HEADLINES

WEEK

Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, March 4
EMERGENCY CREWS struggled Wednesday to restore power to more than 200,000 homes left without heat or light by a vicious ice storm which paralyzed much of southern Michigan. Hardest hit by the storm, which so thickly coated trees with ice that many were completely uprooted when they fell, was a belt of central Michigan stretching from Muskegon to Port Huron. The most devastated city appeared to be Saginaw, where more than 90 percent of the homes were without power Wednesday.

ALTHOUGH 1975 WAS A lousy year economically in Michigan, Gov. William Milliken said Thursday the State averted a worse fate with key legislation, and now things are on the rebound. Milliken, in presenting his annual economic report to the legislature, said that the "poor economic climate during the past year should not obscure the fact that 1975 was a year of considerable achievement in many areas." And he forecasted a much healthier auto industry for the new year to help Michigan pull itself out of the recession, although the unemployment rate will remain above 12 percent.

Saturday, March 6
THE UNITED STATES proposed Friday an international agreement in the United Nations to put a stop to corporate bribery of government officials around the world. The announcement was made officially by Deputy Secretary of State Robert W. Ingersoll, who said the U.S. government will soon transfer information sought by governments in Japan and elsewhere about bribes offered by the Lockheed Aircraft Co. to increase sales. Ingersoll said that recent unsubstantiated allegations against foreign government officials have done grievous damage to the foreign relations of the U.S.

A NEW BELLE ISLE Master Plan that would transform the park from 981 acres fragmented by roads and dotted with parking lots to a "back to nature refuge from the automobile" is in its final stages of preparation. The plan is expected to be completed by April 10. "We are committed to implementation," said Ray Rickman, president of the Friends of Belle Isle, one of two groups that commissioned the plan for the city. "And we're not going to go away." The rough draft of the plan, the culmination of nearly two years work by the noted design firm of Kiley, Tyndall and Walker, envisions a multi-million dollar redevelopment that would take at least 30 years.

BUFFETED BY THE recession, many are unskilled workers with little job seniority going for them. Some 502,200 Vietnam War veterans are still among the nation's unemployed. That represents 8.1 percent of the 6.2 million Vietnam veterans, compared with a national jobless rate of 7.8 percent for all classes of workers, according to the U.S. Department of Labor.

Tuesday, March 9
SOME 150 STUDENTS clashed for half an hour Monday on the lawn of Denby High School, a far northeast side school involved in Detroit's court-ordered busing desegregation plan. Denby Principal Richard H. Reid said the students, about 75 white and 75 black, fought at noon in front of the school on Kelly road as many students were leaving for the day.

Storm Painted Hundreds of Scenes Like This

Practically every street in Grosse Pointe offered similar pictures following the devastating pelting by freezing rain on March 2 and 3. Clearing up the debris has been and will continue to be a monumental task for municipal crews, professional tree experts, landscapers and private citizens.

Show hours will be from 1-10 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and from 1-9 p.m. on Sunday. Proceeds from the show will go to the Grosse Pointe Rotary Foundation which benefits many charitable projects.

Woods Council Divided On Question of Seeking Federal or State Funds

Concern Expressed That Acceptance Might Produce Attached Strings That Could Change
Status of Recreation Areas

By Roger A. Waha
Several causes of concern were expressed by members of The Woods Council, which denied participation in applying for Land and Water Conservation Fund assistance for the acquisition and development of public outdoor recreation lands and facilities on a 50 percent matching basis.

The negative vote of 4-3 was taken at the regular meeting Monday, March 1. Nixing participation were Councilwoman Joan M. Mul-lan and Councilmen Ronald R. Keegen, John Sabol and George S. Freeman. Those voting "yes" were Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and Councilmen George Cueter and Conrad A. Naegel.

All for Home Rule
One concern was summed up by City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, who cited the council's feeling of preserving local individual government and local home rule autonomy. "This city has constantly gone on record on the maintenance of local home rule and self help," he said, as opposed to applying for Federal and/or State grant monies for various projects.

Yet another concern was expressed, principally by Mr. Keegen, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Committee. This viewed applying for funds from either the State or the Federal Government for recreation-related projects and a fear of possible strings being attached along the way, plus a related concern of potentially having many non-residents visit city parks.

This particular community was from the Department of Natural Resources and if the majority of the council approved participation, the monies would have been geared towards improvements of the tennis courts at Ghesquiere Park, e.g., resurfacing and lighting, said Mr. Keegen.

Residents Complain
The councilman said his main concern revolves around the many complaints from citizens that they can't obtain playing time on the courts now, plus the fact that some non-residents utilize the courts at this time.

Woods Studies Plans for Pool

The Woods Council, sitting as the Committee of the Whole, (C-W), will be studying plans and specifications regarding the demolition and fill of the old Lake Front Park swimming pool.

City Engineer Larry Pate gave a brief verbal report to the council at its regular meeting Monday, March 1, and now the solons, which referred the material to the C-W, will review the prepared plans in executive session. If they approve the plans in committee, the city will then seek bids for the work, possibly sometime this month.

Mr. Pate told the council his drawings included what will be taken out of the pool (concrete-wise), what will be left, necessary electrical work, grading work and the extent of fencing which will have to be removed.

The plan for the old pool grounds is for a passive park area.

GPEA Calls Millage Bid Insufficient

Foresees Trouble in Negotiating New Contract after Expiration on June 30

The Grosse Pointe Education Association, (GPEA), looking ahead to spring contract negotiations, has issued a statement rapping the Board of Education's proposed 27.1 millage proposition, which will go to the voters Monday, March 29.

"The GPEA realizes the need for the millage proposed by the Board of Education," the statement reads, "but stresses that 2.75 mills will not fund Grosse Pointe schools at our current program and staffing levels."

According to GPEA calculations, two mills of the 2.75 increase will be necessary just to cover known increases in expenses. That leaves only three quarters of a mill for negotiating contracts.

Contract to Expire
The GPEA contract, representing 604 educators in The Pointe, expires on June 30. Contracts for administrators, secretarial and clerical workers, custodians and engineers, all separate bargaining units, also expire at that time.

In preparation for the May 1 bargaining sessions, the GPEA has announced its negotiating team, which will continue to function until an agreement is reached.

Representing North High School as spokesman and negotiations vice-president will be Curtis Lange. Doris Cook, GPEA president, will serve as an ex-officio member as will Al Gais, GPEA executive director. Others on the team will be Janeane Avery, from Barnes School; Patricia Fox, and Gordon Morlan, both from North High; and Eugene Wigglesworth, from South High.

Committee Members

Gary Hicks will represent Brownell; Jim Webers, Parcells; and Irving Parsch, Pierce.

Park Challenges Detroit's Figures In Tax Request

Appeals to Michigan Tax Commission on $173,000
Assessment Made on Four Acres of Windmill Pointe Recreation Area

Detroit wants to tax approximately four acres of Windmill Pointe Park, which is located on the west side of the recreational facility, and has set the assessment at $173,000, according to information given to The Park Council Monday night, March 8, by City Manager Robert Slone.

The city manager said that this figure was set by Detroit, but is not definite yet, since the figure is being appealed to the Michigan Tax Commission. The assessment represents half of the State Equalized Valuation, as determined by Detroit assessors.

Includes Parking Lot

Mr. Slone said that the property assessed includes the parking lot, located outside the park in Alter road.

He said that although one municipality normally does not tax another on property held within its corporate limits, a 1949 Michigan law permits taxation, and Detroit, apparently prodded by disgruntled citizens of the Jefferson-Chalmers Citizens Committee, denied access to the park, decided to assess taxes on property held by The Park and located in Detroit.

The Park is challenging Detroit's assessment valuation before the State Tax Commission to determine the actual value, Mr. Slone said.

He said that The Park acquired some of the land from Detroit in 1963, but most of it has been owned by The Park since 1930.

$2,000 Given To Foundation

The Foundation for Exceptional Children, Inc., was awarded a grant of $2,000 for recreational equipment, by the Telephone for the Retarded, recently.

The 1976 Telethon for the Retarded has been scheduled for Saturday-Sunday, June 5-6, at the Detroit Light Guard Armory, 4400 East Eight Mile. The 20-hour telethon, which will be open free to the general public, will start at 8 p.m. Saturday and run through 4 p.m. Sunday. It will be telecast statewide through the facilities of Kaiser Broadcasting Company's WKBD-TV, Channel 50.

APPROVES REQUEST

The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, March 1, unanimously approved a request from City Treasurer Helen L. Fox to attend the annual Municipal Finance Officers Conference May 2-6 in San Francisco, Calif., with the reimbursement of all necessary expenses.

Woods Council Studying Duplex-Type Homes Law

By Roger A. Waha
Two recommendations from the Planning Commission were considered by The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, March 1.

The first, which recommended the adoption of an amendment to Zoning Ordinance No. 88 viewing duplex-type homes, was referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study. The second, regarding a study as to the feasibility of installing additional traffic signals at the Vernier road-Morningside drive intersection, was unanimously approved.

At its January 27 meeting, the commission discussed the aesthetic deterioration of duplex-type homes. The out-

Park Police Petition for Pension Hike

Asks Citizens to Help in Effort to Obtain Boost;
Would Also Affect
Fire Department

The Grosse Pointe Park Police Officers Association, (GPPPOA), is circulating petitions throughout the city seeking a referendum on a charter amendment that would boost policemen and firemen pensions from 1.7 percent to 2.0 percent, according to information released by Patrolman Charles Slusser, chairman of the pension committee.

The hike is not possible unless the change is approved by the city voters.

According to a clause in The Park City Charter, which governs the amount of pension to police and fire personnel, the most that a retiree can receive, is 1.7 percent on retirement.

Not Covered by SS
The petition seeks to bring the percentage factor to 2.0 percent a year, in line with other Pointe agencies. Police-men and firemen are not covered by Social Security, it was pointed out.

"We sincerely believe that a majority of the citizens of Grosse Pointe Park want to see us on a par with the other Pointes," Officer Slusser said.

