A TORNADO HIT the central Michigan community of Perry on Wednesday, April 21, nearly destroying one home and badly damaging a modular home factory. Police said no one was injured, even though the owner of the home, George Mansfield, was inside when the twister struck. Police report the tornado picked up Mr. Mansfield's home as he sat inside, turned it completely around in the air and then dropped it back down again. Employees of the factory, Keyway Homes Inc., fled out the back door as the twister hit the front, police said.

A DYNAMITE BLAST rocked a marble walled corridor of a Boston court house Thursday, injuring 18 persons. Officials said there was no evidence to link the blast to recent racial unrest. The bomb exploded exactly the time an anonymous caller had warned that a bomb would explode. The caller said at 8:03 a.m. the bomb would go off in 20 minutes. "It went off in 20 minutes," said John E. Powers, clerk of the State Supreme Court. "It was right on time."

Saturday, April 24

THOUSANDS OF SILENT blacks and whites, crowded sidewalk-to-sidewalk for a half a mile, marched through Boston Friday to solemnly protest violence in the city. Blue-jeaned teenagers, who walked quietly beside well-dressed business executives from Boston Common to City Hall Plaza, were led by Gov. Michael S. Dukakis and Mayor Kevin H. White. The size of the predominantly white crowd, mostly from area offices and colleges, was estimated by reporters at 30,000-50,000.

WITH A WARNING THAT "time is running out" for Rhodesia's white rulers, Secretary of State Henry Kissinger began Saturday a two-week tour of Africa to demonstrate firm U.S. support for black majority rule and economic progress. At the same time, sources in his party denied that they had said military aid to black nationalists was under consideration. They said that possible economic support was not being ruled out. "The future of Africa must be shaped by Africans," said Dr. Kissinger, in a direct reference to recent Cuban activities in Angola.

HEALTH CARE COSTS are rising at record rates in part because the medical profession had monopoly-like control over services and fees, the government reported Sunday. The 30-page survey said American doctors enjoy a noncompetitive status which allows them to diagnose the ailment, prescribe the treatment and set the price, while patients have little choice but to accept the decisions and the bills. The study said, since 1965, the average fee for a doctor's office visit has jumped 53 percent, from $12.80 to $19.55. The average hospital stay, it said, costs more than three times what it did 10 years ago.

THE SENATE INTELLIGENCE Committee wound up a 15-month, $3 million investigation Monday with a call for "remedial action" to prevent future abuses by the CIA and other intelligence agencies. In a series of 87 recommendations, the committee urged much stricter controls by the President and Congress over foreign espionage and secret political and paramilitary operations abroad. An additional report with recommendations on domestic spying is to be released later.

North's Exhibit, Sale Features Student Art

LEPLEY. Mastermind of the exhibit, which continues through Thursday, May 6, is art department chairman JOHN WARGELIN, (left foreground). Viewing hours will be from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. and 7-10 p.m.

Screening Tests Set For Seniors

Wayne County Health Department Offers Free Program Next Month in Harper Woods

Senior citizens (those 60 and over), of all the Pointes and Harper Woods are invited to participate in a health screening program, sponsored by the Wayne County Health Department, next month at the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library, 19601 Harper Woods.

The purpose of the free tests, which will be held May 3, 4, 5, 7, 10, 11, 12 and 14 from 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m., is to identify health problems and to refer persons to appropriate medical and social resources for follow-up and treatment.

Screening tests will include the person's medical history, a blood pressure test, height and weight measurement, temperature, pulse, respiration, hearing and vision screening, glaucoma and a pap smear for women. Minor laboratory tests also will be done.

Good Response

The department reports the team responsible for the screening will include public health nurses, a medical social worker and a physician.

Such screening and referral services began in January and will be conducted throughout the summer at various communities. Rita Moses, public health nurse, said the tests, which take between two and two and a half hours, will be held at the following locations:

Recreational Vehicle Law Remains Point of Concern in GP Woods

Resident Makes Second Appearance Before Council Seeking Relief; Solons Reviewing Measure at Committee of The Whole Level

By Roger A. Waha

Ordinance No. 343, which provides for the regulation of the outside storage of boats, various trailers (boat, utility, travel, house), and other recreational equipment, remains a point of concern to The Woods Council, who again heard a plea from a Torrey road resident seeking relief from a house trailer parked on her neighbor's property. This action transpired at the regular meeting, Monday, April 19.

Mildred Becker, who appeared before the council on Monday, March 22, expressed distress over the situation and wanted quick action taken to relieve her concerns. In fact, she even indicated the possibility of legal action against the council unless something is done, although afterwards Miss Becker said she has no definite plans at this time.

In January, the council heard a similar plea from a West Doyle place citizen, who sought relief from a boat and trailer located on a neighbor's property which she said can be seen from her driveway, front walk, porch and living room picture window.

Fair Application

The council, sitting as the Committee of the Whole, (C-W), i.e., in executive session, is currently reviewing the measure regarding possible amendments.

At its meeting Monday, April 12, the C-W unanimously recommended that the matter of amending the ordinance to incorporate a fair application of the law with regards to the outside storage of vehicles and, more specifically, the continuous storage of motorized homes, in city offices. The date for the regular council meeting was changed from May 17 to Monday, May 24.

The Farms has scheduled its budget hearing for May 17 at 8 p.m., while The Park has its hearing planned for May 10 at 5:30 p.m. The Shores has slated a hearing for its regular council meeting in June.

Meanwhile, the Board of Education will hold a special meeting Monday, May 3, at 8 p.m. in the South High School auditorium to set the amount and date of the millage proposal, which will go before voters in the June 14 elections.

The Board's regular meeting will be held on May 10 at Board offices, 389 St. Clair avenue.

Symphony Sets Concert For May 2

Alice Lungershausen, Elizabeth Parcells Will Be Featured Soloists in Fourth Event of Season

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra has set Sunday, May 2, as the date for its fourth concert of its 23rd season.

Under the direction of Maestro Felix Resnick, the concert will begin at 3:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center of North High School, 707 Vernier road.

The orchestra will present Toccata by Frescobaldi; Concerto for Harpsichord and Strings No. 1 in D Minor by Bach; Exaltate Jubilate by Mozart; Arias from Julius Caesar, Vadoro Tupille, and Piangero, Piangero by Handel; and "Grand Fantasia" from Pagliacci by Leoncavallo.

Plan Reception

More selections are the Aria from Louise, "Depuis Le Jour" by Charpentier; Aria from Mignon, "Je Suis Titania" by Thomas; and Introduction to Act III from the opera, "Lohengrin," by Wagner.

Appearing as special guest artists on the program will be Alice Lungershausen, harpsichordist, and Elizabeth Parcells, coloratura soloist.

A reception, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee, follows every concert, giving members of the audience an opportunity to meet the guest soloists, Maestro Resnick, orchestra members and friends.

Tickets for the event are available on the day of the concert at the box office. They are $3 for adults and $1.50 for students. Further information may be obtained by calling 885-8861.

Has Many Degrees

The guest soloist playing the Concerto for Harpsichord and Strings No. 1 in D Minor by Bach will be Mrs. Lungershausen.

She's a native of Ann Arbor where she was graduated from the University of Michigan with a Master of Music degree. She also has two degrees from the Literary College and a membership in Phi Beta Kappa. Advanced study of the piano in Vienna followed.

Her interest in the harpsichord came later and, after working with Philip Manuel in Chicago, Rudolph Dolmetsch in Haslemere, England, and Isolde Ahlgrimm in Salzburg, Austria, she has devoted herself entirely to this instrument.

Resides her many solo appearances, she has per-

Park Firemen Win Pay Hike In Arbitration

But Other Demands Sought in Negotiations with City Officials Turned Down; Council Receives Report on Ruling Monday, April 26

By James J. Njaim

The Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters Association's (GPPFFA), battle for higher wages was settled by arbitration with the fire fighters winning a pay hike, but losing other demands they had sought through negotiations with the city. The Park Council was informed of this result on Monday, April 26, by City Manager Robert A. Slone. The pay increase is retroactive to last July 1.

Mr. Slone said the arbitration panel was comprised of Allen Walt of Southfield, an attorney and an arbitration specialist, appointed by the Michigan Department of Labor; Robert Baker, secretary of the Michigan Fire Fighters Association, (MFFA); and himself.

The GPPFFA, Local No. 533, members of the State organization, which is affiliated with the International Fire Fighters Association, (IFFA).

Budget Addition

Mr. Slone told the council that Mr. Walt granted the fire fighters a base pay increase from $14,200 a year to $15,500, which amounts to approximately a 9.2 percent hike, or $1,300, for the first year of the contract beginning July 1, 1976.

On July 1, 1977, the wage scale will be $16,800, an increase of $1,100, or about 7.1 percent.

Like the pay increase granted to police personnel, the city manager pointed out, this will add about another $28,000 a year to the city's budget.

On all call backs, i.e., if any one reports in sick, et al., or is unable to work, the fireman replacing him to maintain the minimum manpower will be paid time and a half, based on a 40 hour week.

The limit of a total of 10 hours of call back duty is eliminated in favor of unlimited call backs, where minimum manpower is concerned. A comprehensive seniority clause is included in the contract.

Other Increases

The differential between officers and regular firemen will be one and a half percent over and above the present differential. The deductible clause in hospitalization insurance will be decreased from $100 to $50.

Where the regular fire fighters will be receiving a 7.1 percent hike, the sergeants' pay will be increased from 6.25 percent to 7.75 percent

Pointe Officials Discuss Public Housing Decision

The consensus of Grosse Pointe city officials' opinion is that the U.S. Supreme Court's low-income, public housing ruling, made Tuesday, April 20, will have no effect on this area.

The ruling, handed down in a Chicago civil rights case, said that courts can force all-white suburbs to accept low-cost housing projects and that minorities can seek metropolitan relief to desegregate government-financed housing in cities.

Strict zoning laws, resulting in high building costs, the high cost of land and the fact that there are few vacant lots in any of the Pointes, were among the factors shielding the area from effects of the ruling, city officials said.

All Levels Would Be Affected

Attempt Being Made to Slice Around $1 Million from Budget

By Susan McDonald

Art, music and skills-talent are among the elementary school programs being considered for elimination by the administration in an attempt to slice about $1 million from the public school budget.

In the middle and high schools proposed cutbacks include a one-hour reduction of the school day, excluding the ninth grade, which will remain on the six-hour schedule in order to fit in a State-mandated physical education course.

The one-hour cut will mainly affect electives, such as art, music, home economics and physical education courses for most secondary students.

To Act May 3

In addition, an administrative intern program, initiated last fall, is being considered for elimination, along with positions for two or more high school counselors, a career education coordinator, speech correction specialists, psychologists, social workers and a technician for the North High School Performing Arts Center.

The Board announced at its Monday, April 12, meeting that 162 teachers will be dismissed. The program cuts will be acted upon by the Board at its Monday, May 3, public meeting at South High. The trustees will determine at that time the amount and duration of the new millage proposal that will go before the voters June 14.

The cuts are necessary to allow the system to function in the event that no additional millage, above the 24.35 renewal, is passed by voters in June.

Other Proposals

The Board has indicated that most of the laid off teachers could be hired back if additional millage is passed.

Other proposals include cutting $100,000 from the extra pay for extra duty fund, which will limit after school activities such as music, athletics, drama and debate clubs.

In the elementary schools, the Board also is considering elimination of the library-media staff and a severe reduction in remedial reading teachers.

Faces Pre-Trial In Hit and Run

A plea of not guilty was entered for James Howard, of Charest road, Detroit, in the hit-and-run death of Steve Salkowski, 10, of Harvard road, at his arraignment before Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytel Tuesday evening, April 20.

Howard, who's charged with manslaughter, was released on a $25,000 bond and faced a pre-trial examination yesterday, Wednesday, April 28.

Steve and two other boys, Billy Trombley, 12, of Washington road, and Jamie Burke, 11, of Muir road, were struck from behind as they rode single file on their bicycles along Lakeshore road.

Steve was killed instantly and the other boys received minor injuries.

APPROVE EXPENSES

The Woods Council unanimously approved a Senior Citizens Commission request that education chairman Frank Komerska attend a "Fitness Is Ageless" seminar Thursday, May 6, at Schoolcraft College with the city paying his expenses, (lunch, registration, mileage). The expenses will total an estimated $15, it was said. The council acted upon the request at its regular meeting Monday, April 19.

Spanish Club Meets May 3

The last meeting of the season for the Grosse Pointe Spanish Club will be held at the War Memorial Monday, May 3, at 8 p.m.

Dr. Jorge Castellanos, professor of history at Marygrove College, will give an illustrated talk entitled, "The Mexico of Yesterday and the Mexico of Today."

Anyone interested in the Spanish language and Spanish culture is invited to attend.

Woods Studying Recreational Vehicle Law

"No whim and will of a neighbor should determine the parking of such a vehicle," he stated. In such an instance, he felt the neighbor would be overseeing the ordinance. He called this approach "arbitrary and capricious."

Cites Concerns

When asked about the feasibility of having one specific location in the city for the storage of such vehicles, Mr. Pinkos said the Department of Public Works site would be the only possible location.

But even then, he felt a variety of difficulties could arise including potential traffic and liability problems. He added there are facilities available for the storage of recreational vehicles in the area and there was no need for the city to become involved in this.

