ISRAELI SOLDIERS charged with guns, but failed in a desperate attempt to stop three Palestinian guerrillas from blowing up hostages who included about 85 Israeli teenagers, seized as they slept in sleeping bags inside a school in Ma'alot. The terrorists threatened to blow the group up unless the Israeli government freed 20 terrorists from prison. The Israelis had decided to meet the demands but a spokesman said the terrorists failed to receive a code signal they were awaiting from Paris and Bucharest to free the youngsters.

THE WHITE HOUSE asked that impeachment hearings be opened to the public after committee hearings revealed President Nixon had once discussed economic retaliation against the Washington Post and a Democratic Party attorney. Judiciary Committee Chairman Peter Rodino refused the request adding that the sessions would remain closed for at least another week. The President's threat to cause problems for the Post was edited out of the transcripts, but news of the omission broke after panel members heard, in closed session, the original tape of the meeting.

Saturday, May 18
GENERAL MOTORS Chairman RICHARD GERSTENBERG, citing an improved auto sales outlook said the corporation, at the start of the 1975 model run, would recall 10,000 workers currently on indefinite lay-off at GM plants in Michigan and Kansas. He said additional recalls of laid-off employees are anticipated in other assembly and component plant operations, but that it was too early to determine the exact number of workers and plants that would be affected. GM, hardest hit by the sales slump caused by the energy crisis, had some 80,000, or 19 percent of its 421,000 hourly workers in this country, on indefinite lay off.

SECRETARY OF STATE HENRY KISSINGER has managed to get both Israel and Syria to tentatively agree to an American disengagement proposal. Sources say Israel is apparently willing to give Syria civil administration for the whole of Qunitra, the war-raged capitol in the Golan Heights, instead of only the eastern third of the town.

THE FBI has charged Patricia Hearst and two members of the Symbionese Liberation Army in connection with a shoot-out Thursday night at a sporting goods store in Los Angeles. The gunfight at that store sparked a police manhunt that led officers to a house in South Los Angeles where six members of the SLA died in a gun battle with police. The FBI has described Miss Hearst as armed and dangerous, and are assuming she has joined forces with the SLA, since they received information from a teenager who was kidnapped Thursday night by the group that she raked the sporting goods store with gunfire.

Tuesday, May 21
JUDGE JOHN SIRICA has accused President Nixon of attempting to "abridge the independence" of Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski, and ordered the White House to surrender 64 more Watergate tapes subpoenaed by Jaworski. The White House announced plans to appeal Sirica's order before the May 31 deadline the judge set for the tapes to be delivered to his court. Meanwhile, Jaworski, in a long letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee, charged that Mr. Nixon was making a "farce" of the prosecutor's investigation.

The 4th Marine Aircraft Wing Drum and Bugle Corps under Drum Major John J. Brosnahan will present a concert highlighting Grosse Pointe War Memorial's 25th Anniversary Memorial Day services Monday, May 27, at 11 a.m. Drum Major Brosnahan entered the Marine Corps in 1958 and with the exception of combat training has been with Marine Drum and Bugle Corps ever since. He has been chief instructor of the Field Music School at Paris Isle, served six years with the Marine Drum and Bugle Corps in Washington and is a veteran of Vietnam.

To Add Plaque
The ceremonies will take place on the lakeside lawn and terrace, weather permitting—in Fries Auditorium in case of rain.

All Pointers are urged to attend this service and pay honor to the men and women of Grosse Pointe who have served and sacrificed in national conflicts to maintain our way of life. A plaque honoring service in Vietnam is being added in the Memorial.

Awaiting State's Decisions On Woods Police Issues

By Roger A. Waha
The Grosse Pointe Woods Police Officers Association, (GPWPOA), has charged, before the Labor Relations Division of the Michigan Employment Relations Commission, that the city refused to bargain in good faith on the proposed two-year contract, (fiscal year 1973-75), for public safety department corporals.

Expansion of Jacobson's Massive Re-Construction Project Now Completed

Tremendous Contribution to Community Effort to Create Williamsburg Theme within Village Shopping District

Over one year ago Jacobson's began a massive re-construction program for its Grosse Pointe store. In keeping with community efforts to maintain a Williamsburg theme within the Village, architect Arthur Schmidt of Grosse Pointe, designed plans including authentic colonial reproductions for both the exterior and interior of the building.

Brickwork on the outside edifice is of the same type and color as that used in Williamsburg. Roofing is of hand-split wood shingles and display windows were softened in appearance with copper canopies. Period carriage lamps flank the main entrances and the five circular bullet windows on the second floor are a direct translation of the capitol building in Williamsburg.

Has Formal Gardens
Bricked pathways, formal gardens, pediment ornamentation are all authentic to Colonial times. A balcony, similar to the one at William and Mary College, can be seen on the Notre Dame side of the building. The parking structure was modeled after the carriage house behind the Governor's Palace in Williamsburg.

Within the building, Colonial themes are achieved through extensive use of wood moulding, either painted, stained, or carved. In addition, authentic reproduction wallcoverings, Queen Anne furnishings, brass chandeliers, parquet flooring, and period fabrics and needlepoint complete the motif.

The present store occupies the site of 10 smaller stores, all of which were acquired since 1944 when Jacobson's opened in Grosse Pointe in a store previously occupied by Tuttle & Clark. The completed structure provides 35,000 square feet of additional selling space.

Grew with Community
Jacobson's has grown with the community. Starting as a specialty shop geared toward fashion clothing and accessories for women, it slowly evolved into a comprehensive apparel store for men, women, and children, staffed by employees of long tenure. Clarence Wascher, General Manager, thanks the Grosse Pointe Community for Jacobson's impressive growth, with recognition of the thousands of friendships which the store has been privileged to enjoy. He also gives credit to the far-sightedness of the Grosse Pointe Municipal Government and Planning Board in conjunction with civic leaders for their encouragement and direction.

Honors Mrs. D'Hondt
A highlight of the major remodeling program is the naming of the courtyard gardens "D'Hondt Way." This is a tribute to Mrs. Irma D'Hondt, known by all in the Village as "Mrs. Pete." Mrs. D'Hondt has been employed with the store since its beginning and she still exercises special proprietary status even in her 70's. It is entirely due to Mrs. D'Hondt that Jacobson's has taken four first prizes in the Grosse (Continued on Page 2)

Armed Pair Take $100 From Bar

Two White Males Fire Revolvers After Announcing Hold-Up in G. P. Park

Two white males, both armed with revolvers, held up the Lunar Lounge, 15108 Mack avenue, at about 1:46 a.m. on Friday, May 17, escaping with a small sum in currency. One bandit fired two shots into the ceiling and the other, one shot, with the bullet embedding itself in a window frame, according to information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan.

The bandits, said to be between 18 and 22 years old, entered the bar and ordered drinks. There was only one barmaid working, and a female customer was sitting at the counter when the pair entered.

Demands Money
While the barmaid was preparing the drinks, one gunman ran around the counter and grabbed her around the neck with his arm, announcing a hold-up and demanding all the money from the cash register. The second thug approached the customer and fired two shots at the ceiling. Neither of the women was harmed, it was said.

The first hold-up man, with his arm still around the barmaid's neck, dragged her toward the kitchen, and demanded that she produce the money allegedly hidden there. He held his pistol close to the employee's head and fired off one shot. The bullet became embedded in the kitchen window frame.

Turns Over Cash
The lieutenant said that the barmaid handed the bandit who had threatened her, slightly more than $100. He grabbed the money and with his companion escaped north across Mack and then east in an alley at Lakepointe and disappeared.

One of the robbers was described as being about five feet eight inches tall, about 120 to 130 pounds, medium build, light complexion, thin build and having Afro-styled hair and was clean shaven. His companion was said to be of the same height and weight. The hold up victims could not give a description of the clothing of the first man, but said the other was wearing a pair of brown plaid trousers and a brown coat. Immediately after the bandits left, the barmaid phoned police. A search of the area by officers was unsuccessful.

Change Station Hearing Date
The public hearing date on the disposition of the Marter Road Pumping Station has been changed from Monday, June 3, to Monday, June 17, because the hearing for a proposed bond election on the Lake Front Park Improvement Program was set for the 3rd.

Memorial Center Drive Over Top; Hits $113,115.00

Contributions Received from 6,019 Families to Surpass Last Year's Total; Board Expresses Deep Appreciation

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center's 25th Anniversary Campaign for support and membership is a success and the Memorial's operation for the ensuing year will be guaranteed. As of May 20 a total of $113,115.00 had been received from 6,019 families as compared to $112,948 from 5,961 families in 1973.

An announcement of gratitude and thanks to the citizens of Grosse Pointe will be made by Edward J. Hickey, III, president of the board of directors at the Memorial Day Service on the Center's lakeside lawn Monday, May 27, at 11 a.m.

More on Way
Frederick C. Ford, Jr., campaign chairman, expects that more monies and memberships are on their way in and will continue through the calendar year as many families for tax purposes prefer to donate their memberships later in the year.

To each and every supporter, the Center's volunteer board of directors wishes to express its appreciation.

Fire Damages Garage Wall

A fire that originated in a rubbish can at the rear of Carl Fritz's property, 1240 Lakepointe, destroyed the rear wall of his garage before Park firefighters were able to put it out, it was disclosed by Fire Chief Phillip Costa.

The chief said that the fire, which occurred on Monday, May 20, was possibly started by children lighting matches and tossing them in the rubbish barrel. Burnt matches were found littered around the container, the chief said.

Chief Costa said that the alarm was called in at about 8:58 a.m., and when the firefighters arrived, the blaze had already eaten a large hole in the rear wall, and there was heavy, black smoke inside the building. The flames were doused within three minutes, it was said.

No one was at home in the Fritz residence when the fire started. The person who saw the burning garage and phoned in the alarm was retired Park Fire Sgt. Paul Wernet.

Chief Costa said that the cost of repairing the damage is not known and will have to be determined by insurance adjusters.

Problems Delay Sheet Piling Installation Work

Work on the installation of approximately 2,400 feet of sheet piling along the banks of the Milk River Drainage Canal, which was scheduled to begin sometime last month, has been delayed because of material and scheduling problems.

So, The Woods Council unanimously recommended to the Milk River Drainage Authority that the contract for the sheet piling be extended with a possible starting date of October 1974, (although such work could start even later than this). The motion was conditional that there be no increase in cost to the city.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, May 13.

New Budget Given Okay By Council

Levy Increased by 1.40 Mills; Total Amount Needed to Run City Set at $2,750,562

The Farms has been hit with the rising cost of government, as reflected on Monday, May 20, when the city council approved the 1974-75 fiscal budget of $2,750,562. It was very reluctantly announced that to meet the budget, the tax levy must be raised from 15.85 mills, ($15.85 per $1,000 State equalized valuation of real property), to 17.25 mills, a hike of 1.40 mills.

The solons also approved a separate 1974-75 fiscal budget for the Water Department, the revenues from which make it self-supporting. The Water Fund budget for the coming year, which begins on July 1, is an expected $350,120.

According to information released by City Comptroller Carroll Lock and Wendell Baker, superintendent of the Water Department, total expenses for the coming year could be $352,890, which means that the facility could be operating under a deficit of $2,770.

Depends on Weather
It was pointed out that the Water Department could be operating in the black, depending on the weather this summer.

The new city budget is $210,948 higher than the current 1973-74 fiscal budget. Assessments on real and personal property show only an increase of $197,450 in 1974. The 1973 assessment was $104,709,020, as compared to the $104,906,470 for 1974, Lock said.

He attributed the higher cost of government this year is due, among other things, to the high price of gasoline to operate city vehicles; higher cost of services; the raise in price for disposing of materials burned at the Grosse Pointes-Clinton Refuse Incinerator, and the higher rates for Blue Cross-Blue Shield for city employees.

Breakdown of Budget

Burglar Robs Elderly Lady

An 69-year-old woman was awakened from sleep in her second floor bedroom by someone who made considerable noise while trying to open a locked hallway door and the locked door of her bedroom. The intruder burst into the room and flashed a light in the woman's face, and escaped with about $2,000 in currency, which he found after ransacking the dresser drawers.

Lt. Gordon Duncan, who released the information, said that the burglary took place about 2 a.m. on Tuesday, May 14. The woman, whose name and address are being withheld because of her age and circumstances involved, said the burglar did not harm her.

The thief entered the house, possibly through an unlocked door, ripped out all the phones in the house and then went upstairs. After bursting into the bedroom and flashing the light in the woman's face he then began searching through the drawers and found the money, all in currency.

The lieutenant said because of fright and confusion, that the woman did not call police for at least five hours after the crime was committed. Police received the call about 7:35 a.m. from the home of the victim's neighbor.

The burglar was described as being black, in his 20's, about 5'8" - 5'9" tall, of medium build and weight, and having natural hair. No description of his clothing was available.

New Superintendent

E. E. Lewis Award in School Administration from Ohio State University, where he took his doctorate in 1971. Dr. Adams holds BA and MA degrees from Morehead State University in Kentucky.

His doctoral dissertation title is "A Study of the Status, Scope and Nature of Educational Evaluation in Michigan's Public K-12 School Districts."

Dr. Adams has published articles in the area of negotiations and staff development and evaluation.

He has been active in a number of civic and professional organizations. These include Phi Delta Kappa, chapters of the Kiwanis Club, and the United Fund. He has also been a trustee of the Montclair Public Library.

Dr. and Mrs. Adams are the parents of two daughters, Belita, a fourth grader, and Mary Elizabeth, a second grader. Mrs. Adams is a former teacher.

Rodney S. Dayan, president of the Montclair Board of Education, received Dr. Adams' resignation "with sincerest regret." He said that he respects Dr. Adams' "skill in dealing with sensitive issues" and his "stamina in unselfishly serving the citizens of Montclair."

In his new post, Dr. Adams will be paid $35,000 a year and receive all the fringe benefits of an administrator in the Grosse Pointe School System. Also thrown in with the superintendent's three-year contract is the house next to Grosse Pointe South, on Grosse Pointe boulevard, and a car.

The community will have the opportunity to meet the new superintendent at the first regular School Board meeting after July 1, 1974. Dr. Adams has contract obligations to serve the Montclair community until June 30, 1974.

"Since Dr. Adams will join us in the middle of summer, we expect most of the residents to meet him in the fall when he will be the speaker at many school functions," Mr. Warner commented.

William Huettnerman, a School Board trustee, stressed the exhaustive search carried on to select a new superintendent. He said 125 candidates submitted their qualifications, and that placement directors at Michigan universities, aiding in the search for a new superintendent, narrowed down the field to 12 preferred candidates.

Ten candidates were brought to Grosse Pointe where they were interviewed by all the School Board members for an average of two hours.

"This School Board spent about 30 hours interviewing prospective superintendents," Mr. Huettnerman said. "And every time a candidate came to town, he was met by a School Board trustee and later interviewed by every member of the School Board."