"Any registered voter in The Park may sign a petition, and any citizen can help circulate one. Persons interested may stop by the station at the rear of the Municipal Building, 15115 E. Jefferson if they want to help. Or, they may phone 882-7400. We can use and will appreciate all the help offered," the committee chairman said.

growth of this was a recommendation worded as follows: "Any proposed repair, remodeling, renovation or repainting of a duplex housing unit or condominium, which would result in the alteration of the exterior appearance, would require Planning Commission approval."

Peter Gilzen, who was selected committee vice-chairman at the January meeting, (named Robert E. Trinklein was chairperson), said this was an attempt by the commission to present clarification of what could be included in such an amendment. He said the language as presented wasn't mandatory.

All Cities In Process Of Clean Up

Some Areas Still Without Power; Municipalities Receive Hundreds of Reports of Distress

The remnants of the severe ice storm which struck The Pointe and much of southern Michigan last week can readily be seen along area streets with piles of twisted tree branches and limbs tangled together on city property, toppled trees awaiting removal and city crews diligently working to clean up each community.

As of Tuesday morning, March 9, Detroit Edison's public information office reported that some 2,500 customers were still without power in the Pointes, while indicating power should be restored by the middle of the week.

Eight Detroit Edison line crews, one Toledo Edison line crew and three crews via line contractors were working in the area Tuesday morning to get the "juice flowing" as many residents were trying to get back to normal.

Edison services around 17,000 customers in the Pointes and, of these, about 11,000 were affected by the storm at various times, said Peg Furlong of the public information office.

Cites First Priority
"We had as many as 75 two-man teams in the Grosse Pointes reconnecting individual services from poles to homes," she stated. "We also had a number of crews guarding downed wires and making an evaluation of damage."

The first priority Tuesday evening, March 2, was the "removal of public hazards and the guarding of them." Ultimately, as those hazards became minimized, the crews turned to restoration work, she said.

An estimated 307,000 Edison customers were affected by the storm and as of Tuesday morning, 23,000 were still without power, she added.

The Pointe area was riddled by the storm and the NEWS staff assessed its effects in the five municipalities.

THE WOODS

By Roger A. Waha
Officials estimate that around 50 percent of city homes were without power on Tuesday, March 2. However, this percentage has dropped considerably since that time.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said on Tuesday morning, March 9, some 300-350 homes were still awaiting power. Some of these were located on such streets as Hampton road, Roslyn road, Brys drive, Aline drive, Blairmoor and Charlevoix.

The Woods Municipal Building was without power from around 10 a.m. on March 2 until about 3:50 a.m. on Friday, March 5. While the city side of the building was blacked out, (with employees given both Wednesday and Thursday off), the public safety side functioned on an emergency generator.

Mr. Petersen had sound words of praise for both public safety and DPW employees. He said one of the employees, Robert Pate, more than six hours a day between March 2 and 4, and, during that time, had removed most of the fallen trees, limbs and branches from the street. He said both departments worked "above and beyond the call of duty" in protecting and providing essential services.

This week the city began a systematic clean up of all streets, picking up piles of branches and limbs and removing broken limbs from trees. He said trees suffered much damage and stressed it would be weeks before they are trimmed out with

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS

Daniel O'Leary was one of the great turn of the century walkers. Authorities say that his greatest performance was in 1907, at Cincinnati, where at the age of sixty-three he walked a mile at the beginning of each hour for one thousand consecutive hours. During the 42 days it took to complete the test, O'Leary's largest period of uninterrupted sleep was 50 minutes. He lasted it out, and collected the grand sum of $5,000 for the strain.

Pointes in Process of Cleaning Up After Storm

(Continued from Page 1) the DPW working overtime. The city was making up its payroll, which covered the overtime work of crews, this week and it's unknown what this extra amount will be.

Crews will systematically go through the city with the chippers and grind up limbs and branches which residents should place between the sidewalk and the curb, he said. City employees cannot go into rear yards to get trees; this is the responsibility of property owners.

Standing in darkened city offices the morning of March 4, Mr. Petersen expressed his concern over the "lack of priorities" that Edison placed on the community.

He indicated power was restored to a variety of other areas and buildings of less importance than the municipal building "where the entire communications network must be able to maintain power." He felt "something was drastically wrong" on the priority front.

After power was restored early on March 5, Mr. Petersen said Edison was "convinced" and "convinced if we lost our auxiliary generator, we would lose all communications for police and fire. We should have had second priority after Saint John Hospital." He felt Edison agreed and action was thus obtained.

In fact, Mr. Petersen said the auxiliary generator failed on the evening of March 4 for a few minutes but was started up again. He noted it had been running continuously since 10 a.m. March 2.

Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos echoed Mr. Petersen's view on priorities. He felt the city should have received some priority in such a situation. The mayor said several calls were made on Thursday with these calls culminating in a call to Edison president John Hamann.

In a final note in such an emergency situation, Mr. Petersen requested residents not to call the city to see if Woods schools were open because it ties up switchboards, which could be needed for emergency calls.

On the police-fire side,

Public Safety Director Henry Marchand said Tuesday morning, March 2, through Thursday morning, March 4, were the busiest days he's seen since he's been at the department, (some 29 years), regarding the number of calls.

During that time period, around 360 calls, the greater majority of which were downed wire communications, (an amount he termed "unreal"), were received. Of these, around 50 were fire runs, e.g., transformers burning or poles burning. The worst blaze was the destruction of a garage in Brys drive via a downed wire, he said.

Officers also estimated that around 300 limbs-down runs, which weren't recorded in report form, were made during the March 2-4 period.

During this time, Director Marchand said there were no major problems on the public safety front. "Our primary concern was the safety of our residents, particularly with wires down. In all, the residents have been cooperative."

He stressed that all members of the department including officers, auxiliaries, meter maids, clerk dispatchers and records clerks, did a "real fine professional job." Many officers and auxiliaries reported for duty without being called, the director stated, while meter maids, records clerks and dispatchers pitched in to cover the phones.

Edison had an emergency station, free of charge from the city, in the basement of public safety headquarters for the dispatching of construction crews during the emergency.

On the morning of March 4, Charles Hunsanger, supervisor, said he had been on duty since 1 a.m. on the 2nd, existing mainly on "cat naps." (He finally got off duty Monday morning, March 8).

Mr. Hunsanger supervised a crew of about 18 men, providing them with flares, flashlights, stop signs, rain suits and other safety equipment. He said the main objective of his crew is to protect citizens and evaluate disaster conditions, e.g., wires down. "All hazards to the public are fixed first," he said, while adding he remains in constant contact with the main office in downtown Detroit.

He noted there were 10 similar stations in the greater Detroit metropolitan area with his mainly serving the Pointes.

While the morning of March 4 was on the calm side, Mr. Hunsanger said any bad weather affects the work of all Edison crews. He expressed a hope that good weather was around the corner. However, the following day heavy winds caused further problems for Edison workers on the power restoration front.

THE PARK
By James J. Njain
Approximately 1,500 homes, south and north of Jefferson, were initially without light and heat because of the freezing rain storm. Windmill Pointe Park was completely blacked out but regained power again on March 5.

A complete loss of electrical power was felt in homes on Jefferson, between Nottingham and Devonshire, from 10 p.m. Wednesday, March 3, until 2 a.m. on Thursday, March 4, when power was restored.

On March 4, homes and businesses, which receive power from the Chatsworth area hook up, were completely repaired and power was returned.

South of the Jefferson area, bordering Windmill Pointe drive, Nottingham and Beaconsfield, which is fed electricity from lines in the Korte road area, were completely out last week.

Pierce Middle School, Defer and Trombly Schools were hit by the power failure and all are now back to normal. Residents living in the vicinity were invited to use the Defer basement and gymnasium to warm up and were treated to hot coffee and food. People from other Pointes also were made welcome and partook of refreshments.

A number of homes, especially along Windmill Pointe drive, having sump pumps, experienced flooded basements because the electricity cutoff made the pumps inoperative. Fortunately, not all pumps were knocked out, and this prevented a rash of basement flooding.

The Park Municipal Building wasn't affected by the power breakdown because of two separate circuits that fed electricity to the building, which houses the municipal offices and police station, and to the fire station and DPW garage.

City Manager Robert Slone said Edison crews were assisted in repairing damages by crews from Toledo and Chicago, brought to the area by the Detroit firm.

He said this, to the best of his knowledge, was the worst storm to ever hit the area, as far as knocking down power lines and causing a loss of electricity to so many homes.

He also said the weight of the ice toppled 15 large trees, which were ripped from the ground by the roots. There also were large segments of about 100 trees, which had limbs broken off by the weight of the ice. These were all on public property, i.e., between the curb and sidewalk. The loss of trees and tree branches on private properties isn't known.

Fire Chief Phillip Costa said that from 10:56 a.m. March 2 to 8 a.m. March 3, his firefighters remained at 82 locations where wires were down and remained until an Edison crew took over. There were four ambulance runs, and six fire runs, two of them to houses.

He said the house fires weren't storm related. One was to put out a burning living room couch, the fire of which was caused by a two-year-old playing with her father's lighter. The second fire was minor.

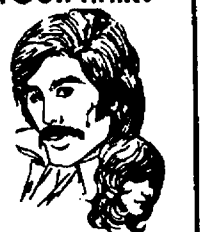

The chief said that a Windmill Pointe drive resident requested assistance from an Edison crew, who, under the supervision of Assistant Chief David Taylor, hooked up an electrical line to a sump pump in the resident's basement when the water became too high.

In a report of storm damage for the council at the regular meeting Monday, March 8, Mr. Slone said the city had suffered considerable damage.

"We have used three tree contractors along with our regular Public Works Department to clean the debris." (Continued on Page 4)

Service Station Hit by Robber

Someone took an estimated total of $1,400 in miscellaneous cash and between $300-$400 in checks from an unlocked safe at the Miracle Mile Service Station, 20065 Mack avenue, Monday morning, March 1, reported Woods police.

