FOCUS ON LABOR PRACTICES

HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, October 11
VICE-PRESIDENT Spiro Agnew resigned Wednesday after pleading "no contest" to charges of income tax evasion. Agnew had repeatedly denied the possibility of his resigning ever since he was first indicted by a Baltimore grand jury on alleged kickback charges, and so his announcement came as a surprise. In a statement he read before Judge Walter E. Hoffman, Agnew admitted receiving payments during 1967 when he was governor of Maryland, and that he knew they were taxable. But he denied the payments had any influence over his official actions. Judge Hoffman sentenced Agnew to three years probation and fined him $10,000.

Friday, October 12
PRESIDENT NIXON is taking suggestions from Republican party leaders across the country in order to quickly find a successor to former Vice-President Agnew. House Republicans met Wednesday morning and were asked to submit confidential lists naming their top three choices to fill the vacant office. At the same time, Republican Party Chairman George Bush was receiving phone calls and telegrams from members of the G.O.P. National Committee that listed their favorites. The 19 Republican governors were also polled. Once the president makes his choice, a majority of both houses is required for confirmation.

Saturday, October 13
HOUSE REPUBLICAN leader Gerald Ford was selected by President Nixon to fill the office of vice-president. The President announced his choice in a nation-wide broadcast last Friday night, saying he chose the Grand Rapids congressman because "we need strong, effective leadership" to keep world peace and halt inflation. Ford, a staunch conservative, is popular among members of Congress, and it is expected both houses will overwhelmingly approve the President's choice.

Sunday, October 14
JORDAN ENTERED the war against Israel and sent a military contingent to fight with Syrian troops defending the capital city of Damascus. In addition to Jordan, Syria and Egypt, Iraqi and Moroccan troops also are fighting against Israel. Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir, speaking at a news conference, vowed that her country would fight to victory.

Monday, October 15
VETERAN BASEBALL player Willie Mays, 42, hit a key single in the 12th inning of yesterday's World Series game to rally the New York Mets to a 10-7 victory over Oakland. The game, which took more time than any other World Series game in history, tied the series at one game each. A disputed play at home plate in the 10th inning touched off a heated argument between the Mets and the plate umpire which added to the excitement of the contest.

Tuesday, October 16
THE DETROIT FEDERATION OF TEACHERS approved a new contract, but won't return to classrooms until they are sure the union won't be held responsible for damages arising from the strike. Union president Mary Ellen Riordan demanded a written agreement from the board stating the union will not have to pay the fine. The damages are largely a result of paying the salaries of administrators, custodians and others who have been at work even though the schools were closed.

SERIOUS PROBLEM
Division in the members of the family circle is, and always will be, a very unsatisfactory kind of arithmetic.

He'll Hoist Sails for Olympic Ski Team

Offering a day's skipper services aboard his Cal-40 "Belle Aurore" as an auction item at Ski Prix '73, the fund-raising project to benefit the U.S. Olympic Ski Team, is NORBERT "HOLLY" HOLLERBACH, of Lewiston road. Accepting his offer is MRS. ALLEN "TERRY" EDWARDS, of Moross road, member of the Supporting Committee for the team.

Owner Foils Gunman's Hold-up Try

Fires Pistol Wounding Bottle-Tossing Proprietor

The owner of the New Brick Inn, Adolph Palen of Ridgemont road, suffered a superficial bullet wound in his right thigh, when a nervous, would-be bandit tried to hold up the inn, 18696 Mack avenue, on Friday, October 12.

The culprit fired his gun at Palen when the proprietor tossed empty bottles at him, according to information released by Farms police.

An official police report disclosed that an unknown black male entered the restaurant through the rear entrance of the building, pulled out a medium-sized handgun and pointed it at Palen, announcing, "This is it." The man appeared to be very nervous, it was said.

Palen reached for several empty bottles and began tossing them at the robber, who fired one shot from his pistol. The bullet ricocheted off the counter and into the right side of Palen's trousers, grazing the inn owner's thigh.

Smile-O-Grams with 'That Happy Face' Bring Glad Tidings to School Parents

Positive Notes Tell Mom and Dad about The Good Things Their Children Are Doing; One Teacher Reports, 'The Kids Just Love Them'

By Kathy Duff
A Smile-O-Gram might arrive at your home one day.

A Smile-O-Gram? Yes, that's exactly what teachers call the new notes they will be sending to parents informing them of what good things their children are up to.

The Smile-O-Gram was approved at the first meeting of the recently created Internal Communications Committee, a group of Pointe residents, teachers and administrators.

Members of the Communications Committee hope that it will be widely used by teachers to send positive notes home to parents about their youngsters' school activities. Teachers are expected to mention something personal about the child, something which happened in the classroom that day.

A carbon of the note will be kept in the youngster's file.

Sunny Paper
When a parent receives a Smile-O-Gram, there will be no doubt what it is. The notes are printed on sunny yellow paper in the form of telegrams, with the Grosse Pointe Public School System logo in one corner and "Smile-O-Gram" in the other corner.

The "O" is filled in with that happy face which we have been seeing everywhere, from T-shirts to buttons.

Take Action To Prevent Vandalism

School, Law Enforcement Officials Strive to Stop Recurrence of 'Devil's Night' Activity

By Roger A. Waha
Plans of action are being prepared by local school and law enforcement officials towards preventing a recurrence of the destructive shenanigans of "Devil's Night," the evening before Halloween.

Last year, some 200 teenagers created what Woods police called a "near riot" situation in the area of Barnes and Our Lady Star of the Sea Schools. At that time, streets were blocked, fires started, eggs were fired at civilian vehicles and scout cars and traffic signs were pulled up.

Cover Buildings
The NEWS contacted Ben Zenn, director of administrative services, Grosse Pointe School System, and he reported school personnel, in conjunction with police, will cover all school buildings in the community up to and including Halloween night.

As a secondary precaution, he stated the buildings will be well lighted during that time.

Mr. Zenn also said some members of school PTA groups will be at various schools but he didn't know at this time the extent of such participation. "This is done on an individual basis," he noted.

He emphasized community involvement in preventing any possible harmful activity. "We need the help of parents and all the people in the community to help protect property."

At the July 2 meeting of The Woods Council, the solons unanimously adopted an ordinance to regulate the hours children under 17 years of age may be in or on the public streets, highways, alleys and parks in that municipality. The passing of this ordinance was mainly the result of the many complaints received due to "Devil's Night."

Duck Hunters Face Citizens in Neff Park War

Guard Feels Hunters Are Careless, Irresponsible; Conservation Officer Says They Are Within Their Legal Rights

By Nancy Kramer
There's a war going on down at the Norbert P. Neff Memorial Park. On one side are the duck hunters, out to bag their quota of game. Polarized against them are people who live in the area near the park, and all kinds of park visitors: fishermen, boat owners, people just out for a walk, and even water skiers.

What they are after is some peace and quiet and protection from what they feel is a potentially dangerous situation.

As City park guard Dave Gillette sees it, the hunters are careless, thoughtless and irresponsible. He filed a complaint against them last Thursday, October 11, when he saw pellets from the hunters' guns hitting his car that was parked next to the pool building.

At that time, he told police he had received a complaint from a Cameron road resident about pellets whizzing over his invalid wife and striking the awnings on his house.

"Get Excited"
Gillette says the hunter he spoke with that day denied shooting towards the shore, but he thinks hunters don't pay much attention to where they aim. "I hunt," he said, "and I know what happens. You get excited when you see ducks flying and you follow them with your gun. Next thing you know, the duck is over the shore and you take a shot at him."

Besides being careless, these hunters seem to be heartless. Gillette refers to them as "garbage can sportsmen," because the ducks they are after have made The City park their haven.

"The ones that come around here are generally sick or they've been through oil slicks and can't fly," he said. "They are all fairly tame since people on the docks feed them. Some of the hunters don't even bother picking up the ducks they've nailed," he added. "They just leave them around to float into shore."

Crash Claims CCW Suspect

A 25-year-old Detroit man, who was to stand trial Thursday, October 25, in Wayne County Circuit Court stemming from an incident in The Woods, was killed in a motorcycle accident Saturday, October 13, in Detroit, reported Woods police.

Roger Alan Ellison was charged with carrying a concealed weapon. He was arrested Friday evening, August 31, after police spotted him driving in an erratic manner along Mack avenue.

Police said they discovered the following articles on Ellison: one stiletto knife, a straight razor and a 22 caliber "Rohm" pistol with six live rounds of ammunition.

When the pipe broke, water came into the catch basin from the street, circulated underneath the pavement pulling dirt into the sewer line, thus creating the cavity.

GPEA, Board Air Views

Hope to End Stalemate With Fact-Finders Report at End of Month

While both teachers and School Board members are waiting for fact-finder Leon Herman's recommendation due at the end of this month, Carl Lord, president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association, (GPEA), took advantage of the lull in activity to comment on the Unfair Labor Practice Charge that teachers filed against the Board Friday, September 7.

In a news release dated Monday, October 15, Mr. Lord charged that the Board blatantly disregarded contract provisions by refusing to grant teachers' increment payments.

According to Mr. Lord, teachers went back to school this fall using the terms of last year's contract. The increment payments provided for in the old contract are not being granted by the board.

Offers Reply
Al Gaiss, executive director of the GPEA, also submitted a press release dated Friday, October 12.

Replying to the Board's complaint that they received no warning of the charge being filed, Mr. Gaiss commented, "Notification was given across the table to the Board's team, during the last full week of August and again prior to the opening date of school on September 4, 1973."

He added that: "Mr. (William) O'Connor, (Board's chief negotiator), and Mr. Kennedy were also specifically told an unfair labor charge would be filed at a contract review meeting held at the GPEA office Wednesday, August 29, 1973."

Mr. Gaiss went on to explain that the Michigan Employment Relations Commission, (MERC), was responsible for notifying the Board once they received the unfair labor charge, and that MERC has been slow in the delivery process this year. The charges were filed on September 7, the first day that the increment was not received.

Board spokesman Lawrence F. Kennedy still claims the notification was insufficient. "For purposes of law," he said, "the charge was not official until it was received in writing. We weren't sure"

Pleads Guilty To Conspiracy
Woods Councilman Kenneth W. Boerner, 54, a former HUD employee, pled guilty to conspiracy to bribe in Federal Court Thursday, October 11, before Judge Cornelia Kennedy.

Mr. Boerner was reportedly charged with conspiring to rig awards of HUD home repair contracts to favored contractors and in return taking kickbacks from the contractors who delivered the bribes to the offices of his real estate firm. Chief Assistant U.S. Attorney John Hausner noted Mr. Boerner was charged with conspiracy to violate the bribery statutes.

The councilman pled guilty to accepting kickbacks of five percent of the dollar amount of six contracts awarded through rigged bids to three contractors in 1971.

Broken Water Line Cause Of Hole Under Touraine

By James J. Njaim
A 20-foot wide by two-foot deep hole discovered beneath the surface of the pavement at Touraine and Ridge roads on Tuesday, October 9, is believed to have been caused by a broken water line leading from a catch basin to a sewer.

The erosion was noticed when the pavement in that area began to sag.

When the pipe broke, water came into the catch basin from the street, circulated underneath the pavement pulling dirt into the sewer line, thus creating the cavity.

Bag Leaves for Better Pick Up, Park Urges

By James J. Njaim
If Park residents wish better leaf pick up service this fall, they are asked not to pile them loosely at the curb, but to bag them. This request comes from City Manager Robert Slone and from Herbert Heger, director of Public Service.

Woods Has New Permit Policy

While a Woods ordinance stresses no parking on residential streets from 3-5 a.m., permits, are issued for citizens who haven't enough room to park their autos at their homes. However, there has been a problem in this regard and a new policy has been instituted.

Bag Leaves for Better Pick Up, Park Urges

Things could happen. The fact that they are loosely piled, they could easily be blown about by the wind, and the piling up would be for nothing. The resident or his neighbor would only have to rake them into a pile again.

Bookkeeper's Hearing Shifted

A new examination date of Wednesday, October 17, was set for Sandra Lee Randall when she appeared before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis on Wednesday, September 26.

Represented by an attorney, the ex-bookkeeper remained charged with embezzlement of over $100. The new Baltimore woman is being charged on the basis of a $462 check which she allegedly converted to her own use. The suspect worked at the offices of two doctors in Mack avenue whose books were found to be $20,692 short by a professional auditing firm.

'Ski Prix' To Benefit U.S. Athletes

Pointers Participate in Celebrity-Filled Event October 27

"Ski Prix '73," the second annual benefit sponsored by the Michigan Supporting Committee for the United States Ski Team Fund, will be held at the Somerset Mall in Troy Saturday, October 27, from 7 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.

This year's event will consist of a cocktail party beginning at 7 p.m., followed by a celebrity ski-fashion show. The Austin Moro band will play during a candlelight buffet and will provide dance music throughout the evening.

Pointers who have already made reservations for the event include Mrs. Livingston Howard, of Merriweather road; Mrs. Jack Cudlip, of Moross road; Mrs. J. Johnson Lackey, of Chalfonts road; the Mark Beltraires, of Yorkshire road; the Frank Hedges, of Hawthorne road; the Arthur Cerres, of Rathbone place; the Danforth Hollies, of Lake Shore road; the Norbert "Holly" Hollerbachs, of Lewiston road, and the Allen Edwards, of Moross road.

Celebrities
Celebrity models include Pam Eldridge, Michigan's own Miss America; Tiger first baseman, Norm Cash and Mrs. Cash; TV Channel 7 newsmen, Bill Bonds and Mrs. Bonds; tennis star turned pro, Trish Faulkner; radio personality, Jimmy Launce, of WJR and Mrs. Launce, and Mrs. J. P. McCarthy whose husband will be M. C. for the show.

An open bid "write-in" auction will be taking place from 7 to 11 p.m. with items such as an all-day cruise for four persons including refreshments and dinner served aboard the "Belle Aurora," this season's class winner. The 40-foot sloop is owned and captained by Mr. Hollerbach who will host the cruise next summer.

Other prizes to be bid upon are a sightseeing flight over Detroit with Channel 4's weatherman, Sonny Elliot; a round-trip flight to Boyne Mountain by private plane; cocktails and dinner for two at Joe Muer's; a ski weekend at Vail, Col.; use of a condominium in Clearwater, Fla. for one week; season family lift tickets at all Detroit area ski resorts and family tennis memberships in the Centaur Racquet Club and Lake Shore Tennis House.

To Help Team
All proceeds from the evening will go to the newly formed U. S. Ski Educational Foundation, Inc. This organization has the sole responsibility of fund raising and administration for the U. S. Ski Team Fund.

Sufficient money is required to provide for the training, travel and all necessary expenses each year for the U. S. Ski Team to compete in National International and World meets, not only the Olympics.

Last year, several top racers on the team were left behind at the last minute and were not able to compete in an important European meet because there was not enough financial support for the whole team to participate.

Tickets for "Ski Prix '73" are $25 per person, ($17.50 tax deductible), and are available at the Don Thomas Sporthaus in Somerset Mall or by writing to the USSA Coordinator, Mrs. Larry Gelstein, 4951 Elmgate drive, Orchard Lake, Mich., 48033. For further information, call 682-2363 or 886-1311.

A bus, which will leave the War Memorial for the round trip to Somerset Mall, has been arranged by Mr. Holley, Grosse Pointe chairman. Reservations should be made with Mr. Holley at 886-9687.

Alcoholism kills in different ways. One third of all suicides in the United States are committed by alcoholics, and cirrhosis of the liver now ranks eighth in causes of death in Americans, according to the Greater Detroit Council on Alcoholism, a Torch Drive service.

Labor Practices

The Education Association was just trying to threaten us," he added.

Mr. Kennedy also stated that the increments in question will be granted once the contract is settled.

Other than the differences of opinion over the Unfair Labor Practice charge, the situation between Board members and the GPEA remains basically the same.

The GPEA is demanding the Consumer Price Index (CPI), allotment again this year, plus increments due to professional growth, longevity and extra duty stipends.

Mr. Kennedy, the Board and citizens who have been in touch with the Board all feel this would be the same as giving teachers "a double raise."

The Board also feels that by giving a salary improvement that is less than the CPI recommendation they will still be able to keep Grosse Pointe salary schedules fully competitive.

Mr. Lord reiterated in his statement that teachers want their salaries scaled to the CPI. Mr. Kennedy, on the other hand, feels that the consideration the Board gave to the CPI in the past two years has resulted in salaries that are over and above what the CPI deems necessary, even today, in addition to being well out in front of those of any other Michigan School district.

The GPEA's other point of contention is the Board's innovation of a package deal combining increment costs and salary improvements. In the past, increments were automatically given but not included as part of the bargaining contract.

Hopefully, the stalemate will be resolved when factfinder Leon Herman is expected to make his report.

Garden Club Plans Banquet

The Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe is holding their annual banquet and ladies' night on Friday, October 13, at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

A social hour at 6 o'clock will begin the evening and dinner is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock. The cost is $8 per person and includes one cocktail, a full course Cordon Bleu dinner and dessert.

A prize-winning movie on Spain and Portugal will be presented by photographer Dr. Richard Pear. Madrid, Segovia, Alcazar Palace and jewelry-making will be featured.

Water Line

The May 23 cavities were discovered when a passerby heard the sound of running water and reported it to city officials. A check of the area located the exact spots, one in front of the home of Gerald Hahn, 97 Vendome, and the other on Vendome at Kercheval.

It was not known how long the water had been running and eroding the soil beneath the eight-inch concrete cement, but it must have been for a considerable period, officials said, since the cavity in front of the Hahn residence measures 15-feet long, 15-feet wide and about 11-feet deep. The hole at the Vendome-Kercheval intersection measured 10-feet wide, 10-feet deep and 10-feet long.

Beneath the surface was a dead sewer line that had been discontinued years ago when a newer system was constructed so that homes in Vendome could tap in their outlets.

A water pipe had broken in front of Hahn's home, and the escaping water was washing soil and mud into the "live" sewer. It is believed that the breakage might have been caused by a six-foot square slab of concrete, which over a period of time settled atop the water main. Also found was a completely deteriorated nine-foot deep manhole leading into the sewer.

The cavity in front of Hahn's residence required about 36 cubic yards of dirt to fill, and at Vendome and Kercheval, about 25 cubic yards.

DeFoe said that the total cost of repairing both damaged areas was about $4,000, and took about three days to complete.

Farms Fire

City policemen also responded and assisted Farms officers in directing traffic around the fire scene, for which Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber expressed his appreciation.

Chief Beaupre said the intense heat buckled a steel girder and a second girder was sent crashing through the first floor into the basement.

The brick work to the exterior of the house was nearly completed, the insulation was in, the furnace had been installed in the basement, the roof was up and plumbers were just installing the plumbing, the fire chief said. The wooden rafters and wall studs and all woodwork was completely destroyed beyond repair. Only the bricks were left standing, Beaupre added.

Chief Beaupre said the fire was brought under control within a few minutes by the firefighters, but it was almost an hour before the blaze was extinguished. The firemen returned to their stations at 9:02 a.m., the chief said.

The chief noted children have been known to play in the house and around the construction area, and that there is a possibility the fire could have been started by juveniles carelessly using matches.

Det. Miller took pictures at the scene of the destruction, and gathered samples from various areas of the building for analysis, on the chance that there might be evidence of arson. He ruled out a cause from electrical wiring since electricians had not yet started installing wires and electrical equipment.

Police Nab Two, Instead of One

There was a real Romeo and Juliet scene which faced Woods police officers Friday night, October 5, when they noticed a '63 blue Chevrolet on Oxford road, west of Mack.

The officers spotted a Warren girl behind the wheel of the car stopped in the middle of the road. They asked her to produce a driver's license which she could not do.

Her boyfriend, a St. Clair Shores man, who also was sitting in the front seat, asked Woods police what they were going to do. When they said that they were going to arrest the girl, he said they would have to arrest him first.

After the boyfriend tried twice to get out of the car to approach the officers and after showing an officer aside to emphasize his point, police complied with his request and arrested him before they arrested his girlfriend.

He was charged with interfering with The Woods Public Safety Department, and she was charged with driving without a license on her person.

Parcells Plans Parents Night

The evening, planned to begin at 8 p.m., will include classroom visitation. Refreshments will be served.

BIKE SWIFTERS

Two more bikes have been added to the stolen list. Gregory Dettloff, 230 Dean lane, reported his bike stolen at the University-Liggett School Thursday, September 27, between 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. The yellow 10-speed Schwinn was parked in a bike rack and not locked. Pamela DeTine, 1194 Roslyn, also lost a red Raleigh 10-speed which was taken from her unlocked garage. Both complaints were made at the Woods police station.

City Has New Sidewalk Policy

By Nancy Kramer

The Grosse Pointe City Council has moved to stop any further sidewalk troubles. At their regular meeting on Monday, October 15, City councilmen implemented a new policy that makes all City taxpayers responsible, in part, for walk repairs due to corner lots.

