THE STRONGEST earthquake the world has known in four years struck the South Pacific Wednesday near the Fiji Islands, threatening a destructive tidal wave, the Uppsala Seismological Institute said. Institute director Marcus Baath said one quake, which hit about 500 miles northeast of New Zealand between the Fiji and Kermadec islands, measured 8.0 on the open-ended Richter scale. A recording of 7.0 is considered severe. Baath said the quake was the strongest since January 25, 1972, when a quake struck Taiwan with a magnitude of 8.5.

FORMER FBI INFORMER Sara Jane Moore was sentenced to life in prison Thursday by a judge who blamed a permissive society and lack of capital punishment for her attempt to assassinate President Ford. U.S. District Judge Samuel Conti said that Miss Moore had "no remorse" and that he hoped the stiff sentence would be a deterrent to others. Last month Lynette Fromme was sentenced to life for attempting to assassinate the president. Although Miss Moore received the maximum sentence allowed by law, she will be eligible for parole in 15 years.

ANTI-COMMUNISTS threw bombs at a Soviet freighter waiting to take on cargo at the harbor city of Oporto, Portugal, Friday, in a growing right-wing terror campaign in northern Portugal. In Lisbon, 3,000 far-leftists chanted a government ban and shouted slogans protesting rising prices, food shortages and a wage freeze. The attack against the ship was the first against a Soviet target in an accelerating bomb campaign against northern leftists by a group calling itself the Anti-Communist Action Front.

PREMIER RASHID KARAMI went on Beirut radio early Sunday to announce that leaders of battling Christians and Moslems have agreed to a new cease-fire. Karami said the truce calls for blockades to be lifted around two Palestinian refugee camps and four predominantly Christian towns. There are at least 25,000 Christians besieged in the seaside towns in southern Lebanon, including Interior Minister Camille Chamoun. Police reported 116 persons were known dead and 174 were wounded by midday Saturday, but the casualty toll was steadily mounting.

MICHIGAN WAS HIT Sunday with record-breaking low temperatures that fell to 25 degrees below zero in Lansing and Flint and 18 below in Detroit. In Detroit, Sunday was the coldest January day since the Weather Service began keeping records 104 years ago. The previous low of minus 16 was set in 1897 and tied in 1918. And the previous low for a January 18 was minus 7 in 1930. The minus 25 was the lowest in Flint's history of recorded weather, and in Lansing it fell just one degree short of equalling the 1887 record for the coldest January day.

PRESIDENT FORD, in his State of the Union speech, ushering in the Bicentennial year, called Monday night for a "new realism that is true to the great principles upon which this nation was founded." The president's "new realism" included a mixture of proposals to cut the role of the Federal Government in economic regulation and social programs, slash taxes in an election year and increase the defense budget.

Woods Plan For Parade Abandoned

Bicentennial Commission
Cites Many Complications; Will Stage
Festival Instead

By Roger A. Waha
Because of cost and time factors, The Woods Bicentennial Commission has decided not to hold a parade this summer. Instead, the group is planning to stage a festival behind city hall in Ghesquiere Park.

The commission at its Thursday, January 15, meeting decided to eliminate the parade idea completely from its plans because of the estimated $2,800-$3,000 cost for manpower, signs and barricades to hold such an event, along with the feeling that time was running out on the planning and necessary approval forms.

Much Too Late
"This has gone a long time now," (since last October), said Robert E. Trinklein, commission chairman, "and there's a problem of getting groups to participate in a parade." (For example, he talked with representatives of a civil war artillery battery regarding participation and was told they had already been approached by the City of Boston two years ago).

GP Park Police Seeking Pension Hike Referendum

At a special meeting held by The Grosse Pointe Park Police Officers Association (GPPPOA), on Friday, January 16, Officer Charles Slusser was unanimously elected chairman of a committee to seek a referendum asking the city voters to amend a provision of The Park City Charter, which will grant association members a raise in pension.

"We now have a 1.7 percent factor, while all the other Pointe departments have 2.0 percent and have had this for many years," said the newly elected chairman. "We are confident that the citizens of Grosse Pointe Park will back our efforts to obtain a pension increase."

Officer Slusser said that he has picked three members

Crime in Woods in 1975 Increases Very Slightly; Far Below National Level

Public Safety Director Henry Marchand Encouraged; Calls Community Safe

By Roger A. Waha
A very slight increase in crime was reported by The Woods Department of Public Safety last year in comparison to 1974. The hike, computed at 1.25 percent, was far below the national average of 18 percent seen in 1974 over 1973 as reported by the FBI late last year.

"For its size and population, Grosse Pointe Woods is still a safe community," said Public Safety Director Henry Marchand, who noted that criminal activity rose 20.2 percent in the State in 1974 over 1973.

While both the national and State statistics viewed 1974 as against 1973, the director felt such figures gave an indication of trends in such activity.

Part I offenses, which are considered more serious crimes by the FBI, dropped from 723 in 1974 to 695 last year. (625 was reported in 1973).

Part II offenses, less serious crimes as classified by the FBI, rose from 2,903 in 1975 to 2,993 in 1974. The overall total of both Part I and Part II offenses, less do not complaints, traffic complaints, parking complaints and a miscellaneous category, shows the slight hike from 1,964 two years ago to 1,989 last year.

Burglaries Decline
A decidedly bright spot in the Part I classification was what Director Marchand called a "fantastic reduction" in burglaries. These offenses toppled from 126 in 1974 to 71 in 1975. The director primarily attributed this decline to constantly patrolling scout cars which act as a deterrent to criminal activity. He also felt citizens could be taking appropriate and necessary precautions towards discouraging such crimes.

The burglary breakdown showed a drop in residential break-ins from 86 in 1974 to 49 last year, and a decline in business and public building break-ins from 40 two years ago to 22 in 1975.

Another big decrease is seen in aggravated assault cases which fell from six in 1974 to none last year. Meanwhile, larceny-theft offenses, (except auto), increased from 550 in 1974 to 578 last year, (with bike larcenies rising from 239 to 258). Auto theft incidents rose from 31 offenses to 36 last year.

In other Part I offenses, 10 robbery incidents were reported in both 1974 and 1975. Under the Part II classification, checking incidents under the forgery and counterfeit category jumped from two cases in 1974 to 15 last year. Related to this increase was the rise in no account and non-sufficient fund check cases under the

Jaycees Set To Bestow Big Honor

Outstanding Young Man of Year Will Be Named
at Eighth Annual Banquet January 26

By Roger A. Waha
The Grosse Pointe Jaycees will present their Distinguished Service Award, (DSA), to the outstanding young man of the community for the past year at their annual DSA banquet Tuesday evening, January 26, at the War Memorial.

This eighth annual event also will include "Bosses Night," where members host their "Bosses for the evening," and "M Night," where friends and other guests of the Jaycees have an opportunity to learn more about the organization and perhaps become future members.

A five-man senior selection committee will announce the award winner from a group of seven nominees, all of whom will receive certificates citing their honor.

This One's Different
This is a first for this award ceremony, said Charles "Ric" Rutan, who is in charge of the event. In the past, nominated individuals, with the exception of the winner on awards night, didn't even know they were selected.

Various public service organizations, churches, school principals, city, fire and police officials, among other potential sources, were sent letters giving them an opportunity to nominate "a dynamic young man" who they felt deserved this award.

The recipient has to be between the ages of 18-35. His continued efforts toward his business, family and community have to make him the unanimous choice for this high honor, said Mr. Rutan.

Each source was asked to submit as much documentation with the nomination form as possible including an outline of the nominee's career, his exceptional achievement or contribution in his chosen field or fields, organization, community, state or nation, community, status, honors and awards received which evaluate his achievement or contribution.

Those whose names were submitted for this year's award, according to Mr. Rutan, include John Bruce, di

Mother, Four Children Unhurt In GP Park Fire

Mutual Aid Call Brings Firefighters from Harper Woods, City, Woods and Farms; Two-Family Home Heavily Damaged

A three-alarm fire caused extensive damage to a two-family flat owned by Victor Safady, of 929 Nottingham, Thursday night, January 15, ruining the basement and the front and dining rooms on the first and second floors. A mother and her four children residing on the second floor escaped without harm, it was disclosed by Park Fire Chief Phillip Costa.

The fire originated in overstuffed furniture in the basement recreation room, but the actual cause is still under investigation, the chief said.

Thirty-five firefighters, including on and off-duty Park firemen, and men from Harper Woods, The City, Woods and Farms, plus all available equipment, battled the flames for more than an hour before it was brought under control and put out, it was said.

Shores Covers City
Public safety officers from The Shores, on and off-duty, with one piece of equipment, were dispatched to The City fire station to cover for that community, which had all its personnel and trucks at the fire scene. This is in compliance with the Pointe-Harper Woods Mutual Fire Aid Pact.

Chief Costa said that the fire had about a 30- or 40-minute start before it was noticed by a neighbor who phoned in the alarm at 9:18 p.m. By the time firefighters arrived, the flames had penetrated the first floor and were consuming the ceiling and the floor on the upper level.

Chief Costa said that Mrs. Kathy Jones, and her four children ranging in age from 11 to 16, who resided on the second floor, were not aware of the fire until flames came through the floor of the front and dining rooms. The family made an attempt to escape by the rear stairs, but the smoke and heat were so intense, they tried the front of the house and escaped just before flames shot through the front stairway. The owner of the house, Mr. Safady, who lives in the (Continued on Page 4)

It's Medicare, Not Medicaid

Blue Cross-Blue Shield representative Elizabeth Murtagh will conduct a study session on Medicare forms, (not Medicaid forms as incorrectly reported in last week's NEWS), for Woods senior citizens Thursday, January 22, in the North High School commons room.

Instructions will be given on how to fill out Medicare forms, a slide presentation will be offered and a question and answer period will be held.

The presentation will be given at 3:30 p.m.

Many Officials of Pointe Attend Meeting of MML

Michigan's political reform legislation and its impact on municipal officials were among the issues discussed at the Michigan Municipal League's (MML), Region III meeting at the Detroit Yacht Club Thursday, January 15 on Belle Isle. The host city was Harper Woods.

Attending the annual meeting were officials from cities and villages within Wayne County.

Among the local officials participating on a panel reacting to a presentation by Richard Cole, senate majority executive secretary, were City Councilwoman Jeanette Duffield, and Park Deputy City Attorney Harold Deason.

In all 28 officials from the Pointes participated in the meeting. Those attending from The

Solons Okay 1st Reading Of Proposal

Final Adoption Possible at Next Regular Meeting of Council Set for February 2

By Roger A. Waha
Two changes were recently made in the content of a proposed amendment to Ordinance No. 198, which would ultimately eliminate all open roof and solid roof signs in The Woods. The proposal incorporating these changes was approved for a first reading by the council at the regular meeting Monday, January 19.

Now the measure will be considered by the solons for a second reading and possible final adoption at the regular meeting Monday, February 2.

The pair of changes were made in the non-conforming roof signs classification. One extends the time of elimination of such signs from January 1, 1978, to January 1, 1981, while the other removes a previous proposed requirement that such signs shall be removed upon the change of occupancy of the building to which the sign is affixed.