An employee said he went inside the station to get a tool and as he was walking through the door, the suspect walked to the front door. After exiting, he ran between the station and the ice cream parlor next door. He ultimately ran between Abee Jewelers and Henry's Cleaners and escaped from the scene.

The complainant returned to the gas station and, upon checking the safe, discovered the money missing.

Described as a black male, between 25-30 years of age, about 6'2" tall and around 200 pounds, the suspect wore wire-rimmed glasses, a beige corduroy waist-length jacket with a fur collar and a beige hat.

Proposed Bicentennial Projects Given Approval

By Roger A. Waha

Five separate motions were released in "bang-bang" fashion by The Woods Council in relation to five separate Bicentennial Commission requests at the regular meeting Monday, March 1.

The main one granted the group permission to hold a big festival at Ghesquire Park for three days, (July 3-5), for citizens of all the Pointes.

Obviously pleased by the quick action, Robert E. Trinklein, commission chairman, stressed his hope that the event will feature an "old-fashioned type picnic atmosphere."

Plans at this time include entertainment for all age groups, high school dance bands, a singing group, a stage and sound system, posters, balloons, soft drinks, barbecue grills, cotton candy, popcorn, covered areas and booths and porta johns. The estimated cost is placed at around $2,000 with Mr. Trinklein indicating local service clubs will provide the funds.

He hopes to hold the festival at least two of the three days with the extra day being provided in case of inclement weather. Further details will have to be worked out on all the particulars but Mr. Trinklein says, "It's going to be a great thing."

The second approved request should help ease any potential parking problems in the immediate area on festival days as the council agreed to make available the city's Kiwanis buses for a stop at city hall while they go on their normal routes to and from the Lake Front Park.

A little tougher request, (for quick action), was one of making beer available for the event under the direction of responsible organizations which will abide by all laws. This was referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study.

The other pair of commission bids had nothing directly to do with the festival. Mr. Trinklein proposed, in keeping with the celebration, that flag poles be clamped on parking meters along Mack avenue so flags could be flown in front of every business, (with every second or third meter having the poles).

At this point, it's planned that merchants supply the clamps and be responsible for taking down the flags at night. Further details on this will be worked out by Mr. Trinklein and City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

Finally, Mr. Trinklein asked the city to purchase signs designating The Woods as an official Bicentennial community, (which it is), and having them installed at all entrance signs to the community.

At the same time, he asked that all such signs, which he claimed were on the rusty side and needed attention, be repainted. Rather than have white lettering on a black background, he suggested having white lettering on a blue background with the support posts being painted red and the council agreed.

In a final note, Mr. Trinklein asked any club or organization, which might participate in the festival by providing entertainment, to call him at 881-2805.

Thousands Were Without Power in Pointe Area

(Continued from Page 2) All streets are open. It will take a number of weeks to clear the area and chip brush and tree limbs," he said.

"At this time, practically all electrical service has been restored with the exception of about 300 homes south of Jefferson. These will not be in service until Sunday night or later."

For those persons in the affected area, who so desire, the council chambers have been made available for lodging. The resident is to provide his own bedding. "We also will transfer the infirm by ambulance to another residence in Grosse Pointe Park or to the regular emergency hospitals," he stated.

"Telephones are out on an individual residential basis throughout the city. We are most fortunate that the two electrical circuits supplying the Sewer Pumping Station were not disrupted," added Mr. Stone.

THE CITY

By Susan McDonald

On Monday, March 1, City police answered four calls for help but on Tuesday, March 2, they answered more than an estimated 600-700.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach estimates that 65-75 percent of The City was without electricity for 56 hours from Tuesday noon through Thursday night. The wind storm on Friday, March 5, caused additional electrical loss, beginning at about 2 p.m. in Lakeland, Woodland and Stratton roads, south of Jefferson. These areas hadn't lost electricity before the ice storm.

After all is said and done, Mr. Kressbach wouldn't be surprised if all city residents went without power for some amount of time. As of Monday, March 8, eight blocks were without power, (about 10 percent of the community).

Damage is the "worst in my memory," according to Mr. Kressbach, who estimates about a four- to six-week clean up job will be necessary, although most emergency type limbs were removed by Friday noon.

City police, fire and public works people are all working overtime "running from one emergency situation to another," he said, although activity began to slack off Friday afternoon.

The City has also hired Davey Tree Co. and Shock Bros. to help with the clean up and are computing costs now.

Residents have been requested, if possible, to cut up fallen limbs into pieces about four feet in length.

Citizen volunteers really helped out, too, guarding lines, riding with police and cutting up trees, said Mr. Kressbach. "It's been hard on some of the citizens, but they have been very understanding and generally helpful."

Water works manager Bob Vens also went around to homes using sump pumps with an electric generator to help pump out basements on his own time.

Costs to The City include numerous uprooted sidewalks, tree disposal overtime and the cost of work via Davey and Shock. Mr. Kressbach estimated that about 12 homes had their roofs caved in by tree limbs and hundreds have suffered minor damage. The William Austin, Inc., interior decorating company in Kercheval place had its chimney crash through the roof and ultimately lay all over the file cabinets with plaster, steel girders, et al, scattered about. The probable cause was the wind and a possibly defective chimney.

City offices had power the entire time and never lost the communication systems.

Meanwhile, between March 3-5, some 85 fire runs were reported, all because of downed wire calls. Several rooms were damaged via a blaze at a Lincoln road home on March 3, while a kitchen fire was reported on March 6.

THE SHORES

By James J. Njalm

Village Superintendent Thomas Jefferis said approximately 80 percent of the homes in the Village were without electrical power due to the storm. As of Monday, March 8, there were still a few homes without electricity.

Mr. Jefferis stated the storm was the worst he has experienced during the 30 years he has been superintendent of The Shores.

The power failure affected the regular lines to the main storm water pumping station in Cook road, which handles all the pumping in The Shores and the auxiliary pump station at Lakeshore and Crestwood, something he thought would never happen.

As a result of the stations being inoperative, some homes had flooded basements, and home sump pumps were not operable because of the power failure.

The Village hall, public safety station and DPW garage maintained power because of an auxiliary generator, which runs on natural gas, and automatically went into operation when the electricity was cut off.

When the station pumps went dead, a pump installed at the shoreline about five years ago at the height of the cresting lake waters, (which is also operated on natural gas), was put into use and did a very effective job.

Mr. Jefferis said this is the first time since he has been on the job that both lines were knocked out. "The pump on the shoreline did a very good job, so we were all right. It was a good thing there was no heavy rain after the freeze and the power breakdown or we would have been in a lot of trouble," he stated.

Mr. Jefferis said the Village did not have any trees uprooted on Village property, but numerous trees were reported knocked over on private property. However, many Village-owned trees had large limbs broken off.

He believes the reason trees were uprooted was because there was no frost in the ground. This was due to the fact the area has had so much snow this winter, with the snow acting as a blanket, preventing the soil from becoming hard. As a result of all the snow, the frost was prevented from penetrating into the ground to make it firm.

Crews from Chicago and Toledo assisted Detroit Edison linemen in the repairs, and it was a crew from Toledo that made the line repairs to the storm water pumping stations and got them to operate again.

THE FARMS

By Tom Greenwood

At The Farms city hall, city fathers are trying to maintain normal services while at half-power electrically. City offices, police and fire departments are all operating on one line of electricity as of Monday, March 8.

In city hall, secretaries and officials try to stay warm with the aid of a propane heater, while firemen heat part of their department with the gas stove in their kitchen. The police are making do with jackets and portable electric heaters.

Department of Public Works employees, plus Pier Park personnel, are working to clear city streets from debris. "The crews have been working almost non-stop," said City Manager Andrew Bremer. "They've also been working nights since Saturday, March 6. The problem there is many streets don't have any lights."

Mr. Bremer estimates that The Farms may have suffered $50,000 in damages, but "absolute figures won't be available until payroll figures come in."

"Our main concern is clearing the streets," said Mr. Bremer. "We have to remove dangerous limbs from tree tops and get the city moving again. We estimate it will probably be a month before the city is all cleaned up."

The Farms is trying to salvage some benefits for its citizens by saving the bigger tree branches and giving them, free of charge, to residents needing firewood to fuel fireplaces. The wood is available at the Pier Park.

The fire department received 112 runs as of March 8. "Our greatest problem was with downed wires," said Lt. Arthur Turner. "We also responded to flooded basements and small fires caused by arcing wires."

ed that no off-duty crews were called in to help out.

THE HOSPITALS

Of the three area hospitals, Saint John was the hardest hit but in all cases, essential services weren't interrupted.

A Saint John spokesman said the hospital was on its emergency generator from noon March 2 until 3 p.m. March 4 when power was restored. The new educational facility and administrative area were blacked out during that time.

Both Bon Secours and Cottage Hospitals reported they weren't affected by any power loss although, in the case of Cottage, cross-connecting of feeder lines to keep the power flowing was necessary.

According to Cottage administrator Ralph L. Wilgarde, chief engineer Roscoe B. Brown said it became necessary for the hospital to go on an energy conservation program to reduce the load.

THE SCHOOLS

All schools were closed on March 3 and 4, while three were closed on March 5. They were Kerby, Brownell and Trombly. On Monday, March 8, all schools were open.

No known damage to school buildings was reported. Dr. George T. Eddington, assistant to Superintendent of Schools Dr. James A. Adams, feels that everything went very smoothly regarding the closings with very few youngsters showing up for classes.

This spring, do something about next winter's heating costs.

Insulate!

More than 100,000 Michigan Consolidated Gas Company heating customers have taken advantage of our low-cost ceiling insulation program in the past two years.

Originated under the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, we are presenting the program again this spring.

Why insulate? Because it helps hold down home heating costs. With the cost of gas continuing to rise, installing ceiling insulation has never made more sense than it does right now. Many Michigan Consolidated customers have already reduced their gas consumption for home heating by as much as 17%. And you can save just as much by installing six inches of ceiling insulation in your home this spring.

