HEADLINES of the WEEK

A TENTATIVE agreement was reached last night by negotiators for coal mine contractors and striking mine construction workers. The United Mine Workers (UMW) union bargaining council approved the pact a few hours later, federal mediators announced. But it is doubtful the entire nation will return to full-scale coal production since the western Pennsylvania trucking companies which haul coal have refused to sign a contract with the UMW. Picketing by the 4,500 mine construction workers, who are UAW members, has kept nearly half the nation's soft coal miners away from work.

NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER was sworn in Thursday night as the United States' 41st vice-president. For the first time the U.S. has both a president and a vice-president not elected by the voters. The former New York governor was sworn in by Chief Justice Warren E. Burger in the Senate chamber before both Houses of Congress and a live radio and television audience. The House approved the nomination of Rockefeller by a vote of 287 to 128 after six hours of debate. Nineteen did not vote and one voted present.

AN AVALANCHE swept through an eastern Iceland fishing town and a portion of the community was carried into the sea. The snowslide was about 800 yards wide and killed 10 persons. Others are still missing. Officials said the snow slid off a 2,400-foot high mountain, landing on the town of Neskaupstaður. Numerous buildings, including a freezing plant, concrete factory and auto workshop were swept into the sea.

THE NEW YORK TIMES reported that an extensive investigation by the paper revealed the Central Intelligence Agency directly violated its charter by conducting domestic intelligence operations during the Nixon administration. The alleged operations were against anti-war and other dissident movements in this country. The Times stated that intelligence files on at least 10,000 individuals were maintained by the CIA.

A BOMB WAS thrown at the home of former British Prime Minister Edward Heath Sunday night just three hours before the scheduled start of an Irish Republican Army Christmas ceasefire. A housekeeper and another woman at the home, located about 100 yards from Buckingham Palace, suffered shock but required no hospitalization. Heath arrived home about 10 minutes after the explosion after spending the day in his childhood home of Broadstairs conducting a Christmas concert. At about the same time, three bombs went off in Belfast and three in Lurgan, 25 miles southwest of the Northern Ireland capital.

A STRANGE VEHICLE was seen approaching Earth from a northerly direction late this evening. A jingling of bells and occasional shouts of "Ho-Ho-Ho" accompanied the vision. Reports said the vehicle was a sleigh being pulled by nine reindeer, one with a bright red nose. Children were reported to be snuggled in their beds waiting for the driver of the sleigh, identified only as Santa Claus, to land on their rooftops, slide down the chimneys and leave assorted toys under the Christmas tree.

Farms Police Christmas Card Has Historical Touch

Reported to be the first department in the Metropolitan Detroit area to acquire an automobile, the entire Grosse Pointe Farms Police force posed for this 1915 photograph with their new vehicle. Circulation of the picture with appropriate greetings has caused much favorable comment this holiday season.

Yule Party A Success For Seniors

Ninety-seven Members of 'Woods Heritage Group' Participate in Event Held at North High School

By Roger A. Waha

There was a sparkling good turnout of members of the "Woods Heritage Group," senior citizens organization, at the group's Christmas party at North High School Thursday, December 19.

Irene Sutton, Senior Citizens Commission chairman, said 97 residents attended the dinner and meeting in the school cafeteria. Ten seniors then attended a yule choral concert free of charge on the invitation of North Principal G. Bruce Feighner.

Many Highlights

One of the evening's highlights was a tree of 75 stuffed felt birds made by Mrs. Sutton, Margaret LaFond, Genevieve Fitch, Gertrude Enders, Iola Stock and Hedy Cassel. The birds had the group's initials, "WHG '74", on the wings.

Other evening highlights included some brief remarks from Mr. Feighner and Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, along with the presentation of awards for the "Little Girls Dress Contest."

Crescent Sail Yacht Club Stops Filling Operations

Crescent Sail Yacht Club has stopped dumping and filling operations of land along the south side of the club's property until a permit from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is obtained. The Corps informed The Farms Council that the filling was unauthorized and the club had been told to halt. The council took the matter up at the regular meeting Monday, December 16, after the engineers requested the city's comments on the matter.

Crescent Sail is located at 276 Lakeshore road. Farms Judge Robert H. Pytell appeared at the meeting to present the club's position.

Judge Pytell said the club had not realized a permit re-

Two Youngsters Confess To Spray-Painting Sprees; Clears Up 15 Incidents

Admit Involvement in G. P. Farms Cases; Will Have to Make Restitution for Damage to Cars, Garage Doors

Two Farms youths have been identified by the Youth Service Division as the vandals who went on a spray painting spree on November 10 and 12, damaging cars and property in The Farms.

YSD Det. Wayne Baum said both boys, one 13 and the other 14 years of age, admitted their involvement in the vandalism only after a series of polygraph tests were administered to the 14-year-old.

Det. Baum said no charges will be filed against the younger boy while charges are still pending against the older. He said the plan now is for both boys to make restitution for the damages which are in the process of being assessed.

City Had Six Cases

A total of 15 incidents have been cleared with the boys' admissions including damage to cars and garage doors. All damage occurred in The Farms. The City experienced six cases of similar vandalism on November 12 but these cases were not cleared with the apprehension of the youths.

The damage was done with black spray paint used to draw obscene pictures and phrases.

The Youth Bureau first contacted the two boys after one was named as a possible suspect in a Farms police report.

Det. Baum talked to the boys November 18 but both denied any involvement. At that time, the 14-year-old agreed to take a polygraph test.

The series of tests was conducted December 11 at the Wayne County Sheriff's Department. Indications from the testing were that the boy was not telling the truth.

Was Told He Flunked

The following day he was informed that the tests did not clear him, but he maintained his innocence. That same day, the 13-year-old was interviewed by Det. Baum, who told the boy his story was not believable. The detective told the boy he was prepared to offer him immunity from prosecution, since he had a clear record with the YSD, if he would tell the truth about both boys' involvement.

The boy also was informed at that time that even if he were not charged in the matter he would still be responsible for property damage.

The boy then admitted his involvement in all the incidents except for two cars damaged at Cottage Hospital. He told the detective that he and his friend bought two cans of paint at a local store.

Confesses To Mother

The older boy confessed his participation to his mother that day and orally admitted his involvement in all except the hospital incidents to Det. (Continued on Page 4)

Woman Foils Purse Snatcher

A Lakeshore avenue woman, who had a strong "grip" on the situation, thwarted two young purse snatchers in the Wrigley Market parking lot, Seven-Mack Shopping Center, on Wednesday evening, December 18.

The woman told Woods Public Safety Officer Ronald Hayden that one of the youths approached and asked her if a nearby store was still open as she was entering her car.

Just as she was about to answer, the other youth grabbed her purse and tried to run.

But the lady held her ground and was able to pull the purse away from her attacker. Soundly defeated, the pair were last seen running west through the lot.

Both were described as white, between 12-13 years of age and wearing dark knit caps. One wore a yellow parka and the other, an orange parka.

Start Fund As Tribute To Lowther

Retired Principal of Defer School Wants Money Used to Further Outdoor Education

Friends of Jesse R. Lowther, recently retired principal of Defer Elementary School, have established a tribute fund in his name, to be administered by the Grosse Pointe Foundation for Academic Enrichment.

At his request, money donated to the Jesse R. Lowther Fund will be directed toward a program of outdoor education in Grosse Pointe elementary schools.

"There's more to life than our immediate surroundings," Mr. Lowther said. "It brings a whole new dimension to a student's life to see that classroom experiences don't have to be confined to four walls."

Much To Be Learned

Mr. Lowther feels that the entire curriculum can be utilized in an outdoor setting, and that an innovative teacher can steer students into varied environmental experiences. "There's much to be learned from the outdoors," he said.

A 1953 graduate of Wayne State University, Mr. Lowther received his Master's degree from the University of Michigan. After one year teaching special education in Detroit, he spent his entire career in Grosse Pointe. This included two years of fifth and sixth grades at Kerby and nine years of physical education in eight of the 10 elementary schools. He was principal of Defer for the last eight years.

Was Camp Director

During the summers Mr. Lowther has served as director of the Country Club of Detroit Day Camp and for four years was aquatic director of the Grosse Pointe City Park. He has also been an instructor in the Community Services swimming program.

His wife Irene teaches first and second grades at Barnes Elementary School. His daughter Jane is a senior at North High School.

Contributions to the Jesse R. Lowther Fund may be sent to 32 Lakeshore road, Grosse Pointe, 48236. Persons seeking further information may call 885-4911, 886-2854 or 996-7113.

Will Discontinue Seven Trips on Two Bus Routes

Decisions Affecting Service Modifications Approved by Board of SEMTA; Elimination Will Start on January 6

By Roger A. Waha

Seven trips on two Lake Shore Division lines will be discontinued Monday, January 6, after decisions affecting service modifications were approved Tuesday, December 19, by the board of SEMTA, (Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority). The actions were taken in an effort to help lower an anticipated budget deficit for fiscal 1975.

Four trips will be eliminated on the Kercheval line including Crocker to Detroit, 9:11 p.m. and 9:40 p.m. runs, and Detroit to Crocker, 8:02 p.m. and 9:44 p.m. runs. The 9:10 p.m. Eastland to Crocker trip also will be dropped but this is part of another run.

Meanwhile, three trips will be discontinued on the Jefferson Beach line. These include the Jefferson Beach to Detroit run at 7:48 p.m. and two Detroit to Jefferson Beach trips at 8:02 p.m. and 8:48 p.m.

Most of these trips operate Monday through Friday.

To Save $14,000 a Year

Dan I. D. Morrill, operations manager, said the Authority will save a combined, estimated total of $14,000 a year on the seven trips. This, he said, breaks down to a savings of approximately $12,000 on the Kercheval line and about $2,000 on the Jefferson Beach line.

In viewing the overall scope of service reductions via the Board's decisions, an estimated savings of $47,000 a year is expected. This includes the elimination of 64 trips throughout the entire system, said Mr. Morrill, who added the Authority's projected deficit for fiscal 1975 is $930,000. It had been previously projected at around $1.5 million.

No final decisions have been reached as yet on potential Sunday service modifications, he stated.

Review Will Continue

"We will continue to review all of our services which have low ridership on them and continue to make recommendations to the Board for service improvements or reductions, whichever is appropriate," said Mr. Morrill.