City Attorney George Catline explained a main reason for the time extension was because the council felt businessmen had an investment in such signs and, with the extension, they would have a longer advertising period.

As for the removal of signs upon an occupancy change, Mr. Catline indicated the council felt such an action was too restrictive. Hence, the two adjustments which were made at the Committee of the Whole, (C.W.), level, i.e., the council meeting in executive session.

Council approval of the first reading was by a 5-2 vote with Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan and Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen voting the negative.

Feeling that aesthetics shouldn't be legislated, Mrs. Mullan said she has made the trip along Mack avenue and has seen both attractive and unattractive signs based (Continued on Page 2)

Nursing Home Plans Okayed

The Grosse Pointe Nursing Home received State approval of its $250,000 renovation program last week and has thus completed the myriad of State and Federal agency authorizations needed to begin construction.

Along with the State approval came a junction from the Comprehensive Health Planning Council of South-eastern Michigan and the State administrators of the Federal Hill Burton program.

The only obstacle facing the home now is obtaining a City of Grosse Pointe building permit, a matter that has been pending between The City Council and home officials for nearly four years. Although a Wayne County Circuit Court decision issued last July ruled in favor of the home's plans, City administrators have insisted on more building site meetings before granting a permit.

The renovations are necessary to bring the home in line with many new State and Federal regulations which require correction of home deficiencies in nursing kitchen, laundry and lobby spaces.

Included in the reconstruction will be a third floor addition to accommodate a nurses' office and a beauty parlor, some squaring off of the building and a 22-foot addition, according to the home's attorney, Ernest Levine.

The renovations would not increase the home's patient capacity, said a home official.

Despite the lack of City approval, the home's executive director, Joseph Mash, is looking to begin construction early this spring.

Counting time is unimportant — see to it that time counts.

Woods Shows Slight Increase in Crime Last Year

For a small department, the director felt these figures showed big increases. He questioned if perhaps economic conditions played a role in these categories with the possibility that some individuals were becoming desperate.

The director also surmised the state of the economy might have resulted for the increase in drunk driving cases which climbed from 33 in 1974 to 68 last year as some persons perhaps became depressed, consumed alcohol and began to drive.

Not without a touch of frustration, Director Marchand then questioned "why?" regarding the increase in vandalism cases as such incidents rose from 429 two years ago to 487 last year. The biggest jump was seen in vandalism to dwellings, (58 to 95), while vehicle over lawn cases fell from 145 to 128.

Last year officers wrote less incident reports in comparison to 1974, (8,362 as against 8,766), a fact which Director Marchand found encouraging. "Writing reports is time consuming," he said, while citing the reduction of over 400 reports. "If an officer writes a report, he can't be on patrol so the less time he spends on reports, the more time he can be on the road."

As a result, he felt the decrease in burglaries last year could tie in with the reduction in reports as more officers would be "on the move and cut down on the opportunities for burglars to do their job."

Meanwhile, the total number of ambulance runs dropped from 437 in 1974 to 383 last year, while the amount of miscellaneous patrol activities fell from 3,469 to 3,149. Such activities include assisting citizens, family and/or neighbor trouble calls and miscellaneous children complaints, (which he termed a "pretty good reduction," i.e., from 182 to 106).

On the vehicle collision and injury front, total accidents increased from 228 to 280 last year with both non-fatal mishaps and property damage cases showing rises. But, as in 1974, there were no fatalities last year.

Despite the rise, Traffic Safety Officer Stephen Petrik said the 280 total was still good for a city of The Woods' size considering such main arteries as Mack avenue and Vernier road. The officer said the figures, (44 as against 75 last year), includes all minor injuries and complaints.

In noting that property damage accidents jumped from 184 to 205, Officer Petrik stated around 40 per cent of such vehicular mishaps take place on Mack avenue.

"Many are caused by people entering or leaving parking positions," he stated, while adding there's no real answer towards curbing such accidents because of the number of businesses along the thoroughfare.

The Woods has had no fatal pedestrian accidents since December 1957, he said. In fact, its record in the 10,000-50,000 population category has earned the city four Grand Awards for traffic safety, including one last year, from the American Automobile Association.

Pedestrian injuries showed a 309 percent jump last year over 1974, a result which must be put into perspective. In 1974, the city had no pedestrian injuries, while it had three in 1975 and two of these were termed minor by Officer Petrik. Hence, the 309 percent rise. But the figures, considering the city's size, are still amazing.

Auto-bike accidents increased from seven two years ago to 10 last year. The overall spectrum of such mishaps is a point of concern for Officer Petrik because of the ever-increasing bike population. "There will be more and more bikes in the spring and drivers should be more aware of cyclists. Motorists have a tendency to look for other cars rather than for bikes and motorcycles," he said.

In a final note, Officer Petrik said three youngsters were killed within a three-year period via bicycle-auto accidents but since July 1970 the city has had no such fatality.

Fire activity in the community was down last year in comparison to 1974 with total alarms dropping from 209 to 194 and actual fire response falling from 148 to 119. No firefighter or citizen deaths occurred in either year.

While total activity decreased, adjusted fire losses showed a massive rise from $16,745 in 1974 to $161,811 last year. Four blazes primarily accounted for this.

A fire at the Werthmann Group Inc. complex in Vernier road last January accounted for a combined total of $75,000 in structure and content losses.

Two February fires also resulted in big losses. One at a Hidden lane residence reached $20,000, while the other at a Prestwick road home totalled $15,000. And last August, a fire at a West Williams court residence resulted in a loss of $29,900.

Most discussions are for the purpose of establishing facts—arguments are for denying them.

Sign Proposal Changed

Noting that she is beautification conscious, (she's the council representative to the Beautification Commission), Mrs. Mullan said the subject of pride is a personal thing.

"This is a dangerous area to get into regarding personal and individual rights," she stressed, while noting the entire matter was a matter of principle to her.

For his part, Mr. Kefgen stated he was opposed to the proposal the way it is written.

"Roof signs are not necessarily bad," he said. Feeling that the measure as written was too restrictive, he felt if the proposal only regulated the size and shape of signs, and set up minimum standards, it would be acceptable.

"It proposes to eliminate all roof signs and makes no separation from ones which are in good condition from the ones which are eyesores and dangerous," emphasized Mr. Kefgen.

At the same time, he indicated such signs were the only form of advertising a small businessman has "outside of the yellow pages," while noting many signs in the community are attractive.

This controversial amendment was referred to the C-W last September after a discussion between the solons, members of the Planning Commission and representatives of the Mack Avenue Business Men's Club took place.

At the regular meeting Monday, January 5, the council unanimously referred a re-affirmation by the Planning Commission of its June recommendation for the council's adoption of the amendment to the C-W.

The commission is for the amendment primarily because of aesthetic reasons, while affected businessmen are against it because of cost factors and potential loss of advertising. Based upon the council vote on the 19th, the majority of the solons favor the proposal.

Under the amendment, roof signs would be ultimately eliminated; however, flat or face signs would be permissible. These are defined as signs which extend above the building face or front elevation and below the peak of a sloping roof.

Parade Plan Abandoned

(Continued from Page 1) hold the festival, he said. He hopes such an event will include the exhibiting of appropriate artifacts of the period, music and even a picnic.

"We will ask different groups in the community to participate and find out what they will want to do," stated Mr. Trinklein. These groups include the churches, PTA organizations, The Woods Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, et al.

"We'll see what comes of it," he added.

Woods Administrative Aide Gerard McNamara said the proposed festival will not require the council's approval. He stressed that the commission will have to organize it themselves, pick a chairman and obtain people who are willing to work.

"They may as a courtesy go to the council, but this isn't required," he added.

As for the parade, the council, sitting as the Committee of the Whole, (C-W), last month, approved a motion to deny the request for a parade along Mack avenue. However, at the regular meeting Monday, January 5, the solons decided to leave the door open for the event.

At that time, the council approved a resolution indicating approval to forward an application to the Wayne County Road Commission requesting permission to hold the parade on Mack avenue July 5 with the stipulation that the parade not exceed two hours.

Concern had previously been expressed by Public Safety Director Henry Marchand on a request to hold the event with the east side of Mack being closed from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. The director cited problems over insufficient manpower and resources in order to comply with mandatory county requirements.

So while the council reversed the C-W's viewpoint after further discussion on January 5, the commission decided, because of the aforementioned factors, not to pursue the parade.

Seeking Hike

House Bill No. 4841, Public Acts of 1973, Section 48B, is an enabling legislation permitting cities to do this, it was disclosed.

The petitions must be filled with the required number of signatures and presented to the council within 20 days after the petitions have been put into circulation, it was pointed out.

2 Youths Face Juvenile Court

Two Detroit boys who admitted involvement in an estimated 50-100 bicycle larcenies in several communities last fall, recently appeared before the Wayne County Juvenile Court.

One juvenile who was charged with receiving and concealing stolen property and the breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling, was placed on probation, while the other youth, who was charged with entry without breaking with intent to commit larceny, had his case adjusted and was placed on the court supervised Companion Counseling Program, reported Youth Service Division, (YSD), Det. Patrick Fagan.

The latter juvenile was treated as a first offender by the court, while the other youth has had previous contact with the court, he said.

Through a painstaking investigation last August, Det. Fagan learned of the pair's involvement in stealing bicycles through their admissions. The youths said they took a combined total of 50-100 bikes in all of the Pointes, St. Clair Shores, Harper Woods, Macomb County and Clinton Township. At that time, the detective was only able to confirm 20 of the thefts.

The one juvenile was filed upon by Harper Woods authorities on the receiving and concealing charge, while the YSD filed a petition charging him with breaking and entering. The other youth was filed upon by the YSD on the entry-larceny intent charge.

Det. Fagan added, in relation to the entire spectrum of the case, that specific evidence regarding the bicycle larcenies was lacking and the information on the numbers of bikes taken was based solely on their admissions.

Pointers Lead Education Program at Saint John

A diversified Continuing Education Program for Saint John Hospital physicians and other area doctors has been announced by Robert E. Birk, MD, of Stratford place, director of Health Education and executive director of the program at Saint John, and Herbert I. Krickstein, MD, of Glen Arbor lane, chairman of Saint John's Continuing Education Committee.

The first seminar, "Diagnostic Maneuvers," is slated for February 11-April 14. The second, on Pediatrics, will be held February 23-April 26. Both are two-hour, 10-week sessions.

A one-day Diabetes Program, featuring nationally known diabetes experts on diabetes management, is set for March 31.

Other seminars planned between April and December include 10-week, two-hour sessions on Neonatology, Obstetrical Endocrinology, Surgical Diagnosis and Management, Intensive Care and Sexual Disfunction.

Saint John Hospital's Department of Continuing Education also offers programs in Basic Sciences, Medical Surgical Grand Rounds, Tumor Conferences and Clinical Pathology Conferences.

A monthly lecture series, featuring outstanding physicians from all over the country, also is held on a regular basis, toward Category I Credit. Lectures are preceded by dinner at the Golden Lion Restaurant. All medical students, residents and physicians are welcome to attend.

