HEADLINES of the WEEK

Thursday, March 11
PRESIDENT FORD'S DECISIVE victory in Florida prompted Ronald Reagan Wednesday to virtually concede next week's Illinois primary and change strategy in his faltering campaign for the Republican presidential nomination. The Florida primary also reinforced Jimmy Carter's claim to leadership in the Democratic field as his victory over Alabama Gov. George Wallace established him as the new sovereign of Southern politics. Carter said he was sure his win would raise his standings in public opinion polls by a "substantial margin."

DETROIT SCHOOL OFFICIALS report that 897 city students have left the public school system in order to avoid the court-ordered integration plan. The report, which was sent to members of the Board of Education this week, is the first since the start of busing on January 26 to detail the precise number of students who have left the city's public schools as a result of the Federal court order. Previous figures, including those presented to the Federal court's monitoring commission earlier this week, have reported on current enrollment at all city schools.

Saturday, March 13
ELEVEN MEN WERE found dead Friday after a new explosion in a coal mine in Owen Fork, Ky., where 15 men were killed earlier this week. Rescue teams were unable to bring out the latest victims. The bodies were left inside the shaft because mine authorities feared a third explosion could occur. The 11 victims found huddled in the same shaft had climbed inside to try to find out what caused the first explosion and to clean the mine of poisonous gas. Friday's dead included three Federal mine inspectors and one miner who had been working underground Tuesday, escaped safely and then volunteered to go back into the tunnel Thursday night to help find the cause of the first blast.

Sunday, March 14
UP TO 25 PERCENT of the State's sour cherry trees were destroyed by the ice storm which swept across Michigan nearly two weeks ago, according to State agriculture experts. Michigan produces three-fourths of the nation's sour cherries and the losses have already caused the wholesale value of the fruit to rise two cents a pound nationwide. Growers, who say it will take them years to recover, predict further increases after July's harvest.

Monday, March 15
TWENTY-THREE PERSONS were named Sunday by the "National Enquirer" as spies working out of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, the United Nations and the Soviet Consulate in San Francisco. The list included Jacob Malik, the Soviet ambassador to the UN, and Aleksander Zinichuk, the consul general in San Francisco. The "Enquirer," a weekly tabloid, said all 23 were agents of either the KGB secret police or the Red Army's intelligence agency, known as the GRU.

Tuesday, March 16
A FERRY CARRYING railroad cars loaded with gasoline, beans and other cargo sank Monday night in the Detroit River off downtown Windsor. No injuries were reported in the sinking of the railroad ferry Iluron at 7:25 p.m. in about 20 feet of water. Dock workers said the barge had come from Detroit with a full load of flatbed railroad cars carrying 15 cargo containers. Normally each car carries three or four containers.

Youth Service Division Has Another Light Month

For the second straight month, the Youth Service Division (YSD), had a light case load in comparison to incidents investigated last year during the same time span.

A total of 47 complaints were referred to the YSD last month. This was a decrease of 23 under the February 1975 amount but an increase of six over this January.

The overall total for the first two months of this year shows a big decrease under the same period last year—88 as against 130.

On a comparative basis, this total is the smallest January-February amount since 1973 as there were 90 cases in 1974, 83 in 1973 and 72 in 1972.

The YSD also noted the in-

Woods Backs Movement Okayed by Eight States To Cut Federal Spending

Resolution Urges Michigan Legislature to Call for Constitutional Amendment Making Balanced Budget Mandatory

The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, March 1, unanimously approved two resolutions, one of which urges the State Legislature to consider a resolution calling for a Federal Constitutional Convention for the purposes of proposing an amendment to limit Federal spending consistent with Federal revenues.

Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan, who proposed the measure, cited an Associated Press story in the February 25 edition of "The Detroit News" which reported the Nebraska legislature approved a resolution calling for a constitutional convention to make a balanced Federal budget mandatory.

The story said eight states have called for such a convention, which would be the first since the adoption of the Constitution in 1787.

Wants State Approval

Mrs. Mullan said she would like to see Michigan become the ninth state in such a drive and felt the council should bring this matter to the attention of its own State Legislature. It's high time the Federal powers that be operate under a balanced Federal budget situation, she stressed.

Her resolution says that Federal deficit spending continues to be an increasing problem and an accelerating burden to the United States taxpayer. Citing the fact that eight states have already participated, the measure cites the council's subscribing to policies of fiscal management "that operate within the tax revenue capabilities and the theory of a balanced budget."

A copy of this measure will be forwarded to Gov. William Milliken, Senators Joseph Snyder and John Hertel, Rep. William R. Bryant and the Michigan Municipal League, (MML).

Finally, the Resolution says the council requests the MML determine, as a matter of league policy, to support the proposition.

Meanwhile the second measure, proposed by Councilman George S. Freeman, takes aim on two bills under consideration in the Senate, i.e., Senate Bills 1191 and 673, to amend the Michigan Employment Security, (MES), Act.

The measure says such proposed amendments "appear to involve additional infringement upon the concept of 'home rule' in the State of Michigan," and, if adopted, would increase the cost of local government to the detriment of the taxpayer.

It cites the council's opposition to the proposals and authorizes that copies of the measure be sent to the Com-

Water Drives Man into Drink

An icy patch of water on Lakeshore road was responsible for a driver and his car ending up in Lake St. Clair on Friday morning, March 5.

According to Joseph E. DeSante, he was driving along Lakeshore when he hit a patch of icy water and lost control of his vehicle. Witnesses said his car became airborne and landed in the lake at the foot of Lakeshore and Carmel lane.

While the car was sinking, Mr. DeSante said he rolled his window down and escaped to the seawall.

A passing motorist picked up Mr. DeSante, who was not injured.

The 1974 Camaro was recovered from the lake Saturday afternoon, March 6.

Couple Wed 45 Years Die United

Koesters Found on Floor of Unheated House;
Both Believed Victims of Heart
Attacks

By Tom Greenwood

"In sickness and in health. To love and to cherish. 'Til death do us part." Married for 45 years, Harry and Ruth Koester believed in that vow.

When Farms police broke into the unheated Koester home in Moran road Wednesday, March 10, they found Mr. and Mrs. Koester dead on the floor.

They were 10 feet apart. Mrs. Koester, 69, had been bed-ridden for 15 years, and depended entirely on her husband for her care. Mr. Koester, 73, was a heart patient.

Act on Call

Police believe Mr. Koester suffered a heart attack and died on the kitchen floor. Attempting to go to his aid, Mrs. Koester fell from her hospital bed, knocking her walker away. She died next to her bed.

The temperature in the home was 42 degrees. Any attempted use of the phone was hopeless. All power had been off in the home since Tuesday, March 2.

The police acted on a call from a neighbor, who said he hadn't seen the couple since the end of February. When papers began building up on the porch, he tried entering the house but found it locked.

The neighbor said he thought the Koesters had left the home because of the power outage.

No Foul Play

Police finally entered the home by breaking a window in the back door.

Mr. Koester was face down in the kitchen. His wife lay face up in the dining room.

There were no signs of foul play. All the draperies were drawn and nothing was out of order.

The police did find a large amount of cash and checks in Mrs. Koester's purse, which was later claimed by relatives.

According to Mrs. Emma Saia, Mr. Koester's sister, the pair were devoted to each other. "He took care of her completely," she said, in a telephone interview. "He didn't want anybody in to help him out."

Civil Defense Director Tours Pointes to Evaluate Damage; Expresses Hope for Obtaining Federal Aid

By Susan McDonald

Wayne County Civil Defense director George R. Young and a crew of State civil defense workers toured sections of Grosse Pointe City and The Shores on Thursday, March 12, to evaluate damage from the ice and wind storm that swept through the middle of the State on Tuesday-Wednesday, March 2-3.

Their findings, according to Mr. Young, were presented to Gov. William Milliken late last week for his consideration in making a bid to the Federal Government to have hard-hit Michigan communities declared a disaster area.

If such a declaration is made it could mean Federal assistance such as low interest loans, temporary housing and disaster unemployment for residents and clean-up assistance for their local governments.

He Is Hopeful

Mr. Young said he is hopeful that some relief may be on its way from the Federal Government.

"In some of these small communities a $30,000 clean-up bill will put a real strain on the budget," he said in a phone interview. "They certainly deserve some help."

City administrators in all the Pointes are still struggling to clean up the mess caused by hundreds of fallen trees that bowed under the weight of heavy ice and were uprooted by 50 mph winds that swept the area. Clearing away the remains of the storm, that left 11,000 Pointe homes without power, will cost the cities many thousands of dollars.

Clean-up estimates range from $10,000 in The Shores to as much as $50,000 in The Farms. Most public works crews are still working overtime hours cutting and hauling limbs, clearing thoroughways and repairing damage to walkways.

Concerned About Elms

City officials are concerned at this point about the number of fallen Elm tree limbs being saved by residents for fire wood.

In May the Elm logs will become ideal breeding places for Dutch Elm disease carrying beetles. Officials suggest that either the logs be stored

In last week's issue of the NEWS, the wrong telephone number was given in the story pertaining to the Grosse Pointe Park Police Officers' Association, (GPP-POA), circulating petitions for a referendum ballot to up their pension from 1.7 percent to 2.0 percent.

The actual phone number, to contact Patrolman Charles Slusser, chairman of the Pension Committee, is 821-0249, in the event anyone wishes to help in The Park City Charter amendment drive.

Board President Joan
Hanpeter Moderates
Session to Discuss Reasons for Proposals

By Roger A. Waha

The need for favorable voter approval on the four-year proposal to renew a school tax millage of 24.35 mills, additional millage of 2.75, plus a 1.31 mill renewal and an additional .14 of a mill for the libraries, was an underlying theme of a general informational meeting moderated by School Board president Joan Hanpeter Monday evening, March 15.

This was one of several such sessions throughout the school district giving voters an opportunity to explore the proposals prior to the Monday, March 29, election.

While the Board Room of the Administration Building wasn't filled, several citizens in attendance asked questions and heard presentations from school officials and representatives of the citizens committee which is backing a "yes" vote. No one in attendance spoke out against the proposals.

Warner Sets Key

Setting the key for the meeting was Robert D. Warner, treasurer of the Board of Education, who discussed the financial implications of the election.

In viewing the reasons for the proposed millage rate increase, Mr. Warner cited several factors including salary considerations, (all master agreements between the Board and employee organizations expire this June 30), rising costs for hospitalization and workers' compensation, effects of the recently-enacted Single Business Tax, (resulting in a loss of some $193,000 in income for 1976-77), increased costs of supplies and services and higher costs for heating fuel and utilities.

If such higher projected costs for fiscal year 1976-77 are starting officials in the face, Mr. Warner mentioned several offsetting factors including proposed decreases in the system's professional staff, (approximately 25 positions), projected lower student enrollments, (an estimated 450 in 1976-77 with the same number forecast for the following year), administrative staff positions which aren't contemplated to be filled and potential addition-

Woman Loses Purse to Thief

An elderly woman, a resident of The Park who had been to her bank to withdraw funds, lost her money to a purse snatcher on Friday, March 12, according to information released by J.I. Gordon Duncan.

The woman, who asked that her name be withheld, told investigating officers she had been to the bank and withdrew about $100. While walking north on Maryland at about 4:15 p.m., from Hampton, she observed a car with a number of black males sitting in it.

The purse snatching victim said she was about 100 feet from Hampton when the car stopped and the driver handed her the money.

When she felt it yanked away, she turned to see a black male running north on Maryland with her purse in his hand.

The thief fled toward St. Paul and then turned, running toward Alter road in Detroit, before disappearing. The robber took a wallet from the purse and removed the money. The purse and wallet were recovered on the street at Alter road and Brooks, Detroit, said J.I. Duncan.

The theft victim was unable to give a description of the men in the car, or the man who grabbed her purse.

al revenue items, e.g., possible increases in the cost of school lunches.