When asked if the Lake Shore Division has a low ridership, he replied, "The division doesn't have a low ridership but certain trips do such as on Sunday, the middle of the day or late in the evening."

Pair Rob Park Bank; Escape with $1,816 Cash

Two bandits, who waited patiently in line at the Michigan Bank, Jefferson and Barrington road, until their turn to approach a teller, each reached separate tellers and simultaneously announced a holdup.

The incident occurred on Thursday, December 19, at 4:19 p.m., according to information released by Park Det. William Furtaw. The robbers escaped with a total of $1,816, it was said. Neither man showed a weapon, and it isn't known if they were armed, the detective stated.

After scooping up the money, one of the holdup men reached into a third teller's cage and grabbed an unknown sum of money from the teller's hand. Both men

New Law Passed by GP Shores

General Misdemeanor Ordinance Will Let Village Handle Its Own Minor Crime Cases

By Barbara Bruno

A general misdemeanor ordinance was approved by unanimous vote at The Shores Council meeting Tuesday, December 17. The ordinance is designed to enable the Shores Department of Public Safety to prosecute misdemeanor cases that occur in the village.

Shores Village Counsel William Killebrew said the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office is "so snowed under with cases that they will not consider any misdemeanors, only felonies."

He said the prosecutor's office is insisting that all misdemeanor cases be prosecuted at the local level in municipal courts. Until Tuesday night's action, The Shores did not have an ordinance to cover the wide variety of misdemeanors that occur in the village. Because of this certain cases could not be prosecuted.

"Now we will be able to handle them right here in our own community," Mr. Killebrew said. "For example, a purse snatching or a petty larceny case will now be covered."

Has 12-Page Index

The ordinance will cover just about every misdemeanor imaginable. It contains a 12-page index to the offenses covered including assault and battery, indecent conduct, gambling and setting field fires.

Felonies will not be prosecuted under the new ordinance. A felony is a crime in which punishment can be state imprisonment. A misdemeanor is an offense of less gravity for which punishment may be a fine or imprisonment on a local level.

Mr. Killebrew and the Shores Department of Public Safety worked at great length (Continued on Page 2)

Area Shows 17½" More Than Usual

Colder Weather Would Have Even Made Matters Worse Reports Superintendent of Farms Plant

The normal snowfall for December in The Pointe area is 2½ inches, but as of Monday, December 23, the area has seen an accumulation of a total of 20 inches.

The rainfall this month totalled 1.2 inches when the days were warm, which means that there would have been another 12 inches, or an overall total of 32 inches of the fluffy stuff, if the weather had been cold.

According to Wendell Baker, superintendent of The Farms Water Filtration Plant, 29 Morros road, where official U. S. Weather gauges are maintained, the December 1-2 snowfall was the heaviest since April 2, 1886, for a 24-hour period when a total of 24.5 inches was dumped on the Detroit Metropolitan area.

If the weather had been colder this month, the rain would have made matters worse.

Escapes Snow

According to Mr. Baker, besides the 15 inches that came on December 1-2 within a 24-hour period, one inch of snow fell on December 9; one inch on the 19th; two on the 21st; and one inch on the 22nd.

Warm weather brought down 3 of an inch of rain on December 13; .02 on the 13th; .03 on the 15th; .14 on the 16th; and slightly more than .01 on the 17th, for a total of 1.1 inch, or a rounded off figure of 1.2.

Mr. Baker said under the formula of one inch of rain being equivalent to 10 inches of snow, and vice versa, The Pointe escaped another 12 inches of the white stuff, or the area would have really been in trouble. The 24-hour period during December 1-2 brought business to a standstill, closed schools, et al.

So far this month, including the first two days, this December's snow accumulation was the worst for any December and exceeded that of December 1962 when a total of 17.3 inches fell during the entire month.

On December 20, 1973, there was a total of 12 inches of snow on the ground. Of that, seven inches fell on that date and the other five the day before.

Police Probing Theft of Beer

A beer distributor delivering to a local tavern was the target of thieves who helped themselves to some of his stock while he was momentarily away from his truck.

Joe Merriam, the driver of a truck for the Eastown Distribution Co., reported the loss to Farms police about 1 p.m. Friday, December 13. Merriam told police his truck was parked facing east in the south Mack avenue alley at Belanger behind Devin Kelly's Pub.

Merriam said he returned to his truck after walking up to the bar door and found a quantity of beer missing. The thieves took four cases of returnable 12-ounce bottles and two cases of non-returnable 12-ounce bottles.

The driver said the doors to the truck were locked when he left the vehicle. A witness to the incident told police he saw red and blue vehicles at the scene and several boys taking beer and fleeing with it down the alley. The witness supplied police with a license plate number.

Farms detectives said the license number was traced to its owner and the case is still being investigated.

An honorable mention citation was presented to Alice Ronn, project chairman, who made one dress completely by hand as she doesn't have a sewing machine.

Project judges were Mrs. Harold Wolf, (Mr. Wolf is Kiwanis president), and Mrs. Bryson Sutton, of Bedford road, a Detroit teacher.

Schedule Activities
The "Woods Heritage Group" has an array of activities planned including a trip to Greenfield Village on Monday, December 30. Buses will leave The Woods Municipal Building, 20025 Mack avenue, at 9:30 a.m. and will leave the village at 2 p.m. Mrs. Sutton said tickets at $2.50 per person are available at city hall.

On Thursday, January 2, the group will hold its first meeting of the new year at Our Lady Star of the Sea, 575 Ballantyne road. The organization's Thursday, January 16, session also will be held at the church.

Mrs. Sutton said seniors from all the Pointes are invited to participate in bridge lessons, given from 9:30-11:30 a.m. on January 2, and also in painting lessons which start at 1:30 p.m. after the noon meeting. The cost is 50 cents per lesson in each instance.

Finally, Mrs. Sutton reported many trips are in the planning stages for seniors including journeys to the South Pacific, the Orient, Las Vegas and the Canadian Rockies.

The group also is planning to go to Hawaii for two weeks on Saturday, January 4. A maximum of 40 persons can go on this conducted tour. For further information, call Adele Ryder at 881-1750.

Okay Lakeshore Fence Solution

A solution to a fence problem at the Moroun residence, 515 Lakeshore road, has finally been reached by the Shores Council. The breakthrough came at the regular council meeting Tuesday, December 17.

Installation of a cyclone fence in front of the Moroun property was stopped several months ago by the trustees since fences are not permitted along the front property line. Mr. Moroun desired the barrier for added protection of the property from intruders.

The Shores Planning Commission and Mr. Moroun met to formulate a workable solution to the problem. By unanimous vote, the commission outlined a three-point recommendation that was unanimously accepted by the trustees.

The first point is that the retaining wall, dry wall and shrubbery planting now in existence along the front property line be continued in a westerly direction from the northwest corner of the property to meet the existing chain link fence constructed along the north property line. The commission next recommended that either a decorative wall, wrought iron picket with brick pillars or a decorative habitant fence, each four feet high, be constructed along the north side of the driveway from the retaining wall along the front property line to the residence structure.

The third point the commission noted was that it be understood the shrubbery planting along the top of the front retaining wall is an integral part of the wall structure for the protection of the pool located in the front yard.

City Continues Tree Program

In action taken at a regular meeting Monday, December 16, The City Council voted to continue its tree-trimming program and an appropriation for that purpose was placed in the current budget.

The City has carried out an extensive trimming program on rights-of-way for the past eight years, with the Department of Public Works providing clean-up services in order to cut down on costs. According to City Manager Thomas Kressbach, the program has proved to be quite satisfactory with 2,565 trees trimmed during the eight-year time span.

Last year, standards were modified to limit trimming to the removal of dead wood approximately two inches in diameter; the elevation or removal of limbs affecting street light visibility or house roofs and other trimming deemed necessary for safety reasons.

This approach permits a larger geographical area of The City to be covered each year and allows the overall cycle to be reduced to four or five years. For this reason, Mr. Kressbach stated, tree trimming should be contracted on a daily rate basis rather than on a price per tree basis.

The Council accepted Mr. Kressbach's recommendation that Shock Brothers, Inc. be employed at a rate of $175 per day to do the actual trimming work with City public works forces doing the clean-up and chipping as in the past.

Maximum expenditure will be $2,500.

Areas to be trimmed this year include Lincoln road, (Kercheval to Jefferson), Washington road, (Kercheval to Jefferson), Rivard boulevard, (Mack-south to Jefferson as funds permit).

Shores Law

(Continued from Page 1) to devise the ordinance. The Police Department was especially interested in its passage so they could be in a position to prosecute if such misdemeanors occur in the village.

Shores Det. Sgt. Frank Mustazza said the ordinance will enable justice to be carried out in a better manner for the community. He said the law will eliminate the need for officers to go down to Wayne County Circuit Court and obtain a warrant for offenses which weren't covered under Shores' ordinances.

He said in a case such as possession of stolen property under $100, the village can prosecute on its own rather than going downtown first.

Can Cope Better
Det. Sgt. Mustazza added that the local judge will be better able to assess and cope with the offenses in the municipal court than would an overloaded Circuit Court judge.

He said the ordinance not only covers new offenses but also updates and revises ordinances that have been on the Shores' books for a long time.

The ordinance covers conduct of persons besides those operating a motor vehicle. A separate ordinance covers driving offenses.

Mr. Killebrew said the ordinance would probably require more legal time on the part of The Shores in prosecuting these cases but that expense would be overcome by the revenues produced in fines and court cost assessments.

The vote to pass the ordinance was 6-0. Trustee C. F. Ogden was absent from the meeting.

Private Schools Report Growth

The University Liggett School is among independent elementary and secondary schools across the nation reporting overall enrollment growth during the past six years.

According to statistics released by the National Association of Independent Schools, private schools have enjoyed an increase this year of 5,258 students or 2.2 percent, and that figure represents the largest enrollment gain since 1968-69.

In 1972-73, ULS had a total of 968 students, and in 1973-74, enrollment reached 972. There is a moderate decline in ULS enrollment this year, but this trend coincides with an overall decrease in the number of school age children in Grosse Pointe.

Since the 1967 census was taken, there has been a 13 percent decline in the number of school age children in Grosse Pointe and a 23 percent decline in the number of five to 11-year-old school enrollees.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents were at the bank scene and the area where the car was found within a very short time to take over the investigation, which comes under their jurisdiction.

