We don't say Oxxford clothes won't wrinkle. Anything other than armor will. But the basic fine lines of an Oxxford coat, the softly rolled lapel, the crisp shoulder line, are retained. Maybe that's the reason there's an extra "x" in Oxxford.

Back at the turn of the century, when Hickey's opened for business on Woodward Avenue near State Street things were different.

The streets were filled with buggies and wagons. We sold lots of frock coats and plush hats - that's what a gentleman wore for Sunday. Separate colors were big — we had cases full of them.

Today, we still outfit the contemporary males, but with easy fitting, natural suits for business and sport jackets for week-ends. Soft shirts of oxford and broadcloth have replaced the tight collars. Sportswear was unheard of when we started. Now men spend their leisure hours in comfort.

When we've been in business this long, there must be a reason. Some of them are listed on the left.

North also received the season' trophy, marking the second year it has remained undefeated.

Why We Are VOTING 'NO' on Proposition No. 1 School Election March 29

This will be our first "no" vote on any tax increase for the schools in 38 years. The decision was reluctantly taken, only because we have not come up with satisfactory answers to the following questions:

1. What part of the 2.75 mills increase over last year's budget will be toward teachers' salary increases?

ANSWER: The School Board cannot answer this question, it cannot budge this item, and it cannot give an estimate or specific recommendation until negotiations are concluded with the Union on the contract expiring June 30. To do so would be an "Unfair Labor Practice". This creates the incredible situation of the taxpayers having to vote "in the dark". To illustrate: 83% of the total operating budget goes to teachers' salaries and fringe benefits. And each 1% of any increase in salaries exacted by the Unions in the negotiations between now and June 39, means a 3 millage increase in taxes.

2. How can the taxpayers enable the Board to divulge this information and give taxpayers the benefit of their recommendations? ANSWER: Only by voting "no", so the Board can re-schedule a new election AFTER negotiations are concluded.

3. Is the Union seeking salary increases and if so, how much? ANSWER: Like the School Board, the Unions say they cannot give out any information at this time, but for the reason they have not mands". We can only speculate. Manifestly they have substantial increases in mind since the Union advised the press that even the 2.75 millage increase is inadequate. We are told the Union will ask for a "catch up" item to cover inadequacy of the 17.7% (over three years) they achieved in the last negotiation. Also that there will be an item of "cost of living" increase. Also increases to bring Grosse Pointe salaries abreast of the highest salaries paid in other Michigan school districts.

4. Are the teachers represented by the same Union which furthered an illegal strike by Grosse Pointe teachers in October 1969?

ANSWER: Yes. Because that strike was so damaging to the teachers' image, (unfairly so perhaps, since many teachers did not condone it), it has been suggested it would be a wholesome thing for the Union at this time to publicly renounce any intention of furthering any more illegal strikes in the future.

What salaries and fringe benefits to the Grosse Pointe teachers now receive? ANSWER: SALARIES: Average, $17,621; minimum starting salaries, $10,000 and $12,000; maximum, in excess of $20,000.

FRINGE BENEFITS: (Paid by the School District) Blue Cross, Blue Shield (family) $1,000 per teacher per year; $15,000 life insurance policy, $75.00 Special Disability Benefits, $150.00. 6. If there is a "yes" vote, and the salary increases negotiated are so substantial as to render the 2.75 millage increase inadequate, what then? ANSWER: The Board will have to cut back on other budget items to provide for the increases until another election can be scheduled to ask the taxpayers to vote additional millage.

7. If there is a "yes" vote will the taxpayers have any opportunity to vote on the increases negotiated between the Union and the Board?

8. Wouldn't a "no" vote on March 29, put the school board's negotiations "behind the eight ball" in negotiating with the unions?

ANSWER: It would certainly seem so, The taxpayers would have voted for and placed the whole "pot" of money on the table so the Union's only job would be to get what they can of it. If there is a "no" vote on the other hand, both the Union and Board negotiators would be under the sobering obligation of knowing that whatever increases they agree on would have to be justified to the voting taxpayers, and subject to their voting approval.

