SANTA CLAUS, along with DONALD DUCK, (Dave Murray), Ringmaster LARRY MARCO, CHRISTMAS CAROL, (Pat Thompson), and MICKEY MOUSE, (John Techner), are extending an invitation to all Pointe children to meet him and his cast of Disney characters on Friday, November 26, at 1:30 p.m. in front of the Carriage House parking lot in St. Clair avenue. Santa, (Robert McKenna), will fly in by helicopter and will be greeted by City Mayor John King with a key to the city. The North High School Band will provide music for the Village Assoc.-sponsored event.

Woods Residents Air Opposition To Noisy Group

Conditions Cause Citizens to Ask Council for Zoning Amendment Restricting Those Living in Single Structure

By Roger A. Waha

An estimated 30 Roslyn road residents petitioned the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, November 15, for an amendment to the zoning ordinance to restrict home owners from having more than one related family living in one dwelling. This action was an outgrowth of their concern over the conditions arising from a home in Roslyn which, they say, has steadily grown worse.

The home, according to the citizens, has been rented to a number of young men. "The exact number is in question as there have been as many as 12 personal cars and trucks parked illegally overnight, night after night," said a citizen in a petition to the council bearing 10 signatures.

"We have already been to court because of the wild parties and the renters were told by the judge to obey the laws or suffer the consequences. We feel that the laws are still being broken," he said.

To Prepare Law

The residents complained over cars being parked on the front lawn, (and pictures were submitted to the council showing this), parked across sidewalks, charged that noise conditions were bad, expressed concerns over the storage of garbage, and, in short, demanded quick action to alleviate the situation.

Expressing sympathy toward the citizens, the council unanimously approved a motion to refer the matter to the public safety department for further enforcement of existing ordinances, requested City Attorney George Catlin to consider a proposed change to the zoning ordinance and directed Mr. Catlin to prepare an emergency ordinance regarding parking on front lawns for the council's consideration at its Monday, December 6, session.

Editorial Gets New Number

New telephone lines have been installed to the NEWS' editorial department with the number currently effective.

Our readers may now reach the editorial department, i.e., news and society material, directly by calling 882-0294.

New lines also will be installed to the display advertising department, i.e., "picture" ads or ads other than classified material, in the near future. However, at this time, the 882-6900 number will still reach that department.

Classified advertising, the subscription department, plus accounting and management, will still utilize the 882-6900 number.

Our readers are urged to watch for further announcements regarding the new number for display advertising.

Recognition of Suspect Nets Arrest in Woods

A 22-year-old Detroit man, who allegedly took two rings from Lochmoor Jewelers, 20326 Mack avenue, on Tuesday, October 26, was arrested by Woods police at the jewelry store on Wednesday, November 10, after an employee recognized the suspect and called authorities.

As a result, Anthony Young, (who also goes by several aliases according to police), is being tried on a larceny from a person charge stemming from the October incident. A warrant was issued for Young's arrest on the charge by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office on Thursday, November 4.

However, officers never expected the suspect's reappearance at the store. Det. Everett Plumb said

School Pact Hearings Are Started

Fact-Finder Takes Testimony from GPEA, Board; Two Sessions Completed

By Susan McDonald

State appointed fact-finder Dr. John Simpkins began hearing union testimony Monday, November 15, in an attempt to help settle the Grosse Pointe Education Assoc., (GPEA), contract dispute with the Board of Education.

The nine-hour session, in which the union presented most of its economic and language proposals, to the fact-finder, was followed by a Board presentation Tuesday, November 16.

At the request of the Board team, the press was excluded from the hearings, according to Dr. Simpkins. The sessions are being held in Bureau of Employment Relations offices in Sixth street, Detroit, from 9 a.m.-7 p.m.

Will Be Public

Dr. Simpkins said he will probably schedule an additional hearing in the near future to allow for rebuttals. His report will be completed about a week after the final hearing, and will be made public.

Both sides of the dispute have identified 14 vital issues, besides economic questions, that remain unresolved. Included are issues surrounding teacher discipline, evaluations of teachers, departmental chairpersons and GPEA access to Board information.

The fact-finder was appointed in early October at the request of the Michigan Employment Relations Commission, (MERC), according to Commission Director Robert Piskarski. He said MERC stepped in to speed things up because, "I consider Grosse Pointe an important school district and I think it needs immediate attention."

Dr. Simpkins, dean of the College of Education at Wayne State University, has a long and varied labor relations experience.

He served as chief negotiator for the employer for both Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Program to Be Viewed On Nov. 22

Copies of Development
Document Available;
Study Focuses Upon
Land Use, Neighborhoods

By Susan McDonald

The City Council will unveil its new General Development Plan for the first time at an 8 p.m. public hearing Monday, November 22, in city offices.

It could be the first of several such hearings—if public interest warrants them—before the plan is formally adopted by the City Planning Commission.

Copies of the 90-page document, including studies of current land use and neighborhoods, as well as plans for the future, are available at city offices.

Since The City, the oldest of the Pointes, is about 99.9 percent developed already, "what we're really talking about here is redevelopment," according to City Manager Thomas Kressbach.

Sets Foundation
The plan will set a foundation on which specific programs can be structured, he said, by pointing out potential trouble spots and needs in specific areas.

One of those problem-areas identified in the master plan are the pockets of small, deteriorating housing located primarily west of Neff road.

Overall, about 75 percent of City homes are between 30- to 50-years-old. But about 60 of the older structures are labeled "deficient" in the report. Most of these are found in areas of small lot sizes, overcrowded according to City standards, and of busy traffic patterns.

In relation to this "significant problem" the report identifies renovation of such areas as a primary goal for the city. This should be accomplished with the help of home improvement loans and federal community development funds when possible, stricter enforcement of zoning ordinances and building and maintenance codes.

In addition, the document calls for some expansion of the commercial office zone and public parking into residential areas along Kercheval.

Confab Draws School Staff

The administrative staff of the public schools will join Board of Education trustees for an overnight conference at the St. Clair Inn in St. Clair, Mich., on Friday-Saturday, November 19-20.

The major topic of discussion for the six-hour workshop will be accountability programs in the schools and overall goals for the district.

The confab will cost about $1,500, according to Assistant to the Superintendent Dr. George T. Eddington. About 40 persons, including building principals, central office administrators and trustees, will attend.

Dr. Eddington said the school administration has scheduled many such trips in the past including one last year to Camp Kett. Funds for the trip, including lodging and three meals, will come from the "Institutes" account of the general fund budget.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Coats explained in a news release that such gatherings are necessary because of the heavy work schedules and demands on the administrators.

Dr. Eddington emphasized those attending the meeting will not receive any extra reimbursement for the overtime they will put in on Friday and Saturday.

The exact cost of the trip will be included in the budget report at the next Board of Education meeting in December.

Beautification Commission Cites Businesses, Churches, Schools for Property Maintenance

By George Polgar Jr.

The Woods Beautification Commission held its second annual awards night Thursday, November 11, citing 74 businesses, churches and schools for the exemplary condition of their properties.

For some disinterested parties this kind of award giving might be considered idle pleasantries that only relatively untroubled suburban communities can bother with. Even members of the commission will admit that it is not an essential activity but rather something extra, a show of appreciation.

"The idea behind these awards is simply to thank property owners for taking the time and effort to make a contribution to this beautiful community," said commission vice-chairman Michael Zolik in his opening remarks at the award ceremony.

Take Close Look
The job of selecting award winners is not a matter of whim. The commission does not only consider quaint shops with colorfully dressed windows in their selection. Last year, the recipient of

Pointe Police Officers View Crime Control at Criminal Justice Forum

Over 150 Citizens Attend Gathering at University Liggett School; Event Sponsored by Junior League of Detroit

By George Polgar Jr.

Differing views on the control of crime and a growing concern among residents about the safety of their suburban area were the dominant themes of a criminal justice forum attended last week by representatives of each Pointe police department and an audience of more than 150.

The forum, which was sponsored by the Junior League of Detroit and held in the University Liggett School auditorium, also featured a 30-minute film produced by the Citizens Research Council of Michigan entitled "Critical Decisions About Crime."

The panel of public officials included Chief Robert Ferber of The Farms, Director of Public Safety Joseph Vitale of The Shores, Youth Service Division, (YSD), Det. Wayne Baum of The Woods, Sgt. Richard Clarke of The City and Det. William Furtaw of The Park.

After screening the film in which a number of police administrators, judges, attorneys and educators exchanged thoughts on the major questions facing our strained criminal justice system, each of the panelists made brief presentations and the forum was opened to questions.

In general this session raised more questions than it answered.

"All this that you gentlemen have said is very good but I've heard it all before. I'm 83-years-old and I think this crime situation is terrible and I'd like to know whether there is anything we can do about it," implored a gentleman in the front row.

To this came the unlikely but nearly unanimous reply from the panel, "Write to your legislators."

Det. Baum went on to say that since the majority of local crime problems involve juveniles, his recently unveiled plan for the restructuring of the juvenile justice system would provide the swift and strict dispositions which he believes will act as a strong deterrent.

To illustrate his point, Det. Baum cited cases of Pointe juveniles who have had as

School, Library Holidays Fixed

All public schools, offices and public libraries in The Pointe will be closed Thursday-Friday, November 25-26, for the Thanksgiving holiday. Pupils will be dismissed one hour or one period early on Wednesday, November 24.

Christmas and New Year vacation will begin on Wednesday, December 22, when schools will close one hour early. They will remain closed until Monday, January 3.

All libraries will be closed Friday-Saturday, December 24-25, and Friday-Saturday, December 31-January 1. The Central Branch will be closed Sunday, December 26, but will be open Sunday, January 2, from 1-5 p.m.

Municipal Offices Open on Nov. 26

All municipal offices in The Pointe will be closed on Thanksgiving, Thursday, November 25.

However, each community reports its offices will be open on Friday, November 26.

Criminal Justice Plan Discussed at Meeting

By Roger A. Waha

Over 20 attentive citizens heard Youth Service Division Det. Wayne Baum explore his proposals to reorganize the criminal justice system in the State, plans which emphasize home rule implementation and certainty of punishment, in a Grosse Pointe Park Civic Assoc. sponsored meeting Thursday, November 11, at Pierce School.

Copies of the proposals, which focus upon local and district courts having the responsibility for all misdemeanors for juveniles and adults, were sent in late September to Senators Joseph Snyder and John Hertel, along with Rep. William Bryant.

The detective said he has heard from Sen. Snyder, (who forwarded the material to the newly created office of Juvenile Justice Services), but, as yet, has had no personal response from the other officials.

An outgrowth of his dissatisfaction, plus the concern of others, over the lack of service provided the Pointes by Wayne County Juvenile Court, the proposals, according to the detective, are a massive undertaking.

"The goal is to reduce juvenile crime by firm, consistent and fair treatment," he told the audience.

While his program, which also includes a proposal in relation to criminal justice detention facilities, is long-term in nature, the idea of

The rebate, which took effect today, continues through January 10. The program is a response to an unexpected softening in small car sales, particularly among the subcompact models. The Pontiac and Chevrolet divisions, which produce the three lines, refused to disclose the number of models that remain unsold.

AN ATTORNEY FOR Patricia Hearst said Thursday he will ask for her release on bail Friday on the grounds that the only place she is safe in prison is in solitary confinement, and that this constitutes "inhuman" treatment. Attorneys for Miss Hearst, sentenced to a seven-year term for robbing a bank with the terrorist Symbionese Liberation Army, which had kidnapped her, will appear before U.S. District Judge William Orrick Friday to argue for a new trial and ask for release on bail pending an appeal of her conviction.

U.S. AND VIETNAMESE diplomats met Friday for the first time since 1973 to discuss the 800 Americans missing in action in the Vietnam war, and Hanoi's demands for an estimated $3.25 billion in aid to repair war damage. The State Department said in Washington that the Paris talks produced no progress in the issue of missing Americans. The two sides agreed to meet again.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT has discovered a 1964 memorandum by late FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover stating that Lee Harvey Oswald reportedly told Cuban officials he intended to kill President John F. Kennedy, according to informed sources. The sources said that Hoover, in the memo, attributes this information to a highly reliable informant, who claimed to have been given the information personally by Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

A SENATE MISSION, back from a two-week NATO study, has urged a major shift in strategy for the defense of Western Europe against Soviet attack. A beef-up of NATO conventional forces and a repositioning of major combat units and ammunition closer to the Soviet border was recommended Sunday by Senators Sam Nunn, D-Ga., and Dewey Bartlett, R-Okla. In a joint statement, the senators questioned current strategy that assumes about three weeks' warning of a Soviet attack and relies on a holding action for up to 60 days while reinforcements arrive from the United States.

tions to ease the situation would take time, Mayor Pro-Tem George S. Freeman told the citizens present laws will be enforced, an emergency parking ordinance will be prepared, routine inspections of the condition of the premises would be conducted by the building department and an amendment to the zoning ordinance would be considered.

(The city's current law says that a single family dwelling unit can contain up to five unrelated persons plus domestic servants).

"We don't want to move slowly but we want to move properly," added Mr. Freeman.

In relation to the conditions of the home as expressed by the residents, Mr. Catlin said he will prepare an emergency measure prohibiting the parking of vehicles on front lawns. This law also will incorporate several other specifications including a restriction on paving as someone might decide to pave an entire front lawn area to escape the proposal's provisions.

At the same time, Mr. Catlin indicated any change in the current law on a single family dwelling unit would have to be studied by the council in executive session, ultimately go to the Planning Commission which would make a recommendation for the council's consideration and, then, a public hearing would have to be held. This, he estimated, could take around two months.

However, Mr. Catlin indicated the council will probably consider reducing the number of five unrelated persons to a lesser amount.

In viewing problems regarding an amendment to the zoning ordinance, Mr. Catlin cited questions of constitutionality and proof, i.e., it has to be specifically proved how many individuals reside at the premises, the numbers of people coming and going not withstanding.

He also stated that the public safety department can check the premises regarding parking conditions, and can run LEIN, (Law Enforcement Information Network), checks on license plates, to find out if the registered owner of a vehicle has any outstanding warrants.

One woman summed up the frustration of the petitioners when she said residents tried to get a change in the zoning ordinance during the height of citizen concern over the activities of the Forever Family, (or Church of Bible Understanding), which also occupies a home in Roslyn road.

"If we had an ordinance then, it might have prevented problems at the other end of the block," she stated, while accusing the city of doing nothing over the past year and a half.

The status of the Forever Family situation was reviewed by Mr. Catlin for the residents' edification. The city currently has a Wayne County Circuit Court injunction forbidding the use of the premises for church-type meetings which are open to the public. Public safety officers are serving copies of the injunction to individuals found soliciting on behalf of the group, while specific citizen complaints on the enforcement front would be helpful, he added.

Councilman Conrad A. Naegel, who made the original motion, said he was sympathetic to the citizens "but I don't want to go half cocked on a new ordinance change," while citing a concern over possibly being way out in left field. This is why, he said, the matter had been referred to Mr. Catlin.

Mr. Naegel also said he wouldn't want such a situation in his neighborhood, while indicating the council's desire to alleviate the problems as expressed.

Councilman George Cueter said he would like to have Building Inspector Earl Wakely check the exterior of the property and if there are any violations, to bring the individuals to court. City Administrator Chester E. Petersen indicated he would follow up on this procedure.

Generally, the residents appeared satisfied with the council's actions at this point, although one citizen was overheard saying, as he left the chambers, the council will probably do nothing. Only direct actions on the part of the council can ease such concerns.

New Development Plan

is of vital importance, the report says, but the city administration should also concentrate on expanding the variety of commercial concerns there as well.

After an analysis of recreation facilities available in the City, the report concludes park facilities should be expanded by the purchase of land as it becomes available near Neff Park.

Federally Financed
The City now has 2.4 acres of park land for every 1,000 residents, as compared to 4.8 acres for The Woods, 2.4 for The Park and 2.2 for The Farms. No comparison was given for The Shores.

The report was financed in 1975 by a $23,000 grant through the federal government's 701 Local Planning Assistance program. The City is the only Pointe to receive such funding.

This year an additional $20,000 was granted to the community under the same program for implementation of parts of the plan.

It was prepared by Parkins, Rogers and Associates, Inc., planning consultants to the city.

Food Plan Set To Begin Jan. 4

A Food and Nutritional Program for senior citizens 60 and over is scheduled to commence at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 1950 Mack avenue, on January 4, reported Judy Maghikian, of the church staff.

The program, which is under the auspices of the Wayne County Agency on Aging, is open to all seniors in the county.

Nutritionally balanced meals are provided to seniors under Title VII of the Older Americans Act during the noon hour. Besides the lunch, another emphasis of the program is socialization, where citizens will have the opportunity to meet and mix with new people.

"Alcoholism and Youth" will be the topic of the Grosse Pointe Health Education Council's meeting on Monday, November 22, in the conference room of the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue, at 1 p.m.

A panel discussion dealing with the problem of alcohol abuse observed in the schools and community will be presented by Tip McIntosh, social worker at South High School; Youth Service Division Det. Pat Fagan; and Patty Adler, chairperson of the Family Life Education Council's Alcohol Program for Youth.

The aim of the program is to make known the realities and extent of the alcohol problem among youth in the Grosse Pointes and to offer possible means of dealing with it. The public is invited to attend this and all Health Education Council meetings.

many as 32 contacts with police without a single conviction and no penalties.

Audience Says "No"
"These kids see that they can do almost anything and get away with it, and they'll just keep it up," he said. "With the volume of juvenile cases in Detroit involving serious offenses we can't get the judge to take our bicycle thieves seriously."

He went on to explain how his plan of having local juvenile offenders tried by local judges would insure that they would be dealt with by local standards.

"If my plan doesn't get the support it needs to be implemented then I'll just go back to catching the same kids time after time and letting them go, that's what the citizens want isn't it?" he asked.

The response of the audience was a resounding "no." Other topics of discussion

First Church Plans Service

A Thanksgiving Day service will be held in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 282 Chalfonte road, on Thursday, November 25, at 10:30 a.m.

First reader, Robert Outland, and second reader, Esther Beauvais, will conduct the service. Testimonies, appropriate for the occasion, will be given by Christian Scientists.

All members of the community are invited to attend.

concerned the increase of crime in the Pointes relative to the rising crime statistics around the country. Sgt. Clarke commented that statistics are often deceptive, giving a tongue in cheek example.

"If we have another forcible rape in The City our statistics for that crime would be up 100 percent," he said. "Fortunately, we don't have violent crime problems. Burglaries and theft rings seem to operate in spurts. We are experiencing shoplifting problems in our business district. Of course, each community has different kinds of crime problems."

Park Crime Viewed
Det. Furtaw agreed with Sgt. Clarke's final comment and went on to describe the increase in violent crime that The Park has been experiencing lately.

"This summer there were repeated attempts by Detroit gang members to break into a gun store on Kercheval and Maryland, then we have had some trouble recently in the bar area on Mack and also a man got his throat slit a few months ago," he said.

This report raised a flurry of questions about the measures the police have taken to control the spread of crime across The Pointe-Detroit borders.

Chief Ferber answered these questions by assuring the audience that local police had conferred with Detroit officials about the problem and were well prepared for any incidents involving gangs in search of new hunting grounds.

"We were ready for any problems that might have arisen from this summer's gang crisis, but unlike the police in Birmingham, we did not publicize our preparations," he said.

Need Citizen Support
"What the police chief in Birmingham did was the worst possible approach. We didn't dare gang members to come to our community, we didn't taunt them and they didn't come."

According to Director Vitale, the role of the public in the control of crime is as crucial as the role of the police in investigating activities and apprehending suspects.

