PRESIDENT NIXON declared he will not obey a House Judiciary Committee subpoena for 11 additional Watergate tapes and diaries and that any subpoenas received in the future will likewise be rejected. In a letter to committee chairman Peter Rodino, Mr. Nixon insisted once again that the committee already has the full story of Watergate insofar as it relates to presidential knowledge and presidential actions.

Friday, May 24
A 22-YEAR-OLD MAN, holding two guns, hijacked a helicopter and ordered it along a zig-zag route to the top of the Pan Am building in mid-Manhattan, demanding $2 million ransom be delivered by a girl in a bikini. Police said the man, wearing a sawed off shotgun and a zip gun ran up to a mechanic refueling the craft at the 34th Street heliport, poked a gun in his back and ordered him to take off. The man was captured after the Pan Am building when one of his hostages overpowered him and police stormed the helicopter.

Saturday, May 25
WATERGATE SPECIAL PROSECUTOR LEON K. JAWORSKI has appealed directly to the Supreme Court, asking for a speedy decision on whether President Nixon has the right to withhold evidence from the Watergate trials. The petition was filed just two hours after U.S. District Judge Gerhard Gesell had warned that presidential failure to turn over subpoenaed evidence was leading one of the key Watergate trials toward dismissal. Judge John Sirica issued a subpoena on April 18, requiring the White House to turn over 64 tapes and documents and the White House has tried to quash that order.

Sunday, May 26
BRITISH PRIME MINISTER HAROLD WILSON said his government will not yield to militant Protestant extremists who have forced Northern Ireland into what he termed the "gravest crisis in her history," through an 11-day strike. In a broadcast to the nation via television and radio from London, Mr. Wilson said the government would not negotiate with "law breakers" who are intimidating the Northern Ireland population. However, contrary to press speculation, the prime minister did not say whether troops would be used to restore essential services in the province.

SOUTH VIETNAMESE PRESIDENT NGUYEN VAN THIEU's assistant for political affairs has been fired and arrested as part of an alleged Communist espionage ring. Nguyen Van Ngan, one of Thieu's most trusted aides, is suspected of aiding the Viet Cong financially and arranging to transfer medical supplies to them, sources said. His bank accounts have reportedly been frozen, and his property confiscated. South Vietnamese authorities are still working to track down other members of the ring to which Ngan allegedly belonged.

FRIENDS AND FANS OF DUKE ELLINGTON flocked to his funeral on Monday to pay tribute to the famed musician and composer who died of pneumonia on Friday. More than 10,000 mourners jammed the Episcopal Cathedral Church of Saint John the Divine on Manhattan's upper west side, as a funeral cortege proceeded up Broadway and across 125th street. The funeral service was a combination of High Episcopal lessons and sermons and musical tributes from Duke Ellington's friends and protégés such as Ella Fitzgerald, Count Basie, Pearl Bailey and Earl Hines.

Names Trio To Woods' Commission

Mayor Pinkos Hopes To Add More To Senior Citizens' Group

By Roger A. Waha

Three men have joined four women on The Woods' Senior Citizens' Commission as Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos recently appointed the trio to the group, which was created by the council at the regular meeting Monday, May 6, to provide input to the seniors regarding various programs and activities.

The new appointees include Andrew J. Campbell, of North Oxford road, R. E. Boyd, of Clairview court, and Harold Lyndrup, of Roslyn road, who join Irene Sutton, of Brys drive, Hedy Cassel, of Hawthorne road, Rose Blaskey, of Roslyn road, and Catherine Brophy, of Vernier road.

To Add More
"I hope to appoint a couple of more people to the Commission," said Mayor Pinkos, who added he wants the group to be a "hard-driving, go get them" type of organization. The Commission is scheduled to hold its first organizational meeting within two weeks, (possibly on Thursday, June 6), the mayor added.

The NEWS contacted Mrs. Sutton, who's had an extensive background in senior citizen programs, on what she feels are the immediate plans of the Commission along with some of its objectives.
"We must meet and appoint a chairman and we need to spell out the needs of senior citizens in this city," said Mrs. Sutton, who was an organizer and director of the "Senior Cruisers" for 17 years in St. Clair Shores. There, she planned and helped coordinate senior citizen activities and saw the group grow from 10 to about 600 people. She retired from the post two years ago and would now like to see similar groups in other cities.

Crowds at Pointe Parks Below Previous Holidays

More than 15,000 persons utilized the facilities of the Pointe parks over the long holiday weekend, according to figures released by local officials. The number totaled does not include The Shores, where the attendance at its George Osius Park was unavailable at the time the NEWS approached its information deadline.

All of the Pointe parks, however, opened their marinas for boating enthusiasts on May 1, except The Park and The Shores which officially began their boating season on April 15. The total attendance showed that although hundreds of residents and guests used the parks on May 25, 26 and 27, the over-all figure is low compared to last year

Outstanding Blood Drive Conducted at South High Nets Red Cross 234 Pints

Student Association Sponsors Effort Under Direction of Mathematics Teacher Carl Justice

By Roger A. Waha

What has been termed as an "absolutely outstanding" blood drive by South High School Principal Jerry Gerich, was conducted by the Southeastern Michigan Chapter of the American National Red Cross Thursday-Friday, May 23-24, at the school. The drive was sponsored by South's Student Association, reported mathematics teacher Carl Justice, 31, the principal force in coordinating the school's "first ever" effort.

Mr. Justice, who's chairman of the blood bank for Grosse Pointe Public School employees and the vice-president of the Grosse Pointe Community Blood Council, also termed the "year in the making" drive a good one.

Total Program
Abbie E. Thiss, Red Cross blood program field representative, said during the two days 306 people offered to give blood, 72 were rejected and a total of 234 pints were obtained.

Thursday was primarily a day for citizens to contribute although some students also gave blood. On that day, 175 people came out, 34 were rejected and 141 pints were gained. On Friday, which was mainly the students' day, 131 people offered, 38 were rejected and 93 pints were garnered.

Although specific figures regarding student response weren't available at this time, Ms. Thiss estimated the students contributed around 100 pints.

Because of the drive, South students and their families will be covered for one year as part of the Red Cross' total group coverage blood program, she said. While 234 pints were given, Ms. Thiss said if there's a need for 400 pints, "they can get it." The main point she made was the Red Cross effort to provide total coverage for the entire community. She added this program was on an annual basis and that it must be renewed every year via a drive.

Lochmoor Club Proud Of Facility

Completion of $700,000 Tennis, Golf Complex Geared for October

By Roger A. Waha

"The finest in the Midwest" is how Thomas Russell, president of the Lochmoor Club, describes a $700,000 tennis facility to be completed by October.

Enclosing 29,000 square feet, the new building will be larger than Lochmoor's clubhouse, built in 1969. In addition to housing four tennis courts, the facility will handle golf bag and cart storage, and will replace an old stucco building demolished this week.

Four outdoor tennis courts and two paddle tennis platforms will remain.

Set Groundbreaking
Groundbreaking is set for later this month, with completion by October 1. The Woods Council approved the building program following a public hearing at the regular council meeting Monday, May 6.

Clarence Bessert, a retired builder, is the general chairman in charge of supervising the tennis house construction. Heading the club's technical committee is Alfred Entenman, Jr., president of Giffels Associates, one of the country's largest architectural, engineering and planning firms.

Serving under Mr. Entenman are Carl Fromm, Joseph Loveley, Fred Markward, Robert Martin and Dr. John F. Pagel.

W. George Kramer, a partner in the accounting firm of Price Waterhouse and Company and vice-president of Lochmoor, is chairman of the finance committee, and Kenneth Hoffman and Herbert Epstein serve with him.

Enhance Area
Donald V. Miller is chairman of the operations committee, which includes Frederick L. Kahle and Dr. Joseph R. Mikula. Handling legal matters will be attorneys William Killebrew and Joseph Mihelich.

The coordinating committee includes Dr. James O'Berski, Judge George Bashara, Jack Demorest and Donald Wood, all Lochmoor directors.

Lochmoor officials have stressed use of the new facility will be restricted to members of the golf club and that the new construction will enhance the area. They felt it was necessary to build the facilities at this time "to preserve the family character of the club for the use of wives and children of members."

The architect for the project is Ferruccio P. DeConti, who built the Pine Lake Tennis House. The Garrison Company will handle construction.

Seek Permission To Put Seawall Across Lakeland

Owners of Adjacent Property Would Pay Construction Costs; Public Opinion Sought by City Council

By Kathy Duff

Two City residents who own the lakeside properties at the foot of Lakeland avenue, appeared before the City Council Wednesday night, May 22, to make the councilmen an offer.

The residents, Dr. S. J. Moroun and Dr. Robert K. Whiteley, want to build a breakwall between their two properties which would span the public right-of-way at the foot of Lakeland. In return for their footing the bill for the breakwall, they are asking that The City relinquish its title for the right-of-way land and that the property become a part of the adjacent private properties.

If the action were taken, the public could no longer launch boats at the old boat ramp at the foot of Lakeland. It came out, during the course of Council discussion, that the ramp was originally built to haul ice from Lake St. Clair in the days before refrigeration.

Residents Complain
In a separate action, 26 Lakeland residents, representing 12 properties, signed a petition which called for the closing of the south end of the street to public access. The residents felt that the public use of the boat ramp was a nuisance.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach said that residents in the past had called to complain of the nuisance, but that this was the first time a formal petition had been submitted.

The question of the closing down of the public boat ramp is somewhat of a philosophical one at the moment, since the entire area has been under water for the past year and a half. In order to keep Lake St. Clair from washing into Lakeland avenue at the present high water level, the City had to build a crude seawall of dirt and concrete slabs. There is often a pool of water at the foot of the street when there is overflow.

Watchful YSD Detective Catches Bike Thieves

The watchful eye of Youth Service Division Detective Wayne Baum led to the arrest of two Detroit men, both of whom were charged with possession of stolen property, on Monday, May 20.

Howard Frank Mordello, 19, of 9228 Grayton, and David Joseph Leroy, 20, of 9221 Grayton, were arraigned before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis the same day and both pled guilty to the charge. Each was sentenced to a fine of $300 or 20 days in DeHoCo, (Detroit House of Correction), plus one year's probation. Neither could pay the fine and were taken to DeHoCo the following day.

At the same time, Mordello pled not guilty to a charge of driving on a suspended

New Budget Given Okay By Council

19.15-Mill Rate Highest Of All Pointes; General Fund Is $1,625,313

By Kathy Duff

The City of Grosse Pointe became the fourth of the five Pointes to approve its 1974-75 budget at its council meeting Wednesday night, May 22. Maintaining a time-honored tradition, it will again have the highest tax rate in Grosse Pointe, namely 19.15 mills, a raise of one mill over the past year's budget.

Earlier this month, The Farms set its rate of 17.24 mills, a hike from the previous 15.83 mills. The Park also sustained a one mill raise, from 16.5 to 17.5 mills. The Woods set its tax rate at 9.96, up one-half mill from 9.48, and maintained its bargain basement tax rate. The Shores Council is expected to set the village tax rate at its Tuesday, June 18, meeting.

Same Rate as '73

The City Council approved a $1,625,313 General Fund budget for its fiscal year beginning July 1, 1974. The budget is based on a property tax of 19.15 mills for operating purposes and 2.03 mills for debt obligations. It amounts to a tax increase of one mill, or $1 per $1,000 of valuation.

Last year, The City reduced taxes one mill, so The City tax rate for the fiscal 1973 year is the same as it was for fiscal 1972. During this time, there were no increases in property taxes, except in the case of new construction.