"The final step was our traveling to the school districts where Dr. Adams worked, Saginaw and Montclair, and reviewing his record with his associates. We are satisfied that we have an excellent superintendent."

Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society competition for retail institutions. A lover of flowers, Mrs. D. Houdt has been seen, summer after summer, tending the flowers, shrubs and lawns at Jacobson's. It is fitting that the formal gardens take her name, for she has made those grounds lovely for so many years.

For those who have been confused by the constant pattern of changing departments, they are now permanently established and completed. The Eastern Wing of the first floor includes women's shoes, stationery, and fine jewelry. In the central area of the main floor one finds accessories such as handbags, hosiery, cosmetics, costume jewelry, neckwear, and the intimate apparel department, as well as the new elegant "St. Clair Room" restaurant.

The new restaurant can accommodate 180 diners for a full service meal. It also has French doors which open onto the gardens and afford outside dining.

The Western Wing of the main floor incorporates the total Men's, Boys', and Mr. "J" apparel section. The lower level locates a contemporary Miss "J" Shop. The second floor can be reached by a glass elevator, the only one of its kind in Michigan. The upper floor includes the beauty salon, designer salon, coat department, as well as dresses, bridal, the fur salon, and a luxuriously large sportswear area. Children's clothing, infants, toys, and teens, remain in the Eastern area of the second floor.

Get Go-Ahead For Convention

The Woods Council unanimously authorized any of its members, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher and City Attorney George Catlin to attend the 76th Annual convention of the Michigan Municipal League, (MML), September 11-13 at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel, with all necessary expenses being reimbursed.

Superintendent Baker said that the No. 5 storm water pump, measuring 36 inches, is badly in need for repairs, and his Department has included $10,000 in its coming year budget.

On recommendation of City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., the repair contract will be submitted for competitive bids. Baker stated that the 33,750 gallons per minute (gpm) storm water pump, located at the Chalfonte Pumping Station, is in need of repairs. It is apparent that the babbitt and sleeve bearings are in such a condition that it was decided that the pump should not be used until the repairs have been completed.

"It will cost about $5,000 to have the rotating element, (impeller and cage), removed, delivered for repairs within a radius of 15 miles—the contracting firm is within that distance — and then reinstalled in the pump casing," Baker said. "For the repairs to the bearings, it will be on a time and material basis because we have no way of knowing the extent of the damage until the unit is completely dismantled."

In a letter to the city manager, Baker said the pump is a significant part of the storm water pumping system, and that it is his recommendation that the city proceed with the repairs as soon as possible.

At Monday night's meeting, the council gave the matter priority status, and authorized that funds for the repairs be taken from the current fiscal city Capital Improvement Funds, if it is necessary, with the cost to be replaced from the 1974-75 Water Fund Budget.

Delay Work

As for a potential flooding threat during this period, Mr. Pate felt with the recent expenditures for diking of the Milk River it would appear that water can be retained within its confines for another six to nine months. So, the council thus geared the work to begin in October.

After his conversation with Mr. Pate, James Mazurek, president of Shepard, cited the problem of mill delivery for all the material involved as being in the first quarter of 1975, and then considered a number of solutions.

One solution was to grant a time extension as called for in the contract, purchase good used material within 30 to 60 days at no price charge on a "if available" basis and, regarding warehouse a lot of materials, the cost, Mr. Mazurek felt, would increase by $21,715 because of material loss by using more square footage.

Bids for this work, which includes installing an estimated 1,200 feet on each side of the canal, were taken in March with the contract being awarded to Shepard in the amount of $293,000 including engineering and contingency costs.

This installation of sheet piling was requested via resolutions from The Woods and Harper Woods Council's.

They urged the Milk River Drainage Commission to take action towards preventing flooding conditions to both public and private property stemming from the river.

The cost of the project will be paid from the drain funds of the Milk River Drain.

Brothers Hurt in Park Accident; One Critically

Two brothers were injured, one critically, when their car was struck by another on Saturday, May 18, at Devonshire and Kercheval. The impact forced the brothers' vehicle to crash broadside against an Edison pole on Devonshire, caving in the driver's side.

Lt. Gordon Duncan said that on hitting the pole, both brothers were tossed out of the car, with the most seriously injured one, Michael Corcoran, 23, tossed 40 feet into the air and landing on his head. He was a passenger in the automobile, driven by Timothy, 21. Both reside at 3940 Yorkshire, Detroit. The younger brother suffered injuries.

Michael and Timothy were rushed to Bon Secours Hospital by Park firemen in the emergency ambulance. Doctors at the hospital said

Michael's condition was serious. He suffered a fractured skull and facial lacerations. On Sunday, May 19, he was placed on the critical list and transferred to the Intensive Care Unit.

The driver of the other car, which was reported stolen in the Park, appeared to be uninjured, according to witnesses, and he fled the accident scene on foot. He is still being sought by Park authorities.

Lt. Duncan said that the Corcorans were crossing Kercheval at the Devonshire intersection, when the other motorist, traveling east on Kercheval, hit the right rear side of the brothers' vehicle. Timothy lost control, the car spun around and slammed broadside into the Edison pole on the south-east corner of Devonshire.

The driver of the hit-and-run car, jumped out and ran toward Three Mile drive, then north on Three Mile toward Vernor and disappeared.

The lieutenant said that a check of the license number of the hit-run auto, revealed that it had been stolen from the 1100 block of Maryland where it had been parked by the legal owner, whose name was not disclosed. The owner, an elderly man, told police that he was not aware the car was missing until investigating officer's questioned him.

It was stated that Timothy Corcoran was issued a violation ticket for failing to yield right of way to oncoming traffic. His court hearing is pending.

Cottage Starts Stroke Club

Their families also are invited to attend Club meetings which are held in the Occupational Therapy Department at Cottage every other Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, May 30.

With plans formulated by Mrs. Elaine Reed, M.S.W., director of Social Service, series of educational meetings was conducted by some members of the hospital's rehabilitation service areas and included discussion of various stroke-related topics.

A meeting also was held with personnel from community organizations to discuss the valuable opportunities their programs provide in areas of education, crafts and special skills.

Among those attending that meeting were: Carl Schoessel of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, John Bruce of the Neighborhood Club, Mrs. Colleen Smith of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, Mrs. David Richardson of the War Memorial, Ricardo Garcia of the Michigan Heart Association, the Rev. TRUTH MADE HER FREE.

An understanding of God, Truth, freed an Indiana woman from an infected lung, arthritis, and confinement to a wheelchair. It changed her whole life. But this is not why she came to Christian Science in the first place. It was her hunger for an understanding of God. If you are searching for the joyous freedom that comes from knowing God's presence in your life, come to our service this Wednesday evening. You will hear people like yourself testify to the power of God, Truth, in their own experience.

FLEC Offers Volunteer Jobs

A summer program for student volunteers is being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Family Life Education Council, (FLEC), to offer students opportunities to gain work experience and try career exploration, while being of service to other people.

Recent graduates as well as students with spare time will find rewarding opportunities to assume responsibility in fields of particular interest, FLEC stated.

There are a wide variety of areas in the community where volunteer help is needed and welcomed. Among activities volunteers can choose from are aides for special education programs, play camps, libraries, hospitals, nursing homes and recreational programs, as well as the FLEC Center Point youth counseling center and the FLEC office.

Mrs. Perry TeWalt, volunteer coordinator, announced that recruiting will take place in the next few weeks. Applications also can be obtained from school counseling centers, all library branches, the Neighborhood Club, and the FLEC office, 20943 Mack avenue.

Plans also are being completed for a special introductory volunteer program for middle school students. A "Volunteer Service Corps" program will include visiting several community public service operations, a general course in home nursing, preliminary education for hospital work and other activities.

Decision Being Awaited on Woods Police Issues

Ministrator Chester E. Petersen took an offer to the association, which accepted it, and then "he, (Mr. Petersen), turned around and instead of recommending acceptance by the council, he recommended rejection."

A transcribing error caused the problem regarding ratification of the corporals' pact.

When the ratification of the agreement came before the council on Monday, April 15, Mr. Petersen mentioned the error, which he said was his alone, affecting the corporals' proposed pay during the second year. So, the solons unanimously decided to table action on ratification to the Monday, May 6, meeting.

At that session, the council unanimously concurred in Mr. Petersen's recommendation that ratification of the proposed contract provisions be denied and that the matter be referred back to the city administrator for further negotiations at the bargaining table.

Mr. Peterson told the NEWS last week that early in April both sides came to a tentative verbal agreement at a bargaining session but he made an error in writing it up. He stated the corporals should receive $15,796, plus $200 shift differential, making a total of $15,996. However, as written, the figure was $15,996, plus $200 shift differential, totaling $16,196.

After discovering the error, Mr. Peterson immediately notified the association and requested that negotiations be resumed so the contract could be finalized per the verbal agreement.

But GPWPOA President Patrick Fagan said everyone signed the package as an agreement. He said the city presented the proposal, it was agreed upon and there was no further need for negotiations. Officer Fagan also stated he knew nothing of the error until informed and ratified the proposal on the figures presented.

On another point, Mr. Petersen said last week that the city is bargaining with the association which represents the corporals with the past practice being that the association had to ratify the contract. But Officer Fagan disagreed. He said the entire association votes on a public safety officer's contract including the corporals but only the trio of corporals ratify their contract. (The corporals are part of the GPWPOA's bargaining unit).

Now, as part of the overall picture regarding the officer's resignation, Mr. Kovaleski contended the officer wished to run for an association office and was discouraged, that he advocated arbitration and was pushing rejection of the city's last offer, (on the public safety officers' fiscal year 1973-75 contract, which was finalized through binding arbitration), and that he attempted to file a grievance but was a probationary employee and, therefore, on "shaky ground." Mr. Kovaleski had earlier told the NEWS he was asking for the man to be reinstated.

According to the public safety officers' 1972-73 fiscal year contract, and reported previously by Public Safety Director Henry Marchand, the pact says an employee may be laid off or terminated at the discretion of the public safety director without recourse to grievance procedures during the probation period.

At a meeting of command officers on January 10, the staff unanimously voted not to confirm this officer as they felt "he wasn't up to standards," that he wouldn't make it and the director, who made the final decision to terminate his employment, agreed with them. Hence, his resignation was requested.

Finally, Mr. Petersen was asked if he had any comments on the charges regarding the corporals' contract and on the resignation of the officer.

"We, (the city), presented testimony before the examiner at the hearings," he said. "We are confident that the examiner will take into consideration all the aspects we have presented." Mr. Petersen added he was sure all the hearings would be fair and that he'll await the final decision. "All our statements are entered in the record at the hearings," he concluded.

Woods City Attorney George Catlin felt a decision would be reached in about two weeks after all the hearings are completed but Mr. Kovaleski believed it would take longer than this.

Jerry Gerich To Be Honored

A group of Grosse Pointe South High School parents, the Committee to Honor the Retirement of Jerry Gerich, will host a reception for Mr. Gerich at the War Memorial on Sunday, June 2, from 3-5 p.m.

Mr. Gerich, who is retiring at the end of this school year, has been principal of Grosse Pointe South and the former Grosse Pointe High School for the past 16 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Fox, of Audubon road, are acting as co-chairmen of the Committee.

Former students, parents of students, friends and associates of Mr. Gerich are invited to attend the reception where refreshments will be served.

The Committee has established a Jerry Gerich fund which will be administered by the Grosse Pointe Foundation for Academic Enrichment. It will be used to enrich and supplement the academic program at Grosse Pointe South. Anyone wishing to make a donation to the fund, which is tax deductible, may contact the Committee at 885-3799 for further information.

Mrs. Fox said that the response from the community of South parents and friends has been excellent so far. The Committee hopes that the fund will become large enough to substantially augment the educational program at the school as well as provide a lasting tribute to Mr. Gerich's efforts and accomplishments over the past 16 years.

Council Action Pleases Young Lane Residents

Six Young Lane residents, concerned over the deterioration of sidewalks and curbing in their street, wrote The Woods Council requesting repairs and a survey of the condition of the curbs and sidewalks "in anticipation of an acknowledgment of when the necessary refurbishing is scheduled."

Three citizens appeared before the council at the regular meeting Monday, May 6, and were told such repairs were not scheduled before 1976 under the city's current street maintenance rotation plan. Under this program, the city is divided into five service districts with each area, over a five-year period, receiving asphalt, concrete, sewer, tree and sign work.

The question was "Should an exception be made to such a rotation plan?" Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos feared, for instance, citizens in other areas could ask for the same consideration out of "our normal procedure." At the same time, the solons felt an inspection of the Young Lane area would be necessary. So action on this matter was tabled to the Monday, May 13, session.

On the 13th, after further discussion, the council unanimously authorized City Administrator Chester E. Petersen to proceed with repairs to only the inner circle of Young Lane at an approximate cost of $1,000, with the contractor beginning work when he can.

Councilman Ronald R. Kegen, who inspected the area, said there was no curb at all on half of the inner circle, and that various sections of curbing into the lane also were broken down.

On this subject, Mr. Petersen reported he checked the area and felt the city had other areas which had more deterioration of curbing and sidewalks than Young Lane, and he explained the rotation plan to citizens in the audience.

He pointed out the city tries to budget necessary funds to take care of specific repairs within a district and that deviations from the rotation plan could create problems. Such questions as "Where do you stop in adding a program?" and "Do you pull out one scheduled program and substitute another?" would have to be answered.

But Mr. Petersen felt the circle only could be repaired without any hardship to other programs regarding cost, scheduling, et al.

Thus, it was either deny it all, approve it all, (the inner circle plus other sidewalk and curb work), or just the inner circle. The council, considering the condition of the circle, decided on the latter much to the appreciation of Norman G. Williams and other Young Lane residents.

Woods Stands Opposing Change in Judicial Code

The Woods Council has taken a strong stand via a resolution against a proposed change in Canon 5 of the Michigan Code of Judicial Conduct which would provide, in part, that a municipal judge should not practice law for compensation. The measure, proposed by Councilman George S. Freeman, was unanimously passed by the solons at the regular meeting Monday, May 13.

On Friday, May 3, the State Supreme Court adopted an order entitled, "In the Matter of the Proposed Adoption of the Michigan Code of Judicial Conduct." The court also has solicited comments with reference to the code's adoption.

In response, the resolution states the council desires to advise the court that "they are unilaterally opposed to such proposal for the reason that such a change would severely hamper and restrict the availability of competent attorneys to serve in the capacity of municipal judge within the communities of this State that have retained their municipal court system," (such as The Woods). The solons also made it clear they opposed to such an amendment to the code "for the reason that such action appears to infringe upon the principal of 'home rule' by local communities by the judicial branch of government of this State."

Two other points of opposition to the contemplated amendment are stressed by the solons. One is that any such change, they feel, will force resignation from the office of municipal judge "of many competent and judicially-minded attorneys who presently serve in such a capacity within this State."

