Thursday, September 26
FORMER PRESIDENT
Richard M. Nixon's dime-sized blood clot on his right lung was seen as a warning of possible serious complications in his condition. His personal physician Dr. John Lungren disclosed yesterday that the phlebitis inflammation in the ex-President's left leg had caused the new problem. He has been confined since Monday in the Long Beach Memorial Hospital. The development made it certain that Mr. Nixon is facing a hospital stay which would preclude his appearance as a witness in the Watergate trial which begins next Tuesday.

Friday, September 27
CHIEF JUDGE John R. Brown of the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans granted a stay of the lower court order, temporarily blocking the release of former Army Lt. William L. Calley. A lower court judge had reversed Lt. Calley's conviction for murder in the My Lai massacre. The stay, until Monday, will allow the Army time to present a written motion for a 15-day stay. The Justice Department authorized the Army to do so to allow time for government lawyers to decide whether to appeal Wednesday's order by U.S. District Court Judge J. Robert Elliott of Columbia, Ga.

Saturday, September 28
PRESIDENT FORD brushed aside new calls for wage and price controls yesterday, then listened to sharp criticism of his policies and advisers at an economic summit conference debated ways to curb the nation's inflation. No firm plan emerged from the conference's opening session, but there was wide agreement among delegates on the needs for tax breaks for the poor and a government job program for those thrown out of work by economic turmoil.

Sunday, September 29
MRS. BETTY FORD underwent massive breast surgery to remove a cancerous right breast yesterday. Surgeons who performed the 2½-hour operation said the results were satisfactory and they hope for a complete recovery. However, Navy Capt. William Fouty, who led the three-man surgical team at the Bethesda Naval Medical Center, cautioned that the results of extensive pathological tests would be needed before he can determine if the President's wife will live out a normal life.

Monday, September 30
DAVID MEIRHOFFER hanged himself in his jail cell in Bozeman, Mont., Sunday a few hours after confessing to the murders of Susan Jaeger of Farmington Hills and three other persons, police said. The former Marine Vietnam veteran was scheduled to plead guilty in District Court today to all four killings, authorities said. Arrested last Friday, Meirhofer reportedly made the confessions to FBI agent Bryon H. Dubar in the presence of his own lawyer, Douglas Dastinger, and Gallatin County Attorney Tom Olson.

VAN PATRICK, 58, known for Michigan sports broadcasting as the Voice of the Tigers and the Lions, died yesterday in South Bend, Ind., from complications following surgery for cancer earlier this year.

Tuesday, October 1
PRESIDENT FORD told Chairman William L. Hungate, D-Mo., of the House Judiciary Subcommittee that he will personally appear to testify on why he gave former President Nixon a pardon. He plans to respond to the 14 questions raised by two House resolutions.

All It Took Was a Big Gust of Wind

Although one expects falling leaves at this time of year, falling trees are another story. On Sunday afternoon, September 29, at about 5:30 p.m., a gusting wind storm caused this tree in front of 207 Ridge road to split in half. The huge limb fell across the street blocking the road and knocking down power lines. Farms police and fire units were called to the scene to watch the area until Edison crews and a tree contractor arrived. A young photographer, Miles O'Brien III, from nearby Stephens road, captured the scene before the tree was cleared away.

Woods Plans Two Changes In Ordinance

Measure Providing for Regulation of Outside Storage of Recreational Equipment Could Be Adjusted

By Roger A. Waha
There's a possibility of at least two changes in The Woods' proposed ordinance providing for the regulation of the outside storage of boats, various trailers, (boat, utility, travel, house), and other recreational equipment before the council considers it for a second reading, and possible final adoption, at the Monday, October 7, meeting.

The solons, sitting at the Committee of the Whole on Monday, September 30, requested City Attorney George Catlin to see about deleting the neighbor consent clause in Section 5, (Storage Site Approval), and to clarify the language about the $5 inspection fee, also in Section 5, reported Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen, Parks and Recreation Committee chairman.

Sore Spots
The neighbor consent clause and the $5 inspection fee were two sore points with citizens who attended the Monday, September 16, meeting when the ordinance was up for its first reading. (It passed that hurdle by a 6-1 vote.)

"We wanted to have these corrections in ordinance form before our next meeting," said Mr. Kefgen. Then, the council could compare the changes in writing. He said, (Continued on Page 2)

All Pointe Departments Plan Many Activities for 'Fire Prevention Week'

Firefighters to Conduct Inspections of Homes and Visit Schools; Officials Offer Residents Variety of Safety Hints

Although the dates set aside for "Fire Prevention Week" are Sunday-Saturday, October 6-12, the five Pointe fire departments will be out in their communities that week stressing that fire prevention is a year-round necessity. Education, demonstrations and inspections will be emphasized by most departments during the week.

Farms Fire Chief Warren Schultz said his department plans to visit area schools with the pumper and aerial trucks and the ambulance to explain their functions. They will be at Brownell, Richard, Kerby, St. Paul's and the Grosse Pointe Academy answering questions and giving demonstrations.

Chief Schultz noted this is the time of year when fires occur more frequently.

Offers Hints
He said furnaces should be checked to see if they are igniting properly, a s/he should be removed from fireplace clean-outs, stairways should be clear, all paints and rags should be properly stored, circuits should not be overloaded and extension cords should be checked to see they are not frayed.

The department also warned against throwing cigarette butts into paper containers. They should be thoroughly extinguished in an ash tray and then dumped into a metal container.

Chief Schultz added homeowners who would like to have their homes inspected for fire hazards should call the department to make an appointment at 885-1000.

The public is also invited to come to the station for a tour of the facilities. The chief had an additional warning for persons con-

Bon Secours Fund Given Big Boost

Gift of $200,000 from James and Lynelle Holden Fund Raises Overall Total to $2.35 Million

The Bon Secours Hospital Building Fund was given a powerful boost last week with the announcement of a gift of $200,000 from the James and Lynelle Holden Fund.

"This very generous gift is important not only for its size but also because it will be an inspiring force for our volunteers as they complete their calls," commented Mrs. Hans Gehrke, Jr., chairman of the building fund, in reporting the subscription.

The Holden Fund gift raised the total gifts to the Building Fund to $2.35 million. The campaign goal is $2.5 million.

Obtain Equipment
The Holden Fund gift will be used to help finance new equipment for the James and Lynelle Holden Coronary Intensive Care Unit to be constructed in the last phase of the building program.

The unit will have eight beds, separated by windowed walls to afford privacy from other patients while allowing a nurse continuous surveillance. Each room is equipped with built-in heart monitors, oxygen and suction equipment.

This equipment will sound a warning at any change in pulse rate and provide the tools for instant resuscitation by the medical team.

Woods Strives To Eliminate Park Problem

City Officials Seek Cooperation of St. Clair Shores over Unusual Predicament Regarding Enforcement of Rules and Regulations at Lake Front Park

By Roger A. Waha
Woods city officials are hoping for a solution to a nagging problem which centers upon a proposed ordinance with the City of St. Clair Shores regarding the enforcement of the rules and regulations governing Lake Front Park. A major aspect of this problem is the fact that the city's park is located, not in The Woods, but in St. Clair Shores. And flowing from this are ensuing jurisdiction complications.

This matter is scheduled to be discussed by the Citizens Recreation Commission at its monthly meeting in early October. At this time, members will review an ordinance approved some two months ago by the St. Clair Shores Council which puts its park rules into the measure.

Apply Provisions
However, City Attorney George Catlin said, in his reading of the law, there's no application to private parks owned by other communities.

"St. Clair Shores is willing to work with us on this. It could entail another ordinance, (or possibly an amendment to their measure), which applies the provisions to cover private parks within the city."

This is the only way we can get St. Clair Shores jurisdiction regarding the enforcement of our park rules and regulations, he added.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said, "A copy of the St. Clair Shores ordinance was referred to the Citizens Recreation Commission for its study and review with the possibility they could recommend to the City of St. Clair Shores an amendment to their ordinance making special provisions which would be applicable to private parks within their city."

Situation The Same
The nature of this problem was explored by Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallman in his July monthly report. Mr. Hallman said the scope of the situation, as discussed in July, still holds true at this time.

"The status of the proposed park rules and regulations, which would provide adequate backing and support for park personnel charged with the responsibility of enforcing present park rules and regulations, apparently remains in doubt."

"We find ourselves constantly and consistently in the predicament of attempting to maintain safe and pleasant surroundings for use by our residents in their recreational pursuits and we are unable to really put 'teeth' into the rules and regulations in that we remain in a vacuum."

Increase of 7.17 Percent Is Proposed

Final Adoption of $18,424,546 Package Set for October 14 Meeting

As usual, there were a lot of figures to follow at a public hearing on the proposed 1974-75 school budget on Monday, September 30. But this year, the audience was treated to a clearer and more simplified presentation.

The Board, Superintendent of Schools James A. Adams and his administrative staff are seeking to approve a total budget of $18,424,546, (including $16,567,181 for operation, $674,472 for the public libraries and $1,183 for debt retirement).

The proposed overall increase in the operating portion of the budget is $1,360,821.27, or 8.93 percent, but this amount includes a $267,458 reserve for the 1975-76 budget.

Thus, the actual increase, excluding the reserve, is 7.17 percent and the staff and trustees took great pains to explain why they feel that increase is necessary.

Difficult Year

Board President Mrs. Joan Hanpeter took the floor first and pointed out that the proposed budget is part of a two-year financing plan as provided for within last April's millage election, and she said the Board approved of the plan.

When he spoke, Dr. Adams stressed that it was a difficult year for financial planning and he reviewed the problems administrators faced while drawing up the budget.

Makes Points

The superintendent said he felt citizens had the right to know the factors that necessitated the increase and, in a budget overview presented along with the proposal itself, he made several points.

According to Dr. Adams, salary costs of all staff members have increased due to negotiations, and additional teaching personnel have been added to accommodate the unanticipated influx of students and to staff new and expanded programs.

Nevertheless, Dr. Adams feels the schools have met the staffing ratio promised in the millage election: 53 professionals per 1,000 students. Additionally, the hiring of aides played a role in the budget increases as well as improvements in the insurance, (hospitalization), plans considered as part of employees' fringe benefits.

Reason for Increase

Another increase Dr. Adams noted fell in the category of transportation. Forty-six more students have to be conveyed to various special education programs and the need for funds for education.

Farms Council Approves Three Building Appeals

By Barbara Bruno
Three appeals from denials of building permits were approved by The Farms Council at the regular meeting Monday, September 23. The approval, granted by the council while sitting as a Zoning Board of Appeals, applies to private residences in The Farms.

Mrs. Ernest T. Davis, of 319 Moross road, was granted permission to have an extension built onto the rear of her garage. She requested the permit in order to construct a four-foot-high, three-foot-long addition to accommodate the newer, longer model cars.

She told the council the addition will be constructed of the same material as the current structure. The council vote to grant the appeal was 6-0. Councilman Joseph Fromm was absent from the meeting.

A second appeal by Albert D. Thomas, Inc., was approved by the same vote. Mr. Thomas requested the approval of the council to make structural changes in a home at 168 Lakeview avenue.

Since the existing structure does not conform to The Farms' building code any changes made in the structure must have special approval. The house at present has a deficient side yard.

Mr. Thomas said he is renovating the home but is not certain how extensive the changes will be. He said he (Continued on Page 6)

Aggressive's Crew Overcomes Odds to Win World Cup Race

By Nancy Kramer
Whoever named her Aggressive wasn't kidding. What else, if not aggressive, is a 42-foot yacht that travels to San Remo, Italy, participates in the World Two Ton Cup sailing races and outclasses an all-European competition in four out of four races?

Designed by Dick Carter, and financed originally by 11 Grosse Pointe Yacht Club members as a contender for the Canada's Cup in 1972, Aggressive has proven herself before. She was runner-up in the Canada's Cup race and, in 1973, was named Season Champ and Boat of the Year. This past season, she was a Class A winner in the Trans-Erie Series.

But the World Cup victory is a whole different thing. Unlike standard Great Lakes racing, the two ton boats are all evenly matched. There are no classifications and no handicaps to figure out. When Aggressive went over to Italy, she represented the United States in boat-to-boat competition.

And... she turned in a fantastic performance. But Frank Piku, of Woodland Shores drive, who is now a co-owner and skipper of Aggressive, along with David Gamble, of Ridge road, insists most of the credit belongs to the crew, a hardy lot whose persistence in getting the boat across the globe, and in never saying die when they found themselves running behind in each race, might well qualify for legendary status.

According to Mr. Piku, the race, held Saturday-Tuesday, September 7-17, pitting Aggressive against five Italian and three French yachts, turned out to be a challenge in every sense of the word.

"You could write a book alone on the trouble we had just getting the boat over," he commented. "We almost didn't make it."

Aggressive was supposed to ride over aboard a Russian freighter leaving Milwaukee August 1, but by August 8, she was still in Milwaukee.

To make up for lost time plans were made to ship Aggressive to Cleveland from where she could be trucked to New York. Cleveland custom officials, however, would not permit the foreign vessel to be unloaded.

At this point, a call was put through to a GPYC member who knew the Chief of Immigration in Washington. He in turn had to rouse the Chief of Customs from his bed to give the men in Cleveland special permission to allow the boat to be unloaded (Continued on Page 2)

'Fire Prevention Week' Activities

He said all firefighters coming to homes will be in uniform with proper identification. Their fire vehicles will be on the street while home inspections are being performed.

He added no tickets will be issued for violators.

Snorkel to Schools
Items to be checked include rubbish not properly contained, defective flue or flue stops, unsafe wiring, an overloaded fuse box or com-bustibles too close to a stove or furnace.

In The Shores, Sgt. Charles Wenrich, Fire Marshal, said the department conducts home inspections for fire hazards throughout the year. He said homeowners can request a visit at any time by calling 881-5500.

He added since fireplaces are starting to be used at this time of year, particular attention should be paid to the condition of fireplace clean outs. He added that flammable liquids and paint cans should be properly stored and furnace motors and fans should be checked.

In The Woods, public safety officers will be bringing the snorkel, pumper and ambulance to city schools and provide helpful safety hints to hundreds of youngsters. Schools where demonstrations will take place are Barnes, Mason, Ferry and Monteith and also at Our Lady Star of the Sea and University Liggett School during and after "Fire Prevention Week."

Attracts Interest
"We will familiarize the little ones with the ambulance and tell them nothing about its operation which will hurt them," said Traffic Safety Officer Stephen Petrik.

"The youngsters are usually awed by the snorkel and its operation and it attracts lots of interest. We even put helmets and boots on some of the children," he said.

The dangers of fire itself and the threat of playing with matches will be emphasized to the youngsters. "We tell them, if they find a package of matches, to give the package to their parents or their teacher," he said.

Officer Petrik said fire losses in dollars are down in the city so far this year. With winter approaching, he urges all residents to make certain all household equipment, such as furnaces, are carefully examined so they will be in proper working order when the snow falls.

