PRESIDENT NIXON, stumping to promote the candidacy of Republican eighth district congressional hopeful James Sparling, was greeted by a warm reception as he traveled the Thumb area on Wednesday. Mr. Nixon was hoping to build a Republican turnout for the April 16 election that will show America all G.O.P. candidates are not necessarily doomed. The President visited a string of small towns, mostly all with populations of under 3,000, but thousands of people from neighboring areas crowded the streets through which he passed. His visit to Michigan lasted about five hours.

THE HOUSE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE has voted overwhelmingly to subpoena President Nixon's tape recorded conversations regarding the Watergate cover-up. The 33 to 3 vote, with only three Republicans dissenting and two abstaining, came after collapse of a last ditch GOP effort to persuade the White House to produce the materials voluntarily. Presidential press secretary Ronald Ziegler said the White House would respond to the subpoena when Congress returns from its Easter vacation around April 22 or 23.

ISRAELI FORCES raided several border villages inside Lebanon early Saturday and blew up houses in retaliation for an Arab guerrilla attack that killed 18 Israelis in the northern settlement of Qiryat Shmona. An Army spokesman said the operation intended to strike villages whose inhabitants are aiding terrorists and that there was no resistance from Lebanese forces which had left the area. It was the first Israeli raid on Lebanese territory since April 1973 when Israeli commandos attacked Arab guerrilla offices in Beirut.

HAYWARD BROWN, acquitted in five cases last year, is being sought in California on two federal warrants. He is wanted on indictments resulting from the January 12, 1973, fire bombing of a Detroit Planned Parenthood clinic. The warrants accuse Brown of possessing three destructive devices described as Molotov cocktails on the day of the bombing and causing the injury of one of the clinic staff. The first charge could carry up to five years imprisonment and a $2,000 fine and the second, 20 years imprisonment and a $20,000 fine.

ISRAELI FIGHTER-BOMBERS strafed the Syrian positions on the Golan Heights for four hours on Easter Sunday in the biggest air action since the October war. The afternoon raid followed a morning attack by Israeli fighter-bombers and ground fighting between Syrian and Israeli troops. Both sides said 12 Syrians were killed and eight wounded in artillery and tank duels that erupted at sunrise.

NEWSPAPER HEIRESS PATRICIA HEARST has been named as a material witness, now being sought in connection with a San Francisco bank robbery. An affidavit filed with a U.S. Magistrate says photos taken during the robbery which occurred Monday morning show a person present who appears to be Miss Hearst, but that the young woman may have been acting under duress since it looked as if another person was holding a gun on her. Three persons known to be previously affiliated with the Symbionese Liberation Army are officially charged with the hold-up which resulted in serious injury to two people.

Dedication and Enthusiasm Lead to Awards

Action is fast and furious as Pierce students work on their assortment of projects under the guiding hand of instructors Russ Hachey, head of the wood shop, who's taught for 21 years at the school, and Buzz Van Almen, director of the metal shop. NH's Paper Has Dollar Difficulties

Two More Issues Planned Before 'North Pointe' Goes Out of Business

By Kathy Duff
Grosse Pointe North's student newspaper, "North Pointe," will be out of business in two more issues. Due to a 25 percent escalation in printing costs and limited budget, the newspaper will be printing only May 3 and June 1 editions.

South's High School's "The Tower" is not encountering similar problems since the editors opted for a cheaper printer at the beginning of the '73-'74 school year. They also sell the school paper by subscription only, while North's paper is distributed free to all the students.

Question of Policy
"It's basically a question of policy," Assistant Principal Robert Welch commented. "North feels that the newspaper should be distributed free to all the students, while South is on a subscription-only basis. No policy has ever been set by the School Board regarding newspaper funding."

Each year, the School Board sets aside funds for the high school newspapers. Last year, the Board approved $7,000 for each publication. This allotment allowed North to print an estimated 10 to 12 issues with its printing costs of $650 per issue. South students are expected to print 30 Tower issues this year.

Pierce Clears Top Prizes For Metal, Wood Projects At Industrial Arts Fair

Busy Students Thrive in a 'Mechanical World' Instructors Give Training in a Variety of Crafts While Stressing Safety Factors

By Kathy Duff
It can be quite a humbling experience to walk into a wood or metal shop at Pierce Middle School. An eighth grade boy could be constructing a chess box out of contrasting mahogany and white birch. A seventh grade boy could be welding together a tool box and watching the metal glow red hot, as casually as he surveys an algebra formula. An eighth grade girl, looking like an apparition from outer space complete with face mask and full-length apron, could be patiently soldering a ring together.

This activity goes on six hours a day at Pierce under the direction of Russ Hachey, head of the wood shop, and Buzz Van Almen, director of the metal shop.

The two large rooms are located on the south end of the building, as isolated as possible from the rest of the classrooms. It's a good thing, since at the height of activity, (which is almost always), the rooms sound like the Dodge Main Stamping Plant on Mack avenue.

Exceptional Work
The work produced in the shops is not only exceptional according to Grosse Pointe standards but it's exceptional according to eastern Michigan standards as evidenced by Pierce students walking away with the top awards at the Regional Industrial Arts Fair in Garden City.

In the wrought iron division, Ron Herndon won first place with his wrought iron and glass coffee table with two additional patio tables. Second place went to Kathy Hall, (that's right, a girl), for her wrought iron lamp.

Commenting on the girls being allowed to take industrial arts for the second year, Mr. Van Almen said, "They just love it. Yet you should have seen them the first day. They backed into the room, they were so apprehensive. When I taught them how to use the welder, they were back there with their knees knocking together. Now I can't get them out of the classroom, they like it so much."

Richard Parks, with his ice hockey goalie's mask, won first place in the plastics and fiberglass division. Joe Abrianni won first place in the single machined parts classification with his hammer.

Grills to Hydroplanes
Receiving another first place award was Ron Herndon with his charcoal grill. Discussing his grill, Ron said he had already taken it home and made hamburgers on it. Asked if the hamburgers tasted good, he said, "Yeah."

Winning second place in the sheet metal division was Peter Spencer, who designed and made a red charcoal grill from a photograph he took of a grill for sale at Sears.

In both shops, certain elementary projects are required for beginners to give them experience. Once a student has proved himself, (or herself), he is free to make anything he has seen in pattern books or already constructed. Such was the case with the red grill Peter Spencer made.

Holdup Try Foiled in G.P. City

Police Nab Two Suspects After Armed Robbery Attempt at Krogers

A pair of armed robbery suspects were foiled as they attempted to stage a holdup at the manager's office in the rear of the Kroger store in The Village on Monday afternoon, April 15.

Both subjects, John William Alexas, 35, of 1675 Gray, Detroit, and Kenneth Borchman, 31, of 22024 Bonheur, St. Clair Shores, were apprehended. One is being held at The Farms police station, and the other in The City.

Their arraignment before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis, sitting in for City Municipal Judge Douglas L. Paterson, was scheduled to be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 16, (after press time).

Held at Gunpoint
City Officer Dennis Van Dale received a radio run of a holdup in progress at Kroger's at approximately 4:37 p.m. When he reached the store, he found one of the bandits being held at gunpoint by an employee of Puroator, a division of Ryan's Security Service, an armored car company.

Officer Van Dale was told that the other man involved in the holdup attempt had fled the store and was running west in the alley behind Krogers, toward the Village Standard Service Station, located at the corner of Kercheval and Cadieux.

The service station owner, Phillip Zoufal, said he saw the subject confront a woman motorist who had stopped in the station with his gun. When the woman began screaming and fleeing north across the front property of Mairre School and, then, onto the playground area.

Once in the playground, he removed his hat and coat and threw them to the ground next to the school building. He left the playground, crossed Waterloo and stopped, finally, on the front lawn of 733 Loraine.

Pursuit on Foot
When Mr. Zoufal confirmed with Officer Van Dale that the man standing in front of the Loraine residence was the person who had run by his gas station, the officer drove his scout car from the alley behind Mairre, through the playground, and stopped approximately 30 feet short of the playground fence on the Waterloo side. YSD Counselors Start New Group Program May 1

More Options Offered for Young People, Plus A Relaxed Atmosphere; Residents, Businesses Asked to Help Supply Needed Articles

By Roger A. Waha
The Youth Service Division's counseling program will have a different look beginning Wednesday, May 1. For YSD counselors Fred Coonce and Thomas Canasi, along with Robert McDonald, program supervisor, children's services, Northeast Guidance Center, are starting a group counseling program which they feel is a viable treatment alternative at the division.

Because this mode of treatment is new for the counselors, they want to treat their planned groups as experimental while sharing experiences and techniques. At the same time, the counselors, including Deborah Beaufait, will continue their "one-on-one" approach with young people as part of the YSD's program.

Starting on the 1st, a group of eight to 10 male juveniles, ranging in age from 14-16, will gather in a meeting room, located in the basement of Public Safety Department headquarters.

Hope to Expand
The counselors report the length of group treatment will be similar to individual treatment, i.e., a three-month period consisting of weekly, two-hour sessions. In their philosophy, the counselors have agreed that individuals will be included within the group as members for specified periods of time. One set-group will begin and end together.

Mr. Coonce, Mr. Canasi and Mr. McDonald will conduct this first session. If it works well, further male oriented sessions will transpire. In fact, if this experimental program proves fruitful, Miss Beaufait is considering a similar session for female juveniles. And there's also a possibility of having mixed group sessions in the future.

Both Mr. Coonce and Mr. Canasi stress this is a "new but necessary approach" within the division's counseling program. With group counseling, they feel there are more options for everyone such as the youths helping each other. There also is the benefit of a more relaxed atmosphere. Focal points of the group program include role playing, awareness exercises and values clarification.

A "Great Idea"
As of last week, Mr. Coonce reported nine youths were interviewed for the opening session. Six young people have been selected so far towards the eight to 10 number with further interviews to transpire. The juveniles, he said, aren't chosen by offenses committed but by personality.

Sergeant Thomas Kane, YSD supervisor, felt what the counselors were doing was a "great idea." He said, "It's innovative as far as we are concerned. I felt we never had the expertise before, but now we do and we're ready to try it."

As an advocate of the counseling program, the sergeant (Continued on Page 6)

Park Patrolman Saves Life of Choking Woman

Park Patrolman Richard Warren was credited with saving the life of a woman who had stopped breathing when a small piece of a cracker lodged in her throat and cut off her air.

On Saturday, April 13, the police dispatcher answered a phone call from Kay Braman, of 1377 Beaconsfield, in which she frantically stated that her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Braman, of the same address was choking on the cracker and was having difficulty in breathing.

Warren, who was in the vicinity in his scout car, was dispatched to the house, and seconds later, Park firefighters left their station with the emergency ambulance. He arrived at the residence

ULS Decides To Abandon Two Projects

Residential Opposition Leads to Dropping of Proposals to Enclose Ice Rink, Build Indoor Tennis Facility

By Roger A. Waha

University Liggett School has officially decided to abandon two proposals, to enclose the McCann Ice Rink and to construct indoor tennis facilities on school grounds. Together they would have cost an estimated $1.6 million.

"This is a dead issue," said Headmaster Raymond P. Robbins on Monday, April 15. "The school will not pursue it."

The decision was reached earlier this month after Mr. Robbins and Peter Thurber, president of the school's Board of Trustees, met with six spokesmen for concerned area residents on Monday, April 1.

Focus on Projects
This means that ULS will not come before the Woods Planning Commission at its Tuesday, April 30, meeting. The Commission had unanimously approved a motion to withdraw the proposals at its Tuesday, March 26, session.

(This meant, in effect, that the matter had never been before the Commission and that a public hearing notice would be again required if ULS presented further plans before the Commission.) At the April 1 meeting, which ran over two hours, both school officials and residential spokesmen discussed the projects in depth. "Our intention was to have as many meetings as necessary to hash it out but only one was needed," said Mr. Robbins, who added he was sympathetic to the feelings of the neighbors.

Main Concern
The headmaster cited a primary concern of the citizens as being the commercial aspects of the enterprise and its location in a residential area. "There is a commercial aspect in the use of the facilities and I'm sympathetic to that," he stated. "We were true to our word about this," continuing Mr. Robbins, regarding meeting (Continued on Page 4)

G.P. Woods Views Pool, Park Plans

Decision Expected Soon on What Direction Will Be Taken Regarding Swimming Facility

By Roger A. Waha

There's a flurry of recreational activity in The Woods on various fronts including the pool question, i.e., to completely renovate the old Lake Front Park pool or to build a new one, the preparation of the old pool for the summer, (with fingers crossed), the refurbishing of park equipment and planning for summer activities.

The Citizens' Recreation Committee presented a proposal for the installation of a new pool to the council after the regular meeting Monday, April 15. The 26-10 vote will now consider the committee's recommendation and ensuing cost factors, (nothing is firm at this time regarding price), before reaching a decision.

Many Suggestions
Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen, Parks and Recreation Committee chairman, said, after the solons study this proposal along with other plans, and then specifically decide which direction to take, that it's possible public hearing dates could be set at the first council meeting in May. Whether the city goes the hard-core route or not remains to be seen at this stage.

The Recreation Committee's plan includes placing a new pool behind or in the area of the existing park gate where the largest picnic area is currently located off of Jefferson avenue. It also includes new parking facilities, a bath house, filling in the old pool location and the grading of the new pool area.

Other suggestions being considered by the council are eight new tennis courts and the possibility of a fishing pier for senior citizens and young people.

But it should be emphasized that the council is considering this proposal along with several other park (Continued on Page 2)

Set Alcoholism Talk at Mairre

The Mairre School P.T.A. will hold a forum on the Progression of Alcoholism at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 24, in the school, located in Cadieux road. All concerned residents and their friends are invited to hear guest speaker Dr. Frank Hollingsworth.

Dr. Hollingsworth, formerly affiliated with the staff at Brighton Hospital for Alcoholism, is currently the Director of Rehabilitation at Father Quinn's Sacred Heart Rehabilitation Center in Detroit.

A person is considered to be an alcoholic when frequent drinking interferes with his business life, social life or health. It is an insidious and complex disease. Dr. Hollingsworth will discuss its progression to help the audience understand and recognize its symptoms.

Detective Michael Ferrance, of the Youth Service Division, and a representative from the Grosse Pointe Family Life Education Council, (FLEC), also will be on hand to answer questions and discuss recovery programs available in Grosse Pointe.

Since one out of every 10 or 12 people who drink are alcoholics, odds are relatively good that many people will be exposed to the disease and could profit from knowing more about it.

For further information regarding the program, contact the school office at 865-5520.

Lake St. Clair Water Level Equals Last Year's Height

Lake St. Clair, as of Monday, April 15, is only a tiny fraction away from being at the same level it reached during the same period last year, according to a report from the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers. The latest information disclosed the lake water is 575.40 feet above sea level, as compared to 575.30 feet for the same time in 1973.

Experts said the high level of the lake is due to heavy spring rains, such as some recent heavy rains, which have poured into already swollen lakes and rivers. It was also pointed out that vegetation has not yet started to use water and the ground is either still too frozen or saturated, leaving the rain

Woods Slates Budget Hearing

A public hearing will be held for The Woods proposed budget for fiscal year 1974-75 on Monday evening, May 13, in the council chambers of the Municipal Building, 20025 Mack avenue.

This date was unanimously approved by the solons at the regular meeting Monday, April 15. At the same time, the council rescheduled its second regular meeting of the month from Monday, May 20, to May 13. The date of the first regular meeting is still Monday, May 6.

to go nowhere but into the lakes and rivers. Lake St. Clair and Lake Erie are the only Great Lakes that threaten the shorelines. Lakes Michigan and Huron, which have risen two inches in one month, are expected to continue to rise another four inches by the early part of May, but this is considered a seasonal trend. Any winds coming from the northeast, even at a 20 to 25-mile velocity, could cause flooding problems for lakefront areas not protected by dikes or constructed barriers. Approximately $20 million was spent by the Corps of Engineers last year in installing the barriers along the Great Lakes. (Continued on Page 8)

Woods Council Studies Plans for Lake Front Park

plans, e.g., a master plan from City Engineer Larry Pate, a park plan prepared by the Department of Natural Resources, plus those of other landscapers, along with other recreation-related suggestions. No definite action has been taken as yet.

