DROWNING TRAGEDY AVERTED

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, January 31
RICHARD NIXON, addressing Congress, government leaders and the nation in his State of the Union speech, vowed to finish his full term as President and called for an end to the Watergate investigations. Leaving Watergate affairs to the close of his speech, the president directed many of his remarks to the energy crisis, announcing that Arab leaders are soon to meet for consideration of lifting the oil embargo.

Friday, February 1
WHOLESALE GASOLINE PRICE INCREASES, ranging from 2.6 to 5.4 cents a gallon, and allocation cuts from major oil companies have caused a spokesman for 2,200 Michigan gas stations to express fear that buyers will panic and stations will be forced to close earlier, since the increase will be passed along to the consumer. Oil suppliers have told dealers their supplies of gasoline for the month of February will be cut to 80-85 percent of what they were during February 1972.

Saturday, February 2
NEW GOVERNMENT RELEASED UNEMPLOYMENT FIGURES may foreshadow a recession, Julius Shiskin, head of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said. The number of jobless Americans posted the steepest monthly increase in four years during the month of January because of the energy crisis and fuel shortages. The Labor department reports unemployment rolls up from 4.8 to 5.2 percent of the total work force in the U.S., reflecting the loss of 370,000 jobs.

Sunday, February 3
ENERGY CHIEF WILLIAM SIMON and three Cabinet members have appealed by telegram to the governors of all 50 states for their "personal assistance to restoring order and commerce" with regard to the national trucking situation. The group termed the shutdown by independent truckers a "serious threat to the nation's economic well-being and safety." In this State, scattered incidents of violence were reported Saturday, including beatings, vandalism and gunfire, as the truckers' protest over rising diesel fuel prices spread.

Monday, February 4
THE STATES OF PENNSYLVANIA AND OHIO have called up National Guardsmen to deal with the violence resulting from the independent truckers' shutdown that has spread across more than 20 states. In spite of a possible food shortage that could come in the wake of the strike, truckers' spokesmen are insisting they will not put their rigs back on the road until they receive assurances of lower prices for diesel fuel, and a guarantee that higher fuel costs can be passed along to the trucking companies on a dollar for dollar basis.

Tuesday, February 5
THE INDEPENDENT TRUCKERS' STRIKE over rising diesel fuel prices could launch a major recession because of its effect on industry across the nation. The three biggest automobile manufacturers have all announced plant closings due to critical parts shortages. Major food chains are running short of supplies and gas stations, unable to get their monthly allotments, are being forced to close down. In spite of the fact that the strike was planned as a venture only by independent truckers, they have effectively curtailed much truck activity with outbreaks of violence and damage directed toward union truckers who continue to operate.

Shores Officers Form Scuba Corps

Practicing for a dive into Lake St. Clair are three Shores public safety officers who recently took a scuba diving course at South Lake High School. Starting from the right, OFFICER BRUCE DARLINGTON helps OFFICER JOHN FRASARD put on a wet suit, while OFFICER MICHAEL KENYON adjusts the air tank. Looking on is Shores CHIEF JOSEPH VITALE (standing) and Shores scuba diver LEON SEHOYAN. The men are prepared to make their "dive" which will earn them scuba diver certification. Coupled with the life saving training they received at the police academies, the officers stand ready to help avert any future Lake St. Clair tragedies. Not pictured is Officer Archie Grieve who also took the scuba diving course.

Study of Woods Law Continues

Council Committee on Proposed Outside Boat Storage Ordinance Makes Progress

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods Council's Parks and Recreation Committee which includes Councilmen Ronald R. Kefgen, chairman, Conrad A. Naegel and George S. Freeman, held several meetings last month exploring changes to the city's proposed ordinance which provides for the regulation of the outside storage of boats, various trailers, (boat, utility, travel, house), and other recreational equipment. This measure, which has been a thorn in the sides of many residents, is currently under study by the Committee of the Whole. It has been under scrutiny for over one and a half years and was referred to the C-W last December 17. At the same time, Mr. Kefgen was authorized to meet with citizens to discuss ways towards improving the ordinance. Have "Package" After meeting with members of the "Grosse Pointe Woods Recreational Vehicle Owners Association" Thursday, January 10, Mr. Kefgen conferred with his committee colleagues to consider suggestions. Four Shores Officers Take Scuba Diving Course in Effort to Save Lives

Public Safety Director Vitale Proud of His Men for Volunteering for Class; Valuables Lost in Lake Also Can Be Recovered Via Detection Equipment

By Kathy Duff
A group of four Shores public safety officers, concerned about recent fatalities in Lake St. Clair, decided to do something about it. They enrolled in a scuba diving course offered at South Lake High School this winter to learn the fundamentals of diving. For most persons, scuba diving is a challenging sport, but for police officers, it can make the difference between life and death of lake victims. Along with the life saving training the officers received at the police academies, their scuba diving certificates will enable them to be a marine rescue unit. "The timing is critical," commented Leon Sehoayan, a Shores resident who has been called upon four times to pull bodies from Lake St. Clair. "Seconds can make a difference. Since the Shores were not equipped to send divers into the lake, they had to call on me. Now they have their own men they can radio to make rescues. I think it's great that the men volunteered to take the scuba diving course." Courageous Action The course at the St. Clair Shores high school ran 10 weeks, meeting four hours a session. Participating in the program are John Frasad, Bruce Darlington, Michael Kenyon and Archie Grieve, who will supply their own scuba gear, although the Shores paid each officer's $50 enrollment fee. The last lake fatality was on Sunday, October 28, when a car driven by a 52-year-old St. Clair Shores man shot over the Lake Shore breakwall and plunged into the water. One of the officers who later took the scuba course was at the scene. Officer Darlington. He threw off his hat and gun belt and dove into the choppy water capped with four and five foot waves. G. P. Artists Give $2,500 For Facility

Association Donates Money for New Wing at the War Memorial

By Kathy Duff
To get the ball rolling, the Grosse Pointe Artists Association has donated $2,500 to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for a new art wing. "There has always been the need for such a facility here," Mrs. Stanley Dolega, chairman of the drive, commented. "We are hoping to build on a small wing to house studios and exhibition area." Mrs. Dolega, who is a charter member of the 100-artist strong association, should know about Grosse Pointe and its artistic needs. For six years in a row, she has acted as chairman of the annual Art Festival held at the War Memorial in September. She has watched it grow from a sleepy art show to a festival where over 160 artists clamor for exhibit space every year. Happy Over Project John Lake, director of the War Memorial, is also excited about the project. "We have an excellent art faculty who offer a variety of classes every year. But the facilities, well, they're lousy. Most of the classes are held in either basement or attic rooms." Asked where the new wing would be placed, Mr. Lake suggested that it be placed on the left side of the Alger House, as a person faces the entrance door. "Placing the wing there would add to the symmetry of the building, because there is the long portico to the right of the building." The director also mentioned the possibility of having an artist in residence, as does Cranbrook. "It would be a great addition to the community," Mr. Lake said. Neither Mr. Lake or Mrs. Dolega has an exact estimate for what the new wing will cost. "Several years ago, the Artists Association proposed a similar project," Mrs. Dolega said. "At that time, the cost of a small wing was estimated at $60,000. But everyone knows how much construction costs have gone up in the past few years, so we are waiting to see the response from the community before we set our goal." Need Support The Artists Association is hoping to donate an additional $2,500 by the country's bicentennial in 1976. Since the (Continued on Page 2)

Four Pointe Municipal Offices to Close Feb. 18

All Pointe municipal offices will be closed on Monday, February 18, except The Park in celebration of Washington's Birthday, a national holiday. All banks and post offices will also be closed. Although Washington's Birthday normally falls on February 22, several years ago Congress enacted a change, whereby the birthday of the Father of Our Country, and all other national holidays, shall be celebrated on the Monday preceding the holiday. At its meeting on Monday, February 4, The Farms Council announced its municipal offices will be closed on February 18, and the regular meeting for that night be postponed to Monday, March 4, to be held at 8 p.m.

Long, Lost Pin Awaits Owner

More than 40 years ago, John A. Sawinski, 74, of 318 Kercheval Avenue, found a sorority, or a fraternity pin, near the old Renmore Golf Course which has long since been subdivided into a residential area with home construction. The area, today, would be roughly between Renaud and Oxford on Mack Avenue. Sawinski said he found the pin, perhaps about 1932 or 1933, and took it home with the intention of trying to find the owner. He placed the item in his jewelry box and forgot all about it until he was "rummaging" through the box for sentimental reasons, and discovered the long forgotten pin. The face of the pin bears the Greek letters Sigma Delta Kappa on a black background. It is wide on top and narrow at the bottom. Atop the pin are six very tiny little cultured pearls. Inscribed on the back is the person's name with the date 5-5-28. Beneath this is inscribed AA-32. Sawinski said it could be that the owner is dead, or has moved, or perhaps some relative, friend or classmate of the owner might know to whom the pin belongs. He can be reached at his address, or by calling TU. 5-7848. If a claimant can provide positive proof that the pin is his, or hers, he, or she, may have it. (Continued on Page 8)

Pointe Officials Discuss Ways To Assist FLEC

Financially Troubled Organization Hopes for Community Aid; Each City to Study Problem Before Reaching Decision

Pointe city officials are currently studying ways to help the financially troubled Family Life Education Council, (FLEC), which is seeking monetary aid for its programs. In an effort towards assisting FLEC, a meeting was held Wednesday, January 30, in The Woods Municipal Building between FLEC representatives and local officials. FLEC's plight was thoroughly discussed at that time but no final action was taken by the city managers. Each will report to his own council and it will be up to each body to explore possible ways of aiding the organization. Could Close Shop FLEC representatives have already appeared before all Pointe city councils and the Harper Woods city council. At the January 30 session, Dr. John H. Williams, president, James Blean, assistant finance committee chairman and member of the FLEC board of directors, and Pat Horne, executive secretary, further explained the council's situation. Assessing FLEC's current problems, Mr. Blean said the council ran a $7,000 deficit as of last December 31. "In the event we are unable to receive support, we will continue on as far as we can with what funds we can put together. If we do not receive increasing support from the community, we will simply have to close up shop." Mr. Blean stated FLEC has six months of funds left, (an estimated $30,000 to $35,000 in reserve). "Is FLEC a viable, needed organization?" questioned Mr. Blean. "Is it needed in the community? If so, we must find a way to fund it." He felt if each community had to provide the services FLEC offers, it would be very costly to them. It was his opinion the municipalities could contract FLEC's services. "The communities could purchase this kind of service for the citizens of the overall community." Mr. Blean added he hasn't heard from any municipality as yet regarding their plans, (as of Monday afternoon, February 4). When FLEC "reps" appeared before each council last December and this January, they said their operating budget is $52,000. They requested 50 percent of that budget on a matching basis from the Pointes and Harper Woods. Get! Ball Rolling This meeting was initiated by Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and City Administrator Chester E. Petersen when FLEC's case was presented last December 17 before a sympathetic Woods Council. (Continued on Page 2)

Lake Drama Attracts Big Crowd

Dog Falling into Lake Starts Chain of Events Resulting in Farms Policeman Saving Firefighter

By James J. Njaim
Approximately 200 people gathered in front of 275 Lakeshore road on Sunday, February 3, to watch the rescue of a German Shepherd dog, and the near-drowning tragedy of a Farms police officer and a Farms fireman while the rescue attempt was in progress. The dog was pulled from the icy lake water and taken to an animal hospital, while the policeman and fireman were rescued by several spectators. The officer, Sgt. Marvin Krebs, and Firefighter William Brown slipped on the icy, jagged breakwall concrete. The sergeant suffered a back injury as he nearly went over the breakwall, while the fireman plunged over the breakwall and through one and a half inches of ice into the water. Saves His Life While Brown was struggling to stay above water and fighting for breath because of the icy impact, Krebs, in spite of his injured back, and nearly being over the edge of the breakwall, wrapped his legs around Brown and prevented him from going under. Several spectators went to the aid of Krebs and Brown. They grabbed hold of Krebs, braced themselves and pulled. Krebs kept his legs wrapped tenaciously around Brown. As he was being pulled, Krebs, who was still on his back, was dragged over the jutting edges of the broken, icy concrete and, in the process, felt something snap in his back. In spite of the agony of pain, Krebs kept his legs locked around Brown until the fireman was helped over the breakwall by willing hands. Brown was none the worse for the dunking. High Praise At the station, Krebs, unable to stand erect, was conveyed to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of the back injury. The extent of the injury is not known, but the sergeant is now at home rest. (Continued on Page 2)

Millage Rate To Be Aired

Dr. Theos I. Anderson, superintendent of schools, will make his recommendations for the upcoming millage election at a public hearing Monday night, February 11, at 8 p.m. in 329 St. Clair Avenue. This year, 21.5 mills will be expiring, and the School Board is expected to ask for 24.35 mills for the coming year, an increase of 2.85 mills. Dr. Anderson said the increase would improve the staffing ratio, (the number of school professionals per 1,000 students), and would cover the teacher salary increases negotiated in the new contract. If the millage rate were passed, vocational education would be increased, and data processing services would be improved. A program for the trainable mentally retarded would return to The Pointe whereas now the students are bussed into Detroit for their training. As far as the Building and Site Fund, $50,000 would be earmarked in 1974-75, and $75,000 would be added in 1975-76. The library is again on a separate ballot, asking .10 mills, .05 mills above their present .14 mills. "These are the recommendations which will be considered, but it is a public meeting and all views will be taken into account," Dr. Anderson said.

School Board, Woods Settle Parking Lot Quibble

The Board of Education and The Woods have come to an agreement over the licensing of the parking lot at Grosse Pointe North High School. Commenting on the issue, which had been brought to a head when The Woods filed a complaint against the school system, Douglas West said that the accord signified a period of renewed good relationships between the School Board and The Woods. A letter of agreement, drafted by Mr. West, who is the attorney for the School Board, was signed Monday night, January 28, by Board President Robert Warner and Secretary Joan Hanpeter. It will be forwarded on to The Woods Council for signing, after which it will become a binding document for both parties. Some of the provisions of the agreement are as follows: That the Board will not be required to make capital expenditures for the improvement of the parking lots, such as hard-surfacing, installation of lights, drains, fences and barriers, as long as the lots stay in their state of good condition. That the Board will continue its policy of hiring employees to serve as attendants when the lots are filled to capacity or near capacity. That the Board will make available for overflow parking, (resulting from special school events), the adjacent (Continued on Page 8)

Brown went to the fire station where he removed his wet clothes, dried himself and donned a dry uniform and remained on duty until the change of shift Monday morning, February 4, with a comment from Fire Chief Michael Beaupre that the worst that could happen to the fireman is he might catch a cold.

As for Krebs, Police Chief Robert Ferber had the highest praise for the officer.
He said Krebs will be recommended for a citation for his heroic act.

"There is no equation between saving the life of a human being and saving the life of an animal," the chief said, "although both are brave, meritorious acts. Saving the life of an animal is a humane thing, but in the main, human life should come first.

"These two men, and another police officer, Patrolman Vincent Peters, who luckily was not hurt in any way, were not concerned with the possible danger to themselves, but were intent on saving the dog. The animal was trying desperately to get out of the icy water by trying to climb on the ice, but fell back in because the ice was too thin."

Spot Animal

Krebs and Peters were dispatched to the area in front of 275 Lakeshore, when a call was received from John Roney, of 414 Kercheval, who was passing by and noticed the animal struggling in the lake about 60 feet out from the breakwall.

Krebs and Peters tossed a round life preserver to the animal, which managed to get the front part of its body through the hole, keeping it afloat.

At the Crescent Sail Yacht Club, two unknown men, using a dinghy, rowed on the water, breaking the ice as they paddled to the dog's rescue.

In the meantime, Krebs and Peters slowly pulled the buoy toward the breakwall.
Brown went to the edge of the breakwall to retrieve a fire truck ladder. He slipped and fell on the ice, which broke under his weight, falling into water over his head.
The sergeant went to his assistance and he, too, slipped on the icy slabs and landed on his back.

Expresses Gratitude

As Brown struggled to keep his head above water, gasping for breath, Krebs, in pain from his injured back, slid slowly to the edge of the breakwall. Hanging precariously over the edge, he wrapped his legs around the fireman.

The men in the boat reached the German Shepherd, hauled him aboard and took him to a landing at the Crescent Sail Yacht Club where an unknown person furnished blankets to wrap around the animal.

One of the spectators,
Heidi Schneider, of 419 St.
Clair, took the dog to the Harvey Animal Hospital, 18479 Mack avenue, where at last report, it was none

the worse for the dunking.
It is believed the dog,
whose owner is not known, jumped off the breakwall and walked out on the ice. It fell through when the thin ice could not bear its weight.

Brown expressed his gratitude to Krebs for saving his life, stating that if it was not for the sergeant, he might have drowned.

Discuss Ways to Aid FLEC

At that time, City Attorney George Catlin told the sons they had no authority, legally, to appropriate tax monies to FLEC. So, Mr. Pinkos suggested that Mr. Petersen explore the possibility of such a meeting to discuss what could be done, if anything, to assist FLEC. After
Mr. Petersen talked with Dr.
Williams, the parley date was then set.

Mr. Pinkos said all of the communities are sympathetic to FLEC and its problems, and each will have to come up with some ideas and a basic evaluation of their services "to determine whether their services are not duplicated by another governmental agency."

Continuing, the mayor said
it's possible that Wayne County does, in effect, render similar services but he wasn't certain about the extent of this. "FLEC renders a positive good to the community" but he didn't know how much of this "good" may be duplicated.

Finally, he said no positive decision will be made until a complete evaluation of the problem transpires. Mr. Pinkos added Mr. Petersen will make a comprehensive report on the matter and, from that, "we will make our decision."

More But Less
Park City Manager Robert
A. Stone, a member of FLEC's board of directors, said each city manager will discuss the FLEC question with his own council to see what can be done regarding assistance.

ping of services," e.g., what Wayne County has to offer.

Mr. Stone added he was told by FLEC representatives that more people are contributing to the organization but they are not giving as much.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach of The City said this about the meeting:
"Basically it was just a careful review and study with FLEC representatives and representatives of all the Pointes."

He also noted, "Most of the communities still want to look at the problem individually before they take any action."

Shores Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jeffers said he's waiting to see what action the other communities take, while Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., stated he had no comment on the session.

Many Programs

In a letter to The Woods Council at the time of FLEC's presentation, Dr.
Williams said, "FLEC has been in operation through the generous contributions from individuals and groups, but contributions are diminishing and costs are rising."

"This year, (1973), we are running at a deficit, and the programs will have to be curtailed if additional support is not forthcoming."

FLEC's many programs include: (1), Counseling for families with troubled youth; (2), Counseling for drug problems; (3), Opportunities for volunteer service; (4), Crisis intervention; (5), V.D. testing and treatment, and (6), Information and referral for a variety of social service needs.

Those attending the January 30 meeting included Mr.
Pinkos, Mr. Petersen, Mr.
Stone, Park Mayor Matthew
C. Patterson, Mr. Kressbach, Mr. Jeffers, Mr. Bremer, and Harper Woods Mayor Joseph P. Grossel and Councilman Leo F. Weinert.

Association is a non-profit organization, only a minimal amount is cleared every year through dues and the annual art festival.

"In past years, we have always returned our profits to the community, by offering well-known speakers at the War Memorial or providing art scholarships. However, we put aside the initial $2,500 to start the funds for the art wing, and we hope to add $2,500 more in the next two years," Mrs. Dolega said.

Before an art wing becomes a reality at the War Memorial, great support will have to come from the community. But judging by the support Pointers have given the art festivals and the War Memorial art classes, it's hoped that the money can be raised.

Mrs. Dolega is chairman of Designing fresh concepts in stripes is a creative challenge which Countess Mara meets with brilliance.