Plan Changes

(Continued from Page 1) depending on the council's feeling, it could be the "older" version of the ordinance which is selected for final adoption or the "newer" one with the changes.

Mr. Kefgen stated he personally felt the measure would pass with the changes included.

On the $5 fee, he added the language would be clarified to make it clear the amount is a "one time, one site fee."

At the C-W meeting, "we looked at the various criticisms which the citizens shared and these two really stood out. These were more plausible than others."

So it's very possible that this measure, depending on citizen response and council action, could finally "make it" after its long, often frustrating, (for residents and city officials), estimated 2 1/2 year career.

Victorious Aggressive

Once in New York, the only boat that could be booked was bound for Le Havre and from there, the yacht would have to be trucked clear across France. The New York freighter somehow left Aggressive behind though, and when she finally reached Le Havre, she was aboard another ship whose course had to be re-routed by the chief of the shipping lines to include that stop.

France posed still another problem. The driver who had been hired to make the cross-country haul had no permits to use the auto routes. As a result, it became a fly-by-night operation, with the truck proceeding illegally, under cover of darkness on back roads, through small towns and under tunnels not built to accommodate a 42-foot yacht.

At 1 a.m. Friday, September 6, the boat and four crew members made it to the other side of France and a few hours later, sailed into San Remo. Exhausted, they slept till about 10 a.m., then got up and began "working like madmen" to ready the boat for the race the next day.

Then, at 6:30 p.m., while bemused French and Italian crews looked on, the Americans took Aggressive out for a trial run. "They thought we were crazy," Mr. Piku said. "The whole thing was like a soap opera."

The fact that they won the race hands down might have seemed anti-climactic compared to the transportation hassles if the competition itself hadn't been so tough.

The series consisted of two 30-mile, one 172-mile and one 320-mile races, and from at least one standpoint, Aggressive would have been the logical choice for underdog since, for Great Lakes sailors, the Mediterranean is unfamiliar territory.

The weather, too, made the race difficult on everyone. Air was scarce. "Our boat does much better in heavy air," Mr. Piku remarked. "Four other boats were faster than ours and every one knew about the troubles we'd had getting over there."

But when things got down to the nitty gritty, navigator John Trost III, Tim Woodhouse, Richard J. Clogg, Alex Declercq, Robert Peterson, Edward Lawrence and Ted Sanford managed to find ways of sailing harder and moving faster.

"The Race Committee was really impressed with our crew work," Mr. Piku said. "Crew work is more important on a short course, (as opposed to having a faster boat), and here on the lakes, that's what we're used to."

Mr. Piku feels that sailing on the lakes affords a crew better practice. "We have to cram so much into a short period of time and we sail intensely for three months. We sail maybe 30 races a summer and over there, they might participate in 20 all year."

Nevertheless, no one ever thought for a minute they had it made. Each race counted for points and the last counted double since an earlier one had to be called off.

It was on the third night of this race that someone heard a sound a sailor never hears on the Great Lakes... waterspouts. "We looked around, and sure enough, we were in the middle of a school of whales," Mr. Piku recalled. "We were really kind of scared since some of them were bigger than our boat."

But they stayed cool, caught some wind 12 miles off Corsica and sailed on. Then, just eight miles from their destination, they found themselves again plagued with no air. "Our hearts were in our throats. When we got there, we didn't know if any one had already made it in, but then someone came up and said, 'Hurrah,' and we knew he was congratulating us."

Awards were presented later: four trophies for each individual race, one overall, a medal for each crew member and the 16th century Cup Europa which now resides at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Mr. Piku is looking forward to next summer when the World Cup races will be sailed here, on Lake St. Clair, with the Yacht Club playing host and he's already come up with one way to make the visitors feel welcome. "We had a lot of trouble communicating over there, so we want to try and get interpreters. We're going to try and line up some college students and assign one to each boat."

Right now, Aggressive is being sailed back to the U.S. by four of her crew. She'll stay the winter in Florida, and then return to Grosse Pointe. "We're building a new boat for next summer," Mr. Piku explained, "and we'll race it against Aggressive to find ways of making it as fast as possible."

Mr. Piku is a firm believer in American technology, especially in sailmaking, and says it's one reason why U.S. boats do so well in competition. He also thinks American crews sail harder.

And he maintains, with the Cup being defended here next summer, the Europeans will definitely be at a real disadvantage since they'll be sailing in strange waters. "It's going to be difficult for someone to come here and win this Cup back," he reflected.

But then, the Yacht Club probably wouldn't mind putting it up for another year.

School Budget Discussed at Meeting

Dr. Adams anticipates a 75 percent State reimbursement for transportation costs, however, and that revenue would be realized for the 1975-76 budget.

"The demands of the energy crisis account for an increase of approximately 20 percent in the cost of fuel over the amount initially budgeted for 1973-74," Dr. Adams noted. "Higher insurance costs and interest rates for loans also contributed to the increase in the proposed budget."

Other Items
Under instructional costs of a non-salary nature for materials for school libraries, new equipment, curriculum work, and teaching supplies and textbooks, the superintendent said improvements would cost $64,344, and the replacement of the Pierce Middle School swimming pool roof resulted in the need to earmark $85,000.

Approximately $20,000 will go toward remodeling the Industrial Arts area at North High School.

Finally, the total budget includes $674,472 for the public libraries. Dr. Adams noted, and $1,152,963 for debt retirement.

Dr. Adams then asked administrators in each category to give a simple cost breakdown and explain the reasons behind the increases in their areas.

Meet Commitments
When Mrs. Hanpeter asked Board members for their comments, all expressed gratitude toward the superintendent and his staff for the changes in the budget presentation and Board treasurer William Huettnerman termed it a "readable document."

Vice-president Muir Snow asked if Dr. Adams thought the proposal met the commitments made at the time of the millage election. Dr. Adams responded that it did and said the most difficult promise to keep in light of the enrollment situation had been the commitment of 53 professionals per 1,000 students.

Only a few questions were asked from the floor when Mrs. Hanpeter opened the meeting to the audience. They dealt with the number of students per class, and the physical size of a classroom on the kindergarten level.

The $18,424,546 budget for the 1974-75 school year will be approved in its final form at a meeting on Monday, October 14.

ULS Reports Rink Burglary

Thieves took various pieces of stereo equipment with a combined total value of $1,065.90 from the McCann Ice Rink, University Liggett School campus, 1045 Cook road, said Woods police, who received the belated incident report on Wednesday, September 25.

Pierre Decker, rink manager, told Sgt. Thomas Kane the items were taken from a grey, metal locker which had been pried open. Mr. Decker said he discovered the theft upon returning from vacation Friday, September 13. He learned that the cabinet and its contents were intact the previous day.

Police said the ice rink building has been under construction all summer and that many persons had access to the office.

The missing goods include a reel tape deck, valued at $239.95; a turntable, $89.95; a preamplifier, $269; an amplifier, $229; and a microphone mixer, $228.

Woods Seniors Want Housing; Plan Events

By Roger A. Waha

Woods senior citizens have expressed a strong interest in housing according to questionnaire results submitted to city offices.

The forms, picked up by residents at the Thursday, September 19, meeting of seniors at The Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, showed that 58 citizens were interested in such housing within The Woods, while one answered "no."

The council will study questionnaire results, plus an earlier recommendation on a senior citizens housing complex and activities building and their possible locations in executive session.

At the regular meeting Monday, September 9, a recommendation that such structures be located in the west end of Ghesquire Park was made by the Senior Citizens Commission and the council unanimously referred this information to the Committee of the Whole for further scrutiny.

Results from the questionnaire are still coming in but, at this time, answers show that 43 seniors are interested in rental units, while 22 are interested in privately owned units. Two bedroom units edge one bedroom units on the interest front, 32-27.

As for monthly rentals, 28

Fire Damages Cabin Cruiser

An electric stove in the main cabin galley of a 42-foot cruiser, moored in a well at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, is believed to have been the cause of a fire that caused thousands of dollars in damage to the boat's interior, reported Shores Det. Sgt. Charles Wenrich, village Fire Marshall.

The incident occurred on Thursday, September 19, at about 12:40 p.m.

The fire was reported by the Yacht Club's harbor master, Richard Winters. Responding to the alarm were Public Safety Officers, Sgt. James Jurcak, Patrolmen Gary Mitchell and Robert Bensinger, and firefighter Jerry Mason, who with Mr. Winters, manned the Yacht Club's fire boat.

They were assisted by two St. Clair Shores based U.S. Coast Guard fire boats and their crews.

At the scene Officers Mitchell and Bensinger smashed the cabin windows on the port side of the power boat to ventilate the craft, while the others battled the flames with dry chemicals, foam and water.

The owner of the cruiser, James T. Barnes, of 910 Lakeshore road, said he boarded the boat and turned on the ship-to-shore equipment. Apparently the switch to the stove was turned on, and the burner ignited an unknown substance upon it. The flames spread quickly throughout the interior of the boat.

Sgt. Wenrich said the damage is estimated at between $10,000 and $15,000 and added the flames were confined to the inside of the cruiser.

seniors would prefer a range between $100 to $150 per month; 13 would like under $100 and between $130 and $200; and four preferred an over $200 rental.

If housing is a main focal point of senior citizen interest, it isn't the only one.

Various activities are being planned for seniors including their twice-a-month meetings.

The first one will be held today, October 3, beginning at 11:30 a.m. with a tour of St. Michael's Episcopal Church, 20475 Sunningdale drive, before lunch. Then, on Thursday, October 17, citizens will again meet at St. Michael's at noon. The gatherings will feature hours of fellowship, entertainment, information and recreation.

Senior Citizens Commission chairman Irene Sutton said more people are still needed for the Monday-Thursday, October 28-31 trip to Toronto, Ont. For further information on this trip, call chairman Rachel Bauman at 881-6795 or at her business phone, 886-3400.

Bowling rolls every Friday at the Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation, 20422 Mack avenue, at 1:30 p.m. Adele Kyder is chairman of this event and she may be contacted at 881-1750.

Mrs. Sutton said times and dates are still pending regarding swimming activities. George Kallenbach is chairman of this affair and he may be reached at 881-4782.

In January 1975, seniors will escape the chill of winter with a trip to Hawaii. While specific dates for the journey, which offers seniors special prices, haven't been set, Mrs. Sutton stated Rose Blaskey will be trip chairman.

An evening at the theatre will be featured Friday, October 25, when citizens see "Brigadoon" at North High School. Reservations must be made in advance by calling chairman Harry Findlay at 881-2749.

A halloween party is planned for the November 7 regular meeting at Christ The King Lutheran Church, 20336 Mack avenue. Seniors are scheduled to be dressed in costumes for this affair.

Finally, a one-day train trip to Niagara Falls is tentatively scheduled for sometime in November.

Hoodlums Rob Park Newsboy

A 13-year-old Park boy, a newspaper carrier, was assaulted and robbed of his collection receipts by two teenage black juveniles on Thursday, September 26, reported Park Lt. Gordon Duncan.

The Park boy told authorities, as he was on his way home after collecting for his paper route, he was approached by the pair who each held a piece of metal pipe. They demanded his money. One was about 14 years old and the other about 15. Both had short Afro hair cuts, it was said.

The 13-year-old said that one of the assailants struck him on the back with his pipe before taking $11.10 from him. The cuprits then fled west on Korte and disappeared. The blow on the victim's back was not severe enough to require medical attention, the lieutenant said.

The lad went home and informed his father of the incident and both then drove around the neighborhood looking for the young hoodlums, without success, before calling police, Lt. Duncan said.

The matter has been referred to the Youth Service Division for further investigation.

Study and Action Committee Sets Public Rally

The first meeting of the Grosse Pointe Study and Action Committee for Education will feature a public rally at the Board office, 369 St. Clair avenue on Wednesday, October 9. Beginning at 8:15 p.m., four candidates for the State Board of Education will address the gathering to which all interested citizens are invited.

Democrats seeking election are Mrs. Barbara Roberts, an employee of the Michigan Education Association in Lansing, and Roger Tills, an attorney from Swartz Creek.

Republicans are incumbent James F. O'Neil of Livonia and Mrs. Jo Saltzman, past president of the Birmingham Board of Education.

The Grosse Pointe Study and Action Committee for Education, the legislative subcommittee of the PTA/PTO Council, will be chaired this year by Mrs. Douglas Graham and Mrs. Richard Mills.

"We are sure that all residents realize the necessity of having well-qualified trustees on the State Board of Education. The group has a great deal of power and can have an impact on the programs of local school districts. It behooves interested citizens to take the time to hear and to question candidates seeking these most important elective posts," Mrs. Graham stated.

Mrs. Mills said the subcommittees formed last year will begin to function as developments occur in the Legislature. Information will be passed on to each of the following subcommittees: Labor, Observer Corps and Federal Relations, Special Education, Curriculum, Finance, Land Development, and Judicial.

Woods Clears 2 Attempt B-E's

Woods police have cleared two attempted break-ins in connection with the arrest of a 24-year-old Woods man, who's charged with the breaking and entering of a business stemming from his alleged involvement in the burglary of the Roslyn Market, 21020 Mack avenue, in late August.

With the apprehension of Larry Joseph Reininger, of Aline drive, officers had earlier cleared seven break-ins in The Woods, including the Roslyn Market. Farms police, meanwhile, cleared the breaking and entering of the Farms Delicatessen, 18660 Mack. A combined total of 11 break-ins also were cleared in St. Clair Shores, Detroit and Roseville through the arrest. Police said the attempted breaking and entering included those of Dr. Robert C. Thumann's office, 21223 Mack, on July 21 and Richard Cousino's office, Physicians X-Ray Center, 21008 Mack, on August 26.

Reininger's Wayne County Circuit Court arraignment and pre-trial conference is scheduled for Wednesday, October 9, police said. The suspect also is being prosecuted in St. Clair Shores on a breaking and entering of a business charge.

Seeks Solution to Problem

(Continued from Page 1) from the Director of Public Safety informing us that police officers from Grosse Pointe Woods will not respond to calls from the park in that they have little if any actual authority since our park is located in St. Clair Shores.

"At the same time, we have been told by officers of the St. Clair Shores Police Department that they actually have little if any authority to enforce our rules and regulations since they come from the City of Grosse Pointe Woods and this is a private park.

"The end result of this predicament is that we frequently find ourselves in the difficult and embarrassing position of having the responsibility of applying and attempting to enforce rules and regulations with little, if any, actual help available from either the Public Safety Department of Grosse Pointe Woods or the Police Department of St. Clair Shores.

Big Problem
"Again, this situation is an extremely serious one and should be resolved if we are to maintain the standards which will enable the Department of Parks and Recreation to maintain safe surroundings for our citizens and their guests," he said.

Mr. Hallmann stated a major enforcement problem throughout the year has been the congregation of large groups of between 60-80 people. These individuals often drink, "horse around" and scatter litter. Some persons have even turned over and broke picnic tables and have entered boats moored in wells.

This problem is a perplexingly bizarre one to say the least but one which The Woods, with the cooperation of St. Clair Shores, hopes to quickly solve.

