations because it was losing money at the rate of $125 per day. They had warned that the company would be forced to cease operations on June 15.

Woods Reverses Stand
The Woods Council withdrew its opposition, after gaining a promise from Walter Schweikert, coach line president since its inception in 1932, that it could study the firm's quarterly reports at the end of each three-month period. If the rate boost seemed unfair at any time, the rates could be adjusted, promised the company.

Woods City Attorney George Catlin brought a copy of the Woods resolution to the Lansing offices of the Public Service Commission on Thursday, assuring the cancellation of the scheduled public hearing and enabling the coach line to win approval of the rate hike. Simultaneously, Schweikert withdrew the petition to suspend operations.

Mrs. Anna Thomson Dodge Is Dead

tramck, Mich. It had a 35-horsepower engine and was affectionately called "Old Betsy." In that year, some 145 automobiles were produced by the optimistic brothers and moved from backyard garages, backstreet factories and bicycle shops onto the streets of America.

Less than two years later, an event took place that established the early Dodge Brothers' cars in the minds of Americans as cars that could be relied on when the going got rough. That event was the 1916 punitive expedition against the Mexican bandit chieftain Pancho Villa.

Early in 1916 Villa and his bandits made a series of forays across the border. One of these was the raid on Columbus, N.M., in which several American civilians and soldiers were killed. In April of 1916, a punitive force of 12,000 men and vehicles gathered on the American side of the border under the command of Brigadier General John J. "Black Jack" Pershing.

They Go To War
Among the vehicles in this combat were several olive-drab Dodges. The automobiles' entrance in this dramatic battle established the reliability of these cars under adverse conditions and increased their popularity. They were the first automobiles ever to be used in an American military campaign against an armed enemy.

Both brothers died just six years after they built their first car. The bulk of Horace's estate was invested in tax-free municipal and state bonds. The estate yielded his widow an estimated net income of $1.5 million a year.

Six years after the death of her husband, Mrs. Dodge remarried. Her new husband was a handsome stage actor named Hugh Dillman. The marriage in 1947 ended in divorce.

Outlived Children
Mrs. Dodge outlived both her children, Delphine, and Horace Jr., both of whom led stormy marital lives.

Horace Jr. had five children, Mrs. Delphine Dodge Petz, of Lake Shore drive; Horace E. Dodge, II of Los Gatos, Cal.; Diane Dodge of Lexington, Ky.; and Orange, Va.; David Elgin Dodge of Meiringen, Switzerland; and John F. Dodge, III presently attending prep school in Boca Raton, Fla.

Delphine had two daughters, Christine and Anna. Besides her seven grandchildren, Mrs. Dodge leaves more than 20 great-grandchildren, several of whom she reared in "Rose Terrace."

Big Civic Bequests
Mrs. Dodge left a fortune with a face value of up to $80 million. The chief beneficiaries of her multi-million-dollar estate are The Founders Society of Detroit, whose bequest includes all the paintings and objects of art in the salon of "Rose Terrace" and one million dollars to finance creation of a suitable area in The Detroit Institute of Arts to house them.

The Children's Hospital will receive one million dollars for the construction of a new building with the provision that one floor there will be named after her husband and herself.

A two million dollar bequest for a memorial fountain, perhaps a replica of a famed fountain in Barcelona, Spain, was left to the City of Detroit.

Mrs. Dodge's will limits the bequest to one grandson, John Francis Dodge to $25,000. He is not named to receive a trust. He is the son of the late Horace E. Dodge Jr., who died seven years ago, and Horace's fifth wife, showgirl Gregg Sherwood, now living in Florida.

Sued by Granddaughter
A granddaughter, Mrs. Christine Cromwell Christensen was omitted from the will. She sued Mrs. Dodge in 1953, charging mishandling of the estate. However, both she and John will receive millions from the money held in trust under the will of their grandfather, whose estate is estimated at $140 million dollars.

Mrs. Dodge's other bequests were made to servants, retainers and friends.

New Group Offering Movies Tailored to Family Viewing

By Phil Loranger

Those Pointe parents who are concerned about the seemingly growing portrayal of violence and immorality, which is so prevalent in much of our so-called "movie entertainment" these days, may be pleased to know that others share their apprehension and that somebody is doing something about it.

Less than a month ago two Catholic priests decided that the public was being stymied in its search for movies which were suitable for the entire family and provided a good measure of wholesome entertainment rather than an overdose of erotica. In addition, the pair also was convinced that the cost of movie entertainment was getting to a point, where a trip to the cinema was nearly prohibitive.

Promote Good Films

With these thoughts in mind, the twosome combined to establish Family Films, Inc., a non-profit, non-sectarian organization, the sole purpose of which is to promote and exhibit films fit for viewing by the entire family.

"We envision this project as a continuing program that will attract support from everyone who is now deprived of movie entertainment because of the unhealthy film fare presently being shown in most theaters," said Father John E. Nader, of St. Mary's Catholic Church, in Detroit, one of the founders of the film program. "We have had a great response from Pointers and it is because of their support that we have been able to stay in business and pay our bills."

"Face it, when Pointers want to see a movie, many check the listings of the downtown theaters," he noted. "They want to make their night or day a real treat. Too few theaters offer a fare today which is tailored to the fancies of a family."

Offer Wide Range

Among the films shown by the group to date, include "Romeo and Juliet," "Thoroughly Modern Millie," "African Safari," and "Mysteries of the Deep." The group has been able to rent the Music Hall Theater, at 350 Madison Avenue, Detroit, to exhibit its offerings and attendance at the films has served as an indicator that the public does appreciate "entertaining" movies.

The Family Films, Inc., will begin a showing of "Oliver" on Friday, June 12, with the daily viewings scheduled for 2 and 8 p.m. Prices are $1.50 for adults, 75 cents for senior citizens and 75 cents for children for 12 years of age. Telephone reservations are accepted for all showings.

"The support of the public is what we need to keep going," said Fr. Nader. "Those Pointers who want to obtain additional information about the program can call me at 961-5402 or 882-5710. I'm sure those who attend our films will be thoroughly pleased."

St. Clare Plans Moonlight Trip

"Cruising Down the River" seems to be the adopted theme song of a number of St. Clare parishioners and many other Pointers, as they prepare to embark on the Second Annual St. Clare Athletic Association's Moonlight Cruise.

"This is not a Bob-Lo cruise," said C. R. U. Chairman Tom Verbiest. "It is an actual trip up and down the Detroit River, providing an excellent opportunity to view the magnificent Detroit skyline by night and the extensive shipping traffic of the city's international waterways."

In addition to the viewing aspect of the moonlight trip, one of the highlights of the cruise will be dancing to music under the stars.

Participants will depart the foot of Woodward on the Bob-Lo boat for the cruise at 8:30 p.m., on Thursday, June 18. Any additional information can be obtained by calling Verbiest at 882-7309 or Donald Rentz at 885-4638.

Library Breakin Charged to Pair

Two Detroit youths appeared before Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer yesterday, June 10, for examination on charges of breaking and entering the Pierce Branch Library, for which they were arrested on Tuesday, June 2.

The arresting officers, Park Patrolmen Larry Rice and Howard Carl, said they were dispatched to Pierce Middle School, at 1:20 a.m., after a suspicious citizen called the station when he observed a car parked on Somerset and two figures get out and walk through the school grounds toward the building.

Rice and Carl said when they arrived, they did not see any one on the grounds, and checked the school building. They found a broken rear window, and radioed for assistance, then entered the school.

As they cautiously searched the first floor, the policemen noticed that the door to the library had been pried open and was standing ajar. They entered the library and saw movements behind several bookshelves, and arrested two youths.

Taken into custody were Frank L. Maisano, 17, of 5045 Balfour; and Michael J. Lock, 18, of 13121 Frankfort, who later in the day were arraigned before Judge Speer for a preliminary hearing. Warrants charging the pair with breaking and entering in the nighttime were approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

Several pieces of office equipment, such as typewriters, had been removed from the library office to a storage room area by the accused pair. Police said that the youths had planned to take them out of the building. The teenagers had also removed the coin box from a copy machine, it was said.

Maisano had been free on $1,000 bond, but Lock, who was unable to post bond, was in the Wayne County Jail, awaiting yesterday's examination.

Safety Director Issues Warning

A warning from Woods Public Safety Director Donald B. Coats was issued this week to residents of that community, following an armed robbery last week in which a Woods couple was threatened by a gun-wielding bandit.

"If the couple had not opened their door to the intruders, this robbery might possibly have been avoided," said Coats. "Opening a door to anybody, who seems to have an unusual problem, too often leads to trouble."

Coats pointed out that thieves often check out a home before making an "hit" and usually know how many are in the home at the time of the intended robbery.

Many thieves will make use of a deceptive measure to gain entry to a home. This was the case in the Memorial Day robbery at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brockson, of 1175 Anita.

Brockson had noticed a suspicious vehicle prowling the neighborhood a few minutes before a man knocked at the door of his home and asked to use his phone. The man claimed he had been involved in an automobile accident. When Brockson opened the door, a second man jumped from the side of the house with a gun in his hand and also entered the home.

The couple was forced to sit in chairs facing the kitchen wall, while the bandits ransacked the house. They took a money clip, containing $50, a watch and ring from Brockson and a purse, which belonged to his wife, Doris.

"I just want to warn everybody never to open a door to a stranger, unless they are 100 per cent sure of what is happening," warned Coats.

St. Paul Reveals Changes In Educational Programs

By Pepper Whitelaw

The need to educate for change and the desire to move the parochial school from its ghettoized approach to education has led St. Paul Grade School administrators to revamp their educational programs to more realistically administer to the needs of their young students.

The discovery of these needs is being handled through improved and extensive communication with parents, teachers and educators.

The St. Paul Non-graded Primary is an example of these innovative programs. It is designed to recognize the individual differences of children. The plan provides a learning situation to meet these individual needs.

In this program rigid grade lines are eliminated, thus affording the youngster the opportunity to acquire academic and social skills at his own rate of speed.

The philosophy of the non-graded program is a sound one based on the principles that each child is an individual with his own rate and pattern of growth and should be evaluated as such; that children should be taught at the level at which they are, regardless of age or length of time spent in the school; that a feeling of success is essential for normal growth; that a pupil whose achievement ment approximates his ability has made satisfactory progress; that a child should not be forced to mark time until some of his peers reach his level of academic achievement or maturity, nor be required to learn material beyond his range; no child should be forced to repeat material that serves no useful learning purpose.

The Non-graded Plan divides the first three years after kindergarten into learning levels in math and reading. The child moves from level to level according to his social, emotional and academic achievement with no specific time allotted for any level.

In most instances Grade One through Grade Three requires three years, however the child who is able to proceed at a faster rate of learning might complete the curriculum in two years. The slower child might take four years.

If a child does not meet the standards of social, emotional, and academic achievement for a given level in a reasonable length of time, then the cause is studied and the program adjusted to fit his needs and problems. If a child completes the prescribed curriculum for the primary grades, before he has reached fourth grade age he will not be moved to a fourth grade classroom but will be taught advanced material for which he is ready, in the primary room.

The program does not involve different teaching techniques;

Nancy Davidson Directing Fund

Mrs. Nancy Y. Davidson of Belanger avenue, has been appointed Director of Development of the Cottage Hospital 50th Anniversary Fund, according to Ralph L. Wilgarde, Cottage Hospital Administrator.

Mrs. Davidson began work in the Development Office in January 1969 as office manager for the firm of Tamblin and Brown, of New York City, who were engaged to organize the six million dollar project for construction and equipment of a new wing to the hospital.

