HEADLINES of the WEEK

Thursday, May 19

SECRETARY OF STATE CYRUS R. Vance and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko signed two pacts Wednesday banning man-made environmental disaster in warfare and assuring outer space cooperation. The two diplomats then opened three days of talks on nuclear arms. They joined officials from 31 other nations in the council chamber of Geneva's Palace of Nations for a brief ceremony putting an environmental warfare convention into force and formally beginning ratification procedures toward its becoming international law.

Friday, May 20

THE U.S. HAS ABANDONED efforts to achieve nuclear arms reductions in current talks with the Soviet Union, it was learned Thursday. Instead, Secretary of State Cyrus Vance is seeking a far more modest objective improvement on a formula for arms control developed by Henry Kissinger in talks in Moscow in January, 1976. That formula would set very high ceilings on numbers of strategic weapons on both sides. It would include limitations on the controversial U.S. cruise missile and the Soviet Backfire bomber.

DETROIT AREA CONSUMER prices jumped 1.2 percent last month, well above the 0.8 percent national figure and the highest monthly increase since July, 1974. On an annual basis, the April figures indicate a Detroit area inflation rate of 14.4 percent. Living costs in the area are up 7.6 percent over the past 12 months, the U.S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics reported. This means consumers paid $107.60 last month for goods and services that cost $100 in April 1976. The 12-month increase was the largest since July, 1975, the department said.

Sunday, May 22

IN A DRAMATIC PERSONAL showdown Saturday, President Carter removed Maj. Gen. John Singlaub from his post as U.S. chief of staff in South Korea for stating that withdrawal of U.S. troops would lead to war there. Carter summoned the general for a closed-door Oval Office meeting that lasted about 30 minutes, after which the Pentagon announced that the president accepted Defense Secretary Harold Brown's recommendation that Singlaub be reassigned to another command.

Monday, May 23

ANDREW YOUNG ENDED a two-day visit to South Africa Sunday by embracing a black nationalist leader and declaring that blacks there should use economic boycotts as a weapon to force change in the white government's racial policies. Young also made one of his sharpest attacks yet on white-minority governments in Southern Africa, accusing Ian Smith's Rhodesian regime of "systematic oppression and death-dealing." He said later that with minor qualifications, the same applied to the South African government.

Tuesday, May 24

TWO SOUTH MOLUCCAN TERRORIST squads armed with automatic weapons seized 105 children and six teachers in a country school in Bovensmidde and 50 other hostages on a train near that northern Holland town Monday, authorities said. The attackers are apparently making a new bid to force the Dutch government to help the former Dutch colony gain its freedom from Indonesia. The seizures duplicate a similar takeover 18 months ago in which four persons were killed in an episode which lasted 16 days.

Mason School's Adventure Reading Room Dedicated

The Adventure Reading Room was recently dedicated at Stevens T. Mason Elementary School in Vernier road, in honor of State Senator Joseph M. Snyder. Approximately 2,000 paperback books and other materials were donated to the school by Ivan Ludington of the Ludington News Company in Senator Snyder's name. Pictured examining the materials (left to right) are SENATOR

SNYDER, LAURANCE J. HARWOOD, Board of Education trustee; MR. LUDINGTON; MRS. GAY SHIELDS, president of Mason PTO; and WILLIAM A. MESTDAGH, principal. Dr. William Coats, Superintendent of Schools, was also a speaker at the formal presentation in the school's gymnasium.

Steps Taken To Improve Park Marina

Manager Authorized to Set Up Bonding; Engineers Told to Draw Up Construction Plans

The Park took another step toward the improvement of the marina at Windmill Pointe Park on Monday, May 23, when the city council authorized City Manager Robert A. Slone to research bonding companies and obtain the best bonding attorney available to attempt to raise the estimated $150,000 cost of construction of new boat wells at the park.

The council also decided to retain John Stevens of John Stevens Associates, Incorporated, to supervise the engineering and construction of the marina project. Mr. Stevens' firm was commissioned by the city solons to draw up the plans for the marina improvements which call for the construction of a total of 57 new boat spaces, including a new pier, to be designated as Pier No. 5, with wells measuring 12' by 28' to accommodate boats 21' to 28' in size.

Shores Voters Pick First Woman Trustee on Board

For the first time in the history of The Shores, voters picked a woman to serve as a trustee (councilman) on the Village governing board. The voters made their wishes known at the annual election held on Tuesday, May 17.

The new member of the council is Elizabeth S. Kuhlman, whose 22-vote margin beat Chester F. Ogden, who had been president pro tem since 1971. The surprise upset showed that Mrs. Kuhlman received a total of 281 votes, to Mr. Ogden's 239.

Mr. Ogden had been a Village trustee since June 1964 when he was appointed to fill a vacancy created when John Hueltelman, Jr., resigned as trustee to run for the office of Village president, succeeding President Jack Williams, who did not seek re-election.

Two incumbents were re-elected to serve another two-year term, the tenure limitation set by the Shores Village Charter. They are: Daniel R. Beck, who polled 310 votes, and Frank A. Columbo, who came in third with 260 votes. Mr. Beck has been a trustee since 1969, and Mr. Columbo since 1967.

The losers in the council race, besides Mr. Ogden, were M. A. Bartoszewicz, who received 63 votes, and Vito P. Cusenza, who got 60 votes. Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jefferis said that there are approximately 2,000 registered voters in the Shores, but only 471 went to the polls to cast their ballots. (Continued on Page 2)

St. Clair Shores Judge Requests Legal Briefs from Both Sides after Move for Dismissal

By George Polgar Jr.

After four months of delays the preliminary examination of Dr. Robert J. Sillery, of The City, on charges of Medicaid fraud got under way last week before St. Clair Shores Municipal Judge Craigen Oster.

At the end of two days of testimony, Sillery's attorney Robert Harrison made a motion for dismissal of the charges that his client filed phony claims to defraud the Michigan Medicaid program of more than $1,500.

Judge Oster has requested legal briefs from both sides and is expected to hand down a decision in the case on Monday, June 27.

Detroit Institute of Arts Praises Pointe Jeweler

Detroit Institute of Arts officials collected more than $500,000 in missing art treasures last week and they are crediting it all to Pointe jeweler W. Michael Williams.

"We wouldn't have been able to develop a case, issue a warrant, uncover the middle man or accuse the museum employee if it hadn't been for Mr. Williams' interest, concern and scholarship," said DIA public relations director Robert Rodgers.

"If you could have seen the relief on the face of the director, (Dr. Frederick Cummings), you could get some measure of our indebtedness to Mr. Williams," Mr. Rodgers added. Mr. Williams, owner of Charterhouse Inc. jewelers,

Center Asks For $28,955 To Hit Goal

Totals to Date in Annual Family Participation Drive Show 5,287 Donors Have Contributed $116,044

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's 1977 Annual Family Participation Campaign is still short $28,955.33 as of this report on Friday, May 20. To date $116,044 has been received from 5,287 donors, but the goal of $145,000 must still be reached if the Center is to balance its budget for Returns are still coming in, but each year the Center faces loss of supporters due to death or transfers to other areas and must appeal to Pointers for a broader base of support to make up for this loss.

Few communities have such a beautiful facility as the Center, which costs nothing in taxes and is three-quarters self-supporting. It is used day and night by every segment of the community.

As a War Memorial, it is much more than a shaft of stone — it is a living Memorial helping provide the community with the way of life so many people from so many families fought and died for.

Each citizen's support to what ever extent he is able, will be appreciated. It is also a practical community investment to which gifts are tax deductible.

$1,908,130 Needed for Next Year

Slight Reduction in Tax Rate Overshadowed by Increase in Equalized Valuation of Property

By Susan McDonald

Grosse Pointe City's government will increase spending by about eight percent next year, but services to residents in several areas will be trimmed back slightly to balance the books.

The Council approved the "tight" $1,908,130 budget for 1977-78 at its meeting Monday, May 23. City Manager Thomas Kressbach described the document as an attempt to "manage within our means" with careful planning and execution to avoid a financial pinch.

The city will manage by reducing capital improvement programs, including street resurfacing, and by allowing its public safety forces to dwindle through retirements.

Mr. Kressbach said "productivity improvements, such as police-force consolidation and curbside rubbish pickup, could help offset the personnel reductions."

A $145,000 Increase The $1.9 million budget represents an increase of about $145,000 over last year's spending to cover increased wages negotiated last year, jumps in contractual costs, doubled insurance rates and utility hikes.

The Council was able to reduce the City tax rate by .15 of a mill because of an expected reduction in debt retirement interest payments.

That reduction will be overshadowed, though, by the six percent increase in State Equalized Valuations of City homes.

The City is already at its 20-mill legal limit for operational taxes. With the new debt rate, total City taxes will be 21.69 mills. (One mill equals $1 per every $1,000 of valuation.)

This represents an increase of only 2.31 mills in the last 10 years, which the council thought compared very favorably to the 15.6 mill increase in education taxes, (local and county), over the last decade.

Valuations Jumped In total, the municipality realized a seven percent increase in local tax revenues because of the valuation jump and a one percent growth in the tax base due to construction and home improvements.

The budget is precariously balanced and, as several City officials noted, there are a number of pending state and federal legislative proposals that could easily throw it off.

One such proposal is a Michigan Firefighters Assoc. push to reduce firemen's work week from 56 to 54 hours. If the proposal becomes law, Mr. Kressbach said the city could be forced to hire more men or pay about $20,000 annually in overtime.

CETA funding for three city employees, totalling $24,000, also is endangered by proposals in Washington. "There are strong indications CETA will not be extended in its present form," Mr. Kressbach said.

Other Possibilities In addition, there is both federal and state legislation pending that could force the City to participate in the state unemployment compensation system at a cost of about $8,000 per year.

The City now provides compensation rates equal to the state's, but does not cover as many applicants.

The biggest question mark in city financing is personnel costs, which make up 65 percent of the city budget. All employee contracts will expire this summer and the Teamsters, representing City police, have already filed for arbitration.

Pointes' Share of State Highway Fund Increased

State fuel tax revenues are still climbing, increasing by 5.8 percent in the first quarter of 1977 over the same period of 1976, according to a State Highway Commission (SHC) report of Thursday, May 12.

Collections on sale of gasoline, diesel fuel and liquid petroleum gas in the January-March period totaled $100,106,348, up by $5,486,488 from the year before.

The five Pointes stand to share a total of $304,094 for the first quarter of this year as compared to $287,135 for the first three months of last year, the report disclosed.

License weight fees, based on vehicle weight, yielded $98,280,478, an increase of 5.7 percent. Revenues nearly made up for the decline in the previous quarter, the result of slow sales of 1977 tabs

DIA Praise

Mr. Williams was as surprised as anyone to hear of the huge art theft that his discovery uncovered.

"The whole thing is amazing," he said. "I had no idea that our involvement would lead to all this."

Mr. Williams said he bought 13 silver pieces from Farmington Hills furniture salesman Norman Goodman on December 20. He paid $2,500 for a silver bowl by Meyer Myers valued at $25,000; a Godfrey Shiving sugar bowl worth $8,000; a $3,500 drinking vessel by Daniel Henchman; a pipe warmer with a wooden handle valued at $5,000 and a $1,000 mug. The total value of his purchase was placed at $45,200.

Mr. Williams said he is not an expert in the field of Early American silver and did not recognize the value of the items immediately.

At the time of the purchase, Mr. Williams had Goodman sign an affidavit attesting to his ownership of the silver. "It's a normal precaution we take whenever we buy from the public," Mr. Williams explained. "Ninety-nine percent of the time it's not necessary, but this time it sure came in handy."

Mr. Williams discovered that the pieces he purchased were museum property while researching them in a DIA booklet.

He said he immediately informed Goodman the items "were not only hot but radioactive" and got all his money back.

Goodman was arraigned on charges of concealing and selling stolen property in City Municipal Court on Monday, May 16. He stood mute on the charges and was released on $5,000 personal bond.

An exam date for Goodman has been set for Wednesday, June 29.

Talent is a necessity, but patience is worth much more.

Pair Accused of Drag Racing

One of two drivers arrested by Shores police for drag racing at 12:05 a.m. on Sunday, May 15, faces a possible second charge, carrying a concealed weapon. Both persons will appear in the Shores Municipal Court on Wednesday, June 15.

Arrested were Roman Jury Hnatuk, 21, of 19282 Gallagher, Detroit, and Roman Antonij Prybula, 20, of 5018 Estella lane, Utica. The former is the man formally charged, under a Village ordinance, with carrying a mechanical two and one half inch knife, which is also prohibited under the state concealed weapons law.