The robbers were both black males, police said.

One man was described as being about 30-years-old; about 5 feet 11 inches tall; slender, and having a pockmarked face. He was wearing a navy-blue ski cap, a long dark tan coat and a pair of black-rimmed glasses with shaded lens.

His companion was said to be in his mid-20s; about 5 feet 10 inches tall; having a medium complexion; slender and with Afro-type hair. He was wearing tan clothing, a brown leather coat and a hat with a large round brim with a black and red band. He, too, was said to have been wearing dark rimmed glasses with shaded lens.

End Trips

(Continued from Page 1) times have a low patronage, while noting that the Lake Shore Division is mainly patronized by people going to and from work.

Mr. Morrill noted the Authority is hopeful of receiving Federal operating subsidies as early as March, although "We're not assured of this." If subsidies do flow into SEMTA, its deficit could be reduced even further.

Under the Federal act's formula, the Detroit area would receive around $10.5 million. This amount would be split between the Authority and the Detroit Department of Transportation, (DOT). The DOT is expecting a deficit of between $10-$12 million this year.

Facing Big Deficit
Faced with the big budget deficit and rising costs, SEMTA's Board already took several actions on November 22 including a 10 percent fare hike which became effective Sunday, December 1. This transpired after a public hearing on November 21 on proposed fare revisions and service modifications. At that time, the Board deferred action for 30 days on potential service modifications.

Big Snowfall

(Continued from Page 1) month, when radio and television forecasters were telling listeners of four-six inches of snow, plus even more that was hitting the Midwestern states, The Pointe and surrounding areas were being pelted with 3.6 inches of rain and snow, which melted as soon as it hit the ground.

With 10 inches of snow equivalent to one inch of rain, that meant The Pointe area escaped another 40 inches of snow last month.

This type of predicament can be done without, record keepers said.

Rotarians Hold Yule Meeting

Over 100 Pointe Rotarians and Rotaryans attended the club's Christmas program Monday, December 16, at the War Memorial.

The event featured three North High School singing groups including a concert choir of 97 voices, a chorale group of 20 voices and the Honeytones, a group of 12 voices. Herman A. Clein, vocal music teacher, directed the program.

Rotarians report the program was a diverse one which included music from Bach, a calypso song, a rock rendition of "Tell Them I'm a Child of God" and some of the traditional music.

The program began with "Go Tell It on The Mountain" and closed with "Holy Night."

The final selections were conducted by G. Bruce Feighner, North High School principal, and included Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus," "Deck the Halls" and "Holy Night," in which the audience participated.

City Switches Payroll Service

In action taken at a regular meeting on Monday, December 16, The City Council approved the recommendation of City Manager Thomas Kressbach that Automatic Data Processing Corporation, in conjunction with the National Bank of Detroit, be authorized to perform the City's payroll services.

Since 1969, National Bank of Detroit had processed City payrolls, maintained payroll records and issued payroll checks for permanent, temporary and retired employees.

National Bank of Detroit has been phasing out its computer payroll services but Mr. Kressbach maintains the new service is superior to the old in that elaborate processing codes have been eliminated, individual payroll ledger records are maintained, scheduling around bank holidays is eliminated and pickup and delivery is automatic.

Cost of the new service averages $54 per payroll or $1,400 annually. National Bank of Detroit was charging $38 per payroll, or $1,000 annually, but those rates have been stable since 1969.

The council approved Mr. Kressbach's recommendation and authorized the transfer of $400 from the General Fund Contingency Account to the Professional Services Account of the Finance Department.

Santa Snatcher Causes Alarm

"Bah, humbug!" apparently was the thought of the snatcher of a 50-pound Santa Claus from the front porch of an Edmunton road citizen. The incident was reported to Woods police early Sunday morning, December 15.

The resident said he was out at 12 p.m. to unplug the four-foot figure for the night and discovered it missing.

Old Problem Needs Solving

The Farms Council went one more round with the problem parking lot behind a group of stores at Mack avenue and Moross road, Monday, December 16.

The council has had repeated communications with J. M. Kogan, owner of the lot, about cleaning up conditions there on a permanent basis.

Mr. Kogan has been informed that additional sweepings, trash pickups and surface maintenance are all desired by the council. This time, discussion centered around the presence of chuckholes in the lot, which some members inferred are bad enough to damage vehicles driving over them.

Mr. Kogan has agreed to let the Farms sweep the lot and then assess the cost to him but Mr. Kogan is responsible for keeping the surface of the lot in repair.

Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman expressed her dissatisfaction that a permanent solution to the lot's problems cannot be reached. She noted that as soon as one aspect of the problem seems to be under control, a new one surfaces.

She asked that the city report back to the council in January on options available to rid The Farms of this continuing hassle.

Farms attorney George McKean said Mr. Kogan will be apprised of the most recent complaint and he will also research avenues of action to be presented to the council in January.

St. John to Hold Clinic On Smoking Withdrawal

The Saint John Hospital Guild will present a five-day "Smoking Withdrawal Clinic"

Yacht Club

Judge Pytell said the fill already in the area is mostly concrete and sand material. He said the concrete was obtained from the Ford Expressway median renovation project.

He added that no dirt or soil that would pollute the lake is being used.

City Manager Andrew Bremer said the filling operation is well within the boundary line of property that has been purchased or is being leased by the club.

The work became necessary due to storm damage, high water levels of recent years and erosion of the property in some areas.

Judge Pytell said fill was inadvertently dumped in an area the club does not own. They will try to acquire that property since the filling actually protects a culvert and will spare it from more extensive damage, he said.

Mayor Butler said he was certain the club would keep the council apprised of future developments and said the council was satisfied with the procedure now being followed.

on Monday, January 13, at 7:30 p.m. It will continue through Friday, January 17. The clinic will be held in the Chapel of Saint John Hospital, 22101 Moross road.

It's one of many community health information programs sponsored by the hospital's guild. William B. McIntyre, M.D., guild president, said, "This program is being offered once again to the public as a free service of the guild in response to numerous requests received by the hospital for assistance in smoking withdrawal."

Heading the clinic for the eighth time will be John H. Burrows, M.D., an oncologist from the hospital's medical staff. A leader in the anti-smoking crusade, Arthur W. Weaver, M.D., chief of head and neck services at Veterans' Hospital, will also participate in the program.

Other speakers include James W. Landers, M.D., pathologist of Saint John Hospital's staff; Jaque Beaudoin, M.D., thoracic surgeon of Saint John Hospital's staff; and Donald Smith, M.D., oral surgeon at Veterans' Hospital.

According to the Michigan Cancer Foundation, which is cooperating with the guild in presenting the program, these five-day "Smoking Withdrawal Clinics" are among the most effective means yet devised to aid smokers in breaking the habit.

Plead Guilty Of Club Theft

A California man and a St. Clair Shores man both pled guilty to a charge of breaking and entering a building, at their arraignment Wednesday, December 18, before Farms Municipal Judge Robert H. Pytell.

Joseph Richard Hill Jr., 19, of Long Beach, Calif., and Donald Gregory Strobbe, 19, of St. Clair Shores, pled guilty to breaking into the Pro Shop of the Country Club of Detroit, 220 Country Club drive, Tuesday night, December 17.

Hill was fined $50, assessed $50 in court costs and placed on one year probation. Police said he was scheduled to return to California Friday, December 27.

Judge Pytell requested a pre-sentence investigation report on Strobbe from the Grosse Pointe Volunteer Probation Program before sentencing him.

The two men were apprehended by Farms Officers Samuel Cardella and Donald Dewey after a resident called police to report a suspicious car parked in Country Club drive.

The woman told police she was walking her dog when she saw a car drive slowly past her twice, park and two males get out of the vehicle. She went to a neighbor's home to call police. Officers Cardella and Dewey made a check of the premises surrounding the car which proved negative.

They then put the auto under surveillance and observed two men return to the vehicle about 25 minutes later.

The officers then approached the car and saw in plain view on the floor a brown paper bag with several shirts in it and some bars of soap with Country Club of Detroit wrappings on them.

Both subjects were placed under arrest for breaking and entering. A check of the Pro Shop revealed no visible means of entry. However, Strobbe told police he had worked at the shop at one time and had a key to get into the building.

The two men were taken to the Farms Police Department where each was released on $100 bond and scheduled to return for arraignment the next morning.

Items taken to the station and tagged as evidence included six knit shirts, a knit sweater and 48 bars of soap.

Offers Services to Taxpayers

Taxpayers in the Detroit area can obtain toll-free telephone and in-person assistance with their 1974 federal income tax returns Monday through Friday starting January 2. Service will be offered at all five IRS offices located in the Detroit metropolitan area, R. L. Plate, district director of Internal Revenue, said.

IRS personnel will be available to provide in-person assistance from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Detroit office in Room 240 Federal Building, 231 W. Lafayette, Plate said. Taxpayers can also obtain in-person assistance at the IRS offices at 22720 Michigan avenue, Dearborn; 33 N. River road, Mt. Clemens; at the Federal Building in Pontiac, Huron and Perry streets; and at the Heritage Office Plaza, 24801 Northwestern Highway, Southfield.

The IRS will again offer toll-free telephone service to make it more convenient for taxpayers to obtain information and advice. Toll-free telephone service is available Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. till 4:30 p.m. Plate said. The toll free telephone service numbers for the metropolitan Detroit area are: Detroit, 444-5500; Mt. Clemens, 468-4200; Pontiac, 858-2530. Residents in other area code 313 locations should call 800-552-8590.

Plate urged taxpayers to file their returns early. "Over 75 per cent of Michigan taxpayers will receive refunds," he said. "Early filers can expect their refunds in about four weeks, later in the filing period return processing will take up to 8 weeks," he said.

Rochester Routs South Swimmers

By Rick Thomas

The South High School varsity swim team was literally swamped by Rochester Adams, 102-70, in a non-league meet Friday, December 20, at Rochester Adams.

The Devils encountered a much stronger Adams team than had been expected, and as a result were unable to win more than two events. The diving event was one of these as Gary Jackson took first place and Pete Saggau took third. The only other first won by South was the 100-yard breaststroke event in which Eric Rodin not only took first place, but also qualified for the State swim meet with a time of 1:06.136.

