A FIERCE SYRIAN TANK and artillery assault Wednesday forced Palestinian guerrillas to start withdrawing from mountain positions above Beirut. The retreat followed appeals by Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat to Arab kings and presidents to intervene immediately "to stop the slaughter of my people." Egypt called for an Arab summit meeting to deal with the situation. Informed sources said Palestinian leaders ordered the pullback on the second day of the Syrian offensive because the guerrillas were facing an overwhelming Syrian force.

THE SOCIAL SECURITY Administration Thursday ordered a 19 percent increase in the amount of money that the nation's 25 million Medicare recipients must pay to cover their portion of hospital or nursing home costs. The increase will go into effect January 1. It will mean that any elderly or disabled person receiving Medicare will have to pay the first $124 of a hospital bill for any stay over 60 days. The current charge is $104. The increase follows a 13 percent rise that went into effect less than a year ago.

THE MICHIGAN PUBLIC Service Commission, complying with a court order, authorized the Detroit Edison Co. Friday to slap a $23.5 million temporary surcharge on electric customers' bills beginning this month. The surcharge, to be spread over bills for the next year, will amount to about 41 cents per month for an average residential customer.

RESCUERS DUG BODIES from beneath tons of mud and picked floating corpses from the shark-infested waters Saturday off La Paz, Mexico, in the aftermath of Hurricane Liza. Officials said the death toll may pass 1,000, with most of the victims children. A fifth of the houses in the city of 85,000 were destroyed, the Army said. Casualty reports from both state officials and the Red Cross said that at least 650 bodies had been counted and that "hundreds of persons" were still missing and feared dead. Emergency food and medical supplies have poured into this Southern Baja, California, capital, hit by the worst storm in its history, according to one Red Cross worker.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC Chancellor Helmut Schmidt survived sizeable losses to the conservatives and led his coalition government to a narrow victory in the West German parliamentary election Sunday. Final returns showed that Schmidt's coalition of Social Democrats and Free Democrats squeaked by with its majority in the lower house of parliament sharply reduced from 45 seats to eight seats. A heavy turnout of 91 percent of West Germany's 41.9 million eligible voters participated in the vote.

WHILE SAYING THAT IT WAS "one of the saddest decisions of my presidency," President Gerald Ford wasted no time in accepting the resignation of Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz, whose indirect remarks about black voters in a private conversation to Rolling Stone reporter John Dean, have become a political thorn in the side of the Republican presidential campaign. Butz said that his decision to quit was not a result of pressure by the president, and was made in the best interest of the administration.

Pointes Endorse Crime Prevention Program

National Bank of Detroit, (NBD), recently donated one dozen electric engravers to each of the five Pointe police departments as part of the bank's continuing crime prevention program in the area. Residents may borrow the engravers from police as part of Operation Identification—a program which encourages property owners to engrave their driver's license or social security numbers on their valuables to aid in recovery if they are stolen. Charge Man For Taking Rare Coins

Suspect Accused of Drugging Shop Owner, Removing $25,000-$30,000 of Currency

City police are holding a Detroit man they suspect of drugging a shop owner into unconsciousness and stealing over $25,000 of rare coins from the Mack Avenue Coins and Stamps shop in early September.

August Pedenelli Jr., 28, of Cass Avenue, was arrested on Monday, September 27, when police said he tried to sell some of the stolen coins to a Lathrup Village dealer. Pedenelli is charged with unarmed robbery and is being held in lieu of $7,500 bond set by Municipal Judge Stan Kazul.

Flinds Coins Missing
Three City youths found Coins and Stamps owner William Fiscus unconscious when they visited the shop on Wednesday, September 15, at about 6 p.m.

City police, called to the scene by a neighbor, took Mr. Fiscus to Saint John Hospital, suspecting he was the victim of a heart attack. They found no indication of violence and no money missing from the cash drawer, according to a police report. Three days later, however, Mr. Fiscus said he returned (Continued on Page 2)

Farms Contract Dispute With Firefighters Ended

By Tom Greenwood

A contract dispute lasting more than a year between the Farms Fire Department and the city came to an end Monday night, October 4, when the Farms Council voted 7-0 to approve a new contract between the two sides.

The 1975-76 contract has been in arbitration since September 1975. Basically, the new pact calls for an 8.5 percent increase over wages in fiscal year 1974-75. The increase in total compensation, including wages, lump-sum holiday pay, longevity, pension, food allowance and health and life insurance, is nine percent.

Helpful Advice Offered To Assist Citizens in Avoiding Con Artists

Bank Officer Reviews 10 Most Common Swindles; Says Knowledge Is Important As Defense Against Schemes

By Tom Greenwood

W. C. Fields once said, "Anything worth having, is worth cheating for." That philosophy may be funny on film, but can be tragic in real life. Real life con artists annually extract billions of dollars by hooking victims with dreams of something for nothing.

The Detroit metropolitan area loses millions of dollars yearly to the top 10 "slick swindles," according to William Kalmor, assistant vice-president of the auditing department at Detroit Bank and Trust.

"Flim-flam artists are practically holding a convention in the Detroit area right now," said Mr. Kalmor. "They particularly like the northeast side of Detroit. They work out of areas that have lots of banks, shopping centers and senior citizen complexes."

Seniors Singled Out
Traveling from state to state, con artists depend on the three G's for their living: greed, goodness and gullibility. The favorite prey of the bunco artist is the senior citizen.

"The elderly are singled out by con men because they're usually very trusting and can sometimes be confused easily," said Mr. Kalmor. "And they're usually reluctant to report their losses. The trauma of losing their life savings is com-

Corrections

The NEWS inadvertently made several mistakes in four of last week's stories.

In a story entitled "Chief Cooce Is FBI Graduate," Harper Woods Police Chief Allen Miglio was erroneously listed as being deceased. He is retired.

In the answer to the second question posed in the "Know Your Schools" column, written by Dr. William Coats, the answer should read: "The proposed new schedule for the first year ranges from $10,200 to $25,105. This excludes extra pay for extra duty assignments."

A proofreading error resulted in the wrong dates being given in the story "House Tour Slated for Mid-October." The correct dates for the tour are Saturday-Sunday, October 16-17.

In a photo entitled "Holiday Mart Invitations Go Out," a proofreading error resulted in a misspelled name. The correct spelling is Mrs. George R. McMullen.

FLEC Seeks Help from Community

Organization Begins Annual Drive for Funds; Goal of $61,500 Set

The Grosse Pointe Family Life Education Council, (FLEC), announces its annual fundraising drive will take place between October 11-November 30.

Now entering its second decade of service to the residents of the Pointes and Harper Woods, FLEC currently sponsors four major community projects:

Center Point—A short-term youth counseling center located in the Unitarian Church Annex, Grosse Pointe.

Dialogue—A confidential help phone line for adults who need someone to listen to their concerns, (881-0270).

Need Clinic—Volunteer doctors, nurses and patient advocates provide confidential care and counseling for area youth.

Alcohol Education Project—Workshops, films and pamphlets provide needed information on this widely misunderstood disease.

Campaign chairman James L. Blean has set a goal of $61,500 in order to continue the FLEC programs. He said a good portion of the goal will be raised through donations from the FLEC membership, but continued contributions from area business and professional people, foundations and individuals will be sought.

In announcing the fund drive, Mary Evelyn Self, president of the FLEC board of directors, emphasized the organization's status as a "non-profit, charitable and educational corporation, which receives no government funding and relies solely on community support for its existence."

Inflation Hurts
Mrs. Self also stressed that "FLEC has suffered from inflation like everyone else" and will be required to expand its operating budget by $6,500 to provide the same services in 1977.

The additional cost of malpractice insurance to cover personnel at its medical clinic is responsible for most of the increase.

Founded in 1968 by a group of concerned citizens, FLEC later became a part

Board Requests Fact-Finder in Contract Talks

School Officials Charge GPEA with Backtracking on Some Issues after Compromises Reached; No Progress Cited by Either Side

By Susan McDonald

With no progress cited by either side in the past month of bargaining, the Board of Education requested last week that a State fact-finder intervene in negotiations with the 600-member Grosse Pointe Education Association, (GPEA).

Although the fact-finder's recommendations will not be binding, the Board hopes he will help break the current stalemate.

Board officials charged the union with backtracking on certain issues since some compromises were reached in marathon Labor Day sessions with a mediator.

The GPEA executive board is considering the move, but have not formally accepted it yet, according to President Doris Cook. The union would prefer the Board to enter into binding fact-finding or arbitration, she said. Board negotiators, however, did not accept a union proposal to that effect in early September, she added.

The GPEA may come to a decision on the matter after an all-staff meeting slated for this evening, October 7, Mrs. Cook said. At that time, the membership also may consider what the Board termed its "final economic offer," including $730,000 in new money.

GPEA officials dispute the Board claim that would amount to a 7.25 percent increase, saying, instead it would equal 5.4 percent if spread evenly over all salary lanes.

GPEA officials have remained firm in their request for the 60 percent of the total budget they say traditionally goes to teacher pay and fringes. That would amount to about $340,000, more than the administration's final offer, or a 17.7 percent increase to cover base pay and fringes.

Mediation Requested
The union team has returned to its original position, though, on the contract. (Continued on Page 4)

Offer Seniors Shots for Flu

Bon Secours Hospital will offer special swine flu inoculations for senior citizens and those with chronic illness, (diabetes, asthma or heart trouble), at the War Memorial Center, Wednesday, October 20, and Saturday, October 23, from 10 a.m.-6 p.m.

The free vaccine will be administered by volunteers from the hospital staff.

The seniors and the chronically ill will receive a bivalent vaccine for both swine flu and A/Victoria, another common flu. The general public will receive inoculation for swine flu only in November.

Woods Denies Request To Develop Vacant Site

By Roger A. Waha

After a public hearing which ran about two hours, the Woods Council by a 5-1 vote denied the request of Paul Jankowski to develop the vacant site at the northeast corner of Vernier road and Morningside drive. This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, October 4.

Mr. Jankowski, who received the approval of the Planning Commission, (with stipulations for some changes and alterations), planned to erect 23, two-bedroom single residential, owner-occupied units. This would have required the land to be zoned from R-1C, single family residential district, to R-3, multiple family residential district.

Despite Mr. Jankowski's

assurances that such a complex wouldn't be detrimental to the area and that many people wanted it, nearby residents in attendance would have no part of it.

Petitions bearing 263 signatures from residents against the development were submitted to the council. Citizens felt the complex would result in further congestion of traffic in the Morningside-Vernier road area, that property values would be lowered by making it difficult to sell a single family home adjacent to multiple dwellings and that noise pollution would increase in the immediate location.

A concern of "spot zoning," i.e., areas zoned for multiple dwellings sprinkled

Police, Fire Forces Plan Court Fight

Personnel Unhappy over Decision; Council Vote Unanimous on Consolidation

By Susan McDonald

The City Council voted to consolidate its police and fire departments over the protests of both work forces and many of the 70 citizens present at the special meeting Monday, October 4.

The plan will save tax dollars for the financially strained City, council members say, by increasing the efficiency of the work force. All personnel will be trained in both fire and crime fighting duties and assigned to street patrol, thus allowing for an eventual reduction in the work force.

Difficult Aspect
Police and firemen see it as a threat to their jobs and to the quality of protection offered The City. They vow to fight the move.

"The moral question, (of forcing the men into new jobs), has been the most difficult aspect of this problem," Mayor John King explained. "But we cannot let 33 men dictate to 6,500 people in The City."

As "the first olive branch" offered to the disgruntled police and firemen, Mr. King said the council would allow the work force to be reduced from 33 to 29 men through attrition, (retirements, quits, etc.), rather than layoffs.

Those who don't want to be public safety officers would be assisted by The City in finding other jobs, Mr. King said.

The firefighters, with the help of their International Fire Fighters Association, promised to take their battle to stop consolidation through the courts and are confident they will win.

"Never in the history of Michigan have separate police and fire departments been consolidated when the men didn't want to, since the collective bargaining law went into effect," said Executive Secretary of the Michigan Fire Fighters Association, Robert Baker.

"One-third of our locals are small ones like this," Mr. Baker explained. "We are compelled to protect these fellows or we have nothing to stand on."

Consider Values
It will take at least 97 weeks for The City to complete training of men necessary for consolidation, and even longer if those men do not cooperate, City Manager Thomas Kressbach warned.

Under any conditions, Mr. King noted, "It, (consolidation), is quite obviously not going to save The City the $80,000 that the Citizens Research Council talked about." (Continued on Page 2)

Thief Snatches Lady's Purse

A thief snatched a woman's purse at 2:50 a.m. Saturday, October 2, spoiling her chance to grab a bite to eat at a Park restaurant, according to Park Lt. Gordon Duncan.

The lieutenant said that the Detroit woman parked her car on Wayburn, and was walking west on Jefferson toward the White Tower. Then a man came up behind her, yelled something, grabbed her purse, ran on Jefferson toward Detroit and disappeared.

The woman told police that the purse contained $64 in a wallet, credit cards and other personal items. The purse was found empty at 10 a.m. the same day at the rear of 1080 Philip, Detroit.

The purse snatcher was described as black, about 5'8" tall, in his 20's and having a thin mustache. He was wearing a tan cap with a peak, a black or navy blue jacket and dark trousers.

The theft victim said she last saw the thief running through Saint Ambrose parking lot before he disappeared on Jefferson.

Suspect in Custody

Held firmly by Farms Det. EARL FIELD, ADAM PATWIN is led to his arraignment before Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytell on Monday, October 4. Patwin is accused of the Friday, October 1, kidnapping of 10-year-old Scott Miller, of Washington road. Bail for Patwin was set at $250,000. In the foreground is Farms Det. Sgt. GEORGE VAN TIEM.

Kidnapping Incident

At this point, the FBI was called into the case.

While FBI agents, City and Farms police were at the Miller home, Scott called his parents at 3:20 p.m., saying he had freed himself.