A mechanical knife is one with a blade that flicks open with the pressing of a push button.

No one, except a one-armed person, is allowed to own or have on his or her person, a mechanically operated, or as is commonly known, a switch blade knife, regardless of what size the blade might be, according to Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale. He emphasized this with the word "period."

Both men were arrested by Cpl. Daniel Fronczak and Officer Michael Kenyon. They observed the pair drag racing on South Duval, while they were on routine patrol south on Lakeshore road and about to turn onto Duval.

The officers watched as the two drivers started to drag race, both doing 40 mph in the 25-mile zone, and stopped the pair in front of 25 Duval.

Both men were informed they were under arrest, were ordered out of their vehicles and told to place their hands on the roofs of their autos. They were searched and the small weapon was found in the right back pocket of Hnatuk's trousers. The knife was confiscated and the pair were taken to the station to be formally charged.

Both were required to post bonds of $100 each, before being released, to insure their appearance in court.

To Expand Park Marina

The council then approved a resolution authorizing Mr. Stevens to proceed with his preparation of plans and specifications for the marina project.

Work on the marina project should start sometime in the early fall, and should be completed, if everything goes according to schedule, by the time the 1978 boating season starts, it was said.

Letter from Young
Under other business, City Clerk Nunzio Ortisi read a letter from Detroit Mayor Coleman Young, in which it was pointed out that Detroit representatives are still meeting with officials of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR) and the Department of Water Resources (DWR), regarding the pollution of the Detroit River and surrounding lakes and other bodies of water.

Detroit has been ordered to improve its own and other communities' raw sewage treatment, under threat of court litigation.

Detroit, which treats sewage from more than 90 communities throughout the metropolitan area, may, as a result of the threatened actions of the DNR and DWR, double and even triple its sewage treatment fees charged its customers. Depending on the outcome of the meeting, which is expected to go against Detroit, that city will have to hike its fees to raise monies to improve its present treatment plants, and build bigger and ney General Frank Kelley's Medicaid abuse probe aimed at tracing the estimated $80-$160 million that the $80 million state system loses each year through fraud.

According to the prosecution, Sillery submitted false claims to the Medicaid system under the name of a former associate, Dr. Jogindar Grewal. In testimony at the examination Dr. Grewal said that he had never enrolled in the Medicaid program, had never billed the system for any services rendered and never used the current address of the Sillery-owned St. Clair Pathology clinic.

Dr. Grewal left Dr. Sillery's employ about two years ago.

What He Could Face
If convicted Sillery faces a maximum sentence of 10 years in prison and $5,000 in fines.

The United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW), identified Sillery last year as the recipient of the largest total Medicaid payments in Michigan for 1975-76.

When asked to comment on the conduct and progress of the examination, Sillery declined but said that the HEW report that said he had received $475,000 in Medicaid payments was wrong.

"Medicaid paid me only $27,000 in 1975 and there is a big difference between that and the published figure," Sillery said. He also suggested that Attorney General Kelley's open reference to the allegedly mistaken figure had probably not done his defense in the case any good.

He said his attorneys have contacted HEW about the alleged error but have received no response.

Distinctive Dining by

Larry Lavigne

It has been said that a way to a man's heart is through his stomach. And indeed, this unromantic sentiment has received much support from some of the greatest connoisseurs and writers. The supreme gourmand Brillat-Savarin claimed that "The discovery of a new dish does more for the happiness of man than the discovery of a star." G. B. Burgin claimed that "good dinners are so much rarer than good women: and far more piquant." And in Don Juan, Lord Byron wrote: "All human history attests/That happiness for man — the hungry sinner — /Since Eve ate apples, much depends on dinner."

Bring the man in your life and your whole family to LAMBARD'S RESTAURANT, 17125 E. Warren at Cadieux, Detroit, TU 5-9100 for dinner after Church Sunday. This is a special day for LAMBARD'S — we start serving dinner at 11:30 a.m. and continue until 11:30 p.m. We make our famous Italian pasta from scratch in our own kitchen just as our Fettuccine, Lasagne, Ravioli, Gnocchi and Cannelloni are made here in the kitchen.

American Dream Jarred by Pointe Psychiatrist

George Polgar Jr.

The American Dream is again being interrupted by a rude awakening. The notion that a childhood of material well-being is likely to yield responsible aspiring adults is proving wrong too often, according to Pointe child psychologist Dr. Guy Doyal.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Family Life Education Council (FLEC), on Tuesday, May 17, Dr. Doyal told his well turned-out audience that adjustment problems of affluent youth in later life are often as devastating as the difficulties bred by growing up in deprived circumstances.

At the head of the list of problems a mong affluent teenagers is low achievement, said Dr. Doyal.

"Achievement for young people is a means of aspiring to improve their standard of living as adults," he said. "In a community like The Pointe they often get the feeling they can't go much higher. They have a very limited scope of improvement to strive for."

Because affluent children are not really conscious of the fact that not everyone lives as they do, many of them coast through adolescence believing that the care-free life can go on forever without them having to strain themselves, Dr. Doyal suggested.

With this kind of attitude many young people find themselves confused and unmotivated when they have to face the reality of life.

Another pressure resulting in low achievement among affluent young people is the delicate relationships they develop with their successful and often, too busy parents.

The parents want their offspring to accept their values but rarely spare enough time to really cultivate that acceptance. "Young people often want to reject the values required for success that they see in their parents," Dr. Doyal said.

"Parent-child relationships are often poor because parents are too busy and children can easily sense their importance in their parents' eyes."

Teenagers in these situations consider the life style of success too hectic and demanding. "And parents might learn something from that point of view," Dr. Doyal added. "They want to get away from it."

Another problem men-

Musicians Win Festival Honors

The Pointe String Quartet, comprised of string instrument players from North and South High Schools, won state-wide honors when they were selected to perform at the Michigan Youth Arts Festival on Saturday, May 21 in Mount Pleasant.

The foursome, including David Reed, first violin, Sarah Gall, second violin, Mickey Kemp, viola, and Robert Reed, cello, won the honor at a recent American String Teachers Assoc. audition.

The quartet was coached by Detroit Symphony Orchestra violinist Philip Porbe.

The Youth Arts Festival is a Michigan Week activity, bringing together outstanding musical groups, art work, dance and creative writing examples from throughout the state.

tioned was the failure of communication between parents and children. This is not the hackneyed generation gap explanation either.

"Parents, especially those in high level business, sales or professional careers have a tendency to try and reason with their children in the same complex language as they would in a work situation," said Dr. Doyal.

"They can't really expect a teenager to have the verbal or reasoning capacity to understand these kinds of discussions. The child then stops listening out of mere frustration, and draws away from the parents."

Competitive pressures created by over demanding parents are also frustrating for young people. Dr. Doyal cautioned parents to keep in mind the regression toward mean factor when they set goals for their children. Simply enough, the regression toward the mean is the tendency for downward mobility among some children of successful parents simply because the job market and society has no room for an unlimited number of success stories.

He advised parents to try and accept the limitations of their children and help them to accept it themselves.

"Parents should not think in terms of absolute capabilities of their children but the effort they invest in achieving what they do," Dr. Doyal said. "It often happens that between brothers and sisters that there is one child who consistently gets A's in school and another who always brings home C's. The one who gets the A's is obviously doing the best job he or she can but the same is often true for the less successful child."

Dr. Doyal suggests that teaching children values like responsibility with money should be done with less talking and more action.

"A youngster who contributes toward the cost of a bicycle or a pair of skis, even if only $20, will take better care of their possessions and also appreciate them more," he said. "Too often toward the end of the season kids come home with broken skis because they know they'll just get a new and better pair."

In the area of providing the best and most for children, parents are sometimes worried about what kind of reflection it will be on them if their youngsters are left out of the crowd because they don't have certain possessions.

When the forum was opened for questions from the audience many parents wanted some specific information on how to deal with the common problems of dealing with young people.

One member of the audience asked what can be done

Police Accuse City Motorist

Leonard Thomas King, 26, of 17449 Maumee Avenue, arrested by Shores public safety officers early Thursday morning, April 27, posted a total bond of $200, including $15 on a Detroit traffic warrant before he was released.

King was charged with disobeying a red traffic signal, driving while his operator's license was revoked and having a concealed weapon, a black handled four-inch knife. He tried to conceal the knife from Public Safety Officer Bruce Darlington by placing it between two bucket seats at the front of the car, which the officer said King had been driving.

According to police, King was traveling north on Lakeshore road, at Webber place, when the officer noticed that King's vehicle had only one headlight operating.

At the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club crossover, the signal light turned red and King made a "U" turn at the crossover.

At Willson and Lakeshore, Officer Darlington turned on the scout car flasher and spot light, but the motorist failed to pull over to the curb. He turned onto Willson and pulled into a driveway. PSO Darlington then ordered King out of the vehicle after which, the officer said, he saw King switch seats with a male passenger.

King got out, then reentered the car, taking the knife out of his pocket and placing it between the front seats. A Doberman Pincher dog was in the car, growling and snarling and the officer radioed for assistance.

PSOs John Trevillian and Archie Grieve arrived to assist, and King was ordered to remove the animal from his auto. When the man complied, Officer Darlington retrieved the knife and told King he was under arrest.

At the station, King, the officer said, was totally uncooperative and denied he had been driving the car or having had the knife.

The passengers, a male and female, were released without charge, but King was cited for the traffic violations and possession of a concealed weapon.

He was scheduled for a court hearing on Wednesday, May 25.

Offer Cancer Victims Help

The American Cancer Society will hold its monthly meeting for cancer patients and their families on Thursday, June 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the Ladies Parlor of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack Avenue.

This self-help group's purpose is to bring together persons who are experiencing problems as a result of the disease and, with the assistance of a nurse consultant, give them the opportunity and encouragement to discuss mutual problems.

Further information may be obtained by calling the area office of the American Cancer Society at Cottage Hospital, 343-9006.

Nab Trespasser Sans License

James Henry Losh of 22619 Eleven Mile road, St. Clair Shores, who was seen driving a motor vehicle onto private property at 3:49 a.m. on Wednesday, May 18, was arraigned for a preliminary hearing before Shores Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis on a charge of driving while his license was suspended.

Losh entered a plea of not guilty and his court hearing was postponed until Wednesday, June 22. His bond of $150 was continued until that date.

According to a Shores Public Safety Department report, Losh was seen by two Shores officers, Sgt. James Jurcak and PSO John Frasad, traveling south on Lakeshore and then making a right turn onto the driveway of 579 Lakeshore and pull up in front of the house. The officers turned on the bright light beam of their scout car and saw Losh walk to the rear of the residence.

When the police spotlight centered on him, the officers said, Losh raised his right hand and walked toward them, and as he approached, Sgt. Jurcak and PSO Frasad asked his reason for being on the property. Losh claimed that he was visiting a friend and gave a fictitious name.

When asked for his operator's license and vehicle registration, Losh said that he never acquired a license and that the car belonged to a friend. He was arrested and conveyed to the station.

A Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN) message was sent to the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing and the return reply disclosed that Losh's operator's license had been suspended.

It was revealed that Losh was employed by a landscaping firm and the residents of 579 Lakeshore were customers. On sighting the officers in the approaching scout car, Losh said, he decided to walk to the rear of the home to make it appear as if he knew someone there so that the policemen would not stop him.

Course Draws Raves at North

The new American Studies program offered this year at North High School has proved to be a successful and significant addition to the North curriculum, according to department chairmen in English, Robert Reimer, and Social Studies, Richard Didur.

"The primary purpose of the course is to help students understand many distinct elements of the American experience and to help students put their own traditions and heritage in perspective," according to course teacher Frank Bunton.

"This is especially important in the metropolitan Detroit area with its abundance of ethnic groups," added Mary Adamo, who also teaches the course.

The program stresses reading and writing skills, and several students have distinguished themselves in this area, including junior Melissa Goodson, a participant in the National Council of English Teachers Writing Awards program.

Ed Boesiger, sophomore, was selected as one of 30 Michigan students to participate in the Interlochen Arts Academy Writing Seminar, sponsored by the Ford Foundation. He and sophomore Rick Zenn, are advanced placement history candidates.

