THE VIKING 1 ROBOT explorer, which landed on Mars Wednesday, sent back its first color shots today showing Mars to be, indeed, a red planet. The color photographs showed a landscape which looks like the Arizona desert without plants or animals, but with greenish colored rocks. Besides the brick red surface of the Chryse plain, where the spacecraft landed, the planet was found to have a pink sky in contrast to the blackness of space seen from the surface of the moon. Space officials said the picture "gives you the same effect as a foggy or smoggy day in Los Angeles."

CONGRESSIONAL PASSAGE Thursday of the Federal jobs bill will mean $19.2 million in aid for the City of Detroit and the rehiring of several hundred laid off police officers. Exactly how many of the approximately 970 laid off officers will be rehired may be a matter of dispute between Mayor Coleman Young and the city council. The $19.2 million, part of $300 million earmarked for Michigan, can be spent by the city in any manner it wishes before October 1, 1977.

FORMER PRESIDENT Richard Nixon, smiling and cheery, guided a wheelchair, which propelled his recuperating wife, Pat, on the first leg of the journey home Friday from her 15-day hospital stay. Long Beach Memorial Hospital physicians said the 64-year-old former first lady "is progressing satisfactorily and her condition is now stable after her stroke." The Nixons paused briefly for photographers and waved happily to reporters and a crowd of about 100 persons.

BAIL WAS SET at $1 million Saturday for one young man held in the bizarre July 15 kidnapping of 26 children. The FBI directed a nationwide manhunt for the suspect's brother and a friend, Chowchilla, Calif., Justice Court Judge Howard C. Green ordered Richard Schoenfeld, 22, held on the $1 million bail to face 27 counts of kidnapping and 16 counts of robbery. Schoenfeld surrendered with his attorney late Friday. The FBI announced it is "now conducting a nationwide hunt" for Schoenfeld's brother, James, and Frederick Woods, both 24.

A MAN CARRYING a three-foot section of pipe climbed over the White House fence Sunday night and was fatally shot by a guard when he failed to heed orders to halt, according to a Secret Service spokesman. The man, identified as Chester Plummer, 30, of Washington, D.C., died shortly after the incident at George Washington Hospital, according to Ken Lynch of the Secret Service. The man set off an alarm when he scaled the fence and a White House guard went to investigate, according to Jack Warner, a Secret Service spokesman. Mr. Warner said the intruder disregarded repeated orders to stop and the officer shot him.

RONALD REAGAN announced Monday that he has chosen liberal Pennsylvania Republican Sen. Richard Schweiker to be his vice-presidential running mate if he wins the Republican presidential nomination. It was a bold move, clearly aimed at breaking open the neck-and-neck delegate race with President Gerald Ford. Mr. Reagan and Sen. Schweiker have been on opposite sides of many major issues, from the Vietnam war to the whole question of the government's proper role in society.

It took a lot of doing but these 25 winners are what remained of a field of 337 participants in this year's Roland Gray Tennis Tournament. The finals concluded Friday, July 23, at the South High School courts. Winners and runners-up were presented trophies at ceremonies by Mrs. Jack Caulkins. (See story, Page 14).

Youth Dies In Auto Accident

17-Year-Old Is Passenger in Car Which Strikes Street Light Pole in Woods

An automobile accident claimed the life of a 17-year-old Woods youth Saturday, July 24, shortly before 6 a.m. when the car in which he was riding crashed into a street light pole on Wedgewood near Hawthorne road, reported Woods police.

The youth, Glenn Shannon, of Moorland drive, was transported to Saint John Hospital by Woods ambulance. The hospital reported he died in the emergency room.

The driver of the vehicle, Stephen Thomas Rogers, 18, also of Moorland drive, was taken by scout car to Saint John where he was treated for head injuries, lacerations and multiple injuries and ultimately released, according to the hospital.

An official accident report said the car apparently was speeding too fast for a curve with the driver losing control and striking the pole. The distance was 57 feet from where the driver struck the curb and lost control to the point of impact, police said. The accident remains under investigation by the public safety department.

Lt. Allen Selby said the auto, a Vega, was torn in half as a result of the impact, and was held together only by the rocker panel.

"The pole was imbedded in the right side of the car where the passenger was sitting," Selby said.

GPF Boat Club Regatta Offers Enjoyable Three Days for 10,500 Persons

Huge Event Features Beauty Contest, Parade, Dances, Boat Races, Barbecues, Pier Park Setting for 24th Annual Crowd Pleaser

Start with beautiful weather, add a parade, two dances, boat races, barbecues, a beauty contest and mix carefully with bagpipe marching band, cowboys and large friendly crowds. Spread the mixture over three days and the result is another perfect Farms Boat Club Regatta.

The Pier Park was the setting for the 24th annual regatta, held Friday-Sunday, July 23-25. An estimated 10,500 persons attended the event, according to publicity chairman Betty Lardner.

Festivities began with a teen dance Friday night. Over 2,000 teenagers attended and danced to music of "The Adrenalin."

Select Miss GPF Saturday saw a full schedule with power and sailboat races, a decorated bicycle contest, events for children and adults, a Miss Grosse Pointe Farms beauty contest and an adult dance. Music for the dance was provided by the "Moonlighters."

South High School student Cathy McGann was chosen Miss Grosse Pointe Farms, and the first runner-up was Kathy Potter. Judging in the contest were attorney John Mazer, Stelene Mazer, Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber, Wayne County Commissioner Erv Steiner, ballet instructor Beth Kraus and Pepper Whitelaw, of Saint John Hospital.

Those winning the boat races were Chris Simon in the power division and John Marcus in the hydro category. The large outboard division was won by Greg Messacar, with small out-boards won by Jim Allor. The large inboard/outboard division was won by Rex Ciavola. Peter Albrecht took the small inboard/outboard contest.

In the sailboat races, Jack Richards took the sailboard race, while J. Hogan won the planing race. George Roney was the winner in the keel category.

Shriners Big Hit Land bound vehicles weren't overlooked, as Mary Leonard won the semi-professional division in the bicycle decorating contest. She was dressed as "Tarzan's Jane." Geri Weskel took second place as "Wonderwoman."

In the amateur division, Kevin Simon won first dressed as an Indian. Second place was won by Martha Kojewski as a "Dutch Girl," while Susan Stetson took third as "The Bird."

Woods to Consider New Laws

Council Scheduled to Act Upon Proposals Covering Violations, Elm Tree Spraying on August 2

By Roger A. Waha

Two proposed ordinances amending the city code were unanimously approved for a first reading by The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, July 12.

Both proposals are now scheduled for a second reading and possible final adoption at the regular meeting Monday, August 2. One focuses upon a myriad of violations, while the other is on the spraying of elm trees to control Dutch Elm disease.

The violations proposal provides for an increase in certain violation deposits and covers a variety of offenses including driving, license, parking, bicycle and motorcycle, equipment, pedestrian, taxi and building, fire and zoning code violations.

Checks Other Fees It also covers such areas as animals and birds, general offenses and nuisances, licenses or special council authorization, health and sanitation, streets, trees and shrubs and water-sewer.

"We took a survey of various violation fees in several cities and tried to determine what the average fee was for like violations," said City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

"We tried to standardize violation fees in the ordinance and, hopefully, we would like to forward copies of it to the other Grosse Pointe's and Harper Woods if it's adopted so fees might be standardized throughout the six communities."

In the area of traffic, Mr. Petersen noted corresponding notations were made within the proposal on corresponding sections of the State Motor Vehicle Code. He found some fees were higher and some were lower depending upon the violation, while adding that higher costs involved in enforcement were considered in the city's proposal.

Second Mandatory The second law proposes to remove the requirement of mandatory spraying for the purpose of controlling Dutch Elm disease and, according to Mr. Petersen, would affect residents.

It recommends that every person, firm or corporation which owns or has under its control any elm tree located within the city limits to have such tree properly sprayed each year with an insecticide spray. The type of spray

GP Nursing Home Awaits Refurbishing

Officials of Facility, City Reach Agreement Permitting The Building to Be Renovated; Cost of Project Placed at Around $250,000

By Susan McDonald

Residents of the Grosse Pointe Nursing Home may soon see their home renovated in line with State and Federal residential care regulations. Nursing home officials and Grosse Pointe City fathers have finally come to an agreement allowing the home to proceed with State finalization of their plans, and to begin contracting for the construction job.

The $250,000 renovation of the facility, 315 Fisher road, will include construction of a new occupational therapy room, a beauty parlor, extra bathrooms and dining areas, a sunken garden and installation of elevators. If all goes well work could be completed as early as March 1977, according to the home's executive director Joseph Mash.

"Thank God we are finally on our way," Mr. Mash said. "I think we have finally settled all our problems with the city and all that remains is some State bureaucratic gobbledegook that should be finished within 60 days."

Mutual Pact Although the exterior design still must be approved by The City Council, Mr. Mash said he is confident that "all the obstacles have been removed from our way."

Although the home presently does not satisfy State regulations, it is operating under a continuance of certification of its 1972 State license. The continuance was granted because home officials satisfied the State of their intentions to renovate as soon as possible.

Under the agreement with City officials, the nursing home has promised there would be no further attempts to expand, that they will not purchase any more land, except for off-street parking purposes, and they would revise their plans to move the building an extra four feet away from the sidewalk.

In exchange, The City granted the home permission to extend the building by 27 1/2 feet across its entire width.

The council indicated the last time they reviewed the home's plans, (last November), they were not pleased with the exterior design. Mayor John King said at that time that the structure

Woods Law Governs Use Of Park by Big Groups

By Roger A. Waha

In last week's story, "Requests for Use of Park Discussed by GPW Solons," two citizens appeared before the council seeking permission to hold celebrations for family birthdays at the Lake Front Park. Both bids were approved.

However, it was reported that a park rule says that 50 percent or more of those attending such an event must be Woods residents for a group permit to be issued, plus the fact that such a permit will not be issued on a weekend, (pending council action).

Actually, a city ordinance governs such usage, rather than a park rule. This measure regulates the use of the Lake Front Park,

Voters Go To Polls On Aug. 3

Primary Ballot Features Races for Senator, Congressman, County Offices, Other Posts

The big contests in the upcoming Tuesday, August 3, primary election are the four-way United States senatorial races in both the Democratic and Republican parties.

In the Democratic column, voters can choose from among Secretary of State Richard H. Austin, United States Congressman Donald W. Rostenkowski, United States Congressman James G. O'Hara or Birmingham lawyer James Elman.

The Republican slate includes United States Congressman Marvin E. Eskin, Deane Baker of Ann Arbor, Robert Huber of Troy and former chief justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, Thomas Brennan.

Vie for Supervisor Locally, Grosse Pointe Township and Lake Township incumbents are unopposed for re-election with one exception. The lone challenge is for the post of Grosse Pointe Township supervisor.

All the incumbents and the single challenger are Republicans.

Going against Gerald C. Schroeder for the office of supervisor is John H. Gillis Jr., a graduate of North High School and Michigan State University. Mr. Gillis is presently a student at the University of Detroit Law School.

He has been a resident of The Shores for 23 years and worked at The Shores Park as a lifeguard. His previous political experience was his election two years ago as a precinct delegate for the Republican party.

Mr. Schroeder has served in Village government since the early 1950's. He has been a member of the planning commission and a Village trustee. He is presently president of The Village Council.

Pre-Trials Could Be Held in Area

Plan Would Empower Selected Judges to Hear Cases in Local Courtrooms

By Susan McDonald

Wayne County Commissioners have come up with a plan they hope will make more Grosse Pointe police officers available for street patrol through a program to empower selected suburban judges to hear felony pre-trial cases in local courtrooms.