Saint John's Pathology Department continues to run monthly Monday evening Pathology Slide Conferences for all interested pathologists in southeastern Michigan.

Other programs for credit in various Continuing Medical Education Categories are currently being prepared and will be announced at a later date.

For its own staff, Saint John has a computer which records credits for all Continuing Education activities. Physicians not on the hospital's staff will be presented with the appropriate documentation so they may obtain credit for their participation.

Saint John is reacting to the law passed by the State which requires that each physician receives 50 hours of credit per year for recertification by providing these services not only to their own staff but area physicians who wish to take advantage of these programs.

All these sessions complement the hospital's already extensive programs for 80 residents in OB/GYN, Pathology, Pediatrics, Internal Medicine, Surgery and Family Practice. Saint John is now a center for both graduate and post-graduate education.

For information on these programs call the Office of Continuing Education, Saint John, at 881-8200, extension 321.

Boat Storage Law Receives Criticism

tion of a neighbor consent clause in waiting in relation to storage.

So under the ordinance a citizen has no outlet for appeal after a neighbor receives his permit with the exception of appearing before the council and calling attention to a particular problem as Mrs. Maisel did in this case.

The measure does provide an appeal process, but this is when the issuance of a permit is denied to an applicant, who then may appeal such denial to the Planning Commission.

The commission, after notice of a public hearing being mailed to the adjoining property owners, may authorize the issuance of the site approval certificate upon a determination that the proposed storage will not be detrimental to the neighborhood.

Doesn't Apply Here
However, in the case of Mrs. Maisel, that appeal procedure has no bearing.

The situation as expressed by Mrs. Maisel was termed a bizarre one by Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Committee.

This is because of logistics, i.e., the nature of the layout of both homes. Alternative storage space appears lacking in this instance because of a fence and shrubbery on one side of the neighbor's property and a fence and tree on the other side.

The council appeared sympathetic to the plight of Mrs. Maisel. But to find a more secluded site would apparently entail the elimination of fence and shrubbery in one instance or the elimination of fence and tree in the other.

Mr. Kefgen moved that this entire matter be referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study. His colleagues unanimously agreed in an effort to see if something might be done to alleviate Mrs. Maisel's problem. He indicated the solons are already reviewing this measure regarding possible future changes via amendments.

Realistically, in this instance, Mr. Kefgen felt there's not much that can be done for Mrs. Maisel. He hoped that the neighbors themselves could possibly work out the problem. "Once a permit is issued it cannot be revoked or appealed. It's good for life as long as the recreational vehicle is stored in a specific location," he stated.

The birth pangs of this law have been agonizing. After some 2½ years of committee work, studies and redraftings, it was then adopted. City officials, at that time, were well aware of potential enforcement problems and realized that amendments might have to be added to the measure in the future.

Mr. Kefgen felt the city has the most comprehensive recreational vehicle law in the state and stressed that Building Inspector Earl Wakely has been doing a fantastic job on the permit issuance front.

"We have no precedent to follow regarding the issuance of permits. We view each application on a case-by-case basis," he said, while noting no such measure can cover every situation.

And from what was expressed by both Mrs. Maisel and city officials at the meeting, this seems to be the case.

Jaycees Set DSA Night

rector of the Neighborhood Club, nominated by Superintendent of Schools Dr. James A. Adams; State Sen. William Fitzgerald, nominated by John Prost, president of the PTO-PTA Council; and Woods Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen, nominated by Councilwoman Joan M. Mulan.

Others are Jim Motchall Jr., nominated by Msgr. Francis Canfield, of Saint Paul Catholic Church; and Raymond R. Ritter, English and physical education instructor and head basketball coach at North High School, nominated by North principal G. Bruce Feighner.

More include Robert Seifulla, head of the architectural and engineering department at Wayne State University, nominated by War Memorial director John Lake; and Park Municipal Judge John Urso, nominated by Gail Wingard, director of the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice.

All Plan to Attend
Each of the nominees is planning to attend the dinner, said Mr. Rutan, along with the members of the senior selection committee. They include Edmund T. Ahee, of Ahee Jewelers; Mr. Lake, Mr. Prost, Pieter vanHorne, attorney; and Clarence Wascher, manager of Jacobson's in-the-Village.

Others scheduled to attend include the following past presidents of the Jaycees—

Mr. vanHorne, 1968; Al Lang, 1969; Ken Roy, 1970; William Swasey, 1971; John Nickum, 1972; Jim Dinverno, 1973; Mr. Rutan, 1974; and Edward Serwach, current president.

Previous winners of the DSA Award include Mr. Prost, 1969; former School Board trustee William Adams, 1970; State Rep. William Bryant, 1971; former Youth Service Division Det. John Kendall, who's now police chief in Harbor Springs, 1972; Mr. vanHorne, 1973; Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber, 1974; and Raymond V. Ingham, director of the Department of Cardiopulmonary Services at Bon Secours Hospital.

To Thank Bosses
On "Bosses Night," Mr. Rutan said this gives the Jaycees an opportunity towards thanking their bosses for their help and understanding during the year.

As for the "M Night" aspect, he stated members can expose their friends and guests to the group with its emphasis upon leadership training through community involvement.

Not only is DSA Award night a big evening for the organization in itself but this year it's held just after Jaycee Week ends.

In a final note, an estimated 45 sources received communications from the Jaycees and only the seven made an effort to respond.

Escape Unhurt from Fire

Heat Very Intense

The Park fire chief said that the heat was so intense that it melted the gas meter, the plastic and metal of the washing machine in the basement, the insulation of the house wires, and the metal lamps on the first floor. The flames consumed practically everything in their path. The rear sections of both levels of this building were not burned, but there was extensive smoke and water damage, he said.

The chief added further that if Mrs. Jones and her children had been asleep, it is not likely they would have had a chance to escape.

"I deeply appreciate the assistance given to us by the departments of Harper Woods, City, Woods and Farms. Without their help things would have been much worse. All the firefighters, including our own, did a superb job, and during the height of a snowstorm, too."

Chief Costa said that all fire personnel and equipment were back in service by 11:40 p.m.

The chief said that while on the subject of snowstorms, he asks all residents not to shovel snow around or cover fire hydrants. It would be appreciated if citizens would remove any snow or ice from around the hydrants, voluntarily. This would not only be doing the firefighters a favor, but also would be a favor to the residents themselves, especially in cases of emergency.

At one hydrant, the chief pointed out, firemen had to shovel away snow and chip off ice before they were able to hook up fire hoses. Covering a hydrant forces firefighters to take precious time away from fighting a blaze.

In a final note, the NEWS is running a classified display advertisement in today's edition in an effort towards helping Mrs. Jones and her children find new lodgings. The ad is located on the first classified page.

Health Council Meets Jan. 26

Basic Food Guide to Good Health will be Dr. Richard Ferrara's topic when he addresses the Grosse Pointe Health Education Council's Monday, January 26, meeting at the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue.

With the prevalence of junk food in our modern society, the council feels the need to educate parents and youngsters is at hand.

The lecture begins at 1 p.m. The public is invited.

Church Salutes Bicentennial

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Church will kick off a Bicentennial celebration Sunday, January 25, in true fashion.

Selected members of the congregation will appear in costume indicative of the Revolutionary period.

Reverend Roy Hutcheon, D.D., will present a sermon based on excerpts used by clergy from the revolutionary period, including comments on how the messages of those days still apply to modern living.

The choir will present music correlated to the nation's religious heritage. Congregational hymns will also be based on national tradition.

Services will be held at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Associate Pastor Jay Cummings will present a special slide presentation on the history of the United Church of Christ at 7 p.m., January 25.

On February 1, Dick Peterson will present the first of a three part series on the American Civil War, a two screened, dual projector, stereophonic slide presentation called, "Our Terrible Tragedy - The Great American Civil War."

Parts 2 and 3 will be presented on successive Sundays. All three parts will be presented at the church at 7 p.m.

Future plans of the church will include a Bicentennial bake sale, a historical presentation devoted to the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church and selective films observing our national and religious heritage.

Later this spring, an arts and crafts exhibition will be presented by members of the church in another special Bicentennial Sunday.

The public is invited to the activities at no charge.

Seeking Hosts For Students

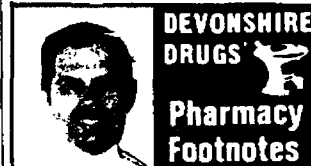

The Adult Foreign Exchange Committee of North High School is currently interviewing prospective host families for the 1976-77 school year.

In a family with open-minded curiosity and a spare bedroom, a student sponsored by American Field Service or Youth for Understanding would probably fit in very well, committee members say.

Host families provide bed and board for the visiting student. The committee and the school, to some extent, take care of the other major expenses, such as lunches and books.

This year North High is hosting two students, Dominique Othenin-Girard from Rolle, Switzerland, living with the Dan Beck family in Roslyn road, and Elizabeth Courtaut from Bois, France, living with Dr. and Mrs. William Mullan, of Sunningdale drive.

For more information about hosting a student call Mrs. Jack Otto, president of the Adult Foreign Exchange Committee, at 886-1816 or Mrs. Gerry Bertovick at North High.

Board Presents 2 New Policies

Policies covering student discipline and the registration of complaints on teaching materials were outlined in two proposals presented for the public record at the Monday, January 12, meeting of the Board of Education.

The new policies were announced in advance of their formal approval in order to "get as much community participation and input as possible before they are passed," according to Board president Joan Hanpeter. They will also be discussed at the PTO/PTA

Council meeting on January 27, where the possibility of holding public hearings on the guidelines will be considered.

The bulk of the discipline policy outlines procedures for student appeal of expulsions, bringing them in line with recent court decisions. Conference with principals, the Disciplinary Board of Review, the Superintendent of Schools and the Board of Education are provided as channels to appeal. Written notice of all expulsions is mandated along with complete transcripts of most appeal meetings. Board of Education decisions are final, except in the case of expulsions of five days or less, over which the building principal presides.

Accompanying the discipline policy are recommended school standards of behavior and suggested penalties for violators.

Another proposed policy, aimed at giving persons who object to the use of educational material a "full and fair hearing," is a companion to policies passed in December 1974. The new policy pertains to registering objections prior to adoption of materials. It details three levels of action, culminating in direct appeal to the Board of Education at a public hearing. A two-page written objection from is required to begin the process.

Complete copies of both policies are available at the Board offices, at 389 St. Clair avenue. They are scheduled for Board approval at their February meeting.

Home Building Pace Is Slow

Building permit activity in the region continued to decline for the first six months of 1975 according to the Southeast Michigan Council of Government's (SEMCOG), recently released presidential construction report.

All seven southeast counties experienced building permit declines, notably for multi-family dwellings but also in the single family and two family dwelling classifications. The report attributes the high prime interest rates for the end of 1974 as a possible reason for the drop in issued permits.

Dwelling units based on residential building permits issued in The Pointe area for the first half of last year show activity in the detached single family unit category only, with nothing in either the two-family unit or multi-family unit classifications.

