HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, July 8
QUEEN ELIZABETH came to the White House among a blare of trumpets Wednesday, waved to applauding crowds from the mansion burned by the Redcoats in 1814 and said the British and Americans "are as close today as two people have ever been." On Wednesday night she was the star of a lavish state dinner. Trumpeters played "God Save the Queen" as the 50-year-old monarch and Prince Philip entered the White House grounds in a black limousine to start a Bicentennial visit to the nation's capital.

Friday, July 9
PAT NIXON was reported in serious condition from a stroke Thursday after she was driven 30 miles by ambulance to Long Beach Memorial Hospital, her doctor said. A hospital spokesman stated the former first lady, who is 64, suffered a slight speech impediment and "moderate to severe paralysis" in her left arm and side. She is expected to remain in the hospital for 10 days. She was reported conscious and resting comfortably in the same hospital where former President Richard Nixon recovered from phlebitis a few months after he resigned from the nation's highest office in August 1974.

Saturday, July 10
GANG VIOLENCE and terrorism on Detroit's east side continued to spread Friday in what police called a brewing full-scale gang war. Friday morning, for the second time in a week, a group of youths known as the Black Killers ambushed and shot members of a rival gang on an east side street corner. The Friday morning ambush also came a few hours after another group of 12 youths who identified themselves as members of the Errol Flynn's boarded a crowded DOT bus on East Jefferson at Van Dyke and terrorized the passengers.

Sunday, July 11
A FIRING SQUAD in Luanda Saturday executed an American Vietnam war veteran and three Britons convicted of being mercenaries in Angola, the Angolan national news agency Angop said. Confirmation of the deaths followed a day of conflicting reports on the fate of the men, including the American, David Gearhart, 34, of Kensington, Md. President Gerald Ford condemned the execution as "unjustified and unwarranted." The agency said that relatives would be allowed to claim the bodies.

Monday, July 12
THE INTERNATIONAL Olympic Committee, (IOC), announced Sunday night that the Olympic Games will continue, despite Canada's refusal to allow Taiwanese athletes to compete as the Republic of China. The IOC, after almost five days of non-stop talk, said it would recommend to the council meeting later this week that Taiwan be excluded from the games. "So that the games could go on," The Canadian government, which recognizes the People's Republic of China, refused to permit entry of a team under the name and flag of the Republic of China, insisting that it be changed to Taiwan.

Tuesday, July 13
A SCHOOL JANITOR, described as a loner troubled by estrangement from his wife, went berserk Monday in the library building at California State University in Fullerton. He repeatedly fired a rifle and killed or wounded nine fellow employees, police said. When the shooting ended, six were dead at the scene and three others were taken to a hospital in critical condition. One of them died later. The janitor was identified as Edward Charles Allaway, 37.

GP Memorial Scouts Scale 'Tooth of Time'

Park Girl Killed in CCD Mishap

Eight-Year-Old Runs from Parked Bus into Side of Passing Truck

An eight-year-old Park girl was killed Tuesday morning, July 8, when she darted from a parked bus and ran into the side of a passing truck at the Country Club of Detroit, (CCD).

Brady Ann Griffin, of 1221 Whittier road, was dead on arrival at Saint John Hospital. Efforts by Farm's firefighters to revive the youngster were futile.

According to police reports, Brady was with a group of children on two buses waiting to be transported to Belle Isle for a picnic. Brady realized she had left her lunch in a building on country club grounds and asked permission to retrieve it.

Thrown to Ground
After receiving permission, Brady left her seat and ran around the front of the bus and into the side of the passing truck. She was spun around and thrown to the ground by the impact. The right rear tire of the truck, reported to be traveling at five mph, ran over her leg.

Farm's P. L. Donald Pilon was the first officer at the scene. Farm's firefighters Robert J. Gmerek and James A. Mauck quickly arrived in the Farm's ambulance and administered oxygen and external heart massage to the little girl while transporting her to Saint John Hospital. (Continued on Page 8)

Dutch Elm Disease Bites Into Many Trees in City

By Susan McDonald
The ice and wind storms of early March may eventually be responsible for a larger tree loss than was earlier expected by Grosse Pointe City officials.

In the community, the savage storms are being blamed for what could turn out to be one of the worst years for Dutch Elm Disease, (DED), blight in the last half decade.

It's just mid-season for the Dutch Elm beetle, and already more than 40 city-owned trees have been lost. Another wave of showings, expected later this month and in early August, will probably boost that figure even higher.

In the last 10 years DED has killed almost 400 city-

'Marine One' Helps Keep Waters Around Area Safe For Benefit of Citizens

Deputies Manning Newest Boat in Wayne County Sheriff Patrol's Water Division Kept Busy Answering Distress Calls, Patrolling Harbors and Waterfront Parks, Conducting Boat Inspections, Working Special Events

By Tom Greenwood
At 35 knots, the blue-and-white Sea Bird cruiser bucks its way across the lake, the waves slamming rhythmically against the hull of the boat. At 50 knots, the two 250 horsepower engines bite so deeply into the water that it's difficult seeing over the bow of the 28-foot vessel.

Deputy Tom Rogers manned the throttle while his partner, Deputy John Thompson, kept a lookout on the upper deck. Both men are assigned to "Marine One," the newest boat in the Wayne County Sheriff Patrol's water division.

At the moment, they were searching for an aluminum skiff that had been reported anchored 500 yards offshore with no one in it.

Everyone Friendly
Slowing to 10 knots, they approached an aluminum rowboat, apparently empty, except for fishing rods resting fore and aft. As they drew nearer, a man rose from the bottom of the boat and rubbed his eyes. He explained he'd been cat napping. Wishing him luck with his fishing, the cruiser slowly gathered speed and continued its patrol.

"That's one great thing about this job," said Deputy Rogers, 24, over the roar of the engines. "On the lake, nearly everyone is friendly and cooperative. Out here, we're the only people working. It's not like on shore where everyone is surly because they're going to work. "Here, everyone is just out to have fun."

The job of "Marine One" is to see that everyone has fun in a safe manner. They work hard to prevent tragedies on the water. Their cruiser is equipped to handle most emergency situations for it's a combination fire engine, ambulance and police car.

Summer Assignment
Equipment includes a pump to extinguish marine fires, oxygen tanks, first aid and resuscitation kits, plus a full assortment of squad car equipment—lights, siren, loudspeaker and portable spotlights. Extra life jackets, floats, boat hooks and a depth finder to help in salvage work also are carried.

"Everyone, including my wife, thinks we spend the day pulling over bikini-clad blonds in sleek raceboats," said Deputy Thompson, 31, a bit wistfully. "Actually, we spend most of our time dealing with drifting fishermen. We handle distress calls, work with the Coast Guard, conduct boat inspections and work special events like boat

Park, Farms Hire Officers

Three new officers have joined Pointe Police department's two patrolmen being hired in The Park and one in The Farms.

Officers Randall D. Cain, 26, and Eugene L. Adamzyk, 24, began working at The Park in early July and late June, respectively. A resident of The Farms, Officer Cain worked previously in Okemos, Mich., while Officer Adamzyk, a Detroit resident, was recently graduated from the Criminal Justice Institute.

The new patrolman in The Farms is David Beckman, 21, who began his duties Wednesday, June 30. A Park resident, he's a recent graduate of Ferris State College.

Talks Between GPEA, Board Move Slowly

Hope for Earlier Settlement Fails to Materialize; Four Week Suspension in Negotiations Agreed Upon by Both Parties

By Susan McDonald
Despite the early optimism of both union and management officials that a quick contract settlement could be reached, Grosse Pointe Education Association, (GPEA), talks with the Board of Education have apparently become bogged down.

Both GPEA president Doris Cook and former Superintendent of Schools Dr. James A. Adams were predicting settlement by the end of June at the onset of talks in early May.

Instead of a settlement, though, after more than 100 hours of negotiations, the groups agreed to a four week suspension of talks which will not resume until Monday, July 26.

In Difficult Spot
GPEA vice-president for negotiations Curtis Lange said his group submitted a near complete set of proposals to the Board team before the break. GPEA financial proposals, covering both base salary and fringe benefits, were presented on May 11, and rejected by the Board on June 14.

The Board team, however, has yet to make a counter-offer to GPEA economic proposals—a fact that union officials say puts them in a very difficult spot.

"We had hoped we could use this break to study each others proposals so that when we go back to the table we will all be ready to get down to work," according to Mr. Lange.

"We are very puzzled as to what exactly is holding up the Board's offer, but we are certain that it puts us at a definite disadvantage."

Needed Proposals
Spokesman for the Board's negotiating team, Lawrence Kennedy, said his group simply didn't have enough judgement on the financial issue.

"The onus is on the union to make demands and for us to react," he said. "You're (Continued on Page 6)

Art Festival Slated July 31

The Needles and Knots handicrafts gallery will present the second annual Sidewalk Art Festival on Saturday, July 31, on Mack avenue between Hampton road and Brys drive.

The display, which will feature the works of more than 40 artists and craftsmen, will include paintings, ceramics, jewelry and weavings. Refreshments will be available and there will be prizes awarded between 10 a.m.-6 p.m.

In case of rain, the festival will be held the following day, Sunday, August 1.

For further information, call Needles and Knots at 881-4587.

To Play "Cuckoo"
The original stage version of the musical "Cabaret," (which is different from the motion picture which followed), will be offered June 18. It is filled with upbeat and exciting scenes and musical numbers, many of which were omitted from the motion picture.

Following the precedent set last year, GPT also will present a "Showcase" play, which is in addition to its regular season. This year's entry will be "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" by Dale Wasserman based upon the novel by Ken Kesey.

It features two of the finest dramatic roles ever offered, and is a biting commentary on mental institutions. It will be performed April 27-May 1. Preceding the announcement (Continued on Page 8)

William Fleming, 38, a corporation director of personnel at Smith, Hinchman and Grylls Assoc. He told the trustees he was looking forward to working with them and that he was very happy to be able to serve the community in this way.

To round out the group, the Board approved a three-year contract for the new Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats, 37, who will assume his responsibilities full time on Monday, July 19.

The three-year contract sets Dr. Coats' base salary at $41,000 and allows him all the fringe benefits accorded to the system's administrators. The Coats family, including his wife, Beverly, is available at the Center at a cost of $7.50.

GPF Views Property Standards

New Law, Which Becomes Effective September 7, Regulates Maintenance of Residential Areas

By Tom Greenwood
An ordinance to regulate the maintenance of residential properties in The Farms could put some residents in a financial bind.

The ordinance, which was recently passed by the council, provides a basis for maintaining dwellings in The Farms that will undergo a change of occupancy.

It covers the selling or renting of family dwellings; hotels, motels, rooming houses or units.

The ordinance, which goes into effect September 7, does not cover dwellings rented or sold before the ordinance becomes law.

Help Maintain Homes
According to John A. DeFoe, building maintenance inspector, the ordinance is a benefit to the community because it "will help keep the homes in The Farms in a good state of repair."

"The homes in our city are getting older," he said, "and this ordinance gives us a chance to inspect the homes and make sure they're up to standard."

Homes to be rented or sold will be inspected by The Farms, for a yet undetermined fee, and if minimum standards are met, a certificate of occupancy will be issued immediately.

If the dwelling does not meet minimum standards, a notice of violations will be given within three working days following the inspection. If chronic violations are not corrected, a penalty in the form of a $500 fine or 90 days in jail can be levied.

Persons assessed the penalties have 14 days to file an appeal.

Potential Problem
The inspection will cover sidewalk and driveway maintenance, fences, exterior walls, structural safety, handrails, windows, exit doors, screening, interior walls, cell-

Swimmers Using SCS Facility

Woods Council to Study Entire Question with Eye Towards The Future

By Roger A. Waha

The use of the new 50-meter competitive pool at the Lake Front Park by members of the North High School swim team and members of the Fitzgerald Swim Club, (FSC), has become a moot issue this summer as the natators received permission from St. Clair Shores to use the 50-meter facility in that city's park for training.

After The Woods Council via two 3-3 votes mixed a 30-day and a 12-day extension of the program, respectively, at its regular meeting Monday, June 21, organizers of the cooperative training effort, faced with a Wednesday, June 30, termination of the plan, began to seek another location.

As it turned out, Jack Shook, vice-president of the FSC who's also masters swim chairman for the Michigan AAU, David Rentschler, of North Oxford road, a deeply involved parent who has two youngsters participating in the program, and Tom Teeter, head swim coach at North, all indicated the receptiveness of St. Clair Shores to the plan.