9. What happens next if there is a "no" vote on March 29? ANSWER: In our opinion a "no" vote would trigger a highly desirable chain of events, beneficial to almost everybody:

First: the Union and the Board could conclude their negotiations of a contract to be binding on both parties WHEN subsequently approved by the vote in another election.

Second: on concluding that negotiation the Board and the Unions would have opportunity to fully explain the salary increases, if any, to the voters at P.T.A. meetings and in the press.

An election could then be re-scheduled (there could be elections either late June or early July) at which two proposals would be voted on: Proposition #1: additional millage to cover the present millage plus whatever additional the Board recommends for loss of State Aid, and other necessary operational increases except millage for increased teachers' salaries and benefits; Proposition #2: additional millage to cover the increased salaries and benefits, if any, agreed on between the Union and the Board. FINAL COMMENT: While our decision to vote "no" is contrary to the Board's recommendation, that fact in no way diminishes our high regard and respect for the Board, and its individual members, their total integrity and dedication to the interests of all, as they view those interests. We are most fortunate to have citizens of their caliber and dedication, willing to devote their time and efforts so unselfishly. One is also impressed with the exceptional caliber and dedication of the School's administrative staff. Both Board and Staff rendered total cooperation in providing any and all information requested of them, legal and proper for them to provide, for which we are most appreciative.

If you are a Grosse Pointe resident...Here are 10 reasons why you should support the GROSSE POINTE WAR MEMORIAL Family Participation Campaign for 1976

THE ALGER HOUSE . . . a gift to the community from the Russell A. Alger Family

Dear Grosse Pointer:

Grosse Pointe War Memorial - Alger House, Fries Auditorium, the beautiful lakeside lawns and gardens were outright gifts to Grosse Pointe. The Center is two-thirds self-supporting and uses not one dollar of tax monies.

Just once a year Pointe residents are asked to contribute toward the operational costs. This they have done without fail for twenty-eight years while the Center has grown and expanded its educational opportunities, services and facilities for all age groups and interests. The Board of Directors and staff are most appreciative of this support without which the Center could not

This year the amount estimated to balance minimal operational and maintenance costs is $135,000.00.

We ask you to continue your support of this uniquely beautiful living Memorial Center by renewing or becoming a member donor in whatever catagory you can and feel the Civic Center deserves. You gift is income tax deductible.

Thank you for your help.

Certain wines, such as true Beaujolais and some Loir Valley wines, are best drunk young before their freshness is lost. Ageing improves great red wines and some white wines. Red wines are aged in both wooden barrels and in bottles. In contact with a well-chosen wood, usually oak, the wine acquires a very pleasant taste and aroma from the resins in the wood. Oxygen seeps through the wood and causes oxidation. Gradually the colour, bouquet and taste are modified, and lose the characteristics, especially the acidity of a young wine. Except for high-quality red wines, the wine is bottled within six months of fermentation.

Don't hesitate to ask the knowledgeable people at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626 to help you belect the right wine for your taste and budget. We have a wide selection of wines to choose from as well as a full inventory of beers and liquors for all your party needs. Free delivery service. Hours: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs; 10-11 Fri., Sat; noon-10 P.M. Sun.

WINE WISDOM:

Keep your wine bottles laying horizontally so that the cork in the bottle will stay moist.

The origins of boxing belong to Greek mythology. The earliest rize-ring code of rules was formulated in England on August 10, 1743, by the champion pugitist Jack Broughton, who reigned as king of boxing from 1729 to 1750. Boxing which had in 1867 come under the Queensberry Rules, was not established as a legal sport in Britain until after the ruling of Mr. Justice Garntham on April 1901. From then until now, boxing has had some really important kings, both in Europe and in America - and its most important title, of course, is "World Champion."

A Statement from

Lee H. Allen John M. Bruce, Jr. John R. Hanpeter Laurance J. Harwood

William F. Huetteman Melissa B. Maghielse Robert D. Warner

As elected Trustees of the Board of Education of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, we serve the citizens on a day-to-day basis by dealing with the major issues and problems; therefore, from our perspective it is imperative that we make our personal feeling known about the need to pass the pending millage proposals.