Finally, the council feels that this proposal "appears to be a legislative function under the Constitution of the State of Michigan."

At the meeting, City Attorney George Catlin said if this change is adopted, with reference to municipal courts, those attorneys acting as judges in such courts would have to resign their positions.

Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis also spoke to the council. He said, "If the canon is adopted, I'd be required to resign my position in Grosse Pointe Woods, and added "I could find no way to support my family on $3,000 a year," (the municipal judges' salary in The Woods).

Copies of the resolution will be forwarded to the Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court, Michigan Supreme Court Director of Legal Services, Governor William G. Milliken, Senator James D. Gray, Senator John C. Hertel, Representative William G. Bryant, Jr., and the Michigan Municipal League.

Others include all communities within the State of Michigan that maintain municipal courts, the Michigan Association of Municipal Judges, the Senate Judiciary Committee of Michigan and the House Judiciary Committee of Michigan.

Plan Outdoor Concert at SH

Over 280 high school band members will join forces for the annual Outdoor Band Concert and Ice Cream Social on Thursday, May 30, at 8:30 p.m. The combined bands of South and North High Schools will present their concert on the front lawn of South High.

The concert is open to the public without admission charge and strawberry sundaes and coffee will be available at nominal costs during and after the intermission.

The South Symphony Band will open the program with Sousa's "Stars and Stripes" and Tchaikovsky's Overture "1812," complete with cannons.

The North Symphony Band will then perform music from the show "Promises, Promises," and a march entitled "March Grandioso." The bands will combine their talents to perform other marches and the music of George Gershwin.

An exhibit of works done by South Art students will be on display at this time in South's Clemons Hall.

The bands will perform under the direction of Nathan Judson, director of bands at North, and Russell Reed, director of bands at South.

Alumni of the bands of both schools are invited to perform with the combined groups.

ULS Enjoys Ecology Play

Three professional New York players from the children's Youth Theatre of the Detroit Art Institute presented "Our World," a revue which features dramatic sketches, songs, music and dance to dramatize ecological problems, at University Liggett School on Friday, May 17. Their audience was composed of ULS students in the first through sixth grades.

The production features five original musical numbers performed by Tom Madigan, Carol Watkins and Sue Simmons. An informal discussion period between the actors and the audience followed the performance.

The modern day version of happiness appears to be doing things we can't afford.

Club Cyclists Win Big Award

Five cyclists, all members of the Neighborhood Club, won a special team award for their performance in the 24-hour Belle Isle Bike Marathon Saturday-Sunday, May 18-19.

The award, a two-inch gold medal with a blue ribbon, was for the best all-around team entered in the action, (of over 30 teams). It included appearance, riding ability and miles covered per rider, (260 miles).

Paul Desnet, 25, the team's "right hand man" and one of the riders, stressed the "total effort of everybody."

Mr. Desnet said the young people train every Wednesday night at Windmill Pointe Park and ride some 50-100 miles on Saturdays. "I'm real proud of the kids. It was a tremendous accomplishment," he said.

The young people include Chris Bickley, Martha Kennedy, Richard Youngblood and Alan Mabarak, all 18-years old, noted Mr. Desnet, who added each member also acted as a road marshal during the marathon.

As for the award, it will be proudly displayed at the Club.

GP City Police Nab Shoplifter

Grosse Pointe City police arrested three Detroit youths, John Moran, 17, Billy James Smith, Jr., 22, and Edward Fenderson, Jr., also 22, for possession of stolen property on Thursday, May 16.

The trio appeared in court the following day, Friday, May 17, before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis, who found Moran guilty as charged and the other two innocent.

Moran, Smith and Fenderson were picked up at about 12:10 p.m. after officers Virgil Beaupre and John Drummond and Corporal George Brackx responded to a request that officers be sent to Damman's hardware store in the Village.

Officer Beaupre arrived in the area first and was told by Charles Phlypo, a Damman's employee, that two men he suspected of shoplifting from Damman's earlier in the week had left the store, heading for Kresge's.

Another Damman's employee, Henry Feys, had followed the pair down the street.

Mr. Feys pointed out Moran and Smith to Officer Beaupre as the pair exited the rear door of Kresge's. Moran, at this time, with a plastic bag in his hand. The officer watched as both men crossed St. Clair to the parking lot across from Kresge's where Moran entered a 1970 Ford LTD, throwing the bag into the rear seat of the car. Smith continued walking past the car.

Officer Drummond and Corporal Brackx had arrived in another scout car by this time and the three men were then placed under arrest.

In the plastic bag Moran was seen carrying, police found six pairs of ladies' size 18 slacks in a variety of colors. Total value of the goods, identified as Kresge's merchandise, was $46.30. The automobile was registered in Fenderson's name.

In court, Moran maintained the slacks had been purchased at another Kresge's store and that he was returning them for his mother. But Kresge manager Lawrence Carlson testified that one pair of slacks had been marked down and that the tag on that pair could only have come from the store in the Village.

He added that later on Thursday afternoon, after the incident had taken place, employees found six empty hangers in the section of the store where ladies' slacks are displayed.

Judge Denis ordered Moran to pay a $100 fine or to serve 10 days in the Detroit House of Correction.

Living in constant fear of being found out is what makes easy money-getters uneasy.

Jacobson's New Gardens Named for Special Lady

Mrs. Irma D'Hondt, known by all as "Mrs. Pete," is special to Grosse Pointe and especially important to everyone at Jacobson's in the Village. She is the white haired, refined lady who is forever tending the flowers, shrubs and lawn at Jacobson's.

It is entirely due to Mrs. D'Hondt that Jacobson's has taken four first prizes in the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society competition for retail institutions. Flowers were one of her first loves and she is one of those rare people who can grow a rose from a single cut. Her own garden includes many varieties of rose bushes she started this way, as well as a favorite summer vegetable patch.

Mrs. D'Hondt was born in Belgium in 1901 and still has vivid memories of World War I and German air raids. Her family housed both German and American soldiers. Smuggling home fresh eggs and other food to her family are all part of her war time memories. As a teenager Mrs. D'Hondt would help her aunt care for their children some of whom had as many as eighteen.

Sacrifice was a way of life while Mrs. D'Hondt was growing up. She worked in a woolen mill and everything she earned went to her family. According to her daughter, Mrs. D'Hondt has always been an angel and most people who know this woman would agree this is no exaggeration. She is a woman at peace with herself and her world. She functions lovingly and with respect for all things living.

Irma married Julius D'Hondt, who had gone back to his country to seek a bride. Julius had first come to Grosse Pointe in 1881. His family farmed one of the strips of land that went from the lake back to Harper. Each farmer had some lake-front property so they could water their animals.

The D'Hondt farmhouse stood on what is now property of Lochmoor Country Club until recent years when it burned. Mrs. D'Hondt recalls stories her husband recounted of hauling stones and working on the construction of St. Paul's Church in Grosse Pointe. With the death of his parents Mr. D'Hondt worked as a street car conductor and later joined Jacobson's Grosse Pointe as its first employee on September 18, 1944.

Thereafter Mrs. D'Hondt's life and Jacobson's became inextricably combined. Often Irma would work hand and hand with her husband on some special project at work. It was in September 1945 that Mrs. D'Hondt became a formally salaried employee. Now in her seventies, Irma remains with the store, still exercising her special proprietary sense. Although requested to lighten her workload and "stop climbing ladders," Mrs. "Pete" thinks nothing of climbing 15 feet to remove a cobweb or some bit of dust which has caught her eye. She's already planning summer flowers for Jacobson's. It is with great love and respect that Jacobson's named their formal gardens "D'Hondt Way" on May 17. In a surprise ceremony a Bronze plaque was unveiled and tribute made to the unsuspecting Mrs. "Pete."

Mrs. D'Hondt remains a Grosse Pointer living in St. Clair. The house she and her husband lived in was bought by Jacobson's and is now included in their block long property site.

Sergeant Foster Mauck Retiring from City Force

By Nancy Kramer
Of course they'll all be sorry to see him go. The City Police and Fire Departments will give a party for Police Sergeant Foster Mauck on Friday, June 7, but he officially retires next Friday, May 31.

"He's a good boy. He's done a good job and I hate to see him leave," says City Police Chief Andrew Teetser. Sergeant Mauck has been with the force 31 years. The invitation to join was extended by Thomas Trombly, then Chief of Police, and fairly well acquainted with Foster Mauck through the Sergeant's former job.

Montana-born, farm-bred Foster Mauck followed a somewhat convoluted path to wind up a City policeman. As a high-school student accustomed to rising early to milk and feed 12 to 15 cows, he graduated to work full time on a neighboring farm for $15 a month plus room and board. Farm life was tough, he remembers.

"It was three miles from school to home and I was on my school basketball team. When there was an 'away' game, I'd have to walk home, do my chores and then back. Saturdays I'd spend grinding grain and about this time of the year, I'd be behind five head of horse, on a plow, turning the soil for corn planting."

When a relative invited him to come to the Detroit area to live, the Sergeant thought it might be a good idea. Looking for a job during the Depression was no picnic, he found one, working a milk route in Hazel Park. It was his subsequent job however that made his a familiar face to Chief Trombly.

He switched from a milk route to a local bakery route where Pointers soon became accustomed to seeing him gripping the reins behind a notoriously frisky horse.

The bakery was fed up with the horse and pegged him as too spirited to haul a wagon loaded with perishable goods. "The company was losing money," he explains. But Sergeant Mauck wanted the horse, vowed to get him, and did. "I trained him," he maintains. "That horse got away from me three times." But when he did, the Sergeant always got the upper hand, letting the horse race, then slamming on the brakes to bring things to a screeching halt. "I knew from the farm that you never let a horse lick you," he laughs. "By the time I was through, I could do anything with that animal."

Later, Sergeant Mauck

held up what? "I said to John, 'What the hell is a hold-up?' Well, John explained real quick what a hold-up was." In spite of their late start the officers did manage to nab the robbers, but "I kind of blew that too," Sergeant Mauck admits. "Sergeant Rabaut went into the house, Sergeant Mauck waited outside in the car." It occurred to him that the bandits could still be in the area, unable to escape due to the position in which the scout car had been parked.

other resident who drops by seeking clarification on the matter. For the future, Sergeant Mauck says he has nothing really definite planned. He and his wife, Sarah, also farm born, will move from The City to a home they own just outside of Grosse Pointe. "I'll probably fool around most of the summer," he explains, and then I have some work I want to do on my place in Grosse Pointe." The Maucks have three children: Karen, who is Mrs. Bill Shepard, Jim, who's a fireman in The Farms, and Sharon, the wife of Park engineer Martin Hegger.

CITY SERGEANT FOSTER MAUCK

went back to yet another milk route and remained at that job for "five, maybe six years." Finally, he took a job "doing military work" at the Hudson Arsenal. He didn't last long. "After two weeks, I couldn't stand it. I hated being inside. I'd been outside all my life."

Thankfully, the offer from Chief Trombly came soon after and Foster Mauck joined the City Police on October 28, 1942.

He can testify that there have been a few departmental changes since then. "We had a police radio then, but we were independent. The Shores, Farms, Park and Woods were all together on the same band. And Harper Woods didn't even have a police department; just a sheriff and a few auxiliary men. Chief Trombly was the one who helped Harper Woods organize their department."

City police used to walk a beat on Kercheval avenue. "There were two shifts; one ran from 12 to 3 a.m., and the other from 3 to 6 a.m. There were police boxes on each corner and every half-hour you had to call in the station from a different box. You had to keep moving."

"Then, when you got in at 6, you had to mop the station floor. 'I was a patrolman with Chief Teetser and we mopped floors together.' Sergeant Mauck remembers making at least one initial blunder. "I was out on patrol with John Rabaut and we got word from Ed Trombly that there was a hold-up in progress in Roosevelt place. There were eight people in the house and one of the guests had been struck on the head with the butt of a 20 gauge shotgun."

"I was at the wheel and when I didn't start heading in the direction of Roosevelt place, John looked at me and said, 'Well, what are you waiting for? Let's get going.' I just sat there trying to figure out what Trombly meant. I just couldn't figure out what a hold-up was."

He did spot someone, apprehended him and took him up to the front door of the home, hoping someone could identify him as one of the perpetrators.

Sergeant Mauck hadn't counted on all the guests rushing forward at the suspect the minute Officer Rabaut opened the door, but that's what happened. "I was sure lucky he didn't get away," he recalls.

The officers caught another suspect at the corner of Washington road and Jefferson avenue. A third man was picked up by St. Clair Shores police the following day, and Officers Rabaut and Mauck were cited for their actions. Sergeant Mauck has received other commendations. The Department used to conduct monthly inspections and interviews of all the men and annually, they would select an Outstanding Officer of the Year and award him a complete uniform. "I took it every year," says Sergeant Mauck. "except for one year I tied with another officer."

Citations and awards aside, it's the everyday Sergeant Mauck people are bound to miss most. The one who amiably chastises a youth who comes into the station to pick up family park passes without any identification. "You should at least carry a library card," the Sergeant advises.

And, later on, he has the time to stop everything to try and locate an obscure law on motorcycle permits for an-

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By TED EWALD
The Ted Ewald Chevrolet Tigers perennial powers in The Grosse Pointe Farms Little League, have taken a commanding lead in the early season going. Guided ably by wily veteran manager Jack Hastings, and super coach Forest Piche, the Tigers have amassed a fine 7-0 record, bowling over all opposition. Contending for second place are the always dangerous Yankees and Pirates with 5 victories and two losses each.

Outstanding pitching performances by Tom Hastings and a slimmer Doug Tudman, who has finally reached his potential, are much responsible for the fast start by the Tigers. Not bats wielded by Glenn Piche, Pat Hicks, Mike McDonald, Tom Hastings and Scott McPhail, the fine catcher who is finally putting it all together, have been much in evidence and have contributed to the lefty position of the Bengals. The strong 10-year-old Bryan Augsburger, Kurti Butler, Bill Camp, Bill Smith, Todd Thomas, and Brett Vining.

Individual poster size pictures of these awesome performers are on display in the showroom of that noted Grosse Pointe Chevrolet dealer listed below...

Pointe Doctors Organize Ophthalmology Institute

A Detroit Institute of Ophthalmology will soon become a reality through the efforts of area ophthalmologists concerned over the lack of centralized facilities to treat eye diseases. The doctors, who began planning the Institute two years ago, have enlisted the support of interested citizens and a board of directors has been elected. After extensive renovation, the Institute will be housed in a former auto dealership on the corner of East Jefferson and Nottingham roads. The Chrysler corporation donated the building, and the estimated $275,000 for renovations is being obtained through private parties willing to lend money to the Institute. Renovation has already begun and occupancy is slated for September 1, 1974.

The Institute plans to provide modern ophthalmic diagnostic and treatment facilities, some of which are not readily available in the area. Ophthalmology, if you can pronounce it or spell it, is a branch of medical science dealing with the structure, function and diseases of the eye.

