HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, October 7
AN EXPLOSION aboard a Cubana Airlines DC8 sent the jet crashing into the Caribbean Sea shortly after takeoff Wednesday, killing all 78 persons on board. Barbados Coast Guard launches and Bridgetown port tugs that sped to the crash site 11 miles offshore, along with an armada of volunteer pleasure boats, found only wreckage and bodies. An anti-Castro organization of Cuban exiles in Miami has claimed responsibility in recent months for the attempted sabotage of a Cubana flight on the ground at Kingston, Jamaica.

Friday, October 8
MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED Gas Co. said Thursday that its natural gas costs have risen so much that it will have to charge the average Detroit homeowner $100 more for gas in the coming 12 months than it charged a year ago. Anticipating angry reactions from its nearly one million customers now that the heating season is near, the company contended that the increase—a 32 percent hike—stems solely from the high prices Michigan Consolidated itself must pay for gas.

Saturday, October 9
MAYOR YOUNG SAID Friday he will seek re-election—not a Federal post—next year. Speaking with reporters after dedicating the city's 32nd police mini-station at Jefferson and Iroquois, he said, "I'm not interested in a Federal appointment. I'm interested in this city and in being elected by its people." Since he was among the first black leaders in the nation to endorse Jimmy Carter for the Democratic presidential nomination, there has been speculation that he might be in line for a job in Washington if Gov. Carter wins the election.

TWO MEMBERS OF THE American Bicentennial Everest Expedition have scaled the world's highest mountain, but strong winds Saturday put a summit attempt by additional climbers in doubt. On a sparkling clear day, the two climbers stood on the earth's summit for half an hour, snapping photographs and admiring the view from a height of nearly five-and-a-half miles. Word that Dr. Chris Chandler, 28, of Seattle, Wash., and Bob Cormack, 30, of Boulder, Colo., had reached the peak of the 29,028-foot mountain on Friday ended a night of anxiety at the base camp.

Monday, October 11
SKILLED WORKERS AT UAW Local 600 voted Sunday to reject a proposed national contract, jeopardizing a tentative agreement to end the 27-day-old strike at Ford Motor Co. While the local's 7,000 skilled members were rejecting the contract, production workers in the 25,000 member local voted to ratify the pact. Financial Secretary Pat Murphy said. As skilled workers hold veto power over any national agreement this year, Sunday's vote created serious doubts about the fate of the tentative agreement, a UAW source admitted Sunday.

Tuesday, October 12
PALESTINIAN GUERRILLAS raided the Syrian embassies in Italy and Pakistan Monday in an apparent concerted campaign of revenge for Syria's intervention against Palestinian guerrillas in the Lebanese civil war. In Rome, three men with submachine guns and grenades strode into the embassy, shot and seriously wounded a diplomat and held five hostages for two hours before surrendering to police. In Islamabad, Pakistan, three Palestinians attacked the Syrian embassy and ambassador's residence but were intercepted by police, informed sources said.

Closing of Post Office Discussed

City and Park Residents Raise Objections But Postal Director Indicates Action Necessary

By George Polgar Jr.
Residents of The Park and The City previously served by the post office at Kercheval and Marlborough are receiving letters and packages through the newly constructed branch office at Jefferson and Algonquin. Some Pointe residents have raised objections concerning the distance of the new office from their homes. In response to these complaints, Postal Director Emil Asa said that the decision to move the post office so far from The Pointe residents it serves is regrettable but not arbitrary. Citing the inadequacy of the old office, Mr. Asa told the NEWS that real estate people representing the postal service had looked for a suitable location to build a new office in The Park and The City but were unable to find anything within their needs and budget. "We would have preferred a location in the Pointes but as everyone is aware, the amount of available land in that area is scarce and expensive," he said. Mr. Asa explained further that if the new office is too far for Park and City residents, they can take care of (Continued on Page 2)

Excitement Mounts As Billy Graham Crusade Opens Tomorrow Night

Final Preparations Being Made for 10-Day Event
Which Has Participation from Several States,
Ontario; Local Churches Also Taking Part

By Roger A. Waha
Excitement continues to mount as hundreds of churches and thousands of individuals complete final preparations for the Southeastern Michigan Billy Graham Crusade which will be held October 15-24 in the 80,500-seat Pontiac Metropolitan Stadium. Officials expect participation from an area encompassing a radius of 400 miles from Pontiac, including some groups from Vermont and New York. As opening night approaches, John Corts, crusade director, recently told the NEWS, "We've had a tremendous surge of interest after Labor Day in the crusade." In noting the crusade staff is now "crawling with work," he couldn't assess what this surge meant. Besides the participation of over 1,500 out of around 6,500 churches within 90 minutes of Pontiac, Mr. Corts said volunteers for the 5,000-voice crusade choir more than doubled during a three week period last month, (to almost 4,500 persons). Broad Base At the same time, he noted a broad base of interest is apparent with individuals coming from such states as Iowa, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, along with citizens from Windsor, Sarnia, London and Chatham, Ont., to attend the event. On a local level, the crusade office in Farmington Hills, which opened last June, reported that the Grosse Pointe Baptist Church, 21338 Mack avenue, and the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack, are participating in the crusade. The Pointe has around 30 churches and it's possible more are taking part. However, a spokeswoman at the Farmington Hills office said, "There may be some others but it would take a long time to look them up." Stressing his excitement over the event, the Rev. Edward Steinhart, associate pastor of GP Baptist, said, "Our church believes it's a tremendous thing for the community by uniting all churches in the area." Citing his pleasant memories of participating in a (Continued on Page 4)

Woods Loses In Bid for Grant Funds

Agency on Aging Denies Monies for In-Home Support Services for Seniors

By Roger A. Waha
A senior citizens grant application, under Title III of the Older Americans Act, submitted by The Woods this summer to the Detroit-Wayne County Area Agency on Aging, has been denied. This is the second year in a row that such an application from the municipality has been nixed. The city, which recently received this news, submitted a grant application which focused upon providing services designed to assist seniors to continue living independently in a home environment. A total of $54,378.90 in Federal funds was requested with the city providing $6,042.10 in matching funds, making a grand total of $60,421. Gives Reason Fred C. Ferris, director, agency on aging, in a letter to Woods Administrative Aide Gerard E. McNamara, said the agency's board of directors met last month to consider the 52 application proposals for Title III grant awards, and to determine which organizations, both Detroit-based and out-Wayne County-based, would receive monies. "The board decided that given the limited funds available to out-Wayne County-based organizations that it was not possible to grant an award to the City of Grosse Pointe Woods," said Mr. Ferris. "Essentially, this decision was reached because the board placed greater emphasis on considering funding to those agencies which had received an award during the previous year, (July 1975-June 1976), and whose services the board believed should be continued. "Additionally, in an effort to spread the service awards throughout the out-county with emphasis upon areas of greater economic depression, the board determined that the service proposed in the application was at a high cost relative to the small number of seniors to receive same. The service was too costly for limited Title III funds," he stated. (Continued on Page 6)

Boys Released In R/A Case

Two 16-year-old Woods youths pled guilty to the August 27 robbery armed, (R/A), of a 13-year-old Farms newspaper boy. Their guilty pleas were accepted by Wayne County Juvenile Court Referee Kathleen Copeland on Wednesday, October 6. Both youths were released with a warning dismissal, police said. When asked to comment about the case, Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber said, "Once again it's a typical mockery of our juvenile justice system. How can we expect the adult justice level to work if the primary level is a farce?" The August robbery occurred when The Farms boy stopped in a Mack avenue ice cream parlor upon returning to the street, he found his bicycle had been moved to the rear of the building. While in the back of the building, he was robbed at knife point by the two youths. The two robbers were later apprehended by Woods Officers Robert Kwiatkowski and Michael Makowski and turned over to Youth Service Division Det. Patrick Fagan.

Three Robbery Suspects Nabbed by Park Officers

Two Park police officers were credited with the apprehension of three suspects wanted by a trio of communities for armed robbery. The robberies were all committed the same day, Saturday, October 9, according to Lt. Gordon Duncan. A "be on lookout," (BOL), was broadcast to all law enforcement agencies in the Detroit area for the trio by Detroit authorities, who issued the alert at 1 a.m. The Detroit broadcast disclosed that the suspects were wanted for the hold-up of a store at Warren and Audubon, after they had held up a store in St. Clair Shores and a man in The City, whose wallet was taken by the culprits. The Detroit police radio alert described the getaway car as being silver and gave the license plate number. At 3:04 a.m., Park Patrolmen Ralph Moore and Steven Molitor observed a silver auto passing them at Mack and Chatsworth, Detroit, as the officers were cruising west on Mack, on The Park side, Mack avenue is the dividing line between Detroit and The Park. The City and most of The Farms. Officers Moore and Molitor noticed the silver vehicle bore the license number of the wanted car and turned and gave chase. They stopped the trio, who were still in the car, at Mack and Chalmers and radioed for assistance. Other Park officers responded to the call for help. (Continued on Page 2)

Farms Mother Reflects Upon Kidnapping

Ten-Year-Old Scott Miller Is Third Pointe Resident to Be Abducted in Past Year; Tense Moments of Incident Reviewed by Mrs. Miller,
Police Officers

By Tom Greenwood
No one is safe from kidnappers. They can strike in a person's home, at work or on the street. In the past year, three Pointe residents have been kidnapped and held for ransom. On November 11, 1975, Mrs. George Zedan, of Moran road, was abducted from her home by a man who demanded and received $100,000. She was released unharmed. Her kidnapper is still at large. On December 5, 1975, James Crawford, of St. Clair avenue, was kidnapped one morning when he arrived at work. His kidnappers demanded $250,000 for his release. When their demands weren't met, Mr. Crawford was stabbed to death. Runs to Safety His body was found in a wooded area of central Ohio six days later. One murderer is awaiting sentencing while two others are awaiting trial. The third kidnapping occurred this month when 10-year-old Scott Miller, of Washington road, was abducted as he walked home from school. The kidnapper demanded "$48,000 and no police." Fortunately, the kidnapping was bungled, and Scott was able to free himself and run to safety. A Detroit man was charged in that abduction and is being held in lieu of $250,000 bail pending his examination in the Farms Municipal Court, scheduled for yesterday, October 13. What does a mother think when her child has been kidnapped? To realize her son may be killed by a stranger? Scott's mother, Rosalie Miller, never lost faith in her son or the police. Praises Police "I don't know. I just tried not to envision Scott being hurt or killed," she said. "We listened to the police and the FBI and followed their instructions. "When Scott called, I tried to stay calm and not alarm (Continued on Page 8)

Officials
View Bill
On Courts
Controversial Legislation
Would Abolish
Municipal System for District Arrangement

By George Polgar Jr.
A controversial bill which would abolish municipal courts in favor of a district court system for 16 Michigan cities, including the five Pointes, stands a 50-50 chance of passage when the State House reconvenes in mid-November, according to reports from Lansing. The measure has met strong opposition among city officials throughout the Pointes, with all five councils having passed one or more resolutions of protest. Pointe city officials feel the district court system represents further State intrusion on the autonomous operation of municipal functions. To city administrators charged with making municipal ends meet within the limitations of community coffers, the district court represents a more costly judiciary through the loss of substantial revenues brought in by fees and fines. Would Cost More To the four judges serving the Pointes the district court concept is a plus in terms of quality, uniform justice but a minus in some cases in terms of practicality. The interests of the public revolve around the basic question of costs. At the same time, the question of costs involved with the district court system are very unclear. According to City Manager Thomas Kressbach of Grosse Pointe City, the district court will cost that community roughly three times more than the present municipal court. "Our judge gets $2,400 a year and court is held in the council chamber and staffed by our regular municipal personnel," he said. "The district court judge will be a full-time official with a $35,000 a year salary and there will be a full-time court (Continued on Page 10)

Fair to Help
School Library
Puzzles, calendars and box sets of paperbacks are just a few of the gift items which will be available at the Grosse Pointe Academy's Eighth Annual Book Fair scheduled for Wednesday-Friday, October 20-22, from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Mrs. Tymon Totte, chairman of the fair, said this year's proceeds will be used to expand the school library's reference section. Book buyers can browse in the school's main floor Quadrangle, 171 Lakeshore road. (Continued on Page 10)

Drain Commission Asked
By GPW to Obtain Funds
By Roger A. Waha
The Woods Council, via a resolution approved by a 5-1 vote, has requested the Wayne County Drain Commission to make an application for Federal funds for use in the construction of a storm water relief system to alleviate problems cited by Van K. and Perrien place citizens. This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, October 4. At this time, the city is continuing to explore potential solutions to the flooding problem which plagued these citizens during the severe rain storm in late July. Moreover, officials and citizens are waiting for City Engineer Larry Pate's feasibility report, which views the problem in that area, along with other flooding problems cited by Linville, Raymond and Bournemouth road residents. City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said the report should be completed by Friday, October 15, with this subject being considered by the council at its Monday, October 18, meeting. The resolution says the community has experienced a problem with storm water drainage in the Van K. Perrien place location in the northeast segment of the city. It notes that it will probably be necessary to construct an additional storm water relief sewer to service the area in an effort to alleviate the storm water problem. (Continued on Page 2)

Board Head Chastises GPEA Stand

Robert Warner Charges
Misrepresentation of Position; Union Responds

By Susan McDonald
Board of Education President Robert Warner responded to the teacher union's recent rejection of the Board's final contract offer with a verbal attack on Grosse Pointe Education Association, (GPEA), leadership at a public meeting Monday, October 11, at North High School. The Board, Mr. Warner said, has been forced into the public arena because of "repeated misrepresentations of our position by GPEA leadership." "By attacking the fiscal responsibility of the Board the GPEA must assume full responsibility if the millage vote fails this spring," he warned. Taken by Surprise The current state of "total stagnation" at the bargaining table "would never have come to pass if the union team's aim from the onset had been to negotiate a contract," he charged. The GPEA's 580 members unanimously rejected the Board's seven percent wage increase offer and proposed both sides enter into binding arbitration at an all-staff meeting Thursday, October 7. GPEA President Doris Cook, obviously taken by surprise at Mr. Warner's statements, flatly denied the charge of bargaining in bad faith and defended her union's request for arbitration of non-economic issues. Although the Board apparently agrees State help is needed to break the impasse, its team has ruled arbitration "out of the question." "No responsible administration would abdicate its responsibilities on these kinds of issues to a third party," said Board team spokesman Lawrence Kennedy. The Only Way The Board, instead, has arranged for a State-appointed fact-finder to sit in on negotiations as early as next week. His findings will not be binding, but will be made public. "But fact-finding won't settle anything," Mrs. Cook said. "The Board will start with his recommendations and bargain down from there, (Continued on Page 2)

Schools Plan Homecoming

Homecoming day, Saturday, October 16, will open with North High School bands leading a marching menagerie of cartoon characters to the football field and close at South with a dance to the theme of "A Marvelous Night for a Moon Dance." North's collection of floats, court cars and clowns will begin their march at 12:45 p.m. at Montclair School, 1275 Cook road, travel up Cook to Morningside drive and on to the school in time to kick-off the 2 p.m. game against Chippewa Valley. A Homecoming Queen, crowned at halftime, will preside at the school dance from 9-12 p.m. where the band "Coast" will entertain. South students will begin the day with the traditional pancake breakfast served to Grosse Pointe parents, teachers and alumni from 8-10 a.m. in the school cafeteria. Tickets are $1.75 and can be purchased at the school or by calling 882-9087. The South parade will begin at 12:30 p.m. at the Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo avenue, march up Cadieux road to Kercheval and South's football field. South gridders will take on the Sterling Heights Titans at 2 p.m. Dancing will begin in the South gymnasium at 8:30 p.m. and end at 12.

Farms to Buy New Radar Unit

The Farms Council voted 7-0 Monday night, October 4, to authorize Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber to purchase one Kustom Signal MR-9 Moving Radar Unit for the city at a cost of $1,585. The new radar unit is unique in that it can be used in a moving vehicle, according to Chief Ferber. The council also voted to accept a statement from the Farms prosecuting attorney for legal services in the amount of $704.20.

"For the good of the community, the students and the teachers we need a guaranteed, quick settlement and arbitration is the only way to get it. We are perfectly willing to have an impartial third party judge our proposals, and the Board should too."

In a letter to Chief Board Negotiator William O'Connor, the GPEA repeated its request for 60 percent of the budget to settle teacher salaries and fringe benefits or, as an alternative, proposed averaging the top five districts in Wayne County for a settlement.

Both proposals were rejected by the Board team. The request for 60 percent of the budget is "absurd," according to Mr. Kennedy, because it ties teacher's pay to the "most uncontrollable kinds of inflation, such as utility, insurance premium and material cost increases."

Dispute Figures
The concept of averaging top districts to reach settlement is equally objectionable because "in effect you are delegating responsibilities of bargaining to the five other districts," said Mr. Kennedy.

The Board's proposals would result in every teacher receiving a seven percent raise in base salary as they move up the salary lanes, according to Mr. Warner.

Over three years, teachers would receive a 21 percent pay increase, he said, adding that he feels the Board is representing the community's preferences at the bargaining table and that citizens are not willing to pay the extra taxes needed to satisfy the union's demands.

Union officials dispute the Board's figures. By evening out the increments between salary steps to seven percent each, the Board is actually proposing decreases in some of the increments, according to Mrs. Cook. The Board's last offer actually averages out to a 5.4 percent increase for all teachers, she added.

Over three years, teacher's raises would range anywhere from 7.7 percent to 17 percent, according to Mrs. Cook, which would place Pointe teachers about 24th in the Wayne County scale.

Issues Unresolved

"We used to compare GP to the Scarsdale, Newtrey and Evanston districts, but we're not looking at them any more. Now it is Wayne, Westland and River Rouge we compare ourselves to. Is that what the community wants?" asked Mrs. Cook.

Both sides have identified 14 "vital" non-economic issues that have yet to be settled including school days, departmental chairpersons, evaluations, class size, teacher discipline, GPEA access to Board information and association rights.

Besides these questions, Mr. Kennedy said there are probably 30 more unresolved issues.

On several topics, both sides have returned to stands they held at the beginning of negotiations early in May. The last hint of progress was reported over the Labor Day weekend, when they met with a State-appointed mediator and teachers indefinitely postponed a planned strike vote.

Since that time, both teams have taken their arguments to the public. The GPEA has participated in the picketing of Board offices and community mailings. The Board position has been repeatedly presented in the superintendent's "Know Your Schools" column in the NEWS and community mailings.

Off to Mediation

Board negotiations with secretarial, custodial and cafeteria workers have recently gone to mediation as well.

The groups, who traditionally wait until a teacher contract has been agreed upon to settle, have apparently become impatient with the arrangement.

They recently picketed a Board-sponsored open house for Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats, charging the Board is not making a serious attempt to settle with them.

School Negotiations Fight Continues

Asked to Obtain Funds

(Continued from Page 1) Inasmuch as such construction of an additional relief sewer would be accomplished by the drain commission, the council asked that it make application for the funds.

While the resolution didn't include a specific monetary figure, (pending Mr. Pate's report), potential costs could be in the area of around $275,000, it was said.

Casting the lone negative vote on the resolution was Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan.

Her reasons were because of her feeling that on applying for such funds, potential interference of the Federal Government via contingencies or strings being attached, and the erosion of home rule, could result. She also cited the possibility that monies could be obtained via emergency bonds issued by the drain commission under the State code.

This, she noted, could be done without a vote of the people and "we ourselves could pay our own way."

Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos disagreed with this approach and stated he would vote "yes" on the resolution to expedite the approval for Federal funds, which, he added, would be used by Woods residents only.

Noting the city uses Federal Revenue Sharing funds and CETA, (Comprehensive Employment Training Act), funds now, Mr. Pinkos said monies in this instance would be applied for under the $3.7 billion public works job bill signed by President Gerald Ford Saturday, October 2.

For his part, he felt the request should be unanimously passed as there would be a better chance to get funds. "We could bond for it and increase the tax levy but I don't know if we can get funds. The Drain Commission may have a better chance of getting the funds," said Mr. Pinkos.

In reply, Mrs. Mullan felt that applying for Federal funds really wasn't getting to the heart of the problem, while asking, "How much are our home rule rights worth?"

Meanwhile, Councilman John Sabol said the entire city has water and sewer problems and wondered why only the Van K. Perrien place area was cited in the resolution.

"We told the drain commission we had problems in this area, and would like the problems resolved," said Mr. Pinkos. So, according to the mayor, it was suggested by a commission official that the council issue a resolution on this matter with "the feeling that we could get funds in a reasonable amount of time."

Mr. Pinkos also noted that the drain commission won't do anything on this until the city engineers makes his report regarding proper specifications and plans towards alleviating the problem.

Mr. Sabol also said the city could apply for emergency bond monies, and Mr. Pinkos reiterated it would obligate the city to raise the tax levy. In reply, Mr. Sabol said there probably wasn't enough money available from the Federal Government to take care of all the problems in the city.