The breakdown shows The Shores and Woods, detached single family units, five, for a gross and net total of five; The City, detached single family units, four, for a gross and net total of four; The Farms, detached single family units, three, for a gross and net total of three; and The Park, detached single family units, one, for a gross and net total of one.

The report also says the City of Detroit issued permits for 394 dwelling units during the first six months of 1975 in comparison with 687 permits issued for the same period in 1974.

Philip Morris Announces The First Major Step Since The Filter Cigarette.

'Enriched Flavor' discovery revealed for new low tar cigarette.

Ever since filters were first introduced to cigarettes the trend has been to limit cigarette tar.

And with every new refinement in filtration, the tar levels went down.

Unfortunately, in most cases so did the taste.

Regardless of all the "low tar, good taste" claims you've read; regardless of all the fancy filters and space-age filtering systems you've tried — your own taste told you: the less tar, the less taste.

This is a report on a new kind of cigarette.

MERIT. Only 9 mg. of tar. One of the lowest tar levels in smoking today.

Yet with incredible flavor.

If you're looking to become a low tar smoker, or don't particularly enjoy the taste of the low tar brand you smoke now — you'll be interested.

Smoke Cracked: 'Enriched Flavor'

After a twelve year research effort, a team of scientists at our Richmond Research Center succeeded in isolating the "key" flavor ingredients of tobacco as they exist in cigarette smoke.

By adding only those ingredients which were of extreme high quality as flavor producers yet low tar producing as well, we're now able to pack incredible flavor into a cigarette without the usual corresponding increase in tar.

The discovery is called 'Enriched Flavor.'

'Enriched Flavor.' It's extra flavor. Natural flavor. Flavor that can't burn out, can't drop out, can't do anything but come through.

We packed 'Enriched Flavor' into the tobacco used to make MERIT.

And began an extensive series of taste tests. The results were startling.

Taste-Tested By People Like You

9 mg. tar MERIT was taste-tested against five current leading low tar cigarette brands ranging from 11 mg. to 15 mg. tar.

Thousands of filter smokers were involved, smokers like yourself, all tested at home.*

The results were conclusive:

Even if the cigarette tested had 60% more tar, a significant majority of all smokers tested reported new 'Enriched Flavor' MERIT delivered more taste.

Repeat: delivered more taste.

In similar tests against 11 mg. to 15 mg. menthol brands, 9 mg. tar MERIT MENTHOL performed strongly too, delivering as much — or more — taste than the higher tar brands tested.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough. Now you've got the cigarette.

MERIT. Incredible smoking pleasure at only 9 mg. tar.

Wine Lines

by Pat Ulatowski

The history of the wine-making in Bordeaux goes back to the time of the Romans. But Bordeaux wines first became popular in England in the 12th century when Gascony, as the south-western province was known, fell into English hands. It remained English for some three hundred years and during that time special laws favoured the exporters of local wines to England. Bordeaux wines grew very popular and won a reputation for quality over all other regions — a reputation that has never been lost, and still holds today.

From quality Bordeaux to superb burgundy, PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626 has a wine for every taste. We also feature beer from all over the world with over 50 brands to choose from. Delight your guests at your next party with genuine draft beer; we have both 1/4 barrels and 1/2 barrels and will supply you with all the necessary taping equipment at no extra charge. Open: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs.; 10-11 Fri., Sat.; 12-10 Sun.

WINE WISDOM:
Except in sparkling wines, beware of wines with a very sharp or prickly bouquet or with a strong smell of sulphur.

Liquor License Granted to Gene's Party Store

By Tom Greenwood

Those attending the regularly scheduled meeting of The Farms Council, Monday night, January 19, were interested in neighborhood politics as residents living near "Gene's Party Store," in Kercheval avenue just north of Moross road, gave pro and con opinions concerning the planned product expansion of the store.

Mr. and Mrs. Linville Stover, owners of "Gene's," appeared before the council requesting a determination that the sale of liquor in their store be allowed. Currently the store is licensed SDD, which allows them to sell only beer and wine.

With the granting of an SDD license, the store would also be allowed to sell packaged liquor. The problem before the council was whether the product expansion would be appropriate to the current use of the property; or if it was not considered proper.

should the council grant a variance from the provisions of The Farms zoning ordinance to allow liquor to be sold.

After adjourning as a council, and reconvening as a zoning board, the city fathers urged members of the audience to present their opinions.

Mrs. Linville Stover, co-owner of "Gene's," spoke first. "The reason we are approaching the council," she said, "is to give expanded service to our customers. We serve mainly neighborhood people and many times they have asked us to stock liquor as well as beer and wine. It's convenient, one-stop shopping for them. They pick up their liquor, mixes, chips and peanuts all at one time. The way things are now, they have to make two trips to get all their needs. In this day of high gas prices, that's expensive."

Mrs. Stover went on to say how they had maintained the store properly and tried to be good citizens of The Farms.

James Allor, of Mapleton road, spoke in favor of the store, saying they were "good citizens, good neighbors and good business for The Farms." He further stated that they "maintained their property, keeping it well landscaped, and that the liquor license would help improve the property."

Speaking against the store was Mr. and Mrs. Peter Iligbie, of Moross road. Mr. Iligbie said he was "opposed to the license because it would not enhance the neighborhood. Many young people shop there and by selling liquor, the store would not be a good environment for them."

Francis Robinson, of Kercheval avenue, replied to this by saying it was "absurd to think the license would change the neighborhood. People will just buy their liquor someplace else. Gene would just lose business that The Farms could get."

Another citizen, the landlord of property adjacent to the store, said he was not opposed to the license "per se," but was opposed to it because it would increase litter and parking problems for his tenants.

Frank Murphy, a staunch attendee of Farms council meetings, said he was in favor of the license "because Gene's may change if the license is not granted. They're losing business because they lack this merchandise, and without the SDD license they may not survive." He also added that "it was nice to shop at a neighborhood store and not at a supermarket."

Mayor James Dingeman closed opinions from the audience and said he had received about 10 letters from neighbors of the store. All the letters favored the license, he said.

Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman said she received one phone call opposed to the license.

Pair Get $200 at Restaurant

Two white males, one armed with a gun, held up the White Tower restaurant on Tuesday, January 13, and escaped with a large sum of cash from the cash register.

Information released by Park Police Lt. Gordon Duncan disclosed that the two men entered the eatery, 15009 East Jefferson, ordered French fries, which they ate. Then one of the suspects got up and went to the men's restroom, where he remained only long enough to come out with a blue steel revolver in his hand and announced a hold-up. Two female employees and two customers were in the store at the time, 5:10 a.m., it was said.

The holdup men apparently knew what they were doing. The man with the gun searched the customers to make sure they carried no firearms, then ordered one of the employees to give him all the cash from the register. The gunman's companion remained at the door, keeping a look out. He did not show any weapon.

One of the employees of the place handed the man with the revolver approximately $200 in currency. After taking the money, the bandits fled from the restaurant and ran behind St. Ambrose School on Alter road in Detroit and disappeared.

The man with the gun was described as being between 19- and 25-years-old, about 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighing about 160 pounds, appeared stockily built. He had a full one-inch beard and mustache and straight, dark collar-length hair.

His companion was said to be 19- to 21-years-old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, about 140 pounds, appeared to be on the thin side and was clean shaven and collar-length hair. He was wearing a dark colored jacket and plaid trousers.

Woods Hires New Officer

The Woods recently hired a new public safety officer who started on the job last month after completing his basic training at the Criminal Justice Institute.

Officer Michael Makowski, 25, a resident of the community, achieved a class ranking of number one out of a group of 22 students while at the institute. He received high praise during his training at the institute and was called a "superior person" by the program coordinator.

A three-year Army veteran, he attended Saint Florian High School in Hamtramck and is currently working towards a Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice at Wayne State University.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said, "We will urge and cooperate with him so he can complete his degree."

Single Parents Meet Friday

Dorothy Kirby, a member of the Academy of Certified Social Workers, will speak on "Turn on to TA," (trans-acti-onal analysis). She has

Pointer Guilty in Tax Fraud

Appearing before U.S. District Judge Thomas P. Thornton, Friday, January 16, Dr. Clive I. Mohammed, of Three Mile drive, pled guilty to charges of income tax evasion and bank fraud, according to a spokesman for the Internal Revenue Service.

A joint investigation of Dr. Mohammed's financial dealings was conducted by the FBI and the U.S. Intelligence Division of the IRS, and charges against the Grosse Pointe resident were filed Thursday, January 15.

Dr. Mohammed pled guilty to one of two counts of income tax evasion for years 1973 and 1974. According to IRS records, Dr. Mohammed filed a reported income of $41,741.47 for 1974, but failed to report a "substantial income in addition to that" that was reportedly "diverted" from the University of Detroit Dental School.

Dr. Mohammed was dean of the school from March, 1972, until he was fired in May, 1973.

Attorneys for U. of D. and the National Bank of Detroit are battling over who will repay the missing monies. Both parties declined to discuss the amount of money or how it was taken.

Dr. Mohammed also pled guilty to falsifying an application for a $33,000 loan from the National Bank of Detroit, claiming to the bank that the U. of D. board of trustees had approved the loan for school purposes.

The government alleged that the loan was not approved by the university and that Dr. Mohammed forged the name of a U. of D. secretary on the resolution. The government said the money was in fact, used to cover business losses incurred by Dr. Mohammed in Puerto Rico.

Sentencing was delayed while the probationary department of the District Court prepares a report on the case which will be taken into consideration by Judge Thornton. No date has yet been set for sentencing.

The maximum sentence Dr. Mohammed could receive for income tax evasion is three years in prison and/or a $5,000 fine.

Dr. Mohammed was released on a $50,000 surety bond.

Doing Favors Can Be Costly

A routine check over the Law Enforcement Information Network, (LEIN), by Shores police on Sunday, January 11, resulted in the arrest of Ippokratiss S. Tsikanikas, of 4333 Beaconsfield, Detroit, who had gone to the Shores station to pick up a car for his friend Prokopios D. Koutsikos, of 725 Manistiquette, Detroit.

Koutsikos was arrested by Shores Public Safety Officer Harry Hamilton on Saturday, January 10, for driving while his operator's license was suspended, as a result of failing to settle a traffic warrant in St. Clair Shores.

PSO Hamilton stopped Koutsikos at 2:30 p.m. on the Saturday date for speeding

Olsonite Tennis Classic Friday

Four Detroit area tennis players will participate in doubles competition prior to the main event of the Olsonite International Invitational Tennis Classic at Olympia on Friday, January 23.

Australian born Trish Faulkner, Wimbledon competitor and area tennis pro, teams up with her husband Roger, against Richard Gonzales and 16-year-old Chris Fulgenzi of Lothrop road, in a doubles match beginning at 7 p.m.