Cities Projected Costs

Citing examples of projected costs for 1976-77, Mr. Warner said $10,000 was budgeted for unemployment compensation insurance in 1975-76, while an estimated $140,000 is planned for 1976-77. Meanwhile, Blue Cross-Blue Shield monies are placed at $131,000 in 1976-77, a 25 percent hike over this fiscal year. He termed the latter "a big escalating cost."

A total of around $179,000 in reserves (for future budgets) also is projected.

"Based on what is happening as we see it," stated Mr. Warner, the proposed 1976-77 budget figure is $21,955,525 including the general operating fund for the schools, library funds, building and site fund and debt retirement fund. This figure in 1975-76 is $20,611,614.

Of this amount, $19,933,813 is proposed for the schools in 1976-77 as against $18,574,490 in 1975-76. This is an increase of around 7.3 percent.

On the pending employee negotiation front, John Cook, of Jefferson court, said he would feel more comfortable regarding the success of the proposals if the School Board had set a figure for which they would negotiate pending contracts. He felt citizens would like to know how much is expected in the proposals for salary increases.

Prohibited by Law

Mrs. Hanpeter said collective bargaining laws do not permit such information to be revealed. "We put in the millage request an amount that would be a fair settlement," she stated.

Pursuing the response, Laurence Kennedy, assistant superintendent-personnel, said the Board can't set a percentage increase to pay teachers. This would be in violation of labor relation laws, both state and national regarding identifying specific amounts in the budget, he stated. "It's a most awkward position for an employer to have his purse identified by parties on the other side of the table."

If the settlement exceeded what was asked for in the millage, economies would have to be effected in the budget to pay the teachers, he added.

In this regard, Mrs. Hanpeter said the Board has had a favorable contract for the last three years, while noting it was true negotiations were held prior to the big jump in inflation. She added, however, that employees view this matter differently.

No One-Way Street

Pointer John Lauve asked if the Board also will have a package of demands, and Mrs. Hanpeter replied, "We have our own package and it's now under study. This isn't a one-way street."

"What happens if the proposals are defeated?", asked Mr. Cook.

"If they are defeated, all voted millage has expired. We will have to come back after studying the results with another proposition," said Mrs. Hanpeter.

However, this could pose a problem as a school millage election cannot be held within 30 days of another election, she said. As a result, it might not be until fall before another election could be scheduled in this case.

If the proposals are defeated, she indicated the 8.65 mills allocated from county taxes paid by local residents could only operate the schools for a couple of months.

Don't Expect Windfall

On another subject, Mr. Lauve asked what would happen if, by chance, the school system received more dollars than planned — if a "windfall" came from some source? "The logical thing to do would be to reduce the millage rate," stated Mrs.

Hanpeter. Nonetheless, officials won't be holding their breaths on any such "windfall," from the State or any other source at this time, based upon past experience.

Besides Mr. Warner, others who gave introductory remarks included Robert P. Feeder, of Sunningdale drive, (who chairs the citizens committee with his wife and the Sterling Berrys, of Lakeland avenue), Mrs. Berry and Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, assistant superintendent-instruction. In making some "general comments," Mr. Feeder said he's new to the area, made a conscious choice to settle here and felt the school system was sound.

Has Mixed Emotions

In his 18 months here, he nonetheless indicated he has mixed emotions with the system. He felt the quality of education was less than he experienced in a previous system in Pennsylvania. Mr. Feeder said the emphasis there was on more individual attention for students, while citing a greater sense of discipline in the schools.

He felt the school system in The Pointe has fine, dedicated teachers and administrators, while citing the active work of many PTA's and PTO's. "The resources are present but we need the will to persevere in light of inflationary costs," he stressed.

Appalled by Apathy

Mr. Feeder cited the grassroots concept of involvement on the public's part from both sides. At the same time, he stated the question of overall apathy (of citizens) appalled him.

"Education is basic to a community's future. When the community votes on education, it's voting on its future. Citizens should keep this in mind."

Unlike Mr. Feeder, Mrs. Berry is an "older" member of the community. Of all the taxes she pays, she believed this one, (to the schools), was her favorite because you can "see what happens to these taxes."

While she said her experience here has always been excellent, Mrs. Berry stressed people shouldn't become complacent. "I'm impressed with the individual attention the youngsters receive from teachers, counselors and principals," she said.

Cites Main Issue

Mrs. Berry felt the main issue was this: In order to maintain the schools and operate current programs at the present level, it will cost more money. "Is it worth it? It is to me."

Dr. Spagnoli reviewed the total instructional program and said, "The burden must be carried financially by the local constituency in the school system." He also cited the need for a favorable millage vote to fund a variety of programs and the possibility of cutbacks if the proposals are defeated.

inside the home or be burned as soon as possible to avoid spreading the disease throughout the community this spring. If logs must be kept outside or in a garage all the bark should be stripped off them.

Although all the power was restored in The Pointe by Wednesday, March 10, by 75 Edison crews from Ohio and Michigan, it will be several weeks before the final clean-up is completed.

Could Cost $50,000

Farms Director of Public Service John L. DeFoe said with the help of outside contractors, Farms workers should have most limbs hauled away and damage cleared within two weeks, depending on the weather. The final cost to the city could be as high as $50,000, he said.

So far, The Farms has paid a about $15,000 for outside clean-up assistance and about $9,000 to city workers for overtime hours, according to Mr. DeFoe.

In The Woods, where about 50 percent of the residents lost power to the ice storm, both public safety and Department of Public Works crews are still working on a voluntary overtime schedule on Saturdays. There remain several more weeks of clean-up work.

Overtime Costly

Although a final bill for the clean-up could not be estimated, Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said that from Tuesday-Saturday, March 2-6, about $5,500 in overtime was paid to public safety and DPW employees.

The Park, where only about 30 percent of the residents went without power, has hired two contractor crews to help city workers clear debris. Park City Manager Robert Slone estimates the cost may run as high as $40,000.

Although most power to homes was restored by Monday, March 8, low voltage continued to plague some areas as of Tuesday, March 16. Grounded wires also are causing some problems with the street lighting systems, according to Mr. Slone.

City Was Hit Hard

In The City, where all power was restored by Tuesday, March 9, City Manager Thomas Kressbach, estimated the disaster clean-up bill will be between $30,000 and $40,000. Eighty-five percent of City homes were without power for various periods of time.

Fallen limbs and trees that have been collected so far have been ground into chips by City workers. The mulch is piled in Neff Park and is available to residents free of charge. It must be picked up during regular business hours of 9 a.m.-5 p.m., according to Mr. Kressbach.

Shores residents, 80 percent of whom were without power for some time, had all the lights on by Monday, March 8, according to Village Superintendent Thomas Jeffers.

"We are using our own people as much as possible to avoid hiring outside contractors for clean-up," Mr. Jeffers said. "The cost of a good preliminary clean-up will probably be from $10,000-$15,000, but this doesn't include pulling out tree stumps and some of the heavier work."

Citizens Heavy Losers

Although the final clean-up bill for the Pointes may run considerably over $100,000, this figure doesn't include the devastating damage some private citizens have suffered. If the Federal Government doesn't declare the area a disaster, taxpayers may still be able to recover some of their uninsured property losses on their income taxes.

The Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants advises citizens to determine as soon as possible the extent of damage, including loss of landscapes, walks, trees and lawns and losses due to power failure such as frozen foods.

Pre-damage photographs as well as photos of damage are a good way to prove claims.

NHS Sets Dates for Enrollment

Three enrollment sessions have been scheduled by the counseling staff of North High School for the enrollment of parochial and private school students who expect to attend North next year, according to principal G. Bruce Feighner.

Eighth graders from Our Lady Star of the Sea and Our Lady Queen of Peace Schools have been invited to come to North on Monday, March 22, at 1:30 p.m. for a conference with a counselor and to select courses for September.

Meanwhile, eighth graders from Saint Peter School, Saint Joan of Arc School and University Liggett School have received a similar invitation for 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, March 23.

Any ninth, 10th or 11th grade students who wish to enroll at North are requested to report at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 24.

The Monday and Tuesday conferences, for incoming freshmen, are planned for room B-131, B-133 and B-135, three adjoining rooms on the first floor near the main office of the school, while upper classmen are asked to report directly to the Counseling Center on Wednesday. All students are urged to bring a birth certificate and a recent report card with them.

Curriculum guides have been delivered to the area schools so students may study them before the enrollment conferences.

Students from schools other than the aforementioned, who are considering attending North in September, are invited to enroll at the appropriate times.

Woods Police Land Suspect

Woods police apprehended a suspect in an embezzlement case after learning that another department had the man in custody under another name.

Darryl Lee Burroughs, 25, was wanted by Woods officers for his alleged involvement in an embezzlement incident last summer at a Mack avenue service station.

A Michigan State Police teletype of Friday, March 5, advised that Lincoln Park had the suspect in custody under a different name. A fingerprint comparison revealed both to be the same person.

On Wednesday, March 10, the suspect was picked up at the Wayne County Jail on a writ of habeas corpus. The writ was issued by Wayne County Circuit Judge James Montante ordering the man back to The Woods for an arraignment. The suspect was already being held in the jail on a $5,000 bond under the other name.

Police said Burroughs stood mute at his arraignment.

Seniors' Class Begins Today

The first free special college course for senior citizens of all the Pointes begins today, March 18. Legal Affairs for Later Life, which is one of four classes seniors have expressed an interest in taking, will start at 1:30 p.m. in room B-302 at North High School.

Frank Komerska, project chairman, said around 20 seniors planned to take this course, which will run around eight or nine weeks. He indicated any Pointe senior can still participate in this class. Those interested should attend today's session.

Meanwhile, preparations continue for the other three classes. Beginner's Golf, Bowling and Physical Fitness after 50.

Mr. Komerska said he has lined up an instructor for the golf class which will start around April 30. He hopes the bowling course will begin sometime in early May.

As for the physical fitness class, Mr. Komerska is having a problem trying to find a qualified instructor. A representative from Wayne County Community College, (WCCC), which coordinates the program, told him finding an instructor such a course was difficult.

Such a course is more than calisthenics. It also deals with nutrition, and finding people qualified to teach such a course is rare, stated Mr. Komerska.

He asked anyone, who might be able to provide assistance towards finding an instructor for the physical fitness course, to contact him at 881-1543.

Farms Okays Use of Courts

The Farms Council at its Monday night, March 15, meeting, approved a request from Mrs. E. Dawson Fisher, of Tennis and Crumpets, Inc., to utilize the tennis courts at the Pier Park on September 18 or 19, in the event of rain, for its annual Tennis and Crumpets Tournament which will benefit Children's Hospital.

The request was approved unanimously.

AARP to Get New President

The next meeting of the American Association of Retired Persons, (AARP), will be held Monday, March 22, at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road, at 1 p.m.

G. Sam Zilly will succeed Mrs. Nora Blixt as president, Grosse Pointe Chapter #2151, as Mrs. Blixt has a new appointment. She has been selected to fill the position of assistant to the State Director, Southeast Region AARP.

Mr. Zilly has scheduled Diane Apsey of RSVF, (Retired Senior Volunteer Program), to speak. She will explain the many volunteer opportunities available in the community. RSVP relates to 104 non-profit agencies, including many on the east side as well as the Cultural Center.

Senior citizens in the area are invited to attend. Anyone interested in membership information may call membership chairman Lillian Chambers at TU 1-0131, or attend the meeting.

The program will be followed by a coffee hour.

Why was so much electric service out for so long?

Those who were inconvenienced are entitled to answers. Here, from Detroit Edison, are answers to the questions that we have been asked most.

Southeastern Michigan has just experienced one of the worst ice storms in its history. In terms of disruption of electrical service, it was the worst disaster in the 73-year period during which Detroit Edison has served the people of this area.

So severe were the effects of the storm—compounded by succeeding rain, wind, and electrical storms—that it took several days to determine the full extent of the damage.