"Mrs. Davidson has been closely associated with Cottage during the past eight years and has a thorough understanding of its work and needs," Mr. Wilgarde said.

She has been an active member of the Cottage Hospital Women's Auxiliary, has served as its second vice-president, and is a past president of the Michigan Association of Hospital Auxiliaries.

son and a purse, which belonged to his wife, Doris.

"I just want to warn everybody never to open a door to a stranger, unless they are 100 per cent sure of what is happening," warned Coats.

it offers sequential growth and learning through administrative groupings.

There are no failures or promotions under this program. Each child begins in September at his level of achievement in June.

This is but one of the exciting programs St. Paul has created for their elementary promises to offer more of the students; the next school year same.

TV Store Owner Twice Unlucky

H.rolf McLaughlin, owner of Carlson's TV Store, at 20649 Mack avenue, is having second thoughts this week about his business security measures.

Bandits smashed a window at the store on Sunday, June 7, and stole a portable television set from the building. On the same day, his St. Clair Shores TV store was also broken into. That was the second breaking and entering at the St. Clair Shores store in a week.

The Woods robbery was discovered by Woods Corporal Thomas Kerving in the early morning hours, when he was waved to the side of the road, while patrolling along Mack, by a concerned citizen, who reported that the alarm in the building was ringing.

Police are investigating a possible connection between the Woods and St. Clair Shores incidents.

Report Explains Equalized Valuation Under State Law

The Woods and the Farms were among 13 Wayne County communities whose assessed valuations were accepted for equalization purposes, according to a report released early in May by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

The other cities whose assessed valuations were accepted are: Flat Rock, Gibraltar, Hamtramck, Highland Park, Lincoln Park, River Rouge, Riverview, Trenton, Woodhaven, Grosse Ile and Sumpter.

Rising prices and new construction have increased the equalized value of property in the county to a total of $11,508,238,404, which figures $691,528,995 above last year's $10,817,709,449.

Equalized valuation of each of the 31 cities and 12 townships in the county was recommended by the Equalization, Taxation and Apportionment Committee of the Board of Commissioners.

"Before recommending the figures, we gave all the communities an opportunity to appear before our committee," said Commissioner Joseph Cardinal of Dearborn, D-District 21. "We believe these figures are fair and accurate under the equalization formula established by the State Tax Commission."

The total value of taxable property in the out-county area accounted for 53.9 percent of the total equalized valuation, compared with 46.1 percent for Detroit. This compares with Detroit figures of 47.96 percent in 1969, 49.01 percent in 1968, and 50.55 percent in 1967.

Charles Morley, director of the Wayne County Bureau of Taxation, said that the shift to the out-county is due to the continued growth and development in these areas, coupled with loss of assessable property in Detroit because of new expressways and urban renewal.

County-wide, a total of $2,083,515,025 was added to the aggregate assessed valuation of $9,425,723,379 for purposes of equalization.

The State-imposed equalization process is designed to assure that each local community has assessed taxable property on the basis of the legally-required standard of half the true cash value of the property.

When property sales studies by the Bureau of Taxation indicate property in a city or township is under-assessed, an equalization factor is applied to that community's total assessed valuation. Most cities and townships spread property taxes on a basis of equalized, rather than assessed, value.

The following is a statement of the proposed equalized valuation of the taxable property of the county for 1970, for each of the Pointes:

Grosse Pointe Township (Shores) — Real, $23,080,050; Personal, $374,650; Total, $23,454,700; percent of county total assessed, 0.248625; Addition, $13,077,400; County Equalized Valuation, $36,532,100; and percent of county total equalized, 0.317242.

Unlocked Garage Attracts Burglars

Three incidents of thefts from garages were reported to City police over the past weekend.

Gordon Sommer, 391 Washington, reported the theft of a rotomower on Saturday, June 6. On the same date Margaret Anzinger, 588 Rivard called city police to report the theft of a lawn mower from her garage. Then on Monday, June 8, Jack Moran, 685 Neff, reported the theft of a 27-inch, 10-speed boy's bicycle and a $125 lawn mower from his garage sometime over the weekend.

City police caution all residents to lock their garages because there is always an increase in thefts from garages at this time of year.

Judge a Mercedes-Benz over miles of twisting back roads. Not "once around the block in light traffic."

WE BUILD our automobiles to perform under stress. To take on roads that have potholes for pavement and elbows for curves.

The kind of roads that can be found in Germany's Black Forest where we test our cars.

But you can probably find a road like that near you. And that's where you should head if you really want to find out what a Mercedes-Benz is all about.

Independent suspension

You'll find our fully independent racing-type suspension lets you finesse your way through those tricky bends and switchbacks.

Not plow through them. Our rear axle is articulated. It flexes so each rear wheel can move up and down independently of the other—just as the front wheels do. Soaks up the bumps and dampens the bouncing.

Taut steering

Our optional power steering is very polite. It lets you drive. It doesn't drive you. It's taut and responsive, without the usual inch or two of sloppy play. You can feel the wheels tracking, even at high speeds.

Yet, when you're trying to squeeze into a tight parking spot, you can spin the wheel around, lock-to-lock, in three turns effortlessly.

Our engineers call this "progressive assistance." The more power you need in the steering, the more you get. But we don't overdo it. You'll never get the feeling that you're twirling a telephone dial instead of steering a car.

Four disc brakes

The brakes are built to give you a controlled, straight stop instead of that other kind. Even when you stop short from high speed (a nice way to say "panic stop").

We put four massive disc brakes on every Mercedes-Benz. Standard equipment. No options. Only one American car provides four disc brakes as standard—and that's a two passenger model, not a full-sized sedan.

Engine: fragile as a rock

Our overhead cam engine can cruise at RPM levels that leave competitors floating their valves in disbelief.

Bearings are delicately machined to within 4/10,000ths of an inch. Pistons and connecting rods are painstakingly matched and balanced.

And each engine is bench-tested for at least 60 minutes.

Car & Driver claims that a Mercedes-Benz "will whistle across country at average speeds simply beyond the realm of comprehension for the average American driver."

Which doesn't surprise us at all. We don't build cars for the "average" American driver. Ask your dealer for a test drive. Judge for yourself.

New brochures

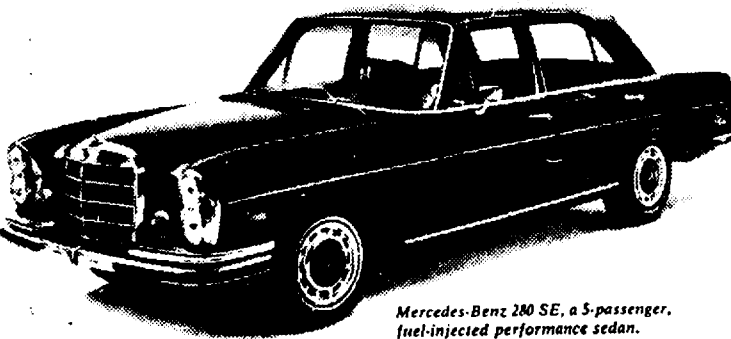

You can get a brochure that will give you more details about Mercedes-Benz automobiles. Just send in this coupon.

If you're planning a European trip, check the box to see how much you can save with our overseas delivery plan.

But the best thing you can do is visit one of our showrooms. Our representative will be glad to tell you about any of our sixteen models.

And be sure to take that test drive.

Now that you've collected your interest, you could be losing money.

Think First.

It happened last week. They added the interest to your savings account. But before you start feeling secure, read on. And find out how you might be shortchanging yourself.

The fact is that more people are earning more money than ever before. And are having more trouble holding on to some than ever before. You know how it feels. And we know how you feel. You want to save money but everything seems to be working against you. Regular monthly bills are bigger than ever. Charge cards are handier than ever. The trap seems deeper than ever.

How to make some extra money.

If you've been saving money in a passbook account, at least you've been saving. But you could be shortchanging yourself.

The simple fact is that many financial institutions are paying a lower rate than First Federal Savings is allowed to pay on regular passbook savings.

That's why we're offering to buy your passbook. Yes, buy.

We'll transfer your current balance (plus any interest due you) to an insured First Federal passbook account.

Then the next time you collect interest you'll collect more, depending on the type of account you select. And we have lots of them. Certificates with various maturity dates and interest rates. Regular passbook accounts. They all earn the highest interest rates available in Michigan (5%, 5 1/4%, 5 3/4% or 6%).

We're savings specialists. Thirty-five years of helping people put it away for rainy and sunny days, new homes, cars, college, braces, vacations, weddings.

Right now 210,000 savers (we're Michigan's largest savings institution) count on us for ideas and guidance.

We've learned a lot of secrets about saving money, over those 35 years, and we'll share our secrets with you.

You can learn how to force yourself to save. If it takes force. How to separate long-range savings from here-and-now needs.

And how to break the charge card habit. How to pay cash. How to save up for things you want to buy and earn interest rather than pay interest.

Just come in and ask. And we'll tell you how all these things work. For you.

Here's what you should do.

Bring your present passbook to one of our 24 offices.

Or mail it to us.

We'll take care of all the paper work to transfer the balance in your present account, plus any current interest due you, to a First Federal passbook.

And in a few days, you'll have that First Federal passbook.

And the next time you collect interest you'll collect a profit.

A profit based on a higher rate. Combined with our special Daily Interest, paid and compounded quarterly.

You could earn more money than you can earn if you keep your present account. Keeping your present account could cost you money. Compared with a First Federal account.

And you don't need something else that costs money.

You need something that saves money.

We can do more for you if you'll think first.

First Federal Savings of Detroit

Summer Vacation Offers Teens Many Opportunities

By Pepper Whitelaw

Summer vacation is just around the corner. Teenagers will have lots of time on their hands. Time that could be put to creative, helpful, fun-filled hours, if they direct their attention to the Student Volunteer Opportunities, sponsored by the Neighborhood Club.

The programs offer volunteers an opportunity to gain work experience, make new social contacts and try their wings in careers of particular interest to them, and at the same time be of service to others.

The program is open to youngsters from 15 years of age and up. Many of the volunteer jobs are right in The Pointe.

At Brownell Middle School Day Camp aides are needed to help in the Play Camp for five and six-year-olds on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., June 30 through July 30, and in the Fun and Games Camp for 7 to 11 year olds, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., June 29 through July 31.

Retarded Children's Recreation aides are needed at Barnes Elementary School in the special education program for trainable retarded children. Here the volunteers assist the staff in conducting arts, crafts, games, trips, swimming and music. Students with lifesaving certificates are particularly needed. These sessions meet from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., June 22 through August 15, at Barnes.

The Foundation for Exceptional Children also needs recreation aides. The group meets at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., June 15 through July 17, and at Camp Rotary July 9 through 22 ($10 fee).

Library aides for the summer film programs are needed to assist in the K through fourth grade programs held at the Central Branch, on Thursdays 11 a.m. through 12 noon, June 25 through August 6; at The Woods Branch, Fridays, 2 to 3 p.m., June 26 through August 7, in Parcels Auditorium; Park Branch on Fridays, from 2 to 3 p.m., June 26 through August 7, in Pierce Auditorium.

Library Aides for the 5th through 8th grade levels are needed at Central on Tuesdays from 2 to 4 p.m., June 23 through July 14; at The Woods on Wednesdays, 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., June 24 through July 15, at Parcels, and at The Park on Thursdays from 2 to 4 p.m., June 25 through July 16, in Pierce Auditorium.

The Neighborhood Club Teen Center, 17150 Waterloo, needs volunteers to assist with day-time programs at the center for office duty and special events, Monday through Friday from 1 to 5 p.m.

Volunteers are needed at the Neighborhood Club for the Christmas Heart Project of the Michigan Heart Association, which packages Christmas cards, Tuesday and Thursday 9 a.m. through 11 a.m., June 23 through August 1.