Explores Proposal
The NEWS explored the Recreation Committee's plan with Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallmann, who said the new main pool is 164'2"x177'3" in size. The deepest section of the pool is five feet and there's a 100-foot walkway in the middle, which would be advantageous for life-guards.

As proposed, the pool "would have all the modern conveniences," including heat and overhead and in-pool lighting, he said.

Part of the proposal includes a diving well, a wading pool and a small training area attached to the main pool. And as for its location, which is away from the pressures of Lake St. Clair, (unlike the old pool), Mr. Hall-mann stated, "We would do away with the problems of the lake attacking the swimming pool."

He said this proposal notes that the original bath house be upgraded and used by various groups, e.g., senior citizens; the existing pool be filled and its location used as a passive, picnic area; the building of a new parking lot where the pool is to be located, and, if the council wants to go the new pool route, that construction begin in October if a bond issue is decided upon, and approved.

Gives Opinion
When asked for his opinion on what direction to take, Mr. Hallmann replied, "Because we have to build new walls completely around the swimming pool, and because we have to put in so much of a new floor, I feel it's just as economical to build a pool, raise the pool so the lake pressure will not hurt it in the future and find a new site for it within the park."

As for the Department of Natural Resources plan which was prepared at the city's request, Mr. Hallmann stated some main suggestions include raising the park's bridge over the Milk River to accommodate larger boats, plus the elimination of autos running through the park on its various roadways, mainly for safety reasons.

In discussing the old pool, past problems and what the future holds for the summer, Mr. Hallmann said the scheduled opening date for the pool is Saturday, May 25, while the park, itself, will open Wednesday, May 1, for boating and picnicking.

Keep Status Quo
Now, the question is, "Can the old pool make it through the summer?" Mr. Hallmann stated, "That's a toughie. We're going to try like heck. We don't know what we'll find until the pool is emptied, (that will be around May 10 or 12 when it will be cleaned, chlorinated, refilled and the filtering system checked). Then we'll see what we find down there."

What he means by "down there" is the amount of cracks in the pool's floor, with the murky lake water seeping inwards. Mr. Hallmann said he was worried about filtering the dirty lake water fast enough. "Can the filtering system keep up with the encroaching lake water?" That is a main concern.

Last summer, Parks and Recreation personnel faced the problem of the seepage of lake water into the filled pool because of the pressure created by the lake level being higher than the pool level.

In an effort to correct this problem, plus the overall effects of age, (the pool is over 20 years old), several pressure release valves were installed in the floor last spring. The pool also received a high pressure guniting treatment to help seal the various leaks.

This helped the situation and, while it was touch and go, the status quo was maintained. "We hope to keep the status quo again. We operated last summer this way. We hope to do the same again this year," he said.

Many Calls
As for spring preparations at the park, Mr. Hallmann stated, "All picnic tables and play equipment have been repainted and repaired." And with the installation of 2,400 square feet of sheet piling along the banks of the Milk River Drain canal set to begin, flooding conditions at the park and nearby private property should be curtailed.

Mr. Hallmann said he has received many calls from residents on the old pool and on tennis courts. "Many citizens say they've heard the pool will not open this summer, this is not the case at all. And residents are calling every day requesting new tennis courts and saying there are not enough here. I tell them the council is considering more courts."

As a final note, he cited a problem which caused great concern last year to personnel — cars speeding through the park. A speed limit of 10 miles per hour is posted throughout the grounds but Mr. Hallmann said some motorists floor their autos to 50 miles per hour, go over the grass, and, overall, just abuse the park.

At this time, The Woods is presently working with St. Clair Shores on a new ordinance which would give St. Clair Shores police the authority to ticket violators at the park, (which is located in the Shores). Mr. Hallmann emphasized when this measure is adopted that violators would lose their park permits and could possibly be fined by police.

At this point, a woman inside the house, who was considering buying it, glanced out the window and saw the man on the lawn. She heard a shot, saw him start running north across the yard, and heard an object strike the side of the house.

Officer Van Dale, at this time was pursuing the suspect on foot. As he saw him take off, first running north, then west through residents' yards, he issued a "be on the lookout" on the direction of the suspect's escape.

By then, other officers had arrived at the scene and began surrounding the suspect. He was ordered to halt by City Sergeant Duncan MacEachern and responded by attempting to run down the driveway of 812 Cadieux, at which point his route was blocked, mainly by Officers Van Dale, Ronald Pryor and Sergeant MacEachern, and Patrolman Gordon Evans of The Farms. He surrendered to Patrolman Evans.

Checking back at the Lorraine address, Officer Van Dale found a loaded .25 caliber Hawes automatic pistol on the ground next to the house. At the Mairie School playground, he found the clothing the fleeing suspect had discarded.

When Officer Van Dale returned to Krogers, he learned the other bandit had been taken into custody and conveyed to The City police station by Park Sergeant Walter Paton and Officer Richard Warren.

Set Pre-Trial for 3 Suspects

A pre-trial conference date of Thursday, April 25, has been scheduled for three men charged with receiving and concealing stolen property over $100, stemming from an incident in The Woods Tuesday evening, March 19, police reported.

This date was set at the Thursday, April 11, Wayne County Circuit Court arraignment of John Preston Rials, 20, of 29314 Cahalan, Roseville, Walter Joseph Cierpial, 21, 3334 East Ferry, Detroit, and Daniel Sherwood Gibbs, 20, 11117 Borgman, Belleville.

At this time, Woods police are planning to drop their charges against Rials as he is being prosecuted in St. Clair Shores on a breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling charge.

The trio were nabbed when Woods Public Safety Officer Russell Allard stopped their auto on Mack at Manchester with one headlight illuminated. Police then discovered a color television set, a black and white TV set, a record player and an AM-FM radio inside the vehicle. Investigation revealed that these items were taken during a burglary of a St. Clair Shores home.

At the same time, officers learned that Rials was suspected of being involved in some 60-65 burglaries in The Woods, Farms, Roseville and Clinton Township.

South High Natators Make Big 'Splash' in EML

South Swimmers Have Fine Year

In their first year of competition in the EML (Eastern Michigan League), South High School's swimming team finished in first place. The natators finished their season with an 11-1-1 varsity record.

At the same time, the school set several EML records including a 200-yard medley relay mark of 1:46.2, (Tom Montgomery, Eric Rodin, Craig Swanson, Jeff Kirk); a 200-yard freestyle record of 1:53.8, (Don Black); a 50-yard freestyle mark of 23.1, (Kirk); a 500-yard freestyle time of 5:13.5, (Bob Czechowicz), and a 400-yard free relay mark of 3:29.4, (Jim Campbell, Tom Harwood, Black and Czechowicz).

And not only that, a variety of school varsity records were set. These include, for 200-yard pool records, the 160-yard individual medley, (Czechowicz); the 500-yard freestyle, (Czechowicz); and the 400-yard freestyle relay, (Montgomery, Kirk, Black and Czechowicz). A 25-yard pool record was set in the 500-yard freestyle by John Temrowski, Drew Pillsbury and Czechowicz.

Gary Jackson set a diving record of 268.20 points.

Indict Pointer on Tax Evasion

Vincent A. Meli, 53, 737 Pear Tree Lane, was indicted by a Federal Grand Jury on two counts of income tax evasion Wednesday, April 10.

Evidence upon which the indictment was predicated had been presented to the Grand Jury by Special Attorney Clyde B. Pritchard of the Detroit Strike Force.

The indictment charges Meli with failing to report taxable income in excess of $50,000 for the years 1967 and 1968.

During the years covered by this investigation, Meli owned and operated Meltone Music, Inc., a juke box business located in Detroit. He also had a partnership in terest in the Bel-Air Lodge Company, a motel and trailer park, in Saginaw, Mich., and Centaur Vendors, a novelty machine business located in Detroit.

Meli was arrested by Special Agents of the I.R.S., Intelligence Division and arraigned before U. S. Magistrate Paul Komives who released him on $10,000 bond.

If convicted of income tax evasion for the years 1967 and 1968, Meli could be imprisoned for 10 years and/or fined $20,000, or both.

with residents to discuss the proposals and allay their concerns. "It became apparent that we couldn't, or shouldn't, pursue these projects. The next time around, I hope the people will think we are open minded and flexible."

From his discussions with the spokesmen, Mr. Robbins reported they would have no objection to the school enclosing the rink and building courts for its own use.

Priority Item

While noting "it remains to be seen whether the school will pursue these projects," the headmaster stressed that enclosing the rink is a "high priority item." He said the spokesmen would support a proposal of enclosing the rink with the school doing it without outside investors, thus, "in a different way at another time."

"I'm not seriously thinking about indoor tennis facilities for school use at this moment," Mr. Robbins said, but he hopes to move quickly on the rink front.

All ULS students, from kindergarten on up, use the rink. Having an outdoor rink poses numerous problems including finicky weather, plus the fact that poor weather can cause scheduling problems for hockey teams, many of whom don't want to play outdoors, anyway.

One of the spokesmen, Jack Trentacosta, while he hasn't heard of the abandonment officially, (as of Monday afternoon, April 15), said, "I'm glad to hear it" as the neighbors didn't like the idea of what they felt was a commercial venture in the neighborhood.

Much Opposition

At the March 26 meeting of the Commission, an estimated 120-130 residents jammed the council chambers to discover that no ULS officials were in attendance. Commission Chairman Thomas Fahrner said he had just received a letter from Mrs. Robbins requesting that the hearing be postponed.

At that time, the headmaster had just returned to The Pointe after a two-week absence to discover substantial citizen opposition to the proposals. He emphasized that the school was proud of the good relationship it enjoys with its neighbors and wanted to have school officials meet with residential spokesmen to discuss the projects.

And that is what subsequently happened with the result that ULS decided not to pursue the matter.

Original Plan

Originally, the proposed complex would have been located on the Cook road campus, with the site plan and elevations being handled by Rossetti Associates, Incorporated, architect for the partnership which proposed to develop the site.

A main reason for the project was to provide indoor skating and racquets facilities for ULS students. It was proposed that the McCann Rink property and an adjacent parcel of property would be leased to a partnership which would be responsible for enclosing the rink and constructing the indoor racquets facility.

These partners were essentially the same individuals who built, and operate, the Grosse Pointe Community Rink on the Austin High School property. Under the planned lease with the partnership, ULS would have retained ownership of the property, with the lease restricting the use of the premises to skating and racquets activities.

Pleads Guilty to Vandalism

A 20-year-old Detroit woman pled guilty to a charge of malicious destruction of property before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis Saturday morning, April 13, shortly after her arrest on the grounds of the A. H. Peters Funeral Home, 20705 Mack avenue.

Marian Berdych admitted causing damage to the funeral home, which police estimated at around $300.

This included breaking out three small lanterns hanging from the porch roof on the building's south side, smashing glass in a large lantern hanging over the entrance at the south side, breaking out glass in a gaslight at the entrance to the parking lot and breaking a large flower crock near the entrance.

The auto of Gregory Connelly, who reported the incident to police after being awakened by glass shattering, received damage to the driver's door and driver's window, police said. Mr. Connelly had parked his car in the lot.

Miss Berdych appeared without counsel before Judge Denis for her arraignment and pled guilty to the charge. She was advised that she didn't have to plead guilty, and that she could have the opportunity to employ legal counsel if she wished. But Miss Berdych said she still wanted to plead guilty.

Judge Denis sentenced her to a year's probation under various conditions which include full restitution to the funeral home and to Mr. Connelly at the rate of $25 per month beginning Wednesday, May 15, and that she is to be in court again on the 15th.

Divided on Issue

North students are divided on the issue whether or not to charge students subscription costs. "North Pointe" Managing Editor Phil Guastella said it was one of the advertisement selling points that the newspaper was distributed to all the students.

"I'm a senior this year, so this is my last year. But it's one problem next year's 'North Pointe' staff will have to resolve," Phil commented. "I would like to see the newspaper continue to be given to each student, but maybe it won't be feasible next year."

Praise Shores Firefighters In Nipping House Blaze

The quick work of Shores firefighters prevented a blaze at a Webber place home from spreading, and possibly engulfing the entire roof area, Saturday afternoon, April 13. No one was injured in the incident, and monetary damage is unknown at this time.

An apparent short circuit in some wall wiring on the first floor caused the fire, which extended from a first floor closet to an upstairs bathroom. But firefighters controlled and extinguished the flames before they could reach the roof.

"Our men did a fabulous job in nipping the fire in the bud," said Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale. "Damage was kept to a minimum structurally and otherwise."

"This fire could have easily extended to the roof if the men weren't quick on the job," commented Sergeant Charles Wenrich, Fire Marshal. "Our men did a good job." In fact, the sergeant reported the residents complemented the firefighters on their handling of the blaze.

Mrs. Edward Glowacki, of 54 Webber place, contacted the station and said her husband and sons had been using a volt-meter to determine electrical loss in home lines. Sparks were emanating from a front porch outlet box but she believed her husband had them stopped. However, there was some smoke.

Officer Harry Hamilton was dispatched to the scene and discovered smoke emitting from the roof near the southeast corner of the dwelling. He immediately requested fire trucks and personnel, and Officers Bruce Darlington and John Trevillian, along with firefighters Harry McColm, Stanley Verrier and Harold Michaux arrived.

Extreme heat was discovered inside the interior wall above the outlet inside a clothes closet. Firefighters, using a fire axe, punched through the wall board at this point and observed flames enveloping this portion of the wall. The circuit breakers were pulled and water from the booster line was used to douse the fire.

Officers Darlington and Trevillian donned their air masks and proceeded to check the attic area because of heavy smoke. At the second story, in an area immediately above the first fire location, they spotted smoke pouring through the wall board and felt the heat on a bathroom wall.

After moving a hose and other equipment to that location, the men punched another hole in the bathroom wall and also in the master bedroom. (The bathroom leads off the bedroom). Flames jumped in the bathroom wall hole - but they were quickly extinguished with water.

The fire was under control around 10 minutes after Mrs. Glowacki's call to the station.

Firefighters reported smoke damage in the closet area, bedroom and bathroom, plus heavy smoke in the attic. This was dispelled by an exhaust fan.

DuMouchelle to Conduct Stonehurst Auction

"Stonehurst" the 40 room mansion of the late Mrs. Joseph B. Schlottman will be up for auction next week along with the contents of this magnificent estate. There will be four auctions to be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial April 23-25. Auctioneers Lawrence F. DuMouchelle and Ernest J. DuMouchelle will dispose of sets of porcelain, cut glass, silver, paintings, rugs, marble and bronze statuary and furniture. Two days later the sale will move to "Stonehurst" itself where the DuMouchelle brothers will sell fixtures, stone walls, marble fireplaces, and the massive carved oak paneling for which the home is famed. Even a 1964 Phantom V Rolls Royce will be offered. Piece by piece, one of the last great homes along Lake Shore Road will move closer to demolition in May. Catalogues for the sale are available at DuMouchelle Galleries at 409 East Jefferson Ave. or at Stonehurst on preview days which are Friday and Saturday, April 19-20.

Saves Life

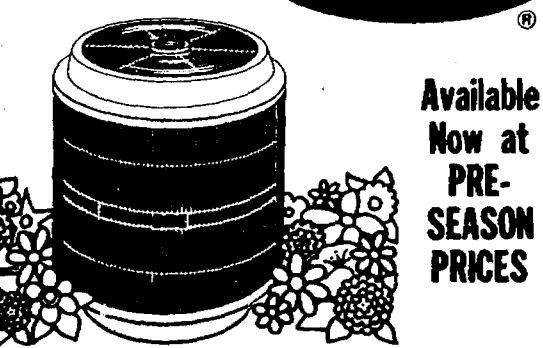

(Continued from Page 1) at the scene within two minutes after we received the call," said Assistant Fire Chief David Taylor, "but we were not needed, due to the action of Officer Warren. He is to be complimented on doing a very efficient job. I have no doubt that what he did and the method he used saved this woman's life."