Breakdown Given

The General Fund budget appropriations are as follows: administration and clerk $88,313; accounting, auditing and board of review $84,025; police and court $416,125; fire $305,160; public works $356,110; sewage pumping $22,330; parks and recreation $100,740; contingency $5,000; debt retirement $110,905; public improvements and other $109,583; and highway fund contribution $26,650.

The Council also approved a Federal Revenue Sharing fund budget of $39,500, a Motor Vehicle Highway Fund budget of $120,450 and Enterprise Fund budget projections of $167,920 for the Water Supply and Sewage Disposal Fund and $165,370 for the Automobile Parking System Fund. These funds are supported by federal and state shared revenues and user charges unlike the General Fund, which is supported primarily by property taxes.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach said that the proposed budget was based on

Woods Cites Spelling King

Marla Eppinga, who was recently named champion of a spelling contest held by the Detroit News Metropolitan Spelling Bee, received the praise of The Woods Council, who honored its local resident for her accomplishment at the regular meeting Monday, May 13.

After the session had reached its conclusion, the chair directed the matter of a proposed proclamation commemorating Miss Eppinga be made part of the agenda, and Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan moved that Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos be authorized to sign such a proclamation. Her colleagues unanimously agreed.

The measure notes the council "desires to encourage intellectual pursuits and development of expertise in the use of the English language," and then cites Miss Eppinga, a student at Grosse Pointe Christian Day School, for her accomplishment which should "receive the recognition and acclaim" of Woods citizens.

At the same time, the proclamation expresses encouragement and success to her at the National Spelling Bee set for Sunday-Saturday, June 2-8, in Washington, D.C.

lar programs and activities get started in The Woods.

"We have to get a room and a meeting place on a regular basis," she said, and then explore such needs as housing, employment, health and welfare and group activities and fellowship "for people our own age."

Community Service

Mrs. Sutton stressed a number of points including the wasting of talent on the part of senior citizens in the community. "In group activities, senior citizens can contribute their skills and talents and provide a need for their services," she stated.

At the same time, Mrs. Sutton hopes to get senior citizens involved in community service work — to help those in need in The Woods.

She has been thinking about a senior achievement type of program, patterned after Junior Achievement activities where stock would be sold with the citizens managing the business, producing articles and then selling them with ultimate disbandment. Again, she stressed the reservoir of creative talent and its use in relation to this.

Quick Return

In reviewing the enormous variety of activities in which the "Senior Cruisers" participated, she cited picnics, luncheons, meetings, a bowling league, swim groups, cycling, arts and crafts, plus others. "I'd like to see the same thing done in Grosse Pointe Woods," she said.

And as for her quick return to action after her retirement, Mrs. Sutton said, "I can't stay at home when I know so many people need my services."

Finally, in a related matter, a part time director of senior citizens activities in The Woods is scheduled to be appointed sometime in July. This person, who is scheduled to be paid on an hourly basis, will work closely with the Commission.

medical background, a check of his blood pressure and temperature, plus a blood test. If a donor passes, he goes to one of the half dozen tables in the gym to give blood.

He stays on the table for five to seven minutes. Then, it was on to the canteen where he could "recuperate" with some coffee and doughnuts. The overall process, she said, takes a minimum of 40 minutes.

As students and adults waited their turn Friday morning, Donald Morant, Red Cross field representative, looked over the operation and said a pint of blood can be used for around four to seven individuals—not just one person. A pint can be broken down into various components including white cells, red cells, plasma.

Mr. Justice reminded residents that they may participate once again during the War Memorial's blood drive scheduled for Thursday, August 15.

As one of the many posters that filled South hallways said, "Today you may not be dying to give blood—tomorrow you may be dying to get it—get involved . . . give a helping arm, be a blood donor today."

Study Change Of Street Name

One of the drawbacks of a lakeside community is the number of streets which will have the word "lake" in their name. Such a problem came before The City Council on Wednesday night, May 22, when a few residents of Lakeside court proposed that the street be renamed "Lakeside place". The street is located right next to Lake court.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach said that the residents had been polled and that it turned out only two wanted the name change. Most of the other residents had grown accustomed to the name and had not experienced any confusion with mailing addresses.

City Attorney Richard Hinks indicated that there would be a great deal of red tape to go through before a street name could be legally changed.

In The Pointe, besides Lakeside court and Lake court, there are streets named Lakecrest lane, Lakeland avenue, Lakeland court, Lakepointe avenue, Lakeview avenue, Lakeview court, Lake Shore road, Lake Shore lane and Lake Shore drive. And that's not even counting Fairlake lane and Harbor Hill.

FLEC Reports on Activities

At the Grosse Pointe Family Life Education Council's (FLEC), annual meeting held Wednesday, May 1, participants heard highlights of the group's activities over the past year, including the initiation of three new programs.

Dialogue, a new adult hotline organized by Mrs. Samuel Ulmer, and manned by volunteers trained in listening skills, operates Mondays and Wednesdays, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The service has been made possible through an anonymous donor.

Chairman of the Alcohol Education Study Committee, Mrs. Robert Sullivan, reported the group has completed its study and a permanent committee will be formed to carry out its recommendations which include pressing for an alcohol treatment facility in the Grosse Pointe area, distributing alcohol resource information to doctors, schools, and churches, and contacting service groups to share alcohol information.

Twelve families have utilized the Group Treatment Program for Teenagers 14 to 17, under the direction of Dr. Robert Niccolini and groups for teenagers and parents have been set up.

Youth programs highlights included Center Point Crisis Center, which received $915 calls last year. Sister Sean Martin, head of Center Point, reported a new trend that more youths are now permitting coordinators to contact their parents to facilitate communication.

The Voluntary Medical Clinic saw 1,210 patients in 1973, compared to 872 during the previous 12 months, and the number of positive cases of gonorrhea quadrupled. This clinic serves Grosse Pointe and other areas.

The Student Volunteer Program placed approximately 450 students and The Methadone Withdrawal Clinic, also under the direction of Dr. Niccolini, is now terminating because adolescent heroin addiction has diminished in this area.

Dr. Niccolini pointed out that the drug problem has shifted to barbiturates, marijuana, and alcohol. The group treatment program was started to meet this need.

Mrs. Mary Evelyn Self, education chairman, listed new films available to the public, including "Conspiracy of Silence," an alcohol film, and "VD: The Hidden Epidemic," donated by the Grosse Pointe Jaycees.

Charles Parcells, treasurer, reported that although FLEC is currently in a strong cash position, its memberships and contributions are down $5,000 from a year ago. The organization is making continued efforts to enlarge its financial base.

In his President's Message John H. Williams, M.D., said, "FLEC will continue to serve as a guide and reference center to stabilize and strengthen the family unit. We will try to help all appropriate community groups in furtherance of such purpose. We will back away when the services are provided by others and will step in to provide direction or help when we perceive a vacuum to exist."

"A community with real concern for the quality of family life will make our task easier. Our ideal goal would be to be so successful that we no longer needed to exist," Dr. Williams stated.

City Taxes

present city service levels and that no new programs, activities or personnel were included in the budget.

Have Same Problems

The City is faced with the same problem that faces all the other Pointe communities: the escalating cost of supplies and personal services. Mr. Kressbach said that items such as gasoline, street resurfacing costs, pool chemicals, postage and rock salt showed unit cost increases from 11 to over 100 percent.

As far as future years, the city manager feels that The City's tax base growth will be insufficient to offset the rapidly advancing prices and that the increases will have to be absorbed by higher taxes or reduced service levels.

He also said that the capital improvement appropriation, although large, is still $10,000 to $20,000 below the level needed to keep up with street resurfacing and other equipment replacement and capital improvement needs.

The budget was passed unanimously by The City Council. Mayor John L. King said that every item in the budget had been carefully examined by the council members and that he hoped The City could maintain its high level of service to its residents despite the rising costs.

Adjourn Trial of 2 Suspects

The Wayne County Circuit Court trial date for two men, both of whom are charged with receiving and concealing stolen property over $100, has been adjourned from Thursday, May 23, to Monday, June 10, Woods police reported.

Walter Joseph Cierpial, 21, 3334 East Ferry, Detroit, and Daniel Sherwood Gibbs, 20, 11117 Borgman, Belleville, along with John Preston Rials, 20, 26314 Cahalan, Roseville, were nabbed on March 19 by Woods police. Similar charges were dropped against Rials as he is being prosecuted in St. Clair Shores on a breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling charge.

The trio were arrested when Woods Officer Russell Allard stopped their auto on Mack at Manchester with one headlight illuminated. Police then found a color TV and a black and white TV set, along with a record player and an AM-FM radio, inside the vehicle.

Investigation revealed these items were taken during a burglary of a St. Clair Shores home.

At the same time, officers learned that Rials was suspected of being involved in some 60-65 burglaries in The Woods, Farms, Roseville and Clinton Township. Fourteen break-ins were cleared in The Woods through the arrest of Rials while three were cleared in The Farms, 19 in Roseville and 25 in Clinton Township.

Woman Finds Rusty Handgun

A rusty handgun recovered by a Mt. Clemens woman as she was walking along the breakwall on Lakeshore road on Sunday, May 19, was found to have been stolen from a car sales agency in Detroit on February 25, 1969.

The woman, Mrs. Emily Robson of 33443 Cheryl lane, told Farms police that she and her husband were walking along the breakwall when she spotted the weapon, picked it up and took it home.

When she got home, she said, she cleaned the handle of the gun, a .38 caliber revolver, and discovered it was a S&W (Smith and Wesson). She phoned Shores police, who informed her to call the Farms department, since the weapon was found in their jurisdiction area.

Farms authorities made arrangements with Mrs. Robson to take the revolver to her place of employment in St. Clair Shores, where they picked it up.

At the Farms station, the gun's serial number was checked, and a teletype was sent to the Michigan State Police Record Bureau on the Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN). The return information disclosed that the gun had been stolen more than five years ago from the agency located in Livernois avenue, Detroit.

How the revolver came into the Farms and on the breakwall is a mystery, Farms police said. The weapon was released to Detroit authorities for further disposition.

Tomorrow is the day that the thing you didn't put off today will begin to sprout.

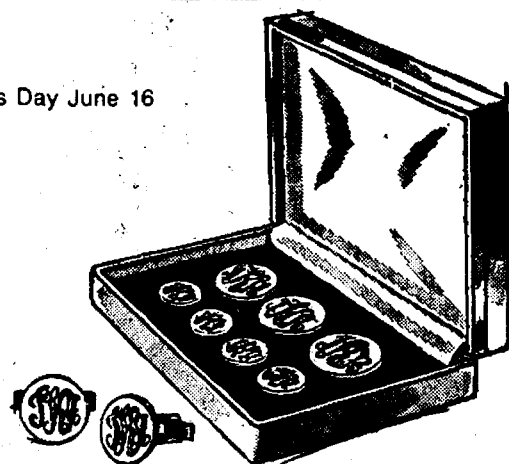

The kids are out of school now for summer vacation and many mothers out of patience.

Found Guilty in Meter Case

A City man, charged with interference with the public safety department, was found guilty by a jury of six people in The Woods Municipal Court Wednesday, May 22.

Martin B. Potter, 38, of 301 Roosevelt place, was assessed $150 court costs, fined $100 and placed on one year's probation by Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis. The conditions of the probation include paying all unpaid tickets from any community and to appear in court on all future tickets on the date given on the ticket, according to court reports.