The council was responding to last month's meeting where approximately 80 corner lot residents showed up to voice their objections to the previous policy of making them wholly responsible for replacement of all slabs adjacent to their property. Corner lot residents saw no reason why they should pay to fix sidewalks that everyone uses.

SH Homecoming Set for Oct. 20

Grosse Pointe South's 50th graduating class is hosting the 1973 Homecoming and the big day is Saturday, October 20. The events of the day will include a pancake breakfast, the traditional parade with floats and the marching band, the football game and an evening dance that will cap the festivities.

A Pancake Breakfast offering all the pancakes you can eat for $1 is being held by South's Student Association from 9 to 11 a.m. All students, parents and football fans are invited.

Tickets for the breakfast, which will be held in South's cafeteria, can be purchased at the door or during the regular school lunch hours.

Chairman Barb Anderson can be contacted at VA 1-5570 for more information. A parade of floats that includes the marching band is scheduled to leave from the Neighborhood Club at 12:30 p.m.

The parade will go up Waterloo to Cadieux, follow Cadieux to Kercheval, down Kercheval to Fisher road and up Fisher road to the high school.

South's undefeated football team will go against Roseville in a game that will offer plenty of excitement and a half-time show that promises the same. The marching band and drill team will perform at half-time and the winner of the float competition will be announced. The Homecoming court will also be presented at this time and the queen will be crowned.

A Homecoming dance to be held in South's gym from 9 to 12 midnight will carry the theme "50 Blue and Gold Years." All past graduates are invited to attend all the day's activities and help make this 50th-year celebration a big one.

of side street sidewalk repairs for corner lots.

The council accepted the committee's solution and unanimously voted to amend the city code in order to authorize the shift in payment. They further adopted guidelines explaining in detail which areas are subject to the new arrangement.

The regulations provide for financial reimbursement to those residents who have already had the repair work done by a private contractor. The guidelines also state that the ultimate decision of which roads are actually side streets is in the hands of the city building inspector. He, then, will be replaced at the expense of city taxpayers and which ones must be paid for by the lot owners.

The committee estimated that The City's new financial responsibility will run in the neighborhood of $20,000, and Mayor John King made a point of emphasizing the cost of the altered program. "I think the important thing here is the cost," he commented. "This money has to come from someplace . . . and something is going to suffer."

Stolen Vehicle Guttured by Fire

Park police are trying to unravel the mystery of arson of a stolen automobile which was left burning in front of 1377 Lakepointe early Thursday morning, October 11. The vehicle, a white 1973 Lincoln Continental Mark IV, had been reported stolen from the Ford Motor Company, Dearborn, in March.

According to Park police, the car, which had no license plates, appeared to have been deliberately set on fire. Ownership of the vehicle was traced by the stamped tag and motor numbers. Ford officials had reported the theft to Dearborn authorities.

An official Park police report revealed a citizen in the 1300 block of Lakepointe heard what sounded like a minor explosion and on looking out of his window, saw the blazing auto.

When police and firefighters arrived at the scene, flames from the car's interior were shooting 20 feet into the air, it was said.

Lt. David Taylor, assistant fire chief, said the alarm was sounded at 12:51 a.m., and on arrival, firefighters had to stretch two hose lines to put out the blaze, which was extinguished within about 15 minutes. The auto, valued at about $12,000, was a total loss.

NAMED MANAGER

Albert F. Welch, of Cadieux road was recently named manager of program planning and coordination of the newly-established automotive components organization of General Motors Overseas Operations. Mr. Welch, a graduate of Tufts College, has been with G.M. since 1948 when he began his training at their Research Laboratory.

G. P. Woods To Honor Late Mayor

Memorial Service for Kenneth R. McLeod Set for Saturday

A memorial service for Woods Mayor Kenneth R. McLeod will be held Saturday, October 27, at Lake Forest Park starting at 1 p.m.

Mr. McLeod, who served his city for 19 years as councilman and mayor, died this February at the age of 72.

At the service, a picnic shelter, donated to the city by the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club, will be dedicated as "The Kenneth R. McLeod Memorial Picnic Shelter." Two recently planted dogwood trees also will be dedicated as a memorial to Mr. McLeod.

To Present Plaque
Mrs. Kenneth R. McLeod will be given a plaque from the city in memory of her husband. The plaque is inscribed as follows: "Presented in memory of Kenneth R. McLeod by the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan, in grateful recognition and appreciation for his conscientious, faithful and self-sacrificing public service to his community as mayor from 1952-73 and as councilman from 1954-62."

The plaque includes the names of the council: Marvin R. Boutin, former Mayor Pro-Tem, and councilmen Kenneth W. Boerner, George S. Freeman, Roger A. Graef, Conrad A. Naegel and Benjamin W. Pinkos, who's now Acting Mayor.

Dr. John Oiert, Jr., of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church will officiate at the service along with members of the Kiwanis Club and The Woods Council. All Woods residents, and friends of Mr. McLeod, are invited to attend the service.

LOT DAMAGED

On a routine check Thursday night, October 4, City Police discovered the large arm at the truck entrance to the parking lot behind Kresge's was torn down. Investigating further, they found the windows in the lot attendant's booth had been smashed. Police were unable to determine whether or not anything was taken.

Serving Minors Costs Bar $100

The Liquor Control Commission of Michigan recently upheld a complaint that the Lochmoor Lounge, 20934 Mack avenue, served alcohol to a minor.

The charges were brought by The Woods police department which filed a complaint April 25, 1973. The Commission found the bar guilty of both selling alcohol to a minor and allowing a minor to consume alcohol on the premises. The fine for each is $50.

If the fines are not paid by Monday, October 29, the bar's license will be suspended 10 days on each count.

Duck Hunters Vs. Citizens Happy Face

On the other hand, Conservation Officer Richard Sawkin says the hunters are within their legal rights. "By law," he said, "Lake St. Clair is open to all hunters as long as they shoot in a safe manner. The citizens who don't hunt are not familiar with the law. Basically, it's just a conflict of interests."

Sawkin does admit that hunters who seek their prey in the park area are taking advantage of the ducks' sense of security.

"I don't think they are really sports-minded," he commented, "but these hunters are the exception rather than the rule, and still, they are entirely legal in what they are doing."

City Police Chief Andrew Teetaert concurred: "I certainly wouldn't call these hunters sportsmen," he said, "but to my knowledge, there's no law on the books that prohibits their actions."

Other Aspects

Some aspects of the problem are amusing. Lately, park frequenters have taken to buying loud horns in order to frighten the ducks off, out of range from hunters' guns. A cheering section has even evolved with spectators standing on the docks applauding each shot the hunters miss.

But other instances bring the gravity of the situation into focus. "These hunters set up decoys," explained Gillette, "and the other day, we actually had kids water-skiing through them."

There have been frequent run-ins between hunters and boat owners, one in which an irate boater threatened to run a hunter over with his craft, and then did just that. The war is an annual event according to Gillette. But this year, the unseasonably warm fall weather has contributed to its intensity.

"Most of these boats would have been out of here by now and we certainly wouldn't have had water-skiers around if the weather wasn't so fair lately," he said.

Since no specific ordinance governs how far hunters must be from the shore, Sawkin thinks if residents and park users feel their rights are really being infringed upon, they should see that such a law be enacted.

A simpler and more practical alternative, he feels, is just not to feed the ducks.

"We've been trying to discourage people from feeding them," he said. "If the ducks had to fend for themselves, they wouldn't be so vulnerable, and they can make it on their own," he added. "They hang around the park because they know they'll be fed. If people didn't feed them, they wouldn't be there. If the ducks weren't there, the hunters wouldn't be there either. It's sort of a round about solution, but it would eliminate the whole problem."

Vandalism

der 17 years shall not loiter, idle or congregate between 11 p.m. and 6 a.m. except when accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Anyone who violates the ordinance's provisions will be punishable by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment in the city or county jail for a term of not more than 90 days. Both the fine and imprisonment could be imposed in the court's discretion.

City Attorney George Catlin, who drafted the ordinance, had earlier told the NEWS it was different than an "absolute curfew ordinance" because it has no effect on transients.

However, the fact remains that it's up to everyone in the community to prevent an "instant replay" of last year's affair. Consideration and respect of all citizens and all property in The Pointe on the parts of everyone is needed.

only. She believes that a child should receive a Smile-O-Gram immediately after he has earned one.

"Yesterday, in class, a girl told the story of the Three Bears. She did such an outstanding job, that I told her she would get a Smile-O-Gram. The rest of the students cheered."

"I will write the parents a brief note about one particular thing a child has done. I will say, for example, 'Suzy learned how to keep her letters within the spaces today.'"

Miss Gorman's principal, Edward Wendt, is given credit for introducing the Smile-O-Gram concept into the Grosse Pointe School System.

Approve Form

"We started to use it here at Poupard, and we got an excellent response. It was just at the time when communication within the school system became a discussed topic. I brought the notes to a principal's meeting. Various principals made up their own versions of the Smile-O-Gram, and then the standardized form was approved for the entire school system."

The final version of the Smile-O-Gram, that sunny yellow thing which might be scotch taped to your front hall mirror, was designed by Kathy Presutti, a member of the art staff of Ross Roy Advertising.

"When the children come back to school the day after receiving a Smile-O-Gram, they usually say that the parents said to thank us for the note," Mrs. Elizabeth Tarpey, of Maize Elementary School, commented.

"I teach the third grade, the year the children have to switch from manuscript to cursive writing. I use the notes to tell their parents when their child has made a significant improvement."

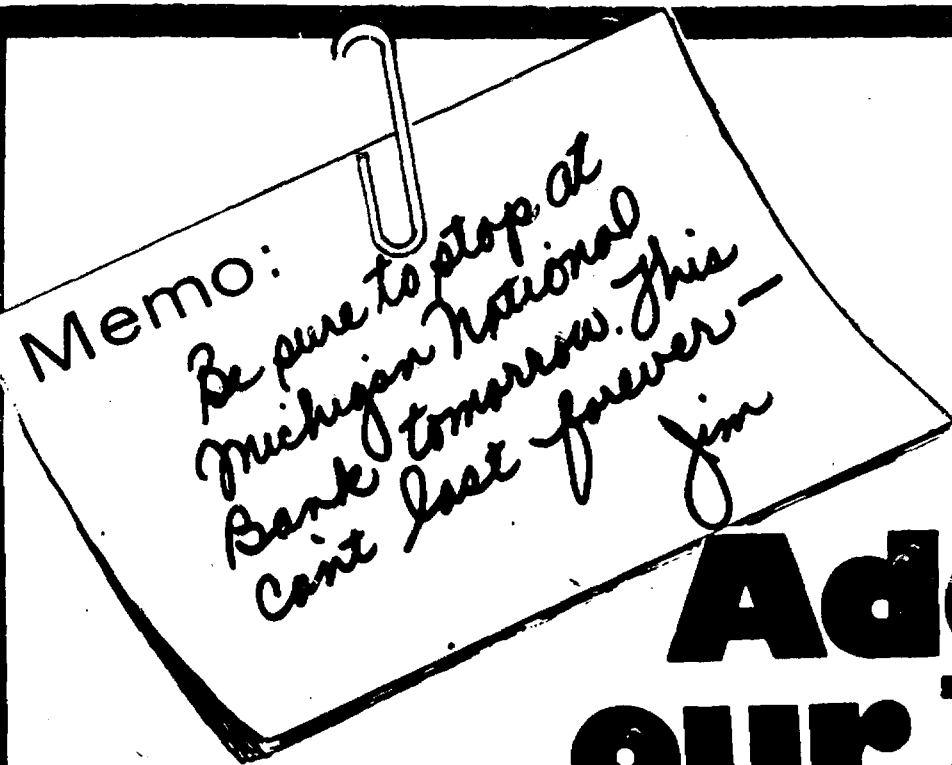

Asked if the children ever get jealous or frustrated by other students receiving Smile-O-Grams, Mrs. Tarpey said, "Oh, no, because the children always know that they will get one when they earn it."

Angry Driver Tries Assault

It's sometimes dangerous to drive down Mack avenue. Woods police received the following report from Robert J. Desostoa, of East Ida lane, that he was driving south on Mack, in front of the Woods Theatre, early Sunday morning, October 7, when he was cut off by another car.

After honking his horn, the other car stopped in front of him. The driver got out, armed with a three-foot pipe, ordered Desostoa to get out of his car and started to hit the driver's side of the car with the pipe.

Desostoa did not get out of his car. Instead, he drove immediately to the Woods police station and reported the incident, along with a description of the driver and car.

Goodyear Tries Again For Variance ... and Loses

By Roger A. Waha

That older saying, "If you don't succeed once, try, try again" was the theme of a Board of Appeals hearing at the Goodyear regular council meeting Monday, October 15.

At that time, the petition of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company via the request of R. J. Murphy, real estate department, for a variance in the off-street parking requirements at 19391 Mack avenue, (the building recently vacated by Pointe Dodge), was considered once again by the council ... and denied.

The solons, sitting as a Board of Appeals at the regular meeting Monday, August 20, unanimously denied Goodyear's petition. In his motion, Councilman Kenneth W. Boerner based his denial on the opinion of Public Safety Director Henry Marchand, who expressed his thoughts via a memo on why the proposed Goodyear service store plot plan as submitted didn't meet his approval.

The director said, "The plot plan as submitted indicates a proposed off-street parking lot capable of accommodating 12 cars. Mr. Wakely, (Building Inspector Earl Wakely), and the writer measured the lot and found that it would be impossible to park more than 10 cars in the parking area adjacent to the building."

It was reported the zoning ordinance requires 18 spaces and Mr. Murphy at a previous meeting said he could come up with 12 outside and 11 inside. Of the 11, eight spaces would be used for servicing autos while three would be left over.

However, after the August 20 denial, a new plan was prepared and Goodyear had another go at it. Mr. Murphy revealed that the new plan, unlike the previous one, provided for turn around space in the lot so autos would not have to back out onto Newcastle road. This had previously caused concern among nearby residents from the safety standpoint.

He also said the new plan offered 10 spaces on the lot, three additional inside the building, and he mentioned seven parking meters on Mack and four on Newcastle road.

On this point, some citizens complained about the possible use of public meters for Goodyear's "private use," while others remained concerned about safety factors in the immediate area and the threat of potential noise pollution.

There also was a problem regarding the definition of a parking space. The zoning ordinance defines a space as 10-by-20-feet while four of Goodyear's proposed spaces were reported at nine-feet wide by 18-feet, six-inches deep, and six were eight-feet, eight-inches wide by 18-feet, six-inches deep.

Meanwhile, the city for the past few months has been negotiating with the Chrysler Realty Corporation regarding the purchase of the vacant lot at the southwest corner of Newcastle and Mack. The city plans to use the property for a municipal parking lot.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen presented a report on the status of negotiations. He stated the city has a firm offer from Chrysler Realty of $35,000 to purchase the property.

"The City of Grosse Pointe Woods does have a sufficient amount of monies in parking revenues so we could accomplish the purchase of the property and construction of the lot thereon," he said. A reason for the city's efforts towards purchasing the property stems from earlier complaints of some Newcastle residents regarding the use of the lot for the storage of vehicles when Pointe Dodge occupied the building.

On this point, one resident asked if the new lot would provide parking for Goodyear customers at taxpayer's expense. Mr. Petersen again emphasized the funds to purchase the lot would come from parking meter revenues, "from residents as well as non-residents. Such revenues are used to purchase and construct off-street parking lots in Grosse Pointe Woods."

But the purchase of the lot wasn't on the evening's agenda.

NBD Exhibits Nature Photos

The intricate, often unseen beauty of nature is brought into focus by photographer William M. Pelletier in a display of his award-winning works on exhibit since Monday, October 15, in the lobby of the National Bank of Detroit's Grosse Pointe Regional Banking Center Office, Kercheval and St. Clair. The exhibit runs through Friday, October 26.

The exhibit, "Please Never Kill Beneath the Foot of Unthought," is an ecological study which emphasizes what is right with our environment.

"Regrettably," says Mr. Pelletier, "the atmosphere of much of the ecological movement has been primarily negative. What is needed is an atmosphere where we can see the beauty and harmony in nature."

To create that atmosphere, Mr. Pelletier uses a technique known as macro photography. This involves taking a photograph of a small part of nature — such as a flower or a blade of grass — and then enlarging it to show the infinite detail and symmetry of even the most minute of nature's subjects.

The exhibit comes here after three weeks at NBD's main office where it proved so successful that it was difficult to keep it together.

James E. Glynn, assistant vice-president and director of Public Relations, said, "People coming in to look at the unique photographs were so taken with them that they kept buying them from Pelletier right out of the exhibit."

Mr. Pelletier, who is a chemist by training, has been taking photographs for only three years and is self-taught. His works have been exhibited at shows and galleries in the Detroit area.

He is currently Photographer Director and Gallery Director of Art Worlds of Ann Arbor and manager of Art Worlds' Framing Shop.

More than 50 of Mr. Pelletier's all-color nature studies will be featured at the NBD exhibit. It will be open to the public from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday.

Thieves Enter Woods Homes

Thieves entered the homes of two Manchester boulevard residents as The Woods Department of Public Safety reported the burglary reports Monday, October 8.

At one home, items taken include a 140-year-old Seth Thomas clock, valued at around $400; two watches, a gold Hamilton and a Timex, both of unknown value; an RCA 19-inch color television, valued at $350; a black and white RCA 12-inch TV, of unknown value, and a Sony AM-FM phono-tape playing stereo with two amplifiers, valued at $150.

Police reported entry was gained by taking a three-foot high wood sawing horse from a nearby yard and placing it beneath a bedroom window. The thieves then busted out a pane of glass and crawled through the window. The complainant, who was away at his cottage, was notified and immediately responded to the scene.

A neighbor discovered the second breaking and entering when he checked the front door and discovered a window was broken out. The culprits ransacked several rooms and at this time, police have been told seven watches, two clocks and a cuff link case are missing.

Council to Cite GP Merchants

All Pointe mayors are scheduled to join with the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth in proclaiming the week of Sunday-Saturday, October 21-27 as "Better Literature for Youth Week."

Mrs. Jon S. Cook, president of the Literature Council, stated, "The purpose of this special week will be to honor the owners and managers of our Grosse Pointe drugstores and supermarkets. These retail merchants have for 15 years steadfastly co-operated with the Literature Council in upholding a policy where adult magazines are neither displayed, nor sold to children, (although they are available to 'adults')."

"We feel strongly that our retail merchants have shown a deep concern for the moral well-being of our children, and for this, they deserve the gratitude of the entire community," she continued. "Perhaps there is no other city in this state where the retail merchants put the welfare of children above the making of profit. Their praiseworthy efforts have helped to create the excellent environment for the children which is associated with the Grosse Pointe area."

The executive board of the Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth announced that special certificates of commendation will be awarded to the retail merchants during "Better Literature for Youth Week."

Mrs. Cook added, "We invite and urge the parents and citizens of Grosse Pointe to take the time to speak with the owner or manager of the stores where they shop. Our retail merchants truly deserve praise for continuing to care about our children."

Urge Bagging of Leaves

personnel, but also for the householders. In previous years, Slone said, it has been the practice to pick up raked leaves from the curb by city vacuum trucks, but this fall, not only will this cause problems, but the city will have to put DPW personnel on overtime, which would be an extra cost to the taxpayers.

"If leaves are raked into piles at the curb and picked up by our vacuum trucks," the city manager said, "there will be double work involved. The leaves will be picked up, and when the trucks are loaded to capacity, the leaves are taken to either Windmill Pointe Park or the Three Mile Drive Park for stockpiling until we are able to pick them up again to take to the Pointe-Clinton Incinerator Plant for burning. This is time consuming and costly."

"Many householders will also be working needlessly, especially if they rake leaves from their backyards. They would have to place them in some form of containers to carry them from the yard to be dumped in a pile at the curb. As long as they are putting leaves in these containers, it would be just as easy to put them in large plastic bags and tie them up and leave them at the curb to be picked up on scheduled pick up days."

If placed in bags, the city manager said, all that need be done is to have them tossed into the city trucks and carted to the incinerator for burning.

Where piling leaves at the curb means that they must be handled twice, bagging means only one handling.

"Of course," Slone pointed out, "we will use our vacuum trucks for the purposes for which they are intended, but why make double work for DPW workers, and why must the householders make more work for themselves."

He pointed out, further, that The Park has no ordinance that requires the bagging of leaves, but if the residents would do so, it would be greatly appreciated.

In The Park, leaf vacuum trucks are in use during September, October and November. The loaders function better when the leaves are dry.

Based on the last year's fiscal audit, Slone said, the collection and disposal of rubbish, leaves and appliances, will greatly increase the operations of the various departments this fall, due to overtime costs paid to workers.

One thing Slone stressed is that if leaves are piled at the curb, instead of being bagged, children are often tempted to play in them, causing the leaves to be scattered about. The biggest danger is that piles of leaves tend to form on the streets and children might burrow into them. This is dangerous in that they could be hurt or killed if a motorist unknowingly drives over the child.

