WILLIAM CLAY FORD, owner of the Detroit Lions, withdrew Wednesday as a stand-in vice-presidential candidate on an independent ticket with former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, six days after he accepted the post. Mr. McCarthy's presidential campaign committee said legal problems in several states prompted Mr. Ford's decision to withdraw. The committee reported, "Legal counsel have advised us that, unfortunately, in several key states, (some involving legal challenges), a stand-in candidate must be a resident of those states."

POLICE AUTHORITIES say jealousy over a "stolen girlfriend" was the apparent motive behind the shooting and wounding of five Murray-Wright High School students by a band of 15-year-olds on Thursday, February 12. School officials were ejecting the five or six intruders from the building when two of them pulled guns and fired eight to 10 shots into a crowd of high school students who had been following and taunting them. Four of the wounded students were reported in fair condition at Henry Ford Hospital. The fifth was treated and released. The shooting occurred at about 1:15 p.m. when the assailants went into the school through a side entrance.

Saturday, February 14

PRESIDENT FORD vetoed a $6.1 billion bill said by its sponsors to be capable of creating at least 600,000 jobs. Democrats immediately predicted the veto will be overridden. The House, which passed the bill January 29 by a margin of more than four to one, has set an override vote for Thursday. Mr. Ford described the bill as "little more than an election year pork barrel" and that it would "do little to create jobs for the unemployed."

Sunday, February 15

PRESIDENT SULEIMAN FRANJIEH announced political reforms Saturday designed to satisfy Moslem demands for more power in Lebanon and end the nation's 10 months of civil war. Jubilant Moslems and Christians celebrated by firing their guns into the air as Franjeh ended his broadcast speech, with both sides claiming victory. Government-run television broadcasts appealed for the gunmen to put away their weapons to avoid adding to the 12,000 persons already killed in battles between this tiny country's Moslem and Christian militiamen.

TEMPERATURES SOARED into the mid-60's Sunday, bringing near-record highs to Southeastern Michigan and matching a 60-degree high set in Lansing in 1954. The National Weather Service reported a high in Detroit of 64 degrees at 4 p.m. The record for Detroit was 66 degrees set in 1954. Normal temperatures for this time of year range from 19 to 34 degrees, a Weather Service spokesman said.

A TRACTOR TRUCK slammed into a loaded school bus in a dense fog in Lake Placid, Fla., Monday morning, killing the bus driver and three students and injuring more than 50 other elementary school children. The impact sheared off the front of the bus, leaving driver Charles Irwin pinned in the wreckage. All the dead students were from rural Lake Placid. Most of the injured were taken to Highlands General Hospital in Sebring, 16 miles north of Lake Placid, and to Walker Memorial Hospital in Avon Park, 31 miles to the north of the crash site.

Scholarships Presented by Pointe Theater

Two $500 scholarships for local students in the fields of drama or music were presented by the Grosse Pointe Theater to the Board of Education at its regular monthly meeting Monday, February 9. The funds are to be allocated to one graduate from North High School and one graduate from South High. Accepting for the Board of Education were JOAN R. HANPETER, board president, (second from right), and DR. JAMES

A. ADAMS, superintendent of schools, (far right). From left to right are JOHN DIEBEL, chairman and treasurer of Grosse Pointe Theater, DEAN ERSKINE, BOB BINDER, president, and LARRY MARCO, chairman of the Theater's Scholarship Committee. Mr. Marco, who made the presentation, expressed the group's desire to enhance theater in the community which has supported them over the years.

To Provide Information On Election

Campaign Leaders Announced; All Trustees Available for Speaking Engagements

The citizens' information campaign for the Monday, March 29, special public school financing election will include representatives from each of the 10 elementary school areas it was announced at the Board of Education's public hearing Monday, February 16.

Co-chairing the campaign will be Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Berry, of Lakeland avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Feeser, of Sunningdale drive. Although the Board of Education is forbidden by law to spend any school funds encouraging a "yes" vote in the community, Board president Joan Hanpeter said that all trustees will be available for speaking engagements.

Anxious to Inform
"We are anxious to inform everyone about the financial needs of the public schools and libraries before March 29," she said.

In addition the Board set a special public informational meeting for Monday, March 15, at 8 p.m. in the Board offices.

Mrs. Hanpeter also released the names of those

Mrs. George Maghielse's Testimony Reviews School District's Money Problems

Secretary for Board of Education Appears Before Subcommittee of Senate House Appropriations Committee in Lansing

Mrs. George B. Maghielse, secretary and legislative chairperson for the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, testified on Wednesday, February 11, before the K-12 Subcommittee of the Senate House Appropriations Committee in Lansing and viewed the financial straits of the school district.

"The matter of the removal of business inventories from the SEV, (State Equalized Valuation), cannot, in my opinion, be taken out of context. It is part of a larger picture on which I must touch briefly," she said.

"For several years we in Grosse Pointe have received no general, basic State Aid. Most of our State funds are for mandated programs or seed-money for new vocational programs which the State is encouraging local districts to initiate.

Cites Losses
"Last summer when the State Aid Bill was passed, it contained a reduction provision computed at six-tenths of one percent of our total tax revenues. Thus, Grosse Pointe had lost $102,658 before the Governor's Executive Order of the fall was issued," said Mrs. Maghielse.

"As far as our public schools are concerned, Governor Milliken's Executive Order on the budget deficit is serious."

Under the formula, we lost $393,512 in State Aid. In our

Heger Set To Resign Park Posts

Has Been Dedicated Director of Public Service and City Assessor for 30 Years

By James J. Njaim
Herbert Heger will retire as The Park's director of Public Service and City Assessor after 30 years of faithful and dedicated service to the city. His last day of work will be on Friday, February 27.

Mr. Heger, 60, a native of Fort Wayne, Ind., is a 1934 graduate of Detroit's Old Eastern High School, East Grand boulevard and Mack avenue. He also attended the Chrysler Institute for two years and took a public works course offered by The International City Managers Association, learning all phases of engineering and construction, all this while working with the Michigan Highway Department, (1935-45), less the time he served with the U.S. Navy Seabees' 94th Battalion. He was honorably discharged with the rating of Carpenter second class early in 1945.

He returned to the State Highway Department after his discharge. While during his 10 years with the department, he was instrumental in conducting the survey prior to the construction of the Blue Water Bridge, which connects Port Huron, Mich., and Sarnia, Ont. Mr. Heger also surveyed and engineered the first road up Porcupine Mountain, Ontonagon, Mich.

While still in the service, he married the former Elaine Schultz of Detroit. They are the parents of Mark, 24, of Lakepointe avenue, Martin, 31, of Barrington road and Mrs. James (Margaret) Erwin of Sterling Heights. There are six grandchildren.

In 1935, Mr. Heger worked as a document clerk with the State Legislative Session in Lansing, before his appointment

Bridge in Woods Park Put Under Intensive Study

Structure Spanning Milk River Interferes with Boat Passage; Council Probing Various Possible Solutions

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods' Citizens Recreation Commission has been exploring potential solutions towards solving an ongoing problem in the eyes of many, (including some Woods boat owners), at the Lake Front Park—what to do about the existing Milk River bridge.

While nothing is firm on this matter right now, various alternatives have been studied by the commission, which met with the council in executive session on Monday, February 9, to review possible avenues of action.

The council received a preview of the commission's report on the 9th, said Councilman Ronald R. Keegen, Parks and Recreation Committee chairman. He added whatever form this report takes regarding specific content, it will be re-referred to the Committee of the Whole, (C-W), probably at the Monday, February 23, meeting. Reports from the city engineer on this question also will have to be studied by the solons.

View Alternatives
At this point, three alternatives regarding the construction of a new bridge are being considered by the council in executive session, said Mr. Keegen. The one he personally favors is a new concrete type pre cast bridge at an estimated cost of around $50,000, not including installation, which could be erected in two or three days. This cost doesn't include work on approaches or roadway alterations which he indicated could be an additional $25,000.

Such a bridge, Mr. Keegen feels, has a more guaranteed life span, which he termed "indefinite," and would be erected, (if and when decided upon), upstream at the Jefferson end towards the lake but far enough away to avoid the flow of water out of the flood pumps.

A second alternative which has been discussed is erecting a wooden pre fab bridge at an estimated cost of

Spirit of '76 Dance Slated

Grosse Pointe Lodge No. 102, Fraternal Order of Police, Associates are sponsoring a Spirit of '76 dance on Friday, February 20, at the Harper Woods Community Center, Harper and Manchester.

The big band sound of Joe Vitale and his orchestra will provide music for the 9 p.m.-1 a.m. event. Tickets at $7 per couple will be available at the door, the dress is casual, beer and set-ups are furnished and snacks will be sold by the ladies auxiliary. Everyone is invited to attend.

Many Articles of Jewelry Taken in Two Woods B-E's

Articles of jewelry valued at around $6,450.50 were taken from a Torrey road home, while a Hampton road citizen reported items valued at around $1,700 were taken from his residence in two separate burglary incidents, said Woods police.

The first incident was reported Friday evening, February 6, while the second incident was reported Saturday evening, February 7. Police also received a third burglary report on the evening of the 6th as another Torrey road home was entered. This report was received around an hour before the other Torrey break-in.

In the incident in which the large amount of jewelry was taken, the citizen arrived home to discover unfamiliar

Board Asks Approval of 28.46 Mills

Protests Heard Against Combining Renewals and Increases on Same Ballot, Voiding Choice

By Susan McDonald
The Board of Education will ask Pointers to vote 2.75 additional school and .14 additional library mills at the Monday, March 29, school election.

The four-year package was approved unanimously at the Trustees' special public hearing Monday, February 16. Renewal and additional proposals, totaling 27.1 mills for the schools will appear on a single ballot. The library renewal and additional millage—equaling 1.45 mills—will appear on a separate ballot.

Including the 8.65 County tax, Pointers will be paying a combined millage rate of 37.2 if the proposals are approved.

Protests Received
Board president Joan Hanpeter said she had received several phone calls during the day protesting the combination of renewal and additional propositions on the ballot.

"Most of the callers seemed to feel that combining the two denied them a choice in the matter," she said.

Although she acknowledged that was one way to look at the matter, Mrs. Hanpeter explained the Board's rationale, saying, "We want the community to understand that the additional millage is just what is needed to maintain the programs we have now, not enough to initiate additional programs."

"Should the millage fail," Mrs. Hanpeter continued, "the schools would face severe program reductions."

Criticized by Cook
Grosse Pointe Education Association, (GPEA) president, Doris Cook, said she thought the Board had not asked for a sufficient increase.