Lt. Duncan said Warren's name will be submitted to the Honor Board for a citation award for saving a life, and that the officer's action will become a part of his permanent record.

Counselors to Begin New Program

stated, "This is where it's all happening" regarding young people. "If we take constructive action at this stage, we can eliminate the possibility of further contacts with juveniles in later years."

In looking at this program more closely, an outline was prepared by the counselors focusing upon their goals, the selection of youths and counselors' activities.

Main Goals

Four primary goals include (1), To provide constructive experience, which will assist the individual to feel differently about himself and others; (2), To give support or to add pressure to the individual's attempt to behave differently.

(3), To provide opportunities for the individual to discuss and examine problems which he experiences in all areas of life, and (4), To give the individual a chance to examine and analyze his impact on others, as it is expressed in the group itself.

Five additional goals congruent with the YSD model include increasing the person's sense of trust in others; increasing his responsibility and independence; promoting his ability to see things from other people's perspectives; promoting his willingness to cease from engaging in self-destructive behavior and live more meaningfully, and increasing his repertoire of coping mechanisms.

In setting the size and age limit of the group, the counselors also note, in terms of diagnostic selection, only very loose criteria can be established. This is mainly a value judgement. They report, however, it seems more productive to look closely at excluding severely antisocial, disruptive or manipulative individuals, and psychotic or mentally retarded teenagers. Most people in the area stress the advisability of balancing members.

Many Functions

With the counselors short term orientation, they feel it's important to be real, open and empathic. This includes relating their own experiences or opinions where these would be helpful, going to bat for the young people and getting involved, it's emphasized that the counselor does serve as a model for the adolescent and that this aspect be therapeutically utilized.

The counselors should also focus upon group problem solving and encourage active group participation in identifying and discussing problem areas.

Interest should be created in the consequences of actions, good and bad, along with centering upon a youth's ability to plan ahead and take responsibility for his actions, they feel. The young people will be encouraged to examine their roles in their problems.

Other counselor activities include looking at the "adult" part of the client's ego and appealing to this part to supervise and channel child-like impulses; encouraging and reinforcing positive behavior; centering upon behavior and change as well as feelings; focusing upon the present over the past, and what is learned from past experiences, and, finally, utilizing group support and peer pressure.

The counselors conclude by saying, because these planned groups are being treated as experimental, changes could be made along the way in the program and in its approach.

Ask for Assistance

In an effort towards reaching that "relaxing atmosphere" for their program, the counselors are asking for the assistance of residents and businesses in supplying needed articles to fulfill this objective. Rather than work in a chair and table setting, they want to create a more "homey" environment.

Various items are needed such as a 12- by 14-foot rug, 20 sit down type pillows in assorted colors, posters featuring travel scenes, (but no psychedelic types), wall tapestries, a portable record player and some records, a tape recorder, and various refreshment type "goodies," such as pop, potato chips, pretzels, peanuts and cookies.

The counselors also are interested in knowing if another location might be available for future meetings in case they wish to move out of the police structure. They feel there could be some problem in meeting with youths at the police station, e.g., the possibility some young people may think of them as police-related.

If you are able to help the counselors in their new endeavor, contact them by calling the YSD office at 886-2808, Monday-Thursday from 4-8 p.m. A message also may be left for them during the day, Monday-Friday, by calling YSD Secretary Ruth D. Cummins.

Since the division became fully operational in August 1970, a counseling program has been provided. Initially, the four YSD officers acted as counselors but in the summer of 1971, three counselors were hired. They have since went to work in their chosen

Church Offers Family Seminar

"The American Family — Its Chances for Survival," is the topic to be considered in a special seminar at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road, on Sunday, April 21, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Paul Doerring, president of Psychological Institute of Michigan, will be guest lecturer. He is a consulting psychologist of considerable experience in work with business, industry, church and community groups, as well as in individual practice.

According to Dr. Doerring, there is a generally held consensus among those in the psychological sciences and professions that the American family today is in a good deal of trouble, and its economic and even emotional functions may be in question.

However, it is obvious that the great bulk of American families are still intact and serve as the emotional base for children and adults alike.

Dr. Doerring will attempt to explain how these families do exist, how they hold on to expectations, how they share values, how they plan mutually and how they manage their dependency and independence.

A portion of Dr. Doerring's lecture will also deal with families headed by single parents, and special problems they may face.

The lecture is open to the public.

North Seminar Studies Writing

For the second time this year, North High School will offer a two-day Writer's Project Wednesday - Thursday, April 24-25.

Over 200 works will be studied, including essays, short stories, poetry and slide-prose presentations.

Students, faculty and administrators will read, evaluate and give constructive criticism to their fellow authors. The best works will be submitted for publication.

Last term's Writer's Project was enthusiastically received. Anyone in the community interested in participating should contact Principal G. Bruce Feigener for further information at 896-8100.

To Head Youth Projects

Wayne State Student CLIFF CROCKATT wants to have an organization the kids can call their own. As one of the co-ordinators of Center Point, a crisis intervention center and general gathering place for kids he gets the opportunity to talk to kids and find out their concerns. Besides his Center Point activity, he is director of the new Council for Youth Development.

"The most important thing to realize about the Council is that the kids need an organization just for them, for their projects, for their ideas. We're still in the formative stage, but we already have four projects under development."

"A lot of the kids are concerned about the way Indians are mistreated in the country. There are an estimated 7,000 Indians in the Detroit area; most of them live around the Cass corridor."

"We are involved with the Michigan Committee for Indian Youth and about 100 students attended an Indian Seminar we had in mid-March. These kids really want to do something to help the Indians' condition, and we are exploring various projects."

"Another thing is that just because a kid lives in Grosse Pointe, it doesn't mean that he's not interested in what goes on outside of here. We have sent volunteers to the Hobart Street project near the New Center Area in Detroit. What they're trying to do is to clean up and restore an area of the city. Besides volunteers, they're getting the community people involved," he said.

The other two projects Cliff mentioned was the D.T.A., Detroit Transit Alternative, a funeral home on East Jefferson which was made into a house for run-aways, and Center Point, which involves youths also interested in the new Council for Youth Development.

As far as funding the Council, the organizers held a coffee house concert at St. Michael's Church in March. Their big fund-raising project will be a Walk-a-Thon planned for Saturday, May 11. Although hesitant to state the Council's exact goal, Cliff is hoping that entire families will participate in the walk and that several thousands of dollars will be raised.

As the new director was being interviewed, his phone rang several times with requests for speaking appearances.

"We are really trying to alert the community to us because we want to bring out the kids who are frustrated with traditional organizations. We want to start something which is attuned to the kids' needs and we want to have a representative in every school. That's why we are keeping our future flexible, we want to be able to change."

Decline Action On Resolutions

The Woods Council decided to take no further action on two resolutions on the Committee of the Whole level at the regular meeting Monday, April 1.

They unanimously concurred in a C-W recommendation that no action be taken on a City of Dearborn resolution focusing upon tax deductions for public service volunteers.

The solons also declined further action on Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan's resolution regarding the free enterprise system and the current shortage of gasoline. The vote was 6-1 with Mrs. Mullan voting "no."

Right now you can get cash any time of the day or night, any day of the year.

It's 11 p.m. Tuesday night. You've a craving for pizza with everything on it. But you're out of cash.

Or it's 5 a.m. Saturday morning. And you need a few last-minute things for a fishing trip. And you left your money home.

Or it's Sunday. The neighbors decided to have an impromptu get-together at your place. And you got caught short of cash.

There just aren't too many places you can go to get from $25.00 to $100.00 in extra cash at odd hours.

Now you won't ever have to go without cash, even if you're without cash.

Cash in just 30 seconds.

That's how long it takes to insert a card, push a few buttons, and withdraw $25.00 or $50.00 in cash. Once or twice in any 24-hour period.

Meet Cash Man.

Cash Man is our 24-hours-a-day, 7-days-a-week, 365-days-a-year cash dispensing machine.

Cash Man is available to all Manufacturers Bank customers.

Cash Man is free.

All you need is a Manufacturers Bank checking account or Master Charge account. Then just fill out a Cash Man application at any one of the Manufacturers more than 70 branch locations. And you'll receive your Cash Man card.

It's quick. Easy. And free.

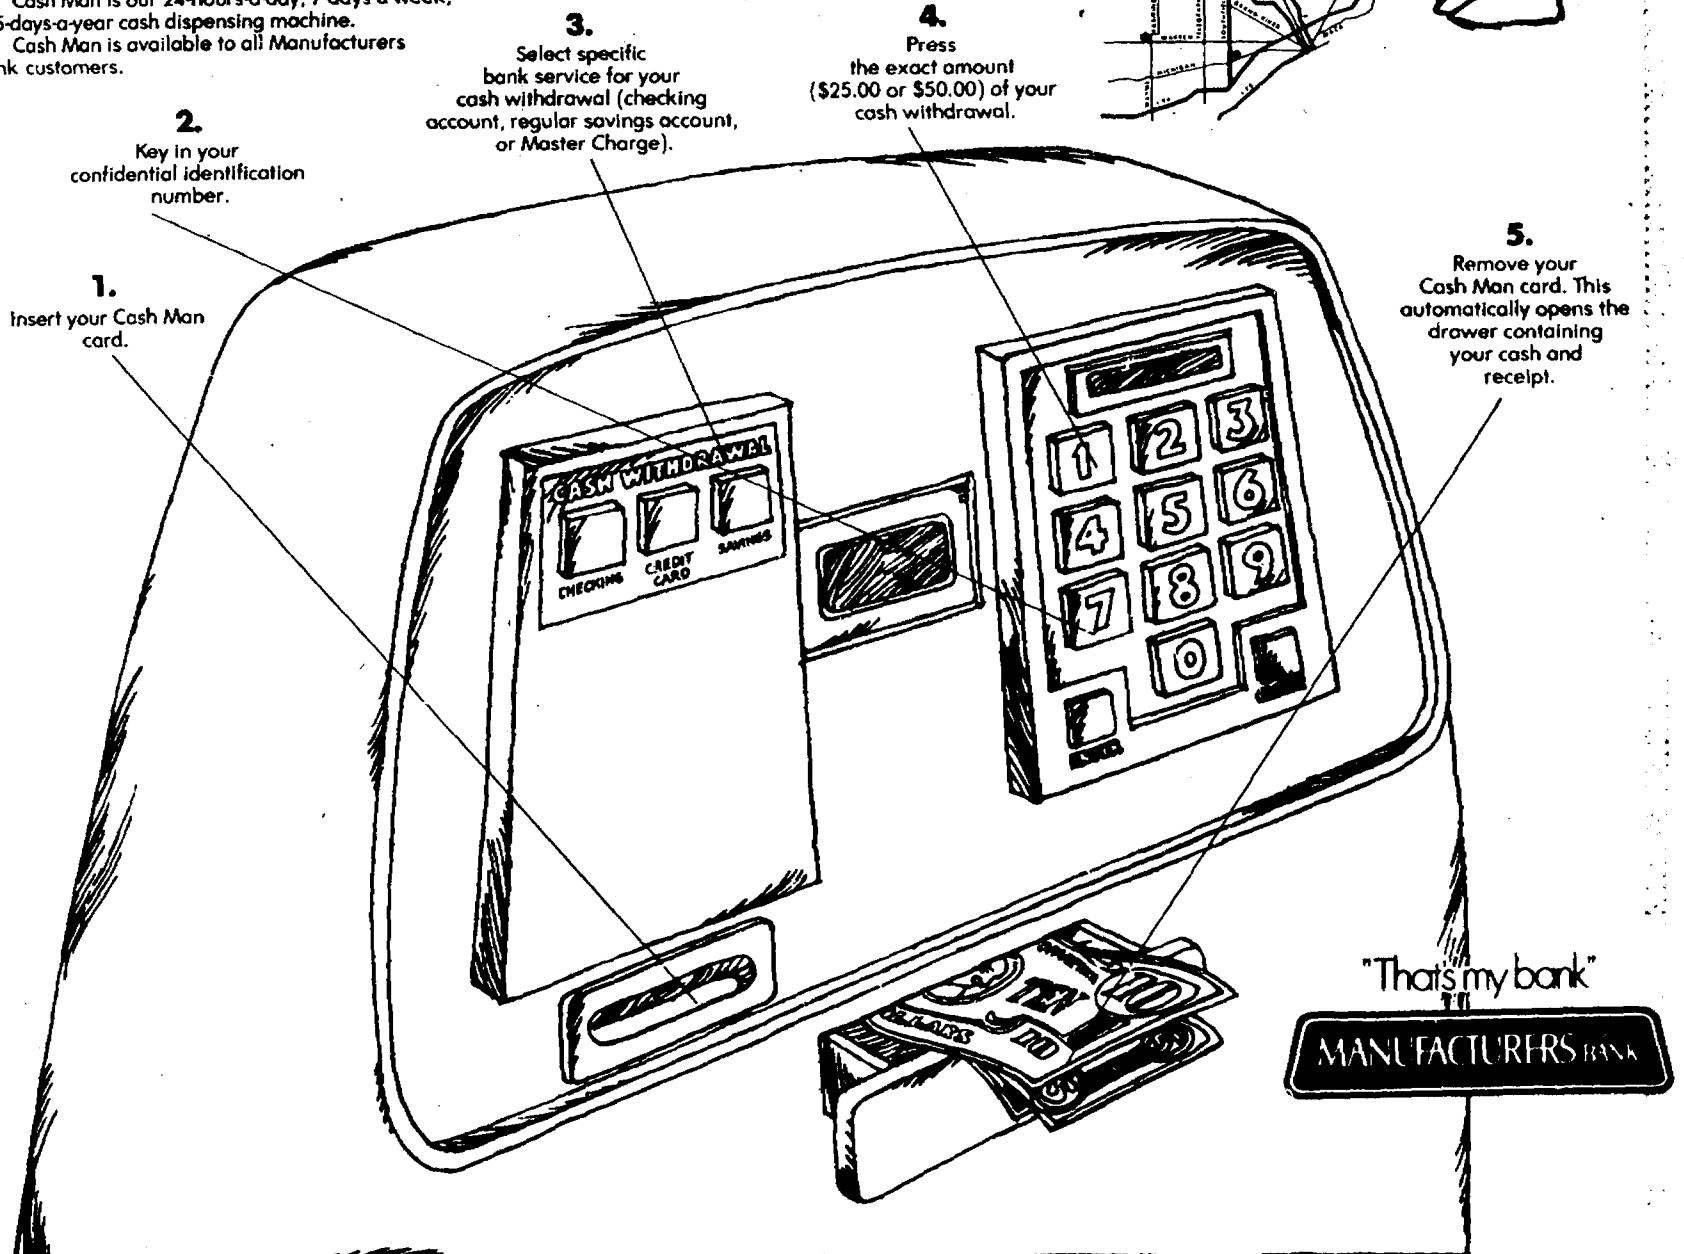

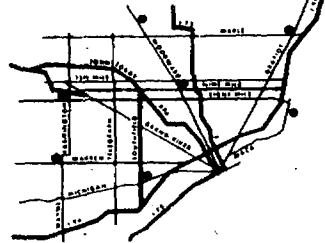

Cash Man will also take deposits.

All 7 convenient Manufacturers Bank Cash Man centers are well lighted and protected from the weather. So they're warm in winter and cool in summer.

And they're ready to serve you any day of the year, any time of the day or night.

Cash Man works 24 hours a day at:

Mack-Lodge in Grosse Pointe Woods; Michigan-American Road in Dearborn; Woodward Avenue in Pleasant Ridge; Woodward-Hunter Boulevard in Birmingham; Wayne-Warren in Westland; Eight Mile-Farmington in Farmington Hills; and Gratiot-Hillside in Clinton Township.