The two-hour daily course is planned jointly by Ms. Adamo and Mr. Bunton and frequently involves audiovisual study of American music, art and architecture. Visits to Greenfield Village, the Henry Ford Museum and lectures, such as Mary Park's "Emily Dickinson and the Parke Family," and Lucy Hamilton's presentation on Detroit's historical and architectural landmarks also add to the program.

The American Studies program is an elective offered to juniors and sophomores to fulfill the U.S. history requirement at North.

As Ed Boesiger put it, "It's a great course because it doesn't hand me just facts. It made me understand the realities of the situations. Our leaders became more than just pictures in a book."

Groups Offer Help for Widows

The combined efforts of a number of community groups has resulted in the formation of a new service organization.

The Widowed Persons Service was planned in conjunction with Parents Without Partners (PWP), the Northeast Guidance Center, Grosse Pointe Senior Citizens Nutritional Site, Harper Woods Senior, Grosse Pointe Community Services, Grosse Pointe Public Library, Woods Senior Citizens, St. Paul's 39ers, the Neighborhood Club, the Family Life Education Council (FLEC), and the War Memorial Center.

The service is based on the premise that widowed people can best help recently widowed people deal with the death of a spouse. "Only a person who has experienced the death of a spouse can know the grief and understand the emotions involved," stated a release from the organization.

Some of the resource training people involved in the new group are Ruth Loewinson, Ms. Amy Perrone, Adrian V. Wallace and John Aley. They are each specialists in various fields in which recently widowed persons may seek help: mental health, financial management and uses of energy and money.

Lyle A. Heavner of the Civil Liberties Union (C.L.U.), has offered his advice for widowed persons in legal matters.

Widowed persons seeking help through the new organization should call the FLEC dialogue number, 881-0270. Widowed Persons Service will begin receiving calls immediately.

U-D Honors Two Pointers

The University of Detroit President's Cabinet honored six outstanding Americans at its 10th annual awards dinner held recently at the Detroit Plaza Hotel, Renaissance Center.

Among those receiving the President's Cabinet Award were Pointers David K. Eastlick of Balfour road, who is president of Michigan Bell Telephone Co., and G. Menen Williams, of Tonnancour place, who is Michigan Supreme Court Justice and former Michigan Governor.

In addition, the late Sen. Phil Hart was honored posthumously. Sen. Hart received a President's Cabinet award prior to his death and was cited at the dinner.

Those honored received medals and citations from Fr. Malcolm Carron, SJ, president of the University of Detroit.

Commenting on this year's recipients, Fr. Carron said, "We are honoring these individuals for their outstanding leadership and contributions to the American way of life. This distinguished group honors the University of Detroit by accepting the awards."

Mr. Eastlick has been president of Michigan Bell since July 1973. He previously was vice-president of the Human Resources Development Dept. of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., New York City.

Mr. Williams has pursued a distinguished public service career in Michigan and the world. He has been a Justice on the Michigan Supreme Court since 1971 and served three terms as Michigan Governor from 1949-1960.

He also served as U.S. Ambassador to the Philippines from 1968-1969 and as Assistant Secretary for African Affairs from 1961-1966.

More than 1,000 President's Cabinet members and guests attended the black-tie dinner. The President's Cabinet is composed of individuals who support the University of Detroit through donations of both time and financial gifts.

Noted ABC sports commentator, Chris Schenkel, was the speaker for the evening. He has been named Sports-caster of the Year three times and was one of the awardees of the evening.

Schools Grant Extension Of Jurisdiction to Police

By Susan McDonald

One outcome of the school system's attempt to crack down on vandalism and student disturbances this year is an extension of police jurisdiction into public school campuses.

With a letter of permission from the schools dated May 13, the local police forces now have the authority to issue violations on school grounds without the cooperation of school officials that was necessary in the past.

The policy change was approved by the Board of Education earlier this month. It was requested by detectives in the Youth Service Division (YSD), who are permanently stationed in the two high schools.

"Essentially, what we want is the ability to act on school grounds as if they were public property," said YSD Det. Wayne Baum.

YSD coordinator Lt. Jack Patterson said the force believes the new policy will "strengthen their position, insure safer schools and alleviate some problems they've had in the past."

The letter of permission calls attention to the areas of careless driving, vandalism, trespassing, excessive noise and other disturbing activities.

The measure seems to be particularly aimed at enabling police to quell the kind of mass student disturbance that marred the last days of school in 1976.

On June 1 last year, about 500 students poured onto the South High School lawn and surrounding streets in a ruckus that injured one police officer and caught headlines in several area newspapers.

Lt. Patterson said the new policy also will help alleviate some of the parking and reckless driving problems on the campuses, as well as trespassing and vandalism.

"Basically, it's just a simplification of the bureaucracy," Lt. Patterson said. "It will save the trouble of getting school personnel out to sign a complaint every time we want to issue a ticket."

Uniformed police certainly won't make a policy of going into schools and issuing tickets; they're not going to rush out and issue 1,000 parking violations either," he added. "We just want to clean up a problem."

Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber, whose force patrols the South High School area, said he thinks the policy is a step in the right direction. He added that his department has similar agreements with several other institutions, including the War Memorial Center.

The policy change grew out of a series of meetings held throughout the year with school officials, high school principals and police officers, aimed at formulating procedures to curb student vandalism and disturbances.

The letter to police chiefs was signed by the schools' director of support services Ben Zenn. It was approved by the Board of Education at its Monday, May 9, meeting.

At the same time, the trustees directed their legal personnel to look into more broad questions of police jurisdiction on school property for consideration at a future meeting.

CITY MAJORS

During the past week the 1976 Champion Braves clinched the championship for the first half of the 1977 season with back-to-back wins over the Cubs.

The first game was close at 6-4. Rick Richner picked up his fourth win, striking out 12 batters and allowing only two hits. The Braves mustered four hits off Cubs' hurler, Kipp Saile, who went the distance. Paul Martinielli had a double and Brad Langs a single, to aid in the Braves' victory.

On Wednesday, the Braves topped the Cubs 14-0. Pitcher Kurt Maunz got the win. He struck out eight Cubs and walked three.

Braves heavy hitters were Maunz, with a triple, double and single, and Brad Langs with two doubles and a single. They were supported by two hits each from Paul Martinielli, Ned Sparrow and John Zerweck, and one hit each from Rick Richner and Marty Bedell.

Braves catcher Paul Martinielli picked off two Cubs runners at first with sharp throws to first baseman Marty Bedell in the final inning.

On Wednesday, May 18, the Yankees stopped the Rangers 19-6. Yankee pitchers were Chris Partaka, Red Kinsley and John Cordes. On May 21, the Yankees lost to the Mets 12-0.

Also on May 21, the Orioles, of the Minors, won their second game, 8-5 against the Rangers. Pitching for the Orioles were Jerry Joliet, Mike Coles, and Doug Gray.

WOODS MAJORS

By Steven Rusing
On Tuesday, May 17, the Reds creamed the Pirates, 8-0. John Menzo and Pat Ireland gave up just two hits against the Pirates. Kevin Dundon hit a solo blast over the center-field fence while Bruce Sellars and Gary Kavanagh got the only two hits for the Pirates.

In other games, Los Angeles edged the Cubs 3-2 while the Phillies sneaked by the Braves, 5-4. Cleveland sank the Yankees 9-1, and the Oakland A's upset Baltimore, 6-2.

Games delayed by rain were played on Friday, May 20. Tiger Jim Mestagh banged a bases loaded double to tie the score with the A's 4-4. The Tigers took the lead with Pete Heffernan's two run double. In the sixth the A's tied the game to make it 6-6. Then with two on base, Bill McEnroe hit a home run to clinch a victory for the A's.

The other two make up games played on Saturday, May 21, saw Cleveland murder Minnesota 20-9 and Baltimore swamped the Yankees, 11-1.

On Thursday, May 19, the Reds bombed the Phillies, 11-3 and the Braves squeezed by the Cubs, 2-0.

PARK MAJORS

By Lisa Kline
In the National League, the Dodgers tied for first with the Redlegs, beating them 18-11. Dave DeSmyter, Alex Posada, Pat Schulte and Bobby Guswiler all slammed home runs for the Reds, but couldn't match the power-hitting Dodgers and Joe Craig's two homers.

The Braves squeezed by the Giants, 8-7, with Steve Suminski belting a homer for the Braves and Steve Land-oyt hitting one for the Giants.

The Pirates buried the Cardinals, 17-2, with strong hitting by Steve Carrier and John Kline and good pitching by Dave Brooks and Kline. Todd Venderbush of the Cards did an excellent job fielding.

The Dodgers lost to the Giants, 14-6. Craig had both a homer and a double for the Dodgers. Jim Arnold supplied two of the Giants runs with a home run.

The Cardinals shut out the Braves, 4-0, with Richard Moellering striking out 14 players. He also hit a double.

The Red Legs polished off the Giants, 19-7, with Tony Tocco homering for the Giants. Hard hitting by Guswiler, George Neme, Dale Graham, Posada, Pat Schulte and DeSmyter put the Reds on top.

The Braves beat the Pirates 11-1, with Suminski whomping a homer and a double. The Pirates only run came in the fourth inning when Jeffery Kline hit a single to right, and finally scored on hits by John Kline, Steve Carrier and Casey Grow.

In the American League, the undefeated Indians are on top. The Orioles are a close second, having creamed the White Sox 42-5, and the Yankees 22-2. Brad Peterson, Jack Twomey and Bill Winger supplied strong pitching in both games.

The Athletics beat the Senators 6-3, with good hitting by David Tharinos, Paul Hawke and Pat O'Neill. Jon Verbiest slammed a home run for the Senators and Russell Brunke and Dave Kuhnlein both contributed extra base hits.

Many of the results for the American League were unavailable, as scorekeepers failed to write the final score on the score sheets. Larry Bauer hit a grand-slam home-run for the Indians in their game against the Orioles and struck out 10 batters.

FARMS MAJORS

By Joe Fromm
The Tigers won three games last week to move from fourth place into a tie for first with the Indians, both with records of 6-2.

The Yankees and Pirates split two games each and are tied for third with records of 5-3, one game behind the leaders.

The Red Legs won their first game of the season to move up to a tie for fifth with the Pirates both with records of 1-7.

The Tigers downed the Red Legs 9-7 on Monday, May 16, as Todd Pierce notched his second win. Todd Ciovola led the Tiger attack with a double.

Clay VandenBussche led the Tigers in their second win of the week with long two-run homer as the Tigers dropped the Yankees 9-7 on Thursday, May 19. Todd Ciovola won his third game of the season. Rick Parsons and Anthony Eugenio each doubled.

The Tigers overwhelmed the Red Legs 19-2 on Saturday, May 21, in a make up game for the game rained out on May 4. Brett Augsburger picked up the win on a four hitter. The Tigers put the game away in the second with nine runs. Anthony Eugenio led the 15-hit Tiger attack with four hits.

The Phils snapped the six-game winning streak of the Indians with a 13-5 win on Thursday, May 19. The Phils have scored 13 runs in all five of their wins this season. The Phils scored in every inning led by Will Jackson's three hits and four runs batted in.

Jim Zavell hit two doubles but fractured a wrist sliding into second base on his second double. Bill Crow picked up the win with Jim Huminski pitching the sixth inning. Peter Keane hit his third home run of the season for the Indians.

The Yankees downed the Phils 15-4 on Tuesday, May 17. The Yankees scored 11 runs in the first inning. David Spindler limited the Phils to one hit and picked up his second win. Richard Pastoria and Tim Reinman hit two doubles each.

The Red Legs won their first game of the season with a 15-12 triumph over the Pirates on Thursday, May 19. Bart Leu hit a triple and two singles for the Red Legs. Bill Cunningham hit a grand slam home run and David Chamberlin a home run, triple and single for the Pirates. Fred Fordon was the winning pitcher.

The Indians downed the Pirates 6-5 on Monday, May 16, in their fourth game decided by one run, winning three and losing one. Craig Haase picked up his third win but needed relief help from Ernie Kovanda in the sixth.

Kovanda came in with a 6-4 lead, one out and the tying run on second. He struck out the first batter as Indian catcher Sandy Davis hung on to a foul tip third strike. The first pitch to the next batter got by the catcher and one run scored. When the throw to the plate went wild the potential tying run rounded third.

Second baseman Ken Fromm backing up the play flipped the ball underhanded back to the plate to nip the runner on a close play end.

PARK MINORS

By Fran Ceaser

On Opening Day, April 30, Indiana and Ohio State had to stage their own parade after going into extra innings. Al Ament homered twice for Indiana to down last year's defending champions 6-4.