"The proposal of the Board is most inadequate. It will not meet the needs of the system for even the next year, let alone subsequent years," she said.

"The teachers in the GPEA are in the final months of a three-year contract during which we have seen the cost of living go up some 25 percent. . . . We have felt the tremendous bite of inflation and have subsidized the ed-

Offer T-Shirts For Celebration

The Woods Bicentennial Clown Corps is keeping active towards making plans for the big celebration this summer.

As a fund raising project, the corps, which includes about 25 young people from the first through 12th grades, is currently selling Wayne County Bicentennial T-shirts featuring a logo saying "This Is Our Country." 1776-1976.

Arthur J. Kuehn, chairman of the clown corps, reports the shirts, which come in small, medium and large sizes, cost $2.95 each and may be obtained by contacting him at TU 1-8186.

Other needs also were cited by Mr. Kuehn. He said the corps would like to have more clowns, the hopes to have around 50, plus contributions from any Pointe business merchant, (e.g., three trailers for the celebration), to help the group along.

He suggested that interested businessmen contact him if they can help out. In a final note, Mr. Kuehn, who said he was recently appointed publicity chairman for the Pointes by the Wayne County Bicentennial Commission, said the next meeting of the clown corps will be held Saturday, February 28, at The Woods Municipal Building, 20025 Mack avenue, at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Cook said the GPEA Executive Board will decide whether or not to support the millage proposal at its next meeting.

Reason For Increase

Board trustees cited inflation, drastic reductions in State aid, the systems increasing liability for unemployment compensation and the upcoming contract negotiations as necessitating the millage increase.

"The wiping out of our financial reserves, (totaling $145,000 unappropriated reserves and $269,000 for future budgets at the beginning of the current school year), by State aid cuts had a big effect on our decision," according to Board Vice-President Laurence Harwood.

"We will be forced to use all those reserves just to get through this year," he said.

A bright spot in the schools' financial picture was cited by Trustee William Huettelman.

"Because of a projected loss of about 45 students, 20-25 less teachers will be needed next year and probably the same amount the year after," he said. "This doesn't necessarily mean that we will lay off teachers because we will lose that number through the normal turnover and retirements."

Although the Board said the proposed millage increase will not fund any major new programs, Superintendent of Schools Dr. James A. Adams explained that many pilot programs will be continued. Included in these are the new reading, elementary art, skills talent and vocational programs. Dr. Adams said he would also like to see some expansion of the physical education program.

Polling places for the election will be the district's 10 public elementary schools, which will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. The last day for registration is Monday, March 1.

Woods Accepts Club's Payment

The Woods Council unanimously accepted, with appreciation, partial payment to the city for the flagpole complex at the Lake Front Park from The Woods Lions Club.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, February 2.

The partial payment of $2,175.50 was received by the city with an additional $1,000 for the complex to be paid from the Lake Front improvement fund.

In a letter to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, Lions Club president Robert A. Carver expressed his group's appreciation in being able to participate in providing the complex.

"The Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Club will share an enviable pride with those members of our community who use the park in the years ahead. We can be justly proud of our new facilities," he said.

Gives Testimony

tax rate is also a part of the calculation. It seems that aid is determined in one way and cuts made in another."

Mrs. Maghielse then emphasized that the recent enactment of the Business Activity Tax will reduce anticipated income by an estimated $193,000 in fiscal 1976-77. "This additional setback subtracts the value of local business inventories from the district's total State Equalized Valuation."

The loss of anticipated operating revenue is traumatic at any time—but in this era of rising prices, inflationary pressures and widespread unemployment—it amounts to a catastrophe! The impact of this piece of legislation is a major factor in our thoughts as we attempt to plan a new school year which will include a renewal of our voted operational millage, she stressed.

The Board set March 29 as the date of an election to renew all voted operational millage with the rate pending at the time of her address.

She said this was a dilemma for several reasons:

- State Aid Reduction—The loss of $393,512 represents 90 percent of the State Aid budgeted in 1975-76. Current indicators are that Grosse Pointe will actually not receive any State Aid, even though we are required to operate State-mandated programs.

- Business Inventory Tax—The passage of the Single Business Tax removed business inventories from the tax rolls. This causes a loss of $193,000. There is a provision in the law to offset part of this loss, but the levy of additional tax would disqualify the district from this provision.

Athletics Deficiencies

At the same time the committee also sharply criticized the pay-scale offered to teachers in the intramural program and recommended it be increased. "The teachers could do better by taking on a part-time job that pays $6 an hour, Dr. Joos said.

High School Program

The bulk of the report, however, dealt with the high school program.

"Our primary goal here," Dr. Joos said, "was to increase the athletic opportunities for girls, but not, of course, at the expense of any of the boys' programs."

The committee's high school program recommendations, in order of their priority are:

- Girls varsity tennis at North and girls varsity track at South at a combined cost of $200.
- Boys wrestling at South at $8,000.
- Girls junior varsity basketball at South at $1,200.
- Girls gymnastics at North and boys freshmen track at South at a combined cost of $3,000.

Schools Okay Two Orchestras

At its Monday, February 9, regular meeting, the Board of Education voted to implement a proposal for separate community-wide strings orchestra for elementary and middle school students.

Separate from the Junior Symphony, the strings orchestra will be open to any students living in the school district, whether they are attending a public or private school. However, students must be participants of a school instrumental music program.

Roger A. McCaig, curriculum associate, said the strings orchestra will be modeled after the Junior Symphony. Recommending a community-wide strings orchestra, Superintendent of Schools Dr. James A. Adams said that of the basic symphonic instruments, the strings require more time, training and experience for students to develop basic competencies.

"The strings are the heart of the symphony, and no middle or high school orchestra can be excellent unless the strings are excellent. In the past years this aspect of the total instrumental program has probably been the weakest," Dr. Adams said.

A faculty committee of five teachers from the music department of the Grosse Pointe schools will be appointed as administrators of the orchestra. A conductor will later be selected from the faculty committee.

Twenty-four rehearsals and two concerts will be scheduled for each semester. Fee for the season is $3.

Total costs of the program will be funded by the fee structure and concert receipts.

YSD Receives Break in Load

The Youth Service Division (YSD), received a break in previously heavy case loads received when 43 incidents were forwarded for investigation last month. This was a decrease of 18 cases under last January and a drop of nine under last December's amount.

Since a very heavy November 1975, when a monthly record of 88 cases were handled, a continuing decline in case incidence has been reported. Last year, the YSD handled a record total of 819 cases.

Larcenies continue as the category of highest incidence as 11 such cases were reported last month. When considered with related offenses, e.g., burglaries, four, and robbery, one, the total number of persons involved is 15 boys, five girls and two male adults.

The second category of highest incidence was runaways with seven such cases being handled. These involved five boys and four girls. Four boys and one girl returned to their respective homes voluntarily, while one boy and three girls were arrested and transported to the Wayne County Youth Home.

Malicious destruction of property totalled six incidents and these involved seven boys. Meanwhile, three cases of violation of controlled substances were reported with two involving marijuana or hashish and the other, synthetic substances. Two boys, one male adult and one female adult were involved in the marijuana-hashish category, while one male juvenile was involved in the synthetic substance classification.

Nine applications for petition were filed with Wayne County Juvenile Court, which has acted on six of them so far.

Truck, Stopped Car in Tangle

Thomas J. Asmus of 15014 Mack avenue, Detroit, whose truck hit a car on Lakeshore road on Sunday, February 15, will have to appear in Shores municipal court on complaint of the driver of the vehicle he ran into, according to Shores authorities.

Both the truck, a pick-up type, and the automobile, appeared to be totally damaged and had to be towed from the scene, it was reported.

Asmus is accused of hitting a stopped car, driven by Paul D. Dorda of 5836 Rupert, Detroit, injuring Dorda and a woman passenger in Dorda's vehicle.

According to a report made to Cpl. Daniel Fronczak, Dorda had stopped in front of 52 Hampton, at 12:55 a.m., and just as he and his companion were getting out of their car, Asmus rammed into the rear of Dorda's auto. Dorda and his friend complained of aches about the body, but both refused medical attention.

Cpl. Fronczak, in his report stated that Asmus appeared to be intoxicated. A small bottle of liquor, with most of its contents gone, was found on the front floor of the pick-up truck. The officer stated that the force

Purse Snatched In Parking Lot

A Harper Woods woman was victimized by two purse snatchers Sunday afternoon, February 15, in the parking lot of the Landmark Restaurant, 19299 Mack avenue.

After parking her car at the rear of the building, the woman said a dark-blue, older model auto drove up behind her as she walked towards the restaurant.

The passenger reached through the open window and grabbed the purse off her shoulder. Refusing to let go, the woman was dragged some 20 feet by the moving vehicle until she lost control. The escaping auto ultimately went south along Mack avenue.

Police said the woman suffered several large abrasions on her right leg, which was bleeding, but refused transportation for medical attention.

The purse contained around $40 in cash, assorted credit cards and various sundries.

Officers added the passenger was described as black, in his early 20's, of light complexion and wearing a dark colored stocking cap. The driver also was described as black.

Seniors' Club Plans Luncheon

The Neighborhood House Seniors will meet at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, on Friday, February 27, at 12 noon for a pot luck luncheon.

Psychotherapist Robert Boesiger of Saint John Hospital will talk on exercise for seniors. Everyone is welcome.

AARP Faces Busy Schedule

The Grosse Pointe Chapter #2151 of A.A.R.P., (American Association of Retired Persons), will meet at 1 p.m. on Monday, February 23, at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road.

Gary Roberts, assistant regional representative for AARP, Area V, will be the featured speaker. He will explain the Widowed Persons Service Program planned for this area.

This program offers a tremendous opportunity to AARP members who desire to take the training, so as to furnish guidance and comfort to bereaved persons of the community. As this is a community service program, recipients of this service will not be limited to AARP members.

Travel Chairman, Ed Bunn, (823-5127), announces the Meadowbrook Theatre trip is a complete sell-out. He's now taking reservations for the Holland Tulip Trip Festival trip on May 14. The cost for this trip will be $12.50. Checks for this, and all trips, should be made payable to the Grosse Pointe Chapter #2151, AARP.

There is a very lively interest in a deluxe trip to Hawaii which is set for September 20-October 2. Many reservations are already in, so those who are interested should call at once. Further information may be obtained at the February 23 meeting, or by calling Mr. Bunn.

