OHIO CONGRESSMAN Wayne Hays resigned from Congress Wednesday with a brief, no-apologies letter. Hays, ruined politically by Elizabeth Ray's allegations he maintained her as his mistress on the public payroll, bowed out of a 28-year career that saw him reach the pinnacle of congressional power. The resignation was the last move in the step-by-step destruction of Hays' congressional power and seemed certain to stop cold the House Education Committee's planned investigation of the Hays-Ray affair.

Friday, September 3

STATE ATTORNEY GENERAL Frank Kelley filed suit Thursday to stop a small, rural public school district from allowing religious instruction in school during classroom hours. The suit against the Camden-Frontier School District marks the first time in recent history the State has gone to court to prevent religious programming in public schools, according to a Michigan Department of Education official. The outcome of the suit could have far-reaching implications, since at least two dozen states are looking for ways to skirt the 1963 U.S. Supreme Court ban on school prayer.

PRESIDENT FORD SAID Thursday there are no funds to fire FBI director Lawrence Kelly for accepting gifts and services from subordinates, and Mr. Kelly will remain in his post. The President agreed with the finding Attorney General Edward Levi that the gifts Mr. Kelly received from subordinates are permissible under government ethics standards. He should be allowed to continue reimbursing the government for any questionable items.

Monday, September 6

THREE PALESTINIAN hijackers released the 75 passengers and five crew members of a Dutch jetliner yesterday in exchange for a safe conduct promise from Greek Cypriot authorities, airport officials said. The freed hostages, including two Americans, were brought to the airport terminal building by bus from the DC9 that had been parked at the edge of the small airport's runway for four hours. The hijacked plane had horseshoed around the Mediterranean before landing on Cyprus. The hijackers had threatened to blow up the plane and its passengers unless Israel released eight prisoners.

Tuesday, September 7

COMMUNIST VIETNAM in what it said was a gesture of good will, gave the U.S. Embassy in Paris Monday the names of 12 American pilots listed as missing in the Vietnam war and said they were killed in action. The list included seven U.S. Air Force airmen and five from the Navy. The Vietnamese embassy in Paris sent the list to the U.S. Embassy and issued a press release containing all vital information, with the exception of where or how the men died.

Schools Hold Orientation for New Teachers

New teacher orientation for the 1976-77 year was held on Thursday, September 2, for 17 newcomers to the professional staff of the Grosse Pointe Public School System. Those participating included, (from left to right), MARK DAVIDS, physics at South High School; SANDRA BRACCI, art at Brownell; DR. WILLIAM COATS, superintendent of schools; and GERALD HOPP, art at Parcels. (See story, Page 12).

City Woman Killed in Auto Mishap

She Was Passenger in Auto Which Was Struck Broadside by Another Vehicle

A Brooklyn, N. Y., man was arraigned on charges of manslaughter in The City Municipal Court on Monday, September 5, in connection with the auto death of Karen Sue Keys, 33, of 15118 St. Paul avenue, on Friday, September 3.

Police said the man, Thomas F. Sobojun, 20, is currently being held in The City jail in lieu of $10,000 personal bond. His exam is set for Wednesday, September 15.

The victim was traveling east on St. Paul at about 8:15 p.m. as a passenger in an auto driven by her mother, Nellie Glass, of 1513 St. Clair avenue, according to City police.

Sobojun, officers said, was driving northbound on Notre Dame avenue, failed to stop for a sign at the intersection and slammed broadside into the Glass auto.

Two Others Hurt

Also injured in the accident was the victim's 9-year-old daughter, Elisa, who was treated and released from Bon Secours Hospital.

A passenger in Sobojun's car, Marie Theresa Siacowicz, 23, of 937 Nottingham road, is reported to be in fair condition at Bon Secours as of Tuesday morning, September 7.

Proposed School Budget Incorporates New Concept In Area of Accounting

Comparing Figures for 1976-77 School Year with Those of The Past Will Create Confusion Because of Different Approach

By Susan McDonald

Public school budget-watchers may have a very rough time following the accounts at this year's hearing, scheduled for Monday, September 13, at 8 p.m. in the South High School Auditorium.

The reason is a new accounting system which school officials warn will make a line-by-line comparison of this year's budget to past budgets next to impossible.

The new "program budgetary concept," implemented in September 1975, is aimed at giving administrators a much more detailed look at the cost of specific programs, according to Assistant to the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. George T. Eddington.

Other Factors

The process was complicated even more this year by additional changes in the State budget manual calling for new budget categories.

Dr. Eddington said, where possible, specific account comparisons will be made, but in many cases that will be impossible.

A budget summary released by the Board of Education shows anticipated revenues of about $21.7 million for the 1976-77 year—almost a $2 million increase over last year.

Proposed general fund expenditures are about $10.5 million for instruction; $2.8 million for operation and maintenance; $1.7 million for business services; and $1.1 million for administration.

A comparison of these figures to those in the 1975-76 budget, for instance, would indicate a reduction of $2 million spent on instruction and an increase of almost $500,000 in administrative costs.

Those figures, though, are misleading, according to Dr. Eddington. The decrease in instructional monies is due to the fact that, under the new system, principals' and building secretaries' salaries have been switched out of instructional and into administrative categories.

Copies of the new proposed budget are available at the Administration Offices, 389 St. Clair avenue.

War Memorial Dinner Sept. 27

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association's annual dinner meeting for current contributors has been set for Monday, September 27, at 7 p.m.

All contributors are invited and urged to attend.

Following dinner in the Crystal Ballroom, the group will be entertained by Alexander Sucek, troubadour, and the Center's folk guitar teacher.

Mr. Sucek also will demonstrate, with class members, his unique methods of getting them to accompany themselves in song in one lesson.

He sings in nine different languages and teaches his students music and songs from many lands. Mr. Sucek also is the founder of the Center's Grosse Pointe Summer Music Festival.

Following the program, there will be a brief business meeting where those attending will receive reports of the Center's various committees, a financial statement and explanation, learn about the Center's achievements and plans for the future and vote on new members for the board of directors.

The meeting will be presided over by William D. Dahling, president.

Reservations at $8.50 per person, (tax and service included), are requested at the Center's office by Wednesday, September 22.

Two Woods B-E's Have Similar MO

Detective Bureau Investigates Nighttime Visits by Thief Who Takes Only Money

Two breaking and entering incidents, which feature a similar method of operation, (MO), have led Woods police to believe the same suspect could readily be involved in each.

The incidents, both of which were reported Friday, August 27, occurred during the evening and/or early morning hours and, in each case, only money was taken. One occurred at a Blairmore court residence and the other at an Eastbrook court home.

"I definitely feel there's a relationship between the two regarding the suspect," said Det. Charles Philip Hamel, who's investigating the cases. As the search continues for the suspect, officers are giving the area special attention, he added.

Takes $15-20

At the Blairmore court home, the woman said the culprit took between $15-20 from a wallet which was in her purse. No other articles were found missing. Meanwhile, at the Eastbrook court residence, 28 cents was removed from a wallet located in a purse.

The Blairmore court woman said on Thursday evening, August 26, she left her purse, containing the wallet, on a living room chair on the first floor. After waking up the next morning, she found the door open on the south side of the home standing open and the wallet on the living room floor.

Police said it appeared the culprit entered the home through the unlocked door. The thief left through the backyard and went over a fence.

The woman told police from 1-7 a.m. the entire family was asleep on the second floor.

Runs from House

In the second incident, the complainant's daughter, 19, was awakened between 4:30-5 a.m. and observed a male subject standing in her bedroom. The girl jumped out of bed and the man ran down the stairs and out of the house.

She checked to see if her brothers were awake but they were in their room sleeping.

Investigation revealed that the girl's wallet had been removed from her purse, which had been kept on a bedroom chair. The change was missing. (Continued on Page 6)

Pointe Officials View Proposals On Drinking Age

Most Favor Move to Increase Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages Back to 21; Pros and Cons of Topic Discussed

By George Polgar Jr.

Four years ago a wave of enthusiasm about giving younger people the opportunity to assume the rights and responsibilities of adulthood became a reality in a State legislative package granting full legal status to 18-year-olds. Now a similar wave of emotion may reclaim one of the most critical rights included in that package, the right of 18-year-olds to buy and consume alcoholic beverages.

Citing alarming traffic statistics of alcohol-related mishaps in the 18-21 age group, and reports of disciplinary problems in high schools linked to alcohol abuse, the staff of the Office of Substance Abuse Services, (OSAS), of the Michigan Department of Public Health submitted a recommendation which supports legislation to change the legal drinking age from 18 to 19 to its Advisory Commission.

The commission voted 5-1 against the proposal saying that the evidence presented in favor of the change was not conclusive. The lone dissenting vote in that decision was cast by Michigan Appeals Court Judge George Bashara, of The Woods.

Turn Stats Around

The OSAS staff recommendation is being submitted to Gov. William Milliken over the decision of the Advisory Commission.

Judge Bashara strongly supports the change in the drinking age and suggests that the counter arguments offered by the Licensed Beverage Assoc. are simply manipulations of the statistics to make them agree with their purposes.

"The Licensed Beverage Assoc. is the main opposition and they are using the same traffic statistics as the supporters of the change," said Judge Bashara.

"But they are turning the statistics around a little and they are coming out quite differently. Instead of reading the increase of 18-21-year-olds involved in alcohol-related auto mishaps in relation to all traffic accidents, they are looking at the increase compared to all drivers in that age group."

According to this interpretation, although there is an increase in traffic accidents among all drivers in the 18-

LWV to Meet September 15

The League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe, (LWV), will hold a general meeting on Wednesday, September 15, at Ruth Conover's house, 1003 Berkshire road, to preview the league's 1976-77 year.

The meeting begins at 9:30 a.m.