"With Halloween just around the corner," Slone said, "costumed children will be on the streets, 'trick-or-treating,' which is still another danger, especially if the leaves on the streets are wet. A motorist trying to stop might skid and strike a child, or a group of children, crossing from one curb to another."

He urges all parents to warn their children of the dangers that could befall them if they play in leaf piles and to be especially careful when crossing streets on Halloween during the dark hours.

The city manager pointed out that rubbish and leaf bags are available for nominal fees at the Municipal Building, 15115 Jefferson. A roll of 50 rubbish bags, 30x36, costs $2.25; a roll of 25 leaf bags, which are extra large, 34x50, also costs $2.25.

Trombly PTA Meets Oct. 22

The opening meeting of the Trombly PTA is set for Monday, October 22, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. President Kenneth Roy invites all parents, especially those new to the Trombly school community, to attend.

"Of course today, just as in the 'good old days,' you can only gain from something by contributing something to it," said Mr. Roy. "In the case of Trombly PTA, if you expect to benefit from your membership, you must play an active role in its activities."

The first portion of the meeting will include a get-acquainted business meeting with staff introductions and "Our School Reports" by Principal Frank J. Welcembach.

Following the general meeting, parents will attend a session in their children's classrooms. In each classroom, teachers will present an overview of the children's instructional program, aspects of living and working together, textbooks used and opportunities for individualized learning.

Carpeting

Once upon a time, in a little town in France known as Aubusson, the industry of real tapestry rugs was begun. These rugs were noted for the detail and painstaking hand-craftsmanship that made them what they were. Their fame spread throughout France and all over the world. Today an Aubusson which is authentic is very, very valuable. Luckily for us, there are much less expensive rugs on the market today which will fit the simplest needs.

For exquisite carpeting at a price to fit your pocketbook visit ED MALISZEWSKI CARPETING, 21435 Mack, 776-5510. We have been in continuous service since 1913 and are specialists in wall to wall sales and installation. We have one of the largest and finest displays of quality carpeting such as: Lees, Cabin Crafts, Burlington House and Mohawk. We also specialize in all kinds of domestic and imported area rugs, including genuine furs and orientals. Open daily 9:30-6:00; Mon., Thurs., Fri. until 9:00.

HELPFUL HINT:

F. P. Iacobell Named Fellow

Frank P. Iacobell, of 659 North Rosedale, vice-president and director of Hutzel Hospital, in the Detroit Medical Center, has been promoted to the status of a fellow of the American College of Hospital Administrators.

Fellowship is the highest rank conferred by the organization and denotes that Iacobell has completed a minimum of nine years of affiliation with the college, three of them as a nominee and six as a member, and has met several other requirements.

Attending the recent ceremony in Chicago at which he received the fellowship honor were his wife, Gaye, and parents, Dr. and Mrs. Peter H. Iacobell, also of Grosse Pointe.

Frank Iacobell became vice-president and director of Hutzel Hospital, a 337-bed general hospital, in 1970 after serving four years as assistant director and two years as administrative assistant.

He has been a part-time faculty member of the Wayne State University School of Business Administration for seven years and is also a preceptor and adjunct assistant professor in the program of health care administration at George Washington University, Washington, D. C.

A native Detroit, he received a bachelor of arts degree in 1960 at St. Bonaventure University, Olean, New York, and a master of business administration degree in 1963 at George Washington University.

Doctor Reports Drugs Missing

A receptionist for Dr. John Bremer phoned City Police Tuesday afternoon, October 9, to report that a quantity of drugs had been taken from the refrigerator in the doctor's office.

Jewell Mazzola, Dr. Bremer's receptionist, told police the drugs, some Demerol, Morphine and Codeine, were taken from the office between 2 and 2:35 p.m. Tuesday afternoon.

A building check by City Police showed no signs of forced entry. The receptionist told police a cleaning lady and some real estate salesman have keys to the building which is located in Mack avenue.

Might is supposed to make right, but don't count on it.

Ask South Students to Use Boulevard Drop-off

Farms police are having a problem with automobile congestion on Fisher road, and are requesting the cooperation of both students and parents driving cars, who let out pupil passengers on Fisher.

The authorities urge that passengers be let out on the Grosse Pointe boulevard side of South High School.

Lt. Ignatious Backman said so many parents driving their children to the high school tend to let them out on Fisher. The same applies to students who have other students riding with them.

"We have a total of seven schools in our community which must be under control of police officers directing vehicular traffic," the lieutenant said. "With these seven schools within our jurisdiction and the safety of hundreds of students in our hands, we just do not have sufficient manpower to place a police officer at the high school crossings."

"Parents dropping off their children, and students dropping off their riders, not only hinder each other's movements but also block moving traffic on Fisher. When you have several cars behind one another, the autos to the rear must wait until those in front drive away before they, too, can move."

He said the cooperation of parent and student drivers in using the boulevard side of the high school as the drop off area would do much in alleviating the problem and would be most appreciated.

Also, in the interest of safety, Backman added, cyclists pedalling to school should get off and walk their bikes at the cross walks in accordance with the traffic signal light, and not ride the two wheels across the intersection.

Have faith in your future, or it's bound to be a failure. Highway speedsters always meet reverses sooner or later. Looking for a soft job is another way of wasting time.

HARKNESS PHARMACY

Riboflavin is a growth vitamin. Milk, eggs, fruits, legumes, and many other vegetables contain riboflavin in varying amounts. Riboflavin is necessary for growth and respiration of cells. You need it to help your cells live and keep them functioning. The average daily human requirements for riboflavin is generally about two milligrams. Although not many become deficient in riboflavin alone, many people suffer deficiencies in a combination of B vitamins. How much vitamin B have you had today?

For all your prescription needs come into HARKNESS PHARMACY, 20315 Mack Ave., at Lochmoor Blvd., 881-3100. We handle your prescription needs on a personal level and in a most efficient manner. ## Career Education The Three 'R's' Plus

A Partnership Between School and Community

A basic premise of career education involves putting students in direct touch with active adults, the working people in their own community. Realistic career education activities require effective planning in the schools, supported with active participation from the community.

A major effort is presently under way to identify available community resources. Community resources are people, places, and things. They are people who are involved in a variety of occupations within our community.

They are places where the occupational activities going on depict the characteristics of occupations and demonstrate the relationships of a process to a product or service to the community.

They are things—materials, tools, equipment, facilities—and ideas which can be utilized by teachers and students to achieve the objectives of career education.

Resources must be identified which can supplement textbooks and other school materials with real world of work experiences. Parents, local businessmen and community workers can serve as "teachers" by bringing first-hand knowledge and experience to students. World of work jobs and activities are both motivating and enriching. The various ways local people earn their living is significant to every aspect of community life.

Work goes on in every community, and for career education, local occupations are the most readily accessible for observation and study.

What it all adds up to is simply getting students involved with real working adults. A local business recently allowed one or two students to follow each employee on his or her rounds for several days. Another business provided an opportunity for groups of two and three students to tour their facilities and interview their workers.

Giving students the chance to spend time with, and learn about and from, a wide variety of adults may turn out to be the best career education of all.

Anyone who is interested in helping the students of Grosse Pointe receive an education that they can use, one which reflects the real world of work, is asked to call Charles R. Hitch, coordinator of Career and Vocational Education at 881-5012, or to write him, at 389 St. Clair, Grosse Pointe, 48230. The letters should include each person's name, occupation, business address and phone number.

Free transportation in this life is often on the wrong road.

TM Lectures Set for Today

By Irene Kearny

Not a religion or a philosophy, but a fourth state of consciousness. Throughout the world today more and more people are learning about the benefits (psychological, physiological and sociological), that can be obtained through a simple scientific process known as Transcendental Meditation (TM), as taught by Maharishi Mahesh Yogi.

Andree Leonard, a Pointe instructor of TM, reports the technique of TM, practiced for 15-20 minutes twice daily while sitting easily with the eyes closed, "produces a fourth state of consciousness which differs from the three other major states of consciousness, (waking, dreaming and sleeping), in every measurable way.

"The different measurements include: changes in metabolic rate, breath rate, skin resistance, cardiac output, biochemical changes in the blood, brain wave patterns and spontaneous galvanic skin response. The overall picture is a deep physiological rest, deeper than sleep, yet the mind is awake and alert."

"It is necessary to have all the comforts of life that modern technology provides but we do not want to lose the inner integrity in the fast pace of scientific and technological development," said Lewis Leonard, another instructor of TM in The Pointe.

"The stress of fast technological development must be counter-balanced by an enriched inner integrity by practicing Transcendental Meditation."

There will be an introductory lecture on the benefits of TM at the War Memorial today, Thursday, October 18, at both 1:30 and 8 p.m. for interested persons.

Vandals Blast Helpless Auto

A 1971 four-door Subaru was blasted by some vandals, who extensively damaged the auto in the North High School parking lot.

Assistant Principal James Cooper contacted Woods police Tuesday, October 9, about the incident. Officer Ronald Hayden discovered where a two-by-two-by-four-foot flat stone was removed from the ledge in front of the auto and then fired against the windshield and hood, smashing the windshield and denting the hood.

Another smaller ledge stone was thrown against the driver's door, shattering the mirror and denting the door. The stone also was gunned through the driver's window, police added.

The auto belonged to a 22-year-old Westchester road resident.

Now. An official program that can cut heating costs up to 17% and conserve Natural Gas.

If you're like most people, holding down heating bills is an idea that hits you right where you live. And, chances are, you'd like to help save Natural Gas, too. Especially during this time of energy shortages. Now there's an official program that supports both of these objectives. It was developed at the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, which is seeking ways to conserve Natural Gas and hold down utility bills by the wise use of energy.

The heart of the program is simply this: Installing ceiling insulation in your home. It's quick. Economical. Easy. A recent White House study found that "the most significant opportunity" for homeowners to conserve energy was through "improved insulation of houses." "Such improved insulation," the government said, "would benefit the individual homeowner by reducing winter fuel bills, summer air conditioning bills, size and capital cost of heating and cooling equipment, and air pollution."

The Michigan Public Service Commission agrees with this conclusion. It has supported a study prepared by Michigan Consolidated Gas Company which found that Michigan homeowners can achieve fuel savings of as much as 17% by adding six inches of insulation to their attics. Naturally, results for your home may vary due to architectural differences and your heating habits.

To help you realize fuel savings in your home, we've designed an easy home insulation program. Here's how it works. First, you can install the ceiling insulation yourself. It's a simple do-it-yourself project—and the most economical way to put in ceiling insulation and hold down your heating bills. Many customers can accomplish the task for less than $100. Michigan Consolidated Gas Company has even prepared a helpful booklet that shows you just how to do the job. Secondly, you can call a contractor of your choice and arrange to have the work done. Or call Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. We'll have one of our participating insulation subcontractors install it for you.

Our insulation program is easy on your budget, too. Many houses with up to 1,000 square feet in the ceiling area can be insulated for less than $200. And, there's a payment plan to suit most every customer. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay just 20% down at the time the contract is signed—then simply have the remaining cost included in your gas bill. Pay it off on your next three gas bills with no interest or carrying charges. Finally, you can pay for the job over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.

Whichever you choose, you'll be taking an important step toward holding down your heating bills. And cutting down on the use of Natural Gas. Why not plan on doing it now. Contact us today for additional details. And if you're a do-it-yourselfer, ask for our free booklet.

Vacation Travel, Inc., Charged with Larceny

Vacation Travel Incorporated, formerly of 20830 Mack avenue, is charged with larceny by conversion over $100 based on a warrant issued by Wayne County Assistant Prosecutor Paul S. Teranes on Wednesday, September 26. A tentative examination date of Wednesday, November 14, was set by Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis at the arraignment of the corporation earlier this month. William Saile appeared as president of the corporation and was represented by attorney Irving Tuckel. Mr. Saile stood mute to the charge, Woods police said, and a $1,000 personal bond was set by Judge Denis.

Vacation Travel has gone out of business, and filed for bankruptcy this August in U.S. District Court. Le Roy Dudley, Jr., president of Dudley Tour and Travel, Inc., of Detroit, signed a complaint against Vacation Travel in reference to its Freeport tours.

On these tours, Mr. Dudley told police he booked passage for four persons and said he paid Vacation Travel $28 for four seats to Freeport to depart from Windsor, Ont., on Saturday, August 11. The check was cashed by Vacation Travel Friday, August 3, police said.

Mr. Dudley also stated he booked passage for some people to depart from Windsor to Freeport on Saturday, August 18, at a cost of $418. He sent one check of $100 deposit which he lost but he stopped payment on a check for the balance of $318 which he sent on Wednesday, August 1, police reported.

This matter came to the attention of Woods police Saturday, August 4, when 25 people were found milling in front of Vacation Travel's office.

At that time, the group told police they were all booked for a charter flight on an airline out of Windsor on Thursday, August 2, but were informed by Vacation Travel the flight would leave on August 4 instead. Then on August 3, they were told the flight, which was to terminate at Ostend, Belgium, was cancelled.

They informed police when they called for refunds, the phones were busy and finally out of order. When the group arrived at the office the morning of the 4th, they found it closed.

Since that time, The Woods Department of Public Safety has been flooded with calls from individuals filing complaints against Vacation Travel. As of Friday, October 12, Detective Everett Plumb estimates over 100 individual complaints have been received.

Police estimated over 600 individuals could be involved in this matter dealing with trips to the Bahamas and Europe.

Farms Declares Patriotic Week

The John Paul Jones Society of the Children of the American Revolution, C.A.R., secured a proclamation from the City of Grosse Pointe Farms proclaiming Friday, October 12 through Friday, October 19, as Patriotic Education Week.

The members of the society in observance of this week have provided the Grosse Pointe Central Library with a display, which will run through Saturday, October 27, depicting Patriotic Education.

On Saturday, October 13, the society placed a memorial wreath in the foyer of Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Men may be born free and equal, but there are many who argue the point.

Young People Aided By YSD Counselors

In a recent monthly report, The Youth Service Division (YSD), focused upon its Voluntary Counseling Program and the three counselors who are working to help young people via "a new talk and listen contact." The program is provided "as a rewarding alternative to the Criminal Justice System."

The YSD reports: "Valuable and effective first offense counseling is provided by a team of three, (two men and one woman), college students of senior class or graduate status, in the fields of law enforcement or social sciences. Such counseling is also effectively used as an alternative to or adjunct of adult counseling of professional sociologists, psychologists and psychiatrists."

"The original team—James Colby, Steven Trainer and Paula Barr, all of whom grew up in Grosse Pointe and attended Grosse Pointe schools—have moved on into their respective professional fields. The second team now providing this counseling are Fred Coonce, Michael Torrey and Deborah Beaufait.

"Miss Beaufait, a resident of Grosse Pointe Woods and a graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School, is a senior at Wayne University in social welfare, a subdepartment of sociology, and will begin graduate school in social work September 1974.

"She has been a counselor with Youth Service since May 1973 and currently has eight girls on her program, six of whom are runaways, one arrested for possession of marijuana, and one who comes on her own volition to talk out teenage problems.

"Michael Torrey, currently a senior at Wayne State University in Police Administration, has been a Youth Service Counselor also since May 1973. His previous experience, beyond curriculum study, includes counseling in a program entitled Companion Counselors of the Psychology Department of Wayne University and as scout master of a Boy Scout troop.

"Currently he is counseling 12 youths between the ages of 12 and 17. Most of the youths he has been in minor police trouble, primarily minor involvement in use of marijuana.

"Counseling sessions are held in a relaxed atmosphere; topics discussed are as varied as the youth may wish to make them. Honesty is stressed—the purpose being to force the youth to be honest with himself as well as with other people.

"Fred Coonce, who joined the counseling program in June of this year, is a 1973 graduate of Wayne University with a B.S. in Psychology and is just now commencing graduate school in Guidance and Counseling at Wayne. Experience with juveniles and younger children has been obtained by working with Boy Scouts and by assisting in day-care center for pre-schoolers.

"His travels through Mexico, western coast United States, and Canada and his hobbies of camping, canoeing and back-packing provide good areas of interest for conference talk with his troubled youths.

"Currently he has 10 males and one female on his program. Though the majority of his cases are drug related, the range of offenses is quite diverse.

"The purpose of this counseling is to provide a new talk and listen contact for young people who are struggling faultily between childhood and young adulthood, making potentially serious mistakes.

"Regularly scheduled periods of honest talk with a person a few years older, who is in control, has direction and motivation, can make the difference. Bearing out this assumption is our recidivism rate of 8.5 percent for the period from January 1971 through December 1972."

Cinema League Meets Oct. 25

Adventure in South America will be presented by the Grosse Pointe Cinema League on Thursday, October 25, at 8 p.m. in the Fries Auditorium at the War Memorial.

Rip and Fern Zwickie's movie was made while traveling in the west and northwest countries of South America. In Ecuador, they traveled by train from Guayaquil to Quito and places in the Andes.

Next were Curcio, Machu Pichu and surrounding villages in Peru, the cradle of Inca and Spanish colonial history.

Following Peru was Bolivia with its capital La Paz, the highest city in the world. Parades and folk dances are featured in the Altiplano and Lake Titicaca area as it was the biggest celebration week of the year.

Other highlights of the film are Santiago, Chile; the markets and fiestas in the highlands of Guatemala; the San Blas Islands in the Caribbean, and the Cuna Indians' way of life which has remained unchanged over the centuries.

The public is invited to attend the program which is free of charge.

Man Accused of Selling Narcotic to Stand Trial

Drasko Crnojarac, 23, of 633 Emerson, Detroit, stood mute at his examination before Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer on Wednesday, October 10, on charges of delivery of heroin and possession of heroin. A plea of innocent was entered for him by the court.

Crnojarac was arrested on Friday, October 5, after selling $20 worth of heroin to a Detroit undercover agent at a yard party at the rear of a Park home in the 800 block of Barrington, according to information released by Park Lt. Gordon Duncan. The accused man was given a preliminary hearing on the date of his arrest and bond was set at $50,000, two sureties.

Following the examination on October 10, Judge Speer remanded Crnojarac to the Wayne County Jail to await trial in Circuit Court. The $50,000 bond was continued.

The lieutenant said after the agent purchased the drug, it was taken to the Detroit Police Crime Laboratory for analysis, and when it was found that the substance contained the dope, the information was given to Park authorities.

On the basis of the analysis, Det. John Kendall of the Youth Service Division, obtained warrants approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office on the two charges.

Crnojarac, who is under indictment on heroin possession charges by Detroit police, was arrested by officers of Detroit's Jefferson Avenue, Fifth Precinct, and removed to the Detroit Recorder's Court Building, where he was taken into custody by Kendall and returned to the Park.

Lt. Duncan said that when arrested by Detroit police, Crnojarac was in possession of heroin, which was found after he was searched. This resulted in Detroit's warrant against the accused man.

Crnojarac ran into trouble with the law last May 30, when he sold heroin to the same undercover agent in Detroit, it was said. The agent, hearing of the presence of Crnojarac in the Park, went to the Barrington address and bought the package of dope.

Following the examination, Crnojarac's attorney sought to have his client's bond lowered, but Judge Speer denied the petition.

Report B-E's On Same Day

Two breaking and enterings were reported to The Woods Department of Public Safety Sunday, October 14. One occurred at a Lancaster road residence and the other happened at a Beaufait road home.

The Lancaster citizen told police the following items were missing at this time: an RCA 19-inch color television, valued at around $450; a Sears electric adding machine, $59; an IBM electric typewriter, $220; a Ruby ring, $65; and a Bulova yellow-gold watch, $65. A Kodak instamatic camera reported taken was found by a neighbor in the bushes of his property in a brown shopping bag. The total estimated loss was reported at around $859.

The resident said the culprits entered her house sometime between 10 p.m. Saturday, October 13, and 7:30 a.m. on the 14th. Entry was apparently gained by forcing open a screen in the kitchen window.

Meanwhile, at the Beaufait residence, the owner's daughter-in-law told police she believes the following articles were taken: two fur coats, one a brown mink stole and the other, a black Persian lamb coat; a Craftsman saw; and a Panasonic AM-FM stereo receiver and two speakers, all of unknown value.

Entry was gained through the front door by breaking a window, with the thieves reaching in and unlocking the door.

Both incidents are under investigation by the Detective Bureau.

Hockey Avengers Boast 6-2 Mark

The Great Lakes Avengers, an independent open 'A' midget hockey team skating in the Tri-County League, is off to a flying start in their first year. The club skated to a 6-3 mark in pre-season exhibition games.

Composed of all but two Grosse Pointe boys, the Avengers have Brad Mitseff in goal and has three shut-outs, and has allowed seven goals in eight games.

The forward line of Pat Fox, Dennis Austin and Tim Block is strong with each scoring nine points. Fox has run a string of five goals in the first five games.

Other members of this new team are Dave Austin, Bill Belluono, Paul Griffin, Allan Jones, Jeff Lubeck, Doug Hamlin, Roger Nordy, Dave Smith, Bob Schomer, Tom Stewart and Rick Weglarz, with Mike Merriitt and Jim Rini coaching.