Refused Help

"He took me into a basement and tied me between two poles," said Scott. "Then he left. I waited a minute or two, and then I untied myself."

Scott's mother asked him where he was, if he knew the address. Scott hung up the phone and left the basement. He asked residents in the neighborhood for aid, but was refused help. After walking to the corner of Eight Mile road and Santa Barbara, Scott raced back to his abductors home and again called his mother.

"I'm at 20455 Santa Barbara, mom," he said. "It's a green and white house."

Scott was told to run from the house and to hide. His mother said she would send the police. At 4:40 that afternoon, FBI Special Agent Robert Taft spotted Scott in an alley and picked him up.

"I went down to the corner and hid in some bushes," said Scott. "I heard them come searching. They found me."

Scott was brought back to his parents by Special Agents Larry McCormick and Oliver Zenk.

Never Harmed

He said the kidnapper never harmed or threatened him, nor did he ever see any weapons.

Patwin was talked into giving himself up by his wife, Phyllis, and was arrested by Detroit police at his home at 2 a.m. Saturday morning, October 2.

City police believe Patwin was seen the day before the kidnapping, parked on Washington road. A resident reported a suspicious man in a parked car and called in the license number to City police.

Patwin, who is the father of a two-month-old girl, is unemployed. He worked for Mr. Miller for six months before taking his last job, selling sundries at the Wayne County Jail.

Police officers will take 60 hours of fire training in the station plus eight to 16 hours in an Ann Arbor school. Firefighters' training will take seven, full-time weeks per man.

National Fire Protection Association consultant Warren Kimball warned the council at the meeting that "consolidation just doesn't work and in many cases ends up costing more money."

"We've got 25,000 separate police and fire departments in the U.S. and you can't point to 25 successful consolidated departments."

"We are out of the 'jacks of all trades' era. We have to decide what values we're protecting and life and safety deserve considerable attention."

Citizens present at the meeting were first allowed to ask questions by submitting them in writing to the mayor. One Washington road resident, pointing out that some of his queries were ignored by Mr. King, found the technique objectionable and just a method of buttressing the council position.

Many citizens suggested the matter be put to a referendum vote.

Referring to The City's last vote on the Bon Secours Hospital expansion, Dennis McCarthy, of Notre Dame said, "I think this question is every bit as important as the hospital and should be decided by the citizens."

Lt. Arthur Turner, president of The Farms Local 1509 of the International Fire Fighters, said he opposes the consolidation in The City, feeling "it will weaken the efficiency of the mutual aid agreement."

The City is currently at its 20-mill legal tax limit, with the exception of a three-mill garbage collection levy. Mr. King said he was in favor of the move "because we don't want to wait for a crisis situation in city finances before we act."

He said that he was disappointed that only 25 or so citizens went to the library to examine the consolidation report, prepared by the Citizens Research Council of Michigan.

He also told police that shortly before he passed out on the 15th, he had accepted a cup of coffee from a customer in the store. That customer, later identified as Pedenelli, was still in the store when Mr. Fiscus collapsed, according to police reports.

On Sunday, September 26, a Lathrup Village coin dealer called to say he had paid a man called August Pedenelli $4,000 for nine coins that were on a stolen goods list. When the suspect returned to the store to make another sale the next day, Lathrup Village police arrested him.

Since that time, police have recovered about one-half the stolen coins from various Michigan and New York dealers.

Pedenelli's pre-trial was set for Wednesday, October 6.

Students Earn Merit Honors

Principals James Hoeh of South High School and G. Bruce Feighner of North announced that 25 seniors were recently named commended students in the merit program by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC).

Letters of commendation were presented to 18 South students including Pamela L. Abbott, David J. Abbs, Terence C. Burnham, Ellen E. Cerutti, Timothy J. Clancy, Maureen M. Duffy, Lynda S. English and Nicholas Graves. Others honored at South were Gregory P. Jay, Stephen P. O'Keefe, Robert B. Payne, Robin M. Reinowski, Christopher B. Seaver, Joseph J. Semaan, Maura P. Sendelbach, Paul D. Shulec, Robert S. Stephens and Katherine E. Walton.

Letters of commendation were presented to seven North students including John J. Dimond, Donald A. Ford, Mary K. Huetteman, Lisa S. Pepper, Linda J. Povlitz, Jill A. Stevens and Maryclare Toffanetti.

They are among 35,000 students nationwide who were recognized for their outstanding performance on the 1975 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT).

Commended students represent less than two percent of the nation's secondary school senior class.

Edward C. Smith, president of NMSC, said, "The high standing of commended students in the merit program shows their great promise. Their attainment in this nationwide competition deserves public recognition. Commended students should be encouraged to continue their education."

Suspect

Farms police are seeking the aid of citizens in finding a man wanted for questioning in the apparent rape of a Farms woman.

According to police reports the woman was picked up on Tuesday, September 28, on Mack avenue, and was transported to the area of Grosse Pointe boulevard and Moross road, where she was sexually attacked.

The man being sought is a white male, in his early 20's, approximately 5'8" tall and weighing about 150 pounds. He was described as a "nice looking youth," with dark eyes, dark hair and soft spoken.

He was wearing a white shirt with long sleeves, and dark trousers.

The woman said he drove a light colored car, a two-door sedan with dark interior. A pizza heating box, approximately 12" x 12", with a colored design on the top, was on the back seat.

Any one recognizing the suspect is requested to call Farms Det. Earl Field at 885-2100.

Scrimshaw Art Now on Display

Jacobson's Department Store will bring the provincial Alaskan art of scrimshaw, or ivory engraving, to The Pointe on Thursday-Saturday, October 7-9, when the Alaskan Silver and Ivory Company displays a number of museum pieces and jewelry for sale at Jacobson's showroom in Kercheval avenue.

The jewelry, featuring finely carved nautical and wild life designs, will be on display during regular store hours, 9:30 a.m.-9 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, and 9:30 a.m.-5 p.m. on Saturday.

Engraving on fossilized ivory and bone is an ancient practice, but the distinctly American art form called scrimshaw began only 150 years ago.

Whalers and seamen with time on their hands may have gotten the idea of carving from elsewhere, but they soon adapted it to their own interests.

The word scrimshaw originally meant to waste time in idle pursuits, and was only later applied to these carvings. With the end of the whaling era, scrimshaw became a rare art.

Tree Survey in Woods Planned for Oct. 22-23

By George Polgar Jr.

A contingent of forestry students from Michigan State University (MSU), and their instructors will be visiting The Woods on Friday-Saturday, October 22-23, to conduct a survey of all the trees on city property south of Lochmoor boulevard.

The program of inspection and classification of trees in the community is part of an ongoing MSU forestry department project in which groups of students conduct such surveys in cities and towns all over the state.

The group is being brought to the community under the auspices of the Woods Beautification Commission.

According to the commission chairman Dr. Albert C. Howe, the students will count and classify the trees on city property, note their condition and what could be done to make them healthier. They also will suggest what trees would be most appropriate for future planting.

"This information will be of great use to the city in formulating future landscaping plans," said Dr. Howe.

"We can follow up on the findings of the survey including suggestions on pruning and caring for certain kinds of trees and also concerning the planting of species of trees based on soil and space considerations."

The MSU team performs the surveys for free and the host community is required only to arrange for food and lodging for the visitors. Mrs. Jean Rice, the recording secretary for the Beautification Commission, is in charge of making these arrangements.

"The preparations for feeding and housing the students are well underway but there are still a few things that need to be worked out with the city and some neighborhood church groups and restaurants," she said.

"We are expecting about 24 students and they'll probably be staying in the bathhouse at the Lake Front Park. Meals will be provided variously by church groups and restaurants."

The students will inspect only trees on city property and will not go into private yards.

For residents concerned about the health of their own trees, there will be a representative of the extension service at Woods city offices to answer any questions concerning the care of existing trees and the planting of new ones.

The seminar will bring experts from all over the country to speak on subjects of quantitative problem analysis, strategic long-range systems planning and effective systems documentation.

Group to Air Park Problem

Another viewpoint on Three Mile Park will be presented to Park residents on Friday, October 8, when the Grosse Pointe Park Civic Association meets at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks, 15439 Windmill Pointe drive.

Park Councilman Charles Thompson and Thomas Lo Cicero will discuss the original passive park concept as applied to Three Mile, in addition to alternative uses which do not include a baseball-softball diamond.

John Bruce, who has supported the construction of a diamond at Three Mile, has asked that the following clarification be made. The diamond as proposed for Three Mile will not meet championship specifications, which will disallow its use for the more widely attended championship games.

Moreover, The Park reserves the right to control specific use of the proposed facilities.

Robert Jones, president of Bank of the Commonwealth, has continued to assist the association with the legal details of complying with the requirements for non-profit associations.

In the meantime, advance tickets for the Halloween Party at Windmill Pointe Park on Friday, October 29, are available from Mrs. Mary Ann Woodrow at 499-1852.

Any Park resident interested in helping with ticket sales should contact Mrs. Woodrow at the same number.

Request to Develop Site Denied in Woods

in single family residential areas, also was cited.

After the long discussion, attorney Nathan B. Driggers, who submitted some of the petitions to the council, said protests against the development were received from adjacent property owners. As a result, he said this would require all six council members, (Councilman Ronald R. Keigen was excused from the meeting), to vote in favor of the request.

Explaining this further, City Attorney George Catlin said, under state statute and the city's zoning ordinance, if 20 percent or more of the property owners adjacent, opposite or at the rear of a proposed rezoned area filed objections in writing to the council, a three-quarters vote of the council would be needed to pass the request under the city's law.

It would require a two-thirds vote under state statute but, in this case, the city's law would come in effect.

As it turned out, it was no contest as Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos, Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan and Councilmen George Cueter, John Sabol and George S. Freeman voted to deny the bid, while Councilman Conrad A. Naegel voted for it.

"To me, this is the best possible land usage," (i.e., to build such a complex), stated Mr. Naegel. "It's not advantageous to have a builder put up single family homes on this property. And this is not the first request for such a development there."

He noted, "His, (Mr. Jankowski's), is by far the best presentation I've seen on it," while adding he was certain similar requests would be forthcoming in the future.

In his presentation and during question and answer sessions with citizens, Mr. Jankowski said his intention was to have owner-occupied units only. "The idea of the development is to give people who have lived here and have come to semi-retirement, (for example), an opportunity to stay in the area," he said.

Feeling that the construction of single family homes on the property was financially infeasible, Mr. Jankowski said such a complex, with units selling for between $45,000-$50,000, would create a good tax base for the city and would be a plus factor for the citizens and the community as a whole.

However, the citizens in attendance disagreed. Many felt once such a development became a reality in that area, similar developments would soon follow.

In reply to one resident, Mr. Pinkos stated if the council approved Mr. Jankowski's request, only the area in question would be rezoned. However, he indicated like pieces of property could be considered for similar rezoning in the immediate area.

Aware of the strong emotional feelings on the parts of some residents, (one lady exclaimed, for instance, "If we let him in, God help us! Let's all stand united!"), Mr. Jankowski felt those who were against the proposal might not feel the same way later. He stated some citizens really favor the development but were scared.

A few residents responded with "no's" in the audience. If certain moments bristled with emotionalism, Douglas Monroe, of Anita avenue, calmly read his prepared statement indicating his opposition to the proposal.

He felt if the council approved it, it would be a precedent-setting action and another nearby corner would be next on the list for the purpose of balance and unity to the area. With further developments on the horizon from his perspective, the process would be irreversible, he noted, while citing the impact of a favorable vote on the present council and on future councils.

Meanwhile, Mr. Driggers, who cited the viability and attractiveness of the area zoned for single family homes, said in the early 1970's a request for 18 units at that location was turned down by the council. "I'm surprised the Planning Commission gave Mr. Jankowski the time of day," he stated. The proposal he felt, was "pure and simple, spot zoning."

In response, Mr. Cueter said the commission spent months studying this request. He felt if five single family residences were built on the two neighboring corners, (including the one in Mr. Jankowski's proposal), more traffic would be generated.

Commissioner Thomas Fahrner said his group studied this proposal at great length while Commissioner Raymond Lynch said the body's recommendation to approve was not an impulsive decision.

Requests Fact-Finder

versal recognition clause of the contract that defines bargaining unit membership, according to Mrs. Cook.

"We are back to maintaining that no positions be removed from our unit," Mrs. Cook said, "because we have found that some of the positions we agreed to deleting have implications for other staff members, beyond just the original few."

Although the two teams have met several times over the past few weeks, spokesmen for both sides have described them as "housekeeping" sessions related only to minor issues.

Other school bargaining units, including secretarial, cafeteria and custodial employees requested State mediation of their negotiations last week, charging the Board has made no serious attempt to settle with them.

All three groups are represented by William "Bus" Bigham, of Management-Employee Associates. He said some of the units, which have been bargaining since June, have yet to receive initial economic offers from the Board. Mediation, he hopes, will speed the process up.

An unfair labor practices charge has been filed by Mr. Bigham, with the Michigan Employment Relations Commission, charging the school's Director of Support Services, Ben Zenn, with harassing and threatening cafeteria workers, Mr. Bigham said.

The charge, filed on Friday, October 1, alleges that Mr. Zenn threatened cafeteria workers at both North and South High, saying their picketing of an open house for the Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats on Sunday, September 26, embarrassed the Board.

He is alleged to have told the workers that the Board would tell their union to "get their pay checks somewhere else" and the Board could "close the place down" by sub-contracting the services, according to Mr. Bigham.

Mr. Zenn could not be reached for comment as he was attending a three-day meeting of the American Society of Business Officials in Boston, Mass., from Monday-Wednesday, October 4-6.

Assistant to the Superintendent George Eddington allowed that while Mr. Zenn may have told the workers he considered it inappropriate for them to picket a social event "this hardly constitutes harassment or a threat," Mr. Bigham should have checked the matter with Mr. Zenn before filing the charge, he added.

Unique School Program Offers 'Good Deal' for All

Notices will begin to go out this week to 600 Pointe families eligible to participate in the school system's unique four-year-old testing program to be held from October 18-November 16.