Scouts Learn About History

Fifty Cub Scouts from Monteth School's Pack 85 immerse themselves in our nation's history the weekend of February 14-15 at Greenfield Village.

They bunked down at Lovett Hall after a fun-filled Saturday which was highlighted by playing basketball, swimming and touring the Village in horse-drawn wagons under a full moon.

Returning scouts jubilantly told of their chicken dinner at Clinton Inn and displayed their purchases from the souvenir shop, completely unaware of their discovery that history can be more fun than anything.

It's an account that makes sense for us.

These days a little extra money is welcome. With a Manufacturers Bank Preferred Account we get a little extra, because a Preferred Account gives us unlimited checking with no service charge and we can write all the checks we want. We can even purchase fully personalized checks at a small optional cost. It was simple to open a Preferred Account, too. We just maintain a $500 balance in our savings account.

And with a $500 savings account balance, our money is earning interest too. In fact, we may earn more in interest in one year than we had been paying for checking at our old bank. Manufacturers Bank Preferred Account. No-charge checking. High interest on savings. That's value.

Heger Set to Resign

ment as a surveyor and construction engineer, which took him to all sections of the State.

In July 1946, he was appointed construction engineer for The Park by the late City Manager Everitt B. Lane. When The Park was incorporated as a city in 1951, Mr. Heger was elevated to the dual post of director of public service and city assessor, continuing in that capacity ever since.

He was president of the Mt. Olive Lutheran Church, 4444 Radnor, Detroit, for nine years, when the old church was located in a different location in Detroit. He has been an officer of the church for 28 years, and was on the building committee with the church's long-time pastor, the Rev. Edwin Frey, and other members of the congregation, whose combined efforts helped build the new church at the Radnor address.

Was Also Teacher
Mr. Heger was also a Sunday School teacher at the church for 20 years, before giving up this service three years ago.

As director of Public Services for The Park, Mr. Heger was responsible for the functioning of the City Highway, Water, DPW and Sewer Service Departments, besides being the city assessor.

On February 6, he was honored at a retirement party attended by more than 150 persons, including former and present city officials, his family and friends. The party, held in Harper Woods Civic Center Building in Harper Woods, was in advance, since Mr. and Mrs. Heger plan to leave The Park on February 28, the day after Mr. Heger leaves his posts. Normally, an honor reception is held after a person retires.

He was presented a watch and plaque by the city, and being an avid hunter, a shotgun by his fellow workers, plus other gifts.

The Hegers recently sold their home in Barrington road, on The Park side of The Park-Detroit city limits, and moved to Lakepointe to take up temporary residence.

Plan to Travel
They have purchased a small house trailer and will do some traveling before taking up permanent residence in their newly remodeled and enlarged home at Higgins Lake, three miles outside of Roscommon, in the northern part of Michigan. Roscommon is approximately 200 miles from The Park.

Mayor Matthew Patterson and City Manager Robert Slone had this to say about Mr. Heger:

"He is a capable and dedicated man and has rendered invaluable services to the community. He will be missed very much by his colleagues in the municipal departments, the administration and all of his friends. We certainly hate to see him leave."

Bridge Under Study

$57,000, not including the cost of installation.

Yet another alternative was briefly viewed but wasn't given serious consideration because of cost factors, said Mr. Kefgen. This was a concrete bridge with box beam construction.

Cut Out Section
In relation to these alternatives on a new bridge, the commission suggested that the city might consider removing the center section of the existing bridge, (some 30-feet), and leaving the rest to be used as a viewing area. The estimated cost of such work would be around $6,000-$7,000.

Such an action would permit larger boats to pass easily through the bridge and save costs of demolishing the bridge entirely, noted Mr. Kefgen. If such action is taken, guard rails would be wrapped around the front of the bridge.

Both Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and Mayor Pro-Tem George S. Freeman said the council would have to go over these alternatives in great depth.

Mr. Pinkos said actual costs would have to be investigated more thoroughly and indicated the council could modify any commission recommendations or take a different route completely.

Meanwhile, Mr. Freeman stated the alternatives would be completely studied on the C-W level towards reaching a decision as to the best solution.

Unknown Factor
What specifically transpires on this matter is an unknown factor at this time. However, the point is that the commission and the council are striving to reach a solution on this question.

For his part, Mr. Kefgen isn't certain any action will be taken this year on the bridge situation. We can't commit all monies via bonds and interest, he feels, while stressing the necessity of having funds on a contingency basis in the event potential "bugs" in the new facilities occur.

In short, the question for Mr. Kefgen is just how far the council should go this year on the bridge question considering other potential cost factors and needs, such as a fishing pier which he said would run about $102,000, and would be covered by available funds.

Pick Committee for Arts Center

In a move geared to increase the community use of the Performing Arts Center located at North High School, the Board of Education appointed a 14-member Community Performing Arts Center Advisory Committee at its Monday, February 9, regular meeting.

The committee, made up of representatives from area private schools, clubs and public schools, is charged with making contacts with other non-school groups about the availability of the facility and with developing operational guidelines.

The 800-seat facility was built with the intention of serving the entire community, but has been empty and unused much of the time. To remedy the situation, the Board of Education delegated the operation of the center to Community Services in September 1975. A full-time technician, Karl Klapthor, was also hired in November to assist groups using the center.

Public school representatives to the committee are Herman A. Klein and James H. Cooper, both of North High School; William F. Hoover and Bruce C. Kefgen, of South High; Director of Support Services Benjamin Zenn and Vice-President of the Board of Education Laurence J. Harwood.

Community groups will be represented by Robert J. Binder for the Grosse Pointe Theater; Richard B. Johns, of the Community Chorus; Richard M. Miller, from the Symphony Society; Doris W. Dimond, from the North High Parents' Club; Ruth A. Zinn, from the South High Mothers' Club; and Lloyd A. Semple on the advisory committee of the Department of Community Services.

Representing area private schools are Richard O. Schwab of University-Liggett, and Sister Lucille Hamacek from Our Lady Star of the Sea School.

Snowballs Cost Motorist $300

Five juveniles throwing snowballs were responsible for a two-car accident on Chalfonte near Madison road according to Farms police.

The five boys, ages 13-15, were seen by a Farms police officer running toward Lothrop road from Madison road on Chalfonte avenue, at 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday, February 11.

One of the boys had struck an automobile on the left window, causing the driver to brake and swerve suddenly. Because of this, a following motorist struck the back of the braking automobile.

The first vehicle sustained minor damages, but the second car suffered $300 worth of damages.

Four of the five boys named a fifth boy as the one who threw the snowball. The boys, all from The Farms, were released after giving the officer their names and addresses.

Youth to Face Larceny Count

A 17-year-old Oxford road youth, who admitted his involvement in entering a North Oxford road residence late last month, is facing a larceny charge and a Wednesday, March 10, court date in The Woods.

A 16-year-old Doyle court juvenile, who also admitted his involvement in the incident, has been placed on the division's counseling program.

Through his investigation, Det. Stuart Gerow also learned that the 17-year-old was involved in two other burglaries last year. The youth admitted being involved in entering a Renaud road home in August and another Renaud residence in December.

In the latter case, the youth cooperated in recovering what the detective said was the bulk of stolen goods taken. These items included a squirrel coat, some jewelry and china.

The boys were arrested for entering the North Oxford home after police matched footprints in the snow and some down from a jacket found in the home to the 17-year-old's paraphernalia at the time the incident was committed. The footprints were traced to the boy's home.

Pointe Players to Do Classic

Grosse Pointe South Pointe Players have begun production on their April 1, 2 and 3 presentation of "Arsenic and Old Lace" by Joseph O. Kesserling.

The cast consists of Lolly Machamer and Robin Fleck who will portray the lovable but murderous aunts Abby and Martha. Dave Wyborski will portray their treacherous nephew Jonathan with Terry Berg as Jonathan's assistant Dr. Einstein.

Supplying a bit of romance will be Rick Mills as Mortimer, another nephew and Sue Shoemaker as his fiancée. Peter Hull will portray Mortimer's slightly insane brother Teddy. Others in the cast include Steve Chrpinski, Bill Donahue, Jay Huebner, Mike Priebe, Phil Johnson, Jay Williams and Nelson Yarborough.

Admission is $1 for students and $2 for adults. Senior citizens will be admitted free. Tickets are available from any member of the cast and crew or by calling South High at 884-3200.

Performances will be held at the Performing Arts Center, 707 Vernier road.

Suspects Given New Trial Date

A Wayne County Circuit Court trial date for two men charged with armed robbery may be held at the end of March or in early April, reported Woods police.

Leonard Allen Miron, of New Haven, Mich., and Daniel John Liberty, of Hazel Park, who allegedly beat and robbed a Woods man of his wallet last year, were scheduled to appear in Circuit Court for trial on Wednesday, February 11.

However, the attorney for Miron was taken to the hospital on Tuesday, February 10, police said, so Murray Slomovitz, assistant Wayne County prosecutor, petitioned the court for an adjournment, which was granted.

Police added they are awaiting a Circuit Court decision on Lonnie Dale Snell, of Hazel Park, who also was charged with armed robbery, stemming from the same incident.

Fractometer Yields Secrets Of Tobacco Flavor.

Researchers use smoke analysis to isolate key flavor ingredients of tobacco—low tar MERIT with 'Enriched Flavor' achieved.

Not all ingredients of tobacco in cigarette smoke deliver the same amount of taste.

Or tar.

That's what researchers at Philip Morris discovered using an analytical fractometer to "crack" cigarette smoke down into its various parts.

Relying on this very sensitive, very special instrument, over 2000 separate ingredients were isolated and analyzed.

What this analysis revealed was startling:

There are ingredients in cigarette smoke—key flavor-rich ingredients—that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar.

Ingredients that, when packed into a tobacco blend, result in a cigarette that delivers extraordinary flavor without the usual corresponding increase in tar.

The discovery is called 'Enriched Flavor'. It comes in the tobacco of a remarkable new cigarette: MERIT.

'Enriched Flavor' is extra flavor. Natural flavor. Flavor that can't burn out, can't fade out, can't do anything but come through for you.

In fact, MERIT delivers the flavor of cigarettes having more tar.

Up to 60% more tar.

Yet MERIT has only 9 mg. of tar. Lower than 98% of all cigarettes being sold today.

If you're looking to become a low tar smoker, or don't particularly enjoy the taste of the low tar brand you smoke now—you'll be interested.

Taste-Tested By People Like You

9 mg. tar MERIT was taste-tested against five current leading low tar brands ranging from 11 mg. to 15 mg. tar.