A consistent and disturbing activity in the Pointes, year in and year out, is the destruction of property and ensuing costs as a result of individuals, mostly young people, discharging B-B or pellet guns.

Such activity is a constant concern to local police departments and the Youth Service Division, (YSD), which primarily investigates B-B and pellet gun incidents in relation to young people. In reflecting over a case several years ago, when some youths rode along Mack avenue firing B-B's into store windows, (causing well over $10,000 in damages before being arrested), YSD Det. ## GPW Police, City View New Pact

Negotiations Continue Between Both Sides; Each Hopes for Settlement Soon

By Roger A. Waha

Negotiations, which began early this summer, are continuing between representatives of the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Officers Association, (GPWPOA), and the city towards an agreement which will affect 38 officers, including three corporals.

Both sides are hopeful that a settlement can be reached soon but at this point in time it's difficult to say when that will be.

Officer Michael VanDeGinste, president of the GPWPOA, stated it was hard to say when an agreement will be reached, while indicating his hope a settlement might become a reality within a couple of weeks. But he added both sides weren't real close, and he hoped a further negotiating session would be conducted this week.

Differences on Length

"We are hopeful we can settle without arbitration. No one really wants to go into arbitration," he stated.

The problem at this time is in the area of economics. "Ninety-five percent of the non-economic issues have been settled for some time," said Officer VanDeGinste.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen agrees that 95 percent of the non-economic matters have been resolved. He's now waiting to hear from the GPWPOA regarding the scheduling of another meeting, indicating that the association had previously wanted to check further actuarial figures.

Meanwhile, Officer VanDeGinste said the GPWPOA is striving for a one-year package, (for fiscal year 1976-77), but would consider a two-year agreement. Mr. Petersen stated the city has proposed a three-year pact but the GPWPOA preferred a one-year agreement.

The officer said the city

Grosse Pointe Education Association, (GPEA), officials called for a teacher strike at a Tuesday, September 7, meeting of their membership, calling the latest Board of Education contract proposals a threat to the very viability of their union.

Teachers were scheduled to vote on the issue either Wednesday night or Thursday morning, September 8 or 9, according to GPEA President Doris Cook. Sixty-five percent of the membership must approve the strike before teachers walk out.

After 34 hours of mediation sessions logged over the Labor Day weekend, GPEA Executive Director Al Gaiss concluded, "We are in a battle to hold on to the very basics of our contract language. It is now a question of whether or not we will continue to be a viable association."

Unanimous Decision

The GPEA executive board reached the unanimous decision to call for a strike on Tuesday morning, after 19 straight hours of talks with the Board team and mediator Richard Terpin of the Michigan Employment Relations Commission.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats had a more optimistic view of the progress made over the Labor Day weekend. In a statement issued September 7 he stated, "Bargaining teams for both sides are to be commended for making significant progress over the weekend."

"We are optimistic that an agreement can be reached in time for the opening of schools."

More negotiation sessions were tentatively scheduled for later Tuesday evening.

Union officials agreed there is a chance of settlement before school opens. "We can do a lot of bargaining between now and Thursday," Mr. Gaiss said. "It's very possible we could have a contract in time for classes. We've made a lot of movement and have come a long way, but there are certain big issues still between us."

Views Longevity Pay

One of those issues is longevity pay, which Mr. Gaiss said the Board proposes to eliminate from the contract. The payments, ranging from $220-$880 for a maximum of 23 years with the system, affect more than 50 percent of the teachers, he said.

The Board has offered a salary increase of eight percent the first year and five percent the second, Mr. Gaiss said. The proposed climatic

No Information On Mosquitoes

No further information has been received by the Wayne County Department of Health regarding detailed information from regional mosquito surveillance and wild bird surveillance efforts in relation to St. Louis Encephalitis, a deadly disease which is transmitted by mosquitoes.

The health department in its Wednesday, August 25, encephalitis report said it expected such detailed information on surveillance efforts early in the week of August 30. However, on Tuesday morning, September 7, Glenn Brown, director of environmental health, said no detailed information has been received.

Should analysis of such information indicate certain locales where increased control measures would be beneficial, the department would contact the designated local official in any given community. But, at this time, there are no further developments on this front.

We've made a lot of movement and have come a long way, but there are certain big issues still between us."

Views Longevity Pay

One of those issues is longevity pay, which Mr. Gais said the Board proposes to eliminate from the contract. The payments, ranging from $220-$880 for a maximum of 23 years with the system, affect more than 50 percent of the teachers, he said.

The Board has offered a salary increase of eight percent the first year and five percent the second, Mr. Gais said. The proposed elimination of longevity pay was (Continued on Page 2)

No Information On Mosquitoes

No further information has been received by the Wayne County Department of Health regarding detailed information from regional mosquito surveillance and wild bird surveillance efforts in relation to St. Louis Encephalitis, a deadly disease which is transmitted by mosquitoes.

The health department in its Wednesday, August 25, encephalitis report said it expected such detailed information on surveillance efforts early in the week of August 30. However, on Tuesday morning, September 7, Glenn Brown, director of environmental health, said no detailed information has been received.

Should analysis of such information indicate certain locales where increased control measures would be beneficial, the department would contact the designated local official in any given community. But, at this time, there are no further developments on this front.

Strike Remains Possibility

tion of longevity pay and five steps of the salary scale reduce that offer to closer to a three percent increase, though, he maintains.
"But apparently the Board wants to increase its power with these contract language changes and they may be willing to come up with money in return," he added.
Mrs. Cook emphasized that the teachers do not want to go on strike, saying the community has done all it can for the schools by passing the recent millage proposals.

"But we are in a very serious crisis," she added.
The two bargaining teams have now logged more than 200 hours at the table since May. They both met with the mediator from 10 a.m.-10:30 p.m. on Saturday, September 4, and from 10 a.m. Monday, September 6, until 6 a.m.

Seek Awareness

The GPEA has conducted a community awareness program during the last two weeks aimed at speeding up the bogged down negotiations. Included were community-wide mailings and picketing in front of Board offices in St. Clair avenue.

Although Board trustees say they oppose the GPEA strategy of taking negotiations to the public, they rebutted some union statements and presented their own views in a letter mailed throughout the community last week.

The letter accused the GPEA of distorting issues before the community especially in terms of 14 new administrative positions. The Board called the positions an "organizational realignment that will not cost more money."

GPEA releases estimated the cost of the positions at $200,000.

Want Explanation

Meanwhile, Jane Ochalek, of McKinley avenue, collected more than 100 names of area residents on an open letter to the Board calling for an explanation to the question of the increased administrative staff.

The letter, which was delivered to Trustee Melissa Maghliel on Wednesday, August 26, said the Board misrepresented their case during the last millage campaign.

"We thought the millage would put more teachers in the classrooms. We don't agree with hiring 14 administrators and urge the Board to reconsider the action," said Mrs. Ochalek.

The Board had no comment to the letter.

View Pact

has been talking about a four percent increase via a total package. "This is in no way equitable for the services, (i.e., both police and firefighting responsibilities), we perform. We would like to have it higher than four percent," he stated.

When asked about this proposal, Mr. Petersen said he would prefer not to comment upon it at this time.

Right now, officers receive $16,500 including shift differential pay, while corporals earn $17,350 including shift differential. In each case, the shift differential amount is $315.

In regard to the overall discussion on monies, Officer VanDeGinste commented that figures discussed by the city have been mandated by the council. In reply, Mr. Petersen said the council sets the necessary guidelines regarding negotiations with the officers.

He added the city isn't in a position at this stage to disclose any figures or final offers.

FRAGEL EARNS BERTH

Mark Fragel, of The Woods, has won the starting line-backer position on the varsity football team at Northern Michigan University, according to Gil Heard, sports information director. Mark, a North High School graduate, is a senior letter winner.

Dangers of B-B Guns Explored

fact that more control is needed, particularly from parents. While each municipality has an ordinance prohibiting the discharge of such weapons and ensuing penalties, (90 days in jail and/or a $500 fine for adults, those 17 and over), Det. Gerow stressed the need for parental involvement.

In citing motivations in such cases, the detective said older youths usually travel in a vehicle from community to community and "are out strictly to destroy."

However, in other instances, younger children are given B-B guns by their parents. The potential objective, here, is for the youngster getting used to handling this gun for his future usage of other firearms.

"Unfortunately, some parents give a gun to a youth, offer a brief word on safety and the youth does as he pleases. When the parents aren't around, he might start off with shooting at a tree or a sign as a target, then go to windows," he stated.

Now, the area of damage and civil suits becomes a reality, along with potential restitution. And if anyone, youth or adult, is apprehended firing such a weapon, prosecution will follow.

Saying that parents should call the YSD before purchasing a B-B gun for advice, if necessary, Det. Gerow cited several areas of parental responsibility.

Parents should tell their youngsters not to use the weapon when they aren't around. "A youth needs training in the safe use of a firearm. Many parents don't take the time or, don't feel such training is necessary," he said.

The detective cited the feeling of some adults that a B-B gun isn't a powerful weapon. "This is wrong. A B-B gun is a lethal weapon. Some are just as powerful as a .22 and can do bodily harm."

(In this respect, the B-B's which struck the girl and Penney's windows traveled a distance of some 300 feet, he noted).

"Parents should make sure their child is mature enough to handle a gun safely," continued Det. Gerow. If a youth develops bad habits in the use of a B-B gun, what will he do with another, more powerful weapon?

Parents also should keep a gun out of reach of a minor so that when they are away, the youth has no access to it, he said. "If not, they could set a call upon returning home to pick their youngster up at the station."

Det. Gerow felt it was important that parents, themselves, be aware of safety factors and be proficient in the use of a firearm. "Training in the use of a B-B gun is a step toward safety in the use of all firearms," he said.

