WOODS SENIORS ORGANIZE

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, June 27
A LIST OF witnesses was announced Wednesday for the White House Plumbers' trial. Prosecutors and defense attorneys began what will surely be a lengthy process to select a jury for the much-publicized trial. The case of United States vs. John D. Erlichman, G. Gordon Liddy, Bernard Barker and Eugenio Martinez will be heard before U. S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell. The defendants are all accused of conspiring to violate the rights of Dr. Lewis Fielding, a Beverly Hills psychiatrist, by breaking into his office.

Friday, June 28
THE SECURITIES AND Exchange Commission is investigating a company which the Wall Street Journal said cheated investors, including many show business personalities, out of $130 million in an oil drilling swindle. The paper said those who invested in the scheme ranged from comedian Jack Benny, who invested $300,000, to First National City Bank Chairman Walter B. Wriston, who put up $211,000. The case centers around Home-State Production Co., a Tulsa tax-shelter oil-drilling company. The scheme involves paying off early investors with money from later investors.

Saturday, June 29
FEDERAL AVIATION officials are probing the cause of a crash that occurred Thursday night between a Detroit Police helicopter and a private plane over the Detroit River near Belle Isle. Both officers in the helicopter, Jon A. Ryckman and Byron B. Soule, were killed. The other airplane made a safe landing at Detroit City Airport although the plane was damaged extensively. The helicopter wreck was pulled from the river today.

Sunday, June 30
A SUBURBAN NEW YORK nightclub was gutted by fire early Sunday, leaving 24 young persons dead. Medical authorities said 11 of women and 13 men all died of smoke inhalation at the club on the New York-Connecticut border. The nightclub is located in Westchester County, N.Y., one of the richest areas in the United States. Fire officials have not determined the cause of the blaze.

Monday, July 1
MRS. MARTIN Luther King, Sr. was shot and killed Sunday in Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta as she played the organ. The black leaders in Atlanta say the young black student charged with the slaying was part of a conspiracy to kill black leaders but police officials say they strongly doubt that theory. Immediately after the shooting, Marcus Wayne Chenault, 23, of Dayton, O., was seized as the assailant. Atlanta Judge William Brock directed that a plea of not guilty be entered this morning at his arraignment on murder charges. Mrs. King, 69, was shot yesterday as she played "The Lord's Prayer" on the organ in the church where her son, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., preached nonviolence and brotherhood before his assassination in 1968.

Tuesday, July 2
ARMED FORCES have been put on alert since the death of Argentina's President Juan D. Peron yesterday. The onetime dictator, who defied old age and a weak heart to return to power last year after 13 years of exile, died of heart and kidney failure at the age of 78. His widow and successor, Isabel Peron, 43, announced his death with the nation's military and cabinet leaders behind her. Shortly before the announcement, government sources said the armed forces went on alert reserved for national crises.

He Can't Believe He Ate The Whole Thing!

Taking the first bite of a 64-foot banana split is Associate Pastor ED STEINHART of the Grosse Pointe Baptist Church, 21336 Mack avenue. Seconds later, the 64-footer was attacked by 65 kids, members of the Church's youth group under the direction of Jerry Pettillon. By that time, the kids had worked up quite an appetite after finishing a volleyball game. The banana split, which was constructed in a rain gutter lined with tin foil, consisted of 320 scoops of ice cream, 30 bananas and gobs of chocolate sauce, marshmallow sauce, cherries and nuts, courtesy of Farmer Jacks, Baskin-Robbins at Harper and Martin roads, and Jacks Fruit Market. A good time was had by all, but we'll have to check with the mothers, (many of whom helped make the banana split), on how the young epicurians felt the next morning!

Artists Fair Hailed as Big Success

Everyone Pleased with
First Annual Summerfest
Held in Jacobson's
D'Hondt Way

By Nancy Kramer
By all accounts, the Grosse Pointe Artists Association's first annual Summerfest art fair was a great success. At least that was the impression obtained from GPAAA exhibitors who set up shop in the D'Hondt Pedestrian Way behind Jacobson's in the Village, from Thursday through Saturday, June 25-27.

"I think it's terrific," commented newly-elected Association president Alice Balfrey, who exhibited oil paintings as well as drawings for children's rooms. "The response has been very good. I think it's fun for Grosse Pointe to do something like this."

Everything Worked
"It went very well," Summerfest chairman Nancy Pomeroy concurred. "Everything worked in our favor. Just enough artists were there. The location was beautiful and the weather was great."

Corinne Deleaga was glad to see so many painters as opposed to craftsmen comprising the exhibit. Her own works were done mostly in watercolor and oils though she did have some glassware on display. "I think people are going back to buy."

Several Area Robberies Solved by Arrest of Two Following Church Theft

Alert Citizen Puts Finger on Pair; Golf Equipment and Saddle Stolen from Three Clubs
Found in Pawn Shops

The sentencing of a Detroit man who pled guilty to a charge of larceny from a building in a robbery at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church is scheduled for Wednesday, July 10, at 11 a.m. before Farms Municipal Judge Robert H. Pytell.

Marshall L. Omans, 23, of 1110 Philip, Detroit, pled guilty Wednesday, June 26, to the break-in at the church on Friday, June 21. Omans has been released on $1,000 personal bond.

The arraignment of a local man who allegedly was involved in the robbery has been postponed until Wednesday, July 31.

Farms Detective Earl Field said a blue electric typewriter, two silver microphones with stands and grey cords and two brass candlesticks were stolen from the church.

Petrik Paid High Honor For Service

Woods Public Safety
Award Given Special
Award at College
Commencement

By Roger A. Waha
Woods Public Safety Officer Stephen Petrik, who has been a member of the department for almost 20 years, was the recipient of a special Community Service Award at the 1974 commencement exercises of Wayne County Community College Wednesday evening, June 26, in the Cobo Hall convention area.

The officer's daughter, Patricia Ann, 20, a member of the graduating class who received an interior design degree in associate of arts, first nominated her father to receive the honor and requested that it be a surprise for him on commencement night.

But because of prior travel engagements, the news had to be given to Officer Petrik a week earlier so he could definitely plan to attend the event. "When my daughter told me that I would receive the award, I felt she was kidding. I was very honored and surprised to receive it," he said.

Nine Given Awards
During the ceremonies, special awards were presented to nine citizens and six graduating students for their service to the college and/or the community. Other recipients included former Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh, Wayne State University President George E. Gullen, Jr., and the Reverend Mother Charleszetta Waddles, pastor of the Perpetual Mission.

Two More Dead As Car Plunges Over Lake Wall

County Medical Examiner's Office Rules Drowning Murder-Suicide; Driver and His Mother Are Victims

Lake St. Clair claimed two more victims Friday, June 28, when a car driven by a Harper Woods man plunged into the lake from the driveway of St. Paul's Church, 157 Lakeshore road.

William J. Forbes, 58, of 20630 Balfour, Harper Woods, and his mother, Irene Butts, 75, of 207 Oakdale, Royal Oak, a passenger in the car he was driving, were pronounced dead on arrival at 1:15 p.m. at Cottage Hospital by Dr. Wally Mahara in the emergency room.

The Wayne County Medical Examiner's Office has ruled the drownings a murder-suicide based on information received by the family of the two.

Second Time in Month
This is the second time this month a car has landed in the lake and killed its occupants. On Saturday, June 8, Dr. William A. Fellner, 48, of 1798 Vernier road, was killed when his auto left Lakeshore road and flipped upside down into the lake.

The Farms police accident report stated that the Forbes car was traveling south out of St. Paul's Church driveway, crossed Lakeshore road and continued over the breakwall into the lake.

Farms Fire Chief Michael Beaupre said his department received the report of the accident at 12:26 p.m. from a woman witness who drove to the fire station and started honking her horn. He said the ambulance and aerial truck responded to the scene.

Remove Both Bodies
Farms Fireman Gary Luzier entered the water with outdiving gear upon arriving at the scene and located the auto. He returned to shore, put on his gear and went down again and was able to remove Mrs. Butts.

Fireman Robert Gmerek and Farms Officer Vincent Peters transported both victims to Cottage Hospital where they were pronounced dead on arrival.

School Board Meets July 8

The annual organization meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education will be held at 8 p.m. on Monday, July 8, in the Board Room of the schools' Administration Building, 389 St. Clair avenue.

Trustees will elect officers for the 1974-75 year. In addition, routine, first-of-the-year business will be conducted. The meeting is open to the public.

Heart Attack Is Fatal To 12-Year-Old Cyclist

The death of a 12-year-old bicyclist, who collapsed on North Duval, near Lakeshore road, on Tuesday, June 25, was attributed to natural causes, it was disclosed by Shores authorities on Wednesday, June 26. An autopsy report from the hospital showed that the young victim died of a heart attack.

Dead is Todd Kieren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Kieren of The Woods. Public safety officers, Sgt. James Jurcak and Patrolman Gary Mitchell, who responded with the Fire Department ambulance, administered 800 pounds of oxygen and applied heart massage to the boy in an attempt to revive him, but without success. Todd was pronounced dead on arrival by doctors at the hospital.

He told the authorities that he heard young Kieren call "I'm having a heart attack."

Hold First Meeting to Make Plans

Session at North High School Attended by 100
Enthusiastic Elder
Citizens

By Tom Panzenhagen
"This getting old is for the birds, did you know that?" asked Catherine Brophy, retired senior citizen and recording secretary at the first meeting of The Woods Senior Citizens Commission Thursday, June 27.

Irene Sutton, main proponent of the commission created by The Woods Council May 6, chaired the meeting attended by about 100 of the city's elders, in the cafeteria of North High School.

Featured speakers were G. Bruce Feighner, principal of North High School, and Frederick G. Hornfisher, Woods city assessor-comptroller, who substituted for Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos.

You're All Beautiful
Mrs. Sutton called the gathering to order by saying, "Good afternoon, seniors. You all look so beautiful."

"I would like to thank you for coming because I've been praying that we could get a senior citizen's program started in Grosse Pointe Woods."

The senior citizens were generally responsive to Mrs. Sutton's enthusiasm. When she announced that two of the commission members could not attend this meeting—but that they would be at the next meeting—Mrs. Sutton asked the audience, "Will there be a next meeting?"

The audience responded with spontaneous applause. Mayor Is Interested
Mr. Hornfisher, next to speak, apologized for the mayor's absence from the meeting: "Mayor Pinkos is sorry that he couldn't be here because he is very interested in the senior citizens' program."

Mrs. Sutton agreed that the mayor had been instrumental in initiating the senior citizens' program, but she added that the current program would have to "make up for lost time" in respect to the lack of senior citizens' programs in the past.

"There is no reason why at this time of our lives we have to take a back seat. We're going to live it up," Mrs. Sutton said.

Surprise Speaker
A surprise speaker was Mr. Feighner, who said he discovered only that morning that the commission was to meet in the cafeteria of North High School.

But Mr. Feighner delighted the crowd by saying, "We, (the school), would like to tap the resources we know are sitting around these tables today."

Mr. Feighner said many senior citizens could quite probably be brought in to speak to the students in an advisory capacity. He cited the examples of retired bookkeepers being of aid to accounting classes, and retired homemakers giving tips to home economics students.

Woods Lions Present Check

Members of The Woods Lions Club recently traveled to the Leader Dog School for the Blind, Rochester, Mich., to present a $1,000 check for the school's use in its training program.

These funds were made available via the club's fund raising activities which are carried on throughout the year in The Pointe, and which have been generously supported by residents, said George A. Grove, club member.

The check, which was presented to Ron Essary, dog trainer, by Larry Yanchus of the Lions, brings the total of monies donated to the school this year by the Lions to $1,715.

Dangers of Hitchhiking Pointed Out by Police

According to the dictionary, the definition of hitchhiking is to travel by getting free automobile rides and sometimes by walking between rides. One thing the book does not add is the word "danger."

The element of danger exists not only to the hitchhiker, but also to the motorist who picks up the person, or persons, "thumbing a ride." There is the possibility of bodily harm, robbery, sexual assault, and possibly death, inflicted by the hitchhiker on the driver, or even the other extreme, the driver versus the hitchhiker.

Raise $132,115 In Center Drive

The latest figures released by John Lake, director of the War Memorial, show the family membership donor campaign to be ahead of last year's totals at this time. The Center has collected $132,115 from 6,596 donors compared to $130,715 from 6,531 donors at this time last year.

Senior Citizens Organize

Continued use of the school's cafeteria by the senior citizens during the summer recess was also given approval by Mr. Feighner.

"Here's a group that looks to me like they need some help getting started," Mr. Feighner said in reference to his limited offer of cafeteria space.

The seniors probably could not use the school on any permanent basis once the new school year begins in September, he said.

Other suggested gathering places for the senior citizens were The Woods City Hall — dismissed as too small — and the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church — which remains on a wait-and-see basis.

Junior Pastor Roger DeNoyelles said Monday, July 1, that use of church facilities would be decided upon at a meeting of the governing session in about two weeks.

Another possibility, brought to light by Woods City Manager Chester E. Petersen, concerns the upcoming election in that city.

On August 6, the people of The Woods can vote for the "Lakefront Park Improvements" bond issue which, if passed, would mean that the bath house in the city park will be turned into a meeting hall to be used by city organizations, Mr. Petersen said.

Other proposals made at the meeting included free admission for senior citizens to North High School student activities, (including concerts, plays, etc.), made by Mr. Feighner. And use of The Woods' park pool exclusively by seniors during certain hours of the week, made by Mrs. Sutton.

The first proposal was agreed upon and senior citizens may now receive passes to student activities by calling Mr. Feighner's office.

The second proposal awaits discussion by The Woods Council.

Before the meeting ended about 3 p.m., Mrs. Sutton announced a senior citizens picnic to be held Tuesday, July 16 at 10 a.m. in The Woods Lake Front Park.

Naturally spanning won't help much in this soft-handed age.