One out of every five customers was affected directly by interrupted service during this period. Few, if any, escaped the storm without any inconvenience. Accordingly, we are making every effort to insure that everyone has the facts about the storm and the electrical service disruption and restoration resulting from it.

How extensive was the damage?

To date we have counted more than 300,000 homes and businesses that have been without electricity at some time since Monday night March 1. Thus the storm has affected directly more than one million people. Hardest hit were Oakland County with 87,000 homes and businesses out of service, the Thumb area with 81,000, and the Detroit area with 79,000. To put this in perspective, a storm is normally severe if we receive 5,000 telephone calls. So far we have received nearly 225,000 calls regarding this storm!

Could anything have been done to avoid such severe damage?

Not that we know of. We have continued to place top priority on maintaining both our electrical system and the skills of our crews. However, there is no way to avoid the effects on electric power lines of natural disasters such as this.

Why were the extent of damage and number of outages originally underestimated?

Because this storm dwarfed anything ever experienced in the past, the "normal" indices did not apply. For example, where circuit disruptions commonly cut power in 10-20 percent of the homes they cover, this time they were affecting 70-90 percent. Only detailed and time-consuming visual inspections and data analysis ultimately revealed the true figures. In addition, the problem of fallen poles—more than 1,000—and new wire requirements as high as a million feet are totally unprecedented.

However, the underestimate in no way delayed a single service restoration. Emergency crews were requested for developing restoration early Tuesday evening, March 2, when approximately 16,000 calls had been received.

How were repair priorities determined?

First priority is always to restore facilities critical to health and safety, such as hospitals and municipal pumping facilities, homes that contain life-support equipment, such as kidney dialysis machines, and fallen exposed wires. Second priority is assigned to facilities that will produce the greatest number of service restorations in the shortest possible time.

Did certain geographic areas receive special treatment?

No. The Thumb area is the last to have complete restoration. That, however, is due to the difficulty of determining the extent of the damage there, the need for extensive rebuilding, the time involved in assembling large quantities of materials and manpower, and the added obstacles of mud and water.

Why has it taken so long to complete the repairs?

Beyond the factors already noted, much of the damage occurred—or reoccurred—during subsequent rain, wind and electrical storms. Consequently, new outages were still developing through last weekend. Perhaps the whole problem is put in better perspective if you consider that nearly one-fifth of our entire electrical distribution system had to be restored, and in some cases almost completely rebuilt.

How many people were involved in making the repairs?

In all more than 5,000 Detroit Edison employees, contract personnel and crews borrowed from other utilities were directly involved, turning their maximum effort to restoring service disruptions following this storm. We are extremely proud of what they have done.

Is suppose my estimated bill is too high because of an outage?

This may happen. If it does, you may pay the bill and any overpayment will be adjusted with the next reading. Or you can call or visit your nearest Edison office and ask us to adjust the bill based on the amount of time you were out of service. In either case, the billing will be corrected at the next meter reading.

What did we learn for the future?

The Detroit Edison Company has been dealing with storms throughout its history. In so doing we have constantly improved our capability. Most recently we had instituted a centralized storm center in our Detroit headquarters, consolidated all of our Oakland county operations in a single divisional headquarters building, and developed a computerized storm analysis system. All of these—and more—helped to speed the repair and restoration process this time. And going through this, the worst storm in our history, has taught us much that will undoubtedly help us to do a better and faster job of restoring service in future storms. Also, many of our customers have probably learned that it is wise to keep supplies available for emergency use. Most of all, we learned that our customers are understanding and patient beyond expectations, good neighbors to us and to each other, and the kind of people we are proud to serve.

What can you do to help?

In addition to stocking up for emergencies, please continue in the future to report to us any abnormalities in service or appearance of any of our lines or other materials. By correcting these during non-emergency periods, we can often avoid damage during emergencies.

How much is the repair work costing and who will pay?

It will be several months before the full extent of damage is known in terms of cost, partly because the repair work to our system will continue long after all homes and businesses are back in service. But the figure will probably exceed $10 million—a magnitude of risk that insurance companies have declined to cover completely in recent years. Consequently it appears that about $1 million will be covered by insurance. Most of the remainder is included as an operating expense by Detroit Edison and will be considered by the Public Service Commission—along with all other valid business expenses—in setting rates in the future.

Can it happen again?

That's a frightening question to consider, particularly at a time like this, but just as it happened this month it can happen again. If it does, all of us will be even better prepared to deal with it. In the meantime, we at Detroit Edison will continue to make every effort to provide, reliably and safely, needed electric energy to enhance the lives of the people of Southeastern Michigan.

Expect Federal Aid

which of the eight projects they have applied for will be approved by the county, but expect to receive about $50,000.

The top priority project in The City's application is a $40,000 request for street resurfacing. This money would be used to supplement about $60,000 received in Federal revenue sharing funds for that purpose.

Next on The City's list of priorities is a $35,000 project to upgrade the street lighting system, which would involve acquiring the existing systems in commercial areas and improving systems in parking lots and service alleys.

Other projects included in The City's $353,750 application, in descending order of priority, are street tree planting, land acquisition for off-street parking, development of housing and rehabilitation procedures, construction of sidewalk ramps and bike racks, storm sewer renovation and a street closing project.

The Wayne County Office of Program Development and Coordination may approve or reject these projects in part or whole, in line with block grant requirements.

The county system of application is gauged to help cut red tape and costs to small communities, according to Mr. Curran, because the county has on hand the staff and expertise necessary to handle the process.

"Without the county, these smaller communities wouldn't stand a chance for funding under this program," Mr. Curran said, "or it would be so expensive it wouldn't be worth the effort."

Other local communities participating in the program this year include Allen Park, Highland Park, Southgate, Ecorse, Plymouth Township, Melvindale, Van Buren Township, Brownstown Township, Flat Rock, Gibraltar, Northville, Garden City, Wyandotte, Hamtramck, Trenton, Riverview and Woodhaven.

Citizens of these communities may attend a public hearing on Thursday, March 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the Allen Park City Hall, 16850 Southfield road, for more information or to voice their opinions on the 1976 project.

said she had talked to her brother about a month earlier and everything was "all right then."

The bodies were taken to the Wayne County Morgue, where it was determined that the couple had died of heart attacks. Mrs. Koester's was possibly due to exposure. They had been dead for several days when found.

Mr. Koester had been retired from General Motors for about seven years. Mrs. Koester had been bed-ridden due to an injury to her back.

All of her relatives are dead. He left two brothers and two sisters.

They had no children. The bodies were released to the Buehler Funeral Home, Wilfred at Gratiot.

"She was his whole world," said Mrs. Saia. "She was his only reason for living."

Farms Accepts Chlorine Bid

At its meeting Monday, March 15, The Farms Council unanimously accepted the low bid of the Jones Chemical Co. to supply chlorine for the Pier Park pool for the 1976 season.

The low bid was in the amount of 55 cents per gallon. The pool used an estimated 4,500 gallons of chlorine in 1975 at an estimated price of $2,500.

The sensory nerves of the skin are distributed unevenly all over the skin area in spots, and lie at different depths in the skin. For example, if you move the point of a pencil over your skin very lightly, you stimulate only the nerves of touch. These nerve endings are close to the surface of the skin in the region of the hair sockets. The finger tips, the forehead, and the tip of the tongue contain abundant nerve endings which respond to touch. Nerve endings which respond to pressure lie deeper within the skin.

Jeep Mishap Injures One

A woman passenger emerged with minor injuries when a vehicle in which she was riding completely overturned in front of 45 Hawthorne road on Thursday, March 11.

When Shores public safety officers arrived at the scene, the vehicle, a 1973 Jeep, had been righted and the girl had been taken home, a few doors away.

Cpl. Chester Painter and PSOs Daniel Healy and Gary Mitchell said when they arrived at the accident scene, they were informed that the jeep had been driven by Bradford S. Elvidge, of Grosse Pointe Boulevard.

Mr. Elvidge drove the car to the driveway of 56 Hawthorne, the passenger's home, and then began backing up, going an undetermined distance west on the road. At this time the right rear wheel went over the curb, when the jeep suddenly swerved, flipping it completely over in front of 45 Hawthorne.

PSO Mitchell went to the home of the woman passenger, Susan Klingbell, and found she had suffered abrasions of her right leg and side. She also had hit her head.

Although the injuries were minor, Officer Mitchell drove the woman to Cottage Hospital for treatment, after which she was released.

The officers said there was minor damage to the jeep, and Mr. Elvidge did not appear to have been hurt.

Issues Warning On Solicitations

The Woods Public Safety Department reported this week that several residents received telephone calls from solicitors saying they represent the department in an effort to sell tickets for a country western music program this summer.

This isn't the case at all, officers emphasize. Citizens who are called to purchase tickets should contact their local police department to confirm their involvement in any such venture.

In fact, police said Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos was called Tuesday, March 9, by an individual who represented himself as a Woods officer and urged the mayor to purchase a ticket for the program.

Investigation revealed the Police Officers Association of Michigan is sponsoring and soliciting funds for a country western program on May 16 at Cobo Hall.

APPROVE TENNIS

The Grosse Pointe City Council voted unanimously at its Monday, March 15, meeting to grant the Tennis and Crummet Tournament Committee permission to use 10 Elworthy Field tennis courts for its September 18 benefit tournament for Children's Hospital.

Date Extended for Ornaments

The deadline for participation in The Woods Senior Citizens Commission "Bicentennial Symbolic Tree" project has been extended from the middle of this month to Monday, April 5, reports Irene Sutton, commission chairman.

An estimated 45 letters have already been sent by the commission to various organizations requesting their participation in the project. The objective is to have each group design an ornament which would best depict the group and its purpose. These would be hung on a Christmas-type tree, possibly at city hall, in late April.

The ornaments must be three-dimensional, limited in size to six by six inches and they may be of any shape or any texture.

Mrs. Sutton also suggested they be weatherized and requested that a hook be attached for easy hanging.

She added all ornaments should be submitted at the municipal building, 20025 Mack avenue, by the aforementioned deadline date. A box will be provided for the "visuals." Plans call for a special tree hanging ceremony on April 26.

For further information, call Harold Lyndrup at 884-1657.

Will Discuss Scope of FLEC

A panel from FLEC, (Family Life Education Council), will inform members and guests of the scope of their activities when the Health Education Council meets Monday, March 22, in the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue, at 1 p.m.

FLEC president Mary Evelyn Self will moderate the meeting. The panel members will include Pat Horne, executive director, who will present an overview of the organization; Dr. Joseph Beals, director of the clinic at Center Point, who will outline the clinic's program; and Peggy Palmer from Dialogue, who will discuss the adult help-line.

several months ago, we haven't got around to registering. Is there still time before the millage election, and where do we go?

A: Sorry, you're too late. The deadline for registering is the fifth Friday before an election.

However, there's a presidential primary scheduled for May 18. You can register for that by going to your local city hall.

Q: My wife and I are out of town on March 29. Can we get absentee ballots from the city? When must we apply?

A: Don't go to the city for absentee ballots in a school election. All mechanics are handled by the school district, not the municipalities.

You can get your ballots from the Grosse Pointe Board of Education Administration Building, 389 St. Clair Avenue, Grosse Pointe.

If you go in person, you can fill out your applications, get your ballots and vote on the spot.

You can write Thomas Ott

at that address for the applications, or you can phone 885-2000 and have the applications mailed to you.

You have until 2 p.m. of the Saturday before the election, and the office will be open on that Saturday. Remember that your ballots must be in by 8 p.m. on March 29 to be counted.

Q: I'd like more information about the millage, both pro and con, before I vote. Where can I get it?

A: You can get fact sheets at the Administration Building. On the pro side, you can phone Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Berry, 884-9021, or Mr. and Mrs. Robert Feeder, 882-0179, from the Citizens Millage Campaign Committee.

At this writing, the LWV doesn't know of any organized group against the millage but if there is one, the league would like to know.