How much does it cost? Many homeowners can install insulation themselves for about $125. That's a smart investment when the money you save on heating can repay the insulation cost in just a few years. We have a free handbook that shows you just how to do the job, whether you'll be insulating for the first time or adding to insulation that's been there for many years. You can get a copy at any Michigan Consolidated Gas Company Business Office, most building supply dealers, or write or call us.

If you'd rather not do the job yourself, one of our participating subcontractors can. Total cost is about $250 for homes with less than 1000 sq. ft. of ceiling area. You can pay cash. You can pay 20% down and pay the balance without interest over your next three gas bills. Or you can make extended payments at the interest rate of 1% per month on the unpaid balance (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%).

So why not insulate this spring? You'll make next winter's heating costs less than they might be without it. And if you have air conditioning, you'll save on this summer's cooling costs, too.

MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS COMPANY

Duplex-Type Homes Law

(Continued from Page 1) posal was to "maintain the original aesthetics in existence from the time the building permit was granted," stated Mr. Gilizen, who added it's not the intent of the recommendation to infringe upon an owner's attempt to improve his building.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said such a proposal is an attempt to avoid having one family do exterior work of one kind and have another family doing something else. He felt it wasn't in the best interest of a community not to control such work on a duplex or multiple family dwelling.

As an example, the possibility of one half of a duplex being painted one color and the other half, another, was cited.

For his part, Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos was against the proposal as written. He felt a single owner of a duplex home shouldn't be required to come before the commission for any alteration, while saying proper language should be striven for.

Various points were viewed at the commission's meeting with the original intent of the discussion being an attempt to regulate deterioration of property values of duplex-type homes.

A problem occurs when the duplex building is divided in ownership and one owner wants to do something to the exterior which is different from what the other owner wants, it was reported.

City Attorney George Catlin cited his comments in the minutes wherein he advised that imposing an ordinance making unlawful the separate ownership of a duplex-style building could be challenged as confiscatory of private property without due process or the payment of just compensation.

He recommended an amendment to Ordinance No. 88 requiring any proposed repair, remodeling, renovation or repainting of a duplex housing unit, which would result in the alteration of the exterior appearance in favor of one-half the unit to the detriment of the remaining one-half unit, would require Planning Commission approval after a public hearing. Appeal should be provided to the Board of Appeals.

Finally, the minutes said a definition of a duplex housing unit should be incorporated as a side-by-side two family housing unit separated by a common wall.

At this point, however, it's up to the council to explore the recommendation in executive session. What ultimately transpires on this is an unknown factor at this time.

The second recommendation, made by the commission at its Tuesday, February 24, meeting, was concurred with by the council.

This "free" said that the Traffic Safety Division of the Michigan AAA be requested to conduct a study of the Verner Morningside intersection as to the feasibility of installing additional coordinated traffic signals at that location for the purpose of improving and controlling the safe movement of traffic.

Millage Bid

South High will be represented by Eugene Wigglesworth, Al Essaides, Ken Ginger, Richard Henn and Rita Cary.

Others on the committee will be Gerda Bielitz from the libraries and Russell Jones from the pupil personnel department.

Clark Promoted

National Bank of Detroit has announced the promotion of Glenn R. Clark to Banking Officer in NBD's Regional Banking Division. An NBD employee for 21 years, Mr. Clark is manager of the bank's office at Kercheval and St. Clair. He is a director of the "Village Association" and former secretary-treasurer of the Grosse Pointe Lions Club.

Club Sponsors Survival Class

The Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo avenue, will sponsor a Wilderness Survival Training Weekend for teens and young adults on April 2-4. The program will be held at the Highland Recreation Area near Pontiac.

John Shaheen, club program supervisor for teen activities, said the training weekend is being offered in cooperation with Round River Adventures, an Ann Arbor-based outfitter which has run similar programs through the University of Michigan and the Ann Arbor Public School system.

He noted the weekend course is a novice program, designed for those without previous survival training. Previous camping experience is helpful but not necessary. "All you need is a sleeping bag and the clothes on your back," said Mr. Shaheen.

The first night will be spent in a prepared tent shelter with clinics on fire building, shelter construction, wild edibles, wilderness first aid, map and compass and emergency survival procedures following on Saturday.

Then, Saturday night will find participants sleeping in hand made shelters, perhaps without the benefit of a sleeping bag.

Mr. Shaheen emphasized that professional instructors will be running the program, and that protective shelters will be available in the event of severe weather. Neighborhood Club staff members also will be taking part as well as chaperoning the weekend.

Bicentennial Shirts for Sale

Wayne County Bicentennial T-Shirts featuring a logo saying "This Is Our Country," 1776-1976, are still available for sale, reports Arthur J. Kuehn, chairman of the Woods Bicentennial Clown Corps.

As a fund raising project, the corps, which includes some 25 young people from the first through 12th grades, is currently selling the shirts at $2.95 each. Sizes include small, medium and large. They may be obtained by contacting Mr. Kuehn at TU 1-8186.

The fee for the event is $19 and includes all transportation, food, instruction and materials. Space is strictly limited, so interested participants should register as soon as possible at the Neighborhood Club or by mail.

The registration deadline is Friday, March 26. Further details are available at the club or by calling 885-4600.

Four to Retire From Schools

The Board of Education accepted notification of the retirement of four school employees at the Monday, March 8, meeting, thanking them all for their years of service to the district.

John Thursby, South High School's assistant principal for the past nine years, will enter a disability retirement in May. He has been with the district for 21 years, starting out as a social studies teacher and working as a basketball coach and high school counselor.

"We all regret that Mr. Thursby's recent years have been difficult for him because of his illness," Superintendent Dr. James A. Adams said. "But I can safely say that I have never seen anyone perform as well as he has under extremely painful conditions."

Frederick Nelson, who will retire in June, has spent his entire 30 years with Grosse Pointe schools, teaching speech and English at South High School. He has also served as the school's drama coach and in 1955 was president of the Grosse Pointe Federation of Teachers.

A first and second grade teacher for 21 years at Richard and Maire elementary schools, Mrs. Lillian Seegers, will also retire in June.

Retiring because of health problems on March 26, will be Mrs. Rosemary Linde, who has worked as a guidance secretary at South High School.

One man earns a living he doesn't get—and another gets a living he doesn't earn.

Woods Amends Plumbing Code

An ordinance to amend the city code of The Woods was unanimously approved by the council at its regular meeting Monday, February 23. Changed is a subsection, (license or registration fees), under a section of the plumbing code towards compliance with a chapter of Michigan Compiled Laws 1970.

The measure, adopted as an emergency law which takes effect immediately upon enactment, establishes fees in the area of plumbing contracting work.

It says all master plumbers performing work within the city shall register their State Master Plumber's License with the city at a $1 fee. All journeyman plumbers doing work within the city shall register their State Journeyman Plumber's License at a fee of 50 cents.

The measure also notes that all maintenance and alteration contractors permitted to do sewer work by the State under Act 383 of the Public Acts of 1965, as amended, shall register their license at a $5 fee.

Finally, it says all plumbing contractors engaged in performing plumbing work within the city shall obtain a Plumbing Contractor's License from the city at a $9 fee.

Okays Project for Retarded

A request for a Bicentennial project for mentally retarded students, planned for the Lake Front Park, was unanimously approved by The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, March 1.

Working as a Bicentennial volunteer for the State through the Department of Community Services, Kay L. Hicks said she was hoping to locate a small parcel of land for a group of trainable mentally retarded students from Poupard School to plant flowers. She hoped for a spot at the park or in "some other noticeable place."

Administrative aide Gerard McNamara, in a memo to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, recommended the area surrounding the three new flag poles be designated for use by the children.

He said the location meets the approval of Robert E. Trinklein, chairman of the Bicentennial Commission, Dr. Albert C. Howe, chairman of the Beautification Commission, and Donald J. Hallmann, director of Parks and Recreation.

Mr. McNamara added an anticipated 24 children will be involved with supervision in a ratio of three youngsters to one supervisor. When the planting plan is selected, it will be forwarded for approval.

At the meeting, Mr. Petersen told the council this group of youngsters is the same one the council annually permits to use the park swimming facilities. He highly recommended council approval of this planned activity.

Divided on Question of Seeking Funds

In this regard, he called it a value judgment regarding running such a risk, i.e., if such funds were utilized and the city was possibly confronted with court action wherein, for instance, a non-resident, who claimed he was asked to leave a park facility, claimed his tax dollars were used to help pay for improvements.

Carrying this viewpoint further is that such a situation might result in ultimately opening up all parks to non-residents depending on the result of such a court action.

Wants It in Writing

Mr. Kefgen indicated, despite State and/or Federal officials verbally offering guarantees in such a case, he liked to have assurances in writing but quickly added this probably wouldn't happen. The overall aura of possible strings being attached also is involved here, he feels.

So while it may take longer to upgrade the tennis courts at Ghesquiere with the use of only local monies, Mr. Kefgen preferred this route for the aforementioned reasons.

He said this wasn't the first time this type of application was considered. Citing the proposed fishing pier and the considered use of outside funds at one time, he said he was told by a State official there was no way the city could prevent anyone from using the pier.

Mr. Kefgen indicated the State official said the city couldn't be told who to have in the park but there was no way to stop non-residents from using the pier.

Besides this, he added there is always a problem in getting such funds as some communities aren't as needy in this regard as others.

Could Change Mind

For her part, Mrs. Mullan cited a concern that, if the city decided to apply for such monies, the application might come back approved and at that time no strings would be attached.

But she stated the Federal Government might offer no guarantees for the future, and cited the possibility of an imposition of rules along the way. A possible court test and a potential change from a private park for residents only to a public park were other concerns.

City Attorney George Catlin said if the city accepted funds and if the issue was tested, it might be hard to protect Lake Front Park because monies would have been taken and applied to recreation facilities. Hence, there would be a co-mingling of local funds and outside funds.

If the city accepted outside funds for resurfacing of the tennis courts and rejected participation by non-residents, it was a possibility that the community could be faced with litigation and that such litigation could affect, not only Ghesquiere Park, but other parks as well.

