MICHIGAN BELL said today that it will ask for an $88 million rate increase, including a jump in the price of pay calls from a dime to 20 cents, because it is losing money on pay telephones and because its overall profits are too low. In its request to the Michigan Public Service Commission, Bell also asked for raises that will increase the monthly cost of both residential service charges and extension phones, as well as increase rates for long distance calls made from Michigan.

NINETY-TWO PERCENT of Portugal's 6.1 million voters went to the polls today in that nation's first free democratic elections in nearly half a century and placed the Socialist Party in a ruling position by handing it 33 percent of the vote. The centrist Popular Democrats wound up with about 30 percent of the vote and the Communist Party received about 12 percent. Socialist Party leaders hinted that an alliance may be formed with the Communists to generate a more broadly based government.

HUNDREDS OF PROTESTERS shouting "We want jobs" disrupted a union-sponsored "Rally for Jobs Now" in Washington, D.C. today by running onto the field of Robert F. Kennedy Stadium, drowning out the voices of platform speakers. About 45,000 people had converged on the nation's capitol for the rally in an effort to get the government to help lower the country's unemployment rate of 8.7 percent. The demonstrators also carried placards reading "Save our jobs, save our cities" and "Get the recession off our back."

FORMER CALIFORNIA GOV. Ronald Reagan, in the Detroit area for a speaking engagement, was pulled over along I-94 this morning and was ticketed for reckless driving. Taylor police said the car in which Reagan was riding was headed for Metropolitan Airport when it was observed traveling at 82 m.p.h. in a 55 m.p.h. zone, weaving in and out of traffic. A black and white escort patrol car was also stopped by Taylor police and the driver ticketed. A spokesman for Reagan said the former governor was baffled by the incident.

CHRYSLER CORP said today it will resume rebating $200 to buyers of its vans and compact cars, beginning this week, in a program designed to run conjointly with the federal income tax rebates which become payable in May. One change from the rebate program offered by Chrysler in March is that buyers of Dodge Dart and Sportsman models and Plymouth Valiants and Voyagers will be able to apply the $200 rebate directly to the down payment when they purchase the car.

TWO AMERICAN MARINES were among those killed in the shelling of Saigon's Tan Son Nhut Air Base early this morning as Vietcong gunners began their siege of South Vietnam's capital city. The attacks came only after communist leaders turned down a South Vietnamese government appeal for a cease-fire and peace talks made by that nation's new president Duong Van Minh.

Enthusiastic Volunteers Ready for Giant Auction

Putting on any auction is hard work, but producing the eight-day, Channel 56 Auction is monumental. Running from May 3-May 10, on the air, live, from 2 p.m.-midnight, this mammoth TV Auction will require the help of 2,400 volunteers coming from all over metropolitan Detroit. They'll do almost everything except run the cameras. They'll man the phones, take the bids, be the runners, handle the processing, do everything it takes to run a TV auction geared to raising a third of the annual operating expenses for Channel 56. (See story below.)

Center Drive Proposal Would Drop Part-Time Counseling From Program of YSD

Total of $88,401 Received from 4,451 Donors; Increased Costs Boost Quota to $125,000

Still lagging behind the pace of the 1974 drive, Grosse Pointe War Memorial's current Family Participation Campaign has received to date $88,401.85 from 4,451 donors as compared to $92,283.00 from 4,807 contributors at this point last year.

Due to increased maintenance and utilities' costs the Center's operational budget for the fiscal year beginning August 1, 1975, has had to be increased 10 percent and the quota of the costs asked from the citizens of the five Grosse Pointes has had to be increased to $125,000.

With the active campaign scheduled to end Memorial Day, May 26, the Center is sending out a second follow-up reminder to all contributing members of record.

Enclosed will be a third postage-free return envelope which it is hoped will be used to enclose income tax deductible gifts in whatever amounts are possible.

It will be necessary for all supporters of record to make some return if the Center's goal is to be achieved.

Channel 56 Needs Help From Pointe for Auction

On a long table in Auction Central at Channel 56 are eight huge charts. Each chart is marked with 300 slots for a total of 2,400 slots.

Personnel co-chairman, Joan Hicks, (Mrs. Charles), of The Farms and Marcia Pollack (Mrs. Jerome), of Southfield, two of the many volunteers, fill those 2,400 slots with the names of 2,400 able volunteers from around metropolitan Detroit.

They will ask people to work approximately a four-hour stint between 2 p.m. and midnight, May 3-May 10, so the Channel 56 Auction will be a success for the seventh straight year.

Proposal Would Drop Part-Time Counseling From Program of YSD

Final Decision Lies with Division's Board of Managers; Proposed Budget Shows 5.7 Percent Increase Over Last Year

By Roger A. Waha

Funds for the Youth Service Division's part-time counseling program, both individual and group, aren't included in the YSD's 1975-76 fiscal year budget proposal which will be considered by the division's Board of Managers, (including all Pointe city managers and a School Board representative).

As managing municipality of the YSD, The Woods is proposing to eliminate the counseling program within the new budget in a cost cutting effort.

However, whether the program actually goes depends upon the response of the Board of Managers, who were scheduled to meet sometime this week to review the proposed budget, said Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, YSD coordinator.

The new budget is placed at $124,598, the costs of which will be shared by each Pointe community, based upon its current assessed valuation, and the School Board, which pays the equivalent of one public safety officer's salary and the total cost of his fringe benefits.

A main reason for the estimated 5.7 percent increase over the $119,217 budget figure for fiscal year 1974-75 is salaries, said Mr. Petersen, who added the cost of operating supplies also have played a role. "We are proposing to do away with the part-time counseling program in order to curtail costs. But this is subject to the review of the Board of Managers," he emphasized. Mr. Petersen estimated the savings gained via the program's elimination at around $3,500.

The only reason for the proposal to delete the counseling program is to economize, knowing that all the cities and the School Board are trying to "hold the line" in budget costs, said Mr. Petersen.

He added an alternative to this action would possibly be to lay off or decrease full-time YSD personnel.

"If the Board of Managers wants to continue this service, (i.e., the counseling program), and pay the cost, that is personally all right with us," he stressed.

The entire YSD budget must ultimately be approved by each city council and the School Board when they adopt their own budgets.

At this time, the division has four counselors: Deborah Beaufort and the recently hired Leonard Bandlow are working in the individual program, while Fred Coonce and

Bon Secours Set To Dedicate New Wings on Sunday

Culmination of $19.5 Million Program Called Most Important Event in Hospital's History Since Its Founding

Bon Secours Hospital will dedicate two new wings on Sunday, May 4, culminating two years of construction activity in the hospital's $19.5 million building program.

Januarius A. Mullen, chairman of the hospital's board, described the dedication of the expanded facility as "perhaps the most important event in the hospital's history since its founding."

"The board, the staff and the Sisters of Bon Secours all have been looking forward to this event for a long time," he said. "It symbolizes progress for the entire community and vastly improved medical and surgical facilities for all the residents of this area."

The public is invited to attend an open house and tours of the facility from 12 noon-5 p.m. Employees, physicians and friends of the hospital have been invited to a morning dedication ceremony beginning at 10 a.m.

Featured on the tours will be a new lobby, four new patient units with 170 beds, (bringing the hospital's total bed capacity to 246), a surgical suite, radiology department, pharmacy, plant, dining room and supply, process and distribution, (CIPD), department.

Participating in the dedication ceremonies with Mr. Mullen will be Mayor John L. King of The City, the Most Reverend Arthur Krawczak, Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit, Sister Rita Thomas, C.B.S., Bon Secours provincial, and Robert Tell, associate director of the Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council.

The opening of this major addition to the hospital comes five months after the successful completion of a $2.5 million building fund drive. Gifts are continuing to come in for the building program which has been financed through the aid of individuals, private foundations, a grant from the United Foundation, the hospital's savings and bank loans.

The building was designed by Rossetti Associates/Architects Planners and constructed by Edward V. Monahan Incorporated.

Lakeland Seawall Plan Gets City Council Okay

By Nancy Kramer

The two families whose proposal began the seawall debate in The City last spring have reached an agreement with the council on what type of arrangement they will use to protect their properties from the encroaching waters of Lake St. Clair.

Drs. S. J. Moroun and Robert Whiteley, who live across the street from each other at the foot of Lakeland avenue, first asked for City permission and cooperation on a seawall replacement project last spring. The doctors said they were fighting a losing battle against the lake with their present seawalls.

Their land is adjacent to a City-owned circular turnaround situated within two portions of pie-shaped land also belonging to The City. This area used to provide access to a public boat ramp but water levels during the past couple of years have prohibited its use. The City had to build a makeshift seawall of dirt and concrete slabs and water often collects at the bottom of the turnaround when there is an overflow from the catch basins, or from the lake.

The original Moroun Whiteley proposal called for a wall that would extend from the edge of the Whiteley property, across the City-owned land to the point

Present Ban Attacked by Businesses

Tie Vote Prevents Park Council from Deciding Issue; Tabled Until May 12 Meeting

The controversial parking restrictions imposed early in 1969, on Mack avenue between Harvard and Cadieux, again came under fire at The Park Council meeting on Monday, April 28.

No action was taken because of a tie vote — one councilman was absent — and the matter was tabled until the next regular session scheduled for Monday, May 12, at 5 p.m.

At a council session held on April 14, the solons received a petition signed by the business people, including two new tenants, asking for the lifting of the "No Parking—3 p.m. to 7 p.m." ban which has been in effect for the past six years, because it is hurting their businesses.

The restrictions were originally imposed to cut down the high rate of accidents at the Mack-Cadieux intersection, the city limits dividing line between The Park and The City, where there is a slight "jog." The imposition of the ban diverted most of the traffic west onto Charlevoix, which at Alter road in Detroit becomes a one-way thoroughfare.

City Manager Robert Stone and Councilman Charles Henry Coonce said that since the parking restriction went into effect, there has been a marked decrease in accidents and Mack vehicular traffic has been moving at a faster pace.

The Detroit side of Mack and Cadieux runs a straight line, the "jog" is only on the Pointe side. Since Mack is a Wayne County thoroughfare, the County Road Commission was petitioned to widen the one-block section, but the request was rejected on the grounds that there was a lack of funds for this project. Acting on the only alternative, The Park, after a lengthy survey, decided on the parking restrictions between 3 p.m. and 7 p.m.

Has Own Parking Lot The one block, Maskell Hardware, directly on the corner of the intersection is not affected because it has its own paved private parking lot adjacent to its building. Because trade had fallen off, some of the businesses moved from the area, until recently, when the new tenants came. Then the petition was presented to the council to lift the restrictions.