Minnesota's Bob Dodge tripled and homered as did pitcher Niko Eklund, only to be ousted by Purdue 10-7. Scott Walker homered for Purdue and Dan Kohut doubled.

On May 3, Indiana took Northwestern 5-0. Ament homered again and Matt Waters doubled for the victors. Michigan trounced Purdue 15-8 in spite of John Hadjisky's first inning homerun. Regan Alfonso and Niko Eklund doubled for Minnesota on May 5 but Indiana went on to win 9-5. Bill Binder had a double.

On May 10, Purdue bounced back and zonked Northwestern 16-7. Walker pitched three innings for the victors, slugged a homer, and tripled. Teammates Rick Bohan homered and tripled and Scott Greenfelder and Marc Leahy tripled. NW's John Potter and Harry Potter homered and Lisa Diehl doubled.

Indiana licked Michigan 10-5 on May 12. "Blue's" Steve Rotta and Alan Kronk homered and Marc Lie two-bagged it. The same day OSU trounced Purdue 7-1 with an Ohio triple from Becky Ceaser. Minnesota shaded Northwestern 9-8. Niko Eklund homered and Matt Davis tripled.

Steve Rotta and Bruce Benoit hurled a no hitter for Michigan on May 17 that shut out Northwestern 13-0. Rotta doubled and tripled as well. Purdue dumped Minnesota 17-7 with a few homers. Rick Bohan clobbered two and Scott Walker one for the winners with one each from Minnesota's Regan Alfonso and Niko Eklund. Allyn Sanders helped the victors with a double in the second inning.

Purdue got a licking from Michigan 6-4 on May 19. Nelson Shammus doubled for Michigan and Pete Kohut tripled for Purdue. Indiana shaved Northwestern 13-10.

On May 19, Minnesota skinned OSU 9-8. Minnesota fans watched as homers were slugged by Niko Eklund, Tom Gibney and Bob Dodge. Matt Davis grand slammed in the third inning. Ohio State's homers were belted by Rick Whitney and Becky Ceaser.

Ohio State, however, came out May 21 and creamed Northwestern 23-9. Chip Ranno and Rick Whitney banged two homers each. (Whitney also had two triples), and Greg Sendoykas and Art Shaalan one each. Matt Castanier pitched four innings for OSU and tripled to drive three home. Harry Potter homered, tripled, and doubled for NW with help from Frank Cobb's and John Abood's doubles.

On May 21, it was Indiana 10-9 over Purdue. Al Ament and Matt Waters homered to help the winners and Rick Bohan clouted one for Purdue. Scott Walker and John Hadjisky racked a triple and a two bagger respectively. Waters and Ament dueled Walker and Kohut in this outstanding game.

FARMS TRIPLE AAA

By Larry Doyle

Triple A Baseball opened on Saturday, April 30, as Denver overpowered Hawaii 19-7. During the first week of play, Newark outscored Phoenix 14-10 and Hollywood, behind the two hit pitching of Karl Doelle, shut out Denver 12-0. Mark Roney and Mike Adrian hit home runs for Hollywood.

Sacramento's Ray Stocking struck out 12 and walked only two as Sacramento squeaked by Louisville 5-4.

Dave Stoyko tripled for Sacramento. Anthony Papista, Edward Gofedson and Michael Penoyer hit well for Louisville.

On Saturday, May 7, Hollywood hammered Phoenix 20-10. Roney and Doelle homered for Hollywood. Louisville edged Hawaii 10-8. In an exciting game Newark beat Denver 9-8.

The following week saw Hollywood continue to display power as they defeated Newark 19-1. Doelle pitched a one-hitter. Roney hit home runs number three and four, while Adrian hit his second and third home runs of the season. Doelle and John McLeod also homered.

Denver outscored Phoenix 18-5. Sacramento beat Hawaii 19-10. Home runs were hit by Brian Withers and David Sutherland. John French completed an unassisted double play.

In an old-fashioned slugfest, Phoenix edged Hawaii 19-18 with Peter Toenjes hitting a three run homer for Phoenix. Denver handed Sacramento its first loss with both teams performing well in an 8-5 ball game.

Hollywood made it four straight victories with a 20-5 win over Louisville. Extra base hits were the order of the day with Doelle, Adrian, Tom Buhl, Mike Timmis and Roney leading the Hollywood attack. Nancy Dickerson, prominent national correspondent, reports for Detroit Edison:

Here are some energy-saving tips to help take the heat off your air-conditioning budget this summer.

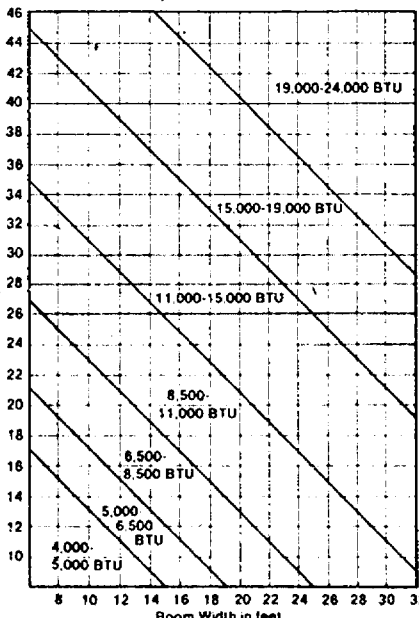

Detroit Edison has a folder, "How to get your money's worth from your electric air conditioner?" Pick one up at any customer office or write to: Customer Relations, Detroit Edison, 2000 Second, Detroit, Michigan 48226

The right BTU and high EER spell comfort and savings. Whichever you choose, a portable room air conditioner or central air conditioning to cool the whole house, the right size unit (BTUs) and a high Energy Efficiency Rating (EER) will give you the best return for your air-conditioning dollar.

The right size (or capacity) is important because an air conditioner that's too small will work overtime and still not return the comfort you want. If the unit is larger than you need, it will cool too quickly, cycle too frequently, and not remove enough excess moisture from the air. You'll feel uncomfortable and clammy and you'll be wasting money on energy costs.

Some air conditioners use more electricity than others to do the same job. So look for a unit with a high EER number. The higher the number, the more efficient it is.

Here's how to size up an air conditioner. To find out the size of the air conditioner you need, measure the length and width of the room you want to cool. If you're considering a central air conditioner, measure each room in the house.

Now find the zone on the chart where the lines for room length and width meet. The figure in that zone is the BTU output, an indication of the air-conditioning capacity required to cool your room. For a central air conditioner, add the BTU requirements together for all rooms.

A little simple division makes you an efficiency expert.

MODEL NUMBER
ACR20B 74F
VOLTS	CYCLE	PHASE
115	60	1
COOLING BTU/HR	AMPS	WATTS
6400	7.5	800

To figure out the EER number of any air conditioner yourself, divide the BTU number by the number of watts needed by the unit. You'll find both numbers on the metal plate attached to the air conditioner.

For example, a unit that delivers 6400 BTUs with 800 watts has an EER rating of 8. (800 goes into 6400 8 times.) The recommended EER number for any air conditioner is 8 or more. You may pay a little more, but you'll save energy costs in the long run.

Keeping your air conditioner cool keeps you cool.

When you bring your portable room air conditioner home, install it on the shady side of the house. If you must place it on the sunny side, you'll keep your operating costs lower if you plant shrubs or trees near it for shade during the hottest part of the day. Carefully seal all around your unit and close cracks around windows and doors. If central air conditioning is installed in an existing furnace, it's important to seal all cracks in the air ducts.

It pays to insulate. Good home insulation will keep you more comfortable in summer and cut down on your air-conditioning costs. It will also make a big reduction in your heating bill in winter. It's one of the best home improvements you can make and will pay for itself in a few years' time. Spring and summer are good times to have the job done when contractors are less busy. Detroit Edison can help you with the financing and give you the names of professional contractors. Just call or stop in at your Detroit Edison customer office and ask about Detroit Edison's Home Insulation Finance Plan.

Tips to help you maintain your cool.
You'll conserve energy and save on operating costs if you keep your air conditioner in good working order. So before each cooling season, have a licensed service contractor check your unit over. During the summer, replace or wash filters often and keep outside coils free of debris, and keep cooling drain open for free condensate flow. Clean registers and return ducts regularly on central air-conditioning systems and avoid blocking cool air outlets. Set your thermostat no lower than about 10 degrees below the outside temperature for the most comfort and best efficiency.

Detroit Edison is a concerned participant in America's crusade for conservation. The wise use of energy plays one of the most important roles in that effort. But it requires a working partnership between those who supply energy and those who use it. Selecting energy-efficient appliances is one of the ways you can help. You'll also save on your electric bill.

Conserve for all it's worth. The power is in your hands.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms MICHIGAN Summary of The Minutes May 16, 1977

The Regular Meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m.

Present on Roll Call: Mayor James H. Dingeman, Councilmen Jack M. Cudlip, Nancy J. Waugaman, Joseph L. Fromm, W. James Mast and Lloyd A. Semple.

The Council adopted a further resolution establishing the rate for the fiscal year 1977-1978 at $17.25 per $1,000.00 of estimated State Equalized Value, resulting in a tax levy of $2,251.125.00.

The Council adopted a resolution authorizing the City Attorney to commence the necessary preparations for the issuance of calamity bonds to cover the costs of the repair of the sewer on Kerby Road and upon which the approval of the General Fund Budget is predicated.

Garage Sale Big Success

Shores Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jeffers disclosed that the Saturday, May 14, garage sale, held in the municipal garage, was a complete success. Total receipts realized amounted to $1,480, which went into the village's general fund, to be used for community projects.

Public Safety Sgt. James Jurcak was the super salesman for the third consecutive year, according to Chief Joseph Vitale. The sergeant's humor in pushing the sales kept things going at a lively pace.

Shores citizens took advantage of the invitation from Village President Gerald C. Schroeder's invitation to participate in the garage sale by contributing household and other items they no longer wanted or needed.

It was revealed that when the one-day sale ended, very few items were returned to original owners.

However, all items offered for sale by the Public Safety Department, such as bicycles, motorcycle helmets, business machines, a Solex bike and other unclaimed articles held in safe keeping for several months by the department, disappeared when enthusiastic buyers snapped them up.

Village officials said that the garage sale went better than expected and more such sales are planned for the future.

On Thursday, May 19, the Grosse Pointe Softball Team defeated J. L. Hudson's 18-10 at Softball City. The Pointers scored at least three runs in each inning. Mike VanDeGinste, (Woods), led the hitting, going four-for-four. Bruce Marone, (Woods), Mike Cavanagh, (Woods), Mark Brecht, (Farms), and Mike Kortas, (Park), all went three-for-four. Jackie Harwood, (Woods), bounced a home run off of the 300-foot fence and batted in four runs. Kortas went the distance on the mound for the win.

On Sunday, May 22, the Police traveled out to Fraser Municipal Field for a double header.

In the opener, Grosse Pointe outplayed the Macomb County Sheriff's team for a 7-4 win. Harwood led the hitting going three-for-three. Pat Devine, (Woods), VanDeGinste, and Marone were two-for-three. VanDeGinste and Mike Makowski, (Woods), both drilled home runs in the contest. Kortas took the win.

In the second game, the Pointers trounced a flat Roseville P.D. team 9-1. Wayne Baum, (Woods), pitched a fine game and lost his shut out bid in the seventh inning on an unearned run. Gene Adamczyk, (Park), paced the hitting with a perfect three-for-three day. Brecht continued his hot hitting, going two-for-three. Mike Kenyon, (Shores), added a two run homer.

Today, May 26, the Pointers play at Softball City at 5:45 p.m., against Richard's Collision. Due to the holiday's next week-end the Metro Police League will not be playing any scheduled games.

Wise parents make a practice of having routine examination of their child's teeth beginning as early as two or three years of age. Such procedures serve to acquaint the child with the dentist and the dentist with the oral health of the child. It can be a happy and profitable experience for both. Baby clinics conducted by local health departments have been a great boon to the oral health of children. In most communities such clinics are available to all young children.

Salute to Fine Organization

We believe that a note of appreciation should be sounded to Grosse Pointe's League of Women Voters for services. In the hope that our readers share this view, we call attention to some of the League's contributions to this community, and to the fact that the organization is in the midst of its annual finance drive.

The League has never encouraged large gifts—an appealing idiosyncrasy in view of recent events in history.