While these viewpoints offer some "ifs" and might be considered speculative by some, they were concerns which were expressed and which played roles in the final vote of refusal.

Pinkos Doesn't Agree

While appreciating the concern of some of his colleagues, Mr. Pinkos doesn't agree with their viewpoints.

"If the city applies for Federal funds, this doesn't mean we will give away the store," he stressed. He felt the city would know if there were any strings attached along the way with a final determination being made based upon such "strings."

He felt the city should apply for all the funds it can get from the Federal Government inasmuch as the Federal Government is "we," (the people). "If at any time conditions to accept funds prove too stringent that we couldn't live with them, we would stop there before such funds are accepted."

Wants More Study

Aware of the specific concerns regarding such funds for recreation-related improvements, he felt such applications and potential strings should be further explored before saying "no," while stressing he's definitely against any loss of local control, whether it be in the area of parks or anything else. In this case, he indicated concerns expressed were more conjecture and hearsay than fact.

"We as a council can't sit back and be afraid to do anything in this regard," he continued, while adding in such cases that Administrative Aide Gerard McNamara, who puts much work in this area, might be wasting his time.

'Beyond The Classroom' Tours Entrance Students

From an artist's sketch to the assemblyline in the making of a Detroit automobile from weather forecasting to flight service at a major international airport from concept to construction of Detroit Renaissance.

These diverse and exciting journeys to enrichment have been part of an innovative, new University Liggett program known as "Beyond the Classroom," a career awareness project developed and sponsored by the ULS Alumni Association.

Begun last fall, the unique program is designed to provide upper school students a stimulating, inside look at the scope and reality of selected careers in the Detroit area.

To date, selected students have made off-campus visits — generally one each month — to such diverse locations as Detroit Metropolitan Airport, Harper Hospital, Wayne State University Law School, the Ford Motor Company's Design Center, the Detroit News and Parklane Towers, birthplace of Detroit's Renaissance Center.

Besides off-campus excursions, the program also involves a speaker's series in which guests representing selected fields address all upper school students at a school assembly.

The most recent off-campus trip took students interested in careers in journalism to the editorial offices of the "Detroit News" and to the "News" ultramodern printing and telecommunications plant in Sterling Heights.

There students witnessed firsthand the almost instantaneous relay of news from reporter to editor to make-up manager to printer. As one of the nation's first major metropolitan newspapers fully-equipped with PERT (cathode ray tube), electronic relaying devices, the journey of the "News" proved one of the most fascinating and timely experiences for ULS students.

Another stimulating excursion took students to the nation's 12th busiest airport for an inside look at national weather forecasting, airport management and airline public relations. A highlight of the trip to Detroit-Wayne County Metropolitan Airport was a meeting with the regional director of U.S. Customs in Detroit who fascinated students with an account of how Customs officers identify potential problems at U.S. borders.

Earlier this year, students interested in medical careers visited Harper Hospital where Dr. George Kling, chief of the hospital's Department of Radiology, discussed medicine and hospital management and conducted a tour through parts of the facility. Dr. Kling later addressed an upper school assembly conducted by students who participated in the excursion.

Detroit's Renaissance Center, from planning to funding to construction along the Detroit riverfront, was the subject of still another program for students interested in land development. This time, off-campus excursion took students to the Park Lane Towers where Richard Gove, administrative manager of the Ford Motor Land Development Corporation, detailed creation of the multi-million-dollar project which now dominates the Detroit skyline.

ULS students interested in careers in law toured Wayne State University Law School, sat in on a law class, met informally with a law professor, and attended a moot trial in which Wayne law students gain trial experience by arguing hypothetical cases.

Another "Beyond the Classroom" excursion offered students an inside look at the competitive world of Detroit automaking, from auto design to manufacture, advertising and promotion. Students visited the Ford Design Center, Dearborn Assembly Plant, and the advertising offices of J. Walter Thompson, a prime ad agency for the Ford Motor Company. Donald F. Kopka, executive director of Ford's Truck, Tractor and Industrial Design Section, later spoke at the school on design, public relations and promotion in the auto industry.

More than just school-sponsored field trips, "Beyond the Classroom" excursions offer interested students an invaluable opportunity to experience the immediacy of a career as it is actually practiced. Students meet informally with career leaders, see how and where they work and gain insight into what they do. Students who participate in an excursion later introduce speakers and detail their experiences at a school assembly devoted to that field of interest.

Though students participate on a voluntary basis and are not required to complete "Beyond the Classroom" homework assignments, teachers have noted that the excursions and speakers series have prompted essays, themes and other written reports based on students' experiences and newly-acquired insights. That, essentially, is what "Beyond the Classroom" is all about, an effort to excite the imagination, arouse curiosity and enliven intellectual interests based on real experiences.

The two remaining programs for this year will take students from Michigan's only solar collector to the studios of a private video taping firm. Planned for students interested in electronic communications the trip to the taping studio will offer students an unusual opportunity to see a commercial actually being prepared for television viewing.

Climaxing this year's program will be a visit in April to the architectural offices of Smith, Hinchman & Grylls Associates, designer of Michigan's only and one of the Midwest's few operating solar collectors.

Located on the roof of the Smith, Hinchman building at 455 West Fort street in Detroit, the solar collector is actually a giant water tank designed to absorb energy from the sun. The solar-heated water is used in such diverse applications as heating baseboards, keeping cooling water from freezing and running a free-temperature water chiller to cool the firm's computer room.

ULS students are among the first high-school groups invited to observe the pioneering unit in operation and talk with architects and engineers studying the relative costs and potential efficiency of using alternate sources of energy.

"Beyond the Classroom" excursions are conducted during school hours and are limited to about 30 students expressing interest in a specific career field. Transportation is provided by the ULS Parents Association. Arrangements for excursions and speakers are made by the ULS Alumni Association, acting on suggestions from both students and faculty.

"Beyond the Classroom" is regarded as a model career awareness program because it uses resources of both the school and community to provide students with enriching educational experiences outside the classroom setting.

Chronic worriers are people who let troubles go in one ear and never come out. Kindness sometimes consists in telling a few little white lies exceptionally well.

Proteins are essential constituents of the cells of all living tissues. The word protein is derived from a Greek word meaning "Primary", which suggest its importance to life. Proteins are necessary to everybody, to help build new tissues, and to repair those tissues which wear out. Proteins cannot be stored in the human body, as are carbohydrates, and fats, but must be supplied regularly by eating animal or plant foods which contain them. Irving Wallace's novels have made him one of America's best-known and best-selling storytellers. Now to the list of such best sellers, as The Fan Club, The Word, The Seven Minutes and The Plot he has added his most timely and compelling novel to date: The R Document — the story of a conspiracy to destroy the Bill of Rights, of an attempt by the FBI to take over the country. Shocking, authentic, excitingly readable, blending inside fact with fiction as only Irving Wallace can, The R Document will be one of the most widely read and talked-about novels of the year.

GP Symphony Concert Offers Pleasing Variety

By Betty McCallister

The Beethoven Triple Concerto, for violin, cello, piano and orchestra, the featured work at Sunday's, (March 7), GP Symphony concert, is seldom performed, partly, no doubt, because it's difficult to get three artists for one concert. However, there are those who find it at times ungainly and longwinded.

It is a treat to hear once in a while, however, and, as performed by Elizabeth Peterson, violin, Arlayne Olson, cello, and Louise Gall, piano, it provided a worthwhile "piece de resistance." The three artists have played together long enough to have developed a good ensemble feel. On the debit side, the balance of instruments was unsatisfactory, the piano coming out authoritatively but the strings not always so. This may be due to the acoustics of the Performing Arts Center in North High.

Instead of the usual rousing overture, the program began with the Andante Cantabile from Tchaikovsky's string quartet, done beautifully by the entire string section. This was in memory of Alois Charnowski, founder and charter member of the orchestra, who died recently.

The rousing overture, Rossini's "The Barber of Seville," which came next, didn't quite jell until about a third of the way through, after which the orchestra hit its stride.

On the second part of the program were three Symphonic Dances by Grieg and three excerpts from "The Damnation of Faust" by Berlioz, distinguished by fine work from the winds and notable solos by the oboist.

These concerts by our local symphony have a cachet all their own, and it was disappointing to see the auditorium only about two-thirds full.

The orchestra could use more violas and cellos. Any one interested should get in touch with Mr. Resnick or simply go to a rehearsal at Parcels at 7 p.m. on Wednesday evenings.

After all that nineteenth century music, it was a refreshing change of pace to go over to The Shores home of Dr. and Mrs. Julio Davila to catch the second half of a charming concert by Le Nuove Muische, a trio of Oakland University music majors: Thomas Coard, recorder, Claudia Dart, lute and viola da gamba, and Marty Liebman, harpsichord. As they played mostly baroque music, with a couple of contemporary pieces, the room was lighted by candles and heated by a large fire in the fireplace, delightfully appropriate to the music and instruments although courtesy of the ice storm rather than the Davilas.

The six-foot harpsichord was built a year ago by Daniel Jencka and, like Ms. Dart's lute, had to be tuned repeatedly because of the temperature, again reproducing baroque conditions.

Le Nuove Muische is available for concerts through Mr. Coard, 373-5107.

PTO at Kerby Holding Display

At 8 p.m. Board Trustee Lee Allen will give a brief presentation and answer questions on the upcoming millage elections.

Blaze Spotted by Fire Chief

Last week's ice storm is believed to be the cause of Grosse Pointe City's first major fire of the year which destroyed the basement and family room of the Henry Gilder home in Lincoln road at about 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 3.

City Fire Chief Robert Marshall said he thinks the fire began when the main electrical service cable leading to the basement shorted out, possibly because of a surge of power coming through the damaged Edison Co. electrical lines.

The fire gutted the basement, breaking a main water line, then spread through the first floor, destroying the family room and had begun climbing up the banister to the second floor before it was brought under control.

Two trucks and six firefighters from The Farms Fire Department assisted all City units in bringing the blaze under control within a half hour.