Mr. Stone disclosed some of the businesses have been forced to use the alleys at

Honor Society Out for Blood

Members of South High School's Honor Society have put in long hours and hard work preparing for their spring blood drive to be held Thursday, May 8, in the old boy's gym at South. The drive will be limited to students until 2 p.m. when it will open to the public until 8 p.m.

Under the enthusiastic direction of Carl Justice, South High math teacher, this spring's drive is expected to be as successful as one held last fall during which 154 pints of blood were collected.

To promote this worthwhile cause, the Honor Society members have made daily announcements in school and mounted posters along school hallways. In addition, all student donors will be given a ticket to the "blood bash" dance to be held at South the following evening.

Despite the students' active efforts, the drive can't be a success unless the community responds. To make an appointment to donate contact operators at the War Memorial, 881-7511.

He was also authorized by the solons to explore the possibility of developing vacant lots in the area for off-street parking.

Councilman Absent
A motion to table the issue for further study was killed by a 3-3 vote, since Councilman Douglas Graham was absent at the time the vote was taken. His vote would have broken the tie.

Voting against the tabling were Mayor Matthew Patterson, and Councilmen Robert Hutton and Charles Tomkins; for, were Councilmen George Verdonckt, Camille Petersen and Dr. Roger McNeil.

A second motion, to table the lifting of the parking ban on the avenue from Somerset to Cadieux for a six-month trial period also died because of a tie vote. Voting against tabling were Councilmen Verdonckt, Petersen and McNeil; for, Mayor Patterson, Hutton and Tomkins.

Another Possibility
Councilman McNeil then motioned that the city manager be authorized to check into the engineering cost and construction of a parking area in the wide green section behind the curb, which would not disturb the present parking meters and public utility facilities anchored in their present locations. The idea of such a parking area was first suggested by Mayor Patterson. The motion was carried unanimously, with Councilman Graham, who arrived late, casting his vote.

"We're doing OK on the 'I Wish Board,'" she explained, adding that Diane Bladament of Grosse Pointe is the "I Wish Board" chairman. "Would you like to ride an elephant in the circus parade or have lunch with Phil Donahue in Chicago? We've got those in the 'I Wish Board.'"

Anne notes that the amount of cash donations and gift certificates are OK but says with dismay, "I'm really alarmed by the low number of table items we have to display. You can't have an eight-day auction without them."

Anybody out there, who wants to make a donation, can just call us at 873-7200 or drop it off here at the station any time between 10 a.m.-8 p.m. The item must be brand new and valued at $35 or more.

"To the uninitiated the auction looks like just a lot of rattle and frenzied fun," said Channel 56's station general manager, James N. Christenson, "but it really is the serious business of raising about one-third of the operating funds for Channel 56, which as a public, non-profit, television station has no sponsors."

Seawall Proposal

where the Moroun lot meets the Warren Wilkinson frontage. The two families offered to finance the entire project and asked that The City relinquish its title to the two triangular pieces of land that about their property. When a number of City residents voiced their objections to the idea of closing off the boat ramp and to the City Council considering giving away some valuable lakefront property, the council decided the right of way at the foot of the street should be retained and that the boat ramp should be accessible to the public when water levels make this possible.

The Whiteleys and Morouns, the solons said, would have to work with the city and devise a plan that was more agreeable and did not necessitate closing off the public's access to the boat ramp.

At a regular March council meeting, the seawall issue again appeared on the agenda but action was tabled until the city engineer could study the new proposal and see if it was feasible.

The Morouns, the Whiteleys and the city engineer all appeared at the last regular meeting Monday, April 21, to ask that the council consider one of two plans.

The first alternate would cost The City approximately $2,000 while the second, which was more to the Moroun's and Whiteley's liking, would cost approximately $23,000.

The council agreed that it could really only afford to implement the first plan at this point even though the solons realized the latter would be better in terms of long-range durability.

This plan creates two separate seawalls, one beginning within the City Park and extending 204 feet diagonally across the Whiteley front yard to one side of the foot of Lakeland, and another, extending from the other side of the street, 179 feet across Dr. Moroun's land to where it meets the Wilkinson seawall.

About 60 feet of City land will remain in between the two walls and both will be built out into the lake anywhere from one to 40 feet farther from their present location.

The two families will pay for the seawall on about 100 feet of the City property and the landfill for the area between the old and new walls will be obtained from the boat channel off Neff Park. This area is generally dredged every few years to accommodate keel boats.

During the meeting Monday, there was still some disagreement among the two parties about whether or not another alternative might be worked out. But the council felt its best move at that point would be to authorize implementation of the first plan with the stipulation that should another plan evolve, it would be subject to further review and approval.

The Morouns and Whiteleys agreed with this procedure and immediately left the meeting to discuss further plans with the city engineer.

According to City Manager Thomas Kressbach, however, the Morouns and Whiteleys later agreed to stick with the plan that had been approved by the Council.

SET PAY SCHEDULE

The City Council, during a regular meeting Monday, April 21, approved a resolution establishing a comparative schedule for certain part-time positions that are effective with the beginning of the 1975 spring-summer programs. Basically, the resolution ups the pay scale 10 cents an hour for lifeguards and tennis court attendants.

we know is important to the community."

As a result Channel 56 is able to offer such network shows as Masterpiece Theatre, Sesame Street, Ascent of Man, Wall Street Week and Theater in America, and at the same time local productions like It's Your Turn, Common Ground and Only Then Regale My Eyes, which Mr. Christenson smiled and said, "will be shown again this Sunday at 6:30 p.m."

YSD Program

Fred Canas are conducting the YSD's second group program.

On Full Schedule
When the division became fully operational in August 1970, the four liaison officers were responsible for counseling duties. In 1971, part-time counselors were hired and this pattern has continued to this day.

The YSD office reports that the counselors, who receive $2.10 an hour, are currently working a full schedule on a collective basis. Each works eight hours a week with their workload being based on hours as opposed to the number of personnel on the job. They are reported to be collectively working the maximum number of hours with such a workload remaining reasonably consistent through the years.

At the same time, the YSD office stressed the need for such a program which was termed "one of the first lines of operation," when a petition isn't filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court in a specific case.

Woods Changes Meeting Date

The Woods Council unanimously changed the date of its second regular meeting this month from Monday, May 19, to Thursday, May 15, because the former date is "Mayor's Exchange Day."

At the same time, the solons set May 15 as the public hearing date on the city's proposed 1975-76 fiscal year budget.

The first regular meeting of the month remains Monday, May 5, in The Woods Municipal Building, 20025 Mack avenue. The time for both May sessions is 7:30 p.m.

Drug Sale Gets Youth 90 Days

A 20-year-old St. Clair Shores youth was sentenced to 90 days in DeLoCo, (Detroit House of Correction), by Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis Wednesday, April 16, after pleading guilty to possession of phenylcyclidine, (PCP), in March.

This action stemmed from the arrest of William Frederick Molinaro by Youth Service Division Det. Donald Schmaltz during a basketball game at North High School in February.

During the game, according to the detective's report, a student informant reported that Molinaro, a private guard, was selling suspected drugs for $1 a hit. The informant stated he obtained the information while talking to the guard, who offered to sell him the drug.

So Det. Schmaltz gave the informant a $1 bill, the serial number of which the officer recorded, and told him to buy one hit from the defendant. The detective watched as the informant approached the guard and engaged him in conversation for around 15-20 minutes.

After the purchase was made, the informant gave Det. Schmaltz one pink tablet which, at that time, was believed to be suspected LSD. However, a Regional Crime Detection Laboratory analysis revealed the presence of PCP, an animal tranquilizer.

After Molinaro was placed under arrest, Det. Michael Ferrence, who arrived at the scene, asked him to empty his wallet as the informant said Molinaro kept the substance, wrapped in paper, in his billfold.

As he opened his wallet, Det. Schmaltz observed a folded piece of paper containing one white tablet, which, the detective noted, also contained the presence of PCP.

Molinaro told the officers he had acquired the tablets while on duty at a dance in Detroit. Not having disposed of them previous to this occasion, he decided to sell the drugs to make a couple of extra dollars, police said.

A further check of his wallet revealed a total of $3 in his possession, one of which was the dollar bill the officer gave the informant.

Woods Planners Submit Multiple Home Standards

By Roger A. Waha

The Woods Planning Commission at its regular meeting Tuesday, April 22, approved, for submission to the council for its consideration and study, five conceptual standards on which to base a multiple housing ordinance revision, reported Commissioner Thomas Fahrner, chairman of the body's multiple dwelling study group.

This action stems from the commission's ongoing review and updating of Zoning Ordinance No. 88 which has been underway for over a year.

Mr. Fahrner said he and three other study group members, Commissioners Peter Gilezan, John Kennedy and George Rinaldi, held several closed meetings in preparing the standards.

Many points were considered in this work including a review of the different classifications, i.e., dwelling unit size, lot area, parking, access roads and set back; that the suggestions offered were based upon the principle of equity so there's not a reduction of quality living nor an increase in the density within the community; and that figures for the standards were derived from the city's zoning ordinance, as well as from other communities.

Individual opinions of developed areas in surrounding neighborhoods as to aesthetics, size and ease of parking, et al, also were utilized.

Mr. Fahrner said the standards as approved for the council's consideration are:

• Dwelling unit size. Minimum living space 750 square feet per unit with one bedroom plus 150 square feet for each additional bedroom. Minimum gross area 1,000 square feet per unit.

• Lot area. A total of 5,000 square feet per unit—calculated net of access road and service facilities. Green belt casements may be included in calculation.

• Parking. Two adjacent enclosed spaces 10' x 20' per unit, plus two parking spaces per unit for visitors plus one additional parking space for all bedrooms over three. All space to be off street contained within lot and in no way reducing use of access or service drives.

• Access roads. Access road and service drive must be contained within the adjacent public streets. (No parking space should access directly into a public street).

• Setback. Minimum setback on all sides to nearest property line or public road is 30 feet per story of the highest building or structure on the lot, not to be less than 30 feet of setback for each 10 feet or fraction thereof in elevation of the highest structure.

This area must be in green belt, ingress and egress allowed through green belt. In no case shall the setback be less than 30 feet on every side. Setback to green belt is not to be used for parking.

The council as the Committee of the Whole is currently studying Planning Commission recommendations in relation to single family dwellings.

Police Arrest Teen Burglars

Four juveniles were arrested as the result of an excellent police investigation and hard work by a Park officer, and $2,400 worth of stolen tools were recovered, according to information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan on Monday, April 28.