The commissioners claim that the program could save small municipalities money and time by eliminating trips by police officers downtown to courtrooms in order to transport prisoners and testify in pre-trials.

All felonies committed in Wayne County outside of Detroit come under the jurisdiction of the Wayne County Circuit Court and all arraignments, plea taking and trials are handled by the 33 circuit judges in the downtown Detroit courtrooms.

Work Out Details Although the plan is still sketchy, the commissioners are hoping to appoint local district judges who, on a rotating basis, would conduct felony arraignments, pre-trial plea bargaining and plea taking in the community where the crime occurred.

The pilot program is financed by a $105,000 grant from the U.S. Department of Justice Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

Project director David Kasunic, of Trombley road, who also administered Wayne County's innovative one-day, one-trial program, says most of the details of the project still have to be worked out.

"The first three months is for gearing up," he said. "We're using this time to get recommendations from local mayors, police chiefs and commissioners as to existing

District Court Bill Recalled

By George Polgar Jr.

Further legislative action on the long discussed and politically unpopular district court proposal, Senate Bill 966, was halted recently when Senate Democratic Leader William B. Fitzgerald recalled the bill from the House after the Senate had already passed the measure.

Sen. Fitzgerald said his request to recall the bill was based not on his opposition to the idea of consolidating the many small municipal courts into a district court system with one court serving a number of communities but because he felt the bill was not subjected to enough cost benefit analysis.

"The idea of district courts is a good one because it will provide a uniformity of justice," said Sen. Fitzgerald. "But this particular bill gives no clear indication whether there is a need for these new judgeships."

Though Sen. Fitzgerald was not inclined to comment on the feelings of the various communities opposing the district court plan he said he is not satisfied that his own district is being treated fairly by the bill.

"I don't know about specific community opposition to the bill," said Sen. Fitzgerald. "In general, it seems that the judges are for it and local elected officials are against it."

This observation seems to be borne out by a motion passed at the Monday, July 12, meeting of The Woods Council, which authorized the sending of immediate mailgrams to all State senators saying The Woods desires to be exempted from the district court system.

The council also sent immediate notice to Sen. Joseph Snyder and Sen. John C. Hertel asking them to make the same request on the floor of the Senate.

County Proposal Discussed by Pointe Police court space, dockets and the availability of judges."

Enhance Home Rule
Grosse Pointe police officers got a look at the plan at a Wednesday, July 14, meeting in Chief Circuit Court Judge James Canham's office. Their reaction to the initial proposals varied from enthusiastic approval to extreme skepticism.

The strongest proponent among Pointe officials is Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber, who is also involved in the planning as secretary-treasurer of the Wayne County Police Chiefs Association. That group, according to Chief Ferber, has been fighting for some kind of local court expansion for years.

He believes the program would enhance the area's home rule and save a substantial amount of police time.

"Most assuredly it is a step in the right direction, especially in granting an individual charged with a crime the swift and speedy trial and punishment that is essential to the criminal justice department's effectiveness," he said.

Save Much Time
Chief Ferber estimated that if a local judge was conducting arraignments and accepting pleas it could cut the amount of time his department spends on felony cases by about 20 or 25 percent.

Park Lt. Gordon Duncan, who also attended the Wednesday meeting, thought highly of the program. "We'd love anything that would keep our detectives here at work rather than downtown," he said. "It would be speedier and handier for everyone involved."

Shores Director of Public Safety Joseph Vitale echoed those sentiments, saying "Time is our department's most valuable commodity and any program that will save us time will certainly be appreciated."

City Police Chief Robert VanTiem said the plan could cut as much as one month out of the time between a person's arrest and the final disposition of his case. Now it takes about three weeks after an arrest on a felony charge just to arrange for a pre-trial hearing and another month for the trial.

If a local judge were empowered to accept a plea the arraignment and pre-trials could be held on the same day.

Although Woods' Public Safety Director Henry Marchand was a bit more skeptical about the program's potential, he did point out that besides saving police time and money, local pre-trials might also make it easier for witnesses to give their testimony.

Need Closer Look

Woods Lt. Jack Patterson, who attended the Wednesday meeting, was even more wary of the plan. "The just want to use our courtrooms and our facilities for free," he charged. "It would be a great idea as long as we don't have to go downtown to pick up the prisoners."

As it now stands, if a prisoner is arrested in the Pointe and can not make bail, he is transported to the Wayne County Jail.

If the pre-trials and arraignments were held in the district where the crime was committed, the prisoners of the Wayne County Jail would have to be transported back out to the suburbs instead of just walking across the street to the Murphy Hall of Justice.

According to Mr. Kasunic, transporting prisoners back to the suburbs would probably be the responsibility of the local police force, although he stressed that was one area of the plan he would be taking a closer look at before its implementation in October.

Other areas involved in the program, besides the five Pointes and Harper Woods, are the downriver corridor, western Wayne County, mid-western Wayne County and Hamtramck and Highland Park.

Bagwell Memorial Fund Started to Aid Students

A Paul D. and Edith H. Bagwell Memorial Scholarship Fund was recently started to provide scholarships for students majoring in the field of business at Michigan State University.

Special emphasis will be given to assist women seeking a degree in business administration.

The fund has been initiated "with the hope that Paul and Edith will be respected and remembered by a new generation that did not have a first-hand opportunity to know the character and personal responsibility epitomized by the Bagwells," said George Wilson Loomis, chairman of the steering committee, in a letter announcing the project.

It's hoped that the fund will reach a level necessary to ensure self-perpetuation. "Our goal is a minimum of $10,000 to endow a perpetual scholarship in their honor. More dollars will mean more scholarships, and more students who can be directly helped in the names of Paul and Edith," he said.

Pointer Edward Serwach, who also is a member of the steering committee, said Mr. and Mrs. Bagwell were highly-respected members of the Grosse Pointe community. "More importantly, they will long be remembered by most people for the countless, diverse projects which they undertook during their lifetime," he stated.

In noting the project is very dear to his own heart, Mr. Serwach said the Bag-wells were active in civic organizations, educational circles, politics, plus professional and social endeavors. "It is my personal dream to one day stroll along the Michigan State campus and see a Paul D. Bagwell Hall, or some other building named in memory of the Bagwells," he said, while adding the Alvin Bentley Foundations got the ball rolling with a donation of $10,000.

Judith Bagwell Luahiwa also is a member of the steering committee, while Judge George N. Bashara Jr., Walker Cislis, Thomas Reid, Ross Roy, Mrs. Wilbur Brucker, Norman Stockmeyer, Gov. William Milliken and Sen. Robert Griffin, among others, are members of the executive committee.

The address for donations is the Paul D. and Edith H. Bagwell Scholarship Fund, Michigan State University, Suite 220, Nisbet Building, 1407 South Harrison road, East Lansing 48824.

Relating to this, a group application for use of the park, which must be filled out by a Woods resident acting as the agent for a group, specifies the application must be signed in the presence of, and witnessed by, the attendant and then approved by the parks and recreation director.

It says the group using the facility must be a Woods organization and that 50 percent or over of its members must be from the community.

Several stipulations must be followed by the group including the following: the area must be cleaned before leaving the park; no alcoholic beverages will be taken or served in the park; and the application may be used on weekdays and weekday evenings only.

St. John Hospital Given Kresge Grant of $125,000

The Trustees of the Kresge Foundation have approved a grant of $125,000 toward the development of a Patient Education and Community Health Program at Saint John Hospital. The recent announcement was made by foundation president William H. Baldwin.

James T. Farley, president and chief executive officer of Saint John Hospital, said upon receiving the grant, "Through the generosity and foresight of the Kresge Foundation, we here at Saint John will now be able to institute a program of patient education which will help patients better understand their illnesses and how to cope with them."

Dr. Robert Birk, Saint John's director of health education, explains that the thrust of the program will be to develop an effective and realistic method of patient education and community health information dissemination as a service to the community.

A specially trained patient health educator, Delores Woodstock, RN, will coordinate the program.

Miss Woodstock, formerly assistant director of nursing education at Saint John, has trained at the Palo Alto Health Center, Palo Alto, Calif., and has observed other patient education programs at the Kaiser Permanente Unit in Oakland, Calif.

The program will be three-fold. First, an individually tailored program for both in- and out-patients, using a combined patient educator, audio-visual and instructional materials approach.

Utilizing materials provided by Core Communications in Health, Inc., in New York, patients will be seen by appointment on prescription of their physician.

The patient educator will initially evaluate the patient's grasp of his problem by the use of interview and pre-test materials.

Then, the patient will spend 30-45 minutes viewing an audio-visual, slide-tape presentation and complete a worksheet designed to increase his knowledge of the specific problem.

Following completion of this, the patient educator will review his worksheet and provide a take-home booklet with a summary of the presentation.

The educator will then review the patient's compliance with the physician's orders, prescriptions and other suggestions.

Following the patient's visit, the patient educator will prepare a report to the patient's physician, detailing the data and suggesting any further means that would be helpful in increasing the patient's understanding of his health problem.

A special library, complete with pamphlets relating to every aspect of health care, will be the second feature of this education program. This will be available to patients and interested community members.

The Patient Education Audio-Visual Center will feature a third educational facility, a sound-proof studio, in which color video-tape programs for community education, in-patients, out-patients, graduates and post-graduates will be shown.

This also will afford Saint John Hospital the opportunity to provide, on in-house television sets, special health-oriented programs for their patients.

The entire educational complex is geared toward educating the general public, as well as Saint John patients, to a better knowledge of their personal health problems.

The program will be under the direction of Dr. Birk and Miss Woodstock.

Dr. Birk added his thanks to those of Mr. Farley's to the Kresge Foundation for their interest in the Community Health Education Program and for making the facility a reality.

It is anticipated that the program will be fully operational by this fall.

Free Concert Open to All

All Pointe residents are invited to a free, open-air, pops concert featuring the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra on Wednesday, August 4, at 8 p.m.

They've Got The Spirit

Posed proudly before their work, these guards and Pier Park attendants are part of the 25-man crew that repainted the park's boathouse.

Farms Boathouse Gets New Look

By Tom Greenwood

Forty-one dollars worth of paint and an urge to create has given The Farms Pier Park boathouse a shiny new, red, white and blue outlook on life.

After chipping in to buy paint brushes, 25 guards and park attendants worked from midnight until 4 a.m. Friday morning, July 23 to give the boathouse a snappy stars-and-stripes motif.

The voluntary labor-of-love was thought up by Lee "Wojo," Cathy McGann and Jeff Bremer.

"There was a combination of reasons for the paint job," said Jeff. "The Farms regatta was coming up, the boathouse needed painting badly and it seemed like a good time to get the job done."

Pointes Study Dispatch Info

A lengthy report on the proposed centralized police and fire dispatch system for the five Pointes and Harper Woods was submitted to the mayors of those communities by city managers at a meeting on Wednesday, July 21.

City Mayor John King, who most recently revived consideration of the plan, declined to comment on any conclusions or specifics arrived at in the report and said that some revisions would be necessary.

According to Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, the report is not a conclusive document but rather "points out the various aspects and alternatives of the centralized dispatch plan, leaving the decision up to the various city councils."

Mayor King reports that further action on the centralized dispatch question probably will not come until September.

GPS Officers Earn Thanks

The mother of Janey Pekarek, the Ferry School sixth grader saved from drowning in a backyard pool by Shores Public Safety Officer Gary Mitchell in June, sent a letter to The Shores Council thanking Officer Mitchell and Sgt. James Jurcak for their quick response and exemplary performance in averting a tragic death.