As a result, the swimming group, which began working out the first of this month, were able to maintain the continuity of the training. Their format at St. Clair Shores is almost the same as that of The Woods as the swimmers train from 6-8 a.m. five days a week and pay a rental fee of $30 per day. (It was $25 in The Woods).

After the council at its Monday, July 12, meeting learned the natators were using the St. Clair Shores pool, Councilman Ronald R. Keigen, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Committee, who supported the program in his city, moved that the matter be deleted and referred it to the Committee of the Whole for further study.

At the same time, the Citizens Recreation Commission also is scheduled to focus upon such a program in relation to the formulation of guidelines for pool usage at the park.

After the council's two deadlocked votes last month, "We immediately went to St. Clair Shores and they were happy to give it (use of their pool) to us," said Mr. Shook. "There was no hassle and no problems."

While he was appreciative of the use of The Woods pool in June, and said no one was mistreated, Mr. Shook stated he was fed up with the "politics of the whole thing."

Last Center Concert Set

The Grosse Pointe Music Festival '76 will conclude the four concert summer series with a grand piano recital performed by internationally renowned pianist Claude Frank on Wednesday, July 21, at 8 p.m. at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road.

Mr. Frank will play selections by Brahms and Beethoven.

Since his debut with Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic in 1959, Mr. Frank has toured the U.S., South America and Europe extensively.

This season Mr. Frank is coming from an engagement as soloist with Guarneri Quartet in the Great Performers Series at Lincoln Center.

He also is conducting classes and lectures at such places as the North Carolina School of the Arts, Arizona State University and Yale University.

Tickets are available at the Center at a cost of $7.50.

Use of Pool at Woods Park Resolved

Clair Shores were approached regarding the use of the city's pool and they were receptive to the program, he stated. In fact, Mr. Shook said some youths from the South High School area have been added to the cooperative training effort.

"We'll take anybody who wants to go into the intersive long course training program," he stated. In keeping to this theme, Mr. Shook said if any young person is interested in participating, he can be contacted at 884-3728.

For his part, Mr. Rentschler, who made the request that this matter be considered by the council on July 12, informed the solons of the developments in St. Clair Shores and said he felt like he was trying to "organize an army but didn't have a war to go to."

Cites Disappointment
He expressed the disappointment of the program's organizers and the swimmers over the entire situation. In noting the program was gradually expanding to include other Pointe youths, Mr. Rentschler stated he was embarrassed, as a Woods participant, over why "such a big issue was made over so little a matter."

He felt the attitude the city had when it accepted the program was "one of probation" and "you don't do this" to such individuals, Mr. Rentschler then requested that the matter be deleted at this time.

In response, Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos said, despite his "yes" vote in support of the program, he could understand the concerns of the council members who voted "no" because the pool was new and because the Citizens Recreation Commission should study such pool usage and formulate guidelines, plus a concern of potential pool problems.

Several citizens spoke in favor of the program with one lady saying it was sad that she had to take three of her participating children to St. Clair Shores to swim, while not being able to use the facility at the Lake Front Park.

Another citizen said he was saddened by the actions of some citizens and some council members for failing to encourage the use of the pool by Woods youths and other natators.

Views Problems
One young lady, who said she was an ex-swimmer, felt it was "a crime" that swimmers today couldn't use the new facility at the park and had to utilize other pools, while expressing a concern over the shuffling of swimmers now and in the past.

Mr. Pinkos indicated problems in relation to the park and its location. He noted the city has a public park which is considered a private piece of property in another community.

Besides paying taxes to the City of St. Clair Shores on the park, he stressed The Woods' situation was different from the other Pointes which have parks within their own boundary lines. He felt this point also should be considered because The Woods has some problems to consider which the other communities don't have.

Councilman Conrad A. Naegele responded to the citizens who supported the program by saying, "I wish some of you could sit on this side of the fence. I have received many, many calls from residents saying we, (i.e., the council), were in error in granting the 30-day period."

Will Not Die
An attendance sheet indicating 33 Pointe swimmers participated in a total of 288 workouts, while 26 FSC natators took part in 363 workouts, was cited by Councilman John Sabol. He felt such figures indicated that Pointe swimmers may not have had the interest that FSC swimmers had in the program.

In response, Mr. Kelgen stated the reason for the lesser number of workouts on the parts of local swimmers was because of final exams during the first few days of the program.

He then emphasized, "I have no intention of seeing it, (such a program), die. I have one and a half years left on the council and I will do everything I can towards coming up with an alternative program."

Echoing Mr. Shook's comments on the receptiveness of St. Clair Shores to the program, Mr. Rentschler also said the group was under pressure and needed a place to go. "We needed a 50-meter pool, St. Clair Shores has one, we went to them and they accepted us."

JEFFS PROMOTED
National Bank of Detroit has announced the promotion of Thomas H. Jeffs II, of The Farms, to first vice-president and head of the Regional Banking Division. Mr. Jeffs serves as a director of National Bank of Troy and the J. N. Fauver Co. He is president of the Epilepsy Center of Michigan, trustee of Walsh College, corporate member of the Boys Club of Metropolitan Detroit and a director of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. He holds a BBA degree in general business and an MBA degree in finance from the University of Michigan.

Park Officials Happy over Big Celebration

The great day has come and gone and Park officials, in reflecting over the city's participation in Bicentennial activities, feel the community did its share of celebrating in commemoration of the nation's 200th birthday.

For The Park, the celebration had an extra meaning. It was in 1879 when LaSalle and his group landed the Griffin on their shores, (at the foot of Lakepointe), said Bicentennial Chairman Charles S. Tompkins, who added the Griffin was the first boat on the Great Lakes other than canoes.

The Griffin was in the Fourth of July parade looking as pretentious and important as it did in the Wayne County Parade where it received an honorable mention, he continued. LaSalle, (Wendy Wilgard), was in the bow of the boat waving to the crowd, while Tracy Tompkins, Audrey Freeman and Karen Wilgard posed as Indians.

A large horse-drawn covered wagon carrying a great number of people stole the show, who provided the horses and Eileen Buck, the wagon, he noted.

In addition to a number of attractive floats there were about 25 old cars headed by the Bessers 1902 Oldsmobile, and organized by Roy Scharfenberg.

"To many of the older people the float with the Victor dog 'his master's voice' and an old gramophone playing marches during the parade was the choice," commented Mr. Tompkins. Upon arrival at the Three Mile Park it was removed from the float, placed on a large drum in the center of the wading pool and played again after the show.

The parade was led by the three firewagons with sirens blowing and flashers shining. Remington Purdy as Uncle Sam followed. Steve Chrypinski led the South School marching band, while Boy Scout Troop 86, led by Jim Herbold, was the honor guard for the flag.

At Westchester and Essex the motorized part of the parade was joined by youngsters on decorated bikes, wagons or floats. They were led by the "Spirit of '76," John Cashman, drummer boy, Lisa Sullivan and Robert Genter. The kids were awarded first, second and third place ribbons and won Bicentennial coins as prizes.

"Cynthia Brooks was in charge of this operation and did a remarkable job in first getting the kids interested in joining in, then judging them and awarding prizes. The Bluebird group had a beautiful float in this part of the parade," he said.

"A word of praise here for Fred Campbell, parade marshal, who got the parade started on the dot and had the last entry, the calliope pulling into the park, at the scheduled time."

Entertainment began with the raising of the flag and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner by Vanessa Helin, Miss Grosse Pointe for 1976-77. The Pledge of Allegiance was given, followed by the introduction of city officials, committee members and the Queen of Grosse Pointe Park, Sue Dotson, and her court, Candy Angott and Dawn Westervelt, who were chosen at The Park's dance Saturday, July 26.

The entertainment lasted until after 5 p.m. Doug McQuinn was caller for the square dancers and assisted in running the entire show.

Those participating in various capacities included Mrs. Joseph Shaheen, Ernie Wilson, "Randy Dee, the Danny Boys, a barbershop quartet, and the South High School Stage Band. Jo Short also played a major role in coordinating the program. Along with the festivities, a booklet was published to tell the story of LaSalle's Griffin and the early history of The Park. It includes a map of the ribbon farms and their owner's names.

"To our knowledge this is not available anywhere in printed form. We secured the information by using a magnifying glass and a flashlight on the old map hanging in the entrance at Little Harry's," said Mr. Tompkins. Houses built about 1800, the Isadore Cadieux House in East Jefferson Avenue, the Wardwell House, 16109 East Jefferson at Three Mile, and the old schoolhouse at Mack and Lochmoor are also featured.

Since it's a limited edition booklet, people who are interested in the historical background of Grosse Pointe Park may obtain a copy at city hall, 15115 East Jefferson, and at the two municipal parks for $1.

"Carol and Gregg Kronk, owners of the Printing Place and residents of The Park, are to be thanked for the printing. Thanks, too, to the League of Women Voters who allowed us to reprint some of their booklet, 'Know Your Grosse Pointe,' and to Dorothy Christian for the research involved," he added. "The children had a great time during the festivities. For instance, James Kelly held games for the youngsters ranging from penny scrambles to sack races and water balloon tosses to three-legged races.

Officials say the city's Bicentennial book cites numerous citizens who contributed to the celebration but doesn't mention the children's effort.

Some of the youngsters participating as Bicentennial personalities, riding on floats, et al, include Greg Roach, Sara Rotta, Mary Ann

The official list of game winners includes Aliz Kelly, Lorie Gieseking, Stacy Sullivan, Colleen Swartz, Harold Conlan, Bill Dietz, Teddy Aurelius, Larry Bauer, Helen Conlan, Jennifer Peterson, Sharon Haley, Mary Ann Roy, Heather Ault, Billy Thompson and Jim Goodridge.

Others are Billy Wakus, John DeWid, Chris Commer, Ann Shatostuski, Geana Halley, Genny Sickel, Jeff Thomas, Chris Dillenbeck and Brian Layton.

Still more include Rene DuFour, Megan Montagne, Sam Palazzolo, John Filippone, Robert Wagner, Pat Fleming, Abbey Frame and Joan Sullivan.

Most people have initiative; but seem to lack finishative. Hope is right when it forms a partnership with hustle.

Tennis courts can be readily used for ice skating if they are designed and constructed for this purpose. Rinks can be built by the spraying or flooding process on courts of clay, concrete and bituminous materials. Spraying is considered preferable for clay, flooding is more practical on paved courts. The reinforcement used in building concrete courts in regions with cold winters allows the courts to withstand the stress due to the ice conditions.

Woods Officer Nabs Youth after Chase

A 14-year-old Detroit boy, who has had over 50 contacts with the Detroit Police Department and 10 contacts with the Youth Service Division, was arrested for allegedly trying to break into a car after a foot chase early Monday evening, July 5, reported Woods police.

The youth, who was turned over to Detroit authorities after being apprehended by Woods Officer Patrick DeVine, was apparently trying to enter the auto in the Saint John Hospital parking lot, Detroit avenue.

While patrolling in the lot, the officer said he spotted the suspect attempting to gain entry into the vehicle by trying to "pop" the lock on the driver's side door with a long metal wire. Upon observing the marked police vehicle, the boy left the wire stuck between the windows, briskly walked away and stood between two parked cars.

After Officer DeVine exited his car to investigate, the suspect bolted and ran west across an open field with the officer giving chase. During the pursuit, the boy ignored repeated orders to halt.

At Linville, the youth vaulted a five-foot cyclone fence and ran north. While climbing the fence, the officer received two lacerations to his right hand. The boy then ran east between some houses in Linville.

Officer DeVine stated he was assisted by an off-duty Detroit firefighter, who stayed on several front lawns in Linville and relayed the location of the suspect as he ran from Linville to Raymond and into several back yards in an attempt to lose the officer.

After radioing for aid, Officer DeVine was told by the firefighter that the boy was hiding at the back of a Linville home. He entered the yard and found the youth hiding against the rear of the building.

Because he lost his handcuffs during the chase, (they were later recovered), the officer guided the boy to the front of the house and forced him to the ground until help arrived.

Farms Officer Gordon Evans came moments later, handcuffed the youth and returned him to the scene of the attempted break-in.

Officer DeVine stated the metal wire was identified as a new screw-in type of radio antenna. One was discovered missing from a nearby auto. Detroit police were notified and the youth was turned over into their custody. The 15th Precinct Youth Bureau stated the boy was sent to the Wayne County Youth Home on an attempted burglary of an auto charge with a hold being placed on him for malicious destruction of property, auto.