NH Writers Win Acclaim

North High School students fared exceptionally well in a recent Detroit News-Scholastic Writing Contest, receiving 57 of 915 total citations awarded contestants from all junior and senior high schools in an eight-county area.

Nine students won senior division Gold Keys. They are Cafe Consolino, Robin Russell, Diane Pawlicki, Mike Murray, Jean Marie Wayne, Kathy Guiles, Dave Versical, Jody Zeolla and Maria Whitaker. Thirteen more received senior division Honorable Mention, and senior division Commendations were given to 21 others.

In the junior division, three students were awarded Gold Keys. They are Victoria Bucacink, Linda Schmidt and Jeffrey Holme. Junior division Honorable Mention went to five pupils and Commendations to six.

Pointer Has Fine Swim Year

Jon Watts, a Bowling Green freshman from The Pointe has just completed a very successful first season as a Falcon swimmer.

Placing seventh on the team in individual points, Watts earned a total of 40.25. He also placed first in individual competition four times and once in relay.

A freestyle swimmer, Watts' best time of the year was 17:05.8 in the 1,650 yard freestyle at Kent State University. The Falcons' record, overall, was 4-7.

Watts also played football during his freshman and sophomore years at South High School and lettered three years in swimming.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watts, 306 Cloverly road, he is majoring in business.

dents, Leo Slaten, made an eight-foot hydroplane in the wood shop. "You should have seen that kid," Mr. Hachey said, "when it came close to the contest deadline, he almost lived in my garage so that he could work on his hydroplane. His project won the top award at the Industrial Arts Fair. It was the first time any student had won it from the Grosse Pointe School System."

"And so next year, several of the kids said that they wanted to make hydroplanes."

Next Step

In the copper and brass division, Tom Patzer won first place for his ring. Don Venderbush came in second with his pressed plaque.

Brain Slusser was given first prize for his go-cart, followed by Ross Murray who came in second with his blue go-cart.

Another Pierce girl brought home honors when Marynell Sosnowski won first place for her aluminum ring with a carved out "S". Skip Stephens won second prize for his aluminum ring.

All these award-winning entries will be placed in the Michigan Industrial Arts Fair to be held in Detroit Thursday-Sunday, April 25-27.

"One thing I want to emphasize is that we don't push the kids to enter the Industrial Arts Fair," Mr. Van Almen said. "Some of the kids are so excited with their project that they want to start using it right away and they take it home. It's completely a student's choice whether or not he wishes to enter his project."

Off and Running

In the classroom, you can hear a pin drop as the students file in and sit on the work benches. When I asked Mr. Van Almen why they were so quiet, he said, "They know if they come in and are noisy, then we will probably have a talk or a demonstration. However, if they come in and are quiet, like they are today, then they can get working on their projects right away."

With that, there was a stampede for the protective goggles, (which every student must wear in the metal and wood shops), and, within a matter of seconds, the students were drilling, filing or welding their screwdrivers and tool boxes.

In the adjacent room, a class of eighth grade boys were working on the chess boxes and low stools which would be decorated with cutouts and laminated fiberglass tops.

The secret of the laminated coating Mr. Hachey keeps as confidential as French Chef Julia Child must keep her secret for a fluffy soufflé.

In the wood shop, many of the projects make use of the lamination. Boys will cut out pictures of African animals to put on top of their stools before pouring on the lamination which gives a decoupage effect. In making wood lamps, the students have used everything from copper pennies to National Hockey League decals to decorate the lamps before pouring on the lamination.

Safety Emphasis

Mr. Hachey is in his 21st year of teaching at Pierce. He has a Master's degree in Industrial Education from Wayne State.

"The longer you teach, the more confidence you get in the kids and your ability to teach them," Mr. Hachey said. "When I started teaching, I started with small and simple projects. Over the years, we have tackled increasingly challenging projects. This year, the students are making the chess boxes, stools, gun racks, spice holders, anything they can complete."

Before a student is allowed to handle any of the equipment, he is given a demonstration and a test on every machine. The students are made fully aware of the safety hazards of each machine, since they will be working with jig saws, drill presses, wood lathes and arc welding equipment.

A typed list of instructions beside the grinder reads: (1) tuck in all loose clothing, (2) roll up sleeves, (3) wear safety glasses, (4) don't talk to anyone, (5) stand to the left or the right side of wheel, (6) grind only on right wheel, (7) hold stock flat on tool rest, and (8) look through protective shield.

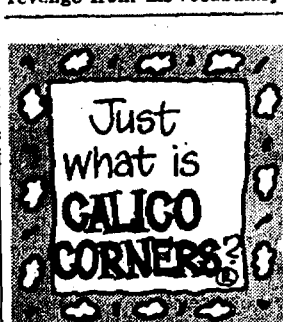

Need Recorder

"We have even made video tape presentations to show how to use the equipment properly," Mr. Van Almen said. "When the girls had to watch a tape made by the boys, they called 'discrimination' so we had the girls make a demonstration film. We could really use a video tape cassette recorder so that if a student was having trouble with a machine, he could play the right tape and understand his problem."

Both Mr. Hachey and Mr.

WORRY FREE

Fortunate is the person who can eliminate the word revenge from his vocabulary.

Van Almen feel that their courses are important to balance the student's curriculum. "Let's face it, it's a mechanical world, and the more the students can learn about machinery, the better. We also give the kids a relief from purely academic subjects. We give them something they can make with their hands."

There are many people who resolve to be happy and take a chance on being good.

Carpeting

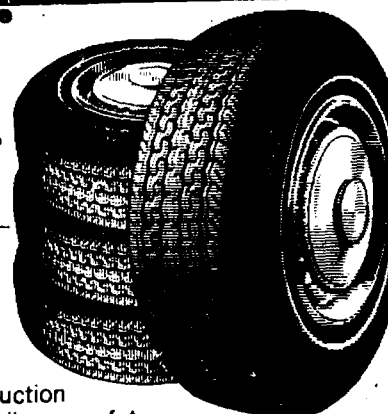

Upholstered furniture is rich and lavish looking. It is built on a hardwood frame or skeleton which is not seen, but which is made of walnut, maple, mahogany, cherry, oak, pecan, hickory, or birch. The thicker the wood, the more durable the piece. Joints are made by dovetailing. Major joints should be reinforced with a wood block. Springs rest on supports of crossed steel wires attached to the frame and extending from side to side and front to back. Convolution springs are used for modern slpline furniture. Cushion goes over the springs. The covering, upholstery fabric, should be firm and well-made. You can order from a selection of fabrics. When sitting in the chair you should not be able to feel the frame or springs. The posh feeling is upholstered furniture.

For the "posh" look and feel in carpeting, visit ED MALISZEWSKI CARPETING, 21435 Mack, 776-5510. Choose from such names as MOHAWK, MASLAND, or BARWICK in all colors, patterns, styles, and textures. My Sons, John and Peter, will be glad to assist you and help you decide which carpeting is best for your particular situation and budget. We cater to newlyweds, older marrieds with summer and winter homes, and business concerns. We have a reputation built on service, reliability, and integrity. Farms Okays YSD Contract

The Farms Council on Monday, April 15, agreed to renew its contract with The Woods for another year of service with the Youth Service Division, (YSD), after expressing satisfaction with the past operation of the organization.

The Woods, the managing municipality of the YSD, submitted the YSD's fiscal budget for the year 1974-75, which begins on July 1. All the Points utilize the services of the YSD and pay their proportionate shares, based on their respective State equalized valuation of real property.

The Farms' share, as submitted by Woods City Administrator-Clerk Chester E. Petersen, amounted to $23,060. The Farms solons agreed to this sum and proposed that it be included in the city's 1974-75 budget.

In other action taken by the council, it was agreed that the tentative 1974-75 fiscal year budget will be studied during two executive sessions before it is finalized and presented for a public hearing, scheduled for Monday, May 20, at 8 p.m., a regular meeting night.

Convening as a Board of Appeals, the council reversed a denial of a permit to Peter B. Clark, of 193 Stephens road, by the Building Department to construct a six-foot stockade fence along the side of his property, fronting on Ridge road, and connecting with the rear stockade fence and the rear corner of the existing garage.

The permit was approved when Mr. Clark stated the fence was not only for the protection of his two small children, and for privacy, but also because he was having his driveway to the garage changed from Ridge to the Stephens side. He agreed to rebuild the cutaway curb and to remove the cement approach and resod the section.

The council approved an appropriation of $272.50 to be paid to Villican-Leman and Associates, Incorporated, city planning consultants, for professional services in reviewing the site plan for the development of Rose Terrace.

The council also accepted the low bid of Van Leigh Electric, on the recommendation of City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., and gave the firm the contract to provide electrical service to the shelter building at the Municipal Pier-Park. The firm bid $1,400 for the job.

Lake Level

On February 18, the Corps of Engineers completed the transfer of the protective structures on private and public property along the Lake St. Clair shoreline to the control of The Park and The City.

The structures, dikes and levees were built under "Operation Foresight," the Corps of Engineers' program of emergency flood assistance. The dikes and levees were constructed by self help, i.e., installed by municipal employees and volunteers to help homeowners living along the shoreline.

Park City Manager Robert Slone and Grosse Pointe City Manager Thomas Kressbach said the projected forecast is that the lake will be six inches lower during the months of May, June and July, but the danger of flooding still will exist. Any heavy wind coming from a northeasterly direction can raise the water several feet.

The city managers urge shoreline property owners to check their dikes and levees and make sure the structures are still capable of holding back cresting waters and battering waves.

Both officials stated their communities still have a limited supply of bags, but no sand. These bags can be used to replace those torn or forced open. However, if an emergency arises, both felt they could count on the Corps of Engineers for more material assistance.

Slower Pace For Center Donations

Campaign Falls Behind Last Year's Effort; Follow-up Letters To Be Mailed

For the first time in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center's 25th Anniversary Campaign, receipt of donations has fallen behind the pace of last year.

To date, $71,300.50 has been received compared to $74,300.50 at this time last year. The Center realizes that many families are out of town on Easter vacations and Frederick C. Ford, Jr., drive chairman, is confident that follow-up letters, which will be mailed next week to families who have not responded, will give the Campaign its needed second wind.

Goal Remains

The goal of the campaign is still $110,000 which is necessary to balance the operational budget for the next fiscal year.

Edward J. Hickey, III, president of the Center's volunteer Board of Directors, hopes to make a successful announcement on the campaign at Memorial Day Services, May 27.

At that time, the United States Marine Band will give a concert on the lawn, honoring the Memorial's 25 years of service and in particular the men who sacrificed their lives and whose valor the Center commemorates.

Hopeful Response

The follow-up letters on the drive have a postage paid envelope attached. It is hoped those Pointe families, who have not responded, will use these envelopes promptly to enclose their gifts, all of which are gratefully appreciated, regardless of size, says the Center.

The Center also wants to gratefully acknowledge the families who have already joined the ranks of Center members and supporters this year.

North Harriers Rout Shorians

By Janet Evanski

Competing in their first home dual meet, North's track team lost no time in compiling an easy victory over Lake Shore, 104-19.

The Norsemen came across the finish line first in all three relays and completely swept both the mile and two-mile long distance runs, in Tuesday, April 9, action.

North out-ran, out-jumped and ultimately out-scored the Shorians, winning first place in 13 of the 15 events. Performances to be highly commended were displayed by senior Carl Johansson, who leapt 19'9 1/2" to place first in the long jump and also went on to clear six feet in the high jump.

These distances were his personal best in both events.

Other fine efforts were exhibited by Pat Persichini who finished first in the 440-yard run with a time of 53 seconds flat, and junior Mark Curtis who ran an improved time of 10:17.8 in the two-mile distance event.

North's next home meet is Tuesday, April 23, at 4 p.m. against Fraser.

City Loses A Councilman, But Gain A Councilwoman

By Nancy Kramer

In three quick motions at the regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe City Council, held Monday night, April 15, The City lost one councilman, appointed a new one, and then paid tribute to the former.

Councilman Alfred R. Reuther, Jr., had submitted a letter of resignation to the solons explaining that, since he would be moving from The City into The Farms on Saturday, April 6, it was necessary he give up his council seat. The letter noted that Mr. Reuther had tried to find a house in The City, but that he was unsuccessful.

When Mayor John L. King asked for nominations to fill the vacancy by Mr. Reuther, Councilman George D. Henry moved that Jeannette H. Duffield, of Rivard boulevard, be appointed to serve the remainder of Mr. Reuther's term, until November of 1975.

His motion, seconded by Councilman Arthur S. Fetters, was unanimously accepted by the council.

Mrs. Duffield, present in the audience, was then officially sworn in by City Manager Thomas Kressbach and took her seat with the rest of the council. She's the first councilwoman in The City's history.

The first motion on which she voted was adoption of a resolution of appreciation for former Councilman Reuther. The statement, unanimously accepted, notes that Mr. Reuther has served unselfishly in the office since 1967 and that his efforts resulted in lasting achievements for The City of Grosse Pointe.

The council extended its thanks and appreciation in the resolution and wished Mr. Reuther luck in future endeavors.

Your friends will smile if you will let your money talk.

The only proof of success is the ability to hold on to it.

If you like the idea of having your cake and eating it too, the new 2.0-liter Porsche 914 should be very appealing.

Not only does this superbly engineered sports car get an incredible 29 miles to the gallon, but if you figure in the fuel tank capacity (16.4 gallons) you could conceivably travel from New York to Washington and back on one tank of gas!

And what's more, the gas it uses is regular, not premium.

All this economy while you're driving in style in one of the finest handling cars ever designed.

With its mid-engine balance and rack-and-pinion steering, the Porsche 914 is renowned for its cornering ability and for hugging the road.

And with the big fuel-injected 2.0-liter engine (that Porsche engineers specially developed),

The coupled to a five-speed gearbox, even 50 miles an hour can't take the fun out of driving.

So if you've been thinking the Porsche 914 is the right car at the wrong time, think again.

Chilean Series Begins April 23

The Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice will present a six-week seminar on "The Chilean Experience and What It Means to Grosse Pointe Women," on Tuesdays, April 23 through May 28.

Some media, ideas and experiences will be utilized to explore a variety of issues related to international peace and justice, and how it pertains to current crises.

The seminar will be headed by Anne Capek, of Vernier road, a member of the development team of the International Justice and Peace Commission. She is involved in a study of political, economic and religious issues of Third World countries which included an extended visit to Chile last year.

Assisting Ms. Capek will be Norrine Neville, also a member of the Peace Commission, the Archdiocese of Detroit, and a participant in the Equal Justice Task Force Court Study.

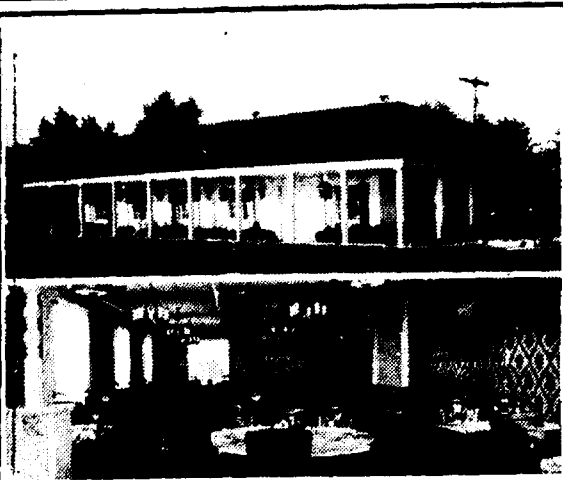

The series will take place from 9:30 to 11 a.m. in the Center building, located at 15222 East Jefferson avenue. Reservations may be made by calling the Center at 824-0350. Baby-sitting can be provided by prior arrangement.

MRS. STELLA LUNDY

Funeral services for Mrs. Lundy, 87, of Maumee avenue, were held on Tuesday, April 16, at Saint Paul's Church and the Verheyden Funeral Home. She died on Friday, April 12, while vacationing in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Lundy was a graduate of Immaculate Heart of Mary College and a member of the League of Catholic Women.