In the March 14 edition of the NEWS, a "Letter to the Editor" from Mr. Potter was published. It stressed his "experience" after he was given a ticket for overtime parking on Mack avenue. He then put pennies in some expired meters along Mack while walking in front of a meter maid.

Mr. Potter also expressed concern about his treatment "for such a minor incident." He said he was confronted by four scout cars, draped over the trunk of a car, held and handcuffed with his hands behind his back, searched and taken to the station, where he was fingerprinted, photographed and locked in a cell. He was subsequently released on $25 bond.

Police reported Mr. Potter fed about 10 meters and prevented the complainant, (meter maid Susan Thomas), from issuing meter violations, preventing her from discharging her official duties.

Public Safety Director Henry Marchand had earlier told the NEWS in reply to Mr. Potter's statements that no one is brought into the station unless they are searched and handcuffed. This, he said, was for the protection of the officers and the defendant.

The director also stated, regarding the fingerprinting process, that anyone who's charged with an ordinance violation and/or crime in The Woods is automatically fingerprinted, a department policy.

Receives Citizen Citation

By Kathy Duff

LEON SEHOIAN, of Colonial road, recently received the Concerned Citizen Award from the Lawyers' Wives association. He was cited for being on call 24 hours a day to assist in lake rescues. However, his citizen involvement extends to the greater Detroit area, since he is often called upon by local police departments to recover submerged guns, knives and stolen cars for evidence in criminal proceedings.

But it's not just because of his scuba diving skills that Mr. Sehoian supports his local police department. He has very strong feelings on the subject.

"My whole family leaned towards law people. My father was a deputy sheriff in Wyoming. By working with law people, I know that the only way for a law enforcement agency to be effective is by the citizens supporting it."

"It used to be that kids respected the police officers, and now they don't seem to. Citizens have to be 100 percent supportive of their police departments. As in any profession, there will be some bad police officers, but the majority of them are highly dedicated. Our police officers in The Shores really care about the residents. I know, because I've seen them in action."

Came from Ecorse

Mr. Sehoian has lived the last 15 years on Colonial road with his wife, Joan, and their three sons, Bill, Alan and David. He moved to The Pointe from Ecorse, after he had been in business on Mack avenue in The City for five years. He feels as positively about The Pointe as he does about the police departments.

"People should realize what we have here," Mr. Sehoian commented. "We have great park facilities and it's a great place to live. I know because I've lived out of Grosse Pointe and I know what we have going for us here. People who complain about things here should leave."

Recently, four Shores officers took a scuba diving course in St. Clair Shores and are now certified. For years, Mr. Sehoian has pressed for the establishment of a scuba diving corps within The Shores Public Safety Department.

Timing Is Critical

"In any lake rescue, the timing is critical and a matter of seconds can make the difference. I think any community on the water should have trained scuba divers."

Mr. Sehoian has been called in both the summer and the winter to retrieve bodies from the lake. In the winter, it is usually the result of a car veering off Lake Shore road and plunging into the lake. In the summer, it is often the result of boating accidents.

He is able to locate submerged guns and knives by the use of his underwater metal detector equipment.

"It used to be that criminals could throw guns or knives into the lake and think that it was a graveyard. But with this equipment, we can locate the weapons and use them as evidence in the cases."

Has Great Collection

Scuba diving remains primarily a sport for Mr. Sehoian and one wall of his office is filled with bottles he has found while diving, part of his 500-bottle collection. One of them is an old Stroh's pop bottle. Also on the wall is a shell of a Loggerhead turtle.

"It was just like bringing up a bucking bronco," Mr. Sehoian recalled. "That thing weighed 250 pounds. At home, I also have a collection of coins I have found underwater. You wouldn't believe what this lake holds."

Scuba diving isn't the only thing Mr. Sehoian has contributed to The Pointe. In 1972, he went to Washington D.C. at the height of the busing issue and presented U.S. Senator Robert Griffin with a petition signed by 5,000 people against busing.

Must Get Involved

"You can't sit back and let something happen that you know is so wrong. You have to get involved. At work, I heard how upset the mothers were about their kids being bused all over the place. Busing's not the answer, and we wanted to let the people in Washington know how we felt."

Mr. Sehoian was recommended for the Concerned Citizen Award by Shores Director of Public Safety Joseph Vitale. The Lawyers' Wives asked each of the five Pointe police chiefs to recommend citizens who had made outstanding contributions to the community in the past year. Mr. Sehoian was one of two persons selected to receive the award.

and that police have to check such situations as this. Both men said they understood.

While talking to Mordello and Leroy, Detective Baum noticed a Woods license on the yellow five-speed bike and a Shores license on the green 10-speed cycle. At the same time, the detective spotted a pair of red bolt cutters under the passenger's seat. The men said they were coming from a bike shop where the cycles had undergone repairs, police stated.

However, investigation revealed that both bikes were stolen from racks at Barnes School after chains locking them had been cut.

Police said Mordello told them they went to Barnes and took the yellow bike after severing the chain with a bolt cutter. Meanwhile, Leroy told officers he took the green bike after using the bolt cutter.

Both men were charged under a local ordinance.

Two Citizens Nab Suspect In Bicycle Theft Incident

An 18-year-old Detroit youth, based upon a warrant from the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, has been charged with two counts of larceny over $100 and two counts of receiving and concealing stolen property over $100 stemming from an incident in The Shores early Friday morning, May 17.

Kenneth Carter Bednarchik, who was apprehended by two citizens, was arraigned before Shores Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis on the 17th. His examination date was scheduled for yesterday, Wednesday, May 29. On the 17th, Bednarchik posted 10 percent of a $1,000 bond and was released pending his examination date.

The suspect is allegedly involved in taking two 10-speed bicycles, one from a Lakeshore road residence and the other from the home of a Webber place citizen.

A 19-year-old Shores man told police he and his friend, a 20-year-old Woods man, (both of whom requested that their names not be used), spotted two youths on 10-speed bikes in the area of 69 Webber place. The man stated the youths then jumped off the bikes and ran into the bushes.

After returning to the home of The Shores man, the pair drove west on Webber place

Lady Recovers Snatched Purse

A 58-year-old Detroit woman was the victim of a purse snatching Saturday, May 18, at the rear of Wrigley's Market, 19231 Mack avenue. The woman, who originally contacted Detroit police because she thought the location was in that city, called Woods police over two hours later and reported the incident and the recovery of the purse.

She told Woods Officer Arthur Gekiere she was exiting the market and was passed by the culprit as she walked towards her car. The man turned around and snatched her purse from the grocery cart and ran to a waiting auto, occupied by another person, which drove away.

The lady said her purse contained $10 in bills and identification, and added it was recovered on Chalmers in Detroit.

Police said the suspect was described as a white male, between 18-24 years of age, about 150 pounds and of thin build. He had blond shoulder-length hair and wore a gray or khaki shirt and pants and tennis shoes.

The victim stated the right side of the man's face appeared badly injured or bloody. She felt his face was injured previously or that he had a birth defect.

School Group's Request Denied

Citizens for Education (CFE) asked The City Council for the use of the City Parking Garage for a fund-raising party at the council meeting Wednesday night, May 22. They wanted to rent the building prior to its anticipated opening in late June, preferably on a Thursday night when the Village stores would be open.

Mayor John L. King mentioned The City's policy of non-involvement with political groups. When asked his opinion, City Attorney Richard Hinks said that renting the parking structure to a group would jeopardize the structure's tax exempt status as a parking facility.

The council voted unanimously to deny the request.

The CFE request was submitted by Robert H. Lees, vice-president-special events, of Lincoln road. The proposal called for a pizza party, from 5:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., which would be open to the community. The organizers were planning to use the top deck of the building if it was nice weather or the lower deck if rain threatened. They also planned to hire a band.

Woods Grants Pool, Park Use

The Woods Council unanimously gave its permission for the utilization of the Lake Front Park pool on the part of the Board of Education for its summer recreation program for retarded children.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, May 6.

The youngsters will use the park and pool facilities from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon on June 21, 24 and 28, July 1, 8, 12, 15, 19, 22, 26 and 29 and August 2, 5 and 9.

Sign Request Vetoed by City

Ben Shaw, president of "Here and Now Shop", 16839 Kercheval avenue, appeared before The City Council Wednesday, May 22, to request a sign permit.

The proposed sign, which would measure 16 by two feet, met the general guidelines followed by The City Council for business identification signs except that Mr. Shaw wanted to have the tradename "Levi" on it. He explained that his shop carried exclusively Levi merchandise, yet that "Levi" was not part of the company's legal name because it was part of the Levi Strauss company name.

Mayor John L. King explained to Mr. Shaw that the use of the word "Levi" on the sign would constitute advertising, and that The City only allowed signs for the identification of a store. He cited past examples of a drug store wishing to put "liquor" on its sign and a candy store wishing to print trade names of candy on its awnings. Both requests were denied.

A vote was taken and the council voted unanimously to deny the addition of the word "Levi" on the sign, but they did approve the other features of the proposed sign. They also wished Mr. Shaw success with his store which opened three weeks ago.

It is not a simple matter to live a simple life today.

City Reviews Parking Rates

The City Council took action on two city parking lot matters at its Wednesday, May 22, meeting.

The first action concerned the raising of the rental rate for monthly parking leases from $7.50 to $8.25 per month per space in city owned parking areas. City Manager Thomas Kressbach said that operating costs have steadily increased and the asphalt resurfacing costs had shot up 48 percent.

The $7.50 rate was established in 1969 and remained one of the lowest monthly lease rates in the Detroit metropolitan area. Mr. Kressbach said that the new rate would keep City parking spaces in the low rate bracket.

The councilmen unanimously voted to raise the rate, effective July 1, 1974.

The second action dealt with National Garages, Inc., the company which has operated the City's seven parking lots since 1958. Due to the anticipated opening of the multi-level parking structure behind Jacobson's this summer and the opening of many new parking spaces, The City proposed a change in the operation rate.

Instead of paying National Garages, Inc., $1 per month per space and five percent of net operating profit, The City will pay 85 cents and four percent of net operating profit per space.

The City Council, after commending city officials on their bargaining, quickly approved the adjusted rate structure.

Seawall

One of the Lakeland residents, in stressing the need for a good seawall, said that the pool provides a good breeding spot for mosquitoes.

Would Match Lines

The area in question is a triangular piece of land about 110 feet in length. The two doctors said that they would build the seawall between 10 and 25 feet further out than the present property lines. This would bring their property in line with The City Park property and the neighboring Warren S. Wilkinson property.

The City Council, after hearing the matter, said that the proposal would be taken under consideration by the council and would be reviewed by Mr. Kressbach and City Attorney Richard Hinks. In making their reports back to the Council, the City staff will study the proposal in terms of legality, cost analysis and public reaction to the closing of the launching facility.

The Council is expected to conduct further discussion on the request at its Monday, June 17, council meeting.

Area Parks

The second highest number was reported by the Farms, where about 520 visited the Municipal Pier-Park on Friday; approximately 1,000 on Sunday; and the largest total, 1,600 on Monday.

Attendance at the Woods' Lakeland Park, located in St. Clair Shores, was revealed at only 290 on Friday; 688 on Sunday; and 1,272 on Monday, with these figures including guests.

The City disclosed a total of 1,579 persons using its Norbert P. Neff Memorial Park, setting the figures at 255 on Friday; 599 on Sunday, and 725 on Monday.

'Bike Day'

(Continued from Page 1) filled the small councilroom so that additional chairs had to be brought in. In their original proposal, the Scouts said that they hoped to learn about the democratic process by submitting their request through local government channels.