Meanwhile, Miss Becker reiterated her complaint over her neighbor's vehicle being parked in the driveway next to her back yard fence and up against the garage door. Because the vehicle is so long, she said, everything from the front of her neighbor's house to the extreme rear of the garage is blotted out.

She stated her view is cut off, along with the summer breeze, while again noting that access to their garage was hampered by the vehicle so the family parks their cars in the driveway between both homes. As a result, three of her living room windows only show parked cars some two and a half feet away.

Miss Becker told the council she's deprived of her privacy and the enjoyment of her home. "I live in an upper class neighborhood with a lower class situation taking place," she said, while adding her feeling that her property is being devalued. Miss Becker also felt such a situation created a fire hazard.

YSD Budget Needs Okay

He personally felt the situation would probably not be an "all or nothing" matter, while adding it hasn't been discussed as yet.

Budget Breakdown

Mr. Petersen said the five Pointes pay around 75-80 percent of the total budget, while the school system pays around 20-25 percent. The cost of the budget is shared by each community based upon its current assessed valuation and the school system, which pays the equivalent of one public safety officer's salary, his fringe benefits and the counseling service.

The proposal, which maintains the same level of service as this fiscal year, (including counseling), breaks down per city as follows:

The Woods, $35,703.41 or 33.43 percent; The Farms, $26,920 or 25.22 percent; The Park, $20,555.53 or 19.25 percent; The City, $12,986.97 or 12.16 percent; and The Shores, $11,342.09 or 9.94 percent. This total reaches $107,508.

For the schools, the salary of one officer, plus his fringe benefits, is placed at $25,855, while the counseling service cost reaches $720. A cash surplus reappropriation, placed at $6,000, also is included in the overall proposal.

Making up the $140,083 figure are such categories as salaries and wages, $94,898; fringe benefits, $33,293; vehicle rental, $7,920; equipment, $1,622; contractual services, $1,150; operating supplies, $750; and training, $450.

Mr. Petersen noted the proposal includes the assignment of three cars to the YSD, whereas, before, only two vehicles were assigned. The YSD currently uses three autos but there was no charge for one of them.

He indicated the board of managers at its next meeting agreed to listen to a scheduled presentation from division detectives. As planned, this will revolve around the Wayne County Juvenile Court, the hope of better service from the court and the hope of having a court referee serve the east side by holding hearings in the area.

"We plan to have YSD members make a presentation before the end of the current fiscal year," he added.

Park Firemen

(Continued from Page 1) over that of a regular fireman. The lieutenants will have their pay increased from 12.5 to 14 percent, while the assistant chief, who's a member of the union, will have his pay rate increased from 18.75 percent to 20.25 percent.

The fire chief cannot be a member of the union and, therefore, isn't affected by the wage increase.

Although the arbitrator felt the present wages of the members of The Park Fire Department were inadequate, and granted the pay hike, he turned down the association's request for food and clothing maintenance allowances, holiday pay, cost of living and drug prescription and dental riders as part of the hospitalization contract to be paid by the city, plus higher pension benefits.

Fire Fighter Edward J. Koerber, president of Local No. 533, said, "Although we did not get all that we felt that we believe we are entitled to, we accept the decision of the arbitration panel, reluctantly."

"We have one of the lowest pension systems in the State and we're hoping this would be acted upon. However, a referendum will be placed before the voters in November and we hope that they will vote the increase from 1.7 percent to 2.0 percent."

"We will do all in our power to help bring about the increase, which requires a city charter amendment."

Brownell PTO Meets Tonight

The final Brownell PTO meeting of the 1975-76 school year will be held today, April 29, at 7 p.m. in the Brownell Gym.

The main attraction of the evening will be a concert by the Vocal Music Department under the direction of Mrs. May Krager.

Brownell Bicentennial T-shirts will be sold during the evening. House plants and annuals also will be sold by The Environmental Studies Group.

An election of next year's PTO board is scheduled. The slate of nominees for office include Robert Lees, Edward Haug, Joan Whitman, Julie Goetz, Alice Moebus, Erwin Drucker, David Greenspan, Beverly Fromm, Marilyn Gushee, Peggy Birgbauer, Pauline Hanna, Richard Morris, Betty Morris and William Cristofferson, principal.

Health Tests

She indicated physicians and social workers will be on hand to provide aid for seniors, who don't have to go through the complete testing procedure unless they so desire.

Those who are interested in taking the screening tests should call the department at 274-2800, extension 6901, and ask for senior citizens screening for an appointment.

A history form will be mailed out, she said, to those participating. This form must be completed before testing begins with help being provided on testing days towards completion of the form.

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS

Many years are required to train a good polo horse, commonly known as a "polo pony." The modern polo horse is valued from a thousand to over ten-thousand dollars. A player in the United States is ranked or "handicapped" according to the number of goals he may be expected to make in a game. The rankings usually run from five to ten goals. All of this, of course, depends on the skill of the rider, and just as much on the strength and endurance of his horse. No wonder polo is really a rich man's pastime.

You don't have to be rich to have quality sports equipment and to enjoy the sport of your choice! March Proves Busy Month for Youth Service Division

A total of 76 reported offenses were referred to the Youth Service Division (YSD), last month. This was an increase of 29 over February and a hike of 10 over March 1975.

The yearly total through March is 164 cases, a drop of 32 under last year's total for the same period.

"It is apparent that the decrease in criminal occurrences by juveniles, noted in January and February 1976, was reversed in March. Attention is directed toward the more serious types of offenses showing incidence increase," reports the YSD.

Larceny, except autos, and violation of controlled substances were the categories of highest incidence with 12 cases each being investigated.

The larceny reports involved 16 male juveniles and three female juveniles. Three of the cases remain unsolved and their perpetrators unidentified. Related types of offenses include breaking and entering, eight cases, involving 15 boys, (one case unsolved), and stolen motor vehicles, two cases, involving three boys. Meanwhile, violation of controlled substances consisted of the abusive use of marijuana and the combination of marijuana and alcohol, and one case of the sale of marijuana. Of the nine marijuana incidents occurred at South High School, one occurred at North High and two occurred at middle schools.

These nine cases involved 14 male juveniles and two female juveniles. The pair of marijuana and alcohol incidents involved two male adults and one male juvenile.

The lone marijuana sale case involved one male adult.

Finally, two drunkenness incidents involved one male juvenile and one female juvenile.

Runaways with 10 such cases being reported were up in March. A total of three boys and eight girls were involved.

Of these, two boys and two girls were arrested and turned over to their parents or guardians. Five girls and one boy were self-reported to their homes. One girl turned to Detroit Transit Alternative Runaway House for a period of two weeks, a temporary solution and an additional counseling source to which her mother gave consent.

Arson incidents reached six last month with the YSD noting all were actually attempts at arson and, more specifically, juvenile attempts at harassment of residents and law enforcement authority of The Farms. All incidents were ones in which small combustible packets were placed at doors or windows of residences, or in the street, and fired to cause arson potential. To date, offenders haven't been identified.

Six applicants for petition were filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court and two have received court action so far. Both of these were authorized with one being referred to Macomb County.

War Memorial Campaign Lags Behind 1975's Drive

Returns in the War Memorial's 1976 Annual Family Participation Drive are still lagging behind those of last year.

To date, $83,737.25 has been received from 4,139 donors compared to receipts of $88,401.85 from 4,451 donors in 1975.

The goal necessary to balance the budget is $135,000 and the target date is Memorial Day, May 31, report Center officials.

Follow-up letters and remittance envelopes have been mailed to all Pointers, who haven't responded. With public school vacation over and families back in town, the Center hopes to hear from many citizens this week.

Additional follow-up work will be done by the Center's staff, the volunteer board of directors and other volunteers. This will be in the form of personalized letters and telephone calls.

In order to keep up the buildings and grounds given without cost to The Pointes, and to support the Center's educational, artistic and cultural program, the assistance of all residents in any measure they are able to give, is required, officials say.

"All gifts are truly appreciated and are necessary even though the Memorial is over two-thirds self supporting from invested endowment and fees for some services," they add.

The Center uses no tax monies or United Foundation funds, and gifts to the War Memorial are income tax deductible.

LWV Answers Voters' Queries

As a service to citizens, the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters is responding to questions on the subject of voting and the Tuesday, May 18, State primary election.

Q: We are moving from The Woods to The Park three days before the primary. What do we do about voting? Can we get absentee ballots in The Woods?

A: Since you moved after the April 16 deadline for registering, you can vote in The Woods this once.

Q: I've never cared to be active in politics, but I'd like to get in touch with fellow Republicans in this Presidential election year. Is there someone I can call?

A: Call Suzanne Oldy, 822-4550, president of the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe, which is affiliated with State and national women's Republican groups. Meetings are generally in members' homes, sometimes at the War Memorial.

You also can phone the 14th Congressional District Republican Committee at 886-1550. Meetings at their headquarters, 15316 East Warren, are usually held the first Monday of the month, but it's a good idea to check.

On the Democratic side, the Grosse Pointe Democratic Women's Discussion Group meets Wednesday mornings at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Alice Fine, 1092 Grayton road. Susie B. Lewis, 886-4415, is the person to call about this and the Democratic Club.

Headquarters of the 14th Congressional District Democratic Committee are at 11725 Chalmers, south of Houston-Whittier. Meetings are held there on the fourth Thursday of the month, but, again, it's a good idea to check by calling 881-2080.

The student must provide his own accompanist at auditions. Selections need not be memorized, but must show a variety of musical periods and styles and last

Woods to Host Tree Care Talk

The care of established trees and the selection of new ones will be viewed for all Woods citizens Wednesday, May 12.

Gerald Draheim and Gordon Dennis, agents of the cooperative extension service, Michigan State University, will speak on this subject at The Woods Municipal Building, 20025 Mack avenue, beginning at 8 p.m.

The event is co-sponsored by the city and its Beautification Commission.

ments involved two male adults and one male juvenile. The lone marijuana sale case involved one male adult.

Finally, two drunkenness incidents involved one male juvenile and one female juvenile.

Runaways with 10 such cases being reported were up in March. A total of three boys and eight girls were involved.

Of these, two boys and two girls were arrested and turned over to their parents or guardians. Five girls and one boy were self-reported to their homes. One girl turned to Detroit Transit Alternative Runaway House for a period of two weeks, a temporary solution and an additional counseling source to which her mother gave consent.

Arson incidents reached six last month with the YSD noting all were actually attempts at arson and, more specifically, juvenile attempts at harassment of residents and law enforcement authority of The Farms. All incidents were ones in which small combustible packets were placed at doors or windows of residences, or in the street, and fired to cause arson potential. To date, offenders haven't been identified.

Six applicants for petition were filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court and two have received court action so far. Both of these were authorized with one being referred to Macomb County.

Plan Garden At Elworthy

If the Men's Garden Club has its way, the new Elworthy Field shelter, adjacent to Waterloo avenue, will be surrounded by a lush Bicentennial garden this summer.

The group received the Grosse Pointe City Council's approval of its plan, which calls for a red, white and blue, half-circle garden with a liberty bell outlined in the center, at the regular Monday, April 19, meeting.

The plan was designed and illustrated by Candy Sweeney. It calls for rows of cotton-aster, Japanese yews, English ivy, red begonias, snow white alyssum, blue blazer ageratum and marigolds.

The project is estimated to cost from $300-$400. Men's Garden Club members plan to do all the planting themselves this spring and are counting on local businesses and clubs to help them supplement the funds they have set aside for materials.

The club is hoping that other garden groups will continue the garden with their own designs in future years.

This whole problem of what is wrong with today's youth could be solved if parents just analyzed themselves.

formed with the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the University of Michigan Little Symphony, the Saginaw Symphony and the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra.

As present official harpichordist for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, she was a founding member of the Detroit Baroque Ensemble in 1959 and still plays regularly with that group.

Mrs. Lungershausen has been listed in "Who is Who in American Women" ever since its first edition.

Roots in Poine

The guest vocal soloist is Miss Parcells, a native of Grosse Pointe, who sang for seven years with the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church youth choir under the direction of Malcolm and Marion Johns. Last spring, she gave a recital of Baroque music there.

Miss Parcells' earliest stage experiences were with the Grosse Pointe Children's Theater. She began her vocal studies at the age of 16 with Elsie Inselman of St. Clair Shores. For two summers she attended the National Music Camp at Interlochen, where she studied with Elizabeth Manion and Willis Patterson.

After attending Grosse Pointe public school, and the Liggett School, Miss Parcells was graduated from the Interlochen Arts Academy in 1970 where she had studied with Janice Harsanyi.

Continuing her studies in Boston, Miss Parcells attended the New England Conservatory of Music where she received the Bachelor of Music degree with honors in 1974 and was elected to Phi Kappa Lambda, the national honor music society. She will receive the Master of Music degree this June.

Professionally, Miss Parcells has done much concert work in the Boston area. She has appeared as soloist with the Handel and Haydn Society, Cecilia Society, Cambridge Early Music Society, the Brandeis Choral, the Concord Symphony and the Boston Pops under the direction of Arthur Fiedler. She's a regular soloist at Kings Chapel under the direction of Daniel Pinkham.

In both 1975 and 1976, Miss Parcells won second place in the New England Regional Auditions of the Metropolitan Opera National Council competitions.

space requirements, etc., and the cost of land here practically prohibits such low-income development.