Citizens involvement is an important aspect in fighting all kinds of crime. If a resident spots a youngster "harmlessly" shooting a B-B gun, he should call his local police department, urged the detective. "We would confiscate the gun, contact the parents who will pick up the weapon and be informed of the incident."

In noting this is a constant, on-going problem in the Pointes as well as in other areas, he said each offense is considered separately.

"We'll consider the first offense and what the offense is," (e.g., shooting at a target and accidentally hitting a neighbor's window, regarding intent," he stated.

In this case, there's no malicious intent, (but the danger factor remains apparent), and the defendant's parents will have to make restitution for damages, while prosecution will probably not be sought, he indicated.

However, if it's a juvenile and deliberate destruction is apparent, prosecution would follow and "they should expect it," stated Det. Gerow. And if it's malicious destruction of property over $100, it's a felony and most felony petitions are authorized by the Wayne County Juvenile Court, he noted.

In such a case, the disposition is up to a juvenile court referee. Whatever transpires, the detective said, in all cases confiscation of the gun is almost mandatory.

Finally, if the defendant is 17 years or over, the case could end up in a Wayne County Circuit Court trial.

Man Sentenced On Two Counts

A Woods man was sentenced to terms in Jackson Prison on two charges when he appeared before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Richard Dunn on Thursday, September 2.

Sgt. Richard Smith of the Organized Crime Task Force reported that Abraham Karmey, of Hampton road, was sentenced to from six to 10 years in prison on a charge of conspiracy to burglarize a business place with intent to commit larceny.

The sergeant also said Karmey was sentenced to a concurrent term of from three to five years on a charge of receiving and concealing stolen property over $100.

Sgt. Smith added that a motion for a new trial in the case was denied, while an effort for an appeal bond was denied.

Karmey was found guilty of the two charges by a circuit court jury after his trial concluded in June.

He was arrested by Woods and task force officers last October on the receiving and concealing charge.

Vandalism

municipalities, as well as Youth Service Division officers, have enthusiastically indicated their willingness to cooperate in the effort.

So far, suggestions for curbing the problem have ranged from elimination of traditional events such as "cap and gown day" at the high schools to barring student drivers to organizing police tactical units.

Blessings come in disguise — most of us get what we deserve without recognizing it.

SEMTA Route Changes Become Effective Today

SEMTA, (Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority), will be adding an additional 20 miles of service to its Macomb County area bus routes effective today, September 9.

The changes will affect all three major Macomb routes, the Jefferson Beach, the Kercheval-Deanhurst and the Charlevoix. The Eastland-Eight Mile shuttle also will be slightly altered.

SEMTA says changes will provide more direct service between Macomb County points and downtown Detroit, and service extensions into other areas.

Along Marter road, three inbound and three outbound coaches will provide direct service to Detroit during the peak hours. However, there will be no direct service to Detroit along Marter during the off-peak hours.

Passengers wishing to reach Detroit from Marter road during those hours will have to transfer from the Eastland-Eight Mile shuttle to the Jefferson line.

The Jefferson Beach route will be renamed the Jefferson line. That route formerly ended at Jefferson and Revere, and it will be extended into Mount Clemens along Crocker boulevard.

The extension will run from High Street and Gratiot, south on Gratiot, east on Crocker, south on Jefferson, west on Provençal, south on Kercheval, east on Moross, south becoming southwest on Grosse Pointe boulevard, south on Fisher, west on Jefferson and northwest on Woodward to Grand Circus Park.

The Kercheval-Deanhurst route will be renamed the Kercheval-Mack. That route previously ended at Crocker boulevard and Jefferson. The new route will start at Nunneley and Little Mack, travel south on Little Mack to 15 Mile road, 15 Mile to Beaconsfield, Beaconsfield to Masonic, east on Masonic to the Macomb Mall.

From the mall the buses will travel back to Masonic, along Masonic east to Little Mack, south on Little Mack to 10 Mile, 10 Mile to Greater Mack, south on Greater Mack to Moross, east on Moross to Kercheval, southwest to Maryland, south on Maryland to Jefferson and west on Jefferson to downtown Detroit.

A second starting point on this route will be Garfield and 14 Mile road. Buses will proceed from that point south on Garfield and east on Masonic to the Macomb Mall. From there the route will be the same.

The Charlevoix route, now known as the Charlevoix-Harper, will begin providing all day service along Harper road.

It will run from 15 Mile and Harper, south on Harper to Vernier, east on Vernier to Mack, south on Mack to Moross, east on Moross, south on Chalfonte, east on Moran, southwest on Charlevoix, south on Wayburn, and west on Jefferson to Detroit.

Men Gardeners Meet Sept. 16

Joseph A. Kotewicz, second vice-president and program chairman of the Michigan Orchid Society, and a member of the American Orchid Society, will present his multimedia program "Genesis: Orchid Beginnings" at the regular meeting and Ladies' Night of Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe Thursday, September 16, at Brownell Middle School, 280 Chalfonte avenue.

The meeting begins at 8 p.m.

Mr. Kotewicz built a small greenhouse seven years ago, and now has a collection of 500-600 intermediate orchids, (that group which requires low night temperatures of 58-60 degrees).

His slide presentation is in natural color, with two projectors and two screens. There is a musical background with the producer's own narration. It includes visual material from various parts of the world.

After the presentation, Mr. Kotewicz will be joined by William C. Nill, the club's second vice-president, also an orchid grower, in a question-and-answer period on orchids.

The meeting also will include a Members' Flower Show. All gardeners in the area are invited to attend.

Officials View Drinking Age Proposals

21 age group, the increase is statistically smaller than the increase for that group out of all accidents.

Opposes Age Hike

"Either way you look at it, there is an increase in accidents, injuries and deaths," said Judge Bashara. "I don't think it is of any comfort to the parents of a child involved in an alcohol-related auto accident to know that statistically it represents only a small increase."

At the State level, a poll taken by the Michigan Council on Alcohol Problems shows that a majority of candidates for the House of Representatives would like to see the drinking age raised.

At the same time, Col. George Halverson, director of the Michigan State Police, opposes having the drinking age raised because the traffic mishap statistics for 18-21-year-olds has stabilized since 1973, although it is still rising by even smaller increments.

The State Police official also has said that raising the drinking age would necessitate an increase in manpower to enforce the law.

On the local level all police and school officials contacted by the NEWS support raising the drinking age, expecting varying degrees of positive results to be achieved by such action.

In a release from his office, Dr. William Coats, superintendent of Grosse Pointe Schools, said that he supports any legislation which will, in the long run, benefit the community's youth.

Not Cure All

"When the age was lowered to 18, many of us thought that young people would be able to handle themselves with total responsibility. Although most behaved maturely, unfortunately this was not always the case," he said.

"As a result of numbers of serious incidents across the nation, parents, educators and legislators have been attempting to solve an extremely serious problem. Therefore I support any proposal which might remedy what I understand to be a growing problem."

Dr. James Hoeh, principal of South High School, supports the proposal to raise the drinking age but does not see it as a panacea for the problems of teenage alcohol abuse.

"It certainly won't eliminate the whole problem, but it does get alcohol somewhat out of the reach of the really young 15- and 16-year-olds," he said.

"Here at South it hasn't been such a big problem during school, though there have been some reports from teachers that students have returned from lunch smelling of alcohol. It does get a little out of hand at some of the evening school activities like dances and so forth."

G. Bruce Feighner, principal of North High School, also is in favor of raising the drinking age from 18 to 19. He is an active member of the Michigan Association of Secondary School Principals, a group which is one of the sponsors of a bill pending in the Senate calling for the change.

"The 18-year-old students go off campus for lunch and can drink themselves, which is bad enough, but they can also provide alcohol for younger students," said Mr. Feighner.

Police Perspectives

"We would just like to see this influence kept out of the schools and a 19-year-old limit would do that since most students are out of high school at that age."

He added that at North High there has been an increase in cases of students coming to class under the influence of alcohol but it is not a drastic change.

Among local police officials there are a number of different perspectives on the proposed change.

Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber favors a reconsideration of the 18-year-old drinking age based on State and nationwide evidence of traffic accident increases, and also from the point of view of problems in his own jurisdiction.

"Our particular problems here in The Farms are often related to drinking. For example, the disturbance last June at South High all started with an early morning drinking party down by the lake," he said.

"And in general the younger drinking age has resulted in many problems around the bars along Mack avenue. We get a lot of calls about kids loitering up there, getting into fights and smashing bottles."

Chief Ferber suggested that if the age limit is not changed, the legislature might consider restricting everything but 3.2 beer for 18-21-year-olds.

Views Attitudes

Woods Public Safety Director Henry Marchand considers raising the age from 18 to 19 less effective than changing back to the original 21. He said though there are not many more arrests for under age drinking than before, the teenagers who are brought in are much younger.

Director Marchand does foresee a problem with the change in the drinking age from the enforcement standpoint, and from the standpoint of the attitude of young people affected by the change.

"The police officers might have trouble getting used to relating to these 18- and 19-year-olds who used to be allowed to drink and are then denied the right," he said.

"And the kids would certainly have a problem trying to figure out how they were adults yesterday and now they're kids again."

Shores Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale voiced a similar concern over the adjustment problems which would arise from the change.

"If they do change the age it's going to be tough stroking for a while, especially until those kids who, the privilege was taken away from become old enough again," he said.

"It's easy to give people something but it is harder to take it away. When they first changed the drinking age to 18 a lot of people expected the kind of problems that have resulted. Quite frankly the abuse problem is simply a matter of these kids being too young to handle alcohol."

Det. Stuart Gerow of the Youth Service Division, (YSD), feels that there has been enough evidence of teenage alcoholism, drunken driving and other abuses to warrant changing the legal drinking age back to 21.

