HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

COIN-OPERATED BAGGAGE lockers were sealed and security was increased at Detroit Metro Airport Wednesday as a result of this week's bombing at LaGuardia Airport in New York City. Similar measures, including more guards and dogs trained to sniff out explosives, were being added to airports across this nation in an effort to prevent a recurrence of the tragedy at LaGuardia, where a bomb placed in a 25-cent baggage locker killed 11 persons Monday night. Police in New York still have no clues as to who is responsible for the terrorist act.

Friday, January 2

A LEBANESE JET LINER crashed in the desert sands of the Arabian Peninsula Thursday, killing all 82 persons aboard. Searchers pulled 55 bodies from the wreckage of the Middle East Airlines Boeing 720 by nightfall, but swirling sands hampered them from reaching the remaining 27 until morning. An airline spokesman said the plane, carrying 15 crew members and 67 passengers, lost radio contact minutes before plunging 20,000 feet to the ground in the diamond-shaped neutral zone between Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Iraq.

Saturday, January 3

SCATTERED SHOOTING in downtown Beirut drove Lebanese off the streets Friday. Banks and stores remained closed in the face of sporadic duels between Moslem leftists and right-wing Christians. The national radio warned that most roads were still unsafe "due to the presence of armed men." Under an agreement reached last week, banks and businesses were to have reopened to restore normal life to the war-weary capital. About 8,000 persons have been killed and 17,000 injured in nine months of strife in the divided nation of 2.9 million.

A DEADLY STORM packing winds of 100 m.p.h. and more lashed Western Europe Saturday, killing at least 36 persons, destroying crops, disrupting shipping and threatening widespread flooding in Holland and Denmark. High winds ripped roofs from buildings, swept automobiles from highways and people from sidewalks, tore down power lines and tossed ships about like toys in a bathtub. In the British Isles, 24 persons were killed, most in mishaps involving wind gusts that reached 105 m.p.h. A London weather center spokesman called it Britain's worst windstorm in 29 years.

RECRUITING and training of American mercenaries to fight in the Angola civil war has come to an abrupt halt in the United States, the "Christian Science Monitor" says. "But the clampdown is not enough to have halted the operations of the 300 or so American mercenaries in Angola," said the newspaper in a story for Monday's editions. The "Monitor" said the halt appeared to be the result of an article published last week. The story said CIA-sponsored training of ex-U.S. servicemen for mercenary work had taken place at Fort Benning, Ga.

Tuesday, January 6

GUNMEN WAVING A RED LANTERN flag during a bus Monday night and shot 10 Protestant workers to death in the worst mass murder in six years of sectarian violence in Northern Ireland. An 11th Protestant worker was critically wounded in what the government called "Al Capone gangsterism."

'J Girls' Spread Good Cheer with Hospital Visit

Patients in Saint John Hospital's Obstetrics Unit were recently presented with gifts and flowers by Grosse Pointe's "J Girls." Gifts were presented to MRS. RICHARD D. VERBEKE, of Ridgemont road, and baby RICHARD by ANNE LINDEN, (left), and baby MARGA-RET BARONE. Anne and Margaret are two of a group of 10 girls from the Grosse Pointe high schools who work in conjunction with Jacobson's on community projects. They visit Saint John on a regular basis bringing cheer and gifts to the patients.

Dirty Deal Given Host By Ingrate

Caller Seeking Libation Returns Kindness with Attack; TV, Watch, Jewelry, Car Stolen

A resident of McMillan road was the victim of a felonious assault, armed robbery and the unlawful driving away of his automobile Saturday night, January 3. The victim told police he had been drinking in Priem's Bar, 17501 Mack, early in the evening and had then gone home. He said he was asleep about half an hour when someone rang his doorbell at 10 p.m.

Struck with Rifle
The victim answered the door and was confronted by a man known only as "Paul." "Paul" asked if he could have a drink. Both men had a drink, then "Paul" attacked his host.

The victim stated he was struck with a .177 caliber pellet rifle knelt in the kitchen, was knocked out and came to approximately 45 minutes later and called the police.

Taken from the home were a Magnavox color television, a watch valued at $1,600 and two rings valued at $1,600. The bedroom had been ransacked.

The thief also took the victim's car, a 1973 blue Cadillac with red trim.

The victim was taken to Saint John Hospital where he was reported to be in temporary serious condition.

Fines in Woods Court Handed to 24 Persons

Twenty-four persons received fines for traffic violations when Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis convened court on Wednesday, December 17. A total of 51 warrants were signed for failure to answer summons, 11 cases were dismissed and there were three bond forfeitures.

Michael Roll, 350 Hillcrest road, pled guilty to a speeding charge, and was fined $25.

Kenneth Craig Guertin, of 1625 Hawthorne court, pled not guilty but was found guilty of disobeying a stop sign, and paid a $15 fine.

Ronald Manfred Trute, of 4845 Bates, Warren, pled not guilty but was found guilty of changing his address on his license. He was fined $2.

Woods Senior Citizens Add to Activities with Achievement Program

Municipality Cooperating; Council Also Gives Blessing to Commission's Proposed Bicentennial Symbolic Tree

By Roger A. Waha

Action on the senior citizens' front in The Woods has been going at a feverish pace the past two weeks. First, initial groundwork was laid for free special college courses for seniors of all the Pointes late last month. Now, a thrust towards a pilot program for senior citizens' achievement along with the erection of a Bicentennial Symbolic Tree, sponsored by the city's Senior Citizens Commission, were discussed at the regular council meeting Monday, January 5.

While there were apparently some communication problems between the seniors and the council regarding specifics of the achievement program, the seniors gave their blessing to this proposal and the tree project.

Will Get Together
In an effort towards laying a formal format for the program, officials agreed to aid in the coordination process.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said he will meet with commission representatives within the next 30 days to determine their needs, explore cost factors regarding financing of the program, explore the possibility of having private foundations underwrite it and consider necessary housing, equipment and crafts.

The commission may have to recommend that the seniors be chartered as a non-profit organization, he stated, while adding they would have to be involved in the solicitation process, rather than the city.

And for his part, he feels such a program has merit.

Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos agrees. "I like to see the seniors get involved. It's good for them, they enjoy it and they are busy. They will get as much out of it as they put into it," he said.

Getting Closer
He stated that sometimes the seniors need direction and help from the city regarding potential programs. A war of communication problems between seniors and city officials, Mr. Pinkos said sometimes the council may think seniors are asking for something other than what they are really asking for, while seniors may feel the council isn't really doing enough for them.

But he feels both sides are getting closer together on the communication front. Pleased with the involvement of seniors in the community, Mr. Pinkos said he firmly believes the city has a responsibility to seniors regarding maintaining dialogue between the administration and the citizens "in a helpful sort of way."

At the same time, he felt the more people who get involved in the community "the better things go."

School Board Meets Jan. 12

The first regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education for 1976 will be held at 8 p.m. on Monday, January 12, at Defer Elementary School, 15425 Kercheval avenue.

The move from the Board Room at 389 St. Clair is in line with the Board's policy of holding meetings around the school district to enable interested citizens to attend in their own neighborhood.

Joan R. Hanpeter, president, will chair the meeting. Dr. James A. Adams, superintendent, will present his recommendations for the trustees' action.

The meeting is open to the public.

Thieves Pay Visits to City Homes

Four Residences Looted; Neighbors Witness One Burglary But Fail to Notify Police

The post-holiday week brought a rash of burglaries to the usually quiet Grosse Pointe City. Within one week four City homes were broken into and robbed with many Christmas gifts among the missing valuables.

"This is incredible. We usually don't have four B and E's in four months around here," said Lt. Robert Van Tiem. "Someone's really been working."

Especially distressing to police, though, is that in one case at least three neighbors watched burglars in action as they carried out pillow cases full of goods from a University road home. No one notified police until the homeowners returned to discover their house ransacked.

Silent Witnesses
Witnesses to the incident, which occurred on Sunday, January 4, sometime before 7 p.m., have described two suspects, a white male and female, (or another small male according to one witness), both in their early 20's.

The thieves apparently made their entry through a rear door by breaking the window glass, police said. The owners, who had been out of town, have not yet itemized their losses.

Thieves entered the home of Eugene Pomante at 841 Washington road between 4:30 and 9 p.m. on Friday, January 2, by sticking their hands through an unlocked milk chute and opening a side door, according to police. The home was ransacked and a television, clock radio, travel clock, silverware chest, several pieces of diamond and gold jewelry, clothing and over $800 cash were reported missing.