Our collection includes both one-inch and two-inch stripes, each in combinations of two or three shades... twenty variations in all.

Faultless in taste, peerless in craftsmanship. Best of all, a moderate yet up-to-date shape that ties neatly and easily. Three and one-half inch width ideal for conservative knots.

Thieves entered a Roslyn road home and took a variety of photographic equipment, among other items. The burglary was reported to Shores police early Sunday morning, February 3.

The photographic goods, all of unknown value, include a Nikkon 35mm camera, three camera cases, four Nikkor camera lenses, (50mm, 24mm, 135mm, micro F3.5), a Tamron zoom lens and three flash units.

Other missing articles include a stereo player, a TEAC tape recorder, a ladies ring with an emerald center stone surrounded by gold rubies in a gold setting and a leather gadget bag. The value of these items is unknown at this time.

The culprits also snatched some money: $180 in cash from a wallet, $20 in cash from a purse and $10 in silver dollars and John F. Kennedy half dollars.

Entry was gained by forcing a sliding door at the southeast side of the home.

The resident told officers he and his wife left the house around 7:20 p.m. on Saturday, February 2, and returned shortly after 1 a.m. on the 3rd to discover the break-in. At least two sets of footprints were discovered by police in the snow at the rear of the residence. The citizen said there were definitely no tracks in the yard earlier that day.

Woods Okays ULS Carnival

The Woods Council unanimously approved a request from University Liggett School Headmaster Raymond P. Robbins for ULS's summer Carnival and Antiques Show, subject to the approval of plans by The Public Safety Department.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, January 21.

The Carnival, which will be held on the University Campus, Cook road, is scheduled for Friday-Saturday, June 7-8. The dates for the Antiques Show, which will be held on the Liggett Campus, Briarcliff drive, are Thursday-Saturday, June 13-15.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Cobane are Carnival chairmen, while Mrs. Harold Frank is chairman of the Antiques Show.

Shores Police Concerned Over Traffic Accidents

By Roger A. Waha

The Shores Department of Public Safety is concerned over the amount of traffic accidents which occurred in the village last month.

Twelve accidents took place, four of which were injury mishaps. This compares to five motor vehicle accidents in January 1973. In fact, there were only 58 accidents in The Shores all last year, a substantial decline from 1972's total of 80.

After carefully studying last month's accident picture, the department feels the major reason for this total is simply pure carelessness on the parts of motorists. None were the result of, for example, deficiencies in the roadways, it's reported.

"The people failed to drive with care and caution, and neglected to be very observant. The accidents mainly happened because of driver neglect," the department reported. "There's nothing the public safety department can do under this type of circumstance."

In reviewing the accidents, which occurred at different locations in the community, the department focused upon the overall concentration of motorists.

Two accidents happened when motorists backed out of driveways and into autos — one was parked and the other was moving along the right-of-way. Two others occurred when tired drivers apparently lost control of their cars and blasted into Edison poles.

Another found a motorist, while attempting to turn into a private drive, being struck by an auto trying to pass on the right. Yet another driver, following too close, was caught short when the car in front quickly stopped and, yes, you guessed it.

While traveling along Lake Shore, a motorist apparently failed to completely make a curve and "greeted" a light pole. Finally, a man believed to be speeding lost control of his vehicle and crashed into two trees.

While citing these various examples from the dozen accidents, the department noted the safety programs put out by the State and the Automobile Club of Michigan, to name two, are good ones.

But it's up to all motorists to consistently practice what such programs preach or else it will be . . . crunnech.

OKAY APPOINTMENTS

The Woods Council at the regular meeting Monday, January 21, unanimously reappointed Robert Trinklein and Philip Patanis to the Planning Commission for a three-year term expiring January 1, 1977. The solons also unanimously appointed Richard N. Peters to the Insurance Commission for a three-year term expiring January 1, 1977.

Petrie Given Third Stripe

Park Police Corporal Charles Petrie was promoted to the rank of sergeant, effective as of Thursday, January 31, after serving 18 months in the lower rank.

His promotion was made possible because of the recently ratified contract between the city and the Department's Sergeants Association. It comes six months ahead of schedule under the terms of the agreement.

Under the old contract, a police officer promoted to corporal serves one year of probation and one year more before reaching the higher rank, with corresponding pay. The new sergeant had served on various assignments including more than two years in the Detective Bureau; it was disclosed by Lt. Gordon Duncan, before he was made a corporal in the Uniform Division on August 1, 1972, serving as a division commander.

The sergeant, a native of Detroit, and a 1957 graduate of Detroit's Denby High School, was appointed to the department on March 22, 1964, as a probationary patrolman.

He is married to the former Roberta Donna Rennie of The Woods. The couple, who reside in The Woods, are the parents of Donald, 11, and Stacia, 10, both University-Liggett School students.

Set Pre-Trial for 2 Suspects

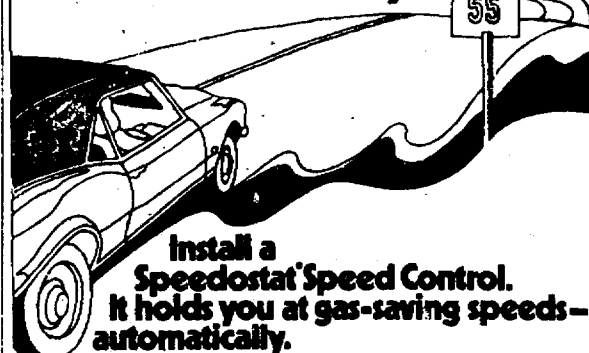

A pre-trial conference will be held Thursday, February 14, for a 19-year-old Detroit man and a 26-year-old Detroit woman, both of whom are charged with two counts of larceny, reported Woods police.

This date was scheduled at the Wayne County Circuit Court arraignment of Walter Durand Trombly and Sadie Mae Harris. They are charged with larceny over $100 on the first count and larceny in a building on the second count.

Both allegedly took numerous wrist watches from Bob's Drug Company, 21034 Mack Avenue, on Monday evening, November 26. The suspects were nabbed the same day by police, who then confiscated the watches and plastic watch containers.

How to keep from going over the speed limit — even accidentally.

Install a Speedostat Speed Control. It holds you at gas-saving speeds — automatically.

In these gas-short, lower speed days, Speedostat is as important an accessory as you can have on your car. It will hold your car at a constant speed, uphill and down. Merely accelerate to the desired speed, press a button, take your foot off the pedal, and Speedostat takes over. To disengage it, step on the brake. If you must speed up, step on the accelerator. Lift your foot and Speedostat automatically returns the car to the pre-determined speed. Speedostat pays off in fuel saved, money saved (gas prices are out of sight), and safer, more relaxed driving.

Think Tank

We're sure that by now you've had it up to there with talk about the energy crisis. We have, too. So what do you say we both do something about it?

Let's go on a gas diet. The American Automobile Association (AAA) has asked its sixteen-million members across the country to voluntarily cut gas usage by twenty-five percent to avoid gas rationing. As part of this national effort, we're asking you and all Michigan drivers to join in.

We're not suggesting that we starve ourselves to the point of stalling. On the contrary. Let's keep traveling by trimming away excess gasoline usage. (Cut down, so to speak, on galories.)

Think Tank. That's what Think Tank is all about: Sharing ideas so that together we can save enough gas to avoid rationing. We'd like you to think more about your gas tank and come up with as many gas saving ideas as you can. Send them to us and we'll share them with everyone else.

Six tips you might be tankful for.

To get us started here are some gas saving ideas:

1. Use a light touch. Drive your car like you had an egg between your foot and the gas pedal. Try not to break the egg.

2. Look ahead for ways to gently slow your car without using the brake pedal.
3. Drive 55 mph or less.
4. Plan ahead to make shopping trips in a straight line without doubling back or crossing your own path.
5. Make sure your car is tuned-up and tires are properly inflated.
6. Join a car pool.

Now send us your ideas. Most of our ideas you've already heard. Send us yours. (Don't be shy, now. The idea that just popped into your head has probably never been thought of before.) We'll send you a Think Tank bumper sticker and membership card to prove you're doing your part to avoid gas rationing.

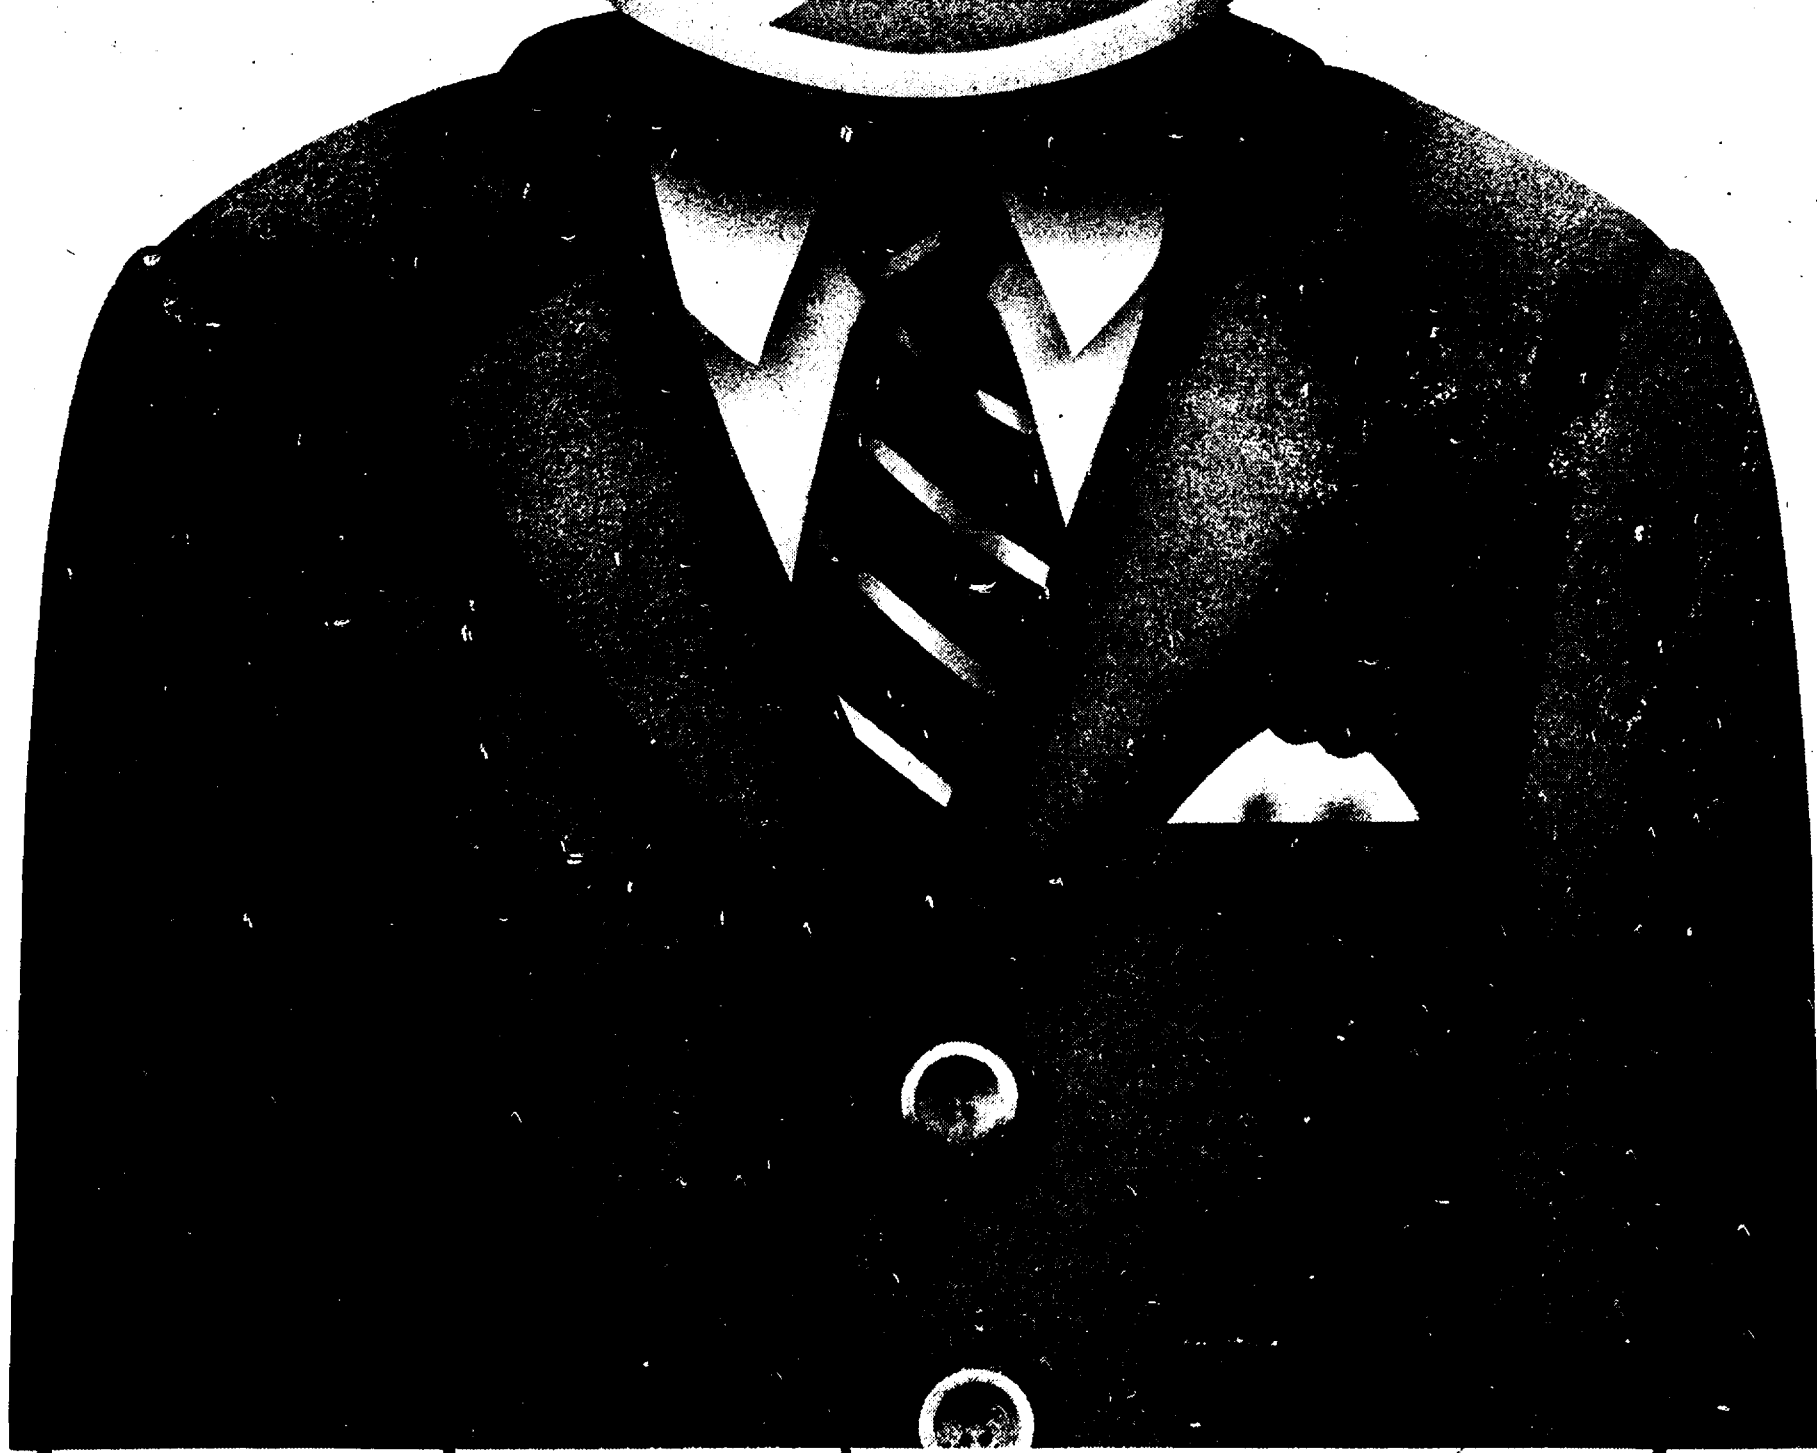

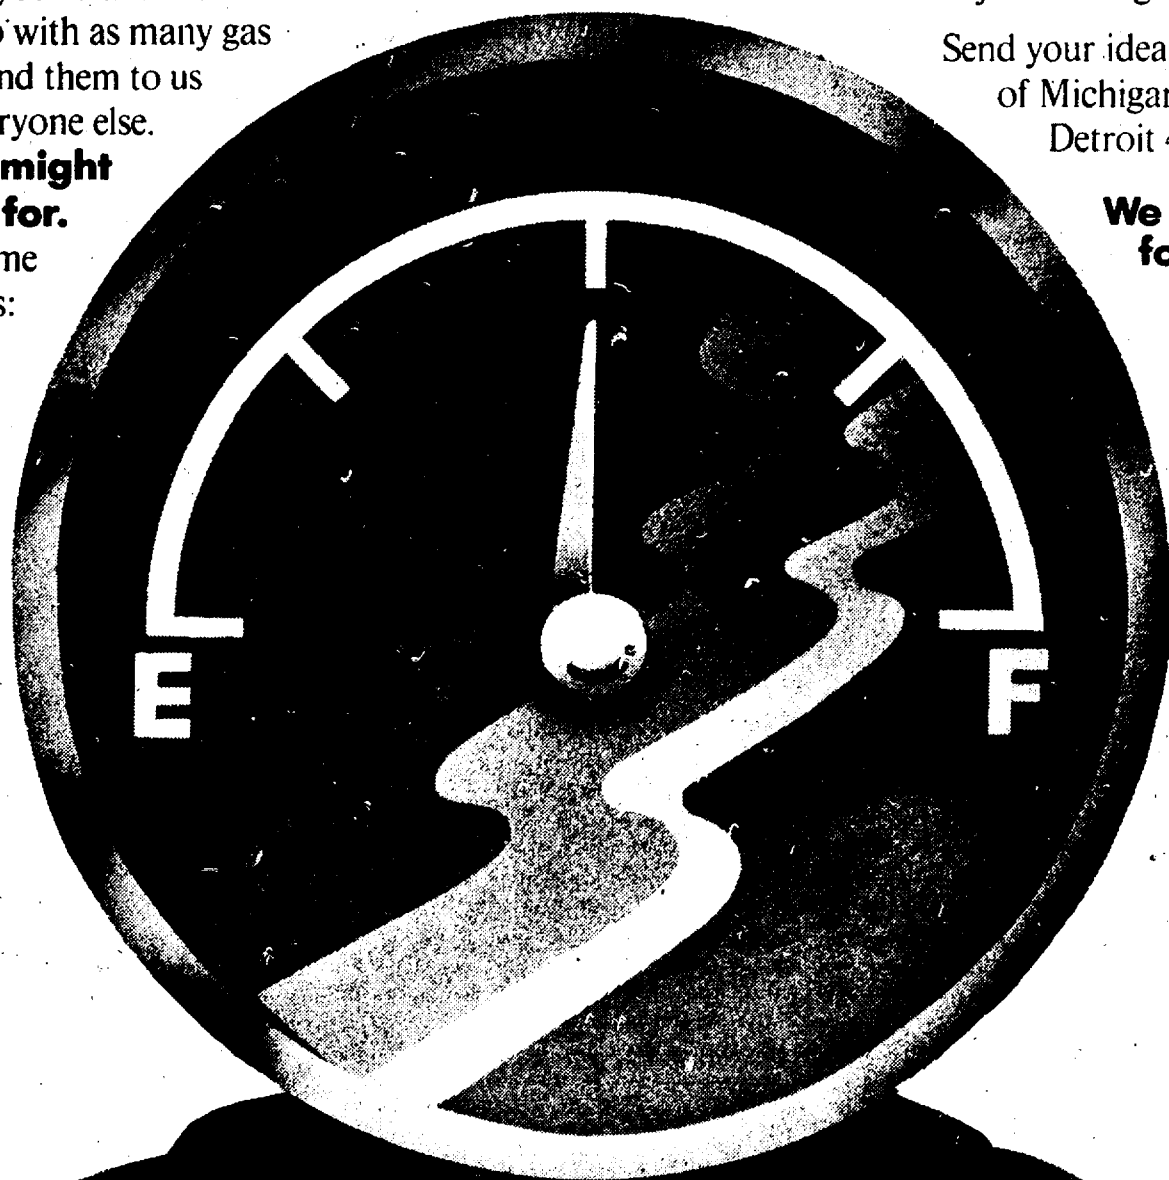

Where to send them. Your ideas can concern anything from camping vehicles to power mowers—just so long as they save gas.