"You're certainly not going to buy lakefront property to build low-income housing."

Another opinion, expressed by Grosse Pointe City Manager Thomas Kressbach, was that the highly developed nature of all the Pointes would make such housing projects next to impossible.

"We are already 99 percent developed in The City with houses, so if one were to build a new development he would either have to buy or condemn property, which would be very costly," he said.

The same holds true in The Park, according to City Manager Robert A. Stone, where there are just a few small undeveloped lots in the commercial zone.

Mr. Stone did note, however, that The Park administration is studying the ruling in relation to any effect it could have on the Department of Housing and Urban Development-sponsored Community Development Block Grant Program funds, which The Park and City have received for the last two years.

Park City Attorney Richard D. Rohr said since The Park is only involved in the Block Grant program in terms of buying land for open space use, (parking) and not housing, the ruling would have no consequence on the availability of funds.

Shores Village Superintendent Thomas Jeffers said the decision wouldn't affect his community, while noting there's not much vacant land in the Pointes.

The Detroit chapter of the NAACP indicated in a press release that they will be studying the entire metropolitan area in relation to the ruling in future weeks.

Woods Okays HW Jaycee Bid

Members of the Harper Woods Jaycee Organization received the unanimous permission of The Woods Council to call upon businessmen as volunteer representatives of the American Cancer Society between Monday-Saturday, May 10-15.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, April 19.

The organization wanted cancer society volunteers to solicit businessmen with the hopes that they will financially support the research, education and patient service programs of the society.

Suspect Faces Charge of U-P

A Detroit man, who was arrested at the Michigan National Bank, 15010 East Jefferson avenue, while trying to cash a stolen check in the amount of $75, was arraigned for a preliminary hearing before Park Municipal Judge John Urso on Tuesday, April 20, on a warrant accusing him of uttering and publishing, (U-P).

Accused in the warrant is Norman C. Jackson, 23, of 750 Clairpointe, who was unable to post a $2,500 cash bond and was ordered detained in The Park's local cell until his examination date, scheduled for yesterday April 28.

A second man, who was arrested with Jackson, was released by authorities on Wednesday, April 21, because of insufficient evidence. He was waiting outside the bank building while Jackson was inside, it was disclosed. Both gave phony names when arrested, said Lt. Gordon Duncan, but their true identities were uncovered.

Police said the check Jackson attempted to cash was one of several blank checks taken in a purse snatching in Detroit on Saturday, April 17.

Uttering and publishing can mean up to 14 years in prison upon conviction, added Lt. Duncan.

GP Dems Slate Public Forum

Democratic U.S. Senatorial candidates will speak to Grosse Pointe citizens at a Public Forum Friday, April 30, at 8 p.m. in the Alger House of the War Memorial.

Invited speakers are Secretary of State Richard H. Austin, Congressman Jim O'Hara, State Senator John Otterbacher and Congressman Don Riegle Jr., who will make short initial presentations before answering questions from a three member panel and the audience.

The Grosse Pointe Democratic Club, sponsors of the program, selected Don Duncan, Esther Glasser and Bruce Sanders to serve as panelists and Susie B. Lewis to serve as moderator with the assistance of Joan Crane.

There's no admission charge for the event, and guests are welcome.

Young Board Candidate Makes Campaign Plans

By Susan McDonald
Voters may think he's too young, but 18-year-old Michael Echlin thinks his age may better qualify him over any other candidate for a position on the Board of Education.

And, although Mr. Echlin doesn't have his platform or campaign "together" as of yet, he was one of the first candidates to file for the June 14, Board of Education trustee elections.

The January 1976 North High School graduate thinks that his 12 years of study in The Pointe system qualify him in a special way for the trustee job.

"Although I agree that older taxpayers should have their say on the Board, I think it's time that the young people who have to live through 12-13 years of the system should be represented as well," he explains.

One matter with which he takes issue is what he calls "the misuse of money especially in over-indulgence of the extra-curricular sports activities throughout the system."

"I think it's wrong, for instance, to stockpile sports equipment when other classes must go without material," he said.

Mr. Echlin plans to run a traditional type of campaign, distributing flyers and possibly bumper sticker to residents.

"I think I have a fair chance of being elected if I can get enough 18-year-olds to register and vote," he said.

Among his political and social activities, Mr. Echlin has worked for the 1972 George McGovern campaign, the Interfaith Center for Racial Justice, Center Point and the War Memorial's Youth Council. He also was one of the leaders of a drive to set up a student union at North High in 1972.

Mr. Echlin, who lives with his parents in Roslyn road, is currently studying psychology at Wayne State University. He plans to attend law school.

Theatre North Slates Comedy

North High School's student dramatic group, Theatre North, will present the romantic comedy, "Butterflies Are Free," Wednesday, May 5, in the Performing Arts Center, 707 Vernier road, at 8 p.m.

Repeat performances of the group's final production of the year will be given on Thursday, May 6, and Friday, May 7. These performances also will begin at 8 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center.

Senior Vicki Nassar, who appeared in North's productions of "The Chalk Garden" and "Cyrano," is cast as the zany and carefree Jill Tanner. Doug Rentschler, a junior who starred last year as Romeo in North's production of "Romeo and Juliet," has the leading role of the young blind boy, Don Baker.

Sophomore Debbie Saunders, who played the terrified wife in this season's "Dial M for Murder," is featured as the mother and senior Mark Gerganoff plays Ralph Austin.

Director Gael Barr, completing his eighth season, is making a special appeal to school and civic groups in the area to attend this last show of the school year as the drama program at North is completely self-supporting and needs capital to begin its new fall season.

Mr. Barr announced that the 1976-77 season of Theatre North will include "Much Ado About Nothing," "Summer and Smoke," "Tartuffe," and "Look Homeward, Angel."

Tickets for "Butterflies Are Free" are $2.25 for adults and $1.75 for students. They will be on sale at the door. For additional information, call 888-8100.

RANKS HIGH IN JOB

Investors Diversified Services, (IDS), recently announced that Joseph Wierzbicki, of Grand Marais boulevard, a representative in the Detroit-East, Michigan, office, ranked 30th in 1975 production among the company's 3,200 representatives with sales of $2,164,000. As an IDS sales representative, Mr. Wierzbicki distributes a variety of group, business and personal financial services.

Austin Presents Musical Comedy

The Austin Players, in their 18th theatrical season, will present the musical comedy "Fiorello," Friday, Sunday, April 30-May 2, at 8 p.m. in the Pierce School Auditorium, 15430 Kercheval avenue.

The play is the story of former New York Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia and his rise to success.

Playing the part of Fiorello is Bob Neville. Among the supporting actors and actresses from Our Lady Star of The Sea School in the 124-member cast are Rita Dolard as Marie, Daria DiVirgil as Dorra, Thomas Dennehy as Morris and Kevin McFarland as Neil.

Other important characters are Thea, played by Debbie Martin, Ben Marino, played by Chad Stone, and Mitzi Travers, played by Jackie DiSante.

Tickets at $2 may be obtained from any cast member or at the door the night of the performance.

by John C. Gawryk R.Ph.

Much of the sensation we call "taste" is really smell. When you chew foods, the vapors enter the inner openings of the nose and reach the nerve endings of smell. If you have a cold, these passages are plugged up. Then, as you may have noticed, your sense of smell is also impaired, and many foods may lack the flavor with which we associate them. Under such conditions, onions and apples have an almost identical sweet flavor. Substances such as pepper and some other spices have no distinct flavor, but irritate the entire tongue and produce a burning sensation.

Woods Receives Report on Brys

The Woods experienced its first traffic accident in 29 months on Brys drive, west of Mack avenue, according to a report from Public Safety Director Henry Marchand. The council unanimously received and placed it on file at its regular meeting Monday, April 19.

It seems that one of our drinking residents was traveling eastbound on Brys at 2:40 a.m. and struck a parked car in front of a residence, he said. "This accident, because of the lateness of the hour, is totally unrelated or the result of any excessive traffic," (a point of concern to citizens of the immediate area).

"There is very little police agencies can do to eliminate or reduce the probability of drinking drivers being involved in accidents; the only possibility, in this case, would have been to prohibit parking on Brys drive. But one accident in two and a half years is not a problem."

The director also noted the State has erected a new sign on the westbound exit ramp of I-94 at Eight Mile road. The sign designates East Eight Mile road as being the first cross street and Vernier road as being straight ahead. He felt the sign should help to reduce some of the confusion at this location.

A total of 29 traffic citations were issued in March with 22 of them being for disobeying a stop sign, (at Helen avenue), offenses.

This communication, among others received earlier in the year, stems from council action last December. At that time, the solons asked Director Marchand to report on a 30-day basis to the status of Brys traffic conditions after citizens appeared before the council on several occasions seeking relief from what they said was heavy vehicular traffic on their streets.

TM Lectures Slated May 3, 5

Judy Stevens, a 10-year secondary school teacher has returned to Grosse Pointe as a qualified instructor of the Transcendental Meditation (TM), technique.

She was qualified by Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, (the founder of the technique), on Wednesday, April 14, after completing a six-month International TM Program Teacher Training Course held at Maharishi European Research University in Switzerland.

Ms. Stevens commented: "My concern is bringing this unique and distinctive type of educational experience to the local population. I was motivated first by my own personal experience and second by the growing accumulation of evidence which appears to support the following: the improvement of learning ability and personal relationships and the individual experiencing less fatigue and anxiety."

She will give a series of lectures entitled "The TM Program and Education." All interested teachers, parents and students are invited to attend the lectures Sunday, May 2, at 3 p.m. or Wednesday, May 5, at 11 a.m. or 7 p.m. at the TM offices located in the Nuyen building, 17108 Mack avenue. For further information, call 885-5566.

Woods Okays Sign Request

The Woods Council formally acted upon a request from the Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center that a porta panel sign be placed at the corner of Mack avenue and Fairholme advertising the league-sponsored carnival at the Eastland Shopping Center from April 14-25.

The vote of approval at the regular council meeting Monday, April 19, was 4-3 with Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan and Councilmen Conrad A. Naegel and George Cueter nixing the motion.

A letter dated Monday, April 12, from Irene Shannon citing the request was presented to the Committee of the Whole, (C-W), for its meeting on the 12th. But it was said the C-W inadvertently forgot to act upon it and time was growing short for the sign to be placed.

Permission was already obtained from the owner of the vacant lot to leave the sign there for 10 days, according to the league.

By the time the council could act upon the request at its regular meeting, precious advertising time for the league would have been gone. As it turned out, the sign was placed at the location and the council on the 19th could take action either to remove it or let the sign stay put.

Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos said this matter should have been considered before. At the same time, a special council meeting could have been called to act upon the request. But the problem apparently stemmed from the fact the C-W didn't act upon this matter at its meeting, plus the fact the request was a late one.

Mr. Cueter cited the date of the letter and said the council should have known in advance of the request so action could be taken.

As a result, the council agreed this matter should be studied with a positive and absolute policy on such being reached. So this subject was unanimously referred to the C-W, the Beautification Commission and the Planning Commission for further study.

Talk on Sex Set for May 6

Mary Paonessa, educator and expert in the field of human sexuality, will present her final lecture this school year at Defer School, 15425 Kercheval avenue, on Thursday, May 6, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Paonessa's talk is especially geared to fathers of boys and is co-sponsored by the Health Education Council and parent groups of Defer, Trombly, Christian Day, Saint Clare and Maire Schools.

Schools Plan Census in May

The public schools will conduct a census in May to provide important information on enrollment figures and student ages. The census also will include information on handicapped children to help the administration provide special education services for these youngsters.

Rather than interviewing parents of handicapped children verbally, the census takers will leave a special form at each home for completion by the parents if they have a handicapped child.

These forms should then be mailed directly to the school's Department of Pupil Personnel for arrangements for special services.

The local census is supervised by Mrs. Betty Castle and includes 20 field workers. All census takers carry an identification card signed by Reginald P. Sienkiewicz, director of pupil personnel. They will present the card if asked.

The chief reason for carrying such identification is to prevent commercial concerns from posing as legal census takers.

NEW APPOINTMENT
Donald Nadesu, of The Woods, has been named manager of visitors' hospitality and services for the new Gift Shop at the Stroh's Brewery. Mr. Nadesu joined The Stroh Brewery Co. in 1965 and served as hospitality manager prior to his new appointment.

Shores Police Solve Mishap

It took a few days, but Shores Det. Sgt. Frank Mustazza finally got his man and charged him with leaving the scene of an injury accident. The driver was a St. Clair Shores citizen and the car he was driving was registered to an Oak Park resident.

Ordered to report to The Shores station, where he was issued a violation ticket for the offense, was Kenneth Dean Pierceall, of 23148 Alger, who was released on personal bond and told to report for court on Monday, May 24.

Injured was Lori Morgan, 11, of St. Clair Shores, who, with her stepfather, was pedaling north on Lakeshore road on Saturday, April 17. The girl was struck from behind, at the Colonial road intersection, by a car driven by Pierceall and knocked off the roadway, police said.

Fortunately, Lori suffered only minor bruises and lacerations about the body, although her bicycle was severely damaged. She required no medical attention.

Two persons in another auto, who witnessed the incident, followed Pierceall for about four minutes to obtain his license plate number and to get an accurate description of the hit-and-run vehicle.