Georgian East Nursing Home at 21401 Mack, needs general volunteer assistants on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11 a.m. to 12 noon and from 3 to 4:30 p.m. and volunteers for the entertainment program, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 3 to 4:30 p.m.

Tutors and recreation aides to assist teachers in cultural enrichment programs offering art, drama, library, remedial reading, science and math are needed at Hamilton School, 14223 Southhampton, Scripps School, 2100 Hurbit and Lillibridge School, 11131 Kercheval, all in Detroit, from June 15 12:30 p.m.

Blecki Neighborhood Service Center, 4801 Chene, Detroit, needs leaders for its "Girls Club" on Tuesday and Thursday from 10 a.m. through 12 noon, June 22 through August 1.

Nursing Home aides are needed at the Senior Center, 587 East Grand boulevard and five convalescent homes, Jefferson and East Grand boulevard, to assist with planning and conducting recreation programs, bingo, crafts, parties and music, under the supervision of social workers, from June 22 through August 1, 1 through 5 p.m. in two hour periods.

College students and 1970 high school graduates are needed to help in the speech and language pre-school program at Kerby School, from 9 a.m. through 11:30 a.m., 1 through 2:30 p.m., June 22 through August 1.

The Wayne County Public Health Office, 15115 East Jefferson needs office staff assistants from 8:30 a.m. through 12 noon, and from 1 p.m. through four p.m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

PURSE STOLEN

Gladys Pungs of 598 St. Clair, personally appeared at the Farms station on Wednesday, June 3, to report that her purse was stolen while she was shopping at a supermarket in Mack avenue, at Moross. The purse contained her wallet with between $57 and $80, and personal papers and credit cards.

Call now and join other students in making this summer satisfying and productive for yourselves and for others by calling the Neighborhood Club Tuxedo 5-4800!

South Sophs End Year Of Service

Kudos to the sophomore class at South High School, who have spent the school year rendering service to the Detroit community.

The sophs began in November by packing and delivering some 21 Thanksgiving boxes to needy Detroit families on welfare. February produced a Valentine for the Michigan Heart Association with the assembling of over 5,000 diet kits and packing of 30,000 cards. This was a very impressive first time project for a high school in Michigan.

The group performed a much-needed paint job at Franklin Settlement House in April. They rounded out their school year activities last week by cleaning up and fixing up a camp in Dryden, Mich., for retarded children.

The class was honored at the Students Awards Assembly last Tuesday, June 10.

Mrs. Louise TeWalt, volunteer coordinator for the Neighborhood Club, said of the group, "Such positive contributions and enthusiasm for group service brings credit to our Pointe Schools and community."

Honor Students Named at GPN

Based on first semester results 21 members have been added to Grosse Pointe North's National Honor Society. These students all have a 3.0 grade point average or better and will be receiving their pins in the near future.

New members include Christine Berger, Michele Burkl, Linda Cady, Priscilla Cooper, Patricia Deros, Lynn Dikeman, Lois Faust, Cheryl Gray, Dennis Griffin, Joseph Metes and Mary Miller.

Other recipients are Joanne Reinett, Michael Sheridan, Jane Shisler, Penny Syer, David Strang, Lloyd Switzer, Patricia Symons, Patricia Thompson, Linda Trandell and Karen Williamson.

CFE Sponsors Fleming Talk

Dr. Robben Fleming, president of the University of Michigan, will appear in Grosse Pointe, Thursday, June 11, in a program sponsored by Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education. He will discuss "Rebellion on the Campus" at 8 p.m. in the Parcels Middle School auditorium.

Tickets are $1.50 a person for general admission and five dollars for patrons. Patron ticket holders will be entitled to front center seats for the talk as well as the opportunity to meet Dr. and Mrs. Fleming at an afterglow at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Opinions Vary On Canoe Trip

By Maureen Curran

The Manistee River was the scene of a riotous Memorial Day weekend as 55 students and 10 chaperones from Grosse Pointe North took to their canoes and paddled 75 miles down-river.

If a theme song could have been chosen to describe the outing, it probably would have been either "Raindrops Kept Fallin' on Their Heads", or "I'm So Tired". The former describes the camping conditions because, although it was not constantly raining, the sky was usually grey and the camping sites wet. The latter describes the state of 65 bodies from 6 o'clock Friday morning until possibly even now.

Despite the weather and the weariness, nothing dampened their spirits, and after the first day, everyone began to enjoy "life in the woods".

One of the hardest things to get used to was waking up at 5 o'clock in the morning and feeling excruciating pain from the waist up; particularly in the shoulders. Also, many pairs of hands were red and sore with blisters. These were just minor difficulties, and although there were complaints, too numerous to mention, everyone enjoyed comparing ailments and bragging that "I think I'll die if I have to paddle 40 miles today!" and "I think I'm already dead!"

The canoe trip, organized by Donald Dungan, North's Activities Director, was chaperoned by seven faculty members and two parents. "We had a ball," one chaperone commented. "In fact, I'd like to go again next year."

And what did the students think of it? "I'm signing up next year," one girl said enthusiastically. Most voiced this opinion, but a few found that "roughing it" was a bit too rough: "Oh man, I don't think my bones will ever feel the same!"

Conclusion? "I think it was a success, and a lot of fun, and I have hopes that there will be another one next year, maybe in October," commented Mr. Dungan. So do a lot of other people.

SALLY MCKENNEY, of Newberry place, has received her Masters degree in English from Georgetown University.

Farms Submits Building Report

For the second consecutive month the Farms Building Department received no applications for permits for the construction of residential buildings, and for the first time since January 1, a permit for a new business edifice, at 19200 Mack avenue, was applied for and granted.

And, for the first time this year, according to a May report submitted by John DeFoe, director of Public Service, a permit for non-assessable construction, a $30,000 shelter building in Kerby Field, Kerby and Chalfonte, was approved. The field is owned by the Farms.

During the same period, January 1 through May 31, 1969, permits were approved for residential construction, none for commercial, and 53 for miscellaneous building (garages, additions, etc.), for a total of 55 permits.

Last month, the Building Department approved a total of six miscellaneous construction permits, as compared to 15 for May 1969.

During the first five months of this year, only one residential permit was granted for a $25,000

Motorist Backs Up Into Trouble

A Detroit youth who backed his van truck into a Woods police car on Monday, June 1, will appear in Farms court to answer to a charge of operating a motor vehicle while his license was revoked.

Complainant in the matter is Woods Patrolman Theodore Hinz who said in a report, that he was behind a 1963 Ford Econo-van, in a traffic lane, at Mack and Kerby, when the driver of the van backed into his scout car. There was no damage.

However, Hinz told the driver, Lawrence E. Kotowicz, 20, of 15279 Rossini, Detroit, to pull over to the curb, after which he asked for the man's operator's license. When Rossini could not present one, Hinz called his station, and in turn, the Farms station was notified.

Farms Patrolman Sam Cardella, who was dispatched to the scene, called his station for a check on Kotowicz. The return radio reply disclosed that Kotowicz's license had been revoked by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, and that the youth was wanted on two traffic warrants by the Orchard Lake Police Department.

Kotowicz was taken to the Farms station where he was issued a violation ticket for driving while his license was revoked. He was released after posting a bond of $150. His court date is scheduled for July 8.

Orchard Lake authorities notified the Farms that a bond for their warrants was not needed, but Kotowicz was instructed to personally appear at their station to pay his fines.

The fastest way to fly is to make as few stops as possible.

Which is why United's 12:00 Noon flight doesn't stop at all. It's the only nonstop from Detroit to Hawaii.

And our nonstop isn't our whole Hawaiian story. On every one of our Hawaiian flights we offer continuous enjoyment.

For instance:

Royal Hawaiian service. Mai-Tais, Hawaiian appetizers, sumptuous meals. (A 7-course dinner in First Class, five in Coach.) There's even a Hawaiian steward to serve your after-dinner drink.

Beautiful atmosphere. We decked out our stewardesses (and our planes) in Hawaiian decor.

Entertainment. Wide-screen color movies. And stereo music with your choice of everything from Bach to rock.

Fun stuff. Like our boarding kit. With a treasure map of offbeat things to do and see in Hawaii, and a colorful booklet on the history of the Islands. And a discount book worth up to $100 on food and fun.

The kind of things you'll find on no other airline.

In short, if you're going to Hawaii, there are some excellent reasons to fly United.

One is our exclusive nonstop.

The other is our belief in an old adage: Time flies when you're having a good time.

The Braves battled the Dodgers in extra innings of the last game of the first half and won 5 to 4 on Wednesday, June 3. Steve Cotichio delivered the clutch hit, a sharp single to left field, to drive in Pat Mallon from third in the bottom of the seventh. On the previous night the game had to be called because of darkness with the score tied at four runs apiece.

Going into this week's play, both the Braves and the Dodgers had 5 won-2 lost records with two postponed games with each other still to be played. On Monday night, Jim Peabody and Steve Cotichio combined to stop the Dodgers, 12 to 5. The Braves balanced hitting attack was led by shortstop Tom Lott, first baseman Steve Nitsche and catcher Bill Anderson. On Tuesday, with League President Art Fellers under double duty as umpire, the two teams were tied at the end of the regulation six innings. Pitching chores were handled by Win Fisher of the Dodgers and Bill Anderson and Pat Mallon of the Braves. Bob Montgomery of the Braves helped send the game into extra innings with two fine catches in left field.

The Braves, managed by George Cotichio, have a well-balanced team this year. Besides the players cited above, solid hitting was contributed by centerfielder Jim Klumpp, with two homers to his credit, and by third baseman Art Behm. Other teammates who have spelled the regulars are John Engel, the Beveridge brothers, Scott and Bill, John Dunaway, Kip Vaile and Glenn Burton.

The Yankees won their third in a row by beating the Pirates 8-7 on Wednesday, June 3. Dunc Maceachern gets credit for the win with good relief from Bill Howell and a game-saving play in the sixth, when Paul Maghiesse and Tom Conway collaborated on a play at the plate for the final out.

Peter Coles hit the first pitch of the ball game for a long home run for the Pirates and Rod McHugh batted in two additional Pirate runs in the third with a home run. Chris Seaver and Peter Stalker also had singles in the sixth to help score two runs for the Pirates in that inning.

Mike Willard's three base hit got the Yankees off to a big five-run first inning. Mike also collected a double in the fourth. Dunc Maceachern helped win his own ball game by getting a run, scoring single in the second for the Yankees and by batting in the winning Yankee run with a triple in the fifth. Yankee runs were scored by Ted Bondiuk, Eddie Vermet, Alex Jackson, Steve Brandt, Greg Leinweber, Paul Maghiesse, Dunc Maceachern and Tim O'Gorman who also singled before he scored.

Pirate runs were scored by Peter Coles, Tom Coles, Peter Stoll, Rod McHugh, Dan Mike-sell and two by Chris Seaver.

After a two-game losing streak, the Astros beat the much-improved Tigers 6-5 in extra innings. The losing pitcher was Tom Temrowski, relieving Paul Crane for the Tigers. The winning pitcher was Larry Coughlin, relieving Randy Book. A strong hitting attack by the Tigers tied it up 5-5 in the sixth inning. John Graham, Adam Aaron, and Matt Aaron collected triples, Tom Temrowski a double, and Bob Leonard a home run for the Tigers.

The triples for the Tigers deserved to be home runs, but excellent throws from the outfield by Al Claval saved it for the winners. Tim Boyse belted a home run for the Astros. Tom Hollarbach made a spectacular over-the-head catch behind second base to stop a threat by the Tigers.