The Avengers have defeated the Sterling Heights Midgets, 1-0; St. Clair Shores Leafs, 5-1; Warren Midgets, 3-1; Fraser Midgets, 3-0; Warren Midgets, 2-1, and the Harrow All-Stars, 6-0. Their losses were to St. Clair Shores Rotary Club, 2-1, and the Downriver Saints, 2-1.

Baron Gridders Roll to Victory

The G.P. Red Barons played host to the Sterling Heights Chargers at GPUS-Liggett field Sunday, October 14. A large crowd was on hand to cheer the home team to yet another perfect day.

In the freshman game, the entire offensive backfield figured in the scoring as the Red Barons powered their way to a 45-0 triumph over their opponents. Members of the defense include Tim Krucki, Sean English, Karl Kurtz, Paul Gutwald, Sam Engelieri, Dan Kirouac, Wright Wilson and Craig Annas.

Other members of the defense include John Caputo, Richard Roland, Peter Mogk and Gary Catalano. Wolfman John Caputo intercepted an errant Charger pass and ran 25 yards for a T.D.

In the second game of the day the junior varsity found themselves locked in a hard fought ballgame. The winning T.D. was set up as John Hindle recovered a fumble deep in Charger territory, and Mike Saagram scored a few plays later to lead his unit to a 6-0 victory.

John Brucia, John Long and Carl Tech each scored a pair of touchdowns as the varsity downed the Chargers, 37-6. Strong defensive performances were turned in by Rob Stewart, Jim Stewart, Jeff Smith, Andy Martin and Craig Riley.

At the junior freshman level, the Red Barons bested the Green Hornet Greens, 13-0. Outstanding players were Ben Galbo, James Arthur, Martin Frisbee, Eric Collis, Peter Schoof and Kyle Kurtz. The Red Barons Whites defeated the Green Hornet Whites, 13-0, behind the strong play of James Grimaudo, Matt Lehmann, Paul Nelson and Billy Garavaglia.

Church Offers "Hermit Songs"

The Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church has set up a unique program for Sunday, October 21. The entire worship service, beginning at 11 a.m., will center around the "Hermit Songs" of contemporary composer Samuel Barber. The songs are based on poems written in the monasteries of 12th and 13th century Ireland.

Sandra Brandt, soprano, who recently moved to The Pointe from Massachusetts where she appeared with the Tanglewood Chorus, will be the singer. Carol Solenberger, musical director of the church, will accompany her. Dr. Harry Meserve, minister of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, will provide commentary between the songs.

The church is located at 17150 Maumee avenue, and all are welcome to attend the service.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW
Brought to you by TED EWALD
Oddly enough, football was not always an autumn sport. Back in the old days, some colleges started their regular football seasons in winter or spring. For instance, Georgia opened its season in 1892 by playing its opening football game against Auburn on Feb. 22. And there were other examples like that.

When was the last time an Ivy League football team won the national championship? It hasn't happened for many years. Last time was 1923 when Dartmouth was voted national champs.

What are the most points a football team can score in the fewest minutes? Well, the all-time record in a big-time game was set by the New York Giants who once scored the incredible total of 21 points in 35 SECONDS! It happened at Pittsburgh Oct. 7, 1945. With 50 seconds to go in the first half, the Giants scored a TD. Then they kicked off. Pittsburgh fumbled, the Giants recovered, and on the first play Arnie Herber threw a TD pass. On the next kickoff, Bill Piccolo of New York scooped up the ball, and ran for a TD. There were then 15 seconds to go. So that was 21 points (all extra points were good) in just 35 seconds!

GP Lions Battle Sterling Heights

Last Saturday night, October 13, the Grosse Pointe Lions Varsity football team beat the Sterling Heights Vikings, 12-0, on the latters wet and soggy field. The gridders put on an impressive defensive performance by keeping the Vikings from crossing their own 45-yard line or making a first down. The Lion offense scored touchdowns of 32 and five yards.

The Lions Junior Varsity team won, 21-6, combining a strong balanced offensive attack with a steady defense. Five different players figured in the scoring for the Lions. Touchdowns came on runs of 13 and 62 yards and a 38-yard pass play.

The lone Viking score came late in the fourth quarter on a five-yard run.

Meanwhile, the Freshman dropped their game, 6-0. Except for one 85-yard Viking run for a touchdown in the second quarter, the Lions kept the Vikings bottled up. The defensive struggle was fought on a muddy and slippery field that generated many fumbles by both sides.

The next game will be Sunday, October 21, against the Northeast Detroit Shamrocks at Elworthy Field starting at 1 p.m.

NH, SH Post 5th Victory

Both North and South High whitewashed their opponents on Saturday, October 13, maintaining their unbeaten records in five games. The Norsemen shut out Lake Shore, 8-0, and the Blue Devils beat Mount Clemens, 7-0.

South netted its TD two plays after recovering a Mount Clemens fumble, with 10 seconds in the half. Steve Morrison passed 15 yards to Brad Lindberg, who made a diving catch in the end zone.

Mike Shelton set up North's TD when he returned a punt 35 yards to Lake Shore's 30. On their first play from the scrimmage, junior halfback Gary Maier scored on a 30-yard run. John Puelo threw to senior end Ron Uppler for the two-point conversion.

The Blue Devils are first in the Eastern Michigan League, and must win their games against Roseville and Port Huron North to win the League title.

The Norsemen have a 4-0 record in the Bi-County League, and share the lead with Fraser whom they play Saturday, October 20, at 2 p.m. at North.

An investment of good will and honest work can be counted on to pay big dividends.

SPORTS FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW
Brought to you by TED EWALD
Oddly enough, football was not always an autumn sport. Back in the old days, some colleges started their regular football seasons in winter or spring. For instance, Georgia opened its season in 1892 by playing its opening football game against Auburn on Feb. 22. And there were other examples like that.

When was the last time an Ivy League football team won the national championship? It hasn't happened for many years. Last time was 1923 when Dartmouth was voted national champs.

What are the most points a football team can score in the fewest minutes? Well, the all-time record in a big-time game was set by the New York Giants who once scored the incredible total of 21 points in 35 SECONDS! It happened at Pittsburgh Oct. 7, 1945. With 50 seconds to go in the first half, the Giants scored a TD. Then they kicked off. Pittsburgh fumbled, the Giants recovered, and on the first play Arnie Herber threw a TD pass. On the next kickoff, Bill Piccolo of New York scooped up the ball, and ran for a TD. There were then 15 seconds to go. So that was 21 points (all extra points were good) in just 35 seconds!

Your neighbors will include an award winner of one of the highest civic honors; a distinguished Detroit attorney; a member of an outstanding Detroit banking family; a well-known connoisseur, restaurateur; a sportsman who is an international winner in yachting circles; an outstanding advertising executive; a retired board chairman, those who take an active part in the city's industry and social life and one of Detroit's leading realtors and land developer who knows a great place to live when he sees it.

Why They Bought. Some bought before the building was finished. Others have looked around and thoughtfully compared condominium living to home ownership and apartment renting, they then made their move to the Jefferson Apartments.

They were influenced by the convenient prime location, all new construction and truly gracious living. Here is a typical spacious floor plan of an apartment home which features 9 foot ceilings, natural fireplaces, individual heating and cooling, top of the line G. E. kitchen with an icemaker and a washer-dryer. A wet bar is conveniently located for entertaining. Insulated walls, floors, plumbing and windows insure maximum quiet.

The Jefferson Apartments is an adult community.

There are three separate elevators and approximately a thousand square feet of private storage. Exterior maintenance, gardening and snow removal are arranged. Residents are homeowners and enjoy tax deductions and the investment security of being a property owner and equity advantages.

A network of the most modern security systems guard them, their home and possessions.

A CLOSED TV MONITORING SYSTEM covers the entrance, outside parking areas and inside garage. The caller can be viewed from a selected channel on the Owner's TV set in each apartment. The doorman and manager's office views the same areas.

THE ENTRY COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM is a new system conceived and engineered by Michigan Bell Telephone Company. Using a touchtone panel telephone in the lobby, the caller dials the owner's apartment. This enables each party to have a private conversation. During the time the caller is in the entrance vestibule, he is under surveillance by the concealed TV camera.

AN ON-GUARD ALERT SYSTEM features a control panel in the manager's apartment and the attendant's office. This notifies of an intrusion into any apartment when the occupants are away. The doorman or manager controls the system by activating the apartment's security supervision at the request of the owner.

THE FIRE PROTECTION ALERT SYSTEM gives supervision added protection to all occupants of the building and will insure notification of each individual occupant of a fire in an unoccupied apartment.

Further elements of security are the uniformed doorman-attendant and around the clock resident caretakers.

The Jefferson Apartments is located 2 blocks from a beautiful park with boat slips, 3 blocks from Grosse Pointe Village shopping, 20 minutes from downtown Detroit by bus.

Postal Service Sets Standards

A favorite conversation these days is the effectiveness of the U.S. postal delivery. Typical comments are "I mailed a letter to a small city in the Thumb area, and it took five days to get there. And, I received a letter from San Francisco in two days!"

Missing from those conversations is the other side of the story. Detroit Postmaster Edward L. Baker recently said, "The U.S. Postal Service depends heavily on customer participation to help meet its service standards."

"Public cooperation in two areas is vitally important. First, to qualify for service standard handling, mail addresses must contain the ZIP code."

"Second, airmail items for overnight delivery must be deposited in white-top mail collection boxes by 4 p.m. or at the main mail processing plant by 5 p.m."

"First class items for overnight delivery must be deposited in mail collection boxes for 5 p.m. collections or by 6 p.m. at the main mail processing plant."

For airmail, the Postal Service commitment is to deliver 95 percent by the next day between specified cities within a radius of 600 miles, such as Chicago and Cleveland.

This overnight delivery recently has been extended to selected cities beyond 600 miles. At least 95 percent of all airmail will be delivered by the second day anywhere in the Continental United States.

"First class standards are no less demanding," Postmaster Baker said. "Next day delivery to local service areas are made for at least 95 percent of the mail."

Mr. Baker said this standard now is being expanded to provide for second day delivery to points within a 600 miles radius at least 95 percent of the time, and third-day delivery is to be made to any community within the Continental United States at least 95 percent of the time.

Gives Warning on 'Sale' Signs

The Woods has been flooded with garage and rummage sale signs on public property this year, according to Public Safety Director Henry Marchand.

"More and more signs are seen every week," said the director, who added the placement of such signs on public property is in violation of a city ordinance. He urged residents not to place these "visuals" on public property.

Director Marchand stated "more and more people are having garage sales" with the result that "five or six signs a weekend have been spotted on public property during the summer."

Obituaries

RALPH A. KIMBLE
Funeral services for Col. Kimble, 79, of Fisher road, were held Friday, October 12, at the Peters Funeral Home. He died Monday, October 8, in Deaconess Hospital.

Col. Kimble was one of the 10 leading philatelists (stamp collectors), in the world. At one time he had the largest private stamp collections in the world.

In 1944 the American Philatelic Society presented him with the Luff Award, a top honor among philatelists.

He was the author of two books, "How to Collect Stamps" and "Commensurate Postage Stamps of the United States." He wrote a philatelic column for the Chicago Daily News and conducted his own show on Chicago radio station WMAQ.

Col. Kimble served in both wars, was in the Illinois National Guard from 1919 to 1942, and retired from the Army as a full colonel in 1946. He served as personnel director for Powers Regulator Company in Chicago following his retirement.

A resident of Grosse Pointe for the past 15 years, Col. Kimble was a founder and member of the Grosse Pointe Senior Men's Club.

Col. Kimble is survived by his wife, Ruth; two sons, R. David and Daniel; a daughter, Mrs. Patricia Simmons; 13 grandchildren and one sister.

Interment was in Linwood Cemetery, Galesburg, Ill.

MRS. SAMANTHA ELIZABETH WEST

Funeral services for Mrs. West, 89, of University place, were held Tuesday, October 16, at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Gallipolis, O. She died Saturday, October 13.

Farms Okays Bill Payments

At its regular meeting held on Monday, October 15, The Farms Council approved expenditures totalling $4,506.65 to pay outstanding bills due.

The biggest statement was received from the Vanopdenbosch Construction Company, requesting a final payment of $2,572.85 on completion of the city's 1973 curb, catch basin and sidewalk repair program. The total cost of this year's project was $23,155.65. Public Service Director John DeFoe stated the entire job was satisfactorily completed.

A total amount payment of $950 was agreed by the solons to be paid to W. B. Edwards, civil engineer, for engineering services pertaining to the Municipal Pier-Park wading pool, which was put into use this past summer.

The council honored the request of the Babe Ruth League of Grosse Pointe, Incorporated, asking for reimbursement of $789.45 the League expended for material and equipment used to make necessary repairs to the 90-foot baseball diamond at Kerby Field. A full reimbursement was approved, although the council recently granted $696 for the project. Payment in the amount of $761.50 will be paid to Villacian-Leman and Associates, Incorporated, city planning consultants, for professional services regarding the Cottage Hospital Business Area study, authorized last April.

UNION TROUBLES

A grocer at Verbrugge's Market, 17328 Mack avenue, sounded a call to City Police on Tuesday, October 2, when a Cesar Chavez unionist began giving him a hard time about selling grapes in the store. Police spoke to the man and got him to leave the store without any trouble.

at the Holzer Medical Center, Gallipolis, following an extended illness.

Mrs. West was the widow of Lertie L. She is survived by a son, Eugene L.

Interment was in Mount Hill Cemetery, Gallipolis.

St. Paul Eighth Graders Explore Indian Culture

By Nancy Kramer

Chances are, if you asked any member of the eighth grade at St. Paul School a question on Indian culture, his or her answer would turn out to be more than you bargained for. That's because their teacher, Shirley Bathe, saw a need for her students to be truly informed about the first Americans. "I wanted to be sure they understood the Indians weren't the bad guys," she said.

Inspired by a multi-ethnic program offered by the archdiocese of Detroit last summer, Shirley wanted to pass along the information she'd picked up from the course. But she didn't want to just tell her students what she learned, she wanted them to experience the knowledge firsthand. So, she devised a way of getting them involved.

"I showed filmstrips and played records for them," she explained. "Then they broke up into groups and I assigned each a tribe that they had to make up a project for." In addition to the project, each group was responsible for submitting a comprehensive research paper that followed an outline Shirley gave them.

The outline was extensive. It began with different cultural characteristics like family life, religion, government, language and trade. The kids were expected to begin with ancient customs regarding those aspects and carry their papers all the way up to modern times.

Shirley recalls her students were pretty apprehensive about the written task she assigned. "At first they wondered what they were getting into. They had to do a lot of research and paperwork, but once they started work on the project, they became very involved."

It's easy to see the students' enthusiasm once you've visited room 101. Encroaching on the minimal desk space are paper teepees, scale models of Indian villages, make-shift spears, bows and arrows, totem poles and tom-toms.

Craft items, like clay pots and beaded necklaces cover every inch of available space. And hanging from the walls are fur pelts and brown paper "hides" smeared with mud to make them appear more realistic.

And the result of all this? "We talk about a different tribe every day," Shirley said, "and now the kids compare the ones they studied to the others. They ask questions of each other to find out things like why one tribe moved while the other stayed put."

Shirley never expected her kids to get as wound up in the projects as they did. "They really got into it," she said. "When we first began talking about the Indians, the vocabulary confused them. Now they use words I don't even understand."

Everyone has profited from the eighth graders' research work. Gail Clark and Sister Gloria Kiefer picked up on Shirley's idea and scaled it down to appeal to their fourth grade classes. Instead of separate written papers, the fourth graders combined all their information to form a class booklet which they illustrated themselves.

They also constructed craft items and model villages and familiarized themselves with Indian picture language and used it to decorate their brown paper "hides."

The "hides" cover the walls of the hall outside their classrooms and each tells a story of some sort. They recreate tales of hunger, war and migration to a fairer climate. And, down the hall, the display case is packed full of their art work so the whole school can admire their craftsmanship.

The fourth graders are also working on a song and dance program that they will present when their parents come to inspect their handiwork.

Shirley hasn't planned any such program for parents of her students although they are welcome to stop by and see the exhibit. "I really think they are too old to be interested in something like that," she said. But Shirley isn't complaining. She's reached her students, and managed to get them involved in a vital chapter of American history.

North Has Big Game on Oct. 20

Coach Jim Krucki's Norsemen get their strongest test of the season Saturday, October 20, at North's Memorial Field, (2 p.m.), when they host the unbeaten Fraser Ramblers in one of Michigan's top prep grid attractions.

Both teams are ranked high among the state's Class A powers and the winner will virtually sew up the Bi-County League championship.

But more than its third league title in four years is at stake for the Norsemen, currently listed in Michigan's top-10 by sports scribes who attend to such matters. A win would enhance their position in the chase after the mythical State crown and keep alive Coach Krucki's goal of an unbeaten year after three consecutive 8-1 seasons.

The Norsemen's wide-open offense has outscored Fraser 164-113 in rolling to wins over Port Huron Northern, South Lake, Lakeview, Roseville Brabec and Lake Shore. But the Ramblers have been stingier defensively against somewhat tougher opposition in handling Warren Cousino, L'Anse Creuse, Lake Shore, Clintondale and Brabec.

North's explosive offense rides mainly on the strong arm of quarterback John Puleo and the quickness of its pony-back trio, juniors Gary Maier, Dennis Hermann and Fritz Lehmann. Fraser's offense is built around the power-running of 5'9", 190-pound Bob Del Papa and an aerial attack led by quarterback Mike Quinn.

But the real battle most likely will take place in the defensive trenches where durability as the game wears on could be the decisive factor.

Youthful Ecologists Strive For Better Environment

By Sally Duff

Two Pointe youths were throwing beer cans from a garbage receptacle onto the sidewalk when a Park police car pulled up. "I hate to sound like a dumb cop," said a voice from inside, "but what are you doing?"

Matt Boyse, 16, of Washington road, and Randy Christofferson, 16, of Rivard boulevard, both agree that was the funniest reaction they had received while collecting cans for recycling. Avid ecologists, their serious efforts began at the end of July.

At last count, Randy and Matt had 1,586 cans stacked in the garage at Matt's house. They are aiming for 48,000 cans, which means a ton of tin, aluminum and other metals.

Recall Story
Matt had collected cans for Eugene Wigglesworth's Earth Club at South High School in 1972, and had continued half-heartedly later on. During a summertime conversation, Randy and Matt recalled a news story from several years ago of a fellow earning enough money for a college education and a car by recycling everything possible.

Both use bicycles for transportation, and put flattened cans in their paper route baskets. "They're great because each basket holds about 100 cans," Randy said. Matt chuckled thinking about another humorous incident. "It was difficult stepping on cans the day we went barefoot. We remembered to wear shoes after that."

They noted most of their cans came from Angel Park although they also frequent Harper Woods City Park and a local bar. Matt loved the summertime parties because "we got at least 150 to 200 cans."

Randy added, "And you can tell what kind of drinkers they are. You should see all the Schlitz cans we got one time."

Less Time
Now that school has resumed, their time for collecting is limited. Both have paper routes, and school activities, in addition to outside interests.

Randy, through his paper route, became acquainted with Nettie Duffield, who is well-known in The Pointe area for ecological activism and involvement in Environmental Action Now, (E.A.N.).

At her suggestion, they included their services with the Ferry Scouts.

Webelo and Bear rank cub scouts of the Ferry School district are out hunting for boys to become Wolf cubs.

The September round-up brought only nine new cubs into Pack 34.

The trophy for a successful hunt will be a Recruiter Badge awarded to each scout who brings a new boy into the pack.

Wolves are beginning cubs and must be eight-years-old or in the third grade.

Boys attending private or parochial schools are eligible for membership.

Parents of interested boys, and their sons, are invited to attend a pack meeting this evening, October 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the Ferry School gymnasium. Parents may obtain information and register their sons at this time.

Since the October study theme is American Indians, the cub scouts plan to hold an Indian ceremonial dance and display their ceremonial masks which they made in their den meetings.

the paper drive information in the Recycling Center box in each issue of the NEWS.

They are particularly interested in receiving aluminum cans, but will accept any metal cans. The paper labels on cans should be removed. But "we don't expect people to scrub painted labels off the cans!" exclaimed Matt.

Not A First
This is not the first ecological venture for either Randy or Matt. Both have been interested in the environment for a long time.

Matt's interest stems from childhood days when Indians and the outdoors were his favorites. He rose in the ranks of the Boy Scouts, and is now an Eagle Scout.

To be an Eagle Scout, one needs 21 merit badges, and Matt has 32. He chose to earn his badges mostly in the areas of forestry, wildlife management, conservation of natural resources, and soil and water conservation.

A trip out West in 1970 heightened Matt's fondness for hiking, which started with his scout troop's once-a-month camping 10 years ago.

Last summer, he was a ranger volunteer in the Huron National Forest, located in the thumb area. He learned elementary timber cruising, studied approximately 300 yards of a stream, and read a lot in the forest library.

At present, Matt is still the youngest active member of the Sierra Club in Detroit. As telephone chairman, he is in charge of committee members who fan out the calls to other club members.

