

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL

HEADLINES

of the
WEEK
As Compiled by the
Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, December 16

A POWERFUL BOMB EXPLODED in Buenos Aires Wednesday in a crowd of military officers and civilians in a Ministry of Defense office building. It killed at least 15 persons and wounded 30 others, police said. Leftist guerrillas were blamed for the attack. The bomb, apparently made of dynamite and blasting caps, went off in an auditorium on the third floor of the seven-story glass and concrete building as a group of high Defense Ministry officials were listening to a lecture by an Army colonel, police said.

Friday, December 17

FEDERAL HEALTH OFFICIALS abruptly suspended the nationwide swine flu immunization program Thursday and launched an intensive investigation to see if there is a connection between the vaccine and a form of paralysis that has killed five persons. The suspension followed reports of at least 94 cases of a temporary paralytic condition called the Guillain-Barre syndrome, which is also known as French polio. Five of the 94 persons died, but health officials stress there was no evidence of a direct link between the vaccine and the deaths.

CITING THE NEED to provide easier, cheaper access to foreign oil, Transportation Secretary William E. Coleman Jr. Friday approved the construction of two superports in the Gulf of Mexico—the first such facilities in the U.S. He said the ports off the Texas and Louisiana coasts would be subject to "tough" environmental constraints. He said they actually would provide better protection against future oil spills in the gulf by reducing close-in ship traffic and ending the at-sea transfer of oil from supertankers to small vessels.

Sunday, December 19

JIMMY CARTER Saturday appointed Idaho Gov. Cecil Andrus as secretary of the interior, interviewed two old Washington hands for other vital jobs and reflected why well-qualified women are hard to find for his administration. The president-elect also said he has promised Saudi Arabia nothing, and specifically no concessions on U.S. Middle East peace-keeping policy, in return for Saudi efforts to hold down the foreign oil price hike.

Monday, December 20

A SMALL, SINGLE ENGINE plane that had been buzzing Baltimore's Memorial Stadium during the Pittsburgh Steelers-Baltimore Colts playoff football game, crashed into the stadium 10 minutes after the game ended. Many of the sellout crowd of 60,000 left the game early, and almost all were gone when the crash occurred. The pilot, identified as Don Kroener, 42, of the Baltimore area, was removed from the plane unconscious and bloody. He was taken to Union Memorial Hospital, where he was listed in fair condition.

Tuesday, December 21

MAYOR RICHARD DALEY of Chicago died of a heart attack Monday afternoon in the office of his doctor. Daley, 74, had been mayor of the nation's second largest city for 21 years—longer than any other man. He was often described as the last of the big city bosses ruling over the last of the big city political machines. Daley's death stunned Chicago, which had come to think of him as indestructible even though he suffered a serious stroke in May 1974.

Santa Makes Rounds of Pointe Schools

Santa visited most Pointe elementary schools sometime in the past few weeks including Richard, where this picture was taken. But most of the kids had a chance to play Santa too, for some needy family or individual in the Detroit area through projects sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Hunger Coalition, the Junior League's LINC or the Salvation Army.

Park Youth Accused of Kidnaping

Hides in Back Seat of Girl's Car after Meeting Her in East Warren Bowling Alley

A 19-year-old Park youth was charged last week with kidnaping and armed robbery in connection with a Wednesday, December 15, incident involving a Harvard road woman.

Bond for the suspect, David Kenneth Schulte, of 1447 Berkshire road, was set at $2,000 by Records Court Judge Henry Heading on December 16.

Schulte is charged with abducting Maureen Devine, 18, of 1315 Harvard road, from the East Warren Bowling Alley and stealing her auto. He was armed with a .38-caliber pistol according to police reports.

Hears Captive Scream
City Cpl. Edmond Benhus was on a routine patrol of Kercheval avenue at about 11:40 p.m. when he said he spotted Miss Devine's auto and heard her screaming. The officer chased Schulte from the car, firing one shot into the air before Schulte fell to the ground and said he would give up.

The suspect was handcuffed and turned over to Detroit's 15th precinct for prosecution.

Miss Devine told police that earlier in the evening she and her boyfriend had spent about five minutes talking to Schulte in the East Warren Bowling Alley in Detroit. (Continued on Page 2)

Okay Program Expansion Of High School English

No public school program has come under more harsh attack than English in recent years. It seems that students are simply not receiving the background in basic writing and reading that they need. Many parents have zeroed in on the large number of elective courses, (31 at South High for instance), as the cause for the decline in skills. Courses such as Media, Young Viewpoints and Art of the Film, they say, often serve as an easy out for students who have not yet mastered basic English skills. In response to such criticism, the Board of Education last week approved an expansion of the required English course work in the high schools. Beginning next June, all

One of Hold-up Pair Returns Alone to Rob Little Paris Bar Again

Gunman Stages Stick-up at Closing Time; Gets Unknown Amount of Cash from Register; Customers Not Robbed This Time

One of two gunmen who held up the Little Paris Bar, on Mack between Lakepointe and Maryland, on December 4, and took money from 12 customers and from the cash register, returned early Friday morning, December 17, and robbed the place again just before closing time. This time, the robber cleaned out the cash register taking an unknown amount of cash.

According to information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan, the bandit entered the place and sat at the bar and had several drinks and when the place was ordered closed at 2 a.m. by the owner, Lester J. Wippo, the man pulled out a handgun and announced a hold-up.

This time, the gunman only took money from the cash register, whereas the man and a companion on the December 4 date emptied the register and robbed the customers in the place. However, as in the previous crime, the customers and the owner were ordered into the women's restroom and told not to leave for five minutes.

Mustache Has Vanished
Lt. Duncan said that it is believed that the hold-up man was the same person who had a "Fu Manchu" type mustache, when he and a second man, who also was armed, terrorized and robbed 12 people, including two bar employees, the last time. The 12 were ordered to place all the cash from their pockets atop the bar. The money was scooped up, after which the pair cleaned out the register.

The man in the latest robbery, sans his mustache, was described, following the last hold-up, as being white, about 40 years old, between 5' 10"-6' tall, about 200 pounds, having dark hair and heavy sideburns.

His companion, also on the local authorities' wanted list, is also white. He is said to be about 50-55 years old, about 5'9" tall, and about 180 pounds.

WOODS OFFICES CLOSED
The Woods City Offices will be closed from noon Thursday, December 23, until the following Monday for Christmas, and will be closed again the following week from Thursday, December 30, until Monday for New Years.

The lieutenant said that the latest robbery was committed by the man who had the mustache, which had been shaved off. He was not recognized immediately when he entered the bar, but his features were recalled by one of the persons, after the robbery fled.

Believed To Be Known
It is believed that the suspect is known by the authorities and a warrant will be obtained for his arrest, Lt. Duncan said. The man and his companion in the first hold-up, are said to have robbed two Detroit bars before holding up the bar in the Park, on the same date of December 4.

The man in the latest robbery, sans his mustache, was described, following the last hold-up, as being white, about 40 years old, between 5' 10"-6' tall, about 200 pounds, having dark hair and heavy sideburns.

His companion, also on the local authorities' wanted list, is also white. He is said to be about 50-55 years old, about 5'9" tall, and about 180 pounds.

WOODS OFFICES CLOSED
The Woods City Offices will be closed from noon Thursday, December 23, until the following Monday for Christmas, and will be closed again the following week from Thursday, December 30, until Monday for New Years.

Benefit Planned for Foundation

A special performance of "A Star is Born" for the benefit of the Children's Leukemia Foundation will be held at 8 p.m., Wednesday, January 5, at the Americana Theater in Southfield.

The film starring Barbra Streisand and Kris Kristofferson will have its national premiere during the Christmas holidays. This is the third Streisand film selected by the Leukemia Foundation for its annual fund raising event.

Tickets are priced at $6.50 per person, $20 for patrons and $35 for sponsors and can

Guilty Plea Entered by Kidnaper

Adam Patwin, Abductor of Scott Miller, to Hear Sentence December 29; Could Get Life

Adam Patwin, 20, charged with the October 1 abduction of Scott Miller, of Washington road, pled guilty to kidnaping before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Joseph B. Sullivan on Wednesday, December 15.

Scott, 10, is the son of Richard K. Miller, owner of the Beaver Tube Corp. in Detroit. Patwin, of Santa Barbara, Detroit, was a former employee of Mr. Miller.

Patwin is due to be sentenced Wednesday, December 29. Although the charge carries a maximum life sentence, the Wayne County Prosecutors Office recommended a sentence of not greater than seven-15 years in prison, according to Wayne County Prosecutor Frederick Doelsch.

Judge Sullivan indicated he did not have to accept the recommendation.

$48,000 Ransom Asked
Scott was abducted as he walked home for lunch from Richard School. A ransom of $48,000 was demanded for his release.

The boy was lured into Patwin's car after being told his father had been injured at work and Patwin was to drive him there.

After being driven to Patwin's home, Scott was tied between two poles in the basement and left alone.

After a few moments, the boy managed to untie himself and called his parents. He told them and the FBI his location and Patwin's phone number.

Patwin was arrested by Detroit police the next morning.

Pass Resolution Favoring Raise In Drinking Age

School Trustees Join PTO/PTA in Effort to Get State Law Changed; Cite Problems, Kids' Lack of Responsibility

By Susan McDonald

The Board of Education joined several other local governing bodies last week in formally supporting the movement to raise the drinking age in Michigan.

Trustee Joan Hanpeter proposed a resolution calling for a halt to 18-year-old drinking because "it has caused serious and distressing problems in schools and on the highways."

The statement was unanimously approved by the Board at its Monday, December 13, meeting.

Problem in Schools

The trustees' main concern, other than the sharp increase in juvenile traffic deaths related to drinking, is alcohol and accompanying discipline problems in the schools.

"We know that the 18-year-olds in our high schools are buying liquor for their younger classmates," Mrs. Hanpeter explained. "We had hoped they would have been more responsible about this, but it just hasn't worked out that way for most."

Although the resolution does not suggest how old a person should be to drink in Michigan, Mrs. Hanpeter said the trustees would support a move to 19-years-old.

Would Relieve Schools
"At least that would get it out of the schools," she said, "and it is probably most realistic in terms of the state legislature."

The Board's resolution gives further impetus to the local petition drive to raise the drinking age, spearheaded by Doris Graham of the PTO/PTA Council's study and action committee.

Mrs. Graham said so far about 80 petitions have been distributed throughout the community and in various schools. At Brownell Middle School alone, she said more than 100 signatures were collected for the cause.

Kids Flunk Test

"We feel that the kids have had their chance to prove they will handle the liquor responsibly," Mrs. Graham said. "In the five years 18-year-olds have been allowed to drink the problem has just increased, and now it's time to do something about it."

PTO/PTA Council President John Prost, whose group is on record in support of raising the drinking age, said he thinks the possibilities of legislative action on the issue early next year are very good.

Await Statistics
"Both the leaders of the house and senate have publicly stated they will take a close look at raising the age to 19," Mr. Prost said. "They're waiting for comprehensive statistics from the state police on accident rates, but once those are in, I think it will be no problem to pass a bill early in the year."

The Board of Education sent copies of its resolution to Gov. William Milliken, Rep. William R. Bryant Jr.,

Sen. William Fitzgerald, Sen. Joseph Snyder and Sen. John Hertel.

Kids Think Law Change Ineffective

South High Students Say Raising Drinking Age Wouldn't Solve Any Problems

By George Polgar Jr.

The consensus of opinion in a South High School class devoted to the subject of Age of Majority is that a change in the drinking age from 18 to 19 or 20 would have little or no effect on the problems of teenage alcohol abuse.

The 20 students, most of whom are or are approaching 18, show a concern for the problems which have arisen among their peers since alcoholic beverages have been available to teenagers, but feel that the dilemma will not be solved by changing the law.

Most supporters of raising the legal drinking age point to statistics which show a sharp increase in the number of young people between the ages of 18-20 who are involved in alcohol-related auto mishaps. School officials are generally in favor of the change because of the filtering down effect of having 18-year-old high school students buying liquor for younger classmates.

Wouldn't Stop Them
"Changing the law won't stop high school students from drinking," said Reinhardt Motte. "There are enough places to buy booze where they don't care how old you are."

Another member of the class disagreed with the contention that getting alcohol out of the reach of 18-year-olds would stop younger age groups from drinking. "If they change the age to 19 or even 20 there are still enough people with friends that age to get them booze," he said.

Though the class instructor, Donald Zysk, said that in the past few years he has encountered over a dozen students coming to class drunk, and many more coming in hung over, most of the students feel that reports of on-campus drinking have been exaggerated.