Send your ideas to the Automobile Club of Michigan, 150 Bagley Ave., Detroit 48226.

We want to do more for you.

Study Request To Back Bill

A request from the Michigan Returnable Coalition, urging the support of House Bill 4926 via a resolution, was unanimously referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study by The Woods Council at the regular meeting Monday, January 21.

The bill, if adopted, would require minimum deposits upon beverage containers of at least 10 cents and would encourage the use of returnable beverage containers.

Several citizens spoke against the bill at the meeting. One man felt the bill was discriminatory and said people haven't used the means at hand to solve or minimize the litter problem, i.e., containers. This citizen, who works for The American Can Company, said passage of the bill would put "them out of business."

Another man emphasized, "Cans and bottles don't make trash. People make trash." Yet another citizen stressed education and the enforcement of anti-littering laws are what is needed.

Whatever the councilmen do on this subject, they already know the opinions of some citizens.

The Michigan Returnable Coalition is a statewide organization composed of environmental, farm and labor groups who are urging support for the house bill.

Pay Contract Decision Near

A final decision is expected either this week or next week by the three-member arbitration panel towards settling the dispute between the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Officers Association, (GPW-POA), and the city on the 38-member association's two-year contract, (from July 1, 1973, to June 30, 1975).

Two meetings were held this month, one on Friday, February 1, and the other on Monday, February 4. Arbitration panel member Frederick G. Hornfisher, Woods City Comptroller - Assessor, said the panel members must sign the final papers at a meeting "later in the week or the first part of next week." At that time, specific information on the contract will be released.

Other panel members include Leonard Page of the UAW, who's representing the GPWPOA and the mutually agreed upon party, Richard Block, panel chairman, who was appointed by the Department of Labor, Employment Relations Commission. Mr. Hornfisher is representing the city.

DREAM HOT RODS

Eight Pierce students in Art have entered work in the Michigan Hot Rod Association's "Draw Your Dream Car" contest. There is a $200 cash prize for the overall winner. The school certainly hopes a Pierce wins it.

To Receive Eagle Awards

MARK BAUHOF, (left), and GREG SPANGLER, (right) will be presented the Eagle Award at Boy Scout Troop 74's Annual Banquet and Court of Honor Thursday, February 7, in the Fries Ballroom of The War Memorial.

Over 100 scouts and guests are expected to honor Mark and Greg, the last scouts in Troop 74 to become Eagles under the Boy Scout's old achievement program.

Approximately 30 other scouts will be recognized for their achievements at the same time, but are progressing toward Eagle under new rules.

Mark and Greg's scouting story followed much the same path throughout their years with Troop 74. Both entered Boy Scouts soon after reaching age 11, participated actively in Troop activities, and through scouting discovered interests to guide them in their future lives.

Mark, a freshman at Austin, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bauhof, of Rivard boulevard. He served the Troop as Scribe, Assistant Patrol Leader, Patrol Leader and Assistant Senior Patrol Leader, and organized the paper drive at Richard School for his Eagle project.

He holds all the badges in the field of Conservation and several in natural science.

He is lucky in having a scouting family. His father serves as treasurer of Troop 74, his mother is leader of Girl Scout Troop 940, brother Paul is a Life Scout and holds the Order of the Arrow, sister Anne is a Junior Girl Scout and sister Lisa is active with Troop 940. Mark's grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Alef, of Lincoln road, and his great aunt, Miss Nettie Oglesby, of Detroit, have over 50 years in scouting.

Greg, a freshman at South High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall V. Noecker, of Handy road. During his three years with Troop 74 he served as Assistant Patrol Leader, Patrol Leader, Scribe, Quartermaster and Assistant Senior Patrol Leader, and did the showcase at Richard School for his Eagle project.

Of his 21 Merit Badges he considers "Rabbit Raising" his favorite, and camping as his favorite scout activity. Greg has gone beyond the more than 30 days of camping scheduled in a year by Troop 74 by participating in scout camping at the national level. As a representative of Troop 74 he attended the 1973 National Jamboree at Moraine State Park in Pennsylvania.

Welcoming Greg to the ranks of Eagle scouts will be his brother, Richard, who was awarded the Eagle at Troop 74's Banquet just two years ago.

Special guests at the Thursday banquet include the parents of the new Eagle Scouts, Gerald Webster, Scoutmaster, and George Lewis, Assistant Scoutmaster. Ted Jacobs, principal of Richard School, will act as Master of Ceremonies and present the other guests. Father Walter McNicholas, theology teacher at Austin will give the invocation.

Officers Take Scuba Diving Course
The late October water temperatures and heavy winds, which created dangerous undertows, hampered police recovery units and made a rescue impossible for the Shores officers. The Macomb County Sheriff Department scuba divers were called in, as well as Mr. Sehoyan. Officer Darlington was later given a citation by The Shores for his courageous action.
"It can be terrifying to jump into the surf when the lake conditions are so dangerous," Mr. Sehoyan said. "The professionals wouldn't even go in that day, but we jumped in and made a try."
All Volunteers
Shores Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale said he was "very proud" of his men for volunteering to take the course. "Their skills will be a great contribution to the force. One thing I want to emphasize, however, is that all the men volunteered for this undertaking. Whenever a car goes into the lake, it makes a real impression on the men."
Two of the men, Officers Darlington and Frasad, said they will be taking their vacation in Florida to practice scuba diving. All of the men will be required to make a trial "dive" and be graded before they can receive certifications as a scuba diver. They hope to make their dives in about a month.
Besides the life saving efforts, the officers will be able to recover valuables lost in the lake via underwater metal detector equipment loaned by Mr. Sehoyan. Each man is being outfitted with wet suits, underwater breathing regulators, air tanks, flippers and weights, (for deep dives), by Tom and Jerry's Scuba Shop in St. Clair Shores, at his own expense.
The possibility of acquiring a Zodiac Raft, which could be launched in heavy surf and could serve as a diving platform, is still being reviewed.

Study Continues on Woods Law
A "package of suggestions" for possible inclusion into the measure will be presented by the committee to City Attorney George Catlin on or before Friday, March 1, said Mr. Keegen.
Then, the suggestions "will come back to us and we'll see what they look like in print," he added.
These proposals include establishing a hearing process with an appeal mechanism to determine the feasibility of the outside storage of boats and other recreational vehicles mainly regarding a vehicle's location on a citizen's property.
Many residents felt the proposed wording on this point was too rigid. It says that "no such unit shall be stored within 10 feet of any dwelling or residential building nor within five feet of the side and rear lot lines and such units, when stored, shall not exceed the maximum permitted lot coverage under existing zoning ordinances applicable to such residential area."
Other suggestions include the inclusion of regulations on the outside storage of fuels and the dumping of waste from holding tanks, Mr. Keegen stated.
The committee has not completed its overall review of the measure but progress is being made. Mr. Keegen felt the basis of the ordinance will remain the same but there may be some "drastic changes" in its format.
"We think we may have hit on a way to satisfy all sides," he added.

ULS Exhibits Artist's Work
Alice Nichols, a Farmington resident, will exhibit her art works in a one-woman show at the University Liggett School, Cook road campus, in February.
The artist recently became affiliated with The Eves Art Forum in Northville. Besides being an art teacher, Mrs. Nichols has exhibited her work with the Farmington Artists Club, Detroit Palette and Brush Club, Michigan State Fair, and has won prizes and recognition with all these groups.
The exhibit will contain approximately 30 pieces including etching, lithography, serigraphs, wood blocks, mixed media, watercolor, ink, acrylic and oils.
Most of the subject matter for Mrs. Nichols' work comes from trips she has taken with her family. "In the last three years our sons have covered all but 12 of the states, and my husband and I have also been to Europe and Mexico," she explained.

Woods Okays Solicitations
The Woods Council unanimously voiced no objection to two requests to solicit funds at the regular meeting Monday, January 21.
In April, the American Cancer Society's Annual Crusade will be held. The solons okayed the efforts of volunteers to conduct a Residential Crusade Monday-Friday, April 1-5, during normal daylight hours, i.e., 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
The second request was from ALSAC, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, to conduct its door to door solicitation on Sunday, September 15, again, during normal daylight hours.

Blood Drive
Junior Red Cross girls will assist in taking histories, helping in the recovery area and babysitting. This is a real community effort and the blood is really needed, stresses the Center.
Blood is so short in supply that many hospitals are scheduling emergency operations only, the Center added.

A FOXY SOLUTION TO THE GAS PROBLEM.

The Fox by Audi gets about 25 miles to the gallon. Which is about average for an economy car. The thing is, the Fox isn't an economy car. It's a sports sedan. It does 0 to 50 in 8.4 seconds. It has sports car steering and suspension. As well as front-wheel drive. And the fact that you can buy a car that has all this (and more) for a reasonable price provides a Foxy solution to another problem as well.

Man with Gun Caught in Park

Two Detroit police officers, while in the McDaniel Gun Shop, 15102 Kercheval, on Saturday, February 2, at 5:25 p.m., as customers, observed a man enter the shop, remove a revolver from his belt under his jacket and ask for a price on having the weapon serviced.

After a price was quoted, the man replaced the gun in his belt and walked out of the shop. In the meantime, the Detroit policemen called the Park Department to report the incident, stating the male, a black man, had just left the store and was walking east on Kercheval.

A Park scout car crew apprehended the man, identified as Ronald Morris, 36, of 2195 Drexel, Detroit, searched him and confiscated the gun and informed him he was under arrest for carrying a concealed weapon without a permit when he could not produce an authorization allowing him to carry.

Grunyons Sing On February 17

The Grunyons, a men's singing group originally formed in 1949 by former Yale Whiffenpoofs, will be singing at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church on Sunday, February 17. It is the group's silver anniversary year.

The evening will begin with wine and cheese at 6:30 p.m. Patron tickets are $5, adults are $3, and children are $1.50. Tickets may be purchased at the Church office during the week and in the Church foyer Sunday mornings.

Members from the Pointe include Charles Parcells and William G. The evenings also includes Michy Stein, guitarist, who is currently appearing with Bess Makres at the Top of the Flame. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hines, of Littlestone road, are the general chairmen.

ICE FISHING, ANYONE? Students in Pierce School's Environmental Education program planned to go ice-fishing in Anchor Bay once in January and again in February. Also, some eighth graders will take day-long ecology and nature study trips to Pt. Pelee and Stony Creek Park. The trips will be during the school day.

Detroit officers could have made the arrest, since they were officers of the law and a felony was observed being committed in their presence, but that Park police were called, not only as a matter of courtesy, but so that the matter could be handled without complications.

Morris was arraigned before Park Municipal Judge John Urso at 5 p.m. for a preliminary hearing. The judge set bond at $5,000 two sureties, and set examination for Wednesday, February 13. Morris was unable to post the bond and the judge ordered him detained in the local cell until examination date.

Introduces Bill on Abortion

Representative William R. Bryant, Jr., (R-Grosse Pointe), introduced legislation last week to control the availability of abortions in the State to as great a degree as allowed by the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision.

"At present we have no law on the books which is enforceable to control when and how abortions may be legally obtained and when they are illegal," explains Representative Bryant. "I know many who oppose liberal abortion laws do not want legislators to appear to acquiesce in the court decision by adopting laws consistent with the decision, but what I have done is to make the law as strict as it can be. I think we must do this to fulfill our own legislative responsibility."

Slate Meeting For Retirees

The regular meeting of the Harper Woods Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons will be held on Monday, February 11, at 1:30 p.m. at Our Saviour Lutheran Church Auditorium, Dickerson at Elm Dale.

Detroit City Library Group will present a sing-along program. Mrs. B. H. LeMeyre needs help in accumulating Betty Crocker coupons for a walker to help someone in need. All coupons should be brought to the meeting. Participants are asked to use the Elm Dale entrance.

AFSCI National Director To Speak on TM Feb. 12

Jerry Jarvis, national director of the American Foundation for the Science of Creative Intelligence (AFSCI), will be in Grosse Pointe to give a special introductory lecture on Transcendental Meditation, (TM), Tuesday, February 12, at 8 p.m. at The War Memorial's Fries Auditorium.

For 12 years, Mr. Jarvis has been with the organization and its founder, Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. Mr. Jarvis has a comprehensive understanding of the beneficial effects that TM has on the physiological, psychological and sociological aspects of the individual and his environment.

The practice of TM is perhaps the fastest growing movement in our country today. Nearly 15,000 Americans begin the practice each month. In the Detroit area there are already over 7,000 people practicing TM, and in The Pointe, 400 have begun TM in the last year.

A main reason for the increasing popularity of TM among Detroiters and other Americans is that medical science is finding TM to be very beneficial to the health and well-being of the mind and body.

Scientific research at the Harvard Medical School, UCLA, Stanford Research Institute, and many other research centers throughout the world have found that through the regular practice of TM, (twice daily for 15 to 20 minutes), the main causes of hypertension, anxiety, high blood pressure and other psychosomatic illnesses are removed.

Because TM is a simple natural technique which is easily learned by everyone, meditators are found in all walks of life. Businessmen, professional people, students, housewives, athletes, clergy and military personnel all find TM a great asset to their daily lives, it's reported.

TM has also proven to be a most effective program available in eliminating drug abuse, and has been found very effective in social rehabilitation programs in prisons and in mental health institutes.

The lecture is free and open to the public. If further information is requested please contact the AFSCI-Grosse Pointe office at 882-7211.

Woods Reports Two Burglaries

The Woods Department of Public Safety received two burglary reports within a three-day period. One on Thursday, January 31, and the other on Saturday, February 2.

On the 31st, a Hampton road resident returned home to find a rear door standing open, ran to a neighbor's and called police. The culprits ransacked three bedrooms and took a Winchester Model five-shot pump shotgun in a brown leather case, a full box of buckshot and around $150 in John F. Kennedy half dollars.

Then on the 2nd, a Hawthorne road citizen also returned home to discover the break-in. The thieves took $32 from a child's bedroom chest, $80 in quarters and half dollars from an office and a silver coin set, valued at around $90, from the office closet. This set was identified from the Carson City Silver Collection.

Police said entry was gained through a rear porch. Several sets of footprints were discovered in the immediate area of the home.

Men Cagers Active at Club

The Neighborhood Club offers a variety of activities for adults during the winter months. The men play basketball every Wednesday and Thursday nights at Brownell. Their wives and gals come and keep time, score, and act as cheerleaders.

There are two divisions in the men's league. In class A the league leaders are the Wayne State men. Outstanding efforts by Ian Smith and Jim Lewandowski keep Wayne on their toes. Tied for first with Wayne is the Woods Sport-Pepper Mill Lounge team. The Peltz brothers, Mike and Bob, keep the red shirts winning, says the Club.

In Class B, the Celtics have a record of 4-0. Paul Louisell and Tom Waller are the two big shooters for the Celtics. Bummer Road has a 3-0 record. Outstanding players include Bob Rabaut and Bob Cole.

The standings show:

DIVISION A
Wayne State,	3-0
Woods Sport-Pepper Mill,	3-0

GP Park Court's Annual Report Shows Fines Hike

A final annual report submitted to Park City Manager Robert Stone by outgoing Municipal Judge William E. Speer, who was defeated for re-election on November 6, showed that the total revenue collected by the Municipal Court and paid to the Violations Bureau last year, amounted to $8,661.25 more than in 1972.

The report revealed that fines, court costs and bonds forfeited from January 1 through December 31, came to $37,744.75, as compared to $29,357.50 for the 12 months of 1972.

Fines paid directly to the Violations Bureau showed a slight increase over the previous year, $46,710 in 1973 in comparison to $46,289 for the year 1972.

There was a total of 60 State cases heard by the judge, but the 1973 fees paid to the court were not reflected in this year's report. Whereas, 33 cases were heard in 1972 and fees totaling $147 were paid to the Park treasury.

Dispositions in the following court cases, pertaining to violations of traffic and city ordinances, were:

Fines, court costs and bonds forfeited, 1,117; persons given suspended sentences, 89; found not guilty, 178; placed on probation, 144; operator's licenses suspended, 111; sentenced to jail, 73; cases referred to the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, 238; and appeals to Circuit Court granted, five.

Further, nolle pros (cases not carried further), eight; cases dismissed, 13; capias issued (a writ commanding an officer to take a specified person into custody), 19; re-examination by the SOS, three; persons found in contempt of court, two; ordered to attend traffic school, three; cited for violation of probation, six; no complaints taken, 21; jury trials held, two; and fines paid through the Violations Bureau, 140.

Still further, warrants issued, 627; parking violation cases heard, 10; disorderly conduct cases heard, 17; assault and battery (under city ordinance), four; loitering, two; prowling, three; trespassing, 11; violation of controlled substance (city ordinance), 18; dogs, three, minor in possession (of alcoholic beverage), one; and larceny (city ordinance), two.

Violations paid in the Violations Bureau in 1973 totaled $5,560, as compared to $5,980 in 1972.

In disposition of State cases: 34 persons were bound over to Circuit Court for further trial; four cases were dismissed; 13 persons were fined; two sentenced to jail terms; one was jailed and paid a fine; nolle pros, two; placed on probation, with fines and costs paid to the Wayne County treasurer, one; mentally incompetent committed, two.

Of the 14 civil suits heard, two were discontinued; seven were dismissed; judgment was rendered in four, and garnishment ordered, one.

Oh, Christmas Spree Oh, Christmas Spree

Oh-oh. It happens after every Christmas. Just when the tinsel and glitter and joy are turning into fond memories, the Christmas bills start turning into not-so-fond reminders that we still have to pay for some of those memories.

That's when you should remember us. Because we've got after-Christmas personal loans to take care of those bills. And we've got friendly, knowledgeable people and extra-long hours (10 A.M.-7 P.M. on Monday, Thursday and Friday at most branches) so you can get the loan that's best for you whenever it's convenient for you.

Our after-Christmas loan.

It'll make all your Christmas memories happy ones.

SPORTS FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

TED EWALD

Here's one that's hard to believe. But, it's true. Two of the greatest pro basketball players of all time, Bob Cousy and Bill Russell, FAILED to make their high school basketball teams. Both were cut from their squads in their high school days! It seems incredible, but it's been confirmed by the National Basketball Association. And it proves again that truth is sometimes stranger than fiction.

Has any basketball player ever scored all his team's points in one game? This amazing feat happened once in a high school game in Alabama. A player named Walter Garrett scored 97 points in one game a few seasons ago, and the final score in that game was 97-34!

Here's one for you bowlers. Do you have any idea what the odds are against rolling a perfect 300 game? According to the American Bowling Congress, the odds against a 300 game, even by the best of bowlers, are 367,000 to 1. There have been almost 7-million games rolled in ABC tournaments over the years and only 19 perfect 300-games in all that time. That's where they get the odds of 367,000 to 1.