The council at its regular meeting Tuesday morning, July 20, commended the officers for their performance in accordance with the high standards of the public safety department.

Officer Mitchell will receive a citation of merit for the rescue in October.

PLATFORM: LAW and ORDER and REBUILDING the ENVIRONS to GROSSE POINTE

1. We should double the size of our police forces and pay them well. We will get the kind of protection that we pay for. This should be local governments top priority.
2. We should redirect spending. Wayne County General Hospital loses 14 million dollars a year and has a high incidence of malpractice. The hospital presently costs almost double per bed, per day over any private hospital in the State of Michigan... and the taxpayers are paying for their politicians mismanagement both in budget and malpractice.
3. Your county commissioners should be bringing millions of dollars of Federal Funds which are available to your county to make it a SAFER, CLEANER, BETTER PLACE TO LIVE.
4. County Government should work to encourage builders to develop in the city... presently developers are discouraged because of this counties excessive regulation and red tape. We will keep Grosse Pointe beautiful by saving the city around it.
5. Presently our taxes are driving businesses away. The County must work with City and State to give tax incentives to businesses to stay and settle in the county as it is being done in ATLANTA, HOUSTON and TORONTO.

Rising Medical Costs Viewed by Cottage Head

Drawing a comparison between hospital bills of 50 years ago and today, Ralph L. Wilgarde, administrator of Cottage Hospital, told 12 high school students completing a medical aide co-op program at Cottage, "No one knows what the answer will be to our problem of costs."

In 1922, a bill for a 10-day stay at Cottage came to a total of $37.50, he said. The same care and services today would cost around $2,155.

"Your parents are well aware that practically everything the family uses costs more today than five years ago," Mr. Wilgarde said, stating that in 1970, the annual cost per bed at Cottage for heat, electricity and water was $304. In 1975, that cost had risen to $1,132.

The annual cost per bed for food at the hospital in 1970 was $949. In 1975, it was $1,627.

"Hospital costs are a great problem to everyone — the family, the hospital and all employers who pay for health care protection such as Blue Cross-Blue Shield as an employee fringe benefit," said Mr. Wilgarde. "The cost of health care protection obviously rises as hospital costs increase."

He spoke at the graduation ceremony Thursday, July 22, at the hospital attended by families of the 12 students who had completed a six-week course cooperatively sponsored by Pointe high schools and the hospital.

Among those congratulating the students were Mrs. Loujane Beynon, co-op coordinator of Grosse Pointe schools, and John Bruce, vice-president of the Board of Education.

The graduates, who are now qualified to work as nurses aides and orderlies in hospitals and nursing homes, include James Scott Amixen, Cathy Frances Anderson, Cathy Lynn Coppielle, David Richard Cragg, Suzin A. Hayden, Virginia Alexander Large, Sami Naguib Maywood, Anita M. Meyer, Jeffrey Theodore Van Gelderen, Gerard Edmund Vier, Kathleen Marie Sullivan and Cynthia Clare Worrell.

Resident Raps Hospital Dorm

By Susan McDonald

Neighbors of Bon Secours Hospital have had their complaints over the years—from the excessive noise generated by the giant air conditioning and absorption units to the parking and traffic congestion they attribute to the hospital.

While many of Bon Secours' problems are on the way to resolution, at least one area resident is concerned that future expansion of the institution may complicate matters even further.

Dorothy Eckert, of 408 Notre Dame, went before the Grosse Pointe City Council at its Monday, July 19, meeting to "get some answers" about the legality of Bon Secours' plans to convert a terrace apartment complex on her street into a dorm-like residence for hospital personnel.

The hospital is planning to convert the four-unit apartment at 405-415 Notre Dame into a 13-bedroom residence for nuns and a priest.

Although the renovation would not change the outside appearance of the complex, the interior would be converted into two separate living quarters — one 12 bedroom unit with dining, kitchen and study areas for the nuns and a smaller unit to house one priest.

Since the area is zoned R1B, or single family residential, Mrs. Eckert questioned the legality of the conversion.

Police Nab Drag Racers

Two young drag racers were apprehended by Shores police while zipping along Lakeshore road Thursday evening, July 21.

A 17-year-old St. Clair Shores youth is scheduled to appear in The Shores Municipal Court on the drag racing charge Wednesday, August 25. He was released on $35 bond pending his appearance. Meanwhile, a 16-year-old Detroit juvenile was released to his parents pending his appearance in Wayne County Juvenile Court.

The pair were spotted by Officer Ronald Klotz, who was on patrol along Lakeshore side-by-side and accelerating at a high rate of speed. The officer gave chase and estimated the cars were traveling in excess of 50 mph.

Both autos became caught up in traffic near Fontana lane but maneuvered between some vehicles with the St. Clair Shores youth cutting off the other boy, nearly causing an accident. They were ultimately stopped by Officer Klotz and Officer Bruce Darlington at 921 Lakeshore.

ture concept of a dorm in area.

"If this group constitutes an 'institutional family' and satisfies the zoning ordinance, then what's to stop a Hare Krishna group or boarding house from moving into the area?" she asked.

Mrs. Eckert also pointed out that after Bon Secours received city approval of its last major expansion, they promised in a written memorandum that there would be no further expansions. "And this constitutes just another bit of expansion by Bon Secours," she said.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach agreed that Mrs. Eckert had raised some "substantial legal questions" about both the zoning ordinance and the hospital's promise not to expand.

"Since the terrace arrangement, containing four separate units, was already a non-conforming use of the land, you could say that the dorm set-up would be a more conforming use, if you consider the nuns one family and the priest another," he explained.

"The entire matter will be under close scrutiny by the city's legal counsel," he said, while adding, "We have a genuine concern about the possibilities of boarding houses and other questionable uses of the area."

Bon Secours spokesman Joseph Catalano said they had submitted a complete set of blue prints to the city two weeks ago and are waiting for its decision about the necessity for a zoning variance.

Mr. Kressbach said he hopes to have the matter on the agenda at the council's next meeting Monday, August 9, at 8 p.m.

Wine Lines
by Pat Ulatowski

Exactly when it was discovered that Champagne became effervescent after bottling is uncertain. The English are usually credited with the discovery. During the 17th century they shipped vast quantities of the wine, which was very popular, in casks to England, and then transferred it to bottles, whereupon it was noticed that the wine had celebrated "sparkle". Towards the end of the 17th century, Dom perignon, a monk, was responsible for developing Champagne. He and his fellow monks noted that the wine began to effervesce, causing the cork to leap out of the bottle, and proclaimed it a "mischievous wine".

Suspect Faces Theft Charge

A 19-year-old Detroit man, who was charged with larceny from a building for allegedly taking eight pairs of blue jeans from J. C. Penney's, 19251 Mack avenue, on Sunday afternoon, July 18, also is an escapee from DeHoCo, (Detroit House of Correction), reported Woods police.

Jeffrey Johnson, of Parkside road, was arraigned on the larceny charge before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis on Monday, July 19, and pled not guilty. He was held in The Woods jail in lieu of $1,000 bond or two sureties pending his examination, which was scheduled for yesterday, July 28.

Det. Everett Plumb indicated, after a check with DeHoCo, that Johnson apparently escaped from that location in May where he was serving 30 days for simple larceny. A hold was placed on the suspect by DeHoCo and also by Warren authorities, who are investigating him on a disorderly person charge under another name.

Police were called to Penney's by an employee. He said the suspect, who first gave his name as Robert Carl Allen, was in the store with a bag of clothing which he thought the man wouldn't pay for.

He told police the suspect entered the store, looked around and then went to the department containing blue jeans.

The suspect picked up several pairs of jeans and went into the fitting room, the employee stated. He then left the fitting room carrying two pairs of jeans and a brown paper bag with other possible clothing.

When the suspect exited without paying, he was stopped by Cpl. Gerald Kensora and Officers Stephen Petrik and James Fowler.

At the station, eight pairs of blue jeans, six at $19 each and two at $14 each, were confiscated. The total value of the merchandise was placed at $142.

Police added the suspect, while he was in the cell block, escaped from DeHoCo and that his name was actually Jeffrey Johnson.

Quartet Show Set at North

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America will present a special benefit concert at North High School Friday, July 30, at 8 p.m. to raise funds for the Chapter Harmony Education program.

Featured along with the chapter's Lakeshore Chorus will be the Motor City Chorus of the Detroit Chapter, which placed seventh in international competition earlier this month in San Francisco.

The concert also will include the Banjos East and several barbershop quartets participating in the San Francisco International Convention.

Tickets, which will be available at the door, are $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for senior citizens and children under 12.

The Grosse Pointe Chapter is one of the largest chapters in the 35,000 member Barbershop Quartet Society.

WATER BILL

The Grosse Pointe City Council approved payment to The Farms of $15,799.34 for water used in April, May and June of this year. The action was taken at its Monday, July 19, regular meeting.

Lost Dog Becomes Big Hero

When the skinny, mud-caked dog snuck into their yard to chase the family pet rabbit and later give birth to five puppies last week, no one in the Warren Wilkinson family, of Woodland place, had much love for her. That all changed, though, at about 6 a.m. on Friday, July 3, when "Poopsie" awakened the family with her barking just in time for them to spot two youngsters walking off with their canoe. The two were arrested by Grosse Pointe City police shortly after and the canoe was returned. "Poopsie" is a hero but the Wilkinson's can't keep her or her puppies because of allergies. Anyone who can help them out by giving a home to one of the dogs should call 882-8848.

Councils Host Special Guest

Both The Woods and City Councils welcomed Vanessa Helin, Miss Grosse Pointe for 1976-77, and her chaperone, Mrs. Carter Billiu, at their regular meetings Monday, July 19.

The 1973 South High School graduate, who will start her senior year this fall at the University of Windsor where she's majoring in music, is scheduled to appear before The Farms Council at its regular meeting Monday, August 2. She also may appear before The Shores Council at its meeting next month.

Since Miss Grosse Pointe represents the community, Mrs. Billiu feels it's important for her to know the people who govern each municipality and for them to know her. As a result, efforts were made to have her appear before the councils.

Miss Helin participated in The Park's Bicentennial parade on June 26 and had the opportunity to meet most city officials at that time so she isn't scheduled to appear before the council.

Mrs. Billiu stressed she is available to appear before any civic or social groups and will be willing to sing, (she hopes to pursue a career in opera), upon request.

If any group or organization would like to meet Miss Grosse Pointe, a representative should call Mrs. Billiu at 865-8396.

War Memorial Hosts Romance

The War Memorial's Fries Auditorium will host the Young People's Stage presentation of "Romanoff and Juliet" Thursday-Saturday, August 5-7, at 8 p.m. and on Sunday, August 8, at 2 p.m.

Peter Ustinov is the author of this romantic comedy, which finds the son of a Russian ambassador and the daughter of an American ambassador falling in love to the great dismay of their parents.

The Young People's Stage directed by Wendel V. Hall, is an independent, non-profit theatre of the eastern metropolitan Detroit area.

Tickets for the War Memorial show are $2.50 for adults, $2 for students and $1.25 for children.

City Approves Two Variances

The Grosse Pointe City Council approved two zoning variances at its Monday, July 19 meeting, allowing John Parent, of 324 Rivard boulevard, to build a front porch on his home.

Originally built as a store in 1908, the Parent home is now occupied by three families. Mr. Parent said he hopes the new porch would make the building look more like a house than a store, as it does now, while generally improving the aesthetics of the neighborhood.