The witnesses said Pierceall made a turn through a crossover and passed the scene of the accident. Then, they lost him in traffic.

A check on the Law Enforcement Information Network, (LEIN), machine brought back the information that the license and car was registered to a Theodore T. Reilly of Oak Park.

Oak Park public safety authorities were contacted and officers went to Reilly's home, but found no one there. Officers went to the home several times but were unable to find anyone on the premises.

In the meantime, Sgt. Mustazza continued his investigation and established the car was driven by Pierceall at the time of the accident.

After verifying the facts on Sunday, April 24, that Pierceall was the driver who ran down the St. Clair Shores girl, the man was ordered to report to The Shores station to receive a summons-violation citation for court.

Chief Joseph Vitale complimented Sgt. Mustazza for his tenacity in staying with the case until it was solved and determining who was the actual driver of the car.

Huge Parade Set for May 2

Wayne County has a front row seat just for you. In fact, Pointer Ery Steiner, the county's Bicentennial chairman, said he has 18 miles of "front row seats" available so that no one has to stand on tiptoes to view the "most remarkable grass roots parade ever put together in the history of this nation."

He was referring to the county-sponsored Bicentennial Parade set for 12 noon on Sunday, May 2, which he says will set a world record because of the great number of floats, bands, antique cars and clowns that will be in it.

Park Loop Set To Open May 1

By Fran Ceaser

The Park will open its Little League season this Bicentennial year on Saturday, May 1, with its annual parade at noon. A host of local dignitaries will take the ride which starts on St. Paul at Balfour to Harvard, up Harvard to Kercheval, and continuing on Kercheval to Pierce and Defer Schools.

Firefighters will lead the parade with truck and sirens running. They will be followed by Boy Scout Troop 144's Drum and Bugle Corps. Michael Bruwier, corps advisor, has his scouts tuned for this event.

The Honorable Matthew Patterson, Park Mayor, and several councilmen, will ring in the baseball season behind the scouts. They will be transported in convertibles provided by Ted Ewald Chevrolet and Seymour Cadillac.

The Major League teams will be headed by 1975 World Series champions, the Redlegs. A replica of the Indianapolis 500 Pace Car will follow the Majors carrying this year's Little League Queen, Richard Buick will provide the auto.

Final parade dignitaries will be the greatest set of Minor League and Instructional League teams ever assembled. Last, and most needed and appreciated, will be all the folks who get out and rally round the floats—moms, dads, kids, grandparents, aunts and uncles. Everyone who cheers their favorite team along is a part of The Park Little League.

Richard Moellering, parade chairman, has spent much time to make the festivities this year come alive. In the true spirit of Little League, Mr. Moellering commented, "It was fun putting it together."

Indeed it must have been. And the fun is just beginning so get out your water jugs, sunglasses and good will. Play ball Batter up See you at the ball games.

GP City Slates May 1 Parade

The City will sponsor a parade commemorating 26 years of participation in the Little League on Saturday, May 1.

Starting at 10 a.m. from Maire School and winding its way to Elworthy Field via Cadieux and Neff roads, the parade will honor retiring City Police Chief Andrew Teetaert for his 26 years of involvement with the Little League.

At 11 a.m. the first games in both the Major and Minor Leagues will begin. Hot dogs, soft drinks and baked goods will be available.

"We've got a nine-mile-long parade route down Woodward Avenue from the Michigan State Fairgrounds to Kennedy Square. So no one has to take a back seat," said Mr. Steiner.

The gigantic parade will start lining up on Woodward prior to the official starting time. But before the first float pulls off, there'll be a foot race down the avenue with runners coming from 15 states to compete for awards.

In addition, the Wayne County Bicentennial Committee has planned a Float Display, carnival and ethnic entertainment for Friday evening, April 30, and all day Saturday, May 1, at the Fairgrounds located at Woodward and Eight Mile road.

"We're inviting people to come out to the Fairgrounds Friday evening to get behind the scenes, to see people actually building their floats or putting the finishing touches on them," said Mr. Steiner. "Some groups will work on their floats through the night, but the Fairgrounds will be closed each night at 10 p.m. to the public."

"Then on Saturday the floats will be judged, and the public will have the opportunity to see the floats close up and chat with the people who built them. Many of our floats have a story behind the theme."

Mr. Steiner stated a $2 adult admission will be charged to help defray marshalling costs incurred by the Fairgrounds. Children under 12 years of age accompanied by an adult will be admitted free. He added about 20 religious organizations have entered floats in the parade.

Clown Corps Views Big Day

Much hard work and planning has paid off for the Grosse Pointe Woods Bicentennial Clown Corps as chairman Arthur J. Kuehnle has announced final arrangements for the group's participation in the Wayne County Bicentennial Parade Sunday, May 2.

Members of the Clown Corps will be decorating the float they will ride tonight, April 29, and tomorrow night, April 30, from 7-9 p.m. at 12500 Nine Mile road. The float building site is located between Hoover road and Groesbeck highway.

The float, which is entitled "1776 to 1976," was designed by the Clown Corps' advisor Robert Rau, of Country Club drive.

The date of Saturday, May 1, at 10:30 a.m. has been set aside as the time the float will be taken to the State Fairgrounds, and placed in position for the parade.

All residents of the five Points are invited to see the float at the fairgrounds on Saturday afternoon and enjoy the carnival-like atmosphere created by the Bicentennial Festival which will be taking place at that time. The Sunday parade is scheduled to begin around 12 noon.

Work Planned on City Streets

The City Council recently accepted the low bid of the Cooke Contracting Co. for the resurfacing of four streets in the coming year.

Streets to receive attention include St. Clair avenue between Waterloo and Mack; Washington road from Maumee to Kercheval avenue; Lincoln road from Jefferson to 400 feet north of Maumee avenue; and also a section of Neff road between Charlevoix and Mack.

The resurfacing of Neff road was added to the original contract for the first three streets in view of the favorable bid offered by the company. The cost of resurfacing the additional block is estimated at between $17,000-$19,300. The total cost of the contract, exclusive of engineering fees, is approximately $81,345.

This year's resurfacing costs represent a per unit reduction of between $16 and $21 from last year.

PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT

The Federal-State public employment service system made about 4.4 million non-agricultural job placements during the 1975 fiscal year, according to the annual report of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Cancer Society Seeking Funds

The American Cancer Society of Wayne County is conducting a fund raising project for research at its east side office located in Cottage Hospital. The project is called "Send A Mouse to College."

The American Cancer Society does not have laboratories of its own. Instead, its National Research Committee makes grants to individual scientists and related institutions for research to be done in their laboratories.

In 1974, the society made 498 grants to 127 major institutions in this country and to scientists working both here and abroad. The value of the grants totaled $27,316,950. Some 903 others, totaling over $50 million had to be turned down because of a lack of funds. Hence, the problem of money of which there is never enough, according to the society.

This is where the "Send A Mouse to College" program plays a role towards helping the society obtain funds for research.

The organization has white T-shirts in both children and adult sizes of small, medium and large. These shirts have a picture of a mouse on a white background wearing a mortar board and holding an American Cancer Society message—"Send A Mouse to College." Pins also are available with the same design and message for 50 cents each and small lapel pins at 25 cents each. These articles will be on sale indefinitely.

Work Planned on City Streets

The City Council recently accepted the low bid of the Cooke Contracting Co. for the resurfacing of four streets in the coming year. Streets to receive attention include St. Clair avenue between Waterloo and Mack; Washington road from Maumee to Kercheval avenue; Lincoln road from Jefferson to 400 feet north of Maumee avenue; and also a section of Neff road between Charlevoix and Mack. The resurfacing of Neff road was added to the original contract for the first three streets in view of the favorable bid offered by the company. The cost of resurfacing the additional block is estimated at between $17,000-$19,300. The total cost of the contract, exclusive of engineering fees, is approximately $81,345. This year's resurfacing costs represent a per unit reduction of between $16 and $21 from last year.

Academy Wins Many Honors

Shiny new plaques and framed certificates from the Metropolitan Detroit Science and Engineering Fair, among others, are gracing the walls of several Grosse Pointe Academy students this spring. Winning seventh graders were Gregory Bober, Earth and Space Science, and Margot Van Osdol, Physical Science. Jody Evans, seventh grade, won second place in the Life Science category. Special Award winners were sixth graders Charles Bay, John Hartzell, Harry Maddock and seventh grader Kathleen Sengstock in the Life Science category and sixth graders David Lyons, Sarah Medura and Mark Mullen in Physical Science. Language Arts and other creative efforts did not go unrecognized. Jody Murray, an eighth grader, won first place in the "America and Me" Bicentennial essay contest sponsored by Farm Bureau Group Insurance Co. Cheryl Touscany and Mark Grenard, also eighth graders, took second and third places, respectively. Tracy McCabe carried eighth grade honors forward when she won first place in the Detroit News Regional Spelling Contest. She will compete in the Detroit Metro Finals at the Detroit News Auditorium, May 5.

The Detroit News Scholastic Writing Awards display the names of three Academy students: sixth grader Patricia Leonard, who won honorable mention in the junior letter-writing category, and Margaret Mercier, seventh grade, who was awarded junior commendation plaques in both the letter-writing and open categories. Eighth grader Christy Deutsch received a commendation in the Poetry category.

Elena McDonald, a second grader, carried off a certificate recognizing her artistic impression of the topic "Happiness is..." Her water color was chosen by judges of Detroit Symphony Orchestra's Young Peoples' Concerts contest, and is displayed in the Children's Museum in Kirby avenue, Detroit.

Fourth grader Katie Thibodeau was awarded first prize in the Grosse Pointe Farms Little League Baseball Club's 25th Anniversary Uniform Patch Contest. She will have a special place of honor in the lead car during The Farms Little League Parade next month.

PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT

The Federal-State public employment service system made about 4.4 million non-agricultural job placements during the 1975 fiscal year, according to the annual report of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Cancer Society Seeking Funds

The American Cancer Society of Wayne County is conducting a fund raising project for research at its east side office located in Cottage Hospital. The project is called "Send A Mouse to College." The American Cancer Society does not have laboratories of its own. Instead, its National Research Committee makes grants to individual scientists and related institutions for research to be done in their laboratories.

In 1974, the society made 498 grants to 127 major institutions in this country and to scientists working both here and abroad. The value of the grants totaled $27,316,950. Some 903 others, totaling over $50 million had to be turned down because of a lack of funds. Hence, the problem of money of which there is never enough, according to the society.

This is where the "Send A Mouse to College" program plays a role towards helping the society obtain funds for research.

The organization has white T-shirts in both children and adult sizes of small, medium and large. These shirts have a picture of a mouse on a white background wearing a mortar board and holding an American Cancer Society message—"Send A Mouse to College." Pins also are available.

Bayview Hosts Racing Meeting

By C. G. Gugenides
The Offshore Racing Club of Detroit held its Spring Meeting on Thursday, April 22, at The Bayview Yacht Club.

Commodore "Wally" Cross discussed the requirements for season championships and the Boat of the Year Award.

The races that count for season trophies include Great Lakes Yacht Club, Detroit Yacht Club, Bayview Yacht Club, Windsor Yacht Club, Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Grosse Pointe Sail Club, Edison Boat Club, Crescent Sail Yacht Club, DYC Sweepstakes, GPYC Bluenose and the BYC Overnighter.

Nine races must be sailed to qualify and two of the nine must be long distance races such as the Windsor Canadian Club, the Bluenose or the Overnighter. If 11 races are sailed, one throw-out is allowed. If 12 races are sailed, two throw-outs are permitted. No more than two throw-outs are allowed. Disqualification or 20 percent penalty races cannot be thrown out.

To qualify for Boat of the Year, the BYC Mackinac, the Windsor Canadian Club plus nine other races listed above must be sailed for a minimum of 11. As in past years the Cox-Sprague system of scoring will be used to determine standings, and the International Offshore Rule Mark III will be used to handicap the participating yachts.

Many skippers will be re-cutting their "bloopers" or "streakers" because of a change in the rules which states that a line drawn from the mid-point of the foot to the mid-point of the luff cannot exceed 55 percent of the leech dimension.

Offshore's Vice Commodore Don McQueen discussed the new safety requirements for Offshore Yachts racing in Lake St. Clair.

The United States Yacht Racing Union category II standards as modified for the Mackinac Race will be further modified to accommodate conditions in Lake St. Clair. These changes will apply to items such as ship to shore radios, life rafts, man overboard poles, life rings with strobe lights and many other pieces of safety equipment.

In the event a racing skipper feels the new requirements should not apply to his yacht, he can have a hearing before the Offshore Board to present his arguments. If the Board agrees, a waiver can be given.

Some of the new racing yachts that will be seen on Lake St. Clair this summer will include a new aluminum, custom designed, one-tonner which will be owned and skippered by Commodore Miles Jaffe. This 38-footer will have a 50-foot mast.

Don McQueen will have a new Peterson designed half tonner and John Uznis will have a Gary Mull designed half tonner built by the Gougeon Brothers. If these new half tonners are "hot" they may decimate Class D the same way the two-tonners made a shambles of Class A last year.

Jim Pierce, of Oxford road, had a whole new bottom put on "Cheers," his Carter 33. They have been out on the lake for the past week or so looking for a match race according to Steve Bohn, who's the foredeck boss.