Several individuals have contacted the NEWS and indicated they weren't in support of the millage but, at this point, no organized group has followed suit.

Police, USCG Rescue Boater

A St. Clair Shores boat owner, who either was jumping ahead of the boating season or taking his craft out on a trial run, fired a series of five distress signal flares after his motor gave out and his cruiser began drifting on Lake St. Clair.

The signals attracted the attention of a Shores public safety officer patrolling Lakeshore road and a Detroit Police Department, Alpha I, helicopter pilot.

PSO Daniel Healy said he was driving slowly at about 8:32 p.m. on Tuesday, March 9, when he observed the flares about a mile from shore opposite Lochmoor boulevard.

The helicopter pilot, who was not too far from the vicinity, also saw the flares and flew to and hovered over the drifting boat, a 51-foot Egg Harbor cabin cruiser, owned and piloted by Michael Dobos, of 22614 Furlton, St. Clair Shores, who was alone.

PSO Healy radioed the duty officer at his station and the officer in turn called the St. Clair Shores based United States Coast Guard, (USCG), between Nine and Ten Mile roads. This station sent a truck and trailer outboard motorboat.

The Belle Isle Coast Station, Detroit, also sent a helicopter and a water patrol boat to assist but they were not needed.

Mr. Dobos and his cruiser were towed to the Jefferson Beach Marina by the St. Clair Shores Coast Guard.

Two public safety officers, Cpl. Chester Painter and PSO Gary Mitchell, were at the scene to help with traffic control, keeping the curious crowd off traffic lanes.

Hunger Group Slates Forum

The Hunger Coalition is open to all interested community organizations, churches and individuals interested in exploring the hunger problem in Detroit and the world.

Threatens Home Rule

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen told the council the proposals would liberalize unemployment compensation beyond what he felt should be done, while hurting the "home rule" concept of local cities.

Senate Bill 1191 would eliminate separate systems entirely and bring all cities and counties under the MES Act, while Bill 673 would require that the benefits and conditions of eligibility of equivalent systems be the same as those of the MES Act.

Cities now operating equivalent unemployment compensation systems include The Woods, Park, City and Farms.

St. James Sets Vesper Service

Saint James Lutheran Church, McMillan road near Kercheval, will continue its Lenten vespers under the general theme, "Lent — A Time for Reflection," on Wednesday, March 24, at 8 p.m.

The fourth vesper will feature the participation of Pastor Dennis Conrad, Saint Mark's Lutheran Church, East Grand boulevard near Forest.

Pastor Conrad, who will preach the sermon on "Two Different Worlds," (Luke 18, 31-34), has prepared the order of service, which will reflect a typical worship experience at Saint Mark's Church. The Saint Mark's choir also will assist in the worship.

This Lenten vesper is a continuation of the cooperation between Saint James Church and Saint Mark's Church, begun in 1973 under the Ministry of Community Witness and Social Action.

Saint Mark's has given Saint James much awareness and insight into the "black experience," and Saint James has helped to fund some of their programs as well as provide some teachers for the summer program.

Various couples from the two congregations have been meeting from time to time to build bridges of understanding and service, a ministry which is being expanded to include an increasing number of couples.

Friends in the community are invited to share this unusual worship experience.

ULS Offers Medieval Fun

To cap a long semester's study of the Middle Ages with a little fun, the University Liggett sixth grade class staged a medieval fair Monday, March 8, featuring everything from moat wrestling tournaments to theatrical productions of "Hamlet" dueling scenes.

Coming to school in costumes from the era, the "royal procession of sixes" began the day reviewing their classmates' three-dimensional projects, each depicting an area of social science study. A 10 a.m. service of tea and crumpets was followed by moat jump, stilt stunts and axman relay tournaments, plus entertainment by jugglers, jesters, acrobats and peasant folk dancers.

During lunch, students were treated to performing minstrels, troubadours and a poetry reading.

Presiding over the events of the day, (and planning them), were the Pope, Queen and King of the "Kingdom of University Liggett," sixth grade teachers David Backhurst, Carole Johnson and Larry Griffin.

Seals Winners of Mite Crown

The final game of the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association Mite Division play-off was played Sunday, March 14.

Two teams in the finals were the Grosse Pointe Florist Blues and the Parke-Davis Seals, with the Seals winning, 3-2.

The Seals' first goal was scored by David Olson, who deflected a shot from Barry Lehman with about five minutes to go in the first period.

But the Blues came right back with a goal by Jamie Parker to tie it at 1-1.

The second period saw Brian Meulebrouck of the Seals score, assisted by Brian Brooks and Eric Schaupeter. Casey Quick, of the Blues, with some fancy stickhandling, came right back and popped one between the pads of the Seals goalie to tie it, 2-2.

Then, the third period went scoreless for the first four minutes before William Fitzsimons, assisted by Robbie Wood and Johnny Birgbauer, slapped one past the goalie's outstretched glove.

This proved to be the winning goal, as the remainder of the third period was scoreless. The winning Seals team is made up of 17 boys, ages six, seven and eight.

Leads Fencers at Wayne State

Steve Smith and Robbie Wood.

The Seals' head coach is David Dennis and his two assistants are Jack Blum and Ken Roy.

The team manager is John Brooks.

Junior captain Mary Ann Duika, a graduate of South High School, is one of Wayne State University's two entries in the Fourth Annual Women's Great Lakes Fencing Championships Friday-Saturday, March 12-13, at Notre Dame.

The Tartars, 11-0 during the recent dual meet season, are trying to complete a climb to the top and regain the team title they last won at the 1973 inaugural meet.

Miss Duika was 17-6 during the dual meet season and is expected to be among WSU's four-woman entry at the National Women's Collegiate Championships Friday-Saturday, April 2-3, at Montclair State in New Jersey.

This application shall be made in writing to the Director of Public Services on forms provided for that purpose. A record of all such applications shall be kept on file by the Director of Public Services. When the Director of Public Services receives an application for a Certificate of Compliance which requires Board of Zoning Appeals Special Exception, or other approval, he shall so inform the applicant.

The Building Permit incorporating the Certificate of Compliance shall be in force and effect for a period of six (6) months from its date of issue. If construction pursuant to such Permit has not been commenced within six (6) months, the Permit incorporating the Certificate of Compliance shall terminate unless renewed for additional six-month periods by the Director of Public Services pursuant to a request in writing for such extension. If construction has been commenced pursuant to such Permit within such six (6) months, the Permit and Certificate of Compliance shall then be valid for an additional period of six (6) months from the time that construction commences during which construction shall be completed. The Director of Public Services is hereby empowered to extend such Permit incorporating the Certificate of Compliance for another additional period to be determined by him in the event that unusual circumstances require additional time for construction and if construction has not been delayed by the owner or builder. If the Director of Public Services shall determine that the construction of such improvements is not proceeding properly, he shall not extend the Permit and each day the improvements to be made thereunder are not completed shall constitute a violation of this Ordinance."

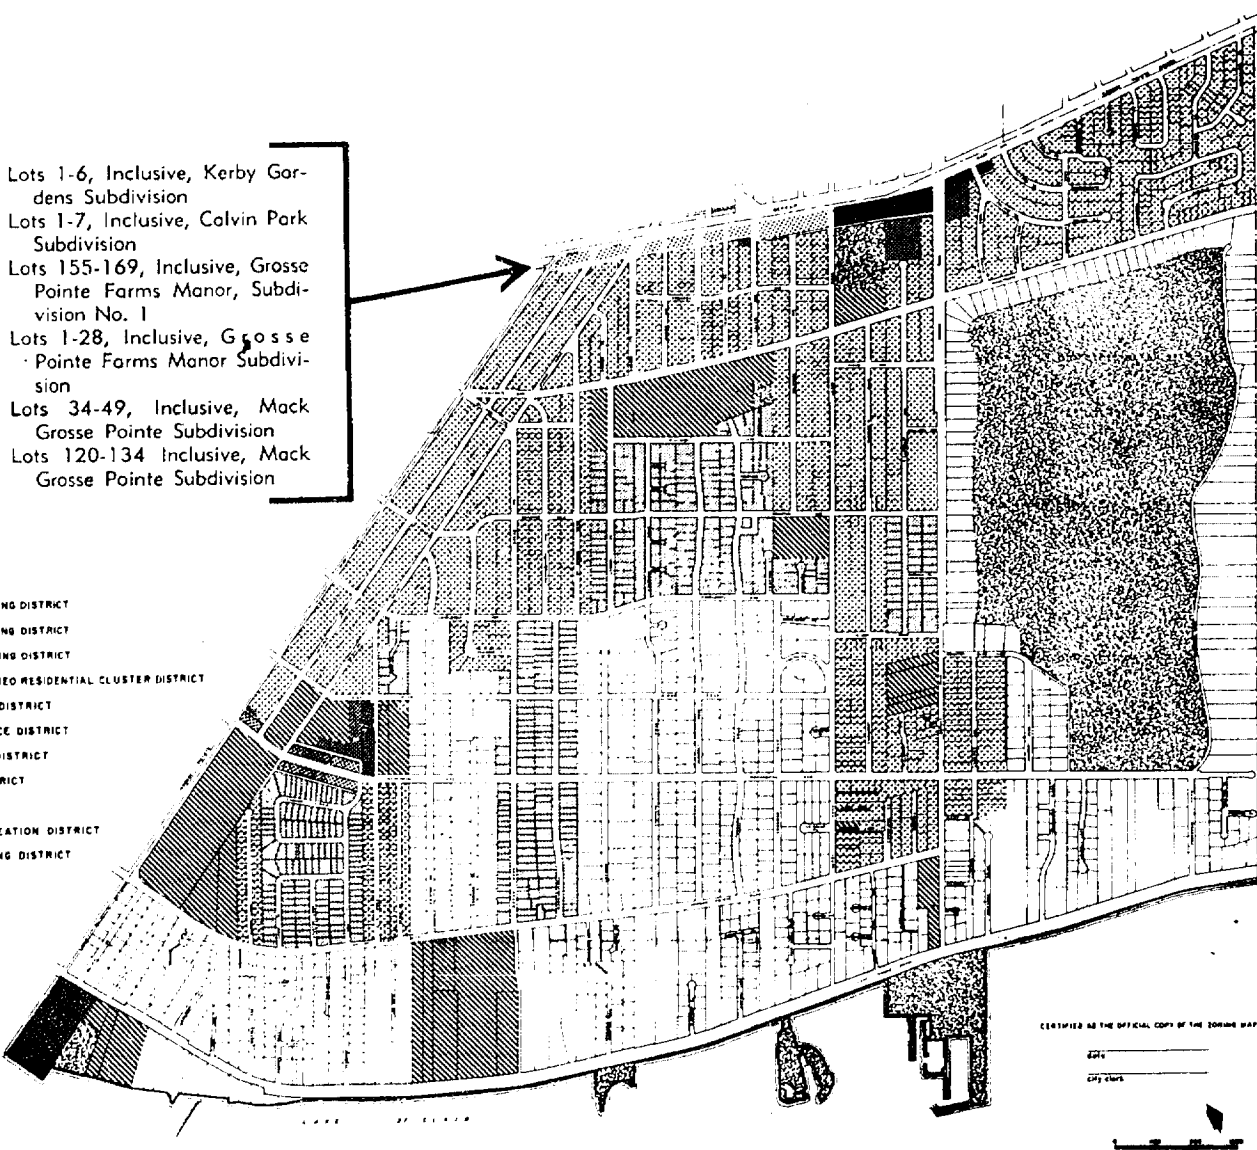

Section 8. In all other respects, Ordinance No. 192 shall remain in full force and effect, except as amended herein.

Section 9. This ordinance shall take effect twenty days after its enactment or upon its publication, whichever is later.

The Hearing will be public. Interested property owners or residents of the City are invited to attend.

Members of the All Pointe swim team participated in the recent AAU Class "B" Meet in East Detroit.