Thousands of filter smokers were involved, smokers like yourself, tested at home.*

The results were conclusive:

Even if the cigarette tested had 60% more tar than MERIT, a significant majority of all smokers tested reported new 'Enriched Flavor' MERIT delivered more taste.

Repeat: delivered more taste.

In similar tests against 11 mg. to 15 mg. menthol brands, 9 mg. tar MERIT MENTHOL performed strongly too, delivering as much—or more—taste than the higher tar brands tested.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough. Now you've got the cigarette.

MERIT. Incredible smoking pleasure at one of the lowest tar levels in smoking today—only 9 mg. tar.

Hold Banquet

The Blue and Gold Banquet held Tuesday, February 3, in the War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom was a double celebration for the Cub Scouts of Pack 85, Monteith School.

They joined their commemoration of America's Bicentennial and scouting's 50th birthday with a red-white-and-blue salute to both.

Six historical flags were paraded throughout the banquet hall. Appropriately costumed scouts from each of the four dens and Webelos told of the people, events and inventions most important to them in our nation's history.

After the scouts and their guests enjoyed dinner, the special birthday cake was cut.

Assistant Cubmaster Ed Romanowski presented the advancement awards earned by the Webelos and Cub Scouts, while Cubmaster
John Boone and 24 men and women making up the sponsoring committee for Monteith School received certificates of appreciation for their hard work and dedication in making scouting so mean-

Glick provided entertain-rang to the joyous singing of "God Bless America" to close the evening.

Six Foot Fence

The Woods Council unanimously granted its approval to a request from a resident to erect a six foot fence on his property for the protection and well-being of the premises.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday,
February 2.

The request came from Harland G. Stone, of Allard avenue, who said he needed the fence because his neighbors allegedly abuse his property, e.g., throwing objects at his garage.

After a long discussion between Mr. Stone, the neighbors' attorney and the council, the solons approved the erection of the six foot stockade fence from the rear property line to the corner of an existing chain link fence as mutually agreed upon by both parties.

Austerity Dinner to Aid Lebanese War Victims

Committees comprised of people of Lebanese origin and their many friends throughout the Detroit Metropolitan Area, will hold an Austerity Meal at the Barrister Hall, 21801 Harper Avenue, St. Clair Shores, on Sunday, February 22, to aid the victims of the Lebanese Civil War. Tickets for the meal are $25 a person, with all proceeds to benefit Lebanon's people who have suffered as a result of the 10-month civil strife which saw approximately 20,000 killed and many thousands more wounded and left homeless. The conflict has shattered the economy of this Arab nation of about 3 million people.

The committees assumed the name of Christian Emergency Drive and Relief Society (CEDARS), using the first letters because cedars, through the centuries, has symbolized Lebanon. Anyone wishing to purchase a ticket, or make a donation to this cause, can contact Michael Qualanze at 821-9105.

Cottage Cites 19 Employees

Nineteen employees of Cottage Hospital who have worked at the hospital a total of 225 years were honored by the Board of Trustees at a dinner Tuesday, February 10, at the German-American Cultural Center in East Outer Drive.

Mrs. Cyril J. Edwards Jr., arranged the dinner, which was attended by trustees, retired employees, department heads and previous award recipients.

Each of the 19 honored guests received a service award presented by John N. McNaughton, board president, and congratulations from Cottage administrator Ralph L. Wilgarde, who cited their achievements.

Leading the list of awardees were Mrs. Irene Green, of Detroit, and William Zarkis, of The Farms, who were honored for 20 years of service each.

Three persons received awards for 15 years of service. They were Mrs. Arlene Monazym, of East Detroit, and Mrs. Mary Lueck and Eleanor Smith, of Detroit. Ten-year awards went to Mrs. Patricia Polker of Mount Clemens; Martha Leyer, of St. Clair Shores; Mrs. Alberta Craik and Stanley Shugar, of Harper Woods; Donna Farina, Mrs. Viola Grinn, Mrs. Verna Mettler, Mrs. Catherine Mocer, Mrs. Betsy Prokus, Mrs. Sadie Ruhana, Mrs. Hilda Thalgot, and Emily Szalewicz, of Detroit; and Mrs. Androniki Stergiewles and Mrs. Dorothy Dixon, of The Park.

Blame Smoking for Car Blaze

Careless smoking was believed to have been the cause of a fire that destroyed the front seat area of a car owned by Maxine Roth of 33711 Harper, St. Clair Shores, on Sunday, February 15, according to information released by Park Fire Chief Phillip Costa.

The woman's auto was parked in front of 17016 Mack, near Cadieux, and cruising Park police officers discovered the interior of the vehicle filled with smoke. They radioed in the alarm to the fire department. The police and fire radios are on the same frequency.

Chief Costa said that the second the firefighters opened the car door, the front seat burst into flames. The blaze was extinguished with a high power water hose from the fire truck, but not before the flames also damaged the floor of the automobile.

The chief said that the loss would have been greater if the car owner, or the police officers had opened the car door. The fact that the doors and windows were closed kept the air from feeding the flames.

"When a car fire occurs and the windows are closed, it is always best to leave the doors shut until firefighters arrive," Chief Costa said. "The same holds true if a fire occurs under the hood of a car. Let the firefighters open doors and lift up hoods in such emergencies because they have the equipment to 'hit' the flames immediately."

mainly to the early rush by car owners to buy Michigan's 1976 red, white, and blue license plates, which commemorates the nation's Bicentennial Year. A comparable drop in license plate revenue is expected later in the year.

Gross receipts in the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund, including $2,973,815 in miscellaneous revenue, totaled $136,323,697, up 6.4 percent from the 1974 last quarter. Proceeds are used for the construction and maintenance of Michigan's 116,000 miles of State highways, county roads and municipal streets after deductions for grants and costs.

These include the General Transportation Fund's 1/18th share of gas taxes, the State Waterways Commission's 1/4 percent share of gas taxes, and collection costs totalling $6,041,181.

Net proceeds totaling $122,088,523 leave $54,329,393 for distribution to the Department of State Highways and Transportation as its 44.5 percent share; $43,585,603, or 35.7 percent, to the county road commissions; and $24,173,527, or 19.8 percent, to the 531 incorporated cities and villages.

Schomer's loss was just seven inches short of his indoor record throw of the previous week at the WMU Relays. This 59-10 heave also ranks as the best performance by any Midwestern athlete during the present indoor campaign.

Voluntary medical-care plans are designed to assist the individual and his family in avoiding financial hardship when ill health or accident occurs. Through comparatively small regular payments the unpredictable costs of medical and hospital expenses are partially or entirely covered, the acceptance of the prepayment health insurance principle took place in the 1930's, when Blue Cross originated in Texas. It then spread rapidly throughout the country. Today approximately 75% of the American population is enrolled in some form of voluntary health insurance.

Farms Police Thank Citizens

Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber has sent letters of commendation to four area residents for the part they played in capturing a car thief.

George S. Honer, William B. Meldrum, Maurice DesRosiers and Kathy Lynch, were all honored by Chief Ferber for "their actions, not those of the police" in apprehending the car thief and holding him for the authorities.

The attempted theft occurred Saturday, February 7, in front of the Post Office in Mack Avenue in The Farms.

Citing the great "personal risk" involved for each of them, Chief Ferber thanked them on behalf of The Farms Police Department and residents of The Farms.

North Tankers Defeat South

By Sarah Bleich
 In a big meet for both teams, held on Friday,
 February 13, the Norsemen
 swimmers defeated the Blue
 Devils by a score of 99-73.
 Both teams came to the meet with good records, with North the Bi-County League
 Champions and South the Eastern Michigan League
 Champions.

North's first relay team,
 made up of Gordon Haight,
 Mark Gerganoff, Andy Howe and Scott Nixon, took the lead and never relinquished it.
 The Norsemen swam to first place finishes in eight of the 11 events.

Double winners for this meet were Drew Pillsbury of South and Scott Nixon of North. Pillsbury won both the 200-yard individual medley and the 100-yard backstroke, while Nixon won the 50-yard freestyle and the 100-yard freestyle.

Other good performances for North came from John Dimond in the 100-yard backstroke, Matt Sobieski in the 200-yard and 500-yard freestyles, Matt Brady in the 100-yard and 200-yard freestyles, David Howe in the 500-yard freestyle, Shawn Lakin in the 200-yard individual medley,
 Gordon Haight in the 100-yard backstroke, and Chuck Stoyka in the 200-yard individual medley and the 100-yard but-tterfly.

These natators also gave good efforts: Shawn Garmen in the 100-yard breaststroke and the 100-yard butterfly,
 Mark Gerganoff in the 100-yard breaststroke and Dennis Savage and Dan Paterak in the diving competition.

The first place winners were Andy Howe in the 100-yard butterfly, John Dimond in the 200-yard freestyle,
 Shawn Lakin in the 500-yard

Kurt J. Reppenhagen, of South Oxford road, who recently attained the rank of Eagle Scout in Troop 555, Detroit, was the recipient of a proclamation from The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, February 2.
 The measure says the proper direction of youth activities is a positive influence towards building character in citizens of tomorrow, while noting the development of teamwork through participation in service projects is valuable training for boys and provides a wholesome outlet for youthful energy.
 (Kurt has earned 24 merit badges and has served a myriad of hours on service projects for the troop and his church, Bethany Lutheran).

The proclamation cites the fact Kurt is on the honor roll at Lutheran High School East and says that Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos, who signed the measure, feels such accomplishment should receive recognition.
 Mayor Pro-Tem George S.
 Freeman presented the proclamation to Kurt in the mayor's absence at the meeting.

Wine Lines
 by Pat Ulatowski
 Estate bottled, means that a wine has been bottled on the property where it was actually grown and made. Estate bottled wines are normally top quality and the demand for these always exceeds supply. The production of such wine is carefully controlled and they are, therefore, sometimes a little more expensive. Prices vary enormously and are dependent on many factors. The kind of wine, its place, its origin, reputation, vintage, supply, and market trends all of these have a factor in making the right price. Some of these wines are priceless and worth a special sacrifice.
 You'll find the right wine for your taste and budget at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, next party, we invite you to stop by and find out the advantages of serving keg beer. We have many brands

St. Clare Wins 3 of 4

By Tom Wilson
The St. Clare girls' team defeated Saint Brendan's 22-15, Sunday, February 15. Their record is currently 4-5 as they continue to improve.

The Falcons play their last regular season game next Sunday, February 22 against Assumption Grotto at 2.