Bob Lenhard, Rear Commodore, Grosse Pointe Sail Club, has a micro wave oven and a refrigerator on his Erickson 39. His crew expects to have roast prime ribs of beef as they sail up to Mackinac this July. In order to create the power needed the boat has a special generator.

Fortunately, most Offshore skippers still adhere to the concept of "iron men and wooden ships".

BENEFITS DOUBLE

Unemployment insurance benefits more than doubled during the 1975 fiscal year, with about $12.3 billion paid to approximately 12.1 million persons, according to the annual report of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Bon Secours Fetes Employes

Elizabeth Rebl was named Bon Secours Hospital's Employee of the Year at the annual Employee Awards Dinner at the War Memorial on Tuesday, April 20.

Miss Rebl, purchasing assistant, materials management, has been an employee of Bon Secours for 19 years. In presenting the award, Sister Anne Lutz, C.B.S., superior, said, "Elizabeth Rebl is a great asset to Bon Secours Hospital and typifies the ideal Bon Secours employee. We are fortunate to have her in our family."

A second special award went to Gary Williams for Suggestion of the Year. Mr. Williams, nurse technician, devised a uniform procedure for the treatment of decubitus ulcers (bed sores).

In addition, special service awards were presented to employees who have worked at Bon Secours for five, 10, 15 and 20 years.

Twenty-year honors were presented to George Elwell, food service; Violet Leming, medical records; Estelle Mandell and Stella Rymarski, nursing; and Hubert Weot, building service.

Fifteen-year awards went to Lillian DeCoker, nursing; Gabrielle Kimpe, materials management; Alice McLaughlin, patient accounting; Anna Nanni, food service; Gladys Osborne, environmental service; Lawrence Redouty, administration; Margaret Smolinski and Carol Wincel, laboratory. Ten-year awards went to Margaret Allor and Cecelia Bielawski, patient accounting; Elizabeth Cousins, patient services; Elsie DeRonghe and Betty Navin, food service; Bertha Officer, Grace Padden, Kathleen Petrik and Alexis Suppanz, nursing; and Ann Spilko, laboratory.

Five-year awards went to Christine Beacco and Barry Spero, administration; Philip Bigham, Thomas Contrucci, Barbara Esselink and Mary Mohny, materials management; Leona Brooks, fiscal service; Joseph Catalfo, building service; Michelle Couture and Patricia Runyon, radiology.

Law Awaits Further Study

A proposed ordinance defining commercial vehicles and regulating their storage was unanimously referred to the Planning Commission by The Woods Council during its first reading stage. This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, April 19.

The commission will now review the proposal and consider possible changes in its content.

This ordinance was viewed by the council at its Monday, April 5, meeting when the Committee of the Whole recommended that the measure be adopted.

Woods Views News Reports

The Woods proposed budget for fiscal year 1976-77 includes a provision for quarterly reports and an annual calendar report for residents, according to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

"This is an attempt to keep our citizens aware of pertinent city ordinances and to keep them informed of the operation of the city and its problems," he said.

If this proposal becomes a reality, the first quarterly report would be scheduled for release in October.

In the past, the city has had such reports but they were eliminated for several reasons including cost and the time consuming production effort.

An estimated $7,000 has been proposed for printing and distribution costs of the reports, which will be delivered to homes and businesses in the community, possibly by representatives of various clubs or organizations, e.g., the Boy Scouts.

Devil Nine Win 3 of 5 Games

By Lisa Roumell

The week ending on Saturday, April 24, saw South's baseball team play five games, including two in league competition. The Devils won three of the five contests and now stand at 5-6 overall and 1-3 in EML play.

On Tuesday, April 10, South overwhelmed Port Huron Northern, 8-1, in a league game. Bob Glass went the distance, striking out 13. South collected six hits, including a triple and single by Glass, plus a triple by Jim Gough.

South lost to North High on Wednesday, April 21, 13-8. Capitalizing on seven Devil errors, North scored eight runs in the second inning. The second game of the double-header was a rained out.

Rick Thomas started for South and only allowed two hits before Doug Skipp came in to pitch to one batter. Paul Genter, another reliever, pitched four strong innings but was charged with the loss. Offensively, South did well with 11 hits. Highlights included a triple by Gough, a double by Tony Abraham, plus singles by Gough and Grant Piche.

Roseville defeated South on Thursday, April 22, 6-5. South tallied seven hits but made six errors in the loss. Pitcher Rick Baker was unsteady in the first inning when Roseville scored five runs on two errors and a walk.

South rallied to tie it, 5-5, but a Devil error late in the game allowed Roseville to score the winning run.

Ruth League Sets Sign Up

By Julian Thomas

Senior Babe Ruth this year will be composed of a pair of six-team leagues, American and National, competing in a 20-game season beginning June 10.

This league now represents all the Pointes and Harper Woods. City, Park and Farms boys will register Thursday-Friday, April 29-30, from 7-9 p.m. at the Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo avenue. The registration fee is $25 per boy or $40 per family.

Boys, who are 16 years of age by this July 31, and not over 18 years of age by July 31, are eligible.

For further information on Woods-Shores registration, call Jack Burns at 881-8510. Harper Woods residents can call the Harper Woods Recreation Department at 884-4138.

All eligible registered players may try out on Saturday-Sunday, May 15-16, at South High School. Pitchers and catchers will work at 11 a.m., and all players at 12 noon both days.

The new league composition offers boys a great opportunity to play top level sand lot ball near home.

Shores Council Opposes Creation of District Court

The Shores Council at its regular monthly meeting held Tuesday morning, April 20, approved a resolution, similar in context to that passed by The Woods Council on Monday, April 5, in which it, too, opposed a legislative proposal to abolish municipal courts and set up strict courts in their stead.

Shores Village President Pro Tem C. F. Ogden presided at the meeting in the absence of President Gerald Schroeder who was out of town.

The Shores trustees took the stand that since Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis also is the presiding judge in The Shores, it would be appropriate to adopt The Woods' resolution opposing Substitute State Senate Bill 966 verbatim.

This proposal would create a district court in which The Woods, Shores and Harper Woods would be included under its jurisdiction.

The trustees said that they were extremely satisfied with the present judicial procedures, and that Judge Denis is "doing an excellent job."

The Shores solons also said the establishment of a district court would cost The Village taxpayers an estimated $100,000, along with The Woods and Harper Woods, with each community paying a proportionate share for the judge's salary, salaries of a court clerk, bailiff, et al.

The estimated cost would be a burden on Shores taxpayers, since the Village uses its own court facilities, and pays Judge Denis an annual salary of $2,400 for holding court in the community.

Invite Women To Career Days

"Making Career Decisions," a one-day workshop for women, first of a series offered by Women of Wayne Alumni, co-sponsored by the Wayne State University Commission on the Status of Women, will be offered Saturday, May 1, from 9:15 a.m.-4 p.m. at Stouffer's Northland Inn.

Dr. Marisa Keeney, commission chairperson, a consulting psychologist with the University's Division of Counseling and Psychological Services, will direct the program which includes a discussion-starter film and a panel presentation.

Registration for the day is $6, ($5 for Women of Wayne members), with luncheon available at $5.50. Reservations may be made through Women of Wayne at Alumni House, Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan 48202.

Women of Wayne has scheduled two other career programs for the month of June.

The first, Saturday, June 5, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, will focus on "Getting a Job in Today's Market." Co-sponsored by WSU's Placement Office, it will feature a panel of employment counselors and round-table discussions with women at work in a variety of fields.

The final session, Saturday, June 26, at McGregor Conference Center on the WSU campus, is co-sponsored by the Wayne State University of Michigan Institute of Gerontology. It will deal with "Planning for Work after Retirement."

Puppet Players Set Two Shows

The Peppermint Players of the Grosse Pointe Public Library will be presenting a Puppet Show at the Woods Branch, 20600 Mack avenue, on Saturday, May 1, at 10:30 a.m.

The group has dramatized two old-time favorites, "The Three Billy Goats Gruff" and "The Traveling Musicians." The program will last approximately 45 minutes and should be especially enjoyable for pre-schoolers through the fourth grade.

Another performance will take place Saturday, May 8, at the Park Branch, 15430 Kercheval avenue, at 10:30 a.m.

A group of school children ranging in age from 8-13, the Peppermint Players participated in a puppet workshop sponsored by the library last summer.

Bean Sprouts Easy to Grow

If someone announces that he's sprouting, don't be alarmed. It's just that he's started to grow his own bean sprouts.

Bean sprouts, once little-known ingredients in Chinese dishes, are gaining in popularity as weight-conscious Americans discover sprouts are high in vitamins but low in calories.

They are often used in omelets, souffles, stews and salads, as well as in Chinese cookery.

You can sprout almost any kind of dry bean, but the mung bean is the most popular, followed by the soybean.

Home sprouting, according to Anita Dean, Michigan State University Food and Nutrition specialist, is a matter of combining the right amount of moisture with the proper temperature in a dark location.

"To give your beans enough moisture to sprout without giving them so much that they rot, you need a container with good drainage," Mrs. Dean says. "A large, clean flower pot with rustproof screen or cheesecloth over the drainage hole works well."

"You could also use a clean plastic milk bottle or paper milk carton with a few drainage holes punched in the bottom."

A large container is needed, she notes, because the beans swell to six times their dry size.

To begin sprouting, soak a cup of dry beans overnight in lukewarm water. They will roughly double in size.

The next morning, put the soaked beans into your container and water thoroughly with water at room temperature. Cover tightly and set the container in a bowl to catch the water that drains out.

To keep the beans from drying out and to hold them at a good temperature for growing, water them with room temperature water three to four times a day for four to six days.

The sprouts are ready to use when the white and tender part of the top layer reaches one and a quarter inches in length, not counting the roots.

One View from the Capitol

By William Bryant

The legislature returned this week to face the budgetary problems of the State. Among the largest expenditures which must be made is aid to public schools.

Apparently there was some confusion by many voters in the last local school millage election as to whether or not the Grosse Pointe Public Schools will receive substantial money next school year in State school aid.

Statements made by me, the Governor's office and the Senate Majority Leader appeared to differ. They really do not differ.

What I said was that our schools could not count on getting substantial aid.

What the others said was that the school aid bill will include substantial money for the Grosse Pointe public schools.

I agree with their statement but my statement goes a step further to point out that, because this will be an extremely tight budget year, there is considerable possibility, if not likelihood, there may be mid-year cuts in the budget removing most of the aid promised to our area schools.

Our constitution requires a balanced budget. It requires that during the budget year if the Governor sees that expenditures will exceed revenues, he must make a set of recommendations to bring the budget back into balance.

In the last and the present budget year the Governor, after negotiation with the legislative majority leadership, has submitted budget cuts approved by the two Appropriations Committees. These cuts have taken considerable money out of school aid and denied Grosse Pointe monies it was promised.

It would be far better to be overly conservative in our estimates of revenue and avoid promising money which is not delivered but the politics of school aid are such that few legislators can stand the heat of an austere school aid bill.

So we likely will go through the motions of adopting a generous school aid bill, and, if we do, I will vote against it unless convinced the revenue is there to fund it.

Assuming a generous school aid bill, then, yes, it will promise substantial money to the Grosse Pointe School System. However, if the pattern of the last two years again holds true, the schools may never see that money due to mid-year State budget cutting.

Yes, substantial money will be appropriated for our schools, but our schools cannot count on actually receiving the money. A sad situation it is, but that is the situation.

GP Natators Have Fine Meet

The Grosse Pointe Swim Club recently competed in the 1976 boys age group State Short Course Championships at Royal Oak Kimball High School.

Ray Bernard in the 15-18 age group won two State championship events. He won the 100-yard backstroke covering the distance in 57.17 seconds and the 200-yard backstroke with a time of 2:04.987 seconds.

Tom Hessburg in the same age group won the 100-yard breaststroke in 1:03.043. His time established a new pool record. Tom also placed seventh in the 200-yard breaststroke.

Drew Pillsbury, representing the 15-18 age group, placed third in the 100-yard backstroke, fourth in the 400-yard individual medley and eighth in the 200-yard backstroke.

These three boys teamed with Steve Swanson to place third in the 400-yard medley relay and, with Andy Howe, 12th in the 400-yard relay.

Another Grosse Pointe swim club member, Dale Gannon, placed eighth in the 100-yard breaststroke.

Larry McDonald, swimming in the 10 and under age group, placed seventh in the 50 free, and 12th in the 50-yard butterfly.

Other swimmers representing the Grosse Pointe Swim Club but not placing were John Hessburg and David Howe in the 13-14 age group.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

To me, in Grosse Pointe after experience in four other school systems, the recent millage rejection appears to be a case of a school system, like the prophet, "not without honor but in its own country."

I guess the people who have always lived here take for granted something whose excellence is instantly apparent to a newcomer.

We have been in a good, if problem-beset, system in Pasadena, two good ones on Long Island and an unsatisfactory one in New Jersey. Our two youngest had the benefit of two years each in Grosse Pointe South, and all I can say is, I do not think you really know what you have.

Twenty years ago, in California, I began studying educational systems. Grosse Pointe's was mentioned repeatedly as outstanding.