Concert Slated for Tomorrow

"Symphony Under The Stars," a summer pops concert, will be presented Friday, July 16, at Jacobson's D'Hondt Way, 17080 Kercheval Avenue.

Maestro Felix Resnick will conduct his 60-member Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra beginning at 8:30 p.m.

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Society and Jacobson's are sponsoring this second annual open air concert, which will be a Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra benefit.

All dinner-concert tickets have been sold but a limited number of concert tickets at $3.50 are still available at Jacobson's business office. Program highlights will be a tribute to America's 200th birthday with other popular and semi-classical selections included.

The symphony orchestra will open the program with "National Emblem" by Bagley, "Orpheus in the Underworld" by Offenbach, and "Tales from Vienna Woods" by Strauss.

Other works performed include selections from "The Cloud of Music" by Rodgers and Hammerstein, "Strings on Fire" by Mancini, selections from "The Wild Cat" by Coleman, "America Suite" by Hayman and "America The Beautiful," the finale.

The raincheck date will be Friday, July 30.

Crowds Fill Pointe Parks

Officially the whole year of Bicentennial festivities came to a climax on July 4, but judging from the attendance figures logged by some of the Grosse Pointe lake front parks on the holiday weekend, July 5 was at least as popular among sunshine celebrators.

The Woods Lake Front Park reported a hefty crowd of 3,723 persons for Sunday and was barely cleared when Monday brought a swarm of 6,090 to the facility.

Meanwhile, The Shores' Osiris Park greeted 1,268 July 4th picnickers, swimmers and boaters and was flooded the next day by another 1,333 persons.

According to Burl von Allmen, assistant to the director of parks and recreation in The Woods, the park has seen a 34 percent increase in attendance this summer over previous years. This general surge in park attendance is, according to Mr. von Allmen, related to the new tennis and pool facilities offered at the park.

At The Farms Pier Park, attendance figures were not taken for the weekend but a park worker said the 60 bags of trash left behind attested to the size of the holiday crowd.

The Park's Windmill Pointe Park recreation area was described as wall-to-wall people by officials. Some 6,894 persons turned out on the 4th, while 6,870 came back for more the next day.

City residents came 1,527 strong to the Norbert Neff Park on July 4 and then rested up for a week and made a second assault on July 11 with a contingent of 1,844 persons.

The longer we dwell on our misfortunes, the greater is their power to harm us.

Wine Lines
by Pat Ulatowski

Wine tasting is a fine art that is based on simple principles. The art of wine tasting can be reduced to the four S's: See, Sniff, Sip, and Savor. Pour wine into a clear glass and hold it up to the light; the liquid should be clear, not hazy, and its color full and rich, not watery. Second, twist the glass around so that the wine covers the sides, to release its bouquet. Sniff. The aroma should be delicate, fragrant, not harsh. Take a small sip. Savor. Let the wine act on all your taste buds—you will get the full flavor of the particular wine.

The knowledgeable people at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626 can help you select a wine to please your taste buds. Your complete party store, we feature a wide inventory of wines, beers, liquors, party snacks, mixes and bar accessories to care for all your party needs. Working for Water Safety

Out of a squad car and into a cabin cruiser, Wayne County Sheriff Deputies JOHN THOMSON, (foreground), and TOM ROGERS now spend their summer days cruising on water instead of cement. The two deputies, and the new 28-foot Sea Bird they pilot, are berthed at The Farms Pier Park.

'Marine One' on Move

races and fireworks displays.

Working on "Marine One" is a summertime only assignment. Both men work all summer with no vacations, no holidays and very few week-ends off.

To qualify for the position, all members of the water patrol division, (there are five other boats assigned to this elite group), must be qualified scuba divers, and, of course, be strong swimmers. They also must possess a knowledge of boats and pass a boat handling course conducted by the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

Berthed at Farms Pier Park, the boat patrols their "beat," (the areas between Belle Isle and Lake Erie), at different times every day. "If we stagger our patrol hours, we can keep the boat rip-off artists off balance," said Deputy Thomson.

"We regularly patrol all the harbors and waterfront parks in the Pointes. If the thieves don't know when we'll appear, we can sometimes catch them red-handed."

The two officers patrol an average of eight hours, and work on a 24-hour call basis. "During the Freedom Festival fireworks, we were on the water for 14 hours straight," said Deputy Thomson. "Long hours are part of the job."

Searching out safety hazards also is a big part of "Marine One's" job. Pulling a boat over for an inspection, the officers check for life preservers, fully charged fire extinguishers, function running and anchor lights and proper boat registration.

Use Common Sense
"Most of the problems on the lake can be eliminated with common sense," said Deputy Rogers. "Always carry a sufficient number of life jackets and keep them within easy reach. Make sure all fire extinguishers are fully charged. You can't call the fire department out here. And always tell someone where you're going," he emphasized.

"If you're lost or in trouble, we'll be out here looking for you, no matter what the weather is like."

Another chronic problem to "Marine One" is persons riding on the bow of boats and falling overboard. "If the craft doesn't have a bow seat, the passenger isn't allowed to be out there," said Deputy Thomson.

Work for You
The patrolling season for "Marine One" is from May 17-October 3. After that, the two men turn in their deck shoes and return to their regular jobs downtown. Deputy Thomson transports prisoners, while Deputy Rogers works at the Wayne County Jail as a turnkey.

So, the next time you see them patrolling on Lake St. Clair, give them a smile and a wave, and see how quickly they return it.

"Why shouldn't we?" said Deputy Rogers, with a smile. "We're just your average, friendly, fresh-water fuzz—out working for your safety."

Dr. Coats comes to Grosse Pointe from the Kalamazoo School District where he was superintendent for four years. He received his PhD and Masters degrees from the University of Michigan, specializing in research design and data analysis in education.

He taught math in Pointe schools in 1962 and Livonia schools in 1961. He also served as professor of education at Western Michigan University.

The Monday Board meeting was largely a ceremonial one, relating to the schools' financial and legal affairs.

School system attorneys, Hill, Lewis, Adams, Goodrich and Tait, were reappointed for the year, bylaws governing Board meetings were approved without significant change and various budgetary funds and accounts were created along the same lines as in the past.

The National Bank of Detroit was designated as the system's commercial bank as they won a five-year bid on the school's general obligation tax anticipation notes with an offer of a 3.74 percent interest rate. Last year, the system paid a 3.89 rate to the same bank.

Although fats are composed of the same elements as carbohydrates—carbon, hydrogen and oxygen—their composition is more complex. Carbohydrates are almost exclusively derived from plants, but fats are the primary storage material of animals, and we get them from animal products. Because fatty acids are synthesized slowly or not at all in the human body, it is often recommended that individuals get some of their fats from plant products which contain these essential substances. Whole wheat, soybeans, peanut oil, and olive oil are among good plant sources of fats.

Sabroso!

That's what we call our new imported coffee liqueur.
In Mexico they call it delicious.

On the great coffee plantations of Mexico, men stay awake long enough to pick the very richest coffee beans for Sabroso Coffee Liqueur.

It is these granos de café that make Sabroso taste maravilloso by itself, on the rocks, or in mixed drinks. After dinner—or after anything.

Por ejemplo, try mixing 1 part Sabroso with 2 parts vodka over ice. Presto—an extra-savory Black Russian.

Or 2 parts Sabroso and 1 part cream over ice for a Sabroso Cow.

Yet rich as it is, Sabroso isn't only for the rich. At $6.10, it's many pesos less than the leading brand.

So remember the name: Sabroso. It's the Spanish word for "savory," "tasty," and "delicious." That's why we call it Sabroso, and in Mexico they call it delicious.

Pair Placed On Probation

Two youths pled guilty to a charge of sale and possession of fireworks in The Woods Municipal Court Wednesday, July 7, with each being placed on one year's probation and assessed court costs of $50.

The defendants, Raymond Anthony Brys Jr., 19, of St. Clair Shores, and Elizabeth Ann Burson, 17, of Harper Woods, were arrested by Woods Det. Everett Plumb on Tuesday, June 29, after police received information that a possible fireworks sale was going to take place at the "Detroit-News" sub-station, Mack avenue and Anita. Det. Plumb set up surveillance in the immediate area and arrested the pair after seven juveniles approached the vehicle the youths were driving to view some fireworks.

Two bags of fireworks were found in the vehicle, police added.

Gets 1-5 Years In Theft Case

A Hazel Park man, who was found guilty by a Wayne County Circuit Court jury of armed robbery in March, received from one year and one day to five years in prison, reported Woods police.

Daniel John Liberty was sentenced to this term last month.

Liberty, along with two other men, was reportedly involved in an incident wherein a Woods man was beaten and robbed of his wallet last fall.

One of the men, Leonard Allen Miron, of New Haven, Mich., also was found guilty of armed robbery after a March jury trial and was sentenced to from three and a half to 10 years in prison in May.

The other man, Lonnie Dale Snell, of Hazel Park, was originally charged with armed robbery but ultimately pled guilty to a reduced charge of assault with intent to rob, being armed.

He was sentenced to from one and a half to five years in prison. However, police noted, after a check with prison authorities, he was serving his sentence in Camp Ojibway near Ironwood, Mich.

Pair to Teach at MSU

Russell Reed, director of instrumental music at South High School, and Nathan Judson, band and orchestra director at North High School, have been selected to teach at this summer's Michigan State University Summer Youth Music Program.

A series of student recitals and concerts held during the two, two-week sessions culminate in major concert performances by each band, orchestra and choir.

Mr. Reed, of Stanhope

Negotiations Between GPEA, Board

(Continued from Page 1) getting into semantics when you begin to distinguish between economic and non-economic issues. They all relate to money from our point of view, whether they concern parking spaces or more telephones or base salary.

"Until we had a complete package from the GPEA we just couldn't make a judgment."

Mr. Kennedy said that Dr. Adams' early predictions of an end of June settlement were "not realistic."

"Talks are going very slow mainly because of the great quantity and variety of demands being discussed."

Although 100 hours, (six weeks), of talks have been scheduled for August, "it is going to take some midnights to settle this," Mr. Kennedy said.

The two sides have already spent more than 100 hours at negotiations, but Mr. Lange described the agreed upon issues as extremely minor.

The two could not come to agreement on an extension of their present contract for the duration of negotiations. Mr. Kennedy said that the Board is making a "good faith" effort to sustain it, with a few exceptions.

Arbitration steps of the teachers' grievance procedure have been suspended by the Board because, "it is ridiculous to arbitrate matters that are currently being negotiated," according to Mr. Kennedy.

Instead the grievance procedure will continue through step four, or the superintendent's office. Issues will go from there to the bargaining table, instead of to an arbitrator.

According to Mr. Kennedy the necessity for this action was highlighted by a recent arbitration decision handed down by Richard Strichartz on the issue of elementary teachers' preparation time — a matter currently being negotiated by the union and board.

Mr. Strichartz ruled in favor of the GPEA, saying that although "it appears the Board of Education has made a good faith attempt to meet the 20 consecutive minutes per day standard . . . it is clear that the equivalent times required under the contract are not being met."

He ordered the Board to meet those contract specifications.

Among the proposed contract changes submitted by the union are those dealing with the process of staff reductions, elimination of recess duty for elementary teachers, use of sick leave for maternity, class size limitations and changes in the process of teacher evaluation.

ANDERSON APPOINTED
Wendell W. Anderson Jr., of The Farms, has been appointed to the board of trustees of Henry Ford Hospital by chairman of the board, Benson Ford. Mr. Anderson, president and chairman of the board of the Bundy Corp., was graduated from Yale University with a BA degree in economics. He also is a trustee of Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, United Foundation, Center for Creative Studies and Detroit Renaissance. He serves as second vice-chairman of Children's Hospital of Michigan.

Elm Disease in GP City

(Continued from Page 1) at the top of a tree are a good reason to be suspicious a tree may have DED. A close look at a small branch, stripped of its bark also would show the disease with its darkened veins, blocked by the spore-produced gum.

Private citizens can help curb the spread of DED by keeping their elm trees clean of all dead wood, spraying them regularly and avoiding pruning them during beetle breeding season, May-August.

A new chemical treatment, being tested by City officials on several trees right now, may solve a great deal of the DED blight. The chemical injection treatment was developed by the non-profit corporation, Elm Research Institute, in New Jersey.

When it is injected into a healthy tree, or one that is less than five percent infected, Lignosan BLP will protect against the spore fungus. The Institute claims BLP-injected trees have a 99 percent chance of survival.