A teaching pro for nine years, Trish has held the European Indoor Doubles title and was the Australian Junior Doubles and Mixed Doubles titleholder. She has played at Wimbledon six times and in the U. S. Open four times. The Bloomfield Hills resident also has a weekly report on WJR radio. Roger Faulkner, a personnel executive with Burroughs Corporation, was a nationally ranked junior in Great Britain and a finalist in the National Junior Championships at Wimbledon. His 1975 titles include the Pro Am division of Tennis and Crumpets which he won with Trish, and a repeat of his 1974 Birmingham Athletic Club championship.

Twenty-six-year-old Richard Gonzales, the son of famed tennis player Pancho Gonzales, and a suburban teaching pro, will face the husband and wife team paired with Chris Fulgenzi.

Miss Fulgenzi, a Grosse Pointe Farms resident, is currently ranked No. 1 in Michigan and 13th in the nation.

In doubles she is ranked fifth nationally.

In addition, the top-ranked junior will represent Michigan in "Seventeen Magazine's" Tournament of Champions to be held in Washington, D.C. Most recently, she won the women's singles at the Village Racquet Club Invitational, in Warren.

Rod Laver, Mark Cox and Bjorn Borg are matched in Round Robin Singles in the main event for $11,500 in prize money. All three are ranked No. 1 in their native countries. They will take to the court at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets for the Olsonite International Tennis Classic are priced at $6 and $5 (children 12 and under receive a $2 off discount) and $4 general admission.

Ticket outlets include Olympia, Grinnell's and the Olympia Travel Bureau and Ticket Service in Birmingham.

Special VIP tickets priced at $15, with choice seating and a cocktail party with the stars included, are available at Olympia and Olympia Travel only, as are the $50 court-side patron tickets which include dinner and the cocktail party afterwards.

Club's Nomads Feel at Home

The Neighborhood Club Nomads are beginning to feel at home in the cold weather on their long, narrow touring skis.

Trips to Stony Creek and Kensington Park have provided the practice and training which will prove useful on future Saturdays and on the weekend trip to northern Michigan planned for mid-February.

On Saturday, January 24, the group will spend the day exploring the trails at Highland Recreation Area. Interested high school students and adults should call the club at 885-4600 for details on upcoming trips.

An instructional and vigorous trip will be taken Friday-Sunday, February 13-15, to Lake Timberlain near Cadillac. Arrangements for lodging and instruction are being made through the Ann Arbor based Round River Adventures.

The price for the weekend is $35 and includes food, lodging, transportation and expert instruction. Ski rental is an additional $8.

Registration will be held at the club, 17150 Waterloo avenue. For further information, call 885-4600.

Austin Cagers' Streak Snapped

By Paul T. Denis
The Friars had their win streak snapped Friday night, January 16 by a tough Pontiac Catholic squad in a 68-58 loss in a league game. Austin led by up to seven points in the third quarter but Pontiac Catholic rallied in the final quarter to defeat the Friars by eight.

Phil Colletti, who has been the spark plug of the team in the last two weeks, was the leading scorer again with 18 points. Bob Keuten added 14.

Despite the loss, Austin still remains tied for first place in the league with a 4-2 record. Before this week's game the Friars were tied with Saint Clement whom they defeated last week. Since both Austin and Saint Clement lost this week, there is now a four-way tie for first place between Austin, Saint Clement, Pontiac Catholic and East Catholic.

Austin is looking to break this deadlock when they play East Catholic on Friday, January 30, at East Catholic. The J.V. squad has the same record as the varsity, standing 4-2 in the league and 7-4 overall. The J.V. cagers won a thrilling overtime victory against Pontiac Catholic 57-54 with Bob Conway pumping in 26 points.

Lionel Good added 12 points.

One View from the Capitol

By William Bryant

The legislature is back in session. Elected legislative bodies, as the law-making arm of a democratic government, is the best system there is; but this is an election year, so keep an eye on things.

The session started well with a strong State of the State message from the Governor. It was probably the best and the most conservative message he has given us.

He now supports our call for mandatory sentencing for violent crimes. He calls for fiscal restraint and welfare reform. He says he will not ask for any increase in state taxes and he says we must recognize that government cannot and should not try to do everything.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the annual message was his support of regional sharing of part of the growth in a non-residential property tax base. I have quite advocated we thoroughly debate the idea since 1971 when I drafted such a bill.

Response in 1971 was lukewarm but this is a good year to look at it. What it does is take a portion, about 50 percent of the increased tax base attributable to commercial and industrial growth and shares this growth throughout the seven county, southeast Michigan area.

There are only five ways to help Detroit. One is to decrease its demand for revenue. This is needed and is difficult, but we will be asking Detroit, as never before, hard questions about what they do and why it costs so much.

The other four all have to do with increasing revenue, and are the four logical sources. They are the taxes of the city itself, the region, the State and the Federal Government.

The only "regional" effort which aids Detroit is the non-resident income tax, and it is clear that I will not, and other suburban legislators will not, vote to increase the non-resident income tax.

But aside from the non-resident income tax, there is not much done regionally to aid the older, stagnant communities. The growth-sharing proposal may be the answer. I welcomed the Governor's support of the idea and I look forward to an in-depth investigation and debate of its merits and demerits.

As the Governor said, we must live within limitations in this fiscal year and recognize the severe fiscal restraints, but that need not and should not keep us from being innovative and finding better answers to real problems.

North Tankers Score Victory

By Sarah Bleich

The Grosse Pointe North High School Varsity Swim Team finished as victors in their third dual meet of the season. Their record now stands at 2-1 after defeating the Clintondale Dragons by a score of 125-47.

This second victory was paced by first, second, third, and fourth places for the Norsemens divers. The winning diver was freshman Mike Brown who set a new varsity record with a total of 279 points, which was an improvement over Tom Hellstrom's 1974 varsity record of 267 points.

Brown was followed by juniors Dennis Savage, Dan Paterak, and freshman Rich Causeley.

The Norsemens swimmers also contributed to the victory by taking first place in nine of the 11 events. First place points went to John Diamon, Mark Gerganoff, Andy Howe, and Doug Rentzschler in the 200 yard medley relay, Shawn Lakin in the 200 yard individual medley, Scott Nixon in the 50 yard free style, and Andy Howe in the 100 yard butterfly.

More first place winners were Matt Sobieski in the 500 yard freestyle, John Diamond in the 100 yard backstroke, Mark Gerganoff in the 100 yard breaststroke, and Scott Nixon, Matt Sobieski, Matt Brady, and Doug Rentzschler in the 400 yard freestyle relay.

The Norsemens are currently tied for first place in the Bi-County League with St. Clair Shores Lakeshore; both schools have a Bi-County record of 2-0.

The Norsemens will swim against Lakeshore, Thursday, January 22, at 4 p.m. in the Grosse Pointe North High School pool.

Hockey Team Fights to Tie

Grosse Pointe's Sherwood Forest and Port Edwards, Ont. hockey teams played to a hard fought 3-3 tie Sunday night, January 18, in Port Edwards.

Sherwood's two most important games of the season will be this weekend, Saturday, January 24, 25.

This Saturday Sherwood will host Watford, Ont. at the Grosse Pointe Community Arena.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. Sunday night they travel to Forest, Ont.

Edsel Ford Nips SH Natators

By Rick Thomas

State swimming power-house Dearborn Edsel Ford barely handed the South High varsity swim team its first setback of the season, 87-85, on Tuesday, January 13. South led all the way until Edsel Ford won first and second places in the final event to take the victory.

Standouts in the meet for the Blue Devils once again were Drew Pillsbury, Steve Swanson and Bill Brownell, among others.

Pillsbury took first place in the 200-yard individual medley and combined with Swanson, Steve Soderberg and Mike Scott to win the 200-yard medley relay. Swanson also placed first in the 100-yard backstroke, while Brownell won the 500-yard freestyle event.

Pete Saggau rounded out South's five first place finishes with a win in the diving competition.

In other events, Brownell finished second in the 200-yard freestyle and Mike Bernard finished third.

Mike Scott took two second place finishes in the 50- and 100-yard freestyle events.

The Devil's past record with Edsel Ford has been strong despite the fact that Dearborn was rated in the top 10 in the State last season. A year ago, when South last swam against them, the Devils won by a single point.

Although South's coach Carl Schoessel does not consider this year's team as State crown contenders, a third consecutive Eastern Michigan League title is by no means out of reach.

With swimmers such as Pillsbury and Swanson, both of whom are included in the Detroit News' State rankings, little competition for the league championship is expected.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

To some people in Michigan winter means shoveling snow and hazardous driving — to others it means skiing, skating and hockey. To many others it means snowmobiling. Today snowmobiling is Michigan's fastest growing winter recreation activity. As of a year ago there were more than 400,000 snowmobiles registered in our state.

In 1971, the Michigan Legislature passed the most comprehensive snowmobile law in the United States, Public Act 178. Under this law the Michigan Department of Natural Resources is charged with enforcement activities, developing education programs, and establishing snowmobile trails.

Some of the greatest snowmobile fun will be found in traveling the more than 1200 miles of marked snowmobile trails in our state. Also, Michigan's bountiful state forest areas, covering nearly four million square miles, are available for winter recreational use. Trail maps and copies of the 1971 snowmobile law are available at Department of Natural Resources, Lansing, District and Area Field Offices. The DNR also publishes a fine "Snowmobile Directory." For a copy, write the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, Lansing, Michigan 48926.

If you own a snowmobile or if you are thinking of buying one and want to learn more about the sport and the purchase and care of a machine, the Grosse Pointe Public Library has some excellent books that you might find interesting.

Experienced drivers or rank beginners will find valuable information on all aspects of snowmobiling in James L. Thomas' SAFE SNOWMOBILING (Sterling). Thomas first introduces you in simple terms to the snowmobile and how it is operated. From there, he discusses the fine points of riding safely, the seasons for buying a new or used snowmobile, accessories, how to keep a sled in top condition, and the proper clothing to wear when you're on the trail.

Included here are also many of the activities awaiting the snowmobiler: family, safaris, clubs, snowmobile resorts, ice fishing, hunting and racing. Also included, for both the United States and Canada, is information on laws and where to obtain information on trails. The author's major point, however, is that no matter what you do with your snowmobile, the most important thing to keep in mind is safety and consideration for others.

Now that you have your snowmobile, here is a book that will help you to keep it in top running condition: CHILTON'S REPAIR AND

Cottage Auxiliary Marks Anniversary

Board of Trustees Says Thank You to "Ladies in Red Pinafiores" Via Cocktail Fete

Back in November, 1953, the board of trustees of Cottage Hospital invited a group of 16 women to tea. Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl, Jr., (she's Mrs. Peters Opperman now), was chairman of the party, and she suggested that each of the 16 guests invite 10 others to tea, and so on . . . and so on . . .

The hope was that, through these teas, a Women's Auxiliary might be formed, to provide service in many areas of the Hospital.

Today, 23 years later, 400 women wear the Auxiliary's distinctive cherry red pinafiores as they work voluntarily in all parts of Cottage.

Some push the Book Cart, taking magazines, books and other reading materials to patients. Others "keep shop" in the Hospital's first floor Gift Shop, selling items ranging from toothbrushes to gold watches — whatever a patient may need.