Chief Marshall said he had been touring the Lincoln road area in search of downed power lines in the wake of Tuesday's ice storm when he noticed smoke coming from the Gilder home chimney. When he knocked at the door to inform them about dangerous wires in their yard he discovered no one was at home.

He also noticed a brown film over all the windows, which he said alerted him to the possibility of a fire.

New Low Tar Entry Packs Taste Of Cigarettes Having 60% More Tar.

'Enriched Flavor' idea succeeds—increases taste of new 9 mg. tar MERIT without the usual increase in tar.

You can write today for a study conducted by the American Institute of Consumer Opinion for Philip Morris showing new MERIT delivers as much—or more—flavor than five current leading low tar cigarettes.

Brands having up to 60% more tar than MERIT!

The reason is 'Enriched Flavor.' An extraordinary taste find developed and perfected after years of research at our Richmond Research Center.

And it's only in MERIT. At 9 mg., lower in tar than 98% of all cigarettes sold today.

If you smoke—you'll be interested.

Taste-Tested By People Like You

9 mg. tar MERIT was taste-tested against five current leading low tar brands ranging from 11 mg. to 15 mg. tar.

Thousands of filter smokers were involved, smokers like yourself, tested at home.*

The results were conclusive. Even if the cigarette tested had 60% more tar than MERIT, a significant majority of all smokers tested reported new 'Enriched Flavor' MERIT delivered more taste.

Repeat: delivered more taste.

In similar tests against 11 mg. to 15 mg. menthol brands, 9 mg. tar MERIT MENTHOL performed strongly too, delivering as much—or more—taste than the higher tar brands tested.

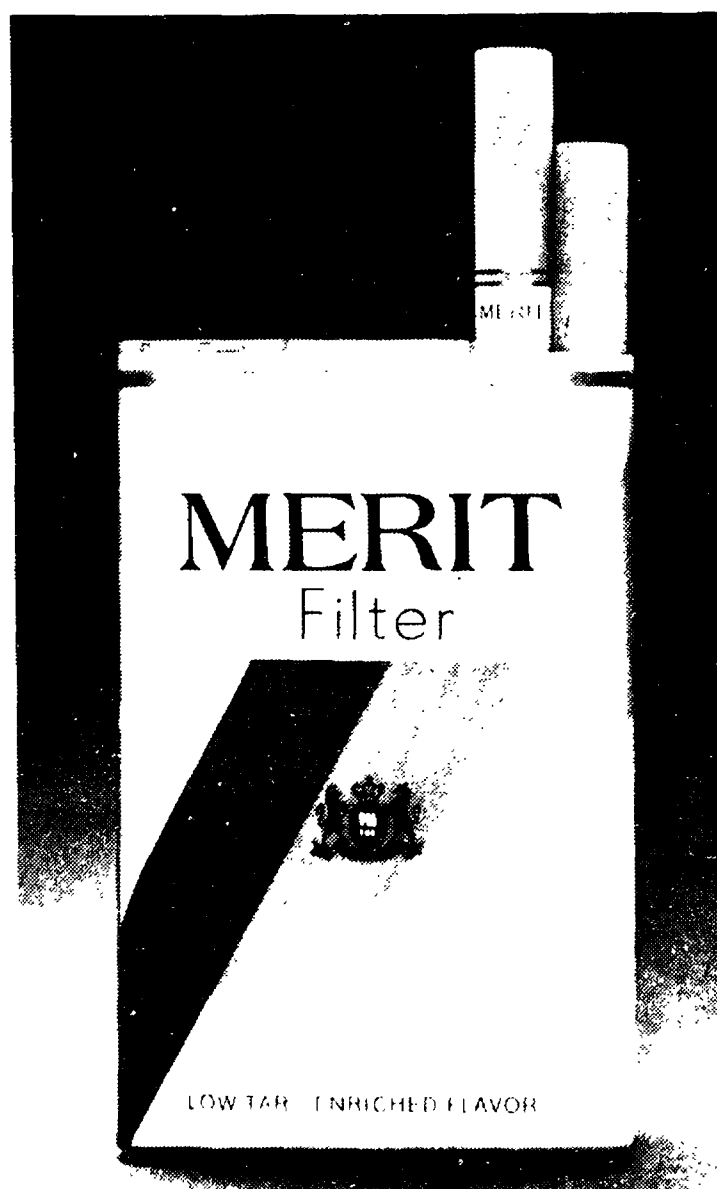

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough. Now smoke the cigarette.

MERIT. Unprecedented flavor at 9 mg. tar.

Friars Advance to Regionals

By Paul T. Denis
Austin rolled over Warren Woods, 65-52, to win the district championship on Friday, March 5, and the right to face Royal Oak Shrine in the regional playoffs. This game was played Wednesday, March 10 (after press time).

Leading the Friars was center Bob Keuten with 21 points. Phil Colletti had 13 points, while Rich Counsman had 12 points and 14 rebounds.

Austin jumped to an early first quarter lead before Warren Woods was able to close it before the half ended.

At this point, Austin was ahead by only three points compared to earlier leads of up to 10 points.

The Friars came out strong in the second half and rolled up an unstoppable momentum.

which was led by Keuten, who was playing with three fouls. A strong fourth quarter by Austin ended Warren Woods' hopes for the district crown.

Austin had to overcome two tough opponents in the early rounds in order to reach the district finals. In the opening round, Austin got by DeLaSalle, 55-52, on Monday, March 1. Colletti scored 19 points to pace the Friars to victory.

The semi-final match against Madison Heights Bishop Foley was not so easy. Austin had to go to overtime to knock off Foley, 64-62, on Wednesday, March 3. The Friars jumped to their usual early lead before the buzzer rang with the score tied 55-55 at the end of regulation play.

After the first overtime, the score was still tied at 60-60. Counsman hit for two of his 17 points with 40 seconds remaining in the second overtime to seal up the victory for Austin. Dan Matzka led the Friars in scoring with 19.

Driver Faces Two Charges

An 18-year-old Woods youth is facing reckless driving and improper backing charges stemming from an incident early Saturday morning, March 6, reported Woods police.

Anthony J. Smith, of Sunningdale was released after posting a $100 bond pending his scheduled court date of May 5 on both charges.

While on patrol, Officer Patrick DeVine saw the driver pull from the curb and go east onto Pear Tree lane. After accelerating very rapidly and turning left onto Wedgewood, police said the driver lost control and struck the curb on the east side.

The auto then bounded into the air with both rear wheels moving over the curb onto the lawn on the west side of 738 Pear Tree. Then, the vehicle struck a tree with its right side, uprooting it.

Police said the driver attempted to pull back onto the street but as the auto bounded off the curb, he again lost control and drove across Wedgewood and up over the lawn on the east side of 760 Pear Tree. The vehicle stopped just short of the sidewalk, digging deep furrows in the sod.

At this point, Officer DeVine pulled the scout car, with its overhead lights flashing, directly behind the auto. After the officer and his partner exited, the driver placed his car in reverse and attempted to back off the lawn. Both officers immediately shouted verbal warnings but the car continued backwards.

Officer DeVine opened the driver's side door and ordered the motorist to apply his brake and place the car in park. The officer said the driver didn't respond and the auto continued on its path.

As a result, Officer DeVine had to be pulled from the path of the vehicle's door by Officer Ronald Hayden to avoid being trapped between the two autos.

The vehicle continued in reverse until the open door hit the front bumper of the police vehicle. At this point, a passenger put the vehicle in park.

The driver was helped from the car and police said he was unsteady on his feet and had a strong odor of alcohol on his breath. He was placed under arrest and taken to the station, while the two passengers were released at the scene.

B Swimmers In Last Meet

The East Detroit Seals Swim Club hosted a Michigan AAU Class B swim meet Saturday-Sunday, February 28-29, which drew hundreds of swimmers. Since it was the last B meet of the 1975-76 winter season more than the usual number of entries competed.

Grosse Pointe swimmers for the Detroit Yacht Club teamed up with their teammates from Detroit, Southfield and Huntington Woods to capture first places in the 10 and under girl's 200 free relay and 10 and under 200-yard mixed free relay.

Pointers taking home Blue ribbons were Ken Baculis, Denise DeSantis and Lori Hurd. Ken also placed second in the 10 and under boys 50-yard back (39.9) and he anchored the 10 and under boys 200 free relay, which placed third.

Other Pointe swimmers who bettered times under the coaching of John Sfire were Mary Austerberry, Terri Austerberry, Gay Storen, Sue Storen, Krista Karmey, Brett Karmey, David Wittwer and Leah Evanski.

University of Michigan pre-law student Kurt O'Keefe, of Buckingham road, attended the midwest Republican Conference at the Hyatt-Regency Hotel in Dearborn recently. Speakers included President Gerald R. Ford, Vice-President Nelson Rockefeller, Governor William Milliken, Senator John Tower and Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz. More than 1,000 Republicans from 12 midwest states were in attendance.

Woods Okays Bike-a-Thon

The Woods Council unanimously approved a request of the American Diabetes Association, (formerly the Michigan Diabetes Association), to conduct its third annual Diabetes Bike-a-Thon which is set for May 8 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This action was taken at the regular council meeting Monday, March 1, towards the end of the session on a motion by Councilman George S. Freeman. This was after the topic had been previously discussed and only received and placed on file with no further action.

The planned route would take cyclists through The Woods, St. Clair Shores, Harper Woods, East Detroit and Roseville. Included streets in The Woods affected streets in the Woods include Mack avenue, Lennon road, Helen avenue, Arthur road and Littlestone road. One of the four cited check points is the Jack-in-the-Box restaurant on Mack.

One of the problems discussed by the council and cited by City Attorney George Catlin revolves around varying degrees of responsibility imposed upon the city regarding such an event.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen told the council the public safety department felt, if the bike-a-thon was approved, the city is assuming liability for the safety of the cyclists. Mr. Catlin indicated if this event was approved and some youngsters were injured, it could result in increased problems for the city.

While overall safety and liability concerns were expressed, Mr. Catlin said even if the council nixed the request, cyclists could still ride through city streets as part of the event.