Theatre North Stages Drama

A family play about two teenagers growing up in a small midwestern town in the 1920's, William Inge's "The Dark at the Top of the Stairs," is the fourth and last production of Theatre North, North High School's student acting company under the direction of drama instructor Gael C. Barr.

The play will be presented at 8 p.m. Wednesday-Friday, April 24-26, in the Performing Arts Center at North.

Seniors Paul Johnson and Lisa Gibson have the leading roles. Diane Meininger, Stacy Meredith, Randy Petrilli, Mark Nicholson, Pandora Goetz, Tim Ramm and Bill Hines are featured in the cast. Petrilli also designed and executed the set for the production.

Tickets are $2 for adults; $1.50 for students. They will be available at the door or by calling 886-8100, extension 79.

Scheduled for Theatre North's 1974-1975 season are Moliere's "Tartuffe," Simon's "Star Spangled Girl" and "I Remember Mama." Season tickets will go on sale in May.

Circuit Court Awaits Suspect

A 26-year-old Detroit man, charged with the breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling, was bound over for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court at his Wednesday, April 10, examination before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis, police said.

Stefan Chabrowski, is scheduled to be arraigned in Circuit Court on Thursday, April 25.

On the request of Woods Detective Everett Plumb, Detroit police recently arrested Chabrowski at his home. He is allegedly involved in the burglary of a Newcastle road residence on Friday, March 22.

She is survived by two daughters, Margie O'Neill Lundy and Mrs. J. Donald Anderson; one son, C. Bradford Lundy, Jr.; 13 grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Interment was in Mt. Elliot Cemetery.

Park Authorities Accuse Lawyer of Sex Offenses

Park Municipal Judge John Urso signed warrants for the arrest of Samuel T. Antonelli, 30, of 15110 Windmill Pointe drive, charging him with sex offenses against a 14-year-old retarded girl and her 11-year-old sister. The warrants were signed on Wednesday, April 10.

Antonelli, a former real estate man and an ex-attorney, who is being sought by Park authorities for the alleged offenses, is believed to have fled the area with the girls' sister, who is 16-years-old and who introduced Antonelli to the younger children.

The suspect, who is appealing his conviction in a Detroit court on three counts of burning vacant real estate in Detroit, for which he was sentenced to 2½ to 10 years in prison, is accused of gross indecency and taking indecent liberties with the 11-year-old in February. The alleged sex offenses against the retarded girl were said to have taken place last month.

Judge Urso signed the warrants on information provided by Det. Sgt. Joseph Augustine of the Wayne County Organized Crime Task Force, who said Antonelli is apparently aware of the warrants and that is why he has fled arrest.

The 16-year-old girl, who was employed as a babysitter by Antonelli, and her two sisters are residents of The Park.

The ex-attorney is the former owner of the Antonelli Realty and Appraisal company, 11101 East Jefferson, which was suspended from doing business with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), because of alleged improprieties. He also was suspended from personally doing business with HUD.

In February 1973, he was convicted in Detroit Recorder's Court on arson charges in the burning of the three vacant in n e r city houses, which, it was said by the authorities, he had purchased for a total of $10,000 five months earlier, and insured them for $34,000 at the time of the fires.

In November 1973, he was suspended from law practice, pending the outcome of his appeal on the arson conviction. He was free on bond while appealing both the conviction and the disbarment.

Is your smile pleasant? Most people take it for granted that smiling, is pleasant, and that their own smile is a true expression of feelings. It turns out, of course, that your smile or lack of it mirrors your thoughts, and reveals your inner self. Maybe, however, your smile is inhibited and you are embarrassed because of difficulties with your teeth. This embarrassment could be because they're crooked. But your smile is you, so don't hesitate to see your dentist, and get the most out of your smile!

Woods Raises Price of Bags

The price of plastic rubbish bags has gone up in The Woods.

For the council unanimously concurred in the recommendation of City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher that the city obtain its bags from Cadillac Products, Inc., of Warren, in rolls only, and that the price per roll of 50 bags be increased from $3 to $4.50.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, April 15.

At the regular meeting Monday, February 4, the solons unanimously accepted the quotation of Cherrin Products Company, of Dearborn, to supply the city with bags, and, at that time, increased the price from $2.50 per roll of 50 bags to $3 per roll.

However, Mr. Hornfisher reported that Cherrin has not shipped on the original order the city gave them as the company said they didn't have the material. So, he placed an order with Cadillac Products for the rolls and recommended, due to the difference in price, that the city discontinue ordering boxes of bags for the present.

The city received the following quotes on the bags: from Cadillac, $82.90 per thousand for rolls of 50, and from J. M. Bellard and Associates, of Lebanon, Tenn., $90.23 per thousand for boxes of 100. Thus, because of the increased prices of the bags, the council declined acceptance of boxes but had to raise the price of rolls.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
In the past, residents of the Grosse Pointe School District trusted their school officials' judgments and, in general, supported all reasonable millage programs. Regarding last Monday's election, however, some members of the community question that the Board of Education was entirely frank with them.

The proposals, which were actually millage increases, were widely labeled as "renewals." Printed flyers stressed the word repeatedly. The Board's April newsletter, "Emphasis," headlined the propositions as "Program Renewal Election Set for April 8." A 2.85 mill increase was artfully played down in the verbiage of explanatory articles.

Rumors of dubious origin, often brought from school to child to parent, claimed that a No vote would render the schools inoperable.

Such statements that class size, "36 children are too many for quality instruction at the elementary level," stated by a committee head, did not jibe with facts that 28-29 pupils is the average size of most classes in the district. The Campaign Committee acknowledged decreases in present and projected enrollment statistics, but apparently didn't consider this relevant to class size.

Most disappointing, however, was the school officials' failure to trust the voters with a choice in the matter. The reason stated was, "The Board felt strongly that the program requires improvement, and to split the millage into two issues would be regarded by some people as an invitation to vote for only a minimal program."

In other words, if the voters fail to agree with the millage the Board deems proper, we must vote again and finance a new election to provide funds to keep his schools afloat. Not only is this an insult to the intelligence of the voter, but it is a singularly high-handed supposition on the part of the planners.

Based on past millage elections, if the voters had been given a choice he would undoubtedly have approved the 2.15 renewal and very probably voted for a 1.75 mill increase. This latter was the amount determined by the Board to defray inflationary costs. And he would have known what he was voting for.

That he wasn't given a choice indicates there was some doubt within the Board that the additional 1.10 mills was earmarked for reducing class size and providing "great opportunity" by instituting new Skill Centers, Instrumental Music Improvements, etc. Many voters on fixed incomes and others who are taxed beyond their limit now would have turned thumbs down on additional expense for non-essentials.

The millage increase passed, cloaked as it was in "renewal" jargon, but it does not reflect the true sentiments of all the community. Grosse Pointe residents approved a millage increase two years ago. Their teachers are among the highest paid in the State. The school system, far from deteriorating, is one of the finest in Michigan.

For their unceasing support of community and schools, the residents deserve to be trusted with a choice of millage taxation and more frank campaigning tactics from the officials who serve them.

To the Editor:

As a teacher of adolescents and a parent of pre-adolescents, two front page articles in the April 11th edition of the Grosse Pointe News illustrate my growing dismay with city officials who do not understand the needs of young people.

Granted it is difficult to measure prevention and resolution of conflicts before they become crises, but few people who have used the services of Center Point and the YSD would doubt the importance of the support they provide the community's young people.

The expertise needed to effectively work with young men and women comes only through training, experience, a growing familiarity with the problems of a particular community and through the trust engendered by long-standing relationships — in that order. The loss of Tom Geisz to Center Point and John Kendall to YSD are unfortunate losses.

Though different in kind, Center Point and YSD provide prevention services of the first order. Monetary setbacks will not deter Sister Sean Martin, nor Cliff Crockatt, as "rotation" will probably not deter Det. Michael Ferrance (of the YSD), from the full execution of their commitments.

But what is so incredible to me is the obvious uphill struggle they are put through by the authorities who want them. Rotation in the YSD is unnecessary, and lack of city endorsed financial support for FLEC is unnecessary.

Sincerely,
Donna Petrie

One View From The Capitol

By William R. Bryant, Jr.

Last week's legislative session could probably best be termed: "The week that wasn't." The major issues of the week all fell prey to one of the most overwhelming examples of negativism in the House that I have witnessed so far in my legislative experience.

On either straight party line votes, or with the majority of Democrats voting against: the campaign reform bill was delayed and major loop-hole closing amendments offered by Republicans were systematically defeated; an attempt to consider H.B. 4244 which would provide needed property tax relief for the State's farmers was denied, and consideration of H.B. 4208 to provide $17 million in tax relief for our State's businesses was delayed.

Campaign Reform Stalled
In one party line vote after another last week, the Democratic majority turned down amendments to the campaign reform bill which were necessary to make it a responsible piece of legislation.

I was particularly disappointed by continued refusal to vote for amendments which would provide full disclosure.

As the bill stands now, any contributions under $25 would not have to be reported — even though present law requires reporting of all contributions.

They have also fought full disclosure of contributed goods and services. How they can proclaim to the media and then refuse to provide full disclosure is really beyond my comprehension.

Agriculture Tax Relief Bill Delayed

Almost without explanation, the Democratic leadership refused last week to give consideration to H.B. 4244 which would provide a vehicle by which Michigan's farmers could obtain some property tax relief.

Saying that their members needed more time to study the compromise, the Democratic leadership delayed consideration of this bill until after the Easter recess.

The rumor is that the Democratic leadership is intent on scrubbing either the bill or another tax relief measure, H.B. 4208, in order to spend all available money on increases in social welfare.

Business Tax Relief Delayed
H.B. 4208 would provide $17 million in tax relief for the State's businesses by increasing the inventory tax credit from 25 percent to 35 percent this year.

In addition, it would increase this credit by 64 percent each year until the State would, within 11 years, reimburse business 100 percent for the inventory tax they pay to local governments.

This is considered to be the most preferable means of providing some tax relief for State businesses, especially small businesses.

Ethics
On another subject, our caucus has acted swiftly to look into serious charges made against Republican Joe Smeeckens, that he purportedly acted on behalf of a company in his district, in getting a loan and before the State air pollution control commission, in an illegal or unethical manner.

Our Republican leader, Clifford Smart, has appointed me as chairman of a three-member caucus committee, and to be our representative on the Joint House-Senate Conflict of Interest Committee to look into these and other questions.

Hopefully next week will see action on all the matters discussed in this article.

Park Council Accepts Board of Review Report

The Park Council on Monday, April 8, accepted a report from City Assessor Herbert Heger, in which he disclosed that 33 taxpayers appeared before the Board of Review to protest or seek relief on tax payments. Of the number seeking relief, four were commercial property owners.

Mr. Heger, who also is Director of Public Service, informed the council that 18 petitioners, including three owning commercial property, were granted tax reductions. In the cases of the other 15, no action was taken or their requests were denied, including two who sought relief through the hardship clause.

He said the two hardship cases were turned down because of a new State Income Tax provision recently signed by Governor William Milliken, which granted property tax exemptions to senior citizens owning property, and those with low income, to a maximum of $500. Included in the low income are Social Security benefits, Mr. Heger added.

Every local government unit has a Tax Board of Review, whereby taxpayers who feel that their property assessments are too high, have the right to appeal.

The city assessor told the solons the Board held two 12-hour sessions to hear petitioners on Tuesdays, March 12 and March 26.

The members of the Board, comprised of Herbert Schumann, Earl Perkins and Oswald Zeidler, were lauded by Mr. Heger for a job well done. Mr. Heger is the secretary of the Board.

The council, on recommendation of the city assessor, approved payment of $50 a day, or a total of $100, to each of the three Board members for their services.

Mr. Heger said with the hearing of the Board of Review finalized, the tax rolls are closed until next year, and assessments for city taxes are being audited and statements will be sent to Park property owners for taxes due and payable on July 1.

He pointed out city taxes are separate from County and School taxes which will become payable on December 1.

The voters of the Grosse Pointe School District on Monday, April 8, approved a total of 24.35 mills, or $24.35 per $1,000 State Equalized Assessed Valuation. The millage was the renewal of 21.50 mills which expired last December, and 2.85 mills additional to pay rising costs of program improvements, salary raises, etc. This will be reflected in school taxes due in December, Mr. Heger said.

He stressed that as far as the County and School taxes are concerned, The Park, and other local governments, act only as collection agencies, as required by law, for these governmental units.

These taxes are turned over to the county and the school system, he added, and the cities do not receive a cent for the service.

Mr. Heger pointed out further the city tax payment deadline is August 31, and that for the County and Schools, is February 14. Envelopes of taxes mailed in must bear these postmark dates before they are considered as having been paid within the grace period.

Penalties are assessed if any taxes, city, county or schools, are not made by the respective deadlines.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford
Chief of Central Library

Once again it's time to put away the snow shovel and get out the gardening tools. Before long there will be grass to cut, shrubs to tend and flower beds to prepare. To help you get your lawn and garden off to a good start this spring, I would like to recommend a number of new books recently purchased by your Grosse Pointe Public Library.

One of the best titles is the new edition of "The New York Times Garden Book." In this compendium of valuable gardening information taken from the gardening pages of the New York Times. Horticultural experts detail every phase of gardening activity from lawn care and landscape design to the propagation and culture of trees, shrubs, flowers, fruits, vegetables and house plants. Sound information on organic gardening, mulches and pest control without pesticides, also is included along with specialized advice for the city gardener.

"Nature's Guide to Successful Gardening and Landscaping" by William Flemer is an ecology-oriented gardening book. The author discusses choosing plants best adapted by natural selection to a given garden environment and of working with nature, not counter to it, in propagating seeds, transplanting, tending the soil, meeting other plant needs and opposing destructive insects.

Flemer, an experienced nurseryman and expert on tree genetics and breeding, advises on problems and planting solutions specifically for establishing an open land or wooded land garden — trees, shrubs, perennials, annuals or whatever else is appropriate — a seashore garden, rock or wall garden, desert garden or city garden.

Another useful volume is "Helen VanPelt Wilson's Own Garden and Landscape Book." Gardening practitioner and writer of gardening books, Mrs. Wilson conducts a tour of her own two-acre planted estate in Connecticut. She details effects achieved with flowers, shrubs and ground covers, illustrating each with color and black and white photographs.

Coverage includes charts with essential facts on various perennials, the blooming sequence of bulbs and month-by-month gardening chores. A helpful appendix is included listing sources with addresses for catalogs, ranging in price from 25 cents to $2, if not free.

For those interested more in lawn care than general gardening, we have Robert W. Schery's "A Perfect Lawn, The Easy Way," and John U. Crockett's "Lawns and Ground Covers."

The Schery book is a revision of an earlier title, "The Lawn Book," published in 1961. In this new volume the author suggests types of ground cover and grass varieties, and a choice of methods to suit different situations and tastes. Of special interest are an updated chapter on lawn ecology and a chapter on lawn renovation.

"Lawns and Ground Covers" is part of the Time-Life Encyclopedia of Gardening. Crockett, an eminent horticulturist and writer on gardening subjects, has produced an extremely useful book that covers a wide range of lawn care ideas from how to apply fertilizer to how to build and install your own underground sprinkler system.

Of special interest is a beautifully color-illustrated chapter on grasses and ground covers. Included as appendices are tables matching grasses and ground covers to specific locales, characteristics of 88 ground covers and a good bibliography and index.

In addition to books on gardens and lawns, we have an excellent new title on trees and shrubs: "The Gardener's Basic Book of Trees and Shrubs," by Stanley Schuler.

This is a popular guide to selecting, acquiring, propagating, planting, watering, fertilizing, pruning and training trees and shrubs. In a clear, well-illustrated text, the author gives easy-to-understand directions for the care of trees and shrubs in a home garden.