"The cooperation of the public with the police is essential to our criminal justice system," he explained. "We need citizens who are alert enough to notice suspicious situations and who will report them."

"We need their cooperation in identifying suspects, filing complaints and testifying against them in court."

Right only and right always should be the creed of everyone in the whole wide world.

Commission Presents 74 Awards

the special plaque was Den-ton Construction in Mack Avenue.

Actually, the commission does what very few other residents of the community do. They take a close look at a main thoroughfare like Mack Avenue and identify individual businesses not necessarily because they stand out but for how they blend in.

This year, three types of awards were presented. The majority of the awards were Bicentennial certificates. Four special awards of potted plants were given to the Landmark Restaurant, Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, Manufacturers Bank Building and Harold Wright's Manufacturer's Representative office, all of which are located in Mack Avenue.

List Not Exclusive
This year the plaque of special recognition went to Lawrence Mayer-East Florist in Mack Avenue.

In making the awards presentations, commission chairman Dr. Albert C. Howe told the audience that this year's winners are not the only ones who have made a contribution in keeping The Woods a pleasant place to look at and live in.

"This list is not exclusive and there are certainly other people who have made similar efforts to maintain their properties," he said. "The most difficult part of organizing this awards program was in deciding who to cite. There are probably many more deserving property owners and we will try to get to them next year."

WIN CONTEST
Douglas Brown, a student at North High School, and Phil Gilbert, who attends South High, have been named finalists in the National Council of Teachers of English writing contest. The youths were among more than 6,500 students nominated by their English teachers for achievement awards.

When asked what he thought about receiving the commission's special plaque, Mr. Mayer commented that he felt it was nice of the city to show its appreciation and recognize special efforts made by businesses in keeping up their properties.

To Display Proudly
"If you choose a nice neighborhood to conduct your business, you should make a contribution to keeping that area presentable," he said. "If each person doesn't do their share the neighborhood begins to go downhill."

The awards night culminated with the presentation of a plaque from Keep Michigan Beautiful, Inc., to the city. This plaque had been given to the commission last month and was now being accepted by Mayor Benjamin

W. Pinkos on behalf of the community.

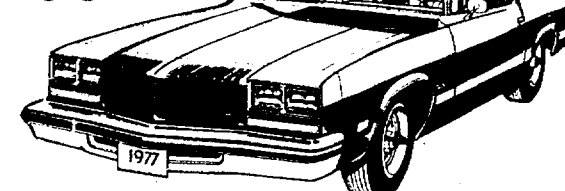

"The existence of the Beautification Commission is evident by its various projects around the city and we are very happy to accept this award," said Mr. Pinkos. "It will be displayed proudly with the other awards the city has received."

50 Cases of Head Lice Reported in GP Schools

By Susan McDonald
Outbreaks of pediculosis (head lice), are almost certain to surpass last year's total in this area, Wayne County Health Department officials warn, and Grosse Pointe is no exception.

So far, about 50 cases of head lice have been reported in Grosse Pointe schools, both public and private. All the reported cases are being treated and are under control.

Schools are being helped in the effort by health department nurse Mrs. Ensi Shore. The public schools have hired an additional part-time nurse to screen children for the disease.

Head lice are parasites which make their homes on the human body. The "bugs" are spread from person to person either through direct physical contact or from contact with bed linens, combs, hats and clothing of an infected person.

The lice are locomotive and may crawl from one article of clothing to another. They are small, grayish white, wingless bugs, about the size of tiny ants. They attach their eggs to hair shafts with a gluey substance which makes them difficult to remove.

The first sign of lice is usually intense itching. Bite marks may appear and once infestation starts it can spread very quickly.

Dr. Jane Polkowski, director of the Communicable Disease Control Division of the Wayne County Health Department, said in a news release that Kwell shampoo is the most common treatment for head lice. There are other over-the-counter drugs that are equally effective, she said.

All personal items used by an infected person, such as bedding, towels, combs and clothing, should be washed in hot water or put in a hot dryer.

Any article that cannot be laundered or dry cleaned can be placed in a plastic sack, sealed and stored for two weeks. By then the lice will be dead.

Dr. Polkowski also warned that since head lice can be easily passed from one person to another it is necessary to keep any infected child out of school until they have been treated.

For further information, call Mrs. Shore at the local health department office in Cottage Hospital, at 881-8600. It "mite" prevent you from having a "lousy" winter.

Pitching Star Calls on Kids

Tiger right-hander, Vern Rühle, paid a visit to the baseball fans at the Children's Home of Detroit, in Cook road, on Monday, November 8.

Mr. Rühle, who was Tiger Rookie of the Year in 1975, gave the youngsters a brief talk about baseball and then signed autographs.

Home Director James Boomgard said the children regularly attend Tiger games and the girls and boys were equally excited about meeting the pitching star.

Most of their questions, he noted, were about Mark "The Bird" Fidrych. Mr. Boomgard had tried to get "The Bird" to attend, but was told he was tied up all winter long.

Dog Rescued in Boat Well

A large male mixed breed dog was rescued from a boat well at the rear of 15500 Windmill Pointe drive by Park policemen and firemen at about noon on Wednesday, November 10.

A citizen phoned police stating that the animal was seen struggling to get out, and in failing this, attempted to climb into a boat moored in the well.

Police Sgt. Walter Paton and Patrolman Eugene Adamczyk responded to the rescue call as did fire personnel, Lt. James Palmer and Firefighter Michael Clancy.

Playing an indirect part in the rescue of the dog, said to be about three-years-old, was Fire Sgt. Anthony LaBonty. A large fishing net from his personal van parked behind the fire station was borrowed by the rescue team, who used the net to "fish" the dog out of the cold water. The policemen and firemen used team work to haul the canine out of the inlet. The animal is large and appeared to have some collie or malamute parentage, and has a tan coat and white markings.

The dog was taken to Dr. F. B. Shaya's Animal Hospital, 15135 Kercheval avenue. Dr. Shaya, The Park's official veterinarian, said that the canine was in good condition, except for being wet and cold.

Lt. Duncan disclosed that on Monday, November 15, a Park couple, who asked to remain anonymous, adopted the rescued canine as a house pet, since no one came forward to claim the animal.

The new owners paid the hospital bill for the dog's keep.

Schools Don't Run Elworthy

Board of Education trustees are concerned that literature distributed by the Henry Russell's Three Mile Drive Assoc. Inc., in the recent election may have created an incorrect impression.

The association campaigned against a Park proposition to build a baseball diamond on Three Mile Park and cited the use of Elworthy Field, in Waterloo road, to support its case.

Trustee Joan Hanpeter said she thinks the literature gave the impression Board of Education funds go into the maintenance of the field. The Board, she said, actually allocates no money to Elworthy.

The field was donated to the Board of Education by the Joy family for the use of all the Pointes several years ago. The Board leases it to The City, which finances all maintenance of the grounds.

Mrs. Hanpeter said she had received several calls on the matter.

Your opinion is probably all right—the problem is to get the right people to endorse it.

Pair Provide Security

they have acquired over many years of training and experience.

Plays Strong Role
Besides the fact that both officers have been friends for years, the destruction caused by the ice storm in March played a strong role in their decision to begin "Security Plus."

"The ice storm made the idea come to light for me," stated Sgt. Davidson. "Many people were away and didn't know about it and the bad mess it caused."

In such an emergency, where power failures and damage to structures and grounds were widespread, the officers could have notified vacationing residents and taken protective measures e.g., turning off gas furnaces and renting a generator as necessary.

With an emphasis upon security, Sgt. Davidson said, "We also would do other specific services upon request, such as accompanying someone who wants to transport a large sum of money to a specific destination. We want to expand into this, too."

For his part, Det. Baum, who has done similar work before on his own, stated Sgt. Davidson talked with him after the ice storm and discussed the fact that some citizens were away. "There was no one to check their homes. Now, we're expanding on what I've been doing in the past," he said.

Noting the Thanksgiving and Christmas vacation periods are approaching, Det. Baum emphasized that citizens' homes can have that "lived-in" look while they are away with their property and possessions being watched.

This, he felt, has to be an advantage for residents because potential criminals won't consider such homes as likely targets.

With such a program, an aura of trust is an important key. For those who might have doubts, (or whatever reason), in pursuing this service, Sgt. Davidson said, "Even one's closest relative, (or neighbor), can do something you don't want that person to do. A neighbor also might have a youngster who could tell other children in the neighborhood that a citizen is away."

Hope to Expand
What it comes down to for the sergeant is if you can't trust a local police officer in such a case, who can you trust?

While the pair are focusing upon the Grosse Pointe area, they hope to expand their service to other east side communities in the future. And if it becomes necessary to add further officers to "Security Plus," Sgt. Davidson said they will be policemen from the Pointes.

For further information on the service, call 1-727-1202 or 886-9389.

Chorus Slates Yule Concert

A concert for the entire family, featuring old and new Christmas music, will be presented by the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus on Sunday, December 5, in the Parcels School auditorium, 20600 Mack avenue, at 3 p.m.

This annual Christmas event will feature special entertainment during the intermission, and a reception immediately following the concert.

Tickets, at $1.50 for adults and 50 cents for children and students, will be available at the door.

GP Park Council Takes Action on Varied Items

By James J. Njaim

The Park Council at its regular meeting Monday, November 8, awarded a contract to McDonald East, a Ford car sales agency, for the purchase of two new police cars at a total cost of $7,980, with the trade-in of two 1975 police vehicles.

City Manager Robert A. Slone, who recommended that the cars be purchased from McDonald East, the low bidder, said that the two cars to be traded in have each been driven approximately 70,000 miles. By the time the two new autos are delivered, the old ones will have each added on another 20,000 miles.

In other business, the council, on the recommendation of Mayor Matthew C. Patterson, confirmed the appointment of James Ellison, director of Public Service, as the city's new assessor, and Paul Carter, who is associated with the public service department, as deputy assessor.

The council also approved the appropriation of funds to hire a new police officer, recommended by Police Chief Henry Coonce, who said the addition of a new patrolman would raise the department complement to 32 men. The new man is not a replacement, the chief pointed out, and the starting salary for a recruit is $10,000 a year.

The mayor appointed Councilmen Douglas Graham, Dr. Roger McNeill and Charles Tompkins as a committee-of-three to seek avenues of means to determine if the Park should continue purchasing hospitalization insurance from John Hancock Insurance for city employees and the employees' dependents.

The firm has been the carrier for the city for the past five years, during which insurance rates have increased 10, 14 and finally 20 percent within that time.

The committee will check premium costs between its present carrier and that of Blue Cross-Blue Shield and submit its findings at a future meeting.

Acting on the recommendation of Mr. Slone and City Comptroller Nunzio Ortisi, the council okayed the payment of $13,902.49 to the firm of Hubbell, Roth and Clark, for engineering services in rewiring the entire municipal building and fire station for air conditioning units. The services were for the year September 1, 1975, through September 1, 1976.

Prior to adjournment of the council meeting, Councilman George Verdonck, The Park's representative on the Grosse Pointe-Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority, stated that there is a controversy being stirred in Clinton Township by residents in the vicinity of the authority's incinerator site at 13 1/2 Mile road and Quinn roads because of the soot emitting from one of two stacks of the incinerator building.

The condition of the defective stack is being corrected, as well as one wing of the building which has sunk a few inches in soft ground, the councilman said.

In regard to the soot complaint, only residents of the township are raising the fuss. No complaints were received from residents of St. Clair Shores about a half mile away from the plant, nor from residents of Roseville living 600 yards away.

Mr. Slone said when the plant was first utilized about three years ago, it cost the partner-communities an average of $4.50 a ton to burn refuse. The cost has since spiraled to around $12 a ton.

Mr. Verdonck said that the high cost is due to the fact that employees have unionized and have received higher wages under negotiated contracts.

There are eight communities involved in the operation of the plant and share in the costs — the five Pointes, Harper Woods, Clinton Township and Mount Clemens.

Mary Paonessa Speaks at GPA

Family life and sex education consultant and teacher, Mary Paonessa, will speak on Monday, November 22, at the Grosse Pointe Academy, (GPA), auditorium, 171 Lakeshore road, at 8 p.m.

The Academy's Parent Coordinating Council and Saint Paul's Teachers and Parents Guild are co-sponsoring the presentation titled "Sex Education in the Child Between Birth and Puberty."

Mrs. Paonessa has gained popular attention for her emphasis on the importance of the father's role in the sex education of the child, particularly the adolescent boy.

She addresses herself to both parents in the handling of the "Three Most Common Questions"—Where do babies come from? How do they get in? and How do they get out?

Mrs. Paonessa, married 20 years to marriage counselor John Paonessa, is the co-author with her husband of "Boys in Puberty," which appeared in "Social Casework," a professional publication.

The public is welcome to attend this admission free presentation.

In My Working Days There Was No Such Thing As An Individual Retirement Account.

We had no pension plan where I worked, and you didn't get a tax break for putting money aside for retirement, either.

Not like today. Today you open one of those Individual Retirement Accounts, IRA they call it, and the money you put in there is deductible when you file your tax return.

Detroit & Northern Savings has these IRA's and the money you put in there can earn as much as 7 3/4% per year interest compounded daily. Now, daily compounding means it actually pays 8.05% per year. Daily interest and daily compounding. That means the more days your money is in an IRA, the more you earn, because even your interest earns interest. If I could have an IRA, I would get my money into it as early in the year as possible. That way I would earn more — and that's tax-free earnings, to boot.

There's nothing I can do about it now, but if you're still working and don't have a company sponsored pension plan, see the people at D&N and get started. Get that retirement savings plan going as soon as possible, so you can take advantage of that daily interest and daily compounding — all tax free until retirement.

From what I know, D&N's plan is one of the best around. No cost. High returns. Insured safe. Believe me, I've been retired for 6 years and I can tell you, income from Social Security just isn't enough.

Council Tapes Open to Public

State Attorney General Frank J. Kelley recently ruled that home rule cities in Michigan must allow members of the public to hear tape recordings of city council meetings used to prepare minutes of the meetings, if those tapes have not been destroyed, according to a news release from his office.

In an opinion requested by Sen. Joseph M. Snyder, Mr. Kelley said, "The tape recording in question is subject to public disclosure. The law pertaining to home rule cities reads that all sessions of the legislative body and all records of the municipality shall be public."

Sen. Snyder raised the question following the refusal of the City of East Detroit to allow a resident of that city to listen to a tape recording of a city council meeting. The city offered the resident the printed minutes of the meeting but refused his request to listen to a tape recording that had been used in preparing those minutes.

The East Detroit city attorney held that the minutes, not the tape records, were the public record of the meeting. Mr. Kelley disagreed, citing a court decision involving the Board of Pharmacy of Michigan. In that case the judge ruled that information used to prepare the formal minutes of a meeting is part of the public record.

A Utah case also was cited where untranscribed notes were held to be "public writings," and required to be made public upon request.

"What public bodies do in open meetings is the public's business," Mr. Kelley said. "It follows that records of any type made during those meetings should be open to public scrutiny."

In The Pointe, only The Woods and the School Board tape the proceedings of public meetings and both report that they are available to the public upon request. In The Farms, Shores, Park and City, minutes of all meetings are taken and are made available for public perusal upon request.

Kid's Theater Plays 'Winnie'

The Grosse Pointe Children's Theater, directed by Sally Reynolds, will help Winnie the Pooh celebrate his 50th birthday Saturday, November 20, with two musical shows at Birmingham's Community House, 380 South Bates road.

Tickets for both performances, one from 1-2 p.m. and another from 3-4 p.m., are $1.25 and are available at the Community House.

Cast members include Kathy Truog and Amy Dietz as Pooh Bear; Audry Stewart and Lynn Pellerito as Piglet; Liz Johnson as Owl; Cammie Dionne as Rabbit; Jeannie Bentley as Kanga; and Jency York and Amy Quarters as Roo.

Karen Alpert will be seen as Eeyore, and Christopher Robin will be portrayed by Pauline Dionne and Katy Mercer. Forest animals are Jenny Marshall and Jennifer Sutton.

Mrs. John Mazer is musical director for the show.

Center Slates Seniors' Party

The War Memorial, for the sixth year running, has planned a night for senior members of The Pointe to enjoy an evening party and take in the delights of the Shipstead and Johnson Ice-Follies.

On Wednesday, December 8, the group will gather for dinner at the Alger House, 32 Lakeshore road, where dinner will be served around the Christmas Tree in the Great Hall.

Following dinner, charter buses will take patrons to Olympia and pick them up later to return them to the Center.

The entire evening is $13.50. Reservations are limited so immediate response should be made by calling 881-7511.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

The American Revolution momentarily halted land speculation activity in the colonies. During the war however, seeds were sown for the frantic activity that would follow. As the costs of war mounted, the Continental Congress began assessing each of the states. The states, in turn, issued "debt certificates" and other "scrip"—most of which was worthless. When the "scrip" came due, the government solved its problem by selling off portions of new land holdings to entrepreneurs. The proceeds were used to retire the war debt.

Church Slates Feast Weekend

Christ Episcopal Church will celebrate its Patronal Feast Weekend November 19-21, featuring the Right Reverend William A. Dimmick, DD, Bishop of Northern Michigan.

The weekend's theme will be "The Renewal of the Life of the Spirit."

A man of wide experience in the church and known not only as a man of prayer but action, he is eminently qualified to speak on spiritual renewal on a corporate and individual basis, reports Christ Episcopal.

Bishop Dimmick is a member of the Standing Liturgical Commission of the National Church, primarily dealing with new worship patterns, and is interested and involved in the current spiritual renewal going on in the church of today.

On November 19, a potluck supper will be held in the undercroft at 6:30 p.m. Those who are planning to attend are asked to call the church office at 885-4841 for reservations and potluck suggestions. At 8 p.m., Bishop Dimmick will speak on the weekend's theme, focusing in the area of corporate or parish renewal. Time will be provided for questions and discussion.

Continuing the theme on November 20 at 10 a.m., he will lead a quiet day with special concern for experiencing and understanding personal religious experience.

Then on November 21, Bishop Dimmick will preach at all Sunday services and lead the adult forum in Miller Hall.

For further information on the weekend, call the office at Christ Church.

Trombly School 50 Years Old

Trombly School, 820 Beaconsfield avenue, will celebrate its 50th anniversary the week of February 20-26.

The faculty reunion committee has already started making plans for the event and has scheduled a cocktail dinner party at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club on February 25.

The committee is having a problem, though, in locating some former faculty members. A large mailing to those with current known addresses was postmarked November 1.

If former staff members have not been contacted and are interested in participating in the anniversary celebration, they should call the school at 821-1143.

For events scheduled later in the year, the committee is trying to locate some of Trombly's first students, who attended in 1927-28. If you are one of those students or know of one, call the school.

Center Offers Dinner, Play

It is not too late to enjoy complete dinner theatre this weekend when attending "A Little Night Music" in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium.

Pre-theatre buffets may be reserved in the Center's Crystal Ballroom for individuals, couples or larger groups.

The buffets will be served at 7 p.m. in the ballroom over the theatre, today - Saturday November 18-20.

The meal includes hors d'oeuvres, choice of salads and dressings, beef and fowl or fish entrees and home made desserts. Reservations may be made at the Center's office by calling 881-7511.

Good Luck Mrs. Peters

Sitting with her husband VINCE, her "good luck" charm, MRS. MARGARET PETERS is the current Super Player of the Michigan State Lottery. Having won $212,000 in the last two weeks, Mrs. Peters will be competing for another $100,000 tonight, November 18, at 7:30 p.m. on Channel 4.