Needy Given Many Gifts By Students

Schools Teach Young the Real Joy of Sharing; Participate in Varied Yule Projects

Christmas is always a special time for school children in The Pointe. The last few weeks before vacation have been filled with celebration—concerts, carolling, special plays, parties, gift exchanges and visits with Santa.

But at the same time, children at most Pointe public schools try to spread that joy around at this time of the year. Programs such as the Junior League's LINC, in which the kids play Santa to a child in a foster home; the Hunger Coalition's drive for canned goods for the poor; and the Salvation Army's many charitable causes attract donors from every public school, from elementary to North and South High.

Class Adopts Family

At South, for instance, Carl Justice's math and homeroom classes were one of several student groups to take on the needs of one family for the holidays. The Salvation Army assigned the group to a father-less family of 21, that needed everything from bedding to clothes for children who could not attend school for the lack of them.

The gifts that were collected included beds, chairs, coats, six shopping bags of food and cash. Though there is no doubt the gifts were a big help, Mr. Justice wonders who really benefits most from such a program.

"Sure, it's a great feeling to be able to help a family like that," Mr. Justice explains. "But when you come down to it, I see these things up more for my students than for the families."

"I want these kids to see that everything isn't all nice and clean and rosy—I want them to learn about their neighbors, just a few blocks away."

Care for 85 Families

That lesson is being repeated at North High as well, under its "adopt-a-family" program. Not only the school's homerooms, but dozens of secretaries, custodians and clubs have "adopted" about 85 families this year. They contact the families through a social agency or church, discuss their needs and work from there, providing everything from Christmas trees, toys, clothes to food. They deliver the goods themselves on the Wednesday before Christmas.

In addition, hundreds of cans of food were collected in all the schools and delivered to families by the Grosse Pointe Hunger Coalition.

In elementary schools, giving has been geared to children, with one-to-one contact arranged through the Junior League of Detroit's LINC, (Linking Individuals to Needs in the Community), program.

Each child picks out and giftwraps a present for one child in a foster home, with his or her age and interests in mind. At Ferry School, 300 children played Santa to a parent-less child.

That's a lot of happy kids.

Crisis Center To Stay Open

The Center Point Crisis Center has announced it will stay open Christmas Eve and New Years Eve, according to Jim Tenbusch, program director.

Depressed and lonely people, susceptible to the "Christmas Blues" will be aided by trained paraprofessional counselors trained to handle crisis and drug emergencies.

The center is located at 17150 Maumee, telephone number, 881-7744.

Plan Traffic Experiment For Roland-Maison Roads

A four-month experiment in traffic control in The Farms will begin on or about January 1, when a temporary, moveable barricade will be erected on Roland road near Mack avenue.

The action was taken Monday night, December 20, at the request of residents of Roland-Maison roads, who complained the street is under heavy use by non-local traffic.

According to the residents, the streets are used as a shortcut by motorists to avoid traffic congestion at the Mack avenue-Moross road intersection.

A no-right turn sign will also be installed at Allard road at Mack avenue, to prevent drivers from cutting down that street instead of Roland road.

According to Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber, defiance of the sign is a point-carrying violation. Chief Ferber also said the barricade will not hamper the efficiency of the Farms Fire Department.

"I talked the situation over with Fire Chief Warren Schultz, and he said he had no problems with the barricades going up," said Chief Ferber.

However, the barricade will cause Roland-Maison road residents a lower priority concerning street cleaning and snow removal action. (Continued on Page 2)

reports about drinking were blown way out of proportion," said Nancy Sulzman. "There was nothing new about seniors getting drunk around graduation. It happens every year and always has."

Another student, Dave Shelley, said that changing the drinking age is unfair not only because it limits what young people can drink but also where they can go.

"If the drinking age gets changed we won't even be able to go to places where they serve drinks, like discos," he said. "They are taking away the rights of many young people who drink responsibly."

"The problem is that every adult you talk to wants to raise the age, and the decision will be made in the legislature, but no one ever bothers to ask us. We're the ones who are affected."

In spite of the statistics showing a higher incidence of auto mishaps among young drinking drivers, most students are skeptical about using this to deprive all teenagers the right to drink.

"Look at all the adults who go out and get bombed and drive around," said one student. Another student agreed pointing to the fact that adult drinking drivers are the target of most anti-drinking campaigns.

The students worry that losing the right to drink at 18 may result in the loss of other majority rights. And if other rights are not lost, they say the inconsistencies of having some rights of adulthood and not others is unfair.

"Now that they have given 18-year-olds the right to drink it seems silly to just take it away," said Dave Shelley.

Ecology Club Collects Paper

The University Liggett School Ecology Club is asking residents to begin saving newspaper right now for their second paper drive of the school year, slated for Friday and Saturday, January 7 and 8.

After January 4, residents can call the school, at 884-4444, to arrange for pick-up service. Papers can also be dropped off at the school's ice skating rink parking lot, near 1045 Cook road.

Ecology students donate funds raised through their paper drives to wildlife and conservation organizations.

The first drive, in early October, raised over $300. The students voted to make donations of $50 each to the Michigan Nature Assoc., the "Feed-an-Animal" program at the Detroit Zoo and the Saint John's Marsh Fund.

Middle school science classes who also participated in the drive, will allocate an additional $75 later.

Liz Fisher, Ecology Club president, said she hopes the January paper drive will raise enough money to enable the Club to make three contributions of $100 each to wildlife and conservation programs.

Candlelight Services Set

The Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, will joyfully celebrate Christmas Eve by observing two candlelight services.

At 7:30 p.m. a presentation of "Echoes of His Eternal Gift" will feature special light and sound effects by John Saffron, Helen McCornachie, May Krager, Bob Schroeder and Ann Rabideau. Dramatic readings will be given by Steve Honkanen, David and Sally Maghakian, Michael Vining, Dan Chad-dock, Dick Rabideau, David Deacon and Wayne Bolden.

Diana McRea will provide interpretive movement enhanced by the youth choir under the direction of May Krager. Special soloist will be Karen Cordoba, Sue Brinkman, Dana Deacon, Heidi Staub, Karen, Pat and Earl Nelson.

At 11 p.m. the "Festival of Lessons and Carols" will be presented. The Chancel Choir, directed by Richard Johns, as well as the Handbell Choir under Russell Reed, will be featured. The public is cordially invited to both services.

New Gun Law To Be Tough

Wayne County Prosecuting Attorney William L. Cahalan issued a warning recently to all criminals and would-be criminals in the Detroit metropolitan area and throughout the state that they had better leave their guns at home after the first of the year.

Mr. Cahalan, in a news release from his office, reminded them that, effective January 1, 1977, a tough new gun law will go into effect in the state.

Public Act Six of 1976 requires a mandatory, flat two-year prison sentence for anyone convicted of committing a crime while he or she has a firearm in his or her possession.

The act is the new law stemming from House Bill 5073, introduced by Representative Dennis Hertel.

This law takes away from the judiciary the discretion of placing criminals on probation if they are carrying a gun when they commit a felony.

"The new law is a significant breakthrough in our fight against violent crime," Mr. Cahalan said. "It incorporates certainty of punishment into our existing gun statutes."

This new law, he said, is aimed directly at criminals, and he felt it will decrease significantly the likelihood of violence during the commission of crimes.

The bill, which passed through the state legislature by an overwhelming majority last winter, was signed into law by Gov. William Milliken this February 11.

Under the terms of the new law, "a person who carries or has in his possession a firearm at the time he commits or attempts to commit a felony ... is guilty of a felony, and shall be imprisoned for two years."

There is no possibility of probation or parole, Mr. Cahalan pointed out.

Upon a second conviction under this new law, the prison term will be five years. For a third or subsequent conviction, the prison sentence will be a flat 10 years.

These sentences will be notwithstanding whatever prison time the defendant is given for the original crime for which he was convicted.

cording to City Comptroller Carrol Lock.

"The barricade will turn Roland-Maison road into a dead end, which makes them a lower priority street," said Mr. Lock. "In the case of emergency snow removal, we can't afford the time to clean those streets immediately. We'll have to come back to them when we have the time."

Letters explaining the situation will be sent to residents of Roland-Maison, Allard, La Belle, Champine and Bournemouthe roads, Bournemouthe circle and Roland court.

The Roland-Maison situation was first brought before the council in June when residents presented the council with a petition asking for relief from the traffic problem.

At that time, the council approved a traffic count of the affected streets. Results showed Roland-Maison roads were traversed by an estimated 1,200 cars a day.

Traffic engineering studies estimated 400-600 of the cars involved non-local traffic.

The barricade and no-right turn proposals were approved by 5-1 votes. Voting "no" in each case was Councilman Joseph Fromm. Mr. Fromm said he agreed with the proposals in "principle," but

General guidelines for the class, set down by the Board, include varied writing assignments, such as letters of inquiry, reviews, essays and informational articles; a unit on reference skills; study of punctuation, grammar and general usage; and an emphasis on vocabulary.

Students are now required to take 30 hours of English credit, (six classes), after the two-semester Introductory High School English course in ninth grade.

Although the English Department recommends the students take 10 hours of literature, five hours of either reading, writing or speaking classes and 15 hours of career-oriented courses, the final choice is left up to students' discretion.

Auto Damaged By Police Car

A Woods police car collided with a stopped vehicle at the corner of Bournmouth and Mack last week while the officer at the wheel was following up a holdup alarm call at a nearby drugstore.

PSO Richard Elsey was cruising in Bournmouth road at around 9 a.m. Tuesday, December 14, when he received a holdup alarm call from the Merit Woods Pharmacy on Mack avenue. While proceeding to Mack avenue the officer spotted a white male in a tan coat running toward a late model Ford stopped at the corner.

PSO Elsey had not received a description of holdup suspects or any vehicle involved, but acted on the possibility that the individual running toward the car in the vicinity of the holdup might be a suspect.

The passenger side door of the Ford was open. When the police car was unable to stop in time, the officer pulled up along the right side of the car, damaging the open door.

After explaining to the driver of the car, Mrs. Helen Steiner of The Woods, the reason for his action, PSO Elsey learned that the individual who had been spotted running to the car had been in a store buying cigarettes.

Mrs. Steiner was informed that she should contact The Woods city offices to arrange for repairing her car.

Church Offers Yule Program

The Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church is holding a Christmas Eve Candlelight Service at 5:30 p.m., December 24. The public is welcomed to attend the service which will be devoted to the universality of symbols and the retelling of the birth of Jesus as found in St. Matthew and St. Luke.

There will also be a retelling of the ancient wonders of Solstice, December 21, when the sun reaches its greatest declination north. Christian began celebrating Christmas on this date in 375 A.D. and Orthodox Jews first lit the menorah of Hanukkah for the rededication of the Temple of Judas Maccabeus in 165 B.C.

A pot-luck supper follows the ceremony.

Basic Training Finished By Park Fire Department

The Park Fire Department became the first department in Wayne County, and one of the five in the State, whose personnel, from the chief down, successfully completed a total of 240 hours of basic firefighting training as required by the State of Michigan Firefighting Council (MFFTC). It was brought out on Monday, December 13.

The presentation of certificates to each member of the department preceded the honoring of three employees for their years of faithful service to the city. Awarded pins were William Griesbeck, a repairman with the Water Department for 25 years; and Det. Sgt. James LaPratt and Police Sgt. Walter Paton, shift commander in the Uniform Division, 20 and 15 years respectively.

The trio were congratulated by Mayor Matthew Patterson and members of the city council and City Manager Robert Slone, City Clerk-Comptroller Nunzio Ortisi and City Attorney Richard Rohr.

The mayor also congratulated Police Chief Henry Counce for his successful completion of a three-month training course sponsored by the Federal Bureau of Investigation at its Police Training Academy in Quantico, Va. The chief graduated the latter part of September.

Presenting certificates to the firefighters were Philip K. Alber, executive secretary of MFFTC; and James Fyfe, MFFTC coordinator.

Mr. Alber pointed out that the Park firefighters trained over a period of two years and all the training was during their duty hours, with the following administering up-to-date training techniques: Lts. William Hunt and James Palmer; Sgts. Lee Fallieres and Joseph Block, and firefighters William Hiner and Robert Nemens.

Mr. Alber pointed out further that contrary to the understanding of people, firefighting is the most hazardous profession, even more hazardous than police work, in terms of men being killed or dying on duty.

For every 100,000 firemen throughout the nation, 34 firemen are killed or die of heart attacks annually while battling fires as compared to 71 miners and 51 police officers on duty. With the proper training and keeping firefighters in top physical condition, the death rate in this profession can be reduced, Mr. Alber said.