Schuler includes a chapter on controlling pests, climate zone maps, tables on evergreens, deciduous trees and shrubs, trees that grow unusually fast, shrubs for shady places and lists of hedges. Eight pages of full-color plates may be used for identification purposes. A useful appendix of state agricultural extension services and a comprehensive index complete the volume.

These books will not guarantee you a perfect lawn or flower bed, but they are fun to look at and read, and should help you with many of your gardening tasks.

If you use a carport carrier to carry a heavy load, try to avoid the type of carrier that is high and square in front. Remember that the height of the load should increase gradually toward the rear of the carrier to induce a deflecting action to the air stream. The same is true of carrying a boat on top of your car. Face the bow forward to slice the air. Remember to tie your load down securely.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Alice (Mrs. Fred) Metry, of Devonshire road, and Judy (Mrs. Richard) Simonds, of University place, are demonstrating their support of Channel 56 this month.

Not with picket signs—although Channel 56 supporters are dedicated enough to man the barricades if need be: Alice and Judy lead a corps of 30 gentle, but enthusiastic, persuaders, Go-Getters for the Sixth Annual Channel 56 Auction, who are calling on area merchants, asking for donations of items or services valued at $25 or more.

The Auction enables Channel 56, Detroit's only Public Television Station, to maintain its fine schedule of programs like Sesame Street, Masterpiece Theatre, the Electric Company and Zoom.

Judy and Alice are Grosse Pointe Regional chairmen for the 1974 Channel 56 Go-Getters.

Among their gentle persuaders are Mrs. Michael Barry, Mrs. William Schade, Mrs. David Van Note, Mrs. John Ottaway, Mrs. Lauren Chapman and Mrs. Willard Kennedy.

Last year, Go-Getters' enthusiastic involvement poured equal enthusiasm on the part of the merchants, raising over $435,000 for the PBS Channel.

Channel 56's 1974 Auction is scheduled for May 4 through 11. During these eight days, over 300 celebrities will act as on-the-air auctioneers, knocking down goods-and-services donations to phone-in bidders.

It's always a great show. Hypnotic, in fact: I confess to being among those who tune in to see what's going on . . . and find myself, four hours later, still glued to the set. I find myself bidding, too.

All donations are tax deductible, of course. Prospective donors who have not yet been contacted by a Go-Getter may call Auction Central, 873-7200—and a Go-Getter will be out posthaste to get them.

Still Time for Fontbonne Fashions

There's still time to get a reservation in for the Fontbonne Auxiliary of Saint John Hospital's "Fashions Internationales." The luncheon fête begins at noon next Thursday, April 25, at Hillcrest Country Club.

Collecting 'Collectibles'

Busy collecting "collectibles" for the Detroit Historical Society's Attic Antique Sale to be held this Saturday and Sunday, April 20 and 21, at historic Fort Wayne are BARBARA and ALEX WRIGLEY, of Bishop road. Friends and members of the Society have been cleaning out attics, garages and closets at Mrs. Wrigley's request, (she's Sale chairman), searching for buried and forgotten treasures to donate.

17th century tragedy "The Duchess of Malfi" was presented three nights in London, video-taped there for showing on television after its initial presentation at St. Andrews. It has been chosen to represent Britain at the International Festival of Experimental Student Drama at Palermo, Sicily, the latter part of this month. David, also in charge of lighting for St. Andrews' fall play, "The Cecci," is spending his junior year at St. Andrews under the Kalamazoo College Foreign Study Program. He visited Greece, Crete and Rome during his winter holiday and plans a month-long bicycle tour of Scotland and England when he finishes his work at St. Andrews, before returning to The States.

Grosse Pointe South High School senior JAMES FOX, son of MR. and MRS. RICHARD F. FOX, of Audubon road, has been awarded a Kalamazoo College Presidential Scholarship in Science and Mathematics.

Appearing recently as Gwendolyn Pigeon in the Michigan State University Company's production of "The Odd Couple" was MSU freshman BECKY HEWENS, Company treasurer, daughter of MRS. ROBERT SMITH, of Washington road. Fellow freshman IAN HOWARD, son of the KENNETH HOWARDS, of Rivard boulevard, is the Company's promotion director. Senior DAVID CATLIN, son of the GEORGE CATLINS, of Anita avenue, is president of the student drama organization.

MR. and MRS. JAMES ARTHUR BAUBIE, JR., of St. Clair Shores, announce the birth of a son, EDWARD BRITTON BAUBIE, March 28. Mrs. Baubie is the former KATHERINE JEANNE STEDMAN, daughter of MR. and MRS. LYNN GIFFORD STEDMAN, JR., of North Brys drive. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. JAMES ARTHUR BAUBIE, of Colonial road and Pompano Beach, Fla. JAMES ARTHUR BAUBIE, III, is the new baby's big brother and LYNN GIFFORD STEDMAN, of Harvard road, Detroit, is their great-grandfather.

Soroptimists Meet April 24

The Soroptimist Club of Grosse Pointe will gather on Wednesday, April 24, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for a dinner meeting at 7 p.m.

A special program is planned featuring Kathryn Gannon, a past president of the group, who will speak on "Soroptimism — Past and Present."

Mrs. Gannon is employed as a manager by the Detroit Bank and Trust Company and has been a Soroptimist and member of the Grosse Pointe Club since 1958. During this time she has served the organization locally in many official capacities and has participated in committee work on a regional level.

This year, Mrs. Gannon is chairman of the Bulletin Awards Committee for the Soroptimist Midwest Conference which she will be attending in Dayton, O., on April 20 and 21.

At the regular business meeting of the Grosse Pointe Club held Wednesday, April 10, plans were made for the president, Maxine Niemeyer, of Vernier road, and several other members to attend the conference. They are: Nancy Davidson, Olive Niemeyer, Florence Riley, Kathryn Shedy and Carolyn Thompson.

Attic/Antique Sale Aids Fort Wayne

Donations Still Sought for This Weekend's Two-Day Benefits; Proceeds Will Assist in Restoration of Historic Detroit Site

An appeal for donations to a special Attic/Antique Sale to benefit the restoration of Historic Fort Wayne has been issued by the Detroit Historical Society. The Sale, open to the public for a charge of $1, will be held on the grounds of Fort Wayne itself this Saturday, April 20, and Sunday, April 21. Hours are 10 to 5 o'clock both days.

Benefit chairman Mrs. R. Alexander Wrigley, of Bishop road, comments: "We already have received a host of lovely things from a small button hook to large pieces of furniture. But we are hoping many more gifts will be contributed."

Mrs. Wrigley emphasizes that the Society is not simply seeking donations of genuine antiques, but any item of nostalgic value.

Persons wishing to donate items may do so by delivering them directly to the Detroit Historical Museum in Woodward avenue. For large items or collections, pick-up arrangements may be made by calling 321-1701.

A receipt for tax purposes will be mailed to donors.

Sale proceeds will help continue the restoration of Historic Fort Wayne.

Since the one-time military post was turned over to the Detroit Historical Commission restoration has been carried on in several phases. Initially, the fortress itself with its three-story barracks was restored.

More recently, with the turning over of the garrison area to the Commission, the post headquarters, officer quarters and other buildings are undergoing restoration.

Restoration of the entire post has been designated as the Principal Historical Project of the Bicentennial Commission of Detroit.

Funds for the Fort's restoration have already been received from the State Bicentennial Commission and the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

The Detroit Historical Society has also designated the restoration as its major project for the United States Bicentennial Observance in 1976.

Solan Weeks, director of the Detroit Historical Museum, points out, "These funds are, of course, most welcome. But if full plans for the restoration of Historic Fort Wayne are to be carried out, we must look for financial support from private citizens as well."

"Benefits such as the Attic/Antique Sale are an important source of such funds."

St. Clare Women Plan Fashion Show

Shops in The Village Provide Fashions for Modeling; Proceeds Will Benefit St. Clare of Montefalco Church and School

"The Village" is an avenue of fashion and the roof of it will be featured in "Splash of Spring," a luncheon fashion show staged by the Archconfraternity of St. Clare on Wednesday, April 24, at The Pollard House on Harper in St. Clair Shores.

Shops of The Village will provide spring costumes for the show. Participating are Peck & Peck, Jacobson's, Walton Pierce, Expectation Shop, Lay Baum, Jacobson's Fabric Shop, Orlando's Coiffures, and Wright Lay.

Guests will see make-it-yourself designs, junior styles, models for matrons, sportswear, plus new hairdos.

Mrs. Michael Marrs, fashion coordinator and commentator, promises a unique surprise in the jewelry model. Wearing black leotards, Beth Krause will be covered from head to toe with the latest in aubles, bangles and beads.

Co-chairwomen for the fund raising project are Mrs. Robert Ruhl and Mrs. Leonard Beaufait. Decorations, handled by Mrs. Joseph Eichlaub, are enameled springing cans stuffed with handmade calico flowers, to be used as gifts. Mrs. Donald Carrier designed the invitations and Mrs. Donald Thill is in charge of other gifts.

A trip to Toronto for two and gift certificates from shops in the Village, will also be given away. Mrs. Timothy Mulligan is in charge of that.

Proceeds from the event will be used to benefit the school and church of St. Clare of Montefalco. Further information is available through reservations chairwoman, Mrs. Robert Lenhard, at 885-8519. Tickets are $7 each.

Grosse Pointe South High School graduate PAUL KEPPLER, son of the PAUL KEPPLERS, of Hawthorne road, is a sophomore middle distance performer on the 1974 Capital University track team.

Review Club Meets April 23

Onita Sanders, soprano and harpist soloist, will present a musical program to the Detroit Review Club, on Wednesday, April 23, at the Women's City Club, following the club's annual meeting and a luncheon honoring new members.

Mrs. H. Lloyd Patterson, retiring president, will conduct the meeting and act as official hostess at the luncheon before presenting the gavel to the newly elected president, Mrs. Frank Scott Perkin. Mrs. Hugh Purdy will be among the honored guests.

LACK STAMINA

Very few people attain success because the cost is more than most are willing to pay.

Mrs. Bewley Priestman, of Fisher road, music chairman for DRC, will introduce Miss Sanders. Onita, a talented soprano and harpist will present show tunes to club members.

A graduate of Cass Technical High School and Wayne University, she has sung with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, toured the west coast with the Jimmy McDonald Singers, as soprano and harpist, and appeared in Overture to Opera, as well as with the Max Davey Singers. She has made many concert appearances and was featured at the Dearborn Inn.

Pointers presenting annual reports include: Vera Brown, who had charge of the club's annual Ways and Means party at Lochmoor Club; music chairman: Mrs. Bewley Priestman; courtesy and telephone: Mrs. Charles F. Brundie; friendship tea: Mrs. Robert S. King, Jr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Holmes; literature: Mrs. Bert A. Greiner; program and publicity: Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox.

Spring Fair At Goodwill

Members of the Women's Association of Goodwill Industries will present their annual Spring Fair next Wednesday, April 24, in the Goodwill Building, Brush street at East Grand boulevard, Detroit.

Rainbow Fair decorations will include "pots of gold" from which items traditionally found in general stores, including collectables, will be offered for sale from 10 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon.

Mrs. Ralph L. Young, Goodwill Women's president, is honorary chairman. Assisting Mrs. A. Warren Brock, general chairman, are co-chairmen Mrs. David C. Farlow and Mrs. Zelda M. Wellons.

Chairmen of publicity and finance, respectively, are Mrs. John J. Lee and Mrs. Elroy Scheffele.

Pointers serving on the Fair committee include Mrs. J. B. Renaud and Mrs. Bernard M. Segner.

The Women's Association is organized for service to the handicapped trainees and employees of League-Goodwill. The current increase in the price of food is reflected in costs related to the cafeteria where trainees/employees are able to secure a complete noon meal at cost.

In order not to raise the present lunch price, the Women's Association recently pledged to subsidize the cafeteria in the Goodwill Building, where more than 100 are served daily, by $100 monthly. Fair proceeds will help finance this pledge.

Mrs. Brock invites anyone wishing to contribute new items suitable for Fair sale to deliver them, identified as FOR THE FAIR, to any Goodwill store or the Brush street building. Pick-ups may be arranged by contacting her at 825-2155.

Free parking is available in the Goodwill Parking Lot on Milwaukee boulevard.

Cottage Auxiliary Sets Spring Dance

Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Will Be Setting for the Dinner Dance on Saturday, April 27; No 'Shop Talk' Allowed

Spring is kicking-up-the heels time, and in that mood the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital is planning its annual spring dinner dance for Saturday, April 27, at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club. The schedule calls for cocktails at 7, dinner at 8:30, and dancing until 1 a.m.

Tables will be available for chatting and card playing for those not interested in dancing.

Chairman Mrs. Virgil Goodman has the assistance of Mrs. Warren Jollymore, co-chairman; Mrs. Nancy Davidson, decorations; and Mrs. Frank Walker, reservations.

Dubbed the "Upsie-Daisy Dinner Dance," the event will have the mood set by hundreds of yellow and white balloons (floating through the courtesy of Chief Respiratory Therapist John McCree), fresh daisies, yellow and white velvet ribbons, and pots of greenery.

Cottage Hospital Auxiliaries, members of the Board of Trustees, and hospital staff, with spouses and friends, are invited.

This annual event is one of the two times during the year when Auxiliaries forget the seriousness of their work and decree "no uniforms, no shop talk." It's strictly a time for renewing acquaintances and making new ones. Reservations are being accepted by Mrs. Walker through Monday, April 22.

Working on the Dearborn Civic Theater's production of "The Rothschilds" is Pointer DR. JOHN PERCIN who is acting as musical director. His past directorships have included work with the Grosse Pointe Theater, Fine Arts of Detroit, Port Huron Little Theater and the St. Clair, Michigan Little Theater. Opening night is April 28 at Fordson High School. For ticket information and show-times, Pointers may call LU 4-1200, ext. 263.

The W. Van Cleaves, III

In Our Lady Star of the Sea Church Saturday, January 12, ELIZABETH ELLEN BARTOS and Mr. Van Cleave exchanged marriage vows. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bartos, of Edshire lane. The Wallace Van Cleaves, II, of Beulah, are the bridegroom's parents.

Van Cleave-Bartos Vows Exchanged

Three Sisters Attend Bride at January Rites in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church; Pair Are at Home in Traverse City

Elizabeth Ellen Bartos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bartos, of Edshire lane, and Wallace Van Cleave, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Van Cleave, II, of Beulah, vacationed in Acapulco, Mexico, and Aspen, Col., following their Saturday, January 12, wedding.

The 2 o'clock rites in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church at which Father Stan Krogulecki presided were followed by a reception at Lochmoor Club.

The bride wore an ivory voile gown styled with a sweetheart neckline and train. Alencon lace and seed pearls accented her sleeves and bodice. Her floor length veil fell from a lace Juliet cap.

She was attended by her sister, Patsy Bartos, as maid of honor and bridesmaids

Mrs. Jack Fleming and Sue Bartos, two other sisters, Diana Van Cleave, the bridegroom's sister, and Marcia Crane.

Gold braid accented their Victorian frocks of cranberry velvet. They carried dried flower nosegays.

Steve Wilson came from Evanston, Ill., to act as his brother-in-law's best man. In the usher corps were Rick Bartos, the bride's brother, Mr. Fleming, Steve Stefani and Blake Slatter, Chris Hanson and Glen Heine, of Traverse City.

Mrs. Bartos' floor length emerald green gown featured a jeweled jacket. The bridegroom's mother chose a long navy jersey gown with a gold-threaded jacket. Both mothers carried corsage arrangements of assorted dried flowers.

The newlyweds are making their home in Traverse City.

Detroit Landmarks Calendar Theme

Detroit Area College Students Submit Art Work To Illustrate Calendar; Will Be Ready For Distribution in Early Fall

Tying in with this year's theme of historic Detroit, the Junior League will be offering a 1975 calendar focusing on historic Detroit landmarks. In March, the Junior League presented its musical "Ain't We Got Fun" which was a salute to Detroit's contributions in music.