In addition to general excellence, a school system often gains recognition in one particular field. In Grosse Pointe, it's music. A few months after we moved, I went to South's gym, with its miserable acoustics, to hear South's orchestra and choir. Russell Reed and Leonard Riccinto in charge, do Orff's difficult and demanding "Carmina Burana."

The young musicians performed so superbly I could hardly believe what I was hearing, and I say this as a musician of sorts and a music reviewer.

Frills, you say? Think again. What do we really know about ourselves and our potential? Can we be sure that the things which lead the mind and heart into a higher dimension are frills?

Loren Eiseley, the anthropologist who writes like a poet, emphasized in a lecture in his class on human evolution that overspecialization leads to extinction, and that man's unspecialized brain could be a road to the future, or trapped in what he called "involved technological overspecialization," a dead end.

He pointed out also that artifacts made by hominids a half million years ago, creatures with brains two-thirds the size of ours, already display an orientation toward aesthetics as well as utility.

Do we know enough to claim it is not important to keep our options open by feeding our young brains the beautiful as well as the useful?

I have no personal axe to grind. We have no children in the schools. We are affected personally only because our house, along with every other house in Grosse Pointe, automatically loses some of its resale value, both as to price and as to number of potential customers, if the schools deteriorate.

I received a marvelous education at other people's expense. The only way I can repay that debt is to pass on to the next generation what others provided for me. Grosse Pointe has had a nationwide reputation for excellence in general and musical excellence in particular for at least a generation. To destroy that seems to me to be sheer vandalism.

True, our schools are not perfect. What do we expect, in a society where all our institutions are run by fallible human beings: that every administrator, every teacher, every course will be perfect by the standards of every individual citizen? Remember, problems can be worked out better and more easily in a strong system than a weak one.

As for the accusation that the Board of Education does not represent the taxpayers, who can say, considering that less than a third of them bothered to vote?

I hope with all my heart that the Grosse Pointers who take their schools for granted will think harder, understand the overall benefit of a good system for the entire community and go to the polls and support the millage in June.

Sincerely yours,
Betty McCollister,
Grosse Pointe Park

To the Editor:

We, the students of the vocal music department of South High School, feel that we are losing a vital part of our academic program. This comes in the form of the dismissal of our director, Leonard Riccinto.

This man has been serving in our district for 11 years, and yet, because of the failure of the recent millage election, he has been given his "walking papers."

We, the members of his class, have been told that our vocal music department will be "rearranged" so that one of the remaining music teachers in the district will be brought in to teach us. There is only one high school level music instructor left in the system, and he teaches instrumental music.

We feel that we have a right to speak out and voice our opinions on this, and the fact that the quality of our education is declining rapidly.

Our music is very important to us, but even more important to us, our director is important to us. He has been a source of inspiration and strength and has become a mainstay in the community.

Mr. Riccinto, through his music, has brought joy to the whole area, and most of all, to his students who love and respect him.

We have already begun to take measures to try and insure that he will be back with us next year, however, we need the help and support of our community. We ask for your assistance in helping us retain the best thing that ever happened to Grosse Pointe South, Mr. Leonard Riccinto.

We, the undersigned, speak for the entire vocal music department at South High School.

Respectfully, Amy Kackley, Bette Ingalls, Camille Tomaszewski, Martha Person, Ann Marie Tomaszewski, Carol Calcaterra.

Jr. Symphony Performs May 4

The Grosse Pointe Junior Symphony will perform its final concert of the 1975-76 season on Tuesday, May 4, at 8 p.m. in Parcels Middle School auditorium, 20600 Mack Avenue.

Kelly Leon, 11, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leon, of Ridgmont road, will be the featured soloist. Kelly is a four-year veteran of the Grosse Pointe Junior Symphony, and is concert-mistress of the orchestra. She's in the fifth grade at Kerby School.

The program will include Handel's Overture "Theodora," Bach's Concerto in A Minor for Violin and works by Saint-Saens, Moussorgsky and Loewe. Nathan C. Judson will conduct the program. Tickets, at $1 for adults and 50 cents for students, are available from any symphony member or at the door.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

This is the second of a 10 part series entitled "Bicentennial Biographies." The subject of this week's column is John Adams (b. Braintree, Mass., 1735-d. Quincy, Mass., 1826).

John Adams, the second President, (1797-1801), of our country, helped to guide the young United States through some of its most serious troubles. He served under George Washington as the first vice-president, and followed him as the second chief executive.

The government moved from Philadelphia to Washington, D.C., during Adams' administration, and he became the first President to live in the White House.

Aside from his service as President, Adams is best known for the leading role he played in the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, and as a signer of that historic document.

He had spoken out boldly for separation from Great Britain at a time when most colonial leaders still hoped to settle their differences with the British. As President, Adams fought a split in his own party over his determination to avoid war with France. He kept the peace, but in the process he lost his bid for a second term to Thomas Jefferson.

Popularity never came to John Adams in his lifetime. Publicly he was stern, contentious, self-righteous and brutally frank. Benjamin Franklin saw him as a man who "means well for his country, is always an honest man, often a wise one, but sometimes out of his senses." He was stubborn, vain and self-pitying. He did not fare well in the estimation of most of his contemporaries nor in that of succeeding generations until our own.

But lately we have been discovering a different Adams, the real Adams if you will.

We are able to do this because of several excellent new books all based on the definitive scholarly publication of the enormous surviving mass of Adams family papers. Through them we are coming to see John Adams for the sensitive, witty, brilliant man he was, a great political thinker and writer and in many ways one of the most attractive of the Founding Fathers. We better understand the long, lasting friendships he made and the admiration of those who knew him intimately.

IN JOHN ADAMS: A BIOGRAPHY IN HIS OWN WORDS, (Harper and Row), edited by James Bishop Peabody, a passionate, human Adams comes alive along with his remarkable and adored wife, Abigail, and their international world. The purpose of this work is to offer a readable picture of Adams' lively private personality as well as his prickly public one. Adams made no more than a stab at an autobiography, but he did write letters, journals and intermittent reminiscences that describe not only the events of his career, but how he felt on these occasions.

In addition, the spacious pages of this book contain nearly 300 adroitly selected illustrations of his world, making this book an accessible entry into the mind, character and career of this great American.

For a very special view of John Adams I would recommend THE BOOK OF ABIGAIL AND JOHN: SELECTED LETTERS OF THE ADAMS FAMILY 1762-1784, (Harvard), edited by L. H. Butterfield.

These letters of this famous couple cover a time when they were separated for extended periods by the demands of Mr. Adams' political career. Their correspondence, spanning 20 years, reflects daily life and travel in the 18th century, and documents a warm relationship between spouses who were also friends.

For the modern reader who wants to know more about this period in our history when marriage was a sacred institution, children looked to their parents for instruction and Americans seemed to know exactly where they were going and why, this book holds much in store.

Because of the PBS television series of the same name, THE ADAMS CHRONICLES, (Little Brown), by Jack Shepherd is probably the best known book of this group. Produced with the cooperation of the Massachusetts Historical Society and the Adams family, this elegant and beautifully illustrated book tells the story of four generations of Adamses.

The book's concept is good: what have four generations of a distinguished family contributed to America? Mr. Shepherd's retrospective of the achievements of the Adamses is a pleasant walk through American history from 1750-1900. An added feature is a fine introduction written by historian Daniel Boorstin.

Children's Hospital of Michigan is the real winner in the annual Tennis and Crumpets tournament, launched this week with the mailing of the spring patron letter.

Since T&C began in Detroit in 1967, more than $223,000 has been raised for the Hospital. Last year, 3,100 players competed in four metropolitan-area tournaments, adding $56,929.27 to Children's coffers.

This year's tournament is scheduled for the weekend of September 18 and 19, with finals the following weekend, September 25 and 26, and super finals October 2.

Proceeds will help pay for two highly-sophisticated pieces of equipment used in the diagnosis of heart defects.

Peachy (Mrs. W. Warren) Sheldon, of Provencal road, a long-time supporter of Children's, is honorary chairman for the Grosse Pointe tournament. Mr. Sheldon is the new chairman of the Hospital's board of trustees.

Mrs. Rex G. Ciavola, of Cloverly road, is benefit chairman. Mrs. George H. Zinn, Jr., of Beacon Hill, is patrons chairman.

Invitations have been extended to 12,000 Founders, members of the Detroit Institute of Arts' public supporting organization, for an extended preview, (11 in the morning to 10 at night), of "Heritage and Horizon:

American Painting 1776-1876."

Highlighting the program next Wednesday, May 5, will be two concerts by Ars Musica, an Ann Arbor-based group which performs in costume on instruments of the 1790's.

Mrs. Wilber Hadley Mack, of Country Club drive, chairman of the Founders Society Women's committee, Mrs. Gaylord Gillis, of Merriweather road, and Mrs. J. Denton Anderson, of Bloomfield Hills, are planning hospitality by the Women's committee.

"Words and Thoughts of American Artists" offers an intimate glimpse of problems and triumphs through original letters, diaries and photographs from the Archives of American Art.

"American Fashion," a display from the Costume Institute of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, features outfits for men, women and children, 1776 through 1900, closely corresponding to those seen in the paintings.

"Heritage and Horizon" will open to the public next Thursday, May 6, and continue through Sunday, June 13. Regular museum hours are 9:30 to 5:30 o'clock Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday, and 1 to 9 o'clock Fridays.

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday morning, April 10, in St. Peter and Paul Jesuit Church were NANCY ANN VAN GOETHEM and Mr. Joseph, son of the Joseph A. Josephs, of Royal Oak. Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Van Goethem, Jr., of Pear Tree lane, are the bride's parents.

Vacation Abroad For L.M. Josephs

Nancy Ann Van Goethem Is Attended by Her Sister and University of Arizona School Friend at Morning Rites

Lawrence Martin Joseph and his bride, the former Nancy Ann Van Goethem, are traveling abroad, visiting England, where Lawrence studied at Cambridge as winner of the University of Michigan's Comstock Award, and motoring to Paris and Scotland.

They flew to London following their marriage Saturday, April 10, in St. Peter and Paul Jesuit Church, and a reception at the Country Club of Detroit.

After three week's vacation, they will return to make their home in Detroit.

Nancy, an artist, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Van Goethem, Jr., of Pear Tree lane. Her husband, a lawyer and writer, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Joseph, of Royal Oak.

Father Thomas Radloff, S.J., presided at the 10:30 o'clock rites. Joseph Maizgowski, a classmate of Larry's at the University of Detroit High School and the University of Michigan, came from San Diego, Calif. to play the wedding music.

Other out-of-town guests included the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Martin

L. Van Goethem, Sr., and Larry's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Francis.

The bridal gown of ivory Qiana flowing from a V-neck insert of lace and seed pearls featured a high, lace collar and cuffs studded with seed pearls. Two Qiana flowers were tucked into one side at the crown of a matching picture hat, also lace and seed pearl-accented.

The former Miss Goethem carried a cascade of cymbidium orchids.

Judith Green, a University of Arizona classmate of the bride, came from Phoenix to serve as honor attendant. Ann Van Goethem was her sister's bridesmaid.

Their melon-colored Empire frocks featured mandarin necklines and full sleeves. They carried round bouquets of yellow and melon carnations, with baby's-breath.

Robert Joseph, of Chicago, acted as best man for his brother. Thomas Joseph, a cousin, and Mark Joseph, another brother, ushered.

Mrs. Goethem selected a long, aqua gown, styled with a lace-appliqued knit bodice and full, Qiana skirt, for her daughter's wedding. Her wrist corsage was a cymbidium orchid.

The bridegroom's mother chose a formal length dress and matching jacket of beige silk and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

All in the Family

The Reverend Ray H. Kiely, D.D., pastor of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, has been elected to the board of trustees of Kimball Union Academy, Meriden, N.H. It figures: Kimball and Kiely have been together a long time, now.

The Reverend Kiely's appointment to the board continues a family involvement with Kimball Union which began four generations ago. To date, TWENTY-FOUR members of his family have been graduated from this small, 163-year-old coeducational boarding school.

An uncle, The Reverend Dr. Ray F. Jenney, Kimball Union '09, is presently a trustee emeritus of the Academy. The new trustee's mother, Mary E. (Jenney) Kiely, was also a member of the Class of '09.

Dr. Kiely's sister, Mary J. (Kiely) White, was graduated from Kimball Union in 1937; his son, Mark R. Kiely, in 1970.

In his own senior year at the Academy, Dr. Kiely won the Declamation Prize. That, too, figures, for he has been speaking every since — not only from his own pulpit at Memorial Church, but as an exchange preacher in parishes all over the

Bicentennial Summer At National Cathedral

Many Americans, visiting the nation's capital this Bicentennial summer, will include a stop at the National Cathedral on their Washington itineraries.

They'll come because it's something to contemplate: established by an Act of Congress in 1893, (the only cathedral church to be so honored), first envisioned by George Washington as "a great church for national purposes... a house of prayer for all people," it serves as an ecumenical center crossing all denominational lines.

Over the years, five different churches and a Jewish congregation have called it their temporary home. It is an Episcopal church—but last year, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists and Roman Catholics met and held services there.

It receives no aid from any government or church. Since the laying of its cornerstone in 1907, its walls have risen stone by stone thanks to the generosity of private donors.

Three schools—Beauvoir Elementary, St. Albans School for Boys and the National Cathedral School for Girls—and two colleges—the College of Preachers and the College of Church Musicians—make their homes on its 57-acre grounds.