Ryndy Dittmars scored well for herself by placing first in the 10-year-old girl's 50-yard free and fly, and then third in the breaststroke event.

Second places went to Amy Bartoszewicz in the eight and under 50 free, Gina Bartoszewicz in the 11-12, 50 breast and Maire Zerweck in the open 50-yard free.

Shook Elevates State Rankings

Tom Shook, 14, an eighth grader at Parcels Middle School, elevated his Michigan swim rankings in the recently held Ann Arbor Invitational.

Swimming for the Fitzgerald Swim Club, he went 4:47.0 in the 400 IM giving him the second top State ranking in this event. His 2:26.5 time in the 200 breast ranks him as the top 14-year-old boy breaststroker in the State.

Tom's best 100 breast time of 1:07.0 swam in Michigan's pool was the second fastest swim of the 1975-76 season.

His coaches Mike O'Connor and Ron Alsabrooks, both former University of Michigan All-Americans, feel Tom should swim even faster in the coming State championships at Royal Oak Saturday-Monday, March 27-29.

He also will be working towards obtaining the top slot on the Michigan All-Star team which will compete against Ohio and Pennsylvania Saturday, April 10, at Cleveland State University.

Some of the All Pointe swimmers then participated in a Class "C" Meet in Utica in which several firsts were earned.

Finishing in top spot was the girls 9-10, 200 free relay team of Maureen Henzel, Cindy Tsangalias, Anne Vanker and Colleen Lorenz. The girls 13 and over 400 free relay was won by Kerry Youngblood, Patty McFadden, Karen Molitor and Carol Carpino.

A second place was taken by Mike Luberto, Jeff Bartsch, Brian McFadden and Gary Belfore in the 13 and over boys 40 free relay. Meanwhile, Jon Spitz, Greg Fleming, Jim Fuqua and John Zerweck placed fourth in the 200 free relay for 9-10 boys.

Karen Molitor took a second in the girls 13-14, 100-yard free and Carol Carpino was seventh in the event.

Finally, Jeff Bartsch captured second spot in the 13-14, 100 breast, while Kerry Youngblood came in third for the girls.

South's District Champs Beaten in State Tourney

By Tom Shine

After disposing of Cass Tech, 61-51, on Tuesday, March 9, South High cagers were eliminated from the State tournament by a powerful Detroit Mackenzie squad, 68-48, on Friday, March 12.

Even though the loss to the Stags was a disappointment, the fact South made it to the regional finals was an accomplishment. The Devils weren't expected to get past their first district opponent, North High, but did and then went on to defeat Lakeview, Lake Shore and Cass Tech before bowing out with an 18-7 record.

Against Cass Tech, South established an early lead and then thwarted every Technician attempt to cut that lead.

As the game opened, the Devils moved the ball well on offense and found themselves with easy shots to quickly move ahead.

Cass, meanwhile, was being stifled by a tough Devil defense. The Technicians rarely got a clear shot and South didn't allow another chance as they snatched virtually every rebound.

As a result, South led, 14-6, as the quarter ended.

In the second quarter, South used its size advantage to increase their lead. Drew Peterson and Jim Parsons were getting close in shots for easy points and continued to shut off Cass on the boards.

Cass, once again, was having trouble putting the ball in the basket. The Technicians seemed hesitant to shoot and lost the ball by passing too much.

Cass was still in the game, trailing 26-13 at halftime, due to a rash of turnovers by the Devils late in the half.

The closest Cass could come in the third quarter was eight points but South finished strong to lead 39-27 as the period ended.

South maintained an eight to 10 point bulge the majority of the final quarter. Cass cut the lead to 56-51 but fortunately for the Devils, only 38 seconds remained. South then added some foul shots for the final score.

Dave Ferris led South's attack with 19 points, including nine of 10 foul shots in the final quarter, while Peterson added 14.

In the battle with Detroit Mackenzie, Public School League runners-up, South was outplayed in almost every phase of the game.

The Stags wasted little time as they blew the Devils off the court in the first quarter. Mackenzie shot well, passed sharply, ran a devastating fast break, and led by 6' 10" center Richard Johnson, denied South any rebounds.

The Devils, in the meantime, were displaying some big game jitters. South's poor shooting and the Stags' tenacious defense left the Devils trailing 20-5 as the quarter ended.

Mackenzie kept up the pressure into the second quarter. The Stags were getting two and three shots each time down the court and expanded their lead to 29-7.

South finally seemed to get organized and began to play better. They grabbed more rebounds but were still having all kinds of trouble trying to score and trailed 35-16 at the half.

Play became ragged as the third quarter started. Both teams committed fouls and numerous turnovers besides displaying some poor shooting.

The Stags relied mostly on their fast break to score while South could muster only another eight points to fall back 50-24 going into the final period.

Mackenzie put the game away once and for all as they ballooned their lead to 30 points with seven minutes remaining. South did, however, manage to cut that margin to 20 as the game ended.

Parsons led South with 13 points as John Wilson and Grant Piche each threw in 10.

The outlook for next year's team is very bright. South will graduate only four players: captains Tim Corbett and Wilson, all-league forward Peterson, and Stan Andrusis.

Returning next year will be Piche, an all-league guard, Parsons, Bob Conlan, and Ferris, who all started most of the games for South this year.

These four, along with Nino Tocco and John Oibeter, could give the Devils their first Eastern Michigan League title and possible a second straight district crown.

Experts say that the longest hole in one on record was at the 10th hole 441 yards long, at Miracle Hills Golf Club, Omaha, Nebraska. Robert Mitera achieved a hole-in-one there on October 7, 1965. Mitera, aged 21 and five feet six inches tall, weighed 165 pounds. A two-handicap player, he normally drove 245 yards. It turns out that a fifty-miles-per-hour gust carried his shot over a 290 yard drop-off. A group in front testified to his remaining 154 yards.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. James A. Adams
Superintendent of Schools

School finance is a topic uppermost in the minds of many residents as they contemplate the Monday, March 29, special election for our community's public schools and public libraries. Therefore, I would like to attempt to summarize some of the factors the Board had to consider in setting the ballot issues confronting the electorate.

1. All voted school operating millage, ($24.35 out of the total $33 per $1,000), has already expired. Winter tax collection revenues will operate the schools only through this June 30.

2. The school system also receives the proceeds of 8.65 mills allocated from county taxes paid by local residents. This is projected at $4,505,000 for 1976-77, not enough to begin to operate the school system.

3. The general membership formula for State Aid excludes Grosse Pointe.

4. The school district budgeted State revenues of $430,500 for Special Education and Driver Education, but did not receive all of it because of the Governor's Executive Order. Operational revenues for such State-mandated programs will probably have to be provided locally in the future.

5. In addition, for 1976-77 the Board of Education will budget $435,000 earmarked for Special Education purposes which it receives from a county tax levy paid by local residents. In the past some relatively small amounts of Federal Aid also have been budgeted.

6. Without the projected increase in local property assessments, (which range from four to seven percent and average 5.95 percent throughout the district), and which raise revenues of $730,692, we have calculated that the proposed operational millage rate sought for the schools would have had to be 1.46 mills higher to maintain the current program.

7. The recently much-publicized Section 143 of Public

Act 261, (the State School Aid Amendments), will have no effect on Grosse Pointe's proposed millage. Grosse Pointe will not realize any "guarantee" provided by this piece of legislation under any circumstances.

The system will lose approximately $250,000 in income in 1976-77 as a result of the recently enacted Single Business Tax which removes the value of stock inventories from the local taxable valuation of property.

8. In terms of actual dollars, total operational funds of $19,933,813 are proposed for the schools for 1976-77 as compared to $18,574,490 for 1975-76, an increase of 7.3 percent.

Are there other points on which readers wish clarification? If so, please feel free to call the Administration Building at 885-2000.

A 2.89 mill tax rate increase, (2.75 for schools, .14 of a mill for libraries), will cost $2.89 per $1,000 on the State Equalized Valuation of local real estate. A house with a market value of $50,000 has a taxable value of approximately $25,000. $2.89 x $25,000 equals $72.25 per year or $6.02 per month.

Barnes Plans Pancake Feast

Barnes Elementary School will hold a Pancake Supper on Tuesday, March 23, in the school gymnasium. The pancakes will be served from 5:30-7:30 p.m. at a cost of $1.50 per person. Monies raised from the supper will be used to provide educational student assemblies at Barnes.

Heading the supper committee are Mrs. Ted Harris, Mrs. Richard Bogdorski and Mrs. James Hoekwater. Tickets may be purchased at the door, 20090 Morning-side drive.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

This concludes a two-part series of books on railroad-ing. Today's column: the train and the novel.

The best known railroad novels, without a doubt, are those of that fabled train running the 1,800 miles from Paris to Istanbul—"The Orient Express." The mystique of the Orient Express has lent itself admirably over the years to the adventures legends of dozens of writers who used this train as an exotic back drop for their novels.

A Frenchman named Maurice Dekobra started it all with a best selling novel titled THE MADONNA OF THE SLEEPING CARS—all about a ravishing blonde who had every inclination to be ravished. Later there were the mysteries of E. Phillips Oppenheim, Eric Ambler, Alfred Hitchcock, Graham Greene, Ian Fleming and of course Agatha Christie. Of this group it is Miss Christie's MURDER ON THE ORIENT EXPRESS, (originally published under the title MURDER IN THE CALAIS COACH), that is the most familiar.

But there are other trains and other novels that may not be so well known. For example, H. R. F. Keating's INSPECTOR GHOTE GOES BY TRAIN (Doubleday). The Indian policeman is sent by train from Bombay to Calcutta to pick up the notorious confidence man, A. K. Bhattacharya, held for faking national treasures and selling them to foreign museums. Ghote is joined, both on his first journey and on his return, with two prisoners instead of one, by two hippies and their traveling guru. Others join them on the return journey sympathetic to the prisoners, so that the ride back is a nightmare for the Inspector.

In THE PETERSBURG-CANNES EXPRESS (Harcourt) by Hans Koning, the scene is set in pre-revolutionary Russia and the south of France. Most of the action, however, takes place aboard a famous train as it hurtles its way from Russia to the West. In an ingenious blend of wit, young love, the revolutionary spirit in action, the author outlines a conspiracy that succeeds despite the incredible naivete of the conspirators. Anna and Andrew, both Russian, both young and totally inexperienced in how to handle anything so dangerous as a political kidnapping, nevertheless conceive of a plan whereby they will grab the Russian Undersecretary of the Interior and by holding him hostage, gain freedom for a comrade imprisoned in France. Nothing goes as planned, but the bunglers win the day in the end, but not as each had hoped for.

Another good story will be found in Georges Simenon's THE VENICE TRAIN (Harcourt). A modestly employed and quite honest office worker, Mr. Calmar, is returning to Paris after a vacation in Venice. In the same compartment with him in this accommodation train—he must change at Lausanne to the Paris express—is a man of middle age, presumably from Middle Europe, who asks that Calmar do him the favor during his three-hour between-trains wait, of taking a case from a lock box in the Lausanne station and delivering it to a lady in that city. Calmar agrees, but has regrets immediately when he finds that the lady is dead, presumably murdered, when he arrives at her apartment. What to do, but keep the case with him? And what to do, indeed, when he finds that the case contains a million-and-a-half new francs in American, British and other currency? A fine psychological mystery.

From India, Russia and France, we next travel to England and Michael Crichton's THE GREAT TRAIN ROBBERY (Knopf), a smashing best seller during 1975. Inserting just the right amount of colorful Victorian underworld slang, making certain as he sweeps us along that we understand the cynicism, the hypocrisy and the gambling for high stakes that were a part of the era, Crichton spins a highly entertaining and very deftly plotted account of the Great Train Robbery of 1855. A gang of crooks led by the clever Pierce, plots and carries out the robbery of a carefully guarded safe aboard the London to Folkestone train. Its contents: bullion for the troops in the Crimea. Each step in the planning and hazardous execution of the scheme builds to a great climax, with the reader rooting for Pierce every step of the way.

