HEADLINES of the WEEK

THE DETROIT WHEELS, Detroit's entry in the fledgling World Football League, lost the opening game Wednesday to the Memphis Southmen, 34-15, in Memphis. The game almost didn't come off as rain fell for 90 minutes prior to the opener. But the rains stopped, a huge rainbow appeared and the Wheels made their debut. General manager Sonny Grandelius viewed the loss philosophically. "We made some Memphis fans happy," he said.

FUNERAL SERVICES for former Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren were held today in Washington Cathedral. Burial followed in Arlington National Cemetery. The nation's 14th chief justice died Tuesday at age 83. His body laid in state in the Supreme Court building, an honor never before accorded a member of the Court. Warren, appointed in 1953 by the late President Dwight Eisenhower, was known for his liberal opinions on such issues as racial integration, obscenity laws, equal voting rights and prayers in public schools.

JOHN D. EHRLICHMAN, President Nixon's former No. 2 aide, was convicted by a federal jury yesterday on three counts of perjury and one count of conspiracy in the 1971 break-in at the offices of the psychiatrist of Daniel Ellsberg. Three other defendants also were convicted of conspiracy for the break-in at the office of Dr. Lewis Fielding. Sentencing was set for July 31. The conspiracy charge carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $1,000 fine, while the other three counts each carry a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine. Ehrlichman said he would appeal his conviction.

THE SENATE WATERGATE Committee has made public its final report, contained in three volumes of 2,217 pages. The committee made no judgments as to guilt or innocence but did detail the facts of the burglary, cover-up and other corrupt acts that are now encompassed by the name Watergate. The committee proposed radical changes in election financing laws that would eliminate contributors of large sums of money and emphasize small donations from many people. The recommendations were made to help prevent future Watergates. The committee ruled that public financing of campaigns is not needed at this point to assure clean elections.

THE GOVERNMENT of President Archbishop Makarios of Cyprus was overthrown today by Greek-led Cypriot troops, Nicosia, (Cyprus' capital city), radio reported. There were conflicting reports whether Makarios, 60, was killed in the fighting which raged around the presidential palace. It's reported the Greek officers leading the revolution seek union between Greece and Cyprus, an island which lies 40 miles south of Turkey but 350 east of the nearest Greek island. Its population however, consists of 400,000 Greeks and only 80,000 Turks. Turkey placed its armed forces on alert following the uprising.

A BRITISH GYNCOLOGIST has revealed the world's first test tube babies were born in Europe in the past 18 months and that all are still alive and appear normal. Dr. Douglas Bevis, professor of obstetrics and gynecology at Leeds University, said three babies had been born, one in Britain and two on the Continent.

Volunteers Paid Tribute By Hospital

Awards Presentation Dinner Held at Bon Secours; Aides Work 11,067 Hours in Year

Red Cross volunteers at Bon Secours Hospital were honored with a dinner and awards presentation at the hospital Tuesday, June 25. Presiding at the dinner was Mrs. Carl Reichelt, of South Deeplands road, who is Red Cross chairman. She announced the volunteers had worked 11,067 hours at the hospital from May, 1973 to May, 1974.

Mrs. Emmett Fagan, of Stephens road, who serves as chairman of hospital volunteers for the central region of Red Cross in addition to spending one day a week as a volunteer at Bon Secours, said the hospital, with 50 Red Cross volunteers, has more volunteers per patient bed than any other hospital in Wayne, Oakland or Macomb counties.

Seven volunteers received pins at the ceremony. Mrs. Lawrence Waldorf, of St. Clair Shores, received a 15-year pin, followed by 10-year recipients Mrs. Louis Decker, of Manor road, and Mrs. Bernard Rosso, of Neff road.

Mrs. James Curtio, of Lincoln road, Mrs. Anthony Gardella, of Detroit, Mrs. C. J. Burgess of Detroit and Mrs. Richard Mauer of St. Clair Shores, each received five-year pins.

50th Bayview-Mackinac Sailing Race Again Calls Many Boats From Pointe

Traditional Colorful Event Has 241 Entries Ready to Cross Starting Line off Port Huron This Saturday

By Nancy Kramer

There are no long, drawn out speeches or special festivities scheduled to commemorate its 50th anniversary this Saturday, July 20, but then the Bayview-to-Mackinac Race has always been enough of an event in itself.

Recognizing this fact and knowing when to leave well enough alone is Detroit's Bayview Yacht Club which has sponsored the competition since 1925.

The race annually draws some 200-plus participants and, by Bayview assistant race chairman Rick Bridge's estimate, 80 to 100 of those are Grosse Pointe boats. As one local sailor put it, "It's THE big race of the season."

Among Pointe boats entered this year is John Rummel's Morning Star, a 39-foot custom sloop which, when not racing, is moored at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Mackinac Veteran

Born in the Pointe, raised in McKinley avenue and schooled at South High, Mr. Rummel has made the Mackinac Race an annual thing since 1945. That, he said, was the year to remember. "There was a super storm and only four boats finished. I happened to be on one that did."

According to Bayview's program booklet, objects of the race are "to encourage the designing, building and sailing of seaworthy sail yachts, suitable for offshore cruising and racing, and also to develop in the amateur sailor a love of true seamanship, sportsmanship and proficiency in the science of navigation."

The club challenges these facets of sailing on a 250-mile course that begins near Port Huron, heads northeast, rounds the Cove Island Sea Buoy, then turns northwest toward the finish near Mackinac Island.

Last Year's Winner

Generally, it's a 48-hour trip but last year, Searamouche took the pennant with a corrected time of 38:38:38.

The course used to be only 204 miles long, and naturally, at one time, there were a lot fewer competitors. "When I first started there were only about 50 boats racing," Mr. Rummel recalled.

With 241 entries Bayview doesn't have a record fleet this year and that's fine by Mr. Bridge who also will be crewing. "Even though we have 241 boats officially entered, probably only 235 will start," he explained. "For one reason or another, there are always some who don't show up."

The Mackinac Race is essentially invitational in nature. "Bayview asks you if you're a member of a recognized club and your boat is capable of offshore racing," (Continued on Page 4)

Honors Paid 23 Members By Theater

Awards Highlight Celebration of Most Successful Season

The Grosse Pointe Theater celebrated its most successful season in 26 years with a presentation of awards to 23 of its members Saturday evening, July 13. In addition, the theater announced its sponsorship of an international theater festival, introduced its newly-elected board of directors and listed the program of productions planned for the 1974-75 season.

Following a cocktail hour and formal buffet at the Latin Quarter, Vice President Mrs. Anthony Venet introduced Master and Mistress of Ceremonies Bob Blaty and Mary Lou Mantho, who presided over presentation of the gold Clarence statuettes.

Wins Three Awards

Harry Albertson, who is currently directing the group's summer production "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?", received awards for his lighting of A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum as well as for his portrayal of the befuddled Erronius in that production. Mr. Albertson won a third award for designing the sets for The Music Man.

Technical awards for Forum also included Toni Moore of Somerset road, and John Guadagnoli, properties; Linda Shears and Pat Utich, costumes; Jim Sawyer, technical direction; Paul Wheeler, choral direction, and Joyce Schultheiss, director.

Mrs. Mantho, of Edgemont Park, (set dressing), and Michele Karl of Cadieux road, (makeup), received Clarendes for their work on Private Lives.

Acting Awards

The acting awards went to Ruth Ellen Mayhall, who played the lead role of Marian the Librarian in The Music Man and Roland Evans as the wily slave Pseudolus in Forum.

Supporting actor and actress awards went to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marco, of Fairford road, for their re-

Woods Officer Reinstated By Trial Board

William Desilets Found Guilty on Three of Nine Charges but Board Members Cite Extenuating Circumstances

By Roger A. Waha

A Trial Board, which was convened Monday, July 8, and Tuesday, July 9, to hear charges brought against a suspended Woods public safety officer, announced its decision at the regular council meeting Monday, July 15. The council unanimously approved the action of the Board.

Officer William Desilets, who was suspended Wednesday, June 19, with pay and benefits by Public Safety Director Henry Marchand based upon nine charges brought against the officer by Sergeant Peter Thomas stemming from an incident Sunday, June 16, was found guilty of three of the nine charges.

The Board ordered that the officer be reinstated immediately and that a letter of reprimand be placed in his personnel file citing the trio of charges of which he was found guilty.

Everyone's Happy

Arm and Bove, who appeared as legal counsel for Officer Desilets, said, "I'm happy it turned out that way. (The decision) shows that they listened to the evidence. I'm very happy about it."

Youth Service Division Detective Patrick Fagan, president of the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Officers' Association, (GPWPOA), stated, "I'm very, very pleased. The findings of the Trial Board supported our contention that he, (Officer Desilets), was misled. The decision was just."

"I would say the decision was very just," said Director Marchand. "I think the Trial Board acted fairly based on the evidence presented."

As for Officer Desilets, himself, he stated, "I feel pretty happy about the way it went."

Three-man Board

The Trial Board, which was comprised of Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and Councilmen George S. Freeman and Rodger A. Graef, found the officer guilty of the following charges:

The officer violated a section of Ordinance No. 45, (which establishes rules and regulations governing the public safety department), (Continued on Page 8)

Area Lucky Compared to Other Spots

Many Trees Damaged; Power and Phone Lines Felled; No Injuries Reported

The Pointe had its bad moments during the heavy winds and thunder storm that struck the Detroit area shortly after 5 p.m. on Sunday, July 14, but residents consider themselves lucky they were not hit as badly as other parts of Michigan, such as in Potter, a Flint suburb. High winds and tornadoes slammed through this section damaging about 40 homes.

Power in many areas was cut off, and in Oakland County, a 600-pound section of a tree was snapped off by wind and landed atop a van truck, killing the driver, a resident of St. Clair Shores, who was driving south on Rochester road in Addison Township; a passenger suffered severe head injuries.

Although Pointe officials had their hands full answering telephone calls from people reporting damage to trees, and downed Edison and Michigan Bell telephone wires, no deaths were reported as a result of rampaging Mother Nature.

Park Least Affected

According to reports, The Park was the least affected by the storm, which came after a 87-degree heat wave. The Pointe department submitted the following notations of damages, as follows:

Park — in the east area, from Grayton to Cadieux there was a complete electrical power failure, when heavy tree limbs knocked down Edison lines. A power line was knocked down by a falling tree at the Three Mile Drive Park. A large tree limb was snapped off in front of 1033 Nottingham and another in front of 845 Park lane.

City — Starting at 5:37 p.m., several calls were received reporting high tension wires down at the rear of 705 Fisher, and a minute later residents notified the authorities of tree limbs over service wires at 428 Cadieux and at 878 St. Clair.

A few minutes later a tree was reported down at 833 Rivard boulevard and this was removed immediately by personnel of the Department of Public Works.

Limbs were reported down in front of 1000 Lincoln; 16819 Cranford lane; and 412 St. Clair, and these were removed later in the day.

Firemen Stand By

City firefighters responding to a fire alarm at the rear of 705 Fisher, found that a 4,800-volt electrical wire had snapped and was hanging over telephone wires. Firemen stood by in shifts until Edison trouble shooters took care of the matter.

Five-Year-Old Park Boy Scalded to Death in Tub

Five-year-old Matthew Scott Walker was playing with his floating toys in the tub of the family's second floor flat, 1326 Lakepointe, on Sunday, July 14, when he accidentally turned on the hot water tap and was scalded to death. Efforts of Park policemen and firemen to revive the boy were unsuccessful and the lad was pronounced dead on arrival at Bon Secours Hospital where he was taken by firemen in the emergency ambulance.

Young Matthew was playing in the cooling water, when his mother, Carol Jane Walker, and Mrs. Walker's brother, Donald Crow, heard the boy screaming at about 7:55 p.m. Both rushed to the bathroom to find the boy in about 10 inches of steaming hot water and more gushing from the hot water tap.

The boy's uncle grabbed Matthew from the tub and applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, but to no avail. A downstairs neighbor, in 1324 Lakepointe, also heard the boy's screams and ran upstairs and saw the uncle attempting to revive young Matthew. The neighbor called the Fire Department. Personnel from the Police Department were also dispatched to the scene.

The firemen and policemen tried to bring life back into the young body, and en route to the hospital, the ambulance crew used oxygen, but the boy failed to respond.

Park to Remove Diseased Trees

The Park Council at the regular meeting Monday, July 8, voted a tree removal contract to the Cal Fleming Tree Service at a cost to the city of $2,085. The contract calls for the removal of 25 American Elm trees infected with Dutch Elm disease.

City Manager Robert A. Slone said the trees are scattered about the city and comprise about one quarter of all those expected to become infected this year.

Of the 6,000 American Elm trees in The Park, about 100 are affected yearly, Mr. Slone said.

All trees in the city are sprayed regularly but the results are not 100 percent successful.

In accepting the bid of the Cal Fleming Tree Service, the council chose the lowest bidder. Three other companies made higher bids.

Thwarted Hold Up Pair Arrested by Park Police

Two youths, both black, were arrested by Park police on Monday, July 8, shortly after they were thwarted in attempts to hold up two dry cleaning establishments in Kercheval avenue. They were taken into custody when they were seen trying the door of a third cleaning place.

The suspects were identified as Elmer L. Teagle, 19, of 2574 Dickerson; and Randall C. Farrow, 18, of 2564 Manistiquie, both of Detroit. They were arraigned before Park Municipal Judge John Urso on Tuesday, July 9, and ordered held in the local cell in default of $10,000 bond each.

On Friday, July 12, Teagle and Farrow were given a preliminary hearing before the judge, who reduced Teagle's bond to $5,000, two sureties, and that of Farrow, to $2,500 cash. Judge Urso set yesterday, July 17, for the examination. The two were detained in the local jail in lieu of bond.

According to information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan, Teagle and Farrow entered Belding Cleaners, 15139 Kercheval, and Denby Cleaners, 15027 Kercheval, in both events were frustrated in their try to rob the places. At the former, they were frightened away by an approaching customer, and at the latter, they ran from the place when a woman employee screamed.

Correction!

To no one's amazement, last week's account of the 104 Pointers to graduate from Wayne State University at Spring commencement was partially in error. In listing the hundred-plus local students to receive diplomas, the university's information contained some errors. Most were corrected by the NEWS' staff before publication, but three were not.

Richard J. Shenkus, of Balfour road, and Vincent Falararo, Jr., of Kerby road were completely omitted from the list, and Mr. Shenkus turned out to be the lone Pointer to receive a Ph.D. His degree came in higher education and Mr. Falararo received a Masters degree in special education.

Rosemarie Relich, who was prominently mentioned in last week's story as a Ph.D. recipient, actually received a Ph.B., and became a Bachelor of Philosophy.

