A NEW YORK JUDGE ruled Wednesday that New York's airports had no right to bar the Supersonic Concorde jetliner from landing in that city. France and Britain immediately announced that they would begin flights from Paris and London to New York next month. Judge Milton Pollack said the plane was entitled to a 16-month test at Kennedy Airport, just as it is having in Washington. The latter test was ordered by the federal government. Judge Pollack ruled that the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, which operates metropolitan airports, could not overrule federal policy mandating Concorde test runs. The Port Authority said it would appeal the ruling.

THE NATION'S second-largest coffee roaster lowered its price on ground coffee by 25 cents a wholesale pound Thursday—a move that could signal an end to the heated rise in the cost of a cup of coffee. Folger Coffee Co., a division of Procter and Gamble in Cincinnati, cut its list price for a one-pound can of ground coffee to $4.18 from a record $4.43 a pound, effective immediately. Folger was the first major roaster to reduce prices since a July 1975 frost in Brazil boosted the price of grocery coffee from $1.29 a pound to the $4 mark.

WITH A FEW STROKES of his pen, President Jimmy Carter started billions of dollars flowing Friday to state and local governments for programs to create more than one million jobs. The president signed a $4 billion public works bill and a $20 billion appropriations bill that were the first of his economic recovery measures approved by Congress. The actions will allow the Commerce Department to begin distributing federal funds for construction projects by states and cities.

IN THE LAST YEAR, inflation has passed unemployment as the dominant economic concern of Americans, according to the latest "New York Times-CBS News" polls. The shift is true even among some social and economic groups that have traditionally harbored the greatest fear of unemployment. But when asked which method they would prefer to stimulate the economy, Americans, by a 2-to-1 margin, chose government programs to create jobs rather than attempts to cut taxes.

IN HIS THIRD interview with David Frost, Richard Nixon defends his alleged abuse of presidential power as "necessary . . . to strengthen his diplomatic hand—particularly his efforts to end the war in Vietnam," said "Newsweek" magazine on Sunday. The alleged abuses discussed include the administration's "enemies" list and the break-in at the White House "plumbers" at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

Tuesday, May 17

CONGRESS MONDAY sent President Jimmy Carter a major tax cut bill designed to vastly simplify tax forms for the almost 50 million Americans who use the standard deduction while giving most of them a small tax cut. Taxpayers who itemize deductions, about one in four, would gain little from the bill. The compromise bill, which also contains business tax cuts and special tax breaks for the elderly, independent oil drillers and others, is almost certain to be signed by Mr. Carter.

Wearing a smile brighter than her crown, DEBBIE LISOTTO, (seated), was selected Miss Grosse Pointe for 1977-78. A senior at South High School, Miss Lisotto was named Miss Grosse Pointe on Saturday night, May 14, at Parcels

Council Approves West-End Construction for Project Honoring Veterans

By Roger A. Waha

The Beautification Commission's "Veterans Memorial Parkway" project took a first step forward as the Woods Council approved the initial construction phase for the west entrance to the city, (at the Harper Woods border), in the amount of $9,962 including contingency.

This phase of the project, whose goals are to honor American veterans and to beautify the Vernier road islands, was okayed by a 4-3 vote at the rescheduled regular meeting Thursday, May 12.

The approval was based on figures presented to the solons by City Administrator Chester E. Petersen after the council authorized the city last month to act as general contractor.

To Study East End At that time, Mr. Petersen was directed to solicit quotations from various contractors on several individual items scheduled to be included in the construction project.

Originally authorizing a maximum expenditure of $16,000 for the project, the council learned last month that the total, estimated cost was some $13,000 more than stipulated. As a result, it was agreed that the city take

Roland-Maison Barricade To Come Down in Farms

By Tom Greenwood

The Roland-Maison road barricade near Mack avenue is coming down.

Citizen concern over the barricades came to a head Monday night, May 16, as over 80 persons jammed into The Farms council chambers to express pro and con opinions on the roadblock to the council.

The barricades were erected last January as a temporary traffic control experiment after residents of Roland-Maison complained that excessive non-resident traffic made the streets dangerous and unsightly.

The roads were used as a

Debbie Lisotto Crowned Miss GP for 1977-78 at Jaycee-Sponsored Event

New Queen Also Wins Talent Competition at Pageant; Katarina Eklund, First Runner-Up, and Cathy Starnes, Second Runner-Up

By Tom Greenwood

Grosse Pointe has a new Queen. Miss Grosse Pointe for 1977-78 is Debbie Lisotto, a petite 17-year-old senior at South High School. With her selection Saturday night, May 14, she assumes the duties of Vanessa Helin, Miss Grosse Pointe for 1976-77.

Sponsored for the sixth consecutive year by the Jaycees, the pageant was held in the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School.

Miss Lisotto, a 5'2", 98-pound brunette, also won the talent competition with a stirring recital of the "Ritual Fire Dance," by DeFalla.

This marks the fourth straight year the winner of the talent competition also has been crowned the queen. The daughter of Vincent and Marian Lisotto, of Buckingham road, the new Miss Grosse Pointe was radiant and delighted after the competition.

"I didn't expect it at all," she said. "I couldn't imagine winning. It's all sort of unbelievable. Toward the end of the contest, I got kind of nervous, but the entire competition was a lot of fun."

Sponsored by the J. N. Hannan Co., Miss Lisotto plans to attend Indiana State University, where she hopes to major in music. Beginning piano studies when she was eight, she made her concert debut with the Grosse Pointe Symphony at 12.

She has subsequently performed with the Mount Clemens Symphony and with various jazz groups. She also was recently musical director for a production of "Godspell."

As the new Miss Grosse Pointe, Miss Lisotto won a $500 cash scholarship toward her education and a $775 modeling scholarship from the Mannequin School of Modeling in St. Clair Shores.

First runner-up to Miss Lisotto was Katarina Eklund, 17, of Wayburn road. Miss Eklund also won the swim suit competition. This is the first year an award has been given for that category.

At 5'9", Miss Eklund was the tallest contestant in the pageant, and a perfect counterpart to the diminutive Miss Lisotto.

Favorite of Crowd A graduate of South High School, Miss Eklund was born in Sweden and moved here with her family in 1969. An outstanding athlete, she has won two Presidential Fitness Awards and captured first and second place awards

City Enlarges Paving Project

The City Council voted to give the go ahead for a three-block, $94,960 resurfacing project.

Accepting the low bid of National Asphalt Paving Co. at a special meeting on Monday, May 16, the council was informed by City Manager Thomas Kressbach that in spite of general belt-tightening in the city budget, the original street resurfacing project was able to be expanded by three blocks.

He attributed this expansion to the favorable prices and the availability of $40,000 in Community Development Block Grant money for street resurfacing projects.

The streets slated for resurfacing are Kercheval, from Fisher road to Neff road, Neff from Kercheval to Charlevoix and Waterloo avenue from St. Clair avenue to Neff road. The extra three blocks added to the project were on Waterloo avenue.

Motorist Dies in GPS Accident

Unofficial Autopsy Report from Medical Examiner's Office Shows Man Died of Multiple Head Injuries

An unofficial report from the Wayne County Medical Examiner's Office disclosed that a Shores man died of multiple head injuries incurred when he lost control of his car on Lakeshore road at 2:35 a.m., Sunday, May 15, according to information released by Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale.

An official autopsy report on the actual cause of death had not yet been forwarded to the Shores Public Safety Department prior to the NEWS' press time.

Dead is Edward William Evtaz, 49, of 915 Lakeshore road, whose car left the roadway and crashed into a tree in front of 1005 Lakeshore.

Calls for Aid Public Safety Officer Daniel Healy stated in his report he was on patrol south on Lakeshore, when he looked into the rear view mirror and observed an automobile approaching at what appeared to be in excess of the posted speed limit of 35 mph.

The officer said he saw the car begin to skid, then glance off the left curb of an island and lose some momentum. It then went over the curb and the driver's side smashed into a tree about midway on the island.

Officer Healy said he made a turn at the Shorecrest crossover, sped to the accident scene and called for assistance and for the emergency ambulance. The call brought Cpl. Daniel Fronczak in a scout car and PSO Michael Kenyon in the ambulance.

Prior to the arrival of the officers, Dr. Louis Trombetti, of North Brys drive, who was driving by, stopped to assist PSO Healy and attempted to determine Mr. Evtaz's vital signs, after they removed the man from the car. There were none.

PSO Healy's report revealed that Mr. Evtaz's daughter, Susan, by chance came upon the accident scene, and was taken home by an unidentified escort.

Stolen Silver Finds Road Back to DIA

Farmington Hills Man Arraigned on Charges of Concealing, Selling Articles, Valued at $45,200, from Art Institute; Local Jeweler Returns Items

A Farmington Hills man stood mute at his arraignment on charges that he concealed and sold property stolen from the Detroit Institute of Arts, (DIA), in the City Municipal Court Monday, May 16. City Judge Stan Kazul released the man, Norman Goodman, 40, of $5,000 personal bond and set his exam date for Wednesday, June 29.

Goodman is charged with selling 13 pieces of rare American and European silver, unaccountably missing from the DIA, to Pointe jeweler W. Michael Williams, of Charterhouse and Co., 16835 Kercheval avenue.

Mr. Williams returned the silver, valued by museum officials at $45,200, to the DIA.

Work on Case Among the items returned were a rare silver bowl crafted by Meyer Myers, valued at $25,000; a Godfrey Shaving sugar bowl worth $8,000; a $3,500 drinking vessel by Daniel Henchman; a pipe warmer with a wooden handle valued at $5,000; and a $1,000 mug.

Museum officials said they do not know how the pieces were stolen but place the date of the theft between March and December 1976.

City Police Cpl. John Drummond is working with Detroit and museum security officers on the case on May 16. Mr. Williams said he met Goodman at a Christmas party in The Pointe in early December and learned then the pieces were for sale.

Mr. Williams, who describes his business as buying, selling and appraising fine jewelry, said he did not immediately recognize the value of the pieces as he has limited expertise in the area of Early American silver.

Paid Only $2,500 Mr. Williams said he paid $2,500 for the 13 pieces on December 20, paying with a check and requiring Goodman to sign an affidavit stating his ownership of the silver.

"Any time you buy from the public you open yourself up to this kind of thing," Mr. Williams said. "We're sensitive to that so we always take the precaution of having them sign the affidavit."

After the purchase, Mr. Williams said he had

A deadline change for all news and society copy, along with display and classified advertising, will be instituted for the Thursday, June 2, edition because the NEWS office will be closed on Memorial Day, May 30.

All news copy must be submitted by 5 p.m. on Friday, May 27, while society copy must be in by 5 p.m. on Thursday, May 26.

The display and classified advertising departments suggest an effort be made to submit all copy by 5 p.m. on the 27th.

Instant Help Needed By Center in Campaign

The War Memorial's 1977 Annual Family Participation Campaign, (its 28th since inception), needs instant help if it is to achieve the necessary goal of $145,000 by Memorial Day, May 30, report Center officials.

To date $107,062.77 has been received from 4,982 family donors as compared to $108,657.61 from 5,016 at the same point in the campaign last year.

The drive is $38,000 short of the amount needed to balance the budget August 1.

William D. Dahling, campaign chairman and the Center's board of directors, are confident that the goal will be

City Needs $3,708,882 This Year

Millage Shows Slight Rise; 1977-78 Document Initiates Big Capital Improvement Program

By Roger A. Waha

Woods taxpayers will pay an average of $24.70 more in taxes in fiscal year 1977-78, over the current fiscal year as the council, via a unanimously passed resolution, approved the city's new budget at its rescheduled regular meeting Thursday, May 12.

Considering debt service and operating tax levies, the total millage shows a slight rise from 11.67 mills in 1976-77 to 11.82 mills—an increase of .15 of a mill.

The total general fund budget, including debt service, reaches $3,708,882 as against $3,424,968 in the 1976-77 fiscal year. (The total in 1975-76 was $3,028,714). This includes increases in the amounts budgeted for the departments of general government, public safety, public works and parks and recreation.

Higher Factor

On the revenue side, the estimated revenues from sources other than taxes on real and personal property are anticipated to be $1,641,988. (The amount in 1976-77 was $1,509,000). The largest amount in this classification is from state-shared taxes, which totals $754,528, followed by inter-governmental fees and charges at $607,967.

The amounts necessary to provide the proper funding of the debt service and the general fund appropriations are $176,613 and $1,890,281, respectively.

According to the resolution, both sums are deemed necessary to be raised by ad valorem tax levies on all real and personal property within the city.

The amounts are scheduled for spreading on the 1977-78 tax role at the rate of 1.01 mills per thousand of the city's current assessed valuation for debt service, (down from 1.10 mills in 1976-77), and at the rate of 10.81 mills per thousand of the city's assessed valuation for general operating fund purposes, (up

Flower Sale Set for May 21

Members of the Woods Beautification Commission are looking forward to some sunny weather for their flower sale Saturday, May 21, on the front lawn of the Woods Municipal Building, 20025 Mack avenue.

The council at its regular meeting Monday, May 2, approved the use of the front lawn and a banner advertising the sale, which will begin at 9 a.m. Parking will be available in the front circular drive in addition to the city hall lot.

A total of 300 flats were purchased by the city at $1.450 and if all are sold, the commission hopes to realize a profit of between $300-$350. This money will go toward the purchase of flowers for the Vernier road flower beds and for the bed in front of city hall.

Jean Rice, recording secretary, stated the front flower bed will hopefully be planted by Memorial Day. As planned, she said an earthenware symbol emphasizing recycling will be planted in flowers of red, white and blue.

Flowers will only be sold in either a half flat or a full flat. At $5.29 per flat, including tax, the following will be offered: petunias, ageratum, alysium, marigolds, salvia, pansies and dusty miller. Meanwhile, at $7.49 per flat, including tax, begonias and impatiens will be sold. No mixed flats will be permitted.

The sale will last as long as flowers are available on Saturday. In case of poor weather, it will be continued on Sunday, May 22.

Courage is the ability to hang on just one minute longer.

Results are what you expect—consequences are what you get.

Woods Approves New Fiscal Year Budget

from 10.57 mills in 1976-77).

Unlike the current fiscal year when a factor of 1.07 was applied to assessments by the county, the city had to incorporate a 1.14 factor for the upcoming fiscal year.

Realistic Document

In relation to this, the city's budget example was based on the average home in the community being assessed at $25,000. It shows for 1976-77, $25,000 x 1.07 state equalized valuation x .1167 equaling $312.17. For 1977-78, it shows $25,000 x 1.14 state equalized valuation x .01182 equaling $336.87—the difference being $24.70.

In viewing the new document, Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos said, "I'm quite satisfied with the budget." Calling it "a realistic budget with not much fat in it," the mayor said it reflects his view that money shouldn't be set aside on an "if come basis" but that the budget should be prepared on a "pay as you go" basis toward avoiding deficiencies.

On the other hand, Mr. Pinkos stated he was dissatisfied with a small portion of the document in that it "really makes no real provision for the Michigan Municipal League, (MML)."

There's enough money provided for MML membership and there's enough to permit some council members to attend one or two state conferences, he noted, but, overall, the mayor is unhappy the council declined MML membership this year.

(The Woods, after paying membership dues to the MML for around 30 years, ceased its participation in the association from April 1, 1977, through March 31, 1978, by a 4-1 vote on February 28.

On Joining Again

The only vote for participation at that time came from George Cueter, while Councilwoman Joan M. Mulan and Councilmen George S. Freeman, John Sabol and Ronald R. Kefgen voted against participation.

(Mr. Pinkos was out of town when the vote was taken and Councilman E. D. Grady had yet to be selected to fill the unexpired term of the resigning Conrad A. Naegel).

Mr. Pinkos stated he felt relatively confident the council will rescind its previous action and join the MML after re-evaluating the real benefits to be gained via membership.

In fact, the mayor said the director of the association, John M. Patriarche, is scheduled to address the council within the next two weeks regarding benefits for member cities.

"I feel the majority of the council will want to rejoin because Grosse Pointe Woods cannot be an island in the political structure we call municipalities in the area of home rule," he said.

The mayor added he personally wasn't concerned in having officials attend national conventions, only state confabs.

Cites Higher Costs

Mr. Petersen, in assessing the .15 of a mill hike, had earlier cited several reasons for this, including the increased factor, a rise in salaries and fringe benefits for all employees and an increase in the general fund contribution to the highway fund for the repair and maintenance of the city street system.

In reviewing the various departments, he said in relation to the Department of General Government, which rose from $340,912 in 1976-77 to $354,092, that new pension benefits accounted for much of the increase. These jumped from $25,410 to $35,654.

He also cited an increase in the severance pay reserve for retirees. (One employee who's scheduled to retire in December is City Treasurer Helen L. Fox).

The Department of Public Safety budget went up from $1,446,206 to $1,519,323. Playing roles in this rise were increases in salaries and pension contributions plus budgeting for possible retirements and severance pay allowances, (up to $22,222 from $5,100 in 1976-77).

He said Officer William Entwistle is scheduled to retire, while Public Safety Director Henry Marchand is eligible to retire.

Eyes New Pumper

New public safety equipment via the Motor Vehicle and Equipment Fund is scheduled to include a new pumper, with the present pumper slated for a complete factory overhaul, the replacement of seven scout cars, a new van truck for the dog warden, a new mobile radio and transmitter, the replacement of the apparatus room floor at departmental headquarters and the repair of stairs leading to the basement.

For the Department of Public Works, its budget jumped from $1,177,367 this fiscal year to $1,373,490.

Accounting for some of the rise in this category are retirement fund contributions which increased from $56,468 to $73,451, an increase in street lighting costs, from $298,350 to around $325,000, incineration costs, from $168,739 to around $180,000 and the big reason—the general fund under DPW appropriations to the highway fund for street maintenance, from $237,309 to $370,386.

D P W improvements include, from the Municipal Improvement Fund, an addition to the public works building, $58,460, and various equipment, including office articles and lockers, $7,516.

From the Motor Vehicle and Equipment Fund come such improvements as an additional 25 cubic yard rubbish truck, $38,000; a new tree stump grinding machine, $10,000; and a new dump truck.

Funds for Planner

Finally, the Department of Parks and Recreation's budget increased from $254,988 to $265,364. Factors in this rise were a hike in taxes paid to St. Clair Shores on the city's Lake Front Park, (which is located in St. Clair Shores), along with a rise in salaries and fringe benefit costs. The park taxes climbed from $55,075 to $62,000.

New recreation-related improvements include the asphaltting of parking bays along the Milk River, (already underway), updating of lighting at the Lake Front Park's tennis courts one and two, windscreens for the tennis courts, chairs and tables for the senior citizens program, additional kitchen equipment for the Lake Front Park's new bathhouse and the updating of lighting at the Ghesquiere Park tennis courts.

Mr. Petersen noted that the new budget incorporates $13,600 for updating the zoning ordinance, ($4,400), and formulating a land use plan for the city, ($9,200), via the planning firm of Parkins, Rogers and Associates, Inc. The council unanimously selected this firm as the city's planning consultant at its April 4 meeting.

The various pieces of equipment, he said, will be purchased as part of the city's capital improvement program—its "Decade of Progress" which is being initiated in the upcoming fiscal year.

Adopt and Review

It totals $1,017,500 for 1977-78 with the monies coming from a variety of funds.

Such improvements include water and sewer work at $364,400; street resurfacing and repairs at $283,151 and parking improvements, i.e., to acquire an additional parking site or construct additional parking bays, at $50,000, said Mr. Petersen.

"We have not had the opportunity to develop the other nine years as yet but we have some cost estimates for water, sewer and street improvements," he stated. "We still have to have further cost estimates and we're working on this now that this year's budget is done."

Mr. Petersen added that the idea is to tentatively adopt a 10-year program and review priorities, needs and means of financing them on an annual basis. Then, a particular year's program will be readopted annually.

As part of the resolution, the city also adopted its special funds and enterprise funds budgets.

More for Meetings

The former budget includes the following: Federal Revenue Sharing, $100,000; highway, $707,886; and motor vehicle and equipment, $370,431. The overall total is $1,178,431 in comparison to $1,054,378 in 1976-77.