Once Larry Coughlin appeared, he retired six batters on strikeouts in the sixth and seventh innings to save the game. The winning run was scored by Jay Hubner in the seventh inning with two out.

Friday, after the Red Legs got off to a five run first inning the Phillies came back strong to tie the score in the fourth. FLEC President Gardner Submits Progress Report

In an interview with Dr. Max Gardner, president of Family Life Education Council of Grosse Pointe (FLEC), Ed Krattli, professional staff member of FLEC, and former president Dr. Calier Worrell, the NEWS received the following progress report on the fight against drug abuse in The Pointe.

FLEC has been one of the most active organizations striving to find workable solutions to the drug abuse problem. Its work is widely known among those who have knowingly come in contact with drugs abuse in Grosse Pointe.

Because the use of, and addiction to heroin has become severe in The Pointe, a large part of the resources and energies of the organization have been directed toward establishing a program of assistance to problems associated with heroin. The treatment of the heroin addict has consistently presented problems in many communities. The same approach certainly has not worked with every user or addict. Results have been poor in most cases. Researchers are busy all over the country trying to develop more effective programs.

FLEC has been providing services for more than a year and while results are difficult to evaluate, there is no question that it has been instrumental in helping to salvage many who were deeply involved in a problem for which no other help was available.

The services currently offered through FLEC have evolved out of many months of experience. Flexibility, trial and error and modifications of approach have been necessary. The development of the program is continuing and it is certain to be different as more is learned.

Young people involved with heroin usage are referred to FLEC by police, parents, doctors, school personnel as well as the Wayne County Health Officer. The heroin user and his family in an interview by FLEC's professional staff are told about the FLEC program and the requirements.

A heroin user, in order to attend the counseling services, must agree to have a urine analysis three times a week. This makes it possible to determine if heroin has been used within the last 72 hours. It has been found that verbal statements of a heroin user as to whether he has or has not used heroin, cannot be relied upon. Also the requirement to attend group counseling is that the parents attend the FLEC parent group session held weekly. These parent sessions are for the purpose of helping parents learn from one another and from the professional staff, the strategies the family must employ in coping with this debilitating problem.

Many families who are facing the heroin problem are finding it almost insurmountable without support and aid from other families who know the problem first hand. Young people attending the counseling sessions must be brought to the sessions by their parents and picked up by their parents.

The counseling sessions are designed to discuss the reasons as to why each individual has allowed himself to become involved with heroin, to discuss and deal with personal problems and hang-ups and to help individuals plan the necessary strategies and reinforcements which will help them stay off heroin.

Since October, 1969, approximately 100 young people using heroin, between the ages of 14 and 23, have been referred to FLEC services. Of this 100 or so cases approximately 60 have been involved in the service if only for a brief period. Conditions which have caused youth not to continue with the program have been lack of motivation to kick the habit, unwillingness to cooperate, jail, hospitalization for hepatitis and for withdrawal, individual psychiatric treatment, entering into either a methadone maintenance program or the special heroin addiction projects at Lafayette Clinic.

As expected, those users who have had a slight involvement, (only occasional or short-time usage), have had the highest degree of success with getting off and staying off heroin.

Of the 60 young people involved in the FLEC program approximately five have been in this category. Those users who are involved for two or three months when at least one of those month's usage has been daily and with habit costs ranging from $10 to $25 a day, have been much less successful.

Even though these young people are not viewed as hard core addicts and have not really developed expensive habits, they seem to find real difficulty in disassociating themselves from the heroin sub culture. Very frequently these users, through the FLEC services, are successful in cutting down the frequency and dosage but are not very often successful in getting permanently off heroin.

Of the 60 users involved in FLEC services approximately 40 fall into this category. The other category includes those who have been involved, extensively with habit costs ranging up to $25 to $50 daily for eight or more months, have been completely unsuccessful with staying off of heroin for more than three weeks.

Since May 1, 1970 when the requirements for attending FLEC group counseling sessions were tightened, 12 young people between the ages of 14 and 19 have been involved and the prospects for eight of them kicking the heroin habit seem promising. However, with heroin it is difficult to tell what eventually will happen.

FLEC hopes to work very closely with the newly formed Youth Service Division when it becomes operable.

Families or users seeking more information on FLEC's services may do so by calling 885-3510 during regular business hours.

Doctor And Teen Write On Drugs

The following letters, one written by a medical man, the other by a teenager, poignantly express intimate views of the local drug scene.

To The Editor:— I have just left the intensive care unit of one of our hospitals where I witnessed the death of a husky, good looking 17-year-old boy.

He was unconscious for two days prior to his death... kept alive by a respirator and intratracheal tube and intravenous feedings. At 9:20 this morning, his heart stopped. Immediate cardiac massage and injection of medication directly into his heart itself was done, but to no avail... the heart would not start up again.

This young man did not have an incurable disease, a serious injury, or a defective heart. He was an addict and died of an overdose of drugs. His whole life ahead of him and he threw it away.

I thought as I left the hospital if every young person who was tempted to try drugs could have witnessed that scene they would never think about trying drugs a second time.

Sincerely, Robert F. Rentenbach, M.D. F.A.C.S. (Dr. Rentenbach lives in Beverly road).

The second letter is addressed to "Dear Mom and Dad." I am writing this letter because I want you to realize that I am concerned about what is happening to my generation. It is easier to write my feelings since I can express them best this way.

You have read about the drug scene in our "upper middle-class" neighborhood. As you read this letter you might be thinking, "I know my child couldn't be involved with drugs." But I, as your child, raise these questions, "Do you know for sure that I don't take drugs? Have you ever really sat down and talked with me on an adult level about drugs or anything? Have you ever examined your ideas for my future and how what you want for me, might be the exact opposite from my own ambitions?" If you suspect or have proof that I am using drugs, don't panic. Sit down and talk with me, NOT to me. Find out why I turned to drugs. I don't want you to talk to my pal or dictator, but as your equal, capable of thinking rationally. If I am taking drugs, help me by calling FLEC, Wayne County Health Department or Open City.

After reading this letter please don't automatically think I am turned-on to drugs. Stop to think: Do you really know me? Do you trust me completely? Do you treat me as a rational human being?

I really do appreciate what you have done for me, or have tried to do, even if I don't agree with it sometimes. I know you did it in good faith. I really love you, Mom and Dad, but I deeply feel we are lacking in communication.

"Please talk with me and try to understand my own concepts of life. It will take the three of us, working together, to make a meaningful start in solving problems. Let's all try harder in the future. Please!"

This letter came to the NEWS from a committee of the War Memorial Youth Council, which has been concerned with ways to better inform parents on their children's views of the drug scene.

The committee will not disclose the source of the letter.

Did your teenager write it and then not post it because he was afraid to? Can you be sure this letter was not written to you by your child?

EDITOR'S NOTE: NEWS Staff Writer Pepper Whitelaw has been compiling reports on the illegal use of drugs in The Pointe for a number of years. Her stories have served not only to enlighten residents on the seriousness of the community drug problem but have also helped stimulate correctional programs. The stories on this page, compiled by Mrs. Whitelaw, reflect some of the attitudes concerning drug abuse and report on some efforts being made to combat it.

Kiwanis Joins Fight Against Drugs

Kiwanis International's Program of community education on drugs and drug abuse, called Operation Drug Alert, has proved to be one of the most successful undertakings in the organization's history, according to word from Rodger A. Graef, president of the Kiwanis Club of Grosse Pointe. Locally Kiwanians will channel their efforts through the newly formed Youth Service Division. Pictured are winners of the ODA poster contest conducted at North and South High schools and ODA committee members. They are (left to right) GEORGE SHAMMAS, RICHARD VACANTE, second place winner and ninth grader at South; MR. GRAEF; MARY COLLINS, first place winner and senior at South; RICHARD BEACH, holding South High student, Liz Johnson's third place winning poster and HAROLD STAATS, chairman of the local ODA committee.

Clinic Director Discusses Drug Problem

In an interview with NEWS staff Pepper Whitelaw, Kenneth G. Schooff, M.D., Co-Director of Lafayette Clinic Outpatient Department made the following statement.

"The number of youths from all areas resorting to the use of stimulants, hallucinogens, barbiturates and opiates, including heroin, has increased alarmingly across the country. This has been noted by the popular TV and press, as well as by scientific surveys. Many views have been put forth as to why this is occurring, including: our age of anxiety; the constant threat of war or annihilation; our increasing dependence on drugs of all kinds for relief of symptoms; the pressure for performance, particularly for the children; the current knowledge explosion in all fields; the deterioration of the family, etc. Each of these have had some validity but no one answer is really complete.

"Grosse Pointe has experienced a drug epidemic paralleled closely in the other suburbs of Detroit. One explanation for the publicity Grosse Pointe has received is its proximity to the center city, and therefore its accessibility to researchers and reporters.

"Statistics dealing with the treatment of heroin populations have come primarily from the Federal treatment center at Lexington, Kentucky. The cure rate is low, around 5 percent. The difficulties in treatment of addicts have been a source of discouragement and frustration for many workers in the field of drug abuse. However, it should be noted that this has been primarily a chronic drug population that has been addicted for years. The current young heroin user has not necessarily paralleled this "cure rate." A number of individuals experiment with heroin and do not become addicted. A number of individuals who have experimented fairly significantly with heroin have been able to give up this experimentation. Different forms of treatment have been successful for different patients. Some have "kicked" on their own. Others have sought treatment from family physicians, pediatricians and internists, and have met with some success. Some have been successful with treatment from psychiatrists.

"The rap groups administered at the Neighborhood Club by FLEC have also met with a certain amount of success. Unfortunately, there is a group that has become addicted that does seem to mirror the chronic addict population regarding difficulty in treatment. The current Lafayette Clinic project, which has dealt only with the significantly addicted individual, has had quite limited success. It is really too early to say what percentage of youth can be cured by this type treatment. However, a major therapeutic tool of this program has not yet been employed, and this is the blocking agent. A flexible approach has to be maintained whereby an individual can be referred to medical treatment, psychiatric treatment, outpatient group therapy, recreational kinds of therapy, and/or hospitalization as needed.

"The drug problem currently reaches such magnitudes that no program has yet been devised which has begun to adequately treat the problem. This must be seen as a community problem and must be dealt with within the local community. These problems will not be resolved by outside agencies, outside hospitals or outside research teams. Strong local community effort has to be exerted to isolate and implement essential ingredients of both preventive and therapeutic programs. Preventive programs have been initiated in school systems throughout the cities, suburbs and the country. The measure of success is not yet clear. Therapeutic programs are still largely experimental. In the young addict population there has not been sufficient experience or work to evolve the best treatment methods. This is being responded to by many disciplines and resources.

Young Burglar Is Dope Addict

A 16-year-old Park boy was arrested by Park police on Wednesday, June 3, in connection with the burglary of the home of the Leonard Smiths, 841 Whittier, on May 17. Another 16-year-old is expected to be taken into custody shortly and charged with the same break-in.

Dets. Robert Saiford and Charles Petrie said that they had been investigating the burglary since the date it was reported, and their investigations took them to the home of the Park boy. They spoke to the teen's parents, who brought their son to the station, where he was placed under arrest.

The teenager in custody and his companion broke into the Smith residence through a basement window. They took three portable television sets and a portable stereo, valued at a total of about $1,500.

You'll buy Westinghouse

It's so quiet you have to feel it to know it's on. The Continental was measured against the sound level of leading competitive brands and listened to by a consumer testing panel. They rated the Continental by far the quietest room air conditioner.

Which proved our concept. A new concept in air conditioning. The Continental is designed so that all working parts are outside and below your window. Puts the wall of your house between you and the sound.