The lieutenant disclosed that the arrests and recovery also made it possible for Detroit police to arrest a fence, (purchaser and seller of stolen property), who had bought the tools from the juveniles.

The tools were stolen from the Richard Buick car sales, 15103 Kercheval, some time between April 18 and 19.

Players Slate May 2 Concert

The final event of the Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe's 1974-75 season will consist of dinner and a concert at the War Memorial Friday, May 2.

Dinner will begin about 5:50 p.m. and the concert, featuring works of Mozart, Beethoven and Gounod, will follow at 8 p.m. A charge of $1.50 per person will cover both the dinner and the concert; non-club members are invited to attend.

A charge of $1.50 to non-members will cover the concert only; members will be admitted free. Those wishing to attend the dinner should reserve places in advance.

when the place was broken into. Lt. Duncan said. The burglary was reported to police officers on Sunday, April 20, while the patrolmen were routinely checking doors of business places along Kercheval.

One officer, while checking the doors at the rear, discovered a broken window after someone had heard breaking glass and called the authorities. A car was seen leaving the rear of the dealership before police arrived.

Det. Sgt. James LaPratt, through diligent investigation, arrested one juvenile for questioning. The youth confessed to his part in the break-in and the taking of two large tool boxes, three feet wide and four and one half feet high, filled with assorted, valuable tools. Each box and tool set was valued at $1,200.

After intensive questioning, the arrested boy implicated two other youths, and finally a fourth lad, who were involved in the burglary.

Sgt. LaPratt did an excellent piece of police work," said Lt. Duncan. "It not only resulted in the arrest of the boys involved and the recovery of the tools, but also made it possible for Detroit police to arrest the fence to whom the tools were sold."

Charges have been filed against the teenagers with Juvenile Court authorities. One lad is 15 and the others 16-years-old, it was said.

One-Design Sailboats Set to Race May 10-11

The Detroit River Yachting Association, (DRYA), is sponsoring two days of back-to-back sailboat racing Saturday and Sunday, May 10 and 11, on Lake St. Clair, just off Crescent Sail Yacht Club.

The "Spring Thaw" regatta is open to all one-design sailors regardless of club or class affiliation. All one-design board boats, catamarans, keel boats, and centerboarders among others, are welcome.

Last year, over 250 boats participated in the event.

Three separate courses have been established for the race. Any class with five or more registered boats will be given a separate start with all three courses operating simultaneously to insure continuous racing in all classes from the fastest to the slowest.

The courses will be located just off the southwest shore of Lake St. Clair at the club. Launching facilities will be available at four different locations. The race committee will also assist persons in obtaining hotel accommodations if necessary.

A skippers' meeting will be held at Crescent Sail, 276 Lakeshore road, on Friday, May 9, at 7:30 p.m. Following the meeting, class starting information will be available at other member DRYA clubs.

On Saturday evening a sailors dinner and party will be held at Bayview Yacht Club.

The fee for entering the race is $8. Entry blanks may be obtained by writing the Spring Thaw Committee, DRYA, P.O. Box 3707, Kercheval Station, Detroit, Mich. 48215.

Entry blanks are also available at local clubs and can be obtained in quantities for clubs and class associations.

Entries must be received at the committee address or at Bayview Yacht Club by noon Friday, May 9.

Other area members of the DRYA are the Grosse Pointe Club, the Grosse Pointe Sail Club, the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and the Windmill Pointe Yacht Club.

The phone number to call for further information is 822-2665.

Warning Issued to Public On 'Instant-On' TV Sets

"Instant-on" television is a great thing, but it can also be dangerous, in that it can cause a fire, according to information released by Park Fire Chief Phillip Costa. This TV feature permits your set to blink into action almost instantly rather than wait the normal 20 seconds before a picture shows.

With the instant TV, Chief Costa pointed out a finding of the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), which states that there is a potential fire and shock hazard. Because a constant flow of electricity keeps the set warm—so that it can come on fast—wires and connections could eventually wear thin. That is where the danger lies, Chief Costa said.

The worn wires and connections could cause an electric arc, igniting the television set's plastic case, the chief said.

In passing information from a CPSC engineer, Chief Costa said that once the plastic case starts to burn, there is a quick heat blast that has been known to melt plastic cups 20 feet across a room. Besides the fire, one of the greatest dangers is that the burning plastic TV cabinet can produce billows of toxic smoke that could overwhelm anyone trying to escape.

"The best thing to do in such matters as this," said Chief Costa, "is never try to 'fight' the fire yourself. Get out immediately and call for help. Call your local fire department."

Instant-on sets should stay off your purchase list, the chief said. Not only are they potentially dangerous, but they also waste electricity. A majority of manufacturers are coming out with the "old-fashioned" slow-on sets. If you can't find any that suits your needs, but you still want an instant-on, purchase one with a switch, or some other safe method of defeating the "instant" feature, the chief added.

If you already own an instant-on set, that doesn't have a cut-off switch somewhere, then see your TV repair shop about defeating this unsafe feature. If you don't want to do that, then, whenever you leave your house, pull out the TV set plug from its outlet, Chief Costa added.

The latter advice is recommended by CPSC engineers, especially if you are going on a weekend, or extended vacation. Aside from the instant-on problem, there is the added danger from electricity surges caused by lightning strikes along power lines. An unwise thing to do, it is said, is to keep unplugging your set after each viewing because this could eventually weaken the plug and cord.

Chief Costa pointed out that if your set should lose knobs, or the plastic breaks exposing the inside, have it fixed without delay. It could develop into a shock hazard.

Table Request For Variances

Sitting as a Board of Zoning Appeals during a regular meeting Monday, April 21, the City Council tabled Charles Witzke's request for variances to a proposed house that would be built at 885 Notre Dame avenue.

The council did not want to act on the matter without the go-ahead of City Planner Brandon Rogers who was not present at the meeting.

Mr. Witzke's requested variances include a reduction of the minimum lot size from 6,000 square feet to 5,250 square feet, a reduction of the combined side yard requirements from 14 feet to 10 feet and a reduction of the minimum floor area on the first floor from 809 to 644 square feet.

In a letter reviewing the proposed house, Mr. Rogers expressed some concern over the side yard requirement and the square footage of the building itself.

Mayor John King suggested Mr. Witzke meet with Mr. Rogers and that perhaps the two could work out a compromise that Mr. Rogers could recommend the council approve.

Mr. Witzke and his wife were confused over the procedural aspects of the request and there was some difference of opinion as to whether they had been advised of the proper channels through which to operate. They agreed to meet with Mr. Rogers, however, and will appear at the next regular meeting on Tuesday, May 20.

Shots Reported at Woods Park

Reports of several gun shots and a possible explosion in the area of Ghesquiere Park were received by Woods Police Thursday evening, April 24.

An Oxford road citizen said a small explosion occurred across the street from his home. A vehicle, which had just left the area, may have been responsible, he added.

While enroute to the scene, Officer Bruce Marone said a second citizen, who lived in the immediate location, called the station and said he observed a youth with a gun. Upon entering the park through the Jackson road entrance, the officer stated he heard shots coming from within the park.

Several policemen immediately checked the park on foot for the possible culprit without success. A resident seeing the search, told police he saw someone enter the park from Kenmore road and Jackson.

Officer Marone immediately

saw an auto going at a high rate of speed on Brancher road towards Mack. Cpl Gerald Kensora and Officer Theodore Hinz gave chase, pulled the car over and ran a check of the male driver, who was clear of outstanding warrants. Police felt the driver wasn't involved in the incident.

The youth believed to have fired the shots was described as white, in his teens, about 5'6" tall, of a thin build with shoulder-length hair.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Some of your best memories are when you bought your home. The shopping to find just exactly what you wanted was exciting, challenging and enlightening. Many people experience a "new" house only once or twice during their lifetime. Some people lately are seeing a different side of it however. Buying and selling, properly done can be profitable, and add a new dimension to your life. Today's market is an interesting one. A Seller can sell high and through the skill of a good Real Estate representative improve his position substantially without additional outlay. Too much trouble? That's what they used to say, but today a sale, purchase and redecorating can be done in a matter of weeks—effortlessly!

The People at Grasse Pointe Real Estate Co., 882-0087 are expertly trained to understand all real estate circumstances. They understand trading. They are redecorators, cost oriented, because they have an "in house" designer and fashion co-ordinator.

DID YOU KNOW?

Grasse Pointe Real Estate can contract certain improvements, such as a new kitchen, or painting, etc. for you at cost. Usually this is almost half what it would normally cost you.

List History Quiz Winners

Who was the "boy governor" of Michigan? If you answered Stevens T. Mason, you are right. This was one of the 52 questions in the Michigan History Quiz taken by Grosse Pointe Middle School children in observance of National Library Week.

A total of 187 students from 17 Pointe schools entered the contest. The 15 winners represented two parochial schools, one independent school, five elementary schools and three middle schools.

Prizes were awarded at an Open House in the Central Library on Sunday, April 20, by William D. Dahling, president of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, which sponsored the competition.

Elementary school children were tested on their knowledge of such diverse subjects as the role of the beaver, the location of the corn flakes capital of the world and the identity of the State bird.

In the elementary division the winners were Tammie

Nahra, Saint Clare; Julie Lenz, Kerby; Brian Hlayden, Monteith; Cynthia Marshall, Saint Paul; Michelle Beauzai, University Liggett; Dan McEnroe, Mason; Jeff Belote, Ferry; Mary Franklin, Ferry; Bill Aro, Ferry; and Jennifer Kuzel, Barnes.

For the Middle School group the successful contestants were Ed Boesiger, Parcels; Andy Sloss, Brownell; Scott Bordo, Pierce; Suzanne Ternes, Saint Clare; and Mickey Kemp, Saint Clare.

Suggests School Workers' Raises

A suggestion that annual School Board election workers be given pay raises for their duties to be performed this year on June 9, was tabled during a regular Board of Education meeting Monday, April 14.

Routine election business was being discussed when trustee Robert Warner proposed pay increases for the workers after hearing what they are normally given.

"I'm not sure we're even paying them the minimum wage," Mr. Warner observed when he learned the workers

Woods Nixes $100 Request

A request for funds for Woods senior citizens was refused by the council, 4-2, in action taken at the regular meeting Monday, April 21. The sum of $100 was asked of the city to help the group finance its bridge lessons.

Frank Cinder, financial secretary, told the council a contract was consummated last November with the Board of Education to have a teacher instruct citizens for 10 weeks at $15 per lesson for a total of $150.