He received permission from the council to extend his building over the 35 percent lot limit. With the porch, the building would cover about 37 percent of the lot. The council also permitted a two-foot encroachment onto the front yard for the porch.

A variety of recreation related recommendations stemming from a joint meeting between the Committee of the Whole and the Citizens Recreation Commission were acted upon by the The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, July 12.

The council unanimously authorized City Engineer Larry Pate to prepare final plans, specifications and to advertise for bids on asphalt road construction at the west side of the Milk River in the Lake Front Park. The road runs between the park bridge and East Jefferson avenue.

Mr. Pate's recommendation regarding a change order also was unanimously approved by the council.

He recommended that all the sidewalk around the old swimming pool perimeter and in front of the old bath house be removed, and that, for the present, a new strip of sidewalk be constructed from the north side of the old bath house to the existing concrete deck area.

This change will increase the original contract with T

In another action, the solons unanimously authorized Mr. Pate to prepare final plans, specifications and to advertise for bids on the asphalt-paving of a parking lot near the boat ramp at the park to facilitate additional parking for picnickers and for vehicular equipment utilizing the ramp.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen estimated that the cost for this work will be around $31,000.

Then, Mr. Petersen was unanimously authorized to proceed with the installation of a concrete slab to permanently anchor the picnic shelter. The contract will be awarded to T and T Construction Co. provided that it is the lowest bidder and provided two other bids are obtained.

A recommendation from the Citizens Recreation Commission that the installation of a six-foot wide and 152-foot long concrete sidewalk be installed was unanimously approved. It will be constructed between the concession stand and the new parking lot.

Speeder Comes To Abrupt Halt

A roadblock along Lakeshore road, set up by Farms police, brought a speeding motorist, who was being pursued by a Shores officer, to a halt early Friday morning, July 23.

The driver, Edward Musialowski, 27, of Detroit, was charged with reckless driving and no operator's license on his person. He was released after paying a $75 bond and is scheduled to appear in The Shores Municipal Court on September 22.

While patrolling along Vernier road, Officer Harry Hamilton saw the motorist pass in front of him on Lakeshore at a high rate of speed.

He gave chase and said the vehicle pulled away at Oxford road at a speed of 80 mph. Giving no indication of slowing down, the driver passed other traffic along the road to the left and right.

Approaching Moross road, Officer Hamilton radioed for assistance to stop the motorist and Farms Officers Thomas Kelly, Gerald Debuschere and Phillip Miglio set up the roadblock in front of Saint Paul Catholic Church, 157 Lakeshore, stopping the driver.

At the station, police said he had no identification, and was ultimately charged with no operator's license on his person when a LEIN, (Law Enforcement Information Network), check revealed the man had a valid license to operate a motor vehicle.

Next, the council unanimously concurred in a recommendation from Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallmann that an additional slab of concrete be poured adjacent to the present bike racks at the park, and that two existing racks located near the old bath house be relocated on the slab.

At the same time, the motion stipulated that a new bike rack be purchased in the amount of $220.

A recommendation from the Citizens Recreation Commission regarding the purchase of sweat suits and rain gear for lifeguards was defeated by the council, 4-3. The request was for 20 sweat suits from Radke's Sports Shop and 10 rain gear outfits from the Woods Sport Shoppe.

Several council members, including Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan and Councilman John Sabol, felt the quoted prices of the recommended shops, particularly regarding the sweat suits, were too high in comparison to some of the other figures, while Mr. Hallmann stressed that the difference in quality of the articles was important in this respect.

Then a recommendation that the matter of the partial closing of the Lake Front Park road east of the Milk

River be delayed without further action was unanimously approved.

At one time, because of a problem of vandalism and loitering in the southeast corner of the park, it was recommended to close the road off, said Mr. Petersen.

"But since St. Clair Shores has adapted the ordinance regulating activity of private parks, (i.e., the Lake Front Park), in their city, there has been an apparent need to do it."

He added if the road was closed it would hamper picnicking in the area.

Finally, the council unanimously deleted a proposal from Dan J. Vinci regarding an ice vending machine at the park. The reason for this action is because ice will be available at the concession stand.

DREAM CASTLE

Dream of a rambling Italian Villa designed by Hugh Keyes on a one and one-half acre sloping site in Grosse Pointe Farms and surrounded by quiet oaks. French doors open to intimate gardens on one side and a long stretch of lawn on the other. The large master suite has a fireplace, as do two of the three remaining family bedrooms. Two fireplaces and a sixteen foot high hand-painted ceiling in the living room, and fireplaces in both the dining room and library provide plenty of atmosphere. As a bonus an art deco separate apartment or party room with its own kitchen and outside entrance is all part of the package.

Concrete Repair Bids Accepted by GP Woods

A total of four bids from three separate contractors were unanimously accepted by The Woods Council in relation to the city's 1976 concrete repair program. This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, July 12.

Based upon the recommendation of City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, the council awarded three separate contracts having an aggregate total of $73,925. This is $4,225 below the disqualified low bidder's total of $78,150 for the four concrete repair items, noted Mr. Petersen.

The breakdown of monies and work includes T and T Contracting Co., of St. Clair Shores, eight inch concrete street repair with the work, e.g., because of water main breaks, scattered throughout the city, $15,500.

Van Openden Construction Co., of Warren, will handle curb re-capping on Anita from Mack to Charlevoix, on Hampton from Mack to the Milk River and on Roslyn from Mack to the Milk River at a cost of $23,100.

A and T Excavating Inc., of Mount Clemens, will be responsible for both four-inch sidewalk work at $28,350 and six-inch drive approach work at $6,975. Work will primarily be in the northeast section of the city, east of Mack and north of Vernier, said Mr. Petersen.

These expenditures will be charged to the following respective funds: major street repair, local street repair, water utility fund and general fund.

Action on awarding the contracts was tabled at the June 21 meeting for further review by the council sitting as the Committee of the Whole, (C-W). However, Mr. Petersen indicated the C-W hadn't had the opportunity to review the tabulations while stressing the necessity to take action on awarding the contracts as soon as possible so all work, particularly side walk repairs, could be finished before winter.

The council also unanimously accepted the bid of Brady Plumbing and Heating in the amount of $9,675 for the Torrey Road Pumping Station sluice gate replacement based upon the recommendation of Pate, Hirm and Bogue, Inc., city engineers.

The monies will be charged to the storm water pumping account budget with the City of Harper Woods being invoiced for their pro rata share as provided in the current contractual agreement between both communities.

Woods Police Assist Girl

A Woods girl, apparently suffering from an overdose according to police, was found unconscious by responding officers at the Jack in the Box restaurant, 20599 Mack avenue, Monday evening, July 19.

While being placed in the ambulance, she regained consciousness and struggled with the officers en route to and at Saint John Hospital. One officer was bitten on the left hand by the girl and had to receive two shots as a precaution.

At the scene, police learned the girl had been involved in an altercation with other customers. She began screaming and then fell unconscious just before Officer Patrick DeVine arrived.

After being placed on the stretcher, and before being put in the ambulance, she regained consciousness and began to struggle violently, police said. The girl told officers she had taken some drugs but could not identify them.

Due to her violent nature, the officers feared she might injure herself or someone else so restraining straps were utilized. En route to Saint John, she continued to struggle and screamed at the top of her lungs, police said.

The girl broke free of the straps and ultimately had to be handcuffed.

At the hospital, the officers assisted the staff in placing her on a hospital cart. During the transfer, Officer DeVine was bitten on his hand above the thumb, causing an open wound.

He was advised by the doctor in charge to receive both a gamma globulin and a tetanus shot, and both were administered.

The hospital reported the girl was kept overnight for treatment and was released on Tuesday morning, July 20.

STREET PAYMENTS

The second progress payment for street resurfacing amounting to $32,457.99, was approved for payment to the Cooke Contracting Co. by the Grosse Pointe City Council at its Monday, July 19, regular meeting.

Home Buyers Deserve Expert Help...

..they can count on Detroit & Northern

Because we specialize in home financing, you get the best help available when you talk to one of our home loan specialists. He'll tell you about our many loan plans and options and how to determine how costly a home you can afford. At D&N there is a loan plan right for every budget. We have the popular conventional loan, as well as FHA and VA loans for those who qualify. Our home loan rates are competitive, but beyond that, the home buyer can expect much more at D&N.

Several Options...
We've been lending money to home buyers since 1889, and our experience shows in the service we render our customers. For example, at D&N we have several term options to help meet each borrower's particular needs. The term of the loan, along with the down payment amount and interest rate determine your monthly payment. Depending on the age and condition of the home, a term of up to 30 years may be selected. Ask a D&N home loan specialist to explain how your monthly payment is affected by the term you choose.

For your security, D&N offers mortgage life insurance. This protection provides for the full payment of your loan in the event of death. Disability insurance is available, too, providing for the payment of your monthly loan if the family breadwinner should become disabled.

Loan Payment Convenience...
In addition to security, D&N offers some real conveniences, too. To make your monthly payment as easy as possible, we have a plan called "Transmatic." With this plan, your mortgage payment is automatically deducted from your checking account and transferred to D&N on a set date each month. Using the "Transmatic" plan, you needn't worry about forgetting to make a payment when you are on vacation or out of town. A special trip and writing an additional check each month are eliminated when you choose "Transmatic."

Handling Details...
Many of the details involved in closing the deal will be handled by Detroit & Northern. We will arrange for an appraisal of the property, which will assist in determining the amount of the loan. If a survey is required, D&N will arrange for it. In addition, we can arrange for title insurance. D&N will perform the routine credit checks and handle the recording of your purchase. At the "closing," Detroit & Northern will assemble the various mortgage and legal documents and review them with you.

Continuing Service...
After receiving your Detroit & Northern home loan, you will enjoy the continuing services we provide homeowners. D&N will handle the payment of your property taxes, hazard insurance, mortgage life and disability insurance. For your records at the end of each year we will send you an analysis of your escrow account and a statement outlining each financial transaction.

AT DETROIT & NORTHERN YOU ARE CONSIDERED A FRIEND AND NEIGHBOR. WE VALUE YOUR BUSINESS. BEFORE BUYING A HOME, SEE A DETROIT & NORTHERN HOME LOAN EXPERT. HE'S A PROFESSIONAL.

Movie Memorabilia Is a Kennedy Keynote

By My Shenkman

When Detroiters hear the name "Kennedy" they think not of a political personality but of the genial movie host of WKBD, channel 50.

A veteran of some 15 years of the "golden days" of Hollywood, Bill Kennedy, of The Shores, has captivated the Detroit afternoon movie crowd for the last 15 years as the man who passes along movie trivia and tasty tidbits on the stars to his fans.

His knowledge comes from his personal experience in the fabulous Hollywood of the 1940's. Bill has plenty of background to be knowledgeable about.

He burned Ingrid Bergman at the stake as Thirac the executioner in "Joan of Arc," saved Adele Mara from falling off a skyscraper in "Web of Danger," and co-starred with James Arness in "Two Lost Worlds." During his time in Hollywood, he appeared in 60 movies.

In addition to his many movies he has been a local newscaster on "The Today Show" and made appearances on "The Jack Benny Show," "Dennis Day," "The Cisco Kid," "Gene Autry" and "I Married Joan."

On WKBD the dapper host handles his movie break sessions with a touch of class and dispenses his extensive first-hand information between gestures, grand jibes and witty insights.

Stars like Charlton Heston, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Carol Channing, Clint Eastwood, Milton Berle, Jane Russell, George C. Scott, Jimmy Durante, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Kirk Douglas, George Montgomery, Walter Matthau, Sidney Poitier, Harry Belafonte, Cliff Robertson, Jack Lemmon and many more have been interviewed by Bill.