Decorator styling. Since it has a low silhouette—only 10" high—the Continental also lets more light into the room. The front fits flush with the window, so draperies and blinds hang without unsightly bulges. When not in use, handsome sliding doors completely cover the front controls. In the winter, simply remove the window panel unit, install a special cover on the outside and close the window.

High Capacity. The Continental Room Air Conditioner comes in capacities of 11,000 and 15,000 BTU's, in models that can be installed in a window or through a wall.

Free parts and free labor for one year. Westinghouse guarantees that you'll never have to worry about maintenance should anything go wrong, no matter where you live or move in the U.S.A. And Westinghouse backs up this Sure Service with a reliable nationwide service organization manned by more than 12,000 Westinghouse-trained service technicians. With a service policy this strong, our products had better be good.

Mallard Family Has A Field Day

Woods Dog Warden Dave McQueen, who claims this has been the busiest spring for answering dog complaints within his memory, this week added a duck chase to his growing list of animal-related incidents.

McQueen was called to the home of Ann Johnstone, of 1252 Hampton, on Thursday, June 4, to pick up a "Mamma" Mallard and her gaggle of 12 ducklings. Alas, when McQueen arrived, the ducks were gone.

Shortly thereafter, McQueen received another call from a resident, who reported that the duck family was crossing the road at the intersection of Marter road and Brys drive. Once again, the ducks had disappeared when McQueen arrived at the scene, but this time he was able to track them down.

He spotted the water fugitives at Marter and Aline, crossing the street again and trying to traffic. McQueen chased the ducks to Marter and Edmunton, where he was finally able to catch them and put them in his caged truck.

"Those ducks had traffic tied up for blocks," said McQueen. "The mother duck really gave us a fight, but we were finally able to contain her. Just after we placed her in the truck, one of the ducklings broke loose and we started all over again."

McQueen released the ducks onto the waters of Lake St. Clair.

D'you Know That?

By Paul Schweitzer

Most everyone is familiar with the "POSTMAN'S MOTTO", but not many know of its origin. Do you know who wrote it?

"Neither sleet nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night shall stay these men from their appointed rounds"...

Did you know that this is a writing over 2000 years old? It's a quote from a history of wars between Greece and Persia written by Herodotus in the 4th Century B.C.

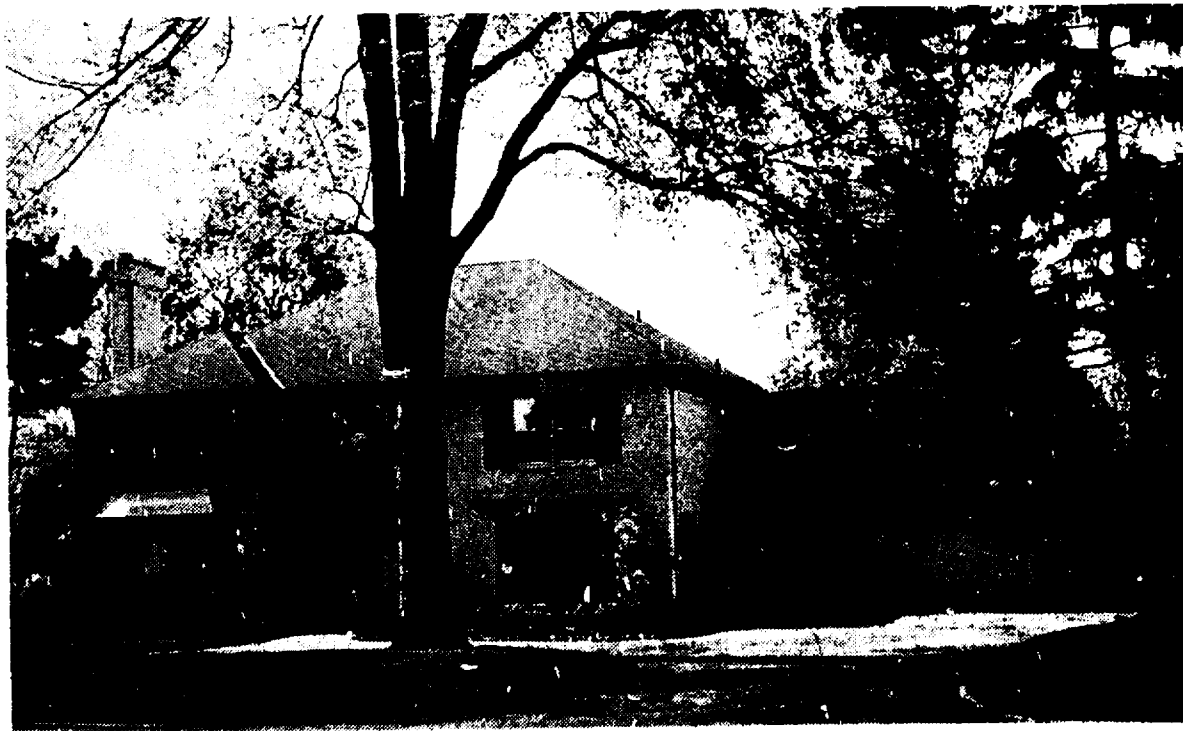

The postmen, then, were valiant war-couriers carrying orders along the battle routes...

Today postmen carry the mails — but when you consider the safety of our streets — the valor of these men has little changed.

Kudos to Our Librarians

Numerous times throughout the working year, NEWS reporters are forced to turn to the archives of the Public Library to ferret out pieces of information or to check historical data, prior to the writing of a news article. We at the NEWS are not unique. The Public Library is the saving force for thousands of literature-hungry Pointers throughout the year. It is also the perfect "study" for many students, who find its quietude and wealth of information valuable tools in the successful completion of papers or an aid in preparation for examinations.

The NEWS this week gives kudos to the fine staff of conscientious librarians on hand not only at the Library's main branch, but also those who so kindly and efficiently serve The Pointe at the Park and Woods branches. These ladies seem to go all-out to help satisfy the literary needs of all with whom they come into contact. No task is too small nor too big to thwart their seemingly boundless energy or their sincere desire to help the reading public. Too often, NEWS staff members have been victim of the apparent apathy of "public servants." To say this is not the case with staff members of the Public Library would be one of the year's great understatements. The NEWS salutes the Public Library and all its hard-working librarians and urges all Pointers to get to know them by making full use of the library.

Dear Editor:

We read the library column in the June 4 issue of the Grosse Pointe News and recognized that it was written by our friendly Park branch librarian, Mrs. Neff.

We want to thank Mrs. Neff for being so courteous and patient with us and for helping us find just the right book. We would also like to thank her for letting us come to the library on a three week basis.

Dear Mr. Edgar:

I would like to extend my sincerest "thank you" to you for the coverage you provided in behalf of the St. Joan of Arc Spring Festival.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Guest Columnist: Phyllis Barr

The little girl paused shyly at the top of the stairs.

"Are you looking for somebody?" we asked her.

"No. . . . I just wondered what was up here."

How many of you have wondered what was up on the second floor at Central Library?

Would you like to be shown around?

Here is the Director's office, a very busy place. Perhaps his job could be briefly, if inadequately described as decisions, decisions, decisions.

about people: You, the public, and your relation to the library, and how to give you the very best service we possibly can; endless decisions about books and periodicals and tools and audio-visual materials; decisions about the buildings and furnishings—libraries, just like homes, occasionally need cleaning and painting and refurbishing and rearranging. Libraries also get "growing pains" as their reading families grow in number, as have ours throughout the years. Coping with all this is an atmosphere fraught with inflation and millage problems, is the Director's concern.

In this pretty, blue-walled office is the Chief of Children's Service, Miss Helms. However, she only sits here part of the time. She is chief liaison between the library and the schools. She compiles lists of new books and old favorites for the young fry from toddler to teen age; she gives talks to classes on the art of story-telling; teaches how to use the library catalog system. She addresses Girl Scout groups and mothers' groups, and gets many requests from parents as to what book would be suitable for their young people, and what encyclopedia would she recommend for Junior, and so on. A very busy lady.

This large room is the Exhibition Room. One never knows just what one will come upon in here. Perhaps it will be a nursery school group, intent little faces fixed upon one of the children's librarians as she tells them a story. Oh-oh! Here is a timid little first-timer, just two minutes separated from mother, whose tears will be dried before he is taken downstairs to rejoin her. (One such little fellow became so enamored of the fish in the aquarium downstairs that he forgot why he came down!) Every effort is made to ensure that our small citizens feel the library is a good place to be.

Another time the Exhibition Room might have a study group in it; or some people watching the astronauts—in color—on the TV set the Friends of the Library gave us. . . . And if you had peeked in a few weeks ago, you might have thought you had blundered into a florist's greenhouse, by mistake. The room was beautiful with flowers, because a women's garden club was learning from an expert how to arrange flowers and greens tastefully.

At all times you would find art prints around the walls, which the library loans to patrons for up to three months.

Now, the stock room. When we gave this a housecleaning, we came upon some odd, unlibraryish things in a seldom-used corner. For instance, who would expect to find a bright red Christmas stocking in here?

Well, we did. A few inquiries elicited the information that there had been a "Night Before Christmas" display, some years ago. This stocking had been hung on the mantel, and what do you suppose was in it? What else but a book!

Lastly, the Friends Room. This lovely room with the long conference table, indirect lighting and fireplace is available to small groups of a dozen or so, who meet for educational or cultural purposes. Some staff meetings like Book Selection Committee take place here throughout the year. Once the writer had the job of listing the books in the library. The library has been the happy and grateful recipient of some rare and lovely volumes. It is awesome to handle a Bible well over a hundred years old, with spidery handwriting on the cover-page, written by some long-gone person. There are some unusual editions of ALICE IN WONDERLAND. Would you believe we have ALICE translated into Italian and even Swahili and shorthand? We held carefully in our hands some letters Lewis Carroll wrote to friends (signed, of course, C. L. Dodgson).

And out here on the balcony we have the lady who handles the stock for three libraries, the bills and the payroll, Mrs. Henke; Mrs. Lemhagen, who takes care of the Friends' work; Mrs. Morris, secretary to the Chief of Children's Service, and your guest columnist, the Director's secretary. We are amused when people say, "But what is there to DO upstairs; we thought everything was done downstairs." We are not in an ivory tower!

There are reports to go out at frequent intervals to the Board of Education concerning all our activities, as well as publicity, correspondence and lists covering all our services. Several telephones ring constantly, and it is a beehive of activity. We prepare book talks and reviews for our busy Director to deliver. The work is varied, interesting and never, never dull. We occasionally have a humorous moment as, sitting at our typewriter we have a vantage point from which to observe most of the main floor.

With sympathetic understanding we have watched ladies in distress use the privacy between the stacks to adjust an article of clothing which is awry; or seen boy-meeting-girl. We've been told some patrons have admitted to coming in "to write a letter where it's cool" in the summer.

Anything more you'd like to know? We don't blame you for being curious. We felt the same way, before we worked here. There was even a dog, one day, who managed to slip past the alert girls at the circulation desk and somehow find his way up here (in search of higher education?)

Until the establishment of the Youth Service Division, which will have as one of its responsibilities the recording and coordinating of all phases of the progress being made within the entire community in its fight against drug abuse, it is too early to make any determination as to whether or not there is an actual increase or decline in the usage of heroin by our young people.

"The newly formed Youth Service Division had hoped to be in operation by July 1st, but because the Grosse Pointe Board of Education will not be in a position to approve the contractual agreement with the other five Grosse Pointe communities until sometime later this month, or during the month of July, it is doubtful that the new Youth Service Division will become operable until August.