The winning calendar art will be on exhibit at Mr. Sheridan's Books, 373 Fisher road, beginning Monday, April 22. The students were asked to submit art work reflecting the calendar's theme, "Detroit Landmarks You Might Have Missed".

The work covers a wide range of subjects, from the huge wooden stove at the State Fairgrounds to a collage of challenges facing Detroit's newly-elected mayor, Coleman Young.

Detroit's churches proved to be a source of inspiration for the students. Also ranking high in entries were scenes from Belle Isle and the Waterworks Park Gate.

Heading the calendar committee is Mrs. Theodore Oldham, of Ridge road, assisted by Mrs. Ken Perry, Mrs. John Paul Meilink and Mrs. Tobey Hansen, Jr. Work was begun in early 1973 for the 1975 calendar.

Final selection of the winning art work took place in mid-January at the Detroit Art Institute. Serving as judges were J. Edward Bailey, Detroit News photographer; William Bostic, Detroit Institute of Arts curator; W. Hawkins Ferry, art historian and author; and Gertrude Kasle, owner of Kasle Galleries. They selected 14 works of art to be used in the calendar and singled out first, second and third place award winners.

First place was awarded to Barbara Green of Wayne

State University for her silk-screen rendering entitled "The City," which will be used on the front of the calendar. Second place went to Marcyanna Wendt of Wayne County Community College for her crayon resist, "First Congregational Church—1891." Third place was claimed by Calvin Lee of Highland Park Community College for his charcoal and collage effort entitled "Mayor Coleman Young—Against Detroit's Problems."

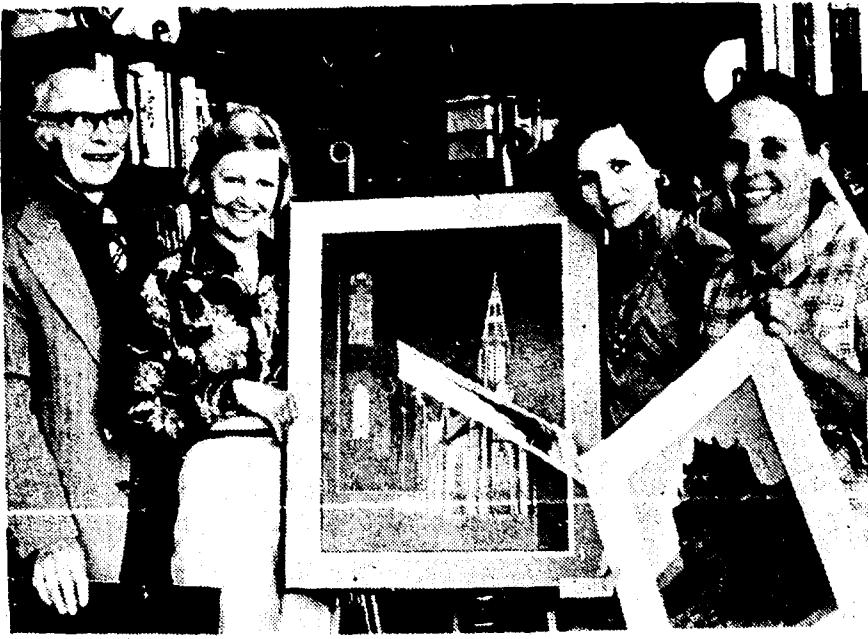

The National Bank of Detroit exhibited the top 40 art works in its downtown Detroit main lobby from January 22 to February 1.

Ford & Earl Design Associates did the layout for the calendar. Ford & Earl, like NBD, donated their services to the Junior League.

The calendar will be ready for distribution in early fall. It's hoped that the calendar will point out the many landmarks that are a part of Detroit's history, but that are often overlooked when considering places to see when exploring the city.

Earning a place on Miami University's dean's list, Oxford, O., are NANCY ANN HOFFMELT, of Rivard boulevard, and SUSAN R. MOESTA, of North Oxford road. Nancy was also placed on the president's list for receiving a straight-A average.

Junior League Exhibits Calendar Art

First Society Plans Benefit

The First Society of Detroit's next invitational party is scheduled for Sunday, April 21, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. It will benefit the Senior Citizens Food Co-op which provides indigent over-60 members of the Cass Corridor Community with a daily well-balanced meal.

The Co-op feeds an average of 80 people daily. The Federal Government provides sufficient funds to cover 50 meals. The Co-op depends upon private donations to underwrite additional meal costs.

Sponsor of the party, which begins at 5 o'clock and will feature continuous music by Stalag 17 and The Crystal Key, is Bud Cornille, member of First Society's executive committee.

Other committee members are Paul Alandt, William Miller, Jeff Braderick, Judy O'Keefe, Martha Frendergast, Janet Corten, Linda Rossi, Paul Heitzel, John Thomas, Barry Leonard, Gail Kornmeier, Kathy Levey, Greg McDuffee and Kathy Tobin.

Admission to the benefit is by invitation only.

Eight Bowling Green State University athletes were named four-year lettermen in their respective sports during the winter season. Pointer JON WATTS was singled out for this honor from his swimming record.

THERE'S NO SHORTAGE of Security, Comfort and Convenience

at The Jefferson Apartments Grosse Pointe's Newest Condominium now 2/3 Sold. And we still have 7-1/2% mortgage money available.

Not one, but a network of the most modern security systems guard you, your home and your possessions.

A CLOSED TV MONITORING SYSTEM covers the entrance, outside parking areas and inside garage. The caller can be viewed from a selected channel on the Owner's TV set in each apartment. The doorman and manager's office views the same areas.

THE ENTRY COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM is a new system conceived and engineered by Michigan Bell Telephone Company. Using a touchtone panel telephone in the lobby, the caller dials the owner's apartment. This enables each party to have a private conversation. During the time the caller is in the entrance vestibule, he is under surveillance by the concealed TV camera.

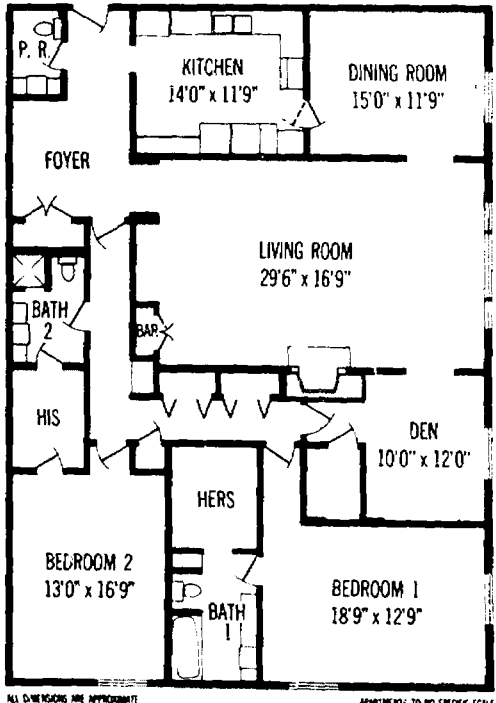

AN ON-GUARD ALERT SYSTEM features a control panel in the manager's apartment and the attendant's office. This notifies of an intrusion into any apartment when the occupants are away. The doorman or manager controls the system by activating the apartment's security supervision at the request of the owner.

THE FIRE PROTECTION ALERT SYSTEM gives supervision added protection to all occupants of the building and will insure notification of each individual occupant of a fire in an unoccupied apartment. Further elements of security are the uniformed doorman-attendant and around the clock resident caretakers.

WE CARE ABOUT YOUR COMFORT AND CONVENIENCE. It's part of the gracious living at The Jefferson Apartments. Here is a typical spacious floor plan of an apartment home which features 9 foot ceilings, individual gas heating and cooling, top of the line G. E. kitchen with an icemaker and a washer-dryer. A wet bar is conveniently located for entertaining. Insulated walls, floors, plumbing and windows insure maximum quiet. Natural fireplaces.

There are three separate elevators and approximately a thousand square feet of private storage. Exterior maintenance, gardening and snow removal are arranged, which is part of your assessment fee. The Jefferson Apartments is an adult community. You'll be a neighbor to some of the nicest neighbors in Grosse Pointe. Residents are home owners and enjoy tax deductions and the investment security of being a property owner and equity advantages.

The Jefferson Apartments is located 2 blocks from a park with boat slips, 3 blocks from Grosse Pointe shopping, 20 minutes from downtown Detroit by bus.

Visit us and learn about our new pricing policy. Apartment homes priced from $69,000.

Macomb Artists Slate Meeting

The regular meeting of the Macomb Art Society will be held on Tuesday, April 23, at 7:30 p.m., at the St. Clair Shores Recreation Center, 24800 Jefferson Avenue.

The meeting is open to the public and new members are welcome. Donation is $1 and refreshments will be served.

Guest speaker will be Nancy Proffit who has been a portrait artist for seven years. The artist studied life drawing at the Arts and Crafts School and maintains a studio in Grosse Pointe.

Met Opera Week Reminders In Mail

Members of the Women's Committee of the Detroit Grand Opera Association recently spent a busy day at the Ridge road home of MRS. DAVID L. GAMBLE (right), stuffing and mailing thousands of notices and reminders about performances of the Metropolitan Opera Company at Detroit's Masonic Temple April 29 through May 4. Helping Mrs. Gamble, general co-chairman of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, are, (from left), MRS. NEIL SNOW, of McKinley Avenue, Membership and Advertising chairman, MRS. WARREN S. WILKINSON, of Woodland place, Grosse Pointe Area chairman, and MRS. JOHN C. GRIFFIN, of Lakeshore road, chairman of Supper with the Stars, the annual dinner party held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial the evening preceding the Met's Opening Night. Noel Gamble and her committee members stress that excellent seats are available for all performances except Saturday, May 4, which has been sold out.

Films to Feature Places Time Forgot

Western Himalayan Kingdoms, Afghanistan and The Galapagos Islands Are Destinations for Next Wednesday's Grosse Pointe Garden Center Lecture

The Grosse Pointe Garden Center's Spring Lecture scheduled for next Wednesday, April 24, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium will feature NEWS Society-Feature writer Janet Mueller's 16mm color movies "Places Time Forgot," a survey of the Flora and Fauna of the Galapagos Islands and other exotic places.

The program starts at 11 o'clock. It will be followed by a 12:30 subscription luncheon.

Reservations for the luncheon at $4.50 each must be received in the Garden Center Room at the War Memorial by today, Thursday, April 18.

Garden Center members and friends are welcome to attend the lecture only if they cannot stay for luncheon.

The Galapagos Island, located on the equator several hundred miles off the coast of Ecuador, are a Laboratory of Evolution. Bird and animals, isolated from each other and from man, have developed uniquely here.

They are extraordinarily tame. Swimmers find seals and sea lions cavorting WITH them. It is possible to walk through rookeries and observe a Galapagos albatross on her nest, to come within several feet of displaying frigate birds, to feed iguanas, (they like orange peel).

The giant tortoises of the Galapagos are spectacular.

kingdoms, close to the Chinese border, are seldom visited. One of them, Hunza, where people are reputed to live to be well past 100, was only re-opened to tourists last summer.

Accommodations in Hunza are rudimentary. Scenery is spectacular. The tiny kingdom is famous for its apricots. Its fields and terraces, late last August when Miss Mueller's films were taken, were a mosaic of green and gold.

Swat, lush and more civilized, is also covered, as are the wild, beautiful Khyber Valley, the historic Khyber Pass and Lahore's Red Fort and Shalimar Gardens.

The Colossal Buddhas of Bamiyan are the most impressive feature of the Valley, but the Red City at its entrance, and the Screaming City at its center, each are magical places.

The road to Bamiyan is a fascinating experience, for the Western traveler shares it with Kochis and other nomads, wandering with their donkeys and camels from pasture to pasture.

Tourists accommodation in Bamiyan is in a yurt camp.

From Bamiyan, it is a long morning's trip to the incredibly blue lakes of Band Amir, set in Afghanistan's high desert.

Men who claim they never made a mistake in their lives generally have wives who did.

Isn't it time you stopped cutting your own hair?

So you do a pretty good job. But pretty good isn't enough if you really want to get your head together beautifully. Even yard-long hair needs the touch of an expert to behave its best. And now as the pendulum swings to shorter hair, you might even want a new look. Our trimmers never pressure you to cut your hair too short. They'll never snip a snip without checking with you. So if you really love your hair (as much as we do) come to the Trimmers.

LINK Plans Flea Market

Circle June 13 and 14 on your calendars now. Those are the days LINC — Linking Individuals with Needs in the Community — will present its fabulous Flea Market as part of a City Fair in the Kern Block downtown.

Now just in case you don't happen to be familiar with LINC, here's a brief bring-you-up-to-date background: LINC, founded and currently sponsored by the Junior League of Detroit, is an organization with multitudinous projects, ranging from drug rehabilitation centers to youth homes to day care facilities.

Its work force is composed of community volunteers. Its needs are met by donations from individuals, service organizations and businesses.

The Flea Market, running from 9:30 in the morning to 4 in the afternoon both Fair days, will feature plants and flowers as well as antiques and attic treasures.

Proceeds will be used to purchase special items which have not been donated to Operation LINC. Some proceeds are earmarked, too, for the Kern Block Maintenance Fund.

Donations of sale items for the Flea Market, (tax deductible, naturally), are most welcome. A call to 886-5256 or 882-7782 will show prospective donors just how welcome their donations are.

Supper With the Stars

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial, in conjunction with the Grosse Pointe Women's Committee of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, will again present Supper With the Stars of the Metropolitan Opera Sunday, April 28, the night before the Met's Opening Night in Detroit.

Super at 7 o'clock in Fries Auditorium will be followed by a panel discussion featuring Met stars Marilyn Horne and John Reardon, Met Manager Schuyler Chapin and Assistant Manager Francis Robinson.

Chairman of 1974's Supper With the Stars is Mrs. William H. Christensen, of Sunningdale drive. Her co-chairman is Mrs. Gary L. Cowan, of Fairholme road.

Working with them have been the Mesdames John C. Griffin, Neil Snow, Mary Teachout, James T. Farley, Thomas Rockwell, Garfield Tournay, Volrad J. von Berg and David Van Note.

Tickets at $7 per person are available at the War Memorial through next Monday, April 22.

Founder's Day Honors British

British Consul - General James T. Hyslop, O.B.E., will be guest speaker when the Daughters of the British Empire in Michigan gather to celebrate Founder's Day at a luncheon on Saturday, April 20, at the Birmingham Country Club, at 12:30 p.m. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Hyslop, honorary president of the D.B.E. in Michigan.

Greeting members and guests from Michigan will be state president Mrs. Russell Skitch, of Grosse Pointe, who will also extend a welcome to special guests Canadian Consul and Trade Commissioner John Lancaster who will bring greetings from Canada, and Mrs. Lancaster; Mrs. John Napier, regent, Windsor and Essex County Chapter, I.O.D.E., and Mrs. Robert Kiborn, I.O.D.E., and Mrs. William S. Chisholm, M.B.E., past national president of the D.B.E.

Group to Hear Royal Guest

The Michigan League for Crippled Children will meet at the Women's City Club on Thursday, April 25, at 12:30 o'clock for lunch.

Mrs. A. M. Livingstone, League member and strong supporter of Camp Grace Bentley, will relate her experiences as guest of the Royal Household at Buckingham Palace for five days. She was invited there to attend the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II.

A native of Scotland, Mrs. Livingstone has been presented to the Court of King George V and Queen Mary, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth as well as Queen Elizabeth II.

The officers for 1973-74 are: Mrs. Ralph L. Alexander, president for her third term; Mrs. Harvey Coniam, first vice-president; Mrs. Albert J. Rettig, second vice-president; Mrs. Carl Mabermas, third vice-president; Mrs. Charles Hensch, recording secretary; Mrs. Philip Drake, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. John B. Heaton, treasurer.

Camp Grace Bentley will open late this year due to the Detroit Schools delayed closing date. As a result, there will be only three two-week sessions instead of the usual four. Camp will open July 3.

is good taste a dangerous thing?