GP Artists Association Has Successful Fair

ing paintings now," she remarked.

Most Summerfest artists did show paintings but Rita Meech had pottery, John Wargelin exhibited leaded glass pieces and Sonja Preuthun displayed her handmade silver and enamel jewelry.

She Set Up Show

Mrs. Prophit was largely responsible for setting up the show and she was happy with the way things were arranged. "We had just the right amount of exhibitors. A person could see everything in a short amount of time and then go back to buy if he wanted."

Besides affording Pointers the chance to browse and really buy, since prices were certainly not prohibitive, Summerfest goes had a unique opportunity to hear individual artists expound on their own techniques and the personal delights of working in a given media.

Slides Are Helpful

Most of Claude Streb's watercolor scenes of Nova Scotia were done using color slides as models. "That way, he explained, "the color is set. When you try to paint the real scene, the color is constantly changing."

Mrs. Balfrey felt a viewer should consider the materials used and the amount of time and effort put into a work of art.

Some artists thought of painting as their hobby, but Deanna Brinkman saw differently. "Working in oils and acrylics is an avocation for me," she maintained. But, acknowledging that much of her display consisted of bright floral watercolors, she said she had exploited this year's unseasonably long spring to turn out a number of those works.

All Interpretation

Mrs. Brinkman claimed all painting was subject to an artist's interpretation of reality. "When you paint, you never put down exactly what you see. Especially with watercolors—you just record a shape. I do watercolors mainly for relaxation, but most of all, painting is fun."

Mrs. Brinkman's son, Gunther, apparently agreed with her sentiments. Establishing himself under the table with a box of crayons, he proceeded to knock off a few drawings of his own which were taped up next to his mother's creations.

Gunther's obvious talent and bargain prices did not go overlooked and one of his sketches was promptly snatched up by a youthful admirer.

Mrs. Balfrey was pleased with the number of young people who showed their interest in art by visiting the display. While the Association has no younger members at present, getting kids into the group is something Mrs. Balfrey is genuinely interested in doing.

The Association was formed in 1938 by a group of ladies who met for painting sessions at one another's homes. The small group soon became affiliated with the War Memorial, expanded to take in other art forms and increased in membership to reach its present total of about 150.

Membership is limited to residents of Grosse Pointe or to instructors who teach in Pointe schools.

To Be Annual Affair

The three-day exhibit was technically billed as the first annual Summerfest, implying another is in the offing.

Jacobson's had a hand in the instigation and planning of this year's project, and according to Mrs. Prophit, they can be counted upon to assist the Association in a similar endeavor next summer.

Meanwhile the store will keep Pointers aware of the Association's presence by displaying the works of an "Artist of the Month" in their restaurant, beginning in September.

Mrs. Prophit wouldn't change a thing about this year's Summerfest to try and make it better for the future. "We'd want to do it the same way," she concluded, obviously knowing a sure thing once she's found it.

WRAP IT UP

Parcells Middle School students raised about $1,000 this year with their wrapping paper sale. The volunteers sold assorted wrapping paper at $2 a package. Some of the proceeds will be used to buy equipment for the reading lab, and the remainder will be put into the student council fund.

Hitchhiking Dangers

smash into a fixed object.

"How about the driver's side of the situation," Dun can pointed out further, "whereby the hitchhiker(s), male or female, could, and sometimes do, extort money from their benefactor on the threat of reporting them to the authorities for trying to molest them? Or, the hitchhiker(s) reporting to police that they had been criminally assaulted, or the motorist had tried to commit such an assault on their person?"

The accused driver is arrested, and although innocent, must be put through the embarrassment of being arrested, booked, having his picture taken for the "mug file," and possibly be put through a polygraph, (lie detector), test. Even if he is proven innocent, there will always be someone, perhaps a relative, friend or neighbor, who will continue to cast the stigma of suspicion on the poor motorist.

Two of the Pointers, The Woods and The Shores, have ordinances which absolutely forbid hitchhiking within their community limits, and have posted signs to that effect.

The Park, Farms and City, have ordinances which place a strict curb on hitchhiking, whereby it is forbidden to walk in the streets, where there are sidewalks available, "thumbing a ride" and thereby impeding vehicular traffic. No person is allowed to stand on the roadway for the purpose of soliciting a ride, employment, or business.

During the school year, many students are seen trying to hitch a ride, either to or from school. Now, with summer vacation here, many boys and girls will find more activities and places to go to, and will be seen trying to get a ride to their destination.

Pointe police have only this to say—be wary. Drivers don't pick up hitchhikers, and boys and girls, don't try to hitch a ride. Police officers, at least in the Pointe, are instructed to strictly enforce the law and issue tickets to violators.

Elect Pointers To JA Board

Two Pointers were elected officers and another was elected to the board of directors of Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan following the corporation's recent annual meeting.

Ross Roy, of Sheldon road, chairman of the board of Ross Roy, Incorporated, was returned to his seat as chairman of the board of Junior Achievement.

Ludger A. Beauvais, of Hampton road, director of shortage control and price administration for the J. L. Hudson Company, was re-elected treasurer.

Newly elected to the board of directors was Edward C. Foote of Merriweather road, vice-president of Detroit Metropolitan Region, Michigan Mutual Liability Company.

Woods Penalty Date Extended

The Woods Council unanimously extended the city's tax penalty date to September 4, 1974, in action at the regular meeting Monday, July 1.

According to the City Charter, all taxes paid on or before August 31 of each year will be collected by the treasurer without collection fee. However, on September 1 the treasurer will add to all taxes paid thereafter a collection fee of four percent. But this year, August 31 falls on a Saturday.

The charter further provides that whenever the date fixed for the doing or completion of any act falls on a Sunday or legal holiday, the act shall be done or completed on the next succeeding day which is not a Sunday or legal holiday.

So, City Treasurer Helen L. Fox questioned, inasmuch as September 2 is Labor Day, did the council want to extend the penalty date to the 4th or have the office remain open on Saturday, August 31? The solons decided on the former.

Honor Received by Dr. Spillan

Dr. James Spillan, social studies teacher at Parcels Middle School, has been chosen as one of the Outstanding Secondary Educators of America for 1974. Nominated earlier this year by his principal, Morris F. Hamrick, Dr. Spillan was selected for the honor on the basis of his professional and civil achievements.

Outstanding Secondary Educators of America is an annual awards program honoring men and women for their exceptional services, achievements and leadership in the field of secondary education. Each year, the biographies of those honored are featured in the awards volume, "Outstanding Secondary Educators of America."

In announcing the award winners to the administrators, Dr. V. Gilbert Beers, program director stated, "The men and women chosen for this high honor have explored new paths, developed new insights and effectively communicated their knowledge to their students and colleagues. They are exceptional teachers."

Guidelines for selection include an educator's talents in the classroom, contributions to research, administrative abilities, civic service and professional recognition. Heading the Board of Advisors is V. Gilbert Beers, Ph.D. Serving with him are James F. Bemis, executive director, Northwest Association of Secondary & Higher Schools; William P. Viall, professor of educational leadership, Western Michigan University; Jerry P. Lightner, executive director, The National Association of Biology Teachers, Inc.; F. W. Nachtmann, executive secretary, American Association of Teachers of French; E. C. Karwand, executive secretary, Journalism Education Association, Wisconsin State University; and Dr. David T. Transgard, executive secretary, National Association of State Boards of Education.

YSD Reports Drop in Cases

The Youth Service Division, (YSD), processed 62 complaints in May, a drop of 14 below the number of cases received during April but an increase of four over May 1973.

Through May, the YSD has handled 298 cases, an increase of 48 over the same period last year.

The categories of highest incidence were larceny/theft and runaway/missing with each offense showing 11 incidents.

Categories related to larceny/theft, burglary, five incidents, and possession of stolen property, two incidents, brings the total of related offenses to 18, which involved 20 boys and two girls. The

Thieves Steal Center's Safe

The comptroller of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial reported to Farms police Monday, June 24, the theft of a grey, steel safe from the Center containing about $1,900 in cash and checks.

War Memorial Comptroller James Owens called The Farms station at 6:13 a.m. to report a thief or thieves had stolen the safe from the business offices on the second floor. Officers responding to the call discovered the building had been entered by force through a ground floor window.

Farms Detective Earl Field

was called to the scene where photographs were taken and the area was processed for fingerprints. He said nothing else appeared to be disturbed in the building and that the loss was entered into the Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN) computers.

Detective Field said Mr. Owens had gone to work early that morning to attend to extra work. He told police the safe was located outside his office door and he called police when he noticed it gone.

The safe measures about two feet by two feet with no names imprinted on the front.

According to War Memorial Director John Lake and Mr. Owens, tapes run on the weekend's receipts show about $1,900 in cash and checks were in the safe.

Detective Field said a stop order was put on the checks throughout the Detroit banking system.

On Wednesday, June 26, the teletype machine at the Farms Police reported that Madison Heights police had recovered a safe fitting the description of the one stolen from the War Memorial.

It turned out to be a different safe.

Detective Earl Field contacted that department and learned that Madison Heights police had stopped a convertible with a safe protruding from the back seat. A State Police Crime Lab crew was at the scene but the safe had not yet been opened.

Detective Field said he gave the State Police the War Memorial safe combination, which succeeded in opening the second safe.

Upon examining the contents, which were found to be personal papers, bonds and cash, it was realized the safe was not from the War Memorial.

The recovered safe had been stolen from a Madison Heights residence and had not been reported.

Farms detectives are continuing their investigation of the case.

It seems that war hatreds are soon forgotten, and every once in a while you see a former serviceman buying a canned meat.

Woods Accepts Concrete Bids

The Woods Council unanimously accepted several bids for furnishing all labor, material and equipment for the repairing and/or replacement of any concrete street section, concrete curbing, concrete sidewalks and any concrete drive approaches on a unit basis as part of its repair program. This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, July 1.

For the repairing of concrete street sections, the bid of the T & T Cement Company, 29201 Joan, St. Clair Shores, was accepted at a cost of $1.48 per square foot.

The bid of the Vanopdenbosch Construction Company, 32890 Coventry place, Warren, was accepted for concrete curb recapping, straight curb, at a cost of $2.50 per lineal foot.

For complete concrete curb work, the bid of Vanopdenbosch also was accepted at a cost of $4.50 per lineal foot.

Then, for concrete sidewalk replacement, four inches, and for concrete sidewalk and driveway approach work, six inches, the bids of Carini Cement, 16505 Juliana, East Detroit, were accepted at a cost of 90 cents per square foot and $1 per square foot, respectively.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen explained to the council that bids were handled on a separate basis with the bidders specializing in various areas of concrete work. As a result, a bidder can do his specialty at a lower cost with the possible advantage of completing the work quicker.

Mr. Petersen said concrete street sections set for repair are primarily situated east of Mack from Cook to Vernier road; Bramcaster road from about Newcastle to Stanhope road as needed, and Eastbourne from Newcastle to Broadstone.

Complete curb recapping will take place on North Oxford road from Hollywood to Morningside drive; Fairholme road from Mack to Hollywood; Hollywood from Mack to Marler road, and Fairway from Lochmoor to Sunningdale.

The city administrator said small sections of broken curb will be repaired throughout an area east of Mack and from Cook to Vernier road,

Buy Terminal from Bus Line

The Board of the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority, (SEMTA), voted last week to purchase the Lake Shore Terminal, 11840 Edlie, on Detroit's near east side, for $100,000 from the Lake Shore Coach Lines, Inc.

The terminal will be used to house SEMTA's bus fleet that services the Pointes and St. Clair Shores. The terminal will be utilized until a new terminal can be constructed in Roseville.

SEMTA, which purchased the bus operations of the Lake Shore Lines in September 1971, has been leasing the terminal facilities for the past three years. SEMTA was unable to renegotiate a new lease as the owners of the property would only sell it.

Fire Damages Stolen Cruiser

Shores public safety officers arrived at the scene of a boat fire at 2:18 a.m. on Friday, June 28, but were preceded by the St. Clair Shores Coast Guard Station crew who were on hand putting out the blaze with foam extinguishers. The boat had been stolen from a marina in St. Clair Shores.

Cpl. Daniel Fronczak and Patrolmen Michael Kenyon and Archie Grieve were dispatched to the peninsula off shore from 1100 Lakeshore road, where it was reported that a craft was ground and in flame. Fronczak sent Kenyon to the station to bring the fire truck in the event it was needed.

According to the officers' official report, the boat, a 24-foot hardtop cabin cruiser, value not known, had been stolen from the Island Harbor Marina in St. Clair Shores by a 15-year-old boy. The lad was not in the area when the CG and the police arrived.

A witness told Coast Guard personnel that he was sitting in his boat in the cove, when he heard a boat "coming wide open" and saw it in the air through the trees. When it landed on the shore it burst into flames.

The Shores public safety officers disconnected the engine coil wires and pumped several gallons of water on the boat engine to cool it off. The amount of damage is not known.

The craft is registered to Milton Tullman of 23131 Liberty, St. Clair Shores.

Three days previously, June 25, at 11:28 a.m., Shores Cpl. Chester Painter was dispatched to the seawall in front of 960 Lakeshore, where an 18-foot outboard, fiberglass craft, valued at $3,000, was reported floating, unmanned, in the lake. The boat is owned by Edward Prescott of 20851 Ridgmont, Harper Woods, who reported it missing from the Island Harbor Marina at 9:06 a.m. on Tuesday June 25. He said it was in its well on June 24.

Painter requested assistance in recovering the boat, and Sgt. James Jurcak, on desk duty, notified the St. Clair Shores Coast Guard, who arrived to take the craft in tow.

A police report did not reveal any damage to the boat.

SCORES HOLE-IN-ONE
Edmund R. Sutherland of Beaupre avenue is eligible to win a free trip to Scotland and $1,000 as a result of scoring a hole-in-one at the Country Club of Detroit. Sutherland's ace qualified him for the annual Rusty Nail Hole-In-One Sweepstakes, a national competition sponsored by the Drambuie Company of Edinburgh, Scotland. The winner will be announced early next year.