At this stage we cannot positively determine that there is a significant increase in the usage of heroin drugs by the youth within the Grosse Pointe communities.

"We are experiencing an increase in the number of drug abuse cases being recorded and an apparent increase in the number of youths who have been apprehended with various needles, syringes and other related "drug shooting paraphernalia" in their possession.

"Such increases may not be indicative of an actual increase in the number of youths in the community "shooting heroin", because all of the Public Safety and Police Departments within the Grosse Pointe communities have been putting forth a greater and concentrated effort to identify, record, refer and/or apprehend all youths involved in the violation of our drug laws.

Outdoors is the nicest summertime way to entertain, and we're crossing our fingers and hoping the weather will cooperate for Mrs. Merlin A. Cudlip who's planned a patio luncheon at her Lakeshore road home June 23.

Guests will be the 40 members of the Activities Committee, Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts.

That's the group, you know, that rents and sells prints and originals at the museum, (and, incidentally, realizes a Very Tidy Profit FOR the museum by so doing—do you realize how many businesses are "steady customers," leasing whole BLOCKS of paintings for their offices?).

Mrs. Joseph A. Vance, Jr., of South Deeplands road, the Committee's new first vice-president, will be among the patio-lunchers at Mrs. Cudlip's.

All of a sudden, it's the most avant thing a head of hair can do. It can be one lone curl pinned onto a sleek hair-do. Or two of them falling carelessly where two guiches used to be. Or a whole fetching head-ful. Whichever. Whatever. If you'd like to be the charming girl with the brand new curl, see us. Garden Center Plans Festival Field Trip

Members Will View Hundreds of Roses in Bloom Next Wednesday Morning, Returning to War Memorial by Noon

Grosse Pointe Garden Center's Wednesday, June 17, workshop will be a field trip to the 11th annual Rose Festival of the William Mihelich and Son Nursery in Warren. Garden Center members have been asked to meet at the War Memorial before 10 o'clock by Mrs. Wesley R. Johnson, chairman of Garden Workshops.

Cars will leave at 10 sharp and members who do not wish to drive may ride with other members who will drive to the nurseries located near Eight Mile road and Schoenherr highway. Members will be back at the War Memorial by noon.

Mr. Mihelich will give the group a conducted tour to view hundreds of roses in bloom as well as other nursery stock.

Another feature of the Rose Festival is free literature on Merion Blue grass maintenance, grub control and caring for evergreens.

This field trip is an innovation for Grosse Pointe Garden Center which offers its members opportunities to become better informed in horticulture and practical home gardening techniques.

Usually these workshops, involving no work more strenuous than notetaking during practical talks by local experts are held in the Garden Center Room on the second floor of Alger House, made available to the group by the gracious gift of the late Mrs. Russell A. Alger when her home became the War Memorial Center.

Walton-Dancy Rites Celebrated May 26

Newlyweds Are Summering in India with Bridegroom's Parents; Will Return to States Through Europe

A reception at the Beta Theta Pi House in Fulton, Mo., followed the wedding of Carol Sue Dancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Dancy, of Bedford road, and H. Richard Walton, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold V. Walton, of Columbia, Mo., Tuesday afternoon, May 26.

The ceremony was held in the Church of Saint Mary Aldermanbury, the Winston Churchill Memorial in Fulton.

The newlyweds will vacation in the Far East, spending the summer in India with the bridegroom's parents, and then return to the States through Europe to live in St. Louis.

The bride wore a cap-sleeved organza gown, lace appliqued with seed pearl overlay and a veil of silk illusion falling from a lace crown. She carried a Colonial bouquet of stephanotis, baby-breath and ivy.

Maid of honor Janice Dancy, sister of the bride, and bridesmaid Carolyn Willuweit, of St. Clair Shores, wore long-sleeved yellow organza frocks with white lace appliques defining their Empire waists and high collars. They held white daisy bouquets centered with yellow Sweetheart roses.

Best man was J. Charles McKibbin, of Columbia.

Beta Theta Pi fraternity brothers of the bridegroom Dwight Haldeman, of Hutchinson, Kans., and Barry Eden, of Dallas, Tex., and the bride's brother Richard Dancy, Jr., served as ushers.

Setting for the Tuesday, May 26, wedding of CAROL SUE DANCY, daughter of the Richard H. Dancys, of Bedford road, and Mr. Walton, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold V. Walton, of Columbia, Mo., was the Winston Churchill Memorial Church of Saint Mary Aldermanbury, Fulton, Mo.

Inside The Mothers Club

A delightful luncheon, served at small tables with attractive daisy centerpieces, planned by Mrs. Frank Bromley and Mrs. Bruce Carey, co-chairmen, preceded the June Executive Board meeting of the South High Mothers Club at the Hospitality Center in the Village.

President Mrs. Douglas Smith officiated during the business meeting. Of particular interest was the gratitude expressed by Jerry Gerich, faculty advisor to the Mothers Club, (which he termed "a most unique organization"), for their many contributions to the school program, especially raising $8,000 for scholarship grants as well as helping to process applications.

For the first time North and South High graduating seniors are planning a combined post-commencement party to be held June 16 at the War Memorial from 9:30 to 2 o'clock, after separate graduation exercises. Mrs. Robert Williams from South and Mrs. Robert Schuler from North are acting as co-chairmen.

A special vote of thanks was given to four unsung heroines of the Board by Mrs. Smith, for faithfully attending monthly meetings throughout the year and submitting detailed reports to the Board. They are Mrs. John Guba, PTA Council representative, Mrs. Chester Craft, Board of Education representative, Mrs. Maurice DeClercq, Motion Picture-TV Council delegate, and Mrs. Alton Donnell, Health Education Council delegate.

At the conclusion of reports Mrs. Smith introduced guest speaker, Eugene Wigglesworth, South High Science instructor.

"Being concerned about pollution is not enough. We all must act" was the challenge presented by Mr. Wigglesworth. He pointed out specific actions that we as citizens of Grosse Pointe can take to help solve our environmental problems.

Promoting the need for a mass transit system in the Detroit area, (to limit the use of cars), buying furs from ranch-raised, (not trapped), animals, boycotting wearing a apparel made from hides of animals or feathers of birds threatened with extinction, (leopard, seal, penguin), boycotting stores which handle non-returnable bottles and pressuring local councils to limit the excessive use of salt on city streets in winter are a few of the suggestions presented by Mr. Wigglesworth.

More citizens should join the Sierra Club and the Audubon Society, organizations which for years have been working to conserve our natural resources, curb the use of pesticides and discourage the draining of coastal waterways, (a threat to the ecology of nature), said Mr. Wigglesworth.

For a detailed description of ways to "Give Earth a Chance" the speaker encouraged sending for the pamphlet "Environmental Action for Survival," 146F Natural Resources, U. of M., Ann Arbor, 48104.

After adjournment Mrs. Smith presented the gavel to the new 1970-71 president Mrs. George Crockett. Mrs. Crockett, together with assisting officers Mrs. Charles Beltz, president-elect, Mrs. Herbert Towson, recording secretary, and Mrs. Robert Batten, treasurer, were unanimously elected at the annual luncheon May 27.

Receiving degrees from Brown University, Providence, R.I., June 1 were two Grosse Pointe High School graduates, JOHN E. SIPE, whose Bachelor of Science in Materials Science Engineering was awarded magna cum laude, son of Mr. and Mrs. JOHN E. SIPE, of Van Antwerp road, and CHARLES F. GOREY, whose Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies was awarded magna cum laude, son of Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES B. GOREY, Jr., of Stephens road.

Extend Center Dance Classes

By popular demand Mr. and Mrs. Ted Forrest will extend their Thursday Night Dance classes at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial into a new summer session. The term begins June 25 and continues through August 13 weekly from 8 to 9 o'clock with a second class from 9 to 10 if necessary. The latest popular steps will be taught as well as the more traditional fox trot and waltz.

Classes will be held in the Reception Room of Alger House or in the Crystal Ballroom depending on other activities at the Center. The course is $12 or a single enrollment of $20 for a couple. Advance enrollment is suggested.

Charles Raphael Weds In April

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday, April 11, at a 7:30 o'clock candlelight service in First United Methodist Church of Royal Oak were Mary Kay Woodworth, daughter of the Harland M. Woodworths, of Huntington Woods, and Charles Gregory Raphael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Raphael, of Renaud road.

The rites at which Dr. Everett Seymour presided were followed by a reception at Stouffer's Northland Inn after which the newlyweds left for a vacation in Williamsburg, Va. They are making their home in Troy.

Alencon lace appliques accented the bride's candlelight gown. The groom wore a matching lace appliques studded with seed pearls trimmed with shoulder length veil, falling from a cap of peau de soie petals and pearls, and she carried stephanotis and white roses.

Her attendants wore chiffon frocks featuring mint green bodices and off-white skirts and carried nosegays of yellow roses with mint green carnations.

Honor matron was Mrs. Barry Soble, of Dryden. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert M. Woodworth, of Chicago, Ill., Susan Woodworth, the bride's sister, Lois Raphael, the bridegroom's sister, and Mrs. Duane Nelles, of Farmington.

Theodore Raphael came from Wilbraham, Mass., to act as his brother's best man. Ushers were Thomas Horn, of New Haven, Conn., Bruce Mann, of Huntington Woods, and John and Robert Woodworth, the bride's brothers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Woodworth selected a mint green silk worsted ensemble and a corsage of mint green cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink silk worsted costume and pink cymbidium orchids.

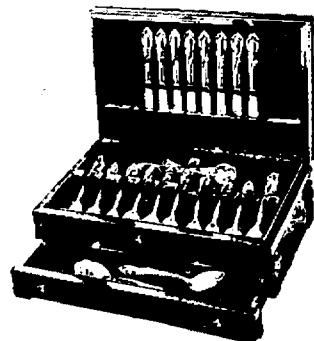

If it's from Wright Kay, it's Distinctive.

Everywhere this summer. But come fall, all new hemlines will be longer, from kneecap to just below the knee, to boot top to mid-calf. For dresses the most popular length will be just below the knee, for coats, the mid-calf midi.

This is more than a hemline change. It's a completely new approach to dressing for a completely new decade. It's putting things in more sophisticated perspective. It's a new stance, a new stature. It's more feminine, more subtle. More cool, less kook. It's a '70's sense of proportion that bares getting acquainted with and accustomed to this summer.

This is why we've brought in some of the new longer lengths now—the midi raincoat and gaucho pants, the knee-covering front and evening dresses, the slit-front skirts. And the accessories that complete the looks.

When you have time stop in. Try on some of the new longer lengths. Get the feel and flair of it all. We think you'll agree, next fall's clothes are going to be a great new experience.

A HOPE-ful Lawn Party

We have our fingers crossed too for Jeannie and Don McCubrey and Judie and Bill Beach and all their Hope Ship League committee members planning this Sunday's Good Ol' Summertime Lawn Party on the spacious grounds of the Russell E. Bauers' home in Lake-shore road.

AND for Bill and Jan Bauer—because if it DOES rain, the entire party will adjourn to THEIR home in Sunningdale drive... which, though large, just might have trouble holding The Primo Family, a barbershop quartet, "The Sharpshooters," the Grosse Pointe Theatre Chorus, a roaring Dixieland Band AND the few hundred or so guests the previously mentioned groups will be entertaining!

So Think Sun Sunday... along with Hope Ship League Good Ol' Summertime party prize-givers Brigitte and Jimmy Launce, program chairmen Gwen and Jack McKernan, prize chairmen Phyllis and Richard Rabbideau, reception chairmen Judie and Roger Bailey, equipment chairman Roger Boeve... with Joyce and Henry Gildner, Jr., Ann and Dick Robbins, Nann and Jim Tyler and Annand Bill Marsden who are in charge of food and beverages, with photo booth chairman Mary Lou Brittan and with Rita Flaherty, who heads the sign committee.