Pried Door Open
Entry was gained at the Joy Schmidt residence, 571 Lakeland avenue, by prying open a rear sliding door with a screwdriver sometime between 4:30 and 11:30 p.m. on Thursday, January 1, police said.

Among the missing items reported are two color televisions, fur coats and a shotgun.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bratsch reported a burglary at the home of John Carter, 788 Loraine road, on Monday, December 29, at about

Woods Studying Controversial Sign Ordinance

Proposed Amendment Would Eliminate All Open Roof and Solid Roof Advertising by January 1, 1978

By Roger A. Waha

A controversial proposed amendment to Ordinance No. 198, which would eliminate all open roof and solid roof signs in The Woods by January 1, 1978, was briefly discussed by the council at the regular meeting Monday, January 5.

The proposal, which was unanimously referred to the Committee of the Whole, (C-W), last September after a discussion between the solons, members of the Planning Commission and representatives of the Mack Avenue Business Men's Club, could come before the council for action at the first regular meeting in February, according to Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos.

At the Monday night session, the council unanimously referred a re-affirmation by the Planning Commission of its June recommendation for the council's adoption of the amendment to the C-W. The commission's re-affirmation was unanimously adopted at its November 25 meeting by a 5-0 vote with four commissioners absent.

Viewpoints Clear
The viewpoints on the proposal are clearly drawn. The commission is for the amendment primarily because of aesthetic reasons and affected businessmen are against it because of cost factors and potential loss of advertising. The council appears divided over the commission's recommendation in its entirety.

During the meeting, Mr. Pinkos said the council in total questioned the feasibility of enforcing that type of ordinance and also the equity involved in such enforcement. He stated the solons could either amend it or disagree with the commission and take no further action.

Councilman George Cueter asked how the city could enforce such an ordinance considering the fact that some businessmen have had roof signs up for 15 years?

City Attorney George Catlin, who drafted the proposed amendment, replied there has been a trend in Michigan law to enforce laws based upon aesthetics. If the amendment is approved, he said the city would request voluntary compliance. However, if this compliance doesn't occur, an ordinance violation ticket would be issued.

Aware of Problems
Realizing that many businessmen have expensive signs, Mr. Pinkos explored the feelings of the council at this moment. He said some members of the council question the necessity of eliminating all signs and the effect it might have on competing businesses.

While well aware of aesthetic considerations involved, the mayor feels the

Shoplifters Make Shops Hike Prices

Interesting Statistics Pointed Out by City Police Lieutenant Robert Van Tiem

By Tom Greenwood

In a local department store, a professional shoplifter takes advantage of the Christmas rush and slips a sweater into a large inner pocket fastened to the inside of her coat and then strolls out of the store.

In a drugstore across the street, a local housewife gives in to momentary temptation and palms a tube of lipstick. Walking to the counter, she pays for a pack of cigarettes before leaving the store with a curious feeling of pride.

A few doors down, a high school student stuffs a magazine inside his shirt before paying for a candy bar and leaving the store.

Everyone Affected
The housewife and the juvenile offender are all part of the shoplifting scene in the Pointes. While shoplifting is not the most serious crime in the city, nor of epidemic proportions, it is a crime that affects everyone who enters a place of business.

Nationally thousands of shoplifters annually steal hundreds of millions of dollars worth of merchandise. For every $10 theft, enough additional merchandise must be sold to pay $10 out of profit. To a store that realizes a five percent profit, this means $200 worth of merchandise must be sold over the counter to pay for the cost of a single stolen $10 item.

A quick-way to regain this loss for any business is to raise prices. Other tactics used to curb shoplifting are the hiring of extra personnel to watch customers, plus the installation of sophisticated electronic scanning equipment.

All this costs money, and the consumer foots the bill.

The National Pattern
Local trends in shoplifting pretty much follow national statistics. The young make up 50 percent of all shoplifters, and indications show this figure to be on the rise.

In The City, statistics released by Lt. Robert Van Tiem show there were 26 arrests.

Arrests Solve 2 Church B-Es

Park detectives solved two church break-ins with the arrest of a 14-year-old girl and two juvenile boys. One church is located in The Park and the other is in Detroit. It was revealed by Lt. Gordon Duncan.

On Tuesday, December 30, Park authorities were informed that three young children had entered St. Ambrose Church, Hampton and Maryland, kicked in the panel of a door leading to the sacristy and escaped with a tape recorder valued at about $60.

Det. Sgt. James LaPratt and Det. William Furtaw were assigned to investigate the matters and were given descriptions of the girl and boys involved.

On New Year's Day, January 1, the detectives, after an intensive investigation, apprehended the suspected trio, who fitted the descriptions given by witnesses. The officers recovered the recorder.

The three youngsters not only confessed to stealing the recorder from St. Ambrose, but also admitted to breaking into St. Columba Episcopal Church, at Jefferson and Manistique, on a previous occasion. Nothing was taken from this church, Lt. Duncan said, but this incident was referred to Detroit authorities.

An investigation is continuing to determine if the young trio has been involved in other burglaries, it was said.

Shoplifters Cause Hike in Prices by Businesses

rests for shoplifting in 1975. Thirteen of the shoplifters were juvenile offenders. Of the 13 adult offenders, five were taken to court and found guilty, two cases were dismissed, three cases are pending and in three cases, the businesses involved refused to press charges.

In both adult and juvenile statistics, females make up the majority of offenders. Both nationally and locally females make up about 80 percent of all shoplifting cases.

"Who really knows how much is lost that we don't hear about," said Lt. Van Tiem. "We are only called when they catch somebody."

According to Lt. Van Tiem,

City losses occurred in the same three or four stores. Although the same stores are repeat targets, there are few repeat shoplifters. "We have very few multiple offenders," he said. "If they're caught here they'll progress over to The Farms. Once caught there, they go on to Eastland. After they're let go on bond, we usually never see them again."

Statistics gathered from The Farms, City and Park, show most professional shoplifters caught are from Detroit. Most juvenile offenders caught are from the Pointe. "About 99 percent of the juveniles are from this locale," said Lt. VanTiem. "Those that are apprehended are turned over to the Youth Service Bureau."

In a talk given to Grosse Pointe merchants before the Christmas season got fully under way, Farms Det. Sgt. Earl Field lectured on the type of person who steals and the various devices used to shoplift.

Pros Hard to Detect

According to Det. Field, the professional shoplifter is the most difficult to detect and apprehend. "This shoplifter is in 'business' for the money," he said. "They usually steal to resell their loot to established fences. The offender often has a police record."

Det. Field related the record of one professional female who worked at her "trade" 40 hours a week. Working sometimes as a team with a male partner, she was able to steal over $1,000,000 worth of merchandise in a 10-year period. Her net income was $150,000, or $15,000 per year.

Stealing primarily from small men's shops, she admitted to the thefts of 1,900 suits in one year. She further told of stealing four mink coats, with an accomplice, in less than five minutes. The coats were valued at $9,000.

Fortunately for police and store owners, most shoplifters are amateurs and not professionals. The majority of adults captured are women, many of them housewives giving in to momentary impulse and temptation.

Some are first offenders and by catching them, many times they can be stopped from becoming habitual shoplifters.

Surprisingly, kleptomaniacs make up less than one percent of all thefts. Urged on by psychological compulsions, they often steal items that aren't needed — but that doesn't make their addiction any the less expensive to the store owner.

Drunkards and vagrants are the most clumsy and easily spotted shoplifters. They often steal because they desire.

League Honors Park's Mayor

Park Mayor Matthew Patterson's expertise in business, finance and municipal tax problems will stand him in good stead. He was recently appointed to his sixth term as a member of the Michigan Municipal League's (MML) Finance and Taxation Committee.

The mayor was reappointed to this post by the current president, Ernest C. Browne, Jr., a member of Detroit's Common Council. This year's chairman of the Committee is Oak Park Mayor David Shepherd.

"With so much legislation having local government fiscal implications pending and proposed at the State and Federal levels," Mr. Browne informed Mayor Patterson in a letter disclosing the reappointment, "the work of this committee assumes even greater importance this year. We need your continuing help."

The mayor expressed his willingness to continue in this post, and stated that he considered it an honor that he was asked to remain a member of the committee.