Police Recover Stolen Truck

A self-employed Mt. Clemens man was victimized Monday afternoon, July 8, when someone took his truck containing a safe with around $500 and approximately 160 cartons of cigarettes from the rear of the Landmark Restaurant, 19299 Mack avenue.

The truck was recovered some seven hours later in Detroit minus the grey safe although an unknown quantity of cigarettes remained, Woods police reported.

Thomas Kilbride, 49, of the Triangle Vending Service, told Corporal Robert Setchell he parked the vehicle at 3:35 p.m. and returned 15 minutes later to find it missing. Police said entry was gained by breaking out a vent window.

The Detroit Police Department's auto recovery bureau said the truck was found in the DSR parking lot at Wabash and Hudson. The vehicle had been hot wired.

spective roles as the nervous slave Hysterium in Forum and the mayor's wife Eulalie Shinn in The Music Man.

Maureen McCabe, of Whittier road, received the featured actress Clarence award as Zaneeta, the mayor's flighty daughter, in The Music Man.

The award for best non-featured actress went to Mrs. Arthur Thompson, of Oxford road, for her dancing role in

The Music Man, while David Rodgers received the non-featured actor award for his role as one of the four proteans in Forum.

Mrs. Ronald Samuel, of Moran road, and Mr. Guadagnoli received Clarence awards as Workers of the Year.

After presentation of a plaque and gavel to retiring President John Diebel, of Loraine road, President-elect Mary Lou Britton introduced the new board of directors: Mrs. Maher, vice-president; Mr. Marco, secretary; Mr. Gallagher, treasurer; Ruth Ann Bliss, of Ridgmont road, membership; Mrs. Mantho, tickets; Chancey Miller, house; Mr. Evans, production; Richard Vreeland, of Audubon road, technical; Mrs. Robert Bowen, of Whittier road, public relations; and Mrs. Jac Purdon, of Village lane, workshop.

Ms. Britton then announced that Grosse Pointe Theater had been selected to host the International Amateur Theater Olympiad in June, 1975, featuring a competition among non-professional theater groups from all over the world. She called for support from the group and the community in meeting this singular honor.

In concluding the evening, Ms. Britton announced the season for 1974-75. It will include the comedy, The Pleasure of His Company by Samuel Taylor and Cornelia Otis Skinner, to be presented in November; Tennessee Williams' Summer and Smoke, scheduled for late January; the March show, Ready When You Are, C. B., a comedy by Susan Slade, and the June musical, the Rodgers and Hammerstein classic, Carousel.

Reservations for the new season will be available in early September, while tickets for Virginia Woolf, August 6-10, are presently available through the theater box office at 881-4004 and through the J. L. Hudson Company ticket offices.

Kiwanis Seeks Residents' Help

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club distributed a letter to all residents which outlined the club's services to the community last week, and is asking citizens to respond via a monetary donation.

Various programs, such as the club's donation to The Woods of a bus fleet to transport youngsters and senior citizens to the Lake Front Park, are made possible via contributions.

Storm Damage Assessed by Pointes

apparently the aftermath of the day before storm, caused a power failure at Walton-Pierce, Kercheval and Notre Dame, trapping a woman customer in the store elevator. Forty minutes later she was released through the efforts of City firemen.

Farms—A large portion of the community, including the Police and Fire Departments and the Municipal Offices, was hit by a blackout caused by downed power lines. The area affected was bounded approximately by Moran, Provencal and Lake Shore roads, and Chalfonte avenue. The blackout lasted from 5:35 p.m. to about 11 p.m.

Moross Hit Hard
Police said the Moross road area was the hardest hit. A main power line and numerous smaller lines were knocked out.

The authorities said that more than 30 calls were received regarding broken and burning wires and felled trees, some landing on homes and cars, and downed tree limbs. More would have been reported, it was said, if there had been power at the station.

A huge oak tree, reputed to be the second oldest in Michigan, on the property of Dr. and Mrs. Francis Wilson, 150 Lewiston, was badly damaged and a very large limb landed on a 1970 Plymouth station wagon owned by the family. The tree was the home of a family of raccoons which returned each year to nest.

The limb, several feet in diameter, fell onto the middle of the vehicle, totally demolishing it. The station wagon was parked in the driveway when the gale-force wind ripped through the old oak.

Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer said through the years efforts have been made to preserve the tree and the trunk was filled with cement.

It was disclosed that all power to the police station was completely out, including communications to the scout cars.

Only one telephone was in service in the station from 5:30 p.m. to about 7:45 p.m. when services were restored to two additional lines. At about 8:15, all communications were restored to emergency phone lines when the auxiliary generator was put into operation.

Communication Lost
Due to the complete loss of communication, Edison could not be contacted until 6:45. An hour later, informed of the seriousness of the situation, Edison crews began work on the Moross lines and the main power at the police and fire stations and service to most Moross area residences was restored by 11 p.m.

Woods—The report was very brief. The Public Safety Department disclosed that it received reports of 30 wires down, and 14 downed tree limbs throughout the community.

At the Lakefront Park, a 16-foot boat was reported sunk when a heavy tree limb fell on it. Several tree limbs were downed in various areas of the park, it was added.

Shores—The severe wind and rain storm caused damage to trees, utility lines, Village and private property. There were no fires caused by fallen wires or lightning.

It was disclosed that numerous Edison and Michigan Bell wires snapped in various areas of the community, with arcing wires adding to the danger. The situation continued until utility repair groups arrived to handle the situation.

Several Cars Hit
Damage ranged from broken trees and heavy limbs landing on roofs of homes, damaging shingles and knocking over chimneys. Several automobiles were damaged by fallen limbs, including one car which had its windshield smashed.

In front of 41 Stonehurst, a tree, three and one-half feet in circumference was uprooted, and in front of 60 Willison, a large tree toppled onto a house.

In front of 906 Lake Shore road, a telephone pole with a large transformer attached, was snapped at the base and fell to the ground, causing a fire in the transformer.

Chief Joseph Vitale said that 10 off-duty public safety officers were called to duty to assist the afternoon shift of men. Five workers of the Department of Public Works were also notified of the emergency, and between the officers and DPW personnel, the debris was cleared away within a few short hours.

A boat was reported capsized 300 yards off-shore near the George Osius Park. A St. Clair Shores Coast Guard crew towed the craft to shore. It was not disclosed if the craft had been damaged.

New Policeman Hired by Park

Gerald Kolakowski, 22, who resides in The Woods, began his basic police training at the Criminal Institute of Justice in Detroit, on Monday, July 15. He is the newest recruit in The Park Police Department.

Kolakowski replaces Patrolman Robert Chester, who recently resigned to become a patrolman with the St. Clair Shores Police Department.

The new Park patrolman is a native of Highland Park and is a 1970 graduate of Grosse Pointe North High School. He is single and lives with his parents.

He is a graduate of Macomb County Community College where he majored in sociology and psychology. He was attending Eastern Michigan University to further his studies on the same subjects, when he decided to pursue a police career.

Kolakowski is expected to complete his basic training on August 30.

Foundation to Remain Afloat with Swimathon

By Nancy Kramer

So you thought there was nothing new under the sun in the way of fund raisers. Well, Patrick Jewell, of Three Mile drive, member of the Board of Directors of the Foundation for Exceptional Children, has shattered the

It called a swimathon and the modus operandi parallels your average walkathon, with sponsors pledging a certain amount of money for each mile covered. The main difference lies in the varying degrees of difficulty between walking about 30 miles and swimming 12.

"Really, I don't know how I thought of the idea," Dr. Jewell remarked. "I guess it was an outgrowth of my interest in swimming and I figured I might as well put that interest to use for the Foundation. Besides, I've always wanted to try swimming across the lake as a personal challenge."

It's a pretty involved challenge, but Dr. Jewell managed to rustle up a group who will attempt to swim from Harsen's Island clear across Lake St. Clair to the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Sunday, July 28, (alternate date in case of bad weather).

is Wednesday, July 31, in order to raise money for the Foundation.

The event, as organized by Dr. Jewell's wife, Mary, will feature four groups of teams who will swim in relay and three hardy souls who will try swimming the entire 12 miles on their own.

As an attraction to the day, swimmers who back a swimmer with a $100 or more pledge are invited to watch the group in action and enjoy luncheon and beverages aboard a yacht that will cruise the area.

None of the participants, who range in age from 12 to 46 years, have ever attempted a distance swim before, but they are all experienced swimmers and they will be accompanied by boats with trained water safety and medical personnel aboard.

The three younger relay teams, (ages 12 to 17), are comprised of Grosse Pointe Swim Club members. Swimmers of the fourth relay team (ages 30 and up), were gathered from the Swim Club's Masters Group.

The youngest individual swimmer is Dr. and Mrs. Jewell's 16-year-old son, Michael, who belongs to swim teams at South High and the Windmill Pointe Park. His father and August DeLuca, who also will be trying to cover full distance on their own, have both competed in State Masters Swim Meets.

The purpose of "Keep the Foundation Afloat," as the event has been termed, is just that.

Organizers, swimmers and sponsors are trying to raise the money necessary to maintain the Foundation, defray its expenses and staff it with qualified personnel.

Since its inception in 1954, by a small group of parents interested in providing a better life for their mentally and physically handicapped children, the Foundation, a non-profit organization, has served close to 400 youngsters.

Formerly through once a week sessions, that now meet five days a week, 11 months of the year in the new wing of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, the staff, both professional and volunteer, attempts to teach each child basic learning skills like sitting, standing, walking, talking, feeding and dressing oneself and toilet training.

With class specialization, youngsters are taught to learn their names, to socialize and to tend to their personal hygiene. They also hold their own special holiday celebrations and take outings. During the summer, they take part in recreational swims at the Grosse Pointe Club pool.

For older kids, 13 and up, the Foundation sponsors a bi-monthly teen club that offers members a means of socializing and a sense of belonging. Teen club activities include baseball and basketball games, horseback riding, dances, a carnival put on by volunteers and a summer camp.

Although the Foundation serves the needs of children from all around the Detroit vicinity, the Board of Trustees is comprised of Pointers, most of whom have, or have had handicapped children.

While the Foundation charges a nominal tuition for its services, three-fourths of its operating expenses come from donations and fund raising activities. Additionally, many children attend the regular session, summer school and camp on a scholarship basis.

According to Mrs. Jewell, proceeds from the swimathon are not designated for the purchase of any special equipment or facilities. "We just need money to keep the Foundation as it exists now," she explained.

It's hoped the financial pledges of Swimathon supporters will spur participants on in their physical commitment to keep the Foundation afloat. Persons interested in sponsoring an individual or group may call the Foundation, at 885-8660, or Dr. and Mrs. Jewell, at 822-1233, for further information.

YSD Awaiting Court Decision

The Youth Service Division, (YSD), is waiting to see what transpires on the Wayne County Circuit Court level in the case of a 17-year-old Woods youth who was arrested Thursday, June 27, on drug charges after a six-month surveillance of his home by the division.

The suspect, Bruce Robb, is charged with possession with the intent to deliver 812 grams of marijuana contrary to the provisions of Michigan's Controlled Substance Act, and with unlawfully delivering 20.2 grams of marijuana contrary to the provisions of the act.

YSD officers were told that a police crime lab analysis report proved that the confiscated substance was definitely marijuana. Police also confiscated a bag containing 150 suspected Tuinel capsules and the suspect's wallet containing $49.05.

At his preliminary hearing Wednesday, July 10, officers said Robb waived the examination, with Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis granting a motion by the defendant's attorney to have this incident placed on the Circuit Court docket. This case is scheduled for Thursday, July 25.

Police said a motion will be made in Circuit Court by Robb's attorney to have him plea to Section 47 of the Controlled Substances Law and Rules of the State, (1973). The court will accept the plea or reject it.

This section is open for those who have not had previous convictions for narcotics arrests, officers said. If the court rejects the plea, the case will come back to the municipal court level for a preliminary hearing.

Club Offers Fun Programs

Every morning from 9 a.m.-12 noon the Neighborhood Club offers supervised games at Elworthy Field. Bring your 5- and 6-year-olds to the tot lot and the older children to the playground, urges the Club. This program runs until Friday, July 26.

Then, beginning Monday, July 29, playground programs will be conducted at Brownell Middle School, Defer and Ferry Elementary Schools.

The Club is offering this program as a public service. Fun activities include t-ball, softball, field hockey, kickball, organized games, special events and contests Monday through Friday, (weather permitting), from 10 a.m.-12 noon.

No fee or membership is required. For additional information contact the Club at 885-4600.

Police Eluded By 5 Streakers

Five "streaking" male adults plus several angry residents equals some calls to a law enforcement agency. Such was the case late Monday evening, July 8, in The Woods when citizens reported the group running nude in the area of Sunningdale, Lochmoor and Holiday creating a disturbance.

The "adults" were reported to be stopping traffic and going up to houses. A check failed to uncover the culprits.

Many Pointe Boats Participate in Big Race

Mr. Rummel said. "Very few get left out. The entry fee is $55 but I can remember when it was $5."

Questionnaires Sent
"Basically, we re-invite competitors from previous years," Mr. Bridge elaborated. Owners who wish to enter new boats are sent questionnaires and from them, the club decides if the craft and crew are up to snuff. Mr. Bridge mentioned that sometimes, if the boat is acceptable but the race committee doubts the qualifications of a proposed crew, they will try to round up a more experienced group to handle the job.

"If a boat and crew are capable of offshore racing," Mr. Bridge maintained, "no one is really refused."

70 Safety Items
The Mackinac has always been a safe race and Bayview would like to see it stay that way. For that reason, all boats must comply with the North American Yacht Racing Union (NAYRU) standards. "I think there are about 70 different safety items you must follow, and they are all standard equipment on Morning Star," Mr. Rummel said. He cited deck rails and ship to shore radio as two examples of mandatory equipment aboard a boat competing in the race.

Since NAYRU provisions were established to govern ocean sailing, Bayview has, in some instances, modified them to apply to Great Lakes sailing. For example, the club made optional a regulation saying that participating boats must carry ample supplies of fresh water.

All boats are subject to arbitrary inspection both before and after the race.

Organization Needed
Hosting an event of Mackinac's stature calls for a certain amount of organization on Bayview's part. All boats that sail competitively must be officially rated. Ratings are computed on the basis of a boat's vital statistics, among them, overall length, length in the water and size of mast and sails.

Once ratings are compiled, the boats are classified and put into divisions.

Morning Star is in class B, division one, which means she will be given the starting signal at 1 p.m. on Saturday, after classes C through H have taken off and 15 minutes prior to the departure of class A boats.

Times are slightly staggered, but only to facilitate starts. It wouldn't be possible to line up a 241-foot fleet and send them all off at the same time.

All Factors Analyzed
The first boat in isn't necessarily the victory ship. Only after all factors have been analyzed following the race are winners announced.