Councilman George Cueter called the whole storm sewer system in the city inadequate, while saying officials must still learn the actual problems of all affected areas. Mrs. Mullan also felt all problems should be first found out, while stating the resolution was too limited in citing the Van K. Perrien place area only.

Voting for the measure were Mr. Pinkos, Mr. Cueter, Mr. Sabol and Councilmen George S. Freeman and Conrad A. Naegel. Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen was excused from the meeting.

Nab Suspects

The policemen searched the suspects' vehicle and found a B-B rifle on the back seat. Underneath the front seat they found a car registration taken from the wallet of the man robbed in The City. They took the men into custody and confiscated the rifle.

Arrested were Demetrios Holloway, of 5767 Lakewood, Carlos E. Collins, of 4839 Dickerson, and Sandy Robinson, of 1019 Euclid, all 18-years-old and all of Detroit.

The three suspects were released to St. Clair Shores police for further questioning and investigation. City and Detroit authorities placed a hold on the men for the crimes they allegedly committed in their respective cities.

Post Office

regular postal business at the closer Grosse Pointe location at Mack near Warren. This branch serves Woods, Farms and Shores citizens.

"The only reason Pointe residents would have to use their specific office would be to receive packages," he said. "Even then a customer only has to go pick up a package if they are not home when the postman tries to deliver it. If a customer is unable to get to the office they can call for a redelivery."

According to Mr. Asa, the new post office is a great improvement over the old branch with much more parking space as well as much more space inside. The new branch office was constructed at a cost of $1,229,000.

TREES REPLACED

The City Council voted at its Monday, October 4, meeting to accept bids for 62 trees to replace those lost in the past year to Dutch Elm Disease on street right-of-ways.

GP Woods Studies Bid for New Civic Center

By Roger A. Waba

A recommendation from the Senior Citizens Commission to apply for Federal funds for the construction of a civic center at Ghesquiere Park was unanimously referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, October 4.

A vote on the original motion of referral was taken after a substitute motion to deny the request ended in a 3-3 tie. (Councilman Ronald R. Keigen was excused from the meeting). Those voting to deny were Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan and Councilmen George S. Freeman and John Sabol, while Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and Councilmen George Cueter and Conrad A. Naegel disagreed.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen told the council it was anticipated a minimum of 10 days remained for action to be taken. After 10 days, he indicated chances for the application were slim. Mr. Petersen also stated costs to apply would be in such areas as preparing the application, the large volume of paperwork involved and in preliminary plans.

Mr. Cueter said the city should apply for funds and, if any contingencies arose, the municipality could withdraw the application.

A concern over such contingencies or "strings" when applying for Federal funds in relation to a potential erosion of home rule government is an ongoing concern of several council members, particularly Mrs. Mullan.

She felt there was a good possibility of such "strings" being attached in this case, while citing the vulnerability of both the Lake Front Park and Ghesquiere Park "because some people would like to make them public."

Mr. Freeman echoed her feelings and said he would be happy to make the motion to deny. But this failed for a lack of a majority vote, so it was back to motion of referral.

At its meeting Monday, September 27, the commission by a 5-1 vote recommended that the council apply for funds under the $3.7 billion public works jobs bill which President Gerald Ford signed Saturday, October 2, to construct a multipurpose civic center for the activities of seniors and all Woods residents.

In its recommendation, the commission said the proposed one-story structure also would be used by the recreation department, the Planning Commission and for various club activities of all citizens.

The commission suggested the structure be large enough to seat 300 people at one time, while estimating its cost to be at around $250,000 for construction and site work.

Finally, the commission stated monies are available under the bill to aid the unemployed in high unemployment areas, with The Woods qualifying by reason of its location next to the City of Detroit with its high unemployment rate.

Irene Sutton, commission chairman, said she understood Federal money was available for such a building with the commission trying to get "the project off the ground."

Noting it wasn't really geared towards seniors, she stated it would be a multipurpose building for all residents. "We're trying to do it for the community as well as our own selves."

Indicating the design was done in a hurry, she stated it was enough to give the council an idea of the structure and its location. According to a sketch of the proposed site, it would be located near the large municipal building parking lot and would necessitate, according to Mrs. Sutton, the movement of one little league diamond to a different position.

At the meeting, Mrs. Sutton urged the council to act on the proposal that evening.

She felt the city could apply for the funds and if the application was approved, contract negotiations could be started with the city attorney. "He could review the contract and its terms and it could be refused if necessary," she said.

Stressing it wouldn't cost taxpayers any money, Mrs. Sutton felt such a recreation center for all residents was needed and that Ghesquiere Park was the most viable location.

Viewing the bill, Administrative Aide Gerard E. McNamara said Michigan would receive $152 million in funds. He noted there were two parts to the bill, a direct grant portion and a counter-cyclical portion.

Direct grants could be made for new construction, including demolition, renovation, repair and other improvements of local public works projects. The counter-cyclical portion, he said, would provide monies to a local community based upon a formula, e.g., one comparable to the Federal Revenue Sharing formula.

Mr. McNamara stated, however, that the Commerce Department administers the program and they would have to receive the monies first, (this is scheduled for later this month), before disbursements could be made.

Parcells PTO Slates Meeting

The Parcells Middle School PTO has slated its annual "Back to School Night" for parents on Wednesday, October 20, at 7:30 p.m.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats will address parents, who will then visit classrooms on a shortened period version of a student's daily schedule.

Hosts for the evening will be Sue Cornell, hospitality, Pat Cadieux, membership, and Sue Loren, mother vice-president.

The president of the Parcells PTO is John Cobau.

LWV Prepares Voters Guides

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters (LWV) will distribute Voters Guides for the November election.

These guides are available at the three Pointe libraries, various schools and churches. The October 24 edition of the Sunday "Detroit News" also will contain the guide.

Additional guides may be obtained by calling voters service chairman Suzanne Suski at 822-9348.

The American Broadcasting Co. has chosen the league to again participate in a key precinct reporting project. The Grosse Pointe League will be among those reporting precinct results to the National election desk of ABC.

Meanwhile, "Election Laws and Election Laws Consensus" will be the topic discussed at the league's two unit meetings this month. The Tuesday, October 19 evening unit will be at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Colleen Faber, 266 Williams, (886-8154), while Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, 375

Lothrop road, will host the Wednesday, October 20, unit at 9:30 a.m.

The Grosse Pointe League also will launch a community wide financial drive.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the league is asked to contact treasurer Joan Dotson, 1023 Kensington road, at 885-9448.

School Negotiations Fight Continues

rejecting whatever they don't like. It's just a delaying tactic.

"For the good of the community, the students and the teachers we need a guaranteed, quick settlement and arbitration is the only way to get it. We are perfectly willing to have an impartial third party judge our proposals, and the Board should too."

In a letter to Chief Board Negotiator William O'Connor, the GPEA repeated its request for 60 percent of the budget to settle teacher salaries and fringe benefits or, as an alternative, proposed averaging the top five districts in Wayne County for a settlement.

Both proposals were rejected by the Board team. The request for 60 percent of the budget is "absurd," according to Mr. Kennedy, because it ties teacher's pay to the "most uncontrollable kinds of inflation, such as utility, insurance premium and material cost increases."

Dispute Figures
The concept of averaging top districts to reach settlement is equally objectionable because "in effect you are delegating responsibilities of bargaining to the five other districts," said Mr. Kennedy.

The Board's proposals would result in every teacher receiving a seven percent raise in base salary as they move up the salary lanes, according to Mr. Warner.

Over three years, teachers would receive a 21 percent pay increase, he said, adding that he feels the Board is representing the community's preferences at the bargaining table and that citizens are not willing to pay the extra taxes needed to satisfy the union's demands.

Union officials dispute the Board's figures. By evening out the increments between salary steps to seven percent each, the Board is actually proposing decreases in some of the increments, according to Mrs. Cook. The Board's last offer actually averages out to a 5.4 percent increase for all teachers, she added.

Over three years, teacher's raises would range anywhere from 7.7 percent to 17 percent, according to Mrs. Cook, which would place Pointe teachers about 24th in the Wayne County scale.

Issues Unresolved

"We used to compare GP to the Scarsdale, Newtner and Evanston districts, but we're not looking at them any more. Now it is Wayne, Westland and River Rouge we compare ourselves to. Is that what the community wants?" asked Mrs. Cook.

Both sides have identified 14 "vital" non-economic issues that have yet to be settled including school days, departmental chairpersons, evaluations, class size, teacher discipline, GPEA access to Board information and association rights.

Besides these questions, Mr. Kennedy said there are probably 30 more unresolved issues.

On several topics, both sides have returned to stands they held at the beginning of negotiations early in May. The last hint of progress was reported over the Labor Day weekend, when they met with a State-appointed mediator and teachers indefinitely postponed a planned strike vote.

Since that time, both teams have taken their arguments to the public. The GPEA has participated in the picketing of Board offices and community mailings. The Board position has been repeatedly presented in the superintendent's "Know Your Schools" column in the NEWS and community mailings.

Off to Mediation

Board negotiations with secretarial, custodial and cafeteria workers have recently gone to mediation as well.

The groups, who traditionally wait until a teacher contract has been agreed upon to settle, have apparently become impatient with the arrangement.

They recently picketed a Board-sponsored open house for Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats, charging the Board is not making a serious attempt to settle with them.

Asked to Obtain Funds

Inasmuch as such construction of an additional relief sewer would be accomplished by the drain commission, the council asked that it make application for the funds.

While the resolution didn't include a specific monetary figure, (pending Mr. Pate's report), potential costs could be in the area of around $275,000, it was said.

Casting the lone negative vote on the resolution was Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan.

Her reasons were because of her feeling that on applying for such funds, potential interference of the Federal Government via contingencies or strings being attached, and the erosion of home rule, could result. She also cited the possibility that monies could be obtained via emergency bonds issued by the drain commission under the State code.

This, she noted, could be done without a vote of the people and "we ourselves could pay our own way."

Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos disagreed with this approach and stated he would vote "yes" on the resolution to expedite the approval for Federal funds, which, he added, would be used by Woods residents only.

Noting the city uses Federal Revenue Sharing funds and CETA, (Comprehensive Employment Training Act), funds now, Mr. Pinkos said monies in this instance would be applied for under the $3.7 billion public works job bill signed by President Gerald Ford Saturday, October 2.

For his part, he felt the request should be unanimously passed as there would be a better chance to get funds. "We could bond for it and increase the tax levy but I don't know if we can get funds. The Drain Commission may have a better chance of getting the funds," said Mr. Pinkos.

In reply, Mrs. Mullan felt that applying for Federal funds really wasn't getting to the heart of the problem, while asking, "How much are our home rule rights worth?"

Meanwhile, Councilman John Sabol said the entire city has water and sewer problems and wondered why only the Van K. Perrien place area was cited in the resolution.

"We told the drain commission we had problems in this area, and would like the problems resolved," said Mr. Pinkos. So, according to the mayor, it was suggested by a commission official that the council issue a resolution on this matter with "the feeling that we could get funds in a reasonable amount of time."

Mr. Pinkos also noted that the drain commission won't do anything on this until the city engineer makes his report regarding proper specifications and plans towards alleviating the problem.

Mr. Sabol also said the city could apply for emergency bond monies, and Mr. Pinkos reiterated it would obligate the city to raise the tax levy. In reply, Mr. Sabol said there probably wasn't enough money available from the Federal Government to take care of all the problems in the city.

Councilman George Cueter called the whole storm sewer system in the city inadequate, while saying officials must still learn the actual problems of all affected areas. Mrs. Mullan also felt all problems should be first found out, while stating the resolution was too limited in citing the Van K. Perrien place area only.

Voting for the measure were Mr. Pinkos, Mr. Cueter, Mr. Sabol and Councilmen George S. Freeman and Conrad A. Naegel. Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen was excused from the meeting.

Nab Suspects

The policemen searched the suspects' vehicle and found a B-B rifle on the back seat. Underneath the front seat they found a car registration taken from the wallet of the man robbed in The City. They took the men into custody and confiscated the rifle.

Arrested were Demetrios Holloway, of 5767 Lakewood, Carlos E. Collins, of 4839 Dickerson, and Sandy Robinson, of 1019 Euclid, all 18-years-old and all of Detroit.

The three suspects were released to St. Clair Shores police for further questioning and investigation. City and Detroit authorities placed a hold on the men for the crimes they allegedly committed in their respective cities.

regular postal business at the closer Grosse Pointe location at Mack near Warren. This branch serves Woods, Farms and Shores citizens.

"The only reason Pointe residents would have to use their specific office would be to receive packages," he said. "Even then a customer only has to go pick up a package if they are not home when the postman tries to deliver it. If a customer is unable to get to the office they can call for a redelivery."

According to Mr. Asa, the new post office is a great improvement over the old branch with much more parking space as well as much more space inside. The new branch office was constructed at a cost of $1,229,000.

GP Woods Studies Bid for New Civic Center

By Roger A. Waha

A recommendation from the Senior Citizens Commission to apply for Federal funds for the construction of a civic center at Ghesquiere Park was unanimously referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, October 4.

A vote on the original motion of referral was taken after a substitute motion to deny the request ended in a 3-3 tie. (Councilman Ronald R. Keigen was excused from the meeting). Those voting to deny were Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan and Councilmen George S. Freeman and John Sabol, while Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and Councilmen George Cueter and Conrad A. Naegel disagreed.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen told the council it was anticipated a minimum of 10 days remained for action to be taken. After 10 days, he indicated chances for the application were slim. Mr. Petersen also stated costs to apply would be in such areas as preparing the application, the large volume of paperwork involved and in preliminary plans.

Mr. Cueter said the city should apply for funds and, if any contingencies arose, the municipality could withdraw the application.

A concern over such contingencies or "strings" when applying for Federal funds in relation to a potential erosion of home rule government is an ongoing concern of several council members, particularly Mrs. Mullan.

She felt there was a good possibility of such "strings" being attached in this case, while citing the vulnerability of both the Lake Front Park and Ghesquiere Park "because some people would like to make them public."

Mr. Freeman echoed her feelings and said he would be happy to make the motion to deny. But this failed for a lack of a majority vote, so it was back to motion of referral.

At its meeting Monday, September 27, the commission by a 5-1 vote recommended that the council apply for funds under the $3.7 billion public works jobs bill which President Gerald Ford signed Saturday, October 2, to construct a multipurpose civic center for the activities of seniors and all Woods residents.

In its recommendation, the commission said the proposed one-story structure also would be used by the recreation department, the Planning Commission and for various club activities of all citizens.

The commission suggested the structure be large enough to seat 300 people at one time, while estimating its cost to be at around $250,000 for construction and site work.

Finally, the commission stated monies are available under the bill to aid the unemployed in high unemployment areas, with The Woods qualifying by reason of its location next to the City of Detroit with its high unemployment rate.

Billy Graham Crusade Opens Tomorrow

similar Billy Graham crusade in Charlotte, N.C., in the early 1960's, he stated, defining the Detroit metropolitan area as a community, that the crusade should have a positive influence, "especially in view of the problems facing the community. It cannot hurt."

GP Baptist's participation is channeled in many areas. "We are encouraging our choir to participate in the crusade choir. Between 75-80 percent of our members will be taking part for most of the week," said Rev. Steinhart.

"We also have men from our church serving as ushers, and we're running buses every night for all those who would like to attend. Our women are involved in morning prayer sessions all over the area," he continued, "and personal door-to-door visits are being conducted. We also have some of our people being trained as counselors." Echoing Rev. Steinhart's feeling over the crusade, Dr. Robert Linthicum, senior pastor of GPW Presbyterian, stated some members are participating in the "Operation Andrew" program, where Christians become involved as individuals by bringing others to Christ and praying for individuals who have spiritual needs. As part of the program, members also are bringing others to the crusade.

"We have members of our choir singing in the crusade choir and we're going October 15 and 23 as a church, taking several buses," he said. At this time, he indicated there's still room for individuals to join the busload on the 15th, while suggesting that those interested should contact the church office at 886-4300 for further information.

For those committing their lives to Christ at the crusade, a number of follow-up nurture groups will meet at the church, he noted. "I would encourage people to go to the crusade. It will be good experience to hear what Billy Graham has to say, and to consider what he says," added Rev. Linthicum.

This isn't the first time Dr. Graham and his team have conducted a crusade in the Detroit metropolitan area. In the fall of 1953, a wood-and-steel tabernacle at the Michigan State Fairgrounds was the site of the Detroit crusade. Accommodating 12,000 persons, the building was constructed in only five weeks from the time of excavation in July.

The crusade began September 27 and was scheduled to conclude on October 25. By the latter date, 234,661 people had jammed into the building to hear the Gospel's message. Dr. Graham spoke at a Reformation service at then Briggs Stadium on the scheduled closing day and 42,000 attended that meeting.

As it turned out, because of demands from various groups, meetings at the fairgrounds were extended through November 1. When the final service concluded, 363,030 people had attended and 6,980 recorded their decision for Christ.

Mr. Cortis, who also was responsible for the Belgian crusade, said, "We're shooting for an average attendance of 35,000 people per night. This would be an excellent response based on the area." These estimates would make the total attendance for the crusade at around 350,000. The crusade begins at 7:30 p.m. each evening with the exception of Sundays, October 17 and 24, when the starting time will be 4 p.m. All seats are free.

Scheduled special guests and the planned days they will appear according to the crusade office are as follows: Andre Crouch, gospel singer, October 16 and 21; Kim Wickes, a blind Korean singer, October 18; Detroit Lions quarterback Joe Reed, October 19; and Joni Eareckson, who's paralyzed from the neck down, will give her testimony on October 20. The Murk family, a singing group, also will appear on the 20th.

Other guests include Charles Colson, former advisor to President Richard M. Nixon and author of the book "Born Again," plus singer Norma Zimmer on October 22, and country-western singer Johnny Cash and his wife, June Carter, on October 24.

For further information on the crusade, contact the Farmington Hills office at 478-5040.

Men's Garden Club to Meet

Benjamin C. Stanczyk, retired judge of the Detroit Common Pleas Court, will be the speaker, and guest of honor when the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe holds its 24th Annual Dinner and Ladies' Night Friday, October 22, at 7 p.m.

The dinner, which will be held at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, 655 Cook road, will be preceded by a hospitality hour.

His talk, "East Africa — 1976," will be illustrated by color slides taken on a recent trip to Burundi, Tanzania, Kenya, Uganda and Rwanda.

Judge Stanczyk, a graduate of the Wayne University Law School, retired from the Common Pleas bench after more than 17 years of service.

Since his retirement, he has served in Detroit Recorder's Court and as a mediator for the Michigan Department of Labor in Lapeer and Washtenaw Counties. He currently is a visiting judge in the Wayne County Juvenile Court.

A resident of Detroit, Judge Stanczyk has traveled extensively, having made 10 trips to Europe, one to Russia and two to Africa. He is a past president of the Downtown Detroit Lions Club.

Fire Destroys Car in Alley

Fast response by Park firefighters to a car fire alarm in an alley at the rear of 1120 Maryland on Monday, October 4, prevented flames from spreading to an adjacent garage, according to Fire Chief Phillip Costa.

The chief said that the vehicle, a late model two-door Chevrolet, was completely engulfed in flames when firemen arrived to answer the alarm.

As the firefighters were pouring water on the burning auto, it exploded, apparently from a ruptured gasoline line, but blazing material was successfully prevented from igniting a nearby garage, the chief added.

Chief Costa said the car was the property of James Thomas, of 381 Ridgmont road. The apparent cause of the fire was a leaky fuel line which poured gasoline on the hot motor.

The monetary loss of the car is not known and will have to be determined by insurance adjusters, the chief added.

Board of Education Says 'Thanks' to 72 Volunteers

The Board of Education awarded signed certificates of merit for distinguished service to 72 outstanding volunteers at its Monday, October 11, meeting in the North High Performing Arts Center.

All the volunteers were nominated by adult members of the school district and screened on the basis of the time devoted as well as the extent of responsibility carried in the fulfillment of their duties.

Over 100 such awards have been granted since the program was initiated in 1973. All those honored have worked in various school and library programs, without pay, for the last year.

About 40 honorees were present at the meeting to receive their awards.

Board President Robert Warner also used the occasion to commend three students, Lori, Char Minkwic and Tom Rousseau, for their work on the recent millage campaign.

Former Trustee Lee H. Allen also received a plaque expressing the Board's appreciation for his assumption of a vacant Board spot during 1975-76.

Recognized volunteer services range from Helga Adam's involvement in the Monteith PTO Bucket Brigade, to William Adams' research and development services that helped publicize senior citizens' tax exemption programs, to Margaret Adlhoeh's two year's service on citizens millage campaigns.

Other volunteers honored by the Board were Marieke Allen, Dorothy Amberg, Ann Ardussi, Joan Armbruster, Audrey Barton, Joe Beals, Mary Sue Bedsworth, Sterling Berry, Joyce Brackett, Catherine Brierly and M. J. Bucciero.