Scout Troop 96 Gives Awards

Scout Troop 96, Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, held a Court of Honor in Barbour Chapel on Monday, January 28. Dean K. Riddle, advancement chairman, served as Master of Ceremonies. Scoutmaster Charles Donovan and Assistant Scoutmasters James Powell and Father William Sayers presented the awards.

Brad Murray, Ross Murray and Jim Teetzel attained the Life Scout Rank, just under Eagle.

Chris Powell was awarded Star Rank, First Class, and his patrol received recognition as the Honor Patrol of Troop 96, as well.

First Class awards also were presented to Andrew Richner and Danil Riddle.

Receiving Second Class awards were John Onatweder, Stephen Redding, Coleman Rogers, Chris Sayers and Jack Scott.

Tenderfoot awards were given to Jeff Eisenbrey, Jay

Hill, John Larrabee, Wayne Onatweder and Peter Toblin. Service awards were presented, with Five-year Service Awards going to Eagle Scouts Dean Face, Keith Lawrence and Bill Teetzel.

A total of 80 merit badges were earned by 30 scouts in Troop 96, representing a wide variety of skills and achievements.

Following the Court of Honor, a reception for the Scouts, their families and friends, was held in Fellowship Hall.

Registration Set for Farms Loop

Registration for the Grosse Pointe Farms Little League will be held on Tuesday, February 12, at Brownell Middle School from 7 to 9 p.m.

All boys who were born between August 1, 1961, and July 31, 1966, and who are residents of The Farms, are eligible.

Registration cards may be obtained at all elementary public and private schools in The Farms. The cards must be completed and signed by a parent who must accompany the boy at registration.

Proof of age, such as a birth certificate or registration of birth, must be presented at registration.

All boys must register including those who played last year. The registration fee is $12 per family.

Camp Fire Girls to Sell Candy

"Buy a Smile and Camp Fire Girls Candy" read the red, white, and blue posters now being distributed by the 9,000 members of Camp Fire Girls, Detroit Area Council. The 1974 Candy Sale will be through Saturday, February 16, throughout the Tri-County area.

One of the Camp Fire Girls of Sunrise District is Betsy Hirt, a student at Defer School and a member of Mrs. Joan Hanpeter's group. Sunrise District, which includes all of the Pointes, Harper Woods, and areas of East

Detroit, was the winning District last year in candy sales.

Awards are presented to individuals selling at least 36 boxes of candy. Prizes range from Mod Posters to Resident Campships.

Proceeds from the candy sale are used to operate and maintain Camp Wathana near Holly. Campships are provided to girls needing financial assistance to supplement camping fees. The financial structure of the Council is also stabilized, assuring new projects throughout the year.

In a classic demonstration of how one thing leads to another, City police arrested a 21-year old Warren resident on Monday, January 14.

Officers Donald Boyer and Ronald Fryor were on routine patrol when they first spotted the youth, Gary Cooney, in a blue, 1970 Ford at the foot of Alger place. The officers noticed that the right headlight of the car was out, and when they approached the vehicle in their scout car, Cooney started his engine and proceeded to leave the area.

When the officers stopped him and ran a Law Enforcement Information Network (L.E.I.N.), check on him, they discovered Cooney was wanted by both Warren and Detroit police for two outstanding traffic warrants.

His troubles increased when police also learned he was driving on a suspended license.

Cooney was placed under arrest for his violations and was ordered to produce dated proof of purchase for the car he was driving, since it was equipped only with dealer plates. He was unable to do so.

City police learned later that Cooney had purchased his car last summer and, since dealer plates are only valid for 15 days, he was issued a violation for having improper plates.

Police held Cooney's car for $50 and proper plates. His court date was set for Tuesday, February 26.

Library Hosts Sunday Cinema

Sunday Cinema, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Public Library, will present the second program in its series on February 10, at 2 p.m.

"String Bean" is a 17-minute movie which uses no dialogue to express the poignant French story about a fragile old lady and her love for a potted string bean plant. "Picasso is 90" is a film biography that covers a lifetime of living and work of one of the great artists of our time.

"Two Men and a Wardrobe" was made by Roman Polanski while he was still a student. Two men emerge from the sea with an old-fashioned closet - wardrobe and carry it into town. They are rejected everywhere and eventually carry it back into the sea, dispirited. "Bach to Bach" is a satirical comedy sketch that explores the psyches of two pseudo-sophisticates. The off-screen voices are those of Mike Nichols and Elaine May.

The program will be shown in the Exhibition Room of the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue. For additional information, persons may inquire at the Circulation Desk or call the Audio-Visual Department at the Central Library 884-2200.

Michigan Municipal League Director Robert Fryer and a State Department of Treasury Information Bulletin on this subject to the Committee of the Whole for further scrutiny.

Mr. Fryer said, in his letter, that the MML's Board of Trustees is urging all members of the governing body to give consideration, if this hasn't already been done, to the promulgation of local regulations governing reimbursement for travel and other out-of-pocket expenses of officials and employees of the city.

Meanwhile, the treasury bulletin states, "It is recommended, as a matter of local public policy, that the governing body of each local governmental unit or agency establish and formally adopt regulations governing reimbursement" for such expenses.

Snatches Coats from Penney's

A black male snatched an estimated six to seven women's leather coats from J. C. Penney's, 19251 Mack avenue, Thursday afternoon, January 24.

An employee told Woods Public Safety Officer Thomas Hunke the man engaged her in conversation, left the store and then returned. She saw the man take the coats off a rack and run outside into a waiting Chevrolet Camaro.

Another employee stated he heard a customer scream and saw the man run outside and into the car, which was occupied by several other black men. The auto was last seen going west through the Saint John Hospital parking lot.

Five or six of the leather coats, each valued at $39.88, were described as rust colored and navy blue. Another coat, a reversible leather and suede coat, light brown, was valued at $64.88.

The suspect was described as weighing between 180-190 pounds and was around 6'0" tall. He had a close shaven beard and mustache, and was wearing a brown suede flat hat, a camel colored vinyl coat, (hip length), a burgundy turtle neck shirt, tan pants and black shoes.

The auto was believed to be a 1967 model, colored white and black or dark blue.

Slate Unique Church Party

The Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church, celebrating its 120th anniversary on Friday, February 8, will be the scene of a 6:30 p.m. supper and a special commemorative program that features a dramatization of Leonardo da Vinci's Last Supper.

The enactment will feature 13 men and is directed by Mrs. Russell McLaughlin. Church organist, Robert Hawksley, will direct the choir in musical selections that develop the theme of the presentation.

The dinner will feature models dressed to resemble churchwomen over the past 120 years and included among them will be a daughter and granddaughter of the present pastor of the church, Dr. Allan A. Zaun.

As a concluding event for the anniversary celebration, Dr. David Buttrick, professor of preaching at Pittsburgh Presbyterian Theological Seminary, will speak at the 11 a.m. service on Sunday, February 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Taylor, of Handy road, are chairmen of the 120th anniversary committee. The church is located at 8625 East Jefferson.

Plan Saturday Class at Ferry

Classes in gymnastics and arts and crafts are being offered at Ferry School on Saturday mornings, now, through March 30.

Gymnastics include tumbling, trampoline and workouts on even and uneven parallel bars, for both boys and girls.

Arts and crafts, designed to develop the individual creative potential of each child, are taught by Miss Barbara Maiera.

There are openings in both classes for children, kindergarten to sixth grade. For further information and registration, contact Dr. Marguerite Hendrie, 886-5223.

Judge Paterson Hears 6 Cases

City Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson convened court on Tuesday, January 22 and heard a total of six cases. One case was adjourned for six months.

Donald George Carrier Jr., 1127 Devonshire road, pled guilty to being a disorderly person and his plea was taken under advisement for six months. He was ordered to pay $87.20 in court costs.

Anthony Fruhauf, 18907 St. Paul avenue, stood mute to a parking violation charge. He was found guilty and fined $5.

Orr Elliott McPherson, 22630 Pembroke, Detroit, was found guilty of a careless driving charge and was fined $75.

Thomas James Derieg, 8505 Fenton, Dearborn Heights, pled guilty to being a disorderly person and his plea was taken under advisement for six months. He was assessed $75 in court costs.

Ray Lew Hurt, 8281 Fenton, Dearborn Heights, pled guilty to being a disorderly person and his plea was taken under advisement for six months. He was ordered to pay $75 in court costs.

THERE'S NO SHORTAGE of Security, Comfort and Convenience

at The Jefferson Apartments Grosse Pointe's Newest Condominium now 2/3 Sold. And we still have 7-1/2% mortgage money available.

Not one, but a network of the most modern security systems guard you, your home and your possessions.

A CLOSED TV MONITORING SYSTEM covers the entrance, outside parking areas and inside garage. The caller can be viewed from a selected channel on the Owner's TV set in each apartment. The doorman and manager's office views the same areas.

THE ENTRY COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM is a new system conceived and engineered by Michigan Bell Telephone Company. Using a touchtone panel telephone in the lobby, the caller dials the owner's apartment. This enables each party to have a private conversation. During the time the caller is in the entrance vestibule, he is under surveillance by the concealed TV camera.

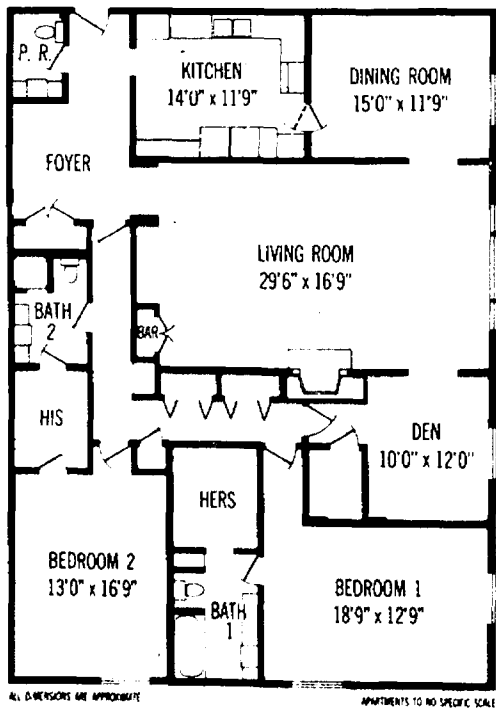

AN ON-GUARD ALERT SYSTEM features a control panel in the manager's apartment and the attendant's office. This notifies of an intrusion into any apartment when the occupants are away. The doorman or manager controls the system by activating the apartment's security supervision at the request of the owner.

THE FIRE PROTECTION ALERT SYSTEM gives supervision added protection to all occupants of the building and will insure notification of each individual occupant of a fire in an unoccupied apartment. Further elements of security are the uniformed doorman-attendant and around the clock resident caretakers.

WE CARE ABOUT YOUR COMFORT AND CONVENIENCE. It's part of the gracious living at The Jefferson Apartments. Here is a typical spacious floor plan of an apartment home which features 9 foot ceilings, individual gas heating and cooling, top of the line G. E. kitchen with an icemaker and a washer-dryer. A wet bar is conveniently located for entertaining. Insulated walls, floors, plumbing and windows insure maximum quiet. Natural fireplaces.

There are three separate elevators and approximately a thousand square feet of private storage. Exterior maintenance, gardening and snow removal are arranged. The Jefferson Apartments is an adult community. You'll be a neighbor to some of the nicest neighbors in Grosse Pointe. Residents are home owners and enjoy tax deductions and the investment security of being a property owner and equity advantages.

The Jefferson Apartments is located 2 blocks from a park with boat slips, 3 blocks from Grosse Pointe shopping, 20 minutes from downtown Detroit by bus.

Don't worry about selling your home. Visit us and learn about our new trade-in program for your home, and our new pricing policy. Priced from $69,000.

The model apartment is open 12 to 5 daily except Wednesday. Enter on Neff or St. Clair Roads.

Enjoy breakfast on your own spacious private balcony with breathtaking panoramic view of sparkling Cowper Bay. Ideal for couples or family. For details, call 517-849-9300 or 849-9529 or write Box 98, Jonesville, Michigan 49250.

Donald J. Parsons of the Richard S. Hayes Amvets Post 57.

"Time has a habit of slipping away when we want to do something nice for someone or to show our appreciation for a service or kindness," Mr. Parsons said.

The Post will present four "Good Neighbor" awards at its Honors and Awards Night, Saturday, February 23. A person from The Woods and one from Harper Woods will be honored as the one in his (or her), community whose 1973 activities have earned him the recognition because he has made life a little bit better for someone or everyone.

A business person from each community will be similarly honored because he (or she), has unselfishly used his business to better the lives of those around him.

"To nominate someone, just write a letter giving the name of the individual or business person whom one wishes to be considered for the honor and a short explanation why. Letters should be addressed to 'Good Neighbor Chairman,' Richard S. Hayes Amvets Post 57, 19730 Harper Avenue, Harper Woods, 48225," Mr. Parsons said.

"Letters must be received by 8 p.m., February 12, to be considered," he added. Dignitaries from each community are expected to join with Amvets in presenting the awards to their "Good Neighbors."

Unnecessary Trouble

Around 15 complaints on snowballers were received by The Woods Department of Public Safety from Thursday-Saturday, January 28-30. The majority of incidents focused upon youngsters firing snowballs at passing vehicles.

This is a problem for the entire community and, specifically, for parents to face. It just happened this bunch of complaints transpired in The Woods. When youngsters could be identified in each incident, police would warn them of the dangers involved in such activity.

In one instance, a motorist was driving in the area of Wedgewood and Renslyn road when some youths showered her auto with snowballs. When she stopped to investigate possible vehicle damage and talk with those responsible, the group took the opportunity to throw some snowballs at her.

On another occasion, in the area of Vernier and Morningside drive, a passenger was struck by a snowball through an open window. It bruised her cheek and broke her glasses.

Why anyone would want to throw snowballs at passing vehicles is beyond comprehension. The potential dangers of serious injury are staggering, not only to motorists and other "innocents" but to the youths themselves. (There have been occasions when angry drivers gave chase and . . .)

So, parents it might not be a bad idea to remind your children or young adults, as the case may be, that snowballing in a relatively isolated area between individuals is one matter but gunning hard-packed missiles at motorists, pedestrians or buildings is entirely another. R.A.W.

One View From The Capitol

By William R. Bryant, Jr.

Two bills passed the House last week which illustrate why I get frustrated in my serious desire and attempt to help give Michigan image and reality of being a state interested in keeping and attracting new jobs and industry.

First came the bill which allows laid-off employees to collect benefits right away instead of waiting one week. This costs plenty, but was not the worst part of the bill.

Presently an employee fired for theft, sabotage or assault is penalized 12 weeks of the 26 weeks of unemployment benefits otherwise available. Under this bill benefits will be payable immediately until the person is convicted for his actions.

In the past, most employers did not press criminal charges and the determination the employee committed the acts was done administratively and the employee avoided a criminal record. Now all that may be changed.

The effect will be that some employees will be convicted and lose benefits, and be stuck with a criminal record, but most will delay their trial past the 26 weeks and collect all their benefits. It hardly seems reasonable for a company to have to pay an employee for 26 weeks after firing him for theft.

There is still a chance, as I write this, that the Governor may veto this bill. The bill is House Bill No. 4143. I urge you to write the Governor asking him to veto it.

The second blow came the next day in the form of House Bill No. 4001, a supposed consumer bill, which now goes to the Senate.

House Bill No. 4001 is a deceptive practice act making illegal a long list of business activities and generally outlawing deceptive practices of business. Sounds fine, doesn't it? That's what most consumer groups say and they have bludgeoned most legislators into supporting the bill.

The bill, however, is much too broad, gives the Attorney General dictatorial powers and is sloppily drafted. A repairman violates the law if he is mistaken about a repair he felt was needed. Facts proved in an Attorney General action are binding on the businessman in any subsequent suit by a consumer. Private settlements with the Attorney General are made public records. Rights against self-incrimination are not properly protected. A court can enjoin a person found to have been persistently deceptive in one kind of business from engaging in any business at all.

These are just a few examples of the serious defects in the bill. I hope the Senate will cure them and send us back a workable and sensible bill.

Our state is in bad trouble relative to job development. We need to encourage new jobs to be created by expansion of existing businesses and we need to entice new business into our state.

When will some legislators wake up to these facts of life? I can't answer that, but optimism for good economic growth in Michigan gets more difficult with every anti-business, anti-job bill we pass.

Park Fire Chief Warns About Electrical Misuse

When a fire was put out recently by a Maryland road resident before firefighters arrived, the Park Fire Department personnel were very pleased that a tragedy did not occur. It was an electrically started blaze and the householder had tossed a pail of water on the flames.

Not only that, Fire Chief Phillip Costa said, the resident proceeded to clean up the area where the blaze had started. This created a dangerous situation because water is a conductor of electricity, and the person could have been electrocuted. Luck was certainly with that individual, the chief said.

The fire started when the wiring leading to an electric oven range shorted. The sparks from the shorted wire ignited the accumulated grease in the vent over the stove. After tossing the water on the fire, the citizen called the Fire Department, then began cleaning up and was still doing so when the firefighters arrived. They made him stop and disconnected the wiring, before giving him a warning about exposing himself to possible electrocution.

Chief Costa said that the best method of putting out an electrical fire is either with carbon dioxide (CO2), or dry chemical powder extinguishers.

"While we are on the subject of electricity," Chief Costa said, "any time a person sees a downed Edison wire, do not touch it, or go near it, even if it looks 'dead'. The best thing to do is to call your Fire Department or Police Department, give the location of the downed wire, and we will take it from there. We will notify Detroit Edison, who have trained personnel who know what to do in such situations."

Electricity powers many of the necessities and conveniences in the modern home, but it can also cause trouble unless given a reasonable amount of attention and care, the chief said.

"Failure of many householders to treat this power properly is emphasized by National Fire Protection Association figures which show that about one of every seven dwelling fires is caused by misuse or defective electrical wiring and equipment," Chief Costa pointed out.

To see if there might be uncorrected electrical hazards in your home, the chief suggested that you try answering "yes" or "no" to these questions:

1. Is the right size fuse (15 amps for lighting circuits) in each socket in the fuse box? Do you use a new fuse — never a substitute — after each blow?

2. Do you use extension cords within safe limits of their capacities (500 watts for the most commonly used type)? If you must use an extension cord to feed an appliance drawing more power than this, is it of the heavy duty type?

3. Are extension and appliance cords replaced immediately at the first sign of frayed or cracked insulation? Do you make sure that cords are never run under rugs or hooked over nails?

4. Are electrical appliances checked periodically to make sure they are in good operating condition, and are they repaired or replaced at the first sign of trouble?

5. Is your television antenna installed where it cannot fall across power lines, and is it equipped with a properly grounded lightning arrester?

If there are any "no" answers to these questions, Chief Costa said, then corrective measures should be taken without delay.

Brown Takes Diving Honors

Grosse Pointe Swim Club diver Mike Brown had quite a weekend while participating in the National Invitational Diving Championships at the Plantation Country Club, Louisville, Ky., January 19-20.

The youth nabbed two first places in boys 11 and 12 competition. One was in the three-meter event, (six dives), for a total of 204.8 points. The other was in one-meter action, (six dives), for 196.75 points.

And, would you believe, Mike finished fourth in men's open diving in the three-meter event, (11 dives), for 325.05 points. This event also features divers of high school and college age.

Mike's brother, Chris, 8, finished in sixth place in one-meter action in the 10 and under age group.

Stella May, long associated with Grinnells, is the teacher. The fee is $16 for eight lessons.

It's so true—enthusiasm is partly interest, partly energy and wholly successful.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Are you reading the best-sellers? Are you interested in what is on their list currently?