Mayor Patterson thanked Chief Phillip Costa and Assistant Chief David Taylor and the training officers for imparting training skills to department personnel. Coupled with this, the city has furnished the department with the best possible fire fighting apparatus, making the Park Fire Department the best of any city of the Park's size, the mayor said.

Mr. Alber then presented certificates to Chief Costa and to the following members of the fire department: Lt. Palmer, Sgt. Anthony LaBonty, and firefighters Michael Clancy, James Koerber, Casper Allor, Michael Smith and Robert Nemens.

Lt. Hunt, Sgt. Block, and firefighters William Hiner, Joseph Clarke, Charles Henrich and Martin Buss. Assistant Chief Taylor, Sgt. Fallieres, and firefighters John Streberger, Paul Bagger, Mark Sillman, Joseph Bialk and John Viviano. Chief Costa accepted certificates on behalf of the firemen who were unable to attend the ceremony.

The certificates read: "State of Michigan Firefighting Council to (name) for having successfully completed 240 hours of basic training prescribed by the Council and having otherwise fulfilled the requirements for the award, December 13, 1976."

Thief Snatches Lady's Purse

A woman on her way to a Park restaurant in Jefferson avenue, was robbed of her purse at about 10 p.m. on Friday, December 17, according to information disclosed by Lt. Gordon Duncan.

The lieutenant said the woman, Eloise Stowles of Detroit, was walking on the northeast corner of Jefferson, at Wayburn, heading toward the White Tower Restaurant, at that location, when she heard someone running behind her. As she turned, someone grabbed her purse and fled north on Wayburn toward Kercheval, before she realized what was happening, the woman told investigating police officers.

She said that the purse snatcher got her personal papers plus approximately $100 in cash.

The thief was described as being a black male, about 20 years old, about 5'10" tall and weighing about 160 pounds. The theft victim could not see the color of the robber's trousers, but said he was wearing a dark jacket and a skull-type cap.

Pointer Heads WSU Program

This year's series of "Meet Wayne State University" programs, intended to acquaint college-bound high school seniors and parents with educational opportunities at WSU, began Tuesday, December 14, with a day-long session on campus.

Each program brings together faculty members and advisers from each of the university's schools and colleges as well as counselors on admissions, scholarships and financial aids, career and job placement, student activities, counselors and WSU students.

"We try to give students and parents an overview of the university," says Joseph L. Gualtieri, of The Farms, assistant director of admissions and coordinator of the series.

"Presentations by our faculty, staff and students help high school seniors and their parents better understand how to make the transition from high school to a large university," adds Mr. Gualtieri. "We also create an informal format in which participants can receive responses to questions from authoritative sources in specific areas."

A feature of the December program was a one-hour tour of the campus including key university facilities, a look at a student's "typical" day at WSU, a visit to lecture halls and laboratory facilities, description of Student Center activities and a tour of student gathering places.

Other "Meet Wayne State" programs are scheduled on January 11, February 8 and 22, March 8 and 22, all on a Tuesday.

Persons interested in attending subsequent programs should call Mr. Gualtieri at 577-3570 or write to him at the Office of Admissions, Wayne State University, Detroit 48202.

Russell Heads U.S. Bond Drive

Thomas F. Russell, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Federal Mogul Corporation has been appointed to membership on the 1977 U.S. Industrial Payroll Savings Committee by Secretary of the Treasury William E. Simon.

Mr. Russell, of The Shores, will serve as the Detroit Tri-County Chairman for the 1977 Campaign. He will stimulate the sales of Series E Savings Bonds through payroll savings plans in Metropolitan Detroit, encouraging employers to head up campaigns in their respective companies.

The goal for the Detroit Tri-County Campaign is to sign up 90,000 new savers and increased allotments during 1977.

The Committee, which has been in service since late 1962, is charged with the mission of causing greater sales of Savings Bonds, thus assisting the Treasury debt-management program. It is constituted currently by the chief executive officers of 64 of the top corporations of the country.

Michigan Makes Plans to Recycle 10.5 Miles of Old I-75 Freeway

Recycling of bottles, cans and newspapers is commonplace nowadays, but who ever heard of recycling a highway?

That, essentially, is what's going to happen to part of Interstate 75 Freeway in Cheboygan County next spring, and the project is expected to attract interest nationwide.

Included in the general renovation of a 10.5-mile freeway section is recycling of the existing asphalt pavement on the northbound lanes from Wolverine, north to 2.2 miles north of M-68 near Indian River. It will be one of the biggest recycling projects in the country, and the first on a major state highway in Michigan.

The recycling experiment by the Department of State Highways and Transportation involves pulverizing the top five inches of pavement, mixing it with a small quantity of new asphalt and re-compacting it to a uniform density and level. A thin wearing course-overlay will then be applied to the recycled pavement.

"By recycling the existing asphalt pavement, we hope to prove the merits of a technique that will result in substantial savings in cost, energy and natural resources," said John P. Woodford, director of the Highways and Transportation Department.

He noted that heavy petroleum, (oil), is the base for asphalt, "and with dwindling sources of petroleum and its increasing costs, alternate materials and methods for paving highways are absolutely necessary."

Woodford said the recycling method to be used on the I-75 project is one of three methods that have been studied and tested by the Department over the last several years.

"This, however, will be the big test," he added. "We expect it will attract interested highway engineers from the Federal Highway Administration in Washington as well as from state highway departments around the country."

This particular section of I-75 was selected for the experiment for several reasons—first, because it needs resurfacing. The pavement is uneven, cracked and badly deteriorated. This area of Michigan is "sand country," which naturally provides a good sand base of 25 inches under the middle and top courses of the freeway. Only the surface wearing course needs renewal.

This section of I-75 was constructed in 1962 and has developed severe cracks in the asphalt. Rather than lay a thick course of new asphalt over the existing pavement, recycling of existing asphalt will eliminate the need for large quantities of new asphalt and aggregates (crushed stone and gravel).

A different type of asphalt recycling also is scheduled for next spring on a five-mile section of I-75, just south of the 10.5-mile section from Wolverine to Indian River.

The southbound lanes of this section from Wolverine south to Vanderbilt, will get a recycled surface using a heater-planer-scarifier method. Using a recently developed machine, the asphalt is softened by heat blowers in the machine, with the top three-quarters of an inch chewed loose by rotating teeth, chemically rejuvenated and laid back down again—all in one operation by the machine.

A third type of asphalt recycling, still in the exploratory state by the Department, involves breaking up a pavement, hauling the pieces to an asphalt plant for crushing, then heating and chemically rejuvenating it to reduce it to its original malleable condition. The material then is hauled back to be re-laid and compacted.

Technicalities to eliminate excess smoke in the heating process still remain to be solved, Woodford said. "Once solved, however, it is this type of asphalt recycling that is expected to be the most widely used, most effective and least costly."

"Recycling existing asphalt pavements not only will reduce material costs, it will help to conserve petroleum and natural resources used in the manufacture of asphalt."

GP Spartans Tourney Kings

The Grosse Pointe Bantam Minor Travel Team sponsored by Ziebart Auto Rustproofing Company and its east side and Macomb County dealers and Smith, Hague & Co., Inc., captured the Johnny Phillips Memorial Hockey Tournament held Friday-Sunday, December 10-12, at Fraser Hockeyland.

The top Bantam "A" travel teams from the Detroit and surrounding areas were entered.

In the preliminary round the Spartans were tied by Little Ceasars, 2-2. Lloyd MacEachern and Tom Smith were the goal scorers assisted by Rich Carron and Dave Parker.

The Spartans won the second tournament game against the Warren CB's Sabers, 6-1. Sam Curcuro scored two goals while Don Hiles, Nick Land, Parker and Smith added one each.

Assists were awarded to Paul Treder, John Klein, and Steve Valice.

The Spartans dropped the final preliminary game 3-1 to Stratford, Ont. Valice assisted by Parker scored the only Pointe goal.

However, the Spartans had accumulated enough points to advance to the two-game final round on Sunday. In the morning contest, the Spartans defeated a strong Michigan Stars game 4-1.

Valice opened the scoring with an assist from Carron. The Stars tied the score but Smith assisted by Parker and Valice put the Spartans ahead at the end of the second period.

Then Pointers Curt Runey and Parker, notched goals to insure the victory.

Pipes Breaking in The Woods

Freezing temperatures have brought the usual seasonal headaches to the Pointes and particularly to The Woods public works department which has had to contend with 14 water main breaks in the past two weeks.

The Farms and The City report one water main rupture apiece in the last few weeks, while The Shores and The Park have had no problems at all. Though an occasional bursting water main is common during the winter months, the situation in The Woods appears more serious.

The city has apparently foreseen the problem with the approval last summer of a major project to replace deteriorating water mains in five locations throughout the community. The price-tag of the proposed repairs is expected to be in the area of $130,000. Actual work on the project was begun in mid-October.

Work is being done in the Oxford road, Mack avenue to east Hollywood road area at a cost of $75,000. Another $35,000 is earmarked for repairs in the vicinity of Cook road, Mack avenue to Holiday road. A segment of new mains from Hawthorne road to the old Milk River bridge is expected to cost $8,600.

Work in the area of Jackson avenue, Oxford road to Kenmore drive will cost $9,900 and further repairs at Hawthorne road, west Helen avenue at the old Girard drain will be an additional $4,500.

According to The Woods City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, the city has also made an application to the federal government for a $1 million public works project which would include an extensive repair of the city's water mains.

The Vitis vine is one of the best types of vine for wine grapes. It flourishes in two temperature zones, one above and one below the equator. The northern belt includes France, Germany, Italy and the United States as major producing countries. South of the equator, the best grapes are found in South Africa, Australia, Chile and Argentina. This does not mean that the soil in these areas is what you would think of as extraordinarily rich. Rather, it is extraordinary for its variety. Some is chalky, some slate. Bordeaux wines grow in gravel, sand, and clay. One vineyard may produce excellent wine while the one next door may produce a mediocre beverage. The ways of wine and soil are as mysterious and varied as the ways of people.

The world of wine need not be a mystery to you; we at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair. 885-0626 will be happy to discuss the proper selection, preparation and serving of wine with you. See us for your Christmas gift needs too; we will custom create a gift basket with wines, cheeses, and other items for you. We take special pleasure in wishing you a joyous Christmas and a bright New Year. Open: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs.; 10-11; Fri., Sat., noon-10 Sun.

In My Working Days There Was No Such Thing As An Individual Retirement Account.

We had no pension plan where I worked, and you didn't get a tax break for putting money aside for retirement, either.

Not like today. Today you open one of those Individual Retirement Accounts, IRA they call it, and the money you put in there is deductible when you file your tax return.

Detroit & Northern Savings has these IRA's and the money you put in there can earn as much as 7¾% per year interest compounded daily. Now, daily compounding means it actually pays 8.05% per year. Daily interest and daily compounding. That means the more days your money is in an IRA, the more you earn, because even your interest earns interest. If I could have an IRA, I would get my money into it as early in the year as possible. That way I would earn more — and that's tax-free earnings, to boot.

There's nothing I can do about it now, but if you're still working and don't have a company sponsored pension plan, see the people at D&N and get started. Get that retirement savings plan going as soon as possible, so you can take advantage of that daily interest and daily compounding — all tax free until retirement.

From what I know, D&N's plan is one of the best around. No cost. High returns. Insured safe. Believe me, I've been retired for 6 years and I can tell you, income from Social Security just isn't enough.

Senior Citizens Enjoy Program

The Neighborhood Club Senior Citizens Program is being enjoyed tremendously by area residents.

A Pie Party was held Wednesday, December 15. Seniors baked their favorite pies and brought them for others to sample. The variety of pies was unbelievable and they were all very tasty. Vera Paany submitted the winning entry in "What's In A Name" contest.

The Neighborhood Club Senior Program will be known as "The Village Club" from now on. Vera won a nice cheese basket from Europe for her entry. A choir from Windsor, Ontario, put on an excellent performance and then joined the group in singing Christmas carols.

Upcoming events include a Potluck Dinner on Wednesday, January 5 at 6:30 p.m. Bring your favorite dish to pass.

Future day trips include a visit to the University of Michigan Botanical Gardens and the Phoenix Memorial Laboratory, (atomic energy), on Wednesday, January 19, and an excursion to Meadow Brook Theater to see "Seuth" at the matinee Wednesday, February 18.

Fall Sports End at SHS; Athletes Feted by School

By Dave Shelley

The fall sports season at South High School is over now and the 270 participating athletes have moved on to other things. Many South athletes won a variety of awards, presented at the Dads Club Fall Sports Banquet.