Richard Campbell, Judy Christian, Virginia Clem, Ruth Conover, Barbara Coughlin, Dolores Cusimano, Barbara Denier, Brenda and William Dryer and Charlotte Duff also were awarded certificates.

Others who aided the system in the past year were Rudolph R. Edens, Elaine and Robert Feeser, Mari Fischer, Rosanna Fleming, Harriet Genberg, Bernadine Gornie, Persis Graf, Mary Graham, Richard Gross, Thad Joos, Sally Ketchum, Ruth Kibler and Robert Kotas.

More honorees are Darlene Krato, Katherine Kydd, Cornelia Landgraff, Bonnie Levitan, Herb Levitt, Jesse Lowther, Karen McKean, Sheila McNamara, Elke Mika, Bruce Miller, J. D. Owens, Joanne Penoyer, Robert Peterson and Priscilla Pettengill.

Madge and William Queen also were honored Monday night, along with Melitta Roemer, Mary Roland, Rita Rose, Francis Rossi, Michelle Schefke, Beverly Sellers, George Sita, Beverly Stevenson, Georgette Szejbach and Carolyn Thompson.

Others honored were Ruth Truhol, Lois Venderbush, Marlene Vesey, Cynthia Warner, Phillip Wehrmeister, Frank Welchenbach, Edward Williams and Ruth Zinn.

Two Youths Rob Station

An employee at the Mack and Hawthorne Service Station, 20805 Mack avenue, was victimized by two youths, who took approximately $60 in cash, on Sunday evening, October 10, reported Woods police.

Officer Michael Ferrence was told that two white males took the money and were last seen running north through the alley west of the station. A witness to the Jarceny, who was at the gas pump, said he tried to locate the pair but met with negative results.

The employee reported that the youths went to a telephone booth at Hawthorne but found it occupied. So they came to the station where one of the boys used the phone while the other asked the employee if he had a light for his cigarette.

Before the employee could reply, the youth, who had used the phone, asked if he had change for $20. As the employee brought out the money, the youth grabbed it from his hand, and pushed him aside and said, "Turkey, you've just been robbed."

He then ran out of the station, was met by the other boy and the pair fled through the alley. No vehicle was seen. The employee started to chase them but stopped and returned to call police.

The youth who took the money was described as between 16-17 years of age, around 5'8" tall and around 140 pounds. He had shoulder length light blond hair parted in the middle. He wore a green Army coat and blue jeans.

Meanwhile, the second suspect was described as between 16-17 years-old, around 6' tall and between 170-180 pounds. He had curly black hair and a mustache.

SEMTA Offers Concert Buses

Board a bus at the Park and Ride lot nearest your home and ride directly to Ford Auditorium's front door for the 1976-77 Detroit Symphony/NBD Coffee Concerts, urges the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA).

The first concert of Series II is scheduled for Friday, October 15, with succeeding concert dates of December 10, January 21, March 4 and April 22. Remaining Series I concerts are scheduled for November 12, January 7, March 18 and May 6.

Park and Ride lots include the Woods Municipal Building and the City's Neff Park.

A few season bus tickets and individual bus tickets are still available. All concertgoers must have a bus ticket to board. Cash fares will not be accepted.

To order a bus ticket, send a check or money order, (no cash), to SEMTA, Attention Coffee Concert, P.O. Box 333, Detroit 48231.

For further information concerning Coffee Concert transportation, call SEMTA's marketing department at 962-9800, extension 251.

Home Buyers Deserve Expert Help...

..they can count on Detroit & Northern

Because we specialize in home financing, you get the best help available when you talk to one of our home loan specialists. He'll tell you about our many loan plans and options and how to determine how costly a home you can afford. At D&N there is a loan plan right for every budget. We have the popular conventional loan, as well as FHA and VA loans for those who qualify. Our home loan rates are competitive, but beyond that, the home buyer can expect much more at D&N.

Several Options ...

We've been lending money to home buyers since 1889, and our experience shows in the service we render our customers. For example, at D&N we have several term options to help meet each borrower's particular needs. The term of the loan, along with the down payment amount and interest rate determine your monthly payment. Depending on the age and condition of the home, a term of up to 30 years may be selected. Ask a D&N home loan specialist to explain how your monthly payment is affected by the term you choose.

For your security, D&N offers mortgage life insurance. This protection provides for the full payment of your loan in the event of death. Disability insurance is available, too, providing for the payment of your monthly loan if the family breadwinner should become disabled.

Loan Payment Convenience ...

In addition to security, D&N offers some real conveniences, too. To make your monthly payment as easy as possible, we have a plan called "Transmatic." With this plan, your mortgage payment is automatically deducted from your checking account and transferred to D&N on a set date each month. Using the "Transmatic" plan, you needn't worry about forgetting to make a payment when you are on vacation or out of town. A special trip and writing an additional check each month are eliminated when you choose "Transmatic."

Handling Details ...

Many of the details involved in closing the deal will be handled by Detroit & Northern. We will arrange for an appraisal of the property, which will assist in determining the amount of the loan. If a survey is required, D&N will arrange for it. In addition, we can arrange for title insurance. D&N will perform the routine credit checks and handle the recording of your purchase. At the "closing," Detroit & Northern will assemble the various mortgage and legal documents and review them with you.

Continuing Service ...

After receiving your Detroit & Northern home loan, you will enjoy the continuing services we provide homeowners. D&N will handle the payment of your property taxes, hazard insurance, mortgage life and disability insurance. For your records at the end of each year we will send you an analysis of your escrow account and a statement outlining each financial transaction.

Senior Men Pick Officers

The Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe, at their recently held annual meeting, elected a new slate of officers and directors to serve during the following year.

David C. Lowe was installed as president; Louis O. Decker, first vice-president; Harold J. Meinke, second vice-president; Howard E. Riley, secretary; and Milton A. Zuehlke, treasurer.

Four directors also were named including Ernest C. Bertschinger, Willis H. Hall, Martin B. Hutchinson and Woodburn O. Ross.

The club, which is in its 18th year and is thought to be the largest senior men's club in the world, (it has nearly 1,000 members), meets twice a month in the Center's Fries Auditorium.

Bid for Grant Funds for Seniors Denied

The board has established a local appeals procedure in connection with its decisions regarding Title III funding awards but Mr. McNamara felt an appeal would be pointless, while noting the decision of denial came as no surprise.

"I would like to see the seniors ask the council to implement a similar program," (e.g., routine maintenance work), he said. "The seniors could make a good point on this for the council's consideration."

In exploring some problems the city has in relation to facts about seniors, Mr. McNamara stated, "One of the big problems we have is a lack of statistics which would give a true picture of the status of senior citizens. The seniors could help if they could determine the number of physically or mentally handicapped we have, plus the number of seniors whose income is below the poverty level."

Noting that certain needs or problems have to be proven which the city claims it has in relation to seniors, he felt if the seniors, themselves, could obtain such information, it would be a positive factor if the city has the opportunity to apply for Federal funds in the future.

"The city has around 3,200 seniors and I'm sure a good number of them, just through inflation, have low buying power," said Mr. McNamara. Some, he felt, could be at, or below, the poverty level.

Would Be Helpful

Viewing the denial of the application, Irene Sutton, chairman of the Senior Citizens Commission, said approval would have been nice as many seniors want to stay in their homes.

She would like to see the city pursue such a program in some way, feeling it would be "a blessing for seniors" in a home help situation. Mrs. Sutton said, "I know senior citizens like to live here, (in the city), if they can possibly afford it," and "with inflation, some can't live comfortably."

At the same time, Mrs. Sutton indicated she was aware of the Neighborhood Club's Job Opportunities for Youth, (JOY), program which might be able to aid seniors.

In his communication, Mr. Ferris also cited the difficulty of the board's decision regarding agencies which were to be funded. "The fact is that the complexity and magnitude of this assessment process continues to remain both arduous and agonizing as the Federal Government is not willing to make more than just a token 'seed money' commitment to Detroit-Wayne County," he stated.

This brought an additional query from Mr. McNamara who requested a definition of "seed money" as used in selecting grant recipients for Title III funds. He also asked for the names of agencies receiving such money with a brief description of their utilization of "seed money."

Seen As Mechanism

In response, Mr. Ferris reported, "The intent of the Older Americans Act and specifically Title III of the act is to improve (senior citizens') access to existing services in the community and/or increase the number and kind of services available to the elderly. OAA funds are not nor have ever been intended to provide a full service system."

"Rather, Title III is seen as a mechanism to stimulate commitments from public and private agencies which have resources that can be utilized to build toward the establishment of a comprehensive and coordinated system of services on behalf of the elderly."

Mr. Ferris said the term "seed money" fits this concept whereby a grant award is made for the purpose of mobilizing other resources "or, stated another way, leveraging or garnering other resources that can be utilized to service the elderly."

"The effectiveness of Title III funded programs are measured in part on their abilities to attract these other potential but possibly heretofore untapped resources."

He added that agencies which receive a Title III award are fully aware that regulations mandate that this source, (Title III), may not continue for longer than three years and are therefore compelled to utilize this source as it was intended—as "seed money" to promote, attract and draw in increasing commitments of other resources to support their Title III initiated and funded services program.

Nothing Was Left

For his part, Mr. McNamara in a memo to the Senior Citizens Commission said the agency chose to fund programs which had received an award the previous year. "We find this to be contrary to the requirement that grants be used as 'seed money.'"

He noted that the initiation of an appeal or other legal action in behalf of seniors "may in fact prove our point, but will not cause us to receive grant money. You may remember that last year we were told by the arbitrator that although we qualified for grant money in all particulars, there were others whose need was greater."

"A more compelling impediment to our receipt of funds was that disbursements had been made and no funds were left," concluded Mr. McNamara.

A total of $667,197.26 was allocated to Detroit-based organizations, while $338,083.98 was allocated to out-county organizations. The largest allocation to a Detroit-based organization was $120,949 to the Detroit Health Department, health screening. The biggest allocation to an out-county organization was $100,333 to the Wayne County Health Department, health screening.

Last year, the city requested a total of $99,949 with the monies being broken down into such categories as home maintenance, home nursing component, homemaker service, buddy system and information and referral.

Woods Closes Robbery Case

An armed robbery incident at Harkness Pharmacy, 20315 Mack avenue, last May has been cleared and closed, reported Woods police.

Det. Charles Philip Hamel said his department recently received a bulletin from the major crimes division, Detroit Police Department, with information and mug shots on two suspects, who were arrested in Detroit for the armed robbery of a party store. During interviews with Detroit authorities, the pair admitted robbing the pharmacy. However, Det. Hamel noted, they will not be charged in The Woods because a pharmacy employee was unable to identify the suspects.

Quintuplets present quite a big family problem—mother and dad and five to carry.

Cabernet Sauvignon is generally agreed among the experts to be the "artistic" of California grapes. Cabernet Sauvignon vines were first brought to California by early pioneers from Bordeaux, the great wine-producing region in France. The vines soon flourished in the warm climate and rich soil of Northern California. Today, there are over 5,000 acres of the grape grown in California. This Cabernet Sauvignon is medium bodied, dry, and exceptionally soft, with a distinctive fruity taste and fragrance.

GP Ski Club Sets 5 Trips

The Grosse Pointe Ski Club has scheduled five ski weekend trips beginning in January and continuing through mid-March.

The cost of these trips include round trip bus transportation from the War Memorial, lodging, lift fees, three meals, beverages and snacks on the bus and a Saturday night wine-cheese party.

The buses leave the War Memorial on Friday evenings at 6:30 p.m. and return on Sunday at approximately 10:30 p.m., allowing two full days of skiing.

The scheduled trips will be to such areas as Boyne and Schuss Mountain.

For further information, call the War Memorial at 881-7511.

Mother Reflects Upon Kidnapping

him. City Chief Robert VanTiem was wonderful, as were the officers from The Farms and the FBI. We owe them all so much."

Lt. VanTiem, who's acting police chief, thinks Mrs. Miller was instrumental in helping Scott escape. "I was at the Miller home for about six hours that day," he said. "Mrs. Miller handled herself exceptionally well. At no time did she panic or lose control. She had a very calming influence on Scott when he was on the phone. She's one in a million."

"When Scott didn't come home for lunch, I became worried and started making phone calls," said Mrs. Miller. "Scott isn't a dawdler and is never late for lunch. I thought he might have been stopped at a garage sale at the corner, but no one said they had seen him."

Wait for Contact

"Mr. (Jay) Flowers, the principal of Gabriel Richard School was wonderful. He knew just what to do. He made some calls and finally tracked down a boy who said he saw Scott get into a car with a man. That's when I knew it was a kidnapping."

At this point, the FBI was called in, along with the police departments of The City and The Farms. Their first step was to establish that Scott's older brother Kenneth, a student at South, also wasn't a kidnap victim.

A second brother, David, was away at college.

"After that, we just waited for the kidnapper to contact us," said Mrs. Miller. "My husband called from work and said the kidnapper had demanded $48,000 and no police interference."

An hour after his call, Scott phoned in and said he had untied himself. The first thing he did, without being asked, was to tell me what number he was calling from. When I asked if he knew where he was, he hung up and tried to establish his location.

"When he called again, he gave us the street, house number and even the color of the home. After that, I told him to run out of there and hide."

"Quite a Boy"

After his recovery, the police and FBI were stunned by Scott's pluck and presence of mind.

"The boy was kidnapped, thrown into the trunk of a car and then tied between two poles in a strange house," said Farms Det. Sgt. George VanTiem, who's in charge of the case.

"After being left alone, he untied himself and set off to find help. Unaided by the neighbors, he placed two calls to his mother and told us his location. Then he went and hid. He's quite a boy!"

"We think he's more mature because he's living in a home full of adults," said Scott's mother. "His brothers are a big influence on him. He said the only time he was scared was when he rode around in the trunk of the car. He wasn't afraid the rest of the time because he wasn't threatened. He never saw a gun or a knife."

Actually, his abductor talked very little. Scott asked all the questions. When he asked if he was being kidnapped, the man only said "yes." When Scott asked for how much, his kidnapper said it "wasn't any of his business." Thank goodness the man was such an amateur. He left so many clues.

Hopes for Justice

The man alleged to be Scott's kidnapper is Adam Patwin, 20, of Santa Barbara, Detroit. A former employee of Scott's father, Richard K. Miller, Patwin was arrested at his home early on the morning of Saturday, October 2.

He had been talked into surrendering by his wife, Phyllis.

"We couldn't believe it when they said it was Adam," said Mrs. Miller. "He was a good, hard working employee at my husband's factory. I was familiar with his name and he had a good reputation with us."

"When he quit his job, he and my husband parted on amiable terms. I have no idea why he picked on Scott. If he had been treated badly at work I could understand it. Who knows what he was thinking?"

"I do believe if Scott hadn't gotten away, he would have been killed. He would have died. He said he recognized the man who picked him up. I think the man who stole my child should go to jail for as long as possible."

"I hope the courts won't say he's psychologically impaired. That doesn't excuse what he did. My son was kidnapped. He could be dead right now."

Not Affected Much

Things are back to normal at the Miller household now. The camera crews and reporters have gone on to other stories and Scott is busy making up the homework he missed on that Friday afternoon.

"The fact he was kidnapped doesn't seem to affect him much," said Mrs. Miller. "He reads the stories about what happened then forgets about them. He hasn't started a scrapbook or anything like that."

"As for myself, I try not to let it get to me. I don't want it to disrupt our lives any further."

"But now I start to worry when Scott doesn't come straight home. If he's a few minutes overdue, I start to phone his friends. Can you blame me? He was taken from us once."

"It could happen again. To anyone."

Man to Stand Trial in GP Park Shooting Incident

Patrick Peeve, 23, of Detroit, was bound over for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court following an examination before Park Municipal Judge John Urso on Wednesday, October 6, on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

Peeve's bond of $2,500 was continued.

Peeve, whose name at the time was not known, voluntarily surrendered himself to Park Det. Sgt. James LaPratt and Det. William Furtaw on Monday, September 27, two days after a shooting in front of a bar, located at 15106 Mack avenue.

He identified himself as the man who allegedly shot Benny J. Gambell, 22, of Detroit, as Gambell was walking by the bar.

Luckily, the wound was not serious. It passed through Gambell's skin under the scalp and came out the other end, stunning the man. Gambell was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Park ambulance, treated for the wound and released.

According to information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan, on Saturday, September 25, at 1:59 a.m., Peeve and a woman companion were sitting at the bar in the Union Street Lounge, when an unidentified man approached and began speaking to the woman.

This, for some reason, seemed to upset Peeve, who grabbed her by the arm and dragged her out of the building, police said. The second male followed the couple out of the bar and told Peeve that was no way to treat a lady, the lieutenant stated.

Peeve, it was said, then retorted, "I'll show you how to treat people," and pulled out a .25 caliber automatic from his pocket and fired at the other man.

The bullet missed the man, hitting Gambell, who was walking by and was not aware of what was taking place.

The officers of the detective bureau were still looking for the then unknown man, when Peeve surrendered on September 27.

Woods Refuses To Change Law

An ordinance to amend a section of the city code, affecting the collection and disposal of brush, failed to pass its second reading and final adoption test at the Woods Council's regular meeting Monday, October 4.

The proposal said all brush, which will be collected and disposed of on a regular once-a-week basis by the city, shall not contain individual tree, shrub and bush cuttings, trimmings or limbs exceeding three inches in diameter, three feet in length or 50 pounds in weight.

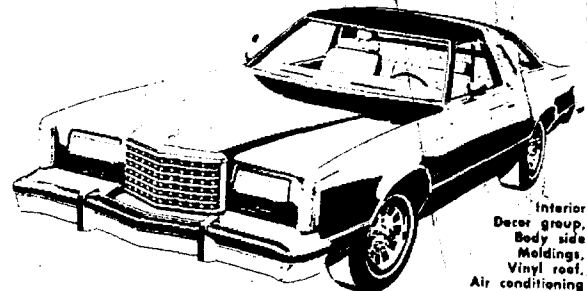

The proposed change was in the area of length, which was, (and still is because of the council's unanimous denial), six feet.

Explaining the reason for the proposal, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said such brush could be gathered with regular rubbish pickups, thus saving labor and costs of an additional pick up for brush only. Indicating the Department of Public Works requested consideration of the proposal, Mr. Petersen stated its purpose was to economize by not having to send a separate crew around the city to gather such material.

However, after learning residents might have to suffer some inconveniences and hardships regarding their current normal routine, e.g., having to cut up limbs, the council decided to deny approval of the amendment.

ULS Offers Great Help Toward College Selection

College admissions officials are seeking students with solid academic records, good college board scores and increasing importance, those who have made meaningful contributions during their high school years.

That was the consensus of five college admissions officials who recently conducted a mock admissions panel for college-bound students and their parents during College Night at University Liggett School, (ULS).

"I urge students not to spread themselves too thin. A long list of minor activities doesn't impress anybody anymore and it really doesn't give youngsters a fair opportunity to develop. They're too busy running from this to that," said Muriel Brock, ULS college coordinator and a participant in the College Night program on the school's campus.

Dozens of minor extra-curricular activities are far less important to college recruiters than a few truly significant activities that tend to show leadership, maturity and creativity.

That, plus good school recommendations and successful interviews, was stressed during the mock admissions panel in which recruiters demonstrated how students are selected for admission to college.

Heading the panel was Fred A. Hargadon, dean of admissions at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif. Stanford, like other popular though

- Academic record based on student's last three years in high school.
- College Board scores.
- School recommendations.
- Quality of extra-curricular activity.
- Student interviews.

In the formula, but varying depending on the number of applicants, is geographical location and alumni recommendations.

Panelists noted, however, that admissions standards vary from year to year, depending on economic conditions, number of applicants and population trends. A school which may seem impossible to get into one year may not be the next.

Above all, students should be flexible, according to panelists Charles W. Curry, an assistant dean at Michigan State University; John D. Kushan, of Kenyon College, Gambier, O.; Christopher Covert, of Hamilton-Kirkland College, a coordinate men's-women's college in Clinton, N.Y.; and Clara Ludwig, of Mt. Holyoke, South Hadley, Mass.

ULS is a private, co-educational school with heavy emphasis on college preparation during Upper School years. Some 100 college and university recruiters visit the ULS campus annually. Students are urged to take advantage of these informal meetings with college officials in order to help them begin the selection process which begins on a preliminary basis in the junior year.

One of the most successful ULS college-bound programs is the junior year "College Informa," a Saturday morning guidance session in which parents and students gather to receive information about the entire college application process, from campus visits to College Boards to Parents' Confidential Statements generally required with scholarship applications.

In addition during the junior year, each girl meets individually with Miss Brock, each boy with Douglas MacKelcan, head of the Upper School, to begin to narrow down the field for their final application choices.

Students are advised how and where to find information and what to look for in the selection process. Where possible, they are put in touch with ULS graduates attending the colleges in which they are interested.