Many a mystery story set on a train has become a classic: there is something about a train that brings out the best in a mystery writer. Whether any of these four novels will become classics, only time will tell. But they are all good reading.

St. John Men Plan Dinner

In these times of rising costs, it's good to hear of an event that is less expensive this year than in prior years, reports Saint John Hospital. The event is the Saint John Hospital Guild's 15th Annual Stag Dinner slated for Tuesday, May 11, at the Raleigh House, 25300 Telegraph road, Southfield.

Tickets are $100 this year in comparison to $150 last year. The evening begins at 5:30 p.m. with cocktails and dinner d'oeuvres, an epicurean dinner, celebrities and many prizes.

Some 1,500 men are expected to attend this gala affair. Since this is such a popular party, early reservations are suggested. They may be made by calling the Saint John Hospital Guild Office at 881-8200, extension 547.

Proceeds will be used for the Expansion of Pediatric Services at the hospital.

Letters to the Editor

Copies of an exchange of letters between a GP Farms resident and John R. Hamann, president and chief executive officer of the Detroit Edison Company, and also a Pointe resident, have been sent to the NEWS by their writers. They follow.

March 8, 1976
Mr. John R. Hamann,
President,
Detroit Edison Company,
2000 Second Avenue,
Detroit, Mich. 48226

Dear Mr. Hamann:
I read with interest the article in Thursday, March 4, 1976, Detroit Free Press concerning what you termed the most devastating ice storm in history. Unfortunately, I had to read the article by candlelight in front of my fireplace where my wife and two small children were huddled for warmth.

We lost our power on Tuesday, March 2, at 5:07 p.m. At this writing, the power has been out for 72 hours and the temperature is supposed to drop to 20 degrees this evening. That should make for a chilling experience.

I have seen but one of your trucks in our neighborhood since this situation developed. That was at 2:30 a.m. March 5. I suspect that most of your people have been concentrating on insuring that Mr. Gerstenberg and the other prominent families of the area were comfortable.

Please don't misunderstand me, I will be the first person to stand up and say that your linemen and men on the trucks have done and are still doing one heck of a job under extremely adverse conditions.

However, it seems to me that the president of the Detroit Edison Company, a company that is constantly before the Public Service Commission demanding rate increases, should not secretly hide himself in his warm paneled office during the most devastating ice storm in history. I suggest, Mr. Hamann, that rather than calling your friends that you should have been out in the streets with your men giving them encouragement and the benefit of your 38 years of experience.

It is certainly discouraging to read of your actions. In a situation, as we have had the past few days, one must remember that the little guy is as important, if not more important, than the "prominent families" of the area. The little guy can't escape the cold like your friends. He may not be as fortunate as I am to have a fireplace and the funds to buy the wood to burn. But still, the little guy, the average consumer, is the person that bears the brunt of your 128 million dollar rate increases.

I certainly believe that you owe a letter of explanation to your consumers. In light of the report of March 4, I would, if I had my choice, change electrical companies. Unfortunately, I do not have that choice and will therefore continue to pay my bills for your services, as they come due.

I would hope, however, that the management of Detroit Edison Company would take notice of the remarkable performance of their employees and learn from their example.

Thank you for hearing me out, I remain,
Very truly yours,
Arthur W. Miller,
422 Moran road,
Grosse Pointe Farms
P.S. Thanks to the perseverance and hard work of Toledo Edison personnel our power was restored on Saturday, March 6, at 11:30 a.m.

March 9, 1976
Mr. Arthur W. Miller,
422 Moran,
Grosse Pointe Farms,
Michigan 48236

Dear Mr. Miller:
Let me say first that I can understand the bitterness that comes through in your letter of March 8. Your family and many others have been without service for long periods of time. Unfortunately, many others in the Thumb area of Michigan still have a long time to go. I have personal friends and members of my family whose service was finally restored long after yours.

If I had done only what was reported in last Thursday's Free Press, the company and I should be severely criticized.

Please permit me to tell my side of the story. Last Wednesday morning, a newspaper reporter came into our storm center and heard me say "Mr. Gerstenberg" and hang up the phone. The rest of the sentence to which you refer is all his. It is true that I attempted to contact Mr. Gerstenberg but he was out of town. I did also call other prominent Detroiters, all of whom—along with Mr. Gerstenberg—are members of our Board of Directors. I felt I had a responsibility to inform them of what was going on. You may be interested in knowing that eight of these 11 directors who live in our service territory were, in fact, without service, as were most of the senior officers of this company.

What has not been printed are other things I have done. Permit me to recite a few. From 6 a.m. on Tuesday, March 2, until 11 p.m. on Wednesday, March 3, I had three hours sleep. It was I who on Tuesday evening, March 2, ordered in crews from Chicago, Cleveland, Toledo and Akron. At 11:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 3, I personally relieved two of our people who were guarding downed wires at Kerby and Kercheval in Grosse Pointe Farms for a half hour so that they could have something to eat.

That same day, after an inspection trip of the Grosse Pointe area, I then visited the hard-hit area of Oakland County. I have spent time with our crews across this entire system from Grosse Pointe to the Thumb. I managed to catch some of them at breakfast and lunch last Saturday in the Ram's Horn Restaurant on Mack avenue. On Sunday, March 7, I flew over a large part of the Thumb of Michigan in a helicopter to personally survey the damage and occasionally dropping down to talk to these dedicated people who are in the process of restoring some degree of normalcy to our service area. At about 10 p.m. on Thursday, March 4, I joined with other citizens on Charlevoix near Fisher road to cheer as a Toledo Edison crew restored service to that area. I have had contingents of unhappy customers in my living room—not prominent Detroiters, but working people from the City of Detroit.

At 1 p.m. this afternoon, I will be in a funeral home with the family of our linemen, Mr. Sanders, who was electrocuted last Saturday while attempting to restore service.

I have no apologies for my actions, Mr. Miller. I, too, commend the dedicated people of this company and others we were able to bring in to assist in this emergency. We have had almost 5,000 people at work to fulfill the obligation we feel we have to the people of this state. Our total employment is only 9,600.

My only regret is that one inaccurate, incomplete statement, written by a reporter, has caused so much consternation and created the image it has of this company.

Thank you for hearing me out.

Very truly yours,
John R. Hamann,
President and Chief Operating Officer,
Detroit Edison

Sunny yellow and lime green are the colors that set the mood for the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's annual luncheon and fashion show this year.

They're used on the bright, light invitations that went in the mail after a ticket committee meeting out in Birmingham, at the Lincoln road home of Mrs. John D. French.

They'll keynote the decor at Fairlane Manor Wednesday, April 7, when an 11 o'clock social hour precedes luncheon at noon followed by a display of spring and summer clothes by Casper, who'll be on hand, along with J.L. Hudson Company fashion director Madelyn Coe, to commentate.

Mrs. F. Ross Birkhill and Mrs. Harry G. Gersell are co-chairmen of the big fund-raiser, which benefits the DSO's Maintenance Fund. Mrs. Norman Bolz, of Winthrop place, is in charge of invitations.

Patron tickets are $25, general admission tickets $10. All seats are reserved, with the best tables going to those who get their ticket orders in earliest.

This is a pill that changes the color of your hair.

It makes it brown or red or blonde and one hundred years from now, it'll undoubtedly exist. Meantime, however, we can make your hair brown or red or blonde or any shade in-between your heart desires. It's slightly more complicated than swallowing a pill. But it's lots easier and faster than it ever was and the results are gloriously natural. If you can't wait for a pill that changes the color of your hair, see us. We do the next best thing. Best.

Miss Hogan Wed To William Starrs

Bride's Sister Serves As Honor Maid, Bride's Brother As Best Man; Newlyweds to Make Their Home in St. Clair Shores

The morning ceremony Saturday, February 21, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, at which Maureen Ann Hogan and William Louis Starrs exchanged marriage vows was followed by a reception at Hillcrest Country Club.

Father Fred Taggart presided at the 11 o'clock rites, for which the bride chose a gown featuring a bodice of re-embroidered lace, its low, rounded neckline accented with seed pearls.

Twin tiers of silk organza ruffles edged her long, slender sleeves. Matching ruffles rimmed her hem and chapel train. Lace motifs accented her fingertip mantilla, cascading over three tiers of illusion and held by a small cap of cut-out lace and seed pearls.

She carried white carnations and baby's-breath, with trailing ivy.

The newlyweds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice B. Hogan, of Hawthorne road, and son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Starrs, of Kensington road, have returned from a skiing vacation in northern Michigan to make their home in St. Clair Shores.

Kathleen Mary Hogan, in a teal blue jersey frock fashioned with long sleeves and a softly draped neckline and bodice, was her sister's honor maid.

Windsor Date For Symphony

Detroit Symphony Orchestra Music Director Aldo Ceccato will conduct the DSO and its concertmaster Gordon Staples in an all-Tchaikovsky program this Sunday evening, March 21, at 8:20 o'clock in Windsor's Cleary Auditorium. The concert will be the DSO's only appearance in Ontario this season.

Gordon Staples will be soloist in Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto in D, Opus 35. Maestro Ceccato also will conduct the Symphony No. 4 in F minor, Opus 36. Both works date from the period 1877-78.

Sunday's concert marks the DSO's 67th appearance in the Christian Culture Series, sponsored by the Basilian Fathers of Assumption University. Ticket information is available at 965-0838 in Detroit, 254-1722 in Windsor.

Junior bridesmaid Joyce Hogan, another sister, and bridesmaids Nancy Klecha, Renee Ruggeri and Kathleen and Margaretta Starrs, wore jade green jersey.

Their headpieces were matching, sheer, Gatsby clothes. They carried cascades of green-centered white daisies and yellow rosebuds.

Best man was Maurice D. Hogan, brother of the bride. Ushering were Michael and John Starrs, brothers of the bridegroom, Terrence and George Hogan, two other brothers of the bride, and Frederick Bowman.

John Hogan, another brother of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Mrs. Hogan selected a long gown of sapphire blue chiffon, sashed with a soft cummerbund and featuring a tiered, pointed overskirt. She wore an accent of sapphire blue and green feathers in her hair.

The bridegroom's mother's ensemble featured a formal length skirt of ivory lace and an ivory chiffon blouse, its neckline accented with a stand-up ruffle, its long sleeves trimmed with matching ruffles.

A joint meeting with the Parents' Club and Booster Club from North High School and the Dads' Club and Mothers' Club from South High School has been set for Wednesday, March 24.

The meeting, beginning at 8 o'clock in South High's auditorium will be followed by refreshments in Cleminson Hall.

Joan Hanpeter, president of the School Board, and Dr. Adams, Superintendent of Schools, will discuss the problems facing the school system.

Thomas Ott, assistant manager of Business Affairs for the Board of Education, Laurence Harwood, vice-president of the School Board, and Marilyn Cottichio, chairman of the Millage Steering committee for South High School, were guests at the Mothers' Club recent executive board meeting.

The millage propositions are a four-year renewal of the expiring millage with a 2.89 mills increase.

All millage for both the public schools and libraries expires June 30, 1976. The increase is not for new programs, but is needed to maintain programs at their present level by off-setting inflationary costs and replacing lost State Aid. Polling places are at the 10 elementary schools.

The South High Millage Steering committee will contact all 18-year-old students, urging them to register to vote.

The Mothers' Club Scholarship committee is in the process of evaluating scholarship applications. Thirty Thesauri will be awarded May 24 to students in the top five percent of the Senior Class.

April 30 is the date for "Almost Anything Goes" night involving parents, students and faculty. Plans are in progress.

Nominating committees representative Francis Higbie presented the slate of officers for the Mothers' Club for 1976-77, including Cynthia Huebner as president-elect, Ann Ardussi as vice-president elect, Elex Colby as secretary and Patricia Griener as treasurer.

written), as soloist.