And, even then, success can be elusive. If a boat has been spotted committing a foul, another boat may raise its protest flag. Upon completion of the course, a protesting skipper must present his objections in writing to the race committee which decides whether or not the offender should be penalized. "One of last year's winners ended up in fourth place as a result of a protest," Mr. Bridge said.

Ask a group of sailors what's more important, a fast boat or a qualified crew, and you're liable to provoke an argument. Mr. Rummel and Mr. Bridge, however, were in agreement on the subject. "You have to have a good crew," Mr. Rummel stated.

Crew Most Important
"I'd say the crew is more important," Mr. Bridge remarked. "That's why we have these guys who win every year. They're familiar with the boat and they're used to working together as a group."

The club demands each boat carry at least four men but there is no upper limit to crew size. Morning Star will have a nine-man crew; two four-man watches and a navigator. Generally, Mr. Rummel said, a boat of his size could use anywhere from seven to 11 deck hands during a race.

A couple years ago, he did hire a female crew member. "I took a girl along as a cook. The guys thought I was nuts, but she was good. So was the food, and the gal was always clean. Guys must be pretty good cooks, but they never clean up."

"A woman entered a boat last year with an all-girl crew," Mr. Bridge said. "She was a gym teacher at South and everyone made a big deal out of it." He feels most women can't physically cut the actual sailing part of a race and that if they really want to get into competitive sailing, they should study navigation.

A Regional Thing
The phenomenal status of the Mackinac Race in the Pointe stems, in part, from local enthusiasm for the sport of sailing itself. According to Mr. Bridge, this is a regional thing. "With the lake so close by," he remarked, "interest in the water is a geographical phenomenon. People in Bloomfield Hills play golf. Grosse Pointers sail."

And, while landlubbers

RELATIVES
The most expensive thing about a house on the lake is the procession of summer visitors.

can't always appreciate sailor's nautical longings. Mr. Rummel was able to phrase it in universal terms. "The phones ring all day at work. Out there, there isn't any of that. All you hear is the wind in the sails."

"Besides," he reflected, "don't you know sailing is the best way to commune with nature?"

Park Police Arrest Pair

At both establishments, the accused pair entered and asked if the places cleaned men's hats, and then made their robbery attempts, Lt. Duncan said.

At Belding, Teagle and Farrow, after posing the hat question, demanded the money from the cash register. It is believed that it was Teagle who went behind the counter and grabbed a woman employee around the neck. The clerk told authorities that she saw what appeared to be the handle of a knife in Teagle's pocket. The time was 3:34 p.m.

Just as the woman was about to open the cash register, a customer parked across the avenue and walked toward the shop. Teagle and Farrow fled the building without taking anything.

At 5:22 p.m., they entered Denby Cleaners, and after asking about the hat cleaning, Teagle tried to grab a woman clerk around the neck, but she backed away, knocking over a fan from a chair, and screamed. The frightened culprits ran out the door, again, empty-handed.

A description of the pair was sent over the police emergency radio. At 6:31 p.m., Patrolman Eugene Magnee, in an unmarked police car, saw the subjects walking south on Nottingham from Mack, toward Charlevoix.

Magnee entered a store and phoned the station for assistance. Patrolman Michael Kortas was dispatched to help, and the policemen arrested Teagle and Farrow as the pair tried the door of another cleaning place at Maryland and Charlevoix.

The lieutenant said that Teagle had his hand in his pocket, holding a knife, but promptly released the knife when the officers ordered him to take his hand out of the pocket. The knife was confiscated and Teagle and his companion were taken to the station, where, under questioning, they admitted to the hold-up tries.

Teagle and Farrow were booked and charged with attempted hold-up and detained until their appearance before Judge Urso.

Stereo Speaker Taken at NHS

Someone left a trail of shattered glass after burglarizing North High School, 707 Vernier road, and taking a stereo speaker, Woods police reported. The incident was discovered early Tuesday morning, July 9.

While on patrol around 2:24 a.m., and upon entering the north end parking lot, police found where someone had smashed a northeast door window (2x7 feet). An additional door window was broken, (2x7 feet), along with two other windows, (2x7 feet and 3x7 feet).

After entering the school, police discovered two rocks, one 4 by 7 inches and the other 5 by 5 inches.

A search revealed the music room door had been opened, the window glass shattered and a pipe angled to hold the door open. A stereo set with a tape recorder had its frontal doors opened but the tapes weren't disturbed.

Officers also found two other doors held open by a rock and a piece of wood, respectively.

Previous to the discovered break-in, the station received vandal alarm calls from the school at 12:01 a.m. and at 12:16 a.m. Checks were made in each case and the building appeared to be secure, police added.

Judicial Code Change Fought

The Michigan Senate last week approved a resolution sponsored by Sen. James D. Gray opposing a proposal to prohibit municipal judges from practicing law.

The resolution, which was sponsored at the request of the Woods Council, urges the State Supreme Court to reject the proposed amendment to the Code of Judicial Conduct.

"Such a change would severely hamper and restrict the availability of competent attorneys to serve as municipal judge, especially in those communities which have only part-time judges," said Sen. Gray in a news release.

"I fear that such a move would force many municipal judges to resign from office so that they could continue to practice law."

Now under consideration by the House of Representatives, his resolution also opposes the proposed amendment because "such action appears to infringe upon the principle of 'home rule' by local communities by the judicial branch of government."

"If the people of any city feel their judges should be free to practice law, I don't see any reason why someone else should tell them they can't," said Sen. Gray, who added, "What's good for the City of Detroit or the City of Escanaba is not necessarily good for the City of Grosse Pointe Woods."

The Woods Council took a strong stand via a resolution against a proposed change in Canon 5 of the Michigan Code of Judicial Conduct which would provide, in part, that a municipal judge should not practice law for compensation. The measure was unanimously passed at the regular meeting Monday, May 13, and copies were sent to Sen. Gray among other legislators.

In The Woods' resolution, the council says they are "unilaterally opposed" to the proposal because "such a change would severely hamper and restrict the availability of competent attorneys to serve in the capacity of municipal judge within the communities of this State that have retained their municipal court system," (such as all Pointe municipalities).

If the change was adopted, "it would exclude the possibility of using a municipal judge such as we have," said Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos. A full-time judge would then be needed, possibly a district judge, and The Woods Council opposes the district court system.

Woods to Host Ball Tourney

Twenty-three teams from 12 area cities will begin play in the International Little League District playoffs Saturday, July 20, at Ghesquiere Park in The Woods.

The Woods American squad, consisting of 14 of the best players in its division, will be defending its District 6 title won last year.

This year's winner will go on to face the downriver District 5 champions and one of those teams will be one of four to compete in state-wide competition in early August.

Regional playoffs, to be hosted by The Woods, will follow before the final showdown comes in Williamsport, Pa., involving teams from Europe and Asia, as well as from the states.

Games are scheduled every day the week of July 20 in this single-elimination tournament, and the final game should be played Saturday, July 27, at 1 p.m.

Pointe teams scheduled to compete in the playoffs are the All-Star squads from both The City and The Farms and the two teams from both The Park and The Woods.

Players are selected to the squads by a vote of all the managers in their respective divisions.

Bus Control Ordinance

brakes, exhaust emissions, lights, tires, horn, windshield wipers, glass, fire equipment, seats, safety belts if any, heating system, air conditioning system if any, steering system and other mechanical equipment."

Any defects in equipment will be noted, with the Department of Public Safety advising the city clerk whether a defect or malfunctioning equipment is a safety hazard of such a nature which would require a refusal to issue a license, until the defect is corrected.

Any person, firm or corporation operating buses within the city on the ordinance's effective date will be permitted to do so for a 60-day period. On or after this period, it's unlawful to operate any bus without first having obtained a license from the city clerk.

Each license shall expire on December 31, 1974, and any renewal or new license issued after that date will expire on the following December 31 after the date of issuance.

Some Buses Exempt

This section will not apply to any bus which doesn't pick up or discharge passengers within the city, nor to any bus in service less than eight hours in any seven-day period upon city streets.

The ordinance says an applicant for a bus license must pay the city a $5 inspection fee for each license.

Any license to operate a bus may be revoked by the city clerk by reason of the failure of the holder to maintain the bus and its equipment in a safe condition.

The Department of Public Safety, under the proposal, has the authority to inspect all licensed buses "at reasonable times." If a bus fails to pass an inspection and constitutes "an immediate and serious safety hazard" in the department's opinion, the department will immediately notify the holder to remove the bus from service.

If an inspection shows a defect not constituting an immediate threat to the safety of persons, the department will notify the holder, with the holder having 10 days to correct or repair such a defect.

The proposal provides a fine not exceeding $500 and a jail sentence not exceeding 90 days for violation of its terms, and conviction thereof, in the court's discretion.

At this stage, the council can make any adjustments in the proposed measure it deems necessary.

Golf Title Won By Ed Fisher

Edwin Fisher edged Brad Bettin, of Hialeah, Fla., 1-up in 18 holes Saturday, July 13, on the University of Minnesota course to claim the title.

Jacobson's Party For Kids Attended by Over 1,000

By Barbara Bruno

Helium balloons, pony rides, ice cream, animal crackers, lemonade — how could children resist? They didn't Thursday, July 11, as about 1,000 youngsters took advantage of such free offerings in the D' Hondt Way courtyard in The Village.

A party for the children of the community was Jacobson's way of saying thank you to Pointe residents for putting up with the inconveniences caused by construction on the store's grounds the past year.

The children ranged from toddlers to junior high school age and the six ponies assembled to give rides were the main attraction for all. Attendants walked with the children as they rode to calm the nerves of both children and animals.

Many of the youngsters were dressed in costumes right out of the Old West with fringed chaps, cowboy hats, bandanas and holsters weighing them down. Miss J. Shop salesgirls helped the eager children onto ponies where they posed for pictures, taken by the salesgirls.

David Murray, display director, was exhausted after helping hundreds of would-be cowboys and cowgirls mount other ponies for rides around the courtyard.

"The kids were wild, really excited," he said. "They wanted to know the names of the ponies and what kind they were. Very few were afraid to get on."

When they weren't lining up for pony rides or pictures, the kids were waiting for helium balloons, (many of which were promptly lost to the sky), or eating ice cream and animal crackers.

Carolyn Barnhart, director of public relations for the store, and the originator of the Round-Up Party, said the turnout was much greater than expected.

"The response of the people was just great," she commented. "The children loved it and the parents got a big kick out of it too."

She added that the lines began about one-half hour before the scheduled opening time of 2 p.m. but never got longer than about 30 children.

Throughout the afternoon high school members of the Miss J Board circulated among the youngsters in storybook costumes ranging from clowns to wise owls to a Raggedy Ann. Although some kids wandered into the unfinished parking structure and many cries of lost balloons were heard, the event suffered no mishaps of a more serious nature.

Mrs. Barnhart explained that the involvement of the Miss J Board was typical of the community-service activities they perform throughout the year.

The girls all attend North or South High and work part-time for the store. They finance their activities through bake sales and car washes and plan projects that will be beneficial to the community.

Last year's fall Halloween project was a skit performed before a nursery school while at Christmas time they caroled for the elderly at a nursing home. They have also distributed gifts and good cheer at local hospitals.

Besides the Miss J girls, waitresses from the store's restaurant manned the refreshment stand under the direction of Mrs. Leona DeWeess.

Fire Damages Home in Park

The City Fire Department received a telephone alarm of a fire in The Park on Monday, July 15, and after relaying the information to Park firefighters, dispatched personnel and trucks to assist in putting out the blaze.

Park Assistant Fire Chief David Taylor said that during a mix-up of communication, The City received the alarm from the home of George Thomas, 1215 Harvard.

When firefighters arrived at the Thomas residence, the flames had had a good start, according to Chief Taylor, in a faulty basement incinerator flue. The fire was burning its way through the wall and had reached the ceiling of the first floor of the house when the firemen arrived at about 9:27 a.m. The flames were brought under control at 9:45 a.m., a matter of 18 minutes, Taylor said.

The fire damaged several joists in the basement ceiling, the inside of the house wall and part of the ceiling of the first floor before the flames were extinguished. There was considerable smoke damage throughout the residence.

Park Nationals in Semifinal

The Park Nationals, (the Pirates), have moved into the semifinals of the District Six Tournament of Little League champions which began Thursday, July 11, at Elworthy Field. The tourney, hosted by The City, is under the direction of Richard Harrison, vice-president, The City Little League.

After surviving opening competition, The Park squad defeated the Mount Clemens Nationals, 4-2, Sunday, July 14, to move into the semi's with the Clinton Valley Nationals, the Hamtramck Americans and the L'Anse Creuse Internationals.

Winning pitcher Dave Thill, along with Tim McCormick who slugged a homer, led The Park "Nats" to victory.

Eighteen league champions entered the tourney including The City Major League champion Cubs, who lost their first game to The Park Nationals, and the Park Americans, (the Indians), who dropped their opened to the Clinton Valley Nationals.

Semi-final play took place Monday, July 15, while the finals were scheduled for Tuesday, July 16, (both after press time).

National's weekend rate of only $8.50 a day, 14¢ a mile left Don Rickles speechless.