Meanwhile, the enterprise funds budget, which isn't supported by tax monies, breaks down as follows:

Hearing Slated on P&J Sale

By George Polgar Jr.
Meeting with officials of The Farms last week, representatives of the Unity Church took the first step in seeking city approval for their plan to turn the Punch and Judy Theater into their permanent headquarters.
Though no final decisions came out of that meeting, the Unity Church asked the Farms Council to set a public hearing date to consider a request to allow the change of ownership and use of the theater without requiring a rezoning.
Because the Punch and Judy was built before The Farms adopted its present zoning ordinance, and the accompanying parking space requirements, it has always been exempted from those requirements.
The parking question is the greatest obstacle because, according to the zoning ordinance, the Punch and Judy should have 200 parking spaces attached to the property.
Since this is not plausible, the Unity Church will be required to secure a zoning variance, waiving the parking requirement, if the property is rezoned from commercial use to community service classification.
At the Farms Council meeting on Monday, May 16, the Unity Church was granted a public hearing to consider the zoning situation on June 20.
Mayor James Dingeman, speaking for himself, commented that he would have to find out a great deal about the Unity Church before he could make a decision on the matter. Later, he added that he wasn't sure there was a need for another church in The Farms.
"There are already eight churches in The Farms, is another one essential here?" he asked.
Other council members raised the parking issue and the loss of tax base that would result if a non-profit, tax exempt church took over the Punch and Judy.

Suicides by Children Rise at Alarming Rate

By Susan McDonald
Suicide: it's hard to imagine when you think of kids. But, according to area psychiatrist Bruce Danto, children today are taking their own lives at a rate between 25-40 percent higher than seven years ago.
Dr. Danto told a group at the Children's Home of Detroit last week that suicide has risen to be the third most common cause of death for Americans under the age of 18.
What makes those figures even more alarming, he adds, is the fact that very little in the way of study or therapy is being done for those potential victims.
Dr. Danto spoke to a group of about 50 professionals representing 25 health, education and service agencies in the Detroit area on Wednesday, May 11.
Among the local groups represented were the Pointe Public Schools, Center Point, the Family Life Education Council, Northeast Guidance Center and Bon Secours Hospital.
The seminar, entitled "Children and Suicide," was the first of its kind sponsored by the Children's Home, 900 Cook road, a residential treatment center for emotionally disturbed children.
Dr. Danto is one of the few professionals to direct his attention to the growing problem of child suicides as founder and director of the Suicide Prevention Center at Detroit and author of four books on suicide.
In addition to his private practice and association with Wayne State University's department of psychiatry, Dr. Danto is known in the Detroit area for his work with several police agencies on a number of criminal cases, the latest being the search for the Oakland County child killer.
He told the group that children are the hardest patients to diagnose as potential suicides. "The little rats just don't express themselves very well," he said. "They show you things with their bodies, they act things out."
Most child suicides occur between the ages of 11-14 years, he said, but their reasons are as varied as those of adults.
A main motivation for a child to "act out" a suicide attempt, Dr. Danto said, is to manipulate or alter a relationship, usually when relations at home are on the skids.
"Kids are prepared to make all kinds of sacrifices to insure family unity," he said. "And an attempted suicide packs a big punch and draws a lot of attention."
"Most often, though, it is a dress rehearsal for death."
Children also may give signals to indicate they are considering taking their lives, he added, including withdrawing from the family and friends, excessive sleeping and a sudden, downward change in school performance.
A very important element, though, is the child's relationship with his or her own friends.
"A kid who has not formed any interest in peer relationships by the time he's 12 years-old is a prime candidate for suicide," Dr. Danto said.
A child who takes excessive risks or who seems accident prone also may be betraying a sub-intentional suicide wish, according to Dr. Danto.

City Home Hit By 3-Alarm Fire

Firefighters from The Farms, Park and City battled a three-alarm blaze at 952 Washington road, Sunday, May 15, limiting damage from smoke and fire to the second floor of the home.
The cause of the blaze is still under investigation, according to fire reports, and The City is trying to locate for questioning a 15-year-old resident of the home, who left the scene shortly after firefighters arrived.
The youth has been reported missing to City police.
The blaze originated in a second-floor bedroom and was contained to that area. Smoke damage spread throughout the second floor and water damage reached part of the first floor of the home.
Four City firefighters, who arrived on the scene at 7:50 p.m., said the bedroom was totally engulfed in flames. Five off-duty City firefighters were called in to help fight the blaze along with men and equipment from The Farms and Park.
City Lt. Tim Champine said the fire was under control within five minutes, but it took the forces 15 minutes to extinguish the flames and more than an hour to complete the job.
Four Pointers were among winners at the Midwestern Rowing Championships held Saturday, April 30, in Madison, Wis.
Representing the Detroit Boat Club in the Open Four with Coxswain division were Robert Schwarz, of Somerset road, at stroke; James Lawlis, of Aline drive, at three; George Cohan, of Rivard boulevard, at two; Robert Coyle, of Grand Marais, at bow; and Michael McCarthy, of Maryland avenue, Detroit, as Coxswain.
Their boat finished five seconds ahead of a second place crew from the Minnesota Boat Club in the 1,800 meter course. Other entries included Notre Dame, the University of Chicago and the University of Minnesota.

Children's Art Receives Raves

During May the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue, is featuring art created by fifth and sixth grade students at Kerby and Trombly Schools, under the direction of Ray Marchesi.
The display includes colorful drawings, copper etchings, ceramics and wire and paper-mache action figures.
It is just one of many displays the Children's Room has featured over the last two years. Thanks to the enthusiasm of Marilyn Pillsbury, a volunteer at Maire, and Darlene Krato, a volunteer at Kerby, many outstanding Bicentennial projects were displayed during 1976.
This year Chinese fish kits and needlepoint pillows, created by Eleanor Obermeyer's first grade class at Maire, decorated the Children's Room.
Students from Monteth, under the direction of Mary Epstein, also contributed drawings and weavings, along with Mr. Marchesi's students' "dream machines," a collection of wild and wonderful car models with all the frills.
A library spokesman said library patrons have responded enthusiastically to the displays. They hope to continue the program next year and to include many more children and schools.

Water, Sewer Work Okayed

The Woods Council at its rescheduled regular meeting Thursday, May 12, unanimously accepted the low bid of $31,799 of Salvatore and Sons, Inc., in relation to sewer and water main work.
The amount includes work at the following locations: Vernier road sewer and water serving lot 21 of assessor's plat number one, Vernier road water main replacement, Cook road water main replacement and River road storm sewer connection to the Milk River.

Cleaners Hit By Burglars

Burglars broke the rear window of the Whittier Cleaners, 15010 Charlevoix road, and stole the company safe, according to information given to Park police on Saturday, May 7, by owner C. H. Luther.
Police Chief Henry Coonce said Mr. Luther reported the break-in at about 7:28 a.m., around the time he opened the place for business.
The owner of the cleaning establishment said the safe, which had to be rolled out of the building because of its size and weight, contained a small amount of cash and miscellaneous papers. Nothing else appeared to have been touched or taken. The rear door was used to escape with the safe, it was said.
Officers of the detective bureau are investigating the burglary.

Start of Parkway

While the council gave its blessing to the start of the project at the west end, it referred cost figures on the east end, (i.e., east of the Vernier-Mack avenue intersection), to the Committee of the Whole, (C-W), for further study.

West end construction work on a masonry wall sign, (saying "Grosse Pointe Woods, Veterans Memorial Parkway"), plumbing, electrical service including underground service and three floodlights, (two post lights were deleted by the council), landscaping and flag poles will proceed within two weeks, said Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos.

Expresses Disappointment

Indicating there was some division of opinion on the council's part regarding the necessity of construction at the east end, Mr. Pinkos said, "There was agreement that construction at the west end would be a credit to the community from the standpoint of beautification."

As for consideration of work at the east end, the mayor added this should be viewed by the council at its Monday, June 6, meeting. Mr. Petersen's construction cost figures for the east end totaled an estimated $6,976 including a masonry wall, sign, electrical service and landscaping.

Despite the council-approved start of the project, Dr. Albert C. Howe, commission chairman, expressed his initial disappointment that the solons didn't approve construction work at both the west and east ends at the same time, thus utilizing as much of the $16,000 figure as possible.

"What isn't accomplished by the council has to be made up by our group and we already have taken on a load," he told the solons.

Dr. Howe told the NEWS he would like to see some kind of representative identification at the east end, while noting he was willing to sacrifice such identification before because of the higher cost figures.

Praises Petersen

But now, with the revised figures as presented by Mr. Petersen, he said, "We can salvage the identity of the entire project."

Indicating this was his own personal viewpoint, Dr. Howe went on to say, while viewing the total concept, that the council "in all fairness should adhere to this."

He also felt that money could be saved if construction work at both locations was done at the same time.

He added that Mr. Petersen did "a wonderful job" in re-evaluating the scope of the project toward saving money.

Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan, the council representative to the commission, made the original motion to approve the west end work and ultimately made a motion to approve east end construction without electrical service, i.e., minus underground service, two post lights and two floodlights.

But she ultimately rescinded the latter motion because of the overall confusion in relation to the council's discussion. At that point, consideration of the east end was referred to the C-W.

Different Situation

Mrs. Mullan said she feels the council will take some action on the east end but she wants to hear more from the commission on this. While she questions the use of a masonry wall at this location, Mrs. Mullan feels some appropriate visual should be there.

"The east end is a different situation. It's not really an entrance to the city, (like the west end). I would like to hear from the Beautification Commission on this at a C-W meeting," she said.

Mrs. Mullan added she wanted motions on construction at the west end and east ends to be separate, while stressing the importance of getting started first at the former location.

Those voting for the motion to begin construction at the west end included Mrs. Mullan and Councilmen Ronald R. Kefgen, E. D. Grady and George Cueter.

Those nixing the motion, mainly because of the piecemeal approach toward consideration, included Mr. Pinkos and Councilmen George S. Freeman and John Sabol.

Stolen Silver

Williams said he called a Boston appraiser and just then began to get an idea of the silver's value.

"I told the fellow that one of the bowls had the name Meyer Myers on it," Mr. Williams said, "and the appraiser got very excited. He said 'these sound like really important pieces, like museum quality, are you sure they aren't stolen?'"

Mr. Williams then sent eight pieces off to Boston for an appraisal and decided he should begin to study Early American silver himself.

He said he went to the DIA to research the period and ended up taking a book on American silver home to study.

"There I am, sitting in my chair at home with this book and I turn to page 151," Mr. Williams said. "There sitting right in front of me is the bowl I had just sent out to Boston, with courtesy of the DIA written under it."

Mr. Williams said first he informed the DIA that the pieces were offered to him and their immediate reaction was panic.

Museum officials subsequently came to The Pointe to identify the pieces and all 13 turned out to be DIA property, although the museum was unaware that some of the silver was missing.

Mr. Williams said he then called Goodman and told him the silver was "not only hot, but radioactive." His money was returned to him immediately, Mr. Williams said.

Pair Foil Theft Attempt in GPC

Friday the 13th turned out to be an especially unlucky day for a would-be purse snatcher who's now spending his time in the Wayne County Youth Home.

Irma M. Sekel, of Bedford road, told City police she was walking on Mack avenue near Cadieux road at about 4 p.m. on Friday, May 13, when a 16-year-old Park youth grabbed her purse.

Her screams caught the attention of two motorists, August Nicosia, of Detroit, and Robert Davis of St. Clair Shores, who were driving on Mack avenue. The two men stopped their car, went after The Park youth and held him until City police arrived to make the arrest, according to official reports.

The case was turned over to the Youth Service Division for investigation.

Mrs. Sekel was thrown into a row of bushes in the scuffle with the youth, but never let go of her purse.

Wine Lines

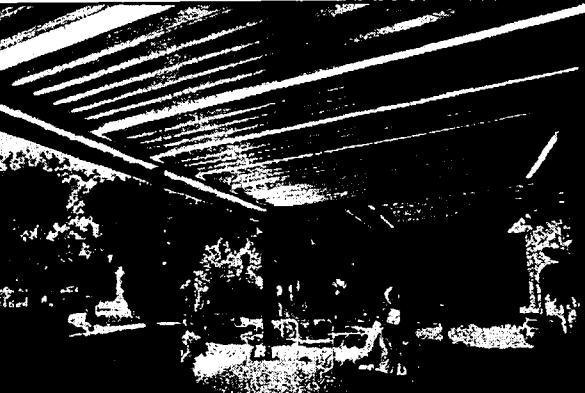

by John Lundberg

When you come right down to it, there are few really great wines. It takes an almost magical combination of soil, sun, rain, and angle of slope to produce great grapes. Then these grapes have to be fermented and stored just right to give the balance, subtlety of flavor, and bouquet that make truly great wines. All wines are different from one another since there are so many chances of variation, and ultimately it is the drinker's taste that determines a really great wine. My great wine may not be the same as your great wine, though we may agree on which wines are terrible. In another spot, my favorite grape might produce a different taste altogether; on another hill, or on another part of the hill, I might get a different wine. No one knows exactly why one place produces great grapes while another one half mile away just does not make the grade.

Get your favorite wine at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair. 885-0626. ## Turmoil Ends for Mother

A Woods mother, who said she was in a turmoil for 12 days after her five-year-old son swallowed an apparent hard foil disc at the end of a whistle, is thankful that her boy has apparently passed the object but is concerned that such an incident might happen to another youngster.

Mrs. Sherry Collins, of Anita avenue, contacted Woods police on Monday, May 2, after her son was given a red, blue and white striped whistle, about two inches long, from one of the clowns during the Woods-Shores Little League parade on Sunday, May 1.

She told Officer Arthur Gekiere the boy, Scott, was blowing the whistle on the afternoon of the 1st when the object went down his throat and into his stomach. Mrs. Collins told the NEWS that her son told her what had occurred.

Scott was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for x-rays and a doctor in emergency said the object was in his stomach and if it didn't pass through his rectum, an operation could be necessary, according to the report.

However, much to Mrs. Collins' relief, x-rays taken on Thursday, May 12, proved negative.

"I'm not blaming anybody," said Mrs. Collins, who cited the good intentions behind the handouts, "but it could have gone into his lungs and killed him."

Saying she wouldn't want another parent to go through what she experienced, Mrs. Collins acknowledged that the situation could have been much worse. But she cited her concern that some youngster could possibly swallow such a sharp object and wanted to find out "who was making these things."

Noting that there hasn't been a similar problem in over 20 years of such parades, Mrs. Robert Arthur, who's involved with clown activities, called what happened very unfortunate and said she felt bad about it.

While having no specific idea on how many whistles, which she said were like party favors, were distributed, she estimated it could have been between 200-300. Mrs. Arthur said the whistles were obtained wholesale from a candy house and were not purchased locally.

As for the future, she indicated nothing, including candy, will be given out anymore during the Little League parade.

Meanwhile, Franklin Saad, parade marshal, said he thought only candy and gum were given out during the event, while stressing his concern over what occurred.

Don't worry about the things you can't change or influence.

Albion Cites NHS Principal

G. Bruce Feighner, principal of North High School since 1970, received a Distinguished Alumnus Award at Albion College's commencement ceremonies Saturday, May 7.

The award is made to Albion alumni who have given outstanding service to society and to the college. Recipients are selected by the board of directors of the Albion College Alumni Assoc.

A 1942 graduate of Albion, Mr. Feighner began his teaching career in 1946 when he was appointed music teacher at Royal Oak Dondero High School. In 1950 he became supervisor of music education for the Royal Oak system and in 1954-55 served as assistant principal at Royal Oak Dondero.

He served as a resource principal at Jane Addams Junior High School in Royal Oak before returning to Dondero in 1962 as principal.

He serves as a resource person for The Pointes' voluntary probation program and has served as chairman of the North Central Assoc. for Schools and Colleges.

He and his wife, Maryhelen, who met when both were members of the Albion College Choir, have been active in music and have been on the board of directors of the Royal Oak Community Concert Assoc.

He has been chairman of the Official Board and the Council of Ministries of their church and serves on the board of directors of The Pointe Rotary Foundation.

Park Appoints New Treasurer

Mrs. Margaret Miller, of Nottingham road, was designated as The Park's new deputy city treasurer by the Park Council on Monday, May 9, following a recommendation from Mayor Matthew C. Patterson.

Mrs. Miller, who has been working for the city since January, was authorized, by virtue of her new position, to affix her signature to all payroll and other checks pertaining to city business.

Before coming to work for the Park's administrative staff, Mrs. Miller was employed with the Park branch of the Michigan National Bank, Jefferson and Barrington, for several years, where she often was acting manager. Prior to working for this bank, she was employed by the National Bank of Detroit.

Mr. Patterson said with her banking background, the new deputy city treasurer is well qualified for her new post.

In other business, the council awarded a contract to Gale Electric, low bidder, to install a traffic signal light at the Kercheval-Maryland intersection at a cost of $9,273.

Then, following the recommendation of City Comptroller-Clerk Nunzio Ortisi, the council approved the opening of a separate savings account with The City branch of First Federal Savings and Loan Assoc. as The Park's depository for parking meter money.

Previously, Park municipal employees were charged with operating, sorting and separating the counting-wrapping machine for coins gathered from parking meters.

Mr. Ortisi said that the noise caused by the passage of the coins through the city-owned machine, which is now in a state of disrepair, and the constant interruption when employees, charged with operating the machine, had to answer telephones and take care of general city business, made the work unfeasible in the city office.

He said that First Federal is equipped with sorting and counting machines and can do the work at a reasonable fee.

North High School Slates 'Spring Sing'

Herman Klein, director of North High School's Concert Choir, will direct the Spring Sing, an annual spring choral festival, featuring the vocal music organizations of North High on Thursday, May 26. It will be presented in the Performing Arts Center, 707 Vernier road, at 8 p.m. A total of 300 singers, including the 22 members of the Pointe Chorale, will perform. Tickets are $1.

Memorial Day Service

New Miss Grosse Pointe Selected

(Continued from Page 1) for track and swimming in a recent Junior Olympics. Sponsored by Mr. Goody's Curto-Knight Co., Miss Eklund offered a modern dance for her talent presentation. She is currently working as a nurses aide at Cottage Hospital. "The competition was fun," she said after the pageant. "I was shocked when I won the bathing suit category. The entire event was worthwhile." Miss Eklund is the daughter of Karl and Dina Eklund. Second runner-up was Cathy Starnes, a junior at North High School. At 16, Miss Starnes was the youngest competitor in the pageant, and a favorite of the crowd. At 5'7", the willowy Miss Starnes was sponsored by Edmund Ahee Jewelers. She sang "I'll Never Fall in Love Again" for the talent competition, and admits she enjoyed performing on stage. "I felt pretty good during the talent show," she said. "Although I was very nervous during the swim suit competition. My legs were really wobbly then. I still can't believe I was the second runner-up. It's such a great feeling." An avid tennis player, Miss Starnes plans to attend Hope College after graduation. She is the daughter of Robert and Mary Jane Starnes, of Lochmoor boulevard. Winner of the Miss Congeniality Award was Wendy Brown, a junior at South High School. Miss Brown was honored with the award by her fellow contestants. Sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Police Officers Assoc., she is the daughter of William and Dianne Browne, of Mount Vernon road. Other competitors in the pageant were Tammy Fessenden, of Devonshire road, Jean Fontana, of Fontana lane, Jacqueline Tobbe, of Allard road, Cheryl Ann Mazzell, of Webber place, Lisa Moon, of Wedgewood road, and Debra Jean Brunette, of Wayburn road. "Summertime Sunshine" was the theme of the pageant, and the contestants opened the show dancing to "Those Lazy, Hazy, Crazy Days of Summer." Barefoot, and dressed in colorful summertime outfits, the routine clearly delighted the crowd who came to cheer their favorites.

Eyes State Event

Music was provided by the South High School Stage Band, conducted by Eric Miller, and directed by Russell Reed. Master of ceremonies for the fifth consecutive year was Morrie Carlson. Additional entertainment was provided by the "Sound Waves," a women's barber-shop quartet, and Linda Finger, who sang "You Are the Sunshine of My Life," "Evergreen" and "Song Sung Blue."

An added highlight was a singing performance by the outgoing Miss Helin. In her final local appearance as Miss Grosse Pointe, Miss Helin performed Juliet's Waltz from Gounod's "Roméo and Juliet."

After her performance, Miss Helin thanked the Grosse Pointe Jaycees, her chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Charter Billiu, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ahee, her sponsors, and "most of all, my parents for supporting me, and my brother, Wally, for entering my name as a contestant last year."

Miss Helin went on to say she had spent a very, very happy year as Miss Grosse Pointe and wished the new queen happiness. Miss Helin will represent The Pointe in the Miss Michigan Pageant next month.

Turnout Down

Mr. Billiu, executive director of the pageant, was very happy with the event. "I was very pleased at this year's show," he said. "The production went smoothly, I'm happy with my crew and especially happy about our new queen. The only disappointment was the size of the crowd. We hoped for more people."

Crowd estimates were put at 250 persons, while last year's event drew in 650. Other sponsors of the contest were Detroit-Northern Savings and Loan, Robert L. Bowen and Assoc., Stretch and Sew, Knight Music Co., Crazy Jack's Sound Factory and Stereoland.