So after reviewing the matter further, Mr. Freeman said he had no objection to the request, while citing the approval of the route for safety by the Automobile Club of Michigan.

Paul A. Attar, director of development for the association, said all monies raised will be used to help underwrite programs for children and adults with diabetes, for free diabetes testing programs, educational programs for diabetes and professionals in the allied health field and diabetes research in the State.

A native of Detroit, Mr. Hausner, was graduated from the University of Detroit Law School and has served as Chief of the Civil Division in the United States Attorney's Office and Chief of the Criminal Division in the Attorney's Office.

Mr. Hausner is a member of the Michigan State Bar Association and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the American Arbitration Association and the American Judicature Society, the National Association of Colored Peoples, American Civil Liberties Union, Civic Searchlight and the National Historical Society.

Always uncork champagne with great care — the cork is not meant to explode in the air with the wine spilling out. To uncork champagne, remove the wire netting on the cork, tilt the bottle slightly, hold the cork firmly with one hand and turn the bottle, not the cork, with the other. If you do this properly, you allow the gas to escape properly and no explosion occurs. Wipe the rim of the bottle with a napkin, and pour a little champagne into each glass, before filling all the glasses two-thirds full.

Choose from an outstanding selection of fine champagnes at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17253 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626; we stock over 20 different brands. Your complete party shoppe, we also feature an extensive inventory of fine wines, liquors, cordials and beers. Be sure to try our delicious hot sandwiches, submarines, Paul Bunyan and cheeseburgers too. Hours: 10-10 Mon./Thurs., 10-11 Fri., Sat., noon-10 Sun.

13-Year Drought Ends: SHS New Cage Champs

By Tom Shine

The number 13 proved to be lucky for South High's cagers as they defeated Lake Shore 65-57 on Friday, March 5, for South's first District championship in 13 years.

South set up the showdown with the Bi-County League co-champs by defeating North High, who shared the Bi-County title with Lake Shore, 62-45 on Monday March 1, and Lakeview 42-32 on Wednesday, March 3.

South wasn't expected to get past the first game with North, a team which had beaten the Devils twice during the regular season.

After a slow first quarter, with North holding a 10-8 lead, South's offense exploded. The Devils scored 11 points in a row and wound up hitting 10 of 13 shots from the floor for the quarter.

The Norsemens, meanwhile, could muster only two field goals due to some poor shooting and a stiff Devil defense. North trailed 31-17 at the half and were pretty much out of the game.

South opened the third quarter with another scoring barrage to expand their lead to 43-19. South's defense remained firm and North resorted to long range shots, which didn't hit with any consistency, and it never threatened again.

Besides their high shooting percentage, 52 percent from the floor and 84 percent from the foul-line, John Wilson's defensive job on North's Bob Brown was the biggest factor in the Devils' win.

Brown had played a big part in North's two victories over South but Wilson shadowed him for most of the game and held him to only nine points.

Jim Parsons was high scorer with 18 points while Dave Ferris chipped in with 12.

The next test for South was a weak Lakeview team which came very close to upsetting the Devils.

Throughout the first half, Lakeview employed a stall offense. This made the game boring but that didn't seem to bother Lakeview, which held a 19-16 halftime lead.

South, meanwhile, did a turn around from the North game. Its shooting from the floor and foul line was poor. It wasn't able to get into a running type game, due to Lakeview's slowdown, and this rattled the Devils and forced them into many turnovers.

When the third quarter started, Lakeview, for some unknown reason, abandoned the stall offense. This was a costly mistake since their shooting was terrible and they scored only four points the whole period.

The Devils finally came to life in the third quarter. Their full court press forced Lakeview into 14 turnovers for the quarter in easy Devil baskets. South also controlled the boards and led 28-23 as the quarter ended.

South opened the final quarter by scoring six straight points to go ahead comfortably, 34-23. But Lakeview displayed its best shooting of the game to close to 34-29. The Devils then buried Lakeview for good as they began connecting on foul shots to take a 41-32 lead with two minutes remaining.

This win set the stage for the championship game against Lake Shore, which had defeated Detroit Redford on Friday, March 5, to gain the finals.

South combined some hot shooting and good defense to open a 7-2 first quarter lead. The Shorians quickly cut that as they began scoring inside consistently and took a 14-13 lead as the quarter ended.

The Devils began taking advantage of the smaller Lake Shore squad as they dominated the boards. Wilson, Peterson, and Parsons were getting the Devils two and three shots at the basket while allowing Lake Shore only one shot each time down the floor.

Lake Shore was able to keep close only on the strength of its shooting. The Shorians had many chances at the foul line and were almost flawless and as a result, only trailed 34-33 at halftime.

South continued to hold a small lead as the third quarter began and then the Devils got hot. Behind Parsons' shooting, South reeled off eight straight points to go ahead, 50-37.

Lake Shore, after an extended cold spell, managed the last four points of the quarter and trailed 51-40 going into the final period.

South clung to its lead, which ranged from six to eight points, throughout the final quarter. The Devils couldn't expand the lead but never let Lake Shore closer than six points.

The Shorians pulled to 61-55 with 1:30 to go but couldn't score another bucket until a little over 30 seconds remaining.

Once again it was an outstanding defensive effort that allowed the Devils the victory. Bob Thomas, the Shorians' star guard, had scored 40 points against South in a previous meeting but was held to 14 points by Nino Tocco and Grant Piche.

Wilson led all scorers with 18 points while Parsons netted 14.

South advanced to the regional at East Detroit where the Devils will meet Cass Tech.

Results will appear in next week's paper.

North Tankers Win 8th Crown

By Sarah Bleich

The Norsemen swim team finished their '75-'76 season by winning their eighth consecutive Bi-County League meet. North won the meet with eight of the 11 first places and 468 points. Lake Shore finished second with 169 points followed by Clintonville with 162 points, Clintonville with 160 points, South Lake with 130 points and Roseville Brabec with 39 points.

The only double winner in the meet was Matt Sobieski of North. Matt won the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 1:51.4 and the 500-yard freestyle with a time of 5:08.2.

Finishing with first places for North were Shawn Lakin in the 200 individual medley with a time of 2:12.9, Scott Nixon in the 50-yard freestyle with a time of 22.8, and Mark Gerganoff in the 100-yard breaststroke with a time of 1:04.3.

The freestyle relay team made up of Doug Rentschler, Matt Sobieski, Matt Brady and Scott Oberski also captured a first place with a time of 3:29.9.

Receiving first places and also setting new Bi-County records were Mike Brown in the diving competition with a total of 455.2 points, and John Dimond in the 55.9 butterfly with a time of 55.9.

John's time also qualified him for the State meet and set a new Varsity record. The old record was set in 1973 with Mark Craig's time of 56.2.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

During 1975 there were two best sellers that dealt with the subjects of trains and railroads: Michael Crichton's THE GREAT TRAIN ROBBERY (Knopf) and Paul Theroux's THE GREAT RAILWAY BAZAAR (Houghton Mifflin). This week I would like to review for you a sample of some of our other railroading books.

IN DOWN AT THE DEPOT (Pottor) Edwin P. Alexander takes a pictorial look at the American railroad station, those splendid, fanciful, beautifully engineered buildings, symbols of American expansiveness, that dotted the nation for over a century. Often showing a picture of the local populace and of the great iron horses that stopped for passengers and freight, this book is a recreation of a nostalgic moment in American life. Covering stations from New York to California, this book amply fulfills the author's purpose "to recapture an important part of the railroad era."

RAILROADS: AN AMERICAN JOURNEY (New York Graphic Society) by Don Ball is a handsome work with over 300 photographs of steam, electric, and diesel locomotives. The time span is 1950 to the present; the geographic emphasis is on the Northeastern states and Appalachia, with representative shots from the rest of the United States, Canada and Mexico. The text here is brief, but it does not matter; it is the photographs that count, and they are consistently outstanding and beautifully printed.

From the depot and the iron horse we turn to an account of the costly and often beautiful artifact that must rank with the thoroughbred Concord stagecoach and the palatial Mississippi River packet—I am speaking of the private railroad car. In MANSIONS ON RAILS (Howell-North) author Lucius Beebe gives us the story of these opulent palaces. Superb photographs, builders' plans, train sheets and contemporary newspaper accounts are expertly reproduced and complement the informative text.

Would you like to know: Which was the first passenger train? Who was the first to use high-pressure steam in an engine instead of atmospheric pressure? What is the longest tunnel in the world? Where is the highest railroad station? Why did the Brighton and Rottingdean railcars carry lifeboats and lifebelts as standard equipment? How does the Whyte system of wheel arrangement work? The answer to these and to many other questions will be found in RAIL FACTS AND FEATS (Two Continents) by John Marshall. The book is designed for easy reference, and is well illustrated with over 200 black and white illustrations and 16 pages of color. This is an unique compendium of the superlatives of the railway systems of the world.

For the person interested in traveling on some of these railroads, we have several texts such as ENJOY EUROPE BY TRAIN (Scribner) by William Dunn. For each of the 18 Western European and Scandinavian countries covered, the author provides information on regular and special fares, timetables, baggage, tips to porters, stations, currency, customs regulations and travel offices in the United States. This handy guide provides most everything you need to know about rail travel abroad.

Now if antique engines are "your thing," I would recommend EARLY AMERICAN LOCOMOTIVES (Dover) by John H. White. This volume presents a collection of 147 reproductions of the more decorative locomotive engravings published during the late nineteenth century. The illustrations are drawn from the engineering trade press, most particularly from the "Railroad Gazette" and "Engineering." Because of the accuracy and high quality reproduction of these engravings, this handsome book will be of interest to the historian, artist, and model railroader, as well as the railroad buff.

As late as the 1850's the notion that a Bostonian could buy a railroad ticket to California and be there within a week seemed as remote as the fantasies of Jules Verne. The country's dizzying breadth, the Indians, the killing desert, the formidable mountain ranges, snow-clogged passes, and steep river canyons, all stood in the path of a western railroad. What the skeptics overlooked—and a handful of visionaries and vigorous entrepreneurs did not—was that with the help of federal loans and land grants the job could be done in short order. Settlement, like water flowing into an irrigation ditch, would surely follow. That is exactly what happened, and this is the story that is told, and told well, by Keith Wheeler in THE RAILROADERS (Time-Life).