Dialogue Seeks New Listeners

Dialogue, the Adult Hotline sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Family Life Education Council (FLEC), is recruiting additional volunteer listeners in the hope that their present hours, (Monday and Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.), can be extended. The service offers an anonymous listening ear plus information and referral.

Volunteer listeners receive approximately 30 hours of training over a six-week period in the following areas: values clarification, child development, counseling sexual concerns, depression-suicide, the psychology of drug abuse, and family counseling.

In addition, volunteers are trained to develop effective active listening skills as well as a working knowledge of available community resources. Dialogue prefers to use parents as listeners because a majority of the calls involve family problems.

Staff members spend two hours a week manning the hotline phones and they attend monthly staff meetings as well as occasional in-service training sessions.

Anyone interested in volunteering their time for this worthwhile community service should call Nancy Ulmer (881-5082) or Dialogue, (681-0270).

Noting that the Holden Fund has been a source of considerable and continuing support to Bon Secours for many years, including the annual medical education awards program which bears its name, Mrs. Gehrke said, "This latest evidence of concern for the ability of the hospital to serve this community is certainly in keeping with the Holden Fund's long tradition of benevolence."

Handyman and home workshop activities can be as hazardous to eyesight as many industrial jobs, claims the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness. Though the rate of eye accidents is lower in the home, the rate of visual impairments due to injuries is much higher.

Progress on Park Plans Being Made

Architect Puts Together Information on Pools and Buildings for Woods Council's Consideration

By Roger A. Waha
Progress is being made by the architect/engineer on The Woods Lake Front Park improvements front.

"The firm is putting together basic information at this point in time regarding the location and basic types of pools and buildings. However, there are no final drawings or plans now," said Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos last week.

He stated the firm will present information to the council regarding "the possible direction we should go" sometime during the week. The mayor added, hopefully, contracts will be signed with the architect within a two-week period.

Time Table Plans
According to the city's tentative time table, advertising for construction bids and bids for the sale of bonds will take place in November. Construction bids are scheduled to be received in late November, while bids for the sale of bonds will be received December 2. The awarding of the construction contract and the sale of bonds is set for the December 2 council meeting.

The council at the regular meeting Monday, September 9, approved the firm of Tarpata, McMahon, Paulsen Associates, Inc., of 1191 West Square Lake road, Bloomfield Hills, as architects/engineers for the proposed new swimming pool complex and other improvements at the park which will cost around $1,900,000. The vote was 4-3.

Decision Not Made
In another recreation related matter, Mr. Pinkos said no decision has yet been made regarding the appointment of another person to the Citizens' Recreation Commission to replace E. D. Grady, who was recently appointed to the Planning Commission.

"I've asked both the Recreation Commission and other interested persons to submit names of those who would be willing to serve," he said. The Commission at its August 3 meeting suggested that the council consider appointing a member of the Grosse Pointe Woods Boat Club to this post.

WINS APPOINTMENT
National Bank of Detroit has announced the appointment of Richard E. Gardner of The Woods as an officer of the bank. An NBD employee for the past 10 years, Mr. Gardner was named an assistant cashier in NBD's United States Division. He is a Correspondent Bank Representative servicing NBD's correspondent bank customers throughout Michigan.

Makes Offer to Crossing Guard Union

(Continued from Page 1) added the meeting was called by the mediator and that the city had no response to the letter from the union.

Back in Business
The council at a special meeting Thursday, September 19, agreed that the city should get back into the crossing guard business.

At that time, the solons unanimously concurred in a Committee of the Whole recommendation that in view of the fact that the Board of Education has refused to accept the responsibility of the safety of school children, they requested Mr. Petersen to re-establish the crossing guard program previously furnished by the city.

He also was urged to continue with negotiations.

In a related matter, Mr. Petersen said he asked the public safety department to study the possibility of eliminating more than one guard at the following crossings: Mack and Cook; Anita and Mack; Mack and Vernier; and Vernier and Mack.

He said the city used to have a combined total of seven guards at these crossings but only four are stationed at these locations now. "The public safety department reconfirmed that those crossings can be handled by four guards," he stated.

Other Aspects
Several other aspects of the study are being scrutinized, he noted, including the possibility of installing traffic signals at three crossings: Cook road at Holiday/East Kings court; Morningside drive at Roslyn road; and Marter road at Roslyn.

The council is currently reviewing a survey on these locations which was prepared by Reid, Cool and Michalski, Inc., traffic and transportation engineers, of Southfield. In all three instances, the engineers said it would be difficult to make any case for traffic signals at those intersections.

Another part of the study focuses upon the possibility of combining the Our Lady Star of the Sea noon hour crossing with the Barnes School crossing. "With the reduced enrollment at Barnes School, it's not feasible to have separate crossings," said Mr. Petersen.

He stated there's a possibility of consolidating some other crossings but declined to reveal their locations. Mr. Petersen added he's asked the department to report back to him their findings as expeditiously as possible.

Shares Concerns
Crossing guard Mary Moloci, one of the three guards who attended the meeting, said her colleagues were concerned over the possible elimination or consolidation of crossings and wondered, if this transpired, how many guards would be back on the job.

What specifically transpires on this front is an unknown factor at this time and awaits the department's report.

As for the pending vote on the city's proposal, Mrs. Moloci said she would wait to hear from Mr. Dickson.

Disclose Cost Per Pupil For 1974-75 School Year

What will the daily cost be to educate a child in Grosse Pointe's public schools during 1974-75?

Data supplied by the system's Department of Business and Finance show that, based on the proposed operating budget for 1974-75, the per pupil cost has been estimated at $7.71 for each of the 183 days of the current year.

The information that follows gives an estimated daily cost per pupil in each of the major budget accounts: instruction, operation, administration, fixed charges, maintenance, capital outlay, attendance, transportation, health, and student services.

The largest amount of the total, $5.69, goes for instruction. In addition to paying teachers' salaries—and those of such directly related auxiliary personnel as school librarians, guidance counselors, psychologists, and building principals—this money will purchase teaching supplies, books, and other necessary instructional materials.

Operation, which includes fuel, utilities costs, custodial supplies—along with the salaries of the district's engineers and custodians—will amount to 88 cents per pupil.

At the same time, system-wide administrative costs per pupil will amount to 29 cents. The funds expended will pay the salaries of administrators with system-wide responsibilities, related clerical salaries, and office supplies.

The schools will spend 43 cents per pupil per day on such fixed charges as fire, public liability, and property damage insurance—and on such other items as workmen's compensation, interest on short term loans and data processing as well as the costs of such employee fringe benefits as hospitalization, long-term disability, and life insurance.

The daily cost per pupil of maintaining school facilities will be 21 cents and this includes equipment replacement.

The daily per pupil cost in the capital outlay category which will finance improvements to buildings and grounds and the purchase of new equipment, is 3 cents.

The salaries of school social workers and related clerical costs will amount to 9 cents per pupil per day. Services will also be provided, on request, to the district's non-public schools.

Contracted services for transporting handicapped youngsters to various in-and-out-of-district schools accounts for most of the 5 cents per pupil to be spent each day, and the schools' medical expenses will amount to less than one cent per student per day.

Student services, outlays for food services, the operation of the bookstores in the secondary schools, and various student body activities will amount to 3 cents daily per pupil.

The $7.71 daily figure per pupil is based on an estimated 11,500 students and an estimated $16,888,546 general fund expenditure for the schools and libraries. The

Invite Parents Back to North

Letters of invitation have been sent to parents of students at North High School, asking them to the annual "Back-to-School Night" to be held on Tuesday, October 8.

Beginning at 7:30 p.m., parents will visit the classrooms regularly attended by their sons and daughters where they will meet the teachers and learn about course work. The staff of the school library extends a special invitation for everyone to stop there and view that facility. Refreshments will be served in the school cafeteria.

Students have already prepared their class schedules for parents to follow and these will be available in the first class of the evening.

"Back-to-School Night" is the fourth meeting of parents that the North High staff has hosted this year. Grade level meetings for parents of freshmen, sophomores and seniors were held during the past three weeks.

Club Features Castile Slides

Spanish-speaking enthusiasts are invited to the first program of the Grosse Pointe Spanish Club, a color slide presentation, entitled "A tour through the heart of Spain: Castile."

Senor Luis Gomez y Amador, the club's president for the 1974-75 year, will give the presentation in Spanish at 8 p.m., Monday, October 7, at the War Memorial.

Born in Cuba and raised in Spain, Senor Gomez teaches Spanish at University-Liggett. Previously, he taught in Connecticut and New Hampshire.

The Spanish Club meets at the Center for a cultural program the first Monday of each month during the school year. Other club activities focus around dinners with Spanish or Mexican food in the homes of club members or restaurants and meetings with other Spanish clubs for various programs.

Teachers and students of the Spanish language may attend the complimentary meetings, or may join the club. Annual membership is $3.

Chrysler Corporation announces a new car warranty with unlimited mileage for one full year.

For the first 12 months of use, any Chrysler Motors Corporation dealer will fix, without charge for parts or labor, any part of our 1975 passenger cars we supply (except tires) which proves defective in normal use, regardless of mileage.

And that's just the beginning.

We're confident that you'll find everything about our new '75's—from engineering and styling to economy—easy to say yes to. And for the clincher, we're backing them up with our new Owner Care Program.

It starts with a new 12 month, unlimited mileage warranty so strong and simple it's bound to generate questions. So, right here and now, we offer some answers.

Q. Unlimited mileage sounds simple enough. But what's the catch?

A. There's no catch. The warranty covers every part we put in the car. And it's good for as many miles as you can drive in 12 full months.

Q. What about labor? How much will that cost?

A. Nothing. If Chrysler Corporation put that part on your car, it's covered. Parts and labor. And that goes for everything except tires, which are covered separately by their manufacturer.

Q. But there are some expensive things that could just "wear out" if you drive enough miles even though they're not "defective." You know; brake linings, mufflers, shock absorbers.

Do I have to pay for them?

A. No. To a lot of people those might be considered something for you to worry about. But since we want to make your relationship with the car we make as worry-free as possible, we're ready to take on those responsibilities. So, even if they just wear out during the first 12 months of normal use, we'll replace them no matter how many miles you drive.

Q. That's a great "extra." Does it include everything that just wears out?

A. No. We expect you to take care of normal maintenance—the little things like changing filters and wiper blades (unless, of course, they're defective, then they come under the warranty).

Q. The only way you could top all that is throw in a free loaner. Uh...do you?

A. Sure. If you make an appointment for warranty repairs in advance, and the job cannot be completed from morning until evening of the same working day, participating dealers will supply you with a loaner. Free.

Q. Is there anything else I should know?

A. Replacing certain worn out parts, our unlimited mileage warranty and our free loaner program are all just the beginning of a new Owner Care Program, designed to make owning our new cars so worry-free, they'll be irresistible.

See your Chrysler-Plymouth or Dodge dealer. Ask him about his new cars, then ask him about "The Clincher!"

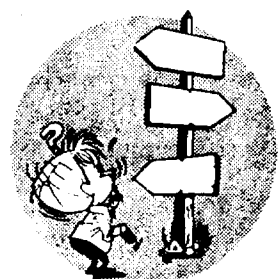

'THE CLINCHER!'

It's going to take better care of the people who buy our cars.

Pair Awaiting Trial for B-E

Two Macomb County residents were bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court for trial by Shores Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis on Wednesday, September 25, following their examination on charges of burglarizing a Shores home Monday, September 9.

Awaiting trial are Dennis Young, 19, of 21135 Eastwood, Warren, and Clifford J. Steggell, 22, of 14616 Jacob, East Detroit. They are accused of breaking into and looting the residence of Dr. Frederic Watts, 7 Crestwood drive, while the doctor and his family were away for several weeks.

All the articles, including the doctor's car, amounting to approximately $17,000, were recovered, when Young and Steggell were arrested in Ann Arbor by Washtenaw County sheriff's deputies, about three and a half hours after the burglary.

Shores Det. Sgts. Frank Mustazza and Charles Wenrich credited Deputy Sheriff Randy Evans and Dan Cook with clearing the break-in and recovering the stolen property.

The deputies, while on routine patrol, spotted the pair in a car parked in the driveway of a gas service station at about 1:30 a.m. Tuesday, September 10, and stopped to investigate. The burglary took place at 10 p.m. on the 9th.

Young confessed to Washtenaw authorities that he and his companion were responsible for the break-in. The information was relayed to Shores police, and Sgts. Mustazza and Wenrich drove to the Washtenaw County Jail to accept custody of the prisoners.

Evans and Steggell were held under $10,000 bond pending their examination. Their bond, was continued when they were remanded to the Wayne County Jail until a trial date is set.

Cinema League Meets Oct. 10

"Destination Hunza," a film made and narrated by Fern and Rip Zwickley, will be presented at the Grosse Pointe Cinema League meeting Thursday, October 10, in the Fries Auditorium of the War Memorial at 8 p.m.

Hunza and other principalities of Pakistan in the high valleys of the Himalayan mountain ranges will be featured in the film. Refreshments will be served following the showing.

Anyone interested in seeing the film or joining the League is invited to attend. Membership is $5 per person or $8 per family.

Meetings are held the second and fourth Thursday evenings of each month through May.

Appeals

sought council approval for all possible changes since he is not sure what improvements prospective buyers may want to undertake.

Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman voiced her concern over how long the construction on the house would take. She noted past problems The Farms has had with slow and uncompleted building projects.

"Vacant houses are unhealthy for the whole community," she commented.

Mr. Thomas assured the council the work would be completed as rapidly as possible, probably within the space of several months.

James Brink, of the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., won an appeal to construct a garage on the property at 64 Mapleton road. Bill Brink represented his brother at the hearing.

The home in question is a non-conforming structure according to The Farms building code. The request by Mr. Brink was to attach a garage to the home.

The building code states a garage cannot occupy more than 30 percent of the backyard space. Since the rear yard of the home is only 24 feet deep a garage would take up more than 30 percent of the backyard.

Councilman James Mast noted many neighboring homes have constructed garages that occupy about the same amount of space on their properties. He said there was a technical difference because these garages are detached and not attached like the proposed structure at 64 Mapleton.

He recommended that the council approve the request since it was essentially the same as neighboring homes. Mr. Brink said a deck also was being considered for the yard. A public hearing on that question was set for Monday, October 21.

The council approved the request to construct the garage by a vote of 6-0.

Only 7 Seniors Use Bus Service

By Roger A. Waha

When The Woods Parks and Recreation Department announced it was providing bus service for senior citizens to and from Lake Front Park this summer, no one apparently felt that only seven seniors would use this service.

But that's what happened. Only seven different citizens rode the bus, compliments of the Kiwanis Club, from July 15, when the service started, to September 4, when it concluded, reported Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallmann.

"We in the recreation department were not surprised at the result," he said. "Many seniors enjoyed coming to the park in their cars rather than in the rougher riding bus."

He also said senior citizens, by driving their cars, could then come and go as they pleased rather than follow the tighter bus schedule.

When asked if the service would be continued next summer after this year's tally, Mr. Hallmann replied that decision would be up to the council.