However, Mr. Cinder said only 10 members at 50 cents per person per week for 10 weeks participated. As a result, the seniors ended up with $50 and were short by $100.

The majority of the council declined to approve such payment. Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos, who voted for payment along with Councilman George S. Freeman, suggested that the Senior Citizens Commission avail themselves of City Attorney George Catlin's services regarding legal technicalities in such transactions, plus the services offered for seniors via the city's recreation department.

Nixing the request were Councilwoman Joan M. Mulan and Councilmen Ronald R. Keegen, Conrad A. Naegel and John Sabol. Councilman Rodger A. Graef was excused from the meeting.

Couple Injured in LS Accident

A Detroit woman and her husband, driving in their family car, were injured when another vehicle, driven by a 16-year-old youth, struck their broadside, at the Lakeshore-Vernier road intersection on Sunday, April 27. The youth and six other passengers in his auto did not receive a scratch.

Injured were Louise Weber, of 5110 Alter road, who suffered a bump on the head and a cut on her left leg; and her husband, Karl, who suffered back and left shoulder injuries. Both were conveyed to Bon Secours Hospital by a Shores ambulance, treated and released.

The Weber auto was not driveable and had to be towed to a service station at Nine Mile road and the Ford Freeway.

According to a Public Safety Department report, the Webers were traveling south on Lakeshore and going through the Vernier intersection on a green light, when the 16-year-old, coming west on Vernier, slammed into the Weber car's left side, damaging the youth's vehicle's left front fender.

The authorities said that no complaints were made and no violations were issued.

For the past two years, Seymour Cadillac has been chosen as one of the top Cadillac dealerships in all America in the Cadillac Master Dealer Program.

Selected by the Cadillac factory management on the basis of points for each of the myriad of dealership operations, it is valid reason for the Agency's claim to being... "the standard for Cadillac dealerships of Southeastern Michigan."

Accomplishing this didn't just happen in that the dealership did start the race from a very good starting position. Its building, built during the '20's, was one of Detroit's original Cadillac "factory" showrooms and service centers. It is consequently perfect for a true Cadillac operation. No costs were spared. And the dollars bought a lot more in those days.

And today Seymour Cadillac is the beneficiary of those dollars and the craftsmanship they bought. Almost daily, customers comment on both the efficiency and the warmth of the operation.

And then, of course, there are the Seymour people. General Sales Manager Paul Mika has spent his total business life with the dealership and has worked in every phase of its operation. His knowledge works for both customers and the company. The Assistant Sales Manager of the firm is Al Zaleski.

Leasing is under the direction of Bill Anderson. Boasting 19 years in the business he, too, has experience in all operations. He believes much of the success of the leasing department comes from its commitment to "good, solid, equitable business deals between business men."

Frank Bromley, one of the true veterans of Detroit's automobile business, is Used Car Manager. Seymour Cadillac counts on him . . . and you'll find you can too. He takes the cars in on trade, he has them reconditioned, he prices them and he sells them. And the company stands behind his efforts and his product.

And then there's the Service Department and its head man Les Goodhue. Les, most probably, more than any other person in the organization is responsible for Seymour's extremely high percentage of repeat patronage. It is, after all, the efforts of him and his men who give truth to the promise of complete customer satisfaction after the sale. Another most valued employee in service is Shop Foreman Grady Killingsworth.

These then are the men, who along with all the rest of the staff, have helped the Agency to say to you... "One of America's greatest Cadillac dealerships is less than 10 minutes from Grosse Pointe."

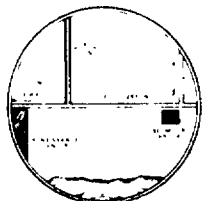

Want the ultimate in quality? The ultimate in prestige transportation? The ultimate in driving comfort?

Come to Seymour Cadillac. Our continuing success has been built on our truly Cadillac treatment of our valued Seymour Cadillac customers.

New Directress Explains ULS Pre-Primary Program

By Nancy Kramer
"Children," Mary Marie Berschback maintains, "are anxious to learn. They are excited when they're young and this excitement and interest should be captured." With that attitude, she'll assume directorship of the University Liggett School's Pre-Primary Program next year and oversee the initial educational experiences of 100 or so four- and five-year-olds.

And, she'll be making sure the excitement and interest of her young students is rekindled day in and day out.

Mary Marie firmly believes the Pre-Primary Program is an essential educational experience, "not just for the future, but for NOW." Children at this age level are eager to learn, she stresses. "They are curious and have a keen interest in all areas."

It's also important to note that how a child fares with his first learning experience has a lot to do with the course of his future education.

The ULS Pre-Primary Program attempts to deal with both the present and future aspects of a child's education by developing students who are self-confident, secure and ready to meet the challenge of gradually learning increasingly difficult and satisfying skills.

For Mary Marie, accomplishing this aim hinges on her philosophy of treating each child encountered in the program as an individual.

"I believe it is my responsibility as a teacher to meet a child's individual needs. I must provide experiences so individual children can learn to think intelligently, creatively, democratically and responsibly."

Just how is this seemingly lofty theory implemented? Having the right class size is important, as is the proper student-teacher ratio. Space and equipment play a role in the picture as well.

ULS has a 40-acre campus which provides a well-equipped playground and adequate romping space for any young child. The Pre-Primary building itself is large, bright and cheerful. "Everything is child-size," Mary Marie explains, "and this helps children to be independent."

The playground equipment is useful for helping children develop large motor control. Then, as they become more coordinated in locomotor activities such as running, hopping, jumping and skipping, the accent swings over to small motor control.

The children themselves demonstrate their readiness to advance. "You can tell when a child should be eased into new activities," Mary Marie says, "and when they are ready, we challenge them with more difficult tasks. We do not believe in pushing children."

So, in pre-kindergarten, the four-year-olds learn to share, take turns, respect the rights of others and assume some responsibilities. In kindergarten, the five-year-olds are prepared for reading by being increasingly encouraged to communicate and to grasp some feel for language patterns, structure and phrasing.

Despite the youthfulness her 28 years would seem to imply and despite the fact that she has only been at ULS since 1973, Mary Marie seems to have the experience, background and determination it takes to make a successful directress.

But educating children was hardly something into which she fell.

Schooling at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., emphasized Child Study and a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Tulsa was earned in Elementary Education. She received her Masters degree with emphasis on Early Childhood Education from the University of Oklahoma.

Her teaching experience prior to ULS included work in the Head Start program.

She also instructed a structured, self-contained second grade class as well as a second grade class where she was responsible for providing detailed individualized instruction for each class member.

Finally, she taught Language Arts, Science and Math to Kindergarten and grades one through three in an Open School.

The staff she'll be heading up next year consists of certified teachers Yvonne Stahl and Nancy Stamman and assistants June Bryk and Helen Hirth. "All," Mary Marie asserts, "are terrific!"

Mrs. Bryk has been at ULS since 1963, Mrs. Hirth, since 1960.

Mrs. Stahl, who received her Bachelor of Science degree from Western Michigan University, joined the ULS staff in 1966.

Miss Stamman, the most recent arrival, came in 1974. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Simmons College and has had two years experience teaching a reception class of four-year-olds at Fan Court School in Lyne, Surrey, England. She is currently studying to obtain her Masters degree at Wayne State University.

Mary Marie is genuinely looking forward to the coming school year and it's not because there will be any sweeping changes made.

She will continue to teach as well as direct in order to keep track of what's going on in the classrooms. "The basic structure of the program will stay the same, but I'd like to make the atmosphere more open. We'll be incorporating new teaching methods."

There's this one other thing about Mary Marie: her unbounded enthusiasm.

"School should be more pleasant," she muses, "that's why I became a teacher. I enjoy it. I'm excited to meet parents. I'm excited to be a teacher."

When the directress feels that good about herself in relation to her work, it's hard to imagine the program panning out to be anything less than a success.

Mercy College Honors Park Detective

Park Det. William Furtaw graduated magna cum laude from Mercy College, 8200 West Outer drive, Detroit, and received his Bachelor of Arts Degree at ceremonies held in the college's Student Center Faculty Lounge, with his wife and family in attendance. He was also the recipient of the Johannes F. Spreen Award for his academic excellence.

Det. Furtaw majored in the Law Enforcement and Protection program offered by Mercy College and attended classes part time, and at his own expense, for more than two years. He persisted in his studies in spite of a setback.

He attended the Detroit Institute of Technology (DIT) for two and one half years, and while in his junior year, switched to the Detroit College of Law (DCL). Because of the change, he was denied his credits by DIT, and had to start over again at DCL, working for his degree for another two and one half years, all this time going to classes while still working straight shifts as a patrolman with the Park Police Department.

He decided to undertake Mercy College's Law Enforcement and Protection program classes and switched to that institute of learning, taking his earned credits from DCL with him. All his classes were on a part-time basis and at his own expense. He studied hard at DCL and at Mercy College, and graduated with a grade point average of 3.89.

Police Chief Henry Counce, who had planned to attend the graduation ceremonies, but was unable to do so at the last minute, had this to say:

"Det. William Furtaw is a credit to the Department and to his ability as an officer of our Department. It is an outstanding honor to win the Johannes F. Spreen Award, and I and Lt. Gordon Duncan and his other department colleagues are very proud that he received this award. This is another stride toward professionalism Det. Furtaw has tried, and is still trying, to attain."

Det. Furtaw was appointed to the Park Police Department in November 1961. In early 1973 he worked part time with the Detective Bureau and later that year undertook a test and was appointed a full-time detective and has served in that post since.

The following is a letter sent to Chief Counce by Javene M. Trafflet, Administrative Assistant to the Director of Law Enforcement and Protection Program at Mercy College. This letter is verbatim:

"Mercy College of Detroit, to Chief Henry Counce: It is a pleasure to inform you that one of your officers, Det. William Furtaw, is graduating from Mercy College Law Enforcement and Protection Program with a Bachelor of Arts Degree on Monday evening, April 21. He will be honored at the Directors Reception as a recipient of the Johannes F. Spreen Award for his academic excellence, having obtained a grade point average of 3.89."

"You are cordially invited as Det. Furtaw's chief, to attend the Law Enforcement graduation reception to be held in the Student Center Faculty Lounge at 9 p.m. April 21.

"I realize that your position demands a lot of time, but if your schedule permits, we would be honored to have you as a guest."

It was disclosed that one other officer, Uniform Sgt. Thomas Martin, has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Law Enforcement and Protection, received from the Detroit Institute of Technology.