- We are elected to represent the community in negotiating with the school system's five bargaining units. Under existing law, negotiation and approval of contracts cannot be delegated to the electorate.
- 2. Each summer we borrow over $7,000,000 to fund the system until taxes are collected in December. If we do not have a millage base we could not borrow the necessary funds to meet the school system's needs.
- 3. Program planning will come to a virtual halt if the millage fails. Further, as we being our search for a new Superintendent of Schools, it is critical that we project financial stability in order to be able to attract competent applicants.
- All operational millage will be depleted June 30, 1976. The school system must have approval of millage in order to operate beyond June 30.

We, the Trustees, have paid for this ad as private citizens in order to make known our strong feelings concerning the needs of our district.

We ask for a "YES" Vote from all citizens. The schools need your support.

Struggle to get taste into low tar smoking ends suddenly with new Enriched Flavor'discovery for 9 mg. tar MERIT.

For years, dependency on tar for taste has created a taste "barrier" for low tar cigarettes.

A limit on how good a low tar smoke could taste.

Now that barrier has been broken. Broken for good by a remarkable cigarette called MERIT.

MERIT packs 'Enriched Flavor'. A radical new taste discovery so effective at fortifying tobacco with extra flavor that MERIT actually delivers as much - or more - taste than cigarettes having higher tar.

Up to 60% higher tar.

Yet MERIT has only 9 mg. tar. One of the lowest tar levels in smoking today. Lower, in fact, than 98% of all cigarettes sold.

Thousands of smokers were tested. The results were conclusive.

Three Farms residents, two of Grosse Pointe boulevard and one of Lewiston road, reported that someone rang their door bell and when they went to the door, no one was there. Later on. they each found the charred remains of materials set on fire against their houses.

Insulate!

More than 100,000 Michigan Consolidated Gas Company heating customers have taken advantage of our low-cost ceiling insulation program in the past two years.

Originated under the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, we are presenting the program again Why insulate? Because it helps hold down home heating costs. With the cost of gas continuing to rise, installing ceiling insulation has never made more sense than it does right now. Many Michigan Consolidated customers have already reduced their gas consumption for home heating by as much as 17%. And you can save just as much by installing six inches of ceiling insulation in your home this spring.

How much does it cost? Many homeowners can install insulation themselves for about $125. That's a smart investment when the money you save on heating can repay the insulation cost in just a few years. We have a free handbook that shows you just how to do the job, whether you'll be insulating for the first time or adding to insulation that's been there for many years. You can get a copy at any Michigan Consolidated Gas Company Business Office, most building supply dealers, or write or call us.

If you'd rather not do the job yourself, one of our participating subcontractors can. Total cost is about $250 for homes with less than 1000 sq. ft. of ceiling area. You can pay cash. You can pay 20% down and pay the balance without interest over your next three gas bills. Or you can make extended payments at the interest rate of 1% per month on the unpaid balance (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%).

So why not insulate this spring? You'll make next winter's heating costs less than they might be without it. And if you have air conditioning, you'll save on this summer's cooling costs, too.

Volley Boys' Aid NHS Team

By Sue Fancett

In their first year of organization, the Grosse Pointe North Girls Volleyball team advanced to the State Tournament, played at Schoolcraft College in Livonia on Saturday, March 20.

The week preceding the tournament was full of con-troversy and publicity regarding the two male mem-bers of the team, juniors Bob Marshall and Dennis Knoff.

The Detroit News and Detroit Free Press ran stories on the boys, and WWJ-TV had a film report, in which the boys were interviewed.

Marshall and Knoff, al though they did not play in regular season Bi-County League games due to a league decision, were instrumental in North's capturing the Port Huron Northern Regionals on Saturday, March

In the Regionals, which allowed North to advance to the State Tournament, the Norsemen defeated Grosse Pointe South, Detroit Do-minican and Mount Clemens.