First of all, in the fiction section we have Vidal's BURR, an historical novel, concerning, of course, Aaron Burr, vice-president under Jefferson, assailant of Hamilton in a famous duel on Weehawk Heights and alleged arch-conspirator in a plot to set up a kingdom somewhere in Mexico. Burr is a dark figure, a prey of romanticists, but Vidal flashes him out in fine classical fettle.

Graham Greene has a new one — THE HONORARY CONSUL — the best he has written in 25 years since THE HEART OF THE MATTER. It is set in one of those dusty backwaters which is such a fine terrain for his talent.

Allen Drury's COME NINEVAH, COME TYRE is the second volume of the trilogy begun with PRESERVE AND PROTECT series — one more to go!

Thornton Wilder, whether in ancient Rome or Grover's Corners, whether concerned with cosmic laughter or morning pancakes, in THEOPHILUS NORTH, has given us gentle, wispy entertainment.

Another new fiction title is Lonnie Coleman's BEULAH. It's one of those long planter's punches which starts circa 1800 and winds up in 1881, (having just about overlooked the Civil War), and featuring life on the boundless Georgia holdings, Beulah Land.

Our friend Morris West has a Book-of-the-Month new one called THE SALAMANDER. It is a political thriller set in present day Italy. The title refers to a mythical being thought to be able to live in fire, and it is adopted as the insignia of one of the chief characters — a vigorous 70-year-old industrialist named Bruno Manzoni who has managed to survive Italy's turbulent politics over the years. The book, while being slick, is suited to the subject matter.

Another Book-of-the-Month selection on the best seller list is Lawrence Sanders' THE FIRST DEADLY SIN. There is a first printing of 100,000, an advertising kick-off of $50,000 — and you get the picture — the first big picture for a conglomerate novel which is half police procedure, a quarter sex — and fill in the rest with a great detective, a detective's detective, etc. Of its kind — commercial (and better written, according to some, than THE EXORCIST) — it's as addictive as anything you're likely to read for several uninterrupted evenings this season.

Subtitled "A Pastoral Novel," NICKEL MOUNTAIN by John Gardner is closest in design and intent to the author's first book THE RESURRECTION and once again a small town in the Catskills circumscribes whatever takes place here. It's a bit like OUR TOWN — an old-fashioned tableau.

I'm sure you're all familiar with Alistair Cooke's ALL-STAR COOKE'S AMERICA. It has been widely advertised and is immensely readable. The author has made a visually appealing effort to describe how the country came to be, who settled it, and why, and its great promises and its great failures. Cooke uses accepted themes, (such as, we are pragmatic people), but he does not sanitize our history. There are 140 pages of illustrations, mostly in color.

IN ONE ERA AND OUT THE OTHER by Sam Levenson the author proves to be gentle, sentimental and a great storyteller. He has a low-keyed style. He's a nice man and this is a nice book for the family circles with East Side ties.

What about UPSTAIRS AT THE WHITE HOUSE: MY LIFE WITH THE FIRST LADIES, by J. B. West and M. L. Kotz? Just ignore the pink tea title; this memoir by the former Chief Usher of the White House is good.

I'm sure you've all heard of COSELL by Howard Cosell. Both the man and the book have the same prickly candor, pugacity, lachrymose tone and the same hectoring presence.

Are you familiar with PORTRAIT OF A MARRIAGE by Nigel Nicolson? Here we have a tasteful, sometimes elegant, romantic elements in this memoir of the author's parents — V. Sackville-West and Harold Nicolson.

Now we jump to Merle Miller's PLAIN SPEAKING: AN ORAL BIOGRAPHY OF HARRY S. TRUMAN. This book has a nostalgic, down-home quality, (like Margaret's book), and sounds like good friends gossiping over the back fence.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's 1974 Souvenir Program debuts this Saturday, when it's distributed to all concert-goers at Ford Auditorium prior to the Orchestra's evening performance.

And prior to that, Juniors will gather to toast their publication at a dinner at the Recess Club chaired by Mrs. J. Dale Petrosky, of Heather Lane, and fellow Pointer Mrs. Virgil Goodman.

The Mesdames Ramon Brinkman, Daniel Gallagher, Andrew Fulgenzi and William Denomme, Pointers all, were in charge of the Program this (Continued on Page 15)

MR. and MRS. JAMES STROBL, of Bishop road, Detroit, announce the birth of a son, JAMES CAMERON STROBL, December 12. Mrs. Strobl is the former CHRISTINE CAMERON, daughter of MR. and MRS. NORMAN J. CAMERON, of Largo, Fla., formerly of Shoreham road. Paternal grandparents are the JOSEPH STROBLs, of Lafayette Park. The newest James Strobl has a three-year-old sister, JULIE.

Freshman JAMES U. SCOTT, son of DR. MAX RION U. SCOTT, of Ballantyne road, has been named to the Washington and Lee University Fall Term Honor Roll, cited for a perfect 4.0 grade point academic average.

MONICA A. MULLINS, of Bishop road, has been named to the Dean's List at Lake Superior State College, where she is a sophomore in the School of Arts and Social Sciences.

Three University of Detroit School of Law alumni who have made outstanding contributions to their profession, JAMES T. BARNES, of Lakeshore road, NATHAN B. GOODNOW, of Handy road, and Michigan Supreme Court Chief Justice THOMAS M. KAVANAGH will receive William Kelly Joyce medallions at the U. of D. Law School's annual banquet Friday, February 15, in Cobo Hall's main ballroom. The medallions, named after Professor Joyce who taught at U. of D. for 45 years before retiring in 1965, are being presented this year for the first time. Banquet speaker will be former United States Attorney General ELLIOT L. RICHARDSON.

Afghanistan: How To Fall In Love With A Yurt

By Janet Mueller

Everybody gets very sick in Afghanistan. It's the first thing you talk about when you run into someone else who's been to Afghanistan. "I lost 15 pounds in seven days..." "I was so weak I couldn't call for help..." "I'm STILL seeing the doctor, (and this after a year or more at home)..."

You get points according to where you were sick.

Kabul hardly counts at all. A yurt in Bamiyan would rank about four on a one-to-10 scale. If it's a yurt without private bath, make that five.

Collapsing in the shadow of the Minaret of Jam definitely rates a 10.

Ever wonder where the middle of nowhere really is? It's where the Minaret of Jam is.

Everybody stays relatively sick in Afghanistan. Except the Afghans, who are the strongest people on earth. If an Afghan survives until the age of five, nothing can kill him. Except another Afghan.

The Afghans are aware of this, so they have turned their houses into forts, family compounds surrounded by high, windowless walls, behind which they barricade themselves at night. Most compound walls have a watchtower, and in this watchtower a member of the family sits all night, with a gun, watching out for other Afghans.

It is not necessary to watch out for non-Afghans. They are too sick to attack.

After a while, in Afghanistan, you come to accept being sick as a condition of being. You do what you can when you can. On bad days, you groan a lot. Good days you take as a gift of God.

Or you leave the country, and a lot of people do leave, quickly, shuddering. You'll never get THEM to go back THERE.

Nobody feels lukewarm about Afghanistan. You either love it or you hate it. I absolutely love it.

There's blue... and there's the blue of the lakes of Band-i-Amir.

This is high, wind that blows between the worlds country. Treeless. A country of beige mountains covered with dust.

The sky is high here, too, and where you've been looks very much like where you're going, and what is on your left could double for what is on your right.

There's a road to follow, but it's the sort of road you have to take on faith. It may have been put down as a maze, a riddle, a joke, an exercise in how to get to nowhere.

Occasionally, you pass a Kochi encampment. Ragged black tents, their skirts rolled up, set in a hollow between dusty hills. Camels black in the distance against dusty hillsides.

Occasionally, you pass a band of Hazara people passing from the high country to the low (autumn), or the low to the high (spring), the women and very young children on donkeys, accoutrements of living dangling from the donkey's saddles, riders wrapped in the family bedding.

The Kochis, whose allegiance is only to themselves, walk tall, ride tall, and give birth to laughing, impudent, curious, thieving children who grow into extraordinarily handsome adults.

The Hazara are shy. They pretend not to see you, hurry by with scarce a glance, and that oblique, flicker of a camera shutter, flicker of suppressed but avid interest from downcast Mongolian eyes.

The Kochis stare, and giggle, and make what are obviously rude remarks about you to each other.

The Kochis are truly wanderers, the Hazara seminomadic. Two gypsy peoples: but the Kochis walk the world like gods, owning it, the Hazara like peasants, begging it to be allowed to live.

There are five of them, the first seen at first as a flash of blue slashing the no-color highlands, seen, gone, seen again. The blue expands as you move toward it, widens, and beyond is another blue.

There is nothing beckoning about these lakes. You go to them.

Band-i-Haibat is the most remarkable, having made itself a dam so that it rises at one end straight up from the upland desert floor. The other end is encased in hills.

Band-i-Haibat's natural dam, 40 feet from base to brim, holds water like a cup, brimming. Sometimes, in some places, brimming over. A band of swampy grass and scrubby trees, several feet wide in places, less than a foot in others, edges the top of the dam, separating water from wall, containing the lake.

Wind will blow drops of water over the edge of the dam, and since the wind here is constant, with no trees to stop its sweep down the high, barren hills, there are constant cascades trickling down the dam walls.

If you climb to the top of the dam and stand at a place where the vegetation band is narrow, and baste the lake over the edge with your foot, you can make a waterfall.

The water is cold, tasting faintly of minerals. The air is cool, tasting faintly of the water. Wading sends chills up your spine; swimming is possible only for a few moments.

Walking is superb.

When my mother was in Kabul a few years ago, she stayed at the Intercontinental, up on a hill, with gardens and a swimming pool and its own post office and a panoramic-view-of-the-city cocktail lounge/supper club.

I stayed at the Hotel Kabul. I went up to the Intercontinental one night with some friends, and had a drink in the panoramic-view-of-the-city cocktail lounge/supper club, and listened to some Afghan hard rock, and rode up and down in the elevators. Then I went back to the Hotel Kabul.

I am not knocking the Intercontinental — I would, in fact, have loved to have checked in for a night, and had a swim, and mailed some postcards—but it's simply not in it with the Hotel Kabul.

Which is why, of course, when my mother was in Kabul she wasn't in the Hotel Kabul.

The Hotel Kabul is a huge, gloomy rabbit warren of a place, furnished in Early Peter Lorre. It used to be the best hotel in town.

Then they built the Intercontinental.

You can't dispute the Hotel Kabul's location advantage, as far as handiness is concerned. (Continued on Page 21)

Society News Gathered from the Pointes

Trio Joins Cottage Auxiliary's Board

Three new faces have appeared on the Executive Board of the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital as a result of an election held Thursday, January 24, at the Auxiliary's annual meeting.

Mrs. Laurence Krawczak becomes first vice-president while Mrs. Roger F. McNeill takes over corresponding secretary duties and Mrs. Edward T. Glowacki serves as assistant treasurer.

Ascending to the position of treasurer is Mrs. John J. Sheehan.

Mrs. James E. St. Denis, former first vice-president, has been appointed Legislative chairman.

In her annual report President Betty (Mrs. Jack) Leithauser revealed that the 368-member Auxiliary provided 24,142 hours of service to Cottage Hospital in 1973.

Of that total, 16,360 hours were served in uniform by members of the Book Cart, Gift Shop, Patient Service and Sunshine Guilds.

The remaining 7,782 hours were chalked up as "out-service" hours by General Guild members and many other Auxiliaries working behind-the-scenes on administrative and fund-raising tasks.

Through these fund-raising events plus proceeds from gift shop sales the Auxiliary has completed payment—one year early—of its $75,000 pledge to the Cottage Development Fund.

In addition, the board of Directors at its December meeting voted to place $12,000 in escrow until such time as the Auxiliary determines it can best be used to help Cottage Hospital.

This brings to $39,400 the total 1973 financial contribution of the Auxiliary to the Hospital.

Mrs. Leithauser recognized the service of the 145 Junior Volunteers who worked 7,447 hours during the past year.

These Junior Volunteers, formerly called "candy-strippers," comprise a student service group sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary.

Mrs. Warren Jollymore, Auxiliary second vice-president and Patient Service Guild chairman, assists in their training, scheduling and supervision.

Alpha Phi Valentine Candy Saves Hearts

Heart-shaped lollipops are favorites of AMY DIETZ, (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dietz, of Washington road, and BETH and BILL NIXON, children of the Floyd Nixons, Jr., of Lochmoor boulevard, whose mothers are co-chairmen for Detroit-Grosse Pointe Alpha Phi's 1974 Valentine lollipop sale. The international women's fraternity has been undertaking projects to benefit Cardiac Aid for 27 years and has received the American Heart Association's Heart and Torch award for dedicated service. Local alumnae have conducted their heart sucker sale for the past five years. Proceeds have provided various cardiac aid devices for Bon Secours Hospital, including a Resusci-Annie, used for training in mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, and a pacemaker. Profits from last year's sales will be combined to purchase a Holt Monitor, a portable EKG unit worn during a normal working day by patients with suspected cardiac problems, for Saint John Hospital. Heart lollipops are 10 cents each and may be purchased in quantity, (they make excellent room or birthday party treats), by contacting Mrs. Nixon, 884-2600, or Mrs. Dietz, 882-8712.

Set Goodwill Valentine Fete

The annual Valentine Party-Book Review sponsored by the Women's Association of Goodwill Industries will be held Wednesday February 13, in the Goodwill Building, Brush street near East Grand boulevard, Detroit.

The program is open to the public. A $1.75 donation includes luncheon at 12:30 o'clock, prizes, card games or a book review.

Mrs. Herbert C. Path, general chairman, has announced that Mrs. Rudolph S. Garyple will review Helen Hayes' "On Reflection."

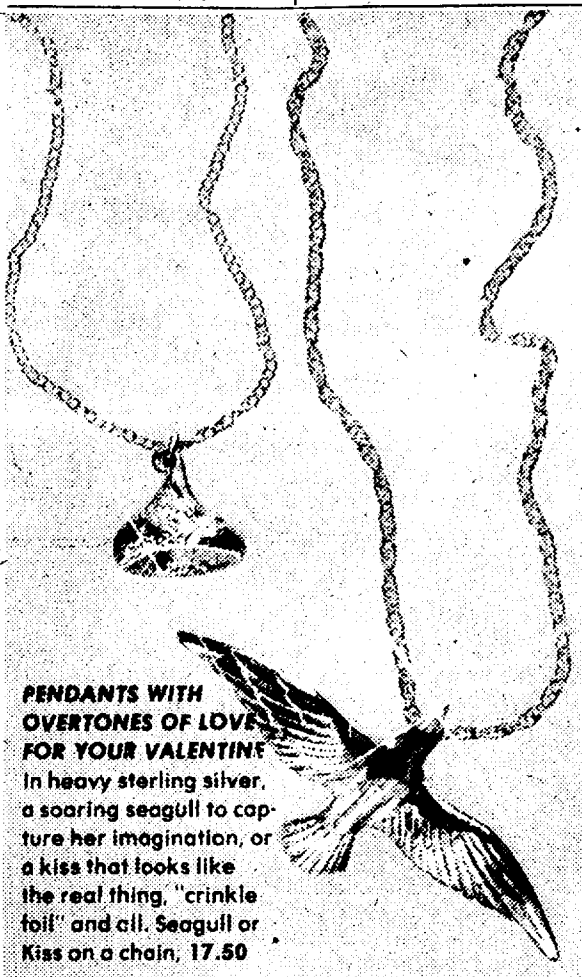

Tables will be arranged for bridge but guests may bring equipment for other card games of their choice.

Proceeds help the Women's Association provide personal services for client-employees of the League for the Handicapped-Goodwill Industries.

Tickets will be available at the door, but reservations for the luncheon are requested before Monday, February 11, by calling Miss Gladys Cockayne, 875-7646, or (after 5 o'clock), Mrs. Zelda Wellons, 866-5044.

Women's Association members serving on committees include: decorations, Miss Anna Lentz; tickets, Mrs. Bernard M. Segner and Mrs. Verlie Morton; luncheon, Mrs. Herman Hamel; prizes, Miss Geraldine Sellers, Mrs. Wellons, and Mrs. A. Warren Brock; favors, Miss Sellers. Membership in and attendance at meetings and projects of the Women's Association are open to anyone interested in training and employment of the handicapped. Free and supervised parking is available in the Goodwill lot on Milwaukee boulevard between John R and Brush streets.

Institute Begins Heritage Weekend Series
Heritage Weekends is a new series presented by the International Institute as a way of sharing the cultural achievements and contributions of Detroit's ethnic groups with everyone in the metropolitan area.
In cooperation with Wayne State University and WSU's Ethnic Heritage Studies Center, the Institute is sponsoring 16 weekends devoted to the cultures of various ethnic groups.
Held at WSU's General Lectures Building at the corner of West Warren avenue and Anthony Wayne drive, the series will focus on a different group each weekend.
The programs will include music, dance, films, crafts literature, art and general entertainment in both auditoriums in the Lectures Building.
Besides an ethnic bazaar of the group featured, an inter-ethnic bazaar will be open each weekend. There will be a restaurant in cabaret concert style, with continuous music appropriate to the culture of the weekend.
Open from noon to 10 o'clock each Saturday and Sunday, Heritage Weekends will offer a unique opportunity to enter into the life of the people who have made Detroit an exciting mosaic of many cultures. Admission is $2, covering all activities with the exception of food and a few very special programs which will be announced in advance.
Both luncheons and dinners will be served, as well as snacks.
Parking is available in the lot adjacent to the General Lectures Building.
In presenting Heritage Weekends the International Institute continues its activities in broadening the scope of all ethnic groups in the area.

Since 1946 the Institute has helped newcomers to this country to become responsible citizens.
Its services include assistance in immigration problems, learning the English language, counseling, seeking employment, understanding the new cultural environment and providing a center for various activities.
The International Institute has also helped the total community to understand the people of other backgrounds who have come to live and work in Detroit.
By keeping alive the traditions of other cultures, it has built an invaluable bridge among all peoples, widening the horizons and deepening the ties of human beings everywhere.
Although the International Institute is a Torch Drive agency not all of its budget can be met through the Torch Drive.
Fund-raising is accomplished through membership dues, the annual and very popular Old World Market, sale of art and craft items at the Institute shop, the Institute restaurant which is open daily for luncheons and various special activities.

E. E. Butler, Jr. Weds In East

Edward Enright Butler, Jr., claimed Baroness Inge Bechtner von Reith as his bride Thursday, January 24, at a 5:30 o'clock ceremony in New York's Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, with Dr. Norman D. Stanton presiding.

The rites were followed by a reception at the East 73rd street home of Samuel Milliken.

The new Mrs. Butler is the daughter of the late Baron and Baroness L. Jonasz von Reith, of Berlin, West Germany. Her father was a diplomat, serving as technical attaché to the Austrian Government, an engineering scientist and a member of the international press corps, writing on automotive scientific advances.

Educated in Europe, the former Baroness von Reith received her baccalaureate from the Lycee, Paris, France, and attended the Beaux Arts there. She is a painter, ballet dancer and actress in the United States.

She performed recently on Broadway at the Imperial Theatre in "A Patriot For Me" with Maximilian Schell and played the female lead in the film "Pulse" made in Grenada in the West Indies, produced by Hans Pedersen. She is a horsewoman, having ridden in international jumping competitions, and

August Bride

Planning an August 24 wedding are Harvard Law School students CATHERINE LOUISE GRIFFITH and Robert O'Sullivan whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Griffith, of South Rensselaer road.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School and Kalamazoo College. Her fiancé, son of the David O'Sullivan, of Brooklyn, N.Y., received his Bachelors degree from Boston College.

April Bride

April wedding plans are being made by WENDY MATHESON and Danny M. Vought, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Matheson, of Brys drive.