More Selective
Randy is more selective in his environmental preferences. "Matt is interested in saving everything, but I'm interested in WHALES."

Someday he hopes to start a Jonah club.

"It's sad, we know more about paramonium than we do about whales," Randy said. "Did you know whales are able to adapt better than most species?"

"They don't destroy their own species or others. That's more than we can say about humans!"

So far, Randy has sent letters to Norway, Russia and Japan regarding the quota each country is allowed to kill. He believes that these quotas were set up to protect the whaling industry, but not the whales which are rapidly becoming extinct.

Randy plans to go into the field of marine biology. His family has a cottage in Minnesota on a lake that Randy prides for being called "one of the most beautiful" by National Geographic in 1937.

During the summer, Randy enjoys snorkeling at a nearby reef on the lake. He loves to observe fish by catching them in a hand net.

Seek Participation
Randy and Matt's joint effort for the upcoming year is to stir up enough people to participate actively in a now-defunct Earth Lovers Club under Mr. Wigglesworth's direction.

They are in the process of planning a short-term controversial project. Anyone interested in joining may contact Randy, Matt or Mr. Wigglesworth.

As for the future, Randy and Matt want to bicycle through Europe after they graduate from high school in two years. The money they get from recycling cans will go partially toward their trip and partially to E.A.N.

Matt laughed, "We figure that we are making about 10 cents an hour, but we are getting a lot of exercise and are cleaning up the environment."

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

In addition to the two professional librarians about whom I wrote last week, I'd like to tell you about our three new members of the clerical staff at the Central Library.

We find ourselves doing a double-take on one of them—Ruth Bliss. Her mother, also named Ruth Bliss, substituted for several months for one of our ailing members of the clerical staff, so it was not hard to learn the name of our new member.

Ruth was born in Detroit and moved to Grosse Pointe at the age of three. She attended Michigan State where she received a B.A. in Elementary Education in 1972. After that she worked in a pharmacy for a time, as well as doing kindergarten work in a day-care center in Detroit—part-time.

She attended a music school, (a one-week course), in England with the Christ Church choir in 1967, and now finally she has arrived at our portals and is a welcome member to our staff. She works with the Grosse Pointe Theatre Groups, is interested in skiing and tennis so you can see she leads a well-rounded and busy life.

Mrs. Denise Van Assche hails from Belgium-West Flanders. She attended high school and one year of college and obtained some business experience in a bank there. In 1951, just after getting married to Noel Van Assche, she came with her husband to the United States.

Her first job here was with the J. L. Hudson Company where she worked until her children started arriving. She has three daughters: Rita, who is 18 and attends the University of Michigan; Colette, who is 16 and is a student assistant in our library; and Nicole, who is 12 and attends Pierce. Her husband is a designing sculptor for General Motors.

What are Denise's interests? She loves gardening—and likes to go out for dinner! (I hate gardening, but who doesn't like to go out for dinner?) The family has made many trips back and forth to Belgium with the children, (who are lucky enough to be bi-lingual). So welcome aboard, Denise, we're glad to have you on the staff.

The third staff member to be discussed is Martha, (or Marty), Gorenflo. Her husband answers to either Bill or William. She was born in Detroit and attended both Butler University in Indianapolis and Michigan State. Her husband buys men's furnishings at the E. J. Hickey Company.

You wouldn't believe it to look at her, but Marty has four children, ranging in age from 30 (!) to 13. They are: Susan, the eldest who is married and has one son; Tom, 27, who is also married and has also produced one grandson. Sally, 22, graduated from Eastern, and Dan, the 13-year-old, attends Brownell.

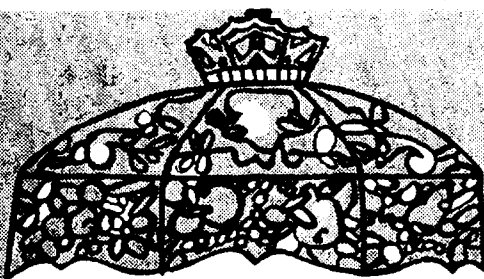

Marty beams when she talks of her children so when I asked her about her interests, one of them was, of course, "enjoying my family." Her other penchants include reading, (and we hope she's reading our library books!), walking the dog, who is a "Bouvier des Flandres." She also enjoys needlepoint.

We are happy to have all three of these fine people as part of our staff, and they seem to be enjoying their work. Good luck, girls!

Most of us oldsters have known Mrs. Madeleine Romig for many years, (ex-librarian at Saint Paul's), and had purchased her husband's book—MICHIGAN PLACE NAMES for all three agencies. We were delighted to learn that Walter had been granted the Award of Merit in recognition of this book from the Historical Society of Michigan this past September. The subtitle of the book is about: "the history of the founding and the naming of more than five thousand past and present Michigan communities."

We have found the book most useful and the fact that Mr. Romig received this honor attests to its usefulness, especially since it has such local significance. We congratulate him for this honor that he has just received.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

A half million dollars in gems, all donated by patrons of the arts, will go on the block at this year's Archives of American Art-sponsored Jewel Auction.

The treasures include women's bracelets, pins, brooches, rings and pendants by such well-known designers as Cartier, Van Cleef and Arpels, Tiffany and David Webb.

There's a large variety of men's jewelry too, including a pair of cufflinks that once belonged to the great Ty Cobb.

Mrs. Walter Buhl Ford, II, of Provencal road, is honorary chairman of the Auction, scheduled for Friday evening, November 9, and Saturday afternoon, November 10, at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Chairman is Thomas Lee Schoenith, of Devonshire road. Coordinating chairman is Mrs. Irving F. Burton, and Mrs. Livingstone Howard, of Merriweather road, and Mrs. Hooper Truettner, of Bloomfield Hills, co-chair the acquisitions committee.

Mrs. Harold R. Boyer is ticket chairman. Other Pointe Auction committee members are the Mesdames John W. Anderson, II, Edwin O. Bodkin, Judy Fisher Chrysler, J. Lawrence Buell, Jr., Alfred J. Fisher, Jr., Robert L. Hannon, Jr., Peter Stroh, Ross Roy and John Warren.

League Plans Bazaar-Party

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will be setting for the Michigan League for Crippled Children's 1973 bazaar, luncheon and fashion show next Thursday, October 25.

Mrs. George Peterson, social chairman, has scheduled luncheon for 12:30 o'clock, but everyone is invited to come early to browse and buy at the bazaar and goodies table.

Party proceeds help underwrite expenses at Camp Grace Bentley, a summer camp in Jeddo, Mich., for crippled children. After camp is closed each August the League ladies begin busying themselves with preparations and projects for the following summer.

Members of the Eastside Boutique Group, led by Mrs. George Lasher, chairman, and Mrs. Bruce Stewart, co-chairman have been fashioning unique and lovely items for this year's bazaar for many months. Mrs. Lester McIntosh, program chairman, has arranged a showing of fall and winter clothes by B. Siegel, with all professional models.

Card games will conclude the afternoon, and there will be favors. Tables will be centered with beautiful little dolls, each dressed in a different-hued gown crocheted by Mrs. George C. Wedge, decorations chairman.

The League's Junior Auxiliary, under president Paula Preuthun, will be in charge of the Bake Sale. Mrs. Ralph Alexander, League president, will conduct a short business meeting.

Among Pointers who've already made party reservations, which must be in by Monday morning, October 22, are Mrs. Carl Habermas, the League's third vice-president, Miss Esther Witzke and the Mesdames Louis Charvat, Leeland Ward and Marvin Boutin.

Miss O'Brien was graduated from Eastern Michigan University and is now employed at Honeywell Information Systems, Inc. Her fiancé also was graduated from Eastern Michigan University. He is employed at Michigan Mobile Homes and Recreational Vehicle Association.

A May wedding is planned.

Fort Pontchartrain DAR Will Meet Tomorrow

Fort Pontchartrain Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution will hold its first fall meeting at the Women's City Club tomorrow, Friday, October 19, at noon. Mrs. William E. Garrett will preside.

Theme this month is American Heritage. Mrs. John F. Weaver, Michigan State regent, will talk on the History of Needlecraft.

Chamberlains Wed Oct. 6

Sherman A. Chamberlain, Jr., who has been living and working in Charlevoix, and Connie K. Smith, daughter of the Guy L. Smiths, of Charlevoix, exchanged marriage vows Saturday, October 6, in Ironton Congregational Church.

The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman A. Chamberlain, of Vernier road, hosted the Rehearsal Dinner at Grey Gables Inn the evening before the wedding.

After a reception in Charlevoix's American Legion Hall the newlyweds left to vacation in the east, visiting Niagara Falls, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine and returning to Charlevoix through Canada.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother and father, wore an Empire gown of sate peau and Venice lace fashioned with an A line skirt, Bishop sleeves, a ruffled and flounced skirt and a full Chapel train.

A matching lace headpiece caught her triple-tiered silk illusion veil. Her bouquet of daisy mums and yellow roses was accented with ferns.

Mrs. Homer Brady, the bride's aunt, was organist for the 5 o'clock double ring rites. The Reverend William Harmon presided.

In dark green velvet frocks trimmed with white lace were honor attendant Mrs. Stanley Smith, of Charlevoix, and bridesmaid Kelley Smith, the bride's sister. Each carried a single green giant mum accented with green fern.

The bridegroom's niece, Elizabeth Fredrickson, of Chippewa Falls, Wis., was flower girl.

Best man was William Ryzyl, of Gaylord, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom. Groomsman was Delbert Batdorf, of Charlevoix, and the bride's brothers, Guy R. Smith and Swaine E. Smith, ushered.

The mother of the bride wore a pale blue floor length gown, the bridegroom's mother a floor length gown of pale pink.

Mrs. Thomas Brown

PATRICIA ANN SMITH, daughter of Mrs. William Livingston, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Smith, II, of Nottingham road, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Brown, son of Mrs. Virginia Thomas Brown, of Mount Clemens, and Francis X. Brown, of Beaconsfield avenue, Saturday, October 13, in Saint Ambrose Church.

Schoew-Camp Rites Are Read

Frederick Cabell Schoew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Schoew, Jr., of Alger place, claimed June Page Camp as his bride Saturday, October 6, at a 4:30 o'clock ceremony in Eastern Shore Chapel, Virginia Beach, Va.

The new Mrs. Schoew is the daughter of Mrs. Page Langhorne, of Virginia Beach, and Leon Clay Camp, of Glenmore Farms, Charlottesville, Va.

The bride's gown of ivory antique satin featured an Alencon lace-appliqued bodice and A-line skirt bordered with scalloped lace. Her matching lace mantilla was fingertip length and fell from a Flemish bonnet.

Honor maid Karen Babalas, of Norfolk, Va., and bridesmaids Mrs. Roger K. Powers, Brucie Holland, of Hialeah, Fla., Holly and Luanne Camp, both of Franklin, Va., Mary Winslow Cromwell, of Virginia Beach, and Kitty Spurry, of Centerville, Md., wore high-waisted frocks of autumn orange chiffon.

Junior attendant Emily Langhorne, the bride's sister, was in a yellow sheath dress with a sheer white organza overskirt, accented with floral embroidery at high waist and high neckline.

Flower girl Carrington Powers, the bridegroom's niece, wore a ruffle-cuffed, high-necked yellow sheath with a white lace overskirt.

Best man was Peter Stroh, Kyle Samperton, of Washington, D. C., David L. Kabler, of Virginia Beach, Fairfield Goodale, III, of New York City, Richard Schoew, of Lynchburg, Va., and Roger K. Powers ushered. David L. Kabler, Jr., was ring bearer.

Continuing Education Focus for Beta Xi DKG

Need for Continuing Education was subject for the Focus Program of Beta Xi chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Wednesday, October 17, at the home of Norma Morrison in Whittier road.

Helen M. Huber gave a demonstration on cocktail and tea sandwich hors d'oeuvres. Mrs. Huber, a member of Beta Xi, is a long-time lecturer on gourmet foods in Detroit and the suburbs.

She teaches party cooking at Grosse Pointe South High School in the Adult Education division, and is a teacher at Detroit's Stark School. In charge of program planning for the evening were Virginia Johnson, Norma Morrison and Audrey Burchett.

Refreshment committee members were Kay Mulaney, Nancy Salamas, Susan Reames, Norma Stevenson and Virginia Johnson.

Church Groups Meet Tuesday

The Women of Grosse Pointe Congregational Church will meet in individual groups next Tuesday, October 23.

Group I gathers in the Church Lounge at 12:30 o'clock. Members will bring a sack lunch; dessert and coffee will be provided. A Friendly Service Program is planned.

Group II will hold an all-day meeting at the summer home of Mrs. George Helm on Harsen's Island. Husbands also are invited.

The group will collect weeds for arrangements, take a boat ride to view high water damage on the river and sing hymns accompanied by an old reed organ.

Co-hostesses for the day are Mrs. Greydon Worbois and Mrs. George Pruessner. Cars will leave the Church at 9:30 o'clock sharp.

Group III meets at the home of Mrs. Alfred Tapert in North Oxford road at 12:30 o'clock for lunch. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Neil Gotschall and Mrs. Alfred Tapert. Each member is requested to bring a baby picture of herself for the program.

Group IV will meet at 8 in the evening in the Church Friendly Service Room. Hostesses are Mrs. Stanley Redding, Mrs. James Millies and Mrs. James LeDuc. The Group will work on several Mistletoe Mart projects.

Group V has changed the date of its meeting to Tuesday, October 30. Morning coffee is scheduled for 9:15 at the home of Mrs. Kurt Tech in Sunningdale drive. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Richard Cooper and Mrs. Walter Kurtz.

In anticipation of holiday parties, Mrs. Thomas DeVries of the Merry Mouse will present a cheese-tasting program.

Phase I meets every Sunday night at Memorial Church. Further information on the group's activities may be obtained by contacting Gust Jahnke at 882-5330.

Society Plans 57th Banquet

The Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society, oldest horticultural society in Grosse Pointe, will hold its 57th annual banquet Saturday, November 10, at the German-American Cultural Center in East Outer drive.

The Society this year will honor the professional gardeners who have helped make The Pointe so desirable a residential area.

Particular honors and appreciation will be given to gardeners who have worked for as many as 30 and 40 years on area estates.

The Society extends an invitation to anyone interested in attending the dinner-dance. Tickets and information may be obtained from H. J. Hinsenkamp, president, TUxedo 1-2029.

New Acoustic Shell at Ford

Gleaming white and soaring 20 feet in the air, massive sections of a new acoustical orchestra shell are beginning to appear on the stage of Ford Auditorium, representing the first highly visible results of 17 years of criticism, comment and planning regarding the sound qualities of the hall.

When completed, the new orchestra shell will consist of eight hemispherical sections ranging from 18 to 23 feet high and from 11 to 15 feet wide, plus a large fore-stage canopy projecting towards the audience from the shell ceiling.

All of these components, which weigh up to two tons each, will be adjustable as to angle and variable in their possible combinations.

The new concert shell and canopy are impressive responses to the widely-held opinion that Ford Auditorium was not a proper acoustical or aesthetic home for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The completion of the enclosure at this time is the direct result of years of planning by Symphony supporters, and is made possible by a recent grant by trustees of the Matilda R. Wilson Fund.

The grant of $110,000 is expected to cover costs of this critical renovation phase. Mrs. Wilson was a long-time concert-goer and avid Symphony supporter.

The improvements are among first being made under a total $600,000 matching fund agreement with the City of Detroit. The Symphony is to raise $300,000 to be used mainly in perfecting the sound qualities of Ford Auditorium. The City's commitment is to be invested in renovating and updating the building.

Although the new shell is, to date, the most visible, most dramatic, and one of the most important parts of the Orchestra's plans for total acoustical renovation, it is not the first improvement to have been made. And it will not be the last.

The first four steps of a master plan were accomplished during the last concert season.

They included installation of four louvered doors covering the organ loft, changing of stage ceiling controls enabling the ceiling to be raised or canted, application of a hard surface to the balcony facing, and a new main floor back wall.

In place for the concert season debut was a similar new back wall in the balcony and six of the eight panels of the new shell. The remaining two panels are to be used only when a chorus is performing.

Remaining phases of the auditorium's sound quality upgrading are the installation, during this season, of a fore-stage canopy; the re-surfacing and redesign of the stage's proscenium panels to complement the new shell; and, of most importance, eventual re-design of the hall's side walls and ceiling.

The ultimate design of this total renovation is a collaboration by Dr. Vern O. Knudsen, one of the nation's best known acousticians, William Allen, of London, England, and Detroit architect Lewis M. Dickens, III.

The huge sections of the new shell, a construction of 13 laminations of fiberglass and polyester resin, are the work of Harold Stilsen, Harstil Industries, Fraser.

These acoustical improvements have been under the general direction of the Symphony Acoustics committee, including Harold G. Warner, Theodore P. Rykala, Rinehart Bright and Pierre V. Heffler, chairman.

Inside The Mothers' Club

The monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe South High School Mothers Club was held October 1 in Cleminson Hall. Discussion focused on numerous topics, indicating the wide range of the Club's activities.

Imminent on the calendar of events is Back-to-School-Night, scheduled for October 25. This is an opportunity for parents to meet with teachers, to learn how courses are being handled and what will be expected of students. It is also an opportunity to see South High's recently completed new addition.

It is anticipated that parents will come out in record numbers.

Another important upcoming event is Homecoming October 20. As in the past, students are working to complete floats for the Homecoming Parade.

This year, floats are being constructed at the following homes, with parent help arranged for each location by the volunteer coordinator whose name is listed:

Seniors: A. C. Dickson, Jr.—105 Ridge road—Mrs. David Halter.

Juniors: Paul Sabar—232 Kerby road—Mrs. Ruth Maxon.

Sophomores: Dr. Paul Olson—246 Lakeland avenue—Mrs. Calier Worrell.

Freshmen: Dr. John Fennessey—512 Rivard boulevard—Mrs. Robert Peterson.

The Neighborhood Group chairman noted that three discussion groups are currently in progress, in addition to bridge and sewing groups. The neighborhood activity is intended to bring mothers into small interest groups to promote a spirit of unity and friendship.

It isn't too late to join a group, and mothers are urged to do so.

Regarding the production of "Oklahoma," plans were announced for the sale of tickets, which this year will be $2.50 for adults, $2 for students and $1.50 for children under ten.

This will be an elaborate production, combining the efforts of South High's Music and Orchestra Departments as well as the Pointe Players.

The Mothers Club Scholarship Fund will receive 70 percent of the proceeds. The remainder will be shared among the three staging organizations.

Mrs. Richard Speer, Club president, expressed gratitude for a letter from Officer John Kendall which appeared in the Grosse Pointe News, contradicting a very serious charge regarding drug use in the school.

Items of interest from Mrs. McClure, Faculty representative, included the facts that October 8 was Ninth Grade Parents and New Parents Night; that the Girl's Athletic Program is in the Eastern Michigan League; that South High has 10 National Merit semi-finalists; that South now has a Vocational Counselor who will be meeting with any interested students who feel the need of help; and that 11th graders taking the PSAT's should register before

Theatre Arts Year Begins

Theatre Arts Club of Detroit opens its 1973-74 season Friday afternoon, October 26, at 1:30 o'clock with a production of Sam Bate's "Someone Else's Pretty Toys" at the Players Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue.

Erwin H. Foersterling, director, is coaching cast members. Mrs. James Weckler, Mrs. Bernard Whitley, Mrs. John W. Nelson, Miss Dorothy Pudrith, Mrs. J. Charles Markley, Jr., Mrs. Charles C.

Truseon and Mrs. Philip C. Dickinson.

Producers are the Mesdames James B. Doll and Edmund R. Shury. Mrs. William H. Granse will be holding script. Mrs. Edward W. Fromm is chairman of set design and properties.

Mrs. John Devers and Mrs. Earl G. Meyer share the costumes co-chairmanship and Mrs. C. H. Worrell is chairman of make-up.

Between October 9 and 19, the recommendation that the Annual Luncheon be eliminated this year was further discussed and accepted, with the understanding that student programs usually scheduled for this event be included in other functions during the year.

The Parent Volunteer Program, with 50 volunteers already enlisted, is proving to be a very worthwhile project. Parents are urged to consider this opportunity to serve it at all possible.

Finally, parents are urged to come out and support the football team. It is a marvelous way to generate school spirit and to see youngsters in a healthy, relaxed atmosphere. Besides, it's a fun way to spend a Saturday afternoon!

Miss Phillip Bride Of Peter Bologna

Mrs. Joel Zahler Is Honor Matron For Her Sister; James A. Bologna Acts As His Brother's Best Man

Vacationing in California are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vincent Bologna, whose wedding Saturday, October 13, in Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore was followed by a reception at the Detroit Yacht Club.

The bridegroom's uncle, The Reverend Anthony Bologna, officiated at the 11 o'clock ceremony.