The largest number of athletes at the banquet came from the freshman, JV and varsity football teams. The varsity team, under the guidance of head coach Russ Hepler, enjoyed a satisfying season, upsetting Port Huron Northern and stopping cross-town rivals North High School.

Five Devil players were selected for the All-League First Team. They include senior co-captains Chris Fielding and Brian Myers, senior end Nino Tocco, defensive tackle Al Jones and junior defensive tackle Ken Stockwell.

Honorable mentions went to Grant Piche, Pat Corbett, Tom Nihem and John O'beter.

Jones also received a selection for the First Team Metro East, honorable mention for the All-Metro and All-State teams chosen by the "Detroit News."

The "Detroit Free Press" chose Jones for its First Team All-Suburban, Second Team All-Metro and honorable mention for All-State. Fielding and Tocco each earned honorable mentions for the All-Suburban team.

The cross-country team, under coach Ed Bonne, showed some high caliber runners. Hank Hubbard received the most-improved trophy, while captain Steve Behm was voted the MVP.

The girls swim team ended its season last week finishing sixth in the state meet held at Central Michigan University. Megan Montagne won the Most Valuable Swimmer Award. She placed fifth in the state meet in the 200 IM and finished seventh in the 100 freestyle.

Montagne, with teammates Debbie King, Abby Frame and Kathie Early, earned a fifth place finish in the 400 freestyle relay.

King was South's highest scorer. She teamed with Whitney Semple, Marie Zerweck and Jean Zerweck for a fifth place showing in the 200 medley.

King and Semple rounded out the scoring with a 14th place finish in the State 500 free, and a 12th place showing in the 200 backstroke.

The team also won its third straight EML title and remained undefeated with a 10-0 record. The girls are coached by Tim Kennary. "Kitsi" Hubbard won the most improved swimmer award.

All-League swimmers included Marie and Jean Zerweck, Semple, King, Montagne, Early and Frame.

The girls basketball team, under new head coach Joe Bigham, finished the season with an 8-12 mark. In its first showing ever in the district finals, the team lost a close game to Detroit Dominican, 41-33.

Brigitte Skuba was the team's high scorer in helping the squad to a fourth place finish.

The golf team, coached by Harvey Richardson, dropped to fourth place after winning the league title for the last two years. The team did however, win its EML tournament match. Medals went to Kirk Purday, Tom Peters, Earl Glusac, Rick Parks and Cathy Graham.

The team finished with a 6-5 mark.

The girls tennis team ended with a nearly perfect season. They were the EML and Regional Champs. They also tied with Portage Northern for the state championship. This was the first state title for South in nine years.

In winning the Regional tournament, the team qualified 10 girls for the state match. Jennifer Tewes, Denise Beaufait, Lisa Wood, Lee Robinson, Carolyn Reissig, Lori Wood, Kim and Pam Pierce, Barb Warren and Sue Transue competed for SHS.

Beaufait and the Pierce sisters led the way with individual state championships.

All league selections for the Devils included Tewes, the Pierce sisters, Beaufait, Wood, Robinson, Warren and Reissig.

Beaufait and the Pierce sisters received all-Metro honors, while coach Stephanie Prychitko was named coach of the year by the "Detroit News."

Athletic Director Charles Hollosy summed up the season, saying, "I'm very pleased at how our fall sport season progressed, especially with our girls sports of swimming and tennis, as the athletes did an excellent job in state competition."

'Toyland' Is Holiday Treat

The Greenfield Village Players bring music and enchantment to the stage of the Henry Ford Museum Theater this Christmas season with their presentation of Victor Herbert's 1903 opera, "Babes in Toyland."

The production, which opened Saturday, December 11, at the museum, recalls the days when theatrical pageants were an important part of holiday celebrations.

In reviving this entertainment tradition, Theater Arts manager Joseph French has selected a vehicle which combines a memorable musical score with a fantasy-filled script.

The characters are straight from the pages of Mother Goose. Bo Peep, Little Boy Blue and Contrary Mary are encountered by Jack and Jill on a flight from their miserly Uncle Barnaby.

In the course of their adventures, the clumsy pair crosses through the spider forest and into a magical land, inhabited by toy soldiers, dolls and dancing bears and ruled by a wicked toy-maker.

The toys eventually triumph as Jack and Jill foil their uncle's evil plans.

Interspersed with the dialog is a musical score that includes "The March of the Wooden Soldiers," "Toyland" and "Just a Whisper Away."

"Babes in Toyland" is designed for the whole family. Remaining December performances are set for 2 o'clock Monday and Friday, December 27 and 31.

The Players will continue their performances into January with Saturday matinees at 2 January 8, 15 and 22, and an evening performance at 7:30 o'clock January 22.

Tickets, priced at $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for children 12 and under, are available at the Museum Theater Box office approximately one hour before each performance. There are no reserved seats.

Name Hammer As Co-Captain

Tom Hammer, former high school cross country state champion from North High School, has been named co-captain of the 1977 Hillsdale College harrier squad, according to Cheryl Yurchis, sports information director.

Tom, a junior, did not run this season due to a stress fracture. However, his freshman and sophomore seasons were filled with top-notch performances.

He made the All-State team both years and was third in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference cross country championships last year. He also was named most valuable runner of the 1975 squad.

A political economy major, Tom hopes to enter law school upon graduation.

The Minutes of the Regular Meetings which were held on November 1, 1976 and November 15, 1976, were accepted as corrected.

The Council granted the appeal of Mr. David Willison, thereby authorizing the issuance of a Permit for the construction of a decorative wrought iron fence six feet in height along the front of the property located at 41 DePetris Way; such fence to be constructed in accordance with the plan submitted at that time.

The Council granted the appeal of Mr. David Willison, thereby authorizing the issuance of a Permit for the construction of a six-foot cedar fence along the side lot line of the property located at 48 DePetris Way and continuing for a distance of twenty-four feet, parallel to DePetris Way; such fence to be constructed in accordance with the plan as modified at that time.

The Council adopted a resolution denying the appeal of Mr. Bernard J. The Council adopted a resolution denying the request of Rose Terrace, Incorporated, for final approvals of the site plan and plat for the proposed single-family residential development of the Rose Terrace property located at 12 Lake Shore Road, for reason that there was a serious question as to the adequacy of water service to the foregoing development.

The Council adopted a resolution approving the proposed salary and benefit adjustments for Administrative personnel as presented at that time.

Upon proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 11:40 p.m.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
After reading the various articles on the "Forever Family" living in Roslyn road, I am compelled to write this letter concerning them and their surrounding "neighbors."

I personally have attended several of their "prayer meetings" and contrary to public opinion, find most of these people to be very dedicated and peaceful, working toward a common goal. I find most of the accusations being made against them to be totally false. The implication that "everyone who attends the meetings spends the night" cannot be true, since I, along with several other friends, have never stayed over night.

There is a rule which demands quiet anywhere around or inside the house, and there is no smoking allowed.

The fact that there is a growing number of Jesus-type brainwashing groups gives the neighbors a legitimate concern over this "Forever Family." Yes they do come on strong with their message, but what they are dealing with is an emotional issue that touches the heart of every person, not just the surrounding neighbors.

The "Forever Family" has no rule which bans parents from attending their meetings and discovering for themselves what actually transpires. The actions of this group seem to be greatly exaggerated to the point where their meaning is completely out of context.

One View from the Capitol

By William R. Bryant Jr.

Starting in January all persons using a gun in the commission of a felony will have at least two years imprisonment facing them. No probation, no early parole, no suspended sentences, just jail, plain and certain.

I don't mean to make crime a partisan issue, but the Democrat representative's bill which was enacted to bring this certainty of punishment into effect has been a key portion of the House Republican legislative program for a number of years.

We could not get it passed until it got popular enough for the Democrat majority to support.

We also have called consistently for, and will continue to fight for, mandatory minimum sentences for all major assaultive crimes. We were not able to get such a bill passed this year.

We also could not get through the Senate a bill for mandatory sentences for major heroin offenses, nor could we pass wiretap legislation needed to get the top drug dealers.

St. John Offers Smoking Clinic

The Saint John Hospital Guild will present a five-day Smoking Withdrawal Clinic beginning Monday, January 10, at 7:30 p.m. and continuing through Friday, January 14.

The Clinic will be held in the Regina High School auditorium, 2200 Kelly road, Harper Woods.

The program is sponsored by the Saint John Hospital Guild in cooperation with the Saint John medical staff as a community service.

Heading the clinic for the eleventh time will be John H. Burrows, MD, an oncologist from the hospital's medical staff. Also participating in the program will be a leader of the anti-smoking crusade, Arthur W. Weaver, MD, Chief of Head and Neck Services at Veterans' Hospital.

Other speakers include James W. Landers, MD, pathologist at Saint John; Donald Smith, MD, oral surgeon at Veterans' Hospital; and Jacques Beaudoin, MD, thoracic surgeon at Saint John.

According to the Michigan Cancer Foundation, which is cooperating with the Guild in presenting the program, these five-day Smoking Withdrawal Clinics are among the most effective means yet devised to aid smokers in breaking the habit.

For further information and free tickets to the program, call the Saint John Hospital Guild office, at 881-8200, extension 547.

Store Reports $1,000 Larceny

The manager of a Mack avenue department store reported to The Farms police that his business was the victim of a $1,000 rip-off on Saturday, December 11.

According to police reports, two young boys brought a sports coat into the store manager and reported they saw a woman drop it while getting into an automobile with an arm full of clothes.

A subsequent inventory by the store manager showed the loss of at least 10 assorted suits and sports coats worth around $1,000.

The get-a-way car was described as a blue four-door that headed south on Moross. Besides the woman, the auto also contained two men.

As we wind up this legislative term it should be obvious to the legislature as it is to the people that next term there is only one top priority issue and that issue is crime.

As Republican Floor Leader, I solicit and request that the people of Michigan pressure the legislature now and continually until all needed anti-crime legislation is passed and signed by the Governor.

If the pressure is great enough and constant enough, then the people will succeed in getting changes in sentencing, bail, plea bargaining, parole, juvenile court and drug laws and we can then move on to education, health and job measures needed to attack the causes of crime.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

Last week I commented on what we mean by the term "Basic Skills" in the school system's proposed revised philosophy statement. Readers will recall that Basic Skills encompass not only such subjects as reading, writing and arithmetic, but a broader range of topics, (creativity, development of thinking processes, acquisition of knowledge), to help each student throughout his or her entire life.

This week I shall comment on the second of those seven major goal areas, Self Discipline, which we hope our students will acquire. Although the word "discipline" has a number of meanings, the one that probably best fits our purposes in this context is "training which corrects, molds, strengthens or perfects."

And the term "self-discipline" involves self-management and goal setting, acceptable behavior, work habits and respect for the law and for the rights of others.

How does a school system provide an educational program in which students may

What better way to celebrate Christmas 1976 than with a Christmas tale about a frontier family of colonial America.

This story was told to me," states Paul Gallico in his MIRACLE IN THE WILDERNESS, (Delacorte), "when I was a boy, by my great-grandmother on a Christmas Eve by the fire. I always believed that stories told by great-grandmothers must be so for their old eyes look inward and they recall."

"I never knew whether this was something she had heard, or perhaps read in old letters yellowing in an attic loft, but only that it happened in the wilderness of Britain's colonies in the New World in the long distant past on Christmas Eve."

Jasper Adams had settled in the North American wilderness, cleared the forest, and built the forlorn cabin to which he later brought his bride, Dorcas, whom he wooed and won in Albany. Her family was newly arrived from England, but her great love for Jasper enabled her to adapt to this new life and in April, 1755, she gave birth to their son.

It was a hard life but a rewarding one. It was also dangerous. For the last 50 years the French, sometimes with Indian allies, and the British had been struggling for control of America. But constant vigilance and luck had kept Jasper's family and home safe. That is, until the morning of December 24, 1755.

That bright clear sunny morning Jasper went out into the woods to shoot a turkey for their dinner. He told Dorcas to bar the door as soon as he was out of sight of the cabin. She watched him cross the clearing and vanish into the forest with a smile of fond indulgence for his endless warnings. They had lived there for over a year now without so much as a sight of a hostile Indian.

The day was so fine, the sun in the cloudless sky so warm. Dorcas moved the baby's crib outside the cabin to let the child bask some of the winter pallor from his cheeks. Nearby was the pile of holly, mistletoe and pinecones that Jasper had gathered to decorate their cabin.

On an impulse she climbed up into the loft where the smoked hams hung with the filchies of bacon, bags of filberts and hickory nuts and bundles of dried herbs. In the corner next to the heap of winter apples she went delving into the horsehide box she had brought with her all the way from England and where the treasures of her girlhood were stored.