Within the National Cathedral's walls are the tombs of President Woodrow Wilson, Secretaries of State Cordell Hull and Frank Kellogg, Admiral Dewey and Helen Keller.

State funerals were conducted for President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Ambassador Adlai Stevenson, Chief Justice John and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. National memorial services

Plan Double Wedding

Photos by J. J. Knopp

Plans for a July 31 double wedding are being made by KATHERINE J. SEWELL, (left), and Richard Lloyd Paulson, and by ALICE COLLI- OUD, (right), and Guy W. Sewell, Jr. Miss Sewell's engagement to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Paulson, of Rockford, Mich., was announced recently by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Guy W. Sewell, of DePetrus Way, who are also the parents of Miss Collioud's fiancé.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Collioud, who moved recently from Moran road to Troy, announced their daughter's engagement.

Miss Sewell attended Massachusetts General in Boston, Mass. Mr. Sewell was graduated from Boston University and is now attending Albany Medical School in New York.

Miss Collioud attended Wayne State University and received her Bachelors degree in General Studies and her Master of Arts degree in Library Science from the University of Michigan. Her fiancé holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Michigan, where he affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

were held for John F. Kennedy, Sir Winston Churchill, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman.

Martin Luther King, Jr., preached his last sermon at the Cathedral. Special services for a wide variety of national, civic and governmental organizations are held each year, and Christmas and Easter services are televised nationally.

The National Cathedral Association is also the Cathedral's congregation. Pointers have been active in the Association since the NCA of Eastern Michigan was founded in the early 1920's by Mrs. Charles Beecher Warren. In 1963, the keystone carving in one of the bays was given in memory of Mrs. Warren.

In 1971, one of the hand-carved stone angels comprising the great South Portal was given in memory of Mrs. Frederick G. (Virginia) Brush-Ford, and in the West Narthex there is a wrought iron gate given in 1974 in memory of Alvan Macauley.

In 1957, the women of Michigan worked, in beautifully-designed needlepoint, all the chancel kneelers, including the altar rail kneelers, acolytes and Bishop's kneelers, for the Bethlehem Chapel.

Michigan Friends of the Cathedral gave the State of Michigan seal worked in marble and epoxy, part of the Narthex floor, in 1975, and the National Cathedral Association of Eastern Michigan is joining with others across the country to raise funds to complete the great Pilgrim Gallery by 1977.

These are just some of Michigan's contributions to the Cathedral, which has a program of special events planned for this Bicentennial summer.

The Independence Day Service of the Nation will be held there on July 4.

A service marking the visit of Queen Elizabeth II will be held July 8, at 10:15 o'clock. The Archbishop of Canterbury is coming September 12.

Preceding these events, on Sunday, June 27, the State of Michigan flag will be carried in procession on Michigan's own special State Day. The service is set for 11 in the morning. Bishops Coleman McGehee and John Walker and many Michiganders will attend, and The Reverend Billy Graham will preach.

The National Cathedral Association of Eastern Michigan has scheduled a Bicentennial Group Tour to Washington for Michigan Sunday at the National Cathedral. It is limited to 40 people, with departure scheduled for Friday, June 25, and return on

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Theodore Alexander Foster, of Trombley road, and the late Bert Harrison Wicking, for whom the Grosse Pointe South High School library has been named, and of Webster Bonham Knight, of East Jefferson avenue, and the late Mrs. Knight.

Mr. Hixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Howard Hixon, of Macon, Ga., was graduated from Macon's Lenoir High School and from Mercer University, Atlanta, Ga. He is past-president of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Alliance Scholarship Goes to Katie

PIERRE PALMENTIER, vice-president in charge of scholarships, presents the 1976 Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe summer in France scholarship to Grosse Pointe North High School senior KATIE MCENROE, as second place winner SALLY FACE, a Grosse Pointe South High student, and runners-up VIKKI

Offer Stratford Play Previews

Lecture/introductions to the 1976 Stratford, Ont., Festival Shakespearean plays will be given at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial this spring by Dr. Philip Traci, of Wayne State University's English Department.

"Three for Stratford '76," sponsored by University Courses in Adult Education, will be presented Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock, starting with a May 12 Kleenex Flowers or Erotic Night-mare? program focusing on "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

"The Merchant of Venice," Rival Lovers or Which is the Merchant, Which the Jew?, is scheduled for May 19; "Antony and Cleopatra," Royal Lovers or Lustful Fools?, for May 26.

Dr. Traci, a member of the WSU faculty since 1969, received his Ph.D. from Duke University. His doctoral dissertation was on "Antony and Cleopatra." He hopes, through the preview lectures, to provide playgoers with a knowledge of the written works and their possible theatrical interpretations.

This will be the third series Dr. Traci has given on the Stratford Festival.

Fee for the series is $12. Individual lectures are $5. Student tickets are $7 for the series, $3 for single lectures. Ticket information may be obtained by calling 577-4665.

Sally received $100, Vikki and Janice $50 each.

The scholarship competition is open annually to high school juniors and seniors, student or family members of the Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe, who furnish letters of intention to participate and letters of recommendation from their French teachers and another teacher at their schools.

This year's oral interview was planned by Rene Robert, past treasurer of the Alliance. It was held in the home of Alliance President Mrs. Garfield Tournay.

Funds for the 1976 scholarship awards were raised via a Soiree au Cabaret hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Tournay.

The Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe, soon to complete its sixth year, has a membership of almost 300. It is a non-profit organization. Its raison d'etre is to increase contacts and understanding between the French and American peoples.

Busy May Ahead For Pointe AAUW

Joan Israel, Past-President of NOW, Will Speak at General Meeting in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Women's Lounge

The Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women, an educational organization for college-degreed women in the area, continues its varied agenda of programs and meetings in May.

Grosse Pointe's AAUW, one of over 60 branches in Michigan, is part of National AAUW and of an international organization with members in more than 54 countries: the International Federation of University Women.

The local branch began in 1944 with 30 charter members. Today, with a membership of approximately 400, it is one of the largest branches in the state.

Its activities center around monthly study groups, whose basis for meetings may be pure study or a combination workshops—are held.

Study groups and general meetings are scheduled for various times during the day, to meet as many needs as possible. A special feature of some Pointe Branch morning meetings is a baby sitting service, provided at a nominal fee.

The Branch's one large money-making event is its annual Used Book Sale. It is held in the fall, and all members contribute time collecting, marking, sorting and selling books.

Money raised goes to AAUW's National Fellowship Program, providing grants to women for higher education. The AAUW Education Foundation helps American and foreign women finance advanced education and post-doctoral research.

The program has awarded over 2,700 fellowships. It is the largest fellowship program exclusively for women, (since the basic purpose of AAUW is continuing education for women, raising money for fellowships is an important part of the Association's work).

A membership in the Grosse Pointe AAUW is open to any graduate of an IFUW-approved college or university upon application to Wilma Montle, Branch membership chairman, 884-3525.

An interested woman may attend up to three study group or general meetings as a guest of the Branch before she decides on membership.

Next month's general meeting, scheduled for Wednesday, May 19, will feature Joan Israel, past-president of NOW, discussing "The Effects of the Women's Movement."

Members will gather for coffee at 9:30 o'clock in the Women's Lounge of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Ms. Israel, currently on NOW's national board of directors, is one of seven women who operate New Options, Inc., a consulting firm on affirmative action for women. Her job stems from long involvement in women's issues on a volunteer basis.

New Options, for a fee, helps employers comply with the law on equal rights for women and helps raise the level of awareness of the issues. Ms. Israel serves as "group awareness sessions coordinator," conducting in-company programs, for management, supervisors, recruiters and women employees, designed to provide an opportunity to verbalize feelings and learn new ways of handling problems.

The same seven partners have formed New Options Personnel, a separate job placement agency which works with major corporations in the area.

Ms. Israel completed her undergraduate work at the University of Rochester and received her Masters degree in Social Work from Smith.

She has worked at Merrill Palmer as director of practice and as director of Operation Friendship. She has served as coordinator of Jewish Family Services, and has a part-time private practice as a psychotherapist.

Next month's study sessions begin Monday, May 3, with a 9 o'clock Bicentennial Group meeting at the home of Peggy Ptasnik in Moran road. Celia Turrell will present her excellent review of "The Miracle at Philadelphia," the story of the Constitutional Convention from May to September, 1787, featuring a behind-the-scenes look at persons and events leading to the creation of the United States Constitution.

Evening Bridge will meet Wednesday, May 5, Monday, May 10, and Tuesday, May 18, at the Balfour road home of Evelyn Snyder. Participants are reminded to call in reservations at least one day ahead of the meeting they plan to attend.

The International Relations Group will meet Thursday, May 6, at 1 o'clock in Elizabeth Dulmage's McKinley avenue home for a "view" of the multinationals presented by Ann Nicholson.

Stitchery II begins a new project — a glass case or other item — Monday, May 10, at 8 o'clock at Alma Cook's home in Wedgewood drive. Planning for next year will be included in the evening's program.

Kaleidoscope Study Group convenes Tuesday, May 11, at 9 o'clock in the Rivard boulevard home of Sylvia Krating. Mary Lou Boresch will discuss methods of drying flowers and what flowers to plant now for summer and fall drying. Arrangements will be on display.

The Book Discussion Group also meets May 11, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock in the evening at the Broadstone road home of Mini Krembel, where Mary Louise Krebs and Fran Schonenberg will lead a program on Flexner's "Washington: The Indispensable Man."

La Causerie will meet Wednesday evening, May 12, at 7:45 o'clock at June Nelson's home in McMillan road. Julia Ford will lead a discussion on Cadillac.

Jane Mertz is opening her Hampton road home for a 21st Century Group meeting Monday, May 17, at 9:15 in the morning. Members will engage in a planning session, choosing specific areas of their lives to study, (family, education, housing, work, etc.), foreseeing future alternatives, anticipating the options open to them, examining the consequences, better or worse, of each choice — and finding out how to anticipate change instead of reacting to it.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

In real estate financing the borrower gives a note in which he or she unconditionally promises to pay a certain amount of money. This is the debt instrument that sets up the obligation of the debt. According to the experts: "The borrower also gives to the creditor a mortgage which pledges certain property as security for the loan. This is something called 'dead pledge' because as long as the debtor carries out his promises and obligations the mortgage has no effect." It turns out that people often say they are "paying on a mortgage" but this is misleading because they are actually paying on the note.

The owner also gives an "assumed" pledge that all of the working parts of his home are in proper working order. The term "Buyers Beware," however, warns the purchaser that he is on his own — and in fact nothing is guaranteed to work! This is where Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co.'s 882-0087—Buyers Protection Plan comes in. This is a one year warranty to guarantee that all the specifics are in working order — if not, they will be replaced or repaired at no cost other than the deductible of $100.00.

Warranties are the hottest topic in Real Estate today. If you are purchasing a home from the Real Estate Co. who can give you a warranty. Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087 is the only company in G. P.

Take A Walk Through Time

Life at the time of the American Revolution is expressed in the participant's own words at Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, in one of the nation's major Bicentennial exhibitions.

Revealing for the first time a major unpublished collection of Revolutionary period diaries, cartoons, letters, maps and broadsides, "The Struggle and the Glory" will run through October 31.

In addition to written materials, a profusion of original weapons, furniture, tools, lamps, dry goods, cookware, transportation devices and other material necessities in use during the Revolution depicts life in the Colonies from 1755 to 1789.

Displays range from household settings of furniture and accessories used by Colonial families to a dramatic seven-screen theater-in-the-round encircling viewers with the color and noise of Revolutionary battles.

The words of America's founders accompany visitors on a walk through the Revolution that starts with the outbreak of the French and Indian War and covers Colonial land disputes, the people, the Revolutionary War and the new nation.

First-hand accounts by Washington, Hancock, Burgoyne, Arnold, Adams, Wayne and others who were actually there give a remarkable authenticity to this expression of the Revolution.

In the exhibit's first section a printer operates an 18th century press, turning out French and Indian War "Call to Arms" recruiting broadsides for presentation to visitors.

This section of "The Struggle and the Glory" presents Britain's defeat of France in a conflict over land use. It also prepares visitors for a close look at Colonial settlers.

The second section of "The Struggle and the Glory" dramatizes the Colonists' ethnic diversity and regional differences. Shop windows display imported wares Colonists depended on prior to the Revolution.

By coming into close contact with the Colonists' daily lives, visitors feel the strong and increasingly distasteful presence of official England in the Colonies. The crackle of drums and exploding muskets sets the mood for stronger expressions of conflict.

Reactions to trade restrictions that created monopolies and threatened Colonial businesses, increasing taxes and the intrusion of British soldiers sent to the Colonies to enforce laws are expressed boldly in words and cartoons shaped 200 years ago by Colonial pens.

The stark reality of a new American nation severed from and at war with England greets exhibit visitors as they cross a plank road, pass a liberty pole and enter the major section of "The Struggle and the Glory," dealing with the Revolutionary War itself.

Here are fiery written exchanges between John Hancock and Major General Anthony St. Clair. Visitors "look over the shoulder" of John Jay as he pens a plea for provisions.

Problems are everywhere. Only a third of the Colonists support the break from England; nothing short of a draft is going to save America, Anthony Wayne warns his countrymen. Washington admonishes Colonel Theodore Bland, "Don't resign!"