Kiwanis Backs Big Celebration

Fireworks are spectacular. Fireworks are fun. But fireworks also are expensive.

"Unknown to most of the 25,000 persons viewing the fireworks at the Lochmoor Club on the Fourth of July is the fact that the Kiwanis Club sponsored the entire event," said Harold Wolf, club member.

"We also underwrote the cost of the festivities at Ghesquiere Park."

The Kiwanis Club spent between $7,200-$7,300 on the fireworks and the two-day picnic at the park. The fireworks cost around $3,900 with the remainder being spent on the picnic. The club received a $200 donation towards expenses from the Crisis Club of Grosse Pointe.

Persons interested in aiding the organization in sponsoring such events may send a tax deductible contribution to the Kiwanis Club of Grosse Pointe, 32 Lakeshore drive, Grosse Pointe Farms 48236.

Woods Police Arrest Suspect for Attempt B-E

Woods police, thanks to a tip from two witnesses, apprehended a 32-year-old Park man who was allegedly breaking into Smith, Hague and Co., Inc., 20155 Mack avenue, Thursday evening, July 8.

The suspect, Earl Harrison Prather Jr., of Somerset road, is charged with attempt breaking and entering with intent to commit larceny. He was arraigned Friday afternoon, July 9, before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis. He was held on $20,000 bond or two sureties in The Woods, (as of Monday morning, July 12), pending his examination, scheduled for Wednesday, July 14.

While on patrol, Officer James Fowler received information on the incident, supplied to police by witnesses. While proceeding west along Oxford road from Mack, he was told via the dispatcher, based upon the witnesses' report, the suspect was in the auto he had just passed.

Trefzer Wins At Lochmoor

Farms resident Ron Trefzer successfully defended the Lochmoor Club championship which he won last year by besting Mike Grow, 7-8, in the finals. Mr. Trefzer, 23, is a graduate of Saint Bernard's College and carries a two handicap. He is employed as a management trainee at First Federal Savings and Loan.

Mr. Grow, of Bishop road, reached the finals by defeating Tim Kelly, 17, a June graduate of South High School. Mr. Trefzer ousted two-time former champion Don Dykstra, of Fontana lane, in his semi-final golf match.

Upon approaching the auto, Officer Fowler said the suspect was laying across the front seat with his head towards the passenger door. He had his left hand on the car floor by the seat and his right hand under his body.

The officer drew his service revolver, ordered the man out of the car and told him to lay face down on the ground. He was searched and handcuffed by Officer Michael Cavanagh and placed in the scout car.

An investigation at the rear of the building revealed a 10" by 10" pane of glass was broken out next to the door knob, with the door slightly ajar. The structure was searched and the suspect was transported to the station. One witness told police she and her cousin observed the vehicle pull into a driveway, back out and stop in front of an Oxford residence. They said the suspect remained in the auto for about 10 minutes before exiting and walking towards the alley.

The witnesses stated he stood by a tree and then walked towards the rear of the building. At the rear door, they saw him swing his arm towards the door and heard the sound of glass breaking. The resident was told of what was happening and called police.

After returning to watch the suspect, the witnesses said he went back to his car and ducked down when the first responding scout car passed the vehicle. Moments later, he was arrested.

Hospital Adds Four Doctors

Four new family practice residents have joined Bon Secours Hospital's family practice center.

The new residents include Steven A. Aiken, MD, a graduate of the University of Indiana Medical School; John R. Trotter, MD, graduate of the University of Michigan Medical School; John E. Lachowsky, MD, graduate of the University of Arkansas Medical School; and Jeffrey H. Perlson, DO, second year resident and graduate of the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine.

They join Allen M. Ford, MD, and Robert M. Lechy Jr., MD, who have been with the program since its inception one year ago.

Bon Secours' family practice center is designed to aid those persons unable to find a family physician. Families who come to the center see the same resident on return visits for the three-year period of training.

If the resident, upon completion of training, desires to enter private practice in the community, he may invite his patients to join him. Otherwise, the patients are transferred to another resident for another three-year period.

Archie W. Bedell, MD, PhD, full-time director of the family practice center, and Dwight J. Dutcher, MD, associate director, instruct the new residents along with staff physicians Richard McAlpine, MD, Lyla Leipzig, MD, and William Fenner, MD.

The new family practice unit under construction on the Cadioux road side of the hospital will be completed this fall.

Table Question On Park Home

By George Polgar Jr.

Official action concerning the future of a home in Balfour road, which has stood vacant since 1963, has been deferred by The Park Council pending further negotiations between the owner of the home and prospective buyers.

The decision to table the issue was taken by the council at its Monday, July 12, regular meeting, amid the protest of a group of Balfour road residents, who demanded immediate action.

Because the question of the Balfour road property was first brought before the council two weeks ago and this period of time was granted to dispose of the issue, Mayor Matthew C. Patterson admonished the owner to take immediate action.

When the owner replied that the home would be sold as soon as possible, Mayor Patterson and area residents in the audience pressed for a more definite answer.

"As soon as possible could be a year," said Mayor Patterson. "I've driven past the house and I find its condition deplorable."

The owner then told the council the condition of the home was due, not to neglect, but because of vandalism by local children. The owner also told the audience that a deal was about to be made with a businessman involved in restoring old homes.

Councilman Charles S. Tompkins said that the businessman, with whom the owner was negotiating was a serious buyer and very interested in properties like the one in question.

Though Mr. Tompkins said he had not conferred with the gentleman about this particular property, he urged the council to give the owner a chance to sell the home.

ings and floors, garbage disposals, electrical outlets and fixtures, light facilities, cooking facilities and ventilation.

According to Mr. DeFoe, the biggest potential problem is the electrical wiring. "We feel this would be the biggest problem causing item," he said. "And it would probably be the most expensive item for the home owner to repair."

Another problem area is garages. "We have many sagging, dilapidated garages in The Farms," said Mr. DeFoe. "We're concerned with the health, safety and welfare of the community, and that's what we're going to concentrate on."

RECEIVES PROMOTION

General Motors has announced the appointment of William A. Vaughn, a Farms resident, as director of the energy management group of the company's manufacturing staff. Mr. Vaughn holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Virginia Military Institute, a Master's degree from Purdue and a law degree from Washington and Lee University. He joined GM in 1970 as an attorney. In 1971, Mr. Vaughn was named attorney in charge of the company's environmental law section, serving in that position until his present promotion.

Inspections will be carried out by Mr. DeFoe and Electrical Inspector Donald Navarro. "At this point, we don't foresee hiring extra people to help with the inspections," said Mr. DeFoe. "We've never had an ordinance like this before in The Farms, so quite honestly, we don't know what the response will be."

Make Own Check

Mr. DeFoe emphasized that a dwelling given a certificate of occupancy doesn't mean The Farms is issuing a certificate of warranty to potential renters or buyers. "We heartily urge potential renters or buyers to check out the premises for themselves, and not to rely on the city as a seal of approval."

Mr. DeFoe went on to say that dwellings that meet the requirements upon the first inspection will probably be given more lenient inspections in the future, if the dwellings haven't been allowed to fall into drastic disrepair, between inspections. "If the building is up to code, and a renter hasn't torn up the premises before moving out, the second and third inspections won't be as drastic as the first," he said. "We're not trying to bring any hardships on anyone with these inspections," added Mr. DeFoe. "We're just trying to keep The Farms up to the standards it has always been known for."

New Theatrical Season

ment of the new season, a dinner hosted by vice-president Michele Karl was followed by presentation of the group's awards for excellence during the season. Master and mistress of ceremonies, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson, introduced the winners of "Clarence" statues.

of the show.

The costume award was won by Donna DiSante for "The Devil's Disciple," while Toni Scalfani earned makeup honors for the same production. Meanwhile, Ginny Bowen received an award for set dressing for "The Sunshine Boys."

The lighting award went to Dick Vreeland, ("La Mancha"), the sound award was won by John Pegg, ("Applause"), and John Guadagnoli received a Clarence for his work on properties, ("La Mancha").

Musical director and choreography Clares went to David MacDonald and Arlene Schoenherr, both for "Applause."

Finally, Worker of the Year awards were won by Ms. Pizzimenti, Frances Venet and Charles Sortor.

A special award was presented to Park Mayor Matthew C. Patterson for his continuing work in acting as the group's "Price Waterhouse." For many years, Mayor Patterson has counted the Clarence ballots for GPT, and a film record was made of his activities in so doing. Ticket information for the season and the "Showcase" presentation may be obtained by calling 881-4004 for "A Little Night Music." Casting information may be obtained from Mrs. Samuel at 885-6086, evenings only.

Woods Prepares Property Maintenance Law

By Roger A. Wahn
 A request from the chairman of The Woods Beautification Commission urging the city to formulate a minimum maintenance standards ordinance, and to provide for its strict enforcement, was referred to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen by the council at a recent regular meeting.

Such a measure, which is being considered by the council sitting as the Committee of the Whole, is in the planning stages. "We're currently working on a minimum property maintenance ordinance which we hope will encompass commercial as well as residential properties," said Mr. Petersen.

Indicating he was well aware of the comments of chairman Dr. Albert C. Howe, the city administrator stated that Administrative Aide Gerard E. McNamara already has done some preliminary work in this area.

Mr. Petersen also hoped the proposal would include regulations governing aesthetics, plus environmental and fire prevention requirements. He added the measure could be considered by the council sometime this summer.

Aesthetics is a main concern of Dr. Howe. He hoped such a law would help eliminate indifference on the parts of some businessmen regarding the outside maintenance of their buildings. "The desirability of a block depends on the individuals in the block," he said.

Dr. Howe added he hoped the businessmen would voluntarily help keep up their grounds, but if this isn't the case in some instances, he wants the city to "back it up."

In a letter to the council,

he said Mack, Charlevoix, Kercheval, Harper, Jefferson and Warren are all major east side avenues.

"From Grosse Pointe Woods, take a short 15 minute ride along any of these highways and what do you see? Sporadic activity, sick commerce, vacant buildings and 'for sale' signs. Not very pleasant but real nevertheless. No area is immune to change; it either prospers or deteriorates."

In noting that both citizens and business owners of the

Pointes are joining together to improve and promote a healthier business climate, Dr. Howe stated, "The Beautification Commission has worked hard to tactfully encourage business establishments to upgrade their image."

At the same time he indicated several photos, (submitted with his letter), of some businesses which "depict gross negligence on the part of a few Grosse Pointe Woods merchants." (The photos showed paint peeling from windows, a cracked concrete step, et al).

Dr. Howe felt the reason for such conditions were possibly related "to a lack of concern on the owner's part, insufficient funding or a lack of communication between tenant and landlord. The efforts of the majority of merchants who conduct their affairs in a responsible manner are actually being penalized by a core of delinquents."

As a result, Dr. Howe felt the need was urgent for such a law as "time becomes our adversary."

Tigers on Move in Ruth League

By Julian Thomas
 The D. M. Egan Tigers started off the week with a 5-0 win over the Burger Chief White Sox in Babe Ruth League play. Despite the three-hit pitching of Joe Kanan, the Tigers made the most of their opportunities. Bob Baker fanned 15 in tossing a two-hitter for the win.

Then it was the Tigers over the Ram's Horn Oakland A's, 14-2, with Steve Brandt getting the win on a fine two-hit performance. Steve aided his own cause with four hits, while Charlie Haring had two.

Continuing their winning ways, the Tigers defeated the Metropolitan Club Indians, 5-3, behind the fine pitching of Bob Baker, plus a key first inning triple by Jim Heidt.

The win gave the Tigers the second half championship in the American League and set up a Wednesday, July 13, playoff, (after press time), with the Red Sox for the right to represent the American League in the 13-15 World Series.

In a hitters' game the Indians downed the A's, 18-10. Kevin Chown took the win with Tom Borland getting a save. Tom McHugh led the Indians with five hits, while John Cammett had two singles, a double and triple, and Jim Miller, three hits. Tom Borland socked a triple and single, and Lenny Bartoszewicz, a double and single. For the A's, Paul Profit and Chris Walters had two hits each.

In the All-American League, the Venderbush Sheet Metal Expo's dumped the GP Jaycees Rangers, 10-5, with Mike Hillebrand the winner and Jim Williams doing a fine job in relief. Jerry Williams went two-thirds, Vince Lymetta, Pete Gushee and Jerry Williams were outstanding defensively.