And there she was trapped, musing over a bit of lace and the matching of some silk ribbons to go with the red of the holly berries and the white of the mistletoe, when the raiding Algonkin stormed in. With the child already in their hands it was hopeless. She fought bravely and desperately but was subdued. The rising column of smoke from their burning home brought Jasper running from the woods and into the ambush.

The Algonkin raiding party immediately headed into the snowy woods with their three captives. On into the afternoon and evening they traveled. Then later that night, their captives near exhaustion, the party happened upon a circular glade made by a stand of oak trees that grew in a circle open to the sky.

Into this glade the moonlight shone and, ringed by the dark shadowy forest, illuminated it like an amphitheater. There the shaft of light revealed the most extraordinary sight: a family of deer kneeling in an attitude of prayer.

Uncertain as to the meaning of what appeared before them, the Indians turned to Jasper who told the story of the Christchild. Mystified and impressed by the strange story, the Algonkin decided that all gods should be treated with caution. Rather than anger this god of the white man, they left the Adams family to be rescued by the pursuing Iroquois and British soldiery.

In this heartwarming tale of faith and fortitude, Gallico has described a confrontation between two cultures and a victory for humanity. Readers of all ages will enjoy this new tribute to an ageless memory.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Driver Faces Two Charges

A St. Clair Shores motorist was stopped by a blockade of Shores Public Safety Department and St. Clair Shores scout cars, after a 60-mile an hour chase at 11:37 p.m. on Friday, December 17.

Arrested was James Thomas Greely III, 19, of 23277 Liberty, who is charged with speeding and failing to comply to a lawful command of a police officer, (failing to stop on signal). Greely posted a bond of $150 before he was released pending a court hearing set for February 23.

Sgt. James Jurcak stated in his report that he was on patrol, cruising north on Lakeshore when he observed a vehicle traveling at a high rate of speed south on the road and turned and gave chase. The sergeant said he paced the other car at 60 miles an hour. Lakeshore is zoned for 35 mph.

At the Oxford intersection, Sgt. Jurcak said, Greely applied his brakes and made a left turn, going north into oncoming traffic. Fortunately there was only one other auto traveling southbound and the driver was able to avoid a collision. Greely continued northward at a 50-mile clip until he reached Verner road, where the officer used the scout car loud speaker to order the motorist to the curb.

Greely slowed to 40 m.p.h. an hour, but continued northward on the road and at 11:00

Lakeshore, the sergeant, scout car light flashing, again used the speaker to order the man to stop, but the command went unheeded. Greely continued into St. Clair Shores, with Shores Cpl. Chester Painter and PSO Gary Mitchell aiding in the chase. At Doremus and Jefferson, a St. Clair Shores scout car crew, who monitored the chase over their radio, set up a roadblock with their vehicle.

With the St. Clair Shores car in front, and Sgt. Jurcak alongside, and Spl. Painter and PSO Mitchell behind him, Greely had no choice but to stop. He refused to get out of his vehicle and was forcibly pulled out by the sergeant, searched and handcuffed and conveyed to the Shores station by Cpl. Painter.

At the Shores station, Greely was issued the two tickets and when the handcuffs were being removed, he kicked Officer Mitchell in the right thigh, but inflicted no injury. The man was placed in the local cell, where he screamed and called the officers obscene names.

When Greely requested a second phone call, his wish was granted and he called his parents, telling them he intended to escape. When he refused to return to the cell, he was forcibly carried there and locked up. He was later released after bond was posted.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

"Please write . . ." The need to feel loved and important knows no national boundaries. There are 25 people in Grosse Pointe who are receiving letters with the same eager postscript in many languages.

The phrase weaves a magic spell between the Pointers, sponsors through Save the Children Federation, worldwide child help organization headquartered in Westport, Conn., and children all over the globe.

The children come from American Indian reservations, the mountains of Colombia, Mexico and Greece, the tropics of India . . . but they all have one thing in common: poverty.

Since its inception, SCF has had "self-help" as its guiding principle. It seeks to stimulate children, their families and communities to develop their own resources and work toward a permanent prosperity.

Questers End Special Year

With increased respect for the forefathers who settled our country, established our nation and laid the basis for our present way of life, members of Windmill Pointe Chapter of Questers No. 385 are bringing to a close their observance of America's Bicentennial Year.

The year's program has been devoted to learning more about the various peoples whose lives have affected the lives of all Americans — their tools, pleasures, music and dancing—and to exploring the lives and thoughts of the men who framed the Constitution.

Windmill Pointe members have researched both these topics, and the Chapter has made two field trips to broaden the scope of its study.

At an October meeting in the Bishop road home of Mrs. William Simpson, Mrs. Howard Reed illustrated her talk "An Interest in Cloisonne," with beautiful examples from her own collection, including some of her own design and making.

Other personal pieces were brought for the group to examine and enjoy. The day's agenda included a report by Mrs. Oscar Noren on Questers' state convention, held in the fall in Mount Pleasant.

Windmill Pointe Chapter members attending the convention included Mrs. Howard Harrison, president, and Mrs. Richard Beaudry, secretary.

The November meeting was held in the Colonial court home of Mrs. John Gillis. Mrs. Mary Putnam offered an informative glimpse into "Thomas Jefferson: the Times and the Man."

Mrs. Noren gave the program at the December meeting in the Broadstone road home of Mrs. Frank Kremble. "Pennsylvania Dutch Art" focussed not only on the unique folk art of these people who settled in America's east, but on their history, unique way of life—and renowned cooking.

Mrs. Harrison has invited the Chapter to gather in her Yorkshire road home at 10 o'clock Friday morning, January 14, for a social session and evaluation of the year's study.

Windmill Pointe Questers have invited other Grosse Pointe Questers to join them Monday, January 24, at the Grosse Pointe Central Library, Kercheval avenue at Fisher road, where Sue Jackson, Questers area chairman, will show slides and talk on Winterthur.

All members and their friends are welcome to attend this program.

Academy Chapel Setting for Rites

Susan Elizabeth Hendrie and Arthur John ("Chip") Rohde, Jr., were married Saturday, December 4, in the Grosse Pointe Academy Chapel, with a reception following at the Grosse Pointe Club.

Both the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hendrie, of Deming lane, and the bridegroom, son of Mrs. Arthur J. Rohde, of Oxford road, and the late Mr. Rohde, are members of old Detroit families.

The bride's grandparents are Mrs. Henry Earle, Ross Roy and Mr. and Mrs. George S. Hendrie. The bridegroom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Rohde and the late Mr. and Mrs. John Rabaut.

Officiating at the 5 o'clock ceremony was Father Albert J. Hillebrand.

The former Miss Hendrie, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory chiffon gown featuring bodice and bishop sleeve appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace. A tiny, scalloped Juliet cap caught her chapel mantilla, detailed with pearls and matching lace.

She carried an arrangement of white Sweetheart roses, stephanotis and variegated holly leaves.

Sara Hendrie was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were another sister, Mary Arlene Hendrie, a sister-in-law, Mrs. John A. Hendrie, Jr., of Houston, Tex., Anne Bayer and Sarah Galvin.

Their madeira chiffon frocks featured floor length, ripple-edged floating panels. They wore holly crowns in their hair, and carried Colonial bouquets of miniature pink carnations, baby's breath and holly leaves.

James A. Rohde served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Robert Ottaway, Lieutenant Bradford Navarro, Philip Lader, of Hilton Head, S.C., and the bride's three brothers, John A. Hendrie, Jr., David and Philip Hendrie.

Mrs. Hendrie chose a gown of emerald green chiffon, fashioned with a tucked bodice and tucked, cuff sleeves, for her daughter's wedding.

She pinned a cymbidium orchid to her purse.

Mrs. Rohde wore champagne jersey, styled with a gathered neckline and long sleeves, detailed at the waist with gold and silver beading. She, too, pinned a cymbidium orchid to her purse.

After a vacation in Mexico, the newlyweds are making their home in Hall place.

Special out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Law McCabe, of Kokomo, Ind., and the Thomas L. Conlans, Thomas L. Conlan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Conlan, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Barclay and the Misses Virginia and Christine Conlan, all of Cincinnati, O.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. J. Walker Booth and Carol Ann Booth, of West Hartford, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Powell, of Belleair Beach, Fla.

Miss Vaughan Weds in South

Coral Springs Golf and Tennis Club, Coral Springs Fla., was the setting for the wedding of Margaret Fenley (Wendy) Vaughan and Robert Brickman, and the reception following the 5:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Henry F. Vaughan, Jr., of Merriweather road, and the late Margaret F. Vaughan. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ray Brickman, of Winter Park, Fla.

For her Saturday, November 27, marriage, the former Miss Vaughan selected a long white organza gown, washed in blue satin and featuring embroidered spring flowers.

Her shoulder length white veil, made by a friend, was trimmed in blue. She carried a cascade of daisies, white

Sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

She was attended by her sister, Vicki Vaughan, in a pink floral Qiana skirt and scoop-necked white blouse, carrying a nosegay of pink Sweetheart roses.

Larry Gerstein, of St. Louis, Mo., served as Mr. Brickman's best man.

Traveling to Florida from Grosse Pointe for the ceremony were the bride's grandparents and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Greene Fenley, Jr., and Miss Carole Fenley.

The newlyweds are making their home in Coral Springs, where the bridegroom, a Florida State University graduate, is a wine consultant associated with Southern Wine and Spirits, Miami, Fla.

From Another Pointe of View

Among sponsors of American Indian children is Rosemary Eger, of Nottingham road, whose child is Lavern Ann, a 10-year-old Navajo girl who lives with her parents and 10 brothers and sisters in a wooden house on an isolated mesa.

Work is scarce for Lavern's father, a laborer. He does headwork at home, selling it to tourists. It is from this source that most of the family's meager income is derived.

Another American Indian sponsor is Richard K. Royer, of Westchester road, who has befriended Wilhelmina, a 12-year-old Crow whose passion is Indian dancing. Wilhelmina attends Crow public school. The friendship of her sponsor provides encouragement to continue her education.

Still another sponsor interested in American Indians is Patricia A. Totz, of Washington road. Her young friend is Peggy Ann, a nine-year-old Chippewa.

The Turtle Mountain Indian reservation where Peggy Ann lives is rich in lakes, hills and small trees, but economic conditions are very poor. In many cases, houses are sub-standard. There is a lack of businesses, and unemployment is high.

Steiner-Hollerbach Vows Exchanged

Garden Is Setting for Ceremony, Reception and Dinner; Father Albert Hillebrand Presided at the Late Summer Nuptials

In the garden at the Voltaire place home of his father, Erv Steiner, Jr., Lisa Ann Hollerbach and Mark Douglas Steiner exchanged marriage vows. Father Albert Hillebrand presided at the 5:30 o'clock ceremony.

The marriage service, written by Lisa and Mark, took place under the elm trees at the far end of the garden, where an outdoor reception and dinner was hosted by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hollerbach, of Washington road.

For her Saturday, August 21, wedding, the former Miss Hollerbach chose an ivory chiffon gown. Her halter-shaped bodice was covered with a capelet of Chantilly lace. Her circular skirt ended in a chapel train, and a satin cummerbund defined her waist.

She wore a single gardenia in her hair, and carried a cascade of gardenias, stephanotis and baby's-breath.

Honor attendant Carol Hyland and bridesmaid Rosemary Messacar wore peppermint green chiffon, Empire-waisted and spaghetti-strapped. They carried cascades of English ivy, baby's-breath and tiny pink carnations. Each pinned a small cluster of baby's-breath at the back of her hair.

Chip Steiner, of Clinton, was his brother's best man. They are also the sons of the late Dee Steiner. Greg Messacar ushered.

The mother of the bride pinned cymbidium orchids to the shoulder of her pink chiffon gown.

Child-to-Child Gifts Go Out

Thousands of children in the Detroit area, through no fault of their own, live in foster homes.

Many are fortunate and live with loving substitute families carefully selected by the Wayne County Social Services Department; these families provide a good and stable home atmosphere, but often are unable to "play Santa Claus" to the foster care children at Christmas time.

To help remedy this situation, the Junior League formed LINC, (Linking Individuals to Needs in the Community), tries to make sure each foster child had a gift to open at Christmas.

Betty Durham, Special Project coordinator for LINC, has arranged a "child to child" program within the elementary schools in the Grosse Pointe area, whereby the Pointe children contribute carefully-selected gifts to foster care children in their own age group.

University Liggett is one of the program's participating schools. Mrs. Emmett Eagan whose daughter, Tara, is a first grade student there, has coordinated the ULS children's efforts.