When tournament day arrived, so did hundreds of interested spectators, almost all of whom severely booed and jeered North. North won its first match against Howell by scores of 15-6, 11-15 and 15-8. In their semifinal against Dearborn Fordson, Teacher Team North did not, however, fare as well. The Norsemen were easily eliminated 15-4 and Fordson went on to become State Champions, by defeating Ferndale in the finals. Now that the tournament is over, things are returning to normal at North, after quite a hectic week. Coach Marlene Maige summed up her feelings in a Detroit Free Press story on March 19, by saying, "The coaches don't like the boys playing with the girls and I agree with them, but I have to abide by the court de-Amazon River with a party of scientists in 1916. Mr. Williams' father, David, one of the most widely traveled men of his day, completed some 50 trips around the world and authored the book, "The World Is My Oyster." Although born in London, England, Mr. Williams was reared in California and attended public and private schools. During his college years he became interested in acting and while studying at Orange Coast College played the leading role in Henrik Ibsen's "Peer Gynt." As a principle member of the Laguna Playhouse, he was awarded many leading roles. Mr. Williams began his travels while a student at Valley Verde School, Sedona, Ariz. After attending the University of Arizona, he began organizing tours to Europe-an opportunity afforded him by his father, who oper ated a travel agency. He began his career with the chartering of a yacht in Poole, England, and for two summers escorted students across the English Channel to tour the French Canal System and to sail to many ports of the Mediterranean. Thereafter, he became a director of international tours el agencies and traveled extensively throughout Europe, the Middle East, Asia and the South Seas.

Departing the travel-tour field Mr. Williams objectively studied cinematography at the Brooks Institute of Phofor two separate world trav-tography in Santa Barbara, Calif., that he might properly and artfully record his adventures. Assisted by his wife. Michele, a Parisian-born international traveler, he has values of the countries and cities filmed for travelogues. Reservations for the complete evening, French dinner, (tax and service included), and show, are $8.75. Show only tickets may be pur-Lakeshore road, for $2.75.

It does not seem to matter that the people in those districts are making such quality education possible only through payment of high millage.

Similarly these same legislators are upset at high,expenditure districts because they feel it costs the State millions to try to help other, lower expenditure, districts to catch up.

Further, they see that such catching up and that in- instate substantial special creased aid essentially goes into paying higher salaries rather than increased programs.

Second, these same legislators, combined with many rural, Republican legislators, continually attack the property tax as inequitable or regressive and are again pushing for a constitutional amendment to reduce a property tax, even with voter approval.

Third, the present "guar-anteed yield" formula provides no funds to our district because local yield exceeds the guaranteed level.

In suggesting that taxes could increase by 15 percent, readers are left with the impression that the school budget will increase by 15 percent. This is the wrong impression to leave the citizens with-it is not true and should not be implied. The school budget, (projected for 1976-77), is to be increased by 7.3 percent. It must be remembered that funds lost in other areas, (State aid, single business tax and other revenue losses), must be made up locally. We cannot maintain even the present level of education for that 7.3 percent.

A second and related issue also has more than one side: Will the Grosse Pointe Schools really receive any State aid in 1976-77? While Sen. Where should Grosse Pointe teachers rank? Certainly a stable school system with an experienced staff of which much is expected should rank high in this state-certainly near systems such as Birmingham. But why are we below Allen Park, Trenton, Highland Park, Oak Park, River Rouge? Is it known that in the last eight years Grosse Pointe has always ranked in the top three districts in the State? Why have our teachers dropped to ninth? Will the citizens of Schools have acted to hold down costs in the face of rising inflation — not just passing costs on to the "customer." Cheaper mimeograph paper is being used, textbooks are being used longer, the maintenance staff has been cut and maintenance standards lowered; teacher salary schedule increases have been about two percent, five percent and five percent in these last three years, while the cost of living has increased over 27 percent. Such changes have caused a decline in educational quality.

Everything else costs more these days; have we any right to expect education not to cost more also?