Grosse Pointe's all-volunteer LWV has 137 members who pay $20 a year dues for the privilege of working and studying together. Most members also contribute to the finance drive. A board of 20 persons carries heavy volunteer responsibilities. The League of Women Voters is, of course, non-partisan.

Many of its materials are distributed in the community free of charge. The pamphlet "Your Elected Officials" is updated several times a year and contains all information needed for citizens to correspond with those persons elected to represent them.

The book KNOW YOUR GROSSE POINTE, LWV's most popular publication, gives governmental, school and community information, as well as an early history of the area. The League realizes no revenue from KNOW YOUR GROSSE POINTE; receipts are escrowed for printing the next edition.

The schools and countless adult and youth organizations avail themselves of League publications, speakers and forums. Citizens with a variety of concerns continually approach the League for help.

LWV studies resulted in the idea of the Northeast Guidance Center, initial support for a Wayne County Community College, and in promoting public interest in the fate of our lakes a decade before pollution grew to crisis proportions.

It is difficult to imagine an election when we could not hear and question candidates by attending a League-sponsored forum.

We suggest that their members prefer to spend their money for community service than for postage to remind us of their financial plight, and of the fund drive now in progress. Mrs. Minert N. Thompson, 662 University, is chairman.

The League of Women Voters is not a charitable organization with appeal to the heartstrings, but the members have great affection for this community and believe it is a better place to live because of this organization's tireless dedication, in our behalf, to responsible and effective citizenship.

Conduct Parley on Marketing

South High senior Paul Pellerito participated in the 31st annual National Distributive Education Clubs of America, (DECA), Career Development Conference held in Anaheim, Calif., April 27-May 8.

Paul was among 90 Michigan students selected to participate in the conference, which is designed to help develop future leaders for marketing and distribution.

Representatives from all 50 states and U.S. territories numbering 6,000 attended the meetings.

DECA is the only national student organization operating through the nation's schools to attract people to careers in marketing, merchandising and management.

Paul, who is a member of the South High DECA chapter, is employed by Devonshire Drugs as part of his distributive education course.

One of the best ways of cleaning your jewelry requires no soap at all. Simply mix equal amounts of cold water and household strength ammonia in a cup. Place the jewelry pieces in this solution and let them soak for half an hour. Although this may seem like a long time to wait, the results will be well worth the time because any grease clinging to the jewelry will be emulsified. After you remove the jewelry, work around the crevices in back and front of the setting with a little brush. Dip the piece back into the liquid, and then let it drain on soft toweling. There is no need for further rinsing because no soap was used. As always, however, when in doubt check with us first.

Outer Metro Heavy Rains Thunder by Pointe Area

Mother Nature could have a tantrum in an area of the country, state, county or city, and only an inch or two away, everything would be peaceful and calm, with the sun shining. The Detroit Metropolitan Area is not immune to these natural activities.

On Sunday, May 22, according to the Weather Service at the Detroit Metropolitan Airport, around mid-afternoon, thunderstorms flooded some Detroit area streets, knocked down wires and large tree limbs, disrupting, temporarily, electrical power to about 10,000 homes.

Where the rain poured down in "buckets" in these areas, on the Sunday date, according to official U.S. Weather records kept at the Farms Water Filtration Plant, 29 Moross road, there was no record of a drop falling in the Farms area. Only .61 inches of rain fell at the Airport, and an unofficial report of 2.64 inches fell in Livonia, but the Farms area remained dry as a "bone."

As a matter of fact, as of the time this NEWS story was being written, the last reported rainfall in the Farms area occurred on Thursday, May 19, and that was a mere .01 of an inch, barely enough to wet the ground.

This is the official report received according to the Filtration Plant records from May 1 through the 22: May 2—.11 inches; May 4—.7 inches; May 5—.07 of an inch; May 18—.16 inches; May 19—.01 of an inch; and May 22—none, for a total of .89 inches.

During the month of April, precipitation was a little heavier with a total of 5.12 inches of rain falling for the entire month.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

I want to express my appreciation to the Grosse Pointe News for your May 18 editorial regarding the desire of the Unity Church to move into the Punch and Judy and the attendant adverse reaction.

It took courage to "tell it like it is" on a subject as emotional and controversial as this evidently has become. I commend you for informing the community.

I have been a Pointe resident for over 20 years and a member of the church in question for four years. It is difficult for me to understand the furor which has developed. Undoubtedly it is a misunderstanding about the nature of the church and its congregation.

These doubts could be simply put to rest if those who are so very distressed about the contemplated move back to The Pointe would take an hour and attend a church service.

I hope you will continue to keep the public informed as there are many in the community who are looking forward to Unity returning to the area of its inception.

Sincerely,
Mrs. J. S. Ulmer,

To the Editor:

As a resident on Maison road and a supporter for the present barricade, I feel that I must reply to the article describing the removal of the barricade at the end of Roland/Maison.

The article, (Thursday, May 19), stated that the results of the second traffic count conducted by the Triple A showed that "vehicular passage on Roland/Maison roads dropped from 1,348 per day to zero. . . . This represents a decrease of 100 percent."

Obviously, there have to be cars travelling on our street. After I questioned the reporter and was told that he was quoting directly from the report put out by Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber, I called the Chief to ask him how this was possible. He told me that the figure was correct because it was taken where the first count was taken, at the barricade.

Obviously, there would be a zero count. When I questioned him further, he stated that the count taken at the other end of Maison was 424, and this was stated further on in his report. No where did the Grosse Pointe News indicate this figure.

Again quoting, "Lexington road showed a 106 percent increase, from 284 cars per day to 585." In the same conversation with Chief Ferber, he told me that he was surprised at the low first count on that street and at the large increase at the time of the second count.

He, therefore, had a count made of the number of residences in both neighborhoods that the amount of traffic and, using that figure, felt presently counted on Lexington was not too large for a street of that size.

This was never reflected in the article nor was it stated at the Council meeting.

The article also made note of the increase in the traffic on LaBelle, and the decrease of traffic on Allard. (Allard decreased 235 cars from 432 to 197 while LaBelle increased 252 cars from 180 to 432.)

Since LaBelle is next to Allard and since the residents on Allard could not make a right hand turn to enter their street, much of that traffic can be accounted for.

Using Chief Ferber's own statistics, his suggestion that a barricade be placed in the intersection across from Roland/Maison seems very short of effective. He stated at the Council meeting that the barrier would reduce the traffic on Roland/Maison by "as much as 50 cars per day."

Considering we had 1,348 at the first count and that removal of our barricade would again result in people using our street to avoid traffic lights, our new total would be 1,298. Apparently, he feels that this is a safe and fair number of cars for a residential street. We do not.

The residents of Roland/Maison are not objecting to the local traffic. They are objecting to the use of these streets as a means of avoiding the light at Moross and Mack. 1,348 cars a day, or even 1,298 per day, is too much for a residential street. We like our community. We do not want to move, (as has been suggested by some people on other streets). We do want to live on a street that is safe for our children and in a community that is willing to work together to help achieve that goal!

Karen Clein,
Of 415 Maison road,
Grosse Pointe Farms

Dear Editor:

Often a resident will be transferred out of the community, leaving the sale of his house in the hands of a local realtor. The latter may or may not accept the responsibility of maintaining the upkeep of the grounds, while showing the property to prospective buyers.

While the viewer may wonder how realtors hope to sell homes when weeds hide the "For Sale" signs, neighbors are the hapless victims. Their lawns are seedbeds for dandelions, etc., which blow from the neglected property and their property values are hardly enhanced by the adjacent eyesore.

The solution: Call the Public Service Department in your community. A work crew will mow the lawn, remove debris, bottles, cans, etc., from property (either a vacant lot or improved property) where the owner has not voluntarily assumed his responsibility. A special assessment is then attached to the owner's tax bill which must be paid before sale is effected. Below are names and numbers to call, depending upon your location:

Grosse Pointe Park—822-6200, James Ellison;
Grosse Pointe City—885-5800, Doug Collinson;
Grosse Pointe Farms—885-6800, John DeFoe;
Grosse Pointe Woods—884-6800, Earl Wakely;
Grosse Pointe Shores—881-6565, Thomas Jefferis.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

I have devoted recent columns to matters of local curriculum procedures and other topics of interest to residents of our school district. This week I would like to examine two national trends in education and to indicate where our system stands.

Diverse topics that have been in the news recently are: (1) State Responsibility for Financing Public Education and (2) a Decision of the Supreme Court on Corporal Punishment.

Financing Public Education: A familiar theme is reappearing: the possible ultimate switch to State-funding of all K-12 education. Under one proposal soon to be discussed in Lansing, the state would pay 75 percent of the costs of public education, with the local district picking up 25 percent.

As we understand it, a joint House/Senate Committee will make recommendations on alternatives to local property tax funding of schools by January 1, 1978. We are told that recent "circuit breaker" procedures for property tax relief are becoming increasingly costly.

Readers are aware that this is not a new topic. The Supreme Courts of New Jersey and California have struck down property-tax financing of public education. And in April, the Connecticut Supreme Court found that state's existing system of financing public education inequitable.

Thus the trend has become clear: the nation's property tax laws for funding public education are in jeopardy. What might this portend for a district such as Grosse Pointe?

It could mean lower property taxes, it could mean higher personal income taxes. In any case, most likely it would result in a substantial loss of local control.

Corporal Punishment: In April the Supreme Court's ruling that a school paddling incident in Miami did not violate the Constitution's ban on "cruel and unusual punishments" has been welcomed as strengthening the position of those calling for more law and order in the classroom.

Although only two states, (New Jersey and Massachusetts), have outlawed corporal punishment, the court seemed to be saying that the issue is one to be decided by states and local school districts.

The Supreme Court ruling is not expected to change our district's own policy, adopted by the Board of Education in 1972.

It states, in part: "The use of corporal punishment is neither sanctioned nor permitted in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools." However, our policy does provide for the use of "physical restraint" under certain conditions.

The truth is hard to pinpoint—it generally lies somewhere between the two extremes.

I'm sure by now you have heard about the new liquid protein diet. The diet, popularized by Dr. Linn in his book "Last Chance Diet," is literally sweeping the country. It employs the principal of predigested liquid protein (a long time health food store item), 2-4 grams of potassium, higher amounts of folic acid than are in standard supplements, and a good high potency multiple vitamin/mineral with each meal. The protein is metered out for use 3 times daily; 4-5 ounces for women, 6-7 ounces for men. The diet pays excellent rewards for your sacrifice as loss of 7-15 pounds a week are not uncommon. At VIM & VIGOR HEALTH FOODS, 21151 Mack, 886-9466, you will find not only all the items you need for the diet, but can even have the predigested liquid protein in different flavors. It might be just what you're looking for to get in shape for this summer. Hours 9:30-9:00 Monday-Saturday, 11:00-5:00 Sunday.

The Eleanor Clay Ford Loan Exhibit, culled from a collection of items the late Mrs. Ford gave the Detroit Institute of Arts over the past 50 years, will be a Very Special Feature of this year's University Liggett Antiques Show and Sale.

Included in it are the Hadley Chest, (American, c.1700), a Chippendale arm chair, (American, 18th century), and a two-handled, silver Presentation Cup with cover by Benjamin Godfrey, (made in England in 1737).

The Henry Ford Museum at Greenfield Village is contributing the 1755 Mitchell Map of the United States, a Baltimore highboy and automobile weathervane, also given by Mrs. Ford.

Other special features are a reprise of the highly-appreciated morning walking tours of the show that have been so popular in past years, and a slide lecture by Dr. Robert Bishop, director of the Museum of American Folk Art in New York City and associate editor of "Antiques Monthly" magazine.

And, of course, there are the dealer exhibits themselves: approximately 40 of the country's finest dealers, (they're coming from 17 states), will bring 18th century English and American furniture, porcelain, Chinese export, early silver, pewter, Oriental and American Indian arts, decorative arts—and much, much more—to University Liggett's Middle School campus in Briarcliff drive.

Garden Center Plans Big Day

A membership tea, a presentation of flower and garden slides by Mrs. Charles A. Parcells, Jr., a tour of the fresh, newly-planted Trial Gardens on the waterfront lawn of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial and a visit to the Garden Center Room with its comprehensive horticultural library—all are features of a celebration scheduled for Thursday, June 9, by 45 trustees of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center.

Mrs. Herbert D. Schmitz and a big committee have planned something interesting for every minute from 2 to 4 o'clock in the War Memorial's Alger House.

Garden Center members are invited to come... and there's a unique "admission ticket": one newcomer to join that day as either a regular, sustaining or contributing Garden Center member (dues range from $3 to $15 per year).