He also has a claim to fame as the man who intoned, "It's a bird... it's a plane..." on the TV "Superman" show.

Bill's interest in movies resulted when he and two friends made their own film. He and two other Hollywood hopefuls put their own movie together, "The People's Choice," and cast Bill in the lead role.

The movie eventually made a million on television in the early 1950's, but the trio who made it lost everything they owned. They didn't know the ins and outs of distributing film, and got their share of fast shuffles.

Back in Detroit years later, as "Your Hollywood Host" on WWJ, Bill experienced the irony of having to pay $5,000 to show his own movie. "You have to have a sense of humor, though," he says. "We laughed all the way to the bank to borrow the money."

Bill Kennedy speaks of the cuff about the good and bad guys.

Obtaining a large photo from his file he said, "Just by looking at it one can tell who is who. The bad guy was dressed in baggy pants, unkempt black hat, he was unshaven and looked mean."

"The guy wore a good looking white hat, he was clean and neatly dressed. He never drank booze, never stabbed anyone in the back and shot only when the bad guy pulled the gun first. The good guy could never go wrong. He was unreal, almost like a saint."

"What about bad men who were shot to death, left laying and no one bothered to find out what happened to his family?" he was asked.

"That would be boring," Bill Kennedy replied. "It would detract from the plot." It is possible that because of the violence women got skimpy roles? "There were no leading parts for women," he replied. "Beautiful women were seen in movies coming to the window looking up at their hero. The woman was only important because she gave him courage to fight bad men."

His personal favorite among movie stars are those of the 1920 era. "Those were good days for comedy," he said. He recalled Harold Lloyd, and immediately produced a large picture of the comedian hanging from a clock. It was 12 stories up and the 1920 automobiles

"He did it without a stunt man. 'Safety Last' is the name of that silent movie filmed in 1924. That sort of situation comedy tickles people and it is still current, even if it happened years ago."

"You can place yourself in his shoes... out of work, kicked around by the cops. That kind of comedy will never become obsolete. It is classified as a transplant and will always be a part of art."

"Some people wonder what's funny today? Jack Benny had an answer for it. 'I don't know what's funny, but I know what isn't funny.' Nobody really knows what is funny until it gets laughs."

Continuing, he said "Charlie Chaplin had that instinct. Who would think in those days that a war movie would be funny, yet 'Shoulder Arms' turned out to be hilarious."

"Chaplin didn't want interference from his front office so he was his own producer, director and everything else, thus enabling him to run the whole show his way."

"There was no one to cut out scenes and ruin the story by making a happy ending like boy kissing girl. No one could tell him what to do or not to do, or to limit the budget because he spent his own money."

Bill Kennedy doesn't consider himself out of show business, just out of Hollywood. About leaving the show biz capital, he stated, "It was a matter of economics. I didn't work steady. It was just too much of a gamble."

"While worrying about the next picture, one doesn't have that concentration needed to do a good job when it finally comes. It was too hard on my family to be out of work three-four months between jobs."

"If I had to live my life over again," he confessed, "I wouldn't pick Hollywood for a living, although a few do make it good. But very few, like 15-20 who reach the plateau of superstars, and maybe 50 become stars. Out of 30,000 actors some 29,400 are out of work and of the 600, 500 go hungry."

"In Hollywood the odds are against you. You have to be prepared to be humiliated, to trim your ego, to take downfalls and be able to bounce back with more persistence," he noted.

"You must have real talent and you can't afford to be sensitive. You can't let rejection affect your desire and dream. You are going to be embarrassed no matter what or how you try. If you don't have those ingredients, forget it."

In an open and honest way he reveals, "I'm not dedicated to suffering a lifetime dreaming about that big break while selfishly starving my family to death. When I reached a certain age, I knew it was not going to happen to me, so I got out."

Bill Kennedy considers himself to be fortunate, because his livelihood is his hobby. "There are so many who hate what they are doing," he admits. At home he has hundreds of books about Hollywood. He enjoys anything associated with movies, plays, TV or radio.

He humbly speaks of his two-seated Thunderbird and his 1962 Rolls Royce which he frequently drives. Bill says he occasionally likes to don cowboy costumes to promote a western movie that he might be showing. He feels that being dressed like the actors in the movie helps to create the proper atmosphere.

His office shelves are filled with western costumes of all styles, shapes and colors.

He tried on for size a white cowboy hat. At the age of 68, at 6' 2", he walked 10 feet tall. Aside from his facial wrinkles, and with a sparkle of showmanship in his eyes, he looked like the hero he played in Hollywood years ago.

It probably may be true that aggressiveness will carry a man far in this world, but he needs education for ballast.

Weed Control Is Not Easy

The first step in controlling weeds in lawn or garden is knowing what weeds you have. According to horticulturists at Michigan State University, treatment that eliminates one pesky weed may only spread and encourage another.

Though people often tend to kump all weeds together, they fall into three general classes — depending on how long they live. Annuals complete their life cycle in one year. Biennials live for two seasons, producing seed in the second year. Perennials live for more than two seasons, and may live more or less indefinitely.

Perennial weeds can be further divided into two groups. Simple perennials reproduce mainly by seed. Creeping perennials may reproduce by seed, but also reproduce vegetatively.

The MSU weed experts note that creeping perennials are the biggest headache for home owners and commercial farmers because, to eliminate the plants completely, you must kill both the above-ground and below-ground parts of the plants. If sub-surface parts survive, regrowth will occur.

Cultivation, or cutting or chopping off the tops of weeds, is a common way to control annual weeds, but this will not control the creeping perennials.

Hacking up a weed like quackgrass with a rototiller, trowel or hoe will only give you more quackgrass. Each little section of underground stem will grow into a new plant.

One strategy for controlling creeping perennials is to starve them. They live from year to year on food reserves manufactured in the foliage and stored in their roots or tubers.

Repeated mowing or spraying with contact herbicides to remove or kill the tops of the weeds will leave the plants to starve to death the following winter.

Soil sterilants, which are not usually recommended for use by homeowners, and herbicides that travel through the plant and kill both above and below-ground parts will also give control.

MARINO RETIRES

Samuel A. Marino, of The Farms, has retired as manager of Automobile Club of Michigan's northeast Detroit office following 28 years of service to Michigan motorists. Mr. Marino served as Auto Club manager at northeast Detroit since 1969. Before that he was manager of the Joy-Southfield, Grand River, Wayne and West Dearborn Triple-A offices. He was first employed by Auto Club as a membership counselor at Detroit in 1947.

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS
by Tom Seiter

A balance beam is really a simple piece of apparatus that is very valuable in the development of poise and balance. Put one in your own back yard as a substitute for the unsafe practice of walking the railroad track. The balance beam is also required for conducting certain standard girl's athletic test events. The balance beam is simply a two inch plank 12 feet or more in length, set on edge, and securely held in place by short lengths of 4x4's. Rope, wire, or chain is sometimes used as a substitute for the balance beam.

Police Find Stolen Autos

Two automobiles stolen in The Woods were recovered by Detroit police minus a variety of parts.

One of the cars, a 1975 model belonging to a Utica, Mich., resident, was taken from the Saint John Hospital parking lot Sunday afternoon, July 18. It was found at a Beaufort address, a railroad spur between two buildings, on Monday, July 19, with its ignition punched and all tires, plus a radio and radiator, missing.

Then, on the 19th, a Norwood drive citizen said someone took his 1972 model, which was locked, from his driveway. That same day, a Detroit Auto Squad officer reported the car was discovered parked in an alley at the rear of a Helen road residence, Detroit. Its ignition and trunk lock were punched and three tires were found missing.

Future of Home Still Pending

By George Polgar Jr.
The still unresolved future of a home in Balfour road, which has stood vacant for 14 years, caused a lengthy squall of protests, denials and confusion at the Monday, July 26, regular meeting of The Park Council.

After considering the question at two previous meetings and granting interim periods to the owner to try and arrange the sale of the home, the council authorized the

HEARING TEST

Because most hearing losses appear gradually, a person with impaired hearing frequently is not aware of the condition until the loss has become serious and handicapping, according to officials of the Beltone Crusade for Hearing Conservation. This is a primary reason why everyone should have a hearing test at least once a year, officials add.

building department to inspect the property, inside and out, and to draw up a list of repairs that must be made to avoid condemnation of the house.

The time limit on this ultimatum depends on the extent of the repairs listed by the building department report.

The protesting neighbors from Balfour road say that time is the most important factor in the issue and they are demanding an immediate resolution. However, quick action on the problem is unlikely since all the alternatives, sale and restoration, would take more than a few weeks.

The owner of the home told the council there are three serious prospective buyers for the property but when pressed by Councilman Douglas G. Graham as to the extent of the negotiations, she conceded that there are no written offers.

"Well then it seems that we are no further along than at the last meeting," said Mr. Graham.

After clarification of the municipal nuisance ordinance, Mr. Graham went on to say that the duty of the council was not to pressure the owner for a quick sale or allow indefinite extensions to facilitate the sale, but to invoke the provisions of law which the deteriorating property violates.

Councilman Roger McNeill also opposed further delay in the matter saying, "They've had 14 years, how much more time do they need?"

The question of why the home has stood empty for so long has not been clearly answered as yet by the owner, who will only offer the defense that certain circumstances, which she is unwilling to explain, made the situation very difficult.

"There are circumstances that you, (the council and assembled citizens), don't know about," said the owner. "Do you think we wanted it this way, who needs the headache?"

According to Director of Public Service James Ellison who has inspected the home, "It is structurally sound but in a terrible state of disrepair."

To restore the home, which would involve new electrical, heating and plumbing systems, as well as new walls, would cost roughly $30,000, according to Mr. Ellison.

SERVING AS BISHOP

The Mormon Church has appointed J. Foster Irwin, of The Park, to serve as Bishop of the Church's Detroit second ward. Bishop Irwin will head a congregation of almost 500 Mormons living in the Detroit metropolitan areas of Oakland and Macomb counties. The Mormon Church is officially known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Injuries Rise in Summer Fun

Along with sunshine, warm weather and outdoor activities, summer brings a rash of cuts, bruises and broken bones. In the emergency room of Bon Secours Hospital, between 70-100 patients come through the door in any 24-hour period during the summer months, according to a hospital news release.

When five-year-old Chris of The Park came into Bon Secours' emergency room he was a frightened little boy. The tears streamed down his face as he clutched his mother's hand, and was sheepishly guided into the emergency room.

Chris had been roller skating and had crashed into a brick wall. The bleeding cut on his scalp prompted his visit to Bon Secours.

The wound on Chris' head was closed with a relatively new technique. Instead of the conventional stitches, adhesive-tape strips, called Steri-strips, were used to close out the cut. These strips are painless to apply and result in less scarring. After proper healing they are removed by a physician.

His smiling face as he left the emergency room told the whole story.

A day in the emergency room is divided into three shifts: day, 7 a.m.-3 p.m.; afternoon, 3-11 p.m.; and midnight, 11 p.m.-7 a.m. Three nurses are on duty during the day shift, four during the afternoon and two at night. A physician is on duty at all times.

The physicians are members of the hospital's active medical staff who have joined together to form the Grosse Pointe Emergency Physicians. Members of this corporation rotate to insure that the emergency room is covered by a qualified physician 24-hours a day.

In addition, there also is a specialty back-up call list made up of active medical staff members representing all areas of specialization. The physicians have their own private practices and donate their time as a community service.