The sixth grade was also victorious, but in a triple overtime game. In the fourth quarter of regulation time Jim LaFever of Saint Joan scored a last second shot to tie it 29-29.

In the first overtime nobody scored. In the second overtime Saint Joan scored with a little under a minute to go. But the Falcons didn't give up. With seven seconds to go in the second overtime Tom Kisskalt fed Tom Wilson who scored a bucket to tie it 31-31.

Finally, in the third overtime Saint Clare scored two baskets and one foul shot to Saint Joan's one basket to beat them 36-33.

Saint Clare plays at Saint Matthews on Sunday, February 22, at 3 p.m.

Meanwhile, the seventh grade team clinched their league crown by defeating Saint Joan 43-14. But the eighth grade team lost to Saint Joan, 50-17.

South Frosh Suffer Loss

By Rick Mayday

South's freshmen basketball team suffered the sixth loss of the season on Friday, February 13, to Port Huron Northern 45-37.

South trailed the entire first half. In the fourth quarter the game was tied, but Northern dominated the boards, and came through with an easy victory.

Bob Baker led the scoring with 12 points, followed by Brad Wilson with 10.

South's freshmen record is 8-6 for the season. They have one more game left on Friday, February 20, at Kelly. South's frosh are having one of the best years in a long time.

They defeated Highland Park twice, and G. P. North once. This has never been accomplished by any freshmen basketball team in South's history.

Super-Eights In Mini Meet

The Grosse Pointe Swim Club Super-Eights, under the direction of Coach Kitty Montagne, participated in a Mini-Meet at Clarenceville High School on Saturday-Sunday, February 7-8.

Placing in all five events she entered was Kristin Strong, representing the seven-under age group. Kristin placed first in both the 25 Fly and the 25-yard Back. She also placed second in the 50 Free, 25 Free, and the 25 Breaststroke events. Kristin barely missed winning the high-point trophy by two points.

Others winning awards in the eight and under division with Kristin were Stephanie Smith, Nancy Gorgie, and Meg Maghielse. These four placed first in the eight and under 100 yard Free Relay with an excellent time of 1:04.6. This same foursome placed second in the 200 and the 100 Medley Relays.

Others participating and improving their times were: Sandy Smith, Robby Hackman, Barry Sutton, John Bourget, Billy O'Hare, Louis Trobetti, Matthew Smith, Pat Brennan and Geoffrey Cerner.

On the last week-end in January, Grosse Pointe Swim Club "A" swimmers competed at Schoolcraft Community College and did very well.

Winning awards in the 10 and under age group was Cindy Gannon. Cindy placed third in the 200 Free at 2:22.4 and third in the 100 Free with a time of 1:06.5. Megan Montagne, swimming in the 15-18 age group, placed first in the 50 Free with a time of 25.7.

Megan also placed fifth in the 200 Breast and a fifth in the 200 yard Individual Medley.

South Cagers Notch Two Wins

By Tom Shine

Realizing that a loss could cost them a league championship, South High's cagers scored comeback wins over both Sterling Heights Stevenson, 54-46, on Tuesday, February 10, and Port Huron, 46-44, on Friday, February 13.

Both victories were in Eastern Michigan League (EML), play and gave South a 9-1 league record and 11-5 overall. It also kept the Devils tied with Mount Clemens for first place.

Against Stevenson, a team South had beaten earlier in the year, the Devils had their hands full. The Titans battled the Devils every minute of the first half and the teams were tied, 20-20, at halftime.

In the third quarter, both teams finally began scoring. Stevenson outscored the Devils and led 37-36 as the third quarter ended.

South came alive in the fourth quarter, and with their offense scoring consistently, jumped ahead.

Stevenson's offense cooled off and scored only nine points, costing them the game.

Drew Peterson and Tim Corbett were South's high scorers with 12 and 10 points, respectively, and each had six points in the decisive fourth quarter.

Against Port Huron, not a noted basketball power, South was lucky to escape with a win. The Devils shot a meager 25 percent from the floor and 20 percent at the foul-line.

In the first quarter, the Devils could hit only two of 11 shots. Port Huron, meanwhile, was playing a slow, conservative offense and led 12-5 as the quarter ended.

The Devils began using their height advantage in the second quarter and pulled ahead 15-14. But South stopped hustling again and the Big Reds took advantage of this to go ahead 24-22 at the half.

As the third quarter started, South began scoring again. The Devils led most of the quarter but Port Huron, playing a deliberate offense and shooting well, stayed close behind.

South scored the last basket of the quarter and led 35-34. Finally, in the fourth quarter, it looked as if South was finally going to dispose of pesky Port Huron. The Devils went ahead 42-36 but the Big Reds tightened that to 42-40.

Both teams had difficulty scoring the rest of the game and South was able to hang on for the victory.

Peterson was high scorer again with 13 points while Grant Piche and Jim Parsons each scored nine.

South will play Mount Clemens, Tuesday, February 24, with a chance for the EML title.

South defeated the Bathers in their first meeting at South earlier this year. But the way the Devils have played lately, and the fact the game is in Mount Clemens, could mean a tough night for South.

You can't go very far forward by leaning over backward.

Students Have Fine Festival

Both South and North High School musicians did well at the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association District Twelve Solo and Ensemble Festival recently held at Henry Ford Community College.

Sixty solo and ensemble events from the instrumental music department at South received first division (superior), ratings, while 46 first division ratings were bestowed upon North musicians.

Those students earning first division ratings in the senior high division are now eligible to perform in the State Solo and Ensemble Festival March 27 in Flint.

Meanwhile, South received 32 second division ratings and six third division ratings. North received 21 second division ratings and one fourth division rating.

The District Twelve Festival is one of the largest in the State with well over 4,500 events. Students are judged by leading college and high school music educators on the basis of tone, intonation, rhythm, technique and musicianship.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Too often, the gratitude for the protection, service, kindness and attention to duty does not come to the persons who perform these acts. I do not want that to happen in this case.

I wish to thank the three officers from Grosse Pointe Woods who came to our assistance when we sorely needed help. Their job is difficult at best, and we wish everyone to know how fortunate we all are to have such qualified and sensitive officers on our force when we need them so badly and don't know where else to turn.

At 12:30 on January 27, these Grosse Pointe Woods officers responded to our urgent call for assistance immediately for my mother, Mrs. Doris Bohn. She had a heart failure. The officers, along with ambulance crew, administered aid including mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and they did everything possible to revive her. They delivered her to the hospital. These gentlemen were most efficient at a most critical time.

We are deeply grateful and will remember the unselfish way in which these men gave of themselves for my mother and for us, for a long time.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs.
John A. Moss
Grosse Pointe Woods

To the Editor:

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education has announced that there will be a millage election on March 29 and has indicated that there will be just two propositions on the ballot — one calling for a renewal of the present school millage tax plus what the "Grosse Pointe News" refers to as a "modest" increase and one calling for a renewal of the library millage.

I submit that there should be three propositions on the ballot: one calling for a renewal of the present school millage tax without the increase, one calling for a renewal with a stated increase and one for the library. Taxpayers should, in all fairness, have an opportunity to vote for a continuance of the present school millage rate without any increase at all. Lumping the renewal and increase into one proposition will not give them this opportunity.

Sincerely,
John Denler

To the Editor:

The Grosse Pointe branch of the American Cancer Society would like to thank the "Grosse Pointe News" for its recent coverage.

Mrs. Beverly Kennedy, service chairperson, has been searching for over a year for an office from which to coordinate our activities. Due to the article in the "Grosse Pointe News," she was able to find a suitable office located at Cottage Hospital in the Wayne County Health Department.

Dr. Perry Stern read of our need and responded with an offer of space at Cottage. With such an ideal location, Pointe volunteers won't have far to drive when working on community projects for the American Cancer Society. Mrs. Kennedy also received a tremendous response from Pointe women interested in volunteering their services. The office will be open to the public Monday, March 1, between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Gay Nosek
Publicity Chairperson

One View from the Capitol

By William Bryant

The fiscal situation of the State is not too bad considering we are emerging from what for Michigan must be termed a depression. At one point over 555,000 were on the unemployment rolls as a result of a two million unit drop in auto sales, plus other factors.

The picture is not rosy by any means for this year or next in the percent of unemployed. It is still over 12 percent.

As can be easily understood, this situation creates more demands on state government especially in the welfare area and yet reduces the yield of existing taxes.

The Governor ordered a cut in the present budget, and asked the legislature to borrow from the Veteran's Trust Fund and the uninsured motorist fund and to play book-keeping games by extending the fiscal year. All these are designed to meet the State constitutional requirement of a balanced budget.

We will probably do all the things he asked. But there is clear indication the State may still end the year on June 30 with a deficit unless further cuts are made by executive order and approved by the

To Implement Curriculum At Pointe Middle Schools

The Board of Education at its Monday, February 9 regular meeting, voted to implement a new middle school curriculum for the 1976-77 year.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. James A. Adams said that although the middle school curriculum proposed for 1976-77 is basically the same as the current program, emphasis will be put on improving the quality of the curriculum and instruction and to solidify scheduling practices rather than to change the curriculum.

A few courses have been omitted, however, from the new curriculum. For grades seven and eight, music exploration was dropped because "over a two-year period the course has never operated at two of the middle schools and the course cannot be properly scheduled or staffed," Dr. Adams explained.

Those courses dropped for grade seven only were ceramics and sculpture, clothing I and II, foods I and II, wood-working and metalworking.

"The changes are made to improve and unify scheduling practices," Dr. Adams said. New curriculum additions to grades seven and eight, however, will be painting and printmaking.

Semester courses to be scheduled every day will include all courses in art, homemaking, and industrial arts, computer math, exploratory foreign language and science explorations.

Those courses scheduled every other day will be choir, environmental studies, instrumental music, journalism and physical education.

Semester courses to be scheduled either way are dramatics and seventh grade science.

The new middle school curriculum calls for no internal electives for mathematics and science. However, there will be a maximum of one English internal elective for a marking period.

Dr. Adams said that rules and guidelines regarding scheduling and the number of student teacher contacts remains unchanged.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

Of the many problems facing our society, one of the most overwhelming is change. Change, whether it be one of values, technology, ecology, energy or interpersonal relations, is occurring at a far greater rate today than at any other time in the history of recorded civilization.

How we are to cope with these changes, and the alternatives available to us, are the subjects of some excellent books in the collections at your Grosse Pointe Public Libraries.