Another officer, Patrolman Edward Serwach, is expected to receive a similar degree from Wayne State University in June.

Optimists always exaggerate the visible supply of hope. It's impossible to find a good substitute for reliability.

Warn Baseball Playing Youths

Several youths received warnings for playing baseball at the Ridgmont baseball field in The Woods after police received a call from a Hollywood avenue resident Saturday afternoon, April 26.

At the scene Officer Paul Crook noted the field lacked signs prohibiting such activity and added many neighbors in the area were complaining that the field was too small for baseball. They were concerned because balls were being hit over the fence and into their yards.

The officer said a copy of the report would be sent to the parks and recreation department for their attention.

Parks and Recreation director Donald J. Hallmann said he hadn't received the report as of Monday afternoon, April 28. He stated the playground had signs prohibiting such activity but they were torn down during the winter.

Two Vandalism Cases Reported

Vandals in two apparently related incidents struck the grounds of a pair of businesses in Mack avenue, reported Woods police. The damages were reported Wednesday morning, April 23.

At Cox and Baker, 19521 Mack, three small shrubs were torn away from the front lawn and destroyed sometime between 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 22, and 8:30 a.m. on the 23rd. The value of the shrubs was palmed at $60.

Meanwhile, at Mr. Travel, 19517 Mack, police learned that someone cut three ropes to a flagpole at the front of the building. This incident occurred sometime between 5 p.m. on the 22nd and 8:30 a.m. on the 23rd.

Richard Pupils View Careers

Dozens of Richard School youngsters, members of Miss Dorothy Kotcher's third grade and Mrs. Carol Kalozer's first grade, spent Thursday, April 10, at South High School, participating in Career Day.

After assembling in Dr. James Kalozer's classroom, Dr. Kathy Herschmann, career counselor, led the students on a tour of the school. Several students in the Cooperative Education curriculum spoke about their individual fields including commercial foods, teaching, hospital work, distributive education, industrial arts and office assistance.

The high schoolers explained the co-op program, saying a student must have an interest in a particular area of work, good attendance on the job and the ability to keep up his studies in order to stay in the program.

Following lunch in the school cafeteria, the Richard children observed Russell Reed's orchestra in practice. Mrs. Andrea Kress and Mrs. Janet Schimmel gave the youngsters the opportunity to type on the typewriters in their classrooms.

John Thursby, assistant principal, administrative services, welcomed the children to South and gave each a candy treat. He explained to the youngsters how he handles problems concerning South students.

Other highlights of the tour included visiting the commercial foods kitchen, observing the medical aides and viewing students modeling home-made apparel in a sewing class.

The reactions to the tour were generally positive. The boys were partial to the industrial arts department and one said he wants to work with his hands because he knows a lot about machines already.

One boy had his very first encounter with a typewriter that day while another wants to be a reporter because he liked using the equipment so much.

A young girl said she wanted to care for sick people and enjoyed the talk on nursing. That seemed to be a popular career for many of the youngsters.

A favorite part of the day for most was the stop in the cafeteria where the food won approval from the children. It even inspired one boy to consider cooking as a profession because the "food smelled so good."

He's really a true friend if he never bores nor borrows.

Unlocked Car Draws Thieves

A Roseville woman reported to Farms police the right door of her car was locked but the left door was open when she parked the car about 9:30 a.m. in the east side driveway next to the church. She told police she saw two boys walk by the car and afterward discovered her wallet was missing.

A teacher at the church said she had seen four boys in the lot earlier in the day looking in car windows. Police are continuing their investigation.

AUTO FACTS
by KEN MEADE

Starting and accelerating with care during the break-in period will help the gears in your car to mesh smoothly, polishing off any microscopic irregularities. Harsh starts will slam the gears together, and their teeth may chip or even break off. The result can be early transmission or differential failure. If your new car has a manual transmission, your clutch may need special attention during this period. The cardinal rule is this: never ride the clutch pedal.

POINTE DODGE, INC., 18001 Mack Ave. 881-7210 is just one of the Chrysler Corporation's dealers giving you "The Clincher." Part of this warranty includes replacing, without charge, any of the following parts that simply wear out in normal use—clutch and pressure plates, brake drums and linings, disc brake discs, mufflers, tailpipes, shock absorbers and headlamps. We will do this any time during the first full year regardless of mileage.

AUTO FACTS:

Keep a notebook and jot down descriptions of any troubles you have with your new car during the break-in period. Then have them fixed while the warranty is still in effect.

Driver Faces Two Charges

A Lincoln Park man was arrested by Shores police for driving while under the influence of liquor, and later released to St. Clair Shores authorities who want him on a hit-and-run charge. The hit-and-run charge involved running into a boat dry-docked at the Jefferson Beach Marina in Jefferson avenue.

Arrested was Mark Gerard Sundstrum, 21, of 1519 Merrill, who was issued a violation ticket for the drunk driving and released to St. Clair Shores police after posting a bond of $150 pending a hearing date before Shores Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis.

Shores Public Safety Officers John Frasad and Michael Kenyon said that they observed a car parked in Stratton lane, near Lakeshore road, with the man trying to change a tire.

The man, identified as Sundstrum, appeared to be under the influence, but he claimed that he was not intoxicated, that he was suffering from the flu. The officers noticed that the left front fender of the vehicle was damaged and Sundstrum claimed he had been involved in an accident about three or four days ago.

Frasad and Kenyon returned to the station to make a report and while there, a citizen called to reveal that a man was lying prone on the pavement at the Stratton location.

Officers Frasad and Kenyon went to the scene, and Public Safety Officer Harry Hamilton responded with the ambulance. The first two officers arrived first, and radioed a cancellation of the ambulance run.

Officers Frasad and Kenyon said they arrived at the scene to find Sundstrum had changed the tire, but the new tire was attached with only two lugs. They observed the motorist enter his auto and drive down Stratton to Lakeshore and followed him.

The policemen said they saw Sundstrum weaving from lane to lane on Lakeshore, and saw him strike the inside lane curb of the road, and then swerve and hit the opposite curb and hitting the curb again at Deeplands, traveling at a speed of 52 miles an hour. Lakeshore is a 35-mile zone. Sundstrum was stopped on Lakeshore at Whitcomb in The Farms and placed under arrest for drunk driving.

Sundstrum at first refused to take a breathalyzer test, but finally consented and was driven to The Farms station. He took one test and failed and refused to take another.

A check over the Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN) machine, brought back the information that Sundstrum and his car answered to the description of the hit runner, prior to his being stopped in The Pointe.

SEMTA Drivers Get Awards

In recognition of significant strides in safe driving records, SEMTA (Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority), hosted its second annual Safety Award Banquet Sunday, April 13.

Awards were given to 147 drivers, including six Pointers, representing the three operating divisions — Lake Shore, Great Lakes and Metro. The drivers being honored operated SEMTA buses without a preventable accident for the entire year.

Area drivers, all of whom operate Lake Shore Division buses, include Richard Cooke of The Park, Phillip Leo of The Woods, George Tucker of The Park, Edward Long of The Woods, Phil Robson of The Park and Robert Turzak of The Woods.

For 1974, SEMTA drivers traveled 6,600,000 miles and achieved an accident rate of one preventable accident for every 22,000 miles traveled.

For the three months ending March 31, SEMTA drivers operated buses 1,592,314 miles and averaged one preventable accident for every 57,986 miles traveled. The national average is one preventable accident for every 18,000 to 20,000 passenger miles traveled.

SEMTA operates an active fleet of 222 buses in the Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties from terminals in Detroit, Roseville, Birmingham, Dearborn and Wyandotte. Detroit and Roseville terminals are Lake Shore Division.

Burglar Takes Jewelry, Cash

A platinum wedding ring completely circled with diamonds and a woman's platinum watch containing 28 diamonds were among items taken during the burglary of a Hampton road home Sunday, April 20, reported Woods police.

The ring was valued at between $500-$600, while the watch was valued at approximately $600.

Other articles reported missing included a man's shaver, $25, one worn corn cob pipe, $1, one lighter, no value, one nut bowl with around $3 in change and two rolls of pennies.

The residents said they left home to attend church and upon their return discovered the burglary in which the thieves ransacked most of the house.

Petitions Filed on Two Youths

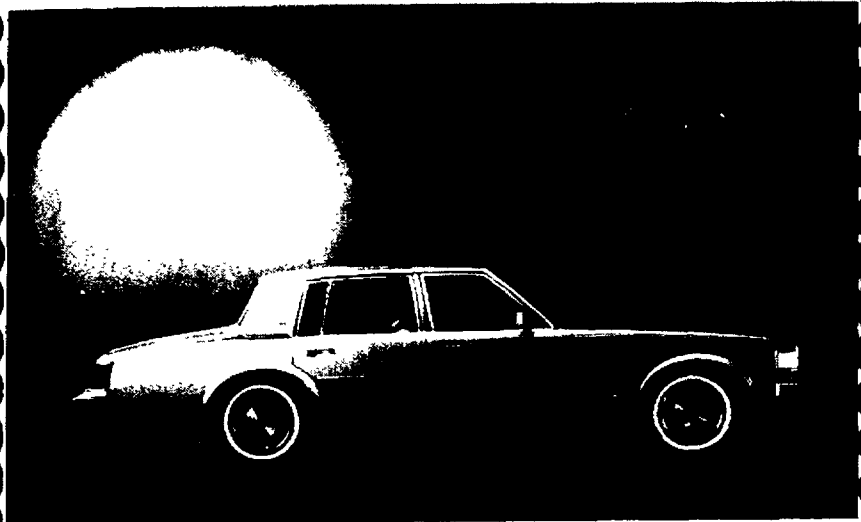

The Youth Service Division (YSD), filed petitions on two youths with the Wayne County Juvenile Court Wednesday, April 23, charging the pair with breaking and entering an occupied dwelling.

The juveniles, a 16-year-old Shores youth and a 15-year-old Woods youth, are allegedly involved in burglarizing a Woods Lane home last month.

All property taken during the break-in, including an assortment of jewelry, has been recovered with the exception of a ring and six spent 30-cent pieces.

Marcus, Krickstein Stage Big Upset in Net Tourney

In what was called a very successful event, Brian Marcus, 27, pro at the Lochmoor Club, and his partner, Pointer Kathy Krickstein, 15, upset top seeded Rudy Hernando, 33, of the Dearborn Racquet Club, and Trish Faulkner, 30, in the finals of the Michigan Open Indoor Mixed Doubles Championship, hosted by the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, Saturday-Sunday, April 26-27.