Well—indoors or out there'll be dancing, entertainment, food, drinks and at the photo booth you can have your picture taken on an old-fashioned tandem bike, all available at $2.50 per person admission with the proceeds going to HOPE.

There'll be hot dogs, cocktails, popcorn, ice cream, beer... Something for everybody between 2 and 5 o'clock on a lazy summer Sunday afternoon.

A SUNNY lazy summer Sunday afternoon.

Up And Away At St. Michael's

How about a sunny lazy summer Sunday morning too?

"Up, Up and Away" is the theme and parish fellowship will be the purpose when members of St. Michael's Episcopal Church gather on the Church's Sunningdale Park lawn after the 9:30 o'clock service this Sunday morning.

Entertainment will include music by Heine and the Sober Six, students at North High School, and songs by South High's Choralers under the direction of Leonard Riccinto.

Guitarist Steve Frank, a senior at South High, will also take part in the program. And there'll be a make-your-own sundae area where EVERYONE's expected to join in, choosing and blending varieties of ice creams and toppings "to taste."

Final fun will center on the launching of helium-filled balloons while the Choralers sing "Up, Up and Away." Each parishioner attending Sunday will release a balloon with an attached postcard, (stamped), bearing a Scriptural message along with his own name and address.

As the balloons come down in the community—or more distant points—finders are asked not to be keepers but to sign the cards and return them to the senders.

Dixieland Jamboree

There'll be a Dixieland Jamboree at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club tomorrow night. The party, featuring dinner, dancing to the sounds of the Tailgate Raiders and lots and lots of just plain fun has been planned by the Northeast Guidance Center's Assistance League to thank all members and friends who've made this year such an outing success and are looking forward to another exciting year.

Hostesses for the evening will be newly-elected League president Mrs. Robert Vallee and her Future Planning Committee members Miss Gertrude Draves, Mrs. Troy Maschmeyer, Mrs. Donald Mandich, Mrs. Mark Valente, Jr., Mrs. William Atkins, Mrs. Frank Germack and Mrs. John Formella.

Elizabeth Lang Wed To Richard Dehncke

Garden Reception at Lothrop Road Home of Bride's Parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Frederick Lang, Follows Saturday Rites

Grosse Pointe Congregational Church was the setting for the afternoon marriage of Elizabeth Ann Lang and Richard John Dehncke Saturday, June 6. Mr. George E. Pruessner officiated at the rites which were followed by a garden reception at the Lang home.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Frederick Lang, of Lothrop road. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rae Dehncke, of East Lansing.

Embroidered flower appliques were scattered along the top and down the front of the bride's silk organza gown. The sleeves and hem of her dress were also trimmed in flowers, as was her illusion veil with forget-me-not appliques. She carried a nosegay of stephanotis, white roses and baby's-breath.

Carolyn Jayne, her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids Barbara Lang, another sister, and Janet Haedicke, of East Lansing, wore printed Georgette frocks with pink and yellow daisies on a green background. They married baskets filled with white daisies and miniature carnations.

Captain Rae Dehncke, Jr., served as his brother's best man. The bride's brother, William Lang, of Warren, and Michael Whalen, of Grand Rapids, ushered.

The bride's mother wore a pink linen sheath with a stole. The bridegroom's mother selected a turquoise chiffon dress with a chiffon pancho. Both mothers wore cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds will make their home in Denver, Col., in the fall.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. John Demarest, of Brookfield, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ritter, of Huntington, N.Y.

Major Whitaker Weds In East

The bride's niece, Kathleen Turco, of Muskegon, was flowergirl.

The bride wore an Empire ivory re-embroidered Alencon lace coat over a satin gown and a short mantilla of matching lace. She carried a Colonial bouquet of Amazon lilies, small peach roses and baby's-breath.

The bride's attendants were dressed in Empire style peach peau de soie gowns with scoop necklines trimmed in ivory satin ribbons and peach lace. They carried miniature white carnations with moss green ribbons.

State Symphony
Under The Stars

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra's 18th consecutive season of free "Symphony Under The Stars" concerts at the Michigan State Fairgrounds opens this evening, Thursday, June 11.

Valter Poole will conduct all performances, scheduled for Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays through June 21.

Concert time will be 8:30 o'clock at the Fairgrounds Music Shell near Woodward and Eight Mile road.

There'll be one exception to this schedule however: Instead of an evening concert at the Fairgrounds Sunday, June 14, the Orchestra and Poole will present a 3 o'clock performance on the Kern Block in downtown Detroit. The event will be admission-free.

As in previous years the entire series of programs is being presented by the Detroit Edison Company, the Michigan State Fair and the Music Performance Trust Funds of the Recording Industries in conjunction with the Detroit Federation of Musicians.

The same sponsors also will present the June 14 Kern Block performance in cooperation with the Central Business District Committee.

Each program will have a nationalistic motif, with French music to be performed on June 11, Spanish and Scandinavian on June 12, German and Viennese on June 13, American on June 14 (Flag Day), British on June 15, Italian on June 16, Polish and Hungarian on June 17, and Russian on June 18.

Jerome Rosen, associate concertmaster, will perform Saint-Saens' "Havaneise" and "Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso" at the opening, June 11, concert and Handel's "Largo" from "Xerxes" on June 18.

Frank Kaderabek, principal trumpet, will be heard in the Hummel Concerto in E-flat for Trumpet and Orchestra on June 13 and in the Purcell "Trumpet Voluntary" on June 18.

Other Symphony personnel in solo roles include Al Belknap, who will be featured in Bozza's Concertino for Trumpet and Orchestra June 20, and Saul Bernat, manager of the Symphony, who will narrate Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" at the concluding concert June 21.

Marion Wright, soprano, recently featured with the Orchestra during its visits to Inner City schools, will appear at the June 14 Kern Block matinee. She will sing arias from the operas "Marriage of Figaro," "Lohengrin" and "Turandot" plus two spirituals and "My Man's Gone Now" from "Porgy and Bess."

Huber Speaks

Here June 22

State Senator Robert J. Huber will bring his campaign for the United States Senate to Grosse Pointe and east-siders on Monday evening, June 22, at 8 o'clock, in Fries Auditorium. The public is invited to attend according to sponsors of Huber's appearance, Republican Voters Association.

Senator Huber will discuss campus disorders, crime in the streets, political bossism in Michigan, the threat to local control of schools and rising taxes.

Huber has had 16 years experience in government. He was mayor of the City of Troy for six years, served four years on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, and is presently completing his sixth year as State Senator. He is chairman of the Senate State Affairs Committee, the Special Committee on Campus Disorders and the Joint Administrative Rules Committee.

Lawyers Wives Hold

Luncheon Meet, Election

A New Bouquet . . . of the summer Lily has just arrived at Walton-Pierce. Pick one to freshen your wardrobe. Also new are the party purses in gold and silver . . . some sparkle with rhinestones. A frosted Italian lucite box has a gold handle and clasp. This little versatile gem of a tote will carry all our "can't be withouts" and that's saying a lot.

We asked Nino . . . who was scissoring our hair, what was a fun way to wear it at a summer party? Knowing we liked braids, he suggested using colored braids to pick up a color of a dress, such as green and white or for frolicking on the fourth of July, red, white and blue. He "ties" them into a hairdo. Another going thing these summer days and evenings is the almost carefree synthetic wigs on display at Leon's, 17888 Mack Avenue. They are only twenty-five and thirty dollars. Great for vacation and travel, you just dip them in suds, rinse and dry and you're set . . . TUXedo 4-9393.

Capsule Collection . . . with very special little prices! The wet look in raincoats, two styles . . . fifteen dollars. The maxi version is thirty-five dollars and a pant and cape wet look costume is twenty-five dollars. All come in white, red or black at Michelle's Boutique, 17864 Mack Avenue.

Whatever . . . your personal style may be Mutschler Kitchens, 20227 Mack Avenue, can help you express it. Each of their designs is distinctive enough to carry a single decorating theme but be adventurous. Mix styles and periods as the mood strikes you. The "individualist" touch is what counts in decorating today. Let Mutschler help you custom plan an "individualistic" kitchen.

In Martha's Closet . . . 373 Fisher Road, see the new shipment from Italy of crushed patent shoes with little heels in black or brown. They are perfect with pantsuits. Priced at twenty-two dollars, there's also a limited selection of navy, red or white.

See . . . the see-through lucite paper weights with captive straw flowers or dandelion seed puffs at The Sphere, 19649 Mack Avenue. Practical and pretty, they are priced from five fifty to fifteen fifty.

Dad's Watch . . . need a new band? There's a great selection of alligator, lizard or nylon bands at Hickey's priced from one fifty. How about a drip-proof, sterling plated stopper-pourer for five dollars? These are just two father's day gift suggestions from many at 17140 Kercheval.

A Spectrum . . . of handsome shades is available for single breast dinner jackets. Colorful and perfect for semi-formal summer evenings. See them. Rent them at Valente's, 17904 Mack Avenue.

Those Folks . . . at Mr. Q Travel have a free gift for you. It's a beautiful Pan Am 1970 calendar (in case you need an extra). Stop by 19587 Mack Avenue and pick it up. Also inquire about the European Fly And Drive Plan which runs about three hundred dollars . . . 886-0500.

Constructive Correction . . . for eyebrows is expertly done at Edward Nepi Parrucchiere, 19463 Mack Avenue. Eyebrows are arched by the wax method. Many teenagers are getting this correct start in one of the most important beauty basics. Call TUXedo 4-8858 for an appointment. Makeup analysis is a free service.

The Kaleidoscope . . . views a group of father's day gifts. Plaques, marked coffee five cents or beer five cents hold mugs. There's the "Golfer's Cookbook" and all sorts of alfresco entertainments, including colorful plastic stack glasses at 16135 Mack at Bedford.

Back from her shopping spree in Mexico, Sylvia Trevino has shipped beautiful new decorative to 16237 Mack at Three Mile. See the miniature hand-carved, gold-leafed, Fete frames and mirrors, perfect for starting or adding to interesting wall groupings.

The Kimberly . . . take home special this week is fresh dainty tied spring bouquets . . . two fifty.

It's Posh . . . to have the Total Look. Hair color should coordinate with the season's look in clothing, fabric, colors and hair styles. Your hair shade should complement you and your style of dressing. At the Posh Studio, Inc. there are experts waiting to coordinate your total look. Call 886-1377 for an appointment.

A Large Selection . . . of lamps is at Wright's Gift and Lamp Shop, 18650 Mack Avenue. If it's a new shade you need for that lamp you can't part with, bring it in for the best selection and fit. TUXedo 5-8838.

A Loveable Litter . . . of Yorkshire Terrier puppies is at this 'n' That for Pets, 19443 Mack Avenue. Which one will be yours? TUXedo 1-9007.

The Art Of Crochet . . . has not been lost. Linda Fentner is starting classes . . . 886-6501.

If . . . you are not a big eater, this is not for you. National Coney Island, 19019 Mack Avenue, across the street from Hughes, Eaters and Sufferers, is sponsoring a big eaters delight Here's their standing offer to pick up the tab for anyone who can eat a dozen Coney Dogs with all the trimmings at one sitting.

Pointers of Interest

MR. AND MRS. H. RICHARD FRUEHAUF, JR., OF PROVENCAL ROAD, WITH KIM, (MOUNTED) AND NANCY.