The 40-minute exam will include a screening of the child's level of development in the area of reasoning, perception, intellectual maturity, speech, language, vision, hearing and motor coordination.

School speech correctionists and psychologists will be assisted by Delta Gamma Sorority alumna administering vision tests.

The purpose of the program is to locate children now with learning disabilities, no matter how slight, before they enter school.

Help is offered in the form of a developmental pre-school program, pre-school speech and language programs and an early learning materials center for parents' reference.

The remedial classes will hopefully give the child a boost in learning skills or confidence necessary to do well in kindergarten. The alternative, according to Director of Pupil Personnel Reginald Sienkiewicz, is to wait until the children have started school and failed or done poorly before acting on the problem.

By this time, he explained, repeated failures in school may have devastated the child emotionally and destroyed his confidence and ability to do well.

More than half the students recommended to the remedial programs enter regular kindergarten without problem, Mr. Sienkiewicz said.

The program has proved well worthwhile since its inception in 1970, said Mr. Sienkiewicz, saving the school system money in remedial help in later years and a great deal of heartache and suffering on the part of kids and their parents.

Each participant will receive written notice of the test results. According to Mr. Sienkiewicz, about 97 percent of the eligible parents take part in the program, "mainly because word has gotten around that it is a good deal."

St. John Men Earn Honors

James T. Farley, president of Saint John Hospital, has announced he has received notification from the American College of Hospital Administrators that E. Normand Giard, associate administrator, and Dennis P. Markiewicz, associate administrator, were advanced to membership status in the college at its 42nd Annual Convocation last month in Dallas.

A candidate is advanced for membership only after completing the written and oral portions of the board of governor's examination for advancement to membership.

The examination is a professionally prepared instrument designed to evaluate the candidate's knowledge of issues and problems involved in the contemporary practice of health services administration.

The committee on credentials grants permission after carefully reviewing the candidate's professional growth as evidenced by, for example, participation in community health affairs and establishment of a personal program of continuing education.

The American College of Hospital Administrators is a professional society offering personal memberships to qualified candidates in the field of health services administration.

It was organized in 1933 to strengthen the practice of administration by evaluating the professional standards of excellence, establishing a standard of professional competence and furthering standards of professional education.

JOY Provides Jobs for Teens

A program co-sponsored by the Junior League of Detroit and the Neighborhood Club called Job Opportunities for Youth, (JOY), can help people looking for baby-sitters, party helpers, tutors and lawn service.

Since its founding in 1968 JOY has been bringing teenagers in need of work together with people in need of various services.

The program is a non-profit employment service which serves to give teenagers a chance to develop their abilities in employment experience and also to furnish the community with the many resources and skills of young workers.

The JOY office is staffed by volunteers and is located at the Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo avenue. Their hours are between 1-5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The JOY staff has just completed fall interviewing and have a great number of teens on file. Employers in the community are urged to call JOY to tap the resources of local youth.

Interested employers can call JOY at 885-4600.

Pointers Help Stage Crusade

A Pre-Crusade Coffee, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Area Representatives of the Southeastern Michigan Billy Graham Crusade Women's Committee, will be held at 9:30 a.m., Monday, October 11, at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue.

Grosse Pointe women are invited to attend.

Mrs. Carolyn Lunn, General Chairwoman of the Women's Committee for the Crusade, will be the speaker.

Many area churches are cooperating with the Crusade, and are encouraging their members to become involved in its various facets, as well as supporting the Crusade by their attendance.

Recognizing the growing concern of leaders in every walk of life over the apparent decline in moral and spiritual values — a concern that reaches an alarming state for some people — civic and religious leaders have invited Evangelist Billy Graham and his team to conduct a major Crusade for the entire Southeastern Michigan area and also reaching into Ohio and Ontario.

Stanley S. Kresge is chairman of the executive committee. The Crusade will be held at Pontiac Stadium beginning Friday, October 15 through Sunday, October 24.

During the month Pointe women will join with hundreds of others in Southeastern Michigan opening their homes and inviting their neighbors to join them for prayer for the community, city and nation.

District chairwomen for The Pointe area include Betty Russell, of Stonehurst road, and Ruth Cavanaugh, of Audubon road.

Chartered buses will be available to transport Pointers to and from the stadium. Reservations may be made by calling the area office at 881-3343.

Center Shifts Date of Film

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is shifting its Wednesday night crowd and combining them with the Thursday night Grosse Pointe Adventure Series patrons this week to prevent interference with the second Presidential debates which was scheduled Wednesday evening, October 6.

"The Magnificent World of the Mountain King," the story in film of King Ludwig II of Bavaria and his building enterprises in Bavaria, will be presented in Fries Auditorium following a Bavarian banquet only on Thursday, October 7. Dinner is at 7 p.m. and the film personally narrated and presented by Howard Meyers and Lucia Perigo, will begin at 8:15 p.m.

The banquet preceding the show will feature sauerbraten and sweet and sour cabbage and walnut Bavarian torte. The complete evening, dinner, (including tax and service), plus the show is $10.25. The show only is $2.75.

Storage Cases' Date Adjourned

The Woods Municipal Court cases of seven gasoline service station operators, who were charged with violating the Woods' zoning ordinance regarding the outside storage of motor vehicles on their premises, have been adjourned from yesterday, October 6, to December 1, according to court reports.

On September 8, police issued a combined total 36 violations, (for vehicles), at seven different locations.

A variety of questions have been raised because of this action with one of the most prominent ones being the definition of storage in relation to the ordinance.

ELECTED TO BOARD

John R. Plana, of The Woods, special assistant to the general managers of Automobile Club of Michigan and the Insurance Group, has been elected to the board of directors of the Lochmoor Country Club. A native Detroit, Mr. Plana has been a Lochmoor member since 1972.

4 New Staffers at Austin Prep

The office of studies at Austin Catholic Prep School has announced four additions to their staff for the 1976-77 school year. Reverend Reinhard Sternmann, previously at Saint Clare de Montefalco, will serve as business manager and instruct typing classes. Mrs. Nancy Watrous will assume responsibility for the fine arts department including four Austin bands. Reverend John Murphy will teach math and Duane Holmes will teach accounting. At the same time Austin announced academic department chairmen for the new year include Edward Higbee, foreign language; Thomas Bailey, language arts; Louis Martilotta, math; and Duane Holmes, practical arts. Others are Melvin Giovannucci, science department; Gino Perri, social studies; and Reverend Walter McNichols, theology.

Don't be backward about going forward, but be sure you know which direction you are going.

State Health Department Okays St. John's Request

The State of Michigan Public Health Department has approved Saint John Hospital's request for the purchase of a Computerized Axial Tomography Scanner, (CT Scanner).

With this approval, Saint John becomes part of a regional program for locating

CT Scanners in select hospitals throughout the State. The hospital reports that the cost to acquire and install the scanner will be an estimated $700,000. It's hoped the device can be in service sometime next fall.

This highly sophisticated and expensive piece of equipment uses its own computer to thread tiny pictures into single, high-resolution photographs.

Its great advantage over conventional X-ray techniques is its ability to highlight significant variations in brain tissue densities. This is essential in the early diagnosis of cancer.

The scanner also can be used in diagnosing cancers and other growths in the soft tissues of the abdomen and thorax. Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, University Hospital in Ann Arbor, Harper Hospital, Oakwood Hospital of Dearborn and St. Joseph of Ann Arbor also have received approval for the purchase of the CT Scanner.

Six other area hospitals have agreed to support the Saint John Hospital CT Program.

Get First Hand Look at Justice

South High School students received a first-hand look at the criminal justice system in action on Tuesday, October 5, with a tour of Wayne County Jail facilities and Records Court trial proceedings.

The students received background for the venture with a day of lectures at the school from local representatives of the legal and law enforcement professions on Monday, October 4.

Guest speakers included Youth Service Division Det. Patrick Fagan, Woods Lt. Bernard Kelly, attorney Robert Hatcher, Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis and Assistant Wayne County Prosecuting Attorney Riley Wilson.

The "Due Process" workshop planned by South business law and management teachers Thomas Boos, Russell Herschmann and Thomas Wolverton.

Its purpose was to introduce the students to the law in its regular course of administration through the courts.

Meal Program Needs Drivers

Bon Secours Hospital is seeking volunteers to participate in a new program of community service that will eventually provide hot, noon-time meals without charge to 40 elderly or disabled shut-ins.

The initial phase of "Meals for the Homebound" will begin in late October, providing a hot daily meal to 20 persons. An additional 20 shut-ins will be added to the program at a later date.

Training for volunteers to assemble and deliver meals will begin Friday, October 15. Supervision will be provided for the first week of the program. Volunteers should have a valid driver's license and an auto. They will be asked to make a minimum commitment of two days per month.

Meals prepared by a catering service, will be delivered to Bon Secours at 10:45 a.m. on Mondays-Fridays. Volunteers will assemble the individual packages, working in teams of two, and will deliver the balanced meal to each participant.

The total assembly and delivery time for 20 meals will not exceed two and a half hours.

According to Doris Heath, assistant administrator, there is a great need for a program of this type in the hospital area.

"For a person who is sick or disabled, missing out on a balanced diet can be deadly," Miss Heath said. "But providing food is not enough. We hope we can bring a meal with a smile, providing the diversion that can be a valuable break in an otherwise lonely day."

Volunteers may contact Miss Heath at the hospital at 343-1507.

years seniority, with two additional days at 15 years and three additional days at 20 years.

Upon retirement, employees will be paid one-quarter of accumulated sick leave units to a maximum of 40 units. Employees will receive a life insurance policy of $15,000.

On health insurance, an agreement to refuse to limit absorption of premium increases in such insurance to contract year only was awarded. A specification of "Blue Cross-Blue Shield" was dropped and there was no change in a prescription drug rider.

A funeral leave of one day, with additional days upon approval of the chief, plus the removal of a uniform allowance of $110, also were part of the package.

On non-economic matters, the parties refused to adopt the union's maintenance of conditions clause, but did make some changes in the discipline articles.

"Naturally, we thought we could do better," said Lt. Arthur Turner, treasurer of the International Firefighters Association, Local 1509. "The arbitrator was locked in on the Grosse Pointe system. We wanted to break the Grosse Pointe parity, but didn't do it this time."

The contract is retroactive to July 1975.

night, the Woods Council decided to use its good offices to mediate in a dispute between Saint John Hospital and more than 150 of their neighbors over the expansion of the hospital's parking facilities. This decision was made at the Monday, October 4, regular meeting.

The council turned down the request of the residents' group that an official embargo of municipal services and cooperation be imposed against the hospital until they met the demands of their neighbors.

Woods City Attorney George Catlin advised the council that such an action would be patently illegal.

"Besides the illegality of such a move, the residents are asking for a resolution that would bind a future council and in this case I don't think the council should be prepared to make such a decision," he said.

Though the residents' group raised questions about storm water drainage and the reasons for the excessive basement flooding on Raymond and Bournemouth roads, which they suggested was related to Saint John parking lot runoff, the details of a planned 250 car parking lot and the future expansion of the hospital were the main issues presented by the citizens.

Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos assured the residents, who were complaining about the flooding conditions, that a study was being conducted by the city engineer to identify problem areas and to find solutions.

During the discussion of the hospital's new parking area, and the arrangements being made to keep it from being an eyesore and inconvenience to nearby neighbors, both sides stated repeatedly their willingness to work together to reach an equitable solution.

Kind words were exchanged by residents and hospital officials about the mutual desirability of a fine hospital and a pleasant residential neighborhood.

"We are not totally opposed to Saint John Hospital's expansion," said Frank Markey, of Raymond road. "We feel a certain attachment to the hospital, we are proud of it and use its facilities. We are only asking for a little consideration in this matter."

The matter in question is the construction of a barrier between the parking lot and the Raymond and Kingsville road area, the material to be used for that barrier, the distance between the barrier and the street and a number of smaller issues.

Most of the residents would like a six-foot high brick wall with no openings on their street and a 30-foot wide greenbelt with trees between the wall and the street.

The hospital has already retreated on some issues since the first reports of the conflict.

"The hospital is willing to discuss construction of a brick wall six feet high instead of the wooden 'habitat' fence suggested by our architects," said Dr. Andrew Dahl, the hospital's director of planning, who had earlier ruled out such a construction as too costly. "If that is what the council wants we are willing to discuss it."

He went on to say that if the residents were really opposed to having a pedestrian access opening in the barrier, that too could be discussed. At that point one of the three principal spokesmen for the residents, Tony Lentine, suggested that with those assurances of the hospital's willingness to negotiate the major questions, the public hearing should be adjourned.

"If they agree to discuss those issues then we're finished here," he said.

Some residents were not finished, however, and more demands were forthcoming which clearly exhausted Dr. Dahl's goodwill.

He was asked why the hospital would not make the area outside the fence as attractive as the parking lot, (referring to landscaping), and he backed off saying that the hospital had an interest in their property within the fence being attractive.

This implied that there was a limit to which the hospital would sacrifice its own interests in favor of neighborliness.

Finally near midnight, Mr. Pinkos intervened and proposed that a limited number of representatives from both sides meet with Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen to "try and reach an amicable solution to the problem." The date and details of the meeting were discussed after the council adjourned.

GP Crooners Host Confab

The Grosse Pointe chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, (SPEBSQSA), will host its fall convention, Friday-Saturday, October 8-9, at the Hyatt Regency, Dearborn.

Fifteen choruses from Michigan and southern Ontario will compete at the meeting to represent the district in International Competition in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1977. That honor went to the Detroit chapter last year.

On Saturday morning about 500 chorus members will stage a mass sing-along in the lobby of the hotel.

SPEBSQSA was started in 1938 and now has more than 38,000 members. It was formerly headquartered in Detroit, but was moved to Kenosha, Wis.

For further information call Sully Mazur at 527-9660.

Kiwanis Club Names Officers

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club held its annual installation for newly elected officials on Tuesday, September 28, at the Lochmoor Country Club.

