Troop 39's New Eagle Scouts

Teachers' New Contract Meets Mixed Reaction

Gain Many Improvements but Main Fear is Pay Increases Will not Meet Spiraling Cost of Living

By Kathy Duff

"It was an extremely close vote," Carl Lord, president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association, said of the recent ratification vote by the union's 552 teachers. "It was especially close if you know the Association's past voting record on wage contracts."

The teachers voted on the three-year contract, retroactive to September 1973, on Tuesday, January 8, Mr. Lord, in calling a press conference an hour after the vote, said that the final count was 285 for the contract, 171 against. "It was a really hot meeting, and many of the teachers spoke strongly against adoption. There was an organized opposition; leaflets were passed out. But, as representatives of their Association, we told them that this was the best we thought we could offer, and that we recommended approval."

Covered 15 Months

The negotiations between the GPEA and representatives of the School Board went on for 15 months. The services of both a State fact-finder and a State mediator were called in last fall when the two sides seemed deadlocked over issues such as salary schedules and fringe benefits. Strike action was threatened. The final stumbling block appeared to be class size and educational programs. Just when settlement seemed impossible, both negotiating teams agreed on a proposed contract in a Sunday, December 2, meeting. The contract was then ready for approval by the GPEA and the school trustees.

The teachers seem least happy about the salary schedule, claiming that the 1.2 percent increase the first year, the 5.25 percent increase both the second and third years, will not keep pace with the spiraling cost of living. In the first year of the contract, pay for teachers

Supreme Court Sets Hearing

The U.S. Supreme Court has set Wednesday, February 27, as the day to hear arguments on the Detroit Desegregation Case. Each side will be given 45 minutes to present oral arguments.

Douglas H. West, attorney for the Grosse Pointe School System, said that there is a good chance that the Court will hand down a decision before June.

The N.A.A.C.P., who are the respondents in the case, have until Saturday, February 2, to complete written testimony. The school systems' written testimony, in the form of legal briefs, has already been submitted to the U.S. Supreme Court.

School Board Announces Upcoming Millage Drive

By Kathy Duff

For the first time in several years, a millage election seems due. Most often asked questions at recent School Board meetings are "When are you going to improve the school programs?" "When are you going to reduce the class sizes?" and questions of a similar nature. In past years parents seemed to be more interested in scrutinizing the school budget proposals, and asking if any excess money was being diverted into "travel accounts" or if there was any "fluff" which could be cut from the school program.

The question of quality education was brought to a head this year by Kerby School parents who were up

Parking Ban Restored at Woods Lot

Restrictions Lifted at Municipal Site for 35 Days, Imposed Again January 22

By Roger A. Waha

The parking ban at the municipal parking lot on Hampton road and Mack avenue, once imposed and then lifted for a trial period, has been imposed again as The Woods Council took no further action on the matter at the regular meeting Monday, January 21. The ban became effective again Tuesday, January 22.

If the solons declined action, the ban would automatically be reinstated—closing the lot at 11 p.m. and allowing no parking, cruising or loitering, with violators being ticketed. However, the council would have had to take affirmative action for the lot to remain open for 24 hours like other municipal lots.

The closing of the lot at the 11 p.m. hour can be considered a victory for Hampton road residents who have complained about noise and nuisance conditions in the immediate area of the Lochmoor Lounge, 20834 Mack avenue, and at the municipal lot in the rear of the lounge.

At the August 20, 1973, meeting, the council instituted the curfew when around two dozen citizens demanded swift action to curb these conditions. But at the December 18, 1973, meeting, the ban was lifted for 35 days for council reconsideration at the January 21 session so the solons could see what kind of problems might or might not develop.

Residents reiterated many of their previous complaints on obscene language, noise and litter conditions in that area, and submitted a petition bearing 28 signatures requesting a hearing on this problem. One man said he wasn't interested in what goes on inside the lounge but is very concerned about what goes on outside, and then mentioned the use of profanity and "hooting and hollering."

Government Edict Gives City Trouble

Change in Suppliers Creates Mess Under Federal Ruling; May Cut Services

By James J. Njalm
The Farms may find itself short of gasoline to operate its municipal vehicles, and what it does have, or might get, will be reserved for police, fire and Department of Public Works cars and trucks, the city council was informed at its regular meeting held on Monday, January 21.

At the most, the council was told, the city could receive only about 4,000 gallons of fuel, and if this is so, then certain services to the public will have to be curtailed. It was disclosed by City Manager Andrew Bremner, Jr. The shortage came about because in January 1973 the Farms did not get any gasoline at all. This was because the city received a full supply, 10,000 gallons, which is the capacity of its storage tank, late in December 1972, and its next fill came early in February 1973.

It was revealed by City Comptroller Carroll Lock, that the fuel consumption by all municipal vehicles, is approximately 8,000 gallons a month.

Last week, he said, the Federal Government published a fuel allocation edict, which restricted what each community will receive, based on what it got in 1972, from any gas supplier.

This, it was explained to the council, meant that the Farms, could not get a supply from Gulf Oil company which sold gasoline to the Farms starting in July 1973. The 1972 purchases were contracted to Texaco, Incorporated, and because of this, under the Federal government decree, the city will have to turn to the latter for whatever it can get.

Also, because of the Federal edict, in July 1974, the Farms will have to revert back to Gulf, since that is the firm which supplied the city starting July 1972, Bremner said. In view of this, it makes a very confusing mess, he added.

Because of the present shortage, and until the Farms could get a supplier, the 4,000 gallons it hoped to receive would just get the city through this month; but it

GPW Officials To Give Talks

Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and City Administrator Chester E. Petersen will address members of the North Woods Property Owners Association at its meeting Wednesday, January 30, at University Liggett, Liggett Campus, 850 Briarcliff drive.

The session will be held from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

Scheduled topics include the state of the city, i.e., The Woods, the Lake Front Park swimming pool and mobile homes and trailer storage. Other items on the agenda are the spring dinner dance, election of officers for 1974 and a short business meeting.

The association's boundaries, inclusive, are the Wayne County boundary line on the north, Van K. drive, east, South Bryz drive, south, and River road, west.

However the association extended its boundaries last January 30 to include Yorktown road and its three courts on the north, Goethe avenue, west, Blairmoor court, south, and Blairmoor court, east of Marter road, east.

All residents who live in these areas are invited to attend. The association, which is around 10-years-old, has an estimated 200 dues paying members, according to Edward Williams, vice-president.

Thief Grabs 20 Suits in Mack Store

Has Accomplish Wait-in in Car; Loot Is Valued at $1,600, Police Report Says

A laughing thief grabbed between 15 and 20 suits of various colors from a clothes rack in the Hughes, Hatcher and Saffrin store, 18920 Mack avenue on Monday, January 14, and escaped in a waiting car, with another man behind the wheel.

The suits are valued at approximately $1,600, according to information given to Farms police.

Patrolman Donald Dewey, who was dispatched to the scene, stated in his official report, that a woman employee of the store observed a black man enter through the front door, approach a nearby rack, grab an armful of suits and walk back out the same door. The women called to the thief and asked what he was doing, and the man merely laughed and continued on his way.

A salesman in the store, hearing the commotion, followed the suspect outside and saw him toss the suits into the back of an automobile parked in front of the store.

A second black man was behind the wheel, it was said. The driver pulled away from the curb and drove east on Mack and disappeared.

The woman employee described the man who entered the store as being in his early

Armed Bandit Robs NBD Mack Branch, Escapes With About $4,000

Pulls Out Gun from Right Sleeve and Orders Teller to Fill Brown Paper Bag; Gets All Cash in Till

A lone white male, reported to be in his late teens or early 20s, held up the National Bank of Detroit branch office, 460 Moross road, shortly after noon on Wednesday, January 16. The bandit, armed with a nickel-plated revolver escaped with approximately $4,000.

According to a Farms police report, there were seven customers in the bank building, but no one was aware that a hold-up was in progress. The robber left by the front door and disappeared. His direction of flight is not known.

The gunman was said to be about five feet six or seven inches tall, between 18 and 21 years old, about 140 pounds, according to the teller who placed the money in a brown paper bag.

Not Very Attractive
The teller told Det. Earl Field and agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that the man had brown hair and eyes, appeared to be dirty looking, wearing a tan ski-type or navy watch hat, a tan short length jacket, which looked to be too big for him, and a checkered pair of trousers.

The teller told the authorities that the robber came to her cage at about 12:20 p.m. and asked for change for a $20 bill. When she asked him how he wanted the change, the man slipped a revolver from under his right sleeve and demanded all the money in the till.

The teller told Field and the FBI agents that the man approached her cage and spoke in a southern accent, when asking for the change, and when demanding the cash in her till. He shoved a brown bag, a type that might be used in a dime store, toward her and ordered her to put all the cash into it.

Followed Instructions
The bank employee filled the bag with various denominations of currency, approximately $4,000, and gave it to the gunman, who calmly turned around and walked out the front door. The teller went to the bank manager to report the hold-up, but by that time the gunman had made good his escape. Whether he fled the area on foot, or in a car is not known.

Of the seven customers in the bank, one said she noticed a man leaning into the cage, from which the money was taken, but did not realize anything was amiss.

Police Chiefs Attend Parley

All Pointe police chiefs attended the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police Mid-Winter Conference Thursday-Friday, January 17-18, in Ann Arbor.

Participating in the confab were Shores Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale, Woods Public Safety Director Henry Marchand, Farms Chief Robert Ferber, City Chief Andrew Teetaert and Park Chief Henry Coonce.

Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytel was reportedly a guest speaker at the conference. He discussed citizens' view of complaints, e.g., neighbor complaints.

Lieutenant Governor James H. Brickley was a guest speaker at a luncheon. His subject was "Law Enforcement and Regionalism."

A Detroit policewoman spoke on training for police-women, and another topic focused upon was "Computerization of Police Records."

YSD Report Covers 690 Complaints

Known Offenses Increase from 646 in 1972; City, Woods Have Drop in Referrals

By Roger A. Waha
The Youth Service Division, (YSD), had another active year in 1973 when it processed 690 complaints, a jump of 44 over the 1972 total of 646.

Of the 690 known offenses, 524 were cleared for a percentage of 75.9. In 1972, 390 of the 646 offenses were cleared for a total of 60.4 percent.

The City and The Woods, of the five Pointes, showed a decrease in the number of known offenses via referrals to the YSD. The City's total dropped from 48 in 1972 to 41 last year, while The Woods' fell from 309 to 295.

Meanwhile, The Farms' total grew from 94 in 1972 to 108 last year. The Park's went from 168 to 213 and The Shores' rose from 26 to 34.

Burglaries Rise
Part I offenses, (more serious crimes), in the YSD report jumped from a total of 152 in 1972 to 172 last year.

These include such offenses as criminal homicide (no incidents were reported either year), forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny-theft, (except auto), and auto theft.

The biggest fluctuation in Part I offenses was in the burglary category where 18 incidents were reported in 1972 as against 40 last year.

Woods Sergeant Thomas P. Kane, YSD supervisor, cited a reason for this increase as "identifying more juveniles with burglaries." He stressed this point again in noting the jump in burglaries in The Park's report, (four in 1972, 16 in 1973).

This also holds true in The Woods where six incidents were reported in 1972 as against 18 last year. (In fact, the arrest of six juveniles in November cleared up eight burglaries and two attempted break-ins in that city.)

High Drug Clearances
The total of Part II offenses rose from 459 in 1972 to 493 in 1973. These crimes include vandalism, fraud, stolen property laws, sex related offenses, narcotic drug laws, other assaults, disorderly conduct and runaways.

Under narcotic drug laws, known offenses jumped from 182 in 1972 to 199 last year. What is remarkable under this category is the astounding rise in the percentage of clearances on the part of

SEMOG Report Shows Pointe Population Drop

By Roger A. Waha

Each Pointe community has shown a decrease in population for the period from April 1, 1970, through July 1, 1973, according to a recent report of The Southeast Michigan Council of Governments, (SEMOG).

The document, "Population and Occupied Dwelling Units in South East Michigan," shows population changes from 1970, when the U.S. Census Bureau released its census report, to the July date.

A SEMOG spokesman reported the figures for July were estimates arrived at by formula. Considerations in the formula included building permits, demolition permits and the average household size, (which has dropped from 3.14 in 1970 to 3.01 in March 1973, according to the Census Bureau).

Both The Farms and The Park showed the highest percentage loss during this period. The cities showed an estimated minus 6.0 percent.

The Woods was next with an estimated minus 4.9 percent, followed by The City, (an estimated minus 3.6 percent), and The Shores, (an estimated minus 3.3 percent).

The population of The Farms fell from 11,701 on April 1, 1970, to 11,000 on July 1, 1973, a loss of an estimated 701 individuals. The Park dropped from 15,841 on the April date, to 14,700 on the July date, an estimated difference of 941.

Meanwhile The Woods decreased from 11,701 to 11,000 on the July date, an estimated difference of 701.

with bachelor's degrees will range from $9,450 for beginners to $15,695 for teachers with 11 or more years experience. Pay for teachers with master's degrees will range from $11,000 to $17,930.

Advance Each Year
In the second year, maximum pay with bachelor's degrees will be $16,500 and with master's degrees $18,850. In the third year, these figures go to $17,400 and $19,850 respectively.

As far as fringes, the contracts include increased medical coverage with some prescription coverage and an increase in paid term life insurance from $7,000 to $15,000.

Mr. Lord said that serious objections were voiced by GPEA members relative to job security, class size and salary.

As far as job security, teachers have a right to be uneasy because of the diminishing student population in Grosse Pointe. It's a fact of life that the population explosion has abated and that every year the elementary schools open with fewer children enrolled. Every time there is a drop in predicted enrollment, the teachers with the lowest seniority are laid off. In the last three years, 20 per cent of the staff has been cut. This situation has resulted in 62 percent of the teaching staff being in the highest salary scale, due to educational credentials and years with the school system. A side problem is that the school system rarely has openings for new teachers and an infusion of new blood.

Up To Residents
Relative to the problem of class size, the teachers were hoping to have maximum class sizes written into their new contract. The School Board negotiators flatly refused, stating that it was the right of the Grosse Pointe residents to determine the student-teacher ratio and the educational programs. The teachers, however, kept hoping for a provision on class size since many other teachers' contracts in Michigan call for additional pay for a teacher who has a heavy classload.

Mr. Lord granted that "the new agreement does have language improvements in the area of maternity and sabbatical leaves, professional/ board relationships, rights of the Association, and staff reduction. In addition, longevity and professional growth, extra pay for extra duty, and insurance programs have been upgraded."

In Session 950 Hours
The Association president estimated that the two negotiating teams had been in session 950 hours in trying to reach a contract offering. Representing the GPEA was Rita Carey, a teacher at Brownell and past president of the Association; Mary Better, also at Brownell; Dave King, a teacher at Barnes School; Stan Smith, a teacher at Poupard School; and Al Gais, a representative of the Michigan Education Association.

In summarizing his remarks about the new contract Mr. Lord said, "In the long run, the worth of the agreement will be determined by the spirit demonstrated by the parties charged with the responsibility of implementing the provisions."

Driver Involved in Big Trouble

Christopher Carhart Valade, 23, of 37 Willow lane, stood mute at a preliminary hearing held before Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytell on Friday, January 18, on charges of driving while his operator's license was suspended and for violation of the Controlled Substance Ordinance.

A plea of innocent was entered for Valade by the court, and the man was ordered detained in the local cell until his examination, which was yesterday, January 23. Bond was set at $250 on each count.

Valade, who was arrested last month for driving on a suspended license, while driving in the Farms, failed to make a court appearance on his scheduled date.