Super Player of Lottery Goes for Third in Row

By Tom Greenwood

Margaret Peters has 212,000 reasons to feel lucky. That's how much money she's won in the last two weeks as the Super Player of the Michigan State Lottery.

She has got a shot at another $100,000 tonight, November 18, on Channel 4 at 7:30 p.m. when she'll defend her position as the Super Player during the weekly Super Drawing.

"Isn't this really something?" said Mrs. Peters, from the living room of her home. "We just can't believe it. The good Lord has given us so much to be grateful for."

Mrs. Peters has been a faithful lottery ticket buyer since the lottery began. "I still buy the tickets," she said. "It usually depends on how much I have left over after buying the groceries. If the total is $18, and I have a $20 bill, I'll take the change in lottery tickets."

"I told the people at Salem Square, where I shop, that I was going to stop coming there because I never won anything. The next week I was a winner."

Each week 20 Super Play qualifiers participate in a preliminary drawing to determine six contestants who advance to the televised drawing to challenge the Super Player.

Those six contestants will win at least $4,500 and have a chance at the $100,000 top prize position, if they're lucky.

Mrs. Peters was lucky. "Up 'til now, the only thing this family ever won was a wedding cake in 1952," said Vince Peters, Mrs. Peters husband. "Boy, we just about ate cake for two solid weeks. It was four layers high and we gave slices away to anyone that would take it. It was a long time between wins, but the wait was worth it."

So far, no scheming con artists or long lost relatives have shown up wishing to help the Peters dispose of their windfall.

"I think part of the reason is because Vince is a policeman," said Mrs. Peters. "He'll have 25 years in the Farm's Police Department in 15 months."

"She has had a couple of proposals of marriage, though," said Mr. Peters, with a smile. "One from Tom Shannon, who hosts the TV drawings, and the other from Sonny Elliot. I hope they were just kidding."

The Peters celebrated their 29th wedding anniversary on Monday, November 15. They have four children, Theresa, Tom, Jim and Joanne. Joanne, a senior at South High School, is the only child living at home.

"It's really been terrific the way everybody in Grosse Pointe has been rooting for my parents," said Joanne. "They've worked hard all their lives and they deserve this. Now they can take a second honeymoon to Hawaii. It'll also make things easier if and when my dad decides to retire."

If Mrs. Peters wins again tonight, she'll have won $312,000 in three weeks. Not a bad return on a 50 cent lottery ticket.

"I don't know why I'm so lucky," said Mrs. Peters. "I don't carry around a rabbit's foot or a shamrock. I guess the only good luck charm I take into the TV studio with me is my husband."

Youth Council Hosting Party

This year, rock music enthusiasts will have the opportunity to celebrate Thanksgiving Eve, November 24, at a concert featuring Frijid Pink and Whitewolf at the War Memorial. The event begins at 8 p.m.

The concert, presented by the Youth Council, is expected to bring a large crowd. Both bands are well known for their hard driving rock and roll music and exciting shows.

Tickets for the concert are available at the War Memorial for $2.75, and there are a limited number left. Whitewolf will be playing in the Ballroom while Frijid Pink plays in the Auditorium, allowing the audience continuous music.

Mike is excited about the '77 Lincoln-Mercury family of fine automobiles. He thinks you will be too. Mike extends an invitation to one and all to come view these exciting cars. The atmosphere is friendly, and the service is personal.

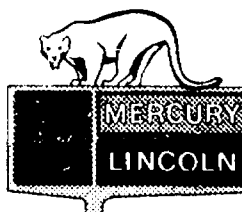

The Car: 1977 Continental Mark V

Continental Mark V, the largest generation in a dynasty of custom-crafted luxury cars, succeeds the Mark IV in 1977. More angular and rakish than its predecessor, the Mark V retains the traditional Mark grille and Continental rear spare tire deck lid, but adds styling touches such as functional front fender louvers. Although about the same size as the Mark IV, the Mark V will be nearly 400 pounds lighter. A 400-CID 2V engine will be standard with the 460-CID 4V engine.

A new standard interior includes Twin-Comfort Lounge seats trimmed in a new soft velour fabric, a new instrument panel cluster with a high-gloss, woodgrain applique and a new Cartier day/date clock with quartz crystal accuracy.

Thanksgiving Service Slated

Saint James Lutheran Church, McMillan road at Kercheval, will hold its traditional Thanksgiving Day Service, Thursday, November 25, at 9:30 a.m.

The service will include some extra Bicenennial features like the procession of the flags, the pledge of allegiance and the singing of "America The Beautiful" and "God Bless America."

PLAY IT COOL

Don't make the mistake of trying to keep family happenings away from relatives—the less they hear the more they suspect.

In response to the problem of world hunger, Love Loaves will be distributed to members for the placement of a gift of gratitude while in their homes at mealtime. The loaves should be returned to the church at the Ash Wednesday service at the beginning of Lent in 1977.

The Saint James Choir, under the direction of Herman Clein, will assist in the service, while the nursery for small children will be conducted as usual.

Citizens are invited to celebrate Thanksgiving Day with the Saint James congregation.

Knife Slasher's Exam Delayed

Franklin Payne, 27, of 4110 Lakepointe, Detroit, was granted a waiver which postponed his examination to Wednesday, December 15, for the October 6 slaying of a man's throat during an argument, it was disclosed by Park Lt. Gordon Duncan on Monday, November 15.

The waiver was approved by Park Municipal Judge John Urso because Franklin, who is charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm, is hospitalized with pneumonia, the lieutenant disclosed.

On the October date, at 12:15 a.m., Franklin is alleged to have slashed the throat of Edward Grifford, 24, of 4847 Marsailles, Detroit, when Grifford, who had reportedly been drinking, got into a battle of words when Franklin and another man, unidentified, assisted Grifford into a taxi at Charlevoix and Wayburn.

Grifford did not know Franklin and the other man, Lt. Duncan said.

While in the cab, Grifford began arguing with Franklin and kicked at him, after which Franklin drew out a bone-handled knife and slashed Grifford in the throat, inflicting a five-inch wound, according to police.

Police Sgt. Charles Petrie, who was cruising in the area, passed by, but did not see the incident, which occurred a few seconds before. He stopped and arrested Franklin and called for the ambulance. Fire department personnel conveyed Grifford to Saint John Hospital where 30 stitches were required to close his wound.

Franklin was charged in a warrant approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office following an investigation by Det. William Furtaw. The accused man is free on $1,000 cash bond pending his December 15 examination.

YSD Detective Discusses Criminal Justice Plan

(Continued from Page 1) having a juvenile court referee serve the east side, (such an official does serve the west side), was cited by a citizen to possibly alleviate the situation as expressed by the detective.

Calling this a step in the right direction, Det. Baum said efforts have been made to try to have a referee serve the east side. If this became a reality, he felt the steps in the criminal procedure, e.g., hearings, disposition, would be accelerated.

When one resident asked who should be pressured to make the referee become a reality, Det. Baum suggested each Pointe city manager, (who comprise the YSD's board of managers along with a representative from the School Board), while Park Municipal Judge John Urso, who also participated in the program and felt a referee serving the eastside would be beneficial, mentioned Wayne County Commissioner Erv Steiner.

In stressing the juvenile justice system is separate from the adult system, Det. Baum said nothing is really being done, in his estimation, by juvenile court to youths who commit offenses in the Grosse Pointe area.

Saying that youths 17 and under are under the jurisdiction of juvenile court, and that there was nothing a local judge can do, the detective felt it was ridiculous to have the juvenile removed from the adult criminal justice system.

Feeling that juveniles have been ignored too long, Det. Baum said many ultimately grow up to become adult criminals. "I feel the juvenile criminal can commit crimes with ease, (perhaps six to 10 or more), before punishment is done. Criminals are not born 17-years-old. Society creates a situation where they learn criminal activity pays off." As a result, he said juvenile offenders quickly become adult offenders.

In cases where Pointe youths get involved in criminal activity, the detective said they are warned on the first offense and could be placed on the YSD counseling program on the second offense. The point, here, he said, is that every type of diversionary program is considered before a petition is filed with juvenile court.

Then juvenile court, he stated, sometimes doesn't authorize a petition, sometimes adjusts it, (usually incorporating a warning), refers the petition to another agency, et al.

When a case is heard in juvenile court, the detective said an offense committed by a youth in the Pointes normally isn't as serious, e.g., a crime such as murder, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, as that committed in a city like Detroit.

However, while some of these offenses are committed in the Pointes, the volume, in comparison to Detroit, is way, way down and Det. Baum feels juvenile court doesn't give the area with its malicious destruction of property, larceny, et al., cases the attention it deserves.

The point is, for the detective, when a petition is filed by the YSD on a youth, this is the final recourse action that is taken. And while the volume and nature of youthful crime is nothing like Detroit, when no affirmative action, to his way of thinking, is taken by the court, "these young criminals out here don't learn that crime doesn't pay. And the bad part is that an offender has friends who learn the same thing."

(In relation to this, the idea of having a referee serve the east side would be beneficial because that individual would be familiar with the community and the specific nature of its criminal activity and problems it faces, he felt).

Under his proposals, the authority to hear cases would be removed from juvenile court. Instead, it would be given to a municipal or district court judge who would hear all juvenile misdemeanor or offenders on a local level. "The judge would represent the community and he would know the problems in the community. A judge who hears murder cases doesn't get excited about (a youth) who breaks down 10 trees," said Det. Baum.

He will have the authority to place the juvenile offender on a strict probation, issue a fine or have the offender detained. The judge also may decide that the offender should receive professional counseling.

"I'm not proposing to take away the Constitutional rights of any individual in the State," he stated, while adding he wants the offender to be the intimidated one, not the victim.

Meanwhile, juvenile felony cases would be heard on the local level, too.

Another part of his program is a stress on education. He proposes an "extensive educational undertaking at the elementary school level right on through (high school) to teach the youths the public is taking a different stand on the juvenile offender. They will learn that society will react in a firm and consistent manner."

As a result, a positive impact will be seen on the adult crime picture, he said.

Realizing his proposals will cost money, the need for new facilities notwithstanding, the detective pointed out thousands of dollars are being spent now regarding crime-related costs.

According to the "1977 Michigan Comprehensive Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Plan," published by the Office of Criminal Justice Programs, a total of $1,122,939,000 were spent in this area in 1975. This, he said, breaks down to around $668 per household, based on the cost of the commission of all crimes.

In other figures, the detective said last year juveniles between the ages of 11-20 committed 63.7 percent of all violent crimes, i.e., crimes against people. Included in this group was a crime against property classification where youths between the aforementioned ages committed 67.7 percent of the offenses. Meanwhile, the figures showed youths between 11-20 committed 38.3 percent of vandalism and narcotics offenses in 1975.

In a final note, a citizen asked what can be done to implement Det. Baum's proposal, which is one of many possibilities. He suggested residents write their representative saying they are upset with the way the situation is now; stress they want a change; and comment on his ideas.

The detective added some officials are aware of his views as my "mouth has been flapping" in Grosse Pointe.

Judge Urso, who played an active role at the meeting, further explored a juvenile court referee for the east side and Det. Baum's proposals with the NEWS.

On the referee, he said, "It's a good idea to bring to the citizens of our community a service which would result in a more efficient handling of juvenile offenders in Grosse Pointe." But he quickly added, "Citizens also have to be aware of the fact this will cost us money."

For his part, as a citizen, he's willing to spend some money to support law enforcement officers in this instance.

At the same time, he cited a "political problem" in relation to Commissioner Steiner, who he felt has a mandate from his constituents in keeping costs and taxes down.

Another point was the need, he felt, that appropriate services could be obtained when residents of the county voice their opinions, and objections in the criminal justice area, to their representatives in Lansing. Such input to Lansing from Grosse Pointe citizens would be beneficial.

As for Det. Baum's program, Judge Urso stated, "The problem with his proposals is he doesn't distinguish between the juvenile and adult offender." Some may ask, "Why should we?" for whether a 15-year-old or a 50-year-old kills someone, the victim is still dead, he questioned.

"This is true but, heretofore, we have taken the posture that a youngster who violates the law can be directed and counseled and put in a supportive environment," stated Judge Urso, who felt the proposals didn't completely recognize this difference.

In relation to this, he told the audience the entire concept of juvenile court is totally different from the adult court. The basic concept is to give the youthful offender support and direction until he gets back on the track, while for the adult, the concept is punishment and rehabilitation.

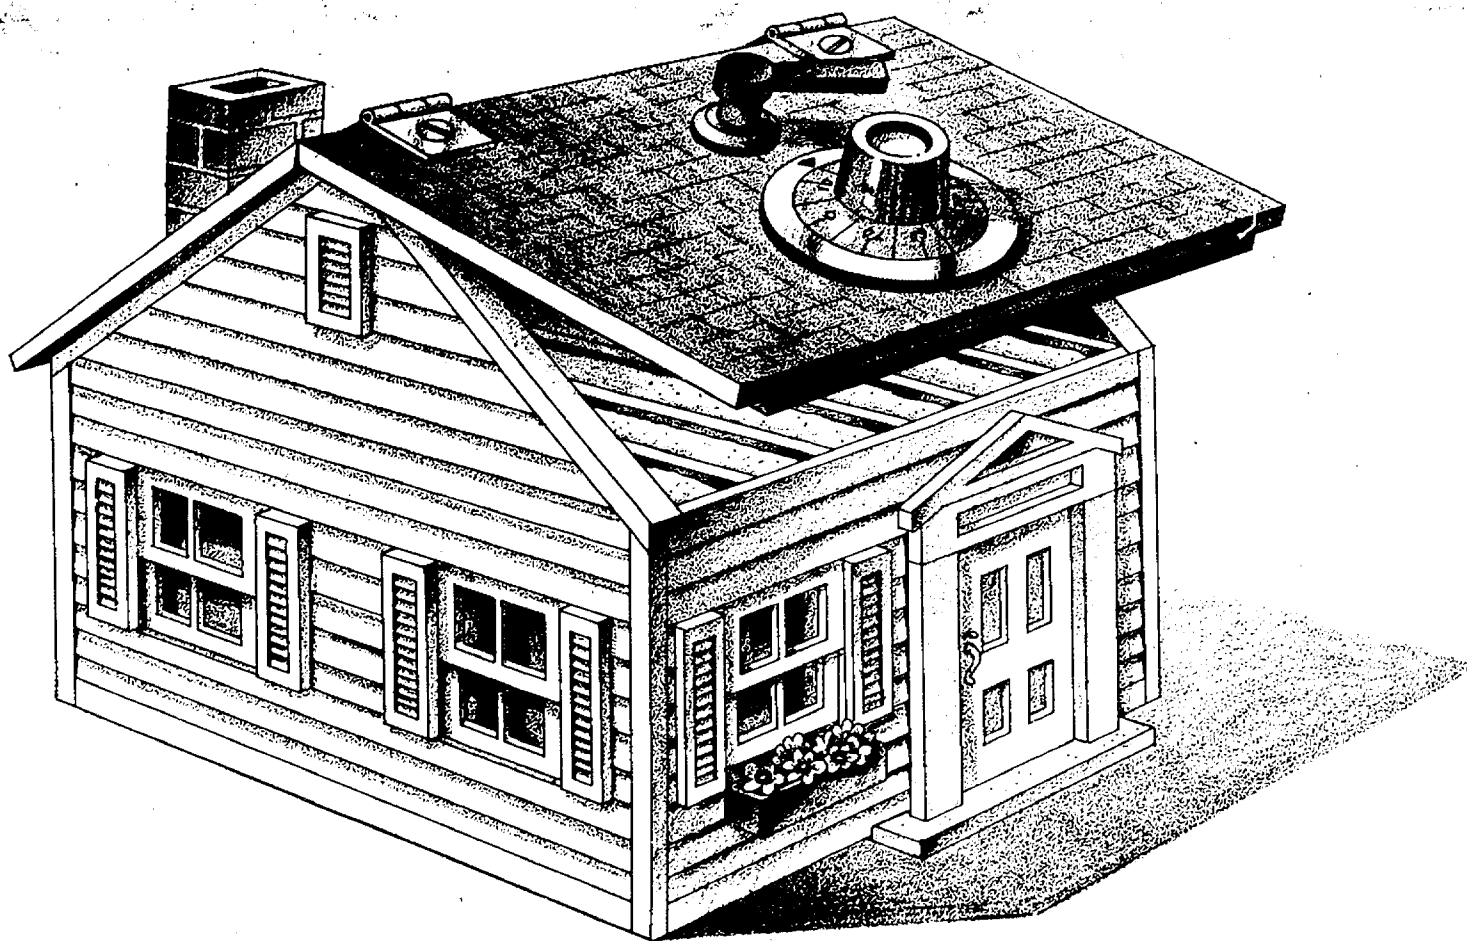

Judge Urso also questioned whether municipal or district court judges could or would want to handle the increased amount of cases which would result if the proposals were implemented.

In response to the point on distinguishing between offenders, Det. Baum said his main focus at the gathering was juveniles under 17. "I made no bones about youthful offenders. That's where the problem lies," (i.e., crimes being committed by youths between 11-20 years).

My program is designed to place great emphasis on juvenile offenders and consistent treatment for adult offenders, he stated. "We cannot just treat the adult criminal picture and expect (such treatment) to trickle down to juveniles," continued Det. Baum, who felt this approach was silly. He felt the major emphasis should be placed on the juvenile picture with the expectation that treatment would "trickle up."

In a final note, Judge Urso said it was healthy that citizens had an opportunity to gather and talk about the proposals—this being a positive way to accomplish change.

Save up to $75 in your attic this winter.

Insulate!

Nobody likes higher Gas bills, including us at Michigan Consolidated. But because the cost of Gas we buy from our suppliers has gone up, your Gas bills will be higher this winter than they were last year.

So it makes sense to stretch each dollar's worth of Gas just as far as possible, and to keep your Gas bills as low as you can. One way to do this is by insulating your home.

Once again, Michigan Consolidated is offering a low-cost Home Ceiling Insulation Program designed to conserve Natural Gas and save you money.

Since the program's introduction nearly three years ago, more than 115,000 of our customers have installed ceiling insulation, and have cut their home heating costs by as much as 17% each year. Based on expected Gas prices for this winter, this means a customer who has not yet insulated may be able to reduce his annual heating cost by as much as $75, starting immediately.

If you do the job yourself, you should be able to buy insulation for a home with 650 sq. ft. of attic space for about $125.00. That means you'll probably save enough Gas to pay for the material in less than two years. Our free Do-It-Yourself Insulation Handbook tells you how. Pick one up at any of our customer business offices or any participating retail outlet. Or call or write, and we'll mail you a copy.

If you'd rather not do the job yourself, one of our participating insulation subcontractors can. The cost? About $250.00 for homes with less than 1000 sq. ft. of ceiling area. You can pay cash. You can pay 20% down and pay the balance without interest over your next three Gas bills. Or you can make extended payments at an interest rate of 1% per month on the unpaid balance (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%).

So why not save money in your attic this winter with our low-cost Home Ceiling Insulation Program? We'd like to help you cut your heating costs, and we'll both be working to save our country's valuable Natural Gas supplies.

We do care about your tomorrow.

MEMBER OF THE AMERICAN NATURAL RESOURCES SYSTEM

by John Lundberg

These days the trend is toward lightness, both in eating and drinking, and more and more people have made the change toward wines for casual guests. A good basic wine to have on hand for people who just drop in is a good Spanish sherry. A good American sherry or two is also nice to have on hand, as well as Portuguese and American port, and possibly a fine muscatel. Australian Para Port is excellent, and a good conversation starter, too.