ULS Netmen Win in Chicago

By Robert Holmes
The "impossible" happened Tuesday, April 22, as University Liggett suffered their first defeat of the year at the hands of Ann Arbor. The score was a close 4-3.

The Knights made up for this loss when they won their next six matches. Four of these wins came during a trip to Chicago.

Against Ann Arbor, a Class A school, the Knights lacked just one point to make it a victory.

The closest match was the number one doubles match. Rick Fruehauf and David Hansen split the first two sets with the Ann Arbor duo. The final set went to 6-6, and then Ann Arbor took the tie-breaker 5-2 to take the set and match.

Winners for ULS were Ihor Debryn, David Buhl and John Hastings in number two doubles, plus the number three doubles team of Jeff Logan and Harb Hagermoser.

On Thursday, April 24, the Knights went in search of tougher opponents. In the "windy city" they took on Chicago Latin twice, Lake Forest Academy and Wheaton Academy.

ULS beat Chicago Latin 7-0 and 10-0, Lake Forest, 8-0, and Wheaton, 7-0.

The Knights have matches nearly every day so if you feel like watching some good tennis come to the ULS courts.

Woods Netter Wins Another

Paul Van Walleghem, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Van Walleghem of Coventry Lane in The Woods, won his fourth straight tennis tournament this year, beating Scott Wallace of Ohio, 6-4, 6-3, in the Louisville Tennis Invitational held in Louisville, Ky., April 17-20.

Competing in the 14 and under division, Paul has also won the Southwest Junior Championships, the Mountain Brook Invitational and Bob Love's Mid-Winter Invitational.

He's an eighth grader at Parcels.

win 1-6, 7-6, 7-5, on Sunday to capture the $1,000 purse.

Overall, between 700-900 people viewed the weekend action in the tourney which Bob Rodgers of the Hunt Club said was three times as successful as last year's regarding the caliber of play and audience turnout.

"Club officials have announced that a similar tournament will be played again next year," said Mr. Rodgers, who added a cross section of the State tennis crowd was seen on both days.

John Trump, pro at the Wimbeldon Racquet Club, and Pointer Kris Fulgenzi, 15, defeated Mark Conti, 26, pro at the Oak Park Racquet Club, and Pointer Debbie Mascarin, 17, in a special pro set, 8-6, to take third place honors.

Cougars Grab Squirt Crown

The GPHA Squirt House League Cougars recently fought their way to a come-from-behind victory in the final hockey game of the Squirt House playoffs.

Winners of the Midwinter Championship, the Cougars faced a strong Vetere Pros team as they had the best record in house league play during the season.

The Pointers entered the game undefeated in tournament play, while the Pros had suffered one loss to the Cougars earlier in the tournament.

The Cougars, coached by Bob Wright and managed by Bill Wilson, found themselves behind 2-0 after the second period of the championship game on Pros goals by Jim Trybus and Chris Bowen.

In the third period, the Cougars seemed relaxed and confident. Play seemed to turn in their favor with a goal scored by Ed Goffredson, with assists by Ron Koueiter and John Verona. Then a goal by Willy Wilson, assisted by Brian Cleland and Mike Miszczak, tied the game.

With 1 minute 23 seconds left, John Verona scored and the Cougars went ahead to stay. Gordy Kowalko and Bart Orban received assists on the winning goal. The Cougars entire squad played a strong defensive game, with Mike Wright solid in goal.

Fricke Strong Hitter at MSU

Pointer Mike Fricke, who made his mark in the area as a pitcher before incurring elbow trouble, is off to a strong start as an outfielder on Michigan State University's baseball team.

Through mid-April, the 6'2" flycatcher has been slugging enemy pitching at a .412 clip, while Big Ten hurlers have suffered through his .571 pace in conference play.

A graduate of Bishop Gallagher High School, Fricke began his baseball career in the Little League. The first team he joined was managed by his father, Egon, a former assistant golf pro at the Lochmoor Club.

Fricke was a member of the 14-15-year-old all star team in The Woods and was the number one pitcher in the Michigan State Babe Ruth Tournament in Alpena, besides being the club's leading hitter.

He also participated in the senior division of the State Babe Ruth Championship and hurled two shutouts including a one-hit, 13-strikeout effort in 1972.

In his senior year, Fricke was awarded the athletic trophy at Bishop Gallagher for being an outstanding athlete with the highest scholastic average—3.61 for four years. He's also played summer ball in American Legion competition and in the Adray League.

CALCULATING CALVIN'S CORNER.

World Travel is flying high. Hi, ya. It's your super-snooper friend, Calculating Calvin, with more facts and figures about Triple-A. This week's topic: World Travel. Did you know Triple-A's World Travel Department is the number one world travel organization in Michigan? Last year it sent 266,000 people scampering happily all over the globe. And 75,428 people bought their airline tickets through their nearby Triple-A office.

Free travelers checks. Triple-A started selling "no service charge" travelers checks to its members June 1. By the end of 1974, total membership savings added up to a whopping $80,000. But get this: In 1975, expected membership savings should amount to (oh, wow!) over $200 thousand!

Latest on the world front. Interesting. World Travel reports European travel down 30% last year. Due probably to spiraling inflation on that continent. Hawaiian tours, however, up a dramatic 45%—Caribbean island trips and cruises up 20%. More expensive travel packages have given way to lower price charter and group tours. (Did you know Triple-A World Travel is the only travel agency in Michigan that can arrange an international driver's license for you?)

Up and coming. A weekend trip by train to Toronto arranged by Triple-A World Travel. Comradship and carousing there and back. Also includes lodging for three nights all from only $89. Choo-choos leave every week. All aboard! Call your Triple-A office for details.

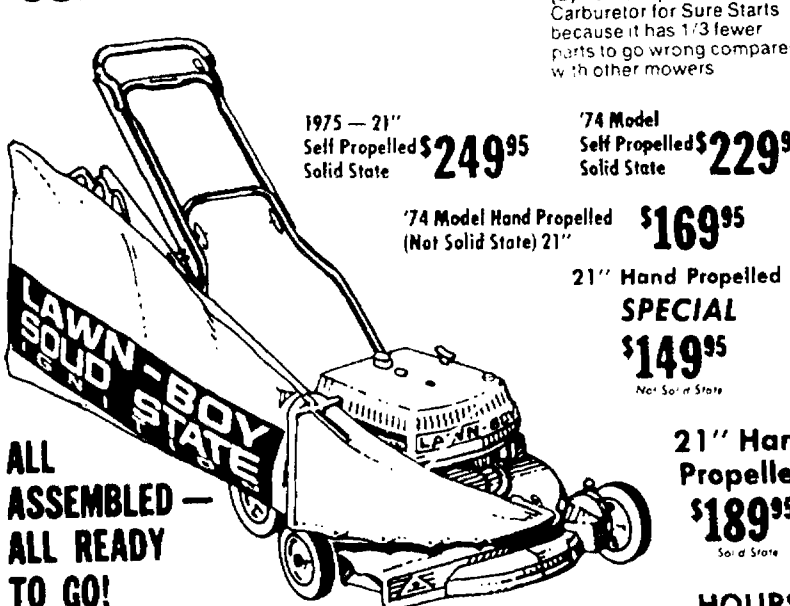

Super-snooper snoops out the best. I think the best thing about Triple-A's World Travel Department is a real, honest-to-goodness, warm-hearted concern for helping people—the kind of concern you're simply not going to be able to find someplace else. They're really top professionals who sure know how to save you money and grief on such things as foreign currency exchange.

That's all for now, folks. Calculating Calvin, signing off. Hope you'll join us soon.

GRADUAL LOSS

Because most hearing losses appear gradually, the victims frequently are not aware of their problem until it has become acute, according to the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation.

This awareness can even continue until the individual is no longer able to function adequately on-the-job or is encountering serious problems in social situations, the Crusade officials add.

GP Master's Third in Meet

The Grosse Pointe Swim Club Master's Swim Team tried to defend its State title at the Michigan AAU Master's Swimming Championships at West Bloomfield High School Sunday, April 27.

But it was not the team's day as Oak Park Village Swimmers from East Lansing came out with the high team award.

The Pointe club, coached by Tim Kennary, took a solid third place behind a strong contingent from Midland, Mich.

Held for swimmers from 25-80 years, the meet was double the size of last year's event, as 150 individual swimmers competed in some 26 events.

The Pointers had some strong relay team results and some outstanding performances from individual swimmers.

Carolyn DeLuca (30-34 group), went 1:07.4 in the 100-yard butterfly breaking a State record. Her time was better than the listed national record for her age group. She also went 29.8 in the 50 fly and this time bettered her own State record.

Jim Ketzler, (35-39), took first place in the 200-yard breaststroke and his 1:25.1 was good for second in the 100 breast.

Dr. Pat Jewell was 1st in the 200 back in 46.41 action. He also swam and placed in four other events and swam on three relay teams.

Jack Shook, (45-49), won the 100 backstroke and placed second in the 200 back and fourth in the 100 breast. Mr. Kennary was second in the 100 IM individual and the 100-yard back.

Other strong individual women swimmers who placed were Mary Jewell, Sandy Mollahan and Sally Hannert.

Augie DeLuca was solid among men swimmers, placing high in several events as did Harry Kurie and George Figley.

Tom Wines and Tim Hannert swam in several relays as did Dave Howell. Mr. Howell also placed second in the 100-yard breast.

Pointe Master's will stay in training for another month at North High School. Two swimmers from the team are expected to compete in the Nationals at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., later in May. Mr. and Mrs. DeLuca expect to make the trip.

Anyone interested in Master's swimming may call Mr. Shook at TU 4-3728 for information on the program.

Pointe Skater Finishes First

Linda Van Dusen, 12, of Stephens road, representing the Detroit Skating Club, won a first place gold medal in the annual Tri-State Figure Skating competition held Saturday-Sunday, April 5-6, in Columbus, O.

Her strong free style program drew a first place vote from all five judges to beat out eight other competitors in the Juvenile Ladies event.

The Tri-State Competition includes skaters from Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

Last winter Linda participated in the Eastern Great Lakes Regional figure skating championships held in December in Lansing. She finished in seventh place after competing against 37 other girls in the Juvenile Ladies Division from Alabama, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Mississippi, Ohio and Tennessee.

This summer she plans to travel to Denver with her coach Ann Seror for six weeks of intensive training at the Denver Ice Arena. The remainder of the summer she will be skating at the Grosse Pointe Community Rink.