Mrs. Bologna is the former Patricia Phillip, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon P. Phillip, of Fisher road. The James D. Bolognas, of Balfour road, are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride's candlelight satin gown was fashioned with a bodice and long sleeves of re-embroidered Duchesse lace, its skirt and circular train appliqued with matching lace motifs.

A lace coronet held her lace-edged Cathedral illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Joel Zahler, as honor matron and bridesmaids Mrs. Peter Phillip, Julaine Brophy and Mrs.

Thomas Misuraca, the bridegroom's sister.

Their apricot chiffon frocks, styled with long full sleeves and full skirts, featured ecru Venetian lace yokes. Bands of matching lace defined their waists, and they carried arrangements of apricot roses with ivy cascades.

Flower girl Lisa Bologna, the bridegroom's niece, carried a basket of rose petals. James A. Bologna acted as best man for his brother. Thomas L. Misuraca, Peter G. Phillip, the bride's brother, Lawrence E. Slowik, of Yorktown Heights, N.Y., Alvin A. Rutledge and Robert M. Citrin seated the guests.

The mother of the bride wore a short dress of emerald green silk, short-sleeved and A-line-skirted. The bridegroom's mother selected a two-piece costume of nutmeg

Come see the sites at the wide world of Wabek

You've never seen anything like them in the Bloomfield Hills area before. Hilltop sites along the fairways of the Wabek Country Club. Sprawling lots overlooking Lake Wabek. Lush, rolling, forested sites. And many, many more in a variety of shapes, sizes and settings.

Every one, of course, is fully improved. With city water, sewers, underground utilities and paved roads with curb and gutter.

Wabek, in case you haven't heard, is a brand-new community blooming to life in Bloomfield Hills. A community that adds a whole new dimension to the word "prestige."

Wabek literally offers you a brand-new way of life. It has a spectacular 18-hole golf course designed by Jack Nicklaus and Peter Dye, exclusively for resident application. A superb selection of lots—some with homes already available for occupancy. (Or you can bring your own builder in.) A wide choice of luxurious condominiums. And the Bloomfield area is noted for its excellent schools, shops, restaurants and cultural centers.

Wabek is full of beautiful sites. Come see them. Look for the Wabek signs on West Long Lake Rd., between Franklin Rd. and Middlebelt, west of Telegraph. A joint venture of Chrysler Realty Corporation and Del E. Webb Wabek, Inc. Open 7 days a week.

Merry Mart Set For October 25

Christ Child House and Christ Child School Will Benefit From Christmas Fair Sales; Sally Meier Is Pointe Area Chairman

Christ Child Society members are putting final touches on hundreds of lovely and unusual items promised for Merry Mart this year. The Society's annual Christmas fair is scheduled for Thursday, October 25, at Raleigh House in Southfield.

Thirteen booths will be open from 10 in the morning to 4 in the afternoon, including Toys and Dolls, featuring charming wooden dolls imported from Italy plus wooden items from Yugoslavia and Russia, and Vue d'Optique with its beautiful framed scenes, flowers and animals.

The Christmas booth is "thinking gingham" this year, with quaint wreaths fashioned of gingham ribbon in a marvelous assortment of colors. Among Merry Mart's handmade originals are decorated stepladders, ecology boxes and kitchen or bathroom stools.

Flower arrangements and decoupage bags and baskets will again be featured, as will knits and needlecraft, baked goods, a boutique and the popular Treasures and Trash.

The luncheon and fashion show held in conjunction with the fair, by reservation only, is under the chairmanship of Mrs. David W. Smith, of Bloomfield Hills. No reservations are necessary for shopping, and there is no admission charge.

Mrs. Frank Neward, Jr., of Livonia, is general chairman of Merry Mart 1973. Her co-chairman for The Pointe area is Mrs. Sally Meier.

Pointe committee heads include the Mesdames Shad Kozlowski, John Tulloch, Thomas McGinn, Richard T. Gallagher, Walter Bernard, Joseph Fromm, Robert A. Grambo, Joseph Lenz, Richard T. ## Miss Nelson Wed To Richard Hladun

Dr. Harry Meserve Presides at Outdoor Rites; Pair at Home in Park After Provincetown Vacation

After a tea reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial where they exchanged marriage vows on the lakeside lawn, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dave Hladun and their wedding guests adjourned to Lower Huron Metropolitan Park for a celebration featuring fresh bread and baskets of fresh fruit, cheese and salami and a wooden keg of wine.

Presiding at the 1:30 o'clock rites Saturday, September 15, was Dr. Harry Meserve.

The newlyweds have returned from a vacation in Provincetown on Cape Cod to make their home in Grosse Pointe Park.

Mrs. Hladun, the former Margaret Camille Nelson, of Beaconsfield avenue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Nelson, of Lansing, made her linen wedding gown, embroidered the skirt and sleeves with mushrooms, lunaria, Queen Anne's lace and silver dollars.

Her wide-brimmed picture hat was trimmed with flowers and grosgrain ribbon, and she carried a sheaf of dried flowers tied with a velvet ribbon.

Honor matron Mrs. John H. Cassens also fashioned her own dress, dotted with small flowers and accented with a soft apron, wore a hat trimmed with grosgrain ribbon and flowers and carried natural straw flowers.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Hladun, of the Shore Club, asked Anthony Wayne Brown to act as best man.

Among the honored guests were Mrs. Margaret Brown and Charles Lampman and Mr. and Mrs. Dana Alleman and James Nelson, of Lansing.

Mrs. Richard Hladun

At a ceremony on the lakeside lawn of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Saturday, September 15, MARGARET CAMILLE NELSON, of Beaconsfield avenue, and Mr. Hladun were married. She is the daughter of the James K. Nelsons, of Lansing. The bridegroom is the son of the Walter A. Hladuns, of the Shore Club.

Mrs. Thomas Merrill

In the garden of her parents' Berkshire road home Saturday, September 8, KIMBERLY ANN EVANS, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gomer Evans, spoke her marriage vows to Mr. Merrill, son of the William Magill Merrills, of Des Moines, Iowa.

Garden Wedding For Miss Evans

Afternoon Service at Which She Speaks Vows to Thomas Wendell Merrill Is Followed by Small Reception

Kimberly Ann Evans, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gomer Evans, of Berkshire road, and Thomas Wendell Merrill were married in a garden ceremony at the home of the bride's parents Saturday afternoon.

Dr. John Olert officiated at the 4:30 o'clock rites which were followed by a reception for relatives and intimate friends.

The bride wore a 100-year-old hand-crocheted white cotton lace dress, with a wreath of white Sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy in her hair.

She was attended by her sister, Elizabeth Evans, whose bouquet of daisies and miniature ivy accented her green and white checked gingham Princess gown.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Magill Merrill, of Des Moines, Iowa, asked Charles Norton, of Boston, Mass., to act as best man.

Mrs. Evans chose a long mousseline de soie shirtwaist in muted pastel shades for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother selected a long aqua silk knit jacket dress with a white blouse.

The newlyweds are residing in Detroit until next fall, when they plan to continue graduate studies.

MARY WALDRON, daughter of MRS. HELEN WALDRON, of University place, has entered Proctor Academy, Andover, N.H., as a sophomore.

Villagers Set For New Year

Grosse Pointe Villagers, poised for another season of dining, dancing and sociability, met Sunday, September 30, at the North Oxford road home of President Cliff and First Lady Lee Hammerlee to complete plans for the Club's 27th year.

Five dance dates, three including dinner, have been confirmed at the Detroit Boat Club, Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, Lochmoor and the Detroit Yacht Club.

Top local orchestras have been selected for their versatility and ability to play dancing and listening music from the nostalgic to the newest, catering to everyone's taste.

In addition to the presidential couple, committee members for the season include William and Lyn Clazie, Frank and Miriam Lingeman, James and Paula Murray, Willard and Fern Stanfield and Ralph and Diane Swick.

Villagers was founded in 1947 primarily as a dance club. It is limited to 75 member couples.

From time to time there are a limited number of member-sponsored openings, but none are available at this time.

Plan American Fall Festival

Parents, children, family and friends are invited to participate in an exciting Fall Festival on the Kern Block in downtown Detroit, where Early American will be recreated under and around colorful pavilions Sunday, October 21, from 11 until 5 o'clock.

There is no admission charge.

The North American Indian Association will be featured in full Indian dress, with authentic Indian dancers and drum accompaniment.

The Plymouth Fife and Drum Corps will be there, and square dancers, under the direction of Bruce Light, will provide more musical background and entertainment.

A continuous pumpkin decorating contest will be held. A country market will feature booths selling fresh fruits and vegetables.

Additional booths focus on Indian crafts, including leatherwork, bead goods and jewelry, with proceeds earmarked for the North American Indian Association Scholarship Fund.

Wayne State University Press will have a booth selling books on historical Detroit and Michigan. Leather-making, candlemaking and stained glass work will be demonstrated, displayed and available for purchase. There will also be an exhibition of rare old instruments.

A refreshment stand will sell cider, doughnuts, beer, wine, hamburgers, hot dogs and apples.

This one-day event is sponsored by the Junior League of Detroit, Inc., which gave the festive orange and yellow pavilions to the City of Detroit in 1973.

The Junior League promotes and coordinates activities on the Kern Block, assisted by Detroit's Department of Parks and Recreation.

Groups wishing to plan activities on the Kern Block may call the Junior League office, 881-0040, or the Department of Parks and Recreation, 224-1185.

Chairman of the American Festival is Mrs. Jeffrey Barry. Mrs. Paul Wehmer and Mrs. James Brock are in charge of the booths. Mrs. John T. Huntington, Jr., is responsible for the refreshments.

Lapeer Parents Slate 24th Bazaar-Festival

Modern Times—Old Fashioned Values is theme for the 24th annual Bazaar and Fall Festival sponsored by the Lapeer Parents Association for Retarded Children. It will be presented Saturday, October 20, from 10 to 9 o'clock at the I.O.O.F. Hall in Berkley.

Admission is free. Prizes, booths to please all ages and a continuous buffet from 11 to 7 o'clock will be featured.

Proceeds benefit the mentally retarded residents of Lapeer State Home, now known as Oakdale Center for Developmental Disabilities, providing benefits the state does not underwrite, such as parties, experience trips, spending money, televisions and radios and campships.

Party to Aid State's Crippled Children

Local ladies planning the Michigan League for Crippled Children's 1973 bazaar, luncheon and fashion show, to be presented next Thursday, October 25, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, include, (standing, left and right), MRS. GEORGE C. WEDGE,

AFS Students to Tour City

The Detroit Metropolitan Area Board of AFS, (American Field Service), is sponsoring a bus tour of community volunteer organizations for the 29 Detroit-area AFS 1973-74 exchange students next Tuesday, October 23.

They will meet at Northland Theatre parking lot at 9:30 in the morning. First stop will be the Detroit Orthopaedic Clinic.

They will eat lunch at the International Institute, and visit Mother Waddles Perpetual Mission in Gratiot avenue. The bus is scheduled to return to Northland about 2 o'clock.

Grosse Pointe's three AFS students this year are Sabina G. Imhof, from Switzerland, living with the Robert Crossens, of Tonnancour place, and attending classes at Grosse Pointe South High School; Ludwig Lapauw, from Belgium, living with

Dr. and Mrs. John Griffin, of Sunningdale drive, and studying at North High; and Helle Markholst, from Denmark, living with the Tom Killers, of Provençal road, and studying at University-Liggett School.

Trio To Be Initiated Into Alpha Mu DKG

Alpha Mu Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma will conduct formal initiation Sunday, October 21, at 3 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

The three candidates to be initiated, teachers in the Grosse Pointe School System, are Jean C. Palazzolo, Montclair School; Dolores M. Nique, Richard School; and Jane Koch, North High School.

A tea will follow the ceremony. Margaret Schmidt is chairman of the day.

Mrs. R. C. Gielegem, II

Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, was setting for the Saturday, October 6, wedding of GAIL CONNOR and Mr. Gielegem. Their parents are the Winthrop Hilton Connors, of Lincoln road, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Charles Gielegem, of Harper Woods.

Miss Connor Says Vows October 6

Evening Rites in Christ Church Are Followed by Reception at Detroit Boat Club; St. Clair Shores To Be Newlyweds' Home

A gown of candlelight satin fashioned with a long-sleeved bodice of re-embroidered Duddress lace was Gail Connor's choice for her Saturday, October 6, wedding to Raymond Charles Gielegem, II.

Matching lace appliques panelled her skirt and circular train, and a coronet of cutout lace motifs held her fingertip illusion veil.

White and ivory roses, stephanotis, baby's-breath and ivy formed her bouquet.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Hilton Connor, of Lincoln road, Mr. Gielegem is the son of the Raymond Charles Gielegems, of Hunt Club drive, Harper Woods.

A reception at the Detroit Boat Club followed the 6:30 o'clock rites in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, with Father Morris J. Haud presiding.

Honor maid Kendra Smith and bridesmaids Mrs. James H. Bierbusse and Mary Van Dike carried white baskets filled with multi-colored garden flowers and baby's-breath. Their bright kelly green shirtwaists were floor length, styled with long cuffed sleeves, smocked bodices and open collars.

Best man was Birney L. Bickford, Roger Blaser and Douglas Stanley ushered.

Mrs. Connor chose a long-sleeved gown of pink silk jersey, floor length and featuring a low jewelled neckline, for her daughter's evening wedding.

The bridegroom's mother's gown, also floor length and long-sleeved, was fashioned of powdered blue chiffon and styled with a powder blue and gold lace bodice.

Both mothers pinned cymbidium orchids to their purses.

The newlyweds will make their home in St. Clair Shores.

Three Museum Shops Sell Art

If you plan to do your Christmas shopping early, the Museum Shops of the Detroit Institute of Arts are at your service.

In addition to the year-round shops at the museum's Woodward and Farnsworth entrances, a special Christmas Shop opened Tuesday, September 18, with a holiday assemblage of unusual gifts, decorations, greeting cards and wrappings.

Museum-inspired cards will feature works of art in the Detroit Institute of Arts, the Metropolitan Museum, the Museum of Modern Art and other great collections. One-of-a-kind handmade wood toys by George Landino, of Birmingham, could qualify as collector's items or as original gifts for youngsters. Small lacquer boxes made in Russian villages reflect an ancient tradition of icon painting.

Original, too, are ceramics by Michigan craftsmen, including Joan David, of Huntington Woods, and Jan Sadowski, of Birmingham.

The Museum Shops offer items related to museum exhibitions, handsome gifts and meaningful memories of the most active exhibition season in the Detroit Institute of Arts' 88-year history.

"Metal by Carol J. Steen," September 19-November 4, will be complemented by necklaces, rings and metal objects created by this Detroit artist who teaches at the Society of Arts and Crafts and has her studio at Common Ground of the Arts.

"Impressionist Paintings from the USSR," September 26-October 21, is accompanied by a catalogue with 41 full-color plates ($7.50) and a four-color poster with a detail of Henri Matisse's "The Dance" ($3).

"The Navajo Blanket," October 3-November 25, will feature a 112-page catalogue with 16 color plates ($4), and the Museum Shops will present contemporary Navajo rugs and jewelry by Navajo and Zuni craftsmen.

Beginning October 15 the Museum Shops will present "Craftsmen of Goldsmiths Hall," a group of contemporary artists who express themselves in precious metals and stones. Robert Kulicke unites painting and goldsmithing in cloisonne pendants suspended from hand-made chains. Noma Copley does gold and silver jewelry with surrealistic wit, and Barbara Chase Riboud designs dramatic jewelry echoing the hard and soft shapes of her sculpture shown at the Detroit Institute of Arts earlier this year.

"Alexander Calder: Prints, Drawings, Illustrated Books," October 18-November 18, will find the Museum Shop featuring a limited edition lithograph, "Jeune Fille et Sa Suite," pulled and signed to mark the dedication of Calder's sculpture fronting the Michigan Bell building in downtown Detroit.

The Shops carry one of the most extensive stocks of art and art-related books in the Detroit area, and will special-order titles on request. Rare, signed limited editions are also featured.

A variety of sculpture and print reproductions, folk art, stationery and puzzles in all price ranges is always available.

Museum Shops are a service of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts. Founders receive 10 percent discount on purchases over $5. Shops are open Tuesday through Sunday, from 9:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

Tuesdays and Thursdays during the USSR loan show, the Farnsworth and Christmas Shops will be open till 9 o'clock.

Local Leaguers also study matters of state and national concern and can supply an assortment of publications with background information.

To Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, League president, "The League's services are unique."

Financial advisors to the League are Walker L. Sisler, Detroit Edison Company; Nelson W. Diebel, M.D.; Michael A. Gaskin, Taylor and Gaskin, Inc.; George H. Helm, Helm, Marshall, Schuman, Vanker; Edward Hickkey, Jr.; E. J. Hickkey Company; Miles E. O'Brien, Detroit Insurance Agency; Brandon Rogers, Parkins, Rogers and Associates, Inc.; and Charles Verheyden, Charles Verheyden, Inc.

Jesus People Panel Slated

The Evening Group of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will have a round-table discussion on the Jesus People at its program meeting next Tuesday, October 23.

Representing the Jesus group will be students David Coolidge, Jill Delbridge and Tim Lock.

Don Mettler of the Yarn and I will not give his previously-scheduled demonstration of needlepoint until a later date.

From Another Pointe of View

The Archives of American Art is a national organization affiliated with the Smithsonian Institution. Its purpose is to collect, record and make available to scholars original documents and materials on American arts and crafts.

It is a non-profit charitable organization, dependent on private support and fund-raising activities such as the Jewel Auction.

Another Treasure Sale

Thousands of dollars in paintings, prints, sculpture, jewelry, posters, antiques, silver and glassware will be up for bids in WTVS Channel 56's Artfair on the Air.

Proceeds keep such shows as "Masterpiece Theatre," "Sesame Street" and "The Electric Company" beaming out to the Detroit community.

The second annual art and antique auction will be broadcast live Saturday and Sunday, November 17 and 18, from 5 o'clock to midnight.

Viewers at home watch and bid by phone on items they'd like to buy. Volunteers take the phoned-in information, and the names of the high bidders are announced on the air by celebrity auctioneers.

Donations come from area artists and galleries as well as individual collectors. Ann (Mrs. Richard) Manoojian, of Provencal road, is East area acquisition chairman.

Channel 56 is Detroit's only public television station, community-owned and non-commercial. It receives about five percent of its yearly operating budget from the federal government.

The remainder is raised via individual memberships, corporate donations, selective program grants, Artfair on the Air and the big Spring Auction.

A Treasure Of A Club

The Trowel and Error Garden Club of Grosse Pointe is proving itself a treasure to Carmel Hall, a resident home for 400 senior citizens located in downtown Detroit and operated by the Carmelite Order of Nuns.

Trowel and Error's 21 members are engrossed in a two-year program of completely renovating and maintaining Carmel Hall's Walled Garden.

They've been planning, pruning, cleaning and weeding since April. They've made weekly trips to the Hall to keep flowers, plants and trees watered, fertilized and cared for.

They've given money as well as time. The garden includes a rose bed, rock garden, ornamental evergreens, flowering shrubs, assorted trees and a variety of flowers and ground covers.

The Club ladies now are engaged in their fall project, clearing away faded summer blooms and planting bulbs for a fresh and colorful spring next year.

Treasures For The Finding

If you're the sort who likes to dig out treasures for yourself, check out the Grosse Pointe Branch American Association of University Women's 11th Annual Used Book Sale, underway now at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

And allow yourself plenty of time: It's the sort of Sale where an hour goes by in a minute.

There are many treasures still to be found. There's today and tomorrow, from 10 in the morning until 9:30 in the evening, left for the finding.

If you can wait until Saturday morning, there's a Super Treasure Time "Bargain Barn" (table-clearing) between 9 and 11 in the morning, when the Sale closes. That's the time to pick up any treasures that are left for less than a song.

Update Girl Scout Image

To keep pace with today's active and aware Junior and Cadette Girl Scouts two new outfits have been designed to complement their on-the-go lifestyles. Both consist of several separates that mix and match as they choose.

These new outfits give each Scout the opportunity to dress according to her own personal taste and to feel comfortable regardless of her personality, figure or the situation.

"There are more than a dozen combinations, ranging from a formal dress to a casual pants outfit, and all are 100 percent official," commented Mrs. Richard E. Cross, president of the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit.

For Junior Scouts, the nine through 11-year-olds, there are five versatile separates, including an A-line jumper, matching pants and patch pocket shorts, all in a light green polyester blend fabric, a contrasting forest green ribbed nylon bodysuit and a short-sleeved white blouse with printed green stripes in a stylized Girl Scout emblem design.

All are made of easy-care permanent press fabric with soil release finishes. They're suitable for any climate, any indoor or outdoor activity.

To accessorize the outfits there are bright red V-belties, shiny reversible green and red belts and matching belt purses.

A new narrower badge sash made to stay in place and the traditional dark green Girl Scout beret complete with pre-teen Junior Girl Scout outfit.