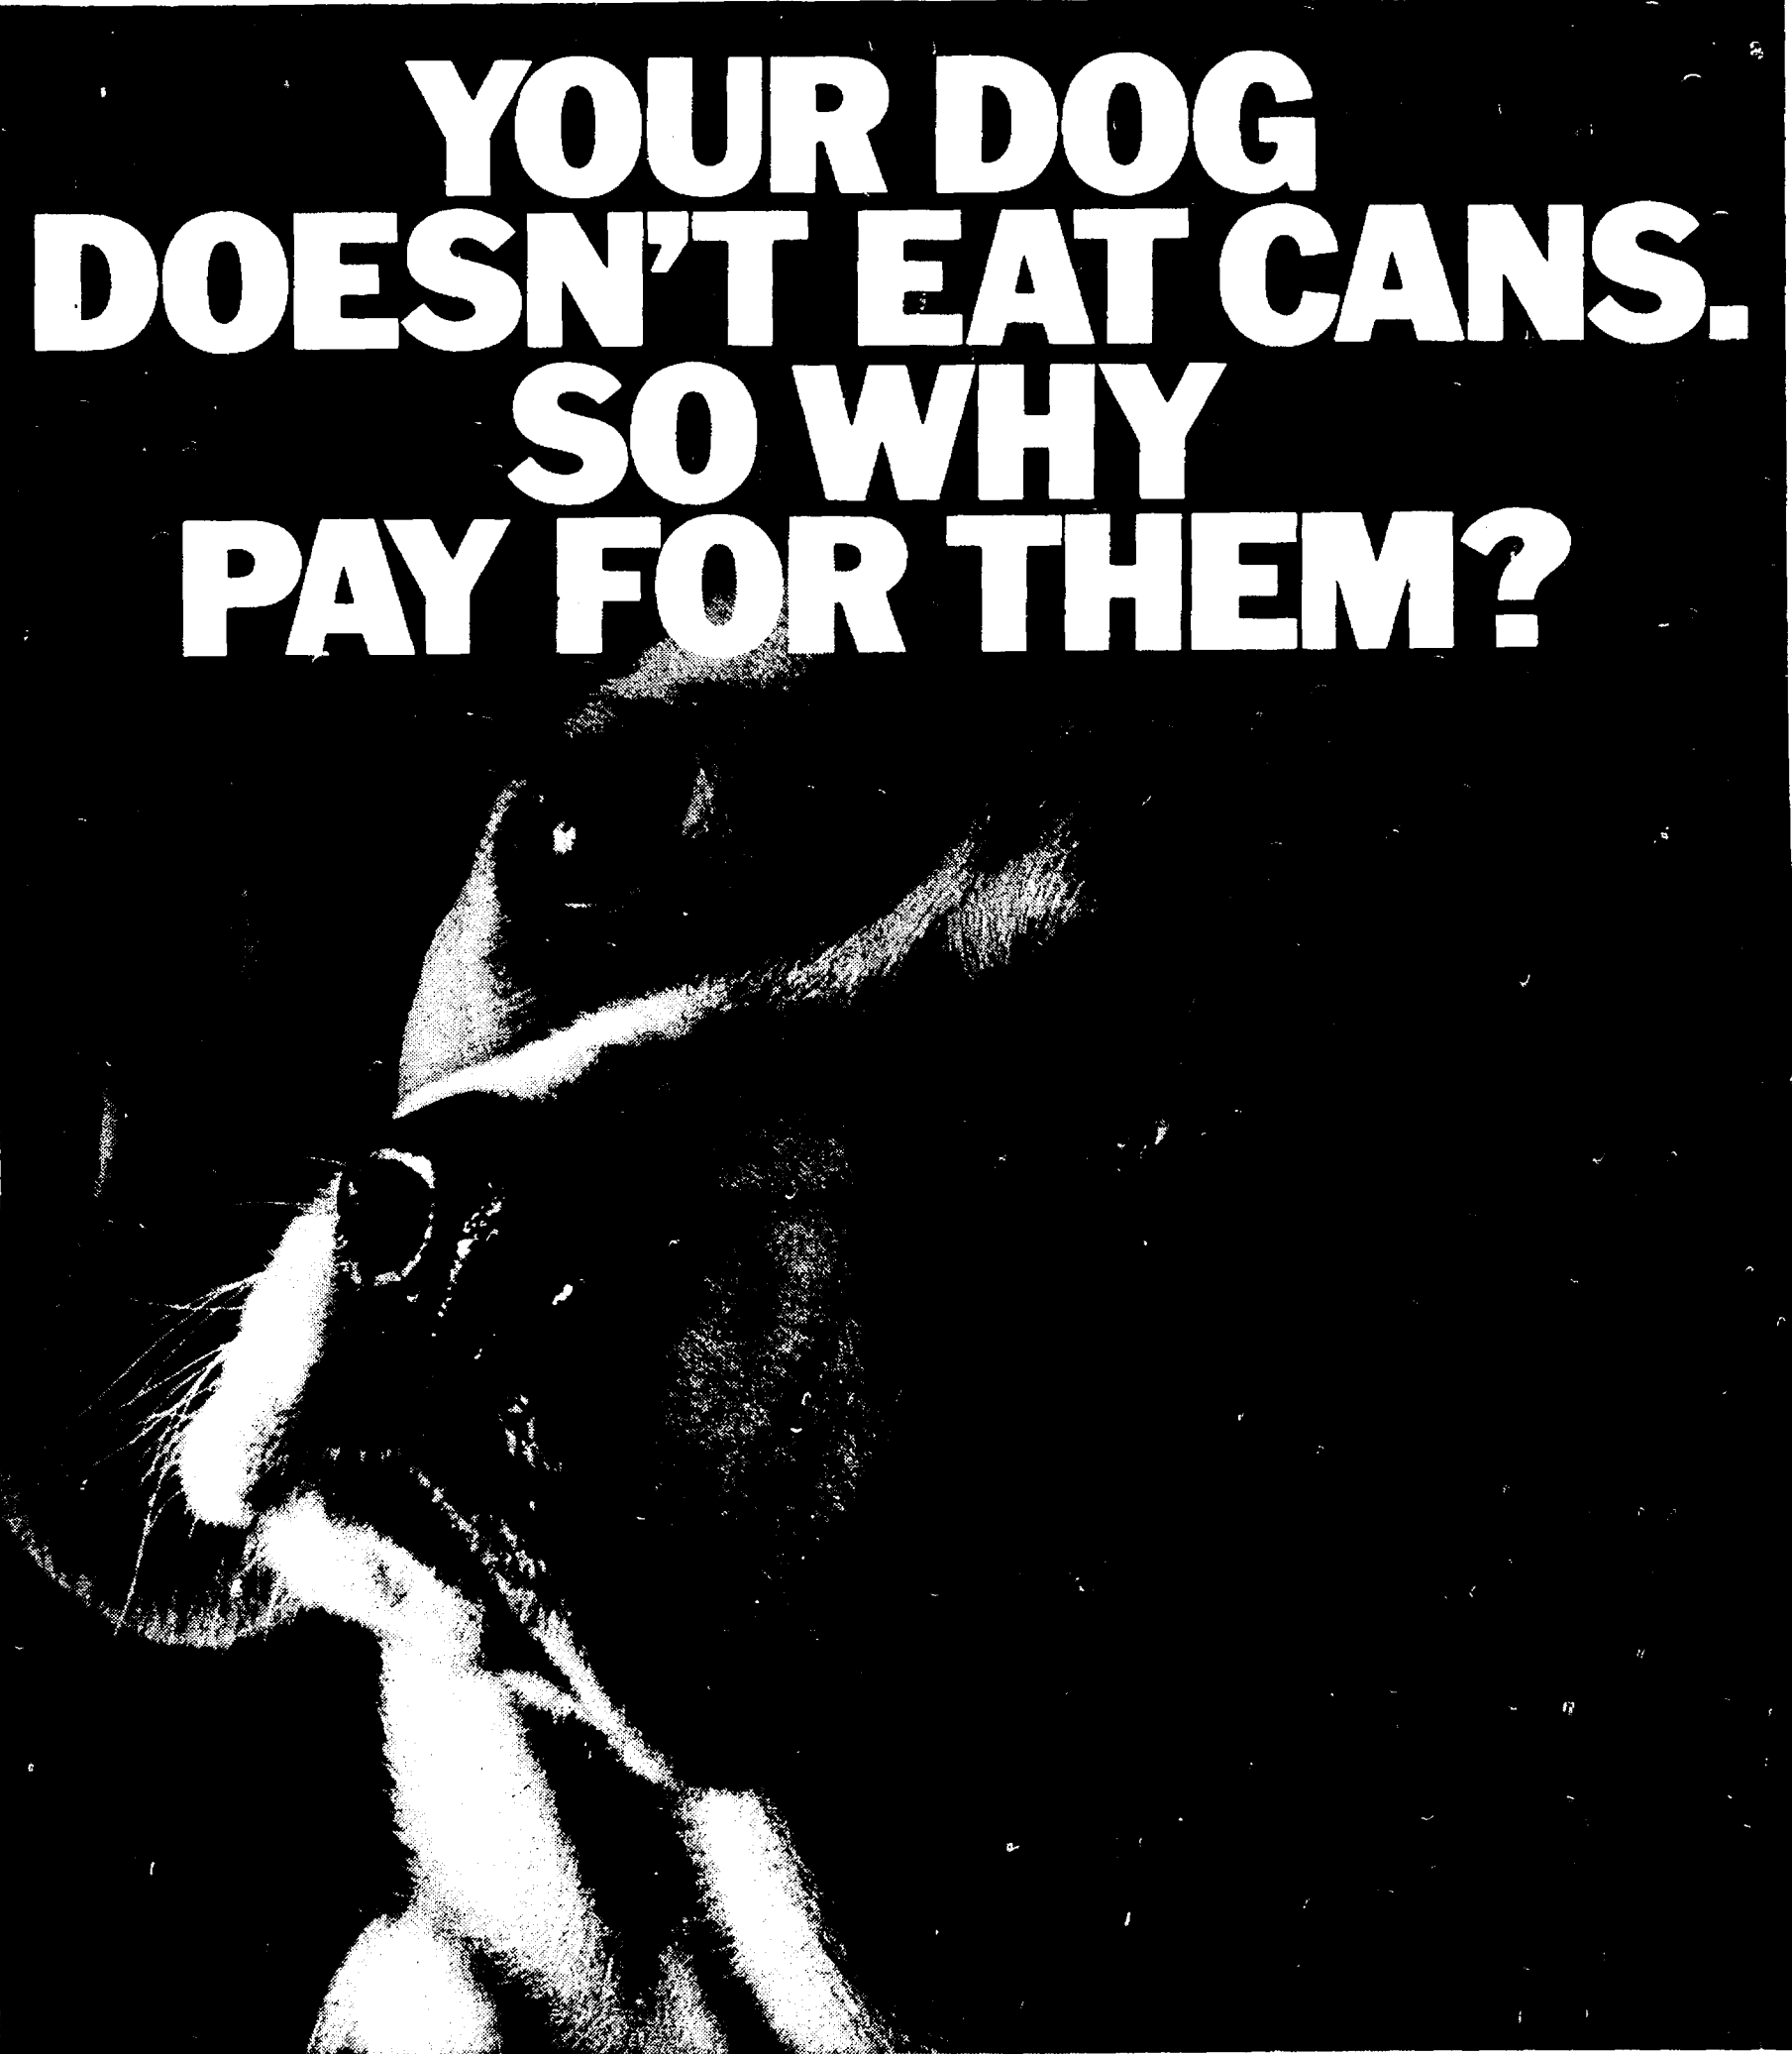

National Car Rental dared Don Rickles to try to criticize their weekend deal. But how could he criticize National's low rate of $8.50 a day and 14¢ a mile. (You pay for gas.) And that's for a car like a Chevy Monte Carlo. You can pick it up any time after Thursday 6PM. Return it by Monday 6PM to the renting city. All National asks is that you use the car a minimum of two days.

National's low weekend rate. It's so good all Don could say was, "These people are trying to go broke!"

Meal for meal, meaty Gaines-burgers give your dog as much great taste and solid food as the leading national canned dog food. And Gaines-burgers cost less, too.

Instead of spending extra to get canned food, spend less and get Gaines-burgers.

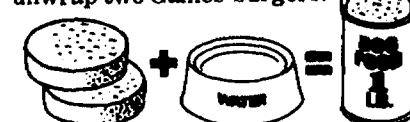

Gaines-burgers have as much complete balanced nourishment as canned food.

Equally important, Gaines-burgers taste as good as canned food. (Our tests show dogs like Gaines-burgers as much as or more than the leading canned food.)

What Gaines-burgers don't have is a can. Which is one of the reasons they're less expensive.

TWO BURGERS EQUAL ONE CAN.
Instead of opening a can, you unwrap two Gaines-burgers.

They're the same in solid food content as a 15 1/2-oz. can of dog food — without the water. (Canned food is up to 74% water.)

And one box of Gaines-burgers gives your dog six meaty meals — or as much as six cans. Yet 12 Gaines-burger patties cost less than six cans of the leading dog food. Compare prices for yourself in your own supermarket, and you'll see.

So when you buy Gaines-burgers, you buy your dog food by the week, instead of the can — and save.

WE'LL PAY YOU TO PROVE YOUR DOG WILL LIKE THEM.

You may have seen our TV commercials where we show that dogs who eat canned food love Gaines-burgers. Most dogs do.

But the only way to prove your dog will love them is to have your dog try them. Which is why we've provided the coupon below.

Take it to the supermarket tomorrow. It's good for 10¢ toward a box of Gaines-burgers.

Trial Board Reinstates Suspended Public Safety Officer

(Continued from Page 1) which reads, "All orders, written or verbal, of the Chief or the Commanding Officer, shall be obeyed with like effect," by disobeying a direct order issued by Sergeant Thomas "to stay and go to work" and failing to do so.

• The officer violated a section of Ordinance No. 45 which reads, "Each member of the Department shall be alert and observant; he must be familiar with the activities and conditions of the City; he shall, at all times, devote his efforts to the promotion of good order; he shall, respond promptly and willingly to orders and directions from his superior officers; he will report his observations and activities relative to duties; he will constantly work to promote cooperation and unity in the Department," by failing to respond promptly and willingly to orders and directions from his superior.

• The officer violated a section of Ordinance No. 45 which reads, "The employee has violated any lawful official regulation or order, or failed to obey any proper direction made and given by a superior officer," by failing to obey a proper direction made and given by a superior officer.

Innocent of Others
The Trial Board found Officer Desilets innocent of these charges:

• That he violated a section of Ordinance No. 45 which reads, "Each member of the Department shall devote himself to the service of the Department, and shall not engage in any activities detrimental to the performance of his duty. Although certain hours are allotted for the performance of duty, each member of the Department shall, at all times, be on duty and must be ready to act immediately upon notice that his services are required."

• That he violated a section of Ordinance No. 45 which reads, "All members shall be punctual in reporting for duty, and unauthorized absence from post will not be permitted," by his unauthorized absence from his post.

• That he violated a section of Ordinance No. 45 which reads, "All orders shall be faithfully and intelligently carried to conclusion, and special details given to certain Officers shall not relieve other members of the Department from aiding in the proper fulfillment of such detail," by failing to faithfully and intelligently carry out an order to its conclusion.

• That he violated a section of Ordinance No. 45 which reads, "It shall be the policy of the Department, whenever it is feasible, to equally share, difficult or disagreeable special assignments; but no member of the Department or group of members shall at any time or under any circumstances attempt to avoid such assignments," by avoiding an assignment.

• That he violated a section of Ordinance No. 45 which reads, "No member of the Department shall leave his post of duty, except on permission of his Commanding Officer," by leaving his post of duty without permission of his Commanding Officer.

• That he violated a section of Ordinance No. 45 which reads, "The employee has violated any of the provisions of these rules and regulations or of any rules and regulations which may be prescribed by the Chief," by disobeying a regulation prescribed by the Chief in General Order No. 113 which reads, "All personnel are required to have in their locker at the station a blue fatigue uniform and to maintain them in a clean and pressed condition for standby duty, training drills and any other fatigue detail purposes," by failing to have a blue fatigue uniform in his locker.