A check on the Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN) machine, brought back the information that Valade failed to appear in Harper Woods court on a larceny warrant, and was wanted by the authorities of that city.

Further information disclosed that the Farms man is wanted by Kalamazoo police for failing to appear in that city's court for driving while his license was suspended, for which he received violation tickets on two separate occasions.

Both Harper Woods and Kalamazoo requested a hold be placed on Valade. Police of both communities asked that the man post $100 bond on their respective warrants.

Farms Patrolman Gerald Deburghgraeve, the arresting officer, said he was cruising on Mack at 6:30 p.m., on Thursday, January 17, when he saw Valade traveling east on the avenue. The policeman said he was aware that Valade's license had been suspended by the Secretary of State Office in Lansing, and stopped him.

Deburghgraeve ordered Valade out of the car and searched him. The patrolman said he found a bag of what appeared to be marijuana in Valade's pocket, and several pills of an unknown substance. These were confiscated, and the accused man was taken to the Farms station, where he was issued a ticket for driving while his license was suspended, and another for violation of the Controlled Substance Ordinance.

Gas Pinch

will be low on fuel next month.

The limited supply hoped for will mean a curtailment of services, among such things as the city sweeping sidewalks following a light snowfall, which is about two inches or less. Any amount above the two inches will be considered a major snowfall and the city administration will do its best to see that snow sweeping is done, Bremer said.

On Tuesday morning, January 22, Gulf delivered the badly needed 4,000 gallons, augmenting the Farms' meager supply. However, whether the firm will continue future deliveries, or if the city will seek its fuel from Texaco, is still uncertain. It will depend on the interpretations set forth by the government allocation system, it was said.

Bremer said that because of the current delivery, the snow sweeping service will continue, even if there is a light snowfall.

Study Police Hall of Fame

Farms Municipal Judge Robert H. Pytell was one of the main speakers at the 1974 Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police (MACP) Mid-Winter Conference held at Weber's Inn, in Ann Arbor, on Thursday and Friday, January 17 and 18. All the police chiefs of the Pointe and Harper Woods, and some of their assistants, were in attendance.

Judge Pytell's topic was "A Judge's View of a Citizen's Complaint."

Among the more than 250 police administrative heads who attended the conference, were Col. John Plants, head of the Michigan State Police, and Detroit Police Commissioner Philip Tannian.

Following the business of the conference, the MACP appointed a three-man committee, which included Farms Chief Robert Ferber, to look into the possibility of establishing a Michigan Police Officer Hall of Fame, patterned after that of the Sports Hall of Fame at Detroit's Cobo Hall.

Besides delving into the possibility of establishing a Hall of Fame, the committee is charged with writing a proposed constitution and by-laws, outlining the qualifications for candidates for the Hall of Fame.

The committee has been also instructed to pick a suitable site for such a purpose.

Among the sites being considered, at the present time, is the Transportation Hall of Fame in Flint; Michigan State University; and the proposed new State Capitol Building in Lansing.

Statement Is Set Straight on Dodge Estate Rezoning

In last week's issue of the NEWS, reporting a special meeting and public hearing held on Monday, January 14, pertaining to the rezoning of Rose Terrace, the estate of the late Anna Thompson Dodge, it was stated that among those who opposed the rezoning was Donald M. D. Thurbur, Pointe historian. It was also reported that Rose Terrace has been placed on the list as a historical site and landmark by the Michigan Historical Society.

The more than three hours of discussion before the Zoning Board of Appeals, without doubt caused a confusion of the facts. Thurbur is actually one of two Michigan Advisors of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and was not representing the Michigan Historical Society, for which, it was stated, he was speaking.

On behalf of the National Trust, Thurbur expressed approval of the rezoning of the estate from single to multiple dwelling, requested by the Superior Lake Enterprises, comprised of three Pointe realtors, the proposed developers, as the best possible means of preserving Rose Terrace. To clarify the situation, and to set the facts straight, Thurbur asked the NEWS to print the complete text of his written statement, which was addressed to Mayor William Butler, the city council and to the audience in attendance at the hearing.

The following is his address as presented January 14:

"I am Donald M. D. Thurbur, living on Rathbone place in the City of Grosse Pointe. I have lived in the City for 46 years. I am speaking this evening as one of two Michigan Advisors to the National Trust for Historic Preservation, the organization chartered in 1949 by Congress to represent the public interest in historic buildings, sites, and other objects that are considered part of the national heritage.

"The National Trust has followed with close interest the fate of Rose Terrace. It has done so because the international, let alone national, acclaim of the building, the high reputation of the men who designed and worked on it, and its place on the National Register of Historic Places command recognition. Beauty and magnificence are not so easy to come by in this world that Grosse Pointe can be indifferent to the possible disappearance of the most regal residence, to use W. Hawkins Ferry's description, ever built in the community. Those of us who love Grosse Pointe wish to protect it from the storm of protest that would surely descend on it were Rose Terrace to fall under the wreckers' ball. Let us make no mistake: We in Grosse Pointe are the guardians of an unique place of Americana in Rose Terrace. It is part of my purpose this evening to remind ourselves of that fact.

"Fortunately for all of us a means is at hand to avoid the destruction of so splendid a monument. Special efforts and exceptional steps no doubt will be necessary. In my judgment they are fully justified by the importance of the building. An adaptive use has been proposed. Without commenting on the particulars of the plan, which I am not competent to do, I would urge that a well-worked out alternative use is the answer to the problem of preservation in this case. Not all large, old mansions should be preserved through adaptive use. But we are dealing here with one of the greatest houses ever constructed in the United States. The National Trust believes strongly in the re-cycling of such buildings. In the case of Rose Terrace preservation depends on the sensitive and aesthetic redevelopment of the interior and of the site as dwelling space. Thousands of the superb buildings which we Americans journey to far countries to see have been put to alternative uses — as museums, inns, institutions, and dwellings — and by those means saved. Should we not use the same means to save Rose Terrace, if the proposal is reasonable and the party making it is responsible?

"I know there are those who so regret the disposal of the incomparably magnificent furnishings of the house that they question the value of saving the house itself. But I submit that if Mrs. Dodge or some other source had provided the endowment, estimated at $10,000,000, to institutionalize Rose Terrace as a house museum, with its collections intact, we would be talking this evening about a much more difficult problem. Instead of a modest number of new permanent residents on the property, we would be talking about tens of thousands of transient sight-seers. Instead of parking space for a few dozen cars, we would be talking about room for hundreds. Instead of the increased taxes that will be collected from the new development, we would be talking about what to do when Rose Terrace passed to the Detroit Institute of Arts, to the National Trust, the Smithsonian, or the National Park Service, and went off the tax rolls. How many Grosse Pointers would really have been prepared to accept a major tourist attraction (with its attendant problems) in their midst?

"The problems inherent in the proposed solution are few and minor compared with what they might have been. The exterior of Rose Terrace will be preserved well worth doing in itself — and most of the interior. The house and its grounds will be given a new, economic future, without the destruction of a masterpiece of the American past. As an Advisor to the National Trust, I urge your Honorable Body to adopt the proposal that is before you. Thank you."

Park Heroin Sale to Send Local Pusher to Jackson

Drasco Crnogroac, 23, who was arrested following his sale of heroin to an undercover narcotics officer on Barrington road, will be sentenced Monday, February 4, for the crime.

The sentencing will bring to an end four months of legal processes begun September 21, 1973, after Drasco sold the drug to the officer. His trial, which took over a week, was brought to a close Monday, January 14, when the 12-person jury returned the guilty verdict after less than a half hour of private deliberations.

The sale was set up by Youth Service Division Officer John Kendall who received a tip-off that Drasco would be selling heroin at the party in the backyard of 858 Barrington road. He notified the Detroit Police Department, Fifth Precinct, Narcotics Division, and arranged to have an undercover officer make the buy. (Officer Kendall could not make the buy at the party since he would be recognized).

Keeping in radio communication with the undercover agent, Officer Kendall learned that the buy had been made around 9:30 p.m. Officer Kendall then took the substance to a laboratory where it was analyzed as heroin.

After securing an arrest warrant, Detroit officers arrested Drasco in an east side Detroit house on October 5. At the time, he was found in possession of heroin, so the Detroit Police booked him on the charge.

The suspect was brought to The Park where he was arraigned before Judge William Spear. Bond was set at $50,000 plus two sureties, which Drasco was able to meet. The suspect, however, did not stay free for long, since he was taken to Recorder's Court for the possession charge made at the time of his arrest. In Recorder's Court, Judge Joseph A. Gillis sentenced Drasco to 10 years in Jackson State Prison for a probation violation. The suspect had two previous convictions on drug counts.

During the trial, the suspect's defense attorney tried to prove that Drasco had been at a young couple's house the night of the party and could not be at the party. Their testimony was challenged by the prosecution by proving that the man who was testifying had a police record.

A 19-year-old woman, who was a friend of Drasco's also made the charge that she had been raped by the undercover narcotics officer who had made the heroin buy. Her testimony was refuted by the prosecution proving that no rape report had been filed by the woman at the police department. The prosecution also proved that the woman had been arrested for a counting and soliciting (prostitution), and that she had made a self-admitted false rape charge when she was younger in The Farms.

The prosecution brought in lab technicians and doctors who testified that a usable quantity of heroin has been sold to the undercover agent.

Judge Richard M. Maher, who presided over the trial in Circuit Court, will give the sentencing on Monday, February 4. The sentence will be in addition to the 10-year sentence in Jackson that Drasco already has for breaking his probation restrictions.

Commenting on the case, YSD Officer Kendall said, "It again shows that Detroit and Grosse Pointe police, by working together, can make a positive contribution to controlling the drug flow in the east side area. This type of cooperation is essential to solve the problem."

DEVONSHIRE DRUGS
Pharmacy Footnotes
by John C. Gawryk R.Ph.
DEVONSHIRE DRUGS

Whether children eat, the right foods or not, often depends on the emotional climate around the dinner table. Parents who provide good foods and happy talk at the table, will make eating a pleasant part of normal activity for their children. Constant nagging of children often tends to set them against eating, or being sociable. Hurrying, failure to listen—all of these can be detrimental to your child's nutrition.

You can add to your child's nutrition by giving him vitamins. DEVONSHIRE DRUGS, 16037 Mack "on the block", 881-0478, has a full line of vitamins for your child as well as all adults. Our competent pharmacists will handle all your prescriptions needs, and they provide free delivery. As an added convenience we have a full line of liquor, beer, and wine. Open: Mon.-Sat. 9-9.

HELPFUL HINT:
Adequate sleep and rest assures good nutrition, for most people.

Drop in Population

clined from 21,878 in 1970 to 20,800 in 1973, an estimated loss of 1,078. The City fell from 6,637 to 6,400, (an estimated difference of 237), and The Shores dropped from 2,907 to 2,810, (an estimated loss of 97).

During this period, Detroit tumbled from 1,513,601 to 1,396,200. This was a loss of 117,401 for an estimated 7.8 percent fall.

In exploring the reasons for this decline in The Pointe, the spokesman felt, more than anything else, it was related to national trends, e.g., the drop in the rate of population growth nationally, and out-migration.

Out-migration means movement from, in this example, The Pointe to other areas. For instance, a person may leave one of the Pointes and move somewhere in the southeastern region, (which includes Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne counties). That Pointe's population would fall but the change would have no effect in the overall total population of the region.

On the other hand, the spokesman noted a person could move from one of the Pointes to another part of the State or to another part of the country, and that Pointe would show a decline in population and, as a result, the regional total also would be affected.

As for the decline of the average household size, birth rate, deaths, marriages, et al., all play a role, he said.

Other reasons also may have played a part in this population drop but these are entirely speculative, e.g., the school busing situation.

As for occupied dwelling units during the April 1, 1970, to July 1, 1973, period, the report shows The Farms had 3,732 units in 1970 and 3,750 in July, a gain of 18 for an 0.5 percent increase.

The Park went from 4,823 to 4,830, a jump of seven for a 0.1 percent rise. The Woods climbed from 6,391 to 6,500, a gain of 109 for a 1.7 percent increase.

Continuing, The City rose from 2,293 to 2,380. This was an increase of 87 units for a 3.8 percent jump. The Shores went from 904 to 930, a gain of 26 for a 2.9 percent increase.

However, all the Pointes showed a slight percentage decrease in persons per occupied dwelling unit during this period.

SEMOG is a voluntary association of governments composed of elected officials from 84 communities in the seven-county region.

Board Announces Millage Drive

contract. The Board, through its negotiators, stood firm and said that it was the right of the electorate to determine the educational program.

The headliner of the last School Board meeting, Monday, January 14, was the settlement of the teachers' labor contract. However, the trustees used the stage to announce an upcoming millage drive. They did not set any date for the election; this will be the subject of upcoming meetings.

"The school administration is presently conducting a thorough study of our situation," Board President Robert D. Warner said. "Enrollment patterns must be analyzed to ensure that we provide the proper program and facilities to meet the needs of our students. And, of course, much attention is being paid to strengthening the curriculum where and when possible."

"The study will be the basis on which the Board will make its determination concerning the school system's financial need through June, 1976. From that, in not too many weeks, we will be able to inform the citizenry of the operational millage required to fund the program we are recommending be implemented."

Whenever this year's School Board was criticized on the quality of education, the trustees were quick to point out that the programs had improved while they were in office. The programs and staffing ratio, (the number of professionals per thousand students), were able to be improved by two successful millage elections.

Staffing ratios improved from 48.7 professionals per 1,000 pupils in 1971-72 to 50 per 1,000 in 1972-73; now there are 51.4 per 1,000 this year. It translates into roughly 31 more professionals employed this year than would have been possible with the 1971-72 ratio. As a result, class sizes have lowered and counseling and guidance services have improved. There has also been an increase in instructional materials and supplies for each student.

Since the libraries are included in the school system, their services are also conditioned by the weathervane of residents' support at the polls. Because of the successful millage elections, the libraries have been able to enlarge their staffs and increase hours. For the first time, the library has been open on Sundays.

"We want to do more," Mr. Warner said. "Every reasonable effort will be made to get voter support as we try to bolster other weak spots and institute better programs. Examples would be career and vocational education, and special education offerings. Greater emphasis on early elementary programs towards effecting more individualization is an important target. Restoration of advanced classes in foreign languages, improved fine arts offering, and broadened curriculums are important possibilities."

"I would like to put the Board on record right now that all of us, including the administration, are committed to providing the best educational opportunities for Grosse Pointe youngsters that the voters will support. I believe that we can achieve our goals. Continued cooperation by all of us, parents, taxpayers, teachers, administrators and trustees, will make it possible."

Accused Pair To Face Court

A 19-year-old Detroit man and a 26-year-old Detroit woman, both of whom are charged with two counts of larceny, were bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court for trial at their examination before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis Wednesday, January 23.

Walter Durand Trombly and Sadie Mae Harris, who both waived the exam, are charged with larceny over $100 on the first count, and larceny in a building on the second count, Woods police said. Their Circuit Court arraignment date is scheduled for Thursday, January 31.

Both allegedly took numerous wrist watches from Bob's Drug Company, 21034 Mack avenue, on Monday evening, November 26. The suspects were nabbed the same day by police, who then confiscated the watches and plastic watch containers.

Banking means a lot of things, but most of all it means helping people. And for nearly 125 years now, the understanding of this personal aspect of our business has been the standard for DETROIT BANK-ers at Detroit Bank & Trust.

We think it's because of this that Detroit Bank & Trust has not only grown with our city but has helped our city grow. And this record of growth is one of the reasons we can look to the future and plan for tomorrow with confidence.