Woods Officer Receives High Honor

(Continued from Page 1) ity fund-raising drive, you will find Steve Petrik as one of the leaders... giving of his time and service for the benefit of someone else...

"A colleague in the Grosse Pointe Shores Police and Fire Department, (Public Safety Department), said, 'Steve Petrik must have been in the mind of the man who first stated, 'If you want anything done, ask a busy man.' He never has refused a request from anyone as long as I can recall."

Serves in Many Ways

"Throughout Stephen Petrik's career, he has served his community in many capacities: as an officer and leader in the local, district and state levels of the organization of his own profession, as founder of the Widows and Orphans Fund for that organization, as a charter member of a municipal branch of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and—in 1965—he was named Officer of the Year by the Fraternal Order of Police. He has held all these offices, and he has done all these things, but he stands out in a very special way."

Mr. Mix also called the officer a "devoted family man" and said he was nominated for the award "out of the deep affection of citizens he has served, and whom he continues to serve."

Patricia Ann said she got the idea of nominating her father after attending a May graduation meeting where nominations were requested for the award. "I made the decision then and there to nominate him," she emphasized.

"I felt he gave a lot to the community and to me. His motivation helped me go to school." So, for a man who has helped, and is helping the community, Patricia Ann felt her dad deserved this recognition.

Officer Petrik reported some 18-20 letters were sent to the college by local individuals and organizations recommending him for the Community Service Award.

Praised by Mayor
One of these was the aforementioned communication from Mayor Pinkos. The mayor told the NEWS Monday afternoon, July 1, that Officer Petrik was "a very good citizen in addition to being a fine police officer. He's a real credit to the community."

Mayor Pinkos continued, "I'm very proud of him. I've known him for many years and he richly deserves the award. Hopefully, we'll have a commendation for him shortly in recognition of his award."

Besides being surprised and appreciative of the award, Officer Petrik was very grateful. "I want to thank my most wonderful wife, Kathleen, (they will be married 24 years this October), with putting up with my being away from home working on many endeavors, and I'd like to thank everyone who was involved."

Lauds Fellow Officers
"I was deeply honored and I felt that possibly 5,000 other policemen in the area could have been given this award."

"I also want to thank my daughter for submitting my name. She got the whole thing going."

Besides his daily duties as traffic safety officer and department member, Officer Petrik is director of District Four, comprising Wayne County and Monroe County, of the Fraternal Order of Police, is associate liaison and chairman of the Widow and Orphans Fund of Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 102, comprising all Pointe police departments and Harper Woods, and he's a member, and was one of the organizers, of VFW Post 6784 in Harper Woods.

He's also involved with many youth groups and with area youngsters in general and is an active participant in Goodfellow newspaper sales.

Besides his wife and daughter Patricia Ann, the officer's children include Christine, 22, Stephen, 18, Kevin, 15, and Michael, 10.

Before jacking up your car always be sure that your ignition is off, the parking brakes engaged, and the transmission lever, if you have an automatic, is in park. If you have a manual transmission in your car, lock it by shifting into first gear. You will find that this will help to brake the rear wheels as well. If you are going to be working in the front of the car, be sure to place wooden or metal blocks in front, and behind the rear wheel diagonally, to protect your wheel from slipping.

(Continued from Page 1) his name and turned his head to see what he wanted and saw his friend and his two-wheeler lying in the street. Alarmed because his buddy was so still, the Warren boy ran to 40 North Duval and asked the resident to call the police, after telling what had happened.

Sgt. Mustazza, who went to the scene to investigate, found the front clamp type brake loose, and caught in the front wheel which might have caused the bike to halt abruptly.

Initially, it was believed that Todd might have died as a result of injuries caused by the fall, but the autopsy report showed his death was due to the heart attack. The detective said the young victim had been suffering from a heart disease for some time, according to information received from the boy's family.

According to Todd's father, three of his seven children have heart problems. A heart attack claimed his 19-year-old son Gregory four years ago, he said.

The dead boy, who had just completed the seventh grade at St. Joan of Arc school, Overlake and Mack, St. Clair Shores, was an altar boy at St. Joan of Arc Church. He had expressed a long-time desire to become a priest.

Mr. Kieren said that his son was scheduled to spend a week at a seminary, St. Joseph Preparatory College, Edgerton, Wis., starting Sunday, June 30, and that Todd was excited about the trip.

A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Joan of Arc Church on Saturday, June 29, following services at the A. H. Peters Funeral Home, 20705 Mack.

Besides his parents, young Kieren is survived by four brothers, Mark, Barry, Paul and Peter; a sister, Nadeen; his maternal grandfather, Martin O'Dea of Detroit; and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Leola Kieren of St. Paul, Minn.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Michigan Heart Association, or to St. Joseph Preparatory College.

Michigan Bell Promotes Emery

Michigan Bell has appointed Charles R. Emery, 52, of Lakeland avenue, to the new post of general manager-metro east.

In his new position, Emery becomes responsible for all telephone company operations in an area which includes Detroit's downtown and east side, the Grosse Pointes, and Macomb, St. Clair and Sanilac counties.

These operations include overall responsibility for installation and repair of telephones, business offices, sales, construction, and buildings and motor equipment.

A 34-year veteran with Michigan Bell, Emery began his career as a telephone equipment framer and over the years has held a variety of supervisory positions in Detroit and Grand Rapids and with American Telephone and Telegraph Company in New York.

Post 995 Auxiliary Offers Booklets on Flag Display

Booklets on "How to Display and Respect the Flag of the United States" were distributed in front of E. J. Hickey company, Kercheval and St. Clair, by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Grosse Pointe Post 995, V.F.W., on Wednesday, July 3. The booklets were provided through the courtesy of the U.S. Naval Recruiting Station, Brodhead Army, and Sonar Technician Chief Robert Joyner.

Mrs. Oscar Keller, auxiliary president, said she and other members of her group distributed the booklets, not only so that the people will know how and why they should display the emblem of our country, but to instill more patriotic fervor so that the citizens of the United States, and others, will fly the flag on National holidays and other occasions designated by the President of the United States.

Mrs. Keller pointed out these important do's and don'ts, as suggested in the booklet, so that you will fly your flag regularly — and correctly:

Do—It is the universal custom to display the national flag only from sunrise to sunset on buildings and on stationary flagstaves in the open, but it should NOT be displayed on days when the weather is inclement.

The U. S. flag may be displayed at night on special occasions when it is desired to produce a patriotic effect (light(s) should be shown on it so that it will stand out in the darkness).

Display the flag on all days that weather permits, but especially on national and state holidays and other days that may be proclaimed by the President of the United States. On Memorial Day, the U. S. flag should be half-staffed until noon.

The U. S. flag should be displayed on or near the main building of every public institution, during school days in or near every school house, and in or near every polling place on election days.

Always hoist the U. S. flag briskly. Lower it ceremoniously.

Don'ts—Never in any way should any disrespect be shown the U. S. flag. It should never be dipped to any person or thing. Regimental colors, State flags and organizational flags are dipped as a mark of honor.

The U. S. flag should never be displayed with the union down except as a signal of dire distress. It should never touch anything beneath it—ground, floor, water or merchandise. It should never be carried horizontally, but always aloft and free.

Always allow the U. S. flag to fall free—never use it as a drapery, festooned, drawn back, or up in folds.

For draping platforms and decoration in general, use blue, white and red bunting, arranging the blue above, the white in the middle and the red below.

The flag should never be fastened, displayed, used or stored in a manner which will permit it to be easily torn, soiled or damaged in any way. NEVER use it as a covering or drape for a ceiling.

NEVER place anything on the U. S. flag. It should NEVER have placed upon it, or any part of it, or attached to it, any mark, insignia, letter, word, figure, design, picture or drawing of any nature. NEVER use the U. S. flag for receiving, holding, carrying, or delivering anything.

The U. S. flag should not be embroidered on such articles as cushions, handkerchiefs, and the like, printed or otherwise impressed on paper napkins or boxes or anything that is designed for temporary use and discard; or used as any portion of a costume or athletic uniform. Advertising signs should not be fastened to a staff or halyard from which the flag is flown.

When the U. S. flag is in such a condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, it should be destroyed in a dignified manner, preferably by burning, privately.

"The purpose of Post 995 Auxiliary in distributing the booklets to the people," said Mrs. Keller, "is so that they will know and show the proper respect for 'Old Glory', and that more and more of our citizens will show the colors on designated holidays."

"Perhaps by the time this article is read, the birthdate of our Nation, July 4, will have come and gone, but there are future holidays coming. It is amazing that when the holidays do come, how few U. S. flags are flown in our cities, that is, on private homes and properties. It is OUR FLAG! Display it and respect it. DON'T ever be ashamed of it!"

Every household should have a U. S. flag and should display it every day, especially on designated holidays, Mrs. Keller added.

USEFUL LESSON

The habit of thrift should be taught to every youngster—who knows, the buck might be worth something some day.

Trio of Bandits Robs Old Place

Three black men in their late teens or early 20s entered through an unlocked kitchen door at the rear of the Old Place, 15301 East Jefferson, on Saturday, June 29, and robbed 11 employees. The trio also took an undetermined amount of currency and change from a cash register in the kitchen.

According to information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan, the robbers came into the kitchen, one armed with a blue steel revolver and announced a hold-up. The workers were ordered to lay face down on the floor, after which each was robbed of whatever cash he had. The hold-up men also emptied the cash register of all currency and change.

The thieves worked fast and no one in the front of the restaurant, employees or customers, were aware that a crime was taking place. After taking what they wanted, the trio escaped by the rear door and disappeared. Their method of leaving the scene is not known, the lieutenant said.

The man said to be holding the gun, is described as being dark complected and wearing a tan jacket and dark trousers and a Superfly hat; the second man was wearing a white shirt with black thin stripes, beige trousers and said to be light complected.

The third member of the trio was said to be light complected, but no one was able to give a description of his clothing.

Lt. Duncan said that the robbed employees stated that the robbers were methodical in removing the money from wallets and purses of the kitchen staff.

Car in Lake

man Luzier skindives as a hobby.

"He did an excellent job of getting these people out," Chief Beaupre said. "He's to be complimented for his courage and hard work."

Wall Causes Worry

A point of concern at the lakefront is the new break-wall that has been constructed along portions of the shoreline to prevent erosion similar to that which undermined the old seawall.

The new breakwall is a smooth, slanting ramp-type structure about four feet wide that leads directly into the lake.

Farms Lieutenant Ignatius Backman said there must be new measures taken to prevent cars from going into the lake.

"If a car gets its front wheels over the embankment there's nothing to stop the car from going into the lake," he said.

He said Farms officials have scheduled a meeting with Russell Harrison of the engineering division of the Wayne County Road Commission to study possible remedies for the Lakeshore road situation.

The meeting was scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, July 2, (after the NEWS press time.)

Lakeshore road is a county road that is maintained by Wayne County.

Unruly Youths Cause Trouble

A group of disorderly youths forced the closing of The Woods' Lake Front Park for around two hours Thursday evening, June 27, and then gathered in front of the home of Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallmann before being dispersed by Woods officers.

Mr. Hallmann said the park was closed by St. Clair Shores police after the youths, some of whom were drinking, became disorderly. However, no damage was caused to park facilities.

In his report, Sergeant James Davidson said the youths gathered in front of Mr. Hallmann's residence, protesting the park's closing. Some six to seven scout cars were called to the scene and police closed down the street before dispersing the crowd.

Officer Ronald Hayden reported around 100 youths threatened the residence, and were throwing beer cans and bottles on the front lawn.

After approaching a group standing in the street in front of the home, a partially full beer can was flung at the officer, missing him, but striking the car causing minor damage.

One 16-year-old juvenile was placed under arrest after he refused to leave the area after four police warnings, the report said.

In discussing this situation, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said, "It's unfortunate that a few youths in our community are bent on destroying the privileges of the majority of youths within the community."

He said arrests will continue to be made in such cases, either by St. Clair Shores officers or by deputizing Woods officers, permitting them to go to the park, which is located in Macomb County, to make arrests.

At this time, Mr. Petersen stated The Woods and St. Clair Shores are continuing to work on an ordinance, regarding the clarification of some legal ramifications, which would permit, where necessary, St. Clair Shores officers to come into the private park. "St. Clair Shores is pledging its cooperation in this matter," he added.

Robberies

from the Lochmoor Club, Wednesday, June 12, also were pawned under the same names.

On Tuesday, June 25, Farms Detective Field and Sergeant Bernard Kelly and Detective Plumb of The Woods, checked eight Detroit pawn shops in search of the stolen articles.

The detectives located the following articles: two sets of golf clubs that had been stolen from the Lochmoor Club, one pawned for $25 and the other for $30, under the name Robert Lee; a saddle stolen from the Hunt Club, pawned under the name of Bob Lee for $22 and two sets of golf clubs stolen from the Country Club.

Woods and Farms detectives said they consider all five complaints closed.

Arrest Youths with Bicycles

A pair of Detroit youths, arrested by City police in connection with the larceny of three bicycles, appeared in court on Tuesday, June 18, before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis, sitting in for City Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson.

Bobby Ray Dye, 22, of 2546 Marlborough, stood mute to charges of being a disorderly person and Kenneth Joel Belcher, 18, of 663 Lillibridge, pled not guilty to the same charge. Judge Denis adjourned their court date to Tuesday, August 13, and set bond for each at $1,000 or two sureties.

City police later dropped charges against Belcher because he has already been sentenced on other charges, to three to 15 years in Wayne County Circuit Court and to three to five years in Macomb County Circuit Court. Dye and Belcher were arrested on Monday, June 17, at about 4:25 a.m., after a Rivard boulevard resident observed them loading bicycles into a car parked in front of her home and reported it to police.