Later plans include facilities suitable for clinical research projects related to the preservation of vision. Problems related to ophthalmic surgery and to the cause and treatment of little understood eye diseases will also be under investigation.

The Institute will maintain a specialized library for text, books and journals related to ophthalmology. Books, periodicals, teaching transparencies, movies, pathological microscopic slides, and reprints will be donated by ophthalmologists in the area to be used by anyone associated with the Institute. The medical librarian at Bon Secours Hospital will assist in its organization and management.

In its teaching programs, the Institute will give priority to the training of primary care physicians in the problems of clinical ophthalmology.

Most of the ophthalmologists who organized the Institute are in the Department of Ophthalmology of Bon Secours Hospital. Although the Detroit Institute of Ophthalmology is an autonomous Institute with its own board of directors, it is formally affiliated with the Board of Directors of Bon Secours Hospital.

Facilities on the premises of the Institute of Ophthalmology, however, will be made available to other ophthalmologists and hospitals in the area.

The initial group of ophthalmologists who will move their private practices into offices within the Institute include Doctors Robert J. Crossen, Philip C. Hessburg, Cecil W. Lepard, James R. Marshall, Jr., and Richard C. Mertz, Jr.

The Institute will also house an optical shop, an ophthalmic pharmacy and an ocular prosthetics department; and eventually research laboratories, library and other facilities for the teaching, study and research needs of its staff.

The Detroit Institute of Ophthalmology has obtained an I.R.S. 501-C tax exemption which will enable interested citizens to participate in the growth and productivity of the Institute with tax deductible contributions and endowments.

Members of the Board of Directors who brought the Institute into being and are presently overseeing its development are: Hernan Alvarez, Jr., M.D., Richard A. Ames, David Barsky, M.D., John C. Dean, Daniel Gaitley, Dr. Hessburg (president), Lee T. Knutson, Richard R. Mullane, Allen J. Pecar, A. J. Ricca, Herman P. Sailer (vice-president), Donald N. Sweeney, Jr., M.D., Lee A. Terrill, Jr., and Robert W. Wilmoth, (secretary-treasurer).

Talent Show To Aid India

The National Honor Society of Grosse Pointe South will host a "Little Broadway" in the Pierce Middle School auditorium on Thursday and Friday, May 23 and 24, beginning at 8 p.m. Tickets, priced at $1, will raise funds for Chittling, an orphanage in India.

"This is going to be a variety show where anybody from flappers to philosophers will have a chance to display their talents," student director Karen Duffy commented.

There will be several Broadway and Hollywood musical numbers from shows such as "Mame," "Funny Girl," "Company," "Thoroughly Modern Millie" and "The Sting." Also slated are two dramatic excerpts from "The Women" and "Before Breakfast," besides original student acts.

The National Honor Society decided to sponsor the show after an appeal by Suzanne Wightman, a South senior, on behalf of her older brother who runs Chittling as a school accredited project.

David Wightman reported that the orphanage is running out of funds and faces possible closing. His sister asked the South National Honor Society for its help, and the members responded with the variety show.

Most of the performers are members of Pointe Players, the South drama club; however, the NHS members have taken charge of backstage operations.

The Society has also raised over $200 in bagel sales and a car wash is scheduled.

To meet today's energy crisis everyone will have to do more—more doing without.

Hold Clinic Day At Bon Secours

Organized 26 years ago on the premise that physicians should continue their education throughout their lives, the May 1 Annual Clinic Day at Bon Secours Hospital brought together physicians and guest speakers to share recent findings in clinical medicine.

A dinner program followed an afternoon of presentations in the science hall. The dinner speaker, Park Weed Willis III, M.D., director of cardiology at the University of Michigan Medical Center, presented "Coronary Artery Disease—To operate or not to operate." His remarks were preceded by the presentation of several awards to house officers and members of the medical staff.

Jose Vargas, M.D. received a first place Holden Award and a check for $150 for his paper presented earlier that afternoon on a "Surgical Approach to the Hypoglossal and Facial Nerves." Other Holden Awards, established by the late James and Lynelle Holden, were given to Muhammed Javed, M.D. second place, Sang Pakk, M.D. third, and Prem Gupta, M.D., fourth.

Two more house officers were honored with Semmes Awards for "their dedication and service in the spirit of the Sisters of Bon Secours."

N. Bhadrachari, M.D. received the top award for the second consecutive year. The second place award was given to Rene Loredo, M.D. Pre-witt and Valerie Semmes started a fund for these awards in 1968.

Four medical staff members were recognized with citations and plaques in appreciation of distinguished service at Bon Secours Hospital. The awards, given out sparingly over the past 15 years in recognition of long-standing service to patients, teaching of house officers, hospital involvement and a loyal support of the philosophy of the Sisters of Bon Secours, went to James E. Coyle, M.D., Lawrence A. Krohn, M.D., E. Frederick Lang, M.D. and Robert G. Swanson, M.D.

Delay Decision On B-E Suspect

Woods police reported they will be notified if a plea is to be taken, or a Wayne County Circuit Court trial date scheduled in the case of a 28-year-old Detroit man, charged with the breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling.

A pre-trial conference was scheduled Thursday, May 9, in the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office on the pending charge against Stefan Chabrowski. But the suspect's attorney failed to appear so no decision was made at that time, police said.

Chabrowski was allegedly involved in the burglary of a Newcastle road residence on Friday, March 22. He was arrested shortly thereafter by Detroit police at his home on the request of Woods Detective Everett Plumb.

Complete Tasks at Woods Park

Woods Parks and Recreation personnel have been busy during the spring preparing the city's parks and facilities for the summer season. In his April monthly report, Director Donald J. Hallmann said personnel concentrated upon 15 major areas. These include the cleaning of tennis courts at Lake Front and Ghesquiere Parks, checking the spotlights and replacing bulbs where necessary, plus putting up the nets.

Park benches have been repaired and inspected and the trash barrels have been cleaned and painted. The barbecue grills have been cleaned and scrubbed for use by individual and group picnickers.

The pool, too, has been scrubbed to remove sludge and debris, while equipment in the filtration plant has been cleaned and checked. The bath house, comfort station and concession stand have been painted outside, and extensive damage in the hallway of the bath house has been fixed.

At the Chene-Trombley Park, all the toys have been repaired and repainted, while removal of trees and limbs in the parks has been finished along with the raking of leaves.

The drinking fountains throughout the park were painted and necessary repairs made, while the water was turned on for the opening of the summer season. And quotes were sent out for concession stand suppliers, too.

While the roadways from the bridge to the bath house have been coal patched, Mr. Hallmann said they are still in bad shape and in need of a major overhaul.

Tigers Roll In Ruth Loop

By Julian Thomas

In a previously unreported opening day Babe Ruth League of Grosse Pointe, Inc., game, the White Sox edged the Phillies, 3-2, in a fine duel between Dan Couvreur of the Sox and Tom Shine. Tom Barrett's two-run single in the 4th spelled the difference.

On Monday, May 13, the Red Sox pounded the Indians, 11-4. Pat Corbett's bases loaded triple in the third was the game winning hit.

He also added another single, to give him 3 RBI's. Dan Gorenflo had two singles and 3 RBI's as did Dave Evendon. Jim Davey did an effective relief job for winner Craig Higgins.

On Tuesday, May 14, it was the Tigers over the Yankees, 3-1, with John Beebe pitching a two-hitter and fanning nine.

Tiger hits were spread over Duncan MacEachern, Tom Heidt, Derek Simonds, Dean McPhail and Rick Baker. John Hasse and Grant Piche had the Yankee hits.

Joe Vier and Joe Kanan of the White Sox combined pitching and hitting to destroy the Indians, 13-3, on Wednesday, May 15. Kanan picked up three hits and the win, while Joe Vier went five-for-five, with four RBI's. He also pitched in relief of starter Kanan.

On Saturday, May 18, behind the one hit performance of Dean McPhail and fine defense by his teammates, the Tigers blanked the White Sox, 4-0. Tom Heidt and Chris Block had the two Tiger hits.

Dan Couvreur pitched a strong game, but was let down by his defense. Dan had the Sox hit, a double.

The White Sox nipped the Red Sox, 4-1, Sunday, May 19, with Chris Martinelli hurling a two-hitter, fanning seven, in his first start of the year. Tim Murtagh had two doubles to drive in two runs and Joe Vier and Dave Edmunds drove in the other White Sox runs. Dan Gorenflo pitched a strong game for the losers.

The Tigers now lead the American League with a 4-0 mark, while the White Sox are 3-1.

NH Girls Take Third in Meet

North High School's girls track team, in only its second year of competition, finished third in its regional meet Friday, May 17, and will send 7 representatives to the State Finals Saturday, June 1, in Grand Rapids.

North's runners, coached by Mary Lou Bucher, took 12 medals as girls from 23 schools competed at Anchor Bay High School in New Baltimore.

Finishing first in the mile run, out of 27 girls competing was Karesa McElhenry of North. Second place was taken by teammate Cathy Gross.

Lisa Adrian won second place in the high jump out of 26 girls competing. North's 440-yard relay team of Mary Huettman, Janet Fisher, Cindy Delouhy, and Heather Breckenridge took third place.

All were medal winners and will go to the State finals.

Janet Fisher won another medal for placing fourth, among 34 runners in the 220-yard dash, as did members of the fourth place 880-yard relay team, Janet Hammer, Mary Huettman, Heather Breckenridge and Barbara Maxon.

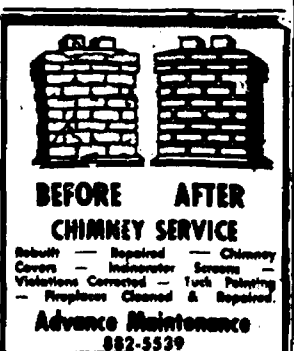

Winners of the meet, in a tie for first place, were Regina and Mount Clemens High Schools.

Stolen Vehicle Strikes 3 Cars

A black couple with a small child was seen exiting a stolen car in front of St. Ambrose Church on Thursday, May 16, on Hampton, near Maryland. The vehicle, reported stolen in Detroit, was involved in hitting three parked cars on Alter road, Detroit, according to Park police.

Information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan disclosed that a man and woman and a child were seen by a woman witness. The man, the driver, parked the car in front of the church, got out and using a screwdriver, removed the front and rear license plates of the car, then with the woman and child got into another auto and left the area. It was not known if the second car was stolen, the lieutenant said, since no report of a theft had been reported.

A citizen saw the incident and called Park authorities. Patrolman Edward Serwach was dispatched to the scene, and while taking a report from the witness, a Detroit scout car crew arrived.

The Detroit officers said that the auto had been reported stolen the previous day, by a Detroit resident-owner. The car, a 1971 Chevrolet Vega, which was originally all white, had been painted green with a brush, apparently the same day it was stolen. The white was obvious through the green color.

The Detroit policemen said that the driver of the Vega ran into three parked cars in the 1300 block of Alter road, causing considerable damage to the vehicles, and damaging the right front end of the stolen automobile. The witness, who gave the information regarding the couple and child, refused to give her name to Serwach or to the Detroit policemen.

Little League Results

By Phil Frame
G. P. FARMS
AAA LEAGUE

Portland claimed first place in the Farms AAA league by winning two games last week and for the first time this season only one team holds that position.

Second-place Hollywood went into last week's action tied with Portland and dropped its Saturday game to Hawaii, 8-4, and fell one game behind the leaders.

Last week's highlight was a Saturday, May 18, contest between Portland and last-place Sacramento which Portland won in extra innings, 14-13.

Don Chamberlin led Portland with two doubles, a triple and a homer in four trips, and slugged the game winning double for two RBIs in the bottom of the eighth.

Ace Dickson got the win in relief of John Meier, pitching five innings and striking out 11.

Newark topped Phoenix, 12-11, in another spectator's delight Tuesday, May 14.

Pete Zavell homered for Phoenix and Steve Fisher hit a two-run shot for Newark in a game that saw the lead change five times.

Larry Bartoszewicz and Pete Barrett tripled for Newark and Jim Hogan added one for Phoenix.

Monday, May 13, was Pete Fisher's day. Fisher pitched a no-hit shutout leading Hollywood to a 17-0 drubbing of Sacramento, to take his second win in as many tries.

Brian Gove led the Hollywood hitting attack with a double and a triple.

Zan Stewart threw a four-hitter Wednesday, May 15 as Portland beat Louisville, 10-1. John Moran homered and Chuck Haring tripled for Portland. Matt Slotke struck out 13 Portland batters in a losing cause.

In other action Saturday, Louisville defeated Phoenix, 17-8. Vince Kikel tripled for the winners; Denver topped Newark, 6-2, and Paul Mitchell put on a one-man show, pitching a four-hitter and smacking a home run, to lead Hawaii past Hollywood, 8-4. Thursday's game, (May 16), Hawaii at Denver was postponed because of rain and was scheduled to be played tonight Thursday, May 23.

The standings through Sunday, May 19, show Portland, 5-0; Hollywood, 4-1; Newark, 4-2; Denver, 4-2; Louisville, 2-4; Hawaii, 2-4; Sacramento, 1-5, and Phoenix, 1-5.

CLASS C

By John Brooks

On Monday, May 13, Albany handed Syracuse its first defeat on a one-hitter by Craig Hasse who went all the way. The only attack that Syracuse was able to muster was a single by Paul Brown.

Then, on Tuesday, May 14, Toledo overcame a 2-0 deficit in the sixth inning and went on to win, 4-2. Todd Ciavola, the winning pitcher, aided his own cause by hitting a triple. Wednesday, (May 15), saw Richmond defeat Columbus, 9-3. Mark Davy was the winning pitcher with relief help from Peter Keane.

On Saturday, May 18, the race tightened up when Syracuse edged Richmond in an excellently pitched game, 2-0. This was Richmond's first loss of the season and as a consequence placed three teams in a tie for first place — Richmond, Albany and Syracuse. The winning pitcher was C. H. Crane, who struck out 17 batters.

That same day Columbus won its first game of the season, 2-0. Albany, who is part of that three-way tie, won its game over Miami, 8-3, as Kenny Fromm pitched his second no-hitter of the year. Craig Hasse was Albany's "power," getting two hits.

Billy Cunningham carried Rochester to victory by pitching a 1-0 win. He also drove in the only run of the contest to win his own game.

PARK LITTLE LEAGUE

By Dolores Dennis

Park Little League baseball is getting a lot of parental support as full bleachers are a frequent sight.

The American Major League teams played little during a rainy week. On Saturday, May 11, the Indians topped the White Sox in a wild scoring marathon, 21-15. Meanwhile, the Orioles walked past the Senators, 8-2, and the Athletics shocked the overconfident Yankees, 9-2.

After a rainy week, the Indians narrowly beat the Orioles, 3-2, on Saturday, May 18. The Yankees contained the White Sox, 9-3.