Also on the program are Dallapiccola's Variations for Orchestra and the second suite from Roussel's ballet "Bacchus et Ariane."

Friday morning's NBD Coffee Concert is presented in cooperation with the National Bank of Detroit. Doors open at 9:30 for complimentary coffee. The concert will be preceded at 10:15 by a Bonwit Teller fashion show.

Aldo Ceccato last conducted the DSO in Ford Auditorium at the end of January. Since then he has been guest-conducting in Europe.

In February he had a return engagement with the Orquestra Nacional de Espana in Madrid, and then went to Rome to conduct the Orchestra of the Academia di Santa Cecilia. For the past three weeks he has been conducting the RAI, (Radiotelevisione italiana), Orchestra in Milan and Rome.

Maestro has been conductor of the DSO since 1973. Isaac Stern is one of the greatest and best-loved violinists of all time.

He played with major orchestras, made his Carnegie Hall debut in 1943 and very quickly became "the world's finest violinist," recording virtually all the violin repertory, touring all over the world — even playing for movie sound-tracks, including "Fiddler on the Roof."

He first appeared with the DSO in 1953, and has returned almost 20 times since, most recently in April 1974.

The Rochberg Violin Concerto is one of seven works funded by the National Endowment for the Arts as a Bicentennial joint commissioning project.

The project, between the NEA and a group of the nation's most prestigious orchestras, was inaugurated by DSO Executive Director Marshall W. Turkin and includes commissions for, and multiple performances of, works by Rochberg, Morton Gould, Ned Rorem and four other American composers.

The Rochberg work was given its premiere by Isaac Stern and the Pittsburgh Symphony last April. Rochberg, who has described the 40-minute concerto as "basically a tonal work, with occasional excursions into tonal chromaticism," has made several revisions for this week's performances.

The Dallapiccola Variations for Orchestra, also being given its first DSO performance, dates from 1954. It is based on the composer's 12-tone Piano Variations of 1952. The Roussel and Rossini works were composed in 1930 and 1812 respectively.

Group discounts for Friday morning's NBD Coffee Concert are available at 100 NBD branches. S.E.M.T.A. buses provide round-trip transportation from many suburban locations, and a special shuttle-bus service is offered by DOT between the parking lot at Third and Wayne, (just west of Cobo Hall), and Ford Auditorium.

NBD officials have also arranged for five downtown restaurants to accept special post-concert luncheon reservations from Coffee Concertgoers. The restaurants are Top of the Flame, Bourbon

Fodor to Play For Pro Musica

Pro Musica Society's guest artist Friday evening, March 26, at 8:30 o'clock in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts will be violinist Eugene Fodor, accompanied by Stephen Swedish.

Mr. Fodor, who became an international celebrity at 24 on July 2, 1974, when he tied for top prize in Moscow's Tchaikovsky Competition, (he is the only string player in the western world to receive that honor), will perform Bach's Sonata No. 1 in G minor for unaccompanied violin and Prokofiev's Sonata No. 2 in D major.

Opus 94a, plus works by Penderecki, Bloch, Kreisler, Paganini and Bazzini.

His concert will be followed, as are all Pro Musica programs, by an artists' reception in the DIA's Romanesque Room.

Mrs. John Chase, 885-5787, or Mrs. Daniel Knott, 371-5604, may be contacted for information on Pro Musica membership.

Among those making plans to attend the Fodor concert are Miss Rose Barton, of Moran road, Dr. and Mrs. John Ehrlich, of Essex road, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Ross, of Harbor Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas LeClerc, of Three Mile drive, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Snow, of McKinley Avenue, and Mrs. M. A. Beekhuis, of Balfour road.

More are Mrs. Sylvia Walton, of St. Paul Avenue, the Sterling Sanfords, of Hillcrest road, the Ralph F. Blohms, of South Oxford road, the Harcourt Caverlys, of Hall place, Dr. and Mrs. Kim Lie, of Bedford road, Mrs. Joseph Maurer, of Belanger road, the Robert Reimers, of Roslyn road, and Mr. and Mrs. Burt E. Taylor, Jr. of Ridge road.

Still others are Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Bucciero, of Coventry lane, the Paul J. Kelleys, of Sunningdale drive, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Ferrara, of Berkshire road, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Friesch, of Hampton road, Dr. and Mrs. John M. Rainey, Jr., of Balfour road, William Mitchell, of Mount Vernon road, Mrs. J. Alex Gordon, of Kenwood court, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Greiling, of Lincoln road, and Mr. and Mrs. James Higgins, of Grayton road.

Street Bistro, Chin-Tiki, Eastman's Gaslight Room and Russell's Steak House.

Tickets for the three concerts are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, and all Hudson's and Montgomery Ward outlets.

Met Tickets Selling Fast

Although the Metropolitan Opera Company will not perform in Detroit until the final week in May, tickets for two of its seven scheduled productions are almost completely sold out.

The Met is scheduled to present its annual series of performances at Masonic Temple May 24 through 29.

Opening night's production of Carmen offers only scattered seating, while the May 28 performance of Aida is a complete sellout, according to Henry Ledyard, of Lewiston road, general manager of the Detroit Grand Opera Association.

"Seats are available by mail order only for the remaining five performances, but if present trends continue, tickets for these soon will become scarce," Mr. Ledyard notes. "Those who wish to see the Metropolitan during its Detroit visit should contact us now for a complimentary brochure and an order blank."

These may be obtained by writing or calling the DGOA at 20 East Jefferson Avenue, Detroit 48226. The telephone number is 965-2940.

Mr. Ledyard added that box office sales for Met performances will begin May 3, approximately — "if tickets still remain to be sold."

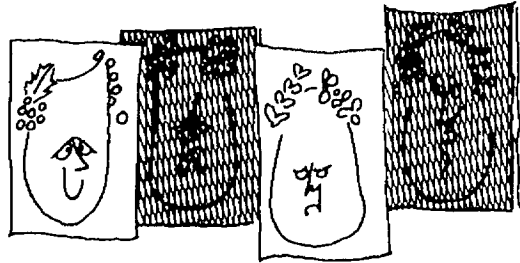

Turner-Miller Troth Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. Larry B. Miller, of Lahaska, Pa., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Amy Perring, to Richard Humphrey Turner, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Turner, of Hendrie lane.

Miss Miller was graduated from Solebury School, New Hope, Pa., attended Wheaton College and will be graduated from Lake Forest College in May. Her fiancé was graduated from Brooks School and Lake Forest College.

A July wedding is planned.

Feature Wild Flower Growing Tips

"Growing Wild Flowers in Your Garden" is the subject of the illustrated talk William S. Thomas, of Royal Oak, will give at the Grosse Pointe Garden Center's next Green Thumb Lecture Wednesday morning, March 24, at 10 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

There's no charge for this series of practical talks for Garden Center members and prospective members. The lectures are held in the Garden Center Room on the second floor of the War Memorial's Alger House, with an informal question-and-answer period usually following each speaker's presentation.

Weeds may be the only kind of "wild" flowers Pointe gardeners find in their borders, but Mr. Thomas will tell how it is possible to cultivate pure white trillium, lady slippers and other much-loved flowers no longer legal to transplant from roadsides to private gardens.

In addition to expertise in producing superb wild varieties, Mr. Thomas is a member of the American Primrose Society. He will no doubt include some tips on these spring beauties in next Wednesday's talk. The Grosse Pointe Garden Center welcomes all interested members of the community at its Bicentennial Green Thumb Series.

Ruth (Mrs. Robert L.) Kaiser, of Lothrop road, who not only knows her subject but presents it in such a way that YOU can't help but know it, too—and THAT's a talent—will discuss the music to be performed. Her lecture starts an hour before Aldo Ceccato, conductor, mounts the podium to rehearse the DSO and guest artist Michel Beroff, pianist.

"All In Today's Sound" is theme of the March 31 program, featuring works by Webern, Gould, Stravinsky and Prokofiev.

Mrs. John Nolan, of Ridge road, is general chairman of the Symphony Juniors' lecture-opera rehearsals, which benefit the DSO's Pension and Maintenance Fund.

Bus transportation from the Grosse Pointe War Memorial at $4.50 per person, including admission ticket, is available by advance reservation. The lecture begins at 1 o'clock, the open rehearsal at 2.

Cookie Time Singers

Combine musical talent and volunteerism and what have you got? In Grosse Pointe, one answer to that question is the group of Grosse Pointe South High School students who recently recorded a series of radio and television public service spot announcements to promote the annual Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit Cookie Sale.

Under the direction of Leonard Riccinto, South High's music director, singers Terry Berg, Bob Bradfield, Dawn Caputo, Paul Engstrom, Pat Geist, Diane Leto, Debbie Lisotto and Dave Watson recorded several versions of an original jingle entitled "Cookie Time."

They were accompanied by two other students, Dan Zinn on drums, Kathy Kirchner on bass, and by Mr. Riccinto at the piano. Dr. Bill Hoover, South High's instructional materials specialist, operated all the recording equipment.

The variety of 10-, 20-, 30- and 60-second public service spot announcements they made were aired during Cookie Sale Week, February 27 through March 7, on more than 40 radio and TV stations throughout the tri-county area.

Pointers Help Plan Healthorama

Pointers MRS. HENRY M. KUHLMAN, (left), of Lochmoor boulevard, chairman of the 1976 United Foundation Healthorama, and MRS. WILARD S. SMITH, (right), of Colonial road, co-chairman of the event, are leading volunteers in planning the 1976 Healthorama series of health tests offered free at two locations. The women are members of WUF, (Women for the United Foundation), which co-sponsors the series along with the United Health Organization, a Torch Drive service.

The first series of tests will be held in Lincoln Park at the St. Henry's School, 1372 Council, on April 7 through 10. The second will be held May 19 through 22 at the University of Detroit Memorial Building in Detroit. Appointments for testing may be made by calling 965-3332.

Offer Glimpse Of Americana

"It's Fun to Search and a Joy to Find" is the motto of The Questers, Inc., a national organization devoted to the study of antiques and historic preservation.

Members of the Grand Marais Chapter find it both stimulating and educational to collect antiques, research many related subjects and share their findings at each monthly meeting.

To give the public a glimpse of some of their collectibles, the Chapter is inviting the community to view a window display at Jacobson's in The Village, corner of St. Clair and Kercheval avenues, below the American and Bicentennial flags. The display may be seen through next Wednesday, March 24.

"Our American Heritage" is the theme of the window. Its feeling is that of a corner of a children's room during the 1800's. Costumes for both models have been donated by the Detroit Historical Museum.

There are four antique dolls on display: one dressed in blue velvet, standing on the Empire chair with a beautiful pink velvet seat, another in an old pine cradle covered with a doll's quilt, the remaining two on a small footstool in the right front of the window. One is an unusual black doll, the other the country's first Liberty Doll, on which is written 1776-1926 in celebration of the country's first 150 years. This is the model used for the 1976 Bicentennial doll.

A few old toys are scattered here and there, including a fire engine complete with driver, and two small ducks.

Attached to a sewing basket resting on a needlepoint footstool is a "sewing bird," a small metal utensil that can be clamped to a table. Sewing birds made for a short period of time, served

Plan Magic Night In Mediterranean

Mrs. Ignatios Voudoukis Is Chairman of Wayne County Medical Society Auxiliary Dinner-Dance Benefit This Year

The strains of the bouzouki, an authentic ethnic menu, festive decor and Greek music and dancing will set the scene for Mediterranean Night, the Wayne County Medical Society Auxiliary's benefit dinner-dance '76.

Fun begins at 7 o'clock Saturday, March 27, at the Armenian Cultural Building in Southfield, where bright-colored fishing nets will be flung over tables centered with baskets of fruit, cheese, olives and wine.

as third hands for American housewives. Flipping the tail, and a piece of material is secured in the beak, (this particular example has two pin cushions to further assist the sewer).