The Expo's continued to roll with a 16-6 trouncing of the M and J Asphalt Padres. The Expo's scored 10 times in the second to limit the game to three innings. Tight pitching by Jimmy Williams and strong "stick work" by Pete Gushee, Mike Hillebrand and Bob Arnold provided the difference in the game.

Finishing the week, the Expo's outdistanced the IXL Glass and Trim Astros, 7-3. Mike Hillebrand did a fine mound job, earning the win. Standouts defensively were Augie Sanz, Joe Ciarrmitaro, Jerry and Jimmy Williams, Scott Suckling, Bob Arnold and Tom Smith.

Then, the Rangers defeated the Colonial Federal Reds, 8-6. Bill Yott went all the way for the win. Bill Camp paced the Rangers hitting attack with three hits, while Greg Foster had two and Dane Rogers, Peter Barker and Tom Waterfall all had key hits.

Following up with another win, the Rangers swamped the Tape Recorder Specialists Brewers, 17-3, as Dave Diehl raised his record to 5-1. Bill Yott provided the power in the early innings with a three-run homer, the first of his three hits.

Tom Waterfall had four hits, Pete Barker, two, and Gregg Foster, the same, to pace the Ranger offense.

ings and floors, garbage disposal facilities, electrical outlets and fixtures, light facilities, cooking facilities and ventilation.

According to Mr. DeFoe, the biggest potential problem is the electrical wiring. "We feel this would be the biggest problem causing item," he said. "And it would probably be the most expensive item for the home owner to repair."

Another problem area is garages. "We have many aging, dilapidated garages in The Farms," said Mr. DeFoe. "We're concerned with the health, safety and welfare of the community, and that's what we're going to concentrate on."

RECEIVES PROMOTION

General Motors has announced the appointment of William A. Vaughn, a Farms resident, as director of the energy management group of the company's manufacturing staff. Mr. Vaughn holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Virginia Military Institute, a Master's degree from Purdue and a law degree from Washington and Lee University. He joined GM in 1970 as an attorney. In 1971, Mr. Vaughn was named attorney in charge of the company's environmental law section, serving in that position until his present promotion.

Inspections will be carried out by Mr. DeFoe and Electrical Inspector Donald Navarro. "At this point, we don't foresee hiring extra people to help with the inspections," said Mr. DeFoe. "We've never had an ordinance like this before in The Farms, so quite honestly, we don't know what the response will be."

Make Own Check

Mr. DeFoe emphasized that a dwelling given a certificate of occupancy doesn't mean The Farms is issuing a certificate of warranty to potential renters or buyers. "We heartily urge potential renters or buyers to check out the premises for themselves, and not to rely on the city as a seal of approval."

Mr. DeFoe went on to say that dwellings that meet the requirements upon the first inspection will probably be given more lenient inspections in the future, if the dwellings haven't been allowed to fall into drastic disrepair between inspections.

"If the building is up to code, and a renter hasn't torn up the premises before moving out, the second and third inspections won't be as drastic as the first," he said. "We're not trying to bring any hardships on anyone with these inspections," added Mr. DeFoe. "We're just trying to keep The Farms up to the standards it has always been known for."

ment of the new season, a dinner hosted by vice-president Michele Karl was followed by presentation of the group's awards for excellence during the season. Master and mistress of ceremonies, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson, introduced the winners of "Clarence" statuettes.

Eileen Binder was chosen as best actress for the role of Margo Channing in "Applause," while Tom Kern, for his role as Don Quixote in "Man of La Mancha," received his best actor award. Mrs. Thompson was named best supporting actress as Eve in "Applause," while Dennis Wickline was chosen best supporting actor for his work as Sancho in "La Mancha."

Featured actor and actress awards went to Ciro Vitale, (Duane, the hairdresser), and Donna Rutledge, (Bonnie, the dancer), both for "Applause," while non-featured honors went to Robert McKenna and Lola Hoover, also for "Applause."

of the show.

The costume award was won by Donna DiSante for "The Devil's Disciple," while Toni Sclafani earned make-up honors for the same production. Meanwhile, Ginny Bowen received an award for set dressing for "The Sunshine Boys."

The lighting award went to Dick Vreeland, ("La Mancha"), the sound award was won by Dale Pegg, ("Applause"), and John Guadagnoli received a Clarence for his work on properties, ("La Mancha").

Musical director and choreography Claresces went to David MacDonald and Arlene Schoenherr, both for "Applause."

Finally, Worker of the Year awards were won by Ms. Pizzimenti, Frances Venet and Charles Sortor.

A special award was presented to Park Mayor Matthew C. Patterson for his continuing work in acting as the group's "Price Waterhouse." For many years, Mayor Patterson has counted the Clarence ballots for GPT, and a film record was made of his activities in so doing. Ticket information for the season and the "Showcase" presentation may be obtained by calling 881-4004 for "A Little Night Music." Casting information may be obtained from Mrs. Samuel at 885-6086, evenings only.

Woods Prepares Property Maintenance Law

By Roger A. Waha
A request from the chairman of The Woods Beautification Commission urging the city to formulate a minimum maintenance standards ordinance, and to provide for its strict enforcement, was referred to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen by the council at a recent regular meeting.

Such a measure, which is being considered by the council sitting as the Committee of the Whole, is in the planning stages. "We're currently working on a minimum property maintenance ordinance which we hope will encompass commercial as well as residential properties," said Mr. Petersen.

Indicating he was well aware of the comments of chairman Dr. Albert C. Howe, the city administrator stated that Administrative Aide Gerard E. McNamara already has done some preliminary work in this area.

Mr. Petersen also hoped the proposal would include regulations governing aesthetics, plus environmental and fire prevention requirements.

He added the measure could be considered by the council sometime this summer. Aesthetics is a main concern of Dr. Howe. He hoped such a law would help eliminate indifference on the parts of some businessmen regarding the outside maintenance of their buildings. "The desirability of a block depends on the individuals in the block," he said. Dr. Howe added he hoped the businessmen would voluntarily help keep up their grounds, but if this isn't the case in some instances, he wants the city to "back it up."

In a letter to the council, he said Mack, Charlevoix, Kercheval, Harper, Jefferson and Warren are all major east side avenues. "From Grosse Pointe Woods, take a short 15 minute ride along any of these highways and what do you see? Sporadic activity, sick commerce, vacant buildings and 'for sale' signs. Not very pleasant but real nevertheless. No area is immune to change; it either prospers or deteriorates."

In noting that both citizens and business owners of the

Pointes are joining together to improve and promote a healthier business climate, Dr. Howe stated, "The Beautification Commission has worked hard to tactfully encourage business establishments to upgrade their image."

At the same time he indicated several photos, (submitted with his letter), of some businesses which "depict gross negligence on the part of a few Grosse Pointe Woods merchants." (The photos showed paint peeling from windows, a cracked concrete step, et al). Dr. Howe felt the reason for such conditions were possibly related "to a lack of concern on the owner's part, insufficient funding or a lack of communication between tenant and landlord. The efforts of the majority of merchants who conduct their affairs in a responsible manner are actually being penalized by a core of delinquents."

As a result, Dr. Howe felt the need was urgent for such a law as "time becomes our adversary."

Tigers on Move in Ruth League

By Julian Thomas
The D. M. Egan Tigers started off the week with a 5-0 win over the Burger Chef White Sox in Babe Ruth League play. Despite the three-hit pitching of Joe Kanan, the Tigers made the most of their opportunities. Bob Baker fanned 15 in tossing a two-hitter for the win.

Then it was the Tigers over the Ram's Horn Oakland A's, 14-2, with Steve Brandt getting the win on a fine two-hit performance. Steve aided his own cause with four hits, while Charlie Haring had two.

Continuing their winning ways, the Tigers defeated the Metropolitan Club Indians, 5-3, behind the fine pitching of Bob Baker, plus a key first inning triple by Jim Heidt.

The win gave the Tigers the second half championship in the American League and set up a Wednesday, July 13, playoff, (Red Sox time), with the Red Sox for the right to represent the American League in the 13-15 World Series.

In a hitters' game the Indians downed the A's, 18-10. Kevin Chown took the win with Tom Borland getting a save. Tom McHugh led the Indians with five hits, while John Cammett had two singles, a double and triple, and Jim Miller, three hits. Tom Borland socked a triple and single, and Lenny Bartosiewicz, a double and single. For the A's, Paul Profit and Chris Walters had two hits each.

In the All-American League, the Venderbush Sheet Metal Expo's dumped the GP Jaycees Rangers, 10-5, with Mike Hillebrand the winner and Jim Williams doing a fine job in relief. Jerry Williams went two-thirds, Vince Lujetta, Pete Gushee and Jerry Williams were outstanding defensively.

The Expo's continued to roll with a 16-8 trouncing of the M and J Asphalt Padres. The Expo's scored 10 times in the second to limit the game to three innings. Tight pitching by Jimmy Williams and strong "stick work" by Pete Gushee, Mike Hillebrand and Bob Arnold provided the difference in the game.

Finishing the week, the Expo's outdistanced the IXL Glass and Trim Astros, 7-3. Mike Hillebrand did a fine mound job, earning the win. Standouts defensively were Augie Sanz, Joe Ciarrimaro, Jerry and Jimmy Williams, Scott Suckling, Bob Arnold and Tom Smith. Then, the Rangers defeated the Colonial Federal Reds, 8-6. Bill Yott went all the way for the win. Bill Camp paced the Rangers hitting at-tack with three hits, while Greg Foster had two and Dane Rogers, Peter Barker and Tom Waterfall all had key hits.

Following up with another win, the Rangers swamped the Tape Recorder Specialists Brewers, 17-3, as Dave Diehl raised his record to 5-1. Bill Yott provided the power in the early innings with a three-run homer, the first of his three hits.

Academy Gets Good Report

The Grosse Pointe Academy received enthusiastic recommendations from a 10-member Independent Schools Association of the Central States evaluation team which visited the school early this spring.

In a 40 page report, the evaluators complimented the Academy on its individualized education, strong emphasis on oral and written expression, science, social studies and music programs.

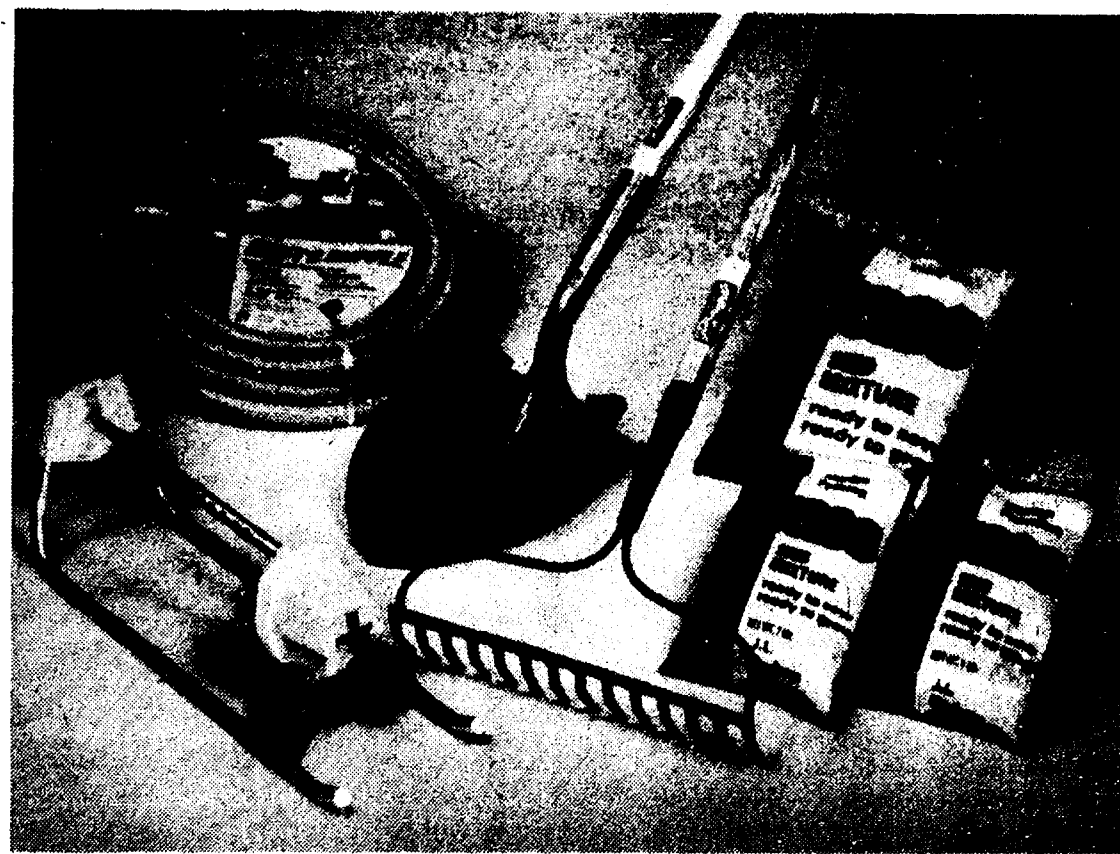

The school's religious program fosters a "special concern for the individual, for each other, school property and personal property," the report said.