"At the Farms Council meeting, there were 45 minutes of city business before the trustees came to our request on the agenda," Mrs. Price said. "I think the girls understood most of the council proceedings."

The Girl Scouts proposed the bike day after hearing about the very successful bike day held in Garden City last fall. Besides Girl Scouts, they were going to enlist the aid of local Boy Scouts to help patrol the day of the event.

Shores Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale submitted a traffic control plan to the councilmen which called for three overtime police officers and the placing of 156 "lane cones" along the route. Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber submitted a five-page report to The Farms Council which called for seven overtime officers and overtime expenses close to $1,000.

"GRAND PRIZE" Gypsum improves drainage, too," reminds Jerry Baker, America's master gardener and author of "Plants Are Like People."

If you have on your property a single American Elm, you have a specimen of what botanists have described as the most beautiful thing that grows in the Western Hemisphere. No other tree is comparable to this unique American species that rises to more majestic height, with more gracefully arched branches than elms in any other part of the world.

It is an ornament to your home and property that adds unequalled dignity and charm. Its loss would leave a scar that would never completely heal. For your own enjoyment of their beauty, your elms merit the best care you can provide. But even more! — the elms that grace your home belong also to the nation — and to the future. You are the honored custodian of part of a nation's heritage of beauty. And yours is the responsibility to protect and preserve it for the inspiration and enjoyment of generations to come.

Invaluable . . .
The aesthetic value of a mature, majestic elm is beyond consideration of price. It can be measured only in terms of its loss. There is no replacement.

"How much is your home worth without its elms?" is a question few elm owners care even to consider. But is certain that in terms of real estate, the value of an elm represents a large factor in the value of the time it shades. Where specimen elms have fallen to disease, the value of costly property has fallen with them.

Give the care that will safeguard them from Dutch elm disease, your elms have a life expectancy of three hundred years. Surely the inspiration and enjoyment they can afford you and your heirs, merit the cost of preservation.

Not only for their aesthetic value but for their beneficial effect on the environment, your elms merit all the care you can provide. Their cooling shade actually reduces summer temperatures 15° to 25° and they help purify the air you breathe by utilizing carbon dioxide and liberating oxygen. As a factor in noise abatement, tree lined streets absorb a high percentage of sound reducing the nervous strain from mounting city traffic.

At last real hope for our elm trees — Benlate has been registered in Michigan for Dutch elm disease prevention and control. Benlate is a fungicide material, which when injected as part of our specialized elm care program, will in most cases prevent Dutch elm disease. Our men have completed the Benlate Injection Seminar, and we are so confident of our specialized elm care program that we will remove FREE of charge any trees that become infected with D.E.D. after our treatment.

Even elms that have been infected with D.E.D. can now be saved if caught in time. Surveillance is the key. Elms should be checked daily during June, July and August. At any sign of wilting or yellowing, which is called flagging, which appears in the crown of the tree; should any limb or series of limbs show any signs of wilting or yellowing of the leaves; call immediately for inspection and diagnosis. Call the same day. We have 24-hour answering service. We cannot guarantee curing an infected tree, but your chances of cure are about 60%.

Our preventive specialized elm care program is your best defense against losing your elm trees. Remember, if your elm tree becomes diseased after using our program, we will remove it FREE of charge, because we feel the program is that good.

Balloons to Launch New Friendships

Balloons, trailing return postcards, were launched from the Lower School of the Grosse Pointe Academy on Wednesday, May 1. The students are holding a contest to see how far each balloon travels. Pictured here is Academy teacher DE-BORAH WOLNEY with a group of lower school students. Many cards have already been returned from as far away as Prescott, Ontario. The children are keeping a map and posting return cards and locations as they arrive.

City Refuses Tennis Request

Hugh Strong, of South Oxford Road, appeared before The City Council on Wednesday, May 22, to request use of Elworthy Field tennis courts for a "Professional Men's Tennis Tournament."

Mr. Strong was requesting four courts on the June 15 and 16 weekend and two courts on the June 22 and 23 weekend for the finals play-off. The tournament, Mr. Strong explained, was under the sponsorship of the Cavanaugh Insurance Company.

City Mayor John L. King said that many groups had come before the council to reserve tennis space for various tournaments and that, as a result, The City had established a policy.

"First of all, we do not allow any private use of the courts between Memorial Day and Labor Day, since the courts are so heavily used," Mr. King explained. "Secondly, your proposal has commercial overtones, and we have only allowed non-profit organizations to reserve the courts."

Mr. King referred to the annual Tennis & Crumpets tournament which is allowed by The City since it benefits Children's Hospital and is held after Labor Day each year.

Mr. King then suggested that Mr. Strong contact the private tennis houses in the area to rent courts for the proposed tennis tournament.

Thieves Enter Woods Home

Thieves entered a Moorland drive home in The Woods, ransacked three bedrooms and took a General Electric digital clock, a pair of binoculars and some foreign coins, according to Woods police. The incident was reported early Friday morning, May 24.

The residents left home around 6:15 p.m. on Wednesday, May 23, and returned around 12:30 a.m. on the 24th to discover the break-in. When the citizen opened his electric overhead garage door, he spotted the door leading into the house standing wide open. His wife immediately phoned the department.

In one bedroom, a pillow containing costume jewelry and a radio was found lying on the bed, along with a six-inch television set. A check is currently being made to see if other items were taken.

Four-Year-Old Sets Bed Afire

A four-year-old boy playing with matches caused a bedroom fire at a Roslyn road residence Wednesday evening, May 15. Woods firefighters, who worked at the scene for over 50 minutes, said the blaze was contained to bed and bedding in one room. There were no injuries.

The resident said she smelled smoke and then went to the top of the stairs and spotted a smoke-filled second floor. Her son told her he'd been playing with matches and started the bedding on fire.

Firefighters, who doused the blaze with water, reported the second floor received extensive smoke and heat damage.

Pointer Makes A Hole-in-One

Frances Amerson, of Roosevelt place, recently notched a hole-in-one at the Country Club of Detroit.

Mrs. Amerson made her "beauty" at the 138-yard 13th hole with a five wood. Her total for the round was 100.

Dodgers, Tigers Lead Ruth Loop

By Julian Thomas
The week of May 13 in the Babe Ruth League of Grosse Pointe, Inc., saw the Dodgers defeat the Braves, 9-4, with a fine relief job by Jeff Chancey who held the Braves in check with four innings of scoreless pitching.
The Dodgers opened the attack with three runs in the second on singles by Mark and Norm Van Sile and a double by Joe Fikany, a single by Bruce Kennedy and a triple by Steve Swanson. Norm Van Sile was three-for-three and Kennedy also stroked a double.
On May 14, Paul Genter picked up the win, fanning 10 and walking only one, as the Phillies took the Giants, 6-2. Jim Naughton led the attack going three-for-three and Chris Fielding picked up a double.
The Dodgers were again on top with a 11-5 victory over the Cardinals on May 15. A close game opened up in the fifth with a four-run rally by the Dodgers on two walks, two errors and Joe Fikany's double. Drew Peterson chalked up his second win of the season, while Bob Conlon took the loss. Big hitters for the Cards were Brian Doms with a triple and Tony Abraham, a double. The Dodgers are now 5-0.
On May 19, The Braves pounded the Cardinals, 10-2, with a nine hit offense led by Ruby Vandenbroeck with three and Damian Kiska with two singles. Five runs in the second inning by the Braves wrapped up the win. Winner John Witri, after giving up two runs in the first inning, gave up only one hit the rest of the way.
In the American League on May 22, the White Sox routed the Red Sox, 11-2. Darrell Graham broke a one all tie with a three run triple in the fourth. Tim Murtagh then singled him home for one of his three RBI's. The White Sox then added six runs in the fifth to "frost" the win.

Joe Kanan got his second win against no losses with a fine three hitter. Joe also lashed out a double, Edmunds had four singles and Dan Couvreur and McMahon each had two hits. Jim Davies pitched two strong innings of relief for the Red Sox. Tom Gutwald had a double for the losers.
On May 20, John Beebe notched a great no-hitter, while fanning 10, as the Tigers sank the Red Sox 15-0. Derek Simonds and Jim Gallagher sparked the Tigers with two hits each. A spectacular diving catch in the final inning by Doug Skipp saved the perfect game for Beebe. Dave Evendon struck out seven Tigers in the losing cause. The Tigers now lead the league with a 5-0 record.

USL Netmen Defeat DCDS

USL entered the recent tennis Regionals with a 23-1 record. They expected their main competition to be Detroit Country Day School, and this proved to be the case.
The Knights defeated Country Day, 20-16, after being tied 15-15 at the start of the semifinals. USL qualified two singles players, Ihor Debryn and Peter Logan, plus the doubles team of Bill Dahling and Robb Bauble for the State C-D Tennis Finals in Kalamazoo.

In regional competition, each school enters three doubles teams and three singles players. The Knights' lineup was Ihor Debryn, Peter Logan and Rick Fruehauf at singles; in doubles, Robb Bauble and Bill Dahling, Jim Manning and Mark McDonnell, and Cliff Dirksen and Dave Hansen. All USL entries received good draws except for #3 doubles. Dirksen and Hansen lost to Country Day #2, 6-2, 7-6 in the first round.

In singles, Debryn advanced to the semifinals. Logan defeated Mike Kurhan, (D.C.D.S. #1), 6-2, 6-3. Fruehauf, 6-4, 3-6, 6-2 over D.C.D.S. #3 made for all-USL semifinal in one half of the draw. In the other half, Debryn was up against D.C.D.S. #2.

Even though the Knights lost #3 doubles in the first round, the two other Knight doubles teams advanced to the semifinals of their respective halves, dropping only one game in the process.

The doubles semifinals pitted USL #1 against D.C.D.S. #2, while the other included USL #2 against D.C.D.S. #1. Bauble and Dahling survived a shaky first set and came on strong to defeat Chip Winston and John Neville, D.C.D.S. #2, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3. Manning and McDonnell lost to Bill Meek and Mark Molison, D.C.D.S. #1, 7-6, 7-6.
In the singles semifinals, Debryn defeated D.C.D.S. #2 6-0, 6-1. Logan and Fruehauf struggled with each other for a while, with Logan winning, 6-4, 6-4.

In the finals, Debryn beat Logan, 6-2, 6-1, in a well-played match. In doubles, Bauble and Dahling won the first set, 6-4, lost the second and finished strong in the third set, 6-1.

The Knights now have an excellent chance to be State champs for the third year in a row, and for the sixth time in the last nine years.

AUTO FACTS

Testing headlights for direction and illumination is part of regular safety inspection in 32 states and the District of Columbia. But whether it's required or not, it is important for you to have your headlights checked from time to time. Make sure headlights are adjusted while you have a full, normal load in the trunk and passenger section. Extra weight in the trunk pushes down the rear of the car and raises the headlight beams. Before making a trip have the headlights adjusted for the load you will carry.

Before making a decision on which car is best for your family's needs be sure to visit us at POINTE DODGE, INC., 18001 Mack Ave., 884-7210. Trombly PTA to Honor Dads

The twenty-second annual P.T.A. Dad's night will be observed in conjunction with the annual election meeting at Trombly School on Monday June 3. Prior to the general meeting at 8:15 o'clock, parents are welcome to open house in the classrooms.

Vandals Enter Monteith School

Someone entered Monteith School, 1275 Cook road, sometime between Friday, May 24, and Sunday, May 26, and set fire to a bulletin board, Wool's police reported.