In retrospect, a main reason why this bus service was originally provided was the feeling that many citizens, who didn't have cars, or those who were unable to drive, would have an opportunity to visit the park when they wished.

In fact, at an organizational, get-acquainted session for senior citizens on June 27 at North High School, Senior Citizens Commission chairman Irene Sutton said 47 residents said they would ride a bus to the park, while 35 said "no."

When told of the number seniors using the bus, Mrs. Sutton noted that questionnaires don't always give a true picture of one's actions. Many people think they might do what they say but ultimately change their minds or answer one way or the other just to fill out the form. She stated, however, she did expect more seniors to participate.

"Most people are so used to driving their cars," continued Mrs. Sutton, who hopes to convince the Kiwanis Club to provide mini-bus service next year. With this, she said, a mini-bus service could pick citizens up at their homes if they called and requested this.

She hopes the service will continue next summer although its form could be changed.

There's going to be a special volunteer calling on you in a few days.

And that volunteer is going to ask you for money.

Money to help us help people. Through the nearly 140 community services supported by the Torch Drive.

Those volunteers have a tough, thankless job. One of the rewards is the knowledge that they're helping people who really need help. Another is that they get to meet some of the most generous and understanding people anywhere: the businessmen of our community.

So keep your eye peeled. They'll be calling on you soon for a Torch Drive contribution. A contribution that we're sure will help make this a better place to live. A better place to do business.

We never forget that it's people like you that keep us in business.

SEMTA Offers Concert Buses

Beginning with the Wednesday, October 11 Coffee Concert of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA), will offer park and ride service from suburban parking lot locations directly to Ford Auditorium.

Movie Making Class Planned

The first in a new series of movie making classes to be offered at the War Memorial will be held Thursday, October 10, at 7:30 p.m. The course is at the beginner level and limits itself to outdoor story-telling movies, thus avoiding the need for lighting.

Two amateur dramatic film makers, Dale Pegg and Dr. William Hoover, will instruct. Mr. Pegg is a professional television cameraman and Mr. Hoover directs the audio-visual department at South High School.

The course will consist of five evening lectures and two weekend shooting sessions to be held in groups of four persons. A script and actor will be supplied for the simple movie and the instructors will be with the smaller groups to advise them.

Students must have access to a movie camera, editing equipment and projector. The instruction is slanted at how to tell stories with film, not how to use a movie camera. Further information may be obtained by calling the War Memorial at 881-7511.

It will be offered for all five concert dates: October 11, December 6, January 24, February 21, and April 11. Pick up locations include The Woods Municipal Building, Mack Avenue between Seven and Eight Mile. The bus will be boarded at 9:15 a.m.; the cost is $2 for one round trip and $10 for five round trips.

Another location is the Grosse Pointe City Park, Jefferson Avenue and Neff Road. The bus will be boarded at 9:30 a.m.; the fare is $2 for one round trip and $10 for five round trips.

For the first time this year SEMTA will offer pre-paid tickets for bus transportation. To obtain a ticket send a check to SEMTA, Accounting Department, P.O. Box 333, Detroit 48231. Send a check for the exact amount and be sure to designate the pick up location of your choice.

For those not attending the entire concert season, occasional riders may pay the bus driver as they board for single trips.

However, concert goers are reminded that SEMTA is on an exact fare system and riders must have the exact amount of their fare. No change will be made by the drivers.

The season ticket fare for Grosse Pointe is $10. For information concerning this and other SEMTA park and ride services, regular scheduled service and fare and route information call 862-5515 or toll free at 1-800-462-5161.

Woods Police Aid Walkaway

A watchful Woods public safety officer spotted a man whom he felt was lost, learned he couldn't speak and that he had no identification and took him to the station. Officers then conducted a vigorous investigation and discovered the man, who was mentally retarded, was a patient at a nursing home.

Corporal Thomas Kerving saw the man, who's in his mid-60's, walking on Mack Avenue near Manchester early Tuesday evening, September 24, and drove him to headquarters.

The corporal checked many locations to see if he could be traced. These included police stations in the Pointes, Harper Woods, Detroit, East Detroit, and St. Clair Shores along with Wayne County General Hospital, Saint John Hospital, Detroit, General, Belmont, Georgian East, St. Mary Nursing Home, Rose Villa and St. Annes — all with negative results.

At 12:30 a.m. Wednesday, September 25, Sgt. Peter Thomas contacted Wayne County General and told them of the man. The sergeant said officers were unable to determine where he lived and advised personnel of his age, his mental and physical condition and that he didn't appear in the best of health.

The hospital agreed to accept him as a patient so the man was transported there and turned over to emergency room staff.

Then on Thursday, September 26, at 6:50 a.m., the Chandler Haven Nursing Home called and said the man was a patient there. Officers advised them to call the hospital and arrange for his release.

Tonight is Your Chance to Review A Proposed Regional Transportation Plan for Southeast Michigan.

A series of public hearings throughout Southeast Michigan continues this week in Wayne County.

They are an opportunity for citizens and elected officials to see, hear and inquire about a proposed plan for the development of our region's highway network and public transportation network.

The plan was developed by the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG). It is the product of several years of thorough study and analysis by SEMCOG staff, local elected officials who represent their communities in SEMCOG, and county and local planners who work with SEMCOG.

Tonight, SEMCOG officials will present the highway-transit plan with visuals, maps and related material. After you have seen the plan, you will have an opportunity to ask questions about it. You will be able to find out what benefits are in it for you and your community, as well as all of Wayne County.

Also on hand will be officials of the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA), and the Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation. They will be able to answer specific questions about public transportation and state highway development in SEMCOG's recommended plan.

A Chance to Influence

The hearings will give citizens a chance to influence the plan. Hearing transcripts will go back to SEMCOG and their contents will be considered for possible modifications of the plan.

Importance of Hearings

The hearings are important because government agencies such as the U.S. Department of Transportation and the Michigan State Department of Highways and Transportation want to know what you think about the plan.

Equally important, the hearings are needed because they will explore a highway and public transportation system that could have long-range meaning to all of Southeast Michigan's 4.8 million people.

If adopted, SEMCOG's transportation plan would become a regional guideline for city, township, county and state government. As the governments involved develop highways, public transit and related services in Southeast Michigan, they would be encouraged to act within the framework of the adopted regionwide plan.

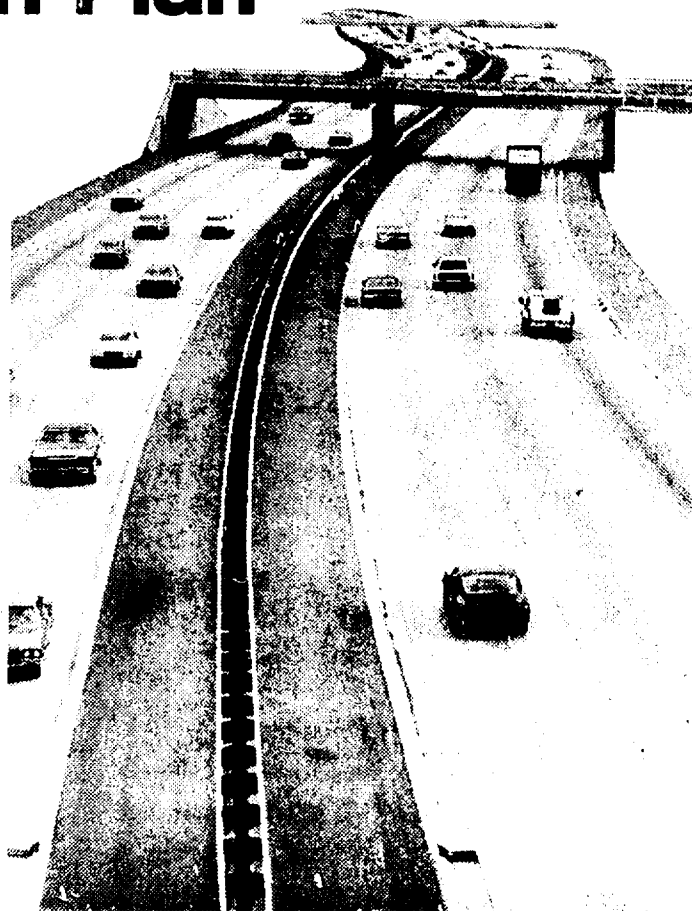

The plan is important. See for yourself at the public hearings.

- Questions should be stated clearly and as briefly as possible.

Council Will Get Answers

Farms Council members who have raised questions about an issue not on the agenda in the closing minutes of their Monday night meetings and never saw them pursued will have a new avenue of inquiry in the future.

At their September 9 meeting, City Manager Andrew Bremer told the Council members to submit to him a list of questions they have by the Wednesday before the Council meetings, and answers will be provided to them.

Mr. Bremer suggested the plan during the discussion of a proposal to schedule Council meetings at 7:30 rather than 8:00, their current meeting time. Councilman Joseph Fromm proposed the change to allow more time for questions and issues not on the agenda, frequently cut short to end long-running meetings.

"A lot of the things brought up are," Mr. Fromm said, "We say we'll discuss them next week, and then we never hear about them again."

Several Council members opposed the change, though Mayor Butler said the earlier starting time would impose too tight a schedule on members returning home from work at about 6 p.m. Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman remarked that the new starting time might confuse citizens and discourage their attendance.

As a remedy to Mr. Fromm's proposition, Mr. Bremer suggested that Council members submit any questions not on the coming week's agenda to him by the Wednesday before the meeting, and he would provide follow-up information at the meeting.

Woods Lions have now contributed $1,500 to the school this year. This total comprises one half of the amount required to place a blind person on the street with a dog. The funds were acquired via a variety of activities conducted in the area by Woods Lions.

Scholarship Fund Honors Former Pointe Educator

A scholarship fund in honor of Dr. Samuel M. Brownell, a former school superintendent in Detroit and Grosse Pointe, has been established at Southern Connecticut State College, New Haven. Officially called the "Samuel Miller Brownell Scholarship and Loan Fund," the project was initiated by the alumni association of the college which he headed as president from 1947 to 1953.

Dr. Brownell, a native of Peru, Neb., began his educational administration career as superintendent of schools in Grosse Pointe following his receipt of a doctorate from Yale University in 1927. He eventually served as superintendent of schools in Detroit from 1956 to 1966.

In between his service to the two Michigan school systems, Dr. Brownell guided SCSC, (known as New Haven State College at the time), through six years of growth and development from a one-building campus to what has now become a multi-million dollar plant. He also instituted the college's graduate program which currently serves nearly 8,000 New Haven area teachers and other professionals.

Dr. Brownell resigned his post here in 1963 to serve for three years in the Eisenhower Administration as U.S. Commissioner of Education in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. His brother, Herbert, also served in the Eisenhower Administration as Attorney General.

Following the 10-year period he spent in Detroit, Dr. Brownell returned to the New Haven area to accept a joint professorship in urban educational administration at Yale and the University of Connecticut which he has held to the present year. The 74-year old nationally prominent educator now resides in New Haven with his wife, the former Esther Delzell. They are the parents of four children.

Continuing tax exempt gifts to the Samuel Miller Brownell Scholarship and Loan Fund are being accepted by the Southern Connecticut College Alumni Association, 601 Crescent Street, New Haven, Conn. 06515.

Your driving habits are very important — not only for your own safety and that of other drivers and pedestrians, but also for the life of your car. More than any other factor, your habits affect the life your cars brakes may have. Unless you have to make a sudden stop, don't jam the brakes, and don't ride the brakes driving at steady speed. Both actions cause rapid wear. When driving down hills, shift to a lower gear and let engine drag do some of the braking.

Jaycees Slate 'M' Night Oct. 17

A special membership night will be held by the Jaycees Thursday, October 17, at the American Legion Post No. 303, 20916 Mack avenue, beginning at 8 p.m.

"We're looking for more new members to join our organization," said George A. Williamson, who added the special speaker at the gathering will be a member of the State Jaycees.

Mr. Williamson also said since the September 5 NEWS article in which the Jaycees expressed concern over the lack of unified community support for the Miss Grosse Pointe Scholarship Pageant, he has received several calls from citizens on where the money came from to make up losses accrued for the first three pageants.

He stated some citizens had gotten the wrong idea that pageant losses were taken from profits made from other Jaycee community wide projects e.g., the Jelly Week Sale and the pictures with Santa Claus project.

"Losses which we accrued in the pageants came out of our internal operations, such as our own dues. We never take away from profits made from other Jaycee-sponsored projects," he emphasized.

Mr. Foran learned the State supplier would not extend the quoted price to The City, so a contract was

Shores Police Nab Cyclists

Two Detroit motorcyclists gave Shores police a chase before they were apprehended in St. Clair Shores on Tuesday, September 10. Both were issued violation tickets for reckless driving and are scheduled to appear in Shores Municipal Court on Wednesday, October 9.

Farms Hires New Officer

Mark J. Brecht, 23, of Moran road, has been sworn in as a Farms police officer. Police Chief Robert Ferber announced Monday, September 23.

Patrician Brecht is a June graduate of Wayne State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Police Administration. Chief Ferber said Officer Brecht placed first among 138 candidates who applied for a police position in The Farms.

Officer Brecht studied at the Wayne County Criminal Justice Institute as a police candidate from the City of Grosse Pointe Farms. He completed his basic training on Friday, September 20, and will return on Friday, October 4, to take part in the Institute's graduation ceremonies.

Patrician Brecht has been a life-long resident of the Farms and has been active in the area in sports.

Cited for exceeding the speed limit on Lakeshore road were Roy Charles Klein, 22, of 13138 Longview, and Furman Lon Thompson, 24, of 4800 Eastlawn.

Public Safety Officers Daniel Healy and Gary Mitchell disclosed in an official report that they were patrolling east on North Edgewood after 7 p.m., and observed Klein and Thompson traveling north on Lakeshore road at faster than posted speed. The road is zoned for 35 miles an hour.

The officers said they utilized the crossover at the intersection and gave chase. Their scout car was traveling at 65 miles an hour and the cyclists were pulling away, starting north of Moorland.

Patrolmen Healy and Mitchell stated that the two men passed six northbound automobiles, using both driving lanes in doing so. The pair continued at a high rate of speed as they were negotiating the deep curve at 1100 Lakeshore, driving either side by side, or behind each other.

The pair were apprehended when they came to a stop for a signal light at Jefferson and Marter road in St. Clair Shores.

Patrolman Healy issued a ticket to Klein and Patrolman Mitchell gave one to Thompson, charging them with reckless driving.

Commodore

JOHN W. MURPHY was elected Commodore of the Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club at its annual meeting held Wednesday, September 11. He previously had held the office of Vice Commodore.

Also elected at the meeting were Robert Maddox, Vice Commodore; Donald Burns, Rear Commodore; George Gerow, Treasurer and Mrs. Bruce Lardner, Secretary. Directors-elect include Mrs. Richard Shannon, Dr. Leonard Bartoszewicz, Edmund Fairchild, Hon. Thomas Thornton and George Toy.