Friends Elect New Officers

Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker Jr., of Merriweather road, was elected to replace William Hurley as 1977-78 president of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

She is the first woman president elected by the 6,000-member group since it was founded under the leadership of Mrs. Lloyd G. Hooker in 1948.

Vice-presidents for the new year are Mrs. Charles Wright III, of LaSalle place, and Msgr. Francis X. Canfield, of Lakeshore road.

Walter B. Fisher, of Cloverly road, will serve as treasurer and Mrs. H. Timothy DeConinck, of Harvard road, as secretary.

Elected to three-year terms on the Friends' board of directors were Mrs. Ross T. Kogel, of Hampton road, Frank K. Zinn, of Lakepoint road, Mrs. G. Frederick Schaefer Jr., of Cloverly road, George M. Fern, of Vendome road, and William J. Adams, of Lafayette Plaisance, Detroit.

Frederic M. Sibley Jr., of Vendome road, will complete a two-year term as director left vacant by the resignation of Dr. Donald Sweeney Jr.

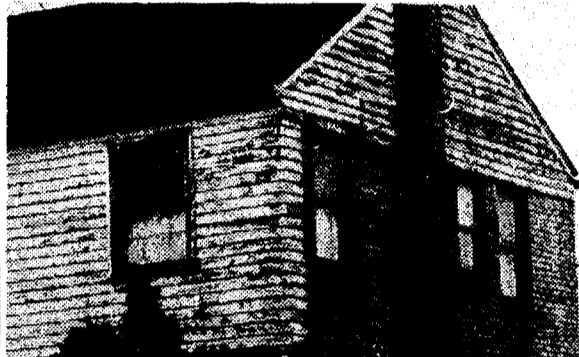

The new officers were elected at the Friends' annual dinner and meeting Tuesday, May 3, at the War Memorial. Veteran broadcaster Mike Whorf presented a program of commentary and music entitled "America on Parade."

Woods Gives Swim Club Permission to Use Pool

By Roger A. Waha

After tabling action on a request from the Grosse Pointe Swim Club to use the Lake Front Park pool earlier this month, the Woods Council at its rescheduled regular meeting Thursday, May 12, gave its permission by a 6-1 vote.

The request to use the pool during the months of June-August from 6-8 a.m. each morning was tabled at the Monday, May 2, meeting so the Citizens Recreation Commission could review the bid and report back to the council.

At its Monday, May 9, meeting, the commission viewed a memo from Parks and Recreation Director Donald J. Hallmann to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

Mr. Hallmann said he was in favor of granting permission to the group as it is under the leadership of fine people, "who I know will do an outstanding job and who will be very cooperative and helpful."

He also suggested that the city consider granting permission on a month-to-month basis with the full understanding that the program may be cancelled any day for cleaning of the pool or for any other legitimate reason.

The commission's motion permitting the club pool usage contained several stipulations including those that the group must adhere to proposed guidelines, (these were referred to the Committee of the Whole, C-W, for further study by the council), governing the use of the pool and bathhouse by special groups for swimming meets, that all fees be paid and that full insurance coverage be carried by the group.

The motion also stipulated that Mr. Hallmann have complete authority to cancel the program at any time for any reason he feels is legitimate. At the same time, the commission stressed that the club be instructed to submit to the council a complete list of the names and addresses of those who will participate in the program so that verification may be made that at least 50 percent of the group lives within the confines of The Woods.

This, the commission said, would make their request consistent with the use of group permits requiring that any group be composed of at least 50 percent residents.

The council also approved that a $25 charge per non-resident, per season be levied.

In a communication to the council, Arthur Colton, club president, said the purpose for requesting the use of the pool is for workouts and training in preparing Pointe swimmers for "the arduous task of competing in AAU long course swimming events."

The club, a community recreational program under the auspices of the Department of Community Services, exists to develop competitive swimming and diving skills at the age group and national levels within the framework of the AAU.

As part of the effort, the club supports a training program for over 100 registered athletes on a year-round basis in three of the area's pools, (short course), and it's our desire to include practice in a 50-meter pool, (long course), he said.

Mr. Colton said on Monday, May 16, an estimated 30-50 young people, with at least half being Woods citizens, will be using the facility. The selection of the swimmers isn't complete as yet. Some will be eliminated because they wouldn't be capable of going the long course route and others because they are not Woods residents.

"We're trying to provide a training situation for high school swimmers from both North and South. In the past, we haven't been able to do this prior to the fall season," said Mr. Colton, who added the natators also will be working out at North's pool.

Councilman George Cueter was the only official nixing the request because he felt that the group might not qualify for the 50 percent stipulation, although the overall idea met with his approval.

The program is under the direction of head coach John Sfire and assistant coach Chet Ricker. Those providing support include Tom Teetaert, head swimming coach at North, and Carl Schoessel, head coach at South.

In another commission recommendation, the council referred the possibility of the installation of a free standing drinking fountain near the Babe Ruth baseball diamond in Ghesquiere Park to the C-W for further study.

LWV Elects New Officers

The annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters, (LWV), was recently held at the War Memorial.

A new slate of officers and directors was elected for 1977-79 including president Peggy Hodak, first vice-president Frances Schoenberg, second vice-president Eleanor Tacke, secretary Kathy Weyhing and directors Ethel Zolad, Barbara Sticksford, Ginny McCaig and Mrs. Schoenberg.

Mrs. Hodak headed a delegation from The Pointe LWV to the state convention in Grand Rapids Friday-Sunday, May 13-15.

Representative William Ryan of Detroit, keynote speaker, discussed "Cities and the Urban Crisis Issue." Workshops and tours of Grand Rapids were among convention activities.

Spring Brings Con Men Out

Mosquitos aren't the only pests which appear when the temperature gets warmer. According to Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber, residents of The Pointe should be aware that spring is a busy season for car artists posing as free-lance repair men.

Farms police have received reports that a band of gypsies has been working the Detroit and downriver area, offering "bargain deals" in driveway repairs.

Their method is to approach elderly persons and offer to repair cracks in their driveways. Once work has begun, the victim is told that the price is $9 per gallon of "sealer" used.

Since the sealer tank has no meter and the victim has no way of knowing the number of gallons used, the "repairmen" can the home owner out of $200-$400.

Later, the victim discover the "sealer" was nothing but crude oil used to coat the driveway. The home owner then has the added expense of cleaning his property of the gummy oil.

"These characters come out of the woodwork every year," said Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber. "The rats they've pulled here in The Pointe is telling; elderly home owners they have 'mortal rats'."

"The rats supposedly live in chimneys and eat the mortar, making the structure loose and dangerous. For $200, the 'repairmen' apply new mortar, actually just paste, and then go on to their next victims. The whole operation is a phony."

The Farms Police Department urges that anyone approached by these operators call their local police department.

The Rev. William Lee Cummins will assume new duties at Ebenezer Baptist Church, 21001 Moross road, Detroit, on Sunday, May 22.

His formal installation will take place at a special church service Sunday, June 5, at 3 p.m. with the participation of pastors and leaders of local churches, as well as those of sister churches of the North American Baptist Conference in the area.

Rev. and Mrs. Cummins and their two children will reside in The Park.

Dr. Ray H. Kieley, the senior minister, will preach a sermon appropriate for the occasion and there also will be a special musical offering directed by William O. De Turk, interim director of music.

A display of memorabilia, (communion ware, pictures, records), will be featured. The leadership of the present church boards will be recognized during the services.

The present sanctuary, dedicated in May 1927, was built on the site of the little Ivy Covered Church, (constructed in 1894), which had been torn down.

Church Building 50 Years Old

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road, will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the church sanctuary building at the 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. services on Sunday, May 29.

This will be another milestone in 112-year history of the church. Members of the congregation also will honor 50 people who have been members for more than 50 years.

They will receive corsages and boutonnières and will be provided with transportation to the church if requested.

Dr. Ray H. Kieley, the senior minister, will preach a sermon appropriate for the occasion and there also will be a special musical offering directed by William O. De Turk, interim director of music.

A display of memorabilia, (communion ware, pictures, records), will be featured. The leadership of the present church boards will be recognized during the services.

It's Only Natural
by L.C. Termini N.D.

Everyone is looking for ways to save money these days, and the way food prices are going, it looks like it is going to be harder and harder as time goes on. So, it is a necessity to compare food prices when shopping. But, the price is not the only consideration. If a cheap price means little value nutritionally, then in reality, it isn't a good price. One place where you are sure to get nutritional value is in natural or farm grown fresh produce and grains. Grains and beans especially are valuable because not only are they relatively inexpensive, but they give a lot of bulk to a meal so that no one leaves the table hungry. When buying this kind of product, a few things should be kept in mind. Remember, these foods can keep for a long time, so buy them in bulk as much as possible. Try to buy foods that can be used as the basis of other dishes — learn to cook and eat from scratch. And the final money saving hint is to buy food grown locally as much as possible.

Remember, VIM & VIGOR HEALTH FOODS, 21151 Mack, 886-9466 is your complete health food store and features a full selection of natural foods including natural grain items in bulk or pre-packaged. We also feature our own Vim & Vigor vitamins which are free from salt, sugar, starch and artificial color and have an expiration date to insure freshness and a control number to assure uniform high quality. Open: 9:30-6 Mon.-Sat.; 11-5 Sun.

Man Dies in Shores Mishap

At 2:41 a.m. the accident victim was placed in The Shores ambulance and rushed to Saint John Hospital. At 2:50 a.m., Mr. Evatz was pronounced dead on arrival.

At 3:09 a.m., Cpl. Fronczak went to the victim's residence and officially notified Mr. Evatz's wife, Mary Lou, of the accident.

Chief Vitale said that at the time it was not known whether Mr. Evatz died of sustained injuries, or a possible heart attack, which could have occurred before his auto went out of control. An autopsy was authorized to determine the actual cause.

On Monday morning, May 16, the Medical Examiner's Office notified Shores authorities that Mr. Evatz's injuries caused his death. An official notification to that affect will be dispatched by mail.

Services for Mr. Evatz were held Wednesday, May 18, at the Verheyden Funeral Home and Saint Lucy's Church, St. Clair Shores.

He was vice-president of the John R. Fuel and Supply Co. and had been with the firm for 30 years. He was a member of Navigator Club, the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron, the Jefferson Yacht Club and the South-Eastern Michigan Amateur Radio Assoc.

Mr. Evatz is survived by his wife, Mary Lou; five sons, Edward, Gregory, Jeffrey, Matthew and William; two daughters, Mrs. Claudia Ventimiglia and Susan Marie Evatz; his mother, Mrs. Anna Bernick; one brother, one sister and one grandchild.

Memorial contributions may be sent to the Michigan Heart Assoc., 16310 West 12 Mile road, Southfield.

Interment was at Resurrection Cemetery.

Barricade to Fall in GP Farms

man for the Roland-Maison residents, told the council, "The traffic figures for the four-month period show the problem was totally eliminated, although traffic patterns did shift a little. 'Because of the no-right-turn sign on Allard road, people went to LaBelle road, (one block east of Allard,) to complete their turns. Consequently, LaBelle was snowed under.'"

"We feel the removal of the no-right-turn sign at Allard and Mack would ease the burden on LaBelle. We feel any increases for other streets is far offset by the improved safety of Roland-Maison roads."

Mr. Robinson also said the residents would like the sign removed and that another four-month test be conducted to see if traffic counts on other streets would "settle down."

Residents of streets near Roland-Maison roads voiced complaints concerning the barricades, maintaining that traffic had picked up in their area because of the obstacles. Others complained about the unavailability of the streets to emergency vehicles.

Statistics from a 30-page report submitted on the traffic experiment by Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber provided interesting developments.

Traffic counts showed vehicular passage on Roland-Maison roads dropped from 1,348 per day to zero. Traffic on Allard road dropped from 432 to 197. This represented a decrease of 100 percent and 54 percent, respectively.

However, traffic on LaBelle road rose from 180 to 432 per day, a 140 percent increase, while traffic on Bournemouth rose eight percent, from 627 to 678 per day. Lexington road showed a 106 percent increase, from 284 cars per day to 585.

All the counts were based on a 24-hour basis, on a Thursday-Friday schedule. According to Chief Ferber, Thursday and Fridays are the busiest days of the week for motorists.

After answering questions from the audience, Chief Ferber made a series of recommendations to the council.

First, that the barricades on Roland-Maison roads at Mack avenue be removed, and that the Wayne County Road Commission erect a barricade on Mack avenue at Roland-Maison roads to prevent westbound traffic from turning onto those streets. The barricade also would prevent residents from turning left onto Mack avenue from Roland road.

Third, that the island on Moross road across from the drive-in windows at the National Bank of Detroit be cut through, allowing outgoing traffic from the bank to turn left toward Chalfonte road. According to the chief, this would prevent "circling traffic."

The chief also recommended that changes in parking on Mack avenue near Allard road be retained. The changes consist of converting a no-parking-zone into a bus stop, and a bus stop into a no-parking-zone. Lastly, Chief Ferber recommended that the no-right-turn sign at Allard road be removed.

The council passed his recommendations, plus two of its own: that an analysis of traffic patterns be taken six months after the erection of the barricade on Mack avenue in front of Roland road, and that a traffic correction plan for the Mack avenue-Moross road intersection be obtained from the Wayne County Road Commission.

The barricades on Roland road should come down sometime within two weeks, according to Chief Ferber. The new barricade on Mack avenue will be installed as the Roland road barricade is taken down.

Lawyers' Wives Cite Citizens

The Grosse Pointe Lawyers' Wives presented Concerned Citizens Awards Tuesday, May 3, to six individuals, who involved themselves in outstanding service to the community as part of the group's Law Day activities.

The recipients were Robert Crandall, who, ignoring his own safety, chased, apprehended and held a bicycle thief until police arrived. He also, confiscated a set of two-foot bolt cutters which the thief had in his possession.

John Grembi and Chief Petty Officer Robert Joyner observed a fatal hit-and-run cyclist accident. Seeing that first aid was being administered, they chased the car, obtained the license number, furnished the report to the police and appeared as witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Couger observed a hit-and-run cyclist accident, noted the license number of the car and reported it to the police.

Scott Miller, 10, was kidnapped, gagged and bound to a basement pillar. When the kidnapper left to make a phone call for ransom, Scott managed to free himself, phone his mother the address where he was being held and hid until police located him.

The Honorable Stanley C. Kazul, municipal judge for The City of Grosse Pointe, was the speaker.

Educators Ask State for Fund

The Board of Education passed a resolution Monday, May 9, to pressure Michigan politicians to establish a stabilization fund in the state budget to help blunt the effect on local districts of Michigan's rather unstable economy.

Citing the negative effect of budget reductions on education, the resolution states "establishment of a stabilization fund could provide surplus funds to meet future economic slumps and could eliminate the need to cut local district revenue to balance the budget."

The resolution, similar to one passed by the Northville Board of Education in March, was introduced by Trustee Joan Happter. Copies of it will be sent to the governor and district legislators.

Pointe schools have suffered considerably under state budget cutbacks over the past several years.

Such cutbacks have suddenly and unexpectedly reduced local revenue by as much as $400,000.

Although The Pointe system does not receive general state aid allocations, it qualifies for about $500,000 in categorical aid each year.

So far this year, four different bills calling for stabilization funds in the state budget have been introduced in the Michigan House of Representatives.

They include House Bill (HB), 4152, sponsored by Minority Leader Dennis O. Cawthorne, and HB's 4635, 4636 and 4637, introduced by Rep. Monte R. Gerald.

Summit's one-gallon wine dispenser is a practical way to keep wine for home or recreation. It's compact, portable and unbreakable.

The Summit wine dispenser now offers a full one-gallon wine package with these conveniences:

- Wine stays fresh throughout use because a collapsible liner prevents contact with air.
- The easy pour spout is air-tight and drip-free.
- Compact dispenser maintains chill.
- Saves space in refrigerator or on shelf.

Every wine dispenser is filled with fine Summit wines from Sonoma County's Geyser Peak Winery.

Following a tradition dating back to 1880, these wines are blended with care from California's fine grape varieties.

Our Summit Chablis is a light, fresh white wine. Summit Burgundy is a full, deep-flavored red. The Vin Rosé is a refreshing wine with a balance of fruitiness and delicacy. And Summit Rhine is a mellow, pleasing white wine.

NHS Boosters' Request For New Facility Tabled

By Susan McDonald

A disappointed group of North High School Athletic Boosters saw their request for Board of Education funds to build a storage and concession stand at North tabled for future consideration at the trustees' Monday, May 9, meeting.

Although Superintendent Dr. William Coats recommended the Board make the $12,000-$15,000 commitment for the facility in next year's budget, the issue was tabled by a 5-2 vote.

Trustee Laurence Harwood said he was "totally opposed" to the request. "Our building and site fund is already in the hole for this year," he said.

"We need facilities for students more than we need room to store tractors," he added, citing a list of projects in need of funding, including the Industrial Arts complex at South High, a library room for Barnes Elementary School and a reading lab for Brownell Middle School.

North Booster Club president Dave Marsteller said he still has hopes the project may receive funding before next September.

"We had hoped, though, that they would take more prompt action so it could have been built this spring," Mr. Marsteller said.

The Boosters have committed $10,000 of their own funds for the proposed 46'x25' facility that would house a concession stand and storage space for athletic and maintenance equipment.

The building would be constructed under the existing bleachers at a total cost of $22,000-$25,000.

Mr. Marsteller explained his group's main concern is to provide space to shelter athletic equipment at North.

There is no such storage area now and a great deal of heavy athletic equipment must be hauled back and forth between the building and field, (150 yards apart), by students when it's needed.

The school's Director of Support Services, Ben Zenn, said the proposed facility also would make maintenance operations more efficient.

Mr. Zenn pointed out that all maintenance equipment must be stored in the south end of the school district and transported to the north end.

In addition, the building would save the Boosters the time and trouble of erecting a tent on the athletic grounds to serve food and drink to spectators each time there is a game.

The Boosters retain all profits from the concessions, returning them to the North athletic program through various gifts.

Trustees William Huette, who proposed the Board grant the Boosters' request with a $15,000 limit, and William Fleming cast the only votes against tabling the item.

Mr. Fleming said the project has an educational value in that students will be able to participate in the athletic program more fully if they don't have to spend time dragging equipment back and forth from the school to the field.

Trustee John Bruce, who voted to table the issue, explained he "would prefer to leave any consideration of capital expenditures of a non-emergency nature until we're considering the entire budget."

Board President Robert Warner agreed, saying, "We'll look at it again in light of a total list of capital outlay items, hopefully in mid-June."

Cyclist Injured On Lakeshore

Shores public safety officers, called to an accident in front of 1030 Lakeshore road at 1:10 p.m. on Saturday, May 14, arrived to find a motorcycle between the curb and the sidewalk.

The operator was nowhere in sight, according to Cpl. Chester Painter and Public Safety Officer Robert Bensing, who were dispatched to the area.

The officers radioed the information to their station and the desk officer called all area hospitals to inquire if any person was admitted for treatment of injuries. The replies were negative.

At 2:40 p.m., a call was received from Bon Secours Hospital that a male, Thomas Joseph Herbat, 21, applied for treatment of numerous abrasions about the arms, legs and body, sustained when his motorcycle overturned in The Shores.

After being treated for his injuries, Herbat, who had been driven to the hospital by an unknown motorist, was picked up by Shores officers and taken to the station to make a formal report.

Herbat, whose operator's license was under suspension, claimed he was hit by a passing motorist, lost control of the two wheeler and was hurt when he hit the ground. It was disclosed by authorities that the man's license had been suspended by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing.

No violation tickets were issued because no witnesses were found to prove Herbat was operating the motorcycle, registered to a relative.

NHS Offers Frosh Tours

G. Bruce Feighner, principal of North High School, will present a special orientation for incoming students from Parcels, Brownell and other schools at North High on Saturday, May 21.

Students will meet in the auditorium theater at 10 a.m. and be given a tour of the school to learn the locations of lockers, lunchrooms, classrooms, resource centers and library.

Representatives of North's clubs will be available to explain their function within the school and to answer questions.

This is the first time such an orientation program has been presented and it is hoped it will enable the fall '77 North freshmen to feel comfortable in their new surroundings.

Center Slates Trip to Opera

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association has reserved good main floor seats for the Metropolitan Opera's performance of "The Magic Flute" at Masonic Auditorium Saturday afternoon, May 28.

A buffet luncheon, which is optional at $4, is being served in Alger House beginning at 11:30 a.m.

Patrons will board the chartered bus at 12:30 p.m. and be taken directly to the door of Masonic Auditorium.

Following the performance, they will be whisked back to Grosse Pointe and the Center's parking lot.

Cost covering chauffeured transportation, parking and the opera is $21.50 or $25.50 depending on seat location.

For further information, call the Center, 32 Lakeshore road, at 881-7511.