Members of the various MML committees are appointed by and serve during the term of an elected president of the League.

The Finance and Taxation Committee meets several times a year to study finances and taxation of member communities of the MML, and makes recommendations to the League Board, then sets certain policies that should be followed. The League, acting on these recommendations, then lobbies for desired changes at the State Legislature level, on behalf of its member cities.

Mayor Patterson has a wealth of background regarding business and financial matters and tax problems. He is a retired vice-president of Chrysler Corporation and retired president of Dodge, a subsidiary of Chrysler.

He has served The Park continuously since 1959, first as councilman, then in 1964, was elected by the council to fill the unexpired term of Kenneth Cunningham, who resigned shortly after being re-elected. Mr. Patterson has been mayor of the Park since, having been returned to office by the electorate of the city.

Mayor Patterson was re-elected to his fifth full, two-year term by Park voters last November 4.

Gunman Robs Driver of Bus

A driver of a Detroit Office of Transportation (DOT) bus, was held up at gun point on Sunday, January 4, it was disclosed by Park Police Lt. Gordon Duncan. The incident took place at the rear of the White Tower restaurant, 15009 East Jefferson, a bus terminal.

The victim of the hold-up, Luther Tremble of Detroit, called his DOT dispatcher, who in turn notified Park authorities.

Tremble told investigating officers that he was waiting in his bus, when a man came to the side of the vehicle and the door was opened for him. At that time, the driver said, the man produced a short-barreled, blue steel revolver and demanded he hand over all his money. Mr. Luther said he gave the bandit $31. The man grabbed the money and ran east on Wayburn and disappeared.

Mr. Luther described the man as being black, about 30-years-old, 6 feet tall, about 180 pounds, having dark hair and a black mustache. The man was wearing a brown leather jacket, a dark cap and plaid trousers.

Police searched the area without success.

Trio Arrested During Crime

Two Detroit men and a 17-year-old Park girl were arrested by three Farms police officers when they broke into a home in Moran road early Friday evening, January 2.

Arrested at the scene were: Michael Connors, 23, of 550 Newport and Empress Connors, 26, of 2621 Eastlawn.

The girl's name was withheld because of her age. Officers Gordon Evans, Clarence Reichling and Sgt. Marvin Krebs were sent to the scene after the Farms police received a call stating a breaking and entering was taking place.

Once at the scene, the officers were talking to the female, who was sitting behind the wheel of a 1974 Pontiac, when they heard footsteps coming from the rear of the house.

One of the officers checked the rear of the house and observed a man jumping from a one story roof of the house into the back yard. The man was arrested.

Patrolman Evans checked the front of the house and found the glass was broken and entry had been made into the home. While checking the door, Officer Evans saw a man looking out from an upstairs window.

The man was ordered to come out and surrender. When the suspect walked out he was arrested.

The girl was ordered from the car and was then placed under arrest.

Further investigation of the home was made, and a brown knit cap belonging to one of the burglars was found in the house. A television set ready to be removed was found, along with a .177 caliber pellet gun on the floor of the home.

The owners of the home were away, and a final list of missing articles could not be made until their return. The suspects were arraigned on Saturday, January 3 and an examination of the tric will be given on Wednesday, January 14.

The two Detroit men were released on $10,000 bond or two sureties.

The girl was released on a $1,000 personal bond.

APPROVE PAYMENTS

The Woods Council unanimously approved its eighth payment to Brenca Contractors Inc. in the amount of $20,634 and its second payment to Four Star Construction Co. in the amount of $20,700 as part of the Lake Front Park improvements project. The monies will be paid from the Recreation Construction Fund. The council action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, December 15.

Woods Seniors Strive for Achievement Program

A senior achievement program has been a dream of Irene Sutton, commission chairman. She told the council such a program takes money and management which is more than the commission, itself, can do. As a result, she wanted the municipality to coordinate the effort.

Mrs. Sutton wanted the council to direct Mr. Petersen to determine the feasibility of such a program and to clarify all matters relative to anticipated tax deductions and to solicit funds for such a program from private foundations.

Mr. Petersen told the council he was not aware of what the seniors specifically wanted and felt the commission should further explore this proposal. Both Councilmen George Cueter and John Sabol also said the commission should spell out a program and present it to officials.

But Mrs. Sutton felt the seniors needed the city's support and guidance in this inasmuch as the commission was a part of the municipality.

As it turned out, the council voiced no objection to having Mr. Petersen coordinate the necessary exploratory effort towards making the program a reality.

In hoping an achievement program would ultimately spread throughout the Pointes, Mrs. Sutton said she views around eight different groups, i.e., businesses, with eight to 10 people in each group. "I would like to have each group think for itself and let each group decide what they will do," she stated.

She feels craft possibilities could be wide open and cited such examples as all occasion greeting cards and jewelry.

"We recognize the dreadful effect of loneliness and understand the numbing effect of inactivity," said Mrs. Sutton in a letter to the mayor. "Our own lives will be greatly enhanced by the salutary effect of helping others."

With that in mind, the commission hoped to initiate a pilot program which would hopefully be in competition with other seniors groups. "This will provide constructive activities for senior citizens in a setting which currently provides opportunities for social interchange."

She called the plan a variation of the Junior Achievement program "reconstructed to meet the needs of senior citizens," and providing "an outlet for their creative talents and a need for their services."

At the same time, it would also give "one extra monies for themselves and also for the senior citizens group. It also means some work can be done at home and some work in small groups."

Mrs. Sutton felt that private foundations could provide necessary funds to initiate the program, provided the grant "will result in necessary tax deductions."

Administrative Aide Gerard McNamara, who has worked closely with the seniors, felt an achievement program would accomplish two factors.

One would be in providing a setting for seniors to get back into the mainstream of society as they would meet with their peers.

Second, this program would provide an opportunity for seniors "to do something constructive and generate income."

While it would be similar to Junior Achievement, it wouldn't be a mini-corporation, he said. "It would have an objective of manufacturing articles offered for sale and provide an opportunity for seniors to meet in an appropriate setting so they can be with other people."

In noting such a program could bring "hidden talent to the fore," Mr. McNamara added it would be a self-help program which, once established, should be able to sustain itself.

However, what specifically transpires regarding the program's potential development awaits the "meeting of minds" between officials and seniors.

A main council concern regarding the tree project was in the area of funding by the city. After Mrs. Sutton said her letter explaining the project didn't encompass funding, the solons voiced no objection to the proposal which will be handled by the seniors, themselves.

The commission is sponsoring the project of having a living Christmas-type tree, some six to eight feet tall, with ornaments designating various service groups in the community.

Mrs. Sutton hopes the tree will be exhibited on city hall grounds, either inside or outside, and also on a float in a proposed Bicentennial parade.

She suggested the commission will be represented by an ornament, along with the council, Kiwanis Club, Lions Club and many other groups. Ornaments or emblems may be of any texture and of any shape with words or trimmings on both sides, she said.

As for the free college courses for seniors, initial groundwork was laid at a meeting Tuesday, December 23, between Mr. McNamara, Mrs. Sutton, project chairman Frank Komerska, Wayne County Community College representative Laura Hardy and assistant to The Pointe's superintendent of schools, Dr. George T. Eddington.

Mr. McNamara said the college would provide a salary for instructors and would try to acquire class space. If such space is free, fine, but if rent is necessary, the college would pay for it.

The seniors now have to select courses which would be of interest to them. They are scheduled to do this today, January 8, at their meeting in the North High School cafeteria from 3:30-7:30 p.m. This is the next step towards making this program a reality.

Dial down.

It adds up.

Consistently dialing down your furnace thermostat can save you money. How much can you expect to save? Let's look at a few facts.

Dial down permanently.

You'll save about 3% on your annual heating costs for every degree you permanently dial down during the heating season. For example, set your thermostat back three degrees, leave it there, and you'll save about 10%. Dial down five degrees, and you'll save 17%.

Dial down nightly.

If you regularly set your thermostat back each night, you can save more than 1% for every degree dialed down for an eight hour period. For example, set your thermostat back seven degrees, and you'll save about 12%. This is in addition to the savings you'll get when dialing down permanently.

Dial down when you're away.

You can save even more money and Gas by dialing down when you're away from home. Because any time you dial down for more than five hours, you save. So, dial down before you leave for work. Or, dial down to 55 degrees when you're leaving for a long weekend or going away on vacation.