Officer Thomas Podewitz was told that a teacher arrived at the school on the 26th and discovered a loading dock door ajar. She proceeded to the kitchen where she discovered that somebody had set fire to papers on a bulletin board, causing the cork to be charred. Investigation revealed the culprits broke out a 12 by 15-inch window in the girl's washroom by firing a rock through it, and apparently went to the kitchen to inflict the damage. Police believe the individuals then went to the upper floor where they entered three lockers.

The only items reported missing at this time were a carton of book matches and a box of wooden matches.

North Slaters Vocal Concert

The six vocal music groups at Grosse Pointe North will join in a Spring Concert at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, June 4, in the school's outdoor theater.

Over 300 students, under the direction of Herman A. Klein, will present the "On the Lighter Side" concert consisting of popular melodies.

Tickets, priced at $1 for adults, 50 cents for students, are available in advance from the performers or may be purchased the night of the concert.

The Sixth Grade Band and Violins, under the direction of Mrs. C. Judson, highlight the auditorium program with an instrumental presentation "Let There Be Music."

Raymond Zynda, Chairman, Mrs. Gerald Coyle and Mrs. David Pethick, members of the Nominating Committee, present the following slate of officers for the 1974-75 term: president, Charles Turner; vice-president, Arthur Hessburg; second vice-president, Mrs. Eleanor Pawluk; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank Zinn; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Clancy; treasurer, Peter Warner.

The "Dad's Night Social Hour" following the general meeting is the closing event of the evening. Mrs. Douglas Ross and Mrs. Wallace Arducci, Social Chair-Persons, along with Room Mothers, are planning this special occasion for fathers and mothers too.

Since this meeting marks the transition point of another very active P.T.A. year, parents and teachers join in expression of recognition and appreciation to the outgoing officers, committee chairmen and room parents for their spirited leadership and contribution to the school.

Table Action on Application

The Woods Council unanimously tabled an application for a vendor's license until the applicant has his 1955 pickup ready for inspection or obtains a new vehicle. This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, May 13.

This application from Stephen S. Zarnak, of Anita avenue, for the retail sale of ice cream products, was considered by the session at the Monday, May 6, session.

However, at that time, the council decided to table action on the application because of their concern over the age of the vehicle for safety reasons. It also was said that the applicant's felony record is checked along with any possible outstanding warrants before the public safety department approves or denies the request. The applicant's driving record, however, isn't checked.

The council then requested that the department obtain a safety inspection of the applicant's vehicle, as well as a copy of his driving record for their consideration on the 13th.

But Public Safety Director

Judge Denis Holds Court

Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis, sitting in for City Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson, convened court on Tuesday, May 21, and heard five cases.

Michele Dauphinais, 980 Hidden lane, pled not guilty to careless driving but was found guilty and fined $20.

Eugene Edward Allosbery, 23253 North Rosedale, Saint Clair Shores, pled guilty to a careless driving charge and was fined $25.

James Rossman, 4757, Maryland, Detroit, pled not guilty to a careless driving charge but was found guilty and fined $100, put on a year's probation and ordered to pay veterinary costs for a dog he injured. He also pled not guilty to failing to wear corrective lenses but was found guilty and fined $10.

Rossman pled guilty to having no operator's license on his person, and driving with an expired license. For those charges he was fined $10 and $15 respectively.

Harry Hayden, 11911 Gunston, Detroit, pled not guilty to being a disorderly person but was found guilty and fined $100 and put on a year's probation.

Martha Adams, 105 Grosse Pointe boulevard, pled not guilty to driving on a suspended license, but was found guilty and fined $20.

Frances Shook of the Grosse Pointe Swim Club recently competed in the Long Course Canadian Invitational at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ont. The event, one of Canada's largest meets of the year, attracts the outstanding age group swimmers from the U. S. and Canada.

In the girls 11 and 12, 100-meter breaststroke, Frances upset Canada's 1976 Olympic hopeful Robin Corsiglia from Pointe Claire, Que. Frances' winning time of 1:26.5 was just shy of the Canadian record. She also came back in the 200-meter breast to take third place.

ULS Captures Regional Meet

ULS picked up 36 points at Whitmore Lake track meet to win the class D Region XII competition in recent action. In winning the meet ULS qualified 10 men for the Saturday, June 1, State competition at Caro, Mich. while breaking seven school and Whitmore Lake track records.

Dwight Jones set three records by winning the 220 dash with a time of 22.2 and the 100 dash with a 9.7. The 220 time set a ULS record and a track record. His 9.7 tied his own school record and set a new track record.

Dave Sarge finished second in the 220, and Whit Boyd took third in the 100. Only the top three finishers in each event qualify for the State meet.

Jim Greer took third in the 880 run with a ULS record time of 2:02.6. He also ran the anchor leg on the one mile relay team which finished third, also setting a new ULS record. The other members of the relay team are Sandy Pensler, Frank Judge and Bob McJennett.

Both the mile relay and 880 run counted for Greer to qualify him for the states. In each event, he came from behind in the last 100 yards to overtake his man two yards before the finish line.

The 880 relay team of Jones, Dave Sarge, Ben Stormes and Eric Fornell took first place with a time of 1:33.6 to set a new ULS and Whitmore Lake track record. Frank Judge took fourth in the long jump with a leap of 19'0".

Even before the official word of their victory, the Knights had put a sign on the side of their bus and were carrying coach Lou Scott around the infield on their shoulders. Upon being presented with the Regional trophy, the team, screaming and laughing, took a quick victory lap, and then boarded the bus for home.

Farms Offers Swim Program

This year's swimming lesson program at the Grosse Pointe Farms Pier promises to be a successful one. An enthusiastic and well qualified teaching staff consisting of Kathy Pillsbury, Kathy Crowley, Carol Pillsbury, Kathie Moran, Paula Bartoszewicz and Mark Boerner plan to make the program a fine one.

Registration will be Saturday-Sunday, June 15-16, from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. There will be a $1 registration fee per family. Register for the first four-week session on these dates only. Classes begin Monday, June 17, and meet twice a week for a half-hour. Registration for the second four-week session will be on July 13-14.

Classes will be kept small for the convenience of the instructors and benefits to the children. American Red Cross swimming tests are given at the end of each session and cards are awarded to those passing. Private lessons also are available and may be arranged with any instructor at the time of registration.

Classes offered this year include nonswimmer, (for children at least four-years-old), beginner, advanced beginner, intermediate and swimmer. Junior and Senior Lifesaving is offered with written and water tests required to pass the courses. There also will be diving and competitive swimming classes.

Again this year there will be room for all ages in the Synchronized Swimming Club. This class works to teach and improve synchronized skills and prepare for the show given during the Regatta. A mother's class for women who would like to learn how to swim, learn new strokes or just for the exercise is offered, too.

For further information, call 885-9535.

Girls' Softball Leagues Active

Spring has been a horrible one but the Neighborhood Club girls' softball leagues are still playing their games. The girls play around the big puddles, and still have a great time, says the Club. Games start at 4:15 p.m. and are held at Brownell, Elworthy Field and Mason School.

In the Elementary League, (fifth and sixth graders), there was a tie for first place between Champion Realty-Champions and Service Art Company-SACO. The tie was broken at Brownell Wednesday, May 22, in quite a game. The final score was 10-9 in favor of SACO. Outstanding players for SACO were Molly Higgins, Maureen McGann, and Virginia Standish, while valuable players for the Champions were Debbie Manos, Susan Shanley and Elise Spei, reports the Club.

The other standings show Flame Furnace-Flames, 3-1; Mr. McCourts Go-Go Girls, 2-2; Grosse Pointe Park Police, 2-2; East Side Sporting Goods-Swingers, 1-3; Welcome Wagon-Winners, 1-3, and Judge Bashara-Bombers, 0-4.

The Junior League, (seventh and eighth graders), Flame Furnace-Flames team is in first place with a 4-0 record. A team effort is keeping the Flames on top of their league with every girl playing hard and getting that needed hit.

Following right behind are the other seven teams including Service Art Company-SACO, 3-1; Champion Realty-Champions, 3-1; Judge Bashara-Bombers, 2-2; Grosse Pointe Park Police, 2-2; Welcome Wagon-Winners, 1-3; Mr. McCourts Go-Go Girls, 1-3, and East Side Sporting Goods-Swingers, 0-4.

The Club thanks all the sponsors of the 1974 Neighborhood Club Girls Softball leagues. To improve the league in the future, (by lengthening the season), more sponsors will be needed.

Defer to Give Spring Concert

Defer School will present its annual spring concert, "It's a Small World," on Thursday, May 30, at 7:30 p.m. in Pierce Middle School Auditorium. The theme refers to our world growing smaller with every advance in communication and transportation technology.

The program, directed by Laura Williamson and accompanied by Mrs. Viola Seck, will feature Defer fifth and sixth grade students.

Special features will include: Irish dancers; rhythm and percussion instruments; a cello solo, and a piano trio playing excerpts from "The Entertainer", the popular tune from the movie, "The Sting."

A short P.T.O. business meeting will precede the Spring Concert for purposes of electing next year's P.T.O. Executive Board.

It isn't a cheaper dollar that people want today, but one that's easier to hang onto.

WE KNOW WHERE YOU CAN GET GAS 24 HOURS A DAY.

Thanks to our daily "fuel gauge surveys," we can now tell you where there are open gas stations throughout Michigan—even late at night and on Sunday when gas is really hard to find.

We've got it down to where we can give you the name of the closest open station, its location, whether they're allocating gas, and what price you can expect to pay.

We've set up a couple of hotlines to our new Travel Information Center (T.I.C.) that you can call to find out about gas availability.

CALL THESE NUMBERS TO FIND OUT WHERE IT'S AT

336-1000 (For AAA members in the Detroit area)

800-482-5300 (For AAA members in outstate Michigan or while traveling in outstate Michigan)

If you're an AAA member (and wouldn't it be wise to join if you're not), you can call T.I.C. any day of the week, from 6 a.m. to midnight.

Dial 336-1000 if you're calling from Detroit. And if it takes more than a dime to reach T.I.C. from where you're at, dial toll-free 800-482-5300 to find out where there's gas when you need it most.

You can also use T.I.C. lines to request a Triptik... make your hotel-motel reservations in the U.S. and Canada... answer your questions about traffic, recreational activities, Michigan events, the availability of campsites... and just about anything else that has to do with travel.

WHERE WE STAND ON SUMMER '74 VACATION-RECREATION TRAVEL

We think summer vacations and weekend recreational travel by car are essential to one's health and well-being.

Even Vice President Gerald Ford and the Federal Energy Office agree to that.

But the energy crunch is real and fuel must be conserved.

Everyday, you and your family should be watching for ways to cut gas consumption. You should THINK TANK.

SEE MICHIGAN FIRST.

It's time to rediscover the beautiful state that surrounds you.

With more miles of fresh-water shoreline than any other state, Michigan offers endless vacation and recreational opportunities. Tour and enjoy Michigan this summer.

DRIVE 55.

Driving Michigan's roads at 55 m.p.h. will help you stretch every gallon of gas. Fifty-five is also a safe, relaxing speed that will help you "Bring 'Em Back Alive!"

SELLING YOUR HOME?

There's a local firm called
Grosse Pointe Real Estate
Co. that has come up with a new idea in selling homes.
If successful, it could change their industry in Grosse Pointe considerably.
It's called GROUP LIST-ING, which means they will immediately purchase your home, at your asking price, once you have listed with them. The one circumstance, they say, is that they must have a group of five similar homes before their plan takes effect. Once achieved, they buy all five houses simultaneously. They say it's easier to sell five homes in a group because it's easier on the buyer and much easier to promote.