Youth Service Division's Report Eyes Child Safety

The Youth Service Division's (YSD), child safety program, which was activated in April and encompasses all the Pointes and Harper Woods, receives much of the attention in the division's monthly report for April.

Last month, a total of 58 cases were referred to the YSD with one proving to be unfounded. The total through April reaches 216 cases in comparison with 224 for the same period last year.

In its report, the YSD says the program was "motivated to collaborate the efforts of police, schools and citizens in a uniform defense against child molesting, (or harm of any kind).

North Team Seeks 'Trouble'

North High School is one of 36 Michigan schools to have a team qualify for the Plymouth-Trouble Shooting Contest May 18, at the Oakland Mall, I-75 and 14 Mile Road, at 10 a.m.

The contest required teams to find the malfunctions in identically "bugged" new automobiles. The teams consist of two students, who are selected by their school based on scholastic and mechanical ability.

The two students from North are Bruce Burton, of Merriweather road, and Paul Carlson, of Brys drive. The two troubleshooters qualified for the state championships by getting high scores on written examinations.

The winners of the statewide competition will receive all expense paid trips to the national finals at Atlanta, Ga., next month. The state competition will require teams to race each other and the clock to find all malfunctions and restore the car to perfect running order.

The North High troubleshooting team is sponsored by Earl Raynal of Raynal Plymouth Co., of Detroit.

The purpose of the contest was to encourage mechanically skilled students to continue their education and seek jobs in the automotive field.

A great deal of forethought was displayed by inventing the ambulance before the automobile.

Obituaries

ELMER ANTHONY CLARK

Services for Mr. Clark, 88, of The Farms, were held Wednesday, May 18, at Saint Paul's on-the-Lakeshore and William R. Hamilton Funeral Home.

He died Monday, May 16, at Bon Secours Hospital.

Born in Iowa, Mr. Clark lived in The Pointe for 50 years. He was the retired vice-president of the Budd Co. and active in the United Foundation and the Michigan Children's Aid Society. He also was a member of the Country Club of Detroit. He was a graduate of Gonzaga University of Washington.

Mr. Clark is survived by his wife, Nan Finley Clark; a daughter, Mrs. Charles C. Haffner III, of Chicago; a son, William Anthony Clark, of New York; one sister and two grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Saint Paul's Church or to the Michigan Children's Aid Society.

Interment was at Elmwood Cemetery.

DR. JOHN E. HOSKINS

A memorial service for Dr. Hoskins, 53, of Fisher road, was held Saturday, May 14, at Christ Episcopal Church.

He died Wednesday, May 11, at his home. Local arrangements were handled by the Verheyden Funeral Home.

A practicing psychologist with an office in Mack avenue, Dr. Hoskins was a former executive director for Goodwill Industries, and the Michigan Epilepsy Center and Association.

He was a captain and pilot in the Air Force during World War II and was a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

He is survived by his wife, Joyce M.; a son, Dean W.; and two daughters, Mrs. Deborah Watson and Karianne M. Hoskins.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Michigan Heart Association or to the Discretionary Fund of Christ Episcopal Church.

Dr. Hoskins will be interred at Christ Episcopal Church.

Political economy was called the art of getting the most votes for the least money.

Park Approves New Plans For Expansion of Marina

By James J. Njaim
New work plans to expand the Windmill Point Park marina were approved by the Park Council on Monday, May 9.

The firm of John Steven Associates, Inc., architects-engineers, who prepared the outlines for the proposed project, was directed to present final plans for the council's consideration at the next council session Monday, May 23.

Mr. Steven, a resident of the Park and head of the company, presented revised plans for the construction of additional wells at Monday night's meeting.

ASCAP Sues Local Lounge

The MerryGo-Round a/k/a Sid's Lounge, 15402 Mack avenue, has been sued for copyright infringement by General Music Publishing Co. Inc. and Robbins Music Corp.

The plaintiffs are members of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, (ASCAP), which licenses the right to perform in public for profit the copyrighted musical compositions of its more than 25,000 members.

They claim that their copyrighted songs were performed at the MerryGo-Round without authorization.

The songs involved are "I Left My Heart in San Francisco" by Douglas Cross and George Cory and "Ebb Tide" by Robert Maxwell and Carl Sigman.

James Sitgerlet, operator of the establishment, was named as defendant in the lawsuit which was recently filed in United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

The lawsuit has been brought under provisions of the 1909 Copyright Act, and is based on the internationally accepted principle that copyrights are property because the product of a person's mind is just as much his or her property as the product of a person's hands.

That property cannot be used for profit without permission.

Plaintiffs have asked the court to award statutory damages along with court costs and attorney's fees, and to restrain the defendant from publicly performing their songs in the future.

When asked to comment about the charges made against the bar, Mr. Sitgerlet denied that the establishment was even featuring music at the time specified in the suit.

Under his new proposal, he felt that it would be better that several of the wells proposed for the new Pier No. 5 be constructed to accommodate 25-foot length crafts rather than 20-foot boats.

The council ruled out a proposed small boat launching ramp to be located at the Three Mile Drive Park, and at least for the present, at the Windmill Point Park.

Mr. Steven's plans call for adding 17 wells along the east wall of Pier No. 1A, construction of 31 wells at Pier No. 5, (16 on the east side and 15 on the west side), and the remodeling and adding of several wells on Piers 2, 3 and 4, plus the dredging of low areas of the marina.

With one well in a less than good condition, (with no plans to re-construct it), there are presently 219 boat spaces of varied sizes in use, and all are rented for the season.

The 57 to be added make the total 276, which will help lower the number of 135 owners on the well waiting list according to City Manager Robert A. Slone, who pointed out that the proposed marina expansion will cost an estimated $150,000.

The city manager said that work on the wells, the dredging, installation of electricity and water, construction of catwalks, et al, should start sometime this fall. If all goes according to schedule, the wells will be ready by next spring's opening of the boating season.

To raise the funds, a bond sale must be initiated. This will be done without the good faith and credit of the city, i.e., the bonds will be redeemed solely from rental fees of the wells over a five-year period, Mr. Slone said.

No tax monies will be used to pay off these bonds, he added.

Mr. Steven and his firm will supervise the construction of the wells and other needed work of the marina, making periodic reports to the city administration, at a fee of nine percent of the cost of expansion and remodeling.

The cost will include the $1,500 paid for the drawing up of plans and specifications for the project.

AARP Meets On May 23

The next regular meeting of the American Association of Retired Persons, (AARP), Pointe Chapter No. 2151, will be held in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore road, on Monday, May 23.

At this meeting there will be an action-demonstration program on cardiopulmonary resuscitation, conducted by a representative of the Detroit chapter of the American Red Cross.

The Second Annual White Elephant Sale also will be held. Rosalind Bonino is the chairman. Members are urged to bring items like art treasures, cups/saucers, glassware items and prized knick-knacks. No clothing, appliances of any kind or books or magazines will be accepted.

A social hour will follow the program, and area residents 55 years of age or older are invited to join the fun.

All most folks ask is justice, but each individual wants to define it in his own way.

School Board Fetes Retirees

The Board of Education will host a Retirement Reception on Wednesday, May 25, at North High School, 707 Vernier road, from 4-6 p.m. Guests of honor will include public school and library staff members who have announced their intention to retire at the close of this school year.

The reception is an occasion for colleagues within the school and library system, as well as for friends in the community, to visit informally with those who will be leaving the school system.

A social hour has been planned from 4-5 p.m. in the lobby of the auditorium of North High. In addition to a reception line of retirees and members of the Board, there will be light refreshments and music by instrumentalists under the direction of Nathan Judson.

The activity will shift to the auditorium at 5 p.m. where Dr. William Coats, superintendent of schools, will speak briefly. Retirees will then be presented with resolutions and certificates from the Board. Musical entertainment will be provided by vocal students under the direction of Herman Clein.

A total of 18 public school and library employees will be honored at the reception. They are Lois E. Blackburn, third grade, Richard; Angelina F. Cusenza, cafeteria, South High; Helen DeConinck, business affairs, Administration Building; Helen C. Doherty, circulation clerk, Woods Library; John M. Easton, head engineer, Central Library; and Martha S. Graham, third grade, Trombly.

Others are Louise Leeson, general office worker, Central Library; Betty MacDonald, secretary, Community Services; Ralph D. McLeod, custodian, South; Anne Marie O'Malley, cafeteria, South; Ruth E. Paulson, mathematics, South; and Joseph Polito, custodian, South.

Still others are Dorothy Proctor, cafeteria-cook manager, Brownell; Michael A. Satmary, head engineer, South; Kathryn Sheedy, business education, South; Evelyn Toll, homemaking, Brownell; Edwin Wendt, principal, Poupard; and Gail Wog, counselor, Parcels.

'Godspell' Set at St. Ambrose

A production of "Godspell," the hit musical based on the Gospel According to Matthew, will be presented the weekend of May 20-22 at Saint Ambrose Church, 15020 Hampton road.

The musical direction will be in the hands of Minister of Music Curtis Murawski, who came to Saint Ambrose late last year.

The semi-circular seating arrangement at the church lends itself to an enjoyable viewing of this play, which is something of a return to the middle ages when touring players acted out the gospels.

Overall direction of the play is the responsibility of

UP TO YOU

Not having the time is a poor excuse — you have all the time going, and nobody has more.

REAL ESTATE VS DOW JONES

When we compare the results over the past decade between stock market profits and real estate increases, we'll see quite a dramatic difference in dollars.

In the decade from January 1960 to January 1970, the Dow Jones Industrial average jumped from 688 to 800—an increase of 16 percent in ten years. During the same ten-year period, the average home price increased from $18,307 to $27,022—an appreciation of 48 percent or triple the Dow.

By January, 1977, the Dow Jones average jumped to the 1,000 level for a 16-year appreciation of 45% while home prices continued to increase faster than the cost of living to $46,000 — up 150% since 1960.

No matter how you slice the cake, an investment in real estate over the past decade had proven to more than double the stock market increase. And the trend is widening in favor of real estate.

The Indians and Phils dominated play in the second full week of the season with three wins each. The championship race looks like a four-team race with only a game and a half separating the top teams.

The Indians moved into first place with a 5-1 record on the basis of five straight wins after losing the opening game. The Phils tied for second with the Yankees, each with a record of 4-2. The Phils have scored 13 runs in all four of their victories.

The Tigers are in fourth place with a 3-2 record followed by the Pirates, (1-5), and the Red Legs, (0-5).

The Indians won a close 2-1 game over the Tigers on Saturday, May 14, as C. H. Crane of the Indians and Todd Ciavola of the Tigers locked up in a pitchers' duel. The Tigers jumped in front 1-0 on a booming home run by Mark Brooks in the second inning.

The Indians came back with two runs in the fourth with Sandy Davis driving in the winning run. In the fifth inning Indian centerfielder Craig Haase robbed Brooks of his second home run with a leaping catch of a fly ball in right center just as it was about to clear the fence.

The Indians rallied with three runs in the bottom of the sixth to eke out a 5-4 win over the Red Legs on Monday, May 9. Singles by Eric Dolson and Ernie Kovanda, who picked up the win, sparked the rally. The tying and winning runs scored on wild pitches.

The Indians won their third game of the week with an 8-5 win over the Yankees on Wednesday, May 11. C. H. Crane led the Indians' attack, driving in four runs with a home run and a bases loaded single. Ken Fromm led the Indians in the field defensively.

Craig Haase went the distance for the Indians picking up his second win. John Kulka gave a strong pitching performance for the Yankees, striking out 11 Indians. Richard Suhrheinrich led the Yankees with a triple and double.

The Phils handed the Tigers their first loss of the season with an exciting 13-9 victory on Monday, May 9. The Phils took a 12-0 lead with eight runs in the second inning highlighted by Jim Corbett's bases-loaded double.

The Tigers rallied with four runs in the third and four in the fifth. Stephen Baudeloque hit a grand slam home run for the Tigers. Richard Hunt hit a solo home run for the Tigers. Bill Crow picked up the win for the Phils.

The Phils won their second 13-run game of the week with a come-from-behind 13-12 victory over the Red Legs on Thursday, May 12. Raul Sanz led the 16-hit attack of the Phils with three hits. Hobey Echlin, Pat Imesch and Steve Palffy drove in two runs each for the Phils. Bart Leu hit a home run and two doubles for the Red Legs.

The Phils downed the Pirates 13-6 on Saturday, May 14, for their third 13-run win of the week. Jim Zavell came in with the Pirates leading 6-2 in the third to shutout the Pirates the rest of the game. Zavell helped his own cause with a home run. Zavell, Bill Crow and Jim Corbett of the Phils collected eight hits and seven runs batted in between them. Bill Cunningham homered for the Pirates.

The Tigers downed the Pirates 15-4 on May 11 as Todd "three fingers" Pierce picked up the win. Pierce, with his dislocated finger, picked up two bunt singles batting one-handed. Brett Augsburger and Todd Ciavola homered for the Tigers.

John Pastoria of the Yankees notched his second win of the season as the Yankees downed the Red Legs, 7-4, May 14. James Gallagher picked up two doubles for the Red Legs.

The Yankees defeated the Pirates 10-5 on May 9. Dave Spindler came in relief for the Yankees in the third inning with the Yankees trailing 1-4-0 and finished the game, allowing only two hits and one run. Brian Socia collected a single, double and triple in four trips to the plate for the Pirates.

FARMS CLASS C
By John MacLeod

The "Class C" baseball season began Monday, May 2, with a slugfest when Rochester outlasted Buffalo, 11-2. Costa Papista supplied the power for Rochester by hitting two home runs, and pitching three innings.

Syracuse defeated Columbus, 6-1, through the one-hit pitching efforts of Ty Zabolock. The Syracuse attack was led by Billy Adhooch and Mark Nesler, each with two hits. Bill Fitzsimmons hit a home run for Columbus in only run.

Syracuse also outlasted Toledo, 17-6, when Van Fleming and Zablock supplied the hitting attack. Adhooch pitched the entire game for Syracuse, striking out 13 batters and hitting a home run.

Powerhouse Richmond was off to a fast start when it defeated Albany, 1-0, in an extra inning game. Mike Grow and Steve Nagler combined for the shutout. Robbie Wood pitched six scoreless innings for Albany.

In Richmond's other contest, the team blanked Rochester, 4-0, behind the strong pitching of Grow, Nagler and Eric Restum. The hitting attack was led by Peter Riley and Matt Kitchen, each with two RBIs apiece.

Toledo's Eric Doyle struck out 15 batters on the way to a 10-5 decision over Miami. Two hits by Jamie Parker and Peter Muer led the offense for Toledo. Miami came back to defeat Columbus, 2-1, with Kyle Anderson and Robbie Healy combining for a two-hitter.

Parker Buck pitched the entire game for Columbus, allowing only four hits. Peter Muer completed an unassisted double play in the high light of the game.

Buffalo squeaked by Albany, 3-2, in a pitchers' duel. Jim Fetz pitched six innings for Buffalo, allowing two runs and striking out 13 batters. The winning pitcher was John Rowady.

GP CITY MAJORS

In the second full week of the season in the Major League, the Braves maintained their perfect record by taking two from the Cards, 21-1 and 12-1.

In the first game on Tuesday, May 10, the Braves pounded out 14 hits, scoring in each of the six innings. They erupted for nine runs in the fifth and five more runs in the 6th. Meanwhile, Rick Richner picked up his third win by scattering three Cardinal hits, and striking out 11 men without walking a batter.