Let the experts at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626 help you with your wine selection. We have a wide array of imported and domestic wines for you to choose from, and if you prefer a wine we do not have, we'll be happy to special order and stock it for you. Free delivery service. Harriers at North High Finish Successful Year

By Diane Marsteller

The North High School cross country team had a very successful season this year, winning every meet they competed in. The Norsemen won four invitationals, with more than 20 teams in each; six dual meets; the Bi-County title; the State Regionals; and the State Championships.

The Norsemen did a lot of traveling this season and on each trip were victorious. The team went to the West Bloomfield Invitational in West Bloomfield, the Holly Invitational in Holly, Mich., the Oakland Invitational at Oakland University and the Wayne County Championships held at Rouge Park.

The varsity dual meet season consisted of meets against Fraser, L'Anse Creuse, Warren Cousino, Lakeview, South-

High School and Lakeshore. This is the first time in North's history that a team has won all its dual meets by a perfect score of 15-0 where low score wins.

In each race, the Norsemen placed seven men in front of the opponent's first man. The harriers competed in the State Regionals held at Metropolitan Beach, winning this meet by a wide margin of 85 points. Bill Weidenbach won the race at 14:48.

The Norsemen also won the Bi-County meet with a score of 20 points followed by Lakeshore with 57 points. Weidenbach, Ed Hammer, Dan Beck, Dale Savage and Steve Brandt won All Bi-County Honors.

The biggest event of the season occurred when the team traveled to Grand Rapids to compete in the State Championships. Hammer was North's big winner, coming in first for the team and fifth in the race, earning him an All-State Award.

The Norsemen brought home the State Championship trophy with 94 points while Grand Blanc followed with 118 points.

Without a winning coach North couldn't have a winning team and Tom Gauerke was perfect for the job.

JGB Readers Short a Leader

The Junior Great Books, (JGB), program at Monteth Elementary School has been at work for several years, introducing students in grades three through six to literary classics.

Sponsored by the Monteth PTO and staffed by trained volunteer leaders, the reading and discussion groups aim to teach children to read interpretatively and discover new meanings in written work.

This year, though, the program is short one leader. The PTO is extending an invitation to any members of the community who would like to share their experience and interest with the Monteth program.

Registration is being taken now for a two-day Basic Leader Training Course to be held in January. The course is open to interested adults, regardless of educational background, who will commit themselves to co-lead a Great Books course within six months.

Established in 1947, as an independent, non-profit educational organization, the Great Books Foundation selects and publishes series of traditional and modern works for discussion groups. The books are suited to the interest and reading level of each particular grade.

Currently working in the Monteth project are Mrs. Frank Krembel, Mrs. William Fleming, Mrs. Hamilton Kobichaud, Mrs. Sam Minnella, Mrs. Robert Waldeck, Mrs. Alex Fish and Ed Haug.

For more information about Junior Great Books and how to become a leader, call Mrs. Krembel at 886-5091 after 6 p.m.

Shores Police Arrest Driver on Nov. 12

Robert G. Williams, 29, of 15036 Tracey, Detroit, was arrested by a Shores public safety officer on Friday, November 12, at 2:40 a.m. He was charged with driving while under the influence of liquor and operating a motor vehicle while his license was suspended.

The arresting officer, PSO Harry Hamilton, disclosed in his report that he was patrolling south on Michaux lane. He saw Williams, who was driving east on Vernier road at 20 miles an hour, hit the right curb of the road, cross over the centerline onto the west bound lane of the road, cut back and again hit the right curb. PSO Hamilton said he witnessed Williams cross over an island separating north and south bound Lakeshore road, then cut sharply to the right and cross all the lanes before running into the right curb on Lakeshore. The driver was ordered to the curb at Hawthorne, where he stopped.

The officer said as he walked to Williams' vehicle, he detected a strong odor of liquor coming from the car.

Williams was placed under arrest for drunk driving and taken to The Shores station with assistance of two other Shores officers, after which he was conveyed to The Farms station for two breathalyzer tests both of which he failed.

The accused man was returned to The Shores station and issued two violation tickets.

Later in the day, Williams was released after posting a bond of $150 for the first offense, and $50 for the second. He is scheduled to appear in the Shores Municipal Court on Wednesday, December 22.

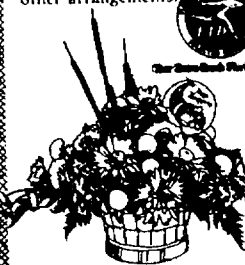

Freedom is an achievement — and like any other achievement it can be lost by indifference.

It's Thanksgiving time.

Send the FTD Thanksgiving Bouquet to the folks back home.

Sending a Thanksgiving Bouquet almost anywhere is as easy as a call or visit to your FTD Florist. (Most accept major credit cards.) It's a wonderful way to reach out and touch friends and loved ones no matter how far away. The FTD Thanksgiving is a flower harvest of fall colors in a keepsake woven mini-bushel basket. It says "I care," "I remembered," as nothing else can.

Thanksgiving usually $12.50 available for less than $12.50
As an independent businessman, each FTD Member Florist sets his own prices.

A beautiful mum plant is another way to say Happy Thanksgiving. It's a specially selected FTD Green Ribbon™ Plant in a woven mini-bushel basket.

Say FTD...and be sure.

Center Hosts 'Winter Magic'

John Jay, great, great, great grandson of George Washington's Secretary of State and the first Chief Justice of the Supreme Court is today's foremost photographer of winter scenes and a raconteur par excellence, reports the War Memorial.

The Center will present Mr. Jay, who will personally narrate his recent motion picture, "Winter Magic Around the World" on Wednesday, Thursday, December 1-2 at 8:15 p.m.

Each night, the shows will be preceded at 7 p.m. by holiday banquets unveiling the Center's huge Christmas trees for the first time.

The complete evenings, dinner and show (with tax and service included), are $10.25 each. The shows only are $2.75 each.

"Winter Magic Around the World" combines the sublime and the ridiculous. It is packed with action and adventure, and loaded with laughter as the camera travels from the solitary grandeur of the Rockies to the sardine-packed winter resorts of Japan and the scenery of the European Alps.

Locations visited include Canada, Vail, Colo., Switzerland, Persia, Australia, New Zealand, Russia and Germany.

Folks with reasons for their actions seldom need excuses.

Summary of The Minutes November 1, 1976

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m.

Present on Roll Call: Mayor James H. Dingeman, Councilmen Harry Fruehauf, Jr., Jack M. Cudlip, Nancy J. Waughman, Joseph L. Fromm, W. James Mast and Lloyd A. Semple.

Those Absent Were: None.

Also Present: Mr. John K. Renke II, representing the City Attorney.

Mayor James H. Dingeman presided at the meeting.

The Council scheduled a Public Hearing before the Zoning Board of Appeals at 8:00 p.m. on Monday, December 20, 1976, for the purpose of hearing the appeal of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Young, from the denial of the Building Department to issue a Permit for the construction of a therapeutic pool building at the rear of their residence located at 24 Fair Acres.

The Council adopted a resolution denying the request of Mr. Gilbert Hudson, on behalf of the residents of Beverly Road, that the City replace the deteriorated brick drainage basins on Beverly Road with new concrete basins, for reason that based upon an existing opinion by the City's legal counsel, such work cannot be done by the City as Beverly Road is a privately-owned road.

The Council approved the low bid of the Vanopdenbosch Construction Company, on a unit price basis, not to exceed a total cost of $17,236.70, for surfacing the parking area located at Calvin and Mack Avenues.

The Council approved the low bid of the Michigan Mutual Liability Insurance Company for furnishing the City with necessary insurance coverage in the total amounts of $16,374.00 for General Liability Insurance coverage; $7,563.00 for Fire Insurance coverage with a deductible amount of $1,000.00; and in the total amount of $12,475.00 for Umbrella Insurance coverage; all of the foregoing coverages to be effective for a period of one year.

The Council adopted a form resolution which will enable the City to participate in the State purchasing contract for salt, and further authorized the Administration to include the City of Grosse Pointe Farms in the State's rock salt bid for this area, at a cost of $10.00 per ton.

The Council adopted a resolution to reschedule the Regular Meetings which will be held in January, 1977, from January 3 and January 17, to January 10 and January 24, 1977.

The Council scheduled a Public Hearing to be held at 8:00 p.m. on January 10, 1977, for the purpose of considering adoption of a proposed Amendment to the City's Fence Ordinance.

The Council scheduled a Public Hearing to be held immediately following the foregoing Public Hearing on January 10, 1977, for the purpose of considering adoption of a proposed Amendment to the City's General Offenses Ordinance.

The Council adopted a resolution providing for a revised fee schedule for site plan review.

Upon proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 11:15 p.m.

SEMTA Offers Bus to Parade

You can save energy and time, avoid the frustration of driving in congested traffic and hunting for a parking space by taking a bus to the J. L. Hudson Thanksgiving Day Parade November 25, says SEMTA, (Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority).

An entire family can board a SEMTA bus from a free suburban parking lot location and ride directly downtown to the special SEMTA parade viewing site at Mack and Woodward avenues. Round trip fare is $1.50 per person. All bus tickets, which are on sale now, must be purchased in advance, and children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

The ticket outlet in The Pointe is the Squirrel's Nest, 19849 Mack avenue, while The Woods Municipal Building, 20025 Mack, is the parking location. The departure time is 8:30 a.m.

For further information, call 962-9800.

Senate Leader Talks to Group

By Susan McDonald

Senate Majority Leader William Fitzgerald told Board of Education trustees and several community leaders they can expect action on a number of issues relating to education in the next session of state congress.

Among the issues Sen. Fitzgerald said he expects the lawmakers to act on, either this term or next, are the 18-year-old drinking age law, revisions of the single business tax and unemployment-workman's compensation laws.

His comments were made at a Board-sponsored luncheon on Wednesday, November 10, attended by about 25 citizens.

Sen. Fitzgerald said a tax hike will probably not be necessary in Michigan next year if certain cost-cutting actions are taken by each branch of the state government.

One of these is a state bonding bill, now in the supreme court, that would allow the government to save $40 million by mortgaging their buildings, the senator said.

Another $40 million in savings could come through legislative closing of a single business tax loophole allowing for the postponement of payment of some taxes at an interest loss to the state, he stated.

The administration's part in the cost-cutting plan, which could slice as much as $60 million of expenditures from the budget, is to correct misuses of the Medicaid and Medicare programs, he said.

"But all these actions have to click, or we may be in for a second and third set of executive budget cuts next year," he said. "And as we're all well aware, the only place cuts can be made are in the education and social security budgets."

Although he said he does not favor raising the drinking age to 21 years, Sen. Fitzgerald stated, "I could be persuaded to move it up to 19 years if the data is there." A state task force is currently preparing a study of the effect of the lower age.

He said that many lawmakers now realize reducing the schools' tax base with the single business tax law was "a mistake" and their efforts to make up the loss, did not go far enough. "The votes are there to change that law soon," he added.

The Fitzgerald luncheon was one of a series sponsored by the Board of Education that included talks with Sen. John C. Hertel, Rep. Joseph M. Snyder and Rep. William R. Bryant Jr.

Police Arrest Drunk Driver

A St. Clair Shores motorist was stopped by Shores public safety officers for exceeding the posted speed limit on the road early Saturday morning, November 13, and was arrested for driving while under the influence of liquor.

Sgt. Stanley Otulakowski and PSO Harry Hamilton said they were patrolling south on Lakeshore at 3 a.m. when they observed a car traveling north at approximately 70 mph, twice the speed limit. The officers, the sergeant driving, turned the scout car at the nearest crossover and gave chase.

The driver, identified as Jackie Harold Haskins, 27, of 22883 Thirteen Mile road, approached Fairlane lane, hit the brakes hard and made a right turn into a private driveway at 1040 Lakeshore. He jumped the curb alongside the driveway and came to a stop in a field between the driveway and stone wall at 1100 Lakeshore.

The officers said the driver was alone and they ordered him out of his auto. The man appeared to be in a state of intoxication and was placed under arrest. He refused to give the officers permission to drive his car to the station and was informed that it would be towed away at his expense.

At The Shores station, Haskins agreed to a breathalyzer test and was taken to The Farms station. He failed one test and refused to take a second which would verify, without doubt, the amount of alcohol in his system.

Returned to The Shores after the refusal, Haskins was issued a "violation ticket for driving while under the influence of liquor. When he sobered up, he was required to post a bond of $150 pending a court hearing scheduled for Wednesday, December 8.

It cost him another $15 for fees to haul his car to the police pound at the rear of the Village Municipal Building. The car was returned to him later in the day.

Hospital Trees Honor Doctors

Five hybrid locust trees, planted in the center of Cottage Hospital parking lot, have been designated as memorials to men who served as presidents of the Cottage medical staff.

They have been given by the present Medical Staff to honor Dr. Fred O. Lepley, who served as the staff's president in 1935 and 1936; Dr. Herbert C. Allison who served as the staff's president in 1943, 1944, 1945 and 1946; Dr. John M. MacKenzie, who was the president in 1941 and 1942; Dr. Kenneth M. McColl, the staff president in 1949 and 1950; and Dr. Clarence J. Williams, president of the staff in 1953.

Plaques will be placed on each tree, bearing the name of the person memorialized and the years he served as president of the medical staff.

Motor City Business Women Meet Nov. 17

Motor City Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association scheduled its monthly dinner meeting for Wednesday, November 17, at the University Club.

Guest speaker was Thomas G. Ferree, Commander of Recruiting for the Detroit Police Department. Doris Munroe gave the evening's vocational talk, discussing her job with the IRS.

Cocktails at 5:30 p.m. were followed by dinner at 6. Guests were welcome to attend.

Taste Barrier Broken.

'Enriched Flavor' breakthrough ends struggle to bring taste to low tar smoking.

For years, dependency on tar for taste has created a taste barrier for low tar smoking.

Now that barrier has been broken. Broken for good by a remarkable new cigarette called MERIT.

MERIT is packed with 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco.

The result of a radical new discovery so successful at boosting flavor, MERIT actually delivers the taste of cigarettes having more tar.

Up to 60% more tar.

Yet MERIT has only 9 mg. of tar. One of the lowest tar levels in smoking today.

Tests Verify Taste

MERIT was taste-tested against current leading low tar brands ranging from 11 mg. to 15 mg. tar.

Thousands of smokers were involved. The majority report: even if the cigarette tested had up to 60% more tar than MERIT, MERIT still delivered as much—or more—taste.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough.

Now smoke the cigarette.

SHS Gridders Trip North, 6-3

By Bob Stockwell

The South High School Blue Devils upset North High School, 6-3, on Saturday, November 13, at North.

Outstanding punts by "Rocketfoot" Rick Baker, including one 64 yarder, highlighted the action. North blocked a South punt near the end of the half setting up a field goal. The half ended with a 3-0 score favoring North.

Both defensive teams controlled the third quarter with no additional scoring. Junior defensive tackle Tom Patzer, made several key tackles and recovered a North fumble.

The two offenses came to life in the fourth quarter. Defensive tackle Al Jones recovered a North fumble on North's 38-yard line, and Tom Nihem threw a TD pass to John Olbeter for South's only score with 5:09 left in the game. That put South ahead 6-3.

Baker played his best game, kicking several great punts and intercepting two North passes. Linebackers Chris Fielding, Nino Tocco, Brian Myers and Bob Gough were inspired tacklers.

Linemen Patzer, Grant Piche, Rich Almond, Al Jones and Ken Stockwell stopped runners cold. Penetrating runs were made by Dan Schwarz, Pat Corbett, Dave Hollarbach, Paul Genter, Tim Brouillard, Doug Skipp and Tom Birk.

Top offensive linemen were Tocco, Jones, Olbeter, Piche, Reinhard Motte, Rob Hermes, Mitch Shirar and Tom Heidt.

South had five players named to the Eastern Michigan League All-League team. Those honored were Jones, offensive guard, Tocco, offensive end, Myers, safety, Fielding, linebacker and Stockwell, defensive end.

Olbeter, Piche, Corbett and Nihem received All-League Honorable Mention.

The following players played their last game in a South football uniform: Gough, Myers, Baker, Rob Dotson, Brouillard, Joe Boloy, Hollarbach, Dave Moore, Genter, Bill Harrity, Tom Gutwald, Phil Gilbert, Motte, Jon Currie, Rich Almond, Fielding, Jones, Shirar, Jerry Suminski, Jay Huebner, Hermes, Bob Conlan, Tocco, Tom Birk, Piche, Heidt, Doug Skipp and Olbeter.

Coach Russ Hepner was pleased with South's winning 6-3 record this year, feeling they played very well in all their games except for East Detroit. Coach Hepner said, "Grosse Pointe is very fortunate to have so many intelligent, highly motivated boys coming from interested and involved families."

It is the football players of GP South that are fortunate — by having such an outstanding coach as Hepner, along with his fine assistant coaches: John Rice, Al Moebus and Bob Schroeder.

Bob Evanski from North reports that many seniors played their last football game in a North jersey.

North took second place in the Bi-County League this season with a 6-3 record.

Billy Graham Crusade Leaves Impact on Lives

It was much like Daniel in the lion's den, reports the Southeastern Michigan Billy Graham Crusade office in a news release. Mr. Graham, his team and guest singers and speakers were in the lair of the Detroit Lions—the Pontiac Silverdome Stadium.

Usually the huge stadium reverberates with cheers for the Lions. But for the 10 days of the crusade held last month, it was filled with Christian hymns, testimonies and preaching.

People came from miles around to hear the evangelist preach the simple gospel, to listen to sacred songs sung by George Beverly Shea, Evie Tornquist, Myrtle Hall, Kim Wickes, Andrae Crouch, Johnny and June Carter Cash, Norma Zimmer, the Murk Family, the 3,000-voice choir directed by Cliff Barrows with Ted Smith at the piano and Don Hustad at the organ, and even Detroit Lions quarterback, Joe Reed.

Other guests included former White House aide Charles Colson, paralyzed artist Joni Eareckson and football players from rival schools, the University of Michigan and Michigan State University.

At the conclusion of each of Mr. Graham's sermons, hundreds streamed out of the stands, down long aisles and onto the football field to commit their lives to Christ.

Harold C. MacDonald, chairman of the executive committee of the crusade, said the percentage of each audience responding to the invitation was unusually high. He said one night it was six percent, with the average number for each service, over 1,400 persons.

The crusade faced some unique problems. The very size of the stadium, described as the world's largest air-supported covered stadium capable of seating over 80,000 persons, presented a hearing problem.

Audio engineering experts for the Billy Graham Evangelistic Assoc. considered it one of the most difficult stadiums they had encountered in which to provide articulate, pleasing sound. The other stadium was in Brussels, Belgium.

The location of the stadium presented another challenge. It was 30 miles from downtown Detroit, where some local leaders believed the real problems were, and where the biggest crowds might have been attracted. After considering all factors, the local committee had decided Pontiac Stadium was the best available site.

Added to the problems of the stadium were other factors, such as the geographic fragmentation of the population, the lack of an existing organization to unify the churches, the Ford Motor Co. strike, the political campaigns and debates, the baseball world series and failure of the large Detroit newspapers to see the crusade as a local story.

But the Graham team and the local committee met the challenges, bringing in a special sound system that beamed 1,600 watts of audio power from field level up into the stands and installing a large screen high above the platform so that those sitting across the stadium could see an enlarged picture of Mr. Graham.

The team also organized 4,000 prayer groups, emphasizing "Operation Andrew" which brought in tens of thousands by church and school buses, broadcasted a daily radio program and placed full-page ads in the newspapers.

The results were gratifying. Mr. MacDonald said, "We had hoped that we would have attendances somewhat larger than we have had, but we're thrilled and pleased at the response."

He said the significant result was the new life brought to the churches, since the crusade made every effort to work through the churches. "I think this is going to be perhaps the most meaningful and lasting thing that has happened, or will have happened."