Just how much you'll save depends on several factors. How many degrees you dial down. How long you maintain the lower temperature setting. And the weather. The colder the weather, the greater the savings.

Our Gas is still your lowest cost fuel. Use it efficiently and you'll save even more. So dial down. It adds up.

put in at a later date.

Mr. Petersen said, if all goes well, construction of the pier would begin in the spring, while adding there's no thought of having boat dockage space in the pier area at this time.

Last year, the city applied for a DNR Land and Water Conservation Grant for a pier. However, after it appeared to officials that the original application would be denied because there wouldn't be enough money to go around, the municipality decided to go on its own towards construction.

Prosperity has its drawbacks—it costs people more and more to live beyond their income.

Study by TM Holds Interest

Recent articles in the NEWS mentioned the one percent study done on the Transcendental Meditation (TM) program. The study indicated that significant reductions in sickness and crime rates occurred in areas where one percent of the population had taken personal instruction in the technique, reports The Pointe's TM office.

Germaine Cieslak, local teacher of the simple, mental technique, states that one percent populations will begin to feel beneficial influence in all areas of life just as an individual practitioner of TM experiences results. She explains that not only will a one percent meditating community be able to take advantage of better health and a safer environment, but also reduced insurance rates.

For example, the insurance industry, hoping to improve the quality of health care, while reducing the costs, began a study of the TM program.

The administrator of a group insurance plan subscribed to by 700 people of all ages practicing the TM technique reported that this group demonstrated excellent health statistics, according to a release provided by The Pointe's TM office.

The administrator, Howard Lewinson, said that after 13 months the 700 people had paid a total of $69,722.65 in premiums. The company had paid out only $18,437.67 in claims.

"This paid-loss ratio," Mr. Lewinson said, "is well below the average for the industry. Normally, a paid-loss ratio of 80 percent is considered average. Naturally, we are very pleased with the 26 percent ratio of the Transcendental Meditation group."

Mr. Lewinson pointed out that the benefits of the Transcendental Meditation program had already been demonstrated in over 200 scientific studies in over 20 countries of this technique to improve the physiology, psychology, and behaviour of the individual.

Everyone interested in learning more about this technique are invited to free introductory lectures every Sunday at 3 p.m. and every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at 17108 Mack avenue. For further information, call 885-5566.

Robber 'Slips' Up on The Job

A Detroit man appeared very agile on Monday, December 29, when he leaped over the counter of the White Tower restaurant, 15009 East Jefferson, and scooped up a fistful of money. He wasn't so sure-footed when he slipped on an icy sidewalk at Jefferson and Manistique in Detroit, where he was captured by Park police officers.

According to information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan, the man entered the eatery at about 8:48 p.m. and in a surprise move, jumped over the counter, grabbed the money and was out the door before two female employees knew what had happened. The women called police and gave them a description of the culprit.

Officers Collin LaLonde and Andrew Meeker, who were in the immediate vicinity, intercepted the radio message of the robbery and scouted the area, driving down Jefferson, where the man was last seen running west.

At Jefferson and Manistique, they saw a man, later identified as Delrado Michael Gilmore, 18, of 1015 Alter road, running on the sidewalk. The policemen shouted to Gilmore to halt, and Gilmore did, abruptly, when he slipped and fell on the ice. He was captured and handcuffed before he could get on his feet.

In searching Gilmore, Officers LaLonde and Meeker found approximately $30 in his pocket, an amount said to have been taken out of the cash register.

A warrant charging the Detroit with larceny from a building was approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, and Gilmore was arraigned for a preliminary hearing before Park

Municipal Judge Urso that same evening. Gilmore was ordered detained in the local cell until he could produce $5,000, the amount set by the judge.

On Friday, January 2, a relative was able to provide the bond money and Gilmore was released pending an examination date which was scheduled for yesterday, January 7.

Did you ever hear the autonomic nervous system work? Believe it or not, the autonomic nervous system is something we are almost unconscious of—it controls the functioning of bodily organs, heart, lungs, digestive tract, and glands. In turn, this system is divided into the sympathetic and parasympathetic systems. The sympathetic nerves speed up function, and the parasympathetic slows it down, and acts as a brake on the activities. But this whole nervous system is not controlled by conscious thought—it is self-controlling. Which is probably why we do not hear it work or hear very much about it, for that matter.

Controversial Sign Ordinance Under Study

Mr. Pinkos then stated only a small majority concur with the commission's recommendation while noting at the September session, a motion was made for adoption but after hearing the views of businessmen on the proposal, a motion to refer it to the C-W was ultimately approved.

He indicated, in tapping the council's feelings, there's no problem regarding the ultimate prohibition of future roof signs. However, some council members feel more time should be offered than the January 1, 1978, deadline. "We have a good sign ordinance now but this amendment is a tougher one," said Mr. Pinkos. The current law, which was enacted in September 1961, does permit roof signs, he added.

Improve Appearance
The NEWS contacted Planning Commission chairman George Couillard on why it was necessary for the commission to re-affirm its previous recommendation.

"The reason was because it, (the amendment), didn't appear satisfactory to the council as proposed and the council asked us informally to review it," he said. The commission did so and then reiterated its previous recommendation.

Mr. Couillard acknowledged that a major reason for the proposal, from the commission's viewpoint, is based upon the area of beautification. He said a main objective of the amendment is to improve the appearance of Mack avenue. "We feel many neighboring communities don't allow roof signs at all."

He also cited another concern regarding the overall maintenance factor of such signs and the appearance of businesses in general when ownerships change.

As for the time factor, (elimination of such signs by January 1, 1978), Mr. Couillard feels plenty of time was given for the removal of signs.

Would Cause Hardship
Meanwhile, many businessmen feel they would be hurt by this proposal. At the September meeting, several men said such a law would force them to remove roof signs causing hardship on the advertising and expense fronts.

One businessman said some of the signs cost in the area of $4,000-$5,000 and questioned why they should be removed as long as they were safe.

Yet another businessman emphasized, "If you take away advertising from the small businessman, you will have empty stores," (over a period of time).

While roof signs would have been ultimately eliminated by the proposal, flat or face signs would be permissible, it was noted.

The measure, which also views pole signs and pylon signs, defines roof signs as any signs affixed to a building which extend higher than the top of the parapet wall or higher than the peak of any gabled roof.

Signs which extend above the building face or front elevation, and below the peak of a sloping roof, are defined as flat or face signs.

As proposed, the ordinance says on and after its effective date no permits will be issued for the installation of any roof sign.

Can Get Extension

It notes all roof signs will be considered non-conforming signs and will be removed on or before January 1, 1978, "provided, further, that such roof signs will be removed upon the change of occupancy of the building to which the sign is affixed."

The proposal also says upon application to the Planning Commission, an extension of time, not to exceed two years, may be granted for the removal of roof signs beyond January 1, 1978, upon such conditions as may be required by the commission to insure the safety of such structures.

Roof sign frames not being utilized for signs will be removed within 30 days from the ordinance's effective date, it notes.

At the meeting last fall, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen told the council there were approximately 54 roof signs along Mack avenue in The Woods which totaled around 18 percent of business places. However, he noted, around 82 percent or 246 establishments were in compliance with the proposed ordinance as it is now.

Yoga will be offered Wednesday evenings, January 21-March 10, by S.R.F. trained instructor, Richard Probert. Open to both teenagers and adults, the 7-8 p.m. class is for beginners; an 8:15-9:15 class is for students continuing their study. House Repairs Deadline Set Reconvening after the Christmas holidays, The Farms council gathered Monday night, January 5, for the first of its bi-monthly meetings in the new year.

One act of business before the council was the reconvening of the adjourned hearing last held on Monday, December 15, 1975, concerning the property located at 452 Madison Avenue, owned by Mrs. Marie Randazzo.

The property has been a source of concern for the council since 1969. Declared a "dangerous building" because of its deteriorated and unoccupied state for the last five years, the council has in the past granted extensions to the Randazzo family allowing time to repair the home and place it with a realtor.

In Monday night's meeting,

Council Accepts City Study Bid

The Citizens Research Council of Michigan has notified Grosse Pointe City that it has accepted the request to prepare a study of the possible consolidation of the City Police and Fire departments.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach said he received the notification by phone on Monday, December 15. The research will not begin until after the new year and will take from two to four months, according to Mr. Kressbach.