Kiwanis lieutenant governor Neil A. Madler congratulated outgoing Kiwanis president Russell Herring for his service, while welcoming the new officers.

Robert B. Frederick is the new president of the club, Michael Shaheen is first vice-president, George B. Catlin, second vice-president, George Cueter, treasurer, Robert F. Hill, secretary, and Robert E. Trinklein, director.

Merit Cigarette Sets New Taste Standard.

'Enriched Flavor'™ breakthrough brings unprecedented taste to low tar smoking.

Today there's a way to get real taste from a cigarette without high tar.

That's the report on a new taste discovery called 'Enriched Flavor.' A way to pack flavor—extra flavor—into tobacco without the usual corresponding increase in tar.

The cigarette packed with 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco is remarkable new MERIT.

If you smoke, you'll be interested.

Citizens Given Advice on Avoiding Con Artists

elderly," said Mr. Kalmr.
"The most effective defense against these schemes is common sense and knowledge of how they work."

The 10 most common swindles include, although not necessarily in order:

• Charge Card Overcharge. Here, an unscrupulous employee makes a quick buck by charging more on the charge card imprinter than the customer actually bought. Even though the handwritten slip might read $5, the slip could be machine processed for $15.

Another variation of this scheme has the employee prepare two slips, one for the actual amount and one for a fraudulent amount. The employee later forges the customer's signature and takes either the cash or merchandise home.

The way to avoid this swindle is to compare handwritten and imprinted amounts before signing. At the same time, keep all charge slips and reconcile your account each month.

• Stolen Checks. The variations on this swindle are limited only by the con man's imagination. Although banks sometimes provide reimbursement on stolen or forged checks, the law doesn't always hold the bank responsible.

Phony Call
You can guard against stolen checks by safeguarding blank checks and bank statements. They reveal your account balance, signature and check design. Always be sure to reconcile your account promptly and report any discrepancies immediately.

• Bank Examiner Scheme. In this swindle, the con man obtains bank account and personal information about his victim while peering over his shoulder as he completes his transaction slip, or by rummaging through wastebaskets in the bank lobby.

Once the victim arrives home, he receives a call from someone claiming to be a bank examiner. The phony examiner explains that a bank employee is suspected of altering withdrawal slips and solicits the victim's help in trapping the guilty employee.

The "plan" requires that the victim withdraw money from the bank. The cash will be marked and compared to the withdrawal slip. Any difference will "prove" the employee has altered the figures on the withdrawal slip and is pocketing the extra money.

After the victim makes the withdrawal, the phony bank examiner arrives at the victim's house, often flashing phony ID, marks the money and leaves to "return it to the bank."

This is the last anyone sees of him, or the money.

Cry for Cash
To avoid this swindle, don't discuss personal finances with strangers or casual acquaintances. Do not withdraw money on the advice of a stranger. If you make an error on a transaction slip, tear it up. Report anyone representing himself as a "bank examiner" to the police or to your bank immediately.

• Screaming Woman Ploy. Con men depend on a person's "good Samaritan" instincts to make this swindle successful.

In this con, a hysterical woman rushes to a victim's door and claims her son was injured in an auto accident. She frantically explains he needs blood and she has no money. The victim gives $5 or $10 and may even suggest other neighbors who might be willing to contribute.

On a good day, the con artist may collect upwards of $500.

To avoid this con, always be wary of strangers preying on your sympathies. Individuals collecting for agencies such as the Red Cross and the United Foundation should be able to provide identification.

• The Pigeon Drop. This is perhaps the oldest and most common swindle today. Over 360,000 attempts at this con are pulled every year.

Great Big "Find"
A typical scheme involves two swindlers, usually women. Usually one woman is black and one white. In this way, the victim is lulled into believing the two con artists don't know each other.

The first con approaches the victim and engages him in idle conversation. The second con rushes up, excited over having just "found" an envelope containing $30,000. In the envelope is a note stating the money is a payoff on a drug deal, or something equally illegal. After debating whether to return the money, the con calls a friend, who is an attorney, for advice.

Since the money was obtained illegally, the attorney sees no reason why the parties involved shouldn't keep it. He suggests, however, they wait a few days while he checks to see if the police are investigating.

The con then suggests that as an act of "good faith," each of the three put up $5,000. It is agreed, and the three split up, meeting again later with the money. During the second meeting, they drive to the lawyer's office. One con takes the money inside and after killing some time in the lobby, returns to speak with each of them individually.

Painful Reality
The victim is sent in and while searching for the non-existent office, realizes he'll never see his money or his "partners" again.

In the last month, two elderly Detroit area women, including one from The Farms have each lost $10,000 in this con game.

To keep from being taken, never expect something for nothing. Never turn money over to strangers who promise a substantial gain at a minimal risk. Very few legitimate transactions require cash.

• Sales Over-Ring. In this common swindle, the customer is over-charged or short-changed by a dishonest sales clerk.

Always make sure the amount you receive agrees with your sales slip. Count your change and try and have a rough idea of what your total bill should be and how much change you should receive.

• The $12.95 Brick. This swindle depends on the victim's willingness to help his neighbor. A person dressed as a delivery man arrives at the victim's door with a package addressed to a neighbor. He explains that the neighbor is not at home and asks the victim to accept the package.

Costly Concrete
By paying the $12.95 COD charge and accepting the package, the victim will save his neighbor from waiting in long lines at the post office.

When the neighbor arrives home and the package is opened, it's discovered the victim has paid $12.95 for a three-pound brick.

To help your neighbor and yourself, only accept packages if they're pre-paid or you have been specifically asked to do so by a neighbor.

• Home Improvement Schemes. Although they appear in various forms, these swindles cost Americans over $500 million a year.

Different ways unscrupulous contractors fleece people include offers to make a home a "show model" for a very low price and scaring people into unneeded repairs with predictions of exploding furnaces and water heaters.

Always check out unknown contractors with the Better Business Bureau before signing contracts. Don't be pressed into signing a contract. Obtain cost estimates from several contractors and never sign a completion certificate until the work is done to your satisfaction.

• Postal Frauds. Using the mail services for fraud cost Americans over $395 million last year. One of the crudest swindles preys on those mourning a recent death. From death notices, the con obtains information about the deceased. Based on this, he sends authentic looking bills to the family.

Has No Equal
Often these bills are paid without question. Other frauds involve soliciting orders for non-existent products, chain letters and offers to trace family trees.

Verifying all questionable bills and contacting the Better Business Bureau before ordering from an unknown firm will help prevent being swindled in these schemes.

• Double Trouble. For sheer ingenuity, the Double Trouble scheme has no equal.

In this one, your wallet or purse is stolen while dining in a restaurant. You attempt to place the blame on the owner of the restaurant, who refers you to the sign that states "Not responsible for stolen property."

Once you arrive home, you receive a call from someone who says he's the restaurant owner, who now apologizes for his rudeness and states your wallet was found in a trash can, minus the money.

He says he suspects one of his employees. To soothe your wound, he invites you and your family to be his guest the next evening. He instructs you to arrive at 7 p.m. and asks that you don't mention the free meal so as not to arouse the suspicions of the suspected employee.

While you fill your stomach at the restaurant, a U-Haul van arrives and empties your unoccupied home.

The topper is when you find out the manager never called and you also must pay for an expensive meal.

Theatrical Experience
A variation to this scheme involves the con stealing a victim's car. The victim finds it parked in his drive undamaged three days later.

On the seat is a note explaining the car was taken because of an "emergency." To make amends, the con-artist car thief leaves two tickets to a popular play.

While the victim and his wife are at the play, the con man and his U-Haul van are at their home ransacking it. To avoid this con, a simple call back to the restaurant to confirm the free meal is necessary. To avoid being ransacked, always ask the police or neighbors to keep an eye on the house while you are away.

These are the top 10 cons and swindles pulled yearly in the Detroit area. Police research has shown there are at least 800 other schemes the con men can try on their victims.

Must Speak Out
The defenses to these swindles are common sense and a knowledge of how they work.

The Detroit Bank and Trust Co. provides speakers to lecture on frauds and con games to interested groups. To obtain a speaker, contact Mr. Kelmar at 222-3368.

They will also send, free of charge, a booklet to interested citizens wishing more information on con games.

"Should you suspect a swindle or be the victim of one, don't hesitate to act," said Mr. Kalmr. "Call the police, submit a complaint to the Better Business Bureau or contact the district or prosecuting attorney in your area."

"Don't be embarrassed to speak out. Keeping your mouth closed helps keep their wallets bulging."

Program Views Elderly Care

"Does Anybody Really Care?" is theme for the Detroit Association of Retired School Personnel's meeting tomorrow, Friday, October 8, at 1 p.m. at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Hubbell at West Outer drive, Detroit. Grace McPherson is program chairman.

Edward Allardice, project manager of Citizens for Better Care Institute, will be the featured speaker.

Mr. Allardice, a graduate of Wayne State and Colgate Universities, has served as director of Out-Wayne County Nutrition and Social Services for the Elderly, field instructor at Wayne State for the United Auto Workers' Retired Workers Center, and case worker for the Wayne County Department of Social Services.

Citizens for Better Care was established in June, 1969, via resolution by the Detroit Common Council, which had decided that nursing homes in the area were not adequately serving the needs of the elderly.

It now has legal and investigative powers. Complaints about nursing home care are promptly checked out, and needed action taken.

All Detroit Board of Education retirees and friends are invited to attend tomorrow's meeting.

Open Women's Justice Center

The Women's Justice Center, specializing in legal and social services for women, is open, and invites community support via attendance at a cocktail reception tomorrow, Friday, October 8, from 5:30-8:30 p.m. in the courtyard of the University of Detroit Law School.

Sponsor fee is $50. Reception tickets are available at $25 per person. Additional information may be obtained by calling 961-7073.

"The WJC's approach to women's problems is not simply to respond to crises but to prevent them, through education and counseling," says Pointer Peggy Beadle, president of the WJC board and U. of D. Law School student placement director.

The Center, a non-profit corporation composed of lawyers, educators, social workers and community members, is located in the U. of D. Law Annex in East Jefferson avenue. It is the only such facility in the United States offering combined social and legal services.

Its primary clients are indigents, but others are accepted and pay, if their case is taken, on a sliding fee scale. Eligible women include single heads of households, widows, divorcees, homemakers without access to independent incomes, unemployed workers.

Future WJC plans call for providing education in legal rights for women in the total community, law reform litigation, legal research and clinical training for law students.

You can't borrow trouble and still have smiles to lend.

NHS Harriers Win 2 Meets

By Diane Marsteller

This past week the North High School cross country team competed in two meets. On Tuesday, September 28, the Norsemen ran on their home course against Warren Cousino and won the varsity, JV and freshman races.

Bill Weidenbach led the varsity runners at 15:20. Dale Savage was second at 15:52. Dan Beck, third, at 16:09 and Ed Hammer, fourth, at 16:13. Mark Kennedy was fifth, at 16:26 and Steve Brandt was sixth at 16:29.

Don Ford won the JV race at 17:17, followed by Tom Rousseau at 17:23. Jim Schmidt won the freshman race at 17:23 with John Bucacink, second, and Steve Lugo, third.

On Saturday, October 2, the Norsemen traveled to Oakland University to compete in the Oakland Invitational. North harriers won the meet with East Kentwood, second, and Fordson, third.

Kerry Barnett of Pontiac Central was first at 15:10 followed by Weidenbach at 15:14. Savage was fourth at 15:36. Hammer and Beck finished first and second, respectively, in their race. Luke Przeslawski, Mark Kennedy and Steve Brandt all tied for first in their race. Joe Claravino won the JV race.

The Norsemen will be competing Saturday, October 9, in the Wayne County Invitational at Rouge Park.

Along with the rain Tuesday, September 21, came another Bi-county league meet victory for the North High School Cross Country team. The Norsemen topped L'Anse Creuse by a score of 15-50.

Bill Weidenbach led the rest of the runners over a slippery three-mile course and finished with a time of 15:48. Dale Savage was second at 16:07.

There was a four way tie for third with Ed Hammer, Dan Beck, Steve Brandt, and Joe Claravino all finishing at 16:53. Finishing seventh was Luke Przeslawski, eighth was Mark Kennedy and in ninth place came Paul Lewis.

Tom Rousseau and Jim Schmidt were 10th and 11th respectively. Finishing 12th was John Stadwich from L'Anse Creuse.

Singles Group Meets Friday

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of Parents Without Partners, (PWP), will hold its next general meeting Friday, October 8, at 7:30 p.m., at the War Memorial.

Following the coffee and social hour, Donald L. Sarbacher, second vice-president, National Bank of Detroit, manager of EDP Planning, will speak on "Putting a Little Fun in Your Life." This is humorous presentation, yet carries a serious message.

Mr. Sarbacher is a noted toastmaster and commentator, and has received numerous awards, among them the Distinguished Toastmaster Award.

All members and eligible prospective members are urged to attend this discussion. An afterglow will be held following the meeting.

Board to Meet At North High

The Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday, October 11, at 8 p.m. at the North High School auditorium, 707 Vernier road.

The Board will present annual service awards honoring the volunteer work of citizens at that time.

Ambition is a longing some folks have for a comfortable place in which to do nothing.

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS
by Tom Seiter

The classic thing to do when you're stuck on a desert island is of course to send a message in a bottle, assuming, that is, that you have a bottle. And there are all sorts of tall tales in history concerning desperate messages washed up on far away shores. But now the travelling bottle has become a sport of sorts — without much standardization or discipline. The experts have taken to recording distances for these unlikely travelers, and actually point to their prize case: a bottle that travelled 25,000 miles from the Pacific to the North Sea. The travelling was not fast; it took twenty-one years.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

More questions about the current state of negotiations have reached me during the last week. Here are responses to three of the most-frequently asked:

1. Why did the Board of Education ask for fact-finding in its negotiations with the teachers' union?

We wish a contract settlement. It is our earnest desire that implementation of this next-logical step in the negotiating process will help to bring negotiations to an early conclusion.