We ended the year 1849 with 56 customers and total deposits of $3,287. We enter our 125th year with over 1/2 million customers and nearly 3 billion dollars in total assets. It's a record for us. What's more, it's a record of service and growth unmatched in this state... and that makes quite a statement.

You ought to know a DETROIT BANK-er.

This consolidated statement marks the entry into our 125th year of service to people from every walk of life. Will proud of this milestone and thank you for helping us achieve it. C. Boyd Stockmeyer

Armed Bandit Robs Bus Driver Stopped for Light

A Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA) bus driver, who opened the entrance door of his bus to find out what a waving motorist wanted of him, found out. He was held up and robbed by one of the passengers in the automobile.

Carl Gadson, 23, of Detroit, told Park authorities that on Thursday, January 17, he was stopped for a red traffic signal at the Jefferson-Beaconsfield intersection at about 6:50 p.m., when he saw a motorist in the right lane waving frantically at him.

Gadson said he opened the door of the bus on the assumption that the driver wanted to ask him a question. As he leaned sideways to hear what might be said, a passenger jumped out of the rear of the auto, leaped into the bus and pointed a gun at him and demanded his money. Gadson said he handed the gunman $20, after which the bandit jumped off the bus, got back into the car, and the driver sped away.

Gadson said that he was in a high enough position to look down onto the front seat of the smaller vehicle, and saw that the driver had a revolver on the front seat alongside him. Gadson said he was heading east on Jefferson, and there were no passengers on the bus at the time of the incident.

He said that the hold-up man and the driver were both black, and that a third man, sitting in the front seat, alongside the driver, was a white man.

The only description Gadson could give of the man who held him up was that he was between 25 and 30 years old, clean shaven, had a medium complexion, and was wearing a ski-type cap, but not pulled over his face. All he could say about the driver was that he, too, was between 25 and 30 years old. He did not get a good look at the white man, he said.

Decision on Pay Pact on Horizon

A final decision may be reached soon by the three-member arbitration panel towards settling the dispute between the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Officers Association, (GPWPOA), and the city on the 38-member association's two-year contract, (from July 1, 1973, to June 30, 1975).

The panel has met on three occasions, Friday, December 21, Monday, January 14, and Thursday, January 17, and has taken all the necessary information. Now, the evidence must be reviewed before a final decision is reached. And that may be on Friday, February 1, when the panel meets again.

Members of the panel include City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Horvath, who's representing the city; Leonard Page of the UAW, who's representing the GPWPOA, and the mutually agreed upon party, Richard Block, panel chairman, who was appointed by the Department of Labor, Employment Relations Commission.

Library Offers Sunday Cinema

The Grosse Pointe Public Library will present a Sunday Cinema on four Sundays, January 27, February 10, February 17 and February 24, at 2 p.m. in the Exhibition Room at the Central Library, 10 Kercheval.

Film making at its best will be the theme and selections have been made that will appeal especially to a high school or an adult audience.

The first program consists of "On the Bowery," the classic documentary of three men living on New York's skid row and the loneliness and waste of an alcoholic's life. Two other "shorts" are included in the program, "Run" an allegory on the destructive tendencies of high pressure modern society on a man who pauses only for food and tranquilizers, and "Glass."

For additional information, persons may inquire at the Circulation Desk, or call the Audio-Visual Department at the Central Library, 884-2200.

Extra care in engineering... it makes a big difference in small cars.

There are Good Little Cars and there are Great Little Cars

Good Little Cars

Good little cars are priced low like Volkswagen.

Good little cars can get good gas mileage like Nova, Maverick, Comet and Ventura.

Good little cars can seat four or maybe five people like Vega, Pinto and Maverick.

Good little cars offer locked-in, out-of-sight trunk space like Pinto.

Good little cars offer conventional ignition.

Good little cars require points and condenser replacement. And, they require spark plug changes at 6,000 miles. These changes are recommended by the manufacturers and could cost you as much as $81 every 24,000 miles.

Great Little Cars

Great little cars are priced less than Volkswagen. Dodge Dart Swinger Special and Plymouth Duster are actually priced below VW's most popular model.*

Great little cars, like Dodge Dart and Plymouth Duster with a slant six engine, can get better gas mileage than Nova, Maverick, Comet and Ventura.

Great little cars like Plymouth Duster and Dodge Dart seat five or six people, and have more hiproom than Nova, Hornet, Maverick, Vega and Pinto.

Great little cars like Dodge Dart Sport and Plymouth Duster offer more than three times the trunk space of Pinto, all under lock and key and out of sight.

Great little cars like Dodge Dart and Plymouth Duster offer Electronic Ignition standard. An exclusive standard feature on small cars from Chrysler Corporation.

Great little cars like Dodge Dart and Plymouth Duster have no points or condenser to replace, and spark plugs can last up to 18,000 miles under normal driving conditions. A savings to you of up to $62 over competitive cars like Nova and Ventura in the first 24,000 miles alone.†

The answer is at your Dodge and Chrysler-Plymouth Dealer's.

Ride with English dignity,
German precision,
Italian flair,
and
American practicality.

When you ride in an Audi 100LS you'll be impressed with the following:
An aura of dignity because the car has just about the same headroom and legroom as England's Rolls-Royce Silver Shadow.

An uncanny feeling of precision because it has the same type of reliable ignition system as Germany's Porsche 911. And the same kind of efficient heating and ventilation system as her Mercedes-Benz 280SE.

A flair for handling because it has the same type of steering system as Italy's racing Ferrari. And astonishing practicality because it has the same trunk space as America's Lincoln Continental Mark IV. And front-wheel drive like her Cadillac Eldorado.

When you ride in an Audi you get the best England, Germany, Italy and America have to offer.

The Audi 100LS.
It's a lot of cars for the money.

division officers via increased patrol and surveillance, primarily during the summer months.

Of the 199 offenses, 175 were cleared for a percentage of 87.9 in comparison to the clearance of 82 of the 182 cases in 1972, (for 44.4 percent).

Narcotics drugs laws include such classifications as opium, cocaine, etc.; marijuana; synthetic narcotics, and "all other." Last year, 139 marijuana offenses were known. Of these, 128 were cleared. This compares to 122 offenses in 1972 of which 58 were cleared.

On this, Sergeant Kane said, "More cars are being searched by police officers as a result of the men smelling marijuana. Michigan law says an officer can do this," (based upon a Michigan appeals court case in 1973).

Other Complaints
In other areas of Part II offenses, there were no startling fluctuations, e.g., vandalism, (67 incidents last year, 64 the previous year), stolen property laws, (26 against 20), and runaways, (73 against 70).

A big drop, however, occurred in disorderly conduct complaints, (eight in 1973, 21 the previous year).

Miscellaneous complaints, which include family trouble, mischievous children reports and missing persons, fell from 35 in 1972 to 25 in 1973. Family trouble incidents showed the largest fluctuation, (four reports last year, 11 the previous year).

Pointe Breakdown
A Pointe-by-Pointe breakdown of offenses shows: The City, Part I crimes, 16 in 1973, 21 in 1972; Part II offenses, 25 each year; miscellaneous, none last year, two in 1972.

The Woods, Part I crimes, 52 in 1973, 70 in 1972; Part II offenses, 229 in 1973, 217 in 1972; miscellaneous, 14 last year, 22 in 1972.

The Farms, Part I crimes, 30 in 1973, 18 in 1972; Part

II offenses, 76 in 1973, 75 in 1972; miscellaneous, two last year, one in 1972. The Park, Part I crimes, 70 in 1973, 37 in 1972; Part II offenses, 135 in 1973, 123 in 1972; miscellaneous, eight each year.

The Shores, Part I crimes, four in 1973, six in 1972; Part II offenses, 28 in 1973, 19 in 1972; miscellaneous, two last year, one in 1972.

Reflect Upon Year
Each YSD officer was asked to reflect upon 1973, in comparison to 1972, and cite personal highlights during his work the past year.

Agent John Kendall, liaison officer, South High School, said the 1973 school year was the best for him since the division became fully operational in August 1970.

"The young people at Grosse Pointe South are the finest bunch of people in the world. Their attitude, support and conduct makes my job better and easier."

In accounting for this, the agent stated the youth culture has "become more mature and responsible." He added, "The student leadership, (at South), is more profound and sensitive to adult roles."

New Challenge
For Agent Kendall's South High district "colleague," Detective Donald Schmalz, work in the YSD provided a new challenge. The detective was assigned to the division in May 1973 when former Patrolman-Detective, James Davidson, who had been with the YSD since its beginnings, was promoted to sergeant and assigned to the uniform division.

"I've had no trouble adapting to the YSD," said Detective Schmalz, who added he enjoys working with young people.

Coming from the uniform division, the detective discovered some adjustments which he had to make. "I find myself putting in more free overtime than I anticipated," he stated.

"You work with people under a different set of circumstances. There is no uniform or badge. You meet people more on a social level," he said.

In the YSD, the detective found he had more time to devote to specific cases than when he was in the uniform division. "In the uniform division, you get all the facts to turn over to the detective bureau. In the YSD, you do more investigative work yourself."

And he noted, "A guy in uniform doesn't realize how much work is done in the YSD."

Discusses Programs
Agent Michael Ferrence, liaison officer, North High, focused upon some of the officers' "miscellaneous activities" and hours worked. (Time devoted to these activities, e.g., family problems, drug abuse programs, patrol-surveillance, community service programs, educational programs, are in addition to hours spent investigating 1973's total of 690 offenses).

The agent said, in comparison to previous years, the officers "shied away from drug abuse programs." He felt the community already has been "blanketed" on this subject, and that the community's awareness on this problem is good.

Instead, there was a switch in emphasis to educational programs compatible with the school curriculum program. In this regard, he cited such topics as law enforcement, its responsibilities, approach to substance abuse, sociological approach to juvenile delinquency, plus a variety of "open classes" where students could ask him questions on any subject.

Agent Ferrence also mentioned the rise of family problem and student counseling incidents in 1973. Last year, 252 family problem cases were reported in comparison to 193 in 1972. Meanwhile, student counseling incidents jumped from 296 to 328 last year.

He stressed, "More people are coming to the police department to talk about these problems than in the past." This, he felt, was all to the good.

Detective Thomas Podewitz, North High district, emphasized the overall increase in the work load, plus the division's "concentrated drug investigations" which found the officers on the street more last year.

This is borne out by the big jump in patrol-surveillance man hours last year, much of which was devoted to drug-related investigations.

The four officers devoted an estimated 955 man hours to patrol work in 1973 as against an estimated 588 hours in 1972.

The division's officers were not the only busy people. The YSD's three counselors, (Fred Coonce, Deborah Beaufait and Thomas Canasi), handled 87 cases last year in comparison to 85 in 1972.

Terminate 53
Of the 87, which included 68 males and 19 females, 53 were terminated, (42 males, 11 females). Thirty-four cases were left open and carried over to 1974, (these involved 26 males and eight females).

The most prominent age for males on the counseling program was 14 as 22 individuals participated. In 1972, 20 15-year-olds and 19 16-year-olds were counseled.

Six 13-year-old females were counseled last year. The leading age in 1972 was 13-years-old as eight girls participated in the program.

In the total age breakdown, the most prominent age for youths counseled was 14 as 25 young people participated in 1973. The previous year featured 15-year-olds, (25 youths), and 16-year-olds, (22 youths).

Main Charges
The leading charge of males counseled in 1973 was narcotics arrests, (29 subjects), and runaways, (10 youths), for females, (10 youths), for females. In 1972, it also was narcotics arrests for males, (23 subjects), but shoplifting for females, (12 youths).

Finally, the most prominent "length of counseling" period was three months in 1973, (involving 25 youths), followed by six months, (23 youths). In 1972, the most prominent period was six months which involved 28 young people.

And if you think the officers and counselors conclude those diligent division personages, guess again. For the YSD's extraordinary "central files" remains swamped as usual — secretary Ruth Cummins.

South Coasts to Big Victory

By Mark Emery
Grosse Pointe South's basketball team took its second EML game of the season with a victory over a weak Port Huron Northern team, 69-36, in recent action.

After a league game against EML title race leader Mount Clemens, South will travel to Roseville with revenge in mind tomorrow, January 25. Roseville defeated the Devils in their first meeting of the season, 51-50.

South's coach Charles Hollosy comments on the success of a new Roseville team — "We had underestimated them in our initial meeting this season. They have not had a varsity basketball program in three years. But they play as though they have an established basketball program."

Roseville's Carl Bunch led their offensive attack against the Devils in the initial meeting. Bunch led Roseville from the outside with some clutch shooting, collecting 18 points. South made it two in a row in EML competition as they took an easy victory over Port Huron Northern. South was on top throughout, the entire game as they mastered Northern for four quarters with a consistent offense and a tight defense.

Tim Kramer and John Shultes led South offensively with 12 and 10 points, respectively.

Showing of 'The Exorcist' Grips Woods Residents

By Roger A. Waha
In early 1972, it was Stanley Kubrick's "A Clockwork Orange," (rated "X"). Two years later, it is William Friedkin's "The Exorcist," (rated "R").

Both films have something in common from a local standpoint. "Clockwork" was shown at the Woods Theatre, while "The Exorcist" is currently showing at the Woods. But more importantly, and because of this, both pictures raised the ire of many residents.

Flowing from this is the call for an anti-obscenity ordinance in The Woods. Numerous citizens expressed a need for such a measure while attacking the showing of "The Exorcist" in the community, along with the film itself, at the regular council meeting Monday, January 21. The solons, in fact, received and placed on file eight letters on the pic.

The council is currently studying a proposed ordinance on the Committee of the Whole level. This measure would prohibit the possession, distribution, exhibition or sale of any obscene, lewd, lascivious or indecent book, magazine, pamphlet, newspaper, phonograph record, picture, photograph, motion picture film, figure, image, wire or tape recording.

Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos said, during the discussion, that the solons are trying to get a workable ordinance which the city can enforce. He also invited residents to contact the council if they have any helpful suggestions on this matter. Some citizens already offered their services.

A few residents felt "The Exorcist" should have been rated "X," (no one under the age of 17 is admitted — the age limit may vary in different parts of the United States), rather than "R," (restricted, persons under 17 years are not admitted unless accompanied by a parent or adult guardian).

The Production Code and Rating Administration of the Motion Picture Association of America rates a completed film as to its suitability for various age groups, hence, the "G," "PG," "R" and "X" ratings.

On the subject of ratings

Pleads Guilty Of Speeding

A 28-year-old Warren man, who was originally charged with reckless driving, pled guilty to speeding 50 m.p.h. in a 35 m.p.h. zone before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis Wednesday, December 12.

William Gordon Sota was fined $25 stemming from an incident last October 28, according to court reports.

and ensuing legal questions, City Attorney George Catlin stated, "The Federal Courts have said that the rating system can't be used as a valid system to sustain local ordinances. The self-regulating designation by the industry itself is not related to ordinances or statutes."

"We can't have a valid State statute or local ordinance that uses the industry's rating system as its basis," Mr. Catlin then explored the "growing misconception" about the United States Supreme Court's decisions on obscenity in relation to community standards.

"The court issued a number of decisions on this in June 1973. The landmark case was Miller vs. California," he continued.

On the obscenity front, Mr. Catlin said individual States and communities have to work with this, based on the case. The court said:

"The basic guidelines for the trier of fact must be: (a) whether the average person, applying contemporary community standards would find that the work, taken as a whole, appeals to the prurient interest . . .

"(b) whether the work depicts or describes, in a patently offensive way, sexual conduct specifically defined by the applicable state law, and (c) whether the work, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value."

Pursuing this further, Mr. Catlin stated, "The United States Supreme Court doesn't want anything to do with a total national standard. It's up to the states if they want to have any regulation. The State of Michigan has not completed its review of statutes in the area of obscenity."