The bride-elect, a Grosse Pointe North High School graduate, attended Michigan State University.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Vought, of Harper Woods, is an alumnus of East Catholic High School and a student at Wayne State University.

right Butler, of Palm Beach, Fla., and Grosse Pointe, attended Georgetown University and is a business consultant and manufacturers' representative in New York City.

He asked Frank Herlihy, of Fort Lee, N. J., to act as his best man.

Bridesmaids were Baroness Marion von Burchard, of Fort Lee, and Baroness Petra von Lehsten, of New York.

Grand Marais Club To Meet

Grand Marais Garden Club members will gather at Mrs. Kennard Jones' Barclay road home Monday, February 11, for luncheon and a meeting featuring a talk on Herbs by Mrs. Frederick Schumann, past-president of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan and an accredited flower show judge.

year. It's an annual project, supported annually by metropolitan Detroit's business community, annually netting the Detroit Symphony approximately $30,000.

Now if that sounds like a lot of money... think of the price of bread today, and remember that costs of everything, everywhere, are up, and climbing.

The Juniors hope to swell the Symphony's coffers even more by the time this weekend's over.

Many Juniors and their husbands will, in fact, be making a weekend of it downtown, starting with the Recess Club dinner and staying overnight in the central city to be up and at WJR/760's Musical Marathon phone banks at 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

The Marathon is a fund-raising first for the Detroit Juniors. Karl Haas, WJR's director of Fine Arts, and the station are donating time and talent, and special premiums will be announced and awarded during the 21-hour broadcast.

Listeners are invited to "purchase" Symphony selections for playing on the air. All purchasers, whether they "buy" a whole piece or subscribe a sum toward the playing of one, will be acknowledged on the air. And there are many, many other delightful surprises in store for listeners before the Marathon ends at 5 Monday morning.

Pointers, Here And There

If you're in Palm Beach Thursday after next, (that's February 21), drop by La Galerie Jean Boussquet when a selection of exquisite enamels by Virginia Durbin Thibodeau, of Broadstone road, goes on display. The artist's reception's set for early that evening, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

If you're in Micronesia this year or next, look up David A. Gerow, of Hawthorne road. The 27-year-old Pointer has just completed Peace Corps training and is off to the South Pacific to serve as a health volunteer. He's a Central Michigan University alumnus.

If you were in Lisbon, Athens, Teheran, Karachi, New Delhi, Bangkok, Hong Kong, Macao, Kowloon, Taipei, Nagoya, Kyoto, Atami, Nikko, Tokyo, Honolulu, Wake Island or San Francisco in 1973, you might have run into Dr. Kennard L. Jones, of Barclay road, as he circumnavigated the globe.

That same year, in San Francisco, Honolulu, Tokyo, Hong Kong, Bangkok, New Delhi, Athens, Brussels or London, you might have run into William B. Cudlip, of Lakeshore road, making his way around the world.

Both men, the former a dentist, the latter an attorney, were recently elected to membership in the Circumnavigators Club, founded in 1911, headquartered in New York, with active groups in Florida and Arizona, New Orleans, San Diego and Singapore and—of course!—Detroit.

Dr. Jones and Mr. Cudlip add their distinguished names to a distinguished roster. Among their 800 fellow Circumnavigators are Barry Goldwater, Terence Cardinal Cooke, PanAm founder Juan Trippe and United States President Richard M. Nixon, the Club's honorary president.

All About Our Country

I admit to having a trivia mind—little-known facts fascinate me—so I admit to being frankly fascinated by The American Presidency display at the Grosse Pointe Central Library.

For instance: Did you know that our smallest President was James Madison? (1809-1813). He weighed all of 100 pounds!

Or that the Marquis de Lafayette, after a visit to the White House during the administration of John Quincy Adams, (1825-1829), left a live alligator in the East Room?

The exhibit, sponsored by the Elizabeth Cass Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution in observance of February as American History Month, was set up by Mrs. Marvin Putnam.

Several quotes on the joys and burdens of the office are included, as well as a brief aside: a section on "The Intolerable Acts" passed by the British Parliament to punish the people of Boston for their 1773 Tea Party.

But back to that intriguing trivia... the Boston colonists, ever an inventive lot, discovered that a common American herb could be brewed into a "healthful and delectable" tea substitute.

It wasn't quite the same, of course, but Oswago Tea enjoyed quite a vogue among righteous Patriots who refused to pay off-to-England taxes on the Real Thing.

The plant, often called Bee Balm, or Horsemint, known too as Bergamot, is found in our gardens today. It's included in the display which will continue at the Library through Friday, February 15.

June Bride

At a Sunday dinner in the Stanhope avenue home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Weir, the engagement of BARBARA YVONNE SOVA and Frank Corcoran was announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Sova, of Beaconsfield avenue.

Mr. Corcoran is the son of the Michael Corcorans, of Roseville. A June wedding is planned.

Scallen-Dreyer Troth Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien J. Dreyer, of Farmington Hills, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Janet Mary, to Thomas Patrick Scallen, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Scallen, of Bishop road.

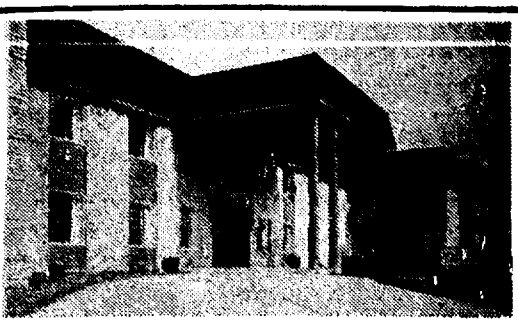

Miss Dreyer is a graduate of Marygrove College. Her fiancé is a graduate of John Carroll University, Cleveland, O., and the University of Detroit Law School.

A May wedding is planned.

Farm, Garden Club To Meet

Members of the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club gather for their monthly meeting next Monday, February 11, at 2 o'clock in the East Jefferson avenue home of Mrs. William M. Walker, Jr., whose co-hostesses are Mrs. Howard B. Cappel, Mrs. John D. Bayne and Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, III.

Howard B. Joerin will present the program, Growing Plants Under Artificial Light.

Woods Boaters Have New Commodore

Over 300 members and guests honored outgoing COMMODORE and MRS. MAURICE DALESANDRO, (right), and incoming COMMODORE and MRS. RICHARD THAMS at the Grosse Pointe Woods Boat Club's recent Commodore's Ball at the Polish Century Club. Highlight of the program was presentation of flags to the new officers, including Commodore Thams, Vice Commodore Edward Schwartz, Robert Lewis, treasurer, and Donald Bentzen, secretary, by outgoing Commodore Dalesandro. Vic Caputo was toastmaster. Guests included Woods Mayor and Mrs. Benjamin Pinkos, Councilwoman Joan Mullan and Dr. Mullan, Councilman and Mrs. George Freeman, Councilman and Mrs. John Sabol and Commander and Mrs. Henry Webster, of the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron.

Scandinavian Debs to Bow

At the Scandinavian Ball, proceeds go to the American Scandinavian Foundation Scholarship Fund, enabling students to study abroad. All Scandinavians and their friends are invited to participate. Ball tickets may be obtained by calling 557-3473.

Many little aches result from the pains a family takes trying to enjoy their vacation.

Grosse Pointe Park Mayor MATTHEW PATTERSON opened the 1974 Printing Week Graphics Exhibition at the Sentinel Center in East Jefferson avenue Tuesday, January 15. The display of modern equipment and printing methods was presented in conjunction with Printing Week in Detroit, January 15 through 18, an observance coinciding with the birthday of Early American statesman and printer Benjamin Franklin.

Museum Gets Caravaggio

The Detroit Institute of Arts has acquired a rare oil painting by Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio, the towering genius of the Baroque era.

The masterpiece, one of only four in the Western Hemisphere, was formally presented to the museum Monday, January 14. It now hangs on continuous public view for the first time in nearly 40 years.

A singularly striking acquisition in today's art world the canvas was painted by the Roman master in 1598 and is titled The Conversion of the Magdalene, (the Alzaga Caravaggio). It depicts, in Renaissance dress, the story of Mary's discovery of divine love as her sister Martha relates the miracles of Jesus Christ.

The masterpiece is described by Dr. Frederick J. Cummings, director of the museum, as a key work in the history of art.

The large horizontal scene, (38 1/2 by 52 3/16 inches), is one of the Art Institute's major acquisitions of the past 40 years. The canvas ranks in the Detroit collection alongside Pieter Bruegel's Wedding Dance and Jan Van Eyck's St. Jerome in His Study.

Caravaggio, (1573-1610), is the acknowledged founder of the 17th century style of painting called Baroque. The Conversion of the Magdalene obtained directly from the Alzagas, a prominent South American family who owned it for three generations, is a splendid example of the dramatic viewpoint he initiated.

Caravaggio's ability to create new interpretations transformed the subject matter of Renaissance art, Dr. Cummings explains.

His work changed the direction of art so thoroughly that he must be recognized as one of the key artists in the development of Western painting.

Purchase of the masterpiece was made possible through a grant of $800,000 by The Kresge Foundation and $500,000 from Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, of Lakeshore road, longtime supporter of the City-owned and operated Detroit Institute of Arts.

The museum bought the painting after exhaustive examination by a panel of experts from Europe and the United States.

The Kresge Foundation whose gifts have aided many Detroit-area institutions since its inception in 1924 has recently given other grants locally to Wayne County Community College, the Detroit Institute of Technology, the Metropolitan Detroit Youth Foundation, the Legal Aid and Defenders Association of Detroit and New Detroit, Inc.

Mrs. Ford, a member of the museum's Founders Society for more than 50 years, has served on the Arts Commission of the City of Detroit since 1945. Her benefactions are unparalleled in the history of the Art Institute.

Pair To Dance With Symphony

Andre Kostelanetz will conduct a program of music and dance at this week's Detroit Symphony Orchestra concert in Ford Auditorium Saturday evening, February 9, at 8:30 o'clock and Sunday afternoon, February 10, at 3:30 o'clock. Kresge Omnibus Family Concert.

Edward Villella and Anna Arago, appearing with the Detroit Symphony through the courtesy of the New York City Ballet, will be featured dancers in the presentation of excerpts from Khachaturian's "Gayane" and Tchaikovsky's "Swan Lake."

The remainder of the program will be orchestral works including the overture to "The Abduction from the Seraglio" by Mozart, Debussy's "Printemps," Suite Symphonique, excerpts from "Romeo and Juliet" by Prokofiev, the Crystal Lake by Elinor Remick Warren and waltzes from "Der Rosenkavalier" by Richard Strauss.

Andre Kostelanetz who inaugurated New York Philharmonic Hall in 1963 has been associated with the New York Philharmonic since 1952.

He has appeared as guest conductor with the Orchestras of Philadelphia, Cleveland, Los Angeles, Houston, Minneapolis and other cities in this country and Canada.

He has made many tours abroad leading the Royal Philharmonic and principal orchestras in European countries, Israel and Japan.

He has conducted the Detroit Symphony twice before: in March, 1961, and at the Worcester Festival in 1965.

Edward Villella has held the title of principal dancer with the New York City Ballet for over 15 years. He has appeared with the Royal Danish Ballet and the Royal Winnipeg Ballet and at the Brussels World Fair, London Festival Hall, Jacob's Pillow and Boston Arts Festivals.

He has been seen on all the major television variety shows, including Carol Burnett and Mike Douglas.

He danced with the New York Philharmonic under the leadership of Andre Kostelanetz for the first time at the 1970 "Promenades," and first appeared with the Detroit Symphony in October, 1971.

Anna Arago is a frequent partner of Edward Villella. Together they have appeared as guest artists with symphony orchestras throughout the country.

Born in Rome, she started ballet training in England at the Legat School. Receipt of a Fulbright Scholarship brought her to America where she became prima ballerina

Pointe Braille Club Lunches

The Grosse Pointe Braille Club held its January business/social meeting and luncheon last week at Lombardi's Restaurant. Eighteen regular members of the Club attended together with nine associate members, students in this year's class.

The new students present were Mrs. Frank Rosier, Mrs. Murray Gunst, Mrs. Douglas Tyron, Mrs. Thomas Chisholm, Mrs. Gary Kavanagh, Mrs. Edward Loye, Mrs. James Ayres, Mrs. Ann Baker and Mrs. Doris Boohar.

During the short business session Bindery chairman Mrs. W. A. Huegli reported she had bound an additional 11 volumes since the October meeting making a grand total as of December 31, 1973, of 3,770 pages of Braille, bound into 47 volumes.

These are textbooks, music textbooks, music, fiction and math textbooks, including 14 volumes of calculus math out of a 15-volume set brailled for one individual by Mrs. W. A. McClellan and Mrs. A. Lawson Potter.

This work was requested by the Lansing State Library for the Blind.

Also finished were three volumes of a 12-volume set for Wilson Junior High School, requested by Tri-County Volunteer Services.

Membership chairman Mrs. Sydney Partington reported the Club's membership now stands at 49, (37 active members and 12 student associate members), with a waiting list for next year's class. An interesting sidelight to teacher Mrs. Potter's report was a follow-up on one of her students from the class of 1970-71.

Upon completion of her Braille course and certification Mrs. Harriet Kaler, a retired teacher, moved to Clinton, N.Y. Armed with a brand new certificate and a new Braille writer she began to inquire where she might best use her new talents.

She checked with local associations, who had contact with the blind but found they had had no requests for Braille.

But, as any Brailist knows, once you learn Braille there is no stopping you from bringing independence, education and pleasure to the blind. Eventually Mrs. Kaler had a request for Grade 1 Braille for a blind child.

This led to interest from a small group of women who wanted to help, but first had to learn how to Braille.

The group progressed so well and were so eager that Mrs. Kaler started two more classes, instructing a total of 23 women. The classes ran concurrently but in different towns: Clinton, New Hartford and Ithaca, N.Y.

The groups progressed to advanced Braille, working on textbooks for an eight-year-old boy and a 16-year-old girl.

Eventual outcome of all this was organization of the Mohawk Valley Braille Trans-

Peter N. Lord To Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scheuch, of Hartford, Conn., and Great Island, West Yarmouth, Mass., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn Tuller Scheuch, to Peter Norton Lord, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert I. Lord, of Moross place.

Miss Scheuch, a graduate of Milton Academy and Yale University, is employed by Bankers Trust in New York City.

Her fiancé, a graduate of St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., Princeton University and the University of Chicago Business School, served three years in the United States Navy and was separated from the service as a lieutenant. He is now associated with W. R. Grace and Company in New York City.

scribers, known locally as "Kaler's Brailers."

Mrs. Kaler, who at first knew no one in town and was lonely, now doesn't have time to be alone or lonesome.

Mrs. Potter noted one difference between the group working in New York and the local group: the New York group is totally underwritten by civic and church groups who have undertaken financial support through the purchase of Braille typewriters, paper and binding supplies, whereas the Grosse Pointe Braille Club is volunteer-supported by its members.

President Mrs. W. A. McClellan introduced after-luncheon speaker Marge Easton, Wayne County Intermediate Schools Consultant Supervisor, Program for the Visually Impaired, Special Services Representative for Mobility for the Blind, who spoke about her work with blind children.

She showed many of the aids she uses in her work and also told of new inventions appearing on the market to aid the blind to read.

One, which has taken 10 years to perfect, is a regular-size pair of glasses with a built-in transmitter which conveys sounds through the temples, much like earphones on a stereo set. But the blind person has to be taught the significance of the sounds.

Another is the Opticon, about the size of a lipstick, held in the hand and moved across the printed page. The message is conveyed to a grid of 144 dots. When a reader's finger is on the grid, he is able to "read" the dots.

Yet another is a portable TV which increases print size four times.

Needless to say, all these are in the experimental stage and if available are terribly expensive.

Mrs. Easton stressed over and over that Braille done laboriously, as it is by members of the Grosse Pointe Braille Club, cannot be replaced in the education and independence of the blind, especially in textbook areas where research and reference are vital factors.

She stated that the number of blind children has not diminished but increased in recent years.

This is mostly caused by the administration of pure oxygen at birth, although the number of babies born without eyes, (radiation is the suspected cause), has increased.

This offer expires May 31, 1974. Good only in U.S.A. Void if taxed, restricted or forbidden by law.

Not long ago, Eckrich set out to prove you had a friend in the meat business. Well, here's further proof:

Right now, you can save up to 50¢ by buying different sizes of Eckrich smoked sausages. These are sausages so tasty they made Eckrich famous (no one else knows the smoking process). They're perfectly textured, with beautifully mild seasoning. And they're available three ways:

Little Smok-Y-Links, an ideal breakfast or snack sausage.

Smokees, the juicy frankfurter-sized sausages for sandwiches or grilling.

And old-fashioned bulk smoked sausage for dinnertime and casseroles. Get Eckrich smoked sausage and an appetizing refund now, just when you're hungry for both.

Along with the refund, we'll even send you some recipes for delicious, economical dishes made with sausages, making this an even better offer. But then, what are friends for?

IN TIMES LIKE THESE, YOU NEED A FRIEND IN THE MEAT BUSINESS.

Student Piano Contest Slated

The annual Piano Technician's Guild Award competition, open to all students grades seven through 12 in public or private schools within a 75-mile radius of Detroit, will accept applications by qualified entrants through Friday, February 15.

Sponsored jointly by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Detroit Community Music School and the Detroit-Windsor Chapter of the Piano Technician's Guild to stimulate and foster young piano talent, the competition carries three top prizes of United States Savings Bonds: $100 for first place, $50 and $25 for second and third places respectively.

Winners will be considered for an appearance with the Detroit Symphony.

Preliminary judging is on the basis of tapes of standard piano concertos submitted prior to the February 15 deadline.

Live audition finals will take place May 12 at the Community Music School.

Headed by Detroit Symphony Conductor-in-Residence Paul Freeman the distinguished panel of judges will include Dr. William Koerber, music director for the Detroit Public Schools, Anna Husband, director of the Detroit Community Music School, and Albert Fillmore, president of the Detroit Musician's League.

Complete information and application blanks, plus audition finals tickets, are available by calling 831-2870 or writing PTG Awards, Detroit Community Music School, 200 East Kirby, Detroit 48202.

To Bring Bible Names Alive

The Women of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will hear and see Mrs. John L. McCreight bring Bible city names to life via slides and accounts of her visit to the Near East with Mr. McCreight in the summer of 1973.

The program begins at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, February 12, at the Church. Devotions will be given by Stephanie Warrick, chairman for spiritual life studies.

New Women's Association President Mrs. J. Ross Bush will hold a short business meeting following the program. Luncheon will be served at noon. Child care is available.

At the Ball, scheduled for Valentine's Day, February 14, at Raleigh House, Humanitarian of the Year Awards will be presented to March of Dimes valentines Edward N. Cole, Walker Cisler, Nate Shapero and Maria Lalli. Party tickets, at $37.50 per person, $75 per couple, may be obtained by calling the March of Dimes, 864-6000.

School of Government To Hear About Lincoln

The School of Government, Inc., will present Weldon E. Petz as guest speaker at its Wednesday, February 20, meeting at the Women's City Club at 1 o'clock, with President Mrs. Phillip R. Flanders presiding.

Mr. Petz' topic is A Pilgrimage with Abraham Lincoln. Mrs. Sterling S. Richhart, parliamentarian, chairman of the day, will introduce the speakers.

Mr. Petz is a member of a fourth generation Detroit family—five generations counting his daughter—and holds degrees from Wayne State University in Education and Musicology and School Administration.

He has been a teacher of instrumental music in the public schools of Detroit, was principal of a Farmington School and at present is principal of Flanders School. He has made a serious study of collecting historical data about Lincoln. His Masters degree thesis concerned Music and Abraham Lincoln.

He will concentrate his February 20 talk on the human qualities of Lincoln.