Mr. MacDonald feels the crusade will have a direct impact on the inner city of Detroit. "As people are stirred up and they continue to minister through the outreach of their individual churches and as individuals, I'm certain it's going to have a definite impact not only on the city of Detroit, but all the other suburbs."

The crowds that came to Pontiac Stadium during the crusade averaged 36,000 and when either Mr. Graham or Mr. Barrows asked in each service that every person there for the first time wave their program sheets, it looked as though a majority were in that category.

But the crusade story was not in numbers. It was in changed lives, as Mr. Graham urged his listeners in each service to pay a price, to leave everything and follow Christ—"To do something that looks foolish . . . to come forward and accept Christ by faith."

"When you come to Christ," he said, "old things will pass away and everything become new. A change takes place."

Mr. Graham cited specific examples from this crusade: a family of five that drove 120 miles to make a public commitment to Christ, and a 23-year-old divorced man who had accepted Christ after seeing a Billy Graham film and came forward in the crusade as a public gesture of his belief.

Other examples were a 92-year-old lady who needed assistance to make her way from the stands to the platform on the football field, saying she had wanted the born again experience all of her life but didn't know what it was, a factory worker who came forward with his wife declaring he had made his choice for God and a 74-year-old man who had gone to church all of his life, but had never known Christ personally.

These were but a few of the thousands. Many were young people. Veteran crusade workers noted that an unusual number of inquiries were men, heads of households, and they were struck by the number of entire families coming forward, sometimes one member accepting Christ on one night and bringing the family the next night.

Those who made decisions are not left to find their way alone. Counselors will be meeting with them, churches will invite them, radio programs will offer instruction and encouragement, literature will be sent and they will be urged to attend neighborhood Bible study groups.

As Mr. Graham and his team prepared to leave, and as the sound system was being dismantled and the projection screen was being lowered, the work of the crusade merely shifted to the area churches, to the homes and the schools, the factories and offices, and to millions of television screens, as the Southeastern Michigan Billy Graham Crusade will be televised in March 1977.

Perhaps, as fans of the Detroit Lions sit in those same seats in the stadium in future weeks, they will remember what was on the animated electric scoreboard during the crusade: "I am the way, the truth and the life."

And perhaps they will hear still echoing around the playing field the chorus which closed each crusade service, "Let's just praise the Lord . . . Let's just lift our hearts to heaven and praise the Lord."

The future and the past have a lot in common with the present.

South JV's Top North by 18-12

By Joe Szyc

The North High JV football team defeated South Wednesday, November 10, 18-12. The win increased North's record to 6-3 for the season.

North scored first after Bill Fleming and John Pierick blocked a Blue Devil punt. John Brucia then took it in for a touchdown making the score 6-0.

The next TD for the Norsemen came on a nine-yard scramble by quarterback Pierick, and at the half North led 12-0.

A bad punt in the second half gave the ball to South on the Norsemen 18-yard line. After five plays, South quarterback Bob Baker threw to Jim Heidt for the touchdown, making it 12-6.

The Devils then kicked off and the Norsemen began a 63-yard drive for a touchdown. John Brucia had several key runs, rushing for 124 yards in the game. He also scored his second touchdown of the game on a seven-yard run.

Brucia broke North's JV rushing record with 975 yards this season. He averaged over 100 yards a game.

The final touchdown came with 40 seconds left as Heidt got his second TD of the game.

THE PARK PHARMACY
Footnotes
by Fred Seltzer R.Ph.
THE PARK PHARMACY

Diabetes can be detected by the physician in its beginning stages before symptoms are apparent to the individual. Regular physical examinations provide the opportunity for early detection. Diabetes shows when the kidneys eliminate excessive amount of sugar which accumulates in the blood. This means that tissues lack an adequate energy supply. The result is a constant feeling of hunger, and in weight loss, and the tendency to tire easily. Excessive itching, a change in vision, wounds that do not heal readily — these are all symptoms of diabetes.

Bring your prescriptions to THE PARK PHARMACY, 15321 E. Jefferson, Grosse Pointe Park, for prompt, personalized and professional service! As a convenience to our customers, we maintain full "patient profile" records of your allergies and other health data. These records are a safeguard in filling your prescriptions and also help you to obtain proper credit at income tax time. Visit THE PARK PHARMACY for greeting cards, baby supplies and liquor, beer or wine. We also have all kinds of convalescent aids for sale or rental. Call us at 822-2580. We are open daily until 8 P.M., Fridays and Saturdays until 9 P.M., and on Sundays from 10 A.M. until 3 P.M.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

This week I am using this space to inform the community of an overnight conference involving the administrative staff and Board of Education for the purpose of discussing and clarifying immediate goals for the Grosse Pointe Public School System.

The meeting, to begin Friday night, November 19, will last through Saturday noon, and will consist of two intensive working sessions of a far-ranging nature.

On Friday night, we will discuss "Accountability in Education — The General to the Specific." The Saturday morning session will focus on "Goals and Objectives of the Grosse Pointe Public School System."

I have recently completed meetings with the staff in each building, citizen groups throughout the community and student representatives in an effort to develop a better understanding of the needs of the school system as viewed by these groups.

Of course I meet with two other important groups—the administrative staff and the Board on a regular and frequent basis.

The purpose of the planned conference is to bring into focus the concerns and preferences of our community as a whole.

As a "springboard" for the conference I met with the Board of Education in executive session on Monday to review the document containing Grosse Pointe Public Schools' Goals and Priorities for 1975-76 to see what was accomplished in the last year and what should be done in the future.

Such gatherings as the overnight meeting to be held in St. Clair are necessary from time to time because of the Board members' work schedules and the day to day demands on the system's administrative staff.

This session will enable us to gather input from the entire management component of the school system, to understand better our common objectives and to work more effectively as a team.

While we normally do not require administrators to devote Friday evenings and Saturday to school business, I am pleased that every single administrator and Board member will be in attendance.

A primary function of the school system is to meet the needs of students and citizens through the duly elected Board of Education trustees. These individuals establish general guidelines and policies which provide the framework within which the management team develops and implements appropriate administrative procedures.

The purpose of the upcoming meeting is to engage in dialog and discussion necessary to understand and sary to understand and clarify issues so that the Board of Education and all administrative personnel operate on the same frequency—in line with the wishes of the community.

Five Pointes Will Share $190,028 from State Fund

The five Pointes will share a total of $190,028, according to a quarterly report submitted on Thursday, November 11, by the State Highway Commission.

Increased tax revenues, plus interest accumulated in the state's Motor Vehicle Highway Fund, produced more money for road purposes in the three-month period ending September 30, the report showed.

After deductions for grants and administrative costs, $111,572,496 is being distributed among the Department of State Highways and Transportation, the 83 county road commissions and the 531 incorporated cities and villages. The sum is 11.1 percent

Turn Attention To Rape Crisis

A joint meeting of the Auxiliaries of Harper Hospital and Children's Hospital of Michigan, held last Thursday, November 11, in the Children's Hospital auditorium, focused on "The Rape Crisis."

Members of the staff of the Rape Counseling Center showed a film and presented an overall view of the crime. They reported on new programs to improve the services given to rape victims, discussed myths concerning rape and offered information regarding prevention and other aspects of rape.

Helaine Shatnoff, of Children's Hospital's Social Services Department, described circumstances of and services given to children and adolescents who receive treatment in Children's Emergency Room for sex-related problems. A question-and-answer period followed her presentation.

All personnel in the Medical Center hospitals were invited to attend.

The Rape Counseling Center serves the Detroit-Wayne County area, offering counseling and services 24 hours a day to victims of sexual assault.

Co-chairpersons for last Thursday's program were Mrs. Paul Ruble, of East Jefferson avenue, acting program chairman for the Harper Hospital Auxiliary, and Mrs. James Ziegenfuss, of Country Club drive, president of Children's Hospital Auxiliary.

Many Play Roles in SHS Self-Evaluation Report

By Susan McDonald

A year of intensive self-study at South High School involving the entire staff, dozens of students and parents, ended last week with the visit of a 24-member North Central Assoc., (NCA), evaluation team.

The team, made up of outstanding Michigan educators in every field, was greeted at a Barrister House reception on Tuesday, November 9. Their report, due later this year, will be based on the facts and feelings gathered in South's self-evaluation in addition to their own observations over a two-day period.

Former Grosse Pointe Education Assoc., (GPEA), president, Carl Lord, headed the local NCA committee this year. He began organizing the program in October 1975, inviting all staff members to work on at least one of the 19 sub-committees formed to study every curriculum at South.

Students were recruited for sub-committee work through their student association. In addition about 400 students were surveyed. One hundred parents were asked to fill out anonymous questionnaires about their child's education at South. About 50 returned the forms.

Parents' main concerns centered on the area of discipline and student conduct. Academically, most were quite satisfied, although some considered the program too college-oriented.

Conclusions about the quality of education and suggestions for improvement were drawn up by a three-member group appointed by Mr. Lord. Included were Walter Mackey, Frances French and Dr. Robert Hanson.

The panel concluded the major factors hindering improvement of curriculum at South are the financial crisis and decreased teacher morale, as a result of unsuccessful negotiations.

Their statement points to physical building limitations, (especially in the area of the arts); central office neglect of teacher input in determining financial priorities; and lack of long-range planning as areas in which South most needs improvement.

The conclusion also notes limitations due to a decrease in staff morale due to the annual "pink-slip syndrome"; a lack of follow-up on instructional programs; and lack of inter-building coordination of curriculum.

The appointment of a new director of secondary education and establishment of a testing system, of kindergarten through 12th grade scope, are steps that will improve the program at South, the report says.

Renovations of the industrial arts building were called a number one priority for South.

Mr. Lord said the opinions expressed in the conclusion were representative of those submitted by all the sub-committees.

On the positive side, the conclusion cites a well-trained staff, a supportive community and loyal student body as big pluses on South's behalf.

Staff volunteers who headed up area committees were Julia Maighan, Kathryn Sheedy, Alma Fleming, Edward Franco, Louane Beynon, Eugene Wolonick, Donald Yerkes, Leonard Riccinto, Charles Hollosy, Frank Banovetz, James Kaloger, Gerald Morrison, Jean Campbell, Elizabeth Reed, James Garlough, Donald Messing, Elaine Christensen and Kathleen Herschmann.

One View from the Capitol

By William R. Bryant Jr.

The recent news about a conditionally promised $600 million federal aid for rapid transit was disturbing to me.

We had just finished passage, in the state legislature, of the SEMTA package of bills. Part of our quid pro quo was assurances from SEMTA and Detroit that they either would back off seeking to have a subway or, at least, would not seek one without further legislative approval.

Then, bang, right after we pass the bills all the headlines are about $600 million for a subway.

My problem with the idea of constructing a subway from downtown to the New Center area has been the construction cost overruns and excessive operational cost burdens of other recent rapid transit systems, most notably Washington, D.C.

I could see a shiny new subway empty except for two muggers each beating the other senseless trying to rob each other.

So the economics of rapid transit scares me, aside from the "gift" of federal money, which after all, are our tax dollars anyway.

But I'm trying to keep an open mind on the overall worth of some form of rapid transit from the Renaissance

What Goes On at Your Library

By Arthur Woodford
Chief of Central Library

This is the ninth of a 10-part series entitled "Bicentennial Biographies." The subject of this week's column is The Sons of Liberty.

The Sons of Liberty were secret colonial societies that sprang up in 1765 to protest and nullify the Stamp Act. They took their name from Isaac Barre's speech opposing the act in the House of Commons as Barre had closed his speech with a reference to the colonists as "those sons of liberty."

These groups began simultaneously in scattered communities, an indication that while leadership was an important factor in agitating American independence, there existed among the people a considerable discontent which had been aggravated by parliamentary interference. New York and Boston had two of the most energetic and spirited chapters.

The Sons of Liberty constituted the extralegal enforcement arm of the movement for colonial self-government. Members circulated patriotic petitions, tarred and feathered violators of patriotic decrees and intimidated British officials and their families.

They stimulated a consciousness of colonial grievances by propaganda. They conducted funerals of patriots killed in street brawls. They promoted picnics, dinners and rallies, drank toasts to the honor of historic leaders of liberty, sang songs, denounced British tyranny and hanged unpopular officials in effigy.

Upon discovery of governmental impotency, they issued semiofficial decrees of authority, and impudently summoned royal officials to Liberty Trees to explain their conduct to the people.

Notwithstanding faults, the organization was a vigorous recrudescence in man's age-long struggle to improve his economic and political conditions.

Probably one of the most well known "sons of liberty" was Boston's Samuel Adams and his story is told in Cass Canfield's new book SAM ADAMS' REVOLUTION, (Harper and Row).

This lively narrative recreates the exciting events of the period between the passage of the Stamp Act and the Battle of Lexington, when Samuel Adams was a dominant force in unifying colonial sentiment. The book also includes a graphic picture of life in the colonies at the time, Adams' part in the First and Second Continental Congresses and the role he played during the first 12 months of the Revolution.

Long underestimated by American historians, Samuel Adams receives in this book his just due and the place he deserves in the heroic period which culminated in the Declaration of Independence.

GEORGE MASON: GENTLEMAN REVOLUTIONARY, (University of North Carolina), by Helen Hill Miller, is an excellent new biography of a "son of liberty" from Virginia.

Mason, best known to historians as the author of the Virginia Declaration of Rights, a forerunner of the Bill of Rights of the U.S. Constitution, was the oldest of that brilliant group of radicals from Virginia who provided much of the intellectual structure for the independence movement and the Constitution that launched the new American Republic.

Mason died in 1792, at a time when Jefferson, Madison, Marshall and Monroe were emerging as leaders of the newly united country; for this reason, his name has often been forgotten while theirs survived.

Relying on original American and European sources, some of them not previously available to historians, Mrs. Miller has written a lively biography that describes in fine detail the life of George Mason, and the social, political and economic world in which he lived as planter and statesman.

Another "son of liberty" who is best remembered for his silversmithing, his engravings and his famous ride, is Paul Revere. Ester Forbes' PAUL REVERE AND THE WORLD HE LIVED IN, (Houghton), is not only a biography of Revere, the diligent patriot, but also a panorama of 18th century Boston.

This book brings Paul Revere to life as a full-blooded personality, offers a rich storehouse of information about his times, retells many of the stirring incidents of the pre-revolutionary period, (including his famous ride), and provides an informal history of the American Revolution.

Although this biography is now more than 30-years-old, (it was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for history in 1943), it is a book that can be read and enjoyed again and again.

Kulaja Cited By Hospital

Doctors Hospital recently honored administrator Jerry Kulaja, of Stonehurst road, for his efforts in the expansion and modernization of its downtown medical facility.

In recognition of his service, the board of trustees of the hospital passed a resolution dedicating the hospital's conference room in his honor.

The public dedication was held Friday morning, November 5, with speakers representing the board of trustees, the medical staff and various hospital employees. The dedication included the unveiling of a personal portrait of Mr. Kulaja, while the hospital's employee of the year, Mrs. Nancy Novak, presented him with a bronze plaque.

He has been the administrator of Doctors Hospital since 1954. Prior to his appointment as Doctors, he functioned as both hospital consultant and administrator to medical facilities in Michigan and Iowa.

In 1939, he was graduated from Michigan State University and served as a Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army from 1943-1944. He holds membership in the American College of Hospital Administrators, the Greater Detroit Hospital Council, the American Hospital Assoc. and the Michigan Hospital Assoc.

He has been appointed as a certified judge for the American Orchid Society and the American Rose Society and has been elected to the office of trustee of the American Orchid Society.

A new term of adult ballet will begin at the War Memorial Center on Monday, November 29. Classes will be held Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings through February 17. The fee is $28 for the series.

At this time, there also are a few openings for children in the daytime classes held after regular school and on Saturdays.

The Center has been refurbishing its ballet studio so students will find a new mirror wall, new ceiling and lights and a bright, new paint job.

Mary Ellen Cooper, ballet instructor, is pleased with the improvements which the Center feels she deserves after 20 years of service in The Pointe.

According to the latest corporate earnings reports, the jewelry business is booming. All segments of the industry report rising sales. And why? It turns out that Americans are more than ever interested in what is beautiful and lasting, from silver and china-ware to the traditional diamond, watches, and jewelry of all sorts. When was the last time you bought something for the sake of its beauty and durability? Remember that gifts that last are the ones that are most appreciated, and end up being saved for generations.

If you have any antique jewelry, bring it in for appraisal at VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800. You can leave your antique jewelry and object of art with us on consignment and we can help you discreetly dispose of old or unwanted jewelry. If you own diamonds, they are likely to appreciate in value, so make sure that you are fully insured for them.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

When Mrs. Arthur O. A. Schmidt, president of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center, appointed Mrs. John C. Cook general chairman of the 1976 Berry Memorial Lecture and Luncheon in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium and Crystal Ballroom, Mrs. Cook immediately asked Mrs. Wesley R. Johnson and Mrs. John W. Mulford to assist her.

The secret of a successful project, (as anyone who's run one will attest), is putting together a good committee, and this year's Berry Lecture ladies have put together a smashing one.

Their chairmen include Mrs. Daniel J. Clifford, in charge of the luncheon, Mrs. David N. Viger and Mrs. John Veech, luncheon table decorations, and Mrs. David C. Lowe, hostesses.

Mrs. Lane Donovan is handling finances, Mrs. James A. Lafer publicity, Mrs. Charles A. Parcells Garden Center Newsletter publicity, Mrs. George J. Rapp, Mrs. Harry W. Frost and Miss Marie Louise Anderson, the Garden Center's founding president in 1950, membership chairman to this day, handled invitations and mailing.

It's all for nought, of course, if the project's a dud, but the '76 Berry Lecture ladies don't have to worry about THAT. Their speaker is Robert Miller, assistant director of grounds and buildings at Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum.

He'll illustrate his talk, "Traditional Holiday Decorations Updated," with slides, and bring along several sample arrangements, to be given away at the subscription luncheon following the lecture.

Everything happens tomorrow, Friday, November 19: the admission-free lecture at 11, luncheon, by reservation, at 12:45 o'clock.

Poinsettia, Anyone?

And while we're on the subject of Holiday Decorations... what could be more traditional than the poinsettia? You don't even have to update it: it just IS, as it's always been, the biggest, brightest of midwinter blooms.

This year, for the first time, (we predict it won't be the last), Operation LINC is sponsoring a Christmas Poinsettia Sale. Red or white poinsettias may be ordered at $7 a plant. All orders must be received by Friday, December 3.

The plants may be picked up on Thursday, (Continued on Page 32)

Studio Clare's Wax-Cast Ornaments from Antique Cookie Molds to be Featured at International Bazaar

The International Institute's Original Annual Old World Market opens today, Thursday, November 18, and will run through Sunday, November 21, at the International Institute in East Kirby street, just north of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Hours are noon to 10 o'clock Thursday through Saturday, noon to 9 Sunday.

Each year, the Market tries to do something "different." This year will feature a new layout of booths and craft demonstrations, new kinds of food in new quarters, and a Continental cafe offering wine, beer, light refreshments and entertainment.

Among the exhibitors is Grosse Pointe's own Clare Morison, who creates charming Christmas ornaments and accessories: elegant wax castings originally drawn from antique wooden cookie molds, reflecting the imagination and craftsmanship of a German folk art almost 500 years old.

Studio Clare began as a hobby two years ago, as Clare's way of picking up extra cash between jobs.

"Now I'm working 15 hours a day instead of eight," she reports, "but getting a first class business education—and a sense of satisfaction beyond compare."