Thus, it's his opinion that an ordinance or State statute which follows Federal guidelines would not permit prosecution for showing or exhibiting "The Exorcist."

What may readily happen is that most communities in the State could develop their own standards. And what might be the standard in The Woods, for instance, may not be the standard in another city. "The State Supreme Court will have to deal with various community standards towards developing a community standard for the State," he felt.

Carrying this further, there could be prosecutions regarding the showings of specific films in certain areas with, undoubtedly, resulting appeals. The development towards a community standard for the State will vary with circumstances of each individual case and in whatever changes come along in the State Supreme Court.

On the residential front, comments from citizens were varied but all were compatible in mixing "The Exorcist" and its presentation at the Woods.

Sarah H. Murphy, executive secretary, Morality in Media of Michigan, Inc., said, "We are all so concerned about the pollution of our environment these days—what about the 'moral pollution' surrounding our homes and families?"

"With the crime rate at an all-time high, it is very poor judgment to permit this type of sadistic film to be shown in the community."

Mrs. Elaine Griffith said she felt hard or soft core pornographic films could be shown in the community. She said a stand should be taken so this wouldn't happen "in our neighborhood." Then, she suggested the new ordinance be called a "decency ordinance."

She also noted the "many obscenities" presented in "The Exorcist," e.g., masturbation with a crucifix in one scene.

Mrs. Patricia Higgins, president of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and TV Council, suggested that a citizen film review board be set up where members would view and then decide which films truly come up to "this community's standards," while relating her point to the "lack of reliability of movie ratings."

Overall, the cry was for action via an anti-obscenity ordinance.

In fact, during the discussion, Mayor Pinkos pointed out the city already has passed one anti-smut measure. This ordinance, which regulates adult book stores, was approved January 17, 1972, by the council.

Part of the measure stipulates that before the owner, proprietor or person in charge of an adult book store can display or offer for sale such items as a "lewd, lascivious, filthy or indecent book, pamphlet, drawing," (etc.), and before he receives a certificate of occupancy from The Woods, he must post a cash bond of $1,000 with the city treasurer to guarantee he will "faithfully require that the name, address and birthdate of each person entering the premises shall be correctly recorded in a book kept for that purpose."

Finally, the Wednesday,

Camera Club Meets Jan. 29

Monochrome, pictorial and nature competition will take place when the Grosse Pointe Camera Club holds its next meeting on Tuesday evening, January 29.

The meeting will be held in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial starting at 8 p.m. Visitors and guests are invited to attend.

January 16, edition of "Variety" notes that "The Exorcist," which also is showing at the Americana II Theatre, brought in a two-theatre "smash" total of $130,000, in its third week. In fact, out of the 50 top grossing films for the week ending Wednesday, January 9, the picture was number one, drawing $1,007,800 from playdates across the country.

Restore Parking Ban

He also was distressed over the possibility about such conditions if the lot is open during the summer months.

Another citizen was upset because residents were not informed about the December 21 meeting when William H. Palm of the Lochmoor Lounge appeared before the council and requested the solons to reconsider the ban, especially during the winter months. Mr. Palm felt the overall situation had improved in that area.

In a memo to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, Public Safety Director Henry Marchand said the department received no complaints relative to the Hampton parking lot from December 18, 1973, through January 14, 1974.

This citizen said the reason for this was because residents didn't call police as they wanted to see what would happen. She also stated, "If the jails are any quieter, we may bring a pot of coffee and sleep over there." Another resident said, on this subject, "We haven't called police because we're so sick and tired of doing this. We wanted to wait and see what happened."

Yet another citizen stated the noise in that area was so bad at night that she couldn't sleep or watch television. She also said, at this time, residents were talking about conditions with their windows closed. She felt it would be worse during the summer with noise from various individuals, motorcycles, et. al.

What the residents said they want is peace and quiet.

Offers Suggestion
Mr. Palm also attended the meeting and told the council litter conditions had improved since two new receptacles were placed near the lounge.

"I can't completely control what happens outside the lounge, only what happens inside," stressed Mr. Palm. The litter, for example, just doesn't come from Lochmoor patrons only, he stated. "We sell only cans to go on our

League Urges Pointers to Act
The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters, prompted by Environmental Quality Chairman, Mrs. Philip D'Agostino, is concerned with Senate Bill 419 and has passed on a recommendation from the Michigan League.

The bill passed the State Senate and is now with the House Committee on Conservation and Recreation. The State League claims that "This bill essentially guts the Shoreland Management and Protection Act and the Natural Rivers Act. It negates restricting use of designated land by zoning."

The committee chairman is Representative Warren Gomaere (R. Roseville). Concerned citizens are urged to write Representative Gomaere and our own representative, William Bryant, at the Capitol, Lansing, Mich. 48902.

The League is also aware that since the resignation of former State Senator Charles Youngblood, Jr., Woods and Shores residents have been without representation in the Senate. James McQueary, in Senator George Fitzgerald's office, has informed the Grosse Pointe League that the deadline for filing for a replacement is Friday, February 1. There will be a special primary election on Tuesday, February 26, if there is a contest. The special election will be on March 19, the same day as the one to fill Mayor Coleman Young's vacancy.

PROMOTED
At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Detroit Bank Corporation, Stillmeadow Lane resident Donald R. Mandich was elected executive vice-president of Detroit Bank and Trust. Mr. Mandich's new responsibilities include all bank loan activities. He joined Detroit Bank and Trust in 1950, following graduation from the University of Michigan with a Master's degree in Business Administration.

carry-out license. We can't police everything but we will try to do it."

Mr. Palm suggested the lot be left open, (with no ban), during the winter months and then a curfew could be imposed during the summer, if needed. He added that he wants to cooperate with the residents on this.

Then, Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan asked Mr. Palm why there was such a problem closing the lot at 11 p.m. He replied, convenience, plus a safety factor, (taking a risk of an accident or injury off of a main thoroughfare, i.e., Mack avenue).

He also said when the lounge has a full house, 90 plus people are inside. During the week, after 11 p.m., around 20-30 people can be found inside. Mr. Palm added on weekends, the lounge gets crowded around the hours of 9-11 p.m.

Decision to Council
In his memo, Director Marchand reported, regarding recommendations, "I can only say that there is no foreseeable solution equable to the bar patrons and the residents of the area. The lot either stays open for the convenience of the bar patrons, or is closed during the late evening hours for the peace and tranquility of the neighborhood."

"Regardless of what action the council decides to take, I would like to add that our patrol units have and will continue to give extra attention to this location in our continued effort to keep the area livable."

Thus, the decision was left entirely up to the solons.

Councilman Roger A. Graef said he listened attentively to all comments. "The purpose of off-street parking lots on Mack is to relieve congestion. The problem, here, is not the use of the lot but abuse or misuse."

The councilman felt the closing of the lot wouldn't really resolve the problem as potential lounge patrons may, for instance, park in front of the residents' homes. He said Mr. Palm must recognize the problem and do what he can to resolve it.

He then moved that the parking lot remain open, without any imposed ban, and that this problem be always available for review by the council. But his motion died for lack of support.

No other motion was made so, as a result, the ban was instituted once again, to some residential applause.

Kerby Scouts Host Supper

Kerby School Cub Scout Pack 481 will host a pancake supper tonight January 24, from 5:30 to 7:30 in the school gymnasium.

Tickets are priced at $1.25 and are available at the door. Supper includes pancakes, sausages and milk or coffee. Proceeds from the event will cover the Pack's operational costs for 1974.

Woods Conducts Review Of Zoning Ordinance 88

By Roger A. Waha

The Woods Planning Commission is currently reviewing the city's Zoning Ordinance No. 88, which regulates and restricts the location of trades and industries, and the location of buildings designed for specified uses.

It also regulates and limits the height and bulk of buildings, the area of yards, courts and other open spaces, limits the maximum number of families who may be housed in dwellings and, for said purposes, divides the city into districts.

John Kennedy, Planning Commission chairman, said the objective of the review is to make certain the ordinance is effective regarding the current needs of the community. He stated the measure will be updated as necessary to make it "be a good, ongoing document in our town" in relation to "assuring ourselves we are modern as to what is happening in our nation."

And he emphasized, "We want to make sure our zoning ordinance maintains the high standards of the city." "We want to keep our law current in terms of providing us with a good, substantial zoning ordinance. We may find we need to adjust some wording to bring it up to a modern ordinance."

At the same time, Mr. Kennedy made it clear that potential updating of the measure will be done only "where the need becomes evident as a result of review. We have no preconceived notions what these areas might be."

Areas to be looked at as part of the general review include recreation areas, possible housing for senior citizens, multiple dwellings and mobile homes, among others.

These areas will be focused upon in relation to protecting the value of all property in the city and the residential pattern of homes in the community, he noted.

Mr. Kennedy said it was his personal opinion, an "internal hunch," the possibility of zoning more land for the purpose of recreational facilities will be studied. But, at the same time, the chairman stressed he has no preconceived notions on this, plus the fact the city may already be adequately supplied in this regard.

Pointe Chorus Rehearsal Set

Mrs. Earl Nelson, president of the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, invites all singers over 16 years of age to sing with the Chorus for its Spring Concert. Registration will be open for the next two weeks on Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. No audition is necessary. Rehearsals are held at Parcels Middle School, Eight Mile and Mack avenue.

The Spring Concert will be held Sunday, May 5. Some of the numbers that will be performed are "Alleluia" and "The Last Words of David" by Randall Thompson, "Omnipotence" by Schubert, a medley from "My Fair Lady" and "Waters Ripple and Flow" by Deems Taylor.

The Director of the Chorus is Richard Johns, who is Choir Master at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church. For further information, persons may call him at 886-0710.

Burglaries Top YSD Report

Fifty-eight complaints were processed in December 1973 by the Youth Service Division, (YSD). This was an increase of eight over the November 1973 total and 18 over the December 1972 tab.

The category of highest incidence was burglaries, as 18 such cases were reported. The YSD called this "an apparently startling increase over all previous months" but notes "this count is the result of the solving of numerous burglaries committed by a group of juvenile males in the Grosse Pointe Park area and a like solving of numerous burglaries which occurred in the Grosse Pointe Woods area."

"Counting individuals involved in each incident, there were 64 male juveniles involved in the 18 cases; however, in many cases the same individuals were involved again and again."

Violation of the Controlled Substance Act was the second leading category of incidence with nine cases reported. Six were for marijuana, two for synthetic drugs and one was classified as "all other."

Dental Treatment Offered To All Students at School

The Health Education Council of Grosse Pointe is again offering its dental treatments in the individual schools. For several years, HEC has provided cleaning and fluoridation of children's teeth; last year it added a dental hygiene program, including instruction and cleaning kits. The program encompasses children in kindergarten and the second, fourth, sixth and eighth grades. The total fee for all the services is only $4.

The program is under the medical direction of Dr. John Britt. Three dental hygienists have been visiting the schools. Mrs. Bernard Conaway has completed Barnes, Maire and Brownell, and will be at St. Clare of Montefalco School and Trombly. Mrs. Joseph Francis has completed her work at Poupard, Ferry and Parcels, and is scheduled to visit Mason, Richard, and University-Liggett. The third hygienist, Mrs. Joseph Pallerito has completed Monteith, Kerby and Defer, and will soon be at Pierce, Star of the Sea and the Grosse Pointe Academy.

Since 1945 the Health Education Council has been an active link between home and school in carrying out health related programs. Currently, all public and private schools are participating in its activities. Delegates from each school report to their respective parent-teacher organization board, and in turn bring to the Council the needs and concerns of their school.

The Health Education Council welcomes any opportunity to be of service to the community. Its welfare committee wants to be sure there is no child in need of shoes, a coat, or whatever it may take to assure that he or she is properly clad for school. Anonymity is carefully preserved, so residents should not hesitate to let them know whenever a case becomes apparent. Since there no longer are school

Scouts Receive Eagle Awards

Another successful year of Scouting was completed by Boy Scout Troop 39, when the boys gathered together with their families and friends for a Court of Honor and dinner in early December.

Especially honored were four Scouts who were presented the Eagle award, the highest rank in Scouting.

The new Eagles are Dan Fritz, son of Mrs. Dorothy Fritz, of Detroit street, Detroit; Dan Garry, son of Dr. and Mrs. Donald J. Garry, of South Renard road; Jim Hearnese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hearnese, of Detroit street, Detroit; and Rick Rosin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rosin, of Lakeshore lane.

Each of the new Eagles has earned the required Merit Badges and has completed a community service project, in addition to other Scouting activities.

The new Eagles make a total of 19 Scouts in Troop 39 who have achieved this rank in the past five years, seven of whom are currently active in the troop.

Other Scouts of Troop 39 were awarded the emblems of the new rank to which they had advanced. They are: Tenderfoot—Mike Cairns, Stanley Guest, Glen Kirkin, Ken Lombardi; Second Class—Mike Cairns, Dave Giar, Roger Shammas; First Class—Nick Masson, Gary Shammas, Carl Werner; Star—Tom Marks, Randy Toomajian, and Life—Ed Glowacki. A Gold Palm was added to the Eagle Badge of Randy Cook.

A total of 192 Merit Badges were presented to Scouts, representing a wide variety of skills and achievements.

Presenting these awards were Scoutmaster Bob Hearnese and Assistant Scoutmaster Joe Masson. They also introduced Ed Glowacki as a new Assistant Scoutmaster.

Robert Marks, Troop Committee Chairman, served as Master of Ceremonies, and introduced Mrs. Barbara Gingell, Mother's Auxiliary president. Mrs. Gingell presented the silver bowl for the Mother of the Year Award to Mrs. Kenneth Cook for her help to the troop and the Parents' Committee. A special award was also presented to Tom Goodall, former Scoutmaster of Troop 39.

The troop meets at Barnes School.

North High's freshmen basketball team defeated South High, 60-51, on Friday, January 11, to up its record to 7-0. This was the second time this season the Norsemen dumped South. On November 30, the score was 46-42.

Obviously proud of his club, North's freshman coach Rick Zarnak said, "We are a well balanced team with decent size and good speed. Our leading scorers are Rob Burns and Jeff Pierick. We are improving every day and are looking to have an even more successful second half."

Obituaries

ROSS CORBIT

Funeral services for Mr. Corbit, of Vernier road, were held on Wednesday, January 23, at the Verheyden Funeral Home. He died on Saturday, January 19, at Harper Hospital.

Mr. Corbit was a former president of Hiram Walker Incorporated and prior to his retirement in 1969 had also served as president of James Barclay and Company and vice-president and director of Hiram Walker-Gooderham and Worts, Limited, parent company of the two firms.

Mr. Corbit was a past chairman of the police committee of the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce and served as subcommittee chairman of the new Wayne County Correctional Facilities, honorary chairman of the Bal African Committee of the Founders Society of the Detroit Art Institute and a board member of the Wayne County Chapter of the March of Dimes.

A member of Brandeis University President's Council, he was named as the university's Industry Man of the Year in 1961. Other honors included the Sword of Mercy from Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital in 1973, the liquor industry's 1961 Man of the Year Award, a citation plaque from the Bal African Committee, the Distinguished Service Award from the Readers Digest Association of America and a Certificate of Merit from the National Police Officers Association.

In recognition of Mr. Corbit's service to the missions, a school operated by Catholic missionaries in India was named in his honor last September.

Mr. Corbit is survived by his wife, Shirley; a daughter, Mrs. Edgar Durocher; a son, Thomas J. Chapman; and a son, Edgar J. Chapman.