Members of Patient Service attend to individual wants and needs, (transporting patients in wheelchairs to X-ray and the laboratory, for instance), while the Sunshine Guild fashions tray favors and provides other decorations: cheering touches for hospital rooms.

The Auxiliary's fund-raising projects, such as the Christmas Mart and Donation Tea, have earned thousands of dollars for Cottage over the years.

Literally thousands of volunteer hours, in these and other capacities, have been given with dedication and love to Cottage Hospital since 1953, "and at last," says John N. McNaughton, current president of the board of trustees, "the board wants to let these women know we appreciate all they have done."

And that is precisely what the board did last Friday, January 16, honoring Auxiliary members, with their husbands, at a 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock party at the Little Club.

Mrs. Opperman, who started the whole thing, was unfortunately out of town, but other members of the board of trustees were on hand to say "Thank You."

They included Mr. and Mrs. McNaughton, Mr. and Mrs. W. Merritt Jones, Jr., Mrs. and Mrs. Cleveland Thurber, Jr., Mrs. Miles O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril J. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Earl I. Heenan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Elliott H. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Baubie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lambrecht, Mr. and Mrs. James McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. F. James Robinson, 11, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Waters and Mr. and Mrs. H. Gordon Wood.

Among the 250 who accepted invitations were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Christiansen, Mr. Warren R. Jollymore, Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Joy, Dr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Loranger, Dr. and Mrs. Milton J. Rueger and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Thom.

Trio of New Works Slated

Three new works commissioned in honor of the United States Bicentennial will be given their world premieres by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra during regularly-scheduled DSO concerts in Ford Auditorium in January, April and May.

They include Michael Colgrass' "Concertmasters," a concerto for three violins and orchestra, Morton Gould's "Symphony of Spirituals" for orchestra and "A New Sound of Freedom" for jazz band and orchestra by Detroit composer Jeffrey Steinberg.

DSO Music Director Aldo Ceccato will conduct the premieres of the Colgrass and Gould works. Jeffrey Steinberg will conduct his own work, featuring the Austin-Moro Band in its first collaboration with the Detroit Symphony.

"Concertmasters" is believed to be the first triple-violin concerto since Vivaldi's in the 18th century.

Aldo Ceccato will conduct its world premiere performances next Thursday and Saturday, January 29 and 31, with DSO violins Gordon Staples, Bogos Mortchikian and Joseph Goldman as soloists.

Staples is the orchestra's concertmaster. Mortchikian is associate concertmaster, Goldman assistant concertmaster.

The work was commissioned from Mr. Colgrass, who will be present for the premiere, by DSO, and was originally to have been played last October.

"Symphony of Spirituals" will be given its world premiere performances at April 1 and 2 concerts conducted by Aldo Ceccato. Mr. Gould will present a talk on his new work at 7:30 o'clock Friday, April 1, at the "Zodiac Prelude" before that evening's concert.

The "Symphony of Spirituals" is one of seven works funded by the National Endowment for the Arts as a Bicentennial joint commissioning project.

The project, between the NEA and a group of the nation's most prestigious orchestras, was inaugurated by DSO Executive Director Marshall W. Turkin, who is administering it.

Besides the Gould piece, works have been commissioned from Gunther Schuller, Ned Rorem, George Rochberg, Michael Colgrass, Lorin Rush and Jacob Druckman; another of the joint commission works, the Rochberg Violin Concerto — given its premiere last season by the Pittsburgh Orchestra — will be played by the DSO with Isaac Stern on March 18, 19 and 20.

"A New Sound of Freedom," to be given its world premiere May 30, is another NEA commission, awarded to Mr. Steinberg on the recommendation of Marshall Turkin.

Principal Pops Conductor Richard Hayman, who will be on the podium for the Sunday afternoon Weekender Pops Concert, will yield the baton for the new work to its composer, who will conduct the DSO and the Austin-Moro Band.

The May 30 concert replaces one originally scheduled for November 23, and it will mark the final concert of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's 1975-76 season.

Holman-Webster Vows Exchanged

Mrs. David Duthie Is Honor Matron for Her Sister; Laurie Duthie Serves As Flower Girl; GPHYC Reception Follows Rites

At home in Seabrook, Tex., are Mr. and Mrs. Donald George Holman, who exchanged marriage vows in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church Friday evening, November 21, at a 6:30 o'clock ceremony with The Reverend Alan Gruenke presiding.

Mrs. Holman is the former Diane Helene Webster, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry E. Webster, of Lochmoor boulevard.

Mr. Holman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Ross, of Garden City, N.Y. Following a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, the newlyweds vacationed in Hawaii.

Lace accented the bodice, portrait neckline and Juliet sleeves of the bride's white silk jersey gown. Her floor length illusion veil fell from a lace-edged Juliet cap, and she carried a dried flower arrangement featuring white silk roses and baby's-breath.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. David Duthie, of Fraser, as honor matron, and bridesmaids Deborah Wagner, of Pontiac, Mrs. Arnot Heller, a sister-in-law, Theresa Rolles, of Cincinnati, O., and Mrs. Charles Pearson, of Washington, D.C., in floor length frocks of turquoise print Qiana, with matching jackets.

Each carried a single silk rose circled with baby's-breath.

Coming from Indiana to serve as best man was Joel Bock. Ushering were Douglas Carson, of Pasadena, Calif., John Pikorski, of Seabrook, and the bridegroom's brothers, Robert and Thomas Holman, both of Garden City.

Tucking accented the bodice and cuffs of the long-sleeved green chiffon dress Mrs. Webster selected for her daughter's wedding. She pinned green cymbidium orchids to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother pinned green cymbidium orchids to her floor length green Qiana gown, beaded at Empire waist and neckline.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's grand-mother, Mrs. Ernest Willem, of Ann Arbor, his uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willem, of Benton Harbor, and the George Holmans, of Ohio, and the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kornacki, who came from Connecticut.

Tapert-Manz Troth Is Told

Genie Manz was graduated from the University of Michi-

Fine Arts Focuses On Thoreau in Jail

Septennial Fanfarade Afterglow Will Celebrate Organization's 70th Anniversary; Play to Be Presented Friday and Saturday

Fine Arts Society of Detroit begins the Bicentennial Year with a very "American" drama, "The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail," a play in two acts by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee.

Directing this second production of Fine Arts' 1975-76 season, scheduled for performances Friday and Saturday evenings, January 22 and 23, at 8:30 o'clock at The Players Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue, is Arthur W. Gohle, of Rivard boulevard.

Producers are Les and Leona Putnam, of Earl court. Audio-visual techniques, including slides and motion picture film, will be featured.

The play is set in the Presidency of James Polk, who has sent United States forces into a smaller nation, Mexico, without a formal Declaration of War or Congressional approval.

Many citizens cheered, while others were apathetic. Others, appalled by American Army involvement in another country and disturbed by events affecting the quality of life at home, became vocal dissidents — and among the most vocal of them all was Henry David Thoreau, naturalist and mystic who believed in simple life shorn of materialism.

Appearing as Henry for Fine Arts will be Donald Kuhn. Other members of the cast are Frank Judge, Norma Gohle, Alice Finney, Charles Davis, III, Thomas Peters, James B. Hughes, Susan Davis, Sydney Sinclair, Douglas Avedisian, John O. Peters, Jean Judge, Dallas Chapin and Haig Avedisian.

Portraying townspeople will be Bill Bailey, Eric Gohle, Lee Peters, Sarah Peters and Marianne and Steve Shrader.

Bookholder is Bonnie Denler, technical director Michael Traicoff. Liz Gregory will be on the flute, Tim and Kurt Forrester on the drums.

The Gohles provided the rehearsal rooms, Lee Corless the rehearsal slides, Milton and Arme Volkens are doing the lobby candid.

The afterglow, celebrating Fine Arts' 70th anniversary, will feature a Septennial Fanfarade written and presented by Fine Arts' Arts and Crafts Committee in cooperation with a cast including Mildred Avedisian, Don Bliss, Dallas Chapin, Lee Corless, Anne Curtis, Bud Day, Sue and Charles Davis, III, Carol DeGaetano, Bonnie Denler, Alice Finney, Lillian Hicks, Audrey Jennings, Bonnie Klein, Aileen and Ken Kurtz, Hugh Munce, Bud Pearse, John Peters, Les Putnam, Pete Rettig, Arme Volkens, John Webster and Jack Moldovan.

Pointe Braille Club Gathers

The weather outside was frightful Tuesday, January 13, when members of the Grosse Pointe Braille Club gathered at Georgian Inn for a luncheon meeting, but reports from various committees brought a warm glow to the proceedings.

Mrs. Gary Kavanagh revealed that 592 pages had been bound in nine volumes since the group's last meeting, making a total of 2,091 pages in 30 volumes for the year.

Mrs. John Millett reported that 204 pages had been reformed, and Mrs. Thomas Chisholm told of work in progress. Mrs. Glyn Myer noted her class in Braille Transcription is moving along at a good rate of speed.

Mrs. Wilber McClellan and Mrs. W. A. Huegli reported on the recent meeting of MATVI, (Michigan Association of Transcribers of Materials for the Visually Impaired), in Ann Arbor.

The Federal Government plans to allot $16 million to further the addition of books, tapes and large type print scripts for the Library of Congress.

John Harwood Claims Miss Robinson As His Bride

John Maas Harwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence J. Harwood, of Moran road, claimed Isabel King Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Robinson, of Clarkston, as his bride Saturday, December 20, in Clarkston United Methodist Church.

Presiding at the 1 o'clock ceremony, written by the bride and bridegroom, were The Reverend John M. Clapp and Father William Downey.

The former Miss Robinson holds a Journalism degree from Michigan State University. The bridegroom, whose father is a member of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, received his degree in Criminal Justice from MSU.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pearl-trimmed white jersey gown, styled with a V-neck and princess waist. A Juliet cap caught her fingertip veil, and she wore an antique garnet ring, a Harwood family heirloom.

White carnations, stephanotis, fern and bridal ivy formed her bouquet.

In a turtle-necked, floor length frock of maroon jersey, featuring butterfly wing sleeves, was Mrs. Graham Woolston, who came from Lima, O., to serve as her sister's honor attendant.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically in pine green jersey, were Mrs. Charles K. Robinson and Linda Bullen, of Clarkston, and Dianna Woolston, the bride's niece.

They carried arrangements of red-tipped carnations, holly and evergreen.

Laurence J. Harwood, Jr., acted as best man for his brother. Ushering were Thomas and Robert Harwood, two other brothers, and Charles K. Robinson, the bride's brother.

The bride's nephew lit the candles before the ceremony. The bride's aunt played a Russian Christmas hymn and the Lord's Prayer on the harp.

Rites In Colorado For Miss Ruifrok

Robert Duane Mitchells Vacation in Mexico and New Mexico Following Christmas Wedding; Are at Home in Canon City

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday afternoon, December 27, in Christ Episcopal Church, Canon City, Colo., were Carolyn Grace Ruifrok, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Ruifrok, of Moran road, and Robert Duane Mitchell.