Roger F. McNeill, MD, president of the corporation, said, "Working in the emergency room is of great benefit to all the participating physicians. It is necessary to keep abreast of new developments in all aspects of medicine, from internal medicine to pediatrics, orthopedics and plastic surgery."

"We also offer the physicians a comprehensive, weekly, educational program focusing on all facets of emergency medicine."

What brings people to an emergency room? The variety of patients complaints are innumerable. Cuts, infections, broken bones, headaches and medical problems such as heart attacks and abdominal pains are some of the afflictions seen every day.

Patients who come to the emergency room can benefit from a full-range of treatment from all departments of the hospital.

Meanwhile, Bon Secours' new and expanded emergency room facility is presently under construction with completion set for this fall. The new emergency room will include three trauma rooms; orthopedic room; ophthalmology room; gynecology; ears, nose and throat; east room; family consultation; and seating for 50 people.

These new facilities will contain the most modern and up-to-date equipment, enabling the hospital to provide even better and more efficient service to patients requiring emergency medical care.

by Robert V. Bates R.Ph. HARKNESS PHARMACY

The chief purpose of rest is to reduce tension — to recover from fatigue. The length of the rest period should be in proportion to the length and type of exertion. A tennis, handball, or basketball player who is participating for fun, rests frequently. As the game progresses he takes more time out periods. He finishes the game tired, but not exhausted. Remember that well-planned rest is necessary to all forms of animal life. Even plants and trees have periods in which they are dormant. It is the better part of wisdom to know when to stop and put your feet up.

What Goes on at Your Library

By Arthur M. Woodford
Chief of Central Library

Within the past few years no television series has provided more compelling viewing than "Upstairs, Downstairs," which was originated by London Weekend Television.

The program has been viewed in more than 30 countries from the United Kingdom, where it is set, to the United States, the Antipodes, Eastern Europe and the Far East.

In its many episodes the series has followed the fortunes, misfortunes and everyday lives of the Bellamy family abovestairs at 165 Eaton Place, in London's Belgravia, and those of the other "family" occupying the belowstairs region—their servants.

The series chronicles more than four decades, (1884-1929), during which time the lives of Richard Bellamy, subsequently Viscount Bellamy of Haversham, his wife, Lady Marjorie, and his son, James, daughter, Elizabeth, and ward, Georgina, have intertwined with the lives of the butler, Mr. Hudson, the cook, Mrs. Bridges, the maids, Rose, Sarah, Daisy and Ruby, and the junior serving men, Edward, Thomas, Alfred and Frederick.

As would be expected with such a popular TV series, a number of books about the Bellamys and their times have been published. Here are three of those books, all of which have recently been added to the collection of your Grosse Pointe Public Library.

In THE WORLD OF UPSTAIRS, DOWNSTAIRS, (Holt, Rinehart and Winston), author Mollie Hardwick, who was associated with the television series, gives us a finely detailed view of Edwardian England.

She weaves the story of the Bellamy household into the historical and cultural background of England from the turn of the century to the Great Depression. THE WORLD OF UPSTAIRS, DOWNSTAIRS chronicles this time-of-contrast, of social upheaval, of progress—in an immensely readable text that is richly illustrated with hundreds of old photographs, posters, drawings and television stills.

This book is a lively historical and pictorial representation of the riches and poverty, the joy and despair, the progress and destruction of an extraordinary age and of the men and women who lived it.

In THE BELLAMY SAGA, (Praeger), author John Pearson has written an engaging and engrossing historical novel. Fans of the TV series will delight in renewing the acquaintances of old friends here, in the ups and downs, romances and tragedies of the Bellamys.

The Southwolds, Richard Bellamy's in-laws, are in a way the villains of the tale for they held the purse strings. Their money and social position made Richard prisoner, a mere tenant in his home, 165 Eaton Place, a captive in both his marriage and his career.

Mr. Pearson has based his chronicle on extensive research, his novelization of the fortunes of this family is a telling portrait of how they lived through an era of drastic change, bound tragically to a social structure that was crumbling.

One of the most important people in the Bellamy household was without question Mrs. Bridges, the cook. Because of the popularity of the TV series, Mrs. Kate Bridges, (editor Adrian Bailey), was persuaded to allow some of her most prized recipes to be collected and published in book form. The result is MRS. BRIDGES' UPSTAIRS, DOWNSTAIRS COOKERY BOOK, (Simon and Schuster).

The book is divided into eight categories that made up a Victorian or Edwardian menu: stocks and sauces; soups; fish; game and poultry; meat; vegetables; desserts, puddings and savouries; and bread, cake and pastry.

Then, in turn, each category is separated into "The Upstairs Recipes" and "The Downstairs Recipes." So, for example, in the game and poultry section an Upstairs recipe is "Caneton Sauvage au Porto," while the Downstairs recipe is "Rabbit Stewed in Cider."

In the meat section, while the gentry Upstairs were being served "Gigot Roti à la Richelieu," the folks Downstairs were enjoying their "Ox-tail Braised with Parsnips."

The book occasionally strays away from kitchen and food preparation to go into personal matters about members of the Bellamy household.

Woods Cites Seniors' Day

The Woods Council unanimously concurred with a Senior Citizens Commission recommendation and authorized Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos to sign a proclamation designating the third Thursday in September as "Senior Citizens Day in Grosse Pointe Woods."

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, July 19.

The proclamation says seniors have contributed, and continue to contribute, to the welfare of the community, while noting the commission will conduct a program at the Lake Front Park for the benefit of all Woods seniors on September 16.

Irene Sutton, commission chairman, said, "We'll be going all out" towards "a gala affair for all seniors in the community." While program planning is in its infant stage, she indicated the event will include outside entertainment, games and speakers with a thrust towards making all residents aware of the activities of the commission and the seniors group, which meets twice a month.

As tentatively scheduled, the program will be held in the new pool area. "I hope for a meaningful day for all senior citizens. I want all of them to become involved," stated Mrs. Sutton, who hopes for input into the seniors' program, plus special requests regarding their needs.

Jewels & gems

by Jerry Valente

Very thin gem-quality jade seams usually are cut into thin plaques. This cutting removes pale or opaque areas, and make pieces that are amazingly thin, yet very sturdy, for such jewelry as necklaces, bracelets, and most delicate of all, earring drops. The internal structure of some kinds of jade permits detailed carvings on even delicate chips. Free growing jadeite crystals have only been found in one area of California. Generally, jade forms very compact masses of interlocking crystals, so they are difficult to shatter with a hammer.

Designers of fine jewelry since 1934, VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4806, invites you to come in and see our beautiful display of jewelry. Our desire is that your visit with us be a friendly, relaxing and enjoyable experience. Tell us what ideas you want incorporated and we will design and custom make jewelry to your taste. You may also bring in precious stones from your old jewelry and we will re-set them in a custom made setting.

Miss Lafata Speaks Vows

Former Pointer Elizabeth Rose Lafata, who has been making her home in Detroit, and Charles Richard Rinehart were married Thursday evening, July 15, in Saint Matthew's Church.

The 5:30 o'clock rites were followed by a reception at the Gourmet House, after which the newlyweds left to vacation in Hawaii. They will return to Detroit to make their home.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandmother, Mrs. Vencenza Lafata, and her uncle, Sam Lafata, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Lafata, who resided in The Woods.

Mr. Rinehart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rinehart, of Detroit.

The former Miss Lafata wore the antique ivory satin wedding gown worn by her mother in 1945, and the veil worn by her three sisters, falling from a ring of silk roses fashioned by a first cousin, Virginia Metty, who did all the wedding flowers.

Stephanotis, white and red roses, gardenias, ivy and baby's-breath formed the bridal bouquet.

Christine Callner was her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Gee Gee Omtvedt and Stephanie Vitale, two other sisters, JoAnn Lafata, a sister-in-law, the bridegroom's sisters, JoAnn Trombley and Mary Klekotka, and Nancy Fitzgerald.

Lace accented their floor length frocks of pale blue and apricot flowered print. They carried apricot and yellow silk roses in brass cricket boxes.

Joe Rinehart was his brother's best man. Ushers were Bill and Pete Rinehart, two other brothers, Tony Lafata, brother of the bride, Pete Trombley, Terry Fitzgerald and John Dollard.

The bride's grandmother's gown featured an accented ivory chiffon skirt and a bodice of silver, blue and gold-threaded paisley print, with a matching jacket. White silk roses accented her cymbidium orchid.

The bridegroom's mother selected a short-sleeved, V-necked gown of powder blue, also floor length. Her corsage was a double cymbidium orchid.

To Marry

Plans for a September 4 wedding on Mackinac Island are being made by SUZANNE MARIE SHERMAN and ARMIN WILLIAM PORTER, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin George Sherman, Jr., former Cranford lane residents who now divide their time between Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where Mr. Sherman, who owned the former Howard Johnson's restaurant in Mack avenue for 20 years, is a business broker, and Mackinac Island.

The bride-elect was graduated from Grosse Pointe South High School in 1973. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Porter, of Hampton road and Mackinac Island, was graduated from Grosse Pointe North High in 1969, and attended Northern Michigan University.

Miss Sherman is the granddaughter of Mrs. Thomas J. Flattery, whose family, the Beaubiens, were among Detroit's earliest settlers, and of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin G. Sherman, former Pointers who now make their home in Miami, Fla.

The prospective bridegroom, whose father is vice-president of Ziebart International, is the grandson of the late Phil Porter, vicar of Christ Church, Dayton, O., and Trinity Church on Mackinac Island, and of the late Armin Rickel, president of the H. W. Rickel Malt Company.

RONNA M. JACOBS, daughter of MR. and MRS. RONALD JACOBS, of Alford road, has been initiated into Zeta Pi Lambda social sorority at Capital University, Columbus, O., where she is a Nursing major and served as an on-campus orientation leader.

Vicky Enjoys 'Project Prep' This Summer

Vicky Urban, of Van Antwerp road, was among 30 students from 10 states who recently completed "Project Prep," a three-week course at DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind., designed to orient prospective college students to the demands of several professions.

The program, open to high school students who have completed their junior year and have demonstrated high academic potential and strong motivation toward college studies, also aims to help participants develop good study habits and reading skills and to emphasize the ideal of a liberal arts education for life.

Vicky and her partner, Mike Adams, of Danville, Ill., were among several students who pursued a business curriculum. They headed a simulated corporation, using computerized data relative to pricing, production, distribution, raw materials, plant expansion, marketing, demand and financing.

Their objective, using the computer, was to try to maximize profits—and they succeeded, to the extent of a $150,000 profit! Paper, of course, but it was still exciting.

Vicky and Mike spent about 18 hours per week in class and during evenings, receiving and organizing data and translating it into business decisions for the next day's operation.

They also visited local industries, and found time for golf, tennis, bowling and swimming during their three-week stay at DePauw, where they lived with qualified counselors in university residence halls.

The M. J. Hendrikses

Marriage vows were spoken Saturday evening, July 10, in Grosse Pointe Christian Reformed Church by LINDA LEE DICE, daughter of the Robert E. Dices, of Sunset lane, and Mr. Hendrikse, son of the John Hendrikses, of Sheboygan, Wis.

Miss Dice Married To M. J. Hendrikse

Massachusetts Home Awaits Newlyweds upon Their Return from Northern Michigan Vacation; Bride Wears Ivory Qiana

Entertaining at a reception at their Sunset lane home following the wedding of their daughter, Linda Lee Dice, and Michael J. Hendrikse Saturday, July 10, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Dice.