SPORTS FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Here's a tough quiz for you to test your knowledge of pro football. Listed below are five teams that won the championship in the years indicated. See if you can name the starting quarterbacks each of these teams used to reach the championship. Here are the five teams: 1948 Eagles, 1951 Rams, 1953 Lions, 1955 Browns, 1960 Eagles. Now, who are the starting quarterbacks on these teams? For the 1948 Eagles it was Tommy Thompson. 1951 Rams, Bob Waterfield. 1953 Lions, Bobby Layne. 1955 Browns, Otto Graham. 1960 Eagles, Norm Van Brocklin.

Here's one of the most fantastic records ever made by the Army team of 1945 that featured these two greats, Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis. Army set an all-time record that year AVERAGING 7.9 yards per play! Imagine a team averaging almost 8 yards every time they put the ball in play. That's a record that may stand for a long, long time.

When was the first time a football game was ever on television? First football telecast in history was on Sept. 30, 1939. The game was between Fordham and Waynesburg and it was telecast in New York City.

Never be without a master manual for your type of car. This is of ultimate importance when it comes to any sort of repair job. These manuals are available through the parts department of your franchised dealer. Everything your car may need can be found in the manual, including a listing of minor adjustments and major overhauls. Names of components, as well as how these are assembled and in what order, should also be found in this manual.

All types of Dodge cars, trucks, vans, recreational vehicles and motor homes are available from POINTE DODGE, INC., 18001 Mack Ave., 884-7210. We have a wide selection in stock and provide fast delivery. We also have a used car department with cars, trucks, vans, recreational vehicle and motor homes in good condition. Daily rental of cars and trucks is available and we also have a leasing department for cars, trucks and recreational vehicles. Our sales office is open daily for your convenience, Service Dept., 7:30 a.m.-6 p.m. daily, until 9 p.m. Monday.

Memorial Church Offers Novel Program Starting Feb. 3

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, supported by a grant from the George M. and Mabel H. Slocum Foundation, is offering a Dual Careers Program designed to help married couples bring their career and family worlds together.

The program offers three methods of participation. Beginning on Sunday, February 3, Keynotes on Living, a series of introductory lectures will be presented in the morning; each to be followed by a discussion session at 7:30 that evening.

The four Sunday talks will cover the career-family life field in a general way and will be open to all.

Then, on Wednesday, March 6, there will be a 16-week Seminar for Couples on Effectiveness in Vocation, Personal Life and Family Living. These one and one half hour sessions will stress intensive growth and are limited to 14 couples.

The third phase starts on March 17 and continues on a monthly basis for a total of eight meetings. Entitled Sunday Evening Discovery Seminars, their focal point will be new options in family living. Forty persons, individuals or couples, may participate.

Program leadership is being handled by Paul Doerring, Ph.D., president of Psychological Institutes of Michigan. Dr. Doerring will draw on the skills and services of three other Institute Psychologists. He and his wife, Gerry, are former members of Memorial Church.

Phase two enrollment is limited to 14 couples who are between the ages of 25-45. A fee of $60 is required. To enlist in this part of the program, interested couples may call any one of the Church ministers at 882-5330, 48236.

Grosse Pointe's Newest Condominium

Your neighbors will include an award winner of one of the highest civic honors; a distinguished Detroit attorney; a member of an outstanding Detroit banking family; a well-known connoisseur, restaurateur; a sportsman who is an international winner in yachting circles; an outstanding advertising executive; a retired board chairman, those who take an active part in the city's industry and social life and one of Detroit's leading realtors and land developer who knows a great place to live when he sees it.

Why They Bought. Some bought before the building was finished. Others have looked around and thoughtfully compared condominium living to home ownership and apartment renting, they then made their move to the Jefferson Apartments.

They were influenced by the convenient prime location, all new construction and truly gracious living. Here is a typical spacious floor plan of an apartment home which features 9 foot ceilings, natural fireplaces, individual heating and cooling, top of the line G. E. kitchen with an icemaker and a washer-dryer. A wet bar is conveniently located for entertaining. Insulated walls, floors, plumbing and windows insure maximum quiet.

The Jefferson Apartments is an adult community.

There are three separate elevators and approximately a thousand square feet of private storage. Exterior maintenance, gardening and snow removal are arranged. Residents are homeowners and enjoy tax deductions and the investment security of being a property owner and equity advantages.

A network of the most modern security systems guard them, their home and possessions.

A CLOSED TV MONITORING SYSTEM covers the entrance, outside parking areas and inside garage. The caller can be viewed from a selected channel on the Owner's TV set in each apartment. The doorman and manager's office views the same areas.

THE ENTRY COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM is a new system conceived and engineered by Michigan Bell Telephone Company. Using a touchtone panel telephone in the lobby, the caller dials the owner's apartment. This enables each party to have a private conversation. During the time the caller is in the entrance vestibule, he is under surveillance by the concealed TV camera.

AN ON-GUARD ALERT SYSTEM features a control panel in the manager's apartment and the attendant's office. This notifies of an intrusion into any apartment when the occupants are away. The doorman or manager controls the system by activating the apartment's security supervision at the request of the owner.

THE FIRE PROTECTION ALERT SYSTEM gives supervision added protection to all occupants of the building and will insure notification of each individual occupant of a fire in an unoccupied apartment.

Further elements of security are the uniformed doorman-attendant and the clock resident caretakers.

The Jefferson Apartments is located 2 blocks from a beautiful park with patios, 3 blocks from Grosse Pointe Village shopping, 20 minutes from downtown Detroit by bus.

Don't worry about selling your home. Visit us and learn of our new trade-in program for your home, and our new pricing policy.

Mixed Emotions

I have mixed emotions on the recently announced Youth Service Division, (YSD), rotation plan.

As managing municipality of the YSD, The Woods proposed the rotation of division personnel to other police functions on a four-year basis. This would give other members of the public Safety Department experience in the division.

Under the new plan, all four division members would be liaison officers. Two will be based in the North High School district and two in the South High district. They will perform either or both liaison or investigative work, or split the workload.

At this time, the YSD has one liaison officer at each school, (Agent Michael Ferrence at North and Agent John Kendall at South), and two investigative officers, (Detective Thomas Podewzik at North and Detective Donald Schmalz at South).

The new system begins Friday, February 1, when Detective Podewzik is rotated to the uniform division and Public Safety Officer Wayne Baum joins the YSD. Then on July 1, either Agent Ferrence or Agent Kendall will be rotated to a new assignment. From that point, one YSD officer is scheduled for rotation to another assignment on an annual basis.

Agents Ferrence and Kendall, along with Detective Podewzik, have been with the YSD since it became fully operational in August 1970. Detective Schmalz was assigned to the division in May 1973 after Patrolman-Detective James Davidson, who had been with the YSD since its inception, was promoted to sergeant and assigned to the uniform division.

The Woods gave a full presentation of the plan to the YSD's Board of Managers, (which includes each Pointe city manager and Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, Board of Education representative), on November 29, 1973. At this time, the board approved the plan on a four-year basis, (the original proposal was for two years).

Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, who prepared the broad organizational plan for the YSD which serves, and is supported by, all the Pointes and the school system, said the plan would be beneficial to public safety department officers regarding training. (As managing municipality, The Woods assigns or employs all YSD personnel).

Mr. Petersen felt officers were not being given full rounded training in public safety when they were assigned permanently to the YSD or to any other assignment in the department. All public safety assignments are rotated—from patrol to the fire division, from patrol to the detective bureau or investigative division and from patrol to traffic safety and school safety. The department's current policy is to rotate all special assignments.

The city administrator said there are highly qualified personnel in the department, who under a rotation plan, will complete their overall public safety training, e.g., YSD training will help an aspirant towards becoming a chief of police.

On another point, he stated the city has to be in a position to protect itself in case a vacancy occurs in the YSD so trained personnel can step in. He also said the plan would provide The Woods with a much better trained patrol officer to deal with youth on the street.

Lastly, Mr. Petersen felt new personnel will bring fresh ideas and approaches into the division so the YSD "will render greater or even more improved services."

In deciding to go with the rotation plan, The Woods obviously felt this was in the best interest of the YSD, itself, the entire Public Safety Department and the community. The views shared by Mr. Petersen with regard to all training aspects have merit and, undoubtedly, will be advantageous to all officers from the standpoint of experience and on the promotion front.

But, here come the mixed emotions. I look at the YSD as something special, if you will—a specialized and all-important law enforcement arm which serves the community in many different ways including case investigations, drug abuse programs, educational programs, referral service, community service programs, student counseling, et. al.

Carrying this further, Agents Ferrence and Kendall are two particularly valuable officers on the YSD team, (this comment doesn't take anything away from the detectives, either, as Detective Podewzik has done a fine job and Detective Schmalz is doing good work). As liaison officers, they work very closely with the schools, (each has a high school office), innumerable community organizations and individuals, social agencies and other law enforcement officials.

In fact, they really are the YSD's public relations arm through their daily work, which also includes participating in many law enforcement conferences, plus speaking engagements at schools, clubs and other organizations.

While they are division "veterans," their value to the YSD is far reaching via the establishment of contacts through their work, not to mention the establishment of rapport on many different fronts. It often takes years to create an environment conducive to solid performance and trust. Losing either one of them at this time would be like the Tigers trading Mickey Lolich or the Twins trading Rod Carew.

This is not to say other officers in the department would not do a fine job, but it takes time to create such an environment. Both Agents Ferrence and Kendall are accepted and respected by the community, which realizes, as a whole, their importance to the YSD and to the Pointes alike.

So, I would hope that neither agent be rotated in July to another assignment but stay in his present position until the administration, the agents, themselves, or the community in total, (or all three), no longer feel the men are performing on a high level. This could be a year, two years, three years... who knows? This, certainly, could be a major criteria.

It should be noted that such a plan, which would give other officers a chance to participate in YSD work, shouldn't be squelched. On the contrary, it should proceed with all members being liaison officers. Only instead of ultimately rotating four men, rotate two on an annual basis, or every 18 months, (which would give newcomers two full years or three full years, respectively, in the division). At the same time, Agents Ferrence or Kendall would help their colleagues via their own valuable experience.

Another thought would be to add one man to the division, making a total of five liaison officers, if the administration and Board of Managers saw fit. The new trio could be rotated annually, every 18 months or every two years. This also would help ease the tremendous workload of all officers.

The intention of these comments is not to deliberately build the division around two men—Agents Ferrence and Kendall just happened to be part of the YSD when it became fully operational. It could easily have been someone else. However, the point is both men have done a splendid job as liaison officers and their value to the division, hence, the entire community, is tremendous.

Thus, the mixed emotions.

A Salute to Teachers

Grosse Pointe residents owe a sincere "thank you" to the 552 teachers who did not go on strike this fall even though their contract was far from settled. Other districts in Michigan, notably 36, were not as fortunate in having a core of teachers dedicated to their self-avowed standards of professionalism. Thirty-four districts were on strike at the beginning of the school year, and two more joined the picket line. Particularly crippling was the Detroit teachers' strike which kept school doors closed for 23 days. It took a Michigan Circuit Court injunction to get the teachers back in the classroom.

Speaking for the residents, Board of Education President Robert D. Warner said at the last Board meeting, "We are proud of our teachers for staying on the job while the new contract was being hammered out, something many other school districts cannot say."

In the closing weeks of the 15-month negotiations, quality education was the key issue. The teachers, represented by the Grosse Pointe Education Association, were pressing for smaller class sizes and better education programs and materials. It would have taken the wind out of their demand if they went on strike, and the students returned to an empty classroom. Instead of there being overcrowded classes, there would have been no class at all.

For a strike, besides closing down the classrooms, would have resulted in a communications breakdown on both sides. The Board of Education negotiators would be pressed to show that they would not be intimidated. And the GPEA negotiators, making good their threat, would not be quick to back down once a strike was in progress. In the end, a strike would have prolonged negotiations rather than hastened settlement.

Let's hope that both sides continue to bargain in good faith in coming years, and that neither side is forced to a power show. It's for the good of the students and the good of the community. And don't forget to give the teachers a sincere "thank you"; it's what they deserve.

PIERCE CUSTODIAN RETIRES

Ray Hoggard, a Pierce School custodian, has retired from the staff after over 15 years of work. Recently, he was on the night shift, from 3:30 to 11:30 p.m. at the middle school. A native of Detroit, before coming to the school system Mr. Hoggard worked for 31 years for the Hudson Motor Car Company.

He is married and the father of a son and daughter, as well as grandfather of five children. He plans to go to school to learn more about rock cutting and polishing and continue working on his collection of model trains, the Pierce newspaper said.

GUEST COLUMNIST: LOUISE LEESON

On a garden wall in Paris there is a plaque which reads: "Here lived, here died Colette, whose work is a window wide-open on life." Sidonie Gabrielle Claudine Colette died aged 81, in her Paris apartment that overlooked the garden, on August 3, 1954. January 28, 1974 is the 100th anniversary of her birth.

Everyone has heard of GIGI, that very appealing heroine; the book was a best-seller on publication; the dramatization of the story was a hit; the musical adaptation is becoming a perennial. There appears to be an awakening interest in Colette's writing.

The library has Colette's autobiography EARTHLY PARADISE, drawn from the writings of her lifetime by Robert Phelps. This particular handling of an autobiography gives us an insight into the author's life and style not available in a more formal approach. This might be an interesting way to begin exploring the work of this French novelist.

In a few paragraphs on the origins of Cheri—a character in one of her novels—she says his prototype was "... a little, ginger-haired fellow with one shoulder slightly lower than the other, pinkish eyelashes, a weak right eye, and a perpetually running nose." By Colette's alchemy the young man in the story becomes "twenty-five years old, dark hair, white skin, glossy as a six-month-old tomat." "Not knowing what else to heap upon him I made him the supreme and final gift: the majesty, the passion for honor, and the childlike pride of the great kept men." His creator says "... there is always room in any literary creation for a certain admixture of magic."

Robert Phelps includes a chronology of events in the life of Colette, preceding the AUTOBIOGRAPHY. He says in explanation, "... what glosses or commentaries does a Colette book need? A critic has nowhere to take hold, since there is nothing to explain, nothing even to criticize. He has only to admire."

A new biography, COLETTE: THE DIFFICULTY OF LOVING, by Margaret Crowley, was reviewed in the December 9 issue of the New York Times Book Review. Mavis Gallant, who did the review, says of it: "The best work to date about Colette." The book is on order, and we hope to have it soon at the library.

Colette wrote with female wisdom and perception, in a style intense and warm. Glenway Wescott said of her style: "... a wonderful combination of sensuousness, elegance, gravity, clarity... those turns of phrase, speedy and forceful and neat, and with a sense of fun..." Also, from 20TH CENTURY AUTHORS: "Beyond her candor and her worldly charm, there was her depth of characterization, her instinctive knowledge of human weaknesses, her wise and sympathetic grasp of feminine psychology."

In these last two decades praise has been lavished on Colette's writings. In earlier days some mothers forbade their daughters to read her books, calling them immoral. Perhaps this attitude which seems quaint to us now has had a lingering effect that would account for the seeming lack of interest. A certain delicacy of mind in this writer—called "lough-minded" by Mavis Gallant—absorbs her writing of coarseness or vulgarity. Colette would have had to have a certain toughness of mind.

She spent years of her life working in music halls and writing for newspapers. At one time she was literary editor and dramatic critic for Le Matin. She published some of the earliest stories of Georges Simenon.

By this time, at forty-seven, Colette had taken her rightful place as one of the living masters of French prose. Of her three husbands only Mairice Goudekot, whom she married in her fifties, brought her contentment. Goudekot tells of their life in his book CLOSE TO COLETTE. The library has at present THE TENDER SHOOT AND OTHER STORIES, MY MOTHER'S HOUSE and SIDO, THE RIPENING SEED, and THE VAGABOND, in works of fiction.