Mr. Petz received the Lincoln Diploma of Honor in 1972. In 1973 he published a book, "In the Presence of Abraham Lincoln." He has been listed in "Who's Who of American Book Collectors" since 1952 and is a member of the Civil War Round Table of Michigan.

As a public service all friends of School of Government members are invited to attend Mr. Petz' program.

Schedule Bal Masque Fete

L'Alliance Francaise de Detroit will sponsor a Bal Masque Saturday, February 23, under auspices of M. Jacques Dircks-Dilly, Consul General of France in Detroit, at the Georgian Inn.

Mrs. Frederick Van Assche, of Ballantyne road, is chairman of the fete, assisted by co-chairman Miss Henriette Lacroix who is also handling publicity.

Committee members include the Mesdames M. R. Jolliff, Adolfo Brane, Conrad Heyner, Robert de Claire and Charles Blessing. Mrs. Albert Tolonen, 866-2271, is in charge of reservations.

Ex officio committee members are the Detroit Alliance's board of directors, Mrs. Frank Kruse president.

Cocktails at 7 o'clock will be followed by dinner with wine at 8, and dancing. Tickets at $15 per person, $25 per couple include a tax deductible donation, as all proceeds will be used to sponsor scholarships for students who wish to study in France.

There will be prizes for the best costumes. Reservations must be received by Friday, February 15.

Kathleen Healy To Say Vows

Former Pointer Kathleen A. Healy, who now makes her home in Farmington, and John Edward Lietz, of Centerville, plan a summer wedding at Saint Timothy's Roman Catholic Church, Trenton.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Chiasson, of Trenton, and the late Jack D. Healy, was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School and Michigan State University.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Edward Lietz, of Centerville, is a graduate of Saint Clement High School and Wayne State University.

Alt Weiberball Stated By German-Americans

The Ladies Auxiliary of the German-American Cultural Center will present an Alt Weiberball, (Old Women's Ball), Sunday evening, February 24, at the Center in East Outer drive, Detroit.

Tickets, available at the door, are $1 for masked participants, $2 for unmasked. Prizes will be awarded the best-dressed "old women," (men are to dress as old women also), and the Rheingold Maennerchor prince and princess, with their honor guard, will be present.

Berliner doughnuts will be sold. Party chairman and co-chairmen are Agnes Neumann and Hilde Mitschke.

Ceccatos Meet The Pointes

ALDO CECCATO, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's new conductor, his wife ELIANA, (left), and their children FRANCESCO, in Mr. Ceccato's lap, and five-year-old CRISTIANO met Grosse Pointe at the recent Detroit Symphony Preludes "Getting to Know You" program at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. MRS. J. C. HURLEY, of Harcourt road, Prelude hostess, called for the Ceccato family and, after the children were introduced and Francesco, who turned four the following day, received Happy Birthday wishes on behalf of everyone present from Mrs. Arnold W. Lungershausen, of Berkshire road. Preludes chairman, promptly chauffeured the two boys home with the help of their Italian nursemaid.

The second Prelude, scheduled for March 1, will feature the Detroit Symphony Brass Quintet. The Detroit Symphony Baroque Ensemble closes the 1974 Preludes season March 22. Each mini-musical begins at 11:15 at the War Memorial, with an optional luncheon following at 12:15 o'clock. Tickets at $7.50, including luncheon, or $3, program only, may be obtained by sending checks payable to Detroit Symphony Preludes to Mrs. Lungershausen at 849 Berkshire road, Grosse Pointe 48230.

On the Road and Happily Roaming in Afghanistan

cerned. It's smack dab in the center of town, about a block from the Khyber Pass cafeteria, just across the bridge and around the corner from the lapis lazuli shops.

The good rooms at the back, with balconies, overlook a square where nomads come in and squat a lot and where last summer, immediately post-coup, (Afghanistan decided last summer that it didn't need a king), loud-speakers were broadcasting Middle Eastern music and propaganda all day long and long into the night. They started to broadcast early in the morning.

People lucky enough to get the Hotel Kabul's good rooms last summer spent time in them making loudspeaker-broadcaster voodoo dolls. Then they went out on their balconies and stuck pins in the dolls while shouting nasty things at the Big Loudspeaker in the sky.

People in the front rooms enjoyed a view, with sound effects, of some sort of army installation. Most of the army came in trucks to spend the day, arriving early in the morning, going home for the night. Arrival of the army via trucks coincided with dawn.

Army truck voodoo dolls gave loudspeaker-broadcaster ones a run for their money at the Hotel Kabul last summer.

From the outside, the Hotel Kabul looks like a prison. The intercontinental looks like intercontinentals everywhere. To someone staying at the Hotel Kabul, this looks very good.

The Hotel Kabul's clientele is the more interesting, consisting of French package trippers, (who'll put up with more inconveniences as long as they're convinced they're getting a bargain than any other people on earth), commercial travelers and American cheapskates not cheap enough for a chaikana.

The Hotel Kabul eschews such frills as air-conditioning, swimming pools and elevators. It provides comfortable beds in comfortable rooms with fans, plenty of hot water and good water pressure, and plenty of porters for luggage. Guests are permitted to take all the time they want to climbing the stairs.

And there is, of course, that central location: a Hotel Kabul guest KNOWS he's in the center of things.

There's red, and there's the red of the Red City, Shahr-I-Zohak.

This is an impossible place. You've been on the road all day — it's an all-day drive from Kabul to Bamiyan via Hajigak Pass — and you're tired, and there's dust in your throat, and in your eyes, and you're so thirsty for cold water you could die, but no way are you going to try drinking from the river; (that way lies pain), and your feet are hot, and your shirt is sticking to your back, and all you want is a bed, any bed, anywhere, and you have had it with ruins — the whole blasted country is one big blasted ruin — and you go through a really spectacular gorge, (so what?), and the road turns sharply left, and you go on a bit, through some really spectacular rock and cliff formations, (so what?) and all of a sudden there's this impossible place. It really is a RED city.

The cliffs are magenta, and the towers and turrets and parapets might have been carved from the cliffs from the wind, or imagined into being by a jinn, or grown there from mythic city-seeds.

But men did make this place, and lived and died in it.

This is the city where Genghis Khan's favorite grandson fell, the fortress-gate to the Valley of Bamiyan. When Genghis Khan heard of his grandson's death he vowed vengeance on the whole valley, entered and destroyed it.

Shahr-I-Zohak, ruined and crumbling, is the color of dried blood. Its cliff is sheer, and a single, steep path leads up the cliff wall. Ruined watchtowers line the ascent. Rubble litters the path. Walking it, you find yourself very aware of yourself, of the sound of your footsteps and breath, the whisper of moving air as you swing your arms.

You listen . . . and you hear yourself, and the wind, and nothing else.

The Red City is a dead city, soul-less, bare-less, pared down to ghost, red bone. Empty.

At the moment, you wander on the cliff top through roofless rooms, stand in doorways opening into space and sky.

It would really be extraordinary to tote a sleeping bag up this cliff, spend a night in silence in this dead, red city. If one weren't afraid of turning, overnight, into red stone.

"Only one person coming from America!" I nod, indicate that my possessions, such as they are, are all present and accounted for in my yurt, scramble in my purse and pull out what I devoutly hope is an adequate though not over-generous tip, (I have no Big Spender from the Middle West proclivities: it's so non-U), and indicate, by a "you may go now" smile, that all is well.

It doesn't work. The boy in charge of my section of yurts in the Bami-yan Valley Tourist Yurt Camp can't figure me out. "But, sir," he blurts out finally, "where are your husbands?"

When I allow as how I have not brought even one of them along with me from the States, he departs, shaking his head.

Leaving me alone in my yurt. Which is where, above all places, at this moment, in this valley, I devoutly want to be.

A yurt is a circular, domed portable tent favored by nomads who frequent such garden spots as the Gobi Desert. The Afghan Tourist Organization, realizing the picturesque pull of the yurt on the western psyche, ("Golly, Gladys: here we are, in a YURT!"), has cannily constructed a Tourist Yurt Village — deluxe double yurts with bath, communal facilities provided the remainder — atop an escarpment looking out over Bamiyan to the Great Buddhas carved in the cliffs on the other side of the valley.

People who can't get into the Tourist Yurt Village get to stay in the motel and share their bathrooms with Europe-to-India overlanders. Barflys have discovered the motel sometimes sells beer.

The Yurt Village now, well, it's as if the United States Department of the Interior decided to lodge visitors to the Grand Canyon in a modernized tepee encampment, ("Golly Scheherezade: here we are, in a TEPEE!"). It's corny, but it works, it's fun, I really like my yurt. It has a lovely red and blue carpet on the floor, and two cots with lovely, thick red and blue blankets, and a couple of chairs, and a table, and lightbulb. It has one small window, and a door with a lock, and it rattles at night in the wind. It's only a few feet from the ladies'. It's very clean.

If I were Scheherezade, I'd probably love a modernized tepee encampment on the rim of the Grand Canyon.

There's time flowing, and me within it . . . and there's time contained in the Valley of Bamiyan.

This is where you get to when you sail beyond Byzantium. Incredible things have happened here.

The Colossal Buddhas of Bamiyan were carved into the living rock in the third and fourth centuries A. D., and they're still standing, in the rock, curved, serene lips smiling below . . . nothing, for their faces, eyes and mouths, were hacked away in the 11th century by the invading Moslems, iconoclasts to whom representations of the deity, and of man, made in god's image, are sacrilegious.

Sightless, smiling, they face the valley. They are truly colossal, one 125 feet high, the other 175 feet, set in a colossal cliff, surrounded by a maze, a honeycomb of cave-carved dwellings, sanctuaries, assembly halls: the monastery city of the monks of Bamiyan.

A dead city. Wherever there were faces once, now nothing. Niches without statues. Headless frescoes. Silence and wind, and the damp smell of earth-floored rooms in rock.

Wherever there was color — and there was a great deal of color — now monotone. Stone sand-blasted to the color of sand.

You can climb within the cliff up narrow, rock-carved steps, body twisted in the twisting passage, claustrophobic, and climb out upon the head of the Great Buddha, and look out over the pale, clear, timeless valley.

You can climb on the outside of the cliff from cell to cell, observing, exploring . . .

But remember to stay close to the Great or the Small Buddha. It is about a mile from Buddha to Buddha, and the cliff face between belongs to the wild dogs who den in the cells between, and the dogs attack each other if they trespass on each other's territory. They will attack human trespassers as well.

There's a grand view across Bamiyan Valley to the Buddhas from the top of the citadel of Shahr-I-Gholghola.

This is the City of Noise, the Screaming City, delivered up to Genghis Khan through the treachery of an Islamic princess, daughter of the ruler, jealous of her father's new wife.

In one night, in retribution for his grandson's death, Genghis Khan slew everything, man, woman and child, bird and animal, in the citadel of Shahr-I-Gholghola.

Then he slew the princess.

Short and to The Pointe

Among undergraduates attaining perfect 4.0 grade point averages during Michigan State University's fall term are Grosse Pointe North High School graduates RITA M. CUZZIE, of Lennon road, a senior majoring in Elementary and Special Education, and SUSAN M. GALLEGO, of South Brys drive, a senior majoring in Romance Languages; Grosse Pointe South High School graduates KATHRYN E. ANZINGER, of Rivard boulevard, a pre-Veterinary sophomore, and FORD H. WHEATLEY, of Grayton road, a sophomore who is undecided as to his major field of study; DeLaSalle graduate THOMAS M. SALKOWSKI, of Harvard road, an Agriculture junior; Dominican graduate MOLIE A. BLAKE, of Audubon road, an Agriculture Technology sophomore; and Austin graduate DAVID T. CATTIN, of Anita avenue, an Agriculture junior.

GEORGE HAESSLER of Bishop road, has been named a finalist in a nationwide contest to design coins for the National Bicentennial. Of the 1,000 designs submitted.

For, he reasoned, if she were treacherous to her father she would, in the end, prove treacherous to him, too.

Shahr-I-Gholghola's citadel is white stone ruins now, its ghosts the screams of that final night's victims. It is, in daylight, wonderfully peaceful. It is finished. Everything that happened here has happened: there's nothing more to come.

Shahr-I-Gholghola is another superb place for walking.

Of course, you might see Shahr-I-Gholghola as just one more in an unending series of rockpiles scattered rather far apart, unfortunately — across the surface of Afghanistan. A pause between the morning's and the evening's Lomott tablets.

And I couldn't blame you. Sick is no fun. I'd think twice about going to Afghanistan without my Lomott, myself. Then I'd probably go.

Mr. Haessler is one of 12 semi-finalists. The winning designs will appear on the back of special quarter, half-dollar and silver dollar coins to be minted in commemoration of the nation's 200th birthday. Mr. Haessler is employed by the Detroit News as an advertising artist. (Continued on Page 27)

Cabin Crafts Makes the Carpet That Makes the Home is good taste a dangerous thing?

Maybe so . . . because some folks have our line pegged as purely decorative, not down-to-earth. They don't see the fact for the frou-frou. The fact is . . . Cabin Crafts stresses Beauty and the Basics. We have Wild Ones . . . and Safe Ones. Sensationals . . . and Staples. So why settle for one or the other when you can have both . . . Society News Gathered from the Pointes

South Plans Fashion Show

Co-op students at South High School are jumping right into the spirit of the work world by planning a fashion show for Friday night, February 22, in the South cafeteria.

The fashion co-ordinating, narration, modeling, and even the hair styles will be done by girls considering careers in those areas. Tickets, priced at $1 for students, 17 and under, and $1.50 for adults, may be obtained in Room 108 or at the door the night of the show. Proceeds will go towards the 1974 Co-op Spring Banquet.

The show, entitled "In the Spring of Things," will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Modeling the fashions will be Katy Sullivan, Barb Marcus, Judy Slusser, Stacie Davis, Jeannie Pollina, Joan Simon, Ronnie McEachern, Joan Leone, Lisa Helm, Margie Koueiter, Valerie Thompson and Peggy Weckler. Also modeling will be three-year-old Carrington Powers and seven-year-old Lynne Weskel. Fashions from Kay Baum will be featured.

Acting as hair stylist will be Yvonne Theria who works at the Greenhouse On-the-Hill. Entertainment will be provided by Marianne Van Assche and Janis Trombley. The show is sponsored by the Business Office Education Club at the high school. Faculty sponsors are Mrs. Dorothy Holcomb and Mrs. Andrea Kress. Acting as chairman of the Fashion Show is Clarice Weskel. Refreshments will be served following the fashion show.

Cottage Slates Diabetes Class

The Wayne County Department of Health will sponsor a series of classes for both diabetics and their families. The classes will begin Thursday, February 21, from 7 to 9 p.m. at Cottage Hospital and continue for the next five Thursday evenings ending March 28.

The classes will focus on the condition of diabetes mellitus, its control and treatment and its relationship to diet. The importance of the diabetic's cooperation with his physician is stressed along with the patient's responsibility in caring for himself in order to lead an active life.

Written approval to attend the classes from your physician is required. Children under 14 years should be accompanied by a parent.

To register for the class, call the Wayne County Department of Health, 274-2800 or 721-0200, extension 6901.

Hot Chocolate for Skaters

Taking their K.P. detail seriously, MRS. FRANK A. GERMAK, (left), and MRS. HOWARD S. BUHL, (right), check the temperature of the hot chocolate they served to ULS kindergartners and first graders at the kids' annual skating party held at McCann rink Saturday night, January 26. Heavy rains made the evening far more suitable for just drinking the hot chocolate than for skating, but a good crowd turned out to enjoy skating in the rain and consumed a total of 12 gallons of hot chocolate, complete with marshmallows. Fourth and fifth graders laced up their skates last Saturday night, February 2, for a similar gathering and Saturday, February 16, will see second and third graders take to the ice. Seventh graders are planning a pizza skating party for Saturday, February 23.

East Side Delta Zetas To Have Herb Program

East Side Delta Zeta Alumnae will meet Tuesday, February 19, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Robert Burns in St. Clair Shores for a program, Spice Up Your Cooking, based on herbs.

Refreshments will be furnished by co-hostesses Mrs. Joseph Nerone and Mrs. Jonathan Martin, both Pointers.

Among other Pointers planning to attend are Mrs. L. M. Gilewicz and Mrs. William Kamm.

Artists Market Exhibit Slated

Clay and Fibers, the next exhibit at the Detroit Artists Market galleries in Randolph street, opens Friday, February 15, with a 7 to 9 o'clock reception, and will run through Saturday, March 9. Gallery hours are 10 to 5 o'clock Monday through Saturday.

Catholic Study Club To Gather Monday

The Catholic Study Club of Detroit will hold its annual membership brunch and social hour at the Federation of Women's Clubs in Fenkell avenue, Detroit, next Monday, February 11, at 11:30 o'clock.

Guest artist Ruthann Logsdon, of Southfield, who has just returned from a two-month tour of Europe with the Don Large Chorus, will present a program of early church music, accompanying herself on the guitar.

Mrs. Charles Shannon is chairman of the day. Mrs. Edwin Roesner is vice-chairman.

Sweden Topic For Jenny Lind

Members of the Jenny Lind Club of Detroit gathered last Tuesday, February 5, for luncheon at the Balfour road home of Mrs. George Baer followed by a talk on Sweden today by The Reverend Walter Persson, of Stockholm, currently serving as Ecumenical Minister at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Charities Party Planned By Catholic Study Club

The Philanthropic committee of the Catholic Study Club of Detroit will hold its annual Charities Luncheon and card party at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Tuesday, February 19, at 12:30 o'clock.

Wayne County Crippled Children, Muscular Dystrophy and Saint Catherine's Home are among the many charities that benefit from this party.

Reservations are being accepted through Friday, February 15, by Mrs. James Meeker, 851-3774, and Mrs. Walter Noonan, 1 EM 3-0781.

Assisting chairman Mrs. Bernard Adams are Mrs. Arthur Hathaway, Mrs. Earl Vance, Mrs. Joseph DuMouchelle, Mrs. Louis Riehl, Mrs. Lester MacDonald, Mrs. Fred Neiman and Mrs. Hellmuth Hicke.

Mrs. Peter Montagne is committee president.

EDWARD C. OETTING, of Whittier road, has received a Master of Arts degree from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Pre-School to Begin Feb. 26

A pre-school for children ages three to five will begin Tuesday, February 26, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The sessions will run through Thursday, June 6, meeting Tuesday through Thursday every week, for two hours, 9:15 a.m. to 11:15 a.m.

The program, directed and taught by Mrs. Helen Doelle, Mrs. MaryAnn Hughes and Mrs. Anita Myers, is designed to introduce the child to literature, drama, music, arts and crafts, audio-visual and field trips.

The program is based on the principle that "learning is fun" and that children learn more easily if they can first glimpse the whole, study its parts and finally synthesize and pursue their interests and imagination.

When the program was offered eight years ago by Mrs. Doelle and Mrs. Hughes, it proved very successful. For further information about enrollment, parents should call the War Memorial at 881-7511.

Center Plans Casino Night

Shrove Tuesday, February 26, will be a gala occasion at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The Crystal Ballroom will be transformed French Quarter of New Orleans and a dinner of French cuisine will be served at 7 o'clock.

Following dinner, guests will dance through the confetti to the big band music of Russ Reed and the Grosse Pointe South Band. Set ups will be provided and all guests are urged to wear masks. There will be a prize for the most imaginative mask.

As an alternative to dancing, guests may take a break from the dance floor and try their skill at games in the Casino where the winners of the largest amounts of house money will receive prizes.

The complete evening, dinner, dance and casino is $15 per couple, $8 for singles. The dance is $6 per couple or $3.50 for singles. Tickets are available at the Center or through Band members.