Missouri Military Academy senior CHRISTOPHER GREINER, son of the CLAUDE GREINERS, of Lakeshore road, has been accepted for fall 1974 admission at Widener College, Chester, Pa.

with Dan Shine and Tawn Debets on the mound. Debets struck out eight of 10 batters in the last three innings. And the Senators outscored the Athletics, 7-4.

The National League Majors enjoyed a full schedule of regular games. On Friday, May 10, the Redlegs rolled over the Giants, 14-4. Dave Graham homered for the Redlegs. The Pirates crushed the Cardinals, 14-1, while the Braves held off the Dodgers, 5-4.

Games on May 13 found the Cardinals dumping the Giants, 3-0. Tim Foley struck out 13 while going the distance for the Cards. The Pirates blasted the Dodgers, 23-14, scoring 14 runs in the fourth inning including a grand slam homer by Mike Kirkpatrick. The Braves eased by the Redlegs 13-1.

Games on Wednesday, May 15 included the Braves win over the Giants, 7-0. The Pirates defeated the Redlegs, 10-2, as Chris Ellis had a grand slammer and Tim McCormick hit a four-bagger. The Cardinals managed to hold off the tough Dodgers, 4-3.

Play in the American Minor League was limited by rain. On May 11, Hawaii blasted Michigan State, 14-5, by tuncing doubles by Larry Bauer and Randy Shane where they counted. Michigan rolled past Army, 11-5. Ohio State shot down the Marines, 9-4, with a string of doubles by Robert Goulet and Ken Vermeulen.

The next games were on May 18. Michigan roared back to defeat Ohio State, 3-1. Russ Brunke had 15 strikeouts in a no-hitter marred only by an unearned run. Hawaii eked out a close one from Alaska, 12-10. Larry Bauer saved it for Hawaii with a grand slammer in the fifth following a homer with two aboard in the third. Front running Michigan rallied in the 5th inning to narrowly defeat the Marines, 10-8.

The National League Minors started May 10 with Northwestern defeating Navy, 3-0, with John Thompson on the hill. Thompson struckout 18 while teammate Jim Hager had a homer in the fourth. Illinois hit Minnesota, 12-12. For Illinois, Martin Zelewski homered, while Mike Chase homered twice.

On May 13, Iowa edged

Navy, 6-5, with a homer by Jerry Stronski in the last of the sixth. Minnesota powered past Air Force, 13-9, in a hitting duel. Northwestern struck for two runs in the seventh inning to take Illinois, 9-7.

The next games on May 15 found Northwestern bombing Purdue, 20-8. Joe Wood homered for Northwestern. It was Air Force over Iowa, 8-7, despite Jerry Stronski's homer in the fifth for Iowa. David Diehl for Air Force had 12 strikeouts while going the distance.

Navy beat Illinois, 7-2. Navy's John Thompson had a homer while John Cashman and Steve Tomaszewski had doubles.

G.P. CITY

By Thomas Coles

The Giants won their fourth straight game Friday, May 17, to lead The City's Minor A Little League in the young 1974 season.

Behind the strong pitching of Todd Simonds and Bill Flaherty, the Giants beat the Phillies 10-4 and 17-3. Scoring runs for the Giants were Simonds, (four), Mark Martinelli, Tom Brown, (two), Brad Edgar, Don Dittmars, (three), Fred Chave, Todd Rowe, (two), Jim Burdzinski, Wayne Onatweder, (four), Brian Coles, (two — one being a home run), Peter Gushee, Flaherty, Bill Bissell, (two), and Dennis Coles, (two).

Pitching for the Phillies were Greg Rivard and Ed Krull. Phillies runs were scored by Bill Hoey, Rivard, Dave Kelly, (two), Scott Wayland, Charles Chapman and Scotty MacColl.

The Giant pitching of Simonds, Flaherty, Tom Ryckman and Peter Gushee was again supported by many runners crossing the plate while topping the Pirates 9-4 and 11-1. Giants scoring in these two games were Simonds, (three), Martinelli, Ryckman, (a grand slammer), Edgar, Dittmars, Chave, Rowe, Brown, Onatweder, B. Coles, D. Coles, John Platt, (two), Burdzinski, (two), Jeff Smith, Bissell and Flaherty.

Pirates pitching were by Bruce Collinson, Sean Gaarder, Mike McCarty and Alex Draper. Run scoring was accomplished by Tom Persing, Jeff Bartsch, M. McCarty, Mike Leonard and John Conway.

Norsemen Win Regional Meet

By Janet Evanaski

While hosting the 1974 State Regional Track and Field Meet at North High School, Saturday, May 18, the Norsemen became the undisputed winners, as they competed with 17 other Detroit-area schools.

Placing in the top five positions were: North, accumulating 62 points; Detroit Kettering, with 39 points; Cass Tech, 27; Lakeview, 22, and East Detroit, 13.

Taking first in six of the 15 events, North also succeeded in shattering two former track records.

In the two mile run, Tom Hammer, a senior, set a new record as he finished the event with a time of 9:25.6. The previous record was 9:26.1.

Establishing a new track record, too, was the mile relay team, as they ran the

The concert coincides with a regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers Organization and admission is free to all parents and friends of Parcells School.

The 50-member orchestra, performing under the direction of Donald McNew, will open the program with Bach's chorale prelude, "From Ill Do Thou Defend Us," followed by a suite of three short selections by French composers: "Rigaudon" by Couperin; "Sarabande" by La Coste, and "Gavotte en Rondeau" by Jean Philippe Rameau.

The next composition for string orchestra, Corelli's "Praeludium and Corrente" precedes a novelty number, "Fiddler'sophy" which concludes this segment of the program.

The second half of the concert features the Eighth Grade Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Judith Bailey. They will present selections from Sesame Street with special guest appearances from Big Bird and Oscar whose costumes have been designed by Chorus members Jon Calcaterra, Patti Riley and Bill Clason.

Ray Stevens' "Everything Is Beautiful," with percussionist, Jack Wozniak is featured next, followed by two Rodgers & Hammerstein medleys, including numbers from The King and I, and, from The Sound of Music, "Edelweiss," "Doe, A Deer"

Dancers, Bridgit Kenneally and Susan Keim will tap their way through "I Want To Be Happy" from No, No, Nannette. Concluding the Choral portion of the program will be "Day By Day" from Godspell with Philip George and Peter Koenig doing the percussion accompaniment.

The Cadet Band will appear next to play a march "Independencia," followed by "Waltz for Ellen" by Robert Dillon. Miss Shoban Walker, in authentic Irish dress, will present an Irish folk dance accompanied by the band playing "March of the Irish Guard." The Cadet Band's final number will be a bit of nostalgia entitled, "After You've Gone."

The last segment of the program features the Concert Band playing "Brighton Beach," a march by William Latham and Bach's "Prelude and Fugue in D minor." The entire flute section performs the next selection entitled "Huckleberry Flute."

Adjourn Exam Of 3 Suspects

The suspects, along with another Warren man, who's not being charged in The Woods but who was in the car, were nabbed by Detroit police a short time later.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I wish to take this opportunity to publicly thank the volunteers who donated their time to the Grosse Pointe Handicap Swim Program.

These volunteers, who are young adults of the community, contributed two and a half hours each Saturday to cross the barriers of pity and indifference. By bridging this gap, they enabled handicapped people, either mentally or physically, to enter the water and gain confidence in their swimming ability. Without this individual teaching, the swim program would not have existed.

South Oarsmen Busy in Regatta

South High School was represented in the annual High School Invitational Regatta the weekend of May 3-4 at Wyandotte. South students were victorious in the four with coxswain and heavy weight single scull events and finished second in the double scull. Overall, the Devils finished fifth in total points after entering the three events.

Fourteen schools from the Detroit area, Canada and from as far away as New York and Virginia, participated in the action. The over 350 oarsmen competed in a full complement of sweep and sculling events.

South qualified for the finals in the trio of races by winning the heats held on Friday. Chris Richard, of Barrington road, stroked Paul Rubie, of East Jefferson avenue, Mike Miller, of Barrington road, and John Carabaus, of Maryland avenue, to a three-length victory in the four with coxswain event. Mark Miller, of Barrington road, was coxswain. Richard and Rubie teamed up for the double sculls but came in second to a Wyandotte duo. Then a tired but determined Richard was able to take command of his three rowers for a five-length win in the single scull event.

The students are all seniors and have been rowing from two to four years at the Detroit Boat Club, which supported the entries.

Richard will now go to the National Schoolboy Regatta set for early June at Middletown, Conn.

School and Grosse Pointe North High School.

Another invadable person I wish to thank is my co-worker, Bob Hessler. I also must mention the Grosse Pointe Community Services, coordinated by Carl A. Schoessel, who sponsored the program, and the parents of the participants of the program. They, too, were an important part of the program. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
Barbara Masten
1984 Lancaster

Dear Mr. Edgar:

I did not know until I read the Police Blotter on May 19, that the actual discovery of the fire on my boat at City Pier on May 5, was made by four young men from Grosse Pointe. The article which you published in your May 18 edition omitted their names and I would like to see that they get proper credit for a job well done.

The four young men are: Mark Cornille, 623 University; Kevin Sorenson of 430 Rivard; and Terry and George Hogan of 379 St. Clair. I would certainly feel remiss if I did not seek to inform you of their names and to publicly thank them. I would hope that you see fit to publish this letter in your paper.

Very truly yours,
James H. Finney

Ferry Students Plant 6 Trees

During the past school year, all 753 students at Ferry School were given an opportunity to participate in three fund raising activities which would ultimately change their school environment.

Through the sale of cupcakes and candy canes, enough funds were raised to purchase six flowering trees which were planted by the students. Later plans include the purchase of flowering plants which will also be planted by the students.

The fund raising events, spaced over the school year, were planned and operated by the sixth grade science students in connection with a science unit which deals with ecology.

As a result of their hard work and effort, over $200 was raised. In addition to these funds a $25 donation from a local church group and profits from the E.A.N. kite sale helped the cause along the way.

The trees planted were selected for their spring flowers and fall fruit in hopes of attracting birds to feed upon them.

In addition to improving and changing their school environment, the students hope to develop a sense of school pride that will eventually reduce vandalism in the community and increase respect for property.

Park, Woods Again Fight Detroit Edison Rate Hike

By Roger A. Waha

The Park and The Woods are girding their loins for another charge at Detroit Edison as both councils at their regular meetings Monday, May 13, voted the expenditure of monies not to exceed $3,000 to join the fight against Edison in the company's newly-filed case which calls for a rate increase of $93,048,000. The case was filed on Monday, April 15.

Both Pointe communities are two of four cities which have already filed formal interventions in the case, reported James A. Smith, (of Bodman, Longley, Bogle, Armstrong and Dahling), an associate of Park City Attorney Richard D. Rohr.

An estimated 30-40 other communities are considering joining this fight and are studying communications from Grant B. Alberts, finance director, City of Highland Park, who's also chairman of "Communities in Opposition to the Detroit Edison Rate Increase," said Mr. Smith last week.

"Detroit Edison is seeking a rate increase of over $93,000,000 from its retail electric customers to boost its annual revenue to $850,000,000. This represents a rate increase on the average of 12.3 percent over the levels of rates established by the Michigan Public Service Commission in its most recent rate order of January 1974," stated Mr. Smith.

The increase sought from street lighting is around $2,389,000 or approximately 2.6 percent of the total increase. "Based upon its 1973 test year, Detroit Edison states that revenues from street lighting are currently $12,901,000 per year," noted Mr. Smith. "Thus, Edison is seeking to increase revenues from street lighting by 18.5 percent."

Mr. Smith made it clear that the communities are fighting both the overall rate increase and the street lighting increase, itself, and then reviewed participation in earlier Edison cases.

"We fought both in the past two cases. The group headed by Mr. Alberts was formed in connection with an Edison rate case filed in 1971 and concluded in August 1972," he said. This group also participated in the most recent case filed in December 1972 and which concluded this January.

When asked if such participation proved worthwhile, Mr. Smith stressed that it did while citing some figures to prove his point.

"Edison has had four complete rate orders since 1970. In 1970, two rate orders affected the street lighting category but participation was minimal by the communities. In the two cases combined, The Park's street lighting bill, for example, increased nearly 70 percent in 1970," he said.

Then, the next case came along in 1971. At that time, Edison requested a hike of 48 percent in the street lighting category but "we participated vigorously in this case" and the final order gave a 30 percent jump for the communities, he said.

In the most recently concluded case, (January 1974), Edison asked for a 14 1/2 per-

School Plans Paper Drive

The students of St. Paul School, 170 Grosse Pointe boulevard, will be undertaking a newspaper drive on Saturday, June 8, and are asking all their relatives, friends and neighbors to save their papers and magazines.

Charles Jewell of 967 Lincoln road, chairman of the drive, requests that the papers and magazines be tied in separate bundles or placed in large shopping bags for easy handling.

Please bring whatever you have, (every bundle, regardless how small), will be accepted. Take the papers to the St. Paul Church parking lot, entering on the east side of the school from the boulevard. A loading truck will be there all day, with volunteers assisting in piling the contributions in the van.

cent increase in street lighting but they were granted a nine percent rise. Needless to say, the communities also were in this fight tooth and nail. "And, now, Edison is asking for an 18.5 percent increase in street lighting," he stated.

During the course of these cases, if Edison had been granted all the increases in full, The Park's street lighting bill would have been over $200,000 a year rather than the $167,000 figure it is now, continued Mr. Smith. That's a $33,000 savings, four-tenths of a mill in The Park's budget.

He hopes many more cities will join the fight and contribute to an expense fund in which the Michigan Municipal League will act as the holder and distributing agent for all the group's monies, as well as providing administrative help. The funds are used for expert witness fees and counsel fees.

A steering committee meeting was held Thursday, May 16, at Highland Park's City Hall. "While not very many came, information was sent out, as Mr. Alberts tries to get more communities to participate," said Mr. Smith.

According to law, the Commission has to finish a case within a nine-month period. This would mean a final order would be issued in January 1975.

In the meantime, Mr. Smith reviewed the steps which would be taken. "The cities which opposed the increase must file intervention petitions with the Commission. The first public hearing on the case is scheduled for Thursday, May 30, in Detroit for the purpose of taking statements and testimony of the intervenors and members of the public. Edison witnesses take the stand in a public hearing at Commission offices sometime in June with cross-examining to follow," he said. Then, there's an interval with further testimony to follow.

Besides Mr. Smith, Woods City Attorney George Catlin has been an active participant in previous cases. Mr. Catlin recently told the council he attends most of the hearings and cross-examines Edison witnesses, while Mr. Smith attends all of the hearings in a "highly technical" role. "There have been as many as 30 attorneys participating in the hearings" with the last rate case requiring 55 days of testimony, revealed Mr. Catlin.

As for the funds, Mr. Catlin said in the last case $65,000 was spent with more than half going towards expert testimony.