"It has come to a question

Woods Officer Optimistic over New Responsibility

By Roger A. Waha

It will be a totally new experience but Woods Public Safety Officer Paul Crook, 28, is looking forward to it.

The five-year veteran of the force was named traffic safety officer this summer and already he is preparing for another productive year in the schools and the community at large.

For those who may question the adjective "productive," The Woods has won four first place Grand Awards over the past 11 years and has received 10 Awards of Excellence since 1966 from the AAA for pedestrian safety. The city hasn't recorded a pedestrian fatality since December 1, 1957.

These honors are a factor of accomplishment to Officer Stephen Petrik, who was transferred to the road patrol this summer after nine years as traffic safety officer. At the same time, this record, and the pleasurable excitement which goes with it, provides a challenge for Officer Crook.

"I've always wanted to do it but I didn't know I'd have the opportunity this fast to work in the schools," he said. Officer Crook, along with other applicants for the position, submitted letters and he was selected — quicker than he expected.

"I was thinking I'd have to have 10 years on the job before I could get into the schools. But the time was cut in half. I'm doing something I've always wanted to do and that's work in the schools and work with the youngsters," he said.

Feeling that previous teaching experience on both the primary and secondary levels may have given him an edge for the position, Officer Crook has been in touch with traffic safety officers in the other police departments. They have been helpful to him on the training front.

Aware of the importance of rapport with school children, he feels one aspect of his job is providing a favorable image of the police officer.

After citing instances where a few officers have made the papers in a negative light, Officer Crook said the job "will give me an opportunity to show children we're not at all like that." He wants to show "what a policeman is all about" and the fact that "he's human" just like a child's mother and father.

On the elementary school level, the officer will focus upon the overall area of safety consciousness including such aspects as going to and coming from school, not talking with strangers, bicycle safety and the Green Penant Safety Program, sponsored by the "Detroit News."

He will speak to large groups, e.g., 200-300, at once and to small groups within the classroom. He also will show films and incorporate magic as a visual aid for his talks.

(Officer Crook is currently receiving some pointers in the art of illusion from Youth Service Division Det. Patrick Fagan, who's currently concluding a 10-week seminar at the Emporium of Magic in West Eight Mile Road. The division, too, is utilizing magic as a teaching aid this school year.)

One approach which he plans on using when addressing a large group in an auditorium is having the class which leaves the quietest receive a special appearance at which time they can ask the officer any questions they want.

"I witnessed this in Warren and it was so quiet in the auditorium, you could hear a pin drop," he said, while adding all classes will ultimately receive this special treatment.

"I will try to get into every classroom in every grade before school ends, and I'm looking forward to working with the teachers and the principals," he stated.

Besides centering upon pedestrian safety, elementary school children can look forward to having fire apparatus brought to the schools.

"Being a public safety officer, (with both police and firefighting responsibilities), we'll get the fire trucks over to the schools and talk about fire safety. It makes it nice to talk in this respect. For being a public safety officer, you don't have to have two separate people, (i.e., a police officer plus a firefighter), going to the schools," said Officer Crook.

And if all goes well, he has hopes of setting up a bicycle rodeo next summer wherein youngsters will perform a variety of skills, with the winners receiving prizes.

Besides Barnes, Ferry, Mason, Monteith, University Liggett, Our Lady Star of the Sea and Woods Nursery schools, Officer Crook also plans to visit Parcels Middle School and present talks, films and conduct bike inspections.

On the high school level, he will be involved as a speaker at North's driver education program in the summer. Besides using safety-oriented films, he will speak on a variety of topics including the big "E's" of traffic safety, engineering, enforcement and education, and provide personal glimpses into such areas as a police officer's job, a driver's responsibility, et al.

Another responsibility of his position is acting as coordinator of the part time school crossing guard program.

By the time school begins, he hopes to have 12 permanent guards and four alternates in case of sickness. However, as of last week, the officer still needed one permanent guard and four alternates.

He asked those who are interested in the position to visit departmental headquarters, 20025 Mack Avenue, and fill out an application.

"The job pays $4.40 an hour and the guards work two hours a day. They cover their crossings four times a day for a half hour apiece," he said. This is in the morning when the youngsters go to school, during lunch hour when children leave and return in the afternoon when they go home.

Officer Crook said the city supplies each guard with a raincoat, badge, crossing guard belt, a whistle and reflectorized gloves, plus accident insurance.

Stressing an approach of flexibility, he plans on setting up a program over the next three years, (his scheduled tenure as traffic safety officer), incorporating a potential expansion of manpower. This, he feels, would result in more intensification on all fronts.

"I hope to set up a good enough program and prove to the schools, the community and the city administration a need for expansion," he emphasized.

With this optimistic overview, only positive happenings should result.

HARKNESS PHARMACY

It is obvious that the greatest need for building new cells in the body occurs during the periods of most rapid growth. It must not be assumed, however, that when you are mature, the need for building materials comes to an end. Cells continue to wear out as long as life continues. Replacement of worn-out cells is a requirement for maintaining life. The need for protein to build antibodies and to help in producing enzymes and hormones continues all your life. For this reason, an older person must avoid reducing his or her intake of protein.

Make sure your body is getting enough protein and other food supplements to insure cell growth by adding vitamins from the complete selection at HARKNESS PHARMACY. 20315 Mack Ave. at Lochmoor Blvd. We handle all your drug and pharmaceutical needs. Our modern prescription department offers complete professional and personalized prescription service. # GROSSE POINTE SCHOOLS OPEN TODAY . . . .

- with a full athletic program
- with full academic and vocational programs

All of this is thanks to the taxpayers of Grosse Pointe. But before we get too complacent, let's review what has happened in our school district this year.

1. On March 29 the voters turned down a millage request.
2. On June 14 the voters passed a millage request.

The result of the turnout was a net "saving" of $302,470. This is not a small amount of money, but the fact that the lower June millage which was approved means that the school district probably will have to request an increase as well as a renewal in the spring, since prices and wages show no sign of stabilizing.

So, as one still interested in the schools, I suggest that citizens make an effort to be informed about the schools as to the needs and, if they do, I am certain that they will have confidence in the Superintendent and the Board of Education who are close to the matter. And not let one or two well-placed ads or other anti-education hysteria curtail the programs that are so vital to a well-rounded education.

Further information and meeting schedules are available by calling the YMCA.

YSD Handles Youth Groups

A potentially troublesome situation was resolved through the work of two Youth Service Division (YSD), detectives late last month after the bureau learned that a number of youths were congregating during the evening hours at the rear of Barnes School, 20090 Morningside drive.

YSD Dets. Patrick Fagan and Wayne Baum set up surveillance of the area on Monday, August 30, and Tuesday, August 31, respectively, and reported no major problems transpired.

Det. Fagan reported on Tuesday, August 24, the school notified the department that youths had been littering at the rear of the building with alcoholic beverage bottles. At that time, a request for special attention was made.

Then on the 30th, Officer Michael Giffer told Det. Fagan he observed several youths frequenting the area. The officers investigated the youths but failed to observe any illegal activity. That same evening, the YSD set up a surveillance of the area to check on any such activity.

As it turned out, some 15-20 teens, both male and female, arrived around 8 p.m. and engaged in harmless horseplay before leaving some 40 minutes later, said Det. Fagan.

Then at around 9 p.m. other youths between 16-18 years of age arrived in vehicles and grouped themselves at the north end of the school.

No observed violations of the controlled substances act were seen, but two youths were in possession of alcohol. However, due to the darkness, they weren't able to be identified. Police ultimately dispersed the group and the surveillance was terminated at 10:20 p.m.

The following evening, Det. Baum positioned himself at the school to observe the activities of several youths for around one and a half hours.

He reported there was no evidence of any controlled substances violations but saw three youths go to a car, drink a beer apiece and then leave before a previously called scout car could arrive to check their identification.

At the time the surveillance was terminated, Det. Baum said he spoke with the group and no youth was 18. He asked the boy who had driven the car, (when the others were observed drinking), who owned the beer and the youth replied that the group did.

After further discussion, it was decided that all the beer bottles would be emptied into the ground. When this was done, no further action was taken and everyone dispersed without incident.

Recycle Cans At Eastland

Reynolds Aluminum Company's mobile recycling truck will continue its visits this month to the Eastland Shopping Center, Eight Mile and Kelly road, every Tuesday from 10 a.m.-12.

Groups and individuals will be paid 15 cents a pound for all-aluminum cans and other clean household aluminum such as pie plates, foil and frozen food trays.

If the items are free of all foreign materials and cut to lengths of three feet or less, the company also will pay for aluminum siding, gutters, storm door and window frames and lawn furniture.

Auto Mishap

Services for Mrs. Keys were held yesterday, September 8, at Christ Episcopal Church.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Glass, and her daughter, Elisa.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Matthew Barrett Memorial Fund, Christ Episcopal Church, 960 East Jefferson avenue.

Interment was at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Woods B-E's

Around 8 a.m., the complainant's son found the door, which is normally locked, leading from an attached garage into the house ajar. No signs of forced entry were seen.

Police added that the girl also said around three weeks ago she awoke and found a male subject in her room. According to officers, the girl told her parents who, at that time, dismissed it as a bad dream.

The suspect was described as a white male, around 5'10" tall and wearing a dark shirt and light color tennis type shorts.

Club Slates Fun for Teens

Soccer, Rock Climbing and Monday Night Open Lounge will highlight the Neighborhood Club's new fall programs for Pointe senior high students.

The Soccer League may be joined on an individual or team basis. A team may enter for a $75 fee, while the individual fee is $12. Games will be played on Wednesday and Thursday evenings at North High School and Brownell fields.

The deadline for registration is Wednesday, September 22.