Possibly the most significant book that discusses these topics is Alvin Toffler's FUTURE SHOCK (Random House). According to Toffler, future shock is "the dizzying disorientation brought on by the premature arrival of the future." Whether we are all victims of technological jag and doomed to a massive adaptation breakdown is something the sociologists are debating. Toffler's aim is to spell out the nature of the problem we face, and to suggest how we might learn to cope.

Technology within the last several decades has fed on itself and brought about an accelerating thrust of "progress" that has already, in many ways, projected us into the future. We can anticipate cataclysmic changes in every facet of human experience. Toffler, writing in a clear popular style, outlines some interesting strategies for survival.

In TECHNOLOGICAL MAN: THE MYTH AND THE REALITY (Braziller), author Victor Ferkiss examines the interrelationship between technology and politics in the last decade of the 20th century, and suggests the direction in which mankind must move if it is going to be able to deal with the new challenges put to the social order by technological change.

John W. Gardner, author of SELF-RENEWAL: THE INDIVIDUAL AND THE INNOVATIVE SOCIETY (Harper), feels "that too many minds are shackled today by conformity, timidity and self-imposed bias." He urges the regeneration of the soul and the opening of broader areas of communication as the means toward a moral progress designed to match our technological advances.

In THE AGE OF DISCONTINUITY: GUIDELINES TO OUR CHANGING SOCIETY, (Harper), Peter F. Drucker discusses four aspects of discontinuity in our social, political and economic landscape — "the new technology; the change from an international to a world economy; the growth of pluralistic institutions; and the new universe of knowledge based on mass education."

Other books of this type that you might find interesting include R. Buckminster Fuller, OPERATING MANUAL FOR SPACESHIP EARTH (Southern Illinois Press), and UTOPIA OR OBLIVION, (Bantam). Inconceivable abundance for all mankind or unlimited catastrophe. These are the choices the author sees for mankind in the next decade. In these books Fuller develops his concepts of how mankind might achieve the first of the two alternatives.

More are Marshall McLuhan, GUTTENBERG GAL-

AXY. (University of Toronto), UNDERSTANDING MEDIA, (McGraw-Hill), and THE MEDIUM IS THE MESSAGE, (Bantam). McLuhan shows how the industrial era fractured man and forced him into linear thinking. McLuhan then discovers what he believes are trails leading toward a new world that promises a more human future.

Abraham Maslow in TOWARD A PSYCHOLOGY OF BEING, (Van Nostrand), breaks with the long-standing trend in psychology of concentrating on pathology. He attempts to develop a psychology for healthy human beings.

Philip Slater in EARTH-WALK, (Doubleday), sees the technological impulse as "inherently antihuman and life hating." He points out the futility of much that we call progress but sees hope in the emergence of certain self-healing processes in Western culture.

These, of course, are only a sampling of the books available at your libraries. I wish to thank Robert W. Bradley who teaches American History at South High School for suggesting the topic of this week's column.

Class Studies Masters' Works

The music appreciation class "Meet the Masters," sponsored by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, begins today, February 19, at 10 a.m. in the Exhibition Room of the Central Library.

Mrs. Robert Kaiser will give an informal presentation of music to be performed at live symphony concerts. Piano, records and theme sheets will be used to illustrate the music. Composers, whose works were influenced by the times in which they lived, are studied as individual personalities.

The classes are as follows: February 19, "First Chair Men," a discussion of concertos by Bach, Haydn and Mozart, (to be performed at the Detroit Symphony Orchestra concert); February 26, "The Pride of Hungary," which includes works of Kodaly, Liszt and Bartok; March 18, "Ode to Joy," a detailed review of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, (to be performed by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra on March 25, 27 and 28); and March 25, "On Today's Scene," a look at what's being written and heard in our own day.

For further information, call 885-3808 or 885-0271.

Louis Rossetti To Give Talk

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Susan McDonald

Guests danced from 7 until midnight to Johnny Trudell's orchestra under a floating chiffon tent surrounded by tiny flickering lights at the March of Dimes Sweetheart Ball last Saturday, February 14.

The theme for the Valentine's ball was of an elegant, romantic, old-fashioned hearts-and-flowers atmosphere. Raleigh House rooms were filled with flowers, ferns, cascading ribbons, hearts and bubbling fountains.

Honoring Special 'Sweethearts'

Honored at the Valentine ball were Humanitarians-of-the-Year, Mrs. Joseph Ridson, of Bloomfield, Ms. Jane Wyatt, (the film and stage actress), of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Arthur (Hattie) Pfannenschmidt, of Vernier road.

Hattie has donated thousands of hours to civic, charity and church organizations, going back to the days when her late husband, Colonel Pfannenschmidt, was stationed in Heidelberg and she served as president of the Officer's Wives Clubs. They did everything from delivering milk to young enlisted men's families to making over old Army uniforms for orphans.

Hattie has served as chairman of the Sweetheart Ball herself in the past, a job handled this year by Mrs. Robert Pastor of Bloomfield Hills, and Pointer Mrs. John Elias. She is also a founding member of the Northeast Guidance Center Assistance League, (whose "Guidance Gazette" is scheduled to come out next week as a supplement to the NEWS).

Society News Gathered from the Pointes

Mrs. Zilly Gets Place on U.S. Panel

Mrs. Bernice Zilly, of Merriweather road, was recently named a member of the Chicago Regional Panel of the President's Commission on White House Fellowships. Her appointment was announced by Commission Chairman Miles W. Kirkpatrick and Director Bruce H. Hasenkamp.

Mrs. Zilly recently completed a two-year term as president of the National Council of Catholic Women and currently serves on its National Executive Committee. She was a teacher in the Detroit High Schools for several years.

Born in Peoria, Ill., Mrs. Zilly received her B.S. degree from the University of Illinois and her Master of Education from Wayne State University.

Mrs. Zilly is the founder and past-president of Mayor's Committee — Keep Detroit Beautiful; past-president of the Grosse Pointe Women's Republican Club; and International Chairman, Red Cross Southeastern Michigan Chapter, having formerly served as a member of its Board of Directors and Executive Committee.

In her capacity as a member of the Chicago Regional Panel, she will assist in selecting the National Finalists for 1976-77 White House Fellowships from the Semifinalists in Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin, and Minnesota. Ten other regional panels evaluate candidates in other areas of the country.

Established to provide outstanding young Americans with first-hand experience in the process of governing the nation, the White House Fellowship program is open to U.S. citizens from all occupations and professions who are between the ages of 23 and 35 by the commencement of the Fellowship year.

Music Hall Adds Four Concerts

Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts has added four music events to its winter schedule. According to artistic director Dr. David DiChiera, the groups represent a spectrum of popular musical tastes.

On Sunday evening, February 15, Music Hall presented the first event in an original four-part series, Music of the Black Church. The series, made possible in part by a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts, tells the story of 350 years of black church music, from the early American spiritual, up to the various forms of gospel music still evolving today.

Mr. DiChiera points out that gospel and jazz, both rooted in the same black religious heritage, are America's only two musical art forms recognized around the world.

The first part of the program, "The Sound of Traditional Gospel," featured Gospel great Marion Williams and the Radio Choir of New Bethel Baptist Church of Detroit, with narration by Detroit Councilwoman Erma Henderson, also an ordained minister.

This was the last event in Detroit's official celebration of National Black History Week and was of wide historical as well as entertainment interest. Three other programs in the series will be presented in April, May and June.

Then, on Sunday, February 22, pianist and vocal stylist Bobby Short returns to Music Hall for one performance only. Various called "King of New York's Cafe Carlyle" or "The Pet of the Set," he also was presented for a standing room only concert at the center last season.

On Monday, March 8, progressive jazz pianist Keith Jarrett brings his quartet to Detroit for the first time. (Continued on Page 15)

This has been a record year for CSYC claims to racing championships and club trophies. The prowess of Crescent sailors is better known nationally as a result of more small boat victories beyond the waters of Lake St. Clair. CSYC is a prominent host to many one design sailboat races as well.

One of the most popular officers in the history of CSYC, Harvey Freeman, will be honored at the Ball. The Commodore's flag will be officially presented to Commodore Freeman. A toast will be raised in honor of Lee Sutton, vice commodore and the traditional whip will be passed on to Roy Broman, rear commodore.

Louisa St. Clair Honors 27 'Good Citizens'

Mrs. B. Thomas Weyhing III, of Lewiston road, regent of Louisa St. Clair Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will welcome DAR Good Citizens from 27 Detroit high schools on Thursday, February 19 at Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church. Chairman Miss Josephine Benson has invited all the mothers to take part in the pinning ceremony following presentation of certificates from the National Society, DAR.

Mrs. Cornelius G. Egan, of McMillan road, will give a program of historical interest, "A Daughter of the Revolution—Louisa St. Clair," about an adventurous teenager in the pioneer settlement of Marietta on the Ohio River, where her father, Gen. Arthur St. Clair, was the first governor of the Northwest Territory.

The 27 good citizens were chosen by their own classmates and faculty for their dependability, service to home, school, church and community, leadership and patriotism. Nearly 500 Michigan high schools took part last year. The national winner receives a scholarship prize.

Tropical Evening To Benefit Center

Hawaiian Party to Celebrate 'Gazette' Publication to Fund Northeast Guidance Center Work

Are you dreaming of sunbaked beaches as you slog through Michigan's slush? Do thoughts of tropical breezes wafting through palm trees bring a lump to your flu-stricken throat? Maybe you can't escape the rigors of winter by fleeing to Hawaii, but you can do the next best thing—spend one glorious night in a Hawaiian setting by attending the patron party for the Northeast Guidance Center's "Gazette."

The party, which celebrates the publication of this year's "Gazette," a supplement to the NEWS, is being held by the Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center on Wednesday, February 25. The evening of escape and fun will be held from 7-10 p.m. at the Renaud road home of Rosemary Elias, honorary chairman of the party.

While a more decorous group sips drinks and nibbles hors d'oeuvres upstairs, the Polynesian partygoers will enjoy entertainment by musicians and dancers from the Chin Tiki restaurant downstairs. To make the illusion complete, even the hors d'oeuvres downstairs will have a Polynesian flavor.

Some guests may even enter the spirit of the evening enough to don their muumuu or Hawaiian print shirts, although, with "official" dress being black tie optional, most guests will probably be in more conservative attire.

Co-chairmen of this tropical evening are Pointers Nancy Olson and Carole Berkeley. Invitations were handled by Pointer Sharyn Manning and reservations (which are limited to 200) are being taken by Barbara Boyce, also of the Pointe.