NH Playing Steady Ball

By Bob Evanski

Coming off Mike Menzo's recent no-hitter, North won its next baseball game, 8-6, over Northwestern. Tony DeMarco pitched five innings of no-hit ball, but had to be relieved by John Cochell in the sixth inning. Cochell picked up the save. Dennis Herman "put one out" in the bottom of the first inning to provide North with a lead that they held throughout the game.

Aided by senseless errors, Notre Dame edged the Norsemen, 3-2. Brian Trupp went the distance but suffered the loss.

North got back into its winning ways again by dumping Osborn, 3-2, in extra innings. Mike Scapini picked up the win in relief as he pitched six innings, giving up only two hits. Menzo rapped in two of the three RBI's.

Notre Dame handed North its second defeat, 1-0, as the Norsemen sticks were quiet again. Trupp was on the mound for North, giving up

SH Tumbles to 3-5 Mark

By Lisa Roumell

South High School's baseball team played three games during the week ending Saturday, April 26, winning one and losing two.

The Devils' overall record is now at 3-5, while their league mark stands at 1-2. However, almost all of South's losses have come in very close scoring games.

On Monday, April 21, South defeated University Liggett, 8-7. Bob Glass, who started for South, chalked up the victory with help from relief pitchers Tony Michaels and Bill Abraham.

Mark Blanche, who got three hits, gave South fans something to cheer about with two home runs. More excitement came when Abraham singled in the winning run. Dave Ferris, Chad Morris, Rick Pfeiffer and Scott Smith also hit for South.

In a league game on Tuesday, April 22, Port Huron edged South, 3-2. Ed Scherish gave up only three hits and struck out four. In three games for the Devils, Scherish has given up a total of only five hits.

South had only two hits, one by Glass and the other by Pfeiffer. The Devils, which had 10 batters strike out, made four errors.

After having their games on Wednesday, April 23, and Thursday, April 24, cancelled due to weather, South took

NEWARK WINS Opening Game

By Joe Fromm

Newark opened the 24th Farms Little League season with an impressive 20-0 victory over Hawaii in AAA loop play Saturday, April 26.

Rob Carr, Newark pitcher, limited Hawaii to one hit, a single by Bill Prince in the second inning. Carr struck out 10 and did not allow a Hawaii runner past second base.

Newark backed Carr with a 12-hit attack led by Mike Ottaway's home run and Larry Fromm's singles. Chris Amore, Tony Amore, C. H. Crane and Carr each contributed triples.

One View From The Capitol

By William R. Bryant, Jr.

Perhaps it is inevitable that hard economic times bring a feeling that more is wrong than the economy.

Still, it is a source of considerable concern to me that we approach the bicentennial year with grave problems of crime, race relations and urban decay, along with questionable morality in many high public positions. I get the gnawing feeling that the closer we get to July 4, 1976, the more challenge, either peaceful or violent, either leftist or rightist, there will be to our institutions and our constitution.

America is not Germany, but many of the ills which beset America are closely analogous to those which were the roots of Nazi Germany and its "strongman," Hitler.

Recently a constituent, out of frustration with everything in general, asked if I realized how close people were to wanting a good revolution.

My response was to ask him what is a "good" revolution. The answer to most, hopefully, is that no revolution is a "good" one. But the gut answer for many is that a revolution is a good one if you and those who agree with you come out on top and in secure control.

It occurs to me that those people in our nation who, for whatever reason, do not buy an evolutionary concept of societal change, or whose beliefs are so far out as to make satisfaction of their basic beliefs through evolutionary change an impossibility, have given up trying to cause a leftist revolution.

My feeling is, however, that they have not given up trying to cause revolution and that they have turned to trying to bring about, by a kind of reverse psychology, a revolution in which they will take their chances and one in which they will fight to turn the revolution to the left and end up with a socialist victory.

I share these thoughts with you for two reasons. First, I would like to know if you have some of the same thoughts and, second, to the extent I may be right it is necessary for the people of our nation to realize forces work and to be watchful.

Know Your Schools

By James A. Adams
Superintendent of Schools

Recently, at my suggestion, the Grosse Pointe PTA/PTO Council has organized two committees to provide direct input to the staff on two vital topics: Budget and Curriculum.

The PTA/PTO Council's Budget committee is slated for its first meeting on Wednesday, May 7. Robert Kuhne, treasurer of the Council, will serve as temporary chairman. In addition to the superintendent, staff resource people meeting with the group as it begins its deliberations are Ray MacArthur, retiring Director of Business and Finance, and his successor, Thomas Oit, recently appointed assistant superintendent-Business Affairs.

Members of the Budget committee are Eric Truhol, Richard Moellering, Bruce Westervelt, Edmund Davey, Bob Yuhn, David Halter, Ron Bergeron, Sheldon Blager and Ken Roy.

The PTA/PTO Council's Curriculum committee has been divided into two subgroups. One, chaired temporarily at least by Doris Graham, vice-president of the PTA Council, is studying the school system's Language Arts program from elementary through high school.

At last week's meeting four staff members made presentations: Alma Fleming, chairperson of the English Department of South High School; Robert Reimer, chairman of the English Department of North High School; James Webers, chairman of the English Department of Parcels Middle School; and Dr. James Kaloger, chairman of the Social Studies Department at South High School. Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, assistant superintendent — Instruction has been assigned to work with the Curriculum Committee during its deliberations.

Members of the Language Arts Committee are Rowene Neidow, John Schonenberg, Evelyn Parise, Ann Chapelle, Carolyn McKee, Gloria Weber, Owen Young and Cynthia Huebner.

Others are Marilyn Counen, Linda Haerens, Nancy Ulmer, Betty Jean Nahat, Jean DeRonne, Mary DesRosiers, Grace Zigas, Diane Rentschler, Peter Higbie, Marge Nixon and Dot Allen.

A second subcommittee of the PTA/PTO Council's Curriculum committee of which Ruth Brandfield has assumed a leadership role, will delve into the utilization of the Performing Arts Center at North High School and probe enrichment aspects of the school system's curriculum. Serving on this group are Sharon Carlson, Sandra Wishart, Marilyn Pillsbury, Ann Wallace and Herman Golnik.

In addition to PTA/PTO Council activity, recently the Volunteer Awards advisory council met to plan for a second successful year and the recognition of at least a portion of those men and women who are serving our schools this year in a countless number of volunteer capacities.

Serving on the Board of Education's advisory council for the Volunteer Awards Program for 1975-76 are Thomas Candler, William D. Dahling, Ruth Flom, Forrest Geary, Laura Mackeben, Donna Marrs, Nancy Quinn, Frank Sladen, Louise TeWalt, Joan Warren and Charles F. Woodbury Jr.

We depend in many ways upon the help and participation of many volunteers and interested citizens. If the schools are to truly represent the interest of the community, it is imperative that citizens' study committees as those I have outlined above be organized and made an integral part of the decision-making process of the district.

I fully support the need for citizen input and will continue to make every effort to involve our citizenry in the operation of the public schools.

South Netters Split Matches

By Rick Thomas

Functioning under their newly adopted reconstruction plan, South High School's varsity tennis team has found only moderate success so far this season.

The netters split matches against Port Huron Northern Tuesday, April 22, was postponed.

In the Port Huron Northern match, the Devils dominated as they won six of seven individual matches.

Winners for South included Ron Scherer, Mike Buck and J. J. Schulte in singles competition. In doubles, the teams of Craig Feringa and Bob Kabeari, Max McKee and Raoul Weiller and Dave Webster and George McMullen all were winners.

The Austin match was almost a carbon copy of a match between the Devils and the Friars earlier this season. Austin defeated South, 6-1, and the only winner for the Devils was the team of McMullen and Webster in doubles.

No pushovers are in store for South as one glances at their upcoming schedule.

On Tuesday, April 29, South was at home against Mount Clemens. Today, May 1, the Devils face the team considered to be the Eastern Michigan League tennis powerhouse this year, Port Huron. The next two days, Friday-Saturday, May 2-3, South will be competing in Liggett's Invitational Tournament; then a week later, the EML tourney.

With a schedule like this, the Devils must certainly prepare themselves for a rigorous test of endurance.

Spanish Club Meets Monday

The Grosse Pointe Spanish Club will present its final program of the season on Monday, May 5, at 8 p.m. in the War Memorial. Senora Carmella Castellanos will present color slides of a visit to Colombia.

Spanish Club meetings are held on the first Monday of each month, September through May, at 8 p.m. in the War Memorial. The public is invited to hear and see programs presented by a variety of guests throughout the year.

Cost of joining the club is $3 per year.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

In the March 14, 1975 issue of SCIENCE magazine the results of a fascinating discovery were announced. A team of archeologists from the University of California, while digging at a site in West Texas, uncovered the remains of a large pterosaur. The Pterosaur was a large flying reptile of prehistoric times. The wingspan of this creature is estimated to have been in excess of 15½ meters, making it the largest flying creature known to have inhabited the earth.

This discovery underlines the fact that man is still searching for answers to the secrets of the past, and to the origins of his own existence. During the past year a number of excellent books have been added to the collection of your library that attempt to give some of these answers.

Writing with his customary clarity and vigor, Nigel Calder brings the layman the latest news from the frontiers of the new biology in his LIFE GAME (Viking). And fascinating news it is. Calder toured the world in order to match his own capacious knowledge with that of leading specialists in the fields of molecular biology, anthropology, zoology, genetic engineering, etc. — hence this work's special authority. The recent acquired understanding of how genes work has brought man remarkable new insights into the evolutionary life game, and given him a biological say in his own destiny that's both dangerous and exciting. This is Calder's message. Copious illustrations (diagrams, charts, and photos in color and black-and-white) both illuminate and amplify his text.

THE LOGIC OF LIFE: A HISTORY OF HEREDITY (Pantheon Books) by Francois Jacob is so full of information that it amounts to a compact encyclopedia of biology. This book manages to convey, for all the weight of its content, a sense of continual excitement and wonderment. There is a single thread that runs through this history, holding all the details together and providing a unification of function and structure. It is the idea of integration, which the author believes to be the fundamental property of life on earth. Jacob weaves his way through the whole scientific history of four centuries, illustrating the ways in which insatiable human curiosity and an evidently instinctual compulsive urge to find and communicate information have led inevitably to one discovery after another of the new facts of life.

MEN AND MOLECULES (Crown) by Norman Metzger is based on the author's radio interviews with scientists under the auspices of the American Chemical Society. The book's concept is that of leading the educated public to an appreciation of ongoing research in chemistry. The eleven chapters range from genetics, aging, and ribonuclease structure to stellar and interstellar chemistry, the history of glass, and pollution of the oceans. The level of this volume is comparable with that of SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN though the style here is more relaxed. Metzger's emphasis is given to scientists as people working out problems, rather than to science as a collection of facts. His effort is a successful one.