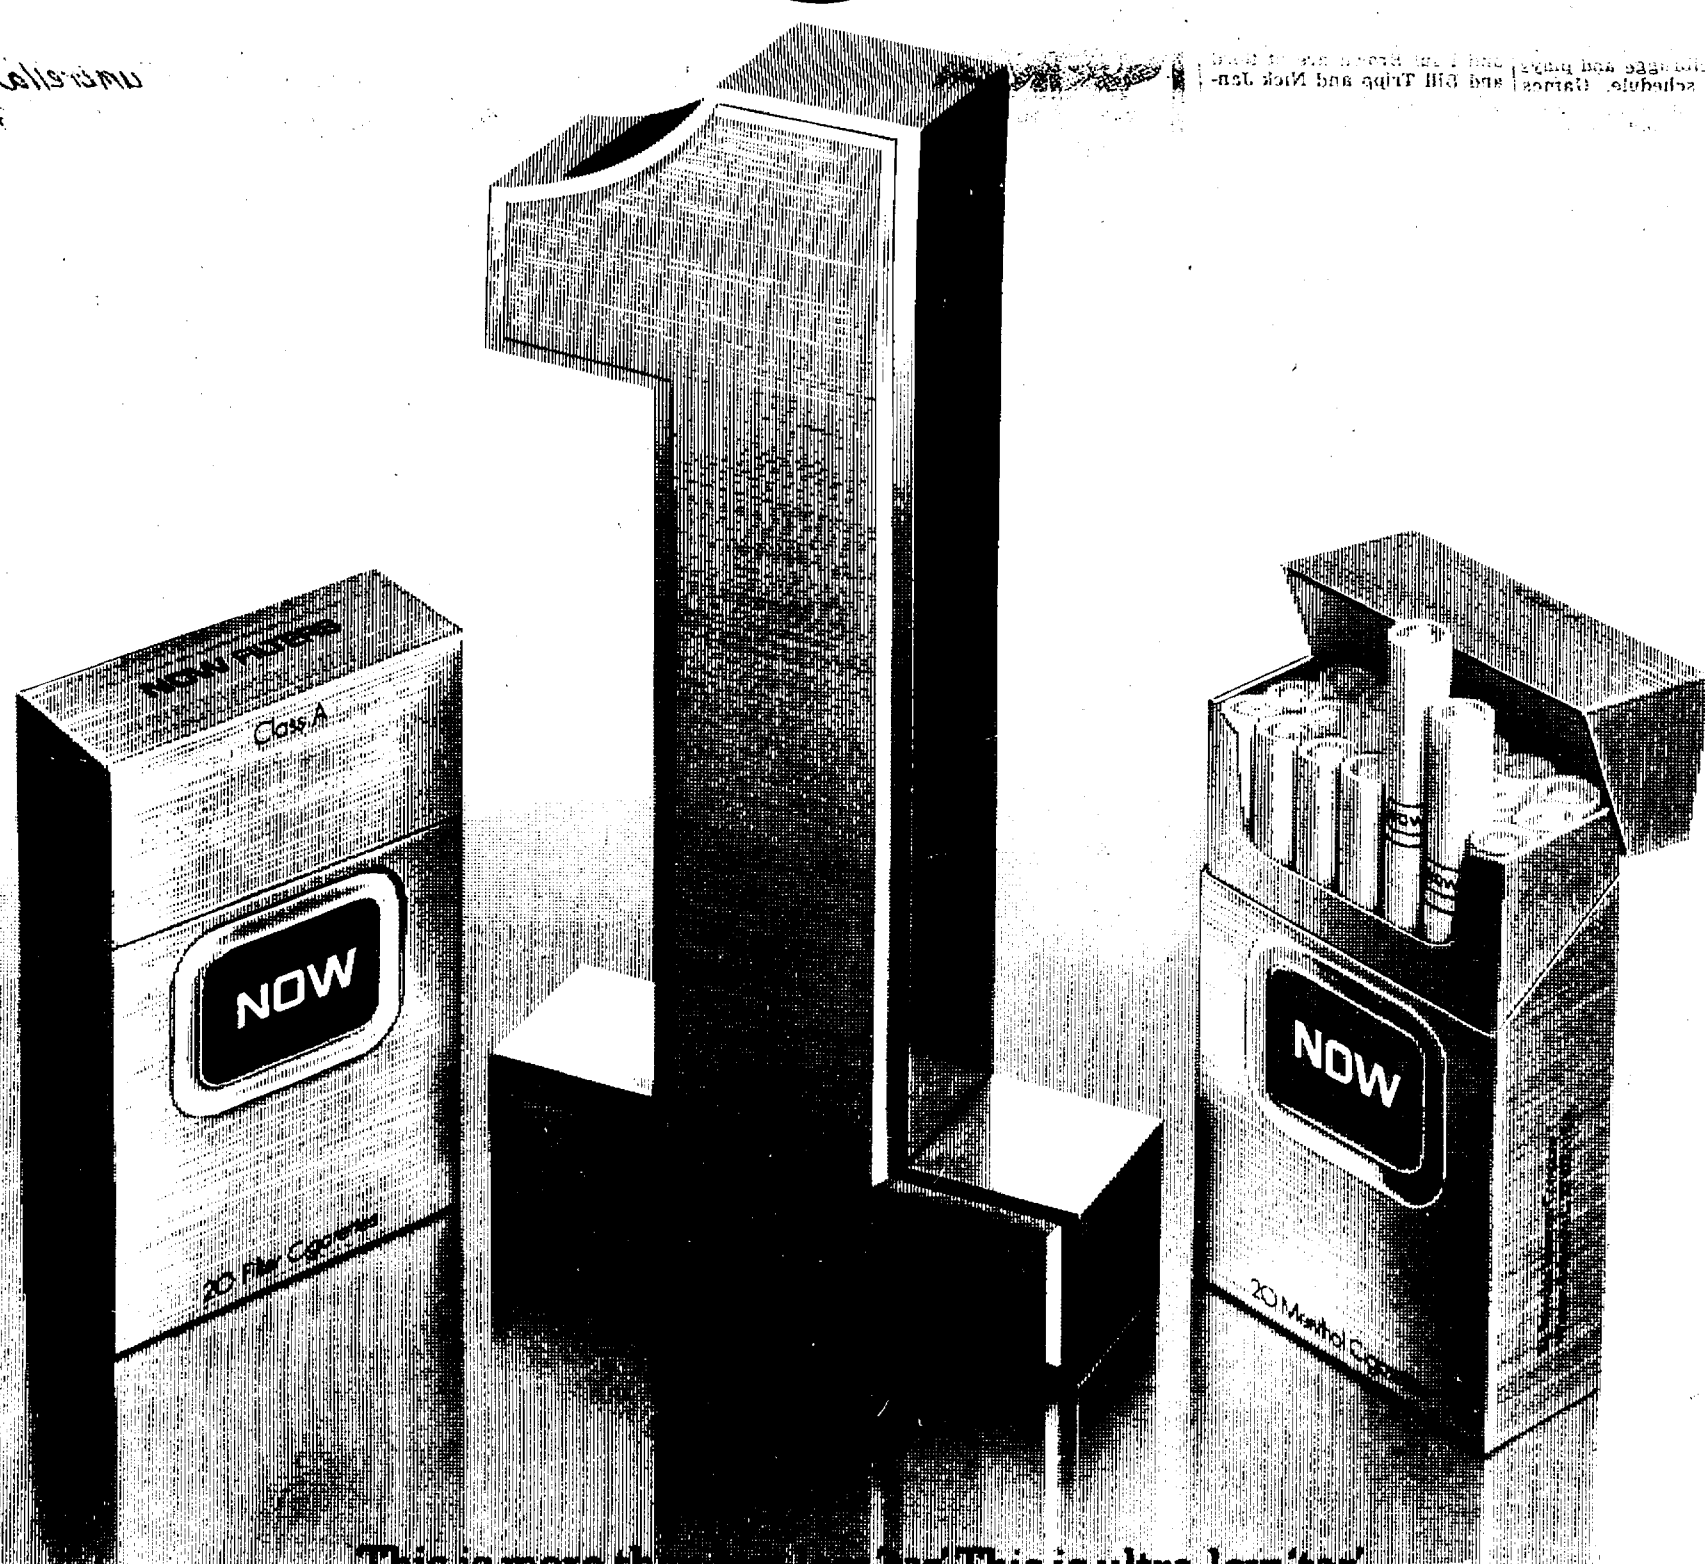

The hitting attack was sparked by a grand slammer by Marty Bedell in the big fifth inning. Bedell and Brad Langs collected a total of four hits each, while Ned Sparrow, Paul Martinelli, Kurt Maunz and Hal Brown shared the hitting honors.

In a rematch, the Braves were able to collect seven hits in the third inning off the starter, Dave Christofferson, to score nine runs for the second time in three days.

The highlight of this inning was another grand slam homer, this time by Rick Richner, his first round-tripper of the season.

Distinctive Dining by

Larry Lavigne

One of the secrets of good cooking is having a good soup stock. In all your food preparations keep the soup stock in a corner of your kitchen thoughts. Vegetable cooking water should be saved and refrigerated. If you have access to fresh vegetables, save the scraps and put them in a bag or container in the refrigerator until you have enough to make a good stock, about one or two pounds. Dump them in a large pot with a quart of water, and simmer covered, for 30 to 45 minutes. Strain and store the stock in the refrigerator, for use in all kinds of food.

Soup's on at LAMBARDI'S RESTAURANT, 17125 E. Warren at Cadieux, Detroit, TU 5-9100! We're known for delicious Italian Minestrone soup and our French Onion Soup Au Gratin. Come in for lunch or dinner or late evening snack and have soup and salad or soup with a full course meal. Any meal, small or large is very satisfying at LAMBARDI'S RESTAURANT because it's so well prepared. We're open from 11 'til 11:30 daily and Fri and Sat 'til 10 a.m.

HANDY HINT:

When preparing soup from stock, add the vegetables the last stage so the vitamins and minerals do not evaporate in cooking.

Cougars Win Three Games

By Bob Evanski
The Cougars, a Grosse Pointe entry in the Roseville Soccer League, started its season by posting three straight victories.

In the opening game, the Cougars fought off a late surge by the Roseville Rowdies to hold onto a 1-0 win.

Center forward Jeff Johnston scored the only goal when he broke loose up the middle on a pass from Jim Dancy. Rainer Schmidt played well at both ends of the field.

In its second game, the Cougars met the very physical Lakeview Huskies and came out with a 4-2 victory. Johnston scored twice and Dancy also netted two goals to power the offense. One of Dancy's goals came after Curt Major drove a penalty kick off the post and Dancy popped it past the goalie.

Traveling to 14 Mile road and Evergreen to meet the Birmingham Barons, the Cougars were greeted with poor field conditions in the third game of the season. Nevertheless, the team bagged a 3-0 shutout win over the Barons.

Johnston got things rolling with the first goal of the game halfway through the first period. Major then teed off a penalty kick that careened just under the crossbar after ricocheting off the chest of the goal keeper.

The Barons refused to be shot down in the second half, however, and found themselves with a penalty kick late in the game. Cougar goalie Tyler Tennent answered the call, though, with a diving save on a shot headed for the lower right hand corner. The save coupled with a last minute goal by Dancy, who had an exceptional game offensively, grounded the Barons for good.

Others turning in fine performances were right wing Dave Nicholson and halfback Jere L'Heureux.

This year's team consists of the captain, Major, L'Heureux, Dancy, Rainer Schmidt, Nicholson, Bob Evanski, Tim Bantien, Tennent, Ken MacKenzie and Al Casby.

More are Johnston, Don Ford, Gary Shammass, Nick Janosi, Tom Murphy, Chad Minkwie and Jim Scranton.

The team is coached by Guido Regelbrugge and plays a 10-game schedule. Games are every Sunday at 11 a.m. through the month of June. The team is a member of the Michigan Youth Soccer League.

GP BABE RUTH
By Rick Thomas

In Babe Ruth action Saturday, May 14, the D. M. Egan Tigers raised its overall record to 5-0 by beating the Metropolitan Club Indians, 3-2. Dave Spencer picked up his third win of the season while striking out nine.

John Hackett provided the offensive punch for the Tigers with a triple, Mike Mahon pitched well for the losers, allowing four hits and walking only two.

On Monday, May 9, the Tigers defeated the Kotlar Yankees, 6-0, behind the fine pitching debut of Bob Orban, who gave up only two hits and struck out eight. Greg Lapinski led the Tigers with three hits, while Dave Spencer had two, including a double.

Staying close to the heels of the Tigers were the Burger Chef White Sox, raising their record to 4-1 by romping over the Nothdurft Red Sox, 17-0, on Friday, May 13. Rex Ciavola turned in a two-hitter for the winners, also helping the cause with a double and a single, driving in three runs.

Sean English had three hits and five RBI's, and Jim Palazzolo three hits and two RBI's. Mark Schonnenberg also had two RBI's.

The White Sox defeated the Indians, 5-4, on May 9. Palazzolo was the winning pitcher in relief of Bryan Augsburger who pitched the first five innings, scattering four hits and striking out 11.

WOODS SHORES

By Dennis G. Crooks
The Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Babe Ruth Automotive League opened on Sunday, May 15, with all six teams engaged in competition.

IXL Glass defeated Customcraft Builders, 10-0. Fourteen-year-old Karl Kurtz bested Customcraft losing pitcher Randy Smith, striking out eight, and giving up only two hits and three walks. IXL leading hitters for the day were Jim Schultz and Bruce Stewart with two each. IXL is the 1976 defending champion.

Pioneer Furniture's fifteen-year-old Tim Mitchell went the distance for an easy 9-2 win over Steiger-Killebrew, allowing only two runs on three hits. Losing pitcher Mike Janes connected for two of Steiger's three hits.

Leading hitters for Pioneer were Bob Schaffer with three and Craig Stafford with two hits and three RBI's.

Fluid Systems Engineering topped P. G. Simon, 10-0, with John Clem taking the victory.

NHS Netters In Top Ten

North High School's varsity tennis team vaulted to the ninth spot in the Michigan High School Tennis Coaches Assoc. poll after an impressive showing last weekend.

The Norsemen defeated fifth-rated Midland and Midland Dow at a quad meet held in Ann Arbor.

The team has been impressive all year, running up a 26-game winning streak in the Bi-County league.

North has yet to give up a point to an opposing school in the league by winning all its meets by the perfect score of 8-0.

The teams North has beaten outside of league play include Ann Arbor Pioneer, South High School, Dearborn Edsel Ford, Grosse Isle, Midland and Midland Dow. The only blemishes on North's record includes two early losses to Austin and University Liggett.

With the regionals this weekend, the Norsemen feel they have an excellent chance of winning and going to the state tourney.

Team members are Bill Vanderhoef, at first singles, Jeff Woodbury, at second singles, Bill Thompson, at third singles, and Joe Sehee at fourth singles.

Jeff Jaskolski and Bill Waldeck play first doubles, Stu Pack and Mike Ricard are at second, Rainer Schmidt and Paul Brown are at third and Bill Tripp and Nick Janosi play fourth.

Intellect without judgment is the short-coming of half the smart people in the world.

Little League Results

Bedell added a three-run homer.

The winning pitcher was Kurt Maunz, who allowed only two singles and one unearned run as he began tiring in the later innings. But he was given excellent defensive support.

WOODS LITTLE LEAGUE MAJORS

By Steven Rusing

On Monday, May 9, the Orioles edged the Twins, 9-4. Dave Wittwer of the Twins slammed a two-run double to tie the score 4-4. The Orioles scored five times in the sixth inning, highlighted by Joe Haas' three-run triple. Ray Azar won his first game while Steve Pack was the losing pitcher.

On Tuesday, May 10, John Menzo and Ron Garner combined to strike out 15 for the Reds, who routed the Cubs, 27-2. The Reds were powered by Pat Ireland's five RBI's, two homers and Menzo's home run.

Then, on May 11, the Indians won 4-2 over the Orioles. Brad Stiever went all six innings allowing only three hits to put the Indians in first place. The Indians stole home twice, while Tony Lagrasso and John Ward went two-for-three for the Indians. The Orioles' Eric Safaran went two-for-three.

On Thursday, May 12, a game between the Phillies and the Dodgers was called after four innings because the Phillies lost both catchers due to injuries. Mike Hall went three-for-three and had five RBI's. The Dodgers stole 13 bases and were ahead 17-2.

In other action, on May 9, Cleveland topped the Tigers, 10-2, and the Oakland A's stopped the Yankees, 6-1. On May 10, the Dodgers bombed the Braves, 6-2, while the Pirates defeated the Phillies, 7-3.

On May 11 the Yankees destroyed the Tigers, 12-4, and the Twins nipped the A's, 5-4. On May 12, the Pirates equeezed by the Cubs, 8-7, in seven innings.

Pointe Police Split 4 Games

The Grosse Pointe Police softball team played four games last week, winning two of them.

On Thursday, May 12, the Pointers met "Greensboro station" for their opener in the Class "B" League at Detroit's Softball City.

Grosse Pointe got off to a slow start and trailed 7-2 at the end of the third inning. The Pointers caught fire in the fourth, paced by a home run by Mike Cavanagh, (Woods). They scored four runs and then pushed across another four runs in the fifth and padded their lead with three in the top of the seventh to outscore the "Station" 13-8.

Leading hitters were Mike VanDeGinste, (Woods), Tom Hunke, (Woods), Mike Kenyon, (Shores), Cavanagh, and Ron Hayden, (Woods).

On Saturday, May 14, the Pointers played a make-up game at Softball City and bowed to the "James Winster" team, 13-11.

Pat DeVine, (Woods), had a perfect day at the plate going two-for-two, and Mark Brecht, (Farms), was three-for-four.

On Sunday, May 15, the Pointers played a double-header at Fraser Municipal Field.

The locals lost to the Macomb County Probate Court in the opener, 9-5. Probate Court outplayed Grosse Pointe in every department and the Pointers could not get their hitting in gear.

VanDeGinste was two-for-three with a shutout breaking home run in the sixth inning. Archie Grieve, (Shores), was the only other Pointer with two hits.

In the second game, the Pointers put their hitting and fielding together and bombed East Detroit Police, 20-4. DeVine led the hitting attack, going four-for-five. Kenyon had two home runs and five RBI's. Six other Pointers collected two hits in the game.

Rotarian, Site Directors View Needs of Seniors

By Carol Jachim

Contrary to popular belief, most old people do not live in institutions, hospitals or nursing homes. Just under four percent of all persons over 65 live in such places. Currently, an active concern regarding the needs of the elderly is a reality in Grosse Pointe.

At a recent Rotary Club meeting, Dr. Max Gardner gave a stimulating talk of his everyday work, which is psychoanalysis.

Through his topic, "What's Old and What's New in Psychiatry," he showed his concern for the other 96 percent of the elderly living in local neighborhoods who need help daily in dealing with their unique situation.

The aging person faces many physical problems, but crucial psychological changes take place also and result in difficulties. Dr. Gardner, a former Rotary Club president, tried to stir interest among club members in considering a project for the aged.

He feels that the community lacks sufficient facilities in handling those people who suddenly find themselves out of work or retired and have genuine fears about it.

In an interview last week, Dr. Gardner spoke again of this social problem. "People have a real reluctance to deal with older Americans," he said. Yet there is an increase of the elderly population and this should be among priority concerns, he explained. "People don't realize the need for it."

Dr. Gardner admits he is no expert on geriatrics, the medical study of old age, but said "psychology has stayed away from the older Americans."

He feels that psychology does have a place with this element of society, short of psychoanalysis. "There are many depressions that are common among older Americans," he said. Psychoanalysis is a long term treatment, "perhaps too long for senior citizens."

"We have the Senior Men's Club and the nutrition site and they have been well received, but there are few facilities for recreation and no meeting halls, specifically for the aged," said Dr. Gardner.

There's also the Family Life Education Council, (FLEC), yet "emphasis is on the family but not on the elderly," Dr. Gardner continued. There are prejudices against the elderly and prejudices are fed by misinformation. Because of advanced stages of communications, the media often strongly influence the public's perception of the elderly. Traditionally "old age" has been depicted poorly.

According to Dr. Gardner, people need stimulation and age is no barrier. Children and the elderly need their peers. People easily "lose their drive and motivation," without encouragement and positive images. Genuine needs are love and a feeling of being needed and importance.

Dr. Gardner said that a coordinated effort is necessary to help this segment which for too long has been ignored. We live in a youth-oriented society which is a handicap for the elderly, he states.

Millions of older Americans are able, wise and eager to continue contributing to society and often need to be given a chance through organized programs.

Dr. Gardner feels an establishment of some kind, open all hours would be some help. "They need each other," he said, "to share some past experiences." There are some things a family cannot provide. And in our highly mobile society, often times families live a great distance away, and the elderly are left alone to cope with loneliness.

Dr. Gardner explained that like a child, who needs his parents but also his peers to continue developing mentally and emotionally, the same is true of the aged.

The present president of the Rotary Club, Dr. Albert J. Ceravolo, said that Dr. Gardner gave an excellent speech at the April meeting, but "nothing is in the wind for the aged right now." He said some meetings were held but "we're still in the talking stage."

Dr. Gardner is not alone in this urgent concern of the elderly. Mary Ale and Diane Heavner, co-directors of the Wayne County Nutrition Site, operating in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, also recognize the neglected needs of older people.

Mrs. Heavner said in the four months that the nutrition program has existed, "our eyes have been opened to the plight" of these people in our community. We get calls for all kinds of help and advice because we are here, she said.

Contrary to the myth that an affluent community can take care of itself, these women have discovered dire problems existing in the Grosse Pointe area. Many people retire without a pension, they have worked independently and live now only on a meager amount of money, said Mrs. Heavner.

A survey was taken on one block in the area, according to Mrs. Heavner. They found three heart attack victims, a blind person living alone and malnutrition. She said so many old people live with "no incentive to fix up their own meals." Some live on a daily diet of peanut butter.

When retirement came, some of "these people had all their pillars gone, all that gave them status in the community is taken away," said Mrs. Heavner.

Sometimes a bedridden wife is cared for by a husband, but when he suddenly needs hospital care, there is no one left to care for the woman. These are real problems of people who do not know where to go for help.

Mrs. Heavner and Mrs. Ale also are studying Gerontology at Madonna College in Livonia.

The Nutrition site is open daily from 10 a.m.-2 p.m., and currently is feeding about 100 people, 60 years or over. Classes in home nursing, exercise and crafts also are available there.

Mrs. Heavner said that many of the people have transportation problems, and some meals must be delivered to their homes.

According to Mrs. Ale, there is no cohesiveness in the community to help senior citizens. "Many people do not recognize that there is a problem in Grosse Pointe. We need to get together," she said.

The two women, along with a few other concerned citizens of the area planned a meeting, which was held last night, May 18, in the Woods Municipal Building for the purpose of discussing the problem. Over 50 invitations were sent out to people in three categories, senior citizens, community resource people and other influential and social leaders of the area.

According to Mrs. Ale, "money is available to help these people, the county offers food, and there is a need, but we are scattered and can't work individually. We need a central point. And "We need a commission."

to focus on this subject." The elderly are a part of our society, yet an absence of positive images and ignorance to their real problems and solutions, reflects an unimportance to their everyday life.

This unique minority needs human freedom, love, dignity and self-development — concerns of all people.

Norsemen Win 74th Dual Meet

By Diane Marstiller
The North High School track team competed in two meets this week.

On Tuesday, May 10, the Norsemen defeated Southlake, 138-20, for North's 74th consecutive dual meet victory. Ken Humes and Jed Vier both jumped 6'5" in the high jump to give the Norsemen first and second, while Bill Weidenbach won the 880-yard run in 1:55.4 to highlight the meet.

On Saturday, May 14, the Norsemen traveled to the Oxford Invitational and finished second out of 30 teams with 40 points. Lakeview was first with 47 points.

Weidenbach led the team, setting a new record in the two-mile run at 9:05.8, and finished second in the mile in 4:19.

Humes won the high jump at 6'3", while Steve Brandt was third in the 880-yard run at 1:59.8 and Joe Ciarrino was fifth at 2:01.

The 880-yard relay team of Carl Weber, Karl Tech, Darrell Graham and Steve VanEvery finished third at 1:31.6. Bob Brown finished fifth in the 330-yard low hurdles.

In the mile relay, the Norsemen finished second at 3:24.9. Competing were Brown, Tech, Brian Patmon and Graham. Ed Hammer finished fourth in the two mile, and in third place was the 440-yard relay team of VanEvery, Weber, John Long and Bob Lossman in 45.1.

Coach Tom Gauerke was pleased with his team's finish, since many of his varsity runners were injured.

The Norsemen will compete Saturday, May 21, in the regionals to be held at North beginning at 10 a.m.

You can increase your mileage and decrease your footaches if you follow a few simple rules when shopping for shoes. For example, experts say that you should always wear your best fitting shoes, so that you can compare the new ones for comfort and fit. Have your feet measured and fit the larger foot. Never accept a substitute size just because you like them. If they do not fit you, you will not like them for long. If you have been happy with the shoes you bought, remember the brand name and store where you got them.

Prescription and non-prescription medications to help you care for your feet are available at THE PARK PHARMACY, 15324 E. Jefferson, Grosse Pointe Park. ## Church Best Bet for P&J

The news that the Punch and Judy, (P&J), Theater may be converted into a church was greeted in some circles with much wailing and gnashing of teeth. And in a community as conservative and tradition-bound as The Pointe, this is hardly surprising.

However, the blustering opposition that has decided to stop the sale of the Punch and Judy to the Unity Church is doing the community a great disservice.

They don't seem to understand that there are very few options in the future of the Punch and Judy. It is—much like Rose Terrace was—a white elephant.

It is a commercial theater only in name. The present owners have not been flooded by offers from legitimate movie distributors. Some have nosed around it and thought better of making an investment on something that will yield no return.

Whether people are willing to accept it or not the Punch and Judy will not make money for anybody. Only a non-profit organization can afford to buy it.