Farms Fire Officials Urge Safety Clean-Up Program

The Farms Fire Department is suggesting a genuine spring clean-up to achieve a fire safe year, and, it is never too late to start the program, as was disclosed by Fire Chief Michael Beaupre and Capt. Warren Schultz, in a joint statement.

Five times an hour, 120 times a day, an American home is destroyed or damaged by fire, usually started in a pile of rubbish or stored material. A clean and orderly home is less apt to burn.

"Business places and all other buildings are included in our Spring Clean-Up campaign," the two fire officials said. "We are all in the habit of storing and saving things we will never use again, so start an effective clean-up in our community, the best places to start are attics, basements, garages, and even our yards. Newspapers, old clothes, mattresses, old furniture, draperies, are just a few examples of some of the fire hazards to get rid of."

Also, it was disclosed, make sure that your electrical cords, plugs and appliances are safe.

One point the fire officials stress is that while spring cleaning, do not become so engrossed that you neglect your young children. While cleaning outside, take them with you. Hundreds of children die every year because parents gamble nothing will happen in the few minutes they are outside. There are many temptations open to children that need the watchful eyes of parents, or older members of the family. One example, to stress a point, is playing with matches. A Fire Department check-up of your home might uncover many danger areas to the trained eyes of local firemen, whose expert advice can eliminate the dangers of fire hazards.

Chief Beaupre urges all Farms residents to call his department, 885-1000, to set up an appointment date for inspection of your home. Fire personnel will not enter a home without the permission of the householder. Invite him in. It is for your benefit and protection.

Letters to the Editor

Once again the women of Grosse Pointe have been subjected to the continuing degradation of the Miss Grosse Pointe Pageant and once again the philosophy of the Grosse Pointe community has been demonstrated to reflect passivity, dependency and helplessness as desirable traits for females.

Annually the members of the Grosse Pointe community gather to reinforce the concept of woman as an object of entertainment via awards for talent, evening gown and bathing suit competition. There is no consideration of intellectual pursuits beyond those required for the amusement of others. Orientations toward community service

Northeast Guidance Center Plans Future Expansion

Mrs. Betty Rankin stepped down after 10 years of service as president of the board of directors of the Northeast Guidance Center Thursday evening, May 16, at the board's 10th annual meeting.

Dr. Jeffery W. Barry, was elected president for the following two-year term. Dr. Barry, of Moross road, is president of Walsh College of Accountancy and Business Administration.

The slate of officers for 1974-75 are: vice-presidents, the Reverend David Strang and Mrs. Charles Brake; treasurer, Robert A. Waters; recording secretary, Dr. Rudolph A. Armbruster; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. James E. St. Denis.

Mrs. Rankin will continue on the board as past president.

Phi Beta Kappa Cites Students

The three new board members were welcomed: Mrs. James Lisotto, Dr. Ali Rabbani and Mrs. Lois Dupuis Scott. Mrs. Lisotto is president of the Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center. Mrs. Scott is a Title I—pre-school teacher. Dr. Rabbani is chief of pediatrics at St. John.

"It is a real challenge to the Board to administer and run a Community Mental Health Center in this day and age, to run it well and to answer the needs of the community. This is the most exciting thing I've been a part of in 20 years," Dr. Rubin concluded.

The Northeast Guidance Center is the Community Mental Health Center serving eastside Detroit, Harper Woods and the Grosse Pointes, providing a variety of diagnostic and treatment services to persons of all ages. Services are available to all regardless of ability to pay.

Organic Talks Set at Center

A series of talks on planting, growing and using natural organic foods will be given at Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Thursday mornings, June 6 through 27, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., by consultant William Manning, originator of the Stamina Soils System, an easy inexpensive way to grow top quality food without poisons.

Mr. Manning will advise on selecting, arranging and handling of plants and how to choose, combine and prepare foods for a healthy diet with a minimum of effort. He also will point out how food values may best be assimilated into the body by use of proper exercise and activity and by knowing how to relax.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford
Chief of Central Library

The National Book Awards celebrated their 25th birthday April 15-18 with four days of workshops and discussion groups, climaxing in the awards ceremony at New York's Lincoln Center. The National Book Committee, a non-profit membership corporation, administers the Book Awards Program and panels of judges select the winners in 10 different categories.

Because of the number of winners this year (14 in all), I will review five of the categories this week and conclude with the remaining titles in next week's column.

The winner in the category of Arts & Letters was Pauline Kael, DEEPER INTO THE MOVIES (Atlantic/Little Brown). This large book, running over 450 pages, is a collection of Ms. Kael's movie reviews which appeared in "The New Yorker" from September 1969 to March 1972. The author's approach to a new film is empiric and careful, not to different from that which a good critic of drama or fiction would employ. She wants a movie to have some coherence of theme, as well as beguiling or shocking frames. She hopes for moral and intellectual substance at least once in a while. Pauline Kael is a superb critic of acting, and she can make you feel right along with her as she writes.

In the Biography category the winner was Douglas Day, MALCOLM LOWRY (Oxford University Press). An urban and sensible writer, Day has given us an excellent biography. This account of Lowry's work and life deals with his childhood in the North of England, his Cambridge days, his friendship with Conrad Aiken; his bohemian existence in London during the thirties; his wanderings around Europe; tempestuous periods in New York and Mexico and his writing of UNDER THE VOLCANO (published in 1947, a book some critics have called the century's greatest novel about alcoholism); his total dependence on his wives; and his last years and death. Day presents Lowry with understanding, sympathy and respect. Filled with facts, anecdotes and photographs, this is a compelling and poignant book.

The Children's Books winner was Eleanor Cameron, THE COURT OF THE STONE CHILDREN (E. P. Dutton). Lonely Nina finds San Francisco intolerable until her interest is caught by a nearby French museum where she meets the spirit of Dominique, a nineteenth-century French girl. Dominique tells of her prophetic childhood dream in which Nina appears to help vindicate

Dominique's father, accused of plotting against Napoleon. Nina finally pieces together the bits of history that prove the father's innocence to his biographer, the registrar of the museum. The author's highly imaginative integration of such diverse elements as childhood adjustment, concepts of time, prophetic dreams, mystery and fantasy makes this a thought-provoking story for the fifth through eighth grader reader.

In the category of Contemporary Affairs the winner was Murray Kempton, THE BRIAR PATCH (E. P. Dutton). Kempton, a former editor of the "New Republic," examines the trial of a group of young men and women who came to be called the Panther 21. They had been indicted for arson, conspiracy and attempted murder. The author explores both the mechanics of the police undercover operations that brought the Panthers to the bar, and those of their trial. Kempton has written not so much a narration of the trial as a meditation on the conditions and people that produce it. A relentlessly articulate reporter, the author enlightens and frightens.

In the category of Fiction there were two winners this year. The first title is GRAY-TY'S RAINBOW (Viking) by Thomas Pynchon. The anti-hero of his novel is Tyrone Slothrop, an American lieutenant stationed in London during the Blitz. He becomes the equipment of PISCES (Psychological Intelligence Schemes for Expediting Surrender). In his desperate attempts to avoid being taken over as a pure instrument, Slothrop runs for it, from London to the Riviera to Berlin, pursued by Furies disguised as Baggy-pants comedians. But the more he runs, the more he blurs the personhood he hopes to save. Gradually Slothrop becomes his own myth, his own abstraction. This book is a profound historical meditation on the humanity sacrificed to a grotesque delusion—the Faustian illusion of the inequality of lives and the inequality of the nature of signs.

The other winner in fiction was A CROWN OF FEATHERS, AND OTHER STORIES (Farrar) by Isaac Singer. Here the author concentrates on the illusions and disillusion of Polish men and women in diverse situations in prewar Poland and America. The focal theme of this anthology revolves around the arduousness of pinpointing the truth about persons and events. Singer writes with trenchant prose, often humorous and occasionally grim, that illuminates the vagaries and grotesqueries of his characters.

From Another Pointe of View

As promised at the end of last week's column, here's more news about the Grosse Pointe Garden Center's annual Horticulture and Bonsai Show . . .

It will be staged, as announced last week, (but dates are easy to forget: a small reminder never hurt), Friday, June 7, from 12:30 to 4 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Crystal Ballroom.

HOWEVER, if you plan to exhibit—and it is hoped that EVERY Grosse Pointe gardener, rank beginner or dirt-under-the-fingernails-forever veteran, plans to exhibit—be sure to get your plants and posies over to Fries by 10:30 in the morning AT THE LATEST.

Mrs. Edward R. Harrigan, Garden Center board president, has asked Mrs. John Veech to serve as chairman of the day, Mrs. Harold R. Smith as co-chairman.

Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson is rounding up a bouquet of hostesses and Mrs. Herbert D. Schmitz promises a delicious luncheon for committee members and judges.

One final note: the Bonsai display at "our" Horticulture and Bonsai Show is said to be the finest in the Midwest. Last year's drew raves. This year's will, too . . . and full credit for such super showings must go to Mrs. Harley G. Higbie and Mrs. Monte J. Edelen, who conduct regular Pointe classes in Bonsai techniques.

See her pretty hair-do. It's her very special once-in-a-lifetime hair-do. In the front, long pretty bangs. In the back, a veil falling over an intricate postiche. And in-between, lilies-of-the-valley. We worked all this out. We made the postiche. And we came to the house on the day of the wedding to comb and arrange and place each little flower—for her and her bridesmaids as well. Need a facial? It's fairly easy to do it yourself. Cleanse your face as usual, then cover it with oil. Smooth eye cream around the eyes. Wet a small towel in hot water and wrap it around your face for a minute, then wrap it with a towel that was dipped in cold water. Repeat this three times each, then pat your face dry. Apply more skin oil and relax, feet up, head down, for five minutes. It sounds simple, but it's the simple things that are done on a regular basis, that can give you a basically beautiful appearance.

Slate Wheels for HOPE Ball

Governor William G. Milliken has officially proclaimed Friday, May 31, as Project HOPE Day in the State of Michigan, and on May 31 the Detroit Women's Division for Project HOPE, (Health Opportunity for People Everywhere), will hold its annual fund-raising Wheels for HOPE Ball.

The Raleigh House in Southfield will be turned into a racing spectacular according to decorations co-chairmen Mrs. William Bundesen, of Lincoln road, and Tom Schoenith, of Devonshire road.

Four cars will be on display, including Ozzie Olson's car, shipped in from California for the evening, and former Indy 500 winner Roger Penske's car.

Film clips of actual Indy 500 races will be shown during the cocktail hour, with TV-2 Sports Director Ray Lar's commenting.

The more than 500 expected guests will be greeted by six young men wearing official Olsomite racing jackets, in a tribute to the automotive industry which has consistently supported Project HOPE, the international medical teaching/training program.

In his Executive Declaration Governor Milliken urged "all citizens to give appropriate recognition to Project HOPE, the Detroit Women's Division for Project HOPE, and to the auto industry for their support of these worthy efforts."

"The men and women of HOPE have served with great personal sacrifice, pioneering new concepts in the use of allied and basic health personnel; helping to establish new schools of nursing, dentistry and physical therapy; assisting in the development of existing teaching institutions; working in hospitals to teach and implement improved methods of patient care; and helping to expand public health efforts," the Governor pointed out.

Mrs. Herbert J. Bloom is general wheels for HOPE Ball chairman.

Pointers helping plan the $100-per-couple extravaganza are Mrs. Ross Corbit, Mrs. Maria Lalli, Mrs. James Quello, Mrs. Walker S. Cisar, Mrs. Dean Richardson, Mrs. Frank A. Colombo, Mrs. Frank Germack, Jr., Mrs.