Steve Swanson and Pete Frear came in with third and fourth place finishes, respectively, in the same event. Included in the meet were two relay events. In the medley relay, South took second and third places. In the 400-yard freestyle relay, the Devils took second place.

In the 500-yard freestyle event, South swimmers Bill Brownell and Mike Bernard won second and fifth place finishes, respectively.

In the 100-yard backstroke event, Drew Pillsbury came in second, Mike Gaitley, fourth, and Mickey Montagne, fifth.

The individual medley event had Pillsbury again second, Rodin, third and Gaitley, fifth.

In the 50-yard freestyle, Craig Swanson took third place, while Mike Scott took fourth.

The 100-yard freestyle event saw Scott in third place, and Rick Speer in fourth place. In the 200-yard freestyle event, Brownell took third, while Montagne took fifth.

In the 100-yard butterfly, Craig Swanson won third place, brother Steve was right behind in fourth and Tony Montague came in fifth. South swim coach Carl Schoessel commented that he doubts the Devils will swim against a stronger team than Rochester Adams this year. "Rochester Adams is one of the top five teams in the State, I think," stated coach Schoessel.

South will have plenty of time to recover from this loss since their next meet isn't until Tuesday, January 14, with Edsel Ford. Until then, the Devils can only pick up the pieces and make sure they're ready for the long swimming season ahead.

SHS's German Club Entertains

By Rick Thomas

Every year many interesting things emerge from the foreign language program at South High school. The German classes in particular are constantly organizing events involving not only themselves, but also the community. This holiday season seems to be no exception.

Each year the German classes organize a "German Club." Since the beginning of school the club has been planning many different events for the school year. Some of these include German dances, progressive dinners and a joint North-South trip to Germany.

Another high point of the year comes at Christmas time, when members of the German club traditionally go out into the community Christmas caroling while at the same time displaying German culture and holiday cheer.

This year for example, about 40 club members from South went to the German-American Cultural Center, (Das Deutsche Haus), in Detroit, to entertain at a banquet. There, the group found itself competing with a professional German choir.

It must be pointed out that the carolers from South sing only occasionally during class time in school and that is the extent of any practice they might have.

Thus, there were some damp palms and weak knees at the banquet, but as they finished, the singers received a well deserved standing ovation from both audience and choir.

Besides Christmas caroling, the German club also organizes events such as trips to Germany over Easter vacation. This year about 15 students and adults from North and South will be touring Germany by bus and

Cost of Water Remains Stable

The City Council, in a communication from City Manager Thomas Kressbach, at a regular meeting on Monday, December 16, was informed that no change is required in the cost of water purchased from The Farms during the current fiscal year.

This finding is based upon terms of the contract and audit figures for the year ending June 30, 1974.

World peace wouldn't seem so remote if we could manage a little more neighborhood peace.

Elect Pointer DBR President

The Detroit Board of Realtors, (DBR), founded in 1890 and one of the oldest Realtor organizations in the country, has elected Pointer Robert Lambrecht as president for 1975.

Other officers named by the newly elected Board of Directors of the 2,000 member organization include Pointer William Johnstone, who will fill the office of board secretary.

The officers will be installed at the board's annual inaugural reception Thursday evening, January 16, at the Roostertail. The event will start with a social hour beginning at 5:30 p.m.

Mr. Lambrecht, 38, has been active in DBR affairs for a number of years, and served as secretary in 1973 and first vice-president in 1974. He is also a director of the Michigan Association of Realtors.

He served as president of the Mortgage Bankers Association of Michigan in 1972. He has been active in that group's legislative and other affairs for the last decade. His grandfather, the late Richard G. Lambrecht, and his father, Edward F. Lambrecht, Sr., are past presidents of both the Detroit Mortgage Bankers Association, now the MABM, and the Detroit Real Estate Board.

A resident of The Shores, Mr. Lambrecht is a graduate of Taft School, Watertown, Conn. He received a degree in economics in 1959 from Wharton School of Finance of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Johnstone, the 1975 board secretary, was a director and vice-president ex-officio and chairman of the Residential Division in 1972. He is vice-president of Johnstone, Inc., and manager of the firm's Pointe office. His father, the late W. Gordon Johnstone, was president of the Detroit Real Estate Board in 1949. His brother, Pointer Peter B., was board president in 1971.

Mr. Lambrecht takes over the DBR presidency in one of its crucial years, wherein its large membership has many problems in common with allied industries, in residential and commercial construction, in housing and home finance, and government activities on local, state and national levels.

In a brief statement coinciding with his election to the DBR presidency, he said it was his intention to work closely with other major organizations in housing and the mortgage banking fields during the next year.

"I believe," he added, "that 1975 will be a year when there will be a revival in home building and real estate, with private industry setting the pace."

Proper maintenance, including well-spaced tune-ups will make a lot of troubleshooting unnecessary by heading off malfunctions before they reach the critical stage. And there are some factors, quite apart from the power plant, that may seem to make the engine malfunction. Tire pressures that are too low, for instance, besides being harmful to the tires themselves, can result in decreased performance, because the engine must work harder to drive the car. Dragging brakes can have the same effect.

Toys came to life at Saint Paul School on Wednesday, December 18, in a Christmas operetta entitled "Mr. Grumpy's Toyshop."

As a result, they were able to convince the main character that Christmas can be a joyous affair if love and goodwill exist in people's hearts.

Carolyn Thomas, Julie McGann, Tom Willets, Jacques Wolfe, Rick Campbell, Carolyn Pingree, Elizabeth Kelly, Patty McFadden and Sue DuMouchelle were among those with starring roles in the production.

The program was put on free for the benefit of Saint Paul parishioners and especially dedicated to senior citizens of the parish.

Students Host Special Lunch Guest

Santa came to lunch at Richard School on Friday, December 13, and captured the collective heart of the school's kindergarten class. The North Pole resident, on leave from his post in Jacobson's in the Village, captivated 116 youngsters in all — not to mention the four teachers, Mrs. Dorothy Kennel, Mrs. Anne Thomas, Mrs. Claire Perry and Mrs. Agnes Strachan, as well as a number of mothers who supplied their invaluable assistance for the occasion.

The kids put themselves in the right frame of mind earlier in the morning when they drew "letters" to Santa, depicting what item they most wanted to find under the tree on Christmas day.

According to the teachers, race car sets, dolls, walkie-talkies and telescopes were some of the more popular requests.

At approximately 11 a.m., Mrs. Perry brought the man of the hour up the "chimney" to the school attic, via elevator. When the door opened, one little boy burst into tears, but most of the youngsters were eager to welcome their visitor and he was ushered in to take his seat among the children.

To dispel rumors that perhaps this Santa was merely one of the school's male faculty members, all the men in the building put in a brief, simultaneous appearance. "They were so sure it would be Mr. (Bernard) LeMieux, (the physical education teacher), or Mr. (Ted) Jacobs, (the principal)," Mrs. Perry explained.

The attic walls were decorated with huge, bright red, white and black construction paper Santas that all the children had helped to make.

While the teachers and their corps of mother assistants served milk and straw, the children ate noisily, anticipating what they would say when Santa stopped by to collect their pictorial letters.

When he did make rounds to the tables, each child was asked if he or she had been good. Approached individually, many youngsters turned suddenly shy, but others rushed up to hand him their pictures, unable to wait until he made it to their tables.

"A lot of them just don't know what to make of it," Mrs. Perry remarked. "They used to going to see him — then leaving. They've never been with him for any length of time."

When it was time for Santa to hitch up his reindeer and go, he passed out candy canes and exited down the chimney to a chorus of goodbyes.

This is the second year Santa has shared lunch with Richard kindergartners, and judging from the popularity of the occasion it's apt to become an annual event.

Says Yule Calls Will Set Record

Michigan Bell predicted a record number of long distance calls on Christmas Day. Christmas is the busiest holiday of the year for the telephone company and this year calling volumes will be greater than ever, the company said last week.

"Last year, when a great many Michigan residents stayed home over the holiday because of the energy crunch, long distance calling increased more than 13 percent," said Frank R. Zimmerman, Bell's general manager-operator services. "The company expects holiday calling will increase about 10% percent this year.

"If people don't travel as much over the holiday, they are still going to want to talk to their families," Mr. Zimmerman said, "and that means long distance calls will increase again this year."

He predicted that Michigan residents will make about 1,120,000 long distance calls this Christmas compared to slightly more than one million calls last year.

The majority of long distance holiday calls originating in Michigan last year were made to other points within the state, Mr. Zimmerman stated. The same pattern is expected this year with about 670,000 long distance calls within the state and another 450,000 calls to other states.

About 100,000 long distance calls are expected to be handled by operators, with the remainder dialed directly by customers, he said. Statewide, some 2,600 Michigan Bell operator service employees will work on Christmas Day helping customers with their calls, Mr. Zimmerman added.

Nationwide, the Bell System anticipates about 13.5 million interstate long distance calls, (calls between states), will be made.

Hockey Blues Split Six Games

The Grosse Pointe Blues, playing their regular season, resumed their regularly scheduled play after being dropped out of the Thanksgiving Tournament.

Their first game was played Thursday, December 5, against Dearborn Adray, who won 6-5. This encounter was a free-wheeling affair with little regard for defensive play. Both goalies were justified in thinking that shooting drills were being conducted.

Blues' scores were made by Ron Schocker, Tom Dow, John Mueller, two, and Erich Avedisian. Assists were credited to Tim Luzadre, Pat Boli, Shocker, Peter Eiland and Mueller. Peter Eiland also played well.

On Sunday, December 8, the Blues hosted the Club 240 team from Windsor in a non-league exhibition, but forgot that hospitality didn't include the complete surrender of their ice to the guests. The result was a 4-2 loss to a well-drilled team.

Luzadre and Mueller combined to produce Luzadre's goal, and Mueller notched the second goal of the game.

At the Fraser Arena on Monday, December 9, the Blues rewarded their faithful fans with an overwhelming victory over the Jenik Ice Men, 6-2. Mueller scored three goals, Avedisian, two, and Phil Brykalski accounted for the remaining tally.

The dawn of Thursday, December 12, was anticipated by the Blues and their dotting fans as the end of the Little Caesar's jinx. Winless for two years, the Pointers appeared ready for the match. However, this non-league event was used as a crucible to test several realignments of the players. The result was edifying but nonetheless a 5-0 loss.