The newly elected officers and directors will assume office January 1 and serve for the calendar year of 1975.

NH Grads Help Hillsdale Squad

Looking at this year's recruiting job by Coach Doug Hansen, the Hillsdale College cross-country team has no worries for a winning season. Of the top freshmen recruits joining the Chargers, two are 1974 graduates of North High School, Tom Hammer and Dave Marsteller.

Tom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hammer of 577 Heather lane, ran number one for the Norsemen last year. During his high school career, Tom's talents helped him earn All State honors two years, All Bi-county four years and in his junior year, he won the State Championship meet.

At Hillsdale, Tom has run in the Taylor University conditioning meet and in a dual meet with Central. At Taylor University the team ran in pairs. Hammer and Bill Henshaw ran a six-mile course in 29 minutes, 31 seconds, taking second place and helping the Chargers sweep the honors.

At Central, Tom ran a first place tie along with John Yurchis, (number one last year), and captain Donnie Andersen, (all American), with a clocking of 26 minutes, 1 second. Hammer can definitely be considered a "top recruit."

Dave, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Marsteller of 1331 Hampton road, also is a hard running member of the Charger Harriers. Last year at North, Dave ran as the fifth man on the team. In track he also was a high jumper, having soared 6 feet, 4 inches.

Being a high school All Leaguer for two years, Dave is expected to be an asset to Hillsdale's team. At the Taylor University conditioner Marsteller and Greg Miller of Southfield ran as a pair with a total time of 31 minutes, 35 seconds for the six miles, to finish 12th out of 26 places.

At Central, Dave did a respectable job with a 28 minute, 56 second time for the five mile course. When asked about his goals he said, "My main goal is to make the top seven on the team, but I sure is a lot tougher than high school."

Woods Lions Plan Drive

The Woods Lions Club will have a used eyeglass collection drive Monday-Saturday, October 7-12, at many collection points, including all Pointe public schools.

Other collection areas include the main library, 10 Kercheval avenue; Manufacturer's Bank, Mack and Brys drive, Bob's Drug Co., 21034 Mack; Optometric Associate, Mack at Cook road; and Bachman Paint and Hardware, 19483 Mack.

The Lions would appreciate all used and unwanted eyeglasses.

Thieves Visit Building Site

Thieves, who apparently have an interest in construction, snatched some plywood at the site of a new clinic at Mack avenue and Oxford Thursday, September 26, reported Woods police.

Joseph Pagato, building contractor for the job, told Public Safety Officer Richard Priezt he was at the site during the morning and returned at noon to discover that 10 sheets of exterior plywood, valued at $14 a sheet, were missing.

He also said two weeks previous to this incident, someone took around 10 pieces of lumber.

Plan Parley for Parents On The Adolescent Years

Adolescents frequently experiment with sex, alcohol and drugs as they attempt to leave the world of childhood behind, become emancipated and enter adulthood. Often problems occur as a result — a breakdown in communication between parent and adolescent, sexual promiscuity or abuse of drugs or alcohol.

The Second Annual Conference for Parents on The Adolescent Years presented by the Northeast Guidance Center will deal with these and other normal problems of development.

The Conference is scheduled for Saturday, November 2, at the Dominican High School Auditorium in Whittier road, just north of Harper in Detroit. The general public is encouraged to attend.

Dr. Paul Pearsall, keynote speaker, will address the Conference at 2:30 in the morning on Adolescence and Parenthood. Dr. Pearsall is director and chief of the Clinic for Problems in Daily Living, Sinai Hospital of Detroit. He is also a Wayne State University faculty member.

He has frequently appeared on television shows, such as Channel 7's Dennis Wholey "Today Show." Dr. Pearsall received his Doctorate from Wayne State University in 1968 and has trained at several institutions, including the Masters and Johnson Clinic, St. Louis, Mo., and the Institute for Sex Research, Kinsey Institute, Indiana University.

The Northeast Guidance Center is the Community Mental Health Center serving eastside Detroit, Harper Woods and Grosse Pointe, providing a variety of diagnostic and treatment services to persons of all ages.

Registration forms for the Conference may be picked up at the Guidance Center, East Warren avenue at Cadieux road, Conference fee of $1.50 per person includes coffee and a snack.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Dr. Annette U. Rickel, program coordinator, 886-7923. Dr. Rickel successfully initiated the Parent-Child Conference series last year. She anticipates an enthusiastic response to this year's provocative topics.

Workshops to be offered in the morning at 10:30 o'clock, following the keynote speech, and repeated in the afternoon at 1 o'clock, following lunch, are: 1. Preventing Drug Abuse; 2. Today's Sexual Revolution; 3. Preparing for Emancipation; 4. Parent-Teenage Communication; 5. Respecting Adolescent Values; 6. Dealing with the School Dropout; 7. Coping with Parental Loss; and 8. Teenagers and Alcohol. Youth are welcome.

Woods Okays Roof Repairs

Two actions related to needed work on the roof of The Woods Municipal Building were taken by the council at the regular meeting Monday, September 9.

First, the council unanimously accepted the quotation of Square Deal Heating and Cooling, Inc., 10163 Gratiot avenue, Detroit, to replace the water tower on the building's roof. Their quotation of $3,883 was the lowest of the trio who submitted prices.

Second, the council unanimously authorized the payment of $3,880 to Dave Pomerville and Sons, Inc., 13484 East Seven Mile road, Detroit, for roof repairs.

City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher said the leaking roof will be repaired when the water towers were removed and before they are replaced.

In regards to this non-bid item, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said this firm was the fourth one which has attempted to discover the leakage problem. He stated this firm is the only one which has been successful in making temporary repairs.

The cost for each project will come from the Municipal Improvement Fund.

A Public Hearing was held concerning the clearing of vacant lots within the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, following which, the Council approved the establishment of a Special Assessment District consisting of those vacant lots within the City which were published in the Grosse Pointe News, issue of August 29, 1974, and which property owners were notified of the Hearing via First-Class Mail.

The Council, acting as the Zoning Board of Appeals, denied the appeal of Mr. Andrew Denys, from the denial of the Building Department to issue a Permit for the construction of a new addition to the south side of the existing premises of "Piper's Alley" bar and restaurant, located at 18096 Mack Avenue.

The Council, acting as the Zoning Board of Appeals, granted the appeal of the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Company, owner of the premises located at 54 Mapleton Road; thereby authorizing the issuance of a Permit for the construction of an attached garage to the home located at the foregoing address.

The Council, acting as the Zoning Board of Appeals, granted the appeal of Mrs. Ernest T. Davis, owner of the premises located at 319 Moros Road; thereby authorizing the issuance of a Permit for the construction of an addition to the rear of the garage located on her property at the foregoing address.

The Council, acting as the Zoning Board of Appeals, granted the appeal of Albert D. NOTICE OF HEARING
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

Notice is hereby given that the Zoning Board of Appeals will meet in the City Hall, 90 Kerby Road, Grosse Pointe Farms, on at 8:00 p.m., to hear the appeal of the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Company, owner of the premises located at 54 Mapleton Road, from the denial of the Building Department to issue a Permit for the addition of an unenclosed porch to the home located at the foregoing address. Such Permit issuance was denied for reason that the residence located on the foregoing premises is a non-conforming structure under the provisions of Article XIII, Section 1300, Schedule of Regulations of the City's Zoning Ordinance; and therefore, in accordance with Article XV, Section 1502, Item 4-A, of the City's Zoning Ordinance, no such structure may be enlarged or structurally altered unless a variance is granted by the Zoning Board of Appeals.

The proposed unenclosed porch is part of the house structure under Section XIV, Section 1409, Item 5 of the City's Zoning Ordinance, and would leave a rear yard of 12 feet. This is in violation of the required minimum rear yard building setback of 30 feet for the R1 District, which must be maintained according to the provisions of Article XIII, Section 1300, Schedule of Regulations of the City's Zoning Ordinance.

The addition of an unenclosed porch would increase the percentage of lot coverage to 44%. This is in violation of the required maximum percentage of lot coverage (excluding all buildings), which is 35% of the total lot area, and which must be maintained according to the provisions of Article XIII, Section 1300, Schedule of Regulations of the City's Zoning Ordinance.

The Hearing will be public. Interested property owners or residents of the City are invited to attend.

Cross Country Skiing a 'Zip'

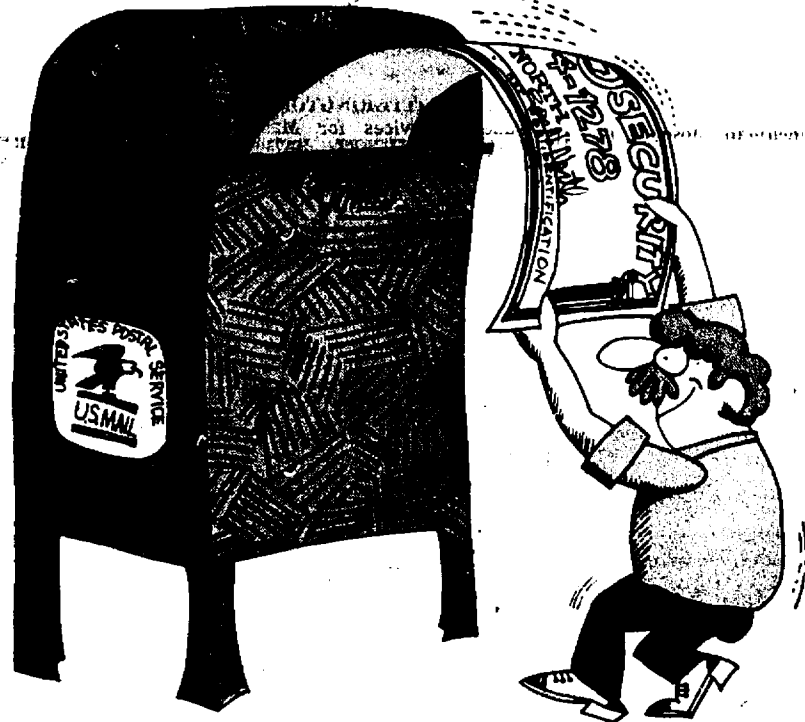

The idea of zipping down the side of a snow-covered mountain on two skinny boards might scare some people. Cross country skiing, however, is done on the flatlands and it might be the sport these would-be skiers are looking for.

The Neighborhood Club is offering an introductory mini-seminar in the sport Wednesday, October 16, at 7:30 p.m. at the club, 17150 Waterloo avenue. Families and individuals, young and old, are all welcome to attend.

The seminar will include explanations from instructor David Mays on various types of equipment maintenance. A movie on cross country skiing is scheduled and a representative from a ski equipment firm will display some cross country skis.

The club plans to offer lessons to individuals who request instruction. More experienced skiers will be afforded the opportunity to pursue their sport in group ski trips.

One View From The Capitol

By WILLIAM R. BRYANT, JR.

Four Statewide ballot proposals will be voted on in November. Each will be discussed in this column between now and the election.

Ballot Proposal A is a State constitutional amendment which would fix the present one-half cent of gas tax that goes into a public or mass transit fund at that level as long as the gas tax stays at nine cents.

It would also preclude expenditure of gas tax revenues for highway patrol purposes.

The proposal says, "The proposed constitutional amendment would, (1), prohibit the use of motor fuel tax funds and, (2), limit the use of motor fuel tax funds for public transportation to one-eighth of the amount received. Should this constitutional amendment be adopted?"

The proposal was placed on the ballot by action of the legislature in December 1972. Putting it on the ballot, however, did not indicate the legislature favored its adoption.

Certain opponents of using gas tax money to aid urban bus companies and other mass transit programs insisted it be put on the ballot. In return they stopped blocking legislation which allowed one-half cent to be used for public transportation.

Proponents argue gas tax should be used for highways, not for public transportation, and they want assurance that no greater portion can be taken than the present one-half cent of the total nine cents gas tax.

Opponents argue mass transit is a top priority, and that the gas tax is fair game for use for such purposes. They also say there is nothing sacred about a highway fund.

The other language seeks to preclude use for highway patrol purposes, because

North's Paper Takes Award

"North Pointe," the student newspaper of North High School, was awarded a first class honor rating in the 1974 Critical Service of the National Scholastic Press Association.

The newspaper competed against publications from schools through the nation in which second semester issues were judged.

A first class rating indicates an excellent publication, indicative of sound journalism, and high standards. The co-editors were Amy Taylor and Mike Murray, and Phil Guastella was managing editor.

Jean Wayne served as Page 1 editor, assisted by Joyce Mazurek. Mike Murray edited the opinion page along with assistants Doug Hubbard and Donna Dauphinais.

The feature page editor was Leslie Ann Kujawski, with Jerri Zeolla assisting. Bob Thompson and Brian Pastoria were sports editors with Roy Spezia as their assistant.

The photographic editor was Annette Spadafora, assisted by Bill Duncan and Nelson Walton, and Mary Koufos was exchange editor. Joyce Mazurek handled circulation.

Phil Guastella and Mike Murray were business managers.

This year's "North Pointe" is co-edited by Annette Spadafora and Jeff Lubeck. Jim Fisher is managing editor.

TEST CHILDREN

Does your child rub his eyes excessively, or blink or squint more than usual? These and many other points are common signs of eye trouble that parents should be alert to, says the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness. The best defense is for your child to have a complete eye examination before he begins school.

Know Your Schools

By James A. Adams

As the trustees and staff prepared the 1974-75 budget for Grosse Pointe's public schools and libraries, a number of problems had to be faced.

I shall use my column this week to provide additional information on the impact our schools have suffered as a result of inflation, the energy crisis, financial uncertainties at the State level, the need for financial reserves and the problem of accurately projecting the system's enrollment.

Inflation

An inflationary cost survey conducted by the Wayne County Intermediate School District reveals that between July 1, 1973, and February 15, 1974, the cost of bread increased 34 percent, gasoline went up 78 percent, and grass seed spiraled 118 percent. Were the survey to be extended, further increases in all areas would be recorded.

Energy Crisis

The energy crisis has been well publicized and has had an impact on every family in the nation. Our schools are affected, too. We plan to continue our energy conservation programs and hope the $41,318 increase will allow us to stay within the budgeted figure. In 1973-74 expenses for fuel alone increased over 20 percent about our budgeted figures because of the energy crisis.

In 1974-75 we are anticipating an approximate 8 percent increase in our utility expenses to meet the rapidly rising costs.

Legislative Uncertainties
After much legislative discussion each year, both in Lansing and Washington, we generally learn that our district will not qualify for general financial aid from either source.

Again in 1974-75 the Grosse Pointe School District will not receive a basic per pupil membership allowance under the State School Aid Act. As a matter of interest the formula for 1974-75 is as follows: $39,000 State Equalized Valuation per pupil, less the local school district valuation per pupil, multiplied by operating millage, (up to 25 mills), multiplied by enrollment of students.

The state equalized valuation for Grosse Pointe of $471,964,200 divided by an estimated enrollment of 11,352 students equals $41,575 per pupil. Because our State Equalized Valuation per pupil is greater than the equalizing factor in the formula, our school district does not qualify for a basic membership allowance.