The membership is usually just 1,000, so this is an opportunity for a big increase in the number of garden-minded women who can enjoy all the facilities and functions offered by the Garden Center in this 25th year for the Trial Gardens—and that, in itself, is cause for a big celebration.

Members of the Women's Association for the Boys Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit gathered Wednesday, May 18, at the Detroit Bank and Trust Company where, through the courtesy of DB&T President Rodkey Craighead, the Conference Room was the setting for the Association's second annual meeting.

Robert A. Carter, president of the Boys Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit, presided at the transfer of the Women's Association's medallion of office from Mrs. Robert E. Fife, retiring president, to the new president, Mrs. Robert Neal Lynch, of Beacon Hill. New vice-presidents are Mrs. Victor Wertz, of Fair Acres drive, Mrs. Kenneth Edwards, of Detroit, and Mrs. Gene White, of Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Chester Kasiborski, of Oxford road, will serve as treasurer. Recording and corresponding secretaries are, respectively, Mrs. John F. Noonan, of Birmingham, and Mrs. John H. Posselius, of Irvine lane.

The Association's next activity is an Old-Fashioned Box Lunch Social, set for Saturday, June 11, at Camp Farwell on Harsens Island. The lunches will be auctioned off by Fred Cody, with all proceeds going toward the Women's pet project: the sports arena being built at the camp.

The outing, designed to acquaint Association members and their husbands with the camp, is being arranged by Mrs. Joseph W. Caskey, of Vendome court, Mrs. Bill O. Brink, of Edgemere road, and Mrs. John H. Norris, of Birmingham.

It promises to be great fun, highlighted by hayrides and a fire engine tour of the camp facilities, plus other delightful surprises.

MCF Gives Special Honors to Jessie, Cora

Among 65 Michigan Cancer Foundation volunteers honored this spring at MCF's First Annual Volunteer Recognition Dinner, held at Hillcrest Country Club, were Jessie Bernard, of Buckingham road, and Cora Bates, of Audubon road.

These volunteers, cited for more than 30 years of outstanding and dedicated service, have saved Detroit-area cancer patients an estimated $1.75 million over the past 30 years by sewing and distributing free cancer dressings.

In addition, the women have donated their time and talents to aid and comfort cancer patients, while continuing their roles as mothers, grandmothers and volunteers with other civic activities.

Mrs. Bernard, wife of Dr. Walter Bernard, has worked with the Cancer Loan Closet Foundation of Greater Detroit which organized the first loan closet for cancer supplies and equipment in the country more than 30 years ago.

She is chairman of the Service committee for Greater Detroit and Southeastern Michigan.

Mrs. Bernard served as administrator of Cottage Hospital for 20 years and has been active in several volunteer organizations.

Currently, she is a volunteer at Bon Secours Hospital, an active member of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and serves on the board of directors of the Detroit Branch English-Speaking Union, an organization designed to establish better relations between English-speaking peoples.

Mrs. Bates was honored for 33 years of service, during which she sewed more than 10,000 cancer dressings and contributed more than 2,500 hours of time.

She is a member of the sewing group at Calvin East United Presbyterian Church, which meets regularly to sew dressings for cancer patients.

Mrs. Bates, who lives with her son, B. A. Bates, Jr., says the group has been together for so long that it's like a big family now.

She adds that she's still enthusiastic about the work she's doing, even after all these years.

"These women are exemplary in their generosity," notes Mary Mulligan, MCF volunteer services manager, "and they truly represent the strength of the American volunteer spirit."

Women's Page—by, of and for Pointe Women

Inside the Mothers Club

Mrs. Gerald E. Warren, president of the Grosse Pointe South High School Mothers' Club, called the executive board meeting to order May 2, and reported all in readiness for the spring benefit fashion show and tea.

Co-chairman Mrs. Thomas McGann announced that over 1,000 tickets had been sold for the party, which was held May 4. The cover of the program, designed by a student artist, was displayed to the board.

The spring benefit was one of the most successful ever held at South High.

Mrs. Benson McClure, faculty representative, described her recent trip to the Michigan State University campus to interview former South students. She reported their common complaint, as in past years, was that they should have been encouraged to take harder courses at South and to study harder.

Softball is the current consuming passion at State, with 600 teams competing and some games scheduled as late as 2 in the morning.

Most students are involved in extra-curricular activities. All seem to be doing well, all plan to graduate, most plan on graduate school.

Mrs. McClure read the names of the courses dropped from South High because of insufficient enrollment for next year. The schedules have been run through the

Field Trip Day For Fox Creek

Members of the Fox Creek Chapter of Questers will journey to Northfield next Thursday, June 2, to tour the Mill Race Village Restoration Project. The group leaves from Grosse Pointe Methodist Church in Moross road at 10:30 in the morning.

Luncheon will be at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth, preceding a 1 o'clock tour of the restoration, supported by the Michigan State Organization of Questers as well as the Fox Creek Chapter.

computer. Conflicts will be quickly worked out.

Mrs. Warren suggested the board establish a Benson McClure Scholarship Fund in memory of Mrs. McClure's son.

This will be a one-year fund composed of a donation from the Mothers' Club board and contributions from various school personnel and friends who have already sent checks to the board.

Mrs. John Strabel, (Julie Van Loon), of the Class of 1956 presented Mrs. Warren with a check for $500 for the Scholarship Fund. The Class of 1956 obtained a surplus from their reunion, and the committee decided to donate this greatly-appreciated gift to the Mothers' Club Scholarship Fund.

Mrs. Frank Zinn announced the slate of officers for 1977-78 as chosen by a nominating committee consisting of Aphie Roumell, Clare Kay, Julie Sutherland, Peggy Barybauer, Joan Warren and Cynthia Huebner.

President elect is Beverly (Mrs. Joseph) Fromm. Vice-president elect is Fran (Mrs. Peter) Higbie. Corresponding secretary is Marge (Mrs. I. Richard) Pierce.

Also nominated for a one-year term was Clara (Mrs. J. Howard) Kay as vice-president.

The Spring Fertilizer Sale was a big success. A profit of over $3,000 was made, with 848 bags of fertilizer sold and delivered.

Mrs. Warren spoke of the need to thank and recognize the large number of volunteers who have served in many capacities at South High this year. She suggested a tea to be held at the end of this month for the volunteers and the faculty they assisted.

It was proposed that the Mothers' Club organize a one-week drive to secure the return of the many missing library books. The mothers

Art Is in Bloom in Grosse Pointe

It's not just the flowers that burst into bloom all around Grosse Pointe in the merry month of May—it's art's time to blossom, too, in our community. The Grosse Pointe Artists' annual exhibition may be viewed through June 3 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, where a septet of the

Pancake Time in the Woods

The Grosse Pointe Woods Boat Club has scheduled its annual Family Pancake Breakfast for Saturday, June 4, from 9 to 12 o'clock at the Woods Lake Front Park, and this year especially invites Woods residents with boats who are non-members or potential members to participate.

Members of the United States Coast Guard will be on hand to provide free safety inspections for those who wish to bring their boats to the park.

Membership in the Woods Boat Club is open to any Woods resident who owns a boat, regardless of where the boat is docked. Dues are $12 per year.

The club stresses family boating activities. This summer it is sponsoring five rendezvous: at Sarnia May 28, 29 and 30; at Chatham July 2, 3 and 4; a mystery rendezvous on July 31; at Sarnia again September 3, 4 and 5; and at Metropolitan Beach September 17 and 18.

In addition, the club also plans several non-boating social events during the year: a potluck dinner, an ice cream social, a treasure hunt, a horseshoe dinner party, a mystery bus trip and the Commodore's Ball.

Anyone interested in becoming a member may call treasurer Dave Clark, 882-6145, for further information.

Braille Music Book Unveiled

A unique book to teach blind students beginning music, written by Grosse Pointe Braille Club member Thelma Corless Dikeman, was introduced at a music workshop at the National Braille Association convention held earlier this month at the Michigan Inn.

It is a new concept in teaching music to the blind—the right hand side written in Music Braille, the left its exact counterpart in type for sighted viewers—and should be of great benefit to parents and teachers in their work with blind students. Mrs. Dikeman, who taught music to sighted pupils for many years in this area, is one of less than 100 Certified Music Brailleists in the United States.

Her book, which has been copyrighted in the Library of Congress, aroused much interest at the NBA convention.

Other members of the Grosse Pointe Braille Club who worked on the conference were Mrs. W. W. McClellan, Mrs. W. A. Huegli, Mrs. A. L. Potter and Mrs. John Huetteman.

Blue Water Business Women Aid Students

Members of the Blue Water Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association observed ABWA National Scholarship Month at their May meeting via a reading of the proclamation presented to the chapter by Mayor Allyn Carl Weinert at an East Detroit Council meeting Monday, May 2.

Guest speaker was Joanne Taylor, social field counselor for the Flint Board of Education.

Six new members were accepted into the chapter, which is currently sponsoring two scholarship recipients:

Konnie Kustron and Kimberly Krolczyk. At the May meeting, it was voted to sponsor four new recipients.

The chapter held its annual fashion show dinner Tuesday evening, April 26, at the Polish Century Club. The event raises money for Blue Water's Scholarship Fund.

Restoration Has Begun at Elmwood

Construction has begun to restore the chapel at historic Elmwood Cemetery to its original grace and beauty, following its near-total destruction by fire set by vandals last November. Nearly $100,000 has been collected so far from groups and individuals who have expressed anger, sorrow and indignation over the desecration of Detroit's oldest non-sectarian cemetery. Pictured above presenting a check for $500 to Pointer WILLIAM BUTLER,

Other members of the special projects committee involved in raising the $500 were Mrs. L. A. Rice, of Hawthorne road, and Mrs. Floyd Foether, of Royal Oak. The concept of donating funds to help restore Elmwood Chapel, largest project of the Historic Memorials Society will undertake this year, was recommended to the group by another member, Mrs. W. Stuart Littlejohn.

The Elmwood vandals literally "rampaged" through the grounds, overturning tombstones, defacing and mutilating statues and objects and leaving the chapel a glowing torch to signal they had been there.

In early February Elmwood, wherein are buried six former Michigan governors as well as members of some of Detroit's most prominent black and white families, was designated an historic site by Michigan Secretary of State Richard H. Austin, who presented an official state historic marker to the cemetery's board of trustees and other dignitaries.

Contributions to the Chapel Restoration Fund are fully tax deductible and can be made in any amount. Checks should be made payable to the Elmwood Cemetery Chapel Restoration Fund and sent to Elmwood Chapel Restoration Fund, c/o Detroit Bank & Trust, Post Office Box 59, Detroit, Michigan 48284.

The Historic Memorials Society in Detroit was established in 1891 as the Mount Vernon Society. Its purpose is to assist in the restoration and preservation of national, state and civic memorials.

Among the projects the society has supported over the years are the restoration of Mount Vernon, George Washington's home, and of Kenmore, the home of his sister, Betty Washington Lewis, as well as the restoration of Thomas Jefferson's Monticello.

Locally, the group has donated funds to the Detroit Historical Society, the Children's Museum, Mariner's Church and the Burton Historical Collection.

Tribute Given to Mrs. Powell

Highlight of the Children's Hospital of Michigan Auxiliary's annual meeting Thursday, May 12, at Lochmoor Club was a tribute to Florence Powell, of Cloverly road.

Mrs. Powell is in her 25th year of service to Children's. She is a past-president of the Children's Auxiliary, has been active in the Michigan Hospital Association and is presently vice-chairman of Children's board of trustees.

Painters present to honor Mrs. Powell included Mrs. Gerald Slattery, of Lakeshore road, an auxiliary and fellow member of the board of trustees, and Dr. Robert Gregg, of Peach Tree lane, president of Children's Hospital. Also on hand to praise Mrs. Powell was W. Warren Shelden, of Provencal road, chairman of the board of trustees.

Mrs. Powell received a silver ring in recognition of her 25 years of loyalty, love and dedicated service to Children's Hospital.

Present as guests of the Auxiliary were Mrs. Powell's two sisters, Mrs. Otto Nickel, of Mount Clemens, and Mrs. William Lewis, of Detroit, and a niece, Mrs. George Kling, of Cloverly road. A standing ovation concluded the program.

Miss Bailey To Be Bride

Barbara Jan Bailey and Christopher Dallas Hutchison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Dallas Hutchison, of DeWitt, are planning a July 23 wedding.