Our team has spent 350 hours at the bargaining table attempting to bargain in good faith. Our team has been frustrated for a number of reasons. Therefore, we proposed fact-finding in an attempt to get movement.

The Board's team feels that an impartial third party, (fact-finder), might be able to move these negotiations forward. The recommendation tion of the fact-finder could provide a constructive basis for further meaningful negotiations between the state-mated parties.

We are confident of the soundness of the Board's position on the many complex issues to be resolved and we believe that his report might serve to clarify issues.

2. Is it true that every teacher could enjoy a 21 percent increase in base salary during the life of the proposed three-year contract?

Yes! This amount of money, based on a percentage of the current payroll could be distributed among the teachers in any one of several mutually acceptable ways.

One method could result in each teacher receiving a gain of about 21 percent over the next three years.

3. Does the Board of Education propose to change the compensation for graduate credit?

The elimination or retention of the so-called salary lanes is a negotiable item. The Board has a basic economic proposal which could grant all teachers a three-year salary increase of 21 percent with no necessary elimination of salary lanes or longevity payments. However, the specific distribution is a function of negotiations.

Enthusiasm may set the pace, but it takes perseverance to complete the job.

Jewels & Gems
by Jerry Valente

Diamond, emerald, sapphire, ruby, jade, opal — the sounds of the names of really fine stones could make the words of a good song. But to come in and examine the stones in person is to be impressed with the fact that today more than ever stones are being cut to realize the maximum in beauty, and set both tastefully and securely in fine settings. A ring or other piece of jewelry set with fine stones is a belonging that gives joy every time it is worn.

Do not risk losing precious stones from your jewelry because of worn or loose mountings. Bring in your jewelry to have your stones checked and cleaned, here at VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800. Prongs that hold stones in place are a lot like tires on a car. They wear. Rebuilt prongs add life to your rings and prevent losing precious stones.

HANDY HINT:

A standard carving set may be used for carving roast chicken, but a steak set is particularly good for carving small birds.

How does Studio Camera do it?

That's what camera stores all over the state are asking themselves — how does STUDIO CAMERA sell at such ridiculous low prices 365 days a year?

The answer is simple. We keep our overhead low. We run our store efficiently. We DON'T use "razzle-dazzle" gimmicks like so-called "free financing" coupons, or "half off" on over priced electronic flash units.

There's no haggling over price at STUDIO CAMERA. Our Cash Prices are our BEST price. All our prices are printed and up front. No one works on commission, so you buy what you want, when you want. You'll never get pressured into package deals, or any of the other gimmicks you can find in other camera stores.

This straightforward no-gimmick way of doing business is the reason we sell more cameras to more people than any other camera store in Michigan.

We must be doing something right.

YSD Detective's Program Draws Favorable Response

By Roger A. Waha

A great deal of positive reaction has been received by a Youth Service Division, (YSD), detective on his recent proposals to reorganize the criminal justice system in the State wherein local/district courts would have the responsibility for all misdemeanors for juveniles and adults.

YSD Det. Wayne Baum said his proposals, which were an outgrowth of not only his dissatisfaction, but the concern of others, over the lack of service provided the Points by Wayne County Juvenile Court, along with the disenchantment with the Department of Social Services in its past handling of juvenile cases, has drawn a favorable response.

He stated other police officers, school officials, people at his church and citizens in general have lauded his program, which emphasizes home rule implementation and encompasses a proposed system of criminal justice for the State of Michigan for both juveniles and adults, plus a proposal in relation to criminal justice detention facilities.

Late last month, Det. Baum sent a letter and charts to State Senators Joseph Snyder and John Hertel, along with State Rep. William R. Bryant Jr., outlining his program. As of Monday afternoon, October 4, he had received a reply from Sen. Snyder.

In his letter, Sen. Snyder said, "The questions you raise deserve serious consideration as the problems of youth crime proliferate. I agree we need a better and more effective criminal justice system as well as an improved program of rehabilitation."

He also forwarded the detective's material to the newly created office of Juvenile Justice Services.

In a conversation with the NEWS, Sen. Snyder said he hadn't had a chance to digest the program fully as yet, while adding he was impressed by the amount of work and effort put into the proposals on Det. Baum's part.

"He, (the detective), was the only one who took the trouble to respond to my inquiry, (i.e., a personal letter), sent out after the hearings," the senator noted.

Det. Baum's letter was in response to Sen. Snyder's request for input regarding the "Development of An Effective System of Services and Procedures to Prevent Delinquency and Neglect and to Provide for the Uniform Administration of the Juvenile Justice Service Delivery System."

Meanwhile, Sen. Hertel said, because of heavy activity last week with the mass transit bill and political reform bill, he hadn't had the opportunity to review Det. Baum's proposals. However, the senator said he planned to go over them this week.

The NEWS, after repeated attempts, failed to contact Rep. Bryant for his comments on the program.

But in a letter dated Tuesday, September 28, to Gov. William G. Milliken, Rep. Bryant cited the proposals by noting, "One of our local 'Youth Services Officers'... believes the time has come to make a drastic change in the juvenile crime area... He believes the disrespect fostered by probate coddling is disastrous."

Rep. Bryant also mentioned other approaches in dealing with juvenile crime in his letter.

In a final note, Det. Baum added those who agree with his proposals and the viewpoint they express should contact their representatives in Lansing.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Pursuant to my telephone conversation with Mrs. (S. Rose) Moxley, of North High School, I am writing this letter to express my objection to the changes in the SEMTA bus service by which the route servicing North High School from our area was eliminated.

Our family resides on Bournemouth road, one block from Moross and Mack avenues, which is slightly more than three miles from North High School.

While my husband and I are not in favor of "pampering" high school children, we do sincerely believe that such a distance is too far to expect the students to walk, particularly during the inclement winter season.

We and other parents of ninth and 10th grade students bear an additional problem insofar as our children are not old enough to drive, whereby they could utilize family automobiles for transportation to school.

As I am sure you are aware, many families do not have daytime transportation available for the transport of students, or working schedules do not permit parents to drive them to and from school. Therefore, I am sure that our objections and concerns are shared by numerous other parents.

My husband and I also find it difficult to understand why there is currently no bus service for our distant area, while such service does exist for areas closer to the school. We cannot believe that a school system which has provided such excellence in education will fall remiss in the obligation to provide necessary transportation for students.

Chamber Music Concert Oct. 10

The Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe are presenting a concert on Sunday, October 10, at 2:30 p.m. in the Fries Ballroom of the War Memorial.

Nancy Ambrose, oboist, and Virginia Shover, pianist, will open the program with the Sonata, Opus 166, by Camille Saint-Saens.

A ninth grader at North High School, Nancy is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ambrose, of Roslyn road. Her oboe teacher is Arno Mariotti.

Nancy is a member of the North Symphony Orchestra and the Grosse Pointe Junior Symphony. Recently she participated in the Schoolcraft Summer Music Festival and School, performing in the orchestra, wind ensembles and chamber players.

She also studies piano with Virginia Shover, of Hampton road, who will be sharing the spotlight with her on Sunday.

Two four-hand compositions, "Dance of Joy" and "Harmonica Player" by Pointe composer Alma Exley, of Lakeshore lane, will be featured next. Alma's partner will be Estelle Truchinowicz, of Highland Park. They also will play the "Suite for Four Hands" by Strategier.

Grosse Pointe's husband and wife duo, Edward and Helene Vabolis, of Aline drive, will perform the seldom-heard Sonata No. 2 for violin and piano by Edward Grieg.

To close the program the "Cinq Poemes de Baudelaire" by Claude Debussy will be sung by Doris Pagel, of Aline drive, with Fontaine Laing, of Novi, at the piano. Theresa Curtis will be the narrator.

The public is cordially invited to attend the concert.

Invite Parents Back to North

Parents of North High School students are invited to attend the annual "Back-to-School Night" Tuesday, October 12, at 7:30 p.m.

They will follow their son's or daughter's schedule with classes 10 minutes in length. Teachers will explain the purposes and procedures in their courses and will answer questions regarding the various aspects of the curriculum.

During the evening the Parent Club will serve refreshments in the cafeteria.

Letters of invitation have been sent to the homes of all North High students.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford
Chief of Central Library

Corporate histories are all too often dry, pedestrian affairs of interest only to the company's officers and stockholders. However this is not always the case. To illustrate this point here are five new "company" histories that in addition to being informative are both well-written and readable.

TELEPHONE: THE FIRST ONE HUNDRED YEARS, (Harper), by John Brooks is the story of the telephone in the United States and of AT&T, the giant corporation it spawned. This book is the fruit of more than two years of research, during which the author had free access to AT&T files.

Mr. Brooks has come up with an essentially positive picture of the company as innovator and provider of "the world's best" telephone service. He begins this story with the earliest telephone experiments and concludes it with predictions for the future.

In the process Mr. Brooks considers the Bell System in relation to competitors, the government and the overall course of U.S. history.

In CONCORDE, (Stein and Day), author Geoffrey Knight tells the inside story of the world's first supersonic airliner. He describes the development and production of the airliner by British Airways and Air France, and their respective governments.

Mr. Knight reports in detail the saga of the long conflict with American interests of various kinds, the setbacks and triumphs and the victories over the many technical difficulties that faced the Concorde's builders. Through the eyes of the men who fashioned Concorde we see the plane take shape and, at last, meet all its specifications and enter into commercial operation, heralding a completely new generation of aircraft.

CBS: REFLECTIONS IN A BLOODSHOT EYE, (Playboy Press), by Robert Mertz is an informative behind-the-scenes account of the people who made CBS America's "greatest entertainment factory."

It is a history of changing vogues in entertainment from the Lux Radio Theater and Major Bowes to the "Smothers Brothers," "All in the Family" and Walter Cronkite.

Here is the story of how CBS reports the news, who censors what and whom and how superstars and executives are made and broken.

Soft-spoken, publicity-shy William Paley dominates the book as he has long dominated CBS. As ratings fall, programs and people are ruthlessly dropped, stars like Ed Murrow, Lucille Ball, Arthur Godfrey and others, along with executives like Jim Aubrey, Clive Davis and even Frank Stanton are, in the end, only Mr. Paley's employees. This engrossing book is enhanced by 24 pages of photos.

From telephones, airplanes and television we come to Robert Sobel's N.Y.S.E.: A HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE 1935-1975, (Weybright).

This is an objective, critical appraisal of the evolution of the Exchange in its most turbulent period, drawn from materials within the N.Y.S.E.

This book sets the Exchange within the perspective of the national economy and traces the notable financial, political and social development influencing the market, while paying equal attention to the individuals whose decisions affected the Exchange.

This history is a definitive reference to what is "one of the country's most important financial institutions."

While this next book is not about a company in the true sense of the word, it is a book about a very large organization: FBI, (Atlantic), by Sanford J. Ungar.

In writing this revealing inside book at the FBI, author Ungar had interviews with director Clarence Kelley, with key figures in the FBI's Watergate investigation, and with hundreds of agents and top brass.

Generally, Mr. Ungar neither praises nor condemns the FBI, but instead lets the reader form his own judgments as he pores over the FBI's 70-year history, its "war" on crime, its harassment of radical, black, civil rights and other dissident groups, favor-swapping on Capitol Hill, "security operations" overseas, its public image-building and its use of electronic surveillance and informants.

This book is a mine of information for anyone concerned with "the Bureau's" role in our society.

Center Offers Belly Dancing

Far Eastern Belly Dancing will again be offered at the War Memorial Center. There will be morning classes from 10-11 a.m. and afternoons from 1-2 p.m. on Wednesdays, October 20-December 15.

Belly dancing is a "fun" way to exercise, achieve grace and develop coordination. The teacher is Carol Polderdyke who was Fariba's star pupil when she was in Detroit from Iran. The fee is $25 for the eight-week course.

Wine Lines

A brandy of exceptional flavor and bouquet? Cognac. This is a name controlled by French law, and its use is limited to a small area of southwestern France. The wine this area produces is of ordinary quality, but its brandy has made the name world-famous. The finest of the Cognac is "champagne" cognac, although any brandy bearing the name Cognac will be superior. It is an excellent after-dinner drink, and perfect for a leisurely and relaxed evening.

You'll find a full array of fine after-dinner drinks, from brandies to liquors at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626. Your complete party store, we also carry a wide selection of wines, whiskeys and beers as well as snacks and bar accessories and can take care of your party needs whether you are having an elegant dinner party or a few friends for beer and sandwiches. Hours: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs.; 10-11 Fri., Sat.

Mrs. C. Wayne Elsea, of Marshall, Mo., national president of the National Society, Daughters of Colonial Wars, is in town today, to participate in dedication ceremonies as the Michigan Society places a Bicentennial Memorial Marker at the grave of Mrs. Henry Bourne Joy at 11 o'clock at Elmwood Cemetery.

It's a fitting tribute to one of Grosse Pointe's Greatest Ladies.

Helen Hall Newberry Joy was born June 9, 1869, into the distinguished Newberry family. She died March 13, 1958. Her home was Fair Acres, one of the most fabulous of the now-legendary Lakeshore mansions.

Mrs. Joy was a leader in Detroit's cultural, philanthropic and civic life. She was greatly interested in the American Red Cross, helping to found the Michigan Chapter in 1905.

Decoupage Exhibit Set This Weekend

Bicentennial Quilt Created by Jane Beebe and Her Students to Be Featured, with Lamps by Louise Hoyt and Marie Mitchell

Alice Anderlite, Betty Beebe, Fernande Biglin, Charlotte K. DeSarla, Edythe Forcier, Veda J. Gidner, Ellen C. Grabke, Clarice T. Grob, Louise M. Hoyt, Fred Pagel, Judy Schylte, Ann Standish and Nita Widell are among Pointers who will be traveling to Rochester this weekend.

Occasion is the Seventh Annual Mid-Continental Exhibit of Decoupage and Decorative Arts, to be held Saturday, October 9, from 11 in the morning to 9 in the evening, and Sunday, October 10, from noon to 5 o'clock at Rochester Senior High School.