We expect to receive $343,148 in State assistance for special education purposes including remedial reading, mentally and physically handicapped, emotionally impaired, teacher aides, social workers and school psychologists. We also receive other state assistance for driver education and transportation of students in special education programs.

As always, Federal aid represents a small portion of our revenues. The amount we shall receive in 1974-75, $136,540, represents the redistribution of Federal funds received from the State for such programs as vocational education, vocational and academic skills training program, and Titles I and II of the Elementary and Secondary Education Acts.

Financial Reserves
An effort has been made to establish an unappropriated reserve for emergencies. In this year's budget we have been able to reserve $30,649. Our school system should have at least $150,000 in reserve for unforeseen emergencies.

One event this summer has dramatized the need for such a fund. Replacement of the swimming pool roof at the Pierce Middle School at a cost of approximately $85,000 will take more than the $50,000 which had been previously allocated to the Building and Site Reserve for the 1974-75 school year.

Enrollment Forecasts
A declining birthrate and possible population shifts to outlying areas are only two of the factors that could affect the district's enrollment.

In February 1974, our preliminary projected enrollment for the 1974-75 school year was 11,250 students. This projection was revised in mid-August up to 11,350 students.

Our actual enrollment on September 13, 1974, was 11,538. This increase appears to be primarily due to the Supreme Court ruling on the Detroit Desegregation Case. Therefore, nearly 300 more students are enrolled in our schools than had been originally predicted in February 1974.

I have enumerated only a few of the problems we have encountered. But those I have mentioned are among the most pressing we have faced.

North Gridders Win Two in Row
By Bob Evanski
North High School's Varsity football team made it two wins in a row Saturday, September 28, by squeaking past unbeaten South Lake, 14-11.

The game was on the line for North in the fourth quarter when the Cavaliers had the ball on North's 33-yard line with only 10 seconds left.

South Lake ran their play and the only thing that saved North from defeat was Fritz Lehmann's goal line tackle. The referee signaled no touchdown, and the clock showed no time remaining.

In the first quarter, North lit the scoreboard with the first six pointer of the game on Chuck Martin's run of two yards. Pete Richards booted the extra point to make it 7-0.

North hit for another score in the second quarter as Martin again crossed the goal line, this time from one yard out. Richards kicked the extra point to give North a 14-0 lead.

South Lake scored a touchdown and popped in a two-point conversion. They also added a field goal. This made the score 14-11 and set up the climactic fourth quarter.

The Norsemen defense was superb in keeping the Cavaliers ground game to a meager 61 yards. Andy Agosta was especially instrumental in that department as he continually came up with big tackles.

The leading ground gainer for North was senior Gary Maier. He rushed for 68 yards in 15 attempts for a 4.5 yard average.

North's next game is at home against Roseville Braloe Saturday October 12. This is North's homecoming game.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford
Chief of Central Library

The professional football season has started once again, and to help the fan understand the finer points of the game, I would recommend THE FOOTBALL PLAYBOOK, (David), by Sam DeLuca.

Former offensive captain for the New York Jets and at present their radio broadcaster, Mr. DeLuca tells what he thinks a listener wants to know about formations, strategy, game play, and game plan — what is happening on the field and why.

Using numerous players and events from many games as examples, he carefully explains the work of the offensive and defensive lines and backfields, receivers, quarterbacks, linebacksers and kicking teams before he discusses offensive and defensive formations and the start of action.

The author's advice on how to watch the game is to follow the play through the eyes of the quarterback and middle-linebacker. Mr. DeLuca tells the reader how to do this, and he tells it very well.

For those die-hard Detroit Lions fans, I recommend DETROIT LIONS: GREAT TEAMS' GREAT YEARS, (Macmillan), one of a series of books sponsored by the National Football League.

In 1934 the Portsmouth, (Ohio), Spartans moved to Detroit and in their second season here, the Lions were NFL champions. This book records four decades of Lion football, some of it very good, some of it very bad, great games, great plays and great players tell their stories here. In addition are interviews with six former Lion greats — Dutch Clark, Buddy Parker, Bobby Lane, Lou Creekmur, Joe Schmidt and Wayne Walker — each giving their own view of the game.

Included as appendices are Lions' all-time scores, season by season, from 1934; Lions' records; and a Lions' all-time roster. Authored by "Detroit News" sports columnist Jerry Green, this book is filled with excellent illustrations, many of them in color.

For those who like their football with plenty of facts and figures, there is the OFFICIAL ENCYCLOPEDIA OF FOOTBALL, (Barnes), by Roger Treat. Within the scope of this large volume is information on each player who has performed in the NFL since 1921, as well as in the short-lived All American Football Conference and, of course, the game but not forgotten AFL. Illustrations of famous players, officials and teams, plus highlights of great moments on the field, are to be found throughout.

A year-by-year roster of every professional team also is included, as well as records of the top players down through the years. Valuable appendices contain scoring rules, referee's signals and a seating diagram for each of the 26 stadiums where professional football is played.

In 1972 Larry Merchant, who writes as well as he picks winners, decided to join the 12-15 million Americans who each week break the law by gambling on football. THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LOTTERY, (Holt), is Merchant's story of his experiences.

Gambling on sports was not new to Mr. Merchant, (he normally bets about $100 a game), but this time he went after big money, often betting four-figure amounts, (he received a $30,000 advance from his publisher), with the intention of recording his experiences and feelings over the course of the season.

What he offers here is not an expose, (he finds that pro-gamblers believe pro-football is honest), not a primer, (don't look for a system, although there are a few sensible generalizations on betting), but a fascinating diary-like account of his gambling activities.

Along the way he introduces some marvelous characters: Greenwich Village Fats and Frankie the Doorman; Gail, the author's sometimes lover for whom he places bets so she can afford psychoanalysis; and many more.

Mr. Merchant has written a colorful, entertaining book, and five-to-one you'll love it and learn a thing or two, whether or not you're a gambler. Oh yes, for the season he won $17,000 and change.

During the last 10 years any number of books on professional football have been written. The latest to be published is a very good one — THE GRAY-FLANNEL PIGSKIN, (Lippincott), by William H. Paul. Here young ex-Sports Illustrated reporter Paul strikes "where it counts most" — the front office where the professional game is put together to make sports news and big money.

That's where it's at and that's where this author concentrates his sometimes humorous, sometimes barbed wagonload of personality profiles, sophisticated inside facts and figures, juicy anecdotes and a naming names from player O. J. Simpson to owner Carroll Rosenbloom and the two women who own the San Francisco 49ers.

This is a book for the fan who wants to know something of the inner-workings of professional football. It is a book that evokes the game's hidden action: the sound of money being moved around. This is also a book that is very well-written and fun to read.

CFE Fetes James Adams

Members of the Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education, (CFE), and their guests gathered Wednesday evening, September 25, in Jacobson's St. Clair Room to meet and dine with Dr. James Adams, the new Superintendent of Schools.

After the dinner, John Cobau, president of CFE, greeted Dr. Adams and explained the purpose of CFE and outlined its contributions to the community. School Board president Mrs. Joan Hanpeter then introduced the superintendent.

In his address, Dr. Adams presented his views on education in Grosse Pointe and said he was pleased with the good working relationship he has with the Board, administration and staff.

Three items that are earning his immediate attention are the larger than anticipated enrollment, the Harper

Woods property transfer situation and the organization of a committee to assess school programs and curriculums.

Dr. Adams also commented that he would like to see an elementary school art program and more intramural sports introduced if there is enough community interest and enthusiasm. He suggested trying a pilot program in one school before offering it elsewhere.

Some questions that were asked from the floor following Dr. Adams talk were: How could high school counseling be more effective? How would the system finance additional teachers needed to relieve the high enrollment? What would happen if Harper Woods became a part of the Grosse Pointe system? How could a group like CFE be most effective in supporting the schools?

Having fun is good for one's mental health, and mental health is what the Northeast Guidance Center is all about, and the Center's Assistance League ladies are much too smart not to know that a MIXTURE of work and play assures a successful project.

So all the people who work especially hard for the Center all year are taking time out to enjoy themselves at a special party before completing arrangements for the League's October 19 dinner-dance benefit when they will "Swing with the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra."

Assistance League President Mrs. Vincent Lisotto and her husband will honor board members and general project chairmen at cocktails in their Buckingham road home Saturday.

Program To Focus On United Nations

Memorial Church to be Setting for Luncheon and Lecture Co-sponsored by AAUW, LWV and Church Women United

"The United Nations — A Search for Peace Together" will be topic for Sally Swing Shelley, chief of Education Information Programs of the United Nations Office of Public Information, when she addresses 300 area women at a 12:30 o'clock luncheon next Tuesday, October 8, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Mrs. Shelley, one of the highest-ranking women in the United Nations Secretariat, assumed her current post in 1973 after a distinguished career in journalism and education.

She began as a pony editor for Associated Press after leaving Smith College following World War II. She went to Paris in 1945 to become the youngest woman foreign correspondent on record.

At 21 she covered the Peace Conference at the Palais de Luxembourg, also serving as a feature writer for United Press International. Returning to the States in 1950 she became a radio news editor and news writer for the United States Army and the Voice of America.

Mrs. Shelley joined the United Nations Educational,

Scientific and Cultural Organization as Information Officer in 1957. She has served as a delegate for UNESCO to many UN General Assemblies.

Born in England of American parents—Raymond Gram Swing, the late radio commentator, and Betty Gram Swing, noted feminist leader who was responsible for a state-by-state campaign to achieve votes for women—she has traveled widely in North America, Europe and Africa.

After her Tuesday speech on the United Nations Mrs. Shelley will entertain questions from the floor. Her current work in planning activities for 1975 — The International Year of the Woman should be of special interest.

Seated among the audience as special guests will be three Egyptian women, each representing a different religious sect, in the United States to attend the Ecumenical Assembly of Church Women United in Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Younsi Nassif Liza, accountant in a Ford Foundation Field Office, is secretary for World Day of Prayer in Egypt and a member of the Coptic Orthodox Women's committee.

Sister Nadia Bishara, a Roman Catholic, is founder and head of the Sisterhood of Christian Unity in Egypt.

Mrs. Aida Gindy, UN Delegate from the United Arab Republic of Egypt, original speaker for the luncheon, is unable to be present due to surgery.

Co-sponsored by the American Association of University Women, Church Women United and the League of Women Voters, the luncheon is open to all interested women in the community.

Tickets at $2.50 each must be obtained in advance by calling Arlene (Mrs. John) Cobau, 581-1467.

Some have sung together four or more years. Their repertoire is varied, ranging from classics to contemporary musicals. More information may be placing longtime fellow board member Mrs. Sol Q. Kesler who is moving to California. Mr. Keydel is also a member of the board of governors of Wayne State University.

Other board officers are Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, honorary chairman, Mrs. Gard, president, Dr. Robert Luby, first vice-president, Mrs. William Lafer, recording secretary, Mrs. Nathan R. Goodnow, corresponding secretary, and Theodore Dauer, treasurer.

New members of the board are Mrs. Donald E. Young, Mrs. Hugh Redhead and W. Howard T. Snyder.

Friends Sought for Belle Isle

The Friends Belle Isle are conducting a fall membership drive in Detroit and its suburbs, seeking $30,000 to contribute to the City of Detroit.

Mayor Coleman Young has consented to the hiring of a nationally-known landscape architect to address many of the island's problems. The Friends of Belle Isle are joining with the Junior Leagues of Detroit and Birmingham to present the City government with $50,000 to pay for the planner.

The two Junior Leagues have raised $30,000 to date. Friends' President Marilyn Tuchow has appointed Ray Rickman to chair the drive.

Grosse Pointe Shores is marked for a mass mailing this weekend, and Friends are seeking members at scores of shopping centers, office buildings and public gatherings, selling buttons, posters and bumper stickers.

The poster was designed by Detroit artist David Shrader. It is on sale for $1 during October. All donations to the Friends of Belle Isle are tax deductible.

The Belle Isle support group has printed 250,000 membership brochures in anticipation of a successful drive.

Music School Seeking Funds

"There is a period in the life of every organization when it simply has to take a giant step forward, and that time is now for the Detroit Community Music School," stated Mrs. William Y. Gard, of Dean Lane, president of the school's board of trustees, to 50 trustees and friends at a 5:30 o'clock reception in the Country Club of Detroit Wednesday, September 25.

Robert A. Maynard, of Bedford road, 1974-75 annual gifts chairman for the School, announced that the annual gifts campaign goal is $140,000.

"The goal is higher than in previous years," Mr. Maynard explained, "because the School is growing in service and excellence. I am convinced that as the community becomes aware of the cultural and social benefits that the School generates new financial support will be realized."

"It requires discipline and dedication to become a competent musician or dancer. The School is the salvation of many students, providing as it does their principal motivation away from aimlessness and towards disciplined study and self-growth.

"The School is achieving important results, socially and artistically."

The reception was hosted by Mrs. Gard, Mr. Maynard and Frederick C. Ford, Jr.

"Our guests were drawn from the ranks of Detroit Community Music School trustees and their friends," Mr. Ford stated. "We used the meeting to disseminate information and literature, as an annual gifts campaign pep rally and to confirm the recruitment of volunteer workers who will personally contact potential contributors for annual gifts to the School."

Mr. Ford is a school trustee and member of the finance committee. Mr. Maynard outlined a new feature of this year's campaign: creation of an organization called Friends of the Detroit Community Music School, open to individuals, corporations, foundations and organizations. Membership donation schedule ranges from Friend for Life at $10,000 (and up), to Associate Friend (under $15).

Located in East Kirby street, Detroit, the non-profit School has nearly 1,000 students from within and beyond Detroit. It is noted for its excellent faculty, individual and ensemble instruction in all instruments and its outstanding resident dance company, Harbinger.

Financial assistance is given to students who are not able to pay their full lesson fees.

The School recently elected a new vice-president and two board members. Kurt R. Keydel was named second vice-president, re-

LEE (Mrs. Vollrad J.) VON BERG, of Stillmeadow lane, (center), general chairman of the 1975 Detroit Symphony Preludes sponsored by the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, presided at her first—and last—general committee meeting of the year last Thursday, reporting that the three mini-musical-luncheon programs at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial have been finalized. Now all that's necessary is for the reservations to start rolling in. The complete series is offered at $20 per person, the musicales-only series, (no luncheons), at $8. Single tickets for "Behind the Scenes with the Orchestra" Friday, February 7, The Harp Trio from "Adventures in Music" Friday, February 28, and "Low Man on the Tonal Pole" Friday, March 21, are available too, at $8 per program with luncheon, $3 without. Ticket co-chairmen are PAT (Mrs. John E., Jr. YOUNG, of Audubon road, (left), and ALICE (Mrs. Robert O.) REISIG, of Lakeland court.