In the 10th and 11th grades, students take Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude tests to determine their verbal and mathematical rank among other students across the U.S. These tests also are used to determine National Merit Scholars and to estimate a student's probable performance in college.

The S.A.T. (Scholastic Aptitude Test also known as College Board), is given both in the junior and senior year, and is a three-hour test evaluated on a scale ranging from 200, (low), to 600, (high).

Advanced Placement tests, also given in both junior and senior years, may enable a student to place out of a first-year university course and obtain college credit for work done in high school.

ULS operates a full-time College Admissions Office in which students are assisted in making applications, preparing for tests and generally guided toward making the right college choice in the right way at the right time.

Working in this area with Miss Brock and Mr. MacKelcan are Bernice Wood, the school's College Registrar, and Emily Baker, assistant head of the Upper School, who handles all academic counseling.

Students are advised to apply to at least three colleges "but first explore a lot of options. The opportunity and variety in college selection is almost unlimited. We want our students to make intelligent, thoughtful choices — most of all, the right one for them," said Miss Brock.

Possibilities for scholarship aid also are reviewed with the school's college advisors and students are assisted in making financial aid applications when they file for admission.

"Scholarships continue to be in abundance if families meet the criteria necessary. A student who seeks a scholarship must be aggressive, however, as in most cases scholarships will not seek you out," she said.

Increasingly, counselors draw attention to the possibilities of early decision programs which make commitment a criterion of acceptance. By applying to only one college early in the senior year a student often is better assured a successful application.

For those interested, a six-week mini-course called "Decision-Making: College" is offered during the junior year. Students are urged to consider what they want from a college and clarify their needs and ambitions. Skills in managing college interviews and composing autobiographies are stressed, with emphasis on learning to discuss one's self and goals with enthusiasm.

At the beginning of the final year, each senior submits an official "senior biography" detailing his interests, experiences, strengths, weaknesses and college plans. This assists the school in making recommendations.

At the end of the junior year, an appraisal of each student is written by every teacher he has studied with that year. These, combined

Calcium is unevenly furnished in foods, and calcium absorption from the digestive tract is poor compared with absorption of other nutrients. The best single source of calcium comes, of course, from milk products. The second best source is green, leafy vegetables, but depending upon this source alone is not advisable because of the relatively small amounts of calcium contained in these vegetables compared with the large amounts available in milk.

Living Rosary Set for Oct. 17

The Most Rev. Walter J. Schoenherr, auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Detroit, will lead the faithful in a special Bicentennial Rosary at the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, Woodward avenue and Boston boulevard, on Sunday, October 17, at 1 p.m.

All people are asked to join in prayer with Bishop Schoenherr, asking Mary's guidance and intercession for the forthcoming Bishop's Meeting, convening on Thursday, October 21.

Mass will be celebrated by the bishop at 11 a.m., and immediately after, refreshments will be served. The Bicentennial Living Rosary, "Light a Light for Life," will then start at 1 p.m. Bishop Schoenherr will present the homily and lead in the recitation of the Rosary.

The Living Rosary will be made up of 50 persons representing the 50 States of the Union. The theme of the Rosary will be "Reverence for Life."

As the name of each state is called, a candle will be lit from the Paschal Candle, signifying Life in Christ, The Light of the World, and an "Ave," (Hail Mary), will be offered with the response, "Lord, let there be Life."

It was in the year 1846 that the Catholic Bishops of the United States met in session at the Sixth Provincial Council in Baltimore and chose the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mother of Jesus Christ, as Patroness of the United States, under the title of "Immaculate Conception."

What better time to honor her and call upon her most powerful intercession than in this 200th Anniversary of the founding of our country, officials say.

For further information, call TU 5-6219 or LI 5-7206.

Village Slates October Fest

Saturday, October 16, will bring the October Festival to the Village in Kercheval avenue.

Among the events planned are pumpkin sales sponsored by Girl and Boy Scouts from several local troops, and an art display and sale in D'Iondt Way. Both events are scheduled from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

South High School's homecoming parade also will march down the corn-stalk decorated Kercheval avenue at about 12:30 p.m.

Among the artists displaying their work will be oil painters Billie Gronemeyer, Carolyn Sieffert, Ellen Tobin, Corinne Dolega, Marjorie Caulkins, Julia For and Nancy Proffitt.

Watercolor artists, whose work will be on display, include Betty Jo Rush, Sister Matsuzaki, Anna Tinkey, Carol Hackman, Doris Derbyshire and Edna Bakewicz.

Photography by Jack Summers, patchwork by Sharon Hackman and jewelry by Sonja Preuthun will be seen.

District Court Bill Viewed by Officials

 staff and probably a new building.

The terms of the district court bill sent to the House Judiciary Committee earlier this month specify that the State and county pay the bulk of the costs incurred by the new system. The total cost to the State alone will reportedly be $500,000.

Not Enough Work

Regardless of where the money comes from, many local officials feel that the district court system would be wasteful in the Pointes because the existing caseload of the five municipal courts combined is not great enough to sustain a two full-time judges and their court officers provided by the bill.

It also provided one judge for Harper Woods, which would constitute another district.

The impracticality of the proposed system as well as the loss of revenues from fines and court fees were cited as the main reason the Woods Council has so adamantly opposed the bill, said Administrative Aide Gerard E. McNamara.

"The Woods is the largest of the Pointes and we only hold court one-half day a week and sometimes not even that often. All the Pointes together won't generate enough work to keep two courts busy five days a week," he said.

"We will lose much of the $140,000 in revenues from fines and fees that are expected in 1976-77, if this bill passes, and the only ones who will profit will be the judges who will be getting the $35,000 a year salary."

Mr. McNamara explained further that the district court, which would be a court of record, would deprive the defendant of the right to a "trial de novo." That is an appeal not based on the testimony in the original trial.

Job Opportunities
 The dissatisfaction of The Woods of being included in the bill is intensified by the fact that there are eight other Michigan cities with municipal courts which have been excluded from the legislation.

Of these at least two have sent council resolutions to Lansing asking that they be included in a revised version of the bill. One of those communities is St. Clair Shores.

According to Democratic leader Sen. William B. Fitzgerald, the decision to include some cities and exclude others was based on how strongly the communities expressed their opposition or approval before the bill was introduced.

Two sources commenting on a recent St. Clair Shores resolution requesting that they be included in the district court plan stated that the council had passed that resolution partly under the suggestion of an individual, who is interested in a full-time judgeship.

A number of city officials feel that the bill is being supported by many judges because of the potential job opportunities which would be created. Though in principle all four judges serving the Pointes agree with the concept behind the move to district courts, only one has expressed any firm interest in running for a full-time judgeship, J. Patrick Denis, who serves The Woods and Shores.

Could Lose Control

Park Judge John Urso feels that the district court is the most effective way of running the criminal justice system.

"I honestly believe that we must have a district court in Grosse Pointe because being a judge should be a full-time job, and I'm not sure that it is good to have practicing lawyers serving on both sides of the bench," he said.

"Of course, in regards to this particular bill, I think that having two judges for the Pointes is wasteful."

Referring to the pressure that has been exerted by the State Supreme Court in favor of district courts, (the Supreme Court had considered making a rule that judges could not be practicing attorneys), City Judge Stan Kazul said that autonomous cities like the Pointes are in danger of losing control of their courts.

"I don't think it is the court's prerogative to tell us how to run our courts most effectively and efficiently. I don't oppose district courts in general but two judges in the Pointes seems a ludicrous waste," he said.

"The fact that the district court is a court of record is a plus but in terms of what it will cost it isn't worth changing the whole system. The same thing could be achieved by making our municipal courts keep records."

Fate of Bill

According to Farms Judge Robert Pytel the district court plan would have its benefits but the number of judges specified is unwarranted.

"The district court would plug the loophole of trial de novo and would raise the civil jurisdictional limit of the present system from $1,500 to $10,000. This might fill out the caseload somewhat but not enough to occupy two full-time judges," he said.

Judge Denis also stated that the present caseload of the Pointes cannot justify the necessity for a district court unless The Woods and Harper Woods become one district with one judge and the rest of the Pointes form another district also with one judge. This is the way a previous proposal read.

The fate of the district court bill will either be decided when the House acts on it during its last session of the year or, if the lawmakers do not get to it, when it will likely be reintroduced next year.

Shutout Scored by North High

By Bob Evanski

North High School ran away with another win when they lashed Clintondale, 33-0, on Friday, October 8.

Senior halfback Jeff Pierick proved to be the spark plug in the victory. Late in the second quarter, he scored on a 30-yard run and in the third quarter returned a punt 55 yards for a touchdown.

Other scoring in the first half came from a Rob Burns pass to Dave Walz which netted a 48-yard TD. Karl Tech added two extra points, and as a result of Clay Ottom blocking a Dragon punt, also kicked a 30-yard field goal.

The score was 17-0 at half-time.

In the second half, the Norsemen continued their offensive domination when Bruce Stafford zipped 19 yards into the end zone for North's fourth and final six pointer. Junior booter Tech hit another 30-yard field goal but missed two extra point tries in the last half.

Service Slated For New Pastor

The Rev. Dr. Kenneth R. Lentz will be installed as senior pastor of Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, Sunday, October 17.

The ceremony will be at 11 a.m. in the church, 375 Lohr road, conducting the installation will be the Rev. Oscar Kraft, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Howell.

Dr. Lentz succeeds the Rev. Charles W. Sandrock, who was pastor of the church for 28 years before his recent retirement. Dr. Lentz is secretary of the Metropolitan Detroit Campus Ministry Council and is a member of the board of directors of the Family Life Education Council.

North's defensive corps should not go unmentioned as this marks the second game in a row where they did not give up a point. In four games, the defense has only allowed 27 points, an average of about one touchdown per game.

Starting center and co-captain Chuck Cooper has been lost for the season as he suffered an ankle injury in the Clintondale game. His absence will definitely hurt.

The Green and Gold are currently priming up for the big Homecoming game on Saturday, October 16, at 2 p.m. against Chippewa Valley.

To square himself with life a man sometimes has to cut a few corners to complete the job.

Woods Quarterly Report Slated for Distribution

By Roger A. Waha

Woods residents will soon be receiving, free of charge, a quarterly report which will present a variety of information on the city and its departments.

As planned, three Boy Scout troops, representing Parcels, Barnes and Ferry Schools, will deliver the four-page, tabloid-size report to each home in the community during the week of October 18.

We're very pleased with it as it's developing, said Administrative Aide Gerard E. McNamara. "It's not a puff sheet, (i.e., selling the city). It's coming out better than we had anticipated without trying to inflate our ego."

Actually, the copy which is scheduled to be included in the first edition of "Update" is in a straightforward report framework.

A main focus in this quarter's report are Lake Front Park improvements and park attendance records. We're offering an accountability of where the monies went from the voter-approved bond issue, said Mr. McNamara, who noted new pool improvements, renovation of the old bathhouse, a new drainage system, the eight new tennis courts, et al., will be viewed.

Degree holders in the Department of Public Safety will be featured. "We have a public safety department that is probably one of the finest in the State and it's evident when you see the caliber of men we have," said Mr. McNamara.

An award won by the Beautification Commission also will be seen. The organization recently learned of the honor from Keep Michigan Beautiful, Inc., in the "county, city, community group or organization" category.

Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan, council representative to the commission, and Jean Rice, recording secretary, are scheduled to represent the city at an awards banquet Monday, October 25.

Other material will focus upon sewer projects, finances, the upcoming tree survey and information on ordinances.

The next account from the city will be an annual report, which will be distributed in December. This will be in the form of a calendar and list all events in 1977, e.g., council meeting dates.

Then, the next quarterly report in tabloid form is scheduled for distribution in April.

Opportunity works wonders — and ability often gets the credit. People who despise work are usually the easiest to work.

How does Studio Camera do it?

That's what camera stores all over the state are asking themselves — how does STUDIO CAMERA sell at such ridiculous low prices 365 days a year?

The answer is simple. We keep our overhead low. We run our store efficiently. We DON'T use "razzle-dazzle" gimmicks like so-called "free finishing coupons" or "half off" on over priced electronic flash units.

There's no hagglng over price at STUDIO CAMERA. Our Cash Price is our BEST price. All our prices are printed, and up front. No one works on commission, so you buy what you want, when you want. You'll never get pressured into package deals, or any of the other gimmicks you've run into in other camera stores.

This straightforward no gimmick way of doing business is the reason we sell more cameras to more people than any other camera store in Michigan.

We must be doing something right.

GP Lions Drop Tough Contest

The Grosse Pointe Lions varsity team lost a hard fought contest, 6-0, against the Sterling Heights Vikings in a Saturday night, October 9, game under the lights in Sterling Heights.

The Lions moved the ball well on offense with a solid ground game highlighted by the hard running of Steve Root, Rick Overby, Brian Carrion and John Strabel behind the blocking of Kip Saile, Eric MacMichael and Jim Hartman.

A fumble on the two-yard line and an interception passing thwarted two Lions scoring chances in an otherwise error free effort.

The defense held the Vikings in check except for one play, which resulted in the only score of the game. Outstanding efforts by John Gregg, Joe Leto, Greg Rivard and Scott Strempek led the defensive charge.

Coach Ted Platt summed up the feelings of the entire coaching staff when he complimented the team on playing the finest game of any group he's ever coached in his several years in the program.

The Lions' next contest will be an away game against the Northeast Detroit Shamrocks on Sunday, October 17, with the first of three games starting at 1 p.m.

Masonic Event Features Nolte

Carl A. Nolte, of Clairview road, will address the King Cyrus Chapter No. 33 Tuesday evening, October 19, in the Oak Room, Masonic Temple, 500 Temple avenue, for the first fall Masonic Royal Arch dinner.

All Master Masons, their families and friends are invited to attend the 6:30 p.m. event.

For further information, and to make reservations, call Temple 1-6952.

Library Film Season Starts

The Grosse Pointe Public Library will present another season of "Family Film Nights" for the entire family.

This evening, October 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the Exhibition Room of the library, 10 Kercheval avenue, the cheers and the fears should abound in the showing of, "A Ghost Of A Chance" in color.

This 55-minute film offers some of the funniest slapstick comedy ever filmed. It involves a land developer and a dishonest civil servant thwarted at every turn by three English school children, two ghosts and one eccentric but civic-minded spinster.

In the second presentation "The Dragon's Tears," one little boy among all the villagers remains unafraid of the mighty dragon who lives in a cave up on the mountain. The boy invites the dragon to a party, thus stopping him from scaring the village.

Church to Host German Service

A worship of celebration in the German language will be held at Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, 375 Lothrop road, on Reformation Sunday, October 31, at 4 p.m.

Co-sponsoring the service is Saint Peter's Lutheran Church of Detroit, whose pastor, Dr. W. H. Goeginger, will preach. The liturgist will be Dr. Kenneth Lentz, pastor at Saint Paul.

Choirs from both congregations will participate. The ladies of both congregations also will host a coffee hour following the service in the fireside room.

All German-speaking members of the community are invited to participate.

Tar/Taste Theory Exploded.

Taste-science breakthrough gives low tar MERIT the flavor of cigarettes having 60% more tar.

By locating certain flavor-rich ingredients in cigarette smoke, ingredients that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar, researchers at Philip Morris have disproven the theory that cigarette flavor depends on the amount of tar that goes with it.

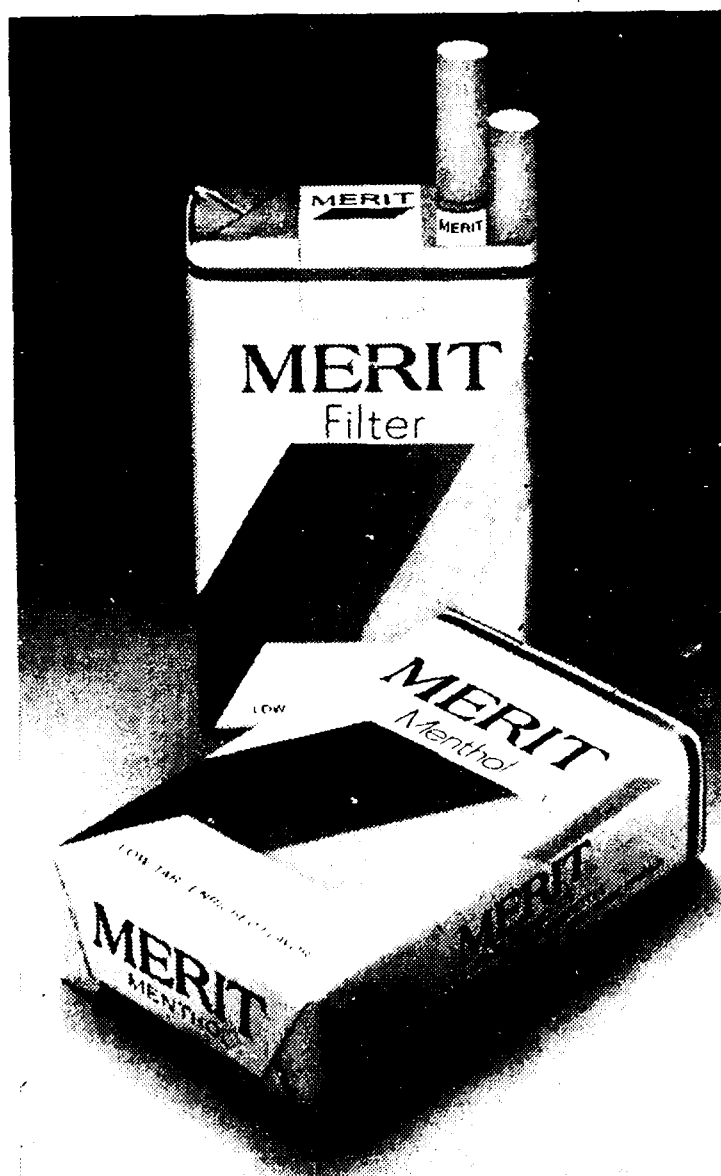

They've discovered how to pack flavor—unprecedented flavor—into a cigarette that delivers one of the lowest tar levels in smoking today.

The discovery is called 'Enriched Flavor.' It's extra flavor, natural flavor, and only MERIT has it.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms MICHIGAN

Summary of The Minutes October 4, 1976

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. Present on Roll Call: Mayor James H. Dingeman, Councilmen Harry R. Fruehauf Jr., Jack M. Cudlip, Nancy J. Waugaman, Joseph L. Fromm, W. James Mast and Lloyd A. Semple.

Those Absent Were: None.

Also Present: Mr. John K. Renke, II, representing the City Attorney.

Mayor James H. Dingeman presided at the meeting.

The Council adopted a resolution approving the purchase of one Kustom Signal MR-9 Moving Radar unit at a cost of $1,585, such price being the City bid purchase price which was extended to the City of Grosse Pointe Farms by Kustom Signals, Incorporated; the Council having first determined that such item is budgeted at $2,400, that each such item is the desired product, that approval of the foregoing proposal serves the best interests of the City, and that no advantage would be gained through the solicitation of competitive bids.

The Council approved the low bid of Shock Brothers, Incorporated, in the amount of $16.00 per manhour, for necessary tree work within the City, including removal of dead and dangerous trees and branches, and removal of infected Elm trees, for a one-year period beginning September 1, 1976 and ending September 1, 1977.

The Council approved the low bid of Westinghouse Electric Corporation, in the total amount of $4,327.00, for the purpose of repairing and reconditioning the #2 high service motor at the Water Filtration Plant.

The Council adopted a resolution approving payment of a statement from the Prosecuting Attorney in the total amount of $704.20 for legal services rendered concerning the case of the People of Grosse Pointe Farms vs. Shirley Ann Fillinger.

The Council received and authorized the Administration to place into effect the labor arbitration award with the Grosse Pointe Farms Fire Fighters for the fiscal year 1975-76.

The Council adopted a resolution granting special permission to the Hill Association for a sidewalk sale to be held on October 8 and 9, 1976 between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m., and for free parking during the above dates and the parking meters and providing clean-up afterwards.

Upon proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 9:55 p.m.

Office on Aging Seeks Tools to Help Seniors

The Wayne County Office on Aging needs new and used tools to help low-income senior citizens with necessary home repair projects, according to a Wayne County Board of Commissioners release.

An appeal is being made by county officials to businesses, community leaders, junior chambers of commerce and concerned citizens to donate a wide variety of tools, equipment and building supplies to be used in a county-wide home repair program for the elderly.

"Many seniors, living alone on limited incomes, are unable to fix leaky roofs, dangerous steps, broken windows and other household maintenance problems," said John Barr, chairman of the Board of Commissioners. "They simply don't have the strength, skills or money to keep their homes from deteriorating."

"The Wayne County Office on Aging is attempting to meet that need," Mr. Barr said. "Although its application for Federal funding was denied due to a shortage of funds, the office hopes to establish a program, primarily through volunteer help and private contributions."

He said a report issued by the Detroit-Wayne County Area Agency on Aging stated that the second most serious problem cited by seniors who voiced their opinions at recent public hearings was their difficulty in making home repairs.