Despite early notoriety and some, no doubt malicious, slander, Colette was elected to the Goncourt Academy, (the only woman to be so honored). The members of this august body award the annual Prix Goncourt for fiction. In France her death was regarded as one of their greatest literary losses. At her death Colette was given a state funeral—"the highest posthumous honor a citizen can receive." She lay in state, as Genet described it in the New Yorker, "... her glittering cross of a Grand Officer of the Legion of Honor and its scarlet ribbon were attached to a black velvet pillow that leaned against her coffin."

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Over at Mrs. Robert Everett's Woodland Shore drive home yesterday, members of the Detroit Committee for the Seven Eastern Colleges, Inc., were making plans for what promises to be a busy year. Heading their agenda right now is Project '74, a theater party to raise scholarship money for outstanding Michigan students who want to attend Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar or Wellesley.

Because the Committee aims to stimulate involvement in Inner City activities—and because last year's project was such a roaring success—Wayne State University's Hilberry Theatre has again been chosen as benefit site.

The Project '74 production will be Moliere's "Tartuffe." Benefit date is Saturday, April 27.

Rockette Curlers To Host Bonspiel

Festivities Begin Next Wednesday with Luncheon for Visiting Teams; Gourmet Cocktail Party Planned for Wednesday Evening

The Detroit Curling Club Rockettes, the women's section of the Detroit Curling Club, will host their 17th annual Bonspiel next Wednesday and Thursday, January 30 and 31, with 24 teams vying for the Alandt Trophy.

Eighteen of the teams will represent curling clubs from other United States cities and Canada. The remaining teams represent the Detroit Club.

Each team will participate in four games, the winners being determined on a point basis with points awarded for each win and the number of "ends" won in a game.

Mrs. Victor Breidenbach, of Grand Marais boulevard, is Bonspiel chairman. Festivities begin Wednesday when the Detroit ladies entertain the guest rinks (teams) at a luncheon at the Detroit Curling Club.

A gourmet cocktail party under the chairmanship of Pointer Mrs. Charles Markley is scheduled for Wednesday evening. Decorations in a Mother Goose nursery rhyme motif are being created by a committee headed by Mrs. Joseph McGlynn, of Hollywood avenue, chairman, and Mrs. Marvin Larivee, of West Ballantyne court, co-chairman.

Local curling club members will provide entertainment via home-grown talent in the form of Mother Goose skits.

Other Pointers involved with the 1974 Bonspiel are Mrs. Joseph Giroux, who will serve as mistress of ceremonies, social chairman Mrs. Robert Burns, entries chairman Mrs. Harold Davis, locker room chairman Miss Harriet Guignon, "Big End" awards chairman Miss Jean Hewitt and Mrs. Tom Bowling, Rockettes' assistant games chairman.

All are active Rockettes, as are fellow Pointers Mrs. Donald Barr, Mrs. Bruce Cummings, Mrs. John Kennedy, Mrs. Dana Lockniskar, Mrs. Albert McKay, Mrs. Paul Morath, Mrs. Charles Ruten, Mrs. Colin Wilkinson and Mrs. Tom Zurschmiede, Jr.

Curling is an old sport. It originated in Europe and came to America with the early settlers.

It is played on an ice surface, with each game area measuring 14 feet wide by 138 feet long. At each end of the ice alley are the goals of "heads," a series of concentric circles 12, eight, four and two feet in diameter.

Each member of a four-player team "delivers" (slides down the ice alley), two granite stones weighing between 40 and 44 pounds. As a stone is delivered team-mates proceed along the alley with it, sweeping the ice ahead of the stone with brooms to help control direction and distance.

Miss Robb Bride Of Larry S. Sabol

Candlelight Rites Are Followed by Reception at Carousel; Pair Are Making their Home in Columbus, O.

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday evening, December 1, in Saint Paul's American Lutheran Church were Janice Arleen Robb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Robb, of Beaufait avenue, and Larry S. Sabol, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sabol, of Moorland drive.

Pastor Charles Sandrock presided at the 7 o'clock candlelight rites which were followed by a reception at the Carousel.

The bride's gown featured a high neckline and fitted bodice of Venice lace studded with pearls sewn on by the bridegroom's mother. Matching lace accented her full skirt and train.

Her bridal cap, made by her mother, was of pearl-trimmed Venice lace and held a four-tiered illusion veil. White roses, stephanotis and baby's-breath, circled in holly, formed her bridal bouquet.

Honor maid Pamela Perkowski's Christmas red crepe dress featured a high neckline, fitted bodice and long sleeves ending in three circles of lace at her wrists.

Miss Killefer To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Killefer, of Provencal road, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Caroline, to John Borland Thayer V, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Borland Thayer, of Exton, Pa.

Miss Killefer was graduated from the Foxcroft School, Middleburg, Va., and from Pine Manor Junior College. She studied at New York University in Madrid and received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Spanish from the University of Colorado in 1972.

Her fiancé was graduated from South Kent School in Connecticut, spent four years in the Navy during which he served in Vietnam and will receive his Bachelor of Arts in Journalism from the University of Colorado in August.

The wedding is planned for June 1, on Cape Cod.

green crepe, were Joyce Weston, of Mount Clemens, the bride's cousin, and two college friends, Claudia Knopf, of Fraser, and Marge McNeill, of Toronto. They carried baskets of strawflowers rimmed with holly.

Best man was Richard Adams, of Wyandotte. In the usher corps were the bridegroom's brother, Steven Sabol, his cousin Dennis Boran and the bride's brother, Chris Robb, an Albion College student.

Mrs. Larry S. Sabol

In Saint Paul's American Lutheran Church Saturday evening, December 1, JANICE ARLEEN ROBB, daughter of the Raymond W. Robbs, of Beaufait avenue, was married to Mr. Sabol, son of the John Sabols, of Moorland drive.

The bride's mother complemented her gown of burgundy crepe and chiffon with a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a gown styled with a turquoise chiffon skirt and beaded orchid-flowered bodice, and a purple orchid wrist corsage.

The newlyweds are making their home in Columbus, O.

Ken Kurtz Lights Up The Sky

The Kenneth Kurtzes deserted Bishop road over the holidays, electing to spend them in Miami with their son Ken, an associate professor of Drama at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, and his wife Susie.

Son Jeff and his wife Mimi came from Huntington Beach, Calif., to join the Kurtz-in-Florida family group, and everyone had a wonderful New Year's Eve time at the Coconut Grove Playhouse watching Theodore Bikel cavort in "The Sunshine Boys."

Of course, the Kurtzes watched the light changes and noted every stage set nuance. It figures, since the production's scenic designer was none other than Kenneth N. Kurtz.

The Coconut Grove "Sunshine Boys" is Ken's first professional theater set, but he's not exactly a novice in the field. He's done sets and/or lights for over 80 University of Miami Ring Theatre productions.

The Stage Coach Opera House, the Southern Shakespeare Repertory Company and the Port St. Lucie Summer Theatre also have benefitted from Ken's talents as scenic designer, and he recently completed a fabulous restoration study project at the Queen's Theatre, Versailles.

Susie was with him in France, (regular column readers will remember the slightly tinged with envy piece we wrote about them when they were over there—would that we could have gone along!), and

Inside The Mothers' Club

If you are among those parents baffled in recent years by youngsters going through high school—sometimes even through college—still undecided about what careers they will pursue, you may have a sigh of relief when you know the schools have begun a program to help change that situation.

This fascinating subject was discussed for the Grosse Pointe South High School Mothers' Club at the club's regular meeting January 7 by Dr. Kathleen Herschel, Career Guidance counselor.

Together with Miss Frances French, South High's Assistant Principal in charge of Instruction, Dr. Herschel explained the reasons for the career guidance program and what it is intended to accomplish.

For several years emphasis has been on preparing high school students to get into college.

The idea was for high school students to wait until college to consider career choices, in the belief that time and exposure to many different fields would help the students discover what they really wanted to do.

Often the students only became more confused. Sometimes they dropped out of school altogether, with no careers planned at all.

Today's students are being encouraged to think NOW of career possibilities. Recognizing that not every youngster will wish to go on to college, students are being encouraged to acquire some saleable skills by the time they leave high school.

Using a system devised by HEW Dr. Herschel has a list of 15 career clusters which she uses to help channel a student's thinking toward the general career area fitting his particular aptitudes and interests.

It is not mandatory that students consult Dr. Herschel, but in February and March she will be contacting all 9th and 10th grade students to introduce them to the help available as they plan their future schedules.

Of course the usual attention is given those interested in going on to college.

Counselors arrange for 11th graders to take the SAT and ACT examinations in preparation for college applications and guide them in their investigations of various schools. Admission policies are changing; it is easier to get into some colleges today.

Mrs. Richard Speer, Club president, spoke about Principal Jerry Gerich's idea of

Plan St. Paul's Parish Dinner-Dance

holding small discussion groups with parents, by invitation, to discuss general school affairs. No action was taken on this, but the matter will be researched.

Next important event on the Mother's Club calendar is a Family Supper set for Wednesday, February 6. A large crowd is expected.

Board member, Mrs. Francis Crowley, (who, incidentally, made and donated 1,200 tea sandwiches for the Christmas tea), has offered her services as caterer and will supervise preparation of the beef dinner to be served at South High from 5:30 to 7 o'clock.

The stage band will provide dinner music, and possibly other entertainment as well.

Tickets are $2 for adults and young people 13 years and older, $1 for children.

Mrs. Peter Higbie, Family Supper chairman, has announced that tickets will be on sale at the school for three days before the supper.

Plan Lawyers' Wives Lunch

Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives will hold their January luncheon meeting at Lochmoor Country Club next Wednesday, January 30, at 11:30 o'clock. Theatre Today will be the topic presented by former actress Lillian Hicks, well-known for Town Hall programs at the Fisher.

Mrs. Edward Weber is chairman of the luncheon. Members are invited. Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Anthony Vermeulen at 986-9102.

John C. Miller To Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Alex H. Gilgins, of Saginaw, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Karen Ann, to John Charles Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Miller, of Pemberton road. They plan a June wedding, in Saginaw.

The bride-elect was graduated from Eastern Michigan University where she affiliated with Delta Zeta sorority, and is currently a Special Education teacher with the Howell Public Schools.

Her fiancé, a Grosse Pointe High School alumnus, also was graduated from Eastern Michigan where he was vice-president of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity. He is presently an Industrial Education teacher and coach of the Swim Team at Rochester High School.

Center Offers Montreal Trip

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center is planning a weekend in Montreal, open to all citizens in addition to War Memorial contributing members.

The group leaves Friday afternoon, February 8, by jet from Windsor, returning late Sunday evening, February 10, allowing two nights on the town in Montreal, a day for shopping and a day for sightseeing and dining. The party will have a tour director, limousine transfers, portage and tips included. Participants will stay at the deluxe Constellation Hotel in the heart of Montreal, near St. Catherine's.

Reservations should be made at the Center's office as soon as possible. Cost is $89.50 per person.

Academy Plans Pancake Night

The Grosse Pointe Academy will hold its fourth Annual Pancake Supper on Tuesday, January 29, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., at the school located on Lake Shore road at Moran.

The menu will include pork sausage, apple sauce, beverage and ice cream and all the pancakes anyone can eat for a donation of $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for children under twelve.

Proceeds from the event will be used to purchase additional reference materials for the Academy's library.

The chairman of this year's event are Mr. and Mrs. Grant Everson.

All are invited to attend.

A June wedding is planned.

Child Development Pamphlet Available

Metropolitan Society for Crippled Children and Adults is making available a free pamphlet on development in the young child.

Since parents must constantly be on the alert for warning signals indicating possible developmental problems, the pamphlet includes a listing of developmental landmarks and the approximate age ranges in which they should occur.

Questions such as at approximately what age does a child first respond to a voice or attempt to pick up objects? At what age does a child first attempt to sit, crawl or walk? are answered.

If a child is behind in development he should be seen by a doctor and other qualified specialists for further diagnosis and, if necessary, treatment.

Early diagnosis and treatment are essential. The free pamphlet may be obtained by calling 341-4900 or writing 17330 Schaefer highway, Detroit, Mich. 48235.

Faust Nights For Symphony

Following an auspicious two-month engagement at the Paris Opera House and two weeks with the Cleveland Orchestra Principal Conductor Aldo Ceccato comes home to the Detroit Symphony podium in Ford Auditorium this week to conduct an all-Faust program Thursday and Saturday evenings, January 24 and 26, at 8:30 o'clock.

The concerts will open with a Faust Overture by Wagner, a work last performed by the Orchestra in 1932.

Following a brief intermission a Faust Symphony in Three Character Pictures, (after Goethe), by Liszt will feature tenor soloist Robert Johnson and the Men's Chorus from the Rackham Symphony Choir, Charles Heard director.

The Faust Symphony represents Liszt's personal, deep and moving impression of Goethe's drama. It is not a symphony in the usual sense; rather the score was developed to fit Liszt's dramatic and poetic needs.

The three characters portrayed are Faust, Gretchen and Mephistopheles. Their musical depiction has been described as being at once moving, romantic, satanic and brooding.

Robert Johnson who makes his debut with the Detroit Symphony at these concerts appeared as soloist in the Liszt work last week with the Cleveland Orchestra, Maestro Ceccato conducting.

Johnson's operatic career includes appearances with the New York City, St. Paul and Palm Beach opera companies and concert credits with leading American orchestras, including those of Chicago, Boston and New York.

Maestro Ceccato will conduct another pair of subscription concerts next week, with world-famous pianist Rudolf Serkin as guest soloist.

Tickets are available for tonight's and Saturday evening's concerts at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, Hudson's and Grinnell's ticket offices.

A limited number of tickets for students and senior citizens go on sale for $1.75 at Ford Auditorium Box Office beginning at 7:45 o'clock concert nights.

Wine Tasting Gala Planned

There's still time to make reservations for the Fontbonne Auxiliary of Saint John Hospital's "A Tasting of Wines," slated for Wednesday, January 30, at 8 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Mrs. Michael Stoyka, 886-3873, and Mrs. Felix Abaldo, 881-6334, are in charge of tickets.

General chairman Mrs. Joseph Impastato promises a gala evening with wines from five countries, wine cookbooks, lots of fine cheeses and fruit.

Tickets are $7.50 per person.

July Bride

July wedding plans are being made by KAREN JAN. SON and James P. Wood, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jan. son, of North Edgewood drive. Mr. Wood is the son of the William Woods, of Ann Arbor.

Windsor Date For Symphony

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra conducted by Guido Ajmone-Marsan will perform at Cleary Auditorium in Windsor as part of the Christian Culture Series this Sunday evening, January 27, at 8 o'clock, (9 o'clock Detroit time).

Dramatic soprano Jeannine Morand will be guest soloist in "Ah! perfido," scena and aria, Opus 65, by Beethoven, and Liebestod from Wagner's Tristan and Isolde.

Miss Morand, a Canadian-born artist who now lives in New York, is making her first appearance with the Orchestra since 1953 when she was soloist at a Windsor concert date.

The program will open with Beethoven's Overture to Fidelio and conclude with Schumann's Symphony No. 4 in D minor.

Ajmone-Marsan who made his conducting debut with the Detroit Symphony at last week's Kresge Omnibus Family Concert holds an assistantship with the London Symphony under Andre Previn.

The young Italian-born conductor is the winner of last season's Sir George Solti Competition for Conductors which drew more than 100 applicants under 30 years of age from throughout the United States.

This season he is fulfilling a variety of guest conducting engagements including appearances before the Orchestra de Paris, the Orchestra of Santa Cecilia in Rome, the Orchestra del Teatro Nuovo in Milan and the Berlin Radio Orchestra.