May Have Felt Misled
In its report, after citing the officer's guilt and innocence on the nine charges, the Trial Board "finds that, because of the procedures used in this instance by the Public Safety Department Command Officers in securing personnel for overtime employment, Public Safety Officer William Desilets may have felt misled as to any duty assignment to be given to him upon his reporting for work on the evening in question."

"It is for this reason that this Trial Board does hereby order that Public Safety Officer William Desilets shall be reinstated immediately as a Public Safety Officer."

Mayor Pinkos explained, "The problem is this. The Trial Board felt the procedures used in posting overtime apparently indicated that a certain position, i.e., a clerk-dispatcher, would be assigned." Officer Desilets felt this was to be his assignment on June 16.

"He should have known there's no specific assignment and the command officer has the authority to assign a public safety officer where he sees fit," the mayor said. In this instance, the Board felt Officer Desilets was misled on that basis.

Lack of Communication

Mayor Pinkos stated the Board felt both Officer Desilets and Sergeant Thomas both knew departmental rules and regulations but in this case there was a possible breakdown of communication and that something was permitted to happen which shouldn't have happened.

"There's no question of insubordination, but of how it was handled," he said.

On June 16, Officer Desilets came to the station feeling he was going to work as a clerk-dispatcher. (The officer, who started his vacation on that day, had previously signed up for three nights of overtime, June 16, 18, and 19, during the midnight shift.)

The officer was told he was to work the south end, (on the road), by Sergeant Thomas but said he was to work clerk-dispatcher that evening. Officer Desilets felt when he signed up for overtime it was with the understanding his work was only as a clerk-dispatcher.

The officer said he didn't feel physically fit to operate emergency vehicles or go on the street but felt capable of working the desk. Sergeant Thomas testified that he needed Officer Desilets to meet minimum shift strength and that it was his prerogative to assign people where needed as platoon commander.

Wanted Sick Leave

The officer ultimately requested sick leave. Sergeant Thomas testified he didn't think the officer was sick and said he should stay as a standby.

Officer Desilets subsequently left the building and went home. During testimony, Mr. Bove stressed that it wasn't up to the sergeant to make a judgment on whether the officer was ill or not. Mr. Bove stressed the officer has contractual rights under the public safety officers contract with the city and that certain procedures should have been followed, e.g., contacting the director who will make an investigation with a subsequent examination by a physician.

Ordinance No. 45 says the "illness or disability of any member of the Department shall immediately be reported to the Chief of the Department who shall be authorized to investigate the seriousness of such illness," and that the "Chief of the Department may have an examination made by a physician to ascertain the physical condition of any member of the Department who may absent himself from duty." Sergeant Thomas testified he didn't notify the Chief.

To Terminate Grievance
Detective Fagan said a grievance "that we filed in his (Officer Desilets), behalf that he was suspended unjustly will be terminated."

This grievance was filed Monday, July 1, with Lieutenant Allan Selby, acting department director, as Director Marchand was on vacation at that time.

In his letter to the lieutenant, Detective Fagan cited four points: that the officer wasn't found guilty of any wrongdoing; that he wasn't apprised of the charges when he was suspended; that he feels aggrieved at the treatment and orders he received on June 16, and that he wasn't allowed to take sick leave when he requested it.

Last week, Lieutenant Selby wrote Detective Fagan that he reviewed all sections of Ordinance No. 45 and felt the action taken regarding the suspension of Officer Desilets, (at that time), was within the scope and meaning of the ordinance.

In reply to the lieutenant's communication, Detective Fagan filed a grievance with City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

All this transpired before the Trial Board's decision. Now, with their verdict, the detective said this particular grievance will be terminated.

Finally, last week's NEWS reported that this was the first Trial Board which convened in the history of The Woods. This was in error. Mr. Petersen reported this was the third Board which has been convened in the last 12 years. The other two were convened in the 1960's.

'Art to Schools' Enlists Support

Training in art history and art education in exchange for weekly lectures to be given fourth, fifth and sixth graders in area schools—that's the offer being made by the Detroit Institute of Art's "Art to the Schools" program.

By registering in the $24-per-quarter art history course offered by the museum beginning in September, interested parties will have taken the first step to entering the volunteer program. But Nita Schwartz, a museum employee, suggests you first try the special orientation program, beginning August 5.

Once through the orientation, novice art enthusiasts will be expected to complete about one year's equivalent of art courses, coupled with individual training on lecture techniques by Miss Schwartz. More experienced art entrepreneurs may be able to enter the field sooner and begin giving their informal talks on such subjects as African, Ancient, American and Contemporary art to the students.

Anyone completing the program would join the approximately 50 volunteers already involved, who once-weekly visit Detroit and suburban schools.

Volunteers have maintained the program for the last eight years, according to Miss Schwartz, but the program itself is 15 years old.

Qualified persons have given art talks not only to schools, but to hospital patients, library gatherings and scout troops. But the concentration now is on the schools, Miss Schwartz said.

For further information on either endeavor, contact Nita Schwartz at the Institute, 831-0360, Ext. 49.

Owner of Parking Lot Agrees to Clean It Up

By Barbara Bruno

Moross road residents, who have lodged numerous poor-maintenance complaints with The Farms city council against the owner of the parking lot behind the Mack Avenue-Moross road shopping area, are apparently going to receive cooperation from the owner.

J. M. Kogan, owner of the property, responded to a letter sent by the council with an offer to meet with city officials to work out a plan to keep the grounds in repair. The city's letter threatened to take over the maintenance duties under the nuisance ordinance and assess all costs to Mr. Kogan.

The council approved sending the letter at its meeting Monday, July 1, and gave Mr. Kogan 15 days to reply before they took further action.

At the regular council meeting Monday, July 15, City Manager Andrew Bremer said he had been contacted that day by an associate of Mr. Kogan who said he had just received the letter since he had been out of town during the past two weeks.

Mr. Bremer told the council that Mr. Kogan had offered to meet with city officials to try to work out a maintenance plan for the lot that would be agreeable to the city, the council and area residents.

The councilmen jumped at the offer and said they would seek a formal written agreement between the city and Mr. Kogan. The action they would like to see taken includes regular sweeping of the premises, weed removal, trash pick-up, stone removal and lighting adjustments.

Some Moross road residents say they are bothered by lights in the lot which shine directly into their homes. Councilman Jack Cudlip said he inspected these homes with a lighting expert who said that redirecting the lights may solve the problem.

He noted the philosophical differences between the police, who want the lights as a protective device, and residents who want privacy. Mr. Bremer added that this is a problem that will always be faced when a residential area is adjacent to a commercial area.

Two Moross road residents present at the meeting said they would like the adjustments made to see if that would provide relief.

One woman asked that a restriction be placed on the times that sweeping of the lot could take place.

"If he will be cleaning up the lot I wonder what time it will be done," she said. "It has been done at 3 or 4 in the morning."

The Councilmen said they would ask that sweeping not be done between the hours of midnight and 6 a.m. They said snow removal would possibly be necessary between those hours since it often requires several hours to clear such a large area.

Mayor William Butler asked the city manager and city attorney to arrange for an immediate meeting with Mr. Kogan to determine what will be done at the lot. He stressed that the written agreement should include the restrictions on sweeping times, the adjustment of several lights and designate who will be responsible for what maintenance duties and costs.

Mr. Bremer said the meeting would be arranged as soon as possible.

Memories of Grosse Pointe and the Shores.

Grosse Pointe High School South

Lake St. Clair from the Shores

Rose Terrace

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center

The Shores Series.

We've opened a new office at Mack-Brys in Grosse Pointe Woods. And we commemorated the occasion by offering watercolors* rendered by Davis Gray, of historic Grosse Pointe scenes.

Manufacturers Bank commissioned the series that includes in addition to the painting of the Shores, boating along Lake St. Clair, the War Memorial, Grosse Pointe High School South and Rose Terrace. Each of the series is an original hand-colored print, matted and ready for framing. Each one is beautiful in itself but is especially effective when displayed in a grouping.

You have the opportunity of purchasing paintings from the series for $4.95 when you deposit $50.00 in your savings or checking account. Handsome oak frames and customized colored mats are also available at a moderate cost without additional deposit requirements.

But all good things must come to an end. Free paintings will not be available after July 19, 1974.

The entire collection can be yours to decorate your walls or as a marvelous gift to someone special, if you act between now and August 8, 1974.

*A limited edition will be made of each painting and each is hand-colored so the value of the painting is protected. But you should act quickly. The series of paintings is also available at the Mack Lochmoor Office.

Why are we opening another Real Estate firm in Grosse Pointe? There are already more than fifty firms with perhaps as many as two hundred salespeople in the community.

Frankly a small percentage of these firms and salespeople sell a majority of the homes. We have been among these select few for years. For all practical purposes, it is an already successful group moving within a successful group.

In this ever-changing, competitive business we know there is a need for a Real Estate firm staffed with the most ethical, knowledgeable, alert, full-time professionals.

We pledge ourselves to honesty, integrity, and professional Real Estate consultation and sales.

May we have the opportunity of assisting you in your Real Estate requirements.

Woods Takes Park Passes

On two separate occasions last week, Woods public safety officers received calls to the city's Lake Front Park on reports of youths drinking alcoholic beverages on the premises. Such consumption is prohibited by park regulations and as a result, their passes were confiscated.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said, "No intoxicants are allowed in the park." He stated their park passes were confiscated for the season, (with the youths losing their rights and privileges to the park), unless the council directs otherwise.

The city administrator added if further such incidents occur in the future, park passes also will be confiscated.

Sergeant Bernard Kelly and Youth Service Division Detective Michael Ferrence responded to Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallmann's call on Tuesday afternoon, July 9. Mr. Hallmann reported that some 20-25 boys and girls were drinking beer and wine in the vicinity of the pool.

After the officers' arrival, Mr. Hallmann indicated the problem was no longer apparent as the boys' had put their beer cooler in a car and were swimming.

A short time later, two youths, one from The Woods and the other from Harper Woods, came to the office and were advised of the problem. Officers requested to see the cooler and the 17-year-old Woods youth complied. The cooler contained water and ice, three empty beer bottles, an empty wine bottle and several full beer cans, police said.

The findings were explained to Mr. Hallmann who said the procedure was to give confiscated park passes to the city administrator. The only pass taken in this incident belonged to the 17-year-old.

Then, on Thursday, July 11, Corporal Robert Setchell and Youth Service Division Detective Patrick Fagan responded to a complaint of a large group of youths drinking beer illegally in the park.

Nine park passes were confiscated during this incident, police added.

City Firemen Battle Blaze

City firemen fought a blaze that caused a fair amount of damage to the outside roof, window and eavestrough of a third floor room at the Fisher road residence of the Jack Goorskeys, on Saturday, July 13.

The Department received word of the fire by phone at 10:32 p.m. and responded with all apparatus to find the outside of the third floor dormer room engulfed in flames.

After putting up a 24-foot extension ladder, firemen had to knock out the inside wall and the entire roof below the bedroom window in order to extinguish the blaze.

Under the Mutual Aid Pact, the Farms Fire Department responded with both trucks and assisted in bringing the blaze under control.

According to The City Fire Department, Mr. and Mrs. Goorskey were away in Chicago and two youngsters were left in the care of their 16-year-old sister when the fire broke out. Its cause is unknown.

$1,625 Damage Done Windows

Vandals struck nine windows at the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company store, 19391 Mack avenue, and caused an estimated total of $1,625 damage, Woods police reported.

The store's assistant manager told Officer Richard Prietz on Friday, July 12, the windows had been shot out by a pellet pistol sometime during the previous two weeks.

Five windows across the back were shattered causing around $25 in damages, while four large plate glass windows across the front were struck, causing about $1,600 in damages.

Woods Officer Praises Youth

A nine-year-old Woods boy was commended by a Woods public safety officer when he turned over around 50 firecrackers Friday, July 12.

While patrolling on Morningside drive, Officer Charles Philip Hamel was stopped by the lad who said some kids were hiding in his garage because the police were chasing them for lighting firecrackers along the Milk River.

Before leaving the garage, the group gave the boy the rest of their firecrackers.

When asked if he would turn the articles over to the officer, the boy said he would, and promptly took the policeman to his home.

Officer Hamel praised the youngster for his actions and disposed of the explosives at the station.

Given 3-Year Accreditation

League-Goodwill (League For The Handicapped-Goodwill Industries) has won a three-year accreditation from CARF (Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities) for its programs of Vocational Adjustment and Sheltered Employment.

The accreditation was announced by Alan H. Toppel, executive director of the Chicago-based commission.

League - Goodwill was awarded the accreditation after an extensive on-site survey of the agency's facilities, programs and services to handicapped men and women. CARF is the nationally recognized commission for accreditation of vocational rehabilitation agencies.

By earning accreditation, League - Goodwill will be eligible for HEW and State Vocational Rehabilitation Services' funds when new regulations go into effect starting with the fiscal year 1975-76.

In a congratulatory letter to Russell G. Albrecht, president of League-Goodwill, Governor William G. Milliken lauded the work of the agency for its high standards of performance in providing services to handicapped men and women in the metropolitan Detroit area.

League - Goodwill serves more than 5,000 persons annually with vocational, social service or employment programs.

League - Goodwill came into being in 1970, with the merger of the League For The Handicapped and Goodwill Industries. Both of the agencies had been founded in 1921. By combining programs they have become the largest private vocational rehabilitation agency in the United States.

On any given day there are up to 350 clients in evaluation or training programs, and up to 700 in Sheltered Shop employment. A staff of 225 persons administers the programs.

League - Goodwill is a Torch Drive agency.

Jaycees Slate Membership Night

The Grosse Pointe Jaycees are 70 strong but would like to increase their numbers to 100, so on Thursday, July 25, the organization will hold its first "M" Night of the year at the American Legion Hall, 20916 Mack avenue, beginning at 8 p.m.

"We want as many interested people as possible to attend," said George A. Williamson of the Jaycees, an organization for men between the ages of 18-32.

"The Jaycees offer an opportunity for an individual to get involved in community activities and to learn how to organize and develop his own talents and leadership qualities," he stated.

The myriad activities include The Miss Grosse Pointe Scholarship Pageant, which the organization sponsors, "Jelly Week" which raises money for the Grosse Pointe Foundation for Exceptional Children, the Santa Claus picture project in conjunction with Jacobson's during the Christmas season and bingo evenings, among others.

At the same time, the Jaycees Auxiliary, (wives of members), also are involved in various projects.

Currently, organization dues are $22 annually. This money is utilized by the Jaycees who, in turn, put it back into the community.

Tom Ritter, president of the Michigan Jaycees, will be a featured speaker during "M" Night. At the meeting, which will be attended by Kathleen Ann Lewis, Miss Grosse Pointe for 1974-75, the Jaycees will present a $2,000 check to the Foundation for Exceptional Children from monies earned via the jelly sale. Savings bonds also will be given to participants in this year's pageant.