The only other option is to tear down the Punch and Judy. And before the dust settles on the rubble, Pointers will be scratching their heads wondering what they could have done to save it.

The ugliest part of the controversy is the kind of unabashed bigotry that is being used to sabotage the deal with the Unity Church.

The talk is that the Unity congregation is racially off-color by the standards of some businessmen on-the-Hill. It is embarrassing to even acknowledge this kind of rumor.

Suffice it to say that the church was founded in The Pointe in 1950 and operated out of the War Memorial until 1970, and four of the six church board members are Pointers.

The officials of the Unity Church have pledged to invest more than $60,000 in repairs and restoration projects for the theater. Yet, some Hill businessmen are convinced that letting the church in, would contribute to the decay of the area.

Groups such as the Grosse Pointe Theater, Wayne State University's Bonstelle Theater and numerous women's organizations are elated about the prospect of using the Punch and Judy for various productions. The Unity Church is in the position to offer the theater as a community events center in a way that no commercial operator could afford.

Those who say that a church just doesn't belong on-the-Hill are apparently ignorant of the fact that Saint James Lutheran Church operated out of the Punch and Judy for years in the 1940's. If a church was not out of place then, what is the problem now?

While this small group of detractors work furiously promoting their whispering campaign to keep the Unity Church out, they will not even come forward publicly and identify themselves.

If they have their way, this last chance to save the Punch and Judy will be scuttled, and the community will lose another important landmark.

Their efforts are an embarrassment and a disgrace to The Pointe.

Cultural Center to Benefit Area

The Assumption Greek Orthodox Church of St. Clair Shores dedicated its new cultural center at 21800 Marter road on Sunday, May 8.

Religious and civic leaders of St. Clair Shores and Grosse Pointe participated in the liturgy that morning and in the evening dedication banquet honoring the church.

The history of the church reaches back 49 years when, on a Mother's Day, it was established on the east side of Detroit.

The 32,000 square feet of the cultural center encompassing 10 acres of land, bordering St. Clair Shores and The Woods, will promote the spirit of Greek Orthodoxy as well as the heritage of ancient Greece through cultural, social and educational activities.

The pastor of Assumption Church is Reverend Demetrios S. Kavadas.

It is hoped that this new center will be a great asset to not only its members but will be of benefit to all the communities in the area.

Some of the Pointers involved in the liturgy included Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos, Woods Councilman and Mrs. George Freeman, Woods Councilman and Mrs. John Sabol and Woods Councilman George Cueter.

Church services will be conducted in the cultural center until a church is constructed.

Board Candidates Share Views on School Priorities

By Susan McDonald
Pointe teachers' concerns about low morale, evaluation methods and communications with the Board of Education dominated a Candidates Forum for two trustee positions at South High School Monday, May 17.

The forum was sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Action Committee, (GPAC), made up of school employees. After the session, a GPAC committee of 13 unanimously voted to endorse candidate Frances Twiddy, a former Pointe teacher whose husband is still employed by the system, for the June 13 elections.

Seven of the eight Board candidates, including Mrs. Twiddy, Ann Ardussi, Dorothy M. Kennel, Paul McCarthy, Richard Robbins, incumbent Laurence Harwood and Barbara Youngs, were present to read short speeches and answer questions at the forum.

Candidate Paul Quint was not present.

About 50 persons, most of them Pointe teachers, attended the meeting.

Mrs. Twiddy won the GPAC endorsement, which will make available to her almost $2,000 in campaign funds, with strong statements on evaluation systems and staff relations.

"Teacher morale is at an all time low," she said, stressing her strong relationship with the staff will help her solve the problem. Mrs. Twiddy also put a high priority on involving teachers, students and the community as well as administrators in developing an evaluation system for the schools.

She also argued that class size, which she maintains increased in elementary schools this year, should be lowered.

Students Take Many Medals

A team of Pointe students took three gold medals and several second place prizes in the Wayne County Special Olympics, held at Livonia Stevenson High School, Friday, May 6.

The Pointers, all students in the Trainable Mentally Impaired Program at Poupard School, competed in track, field, swimming and bowling events.

Winning Participant Awards in track and field competition were Ellen Powell, softball throw, and Tony Craig, Bob Bradley and Karen Costan, all running the 50-yard dash.

Lisa Boyd won a Gold Medal in the 50-yard freestyle and a Silver Medal in the 25-yard backstroke. Participant Awards went to Patti Lane in the 25-yard freestyle and 25-yard backstroke.

Ken Evanski won a Silver Medal in the 25-yard backstroke and a Participant Award in the 25-yard freestyle.

A Bronze Medal went to Ann Desarmeaux, competing in the 25-yard freestyle, while Wendy Cope walked off with a Bronze and Gold Medal for her performance in the 25-yard backstroke and 25-yard butterfly, respectively.

The team of Wendy, Ann, Patti and Lisa took a Gold Medal in the 100-yard freestyle relay.

On Saturday, April 30, the bowling tournament was held in Westland and The Pointe team walked off with the Gold Medal.

Participating on the team were Greg Ignasiak, Bob Bradley, Karen Costan, Jill Kock, Sue McManney, Ken Evanski, Ken Noll, Lori Lingemann, Ellen Powell, Patti Lane, Ann Desarmeaux, Bruce Ziegler and Wendy Cope.

The students' coach, Bernie LeMieux, said he expects three or four of The Pointe swimmers to qualify for the State Special Olympics in Mount Pleasant, Thursday-Sunday, June 2-5.

If you were born in July, you are in the good company of kings and emperors of centuries past, who sought rubies for their crowns. The ruby was thought to grant freedom to its wearers, and freedom is the sentiment of this divine birthstone. The precious ruby is corundum gem, and the second hardest of all natural stones next to the diamond. The name ruby derives from the Latin word for "red." Until the 19th century, many far less precious gems were called rubies, such as garnets, spinels, and red tourmalines. The true ruby, though, has on hexagonal crystalline structure, whereas these other stones have a cubic one.

Do not risk losing precious stones from your jewelry because of worn or loose mountings. Bring your jewelry in to VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, 881-4800, Detroit, to have your stones checked and cleaned. We have a wide selection of dinner rings, many with genuine stones. Whether you are making a purchase or having an item repaired, our reputation is your guarantee of satisfaction.

Mrs. Youngs said her training as a bookkeeper will give her an edge on handling the system's $20 million budget. She proposed regaining teachers' confidence in the Board of Education by "treating teachers as the professionals they are."

She also put high priority on correcting inadequacies in the Industrial Arts complex at South High School.

Mrs. Ardussi, who cites her 12 years of active parent involvement in two school systems as a qualification for trusteeship, said she would approach the teacher morale problem with more effective communications between the groups in the system.

She hopes to establish common goals for the Board, administrators, teachers and the community. Mrs. Ardussi places a high priority on improvements in English programs and vocational courses in the system.

Mrs. Kennel, who will retire this June from a Pointe teaching position, said her expertise in curriculum would qualify her as an effective trustee.

She hopes to bring to the Board more of an emphasis upon the children, themselves, and to create a climate for effective teaching and learning.

Mr. Harwood cited his 30-year career as a business executive and tenure on the Board as merits for the job.

As a retiree with one child in the school system, Mr. Harwood said he can effectively represent the "30 percent of Pointe residents who are retired," while keeping needs of children in mind.

Improving vocational education opportunities and fiscal responsibility are two of Mr. Harwood's highest priorities.

Mr. McCarthy also promises fiscal responsibility, including a proposal to collect taxes early in the summer to avoid unnecessary interest payments on borrowed funds.

The money that could be saved under the proposed collection plan, "would be enough to buy a new shop" to replace South's Industrial Arts complex, Mr. McCarthy said.

Mr. Robbins, an insurance man whose wife teaches in St. Clair Shores, said his greatest concern is "to retain trust between all groups in the system."

Improvements in communications between teacher, Board and administrative "factions" must be accomplished before the system can be upgraded, Mr. Robbins said.

He added a commitment to enforce all employee contracts "in time" and called past delays in bargaining deplorable.

Teachers Set For Exchange

By Carol Jachim

The Grosse Pointe Public School System recently explored the idea of a teacher exchange, as proposed by the Division of International Education of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

At a meeting held on Monday, May 9, the School Board approved the action.

Marcia Cook, of South High School, and a teacher from the United Kingdom, Geoffrey Sharp, are the foreign exchange teachers participating if plans are finalized.

Miss Cook would remain on the payroll but be placed on a leave status to teach in England.

"I'm thrilled about the chance to go over there, it will be an invaluable experience to be able to compare the different educational processes," said Miss Cook, who has been to England before.

Miss Cook's main area of interest is their Alternative Education program in which she will participate. She has taught the same type program at South for several years.

"I'm especially interested to see how it operates in a different cultural context," she said. South's program concentrates on basic skills and personal problems.

Mr. Sharp would teach English at South High School, including English to Alternative Education students. He is married and has a three-year-old daughter and a 20-month-old son.

In 1971, Mr. Sharp began teaching in a secondary comprehensive school handling English, Social Studies, World Studies, Mathematics, Religious Education, History and Games in Balderstone Community School, Rochdale, where he is head of Modern Studies.

He would come to Grosse Pointe well-recommended and will be reimbursed by his own school system.

According to Dr. George T. Eddington, assistant to the superintendent of schools, the Grosse Pointe Public School System has utilized teacher exchange programs before. A similar program was instituted in 1959-60.

Dr. Eddington added that other teachers have taught in foreign countries but not necessarily under a foreign exchange program.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

On Monday, June 13, voters in the school district will go to the polls for the annual election of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. As residents are by now well-aware, incumbent Laurence J. Harwood seeks to retain his post, while Melissa B. Maghielse, whose term also expires, does not choose to run.

In addition to Mr. Harwood, seven candidates are seeking to serve their community as trustees for the next four years. They are Ann Ardussi, Dorothy M. Kennel, Paul D. McCarthy, Paul M. Quint, Richard D. Robbins, Frances Twiddy and Barbara Youngs.

In spite of a great deal of publicity about the role of boards of education, there is apparently some confusion about what trustees actually do. A statement by the Michigan Assoc. of School Boards enumerating the main responsibilities of a local board of education indicates that it is expected to:

1. Comply with the laws of the state and the regulations of the stated educational authority.

2. Determine the goals or objectives of public education in the school district.

3. Choose the superintendent of schools and work harmoniously with him or her.

4. Contribute to the development and improvement of educational opportunities of all children and youth in the district.

5. Develop the policies which will attract and retain personnel needed to realize the educational objectives of the district.

6. Provide for an educationally efficient physical plant.

7. Help obtain the financial resources necessary to achieve the educational goals.

8. Keep the people of the district intelligently informed about the schools.

9. Be sensitive to the educational hopes and aspirations of the people of the district.

10. Appraise the activities of the school district in light of the goals or objectives previously established.

Finally, we are pleased that so many well-qualified citizens have chosen to seek a post on the Board of Education.

Regardless of the candidate for whom you will cast your vote next month, I urge all Pointers to give serious thought to the qualifications and experience of the men and women who will represent them from July 1, 1977, until June 30, 1981, as their elected representatives on the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The negotiating team of the Grosse Pointe Education Assoc., (GPEA), and the members of the association note with interest the column "Know Your Schools" in the NEWS of May 12.

Many of the statements written by Dr. William Coats concerning the elementary school day contained therein are misleading and/or selectively incomplete.

It should be noted that the schedules used in the elementary schools from September through April of this school year were in full accord with last year's arbitrator's ruling on equivalency of instructional and preparation time between the elementary and secondary schools.

The elementary day as defined in the recently negotiated contract is essentially the same language taken into fact-finding by the negotiating team for the Board of Education.

The current daily schedule in the elementary schools has been developed by the administration to implement this language as they interpret it.

The GPEA negotiating team is willing to go back to the old contract language on the elementary day. The daily schedule in effect from September through April was based on that language. It was a workable schedule that provided for the best interests of the students.

The decision to do away with recess at the fifth and sixth grade level and to alter recess procedures at other levels was made unilaterally by the Department of Instruction. Any complaints should be directed to them at the Board of Education office, (885-2000).

If the negotiating team for the Board of Education wishes to propose new ways to schedule student and teacher time, the GPEA negotiating team will, of course, carefully consider such a proposal.

Sincerely,
Curtis Lange,
Vice-president and Chief negotiator,
GPEA

To the Editor:

On May 6 something happened that could have been prevented. My four-month-old puppy was hit by a van.

My neighbor stated the driver was exceeding the 25 mph speed limit for a residential street. The driver was not visibly upset and his comment was "it was just a dog."

I am glad I was not home when it happened. It could have been any one of the neighborhood children, and if this man did not see my dog, he probably would not have seen a child.

People are driving too fast on the residential streets—my open letter is a plea for them to slow down and watch for the kids and animals that are a part of the neighborhoods.

Sincerely,
Maureen S. Dalton,

Spanish Club Picks Officers

New officers for the 1977-78 Grosse Pointe Spanish Club season were selected at a recent meeting before the group broke up for the summer.

Mrs. Elsa Brous, a professor at Wayne State University, will succeed Luis Gomez y Amador as club president. Dr. Edward Kane was elected vice-president.

The correspondence secretary will be Mrs. Lillian Stark and Maria Luisa Perrotte will assume the recording secretary post. Jennifer Krato will serve as treasurer and Mrs. Louise Papista will be chairman of activities.

The club's next meeting is scheduled for October 3 at the War Memorial. New members will be welcomed at the group's meetings on the first Monday of each month.

The best thing about worries is that most of them never happen.

Artists to Open Studios for Tour

A rare tour of the studios and homes of six prominent Grosse Pointe artists begins at 2 o'clock this Saturday, May 21. The three-hour event is co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial and the Grosse Pointe Artists Association, with all ticket proceeds going toward the

Featured will be the private art and antique collection of noted Grosse Pointe artist William House, the studios of Mrs. William A. Evans, Nate Muccioli, Mrs. William A. Pankhurst and Louise Janssen Nobili, and the unique home designed for himself and his family by architect Marco Nobili. The latter gentleman — as you know — is Louise's husband.

"The public rarely has an opportunity to see artists' private homes or studios," notes Bette Prudden, "but when these six well-known local artists heard that the money was earmarked for our Art Wing, they were most happy to cooperate."

Tour tickets, at $3.50 each, are available at the War Memorial office.

The Art Wing is a special project of the GPAA. Additional Art Wing fund-raisers will be the Grosse Pointe Artists' annual Fall Art Festival in September and an October art auction sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

Gift Is Presented By DSO Women

Check for $108,000 Represents Proceeds from Association Projects During Year and Money Raised Via Season Ticket Sales

The annual meeting and luncheon of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, held May 4 at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, was highlighted by the presentation of a gift check for $108,000 to Robert B. Semple, of Beacon Hill, president of the Detroit Symphony.

The gift was announced by Mrs. Harry W. Taylor, 1976-77 Association president, who also introduced Mrs. H. Wayne Nelson, of Bloomfield Hills, newly-elected president of the Women's Association.

This year's check represents the profit from special projects conducted by the Women's Association on behalf of the orchestra throughout the year, together with monies raised through the sale of season tickets.

The sum is allocated to the Development Fund, which is administered as an annual campaign to help make up the difference between DSO expense and income.

Among special guests present was Mrs. Aldo Ceccato, wife of the outgoing music director, who received a collector's item antique magnifying glass as a special farewell tribute.

Women's Association officers and directors for the 1977-78 musical year include

Mrs. Robert A. Gerisch, of Bloomfield Hills, first vice-president; Mrs. Charles M. Endicott, of Stratton place, Mrs. Raymond B. Parker, of Detroit, and Mrs. Robert J. Crossen, of Tonnancour place, vice-presidents; Pointer Mrs. John E. Young, Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. Joseph Stern, Jr., of Birmingham, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. Samuel Carman, of Bloomfield Hills, corresponding secretary; Pointer Mrs. John Fralick, treasurer; and Pointer Mrs. Arnold W. Lungershausen, parliamentarian.

Elected directors were Pointer Mrs. Frank A. Germack, Jr., Mrs. Felix Resnick, of Huntington Woods, Mrs. Donald Glossop, of Dearborn Heights, Mrs. Richard King and Mrs. John T. McMullen, both of Detroit.

Two honorary vice-presidents also were named at the Association's annual meeting. They are Mrs. Paul S. Mirabito, of Birmingham, and Mrs. R. Alexander Wrigley, of Bishop road.

Mrs. H. James Gram will preside at the annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council next Monday, at 9:30 in the morning at the Grosse Pointe Central Library, and all participating presidents and representatives are reminded to be on hand, for there'll be lots of news for them to carry back to their clubs.

News on the Council's new slate of officers, for instance, and on the 1977 proposed planting of Lakeshore road, and a progress report on the marking of The Pointe's Old Pear Trees.

News on conservation scholarships for a week at Higgins Lake: the Council gives first consideration to local teachers, then makes scholarships available to teachers throughout the state.

News of special interest to program chairmen, looking ahead to the holiday season in their 1977-78 club years. Now's the time to book the Council's Color Christmas Slides of Grosse Pointe Homes, beautifully photographed by Mrs. Henry Kohring. Mrs. Henry Ledyard, Council treasurer, is the lady to contact for slide rental information.

News that the Garden Tour Slides of former Council Garden Tours are being compiled, and will soon be ready for viewing.

News of the flowering crab trees that the Council has sold every spring through the years, as part of its Grosse Pointe Beautification Program. The program's worked; Pointers now have the pleasure of viewing thousands of the lovely trees. No other community has as many blooms.

And last but not least: news of the Council's most important money-making project, the Annual Grosse Pointe Garden Tour, to be held this year Recipient this year of the Detroit Catholic Youth Organization's Joe Glaser Award, conferred each year on members of the CYO board of directors for valuable contributions over many years, is MRS. EMMET E. TRACY, of Provencal road, who has served as a CYO board member.

MLCC Slates May Meeting

Reservations for the Michigan League for Crippled Children's luncheon and meeting next Thursday, May 26, at 12:30 o'clock at the Dearborn Country Club are being taken through Monday afternoon, May 23, by Mrs. Letitia Ward, 1744 Ave., and Mrs. Edmund Bitters, 886-9388. The program will feature Rochelle Wesley, discussing "Someone Special Jewelry."

New Officers for Pettipointe

Mrs. Fred Rogers' Middlesex boulevard home was the setting for Pettipointe Chapter of Quilters' final business meeting of the year.

Each member provided one ingredient for the Maurice salad/cheesecake menu. The group dined amid the pictures Mary Lee Rogers has painted to accent her antique furnishings, and admired her lovely gardens filled with spring flowers and flowering shrubs.

Pettipointe officers for the new year will be Mrs. Frank Longo, president, Mrs. Gordon Sorenson, vice-president, Mrs. Everett Scranton, second vice-president, Mrs. William Kennedy, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Richard Rinke, recording secretary, Mrs. Neil Hayes, treasurer, and Mrs. Henry Cornille, historian.

New members are Mrs. Arthur Woodford and Mrs. Michael Milliken.

Phi Mu Seats Officers During May Meeting

Gail Highland was installed as president of the Detroit Alumnae Chapter of Phi Mu during the fraternity's desert meeting last Tuesday, May 17, at 7:30 in the evening at the Lathrup Village home of Beth Anderson.

First and second vice-presidents are, respectively, Kathy Cleveland and Linda Karl. Betty Copeland will serve as recording secretary. Joyce Bisson as corresponding secretary and Joan Montgomery as treasurer.

The short business session was followed by a plant party. Members brought new and nearly-new layette items as donations to the chapter's philanthropy, the Methodist Society's Children's Village.

Candlelight Rites For Michele Cook

She Designs and Fashions Gown of Candlelight Chantilly Lace Over Ice Green Satin in Which She Is Wed to Ralph Elizondo

Candles — only candles! — lit Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church Friday evening, March 11, as Michele Dorene Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cook, of Bournemouthe road, spoke her marriage vows to Ralph Arthur Elizondo.

The church was illuminated by candelabra and by candles placed at intervals on the high ledge encircling the sanctuary.

Candlelighters were Tammy and Frederick Elizondo, the bridegroom's sister and brother.

The bride's father was organist and, with Michele, selected the pre-nuptial and other music. Krisanne Alex sang "By My Side," accompanying herself on the guitar.

The Reverend Fred Campbell presided at the 7:30 o'clock ceremony, which was written by the bride and bridegroom. A reception followed at the church.

Music Society Season Ending

Steven Glenn, music director of the Music Society of Detroit, has announced two remaining programs in the Society's 1976-77 concert season.