The exhibit, offered as a public service and bringing together the talents of artisans throughout metropolitan Detroit, will feature many Early American arts in honor of the Bicentennial, including a Bicentennial quilt, executed under the direction of Miss Beebe and her students.

The quilt, on display for the first time, has been under construction for a year and a half. It focuses on persons, places, things or events in the past 200 years in Michigan, and includes the signatures of President Gerald Ford and Governor William Milliken.

Partially completed, it will be presented later this year to the Detroit Historical Society.

Among other Early American arts featured will be Tinsel, folk art, tole and stencil (theorem) painting, country carving and marquetry (inlaid wood), using a decoupage technique.

Two miniature exhibits—a five-room papier tole dollhouse by Rosemary (Mrs. Russell) Parker, of Rochester, and a national collection of mini boxes executed in different forms of decoupage by members of the National Guild of Decoupeurs—will be on display.

A special display of decoupage lamps is also planned, featuring as prizes a pair of lamps valued at $400 each, executed by Louise Hoyt and Marie Mitchell, two of the country's leading decoupeurs.

There will be a continual demonstration of tole painting. Mini-lectures will be offered in eggery, folk art, reverse transfer, silk illusions, country carving, color and design of decoupage prints, tole fabric, stencil painting and quilting.

A new technique to be shown is "sun shadows," decorative ornaments which reflect sunlight, by Mrs. Sally Lutz, of Dallas, Tex.

The non-profit exhibition is sponsored by the Michigan Chapter of the National Guild of Decoupeurs, chartered in 1971 for the purpose of distinguishing the fine art of decoupage as an art in itself, and to encourage a high level of quality in workmanship.

Membership is earned by submitting a box which is judged. Members then share in learning experiences, advancing from Layman to Journeyman to Mastercraftsman through standards established by the Guild.

Inquiries concerning membership may be directed to headquarters at the National Guild of Decoupeurs, P.O. Box 5119, Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48236.

A Golden Jubilee Year for St. Clare

Cardinal John F. Dearden Will Be Principal Concelebrant of Anniversary Mass This Sunday Afternoon

Saint Clare de Montefalco parish will commemorate its Golden Jubilee this weekend, highlighted Sunday, October 10, by a 3 o'clock concelebrated mass in Saint Clare's church.

Principal concelebrant will be Cardinal John F. Dearden, Archbishop of Detroit.

Assisting him will be Augustinian priests who formerly served Saint Clare parish, as well as other diocesan priests. Father Jerome M. Heyman, O.S.A., will deliver the homily, (sermon).

Liturgy for the mass has been carefully prepared, by the parish priests and Worship Commission, to have special significance for Saint Clare's.

Ladies from the parish donated their time during the summer months, designing and sewing the matching stoles of antique gold satin which will be worn by the concelebrants.

Prior to the Golden Jubilee mass, at 2:15 o'clock, a concert of sacred music will be presented in the church, by the adult and youth choirs with brass ensemble, under the direction of Gerald Furi, Saint Clare music director. The concert will set the theme for the subsequent Eucharistic celebration.

The opening selection, a late 16th century composition by Giovanni Gabrieli, "Cantion duodecimi toni" reflects the Church's Christian musical heritage.

cal heritage.

A type of choral music in vogue at the time of Saint Clare's founding is R. Remondi's "O Sacrum Convivium!" "Though the Mountains May Fall" by Dan Schutte, S.J., is an example of contemporary church music.

An "Ave Maria" by Zoltan Kodaly, the late Hungarian master, is among other pieces to be performed.

The concluding arrangement will be an introduction to the Jubilee mass, announcing the entrance of the concelebrants with fanfare and flourishes.

Following mass, a reception, with punch and cookies, will be held in the lower part of the church, offering an opportunity for parish members, their families and former parishioners to meet with friends, renew acquaintances and offer congratulations on 50 years' accomplishment.

A dinner at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Saturday evening, October 9, will honor the priests and religious who have served Saint Clare parish and the native vocations from Saint Clare. Other special guests will be parents of the invited religious and pioneer families of the parish.

Saint Clare de Montefalco was founded in 1926 when a handful of men, feeling the need for another parish church in the Grosse Pointe area, made a formal request of Bishop M. J. Gallagher. It was their desire also to grant the parish to a religious order.

Bishop Gallagher chose the Order of Saint Augustine. Father James A. McDonald, O.S.A., was assigned as first pastor.

He began his duties by celebrating Saint Clare's first mass in Bedford road, in a two-family home which had been purchased by the Order of Saint Augustine. Before a church-school was erected, Sunday masses were held in the Colony Theatre.

As the years passed, a rectory to house the priests and a convent to accommodate the Dominican Sisters of Columbus, O., were built. School additions and improvements were made.

The present church building had its ground-breaking ceremony in 1950, and was completed in 1953.

Six pastors have served the people of Saint Clare. The longest tenure was that of Father Philip Colgan, O.S.A., for 29 years.

The present pastor is Father Francis R. McDonnell, O.S.A. Associate pastors are Fathers Edward J. Sweeney, Vincent D. Burnell, Thomas L. Osborne and John Ohner, O.S.A.

In order to make the Golden Jubilee a year-long celebration, every single event of note sponsored by the parish organizations has been dedicated to the 50th anniversary.

Preparations for this weekend's Jubilee mass have also taken the form of cleaning and painting the interior of the church and updating its ecclesiastical appointments to permit more simplicity in design. Care has been exercised in landscaping in order to enhance exterior beauty.

Because a group of dedicated and hard-working parishioners has, over the past two years, compiled a 50-year history of Saint Clare, parish members may share the events of its founding and eventual growth.

Via photographs and interviews, the Golden Jubilee Book traces Saint Clare's past through three stages: 1926 to 1950, the actual founding and spiritual growth; 1950 to 1967, physical growth; and 1967 to 1976, changes in the parish since Vatican II, and the reactions to these changes.

St. Ambrose Home Is Scene of Tea

Party Is Thank-You to Junior Group of Goodwill Industries, Which Purchased Furnishings for Residence Facility

Residents of Saint Ambrose Home, the League for the Handicapped-Goodwill Industries sponsored residence in Alter road for mentally-handicapped women, held a tea Friday, September 24, to dedicate their recently-refurbished living room to the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries.

The Juniors purchased furnishings for the home. Among those attending the tea were Mrs. David McGill Batey, Junior Group president, past-presidents Mrs. Frank Angelo and Mrs. Thomas Fox, of Radnor circle, and many board members.

Pointers among the partygoers included Mrs. Sheldon

Drennan, Mrs. Arnold Fuchs, Mrs. William Beeby and Mrs. Harry Mellen.

Also present were Art Heller, director of the Detroit Wayne County Health Board, and William D. Wisecarber, new executive vice-president of League-Goodwill.

Phyllis Manson, social worker assigned to the Home, gave a short talk on funding the facility. Father Thomas

There's a Fair in Their Future This Fall

Smiling over some of the items to be featured in the Kids Korner at this year's Christ Church Fair are, (left to right), MRS. PENELOPE SLOUGH, MRS. GERALD ELLSWORTH and MRS. G. STEVEN ORBAN. The items are handmade, of course, for handmade is a Christ Church Fair tradition. This year's Fair is set for Thursday, November 4, from 10 to 4 o'clock at the Church in Grosse Pointe boulevard, next door to South High School.

W. Krell and Father Robert A. Ruedisuel represented Saint Ambrose Church at the tea in the former Saint Ambrose convent.

The delicious food was prepared by the residents. Centerpieces were fashioned from vegetables and flowers grown in the garden planted at the Home this spring by residents and Junior Group members.

Through the efforts of Mrs. William Post, of Buckingham road, a Junior Group member, and Mrs. Emil Traum, of Harvard road, the Young Women's Home Association Board of Trustees presented a check for $1,000 to Saint Ambrose residents, earmarked for their clothing needs.

This Board controls the remaining funds of the now-dissolved Young Women's Home, formerly located in Clifford street, Detroit. Mrs. Samuel Johnston, of Washington road, is president. Mrs. Ray Macdonald, of Lochmoor boulevard, a Junior Group member, is treasurer.

A portion of funds raised via the 1976 Junior Goodwill Antiques Show, to be presented in early November at Fairlane Manor, Dearborn, will be allocated to the Home, one of many Goodwill-sponsored projects.

Right now, what the residents would love most is the donation of a piano, or a pool table — tax deductible, of course.

Review Club to Present Autumn Benefit

Detroit Review Club's annual benefit luncheon and fall fashion parade is scheduled for Friday, October 22, at Lochmoor Club, under the aegis of Mrs. A. Edmond Allen, chairman of the day, assisted by Mrs. Howard Berge.

Festivities begin with cocktails at 11:30 o'clock. Commentating the show of styles from the Margaret Diamond Shop will be Mary Morgan. Mrs. Bewley Priestman will provide musical accompaniment.

Prizes will be featured, and the afternoon will conclude with cards and/or conversation.

DRC, one of the charter members of the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs, has held annual philanthropic parties since 1895. Guests are welcome.

Members of the Club's ways and means committee, in charge of planning the benefit, include Mrs. Frederic Beddow, TUkedo 5-8285, and Mrs. N. Conner Gunn, KENmore 4-4090, who are taking reservations, and the Mesdames Charles F. Brundie, Maurice Castle, Bert A. Greiner, Lawrence E. Holmes, Robert Kefgen, John Lavrakas, Allyne Litchfield, H. Lloyd Patterson, Francis M. Quigley, Ansel V. Rice, George Sibbelsky, Louis P. Thurmon and Aaron E. Wilcox, and Mrs. Priestman.

with a luncheon at the Golden Lion. Vera Brown, DRC president, will act as official hostess.

Mrs. Patterson is in charge of the noon luncheon, to be followed by a musical program, presented by Mrs. Robert Gerisch, featuring guitarist Chris Birg's classical and contemporary selections.

Mr. Birg, a Wayne State University graduate, holder of a Bachelor of Music degree, has studied with Joe Fava, Juan Serrano, Alirio Diaz and Joe Pass, and is presently appearing with a jazz group.

Mrs. Charles Hauer, social chairman, will center luncheon tables with baskets of fall flowers and greens.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

A mortgage is a pledge of your home to secure a loan. If you fall behind on your monthly payments, the lender is entitled to foreclosure. If the home is sold under foreclosure, you would get any cash left over after the loan is paid. Fortunately, foreclosures on family homes do not happen often these days. Most lenders prefer to work things out with some kind of arrangement with you rather than foreclosure. Your best protection is to keep up mortgage payments. But if you get into a jam, tell the lender right away and see if you can figure out a compromise payment schedule.

Discuss your real estate needs with the professional service representatives of GROSSE POINTE REAL ESTATE CO., 20087 Mack Ave., Grosse Pointe Woods, 882-0087. We have ample mortgage money available and many times we are able to help eliminate some of the unnecessary steps involved in obtaining financing. We offer personalized dependable service in all phases of real estate. Remember also if you are planning to sell a home or other property list it with us for prompt profitable results. "Exclusively in Grosse Pointe." Open: Mon.-Sat., 9-5. Sun: noon-5. 24 hour answering service.

Open Museum Lecture Series

"Approach to Collecting: Good, Better, Best," will be Albert M. Sack's subject when he opens the Associates of the American Wing Lecture Series at the Detroit Institute of Arts Saturday, October 9, at 11 in the morning.

Mr. Sack, son of the late Israel Sack, a pioneer dealer in Early American furniture, joined his father's New York firm in 1934.

His primary function today is that of a buyer, but he frequently lectures at museums and antique furniture forums, contributes articles to Antiques Magazine and is the author of "Fine Points of Furniture: Early American."

The lecture, open to the public, (general admission is $1.50 at the door), is sponsored by the Associates of the American Wing, a special interest group of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts.

Mrs. Ross Wilkins, of Mus-koka road, is secretary of the AAW. Mrs. John B. Watkins, of Cloverly road, is membership chairman.

Associates have been invited to an informal workshop in the museum's American galleries, where Mr. Sack will illustrate fine points of connoisseurship with examples from the permanent collection.

Information on AAW membership may be obtained by contacting the Founders Society membership office, 833-7971.

Alpha Phi to Celebrate Founder's Day Oct. 11

Alpha Phi Founder's Day will be celebrated Monday, October 11, the Detroit West Suburban Alumnae Chapter hosting East and North suburban groups at Raleigh House. The annual party starts at 7 o'clock.

Accepting reservations at $8.50 per person, including dinner, is Cis Christensen, 882-2849. Martha Mast, chairman of the Alpha Phi Foundation, will be the key speaker.

The Detroit East Suburban Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Phi has scheduled a Tupperware Party for Monday, October 18, at 7:30 o'clock in Marge Nixon's Lochmoor boulevard home. Reservations should be received by Jean Rice, 886-2097, or Genevieve Ekerdt, 779-1085, by Sunday, October 17. Guests are welcome.

Christ-Mach Rites Are Read in July

Imperial House Is Setting for Reception Following 1 O'Clock Service; Pair Vacation in Northern Michigan

An Empire-waisted gown of white Qiana trimmed in Venice lace was Kathleen Marilyn Mach's choice for her wedding to Michael A. Christ. Setting for the Saturday, July 31, ceremony was Our Lady Queen of Peace Church.

The bride's waist length veil fell from a lace headpiece, and she carried an arrangement of white baby carnations, yellow Sweetheart roses and baby's-breath.

The 1 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Allen H. Vigneron officiated were followed by a reception at Imperial their home in Golden Valley, Minn.

Honor matron Mrs. Alvin Owens and bridesmaids Mrs. William Heitzman and Mrs. Duane J. Christ were yellow, capped frocks with matching picture hats. Their flowers were yellow and white daisies.

Flower girl Rebecca Wenzel, the bride's niece, who came with her mother Ms. Tricia Wenzel and sisters Heather and Nicole from Kailua, Hawaii, for the wedding, wore yellow cotton trimmed in white lace, and carried a basket filled with yellow daisies and baby's-breath.