When police apprehended the suspects driving on Rivard near St. Paul, they found, one 27 inch green 10-speed minus a front wheel, in the back seat of the car and they took the pair back to the complainant's house where she identified them saying she saw them load another bike into the trunk of their car.

Before the vehicle was searched officers found another 10-speed with the wheels missing lying on the grass in front of 611 Rivard. The trunk of the car contained a third bike, also a 10-speed, two front bike wheels, one rear wheel and a pair of hedge trimmers. Also in the car were a pair of chrome vise grips, a tray of socket wrenches and various tools.

According to a police report of the incident, all three bikes had been taken from two Rivard residents.

Wanted Man Caught Asleep

Larry Jerome Brown, 21, of 2218 Watson, Detroit, might have remained free a little while longer, if he had not been seen napping behind the wheel of an automobile on Stillmeadow lane by a Shores public safety officer on Thursday, June 27. Brown had been sought by Detroit authorities on a felony warrant since January 24.

The arresting officer, Patrolman Bruce Darlington, said he was on routine patrol on Lake Shore road, when he observed a parked car, with a man behind the wheel and stopped to investigate. When he approached, he saw that the man was fast asleep, the officer said.

After waking the man, identification showed his name and address. Brown said that he was employed at 75 Duval, and that he was on his way to buy gasoline for the vehicle when he decided to take a break.

Darlington radioed his station for information on the man to be sent over the Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN), but there was some delay in the return reply.

The policeman said that since Brown was returning to his place of employment, he would release him, until a response was received from Lansing.

Later, information was received through the LEIN machine that Brown was being sought by Detroit authorities on a felony warrant charging him with concealing stolen property.

Darlington went to the Duval address and arrested the wanted man and took him to the station, where Detroit police were notified that their man was in custody. Brown was released to Detroit officers who arrived to pick him up.

Awards Dinner Held by Austin

More than 200 students of Austin Catholic Prep were honored at the eleventh Annual Awards Dinner program held recently in Athena Hall in Roseville.

The dinner annually honors the achievements of students in the areas of academics, activities and athletics. Several outstanding awards were presented to students who made significant contributions in various areas.

The Robert Seymour Trophy for Most Valuable Player in Hockey went to Joseph Gorey of Peach Tree lane and Greg Supina of Hamtramck. The Joseph Mink Memorial Trophy for Most Improved Player in Hockey was awarded to Thomas Michaels of North Renard road. The Most Valuable Player in Football Award was given to Robert Koenigbauer of St. Clair Shores. James Dixon of Berkshire road was recipient of the Most Valuable Player in Basketball Award, and Richard Davis of Lakeshore avenue took home the John J. Michael Forensic Award.

Recipient of the Robinson-Tatti Memorial Trophy for Sports Enthusiast of the Year was Michael Englebrecht of Harvard road. The Joseph Rogers Memorial Trophy for Activities Man of the Year was awarded to Richard Belanger of Moross road and to James Bidigare of Edmunton drive.

The dinner, which was attended by 521 parents, faculty and students, was organized by the Office of Activities at Austin under the direction of Reverend Lawrence Dore, vice-president of activities. He was assisted by Student Senate officers James Bidigare, Greg Holland, Leo Drolshagen and Vic Conti.

Farms Scouts Seek Adventure

Seeking high adventure in the old west, four Farms scouts left Friday, June 21, with the Detroit Area Council contingent, Boy Scouts of America, for two weeks at the National Philmont Scout Ranch, near Cimarron, N.M.

The scouts are David Moore, 333 Belanger road, Duncan Campbell, 34 Provencal road, Jim Hicks, 244 McMillan road and Chip Gibson, 252 McKinley road. The young men, all members of Troop No. 156 of Christ Church, are among the 82-boy Detroit contingent that flew to Colorado Springs, and then had a visit at the Air Force Academy and the Garden of the Gods before arriving at the ranch.

They will spend two days at camp headquarters for trail instruction, and then will hike some of the mountainous trails of the 214-square mile Scout Ranch that is the height of every scout's ambition.

The boys will hike with full pack, carry their own tents and food, and will utilize the scouting skills they have all learned.

They plan to climb Baldy Mountain, Philmont's highest peak, 12,441 feet above sea level, and end their trail at the Tooth of Time ridge near camp headquarters.

The area attracts hundreds of scouts and leaders annually as a challenging experience for young men. Scouts must be 14 years of age or older, and many are junior leaders in their troops.

David Moore and Duncan Campbell are both Eagle scouts. The four boys also participated last summer at the National Boy Scout Jamboree in Moraine State Park, Penn.

The Scouts will return home today, July 4.

Pointers Win Tennis Titles

Many Pointe netters participated in the Michigan State Closed Tennis Championships Thursday-Tuesday, June 23-28. In 10 girls events, Pointers were represented in every final and won five of them, while in boys events, "locals" were represented in two events and won both of them.

Girls and boys 10, 12 and 14 played their events in Grand Rapids, while those 16 and 18 participated in Ann Arbor.

In girls 10 singles, Lisa Peck of The Pointe defeated Diane Donnelly of Kalamazoo, 6-0, 6-1. Pointer Kathy Krickstein jumped Robbie Risdon of Birmingham, 6-1, 6-0, in girls 14 singles. Then, in girls 14 doubles, Kathy and Robbie defeated Julie Bookmier and Marianne Ring, both of Birmingham, 6-1, 6-2.

In girls 12 doubles, Susan Mascarin of The Pointe and Maggie Godfrey of Ann Arbor eliminated Sue Scott of Kalamazoo and Teresa Long of Holland, 6-1, 6-1.

Then, in girls 16 doubles, Sheila Peck of The Pointe and Jami Boshoven of Ann Arbor dumped Ann Kercher of Kalamazoo and Jodi Ross of Southfield, 7-6, 6-3.

In boys 12 singles, Drew Mascarin defeated fellow Pointer Joe Murray, 7-5, 7-6. Then, the twosome came back to win in boys 12 doubles by eliminating Adam Sorcherer of Flint and Jon Kamisar of Ann Arbor, 2-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Rachel Krickstein and Lisa Micou, both of The Pointe, lost in girls 10 doubles to Claire Slaughter of Birmingham and Karl Orders of Grand Rapids, 7-5, 2-6, 6-4.

Susan Mascarin of The Pointe lost to Maggie Godfrey, 6-2, 6-2, in girls 12 singles.

In girls 16 singles, Sherri Acker of Kalamazoo defeated Pointer Kris Fulgenzi, 6-2, 6-3.

Then, in girls 18 singles, Judy Acker of Kalamazoo eliminated Debbie Mascarin of The Pointe, 6-2, 6-3.

Finally, Judy Acker and Sherri Acker, of Kalamazoo, dumped Debbie Mascarin and Kris Fulgenzi, 7-5, 6-3, in girls 18 doubles.

Confidence must get awfully weary waiting to be restored.

Babe Ruth Results

By Julian Thomas

The Salem Square Braves jumped on the East Side Key and Eike Cardinals for five runs in the first inning and held on for a 10-3 win Monday, June 17. Steve Metz, the winner, allowed six hits and fanned five.

Jack Brabb led the Tribes attack with three singles, while Steve Metz, Andy Costopoulos and Mike Tharenos each had two hits. Dave Ferris had a triple for the Cards.

Dave Ferris gave up only two hits and struck out seven to lead the Cardinals over the Sears Tigers, 7-3. The Cards broke open the game in the first inning with a home run by Artie Schemler. Also contributing hits were Tom Nihem, Dave Ferris, Mark Verbiest and Tony Abraham.

The Metropolitan Club Indians defeated the GP Park Police Officers Association Giants, 12-8, Sunday, June 23. An excellent hitting attack was led by Bob Neville's double, triple and home run and two hits each by Chick Taylor, Tom Lott and Dan Mikesell. Lenny Bartoszewicz was the winning pitcher with excellent relief help by Chick Taylor.

John Witri withstood a six run seventh inning rally by the Kolar Enterprises Yankees to lead the Salem Square Braves to an 11-10 victory on June 23. Mike Tharenos and Jack Brabb led the Braves with three safeties each. Kevin Kovanda, Bob Bradford and Grant Plische had triples and John Hasse a double for the Yanks.

On Tuesday, June 25, the Giant infield completed two double plays to check the Cards. Tom Sacacino scored the winning run on a perfect suicide squeeze bunt by Danny Caputo. Bobby Conlan took the loss while fanning nine Giants. Art Schemler had a double for the Cards.

In a rematch between Sears Tiger's John Beebe and Trevor Steel's Rick Thomas, the Tigers won a squeaker over the Red Sox, 1-0. A squeeze bunt by Tom Heidt in the second inning, turned a walk and an error into the only run of the game. John Beebe fanned 10 batters and allowed only one hit to Tom Gutwald. Rick Thomas tossed another no-hitter, but took the loss.

On Thursday, June 27, Roger Fillion continued his torrid batting pace with four hits including a home run and a double and four RBIs to lead the Giants to a 11-4 win over the Fikany Dodgers. Tom Saracino and Gregg Doyle had doubles. Winning pitcher Doug Dodge helped his own cause with three hits. The Valente Expos pounded out a 11-4 win over the D. M. Astros Friday, June 28. Tom Birk took the win to give a 7-1 season record. Dean Valente was the big hitter with a home run, his second of the year. Tim Brouillard took the loss.

On Saturday, June 29, the Expos made it seven wins in a row with a 8-6 victory over the Hi-Life Painting Oakland A's. Scott Shapero took the win though he ran into trouble in the seventh and was bailed out by Terry Fleming, who fanned the last two batters for the save.

For the Expos, Dean Valente, Scott Shapero and Tim Fleming went two-for-three. Tom Birk had a bases loaded triple. For the A's, Ken Miller had two hits and Brian Welch had a three-bagger with the sacks loaded.

The same day, in a hard hitting contest, the Sears Tigers outslugged the Burger Chef White Sox to chalk up a 14-11 victory. Rick Baker took the win. A key triple by Derek Simonds in the eighth inning sent two go ahead runs across the plate for the Tigers. Tony Senagore hit a two-run homer and Tim Murtagh had a three-run triple for the Sox.

Completing the days play the Metropolitan Club Indians demolished the Trevor Steel Red Sox, 9-3. Taking advantage of five Red Sox errors the Indians coasted to an easy win with Chick Taylor giving up only three hits. Bob Neville and Bill D'Hondt had doubles and Dan Mikesell rapped two hits to lead the Indians.

Judge Denis Holds Court

Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis, sitting in for City Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson, convened court on Tuesday, June 18. One case was adjourned, one person was found not guilty, 11 persons were found guilty and six warrants were signed for failure to answer summons.

Senior Men's Club Holds 13th Annual Ladies Night

The Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe held its 13th Annual Ladies Night Thursday evening, June 27, in the Crystal Ballroom of the War Memorial.

The guests of honor began arriving in formal gowns as early as 5:15 p.m. for the dinner, music and theater included in the evening.

A happy hour in the ballroom accompanied by music of the Tony Dannon Ensemble preceded dinner. Guests also wandered through the gardens of the War Memorial.

After dinner served in the Ballroom, the 450 persons attending the party moved on to the Fries Auditorium where the Grosse Pointe Theater staged "Burlesque: It's All in When You Say It." The cast of 24 was directed by Gwen Samuel, who also wrote the play.

The evening's festivities were planned and arranged by the Special Events Committee of the Senior Men's Club. Chairman of the committee is Lou Decker, who was assisted by Gerry Nau-Club. Chairman of the com-man and Bud Latimer.

Lochmoor Wins Swimming Meet

Lochmoor swimmers locked up their first meet of the season against Oakland Hills Country Club with a comfortable margin of 58 points. The swimmers swept the breaststroke events with Mark Stoyka, Amy Rentschler, Dave O'Berski, Patti Hallmann, Jeff Jaskolski, and Gail Gardner as blue ribbon winners.

Brothers Blare and George Schooff captured several number one spots in freestyle, backstroke and butterfly to please their coaches Pete Biglin and Roy Pouliot.

Both Carol Peters and Julie Eugenio were undefeated and claimed fame to four firsts apiece in freestyle, backstroke, butterfly and the medley relay.

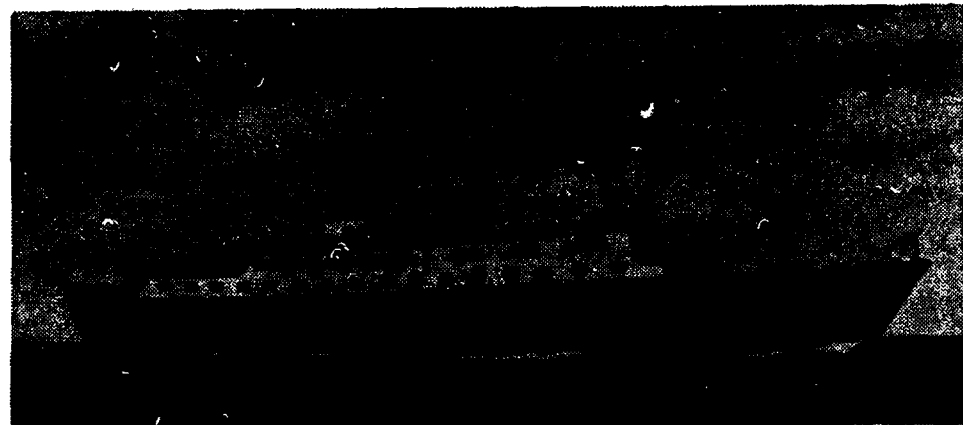

Those proving to be of great assistance for valuable second place points were Laura Bashara, Scott O'Berski, Jamie Elsey, Kyle Gaspar, Sue Germack, Dean Graham, Beth Jaskolski, Jane Milhelich, Janet Peters, Cheryl Stoyka and Sandy Wooten. Lochmoor faced the neighboring Detroit Yacht Club Tuesday, July 2. Last season Lochmoor suffered their first loss in seven years to a very accomplished DYC team.