The newlyweds will return from a vacation in northern Michigan to make their home in Whitinsville, Mass.

The Reverend George VanderHill came from Wheaton, Ill., to officiate at the 6 o'clock rites in Grosse Pointe Christian Reformed Church, for which the bride chose a V-necked gown of ivory Qiana, Empire-waisted, its circular skirt ending in a long train, its sleeves in double tiers of ivory chiffon.

A matching fingertip veil of ivory chiffon completed her ensemble. She carried an all-white bouquet of stephanotis, daisies, mums and Sweetheart roses.

Her attendants' Empire-waisted frocks of Nile green polyester matte jersey featured ruffled shoulders and caplet sleeves. Their V-necked ended in mandarin collars.

Mrs. Jack VanderMale was honor matron. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Mentink and LuAnn and Jeanne Hendrikse. Their all-white bouquets featured stephanotis.

Mr. Hendrikse, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hendrikse, of Sheboygan, Wis., asked Mr. Mentink to act as best man. Ushers were Charles Kemink, Mr. VanderMale and Robert E. Dice, Jr.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length, V-necked gown of pale blue Qiana, styled with long sleeves. The bridegroom's mother's floor length peach gown was floral-printed.

Both the bride, a South High School graduate, and the bridegroom, an alumnus of Sheboygan North High School, attended Calvin College.

Detroit Film Theatre to Launch Sixth Season of Big Screen Programs

Detroit Film Theatre launches its sixth season on the big screen of the Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium this weekend, July 30 and 31 and August 1, adding regular Sunday attractions to its established Friday and Saturday evening schedule.

A total of 61 films from 11 countries will be screened in quality 35mm prints through the end of the season on December 18.

DFT program director

Elliott Wilhelm will open the season with Jean Renoir's lost masterpiece, "La Chienne," (July 30, at 7 and 9:30 o'clock).

Pointers ELIZABETH CAULKINS JOHNSON and REID MICHELLE NASON have received their Bachelor of Science degrees, the former's in Home Economics, the latter's in Education, from the University of Vermont.

Robert Altman's "Nashville," (July 31, 7 and 10 o'clock), and Josef von Sternberg's "Shanghai Express" (August 1, 7 and 9:30 o'clock).

Friday evening continues the policy of new films or those which have had minimal commercial exposure in this area, including "Who's That Knocking At My Door," Martin Scorsese's first feature film, and the controversial "Grey Gardens" documentary of Edith Bouvier Beale and her daughter in their decaying East Hampton mansion.

Proven cinema masterpieces on Saturday's schedule include "The Godfather," Parts I and II, Luis Bunuel's "The Exterminating Angel," (Mexico, 1962), and Truffaut's "Stolen Kisses," (France, 1969).

DFT's Sunday programming will bring "A Tribute to the Great Hollywood Cameramen," eight new 35mm prints of Hollywood classics, including "Touch of Evil," "Sweet Smell of Success," and "The Long Voyage Home," and "Soviet Cinema Today," 10 recent 35mm films from the USSR never seen before in Detroit. General admission tickets are $2 for adults; $1.50 for students and senior citizens at the Art Institute Ticket Office. Information on discount ticket books and season brochures may be obtained by calling 832-2730.

Crowds Enjoy Xmas in July

Temperatures were in the 90's, but even predicted rain didn't deter over 10,000 Kern Block visitors to the Christmas celebration-exhibition of the Boys Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit.

Greeted with the songs and spirit of Christmas, guests of the BCMD toured exhibits and participated in free games and contests, while TV cameras relayed the festivities live on Dennis Wholey's "AM Detroit" show.

BCMD officials said the public display was truly successful in its goal of fostering a better public understanding of the Boys Clubs' objectives and activities, and their importance to youngsters during crucial formative years.

The exhibits and demonstrations showed the wide range of free medical and dental, counseling, recreational and educational services the BCMD offers at its nine centers throughout metropolitan Detroit.

As a result of the day-long event, BCMD officials expect more youngsters who have turned to "the street" for companionship will now go to a Boys Club center where a variety of professionally-directed activities offer friendship, guidance and instruction from dedicated adults, many of them volunteers.

Orchard Lake Ladies Plan Sparkling Affair

More than 600 ladies, topping last year's record attendance, are expected to share in the fun and festivities of the seventh annual Orchard Lake Ladies Dinner Wednesday, August 11, at Royalty House in Warren.

Deadline for reservations is Sunday, August 1. Information is available by calling the Ladies Dinner Office at the Schools, 682-1885.

The $50-a-ticket affair begins at 5 o'clock with a cocktail reception followed by a display of jewelry and silverware by Charterhouse and Company of Grosse Pointe.

Estate and antique silver pieces, including a silver pitcher made in 1776, will add a Bicentennial note to the exhibit.

Proceeds, which have amounted to nearly $75,000 from the first six parties, will benefit St. Cyril and Methodius Seminary, St. Mary's College and St. Mary's Preparatory, the three academic institutions comprising the Orchard Lake Schools northwest of Detroit.

Pointers SHARON L. KNAPP, CLIFFORD A. PEABODY, HEIDI W. STREK, PAUL J. RINKE and COLLEEN ANN SCHLEICHER have been named to the Spring Term Northwood Institute Dean's List.

Volunteers' Braille Transcription Classes resume in September at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Mrs. John McNamara, voluntary teacher for the last 11 years, will again serve as instructor.

She will be assisted by Miss Eva Carabell, who has worked as a volunteer for the past nine years.

Anyone looking for a worthwhile project for the winter months may call 881-9566 for further information about the class.

Honor attendant Maureen Strange's mint green frock was halter style, accented with emerald green and white inserts. She wore a matching capelet.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically in emerald green with mint and white insert accents, were Jill Heuvelman, sister of the bridegroom, and Sue and Peggy Shine, the bride's sisters. They carried brass cricket boxes with yellow silk roses and dried flowers in varying shades of green, matching their gowns.

Best man was Ron Schut. Randy Dyke and James,

Thomas and Daniel Shine, brothers of the bride, seated the guests.

The mother of the bride pinned a corsage of yellow silk roses and dried flowers to her emerald green chiffon print dress. The bridegroom's mother accented her sleeveless, aqua jersey gown with a corsage of pink silk rosebuds and dried flowers.

Both the bride and bridegroom are Central Michigan University graduates. She received her degree this May. He was graduated a year earlier.

'Mad Anthony' Wins the West for America

Most Americans believe the biggest Indian victory over the United States Army was the defeat of General George Custer by Chief Crazy Horse and his allies in 1876. This is wrong, according to Wayne State University History professor and archivist Dr. Philip P. Mason.

"A much more impressive and crippling defeat of the U.S. Army was the near annihilation of the army of General Arthur St. Clair in Ohio by joint Indian forces November 4, 1791," says Mason.

"St. Clair's army suffered about 870 fatalities, and had almost another 300 wounded. The Indians killed two-and-a-half times more soldiers in Ohio than were lost in Custer's last stand.

"And the St. Clair defeat seriously impeded the westward expansion of the United States.

"The English had ceded the Northwest territories, including the present states of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, to the U.S. in the treaty which ended the Revolutionary War. But the British retained control of the territory and the Indians who lived there because, quite frankly, the U.S. didn't have the power to make them move," continues Mason.

The defeat of the St. Clair forces followed another Indian conquest a year earlier, of an army commanded by General Josiah Harmar.

"I think the situation after the bloody defeat of St. Clair's forces must have been one of the darkest periods of President George Washington's administration," says Mason.

"By arming the Indians and encouraging them to raid and burn pioneer settlements through such agents as the famous renegade Simon Girty, the English effectively retained control of the territory and the rich fur trade north and west of the Ohio River.

"The American Government seemed powerless to assume control of the western forts they had won in the Revolution."

This was the picture when George Washington appointed Revolutionary War hero "Mad Anthony" Wayne. Wayne had earned his nickname in the Revolution through his daring in such battles as the successful storming of Stony Point.

General Wayne took command of the Legion of the United States in June, 1792, and began to whip his undisciplined frontiersmen into a trained army. He took his time, but when the Legion moved north into Ohio it was ready.

In early skirmishes he

State Museum Guide Issued

The Historical Society of Michigan has published a "Bicentennial Directory of Historical Museums in Michigan" listing 90 museums throughout the state.

Designed to serve as a visitor's guide, the directory lists museums by city and includes museum hours and admission fees. The directory also includes a section on special exhibits at major museums scheduled July through December, 1976.

According to Frank C. Wilhelm, director of the State Historical Society, the directory was compiled because of the increased interest in learning about Michigan's heritage during the Bicentennial era.

"Collectively, these museums represent a substantial part of the important effort to preserve our state's cultural heritage," Wilhelm notes.

The directory was published with the assistance of the

Pointers Help Preserve Meadow Brook Hall

A pair of Pointers, Lawrence DuMouchelle and Philip Meathe, are members of a special Commission on the Preservation and Maintenance of Meadow Brook Hall appointed recently by Oakland University at the request of Meadow Brook Hall Management.

The group, which will meet twice yearly, has several high-priority projects currently underway. Wall tapestry is being cleaned and re-hung. Improvements to the approach bridge outside the Hall are being made. A silk Oriental rug is being cleaned.

The Commission will review maintenance programs on a regular basis, offering guidance and counsel on procedures and properties most appropriate to the long-range preservation and function of the Tudor-style mansion, home of the late Mrs. Alfred Wilson, now open to the public for tours and for use as a daytime and overnight conference center.

The Dance Clinic is a feature of the Meadow Brook Music Festival. It is open to students of high school age or older, who must obtain and return completed application forms by this Monday, August 2.

Thanks to the Third and Fourth Amendments of our Constitution, you may refuse entrance to your home to almost anyone. That includes government officials; they must have a formal warrant, issued by a judge, that specifically describes what they are looking for. If the government forces its way in anyway, you may have good cause for a suit. When a civilian barges in uninvited, he is trespassing, and you can call upon the law to help you make him leave.

When a home is listed with a Real Estate Broker all showings are by appointment. When a Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. representative shows you a home you are entitled to protect your purchaser with their exclusive "Buyers Protection Plan"—A $100 deductible one year warranty underwritten by E.R.A. (Electronic Realty Associates). There is no other Broker in Grosse Pointe that can offer such a peace-of-mind!

Behind-the-Scenes with Mandy

Amanda Mengden, daughter of the Joseph Mengdens, of Kenwood road, is back at Traverse City's Cherry County Playhouse this summer, tucking more experience under her belt before she reports to New York's famous Syracuse Stage, where she'll be an apprentice stage manager come fall.

It's behind-the-scenes theater that fascinates Mandy. Last year she was a Cherry County apprentice. This year she's a staff promotional assistant, busy with all sorts of things, from typing releases to arranging housing for Playhouse actors to distributing promotional materials throughout the Grand Traverse area.

Props, costumes and sets are all of great interest to Mandy, who has attended the University of Eight hundred guests filled the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club recently as the sixth annual "Bottoms Up" party proved as smashing a success as its predecessors.

Anthony Wayne Is Michigan Hero

Finally, on August 20, 1794, in an area covered with trees toppled by a tornado along the Maumee River southwest of Toledo, General Wayne's forces routed the combined Indian armies.

The English had built a fort near the battlefield and promised support for the Indians; however, when the Indian forces fled, British sentries refused them sanctuary in the fort and drove them from the gates with bayonets.

The victory by Wayne accomplished what General Washington had hoped for. Within three months the British had agreed to evacuate the western forts as part of the Jay Treaty.