Thomas G. Christ came from Van Nuys, Calif., to act as his brother's best man. In the usher corps were Duane J. and Charles L. Christ, two other brothers, and Glenn G. Gammon, of Grand Rapids.

The mother of the bride wore floor length aqua chiffon. The bridegroom's mother selected emerald green chiffon, with a matching stole. Both mothers pinned yellow cymbidium orchids to their purses.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Dennis King, of Placencia, Calif., and Miss Katherine Christ and Mrs. Elizabeth McGroarty, of Wilkes Barre Pa.

To Marry

Present Musical Marathon Benefit

Two-Day WJR Radio Broadcast Will Raise Funds for Detroit Symphony Orchestra; Starting Time Is Saturday Afternoon

Anyone who has ever dreamed of conducting the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in concert, or who thinks he can beat DSO music director Aldo Ceccato at tennis, can find out how to get the chance by listening to the WJR/Detroit Symphony Musical Marathon on radio station WJR this Saturday and Sunday, October 9 and 10.

These are two of the premiums to be offered during the two-day event, for which final preparations are now being made by staff members of WJR, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and volunteers from the Junior Women's Association for the DSO.

WJR Fine Arts director

Karl Haas will be the major host for approximately 25 hours of air time, featuring musical recordings, interviews and the chance to purchase goods and services donated for the Marathon by area businesses and DSO musicians.

A full bank of telephone operators will be on hand to take pledges for premiums and/or musical selections for the event. The 25-hour WJR Radio broadcast begins Saturday, October 9, immediately after the University of Michigan-Michigan State football game, and will continue—with time out for the Lions game at noon—until 10 o'clock Sunday evening.

Musical Marathon Airs This Weekend

Wrapping up plans for this weekend's WJR/Detroit Symphony Musical Marathon with WJR Fine Arts director KARL HAAS are Pointers MRS. HERMAN E. MAZER, (left), and MRS. WILLIAM J. RICE, members of the DSO's Junior Women's Association which is helping produce

broadcast.
A catalog listing all current Marathon premiums and musical selections is available from the Musical Marathon desk at the Detroit Symphony office, 961-0700. Further premiums will be announced on the air.

WJR/Detroit Symphony Musical Marathon will begin immediately after broadcast of the University of Michigan-Michigan State game Saturday afternoon. It will continue all through Saturday night and Sunday, (with time out for the Lions broadcast at noon), until 10 o'clock Sunday evening.

WJR is contributing air time for the Marathon in a repeat of the successful format established for the first DSO radio marathon, held in February, 1974.

General chairman of the Junior Women's Association's Marathon committee is Mrs. R. Anthony Keenan, Jr.

Chairmen for particular areas are: billing, Mrs. Jacqueline Coolidge; premium board and pre-subscription, Mrs. Howard F. Rasch and Mrs. John Philip Bruno; premium acquisitions, Mrs. Frederick G. Hertel, (west area), and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, (east area); premium distribution; Mrs. Robert Scott Ketchum; phone bank, Mrs. Fred Goldberg. President of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra is Mrs. Henry M. Domzaleki, of Windmill Pointe drive.

MARY C. RENTZ, daughter of the DON RENTZES, of Berkshire road, has been named to the winter semester Dean's List at Central Michigan University, where she is a Business Administration major.

Double Dates for Pointe Alliance

The Grosse Pointe Alliance Francaise, which brings so many French-oriented activities to the Pointe area, has scheduled two events for the month of October.

The first is planned for next Thursday evening, October 14, at 8 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Rene Robert, a local resident and vice-president of the Pointe Alliance, will present a lecture and slide review on "L'Art du Vitrail en France."

He will discuss the history and symbolism of some outstanding stained glass windows of the 12th and 13th centuries, as seen in Paris' Sainte Chapelle and the cathedrals of Chartres, Le Mans, Bourges, Troyes and Soissons, among others.

He will speak in French, with some slide commentary in English.

Mr. Robert, born in Chateau-Thierry, France, was graduated from Saint-Cyr, the French West Point, and spent several years traveling his native country and North Africa with the French Army Corps of Engineers.

A hobby photographer and artists, he also holds a degree from the University of Detroit College of Engineering, and is presently on the staff of Ford Motor Company.

Mrs. George Mikhail is chairman of refreshments for the evening, which is free to Alliance members, (guests, $1).

A luncheon at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Saturday, October 30, at 1 o'clock, will be immediately followed by a lecture and slide presentation, in English, on "Tahiti, Mythes et Realites," to be given by Albert Rozberg, Belgian journalist-explorer.

Tahiti, the classic island paradise of the South Seas, is the largest and most important of French Polynesia's Society Islands. During World War II the natives voted to support the Free French. In 1946, all indigenous inhabitants became French citizens.

Through the years the island has attracted many celebrities, including Robert Louis Stevenson and French artist Paul Gauguin, who painted several of his masterpieces there.

Guest lecturer Rozberg, presently with a Belgian press agency, has spent most of the last 10 years visiting, exotic, often little known, spots of the globe.

His travel articles have appeared in newspapers and magazines worldwide, and he has spoken before Alliance Francaise groups in several countries, as well as under the sponsorship of UNICEF, the USO and the Museum of Natural History.

Mrs. Klaus Schmidt is taking reservations for the luncheon-lecture. Deadline is October 26. Cost to Grosse Pointe Alliance members is $6, to guests, $7.

CHRIS and DONALD HEIAN, sons of DR. and MRS. BJARNE HEIAN, of Littlestone road, were both graduated this June, Chris from Evangelical Lutheran Seminary, cum laude, with a Master of Divinity degree; Donald from Michigan State University, with honors in pre-Med.

From Another Pointe of View

and for many years chairman of the Board of Lady Managers, (how quaint that phrase sounds now!), of Grace Hospital.

She helped found Cottage Hospital, and was one of its trustees.

She and her two brothers, Senator Truman Newberry and John S. Newberry, gave the University of Michigan its second woman's dormitory, naming it after their mother, Helen Handy Newberry.

Of the many honors that came to her, Mrs. Joy was perhaps proudest of the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Arts, bestowed on her by Wayne, (it wasn't State then), University June 17, 1948.

She was a member of many patriotic societies, among them the Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Colonists and Colonial Dames of America in the State of Michigan.

Then there were the Daughters of Colonial Wars . . . Mrs. Joy was the organizing president of the Michigan Society in 1936. She served a six-year term as first state president.

She served as national chaplain from 1941 to 1944, as national vice-president from 1944 to 1947. During the latter term she "doubled" as national chairman of Rehabilitation Projects; through her suggestion, a fund was established to benefit veterans. (Continued on Page 30)

Grosse Pointe Property Values

Uncommon common sense and not the Greater Fools Theory is what sets the price on valuable Grosse Pointe property.

Today's buyer is aware of value and insists on choice.

Art Auction to Benefit Bon Secours

Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League Group XIII members KATHY PAPPAS, (left), and KAREN MOURAD check over plans for their Group's Art Auction, to be presented next Wednesday evening, October 13, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Kathy is chairman, Karen co-chairman of the event, directed by Fred Grossman's Gallery Art Center, featuring, among others, works by Rockwell, Dali, Mercier, Peter Max and Lionel Barrymore. A champagne preview at 7 precedes the auction at 8 o'clock. Tickets, ($2.50 donation per person), may be purchased at the door—as long as they last; since tickets are limited, they may be obtained in advance by contacting Mrs. Edward Miller, 885-0263, or Mrs. Thomas Coyle, 885-3984. Also working on the committee are the Mesdames D. M. Egan, Jo Hart, Leo Marx and William Mumaw.

Hold Chrysanthemum Show This Weekend

The Greater Detroit Chrysanthemum Society's 16th annual Chrysanthemum Show will be presented Saturday, October 9, from noon to 9 o'clock, and Sunday, October 10, from noon to 5 at the Tel-Twelve Mall.

The public is invited. There is no admission charge. Entries are open to everyone, and will be received Friday evening, between 8 and 10

Exhibit Decoupage

This weekend's exhibit will include a special National Guild display of the 14 different techniques which elevate a decoupageur from Lay-o'clock, and Saturday morning until 9 o'clock.

Harvest Giants, cascades, hanging baskets, Bonsai, cushion and various garden varieties will be featured.

man to Journeyman to Mastercraftsman.

The Michigan Chapter will offer a second display of decoupage objects by members.

Other arts to be featured include macrame, candle mold lamps, frame making, reverse dimensional painting and quilling dimensional flowers.

A $1 admission donation is requested. The mini-lectures are 50 cents each.

Plan Morality in Media Award Dinner

Members of the invitation committee for the annual Awards Dinner sponsored by Morality in Media of Michigan met recently in the Lake court home of Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, Jr., to address envelopes and discuss final plans for this year's dinner, scheduled for Wednesday, October 20, at 6:30 o'clock at Kingsley Inn.

Anthony G. DeLorenzo, vice-president, General Motors Corporation, will be the speaker. The Honorable Thomas J. Foley will be toastmaster.

Wilbur M. Brucker, Jr., of Merriweather road, will present awards on behalf of the organization to The Reverend Billy Graham, (or his representative from the Southeastern Michigan Crusade), Detroit News columnist June Brown Garner and the executive board of the J. Walter Thompson Company.

Each will be cited for making a contribution to the cultural environment of the community, the quality of the media and the future of youth via positive efforts to improve the quality of programming in the communications media.

The Reverend Morton A. Hill, S.J., national president of Morality in Media, is coming from New York for the dinner. The invocation will be given by Monsignor Hubert A. Maino. Rabbi Stanley M. Rosenbaum will give the Benediction.

Representatives of many of Morality in Media of Michigan's cooperating organizations are expected to attend, and several winners of the Michigan MM Youth Essay Contest have volunteered to usher.

Emmet E. Tracy, of Provincial road, is chairman of the board of Morality in Media's Michigan affiliate. Gerald A. Danielski is president, E. F. Griffith, vice-president, John D. Gallagher, treasurer, S. H. Murphy, executive secretary, and A. C. Eisentrager, recording secretary.

Dinner reservations, at $10 per person, may be obtained by writing reservations chairman Mrs. Robert L. Frenzel, by Thursday, October 14. Mrs. Frenzel's address is Box 8621, Detroit, Michigan 48224.

OPEN SUNDAY 2-5

THE KIND OF HOUSE that will catch your looking. It has the curb appeal that causes you to wonder if it's as attractive inside . . . and it is! This one has a two-story entrance foyer and library, family room, living room and formal dining room. The kitchen has every built-in imaginable and there are two first floor lavatories. Upstairs a private bath services each bedroom. Located in the first block off Lake Shore Road, 551 OXFORD, near Morningside. See picture ad on Page 29.

843 N. RENAUD—Elegance from the moment you enter the stately entrance hall with its spiral staircase. This spacious American colonial was custom built for the most discerning buyers. A paneled library for the executive of the home and an entertainment-sized covered patio for the entire family to relax are desirable pluses in addition to the formal dining room and step-down living room. This outstanding home is a delight to see and a pleasure to own.

673 UNIVERSITY. Excellent, four bedroom English located in a very desirable area in the City of Grosse Pointe. This exceptionally well built home features a comfortable den, leaded windows and doors, and a paneled recreation room.

19201 LINVILLE at the corner of Kingsville is where you'll find this three bedroom colonial with an enclosed breezeway between the house and garage. A great feeling of spaciousness because of the corner location.

AVAILABLE FOR APPOINTMENT

NOBODY'S PERFECT but we think we have a house that is. This one has not one but two family rooms. There are four generous sized bedrooms and a fifth room which could be used as another bedroom or office. The house is brick to the belt line with aluminum siding above. Super landscaping beautifully surrounds the backyard swimming pool.

UNDOUBTEDLY ONE OF THE FINEST houses built in the Pointes within the last dozen years. Just three doors from Lake Shore Drive this Southern colonial is complete to the last detail. May be purchased with or without a buildable lot which fronts on Lake Shore Road.

20505 WILLIAMSBURG COURT, HARPER WOODS. Townhouse condominium, two bedrooms, one and one half baths. All new carpeting first and second floors. GE stove, self cleaning oven, refrigerator frost free, dishwasher, disposal, all new 1975. Gas FA and central air conditioning. Grosse Pointe school system.

TAKE NOTICE all ye seeking a four bedroom house with family room and central air conditioning. We have just the house for the budget conscious buyer, and it comes with complete carpeting and a two car garage. Priced to go at $37,900.

343 MCKINLEY in the Farms. Recently redecorated from stem to stern, the top deck has three large bedrooms and two full baths. There is a family room to complement the formal dining room and living room. The yard is fenced and services by underground sprinklers.

INCOME. Just a short walk from the lake on lovely Trombley Road. Attractive colonial design. Large living room with fireplace, formal dining room, three bedrooms, one and one half baths (or two bedrooms and den) each unit. One unit will be available immediately.

FRENCH INFLUENCED colonial could be the small house you've been waiting for with the big rooms. The front entry is served by double doors which open to a gracious, marble floor foyer. There are three fireplaces to add plenty of atmosphere, and having a private bath for each bedroom is pure luxury. The lake breezes are a constant delight, however this house is completely air conditioned.

FIRST OFFERING

A SPACIOUS ENGLISH MANOR HOUSE with separate apartment over the attached three car garage. The main floor is comprised of a most generous proportioned living room and dining room, both with bay windows. To complement these formal rooms, there is also a library, sun room and heated garden room.

Rose Society Offers Advice

The time is fast approaching when another rose growing season will come to an end. With the advent of cold weather, rose growers face the annual decision of how to protect their plants against the ravages of Old Man Winter.

Although most varieties of roses grown in this area are considered to be winter hardy, they will come through much better with some protection.

The quality of bloom next year will be determined by how well the plants survive the winter; a plant that barely makes it until spring cannot be expected to produce show quality flowers next year.