FISHER ELECTED

The Mackinac Bridge Authority has announced the election of Charles T. Fisher, III, of Lothrop road, as chairman. Mr. Fisher, president of National Bank of Detroit, has been a member of the Authority since 1967. In the post of chairman he succeeds Prentiss M. Brown, who had held that position from 1950, when the Authority was created, until his death last December 19. He is the third member of his family to serve on the Authority. His father, Charles T. Fisher, Jr., was one of the original members and served as vice-chairman until his death in 1958. His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Briggs Fisher, served from that year until 1967.

SELECTIVE OFFERINGS FOR SELECTIVE BUYERS

HOW DOES THIS description grab you? Two bedrooms on the first floor with a family room. The cathedral ceiling living room has a loft with room for a den or additional sleeping room. There's a full basement, garage and the low price tag of $32,500. Grab it.

ALL GOOD THINGS come to those who wait and we are very proud to offer this most exquisite contemporary on S. Brys Drive. Every feature is special from the Philippine mahogany and Domolite stone exterior to the fully equipped kitchen which will delight the most fastidious chef. Four family bedrooms plus that secret bedroom over the heated garage. There's central air conditioning and an intercom system.

OPEN SUNDAY FROM 2 until 5

DAN LUNDELL WILL BE YOUR HOST at another first offering at 22208 Colonial Court. This brand new colonial has four bedrooms on the second floor. The kitchen is complete with all appliances and the large family room has a fireplace with raised hearth. As new as the year and priced at $59,500.

THIS ONE IS IN PERFECT SHAPE—Two bedrooms on the first floor and a third bedroom with lavatory on the second. 2167 Anita also has a two car garage and recreation room in the basement with plenty of room to party. Come meet Bob Monroe and see this first offering.

NOT MANY three bedroom colonials offering a family room and first floor lavatory appear on the market for LESS than $35,000. Marty Owens will be showing off this scarce item at 21159 Country Club. Check them both out Sunday afternoon.

THIS TWO-YEAR-OLD Georgian Colonial is one of Grosse Pointe's show places! With five bedrooms, three baths, complemented with two powder rooms, library, and spectacular kitchen, and two family rooms with natural fireplaces and a wet bar, first floor laundry room; what more could you ask for?

THIS LITTLE BIG HOUSE has two master bedrooms and a super family room with fireplace. The charm of a deadend street is always appealing, and looking ahead to next summer you can plan on swimming in your own backyard pool and enjoying the comfort of central air conditioning.

CONSIDERED BY MANY to be one of the best condominium complexes in the Pointe this particular apartment has four bedrooms and two baths on the second floor and two more rooms on the third. There is a den and lavatory on the main floor and large breakfast room to complement the kitchen.

Offer Summer 'Dig' in Italy

Oakland University and the Etruscan Foundation, Inc., are offering a 1974 summer institute in Tuscan Archaeology.

Twenty students will be accepted for the July 1 through 31 program that features intensive work in art history, field work in archaeology and the conservation of historic sites and artifacts in the vicinity of Siena, Italy.

"This is the first archaeological program offered by Oakland University abroad," says Frederick W. O'neal, academic vice president and provost.

"This exciting opportunity is made possible through the generosity of the Etruscan Foundation, Inc., which has made an important archaeological field site and living and study facilities available to us."

Participants will be housed in the Castello di Spumocchia in Rosia, Italy. The 600-year-old building is the Italian headquarters of the Etruscan Foundation, Inc., a private foundation headed by Ferdinand Cinielli, of Country Club drive.

The Foundation's Italian headquarters is located in the mountains 12 miles southwest of Siena. It contains the main study facilities of the institute including archives, classrooms, a conservation laboratory, library and museum.

The Etruscan civilization reached its height in the 6th century B.C., and many significant artifacts have been discovered in the Siena vicinity.

Students from Oakland or other institutions may participate in the program for graduate or undergraduate credit. They will attend lectures and participate in field work in archaeology and work on conservation of ancient and medieval objects.

Guest lecturers from American and Italian universities will supplement the course offerings.

Trips will be made to important sites and museums in the area.

Carl F. Barnes, Jr., chairman of the Oakland University Department of Art and Art History, will serve as field director. He visited the Spumocchia site last summer in preparation for the 1974 program.

Additional faculty include Dr. Dante Piccini, Depart-

Theatre Topic For Phase I

David Robert Kanter, managing director of Oakland University's Meadow Brook Theatre, will talk about the staging of this year's theatrical productions at a meeting of Phase I, an all-singles group, at 7:30 o'clock this Sunday, February 10, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

A social hour will follow the program. Phase I will travel by Amtrak passenger train to Ann Arbor for dinner at The Gandy Dancer Saturday evening, February 9.

Phase I meets every Sunday night at Memorial Church. Singles from 20 to 40 are invited to attend. Further information on the group's activities may be obtained by contacting Gust Jahnke at 882-5330.

Party to Honor Park Senator

Friends of Buckingham road resident, Senator George S. Fitzgerald, (D., Grosse Pointe Park), will gather at the Raleigh House in Southfield to pay him tribute for nine years of service in the Michigan Senate with a cocktail party and buffet, Sunday, February 16.

Democratic Party officials and friends are invited, as are all of his constituents of the First District. Tickets for the gathering are available at $25 a person.

Festivities will begin at 6 p.m. and run until about 10 p.m. Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Margaret Hawkins, secretary for Senator Fitzgerald's party, P. O. Box 853, Lansing, Mich., or by calling 517-373-1167.

Set Engineers' Wives Meeting February 13

Turning Car Hits Woman

A Park policeman, while on routine patrol on Wednesday, January 30 was an eyewitness to an accident in which a turning automobile struck and injured a woman pedestrian as she was crossing Kercheval at Cadieux. The motorist was issued a violation ticket and is scheduled to appear in court.

The arresting officer, Patrolman Timothy Mink, in an official accident report, stated he was patrolling on Kercheval at 10:22 a.m., when he observed the driver, Frank S. Banach, of 576 Notre Dame, traveling north on Cadieux. He made a left turn onto Kercheval and hit the woman who was walking south across Kercheval. She was knocked to the pavement.

The injured woman was identified as Mrs. Beaulah Magruder, of 1210 Grayton. She was transported to Bon Secours Hospital by Park firemen in the emergency ambulance. She suffered a possible broken leg, it was said.

Banach was issued a ticket for failing to yield the right-of-way to a pedestrian, and is scheduled to appear before Park Municipal Judge John Urso Wednesday, February 27, for a hearing.

Re: PETITION RE FOX CREEK ENCLOSURE AN INTRA-COUNTY DRAIN SERVING THE CITY OF DETROIT, CITY OF GROSSE POINTE PARK, CITY OF GROSSE POINTE, CITY OF GROSSE POINTE FARMS, VILLAGE OF GROSSE POINTE SHORES, NORTHEAST WAYNE COUNTY SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM AND SOUTH MACOMB SANITARY DISTRICT, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 20 of Act No. 46 of the Public Acts of 1956, as amended, a petition was filed by the City of Detroit and the City of Grosse Pointe Park with the County Drain Commissioner of Wayne County, Michigan, petitioning for the following project, to wit:

The undersigned, a municipal corporation in the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, hereby petitions that the Fox Creek Enclosure, an intra-county drain, be extended, relieved and enlarged by the construction of branches, connections and improvements thereto and the construction and/or removal of bridges and culverts and that the said Fox Creek Enclosure be relocated, widened, deepened, filled and otherwise improved, where advisable in the opinion of the Drainage Board, from its present outlet to the Fox Creek Canal to a location to be established in Conner Creek. Also, to comply with the Michigan Water Resources Commission's future storm water overflow quality standards, to develop the proposed intra-county drain as a storage and/or retention basin with the necessary treatment facilities, and to provide separate storm water branches in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms as follows:

1. A sewer beginning at the intersection of St. Paul Avenue and Whittier Avenue, thence extending easterly in St. Paul Avenue to Yorkshire Highway; thence northerly in Yorkshire Highway some 150 feet.

2. A sewer beginning at the intersection of St. Paul Avenue and Jefferson Avenue, thence extending easterly in Jefferson Avenue to Cadieux Avenue; thence northerly in Cadieux Avenue some 950 feet.

3. A sewer beginning at the intersection of St. Paul Avenue and Vernor Highway, thence extending westerly in Vernor Highway to Audubon Avenue; thence northerly in Audubon Avenue to the alley south of Mack Avenue.

and in other public corporations served thereby, where advisable in the opinion of the Drainage Board, the same being necessary for the public health.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN, that the Drainage Board for said project has considered the said petition and has made a tentative determination that said petition is sufficient and that the said project is practical; has given the name "FOX CREEK ENCLOSURE DRAIN" as the name of said Drain and the name "FOX CREEK ENCLOSURE DRAINAGE DISTRICT" as the name of the drainage district therefor; and has made a tentative determination that the following public corporations are entitled for the cost of said project, to wit:

State of Michigan—on account of drains to state highways

County of Wayne—on account of drainage to county highways

County of Wayne—on account of contractual obligations with Northeast Wayne County Sewage Disposal System and South Macomb Sanitary District

City of Detroit

City of Grosse Pointe Park

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN, that the said Drainage Board will meet on the 5th day of March, 1974, at 7:00 o'clock P.M., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, at the Grosse Pointe Park City Hall, 15115 East Jefferson Avenue, Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan 48230, for the purpose of receiving and considering objections to said project, and to the matter of assessing the cost thereof to the public corporations above named. This Notice is given to and for the benefit of the said public corporations and all taxpayers thereof who are entitled to be heard.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN, that after such hearing the said Drainage Board shall make a determination as to the sufficiency of the petition, the practicability of the drain, whether the drain should be constructed, and if so, the public corporations to be assessed and shall issue an order known as the Final Order of Determination. Section 483 of Act No. 46, Public Acts of Michigan, 1956 as amended, provides that the Final Order of Determination shall not be subject to attack in any court, except by proceedings in certiorari brought within 30 days after the order is filed in the office of the Wayne County Drain Commissioner, the Chairman of the Drainage Board for the Fox Creek Enclosure Drain, and that if no such proceeding shall be brought within said 30 day period the drain shall be deemed to have been legally established and the legality of the drain shall not thereafter be questioned in any suit at law or in equity, either on jurisdictional or non-jurisdictional grounds.

This notice is given by order of the said Drainage Board for the Fox Creek Enclosure Drain.

MRS. WILLIAM G. SELF, OF EASTBROOK COURT

By Janet Mueller

She'd have loved to have been on the stage. Voice and piano were her subjects at the Conservatory in Marburg-an-Lahn, Hessen, Germany, but it was voice that really appealed to her. "I wanted to be an opera singer."

Her piano teacher objected: this pupil had talent. "Don't ever give up the piano," the teacher advised.

But for 15 years Lori, wife and mother of a growing family, had no piano on which to practice.

Today, widowed and remarried, encouraged by Dr. Self, she's back at the keyboard, studying with concert pianist Ruth (Mrs. Walter J.) Burczyk, of Littlestone road.

Wants To Be Good "I don't want to be a professional pianist any more, but I want to be good again."

Lori Self, (her "official" first name is Hannelore — "but everybody calls me Lori; if someone telephones and asks to speak to 'Hannelore,' I get suspicious"), was born and grew up in Marburg.

It's a Grimm's Fairy Tale town, 700 years old, famous for its University, founded in 1227, and its castle, where Luther delivered his Reformation talks.

The Landgrave of Hessen was the first ruler in Germany to introduce the Reformation to his province.

Lori came to Detroit via Canada, with her first husband, who had been a Prisoner of War in the States and a member of Werner von Braun's Aberdeen Proving Grounds scientific team.

Back To Germany He'd sailed back to Germany after World War II on what was to have been a three-month leave, with the understanding that he could return and apply for American citizenship. But his ship studies with Hixie (Mrs. Sterling) Sanford.

Party Planned At St. James

Susan plays the recorder too, as does her mother, who like so many German youngsters began recorder studies almost as soon as she began to read.

Claudia Beck, almost 10, is a pupil at Bethany Lutheran School. Claudia loves to sing but does not want to play any musical instrument.

Vicky has an excellent grasp of music theory but displays no interest in playing an instrument.

Girls Can Choose

Lori let her girls follow their latent inclinations. They are exposed to music, (can't help but be), and if they want to follow through, to learn to play or sing, fine.

If they don't, no amount of force-feeding is going to make them happy or good performers.

The same with maintaining fluency in German as a second language: Vicky, whose parents spoke German at home, entered kindergarten as a German-speaking child. Then she started to reply to her parents' German-phrased questions in English.

"That's how it begins."

Vicky still can speak German. She's studying it at North High. Susan and Claudia both understand German, but neither speaks it.

Lori returns to Germany every few years to visit her mother. She was an only child, and her mother is a widow.

Mother Comes Here

"My mother was here for a month this summer, and here two years ago. I was home, (in Germany), three years ago... so maybe we go again next year."

Going home to Germany means just that: going HOME. Lori has never done much traveling in Europe, not even much within Germany. There wasn't much traveling one could do in World War II and immediate post-World War II Europe, and Lori was a very young bride when she left for Canada.

When she returns to Germany now, it's to visit her mother.

Some day, of course, Lori would love to tour Europe. After she's seen America.

"I love America. I want to travel the United States first. I love the South: we went to Alabama last year to visit my husband's family in Birmingham. He hadn't been home for 30 years."

"He showed me all the places he remembered..."

Southern Sojourns

Lori wandered happily through historic Charleston, S. C., last year, and is just back from a trip to New Orleans.

Summers, the Selfs spend as much time as possible in northern Michigan, at their farm on Burt Lake.

Lori Self is not a hobbyist. "My family, my husband and children, come first. Then comes music." She is an excellent cook, a cookbook collector, member of the Cook Book Guild. She favors American cooking because she loves it, but when company comes she may turn out one of her German specialties: potato dumplings, for instance, or sweet and sour red cabbage.

Rose Society Meets Feb. 13

Grosse Pointe Rose Society members gather for their first meeting of the new year next Wednesday, February 13, at 8 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe Central Library, Kercheval avenue at Fisher road.

The program will be preceded by a 7:30 o'clock coffee and dessert hour under the aegis of Mrs. Paul Mabarak and Mrs. Louis Parent.

Forrest Geary, past-president of the Pointe Rose Society, past-president of the Detroit Rose Society, accredited American Rose Society judge, secretary of the American Rose Society Great Lakes District board of directors and a 1972-73 member of the American Rose Society National Committee of Consulting Rosarians, will talk on What Roses to Plant and Why, with an analysis of 1974's new varieties.

A question - and - answer period will follow his lecture. The public is cordially invited to attend and is advised to use the rear entrance to gain admittance to the Library.

stance, or sweet and sour red cabbage.

She's been a member of the Metropolitan Opera Guild for 22 years.

She's a member of Project Hope and the Wayne County Medical Society Women's Auxiliary, of the Women's City Club and the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Hold Royal Series

Dr. and Mrs. Self are regular Detroit Symphony-goers, holders of Royal Series tickets. The whole family attends the Symphony's Kresge concerts.

Lori has done professional modeling because she enjoys it. She likes clothes. "People love to dress up," she believes firmly. The next major fund-raising project of the Women's Committee for the Grosse Pointe Symphony will be a black tie affair: a Promise Tree auction and dinner-dance at the Roostertail planned for Friday, March 29.

Dr. and Mrs. Self will be there, naturally. They'd be there even if Lori weren't the Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's current general chairman. The Promise Tree promises a delightful party evening.

Lori joined the Pointe Symphony Women four years ago, for the simplest of reasons. "Anything musical interests me."

She was elected general chairman last June.

Three Major Meetings

As general chairman she presides at three general membership meetings a year, in June, October and January. The Pointe Symphony Women also present two annual teas, one at Christmas, sponsored by the board as a complimentary thank you to all members for a job well done, and a spring donation tea to which each member is encouraged to bring at least one new prospective member.

Social activities — a museum tour, a bus excursion to Rochester — are scheduled through the year to get and keep the members together. Special fund-raising projects fulfill the Committee's main purpose: to support in every way, but especially financially, the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra.

"I think Grosse Pointe is the finest community in the United States," says Lori Self. "I have a dream: that Grosse Pointe shall have a Symphony worthy of it."

Musically, The Pointe is loaded with talent. Practically... even the greatest talent can languish for lack of funds.

At the Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee general membership meeting last month it was agreed that 25 percent of all Women's Committee membership dues shall go directly to the Symphony Society.

Seeking 'Promises'

"After all, we were founded to help the Symphony," Lori observes. She hopes the Women's Committee, under her aegis, will raise quite a bit of money for the Orchestra. To that end, she's made a date already for an evening fashion show next fall, (November 1), and is urging

Short and to The Pointe

The FRANCIS M. DEWEYS have sold the home in Lakecrest lane in which they lived for 16 years and are happily ensconced in Delray Beach, Fla., where they celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday, January 20, with a cocktail-supper party at the Delray Beach Club. They have three daughters and 12 grandchildren.

Among featured artists in the faculty-student chamber music concert that was presented in Pease Auditorium on the Eastern Michigan University campus was JAMES WAGNER, a graduate assistant and candidate for a Masters degree in Piano, son of the LAWRENCE A. WAGNERS, of Newcastle road. He played the Piano Sonata by contemporary composer Elliott Carter and Mozart's Piano Concert K271, accompanied by the EMU Liberation Orchestra.

New assistant head nurse on the Harper Hospital Physiatric Unit is MARY BETH NIENSTEDT, of Mount Vernon road, who completed her Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing at Nazareth College and is now doing post-graduate work at Wayne State University. She previously worked as an industrial nurse at Ford Motor Company, as assistant head nurse at the Lafayette Clinic and did some private duty nursing at Salvatore Mundi Hospital in Rome, Italy.

MR. and MRS. JEROME DAVIS-COLLINS, of Washington road, announce the birth of a daughter, MOLLY DELANEY, November 7. Mrs. Davis-Collins is the former KAREN VAN VOORHEES, daughter of MR. and MRS. H. E. VAN VOORHEES, of Vernier road. Paternal grandmother is MRS. ROBERT BEGLY, of Manhasset, Long Island, N. Y.

everyone to pledge "promises" for the March 29 Promise Tree.

"I have a brilliant Ways and Means committee chairman, Duall (Mrs. Lyndle) Martin. She's chairman of the Promise Tree."

A Promise Tree is just that: a tree full of promises, pledges of services, (a progressive dinner, a recital by harpsichordist Alice Lungenhausen, use of a cottage for a week), and goods, (silver, jewelry, antiques, appliances).

Larry DuMouchelle will auction each off to the highest bidder.

The Women's Committee is soliciting promise donations now, items worth at least $20, unique, marketable services. Each item or its value is tax deductible.

Cash Is Acceptable

"We can accept cash too," Lori emphasizes. "In any amount. The party committee will combine smaller cash donations to purchase larger items."

There will be two types of tickets for the evening: one including everything, dinner, the auction and dancing; another, at a lesser price, covering admittance to the auction only.

Lori Self has no illusions about raising tens of thousands of dollars for the Pointe Symphony. "We are a small group," she notes. "For us, a project that nets one or two thousand dollars is major, a great success."

She does want the Women's Committee to raise major funds for the orchestra. That, after all, is the Women's Committee's raison d'etre and Lori, as general chairman, takes her responsibility to see that raison d'etre fulfilled seriously.

"Whatever I do, I try to do it well. Or not at all."

She may not want to be a professional pianist any more—but she will be good again.

Quèster Focus Is Miniatures

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of Quèsters meets tomorrow, Friday, February 8, in the Hampton road home of Mrs. Richard Mertz. Mrs. Edward Hartwick and Mrs. Benjamin Williams will be greeted as new members of the group.

Mrs. Siegfried Franz will present a program on American Miniature Artists. Mrs. Franz has a fine collection of miniatures and has spoken previously on the development of the art in general and on European artists.

Mrs. Fred Studer will assist Mrs. Mertz with luncheon following the program.