Navy Hospitalman Apprentice ERNEST G. DIEDOS, son of the EDWARD DIEDOS, of West Doyle place, has completed the Hospital Corps School at Great Lakes, Ill.

the young Kurtzes managed a trip through Spain before returning to the States.

Among Ken's recent publications is an article, "Motivational Lighting For Open Stage Realism," in the November/December issue of Theatre Crafts. Highly technical stuff—by a professional, for professionals. We don't pretend to understand it all.

We would, however, love a look at Ken and Susie's Versailles slides sometime. They brought them along to The Pointe when they dropped by to visit his parents last September, but we, as luck would have it, were out of town.

We're not giving up our rain check, though.

A 100-Candle Cake

The Martin Hawleys deserted McMillan road last weekend, heading west, to Flossmoor, Ill., for the 100th birthday party of Mrs. Hawley's grandfather Edward J. Kantzler.

They took son Rick, a Grosse Pointe South High School student, with them, and stopped off in Ann Arbor to pick up University of Michigan student son Ken. Neither young man was willing to miss this family celebration: after all, it's not every day one's great-grandfather gets a 100-candle cake.

Something For Spring . . . And Fall

Members of the 1974 Christ Church Fair committee gathered for their first meeting last week in the Christ Church Undercroft, and came to an important decision: quality is more important than quantity.

So there'll be fewer booths than ever at next fall's Fair, but the booths that are there will be simply smashing!

Christmas Decorations, Christmas Ornaments, the Country Kitchen and the Paris Table will be back, of course, under the 1974 chairmanships of Mrs. Richard K. Simonds, Mrs. Robert Lees, Mrs. Charles R. Kinnaird and Mrs. Garton Lathrop, respectively.

Mrs. J. Jenness Newcomb is in charge of the Smocked Dresses department. Mrs. Gaylord Gillis, Jr., and Mrs. Alexander Wiener are responsible for the Christmas Books.

A new booth will be Dolls, directed by Mrs. Ray Senkowski, and there are several more booths still to be determined and chairmanship assignments to be made.

In charge of everything is general Fair chairman Judy (Mrs. George, II) McKean, assisted by co-chairman Carole (Mrs. Robert) Blaine.

Fair Preview date this year is Thursday, June 6. That's an important date to remember, for it's the time to special-order personalized items and make sure of stocking stuffers that may be produced in limited supply.

The Fair itself will be presented Thursday, November 7, from 9:30 in the morning to 4:30 in the afternoon, at Christ Church. November 7 sounds like a long way away, you say? Just wait until the spring thaw sets in, and watch those months fly by.

Betrothed

JOAN M. DI GREGORIO and Charles E. Gallagher, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Di Gregorio, of Hollywood avenue, are planning a July wedding.

Joan recently received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from Michigan State University, and is now pursuing graduate studies at Wayne State University.

Charles, also a Pointer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallagher, of Pontiac, received a Bachelor of Science degree from Michigan State University in Criminal Justice. He is currently a Detroit College of Law student.

Start Mothers March Today

When your doorbell rings this week you can bet it won't be the Avon Lady or the newsboy.

Ninety-nine chances out of a hundred it will be one of 20,000 men and women in the Wayne and Macomb County areas who have joined the Annual March of Dimes Mothers' March, running today, Thursday, January 24, through next Thursday, January 31.

Mothers' Marchers are collecting funds to help in the fight against birth defects. They may easily be recognized by their colorful badges and donation kits.

They will be asking for contributions to the March of Dimes which supports more than 100 medical service programs throughout the country.

The Detroit Metropolitan Chapter supports and co-sponsors educational health projects, professional symposiums, grants to Birth Defects Centers located at the University of Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State Universities, two centers at Grand Rapids and the Sickle Cell Detection and Information Center in Detroit.

The 20,000 volunteers involved in this year's March are businessmen, housewives, career women and professional people, but most importantly they are mothers, fathers and grandmothers who are deeply concerned with the health and welfare of babies yet unborn as well as making sure that those children already afflicted are provided with proper care and treatment.

P.E.O. to Mark Founders' Day

Tom Eurich will be featured speaker at the Detroit Area P.E.O. Chapters' annual Founders' Day celebration. The Founders' are to be honored at a 12:15 o'clock luncheon Saturday, January 26, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Mr. Eurich, collector of antique clocks, will give a philosophical and religious talk on time and antique clocks.

Toastmistress for the 105th anniversary fete is Mrs. Peter Econ, chairman of the Detroit Cooperative. She will give the welcome and introduce honor guests and committees.

Greetings from state officers will be given by state president Mrs. F. A. Samuelson, of Jackson. Other state officers attending will be first vice-president Mrs. R. H. Bodine, of Detroit, second vice-president Mrs. H. A. Bennett, of Marquette, state organizer Mrs. S. M. Brandt, and corresponding secretary Mrs. T. R. Tull, of Birmingham.

The program will continue with the Wesley Bell Ringers from Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church, a group of talented high school students under the direction of Jack E. Ellis.

General chairman for Founders' Day is Mrs. Robert Ambrose, of Roslyn road. Committee members include Mrs. Frank Seydler, decorations, Mrs. Ralph Cross, tickets, Mrs. Donald Hirt, printing, Mrs. H. L. Hagman and Mrs. P. L. Nagel, hospitality, and Mrs. Harry Leonard, invitations. All are Pointers.

Mrs. Clarence Roost, of Southfield, is handling publicity.

Founders' Day is sponsored each year by P.E.O.'s Detroit Cooperative which represents 28 chapters from the greater Detroit metropolitan area. There are over 4,421 chapters in the 50 states and six provinces of Canada, with approximately 176,300 active members.

There are also P.E.O. groups on college campuses, in retirement and resort areas, on a military base and in Australia, Belgium, England and Mexico.

Making Final Heart of Gold Selections

Looking for the proverbial Heart of Gold are Pointe members of the Heart of Gold awards council, (left to right), MRS. JAMES PLATH, of Country Club drive, MISS MARY ELLEN TAPPAN, of Alger place, MRS. CHARLES T. FISHER, III, of Lothrop road, and MRS. RONALD BIRGAUER, of Moran road. Members of the council come from women's groups which screen hundreds of nominations for Heart of Gold volunteer awards. Mrs. Plath represents Lawyer's Wives of Detroit, Miss Tappan the Women's Economic Club. Mrs. Birgauer is the Junior League of Detroit representative. Mrs. Fisher is co-chairman for the Awards luncheon, to be held Tuesday, February 12, in Cobo Hall. Barbara Walters of NBC-TV's "Today" show will speak. Tickets are $6.50 from Women for the United Foundation, Woodward avenue, Detroit.

P.E.O. owns Cottey College, a two-year college for women in Nevada, Mo. International Peace Scholarships provide assistance for foreign women to pursue graduate study in colleges in the United States and Canada, then return to their homelands to serve their own people.

P.E.O. has an Educational Fund, a revolving loan that has provided more than $8,000,000 to over 16,000 women seeking financial aid in attaining an education beyond high school. Recipients are not necessarily P.E.O. members.

Volunteers Aid at Saint Clare of Montefalco

Among the many unheralded women's groups in The Pointe area are the Volunteer Mothers of Saint Clare de Montefalco School, whose program is designed to assist faculty and serve students in such areas as art, electives and the library.

Art Mothers act as instructors in a weekly art class. Some participants are former teachers; others simply have a love and talent for art and its teaching.

Their students experiment with oil painting, crafts, lettering and poster-making.

Available only to eighth graders is the special elective program which offers a variety of subjects during the regular art, music and physical education periods. Included, to mention only a few, are typing, Spanish, speech, journalism and sewing.

Barbara Reid, one of the coordinators of the volunteer program, feels the Elective Mothers' work is more than worthwhile. "The electives give the eighth graders a look at what they might be taking in high school."

Saint Clare's students love them—in fact, the seventh graders are asking for a similar program of their own.

Assisting the faculty are Teacher Aides, who help in the technical areas of math and language arts and advise students selecting materials; and Library Mothers who assist the librarian. Students have at least one library period per week in which they can learn library skills and circulate books.

Each classroom also has Room Mothers who act as representatives for the room at certain times. Their activities center upon the lower grades and include party planning and phoning in emergencies—such as last December's snowstorm.

The volunteer program is constantly looking for more participants and more ideas. Saint Clare has always tried to get men to volunteer, but so far male recruitment has not been too successful.

Men willing to give some time to the school's volunteer program would be most welcome.

AOPI Sates Saturday Founders Celebration

Mrs. Watson Ford, Mrs. Martin Hawley, Mrs. Louis Neuder and Mrs. William Wilson are among Pointe members of the Detroit Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi who will serve as hostesses for the sorority's Founders Day celebration this Saturday, January 26.

AOPI alumnae from the greater Detroit area as well as collegiates and alumnae from Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor will gather at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for luncheon at noon.

They will be entertained during dessert by vocal groups from Grosse Pointe South High School under the direction of Leonard Ricelinto.

Following luncheon Mrs. Walter McCain, of Mount Clemens, a past international president of AOPI, will officiate at the program which includes presentation of 50-year pins to two area alumnae and a service commemorating the founding of Alpha Omicron Pi January 2, 1897, at Barnard College, (Columbia University), New York.

Mrs. McCain and Mrs. Hawley were both present at AOPI's 75th birthday celebration held at the sorority's 1973 international convention in Hollywood, Fla., last June.

At that time representatives of the 98 collegiate and 143 alumnae chapters in the United States and Canada heard current results of the philanthropic action initiated at the 1967 convention on Mackinac Island.

At that convention the Arthritis Foundation and The Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society were adopted as international philanthropies of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Through these organizations $63,000 has been given by the sorority as fellowships to qualified people doing research in the field of rheumatoid diseases.

Detroit area alumnae of AOPI have provided the Michigan Arthritis Foundation with funds to purchase special wheelchairs needed for arthritic patients, and all Michigan alumnae and collegiates have aided the MAF in service and fund-raising projects.

OPEN SUNDAY FROM 2 until 5

THIS ONE IS IN PERFECT SHAPE—Two bedrooms on the first floor and a third bedroom with lavatory on the second. 2167 Anita also has a two car garage and recreation room in the basement with plenty of room to party. Come meet Bob Monroe and see this first offering.

DAN LUNDELL WILL BE YOUR HOST at another first offering at 22208 Colonial Court. This brand new colonial has four bedrooms on the second floor. The kitchen is complete with all appliances and the large family room has a fireplace with raised hearth. As new as the year and priced at $59,500.

A SWEETHEART OF A HOUSE and our sweetheart, Marion Combes will be your hostess at 1804 Edmondton. This ranch has three bedrooms and a large bath with tub and stall shower. There is also a lavatory on the main floor and super basement with recreation room and another room which would make an office or fourth bedroom.

NOT MANY three bedroom colonials offering a family room and first floor lavatory appear on the market for LESS than $35,000. Marty Owens will be showing off this scarce item at 21159 Country Club. Check them both out Sunday afternoon.

BY APPOINTMENT PLEASE

THIS ALMOST NEW COLONIAL is also a first offering, and is located on a limited access street near the Hunt Club. It boasts four bedrooms and has a large kitchen with pantry, plus a super family room with fireplace and beamed ceiling. Two additional pluses are the library and a first floor laundry. Save your energy. Call us for more details.

OUT WITH THE OLD, in with the new. And you could be out in the cold if you wait too long before checking out this offering in the City of Grosse Pointe. There are four bedrooms and two baths on the second floor. Third floor has two more bedrooms and a third bath. There is a formal dining room, living room with fireplace, den and first floor den. Minor decorating may be required, but what do you want for $42,500?

SHOULD BE SOLD this week. Only an old timer in the business can remember when you could buy a three bedroom house in this location with a cathedral ceiling in the living room with open rafters, full basement, two car garage, sprung up kitchen and a 1964 price tag of $32,500.

JUST AS BRIGHT inside is this little, yellow colonial with a spanking new kitchen, fresh decorating from top to bottom, yards and yards of new, wool carpeting and perfectly proportioned for a couple or swinging single. Priced to be picked up at $34,000.

THIS TWO-YEAR-OLD Georgian Colonial is one of Grosse Pointe's show places! With five bedrooms, three baths, complemented with two powder rooms, library, and spectacular kitchen, and two family room with natural fireplaces and a wet bar, first floor laundry room; what more could you ask for?

Grosse Pointe Academy Plans Open House Feb. 3

The Grosse Pointe Academy, 171 Lake Shore road at Moran road, will hold an open house on Sunday, February 3, from 2 to 4:30 p.m.

Situated on 22 acres on Lake St. Clair, the Academy serves 525 students from the metropolitan Detroit and surrounding areas in its Early, Lower and Middle Schools. Enrollment encompasses children from ages three to five years in the Early School, grades one through five in the Lower School, and grades six through eight in the Middle School.

The student body and faculty reflect an interesting diversity of religious, racial and ethnic backgrounds. An independent, co-educational school offering a value-centered education in a Christian atmosphere makes the Academy unique in the community.

The Academy's Early School, one of the largest in the nation, offers a fully accredited Montessori program, while the Lower and Middle Schools supplement that approach with a host of other individualized programs. The recognition of individual learning styles make it possible to develop a program for each student which is suited to his needs.

The Open House will feature the full range of Academy activities including classroom demonstrations hosted by the Headmaster, John M. Poplawski, the Assistant Headmaster, Larry L. Reeside, faculty, parents and members of the Board of Trustees.

Area residents and those who have an interest in the educational programs offered at the Academy are invited to attend and tour the campus and the classrooms. Refreshments will be served throughout the day.

Pair of Permits Granted in City

By Nancy Kramer

The Grosse Pointe City Council acted for the interests of better business in two separate instances, at its regular meeting held on Monday, January 21.

The council first considered a revision in site plans proposed for the old Wrigley Supermarket building, located 1740 Mack avenue.

At the October meeting, William Scandalis, property developer, had already received council approval of his plans to convert one section of the building into a franchise type restaurant and construct an office area out of the remaining space.

His original site plans, presented at that time, showed that the builders intended to use split cedar shingles for the roof. But, due to the higher cost of the wood, the developer asked for the council's permission to substitute asphalt shingles instead.

Mr. Scandalis further requested that the council grant him a sign permit. The proposed sign would consist of two parts: One sign 12 by seven feet reading "Ram's Horn Restaurant" with a logo at the top; and another sign measuring eight by three feet to designate the identification of future office tenants.

Mr. Scandalis explained in his request that the signs would be supported by a single free-standing pole located at the northwest corner of the building site. The combined area of both signs would amount to about 216 square feet.

Both of Mr. Scandalis' requests were unanimously granted by the council.

Another appeal for permission to renovate was heard from Drs. Lee Carrick and Myron Barlow, whose office is located at 18056 Mack avenue. Dr. Barlow attended the meeting and presented his site plans to the council.

After explaining their need for additional facilities, Dr. Barlow said that he and Dr. Carrick had purchased the building adjacent to their office, formerly housing the offices of Klefer Realtors, with the intention of developing it for the needed space.

The doctors intend to have the exterior of the building modified to make its appearance the same as the one they presently occupy, complete with planters in the front.

Councilman Alfred Reuther commented that the doctors' plans would certainly provide an improvement over the building's existing appearance and the Council agreed. They therefore unanimously voted in favor of Dr. Barlow's request.

County Shows Off Helicopters

Two Wayne County Sheriff's deputies, both licensed commercial pilots, took police and fire officials, singly, on flights over the county, to demonstrate one of two new helicopters recently purchased by the county through a Federal Government grant.