Multi-Faceted Citizen

Standing in the backyard of his family's home on Huntington road, JOHN CLOR is a multi-faceted citizen of The Woods. He coaches a winning team in the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association, attends Wayne State University and works at the Detroit News North Plant, all while maintaining several automotive hobbies. Clor is 21 years old and has been a Pointer since 1970.

Woods Youth Instructs, Studies, Works, Plays . . .

By Tom Panzenhagen
John Clor is a full-time student who coaches hockey and works 40 hours a week. . . Or is he a hockey coach who attends school while working?

Perhaps John is actually a wage earner first, then a student, then a coach? Whatever the case, John tries not to allow his other avocations to infringe upon his hobby of pin-striping automobiles. And hardly anything can stop John from "messing with engines," particularly the one in his own car. Suffice it to say at age 21, John Clor is a busy man.

A 1971 graduate of Detroit's St. Anthony's High School, (now East Catholic High School), John and his family moved to Grosse Pointe Woods in 1970.

But it was back in 1965 that John became interested in hockey.

As an elementary student at St. Julian's, John was the main organizer of a street-hockey program for the benefit of kids his own age, as well as for his own benefit.

When John became too old to continue in his own league though, he maintained his support of the program while working in a shoe store and compiling an honor record in high school.

After the family moved to The Woods, John's hockey interests switched to the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association, (GPHA) — not as a player, but as a coach.

"They had to scrape the bottom of the barrel one season to find someone to coach a bantam hockey team," John said, modestly recalling his selection into the coaching ranks. "So they picked me."

That year was 1972, and the team assigned John, the Chiefs, consisting of a few good players and a lot of ankle benders.

Concerning those "ankle benders," (players who have a hard time just standing on skates, much less than skating competitively), John said, "I'll be damned if I was going to bench the kid; he wouldn't get any better sitting on the bench."

"And it wasn't my philosophy to win, win, win — just play the best you can every game, I would tell my players."

With that strategy in mind, plus a little borrowing from a few books on how to better play hockey, John's constantly improving team found its way to the last playoff berth. That accomplished, the team proceeded to be the surprise of the playoffs and missed the championship by one game.

All the time, remember, John was a student at Wayne State University, (he's working on a degree in journalism), and a full-time employee at the Detroit News North Plant, (he's an editorial assistant).

One of John's typical weeks during the hockey season frequently included school from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., hockey games or practice four nights a week for three hours and the midnight shift at work from midnight to 8 a.m.

Study was a luxury, sleep even more so.

"It was a pain in the bazo," John admitted, "but it was kind of nice when the next year kids started asking for me specifically, or when I'd get a thank you note in the mail from one of my players saying thanks for treating me as an individual."

Involvement in the GPHA, by the way, is strictly voluntary.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clor, of Huntington road, John is a junior at WSU who hopes eventually to get into public relations work or broadcasting. But he does not totally discount a career in coaching.

"Unfortunately," John said, "the chances of becoming a professional coach are slim. And very few schools even have hockey teams."

So John Clor's future would seem to be in journalism and related fields. But whatever his profession, hockey will apparently be his avocation — much to the benefit of every hockey-playing youngster.

IT COULD BE
Take it for what it's worth, but according to scholars, giving too much advice is what made poor Richard poor.

Driver to Face Weapon Charge

Two Park police officers, while checking a car left unattended in a no-parking zone on Charlevoix, near Lakepointe, found, through information supplied by their station, that the owner of the auto was wanted by Detroit authorities on a drunk driving warrant. When the Park policemen arrested him, they charged him with carrying a concealed weapon in the vehicle.

Lt. Gordon Duncan said that Patrolmen Alan Pretty and Howard Carl, were patrolling on Charlevoix on Sunday, June 30, at about 1:19 a.m., when they spotted the car, and radioed in the license plate number to have it checked through the Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN) in the event the auto might have been stolen. They were informed that driver was wanted by Detroit.

At 1:36 a.m., while Pretty and Carl waited nearby, they saw a man approach and enter the automobile and stop off and informed him he was under arrest on the Detroit warrant. The patrolmen said the man reached into his jacket pocket and saw him holding a shiny object. The officers drew their service revolvers and ordered the man, identified as John Leo Boechler, 48, of 1124 Chalmers, Detroit, to withdraw his hand easy and to leave the object in his pocket and ordered him out of the car.

Pretty and Carl searched Boechler and found the object to be a chrome car door handle.

While Boechler was out of the car, the officers searched the vehicle and found a loaded .380 semi-automatic shotgun under the front seat. He was arrested and charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Later in the morning, Boechler was arraigned before Park Municipal Judge John Urso on the charge. The judge released Boechler on $1,000 personal bond and ordered him to return on Wednesday, July 10, for examination.

And some detours aren't even paved with good intentions.

Pointers Place in Swim Meet

Six of the 12 Detroit Yacht Club swimmers who placed in the Fourth Annual Michigan Junior Olympic Long Course Championships live in The Pointe.

They joined 12 of their team mates in girls' competition Wednesday, June 26, and in boys' on Thursday, June 27, in the Metropolitan Beach 50-meter pool.

Their team placed in the top half dozen of the 36 AAU teams from all over Michigan without entering any relays.

Eric Rodin, 15, placed first in the 100-meter breast,

(1:17.8), and seventh in the 200-meter individual medley, (2:36.8), in the boys' 15-17 age group.

In the same age group Matt Sobieski, 15, placed fifth in the 200-meter free, (2:17.8).

Other boys placing were Nick Trost, 13, with a third in the 100-meter fly, (1:14.2), in the 13-14 boys group and Todd Lindheim who took home a silver medal in the 200-meter free, (2:28.8), a fourth in the 100-meter free, (1:09.3), and an eighth place medal in the 50-meter free, (32.5), all in the boys' 11 and 12 year age group.

Sara Brieden, 10, won a gold medal for her first in the 50-meter breast, (44.4), a second in the 50-meter fly, (38.4), and fourth in the 200 individual medley, (3:10.4), in the 10 and under girls' division.

Thirteen-year-old Laurie DeSantis came through for two fourth place bronze medals for her 100-meter breast, (1:28.9), and 50-meter free, (31.2), performance.

Other DYC swimmers pleased with their times but not placing in the top eight in their events were Sue Brieden, Bill Brownell and Toby Lindheim. The Yacht Club team is coached by Ralph Stevens of The Woods.

Little League Results

CLASS "C"

By John C. Brooks

The regular season went down to the wire in Class "C" this season.

On Friday, June 22, Todd Pierce pitched a brilliant no-hitter as Richmond defeated Albany, 2-0. This victory placed Richmond in a two way tie for first place with Syracuse with identical records of 12-2.

While the battle for first place was raging there was an even greater battle being fought for the fourth place spot giving the winner of that position a place in the playoffs. As a consequence, there was a playoff to determine who was going to play in that spot.

On Tuesday, June 25, there were two games with Rochester defeating Miami, 7-3, behind the super hitting and pitching of Billy Cunningham. Billy hit two home runs and also received some help at the bat from David Stoyka with a three bagger with two men on base.

At the main diamond Toledo edged Columbus, 3-1. Todd Ciavola went the distance for the win.

The regular playoffs began Wednesday, June 26, with Albany winning over Syracuse, 3-2. Bob Schmidt pitched beautifully with great control throughout the game. At the small diamond, Toledo wrapped up the fourth place spot by beating Rochester, 5-4. The first six innings were pitched by Eddie Gottfredson, while Peter Toenjes relieved him in the seventh to get the win.

Peter Toenjes belted a homer in that game and also had to pitch himself out of a jam when he loaded the bases but then struck out the next three batters.

On Thursday, June 27, Richmond and Toledo played with Richmond winning handily. Mark Davey was the winning pitcher.

The final game of the playoffs was held Saturday, June 29, when Richmond and Albany met to determine who would be the playoff champ. It was obvious that both these teams belonged in that playoff contest as the game had to go into extra innings when the score was deadlocked at the end of the six, 1-1.

Clay Vandenburg kept Richmond's hopes alive in the fourth when he hit his homer to tie the game. Richmond went on to win in the eighth, 4-1. The eighth inning came to a close when Mark Davey executed an unassisted double play to end the inning. Peter Keane and Todd Pierce shared the pitching duties for the champs.

AAA LEAGUE

By Phil Frame

Zan Stewart pitched a four-hitter and Glen Newa sparked an eight-run fourth inning rally Saturday, June 29, to lead Portland to a 9-2 victory over Denver in the 1974 AAA League playoff championship.

Denver had a 2-1 edge in a tight pitching contest between Stewart and Denver's Steve Groehn before Portland broke the game open in the fourth on three straight infield singles and a sacrifice by Ace Dickson that tied the score.

Glenn Newa followed with a single that scored the runners on second and third to put Portland in front to stay.

Portland, not content with a two-run edge, tallied five more times in that inning behind doubles by John Moran and Tom Gentile to take a 9-2 lead.

Stewart allowed only two Denver batters to reach first the rest of the game as he picked up his second victory of the week in playoff competition.

Chuck Haring scored the first run of the game leading off the Portland first with an infield hit and later scoring a sacrifice by Don Chamberlin.

Denver took its brief lead in the top of the fourth when Brian Schulte led off with a walk and Steve Groehn followed with a single. Jim Kelly doubled scoring Schulte and Larry Diener sacrificed Groehn home for Denver's second run.

Earlier in the week, Portland used another big fourth inning, scoring six times Tuesday, June 25, to defeat Newark, 11-8, in a semifinal playoff game.

Stewart picked up the victory in that game with strong relief help from Ace Dickson.

John Meier capped Portland's big inning with a double, and Bill Grambo hit a two-run homer for Newark in the sixth to tighten the score.

Denver defeated Hollywood Monday, June 24, in its semifinal game, 12-9. Jacques Baudelouge doubled and Tim Mageau hit a triple to lead the Denver hitting attack.

The last action of the 1974 AAA season will be Monday, July 8, when the Farms AAA All-Stars take on the Grosse Pointe City All Stars.

G.P. PARK

By Dolores Dennis

The Pirates have won the National League flag for the fourth straight year. The playoff for the American League flag will be between the Indians and the Orioles Saturday, July 6.

The Grosse Pointe Park series is scheduled for Monday-Wednesday, July 8-10.

As the season draws to a close, each player, each parent and adult leader deserves a pat on the back for their sportsmanship and support. Special praise is due or many sponsors.

Candidates for the National League All-Stars are Pirates, Chris Ellis, Tim McCormick, Jeff Parthum, Scott Kandel, David Thill; Red Legs, Dean and Dan Graham, Jeff Crowley; Cardinals, Tim Foley, Bill Quinn, Ted Formanczyk.

More are Braves, Bryan Bedsworth, Jon Ahlbrand; Giants, Jim McQuish, George Posada and Dodgers, Tim McCarthy, Jean Beaudoin.

In the National League majors, the Pirates slammed past all opponents before their only season loss to the Cardinals, 7-5, on June 26. The Giants reached from the cellar to trip the Red Legs, 6-5, June 19 and the Red Legs returned the favor 6-5, on June 28.

In the American League majors the Orioles made it eight straight on June 29 by chugging past the challenging Indians, 11-4, to win the second half of play. It will be the Indians and the Orioles in the playoff on July 6 on the way to the series and the Pirates.

In the National League minors, Northwestern did it again. Northwestern made it 20 straight by slipping past Air Force, 17-16, on June 29.

The American League minors have a tree-way tie for the second half going into the last three games. Ohio State, Alaska and Hawaii are tied and the deciding games will be played July 1-3 to see who faces Hawaii for the playoffs on the 6th. The championship games will be played July 7-10.

Special thanks should go to those diligent scorers who reported game results and highlights making this column possible.

Sound ideas and planning are the real dynamos of individual and social advancement.

DYC Natators Win Swim Meet

The Michigan Inter-Club Swim Association dual meet season started off with a bang with the defending champions, Detroit Yacht Club swim team, scoring 470 to Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's 340.

The first meet for both teams was hosted by GPYC Tuesday evening, June 25, and both DYC coach Ralph Stevens and GPYC coach Tom Teetaert were pleased with their natators' performances.

Depth counts even more in the new Michigan Inter-Club Swimming Association, (MICA), scoring system with all six swimmers winning points. Eight points are awarded for relay firsts and four for relay seconds.

Pacing the DYC team were Sara Brieden and Todd Lindheim. Sara 10, took two individual firsts for her 50-meter breast and 50-meter fly. Todd, 12, placed first in three individual events: the 50 free, 50 fly, and 50 back.

Other notable performances were individual firsts won by DYC Pointe youngsters Jack Nelson, Laurie DeSantis, Cindi Gannon, Eric Rodin, Nick Trost and Dale Gannon. Relay "blues" were taken home by Sue Trost, Molly Riley, Denise DeSantis, Hans Brieden and Bill Hohmann.

Other DYC Pointers winning ribbons were Bill Brownell, Bob Brownell, Toby Lindheim, Matt Sobieski, Gerri Nichols, Sandy Fires, Barry Fires, Chris Neros, Mary Austerberry, Ricki Quinn, David Wittwer, Nancy Wittwer, Mimi Storen, Gay Storen, Laurel Baculis, Norene Slawski, Pat Coughlin, Brett Karmey and Sue Brieden.

DYC swimmers from The Pointe who will be soon taking points are: Terri Austerberry, Ken Baculis, Bob Nelson, Shannon Riley, Margaret Sobieski, Ruth Hohmann, Joe Quinn, Elaine Gay, Chris and Scott Shaw and Kathy Gray.