The bride-elect, an alumna of Grosse Pointe South High School and Michigan State University, is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Hawksley, of Stephens road, and Walter A. Bailey, of Troy.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

For almost two years now Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. (882-0087) has been the only Real Estate Co. to put ERA's warranty on the homes it lists or sells. It's been a rough road getting the point across because it's similar to insurance and people are up to their necks in insurance premiums already. There are several home owners however who are more than thrilled that they had our warranty. We've replaced furnaces, refrigerators and plumbing systems that surprised us. We inspect every house before the warranty is placed on the home. In each case we pronounced the home well! So—we guess it is what we say, protection against unforeseen events that can cost you a lot!

So if you're buying, come to Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087 and put that extra sex appeal into the selling of your home. In some states appraisers add an extra $500 to the value if it comes with ERA's warranty! If you're selling, wouldn't it make sense to list with the Company with the most plus benefits for you?

Want more plus benefits? Well, Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. has its own staff architectural designer free to your service. He'll design a new floor plan for you, lay out a family room or new kitchen at no expense to you. Still more benefits, you say? Well we'll even contract the changes you desire to make at no profit. If it's normally a $8,000.00 kitchen—we'll probably give you the same thing for $4,000.00.

Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. is also working for you in other areas which are designed to build your property values, make your streets safer and more beautiful. What other Real Estate Company comes close to all this?

In Hope College's Dimnent Chapel Saturday, May 21, ALISON JANE WEAR whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wear, moved less than a year ago from Saddle lane to Bloomfield Hills, was married to Mr. Herman, son of the Richard Hermans, of Lima, O.

Miss Wear Bride Of Bruce Herman

Hope College's Dimnent Chapel Is Setting for Mid-May Ceremony; Pair Are Vacationing in Florida

In her mother's wedding gown of ivory brocade, Grecian style and fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves, Alison Jane Wear spoke her marriage vows to Bruce Dennis Herman.

Her fingertip illusion veil and headdress were trimmed in ivory English lace. She carried a duplicate of her mother's bridal bouquet: a cascade of pink Sweetheart roses and dried baby's-breath.

The former Miss Wear is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wear, who moved less than a year ago from Saddle lane to Bloomfield Hills. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Herman, of Lima, O.

Setting for the 1:30 o'clock ceremony Saturday, May 21, was Dimnent Chapel at Hope College, Holland, Mich., from which the bride received her degree in French and Economics a year ago this month, after spending her junior year in Grenoble, France.

She is a member of the legions and the bridegroom's brother, Glen Herman, presided.

The bride was attended by honor maid Mary Lynn Sears, of Harper Woods, a friend since high school, and bridesmaids Terri Smith, a roommate and sorority sister, formerly of New York, and Debbie Grey, of Allentown, Pa., a fellow student in France, in A-line, apricot dresses, Empire-waisted, mandarin-collared and sleeveless, with matching jackets.

Junior attendants Sandra Rose, of Highland, a cousin, and Lisa and Sara Murray, of Lansing, wore yellow print frocks, short-sleeved, Empire-waisted and mandarin-collared.

All carried baskets filled with spring flowers.

Douglas Herman came from Athens, O., to act as best man for his brother. In the usher corps were Paul Wear, the bride's brother, John Schrier, of Muskegon, the bridegroom's roommate, and Robert Cline, a professor at Hope College.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception at Point West in Macatawa, Mrs. Wear selected a hyacinth blue gown, formal length and long-sleeved, featuring a scoop neckline. Pink Sweetheart roses and stephanotis formed her wrist corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was in aqua, also long-sleeved and long-skirted, and chose yellow Sweetheart roses and carnations for her wrist corsage.

The newlyweds will return from a two-week vacation in Florida to reside in Holland.

Miss Baird Speaks Vows to Mr. Kerr

She Tucks Flowers from her Mother's and Grandmother's Bridal Bouquets in Her Own Arrangement of Stephanotis and Ivy

Ann Arbor's First United Methodist Church was the setting Saturday, May 7, for the wedding of Linda Lee Baird and James Kendrick Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pope Kerr, of Fair Acres drive.

The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ronald James Baird, of Ypsilanti, wore a chiffon over white lutesong gown, accented at sleeves, bodice and hem with applied French lace.

Matching lace appliques were scattered on her fingertip veil. She inserted a flower from her mother's and grandmother's wedding bouquets in her own bouquet of stephanotis and ivy.

The 3:30 o'clock rites at which Dr. Donald Strobe presided were followed by a

They will be making their home in St. Clair avenue. White eyelet trimmed the necks and handkerchief-hem sleeves of the navy blue Qiana frocks worn by honor maid Ann Karjala, of Ypsilanti, and bridesmaids Mrs. David T. Baird, of College Park, Md., Martha P. Kerr, the bridegroom's sister, and Nellie DeBoer, of Ypsilanti. Their navy straw picture hats were accented with white grosgrain streamers and red carnations. They carried mixed bouquets of white Fuji mums, baby red carnations, blue strawflowers and ivy.

James M. Hatch, of Birmingham, was best man. Ushering were David W. Kerr, the bridegroom's brother, David T. Baird, brother of the bride, Joel R. Caskey, the bridegroom's cousin, Charles Browning, of East Lansing, Judson L. Brown, of Houston, Tex., Gary M. Bidwell, of Birmingham, and Harold E. Nelson, of Muncie, Ind.

The mother of the bride wore a long red and white silk print shirtwaist. Baby red carnations and daisies formed her corsage.

The bridegroom's mother selected a long skirt of pale blue ultra suede and a shirt-waist blouse in blue print chiffon. She pinned a white Eucharis lily to her purse.

The James K. Kerrs

LINDA LEE BAIRD, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ronald James Baird, of Ypsilanti, and Mr. Kerr, son of the Willard Pope Kerrs, of Fair Acres drive, were married Saturday afternoon, May 7, in First United Methodist Church, Ann Arbor.

Auxiliary Aids Harper

Pointer MRS. PAUL RUBLE, newly-elected president of the Harper Hospital Women's Auxiliary, presents a check to RICHARD L. SEJNOST, administrator of the hospital. The Auxiliary contributed $15,250 during the past year as part of a pledge connected with the hospital building program. Funds were raised via a dinner dance, fashion show and recent rummage sale. Mrs. Ruble's husband, Dr. Ruble, is vice-chief of medicine at the Harper Hospital Division of Harper-Grace Hospitals.

Rites Are Read in California

The Wayfarer's Chapel, Rancho Palos Verdes, Calif., was the setting Friday, April 8, for the wedding of Alana Sue Curtice Bolline and Thomas Alexander Macdonald.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Curtice, of Mount Prospect, Ill., formerly of Muskegon.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Macdonald, of East Jefferson avenue, formerly of Lochmoor boulevard.

The evening ceremony, at which The Reverend Ernest O. Martin presided, was followed by a reception at the Torrance, Calif., home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burch.

After a skiing vacation at Lake Tahoe, the newlyweds are making their home in California.

The bride chose an ivory chiffon gown, featuring handkerchief points on its shawl collar and skirt, for the 8 o'clock rites. Her headpiece was a tangle of baby's-breath. Her bouquet was fashioned of white orchids, blue baby's-breath, orange rosebuds and ivy.

Her mother wore a long shirtwaist of blue jersey. Mrs. Macdonald also selected a long shirtwaist, of blue eyelet. Both mothers chose white gardenia corsages.

James Macdonald flew from Anchorage, Alaska, where he is taking a sabbatical from his Chemistry studies, for his brother's wedding. Their father's cousin, Mrs. William P. Riley, drove in from Scottsdale, Ariz., and entertained the bride, her mother, the bridegroom's mother and Mrs. Burch at a Friday luncheon.

Another out-of-town guest was William Schleicher, of Brys drive, a friend of the bridegroom from Grosse Pointe High School and Hillsdale College days.

DKG Sponsors Retirees' Day

The Metropolitan Detroit Coordinating Council of Delta Kappa Gamma, an honorary society for women educators with two chapters, Beta Xi and Alpha Mu, based in Grosse Pointe, will sponsor a Seminar for Retirees Wednesday, June 1, from 9 in the morning to 1 in the afternoon at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Purposeful Living is the theme of the day. The first speaker, Wayne County Judge Ira Kaufman, will talk on "The Law and I."

His address will be followed by Nancy Diver and Ginny Lenihan, of the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau, with answers to the question: "What Shall I Do?"

The morning's final speaker, Marie Guyton, will tackle the problem of "Where Shall I Live?"

There will be an opportunity to speak to and question the consultants before lunch, which will be served at 11:45 o'clock and will feature a Robelle Shops fashion show, directed by Ellen DeFores.

The program, starting at 9 with a tasting table of exotic coffees and treats, is open to all DKG members in the Metro-Detroit Council area, and their friends.

Reservation information may be obtained by contacting Helen Huber, 822-6110, or Juanita Flanders, 835-5963. Cost is $1.50 per member and/or guest — and deadline is today.

Metropolitan Film Council Gives Awards

The Greater Detroit Motion Picture and Television Council staged its 17th annual awards luncheon in conjunction with a parade of films by Himelhoch's Wednesday, May 25, in the Sheraton Southfield Hotel. Mrs. H. Lloyd Patterson, of Bishop road, was general chairman.

Each year awards are presented to selected theater owners and/or managers and others in the community for outstanding cooperation with and service to the Council.

This year's recipients are Bob Anthony, owner of the Main Theater in Royal Oak, for continuing to show family films, particularly those produced by Disney; the Motor City Theater Organ Society for donating the Redford Theater for the use of the Council's Youth Film Forum; (Gary Hitchens, manager, accepted the award); and Gerald Downey, of Robert Solomon Associates, for selecting and securing the films shown to and discussed by the Youth Film Forum.

The Council, realizing that better films come only from better scripts, annually sponsors a contest to encourage play writing at Wayne State University.

Professor Vincent Wahlgren, now retired, Ms. Margaret Spear, of the Department of Language Arts, and Dr. Leonard Leone, in charge of WSU's various theater groups, serve as contest coordinators.

The Council presented a check to them at the luncheon. The check will be used to provide monetary awards for the contest winners, whose names will be announced in June.

The Council initiated its Youth Film Forum 10 years ago.

The Forum, composed of 10 students from each participating high school, views and discusses one film per month.

Representatives of the Board of Education, teachers, theater owners, members of the Council and other knowledgeable discussion leaders participate in the Forum's programs.

The Greater Detroit Council, organized in 1936, became a charter member of the Federation of Motion Picture Councils, Inc., in 1954.

The object of the Council is to stimulate interest in better film production and to develop critical standards in the selection of motion picture and television entertainment.

At no time does the Council assume the position of a censor. It has been the recipient of the Clara Edwards memorial award, given in recognition of exemplary efforts in promoting better film production, five times.

The Greater Detroit Motion Picture and Television Council's slate of officers for 1977-78 includes Mrs. Joseph E. House, president; Mrs. Sam Wasserman, vice-president; Mrs. Vernon Hart, recording secretary; Mrs. Jack

Viennese Ball Set at Center

Intermission entertainment will be an interlude of Schrammel songs, played and sung by Alex and Maribel Suezek who welcome audience participation.

Sparkling wine will be available, of course, by special license—for what is a Viennese Ball without wine?

Ball tickets, at $6.50 per person, are limited, to allow plenty of room for dancing, so early reservations are advised. Tickets may be obtained at the War Memorial office.

Cabaret Pops Ends May 28

If you haven't been to Cabaret Pops yet, this week is your last chance.

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra wraps up its spring thing at the Light Guard Armory in East Eight Mile road with radio personality Karl Haas Wednesday and Thursday evenings, May 25 and 26, and Tonight Show trumpeter/band leader Doc Severinsen Friday and Saturday nights, May 27 and 28. Concerts are at 8:30 o'clock.

Haas takes the podium as guest conductor and musical tour guide in a program entitled "Once Over Lightly." The format is that of his long-running radio show "Ad-

It's Official: They're Master Gardeners

As graduates, veterans of a 10-week course offered in conjunction with Wayne County Community College, they're entitled to the title of "Master Gardener"—a designation which those who know them would have applied pre-graduation, but it's nice to have it "official." The Master Gardeners are required to complete 20 hours of community service, after which they are awarded a patch and certificate from Michigan State University.

ventures in Good Music," with the DSO providing musical illustrations from the Beatles to Offenbach.

This will be the first such live music staging in the Detroit area of the program style heard daily by millions of listeners throughout the world.