Finally, in a letter to all cities, villages and townships in the Detroit Edison Service area, Mr. Alberts urged community participation in the fight.

While noting the communities are again confronted with "a shocking and disproportionate Edison rate increase request approximating 20 percent for street lighting alone," Mr. Alberts said, "Numerous local governments have remained together to provide for a united efficient inquiry and common challenge to the rate increase request."

In seeking more support, Mrs. Alberts stated, "Our association challenged the last two rate increases and both of them were well cost justified in their result. As there are 180 communities, or more, in the service area, it takes but a minor effort by them all to insure a successful defense."

"Unfortunately, our experience has been that many of the smaller communities do not participate financially, possibly because they fear additional legal liability may be incurred. Some do not know that the City of Detroit has its own power supply and service for its street lights and is not involved for the street lighting portion of the increases. I hope your community will do its share."

Each community was then asked to contribute about two percent of its street lighting annual charge, but not more than $3,000 from any one municipality.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford
Chief of Central Library

Monday, May 20, to Sunday, May 26, is Michigan Week and one of the goals of this special week is for the citizens of Michigan to become better acquainted with their state. And, what better way is there to become acquainted with a subject than to read about it.

Two of the best histories of Michigan are F. C. Clever Bald's MICHIGAN IN FOUR CENTURIES (Harper) and Willis F. Dunbar's MICHIGAN: A HISTORY OF THE WOLVERINE STATE (Eerdmans). Both of these readable volumes were written by two of the state's most noted historians. Either title will provide the reader with an excellent story of our state.

Another fine survey of Michigan will be found in George S. May's PICTORIAL HISTORY OF MICHIGAN (Eerdmans) which is in two volumes entitled THE EARLY YEARS and THE LATER YEARS. To tell the story with all the authenticity possible, May has employed, with very few exceptions, only period illustrations, or photographs of physical objects as they actually existed during those years. These paintings, sketches and photographs, complimented by the author's carefully researched text, vividly convey the character and nature not only of the land itself, but of the men and women who have shaped our state.

If you happen to be looking for some information about the government of Michigan, we have a very useful reference book entitled STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT IN MICHIGAN by Ferris E. Lewis (Hillsdale). Covered in this volume are a brief summary of Michigan's potential history, and sections on the legislative, executive and judicial branches of state government, as well as sections on township, village, city, and county government. Included as an appendix is the complete text of Michigan's state constitution.

Two valuable statistical guides are the MICHIGAN STATISTICAL ABSTRACT prepared by the Michigan State University Graduate School of Business Administration, and the GENERAL SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC CHARACTERISTICS OF MICHIGAN compiled from the 1970 Federal Census.

The MICHIGAN STATISTICAL ABSTRACT is a compilation of facts about the social and economic condition of the state and its subdivisions. Chapters I through VII are about the people of Michigan, and chapters IX through XXII are about the state's industry and government. Chapter VIII is a report on typical weather situations for various parts of Michigan. Several tables that include data for the United States as well as for Michigan, will be of special interest to those who wish to gauge the state with the nation as a standard of comparison.

The GENERAL SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC CHARACTERISTICS OF MICHIGAN presents statistics on such areas as nativity and parentage, mother-tongue, school enrollment, economic status, place of work, transportation, etc. These statistics are given for the inhabitants of the state as a whole, then broken down by county and then by incorporated place by size of population.

Along with historical and statistical information, we have books that cover a wide variety of other topics. For example, there is Wayne Andrews' ARCHITECTURE IN MICHIGAN (Wayne State University). With text and photographs by the author, this book surveys the architecture of Michigan from the early 19th century to the present day. The story begins with unknown builders who created the charming Gothic and Greek Revival houses still to be seen at Marshall, Grosse Ile and Ann Arbor. Andrews emphasizes the work of Albert Kahn and Eliel and Eero Saarinen as well as the contributions of Minora Yamasaki, Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, and Marcel Breuer who was the architect for the Grosse Pointe Central Library.

For those who have wondered how a particular city or village in Michigan received its name, we have MICHIGAN PLACE NAMES by Walter Romig. Did you know, for example, that Ashland in Newaygo County, was organized in 1854 and named for the abundance of white ash timber in the area. Hazel Park in Oakland County dates from 1869 when it was called Hazel Slump because of a profusion of hazelnut bushes and water in the area. Tawas City in Iosco County was named after Otawas, a local Chippewa chief. In all, over 5,000 past and present Michigan communities are included in this handy reference volume.

These various titles are, of course, only a sampling of the numerous books and pamphlets about our state. So come into your Grosse Pointe Public Library and find out more about your State of Michigan, its past, its present, and yes, even something of its future.

St. John Has New Service

Saint John Hospital, in its continuing effort to provide the best "total health care" for members of the community, has received approval for a Family Practice Residency Program and a Family Practice Center, scheduled to become operational Monday, July 1.

In making the announcement, Hospital President James T. Farley said, "The members of our Board of Trustees and I welcome this opportunity to be of further service to our community. The Center is designed along the lines of a typical one or two man family practice private office providing individual personal care to community families."

Dr. William E. Rush, director of Medical Education at Saint John and Wayne State University's assistant dean of Health Area Medical Programs, said, "The addition of this program makes Saint John Hospital unique in the primary care graduate medical education field in Michigan."

"It is the only institution in our State with approved independent programs in all of the recognized residencies for primary care. This Family Practice Residency has been approved by the Council of Medical Education of the American Medical Association. All first year positions have been filled by Wayne State University graduates through the 1974 Intern and Residency Matching Plan."

The Family Practice Center will be located in the Out-Patient Department of the Hospital and will operate as an independent unit.

From Another Pointe of View

Members of the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital will slip into an Hawaiian mood when they gather at Lochmoor Club for their annual spring luncheon next Wednesday.

Cocktails at 11:30 o'clock and an island-inspired lunch are to precede the business meeting. Mrs. Jack Leithauser presiding, that traditionally marks the official start of a lighter summer schedule for Auxiliaries, many of whom hand over their duties to Cottage Junior Volunteers through August.

Not all the ladies "take a break," however. Pink Auxiliary uniforms will continue to be in evidence around the Hospital in June, July and August, and committee meetings for fund-raising events are scheduled throughout the summer.

After business it's back to The Islands as Auxiliaries-turned-models Mrs. Ramfis Fahim, Mrs. William F. Hoover, Mrs. Richard P. Joy, III, Mrs. Paul Knopf, Mrs. Thomas H. Nabs and Mrs. Ted Pongracz parade by in colorful clothes from Hale Hawaii of Birmingham.

Assisting program chairman Mrs. Warren R. Jollymore with luncheon plans are Mrs. Walter H.

Indians to Return At Antique Show

Gala June 12 Preview Party Will Precede Annual Three-Day Exhibit and Sale at University Liggett's Liggett Campus

Russell Carrell, director of the annual University Liggett Antiques Show to be held on the Liggett Campus in Briarcliff drive Thursday through Saturday, June 13, 14 and 15, believes this will be one of the most exciting of the University Liggett Shows.

"A lot of people who are wary of the stock market are currently considering antiques as a form of investment," Mr. Carrell notes.

Of particular interest to Detroiters is the return of the Indians . . . wooden ones that is. A number of exceptional hand-carved cigar store Indians will be brought here for the Show.

Mr. Carrell believes many of them undoubtedly came originally from Detroit. A family of Swiss woodcarvers, the Melchers, settled here in the late 19th Century and, according to Carrell, their Indians were among the finest carvings in the country.

Since Indians discovered tobacco, the statues were traditionally displayed in front of a town's leading tobacconist.

Carrell also predicts a renaissance in Shaker furniture because of the upcoming 200th American Bi-Centennial celebration. Shaker furniture is pure Americana in design. Completely functional, it blends well with contemporary furnishings.

"With all the shortages we face antiques are going to be more popular than ever," says Carrell. "There's no shortage of antiques, however. At each show there's a whole new supply."

Many of the sources continue to be the breaking up of estates and old houses. Generations of furnishings are being sold.

"Antiques," advises Carrell, "are a nice hedge against inflation—if you don't have to live on them."

Carrell defines an antique as anything that is hand-crafted and over 100 years old. He is one of the country's leading directors of antiques shows, including New York's famed Winter Antique Show.

He lives in Salisbury, Conn., in a farmhouse circa 1740 where patriot Ethan Allen attended school. When not directing a show he may usually be found in his barn, which he has transformed into his antiques shop.

The University Liggett Antiques Show will be open from noon until 10 o'clock Thursday and Friday, June 13 and 14, and noon until 6 o'clock Saturday, June 15.

A gala preview party Wednesday evening, June 12, will precede the general opening. Cocktails, dinner and an opportunity to browse and buy are included in the $25 per person ticket. Reservations may be made by calling 886-9229. General admission is $2.50.

This is a permanent wave roller.

It's a wonder or a terror, depending on how it's used. Too much time and it can frizz hair. Too little time and it won't do its work properly. Just enough time and it will give hair the body it needs to look lovely and hold a set longer. We give it just enough time. And we get beautiful results. Like to see? We'd love to show you.

Memorial Day Sunset Concert

The Fourth Marine Air Wing Drum and Bugle Corps won't be leaving The Pointe directly after their morning Memorial Day Concert at the War Memorial, for they're scheduled to play a second, sunset Memorial Day concert at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Weather permitting—please, weather, permit!—they'll perform at 7 o'clock on the front lawn around GPYC's flagpole, in full-dress uniform, and there'll be a cannon ceremony in conjunction with the concert, arranged by GPYC Chief of Protocol Thomas K. Fisher.

If it SHOULD rain, (but it CAN'T) everything moves indoors, to GPYC's Great Hall.

Either way, it should be a stirring ceremony—but let's face it: outdoors, with cannon booming, would be more stirring.

Ginny Makes Hall Of Fame

I blush to admit it: I've known Ginny (Mrs. Robert H.) McKendrick for several years, now, and I never knew she was a member of the 1952 Olympic figure skating team, that, a freshman at Michigan State University at the time, she became the only woman ever awarded a varsity letter by MSU.

I mean, how would I know? She doesn't SKATE into the office with the latest Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center publicity release...

But now that I do know, I think everyone should know, so that everyone can congratulate Ginny on her recent induction into the Michigan Amateur Sports Hall of Fame.

Ginny, incidentally, was a member of four teams that competed in world championships before the '52 Olympics.

While we're at it, let's offer Michigan Amateur Sports Hall of Fame induction congratulations to Pointer Weldon Olson, too, member of the 1956 and 1960 Olympic hockey teams, (of this year's four ex-Olympic inductees, two are Pointers—that's got to be some sort of record), and to still another

Miss Breidenbach Married May 10

Mother Fashions Gown Bride Designs for Her Evening Rites at Which She Becomes Mrs. Breidenbach-Schick

The Grosse Pointe Academy Chapel was setting for the Friday, May 10, wedding of Bonnie Ayer Breidenbach, daughter of the Victor Rudolph Breidenbachs, of Grand Marais boulevard, and John Michael Schick, son of the John Schicks of Fraser.

After the 6:30 o'clock rites at which Father Thomas Hammel presided and a reception at the Detroit Boat Club, the newlyweds left to vacation at the Lake Huron summer home of the Clayton Alandt family.

They are making their home in Beaconsfield avenue and continuing classes at Oakland University. The bride expects to be graduated this June.

Mrs. Breidenbach fashioned the gown Bonnie designed for her wedding. A white pin-frock trimmed in Irish lace with pink ribbon and tiny embroidered rosebuds covered the long-sleeved white swiss embroidered batiste eyelet dress, touched with lace and ribbon at neck and wrists.

The crown of her white cotton and lace poke bonnet, tied with pink satin ribbon, was covered with white organdy petals and tiny pink rosebuds. She carried a Colonial arrangement of pink rosebuds, white daisies and baby's-breath.

Heavy corded eyelet over pink satin ribbon accented the basque-bodied frocks of heavy woven pink cotton worn by honor matron Mrs. Charles Van Doren and bridesmaids Lisa Grady, Tina Beckman, Beth Zens and Mrs. H. Dick Breidenbach, of Orchard Lake.

Their three-tiered flounced skirts cascaded over modified hoops, and they wore baby's-breath in their hair.

Flower girl Anne Breidenbach, the bride's niece, wore a floor length dress and sun-bonnet of pink and white dotted swiss. A white eyelet trimmed pinafore was tied under her arms.

Like the senior attendants, she carried a white basket tied with pink ribbon and filled with white daisies, rosebuds and baby's-breath.

Kenneth Schick acted as best man for his brother. Ushering were Ralph Schick, another brother, James Stewart, Kevin Berube and H. Dick Breidenbach, the bride's brother.

Accordion pleats formed the collar framing the neckline of the long-sleeved, full-skirted heavy turquoise silk gown Mrs. Breidenbach chose for her daughter's wedding. She carried a single long-stemmed pink rose, with baby's-breath.

The bridegroom's mother carried a single white rose and wore a long, sleeveless sheath, floral-printed in shades of beige, green and white and slit up the sides.

Alliance Cites Local Student

Under auspices of French Consul General in Detroit Jacques Dircks-Dilly and the Alliance Francaise de Detroit, Mrs. Frank Kruse president, awards to third and fourth year high school French students will be distributed in Wayne State University's General Lecture Building Room 150 tomorrow, Friday, May 24, at 4 o'clock.

A reception honoring the 114 young people scheduled to receive books and certificates for their proficiency in the French language will follow the formal presentation.

Winner of the Detroit Alliance's scholarship is University Liggett honor student

Barry Steinhart, who will be off for three months' study at the Alliance Francaise in Paris, during which he will live with a French family.

Northern Tour For Symphony

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will perform in the first Upper Peninsula Summer Music Festival during the week of July 8, visiting three northern Michigan communities: Calumet, Ironwood and Escanaba.

Former music director and conductor Sixten Ehrling and Cabaret Pops favorite Richard Hayman will be the two conductors.

Opening the Festival July 9 and 10 at Calumet the Orchestra will perform at two dedicatory concerts marking turn-of-the-century Calumet Theatre's rededication as a state historic site.

Ehrling will conduct on Tuesday evening, July 9, Hayman on Wednesday night.

These performances will be presented through the co-operation of the Calumet-Laurium-Keweenaw Chamber of Commerce and Copper-town, U.S.A.

The Orchestra moves to the Ironwood Theatre Thursday, July 11, for an appearance sponsored by the Gogebic Arts Council. Ehrling will be on the podium.

Final Festival site is Escanaba, where the Orchestra will be presented by the Great Lakes Choral Society, Inc., in a three-day series of concerts as part of the community's Summer Artfeste July 4 through 14.

Opening night will be Friday, July 12, in Oliver Auditorium, with Sixten Ehrling conducting. A Lakeside Pops concert at the Karas Memorial Band Shell has been scheduled for Saturday, July 13. Richard Hayman will conduct.

The closing Festival concert Sunday afternoon, July 14, will find Ehrling again on the podium in Oliver Auditorium.