I urge those concerned to visit their schools, see the job done and support this important part of our community. Help us protect our children's education, our property values and the quality of life in The Pointe.

SHS Natators Sunk at Meet

By Rick Thomas The 1975 swimming season came to a finale when six South High School swimmers participated in the Michigan

University of Michigan. Unfortunately, Steve Swanson scored South's only 11 points, as other Devil swimmers fell victim to meet rules and mediocre perform-

Swanson placed fourth in the 100-yard breaststroke with a varsity record time of 1:02.569 to make up all of South's points, Dearborn won the meet with a total of 139 points.

Last year, South finished 19th with 13 points. This year the Devils finished in 26th place.

South's best chance in the meet had been considered the medley relay team of Drew Pillsbury, Swanson, Tony Montague and Steve Soderberg. The team was disqualified in the preliminaries, however, because Pillsbury didn't wear a team swimsuit as required by meet rules.

To qualify for the meet earlier this year, the team had swum a 1:44.2 heat and was marked eighth by the "Detroit News."

Possibly because the disqualification disturbed him, Pillsbury failed to qualify in the top 12 in either the 100-yard backstroke or butterfly. Throughout this season, however, Pillsbury established himself as the hast all-around swimmer in South history as he set a total of six new school records.

Other disappointments in the State Meet for South included diver Pete Saggau, who finished 22nd. Saggau had earlier this year placed eighth in the "Detroit News Invitational," and was expected to place in the top 10 in the State Meet.

Though perhaps not ready to take on State swimming powers, South declared its supremacy in the Eastern Michigan League as the Devils won their third consecutive league meet championship the weekend of March 6.

In the meet, Devil swimmers broke five EML records and two school varsity records as they compiled a total of 112 points, outdis-tancing second place East Detroit by 15 points. Pillsbury comprised two of the records as he broke team and varsity marks in the 200-yard individual medley and the butterfly events. Swanson and Soderberg combined for two more new records The 200-yard medley relay,

This week I am starting a growing, the rise of ocean series of articles which I tides and the fall of empires. As a statesman, Franklin month for the remainder of stood in the front rank of the > services as minister to War, and many historians consider him the ablest and most successful diplomat that America has ever sent abroad. If Franklin is remembered as one of our country's greatest statesmen, his contributions to science and to our knowledge of electricity also were such that Robert A. Millikan, Nobel prize-winning physicist, places him "among 15 scientists who. from Copernicus to the 20th century, have had the most influence." In Millikan's list, Franklin comes fifth, preceded only by the Polish astronomer Copernicus, the Italian physicist Galileo, the English mathematician Newton and the Dutch physicist State Swimming Meet at the Huygens. As an inventor, Franklin was unequalled in the United States until the time of Thomas Edison.

But his firsts were not limited to stoves, kites and lightning rods. Franklin helped establish Pennsylvania's first university, America's first city hospital and the world's first public "subscription" library.

In addition to his famous AUTOBIOGRAPHY and SAYINGS OF POOR RICH-ARD, two excellent biographies of Franklin have recently been added to our library collection. First we have THE PRIVATE FRANKLIN: THE MAN AND HIS FAMILY (Norton) by Claude-Anne Lopez and Eugenia W. Herbert. This fascinating new study of Franklin as a family man is drawn from his letters that have survived: correspondence between Franklin, his family, his friends. A new and less heroic view of the man emerges as we see him involved in business affairs and family concerns. He did not handle his children well; he refused permission to his daughter to marry the man of her choice, parted company with his son William over political differences. On the other hand, he was exceedingly generous with others and made himself re-sponsible for a number of people beyond the immediate family. The contradictions in this great man make for intriguing and fresh reading.

The second biography is Catherine Drinker Bowen's THE MOST DANGEROUS MAN IN AMERICA (Atlantic-Little Brown). The "Franklin book," as Mrs. Bowen called it not long before her death, is intended not as a straight biographical narrative, but as a personal tribute cast in scenes each scene in Franklin's life revealing an aspect of the man that struck her as re-markable. This long-admired author had a passion for American history, and that passion along with her fa-miliar writing gifts bring this man to life as she writes of his experiments with electricity, his involvement in the 1754 Albany Congress, the Dogood Papers, his London years and his Privy Council humiliation in 1774.