Mayor Urges Aid to Africa

City Mayor John L. King, reacting to the unprecedented drought causing famine in the Sahel region of Africa, is urging all Pointe residents to support a state-wide effort to help these people through CARE-sponsored programs.

In a proclamation designating Monday, July 15 through Sunday, July 21 as Africa-CARE Week, the mayor notes that: "At least 100,000 people have died, and many more thousand will die unless massive aid is provided. It will be years before these nomadic people can be resettled on the land and given the necessary skills to prevent a recurrence of this disaster.

"CARE, working with host governments sharing costs, and local people providing the labor, is reclaiming drought-damaged land, conducting agricultural development programs, providing hand tools, vegetable seeds and fertilizer.

"How can we who enjoy the greatest security and relative comfort of any people on earth, turn our backs on the people of Africa?" the mayor asks.

A goal of $50,000 has been set for the state. Mayor King urges everyone to work through clubs, churches, committees and start organizing programs now so that "what we do in Grosse Pointe will set an example for the state, and so Michigan will serve as inspiration for the country."

Additional information about the needs in Africa and the aid programs are available from Susan Whittemore, Michigan Director for CARE, 2406 Guardian Building, Detroit 48226, 963-4610.

Farms Detective Sgt. George Van Tiem said the boat was recovered in a boat well at the Emerald City Marina in St. Clair Shores. He said officials there saw the Grosse Pointe Farms registration sticker and called the pier to check on the craft, which was found to have been stolen.

Some damage was discovered but the extent is not known at this time. Police are continuing their investigation to determine who stole the boat.

City Girl Has Lifetime Thrill

A 15-year-old City girl had the thrill of a lifetime while vacationing in Pompano Beach, Fla., on Sunday, June 30.

Mary Elizabeth Fraser, of Notre Dame road, was only one of 30 anglers who brought in a sailfish that day — a 6½ foot long, 30 pound beauty at that. She hooked the fish from the drift boat Helen VI.

Mary Elizabeth, who attends the St. Joseph's Institute for the Deaf in St. Louis, Mo., will really have a splendid tale to relate to her friends.

As for the "catch" — you guessed it, the sailfish is the recipient of some stuffing.

World Golf Hall of Fame Is Set for Sept. Opening

Back in the 1935 Masters Tournament, Gene Sarazen wrote his name in the sports history books when he cracked a four wood shot straight at the flag on Augusta's 15th hole and watched the shot drop for a double-eagle. The shot sent the tournament into a playoff which Sarazen won.

During the 1950s and early 1960s, the United States saw the game of golf blossom into an epidemic among leisure-time fanatics. Arnold Palmer was instrumental in the "dissemination" but it was none other than the President of the United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower, who captured the imagination of the people with his need to relax and think while playing golf.

Like had a favorite pair of shoes and a five star putter but one of his most cherished pieces of golfing equipment was a specially outfitted golf cart, complete with headlights.

These and many other pieces of memorabilia have played an important role in America's history, especially its golfing history. "Wouldn't it be nice," you say, "if all this memorabilia were rounded up and put somewhere so everybody could see it?" No more need be said. The wish is now a reality at the $2.5 million World Golf Hall of Fame in Pinehurst, N.C. where it will open in September during North Carolina's "Grand Week of Golf" and the $300,000 World Open Golf Championship, the professional tour's richest event.

The culmination of a vision of William H. Maurer, President of Diamondhead Corp., the Golf Hall of Fame traces the history of one of the world's most ardent pastimes. Included in the exhibits at the World Golf Hall of Fame will be such unique items as an unstruck feather ball made by Allan Robertson in 1835, a "rut" iron used in the 1700s, a wicker arrow basket used in lieu of a golf bag in the late 1800s, and a club-maker's bench used in Pinehurst in the early 1900s.

The most recent addition to the Hall is the club collection of Laurence Auchterlonie, the Honorary Professional to the Royal and Ancient Golf Club at St. Andrews, Scotland, the home of golf. Included in this group of artifacts are six clubs made by six generations of the famous McEwan family and six clubs made by the only six club-makers in the world in 1850 — Jackson Dunn, Davidson, Philip, Patrick and McEwan.

Perhaps the oldest pieces of memorabilia in the Hall of Fame will be a play club and putter made by H. Milne in 1690.

The unusual and unique will also be featured. For example, on display will be a club with a hole in the head a little smaller than the size of a golf ball for cutting down on resistance in water hazards. And then there's the rake-head club for getting out of sandtraps. These clubs are obviously illegal today, but that will not diminish their magnetism as curiosity items.

Twelve of the greatest players of the game of golf also will be inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in September and their identities will become known after votes are cast by members of the Golf Writers Association of America.

More information regarding the World Golf Hall of Fame may be obtained by writing the World Golf Hall of Fame, Pinehurst, N.C. 28374.

Frances Shook Double Winner

Frances Shook, 11, of the Grosse Pointe Swim Club, competed in the Air Force Invitational at Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, O., the weekend of July 13-14.

This was the 14th year the long course meet has been held and over 1,100 swimmers from all over the United States participated.

Frances accounted well for herself as she won the girls 11 and 12, 100-meter breast with a time of 1:25.1. Later the 11-year-old came back to break her own Michigan age group 200-meter breaststroke record with a time of 3:05.421.

She then placed in the 100-meter backstroke with a time of 1:21.3. Many of the GPSC swimmers are looking forward to the Water Wonderland Long Course Meet at Trenton this weekend and the Michigan Long Course AAU Championships at Southfield Friday-Sunday, July 26-28.

Although the pony looks disinterested the children had a great time at a Round-Up Party for children held Thursday, July 11, in D'Hondt Way in The Village. CARL PRESTON, 3, of Devonshire road, is astride the horse while JEFF KREBS, 4, of North Brys drive, awaits his turn decked out in fine western gear. The children were just two of the over 1,000 youngsters who attended the event, sponsored by Jacobson's. Assisting the children are, (left to right), clown LINDA BRUCIA and cowgirl MICHELE DODMAN. The party was held as a thank-you to community residents for putting up with construction inconveniences at the store for the past year.

A Pleasing Development

One cannot help but be pleased at the developing picture of senior citizens' programs and activities in The Woods.

Too often, the over 65 set doesn't receive the attention it rightly deserves from local governments and the population in general. Often slighted through a curious lack of consideration and interest in their welfare, senior citizens, many of whom are widows or widowers, frequently find themselves isolated from the mainstream of society with its ensuing preoccupations and priorities. One priority should consistently be to concentrate upon problems which specifically face senior citizens.

For example, while loneliness and a lack of companionship know no age boundaries, they seem to be particularly acute among seniors. And what about the potential waste of experience and talent which seniors can offer?

While many local churches have senior citizen-oriented activities, and there are groups such as the Senior Men's and Women's Clubs, (and this is splendid), it's gratifying to see a local government make a constructive move to recognize seniors and to start a unified program focusing upon their needs.

This spring, Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos created a Senior Citizens' Commission for the purpose of providing input to the council regarding the desires of seniors in many areas, e.g., housing and recreation. So far, the mayor has appointed seven residents to the Commission, which elected its own chairman, Irene Sutton.

Mrs. Sutton was involved in senior citizens' activities for 17 years in St. Clair Shores where she helped organize, plus direct, the "Senior Cruisers." With a keen awareness and concern for her fellow citizens, Mrs. Sutton wants to make the Commission a viable organization. With the city's support, the Commission held a general, get-acquainted meeting for Woods seniors Thursday, June 27, where an estimated 150-200 people crowded into North High School's cafeteria. The Commission scheduled a picnic Tuesday, July 16, at the Lake Front Park and is planning another one in August. Mrs. Sutton also is preparing a calendar of events listing senior citizen activities.

Besides creating the Commission, Mayor Pinkos, (along with City Administrator Chester E. Petersen and Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallmann), has been instrumental in establishing a new service for seniors: providing a bus, compliments of the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club, for taking residents to and from Lake Front Park Monday through Friday. This program, which began Monday, July 15, is scheduled to continue through mid-October.

Mayor Pinkos and the council, along with Mr. Petersen and Mr. Hallmann, deserve credit for giving Woods senior citizens their direct attention, and initiating a positive program. Mrs. Sutton and the Commission deserve praise for enthusiastically making certain seniors have the opportunity to gather and meet new people, to participate in a variety of activities and to consider and discuss areas which directly affect them.

There's no reason why activity on the senior citizens front shouldn't continue in the future. A foundation has been laid. With the intelligence, thoughtfulness and farsightedness of both local government and citizens together such a program should continually develop and bear fruit, not only for the seniors themselves, but for the community at large.

R.A.W.

A 'Deafening' Problem

The problem of not being able to hear clearly was apparent at The Park Council's regular meeting of Monday, July 8. The chambers were packed with an estimated 100 residents, (many of whom stood along the walls), to hear three different requests for variances of the zoning ordinance. One appeared of principal interest, as the majority of citizens left after the hearing was concluded. This was a request to conduct a foster home at a local residence. During the discussion, many citizens yelled at one point that they couldn't hear.

There were several reasons why the residents and this reporter had trouble hearing, all of which could be eliminated by the installation of microphones before the council, the city manager and the city attorney, with at least one microphone being "free" so a citizen, while addressing the council, can be heard throughout the chambers.

First, the crowd size was a major factor in the muffling of sound. Granted, every council meeting in The Park will not have standing room only crowds but the fact remains, even with an audience of five or six, that any failure to hear what is being said by everyone is a loss.

Secondly, due to the very hot weather, several windows were open. As a result, the profusion of outside noises, e.g., grumbling buses, honking horns, et al, sometimes covered what people were saying. Roaring fans inside weren't much help, either.

Thirdly, some people who addressed the council went up front so the solons could hear. However, much of what they said couldn't be heard by the audience because their backs were turned from interested citizens.

Finally, the problem of some council members and residents not consistently speaking up so they could be heard by all didn't help the situation.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I feel this letter is very pertinent to the coming special election on August 6 regarding a new lake front pool for Grosse Pointe Woods.

I am technically a resident of Harper Woods, but live in the Grosse Pointe School District. We support your schools and libraries as well as ours and are free to use every facility connected with the schools. I, personally, am a substitute teacher in the Grosse Pointe system and have gotten to know many fine people and have made many friends in Grosse Pointe.

What's bothering me? The fact that those of us in this area are not allowed to purchase a park pass. I use your park freely. There are always "ways" of getting in, you know. However, I would much rather purchase a pass and help support the park.

I propose that those of us who are interested be allowed to purchase a park pass, (complete family privileges granted), for an annual fee of $25 per year. Think of the extra money to pay for a new pool!

This may sound strange—the fact that I want to pay instead of going in free whenever I please, but I feel this is an important enough cause to support—and enjoy!

If there are comments, I would love to hear from someone who can help me.

A Harper Woods citizen

EDITOR'S NOTE: The NEWS contacted Woods City

Administrator Chester E. Petersen regarding this inquiry. "A city ordinance specifically prohibits non-residents from having park permits," he said. "Deed restrictions upon which the park property was purchased says it shall be utilized for Grosse Pointe Woods residents only." He added if the restrictions were violated, the Park property would revert back to its previous owner, Mrs. Edsel Ford.

Many people ridicule some of our statesmen for playing golf, but why criticize any man who is more interested in his slice than his cut.

Seek Support of Bond Issue

The Woods Committee for Recreational Facilities is still campaigning hard to get a "yes" vote for The Woods' bond issue Tuesday, August 6.

The present pool facility at the Lake Front Park is being kept open on a week-to-week basis. The city has been given a permit for the summer season and must make weekly operation reports to the Department of Public Health.

Paul D. Hodges, chief of the public swimming pool section, Department of Health, told the city that "very careful operation and maintenance of the swimming pool will be needed because of the condition of the pool."

The committee has laid plans for a house-to-house canvass and will distribute an informational flyer to all residents of The Woods.

It also is soliciting funds to offset some expenses. Contributions should be sent to Donald Brown, 1383 Hawthorne road, Grosse Pointe Woods 48236. Checks should be made payable to "Grosse Pointe Woods Committee for Recreational Facilities."

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford
Chief of Central Library

A few weeks ago there was a news story about Pitcairn Island and its present-day inhabitants, the descendants of the famous Bounty mutineers. The article brought to mind one of the classics of American fiction, THE BOUNTY TRILLOGY, (Little, Brown) by Charles B. McDuff and James N. Hall. First published in the early 1930's, the trilogy is comprised of three separate novels: MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY, MEN AGAINST THE SEA, and PITCAIRN'S ISLAND.

MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY is a retelling of the mutiny on board the English vessel, Bounty, on its return voyage from the South Seas in 1789. The account of the causes of the mutiny and of the subsequent events, including the trial of certain of the mutineers in England, is told by one Roger Byam who had shipped as a midshipman and, though not one of the mutineers, was involved in their fate.

MEN AGAINST THE SEA tells the story of Captain Bligh and the 18 loyal men who, under his leadership, sailed in an open boat 3,600 miles from the Friendly Islands in the South Pacific to the Dutch colony of Timor in the East Indies. The story is told by Mr. Ledward, the surgeon, but the events, the wind and the weather of the narrative are those recorded in Captain Bligh's log.

PITCAIRN'S ISLAND is the last volume of the trilogy. In 1789 Fletcher Christian, the leader of the mutineers, set sail from Tahiti accompanied by eight of his followers, six Polynesian men and twelve Polynesian women. In 1808 an American sealing vessel, the Topaz, touched at an uncharted, lonely island, a thousand miles southeast of Tahiti, and there found a small community consisting of one patriarchal white man, ten native women, and a score of children. The lone survivor of the Bounty mutineers told the officers of the Topaz the story of the years since Christian and his band had landed there, a story of bloodshed and lust, and good men's purposes conquered by greed.

These three novels are reading at its best. The authors have made this trilogy not merely a tale of the sea; they have made it a tale of life itself, of the varying aspects of good and evil in humanity.

During the past year three new books have been published (one a novel, the other two non-fiction) retelling the story of Captain William Bligh, Fletcher Christian, and Pitcairn Island.

In CAPTAIN BLIGH & MR. CHRISTIAN (Dutton), author Richard Hough proposes the possibility of a very different reason for the mutiny. The famed Bounty was a tiny vessel of only ninety-one feet in length. There was no contingent of marines on board to maintain order among a rebellious crew, weary after long months at sea. These were the more superficial and more obvious reasons for the mutiny. Hough, who is a skilled teller of the sea story, advances the theory that the deeper cause for the mutiny was the termination of the homosexual relationship between Fletcher Christian and Bligh. When the mutiny occurred after a long stay at Tahiti, Christian seems to have rejected Captain Bligh, being unable to resume the old relationship after the vivid heterosexual experience with a Tahitian woman, Isabelle. It is difficult to condense this fascinating and convincing explanation of what really caused the mutiny. The sophisticated reader will want to make his own judgment.