THE LIVES OF A CELL (Viking) is a collection of twenty-nine short essays by Lewis Thomas, president of the Sloan Kettering Center for Cancer Research. Thomas can look at recent biological discoveries on tiny microorganisms and relate them to the totality of human society. He has perceptive and surprising things to say about our reluctance to discuss death, the gap between basic and applied science, misplaced priorities in medical research, to efficiency of termite societies as opposed to human, as well as apt comments on computers, bureaucrats, space research and linguistics. This fine little volume is a 1974 National Book Award winner.

Ritchie Ward in his book INTO THE OCEAN WORLD: THE BIOLOGY OF THE SEA (Knopf) describes developments in marine biology through the work of several of the most noteworthy biologists and other investigators. Included are chapters on Captain James Cook; that delightful observer of British starfishes, Edward Forbes; Louis Agassiz; Ed Ricketts of Cannery Row fame; Alister Hardy, who has written extensively for the layman; and others. In addition, the author has included material on the foundations of the great marine laboratories and on the voyage of the "Challenger." Although the information in this book is similar to others on the subject, the approach is different, and the final chapters — which question some recent judgments on conserving ocean resources — are provocative.

Richard Sets Pizza Dinner

Two sittings have been planned, one for 5:30-7:30 p.m., and the other beginning at 7:30 p.m. The two periods should provide enough time to serve the crowds which are expected to equal last year's large response.

Tickets to the fundraiser are $1 for adults and 75 cents for children. Co-chairpersons are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wachter and Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson. Jan Race heads the committee charged with making an enormous tossed salad.

To Honor Alliance Francaise Official

Detroit and Grosse Pointe Groups Will Join Forces to Bid Farewell to George Duca, Federation's Retiring Secretary General, This Sunday

Invitation cards penned in the distinctive Italic hand of William Bostick, vice-president of the Alliance Francaise de Detroit, are sending many a local Francophile to the telephone to make reservations for a brunch to be held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club this Sunday, May 4.

The occasion is a nostalgic one. The Alliance Francaise de Detroit and the Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe are honoring, together and for the last time as Secretary General of the Federation of Alliances Francaises in the United States, George I. Duca.

Mr. Duca is retiring after 15 years to devote himself to full-time work on the papers of his father Jean Duca, one-time Rumanian Premier.

An aristocrat of democratic ideals, Jean Duca had been a long-time friend of Queen Marie of Rumania and a leader of the Liberal Party, always opposed to Codreanu's Iron Guard, when he was called by King Carol in 1933 to assume the responsibilities of Prime Minister in the hopes of pre-empting growing Fascist influences.

Jean Duca was assassinated by a Guardist terrorist. George Duca, like his father a brilliant public speaker, was originally destined for diplomacy. He saw his formal career cut short by European political developments.

His eventual position as secretary general of the Federation of French Alliances in the United States has, however, often required all the training and talent of a diplomat, and George Duca discharged his functions as living proof of the adage that every man has two countries: his own and France.

He counts innumerable friends, young and old alike, on both sides of the Atlantic.

Feature Five Noted Authors

The sell-out sixth Book and Author Luncheon scheduled for Monday, May 19, in the riverside Grand Ballroom of Cobo Hall in downtown Detroit will feature five super-star headliners.

The Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women is one of the sponsoring organizations of the Metro Detroit Book and Author Society which presents the luncheon, along with the Women's National Book Association, Detroit Women Writers, Friends of the Detroit Public Library, Michigan Council for the Arts and The Detroit News.

Political historian Theodore H. White and playwright Tennessee Williams will be appearing on the very day their new books are published.

White's eagerly-awaited "The Fall of Richard M. Nixon" details the tragedy of Richard Nixon. His "Making of a President" series, now a four-volume set, covers the years 1960-1972.

Tennessee Williams' reputation as a genius of drama is firmly established with such instantly-recognized titles as "A Streetcar Named Desire" and "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof." "Noise and the World of Reason" is his first novel, although he wrote a novella in 1950.

Uri Geller, psychic-magician, will add a special dimension to the May 19 event. Geller has been seen on television displaying his unusual talent for bending metal objects such as keys, using only extraordinary mental powers. His new book is "Uri Geller: My Story."

Harriet Arnow gained national literary acclaim with her novel "The Dollmaker." Her latest book is "Kentucky Trace." She will discuss author-publisher relations as well as sharing some of the amusing fan mail authors receive.

J. F. Ter Horst is the special fifth guest. Ter Horst, Detroit News syndicated national columnist and ex-Presidential press secretary who resigned from the Ford White House last September, is author of "Gerald Ford and the Future of the Presidency."

Minimum admission is $1. Flanking Mrs. Wrigley are her Sale co-chairman MRS. STUART RANKIN, (left), and MRS. ADDISON BARTUSH, of Lakeshore road. Proceeds from this year's Sale — last year's drew over 5,000 visitors and raised more than $18,000 — will be used for the restoration of the Fort Wayne Museum, Detroit's Bicentennial historical project.

LYNN STEDMAN JR., OF NORTH BRY'S DRIVE

By Tom Panzenhagen

Lynn Stedman, Jr., looking and sounding more like the leading life insurance broker he is than one of America's leading yachtsmen, (which he also is), says his election to the presidency of the United States Yacht Racing Union will be his last hurrah in a fabulous career of sailing that has spanned 45 years.

Mr. Stedman says that after his term of office expires in two or three years he will call it quits: "I will only sail my boat—I will retire and just go cruising, period."

Perhaps those plans are more fitting than any others could be. For Mr. Stedman, now aged 53, has led a celebrated life, one of glamour and adventure that accompanies the reputation of almost any world-renowned yachtsman-sailor. Yet he has also led a life of tranquility and serenity, traits that similarly distinguish a yachtsman from, say, a speedboat racer.

How It Started

Speaking in restrained and subdued tones in the trophy room of the Bayview Yacht Club—he's been a member since 1941—the one-time Commodore of Bayview tells how he began in yachting.

"I started sailing on my father's boat, the 'June', in 1929," Lynn Stedman, Sr., still alive and a member of Bayview at the age of 84, was a member of the Detroit Yacht Club back then. But the senior Stedman sold his boat one day, and that was what first brought Lynn, Jr., to Bayview in 1936. A young man interested in yachting, Mr. Stedman recalls that when he arrived at BYC he was "just looking for a boat to sail on."

He found one, Ted Farnsworth's "Chanty" which won its class championships three years running, from 1939 to 1941, with Mr. Stedman as one of the crew members.

Won Three Mackinacs

Those were among the first successes in a sailing career that has continued into the '70s, as Mr. Stedman and his boat, also named the "Chanty", have finished second twice in the Port Huron to Mackinac races, (1969 and 1970).

The 1970 race was the 16th for Mr. Stedman, who has also sailed on a winning boat in the Mackinac event three times. His triumphant efforts were in 1942, aboard the "Rainbow," 1947, on the "Spookie," and 1964, sailing on the "Windlassie." The "Spookie" was also the overall race winner in 1947.

Other exciting competitive moments have undoubtedly come and gone for Mr. Stedman, but it has been as a yachting administrator that he has gained perhaps even greater renown than for his racing exploits. And there is a story behind how all that began, too.

yacht races." This year, for instance, the USYRU will help sponsor men's, women's, junior's and youth's sailing championships across the country.

Many Races Stated

Only two semi-finals among all those races will be held on Lake St. Clair this year, however. That circumstance is not because of any prejudice against the lake, Mr. Stedman is quick to assure, but rather because of the great number of other races that will occupy the lake this year.

Along with the Canada's Cup Race, with defending champion Bayview, Lake St. Clair this year will host the North American and World Two-Ton Sailing Championships. It is certain, though, that no one will blame Mr. Stedman for not scheduling more races on the lake—not with his reputation and nickname of "the peace maker."

That title is one which represents accurately not only Mr. Stedman's reputation but also his character. Again, befitting more the image of the mollifying insurance broker than a burly sailor, Mr. Stedman nearly scoffs at himself when he modestly recounts how he earned the name.

He Solves Problems

Speaking of the 1972 Bayview qualifying races for the Canada's Cup being held on Lake Ontario, Mr. Stedman simply says, "The races ran into some problems, so it was my job to go down and straighten it all out."

Of a more serious incident in California in which two yachting associations were "fighting for one another's territory" and in which Mr. Stedman fulfilled a similar role on behalf of the then NAYRU, he recounts, "I was sent in to find a basis on which the two clubs could live together." He succeeded.

"Really, it's all like raising and treating kids, and settling their squabbles," Mr. Stedman has had experience at that, too, having raised three children, all of whom have been members of his racing crew at one time or another.

Now A Grandfather

Those children are grown now, with young children of their own, which explains why Mr. Stedman sold his Mackinac Race-competing boat "Chanty" and bought a cruiser, the "Lurer." "This way we can take our grandchildren along on cruises and raise another generation of sailors," Mr. Stedman says.

So it is with that hope that Lynn Stedman, Jr., looks to the future. He repeats that "here it is, 45 years after I started sailing—I think it's time to consider retiring." But he adamantly maintains that raising another generation of sailors will remain one of his goals.

Asked whether he would consider retiring to Florida to enjoy something more than the restricting six months of sailing weather on Lake St. Clair, he replied, "My wife and I couldn't bear to move so far from our family. We're family people."

Dinner In His Honor

A dinner, honoring Mr. Stedman's election to the presidency of USYRU, will be held tonight, May 1, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Included among a guest list that will feature noted sailors from around the Great Lakes are representatives from the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, the Toronto-based club that will be attempting to take the Canada's Cup back from Mr. Stedman's defending Bayview Yacht Club.

building and setting it up for a one-day Sale was just too monumental a task, (given the short time allotted).

So this year a new procedure is being tried. Plans are to hold several smaller sales of antiques and white elephants, with dates and places to be announced later. Since the League White Elephant committee has had its own storage building, goods are collected year-around. Many are already priced and ready for sale.

As in past years, Sale items include many rare collectibles in furniture, glass, china and bric-a-brac.

More goods are always welcome. Anyone having articles to donate may call project chairman Mrs. Byron Nichols, 853-3974, for pick-up. All donated merchandise is carefully appraised, with statements sent to donors for tax purposes.

Proceeds from the 1975 Sales will help support Planned Parenthood Clinics in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.