St. Michael's Rites For Miss Murphy

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Worrell Stevens Vacation at Lyford Cay in the Bahamas, Are Now at Home in West Bloomfield

A gown of white silk organza, long-sleeved, Empire-waisted and appliqued with Venice lace was Beth Andrea Murphy's choice for her noon wedding to Roy Worrell Stevens Saturday, April 20, in Saint Michael's Episcopal Church.

Her long, lace-edged English illusion mantilla fell from a Camelot cap. She carried a cascade of white baby roses, baby's-breath, stephanotis and ivy.

The new Mrs. Stevens is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert James Murphy, of Belanger road. Mr. Stevens is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manley Orlando Stevens, of Houston, Tex.

The rites at which The Reverend James McLaren presided were followed by a reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Ballroom.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Douglas J. Dillon, of Austin, Tex., in a diagonal weave blue-on-green voile frock with matching bolero

Best man was Edward Gaam, of Houston.

The mother of the bride wore a long hand-screened silk print on a baby blue background, with teal green accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a long gown of powder blue chiffon, with white accessories.

Each mother carried two orchids.

The newlyweds vacationed at Lyford Cay on New Providence in the Bahamas. They are at home in West Bloomfield.

Girl Scouts Visit Mexico

Sixteen Local Cadettes and Senior Girl Scouts had a dream — to visit Mexico and perform a service project for some of the underprivileged children of the country.

After three years of planning, working and saving, their dream finally came true. The group of Scouts accompanied by three mothers recently returned from a 10-day service and sightseeing trip in Mexico. They worked with many underprivileged children, teaching them craft projects, games and songs.

The girls also distributed 10 boxes of toys, candy and personal-care items to needy families.

According to Mrs. William Cox, leader of Troop 846 and one of the mothers who went on the trip, "Although the Scouts loved the sightseeing and the people, they enjoyed working with the very young Mexican children best of all.

"These youngsters were so receptive to the girls. It was a most enlightening and delightful experience."

The first three days were spent in Mexico City where the Scouts had an opportunity to visit many historic sites and attend some local cultural events. They stayed at Tlacali, a national Mexican Girl Guide House.

Then they moved to Cuernavaca where they spent a week at Our Cabana, an international Girl Scout World Center.

It was in this town that the girls made arrangements, through a local church, to perform their service project.

To help finance the trip the Scouts conducted weekly bagel sales for 14 months. They also earned money babysitting and performing odd jobs.

The 10 boxes of gift items they distributed were donated or purchased during the months prior to their trip.

In addition to Mrs. Cox other trip mothers were Mrs. George Houchens, a former leader, and Mrs. Thomas Rochford, a board member of the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit. All are Pointers.

Scouts who participated in the Mexican trip include, from Troop 327, Betsy Barrett, Diane DeForest, Sue Garska, Carolee-Lee Laffler, Rose Lucido, Charlotte Parks and Clare Rogers; from Troop 385, Sandy Caverly, Sheryl Caverly and Monica Szmanski; from Troop 846, Jeanne Cox, Kathy Fossati, Kim Grow, Ann Schrieber and Monica Schulte; and from Troop 1463, Blaire Houchens.

Smith College Club to Meet

Members of the Detroit Smith College Club gather next Thursday, June 6, for their annual meeting and a luncheon in the Touraine road home of Mrs. Dwight P. Black.

It is traditionally an occasion for socializing as well as announcement of the Club's annual gift to the College, funds raised via various local projects in 1973-74, and of board officers for the coming year.

Serving as president in 1974-75 will be Mrs. Frederick Fordon, of Mount Vernon road. First and second vice-presidents, respectively, are Mrs. John H. Stephenson, Jr., of Newberry place, and Mrs. George Wilson, of Lathrop road.

Recording secretary is Mrs. Richard B. Platt, of Hillcrest road, corresponding secretary is Mrs. Douglas D. Freeth, of Lincoln road, and treasurer is Mrs. James Williams, of Mount Vernon road.

Conversation at the meeting will center on plans to celebrate Smith's Centennial Year 1975.

Senior Center Meeting Slated Tomorrow

To highlight its newest social service the board of directors of the Senior Center, Inc., has invited Dr. Mel Ravitz, executive director of the Detroit-Wayne County Mental Health Community Services board, to speak at its annual meeting at noon tomorrow, Friday, May 31, at the Presbyterian Church of the Covenant in East Grand boulevard.

The Adult Care Services Branch of the Senior Center, Inc., housed in the Church of the Covenant, was established in 1973 to serve residents living in room-and-board homes in the area who have been released from state mental institutions in recent years.

Supportive services offered by the Branch enable these residents to enjoy a more normal and fruitful lifestyle than was possible in an institutional setting.

Dr. Ravitz will give board members, volunteers, nursing home owners and other guests involved with the work of the agency an update on the city's mental health program.

For their sustained and dedicated service to the Senior Center, volunteers Barbara Otto, Betty Houston, Lillian Winters Prus, Barbara Willett, Ilene Jackson and Roslyn York will receive awards.

To be honored from the Herman Gardens Branch are Alice McKinnon, Sylvia Tumath, Hamilton Feedback, Nita Hasse and Mary Clark.

Jerry Stehno and Dorothy Dobos have worked with Nursing Homes served by the agency.

A special award is being presented to board finance chairman Wallace M. Jensen, from his fellow board members, for exceptional service.

Program finale will be a slide presentation by clients and staff showing the many services provided by the Torch Drive — supported agency.

There's a local firm called Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. that has come up with a new idea in selling homes. If successful, it could change their industry in Grosse Pointe considerably. It's called GROUP LISTING, which means they will immediately purchase your home, at your asking price, once you have listed with them. The one circumstance, they say, is that they must have a group of five similar homes before their plan takes effect. Once achieved, they buy all five houses simultaneously. SELLING YOUR HOME?

There's a local firm called Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. that has come up with a new idea in selling homes. If successful, it could change their industry in Grosse Pointe considerably. It's called GROUP LISTING, which means they will immediately purchase your home, at your asking price, once you have listed with them. The one circumstance, they say, is that they must have a group of five similar homes before their plan takes effect. Once achieved, they buy all five houses simultaneously. They say it's easier to sell five homes in a group because it's easier on the buyer and much easier to promote. For more information you can call Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087, direct.

If you are looking for that hard to find floor plan offering four to six bedrooms—an enormous, sound proof second floor family room—a stunning, new kitchen—a cozy library—a three car garage—Here it is!

Even included are four fireplaces, three gorgeous dogwoods, two jack-in-the-pulpits and the nest in the white birch tree.

No updating or redecorating woes, either. The house is in move-in condition. Come and see how well modern technology has been blended with yesterday's quality materials and workmanship.

You undoubtedly expect the best in construction and location. It now can be yours and probably for less than $35,000 down. Possession by mid-summer. For an appointment please call 881-4789 evenings and weekends.

OPEN SUNDAY 2-5

1838 PRESTWICK. Three bedroom, bath and a half Colonial located on one of the Woods' finer streets. Built in 1952 and features a family room, gas forced air heat, carpeting, draperies, aluminum storms and screens, finished basement with wet bar. Priced to attract a host of buyers.

WE'RE GOING TO BE HERE Sunday afternoon so come by and see why we believe it's worth our while to spend the afternoon showing the interested public one of the better houses offered for sale in the Farms. At 100 Lothrop, Marty Owens will guide you through this fine colonial with four family bedrooms and a large suite for live-in help, sensibly located off the kitchen. There are fireplaces in the library, living room and family room. A glass walled garden room has access to the beautifully landscaped grounds with its swimming pool focal point. If you want something special, to move into, get a move on and see us Sunday.

APPOINTMENT PLEASE

CUSTOM BUILT GEORGIAN COLONIAL just three years old. Special features are a library and two family rooms, two half baths on the first floor and first floor laundry room. The second floor has five bedrooms, the master suite has a dressing room with private bath. A finished basement, a two car attached garage with added storage room. Many more custom features make this one a standout.

THE ULTIMATE in contemporary living. Specially designed for its owner; you won't find the equivalent outside the cover of "Better Homes and Gardens." Magnificent spiral staircase, master bedroom with heated, sunken bath, super equipped kitchen, and octagonal family room, apartment over the attached garage with its own entrance. A one of a kind house for a one of a kind buyer.

ONE YOU WOULD HAVE MISSED if you were driving around looking for something new on the market. This enchanting English mini-mansion has five bedrooms serviced by four baths. There are fireplaces in both the living room and library. Its kitchen is so spectacular that it has been featured in the "kitchen tour." A magnificent house on an estate sized lot which includes a swimming pool and patio center with gas barbecue.

WE'D ADVISE YOU to get the man in your life to join you in seeing this one before it's sold. Sitting pretty on a large, tree shaded lot with heated swimming pool usable six months a year. A library, den, and garden room complement the formal living and dining rooms. On the second floor are five bedrooms with four baths. Three more large bedrooms are on the third floor. A carriage house and greenhouse are all part of this enticing package. A fine house to be looked over, not overlooked.

FOR THOSE WANTING the traditional English, we are proud to present this three bedroom, one and a half bath. Featuring gas forced air heating and a super basement room. It comes with carpeting and draperies, two car attached garage with electric doors and a sprinklered 75x148 lot beautifully landscaped with several fruit trees. A large assumable 7 1/4% mortgage is most attractive in today's money market.

A STATELY HOUSE located in the Farms just a few feet from the Lake has become even more attractive because now it is available for purchase. Designed by Albert Kahn Associates, this petite mansion offers a large entrance foyer with marble floor, a large formal living room with magnificent fireplace; and the dining room, library and living room all face the lake. Five bedrooms and four baths comprise the second floor. This one will appeal to everyone... we wish we had more.

A "MUST SEE" is this gracious French country house being offered in one of the best locations in Grosse Pointe Farms. From the curb the house appears overpowering, but inside you'll find four comfortable, family bedrooms and two more bedrooms over the attached garage. The first floor has a beautifully proportioned living room which is a step down from the large foyer with its circular staircase. The library is as large as many living rooms and the dining room formal enough for a State dinner.

In The

Grosse Pointe Woods
Michigan

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods will hold a Public Hearing at the Municipal Building, 20025 Mack Avenue, Grosse Pointe Woods, Wayne County, Michigan, on Monday, June 17, 1974, at 7:30 p.m. o'clock to hear the following petition for rezoning of certain property within the said City, namely:

The petition of Robert L. Hozdich, 1154 Hampton Road, Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan, requesting the rezoning of Lot 21, Assessors Grosse Pointe Woods Plat No. 1, of part of Lots 1 and 2 of Plat of Partition of Private Claim 249, Estate of Charles Vernier, and also commonly described as 1006 Vernier Road, from a R-1 Single-Family Residential District to a R-2 Two-Family Residential District and thereby amending Section 44.17.1 of Article 44 of Ordinance No. 88 entitled, "The Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods", as amended, and further amending and revising the Zoning Map of the said City of Grosse Pointe Woods, accordingly.

The Council authorized the City Administration to request that the State of Michigan bid the City's requirements for rock salt.

The Council, having considered the request of the members of the Policemen and Firemen Retirement System for paid Blue Cross-Blue Shield benefits for retirees who choose voluntary retirement prior to age 60, and their spouses, declined to place the matter on the ballot.

The Council authorized the employment of Art Tucker Contractor on a time and materials basis to attempt to correct the cause of a depression in the road in front of 31 Harbor Hill.