Stanley Miller in MR. CHRISTIAN! (John Day) uses the device of a report written by Fletcher Christian, "one-time" Lieutenant of His Majesty's Armed Vessel Bounty," to account for the historical and personal omissions surrounding the famous mutiny. The author's research was long and arduous, and the writing style and detailed descriptions of seafarings in the 18th century substantiate that claim. However, by necessity, a fair amount of license is taken with interpretations of facts. Christian is presented virtually without blemish, and at times is a bit too Billy Budd for belief. Captain Bligh, on the otherhand, is the traditional villain. The mutiny, being the high point of the narrative and coming in the middle of the book, also serves to overshadow the drama of Fletcher Christian's personal plight.

Jan M. Ball brings the story of the mutiny and its aftermath into the twentieth century with his PITCAIRN: CHILDREN OF MUTINY (Little, Brown). This is a study of the Bounty mutineers' eighty-five descendants who currently live on isolated Pitcairn Island. The author spent a month on the island with Warren and Millie Christian, descendants of Fletcher Christian. Ball first reviews the Bounty story, the mutiny, and the founding of the colony. On the basis of research in extant documents and books, he re-examines the careers of Christian and Bligh. The second, and decidedly superior portion of the book, is concerned with the community today and with speculations about the future of these Anglo-Tahitian "children of mutiny." All in all this is a fascinating study by a keen observer and able reporter.

SEMTA Views 'Bending Bus'

MAN, Germany's largest manufacturer of public transit vehicles, has provided a standard articulated, or hinged, bus for demonstration and testing on regular routes for suitability and passenger acceptance in the United States.

The bus is on tour through major U.S. cities and was in Detroit for two weeks.

It was introduced last week on the SEMTA Metropolitan Division Michigan Avenue-Wayne Line.

Operated by one person, the articulated MAN bus has a seating capacity of 63 compared with 50 on regular buses now in use in the Detroit area.

The articulated bus is a common sight in Germany and other European cities where such buses have proven their efficiency and reliability for over 25 years.

The demonstration bus is 54-feet long and will reach a top speed of 50 miles per hour. It's primarily designed for service in heavily populated metropolitan areas.

The articulated bus has a 253 horsepower MAN patented engine featuring a low noise level and excellent fuel economy.

SEMTA is considering buying up to 25 of these buses for use in the SEMTA region.

YSD Reports Case Rise

The Youth Service Division, (YSD), processed 80 complaints last month. This was an increase of 18 cases over May's total and a jump of 13 over last June.

With half the year gone, the division has handled 378 cases in comparison to 319 at this time in 1973.

The leading category of complaints last month was larceny/theft with 19 cases being reported involving 20 boys and five girls. When such related categories as possession of stolen property, six incidents, burglary, three, and robbery, two, are considered, the total of complaints reaches 30 involving 37 boys and six girls.

Eleven reports of violation of the controlled substance act were received with seven involving marijuana abuse and four, the sale or suspected distribution of drugs.

The seven marijuana cases involved four male adults and four male juveniles, while the four other drug cases involved two male adults and four female juveniles.

Eight incidents of assault were reported last month, involving 14 boys. "An increase in this type of offense appears to be building, indicating a possibility of more aggression being expressed by youths," the YSD said.

Twenty applications for petition were filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court. Of these, the court has authorized six.

Through June, referrals to the YSD via the Pointes have increased over last year's total, with the exception of The Woods.

Known offenses in The City through last month reach 33 in comparison to 20 for the same period last year.

In The Farms, 76 known offenses, (including miscellaneous complaints), are reported this year, as against 36 in 1973.

Known offenses in The Park show 100, (including miscellaneous complaints), in comparison to 94 last year.

Meanwhile in The Shores, 22 known offenses, (including miscellaneous complaints), are reported this year as against 17 in 1973.

Finally, The Woods reports 147 known offenses, (including miscellaneous complaints), through June in comparison to 152 for this period last year.

Susan A. Scherer, of Westchester road, is a lucky young lady: not only does she HAVE a summer job, (and our college student spies tell us they're not easy to come by this year), she has one in her field—and it's interesting.

Susan, a University of Michigan sophomore majoring in Chemical Engineering, with two other U. of M. Engineering students and one recent graduate, tools around the state in a bright yellow mobile home bearing the seal of the University of Michigan College of Engineering.

They wheel their van into shopping malls and county fairs, bringing the story of Engineering Education to young people and their parents.

Inside the mobile home are displays representing different branches of Engineering, including a full-scale cutaway Wankel rotary engine and a holography exhibit demonstrating lensless three-dimensional photography.

A girl like this comes to us and gets her hair straightened all neat and silky and then icky-poo weather will hardly ever bother her at all. If you have a friend with the aforesaid problem, be nice. Dystrophy Telethon Party Kits Offered

Network of Private Fund-Raising Fetes to be Linked with 20-Hour Day TV Spectacular Starring Jerry Lewis

Party-planners Tom and Diane Schoenith, of Devonshire road, are seeking party-givers in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties to join with them in an unusual fund-raiser for Muscular Dystrophy.

The Schoeniths want to establish a tri-county network of parties to run simultaneously in every suburb during the 20-hour broadcast of the 1974 Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon for Muscular Dystrophy.

The Telethon is scheduled for September 1 and 2 on WKBD-TV, Channel 50.

The parties, called "Stay Up With Jerry and Watch the Stars Come Out," will be centered around TV sets in private homes and will be linked by phone both to the Schoeniths' and the television studios of WKBD-TV.

Tom is well-known for his highly imaginative private parties. Lately he has devoted more and more time to giving parties for charitable organizations.

"We're inviting anyone who wants to give a Telethon party for Dystrophy to call us up and we'll help plan their parties," he says.

"We'll send them a complete Party Planning Kit explaining our own party plan and showing how it can be adapted to any home or any budget."

The Schoenith plan features a different activity for each of the 20 hours the Telethon is in progress. Guests will be "charged" a $5 Telethon donation to get in — and a larger donation if they leave before 20 hours.

Guests who fall asleep will be charged $1 for each hour of slumber.

Other details of the party, including recipes and games, are contained in the five-page outline.

WKBD-TV plans to call each party-giver in the tri-county area for on-the-air progress reports during locally televised segments of the Lewis show.

The Schoeniths will also call their partying colleagues to compare notes during the 20-hour stay-awake effort.

"It's a combination TV/pajama/anything else party," Tom says. "Diane and I are really anxious to see how many other zany people will want to try it."

Interested hosts and hostesses are invited to write or phone for complete details to: The Jerry Lewis Telethon, 18613 Livernois, Detroit 48221, phone 863-8125.

Proceeds from all parties will be combined with Telethon pledges to provide diagnosis, evaluation, clinic treatment, therapy, wheelchairs and braces free of charge to all MD patients in southeastern Michigan.

Telethon funds also support medical research into MD, which is as yet incurable.

Richard Kelly Claims Bride at Ceremony in East

Richard James Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Kelly, of Lakepointe avenue, claimed Mary Anne Hall, daughter of the Walter C. Halls, of Berwick, Me., as his bride Saturday, June 15, at a 2 o'clock ceremony in First Parish Church, Somersworth, N.H.

The newlyweds vacationed for two weeks in Maine, Michigan and Canada and are now at home in Phoenix, Ariz., where the bride is a Research Analyst at the University of Arizona College of Medicine and the bridegroom is a goldsmith in Scottsdale.

For the double ring rites at which The Reverend John E. Nelson presided the former Miss Hall, given in marriage by her father, chose a white silk organza gown fashioned with a bodice of English net and re-embroidered Alencon lace, a yellow organza cummerbund, short, puffed sleeves edged in yellow ruffles and a circlet neckline.

Her organza over peau de soie skirt extended into a Chapel train trimmed with a double flounce of pleated yellow organza topped with a deep border of matching lace.

She wore a large picture hat fashioned of white organza layers, re-embroidered Alencon lace and yellow organza and carried a basket of yellow Majestic daisies and marigolds, flame rosebuds, white and yellow daisies and baby's-breath.

Notre Dame Club Fete Honors New Students

The Notre Dame Club of Detroit's Campus Club hosted a swimming party at Botsford Inn, Farmington, Sunday, July 14. Co-chairmen Chris Anhut and J. J. O'Brien welcomed incoming freshmen from Notre Dame and St. Mary's College of Notre Dame.

The party started at 5:30 o'clock and featured hamburgers and hot dogs for some 50 new metropolitan area students.

Honor matron Mrs. Paul J. Huston, of Tempe, Ariz., and bridesmaids Mrs. Edmund S. Sherif, of Yarmouth, Me., Mrs. Paul H. Knowlton, of Orono, Me., and Mrs. Richard J. Hossman, of Gray, Me., wore Empire frocks of printed organdy over yellow taffeta, sashed in moss green and trimmed with heavy white lace at their puffed sleeves and V-necklines.

They wore yellow and white daisies, yellow marigolds and baby's-breath in their hair and carried baskets similar to that of the bride, with a few flame rosebuds accenting only the honor matron's arrangement.

Frederick J. Yapelli came from Whittier, Calif., to act as best man. Seating the guests were Philip F. Smithka, of White Plains, N.Y., Thomas A. Kelly and Michael

F. Kelly. The Halls entertained at a reception in their home following their daughter's wedding. Mrs. Hall's long gown of azure polyester satin was princess-style, with sheer, long sleeves.

The bridegroom's mother selected a long-sleeved shirt-waist of mint green polyester jersey. Both mothers chose white accessories and yellow glamelia corsages.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Bertram H. Spofford and Mrs. Harrison Cole, of Haverhill, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. David Luce and their daughters, of South Hanover, Mass., the Henry Halls and Richard O'Connell, of Lewiston, Me., Mrs. Jane Pereira, of Fort Richey, Fla., and the Evan C. Society News Gathered from the Pointes

Achieve Latest March of Dimes Goal

At the recent annual executive board meeting of the Metropolitan Detroit Chapter March of Dimes there was happy news. The 1973-74 fund raising goal of $1 million for the fiscal year ended May 31, 1974, had been exceeded.

The final reported total was $1,004,000, thus metropolitan Detroit is the fourth March of Dimes Chapter in the central states to hit the one million dollar mark.

Richard T. Kelly, Wayne

County Auditor and March of Dimes board chairman, also announced that the Metropolitan Detroit Chapter now ranks number one in the nation for raising funds in the fight against birth defects on a per capita basis.

Noting that many long hours and months of hard work had gone into achieving this goal, Mr. Kelly said, "We'd never have been able to do it without the help of the many dedicated volunteers, businessmen and public servants who so generously gave their time, energy and unselfish devotion, along with the excellent work accomplished by the March of Dimes staff under the direction of Maxwell M. Gurman, executive director."

More than 50 volunteers from all walks of life were honored for their contributions to the March of Dimes during the 1974 campaign.

William R. Russell, of White Plains, N.Y., the vice-president of the National Foundation March of Dimes, flew in to be main speaker and to present Kelly with an award for "Outstanding Volunteer Leadership Service for over 25 years."

Following luncheon Mr. Kelly was again nominated and accepted as board chairman for the 1974-75 campaign. It will be his 16th year of devoted service as March of Dimes chairman.

Other officers elected for the coming year include George Mudie, of South Edgewood drive, treasurer, and fellow Pointers Edward Deeb, assistant secretary, Victor Wertz, a chairman of the Advisory board, and Dr. Paul Zavelle, chairman of the Medical Advisory board.

Honored For March Of Dimes Work

At the Metropolitan Detroit Chapter March of Dimes annual board meeting BETTIE (Mrs. Charles) DA-WOOD, of Berkshire road, received a kiss of congratulations from RICHARD T. KELLY, Wayne County Auditor and Detroit Chapter chairman, after she and HATTIE (Mrs. Arthur) PFANNENSCHMIDT, of Virginia lane, were presented with Service Awards recognizing their unselfish giving of time and energies to the March of Dimes during 1973-74.

The 6 o'clock rites at which Father Jerry Krieg presided were followed by a reception at Hillcrest Country Club.

The newlyweds vacationed in Acapulco, Mexico, and are now at home in Detroit's East Side.

The bride's gown of white dotted net fashioned with an Empire waist, long sleeves and a train falling from her shoulders was trimmed with Venetian lace. A lace cap caught her shoulder length illusion veil.

She carried an arrangement of white roses and baby's breath.

Carrying apricot carnations and baby's breath were honor maid Judith A. McComas, of Huntington, W. Va., in a sleeveless Empire apricot jersey knit with a matching long-sleeved jacket, and bridesmaids Mrs. Thomas Detzler, of Warren, and Mrs. Thomas F. Daniels, of Huntington, the bride's sisters, and Shelley Brantley their cousin, in identical mint green jersey frocks.

John P. Shaiebs was best man for his brother. They

Miss Cafagna To Say Vows

October wedding plans are being made by Roselyn G. Cafagna, daughter of Mrs. Nicholas Cafagna, of East Outer drive, Detroit, and the late Mr. Cafagna, of Williamsburg court, and Joseph R. Lusk, son of Mrs. Herman Lusk, of Clawson, and the late Mr. Lusk.

The bride-elect was graduated from Grosse Pointe South High School and Providence Hospital School of Radiologic Technology, Southfield, where she is now employed. Her fiancé, a graduate of Clawson High and Western Michigan University School of Business, is associated with LIV Aerospace, Sterling Heights.

are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Shaiebs, of Detroit. Ushering were Edward M. Shaiebs, of Barrytown, Mich., another brother, John G. Griffin and John M. Lobaldo, brother of the bride.

Flower girl was Stacie Marie Shaiebs, the bridegroom's niece. Michael John Detzler, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride's blue chiffon gown was long-sleeved, Empire-waisted and styled with a jewel neckline. She carried yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a sleeveless gown of Paris pink chiffon with a matching white cape. She carried white roses.

A past-president of the Beautification Council of Southeastern Michigan which held its quarterly luncheon meeting in Northville June 12 is MRS. G. SAM ZILLY, of Merriweather road.

The Richard Shaiebs

Wedding vows were spoken in Saint Matthew's Catholic Church Friday, June 7, by TERESA LYNN LOBALDO, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Lobaldo, of Maryland avenue, and Mr. Shaiebs, son of the George A. Shaiebs, of Detroit.

Scott Le Fevre Weds Miss Ker in Ohio

Scott Dayton LeFevre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. LeFevre, of Lincoln road, claimed Mary Hewitt Ker, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hewitt, of Fairborn, O., as his bride Saturday, June 29, in Boulevard Presbyterian Church, Columbus, O.