"We have decided this program is too valuable to put on the shelf until we can get Federal funds to buy tools and supplies," Mr. Barr emphasized. "So, we're appealing to the community to give us a hand."

"We need all types of tools — hammers, saws, drills, caulking guns, glass cutters, pliers, wrenches, ladders, electrical, plumbing and glazing equipment. We need hundreds of tools to be able to perform all types of minor repair work. We welcome large and small donations."

In addition to the tools, Mr. Barr said the county is seeking donations of building materials such as lumber, paint, plaster and cement.

Businessmen or private individuals who would like to make a donation to this project are urged to contact the

Shores Police Nab Car Thief

A 26-year-old Detroit, who tried to accuse another man as being the driver of a car that had become stuck in the mud of a lot in Fordcroft, was arrested by a Shores public safety officer as a car thief suspect.

Arrested on Wednesday, August 29, was James Lynn Thomas, of 3024 Balfour, PSO Ronald Klotz, the arresting officer, said he was cruising on Fordcroft when he saw Thomas and another man trying to free an automobile stuck in the mud opposite No. 47. He stopped to investigate and possibly give assistance.

Officer Klotz said Thomas approached him and asked him to call a tow truck, and he was willing to pay as much as $20 for towing service.

The policeman requested Thomas' operator's license and car registration, asked who the other man was and was informed that the man had stopped to help. As the public safety officer radioed for information to his station, the second man left the area on foot.

As Thomas was fumbling for his papers, information over the Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN), machine disclosed that the license plate number on the stuck vehicle was clear and was registered to a Eugene Gorajczyk Jr., of East Detroit.

Unable to produce the required documents, Thomas claimed he left his license and registration at home and PSO Klotz asked him what name was on this license and who was Eugene Gorajczyk. Thomas stated it was the man who left the area, police said.

Thomas claimed that "Gene" left the area because he was driving the stuck car and that he fled because his operator's license had been suspended. He left because he did not want to get into trouble, Thomas said. At this time, PSO John Frasad arrived to assist and to check into the ownership of the car.

Thomas was taken to the station, while Officer Frasad checked the inside of the vehicle. He discovered that the ignition had been punched out and called in for another check on the LEIN.

The return information revealed that the vehicle had been stolen in Roseville and was registered to Theodore J. Thibert of that city. Mr. Thibert reported his car missing to authorities. Thomas was placed under formal arrest.

Public Safety Officers Robert Bensinger and Daniel Healy searched the area and found the second man, who

Babe Ruthers Earn Honors

Mike Hillabrand, of McKinley avenue, and Peter Gushee, of Washington road, have been selected to the Babe Ruth Baseball "Athletes of the Year" program for 1976, according to Richard W. Case, president of Babe Ruth International, and Tim Fleming, manager of the Grosse Pointe Babe Ruth League.

The purpose of the program is to promote and encourage the playing of amateur Babe Ruth baseball among young athletes between the ages of 13-18 by nationally recognizing each team's outstanding players of the current season.

Mike and Peter will be presented in the 1976 edition of Babe Ruth Baseball's "Athlete of the Year" annual to be published in December.

Mason PTO Sets Meeting

The Mason School PTO bids all school parents to its first meeting of the school year on Tuesday, October 19, at 7 p.m.

Following a talk by Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats, the teaching staff will be introduced and classrooms visited. Later in the evening, refreshments will be served in the gymnasium.

The things we learn after our school days comes under the heading of compulsory education.

Car Hits Pole; Damage Heavy

Damage to a car driven by Susan Elizabeth Parshall, of 654 Lakepointe, was so extensive after she struck a utility pole in front of 1100 Lakeshore, that the vehicle, a 1976 Chevrolet two-door, was not drivable and had to be towed to a service station.

According to a Shores Public Safety Department accident report, the woman was traveling north on the road at 1:03 a.m. on Wednesday, October 6, when she lost control going around the curve and slammed the right side of her car against an Edison pole.

Public Safety Officers Archie Rieve, Harry Hamilton and Bruce Darlington were dispatched to the scene when a citizen reported the mishap. The woman informed the officers that she was not injured. She said she lost control as she was negotiating the curve. Damage to the pole was reported to the Edison Co.

A friend of the woman, who happened to drive by, took her to The Shores station to make a formal report of the accident, after which she was released without charge, since there were no witnesses.

Mrs. John C. Donnelly

Marriage vows were spoken Saturday, August 7, in Saint Joan of Arc Church by NANCY JOAN MASSERANG, daughter of the Leo H. Masserangs, of Beaufait road, and Mr. Donnelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Donnelly, of Lakeland avenue.

The Armin Porters

The Mackinac Island summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sherman, Jr., of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., formerly of Cranford lane, was the setting for the Saturday, September 4, wedding of their daughter, SUZANNE MARIA SHERMAN, and Mr. Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Clan Porter, of Hampton road and Mackinac Island.

Mackinac Island Setting for Rites

Vows Are Spoken in Early September by Suzanne Maria Sherman and Armin William Porter; They Will Live on Mackinac

Suzanne Maria Sherman and Armin William Porter, who grew up together every summer in their families' homes just one door apart on the West Bluff of Mackinac Island, overlooking the Straits of Mackinac, were married Saturday, September 4, in front of the fireplace in the living room of her family's Mackinac home.

A reception followed in the house and gardens.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sherman, Jr., formerly of Cranford lane, now of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Clan Porter, of Hampton road.

Officiating at the 3 o'clock ceremony were The Reverend Phil Porter, of South Kent, Conn., uncle of the bridegroom, and The Reverend Roland Raham, of Trinity Church, Mackinac Island.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose an ivory silk Empire gown, trimmed at throat, wrists and train with Alencon lace.

She wore Armin's mother's cathedral length veil of rose-pointe lace, and carried a bouquet of yellow and white daisies with a few black-eyed susans, plucked by a friend from the fields of Mackinac and put in the arrangement at the last moment in honor of the black-eyed Suzanne.

Patti Sherman, her sister's only attendant, was in apple green organdy, trimmed at bodice and throat with white eyelet. She wore a wreath of baby's-breath in her hair, and carried a basket of white daisies and baby's-breath.

Phil Porter served as his brother's best man. Ushers were another brother, Matthew Porter, John Croghan, of Alexandria, Va., Michael Hart, of Washington, D.C., and Pointer Steven Schneider.

Mrs. Sherman chose a short gown of cream yellow jersey, fashioned with a cowl neckline in front and a low V in back. Mrs. Porter wore salmon pink silk, also street length, featuring a portrait neckline and accented at her Empire waist with a pale olive green rose.

Special guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sherman, of Miami, Fla., and her aunt, Mrs. Robert Hurley, of Gates Mills, O., and the bridegroom's aunts, Mrs. Bentley Handwork, of Toledo, O., and Mrs. L. H. McCormick-Goodhart, who came with Mr. McCormick-Goodhart from Grosse Pointe.

Also traveling from The Pointe for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Michael King-sley, Mr. and Mrs. William Bokram, Mr. and Mrs. William Klingbeil, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Keeler.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Porter were driven away from the reception by the bridegroom's brothers, in the Porters' antique black lacquer and wine velvet carriage, drawn by their horse, "Chaucer," to the cruiser of friends, which took them to the Upper Peninsula where they vacationed briefly in Marquette.

They plan a more extended trip in November, when they will visit Gettysburg and Williamsburg before returning to make their home on Mackinac Island.

Nancy Masserang Wed in August

She Speaks Vows to John Casgrain Donnelly at Late Morning Service; Reception Follows at Hillcrest Country Club

At home in St. Clair avenue are Mr. and Mrs. John Casgrain Donnelly, who vacationed in San Francisco and Carmel, Calif., following their mid-summer wedding in Saint Joan of Arc Church.

The morning ceremony Saturday, August 7, The Reverend Edward Mitchell presiding, was followed by a reception at Hillcrest Country Club. Mrs. Donnelly is the former Nancy Joan Masserang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Masserang, of Beaufait road. Mr. Donnelly is the son of the John C. Donnellys, of Lakeland avenue.

An Empire-waisted gown of mara caine jersey, its sleeves and chapel train trimmed with self-ruffles, was the former Miss Masserang's choice for the 11:30 o'clock rites.

Hand-beaded pearls and crystals accented her illusion V-neck of Alencon lace over net. A Juliet cap of lace and beading matching the gown held her illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, daisy-type mums and baby's-breath.

Mrs. Gerald Lock, honor matron for her sister, and bridesmaids Anne Donnelly, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Donald Masserang, Mary Kay Naglich, the bride's niece, Diane Graham and Mildred Rowe carried fire-side baskets filled with daisies and yellow roses.

Their yellow polyester knits were styled with portrait necklines and angel sleeves. They wore yellow sheer picture hats.

Michael Wilberding was best man. Guests were seated by William Donnelly, the bridegroom's brother, Donald Masserang, the bride's brother, Thomas Dawson, of Washington, D.C., Frank Hillebrand and Michael Hubbard.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length shirtwaist of ivory cotton lace. Woburn Abbey roses formed her corsage. The bridegroom's mother selected a multi-colored pastel print shirtwaist, also floor length, and a corsage of white roses and stephanotis.

Wedding at Noon For Ann Schimmel

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Henry Sovey, Jr., Are Vacationing in California, Will Return to Reside in East Lansing

Setting for the wedding of Ann Fay Schimmel and Donald Henry Sovey, Jr., Saturday, October 9, was Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church. The Reverend Harry Maghakian and The Reverend Robert C. Deal presided at the noon rites.

They will make their home in East Lansing. The bridegroom is associated with a Lansing accounting firm, the bride, whose mother is a teacher at Grosse Pointe South High School, teaches in Howell.

The former Miss Schimmel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harold Schimmel, who moved recently from Roslyn road to Eastland Village drive, wore an Empire-waisted satin gown, trimmed in pale blue and white lace.

Eyelet lace trimmed her fingertip veil. She carried a dried arrangement of satin roses, baby's-breath, daisies and stephanotis.

She was attended by honor matron Mrs. Daniel Case and bridesmaids Nanette Gottfried, of Ann Arbor, Barbara Welker and Barbara Sovey, of Bay City, the bridegroom's sister.

They wore Empire-waisted, V-necked frocks of ivory jersey, with floor length, ivory and pale blue coats, and carried cricket boxes filled with dried flowers.

Mr. Sovey, son of the Donald Henry Soveys, of Essexville, asked his cousin, Timothy Pressler, of Bay City, to act as best man. Ushers were Timothy Benton, of Lansing, Donald Dossitt, of Ann Arbor, and Gregory Todd, of Kalamazoo.

The bride's mother accented her green Qiana shirtwaist, with a corsage of yellow baby orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore blue and white floral print jersey palazzo pants, with a matching top.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fay, of Lake Worth, Fla., and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Ida Pressler, of Kawkawlin.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Land was so plentiful at the beginning of our country that it was given away. The King of England and the Duke of York gave large grants of land to Penn, Calvert, Oglethorpe, Carteret, Berkeley, and others. In turn, these new "land barons" were expected to give the land to the new settlers in order to encourage immigration. Even the trading companies of the period used land to further their expanding activities. Today, land is scarcely free. But with the help of us, your professional, land buying, settling, even speculation can be made much simpler.

Now is the time to call GROSSE POINTE REAL ESTATE CO., 20087 Mack Avenue, Grosse Pointe Woods, 882-0087 and discuss buying a home as land values are increasing steadily and a home purchased today will make one of the best investments against inflation. We handle all forms of real estate. "Exclusively in Grosse Pointe." Hours: Mon.-Sat. 9-5; Sun. noon-5; 24 hour answering service.

AOPI Alumnae Have Full Autumn Schedule

Grosse Pointe members of the Detroit Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi, including Mrs. David Adams, Mrs. Watson Ford, Mrs. Martin Hawley, Mrs. Louis Neuder and Mrs. William Wilson, will join other Detroit-area AOPI alumnae for a 6:30 o'clock potluck dinner this evening, Thursday, October 14, at the Detroit home of Mrs. Richard Jensen.

Reports will be presented by delegates who attended the sorority's regional convention at Ypsilanti in June. Mrs. Wilson, president of the Detroit Alumnae Chapter, and Mrs. Hawley, both of whom represented their group at the convention, will display a trophy presented to the Detroit Chapter for the Outstanding Alumnae Display.

The exhibit, part of a special Bicentennial project, depicted the History of the Detroit Alumnae Chapter from its founding in 1922, including such items as pictures of hostesses for AOPI's international conventions in Port Huron in 1951 and on Mackinac Island in 1987.

Other fall meetings, workshop sessions to complete handicraft projects to be sold at the Parcells Christmas Fair Saturday, December 4, are scheduled for Tuesday, October 19, at Mrs. Adams' home, Thursday, November 4, at Mrs. Hawley's home, and Tuesday, November 16, at Mrs. Wilson's home.

Mrs. Ford will contribute one of her tile paintings as a Fair prize. All proceeds will benefit the Michigan Arthritis Foundation.

The Arthritis Foundation was adopted at the Mackinac Convention as AOPI's international philanthropy. Alumnae chapters comprising the Detroit Metropolitan Council of AOPI have supported MAF in the past by purchasing special wheelchairs for arthritic patients.

Grosse Pointe North High School graduate LYNNE R. DeCLAIRE, daughter of MR. and MRS. ALTON G. DeCLAIRE, JR., of Canterbury road, has been initiated into Kappa Alpha Theta sorority at the University of Michigan, where she is a sophomore majoring in Elementary Education. Lynne has also been chosen assistant Panhellenic delegate for her sorority. Her brother JEFFREY H. DeCLAIRE, a University of Michigan senior, has been elected president of his Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity chapter. He's also a North High graduate, and is majoring in pre-Med.

Inside the Mothers Club

At the October Grosse Pointe South High School Mothers' Club executive board meeting, President Mrs. Gerald E. Warren commended Mrs. Paul Barr for a very successful New Student Party.

The party, held September 27, featured Russell Reed's student jazz band was attended by Dr. Hanson and Dr. Hoeh. Mrs. Barr thanked Mrs. Doelle and Mrs. Davis for their assistance.

Mrs. James Sanford is still very happy to accept any dues and donations for the Mothers' Club. The $3 dues offset expenses of such parties as that for the New Students, the Mothers' Club calendar and many other student activities sponsored by the Mothers' Club.

The Leaf Bag Sale—the fall fund-raiser—is on until tomorrow, Friday, October 15. Co-chairman Mrs. Donald E. Kelly notes that the price of $9 for a roll of 100 bags is less than K-Mart charges. Remaining bags will be sold at Back to School Night.

Members may still sign up through the Mothers' Club for neighborhood discussion, sewing or bridge groups. Co-chairman Mrs. Frank Zinn reports that group leaders are making plans for the coming year.

Mrs. Thomas Coulter, South High chairman for the Christmas tea, is meeting with North High's chairman, Mrs. Marilyn Ortoni. The tea will be held December 1, at the Performing Arts Center, with North High mothers acting as hostesses.

The combined committees meet Wednesday, October 13, at Mrs. Coulter's home. Her committee includes the Mesdames Brammer, Droste, Imesch, Mabarak, Fern, Harwood, Bayer, Crowley, Echlin, Rousseau and Lintvedt.

Greg Jay, president of the Student Association, was introduced by Mrs. Warren, who also introduced his fellow officers, Sam Maywood and Scott Stevens. Sue Jones was unable to be present.

Greg thanked the Mothers' Club for sponsoring the New Student Party and offered the Association's help in any Mothers' Club projects.

Homecoming chairman Mrs. Charles R. Boyce and the class sponsors reported their planning progress. A pancake breakfast will be served in the cafeteria from 8 to 10 o'clock. The parade begins at 12:30. Game time is 2 o'clock, and the dance begins at 8:30 that evening. Everyone is welcome to participate this Saturday, October 16.

Mrs. William Peattie, co-chairman of the "Newsletter" was commended for her fine first issue. Homecoming and the neighborhood groups will be highlighted in the next issue.

Faculty representative Mrs. Benson McClure announced that National Honor Society applications have been handed out. Seniors with a 3.0 or higher grade point average and juniors with a 3.3 or better are eligible.

Counselors met with ninth graders October 6 and 8, talking to them about clubs and activities. Juniors interested in college should sign up for the PSAT, (Preliminary Scholarship Aptitude Test).

Mrs. Samuel Ulmer, vice-president of the Mothers' Club, read a letter sent to scholarship winners about the eliminations of sorority and fraternity restriction. She has contacted the Michigan State Alumnae group, which is considering a donation to the Mothers' Club Scholarship Fund.

The Ninth Grade and New Student Parents' Night meeting has been changed to Monday, October 18, due to the School Board meeting last Monday. Notice of this is in the mail.

David Shelly, president of the Varsity Club, described the service and money-raising functions of his club, and its programs. Parents are invited to the meetings.

Personal services for students at Grosse Pointe South High were the main topic at the October meeting. Mrs. Tip McIntosh, school social worker, and Detective Pat Fagan, of the Youth Services Division, were introduced by Mrs. Warren.

Detective Fagan described the goal of the Youth Services Division as achieving the cooperation of law enforcement agencies and the school in dealing with problems of students.

He works with the school social worker, the assistant principal, the counselors, administrators and teachers. He also helps with activities, such as handling traffic on Homecoming Day, helps students with research in his field, and speaks in classes

Wed at Academy

Marriage vows were exchanged Saturday, August 21, in the Grosse Pointe Academy Chapel by MARY JO MISERENDINO, daughter of the Leo Joseph Miserendinos, of Canterbury road, and GREGORY DEAN VANNATTER, son of the Dean Arthur VanNatters, of Lansing.

related to law enforcement. Mrs. McIntosh described her main job as helping adolescents grow up. The greatest number of problems brought to her relate to emerging independence.

Others develop from the peer group, love affairs, conflicts with teachers, sex and alcohol.

There are few home problems separate from school problems: most home problems become school problems. Only one-quarter of the problems involve the law; the rest deal with school-related and personal problems.

Over 50 percent of the adolescents come into her office by themselves. Others are referred by teachers, counselors and friends. All interviews are completely confidential.

Mrs. McIntosh commended the wonderful, cooperative arrangement at South. The talks were followed by questions from board members concerning parties, alcohol, drug abuse and vandalism. Detective Fagan finds less drug abuse this year, but increasing problems with alcohol. Mrs. Warren thanked the speakers for their concern for the students and the fine team approach they employ.

Social co-chairman Mrs. William Blevins reports that her committee is planning on 500 parents for Back to School Night.

Beth Learns On-the-Job

Beth Grindler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, of Balfour road, was just graduated from Northern Michigan University, but before she received her degree in Political Science she spent an entire semester as a student intern at the Michigan Department of Civil Rights' Detroit office.

Lochmoor Club Reception Follows Late Afternoon Ceremony at Which She Speaks Vows to Gregory Dean VanNatter

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Dean VanNatter, married Saturday, August 21, at the Grosse Pointe Academy Chapel, are at home in Big Rapids while she completes her final year of Dental Hygiene classes at Ferris State College.

He has completed his first degree at Ferris State, in Public Administration, and will complete his second degree, in Marketing, by this November.

They will be returning to the Grosse Pointe area next May.

Mrs. VanNatter is the former Mary Jo Miserendino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Joseph Miserendino, of Canterbury road. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Arthur VanNatter, of Lansing.

The 5 o'clock rites at which Father George Charnley, of Saint Joan of Arc Parish, presided were followed by a reception at Lochmoor Club, after which the newlyweds vacationed on Mackinac Island.

Lace accented the bride's traditional white gown and illusion veil. She carried ivy, stephanotis and phalaenopsis orchids.

In triple-tiered frocks of yellow chiffon, carrying yellow daisy mums and baby's breath, were honor maid Mary Kirk Berns and bridesmaids Carol Hammer, Michelle VanNatter, the bridegroom's sister, and three cousins of the bride, Marie Lipuma, Rose Marie Regher and Lisa McLaughlan. Best man was Kurt Cassel.

The bride's brothers, Leo, Gerry and Anthony Miserendino, their cousin, Paul Janowski, and Ray Allard ushered. Four-year-old Matthew VanNatter, brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore pink chiffon. The bridegroom's mother selected aqua blue chiffon.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's aunts, Mrs. Joseph De Martino, of New York, and Mrs. Charles Le Purna, of Long Island, N.Y.; her uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Vassallo, of Huntington, Long Island, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miserendino, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miserendino, of Maspeth, N.Y.; and her cousins, the Anthony De Martinos, and Theodore Denellas, both of Long Island, and the Terry Miserendinos, of Westchester, O.

Plan Court of Honor Dames' Conference

The Michigan Society Dames of the Court of Honor will host the National Society's 49th Annual Conference Sunday through Wednesday, October 24 to 27, at Dearborn Inn, with a "Welcome Autumn in Michigan" theme.