Cadette Scouts, ages 12 through 14, have a choice of six new mix and match separates, including a dark green A-line jumper, matching pants and a short tunictype overblouse, all in a rib knit polyester blend fabric, a long-sleeved light yellow blouse printed with Girl Scout emblem stripes and a bright yellow ribbed nylon bodysuit.

There is also a dark green felt vest which can be decorated with official insignia on the front and colorful Scout patches on the back.

All the separates except the vest are made of machine-washable permanent press material.

To complete the Cadette outfit, a dark green V-beltie to be worn with the blouse is an official accessory. The dark green beret with special Cadette emblem, called a cockade, is optional.

Since 1912 when Girl Scouts of the USA was founded, Girl Scout uniforms have undergone many changes. Fashions ranged from the original navy middie blouse and skirt to the 1914 khaki dress.

In 1928 the "green" was introduced, and various style modifications continued through the 60's.

This latest change had its starting point four years ago when the national organization asked Girl Scouts across the country to send in their preferences and suggestions regarding new outfits.

The most frequent request was for pants, with numerous votes for a neat sporty "un-uniform" look made identifiable with Girl Scout insignia—and especially easy-care fabrics.

New Adult and Senior Girl Scout outfits were introduced in the spring of 1971, and in the spring of 1973 Brownies got their new outfits.

Introduction of the Junior and Cadette outfits complete the whole new fashion look for all Girl Scout age groups.

Pointe Ladies Work for UF

Many Pointe homemakers are among the 100,000 volunteers working to make the $34 million 25th annual United Foundation Torch Drive goal a reality by campaign's end November 8.

The Local Residential Unit, headed by Mrs. Robert Valk, of Renaud road, includes the east side of Detroit, all Grosse Pointes and all of Macomb County. Goal for the Unit is $342,196.

Serving as Region leader is Mrs. Glen Bell Moore, of Colonial road, responsible for The Pointes. Working with her in the Shores are area leaders Mrs. John P. Clune, of Willow Tree place, and Mrs. Joseph Beals, of Renaud road. Division leader is Mrs. Jerry Blake, of Willow Tree place.

Division leader for Grosse Pointe Farms is Mrs. Theodore Granger of Mapleton road. Mrs. William Gouin, of Chalfonte avenue, is area leader.

Grosse Pointe Woods division leader is Mrs. William Alcott, of Hawthorne road. Working with her are area leaders Mrs. Carl Schulte, of Hollywood avenue, Mrs. William Christensen, of Sunningdale drive, and Mrs. Vassel Nickloff, of Hunt Club drive, Harper Woods.

Grosse Pointe Park women involved in the campaign include Mrs. Michael Raymond, of Bishop road, division leader, and Mrs. Judith Robertson, of Middlesex boulevard, and Mrs. Lawrence Arlin, of Balfour road.

Leaders in the City of Grosse Pointe are Mrs. Ellwyn Gilbert, of University place, division leader, and Mrs. K. K. Clarke, of Fisher road, area leader.

More than 140 health and community service agencies in Wayne, Macomb and Oakland counties benefit from the Torch Drive, receiving funds to help underwrite their operating budgets.

The 1973 campaign theme is "All It Takes Is For All To Give."

Lawyers Wives Plan A Party

Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives and their husbands will enjoy an old-fashioned Oktoberfest at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Saturday, October 27. The annual dinner-dance begins with cocktails at 7:30. Dinner follows at 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. John P. Williams, chairman, has planned a completely German menu. The "Changing Times" will play for dancing, and entertainment will be by the Carpathia Youth Group.

Mrs. Thomas Coulter, president of the Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives, has invited as guests Judge and Mrs. Harry Burkart, of Rochester. Mrs. Burkart is president of Lawyers Wives of Michigan.

AAUW Ends Busy October

The Grosse Pointe Branch American Association of University Women Book Group will meet at the Misses Iva and Pearl Hooper's home in Kenwood road, Harper Woods, Monday, October 22. Alice Shepard will review "Evan" by Robert St. John.

On the evening of the same day Mrs. Frank Krembel, of Broadstone road, will be hostess for the Ikebana, (Japanese flower arrangement), Group.

Dr. Patricia Shontz, economic analyst, will address the November general meeting of the Pontiac AAUW next Thursday, October 25, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Hostesses will be Mrs. James Preston and Mrs. Douglas Roberts.

Trowel, Error Club to Meet

The Trowel and Error Garden Club meets next Thursday, October 25, at 12:30 o'clock in the Sunningdale drive home of Mrs. Martin Schurr. Mrs. Roland Postel will serve as co-hostess.

Speaker will be Marcia Kearney, who represented the Club last summer at Higgins Lake.

At the Club's September meeting in the home of Mrs. Alfred Goolsby, Delightful Discards were auctioned off to members and their guests.

Profits will help Trowel and Error pay next summer's tuition for a local teacher at the Higgins Lake Conservation School.

Mrs. Ronald Pepler

Wed to Mr. Pepler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur G. Pepler, of Roslyn road, in Saint Paul's-on-the-Lake Friday evening, September 21, was JANET LOUISE COLLINS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Collins, of Beaupre avenue.

September Rites For Janet Collins

Her Wedding to Ronald Dale Pepler is Followed by Reception at Imperial House; Pair at Home in Harper Woods

Janet Louise Collins and Ronald Dale Pepler exchanged marriage vows Friday evening, September 21, in Saint Paul's-on-the-Lake, with Monsignor Frances X. Canfield presiding at the 7 o'clock rites.

The bridegroom's aunt, Norma J. Card, provided music for the service which was followed by a reception at Imperial House.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Collins, of Beaupre avenue, wore an Empire gown of silk organza over taffeta styled with a lace and seed pearl-appliqued bodice.

Matching appliques edged her skirt hem and circular train. A lace and seed pearl caplet caught her elbow length illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of white roses and baby's-breath.

She was attended by honor maid Beverly Dulapa in a frock of Nile green chiffon trimmed with kelly green and lace, carrying a bouquet of multi-colored mums.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically, were Sandra Colombo, Nancy Rathbun and Barbara Birch. Nicole Collins was her aunt's flower girl.

Dennis Pepler acted as best man for his brother. They are the sons of the Wilbur G. Peplers, of Roslyn road.

Ushering were Mark Fosse, James Nowak, Walter Collins, the bride's brother, and Fred Van Assche, of Orlando, Fla.

Jewels accented the neckline and sleeves of the bride's mother's turquoise silk and worsted costume. She selected a wrist corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink chiffon gown with a beaded bodice, and a corsage of pink roses.

The newlyweds are at home in Harper Woods.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. Forbes and their son Wyndham, of Syracuse, N. Y., and her aunt, Gertrude Matyniak, of Oak Lawn, Ill.

Symphony Off on Fall Tour

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra embarks from Metro Airport Monday morning, October 22, on its annual fall tour.

A busy three-week schedule covering 13 cities in eight states will be launched at the Worcester, Mass., Music Festival October 22 through 27.

Tour conductor Rafael Fruhbeck de Burgos, who has just completed two weeks of engagements with the Orchestra in Ford Auditorium, will share the podium with Samuel Jones and Richard Hayman, making guest conductor appearances in Worcester.

The George Shearing Quintet will make a special guest appearance with the Detroit Symphony during its stay at the Festival.

Concerts the following week are scheduled at the University of Connecticut in Storrs October 29, at Carnegie Hall in New York City October 30, (the program will include a performance of "Carmina Burana" and "Nights in the Gardens of Spain" featuring pianist Cristina Ortiz), at the University of West Virginia in Morgantown October 31, and at Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware, O., November 1.

The Orchestra will travel to Danville, for a concert date at Centre College November 2, and to Springfield, Ill., for a November 3 performance.

Final tour appearances will be at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, November 5, at the University of Illinois in Urbana November 6, at Milliken University in Decatur, Ill., November 7, at Wheaton College in Wheaton, Ill., November 9, and at the University of Wisconsin in Madison November 10.

The Orchestra resumes its concerts in Ford Auditorium November 15 and 17, with Stanislaw Skrowaczewski conducting.

Mayumi Fujikawa, violinist, will make her first guest appearances with the Detroit Symphony at these concerts. They will be preceded by a Lecture/Open Rehearsal Wednesday, November 14, at 1 o'clock.

Set Huguenot Society Meeting on Saturday

The Huguenot Society of Michigan will hold its 36th annual meeting Saturday, October 20, at Stouffer's Inn, Detroit.

The board of governors convenes at 10:30 o'clock. The annual meeting is scheduled for 11. Officers, directors and chairmen will report and a recommended by-law change will be voted upon.

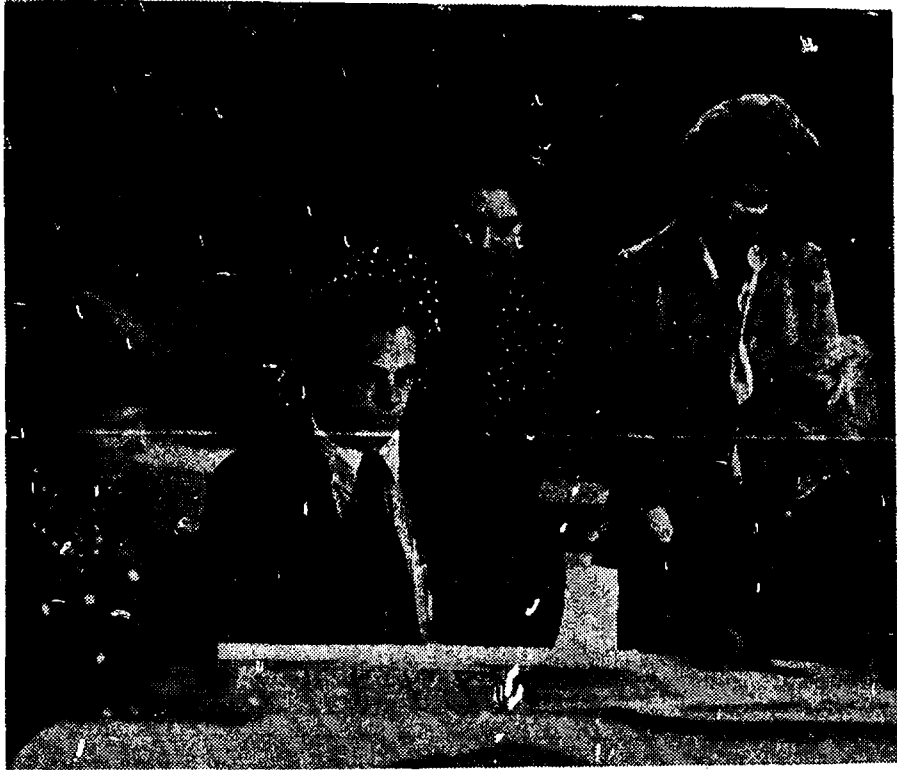

The slate of officers submitted by the nominating committee includes Vera Keener as president and Pointer Florence Powell as chaplain.

Alice Serrell will speak of her travels after luncheon. Among Pointers expected to attend are Mrs. Arthur H. Bacon and Mr. and Mrs. L. Verne Ansel.

PEG (Margaret Anne) BARTUSH, an Automotive Marketing sophomore at Northwestern Institute, Midland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. ADDISON BARTUSH, of Lakeshore road, was product division chairman for the Mazda Exhibit at Northwood's 10th Annual New Car Auto Show.

Merry Mart, famous for its handmade Christmas gifts and goodies, will be presented Thursday, October 25, from 10 to 4 o'clock at Raleigh House, Southfield. A luncheon and fashion show, by reservation only, is scheduled in conjunction with the Fair, which benefits Christ Child House and Christ Child School.

French Visitor To Give Talk

A distinguished visitor from France, Patrick Verhoeven, will deliver an address in French to members of the Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe and other interested localities in the reception room of Snow, Nuyten, Kurtz and Company, Mack avenue and Cadieux road, Friday evening, October 26, at 8 o'clock.

M. Verhoeven, director of lectures for the Louvre and the National Museums of France, is an official confederator of the Federation Des Alliances Francaises.

His talk, "Promenade A Versailles Sur Les Pas De Marie Antoinette," will attempt to separate the facts of the doomed queen's life and personality from legends that have grown up about her.

After a long and painstaking restoration the famous palace at Versailles is being returned to its 18th century splendor. M. Verhoeven will picture Marie Antoinette in that setting, where she arrived as a girl of 15, and trace her steps through the brilliant and tumultuous years there.

M. Verhoeven was born in Belgium and studied at the School of the Louvre in Paris. He has prepared several royal collections for display at the palace in Brussels and has worked behind the scenes in movies and television.

His lecture is free to members of the Grosse Pointe Alliance. Fee for guests is $3.

Dr. and Mrs. Garfield Tourney, of Washington road, will honor M. Verhoeven at a pre-lecture cocktail buffet. Members of the Alliance board of directors have been invited.

Mrs. Tourney is current program chairman for the Grosse Pointe Alliance. M. Verhoeven will speak in French to members of the Detroit Alliance Francaise in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts, Saturday, October 27, at 2 o'clock, when his subject will be "Picasso: Double Face."

LISA (Mrs. John Wendell, II) ANDERSON, of East Jefferson avenue, was at the White House last week, attending President RICHARD NIXON's dinner for New Zealand Prime Minister NORMAN KIRK.

GPYC Previews Formal Styles

Previews of elegant after-five gowns and furs from Jacobson's will be presented today, Thursday, October 18, at 11:30 o'clock for Grosse Pointe Yacht Club women members.

Mrs. Frank Piku, GPYC fashion show director, and her associates Mrs. Harry Anderson, Mrs. Thomas Cracchiolo, Mrs. Arthur Colton, Mrs. John Drummy, Mrs. Thomas Gebeck, Mrs. Paul Gillan, Mrs. Walter Kujewski, Mrs. Remie Laenen, Mrs. Stewart McLaren, Mrs. Gerald Miller, Mrs. Joseph Posch, Mrs. Alphonse Susalla and Mrs. Paul Susalla have created an opening night atmosphere with comedy and tragedy masks on a draped stage and play bill posters. In keeping with the theatrical theme, prizes are tickets to various plays, opera, symphony, concert and movie performances.

Models are Grosse Pointe Yacht Club members Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Laenen, Mrs. Richard Bryce, Mrs. George Beard, Mrs. Drummy, Mrs. Donald Pokorny, Mrs. Fred Lepley, Mrs. Thomas Van Pelt and Mrs. Gertrude Dahl. Mrs. Donald Savage is 1973 general GPYC Ladies chairman.

Josiah Harmar DAR Will Meet Saturday

The General Josiah Harmar Grosse Pointe Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its October meeting and tea at the home of Miss Effie Downer in Mettetal avenue, Detroit, Saturday, October 20, at 12:30 o'clock.

Following the business session Janet Maynard, American Heritage chairman, will report on "Fox Fire Book No. 1—Appalachia."

Co-hostesses will be Winifred Mills, Ruth Morrow and Elizabeth Foote.

Women interested in DAR membership may call 533-5207 for further information.

THOMAS F. RUSSELL, of Claireview road, has been elected to the Automotive Information Council board of directors.

Open Zodiac Series Friday

Zodiac, the new Friday evening series presented by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, opens tomorrow, October 19, at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium with a presentation of Carmina Burana, a work described as protest music of the Middle Ages.

The program, with acclaimed Spanish-born conductor Rafael Frubbeck de Burgos on the podium, also includes "Nights in the Gardens of Spain" by Manuel de Falla.

A something-new series at the Symphony, the four Friday Night Zodiac Concerts will be immediately preceded by program-related Preludes at 7:30 with no additional admission charge.

The October 19 Prelude features "The Art of Spanish Piano."

Young Spanish pianist Enrique Perez de Guzman, making his first American concert appearance with the Detroit Symphony in the de Falla selection, will be Prelude soloist in works by Montsalvate and Granados.

Another Zodiac Concert feature is half-price admission for students, who will be invited to pay informal backstage visits, following each performance.

Remaining Zodiac Concerts are scheduled for November 23, January 18 and April 5.

The Friday night program, exclusive of the 7:30 Prelude, will be repeated the following evening, October 20, at the regular Saturday subscription concert performance at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium. "Carmina Burana," composed by Carl Orff in 1935-36 and based upon a manuscript which dates back to the 12th century, consists of over 200 carmina, or songs, in vulgar Latin, French and German.

These songs have been attributed to goliards, the vagrant scholars, defrocked monks and clerics and itinerant bards who roamed Europe at that time.

This interesting combination of 20th century music and medieval poetry will feature the Detroit Symphony debut of three young American-born singers.

Soprano Ruth Welting, born in Memphis and a prize winner in the 1968 National Metropolitan Opera Auditions, has sung regularly with the New York City Opera. She has appeared with the San Francisco and Honolulu Operas and at the Spoleto Festival in Italy.

Michael Best, a Juilliard-trained tenor born in Durham, N.C., also has appeared at the Spoleto Festival as well as with several opera companies in the United States.

Baritone Peter Binder makes his first appearances with the Orchestra after enjoying a career on both sides of the Atlantic. Born in Philadelphia where he completed his musical studies, he went on to sing with the Santa Fe Opera before his permanent engagements in Aachen, Oberhausen, Dortmund, Bern and Darmstadt, Germany.

Two choral groups will appear in "Carmina Burana." One is the Boy Choir of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, Edgar Billups, choirmaster, the other the University of Michigan Choir under the direction of Maynard Klein.

Tickets for Friday night's performance are priced at $8, $4.50 and $3, half-price for students. Saturday's concert prices are $7.50, $6.50, $5.50, $5, $3 and $2.50.

Tickets are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, all Hudson's and Grinnell's ticket offices.

Following this week's performances, the Detroit Symphony departs for its three-week Fall Tour, including a concert in New York's Carnegie Hall and appearances at the week-long music festival in Worcester, Mass.

Rafael Frubbeck de Burgos has been designated 1973 Fall Tour conductor.

The Orchestra returns to Ford Auditorium for concert performances on November 15 and 17, when Stanislaw Skrowaczewski will appear as guest conductor with Mayumi Fujikawa as guest violinist.

Grosse Pointe South High School graduate EMILY PORTER, daughter of THE REVEREND and MRS. PERRY M. PORTER, of Radnor, Pa., has been elected Honor Court chairman of the coming year at the Albany Medical Center School of Nursing, Albany, N. Y., where she is a senior. The Reverend Porter was formerly associated with Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

DRC Considers First Ladies

Mrs. Dwight Struthers, of Lochmoor boulevard, will be guest speaker for the Detroit Review Club Tuesday, October 23, at the Women's City Club.

Mrs. Struthers became interested in the White House and its occupants some years ago, after reading an article "If These Walls Could Talk." After extensive research she developed a series of lectures on the First Ladies.

She will cover the first 50 years in the White House next Tuesday, focusing on the Presidential families, their personalities and social entertaining, and how living in the White House affected the personalities of the First Ladies.

A graduate of Lindenwood College for Women, St. Charles, Mo., where she majored in History, Mrs. Struthers is the mother of three children. She has four grandchildren.

Mrs. H. Lloyd Patterson, DRC president, will preside at a business meeting following the 1:30 o'clock lecture.

Elected president of The College of William and Mary chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon national honorary journalism society recently was LAURIE SMITH, graduated from Grosse Pointe North High School in 1970 and now a senior at the Virginia university, daughter of MR. and MRS. WILLARD S. SMITH, of Colonial road.

Attending the University of Michigan Division of Management Education Problem Solving and Decision Making Seminar in Ann Arbor September 26 through 28 was Pointer C. K. "SKIP" GIBSON.

Writing Craft Conference Set

Three Pointers will be among program leaders at the 12th annual Conference on the Craftsmanship of Creative Writing at Oakland University, co-sponsored by Detroit Women Writers and Oakland's Division of Continuing Education, this Saturday, October 20.

Co-director of a session called Writing for the Stage and Screen is Hal Youngblood, executive producer of WJR radio, author of plays for both television and the stage.

Josephine Wunsch, novelist and article writer, author of "Flying Skis," "Passport to Russia" and "Summer of Decision," all books for teens, will participate in a technical clinic on Juvenile Fiction.

Louis Prato, news director for the WWJ stations, author of free-lance articles in "Sport Magazine" and "The American Way," will participate in a clinic on Article Writing.

More than 400 writers are expected to attend the one-day Conference, which opens at 9 o'clock with a registration and coffee hour and features special technical clinics for beginners as well as lectures and interest sessions for professionals and semi-professionals.

DEAN METRY, of Bedford road, has accepted a bid to join Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity at Central Michigan University, where he is a freshman.

North High's English Department Reports Changes

The English Department at North High School has developed a broad elective curriculum program which for the first time, in 1973-74, extends to the ninth grade.

Students wishing to elect a traditional three or four year program may still do so. However, any students who wish to discuss plans with his English teacher and counselor and consult the Curriculum Guide may work out a program which will provide him a balance of courses and will acquaint him with many areas of English.

Basically, the elective courses are divided into writing, reading, literary, media, drama, humanities and language study courses. All the electives focus on reading, writing, listening and speaking as related to course subject matter.