"Adventures in Good Music" emanates from WJR, Detroit, where Haas is director of Fine Arts, and is syndicated nationally over 26 stations and heard worldwide over 320 stations of the American Forces Radio and Television Service.

Haas is the veteran of several appearances with the DSO, most recently as a conductor in April, 1975.

Doc Severinsen sits in the first chair of today's popular music trumpet section, consistently topping the list in annual music polls conducted by numerous national publications.

His previous appearance with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra three years ago was one of the most successful and highly-praised Cabaret Pops concerts ever.

His program this week will include a mix of the best-known trumpet pieces, including "Malaguena," and a collection of Severinsen originals, with DSO assistant conductor Philip Greenberg conducting the 97-piece Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The Tonight Show band leader went to NBC in 1949 as a staff musician and became a member of Skitch Henderson's Orchestra in 1962.

He took over the orchestra when Henderson left the show, and was soon as well known for his wit and wardrobe as for his brilliant trumpet playing.

In addition to his role on the Tonight Show, Severin-sent appears in all of Johnny Carson's concerts, conducts brass clinics, is a guest soloist with major symphony orchestras around the country and is in great demand as a performer in night clubs and on college and university campuses.

Tickets for a Cabaret Pops table of four are available at Ford Auditorium box office and all Hudson's and Ward's ticket offices, at $24 and $20.

Single seats, if available, will be on sale at the door on concert nights for $7 and $6.

'Putto' Is Here From Florence

The priceless Verrocchio "Putto with a Dolphin," loaned to Detroit by the ancient city of Florence, Italy, to celebrate the opening of Renaissance Center, is on view at the Detroit Institute of Arts through Sunday, May 29.

This special display is free to the public during regular museum hours: 9:30 to 5:30 o'clock Wednesday through Sunday.

The bronze figure of a laughing baby angel hugging a dolphin, often called the most popular sculpture in Florence, is on display in the museum's new Italian Wing. It was created by Andrea del Verrocchio, (1435-1488), greatest sculptor of his day and the master teacher of Leonardo da Vinci. For nearly 400 years Putto with a Dolphin was a favorite of visitors as it embellished a fountain in the central courtyard within the Palazzo Vecchio, the dolphin spouting water from its mouth.

The 27-inch bronze has been insured for $3 million during its Detroit visit. This is the first time the statue has left Florence since the early Renaissance.

Seat Beta Sigma Phi Chapter's New Officers

The Xi Alpha Omega Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi installed officers for 1977-78 at a recent meeting in the Huntington road home of Bonnie Roth.

President is Nancy Hughes. Vice-president is Chris Atkinson. Recording secretary is Mary Mills, and corresponding secretary is Jan Hines. Karen Berschback was re-elected treasurer.

Marge Parsons, outgoing president, will serve as extension officer.

New members Bonnie Twiddy, of Kerby road, and Hannelore Rehner, of Detroit, were formally initiated into the chapter, which has planned a mystery trip for next Wednesday, June 1, to round out a year of social and cultural programs.

buggiani has described the extraordinary loan as a gesture of friendship between the sister Renaissance cities of Florence and Detroit.

Putto with a Dolphin is a most important artistic accomplishment: the first free-standing figure equally developed on all sides. Previous sculptures were stronger compositionally from one particular aspect, but Putto is developed in a continuous spiral, pleasing from all viewpoints.

Verrocchio also overcame the static quality that characterizes much 15th century sculpture; poised on one leg, the figure may be interpreted as either flying or running.

When Napoleon looted Italy's art treasures for the imperial collection of Fance, Putto with a Dolphin escaped.

Chargers Win Hockey Crown

The Pointe Dodge Chargers recently participated in the finals of the State Minor Open Pee Wee championship, and emerged the champs.

The Chargers' first opponent was one of the strongest teams in the Pee Wee minor division, the S and A Slags, who gave the Chargers all they could handle, outshooting the Pointers, 26-17.

If not for the goaltending of George Zinn, the Chargers might have been on the other end of the 4-2 score.

Goals came from Tony Amore, Brian Valice, Todd Raleigh and Marty Wittmer, while assists were earned by Wittmer, Valice, Tom Dow, Marty Montagne, Amore and Marty Cooley.

The next game was played against St. Clair Shores, with the Chargers winning 7-1.

The defense, led by Mark Brooks, Cooley, Montagne and Paul O'Bryan, allowed the forwards to stay fresh and on the offensive.

Goals came from Dow, Amore, Cooley, Todd Raleigh, Scott Gneisner and two for Wittmer. In goal for the Chargers was Chris Whitney, who played a fine game, stopping 11 of 12 shots.

Whitney was in goal, stopping 10 of 12 shots, while the Chargers fired 26 shots against the opposition.

Rick Stroebe had the "hat trick," while Wittmer notched two and Raleigh and Peter Moody each had one.

This qualified the Chargers for the semi-finals against the runner-up PAL team from the other flight. The charged up Chargers took the play to them and won, 6-0.

Zinn was in goal, stopping 21 shots, Wittmer had the "hat trick," and Valice, Amore and Dow scored the other three.

The final game found the Michigan National league

The Woods Public Safety department has been advised by city attorney George Catlin that according to Public Act 439, effective last January 13, unlicensed or revoked license drivers are not allowed to drive power assisted bicycles.

This reminder was prompted, according to a memo from Mr. Catlin to Director Henry Marchand, because of several recent cases of drivers with suspended licenses, operating motor assisted bicycles at speeds equal to light motorcycles without being in violation of any statute.

Henceforth, the operator of a motor assisted bicycle, now called a moped, must have either a valid operator's or chauffeur's license or a special restricted license to operate a moped available to those 15 or older," said Mr. Catlin in the memo.

Other restrictions on mopeds limit them to carrying one rider at a time, require at least one head and tail light, (a brake light), and bar them from sidewalks.

Further, riders should not operate mopeds more than two abreast, they should pass on the left but should keep to the right of the roadway. (Mopeds do not have unrestricted use of a traffic lane as do motorcycles.)

Like bicyclists, moped operators should not carry anything that would interfere with the safe control of the vehicle. Mopeds are required to have mufflers and vehicle registration certificates, (after May 1, 1977).

Moped riders need not wear crash helmets or take out liability insurance.

Center Hosts King Tut Talk
In anticipation of its June trip to the Egyptian Museum currently at the Field Museum in Chicago, and to accommodate the many patrons who could not be included in the tour, the War Memorial is having Mrs. Lee Gibbs from Chicago give an illustrated lecture on "The Treasures of Tutankhamen."

It will be held at War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, today, May 26, at 8 p.m. Tickets are $3.

Mrs. Gibbs has been specially trained as a guide by the Field Museum and the Oriental Institute. Her illustrated talk will be the next best thing to going to the exhibit in Chicago, says the Center.

Pointe Campers Launch Season

A caravan of local campers started off the spring season recently by setting off on a Shake Down Cruise to Lakeport State Park, north of Port Huron.

The convoy of 22 families traveling in various trailers and recreation vehicles are members of a club called Pointe Campers. The group made up primarily of Pointers and families from the east side, was started in 1975 as a sort of lobby for the rights of recreational vehicle owners.

Since then some of the restrictions on the storage of campers have eased and the group has turned into a social club organizing camping outings.

The club is most active during the spring and summer but the members have had winter trips to the warmer climates of the south. This year they are planning a number of campouts as near as Brighton and as far off as Niagara Falls.

Their next "cruise" is scheduled for Memorial Day weekend. Anyone interested in hitching up with the Pointe Campers should contact Bob Tracy at 886-6582.

It Will Be... a lovely fall this year according to the fashion barometer. The clothes are particularly good looking and wearable. The fabrics, colors, designs and construction have been encouraging to buyers. The Walton-Pierce buyers have been in the market during the past month, spending a great deal of time and energy to find you the best of fall fashion from your favorite designers and discovered exciting new lines. They have also listened to their customers immediate requests, so they picked up fresh summer cottons, short chiffon cocktail dresses and pretty long dresses for summer parties. They are in a refreshed stock right now. Trunk showings have been arranged and you'll be glad to know that the entire Posh collection for fall will be at Walton-Pierce in August. MRS. JOSEPH A. VANCE, JR., OF SOUTH DEEPLANDS ROAD

By Janet Mueller

She had just begun to volunteer, (in Detroit), and, as chairman of Region III for the United Foundation's Torch Drive campaign, was calling on businesses to ask, please, for donations. Region III stretched then from Highland Park to the Detroit River, East Grand boulevard to Woodward avenue.

There was this meat market... the owner had donated before, so Ruth Vance was pretty sure he'd come up with another $15.

In she went, and explained who she was, and asked was the owner there.

No he wasn't, but if she'd care to come back...

Back she came, and still he wasn't there, (or if he was, he wasn't coming out), so Ruth left—but she came back again... and again...

Fourth time lucky. The woman behind the counter knew Ruth on sight by now. The woman behind the counter was tired of saying the boss isn't in. "It's that lady from the UF!", the woman behind the counter yelled, in the direction of the back room.

Comes Out Armed

Out came the butcher, brandishing a meat cleaver. Have you ever felt you've gotten lost in the middle of a Vincent Price movie?

Well, of course, the butcher had every right to be brandishing a meat cleaver—it is, after all, the primary tool of his trade—and he'd just happened to be holding it when he got called out in front, and he'd never had the slightest intention of making mincemeat out of Ruth.

In fact, he was so impressed by her persistence that he doubled his contribution.

Proving once again that you can't keep a lady from Shawnee, Okla., down.

Joe laughs about Ruth's pride in her origins. "You're never around somebody for more than five minutes before you tell them you're from Shawnee," he chides. Ruth smiles. It's quite true. It's also quite true that Shawnee is One Great Place to come from.

She's Been Around

There've been several places between Shawnee and Detroit. Kansas City, Cleveland, New York... Ruth and Joe Vance will have been married 23 years this December, but both were married before. Ruth's first husband was in the theatrical business. They moved about quite a lot.

Finally, Ruth moved here, and met Joe Vance, and that was that. "I love Detroit," she says. "I get so mad when people say bad things about it. Detroit is a great city!"

She still has a soft spot in her heart for Manhattan, however, and not just because her daughter, Patricia Ferdon, lives there. She'd like to visit New York even if Patricia lived in San Francisco. That, actually, would be lovely: then Ruth would have an excuse to visit San Francisco often, and San Francisco is her favorite city in the United States—other than Detroit.

They Raise Horses

Joe's daughter lives in the east, too, but farther south, in Glencoe, Md., outside of

Joining in the festivities were the couple's daughter MARY-MARGARET THOMPSON, of Boca Raton, a son JOHN C. THOMPSON, his wife YVONNE and their daughter LYNDIA, of Hillsboro Beach, Fla., and a family friend, JESSE KING, of Orlando, Fla. Unavoidably absent was the couple's other son WILLIAM J. THOMPSON, JR., of Ocala, Fla. Mr. Thompson, Sr., and the former BELLE B. THOMPSON were married April 27, 1917, in Detroit. They have three children, nine grandchildren and three great-granddaughters. involvement with the United Foundation. "I was chairman of community campaigns for two years in a row. We would get the heads of participating agencies to speak at various meetings. The Rehab Institute's Joe Schaeffer was always one of our most popular speakers."

Credits Mrs. Buttrick Ruth credits Aggie (Mrs. Theodore R., Jr.) Buttrick with "really getting the Rehabilitation Institute Auxiliary started."

"But," she adds, "every chairman contributed a lot." They almost couldn't help themselves, for the Rehab Institute is one of those magic places that turns a passive, ho-hum commitment into blazing dedication. Even casual visitors find the magic rubbing off.

There's something about watching people come alive. For Ruth Vance, of course, dedication is nothing new. She's been known to start the day with a 7:30 o'clock breakfast meeting, preside at a noon luncheon, come up smiling at a post-dinner award ceremony.

Not every day, certainly... still: The Energy Fairy must have blessed girl babies born in Shawnee, Okla.

Like Attracts Something is obviously watching over Ruth. How would you like to come out of a meeting at the Detroit Athletic Club at 1:30 in the morning to find your car locked up for the night in the DAC garage?

"I could SEE it, but I couldn't GET it." She didn't want to call Joe out of bed to rescue her. "Fortunately, I was surrounded by nice people..."

Ruth frequently is. Something is obviously watching over her—or could it be a simple case of like attracts like?

Whatever: Joe slept on, and Ruth made it home.