Smith College Rep to Visit

The assistant director of admissions of Smith College, Kathleen C. Barnes, will be visiting Pointe area high schools to talk to junior and senior young women on Friday, October 8.

Ms. Barnes will visit North and South High School as well as University Liggett School and Bishop Gallagher. Students from Grosse Pointe presently enrolled at Smith include Evelyn V. Exley, Gail Hammond, Jean K. Robinson, Janet L. Fruehauf and Eleanore Wotherspoon.

Two local Smith Alumnae, Mrs. Albert Arbury and Mrs. Richard Platt, are arranging the visit.

Set Deeplands Club's Meeting

Deeplands Garden Club will meet Monday, October 11, at noon in the Cook road home of Mrs. Stuart Davidson who will be assisted by co-hostess Mrs. Bruce Belard.

Mrs. Davidson will demonstrate the use of fruits in artistic arrangements during a program entitled "Designing with Fruits."

Church Hosts Guest Preacher

The Very Rev. Urban T. Holmes, dean of the School of Theology at the University of the South in Tennessee, will visit Christ Church the weekend of Friday-Sunday, October 8-10, and lead several sessions on "New Life in Prayer Book Worship."

Dr. Holmes has served on the Prayer Book revision committees and will speak in the Undercroft of Christ Church on Friday at 8 p.m. to interpret the significance of the new Prayer Book.

On Saturday from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. he will lead a workshop on the new Eucharistic liturgies. On Sunday he will preach at all services, 8, 9:15 and 11:15 a.m. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Once a day the world turns over on the fellow who thought he was sitting on top of it.

Happiness comes by the load you lift from the weak, not by laurels heaped on the strong.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD MART CO-CHAIRMAN MRS. JAMES L. RAUH, MOSELLE PLACE, WITH BOBBY

By Janet Mueller

Come November, Mary Rauh is going to re-discover her dining room table. She hasn't seen it for months. "We could put chocolate sauce on the A's," one family member was heard to remark . . . but they wouldn't really taste all that good, and if Mary came home to discover someone had created a new dish: A's in Chocolate . . . She might not ACTUALLY turn violent.

But she'd think about it. Hard.

Mary Rauh and Francie (Mrs. Robert K.) Hydon are co-chairmen of the 1976 Planned Parenthood Holiday Mart, and that means lists, and files, and folders, and letters and replies to letters.

How It Happened

Occasionally, Mary makes an attempt to clean off that dining room table. "But each time I clear it, everything has to come out again."

Occasionally, she finds herself wondering: how did I get into all this?

Francie has the answer to that one. "I called her on the 'phone."

And Mary, who's always done small jobs for the Mart, ("I was transportation chairman one year," said, "Yes.")

That was almost a year ago. "We started working in December." Neither thought, in the midst of those mid-winter preliminary planning sessions, that there'd come a midsummer day when they'd station themselves at the Little Club pool, recruiting people as they went by in bathing suits.

Helps To Laugh

It's been hectic. There've been headaches. But it's been fun too, and rewarding, and through it all, there's always been laughter.

"I'm going to have a nervous breakdown," Francie announced one day. "Okay," said Mary, "but NOT YET."

Now the Mart's in sight, debuting Tuesday, October 12, with a starting at 5 Opening Night Party. It will run Wednesday, October 13, from 10 to 8:30 o'clock, and Thursday, October 14, from 10 to 5, at the Sentinel Center in East Jefferson avenue.

Francie's decided to trade in her post-Mart nervous breakdown for a trip to Toronto. Mary's just going to sleep for a week.

Robby Hydon, who had taken to greeting his mother each morning with "Mommy, are you doing the Holiday Mart AGAIN today? When's the Mart going to be over?" is going to have to find something new to complain about.

Boys Share Dividend

Actually, Robby's not much of a complainer, and the Mart's paid off with an extra dividend for him. Robby and Bobby Rauh played together all summer while their mothers worked.

Robby, youngest of the Haydons' two sons, has just started first grade at the Grosse Pointe Academy. Not that it's a new experience for him—this will be Robby's fifth year of school, for he started in Montessori at the Academy at two-and-a-half.

Now, entering first grade,

he can read and comprehend a newspaper. He loves school.

Francie's the biggest Grosse Pointe Academy booster you ever saw.

Jay Hydon, just turned 12, is a student at University Liggett.

The three Rauh children, Sherry, 11, Jimmy, nine, and five-year-old Bobby, are all at Kerby School.

There's a big black Labrador, Gus, in residence at the Rauh home. The Hydons have an airedale.

14th Year in Pointe

Mary Rauh, a born Detroit-er but from the northwest side of town, now qualifies as an "old-time" Pointe resident. "We will have been here 14 years next March."

She's a member of the Junior League and the Junior League Gardeners, a board member of Tennis and Crumpets and of the Neighborhood Thrift Shop.

She loves to ski. All Rauhs love to ski. You'll find them heading for Walloon Lake winter and summer. "We love it there in every season."

This summer's been a Special Case. "It's been a wonderful summer," Francie and Mary agree. "We've spent it indoors!" Number One on their list of '76 Holiday Mart priorities was finding a good committee, and that, as Francie notes, "is not easy in a town where so many people are so heavily committed."

Good, But Too Many

"This has been a year of too many events," Mary adds. Not that they weren't all good events, for good causes . . . but when you're calling someone in January to do something in October, and something like the Junior League's Decorators' Showhouse is scheduled for the intervening spring, it's hard to get a commitment for fall volunteering.

Then, too, "in the Grosse Pointe area, everything is so interrelated."

But the Mesdames Rauh and Hydon had several things going for them. Planned Parenthood Mart's excellent reputation, for one: not only as a fun place to shop, but as a fun place to be, (especially as a volunteer worker).

The fact that proceeds go to Planned Parenthood's clinic and educational programs, (that's a cause a lot of people are committed to working very hard for).

Doesn't Take 'No'

If all else failed, Francie had Mary. "The ones who might say 'no' to me, I'd have Mary call. You don't say 'no' to Mary."

They also had a corps of "repeats," dedicated women like Jean (Mrs. Edwin O.) Bodkin, "our fabulous patron chairman," who'd worked on every Mart since the first, 18 years ago.

Things were different then. "There's no comparison," Jean says. "That first Mart was just a small thing that we did."

But it was good, it was "right," people liked it . . . and how it grew! "Like Tennis and Crumpets," Francie notes. "It just went whoo-ooosh!"

Planned Parenthood Holiday Mart '76 will present over 30 shops, specialty stores from all over the United States . . . and beyond. Diane of Denmark is coming with her jewelry.

Some New, Many Old

Some, like New York's D. Porthault, will be new. Some, like Au Bon Gout, T. Anthony, Ltd., Bissinger's, "our great stand-bys," are returnees.

Roger Horchow will be there on opening night to personally present his Horchow Collection.

Charlotte Ford is bringing her Cache-Cache gift items. She plans to be on hand, off and on, all three days, to see how they go.

Mart shoppers may make appointments to have their pets painted by the very talented, very popular Bill McPherson. (On canvas, of course—nobody's going to go around spraying the Rauh Labrador blue or the Hydon airedale purple.) They may pick up literally ANYTHING, from a pipe to a posy.

"We want this," say Francie and Mary, "to be the Compleat Mart. We've tried to offer something for everyone."

Looks like they've succeeded.

Excellent Committees

With the help of excellent committees — last winter's calling and cajoling paid off — and dedicated individuals like Jean Bodkin, who remain as excited about the 17th Mart as they were about the first.

This year, Jean even went so far as to redecorate her car with Holiday Mart patron files. It wasn't a planned redecoration. Jean, forced to a sudden stop as she pulled up in front of Francie's house for a meeting, saw her patron files fly from the car seat to the floor.

When the dust settled, 850, (give or take a few), cards lay there, in un-alphabetical order.

What did Jean do then?

She began to pick them up. The cards are sorted now. Approximately 1,000 volunteers have been recruited to work at/during the Mart, in shifts, doing everything from taking admissions, ($3 per person, patrons gratis), to clerking, to modelling clothes culled from the collections of Mart shops.

Some are hostesses. Some will handle drink tickets.

When you get right down to it, there was very little trouble enlisting those volunteers. "It's no problem, and cheerfully, and nicest of all, Perini's prices don't make a serious dent in the budget. Try this friendly dining room—you can't help but love it.

Goodwill Set For Guest Day

Members of the Women's Association of Goodwill Industries will be hostesses at the traditional "Guest Day" Wednesday, October 13, in the Goodwill Building, Brush street at East Grand boulevard, Detroit.

Presidents of church and club groups, wives of ministers, civic leaders and personal guests have been invited to a complimentary mini-lunch at noon, followed by an afternoon program.

Reservations are necessary. They are being accepted through Monday, October 11, by Mrs. James Wellons, TO 6-5044, and Miss Geraldine Sellers, TO 6-7342.

Guests of honor will be Mrs. Elroy Schiefele, president of the Goodwill Women, the Misses Lucile Hill and Evelyn Herralla and the Mesdames Lonnie Crump, Kate Ely, Wilma Price, Alma Radford and Mattie Rye. The latter seven ladies have been employed at least 25 years at Goodwill.

Mrs. Schiefele, president during the Association's 45th year, has served as president of the Northeastern Women's Club and the Women's Association of Calvin East United Presbyterian Church, and is a member of Tuesday Musicale.

Mrs. Ralph L. Young, past-president of the Goodwill Women, and Mrs. Dewey Law, second vice-president, are co-chairladies for the event.

Mrs. Bernard M. Segner, of Westchester road, program chairman, will introduce Solan Weeks, director of the Detroit Historical Museum, who will speak on "Preserving Detroit's Heritage." Mrs. Claude L. Stevens will present the inspirational message.

An added feature of the program will be a conducted tour of the recently inaugurated newspaper recycling plant adjacent to the Goodwill Building. Newspapers are pulverized and processed to produce fireproof insulation material designed for use in homes and industrial buildings at the time of construction or any later date.

Goodwill Industries' needs 15 tons of newspapers per day to keep the plant operating at capacity, and is making an urgent appeal to householders and businesses to provide this raw material.

Membership in the Women's Association is open to any person interested in vocational testing, training and employment of handicapped people. Courtesy parking is available at the Goodwill lot in Milwaukee, between John R and Brush streets.

Accepted as members of the freshman class at Briarcliff College, Briarcliff Manor, N.Y., are VIVIAN DAY, a graduate of Miss Porter's School where she was active in the Drama Club, daughter of MR. and MRS. STANLEY DAY, of Lakeland avenue, and MARY GOODHEART, a graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School where she was extremely active in athletics, serving as captain of the swimming team and of the travelling tennis team as well as participating in varsity field hockey, daughter of MRS. GEORGE GOODHEART, of Beaupre avenue.

People want to work." Now all Francie Hydon and Mary Rauh want to see is people pouring through the Sentinel Center's doors October 12, 13 and 14.

They've made it as easy as they can. They've brought the Mart back to the east side of town. They've arranged for valet parking. They've turned Mary Rauh's dining room table into the Catch-All Capital of the World, and if anyone, after reading this article, gets the bright idea to bake a cake in the shape of an A, and frost it in chocolate, and drop it on the Rauh's doorstep . . .

Actually, that's rather a nice idea.

crans at Battle Creek's Percy Jones Hospital. When the Frontier Nursing Service in Kentucky was made a national project in 1949, Mrs. Joy's interests turned toward it. She was made an FNS trustee. Her concern for the Frontier Nurses continued the rest of her life.

Mrs. Elsea, the Society's national president since April, 1974, served as Frontier Nursing Service Tour chairman for the 1972 FNS tour. Following this morning's dedication ceremonies, she will join Michigan Society members in a 40th anniversary celebration.

The luncheon party is set for 12:30 o'clock, at the Detroit Boat Club.

'How I Spent My Summer Vacation'

Remember those traditional autumn school themes, "How I Spent My Summer Vacation," and how we struggled to remember SOMETHING interesting we'd done, (we must have done SOMETHING . . .)?

Myra Study could write a book.

Myra, an Engineering Geology major at Purdue University, daughter of the Jon A. Studys, of Hollywood avenue, spent her summer "blowing up fields" in search of underground oil and natural gas.

She made seismic survey expeditions all over the northern part of Michigan, only woman member of a 20-"man" crew. She carried dynamite, packed explosives into holes and waited for the signal to clear the area.

"The only thing I couldn't do that the men on the crew did was carry 100-pound loads of cable." Myra only weighs 115.

She worked an average of 10 hours a day. She even spent her birthday, (number 20), in the field, putting in a 15½-hour day on that occasion.

"We tramped through fields and swamps, and I can remember one time when I took a running jump to cross a wet area. I ended up hip-deep in mud." Fortunately, hip-boots were part of her daily wardrobe.

The first week was the hardest. "I wondered if it would be worth it." But she persevered, and she'd do it again. "My boss said he'd hire me back anytime, and I made a lot of friends. The day I left, some of them admitted they never thought I'd make it through the whole summer." They didn't know Myra.

Ghoulies and Ghosties

There will be a ghostly gathering of witches, ghouls, skeletons and other spirits at the Hunt Club Barn beginning Saturday, October 23, and running through Halloween. We're all invited.

The Haunted Barn, a fund-raiser for University Liggett School, will feature 16 different exhibits, designed and built by ULS' many friends.

There's the Forgotten Prisoner, for instance . . . and the ghostly poker game in which all players draw a dead man's hand . . . the Black Lagoon . . . the Mad Scientist's Laboratory . . . the Chinese torture Chamber.

Horror movies will be shown. There's even a special section for children eight and under.

Hours are noon to 9 o'clock weekends, 3 to 9 weekdays. Admission is $1. Information on group rates and reservations may be obtained by calling University Liggett, 884-4444.

Set German-American Ladies' Fashion Party

The Ladies Auxiliary of the German-American Cultural Center will present its fall luncheon and fashion show Tuesday, October 19, at 9273, by Tuesday, October 12, noon at the Center in East Men are welcome.