So climb aboard for a reading adventure. Next week: the train and the novel.

First, was bad shooting. This season the Knights could only shoot about 30 percent, and it was not unusual for ULS to miss four or five consecutive four foot shots.

Other times wide-open lay-ups were missed, and three on one breaks ended up only in embarrassment.

The second reason was the lack of team play. The Knights had many excellent athletes but they never really jelled as a team.

Next year's squad doesn't look to be too much more successful than this season's as seven of the 10 players on the varsity team are graduating.

Before the After Party

Launching the Junior League of Detroit's Decorators' Show House program late last month was a "Before the After" party at the white brick, French colonial home of lawyer William B. Cudlip and his wife in Lake Shore road.

All the furniture was taken away, leaving the Cudlip home completely empty to accommodate the 300 party guests who danced to the music of New Yorker Mike Garney on the first floor; dined on crab and chicken crepes, spinach salad, French pastries and Irish and Viennese coffee on the second; had their portraits done by a caricaturist and their palms read on the third floor.

Decorations for the black-tie affair included green and white geometric print tablecloths with centerpiece of artichokes, cauliflower, broccoli, grapes, lemons and limes, which were later donated to Focus: HOPE. Clay pots filled with forced forsythia highlighted the rooms.

The Cudlip home, however, won't remain empty for long. A crew of leading interior designers will soon begin redecorating its 16 rooms for public viewing. The show will run from May 1 through 23 and will feature visual demonstrations. (Continued on Page 21)

Godspell Plays At Music Hall

A major production of "Godspell" will be presented at Music Hall for a two-week Easter Season engagement, starting Tuesday, March 23. The show, a musical adaptation of St. Matthew, was one of the longest running off-Broadway successes in New York where it won critical acclaim for the innocence of its entertainment at a time, 1971, when sex and sensationalism appeared to dominate the musical theater scene. The show disproved that trend with a five year New York run, putting it into a class with "The Three Penny Opera," "The Fantastiks" and "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown." "This production of "Godspell" is the best I've ever seen," said Robert DiChiera, artistic director, of the 10 member cast who will appear at Music Hall during the pre-Easter season. The show's story is the joyous re-enactment in song and dance of the parables and teachings of Jesus. An exuberant and youthful cast uses pantomime and slapstick to put across the ageless story in a new and entertaining way instead of irreverence; some of "Godspell's" highest praise has come from distinguished clergymen. "The show is a musical-spiritual experience," DiChiera points out, "which has played to audiences all over the United States and Europe; it never seems to lose its popularity, drawing each new generation of young theater-goers." "Godspell" was conceived and directed by John-Michael Tebelak, with music and new lyrics by Stephen Schwartz. Tickets priced from $4.50 to $7.50 are available at Hudson's, Grinnell's, Music Hall or may be purchased by charge by calling 963-7680. Performance times are: Saturday and Sunday matinees at 2:00 p.m., Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m., and evenings at 8:30 p.m.

What Is MENSA?

MENSA is an international organization composed solely of people who possess an IQ in the top two percent of the population. There are 26,000 members world-wide, 600 in Michigan and 12 in The Pointe.

One of those 12 is Leo Hardwick, of University place. According to Mr. Hardwick, MENSA provides friendship and conversation that he can't find anywhere else. "You meet people there who can understand what you're talking about; you never have to spell anything out for them."

Mr. Hardwick believes, however, that there are more than 12 Pointers who would qualify for the camaraderie that MENSA membership offers. The group's numbers come nowhere near two percent of the population and, on top of that, only one-third of them are women.

So, with the thought in mind of publicizing the group's existence, and possibly hunting up a few new members, Mr. Hardwick will moderate a panel discussion on MENSA on Channel 56 on Wednesday, March 31, at 11 p.m. National first vice-chairman Gabe Werba, from Bloomfield, and membership officer Roy Saper, will discuss MENSA's activities and how one actually joins the group.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Real estate brokers and their sales persons regularly come into possession of funds belonging to others, and they are or they become trustees for such funds. The expert trustee may exist for varying periods of time, the experts say. As trustees, this means that the brokers have an exacting responsibility to handle these funds in a way which will protect the funds, and hold them in trust. Most states have enacted legislation regulating at least to some extent, the handling of other person's funds. The real estate commissions of many states make periodic examinations of real estate trust accounts.

An experienced real estate agent is an important asset to the buyer as well as the seller so rely on our professional representatives at GROSSE POINTE REAL ESTATE CO., 20087 Mack Ave., Grosse Pointe Woods, 882-0087 to handle all your needs. We keep up to date on the real estate values in this area and will use our knowledge and experience to make sure you receive full market value. "Exclusively in Grosse Pointe." Driver to Get Court Hearing

An Allen Park motorist who drove his car through a red traffic signal while barely going 10 miles an hour, and who tried to turn north onto southbound Lakeshore road, was arrested by a Shores public safety officer and charged with driving while under the influence of liquor.

PSO Bruce Darlington stated in a report of the incident, that he was cruising east on Vernier road on Saturday, March 6, when he observed Richard S. Jakubiak of 17308 Bert, also driving east on the road, at about 8-10 miles an hour, as he approached Lakeshore.

Officer Darlington said that while driving at that speed, Jakubiak went through the traffic signal at the intersection, and with his right side signal on, attempted to make a left turn, north, onto southbound Lakeshore. However, Jakubiak was hindered from doing this because another car blocked his way, so he made a turn north onto the road.

The public safety officer followed behind and observed the driver's auto weaving from lane to lane, still at the slow speed. Activating his flasher and siren, Darlington tried to force Jakubiak to a stop, but the man continued on. Another blast of the siren was ignored by the errant motorist who made a left-hand "U" turn into southbound Lakeshore and continued to creep along. He was finally brought to a stop at Renaud.

PSO Darlington said Jakubiak got out of his car and produced his operator's license and registration without being asked. The officer said the man appeared to be intoxicated, and radioed for assistance, and PSO John Trevillian was dispatched to Jakubiak was driven to the Shores station where he was formally charged with driving while under the influence of liquor and issued a violation ticket. He was later released after posting a bond of $15, pending a court hearing scheduled for April 14.

The Grosse Pointe Public Schools stand to lose considerable money by a quirk in the law. When the single business tax took effect, it replaced the old business taxes including the local property tax on business inventory.

While cities and other local units were to get direct reimbursement for the loss, it was first proposed that the loss to schools was only a paper loss because the state aid to schools guaranteed a certain yield for each mill levied.

It was immediately obvious that membership aid guarantee would not help, (1), those with high SEV who get no guarantee money or, (2), those who levy more than the guaranteed number of mills.

So it was decided to guarantee each district at least 106 percent of the prior year per pupil amount. This was passed quickly with many believing it was to assure no loss to any district.

It soon became evident, however, that some districts would get a windfall under the formula and others, including Grosse Pointe, would lose hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Rep. Phil Mastin and I have introduced legislation to correct this — to give schools the same full reimbursement that local units of government will get. But passage of this package of bills is not a sure thing and the money it would provide cannot be relied on. The only prudent way to approach the problems of the next school year is to assume the bills will not pass.

We will work hard to pass the bills to correct the inequity. The reasons passage can't be assured are that passage will cost on the order of $50 million and that the so-called "rich" school districts are still the target of many legislators.

I hope you will write State Senators William Fitzgerald, John Hertel and Joseph Snyder demanding full reimbursement for money lost by repeal of the inventory tax.

American Flag Project Blooms

A Woods Beautification Commission coordinated project, the installation of a Betsy Ross-13 star American flag made up of flowers, received the approval of The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, March 1.

The council, which had expressed a concern over potential costs of such a project at the Monday, February 23, session and referred this matter to the Committee of the Whole, gave its blessing to the proposal after learning an estimated $75-$85 would be expended to cover the flower bed with top soil.

As proposed, the flag will be around 26 by 13 feet and elevated around two and a half feet. It will be located on the front lawn of the city's municipal building.

Calling this "a symbolic reminder of our heritage during this Bicentennial year," Dr. Albert C. Howe, commission chairman, said the Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club has provided funds for the flowers, (probably petunias), the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe will handle the planting and free fill dirt will be supplied by a local company for the flower bed.

It's hoped work on the project will begin the end of May.

Meanwhile, another commission request, naming of the Vernier road median, was referred to the C-W at the meeting of February 23.

Dr. Howe requested that the entire Vernier road medians within the city be called "Veterans Memorial Parkway," while noting this area from the Harper Woods border on the west to its termination east of the Mack Avenue-Vernier road intersection offers "unlimited potential for the selective planting of flowering trees and shrubs."

He also hoped that a suitable non-metallic sign marker be erected for this project.

Cinema League Meets March 15

"Adventures in Mayaland," a new super-8mm movie featuring Yucatan and Guatemala, will be presented at the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League on Monday, March 15, in the Fries Auditorium of the War Memorial at 8 p.m.

Ester Porter, former French instructor at South High School and a charter member of the league, filmed the movie during a three-week photographic tour last November.

Pictures shown in Yucatan include scenes in Merida, the capital, and Uxmal and Chichen Itza, two of the greatest and most beautiful of the ancient Mayan cities. There also is a trip via an almost impassable jungle road to the seldom visited ruins of Sayil and Labna.

In Guatemala beautiful, mountainous country-side and numerous colorful Indian villages and markets are shown. This includes the Sunday market at Chichicastenango to which some 3,000 Indians from the surrounding area come on foot.

Two other high points of the tour are a trip to Lake Atitlan, one of the world's most beautiful high-altitude lakes, flanked by three volcanic cones and Antigua, the former capital, devastated by a great earthquake in 1773.

The public is invited to attend the film program without charge.

Members of the Cinema League will adjourn to the Fries Ballroom following the program for a reception.