Among Pointers planning to attend are the Mesdames Ervin J. Wiley, John V. Chadock and Robert H. Peterson.

Program features include a lecture on clocks by Thomas Eurich, a review of the History of Dearborn, and a discussion of United States flags by Mrs. William Sheets, who is bringing her exact miniature displays.

Maralyse L. Brooks, Michigan Society president, assisted by Irene T. Dudley, together with representatives of the Dearborn Mayor's Office and Chamber of Commerce will extend greetings. Mrs. John F. Weaver is in charge of registration. Mrs. Hugh W. Glover, pianist, will accompany the grand entrance march and exit. Farewell luncheon entertainment will feature the chorus from the Jackson Morning Musicals. Theme of the current National Society administration is "Be Alert for Freedom, Our Rich Heritage."

Open Museum Lecture Series

The Junior Council of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts will present four mid-Sunday lectures by distinguished American scholars in 1976-77.

The series of talks related to the museum's permanent collection, co-sponsored by the DIA's Education Department, opens this Sunday, October 17, with a program on "The Special Relationship of the Art Museum to the Academic World" by H. W. Janson, professor of Fine Arts, New York University.

Other speakers and dates in the series, (all programs begin at 1 o'clock in the DIA's lecture hall), are Agnes Mongan, former director, curator and lecturer emerita at Harvard University's Fogg Art Museum, discussing "Four Drawings by Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres in the Permanent Collection" November 21; Roy Sieber, professor of Fine Arts, Indiana University, talking on "African Art in the Permanent Collection" January 23; and a March 20 discussion of the Diego Rivera murals by 20th century American art scholar Francis V. O'Connor.

The lectures are open to the public. Admission at the door is $1.50, (students, 75 cents).

The Junior Council, composed of "under 40" Founders, sponsors programs to increase public appreciation for the Art Institute.

Dinner-Lecture Slated By Polish Art Friends

The Friends of Polish Art will present The Reverend Dr. Walter M. Zebrowski, lecturer, author and professor of Polish and English at Saint Mary's College, Orchard Lake Schools, where he directs the campus Gallery, as guest speaker at their annual dinner-lecture this Saturday, October 16, at 6:30 o'clock in Marygrove College's Madame Cadillac Hall.

He will speak on "Polish Operatic Luminaries at the Old Met." Piano soloist for the evening is Mark Rachelski. Ticket reservations at $12 per person, ($7.50 for students), may be obtained by calling 585-8765 or 939-1821.

'Junk' Jewelry Stars at DBC

"Jewelry with a Difference" is theme of the afternoon program planned to follow a luncheon sponsored by the Detroit Boat Club Women's Committee next Wednesday, October 20, when Lynn Welsh, daughter of the Arthur Engstroms, of Three Mile drive, (and a third generation Boat Clubber), and her partner Brenda Rosenberg, fashion director for Saks Fifth Avenue, display their Garage Collection which has become a national and international fashion sensation.

Cocktails will be at 11:30 and the luncheon at 12:30.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

When local residents go to the polls on November 2 they will be confronted not only with choices for the nation's highest elective office, but also with a proposal which has serious long-range ramifications for public education in Michigan.

I am referring to Proposal C, a plan to limit spending by the State of Michigan, to 8.3 percent of State personal income and to refund excess revenue through the personal income tax.

On the surface, this may look good; any plan that would seem to reduce taxes will have much appeal. But in a time of rampant inflation, when increases in the costs of goods and services are inevitable, such legislation could cause serious problems in public education, as well as in other fields of endeavor.

Experts in the field of taxation tell me that it would create a more inequitable and unpredictable tax system than we currently have.

As residents of the Grosse Pointe School District are well aware, during the 1976-77 fiscal year our system realizes 92 percent of its operating revenues from the local property tax.

Categorical aid, (we do not qualify for any general State Aid), accounts for a portion of the balance and every dollar is important to us. Therefore, we do not wish to stand even a remote chance of losing any funds which we may receive.

Regarding Proposal C, experts in the field of taxation tell us that if it passes:

1. The State of Michigan would be less able to assume much of the tax burden carried on by local units and would install too much rigidity in the tax system.

2. Future efforts to provide needed services may require an unfair burden of local units through a requirement that the proportion of revenues paid to local units be maintained at the current level.

3. It could force reduced fiscal policies during times of recession.

4. It could create an unpredictable and uncontrollable shift in the tax burden, because excesses must be refunded through the income tax no matter what the source of the excess, be it the Single Business Tax, the gas tax or the sales tax.

5. It has been said that passage of Proposal C would increase the likelihood that the State of Michigan might have to rescind its property tax relief program which currently costs the State $225 million per year.

The matter is a complex one with serious ramifications for the local public school system. I urge all voters to give it serious thought before voting.

For your information, the Michigan Association of School Boards has taken a stand against Proposal C. Its resolution, passed September 10, states in part: "The Michigan Association of School Boards, believing strongly in the local control of our public schools, urges all local school board members, Michigan taxpayers and voters to vote 'No' on Proposal C."

Girl Tankers at North Win

By Sue Fancett

North High School's girls varsity swim team opened its season late last month, and since then have won their first two Bi-County League meets and six events. They also qualified for the State Meet at Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, on December 3-4.

The Norsemen first dropped a close non-league meet to Grand Blanc, 91-81. The 200 medley relay team of Margaret Wittmer, Patti Hallmann, Ann Hoffman and Jenny Elie, captured first place, and at the same time qualified for State with a time of 2:00.7.

Other first place finishes for North were taken by Wittmer in the 200 freestyle, Hoffman in the 100 fly and Hallmann in the 100 breaststroke. Hallmann also qualified for State in this event with a time of 1:13.8.

North opened its league season on Tuesday, October 5, with a 110-69 victory over Fraser. Three events qualified for State in this meet. Wittmer qualified in the 200 individual medley, Elie in the 50 freestyle, and Amy Rentschler, Hoffman, Elie and Wittmer in the 400 free relay.

The Norsemen had an easy victory over the Lakeview Huskies, 118-54, on Thursday, October 7. Wittmer qualified for State in the 500 freestyle with a time of 5:45.5.

First place finishes were taken by Truhol, Jones, Laethem and Richards in the 200 medley relay, Wittmer in the 200 individual medley, Lisa Stout in diving, Elie in the 50 freestyle, Truhol in the 100 backstroke and Langs, Rentschler, Wittmer and Hallmann in the 100 free relay.

The Norsemen travel to Farmington Our Lady of Mercy on Monday, October 18. The next night, October 19, they host Dearborn High School in a non-league meet at 7 p.m.

Half the world can't figure out how the other half gets money for vacation trips.

Juvenile Justice System Viewed by Rep. Bryant

By Roger A. Waha

Proposals to reorganize the criminal justice system in the State by a Youth Service Division, (YSD), detective, along with an assessment of the juvenile justice system, were discussed by Rep. William R. Bryant Jr. last week. "I think we have to do something drastic with the juvenile justice system. It has broken down not because of Judge Lincoln, (Probate Judge James Lincoln), or other professionals there who do the best they can, but because of the system itself," said Rep. Bryant.

A concern over the system, e.g., a lack of service provided the Pointes by juvenile court, plus a disenchantment with the Department of Social Services in its past handling of juvenile cases, were major reasons for YSD Det. Wayne Baum's recent long-term program to reorganize the criminal justice system.

The detective proposed that local/district courts have the responsibility for all misdemeanors for juveniles and adults, while emphasizing the overall home rule concept and certainty of punishment.

In viewing the system, Rep. Bryant said the most important thing wasn't the adoption of Det. Baum's proposals or anyone else's proposals but that "we get the legislature involved immediately, and seriously, to do something. We need all the ideas we can get."

He felt the detective's proposals were good, especially in relation to The Pointe community. "It makes good sense to handle misdemeanor cases locally," said Rep. Bryant, who quickly cited the big case load of juvenile court. He also felt that very little attention was paid to young offenders from suburban areas by the court.

"This makes it worse for Grosse Pointe kids when nothing is done when they get in trouble," he continued. For such cases to be handled on a local level in the suburbs "it makes even more sense."

When asked if he felt Det. Baum's proposals were a viable long-term plan, Rep. Bryant said there were elements in the program which had possibilities but needed re-working.

For his part, the representative plans on introducing a bill viewing the probate waiver concept.

In his letter to Gov. William G. Milliken of Tuesday, September 28, he said a compromise approach might be to retain the probate waiver concept, but limit it so that in cases of major crime, crime in which there was a weapon used or injury to a person, that on request by the prosecutor for a juvenile court waiver, that waiver could only be refused in a specific instance.

That instance would be if there is "clear and convincing proof of mental incompetence or (another) compelling reason why the juvenile court should not waive jurisdiction."

Rep. Bryant said, "The juvenile court is reluctant to waive jurisdiction. The legislature has to give them guidelines.

"We need juvenile court to treat kids differently than adult criminals but we have to deal with the real young punks," he continued. "The important thing is that the legislature stop ignoring the problem," the representative stressed.

Besides Rep. Bryant, the detective sent a letter on his proposed system of criminal justice, plus a proposal in relation to criminal justice detention facilities, to Senators John Hertel and Joseph Snyder.

Sen. Hertel, who has had a busy schedule in Lansing, said that he hadn't had the opportunity to review Det. Baum's proposals. "Something this important needs time," he stressed. Noting it's a delicate situation when one deals with juveniles, the senator stated he wanted to explore them in depth.

For his part, Sen. Snyder recently told the NEWS he was impressed with the amount of work the detective put into preparing his program. He also said the proposals were forwarded by him to the newly created office of Juvenile Justice Services.

Det. Baum, who said he's willing to speak to groups and organizations on his proposals, stated he was invited to address the Grosse Pointe Park Civic Association at its community-oriented meeting Thursday, November 11, in the Pierce School auditorium beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Other officials who are scheduled to attend, according to Mary Nivert of the association, are Park Police Lt. Gordon Duncan and Mayor Matthew C. Patterson.

She added the session is primarily limited to Park citizens only.

County Gears for Swine Flu Shot Program in Area

Free swine flu shots for the high risk population will begin Wednesday, October 20, and Saturday, October 23, at 25 clinic site locations in Wayne County, including one in The Pointe and Harper Woods.

The announcement was made by Dr. Perry Stearns, Wayne County Health Director, to the five member Board of Health last week, according to a health department news release.

The rest of the county's population, not in the high risk category, can expect to receive their flu shots starting Monday, November 8, at 47 designated community site locations.

High risk, according to Dr. Stearns, are those people over 60 and those of any age over three years suffering from chronic, (continuous), diseases, such as heart disease, chronic bronchopulmonary, (respiratory), disease, chronic renal failures, (kidney disease), and diabetes.

The elderly and chronically ill will receive a bivalent vaccine which will protect them against A/Victorian flu, as well as swine flu. According to test results conducted this July the shot will probably be between 70 and 90 percent effective in preventing flu caused by the swine virus.

Reactions to the vaccine are minor. Some people may get swelling, redness or tenderness in the arm at the spot where the injection is given. A very small number of people may run a fever for one or two days.

No one will get the flu from the vaccine. The virus in the vaccine has already been killed. Your body will develop protection against the flu after the shot, but you will not get the flu because of the shot. If you are allergic to eggs, however, check with your physician before taking the vaccine, health officials caution.

Flu vaccine will soon be distributed to private physicians, nursing homes, hospitals and some industries, who will be inoculating their employees on the job.

The program will be the largest single immunization program ever undertaken in the history of Wayne County as nearly 50 percent of the nearly 1.2 million county residents are expected to roll up their sleeves and get their shot.

The Red Cross has helped to recruit well over 1,500

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford
Chief of Central Library

This is the eighth of a 10-part series entitled "Bicentennial Biographies." The subject of this week's column is not an individual but a group of individuals — the American Loyalists or as they are sometimes better known, the Tories.

Today, scholars estimate that those who were loyal to Great Britain during the Revolution numbered about 500,000 or 20 percent of the population of the 13 revolting colonies. In Georgia and South Carolina they were a majority; in New England and Virginia, a minority; elsewhere they were about evenly matched by the patriots.

The majority of Loyalists opposed the objectionable acts of the British Parliament. And while anxious to maintain their rights by means of petition and legal protest, they were, however, strongly opposed to separation from the British Empire.

Following the battle of Lexington great numbers of Loyalists flocked to the royal colors or organized militia companies of their own under commissions from the crown. Although they probably contributed 60,000 soldiers, yet much to the disappointment of the British authorities, their military service was not commensurate with their numerical strength.

Prior to 1776 few efforts were made to arrest or suppress the Loyalists. However, as the war progressed, the patriots resorted to more and more drastic measures, including finally, banishment and confiscation of property.

Before the war was over probably 200,000 Loyalists died, were exiled or became voluntary refugees to other parts of the Empire.

Generations of American school children were taught that if anything during the American Revolution was lower than a British regular or a Hessian mercenary it was a Loyalist. What good could possibly be said about a native-born American who sided with the British?

Then with the publication of Claude Van Tyne's LOYALISTS IN THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION in 1902 a revisionist trend got under way, and there was a tendency to glorify Loyalists as honorable people victimized by a diabolical mob. This is epitomized in the novel by Kenneth Roberts, OLIVER WISWELL. The truth, of course, is somewhere in between.

Within recent years a number of objective accounts about the Loyalist cause have been published. Several of these, along with the Van Tyne and Roberts books, will be found on the shelves at your Grosse Pointe Public Library.

Wallace Brown's THE GOOD AMERICANS, (Morrow), is a well written and balanced account. The quality of this book is revealed by the range of its discussion. Not only are the motives of Loyalists and their prosecution by the new state regimes carefully reexamined; but the author, a Canadian historian, offers sound analysis of their composition, geographical distribution, numbers and the compensation to them by the mother country.

In THE AMERICAN TORV, (Prentice), editors Morton and Penn Borden present a look at the differences between the Loyalists and the rebels, the ways in which the Loyalists were treated by the rebels and the reasons that caused them to take their respective positions.

The essays in this volume—taken from original letters, newspapers, court records and pamphlets—provide insight and understanding into the times and consciousness of that group of men and women who chose to support their King.

Although published more than 10 years ago ROYAL RAIDERS, (Bobbs), by North Callahan is still a valuable book. The aim of this volume is to present a coherent account of what the Loyalists did in the American Revolution, and why they did it. The pattern ranges from significant portions of background, through the war, and up to the peace treaty in 1783.

This is an extremely readable book, well researched and containing a fine bibliography.

In THE LOYALISTS, (Crown), Donald Barr Chidsey probes the origins and activities of this important group of people. He discusses, in his accurate yet informal style, what the Loyalists were, what they had in common, where they were located and their role in the American Revolution.

Mr. Chidsey's theme is to show that the "Loyalists" were men of integrity who suffered personal sacrifices for their beliefs.

NH Girl Cagers Keeping Active

By Sue Fancett

The North High School girls varsity basketball team opened its season against South.

Both teams were evenly matched through the first three quarters, but the Blue Devils pulled away in the fourth, and ended up on top, 37-27. Julie Carnaghi led North in scoring with 13 points.

Co-captains Mary Spagnolo and Teresa D'Angelo each added five points. Karen Varty led the Devils in scoring with 14 points and Bridgette Skuba added 11.

After dropping a non-league game against Warren Towner, North bounced back to defeat Chippewa Valley, 54-40. Carnaghi led the Norsemen scoring drive with 16 points, and teammates Teresa D'Angelo and Ann Belloli hit for 12 and nine points, respectively.

North lost its Bi-County League opener against Lake Shore, 50-28, but came back on Thursday, October 7, to demolish the Clintondale Dragons, 46-33. Teresa D'Angelo had 15 points, Julie Carnaghi hit for 11 and Ann Belloli added seven.

The Norsemen play the Lakeview Huskies Tuesday, October 19, at 8 p.m. in the North gym.

The girls junior varsity basketball team also opened its season last month with a non-league victory over South, 29-18.

Teresa Mazzei led the Norsemen in scoring with 11 points, while Tracy Shanley and Pat Misokiewicz added five apiece.

A week later, they won their second non-league game, this time against Chippewa Valley, 25-16. Once again Teresa Mazzei was high scorer. She hit for 14 points, while her sister, Sue, and Misokiewicz each added four points.

After losing to Lake Shore, the Norsemen annihilated the Clintondale Dragons, 50-16, on October 7. Teresa Mazzei led North with a 53 percent shooting average, good for 14 points. Tracy Shanley hit for seven, and Sue Mazzei and Shiohann Walker each scored six points.

The junior varsity's record currently stands at 1-1 in Bi-County play and 3-2 overall.

Spartans Post 4-1 Ice Mark

By Leonard Smith

The Ziebart Spartans hockey team continued its winning ways by registering three wins against one loss, bringing their season record to 4-1.

The Spartans are sponsored by the east side Ziebart Auto Rustproofing dealers with Smith, Hague and Co. investment securities.

The Spartans hosted Sterling Heights on Thursday, September 30, and suffered their first defeat of the season, 4-2. Lloyd MacEachern scored both Spartan goals with assists on each from Richie Carron and Dave Parker.

St. Clair Shores was the first Michigan National Hockey League opponent the Pointers faced, and the Spartans came away with a 3-0 victory.

John VanBiesbrouck was outstanding in goal. Dave Parker scored two goals and John Klein had one. Rich Carron and Don Hines assisted.

Defensemen Tom Koltvedt, Nick Land and Steve Valie were instrumental in the shutout.

The Spartans entertained a Viking Athletic Club team and skated to their second league victory with a 7-0 win.

Dave Parker notched two goals while Don Hines, Curt Runey, Paul Treder, Mark Osler and Rich Carron each scored.

Sam Curguru, Nick Land and Lloyd MacEachern assisted on goals. Steve Truba registered the shutout.

The Spartans won their fourth game with a close 3-1 victory over Fraser on Friday, October 8. Lloyd MacEachern tied the game and Don Hines scored on a breakaway to put the Pointers ahead.

The outcome of the game was in doubt until MacEachern found Fraser's open net with 15 seconds left to play to secure the victory.

Chinese traditional jewelry is more often made of silver than gold, with silver gilded to prevent tarnishing. Silver and gold are frequently enameled in blue a favorite color, and jade is most valued among precious stones. Under the Chinese Empire, jeweled emblems such as the buttons of the hats of mandarins indicated rank, and extremely elaborate silver and gold filigree headdresses were worn by women of high position. Dragons and many Buddhist symbols were used and continue to be used as decoration on charms and necklaces, rings and bracelets.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The Grosse Pointe Garden Center's 1976 Tour of Houses is set for this weekend, Saturday, October 16, and Sunday, October 17, and Mrs. Arthur O. A. Schmidt, Center board president, has put the project's success in the capable hands of Mrs. Edward R. Harrigan, a past-president.

Dorothy Schmidt knew what she was doing. Nell Harrigan always knows what she is doing.

What Nell did, first off, was get together a really super committee, including Mrs. John N. Falaing, who was responsible for procuring this year's six homes.

They range from the conservative-contemporary residence of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm L. Denise, at the foot of Stratford place, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. White's "new" Early American in Provencal road.

Two—those of Mrs. William J. Champion, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. James P. Danaher—are located in Lakeview avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Cyril J. Edwards are opening their McKinley place Colonial. Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Larsen, Jr., are opening their Hendrie lane Country French.

Mrs. David C. Lowe and Mrs. David N. Viger are in charge of tickets, which may be obtained in advance at the Garden Center, 881-4594, and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 881-7511, or at the homes during tour hours, 1 to 5 in the afternoon both days. Tickets are $4.

Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson is collecting a corps of hostesses for each home. Mrs. Byron B. Phillips and Mrs. William A. Champion are responsible for flower arrangements in each home: a traditional Garden Center House Tour touch.

Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson was put in charge of the brochure, Mrs. Stanley F. Dolega of posters. Mrs. William Cole and Mrs. Robert M. Peabody are handling properties.

Mailing—and that's ONE BIG JOB, for this is the Pointe Garden Center's one big money-raising project per year, and a lot of pieces of mail go out—was handled by Mrs. Harry W. Frost, Jr., Miss Marie Louise Anderson and Mrs. George J. Rapp.

Opening Pointe Questers' Year

Mrs. Donald M. D. Thurber opened her Rathbone place home Friday, October 8, at 10 o'clock for this season's first meeting of the Grosse Pointe Chapter of Questers #147.

Portions of the present Greek Revival house date from 1852. They were originally part of a house in McDougall avenue, Detroit, belonging to Mr. Thurber's maternal grandparents and remodeled in the 1890's by Louis Camper who designed the Book Cadillac and other Detroit landmarks.

The Thurburs, in 1969, incorporated parts of the old house in their new residence, designed for them by Richard C. Frank, a specialist in historic preservation and restoration.

It is furnished with many family heirlooms and articles of particular significance to Michigan.

Following the house tour, Chapter members enjoyed luncheon at Jacobson's.