Ticket information for Festival concerts may be obtained from local sponsor organizations.

Arrangements are being made to schedule the appearance of a chamber group of Detroit Symphony musicians at Newberry, a fourth Upper Peninsula site, during Festival week.

The Upper Peninsula Summer Music Festival, presented in cooperation with the Michigan Council for the Arts, is another phase in the continued expansion of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's activities throughout the state.

It is an activity that is part of pending legislation incorporated in Governor Milliken's budget request for funding of the arts.

Rites In St. Clare for Diane Boehmer

Afternoon Ceremony at Which She is Wed to Greg Richard Thom is Followed by Reception at Detroit Golf Club

Vacationing on Spain's Costa de Sol are Mr. and Mrs. Greg Richard Thom whose wedding Saturday, May 18, in Saint Clare de Montefalco Church was followed by a reception at the Detroit Golf Club. They will return to make their home in Lakepointe avenue, Detroit.

Mrs. Thom is the former Diane Marie Boehmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Boehmer, who moved recently from Cadieux road to Webber drive, Harper Woods.

Mr. Thom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Thom, Jr., former Sunningdale drive residents who now reside at the Shore Club.

The Reverend Robert J. MacCulley and Father Thomas Hurley, of Saint Michael's Episcopal Church, presided at the 1 o'clock ceremony. Soloist was Don Hart, member of the Windsor Civic Light Opera.

Alencon lace accented the bride's high-necked organza Princess gown. Matching lace bordered her detachable Cathedral length train and edged her mantilla veil. She carried a cluster of miniature white and ivory flowers with yellow accents, baby's-breath and ivy.

Honor matron Mrs. Gary Stefani and bridesmaids Mrs. Danford Piggins, Karen McDonald, Sally Young and Susan Kraus carried European-style hand-tied garden bouquets of white and yellow flowers accented with baby's breath and ivy.

Small white and yellow flowers trimmed the necks of their halter-backed checked yellow and white voile frocks, with matching tie-on capes.

George H. Thom, III, acted as best man for his brother. Guests were seated by Douglas and Paul Boehmer, the bride's brothers, Michael Jeffries and John Southcott, III, of Cincinnati.

A beaded stand-up collar, belt and cuffs accented the floor length peach chiffon gown chosen by Mrs. Boehmer for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a long periwinkle blue knit with ribbed bodice detail and bell cuffs.

Both mothers selected ivory cymbidium orchid corsages.

Flower Judge Meeting Slated

Local ladies planning to attend the Michigan Graduate Judges Association of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association annual meeting Wednesday, June 5, at Knollwood Country Club, Grand Blanc, include the Mesdames H. Rollin Allen, Harold R. Smith, Roland R. Postel, Theodore A. Foster and John Veech.

Activities begin at 10 in the morning with a business meeting including election of officers. Mrs. Paul Machuga, current president, will preside.

The program will feature Marla (Mrs. Fred) Palmer, pottery designer.

Appearing in The Leelanau School's production of "The Star Spangled Girl" May 28 and 30 will be Pointer JOHN McLEOD, a Leelanau junior.

Mrs. Greg R. Thom

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday, May 18, in Saint Clare de Montefalco Church were DIANE MARIE BOEHMER, daughter of the Kenneth H. Boehmers, who moved recently from Cadieux road to Webber drive, Harper Woods, and Mr. Thom, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Thom, Jr., of the Shore Club, formerly of Sunningdale drive.

June Meeting for Gardeners

Windmill Pointe Garden Club members will gather Wednesday, June 5, at the Westchester road home of Mrs. George Everman at 12:30 o'clock, bringing arrangements of flowers for display and judging. Presiding over the meeting will be the Club's new state of officers led by Mrs. K.L. Kimmel, president.

Other new officers include Mrs. Erik Erikson, vice-president, Mrs. John McInish, recording secretary, Mrs. Truman Schneider, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Charles Markley, treasurer.

A Lovelier YOU
by JOE

How to look gentle, subtle, serene? A lot of your look is in your hair style. A side part is often a gentling influence. So are a few wisps, not too many, and a soft wave. Often a shorter cut can make you look younger, more feminine, and more vulnerable. Try a little violet shadow on your eyelids for added mystery and softness. Don't forget a warm toned makeup. Let your hair rest, the most basic, be a good one, and let it make you into the feminine person that you are.

If you're a regular permanent patron, or even if you've never had a permanent before, come pick a look from today, yesterday or from the whole wide world of tomorrow, at GROSSE POINTE COIFFURES, 30427 Mack Ave., 881-2090. New Chamber Players' Head

Don Paquette was elected president and Catherine Goodsell secretary of the Grosse Pointe Chamber Music Players at their recent annual dinner and meeting at the Grosse Pointe Memorial.

Fontaine Laing was re-elected vice-president and Stanley Scottford was re-elected treasurer. Performers at the short musical program exemplified music's appeal across all barriers, including age, as Edward Vabolis, retired, 65, played a Schubert sonatina for violin accompanied by Fontaine Laing, and 17-year-old Phyllis Crossen accompanied by her contemporary, Elizabeth Parkins, played a Brahms clarinet sonata.

The music followed dinner. A short business meeting was held to elect officers, hear brief annual reports and an interim report on the present status of the music library established by the Chamber Music Players and donated to the Grosse Pointe Public Library last year in memory of Henry Pringham. Alex Sucek, tenor and guitarist, and Marybelle Sucek, accordion, provided afterglow songs from Old Vienna.

Hold National LWV Meeting

Claire (Mrs. J. Howard) Kay, Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters' delegate to the 31st national convention of the United States League, arrived in San Francisco late, along with about 40 of Michigan's delegates.

"We left Detroit at 9 o'clock Monday morning, May 6. Somewhere over Nebraska the pilot announced that we were having a 'pressure problem.' We landed in Salt Lake City with a shattered windshield. So now I've been in Salt Lake City."

"We met long hours," Mrs. Kay reported to the local League's unit meetings. "We had little time to sightsee. I came home with most of my money."

Admission of men as full voting members instead of non-voting associate members as in the past was by far the most publicized action of the League, if by no means the most important.

"The press was all over the place for that one. The only thing they really wanted to hear was the vote on men."

The amendment to the membership by-law passed 869-433, and although retiring national president Lucy Wilson Benson expressed irritation at the publicity on the issue, (I wasn't overly surprised, but I was a little peeved. We're doing a helluva lot of other things . . . integrity and openness of the impeachment inquiry . . . national drive for campaign finance reform . . .), she stated that "Our vote on full male membership is, nevertheless, a very important one."

St. Paul Class Of '64 To Hold Reunion

LEEN WRIGHT CONWAY, THERESA FIEDLER, KAREN DUCASTEL LOOSEVELT and MICHAEL BARRY. The group has been contacting former classmates, scattered now from New York to California. Some remain "missing persons," however. Any classmate who has not been contacted should call 882-5169 or 884-4238 for further information.

"Let's fact it, our Human Resources position calls for resort to discrimination against minorities -- and statistically men are certainly a minority group."

Mrs. Kay noted that 72 percent of the nation's local Leagues were represented by more than 1,450 delegates. There was a problem of budget for some Leagues because San Francisco was a long trip.

"I was impressed by the concern of all Leagues for grass-roots involvement," said Mrs. Kay.

Concerned lest the destruction of three old mansions (the Glancy's, Stonehurst and Rose Terrace), for condominiums or other development be setting a pattern, the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters has added a new item for study this year: Land Use in Grosse Pointe.

Working within the scope of Environmental Quality under Colleen d'Agostino, chairman, a committee will be formed to investigate local ordinances and city planning, check into state and federal

Artists Market Exhibit Opens

The Alternative Press: The First Five Years, an exhibit of hand-painted art and poetry from the basement of Ken and Ann Mikolowski, opened Friday, May 17, with a 5 to 7 o'clock invitational reception at the Detroit Artists Market.

The show will continue at the gallery in Randolph street through Saturday, June 15. Gallery hours are 10 to 5 o'clock Monday through Saturday.

Recognized as recipient of second prize in the Henry G. Dalton Fellowship competition at the annual Kenyon College Honors Day convocation was senior PHIL PORTER, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Porter, of Hampton road.

SELLING YOUR HOME?

There's a local firm called Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. that has come up with a new idea in selling homes. If successful, it could change their industry in Grosse Pointe considerably. It's called GROUP LISTING, which means they will immediately purchase your home, at your asking price, once you have listed with them. The one circumstance, they say, is that they must have a group of five similar homes before their plan takes effect. Once achieved, they buy all five houses simultaneously. They say it's easier to sell five homes in a group because it's easier on the buyer and much easier to promote. For more information you can call Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087, direct.

Junior Scouts Give Service

When Girl Scouts of Grosse Pointe Woods Junior Troop 1277 decided on a service project, they decided to really provide service. Since last fall they have been devoting efforts and energies to the Grosse Pointe Foundation for Exceptional Children.

Most recently, on Tuesday, May 14, the Scouts gathered at the Foundation, located in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, with buckets and scrub brushes, ready to help clean the play equipment, toys, tables and chairs that are used by Foundation children.

In the area of craft projects the 24-member Troop has made colorful bean bags and large targets for the youngsters to play with as well as soap turtle favors for the children's birthdays.

The girls assisted the teachers by cutting out several hundred paper animals to be used in making booklets.

In the past few months the Scouts have worked directly with the children at the Foundation.

They've played marching games with the boys and girls to help teach coordination.

They've assisted with a

Rites Planned For November

Plans for a late November wedding at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church are being made by Colleen Theresa Ellsworth and Patrick J. Kolar, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Colin M. Ellsworth, of Fairholme road.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Kolar, of Lakepointe avenue.

painting project that could only be done when each child was individually supervised.

In appreciation for its time and efforts Troop 1277 received a personal letter from Dorothy Martens, acting director of the Foundation. Mrs. Martens thanked the Scouts for the service they provided and praised the fine quality of their work.

The girls also received credit toward several Girl Scout badges.

All projects were done under the supervision of Troop Leaders Mrs. James Johnston and Mrs. David Rentschler. Members of Troop 1277, which meets at Ferry School, include Nancy Ambrose,

Museum Hosts Quilt Display

The step-by-step explanation of how hand-woven coverlets and quilts were made in the 19th century is illustrated in a current exhibit, Plain and Fancy-Quilts and Coverlets, now on display at the Detroit Historical Museum.

Included are patchwork, applique and crazy quilts and handwoven coverlets from the Museum's extensive collection.

The Museum is open Tuesdays through Saturdays from 9 to 5 o'clock and Sundays from 1 to 5.

Producing a hand-woven coverlet begins with the raw wool as it comes from the sheep. Visitors are invited to try their own hands at carding the wool, the step prior to spinning it into thread.

Natural dyeing, weaving and spinning are discussed. Spinning and weaving demonstrations are given each Friday from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Quilting dates back to the Romans and probably even earlier, to the Ancient Chinese.

The settlers along the middle Atlantic Coast are credited with the growth, development and new artistic aspects of quilting crafts in Colonial America, where a "quilting bee" was second in importance only to meetings of a religious nature.

During the confinement of winter women would piece and quilt their quilt blocks. Then, in the spring, the quilting frame would be set up, and neighbors and friends invited in for the quilting bee.

is good taste a dangerous thing?

Maybe so . . . because some folks have our line pegged as purely decorative, not down-to-earth. They don't see the fact for the frou-frou. The fact is . . . Cabin Crafts stresses Beauty and the Basics. We have Wild Ones . . . and Safe Ones. Sensationals . . . and Staples like "National Velvet." First Prize For Kathy's Book

Once upon a time, Kathy Groehn Cosseboom, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Groehn, of Lochmoor boulevard, was a NEWS summer intern.

Now she's an author, whose "Grosse Pointe, Michigan: Race Against Race," published by Michigan State University Press in November of 1972, has won first prize for informative books in a biennial (1974) contest sponsored by The National League of American Pen Women.

The League was founded in Washington, D.C., in 1897. Only women who have made professional contributions in music publication, juried art shows or published writings can belong.

It has 6,000 members in 200 local branches in 45 states, the Panama Canal Zone and the District of Columbia.

Kathy received her award, originally announced at the League's biennial meeting in Miami in April from Oklahoma Pen Women President Grace Jackson Penney at a luncheon meeting in Norman, Okla., May 11.

Kathy's based in Norman now, continuing studies, research and teaching assistantship work toward a Ph.D. in American History at the University of Oklahoma—and preparing for her September wedding.

Horticulture-Bonsai Show

The Grosse Pointe Garden Center/Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association Horticulture-Bonsai Show is fast approaching, scheduled for Friday, June 7, in the War Memorial's Fries Crystal Ballroom.

Check next week's column for further information, all you Pointe Green Thumbs. Meanwhile, tell your fruits and flowers to start shaping up for the Big Day.

Offer Buffets Before Theatre

Grosse Pointe War Memorial will offer sunset and candlelight pre-theatre buffets on certain evenings before Grosse Pointe Theatre's June production of Meredith Wilson's "Music Man" in Fries Auditorium. "Music Man" bows at the Center

June 5 and plays through June 15. The theatre buffets will be offered Thursday and Friday nights, June 6 and 7 and 13 and 14.

The buffets provide one of the most beautiful marine and garden views in the country. Pre-dinner punch is served by the fountain in the formal garden, weather permitting, and the buffet begins with a smorgasbord of hors d'oeuvres.

This is followed by a salad table, roast beef and hot casseroles, vegetables and homemade desserts. Individuals, couples or parties may make reservations by sending checks for $7 per person, tax and service included, to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

SELLING YOUR HOME?

There's a local firm called Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. that has come up with a new idea in selling homes. If successful, it could change their industry in Grosse Pointe considerably. It's called GROUP LISTING, which means they will immediately purchase your home, at your asking price, once you have listed with them. The one circumstance, they say, is that they must have a group of five similar homes before their plan takes effect. Once achieved, they buy all five homes simultaneously. They say it's easier to sell five homes in a group because it's easier on the buyer and much easier to promote. For more information you can call Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087, direct.

R. G. Edgar's Track Is Faster Than INDY!

Holding pole position and our pick to receive the checkered flag for selling in record time... is this excellent family house with four bedrooms on the second floor and two more on the third. Gracious, two level foyer and extra large first floor rooms allow plenty of elbow room. The backyard was designed and built with kids in mind. Basketball and deck tennis courts might make this the neighborhood meeting grounds.

Also making its appearance on the Lake Shore "track" is this petite-mansion. A French entry designed by one of the best architectural and engineering teams in our City. This jewel sparkles just a few feet from the shoreline and has five bedrooms, all on the second floor. From the gracious entry foyer, step into the living room, dining room or paneled library facing the lake.