Against the Stirling Rockets, the Blues regained the winning combination, 4-1, on Monday, December 16, at Austin. Pat McKee, in goal, deftly fended off several surges to hold the Rockets to

Pharmacy Footnotes

DEVONSHIRE DRUGS

One of the most serious respiratory diseases is influenza, for it is able consistently to attack people of all ages, throughout the world. Incidence frequently is highest, interestingly enough, in young adults. Influenza is an example of a disease that has increased in virulence through the years, although since 1912, it seems to have lost some of its power. Influenza has periodically been epidemic in the United States. One of the most serious world-wide outbreaks occurred in 1918-1919. Some twenty million cases of influenza were recorded in that year.

The standard advice of plenty of rest, juices and aspirin is still good for "flu" suffers, but when your doctor gives you a special prescription, bring it to DEVONSHIRE DRUGS 16037 Mack. ("on the block"), for prompt, professional service. We work closely with your doctor to give you personalized attention. We also have a complete line of liquor, beer and wine, greeting cards and candy. Call us today for free prescription delivery at 881-0173. We are open Monday through Saturday from 9 A.M. until 9 P.M.

Christmas Communication

Principal James A. Hoeh of Grosse Pointe South High School has made the holidays particularly happy ones for a number of parents of students attending that institution.

In one of the most thoughtful demonstrations of communication that has come to our attention, he has written letters to these parents. An example follows, with names deleted. He has set an example which could well be followed by others involved in the very important business of educating our youth.

December 13, 1974

Dear Mr. and Mrs. . . .

For a variety of reasons, many students experience considerable apprehensiveness when transferring from middle school to high school. In Grosse Pointe, this adjustment is particularly difficult because the middle schools are much smaller than the high schools. By earning a Grade Point Average of 3.82 for the first marking period, your daughter . . . has indicated that she has made the transition with comparative ease. As her parents, you are to be congratulated for fostering in her a desire to achieve at a superior level and for your apparent effort in minimizing any frustrations which she may have felt during the first few months in a new educational setting.

We are hopeful that . . . will continue her fine performance and we also extend holiday wishes to your entire family.

SINCERELY,
James A. Hoeh
Principal, South High School

The recipients of this letter put it very succinctly . . . "What better Christmas present could we receive!"

Know Your Schools

By Dr. James A. Adams,
Superintendent

As I become better acquainted with the school system, I have been impressed by a number of facets of our instructional program. Although parents of girls and boys attending Parcels Middle School may find it "old hat," I would like to share with the community-at-large my findings on that building's "Social Studies Individualized Elective Program."

The Parcels program was initiated in the 1968-69 school year as a pilot program. It has been in continuous operation since then and presently serves over 700 students in grades seven and eight.

The decision to depart from a traditional curriculum was made by the Parcels social studies teachers in the 1967-68 school year. Robert Roddewig, department chairman, and George Pamerleau, teacher, indicate the decision was a result of the staff's conclusion that the teaching model they were using was "inadequate, irrelevant, and obsolete."

They were concerned about a curriculum which did not relate to crucial problems of the modern world, about outdated and outmoded textbooks, and about a learning structure which required all students to learn in the same way and at the same rate. What the staff wanted was a "really new," new social studies program. They wanted a curriculum that emerged from a new set of beliefs about learning, the nature of youth and the needs of the community—not a curriculum whose "covert purpose was to make teachers comfortable."

In time the teachers developed a completely new social studies program based on seven principles:

1. The curriculum must be flexible, open-ended, and self-renewing.
2. Youth have the most important rights in the process of education.
3. Learners require different amounts of time and different kinds of experiences to learn the same things.
4. The school must help youth to develop adoptive skills.
5. The school has important responsibilities for attitude formation.
6. A teacher cannot be all things to all youth. He must combine resources with other teachers.
7. The use of grade levels is an outmoded practice that probably never did make sense.

The Parcels program consists of 40 six-week units covering a broad range of topics in the areas of geography and United States history. Some of the unit titles include "Islands of the World," "Man as an Explorer," "Consumer Education," "World War II," "Factors of Character Development," and "Understanding Canada."

All major content areas of the former traditional curriculum are included, plus many new areas of study; there are no required units of study. Any student in grades seven or eight may choose any of the units. And, the study units vary not only in content but also in style and learning activities.

The idea has since spread to other middle schools, but the Parcels social studies staff deserves the credit for breaking new ground. Incidentally, it will not surprise you to know that their professional efforts have been recognized nationally on numerous occasions.

Most recently the Parcels-initiated program was featured in issue 27 of "Profiles of Promise," a publication prepared jointly by the ERIC Clearinghouse for Social Studies/Social Science Education and the Social Science Education Consortium, Inc., Boulder, Col.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford
Chief of Central Library

One measure of a book's success is the number of weeks it appears on the best seller list. This week I would like to share with you the six non-fiction books that were the list recordholders for 1974.

Number one on the best seller list for 1974, for a record 39 weeks, was Harry Browne's YOU CAN PROFIT FROM A MONETARY CRISIS (Macmillan).

Browne states that "the next depression should be by far the worst in the history of the U.S." to alleviate the depression, he recommends devaluation of the dollar by 90 percent, unlimited convertibility of the dollar into gold, liquidation of the Federal Reserve System, and elimination of the U.S. Post Office. He also suggests cancellation of the following: anti-trust laws, minimum wage laws, labor laws, export-import controls, foreign aid, all subsidies, and all governmental welfare and insurance programs.

Despite a mean philosophy and some questionable proposals in the area of economics, one must admit that the author's investment ideas (gold stocks, Swiss francs) from his earlier writings have worked out very well.

PLAIN SPEAKING: AN ORAL BIOGRAPHY OF HARRY S. TRUMAN (Putnam) by Merle Miller was on the best seller list for 38 weeks during 1974.

This is the most refreshing book that has ever been written about an American President. Parts of this book deal with the memories of people who knew the president before 1935, the year he first went to Washington as Senator from Missouri. Other parts deal with his presidency and the period following it. The work is based on tapes Miller compiled from interviews with Truman and others in 1961-62.

The study is best when Miller simply presents without commentary Mr. Truman's salty, feisty talk, which is most of the time. Though it is filled with highly quotable give-'em-hell Harryisms about almost everyone, there is ample evidence of a quite thoughtful, even tender side to Mr. Truman's sturdy character.

On the list for 30 weeks, ALIVE (Lippincott) by Piers Paul Read, is the account of a group of young men and women who took off on a flight from Uruguay to Chile for a rugby match. Their plane hit a mountainside and the survivors adapted as best they could. A new society emerged. Food soon ran out and it became necessary to use the bodies of the deceased for nutrition. Rescue came 70 days after the crash. This book records a remarkable communal feat of heroism. It will become a classic in the literature of survival.

Watergate brought forth a flood of books in 1974. One of the very best is ALL THE PRESIDENT'S MEN (Simon & Schuster) by Carl Bernstein and Bob Woodward—29 weeks on the best seller list.

These two Washington Post reporters whose investigative journalism first revealed the Watergate scandal tell the way it happened, from the first suspicions, through the trail of false leads, lies, secrecy, and high-level pressure, to the final moments when they were able to put the pieces of the puzzle together and write the series that won the Post a Pulitzer Prize.

Woodward and Bernstein have written a remarkable book. A carefully drawn account, it will probably be among the two or three most authoritative books on Watergate.

A holdover from 1973, HOW TO BE YOUR OWN BEST FRIEND (Random House) by Mildred Newman and Bernard Berkowitz, continued on the best seller list for 26 weeks during 1974.

The authors' approach is that we need to be aware of our own accomplishments, to have compassion for ourselves, and to praise our own achievements.

This book seeks to give the reader the responsibility for his own choices. It is an excellent adjunct to psychotherapy as well as good informal reading for anyone "interested in sources of mental ease and disease."

ALISTAIR COOKE'S AMERICA (Knopf) ran 24 weeks on the best seller list. In this book the author expands and develops his thirteen-part television series, "America: A Personal History of the United States," the scripts for which were originally written for the BBC and first shown on American TV in 1973.

Cooke has produced a thick, handsome, abundantly illustrated book that starts before Columbus and ends with a hesitant peer into the future. The tone of his voice, his use of a droll phrase, his knack of bringing history home by showing some small detail—they all come through unblurred by the printed page.

This is a panoramic book, and the view it gives of our land and people is exhilarating.

ULS Rebounds After Big Loss

By Bob Holmes

The University Liggett Knights went to Lutheran West on Tuesday, December 17, hoping to even their Metro Conference basketball record at 1-1. However, West didn't comply with Liggett's wishes as they destroyed the Knights, 69-21.

Then on Thursday, December 19, ULS rebounded to post a 54-39 conference win over Hamtramck.

The Knights could do nothing right against Lutheran West and were behind at the end of the first quarter, 11-0. This scoreless effort is the lowest point total for one quarter in the history of ULS basketball.

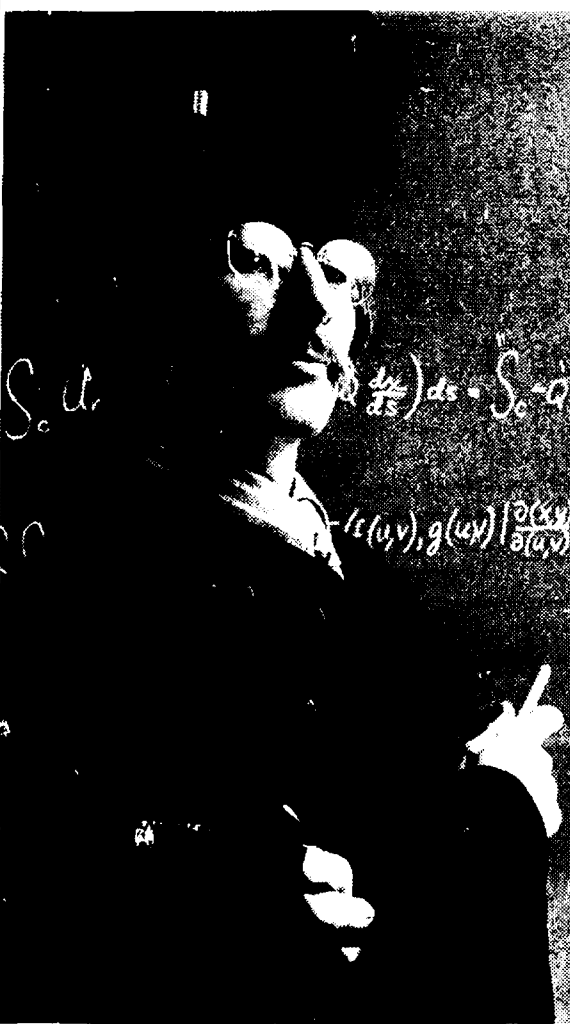

Surprisingly at the half Liggett was down only 22-13 and still very much in the game.