Refreshments for the evening—both tropical and traditional—were planned by Beverly Leinweber, Judy Sieber, and Suzanne DeSerrano. And, although they won't be wearing grass skirts, there will be a number of hostesses from the Assistance League that evening, under the direction of Liz Andri.

Tickets are $25 per couple and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Jackson at 824-8000.

Sacred Heart Alumnae Slate Cocktail Party

The Alumnae of Sacred Heart is having a Cocktail Buffet Saturday, February 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Goffredson.

Mrs. John L. King will host the 6-8 o'clock affair with Mrs. Edward A. Franco assisting.

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Anthony Fisher, of Mount Vernon road, 882-0247.

Getting Ready for Hawaiian Night

Congregational Group to Honor Old South

In observance of the bi-centennial year, Group IV of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church will honor the Ante-Bellum period of the old south in American history by inviting Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson to present a program on "Natchez on the Mississippi Where the Old South Still Lives."

Natchez is to the confederate period what Williamsburg is to the colonial, except that Natchez is an authentic museum preservation. Natchez mansions, furnishings and the traditions of the community have all been carefully preserved, bringing visitors back to the most elegant period of American history.

A yearly pilgrimage to the mansion was established by the Natchez Garden Club and Pilgrimage Garden Club 40 years ago. This year the pilgrimage will be held March 6 to April 4.

Mrs. Wilson is a native southerner of early colonial lineage. She has served as a guest hostess during two Natchez pilgrimages. She is a past president of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club and the Pointe Garden Club, past state director on the Federated Council of State Garden Clubs and member of the Board of Directors of the War Memorial for three years.

A member of the Royal Horticultural Society of England, Mrs. Wilson is a member of the National Trust for Historical Preservation.

The program will be given at Eastland Village House, Tuesday, evening, February 24. Mrs. Carson Wallace is hostess.

When Michigan's only air travel club, the Nomads, recently flew its one millionth mile during a flight from Eleuthera Island in the Bahamas to Detroit, Nomads board chairman GEORGE CODD, of Devonshire road, was aboard. Mr. Codd later participated in Nomads' 10th anniversary party at Dearborn's Fairlane Manor.

Two members qualified for directors awards for outstanding services this year—Mrs. Harry M. Jewett and Mrs. Paul H. Twohey. Also recognized for her leadership during the past year was President Mrs. William Cunningham. Succeeding her is Mrs. Gordon T. Ford.

War Memorial to Host Historic Memorials Society of Detroit's Annual Heritage Day Fair

Booths displaying home baked goods, handmade stitchery and crafts, books, jewelry and attic treasures will be manned by Historic Memorial Society members dressed in authentic colonial dress on Thursday, February 26 at the Heritage Day Fair.

The fair, to be held at the War Memorial, from 10 a.m.-3 p.m., will be a country store, delight featuring antiques and door prizes of a hand-crafted afghan and a U.S. flag that flew over the nation's Capitol to mark the 200th anniversary of the battle of Lexington and Concord.

Also for sale will be historic maps of the Fort at Detroit 1760. They are water-color facsimiles, copyrighted and registered in the Library of Congress. Printed on heavy rag paper, the limited and numbered copies will be sold for $25.

Inside the Mothers Club

The Executive Board of the Mothers' Club at South High School received a proposal from a local group requesting support for a published community calendar with a central telephone number to co-ordinate dates for events scheduled by various groups. The Board voted to participate by submitting their calendar of events and contributing $10-$20 for publishing costs if necessary.

The Board also approved the motion to host a joint meeting with the Dad's Club, North High's Parents Club and Booster Club. It was suggested that Dr. Adams, superintendent of schools, and perhaps some members of the school board be asked to speak on the millage election and problems facing the schools.

On Wednesday, March 10, another Green Plant Party will be held in Clemenson Hall at South High School. Plants will be sold to students and the community at large from noon until 4 p.m. and again from 7:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m.

It was announced that all departments at the High School are preparing reports describing their curriculums, to be submitted to the North Central Association for evaluation. One parent is invited to participate with the staff of each department in preparing these reports.

Vice-President, Judy Lees, explained the requirements and procedures for applying for Mothers' Club Scholarships and how the recipients are selected.

The requirements are financial need, minimum C grade point average, participation in extra-curricular activities and acceptance by a Michigan State-supported institution, a private secretarial school or school such as the Center for Creative Studies whose costs do not exceed that of a public institution.

Welcome Club Meeting Today

The Welcome Wagon Club of Grosse Pointe and Harper Woods will meet for luncheon at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, in Cook road, on Thursday, February 19 at 11:30 o'clock.

Celebrating her 88th birthday Sunday, January 25, (it's actually January 26, but Sunday's a better day for a party than Monday), at Stouffers Eastland with members of her family, her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, was CECELIA JANE ROULO, widow of the late ALBERT F. ROULO, of Hawthorne road.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

What fantastic sales talk we Grosse Pointe Real Estate people have. Our Grosse Pointe area has risen from the surrounding areas like Mount Everest in the plains of the West! Our values have steadily appreciated year after year as surely as there have been four seasons! We have surpassed stocks, bonds and savings accounts like no single investment since Xerox! To the amazement of thousands real estate has replaced stockholders' losses. So, what is the answer to all this? It's very simple. If you'd like a larger more expensive home — buy one! It's bound to pay two fold in greater family living and financially, at least at retirement time.

For example? If you have a comfortable $80,000.00 home — consider one for $120,000.00! There is a difference, and in some family circumstances it's the perfect answer for complete family utopia! You probably aren't aware of the value of your present home. The people at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087 have an amazingly accurate and simple way to show you how much your house is worth today — call them.

Experts say be cautious with most purchases but when it comes to the total family benefit the sky is the limit. Financially buried you say? What's wrong with a forced savings plan that all comes back with dividends at retirement time?

To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Ford Jr., have announced the engagement of their daughter DEBRA JENE, to Ronald Chester Kozel, son of the Chester F. Kozels of Troy.

Miss Ford is a 1972 graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School. She and Mr. Kozel, who graduated from Bishop Foley High School, both attended Eastern Michigan University.

A November wedding is planned.

Plan Summer Garden Today

It may seem that winter is dragging on forever, but the spring gardening season is just around the corner. Horticulturists at Michigan State University point out that February is not too early to order seed and plant catalogs and start planning your garden.

Use records made of last year's garden and flower beds to plan this year's plantings, the experts advise.

Figure out how much seed you'll need to order and what bulbs, plants, trees or shrubs you'll want.

Then, when the catalogs arrive, you'll be all ready to get your order in early.

Wedding Ahead For John Buell

A summer wedding in Amherst, Mass., is planned for Susan Covino and John Buell, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. John Buell, of Provencal road, it was announced by her parents.

Mr. Buell is a graduate of Grosse Pointe University School. He received his B.A. from Amherst College, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, his M.A. from Columbia University and his Ph.D. from the University of Massachusetts.

Flame Violet Growing Tips

Though it's often called the Flame Violet, the Episcia is no more a violet than its near relative, the African violet, (Saintpaulia).

The tropical creeper with showy scarlet or orange flowers is usually grown for its foliage in combinations of green, bronze, silver, copper and purple.

Episcia cupreata, a native of Columbia, grows best under conditions like those of its native habitat. According to horticulturists at Michigan State University, these conditions include average to warm temperatures (minimum at night of 60-65 degrees F), higher than normal home humidity and soil kept uniformly moist, but not soaking wet.

Water carefully to avoid splashing the leaves, the experts caution.

Light may range from bright indirect light to semi-shade. Episcia will not tolerate full sun, however.

Popular varieties of Episcia include E. cupreata "Chocolate Soldier," which has chocolate brown leaves with a silver center stripe and red flowers in summer; "Moss Agate," with a puckery, quilted look to its green leaves; and "Pink Brocade," which has pink-bordered leaves with silver centers, and orange flowers.

Pot in regular potting soil and provide for good drainage. Fertilize every four to six weeks with any regular houseplant fertilizer.

Episcia is a good plant for growing under artificial light, the horticulturists point out. It is also popular as a hanging basket plant, in dish gardens or terrariums, or as a specimen plant on a shelf or windowsill.

Propagate by stem or leaf petiole cuttings.

Women in Business Meet Next Wednesday

The monthly dinner meeting of the Motor City Charter of the American Business Women's Association will be held at the University Club, 1411 East Jefferson avenue, on Wednesday, February 25, with cocktails at 5:30 and dinner at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Suzanne-Ryan Curran, Director of Volunteers, Children's Hospital of Michigan will be the guest speaker. Her topic will be the "Role of the Volunteer."

A vocational talk will be given by Ms. Marjorie Ellen Jacobi. Guests are welcome.

Jeff Belanger To Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Moomer, of Saint Ithica, have announced the engagement of their daughter Christine Cardiff, to Jeffrey J. Belanger, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Belanger, of Hunt Club drive.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Saint Mary's School of Nursing and has also attended the Bible Baptist Seminary of Arlington, Tex.

Mr. Belanger is a graduate of Notre Dame.

Cadet JON GREINER, son of the CLAUDE A. GREINERS, of Lake Side court, is a member of the Missouri Military Academy Fusiliers drill team which performed during half time activities at the University of Missouri-Kansas State basketball game February 4.

August Bride

An August wedding is planned for MELISSA PERRY SPEER and Stephen Raymond Tille, it was announced by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Speer, of Moran road.

The bride-elect, a graduate of South High School is currently attending Hillsdale College. She is a member of Tau Beta and Chi Omega sorority.

Mr. Tille, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Tille, of Findlay, O., is a graduate of Hillsdale in business and economics. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Protect Plants During Winter

Heavy, wet snow on landscape plants can cause breakage that won't show up until warm weather arrives. To prevent injury and loss of plants, Joe Cox, Extension Landscape Architecture Specialist at Michigan State University, recommends building winter plant protectors.

"Tall, upright shrubs can be supported by driving several stakes in the ground close by," he says. "The stakes will hold the shrub upright under a load of snow."

"Wire or heavy cord may also be wrapped around the shrubs to keep the branches from being bent toward the ground."

Stakes and burlap or canvas may be combined to provide both support and protection against drying wind and sun or salt spray.

Crate-like structures to shield plants from snow can be made in nesting shapes for easy storage when not in use, Cox suggests. Paint them in shades of gray, brown or dull green to blend into the landscape—or make them seem more a part of your home by painting them to match the house or trim.

"Plants located near the house can be shielded from snow sliding off the roof with slide-like wooden teepees," he notes. "Hinge them at the top or build them so they will stack to minimize storage problems."