New Walton-Pierce Collection for Fall and Winter

Sketched for the Grosse Pointe News are four original models from the new Walton-Pierce Made-to-Order Collection. From left to right: A black imported wool crepe single breasted coat is shaped by welt seaming, accented by diagonal stitched pockets and French jet buttons. French Staron cerise satin is the fabric for an elegant evening dress. It is styled with a modified bateau neckline. A narrow ribbon, and delicate bow define the waistline. The sleeves are gracefully full, gathered by a narrow ribbon and bow at the wrist

Mrs. William Rust Pierce and the late Mrs. Walton founded the Women's City Club in 1925 in the Women's City Club with made-to-order fashions and has presented collections each succeeding year. This year her daughter, Mrs. John Huntington will be presenting the collection for the second time.

Soft feminine clothes are more than ever the new look in fashion. And the new Walton-Pierce collection carries this look out in the finest fabrics and workmanship. The collection features beautiful short dresses for day and dinner, and long evening gowns.

The black coat in the sketch is worn over a black and tan print jersey dress, styled with push-up Balkan sleeves and a basque waist, releasing soft fullness in the skirt. A French Lesur gray flannel dress with pleating detail at the V neckline is designed along princess lines with a semi-panel front. A forest green Abraham jersey dress has a subtly gathered neck, soft lines through the bodice, a natural waist accented with a forest green leather belt. The skirt is stitched to below the hip line giving away to gentle pleating. The sleeves are softly full with deeply stitched cuffs.

Restaurant dressing in the collection features a short French French wool crepe, shaped by stitching on the that releases pleated cuffs. An enchanting cocktail dress is created from French sculptured lace. The pattern of the lace is designed into the scalloped neckline, bell sleeves and hem of the skirt. A safe au lait velvet band bow ties at the waist. A sportive look in the Made-to-Order-Collection is an imported check tweed suit of slate blue, red and white which is used for the semi-fitted jacket with bias detail at the closing. The skirt widens slightly toward the hem. It is ensembled with a bright red jersey top.

sleeves and skirt, encircled at the waist by a cummerbund and a black string and tassel tie. Another restaurant dress is of Staron black satin, scattered with bright dots and blossoms. It is styled with a square neckline in front and a V in back. V's detail the short puffed sleeves. A cummerbund with a fringed sash encircles the waist. For elegant parties, there is an excellent selection of long gowns. Highlights are

Christ Church Choir Joins DSO

This week's three Detroit Symphony Orchestra concerts in Ford Auditorium will consist of a single work, Johannes Brahms' largest composition for soloists and chorus, "Ein deutsches Requiem," (A German Requiem).

Featured will be DSO music director Aldo Ceccato, who will conduct the Orchestra, soprano Susan Davenny Wyner, baritone David Clatworthy and the combined forces of three local choirs: The Kenneth Jewell Chorale, The Brazeal Dennard Chorale and the Choir of Grosse Pointe's Christ Church Episcopal.

Performances are scheduled for this evening, Thursday, October 14, at 8:30 o'clock, Friday morning, October 15, at 10:45 o'clock, and Sunday afternoon, October 17, at 3:30 o'clock.

Friday morning's concert is an NBD Coffee Concert, presented in cooperation with National Bank of Detroit and offering the mid-morning audience an occasion to relax over complimentary coffee starting at 9:30. A short fashion show will precede the concert.

SEMTA buses provide NBD Coffee Concert-goers round-trip transportation between Ford Auditorium and several suburban locations; advance reservations are necessary.

Susan Davenny Wyner makes her DSO debut at these concerts. Her extraordinarily wide repertoire has allowed her to score successes in works as old as Monteverdi's "The Coronation of Poppea" and Bach's B Minor Mass, and as new as Crumb's "Ancient Voices of Children" and the "Intermedio" of her husband, composer Yehudi Wyner.

An outstanding recitalist and concert artist, she has appeared with the Cleveland Orchestra, the Buffalo Philharmonic and the symphony orchestras of Boston, Toronto, Pittsburgh, Dallas and San Francisco.

David Clatworthy, born and raised in Grand Rapids, is a leading baritone of the New York City Opera. He was encouraged to study voice while attending college on a baseball scholarship. He is a graduate of Juilliard and Columbia.

He has made solo appearances with the orchestras of Boston, New York, Chicago, Baltimore and Utah, among others, as well as with the noted Cantata Singers, Schola Cantorum and Oratorio Society of New York.

His recordings include the Mahler Symphony No. 8 with the Utah Symphony and Virgil Thomson cantatas with Howard Hanson and the Rochester Philharmonic.

He first appeared with the DSO in 1967, singing the Brahms Requiem, and again in "Messiah" two years later.

The Kenneth Jewell Chorale ensemble of 40 outstanding vocal artists has presented numerous concerts in the Detroit area since its inception in 1962. Most Chorale members are graduate musicians who teach music professionally, direct church choirs and are featured soloists with local opera groups and major church choirs.

Now under the acting direction of Eric Freudigman, the Chorale will be making its 16th DSO appearance at these concerts.

The Brazeal Dennard Chorale, formed in 1972, has given many performances throughout Detroit and Michigan. Brazeal Dennard, the Chorale's director, is president of the National Association of Negro Musicians and head of the fine arts department at Northwestern High School.

The Brazeal Dennard Chorale makes its DSO debut at these concerts.

Christ Child Slates Merry Mart 1976

Handmade, Homemade Items to Be Featured at Fairlane Manor Next Thursday; Society's Cookbook Will Be Available

Christ Child Society will present its annual Christmas fair, Merry Mart '76, next Thursday, October 21, from 10 in the morning to 4 in the afternoon at Dearborn's Fairlane Manor.

The luncheon and fashion show by B. Siegel is by reservation only, at $8 per person. Mrs. Paul Reger, of Beacon Hill, handled luncheon reservations.

Booths, featuring all the varieties of exquisite, handmade items for which Merry Mart is famous, will be open all during this year's fair.

Among this year's new departments are Christmas Wrap and Etc. Other booths are geared for "the man in your life," the teenager—and the shopper, herself.

All have been planned and stocked under the aegis of coordinating committee members Mrs. Peter Frame, Mrs. John Gormley, Mrs. Rudolph Mancini, Mrs. Owen Nagy and Mrs. John Tulloch.

The Christ Child cookbook, containing contributions from members and friends, will be available.

Merry Mart '76 proceeds will, as always, go to support Christ Child House and Christ Child School.

makes its DSO debut this week in the Brahms Requiem. Its choirmaster is D. Frederic DeHaven, who is also organist at Christ Church.

The Church's Children's Choir has appeared with the DSO on several previous occasions.

Brahms' "German Requiem" is one of the towering masterpieces of choral-orchestral repertory. It was last performed by the DSO in 1967.

Composed between 1856 and 1868, it is said to have been prompted by the deaths, first of Schumann, later of Brahms' mother.

The work is not a liturgical requiem mass but is composed by a German text, chosen by Brahms from Luther's translation of the Bible.

Tickets for the Thursday evening concert, priced from $4 to $9, are available at the Ford Auditorium box office. A limited number of $2 tickets for students and senior citizens is available at the box office starting at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

Also available at the box office are tickets for the Friday morning NBD Coffee Concert, priced at $5, $6.50 and $8, and for Sunday afternoon's Kresge Family Series concert, at $4, $5 and $8.

Information on all forthcoming DSO concerts is available 24 hours a day by calling 961-7017.

Tuesday Musicale To Open Season

Program in Fries Auditorium to Be Followed by Reception in War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom

Tuesday Musicale of Detroit, under president Mrs. Burt E. Taylor, Jr., of Ridge road, will present a musicale and reception honoring past-presidents and all members Tuesday, October 19, at 1 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

All members and their guests are invited to attend this first program of the Musicale's 91st season.

Vice-president Mrs. E. A. Gilbert, of University place, is chairman of the musicale portion of the program. Mrs. Lester A. McIntosh, of Sheldon road, is social chairman, in charge of the reception.

Active-performing members will present the selections. They include Mrs. Edward J. Gall, pianist, of Van Antwerp road, Mrs. Russell Skitch, contralto, of Balfour road, accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Exley, of Lakeshore lane, and Mrs. Howard W. Lawrence, violinist, of Mount Clemens, accompanied by Mrs. Frank R. Brown, of Hamilton court.

The program in Fries Auditorium will be followed by the reception in the War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom. Mrs. Kenard A. Johnston plans arrangements of fall flowers for the tea tables.

Presenting A Harvest of Fashions

A "Harvest of Fashions" from the Shop of MARIA DINON, (second from right), is being presented by the Italian American Lawyers Wives today, Thursday, October 14, at Lochmoor Club. Among those who planned the noon luncheon benefit—proceeds will go toward a law scholarship and assist a children's charitable organization—are, (from left), MRS. ROSS FAZIO, co-chairman of the program committee, MRS. SAMUEL GIGANTE, prizes chairman, MRS. JOSEPH IMPASATO, IALW president, and, (far right), MRS. SAMUEL SPATAFORA, general chairman. Other committee members are Mrs. Arthur Arduin, hostess chairman, Mrs. A. David Laudani, program chairman, and Mrs. Charles Cataldo and Mrs. John Pollina, ticket chairman and co-chairman, respectively.

Assisting her with small table flower arrangements are Mrs. Thomas B. Carey, of Cadieux road, Mrs. Windsor S. Davies, of Lakeshore road, Mrs. Emil F. Peslar, of Stephens road, and Mrs. Daniel A. Schaitberger, of Kensington road.

The newlyweds have returned from a vacation, motoring through Quebec, New England and New York, to make their home in Northville.

The former Miss Neuder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Neuder, of Fairholme road, received her Bachelor of Science degree in Medical Technology from Michigan State University in June, 1975, and has just completed a one-year internship at Saint Mary's Hospital, Livonia, where she is presently employed.

high, wedding band neckline, and fashioned entirely of re-embroidered Alencon lace beaded in seed pearls and paillettes.

Her softly-flared skirt swept into a chapel train. A headpiece of lace and pearls held her matinee length mantilla, featuring a scalloped border of Alencon lace, and she carried an arrangement of white rosebuds, Elegance carnations, Fuji mums and baby's-breath.

Carolyn Neuder, honor maid for her sister, wore a crystal blue, halter-necked, Empire-waisted frock and matching, long-sleeved bolero jacket.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically, were Mrs. Philip Babcock, of Memphis, Tenn., Diane Butual and Susan Clogg. Their bouquets were fashioned of carnations, daisies, bachelor buttons and baby's-breath, and they wore matching flowers in their hair.

Richard A. Bradow was best man for his brother. Ushering were Louis M. Neuder, brother of the bride, James Hansen, of Yoder, Ind., and Jeffrey Nowak, of Fort Wayne.

The mother of the bride wore a long gown of robin's egg blue chiffon, V-necked and featuring a matching chiffon capelet with a high, beaded neckband. She pinned two ivory cymbidium orchids to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother's long gown of peach polyester knit was sleeveless. She pinned two ivory cymbidium orchids to her matching, beaded jacket.

Questers Visit Restoration

Windmill Pointe Questers held their September 27 meeting at the Mill Race Restoration Project in Northville, where Mrs. John Burville greeted the group, explained restoration plans and answered questions on the Project toward which many Michigan Questers chapters have made contributions and in which they are keenly interested.

Six buildings are presently in place in the area. They include an 1851 Greek Revival house, the 1858 Yerkes House and an 1845 Presbyterian Church, recently home of the Northville Public Library, now being returned to its original church function.

Contributions are channelled into acquiring period furnishings as well as renovating the buildings. The Mill Race Bridge has been re-built, and a serpentine brick wall is well underway.

The wall is a memorial, incorporating marble plaques to persons and groups making substantial donations to the Project.

Grace Harrison, Windmill Pointe Questers' president, other officers and interested members were among those attending Michigan Questers' annual fall convention Wednesday, October 13, at Central Michigan University.

Netsuke Talk For Pear Tree

Dean-Schiessler Vows Exchanged

Newlyweds Are at Home in Ann Arbor While He Pursues Graduate Studies at University of Michigan

Ann Christine Schiessler and Terrence Edward Dean exchanged marriage vows Saturday, August 28, in Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church. A dinner reception at Burning Tree Golf and Country Club followed the 5:30 o'clock rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Schiessler, of Birch lane, the bridegroom the son of the George Deans, of Dearborn Heights.

The newlyweds vacationed in northern Michigan and are making their home in Ann Arbor while he pursues graduate studies at the University of Michigan.

The Reverend Charles W. Sandrock presided at the service, for which the former Miss Schiessler chose a silk organza gown fashioned with a scoop neckline, chapel train and cap sleeves, and detailed with Venise lace appliques.

A pale blue band defined her Empire waistline. Tiny lace flowers trimmed her neckline and hem.

Her fingertip veil fell from a Camelot cap trimmed with matching lace flowers and pearls, and she carried a Colonial arrangement of white Sweetheart roses, pale blue carnations and baby's-breath, with pale blue streamers.

Her attendants, in sheer aqua over lavender silk organza, aqua ruffles forming their collars and sleeves, were honor matron Mrs. Michael Kramer, of Grand Rapids, and bridesmaids Mrs. Eugene Allardice, of Saginaw, and Diana Dean, sister of the bridegroom.

Aqua and lavender ribbons accented with floral appliques banded their Empire waists. Matching ribbons with sprigs of baby's-breath formed their headpieces. They carried baskets of aqua Starburst mums, lavender carnations and baby's-breath.

Best man was Gregory Wegner, of Vestaburg. Dr.

John A. Schiessler, of Lansing, brother of the bride, and Brian Dean, the bridegroom's brother, ushered.

The bride's mother wore a long gown of aqua chiffon with a beaded bodice and matching capelet. The bridegroom's mother wore a long gown printed in shades of blue and orchid.

Last Call for Holiday Mart

It's not too late—the Planned Parenthood 1976 Holiday Mart continues until 5 this afternoon, at the Sentinel Center in East Jefferson avenue—so if you leave NOW, you'll have plenty of time for shopping at 30-plus specialty stores from all over the United States.

If you wait . . . well, this evening, those stores simply "fold their tents like the Arabs, and as silently steal away."

It's been a most successful Mart. Among those who've worked very hard to make it so successful are a whole corps of committee chairmen, including, from The Pointe, Mrs. K. W. French, Miss Bethine S. Whitney, Mrs. William C. Cox, Jr., Mrs. Harry M. Jewett, Mrs. Milton Henkel, Mrs. Henry H. Hubbard, Jr., Mrs. Ronald K. Dalby and Mrs. Richard P. Joy, III.

More are the Mesdames Richard L. Weinberg,

Donald S. Young, George R. McMullen, Gordon T. Ford, William J. Denier, II, Daniel N. King, Robert L. Benkert, Miles M. O'Brien, William W. Cunningham, Riley Irwin, M. Marshall Scherer, Robert E. Valk, David E. Halter, Ellen Nissen, W. Gerald Warren and George E. McKean, II.

And still more, (that Mart DOES seem to attract good volunteer workers as a honey pot does bears!), are Mrs. Thomas H. Jeffs, Mrs. Verne C. Hampton, II, Mrs. Garlinghouse Morse, Mrs. Hudson Holland, Jr., Mrs. William C. Tost, Mrs. Gordon T. Weller and Mrs. Charles A. Bigelow.

13—REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

OPEN SUNDAY 2-5

673 UNIVERSITY. Excellent, four bedroom English located in a very desirable area in the City of Grosse Pointe. This exceptionally well built home features a comfortable den, leaded windows and doors, and a paneled recreation room.

843 N. RENAUD—Elegance from the moment you enter the stately entrance hall with its spiral staircase. This spacious American colonial was custom built for the most discerning buyers. A paneled library for the executive of the home and an entertainment-sized covered patio for the entire family to relax are desirable pluses in addition to the formal dining room, and step-down living room. This outstanding home is a delight to see and a pleasure to own.

THE KIND OF HOUSE that will catch your looking. It has the curb appeal that causes you to wonder if it's as attractive inside... and it is! This one has a two-story entrance foyer and library, family room, living room and formal dining room. The kitchen has every built-in imaginable and there are two first floor lavatories. Upstairs a private bath services each bedroom. Located in the first block off Lake Shore Road, 551 OXFORD, near Morningside.

AVAILABLE FOR APPOINTMENT

CHARM INSIDE and out is standard equipment in this magnificent, mini-estate in Grosse Pointe Farms. European flavor prevails in this Tuscan villa with its high hand painted ceilings and many stone and tile fireplaces. All main floor rooms have access to a secluded patio. There is a separate apartment with private entrance, and garages for your fleet.

JUST THE THING for a low budget buyer who wants an east side location at a minimum cash outlay. This two-bedroom bungalow is listed at $14,900 and is currently on a month-to-month lease. Cash flows prove this to be a good investment either as a landlord or occupant.

TIRED OF STAIRS? No ups and downs in this three bedroom, one and one half bath ranch with two and one half car brick and block garage, jalousie porch, all major appliances included. Grosse Pointe schools, quick occupancy available.

A SPACIOUS ENGLISH MANOR HOUSE with separate apartment over the attached three car garage. The main floor is comprised of a most generous proportioned living room and dining room, both with bay windows. To complement these formal rooms, there is also a library, sun room and heated garden room.

FRENCH INFLUENCED colonial could be the small house you've waited for with the big rooms. The front entry is served by double doors which open to a gracious, marble floor foyer. There are three fireplaces to add plenty of atmosphere, and having a private bath for each bedroom is pure luxury. The lake breezes are a constant delight, however this house is completely air conditioned.

NOBODY'S PERFECT but we think we have a house that is. This one has not one but two family rooms. There are four generous sized bedrooms and a fifth room which could be used as another bedroom or office. The house is brick to the belt line with aluminum siding above. Super landscaping beautifully surrounds the backyard swimming pool.

UNDOUBTEDLY ONE OF THE FINEST houses built in the Pointes within the last dozen years. Just three doors from Lake Shore Drive this Southern colonial is complete to the last detail. May be purchased with or without a buildable lot which fronts on Lake Shore Road.

Karate Classes Being Offered Tae Kwan Do, the art of the open hand as Korean Karate is called, will be offered at the War Memorial Center in a new term beginning October 22 and continuing on Fridays from 7-9 p.m. through December 10.

The sessions are open to both sexes of all ages. It is wise to be able to defend oneself in case of attacks these days and besides Karate stresses mental and physical alertness and discipline. The fee is $20 for eight lessons with belts given awarded for proven proficiency in examinations.

Adrian College Sending Reps Representatives from Adrian College's admissions staff will visit North High, South High and University Liggett Schools on Tuesday, October 19, to answer student questions about the college's academic program and campus life.

Adrian College grants six degrees in 23 majors and six pre-professional programs. Interested students should contact their high school counselor for an appointment with Gordon Provenzano of the college.

GP Lions Drop Three Games

The Grosse Pointe Lions varsity met a tough Roseville Raiders team Sunday, October 3, and came up on the short end of a 20-0 score. The Lions had trouble containing Roseville's off-tackle power, while the offense couldn't muster a sustained drive all afternoon.

However, there were some fine defensive efforts by Rick Overby, Eric MacMichael, Steve Root and Greg Rivard in the backfield and Scott Strempek and Ken Hawk in the line.

The offense had some good moments with John Strabel and Bill Ratsek carrying the ball behind the blocking of Jim Harrison, Kip Saile and Bernie Van Antwerp. The score does not reflect the effort of this unit.

Next week the Lions play the Sterling Heights Vikings Saturday, October 9, at Stevenson High School stadium with the first game starting at 6 p.m.

Karl Barr and Dick Harrison of the Lions board of directors expect a large crowd of Lions boosters to cheer the Lions to victory in their only night game of the season.

The Lions junior varsity gridders lost to a stubborn Roseville team, 13-0. Offense coach Ron Geman said he was satisfied with the total team effort. He was particularly pleased with the running performance of backs Jack Twomey and Dan Edgar.

Defensive co-ordinator Nick Kotzian said the interior penetration of Jeff Bodkin, Eric Woerner, Jim Kretschmar and Tom Herdon kept the Raiders offense off balance much of the afternoon.

Special teams coach Skip Caverly highly praised his kicking specialists, Dave Desmyter on kick-offs, and Kurt Allen on punting.

The line blocking of Jim Arnold, Hal Brown and Jeff Pawset of the special units was solid.

The Lions freshmen suffered their first defeat of the season, losing, 18-6, to Roseville.

SHS Gridders Win Big, 35-6

The offense of the South Blue Devils completely dominated a Port Huron team, 35-6, on Friday, October 1.

Junior quarterback Tom Nihem marched his team down the field and scored on a quarterback sneak for the first TD. A minute later South's defense caused Port Huron to fumble. Nihem passed 40 yards to senior Tom Birk to set up an end run for a touchdown by senior Dave Hollerbach.

Senior Brian Myers made a 40-yard return of a Port Huron punt and junior Pat Corbett swept for 25 yards. With fourth down and one yard to go at the goal line, senior fullback Rick Dotson slashed over for the third score.