The Citizens Research Council is a strong proponent of consolidation of forces as a means of saving tax dollars.

Representatives of both the City's fire and police unions have come out strongly against the idea of consolidation, saying it would be a waste of money and would hamper their fire protection capabilities.

The cost of the study is not to exceed $3,000.

Pointe Chorus Invites Singers

All singers over the age of 16 are invited to join the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus for their Spring Concert, according to Chorus president John Slimko.

Registration will be open for the next two weeks on Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. No audition is necessary.

Rehearsals are usually held at Parcels Middle School, but the first rehearsal, slated for Tuesday, January 13, will be held at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue.

Chorus director is Richard Johns, who is also choir master at the Woods Presbyterian Church. For further information call him at 886-0710.

HEARING LOSS
Bacteria and viruses of head colds, influenza, measles, scarlet fever, meningitis and similar maladies can settle in the ear and may cause hearing loss, according to the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. Thief Leaves Trail of Blood

Someone entered an Anita avenue residence, broke several windows and apparently suffered some cuts in the process as Woods police discovered blood stains sprinkled about the house. The incident was reported Thursday afternoon, January 1.

At the scene, Officer Robert Kwiatkowski observed a broken storm and inner window leading into the living room. Blood stains were found on the storm window frame.

A pane of glass of a front door window also was shattered with a blood smear found nearby.

Police said a kitchen storm window also was broken with blood stains being found on some glass remnants and on the window frame.

Yet another pane of glass was shattered in a French door leading into the kitchen. A blood stain was discovered on the outer door frame, while the outer metal door knob was broken off.

Entry was apparently gained through the broken front window into the living room. Blood stains were found on an inner curtain, while a large blood stain was discovered on a book of sheet music, from an overturned rack, resting on the floor.

Further investigation revealed a blood smear on the wall of a stairwell leading from the first to the second floor.

The resident said three fifths of wine were taken from a living room wine rack and a set of keys was removed from a desk.

Nothing else in the home was taken or appeared to have been touched, police said.

Police added a shovel was taken from a side porch and discarded on the front lawn. This shovel also contained several blood smears. Two fifths of wine, one pint of wine and one broken wine bottle also were found on the lawn.

The incident is under investigation by the detective bureau.

by Pat Ulatowski

The wines of Alsace are always white and the best wines are made from five noble grapes—the riesling, traminer, gewurtztraminer, muscat and takay d'Alsace. The Alsatians have decided to abandon the usual French practice of labelling a wine with the name of the vineyard, commune or district, grower and shipper, in favour of the simpler method of quoting the grape name only. The best Alsatian wines are ready for drinking after two to four years in the bottle. It is a mistake to drink good wines very young, since they have not had a chance to develop fully.

You'll make no mistake when you rely on PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626 for your party needs. Choose from a wide selection of superb wines, beers and liquors as well as mixers and party snacks. And don't forget, we give a 10% discount off of our already low prices for wine purchased by the case. Please accept our best wishes for health and happiness in the new year. Open: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs.; 10-11 Fri.; Sat.; 12-10 Sun.

WINE WISDOM

Alsatian wines should be drunk chilled but not iced. Serve them in long-stemmed, oval-shaped glasses.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Now begins the season! The Sellers wonder just when they should consult a Real Estate Broker — the Buyers wonder if now is the time to begin looking.

It's best to sell without a deadline. It's best to buy when you don't really have to buy. This keeps the market an honest one.

So don't but off the obvious. If you're buying or selling start the process now and give yourself that margin of leeway that could save you thousands of dollars.

The people at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087 are experts in this field and don't forget — only they can sell you a house with a valuable one year warranty.

A Warranty — like insurance — is something most people cannot afford to be without.

Center Asking for Volunteers

Many volunteer groups are sponsored by and meet at Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Anyone with some extra time and a desire to help is needed to lend a hand in the one of his choice.

• The Cancer Crusaders meet each Monday in the recreation room of Alger House between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. It is not necessary to stay the whole time — only the hours you are able. These volunteers distribute raw materials to groups throughout the area from which to make cancer pads and they collect the finished products and distribute them along with general information to patients in the community. The workers also make pads themselves, for which there is a constant need of donated, clean, ironed, white material. They "brown bag" it and coffee is provided at lunch time.

• The Service Guild for Children's Hospital meets each Tuesday from 10 a.m.-3 p.m., bringing their own sandwiches. They are the only group permitted to serve the hospital outside its limits. They produce the many bandages, bronchoscopes and supplies used daily and frequently collect monies for equipment needed. Volunteers earn caps and uniforms and service stripes, according to length of service.

• Braille Transcription is taught to volunteers weekly on Thursdays 10-11 a.m. by Mrs. John McNamara. Workers learn to transcribe into Braille the many books and materials needed by the blind. In June, they submit a manuscript which if accepted earns them a Transcribers Certificate from the Library of Congress entitling them to work for such organizations as the Red Cross and Leader Dogs.

The Center's staff maintains for free loan of hospital equipment including beds, wheelchairs, walkers, crutches and many other items to Pointers. The Center also maintains a community blood bank for free loan of blood to Pointers in case of emergency.

Libraries Offer Story Program

India Subject Of League Film

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will open its 1976 program with "India and Ceylon," at 16mm motion picture by well-known traveler and photographer Mark Stevens. It will be presented at the Monday, January 12, league meeting in the Fries Auditorium of the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, at 8 p.m. The film covers many highlights of India, an ancient country with historic architecture, monuments and temples. Calcutta, Lahore, Bombay Jaipur are featured. Ceylon, off the southern tip of India, is photographed, with views of the jungles, working elephants and tea plantations.

The public is cordially invited to attend this program without charge. A reception for Cinema League members follows the presentation.

Single Parents To Meet Jan. 9

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of Parents Without Partners, (PWP), will hold its general meeting Friday, January 9, at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road.

Following the 7:30 p.m. coffee and social hour, attorney Wilson S. Hurd will speak on the subject of marital contracts and agreements made before or during marriage, and also arrangements for child custody and child support.

Following the meeting, an afterglow will provide dancing music for members and prospective members.

Driver Learns The Hard Way

A St. Clair Shores motorist's continued refusal to wear his glasses while driving, even after he was requested to do so by a Grosse Pointe Shores public safety officer, means a court appearance for the driver.

PSO Harry Hamilton disclosed in an official report that he was patrolling Lakeshore road, when he observed Anthony DeCapua of 23079 Joy, driving north on the road at a speed in excess of the posted limit and stopped him. After giving DeCapua a violation ticket for driving 45 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone, the officer brought to DeCapua's attention that the man's operator's license was about to expire and that according to restrictions, as marked on the license, DeCapua should be wearing glasses or corrective contact lenses.

When asked if he was wearing lenses, DeCapua said he was not, and when told that he must wear such, or glasses, the motorist became irate and used foul language. DeCapua put on his glasses, but after receiving the violation ticket, he took them off and threw them on the front seat next to him and drove off.

PSO Hamilton forced DeCapua over to the curb at Lochmoor boulevard and issued him another ticket, this time for driving without corrective glasses. The driver became abusive and demanded PSO Hamilton's badge number and was told he would find it on the two tickets he received.

As DeCapua continued north on Lakeshore, the officer followed and pulled up alongside, and saw that the man had again removed his glasses. PSO Hamilton radioed ahead for another scout car for assistance and again ordered DeCapua to the curb. PSO John Trevillian arrived to help.

Officer Hamilton then took DeCapua's ticket for failing to wear glasses and added "Court Only", and returned it to him and advised him to go on his way.

DeCapua demanded that the officer go with him to the St. Clair Shores police station, but was informed that he was not in that city, but in Grosse Pointe Shores.

Fred Wolf Wins Bowling Honor

Fred Wolf, of Lochmoor boulevard, not only was officially ushered in as the new president of the Old Timers Bowling Association at the group's recent and 45th annual dinner but he also was the recipient of the 1975 Fritz Howell "Flowers for the Living" award.

This national award, founded in 1961 by Sam Levine, editor-publisher of the "Cleveland Keger," is for outstanding contributions to the game of bowling.

Mr. Wolf received a plaque, framed copy of the "Flowers for the Living" poem by Fritz Howell, retired Ohio State sports editor of the Associated Press, for whom the award is named.

and two dozen red roses which go with the award.