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club swimmers who had especially outstanding performances were Sue Sattelt, (new GPYC record for girls 13-14 in the 50-meter back), Jeff Colton, Jim Yuhn, Jeanette Metes, Mary Lou Mizczak, Kirk Barker, Paul Treder and Pam Rinke.

Farms Majors Start Playoffs

The Farms Major League started its cup playoffs Sunday, June 30, with the top four clubs seeing action.

The Tigers, league champions with a 19-2 record, fell to the third place Yankees, (11-10), by a 4-1 score. Shawn Drummy, who allowed only one hit, was the winning pitcher.

In the other contest, the second place Pirates, (18-3), blasted the fourth place Giants, (10-11), by a 13-3 mark. Pitching honors were shared by David Spencer and Brad Bennett.

Key Pirate hits included home runs by John Hackett and Brad Bennett, two doubles by Dan Gallagher, a single and triple by Gregg Lapinski and two singles by John Baldyga.

The Yanks and Pirates will meet in the final playoff game Tuesday, July 21.

The Shores Series.

We've opened a new office at Mack-Brys in Grosse Pointe Woods. And we're commemorating the occasion by offering watercolors rendered by Davis Gray, of historic Grosse Pointe scenes.

Just open a new savings or checking account for $100 or more or add $100 to an existing savings account and receive the first of a series of watercolor renderings of memorable scenes from the Grosse Pointe—

St. Clair Shores area. Manufacturers Bank commissioned the series that includes in addition to the painting of the shores, boating along Lake St. Clair, the War Memorial, Grosse Pointe High School South and Rose Terrace. Each of the series is an original hand-colored print, matted and ready for framing. Each one is beautiful in itself but is especially effective when displayed in a grouping.

The first one is free when you open a new deposit account for $100 or more. You have the opportunity of purchasing other paintings from the series for $4.95 when you deposit $50.00 in your savings account. Handsome oak frames and customized colored mats are also available at a moderate cost without additional deposit requirements. The entire collection can be yours to decorate your walls or as a marvelous gift to someone special.

*A limited edition will be made of each painting and each is hand-colored, so the value of the painting is protected. But you should act quickly. The series of paintings is also available at the Mack-Lochmoor Office.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Teresa, yapping, answers the door. Teresa is a Yorkshire Terrier, and she drove down from the East with her mistress, Julie Harris, sitting quietly beside Julie all the way, for Teresa is a very good traveler.

But Teresa is a Yorkie, and it is of the essence of Yorkies to yap when strangers come to the door. I think, personally, that being short they do it so as not to be overlooked. A Yorkie's door-yap says, "Hey, there! Look down, look here, look at me, here I am, here I very much am..."

Teresa's yapping brings Julie Harris to open the door. This is the first time I have seen Miss Harris off-stage, off-screen, and there's no mistaking her: she looks exactly like Julie Harris. I mention this because it always amazes me when people I see many pictures of, actors and actresses, for instance, or sports figures, or political celebrities, look like themselves when I see them "for real." Somehow, I have the feeling that the picture-faces belong only in pictures. It's disconcerting to find them topping off live bodies.

But here is Julie Harris, looking exactly like herself, sounding exactly like herself, (there's no mistaking that voice), in town to receive an honorary Doctor of Fine Arts degree from Wayne State University in recognition of her many contributions to stage, screen and television, sitting and talking in the living room of the home of her parents built in Ellair place 22 years ago. She's at home in that home. She comes home, to Grosse Pointe, often.

The William P. Harrises, Jr., lived in Windmill Pointe drive when Julie was growing up. She remembers that growing up as a wonderful time. "I had a very happy childhood. Grosse Pointe was a paradise, a lovely place to be. It was a very gentle sort of life: we went away every summer to the great northwoods, and that really was a paradise..."

She went to Grosse Pointe Country Day School. She wasn't a particularly good student. She was movie and theater crazy. "As a child, I kept movie scrapbooks. By the time I was 14 I thought an actress was what I wanted to be. Of course, I didn't know what that meant. I knew I couldn't ever be

Short and to The Pointe

Among 10 persons assuming posts as directors of DePauw University's national alumni association July 1 will be LAURANCE J. HARWOOD, of Maumee avenue.

Recipient of a Major "W" for 1973-74 efforts on the University of Wisconsin fencing team is Pointer DAVID A. DEWAHL, JR.

The ROY ULBRICHS, of Torrey road, members of an art class at Burning Tree Golf and Country Club taught by EARL SLEEK, Chrysler Corporation senior industrial sculptor, earned awards at the Mother's Day Art Show at Burning Tree. Sixty-five paintings were submitted. Mr. Ulbrich placed fourth in the top ten and as a beginner won the Founders First Blue Ribbon plus a Critics Merit Gold Seal. Mrs. Ulbrich was a Founders Merit Gold Seal winner. Mr. Sleek and three outside critics judged the competition.

Accepted at the National Music Camp, Interlochen, this summer are LEONARD SWANSON, tuba, son of MR. and MRS. LEONARD SWANSON, of Chalfonte avenue, and JAN THORWALDSEN, string bass, daughter of MR. and MRS. STANLEY E. THORWALDSEN, of Williams avenue. Each won a scholarship for the summer program.

Among judges for the Community Theatre Association of Michigan's annual One Act Play Contest was Pointer JOHN DEVERS.

Actress JULIE HARRIS, just back from filming "The Hiding Place" in England, came to town last week to receive an honorary Doctor of Fine Arts degree from Wayne State University and spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. William P. Harris, Jr., of Ellair place. Miss Harris grew up in The Pointe and returns often to visit. TERESA, a very friendly, very well-behaved Yorkshire Terrier, drove down from their Irvington, N.Y., home with her mistress, and was on hand for the interview with Julie that comprises this week's "From Another Pointe of View."

Receiving a Doctor of Philosophy degree in Greek Art and Architecture and Etruscan Art and Archaeology from Bryn Mawr College May 13 was DAVID WILLIAM RUPP, son of the E. W. RUPPS, of Belanger road.

Receiving Associate in Arts degrees in General Studies from Green Mountain College, Poultney, Vt., May 18 were JEAN E. HUGLI, daughter of MR. and MRS. WILFRED C. HUGLI, JR., of Three Mile drive, and SARA S. GALVIN, who played on the Green Mountain tennis team, daughter of MR. and MRS. DON T. GALVIN, JR., of McKinley place. PATRICIA J. BIRK, daughter of DR. and MRS. ROBERT E. BIRK, of Stratford place, received an Associate in Arts degree in Elementary Education.

Michigan State University sophomore JON SEEVER, graduated in 1972 from Bishop Gallagher High School, son of MR. and MRS. FRANK SEEVER, of Rivard boulevard, is one of 45 MSU students studying women and popular culture. Jon, a member of James Madison College, specializing in Psychology, is attempting to define the concept of femininity and determine how the mass media plays an influential part in stereotyping the female role.

MR. and MRS. JAMES F. WEYHING, of Traverse City, announce the birth of their second child, a daughter, HEATHER ANNE, May 6. Mrs. Weyhing is the former NANCY GAY MAXON, daughter of MRS. YVONNE MAXON, of Hampton road. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. BURT WEYHING, JR., of Rivard boulevard. Young Heather has a two-year-old "big brother," DARREN.

Blow-Ups of Past Executive Committee Members Decorate GPYC; Nostalgia is the Order of the Evening

The current Executive committee of The First Society of Detroit invited all past Executive committee members to join in celebrating the Society's 11th anniversary last Saturday, June 29, at a subscription dinner at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Over 100 people have served as executive committee members since the society was formed in 1963. Over half were in attendance at the party. The evening was planned by the current committee to conjure up memories of fun and hard work for former members, who were greeted with blow-ups of themselves 10 years ago and listened to the reminiscences of Jim (Continued on Page 14)

Special Plans for Scout Trio

Exciting summer travel plans lie ahead for three Grosse Pointe Senior Girl Scouts selected to participate in the Scouts' Wider Opportunities travel program.

All are members of Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit.

Louise Welch, 16, of Senior Troop 1614, will have an opportunity to pursue her interest in horseback riding and primitive camping when she attends "Saddle Straddle," a two-week event in Wyoming. Louise arrives in Worland, Wyo., July 24, where she will meet 35 other Scouts, all experienced riders.

The girls will spend their days exploring the West by horseback. They will prepare all their own meals over a campfire and sleep out under the stars at night. Louise is a student at Grosse Pointe South High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Welch, of Cadieux road.

Susan Marie Garska, of Senior Troop 327, heads for Oklahoma City, Okla., August 1, for an 18-day event called "Red Lands Reflections." The participants, 120 Scouts from various Councils throughout the country, will have an opportunity to explore Oklahoma's unique Indian and Western history.

The group will visit an ancient Indian village, attend a rodeo and meet some women ranchers.

Field trips to the American Indian Exposition and the National Cowboy Hall of Fame are planned. After 3 days of home hospitality with Oklahoma families the girls will move to Camp Red Rock. They will camp outdoors the rest of their visit.

Susan, 15, is a junior at Our Lady Star of the Sea High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Garska, of Kercheval avenue. Senior Scout Carol Lee Laffer, 15, an avid outdoor sportswoman, will spend August 2 through 18 at Camp Archbald near Scranton, Pa., as one of 90 participants in "Sportlight."

The girls will have an opportunity to improve skills at sports they are already familiar with and to learn a variety of new ones.

Activities will include canoeing, bicycling, ping pong, archery, bowling, golf, sailing, swimming, gymnastics and roller skating. Field

Will Wed

Plans for a September 13 wedding are being made by LISA ANN HOFFMANN and Daniel Alan Carmagno. The bride-elect, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Nash Hoffmann, of Yorkshire road, and Harry C. Hoffmann, of Roseville, was recently graduated from Michigan State University.

Her fiancé, son of the Joseph A. Carmagnos, of Kensington road, attends the University of Detroit.

trips related to participation in sports and career exploration have also been planned. Carol, a member of Troop 327, is a sophomore at Grosse Pointe South High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Laffer, of Buckingham road.

The 1974 Wider Opportunities program offers Scouts a choice of 21 different events in this country plus several international trips. Ten Scouts from the Detroit Council have been selected to attend events this summer.

Purpose of the program is to increase girls' self-awareness and confidence through travel while providing educational and enjoyable experiences.

a movie star: movie stars were glamorous — my favorites were people like Lana Turner — and I wasn't, I could never be, like that."

Julie Harris has just completed filming "The Hiding Place," from the book by Corrie Ten Boom, in Holland and England. She came to The Pointe to visit her mother in February after appearing in "The Au Pair Man" in New York, before beginning work on the picture. Mrs. Harris, (Mr. Harris died three years ago), visited her daughter on location in Sussex in the spring.

"I can't say that I prefer to work on the stage more than in films, or in films more than on the stage. I like them both — and they're completely different. Not the essence of the acting, of course: the work we do is the same." But the pace is different. Film work involves an incredible amount of sitting-around-waiting-to-act time. "On my first picture, I found the waiting maddening. Now I always take some knitting. I bring a snack. I work on my correspondence. People do crossword puzzles, word games..." Julie took her camera to England, and filled two albums waiting to work on the set there.

She has a house in Irvington, N.Y. She'd like to clean it out, toss out "the mountains of debris I've collected over the years," everything except a favorite portrait of her son, and move into a neat, compact mobile home. She'd like, at this point in her life, to be physically tied nowhere, unencumbered.

Since she first achieved national acclaim in "Member of the Wedding," Julie Harris has received just about every professional accolade on the books. She has two Antoinette Perry Awards, two Donaldson Awards, two "Best Actress" Emmies for television work. She received the 1973 Outer Circle Critics Award for "The Last of Mrs. Lincoln" on Broadway. Last week, she picked up her honorary doctorate from Wayne State. Last year, she received a similar degree from Ithaca College. She is pleased by, and proud of, every honor. "Of course it's exciting when somebody says you're wonderful." At the same time...

"At the same time, my mind says to me, 'There is no such thing as The Best.' Julie continues to be astounded by the excellences she sees in her profession. If one performance is breath-taking, another heart-stopping, which is The Best? Is a red rose more beautiful than a white?

But if "Best" is impossible to determine, excellence is impossible to overlook. Teresa, yapping, proclaims to strangers at the door, "Hey, there! Look at me, here I am!" Then Julie Harris opens the door. Steps on the stage. Comes on the screen.

Before she says anything, you know she's there.

Suburbia Club Keeping Busy

Tennis and swimming were on the docket when members of Suburbia Garden Club entertained their husbands at a gourmet potluck buffet and steak cook-out at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Domalski in Windmill Pointe drive Wednesday, July 3.

Mrs. Bernard P. Pearce was in charge of arrangements for the party, which started at 4 o'clock.

Suburbia women enjoyed the recent program on making bread dough flowers presented by Mrs. Garnet S. Passmore, aunt of member Mrs. William Bloesing. This also was held at Mrs. Domalski's home.

Members and their guests enjoyed lunch at the Moross House on East Jefferson avenue June 4. The meal was prepared by Suburbia members Mrs. Raymond Duffy and Mrs. Bruce Grubb, who pinch-hitted for Mrs. William Beckenhauer who had rushed to Chicago to greet her new grandson Jason S'fire.

A tour of the house, oldest brick residence in the city of Detroit, restored after much hard work and research to its original state, followed luncheon.

The Moross House has been preserved by the Detroit Historical Society and is headquarters for the Detroit Garden Center.

MEREDITH MACK, daughter of MR. and MRS. WILBER MACK, of Country Club drive, was an intern in the Washington office of United States Senator Robert P. Griffin during her junior year at the Madeira School, Greenway, Va. She has been elected president of the Student Government at Madeira and will return next fall to complete her senior year.

BRIAN FISHER, son of the WILLIAM A. FISHERS, of Elm court, received his tennis award letter during sports award ceremonies at The Leelanau School.

James Jipson Claims Bride

A reception in Alger House of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the wedding of Janet Lynn Marheine and James William Jipson in the War Memorial gardens Saturday, June 29.