"LINC," she explains, "is a 'people-oriented' experience devoted to helping the needy in Wayne County... generally with goods, not money, although we do have a Pointsettia Sale in December and a City Fair in June to help raise funds."

"We cooperate in the Wayne County Social Services Department," she adds, "and they distribute the gifts to the proper homes."

University Liggett Lower School was a beehive of activity early in December as children from all grade levels bustled about with plastic bags filled with beautifully wrapped mittens, puzzles, scarves, games, knessocks and dolls, all carefully labeled.

As the gift pile next to the front door grew larger, it was apparent that a moving van would have been a more appropriate vehicle for Santa's Pack than Mrs. Eagan's station wagon.

One gift from a fourth grade student had a tag reading, "This furry little raccoon is for you from Gillian Darlow. The tag on it says its name is Robin Raccoon, but you can name it anything you like."

In Mrs. Bryk's second grade classroom, the children took special efforts and hand-made charming sock dolls, truly gifts from the heart. Brandon Pelock, a very articulate young gentleman, explained that his father had contributed 22 pairs of army socks to the project.

Branden demonstrated how the dolls could easily be used as hand puppets.

Many of the ULS children earned money to buy their gifts by shoveling snow or doing extra errands.

Shopping for the presents, they took special care to select items they themselves would treasure. All learned, through the experience, the joy of giving, and know that their gifts will be well received by youngsters their own age.

Through the efforts of LINC and the children at University Liggett and other Grosse Pointe schools, there will be at least one happy memory under the Christmas tree for each foster care child in the Detroit area.

Yes, Virginia... there is a Santa Claus. But he may be a child in disguise.

MRS. WERNER RICHERZ, HAGEN, of South Renard road, was recently installed as a board member of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs. She is immediate past-president of the Detroit Business Woman's Club.

Two Traditions Meet in Pointe

By Katie Elsil
Our family, like several others in Grosse Pointe, celebrates both Hannukah and Christmas.

Last Thursday night we celebrated the first night of the ancient Jewish holiday by sitting down with friends to a supper of potato pancakes—called latkes—which are traditionally served on Hannukah.

Then our son lit the first candle on the holiday candleholder—called the Menorah—and the children played the dreidel game: a traditional holiday game played with a top called a dreidel.

Our windows reflected shining lights from both the Hannukah candles and our Christmas tree.

Next week the children's cousins, aunts, uncles and grandparents will gather at our house for a Christmas Eve celebration.

Both my husband and I feel that by celebrating the cultural traditions of both their parents, our children are enriched and broadened.

We are glad that they are learning early and naturally an understanding and appreciation of what it means to live in and enjoy a multicultural world.

Mary McQueen, daughter of the W. F. McQueens, former Hollywood avenue residents who now make their home in Detroit's Art Centre Apartment, and Mitchell Smith, son of the J. W. Smith family, of Hollywood avenue, exchanged marriage vows Saturday, September 18, in Detroit's Saint Paul's Episcopal Cathedral.

They are living near campus at Ohio State University in Columbus, where Mitchell is in his senior year, working toward a degree in Engineering. Mary, like Mitchell a Grosse Pointe North High School graduate, has completed her sophomore year at Wayne State University.

At a Thanksgiving Eve ceremony November 24, in the Chapel of Saint John Hospital, Mary Frances Brennan spoke her marriage vows to Dr. Howard Marc Kaplan, son of Mrs. Lawrence Kaplan, of Flint, and the late Mr. Kaplan.

Dr. and Mrs. Michael J. Brennan entertained at a reception at their Three Mile drive home following their daughter's wedding.

The newlyweds vacationed in northern Michigan. They are making their home in Franklin.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length, long-sleeved gown of white chiffon, with a shoulder length veil. White roses and baby's-breath formed her bouquet.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Peter F. Sullivan, as honor matron, and bridesmaids Ann Brennan, another sister, and Kathleen Prendergast, of River Forest, Ill.

They wore long, deep burgundy frocks, with pearls, and carried burgundy American Beauty roses.

The bride's nieces, Patricia and Theresa Molloy, in similar burgundy gowns, led the wedding procession down the aisle.

Robert Kaplan, of Flint, was his brother's best man. Serving as ushers were Dr. Timothy Brennan, brother of the bride, and Dr. Michael Gellis.

Dr. Kaplan is presently serving as one of the chief residents of the Medical Service at Henry Ford Hospital. The new Mrs. Kaplan is completing her senior year at Wayne State University School of Medicine.

Present Advent Light Program

The Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Congregational Church celebrated the Advent season with a Christmas candlelight buffet Tuesday, December 14, featuring punch and small appetizers, served in the Church Lounge, preceding dinner and a reprise of the "Festival of Lights," highlight of last year's Advent gathering.

The Festival, a Christmas program of music and pageantry, is a modified version of the medieval pageant that originated in Oxford, England, as presented at California Technical University.

In Grosse Pointe, the play was produced by Mrs. Donald Clark and directed by Myron Muntz, a member of The Players. Ronald E. Brown, the Church's organist and choir director, served as musical director.

It is intended that the Festival become an annual feature of the Congregational Church Women's Advent celebrations.

Julie to Play Emily on TV

For those of you who missed Julie Harris' stunning performance as Emily Dickinson in "The Belle of Amherst" in its week's run at the Fisher Theatre last month, Channel 56 has a special Christmas gift.

Detroit's Public Television station will present the TV adaptation of the stage play Wednesday, December 29, at 8 o'clock, and Friday, December 31, at 5:30 o'clock.

The play was videotaped at PBS member station KCET/Los Angeles, in front of a live audience and without interruption except for the original, single intermission.

Miss Harris, one of America's most distinguished actresses, is a native Pointer, daughter of Mrs. William P. Harris, Jr., of Ellair place.

"The Belle of Amherst" is a one-woman tour de force in which Miss Harris portrays Emily Dickinson in almost every stage of the poet's life, from her early teens to age 53. William Luce's play was culled from Dickinson's poems, letters and notes.

Learning the 100-page script was a labor of love for Julie, who has been giving readings of the poet's verse for years. A chance visit to one of these readings by Charles Nelson Reilly, who directed the stage version of "Belle," led to the concept of the play.

"What I think you get from Emily Dickinson," says Miss Harris, "is what you get from any great writer: all of life. Great writers can illuminate the realities of life — not just tell about them, but show us their inner light."

"Belle" producers Mike Merrick and Don Gregory are specialists in the production of one-person shows. They scored a previous triumph with Henry Fonda in "Clarence Darrow."

family use the TV Guide to set priorities and discourage the practice of continuous TV. Board members participated in an exercise in reading for meaning, similar to those developed for youngsters in Mr. Rice's classes.

Following adjournment of the meeting, Mrs. Joan Hanpeter, of the School Board, spoke briefly about the current situation in contract negotiations with the teachers. The School Board's position has been presented to the fact finder. The teachers' representatives are presenting their position now and will finish in January.

The fact finder, dean of the School of Education at Wayne State University, will deliver his recommendations four to six weeks later.

Mrs. Hanpeter said the Board has been reluctant to discuss the details of its position since negotiations are a series of flexible offers and counter-offers, but now that the position as presented to the fact finder has to be made public, the Board is concerned that the community understand its position.

Mrs. Hanpeter will welcome comments and questions. The Mothers' Club board meeting January 3 will feature a brand new film by the American Cancer Society on Breast Self-Examination, presented by the Health Education Council for the approval

Concert Focus Is Christmas

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of guest conductor Rafael Duclaux, will present a concert of Baroque and 20th century seasonal music this evening, Thursday, December 23, at 8:30 o'clock in Ford auditorium.

The concert is part of the continuing 1976 DSO Christmas Festival. The program for the Chamber Orchestra includes music of five composers: Vivaldi, Tartini, Corelli, Haydn and Hindemith.

The concert opens with the fourth concerto, "L'Inverno" (Winter), in Vivaldi's set "Le quattro stagioni" (The Four Seasons). Mr. Duclaux will both conduct and perform the violin obbligato (solo).

Two more concertos specifically designed for performance at Christmas follow: the Sinfonia pastorale of Giuseppe Tartini and the "Concerto fatto per il tempo di natale" (Christmas concerto) of Arcangelo Corelli. Post-intermission, the concert concludes with Haydn's Symphony No. 30 (nicknamed "Alleluia" because of a plainchant which provides one of the themes), and Hindemith's "Tuttfantchen" Suite: pieces taken from incidental music he wrote for a Christmas fantasy-play in 1922.

Inside the Mothers Club

The executive board of the Grosse Pointe South High School Mothers' Club met December 6.

Plans are already being discussed for Homecoming in the fall of 1977, with the date agreed upon October 8, 1977. Chairman Mrs. Charles R. Boyce submitted her complete report, and was commended by President Mrs. Gerald E. Warren for its thoroughness.

Mrs. Thomas A. Coulter, chairman of the Christmas tea and concert, thanked all board members who attended and helped greet the guests. Seven hundred and fifty people attended the tea, held December 1, in spite of bad weather. The committee hopes to show a profit due to the sale of cookies and decorations.

The Leaf Bag Sale was very successful, according to co-chairmen Mrs. John Cross and Mrs. Donald Kelly. Three hundred and nineteen bags were sold for a profit of $359. Mrs. Cross asked the board for suggestions of possible sources of bags under the amount of $100.

The board was surprised and delighted by the appearance of the officers of the South High Honor Society: Bill Donahue, Anne Zedan and Maura Sendelbach. The young people presented $100, raised through bagel sales, to the Scholarship Fund.

This sum represents one-third of the Honor Society's contributions to service organizations.

Starting in January, a drop box will be placed in South High's main office for donations from students or parents: PAPERBACK BOOKS, NOT MONEY!

This is a new project to assist the school librarians and the English Resource Center in securing used or new paperbacks. The committee will sort these contributions and deliver them to the proper places. Ann Ardussi, chairman of the project, offered to store books if any are donated before January.

Mrs. Frank Zinn, chairman of the Neighborhood Discussion Groups, announced a special bridge party to be held at South High in February for the bridge groups and all other bridge players.

Mrs. Loraine Foley, a volunteer working with FLEC, described a new program on alcohol education being developed by FLEC.

"A task force of students recruited from Grosse Pointe and Harper Woods schools is now taking training sessions with professionals in the field of alcohol education." The League of Women Voters will then supply training in group leadership, and the trained young people will participate in action projects such as rap sessions and debates with junior high students.

Mrs. Foley offered a number of pamphlets on alcoholism and petitions for raising the legal age for drinking. She urged board members to set a good example for teenagers in responsible and controlled drinking.

Mrs. Warren asked each board member to take a petition to fill over Christmas vacation.

The special program featured Jon Rice, reading consultant at Grosse Pointe South. His presentation was entitled: "Have You Done Your Homework?"

Mr. Rice's responsibility thus far this year has been with ninth graders in their Civics classes and in small groups from English classes. Next semester he will conduct a series of one-week workshops on the SAT, helping 11th and 12th graders develop skills necessary to attack this crucial examination.

Also in the future are plans to offer short courses in study skills for college-bound seniors and sessions for ninth graders on how to take a final exam.

Since "kids dislike homework more than anything," parents should assist their youngsters to establish a routine of evening study in three 30-minute segments, not consecutive intervals.

Mr. Rice described the steps necessary to make this time profitable. He also discussed the problem, (and blessings), of television, and recommended that the entire

George Howell, of Fisher road, Scarab Club president and Beverly Taylor of St. Clair Shores, also had paintings selected for the show as were sculptures by Florence Ericson, of Neff road.

First prize winner was Sam Karres, of Dearborn.

One of the prizes for the show was given by the Rainy Day Artist Supply Company, located in Mack avenue in Grosse Pointe Woods.

Auto Show Preview to Benefit NEGC

Three organizations — the Boys Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit, the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and the Northeast Guidance Center—will share proceeds from the 1977 Auto Show Charity Preview, set for Friday evening, January 14, at Cobo Hall. Pictured above previewing the Preview with JIM McDONALD, member of the Detroit Auto Dealers Association, Auto

Show sponsor, are Northeast Guidance Center Assistance League party planners, (standing, left to right), MARILYN (Mrs. Edwin J., Jr.) STEDEM, project chairman, JANE (Mrs. Roger) MARSHALL, general chairman, MARIE (Mrs. Edward) SCHUMACHER, co-chairman, and, (in car), JAN (Mrs. Thomas) ARNDT, Assistance League president.

All income from Detroit Auto Show Charity Preview tickets purchased through the Assistance League to the NEGC will be used to further a special program designed to prevent and provide early treatment for emotional disturbance in children.