Reveal Symphony Preludes Program

Three Mini-Musicals with Luncheons Will be Presented at Grosse Pointe War Memorial in 1975; Tickets Are Now Available

The popular Detroit Symphony Preludes series of three mini-musicals and luncheons returns to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial next year, and members of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra 1975 Preludes committee gathered last Thursday morning at the War Memorial to hear all about it from their general chairman Lee (Mrs. Vollrad J.) von Berg.

The first program, scheduled for Friday, February 7, Behind the Scenes with the Orchestra, will feature Marshall Turkin, the Symphony's executive director, offering insights on how orchestra members and guest artists are selected, plus an "audition" by Symphony Concertmaster Gordon Staples.

The second program, scheduled for Friday, February 28, Low Man on the Tonal Pole, will feature Robert Gladstone, bass, and Muriel Kibbey, piano, in an "expose" in words and music of the unsung hero of the string section, the double bass.

Each Prelude begins at 11 in the morning and will be followed by a question-and-answer period. Luncheons are scheduled for 12:15.

Series tickets are available at $20 with luncheons, $8 without. Single ticket prices are $8 per program with luncheon, $3 without.

Tickets may be obtained by sending checks payable to Detroit Symphony Preludes to 874 Lakeland, Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48230, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope with each order. Committee chairmen giving reports at last Thursday's meeting included Marj (Mrs. Winfield S., Jr.) Jewell, in charge of hostesses, Elly (Mrs. William H.) Bundesen and Florence (Mrs. Ray W. Macdonald, responsible for decorations, Fay Ann (Mrs. Felix) Resnick who is arranging for a West Side bus, Audrey (Mrs. John L.) Denman, in charge of publicity, and Alice (Mrs. Robert O.) Reisig and Pat (Mrs. John E., Jr.) Young who shares ticket and reservation responsibilities.

Treger Opens Zodiac Series

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra continues its celebration of the Schoenberg centenary with performances by Detroit-born Charles Treger of Schoenberg's Violin Concerto at Ford Auditorium concerts Friday and Saturday evenings, October 4 and 5, at 8:30 o'clock. Theo Alcantara will conduct.

The concerts also feature first DSO performances of "Three Symphonic Sketches" by contemporary Portuguese composer Joly Braga Santos, Mozart's Symphony No. 38, ("Prague"), and the two suites from Manuel de Falla's "Three-cornered Hat" ballet.

Friday night's concert is the first of four in this season's Zodiac series, inaugurated last year and now presented in cooperation with Wayne State University.

Special Zodiac feature is a pre-concert Prelude presented at 7:30 o'clock at no additional admission charge. Friday's Prelude will be a performance of the Woodwind Quintet, opus 42, by contemporary Danish composer Kjell Roikjer. Performing will be the five DSO principal wind players: Ervin Monroe, flute, Donald Baker, oboe, Paul Schaller, clarinet, Eugene Wade, horn, and Robert Williams, bassoon.

Another feature of the Zodiac series is half-price admission for students, who are encouraged to pay informal backstage visits following each performance. Remaining Zodiac concerts will be presented November 29, February 14 and April 4.

The previously-announced appearance of organist Ray Ferguson at this Friday's Zodiac Prelude has had to be postponed until February 14 because of alterations still being made in the Ford Auditorium organ loft to accommodate the hoist mechanism installed earlier this month for the new acoustical canopy.

The Saint-Saens Symphony No. 3 which has a prominent organ part has been removed from the concert program for the same reason.

Charles Treger, at 16 the youngest member of a major symphony orchestra (the DSO) in the 1950's, has gone on to become an internationally-known violinist while remaining a great favorite with DSO audiences.

He appeared as soloist with the DSO in 1953, 1963, 1967 and 1972.

He was the first American to win the famous Wieniawski Prize, (in Poland in 1962), and is an ardent advocate of the late romantic and early modern repertory.

Mozart's Symphony No. 38 (K.504), first performed in Prague in 1787, was the very next composition he completed after the piano concerto (K.503) played at last week's DSO concert.

Falla's "Three-cornered Hat" was first produced in 1919 in London, Santos' "Three Symphonic Sketches" in Lisbon in 1962, but the most "modern" composition on the program is Schoenberg's Violin Concerto, opus

SELLING YOUR HOME?

There's a local firm called Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. that has come up with a new idea in selling homes. If successful, it could change their industry in Grosse Pointe considerably. It's called GROUP LISTING, which means they will immediately purchase your home, at your asking price, once you have listed with them. The one circumstance, they say, is that they must have a group of five similar homes before their plan takes effect. Once achieved, they buy all five houses simultaneously. They say it's easier to sell five homes in a group because it's easier on the buyer and much easier to promote. For more information you can call Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087, direct.

Schedule Old World Market at International Institute October 3 to 6

The 42nd annual Old World Market, Detroit's original ethnic event, opens at noon today, Thursday, October 3, at the International Institute in East Kirby street.

Featured again this year are the arts and crafts, tastes and music of nearly three dozen nations, in a colorful indoor-outdoor setting.

Visitors may watch potters, weavers, doll makers and other artisans at work, dine in ethnic cafes, purchase food specialties of 15 nationalities, buy gifts from around the world, relax with a cool drink in the giant beer tent, dance in the street and/or see a variety of staged entertainments.

A wine connoisseur's corner offers rare wines by the glass. A counter handles a choice selection of bread and foreign cheeses.

Among the scores of volunteers working to make the 1974 Market a success is Mrs. George Panas, of Ridgmont road, a member of the Market Advisory committee who has been active in Institute affairs for a number of years.

Another is Gail Marie Artner, of Cadieux road, who works too for the Detroit Historical Museum and Detroit Adventure.

Still others are Judy Bailey, of Fisher road, Lynn Drumme, of Harvard road, and Frances Pascoe, of St. Paul avenue.

The Old World Market is a Depression-born project. It was first held as an outlet for the cottage skills of new Americans.

Profits now supplement funds received by the Institute as a Torch Drive agency. Although the Market reflects recreational activities taking place in the international center during the year, (folk dancing, ethnic cooking classes, et al), the Institute is basically a social service organization.

Newcomers find help and guidance in any one of 28 languages for many of the adjustment, educational, employment and other problems they face.

In the past year over 1,000 persons enrolled in the Institute's English classes. At least 10,000 received counseling or assistance by telephone.

Among the hundreds of volunteers working to make the Market a success are scores of persons who have directly benefited from the Institute's program.

The Old World Market runs from noon to 10 o'clock today, Friday and Saturday.

October 3 through 5, and from noon to 9 o'clock Sunday, October 6.

Craft demonstrations will be held throughout the opening day and evening and during the afternoons of ensuing days. Stage entertainment is scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights in the Hall of Nations.

On Market days East Kirby street between Woodward and John R is closed to traffic.

More information may be obtained by contacting the International Institute, 871-8600.

Named to the Taylor University, Upland, Ind., Spring Semester Dean's List is HARRY W. ALBRIGHTS, son of the JACK W. ALBRIGHTS, of Eastbrook court.

Grace Auxiliary Meets Oct. 1

The Women's Auxiliary to the Grace Hospitals will hold its first fall meeting at 11:45 o'clock next Tuesday morning, October 1, at Oakland University's Meadow Brook Hall. A tour of Meadow Brook followed luncheon. Mrs. John G. Bielawski is current Auxiliary president.

A "MUST SEE" is this gracious French country house being offered in one of the best locations in Grosse Pointe Farms. From the curb the house appears overpowering, but inside you'll find four comfortable family bedrooms and two more bedrooms over the attached garage. The first floor has a beautifully proportioned living room which is a step down from the large foyer with its circular staircase. The library is as large as many living rooms and the dining room formal enough for a State dinner.

IN THE FARMS within a short walk to the lake, Grosse Pointe South, Richard, Hill Shopping, a bus line and you name it. The newly redecorated house comes with two bedrooms on the first floor and two extra large bedrooms on the second. The two car garage is attached, and yes, there is a family room. Laugh at those high interest rates being offered today because this one has a large mortgage balance which is assumable.

THIS THREE BEDROOM English has an assumable 6% mortgage with payments of $273.00 including taxes. Within walking distance to the village shopping area, lot 50 x 134, two car garage, family room, finished recreation room and lavatory. Priced to sell at $37,000.

GREAT EYE APPEAL, both inside and out. This four bedroom colonial, painted white, is a strong contender for the "best buy" on Windmill Pointe drive. Special features are a library with fireplace and a family room. Super backyard with patio and plenty of privacy. A very attractive mortgage may be assumed. Priced to sell quickly so someone will miss it... don't you.

THE ARCHITECTURE found so prevalent in the English countryside is only one feature of this beautiful three-bedroom house set on a 60 x 135 foot lot in Grosse Pointe City. With a large living room, dining room and den with dressing room off the master bedroom, it is freshly decorated, fully carpeted and has three window air conditioners.

THE FRENCH HAD A FLAIR FOR IT. Albert Kahn Associates, one of Detroit's better known architectural firms, designed this French country house for its lake shore setting. The five bedrooms have four baths. A spectacular foyer opens to a library facing the lake. The living room and dining room both have lake views. A house to be looked into, not overlooked.

Burn Wood This Winter

Tired of giving your vacation money to the electric company? Need a computer to figure out your heating oil bills? Then do as your grandparents did: burn wood this winter.

Wood can save you money, says Dr. Mel Koelling, Michigan State University extension forestry specialist. He advises chopping your own wood as the cheapest approach.

If you don't own a woodlot, look for municipal wood waste lots, public woodlands or old logging roads. Do not trespass, Dr. Koelling cautions. Get permission before you start.

Permits are required in State forests. Obtain one from your local Department of Natural Resources forester or the DNR field office. In Federal forests, contact the district ranger at the nearest United States Forest Service ranger station. On private lands, get permission from the owner.

The small-time woodsman should have an ax, saw, sledgehammer and wedge. Automatic splitting machines and power saws are available for larger operations.

These tools may be bought or rented at local stores. Safety is advised with all tools.

The job of cutting down a tree is fairly easy. Leave as little stump as possible. Take care not to damage the surrounding timber with the falling tree, since damaged trees are easily infected by insects.

Trim the tree and spread limbs and branches you don't want over the area formerly occupied by the tree. This helps prevent erosion and provides a refuge for wildlife.

Then chop "the tree into sections to suit your needs. Use the sledge and wedge to split logs more than five inches in diameter. This allows the wood to dry faster. Do not use an ax as a wedge or a sledge; the ax head may come loose or crack.

At home, the wood must be stacked so it will dry or "season." Stack the wood to allow air to circulate.

If you store the wood indoors more than a year, check for insects. Carpenter ants and powder post beetles may be present, says Dr. Koelling, although they are rare.

For safety, keep tools well oiled, sharpened and securely fastened to their handles or chains.

Paper Source Near at Hand

Michigan's oversized Christmas trees may be one answer to the nation's paper shortage, according to Walter A. Lemmlen, Michigan State University resident forester at the W. K. Kellogg Forest.

Overgrown Scotch pines, intended to be Christmas trees, could be a new source of pulpwood, the forester explains.

Located throughout northwestern Michigan, the trees were planted in the late 1850's and should have been harvested nearly seven years ago. Owners neglected them and the plantations now are overcrowded and insect-ridden.

The pines serve only as a refuge for wildlife and erosion control, and without proper management some of the wildlife will be forced to leave.

More than 300,000 tons of paper can be obtained from forest thinnings before the final harvest around 1990.

The trees should not be forgotten, advises Lemmlen, since only 5 percent of them are usable as pulpwood.

Michigan State University Offers Home Canning Tips

All jellied products must contain four ingredients: fruit, pectin, acid and sugar, say Michigan State University consumer marketing information specialists.

Choose flavorful fruit varieties because flavor is diluted by the large proportion of sugar needed for proper consistency and good keeping quality.

Some fruits have enough natural pectin. Others require added pectin, which may be bought. For beginners, the added pectin method is suggested because fully-ripe fruit can be used, cooking time is shorter and there's no question when the product is done. Also, the yield from a given amount of fruit is greater.

If you want to make jams and jellies without added pectin, refer to an older cookbook or have an experienced "jam-maker" help you to develop the almost instinctive sense of timing needed.

Fruit pectin that you buy is made from apples or citrus fruits and sold as a liquid or powder.

Acid provides flavor and allows fruit to gel. It varies with different fruits and is higher in underripe fruit. With low-acid and fully ripe fruits lemon juice may be added.

Sugar helps form gel and preserves, firms and enhances flavor. Corn syrup or honey may replace some of the sugar.

Equipment: You'll need a large kettle—eight to 10 quart size—so the mixture can come to a full boil without boiling over. For jellies have a fruit press or a jelly bag of several thicknesses of closely woven cheese-cloth or firm unbleached muslin, and a stand to hold the jelly bag or a colander.

You may also want a clock with a second hand, measuring tools, food chopper, long-handled spoon, and ladle.

Bloopers: If your first batch turns out softer or firmer than you like make the following adjustments: for softer product, use ¼ to ½ cup more fruit or juice; for firmer product, use ¼ to ½ cup less fruit or juice.

Glasses: pour fruit mixture into hot jelly glasses to within ¼ inch of top. Cover immediately with hot paraffin. Use only enough paraffin to make a layer about ¼ inch thick. Prick any air bubbles.

A standard six-ounce glass needs about 1 tablespoon of paraffin. A thin layer can expand or contract readily and gives a good seal. A double boiler is handy for melting paraffin. Never allow paraffin to smoke.

Canning Jars: Pour hot fruit mixture to top of jars; put on lids and seal immediately. With mixtures that make fairly firm products fill jars to about ¼ inch from top and cover immediately with hot paraffin. Do not cover the paraffin with a tight-sealing lid.

Cool glasses on a metal rack or folded cloth. Cover with metal or paper lids. Label and store.

Prepare small amounts of jellies at a time. Do not increase the quantities given. The exact amount needed to prepare fruit and make juice varies with the fruit's juiciness. Crush and press juicy berries without heating.

To make juice with firm fruits like plums and apples, heating and added water are needed.

To extract juice, crush fruit, a small amount at a time. Place in a damp jelly bag or cheesecloth, held in a colander over a bowl.

man I've ever touched" by Mr. Dyer. "He is very talented and very competitive and so enthusiastic that you almost have to tell him to relax and not overwork," he commented.

Mark ran a 18:51 against DeWalle on Monday, September 18.

The fifth Pointer among Austin's seven varsity runners, Neil Gudeon, of Edgemont road, is a junior who may be sidelined for the season due to illness. "This is Neil's second year on the team, and he'd probably be in the top five if he were well," Mr. Dyer said, "but he's been in Saint John Hospital for two weeks and he probably won't return to the team this year."

He said Austin's defeat at the hands of Brother Rice on September 9 has not dashed his hopes of a strong season. "I expect we'll go to the State finals this year, even though our regional competition is very, very tough," Mr. Dyer said. "We blew it in the regionals last year, but I don't expect it to happen again."

He predicted a second place division finish for his team and a third in the 18-team Catholic Conference.