All around are weapons provisions, musical and navigational instruments, uniforms and other equipment of the Revolution. The actual bed George Washington used during Revolutionary campaigns is set up with his camp chest, as if awaiting his use.

Ahead is the dramatic theater-in-the-round, beyond that a theater presenting, on film, the final major battle of the Revolution at Yorktown.

The exhibition concludes with a thoughtful look at the new nation. There is less British influence. A new American nationalism is exemplified by a bowl emblazoned, "Don't let our constitution be frustrated."

Problems of finances, prisoners of war and foreign opinion are threads of concern running through post-Revolutionary letters.

The major problem how to bring the 13 divided colonies into a union, is resolved by ratification of a constitution and the swearing in of George Washington as president of the new nation.

There is no additional charge for "The Struggle and the Glory" beyond the regular Museum admission of $3 for adults, $1.25 for children six through 12. Children under six are free.

MINIMUM WAGE

Compliance actions handled by the U.S. Labor Department's Wage and Hour Division showed almost 217,000 workers employed in violation of minimum wage standards and 250,000 workers employed in violation of overtime standards. A total of approximately $72.5 million was due to these workers, according to the 1975 annual report of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Good Garden Site Important

Starting a vegetable garden this year? Michigan State University horticulturists advise that selecting a proper garden site is probably the most important factor in your success.

If you have limited space available, you have to make the best of what you have, observes Jesse Saylor, MSU horticulture specialist. But if you have a choice of garden locations, choose a spot that offers the best combination of these factors:

Soil. A loose, fertile, level, well-drained soil is best. You can improve a heavy clay soil by mixing peat moss and sand into it. A sandy soil can be improved with peat moss or other organic matter. Vegetables grown in a poorly-drained spot are likely to grow poorly and suffer from more disease problems than plants in well-drained soil.

Mini-climate. A garden on high ground will have a longer growing season than a garden in a depression, where frost tends to settle in early. A low spot may also have poor air circulation.

Sunlight. Most vegetables require full sun all day for best growth. Avoid garden sites near buildings, trees, shrubs, fences or other objects that will shade crops.

Freedom from competition with other plants. Trees, shrubs and weeds compete with garden vegetables for water and soil nutrients. If you're tilling new ground, avoid a site that's matted with quackgrass. Quackgrass is a perennial grass that is very difficult to eradicate in one year. If your only possible site is choked with it, spend this season clearing it out and put off vegetable gardening until next year.

Water supply. A water supply near the garden will make it a lot easier to water crops during dry times.

Convenience. Ideally, a garden should be near your house so you can work in it when you have a few minutes. A rented plot some distance from home is better than no garden at all, but it may be difficult to get there with everything you need to work it — including enough time to make the trip worthwhile.

"Something else to be aware of is how the site was planted last year," Mr. Saylor adds. "An area that has been covered with grass or weeds is likely to have white grubs, wireworms and other soil insects that will attack vegetable crops. If the site was planted in corn last year, the soil may still contain residues of weed killers commonly used in corn that will kill or stunt anything planted there except corn and other grasses."

To Seek New Bid for Land

After only one bid for purchase of the lot located at Hollywood avenue and Martiner road was received, (and this bid was below minimum requirements), The Woods Council unanimously concurred in the recommendation of City Administrator Chester E. Petersen to refer this proposed property sale to the Committee of the Whole, (C-W), for further study.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, April 19.

The minimum bid as specified for the city was $21,000, and the only bid received was around $15,000. As a result, the C-W will now consider setting a new minimum bid for the property sale.

Slow Pitch League Set

The Neighborhood Club is offering a summer slow pitch league for teens between 16-18 years of age. Interested youths may enter as a team, (fee, $75, or on an individual basis, fee, $8).

Blank rosters and additional information may be obtained from the club, 17150 Waterloo avenue, or by calling 885-4600. The deadline for entries is Monday, May 24.

Decorators' Show House to Run for Three Weeks in Lakeshore Road

Fourteen professionally-designed rooms, a "Boutique-Boutique," Garage Greenery and on-going visual demonstrations are aspects of the Junior League of Detroit's three-week fund raiser, Decorators' Show House, which opens this Saturday, May 1, and will run through Sunday, May 23.

The lovely Southern Colonial home of the William B. Cudlip at 900 Lakeshore road, (left), is the Show House, beautified inside and out by leading interior decorators and landscapers.

Junior League members and their husbands have been painting up and fixing up, too, as witness a paint-spattered CRAIG CURTISS, of Bishop road, (right), with wife BEV beneath the ladder, and LUCY (Mrs. Thomas) FITZSIMONS, of Lakeshore road, wielding the roller.

The third floor Boutique features work of over 150 exhibitors from around the country, plus that of local Junior Leaguers, their sons and daughters, husbands and friends.

For Mrs. Robert L. Gottfredson, co-chairman, the Boutique is really a family affair. Daughters Liz and Mary are fashioning hand-painted plaques, hand puppets and Bicentennial aprons. Daughter-in-law Mrs. Michael Gottfredson is sewing aprons and tablecloths.

Mrs. Lawrence Gottfredson, Jr., is designing needlepoint canvasses. The Bicentennial scarf, a red, white and blue square containing the signatures of all the presidents of the United States, is among Boutique items.

Handknit ski hats, and castings, hand painted T-shirts and tiles, ribbon belts and handweavings will be featured, along with carved toys, decorative pillows, purses, picture frames, dough baskets, blue jean dolls, enamel work on copper, tennis racket covers, leather goods . . . and much, much more.

Garage Greenery is a boutique of a different color: a plant potpourri located in the Show House garage. It offers planters, hanging pots, macrame holders and terrarium lamps, as well as all sorts of growing things, native to exotic, large to small.

A series of visual demonstrations in the third floor ballroom begins Monday, May 3, with Furniture Restoration by Donald Sebastian, of the Detroit Historical Museum. He returns Friday, May 14, for a second program.

The use of Gourmet Cooking Utensils will be demonstrated Saturday, May 8, Wednesday, May 12, Saturday, May 15, and Saturday, May 22.

Dried and Silk Flower Arranging is on the agenda for Friday, May 7. Informal modeling by Jacobson's will be featured that afternoon. The following Monday, May 10, there'll be a program on Indoor Plant Care, the Monday after that, May 17, a Lamp Making session. The focus Friday, May 21, will be on Fresh Flower Arranging.

Demonstrations run from 10 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon. Show House hours are 10 to 4 o'clock Monday through Saturday, Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 and Sundays from 1 to 4 in the afternoon.

Tickets for the Decorators' Show House may be purchased at the door for $4. Prior to May 1, they may be obtained for $3.50 at the Junior League of Detroit office in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Funds realized from the Show House will be reinvested in the City of Detroit through future Junior League projects. Current League projects include Belle Isle, Operation LINC, the Kern Block and Job Opportunities for Youth.

Law Day Is A 'Living' Program

Completing plans for the distribution of pine seedlings in Grosse Pointe shopping areas May 1, part of this year's Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives Law Day activities, are, (left to right), MRS. JOHN WILLIAMS, MRS. JAMES CARNAGO and MRS. JAMES ARNOLD, Law Day co-chairmen, and MRS. DONALD MILLER. Other committee members are the Mesdames Jon Gandelot, Daniel Henry, Jr., and Anthony Kenny.

Detroit Records Court Judge Geraldine Bledsoe Ford will be the keynote speaker Monday, May 3, at an 8 o'clock open-to-the-public program in the Grosse Pointe Woods Municipal Building during which the Pointe Lawyers' Wives will present awards to 10 Concerned Citizens.

Congressman Lucien Nedzi will highlight Law Day activities Friday, May 7, at Grosse Pointe South High School. Grosse Pointe North High will host a panel of speakers on probation, including J. Gladys Barsamian, Judge of Juvenile Court, and Tom Fox, Branch Officer supervisor for the Wayne County Probation Department.

Brownell Middle School will hear a speaker from the American Civil Liberties Union.

Chenille Plant Needs Sunlight

Faraway India is the home of the exotic-looking chenille plant, (Acalypha hispida), a relative of the poinsettia, crown of thorns and brightly-colored croton, also known as the red-hot cattail plant because of its lush red flower spikes.

The 12- to 18-inch-long drooping spikes contrast sharply with the bright green, hairy, elm-shaped leaves.

Michigan State University horticulturists point out that the chenille plant needs plenty of light to form flowers. Full sun in a south or west window is best, the experts advise.

If the flowers form and then drop off, the problem is probably either poor soil or too much water around the roots because of overwatering or poor drainage.

Pot the chenille plant in a standard potting soil, or make up your own of equal parts sand, soil and peat or leaf mold. Keep the soil evenly moist, but don't let the plant roots stand in water.

Propagate by stem tip cuttings inserted in sand and peat, perlite or vermiculite in fall or spring.

Organ to be Dedicated At Old Christ Church

The dedication of a new 35 rank Casavant pipe organ at Old Christ Church will be held Sunday, May 16, at 10:30 o'clock Morning Prayer. Dr. Samuel S. Johnston, rector, will be in charge of the ceremonies.

Prelude music begins at 10:15 with two Mozart Sonatas, (K. V. No. 278 and No. 329), composed for organ and orchestra, under the direction of Professor Malcolm Johns, of Rivard boulevard, organist and choirmaster of Old Christ Church.

The 40-voice Old Christ Church Choir will sing two sacred works of Mozart with the orchestra, "Veni, Sancte Spiritus," (K. V. 417), was commissioned and first performed in Vienna when Wolfgang was 12 years old, the joyous "Regina Coeli," (K. V. 276), composed when he was 23, in Salzburg.

The postlude, Bach's "Prelude and Fugue" in C Major, (The Weimar), will be played by John Abdenour, age 14, a member of Detroit's Syrian Community and a pupil of Elwyn Davies, of Cranford lane, organist and choirmaster of St. Paul's Cathedral.

The organ is a Bicentennial gift of Old Christ Church parish as a symbol of faith in the church and community's future.

Old Christ Church is located in East Jefferson avenue at the Chrysler Expressway, adjacent to the Renaissance Center.

Fertilizer Adds Plant Nutrients

Plants, like people, need certain nutrients for growth and good health. The aim of fertilizing the garden or lawn is to supply those nutrients in a form that plants can use.

According to Darryl Warncke, assistant professor, Crop and Soil Sciences, at Michigan State University, the first step in fertilizing the garden is to have the soil tested.

"A soil test will tell whether soil is acid, neutral or alkaline — soil pH — and how much of the various plant nutrients are present," he explains. "Soil pH is important because it affects the

Copeland to Be Guest During MacDowell Day

General coordinator for the MacDowell Day Celebration sponsored by Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae of Grosse Pointe, Detroit, Birmingham and Ann Arbor is Mrs. John C. Krato, of Chalfonte avenue.

The program planned for today, Thursday, April 29, in Ann Arbor will feature Aaron Copeland, Dean of American Music, a friend of MacDowell since his first residence at the retreat for artists in Peterborough, N.H. in 1925, as principal guest.

Mr. Copeland, member of MacDowell's board of directors for 34 years and president for eight, will speak at a luncheon at Ann Arbor's Marriott Inn, following a morning Open House at the Alpha Chi Omega Chapter House.

A dinner is scheduled for this evening at the Chapter House, with Conrad Spohnholz, director of the Colony, as guest of honor. Also present will be 10 Colony Fellows from Michigan, Ohio and Ontario, working in painting, writing and composing, and three national Alpha Chi Omega officers, including Mrs. James Johnston, of Roslyn road, Province president for the State of

Later in the evening, the second of the Ann Arbor May Festival concerts will feature Edward MacDowell's Second Piano Concerto, with Andre Watts as soloist and Eugene Ormandy conducting the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Assisting Mrs. Krato with arrangements for MacDowell Day are Mrs. R. A. Armbruster, of Bedford road, president of the Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae of Greater Detroit, Panhellenic delegate Mrs. Bruce Tock, of Bedford road, Mrs. Richard Finch, of McKinley avenue, chairman of the Eastside Evening Group, Mrs. D. J. Rasmussen, of Lakeland avenue, Newsletter editor, Mrs. Daniel Manthe, of Mount Vernon road, Newsletter publisher, Mrs. Lyle Heavner, of Woods lane, member of the arrangement committee, and Mrs. Nelson Frolund, of Hawthorne road, chairman of the Eastside Afternoon Group.

From Another Pointe of View

Mrs. Ogden, then a member of the Detroit Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association and editor of its magazine, "Homemaker," (it became the WNF&GA magazine), the late Mrs. Otis U. Walker, who eventually became president of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center, and Mrs. Frank Wilton were Mrs. Foster's enthusiastic co-founders.

Today, Windmill Pointe has 25 very active members. It's always been a club of "actives." First President Mrs. Bert Lindzay, during her tenure as president of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council, with the aid of Mrs. Ogden and Mrs. Lowe, (and the help of the late Vincent De Petris, whose expertise proved invaluable), started the Beautification program in Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Lindzay also headed the Cleanest City program, winning an award which is now housed at the Grosse Pointe Garden Center.

Mrs. Foster has remained one of The Pointe's leading gardeners, an accredited judge and flower arranger who has won many honors throughout Michigan. She served on the Grosse Pointe Garden Center's first board.