A Basic Rock Climbing weekend will be offered October 1-3 at Grand Ledge, Mich. Professional instruction will include rappelling, belaying, hardware and mountaineering safety.

This weekend camping and instructional trip is being conducted in cooperation with Round River Adventures. The cost is $40 which includes all transportation, equipment and meals.

The trip is limited to 10 participants, so interested teens should register as soon as possible.

The Club's Teen Lounge will be open for senior high students on Monday evenings beginning September 13 at 8:30 p.m. This is a Monday Night Football Special, featuring color TV's, open billiards, table tennis and air hockey. Refreshments also will be available.

Home Buyers Deserve Expert Help...

..they can count on Detroit & Northern

Because we specialize in home financing, you get the best help available when you talk to one of our home loan specialists. He'll tell you about our many loan plans and options and how to determine how costly a home you can afford. At D&N there is a loan plan right for every budget. We have the popular conventional loan, as well as FHA and VA loans for those who qualify. Our home loan rates are competitive, but beyond that, the home buyer can expect much more at D&N.

Several Options . . .

We've been lending money to home buyers since 1889, and our experience shows in the service we render our customers. For example, at D&N we have several term options to help meet each borrower's particular needs. The term of the loan, along with the down payment amount and interest rate determine your monthly payment. Depending on the age and condition of the home, a term of up to 30 years may be selected. Ask a D&N home loan specialist to explain how your monthly payment is affected by the term you choose.

For your security, D&N offers mortgage life insurance. This protection provides for the full payment of your loan in the event of death. Disability insurance is available, too, providing for the payment of your monthly loan if the family breadwinner should become disabled.

Loan Payment Convenience . . .

In addition to security, D&N offers some real conveniences, too. To make your monthly payment as easy as possible, we have a plan called "Transmatic." With this plan, your mortgage payment is automatically deducted from your checking account and transferred to D&N on a set date each month. Using the "Transmatic" plan, you needn't worry about forgetting to make a payment when you are on vacation or out of town. A special trip and writing an additional check each month are eliminated when you choose "Transmatic."

Handling Details . . .

Many of the details involved in closing the deal will be handled by Detroit & Northern. We will arrange for an appraisal of the property, which will assist in determining the amount of the loan. If a survey is required, D&N will arrange for it. In addition, we can arrange for title insurance. D&N will perform the routine credit checks and handle the recording of your purchase. At the "closing," Detroit & Northern will assemble the various mortgage and legal documents and review them with you.

Continuing Service . . .

After receiving your Detroit & Northern home loan, you will enjoy the continuing services we provide homeowners. D&N will handle the payment of your property taxes, hazard insurance, mortgage life and disability insurance. For your records at the end of each year we will send you an analysis of your escrow account and a statement outlining each financial transaction.

How does Studio Camera do it?

That's what camera stores all over the state are asking themselves — how does STUDIO CAMERA sell at such ridiculous low prices 365 days a year?

The answer is simple. We keep our overhead low. We run our store efficiently. We DON'T use "razzle-dazzle" gimmicks like so-called "free finishing coupons" or "half off" on over-priced electronic flash units.

There's no haggling over price at STUDIO CAMERA. Our 'Cash' Price is our BEST price. All our prices are printed, and up front. No one works on commission, so you buy what you want, when you want. You'll never get pressured into 'package' deals, or any of the other gimmicks you've run into in other camera stores.

This straight forward, no "gimmick" way of doing business is the reason we sell more cameras to more people than any other camera store in Michigan.

We must be doing something right.

NHS Bolstering Offense But Still Loves Defense

By Tom Greenwood
If enthusiasm is any measure of success, North High School's varsity football team should be a force to contend with this year.

Built around nine returning lettermen and drawing upon a junior varsity team which lost only one game last year, the Norsemen hope to improve upon last season's 6-3 record.

Head varsity coach Jim Krucki sees a still defensively oriented team, but with added quickness in the backfield.

"We've always played a defensively minded game," he said, squinting at his players while they practiced. "Offense has always been number two with us. But this year we're quicker in the backfield, plus we've got some outstanding receivers."

As defending co-champions in the Bi-County League, much of the Norsemen's hopes are pinned on returning quarterback Rob Burns. "Rob started his varsity career as a sophomore and he has an extremely good throwing arm," said coach Krucki. "We expect good things from him."

Other offensive standouts for the North team are Chuck Cooper at center and Bill Neson at offensive guard. Neson also doubles as a defensive tackle.

Defensively the team looks strong with Ed Moran at tackle and Ken Humes and John DeYonker as defensive backs.

The Norsemen play their first game of the season on Friday, September 17, at East Detroit.

Because of recent setbacks in millage proposals in other cities, the teams' schedule is still somewhat up in the air. Two teams have dropped out, but hope to rejoin the conference by the time the season gets underway.

SHS Gridders Look Good Despite New Backfield

By Tom Greenwood
They practice in earnest now. Football skills, dulled over the summer, are sharpened in twice-a-day drills in anticipation of the first game of the 1976 season.

The Blue Devils of South High School are wearing a lean and mean look and figure to repeat as one of the top teams in the Eastern Michigan League this year.

The workhorse of Coach Russ Hepner's team is a defensive unit that has guided the Blue Devils to 8-1 marks for the last two seasons.

"We've got six returning lettermen in our defense," he said, "and I'm sure they'll do the job for us again this season."

The defensive standouts for the South High gridders are third-year veteran Al Jones, linebackers Chris Fields, Nino Tocco and Grant Piche, Brian Myers at defensive safety and Ken Stockwell at tackle.

All the players are seniors, with the exception of Stockwell, who is a junior.

Offensively, the Blue Devils are a mystery, since coach Hepner's entire backfield graduated last year. However, he doesn't seem too worried about this year's offensive line-up.

"We're inexperienced," he said, "but the team has improved tremendously over the last three weeks. Tom Nihem and Jim Kovanda check in as our number one and two quarterbacks, respectively, and both boys throw the ball extremely well."

"We've got an excellent punter in Rick Baker and Al Jones is our after-point man."

Other names to watch on the Blue Devil offense are

John Olbeter at tight end, Mitch Shier at guard, Rob Hermes at tackle and split end Tom Burke. Halfbacks include Dave Hollerbach, Paul Genter and Rob Datson. Coach Hepner is optimistic about the upcoming season. "We've got a defense that's been the best in the league for the last two years," he said. "We can throw and we've got some great kickers. I think we're going to be an exciting, solid football team again this year."

The Blue Devils play their season opener at home against Notre Dame on Saturday, September 18.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford
Chief of Central Library

This past week marked the 200th anniversary of the first pitched battle of the American Revolution—the Battle of Long Island.

Here the Continental Army, under remarkably inept leadership, was disastrously defeated by the British under the masterful leadership of General William Howe.

Washington, who arrived from Manhattan during the battle, did not take command from General Israel Putnam until late in the day after the battle was irretrievably lost.

The Americans with a force of 7,000 lost about 200 killed and 900 wounded and captured, including General John Sullivan. The combined British and German force numbered 17,000 with casualties reported at 932.

If you are interested in reading more about this battle, or about other campaigns of the Revolutionary War, here are some books, most of them new, that you might want to know about.

Although it is not a recent book, THE AMERICAN HERITAGE BOOK OF THE REVOLUTION, (published in 1958), is still one of the most popular general histories available.

In this volume the narrative, by historians Bruce Lancaster and Dr. J. H. Plumb, is complemented by the excellent illustrative materials we have come to expect from American Heritage publications. Here more than 600 pictures—183 in full color—show how the period really looked.

Another good volume is THE PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, (Ferguson), by Rupert Furneaux. What distinguishes this title from the American Heritage book is that the text here is comprised of eyewitness and participant accounts.

The result is a story rich in drama and human interest, accurate as to detail, and easy for the reader to visualize.

A book that is considerably smaller than the previous two is THE CONCISE ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION (Stackpole) by Joseph P. Cullen.

Although only just over 100 pages long, the author has produced an informative and accurate narrative. For the reader wanting a quick overview of the conflict, this book would be a good choice.

These next two books I have included as an example of a special series—The American Heritage Junior Library. They are titled LEXINGTON, CONCORD AND BUNKER HILL by Francis Russell and THE BATTLE OF YORKTOWN by Thomas J. Fleming.

Beautifully illustrated and with excellent text, these are two books I would personally recommend to readers of any age who wish a clear and accurate introduction to these two famous battles.

For the reader who wants more than a general survey of the war we have such specialized titles as UNIFORMS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, (Macmillan), by John Mollo.

In a series of 220 magnificent full-color illustrations, this book covers the principal army and naval uniforms of the American, British, German, and French armies of the period, as well as several plates of the Indian dress.

Now if you are a person who likes detail and statistics, let me recommend THE TOLL OF INDEPENDENCE, (University of Chicago Press), edited by Howard Peckham.

Here in one volume is the most complete list ever compiled of the military and naval engagements and the casualties among Americans.

With an extensive bibliography and index, this volume is an excellent reference tool.

Of this group of books my favorite is CAMPAIGNS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION: AN ATLAS OF MANUSCRIPT MAPS, (University of Michigan Press), by Douglas W. Marshall and Howard H. Peckham.

In this book are reproduced original maps drawn by battlefield participants and cartographers during the course of the war. The book relates the use of maps to the campaigns themselves and explains how reconnaissance influenced the course of the war in America.

It is not a general picture history of the Revolution, but rather a presentation of the principal engagements carefully selected from major archives in England and America.

These maps, which range from crude but vitally important sketches and plans to highly artistic works rendered in full color, are here published together for the first time.

This is a handsome book that would make an excellent Bicentennial gift.