The Academy serves about 450 students from the primary level through the eighth grade from Detroit and many suburbs.

Sparse Fish Fly Season Bodes Well in Many Ways

By George Polgar Jr.
Though it is only for the most tolerant lakeside resident to lament the spotty showing of the fish flies this summer, it should be remembered that the annual blight is a sign that the area is blessed with a healthy environment.

The fish flies are a simple organism whose ecological function is quite unselfish. Except for the 24-48 hours that they flutter, molt and mate, they live and die only to be food for fish, birds and other insects.

The nymphal stage of their development is a one-two-year incubation period in the sedimentary mud of the lake floor. They emerge, in varying strength depending on the temperature of the water, in a non-reproductive dun stage.

After molting and mating, which is often done in the air, the males settle somewhere to wait out their short lives, while the females fly over the lake to deposit their eggs. This reproduction process leaves the females exhausted and they usually die soon afterwards.

Fish flies have no mouth, carry no disease and pose no threat to other organisms. Well, almost. Apparently there have been some cases where cars slide through piles of dead fish flies that accumulate under street lamps. The unpleasant odor of rotting fish flies also poses a serious threat to sensitive noses and weak stomachs.

According to Michigan State University Aquatic Entomologist, Dr. Richard Meritt, the presence of fish flies is a good indicator of clean water.

"They are a simple organism that is extremely susceptible to foreign chemicals in the water," he said. "When they started to disappear around Lake Erie they knew the pollution problem was getting bad."

Raymond Trombly, the chairman of the Lake St. Clair Advisory Commission, and a life-long professional fisherman on the lake, says that where there are great numbers of dead fish flies floating on the lake, there are bound to be plenty of feeding fish. The larvae of the fish flies also serve as excellent fishing bait.

The fact that there were relatively fewer fish flies this year is more attributable to cool spring temperatures than increased pollution, according to Dr. Meritt.

He added the species used to be widespread in North America and that the abundance of them on Lake St. Clair is a very good sign.

GP Woods Intervenes In Edison Rate Case

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods has joined The Park in actively intervening in the latest Edison rate request case filed in May with the Michigan Public Service Commission, (MPSC).

This matter was referred to City Attorney George Catlin by the council at a recent regular meeting and he said the city already has taken action on the intervention front. The Park earlier had gone on record in opposition to Edison's request for an additional $130.8 million in additional revenue.

"We're primarily concerned with the street lighting category of rates, and just as important, residential rates," said Mr. Catlin. Edison asked for approval of a 12 percent rate hike which would raise the average residential bill by about $2.73 per month.

At the same time, the company asked that $3.1 million of the sum be authorized as an immediate interim increase. Oral arguments on this are scheduled to be held in early October.

Viewing the thrust of the city's intervention, Mr. Catlin said the municipality, which has intervened in other cases, will attempt to convince the MPSC that Edison isn't as bad off as it says it is.

On street lighting, an attempt will be made to convince the MPSC that this category is carrying more than its fair share of the load, he stated. In earlier cases, interveners have had some success in this area.

If the request is granted as it stands, Mr. Catlin said the city's street lighting bill will go up an estimated 10.8 percent over the present rate.

City Administrator Chester E. Peterson noted the municipality has budgeted $288,350 for street lighting in 1976-77. If the hike is approved, the dollar translation would be around an additional $33,000, he said.

During the past 11 years, the city's budgeted amount in this category has quadrupled with consistent increases being allocated each fiscal year.

During the 1965-66 fiscal year, a total of $73,432 was budgeted. In ensuing fiscal years, the amounts show: 1966-67, $88,458; 1967-68, $96,949; 1968-69, $101,159; 1969-70, $110,279; 1970-71, $126,708; 1971-72, $182,988; 1972-73, $224,429; 1973-74, $239,014; 1974-75, $263,889; and 1975-76, $282,073.

Besides The Woods and The Park, neither of which has requested funds in the fight at this time, there are other official interveners in this case including the Attorney General's Office, Wayne County, General Motors Corp. and other organizations.

For its part, Edison officials claimed that rate relief is essential if the company is to meet the constantly growing demand of electric power in northeastern Michigan.

They say the company must spend almost $5 billion on new construction in the next six years if it's to supply adequate and reliable electric power in the future.

The latest application calls for a 12 percent hike for all categories of electric customers. According to the company, this breaks down as follows: $50.4 million additional revenue would come from industrial customers; $47.8 million from residential customers; $29.6 million from commercial customers; $2 million from street lighting customers; and $0.8 million from steam customers.

The council also requested that Mr. Catlin report to them the outcome of two other cases before the MPSC. One is Edison's application for accounting and ratemaking authority relating to the treatment of extraordinary storm damage costs, while the other is the application of Ram Broadcasting of Michigan, Inc., for authority to revise its rate schedules for the provision of mobile radiotelephone services and one-way paging services.

Pointe Police Win Three Of Four Games in Tourney

The GP police softball team traveled to Flint to compete in Michigan's Second National "All-Police" Softball Tournament Friday-Sunday, July 9-11, and won three of four games before being eliminated.

Again this year, the Pointers pulled together and defeated teams from much larger cities in the tourney which consisted of squads from Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania. The teams were divided into three divisions with each division winner deciding the championship by a double loss elimination.

The Pointe team started on a positive note by defeating the Southfield Police team, 10-4, on Friday evening.

Left fielder Bruce Marone, (Woods), led the hitting attack by going three-for-four, while scoring four runs and batting in three runs.

Second baseman Pat DeVine, (Woods), went two-for-two and scored three times. Catcher Wayne Baum, (YSD), was two-for-three, while pitcher Mike Kortas, (Park), scattered 10 hits. Home runs were hit by Marone and Archie Grieve, (Shores).

On Saturday, the Pointers defeated a hard-hitting team from Cleveland, 12-10. The team was down for much of the game and didn't put the contest on ice until the sixth inning.

Leading the hitting attack was Marone, who was three-for-three. He was joined by Tom Hunke, (Woods), also

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

This is the fifth of a 10-part series entitled "Bicentennial Biographies." The subject of this week's column is Alexander Hamilton, (b. Charleston, British West Indies, 1755 or 1757-d. New York, N.Y., 1804).

A brilliant statesman, Alexander Hamilton became the first United States Secretary of the Treasury. Taking office in President Washington's first Cabinet, Hamilton gave needed strength to the new government by firmly establishing the credit of the nation.

Educated at Kings College, (now Columbia University), in New York City, Hamilton sympathized with the colonies in their struggle against England. When the war began he joined the colonial forces, became General Washington's secretary and was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel.

After the war, Hamilton was admitted to practice law and in 1782-83 represented New York in Congress. He was a delegate to the Annapolis Convention, which met in September 1786 to discuss changes in the Articles of Confederation. Hamilton drew up a proposal in Annapolis calling for a convention of the states to increase the central government's powers. In the resulting Constitutional Convention of 1787, Hamilton became a vigorous spokesman for a strong national government. His essays supporting it, published in THE FEDERALIST PAPERS, and his speeches in the New York convention, were strong influences in getting the Constitution adopted.

He served as Secretary of the Treasury from 1789-1795, but his influence in government continued after his retirement.

In 1804, Hamilton became involved in a political dispute with Aaron Burr, then vice-president, an old rival in New York politics and in law practice. Burr challenged him to a duel. The two men fought on July 11, 1804. Hamilton was wounded, and died the following day.

Certain of Hamilton's acts which arose from passion and errors in judgment may be counted against him, but apart from these, his character was of the highest and his patriotism unquestioned. Although he was a controversial figure in his own time, Hamilton's political principles probably laid a clearer impression on the Republic than those of any other single man.

In addition to several editions of THE FEDERALIST PAPERS, the Grosse Pointe Public Library has a number of new books about Alexander Hamilton and his times.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON: A BIOGRAPHY IN HIS OWN WORDS, (Newswatch), is an engrossing book. This work has been compiled from the definitive edition of THE PAPERS OF ALEXANDER HAMILTON, currently being published by Columbia University Press.

Lengthy extracts from Hamilton's letters, essays and state papers have been fashioned into a unique and informative narrative — one that lets Alexander Hamilton tell his own story.

This handsome volume contains some 300 illustrations — period woodcuts and engravings, contemporary cartoons, portraits, sketches and pages from historic documents and old books — all illuminating and complementing the text. In addition, there are three picture portfolios in full color, devoted to Hamilton's youth, his military career and his years of public service.

A chronology of Hamilton and his times, a selected bibliography and a full index, also make this volume a valuable reference tool.

Donald B. Chidsey's new book MR. HAMILTON AND MR. JEFFERSON, (Nelson), discusses the ideological conflict between Alexander Hamilton and Thomas Jefferson and its effect on the development of the newly created United States.

Interwoven in this account are stories of George Washington himself, now an aging statesman pining for the tranquility of Mount Vernon; softly smiling Aaron Burr; Hamilton's nemesis long before the duel at Weehawken; self-important John Jay, whose disastrous treaty with England set the capital in an uproar; and Vice-President John Adams.

Mr. Chidsey's view of history is so lively and accurate that he makes the deals, scandals and crises of our early history seem as recent as Watergate.

Other books in our collection include John C. Miller's ALEXANDER HAMILTON: PORTRAIT IN PARADOX, (Harper). This book stresses that Hamilton's achievement in laying the economic foundations of the United States is touched with irony since his methods aggravated the political sectionalism which he fought against all his life.

Drawing heavily on correspondence, Broadus Mitchell's ALEXANDER HAMILTON: THE REVOLUTIONARY YEARS, (Crowell), is a study of Hamilton's military career. Although the coverage is basically on the Revolution, the last three chapters briefly treat Hamilton's activities in the Whiskey Rebellion, and the threat of war with France during the 1790's.

Research Grant Aids Hospital

The Division of Pulmonary Medicine at Henry Ford Hospital, under the direction of Dr. E. Osborne Coates Jr., a Shores resident, was recently awarded a $715,500 research grant by the National Heart and Lung Institute.

One of the largest sums ever awarded to Henry Ford Hospital, the money will be used to study the effects of oxygen therapy in the treatment of chronic lung disease with associated resultant cardiac disease. The need for this research was underscored by a recent National Health Survey that pointed out some 2.5 million persons suffer from some disability from chronic respiratory disease, with the disease accounting for nine percent of all U.S. deaths over one year of age.

American Evening For French Visitors

Officers and Crew of Destroyer Le Duperre to Be Feted at Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Barbecue Next Thursday

Beaure, Kercheval, Charlevoix, Trombley ... if you doubt that Detroit's heritage is French, just take out a metropolitan area map, and take a look at the city's street names. From Grosse Pointe to Grosse Ile, it's obvious that the "namers" would have been more at home in Normandy than Nottingham.

Detroit was founded by a Frenchman, Antoine de la Mothe Cadillac, and his landing here, decades before our nation was born, will be re-created this month—and in honor of America's Bicentennial, and of Cadillac's Landing and the founding of Detroit, the French destroyer Le Duperre is paying us a visit.

The ship docks next Thursday morning. The French Navy will be guests of the city for five days.

They'll be a crowded five days, highlighted by trips all over town, from Greenfield Village to Stroh's Brewery to the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, where the Alliance Francaise de Detroit, the Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe and the French Women's Benevolent Club are joining forces Thursday evening to welcome Le Duperre's officers and crew with an American Barbecue.

There'll be swimming, (for those who care to), and spare ribs and corn on the cob. There'll be guitar music, with the emphasis on typically American folk songs.

The Frenchmen are coming by bus, (each sponsoring club is providing three hosesses), and each will receive an envelope, containing a playing card, upon his arrival. The cards match those held by the American hosts and hostesses, who will claim "their" sailors and see to it that they are not neglected during the evening.

There are sure to be many get-together dates made for later in the week, as the American families and French sailors decide it would be great fun to see more of each other.