Helping Steve Cruchon, editor of the "Michigan Modern Bowler," with the presentation was Norm White, of Lexington road, who, like Mr. Cruchon, is a past president of the Detroit Old Timers.

IRS Views Revenue Sharing

Individual Internal Revenue Service, (IRS), taxpayer returns for 1975 include questions on residence intended to provide an accurate basis for equitable distribution of general revenue sharing funds, according to the Office of Revenue Sharing, (ORS), of the U.S. Treasury Department.

Such funds are returned by the Federal government to state and local general-purpose governments under terms of federal revenue sharing law. The amount each government receives is based, in part, on population and per capita income estimates made by the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce.

The new questions on the income tax form are designed to identify the taxpayer's legal residence, which may differ from his or her mailing address. Authority to ask the new questions is provided in Section 6017A of the Internal Revenue Code.

The information from the residence questions will be used by the Bureau of the Census to make biennial population and per capita income estimates needed to insure that states and communities receive the amounts of general revenue sharing funds to which they are entitled.

For this reason, all taxpayers are urged to provide the information as an assistance to their states and communities.

The Internal Revenue Code authorizes a fine to be imposed for failure to provide the residence data, unless reasonable cause is shown for such failure.

Information provided to the Census Bureau, under law, can be published as statistical totals only, and no information about a person or individual firm may be disclosed to any person, institution or government agency. This law of confidentiality under which the Bureau operates applies also to the residence data to be collected on IRS returns.

The new questions are labeled A, B, C and D, and the wording of each follows:

Question A—In what city, town, village, etc., do you live?

Question B—Do you live within the legal limits of the city, town, etc.?

Question C—In what county and state do you live?

Question D—In what township do you live?

In regard to questions A and B, directions on the form explain that every municipality has defined legal limits. If the area where you live is unincorporated, or is outside the legal limits of the place named in question A, check "No" to question B. If you are not sure whether you live within the legal limits, check "Don't Know" to question B.

Question D, the form explains, applies only to townships or equivalent areas in several states, including Michigan.

Taxpayers who have difficulty in answering the residence questions are instructed to seek assistance from their local government officials or to write the Bureau of the Census, Residence Question, Washington, D.C. 20233, or call collect at 812-948-2111, Monday-Friday.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

One measure of a book's success is the number of weeks it appears on the best seller list. This week I would like to share with you the 10 novels that were the list recordholders during 1975.

Number one on the best seller list for 1975, for a record 42 weeks, was James Michener's CENTENNIAL (Random House). This mammoth novel about Colorado begins in prehistory with the formation of the land, and concludes with the social and environmental problems of the land, the people, the times, and their relationship with one another. This is a worthy successor to his earlier novels HAWAII and THE SOURCE.

THE MONEYSCHANGERS (Doubleday) by Arthur Hailey was on the best seller list for 35 weeks during 1975. In this thoroughly researched novel, Hailey unlocks the doors to a big Midwest commercial bank. The founder's imminent death sets off a power struggle for the presidency. Through this struggle the reader becomes privy to the inner sanctums of the banking world. Individual stories are engaging and dramatic, but the dominating and irresistible element here is the institution itself.

On the list for 28 weeks, Judith Rossner's LOOKING FOR MR. GOODBAR (Simon and Schuster) is based on a recent real-life New York City murder. Terry Dunn, born and raised Catholic, is an admitted murder victim on paper. Her killer is a drifter whom Terry picked up at one of the singles' bars she goes to because they are her only escape from loneliness and private terror. Terry is very real and the tangle of her life is told with great sensitivity and skill.

From his imaginative and scholarly understanding of Japan in the 1600's, James Clavell produced the epic SHOGUN (Atheneum) which appeared on the best seller list for 24 weeks. This book fictionalizes the life of William Adams, the English sailor who became a retainer to a feudal lord locked in a power struggle for control of all Japan. A wonderful story of adventure, intrigue, love, philosophy, and history.

The setting for Thomas Tryon's LADY (Knopf), also a best seller for 24 weeks, is a sleepy little Connecticut town in the years from 1920 to 1950. "Lady" Harleigh is the local belle, widowed young, enshrining the keepsakes of her wealthy dead husband. She is loving and kind, especially to young Woody whose idol she becomes. Tryon keeps his readers guessing all the way, and does a fine job of recreating nostalgically the period atmosphere of which he writes.

On the best seller list for 23 weeks was Michael Crichton's THE GREAT TRAIN ROBBERY (Knopf). A gang of crooks carries out the meticulous execution of a gold robbery that rocked Victorian England more than a century ago. The caper is fraught with enough misjudgment and happenstance to maintain constant tension. A grand and glorious blend of suspense, tongue-in-cheek comedy, and cutting social commentary.

John MacDonald's THE DREADFUL LEMON SKY (Lippincott) was a best seller for 23 weeks. Travis McGee's services are again required as big money made on smuggling marijuana includes death in its running total. McGee is tough, resourceful and lucky, and this yarn makes suspenseful reading from beginning to end.

RAGTIME (Random House) by E. L. Doctorow—22 weeks on the best seller list—is set in the first decade of twentieth-century America. The famous and infamous whose exploits dominate news headlines of that era—Houdini, Evelyn Nesbit, Freud, Pierpoint Morgan, Henry Ford—move in and out of the life of a fictional family. This heterogeneous group rag their way through the book to Doctorow's short sentence. The kaleidoscopic whole creates a nostalgic return to bygone days when life still held unshakable absolutes.

Imagine a German plan to kidnap Churchill. Such is the plot of THE EAGLE HAS LANDED (Holt) by Jack Higgins, for 21 weeks a best seller. A select group of German paratroopers trains to land in England and seize the prime minister. The build-up of their plans culminates in an exciting finale. Suspense is enhanced by a cleverly devised plot, superb characterization, and good dialogue.

On the best seller list for 19 weeks in 1975 THE PROMISE OF JOY (Doubleday) by Allen Drury brings to a close the political saga that began with ADVISE AND CONSENT. This series had carried some fifty major characters and hundreds of minor ones through almost 3,000 pages of dramatic events vitally concerned with the issues of our troubled times.

Center Offers Theater Buffet

Neil Simon's hit play "Sunshine Boys" will be Grosse Pointe Theater's next production in the War Memorial's Fries Theater. The Memorial is offering pre-theater buffets to playgoers on the evenings of Thursdays and Fridays, January 22, 23, 29 and 30. There will also be special buffet dinners offered in conjunction with the performances of Tuesday and Wednesday night, January 27 and 28.

A social hour over the Punch bowl precedes the 7 p.m. service beginning with the hors d'oeuvres table followed by assorted salads and then the hot entree table with roast sirloin of beef, fowl and vegetables with a variety of vegetable side dishes. The buffet is climaxed by a tiered dessert table of mouth watering homemade sweets and fruits.

Theater buffets are by pre-paid reservation to the Center's office. Parties of any size can be accommodated as well as individual reservations. The cost including dinner, tax, service and parking is $7.50 complete.

Cottage Staff Holds Election

The Cottage Hospital Board of Trustees approved the medical staff's recommendations for division chiefs, as follows:

Car Repair Law Meetings Slated

Secretary of State Richard H. Austin has scheduled meetings in more than 30 Michigan communities to explain the new State program for regulating motor vehicle service and repair businesses to consumers.

In the Grosse Pointe area, Bureau of Automotive Regulation staffers will meet the public at the Macomb Mall Conference Room on Thursday, January 22, from 1-9 p.m.

Michigan's new Motor Vehicle Service Law is considered to be the most comprehensive law of its kind in the U.S. It requires all businesses which provide more than minor vehicle repairs to register with the Secretary of State's office by March 1. At that time the Secretary of State will begin receiving, investigating and acting on consumer complaints against specific repair facilities. The staff will attempt to assist consumers in obtaining appropriate adjustments and can issue violation citations and take legal action on the consumer's behalf. Penalties include the suspension of a facility's license to operate in the repair business as well as possible criminal charges. To comply with the law, facilities must provide detailed estimates for all repairs and get the customer's signed approval before beginning work.

Puppets Tell Tale Of French Detroit

Galette des Rois to Be Served Following Detroit Alliance-Sponsored Program; School Groups Should Reserve in Advance

The Alliance Francaise de Detroit will present a most unusual illustrated lecture by "shadow-puppeteer" Mrs. Hugh McPhail this Sunday afternoon, January 11, at 3 o'clock in the auditorium of University Liggett's Middle School in Briarcliff drive.