For about three hours, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Monday, January 21, Patrolmen Robert Michalak and Louis Bryant demonstrated take-off, flight and landing techniques at the Park's Windmill Pointe Park, at the foot of Alter road. The chopper was equipped with rubber-inflated pontoons, which enabled the plane to land on the water and/or dry land.

Participating in the flights in the two-seated copters, were City Superintendent of Public Safety Andrew Teel-aert and Park Police Chief Henry Cooner; Assistant Fire Chief David Taylor of the Park and City Fire Chief Robert Marshall; Farm's Police Lt. Ignatius Bachman and Det. Sgt. George Van Tien, and City Fire Sgt. Gerald Mehl, and other personnel of departments of both communities.

Deputies Michalak and Bryant said that the demonstration was for the purpose of showing what the helicopters can do, and that they are available at any time for water rescue purposes, but mostly for the fighting of crime.

The main purpose of the use of choppers is to prove their worth in helping county law enforcement agencies in the battle against crime.

Michalak and Bryant said that the two copters are being shown to, and demonstration rides given to all law enforcement agencies in Wayne County and that this program will continue for at least six months. If the program proves successful and the choppers show their worth, it is hoped that the Federal Government will allocate a further grant for the purchase of more of the planes.

The helicopters have a 30-gallon gas capacity, and can operate one hour on about 94 gallons of gas. When air bound, the pilots can see within a 50-mile range radius, and when tuned-in to local law agency frequencies, can spot law breakers, whether on foot or in cars, attempting to flee from pursuing police. From the air, the pilots can give the exact location of fleeing persons.

The planes, which have a speed of 108 miles an hour, will be used primarily in the fight against crime, especially during the peak crime hours of 11 a.m. to 3 a.m.

There are five pilots who have undergone flight training, first under Detroit Police Department's Helicopter instructors, then at Northland Helicopter School in Howell, Mich.

The planes were purchased last March, and flight training was begun in May. Each pilot must log at least 200 hours of flight time before they can qualify for commercial flying license.

Michalak and Bryant said that their plane is based at the Mettetal Airport, Jay and Lilly, in Canton Township, and at present their patrol is experimental. They cover Westland, Wayne, Garden City and Inkster, but both choppers and all pilots are available to offer any assistance to any law enforcement agency in the county.

The helicopters are capable of reaching any area in the county, within a matter of minutes and by switching channels can communicate on any frequency, with any county police departments.

North Cagers Boast 10-0 Mark; Set Two Records

By Phil Guastella

Grosse Pointe North's basketball team boosted its record to a remarkable 10-0. Victories over Clintondale and Lakeshore during the week of January 14 did the trick.

At North on Friday, January 18, the Norsemen slaughtered the Dragons of Clintondale, 57-27.

The victory was North's 10th consecutive triumph, a new school record. Defensively, the 27 points surrendered was also a new school record, breaking by five the old mark of 32 points.

Dave Chapman led North in scoring with 18 points. His consistent baskets from the 20-25-foot range started the Norsemen attack.

Clintondale was a victim to a tenacious Norsemen defense and never had a chance.

North played this game without top scorer and rebounder Gerry Humes, who is still recuperating from his injury of two weeks ago. He is expected to play against Roseville Brables on Friday, January 25.

On Tuesday, January 15, North traveled to Lake Shore where they defeated the Shorelans, 56-52.

Again Humes did not play, and his presence would have been appreciated. North lost John Puleo, Dave Chapman, Mark Johnson and Doug Ulmer to fouls. Bob Keppeler and Chip Alexander were the only starters who finished the game.

John Puleo led North with 15 points. Keppeler and Chapman chipped in with 13 and 11 points, respectively.

The game was in doubt until little used forward Jim Everett scored on a pass from Alexander and was fouled. He finished the three point play, and also the hopes of Lake Shore.

Dave Grauer led the Shorelans with 15 points. This was five points under his season average. Keppeler did the job defensively on him.

GPSC Natators Get High Marks

The Michigan AAU published its mid-winter season swimming rankings of the States top age group swimmers last week. Selected among 5,000 age group swimmers in the State the Grosse Pointe Swim Club, under head coach Tim Kennary, had an impressive number in the rankings of the top 10 in each age group.

In the eight and under boys, David Babcock was ranked fifth in the butterfly. The 10 and under girl's rankings show Whitney Semple as a ranking backstroke.

Frances Shook, in 10 and under, is ranked first in the State in breaststroke, and also ranks in the 50 free and the 100 free. Frances also appeared in the top 10 in the 50 and 100 backstroke, and the 100 and 200 IM. Having turned 11 recently, Frances is ranked in breaststroke for girls 11 and 12.

In girls 11 and 12 Julie Eugenio is ranked high in both the 50 and 100 yard freestyle. Tom Shook ranks among the outstanding 11 and 12 boy breaststrokers in the State. In girls 13 and 14 Megan Montagne has top times in the 50 and 100 free and appears second in the 200-yard freestyle. Megan's times in the 100 backstroke and the 200 IM place her among the best.

Pat Hallman's time in the 100 breast put her in the top 10 and Debbie King made the ranking in the 100 freestyle.

For 13 and 14 boys, Shawn Lakin is ranked in the 200 freestyle and Tom Hessburg in the 100-yard breaststroke. Mickey Montagne had the State's best time in 15-17 girls in the 50 and 100 free, the 200 freestyle and the 200-yard backstroke. Mickey also was ranked in the 200 IM, the 100 breast and the 100 fly.

In boys 15 and 17 rankings, Ray Bernard shows good times in the 100 and 200 backstroke. Drew Pillsbury was fourth in the 200 backstroke and Bob Czechowicz's time in the 200 freestyle helped him make the listings.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms MICHIGAN SUMMARY OF THE MINUTES January 14, 1974

A Special Meeting of the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms was held in the City Hall on January 14, 1974, at 8:00 p.m.

Present on Roll Call: Mayor William G. Butler, Councilmen James H. Dingeman, Jack M. Cudlip, Nancy J. Waugaman, Joseph L. Fromm, W. James Mast and E. Rust Muirhead.

Those Absent Were: None.

Mayor William G. Butler presided at the meeting. The Council sat as a Committee-of-the-Whole, for the purpose of hearing the presentation of the developers, Superior Lake Enterprises, for the proposed condominium development of the parcel located at 12 Lake Shore Road, "Rose Terrace"; and further, to hear the comments and recommendations of the citizens who were in attendance and wished to speak about the matter.

Mayor Butler called the formal meeting of the City Council to order at 11:10 p.m.

The Council adopted a resolution to remove from the table, and introduce for discussion, the following matters:

1. Proposed Code No. 12-03, Ordinance No. 196, which would amend the City's Zoning Ordinance to rezone the parcel located at 12 Lake Shore Road from R-1-AA to RM.
2. The proposed renovation of the existing structure from a one-family structure to a multiple-family structure.

The Council enacted Code No. 12-03, Ordinance No. 196, which would amend the City's Zoning Ordinance to rezone the parcel located at 12 Lake Shore Road from R-1-AA to RM, subject to a resolution which would be satisfactory to the Council of all matters pertaining to both off-site and on-site facilities to provide an adequate water supply to the proposed development for both normal and emergency use; the foregoing Ordinance to become effective at such time that the water supply facilities have been determined by the Council to be proper and adequate as aforesaid.

The Council adopted a resolution to approve the proposed renovation of the existing structure located at 12 Lake Shore Road, converting it from a one-family structure to a multiple-family structure, as proposed.

The Council, acting as a Zoning Board of Appeals, granted a variance from the provisions of the City's Zoning Ordinance which provides for a maximum height of thirty feet in the RM District, pertaining to the existing structure located at 12 Lake Shore Road; such structure having the existing height of fifty-six feet.

The Zoning Board of Appeals granted a variance from the provisions of the City's Zoning Ordinance which would permit an aggregate of 192 rooms within the living units; thereby permitting the requested number of 220 rooms to be contained within the proposed living units; the total number of rooms being in excess of the Ordinance provisions due to the height and large number of rooms to be contained in the existing residence.

Further acting as a Zoning Board of Appeals, the Council granted a variance from the provisions of the City's Zoning Ordinance which requires a seventy-five foot setback from the east and south property lines; thereby allowing the proposed construction to project into such setback areas.

The Zoning Board of Appeals denied a variance from the provisions of the City's Zoning Ordinance which requires a seventy-five foot setback from the west property line, for reason that the west property line adjoins a residential area, rather than a community service area which adjoins the east side of the property.

Upon proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 11:45 p.m.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. FEDELE BIANCO, OF WARNER ROAD

By Janet Mueller

There are two kinds of very feminine women. Bessie Bianco is the kind men AND women like. She frankly enjoys luxury: fine furs, beautiful clothes, jewelry. She frankly enjoys being a highly successful businesswoman in her own right. She frankly enjoys being married to a talented, highly successful man.

She frankly enjoys people, and she's a worker, with and for them, from way back.

"With love in the heart, every task becomes easy."

That's Bessie's personal motto.

That says it all. She was born Bessie LaSala, in Detroit. Actually, she was born Brigida LaSala, and she wishes she'd remained a Brigida. Brigida is a perfectly beautiful name.

But it's Bessie she was called, right from the beginning, and try as she might, she's not been able to change Bessie back to Brigida.

Her Only Defeat That's just about the only personal defeat Bessie Bianco has ever accepted.

A child of the Depression, she went to work after high school graduation, armed with a Calculating and Secretarial Institute diploma, a fine, quick mind, a determination to succeed and a determination to use her own success to help her family. (Two sisters and two brothers), succeed.

Edward W. Gunther, an attorney, head of Gunther Investment Company, who knew Bessie's parents, saw in the 15-year-old Miss LaSala an extraordinary drive and an extraordinary craving for knowledge.

He offered to take her into his office and personally train her in the property investment business.

Bessie was off. Her career has included land development and the building of apartments, duplexes and terraces in The Pointe, and commercial real estate such as shopping centers with national triple A tenants.

She has been secretary and treasurer of Royal Flamingo Villas in Boca Raton, Fla., and Central Warehousing Corporation of Florida.

In the manufacturing field, she has served as executive vice-president of the F. A. Neider Company of Augusta, Ky., which supplied airplane parts to the government during World War II.

She's never lost her respect for formal education.

Delta Zeta To Host Monday Card Party

Delta Zeta's slogan for January is "Let's Play Cards for Kids," so on Monday, January 21, at 8 o'clock Delta Zeta and their friends hosted a card party at Harmon School in St. Clair Shores.

Tickets were $2 per person. All proceeds will be donated to handicapped children.

Chairman of the party is Mrs. Joseph Nerone, of Anita avenue. Refreshments and prizes were featured and entertainment was furnished by the Lakeview Bell Ringers.

Among those present were Mrs. Donald Maledon, East Side Delta Zeta Alumnae program chairman, and Pointers Mrs. L. M. Gilewicz, Mrs. William Kamm, Mrs. James Neelands and Mrs. Jonathon Martin.

burg, Chicken Cordon Bleu are some of the delectables. Vegetable and potato accompaniments are available. Order 48 hours ahead by calling 882-0067.

Exclusive In The Village . . . at the Merry Mouse . . . the new Assistance League cook book called Happy Hostess. It's $3.50 and all proceeds go to the Northeast Child Guidance Clinic.

Short and to The Pointe

Airman First Class LINDA L. HENRY, daughter of MRS. PATRICIA J. DEXTER, of Nottingham road, has arrived for duty at the Pentagon. Airman Henry, a communications center specialist in a unit of the Air Force Communications Service who previously served at Kadena Air Base, Okinawa, is a 1966 Grosse Pointe High School graduate.

Recently granted tenure effective in September, 1974, by the Lake Superior State College Board of Control was Professor ROBERT M. MONEY whose wife is the former MARGARET SARAH NIEMETTA, of The Pointe. The Monneys have a son THOMAS and a daughter ELIZABETH.

Elected recently to the Executive committee of the Comprehensive Health Planning Council of Southeastern Michigan was FRANKLIN CARR, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, administrator, Detroit-Macomb Hospital Association.

missionaries in their work with the underprivileged around the world proved so great.

"I couldn't say no."

Typical.

And, typically, Fedele Bianco will assist his wife, designing the PIME party program cover. He has designed a series of beautiful covers for Amf functions.

He's a super sort of person to have around the house.

Handy Around House

He can repair a marble tabletop so you'd never know it had been cracked, paint a floral motif on a piece of furniture to match the flowers in a carpet, create a sculpture out of a collection of old Italian keys.

His paintings and sketches, including two portraits of Bessie, (he's working on a third), hang throughout the Bianco home. They're in good company, with works by Remo Farruggio, Vellano, and various old and new masters.

A personal touch in each of Fedele's pictures is a tiny portrait of Musette, the miniature poodle who was part of the Bianco household for 14 years.

Now Bambolina, named for Musette's favorite toy—"We always used to say: go and get your bambolina (doll)" — is creating her own niche in the family. Musette and Bambolina will appear in Bessie's newest portrait.

Designed Their Home

Bessie lived in Rivard boulevard before she was married, and the Biancos spent 14 years in Sunningdale drive before moving into their present home in Warner road. They designed the house themselves, for themselves, with extra-wide halls and rooms flowing into one another. It's a perfect house for a party.

They filled the rooms with things they love, beautiful things, things with meaning for them. A 15th century

Merry Widow Closes Jan. 26

A party at the Detroit Athletic Club followed the opening night of Michigan Opera Theatre's lavish production of The Merry Widow last Friday, January 18.

The afterglow, open to the public, carried on the spirit of the popular light opera with a Viennese buffet, strolling violinists and music to waltz by. Stars of the show were in attendance.

Symphony Groups Join For Meeting

Women's and Junior Women's Associations Gather at DAC; Program Features Ballet and Announcement of Opus '74 Winners

Most volunteer organizations count themselves fortunate to have one effective drawing card to get members to meetings, but the unprecedented joint meeting of the Women's and Junior Women's Associations for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra had two guarantees of overflow attendance at the Detroit Athletic Club yesterday.

One was a performance of Cesare Pugni's ballet "Grand Pas de Quatre" by Lisabeth Bailey, Holly Doty, Mary Hammel and Lila Jan Miller of the Severo Ballet Company.

The other was announcement of award winners in the Opus '74 Symphony fundraising event.

Sponsor Lejart Ballet Evening

A marvelous theater evening is in store for The French Festival of Detroit, Inc. Mrs. Warren S. Wilkinson, of Woodland place, has arranged for dinner at the Stroh Haus preceding Maurice Lejart's Ballet of the 20th Century at the Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts next Monday, January 28.

This Belgium-based ballet company, termed the most exciting young modern dance company in the world, has both mass and youth appeal. Its performances have been called spectacular, fantastic, sensuous and sensual.

Tickets for the special evening are still available at $12 per person including dinner, bus transportation to the Music Hall and theater ticket. Mireille Wilkinson, 882-8848, has more information.

Vincenzo Bianco's exquisitely detailed pen sketches of fish, birds and animals, done for an Italian Encyclopedia, framed in groups and hanging next to Fedele and Bessie's breakfast room table.

Warm, Happy House

It's a happy house. It knows its owners love it. It's a bright house, multi-windowed, warm and welcoming, made to catch the sunshine.

"I love to sing," says Bessie Bianco. "I'm not at all a singer, but I seem to keep humming and singing."

Optimists tend to make happy sounds.

"I believe that a person can literally talk himself into a negative, destructive state of mind, that a common fear of many people is fear: 'I can't do this; this is too much for me.' I believe that negative thinking brings bad luck."

"I believe that if you think positively, and work hard you can't help but succeed at whatever you choose to do."