Maybe so . . . because some folks have our line pegged as purely decorative, not down-to-earth. They don't see the fact for the frou-frou. The fact is . . . Cabin Crafts stresses Beauty and the Basics. We have Wild Ones . . . and Safe Ones. Sensationals . . . and Staples like "National Velvet." So why settle for one or the other when you can have both . . . Beauty and the Basics . . . with Cabin Crafts.

South to Host Buchanan Band

The Buchanan High School Symphony Band from Buchanan, Mich., will present a concert at Parcels Middle School Auditorium on Thursday, April 25, at 8 p.m.
The concert is sponsored by the Instrumental Music Department of South High School and is part of an exchange program with Buchanan.
Last year, the South High School Symphony Orchestra and Band performed in Buchanan.
The Buchanan Band is under the direction of Robert C. Peters. Mr. Peters was a student at Buchanan High School when Russ Reed taught there before assuming the directorship of the Instrumental Music Department at South.
The program will include works by Franck, Jager and Giannini, with a light touch added by Burt Bacharach.
Students from Buchanan will arrive at South in time for lunch on Thursday. Then, they will be hosted for dinner and lodging by South Band and Orchestra members.
The concert is free and the public is invited to attend.
It's unnecessary to have a car to run one's neighbor down.

League Repeats Double Feature

Back by popular demand, Pierre and Elfrida Palmieri will repeat their double-feature program "Let's Go to Anchorage, Alaska!" and "Let's Go to Italy!" for the Thursday, April 25, meeting of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League.

The 16mm color motion pictures will be shown at 8 p.m. in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium. The films, photographed by Pierre and narrated by Elfrida, are open to the public. There is no admission charge.

Beautiful views of the parks and flowers of Anchorage as well as shops and native crafts are shown. Many new buildings, constructed after the devastating 1964 earthquake which occurred on Good Friday, and cost the lives of 131 persons, are presented. Still shots of earthquake destruction are included in the movies.

Portage Glacier provides interesting views of blue ice flows and a visit is paid to the home of Alaskan artist Fred Machezan.

The second feature, "Let's Go to Italy!" was photographed during a War Memorial trip to Rome and Florence in 1972. In Rome there are views of tourist highlights, including Trajan's Forum, the Colosseum and the Catacombs Domitilla. Excursions are made to Tivoli and the magnificent fountains of the Villa d'Este.

The group stayed overnight at Sorrento before boarding a ship to the mountainous island of Capri.
Scenes in Florence, along the River Arno, are photographed, and the camera captures views of some of the city's greatest art treasures. Still shots of the 1966 flood are incorporated in the movies.

Photographed are scenes in the famous Florence Straw Market and the Ponte Vecchio, where War Memorial

Club Reports On Activities

After many, many volleyball games, the Tennis Shoe Steamers came out ahead to win the championship in Neighborhood Club action. The other two teams in the semi-finals were Harvey's Girls and the Babbling Brooks from Brooks Bar.

The champs, made up of young housewives, students, and working ladies, are Patti Bower, Doreen DeSmyter, Cindy Doan, Bonnie Leahy, Anne Shock, Chris Vancea, Anne Yates and Paula Yates.
Men's basketball finished up their championship tournament last wee. In the finals it was Wayne State and the DLL Pistons, with the Pistons winning 60-48. High scorers were Mike Hackett and Denny Hodge.

Other "champs" include Patrick C. Bowler, Kurt DeVries, Jim Dion, John Dunwoody, Gil Gugli, Bob Heggerick, Mide Hodge, Juris Kaps, Pete Lyons, Jerry Moffat, Bill Schaefer, Paul Swanson, Pete Winter and coach Dough Maskin.

The women bowlers have started a new term at East Warren Lanes. There were nine ladies when the league started in the fall, and the spring session has 24. The winter session finished up with first place being awarded to Janet Ford, Pat Hancy, Lois Hardy and Dorothy Woodard. Mary Ann Wright bowled the high game of 210.

Purse Snatcher Injures Woman

A City woman, who was the victim of a purse snatching incident in the Mack-Seven shopping center parking lot Tuesday evening, April 2, told Woods police that she sustained a fractured left shoulder from a fall when her purse was grabbed. The woman stated she would be off work for approximately six weeks.

The lady was approached by a white male who grabbed her bag and dragged her to the ground while she tried to maintain control of the purse. The man then escaped with the bag, containing $16 and other sundries, across the lot and headed towards Bournemouth road. This incident happened at the rear of Wrigley's Market, 19231 Mack avenue.

Described as around 6 feet tall and of a slim build, the culprit had dark collar length hair, a full mustache and wore silver or gold metal frame glasses. He also wore a dark navy coat and dark pants.

Police, through their investigation, say they will recover the purse.

Rock Thrown At SEMTA Bus

A SEMTA bus driver received quite a start when someone fired a rock through a window as he was going south on Lakeshore road Saturday evening, April 13.

There were no passengers on the bus at the time of the incident, and the driver, John T. Sabatella, wasn't injured.

While on patrol, Shores Public Safety Officer Bruce Darlington spotted Mr. Sabatella standing next to the bus on northbound Lakeshore at 5:15. He told the officer while traveling southbound someone threw the rock.

When Mr. Sabatella looked back, he saw two individuals but didn't know if they were responsible. He then pulled around at a crossover and stopped.

Officer Darlington questioned three juveniles on the breakwall but the youths said they saw nothing.

The cost of the sliding window is $14.88.

Plan Varied Swim Program

The Department of Community Services has finalized a program of varied aquatic activities for the spring session.

Classes are scheduled in all phases of instructional, recreational and competitive swimming and diving. Special interest classes in Skin Diving and S.C.U.B.A. diving, and Senior Lifesaving also are being offered.

Open and Family Swims will continue as usual, and a Competitive Stroke Clinic has been organized for those swimmers who are eager to prepare for summer races.

All classes are limited in size, and interested persons should call 885-3808 or 885-0271 immediately in order to reserve class space.

Classes will be offered at Brownell, North High, South High, Parcels and Pierce Schools.

Brennan Takes Second in Relay

Ed Brennan's second place finish in the 800-yard run kept North High School from being shutout in the 43rd Mansfield Relays last weekend at Mansfield, O.

Getting his first chance in an individual event this season, Brennan, a senior, responded with an outstanding performance against a top field of half-milers in the country's biggest high school track meet.

His 1:58.4 was just one-tenth of a second behind winner Greg Giltrow of Ann Arbor Pioneer. Brennan has been anchoring several of North's relay teams. He showed that future meetings with Giltrow will produce some interesting competition for State honors.

North's All-State distance man, Tom Hammer, had one of his rare off days as he finished well back in the two-mile run. Pat Davey of Birmingham Brother Rice set a new meet record for the event with his winning time of 9:08.9.

As usual, this meeting of the best track and field men from six states and Canada produced some impressive performances. The pole vault was won by Jim Stokes of Flint Kearsley with a record-setting 15 feet, 4 inches.

Maire Kites To Fly High

A kite flying contest, the "Maire Aire Faire," being sponsored by the school's P.T.A., will be held on Sunday, April 28, between 1 and 4 p.m., at Three Mile Park.

Prizes will be awarded to the boy, girl, mother and father whose kites soar highest. A prize also will go to the creator of the finest homemade kite.

Hot dogs and soft drinks will be served at the park.

RALPH M. BURTON, OF LINCOLN ROAD

By Janet Mueller

First off, and to get it out of the way: there is no family connection between Ralph M. Burton and the Detroit Public Library's Burton Historical Collection. There IS a connection between Mr. Burton and the Detroit Public Library... and Mr. Burton and libraries/books in general.

"You could say I'm sort of a professional Library Friend."

It's a grand sort of profession to be in.

Ralph is a board member of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, and a board member, past-president, of the Friends of the Detroit Public Library.

His late father, also Ralph Burton, was president of the Detroit Library Friends some years back.

Labor of Love

But the present Ralph Burton is not carrying on family tradition in an "I will accept this responsibility despite my inclinations" sort of way.

You couldn't keep him out of libraries, or involvement with libraries, if you tried.

Professionally, (no sort of here), he's an attorney. By a vocation, he's a yachtsman.

He is a vestryman at Saint John's downtown. His presidential duties include the Torch Club of Detroit, the Michigan Patent Lawyers Association and the Federation of Girls Homes.

The Federation, which includes Williams House and Delta Home, built its new emergency shelter for delinquent, neglected and dependent girls referred by Juvenile Court while Ralph was winding up his tenure as president.

Wife from Canada

He is Virginia's husband. She is from Canada. Her parents will live there. Ralph's parents, Detroiters from way back, had, like so many Detroiters from way back, a summer cottage at Leamington. One summer Ralph, a collegian, decided to join the local summer theater.

Traveling up to Point Pelee for a cast picnic he was passed by a girl driving 50 miles per hour on a dirt road.

He had to meet this young lady who went bent on dirt roads.

Turned out that Virginia, like Ralph, was a college student, that Virginia, like Ralph, was in the summer theater.

The Burtons have two sons. Bruce, 18, a freshman at Tufts, is a University Liggett graduate. Ralph is a University Liggett alumnus too, "although it was DUS (Detroit University School) when I went there."

Glenn, 15, is a student at Grosse Pointe South High School.

Water-Oriented

The whole family heads for the water as soon as the ice breaks. Ralph has been sailing on Lake St. Clair since he was about six. Bruce and Glenn started at almost that age.

Bruce is instructor for Junior sailing classes at Bayview Yacht Club now. Glenn was the local Sears champion last year.

They've sailed the Mackinac Races and done a lot of family cruising — "We have an island in Georgian Bay that we've gone up to for a number of years" — but this year may be a bit different. This year, for the first time in 20 years, Ralph Burton has no boat of his own.

The boys still have a racing dinghy, though. Frankly, they don't really need Ralph's marine matter help and advice anymore.

"Virginia and I have an annual golfing outing at Grand Bend with a group of friends year as president, and showing up at more meetings.

Grosse Pointe Friends usually turn out in numbers only for their annual meeting. It's scheduled this year for next month, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, and will feature dinner and a program with a guest speaker as well as reports.

Space Is Problem

It's not that Pointers are less interested in their library than Detroiters are in theirs. For one thing, there's the problem of physical space. The Detroit Friends Auditorium is a substantial facility, seating about 250 people. The Grosse Pointe Friends board meets in an upstairs room at the Central Library.

"It's all very nice," Mr. Burton notes, "but it is a small room."

Many Pointe Library Friends are, like the Burtons, Detroit Library Friends too.

"Between 50 and 75 percent of the Detroit Friends are suburbanites," Ralph explains.

The Detroit Friends are making a strenuous effort to get more Detroit residents to join. At the same time they are trying to increase suburbanites involvement with the Detroit Library.

"We are trying to get people down to the Main Branch Detroit Public Library to see what it offers, what it does, what a tremendous institution it is."

Book Fair Coming Up

The Family Book Fairs have been a highly successful vehicle for getting people down to the Detroit Library. Forty thousand attended last year's Fair.

This year's Fourth Annual Detroit Public Library Family Book Fair, featuring exhibits, displays, programs with local and nationally-known authors, films, prizes and other activities, is scheduled May 10 through 18.

Its theme is The Library—Sourcebook of American Know-How. The pavilion display will feature significant American inventions and innovations, many of them working models, plus an exhibit of books for all ages numbering over 700 volumes.

"We're hoping for a 50,000 attendance this year," Ralph Burton believes it is important that people experience, explore the possibilities of today's libraries first-hand.

Role Has Changed

"The role of libraries is certainly changed," he notes. "A library used to be just a repository for books. Now Grosse Pointe, for example, has a really excellent collection of audio-visuals, tapes and records, an extensive collection of tools..."

"In Detroit, we have the TIP program. Anyone, with any question, (from 'My welfare check hasn't arrived: what should I do?' to 'Where can I find food for my pet snapping turtle?'), can call TIP, and TIP will endeavor to find the answer."

"It's a whole new concept: the library as general information communication center."

Mr. Burton believes it is important for libraries like Grosse Pointe to remain autonomous, to make their own decisions. At the same time, he believes the people of the satellite communities should recognize that in the Detroit Public Library they have the basic regional library for the whole metropolitan area.

Shelves Are Full

"Our problem now, in Grosse Pointe, is that we have no more room for books. If we bring a new book in, an old one must go out.

"At the same time, just 15 minutes away, we have this tremendous resource: the Detroit Public Library. Some of us think we should really implement an exchange. Why not put our old books in the Detroit Public Library? Why not have a system whereby a book not available in Grosse Pointe can be 'ordered' from Detroit through the Grosse Pointe Public Library?"

Eventually, hopefully, the system could be state-wide.

A person in Houghton, say, could request and receive through his own public library a sourcebook from the Lansing Public Library.

It would be a sharing, a cooperation between various autonomous libraries, which could, and should, continue to expand services and facilities within their own communities.

"Grosse Pointe really has a very good small public library," Ralph Burton says. "When you look at the shelves, browse through and pull down selections, you realize just how good this library is."

Current Concerns

Right now, the Grosse Pointe Friends are worrying about where to put an addition to the main library. Expansion, when all available space seems to be taken and a downward (basement) direction is unfeasible, is a problem.

Right now "and probably for the next couple of years," Ralph's personal involvement as a Detroit Public Library Friend is with the Auto History Collection.

"The Detroit Library's principal claim to fame is its Auto History Collection. Not surprisingly, ours is the greatest Auto History Collection in the world."

"We want to endow this collection with sufficient funds so that it will be self-supporting. Hopefully, it would be very like the Burton Historical Collection."

With which Ralph Burton, of Lincoln road, has no family connection.

But it's not surprising that's the first question anybody interviewing Ralph Burton, semi-professional Library Friend, asks.

University Liggett Antique Show Set

Mrs. Edsel B. Ford is Again Serving as Honorary Chairwoman of Three-Day Event; Gala Preview to Precede General Opening

In spite of the fact that her sister-in-law and a favorite cousin are stockbrokers, Mrs. Harold L. Frank, chairwoman of the Ninth Annual University Liggett Antiques Show, maintains, "Antique collecting is one of the best ways to invest money, and it can also be a fantastic learning experience."

The public will have an opportunity to view, learn about and buy antiques when the Show opens Thursday, June 13.

Hours are noon until 10 o'clock Thursday and Friday, noon until 6 o'clock Saturday, June 15.

The Show will be located at University Liggett's Liggett campus in Briarcliff drive. Over 40 dealers from 17 states are gathering to exhibit and sell their wares.

The annual event is sponsored by parents and alumni of University Liggett School for the benefit of the School's Endowment Fund.

It is considered by dealers and collectors to be one of the most prestigious in the country. Its director is nationally-recognized antiques show manager Russell Carroll, of Salisbury, Conn.

Popular Walking Tours will be conducted by exhibitors at 11 o'clock Friday and Saturday mornings.

Detroit Collects, a special exhibit of decorative arts loaned by local collectors, has been arranged by Walter Simmons, Jr., curator at the Henry Ford Museum.

Eighteenth Century English and American furniture, porcelain, Chinese Export, early silver, pewter, oriental and American Indian arts, decorative arts and other choice furnishings and accessories will be on display and for sale.

A gala Preview Party is scheduled for Wednesday evening, June 12, preceding the general opening. Preview Party tickets at $25 per person are available by calling the Antique Show Office.

General admission tickets are $2.50.

Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, of Lakeshore road, is again serving as honorary chairwoman.

Assisting general chairwoman Mrs. Frank are Mrs. Samuel B. Sherer and Mrs. Thomas E. Swantek.

Additional committee members include Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Noble, Mrs. Henry J. Zukowski, Mrs. Joseph C. Primo, Miss Dorothy M. Stevenson, Mrs. Palmer T. Heenan, Mrs. H. Vincent Rossi, Mrs. John R. Bowers, Mrs. Allen Freiwald, Mrs. John S. Borick, Mrs. Raymond Cracchiolo, Mrs. Wil-