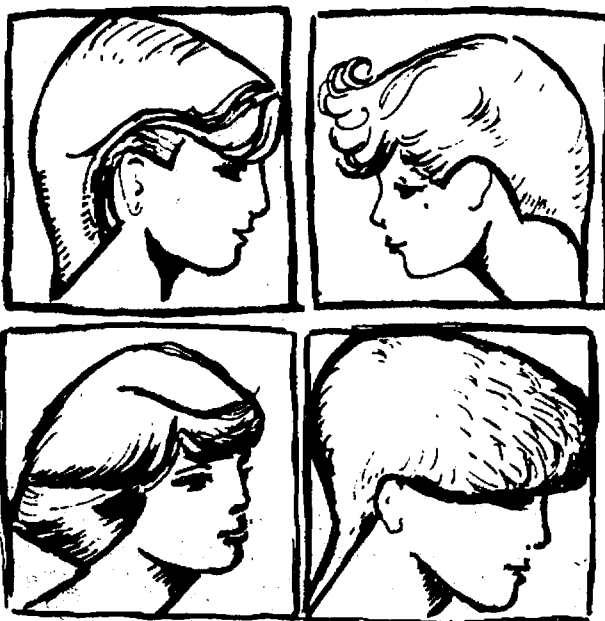

Mrs. Anthony Vermeulen, of Lakeshore road, is handling reservations for the 6:30 to 9 o'clock party.

Warren Wilkinson, president of The French Festival of Detroit, Inc., and his wife, Mireille, are hosting a Bal Campagnard, a "thank you" fete for everyone who is helping/has helped/will help with the French Festival in this Bicentennial year, at their Woodland place home Saturday evening.

Everyone participating in the Cadillac's Landing parade and pageant the following Saturday, July 24, has been invited to come in costume to the Bal.

Music Hall to Offer Four Special Series

Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts has announced its 1976-77 season and, for the second consecutive year, the largest subscriber discounts of any performing arts institution in Detroit's metropolitan area.

According to managing director Manuel L. Levine, the non-profit Center's fourth season will feature four series of events at a minimum discount of 25 percent. Senior citizen and student subscribers will receive 40 percent discounts.

Dr. David DiChiera, artistic director, outlined the season, including a Theater Series of five major productions; a Weekend Dance Series of six companies; a Sunday "World" Series of family-oriented entertainment, (five shows); and a WIID WORLD International series of six events.

The fourth series, in association with Detroit's ethnic radio station WIID, will be presented at Masonic Auditorium in order to facilitate six unusually large companies.

"It's a great international series for a great international city," says WIID general manager Ron Gere. "We are proud to participate in bringing it to Detroit."

Music Hall's discounts will make it possible to subscribe to a season's series for as little as $16.50. DiChiera points out, "in order to give more people access to the performing arts in Detroit."

The Theater Series opens October 19 through 24 with the Young Vic Repertory Theater Company of London, England, alternating performances of Sophocles' "Oedipus Rex" and Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew." The Young Vic is famed for its contemporary interpretations of the classics.

The Ginger Rogers Show November 18 through 21 will feature film star Ginger Rogers with a company of singers and dancers.

"The Sound of Music," Music Hall's Christmas season production of Rodgers and Hammerstein's all-time favorite musical, is set for December 17 through 23.

"Me and Bessie," starring Linda Hopkins and the entire Broadway cast of the hit musical based on the life of jazz immortal Bessie Smith, will run March 15 through 20. The company will interrupt its New York run for the Music Hall engagement, returning immediately after to Broadway's Edison Theater.

Partying in a Garden in The Sky

Among the thousand guests who attended the recent Music Hall benefit Garden Party in the Sky were Pointers MR. and MRS. ALFRED R. GLANCY, III, (left), and MRS. HUGH C. DALY. Ruth Glancy is president of the board of directors of Music Hall, where the evening began with a concert by Sergio Franchi and Dana Valery. Guests then were bussed to still-abuilding Renaissance Center on Detroit's waterfront, where they were whisked aloft for cocktails, supper and dancing.

Ruth to Head Music Hall Association

At the annual meeting of the Musical Hall Association, held last Monday, July 12 at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Vanderkloot, Pauline (Mrs. Donald) Young, president of the Association since its founding two years ago, handed over her gavel of office to Ruth (Mrs. Joseph) Vance, of South Deerparks road.

Other Pointers who will serve as officers of the Association are Carol (Mrs. David) Gaskin, second vice-president, and Laila (Mrs. Donald) Young, secretary.

First vice-president is Roberta (Mrs. Richard) Starkweather, of Franklin, Treasurer is John Bloom, of Southfield.

Also serving on the board are Pointer Ann (Mrs. Ronald) Dalby, Mrs. Vanderkloot, Selma Hyman, Mrs. Bud Mularoni, Ben Davis, Jessie B. Mann, Mrs. Edwin Rosenthal, Mrs. M. Morton Barak, Mrs. Michael Connors, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ross, Mrs. Harry Scharf, Mrs. David Hill, Mrs. David DiChiera, Mrs. Jay Kogan and Mrs. Paul McKenny, Jr.

Awards for outstanding service to Music Hall were given to Association members Karen DiChiera, Marie Loubourrow, Roberta Starkweather, Ruth Vance and Tullie Vanderkloot.

Pauline Young received a special award in recognition of her role as charter president of the Association, the volunteer wing of the non-profit Musical Hall Center for the Performing Arts.

Its purpose is to support the Center in whatever areas are needed. Association projects have included renovation, ticket sales, celebrity hospitality, office work, fund raising and, most recently, the Garden Party in the Sky, chaired by Ruth Vance, which raised over $50,000 for Music Hall renovation.

One thousand guests at the June 26 Garden Party were transported by bus, following a Music Hall concert by Sergio Franchi and Dana Valery, to Renaissance Center for supper and dancing.

Persons interested in joining the Association may contact the Music Hall Center, 963-7622, for information.

In travel parlance, FIT stands for Foreign Independent Travel, which means a travel program is custom-made especially for you by a travel agent. If this is your style, you should be prepared to pay a little more — for one thing, you don't get the benefits of low group fares. Still, the extra cost may be worth it to you if your heart is set on doing certain things — say, attending a music festival, spending your holiday at a special beach or mountain resort, or, group cities you want to visit according to your own itinerary. FIT people usually know pretty much what they want to do.

A Good 'Read'

I've just had a lovely summer "read," and can heartily recommend "Dark Brown is the River," a novel by John Maxtone-Graham, whose "The Only Way to Cross" was another good read a few seasons ago.

It's about a black sheep, (or is he?), who can no more conform to the established conventions of his Anglo-American family than he can fly, who finds himself, (or does he?), as a post-World War II planter in the Highlands of New Guinea.

The story is rooted in fact, based on Mr. Maxtone-Graham's own family. And if the name Maxtone-Graham sounds familiar, it's because he married into one of Grosse Pointe's most prominent families.

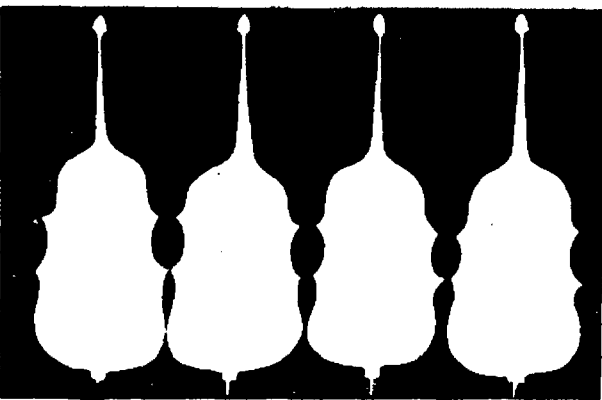

Mrs. Maxtone-Graham is the former Katrina Kanzler, daughter of the late Ernest C. Kanzler, niece of Mrs. Edsel B. Ford.

Gathering of the Clan

Doris and Andy Bato came from the East, (Connecticut), bringing their two children, Georgia Loftus from the West, (California), with two out of four—her husband, John, stayed behind with the other two, and the house the Loftuses are building.

Jessie and Dan Hitchens rented a motor home to drive down from the North, (Traverse City). For them, it was the only solution: they were bringing five out of six—the missing sixth was missing because HE was on his way to Alaska—and the girls were bringing long dresses, and the crush in one car would have been incredible, and two cars seemed stupid.

Ann and Louis Zimmerman came up from the South, (Florida), with all three of their offspring, one very new. Elaine and Rankin Peck were here (Continued on Page 26)

Betty Honored By Camp Fire

Camp Fire Girls' Detroit Area Council honored Betty Anderson, of Notre Dame avenue, this June, presenting the Ernest Thompson Seton Award to her during the Council's annual meeting.

Miss Anderson was cited for service as chairperson of the Council's Public Relations committee from 1973 through 1975. Under her leadership, Camp Fire received more media coverage than at any time in recent years.

She was responsible for the Council's Candy Sale slogan "Say YES to Camp Fire Candy," which appeared on billboards, display posters, television slides and the Council's postage meter logo, putting Camp Fire's name before the entire metropolitan Detroit community.

"Your wit, wealth of ideas, interest in Camp Fire, your high professional standards for everything that sets forth the Council in word or picture, and your personal integrity which never looked for unfair advantage or shoddy ways of reaching for public attention for Camp Fire, have been of tremendous service to the Council," reads the letter of commendation accompanying the Seton Award pin.

Ernest Thompson Seton was a founder of Camp Fire Girls, the oldest interracial, non-sectarian organization for women, (it dates from 1910), in the United States.

The Detroit Area Council, a Torch Drive Agency, currently serves 7,000 girls and adults in the tri-county area.

Tea for Visitor From Australia

Entertaining at a tea last week for her houseguest, Mrs. Hugh McConnell, O.B.E., of Canberra, Australia, was Mrs. Morley Bursey, of Stephens road, wife of Canada's Consul in Detroit.

Mrs. McConnell, president of the Australian Federation of Women's Clubs, came to North America as head of a 10-women delegation to an international conference of women's clubs in Vancouver, B.C.

Cottage Trains Nine Students

Nine college students are at Cottage Hospital this summer, learning what they will confront in medical and hospital careers by observing the work of Cottage's administration, physicians and various hospital departments.

Two, Robert Wiedbusch, of Mount Clemens, and Pointer Scott Spagnoli, are second-year medical students. They are at Cottage under the AMSA-MECO preceptorship program: the American Medical Student Association project for Medical Education and Community Orientation.

One purpose of AMSA-MECO, according to Cottage Administrator Ralph L. Wilgarde, is to encourage future doctors to practice in small community hospitals; many of which lack sufficient medical personnel.

Wiedbusch is a student at Wayne State Medical School, Spagnoli a student at the University of Michigan Medical School.

Greg Vasse, of Ithaca, N.Y., working toward his Masters degree in Hospital Administration at Cornell University, is spending the summer at Cottage for his required administrative residency.

The six other students are in an administrative rotation program designed to introduce them to all facets of hospital operation. Five are

Cobo Cabaret Features DSO

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will play three benefit pops concerts during its unique new "Cabaret at Cobo" series next month, to help raise money for the many youth concert programs the Orchestra offers throughout the year.

DSO Principal Conductor Richard Hayman will be on the podium for the three pops evenings Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 17, 18 and 19, at 8:30 o'clock in Cobo Hall's Riverview Ballroom.

Tuesday evening's program will be an all-orchestral one. Wednesday's will feature violinist Sue Synnestevedt. Thursday's will star pianist Kenneth Kelter.

Both young soloists have been participants in DSO youth activities. Miss Synnestevedt, a member of the Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra, Mr. Kelter as a soloist in the Educational Concert Series.

Tables seating four are designed to provide an intimate cabaret atmosphere at the three concerts. Refreshments will be available for purchase.

The Michael Shannons

At an evening ceremony Friday, May 28, in Gesu Church, PHYLLIS MELANIE GENERAL, daughter of Mrs. Frank Day, of Detroit, and Norman General, of Dearborn, became Mr. Shannon's bride. He is the son of Mrs. Harold S. Shannon, of Hunt Club drive, and the late Mr. Shannon.

Shannon-General Rites Celebrated

Pair Are at Home in Detroit after Vacation in Pocono Mountains; Detroit Golf Club Reception Follows Evening Rites

Lace flowers accented the traditional, scoop-necked white gown chosen by Phyllis Melanie General for her marriage to Michael Bartel Shannon Friday evening, May 28, in Gesu Church.

Her illusion veil fell from a lace Juliet cap. She carried white orchids.