Babies who are born prematurely, have low birth weights or face other complications during early development have been found to have a high risk factor towards development of emotional disturbances.

Information on tax deductible tickets for the black tie optional evening, at $12.50 per person, may be obtained by calling Mrs. Jackson at 824-8000.

Preview-goers will be able to visit a "Design Center," to see first-hand many of the elements which make up the vehicles of today and will make up those of tomorrow. The Design Center is a highlight of the 1977 Auto Show, which offers all the new car models on display under one roof.

A fashion show by Jacobson's, featuring new designer clothes, will be among the Charity Preview "specials." Many local celebrities will be in attendance.

Greenfield Village Re-Creates Christmas Past

For today's generation, the simple word Christmas is likely to prompt thoughts of aluminum trees, crowded parking lots and an endless stream of January bills. Wouldn't it be nice to go back to the days when Christmas wasn't quite such a hassle?

You can. Continuing through January 2, Greenfield Village in Dearborn is presenting Christmas the way it used to be—the way we often wish it could be now.

In the Village, three centuries of American Christmas are faithfully remembered and authentically re-created.

Snow is a carpet for horse-drawn sleighs. The savory smells of holiday cookery emanate from many a century-old kitchen, and the annual visit by Saint Nicholas is still an event to be met with great anticipation.

In this carefully researched holiday observance, Village homes are decorated as they might have been when their original famous owners observed the season.

Some have seen 300 Christmas, others only 100. Together they reflect the quiet kind of Christmas we'd all like to remember.

Inside the Cotswold Cottage, dating from about 1620 and brought to the Village from England to typify the kinds of homes our ancestors left behind in the Old World, flickering firelight plays on decorative garlands of holly, ivy and boxwood, ancient symbols of the continuation of life.

Outside, a Yule log rests on the hearth. Its steady burning was once thought to guarantee a year of good luck.

Not far away is the one-room Plympton House, where traditions brought to America by the Dutch are recalled. On the door hang three oranges on a pine swag, representing the three bags of gold Saint Nicholas presented to three young women as a dowry in one of the legends about his generous gift giving.

Inside, wooden shoes filled with carrots and straw for Saint Nicholas' horse are set on the hearth. A pot of white beans signifies the end of famine in Saint Nicholas' home country.

Christmas in the 1720's is represented at the Secretary Pearson House, home of the first Secretary of State of new Hampshire. In the dining room, a pyramid of luxury imported fruits—oranges from Seville, limes and lemons from the West Indies—graces the table.

Such pyramids were both decorative and functional, for diners ate them.

From the ceiling in the hallway of the Ann Arbor

House, a Greek Revival structure of the 1840's, hangs a kissing bell made of laurel, mistletoe, apples and beeswax candles. Story has it that young couples would make a game of trying to bite the apples—and, in the process, exchange a kiss.

Christmas trees have their place in Village homes as well. In Noah Webster's stately Connecticut home, the tree in the drawing room is decorated with glass balls, birds and candles in tin holders.

It is patterned after one of the earliest known illustrations of Christmas trees in America, which appeared in 1838.

Small American flags and candles in tin holders adorn a tabletop tree in the 1869 Henry Ford Birthplace. The idea, taken from an 1866 illustration, depicts the nat-

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Your house roof generally receives the hardest wear of any part of the structure. It suffers wear and tear from the weather and from freezing and thawing temperatures. The point where the roof intersects with other surfaces, such as walls, chimneys and dormers, are subject to leaks, as are valleys—the places where two roof slopes intersect. Flashing materials provide protection from water penetration at these points. These materials are usually of galvanized sheet iron, copper, aluminum, zinc alloy, or flashing felt.

If you have decided to buy a home during 1977 discuss your plans with the professional representatives at GROSSE POINTE REAL ESTATE CO., 20087 Mack Ave., Grosse Pointe Woods, 882-0087 who have a complete knowledge of real estate values in this area. ## Holiday Events Are Scheduled at Detroit Institute of Arts

One major exhibition, two social films join 101 permanent shows, a seasonal gallery talk and two unseasonal galleries as holiday attractions for Detroit Institute of Arts visitors.

"Arts & Crafts in Detroit 1906-1976" is a spectacular display of 400 paintings, sculpture, ceramics, precious metals, ironwork, glass, folk art, enamels, textiles and other works associated with the 70-year history of the Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts. Admission is free.

The show, which has drawn crowds since it opened in late November, will continue through Sunday, January 16, on two levels of the museum's South Wing.

Two additional exhibitions are "The Peaceable Kingdom," featuring more than 100 real and imaginary animals interpreted by artists of four centuries, and "Recent Acquisitions: Photography," showing camera artists from 1870 to the present. Both are on the ground floor of the museum.

Appropriate to the season is a gallery talk on "The Adoration of the Magi." The painting, by 16th century Flemish artist Joos van Cleve, will be discussed in Gallery 348 by Christine Schneider, of the museum's Education Department, at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday, December 29.

"The Lady From Shanghai," directed by Orson Welles in 1947, generates psychological drama in Free Middy Movies shown in the Art Institute lecture hall at 2 o'clock today, Thursday, December 23, and Sunday, December 26.

"Sunset Boulevard," also a 1947 release, will be the feature December 29 and 30 and January 2. During the holidays, the Detroit Institute of Arts is open as usual except on December 24, 25 and 31 and January 1. Regular museum hours are 9:30 to 5:30 o'clock Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday; 1 to 5 o'clock Friday.

Midsummer Rites For Ellen Erikson

After Leland Vacation, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Lee Cooper Are at Home in Harper Woods; Reception Is Held at War Memorial

The vows exchanged by Ellen Ellwood Erikson and Christopher Lee Cooper Friday evening, August 6, in the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church were written by the bride and bridegroom.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erik Erikson, of DePetris way. Mr. Cooper is the son of Dr. Robert L. Cooper, of Tequesta, Fla., formerly of Shaker Heights, O., and the late Catherine Cooper.

Presiding at the 6 o'clock rites, which were followed by a dinner reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, was The Reverend Fred Campbell.

The newlyweds vacationed in Leland and are at home in Harper Woods. The bride teaches in the South Lake District. The bridegroom is with Playstray Corporation.

For her marriage, the former Miss Erikson chose a seated by the bride's brothers, Erik E. Erikson, II, and Jon Erikson, and Mr. Brinker.

The bride's mother wore emerald green linen. The bridegroom's stepmother selected yellow Qiana. Both mothers chose orchid corsages.

Special guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Morrison, of Holmes Beach, Fla., and Mrs. Erik Erikson, of Detroit, and the bridegroom's grandmothers, Mrs. Mary Paterson, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Charles E. Cooper, of Tequesta, Fla.

white linen gown, styled with a scoop-necked, lace bodice. Her veil was handmade. She carried a cascade of pink and white Sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy.

She was attended by her sister, Emigh Erikson, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Jones, of Cleveland, a college roommate of the bride, Vicki Newell, of Decatur, and Mrs. David Brinker, of Columbus, O., the bridegroom's sister.

White lace trimmed their green-and-white checked gingham dresses. They carried nosegays of yellow daisies and pink miniature carnations.

Theodore R. Kelter, III, was best man. Guests were

Miss Stainsby Wed in East

At a double ring ceremony Saturday, September 18, in Saint Catharines Anglican Church, North Vancouver, B.C., Elizabeth Anne Stainsby and James Robert Young exchanged marriage vows.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Dent Stainsby, former Farm residents who now make their home in North Vancouver, is a graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School and the University of Michigan.

The bridegroom, who also received his degree from the University of Michigan last May, is the son of Mrs. Wesley Young, of Paw Paw, and the late Mr. Young.

For the rites at which The Reverend Ian Grant officiated, the former Miss Stainsby, given in marriage by her father, chose a candlelight gown of embroidered organza trimmed with Venice lace.

Seed pearls and lace accented her ivory veil. She carried coral Sonja roses, stephanotis and baby's-breath, with ivory satin streamers.

Patricia Stainsby, honor maid for her sister, wore a long gown of coral silk jersey, with a short cape, and carried a nosegay of pale yellow daisy chrysanthemums and baby's-breath, with coral satin streamers.

Charles Young was best man for his brother, Mark Fromberg and Stuart Harrison, both of North Vancouver, seated the guests.

The mother of the bride wore a long-sleeved, formal length, coral and green floral-patterned gown. The bridegroom's mother chose a long sleeved, royal blue knit.

After a reception in the Fireside Room of the Canyon Gardens Restaurant, the newlyweds left to vacation on Kauai, Hawaii. They are making their home in Arlington, Va. Mr. Young is associated with a Washington, D.C., law firm.

Mrs. C. L. Cooper

ELLEN ELLWOOD ERIKSON, daughter of the Erik Eriksons, of DePetris way, became Mr. Cooper's bride Friday, August 6, at an evening ceremony in the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. Robert L. Cooper, of Tequesta, Fla., formerly of Shaker Heights, O., and the late Catherine Cooper.

Tips on Caring for Poinsettia

Not everyone has a Christmas tree these days, but judging from the increasing popularity of the poinsettia plant, probably at least one in 10 households will have one this holiday season, and green thumbs will be theorizing on how to care and handle them.

Experts with Teleflora Incorporated, the flowers-by-wire service, advise consumers that plants will last long after the holidays if they follow a few basic rules.

Place the plant in a waterproof container to protect furniture. Avoid drafts or excess heat from appliances, radiators or ventilation ducts.

Place the plant high enough to be out of reach of small children and animals; give daily checkups for water and remove discolored leaves. Personal attention makes poinsettias last longer.

When bracts age and become muddy green, cut back plant to eight inches to grow as a foliage plant indoors with direct light six to eight hours daily and 60 to 70 degree temperatures at night.

The pot may be placed outside when temperatures are warm. Avoid temperatures below 50 degrees at night throughout the summer.

For reflowering in the winter, avoid artificial light at night after October 1.

To prolong bright color bracts temperatures should not exceed 72 day or 60 night; above 75 degrees shortens plant life.

Water the plant thoroughly when soil surface is dry to

Secretarial Review Course to be Offered

The Detroit Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) is sponsoring a Secretarial Review Course beginning January 8 and continuing through April 16, with classes on alternate Saturdays at the Detroit College of Business, Dearborn.

Educators from DCB, the University of Michigan, Walsh College, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company's Word Processing Center and a Certified Professional Secretary from Ford Motor Company will conduct classes covering secretarial procedures, accounting, law, word processing, data processing, economics and business administration.

Tuition is $35. No refunds will be issued after the opening session. Registration deadline is December 30.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Helen Nichols, 961-5840, or Mary Burnette, 224-4532, during normal business hours.

the touch. Some plants require daily watering, others every other day. Discard excess water. Poinsettias dislike wet feet.

Following these basic rules will ensure a longer, happier life for the poinsettia plant.

Edison Offers Customer Loans

The Michigan Public Service Commission recently authorized Detroit Edison to finance up to $750 for customers who install ceiling, wall, floor, or basement insulation, regardless of how the customer's home is heated.

The commission said the new program will mean that homeowners who use any type of fuel for heating —
electricity, oil, natural gas,
LP gas, coal or wood — will be eligible for insulation financing if they receive any service from Edison.

The company will finance up to $750 for four years, at an annual interest rate of approximately 11 percent, the commission said. Customers who pay off their balance within three months will not be charged interest.

A 15 percent down payment will be required, or a larger amount if the total contract price exceeds $750.
If the work is financed by Edison, the company will arrange for a contractor and obtain the customer's agreement on an estimated price.

Edison said its own field representatives would inspect work done under the financing plan, to ensure that it is completed satisfactorily.

Advice Offered to Imbibers

"Button, button, who's got the button?"

Automobile Club of Michigan is offering colorful peel-off-and-stick-on vinyl party buttons to help keep holiday imbibers safe drivers during this year's Christmas-New Year's season, according to John Anderson, manager of the Grosse Pointe Triple-A office.

The nine party buttons and a pamphlet containing an alcohol quiz are available
free to the public at any Triple-A office in Michigan.
The pamphlet also contains a chart showing blood alcohol tolerance by weight according to the number of drinks consumed, plus other tips for party-goers and hosts.

The buttons and pamphlets are part of Auto Club's annual "First a Friend, then a Host" campaign aimed at reducing alcohol-related traffic fatalities during the holidays.
Mr. Anderson notes that

Can Recycling Plan Continues

If your Christmas budget could use a shot in the arm, check before putting out your trash.

Aluminum cans and other household aluminum items such as pie plates, aluminum foil, frozen food and dinner
trays, dip, pudding and meat containers are being bought up by Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Co. at the going rate of 15 cents a pound.