Long runs by Tim Brouillard set up South's fourth touchdown on a 37-yard pass from Nihem to senior Tom Birk. Al Jones converted and the score was 27-0 at the half.

The play of South's defensive team was outstanding as they gave up little yardage to Port Huron. South's only two-way players, senior Al Jones, junior Ken Stockwell, along with senior Rob Hermes, opened massive holes for the offense.

Stockwell and Jones, leading the defensive team, destroyed any attempt Port Huron made on offense.

Other excellent first half performances were given by senior Bob Gough, senior Chris Fiedling and senior Paul Genter.

In the second half of the game, coach Russ Hepner played everyone on the 44-man traveling squad. Outstanding performances were given by junior quarterback Jim Kovanda, senior running back Bill Harry, who made several good runs, junior Jeff Schneider and John Hartman.

Dotson scored for South's final touchdown.

After parents visit with their children's teachers, social vice-president Dottie Amberg and her committee will serve refreshments.

PTO dues also will be collected under the direction of vice-president Emily Moeller.

The Defer School PTO bids all parents to its annual "Back to School" night this evening, October 14, in the school, 15425 Kercheval avenue, at 8 p.m.

President Gerhard Ritsema, of Somerset road, will preside at the meeting. Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats will address the group.

After parents visit with their children's teachers, social vice-president Dottie Amberg and her committee will serve refreshments.

PTO dues also will be collected under the direction of vice-president Emily Moeller.

Interested students should contact their high school counselor for an appointment with Gordon Provenzano of the college.

GP Lions Drop Three Games

The Raiders drew first blood, but Jud Kotas speared on an interception from his defensive halfback position and carried it in to knot the score 6-6 at halftime.

Unusual penalties and poor field position hurt the hard inside running of Jim Wade and Paul Hawk during the second half. Matt Lane, Mike Seward and Colin Barr were singled out by coach Bill Fournier for making key blocks in the several Lion drives in the second half.

Unfortunately, the Raiders defense rose to each occasion, keeping the Lions from scoring.

Although the Raiders squad scored twice during the second half, coach Dennis Martini noted that John Tavary played a consistently strong game from his halfback position, making two touchdown saving open field tackles.

Mike Grow, J. B. Valente and Todd Brooks were cited for their aggressive line play.

For the second week in a row, John Ratsek's effort on both offense and defense was considered worthy of special mention.

Arthur Paces North Victory

By Bob Evanski

North High School, despite being the underdog, plastered L'Anse Creuse, 28-0, in a home game, Thursday, October 2.

Paced by the exceptional running of junior halfback Steve Arthur, North completely dominated the first half. Arthur scored the first touchdown of the game on a two-yard plunge to put the Norsemen machine in gear. Karl Tech's extra point try was good.

North made it 13-0 when Arthur broke loose on a 58-yard jaunt and went into the end zone uncontested. Once again, Tech booted the extra point and the half ended with the Norsemen holding a 14-0 lead.

The Lancers finally threatened in the third quarter as

Driver Learns the Hard Way

Abdo Saleh Elmawari, 27, of 2475 Holly, Dearborn, did it again. Now, he has three judges he will have to appear before, (two on the same day), all for the same traffic offenses.

Elmawari was stopped at Lakeshore and Crestwood by Shores Public Safety Officer John Trevillian at 12:05 a.m. Sunday, October 3, for having no light illuminating his rear license plate. He produced an operator's license, but a routine check disclosed that the license had been suspended.

Officer Trevillian said he was cruising on Lakeshore when he observed Elmawari coming off of Duval to north Lakeshore, without his license plate light illuminated. The motorist attracted the officer's attention because he was making the turn at a very slow speed.

The officer radioed his station for a check to Lansing via the Law Enforcement Information Network, (LEIN), machine and the information disclosed the suspension.

Further information revealed that Elmawari was wanted for having a defective rear license plate light and driving on a suspended license. Warrants for the offenses were outstanding in Detroit and Dearborn.

The LEIN information also revealed that the man is scheduled for an appearance in Detroit Traffic Court on Friday, October 29, and on the same day in Dearborn's 19th District Court.

At The Shores station, Elmawari was issued violation tickets for no light illuminating his rear license plate and driving on a suspended license. He was released after posting a bond of $150 pending a hearing in The Shores Municipal Court on Wednesday, November 10.

Parley Planned By Unitarians

Representatives of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church will take part in the Unitarian Universalist Association, (UUA), annual meeting in Ann Arbor along with members of 25 other Unitarian Universalist Societies from all over Michigan on Saturday, October 16.

The meeting will give members the opportunity to meet and confer with the three candidates for the presidency of the UUA. The session also will feature workshops, a dashiki show, an organ recital and an after dinner program.

The meeting will close with a 10:30 a.m. Sunday service with Rev. Erwin A. Gaede, of Ann Arbor Church, officiating.

Austin Honors Band Members

Austin Catholic Prep School awarded its 1976 Varsity Band awards on Monday, September 27, to 12 musicians who have shown outstanding interest in band activities under the direction of Nancy Watrous.

Among those honored were seniors Kevin MacFarland, Tim Ruwart, Kevin Bach and Richard Povinelli, plus juniors Peter Hagan, Larry Morath, John Aifonsi, Joseph Davenport, Joseph Tolgacz and Joseph Zehetmair. Sophomores honored were Bob and Tom Blair.

Media Women Focus On Communications

The Detroit Chapter of American Women in Radio and Television will sponsor a three-day communications conference Friday, October 15, through Sunday, October 17, at Dearborn's Hyatt Regency Hotel.

Panel discussions and workshops on topics ranging from television and community relations to violence in children's television programming will be featured.

Speakers will include Bob McBride, station manager for WJBK-TV, former Pointer James Quello, Federal Communications Commissioner, and Caroline Harmon, director of equal opportunity programs for the American Broadcasting Company.

Anyone wishing to attend the conference may contact Paula Brose, 872-6200, for further information.

Center Plans Ballet Class

The War Memorial Center is offering its first ballet class for pre-schoolers on Friday mornings at 9:30 a.m.

The class, for four-year-olds only, includes rhythm work, exercises and simple ballet steps, all geared to prepare the student for a classical ballet program.

Mary Ellen Cooper, an associate of the Royal Conservatory, Toronto, and board member of the Cechetti Council of America, will instruct the one-hour class.

The fee for 10 weeks of one-hour classes is $28. No starting date has been set.

Flower Judges Set Symposium

Among Pointers planning to attend the Michigan Graduate Judges Association of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association's symposium for judges and students next Monday, October 18, and Tuesday, October 19, at Ann Arbor's Holiday Inn, are the Mesdames H. Rollin Allen, Harold R. Smith, Roland R. Postel, Theodore A. Foster and John Veech.

Mrs. Allen is treasurer of the event, which is open to all members of the WMF&GA at $5 per day, plus lunch. On Mrs. Paul Machuga, of East Detroit, is Monday's exhibits chairman.

The Monday program will feature Mrs. Jack Blome, of Dayton, O., offering "Abstracts and Assemblages"—how to construct and judge, with a judging (credit) session following both her morning and afternoon lecture-demonstration.

The evening dinner program will feature Dr. Warren H. Wagner, professor of Botany at the University of Michigan, "Exploring for Rare Plants."

Tuesday morning offers Charles Jenkins, from the University of Michigan's Department of Landscaping Architecture, in a lecture on "Desirable and Undesirable Plants for Home Landscaping," and Doris Stefansky, president of the Michigan Graduate Judges Association, in a talk on "Quality and Ethics of Judging."

Club Starts Fall Programs

The Neighborhood Club says its fall programs are underway and everyone is enjoying them.

Men's activities include softball with the Dely Bombers, Unknowns, Gene's Party Store, Higgins Management Co., Shore-Crest, Diamond Lil's and CCD participating.

The touch football program finds Schiavi's, the Gritters, Harpo's, the Hacks, Weekend Wonders, Beldings Cleaners, Richard Buick, East Side Sporting Goods, Grosse Pointe Standard and O'Keefe, Cavanaugh, and Dold taking part.

The softball games are Saturday afternoons at McMillan Field and football also is played Sunday mornings at McMillan.

Church Grants Woods Request

The Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church sent a letter to The Woods Council granting their permission for a permanent and temporary easement for the installation and maintenance of a sewer through the church parking lot providing that the pavement of the lot will be fully restored to its present condition when the construction is finished.

The request for the easement was made by The Woods to allow the construction of a sewer relief system under a contract with the Wayne County Drain Commission.

This action was taken at a recent regular meeting.

Pleads Guilty To Two Charges

A 27-year-old Detroit man pled guilty to two separate charges at his Shores Municipal Court appearance on Wednesday, September 22.

Edward Musialowski was charged with reckless driving and no operator's license on his person stemming from an incident on July 23.

Shores police said Musialowski was fined $100 and $50 in court costs, had his license revoked for 20 days and was placed on one year's probation for reckless driving. He was fined $15 on the no operator's license charge.

Writing Skills Test Offered

Budding young high school authors will have an opportunity to test their writing skills in a Manuscript Day competition sponsored by the Wayne State University English Department.

Competition is open to junior and senior students in all Michigan schools — public, parochial and private.

Students should submit manuscripts through their high school English departments. Prose entries must be one-15 pages; verse, 25-50 lines. All works are eligible unless they have already earned recognition outside the writer's high school.

The deadline for entries is Monday, November 1. A luncheon is planned honoring the 100 students who will be selected as finalists. The first prize will be a Merit Scholarship worth $1,000 per year and renewable in all four years of study at WSU. Second and third prizes also will be $1,000 scholarships.

Dental Aids Class Offered

The Department of Community Services will offer a Dental Assisting Skills Development Course at North High School on Monday evenings.

Mrs. Jeanne Bocci, CDA, will instruct the 20-week class. The course will focus on development of laboratory and chairside skills with instruction in dental practice management and dental insurance.

Interested individuals should contact community services at 885-3808 or 885-0271 for registration procedures and further information.

Pointe Book Club to Meet

Mrs. Howard Simon will open her Shore Club drive home Monday, October 18, at noon to members of the Pointe Book Club. Following luncheon, with co-hostesses Mrs. George Baer and Mrs. Kenneth Locke assisting Mrs. Simon, Mrs. George Cassidy will present a review on "Russia."

With A Very Busy Social Season Ahead... you'll be glad to know, out-to-dinner and party fashions are arriving daily at Walton-Pierce. A jewel of a dress is a breeze-light, turquoise wool with fine stitching to shape the bodice and long graceful puffed sleeves. Then there's a bright red, light weight, wool dress, iced with white satin collar and cuffs. A brandy brown cocktail dress of silky satin is encircled at the waist with a cummerbund with coppery beads. Soft creamy beige jersey is cut into the softest feminine lines with fullness released via pleating. A simply elegant winter white dress by Brenner is the fashion answer to so many invitations. For cocktail parties, pick a white Qiana jersey with a deep V neckline and gathered cummerbund. This dress will pack well and be ready for your trip south. Tunic dressing is not only fashionable but practical. A black tunic with side slits goes over a long skirt but can be worn alone as a cocktail dress. It is tied with a satin rope and tassels for a newsy look. Speaking of news... the strapless dress is in, as you know, and a delightful long black jersey comes with a tag to show you the many ways to wear it... strapless, one shoulder and covered up!

Pointer of Interest

MRS. JOHN D. HEAD, OF STONEHURST ROAD

By Janet Mueller

The Heads came home a little less than a year ago, December 1, 1975, and Carol set about re-discovering Detroit. It was culture shock in reverse. "The pace is faster—I thought I was ready for that, but I wasn't." Fourteen years in Europe, even when you keep in touch, even when you have a good, long home leave every two years, is a considerable amount of time.

When Jack and Carol left, it was for 18 months to three years: a business transfer for Jack, a marvelous chance for them both to experience life in another culture.

"We started in Lisbon," Cynthia, 13, and Jeffrey, 12, were born there.

When you're born in Portugal, you're a Portuguese citizen forever. During one home leave, when Jeff was just three or four, his tonsils had to come out. He was whisked over to Bon Secours Hospital, where the offending organs were removed.

Mother Knows Best
Carol, arriving to see her son—very fair, with light eyes: the most all-American little boy imaginable—found the nurses laughing. "It's so funny... There's the cutest kid in there, and he keeps insisting he's Portuguese."

"But," said Carol, "he IS!" Rome followed Lisbon, England followed Rome, and then it was back to Italy, to Turin... and now it's home.

"I love the supermarkets here. I love going to the store and doing a big shop."

For a while, at home in the States, Carol found herself still shopping in the European fashion, meal by meal. She's gone back, happily, to buying by the cart, but she misses farm-fresh fruits and vegetables.

Children Well Adjusted
Cynthia and Jeffrey have adjusted beautifully, (they're veteran adjusters to a new environment, after all), although "they complain about University Liggett being so big."

When you're used to five in a class, 15 is a mob. The Heads had always sent their children to an international-type school. "We came home for the children, more than anything. They were getting to an age where it was either come back or send them away—and we WOULD NOT send them away."

Five in a class sounds terrific, until you realize that every one of those five might be from a different country. "Language itself could be a problem."

Language remains a problem: Cynthia and Jeffrey both speak fluent, accent-less Italian, and Carol and Jack would like to keep it that way... and the young Heads could care less.

Give Up Italian

They're Americans in America now. They'll talk American, like their friends. "They won't speak Italian," Carol mourns, and no amount of you'll-be-sorry-when-you're-older is going to make them. Typical children. Back in Europe after home leave, what they missed most was good old American "junk food."

Here, they miss Alpine skiing. No amount of wishing can turn Mount Holly into Mont Blanc, so last spring's University Liggett trip to Montana's Big Sky country was something to dream about, look forward to...

And it was lovely, until Cynthia broke her leg. "At least," says Carol, "Cynthia waited until we were back home to break something." Jeff did his breaking, an arm, overseas.

Both Are Natives

Detroit is really home for Jack and Carol. He's a native. So is Carol, who was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School. Her mother is Edythe Seidel, secretary of the Junior League of Detroit for 16 years. Carol, naturally, is a Junior League.

She must hold some sort of record for distance traveled to complete requirements during her Junior League Provisional Year. She made four round trips from Europe to do it.

Jack, who works for Ford, loves being headquartered in America, loves his current job, and loves it when that job requires, as it does two or three times a year, that he go back to Europe.

Carol tries to go with him at least once a year. The European years were good years for them both, and there's no point in pretending they didn't come home without a few regrets.

Liked Moving Around

Moving around didn't phase them. "We just plain liked it." They always moved with the idea that THIS move was permanent, taking all their furniture and household goods with them.

The first move was the least encumbered. The Heads, just married, didn't have that much to take. Jack went ahead to Portugal and rented a house. Carol arrived, and they began to fill it together.

The view from that Portuguese house was beautiful. It remains with them in a portrait of Carol, posed against the mountains of Sintra as they appeared from the dining room of the Heads' Lisbon home.

Moving to Rome, they were unusually lucky. They found a house instead of an apartment.

Two Wrong Guesses

The move to England looked as if it really would be permanent. So Carol and Jack built a house, "and it was the shortest stay we ever had."

Turin was supposed to be short-term, so the Heads settled for two apartments put together, "lots of rooms, but none of them very big." They were in Turin longer than anywhere else.

Whenever they could, wherever they could, they traveled, from France to Scandinavia, Istanbul to Casablanca, Florence and Venice are two of Carol's favorite places. "Any time the Junior League or the Grosse Pointe War Memorial had a trip to Venice, I'd try to hook onto it."

She did a bit of rendezvousing with travelers-from-home in England, too.

Both Kept Busy

At home in Portugal, England, Italy, Carol kept busy. She was president of American Women's Clubs. She and Jack were active in their children's schools.

She hadn't realized it before, but there's a tradition of women's service, of commitment to the community that is peculiarly American. "I think we're much more involved than European women."

Carol remains involved. She's a room mother at University Liggett. She's a member of Bon Secours Assistance League.

The February after she moved back to the States, she began work as chairman of the Junior League's third annual calendar. "Rediscover Detroit 1977—Get To Know Me Better."

"I knew I wanted to do something, and this looked like an interesting project."

CARRIE MacMILLAN, daughter of the ROBERT MacMILLANS, of Cook road, and PATRICIA OUTLAND, daughter of the ROBERT OUTLANDS, of Severn road, have both received scholarships of $75 from the Principia Club of Metropolitan Detroit-Grosse Pointe. Carrie is entering Principia College, Elmhurst, Ill., as a freshman. Patricia is returning for her sophomore year.

Air National Guard Airman MARY E. BURKE, an Academy of the Sacred Heart graduate who received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind., daughter of the JOHN C. BURKES, of Lewiston road, has been graduated from basic training at Texas' Lackland Air Force Base, and is receiving specialized training in the supply field at Colorado's Lowry Air Force Base.

I liked the whole idea of the theme."

If ever there was a case of project hand fitting chairman glove...

Public Relations Tool
Rediscover Detroit might be termed the quintessential Junior League project. It's a public relations tool for promoting Detroit and a showcase for young metropolitan-area college artists.

It's designed to foster pride in the city. It's a fund-raiser, with all monies raised by its sale returned, (as are all Junior League-raised funds), to the Detroit community via such on-going Junior League projects as the Kern Block pavilions, Operation LINC, Job Opportunities for Youth (J.O.Y.) and joint funding, with the Junior League of Birmingham and The Friends of Belle Isle, of a new master plan for Belle Isle by noted landscape architect Dan Kiley.

110 Entries Submitted

Its illustrations are selected via an art contest. One hundred and ten entries were submitted to be professionally juried this year. From these, 14 color "images" of Detroit were chosen.

"Look," says Carol flipping to the first January, (there are two, for the calendar continues through January, 1978), "we start with the Ambassador Bridge: entry to Detroit."

"Then we go on to the skyline, (February), the Detroit Institute of Arts, (March), an Historical Review of the Auto Industry, (April)..."

The Belle Isle Greenhouse and the Detroit Boat Club are featured, along with sailboat races and riverfront Ethnic Festivals, the Port of Detroit and Saint Joseph's Church, "Old Detroit" and the youth and progress of the city.

People Capture Cover
The cover, "People of Detroit" by John Moga, a student at The Center for Creative Studies, is a whimsical study of Detroit's inhabitants and institutions.

The quality of the art work is high. "It's improved every year," Carol notes. The number of entries has increased, too, and there are second and third-time entrants. "The boy who did this year's cover, (First Place Award), had a picture in last year's calendar."

Tribute to Ruth

The Detroit Metropolitan Board of American Field Service International Scholarships has announced formation of a Memorial Tribute Fund honoring Mrs. Jeremiah V. Jenks, of University place, who died August 18 in Harbor Beach.

Ruth Jenks had been Michigan coordinator for the AFS International Scholarship Program over a 12-year period. International understanding had been promoted in more than 50 countries through her influence.

She took a personal interest not only in the approximately 500 foreign students who spent their senior high school year in Michigan under her supervision, but in their host families and AFS school chapters.

The Ruth Jenks Memorial monies will be used in Michigan, to enrich the experiences of AFS students and their host brothers and sisters. Contributions may be sent to the Ruth Jenks Memorial Fund, in care of AFS International Scholarships, Inc., 313 East 43rd street, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Contributions are tax deductible, and acknowledgements will be sent to Ruth's family.

Further information is available from Mrs. James Steele, of Birmingham, president of Detroit Metropolitan AFS Mrs. Lewis Bradbury, of Pontiac, and Mrs. Sebastian Buffa, of Balfour road, Grosse Pointe South High School AFS chairman.

The calendar is available at retail stores throughout the metropolitan area and at the Junior League Office in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Retail price is $3.50.

Order Deadline Near

Information on wholesale prices for quantity purchases, (there is adequate space for a company logo and name if the order is placed by tomorrow, Friday, October 15), may be obtained by calling the Junior League Office, 881-0040.

Five years ago, when the Heads knew they'd be leaving England but thought their next stop would be America, Jack was in Detroit over Thanksgiving. He and his mother-in-law went house-hunting.

They found a nice place in Fairford, one street over from Stonehurst, and Jack bought it.

Then came that "short-term" assignment in Turin. The Heads rented their Fair-ford house and when, in the summer of '75, the renters decided they'd like to become buyers, the Heads were agreeable.

Remembered That House

A few months later, Carol and Jack found they would, indeed, be heading home. They remembered the house in Stonehurst road that had been for sale when they were selling Fairford. If it were still on the market...

It was. China cheetahs from Italy guard the front door of that Stonehurst home now. There are Portuguese rugs all over the floors, paintings from everywhere hanging on the walls. The paperweight collection Carol has added to wherever/whenver is a coffee table focal point.

Dolly, a black standard poodle, is a live souvenir from England, by way of Italy. Very much at home in Grosse Pointe.

As are Jeffrey and Cynthia, Jack and Carol Head.