'Mind and Man' Lecture Topic

"Mind and Man" is the title of a lecture to be given by Joseph G. Heard, C. S. B., a Christian Science lecturer, Thursday, October 10, at 8 p.m. in First Church of Christ, Scientist, 282 Chaltona avenue.

The lecture which will discuss what is needed to cope with problems such as pollution, inadequate food supplies and the healing of disease, is open to the public without charge.

Mark Van Sile, a freshman, of Barrington road, has been termed "the best fresh-

Bring the edges of the cloth together and twist tightly. Press or squeeze to extract the juice. Strain the juice again through two thicknesses of damp cheesecloth, without squeezing.

In making jelly, the order in which ingredients are combined depends on the form of pectin. Boiling time is the same with either form. Don't begin counting until the mixture reaches a full rolling boil—one that can't be stirred calm.

Basic Steps:

I. With liquid pectin: 1) crush fruit; 2) extract juice; 3) measure juice into kettle; 4) add sugar; stir to dissolve; 5) place on high heat, stir constantly; 6) bring to full rolling boil; 7) add pectin; bring again to full boil; 8) boil one minute; 9) remove from heat; skim off foam quickly; 10) fill and seal.

II. With powdered pectin: 1) crush fruit; 2) extract juice; 3) measure juice into kettle; 4) add pectin and stir well; 5) place on high heat, stir constantly; 6) bring to full rolling boil; 7) add sugar; bring again to full boil; 8) boil one minute; 9) remove from heat; skim off foam quickly; 10) fill and seal.

Because fruit pulp and pieces of fruit tend to stick to the kettle during cooking, stir jams constantly to prevent scorching. To prevent fruit from rising to the top in the finished product, stir the mixture frequently for five minutes after removing from heat. Before each stirring skim off any surface foam. Stir gently to avoid air bubbles.

Jams can be made with or without added pectin. With some fruits you can also make jams that require no cooking—really easy!

Basic Steps for Jam:

With powdered pectin: 1) crush or chop fruit, place in kettle; 2) add pectin and stir with any required liquid, (usually lemon juice or water), together; 3) on high heat, bring to full boil, stir constantly; 4) add sugar, bring again to full boil; 5) boil one minute, stirring constantly; 6) remove from heat; skim and stir alternately for five minutes; 7) fill and seal.

With liquid pectin: 1) crush or chop fruit, place in kettle; 2) add sugar, (and lemon juice if required); 3) on high heat, bring to full boil, stir constantly; 4) remove from heat, add pectin; 5) alternately skim and stir for five minutes; 6) fill and seal.

Six Pointers Win Promotion

Six Pointers have been elected to top executive positions under the recent management reorganization of American Natural Gas Service Company of Detroit.

The announcements were made by Wilbur H. Mack, chairman of the board, and Arthur R. Seder, Jr., president. The service company is a subsidiary of the American Natural Gas System, and an affiliate of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company and Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Company.

The officers and their positions are: Sillsworth G. Reynolds, of The Woods, senior vice-president—administrative services; Karl E. Schmidt, of The Farms, senior vice-president—technical services; Roland J. Blank, of The City, vice-president—general auditor.

Others are Alfred R. Gancy, III, of The Farms, vice-president—corporate planning; Noel F. Mermer, of The Woods, vice-president—synthetic fuels; and S. Kinnle Smith, of The Farms, general counsel.

To Demonstrate Hang Gliding

A special free stage demonstration and movie of a new sport, hang gliding, will be given in the Erie Auditorium, Wednesday, October 15, at 8:30 p.m.

Hang gliding equipment will be displayed and there will be an opportunity to try the equipment. Techniques will be explained and demonstrated, and questions will be answered.

TIRE BALLET

Toeing in or out is bad for tires. An improper setting, with wheels on the same axle pointing towards or away from each other will cause tires to drag down the road rather than roll smooth and even.

A garden work bench of western wood 2x4s, with a slatted sunshade, can be attached to a fence.

Maple Syrup Time Is Here

Michigan is once again in third place nationally in maple syrup production, preceded only by Massachusetts and Vermont according to Marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Sugar bushes in the state produced 98,000 gallons of pure maple syrup this season, an increase of 48 percent over 1973 when unusually warm weather halted production early.

There are many ways to use the delicately flavored sap. Try it as a sweetener for beverages, a glaze for meats and poultry, sauce for desserts or a recipe ingredient in puddings, pumpkin pie, brown bread or baked beans.

For sweet treats this summer Michigan maple syrup producers recommend such goodies as maple mousse or maple pecan pie.

For maple mousse, beat three egg yolks, add one cup of maple syrup and blend well. Cook in a double boiler until like custard. Cool. Fold in a pint of cream, whipped, and 1/8 teaspoon salt. Pour into a mold or ice cube trays.

and freeze at least four to six hours.

Serve maple pecan pie topped with fresh whipped cream. To make the pie, beat together three eggs, ¼ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ cup melted butter and 1 and ¼ cups maple syrup. Pour filling into a nine-inch pastry-lined pie pan. Bake at 375 degrees for 30 minutes. Sprinkle ¼ cup pecan halves on top of pie and bake 10 minutes more. Serve cooled.

Maple syrup may be substituted for granulated sugar in many recipes, however baked goods made with maple syrup should be baked at about 25 degrees lower temperature than the same recipe using sugar.

By Janet Mueller

"From These Hands," an exhibit and sale of professional crafts, opens next Thursday evening, October 10, at University Liggett School's Cook road campus gymnasium with a 6 to 10 o'clock champagne preview. Admission to the preview is $5 per person.

Five dollars per person? For a champagne preview? You've got to realize what "From These Hands" is all about.

Certainly, it's a fund-raising project. The School's share of the proceeds will be used to fund the Foreign Exchange Program under which students from countries around the world are helped to spend a year at University Liggett.

But it's also a showcase, designed to spotlight the artistry of crafts, and a learning experience for students and the community.

It's something new, and it's something new. Hopefully, it will be the first in an annual series of professional craft ULS Foreign Exchange Program benefits.

Dottie Doerer is chairman of "From These Hands." Betsy Bushnell is honorary chairman. Neither is a "crafter," but if either were she would have to be pro-quality even to be considered for "From These Hands."

For this exhibit spotlights craftsmen whose work is an avocation rather than a hobby.

The Doerers have two children at ULS this year. John, 13, is an eighth grader. Julie, just turned 12, is in the seventh grade.

Their older children are Richard, Jr., 15, in prep school in Pennsylvania, and 17-year old Nancy, a University of Michigan freshman.

They've been a Pointe family, in residence in Washington road, for eight years now. Before that they lived in Ann Arbor, where Dottie grew up, where she and her husband attended the University of Michigan.

Likes Sports, Art Dottie enjoys sports—swimming, tennis—and is a "sometime golfer."

Art is a major interest. "My husband is really the avid collector. He makes the rounds of museums wherever we go."

But Dottie is no widely tag-along as far as art's concerned. She's done volunteer work at the Detroit Artists Market and taken a University of Michigan Extension Service Western Art Survey Course at the Art Institute.

Last year, with a friend, she studied watercolor painting. This year she's serving as chairman of Art Exhibits at ULS Middle School. That's a chairmanship Betsy held last year.

Dottie Doerer is involved, too, in the Junior Great Books program at University Liggett. She's a member of Deepdlands Garden Club. A backgammon board set up on a table in the Doerers' living room attests to the whole family's interest in the game. Who's best? "John," observes his mother, "is a very lucky roller."

Palm Beach Condominium Skiing and travel are two other favorite family past-times, and everyone, of course, loves to take a winter break at the Doerer condominium in Palm Beach.

When the Bushnells vacation they go "home," to the farmhouse in Leland that was Betsy's grandparents' and her parents', where she and her husband honeymooned.

At home in Grosse Pointe Betsy's commitments are primarily community-oriented. She is a Grosse Pointe Memorial Church trustee and serves on the Church Adult Education committee. She is a Merrill-Palmer trustee.

"And of course there's this Craft Exhibit." As a project it seems tailor-made for Betsy: she's always been a worker for ULS, and the Bushnells have first-hand experience of an American Field Service student. Haruo Miyamura came from Japan to join the Bushnell family and study at Grosse Pointe University School in 1966-67.

"It was a very challenging, but very happy experience," says Betsy.

Son in Upper Volta Now the Bushnells have their own representative overseas. George E. Bushnell, III, graduated last June from Bucknell, has just been gun a two-year Peace Corps assignment in Upper Volta. He's working in public health. Betsy's so proud of her 22-year-old oldest son's fit to burst, and the Bushnells are following young George's progress, via letter, avidly.

"To share this through him is just marvelous."

Their two younger children are Christopher G. Whelden Bushnell, 19, a sophomore at Connecticut College, New London, like his brother a ULS alumnus, and Robina McLeod Bushnell, an eighth grader at ULS's Liggett campus.

In her spare time Betsy enjoys gardening, swimming and needlepoint. She's program chairman for The Colonial Dames. "But best of all," she admits, "I like making a home for the Bushnell family."

Families Come First "Oh!" says Dottie Doerer, listening as Betsy gives her Basic Biography, (Dottie, for no particular reason, "went first" in the Basic Biography portion of the interview).

"That's what I like best, too. Put that down about me."

So I did. After the champagne preview "From These Hands" will be open to the public Friday and Saturday, October 11 and 12, from 10 until 5 o'clock. Admissions these days will be $1 for adults, 50 cents for children.

The public's most welcome at the preview, too.

What the public, previewers or regular day-ers, will be seeing is some 40 exhibitors, one-third or more of whom will be not only exhibiting and selling but demonstrating their crafts.

They're coming from all over Michigan, and from Ohio and Illinois.

Variety of Wares They're showing and selling hand-blown glass, ceramics, (including pottery), jewelry, weavings of all sorts, baskets, macramé, quilts, batiks, wood carvings, furniture, musical instruments, leather goods, metal sculpture, silver . . .

There'll be several on-going demonstrations just as demonstrations, no selling involved, including quilting, lace-making, pottery, (one

Rose Society Meets Oct. 9

Grosse Pointe Rose Society members gather at the Grosse Pointe Central Library, Kercheval avenue at Fisher road, next Wednesday, October 9, at 8 o'clock for their final regular meeting of the 1974 season.

Presiding at the 7:30 o'clock coffee and dessert hour will be hospitality co-chairmen Mrs. Paul Mahar and Mrs. Louis Parent assisted by hostesses Miss Marie Louise Anderson and Mrs. Norman Cure.

Harold Lee, of Lakeland avenue, will discuss Types of Winter Protection including things to do when putting your roses to bed for the winter. There will be a forum on which roses did best in the '74 growing season, with Mr. Lee extending opportunities to the audience to comment on their experiences.

Harold Lee is a Consulting Rosarian, editor of "Rose Pointes," the Grosse Pointe Rose Society's monthly bulletin, treasurer of the Grosse Pointe Men's Garden Club and a past-president of the Grosse Pointe Rose Society.

A question-and-answer period will follow his lecture.

The meeting is free and open to the public. Entrance to the Library is via the rear, (parking lot), entrance.

woman in this group has been making lace for 60 years), and a husband-and-wife team whose avocation is spinning, (he makes the wheels, she spins the thread).

Basketry, the fashioning of corn husk dolls and decoupage will be demonstrated, too.

There'll be two special exhibits, no selling involved. One, a display of antique quilts 100 years old or older, was shown in Toronto this summer and will be going on to Paris.

The other spotlights Northern Michigan Indian Crafts.

Hands Are Medium "Our exhibit title, 'From These Hands,' is derived from the idea that the craftsman expresses himself through the use of his hands," Betsy explains.

"Our subtitle, 'The Fine Art of Crafts,' indicates our belief that there are many art forms in the craft world," Dottie adds.

So "From These Hands" will involve not only folk but refined crafts—metal-smithing, for example, brought to the point where it is used to create exquisite jewelry or sculpture.

A special feature will be music by John Roberts and Tony Barrand, both English by birth. They've performed in England and Holland, Canada and the United States. Their repertoire includes American folk songs and English ballads.

There'll be a Coffee Corner offering light refreshments Friday and Saturday during exhibit hours.

Educational and Cultural "We want this to be a significant educational event," Dottie and Betsy stress. "We hope it will be a major cultural event in the community."

They hope, too, that it will raise a goodly sum for the ULS Foreign Exchange Program.

Golf Cart Gavotte

A covey of ladies, sans clubs, will be riding around the Country Club golf course in golf carts next Monday afternoon, looking at trees.

It may LOOK like the Golf Cart Gavotte but it will actually be a Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club meeting.

After their outdoor tour the women will adjourn to the Country Club drive home of Mrs. Wilbur Hadley Mack for tea, with Mrs. S. Kinnie Smith and Mrs. O. T. Thompson assisting the hostess.

The meeting's on for Monday rain or shine, but if it should rain the program will change to an indoor slide show.

Which would be a pity . . . the Golf Cart Gavotte sounds MUCH more fun . . .

Bounty From The 'Universal Farm'

Irene (Mrs. Alfred D.) Moran dropped by the NEWS office last week with a bag of plump, red tomatoes and a basket of beautiful squash, bounty from the Universal Farm where her son-in-law and daughter, Tom and Sibyl Clark, organically grow everything they eat.

Tom and Sibyl eat very well.

So does Irene when she goes "back to the farm" outside Bay City, which she does whenever she can, snatching day and weekend mini-vacations from her commitments locally, (the Grosse Pointe Symphony, for example), and farther afield, (Interlochen Arts Academy).

Tom and Sibyl put mother to work, of course. Irene picks until her hands are sore, and has the pictures to prove she can drive a tractor. And she loves it.

The young Clarks moved up to the Bay City area from Ann Arbor three years ago. They live in an 80-year-old farmhouse they've renovated themselves, and Sibyl's a fantastic vegetarian cook whose vegetable spaghetti rated a recent feature spread in the Bay City Times.

Two friends share joys and responsibilities of the Universal Farm, (so named because it belongs to everyone who lives and works there), with Tom and Sibyl.

They all hope to transfer in the spring to a larger property near West Branch, where they can expand and really put their ideas on efficient, communal living, independent as possible from the economic system, into practice.

under the Program's auspices since 1952. They've come from Norway and Colombia, from South Africa and Turkey, from The Philippines, Cyprus, New Zealand, Malaysia, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Sweden, The Netherlands, Italy, Brazil, Denmark, Paraguay, Spain, Argentina, Australia and Japan, (the Bushnells' Haruo).

They've added a dimension to the School and The Pointe. They've been living educational and cultural experiences for their classmates, their families and the community.

Ulrike Joins Peak-dys Sixteen-year-old Ulrike Tach, from Pottendorf-Landegg, Austria, is the current American Field Service exchange student at University Liggett. Ulrike is making her home with the Edwin N. Peabodys, of Lincoln road. Carolyn (Mrs. Tom) Killefer is current president of the ULS Foreign Exchange Program committee. The Killefers were host family for Denmark's Helle Markholt, last year's University-Liggett AFS student.

The more intimately people have been involved with the Program, the more anxious they seem to be to work 'or it.