A reception at Hidden Meadow Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Havens in Delaware, O., followed the rites at which The Reverend E. Bert Bronte officiated.

The bride selected a beige cotton lace gown accented at her Empire bodice with a blue insert and fashioned with bell-shaped sleeves.

She wore a wreath of multi-colored Sweetheart roses and baby's breath with blue ribbon streamers in her hair, and carried an arrangement of Sweetheart roses, stephanotis, baby's breath and bachelor buttons.

She was attended by the bridegroom's sisters, Lora Beth LeFevre as maid of honor and bridesmaid Sally Jane LeFevre, of Columbus, who also was vocal soloist.

The cap sleeves and Empire bodices of their beige, blue and yellow-flowered voile frocks were lace-trimmed. Their hair wreaths were fashioned of yellow and white daisies, baby's breath and bachelor buttons twined with blue ribbon streamers.

They carried baskets of matching flowers.

Gary S. LeFevre acted as best man for his brother. Dan Dick, of Columbus ushered.

Mrs. LeFevre chose a gown of aqua chiffon styled with long, pleated sleeves and a matching, flowing jacket, for her son's wedding. She carried a gardenia corsage on her crewel-embroidered linen purse.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's aunts, Mrs. Zibba A. Thomas, of Schenectady, N. Y., Mrs. Kenneth R. Wilbur, of Cambridge, N. Y., and Mrs. Edward Bosely, of Berwyn, Pa., with Mr. Bosely, and the Robert McCormicks, of Fairborn, O.

The newlyweds will make their home in Miamisburg, O., where the bridegroom, a graduate of St. John's Military Academy, Delafield, Wis., who attended Otterbein College, is associated with the Patterson Company.

SELLING YOUR HOME?

There's a local firm called Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. that has come up with a new idea in selling homes. If successful, it could change their industry in Grosse Pointe considerably. It's called GROUP LISTING, which means they will immediately purchase your home, at your asking price, once you have listed with them. The one circumstance, they say, is that they must have a group of five similar homes before their plan takes effect. Once achieved, they buy all five homes simultaneously. They say it's easier to sell five homes in a group because it's easier on the buyer and much easier to promote. For more information you can call Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087, direct.

John C. Miller Claims Bride

John Charles Miller, son of the Alfred W. Millers, of Pemberton road, claimed Karen Ann Gilgins as his bride Friday evening, June 28, at a 6 o'clock ceremony in Saint Helen's Catholic Church, Saginaw.

Father Robert DeLand and The Reverend Bradley Rohrer presided at the ceremony which was followed by a reception and dinner at Apple Mountain.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex H. Gilgins, of Saginaw, chose a maracaine jersey wedding gown styled with an A-line skirt and Dioretro train. Seed pearl-studded butterfly appliques accented her Empire bodice, Cathedral sleeves and mandarin neckline.

Her Juliet cap, touched with embroidered Austrian lace, secured a Cathedral length silk illusion veil.

In floor length apple green frocks, carrying nosegay of cornflowers, pink carnations, baby's breath and daisies were honor attendant Pat Luckezic and bridesmaids Debbie Stelter, of Saginaw, Jennifer Pappas, of Livonia, Rebecca Houk, of Toledo, and Mrs. Thomas J. Gilgins, of Utica.

Serving as best man for his brother was Robert W. Miller. Ushers were former Pointer Steven Maun, of Burlingame, Calif., Garret F. Thomas, of Romeo, and Thomas J. Gilgins, brothers of the bride.

The newlyweds will make their home in Lake Orion. The bridegroom is on the teaching staff of Rochester High School. The bride will be teaching at Clear Lake School, Oxford.

Birthday Fete For Mr. Fisher

Thomas K. Fisher celebrated his 52nd birthday last week with two parties, a luncheon Monday, July 8, at the Recess Club, where 50 friends gathered at the behest of Tom's wife, Gerry, and a family dinner Tuesday, July 9, with Mr. Fisher's mother, Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, Sr., in town for her annual visit with all the Fisher family, among the guests.

The Fishers are leaving Cameron place for a few days, flying to Mackinac Island where Tom, one of the country's noted sailors, will chair the Grand Hotel reception and luncheon hosted annually by the Off-Shore Racing Club at the conclusion of the Port Huron-Mackinac race.

More dependable than a man.

Someday a handsome prince will ride up and carry you away.
Or maybe you don't see it that way.
Not that you've got anything against handsome princes. It's just that they're not very reliable.
That's why it's nice to know you've got some control over your future. Like being financially prepared for whatever lies ahead.
And one of the easiest ways to build future funds is with U.S. Savings Bonds. Buy them through your bank. Or join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.
Bonds are steady, solid, dependable. Just the kind of security a girl needs.
Then if your handsome prince does come along, so much the better. You can always buy him a castle.

Now U.S. Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years. 4% the first year. Bonds are redeemable if lost, stolen or destroyed. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

It's Merry Mart Preview time in Grosse Pointe next Thursday, July 25. Setting will be the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club. Hours will be 10:30 to 3 o'clock. Lunch will be available by reservation, and all the booths to be featured at the big fall Merry Mart, scheduled for October 24 at Raleigh House, will be there.

Merry Mart, as you know, is presented annually by Christ Child Society. It offers handmade, homemade, one-of-a-kind and special boutique articles. It includes a Trash and Treasures department.

It's BIG, involving close to 200 workers. "I think," says Mary Des Rosiers, East Side Merry Mart chairman, "almost every active Christ Child member is involved, in some way, with Merry Mart."

Minors and Majors That involvement may be small. Doing a bit of decoupage or macrame for Creative Crafts, for instance. It may be major. Chairing a booth, or handling luncheon reservations, or, like Mary, coordinating the whole East Side Merry Mart effort.

"You add up all the little bits and have a big bit."

Mary was Maire School's Mother of the Year in 1973. Adding up the little bits made a big bit.

"I think it all started when my first child entered Maire. Requests for small favors led to other things. I've enjoyed it: the Maire group, parents, staff, and children, are great."

The Des Rosiers children, Gregory, 10, Michele, nine, and five-year-old Denise, are all Maire students now.

She's Really Active Their mother is a Maire PTA board member. She's a member of Citizens for Education and has worked for Millage elections. She's been a United Foundation block chairman.

She's a member of the Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center and worked on the League's Millionaire's Party. "We had a Millionaire's Party recently, too, and that was very successful."

Mary enjoys sewing, knitting and decoupage. She loves to read. She plays tennis with her husband every Friday evening.

She is a gourmet cook, co-editor of the second edition of the Maire Mom's Cook Book. "My family really enjoys good food. They like the fixing as well as the eating." The Des Rosiers children will chop onions, peel potatoes, help to create one of Mary's gourmet dishes. Mr. Des Rosiers, a manufacturer's representative, travels a lot. If he discovers, in another city, an excellent item on a restaurant menu, he's likely to go into the kitchen and ask for the recipe to bring home.

Three Area Chairmen Mary Des Rosiers is one of three 1974 Merry Mart area co-chairmen under general chairman Sylvia (Mrs. William) Ogg. Area chairmen are assigned to Birmingham-Bloomfield and Detroit's West Side as well as The Pointe, for Christ Child Society is a city-wide organization.

"This job," says Mary of her area chairmanship, "is what you make it. I try to go to all the individual booth meetings." It's time-consuming but Mary is a practiced time coordinator, and she can't begrudge time given to a cause or group she believes in. As long, that is, as the time she's giving isn't stolen from the time she wants to go to her family. Her husband, her children, come first.

She'll always find time to watch Greg perform with the Grosse Pointe Children's Theatre. He received the Children's Theatre Award as Top New Young Male Actor this year. She'll always find time for Michele's swim meets.

Denise Is Winner She'll always find time to support Denise in whatever extracurricular activity Denise chooses. At five, it's difficult to say where Denise's talents will lie, but any little girl who comes home with the "Most Kindest" award from kindergarten obviously has the world by the tail.

Mary has worked for other Merry Marts. She helped handle reservations one year and, a few years ago, was co-chairman of the Knitting Booth.

sure-time activity. Dave, Detroit Free Press promotion director, is an avid golfer, so any place he and Kathy vacation has GOT to have a golf course.

Mrs. Henes is in charge of League of Catholic Women membership for Saint Clare de Montefalco Parish. Like Mary Des Rosiers she's been active as a United Foundation worker. She's past UF neighborhood chairman.

For several years now she's been a Junior Great Books leader at Maire School. The program is voluntary, open to fourth, fifth and sixth graders who meet twice a month during lunch period.

"We teach the children that their idea of what they've read is just as valid as someone else's. They're fascinated to realize that people get different things from the same story, that each person's interpretation, though different, is 'right'."

At National Meeting Kathy, first vice-president of Christ Child Society in Detroit, attended the national Christ Child Society meeting in Pasadena, Calif., this year.

The Society, founded in 1887 in Washington, D.C., provided layettes for babies from poor families as its original project. Each chapter throughout the United States still gives at least one layette a year.

Some chapters continue to make and assemble layettes as their primary work, some still give toys and little red wagons, but the Society's stated object, in each community, is to fill the greatest need for children in the community.

When Christ Child Society was established in Detroit 62 years ago, the greatest need for children, locally, was determined to be a temporary shelter. So Christ Child House, a residence for neglected and dependent children, was born.

Christ Child House, located at Joy road and Greenfield, provides a temporary home for 18 children without regard to race, creed or color. The children attend neighborhood schools. The Home is run by a paid director and staff Child Care workers, a cook, housekeeper and gardener. Volunteers, Christ Child Society members, assist as and how they can.

Trained Social Worker Kathy Henes is chairman of the Christ Child House board. She is also a trained Social Worker who began to donate her professional services when the House reached the point where the state required it have a Social Worker on its staff. She remains on-call as a Social Worker, available when needed.

Detroit's Christ Child Society now sponsors a second facility: Christ Child School, for exceptional children, in Birmingham.

The School is run totally by volunteers, with the exception of two paid teachers. Christ Child provisionals are required to put in volunteer hours at the School and the House in order to qualify for active membership in the Society. Active members are required to put in a specific number of volunteer hours per year, in various capacities. Some choose to work primarily at the School or the House. Others elect to give their time to Merry Mart, as crafters, collectors or committee organizers.

Keeps Projects Going It's all important. Merry Mart money makes Christ Child House and Christ Child

ELIZABETH H. PARCELLS, daughter of MR. and MRS. CHARLES PARCELLS, of Cloverly road, was among 110 students graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, June 2. The 1970 Interlochen Arts Academy graduate received a Bachelor of Music degree in Voice. She was a member of the Conservatory Chorus and performed a major role in the 1974 production of "Dido and Aeneas," produced by the Conservatory's Opera Theater.

JANEEN TINGLEY, daughter of MR. and MRS. TRACY H. TINGLEY, of Rivard boulevard, a University Liggett Class of '72 graduate, returned from a semester's study at the University of Seville, Spain, in mid-June (she left The Pointe New Year's Eve), and will resume classes at Wells College, where she is scheduled to become a Junior Advisor in one of the dormitories, in September.

Airman HARRISON K. HOLDREDGE, III, graduated in 1973 from Grosse Pointe North High School, son of MR. and MRS. HARRISON K. School go 'round. Neither the House nor the School receives UF funds.

Proceeds from Merry Mart and from related sales of Christ Child Society calendars and Christmas cards support both facilities.

Next Thursday's event at the Hunt Club is the second of three Merry Mart Previews, scheduled from early summer through early fall at three different locations.

The first was held June 27, at the Detroit Boat Club. The last will be held September 17, at Birmingham Athletic Club. Everything that will be at the Mart itself will be at the Previews, but there'll be a little "less of everything," perhaps, and "everything" will be on a slightly smaller scale.

Helpful To Workers Previewers can buy right then and there, of course. They can also special-order personalized items. The Previews are an important source of information for booth committee workers, who get an idea of what the public wants via Preview sales and plan to build up Merry Mart stocks accordingly.

Merry Mart is famous for the quality of its handicrafts. This year, for the first time, Creative Crafts will offer a potpourri of Christ Child members' specialties, from macrame to decoupage, in one department.

The Christmas Booth will be back, of course, as will the Knitting and Sewing Booths, each with its own line of exquisite hand-done goods.

The Boutique will be stocked with jewelry, knickknacks and odds and ends from near and far. Trash and Treasures will present the gleanings from attics and garages all over town, and there'll be a Bake Sale to tempt mid-summer appetites.

Offer Drinks and Food Cocktails will be available starting at noon, and reservations for an assorted sandwich luncheon served from noon to 1:30 o'clock, at $2.25 per person, are being taken by Mrs. Thomas Hosea, 886-2459, or Mrs. Alan Devine, 821-4484.

Luncheon reservations must be in no later than Monday, July 22.

If it's a nice day, Mart-goers might like to take their plates outside and eat on the GPHC terrace.

And then come back and browse a bit more. Maybe even buy. It's nice to do a bit of Christmas shopping in July.

Susan's, but Michael and Maria wouldn't trade their three-week experiences for three months of Sundays. Maria was stationed in Yosemite National Park June 25 through last Tuesday. Michael began his assignment in Bryce Canyon National Park June 27, and finishes it today.

Since 1957, SCP volunteers have assisted national parks and forests in accomplishing specific back country maintenance and rehabilitation projects not covered in their budgets.

The High School Wilderness Groups live and work in natural settings, have an opportunity to learn about "their" park or forest and its particular management problems and meet with representatives from other agencies and local conservationists to discuss environmental topics.

SCP participants are 16 to 18. They're willing to work hard, hike with heavy packs and share in routine camp chores. Each group of 15 or less, with carefully selected supervisors, sets up its own camp at its work site.

Oh, how I WISH there'd been a program like this when I was in high school. It sounds exactly like my kind of vacation!

Well-Deserved Recognition

At the Detroit Council of Catholic Women's annual Day Convention this spring, John Cardinal Dearden, Archbishop of Detroit, presented awards for outstanding service to eight women. Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore Parishioner Nelle Wade Hilton was one of them.

The CCW couldn't have honored a nicer lady. Mrs. Hilton, mother of two children, is a member of the Christian Service Commission, works on "Operation Layette," calls for blood donors and prepares and takes Christmas goodies to parish shut-ins.

She is one of the stalwarts of the PIME Mission Guild, raising funds for a school and chapel in Bangladesh.

She works on rummage and garage sales, does knitting and "other things" for Fairmark League at Saint Bernard's Center in Detroit and collects clothing for the Center's resale shop.

The Bon Secours Hospital Guild, Stapleton Center and a northern Indian Mission also reap the harvest of Nelle's practical interest. "How can one measure time spent by one who never seems to be without a project to benefit one of the above causes?"