Mrs. McPhail's program on the Early History of the French in Detroit, covering the period from Cadillac's landing to 1760, will be followed by a sampling of the traditional Galette des Rois. The shadow puppet lecture will be presented in English. It is the result of some three years' research in the Burton Archives to assure an accurate interpretation of the daily life and times of the Indians, explorers and missionaries, "coureurs-de-bois" and "colons" who left France for America, with careful attention to manners, clothing and food preparation.

The puppet show has earned Bicentennial Event designation. Mrs. McPhail, the artist-puppeteer, is a member of the Puppeteers' Guild. She will be assisted by Miss Betsy Bangs and Edward Mott. Mrs. Mott is the Detroit Alliance's program chairman.

An admission fee of $1 is requested from non-Detroit Alliance members.

School groups should make reservations through Miss Jennifer Tobin, 836-9510 or 352-4000, Extension 388, to assure adequate portions of Galette des Rois, the traditional coarse-grain, flat Epiphany cake containing a single bean and a green pea.

Those who find the bean and pea in their pieces are designated "king" and "queen" in commemoration of the Magi's visit to the Christ Child.

Toys Can Be Re-Cycled

While cleaning out the toy closet to make room for this year's Christmas goodies, remember that the games, models and sets that have served their purpose in your house can be put to good use somewhere else.

The Junior League's Operation LINC has a year-round need for toys of any kind, used but not broken. LINC distributes them to inner city day care centers and other community groups.

There's a constant demand for beds, couches, tables and chairs of any kind, too, for projects setting up offices or live-in facilities. In fact... LINC can use just about anything!

All donations are tax deductible. LINC's number is 331-6700.

Participating in Christmas festivities at the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the Place du Bourg-de-Four, Geneva, Switzerland, was former Torrey road resident Roy Ulbrich, whose three-week holiday trip covered seven countries.

But the high point of his vacation was—need you ask?—skiing in the French Alps.

Swinging Into Square Dance Fun

Grosse Pointe Council of Square Dance Clubs executive board members, (clockwise, from top), JOE and ALICE HILL, of East Outer drive, Detroit, MIKE and DONNA MARRS, of Grayton road, JOHN and ETHEL MARR, of Devonshire road, and FRANK and LEONA MECHA, of Grayton road, are swinging into 1976. This Bicentennial year, as in many years past, the Council and the Grosse Pointe Public Schools Department of Community Services will co-sponsor a free, introductory square dance, open to everyone in the community. It's scheduled for Monday evening, January 19, at 8 o'clock at Monteith School, Cook road and Chalfonte avenue.

Many experienced square dance couples invite their friends to come and dance with them at this free dance.

Many others simply "walk in." All dance out, for caller Wes Rea explains and teaches every figure used as the dance moves along, and non-dancers are amazed to find they can dance everything called, all evening long. Everyone's invited. The only requirements for participation are a partner and comfortable shoes.

A large percentage of "first-time" couples attending the introductory dance come back to enroll in Wes and Julie Rea's Square Dance Class for Beginners. Anyone unable to attend the January 19 dance is invited to try out square dancing the following Monday evening, January 26, at the Rea's first Beginners Class session at Mason School in Vernier road.

There is no charge for a try-out night, but there is a fee upon enrolling in the class, which will meet at Mason School at 8 o'clock every Monday for eight weeks, starting January 26.

Further information may be obtained by calling 884-2988.

Garden Club Council Meets January 16

The Grosse Pointe Garden clubs, meets Friday, January 16, at 9:30 o'clock at the Central Library in Fisher road. Spring Garden Tour will be discussed, and slides taken by Vernon Landry of last year's tour gardens will be shown.

Mission Talk For Methodists

Dr. Glen J. R. Eschtruth, United Methodist missionary home on a year's furlough after serving in Zaire since 1961, was guest speaker at a luncheon meeting of the United Methodist Women at Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church last Tuesday, January 7.

Dr. Eschtruth, a native Detroit, is in charge of medical work at Samutab, (formerly Piper), Memorial Hospital in Kapanga, has helped establish 18 rural clinics and has been instrumental in setting up a United Methodist radio network linking isolated mission stations in Zaire, where he served as general medical director of the Eglise Methodists Zaire Conference from 1970 to 1975.

He and his wife Lena, a dietician at Grace Hospital before becoming a missionary, were recently made chiefs in the Lunda Tribe. They were the first white people to assist, in August, 1974, in the crowning of a new tribal chief.

Dr. and Mrs. Eschtruth have three children.

Pointe Symphony Women Will Meet

Fresh Flowers to Spotlight 'June in January' Atmosphere at Lochmoor Club Next Thursday; Virginia Person to Sing

The next general membership meeting of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee, to be held Thursday, January 15, at Lochmoor Club, will feature a festive brunch at noon.

"We're planning a 'June in January' atmosphere, with lots of fresh flowers," says Mrs. Ralph Urso, who shares responsibility for the Committee's social affairs with Mrs. Harold Lee.

A business session scheduled for 11 o'clock in the main dining room, and a cocktail hour, will precede brunch. A musical program featuring soprano Virginia Person and pianist Barbara McIntosh rounds out the day's activities.

Mrs. Person, who has a Masters degree in Music from the University of Michigan, has appeared several times as soloist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

She also has performed with the Detroit Women's Symphony, the Plymouth Symphony, the Saginaw Symphony and the Wayne State University Orchestra.

She is presently program chairman for the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony, and is a member of the Cranbrook Guild.

Barbara McIntosh, immediate past-president of Tuesday Musicales, is much in demand as an accompanist throughout the greater metropolitan area. She was formerly a staff pianist with radio station WJR.

Members and guests will be greeted by Mrs. Paul J. Kelley, 1975-76 general chairman of the Committee, and by hostesses Mrs. H. Sanborn Brown, Mrs. Frederick J. Crossen, who holds program responsibilities for the current season, and Mrs. Lyndie R. Martin.

The 43 paintings currently are on view in the Los Angeles County Museum before their fifth and final exhibition stop at the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, Tex., in February.

In Detroit, the exhibition was underwritten by the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts, a public organization of some 12,000 members.

Founders—organized exhibitions—most recently, "French Painting 1774-1830: The Age of Revolution," "Twilight of the Medici" and "Akhenaten and Nefertiti"—have gained national and international recognition for the DIA.

In a reciprocal exhibition agreement, the Detroit Institute of Arts will loan 13 outstanding master paintings to the exhibition of 54 "Paintings from American Museums" scheduled to open at The Hermitage, Leningrad, February 11, and be seen in Moscow, Kiev and Minsk before returning to the United States next fall.

THE REVEREND GEORGE E. ANDREWS, II, OF MORAN ROAD, UNIVERSITY LIGGETT CHAPLAIN

By Janet Mueller

His job is something new, different, and George E. Andrews, II, wears many hats, from School Chaplain to Upper School Director of Counseling to Director of Student Activities at University Liggett School.

He teaches a course for seniors: Ethics and Religion. He's assistant varsity football coach and assistant varsity (JV) tennis coach.

He's co-chairman of the ULS Standing Committee and member of the Executive Committee, comprised of the School's administrative heads. He's director of Student Recruitment.

As Director of Student Activities, his job responsibilities include the coordination of assembly programs, clubs and organizations, senior projects, summer placement opportunities for students, beyond the classroom experience for students, (with Dick Schwab), and miscellaneous special programs and projects, such as Senior Retreats.

New Form of Ministry

He is a priest. His work, in all its phases, in all its facets, is a ministry.

It's a new form of ministry. Boarding schools have had resident chaplains for years; George Andrews is one of the first—if not THE first—to serve as resident chaplain at an independent day school.

"It is a new role," he admits, "and it's still being carved out, it still needs evaluation." Mr. Andrews is in the enviable—and slightly scary—position of being able to write his own training manual.

He and Lil are from Grand Rapids. They have three daughters: Susie, who turned seven on November 18, five-year-old Molly and two-year-old Lilly. The two older girls are ULS students, and they've been known to poke their heads in to say "hello" to daddy during the day.

Family Togetherness

"It's really a delight," George says, "to be able to have your children go to school where you work." Lil drops by sometimes, too, (she and Lilly, fresh from skating, made a brief appearance at Mr. Andrews' office during this interview).