She acquired the original master casts of the molds about 10 years ago, while traveling after a summer job in Pompeii. The original wooden molds remain in museum collections in Europe.

Clare particularly enjoys researching the meaning and history behind the patterns, and sleuthing out new collections in the United States and Europe. "Finally: a practical application for several years of art history education!"

The art was ignored for many years, the molds scattered or destroyed. Some damaged pieces have required reconstruction, and (Continued on Page 22)

To Marry

Mr. and Mrs. August Zampich, of Nottingham road, have announced the engagement of their daughter CHRISTINA LYNN ZAMPICH to BRUCE EDWARD ANSON, son of the Milo Ansons, of Fenton. A December 26 wedding is planned.

The bride-elect, graduated from Grosse Pointe South High School in 1970 and Michigan State University in 1974, is presently attending California's Rosemead Graduate School of Psychology.

Her fiancé, a 1969 alumnus of Lake Fenton High School, was graduated this year from the Culinary Institute of America, Hyde Park, N.Y.

Will Wed

At an October cocktail party in their Ghesquiere court home, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Smith announced the engagement of their daughter CONSTANCE to Dr. Walter Liskiewicz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Liskiewicz, of Taylor. A June wedding is planned.

Miss Smith received her Bachelor of Science degree from Hillsdale College, and is presently a sophomore in the University of Michigan School of Dentistry, from which her fiancé received his Dental degree. He is currently enrolled in a Graduate Oral Surgery program at the University of Michigan Dental School.

Mrs. Claus and Friends

FLORENCE ERICSON, better known as "Mrs. Claus," cradles five-year-old JENNIFER LEE and three-year-old SARA BROGAN, (left and right), in her lap, as "Christmas Carol" LOU ANN PORTINCASA smiles approval. The little girls are being treated to a preview of this year's Santa Luncheon, 12th in the annual series sponsored by Grosse Pointe's Alpha Xi Deltas as a benefit for the Foundation for Exceptional Children and the Family Life Education Council—and a "fun" afternoon for the community's youngsters. The luncheon is set for Saturday, December 4, from noon to 2 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Ballroom. Reservations at $3 per child must be made by calling 884-1368 by Tuesday, November 23. No tickets will be sold at the door.

St. John Berchmans Sodality Stages Fair

St. John Berchmans' Christian Women's Sodality will present a holiday bazaar Sunday, November 21, from 9 in the morning to 6 in the evening in the Servite High School gym.

Handmade needlework and boutique items will be featured, plus Christmas decorations and arts and crafts, baked goods and house plants. There will be a White Elephant sale and a Sew 'n' Save, (yard goods), department, and Santa will be on hand between 1 and 4 o'clock in the Children Only shop.

Snacks and a spaghetti dinner, at $2.50 for adults, $1 for children 10 and under, will be served from noon until 6 o'clock.

Pointe Book Club Gathers

Mrs. William Baird opened her North Renaud road home Monday, November 15, at noon, to members of the Pointe Book Club. Co-hostesses were Mrs. George Baer and Mrs. Fred Kaess.

Following the luncheon and business meeting, Mrs. John McCreight reviewed "I Take Thee Serenity" by Daisy Newman.

June Bride

Plans for a June wedding, in California, are being made by KATHLEEN ANN WRIGHT and Albert Louis Speetles, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Wright, of Roslyn road.

Both the bride-elect and her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Speetles, of Devon, Pa., reside in Redondo Beach, Calif.

Miss Wright is an English teacher at Henry T. Gage Junior High School in Huntington Park, Calif. The prospective bridegroom is continuing his education at El Camino College.

Pewabic Sale Opens Sunday

The annual Christmas show and sale at Pewabic Pottery, Michigan State University's adult ceramic school in East Jefferson avenue, opens this Sunday, November 21, and will feature ceramic works by professionals and students, on display from noon to 5 o'clock opening day and noon to 4:30 o'clock daily, except Sundays, through December 31.

Also available during the show will be copies of Pointer Lillian Pear's history of Pewabic, a natural historic site which the University has been restoring for 10 years.

Admission to the pottery, including the Pewabic Museum, and parking are free.

30% TAX DEDUCTIBLE CRUISE

The 17,000 ton MTS Daphne's two week Caribbean cruise on January 29 is a Project HOPE Benefit Cruise that qualifies passengers for a 30% tax deduction. Fares have not been increased for this special cruise. Project HOPE is a non-profit corporation devoted to providing Health Care instruction to developing countries. Ports of call will be Santo Tomas, Guatemala, gateway to the impressive Mayan ruins of Tikal and Copan, San Andres, a tiny island possession of Columbia, Cartagena, Colombia, the 16th century walled city, the Dutch Island of Curacao for great duty-free shopping, and tranquil Port Antonio, Jamaica. Inside the Mothers Club

The executive board of the Grosse Pointe South High School Mothers' Club met November 1. President Mrs. Gerald E. Warren called special attention to the club's need for operating capital. The campaign for full membership will continue.

Toni Roesch, chairman of the Ninth Grade Mixer, reported that the parent committee for the November 12 party in South High's big gym included the Mesdames Spindler, Chalot, Edlund, Payne, Karagay, Smith, Robinson and Loy.

Freshman class members Amy Jay, Bob Urban, Julie Carozze, Lisa Poplawski, Lise Nuyen, Stacy Osmun, Lee Robinson, Heidi Roesch, Ginna Berry, Karen Oliver, Sheila Ravary, Sandy Loy, Elise Poirer, Gena Payne, Sharon Ravary and Peggy Schreiber helped to choose the band, decorations, tickets and prizes.

The joint North and South High Schools' Christmas Tea and Concert will be presented December 1. South chairman Jan Coulter described plans for decorations and refreshments. There is no charge for admission and the entire community is invited.

Congratulations were proffered to Leaf Bag sale co-chairmen Mrs. Cross and Mrs. Kelly. All leaf bags have been sold. The fall project was a success, and a full report will be given at the December board meeting.

Mrs. Charles R. Boyce, chairman of Homecoming, is hosting a meeting of all parent sponsors, float home parents and faculty advisors of Homecoming committees. They hope to get ideas for next year.

The students sent a note thanking the mothers for their help with the pancake breakfast, served free to faculty and alumni on Homecoming morning.

One thousand seven hundred thirty-five Newsletters were mailed and 170 hand-distributed last month. Seventy-five to 100 hours are consumed in the preparation of the Newsletter each month.

Dr. James Hoeh, principal of South High School, estimated that attendance was less than last year at Back-to-School night, with perhaps one-quarter to one-third of the students represented by a parent or parents.

Neighborhood groups—sewing, bridge, and discussion—now total 28. Mrs. Sargent and her committee have interesting programs arranged,

Women Reach To Recovery

All "Reach to Recovery" volunteers, women who visit mastectomy patients in hospitals in the tri-county area, have been invited to participate in the annual Reach to Recovery Award Luncheon sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

The program begins at noon today, Thursday, November 18, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

and very favorable comments have been received. All parents are invited to attend.

Mrs. Martin Oetting, Volunteer chairman, announced that 81 volunteer jobs are filled, with 60 mothers working in the library, the English and Social Studies resource centers, the counseling office and Biology, and 21 mothers serving regularly in the health clinic.

Mrs. Ellwyn Gilbert, Mothers' Club board representative to the School Board, feels that more parents should attend School Board meetings in order to seek out facts about the very complex issues involved in the current negotiations.

Dr. Hoeh introduced Sheila Joyce, the new assistant principal. Mrs. Joyce described her job as the coordination of all student activities, except athletics, and in addition, the ninth graders' curriculum, orientation and discipline.

Following the regular meeting, members of the board and approximately 25 members of other community organizations participated in a Criminal Justice Forum, sponsored by National Bank of Detroit and the Citizens Research Council of Michigan.

This forum began with a movie which presented prominent figures in the field who gave their views on such aspects of the problem as bail, mandatory sentences, parole and plea bargaining.

A booklet and summary statements accompany the

Pointe Soroptimists Host District III

Members of Soroptimist International, Inc., of Grosse Pointe served as hostesses for a recent District III meeting of the international businesswomen's organization, delegates from all Soroptimist clubs in southwestern Michigan gathered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for an all-day session of meetings and workshops. Among the special guests were MARY ANN OSMOND, of firm, as well as a question-naire for viewers to fill out and return to the Citizens Research Council.

The Council, in turn, will forward results to appropriate state and local authorities.

This program was presented with the hope that the several organizations attending would present it to their groups and organizations, giving many citizens an opportunity to express their views and concerns about crime.

Following the movie, three members of the Youth Service Division, Detectives Pat Fagan, Wayne Baum and John Albrecht, were introduced.

Detective Baum discussed juvenile justice in general and, in particular, his own proposal to take juvenile crime out of the Probate Court and have all misdemeanor charges handled by the local or district court.

He has sent this proposal to Representative William Bryant, Representative Her-tel and Senator Joseph Snyder of the Michigan Legislature, and urged that citizens write these legislators to request legislation along these lines.

Mrs. Warren announced a Criminal Justice meeting sponsored by the Junior League, to be held this month featuring the police chiefs of the five Grosse Pointes.

The program for the December meeting of the Mothers' Club board will feature Jon Rice. His presentation, "Have You Done Your Homework?" will focus on why study? when to study, how to study and reality: Students and Parents, what do kids really do.

The meeting will be held Monday, December 6, at South High.

Slate Cantata Choir Concert

Dr. Phil Feringa, of Westchester road, is one of 40 singers who make up the Cantata Academy of Metropolitan Detroit, a chamber music choir which will present its first concert of the season at 8 o'clock Sunday, November 21, at Orchestra Hall.

The program will include the American premier of a mass, "Dixit Maria," by Hans Leo Hassler, (1569-1612), made possible by the gift of the score to the Cantata Academy by a German colleague during the choir's tour in Germany last spring.

Also to be featured are works from the 16th century to the present, by Carissimi, Geisler, Seiber, Randall Thompson, Robert Washburn, Ned Rorem and Lloyd Pfautsch, the latter including an obligato flute part, to be played by Shelley Gilbert.

Accompanist will be Joan Haggard. The Academy's conductor is Frederick Bellinger.

Tickets at $7, $5 and $4 for senior citizens and students may be obtained at all Hudson's ticket centers, and at Orchestra Hall box office the day of the performance.

Offer French Film Comedy

"The Tall Blond Man with One Black Shoe," a French film with English subtitles, will be presented Sunday, November 21, at 3 o'clock in the auditorium of University Liggett School's Cook road campus, by the Grosse Pointe Alliance Francaise.

It's a farce, in color, rated PG and lasting 88 minutes, free to Alliance members, $1 for guests.

Married in August

In Saint Paul Lutheran Church Saturday, August 21, LINDA JEAN LANGMAN was married to MARK ALLEN ENGLISH. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Langman, of Buckingham road. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Cole English, of North Olmsted, O.

English-Langman Vows Exchanged

Bridal Gown and Those of Attendants Are Fashioned by Bride's Mother; Pair Are at Home in Rocky River, O.

A reception in the Roostertail's Casa Blanca Room followed the Saturday, August 21, wedding of Linda Jean Langman, daughter of the William Langmans, of Buckingham road, and Mark Allen English, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Cole English, of North Olmsted, O.

Candle-lighter at the 6:30 o'clock ceremony in Saint Paul Lutheran Church was Peggy Christenson, of Howell. Pastor Charles Sandrock presided at the service.

The newlyweds vacationed at the English family's summer home at Lake Chippewa, O., and are now at home in Rocky River, O.

The bride's gown and those of the maid of honor, bridesmaids and flower girl were fashioned by the mother of the bride.

The bride wore a Colonial dress of eggshell eyelet, featuring a high-necked yoke, front panel and sleeves of embroidered lace. Tiny, brocaded pink roses accented her detachable, eyelet train.

A picture hat of embroidered lace with a net bow, its streamers extending to her waist, completed her ensemble. Her bouquet was formed of pink and yellow rosebuds.

Honor attendants Mrs. Frank Fechter, Jr., of Pennington, N.J., and Julie Ann Langman, and bridesmaids Patricia Jo Langman and Laura English, the bridegroom's sister, wore polka-dotted frocks, two in pink and two in yellow, and matching picture hats. They carried nosegays of pink and yellow roses and mums.

Flower girl Karen Christenson was in pink and beige. Robert Atkins, of North Olmsted, a college roommate of the bridegroom, was best man James Atkins, of North Olmsted, William Langman, Jr., and Mr. Fechter, the bride's brother-in-law, seated the guests.

Double ring bearers were the bride's twin cousins, Jason and Austin Wright, of Marion, Ind.

The mother of the bride wore green Qiana, with a

Santa Evening Aids Art Archives

The Archives of American Art presents its third annual "Intimate Evening With Santa Claus and Christmas Carol" next Tuesday, November 23, from 5:30 to 9 o'clock at Hudson's downtown toyland.

The Archives is a national organization affiliated with the Smithsonian Institution. Its sole purpose is to collect, record and make available to scholars original documents and materials on American arts and crafts.

matching stole. The bridegroom's mother selected pale green chiffon. Both mothers wore wrist corsages of yellow rosebuds.

The newlyweds are graduates of Wittenberg University. The bride, who received a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and Reading, is an English teacher in the North Olmsted Schools. Mr. English, who received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Physics, is associated with Computer Science Corporation, Cleveland.

The Archives is completely non-profit, dependent on fund-raising activities and private support.

This year's benefit Christmas Party takes a new twist by introducing a discotheque theme, with music by Don Oke, from the Landing Disco.

Many celebrities will be present disguised in Santa outfits. Tickets at $7.50 per person, tax deductible, may be purchased at the Archives office, Temple 3-2159, W. D. Gale Electrical Company, 921-4030, or the Landing Discotheque, 557-5035.

INTERCOIFFURE

Viola Ross Press Director

LAURETTA . . . Style Director, of the Bart Edmond Educational Group—C Member Inter-Coiffure, Member Ameri-Coif, Detroit.

RON KOTES . . . C Member Intercoiffure.

HELEN BUFFA . . . Assistant style director of the Bart Edmond educational group, C Member Inter Coiffure, Ameri-Coif, Detroit.

BEVERLY ORTA . . . C Member Inter-Coiffure.

"We are going to share our ideas with you! Sharing ideas . . . is what Intercoiffure is all about. We are a total beauty salon, hair, skin and makeup. We do newspaper promotions in conjunction with newspaper advertising. Nothing works better than "Before and After" photos to project our effort in creating new styles. Polaroid photos are used and the best selection is pictured in our ad each week.

We have an Introductory offer for a total look complete with styling and make-up for thirty-five dollars.

We try to promote a complete look . . . healthy hair, healthy skin. We draw sketches of our looks . . . everything is explained . . . how to achieve the look . . . explain prices . . . the key being communication.

The best PR, of course, is "word of mouth" by our satisfied customers.

Highlights of the Bart Edmond Presentation, Park Plaza Hotel, New York

We would like to share with you our "L to I" . . . learning to learn program. We have worked with Steve Dostal, associate professor of Business and Organizational behavior at D.I.T. Mr. Dostal stated that "An informed hairdresser is our most important asset." So, the most important asset at the Bart Edmond Salon is continued vitality . . . specifically in the area of personnel. It's our hairdressers, our haircutters, EVERYONE who works in our salon. The professor held seminars in our salon . . . he always encouraged IDEAS . . . ACTION and INVOLVEMENT.

Recently my friend, the professor, died of a heart attack. However, he left us a legacy . . . his learning to learn program does work. Now, my staff run our L to I educational program. I have had many good style directors . . . Ruth Maink, Frank Ort, Ron Kotes. Now we have Lauretta Zelles and when she took off it was like a rocket.

She believed in what the professor said, "If I gave you a dollar . . . you have that dollar and I don't . . . BUT, if I gave you an idea . . . and you gave me an idea . . . that's TWO ideas and from this comes the third and fourth and so on . . . so, if we act with enthusiasm, we will be enthusiastic.

We have many hairdressers and not all can afford to join Intercoiffure, go to Paris, so Lauretta has arranged top talented hairdressers to come to our workshops.

We had Ezio Tamburini, IOD member, great teacher, a great artist, a great human being . . . a child of God."

In December we will have Bill Doran of PIVOT POINT, Chicago, who will conduct a workshop for the Bart Edmond staff only.

Mr. Leo Passage, publisher of Pivot Point International "Aura essence of Beauty" magazine, made possible the use of the photos displayed in this article.

On January 16, 1977, Mr. Michael Marks will conduct an OPEN SEMINAR at the Georgian Inn, Georgian Ballroom with attendance limited to 100 only at $20 per ticket. Tickets available from the Bart Edmond Educational Fund, 21316 Mack Ave., Grosse Pointe, 48236 or by calling TU 6-6080.

This has been an expression of ideas . . . the making of words . . . Pull them apart . . . study the syllables . . . hunt for roots . . . put them together in new ways . . . then let the ideas touch . . . ignite . . . explode . . . when they settle, let them cool . . . examine YOUR new ideas . . . GETTING ACTION . . . GETTING INVOLVED!

At Atelier (a workshop, wherein latest techniques in hair styling, hair coloring and make-overs were shared and demonstrated).

Bart Edmond Hair Designers presented their forecasts for "Spring '77" make-overs at the PLAZA HOTEL, New York City.

Some history of Intercoiffure America, Canada and Mexico: Intercoiffure began in 1922, the International Association of Hair Designers. Intercoiffure whose insignia is a star placed on the median line of a globe . . . a most appropriate logo since Intercoiffure is now represented in nearly 50 countries on five continents.

The purpose of Intercoiffure is the exchange of ideas with one's peers on the art of hair styling, innovation of techniques.

The International organization thus opens doors for member patrons to the finest salons throughout the world, wherein women can be assured of outstanding hair styling, and a warm welcome.

Charities to Share Auto Show Benefit

Boys' Clubs, Easter Seal Society and Northeast Guidance Center Will Share Proceeds from This Year's Preview

Roland Rinke, 1977 Detroit Auto Show committee chairman, has announced that the Show's sponsor, the Detroit Auto Dealers Association, has selected three charities to participate in the traditional Auto Show Charity Preview.

Sharing proceeds from the $25-per-couple black tie benefit Friday evening, January 14, in Cobo Hall will be the Boys' Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit, the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children, (Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties), and the Northeast Guidance Center.

The expansion from one to three charities started last year, in a move to broaden day, January 23. Theme is "Design & The Future." Cobo Hall's Exhibit Halls A, B and C will be filled with the 1977 models.

Auto Show officials hope to surpass 400,000 in attendance—a "first" in Show history.

The Charity Preview has been a popular attraction in Detroit since its inception in 1968. Co-sponsors this year are the presidents of General Motors, Ford Motor Company, Chrysler Corporation and American Motors Corporation. Governor and Mrs. William Milliken will act as honorary sponsors.

The 1977 Auto Show will be one of the most exciting in years, Mr. Rinke predicts. For the first time, visitors will be able to view a "Design Center" and see first-hand many of the design elements which are part of the vehicles of today and will be incorporated in those of the future.

The nine-day event, 61st Auto Show for Detroit, 12th to be held in Cobo Hall, is the oldest show in the world under the same sponsorship and management. The Detroit Auto Dealers Association (DADA) consists of 260 new car dealers in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Chapter Ending for Dr. Johns

Professor Malcolm Johns, of Rivard boulevard, will conduct two performances of J. S. Bach's Motets III, "Jesu, Meine Freude," in downtown Detroit just prior to Thanksgiving.

The first, Sunday, November 21, features the Old Christ Church Choir with orchestra at 10:30 o'clock Morning Prayers at Old Christ Church in East Jefferson Avenue.