The 6:30 o'clock rites at which Father Joseph Muenzer presided were followed by a reception at the Detroit Golf Club, after which the newlyweds left to vacation in Pennsylvania's Pocono Mountains.

They are making their home in Detroit. Mrs. Lawrence Mack in a floor length halter-necked frock of apricot dotted swiss and a picture hat of braided horsehair with matching apricot streamers, was her sister's honor attendant.

They are the daughters of Mrs. Frank Day, of Detroit, and Norman General, of Dearborn.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically in yellow dotted swiss, accurate uniforms, will do their historically accurate drill.

There'll be dancing in today's style, of course, for all Bal guests.

The party is strictly invitational, but "we're trying not to forget anybody," Mireille says. Several invitations have come back marked "not at above address," and she doesn't want anybody to feel left out, so if you haven't received an invitation and you think you should have—PLEASE give her a call.

It's a donation party, for the IRS forbids tax exempt organizations from using their funds for their own entertainment. The $10 per person donation will, therefore, be used to defray party costs.

Set Christian Business Women's July Program

The Detroit East Side Council of Christian Business and Professional Women has scheduled its monthly dinner program for next Tuesday, July 20, at 6:30 o'clock at the Thomas Manor in East Detroit.

"Water Babies," a program on plants that grow completely in water, will be the special feature, presented by Sharon Schreiner of Grosse Pointe's Nature's Creations. Music "to help those flowers grow" will be by soprano Diane Hull.

Guest speaker is Carolyn Bersche, associated with "Mothers on the Move." Lucille Dew, telephone chairman, Janet Divozzo, hostess chairman, and Magdalene Green, decorations chairman, will single out faithful workers on their respective committees for special honors and gifts.

Attendance, by reservation only, is open to any interested woman. Further information may be obtained and reservations made by calling Joanne Himmer, 771-0035, or Lucille Dew, 527-9212.

Pellionia Likes Terrariums

Not all plants do well in terrariums, but Michigan State University horticulturists say that pellionia will thrive there.

Pellionia daveana is a native of southeast Asia. Pink, creeping stems bear close-set pairs of silvery leaves edged with brownish purple.

Both of these creeping plants do well in terrariums or hanging baskets in a kitchen or bathroom or other moist area, because they prefer semi-shady to shady conditions and high humidity.

If the air is too dry, leaf edges will dry out.

Temperatures a little warmer than normal house temperatures are okay, too.

Pellionia should be potted in a soil made of equal parts loam, sand and peat. Water whenever the soil surface feels dry.

Propagate by root cuttings or tip cuttings inserted in moist sand.

Heritage Case Is on Display

The Pear Tree Chapter of Quarters, celebrating America's 200th birthday, has arranged the display of historical items currently on view in the Grosse Pointe Central Library showcase.

Chapter members loaned old glass, porcelain, brass and bronze objects, kitchen and sewing utensils, miniature oil lamps and cut glass for the exhibit, which also features old documents, some dating from Civil War days.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Enjoy this summer with a few inexpensive projects to beautify your home. Some wood and a little paint can build you a flower box that will add color and variety. How about making a new mail box, or maybe decorating the one you have with some "paint and a stencil"? Create some of your own flower pot holders maybe even your own pots!

There is much more—all of which enrich your homes' beauty—even increase the value of it! Adding your own personal touch will make any home more unique and interesting. Removing the paint from your front door and staining varnishing it enhances the front of your home greatly. Make storage bins on the back of your house to store garden equipment—lawn chairs etc. This keeps your back yard tidy. Not much money is needed—only a little bit of imagination and your own personal preference!

The people at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087 are experts at ways to help beautify as well as sell your home. They have an on staff designer who can help you redesign rooms or even add a room. This flexibility comes in handy when you are purchasing a home. Often times an extra room can be added giving the new owner exactly what he wants—at less money than it would otherwise have cost.

HANDY HINT: About to Sell or Buy a house? Don't forget our one year $100.00 deductible Warranty helps both the buyer and seller. Buy and Sell with peace of mind!

yellow ribbons circling the brims of their hats, were Jennifer Dunn, Patricia McHugh and Jane Adams. They carried daisies.

Tisa General was flower girl for her aunt. Gary Turnbull, of Minneapolis, Minn., the bride's second cousin, was ring bearer.

Mr. Shannon, son of Mrs. Harold S. Shannon, of Hunt Club drive, and the late Mr. Shannon, asked Edward E. Cody, a former Air Force associate, now a pilot with Delta Airlines, to come from Houston, Tex., to act as best man.

Ushering were Barry General, the bride's brother, Mr. Mack, their brother-in-law, and Randall R. Higginbotham, of Memphis, Tenn., another former Air Force associate of the bridegroom, currently stationed as a pilot at Selfridge Air National Guard Base.

The mother of the bride wore a pleated, shawl-collared dress of pale beige chiffon, floor length as was the bridegroom's, mother's gold-accented pale green crepe with its matching jacket. Gardenias formed Mrs. Day's wrist corsage. Mrs. Shannon selected a wrist corsage of green orchids. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Dearling of Louisville, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robertson, of Montgomery, Ala., Mrs. Charles S. Zentgraf, of Brandon, Fla., Mrs. Ethel Crawford and her daughter Mrs. John Chapple, of Oak Harbor, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Duane Engstrom, of Succasunna, N.J., and Mrs. Cody, who accompanied her husband from Texas.

Little League Results

FARMS MAJORS

By John C. Brooks

The opening day of major league playoffs was June 28.
In the first game, the first place Indians lost to the third place Pirates, 6-3. The Pirates wasted no time as they scored three runs in the first inning on hits by Mike Downs, Rick Gallagher, Billy
Cunningham and Gerry Chamberlin.

The Indians fought back in the third on Kenny Fromm's single to right. He was advanced to second on a passed ball and came home when Steve Kornmeier singled to right.

But the Pirates picked up two more runs in the fourth on singles by Jamie Burke,
Mike Downs and Gerry Chamberlin. The Pirates
final run came in the sixth when Rick Gallagher singled and scored on Billy Cunn-

The Indians also scored a run in the sixth when Craig Hasse walked. Bob Carr
singled and Greg Restum doubled to right scoring Hasse.

With one out and Indians
on second and third, Mike Downs, the winning pitcher, struck out the next two batters to end the game.

Defensively for the Pirates,
Brian Socia, Steve Webster and John Stickford were the shining lights. Without their excellent fielding the result might have been different.

The second game of a double-header found the fourth place Red Legs battling the second place Tigers.
The Reds put together a superb defensive game to eliminate the Tigers from the playoffs, 7-3.

Offensively for the Reds,
clutch hits by Jamie Gallagher, Dave Nurni and Rick Parsons contributed to the win. For the Tigers, John Murphy reached base safely three times and Todd Ciavola scored two of the Tigers' three runs.

The Pirates and Reds victories set up the final playoff game for Wednesday, June 30. In this game the Reds and the Pirates could not get anything going offensively until the fifth inning when the Reds finally broke loose to score.

The highlight of the game was Brian Augsburger's home run with two on. A further highlight was his shutout pitching.

FARMS AAA

By Roy Hartmann

The annual All-Star Game was played between The Farms AAA League and The City Major-Minor League on Saturday, July 10, and The Farms won, 18-3.

Farms pitchers Mike Ottaway, Doug Roby, Dan Doyle and Mike Hartmann gave up only three hits, while walking eight and striking out 17.

City pitchers Emery Audretsch, Marly Bedell, Jim Fitzsimmons, Dan Stephenson and Scott White gave up 15 hits, 14 walks and struck out 13.

Doug Roby and Mike Ottaway each hit doubles for The Farms.

The Farms team was to have been the host, but since their field was unplayable from the previous night's rain, The City offered its field. A good crowd was on hand in spite of the last-minute change.

Bill Bonk was manager for The Farms and was assisted by coaches Bill Fox, George Bay and Tom Gentile.

Jim Harper managed The City team with John Smith,
Bill Edgar, Frank Parcells and Jim Fitzsimmons assisting.

Teen Canoe Trip Slated

The Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo Avenue, is offering a wilderness canoe camping trip for area teens from August 7-13. Twelve participants will have the opportunity to explore Ontario's oldest provincial park located only 400 miles from Windsor.
Teens will take part in the route and menu planning, as well as having a unique chance to learn some basic wilderness skills.

Five of the seven days will be spent in the park's "interior," canoeing, portaging, fishing and swimming.
John Shaheen, trip leader, says that a great deal of camping experience is not required for this trip, but that all participants must be willing to contribute hard work to make it a safe and worthwhile experience.

The number of canoe trip-pers is being strictly limited to ensure that the journey
be beneficial to everybody.
The cost for the trip is $75.
This includes transportation, meals, canoe rental and all camping fees. A current Neighborhood Club membership also is required, and a deposit of $25 is due by Friday, July 23.

For further information,
call the club, 885-4600.

OKAY REAPPOINTMENTS

Park Councilman George
J. Verdonck and Mayor Matthew C. Patterson were unanimously reappointed by the council to the respective positions of director and alternate

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms MICHIGAN NOTICE OF HEARING ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

Notice is hereby given that the Zoning Board of Appeals will meet in the City Hall at 90 Kerby Road, Grosse Pointe Farms, on MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1976

at 8:00 p.m. to head the appeal of Mrs. Hugh McMillan, owner of the premises located at 34 Hendrie Lane, from the denial of the Building Department to issue a Permit for the construction of an addition to the rear of her home at the foregoing address. Such Permit issuance was denied for reason that:

1. The residence located on the foregoing premises is non-conforming for reason that it projects into the required open rear yard space and side yard space in violation of the provisions of Article XIII, Section 1300 of the City's Zoning Ordinance, and in accordance with the provisions of Article XV, Section 1502, Item 4-A of the City's Zoning Ordinance, no such structure may be enlarged or structurally altered unless a variance is granted.
2. The proposed addition to the rear of the home located at the foregoing address further infringes upon minimum required open rear yard space of 30 feet, leaving a rear yard of twelve (12) feet, and thereby requiring a variance from the provisions of Article XIII, Section 1300 of the City's Zoning Ordinance.

The Hearing will be public. Interested property owners or residents of the City are invited to attend.

already; the Peck family lives in Lakeshore road. And so the children of Mary and George Herbert Zimmerman converged, with their children, on Kenwood road Wednesday, July 7, to join relatives and friends in toasting the senior Zimmermans on their 50th wedding anniversary. It was a lovely party. Lovely, too, was the Anniversary Mass that morning at Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore, after which the Zimmerman clan gathered at the Country Club for a family breakfast.

Comings and Goings

Lynda Strain, who lived in Hampton road when she was Lynda Fulmer, and her husband, John W. Strain, III, are leaving Grosse Ile, bound for England and John's assignment as assistant vice president and lending officer at the National Bank of Detroit's London Branch.

Lynda plans to keep busy in England, too, pursuing her career in Special Education via private tutoring.

She and John hope to tour Great Britain thoroughly during the three years they're abroad. They also intend to visit the Continent, and perhaps, (please!), Africa.

Jacquelyn Ollila arrives today from California, for a week's visit with her parents, the R. E. Ollilas, of Harvard road.

He's 'Gentlemanly Johnny'

Featured as General Burgoyne, Gentlemanly Johnny in George Bernard Shaw's "Devil's Disciple," first offering of the season by high school Drama majors in Interlochen National Music Camp's Theatre Arts Department, was Gordon Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson Rose, of Devonshire road.

Young Gordon, a returning camper at Interlochen, played his part very well. Too bad he had to be on the losing side of the American Revolution during this Bicentennial year — but that's show biz!

Series at Music Hall

The Series closes March 26 with Broin, a Moravian Folk Company. Thirty-six musicians, dancers and singers will present the romance and drama of Czechoslovakia's rich and varied customs, ancient and modern.

Discounted subscriptions range from $35.50 to $16.50 for the Theater Series; from $38.25 to $18.50 for the Dance Series; from $29.50 to $16.50 for the Sunday "World Series"; and from $36.75 to $19.75 for the "WILD WORLD" series.

Subscriptions may be charged by phone or mail to J. L. Hudson, MasterCard or BankAmericard accounts, or paid by check or money order. Music Hall's subscription office, 963-7680, will be open for information or assistance from 10 to 6 o'clock weekdays and Saturdays.

Last season, Music Hall subscriptions tripled, to reach a total of 6,000. "We expect another big increase this year," Levine and Di-Chiera agree. Nearly 1,000 orders have come in before this season announcement.