Youth on Bike Struck by Car

A 12-year-old youth suffered minor injuries while riding his bike at 7 p.m. Thursday, September 2, when a driver ignored a stop sign at Waterloo and Notre Dame and struck the youth, City police said.

The driver of the car, James Arthur Burns, 22, of 6001 Norcross, Detroit, was ordered to appear in The City Municipal Court Wednesday, September 15, on a charge of failing to stop for a stop sign, causing an accident.

The youth, Carlos Grodzinsky, of Yorkshire Road, was conveyed to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment and released shortly after.

by Pat Ulatowski

When Emperor Charlemagne noticed that the snow melted most quickly on a certain steep Rheingau hillside, directly opposite his palace at Ingelheim, he ordered a vineyard to be planted there. By 1100 a Benedictine Abbey flourished on the site, and much later, it belonged to the famous Metternich family. It was named after Johannishberg, and to this day it is Germany's most famous vineyard. The name Johannishberg is often appropriated to indicate light white wines of the German type. In California, the true Riesling grape is called Johnishberg Riesling.

And whether you enjoy Riesling wine from California or Germany, you'll find it at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626. Indeed, we have a wide selection of imported and domestic wines to choose from, and if you prefer a wine we do not have, we'll be happy to special order and stock it for you. Open: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs.; 10-11 Fri., Sat.; noon-10 Sun.

WINE WISDOM:

The Johannishberg Riesling, while it can not surpass its German namesake, produces a very adequate white wine.

Music Group Meets Sunday

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

Although members of the Board of Education have explained our proposed organizational realignment through a recent communication to residents, I address the issue once more in the following statement as a further attempt to clarify the Board's position.

The confusion on this issue which arose in certain segments of the community seems to have stemmed from efforts to misrepresent and distort one of our positions at the bargaining table.

We are simply attempting, through collective bargaining, to remove positions and duties having clear supervisory and evaluative responsibilities from the teachers' union bargaining unit.

Because the union itself insists that no member of the unit may supervise or evaluate any other member, we assumed that appropriate reassignments would be negotiated with no difficulty.

Therefore, we tentatively announced, (but did not fill), the positions so that upon successful negotiations, we could implement the changes.

YOUR CHOICE

The habits you acquire are either bobs or sinkers on the sea of life—they either hold you up or hold you down.

as soon as possible. Again, if implemented, there would be absolutely no increase in overall expenditures.

In order to effectively meet meaningful educational goals, we must have staff with authority to supervise, evaluate, administer and lead. Some of these administrative positions inadvertently over the years were allowed to be subsumed into the teacher bargaining unit.

This condition, due to contractual restrictions demanded by the union through negotiations, makes it impossible for individuals holding these positions to exercise authority necessary to fulfill administrative responsibilities.

We are simply trying to rectify this situation which is counterproductive to the best interests of the students and taxpayers of our community by negotiating the reassignment of these individuals from the teacher union to the administrator association. All of the positions, (or their approximate equivalent), were budgeted for 1975-76.

The Board's negotiators would have preferred to handle this matter at the bargaining table. But the issue has been forced into the public media. The result was unnecessary confusion.

Charlie Pappas' Opens on Hill

An old, familiar Grosse Pointe landmark, has a brand-new name and a brand-new feeling. CHARLIE Pappas', formerly The Bronze Door restaurant, at 123 Kercheval On-The-Hill has opened its doors for your patronage. Offering a warm, comfortable and relaxed atmosphere for lunch, dinner and late night dining, this new facility provides its customers with a totally revised and moderately-priced menu. To suit everyone's taste for complete variety, CHARLIE Pappas' will be serving everything from numerous hamburger combinations, hearty soups, sandwiches, seafood and steak dinners to the daily specialty items that have gained such popularity with Bronze Door customers throughout the years.

Dining at CHARLIE Pappas' takes on three entirely new dimensions. The restaurant has been redecorated into a trio of rooms, each with its very own distinctive personality. Refresh your thirst in the bar, sit back and relax in the intimate Library or plan to entertain guests in the dining room. The new decor... expertly conceived by Ronn Kimberly and Chuck Moraco of Kimberly Korner at 20311 Mack in Grosse Pointe Woods, gives the restaurant a unique and enjoyable atmosphere.

Group facilities are also available, for holiday parties. With a look to the near future, Sunday brunch will become a regular occurrence. The restaurant is open for lunch at 11 A.M. Monday through Saturday. And, when you come in... ask for Chuck. He'll welcome your visit!

SELF-DECEPTION

The biggest mistake people can make is to be sure they can't possibly make one.

Jewels & gems

by Jerry Valente

Natural, spherical pearls have been cultured successfully since early in the 20th century. In this process a mother-of-pearl bead, from three quarters to nine tenths of the diameter of the desired product is introduced into the pearl oyster. Over a period of years, the oyster deposits layers of nacre around the bead. Cultured pearls are not easily distinguished from genuine pearls, except by an expert. The technique of producing spherical cultured pearls was developed in Japan, and the culturing of pearls is a major Japanese industry.

Did you know that your old stones can be incorporated into new jewelry? Come in to VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800, and let us show you how. We will show you a drawing of your custom-made jewelry for your approval before we start to make the setting. There is no cost or obligation when we prepare a drawing for your approval on custom-made jewelry.

Guess What I Found?

Hard work pays off — sometimes in strange ways. Ask RICHARD KLOTZ, (right), of Hampton road, and he'll show you the 122-year-old tombstone he unearthed in his backyard. Local records show no trace of the original owner of the stone, but that doesn't mean it's not real. The unusual discovery drew groups of curious neighborhood children to the scene.

Amazing Discovery Made In Backyard Exploration

By Tom Greenwood

Richard Klotz loves to garden and his backyard shows it. Things are popping up everywhere.

Tomatoes, melons, beans, tombstones?

"I know it seems weird," said Mr. Klotz, of Hampton road, "but I was digging in the yard last week, leveling a mound, when I struck something about three inches under the ground."

The something was a tombstone over 100-years-old. Nearly four feet long, the 100-pound slab of granite reads:

"EVA"

Daughter of

C. H. and A. Crane

Died

June 26, 1854

Aged 2 ms. and 14 days"

"At first I thought it was a sidewalk, until I cleaned it off. Then I said, 'My God, is there a graveyard in my backyard?'"

Possibly, but probably not, according to Arthur Woodford, chief of The Pointe Central Library.

"In those days many families in rural areas buried family members on their property," he said. "Cemeteries were usually too far away. In all likelihood, this stone was stolen years ago by pranksters who just left it, where it was eventually covered up by time."

While Mr. Woodford has his doubts, the neighborhood children were convinced the Klotz backyard contained the mortal remains of Eva Crane and set out to find them.

AAU Swimmers Begin Practice

Swimmers interested in practicing and participating for the Grosse Pointe Swim Club are to report for tryouts at North High School.

The schedule is as follows: 10 years and under, from 7 p.m.-9 p.m., Monday, September 13, and 11 years and over, from 7 p.m.-9 p.m., Tuesday, September 14.

After the tryouts, swimmers will be assigned to a practice schedule by new coach, Fred Michalik, the former coach of the East Detroit AAU swim team.

For further information, contact the Department of Community Services at 885-3808 or 885-0271.

"The kids spent the afternoon looking for a coffin," said Mr. Klotz. "Although if there was a burial here, the remains would be long gone by now. But it kept them busy for awhile."

The kids also held a seance around the tombstone, although they weren't quite sure why. "All I know is it scared me," said one. "It was creepy."

Next, the kids consulted a Ouija board to find out how Eva died. According to the board, the baby died from scarlet fever.

A check of a historical atlas of Wayne County showed the land then to be owned by the Joseph Campau family. Whether the Crane family farmed there for the Campaus will probably never be known.

A check of Wayne County Death Records in Detroit showed no information before the year 1906. Further digging via a call to Lansing revealed information stopped at the year 1867, when a fire destroyed all prior records.

Who Eva Crane was and how she died is probably lost forever in time and memories.

As for Richard Klotz, he's not too sure what he'll do with the 122-year-old marker.

"Maybe I'll put it in my recreation room for a conversation piece," he said, brushing some dirt from the slab. "Really, just what do you do with a used tombstone?"

Well, it could come in handy this Halloween.

There will be something to please everyone's tastes, old to young, traditionalist to ultra-modern, at the 17th Annual Fall Art Festival co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Artists Association and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

It's scheduled for this Saturday, September 11, from 10 in the morning to 5 in the afternoon on the War Memorial's lawns.

The 165 local and outstate exhibitors will offer art in all its forms, from etchings to framed oil paintings, drawings, watercolors, serigraphs, pen-and-inks and batiks, some framed, others ready-to-frame.

Subject matter ranges from realism to abstract.

Also on display will be metal sculpture, terra cotta and bronzes, plus fine jewelry, pottery, ceramics, stoneware, woodcarvings, leatherwork and quilts—all completely original and handcrafted, of course.

Married in Ohio

Wedding vows were spoken in Garfield Memorial Church, Pepper Pike, O., Saturday, July 17, by CHERYL ANN SCHACH, daughter of the Harvey J. Schachs, of Moreland Hills, O., and DR. CHRISTOPHER HICKOCK SNYDER, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. Miles Snyder, of Anita avenue.

Miss Schach Wed To Dr. C.H. Snyder

Pair Will Reside in Philadelphia While He Interns at Metropolitan Hospital; Garden Reception Follows Mid-July Rites

Applied flowers and lace accented the bodice and sleeves of the Victorian style, white silk taffeta gown chosen by Cheryl Ann Schach for her marriage Saturday, July 17, to Dr. Christopher Hickock Snyder.

She carried a bouquet of white roses, baby's-breath, Fuji mums, stephanotis and ferns, and wore a wreath of matching flowers in her hair.