The following Tuesday, November 23, the Wayne State University Choral Union and orchestra will perform the Bach Motet at its 10th Annual "Salute to Downtown Detroit," at 12:15 o'clock in Old St. Mary's Church, recognizable by its twin spires, in Greektown.

This concert also honors the University of Detroit's Centennial Anniversary, with greetings from The Reverend John Nader, pastor of Old St. Mary's.

The concert at Old St. Mary's marks the end of Professor Johns' position as conductor of the Wayne State University Choral Union.

Professor Johns organized the Choral Union in 1963, to perform large choral works in the many religious edifices of metropolitan Detroit.

It has provided ethnic "Salute Concerts" for numerous segments of Detroit's cultural communities, as well as concerts for special celebrations of religious organizations.

During Professor Johns' tenure, the Choral Union has presented many premieres: world, United States and Detroit first performances.

Dr. Johns has chosen Dennis Tini as his successor. Mr. Tini, a WSU graduate, re-joined the Music Department this fall as conductor of the WSU Women's Choral.

He will make his first appearance as the Choral Union's new conductor at Sts. Peter and Paul's Church, opposite the Renaissance Center, on Sunday, March 6, at 3:30 o'clock.

There is no admission charge for the "Jesu, Meine Freude" performances. Ample parking is available near the two churches. Early arrival is recommended at both sites, to secure a seat.

Further information may be obtained by calling 881-4957.

Alpha Mu DKG Marks Twentieth Birthday

Alpha Mu chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an international society for women educators, was founded November 10, 1956, by 15 women educators in Grosse Pointe.

Of the original 15, five remain active in Alpha Mu, which has dedicated itself over the years to philanthropic and cultural as well as social activities.

These five original and present members are Maurine Allan, Gladys Gies, Merc Jacobs, present president, Virginia Johnston and Kathryn Sheedy, first president.

Alpha Mu's 20th birthday celebration was held Monday, November 15, at Grosse Pointe North High School's Building C, Room 109.

The party started at 4 o'clock. All members were invited to attend.

Hostesses were members of the Finance, Scholarship and Publicity committees.

The birthday party was followed by the second seminar of a two-part Focus program on "Status of Women."

The workshop ran from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock, under the direction of Dr. Patty Rice, Omega chapter, and Maureen Otterman and Beth Cooper, of Alpha Mu. Alpha Mu welcomed the Beta Delta chapter as participants.

Delta Kappa Gamma has urged all its members to participate in seminars designed to develop leadership potentialities in women.

Open Old World Market Today

from this Clare has moved to designing her own figures, carrying on the old craft.

"I feel I'm making some small contribution to the preservation of a charming record of an entire culture, as well as keeping myself financially."

The original molds, prized as heirlooms, were handed down through the centuries from mother to daughter, or as the jealously-guarded repertoire of the Gingerbread Bakers' Guild.

Because the dough was sweetened with honey, the bakers often cast the forms in fine beeswax as well as gingerbread. Ornamented with delicate colors, these beeswax castings became the forerunners of today's Christmas ornaments.

Studio Clare's hand-painted castings in a specially-developed, melt-resistant wax are completely handcrafted by the old techniques, and are exact reproductions of the antique pieces. Many bear the signature initials of the original designer.

They are beautifully, intricately detailed. Subjects range from commemorative figures of William and Mary of Orange in full, regal splendor to traditional tree ornament angels with lute and flute.

Some are complete scenes. There's a four-figure Wedding Dance, (circa 1700), and a Love Coach from the same period, traditional courtship gifts, each four inches long.

Each piece is accompanied by the story of the molds, and its own particular history.

Clare Morison has been a Pointer all her life. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Hollins College in 1968, and has studied at Radcliffe, Wayne State University and the University of Michigan.

She is represented in Grosse Pointe at the League Shop and the Mole Hole, in Rochester at Xochipilli, and is a frequent exhibitor at fairs and craft shows. Her work has been on display at the Planned Parenthood Christmas Mart. Her schedule this month has included Kingswood School's Giftarama and the Interfaith Center for Racial Justice's Holly Mart at the Justice Pointe War Memorial.

Studio Clare's antique mold castings are among 34 gift and craft booths at the 1976 Old World Market.

Nationally booths range from Lithuanian to Korean, Swedish, Polish, French, Norwegian, Bulgarian, Latin American, Jordanian, Italian, West African, Russian and North American Indian.

Market-goers may watch lace and embroidery being made as it has been for centuries, learn how puppets are created and then see their makers perform with them, observe lithophane wax carving, an 18th century "lost" art form that has been rediscovered.

They may have their portraits cut in silhouette. They may choose between such varied cuisines as Vietnamese and Jewish. They may view the Friends of Polish Art's Case Exhibits in the Hall of Nations.

They may spend an hour or more likely—a day at the Old World Market. Admission is $1.25, (50 cents for children and senior citizens). Further information may be obtained by calling the International Institute, 871-9800.

Following the films, William Kirtland, M.D., and David Gustafson, M.D., will speak on their experiences with the LeBoyer techniques and Family Centered Maternity Care.

The program is open to the public. A $1 donation, (50 cents for students), will be asked at the door. Further information may be obtained by contacting Dawn Saverino at 573-9787.

Set Arts & Crafts Retrospect at DIA

Governor and Mrs. Milliken Will Attend Subscription Dinner Monday; Founders' Preview is Tuesday

Some 400 objects will document Detroit's entry into the mainstream of modern art during this century as a double anniversary is celebrated by "Arts & Crafts in Detroit/1906-1976."

The major exhibition, opening late this month at the Detroit Institute of Arts, marks the 70th anniversary of Detroit's Society of Arts and Crafts and the 50th anniversary of the School of Arts and Crafts, now the Center for Creative Studies.

Governing patrons and friends of the Art Institute and CCS have been invited to attend a subscription dinner and preview at the museum

Hobbies, Crafts, Gifts at St. Peter's Church

St. Peter's Christian Mothers Altar Society is sponsoring its third Annual Hobby, Craft and Gift Show this weekend, Saturday, November 20, from 10 in the morning to 8 in the evening, and Sunday, November 21, from 10 to 6 o'clock, at the Church Social Hall in Vernier road, opposite Eastland.

Admission is free. More than 50 booths will feature handcrafted items, toys to ceramics, china, jewelry, oil paintings, quilts, lamps, needlepoint, novelties and Christmas decorations. A spaghetti dinner will be served on Saturday only.

this Monday, November 22. Chairman of the evening is Mrs. Walter B. Ford, II, of Provençal road, a trustee of the Art Institute. Her husband is chairman of the CCS board of trustees.

Working with her is Mrs. William L. Mitchell, chairman of the Founders Society Women's Committee.

Michigan Governor and Mrs. William Milliken and Detroit Mayor Coleman A. Young were among the first to accept invitations for the gala event.

Guests will preview a spectacular display of some 400 works of art, including objects from SAC exhibitions which have exposed Detroit to modern American and European art since 1906, as well as work by outstanding faculty and alumni of the School.

The next evening, Tuesday, November 23, all members of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts are invited to preview the show from 7 to 10 o'clock.

"Arts & Crafts in Detroit" opens to the public Friday, November 26. It will run through Sunday, January 16.

There is no admission charge for this major show, which is sponsored by the Founders Society with assistance from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Center for Creative Studies, the Michigan Council for the Arts, the Michigan Foundation for the Arts and Private contributions.

Aerobic Dancing Gets Pointe Women Moving

By Katie Elzila

If you hate to exercise but your body and conscience keep telling you to start, you may be delighted to hear of a fitness program called Aerobic Dancing.

Aerobic Dancing is a program of simple, vigorous dancing for non-dancers, which leads to the condition called aerobic fitness. Aerobic or endurance fitness means a strong heart, lungs and cardiovascular system.

Endurance exercises such as jogging, swimming, cycling, rope skipping and vigorous dancing cause the body to demand increased amounts of oxygen over an extended period of time. Aerobic fitness proponents explain that because these exercises cause the lungs and heart to work harder than normal, these systems become stronger and the body's oxygen transport system becomes more efficient.

The experts explain that as a person exercises vigorously, all the body parts receive a better blood supply because of improved circulation. The digestive system becomes more relaxed and muscles become toned and lean.

Because oxygen is able to reach every part of the body where food is stored, energy is produced in abundance. What does an Aerobic Dance class look like? The answer is "fun," if the classes taught by Joan Thornton of Grosse Pointe Community Services are typical.

Twice a week at South High and at Parcels School, about 30 women of varying ages and shapes dance energetically and enthusiastically to lively music, while Thornton calls out the steps. Everybody is so busy moving and enjoying that there is no time for self-consciousness.

As Thornton says, "The women are having such a good time they are not always aware that every muscle in their bodies is being used."

Joan Thornton's Aerobic Dance classes begin with a pre warm-up session consisting of stretch exercises so that the muscles will be warm and supple for the ensuing dances.

The pre warm-up is followed by choreographed sit-ups designed to strengthen the abdominal muscles, which are the only muscles that don't get a work-out in Aerobic Dance.

Thornton follows the sit-ups with warm-up dances, which are designed to help the

Kenneth Jewell Chorale to Sing at ULS

University Liggett School will present The Kenneth Jewell Chorale in a special program of Christmas music Friday, December 3, at 8 o'clock in the School's Cook road campus auditorium.

In "Bring a Torch — a Christmas Celebration," (the title of their latest record release), the 45-voice chorus will feature favorite carols, some contemporary pieces and portions of Handel's "Messiah."

The concert will be conducted by Eric Freudigman, who has assumed leadership of the Chorale in the past two years and has received the highest critical acclaim as a choral conductor.

At the conclusion of the program, the audience will be asked to join the chorus in a sing-a-long of traditional carols.

At a brunch at her home, Mrs. Clyde Wu, chairperson of the Celebration, announced that she would like to establish "Give a Song for Christmas" as motto for the event. Her enthusiasm was catching: the committee of 40 sponsors agreed there could be no lovelier gift, that this would be a unique family experience that early purchase of tickets would be wise, because of limited seating capacity.

This will be the only East Side appearance by The Kenneth Jewell Chorale. Information on tickets at $4 for adults, $1.50 for students, may be obtained by contacting ULS, TUxedo 4-4444.

DSO Features Davis, Kottler

Young British conductor Andrew Davis, whose United States debut with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in 1974 was a milestone in the path of his increasingly fine international reputation, returns to Ford Auditorium this week to conduct the DSO in a pair of concerts tonight and Saturday evening, November 18 and 20, at 8:30 o'clock.

Set Forum on Pedaling For Musicians League

Pointer Anna Husband will present a Forum on Pedaling at the Detroit Musicians League meeting Tuesday, November 23, in Marygrove College's Madam Cadillac Hall. The musical program will feature pianist Irene Reshetlyovich.

Guest pianist for the concert pair will be favorite Detroit-area musician Mischa Kottler, who was for many years pianist of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Maestro Davis, music director and conductor of the Toronto Symphony since 1975, will conduct Weber's Overture to "Oberon," Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 3 with Mr. Kottler as soloist.

Shores Garden Club to Meet

The Grosse Pointe Shores Garden Club, a division of Women's National Farm and Garden Association, will meet Friday morning, November 19, in the Kenwood court home of Mrs. Robert J. Krueger where, over coffee, Mrs. Stuart H. Cammett, Jr., president, will conduct a short business meeting.

The group then will adjourn to attend "Holiday Decorations Updated," the 1976 Berry Memorial Lecture, at the

Card Evening Slated By Ama Deus Circle

Ama Deus Circle 616, Daughters of Isabella, has scheduled a card party social for Monday, November 22, at 8 o'clock at Gabriel Richard Knights of Columbus Hall in East Warren avenue. Prizes and refreshments will be featured. Donation is $1.75.

Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Co-hostesses for the day are Mrs. Clifford Loranger, of Barclay road, and Mrs. Ernest J. Dossin, of North Oxford road.

Lib-Lib Serves Pointe Singles

Lib-Lib, a singles' social and discussion group that is highly successful in Detroit's northwest suburbs, now is also holding meetings on the first and third Saturdays of each month at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church in Maumee avenue, with the next one scheduled for 7:30 o'clock this Saturday, Nov. 20.

Lib-Lib evenings are divided into three parts. After a coffee and get-acquainted period, small discussion groups are formed. Topics are aimed at common problems faced by singles, and are designed to get people to talk about themselves and their feelings.

These "rap sessions" are followed by refreshments and a social hour.

All singles—never-married, separated, divorced or widowed—are invited to Lib-Lib, which is a gathering place rather than a membership organization. There is a $3 charge per evening to cover expenses.

Additional information may be obtained by calling 356-2225.

LEO C. PRUSZYNSKI, of Mount Vernon road, has been re-appointed by Governor William G. Milliken to the State Board of Horology.

To Present Mini-Fair At St. Joseph Mercy

Members of the Auxiliary of Saint Joseph Mercy Hospital have set Friday, November 19, as date for their annual Mini Fair, to be presented until 6 in the evening in the dining room of the Hospital in East Grand boulevard.

Home-baked goods, a Flea Market and boutique items will be featured.

Trowel, Error Club to Meet

The Trowel and Error Garden Club is holding its annual Christmas Workshop today, Thursday, November 18, at 10:30 o'clock in the Woodbridge Community Center, where members will fashion wreaths of pine cones, nuts and fruits.

Mrs. William Cook will host the event.

Phase I Plans Potluck Dinner

Phase I, an all-singles group, will hold its annual Thanksgiving Potluck Dinner this Sunday, November 21, at 8:30 o'clock at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. All singles between the ages of 20 and 39 are invited to attend.

Participants are requested to bring a salad for eight if their last names begin with A through E, dessert if their last names begin with F through L, and a vegetable if their last names begin with M through Z.

A $3 donation will be requested of those who don't bring food. Following dinner, Paul Reynolds, Memorial Church organist and choirmaster, will lead a "Musical Trip through the Pipe Organ" in the sanctuary.

Phase I has scheduled a Wine Tasting Party for next Wednesday, November 24, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Reservations, at $3.50 per person, may be obtained by contacting Ed Gruca at 831-9141.

Phase I meets every Sunday evening at Memorial Church, and is open to all single and previously-married persons between the ages of 20 and 39. Further information on the group and its activities may be obtained by calling Gust Jahnke at the church, 882-5330.

Parents of Handicapped Bid to Special Session

A special meeting of the Metropolitan Society for Crippled Children and Adults Parent Group has been scheduled for tomorrow, Friday, November 19, at 8 o'clock at the Society's Therapy Center in Schaefer highway, Detroit.

The program will feature Dr. Maurice E. Castle, orthopaedic surgeon, and the staffs of the Neuromuscular Institute and the Metropolitan Society, in a special demonstration, panel discussion and question-and-answer period.

The meeting is open to the public, but seating is limited. Further information may be obtained by contacting the agency, 341-4900.

Dancing

(Continued from Page 23) Lamaze delivery. "I think being in the best possible physical shape for the childbirth experience is the best preparation for delivering a happy and healthy baby."

Joan Thornton, the women's teacher, is perhaps the most enthusiastic of all about Aerobic Dancing. She had been an exercise teacher for 10 years when she saw a demonstration of Aerobic Dancing. She was so excited about it she immediately signed up for the training sessions offered by the Y.M.C.A.

Thornton was convinced that women in the Grosse Pointe area would love the program. A swimming teacher for the past five years for Grosse Pointe Community Services, she was able to convince her boss, Carl Schoessel, to allow her to begin an Aerobic Dancing class. She started the first Aerobic Dancing class in Grosse Pointe in October, 1975.

Her hunch was right. The women do love it. In fact, the class has been so well-received that there is now a waiting list, and in February Thornton will begin teaching a class for fourth through sixth grade girls at Montclair School, through the Youth Enrichment Program. Anyone interested may call Grosse Pointe Community Services, 885-3808 or 885-0271, for enrollment information.

One year ago, MRS. FRANK J. TRAMPOSCH, of Chalfonte avenue, began taking painting lessons — and now she has a one-man show running through October at the Standard Federal Savings branch in Warren avenue at East Outer drive. Mrs. Tramosch worked for many years on braille for the blind. She is a Certified Braille Transcriber, registered with the Library of Congress. She has chaperoned for the Ski Hi Club for the past eight years, for she enjoys working with young people and feels it is very important to keep them interested in some form of athletic activity.

QUEEN

AN APPEALING COURT

Off Fairholm, in the Woods. A roomy 4 bedroom, 2 bath semi ranch. Has 1st flr. den, new roof and driveway, beautiful basement. Enjoy central air and back yard pool in summer of '77.

IF YOU LIKE

Large trees, colonial styling, convenience for good shopping and transportation, and a lot of house for your dollars, consider this one. The 21.9' family room, 1st flr. lav., 1 1/2 baths upstairs, 3 large bedrooms plus good sized sitting room, study or whatever, plus central air.

NO "UNDER FOOT" FEELING HERE

Even the larger family can spread themselves pretty thin in this roomy house on LINCOLN. The smallest of the 4 bedrooms measures 13.9 x 11.9 and 3 1/2 baths, 22' long family room, modern kitchen and 3 car garage should give you an indication of its spaciousness.

PRICED FOR QUICK SALE

A bungalow with 3 bedrooms, family room with Franklin F/P and in the Woods. Ferry School district.

IF ENGLISH IS YOUR CUP OF TEA

Here's a 3 bedroom 1 1/2 "bather" that is sure to please you. In the Farms and built in '29 — a good year for large living and dining rooms, so seldom found in the newer homes in this price range. Has new furnace and is nicely decorated.

OPEN SUNDAY 2 UNTIL 5

843 N. RENAUD — It isn't exactly a colonial — it isn't really a ranch — it is one of the finest custom built homes in Grosse Pointe Woods. Elegance from the moment you enter the stately entrance hall with its spiral staircase. This home features a step-down living room, formal dining room and a paneled library for the executive of the home. A very unique home awaits a very special buyer.

551 OXFORD. A petite mansion which will really turn you on if you like that French country house look. This one has a Mansard roof and circular drive and looks as great inside as it does from the curb. All the bedrooms have private baths and there is a library and family room, both with fireplaces.

1151 S. OXFORD — Center entrance colonial in a very desirable area of Grosse Pointe Woods. This home features a fireplace, formal dining room and large kitchen on a beautifully landscaped lot.

IT WILL GITCHA FROM THE CURB and we know we've gotcha once you step inside. A smart looking farm colonial is always in style. This one has four bedrooms and a super family room with fireplace and beamed ceiling. The laundry is on the first floor and the garage is attached. Central air conditioning and electronic filter system contribute to easy maintenance. Grab a look at 254 LINCOLN ROAD near Jefferson.

6 LAKESIDE COURT, a dead-end street leading to the lake from Jefferson near Bon Secours Hospital. Brand new and ready for you. This recently completed four bedroom colonial is located just two doors from the lake. This home features a step-down living room, library, first floor laundry and spacious family room with cathedral ceiling.

BE THE FIRST to preview this three bedroom, brick cottage in the Farms. At 379 RIDGEMONT, near Chalfonte, there is the opportunity to buy a house with two full baths and a full two car garage for less than $45,000.

20505 WILLIAMSBURG COURT, Harper Woods. Townhouse condominium. Two bedrooms, one and one half baths. All new carpeting first and second disposal all new 1975. Gas FA heat and central air conditioning. Grosse Pointe school system.

FIRST OFFERING

INVESTORS TAKE NOTE! We have a luxurious penthouse situated over two store properties located on the near east side. This should give an excellent return on investment. Purchase price in mid-$40's — priced for quick sale.