As part of a continuing recycling program, the company will maintain its regular mobile unit stops with the exception of Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.

According to Reynolds district recycling manager R. J.
Woosley, Detroit area residents have turned in more than 28,500 pounds of aluminum during the month of November. For their efforts, recyclers have received $4,000
from the company.

In this area, the mobile recycling unit will be operating at Eastland Shopping Center, parking lot five, from 10
a.m.-12 noon on Tuesday, December 14, 21 and 28.

If properly prepared, other items, including aluminum siding, gutters, storm door and window fixtures as well as lawn furniture tubing, also will be accepted.

These items must be free of foreign materials and should be cut to lengths not exceeding three feet. Such articles should be turned in separately from cans and trays.

TV Premiere For Pace Film

Bill Pace, of Cadieux road, has received top honors in two major filmmaking competitions: the bronze medal at the 19th International Film & TV Festival of New York and the silver medallion at the Festival of the Americas in the United States Virgin Islands.

"Walkin's Too Slow," a film about young runaways, will have its television premiere this Tuesday, December 28, at 7:30 o'clock on WXYZ-TV Channel 7.

The film, produced and directed by Bill Pace, selected for one of the top three awards in a field of over 100 documentaries entered in the Virgin Islands Festival, also will be shown on Channel 56 at 8 o'clock Thursday, January 6.

"Walkin's Too Slow" features six runaways who reveal their personal experiences in crisis centers, juvenile court, youth homes and on the streets of America.

Included in the film production team were cameraman Bob Handley, associate producer Judith Schoenberg, soundman Scott Smith and editor Ronald Medico.

Homestead. Visitors are tempted by the warm mince-meat tarts coming out of the oven at the Stephen Foster Birthplace.

In the Village Crafts Center, bread baking, broom making, weaving, tinsmithing, glass blowing, pottery making and other century-old skills are demonstrated.

Inside Town Hall, on the Village green, complimentary hot, spiced cider and Christmas cookies await chilly visitors.

Across the green at Clinton Inn, guests may warm themselves beside a roaring fire, enjoying their food amid festive decorations that re-create Christmas in a roadside hostelry of the 1800's.

Outside, carolers wander along the snow-covered streets. Visitors may take a nostalgic ride in a horse-drawn sleigh, (snow conditions permitting), or travel the Village perimeter in a restored railway coach of the 1870's pulled by a 100-year-old steam locomotive.

The old-fashioned Christmas observance at Greenfield Village continues daily with the exception of Christmas Day and New Year's Day, when the Village is closed. Hours are 9 to 5 o'clock.

There is no additional charge for the special Christmas celebration beyond the regular Village admission of $3 for adults, $1.25 for children six through 12. Children under six are admitted free.

Up-to-the minute information on holiday activities may be obtained by dialing the Village Party Line, 271-1876.

Pointers of Interest

By Janet Mueller

"Hi! The Hand Puppet Committee of the Fontbonne Auxiliary of Saint John Hospital made me especially for you and other children your age, between two and eight, who have been brought to the Saint John Hospital's Emergency Room as a patient. I hope you like me, and that having me as a friend will make you happy."

My puppet is a yellow felt clown, with white mittens, red buttons, blue rickrack trim and a wide, red grin.

I'm not two-to-eight — but it makes me happy.

The first, (and, as it turns out, only), trick is finding Meeting Room B. That's where Fontbonne's Hand Puppet Committee works out every Wednesday, from 9 in the morning until 3 in the afternoon.

Meeting Room B is located in Saint John's Center for Health Education, and that's located in Saint John's basement, and basements of big buildings — and Saint John is a big building — are extraordinary places, full of rooms full of odd machinery, closets full of curious supplies, kitchens and cupboards.

Saint John's cafeteria. Another small table holds boxes filled with manilla envelopes, labeled "Mouse Mouths," "Large White Ollie Eyes," "Little White Tongues," "Little Red Tongues," "Little Black Tongues."

"We make up packets so volunteers can work at home," Lee Ann explains. The puppets can be put together anywhere, and the project has been adopted by individuals and groups.

Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts are helping. So is Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish's Saint Augustine Circle, under Rita Haller and Elizabeth Elie, which hopes to supply approximately 200 puppets per month.

It's okay if you come in the front door, (facing Morris), but a sideways entrance, from the parking lot, takes you down corridors and down stairs, turning left, right, left, no: left, left, right.

The thing is to ask. Anybody you can find. And to keep asking, until you reach your destination.

You'll hear Meeting Room B before you see it. Its sound is pleasant, strangely old-fashioned: the hum of women's voices against the background hum of a sewing machine.

"We need some more little mittens for these clowns."

"I'm done with this. What do I do now?"

"I have to leave in a few minutes, to pick up my daughter at nursery school, but I'll be back later."

The women, (12 to 15 come regularly every week), work at a square of tables. In the center of the square is Cathy (Mrs. Daniel L.) McCarthy, of Merriweather road, on the floor, in a blue denim pantsuit, sorting through mounds of material. "Is this," she asks, holding up a blue and white remnant, "big enough for a mouth?"

Cathy is co-chairman of the Hand Puppet Committee.

Chairman is Lee Ann (Mrs. Thomas J.) McCarthy, of Sunningdale drive. They're sisters-in-law.

Meeting Room B is an organized mess. Some women are cutting, some are pasting. One is ironing, another working the sewing machine. They don't do the same jobs every week; they trade off, but everyone is always busy.

Saint Augustine Circle held a Christmas auction to raise money to buy materials for the puppets, collecting $200 to purchase its own felt.

"This is NOT," stresses Lee (Mrs. Vollrad J.) von Berg, Fontbonne president, who brought the idea back from a Michigan Association of Hospital Auxiliaries' presidents' meeting in Grand Rapids. It is a fund-raising project. It is strictly a SERVICE project: something the Auxiliary and its volunteers want to do FOR people.

Fontbonne provides the materials, purchasing them out of its own pocket. Donations of both money and materials are gratefully accepted. "Look," says Lee, delighted, flashing a check for $25 made out to Fontbonne Auxiliary with the notation that it be used for the Puppet Committee, "this is the sort of thing that is starting to happen."

"It's Christmas, and people who normally do something for charity every Christmas have begun to know about us, and are beginning to do something about us."

Prospective donors can rest assured that nothing is wasted. Scraps of material too small to be used for puppets, leftovers when the patterns are cut, provide stuffing packets for Saint John's Activities Cart.

What the puppet makers really could use is another sewing machine. They have one, a donation, and the use of another, Lee Ann McCarthy's personal machine.

A third would be a lovely Christmas gift. Materials, trims and yarns of all sorts are needed. "If anyone has any," says Lee Ann, "have them call the Fontbonne Office at 881-8200, Extension 545, or just drop the materials off at the front entrance Information Desk at Saint John."

"People are needed, too. Anyone interested may stop by any Wednesday and join the group, for an hour or all day. The more the better! Most of the Wednesday Workers take things home to work on during the week. Some women work exclusively at home. Anna Ireland, 80-plus, assembles 50 puppets and drops them off each week. She's been with the project since the beginning, when the call for volunteers went out in church and community bulletins, and in the NEWS, where Mrs. Ireland read about it and decided, "This is for me."

Before work on the project began, it was thoroughly checked out with the professionals: Dr. Eugene Cerner, director of Saint John's Emergency Services, Mrs. Mary Clausen, R.N., Emergency Room supervisor, Dr. Ali Rabbani, chief of the Department of Pediatrics, and Elizabeth Williams, R.N., Child Health supervisor.

Did they think it would be a good idea? Did they have any suggestions? There were safety factors to be considered, such as DON'T use buttons for trimming, (little hands can pull them off, little mouths can swallow them), but the general consensus was "Yes: it will be a good thing; the puppets will provide youngsters with a cheerful diversion during a traumatic period."

There was a backlog to be assembled. The first puppets were given out last Monday, December 20, but the puppet makers have been at work since September 29.

Every Wednesday, on the blackboard in Meeting Room B, Lee Ann McCarthy, chalked up the number of puppets completed to date. By December, that number

Mrs. Snyder is the former SHARON WALLACE, daughter of the EUGENE WALLACES, of Oxford road. Paternal grandparents are the JAMES SNYDERS, of Moran road. Little Stephanie's big sister is five-and-a-half-year-old ERIN SNYDER.

Among Kalamazoo College music students performing in the annual Chamber Orchestra and Wind Ensemble concert Wednesday, December 1, at the school's Dalton Theater were GAY GILEZAN, on viola, daughter of the PETER GILEZANS, of Severn road, and DIANE DUPUIS, on oboe, daughter of MR. and MRS. ROBERT DUPUIS, of Lincoln road.

DIANNE THOMPSON, daughter of the EVAN L. THOMPSONS, of Bishop road, appeared as Lady Teale in the Williams College Theatre's production of Richard Brinsley Sheridan's "School for Scandal." Dianne is a senior at Williams.

NANCY OTTO, daughter of the JACK L. OTTOS, of Moorland drive, has begun her junior year at Stoneleigh-Burnham School, Greenfield, Mass. She previously attended the Leelanau Schools.

was over 1,000, but with 500 children coming into Saint John's Emergency Room each month.

"We're trying to complete 100 to 125 puppets per week, as an absolute minimum."

Eventually, the Hand Puppet Committee hopes to provide puppets for all Saint John's two-to-eight pediatrics patients.

To do this, more hands are needed. One delightful thing about the Hand Puppet Committee is that it appeals to volunteers of all ages. Mothers bring their children to the Wednesday workshops during school vacations, and the children wind up working.

Present volunteers range in age from 10 to 85. "We'd love to find about 20 more mothers whose children are still at home: young women who would like to use their at-home time to help make children happy."

Another delightful thing about the Hand Puppet Committee is that it meshes so beautifully with Saint John's Department of Volunteers, under the direction of Virginia (Mrs. John) Douglas, who often drops by Meeting Room B on Wednesdays, to see how things are getting

The reservation has a large, modern Bureau of Indian Affairs School which provides for a variety of subjects, but there are serious problems with drop-outs and absenteeism.

A very high school drop-out rate is one of many problems facing American Indians, the country's most disadvantaged minority. The Indians must also face a high mortality rate, low life expectancy, high unemployment and a multitude of other difficulties, the root cause of all of which is poverty.

For 25 years, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. K. Brown, of Sunningdale drive, have befriended the family of Stratis Dremisizis. The Dremisizises are shepherds in Greece. After the father's death, the two older boys took over care of his small flock, which grew steadily in size, thanks to the Browns' help.

Mrs. Alfred H. Kelly, of Harcourt road, has been an SCF sponsor for the last 15 years. She helped the Geros family become self-sufficient. She is now aiding 13-year-old Helen Tsirikos, from Agios Yiaanis, Greece... and an American Indian girl, Theresa... and Salvador Jacanamijoy, an 11-year-old boy from the mountains of Sibundoy in Colombia.

A. Lynn Zwickey, of Colonial court, sponsors Carlos Gallegos Romero through a community-oriented program in Azteca, Mexico.

Financial help is not the only tool with which people around the globe carve out a new life. SCF encourages its sponsors to correspond frequently with the children they help.

"I am so glad to receive your nice and beautiful pictures," Ramesh Raj, of Indonesia, recently wrote his sponsor, Dean E. Richardson, of Cloverly road. "I have received a very special gift from Auntie and have requested Pap Ji to deposit it in my personal bank account. My birthday was a nice day. Mummy prepared a very special sweet dish for me and all the guests."

"I hope you will be able to write to me often..."

The child as an integral part of the family and community has been the focus of Save the Children's concern since its founding in 1932. Today, through the generosity of 100,000 sponsors and contributors, SCF helps children in 500 communities.

It's nice to know that 25 of those sponsors are Pointers: people who give, not only at Christmas, but all year long, not only financially, but of themselves.

Improved nutrition, health and education, increased agricultural, craft and economic productivity along with local training in development activities are important to needy children in Appalachia and on American Indian reservations, in inner cities, among Chicanos and southern Blacks and in 15 countries overseas.

So is knowing that someone cares.

Any individual, school or group interested in helping a child or supporting a project may write SCF, Department P, Wilton road, Westport, Connecticut 06880.

on and because it makes her happy.

A visit to Meeting Room B makes anyone happy. "People go by, and stop, and look in, and they think we're all crazy!" Somehow, you don't expect to find frogs and lions and Santas and snowmen in a hospital basement.

Somehow, it makes you happy when you do.

Each puppet comes with

Actually, they got a good deal: they got to play with the puppets.

The young lady in the smaller picture, admiring the lion, is Molly McCarthy.