The ceremony at which The Reverend Robert Babb presided was followed by a reception at Canon City's Ramada Inn.

The former Miss Ruifrok, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of white maracaine, styled with an attached train and V-necked, molded bodice trimmed with pearl-headed Venise lace.

Her long, tapered sleeves ended in cuffs detailed with pearls and lace, and her French silk illusion veil, fingertip length, fell from a pearl-studded maracaine smocked caplet.

She carried a cascade of orchids, stephanotis, baby's-breath and ivy, with red velvet streamers.

Honor matron Mrs. Gary Sharpe, of Canon City, and bridesmaids Mrs. Charles Lambrecht Ruifrok and Constance Camp, of San Francisco, the bridegroom's cousin, carried red carnations and holly, with red velvet streamers.

The high necks of their pale nile green crepe frocks were piped in holly green to match their floor length, long-sleeved coats. They wore matching, holly green smocked caplets, with circles of holly green maline.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Mitchell, of Pinole, Calif., asked George W. Nelson, of Logan, Utah, to act as best man.

Ushers included Charles Lambrecht Ruifrok, brother of the bride, and Mr. Sharpe.

Bride accented the neckline and waist of the bride's mother's high-necked, long-sleeved, floor length gown of turquoise Qiana. The bridegroom's mother's formal length gown, of rose chiffon, featured a white front panel. Each mother wore a cymbidium orchid.

The newlyweds have returned from a vacation in Mexico and New Mexico to make their home in Canon City, where both are employed.

The bridegroom was graduated from California's Humboldt State University. The bride was graduated from University Liggett School, attended Goucher College and received her Bachelors and Masters degrees from Western Michigan University.

Seven Productions Promised by Met

Casts and Conductors for May Season in Detroit Announced; Mail Orders Will Be Accepted in February

Cast members and conductors for the Metropolitan Opera Company's annual spring visit to Detroit have been announced by Henry Ledyard, of Lewiston road, general manager of the Detroit Grand Opera Association (DGOA), sponsors of the Metropolitan season.

The Metropolitan will present seven productions at Masonic Temple May 24 to 29, marking the 18th consecutive return of the world-renowned company to Detroit.

"The Met's 1976 season promises to be the most varied and exciting ever, including three new productions and works by Italian, French and German composers," Mr. Ledyard noted.

"Among its highlights will be presentations of 'Carmen' and 'Aida,' two beloved classics especially favored by Detroit audiences, and the return of Maestro Sixten Ehrling to our city.

"Just as important," he added, "there will be no increase in the price of tickets."

The productions and principals announced for the 1976 Metropolitan season are:

May 24 — "Carmen," by Bizet, with Tatiana Troyanos and James McCracken; Henry Lewis conducting.

May 25 — "Il Trittico" (new production), by Puccini, with Renata Scotta, Harry Theyard and Cornell MacNeil; Sixten Ehrling conducting.

Robinson, Barry Morell and Robert Merrill; Henry Lewis conducting.

"Another of the season's highlights will be the performance of Puccini's 'Il Trittico,'" Mr. Ledyard continued. "The title means 'the triptych,' signifying the work composed of three one-act operas.

"The Metropolitan had the honor in 1918 of the premiere of 'Il Trittico,' (The Clock, of 'Il Tabarro' (The Cloak), 'Suor Angelica' (Sister Angelica), and 'Gianni Schicchi.' The three are quite different in focus, temperament and expression, offering the possibility for one soprano to develop three exceedingly challenging characters.

"Puccini always spells beauty and excitement, and 'Il Trittico' gives us three views of the master.

"The Met is the nation's oldest and the world's largest musical traveling company. Mr. Ledyard continued, "Each year more than 35 singers, dancers, designers and support personnel come to Detroit, bringing a wealth of artistry and enchantment unmatched anywhere for its splendor and beauty.

"The Met features the best singers of our time performing at the peaks of their careers, the most profes-

P.E.O. to Mark 107th Birthday

Detroit-area P.E.O. Sisterhood will celebrate P.E.O.'s 107th birthday at a Founders' Day Luncheon this Saturday, January 24, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Susan Manos, proprietor of "Susan's Doll Museum," will give the afternoon program.

Susan, a collector of antique and international dolls, will base her talk in this Bicentennial Year on leading characters in American history.

Founders' Day is sponsored each year by P.E.O.'s Detroit Cooperative, representing 28 metropolitan chapters. Toastmistress and co-chairman for Saturday's 12:30 o'clock celebration is Mrs. R. H. Edwards, of Bloomfield Hills.

State President Mrs. H. A. Bennett is coming from Marquette to bring greetings from the State officers. Detroit Cooperative officers, including Mrs. W. F. Horsch, of Linville road, treasurer, also plan to be present.

P.E.O. Sisterhood, a philanthropic educational organization, was founded by seven young women as a sorority at Iowa Wesleyan College January 21, 1869. It is now an international organization with over 4,603 chapters in the United States and Canada, its members numbering more than 220,885 women. P.E.O. groups also are located on college campuses, in retirement and resort areas, on military bases and in eight foreign countries.

P.E.O. accomplishes its educational and charitable purposes through four educational projects involving the entire membership. Cotley Junior College, founded in Nevada, Mo., in 1884, has been owned and supported by P.E.O. since 1927.

The P.E.O. Educational Fund revolving loan has assisted more than 18,500 women seeking financial aid for education. International Peace Scholarships, awarded to foreign women to pursue graduate study in the United States and Canada, then return to their homelands to serve their own people, sponsored 223 women at a cost of $324,080 in 1973-75.

P.E.O.'s Program for Continuing Education, established in 1973, provides financial help for women in fields of interest through which they seek purposeful goals for self and service.

All of these educational projects are financed by P.E.O. members' voluntary contributions. Recipients need not be P.E.O. members.

Let Cyclamen Bloom Again

The bright flowers of the cyclamen, (Cyclamen persicum), provide a spot of living color during the Christmas season. With proper care, blooming may continue into February.

For best results, horticulturists recommend growing cyclamen in a cool, well-lighted area, but not in direct sunlight. An east window is ideal, if the plant doesn't touch the cold glass or suffer temperatures below 50 degrees F at night and 60 degrees during the day.

Pot drainage is essential. Good drainage is essential with a layer of gravel, charcoal or broken clay pot in the bottom.

Water often enough with lukewarm water to keep the soil moist, but not soggy. Do not let the plant stand in water for long periods, and keep water off the foliage and crown of the plant, to prevent disease problems.

When flower buds stop appearing and the foliage begins to turn brown, the plant needs a rest period. Reduce the amount and frequency of watering and put the plant in a cool location, (40 to 50 degrees), until spring.

Then repot the corm—the bulb-like structure—with one-half of it above the soil surface.

After the danger of frost is past, place the plant in a cool, protected spot outdoors. Water as needed to keep the soil moist, and fertilize once a month with a water-soluble houseplant fertilizer. A spot that offers partial shade during summer's brightest days is excellent.

Take the plant indoors before the first fall frost and give it full sun—an eastern exposure is best—and temperatures no higher than 65 degrees. Flowering should begin between mid-November and early December.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle A. Thorburn, of Mason, received her Bachelor of Science degree in Education from MSU in 1973, and is an elementary teacher with the Lakewood Public Schools in Sunfield.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Gerard M. Haley, of Harcourt road, and the late Mr. Haley, was graduated from Wayne State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics in 1970, received his J.D. in 1974 from Loyola University Law School, Chicago, and is now an attorney with the Michigan Court of Appeals in Lansing.

The newlyweds vacationed in Toronto and are at home in Lansing.

For the 1 o'clock ceremony at which The Reverend C. Wallace Robertson presided, the former Miss Thorburn chose an Ivory Jersey Empire gown fashioned with a bodice of Cluny lace accented with Venice lace details.

Her Cluny lace bishop sleeves ended in deep cuffs, and her flounced hem, extending into a chapel train, was edged with a wide band of lace.

A lace-covered Camelot cap caught her lace-edged, full length mantilla. She carried an arrangement of white carnations and white Sweetheart roses centered with red Sweetheart roses, with accents of baby's-breath and a cascade of ivy and baby's-breath.

Mrs. Gene Garrison, of Mason, honor matron for her sister, and bridesmaids Joy Kelly, of Lansing, another sister, Mrs. James Thorburn, of Ypsilanti, a sister-in-law, Patricia Clipper, of Mason, and Holly Stribley, of Aspen, Colo., wore Empire frocks of red jersey, long-skirted and long-sleeved, and carried Christmas bouquets of white carnations, holly leaves, holly berries and baby's-breath.

Patrick J. Haley came from Traverse City to act as best man for his brother. In the usher corps were Victor A. Pollak, of Shawnee Mission, Kans., Steven F. Kelsch, of Traverse City, Lawrence A. Rueff, of Chicago, and Joseph G. Connors, of Monroe.

The mother of the bride chose a two-piece, long-sleeved pale blue soft knit ensemble. The bridegroom's mother, a beige and white costume. Red Sweetheart roses and holly leaves formed both mothers' corsages.

Special guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Earl P. Kleinhenn, of East Lansing, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. W. Gordon Spoor, of Detroit.

Rochester Home Awaits Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. H. Sherman Rundles Upon Their Return from Skiing Holiday

Exchanging marriage vows at a 4 o'clock ceremony Saturday, December 27, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church were Linda Keppelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Thomas Keppelman, of Moran road, and H. Sherman Rundles.

The rites at which John McCreight and Dr. Dwight Large, of Ann Arbor, a family friend, officiated were followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, after which the newlyweds left for a skiing vacation in northern Michigan. They will make their home in Rochester.

The bride's gown of French ivory lace applied on crepe featured a high neck and sheer, bishop sleeves. Her lace scalloped hem extended into a chapel train. She wore baby's-breath in her hair, and carried English holly and orchids. In empire frocks of wine velvet and crepe were Nancy Keppelman, honor maid for her sister, and Kay Rundles, the bridegroom's sister. Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Buying your next home and getting exactly what you want is mostly a matter of communication between you and your real estate agent. When you tell him you want an English Tudor in the Farms, he's usually smart enough to know you also might consider something startlingly unusual in a ranch in the Shores.

You probably say, Oh no, not me! But your agent usually has a reason, so let him earn his salt and screen houses for you and bear him out. If, after a few chases down a blind alley, tell you he's not on your wave length, then it's time to shop around for another salesperson.

The people at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. — 882-0087 have a proven formula on how to cope with this common problem. It's not a secret, however, it does entail a fantastic amount of detail and elaborate planning. All this is worth it, though, because we know we're with you in your thoughts and we almost always end up finding you your next home!

Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. — the people with a one year warranty, an on-staff interior decorator and architectural designer. We also have guaranteed sales, we'll trade homes. There is nothing we can't do if it means helping you sell or buy a home!

WHY RENT???
Would you rent if you knew that you could buy a one bedroom condominium apartment for $15,500, and with only $1,500 down on land contract terms? Do you realize that most people recover that amount after a down payment in tax savings alone within 2 years.