The bride, who received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Michigan State University earlier in June, is the daughter of the O. E. Marheines, of Oak Park.

The bridegroom, a Grosse Pointe High School alumnus, received his Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Wayne State University and is completing graduate studies at MSU. He is the son of the Thomas W. Jipsons, of Bishop road.

Carol Marheine served as her sister's honor attendant at the 11 o'clock service over which Dr. Allen A. Zaun presided.

Bridesmaids were Karen Marheine, another sister, and Gail Goldin.

Thomas Watts Jipson came from Springfield, Vt., to serve as his brother's best man. John Glenn Walsh and Marshall Allan Kirk, of Lansing, seated the guests.

The newlyweds will return from a tour of the western states to make their home in Lansing.

Among those on hand for the celebration were Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Quilter, III, (she's the former Kathy Brady; both are former committee members), current committee member Jeff Broderick, the Edward Deeb, (he's a former committee member), the Roger Stantons, (she's the former Pam Kornmeier, an ex-committee member), the Jerry Nissens, (he's a former committee member), the G. William Paddocks, (she's the former Josie Paulus; both are ex-committee members), and Dr. and Mrs. John Galvin, (she's the former Pat Rossi, an ex-committee member).

The First Society of Detroit is an organization of single young adults. It was founded for charitable purposes. It sponsors three benefits per year and donates the proceeds to various charities. The emphasis over the years has been on children's charities, although in recent years donations have been made to the Narcotics Addiction Rehabilitation Organization, the Michigan Kidney Foundation, Shar House and the Foster Grandparent Program.

Total amount of monies contributed since First Society's first benefit was held for Children's Hospital Building Fund in September, 1963, is $70,839.

Miss Marr Speaks Vows On June 29

William A. Honers Vacation in Bermuda Following Afternoon Rites and Reception at Bride's Parents' Hawthorne Road Home

A garden reception at the Hawthorne road home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Richard Marr following the wedding of their daughter, Carol Ann Marr, and William A. Honer Saturday, June 29, in Saint Michael's Episcopal Church.

The newlyweds, vacationing in Bermuda, plan to make their home in Mount Pleasant.

For the 2 o'clock rites at which The Reverend James McLaren presided the bride chose a white silk organza gown styled with a Venice lace bodice. Matching lace appliques edged her skirt and train.

years before, with a small nosegay of white carnations, daisies and baby's-breath. Streamers tied with tiny silk daisies fell from the book.

In sleeveless Empire frocks of white jersey printed with flowers in pinks, yellows, purples and greens were honor matron Mrs. Thomas Stansell, of Flint, a sorority sister of the bride, and bridesmaids Donna Selin, of Okemos, and Wanita Johnson, of Ithaca, two other sorority sisters, Mrs. William B. Marr, Mrs. Thomas Lewis, of Kalamazoo, and Amy Honer, the bridegroom's sister.

The crowns of their white horsehair picture hats were covered with material matching their dresses. They carried ivy bouquets tied with white ribbon and wore gold monogrammed pendants, the bride's gifts at the Rehearsal Dinner.

Fredrick W. Honer acted as best man for his brother. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Honer, of Jackson.

In the usher corps were K. Joseph Honer, another brother, William B. Marr and Richard C. Marr, of Fort Lewis, Wash., the bride's brothers, Peter Daly, of Belaire, and David Goebble, of Indianapolis.

The mother of the bride chose a long gown of emerald silk organza with a scattered print of pink and gold mums, and a matching shoulder shrug.

The bridegroom's mother selected a long gown of citron silk linen, sleeveless and styled with a bodice trimmed with self-covered buttons in various sizes.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandmother Mrs. Maurice S. Marr, a former Pointer who now makes her home in Venice, Fla., and the bridegroom's maternal grandmother Mrs. F. A. Willard, of Jackson.

Relatives of the bride who came from out-of-town for the rites were the Dan K. Lovelands, former Pointers who now reside in Mansfield, O., and the Richard C. Annans, of Glydon, Md.

Relatives of the bridegroom included Myron H. Walcott, of St. Joseph, the Carl Walcotts, of Jackson, the John Rasmussens, of Canton, O., Dr. and Mrs. Norman H. Farr, of Greenfield, Mass., and Mrs. G. H. Cook and Mrs. I. I. Kvitrud, both from St. Petersburg, Fla.

Stedmans Here From Florida

Jeanne (Mrs. Ted) Stedman, in town for the wedding of Marilyn Ann Codd and George Gerard Glin Friday evening, June 21, in Saint Clare de Montefalco Church, dropped by the NEWS office last week with a mango from her very own tree in Fort Lauderdale.

The Stedmans, who moved from Devonshire road to Florida a few years back, are still crazy about life in the south. They'll be heading home for the summer after short visits with relatives and friends in New York and Boston.

Their oldest son, Bill, is permanently settled in Florida, too, working for a radio station. Young Ted, home from college for summer vacation, is dividing his time between the chores of a supermarket stock boy and the pleasures of playing with a rock band. He's especially fond of the console organ he recently purchased, for the piece has quite a history: it traveled with the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey Circus for years.

SHARON R. CILLETTE, of Edmonton drive, and HARRIET A. MILLES, of Fisher road, have received Bachelor of Arts degrees with high distinction from the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

Mrs. William Honer

Married to Mr. Honer, son of the Robert B. Honers, of Jackson, in Saint Michael's Episcopal Church Saturday, June 29, was CAROL ANN MARR, daughter of the M. Richard Marrs, of Hawthorne road.

Clark-Kenyon Rites Are Read

Charles Richard Clark, son of the Robert Charles Clarks, of Fairholme road, claimed Lisa Maureen Kenyon, daughter of the Norman Eugene Kenyons, of Birmingham, as his bride Saturday, June 29, in First United Methodist Church of Birmingham.

Presiding at the 11 o'clock double ring rites were Dr. James W. Wright and The Reverend John Chateau.

An afternoon reception and champagne luncheon followed at the Somerset Inn of Troy.

The newlyweds, enjoying a week's vacation in Northport, will be at home in Ann Arbor in August, where the bride, who currently maintains an all-A average at the University of Michigan School of Nursing, will begin her third year as a U. of M. Angell Scholar this fall, and the bridegroom, graduated summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Notre Dame in May, 1972, will begin his third year as an honors medical student at the U. of M. Medical School.

The former Miss Kenyon, given in marriage by her father, wore a white, sleeveless gown of sheer organza styled with a satin-banded high-rose waistline and trimmed with alternating strips of peau d'ange and Venice lace.

Ruffled lace edged her hem and attached chapel train. A matching headband caught her floor-length silk illusion veil and she carried a French bridal bouquet of stephanotis, miniature white carnations and baby's-breath.

Lynda Gale Kenyon, who came from London, England, to serve as her sister's honor maid, and bridesmaids Shelley Kaye Miller, Victoria Ann Reason, Karen Marie Kaechle and Esther Ruth Schreier wore navy blue and white bordered print frocks, sleeveless and fashioned with Empire waists and scooped necks, and wide-brimmed white summer hats trimmed in navy.

Each carried a bouquet of multi-colored fresh summer flowers.

Robert Thomas Clark acted as best man for his brother. Ushering were Stephen F. Mitros, Steven P. Jardina, of Indianapolis, Michael Chateau, of Ann Arbor, and David A. LaFleur.

Pair Exchange Nuptial Vows

Nancy Jane Clemenston and Edward William Bazydlo exchanged marriage vows Saturday, June 29, in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Chapel. The 10 o'clock small, family ceremony at which The Reverend John L. McCreight presided was followed by luncheon at the Old Place.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Walter R. Clemenston, of McMillan road, and the late Mr. Clemenston, the bridegroom the son of the Bennie Bazydlos, of Beaconsfield avenue.

The newlyweds, vacationing by car in Canada, visiting Toronto and the Muskoka Lakes, will return to make their home in Dearborn Heights.

For her marriage the former Miss Clemenston selected a white pique sleeveless gown fashioned with a scoop neckline, an Empire waist accented with Venice lace and a deep hemline flounce of matching fabric.

A matching lace cap caught her short, tiered, lace-edged illusion veil. White daisies, yellow Sweetheart roses, baby's-breath and ivy formed her round bouquet.

She was attended by Mrs. Dwight Leonard, whose V-necked dress of deep yellow jersey was styled with long, full sleeves and a matching braided belt.

She wore a yellow picture hat and carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Robert Harrison acted as best man for the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a rose and white silk print frock, the bridegroom's mother a beige and white print. Both mothers selected gardenia corsages.

Progress brings problems — without problems, no progress.

Martha Schrashun Wed On June 29

Grosse Pointe Club Reception Follows Afternoon Rites at Which She Becomes Bride of James Walter McDonnell, III

A home in Memphis, Tenn., awaits Mr. and Mrs. James Walter McDonnell, III, who are vacationing in New Hampshire following their wedding Saturday afternoon, June 29, in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. McDonnell, the former Martha Watkins Schrashun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Schrashun, of Kenwood court, and the late Douglas B. Watkins, is a graduate of Liggett School and Skidmore College.

Mr. McDonnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. McDon-

Morse, of Marblehead, Mass., Mrs. Timothy Miller, of Marquette, and Louisa Bowen and junior bridesmaids Anne McDonnell, another sister of the bridegroom, and Christine Schrashun, the bride's sister.

White flocked daisies were scattered over their sky blue frocks. Embroidered daisies edged the flounces circling their deeply scooped necklines. Their white grain sashes matched the streamered bows on their white braid picture hats.

James McDonnell, Jr., was his son's best man. Ushering were John Schrashun, the bride's brother, James Pou, of Memphis, Richard Manner, of Hibbing, Minn., and Theodore Buerger, of Hanover, N.H.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of printed silk and pinned a Eucharis lily to her purse. The bridegroom's mother selected a rose print dress and a gardenia purse corsage.

Relatives of both the bride and bridegroom came from out-of-town for the wedding, including Mr. and Mrs. Murray Reid, of Ottawa, Canada, Mrs. Thomas T. Odell, of Montreal, Mrs. Sally W. Stipe, of Evanston, Ill., the Edgar Forsters, also of Evanston, the James W. McDonnells, Mr. and Mrs. M. Eugene Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Michael McDonnell, all of Memphis, and Mr. and Mrs. Perkins B. Overton, Jr., of Nashville, Tenn.

Pointers Head For Cape Cod

A moving van loaded with the possessions of two Grosse Pointe households headed for Cape Cod last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, of Cambridge road, and her mother Mrs. William Montgomery, of Mapleton road, will be residing in Chatham, Mass. The move culminates many plans and dreams.

A petite Cape Cod home is being built for Mrs. Montgomery on a lot adjoining the Potters'. Mrs. Montgomery has been active for many years in dog breeding circles in Michigan and was a member of Ribbon Farms Questers.

Mrs. Potter will be missed by her students and fellow teachers at Pierce Middle School.

The family sailboat, trucked to Cape Cod earlier, is waiting for Mr. Potter in Nantucket Sound.

William Connollys To Live In Pointe

Son of Walter B. Connollys Claims Texan Judy Lisa Rowe as His Bride in Houston; Pair Vacation in Virgin Islands

The William Riordan Connollys who vacationed in the Virgin Islands following their wedding in Saint Vincent de Paul Church, Houston, Tex., Saturday evening, June 15, will make their home in Grosse Pointe.

A reception in the Continental Room of the Shamrock Hilton Hotel followed the 7:30 o'clock rites at which the former Judy Lisa Rowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Jones, Jr., of Baytown, Tex., spoke her marriage vows to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Connolly, of Washington road.

For the ceremony at which Monsignor J. B. Connolly presided the bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, chose a white organza Empire gown accented with Rosepointe lace and featuring a lace-edged Chapel train. A lace and pearl-encrusted Juliet cap caught her lace-edged fingertip veil of English illusion. Her bridal nosegay, a semi-cascade, was fashioned of white roses, stephanotis and feathered carnations.

In Empire frocks of pale blue dotted swiss with large, ruffled collars were honor maid Nancy Rowe, the bride's sister, and flower girl Amy Brewer.

Bridesmaids, in navy dotted swiss, were Mrs. Thomas O. Whitehead and Karen Garges, of Houston, Mrs. George Conway, of Detroit, the bridegroom's sister, and Mrs. Jack M. Morris, Marcy Shapiro and Marsha Sharp, all of Austin, Tex.

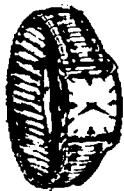

They wore wide-brimmed white hats and carried domed nosegays of cornflowers, baby's-breath and blue and yellow carnations.

Michael J. Connolly was his brother's best man. In the usher corps were Richard Connolly, another brother, Peter Denman, of Brooklyn, N.Y., Jimmy Frank Davis, of Lubbock, Tex., Hugh Roe O'Donnell, of Melrose, Mass., Kevin Broderick, Mike Martin, of Ann Arbor, and David Lang and John Muegge, both of Austin.

The bride's mother wore a long, full-skirted gown of pale blue chiffon over taffeta styled with long sleeves and beaded at neck and waistline. The bridegroom's mother selected a long gown of emerald green chiffon with long, fitted sleeves.

Farms Remains With SEMCOG

The Grosse Pointe Farms Council at its regular meeting Monday, July 1, decided to maintain The Farms' membership in the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments. (S.E.M.C.O.G.)

The councilmen agreed to pay $650 for the city's annual membership beginning July 1. City Manager Andrew Bremer recommended that the Council vote to remain in the organization despite some members' beliefs that The Farms wasn't as active as membership warrants.

Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman said she thought membership was pointless unless someone was willing to spend the time to go to all the meetings and keep abreast of new developments.

"When I go to the meetings I feel terribly ill-informed," she said.

Mr. Bremer suggested that perhaps a retired member of the community, interested in city government, would be willing to attend S.E.M.C.O.G. meetings and keep the Council informed of its actions.