In spare, unflamboyant prose, this book evades the essences, rather than the surfaces and details, of Franklin's first 68 years. Few men have been so eminent in so

The supply for this is kept under constant pressure to ensure full force flow from faucets. Every home has a main shutoff valve, usually located near the water meter, where the supply enters the house. The second plumbing system drains waste water from all home fixtures. ### DSO Presents Four 'Ninths'

Director Aldo Ceccato will Opera Company). conduct the orchestra, four vocal soloists and the Uni-versity of Michigan Choral and completed her formal Union in four performances music education in Philadelof Beethoven's Ninth Sym- phia. phony this weekend in Detroit and Ann Arbor.

The performances mark the first time the DSO has presented this work at regular subscription concerts since 1965.

The concerts, which open with Beethoven's Symphony No. 1, are scheduled for Thursday and Saturday evenings, March 25 and 27, and Sunday afternoon, March 28, in Ford Auditorium, Detroit, and Friday evening, March 26, at Hill Auditorium in Ann Arbor.

The evening concerts all begin at 8:30 and will end at approximately 10:45 o'clock. Sunday afternoon's Kresge Family Concert begins at 3:30 and will end at approximately 5:45.

Besides the U of M. Choral Union, singers in the Ninth Symphony's choral finale will be soprano Karen Altman, mezzo soprano Beverly Wolff, tenor Seth McCoy and bassbaritone Simon Estes. Miss Wolff and Mr. Estes will be making their DSO debuts.

Soprano Karen Altman's previous appearance with the DSO was in October of 1970, when she sang in a performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony at the Worcester Festival.

A native of Pennsylvania, she studied at Juilliard and has performed in opera in this country and abroad, and in concert with most major United States Orchestras. In 1971 she was chosen by Leonard Bernstein as soprano soloist in the world premiere of his "Mass."

Wolff is well-known in opera and concert all over the world. She has an enormously wide repertory, from Monteverdi, (she sang in the San Francisco Opera's "Poppea" last fall), to Leonard Bernstein, (for whom she sang the 7:30 o'clock Thursday and heroine of "Trouble in Saturday nights.

Tenor Seth McCoy has sung with the DSO both at Meadow Brook, (the Bach B minor Mass in 1966), and at Ford Auditorium, (Joplin's 'Treemonisha' in 1974).

Now a member of the Bach Aria Group, Mr. McCoy regularly tours with them — as he did with the Robert Shaw Chorale during the early years of his career—as well as appearing with the leading orchestras and at the leading festivals of North America.

Bass-baritone Simon Estes' stardom dates from 1966, when he won the silver medal at the First International Tchaikovsky Vocal Competition in Moscow.

Born in Iowa, Mr. Estes studied at the University of Iowa and at Juilliard and has sung in opera and concert all over the world. He was soloist in the United States premier of Shosta-kovich's Symphony No. 14 with the Philadelphia Orchestra.

The University of Michigan Choral Union has sung with the DSO twice before: in performances of Beet-hoven's "Fidelio" at the Meadow Brook Music Festival in 1971 and in an all-Brubeck program in Detroit and Ann Arbor in January 1974. Donald Bryant is director of the Choral Union.

Teetering on the edge of Lake Saint Clair, in Cameron place, Anne Parcells' modern home is an ideal place to begin a life of an aesthete.

From every seat in the home, one's view is directed to the lake through the huge windows that form most of the lake-side wall. The wather's blue-green hues are re-flected back in the earth tones and pale blue decor of the five-level home.

the emphasis placed on phyeducation, something Anne thinks that most coeducational colleges lack.

After Smith she worked in interior design in Boston for three years and then it was back home to The Pointe, where she was raised and had most of her schooling, for a job as interior decorator at the J. L. Hud-