The reason for this was the strong play of junior center Bill Albrecht, who played superb defense against West's all-conference star Jason Puryear.

But disaster struck in the third frame as West outscored Liggett, 23-2, and the final frame wasn't much better. Drew Miller led ULS with eight points, while Puryear and Rich Brauer led the winners with 12 points apiece.

Against Hamtramck, Liggett evened its overall record at 3-3. The offense really clicked for ULS in this game as did the solid defensive play. What really hurt Hamtramck was their inability to take advantage of their two 6 foot 6 inch big men, who never made their presence felt.

A little simple arithmetic about a Math major.

The cost of a higher education is getting higher. In fact, you could end up spending close to $20,000 to put your child through college.

So maybe you should consider U.S. Savings Bonds. They're one of the most dependable ways to build funds for an education.

All you have to do is join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Then an amount you specify is set aside from your paycheck and used to buy Bonds.

Say your child is 3 years old now. If you buy a $75 Bond a month through Payroll Savings, by the time he's 18, you'll have $16,048 tucked away. A solid sum to get him started. See? A little simple arithmetic can add up to a lot.

Make the chances of your child's college education more secure. Join the Payroll Savings Plan now.

New U.S. Bonds pay 4 1/2% interest when held to maturity of 30 years. In the first year, bonds are subject to a 3% sales charge. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.

Commodore's Ball Is Held At GPYC

The Commodore's Ball at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club December 7 introduced GPYC's new Commodore and Mrs. George L. Beard and the Club's new officers and directors to the membership, and the Beards added some fresh details this year to the carefully orchestrated pageantry that traditionally marks the annual formal affair.

A GPYC burgee in red, white and blue lights beckoned guests to join the festivities. The flag shape was conceived and constructed by Club employees Paul Lafata and Bruce Sellers.

Adornments inside the Great Hall were kept simple under JoAnn Beard's direction, leaving plenty of breathing space.

JoAnn, the Commodore's wife, wore a pink chiffon gown, Empire in style, with a pearl-beaded bodice and cuffs. Laura DeOrlow, wife of new Vice Commodore Harold S. DeOrlow, wore a champagne sequined gown with a chiffon bow at the neck.

Stavropoulos created a "lady in a cage" design for Shirlee Plante: a svelte black halter dress worn under a see-through net "cage." Handmade silk flowers studied the hem.

Shirlee is the wife of GPYC's new Rear Commodore William D. Plante, of North Brys drive.

The grand march, led by Commodore and Mrs. Beard, Vice Commodore and Mrs. DeOrlow and Rear Commodore and Mrs. Plante, in the Commodore's Room and led Club officials and visiting dignitaries to the Venetian Room. Dinner was served in the Great Hall.

Each couple was spotlighted and introduced by emcee Dr. Stuart Smith, of Norton court. Ushers were Dennis V. Adams, George J. Baer, II, Patrick A. Beard, E. Blay Schoenherr, II, and Charles E. Stumb. Assistant Managers Robert Chiarini and Rick Brown assisted backstage.

Other officers at the Ball included Secretary James L. Taylor with his wife Helen, of Lakeshore road, and Treasurer Sheldon F. Hall with his wife Elizabeth, of Harbor Hill. Also dining were General Manager David Butterfield and his wife Barbara.

Directors attending were Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Curtis, of Saddle lane, Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Eagan of Lothrop road, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry K. Girschner, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Lepley, of Blairmoor court, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Mitchell, of Lakeland avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Wilberding, of Kenwood court.

Fleet Captain and Mrs. Fred Schriever, Fleet Surgeon and Mrs. John Reid Brown, and Fleet Measurer and Mrs. Norbert H. Hollerbach were also among Ball honorees.

The bride-elect received her Bachelors degree in Mathematics from the University of Massachusetts and her Masters degree from the Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences in New York City.

She is employed at Bell Laboratories in New Jersey where her fiancé, son of Mrs. William B. Stuck, of Fisher road, and the late Mr. Stuck, also works.

The prospective bridegroom earned his Bachelors, Masters and Doctoral degrees in Electrical Engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. At MIT he was an officer in Delta Kappa Epsilon and a member of Sigma Xi, Eta Kappa Nu and Tau Beta Pi fraternities.

Museum Hosts Holiday Events

Two special exhibitions and a pair of Detroit Youththeatre stage shows can highlight a family Christmas visit to the Detroit Institute of Arts.

State artists have the spotlight in the sculpture section of Michigan Focus in the museum's South Wing, where jurors' choices of 38 works are displayed through February 9, while in the North Wing 24 paintings, sculptures and graphics by Edgar Degas show the versatility of the French artist and celebrate the 100th anniversary of the first Impressionist exhibition in Paris through January 12.

Youththeatre's schedule brings holiday attractions for all ages to the museum auditorium.

"Holiday on Strings" will feature television's Brown Marionette Theatre with three-foot puppets to entertain youngsters age three and older at 11 and 2 o'clock, Friday, December 27, and Saturday, December 28.

"Coppelia's Toy Shop" will have a lavish production by Dance Detroit on Sunday, December 29, at 3 o'clock only. It is recommended for youngsters eight years and older.

Tickets for these Youththeatre shows are $1.75 each at the museum's box office.

To round out a holiday visit the museum's 101 galleries with their panorama of art through the ages will be open from 9:30 to 5:30 o'clock daily except Mondays, Christmas Eve and Christmas day and New Year's Eve and day.

Fortunately, the McGarrys believe in family picture Christmas cards, so their friends in the cities they've left can keep up with how big everyone's grown, how well everyone looks . . .

The McGarrys are in Wilmette now, and Anne, Sr., reports that Elizabeth is trying to select a college — "maybe Miami of Ohio or Denison" — and John is writing for the year book and in charge of the New Trier Christmas Tree Sale.

My, how they've grown . . .

News From Richardson

No picture with the Robert A. Collinses' Christmas card this year, but since I saw Betty and the girls, Susan and Martha, this summer, during their annual sojourn with her mother, Mrs. Paul S. Giffin, of Moran road, I have a pretty good idea of how they look.

And I assume Bob looks pretty much the same, (after a time, you just don't grow).

"We have a teenager in the house, as of last October," writes Betty, from Richardson, Tex. "Susan says now she can make all her own decisions and plan her own activities—but I think she's been doing that since she was five!"

Slate Interlochen Outreach Program

Academy Groups Will Tour Throughout State, Appearing on Invitation of Local Sponsors, Accompanied by Faculty Workshops

Students and faculty of the Interlochen Arts Academy will go on extensive tours throughout the state during the current academic year with the support of the Michigan Council for the Arts.

The Interlochen Center for the Arts, identified by the Council as one of six major cultural institutions in Michigan early this year, shares in a $750,000 appropriation made by the Michigan

State Legislature. Interlochen's share is $154,980.

Other grant recipients are Cranbrook Academy of Art, the Detroit Institute of Arts, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Meadowbrook and Michigan Opera Theatre.

The Interlochen Outreach program consists of tours involving the most outstanding student groups of the Interlochen Arts Academy. It is designed as one answer to a cultural drought believed to exist in many areas of the State of Michigan.

The arts' need is for all citizens of all ages to hear and see music, art, drama and dance.

Groups which will tour in the coming year include the Interlochen Arts Academy Orchestra and Band, the Academy Chorale, Studio (jazz) Orchestra, Brass Quintet, Woodwind Quintet, String Quartet and Percussion Ensemble, as well as pianists, organists, soloists, theatre groups, the Dance Ensemble and Art Van.

Faculty workshops accompany touring groups, so that master classes may be made available to local teachers, with Academy student groups providing demonstrations.

The objectives of Interlochen Outreach are to introduce lesser-known facets of the arts to residents in communities throughout the state, to supplement or augment local school curriculum offerings and to inspire upgrading of art and music programs at all age levels, thus broadening the effectiveness of Interlochen as a major Michigan cultural resource.

A valuable fringe benefit lies in the wider experience and enrichment afforded Academy students.

Preparation of the program began in September. Tours are being scheduled now through May.

The Academy Orchestra will have a 10-day tour in March, with possibly up to eight days on mini-tours, (out and back in one day). Conductors of the group are Thor Johnson and Byron Hanson.

The Academy Chorale with its mentor Kenneth W. Jewell, and Dave Sporny's Studio Orchestra will each have a five-day tour plus up to eight days' mini-tours.

The Art Van, developed by Jean Parsons, might be booked as many as 10 times for two-day tours.

The Dance Ensemble is directed by Helen Earl, the drama group trained by Errol Segal.

Travel costs will be met by the grant. Host communities are to provide housing.

Alumni of Interlochen, including many Pointers, are expected to be of real service to the Outreach Program by introducing Academy groups to possible local sponsors. These may include art councils, symphony boards, local

BROWSE THE SHIPS WHEEL

Pointers Travel Back in Time

In a sense 38 Michigan State University students, members of Dr. Milton Powell's Doing History course which involved reconstructing an historical event by examining original documents or eyewitness accounts of what happened, spent the fall term "going back in time."

Enrolled in the class were Michele Cook and Staci Davis.

Michele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cook, of Bournemouth road, is an MSU freshman majoring in Nursing and a 1974 graduate of Grosse Pointe North High School. Her research topic was the Sand Creek Massacre.

Staci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Davis, of Balfour road, is an MSU freshman majoring in Pre-Professional Law and a 1974 graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School. Her research topic was the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

A member of the Justin Morrill College faculty at MSU, Professor Powell has experimented with a wide variety of approaches to the study of history. "This is one of the most successful courses I've ever taught," he reports. "With this class I try to get students to deal with the process of history rather than the content of history."