Mr. Andrews was graduated from Phillips Andover Academy in 1962, received his Bachelor's degree from Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., where he majored in Religion, in 1966, and returned to Phillips Andover to serve as a Teaching Fellow in Religion, (1966-67), and Instructor in Religion, (1967-68).

Graduated from Virginia Theological Seminary, Alexandria, Va., with a Master of Divinity degree in 1971, he served from 1971 to 1974 as assistant minister at St. James Episcopal Church, Lancaster, Pa.

He came to University Liggett last year, as school chaplain and assistant to the head of the Lower School. (1974-75). "Why did I leave the parish ministry to become a school chaplain?"

That decision was based upon my desire to work full-time with young people and their parents, and to work within a community, (University Liggett School AND Grosse Pointe).

Committed to Need

George Andrews is committed to the need for personal development—physical, intellectual, spiritual, moral: the whole bag—of young people, "and in order to speak to this need I felt it imperative to become involved in that area of life where young people are learning and growing: namely, school."

As resident chaplain at an independent day school, Mr. Andrews, like the ULS students, lives in and as a member of the larger community in which the school is set.

He is a member of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe: chairman of its Bicentennial Committee and member, as is Lil, of the Sunday Morning Worship and Education Committee.

He is a member of the Grosse Pointe Health Education Council Steering Committee.

FLEC Board Member

He serves on the board of FLEC, (Grosse Pointe's Family Life Education Council), and has found it an exceptionally good learning experience.

He conducts services at Episcopal parishes when help is needed. Last August, he conducted Sunday services at Old Christ Church in downtown Detroit. He also takes occasional services at St. Peter's Church in Detroit.

Saturday mornings, from 8 to 10 o'clock, he helps in the Junior Excellence Program at Eastpointe Racquet Club. Last summer he was director of the University Liggett Racquet Club's tennis clinics for boys and girls.

He is faculty co-chairman and advisor for the Summer Opportunities Fair to be presented at University Liggett School Sunday, January 18, from 12:30 to 6 o'clock.

This Summer Opportunities Fair is for all Grosse Pointe's, (and Detroit's... and St. Clair Shores'... and all surrounding communities), young people.

It is sponsored by University Liggett's faculty, Upper and Middle School Parent Associations, with each major chairmanship shared by a faculty member and a parent.

One of four candidates nominated by Congressman Lucien N. Nedzi to the United States Merchant Marine Academy is Pointer CAROLYN DEEVER.

Grosse Pointe North High School graduate WENDY L. JOHNSON, daughter of MR. and MRS. GEORGE P. JOHNSON, JR., of Willow Tree place, has been initiated into Sigma Kappa sorority at Michigan State University, where she is a junior studying Interior Design in the College of Human Ecology.

community service," Mr. Andrews says.

He enjoyed his own camping experience at Hayo-Went-Ha on Torch Lake, and Lil liked her summers at Bryn Afon. They sent Susie and Molly to University Liggett's Day Camp last year.

Evaluates Schools

A boarding school alumnus, George Andrews sees a continuing value in boarding schools, in terms of the strong academic programs they traditionally provide and their real diversity in terms of student body geographic distribution. But they're not for every child.

"In my own personal opinion, the advantage of the independent day school lies in the fact that children ARE living at home, that in terms of the personal development of the whole child, parents are playing a continual role."

The choice of a school, Mr. Andrews believes, depends on the child. "I feel so strongly about the total development of the child. Parents need to know what their child can handle. Know your child: that's the secret..."

He believes in his ministry as University Liggett's school chaplain. "I really do like it. Right now, I see it definitely as a career. I feel very full and alive, in terms of my ministry and my life here."

Charts His Courses

There are certain directions in which he'd like to move. His Ethics and Religion class, designed primarily as a classroom experience through which students can share and articulate their ideas and values, attempt to get at the meaning of such words as "faith," is currently reading Dag Hammarskjöld's "Markings."

"I'd like to develop these courses even more. I agree with the concept. I hope it can be inter-disciplinary. I feel ethics and religion really do relate to how we live our everyday lives."

He wants to continue his liturgical functions. He enjoys his "dean of students" aspect. "My role as 'chaplain' is indeed diversified, and enables me both to set school policy and to work directly with the young people. By word and action, I am hopefully helping them formulate and clarify WHAT they believe and WHY they believe what they do, about themselves, one another, God... "It is exciting!"

from time to time.

She has presided as first chair flutist with the Detroit Concert Band for eight years, participating in all concerts and recordings. Teaching assignments have taken her to Fraser High School, Kingswood School-Cranbrook and the Birmingham Conservatory of Music.

Dayna's flute may be heard live, with the Detroit Concert Band, in the main auditorium of Detroit's Masonic Temple Saturday evening, January 17, at 8:20 o'clock, when DCB Director Leonard Smith's all-new production, "The Spirit of '76," salutes the advent of America's Bicentennial Year. Narrator will be Jimmy Lounce. William Lane, trombonist, and Elsie Inselman, soprano, will appear as soloists.

Bicentennial Luncheon

Here in Grosse Pointe, the League of Women Voters is starting 1976 with a Bicentennial Luncheon at noon next Wednesday, January 14, in Ellen Johnston's Radnor circle home.

Post-luncheon, the LWV's Environmental Quality Committee will present a program on Great Lakes shorelands erosion. How does that fit in with the Bicentennial? Well... think for a moment about what our shorelands must have been like 200 years ago... and about what is happening to them now... and about what they will be like in another 200 years, without careful, informed planning by the government and the public.

Ruby Adams is chairman of the committee. Its members include Betty Bacon, Dorothy Neal, Delphine Palkowski and Joanne Watko.

Barbara Stickford, in charge of luncheon arrangements, is accepting reservations at $3 per person through Monday, January 12. Her telephone number is 343-0519. Joan Dotson, 885-9446, is accepting reservations, too.

Everyone's invited, for interested citizens are always welcome at Grosse Pointe LWV presentations.

DSO Reprise for Bachauer

Detroit Symphony Orchestra Music Director Aldo Ceccato returns from Europe this week to lead the DSO in its first concerts of the New Year tonight, Friday and Saturday, January 8, 9 and 10, at Ford Auditorium.

Soloist will be renowned Greek pianist Gina Bachauer in her ninth appearance with the DSO since 1954.

Thursday and Saturday concerts start at 8:30 o'clock. Friday's program, an NBD Coffee Concert beginning at 10:45 in the morning, will be preceded at 10:15 by a short fashion show of sportswear from Eddie Bauer.

The program for the concerts, to be repeated at Hill Auditorium in Ann Arbor Sunday afternoon, January 11, at 2:30 o'clock, consists of two works by Beethoven: the Third Piano Concerto and the Third Symphony ("Eroica").

Aldo Ceccato last conducted the DSO September 27. Since then he has traveled to Germany, where he is music director of the Hamburg Philharmonic, to conduct a much-praised new production of Mozart's "Così fan tutte."

He is scheduled to conduct all DSO subscription concerts in January, and again starting in mid-March through April.

Gina Bachauer has thrilled audiences around the world for over 20 seasons. She draws the ultimate in accolades from the press wherever she plays.

She last appeared with the DSO, under Ceccato, in the spring of 1974, and is a great favorite of Detroit audiences.

Born in Athens, Mme. Bachauer studied with Cortot and Rachmaninoff and made her New York debut in 1950. She travels over 100,000 miles annually to pursue her recital and concert career.

Beethoven's Third Piano Concerto (1800) and Third Symphony (1804) date from his "middle period," just when he became aware of his growing deafness. Both represent important new directions in musical form, length and sonority, and are hailed as well-loved landmarks of the symphonic repertory.

Group discounts for Friday morning's NBD Coffee Concert are available at 100 NBD branches. SEMTA buses provide round-trip transportation from many suburban locations, and a special shuttlebus service is offered by DOT between the parking lot at Third and Wayne, (just west of Cobo Hall), and Ford Auditorium.

NBD officials also have arranged for five downtown restaurants, Top of the Flame, Bourbon Street Bistro, Chin-Tiki, Eastman's Gaslight Room and Russell's Steak House, to accept special post-concert luncheon reservations from Coffee Concertgoers.

Tickets for all three Ford Auditorium concerts are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, all Hudson's and Montgomery Ward ticket outlets. A limited number of tickets for students and senior citizens at $1.75 is available at the Box Office starting at 8 o'clock Thursday and Saturday nights.