We can provide you with these terms and a monthly payment of $181 which includes principal interest, taxes, insurance and your maintenance fee. In addition to this, you would have an annual deduction for Federal Income taxes of approximately $1,620.

What type of benefits are you receiving from your rent checks? Come see our models at Whittier Manor this weekend. Saturday and Sunday 1-6 p.m. 9540 Whittier, just West of I-94. 884-3555 or 599-5939. Michigan Condominium Corporation.

SOUTH HIGH FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS, PEKKA VARTIAINEN, NORMA BUENAHORA AND RICKY VINUYA

By Susan McDonald

Just mention the word "weather" to Norma Buenahora, from Cucuta, Colombia, and she automatically draws her arms around her shoulders with a shiver and a grimace. As if new cultures, languages, schools and families aren't enough for foreign students to adjust to, Michigan had to whip up a specially mean winter for South High School's two visitors from tropical lands this year.

Ricky Vinuya has not been much better off. He claims he has never seen the thermometer drop below 69 degrees in his home of Manila in the Philippines. But he takes it a little better, and has even ventured outside often enough to learn to ice-skate—a talent in great demand back home, no doubt.

Pekka Just Laughs
Of course Pekka Vartiainen has nothing but a merciless laugh for Ricky and Norma's suffering. His home town of Helsinki, Finland, is on about the same latitude as Anchorage, Alaska, and if that isn't enough, he takes off to the frigid Northern Laplands for skiing just about every chance he gets. Nothing about the horrid Michigan weather has phased him in the least.

Shivers aside, all three South High Foreign Exchange students have fit in quite well in their new environment, with little trouble. "It's easy for an exchange student to adjust here; the people are so easy to get along with," according to Ricky. "You just have to get used to answering a lot of crazy questions."

Talking with Ricky, you get the feeling he would probably adjust just about anywhere without serious problems. He's a vivacious and outgoing charmer—just the kind of student "diplomat" that makes the exchange program so successful. "I'm the adventurous type," he explains, "I'll go anywhere and try anything that the Youth For Understanding (YUF), will sponsor."

Years of Involvement
This trip to the U. S., Ricky's first, is the culmination of several years involvement with YUF. "At home YUF is a big club and we all become very close friends. The members practically live together for months at a time preparing for the visit. Then we all come over together to the States on a three-day plane trip that drops students off from coast to coast."

In The Pointe the YUF and American Field Service combine forces for most activities including fund-raisers. One of their biggest sponsored events at South High School is the annual international dinner scheduled for Wednesday, January 28, at 6:30 p.m. in the South High cafeteria.

Sponsored by the Adult Foreign Student Committee of Grosse Pointe South, and assisted by the Foreign Exchange Club members, the dinner funds are used to assist students going overseas and to provide extra services for those visiting The Pointe.

Traditional Dishes
The menu traditionally includes dishes from each of the countries represented at South High that year. This year it will be Finnish meat loaf with lingonberries, a Colombian vegetable salad and Philippine "bana-ques," prepared under the direction of Harriett Genburg from Sweden, now living in the Pointe.

Tickets for the dinner are $3.25 for adults and $2 for students under 12 years old. They are available at the school during lunch hours Wednesday-Friday, January 21-23 or reservations may be made by calling 885-6166.

Another purpose of the dinner is to inform interested parents about the exchange program. Pekka, Norma and Ricky will give short presentations about their impressions of the U. S. and will be joined by Jennifer Mackey, who recently returned from an exchange trip to Germany.

Make Many Speeches
Their speeches at the international dinner are just one of dozens of speaking engagements required of South's foreign ambassadors. They visit Jaycee meetings, Rotaries and schools regularly to complete their part of the foreign exchange.

With such demands on their time, the foreign students could find their life quite hectic here, but they don't. In fact all three would agree that students in The Pointe really have it quite easy.

"In the schools at home it's just one test after another every day of the week," said Norma. "You must study several hours every night or you just get too far behind."

"Lenient is the word for the schools here," according to Ricky. "They let you choose so many of your classes, which is good for some students, but many just use it as a chance to avoid taking any hard, academic studies."

May Study Medicine
Pekka, though, sees the "leniency" as a definite advantage. "In Finland very few students make good enough grades to give them a chance to go to college," he said. "Here, your chances are much better." He is considering coming back to the U. S. to study medicine after he finishes his senior year, (which he must repeat), in Finland.

Besides the speeches and meetings he must participate in Ricky has plunged himself into an array of extracurricular activities typical of almost any American student.

Most enjoyable for him has been his involvement in the South High Theater Guild, which attends and reviews performances in the Detroit Ann Arbor area.

"The theater has been my main interest back home for the last few years. In school I work with a group that writes and then performs and directs our own plays."

Loves Basketball
Besides the theater group, he has joined the Catholic Youth League basketball team at Saint Paul's church and even finds time to coach a fifth and sixth grade basketball team at the Neighborhood Club, along with his American brother, Tom Shine.

He pays high compliments to his host family, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Shine, of Bedford road, and their six children for helping him to learn to fit in. "They've made me feel right at home," he said. Much of Pekka's involvement in the community has been through the Neighborhood Club as well, where he makes use of his expertise in soccer as a coach. Pekka is a sports nut. He skis, (although the slopes don't compare to the Laplands in any way, he says), plays hockey, volleyball, and counts among his major achievements here his mastery of football.

Likes Sports on TV
One of his most pleasant discoveries on this trip has been the sports coverage on television. "You can watch anything on any day of the week," he said. "There's no chance of that in Finland!" Overall, Pekka is happy with the opportunity to improve his English and to grow up a little away from home. His experience here has been so great, thanks to the kindness of his host family, the Thomas Merciers, of University place, that he thinks he would like to come back to practice medicine if the opportunity arises.

Norma To Be Dentist
Norma, too, is taking advantage of the opportunities here to improve her English and possibly get a head start on her chosen field of study—dentistry.

"I feel that a trip like this is worthwhile just because it gets you away from your own country for awhile. You get a much different perspective on your life at home."

Although she has visited the U. S. before, staying with relatives in Miami, Fla., there is one aspect of American life Norma thinks she could never get used to—that's the frantic pace of activity.

"People here just run around all the time. They don't take time to talk to other people, or even to eat we'll," she said.

At home, with her American family, the Richard Parks of Balfour road, the pace is much slower. "They are a very close family but they have found more than enough room for me," she said.

In all, the American experience for all three students has been great, so much so that all of them are considering coming back for school or work.

Mahler Work for Symphony

Gustav Mahler's Symphony No. 2 in C minor, ("Resurrection"), will be the sole work on this week's Detroit Symphony Orchestra concerts at Ford Auditorium tonight and Saturday evening, January 22 and 24, at 8:30 o'clock.

DSO Music Director Aldo Ceccato will conduct the 75-minute-long epic which calls for soprano and alto soloists and chorus as well as expanded orchestra.

Guest performers are soprano Benita Valente, contralto Maureen Forrester and the Wayne State University Symphonic Choir under WSU music professor Harry Langford, director.

Benita Valente first appeared with the DSO in November, 1968, the Widow in Mendelssohn's "Elijah." Her most recent Detroit appearance was as Nannetta in the Metropolitan Opera production of Verdi's "Falstaff" last spring.

The young California-born soprano studied with Lotte Lehmann and at the Curtis Institute, and is equally at home in concert hall and opera house.

Maureen Forrester first appeared with the DSO in Windsor, in her native Canada, in 1956, and was invited by Paul Paray to return for a Ford Auditorium concert the following winter.

She has returned on three occasions since, most recently in the fall of 1972 when she sang Mahler's "Das Lied von der Erde." Last February she made a long-awaited Metropolitan Opera debut as Erda in performances of Wagner's "Ring" cycle conducted by Sixten Ehrling.

The eminent contralto has been called by one critic "Canada's most precious natural resource."

The Wayne State University Symphonic Choir first sang with the DSO a year ago in performances of Janacek's Glagolitic Mass in Detroit, New York and Washington.

Capping The Holidays

Mr. and Mrs. David Gardiner decided to cap the holidays this year with a gala post-New Year's cocktail fete in their Lakeshore road home. Sunday, January 11, was the date they chose to merrily ring out Christmas Season '75.

Mr. Gardiner, born and raised in Kinross, Scotland, invited many of his Scottish friends, who, in turn, entertained the other guests with mellow and rousing Scottish songs.

Among the 50 or so party-goers were Arthur Davies, of Allard road, who accompanied the Scottish singers at the piano, with Mrs. Davies; Grosse Pointe Park Councilman and Mrs. Charles S. Tompkins, of Windmill Pointe drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Skitch, of Balfour road, Russell beaming as Nora accepted congratulations on the recent M.B.E. she received from Queen Elizabeth II.

Nora was honored on behalf of her work with the Daughters of the British Empire.

Others spotted admiring poinsettias reflected in the Gardiners' entrance hall mirror or warming themselves in front of the large fireplace where colored logs blazed merrily included the Lester McIntoshes, of Sheldon road, the Jack Hellers, of Fairford road, the Philip Grecos, of Moorland drive, and the Clement Zmyslowskis, of North Oxford road.

Still others... well, there are just too many to list, but they all were having a wonderful time.

Post-party, the Gardiners took off for a private Wonderful Time of their own: a three-day skiing holiday at Boyne Highlands.

Anniversary In California

Home again in Yorkshire road after their Extra Special Wonderful Time are Mr. and Mrs. James C. Flowers, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday, December 27, in California.

Pat (Mrs. Ed) Flowers Bozulich, of Long Beach, Calif., and James R. Flowers, of Westchester, Calif., were their parents' hosts, arranging for the Golden Wedding trip to Las Vegas and San Francisco and an anniversary dinner for friends and relatives aboard Reuben's Sternwheeler.

To Beautify Museum Grounds

The Women's Committee of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts has accepted responsibility for the schematic plans by landscape architects Dan Kiley and Associates for a museum grounds Beautification Project, the long-range program of tree planting and additional landscaping that began with the placing of flowering crabapples on the DIA's grounds in November.

The Committee, chaired by Mrs. Wilber Hadley Mack, of Country Club drive, sponsored last Tuesday evening's Hilberry Theatre production of "A Lady from Maxim's" as a Beautification Project benefit.

Mrs. Allan Sheldon, III, of Provencal road, and Mrs. Donald E. Young, of Bloomfield Hills, are co-chairmen of the Beautification committee, with Mrs. Stanley Ray Day, of Lakeland avenue, and Mrs. Mack among its members.

Mrs. Young chaired the theater party, for which Mrs. Day served as ticket chairman.

Pointers assisting with the theater benefit included Mrs. J. Crawford Frost, Jr., Mrs. Gaylord W. Gillis, Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough, Mrs. Carl B. Grawn, Mrs. Robert McKean, Mrs. Ayers Morrison, Mrs. Walter Briggs Robinson, Mrs. Gerald Schneider, Mrs. Alger Sheldon, Mrs. Peter Stroh, Mrs. James McMillan and Mrs. H. Lynn Pierson.