The Council approved the low bid of Michigan Mutual Liability Company in the amount of $3,965.00, for full insurance coverage on all City-owned vehicles.

The following Reports were received by the Council, and were ordered placed on file:

A. Fire Department Report for the month of April, 1974.

B. Police Department Report for the month of April, 1974.

Upon proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 10:20 p.m.

George Pierrot Praises Lake St. Clair

Michiganians to "See Michigan First" on their vacation trips this year. It features a kaleidoscope of vacation delights to be found across the state.

Succeeding issues will explore attractions in the Upper Peninsula, East Michigan, West Michigan, South-east Michigan and in the Detroit area.

"I've fished all over Michigan, but my favorite spot is Lake St. Clair," Pierrot tells Auto Club's 1,170,000 readers. "This roughly 20-square-mile lake hosts some 200,000 fishermen a year and stays unbelievably productive," he writes.

Pierrot states he likes to fish with a guide, because the guide knows the waters. "You're told what's biting where, and how to rig and fish. All you have to do is fish, breathe fresh air and devour fried chicken," he adds.

Pointer of Interest

JEANNE ROBINSON, OF UNIVERSITY-LIGGETT SCHOOL

By Nancy Kramer

If, for one reason or another, you aren't willing to shell out $5 for a book of University-Liggett Scholarship tickets, stay clear of Jeanne Robinson. It's her job to make sure those babies sell, and she takes it pretty seriously. On the other hand, if the budget allows, go ahead and buy. Rest assured the money goes to a good cause.

Jeanne, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall Robinson, is this year's student in charge of sales for Scholarship Tickets, the proceeds of which, naturally, go to the school's scholarship fund. As such, she is very much a part of the total scheme of this year's University-Liggett Carnival, the extravaganza consistently notorious for emptying Pointers' pockets of all spare change.

Students Take Over

The Scholarship tickets are always sold in conjunction with the Carnival, although only recently has responsibility for their sale been placed solely in the hands of students. Jeanne's co-chairman is former Pointer of Interest Mike Farley.

"The people in charge of the Carnival are really trying to get as many students involved as they can," Jeanne reports, "so for every adult chairman, they've chosen two students to work alongside."

Jeanne and Mike have things organized pretty well. Using the age-old ulterior motivation trick, they've set goals for each of the school's three divisions.

The Lower School grades are being enticed into selling by the promise of an ice-cream party for the top-hawking homeroom in each grade. "It will be a total of five parties for them," Jeanne figures, "and they really are good at selling. They're too young to feel funny about it, and no one can really slam a door in a little kid's face."

Two Other Prizes

The fastest talking salesman in the Middle School will take home a brand-new, 10-speed bicycle.

The Upper School's lure was intended to really hit home. They were told if they collected the magic amount of $5,000, they would be given a day off. "We really didn't think they could do it," Jeanne recalls.

And, indeed, for a while there were definite grounds for doubt. The drive was kicked off in the middle of April, with distribution of three books of tickets to each student, and up to last Tuesday, The Upper School had responded with $2,800; a far cry from what Jeanne and Mike had hoped they'd raise.

But high school students work well under pressure and the kids finally rallied to make the $5,000 mark by last Friday's deadline. "I couldn't believe that," Jeanne smiles. "They brought in $2,200 in two days. On Tuesday, we never thought they would make it."

Had Monday Off

The Upper School was duly rewarded for their efforts last Monday, May 20.

Jeanne thinks most ULS students feel supportive toward the Carnival. She herself supports it because she believes in the education she got. As a graduating senior, she tends to be reflective on the matter: "I really think I've received an excellent education; I've enjoyed it here too. ULS has an advantage in its smaller size. I know it's enabled me to get to know everyone here."

She credits the school also with linking her to the surrounding community. "You have to seek them out, but the channels for that are right here in school."

Involved in Project

She's involved in the Hobart Street Project, a group active in picketing for urban renewal downtown. "We do some painting and clean-up work, and sometimes attend council meetings to make city officials aware of our needs and requests."

Jeanne also is a member of the school-sponsored Council for Community Activities which supports students abroad, and recently, though she didn't hike in the 20-mile Council for Youth Development's fund-raising walkathon, she did supply home-made cookies for those who made the trek.

She's been a counselor on sixth grade Proud Lake Tribes outings, school trips that foster a combination of outdoor education as well as social camaraderie.

Other counseling experience has been gained over the past two summers spent helping out with the Sacred Heart Enrichment Program, an operation that provides unique opportunities for inner-city girls to brush up academically and learn responsibility within a day camp-like atmosphere.

Wants to Teach

Small wonder then, Jeanne's fairly sure she'd like to go on to teach or counsel younger children. She'll be working toward that goal in the fall, majoring in Education at Smith College. "It's still kind of indefinite, but I think that's what I'd like to do."

The prospect of travel excites her. She'd like to work it out so she could spend at least one of her college years abroad, studying in a foreign country. She's already been to Italy with the rest of her family.

Jeanne's extracurricular activities closer to school include memberships on the ULS hockey, volleyball and tennis teams. She likes to play the guitar and piano and she enjoys reading a wide variety of books. This summer, she plans to divide her time between a business office job at Cottage Hospital and tutoring a seventh grade student in mathematics.

She's an Honor Student. Amazingly, all of Jeanne's outside functions haven't had an adverse effect on grades. Academically, she shines. Always an honor student, she was recently cited by Phi Beta Kappa as one of the nation's outstanding high school students. "It's more or less Phi Beta Kappa's prediction of how an individual will do in college," she explains.

ULS itself is currently doing its best to prepare the class of '74 for college, the business world, or whatever students will meet after they receive their diplomas on Tuesday, June 11.

Once classes end on May 1, and exams are finally concluded, ULS seniors slide into what's called "Senior Projects."

Some pupils go outside the school, take non-paying jobs, working in various places to gain experience which they personally evaluate at the project's conclusion.

Stays Close to School
Other students elect to take advantage of a series of research seminars and workshops, given by teachers, professionals and guest speakers, and offered right on the campus. Jeanne has opted for participating in the seminars and workshop phase of the program. She figured, correctly, she'd better stick close to school at this point.

It's a good thing she did. Carnival work is pretty demanding. "In the past, I helped out at other Carnivals... selling soft drinks and things like that, but I never headed anything. It really is a full-time job," she says. "It's not easy pushing people to sell. Mostly it involves a lot of talking."

Jeanne and Mike have had to address the school collectively, at assemblies, as well as psyche each class individually into reaching its goal. There also are Trustee and Alumni Boards to answer to.

But if they mind all that hard work, they aren't admitting it.

Many on Scholarships
Both are aware that, out of the school's total enrollment about 20 percent, or one of every five students attends ULS on a scholarship.

"Scholarships are awarded on the basis of tests, interviews, personal records and financial need," Jeanne explains, "so really, we have people from all kinds of diverse backgrounds going here."

And, given Jeanne's enthusiasm for the ULS system of schooling, it isn't surprising to find her putting 100 percent effort into this year's Scholarship Ticket sales.

Goal Is $23,000
"We have at least $15,000 now. Last year we made $18,000, so we set this year's total goal at $23,000."

As an insider to Carnival proceedings, Jeanne predicts the usual array of exciting rides will be available on the University campus playing field as well as all the other refreshments, games and prizes Pointers have come to expect.

But this year's plans include a promising innovation that should especially please ULS students. For a nominal fee, a student with a good pitching arm will be able to send certain teachers and administrators into a shallow, but nevertheless effective "drunk." "They volunteered for it," she laughs.

And when the Carnival rolls into town, Friday and Saturday, June 7 and 8, Jeanne will be there, decked out in barker's gear, straw hat and striped apron, still pushing those Scholarship Tickets as hard as she can.

Set Friendship Service June 2

The Annual Canadian American Friendship Service will be held at the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, Detroit, Sunday afternoon, June 2, at 4 o'clock.

The Essex and Kent Scottish of Windsor will attend with their Pipes and Drums, as they and their predecessor The Essex Scottish have done for 45 years.

Their traditional ceremonial is the highlight of the Service, when their Colors are dipped in salute to the altar.

The Right Reverend Richard S. Emrich, CBE, Ph.D., DD, of Sun City, Ariz., retired Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan (Episcopal), will give the sermon.

Lessons will be read by Lieutenant Colonel Robert A. P. Rideout, CD, Commanding Officer of the Regiment, and by Brigadier General Alexander R. McIntosh, CD, of London, Commander of the Central Militia Area.

Prayers will be read by the Base Chaplain, Canadian Forces Base, London, and the Chaplains to the Essex and Kent Scottish, H.M. Canadian Ship Hunter, and the Great Lakes States Command of the Royal Canadian Legion.

All local British, Canadian, Scottish and Welsh organizations are invited to participate, as well as civic, patriotic and Veterans organizations and Boy Scouts of Canada in Essex County.

Many distinguished officers, active reserve or retired, of the Canadian and United States Armed Forces will attend.

The British Consul General at Detroit will read a message from the British Ambassador to the United States, and the Consul of Canada will read a message from the Canadian Ambassador to the United States.

The Windsor District Military Band will play the offertory selection and the National Anthems of Britain, Canada and the United States.

Singing will be led by the choir of Saint Aidan's Anglican Church, Windsor, whose rector and choir director will be present.

Lois Crisan, former assistant organist of the Cathedral, will be guest organist.

Among Pointers planning to attend are Walker L. Cislir, Admiral and Mrs. Leon J. Jacobi, Justice G. Mennen Williams, the Berrien Eatons, the Dewey H. Nortons and Colonel Orville E. Sherwood.

Both the Consul of Canada, Morley B. Bursley, and the British Consul General, James T. Hyslop, are Pointe residents.

The Empire Day Service began at the Cathedral in 1924, for members of British, Canadian, Scottish and Welsh organizations in the Detroit and Windsor areas who wished to worship together. It was held on the Sunday nearest Queen Victoria's birthday, May 24.

The Essex Scottish of Windsor under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Alan C. Prince, V.D., first attended in 1929, and with its successor The Essex and Kent Scottish has attended each year since 1929, with the exception of World War II when the Regiment was overseas.

The Regiment parades each year from the Detroit-

Windsor tunnel via Woodward avenue to the Cathedral.

In 1953 the name of the Service was appropriately changed to The Commonwealth Day Service. In 1966 it was again changed, by agreement between the Bishop of the Diocese, the Dean of the Cathedral and the British Consul General at Detroit, to the "Canadian American Friendship Service" to honour the birthday of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, to be held on the Sunday immediately before or after the Queen's official birthday in June.

This change was desired because the older generation which had migrated from the Mother Country was thinning out through death, the younger generation of British Commonwealth descent did not feel the same inclination to attend, and greater numbers of Canadians were attending, making the Service in reality more Canadian than Commonwealth.

In May 1956, 1958 and 1964 the British Ambassador to the United States attended the Service. The Canadian Ambassador to the United States attended in June 1966 and 1967, and the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario attended in 1967, 1968, 1969 and 1971.

The Honourable Paul Martin, when Secretary of State for External Affairs and later as Government Leader of the Canadian Senate, has attended frequently. He gave the address in 1970.

When Canada celebrated its 100th Anniversary of Confederation in 1967 the Centennial Commissioner gave the address. Many distinguished Bishops and other clergy of Canada and the United States have given the sermon, including the Chaplain General (Protestant) of the Canadian Forces, who preached in 1973.

A handsome marble tablet presented by The Essex Scottish at the Empire Day Service in May, 1946, commemorating the friendship between Canada and the United States of America, appears on the north wall of The Cathedral's Grace Chapel.