The new Mrs. Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Schach, of Moreland Hills, O., is a graduate of Northwestern University and will be working toward her Masters degree in Economics and Art History while in Philadelphia, where the bridegroom, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. Miles Snyder, of Anita avenue, and a graduate of Northwestern and Michigan State University's Osteopathic College, will be interning at Metropolitan Hospital.

The 1 o'clock rites in Garfield Memorial Church, Pepper Pike, O., Dr. George J. Parsons, Jr., presiding, were followed by a garden reception at the Schach home.

Attending her sister was Constance Schach, of Walloon Lake, in a dress of pale blue, tiered gauze, accented with lace inserts and styled with wide sleeves.

She carried an old-fashioned arrangement of white mums, pink sweetheart roses, miniature yellow and pink carnations, baby's-breath and ferns. Her headpiece was a matching wreath.

Robert B. Heller came from Berkeley, Calif., to act as his brother-in-law's best man, Jason Schach, the bride's brother, ushered.

Lace inserts accented the floor length, tea blue, tiered gauze dress selected by Mrs. Schach for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Snyder wore

Kelman, of Royal Oak, will be among other artists and craftsmen showing "how they do it." Birmingham's John Wargelin will be creating unique art forms in leaded glass. Grosse Pointe's own Sam Douglas will share his lapidary talents.

Grosse Pointe Artists Association President Bette Prudden will be in her usual location, demonstrating her pastel portraiture skills.

There'll be music, too: the traditional carillon concert from Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and, in honor of the Bicentennial, a 2 o'clock performance by The First Michigan Colonial Fife and Drum Corps.

The Corps' handmade uniforms are authentic, as are their accoutrements and instruments, made in the same manner and of the same materials as they were 200 and more years ago. The music they play is historically accurate.

The show is free.

In conjunction with the fair, an art auction is scheduled for Saturday evening, September 18, at the Birmingham Unitarian Church. A champagne preview at 6:30 o'clock will precede auctioneer Larry DuMouchelle's appearance at 8:30 in the evening.

The event is open to the public at a small charge. Invitations are available by calling Common Ground, 645-9678.

She will share some of her experiences while stationed in Nagoya. The program format also includes appointment and recognition of White Cross Circle leaders by Olga Rossel, of Renaud road, chairman of White Cross Mission work.

Celebrity Series Trio Talks Tickets

MRS. DENIS LUZ, (left), chairman of the 1976-77 Grosse Pointe Celebrity Series, presented by the Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League, discusses the status of ticket sales with MRS. JOHN AULT, (center), ticket chairman, and MRS. THOMAS VERBIEST, who is handling reservations for the Celebrity Luncheons at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club following each speaker's appearance at the Woods Theatre. The reason they're looking so happy is that there are VERY FEW tickets left, for either the Series, which features five celebrity speakers on Thursday mornings, October through March, (with time out for December, when everyone's Christmas shopping and hopping), or the luncheons.

The Series, opening October 14 with Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy, is available as-a-whole only, at $16 per person. Tickets may be reserved—as long as they last—by sending checks, payable to Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League, to Celebrity Series, Bon Secours Hospital, 468 Cadieux road, Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48230.

Luncheons, all five for $30, $6 individually, may be reserved by sending checks to Mrs. Thomas Verbiest, 1140 Yorkshire road, Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48230.

urer, and Mrs. Anthony Vermeulen, secretary. Committee chairpersons include Mrs. Joseph Marshall, programs, Mrs. Walter Isley, publicity (English), Mr. Robert, publicity (French), Dr. Mark McQuiggin, Dr. Arthur Seski, Dr. Antoine Nahoum and Mrs. Bertram, scholarships, Mrs. Sydney Newhouse and Mrs. Pierre

Alpha Mu DKG's Open Season This Saturday

Dr. Rachel Brake will be hostess this Saturday, September 11, for a kickoff meeting heralding the 1976-77 season of Alpha Mu Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an international honor society for women in education.

The group, always involved in community affairs, has three new projects "in the works" this year, including sponsorship of a new Canadian chapter, expected to be in Saskatchewan, and co-sponsorship of a workshop on Children's Literature and Story Telling, in cooperation with the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

Both projects were made possible by funds left to Alpha Mu by the late Jean Taylor, who retired from the Grosse Pointe Library in 1962. Miss Taylor, Canadian by birth, began work in The Pointe in 1929 and soon became head of the City Branch Library, then located in Cadieux road.

She remained Head of Children's Services in the Grosse Pointe Library System and wrote the NEWS' Library column until her retirement.

The third project involves development of plans for the use of funds left by the late Jennie Dombrowski, a retired Richard Elementary School teacher, close friend as well as DKG sister of Jean Taylor.

Both Mrs. Dombrowski and Miss Taylor are remembered by former students and all with whom they came in contact as talented professionals whose enthusiasm and independence were tempered by warm and understanding natures.

The first step in planning a successful holiday is to know yourself. Is your travel style luxury all the way? Or do you prefer accommodations and other facilities that are comfortable, clean, and perhaps a bit more modest in appointments? Do you want to be looked after every stop of the way, or do you like to strike out on your own at least part of the time? Are you adventurous? Would you want to see what it's like to live a few days on a European farm? Or rent a cottage? Or perhaps live and travel in a home on wheels, what Europeans call a caravan? All of these options and more are available. It really depends on the kinds of pleasures you are personally seeking. It just calls for a decision on how you want to experience them, how you want to live and what you want to spend.

Cultural Center to Host Public at Open House

Flaming torches and greenery will create a pedestrian mall across Woodward avenue from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock next Wednesday, September 15, as the Detroit Institute of Arts, Main Library and the Historical Museum launch their fall season with a free public open house.

The popular event in the heart of the cultural center is being underwritten by Winkelman's for the sixth consecutive year. Last year, approximately 4,500 persons enjoyed the festivities.

The three institutions plan a full evening of events, beginning in mid-Woodward with the music of the New McKinney Cotton Pickers, the 13-piece Detroit jazz group which captivated last year's audience.

To facilitate pedestrian movement among the three buildings, Woodward traffic will be rerouted between Farnsworth and Ferry during the open house.

At the Detroit Institute of Arts, visitors will be invited to view all open galleries and hear Douglas Davis, Newsweek magazine's art critic, discuss videotape as an art form.

Davis has worked intensively on a "soft" approach to technology, producing tapes with a personal viewpoint and participating in telecasts, performances and group shows in Brazil, Austria, Italy and Poland as well as the United States. He will talk at 8:15 and

New Suburbia Season Starts

Members of Suburbia Garden Club will start their fall season with a noon luncheon at the Windmill Pointe drive home of Mrs. Herbert Epstein next Tuesday, September 14, featuring a program by Mary Lou Borech on "Flowers in History."

Celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday, September 4, at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club were MR. and MRS. ERNEST SCHERER, Farms residents for over 25 years, currently residing in Ridge road. Mr. Scherer, now retired, was head of the engraving department at the Detroit News for several years. Betty Scherer has enjoyed working in Jacobson's home decorating department for the past 15 years. A few friends and the anniversary pair's children, sons BOB and JOHN and daughter JOAN and their families, were among the Hunt Club celebrants.

"American Artists: A New Decade," a provocative visual report on the paintings, sculpture, drawings, environmental and information pieces of 15 prominent moderns who rarely exhibit outside New York and California, will be on view in the South Wing. From the ultra-realism of Chuck Close's three huge portraits to the "nude" drawings of John Mason's "Firebrick sculpture," the show is a challenge in viewing and understanding.

"The Peaceable Kingdom," a menagerie of more than 100 real and imaginary birds and beasts, interpreted by artists as diverse as Durer, Audubon, Picasso and Oshawa, a Cape Dorset Eskimo, is on exhibit in the ground floor galleries of main building.

New acquisitions in the galleries will be introduced with commentary by museum staff and volunteers. Among these recent additions are "Flora," a life-size bronze nude by Aristide Maillol; "Torso of Aphrodite," a 1st century A.D. Roman interpretation of Venus; and Barnett Newman's stunning

Under the President's Executive Order of November 20, 1962, housing, which related to or was aided by Federal assistance, came under an anti-discrimination mandate. Since then, statutes have been passed in a number of States, augmented by ordinances in some cities, making it illegal to discriminate against a purchaser on the grounds of race, color, religion, or national origin or background.

19201 LINEVILLE at the corner of Kingsville is where you'll find this three bedroom colonial with an enclosed breezeway between the house and garage. A great feeling of spaciousness because of the corner location. Come stretch awhile. Our owner is ready to deal.

AVAILABLE BY APPOINTMENT

WELL SITUATED on an extra-wide lot this brick colonial has four bedrooms and two second floor baths. The first floor features a 23-foot long family room with fireplace and formal dining room complements the living room. Central air conditioning and a well landscaped, and fenced backyard make this one of the better houses of the neighborhood. Offered at $39,500, below the competition of similar houses in this area.

DO YOU HAVE A PENCHANT for white colonials nestled on a deadend street and with a view of the lake? Do you demand four bedrooms, each having a private bathroom? Do you want a large lot with mature trees? Must that next house have an attached garage and central air conditioning? Do you insist on a large library with plenty of bookcases and fireplace flanking the bay window which looks out to the lake? This one has it all. Don't you want to call us?

MERRIWEATHER ROAD continues to be a much desired street, and to complement this address we are offering an architect's designed house featuring a large, octagon shaped foyer with library, living room, staircase, garden room and formal dining room all fanning out from this central area. The second floor has four bedrooms serviced by three baths. There are two additional rooms and another bath on the third floor. A completely private yard is majestically landscaped and features a slate terrace.

CHARM INSIDE and out is standing equipment in this magnificent, mini-estate in Grosse Pointe Farms. A definite European flavor prevails in this Tuscan villa with its high, hand painted ceilings and many stone and tile fireplaces. All main first floor rooms have access to a secluded patio. There is a separate apartment with private entrance and garages for your fleet.