He said that with someone else doing the "legwork," The Farms Councilmen would probably see benefits from membership.

The daytime meetings often last several hours.

The Council voted 6-0 to name members of S.E.M.C.O.G. and to try to find a resident to become involved in the regional council.

Councilman James Dingeman was absent from the meeting since he was out of town.

Phase I Holds Summer Social

Eighty-eight Phase I singles enjoyed a warm, moonlit night for their ice cream social Sunday evening, June 30, under twinkling lights hung in trees on the lawn of their advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Jahne, of Fisher road.

Fresh strawberry and hot fudge sundaes, cakes and coffee were top choices for refreshments.

It was a special evening for Joyce Bradford and Bill Coombe, whose engagement was announced. Assistant advisors Mr. and Mrs. Tom Heinrich, Phase I alumni, were celebrating their first wedding anniversary, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hintz were invited to attend in celebration of their three-month wedding anniversary.

Retiring president Frank Bissig was commended for his outstanding leadership during the past year and it was announced that Phase I's president for 1974-75 will be Donald Lockwood. The 20 new Council members who will lead the group in the coming year also were introduced.

The Council plans to try to top the exciting travel experience of spending New Year's Eve 1973 in London, England. Phase I travelers are looking forward to Christmas holidays in Israel and Greece — especially to being together Christmas Eve in Bethlehem.

Michigan Bell Announces New Austerity Program

Michigan Bell has announced a "freeze" on employment and the near elimination of overtime as part of a general austerity program.

David K. Eastlick, company president, said the cutbacks will cause some delays in telephone service and could result in the loss of more than 2,000 jobs.

He said the cutbacks were being made with "great reluctance and regret but out of absolute necessity" because of Michigan Bell's slumping earnings that are "going from bad to worse."

Under the austerity program, Michigan Bell also is cancelling the purchase of about 500 new cars and trucks during the balance of the year and deferring the scheduled elimination of rural eight-party lines.

A careful examination also has been started that may lead to the deferral of many of the 150 building projects costing $53 million that Michigan Bell has under way in 90 cities throughout the state. There are 2,100 building tradesmen now working on those projects.

Other cutbacks will include a reduction in the number of outside cables scheduled for installation this year. As a result, two-party lines may be the highest grade of service available to some customers moving into new homes or business locations.

Eastlick said Michigan Bell also is holding up all charitable contributions scheduled for payment through the balance of the year.

"Our company prides itself on being a good citizen — of assisting causes and organizations that benefit the community at large. And we are mindful that the loss of financial support from us may be a serious blow to some community groups. Nonetheless, until the financial health of our business improves, we have no choice but to follow this course," Eastlick said.

"How soon we are able to consider resuming our contributions program is dependent on the same factors that will determine when we can return to normal business operations," Eastlick explained.

He said those "factors" include the "degree of success achieved in obtaining rate relief in the months ahead." Eastlick already has indicated that Michigan Bell may appeal to the courts the dismissal by the Michigan Public Service Commission of the issue of rate of return on equity capital from its request for a $111 million rate increase.

In addition, telephone revenues — reflecting the slowdown in Michigan's economy — have been disappointing while costs have continued to soar because of the rapid rate of inflation, Eastlick said.

Men who make mistakes are useful — they help us forget the mistakes we make.

Mike Brown Performs Well

Mike Brown of the Grosse Pointe Swim Club, (GPSC), competed in the National Age Diving Championships at Cleveland State University Saturday-Tuesday, June 22-25. The 12-year-old placed third in the 10-meter tower diving and in 7½-meter action, and fifth in the three-meter springboard.

His outstanding performance in Ohio put him on the 12-member United States diving team that will compete against other countries at Santa Clara, Calif., on July 22-25.

"We want to wish Mike well and we feel proud that the Grosse Pointe community has an athlete of his calibre to represent us," said Jack Shook of the GPSC.

String Concert Slated July 16

A string ensemble concert has been scheduled for 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, July 16, in the Crystal Ballroom of Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Gordon Staples, concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will play and lead the quartet consisting of first and second violins, viola and cello in two rarely-heard musical works: Ravel's Quartet and the Beethoven Quartet Opus 131 in B flat major.

The other Detroit Symphony musicians who comprise the quartet are Beatriz Staples, Hart Holman and John Thurman.

Test Nursing Care System

Bon Secours Hospital is currently testing a specialized type of built-in cabinet in a 24-bed wing of the building as part of a progressive nursing care system to be introduced at the hospital this fall.

Called nurseservers, the cabinets stock all individual and standard items needed by a patient — fresh linen, dressings, medications — and put them at the nurse's fingertips in the patient's room. The result is that the nurse spends more time in the patient's room instead of collecting supplies from central linen, medication and supply rooms.

The nurseserver is an integral part of a decentralized system of nursing care which has eliminated the traditional "nurses station" and replaces it with individual nurse alcoves within each patient room. The patient's chart will be kept in a locked drawer in the nurseserver and charting will be done at the bedside.

The nurse-servers used in the trial are modified versions located in the patients' rooms. The prefabricated ones currently being installed in the northeast wing under construction will open to the patient's room on one side, and to the corridor where they are stocked by supply personnel.

When this wing opens in October, the no-nurse-station concept of nursing care, the first to be introduced in a Michigan hospital, will begin full scale operation in the new units.

By Janet Mueller

School is out permanently for them this spring, and they're both sad and glad about it. More glad than sad, in every case, for whether they have chosen to take early retirement or are "birthday retirees," it's a time for new beginnings.

Elizabeth Kenny is going back to her hometown, Zanesville, O., in the fall. Her husband, Roland, is retired from Chrysler Corporation, so there's nothing to keep the Kennys in their Eastland apartment.

Mrs. Kenny, retiring as a Grade Three teacher at Poupard, thinks she will miss the children. But she's looking forward to resting and reading, and the Kennys will, of course, continue traveling. They have already been to Europe, Hawaii and Alaska, across the United States and Canada. They want to go back and go on.

Holds Several Degrees
Mrs. Kenny earned her Bachelor of Arts degree at Muskingum College, received her Master of Arts from Wayne State University and has done additional work at Ohio, Wayne and Michigan State Universities.

She came to Grosse Pointe in 1950. She'd taught previously in Cincinnati and Zanesville.

She taught Special Education in The Pointe for about 12 years, and maintains a special interest in Special students. She thinks she'll do some church work once she's settled in Zanesville, a continuation and expansion of the church work she's been doing right along. Mrs. Kenny, not content with spending every weekday in the classroom, taught Sunday School for many years.

Has Varied Plans
Dr. Moore, instrumental and vocal music instructor at Pierce-Defer, has several retirement plans in the fire. An avid book collector, he's toying with the idea of putting out a series of rare books at reasonable prices. And there are other possibilities.

Dr. Moore received his Bachelors and Masters degrees from Ohio State University and his Doctor of Music Education from Chicago Musical College of Roosevelt University. He's done additional work at Michigan and Wayne State Universities.

He came to Grosse Pointe in 1952, after teaching six years at Mount Union College in Alliance, O. Before that, he taught at Murray State Teachers College in Murray, Ky. He was on the Chicago Musical College staff, too.

Really Talented
He's been listed in "Who's Who in American Education." He's played professional bassoon, and was first bassoon player with the Grosse Pointe Symphony for about 10 years. He's an expert instrumental repairman and, member of the National Association of Clock and Watch Collectors, an expert

To Hold Picnic Before Concert

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Young and Dr. and Mrs. Henry Domzalski will be among the group of Pointers traveling out to Meadow Brook this Saturday, July 6, for a 6 o'clock pre-concert picnic supper.

The informal gathering — on the lawn if it's fair, in the pavilion if it's rainy — is for members of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, their guests, Orchestra members and special guests, including pianist Lorin Hollander and guest conductor Kazimierz Kord.

The Juniors are preparing the picnics.

Mr. Anderson earned his Bachelors degree at Michigan State Normal College, (now EMU), received his Masters from EMU and pursued additional studies at Michigan and Wayne State Universities, the University of Michigan and Brigham Young University.

Thirty-seven-and-a-half of his teaching years have been in Grosse Pointe.

Three Share Birthdays
The Andersons have three children all born on the same day, August 9. "We made the Detroit News on the third one," Gail Hicks just got her Ph.D. in Psychology. Jim Anderson, married, father of one child, is on Burroughs' engineering staff. Tom combines Eastern Michigan University studies with work at Ford.

Their father and mother, when not traipsing around the globe, (Mr. Anderson likes to head for a central spot and traipse off, in short spurts, from there; Mrs. Anderson is more of a place-to-place traipser), will be at home in East Detroit.

It's very much Mr. Anderson's city. He's a past Mayor of East Detroit, a 14-year East Detroit Council veteran, current member of the East Detroit Planning Commission.

He's interested in politics, in reading, in gardening, in bridge. He's a Bridge Life Master. So is Mona. "She got me started."

"The kids were terrific this year, and we've always had an awfully good staff at Pierce," Mr. Anderson muses. "Sure, I miss it — but not enough to be unemployed."

"Every year, May and June were my 'bad' months. I always wanted to be outside. That's why I quite in mid-year."

Mr. Anderson was "outside" this spring, and he loved it. "I tell you one thing," the Voice of Experience advises his about-to-be fellow retirees, "you don't get bored."

43-Year Career
"I've gone through all the Superintendents here, with the exception of Walling. He was the first," Esther Meldrum notes. "Dr. Brownell hired me. I've spent my whole professional career in Grosse Pointe."

That career spans 43 years. Mrs. Meldrum has taught at Mason, Defer, Pierce, the old Brownell Unit at South High — "I loved that" — and, most recently, Parcels.

"My mother had you in school" rings familiarly in Esther's ears.

Art is Mrs. Meldrum's subject, her vocation and avocation. Graduated from St. Leo's High School in Detroit, she earned her Bachelors degree at Wayne State University. Additional training included a summer school session in Taxco, Mexico, a year's study at the old Detroit Arts and Crafts with Sarkis Sarkisian and work at the University of Wisconsin.

Esther is a widow, mother of one son, Donald James Meldrum, a South High graduate, in the mobile home business in Battle Creek now. She plans to maintain her home in Harper Woods.

Full of Plans
"I like to paint, of course, and to swim. I hope to keep up in Art by doing volunteer work at the Art Institute, maybe being a Docent." She plans to leave home every so often, too. "My

MR. and MRS. JAMES M. LaFleur, of North Brys drive, announce the birth of their fourth child, second daughter, May 13. JULIE MARIE joins brothers JAMES and TIMOTHY and sister ELIZABETH. Mrs. LaFleur is the former MARY SEPIC, daughter of MR. and MRS. M. M. SEPIC, formerly of Barclay road, now of Naples, Fla. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. PETER LaFleur, of South Edgewood drive.

Noted economist and editorial writer PATRICIA J. SHONTZ, of Bishop road, has been appointed by Governor WILLIAM G. MILLIKEN, subject to Senate confirmation, to the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority. Mrs. Shontz, a graduate of the University of Detroit presently serving as a professor in the University of Michigan's Graduate School of Business Administration, will serve as a representative of the state's private colleges.

Among 142 seniors graduating from the Interlochen Arts Academy June 7 was PAUL HARTLIEB, son of MR. and MRS. KURT F. HARTLIEB, of Berkshire road, Paul, 18, attended the Academy for three years. His Fine Arts interest is in Music and Visual Arts, and he played with the Studio (Jazz) Orchestra during the past year. His academic interest is in Natural Science, and he hopes to have a career in Science Education. He plans to attend Michigan State University.

Cadet FRANK K. WAIN-DLE, one of 38 graduating seniors at Admiral Farragut Academy, St. Petersburg, Fla., son of MRS. ROGER F. WAIN-DLE, of Harcourt road, has won an appointment to the United States Naval Academy. His appointment sponsor is The Honorable LUCIAN D. NEDZI, Congressman from Michigan's 14th District. During his four years at Farragut Frank, 17 now, established an outstanding record, attaining Cadet Lieutenant rank and winning the Radford Star, the Academy's highest award. His other achievements include Department and Academic Ribands. He has been named to the Headmaster's List and was a member of the Academy rifle team for two years, (he won the Expert Rifle Riband), a member of the Chess, Photography, Monogram and Collage Clubs and active in intramural football and softball. He played with the Farragut Academy Band and captained the Farragut television quiz team. In one of those unusual coincidences, Frank's roommate at Farragut also won an Annapolis appointment.

J. LAWRENCE BUELL, JR., of Vendome road, president of the board of trustees of the Detroit-Macomb Hospitals Association, has announced the appointment of fellow Pointer JAMES W. DUFF to the board. Mr. DUFF, who formerly served on the board of directors for ADE, Inc. (Alcohol and Drug Education), is currently legal counsel and member of the board of the directors for the Grosse Pointe All-American Little Football Leaguers, Inc.

Two works by ROBERT R. RATHBUN, of Grosse Pointe North High School's Art Department, won recognition at the Grosse Pointe Artists Association recent annual exhibition. He received a second place in Drawing and Graphics for "Cabaret" and an honorable mention in the same category for "Portrait #3," plus a special mention for "Cabaret" as Most Popular Award. The Michigan Art Education Association recently purchased another work by Mr. Rathbun, an India Ink drawing, in honor of its Art Educator of the Year SARA JANE VENABLE, of the Lansing School District.

Celebrating their Golden Wedding anniversary with a June 2 dinner-reception for 60 guests at the Bronze Door given by their son-in-law and daughter, MR. and MRS. ALBERT STROUP, of Detroit, were MR. and MRS. HILLIARD WEIGLE, of McMillan road. Mr. Weigle and the former BESSIE LUMLEY, both born in Canada, were married in Detroit's Annunciation Church June 4, 1924. They have resided in The Pointe for 37 years. They have three granddaughters.