As a result of the recent millage election, North High was staffed so that one English teacher is available each semester as a consultant in reading and writing. The two teachers are involved in testing in their area, and in individual and group instruction.

The reading and writing consultants also are available to give specific instruction to students in English classes as well as other academic classes, and to individual students on a tutorial basis.

Andrew Balas, reading consultant, works from the North High reading laboratory, and is assisted each hour by volunteer mothers.

The writing consultants, initially Mrs. Frances Twiddy, now on leave, and Mrs. Penny Soby, have forms by which students may apply for individual help or teachers may request specific types of writing assistance.

Students with honors potential may apply for honors credit in individual English courses. Application must be made early in the semester and materials collected for presentation to a departmental committee which reviews the student's work. If approved, an honors designation is placed on the student's transcript.

The Advanced Placement Program, a program of the College Entrance Examination

Board, CEEB, is continuing again this year. With this, student may receive college credit for work accomplished in high school.

Although the English Department has no special course designed for Advanced Placement, it sponsors a workshop series prior to the AP examinations to assist students in developing approaches to the kinds of questions asked. ment reports it's attempting to provide for individual

The Department plans no significant changes for the 1974-75 school year, but is continually open to suggestions for courses and approaches which will deal with student needs and interests.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe

ORDINANCE
NO. 163

AN ORDINANCE TO REPEAL SECTION 4.59 AND TO SUBSTITUTE THEREFOR A NEW SECTION 4.59 OF CHAPTER 42 OF TITLE IV OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE CONCERNING SIDEWALK REPAIR.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE ORDAINS:

1. Section 4.59 of Chapter 42 of Title IV is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:

4.59. SIDEWALK REPAIR. Whenever the Building Inspector shall determine that a sidewalk is unsafe for use, notice may be given to the owner of the lot or premises adjacent to and abutting upon said sidewalk of such determination which notice shall be given in accordance with section 1.11 of this Code. Thereafter, it shall be the duty of the owner to place said sidewalk in a safe condition. Such notice shall specify a reasonable time, not less than seven (7) days, within which such work shall be commenced, and shall further provide that the work shall be completed with due diligence. If the owner of such lot or premises shall refuse or neglect to repair said sidewalk within the time limited therefor, or in a manner otherwise than in accordance with this Chapter, the Building Inspector shall have said sidewalk repaired. If the Building Inspector determines that the condition of said sidewalk is such that immediate repair is necessary to protect the public, he may dispense with said notice. The cost of repairs hereunder shall be charged against the premises which said sidewalk adjoins and the owner of said premises (except that for years prior to December 31, 1974 when said sidewalk repairs about side street frontages of corner lots, as distinguished from interior lots, then the cost of repairs shall be charged against the premises which said sidewalk abuts, the owner of said premises and the City of Grosse Pointe in such proportions as shall be determined and authorized by Council of City of Grosse Pointe and set forth in Resolution duly adopted by Council), and shall be collected as provided for single lot assessments in Chapter 1 of this Code.

2. The effective date of the within Ordinance No. 163 shall be ten (10) days after date of publication thereof.

EXCESS REVENUE	$ 95,695.00	$ 52,044.00

At June 30, 1973, there were outstanding bond obligations of the School System as follows:

	Balance Original Issue	Outstanding June 30, 1973
1956 BOND ISSUE	$3,475,000.00	$1,665,000.00
1964 BOND ISSUE	675,000.00	330,000.00

1971 BOND ISSUE	3,600,000.00	3,375,000.00

These are serial bond obligations financed with unlimited tax levies. This means that we levy taxes each year sufficient to meet the annual principal and interest payments.

During the year under review the School System retired $615,000.00 in bonds resulting in a balance outstanding in the amount of $14,760,000.00. At June 30, 1973 the ratio of debt to the State Equalized Valuation of the entire School District was reflected at 3.14%.

BUILDING AND SITE FUND

Monies in this fund are used primarily for the acquisition of land, construction of buildings and the equipment for such buildings.

Funds may be realized from the sale of general obligation bonds, by special voted tax levy specifically designated for the purpose mentioned above, or by appropriation from the General Fund.

This report has been prepared in summary form consistent with requirements by the Michigan Department of Education.

The Board of Education of The Grosse Pointe Public School System extends an invitation to any resident of the District, interested in obtaining additional information, to visit the School System at its Administrative Offices at 389 St. Clair, where a complete certified public audit is available for inspection.

Board of Education
The Grosse Pointe Public School System
Wayne County, Michigan
William J. Adams, Treasurer

The following report is a summary of the financial condition and the financial transactions authorized by your Board of Education in support of the total Educational program of the Grosse Pointe Public School System for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1972 and 1973.

The Board of Education wishes to supplement the financial data with a few brief comments: In accordance with State Law, all funds received and disbursed by The Grosse Pointe Public School System are maintained under three major classifications, or Funds, which broadly indicate the function. These are:

GENERAL OPERATING FUND BUILDING AND SITE FUND DEBT RETIREMENT FUND

GENERAL OPERATING FUND:

As indicated by the title, this fund provides for all activities of the School System, other than those specifically designed as Building and Site or Debt Retirement. The General Fund receives the bulk of its revenue from two main sources. The first and largest source is from tax levies on real and personal properties within the school district. The second is from State Aid. Expenditures from the General Fund are made in accordance with a budget prepared by the Superintendent of Schools and as reviewed and adopted by the Board of Education.

Comments on the General Fund operation: The School System completed the 1972-73 fiscal year with unused funds in the amount of $77,384.41 for general operating purposes. These funds will be appropriated to its 1973-74 program.

During the year under review we report that State Aid revenue for basic membership allowance was reduced from $1,313,121.00 in 1971-72 to $514,635.00, or a reduction in State Aid revenue of $798,486.00. This occurred under the provisions of the State Act. It is anticipated that our school system will receive no basic membership allowance during the ensuing 1973-74 fiscal year. The Board of Education is committed to the concept of a balanced budget and will periodically review and consider necessary adjustments to finance the educational program within available income.

Pointe Counter Points

By Pat Rousseau

Walton-Pierce . . . was once again in the New York market last week with requests from customers to find short cocktail, long evening dresses, real and fake fur and smart half sizes. The newest of the new added to lines are arriving daily. One beautiful fashion find was an all-over sequined shirt dress in pastel colors. It's perfect for now and South later. Come see them and if you have a request be sure to make it known. The buyers will be leaving soon again. In the gift department see the charming bronze sculptures of children from Cranbrook Products.

The Best of Two Worlds . . . an apartment-home in Grosse Pointe's newest condominium, the Jefferson Apartments, 17111 East Jefferson. Residents are home owners, enjoy tax deductions and equity advantages. The apartment size is in excess of 2,000 square feet. There are nine-foot ceilings, maximum insulation, air conditioning and natural fireplaces. Enjoy the services of a doorman, permanent caretaker. Three security systems guard your apartment while home or away. The model apartment is open 12 to 5 p.m. daily except Wednesday. Call 882-7708 or 886-480 Michigan Condominium Corporation.

Great Adventure In Cooking . . . Jenn-Air's counter top broiler. It cooks everything with the same delicious flavor as an outdoor charcoal grill . . . but none of the smoke and mess. Permanent grill rack, electrically heated to consistent high intensity, sears genuine charcoal broiled flavor into any meat. It's a whole new concept of indoor cooking. This counter top broiler exhausts cooking fumes without an overhead hood. The secret is a revolutionary surface vent built-in next to the grill. It traps smoke and odor at their source and whisks them out of doors. See it in the handsome new kitchen model display at Mutschler Kitchens, 20227 Mack Avenue.

Day Dressing . . . means wearing a dress as a fashion choice for day this fall and winter. Find a new collection nicely priced from $28 to $59. Wool dresses in white and colors, narrow and wide corduroy in navy, brown or red and blends. See them all at Michelle's Boutique, 17864 Mack Avenue. Open Friday evenings until eight.

In Martha's Closet, 375 Fisher Road . . . you will find a varied selection of Kimberly Knits, dresses, two piece suits and pant suits in Oyster White, beige, light blue and grass green.

Once A Year Special . . . at the Notre Dame Pharmacy for Sweetest Day, October 20th. Russell Slover's 1 1/2 lb. gift box of candy regularly $3.75 now $2.99.

Those Folks At Mr. Q Say . . . Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter travel reservations should be booked as early as possible. Call 886-0500 now . . . 19517 Mack Avenue.

At The Edward Nepi Salon . . . Simple and sensational! New hair shapes to help you conquer hair "You can't do a thing with". Short and curly, side swept and wavy or straight, free and easy. A shake of the head and every hair falls back into place. See the Artist at The Nepi Salon TU 4-8858.

Now's The Time . . . to make the selection of candles for the holidays ahead. Tall exquisitely scented pillars in your favorite color, graceful tapers to match your party decor, petalapers for a charming arrangement . . . all are available at The Sphere, 19849 Mack Avenue.

New From Japan . . . at the Margaret Diamond Shop, 377 Fisher Road, Hanae Mori banlon dresses, pantsuits, long dresses . . . for now and cruise priced from $115.

Easy Does It . . . lunch and shop at the same time, Wednesday at The Golden Lion when Martha's Closet features a style show featuring Kimberly Knits and party-going fashions just in from New York.

Barbara . . . now has instant printing (well almost). It just takes a day. Great for specially worded invitations, paper, your own gift enclosures and greetings with a personal message. Get inspired by Barbara's Stationery . . . 373 Fisher Road.

The Hit Of England's Fashion World . . . has just arrived direct from London . . . genuine glass beads in rainbow colors, baroque pearls and other select quality costume jewelry . . . Hurry to Mr. Julian Fashion Boutique, 15114 Kercheval in the Park . . . 822-2818.

All The Better To See . . . the display of beautiful, in vogue, oriental rugs, Ed Maleszewski's, 21435 Mack, has been expanded to twice the size and remodeled. It still has the same boutique atmosphere and personal service. The orientals on display can be ordered in other sizes. Of course, there is a great selection of carpeting and area rugs . . . 776-5510.

Bijouterie Jewelry By Cueter . . . Mr. Cueter imports precious stones direct from Brazil and designs the most outstanding jewelry. You can see his designs at 19860 Mack Avenue. There are also rings designed specially for re-setting and showing your own stones to best advantage. Other rings can be added to as special happenings occur in your life. There is also an excellent selection of men's rings.

Light Up Your Life . . . with a lamp from a new selection of lamps at the new WRIGHT'S GIFT AND LAMP SHOP. Convenient parking for customers is next to the building . . . 18650 Mack Avenue.

Short Hair . . . is the look that's making it big this fall. There are many styles to try . . . one is a French flip that's easily brushed forward into bangs with a sun streak effect around the face. Ask about it at the Grosse Pointe Coliseum, 20335 Mack . . . 881-7252.

Come To Open House . . . October 28th, noon till 5 p.m., at The Arrangement . . . 341 Fisher Road for a Pottery

Pointer of Interest

MRS. THOMAS B. STEVENS, OF MUIR ROAD

By Janet Mueller

When Kristen Johns was in her senior year of high school, she was the only singer in her Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Youth Choir who had—uncannily enough—perfect attendance.

"I wonder why?" Could the fact that she is the daughter of Professor and Mrs. Malcolm Johns, he organist and choirmaster at Memorial Church, she director of the Church Youth Choirs, have had anything to do with it?

Kris Johns is Kris Stevens now, and she is still spending a lot of time at Memorial Church.

That's non-singing time. Audience Only "I have become a participant (in music) only in the audience aspect. My parents tried gallantly with piano lessons."

Kris' lack of enthusiasm antagonized her teacher to the point where the lady, literally, scratched her. That was the end of that.

But Kris, brought up with music, still loves it. Brought up in The Pointe, still loves it.

Brought up as a member of Memorial Church, still loves it. She is chairman of Craft Capers, a major booth for the 1973 Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Fair, to be presented Thursday, November 8, from 9 in the morning to 5:30 in the afternoon, on all three floors of the Church.

Largest Fair The Fair needs all three Church floors. With 24 booths and departments, it is the largest of The Pointe's pre-Christmas Church Fairs.

Kris' husband is also a Pointer, son of Mark Stevens. "We were brought up a half-mile from each other, but didn't meet until I was 17 and he was 21."

Talk about Typical Grosse Pointe!

They have two daughters, Stephanie, three-and-a-half, and eight-month-old Brin. Kris, growing up, sang for eight years in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Youth Choirs and went through The High School, (South High, now).

Back to WSU After two years at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., she returned to complete her education at Wayne State University, (where Professor Johns is a professor), major-

Making Demonstration by Gene Pluhar. He will also make one-of-a-kind pieces to your order.

Sweetest Day is October 20th . . . don't forget to remember your favorite person with a "Gift of Cheese" from the Merry Mouse, corner of Kercheval and Notre Dame.

Our Business . . . is to make you look good!! So why not come in and give us a chance. See the "professionals" at MODERN MAN MEN'S STYLING SALON, 19609 Mack Ave. By appt. TU 1-0010.

With antibiotics and antihistamines, cough mixtures and Coca Cola syrup, sulfa drugs and sacroiliac belts, wheat germ and wintergreen drops . . . what is a pharmacist to do? Stock them all to be sure you are never disappointed. That's what! And so we do. Prescription items to cure your ills, vitamins and minerals to give you an inner beauty, creams and lotions and lipsticks and cologne for your outer beauty. We are always glad to oblige. Come see us. We're always happy to serve your needs. A. J. Meyer, 16361 Mack Avenue . . . 882-1040.

A lot of nice things have been happening at The Vineyard this month. A complete library of books pertaining to wine, cheese and cooking are now in stock. These along with our new wine baskets are great gift ideas, also the Grosse Pointe Artists Assoc. have new selection of paintings hanging for your viewing pleasure. Visit the Vineyard, a wine and cheese specialty shoppe, soon. 21016 Mack Ave. Grosse Pointe Woods. 882-0140. Convenient parking in rear.

Short and to The Pointe

(Continued from Page 20) MR. and MRS. JAMES PAYNE JENKINS, V. of Hawthorne road, announce the birth of their second child, a daughter, SUSAN ELIZABETH, September 30. Mrs. Jenkins is the former KATHRYN HALL, daughter of MR. and MRS. SHELDON FRANKLIN HALL, of Harbor Hill. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. JAMES PAYNE JENKINS, IV, of Montross, Va. Young Susan has a big brother, JIMMY, age three, eager to help look after her, and one great-grandmother, MRS. HARRY E. REITZ, of Norfolk, Va.

DR. and MRS. THOMAS J. PETZ, of Fordcroft road, announce the birth of a daughter, CATHERINE ALDA, September 17. Mrs. Petz is the former CATHERINE CROWE daughter of MR. and MRS. WILLIAM P. CROWE, of Merriweather road. Paternal grandmother is MRS. ARTHUR J. PETZ, of Balfour road. Young Catherine has four big brothers, THOMAS, JR., WILLIAM, DAVID and JOHN.

Initiated recently into the Gamma Xi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega sorority at Western Michigan University were CHRIS LARSEN, daughter of the JOHN W. LARSEN, of Barrington road, and KATY PHILLIP, daughter of MR. and MRS. PHILIP PHILLIP, of McKinley avenue.

But it's not JUST granting visas," Kris explains. Tom finds himself answering such questions as "Where can I get Thai rice in the city of Detroit?" (you can't: it's not exported), and "I want to introduce a powered bicycle to Thailand. How do I go about it?" (now THAT we can help you with . . .)

It's been a fascinating learning experience.

Love Virginia The young Stevens wouldn't turn down a trip to Mozambique, but neither do they consider a vacation in Charlottesville, Va., at the Farmington Country Club, making do. They love Farmington, with its beautiful Georgian architecture, and they love Virginia.

In Tom's case, it's an inherited predilection. His mother was an FFV (member of a First Family of Virginia).

Kris Stevens has creative hands. She's done sculpting. "Tarsus," the heroic head on a table in one corner of her living room, is Kris' own work.

Although Tarsus is an imagined concept of a person, not a portrait, his mouth looks a lot like Beethoven's. Which is as it should be: Kris borrowed Beethoven's mouth for Tarsus.

Her sculpting got waylaid two years ago, when other things became more pressing. But she hopes to get back to it.

Can-Do Creativity She's the sort of person who combines creativity, flair, with the ability to get things done.

Named chairman of the Navy's Annual Submarine Birthday Ball in Key West, she was quite capable of bearding the Captain in his den. "Sir, I know exactly what I want for decorations," Kris announced. "I need a crew, a truck and a buzzsaw."

She got what she wanted. Kris and her crew, their truck and buzzsaw roamed the Keys, cutting down and carting off old fruit trees. Kris mounted them in huge oil drums filled with sand, strung them with tiny Italian lights and nautical motifs and scattered them strategically around the Officers Club.

The trees were such a success Ball night it was decided to keep them up a while.

on the ship Tom was stationed on invited.

Florida Snowball Each guest received a list of things to find within an hour-and-a-half. A rock weighing "at least two pounds and no more than three," for instance. An intact snowball, (in Key West!).

Each item was assigned a number of points, according to how difficult we think it will be to find it, and the players were graded back at the Stevenses, where they munched Sloppy Joe's and traded scavenging tales.

There was a prize for the winners, of course: A pair of movie tickets, plus money for popcorn — and the baby sitter.

Kris and Tom staged a reprise of this party a few years later when they were settled again in The Pointe, inviting her parents and his, a composer and his wife from Berlin who were visiting the Johnses, a potpourri of friends of all ages. Kris loathes segregation by generation.

Get The Police! This time, the Hunt List included the signature of the Grosse Pointe Farms duty officer, (imagine how that gentleman felt when the police station door burst open, admitting couple after couple who demanded he "sign here"!), and a picture of Monticello, (that one's easy — turn over a nickel and take a look—but Tom's father ran all the way home for a slide he'd taken once of Jefferson's home).

Tom and Kris are both well-traveled. She spent eight months in Europe with her parents in 1964, three months in Heidelberg followed by a tour of the Continent when Professor Johns was on sabbatical.

Tom went around the world in between graduation from the University of Virginia and Columbia Business School.

Travel seems to be in the Stevens' blood. Tom and his father are both members of the Circumnavigators Club. Mark Stevens was off again this fall on a Detroit Branch English-Speaking Union tour, with his wife Serena, who's gone along to such exotic spots as the Antarctic.

Yut, Anyone? This year, Serena wound up in a yurt on the Gobi Desert. Banking is a Stevens' family tradition, too. Mark is a retired Detroit Bank and Trust vice-president. Tom is with the National Bank of Detroit Trust Department.

Tom was recently appointed Vice-Consul for Thailand. Mark has been Thai Consul for years, but since his retirement he's been indulging his wanderlust to the full, out of town so much that he's needed help to manage the Thai affairs.

"A lot of it (the Thai Vice-Consulship) is granting visas."

Louisa St. Clair DAR Meets This Morning

The Louisa St. Clair Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, meets at Franklin Community Church in Franklin Village today, Thursday, October 18, at 10:30 o'clock.

Lieutenant Colonel John Haile, United States Air Force, will speak after luncheon on The Air Force as a National Resource.

Mrs. Bruce R. Mayhew, regent, will preside. Mrs. Grant E. Evans, second vice-regent, Mrs. B. Thomas Weyhing, III, and Mrs. George C. Hofmeister will give reports of the state-wide meeting held in Lansing September 25.

Among Torch Drive volunteered leaders in The Pointe are, (left to right), MRS. GLEN BOLT MOORE, of Colonial road, region leader for the entire Pointe area, MRS. JOHN P. CLUNE, of Willow Tree place, area leader, Vernier road to Ballentyne, MRS. JERRY BLAKE, of Willow Tree place, division leader for Grosse Pointe Shores, and MRS. JOSEPH BEALS, of Renaud road, north of Vernier area leader.

Unfortunately, success went to the trees' heads. Several started to sprout. As Memorial Church Fair Craft Capers chairman, Kris Stevens is once again exercising her creative and executive talents in tandem. It's her second time around with Craft Capers.

"I was approached the first time and asked if I'd be chairman of Children's World." The first thing she did was re-vamp the name.

Craft Capers remains primarily a children's department. It's the place to find sock banks, and huge crocheted mice, and other items designed to delight the Very to Medium-Young Set.

All Handmade Everything is handmade, fashioned at Tuesday workshop sessions at the Church. "It reminds me of something I never experienced," Kris says, musing on the workshops. "A quilting bee. Most of us are young mothers, and we bring our kids, and stay for lunch."

Ideas for what to make come from every committee member. They borrow, invent and adapt.

Elizabeth Patch Dames To Hold Fall Meeting

Elizabeth Patch Chapter, Colonial Dames XVII Century, has scheduled its fall meeting for Wednesday, October 24, at the home of Mrs. George Ryckman in Rivard boulevard. Luncheon will be served at noon. Mrs. George C. Hofmeister, organizing president, will preside.

The program will feature a Show and Tell of Antique Family Heirlooms. Pointers Mrs. Robert C. Palmer and Mrs. Jerry J. Gerich will be among members attending.