The Detroit Schola Cantorum and Orchestra-Detroit, under the direction of Maestro Glenn, will present Felix Mendelssohn's dramatic oratorio "Elijah" at 3 o'clock Sunday, May 22, in historic Orchestra Hall.

Soloists assisting in this performance will be tenor Edward Kingins, soprano Veronica August and contralto Frances Brockington, and world-famous baritone William Warfield will make a special appearance in the title role.

Warfield, possessor of rare vocal and dramatic abilities, has become identified over the years with the role of Elijah.

Orchestra-Detroit, under Mr. Glenn's direction, will present an all-Beethoven concert at Orchestra Hall Sunday, June 5, at 3 o'clock.

The program will include the composer's Third and Fifth Symphonies, and his third overture to "Leonora." Tickets for this event, as well as for the special performance of Mendelssohn's "Elijah" with William Warfield, at $5 general admis-

Begin Bonsai Now for Fall

The Bonsai Classes sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Garden Center will meet next Thursday, May 26, at 9:30 in the morning at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, and instructors Mrs. Harley G. Higble and Mrs. Monte J. Edelen note it's not a day too early to start trees to be entered in Grosse Pointe's fall Horticulture and Bonsai Show.

The show will be staged by the Garden Center Thursday, September 8, from 2 to 9 o'clock, in the War Memorial's Fries Ballroom.

Mrs. J. Crawford Frost, general chairman, will be working with the Bonsai chairmen and a large committee to assure the success of this much-anticipated annual autumn event. The show is, of course, open to the Grosse Pointe public.

Mrs. Richard P. Joy, III, and Mrs. Robert Russell, co-chairmen of the Garden Center's beautiful Trial Gardens at the War Memorial, have announced to participating garden clubs, whose members work in the gardens by pre-arranged scheduling, that the Plant-In is set for next week.

As an event-in-itself, the Plant-In is great fun — and results, through the summer and on into fall, are always spectacular.

A luncheon will follow the installation. Among those expected to attend are Pointers Mrs. Jonathon Martin, Mrs. James Neelands and Mrs. Richard Lootens, Detroiters Mrs. Paul Emig and Mrs. Robert Davenport, Mrs. Donald Maledon, of St. Clair Shores, and Mrs. Tom Pazarena, of Roseville.

Auction Slated At Assumption

An Auction in the Handmade Arts, including paintings, framed photographs, stained glass, (amateur and professional), woodcrafts, needlepoint and work in many other media, has been scheduled for next Thursday, May 26, at Assumption Greek Orthodox Church's new Cultural Center in Marter road, St. Clair Shores.

The preview and cocktail hour starts at 7 in the evening. Bidding will begin at 8. Donation is $1, with a special prize featured.

Anyone interested in attending or contributing work to be auctioned may contact Elizabeth Zachary, 885-2302, for further information.

Alpha Mu DKG Slates Founders Day Program

Alpha Mu Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma society will hold its Founders Day luncheon this Saturday, May 21, at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

Initiation of new members starts the program at 11:30 o'clock. Recognition of the Woman of Distinction will follow luncheon.

Hosting the affair are the membership committee, Gert Beddow, chairman, and the personal growth and services committee, Ann Guibord.

Fall Bride

September wedding plans are being made by MARY ANNE WRIGHT and Thomas H. Riss whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Wright, of Saddle Lane.

The bride-elect was graduated from Our Lady Star of the Sea High School and Eastern Michigan University.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Riss, of Balfour road, Detroit, was graduated from Bishop Gallagher High School and Wayne State University.

Mrs. Beddow welcomed the new members and their sponsors at an informal gathering at her home Wednesday, May 18.

Art and Fashions, Flowers and Food

The Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center has a gala evening planned for this Saturday, May 21, at Himelhoch's in the Village, where there'll be complimentary cocktails, and hors d'oeuvres by Peachy Rentenbach, new food editor for the Detroit News, and a Himelhoch's and E. J. Hickey parade of the latest fashions for women and men, and flowers by Don Jensen of the Arrangement, and artwork by Michigan artist Lubjo Biro. Admiring Mr. Biro's painting of Renaissance Center are, (standing,

Engaged

An August wedding is being planned by SUSAN RAE SESSIONS and Ronald Steven Eisinger whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Sessions, of Hampton road.

The bride-elect, who is also the daughter of the late Geneva Sessions, was graduated from Grosse Pointe South High School and received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Albion College. She is presently a project

Lawyers Wives Meet May 26

Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives' annual meeting is scheduled for next Thursday, May 26, at Lochmoor Club.

President Mrs. LeRoy B. McInally will present checks to Grosse Pointe's Family Life Education Council (FLEC) and the Wayne County Juvenile Home. The funds were obtained from the Pointe Lawyers Wives' annual project luncheon, held in March.

Mrs. Raymond Scodeller, president of Lawyers Wives of Michigan, will install the Pointe group's newly-elected officers.

Members and prospective members are invited to attend.

Mary Hagman to Head WSU's Faculty Wives

Pointer Mary Hagman will be installed as 1977-78 president of the Faculty Wives Club of Wayne State University at the group's annual luncheon Thursday, May 19, at the Birmingham Athletic Club.

Guest speaker is Free Press columnist Judd Arnett.

The club, established 52 years ago to promote friendship among the faculty wives of WSU, to stimulate the intellectual growth of members and to serve the university and the community, also makes annual contributions to the WSU fund for scholarships and student financial aid.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Eisinger, of Yonkers, N.Y., holds a Masters degree in Chemical Engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and is working toward a Ph.D. in Chemical Engineering at the University of Illinois.

U-D Women To Host Tea

The University of Detroit Women's Guild presents its annual tea Thursday, May 19, from 2 to 5 o'clock at the Detroit home of The Honorable and Mrs. Michael J. Connor.

Proceeds will go to Jesuit seminarians and retired priests. Mrs. Joseph Byrne is chairman, Mrs. Margaret McHugh co-chairman of the event.

To Visit Ann Arbor Gardens

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Congregational / American Baptist Church has a trip planned for Tuesday, May 24.

A bus will leave the church parking lot at 10:30 in the morning for the Ann Arbor Botanical Gardens, returning around 4 o'clock. The excursion includes a box lunch for each lady, provided by the Lydia Group.

Anyone interested in joining the women may call the church office for information. Deadline for signing up for the trip is Sunday noon, May 22.

Rachael Group has scheduled its regular group meeting for Tuesday evening, May 24, at 7:30 o'clock in the church lounge.

The program, "It's Your Energy, Use It Wisely," is sponsored by the Detroit Edison Company.

All members and friends are invited to join the group and learn about conserving energy in their homes. Anyone interested in attending is asked to call the church office before Friday, May 20.

Meadow Brook Day for Pi Lambda Theta

Pi Lambda Theta's Detroit Alumni Chapter has scheduled a luncheon meeting and tour of Meadow Brook Hall for Saturday, May 21. Activities begin at noon, and will include recognition of the Wayne State University undergraduate recipients of Pi Lambda Theta annual scholarship awards.

They are Diane Ireland, an Elementary Science and Math major, and Peri Mavi-an, whose field is Speech Pathology. Winners are selected each year from among WSU undergraduates in the College of Education.

Meadow Brook Hall, a luxurious Tudor Manor, and its 1,400 acres of rolling farmland in Rochester were a gift from Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson in 1957 to the state of Michigan. The property and hall were to form the nucleus of Oakland University.

Mrs. Wilson died before the hall was formally accepted, but on September 24, 1971, Donald O'Dowd, Oakland president, announced that the university had received the hall from officials of the Wilson estate.

In accordance with Mrs. Wilson's wishes, Meadow Brook Hall has been converted into a residential and cultural center for continuing education.

This 100-room mansion, a unique art work in itself, is the setting for the May meeting of Detroit Pi Lambda Thetas, members of a national honor and professional association for women in education with 20,000 "sisters" scattered throughout the United States.

From Another Pointe of View

Friday and Saturday, June 24 and 25. Mrs. John Malcolm and Mrs. H. A. Powell are '77 tour chairmen.

Mark your calendars... more news later.

Michigan Reprise for Andrea

A collection of paintings by Andrea Day, noted California artist and cousin of Mrs. John Walmsley, of Cranford lane, is on view through mid-June at the Coach House Art Gallery in Van Dyke place, Detroit.

The exhibit has been arranged because of an increasing demand in Grosse Pointe for Andrea Day paintings since her work was first shown at Charterhouse, where the Grosse Pointe Soroptimists sponsored a benefit preview for Cottage Hospital, last September.

Incidentally, Alice Curtis Walmsley is into art in a way herself — or maybe architecture would be a better word...

At any rate, Alice, with Jack's help when she can annoy him, makes Cat Houses, (that's "houses for cats"—stop it now with the double takes!), in both ranch and two-story models.

Welcome to Junior Goodwill

It's traditional for veteran members of the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries to welcome probationary members at the June luncheon and meeting, and this year nine Pointers will be among the new Group-ies.

They are Mrs. William E. Blevins, of Fisher road, Mrs. Kenneth Davis, of Ballantyne road, Mrs. Malcolm Denise, of Stratford place, Mrs. Robert Dorn, of Bedford road, Mrs. Stephen Kinsley, of Lincoln road, Mrs. William Lane, of Oxford road,

Starry Opener for Met Week

Metropolitan Opera Week in Detroit gets underway with the annual Supper With the Stars this Sunday evening, May 22, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The event, which is completely sold out, is chaired this year by Mrs. James T. Farley, of Colonial road. Mrs. Norbert Cremers is co-chairman.

Guests from the Met who will highlight the dinner include Francis Robinson, assistant manager of the company; Maralin Niska, soprano, who will sing the role of Musette in "La Boheme" opening night Monday, May 23; tenor John Alexander, who will sing Rodolfo in "La Boheme" in addition to the title role in "Lohengrin" Friday evening, May 27; and basso Fernando Corena, who will appear in "La Boheme" as Benoit and as Alcindoro, and in "Tosca" Thursday, May 26, as the Sacristan.

A panel discussion led by Detroit Grand Opera Association vice-president Donald M. D. Thurber, of Rathbone place, will follow the dinner, as it has for many years.

"We are really delighted with the fantastic response to Supper With the Stars," Mary Jean Farley notes. The event promises to be one of the best ever in terms of both the audience and the Stars.

Mrs. George Smith, of Fair Acres drive, Mrs. George Steyer, of Lakeside court, and Mrs. George Williams, of Lakeland avenue.

They'll party it up, (before settling into their probationary year assignments), at the Country Club of Detroit Wednesday, June 8. Mrs. Robert E. Dice, of Sunset lane, and Mrs. Thomas C. Fox, of Radnor circle, are planning the event.

May's been a busy month for the Goodwill Juniors so far, what with last Saturday's Strawberry Ball at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club and the May 4 annual meeting at the Birmingham Country Club.

A passel of Pointers sent reservations for the ball in to Mrs. Donald Carlson. So did a passel of people from the other three corners, and the center, of the metropolitan area.

Wildflower Wandering

Ibex members, under president MRS. ANTON TEWES, (right), had a lovely country afternoon yesterday, wandering through the wildflower gardens of Mrs. Harvey Fischer in Warner road and MRS. BRADFORD TISDALE, Mrs. Fischer's daughter-in-law, in Van K drive, before settling down for a lecture and tea.

Spring Flower Show Theme

The St. Clair Shores Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will stage a flower show Tuesday, May 24, at 24800 East Jefferson avenue, St. Clair Shores. The theme is Springtime.

The show opens to the public at 2 o'clock.

General chairman is Mrs. Peter Biglin, of Robert John road. Mrs. James Comins, of Anita avenue, is in charge of the artistic divisions; all arrangements in this category will be made with fresh flowers.

Mrs. Biglin, member of National Guild of Decoupeurs, will be displaying new items of decoupage in the Arts and Crafts division.

The program will include miniature arrangements, table settings, conservation education exhibits and a complete horticulture division.

Wine Tasting Evening for Kappa Delta East

Gloria Fisher accepted reservations for Kappa Delta East Alumnae Association's wine tasting party Wednesday, May 11, at the Balfour road home of Mrs. Edward R. Bunn.

Husbands and guests joined alumnae for the social evening. The group's new officers, installed at a mid-April potluck supper at the St. Clair Shores home of past-president Marjorie Underhill, will be led by Gloria Fisher as president.

Recording secretary is Mrs. Stanley Kushman, corresponding secretary is Mrs. Harold Misteale and treasurer is Mrs. Fred M. Lewis.

Betrothed

A September wedding is being planned by SARAH ANN SCHULTZ and MICHAEL JULIEN whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schultz, of Torrey road.

The bride-elect was graduated from Our Lady Star of the Sea High School and received her Bachelor of Science degree from Eastern Michigan University, where she majored in Fashion Merchandising.

Mr. Julien, son of the Bernard Juliens, of Holland, Mich., holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Michigan, where he majored in Accounting.

Religion/Arts Display Slated

Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church at Burns drive in Indian Village presents its annual Religion and the Arts display Sunday, May 22, starting at approximately 12:15 o'clock following the regular church service.

A special color slide presentation by Mrs. Samuel Nelson, of McMillan road, an instructor in Art History at Wayne State University will introduce the general theme, "The Childhood of Jesus," and set the stage for public viewing of the various objects.

Among the many local artists whose work will be featured in the church dining room and gymnasium are Pointers Paolo Cippini, Bernice Carmichael, William Nixon, Virginia Durbin Thibodeau and Frank Varga.

Other artists of national and international stature have contributed some of their works.

The general setting and decor of the display area will be in keeping with the biblical theme. Many artifacts and other items of interest from the appropriate time period will be shown, and special foods and refreshments similar to those served in ancient times will be available.

The Anthony Habas, Jr.

BARBARA JOAN SHEA, daughter of the Larry Sheas, of Cadieux road, was married Friday, January 7, in Saint Clare de Montefalco Church to Mr. Haba, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Haba, of Roseville.

Miss Shea Speaks Vows to Mr. Haba

Pair Vacation in Toronto after Mid-Winter Rites and Reception at War Memorial; Are Now Residing in Sterling Heights

An A-line gown of white Qiana was Barbara Joan Shea's choice for her wedding late Friday afternoon, January 7, in Saint Clare de Montefalco Church to Anthony Richard Haba, Jr.

Her fingertip veil fell from a lace cap matching her gown, and her bouquet featured pink and red Sweetheart roses and baby's-breath.

The former Miss Shea is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Shea, of Cadieux road. The bridegroom is the son of the Anthony Habas, of Roseville.

In halter frocks of cranberry and pink nylon, with matching, reversible, hooded capes were honor maid Jane Dwight and bridesmaids Mari Fabick, Lisa Wilson, Karen Mabarak and Mrs. Charles Ruby, the bridegroom's sister.

They carried wicker baskets filled with Sweetheart roses, daisies and baby's-breath, complementing their gowns.

Best man was Tony Saputo. In the usher corps were Jack Shea, the bride's brother, Richard Haba, the bridegroom's brother, Joe Ranzazzo and Jim Tosto.

For the 4 o'clock rites and the reception following at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, Mrs. Shea chose a peach chiffon halter gown with a matching cape. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Feather trimming accented the cuffs of the bridegroom's mother's long-sleeved, peach nylon gown. She, too, chose a white orchid corsage.

The newlyweds vacationed in Toronto. They are making their home temporarily in Sterling Heights.

Clark Women's Club Slates Annual Brunch

Lochmoor Club will be the setting Wednesday, May 25, at 11 o'clock for Clark Women's Club's annual brunch honoring newly-elected officers Mrs. Ernest Gillespie, president, Mrs. Walter Kendall and Mrs. Frank Shepherd, first and second vice-presidents, respectively, Mrs. Glenn E. Moore and Mrs. James E. Bostick, recording and corresponding secretaries, respectively, and Mrs. Fred Franks, treasurer.

The board of directors includes the Mesdames George Hartmeyer, Arnold Matthews, E. D. Davison, William Heyd, Glenna Kelly and George L. Petersen.

Speaker Walter Kendall's topic is "A Trip Behind the Iron Curtain."

Send Students to Interlochen

Friends of Interlochen have named two talented students, 16-year-old cellist Barbara Jean Sinkule, of St. Clair Shores, and 18-year-old Joseph Anthony DeMarsh, of Birmingham, who plays the euphonium, as this summer's scholarship winners for studies at the Interlochen Center for the Arts' National Music Camp.

The awards were presented in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Rinke, of Woodland Shore drive, by Friends' co-president Dr. Hugh Yee, of Troy, at the Friends' recent art auction scholarship fundraiser, held in the Roger Rinke Cadillac Company showrooms.

The award-giving is a "first" for the Friends as the National Music Camp enters its 50th season of training youth in the visual and performing arts.

Friends of Interlochen is a non-profit organization formed two years ago to support Interlochen Center and raise scholarship funds for qualified Detroit-area students.

The group looks forward to announcing a scholarship winner to the Interlochen Arts Academy, an independent boarding school offering a specialized curriculum with equal emphasis on the creative and college preparatory academics, some time this summer.

Both the camp and the academy, which opened its doors in 1962 making Interlochen a year-round operation in northern Michigan, are non-profit educational institutions, supported solely by tuitions and gifts.

New Friends are always welcome. Membership information may be obtained by calling 882-4927 evenings.

Contributions are greatly appreciated and are tax deductible. Checks, payable to Friends of Interlochen, may be mailed to 1323 Three Mile drive, Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48230.

Cabaret Pops Going Strong

The fun and fanfare of Cabaret Pops continues this week with principal Pops conductor Richard Hayman and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Wednesday through Saturday evenings, May 18 to 21, at 8:30 o'clock at the Light Guard Armory in East Eight Mile road.

The popular Rackham Symphony Choir and four well-known cabaret singing stars have joined Hayman and the orchestra for two evenings of the music of Cole Porter Wednesday and Thursday, May 18 and 19.

Soprano Bonnie Murray, mezzo-soprano Anita Darian, tenor Gene Bullard and baritone Robert Trehy are featured in memorable Porter tunes from "Rosalia" to "Kiss Me Kate"—from "Anything Goes" to "Can Can."

Friday and Saturday evenings, May 20 and 21, it's the music of Broadway and Hollywood, with show-stoppers from such stage and screen productions as "Wildcat," "The Pink Panther," "Music Man," "My Fair Lady," "Man of La Mancha," "The Sound of Music," "A Star Is Born" and "Cabaret."

Fort Pontchartrain DAR To Meet at Boat Club

Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, gathers Friday, May 20, for a noon luncheon at the Detroit Boat Club, followed by a business meeting. Mrs. Joseph E. Embury, regent, will preside.

On the agenda are annual reports of officers and committee chairmen, a memorial service honoring members who passed away during the 1976-77 club year and election and installation of officers.

Special Guests For Andersons

Detroit's Royal Swedish Consul Marvin R. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson entertained Sweden's Consul General, The Honorable Tore Hogstedt, who came with his wife from Chicago recently to present the Royal Order of the North Star to Karl Lindgren.

Among those who gathered at the Anderson home in South Deeplands road May 10 for cocktails and the presentation ceremony honoring Mr. Lindgren for outstanding service, and to meet the Hogstedts, were many local people of Swedish heritage, including Pointers Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, the Arvid Lundells, the Charles Koebels, the Gordon Bueh-rigs and the Kim Andersons.

DSO conducting debut: an opportunity he gained through a $5,000 donation to the orchestra in the purchase of a Musical Marathon premium last fall.

Tickets for cabaret tables of four are available at $24 and $20 at Ford Auditorium box office and all Ward's and Hudson's ticket outlets. Individual tickets at $7 and $6 will be placed on sale at the Armory box office on concert nights only, as available.

Bonnie Murray, born in Middletown, O., is a versatile performer in concerts, supper clubs, conventions, radio, TV, opera and on the musical stage. She received her musical training in California, winning a scholarship to study with Lotte Lehmann.

She has appeared in concert under such conductors as Arthur Fiedler, Erich Leinsdorf, Louis Lane and Richard Rodgers.

She particularly enjoys musical comedy, and has starred in "Most Happy Fella," "Carousel," "Showboat," "My Fair Lady," "The Chocolate Soldier" and many others. This is her fifth appearance with the DSO.

Anita Darian, a native of Detroit, sang most recently with the DSO at the 1975 Cabaret Pops Concerts. She studied at the Curtis Institute and later in New York City with Jennie Tourel.