On a six-legged Victorian table sits a Waterford lamp wired for electricity. Its beauty can be especially enjoyed at night, as the globe lights up the whole window.

A few old books may also be seen. One held by a small child is French's First Lessons in Mental Arithmetic, the other Harper's First Reader.

On the back wall, beneath a rectangular mirror, is an old four-drawer country chest. Each drawer has an ivory inset.

On the chest is a Williamsburg arrangement of dried flowers in a Wedgwood five-fingered vase. The flowers are those commonly found growing in gardens and fields in the 18th and 19th centuries: hydrangea, pearly everlasting, bachelor's buttons, yarrow, roses, zinnias, globe amaranth, goldenrod, wheat, grasses and beech leaves.

To the left of the arrangement is a portable brass inkwell. To the right are two Flamenco dancer and Spanish guitarist, an exotic dancer and music for circle and American dancing by the Rhodians, a Greek-American orchestra.

Mrs. Berj H. Haidostian, Auxiliary president, is supervising the authentic Armenian, Lebanese and Greek cuisine, featuring stuffed grape leaves, shish kebab, baklava and many other delicacies.

Among others helping plan the event are Mrs. Emil J.

Alban, reservations chairman, Mrs. H. Richard Henderson, in charge of invitations, Mrs. F. F. Isaac, decorations, and Mrs. William E. Johnston, hostesses.

Proceeds go to the Auxiliary's Scholarship Fund, which provides assistance for medical and nursing students at Wayne and Michigan State Universities and the University of Michigan. The public is invited. Tickets, at $25 per person, may be obtained by calling 562-7890.

Delta Kappa Gammass Set Spring Luncheon

The Metropolitan Council of Delta Kappa Gamma international society of women educators' annual spring luncheon and birthday observance will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial this Saturday, March 20, starting at noon.

Eight Detroit area chapters are marking the 10th anniversary of the Council and the 47th birthday of DKG International.

Dr. Naida Dostal, past-president of both the Metropolitan Council and the Alpha Iota State (Michigan) Branch of the international group, will speak on "Women in Today's World." Dr. Dostal is supervisor of Foreign Languages for the Detroit Public Schools.

Delta Kappa Gamma, which works to promote the status of women in general and women teachers in particular, now through an expansion program begun in 1970—has chapters in Norway, Sweden, Finland, Mexico, Guatemala and Iceland as well as the United States and Canada.

The organization provides scholarships for women educators of other nations to study in the United States, plus both state and national grants for its own members to do work at the advanced graduate level.

In addition, DKG supports such projects as a community college on an Indian reservation and educational seminars for its members; some, on purposeful living, conducted in the United States; others, on the educational methods and systems of foreign countries, conducted abroad.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. just listed a delicious, one of a kind, 90 year old Farm House. The floors aren't level, the walls not true, the lay out kinda botched up. The ceilings bow and the windows are the original ones. And you know what? Its absolutely charming, quaint, cozy and all of the other real estate adjectives so commonly used.

Which brings us to almost all of our older G.P. homes. Sure the floors slant and the walls are a little crooked but the charm and warmth is still there — Something only craftsmanship of yesterday and time can produce. That's what Grosse Pointe is — not new — not old — just about the most perfect community in the whole wide world.

The people at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087 have a novel way of combining the old charm with the new — such as kitchens and bathrooms. Sometimes its just that small insight through a designer and interior decorator's eye that helps you decide whether a house is a go or no go. Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. has, at your service, their on staff designer and decorator.

DID YOU KNOW?

The fear is gone with a "used home" purchase when you buy with Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co.'s Buyers Protection Plan — a one year warranty. Only they can offer you this exclusive protection in Grosse Pointe.

Richmond Research Team Discovers 'Enriched Flavor.'

MERIT taste secret found by isolating key flavor ingredients in cigarette smoke, then adding them to tobacco.

In Richmond, Virginia, there's an eight-story building that houses the main Research Facility for Philip Morris.

Around the company they call it the Tower. It's here that pure research in tobacco yielded what might be the most significant smoking advance since the filter.

It's called 'Enriched Flavor.' It comes in the tobacco of a new kind of low tar cigarette. MERIT.

Only 9 mg. of tar. Yet with astonishing flavor.

If you enjoy a full-flavor cigarette now — but would like to find a low tar smoke with a taste you can switch to and stick with — you'll be interested.

Key Flavor Ingredients Of Tobacco Isolated

'Enriched Flavor' was developed by "cracking" cigarette smoke down into its basic ingredients, and isolating special key units that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar.

'Enriched Flavor' is extra flavor. Natural flavor. Flavor that can't burn out, can't fade out, can't do anything but come through for you.

We packed MERIT with 'Enriched Flavor' and began a series of taste tests.

Taste-Tested By People Like You

Thousands of filter cigarette smokers tested 9 mg. tar MERIT against five current leading low tar brands ranging from 11 mg. to 15 mg. tar.*

The results were conclusive:

Even if the cigarette tested had 60% more tar, a significant majority of all smokers tested reported new 'Enriched Flavor' MERIT delivered more taste.

Repeat: delivered more taste.

In similar tests against 11 mg. to 15 mg. menthol brands, 9 mg. tar MERIT MENTHOL performed strongly too, delivering as much — or more — taste than the higher tar brands tested.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough. Now you've got the cigarette.

MERIT. Incredible smoking pleasure at only 9 mg. tar.

UNIVERSITY LIGGETT FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT
ANNEKE de la BEY

By Joanne Nicora

When one thinks of Holland, wooden shoes, tulips and Hans Brinker usually come to mind. Anneke de la Bey doesn't wear wooden shoes, carry tulips or read Hans Brinker. But she's definitely from Holland and she's definitely observing differences between the American way of life and life in her native Apeldoorn.

Anneke is an 18-year-old foreign exchange student at University Liggett.

Among other things, school has been one big change for Anneke. She's finding it much easier in America.

"Here you can choose many subjects. At home school is more structural. You have to take certain courses. You really can't choose your own classes."

At University Liggett Anneke is busy with French, English, calculus, chemistry, music and art.

Explains System
Anneke explains that Dutch students attend elementary school until 12 years of age. Then students have the choice of continuing their education at several four, five and six-year schools, each of which focuses on a particular discipline. Entrance into the schools is via exam. Anneke was attending a six-year general school before coming to University Liggett.

Describing her country as "smaller than Michigan," Anneke says Holland is characterized by many lowlands and canals, with a population of about 13 million. She points out that although many people picture the Dutch as skating on the canals, this really isn't true. Just recently the canals were frozen enough for skating—something which hasn't occurred in 13 years.

The youngest in her family, Anneke left behind two brothers and a mother and father in Apeldoorn.

Welcomes Opportunity
"My parents are very happy that I can visit the United States, and I'm glad I have this opportunity to learn myself."

She is very happy with her family here. Dr. and Mrs. Robert H. Gregg, of Peach Tree Lane, have two sons and one daughter who attend University Liggett along with Anneke.

Anneke doesn't really have any special chores around the Gregg household but she is expected to clean her room: a task of which, like most American students, she isn't too fond.

She isn't bothered by the fact that Americans and others stereotype the Dutch as wearing wooden shoes and growing tulips. The Dutch do the very same thing, Anneke notes, by stereotyping Americans as very rich and owning big cars. Anneke explains that Americans are also talked about in a political manner, because "when we talk about Americans, people usually talk about politics."

The Image Changed
Big cars and very rich people were images that even Anneke held in her mind about Americans. During her seven-month stay here, her images have changed somewhat.

"What I've learned is that people are people no matter where you go. Americans have the same feelings we do."

There are, however, some things Anneke dislikes about Americans. She finds some of their snobbish and impersonal.

"Everyone seems to go their own way here. I don't know: people aren't as close as they are back home."

"My father comes home very late, and my family waits till he comes home for dinner before we sit down to eat, so we can always be together. Here it is different."

Misses Coffee Breaks
Overall Anneke feels that the lifestyle here is very fast as compared to the lifestyle in Holland. She explains that early each morning in Holland, every business and household takes a coffee break, sitting down for a few moments and chatting. So far, Anneke hasn't encountered that custom here.

When not busy with school and writing letters back home, Anneke spends her spare time with friends, skating, cross-country skiing, (something which she doesn't see much of in Holland), playing basketball and tennis and enjoying movies. She recently saw "Gone With the Wind" and would like to see "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest." However, a look upon her face indicates she hasn't any desire to see "Jaws."

Like millions of American housewives, Anneke enjoys soap operas, another "something" she doesn't see too much of in Apeldoorn. Her favorites are "Another World" and "Somerset."

Anneke explains that television in Holland is very different from that in the United States. There are only two channels, and programming is only on the air from 7 to 11:30 in the evening, with only two commercials before two nightly newscasts. (Many American T.V. viewers would certainly welcome that.)

For some foreign exchange students, differences in food and language in slang can be a problem. So far, Anneke has had no real problems with food, finding that Americans eat basically the same as the Dutch except that they eat more meat and the Dutch eat more vegetables. However, Anneke notes one surprising aspect regarding the freshness of our food. In Holland everyone eats fresh food daily, whether that means going to the store to buy it or making it fresh at home.

Gets Used to Slang
American slang, however, is another story for Anneke, but it's only been a matter of getting used to it.

"It's hard to learn slang back at home because they really don't teach it in school," she emphasizes that English is taught in terms of using it to read books, newspapers, et al.

What does Anneke think of our snowy winters?

"I love the snow," she says simply.

Although you can't say snow is a welcome change for Anneke, it certainly is a change from what she's used to. Anneke describes the weather in Holland with consistent temperatures of 50 to 60 degrees and lots of rain.

Anneke has been making good use of the snow with a trip to Petoskey for skiing and a cross-country skiing, something she really enjoys.

Wants to Come Back
Though she is scheduled to leave the United States the day after our Bicentennial celebration, July 5, Anneke would like to return here to travel and to pursue a career in social work.

After her stay here, Anneke and other foreign exchange students in Michigan will go on a tour of the United States for two weeks, visiting and sightseeing in cities like Washington, D.C. Outside of the Detroit area, Anneke has been to Traverse City and Bay City, and visited friends in Connecticut over the Christmas holidays.

With her observations of the American lifestyle, Anneke has come to the overall conclusion that everything is much bigger here than it is in Holland. In Holland, "you really have to see everything as much smaller. The houses are smaller, the shopping centers are smaller, the cars are smaller — everything is just so much smaller!"

What has been Anneke's most pleasant experience these past seven months?

"When I look back on it, I really can't pick one experience and call it the best. I would have to say that the whole experience has been pleasant."

The Goodwill division alone provides employment for nearly 200 persons involved in the collection, repair and sale of household discards. Wages of handicapped persons are paid from funds received as the result of sale of recycled merchandise.

Fashion Is The Focus For Reach to Recovery

"Ninety thousand American women will have mastectomies during 1976. Fortunately for those who have found the cancer early, 84 percent will survive and lead completely normal, healthy lives," explains Cindy Nagel, chairperson of "Mastectomee Update '76," to be held from noon until 3:30 o'clock Wednesday, April 14, at the Roostertail.

To illustrate Cindy's point, 32 women who are active in the Reach to Recovery program in the Wayne County unit of the American Cancer Society will model bras, lingerie, swimsuits, sports clothes and elegant evening fashions: complete daytime/nighttime wardrobes from Jacobson's Specialty Stores.

Besides the fashion show, Update '76 will include a display of the newest prostheses and a panel discussion by physicians on the latest in detection, diagnosis and treatment of breast cancer.

Invitations have been sent to 1,200 women who have been visited by Reach to Recovery volunteers after their surgery. During the past year, the 78 women in Wayne County's Reach to Recovery program, several of whom are Pointers, visited 803 mastectomee patients in Wayne County hospitals. Patients are visited at the physicians request.

Women who wish to join the Reach to Recovery volunteer program may contact Priscilla Nye at the ACS Wayne County office, 336-0030.