"When they get down to the hard facts on an event they discover there are many different ways of reconstructing history. It all depends on how each individual interprets the original documents or records."

Professor Powell uses the example of a detective or newspaper reporter to illustrate what his students actually do. "It's a matter of going back and searching for information recorded by eyewitnesses to an event. Then students put all the pieces of information together and create a picture of what happened."

The course begins with an introduction to primary sources of original documents. Students then start their search for information. During the term Professor Powell requires five checkpoints or progress reports from each student.

Students select their own research topics, and their final product is a paper expressing their interpretation of their historical event.

ORDINANCE NO. 172

AN ORDINANCE TO ESTABLISH AN UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION SYSTEM

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE CODE OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE BY ADDING A NEW CHAPTER, WHICH CHAPTER SHALL BE DESIGNATED AS CHAPTER 6, UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION SYSTEM, OF TITLE I — ADMINISTRATION OF SAID CODE.

WHEREAS: The State of Michigan by Act No. 104 of the Public Acts of 1974, has required unemployment compensation coverage for services performed for political subdivisions.

BE IT HEREFORE ORDAINED by the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe as follows:

Section 1. Unemployment Compensation System.
There is hereby established an unemployment compensation system and benefit plan for employees of the City of Grosse Pointe to be administered by the Board of the City of Grosse Pointe Employees' Retirement System. This plan is established pursuant to Act No. 170 of the Public Acts of 1958 as amended of the State of Michigan.

Section 2. Definitions.
"Average Weekly Wage" with respect to a base period of employment, shall be the amount determined by dividing total wages for credit weeks earned by the number of such credit weeks chargeable to the City of Grosse Pointe as employer.

"Base Period" means the period of 52 consecutive calendar weeks ending with the day immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year.

"Benefit Year" with respect to any individual means the period of 52 consecutive calendar weeks beginning with the first calendar week with respect to which the individual, who does not already have a benefit year in effect, files a claim for benefits under this ordinance provided that the individual has earned wages of at least $25.01 in 14 or more calendar weeks within the Base Period. Such weeks are called "Credit Weeks."

"Benefits" means the money payments payable to an eligible and qualified individual, as provided in this ordinance, with respect to unemployment.

"Secretary-Examiner" shall refer to the City Treasurer of the City of Grosse Pointe.

"Unemployed"; an individual shall be deemed unemployed with respect to any week during which he performs no services and with respect to which no remuneration is payable to him, or with respect to any week of less than full-time work if the remuneration payable to him is less than his weekly benefit rate.

"Wages" means remuneration paid for employment but shall not include any employee payment for life or health insurance, pension, longevity, holiday payment, food, clothing or equipment allowance or similar payment.

Section 3. Benefit Rates.
Benefit payments shall begin with the effective date of unemployment and shall be calculated according to the following rules:

a) The weekly benefit rate and amount of the weekly benefit payment shall be determined in accordance with all of the relevant provisions as set forth in Section 27 of the Michigan Employment Security Act and as set forth in the MESA Weekly Benefit Rate Table in effect at the time an employee is laid off.

b) The dependency class category of a laid off employee shall be determined as stipulated and provided by the Michigan Employment Security Act. A dependent shall be as defined by the Michigan Employment Security Act. Once an individual establishes a dependency classification it cannot be reduced in the benefit year.

c) Employees shall be entitled to three (3) weeks of benefits for each four (4) credit weeks earned working for the City of Grosse Pointe Park up to a maximum of twenty-six (26) weeks for thirty-four (34) earned credit weeks, provided that the claimant has worked at least thirty-four (34) weeks in the fifty-two (52) weeks preceding the weeks in which the claimant applied for benefits. The minimum duration shall not be less than ten and one-half (10½) weeks if the claimant worked fourteen (14) weeks and earned at least $25.01 in each week.

d) Any change in the rate of regular benefits or their duration that would be mandatory to meet the requirements for equivalency with the Michigan Employment Security Act shall become effective on the same day as the change in benefits or their duration in the Michigan Employment Security Act is effective.

Section 4. Authorization of Payment.
Payment of unemployment benefits shall be based on a certification from the Secretary-Examiner to the Director of Finance. Such certification shall contain all information necessary for payment. A record of the benefits received by each individual shall be maintained by the Secretary-Examiner.

Section 5. Employees Covered.
Employees covered by this Unemployment Compensation System, shall consist exclusively of employees normally employed a minimum of 1500 hours annually and contributing a percentage of wages to the City of Grosse Pointe Employees' Retirement System.

Section 6. Eligibility for Benefits.
A claimant to be eligible for benefits must be unemployed, as defined, and must make a claim for benefits in the manner prescribed by the Secretary-Examiner and further must:

a) Be able and available to perform full-time work which he is qualified to perform by past experience or training, and of a character generally similar to work for which he has earned wages; and
b) Be in compliance with registration and reporting requirements; and
c) Be seeking work.

Section 7. Disqualifications.

A claimant is disqualified from receiving benefits if the Secretary-Examiner finds that an individual is unemployed due to an ineligible termination or separation as specified in Section 8, has left his work voluntarily or has accepted permanent full-time work with another employer, or has failed without just cause to apply for available suitable work or has failed to accept suitable work when offered, or has failed when directed to return to his customary work. Further, no employee shall be eligible for benefits under this ordinance if such employee is eligible to receive unemployment compensation benefits from the Michigan Employment Security Commission as a result of prior employment with an employer other than this City. Further, no employee shall be eligible for benefits under this ordinance for service performed by an employee whose compensation is derived wholly or in part from Federal funds received under a specific Federal or State program administered by the City and whose employment is terminated due to discontinuance of Federal or State funding to the City for said program, unless said Federal or State program mandates the payment of unemployment compensation benefits.

Section 8. Ineligible Terminations and Separations.
An employee shall not be eligible for benefits under the Unemployment Compensation System established by this ordinance, if the unemployment shall result from:

1. Retirement under the City of Grosse Pointe Employees' Retirement System or any future retirement system covering City employees.
2. Discharge or suspension for cause.
3. Resignations, including resignations in lieu of discharge.
4. Leaves of absence for any reason, whether voluntary or involuntary.
5. Temporary separations made at the request of the employee.
6. Participation or direct interest in a labor dispute including any strike, unauthorized work stoppages, or other concerted action.
7. A negotiated agreement or contract which provides for monetary payments upon separation from employment.

Section 9. Payment of and Restrictions on Benefits.

Benefits shall be paid bi-weekly at a time and place fixed by the Board of the City of Grosse Pointe Employees' Retirement System. All beneficiaries must report bi-weekly to the Secretary-Examiner's office on designated days for bi-weekly benefit checks and determination of continuing eligibility, for continuing eligibility, a beneficiary must be actively seeking work, and must be registered with the Michigan Employment Security Commission. No beneficiary who shall refuse any reasonable bona fide offer of employment shall receive any benefits after such refusal.

Section 10. Benefits Inalienable.

All rights to benefits shall be absolutely inalienable by any assignment, sale, garnishment, execution or otherwise, and in case of bankruptcy, the benefits shall not pass to or through any trustees or other persons acting on behalf of creditors. Provided, that this section shall not prohibit the use of any remedy provided by law insofar as the collection of obligations incurred for necessities furnished to the recipient of such benefits or his dependents during the time when such individual was unemployed is concerned.

Section 11. Rules and Procedures.

Rules and procedures including any necessary forms may be established by the Board of the City of Grosse Pointe Employees' Retirement System to administer the Unemployment Compensation System. The Secretary-Examiner or his designee may bring suit in the name of the City of Grosse Pointe to recover any moneys paid upon a fraudulent or untrue application or claim.

Section 12. Determinations.

The Secretary-Examiner or his designee shall promptly make a determination after an application for benefits is filed whether the claimant is a covered individual eligible and qualified to draw benefits based upon the available information. The issuance of each benefit check shall be considered a determination that the claimant receiving the check was a covered individual eligible and qualified for benefits. Where a claimant refuses work or fails to apply for work or in any other way is or becomes disqualified or ineligible for benefits, the Secretary-Examiner or his designee shall promptly make a written determination of such disqualification or ineligibility and shall send the claimant notice thereof.

Section 13. Redeterminations.

Upon the written request of any claimant within 15 days following any determination or decision respecting qualification, eligibility or rate of benefits, the Secretary-Examiner or his designee shall promptly review the prior determination and, if necessary, may order a hearing thereon. Upon review with or without hearing, the Secretary-Examiner or his designee shall issue a redetermination affirming, modifying or reversing the prior determination and stating the reasons therefor. Such redetermination shall be final unless an appeal is filed as provided in Section 14 (below).

Section 14. Appeals.

There is hereby established an unemployment compensation appeal board, to consist of three (3) members appointed by the Mayor to serve for a period of not more than five (5) years. It shall be the duty of the board of review redeterminations of the Secretary-Examiner pertaining to this Unemployment Compensation System provided that a claim of appeal is filed within fifteen (15) days of such redetermination. The time to file a claim of appeal shall not begin until an employee has been notified in writing of his right to appeal.

Section 15. Appeal Board Powers and Duties.

The appeal Board may on its own motion affirm, modify, set aside or reverse any redetermination on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in such case, or direct the taking of additional evidence, or may permit any of the parties to such decision or order to initiate further appeals before it. The appeal board shall promptly notify parties of its findings and decisions and its reasons therefor but may omit the giving of reasons if the previous redetermination is affirmed without any alteration or modification.

Section 16. Procedure, Reports, Record of Proceedings on Appeal.

The manner in which appeals to the appeal board shall be presented, the reports thereon required from the interested party or parties, and the procedure governing such appeals shall be in accordance with the rules prescribed by the appeal board. Minutes shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with an appeal. Staff, space and such clerical service as is needed shall be provided by the Secretary-Examiner to the appeal board.

Section 17. Extension of Time.

Whenever the last day of the period to apply for redetermination or to appeal any decision, determination or redetermination, falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, such period shall run until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or holiday.

Section 18. Finances.

Financing shall be accomplished through the Unemployment Compensation System Reserve, herewith established to account for related revenue and expenditures, including payment of unemployment benefits. The City Treasurer shall recommend to the City Council annual appropriations to be made for this activity, provided that no appropriations will be required after a Reserve balance of $5,000 has been accumulated in the Unemployment Compensation System Reserve.