AVAILABLE BY APPOINTMENT

A SPACIOUS ENGLISH MANOR HOUSE with separate apartment over the attached three car garage. The main floor is comprised of a generously proportioned living room and dining room, both with bay windows. To complement these formal rooms, there is also a library, sun room and heated garden room.

THIS COULD BE THE SMALL HOUSE you've been waiting for with extra large rooms. There are three fireplaces to add plenty of atmosphere and a private bath for each bedroom. On Lake Shore Road in the Farms with a tree-filtered view of the lake.

SOUTH OF JEFFERSON is this four bedroom home which is ready when you are. It features a formal dining room, oak paneled den, sprinklers front and rear and the charm of an English country house.

PLACED ON ONE AND ONE HALF ACRES in the heart of the Farms is this architect's dream. French doors open to intimate gardens on one side and a long stretch of sloping lawn on the other. Three of the six bedrooms have fireplaces and the two-story living room has fireplaces at either end. A private apartment with outside entrance is also part of the package. Included is a buildable lot with a five car brick garage. All offered for $139,500.

WHERE CAN YOU BUY a three bedroom home with all Grosse Pointe privileges for $15,000? We have a brick one with full basement plus one and one half car garage. Must sell to settle estate.

2 CLAIRVIEW—GROSSE POINTE SHORES

Huge residence with an abundance of living area. This lovely home has been maintained in its original condition retaining all of its hand crafted charm. Feels like the "Great Gatsby's" mansion. Naturally there is a swimming pool with privacy for sun bathing. Priced realistically at $250,000.

VENDOME COURT—GROSSE POINTE FARMS

Private Cul-de-Sac. So peaceful and hidden among huge shade trees. Elegant describes this home but not so much so that the country gathering room doesn't charm you with its cozy styling. Five bedrooms, 3 1/2 baths; a formal living room and den are highlights completing this home. Many homes with less are asking more. Also covered with our one year warranty.

BRIARCLIFF—NEAR LIGGETT

Looking for the finest residence in the Liggett School area—we have it. This is such a splendid home you can't imagine how beautifully decorated it is. Custom built for its present owners. Every important feature is included such as family room with fireplace, first floor laundry lav as well as elegant powder room, Master bedroom with dressing area and attached huge bath. Every closet in the four bedrooms are huge double sized. Private rear yard, beautifully decorated with stockade fence. You might think you've heard enough but you must see the Recreation Room. It is absolutely breathtaking—something you must see—words cannot describe. Owner transferred—let's have an offer! Also remember, it's protected with our one year warranty.

CANTERBURY—QUAD LEVEL

Price has been reduced for easy and fast sale. Make a special point to visit our multi-level interestingly designed home. It looks conventional from the front but thereon the similarity ends! Family room, four bedrooms, like new kitchen—a fantastic house. Also has our one year warranty.

IMPORTANT PRICE REDUCTION

Center entrance Colonial, four bedrooms, master bedroom has attached private bath. Home is beautifully maintained and decorated. The kitchen "center" is a very novel use of a morning room and an attached library. Formal dining room and large living room has delightful fireplace. Priced in sixties. One year warranty.

FIRST OFFERING—LAKESHORE DRIVE

Protected by huge pine trees, you'll agree this is an exceptional home. Four bedrooms, two and a 1/2 baths. Library has unique wet bar for informal entertaining. The country kitchen with eating area looks like new. Luscious carpet throughout. Naturally there is our $100.00 deductible one year warranty.

CONDOMINIUM—LOW 40'S

Located at 20465 Williamsburg Ct. within walking distance of Eastland. This is a lovely complex, well managed and time proven. This is one of the finer with 3 bedrooms and 2 1/2 baths. A full dining room, beautiful kitchen and large living room.

GROSSE POINTE FARMS—STARTER

A charming home on one of Farms cutest streets. Priced at $37,500—only two bedrooms but very deceiving because living room, dining room and kitchen are all exceptionally large. Provides good living—excellent location—near Village or the Hill! Also comes with our one year warranty.

IF YOU LIKE STONES!

This beautiful home made of concrete and faced with stones—we think it is farm beautiful! All rooms are large, four bedrooms with two baths. Sleeping porch and first floor screened porch add a lot to the homey feeling. Car has only one garage otherwise it would be priced considerably higher. One year warranty.

BEST TO ACT FAST!

Here is a lovely brick Colonial with a family room that runs the length of the rear of the house. A modern kitchen adjoins eating area. Living room with fireplace and formal dining room complete the bargain. Priced at $52,500 for sale before Christmas.

PRICE REDUCED—$36,900

And what a good home it will make. Maintained with great care so that it truly is better than new. The basement has a family room fit for a king. Three bedrooms and one and a half baths. House is priced perfectly. Also an important peace of mind is our one year warranty.

HOW ABOUT ST. CLAIR SHORES?

$26,900 is all it takes to completely own this cute little home. Real Estate is an investment into the future and naturally we feel this is a great combination of fun living and smart investing. Also has our $100 one year warranty.

HOW ABOUT EAST DETROIT

17116 Stricker at $37,000, a fantastic home on an unbelievably nice street. All houses beautifully maintained with super yards. All it takes is a drive by and you'll see what we mean.

670 WASHINGTON — Beautifully decorated three bedroom English Colonial in desirable location. There are many plus features including a cozy den, great kitchen, 2-car garage and fenced yard.

766 LAKEPOINTE—$65,900—Are you looking for an English Family home with four bedrooms, 3 baths, a lovely kitchen, library, recreation room, close to schools and Lakefront park, and in move-in condition? Come to 766 Lakepointe.

BY APPOINTMENT

FIRST OFFERING — 642 LINCOLN — This is that handsome center entrance colonial that you have always admired. The feeling of a real home surrounds you upon entering. A large living and dining room, a paneled family room, and a sunny garden room give space for entertaining or family activities. There are five bedrooms, a study, den and sitting room with fireplace off the master bedroom. All of this on a beautifully landscaped lot convenient to schools and shopping. Call us for an appointment to view this unusually nice house.

FIRST OFFERING—FAIRER THAN FAIR—Beautiful ranch on Fairway Lane facing the golf course. Three bedrooms or two and den. Spacious living room, formal dining room, modern kitchen, comfortable family room, bath and powder room, central air, sprinkler system, 2-car garage. Owner moving out of state.

NEWER COLONIAL—only ten years old with a fantastic floor plan. Huge kitchen opens to family room with fireplace. Four bedrooms, two-and-a-half baths. Priced at $82,500. IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY!

1121 BUCKINGHAM—SPARKLING GEORGIAN COLONIAL—This gracious Grosse Pointe residence in perfect condition is awaiting that special person interested in a spacious setting. The house has six bedrooms, 3 1/2 baths, kitchen with breakfast room, sun room, and much much more. $71,500.

LOVELY CENTER ENTRANCE COLONIAL with three large bedrooms, two baths, family room, and modernized kitchen with eating space, will be of special interest to DENTISTS or DOCTORS because this house has a connecting medical suite. Conveniently located and set on large lot—Call for further details.

1309 LAKEPOINTE—Good investment property may also be used as single family home. Priced in the low thirties.

18942 HUNTINGTON, HARPER WOODS Semi-ranch on country-size lot. Den plus study. 4 car garage. Close to everything.

NICER THAN NICE—A family home that is special in every way. You need not worry about trying to "fix-up" this house before the holidays—it's ready to move into right now! Family room and library plus four bedrooms and two-and-a-half baths are only a few of the fine features.

UNIQUELY DESIGNED AND OPEN SPACES — Located in Grosse Pointe Farms—A six bedroom house with custom detailing throughout.

MASTER BEDROOM AND BATH ON FIRST FLOOR. Formal living room, kitchen with utility area, two bedrooms and bath up. 2-car garage. $45,500.

Motorist Hurt Crashing Pole

Keith Douglas Bush, 18, of 21813 Edgewood, St. Clair Shores, suffered a head injury on Thursday, November 4, when he lost control of his car and smashed into a utility pole.

Shores Public Safety Officer Bruce Darlington, who arrived at the scene, found Bush bleeding profusely from a two-inch gash on the head near the right temple. He stopped the flow of blood before The Shores ambulance arrived to take the injured motorist to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment.

Bush told the officer that he was traveling north on Lakeshore road at 1:56 p.m., and was rounding the curve at 1100 Lakeshore, when another motorist cut him off and he lost control of his vehicle. It left the roadway and slammed sideways into an electric pole.

The entire right side of Bush's car was damaged to the extent that it was not drivable and had to be towed to a service station.

PSO Darlington said no violation ticket was issued due to lack of witnesses.

Holiday Hours Set by Gas Co.

Except for the downtown Detroit branch, all Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. business offices in the Detroit area will be closed Thursday-Friday, November 25-26, in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday.

All offices will be closed on Saturday and Sunday, as always.

The Detroit business office, 1530 Woodward avenue, will be open from 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. on Friday.

Although all other offices will be closed, the company said emergency service calls will be handled promptly.

Audubon Group Meets Monday

The Grosse Pointe Audubon Society will meet on Monday, November 22, at 8 p.m. at the home of Margaret Watkins, 210 Cloverly road.
Bill Heaton will present a slide talk, "From the Aleutians to Hakkaido." Visitors are welcome.

Denby Slates 1946 Reunion

The January and June 1946 Classes of Denby High School will hold a 30th reunion dinner dance on Saturday, November 27, at the Imperial Hall, 34701 Groesbeck, Fraser.

Dancing will be to the music of Babe Malone and his orchestra, who played for Denby High dances in the '40s. Doors will open at 7 p.m. with a buffet dinner slated for 8 p.m. Dancing will continue until 1 a.m.

Tickets are priced at $11 per person and include dinner, beer and set-ups. They will be sold only in advance. To obtain tickets, call Harry Kansman at 476-5247 or send checks payable to '46

Needle Found In Candy Bar

A nine-year-old Hampton road boy reported to Woods police finding a needle in a chocolate bar he was given on Halloween night. Police learned of this incident on Monday, November 8.

Police said the lad only collected on Hampton between Wedgewood and Marter road. Only four such bars were obtained during trick-or-treating and, to the best of the boy's recollection, they were given by older citizens on the block.

The case has been referred to the Youth Service Division for further investigation.

Birthday Celebration For Josiah Harmar DAR

The General Josiah Harmar Chapter 228 of the American Revolution will celebrate the 38th anniversary of its founding at a 12:30 o'clock luncheon Saturday, November 20, at the Detroit Boat Club.

Mrs. Bill Sheets, DAR state director, will give a Bicentennial talk on "Landmarks Set by Freedom Belles." State officers and metropolitan area regents will be special guests. Miss Mary Hale is Josiah Harmar's regent.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. THOMAS J. MCBRYAN, OF BERKSHIRE ROAD

By Janet Mueller

It was time for Dottie McBryan to get back to work. There's nothing like hanging around the house when all six children are home, (plus one's husband, of course), and your mother lives with you, but when the children are down to two, and mother is gone, it's time to look outward again.

Tom McBryan concurs. Dottie, faced with the possibility of this year's White Christmas Ball chairmanship, wondered if she could, or should, handle it. Tom said, "Of course you should: go ahead."

Dottie's been going ahead. The White Christmas Ball is, of course, the traditional, beautiful, VERY FORMAL, "big" holiday party sponsored by the Fontbonne Auxiliary of Saint John Hospital. Expect 300-420.

It's set for Friday, December 3, at the Detroit Athletic Club. Anticipated attendance is between 300 and 420. Tickets are $125 a couple, including cocktails, a fabulous hot and cold hors d'oeuvres table, (the 18 selections range from Genoa salami with ham mousse to lemon sole fingers saute), a gourmet dinner with wines for the fish and meat courses, dancing, (it's a ball, after all, and you HAVE to work off those Coquilles St. Jacques, that filet mignon, on sauteed eggplant), and gifts of art from Joe Maniscalco and Howard Nordlund.

Proceeds will go to purchase a CT Scanner, (Computer Tomography Machine), which uses its own computer to thread tiny pictures into a single, high-resolution photograph.

Its great advantage over conventional X-ray techniques is its ability to highlight tiny, but significant, variations in brain tissue densities. This is essential in the early diagnosis of cancer.

The CT Scanner will also be used in diagnosing cancers and other growths in the soft tissues of the abdomen and thorax.

A Philadelphia Story Dottie and Tom were married in 1948. He was in his third year at the University of Pennsylvania Medical School. She had attended Temple University, and worked for Philips Refrigeration Laboratory as an engineering assistant, testing electrical components and paint and finish components.

They moved to Detroit in 1951, (their third child was born here), and promptly moved out again: Dr. Thomas J. McBryan, who had served in the Army during World War II, was drafted back into the Army during the Korean War.

He was stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky., where Dottie and the children joined him for the duration.

Back in Detroit for good, Tom went to Herman Kiefer, then to Detroit General as Chief Resident in Medicine, and began his study of Internal Medicine and Cardiology. He joined the Saint John Hospital staff in 1954.

He joined the Saint John Hospital staff in 1954. It was during Tom's Herman Kiefer period that Tom and Dottie began inviting foreign interns and residents and their families to the McBryan home. Soon the invitees were baby sitting in return for use of the McBryan kitchen to cook their own ethnic foods.

The children, three boys and three girls, are well past the baby sitting stage now. Four are married. There are three grandchildren, and another expected in March.

Eldest son Tom, Jr., a Wayne State University graduate interested in Social Work, and his wife, the former Sandy Pierce, are parents of seven-year-old Tom, III, born on his father's birthday, and four-year-old Heather. They'll present Tom and Dottie with their fourth grandchild in the spring.

Tom, Jr., is currently a Nuclear Medicine laboratory technician. He will receive his Masters degree in Environmental Medicine from WSU in December.

Daughter Bonnie earned her Masters degree in Urban Planning and Development last June; at the same time her husband, Cihan Anisogh, received his Masters in Architecture.

They Live in Jackson The Anisoghs live in Jackson, where he is with an architectural firm and she is working on a federal project, planning Emergency Medical Programs for a five-county region.

Daughter Eileen, who attended Regis University and Wayne State, is married to Randy Kaszeta, who has his own excavating firm. They have one child, 18-month-old Alicia Ann.

Daughter Marcia Marie attended Business School. She and Rick Stevens, with an insurance company, were married last May.

Son Timothy, 18, lives at home and attends Michigan Careers Institute. He works part time in a gas station, and plans to become an automobile mechanic.

Last-in-line Peter, a 10th grader at Grosse Pointe South High School, is currently enjoying learning how to speak German.

Church Focal Point

The church has always been a focal point in the McBryans' lives. Dottie and Tom started a St. Clair Parish discussion group, and ultimately joined the Christian Family Movement.

They became head couple of the suburban region's 10 parishes, then Federation President couple for the Archdiocese's 96 parishes.

They worked on family parish neighborhood-related problems. They planned local conventions, spoke at parish and region conventions, moderated panels. As members of the CFM national board, they helped write programs and policies.

They were United States representatives to the CFM International Convention in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. They spent three weeks traveling through South America, staying with CFM families in each country they visited: Venezuela, Trinidad, Brazil, Argentina, Chile.

They remained active with CFM for 15 years.

Dr. McBryan headed the first parish Synod and the first Council program, of which Dottie was a part.

Served as Moderator She served as moderator for the St. Clare Teen Program's Spiritual Committee, leading teenagers in discussions of how Christianity worked in their lives, helped plan weekend retreats at CYO camps, led a panel discussion for the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women.

Dottie also appeared in two parish musicals, (when you're a "natural buffoon," you find time for this sort of thing). She was a Girl Scout and Den Mother, and anything else her youngsters volunteered her for.

She helped with hospital programs for foreign students in CFM and with the Saint John Hospital group, and worked with Wayne State University on programs for visiting students and government dignitaries. The McBryans housed the visitors in their own home or found accommodations for them elsewhere, introduced them to the mayor, checked out programs the visitors were interested in and made arrangements for them to see those programs in action.

Dottie Went Private Then came a break. Dottie resigned all these activities to concentrate on her private role as wife, mother and daughter.

She took college courses in art and languages. She took to the golf course.

takes some organization and lots of disorganization," a sense of humor, love, discipline, give-and-take and the ability to delegate."

Dottie had learned the formula, and learned how to make it work for her. But everyone, every so often, needs a vacation . . .

And every vacation must come to an end.

Dr. McBryan, physician in Internal Medicine on the staff of Saint John Hospital, veteran of board member service on behalf of many programs, civic and religiously-oriented, (notably, Guest House and the CYO), concurred. It was time for Dottie to get back to work.

Are Other Chairmen Her general co-chairman for the White Christmas Ball is Mrs. John Drummy. Honorary chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Emmet E. Tracy, of Provençal road, and Mrs. John Elias, of Lakeshore road.

"Although I have not been active in any definitive programs for the past few years, I am again learning from those I work with," Dottie notes.

Among her latest teachers have been Fontbonne President Mrs. Volrad J. von Berg, and Sister Verence McQuade, Saint John's assistant administrator and Auxiliary director, "the ladies in the Fontbonne office, especially Charlotte Zielinski, the director of our Public Relations Department Pepper Whitelaw, and most of all, the chairmen of the White Christmas Ball committees."

Dottie's grateful to them all. "To lead is to delegate," she quotes, "but to delegate you must have good leader-

Operation LINC, (Linking Individuals to Needs in the Community), a project of the Junior League of Detroit, provides assistance, in the form of donated goods and equipment, to non-profit community organizations. Proceeds from the Pointsettia Sale will help pay for LINC's operating expenses.

Chairman of Operation LINC is Mrs. J. Peter Smith. Mrs. Roy J. Leinweber and Mrs. Thomas W. Kressbach co-chair the organization's daily operations.

Recipe Reprise

Last February, the ladies of Our Lady Star of the Sea Rosary Altar Society's Saint Augustine Circle brought out their cookbook, "A Patchwork of Favorite Recipes," in an edition of less than 900 copies—and before the Circle could get out any publicity on its "modest" fund-raising project, every last one of those copies had been snapped up!

A reprise was obviously in order. "We have just taken delivery of our second printing," Circle chairman Carole (Mrs. Charles) Moore reports. The price remains $3. The books are available at Personally Yours on-the-Hill; telephone orders are being taken by Mrs. David Barthel, 882-2083, and Mrs. Henry Heck, 886-6438.

When Edition Two is sold out, that's it. "This will be the last printing of the Patchwork Cookbook," Carole notes, "as our membership would like to move on to something new in the coming year."

The Curtains Kept Going Up

I could, I've often said, go to the theater every night of the week, and last week I almost made it, and it was lovely.

There was, first off, the first night of Julie Harris in "The Belle of Amherst," a benefit for the Seven Eastern Colleges Committee, starting with the best "group" dinner I've ever had, at the Recess Club, where project chairman Diane Norton was on the receiving end of congratulations for pulling together such a grand evening—and producing Weston Dewey Norton, right on time.

Thirteen-day-old Weston remained at home, of course, but Diane and Dewey had a perfect Parents' Night Out.

As for Miss Harris . . . her performance was, as always, superb.

From the Fisher to Fries Auditorium two nights later, for Grosse Pointe Community Theatre's "A Little Night Music," a lush, lavish period piece . . . and, the next night, to Wayne State University's Hilberry Theatre, where the President's Preview featured the fascinating "Journey of the Fifth Horse."

It was a lovely week.

ship in your committees." She finds in general co-chairman Chris Drummy not only someone who is always willing to work, but someone "who has patience for me to draw upon."

She lauds her committee chairmen as "diligent, organized and dedicated toward helping make this Ball a success, so that Saint John Hospital can continue to provide the best medical care available."

Saint John is one of the few that have received this permission from the state.