By Janet Mueller

There are two Fruehaufs riding in the Grosse Pointe Horse Show this year. Two out of seven. Kimberly—Kim—13 in two days, on June 13, will be showing her hunter, Buddy M. (that's really his name; he's a thoroughbred registered as Buddy M.). She'll do jumping in the Junior Division.

Currently Kim's the only Fruehauf with a horse of her own. She's had Buddy M. four years; he was five when she got him; now he's nine.

Nancy, 10, pictured on the Welsh pony Tiny Tim, a Grosse Pointe Hunt Club horse, will be showing too.

Her brother Rick, (H. Richard Fruehauf, III), 11, once rode Tiny Tim. Then he was on the Hunt Club jumping team for a while but he gave it up. He can't do everything. And Rick's sport, the thing he's REALLY interested in right now is ice hockey. Rick plays ice hockey a lot, participating in 50 or 60 games a year, starting the second week in August and continuing right through April.

Diverted by Tennis
His big sister Lynn, 15, had a horse until last winter. It's sold now. Lynn can't do everything either. And since she's been going out for varsity sports, at University-Liggett where all the school-age Fruehaufs are enrolled, and plans to divide her time this summer between tennis and Driver's Training, the horse had to go.

The littlest Fruehauf, three-year-old Ken, goes in Lead-Line classes. Unfortunately there are no Lead-Line classes at this year's Grosse Pointe Horse Show. So Ken won't be showing. This year.

Dick and Janet aren't showing this year either, although Dick will be around the Hunt Club grounds every day during the five-day show.

He's one of three Gate Stewards, responsible for arranging the order of go in hunter and jumper classes.

Hunters and jumpers from at least 12 states and Canada will compete in the 58th annual Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Horse Show, to be presented June 17 through 21, Wednesday through Sunday, at the Hunt Club grounds in Cook road.

Seventy-five classes will be run off on an outside course and in the showing.

There'll be morning shows Wednesday, Thursday, Friday show all five days and evenings shows every day but Wednesday.

Two spectacular jumper classes, (the height and spread of jumps is increased during jump-offs), will be held each evening, under the lights.

General admission ticket sales this year—tickets are $1 for adults, 50c for children—will benefit the Fraternal Order of Police, Grosse Pointe Lodge Number 102. The money's earmarked for the group's widow, orphan and benevolent fund.

Dick and Janet Fruehauf met at the Hunt Club. Both their parents were members. Janet rode in her first show at 11, at 15 had her own horse.

"Dick and I had horses that looked alike, so we went in pair classes."

And so they were married, (well, not quite—these things do take a little time—but they WERE, eventually, married), and his parents gave them Master Key as a wedding present.

1952 Was Good Year
"That (1952) was our big year," Dick, smiling, reminisces. That year they were married and that year Master Key was Reserve Champion at Madison Square Garden. Janet showed Fruehauf.

Some Fruehauf horses were special. There was Master Key, of course. And Good Deal . . . "Good Deal was Dick's horse. He used to come when he'd whistle, shake hands . . . And every spring he would buck us off! Horses feel good in the spring, after they've been cooped up all winter . . .

"My parents bought Good Deal. My father got him for me to learn to ride on, and we ended up showing him in Madison Square Garden, Harrisburg, all over the East."

In June, 1957, just before Kim was born, Good Deal broke his leg at the Hunt Club's indoor ring. The Fruehaufs had to put him down, (destroy him).

Dick and Janet remember when subdivisions crowding the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club were open fields.

Lots Of Room To Ride
"We used to ride over to Lochmoor, to the old Lochmoor golf course, just before Oxford road. There were two rock tracks across the street (Cook road) and a polo field."

"There were other stables near Mack, and we would ride up to them . . . Of course we miss that . . ."

Janet thinks it would be fun for the whole family to hunt. "We enjoyed hunting in the East, (the Fruehaufs lived for a while, twice, near Boston when they were first married). The two girls and I went out a year ago last fall to Metamora; Metamora has quite a good hunt . . ."

But Metamora's far, and hunting with a family of seven is expensive.

The Grosse Pointe Hunt Club's HERE, a five-minute walk from home for Kim and Nancy. Kim spends six to eight hours a week at the GPHC. As for Nancy . . . NANCY LIVES there!"

Hand Down Outfits
The Fruehaufs pass down riding outfits, hard hats, coats, the "little boots that are especially hard to come by," from child to child.

Dick hasn't done any riding himself lately. Janet hasn't ridden since Christmas.

This will be the first Grosse Pointe Horse Show in several years she's not appeared in but:

"My wife's one of those young ladies who can't say 'No,'" Dick reveals. Half ruefully. All proudly.

Janet's been doing a lot of work for the Junior League lately. As she's done, in the past, a lot of work for Tau Beta and Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Sunday School.

With five children, Janet's a constant chauffeur. She has United Foundation (UF) commitments.

And then there are the things she'd LIKE to do.

Has Eye On Golf
"Hopefully, one of these days, I'll learn to play golf. I figure it will take me three years until I'm good enough so Dick will enjoy playing with me."

The golf course is where Dick heads when he has some free time from Dick Fruehauf Buick, Inc.

The Fruehauf's all like tennis, and water-skiing, and swimming, and—especially!—snow-skiing. "We've been back to Vail and Aspen a number of times," Dick notes.

"We've taken spring vacations in Florida . . . Yes, the WHOLE family. We don't do anything without the Whole Family; sometimes I wonder if we're not almost too much The Whole Family."

Can you carry togetherneous too far? If the young Fruehaufs are any criteria, probably not. They seem a relaxed, happy, self-sufficient individually-adjusted bunch.

A bunch of people who love horses, love to ride.

"Once you enjoy having horses, you always do," Dick admits.

Did Own Hauling
"We used to haul our own horses. We had an old truck renovated, and we did all our own shipping for two years."

Janet remembers that old truck too—and the horse that jumped over the crosspole the first time that old truck was used.

"We used to show at 10, 12 shows a year. We used to have trunks full of various equipment."

Equipment for the riders as well as the horses. There's a good deal of tradition behind formal showing, formal hunting attire. A horse show is a spectacle as well as a competition and demonstration of excellence.

One Short Interlude
Just once in their married life, right after Kim's birth, the Fruehaufs had no horses. This Fruehauf Horseless Period was relatively brief: Eight years ago they became owners again.

"Once you enjoy having horses, you always do."

Kim's the most dedicated Fruehauf rider right now. She's won the Hoffman Trophy, (awarded for a series of schooling shows at GPHC), twice.

Janet's trophy too. Her maiden name.

And Kim was champion in the Junior hunter division at Rolling Rock, Pa., two years ago.

All the Fruehaufs, (except Ken), were champions at Rolling Rock that year. They entered, six of them, in the Family Class—and won.

Now Ken, at one, could have cared less that he wasn't showing at Rolling Rock. But Ken's getting up there, he's three . . . Could be there'll be a new Fruehauf riding in the Grosse Pointe Horse Show next year.

NARCO Assisted
By First Society

The First Society of Detroit presented a check for $3,200 June 9 at a Detroit Press Club luncheon to Narcotics Addiction Rehabilitation Coordinating Organization (NARCO).

The money—raised at a First Society benefit May 3 at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club—was the largest single amount ever donated by the all-singles organization to a Detroit area charity.

The funds will be used to explore the developing subculture of drug-dependent persons in the Detroit area and to try to discover the causes, effects and cures associated with the narcotics problem.

Presenting the check was First Society president Morgan Edwards. Accepting were The Honorable John B. Swanson, president of NARCO, and Dr. Edward Leibson, the organization's executive director.

The contribution brings to more than $45,000 the amount donated by the First Society to a variety of Detroit charitable institutions since the group was founded in 1963.

First Society is composed of single persons from throughout the Detroit metropolitan area.

On the other hand . . . Last Saturday I noticed a group of young people washing cars in the Mfg. Bank parking lot. They worked very hard all day, so I went over to see what the occasion was.

Well . . . a group of very nice people of "The Grosse Pte. Inter-faith Center for Racial Justice" (10 churches) were working to raise money for their cause. Personally . . . I think not nearly enough CREDIT is given to the constructionist youths. Those who give their time and put their work where their mouths are. This is the type of thing America is built on. Whether you like their cause or not makes no difference. So congratulations to . . . Ray Unks, Danny Sienblewicz, Dave Russell, Eric Gohle, and Sherrie Fisher and their group of hard workers.

Things To Do Today . . . Browse through the Needlepoint Arts Committee's exhibit on behalf of the Family Life Education Council (FLEC) at Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman's magnificent Stonehurst in Lakeshore road . . . It's on from 2 to 6 this afternoon . . . The $4 admission goes to a GREAT cause . . . and where else can you see such a display of fine handwork, AND Stonehurst, AND enjoy tea . . .

Have my hair done for the Navy League Ball . . . That's tomorrow, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club . . . It's always such a beautiful party, with a Color Guard and all those good-looking men in uniforms (uniforms DO do something for men, I'll have to admit) . . . This is a benefit, too, sponsored by the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League of the United States, with proceeds being directed to carry out the Council's various projects throughout the year . . . projects like sending hundreds of paperback books to veterans' hospitals, contributing a science award yearly to the cadet in the graduating class at the Naval Academy in Annapolis who is most proficient in science and mathematics, assisting the Dolphin Submarine Scholarship Fund, the Marine Corps Care Program . . . Good projects . . . and it's such a beautiful party . . .

Call up a friend and arrange to meet for lunch next week at the Liggett Antiques Show . . . This show's a MUST, one of the best in the country. My only problem is so many things I see there I fall in love with, I want to buy, buy, buy! . . . If we go early next Thursday, at 11:15, we can hear Malcolm Stearns, Jr.'s talk on "Why 'Georgian' Silver?" (frankly, the question had never occurred to me, but now it has, I wonder . . .) If we go at the same time Friday we can catch Walter F. duVerrier's explanation of The English Antiques Market . . . Saturday there's no guest lecturer, but we can still have lunch . . . any time from noon until 2 . . . or tea, from 2 to 4:30 . . . We could even go at night, after dinner, Thursday or Friday, when the Show's open 'til 10 . . . Not Saturday, though: Saturday it closes at 6 . . . It opens at noon all three days, June 18, 19 and 20 . . . There's a $2 admission fee, but look what you get for it! The lectures, if you want, the sight of all those gorgeous antiques AND the souvenir catalog, a "collector's item" in itself . . . All proceeds benefit the University-Liggett School Endowment Fund . . . That's a good cause . . .

Congratulate fellow Pointers Mrs. Charles S. Davis, III, Mrs. James R. Gitre and Mrs. James F. Beall on their perspicacity in joining such a SUPER organization as the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra . . . Those Juniors do a wonderful job, all through the year, for their Symphony . . . Ours too, mine and yours; the Detroit Symphony deserves all our support . . . But the Juniors do their supporting SO WELL . . . They do everything so well, right on down to the decorations at their meetings and parties . . . Like Tuesday's pale pink geraniums as centerpiece on tables covered with pink tablecloths, and those hot pink paper flower accents at Plum Hollow Golf Club where they honored their 64 new-this-year members . . . including, of course, the Mesdames Davis, Gitre and Beall . . .

Find some way to work Carolyn Hubbard Lucas' special Mother's Day poem, which somehow didn't get into the paper for Mother's Day, into this week's column . . . Because it's such a lovely verse I'd hate to have this column's readers wait 'til NEXT Mother's Day to read it . . .

My dears, she gave you all her youth,
Tread lightly on her heart.
And all she knew of Joy and truth,
Tread lightly on her heart.
And now above the weight of years
She knows that love outnumbers fears,
She felt it from the first, my dears:
Tread lightly on her heart.

Find a pilfering or two with which to end the column . . . And get on with Things To Do Today . . .