A year later, the Indian tribes of the Northwest Territory met with General Wayne at Fort Greenville in Ohio and signed a treaty accepting the Americans as their new allies.

A force from General Wayne's Legion arrived in Detroit July 11, 1796, and raised the first U.S. flag over Michigan. July 11 is now recognized by the Michigan Legislature as Anthony Wayne Day.

Following the departure of the British, all of Michigan and much of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin was named Wayne County by an appreciative government.

Introducing Sabroso.

"Savory, delicious, palatable, tasty, pleasant, delightful.."

—Appleton's New Spanish-English Dictionary.

Who are we to quarrel with noted authorities?

After all, we make Sabroso Imported Coffee Liqueur to be the richest, smoothest coffee liqueur you can buy.

Some say it's the world's richest coffee liqueur. They can go on saying it.

We gather the finest coffee beans in all of Mexico to make Sabroso. They provide the flavor, the body, the coffee-ness that extracts just do not have.

Try it straight. On the rocks. Or in a mixed drink. After dinner—or after anything. You'll see why we insist on making Sabroso from scratch.

Yet at $6.10, this rich liqueur is many pesos less than the leading brand.

Our liqueur is so rich, we had to call it "Sabroso"—Spanish for "savory, delicious, palatable," etc. That's why of all the coffee liqueurs, we get rave reviews in every Spanish-English dictionary.

By Janet Mueller

One was, at one time, a bakery manager, one an embalmer, and one played professional baseball. All turned, eventually, to education, and Grosse Pointe has reason to be glad of that. Now they've said goodbye to the classroom, and Grosse Pointe—Grosse Pointe North High School, specifically—wishes them well.

But it's hard to see them go.

Orie Liechty is going a far ways, to north central Florida. He and Thelma, who stopped teaching in St. Clair Shores two years ago, are going to build there, (the house plans are all ready), in a rural area.

For Thelma, who's kept busy since her retirement with Cottage Hospital volunteering and work for her church, Lakeshore Presbyterian, it's rather like going home. She's originally from the south.

A Midwesterner
Mr. Liechty is a midwesterner, born in Henry County, Iowa, where the schoolhouse wasn't quite one room. Orie's first classroom was half of a two-room schoolhouse.

He was graduated from high school in Wayland, Iowa, earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Mathematics, with a minor in Chemistry and English, from Upper Iowa University, his Master of Science from the State University of Iowa and has done additional work at Wisconsin State College, Wayne State University, the University of Michigan and Michigan State University.

There was time out from his studies for a three-year World War II stint with the Eighth Air Force in England before Mr. Liechty settled, most happily, into a career in education.

"I have loved mathematics so much that I never wanted to get out of the classroom." He's an officer in the Michigan Council of Teachers of Mathematics. His schedule this past year has included ninth grade algebra, 10th grade geometry and 11th grade honors math.

"I have learned new things every year," Mr. Liechty certainly doesn't believe today's students are any less bright than yesterday's. "They're taking courses in high school I took in college."

Son and Daughter
He and Thelma have a son and a daughter. Caryl lives in Detroit, Stephen, an actuary with an insurance company, in Reston, Va. There's a grandson, too, courtesy of Stephen and his wife: nine-month-old Robert Orie.

Mr. Liechty is an Elder in Lakeshore Presbyterian Church. He taught for 12 years in Wisconsin and Iowa before coming to Grosse Pointe South High School, moving to North when it opened.

He's taking early retirement after 22 years in The Pointe. "I'll play a whole lot more golf than I ever had time for." When the Florida house is built, he and Thelma may take off to see the west—part of the USA. "Maybe we'll go to Europe again." In the meantime, there'll be time for reading and gardening, two of Mr. Liechty's favorite things. He's pretty content with a camera, too.

Orie Liechty is the ex-bakery manager in the North High retiring teachers' trio. He ran a bakery for two years when money for his own education temporarily ran out. It was the Depression; the future teacher of mathematics always gave a Baker's Dozen to his customers.

College athletic scholarships, in John Corbin's college days, didn't continue if you got hurt. He got hurt. So he left Mount Saint Mary's College in Emmetsburg, Md., in 1929 and came back north, (he'd been born and raised in Danbury, Conn.).

Used Biology
"I had a biology background, so I used it," in New York, in the 30's, he was a funeral director and embalmer with Frank E. Campbell, Campbell's, perhaps the most famous funeral home in the world, handled such luminaries as Rudolph Valentino and Lou Gehrig.

Navy service in World War II took Mr. Corbin to Hawaii, Japan, New Zealand and Australia. After the war came a job as a biology lab assistant at Champlain College—and finally, in 1950, he got his Bachelor of Arts degree, with a major in History and Political Science and a minor in Social Science, from Michigan State University.

He'll be getting his Ph.D. after retirement. He has all the credits, and as soon as he moves into his new home in Florida, he'll start on his residency requirement.

The University of Florida is in Gainesville, about 15 miles from Spring Hill where the Corbins finished building in February. "And then I had to hire somebody to take care of the grass." Seems the sod, which had to go in as soon as the house was done, has got to be watered regularly, and no way could Mr. Corbin do that job long distance.

It will be nice to get to Florida. John and Iva June Corbin, (she's a nurse, and former teacher of the Psychology of Nursing at Ford Hospital), will be only about five miles from a golf course. That's as the road winds; as the crow flies, they're only a mile and a half away, but there's a big hill in between.

Mr. Corbin is thinking about ways to conquer that hill. Semi-Retirement
He's also thinking about ways to keep his hand in education. He'd like to work six, maybe eight hours a week, and there's a job possibility at Hernando-Pecos Junior College outside Brooks-ville.

Mr. Corbin picked up his Master of Arts degree from MSU in 1952. He has done additional work at Wayne State University and the University of Michigan.

He taught in Lansing for three-and-a-half years, and was also assistant to the registrar at MSU for a year before arriving in The Pointe to teach Social Studies at Parcels in 1955.

He came to South High in 1962. He was Social Studies Department chairman at South until 1968, when North opened. From then until now, he's been North High Social Studies Department chairman.

He's a member of Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Delta Kappa professional organizations. His final year schedule has included courses in regular and advanced placement U.S. History, and Humanities.

Likes Drop-Ins
His kids come back, and he likes to see them. They're doctors, lawyers, nuclear physicists . . . a girl who lives in England now, and runs a photography studio, dropped in during a trip home this spring.

John Corbin will miss seeing his "old" students return to look up their "old" teacher. But they can still write. He's liked the letters he's gotten almost as much as the visits.

Considering the schedule he's set for himself, it's hard to think of Mr. Corbin in retirement. But he'll probably NED VAN HAMM, son of MRS. GILMORE S. VAN HAMM, of Cranford lane, has been appointed Special Service Manager for CBS Television Production in New York.

JANEEN TRINGLEY, daughter of the TRACY H. TINGLEYS, of Rivard boulevard, has been graduated from Wells College, Aurora, N.Y., with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Among students who received their degrees with honors from Pine Manor Junior College this spring was VIRGINIA MARIE THIBODEAU, daughter of the ROBERT L. THIBODEAUS, of Stephens road.

Attending the National Square Dance Convention in Anaheim, Calif., June 24 through 26 were MR. and MRS. ROBERT GOODHAND, of Charlevoix avenue, and ADELE C. RYDER, of East Williams court.

Awarded his Ph.D. at June 22 Wayne State University commencement ceremonies at Cobo Hall was JOSEPH L. POSCH, JR., of Fontana lane. Dr. Posch did his doctoral work in Evaluation and Research.

BRIAN D. KOLOWICH, son of MR. and MRS. FRED find a bit more time for travel with Iva June. They've visited the British Isles and Europe, and the western United States, John taking all the pictures he can. Photography is one of his hobbies.

Like golf. Now: if he can just figure out a way to get rid of that hill . . .

Ed Wernet played professional baseball for four years before settling, firmly, into a career in education. In that career, he's become a legend in his own time.

He's taking early retirement after 30 years in Grosse Pointe. (Before that, there were three-and-a-half years at Vassar High School and a half-year in Owosso), during which he's compiled an outstanding record as a coach and athletic director.

Testimonial Dinner
He's in demand as a speaker. When word got out that he was about to retire, he was in demand as a guest of honor, too: the testimonial dinner at Hillcrest Country Club put together by his former players and friends was a rousing, roaring success, and Ed loved his good-bye gift.

It was a canoe, a fitting present for a man who has sponsored canoe trips and still enjoys doing the Hiawatha bit whenever he can.

Actually, he still enjoys doing everything. Fishing, sailing, snow skiing, (he's still into downhill) tennis, swimming, hunting. Reading, gardening, camping, golf.

Everybody's worried about what Ed's going to do after retirement but Ed. He's just reversing priorities. "I'll do a lot of the same things." But where he once had to squeeze his recreations around his professional commitments, he'll now try to squeeze a commitment or two, (a speaking engagement, say), around his recreations.

Ed Wernet's the classic example of Local Boy Makes Good. Born in Detroit, he's a Grosse Pointe High School alumnus. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree from Western Michigan University, where he was recipient of the Athletic Scholarship Medal.

M.A. from WSU
He picked up his Master of Arts degree in 1952 from Wayne State University. He's done additional work at the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit, and holds a Specialist degree from Michigan State University.

Get Well Wishes for Leona

Our most sincere wishes for a speedy recovery to Leona Liddle, who "held Grosse Pointe Woods together" for years as City Clerk.

Leona had been enjoying her well-earned retirement until a fall left her in Saint John Hospital, with broken vertebrae. We hope—no, we KNOW—she'll be out soon.

KOLOWICH, of Touraine road, was recently elected president of SAE fraternity at Tulane University, where he is a senior majoring in History.

EDWARD C. SWART, of Rivard boulevard, recently received a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Wayne State University. Dr. Swart is a psychologist at the Northeast Guidance Center.

WILLIAM H. KREBS, Ph.D., of Bishop road, has been elected to a three-year term on the board of directors of the American Industrial Hygiene Association, a world-wide professional organization for specialists in occupational health sciences. During his 15-year professional career, Dr. Krebs has been involved in conducting research, consulting and establishing programs in industrial health and air pollution control. He is chairman of the AIHA's Air Pollution Technical committee, and served on the board of the Michigan Industrial Hygiene Society from 1972 to 1974.

Grosse Pointe North High School principal G. BRUCE FEIGHNER recently attended a two-day National Foreign Policy Conference for Educators in Washington, D.C. Among the topics discussed by several top U.S. administrators were current trends in foreign policy, food and population crisis around the world, the United Nations and the role of the educator in U.S. foreign policy.

and two friends were riding. Rick's friends and the couple in the other car were killed. Rick was paralyzed.

Ed wrote a letter. It was all he could do. He wrote it from the heart. "This could well be the greatest battle of your life," he told Rick. It was a battle, Ed said, he knew Rick could win.

And Rick has. He's in business with his father. He was at Hillcrest to wish Ed Wernet well. "I gained a new dimension in my life," says Ed, "through my contact with Rick."

Ed has three children of his own: Ed, Jr., Tom and Linda. Their mother, Mary, retired as Counselor and Guidance chairman at Brownell last year.

She and Ed love to take off in their Airstream camper. Ed's been all over the United States and Canada. He's traveled in South America, Spain, Italy and France. He's been to Africa, Sicily and The Philippines.

There's Lake St. Clair in his backyard "in town," the north branch of the Au Sable at his doorstep "up north." There's the whole wide world beyond.

"There won't be enough time for all the things we want to do," Mary Wernet said when she retired. Like Ed, she's never been worried about filling up those extra hours.