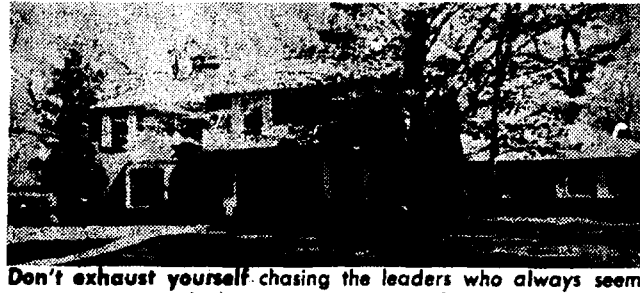

Also making a big splash is this English country house with its sweeping drive and comfortable grounds. Not long ago this one was completely revamped with the ultimate in kitchens and decor. Garage space for an Offenhauser, an Eagle and a McLaren. "Ride out" the summer in your own swimming pool and air conditioning.

This one has a lot of dash from the curb but "under the hood" is where the quality really shows. Put together correctly from the beginning, this architect designed house was a winner from plans to completion. Built for a decorator whose fine taste is evident in every detail. Four family bedrooms and two more over the garage. A two story entrance foyer and step-down living room add the graciousness which will be enhanced by your own good taste.

Just off the turn on Saddle Lane you should pit stop at 444, where you can fulfill your dreams and get out of the rat race of taking care of more yard than you care to. Forget about trying to keep up with the Jones' (Parnelli?), and relax in this meticulously maintained colonial with four bedrooms and a super charged family room.

Don't exhaust yourself chasing the leaders who always seem to come away with the winners. On one of the best streets in the Farms, we are sponsoring this brick colonial with four large bedrooms and three baths on the second floor. There is a large maid's bedroom and bath with entry from the kitchen. Three extra rooms on the main floor to complement the formal living and dining rooms, give you plenty of space to break away from the pack. After you've hot footed yourself over to see this one... cool it in the swimming pool.

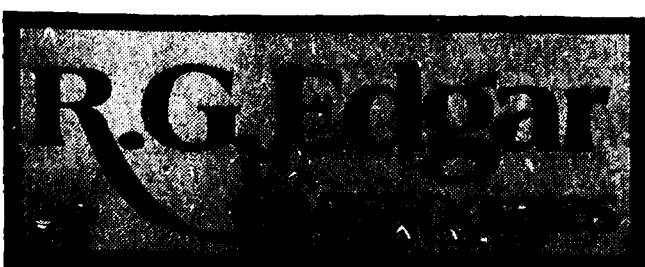

Setting the pace among three bedroom colonials is this racey French influenced entry which boasts two full baths on the second floor and a family room behind the separate dining room. A new kitchen with many built-ins are standard equipment. Central air and a lot of care, could help you want this for your lair.

A real grandstander because it's a winner in so many categories. Five family bedrooms, three more on the third floor for your pit crew. Carriage house plus a two car garage attached to the main house. Greenhouse and separate apartment. Club-size swimming pool. Central air conditioning, with completely new decorating inside and out. Large circular drive plus much more off-street parking area. Buy this one and you'll be the winner. We'll furnish the champagne and kisses.

We're First! if you're thinking of selling too

GREAT LOOKING colonial which comes on just as strongly inside as it does out. Three bedrooms up with a large bathroom with stall shower and tub. The first floor has that all important family room and lavatory. Good basement and extra deep lot.

GREAT, LITTLE ENGLISH with an attached garage and screened and covered porch behind the living room. The paneled party room in the basement is a special feature with its cozy fireplace. The lot is 75 feet wide with good depth. Just a few doors from Windmill Pointe Drive near the pier park.

BY APPOINTMENT PLEASE

THE POPULAR COLONIAL with a hint of Cape Cod appeals to almost everyone from the curb. But wait until you get inside and take in that super family room with natural fireplace. Surprised you'll be to find five bedrooms upstairs, and all this house comes priced to attract a host of buyers.

A "MUST SEE" is this gracious French country house being offered in one of the best locations in Grosse Pointe Farms. From the curb the house appears overpowering, but inside you'll find four comfortable, family bedrooms and two more bedrooms over the attached garage. The first floor has a beautifully proportioned living room which is a step down from the large foyer with its circular staircase. The library is as large as many living rooms and the dining room formal enough for a State dinner.

WE HAVE that hard to find three bedroom, two-and-one-half bath house with large family room. There is also a living room with fireplace, a full dining room and central air-conditioning. This property is on a street of fine homes and is priced at $50,000.

A BEAUTIFUL ENGLISH TUDOR for the discriminating family. This house is well placed on a 160 foot lot. There are five large bedrooms and four baths. The kitchen is a show piece as is the large, heated free form pool — both are recent installations. Three car garage, circular drive are just some of the features, and all this for a fraction of reproduction cost.

A STately HOUSE located in the Farms just a few feet from the Lake has become even more attractive because now it is available for purchase. Designed by Albert Kahn Associates, this petite mansion offers a large entrance foyer with marble floor, a large formal living room with magnificent fireplace; and the dining room, library and living room all face the lake. Five bedrooms and four baths comprise the second floor. This one will appeal to everyone... we wish we had more.

CONSIDERED BY MANY to be one of the best condominium complexes in the Pointe this particular apartment has four bedrooms and two baths on the second floor and two more rooms on the third. There is a den and lavatory on the main floor and large breakfast room to complement the kitchen.

THE QUALITY OF WORKMANSHIP and the character of English architecture combine to give you a most substantial home. This four bedroom condominium has such extras as a modern kitchen, separate breakfast room, first floor library and a slate roof. Reasonably priced.

IF YOU EVER WANTED A LARGER HOME to decorate the way you want it, this colonial could be yours for $48,500. Seven bedrooms on the second floor and three fireplaces on the first (one of which is in the paneled library). We suggest you call us at your earliest convenience.

IF YOUR HUSBAND APPRECIATES the almost maintenance free convenience of a newer home with such items as a gas grill, a real copper hot water heater and if you would like a new kitchen and the luxury of a first floor laundry room plus being close to schools. If the children want a family room with a fireplace and being within walking distance to a playfield with a skating rink. WE THEN HAVE THE HOME FOR ALL OF YOU... call us or drop into our office for details.

ALMOST AN ACRE OF LAND surrounds this beautiful colonial. Four family bedrooms on the second floor and guest quarters on the third floor distinguish this home from the ordinary. A family room which overlooks the illuminated fountain and the privacy of a oak-paneled library presents the air of a small estate.

A CIRCULAR DRIVE marks the entrance of this four bedroom three and a half bath colonial. Just a seven iron from the golf course and a short drive to shopping. Central air conditioning, large family room and sprinkler system are just a few of the fine features this quality home offers.

MRS. JOHN H. WILLIAMS, OF GLEN ARBOR LANE

By Janet Mueller

"I have never done anything that has given me more satisfaction than working with the (Christ Church) Episcopal Churchwomen. These people never say no . . . And I'll miss it: I do not look forward to the end of my term as ECW president."

Betty Williams is surrounded by samples and examples of items being fashioned for next November's Christ Church Fair, the biennial project that raises ALL funds for Christ Church ECW's two-year budget.

There are dolls to one side of her, pillows to another, Christmas ornaments in front of her. She's holding a white-and-silver wreath, perfect decoration for a bridal shower, either hung on a wall or as a table centerpiece, laid flat and circling a candle or a bouquet.

Draped over a nearby chair is an exquisite blanket cover. "That's from the Paris Table. This group does beautiful handwork. It's unique in that it is an on-going group of women who have been meeting every Wednesday through the year, for years."

Preview Scheduled Everything Betty is admiring, and more, will be featured at the Christ Church Fair Preview, scheduled for Thursday, June 6, from 10 to 3 o'clock in the Christ Church Undercroft.

The Preview is the place to order personalized Fair merchandise — a smoked dress for a little girl, for instance, and a doll with a matching dress — or to do some very early Christmas shopping.

It's the place to arrange to have your planter planted by the Fair's Garden Mart ladies, whose green thumbs are legendary. The Garden Mart will be selling all live merchandise, including hanging baskets.

Since parking at Christ Church can be a problem, Previewers may leave their cars at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church parking lot. A shuttle will ferry them to Christ Church.

Husband Is Doctor Betty Williams and her husband, Jack, are both Pointers from "way back. Her mother and father still live in Merriweather road. His mother still lives in Grayton road.

Jack is an M.D., a general practitioner like his father, the late Dr. Clarence J. Williams.

Sue Williams, 18, has just finished her first year at the University of Michigan. Sue is working for her father this summer.

Martha Williams, 17, a junior at Grosse Pointe North High School, plans to go into Nursing and will be in North High's Co-op Nursing Program next year.

Elizabeth Williams, 13, is a seventh grader at Parcels. In School Affairs Both Jack and Betty, off and on for a period of years, have been involved in school affairs. Jack was on the board of the North High Parent Club for three years. Betty is an ex-Barnes School millage chairman and an ex-Barnes PTA board member.

Betty, now a Junior League sustainer, served as chairman of the League's School Volunteer program once upon a time. "At present, I'm really not active in any volunteer work, other than the ECW." She frankly hasn't the time: she works as a librarian, at the Grosse Pointe Central Library on a "regular substitute" basis and as an occasional substitute at the Macomb County Library.

She works because she wants to. The Williams family moved into their present home in Glen Arbor lane — "We didn't know where it was either, until we bought this house," (Glen Arbor, for anyone who STILL doesn't know, is one of those little, "new," circle streets directly opposite North High) — six years ago, and Betty, all her children finally in school, decided to turn over a new leaf with a new house.

night a week at Center Point's free medical clinic.

All are Skiers. All the Williamses are skiers. Jack and Betty have been taking off every chance they get with the Grosse Pointe Ski Club for the past three years. They take off every chance they get — "as often as we can, not as much as we would like" — for family ski weekends up north, too.

When warm weather comes, they head for the Upper Peninsula housekeeping cabin they've taken every summer for 13 years. It's little, very rustic, very simple. Everyone loves it.

"We usually spend three weeks there. Sometimes, the girls and I go up a week early."

Tara, the family's Golden Retriever, vacations separately, at the Dants' Kennel. Tara, incidentally, is NOT named for Scarlet O'Hara's ancestral home. Looking for a name that had some connection with "golden," the Williamses stumbled on "Twenty Karats," turned "Karats" around and came up with "Tarak" dropped the final k.

Not Stupid At All "Look: this is really a stupid story," Betty Williams, a recumbent Tara's tail thumping lazily near her feet, breaks off the saga of How Tara Came to Be Named Tara. Maybe but it's the sort of story every family's annals contain.

Betty avoided tennis for years. "I was no good." Then, about four years ago, she signed up for a Tennis Clinic. "I'm still no good, but I love it."

Now she plays once a week with a group of women, and two out of three Sundays with Jack, in a couples' group.

Before she went back to school, then began working, Betty did a bit of needlepoint, crewel, "all the usual things." She's a good albeit limited seamstress. "I made all my maternity clothes—never any others, because I never learned how to fit things!"

Made Own Draperies She learned how to make a mean drapery though, and made every pair in the house, with the exception of those in the living room. And there's no doubt she could have learned to tailor a mean suit, if she hadn't decided to divert her energies.

"Jack bought me a beautiful sewing machine, but I'm afraid the kids use it more than I do now."

Still, she enjoys handwork when she has the time, and has found time to smock a dress for the Christ Church Fair, and will find time, (in the summer, at the cabin), to knit a few more Fair contributions.

The Fair, after all, provides the funds that keep the Christ Church ECW going. Betty Williams is very pro-Fair.

Supports Programs "This (the Fair) is our ONLY source of money." The ECW uses its Fair-raised budget to support programs in the parish, in the diocese and in the community.

In-parish support goes to projects like baby-sitting service for younger members and lecture series at the Church. "And we helped sponsor last fall's Christ Church Choir trip to New York."

In-diocese support includes donations to the Bishops and Archdeacons Discretionary Fund and to the Diocesan ECW. "We try with at least half, if not more of our funds

BISHOP'S STEW From the supplement to "Joyful Seasons," the Christ Church ECW Book of Celebrations throughout the Liturgical Year.

- 1 pkg. frozen peas
- 1 pkg. frozen baby lima beans
- 1 large bunch carrots, diced
- 1 lb. mushrooms
- 3 cans mushroom soup
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- salt
- pepper
- buttered bread crumbs

Cook frozen peas, frozen baby lima beans and carrots separately until just tender. Clean mushrooms, separating stems and caps. Chop the stems and mix with cooked vegetables. Combine 3 cans of mushroom soup with about 3/4 cup milk and mix this sauce with the vegetables. Season with salt and pepper. Put in a large shallow casserole. Cover with grated Parmesan cheese, then with buttered crumbs. Top with the mushroom caps, brushed with melted butter.

Bake in 350° oven for 1/2 hour. This serves 10, and is a very good Lenten dish. It freezes beautifully, so it can be put into two dishes and one can be frozen for later use.

To reach out into the community," Christ Church ECW have supported organizations within the immediate community, like FLEC, and within the larger metropolitan community, like Mariners' Inn, a home for homeless men. "We enabled them to begin a hot meal program, providing seed money; they've since taken over the program themselves," an inner City Day Camp, an Inkster Day Care Program . . .

Christ Church ECW support has gone and goes to a multitude of metropolitan area agencies, in and out of the Episcopal Church.

Foster Fellowship So the Fair is important for the funds it raises, but there's another purpose, another value behind it.

"If our intention was simply to raise money," Betty Williams explains, "in terms of man hours alone, there has GOT to be an easier way." The Fair is a medium for Christ Church fellowship, a way for women to get together and work together, to know and enjoy one another.

And they do. "The enthusiasm of the chairmen is contagious: Everyone is having a good time." Women do work alone, of course, in their own homes, but a great many Christ Church Fair projects are completed in group sessions. Three workshops, for instance, meet regularly at the Church on Tuesdays.

In Dead Center Betty Williams is in dead center of her two-year term as Christ Church ECW president. "In our organization, with the Fair coming up every two years, a two-year term is almost essential."

She was on the Search committee for Christ Church's new rector. That search took the better part of late spring, summer and early fall, 1973. Then Robert F. McGregor was found. "He has been here since March 1, and everyone is delighted with him."

Betty's ECW bridges the generation gap. "We have women from 22 on up into their 70's. The complexion of the group has changed: there's no longer a separate Young Episcopal Church Women. Any woman of any age will find herself comfortable in our ECW."

The Fair is a generation gap-bridge, too, not only for booth and service committee workers but for shoppers. It offers items for all ages and all interests, from picture frames that can be ordered in special fabrics to match room decors to knitted golf wood covers to "Joyful Seasons," a book of celebrations throughout the Liturgical Year.

Doing Supplement "Joyful Seasons" has been in print a while now, but there's a supplement to it coming out—it's not ready yet, but may be ordered at the Preview—that will complete and complement the original. This week's "Good Taste" features a recipe from that supplement . . . but don't get the idea that "Joyful Seasons" is just a