When you locate plants in the landscape, place them where they will not be threatened by flying salt spray, falling snow or strong winds.

Think of seasonal hazards when you plant — including how plants will affect snow drifting in your driveway — and you can eliminate many problems before they occur.

Umbrella Tree Is Good Luck

That old superstition about putting an umbrella up indoors being bad luck doesn't apply to the Australian umbrella tree or Schefflera, (Brassaia actinophylla).

It is, in fact, so well suited to life indoors that it could be termed a good luck tree that brings out the green thumb in even the most luckless of houseplant gardeners.

According to horticulturists at Michigan State University, average house temperatures and humidity suit Schefflera just fine. It will tolerate temperatures as low as 45 degrees F, however.

Though bright light is best, Schefflera will withstand dim light for some time.

Pot in a regular potting mix or make your own with equal parts soil, sand and peat. Water thoroughly when soil surface is dry. Allow to dry before watering again.

Fertilize every two months with any standard houseplant fertilizer.

Schefflera makes a good large tub specimen. It grows rapidly, producing umbrella-shaped compound leaves made up of slender, fleshy and glossy green leaflets.

With age, its main stems become woody and tree-like.

Spider mites, tiny sucking insects found on the lower sides of leaves, are a common problem on the plant. Check the leaves periodically, and apply an insect spray labeled for use on spider mites on houseplants. Propagate by stem cuttings or seed.

Awarded academic honors for the fall semester at Pine Manor Junior College, Chestnut Hill, Pa., is VIRGINIA M. THIBODEAU, Class of '76, daughter of the ROBERT L. THIBODEAU, of Stephenson road.

HANDYMAN'S DREAM. This cute little Grosse Pointe Woods 4 bedroom, 2 bath could be the doll of the street with a little loving and skillful care. All the structural walls are up—they are even drywalled and painted—but the skill of finished carpentry is lacking. You can have it done professionally or do it yourself. This can be a profitable move for some lucky family. We have designer plans already prepared in case you'd like to see how we—on paper—have altered this home to a 3 bedroom, 2 bath with open beamed ceiling that has an upstairs balcony looking down into the living room. This is a perfect house to play around with and perhaps make a protection plan! It is also covered by our Buyers Protection Plan—a one year warranty—ask us about it when you call. It's important. Pointer of Interest

SENIOR CENTER, INC., EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR MARGHERITA S. ALLARDICE, OF PARK LANE

By Janet Mueller

It's hard to fight a stereotype. Everybody knows old people are cranky, doddering, unreasonable . . . Right? No wonder a good proportion of the Social Work students assigned to the Senior Center, Inc., for in-service training go there "under duress."

So how come more than half of those Senior Center-exposed students wind up choosing to work in the field of Gerontology?

"I love my job very much," says Mickey Allardice, the Center's executive director, (and more—but more about that later). "Working with older people and with the handicapped is very different from what people conceive it to be."

"We work with a very interesting, interested, involved group of people."

Work Is Exciting

It's exciting work: pioneering, even, for aging is a new problem. In Caesar's time, life expectancy was in the mid-20's. By 1900, it was 48. Now it's in the 70's, almost doubled in the first 75 years of a single century.

"I think we really need to look at the new problems that have, suddenly, been created." Fortunately, people are looking. The problems are becoming more visible, thanks to the Older Americans Act, which recognized in 1965 that Older Americans have special needs that should be served, and to the 1971 White House Conference on Aging, which brought those special needs to the attention of the general public.

Mickey was a delegate to that conference. She was a natural choice.

She's been a member of the State Commission on Services to the Aging, appointed by Governor William Milliken, for six years now. The Commission meets monthly to set statewide plans and policies for its older citizens.

Active in Washington

She's on the board of the National Council on Aging, a voluntary group composed primarily of professionals working in the field of aging, headquartered in Washington, D.C. "We do a lot of legislative education in Congress," Mickey sits on the Council's Public Policy Committee.

She holds a Masters degree in Social Work, and is affiliated with the ACSW.

It's a far cry from the world of paints and easels. That was Mickey's first love. "I've been a painter for years."

Born in Winston-Salem, N.C., where her father was a minister, she grew up in Washington, D.C. She's been a Pointer for 30 years. Her three children are grown and scattered now. Robert Baril married, living and working in sales in Philadelphia; Bonnie Baril also married, (she elected to keep her own name), working as a systems analyst and living near San Francisco; Bruce Baril teaching school in Hartford, Conn.

Has Degree in Art

Mickey took her first Bachelors degree in Art. She taught it at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for about 15 years, instructing adults and starting the children's classes there.

She continues to paint and remains active in a number of art groups, from the Grosse Pointe Artists Association to the Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors, the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts and Letters, (Fine Arts Division), the Michigan Watercolor Society and the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts.

But always, along with the art, there was a strong community service commitment.

The Junior League of Detroit started its Senior Center Project in a little store in Mack avenue in December, 1953. Sis Bryant, mother-in-law of present board member Lois (Mrs. William R., Jr.) Bryant, began an art program at the Center; after six months, Mickey Baril took over from Sis.

Onward and Upward

From conducting and coordinating classes in arts, crafts, knitting, et al, Mickey moved onward and upward to the presidency of the Senior Center's board. Then came a term as president of the Junior League of Detroit. "When I retired from that job, I decided to go back to school for my Masters degree."

She was teaching art part-time at the War Memorial and for the Grosse Pointe Department of Community Services, yet she wanted her Masters degree in Social Work. She wasn't exactly a novice in the field, ("I had done a lot of volunteer work"), and, after talking to the Dean of the School of Social Work at Wayne State University, and taking a battery of vocational tests, ("They came out that I should be working in either Art or Social Work" . . . well, Mickey knew THAT, but it's nice to have what you know confirmed by scientific method), she began her studies.

She Filled Vacancy

"When I was graduated, (in 1964), the Senior Center's director was moving to another job. So they hired me."

"At that time we had three employees and one building."

Today the Center has 27 employees—there are four new positions to be filled—and several branches. It is a Torch Drive Agency, operating primarily on grants from public agencies augmented by donations from the Friends of the Senior Center and fees from private nursing homes which contract for the Center's services.

Totally supported by the Junior League during its first five years, semi-Junior League supported for the next five years, it's been a totally independent agency since 1963.

Focus Has Changed

"We've changed focus quite a lot," notes Mickey, harking back to those first years and the Senior Center Project's initial League sponsorship.

"Then we were primarily a recreational program for older people living in the area. Now we're much more an in-depth Social Work service, dealing particularly with disadvantaged older people."

Mickey's personal life has undergone some radical changes, too. Four years ago she married her boss, Edward M. Allardice, a former Senior Center board president. They recently moved from Windmill Pointe drive to a house in Park Lane they're completely re-decorating, doing most of the work themselves.

The Allardices love to travel. Since they're both art appreciators and collectors, they tend to follow the art and archeology circuit, from Yucatan to Southern France.

Has Pictures for Rent

Mickey still paints, of course. She has pictures for rental at the Detroit Institute of Arts, and shows "when-ever I can."

She continues to be involved in her immediate home community. She's served on the board of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library. She's a Northeast Guidance Center board member.

Mr. Allardice's life has changed direction professionally in the last few years. Once minister at Presbyterian Church of the Covenant in East Grand Boulevard, just up the street from Senior Center administrative headquarters, he, too, went back to school. He was graduated from WSU in 1972, and is a Social Worker now.

Change continues to be a constant in Mickey Allardice's life. The Senior Center itself is in the midst of a name change, for "we don't just serve seniors anymore; through our mental health programs, we serve adults of all ages."

Changes Location

Last April, the Senior Center Recreational Program started by the Junior League in that rented Mack avenue store moved from 587 East Grand Boulevard after 21 years to the new Butzel Family Center, five blocks away. The East Grand boulevard house, once home of a mayor of Detroit, is now primarily the Senior Center's administrative headquarters, although a few groups, such as Adult Care Services for the mentally retarded, continue to meet there.

At Butzel, the Senior Center operates its program in cooperation with the City of Detroit's Department of Recreation. "They (the City) now provide basic recreational services. We (the Center) are able to concentrate more on needed social work services."

Since 1967, the Senior Center has provided Nursing Home Services on a contractual basis to any nursing home in the metropolitan area. Seven homes are currently under contract, ranging from facilities in East Grand boulevard, (known for a long time as "Nursing Home Row"), to Georgian East.

February, 1973, services to ex-institutional adults living in the East Side Catchment area began.

These services are provided on several levels, from group programs operating out of the Church of the Covenant, Mr. Allardice's former church, to work with after-care homeowners to work inside the homes with individual clients.

The Center is presently engaged in increasing its services and staff skills relative to working with the mentally retarded of all ages. While continuing its other programs and activities, of course, and with a weather eye out for the Next Need.

As needs arise, the Senior Center attempts to meet them. "About 10 years ago," Mickey Allardice notes, "the Michigan Department of Mental Health started releasing people from state institutions for the mentally ill or mentally retarded." There was no reason for these people to continue to be institutionalized—but once "outside," where were they to go?

Many of them went to East Grand boulevard, where after-care residences joined the ranks of nursing homes. "We began to get a number of older people who had been in institutions," The Center rose to the occasion, and in

'Understudies' Change Guard

The Understudies women's committee for the Hilberry Theater at Wayne State University has a new chairman. Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker Jr., of Vendome road, will lead the ladies' fund-raising efforts this year, beginning with the May Matinee Theater Party, scheduled for May 12.

The matinee, featuring a production of Moliere's "Miser" and a luncheon at the McGregor Center in the Wayne Campus, are geared to introducing the fine, graduate repertory theatre at Hilberry to a wider audience of Detroit-area playgoers.

Most of the funds raised by the 12-year-old group go to graduate fellowships for the theater, the rest to production and promotion costs.

Mrs. Brucker, whose husband is on the Wayne State Board of Governors, is succeeding Mrs. Stanley Winkelman, who was chairman of the group for the past three years. Other Pointers working with the 60-member group are the Mesdames Frank W. Donovan, Alfred M. Entenman Jr., C. Jackson France, Ronald W. Haughton, Wilber Hadley Mack, Edward St. C. Thomas, L. How about trying to help older people maintain their independence in their own homes? "I think one of the biggest needs we have seen recently," says Mickey Allardice, "is for some sort of assistance program enabling older people to remain in their homes and care for them, and themselves, as long as possible."

It's a reasonable request. Most of the elderly's requests are reasonable. It's the unreasonable solutions that bring out the cranky and crotchety—in all of us.