Art Runs in The Family

BERNICE CARMICHAEL is one of Grosse Pointe's premiere artists, the first woman to be elected president of Detroit's prestigious Scarab Club, and her daughter LUCY CARMICHAEL MILNER was the first woman from Michigan accepted in the Peace Corps. Lucy was sent to Ghana, West Africa, and she took along the artistic "eye" she had inherited from her mother, and a camera, and the Aspects of West African Cultures she saw and recorded are on view in the University Liggett School Gallery during the month of May, along with Bernice's latest explorations of new dimensions in highly-polished bronze and copper sculpture. Bernice, who has shown in local, national and international shows, in more than 20 countries, is represented in many private collections here and abroad. Lucy's photographs have been exhibited in Africa, California and New York and accepted in Scarab Club shows. She, too, is represented in many private collections. She has taught Humanities and Film courses at Grosse Pointe North High School. The mother-daughter art show is open to the public from 8 in the morning to 4 in the afternoon school days.

classical and popular repertoire, she has sung everything from commercial TV jingles to "Fidelio" under Leonard Bernstein at Philharmonic Hall, from the "Tonight" show to Richard Rodgers' "Flower Drum Song."

Miss Darian has appeared in concert with many major symphony orchestras, including those of Chicago, Cleveland and New York.

Tenor Gene Bullard returns to the Cabaret Pops for his sixth DSO appearance. In 1973 he appeared as Tord in Donizetti's "The Daughter of the Regiment" with Anna Moffo in Seattle, and as Prince Leopold in Halevy's "La Juive" with the late Richard Tucker in New Orleans.

In 1974 he sang Edgardo, (Donizetti's "Lucia di Lamermoor"), with Beverly Sills at the New York City Opera.

Five Pointes Club to Meet

Five Pointes Garden Club has scheduled its final meeting of the year for next Monday, May 23. Members and guests will meet at 12:30 o'clock at Cranbrook House in Bloomfield Hills, for luncheon and a tour of the home designed by Albert Kahn for George Booth and his wife, Ellen Scripps Booth.

Cranbrook House was named for the village in Kent, England, that was the ancestral home of the Booth family. The founders of the Cranbrook Institute lived in Cranbrook House for 40 years, filling it with treasures collected over the years, from all over the world.

MICHAEL P. FORD, a senior at General Motors Institute, Flint, cooperative student with Fisher Body Division, Detroit Fort Street Plant, son of the RALPH E. FORDS, of Van Antwerp road, has been named to GMI's fall semester Dean's List.

Food/Finance Workshop Set

Is your family always hungry? Do you need help to make your dollars go farther? "Food and Financial Management" will be presented Tuesday, May 31, from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock at Choices Women's Center in Hampton street, Grosse Pointe Park.

Cost of the workshop, led by Nancy Waugaman and Ilze Willison, is $4. Babysitting is available at an extra fee.

Registration may be made by calling 331-6048, Monday through Friday, between 9 in the morning and 1 in the afternoon.

Mrs. Waugaman has held various jobs in food service, as a teacher at South Lake High School, as food supervisor and menu planner for the University of Michigan Women's League and as a department head at the Colonade Restaurant in Detroit.

She knows many tricks in buying for and using the refrigerator, oven and freezer—tricks that both stretch dollars and insure nourishing meals for everyone.

Ilze Willison, a former teacher, has interested herself in managing and understanding the total use of family money.

Italian-American Lawyers Wives to End Season This Evening

A candlelight supper this evening, Thursday, May 19, at the Lakeshore road home of Mrs. Samuel Spatafora will end the Italian-American Lawyers Wives' year.

Members gather at 7 o'clock. Mrs. David Williams, IV, president-elect of the state Lawyers Wives, will induct the Italian-American group's 1977-78 officers, including Mrs. John Pollina, of Harper Woods, president, Pointers Mrs. Arthur Arduin and Mrs. Joseph Cassese, vice-president and treasurer, respectively. Mrs. John Soave, of St. Clair Shores, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Joseph P. Puzzoli, of East Detroit, recording secretary.

Two presentations will be made in conjunction with the induction ceremonies.

John J. Siciliano, a graduate of the University of Michigan presently enrolled in the University of Detroit Law School, where is a Dean's List student and editor of the U. of D. Law Journal, will receive a Law scholarship for IALW.

The second award is to Dan Donigan, director of the American Diabetes Camp program at Columbiaville. Present for the presentations, in addition to the awardees, will be Drs. Martha Spenser and Nicholas Relich, of Saint John Hospital.

Airman ROBERT T. BOYD, a Grosse Pointe North High School graduate who has studied at Macomb Community College, recently completed basic training at Texas' Lackland Air Force Base and has been selected for technical training in the Air Force metalworking field at Illinois' Chanute Air Force Base.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Out of the blue the other day we got a call from a man who said "Mr. Brink, we haven't met but I've been reading about your Cul-de-Sac program and I just wanted you to know I think it's a great idea and I'm all for it and furthermore I'm for Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co.!!!"

How gratifying. Right now all of the associates at G.P.R.E.Co. are giving out brochures explaining our Community Development Program in detail and the results are all the same — something like 97% are all for it! Our one and only problem is time. We have a number of representatives working on our Cul-de-Sac program but it still looks like it will take three maybe six months to reach everybody.

If you know of any person who you think would make a good real estate representative please have them call us, Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087 right away. We need help now!

It's very important that we deliver our Cul-de-Sac program to everyone in Grosse Pointe because it affects the property value of every resident.

Incidentally we are a dynamic Real Estate Co. and we need listings right now. Perhaps you should consider a larger or smaller home. Have your children left the nest — are your children doubling up in the bedrooms? Don't forget — your personal real estate does nothing but become more and more valuable. It generally doesn't take any more funds to buy a larger home — perhaps the monthly payments get larger. Its like a forced savings — and its worth it... Right?

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms MICHIGAN*NOTICE OF HEARING ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

Notice is hereby given that the Zoning Board of Appeals will meet in the City Hall at 90 Kerby Road, Grosse Pointe Farms (885-6600) on at 8:00 p.m. to hear the appeal of Dr. Edward G. Kane, owner of the vacant property upon which he proposes to construct a residence and which would be numbered 100 Stephens Road, from the denial of the Building Department to issue a Permit for the construction of a tennis court at the rear of his proposed home at the foregoing location. Such permit issuance was denied for reason that the tennis court to be located on the foregoing premises would infringe upon required open side yard space of 11.5 feet, leaving no side yard on either side of the tennis court, and thereby requiring a variance from the provisions of Section 1503, Item 3 of the City's Zoning Ordinance.

The Hearing will be public. Interested property owners or residents of the City are invited to attend.

Notice is hereby given that the Zoning Board of Appeals will meet in the City Hall at 90 Kerby Road, Grosse Pointe Farms (885-6600) on at 8:00 p.m. to hear the appeal of Mrs. Adele Zeron, owner of the premises located at 71 Mapleton Road, from the denial of the Building Department to issue a Permit for the renovation of her home at the foregoing address. Such permit issuance was denied for reason that the residence located on the foregoing premises is non-conforming for reason that it projects into required open rear and side yard space in violation of the provisions of Article XIII, Section 1300 of the City's Zoning Ordinance, and in accordance with the provisions of Article XV, Section 1502, Item 4-A of the City's Zoning Ordinance, no such structure may be enlarged or structurally altered unless a variance is granted.

MONDAY, JUNE 6, 1977

The Hearing will be public. Interested property owners or residents of the City are invited to attend.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council, meeting as a Board of Appeals under the provisions of Section 5-11-6 of the 1975 City Code of Grosse Pointe Woods, will meet in the Council-Court Room of the Municipal Building, 20025 Mack Avenue, Grosse Pointe Woods, on at 7:30 p.m. o'clock to hear the appeal of Anthony E. Kenny of 970 Shoreham Road, Grosse Pointe Woods, who is appealing the denial of the Building Inspector to issue a Building Permit for property described as:

Lot 11 of Shoreham Road Subdivision, Private Claim 631, as recorded in Liber 72, Page 7 of Wayne County Records and also the southerly 82 feet of Lot 55 and the southerly 82 feet of the easterly 25 feet of Lot 156 of the Assessor's Grosse Pointe Woods Plat No. 2 as recorded in Liber 7, Page 10 of Wayne County Records (and commonly known as 970 Shoreham Road).

Mr. Kenny proposes to construct a two-car attached garage addition to his residence at 970 Shoreham Road. Said Building Permit was denied because Section 5-4-R (F) (Schedule of Regulations) of the 1975 City Code requires a front yard setback of 30 feet for a home in an R-1B Residential District; Mr. Kenny desires to build a garage that extends 10 feet into the front setback line. According to Section 5-4-2 of the 1975 City Code, a garage such as proposed by Mr. Kenny cannot be built on said lot unless a variance is granted.

This will be a Public Hearing and all interested parties are invited to attend.

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 6, 1977

at 7:30 p.m. o'clock to hear the appeal of Edward Schultz, President of Schultz Homes, Inc., 521 Shelden Road, Grosse Pointe Shores, who is appealing the denial of the Building Inspector to issue a Building Permit for property described as:

Lot No. 165A2 and B1 of Lake Shore Grove Subdivision No. 3 and commonly known as 574 South Brys Drive).

Mr. Schultz would like to construct a colonial-type residence with overall dimensions of 45 ft. x 50 ft. Such Building Permit was denied because Section 5-4-2 (Schedule of Regulations) of the 1975 City Code requires a minimum lot area of 7,200 square feet for a home in an R-1C Residential District; the lot Mr. Schultz desires to build on has only a total of 7,047 square feet. According to Section 5-4-2 (F) of the 1975 City Code, no residence of such dimensions can be built on said lot unless a variance is granted.

This will be a Public Hearing and all interested parties are invited to attend.

Tops And Bottoms... Have fashion fun putting the colorful separates together at Walton-Pierce in the Sportswear Department. From Izod you could pick a wide green and white striped 'I' shirt or a royal blue and white stripe shirt. Pink, green, yellow and blue stripe a shirt from Gordon of Philadelphia. From Herman Geist there are bright yellows with navy or green trim, solid colors and those favorite stretch lacy shirts in a new wildflower print and in solid green, blue and pink. As for bottoms... skirts come wrap, slit, with kicky pleats, with slip thru and tie belts and there are many culottes, some with self belts, some with stripe belts. One of the new skirt fabrics is Moy-macrae from Moygashel. It looks like the famous Moygashel linen but is rayon woven in Ireland. The skirts come in heavenly colors. Of course there are blazers and pants. We like the reversible skirts that have just arrived. A wrap yellow daisy print reverses to solid yellow... a green and pink floral print turns to a bright fruit print and there's a patchwork one side and floral on the other of the third skirt in this new group.

Do you need additional storage space in your living room, dining room or family room? See the design-a-wall displays in oak or cherry, also available in maple at Mutschler Kitchens, 20227 Mack Avenue... TU 4-3700.

LORENZO D. BROWNING AND HIS WIFE ANNE, OF LAKEVIEW AVENUE

By Janet Mueller

A week after he drove off the Bob-Lo ferry, Red Browning was installed as Honorary Mayor of the Detroit Waterfront. He took a lot of ribbing from his Propeller Club of Detroit peers at that installation. The thing is: Red, who's literally been around boats all his life, is the one who's always telling everyone else to "turn the engine off... put it in park..."

Then he goes and drives off the ferry.

Actually, he sort of slid off and, as the water rose around the car, slipped out through a window, managed to climb on top of the submerged automobile, stood up and yelled for help.

He didn't swim for shore because he couldn't. Red Browning can't swim a stroke.

He's No Rounder

He can ride the Bob-Lo roller coaster 10 times in a row and jump off feeling great. A few times around the merry-go-round, though, and he begins to get that queasy feeling...

Anne, on the other hand, could go around the merry-go-round all day. And the roller coaster. It runs in the family. Last summer, her post-70 mother, who lives with them, had a great roller coaster trip.

Bob-Lo and the Brownings have been together since 1949. That's when they saw a notice in the paper that the island amusement park was about to close—and bought it.

Red knew nothing about the amusement park business but, (as previously noted), he'd been around boats all his life. "I figured if I could run the vessels, I could run the island." He must have been right. Bob-Lo and the Brownings are still going strong.

Sailor from Tennessee Red Browning's a sailor from Tennessee. His family came to Detroit for the first time in the late 20's, shuffled back and forth between Tennessee and Michigan until the mid-30's, when they finally settled down for good in the north.

Red started sailing as a deckhand on lake freighters. He met Anne in New York during World War II. He was a navigator on the Santa Maria, a Grace Line troop ship, sailing out of New York. She was the navigator's blind date.

"We went to the race track and she cost me money, and she's been costing me money ever since."

His Best Investment

Don't get the idea he begrudges the investment. You don't have to push Red to the wall to make him admit Anne's the best one he ever made.

Post-war, it was back to Detroit and, after a few years in the building supply business, back into boats. Red chartered some lake freighters. That initial investment grew into the Browning Steamship Company. Red's freighters sailed the lakes, two of them bearing family names: the Lorenzo D. Browning and the Michael Browning, named after Number One Son.

Both ships have been scrapped now. Bob-Lo is Red's exclusive career. "I miss the freight business," he admits, but he loves Bob-Lo. It's very demanding, requiring highly concentrated effort virtually every day for six months of every year. "Weekends are the biggest part of our business" — but it's also marvelous fun.

Happy Workaholic

That fun is very important. "I'm afraid I'm a workaholic," says Red, who finds lots to keep him Bob-Lo busy during the six "off" months, too. But he has a great time doing his job. He has a great time doing just about whatever he sets out to do.

He remains president of the St. Paul's Dads Club. "We haven't had a kid in that school for three years" Anne recently reminded him. No matter: Red remains president of the St. Paul's Dads Club. By now it's second nature; there was a time when Anne and Red Browning thought they'd A L W A Y S have a child at St. Paul's.

First came Michael, married now and the father of two, in the building and construction business in Indianapolis. Then Elizabeth, who's about to move, with her husband and baby, from Oxford road to Urbana, Va.

Then Geoffrey, a consultant in Southfield, and Robert, back from a year in Saudi Arabia and planning to return to school to pick up a Masters degree in Finance, and Joan, whose wedding reception last summer was held aboard the Bob-Lo boat.

A Real Full House

Then Mary Brady, who works as a secretary and lives at home, (Geoffrey and Robert are currently in residence, too), and James, a junior at Grosse Pointe South High School.

Note: there's not a Lorenzo among them. Red's first name is a family name—he was named after an uncle who was named after an uncle who came from New Orleans — but he and Anne decided to call a halt to the Lorenzos.

Also at home at the Brownings' at the moment is Ann Brinkman, daughter of former neighbors who returned with their family to their native New Zealand after many years in Grosse Pointe. Ann elected to stay here. She works at Bon Secours Hospital.

The Brownings' house is a big house, but they don't seem to have any trouble filling it. Never have had. They're expansive people, delighted to open their home to their friends and their children's friends. Each room is large enough for its own party.

They Pack Them In

"We've had four kids with four different groups in this house, and not one interfered with another." Back in the days when St. Paul's had a high school, and the high school basketball team kept winning state championships, the post-game place to go for everyone was the Brownings'.

They've had 150 people attending Mass in their center hall/living room. It's a tight fit... but it's a fit.

With so many comings and goings, and so much going on, there have been some surprises. "Once we had a child living here for a week, and I never knew it," Anne Browning recalls. She found out when her young guest thanked her very much for being such a lovely hostess.

Red has served on the Propeller Club's board of governors, and is a member of the Society of Naval Architects and Engineers. He was recently honored by Providence Hospital. The former chairman of Providence's Lay Advisory Board is now, officially, a Providence "Honorary Lifetime Advisor."

Is City Councilman

He's a City of Grosse Pointe Councilman. That's community service, and that's something Red feels very strongly about. "I think our community is great. I think our mayor and my fellow councilmen are tremendously good."

Red believes a citizen should involve himself in his community. It's a duty—and a pleasure.

Short and to The Pointe

Among Michigan State University students gaining job experience via work as volunteer legislative research aides at the State Capitol is junior KAREN ZALESKI, daughter of the AL ZALESKI, of Severn road. The Grosse Pointe North High School graduate, a Political Science major, is a member of MSU's Pre-Law Club.

KRIS WEHMEYER, daughter of the DAVID B. WEHMEYERS, of Bishop road, is working 20 hours a week in the Washington, D.C., office of Representative LUCIEN NEDZI in an internship arranged by GENE F. SCHMIDTLEIN, Social Science Department head at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., where Kris is a sophomore.

He's a member of The Friends of Bon Secours Hospital, and was responsible for securing the film "New York, New York," starring Liza Minnelli and Robert DeNiro, to be featured at The Friends' Premiere Movie Party benefit set for Thursday, June 16.

That should be some evening! Elegant, exciting, and above all, fun... starting with a cocktail party in a private home for major benefactors, the "Special Underwriters" whose contributions of $500 to $1,000 will earn them the Friends' special thanks and a seat in one of the vintage automobiles which will move, in parade, to Eastland, where a 6 o'clock champagne/wine reception will precede the film showing in both Eastland Theatres.

Then it's back into Classic Cars for the Special Underwriters, for the short trip to Eastland Mall's Sunrise Court, transformed for the occasion into "The Up," the nightclub featured in the movie, and a gala after-theatre gourmet dinner-dance.

Copy Movie Nightclub — The dinner will feature Craig Claybourne's New York Times Cookbook Recipes. Dancing will be to the Cole Porter tunes of "New York, New York."

There'll be more than Special Underwriters enjoying the evening, of course. The premiere is open to all. General ticket $125 admission includes the champagne/wine reception, film showing and dinner-dance afterglow.

Limited ticket $50 admission includes the champagne/wine reception and film showing. Tickets are available from any Friend of Bon Secours, or by calling the Friends' office, 343-1781. Donations are tax deductible, as provided by law.

Peter and Susan O'Rourke are the project's general chairmen. Proceeds will renovate the Bon Secours Hospital Science Hall: an important facility used by the medical and hospital staff as well as by the community-at-large for continuing health education.

Plan Annual Affair That's important, so the O'Rourkes and all their committee members are working very hard to make the Premiere Movie Party a very big success. They've billed it as the "first annual" Friends' benefit. They want it to be so exciting that those unfortunate enough to miss it this year will be first in line for tickets next year.

From Another Pointe of View

It was a lovely spring party, arranged by Mrs. Donald Borgeson assisted by Mrs. Roger Smith and Mrs. James T. Short.

The annual meeting saw Mrs. William H. Miller, Jr., a Detroit, elected president of the Juniors for 1977-78. Among her chief assistants are Mrs. Robert H. Kennedy, of Trombley road, first vice-president, and Mrs. Harry W. Mellen, of Lakeland avenue, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Max Gardner, of Barclay road, was elected a director.

Mrs. Joseph H. Perry, III, of Lewiston road, has been appointed co-chairman for the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries' Annual Antiques Market and Sale, to be held in November at Fairlane Manor.

Marian Perry will be in charge of all dealer arrangements. General chairman is Mrs. John A. Bartlett, of Birmingham.

The film Red Browning got, "New York, New York," is a blockbuster. Others were considered, ("The Deep," one on the life of Charlie Chaplin, e.g.), and Red had a grand time checking them all out, but "New York, New York" was so good, so perfect for Bon Secours, there was no contest.

Great New Experience

It was a new experience for Red. He's never been into the Movie Biz, but he has contacts all over the city. He called, asked around, talked with fellow Detroit Athletic Club bowler Bob Allison, who's been involved in Variety Club film benefits for Children's Hospital.

"The most wonderful thing about working on something like this is that, when it's all over, you've met such great, new people."

The Browning circle keeps expanding. Now... when a new friend comes to call for the first time at Lakeland avenue, and it's July, and the new friend happens to notice, (it's hard to miss), that there's a Christmas tree up in the front parlor...

Sucker for Trees

Anne has a perfectly logical explanation. A year ago last Christmas, the Browning house was itself a benefit: each room decorated by a different store designer, with benefit ticket-holders invited in to view the rooms.

Anne fell in love with the front parlor tree. Christmas came and went, and she couldn't bear to take it down.

Would you believe a St. Patrick's Day tree? An Independence Day tree? How about a Wedding tree? White bells, in clusters, make lovely decorations...

Red keeps his sextant, the one he got in England, and his chronometer in the tree room. They're part of the Browning Family Record that is the Browning home: photos and cartoons and mementos dotting walls and tables, more often than not augmented by Real, Live Brownings, children and grandchildren and in-laws.

Whole Family Plays

Nobody ever has to worry about a fourth for bridge. Anne and Red and her mother play; so do the five oldest children and their husbands. It's THE big family recreation, a feature of every holiday: Thanksgiving, Christmas...

Every holiday, that is, except the Brownings' own, personal one. Every Labor Day, when the last Bob-Lo boat leaves the island, every Browning who can make it is on board. Whistle blowing, the Bob-Lo boat makes its last summer trip down the Detroit River, followed by a fleet of 100 to 150 small boats, past bonfires and fireworks at Amherstburg, Grosse Ile...

So far, on that trip, no

Browning has ever fallen off.