Section 19. False Statements.

No person shall, with intent to deceive, make any false or untrue statements or reports. In lieu of criminal action based on any false or untrue statements or reports, the appeal board may recommend disciplinary or other action to the controlling department, board or commission.

Section 20. Catchline Headings.

The catchline headings of the sections of this ordinance shall in no way be considered to be a part of the respective sections or of this ordinance but are inserted herein for purposes of convenience.

Section 21. Severability.

Each section, and every part of each section, is hereby declared to be independent sections and parts of sections, and holding of any section or part of section to be void and ineffective for any cause, shall not be deemed to affect any other section or part of section.

Section 22. Effective Date—Unemployment Compensation System And Benefit Fund.

The effective date of the Unemployment Compensation System and Benefit Fund established by this ordinance and of coverage thereunder shall be December 31, 1974 and only wages earned after that date shall be used in determining eligibility and/or benefits to be paid.

Section 23. Effective Date — Ordinance.

The effective date of the Unemployment Compensation System and Benefit Fund established by this ordinance and of coverage thereunder shall be December 31, 1974.

Super Antelope . . . for a superb three piece ensemble which is just in at Walton-Pierce. A super-soft and breezy-light skirt and sleeveless jacket is set off by a turquoise silk shirt from Mainland China. It's a chic choice for cocktails, dinner, theatre . . . north or south. Buying A Security System? . . . When you buy an apartment home at the Jefferson Apartments, Grosse Pointe's newest condominium, you get not one but a network of the most modern security systems to guard you, your home and your possessions. A closed TV monitoring system covers the entrance, outside parking areas and inside garage. The entry communications system is a new system conceived and engineered by Michigan Bell Telephone Company. An on-guard alert system features a control panel in the manager's apartment and attendant's office. This notifies of any intrusion into any apartment when the occupants are away. A fire protection alert system gives added protection to all occupants and will notify each individual occupant of a fire in an unoccupied apartment. Besides security you get really gracious living. GROSSE POINTE SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS: CLAIRE SERVANT, ALEX SZIRMAI AND AGNETA ASTRAND

By Barbara Bruno

Christmas had a different ring this year for three young Exchange Students residing in The Pointe. After all, decorated city streets and reindeer pulling a sleigh? "In Sweden, Santa Claus doesn't live at the North Pole and come by reindeer," says Agneta Astrand. "He lives deep in the forest and rides in a sled pulled by horses."

Alex Szirmai, of Holland, says a more religious celebration of St. Nicholas' birthday on December 5 is the tradition of his country.

Claire Servant says that, although it is becoming more commercialized, Christmas is still a religious time in her native France. She adds that the big Christmas feast is held Christmas Eve, after the family attends Midnight Mass.

All Very Interested

But the three, all 12th grade students at Grosse Pointe South High School this year, were anxiously looking forward to celebrating the holidays with their American "families" when interviewed shortly before December 25.

For Understanding Exchange Students, Agneta is spending her year here with The Reverend and Mrs. John Sundquist, of Pemberton road. She has two younger Sundquist brothers, Steven, five, and John, seven.

Alex resides with the Edwards, of Lakepointe avenue. He's the lone "son" among three Price sisters, Janet, 17, Laura, 14, and Susan, 11.

Claire is here under the American Field Service program. She lives with Mr. and Mrs. George Houchens, of Lincoln road, and their two children, Michelle, 13, and Blaire, 15.

Christmas was slightly different this year for the families and friends left behind in Europe as well. All three Exchange Students tried to find typically American gifts to send home.

Send Flag, Records

A friend in Holland has hopefully received the American flag sent by Alex, while Claire took her chances with the mails and shipped home American record albums.

"They're so cheap here," she exclaimed, the others chiming in their agreement.

Agneta planned to forward her senior class pictures to friends and family alike, but was stumped for small gifts.

Alex suggested buying a Snoopy dog, which both he and Claire regard as a symbol of America, but Agneta felt such a gift wouldn't be too meaningful at home since Snoopy and his pals are readily available in Sweden.

Undoubtedly, all gifts finally selected were duly appreciated by all recipients.

Agneta's two sisters and parents, Goran and Britt Astrand, are waiting for her return to Stockholm. They live in an apartment in the middle of the city.

happy to see his parents, Ganos and Elska Szirmai. . . but he really misses that dog. "He's just a street dog, but I really do miss him a lot."

There are, quite naturally, lots of things all three miss. "I miss the French bread," Claire says, "and French cooking. My mother here cooks very well, but sometimes I go in the kitchen and cook something French style. And when I get a letter from home that mentions food . . . Ohh!"

Agneta misses the hand-held shower attachment commonly found in Swedish homes. "In Sweden we have a hand shower for washing hair." Now if she wants to wash her hair she has to take an all-over shower.

One thing Alex had to have sent from home was his favorite brand of toothpaste. "I can't stand all this cinnamon taste!"

He also agrees that French bread is a great loss. "I don't miss our bread, but I know French bread—and I miss it too."

Like Many Things But despite all these things they find lacking, numerous things here have impressed and delighted them.

The low record album prices, for one thing. The relatively low cost of blue jeans, for another.

"We pay over $20 for a pair of blue jeans, and the price keeps going up," Agneta explains. That's one item she plans to stock up on before her return. In general she likes American dress. "You can wear what you feel comfortable in."

Claire notes that styles here are not as clearly defined as in France. "In France you walk along the streets and you can see the fashion in the shop windows."

But French fashions may change overnight, she adds, so what is stylish one day may be out the next.

One of the trio's favorite aspects of American life is its informality. "People are more carefree here," Alex says. And Claire likes the word "you."

No Decision Needed In French, (and Swedish), two forms of the word are available: one a more polite form, used when speaking to adults or to show respect; the other used on an informal basis.

"Here, you don't have to decide when to act polite and when to be informal."

The large American cars are still a source of amazement, as they were when the three first arrived in this country last August.

"The highways and the big cars all over were the first thing I noticed," Alex says. Claire, who was waiting to see all the high buildings supposed to dominate the American scene, found Grosse Pointe with its single-family homes and lack of skyscrapers a surprise.

"It's really beautiful here. And all the streets are laid out perpendicular and even."

But she was surprised and disappointed by Detroit itself. "I was surprised to leave Grosse Pointe and cross the boundary into Detroit," she said. "You can see there is a problem there. Nobody told me about this before: that the houses have windows broken out and are run down."

Have Taken Side Trips But Claire and the others have taken several side trips and discovered some places besides The Pointe that they are really fond of.

Toronto and its Science Center are Claire's favorite spots. Agneta fell in love with Petoskey.

Besides junkies with their American families and projects sponsored by their exchange programs, the three are involved in South High School activities.

Claire is in a modern dance group, (she taught modern dance in France), and is active with the Grosse Pointe Theatre.

Agneta taught gymnastics in Sweden and is a member of the gymnastics team at South. Alex also participates on a school team, the Junior Varsity swimmers. He found the Varsity team took too much of his time. The JV squad is less demanding.

They all find it interesting that so many teen activities here are school-oriented. In Europe it is much more common for teens to do things outdoors, such as walking in the woods, and there are cafes where friends meet for hot chocolate or coffee after school or work.

But in Europe, all three say they have much less time for after-school activities.

"I have 12 subjects in Sweden," Agneta explains. "You can't pick your subjects like you can here. If you wanted to drop a subject because you didn't like the teacher, you would get kicked out of school!"

Adjust To Challenge They also find the emphasis on individual study here, and it's a challenge. But they're adjusting.

Since all three have additional schooling to complete when they return to Europe, future plans remain indefinite. Claire thinks she might like to study in Germany. Agneta has considered learning other languages and entering a field where such knowledge could be used.

All are certain that their stay in the United States will prove beneficial.

"People in Holland look up to the United States," Alex comments.

"It's really the dream of a lot of people to come here," Claire says. "It's really something to go overseas."

Although a few friends at home questioned how they could stay for an entire year in a foreign country, the trio has survived the test at the half-way point. And if problems should develop, they have the expert guidance of their South High adviser, counselor Margaret Casteel.

Miss Casteel has been an adviser to Exchange Students since 1964, "because I've traveled the most, know their customs—and know what they shouldn't get away with," she says, with a laugh.

But she loves the assignment and loves the kids. After all, none have been sent home from the program yet.

Sharing honors as leader for the English drill at The Leelanau School's Christmas party and horse show was NANCY OTTO, daughter of the JACK L. OTTOS, of Moorland drive. Nancy also participated in jumping events.

GEORGEAN (Gigi) GRAHAM, daughter of DR. and MRS. GEORGE C. GRAHAM, of Colonial court, who received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Biology with High Distinction from Wayne State University where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa during her senior year, has been granted a teaching fellowship by WSU where she will continue her graduate studies in Bacteriology.

A Private Tradition

Years ago, when I first began to do "Pointers of Interest," one of the first "Pointers" I did was on the Gari Kerstens, of McKinley avenue, who'd become parents of twins and were coping, beautifully . . . and each year since then the Kerstens have sent along a Christmas card with a picture of their twins, and of the younger brother who now completes the family.

The card came again this year, with its three beaming faces . . . but when I THINK that the last time I saw those YOUNG LADIES they were TODDLERS . . .

To England In The New Year

The New Year shines with promise for Wesley R. Johnson, Jr., a senior at the University of Michigan who has just been awarded a two-year Power Exchange Scholarship to study at Magdalene College in Cambridge, England.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley R. Johnson, of Ridge road, is scheduled to receive a Bachelors degree in History from U. of M.'s College of Literature, Science and the Arts this May.

He'll enter Cambridge in October, reading for an Honors B.A. in History.

And this won't be Rob Johnson's first student sojourn overseas: he spent last year at the University of Aix Marseille in Aix-en-Provence, France, studying History under U. of M.'s junior year abroad program.

When he has been in residence on-campus in Ann Arbor, he's been active in intramural sports.

The Power Exchange Scholarships were established in 1968 by the Power Foundation of Ann Arbor. Each year one American graduate of the U. of M. and one British graduate of Magdalene College are selected to attend the other institution. Since each scholarship is for two years, at any given time two recipients from each university hold the awards.

Eight persons have held scholarships from each institution since the inception of the program.