A SCOTT-BUILT COLONIAL IN A CHOICE LOCATION

The two story foyer with curving staircase and balcony is a dramatic entrance leading to the formal living room and dining room. A large, sunny kitchen with ample eating space is the glamorous hub of the house. Completely carpeted, and furnished with Quaker Maid cabinets, it includes the finest of G.E. appliances, including double self-cleaning ovens. Sliding doors lead from the eating area to a canopied patio. A handsome paneled family room with fireplace and built-in book case, a first floor laundry area, and 2 half baths complete the main floor.

The lower level of this house can hardly be called a "basement". A carpeted stairway leads from the kitchen down to the games room. This 28x29 room has the ambience of a Spanish bodega. Rough swirled plaster and dark paneling set off the spanish patterned carpeting. Tiles, set in the plaster over the fireplace, depict a monk in his wine cellar. The wet bar is surrounded by dark wood cabinets. A handsome powder room boasting Spanish light fixtures and tile motif wall paper continues the theme. An adjacent storage workshop room is tiled and fitted with custom shelving. The four large bedrooms in this house each have a huge walk-in closet. The master bedroom is 13.9x16'10". It is connected to the master bath by a dressing area which features a built-in vanity. Three other bedrooms, measuring 13x14, 12x13, and 13'9x14'11", open off the balcony. The main bath has a huge linen closet and built-in vanity.

If you are in the market for something just "a peg above" please call for an appointment.

The Farms held its annual Fishing Rodeo with The City Saturday, August 21, at The Farms Pier. About 260 youngsters came to fish and everyone won a prize.

Sharon Wicklund caught the largest fish for The City, a 10 1/4" Calaco Bass and the most fish of the day, six. She was awarded the Norb Neff Trophy.

Kim Verbrugge was The Farms winner, catching a 12 1/4" Green Bass, the largest fish of the day. She received the Harry Furton Trophy.

Frank Dansbury kept the boys and girls entertained with his clown antics.

Les Roddis was on the PA with all the latest information, while Len Ryberg kept tabs of the 30 fish that were caught.

GOP Convention Enjoyed By Councilman Tompkins

By George Polgar Jr.
After a week of bluster and ballyhoo in Kansas City's Kemper Arena, Park Councilman Charles S. Tompkins returned from his fifth Republican convention, calling it the best one yet.

He said the people of Kansas City welcomed the almost 10,000 delegates, alternates, spouses and assorted other convention workers with uncommon friendliness.

"Everyone in Kansas City made it seem like the people had been briefed in being good hosts," he said. "People on the streets, in the stores and everywhere would say 'hello,' would ask if they could help and went out of their way to be pleasant. They did a great job."

Though many people who watched the convention on TV got the impression that the long hours of cheering and speech-making must have been a crashing bore, Mr. Tompkins didn't have an idle moment.

"It might have been a little tiresome for TV viewers but when you're down there on the floor in the thick of it you get caught up in the emotion of the crowd," he said.

As far as being in the thick of things, Mr. Tompkins and his wife, Jean, were certainly well positioned on the Ford bandwagon. They stayed at the Crown Center Hotel where the President and his family were and often had to contend with the crush of the President's supporters waiting in the lobby and the tight security while coming and going.

Mr. Tompkins also was at the right place at the right time to be a close-up observer of one of the stranger incidents of the convention.

"The New York delegation was right behind the Michigan contingent. Vice-President Rockefeller was in the aisle going back to his seat and a Reagan fan kept holding a banner in front of him."

"The Vice-President asked the man several times to take it down and finally grabbed it, folded it up and put it under his chair. In retaliation, the man yanked the delegation phone out and was then ushered away," he said.

Topping Fashion... are the new sweaters from Hong Kong at Walton-Pierce. There's a smart wool and angora blend in gray or beige, touched with a geometric design and styled with elbow length, widened, sleeves. A light weight, nubby knit of wool and acrylic is really a year-round. Soft, fluffy mohair blend, blends subtle tones of beige and rust in a plaid. The sweater-jacket is zip-front and hooded. One of the nicest necklines we've seen is a modified cowl, not bulky and found on a fine knit sweater that comes in copper, wine and black. Other fabulous toppers are from the Coat Department which has really been expanded this season. A Zepel, rain and stain-repeller fabric of brick red is a great storm and sunshine coat for fall and winter. It is lavished with a natural raccoon collar and lined with a plaid pile lining. In the sportswear collection is a good looking three piece ensemble. We particularly like the jacket because it is so distinctive. It's of russet velvet, fashioned with a drawstring waist and accented with pockets. It goes over fine check pants and a Persian print shirt. Last but certainly not least and new in the Lingerie Department, are "at home" floats from Halston IV. They come in either panne velvet or mat jersey, both are washable.

Pointer of Interest

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS, DR. WILLIAM COATS

By Susan McDonald

It's been 13 years since a 24-year-old Bill Coats began his career as a math teacher and coach in Grosse Pointe. He's come back, now at 37, to take over the top job — and he's got some definite ideas about how he is going to handle it.

Much of his attitude toward running a school system can be seen in his style; a low-key, business-like demeanor and language filled with technical phrases such as "interaction variables," "inferential statistics," and "preferred outcomes."

That is no coincidence, for as superintendent, Bill Coats hopes to bring some of the modern management tools used in business to use in the education of children.

"School systems in general," he explains, "are lacking the methods of systematic evaluation that are commonly used in business. We're forever trying new programs and teaching techniques without ever systematically evaluating their effectiveness."

Wants Accountability He likes the phrase "management by objective" and hopes the concept, borrowed from the business world, can be used to make school systems more accountable to the people they serve.

"I don't just mean teacher accountability either, although that is obviously of great importance. The entire system must be accountable. We must accept responsibility for certain components of a child's growth."

"Learning involves a complex interaction of factors. But I think it's possible to carve out expected components of that and work from there, assessing our methods."

Grosse Pointe, according to Dr. Coats, is an ideal place to initiate such a program. "This is the type of management-oriented community that will allow us to demonstrate and follow through on sound management concepts in the educational environment."

Although he's barely been on the job two months, some of his ideas have already brought change to the system, such as the creation of 14 administrative positions aimed at evaluating and assessing particular programs and teachers.

Unusual Approach His may be an unusual approach to school administration, but certainly not hard to understand in light of his education.

He wasn't always aimed at a career in education, though, as the youngest of seven sons of an elementary school principal in Lima, O., he admits it may have been in the back of his mind.

He went to Ohio University on a football scholarship after high school, graduating Cum Laude with a major in mathematics and minors in physics and chemistry.

"It certainly wasn't the traditional area of study for an administrator, but I really wasn't thinking of that at the time," he explains.

Fluke Changed Career

After graduating he married Beverly, an elementary school teacher herself, and went on to teach math and coach football at Livonia public schools for one year, then spent a year in the same position in Grosse Pointe. It was there he encountered the "fluke" that changed the course of his career.

"I was teaching and taking classes at night at Wayne State University and Oberlin, following the typical route of a teacher," he explains. "I overheard some teachers talking one day about the Miller Analogy Test, (an aptitude test used by universities to screen candidates for grants, etc.) I had never even heard of it before, but I thought I'd take a chance."

The result was a three year fellowship for graduate study and a doctorate degree in a new program for Research Design and Data Analysis in Education at the University of Michigan.

"It was a fluke, but at the same time a chance in a lifetime. They financed me for three full years — it would have probably taken me 12 years to knock that out part time as I was going."

Was Unusual Course

"The program wasn't the usual administrative course, but I don't think I would have been interested in that kind of soft study, with all A's and no demands."

He describes the program as emphasizing qualitative evaluation, but at the same time being people oriented, and suited to his interest in mathematics.

"There is always a gap between the theoretical level and the actual process of education in the classroom," he explains. "The program was aimed at using data analysis and research techniques to close that gap, and find out just what works and what doesn't."

Schools Lag Behind

"Where industry has been using computers for decades, school systems had barely heard of them or modern data evaluation processes until recently. I strongly believe in a research and development thrust to school management. If you have preferred outcomes, you have an obligation to conduct your affairs most efficiently to produce them."

From U of M Dr. Coats went on to Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo as a graduate resource person to continue teaching the evaluation techniques developed at Ann Arbor. He worked as director of the educator feedback center there, headed the department of educational leadership and taught as professor in the college of education. For three years he also served as president of Education Systems Technology, Inc.

His work involved him in consulting in data processing and evaluation for business organizations and school systems as well as numerous lectures and publications.

Turned Down Security

He was soon offered a full professorship at Western, but "It was just too much security too early in my life. I began to feel a bit hypocritical training teachers and administrators and wanted the experience myself."

"My work began to develop from a serious interest to a strong desire to get out in the real world and see things done."

Thus, instead of the professorship, he accepted the position as superintendent of Kalamazoo Public Schools. He calls the four years there the "most rewarding of my life." They were certainly a challenge, with a bus plan ordered the first year of his tenure and all the accompanying strains on the community and the system. But, he says, I gave it my best shot. We made some mistakes, but we did a lot of good there."

As to leaving the system, he explains, "I think we reached a positive plateau. I enjoyed my stay and made some close friends, but I think in terms of management three to five years is just about the limit as to what can be accomplished. After that you are repeating yourself."

So it was off to Grosse Pointe, with the four girls, Cathy, 14, Christy, 13, Cammy, 8, and Cara, 21. "I'm looking forward to working here — not as a stepping stone, but as an exciting professional challenge." How long will he stay?

Well, at least five years, until daughter Christy is out of school he says.

"After that, who knows? I may work on a sheep farm in Wyoming."
