THE UNITED STATES has told Cuba it has no intention of re-establishing full trade and diplomatic relations as long as Cuban troops continue radical activities in Africa, a top U.S. foreign policy official said Wednesday. The official said that while momentum has built up for normalization of relations between the two countries, the U.S. intends to maintain its trade embargo against Cuba while Cuban troops remain active in Africa. He said full diplomatic relations, including an exchange of ambassadors, also hinge on a Cuban withdrawal.

MICHIGAN BLUE CROSS Blue Shield was granted a 9.45 percent rate increase Thursday by Michigan Insurance Commissioner Thomas C. Jones. The boost is expected to earn an additional $94 million in revenues for the health insurance organization over an 18-month period beginning July 1, Mr. Jones said. The Blues had asked for approval of a 12.8 percent increase that would have brought $125 million in new money, he said. The 1977 increase brings the total Blues increase in the last three years to more than 62 percent. The new rates will hit individual and group subscribers at different times as their contract anniversary dates come up.

Saturday, June 4

CUBA INFORMED THE United States Friday that it plans to release immediately 10 American prisoners held on drug charges and will review the cases of 20 others, including seven American political prisoners. The State Department coupled news of the prisoner release with an announcement that the two countries will exchange diplomats for the first time in 16 years. U.S. officials described the latest developments as major steps toward improving relations between Washington and Havana.

A DISTURBANCE erupted in a west side Chicago park Saturday after a Puerto Rican day demonstration. Two persons were shot to death and at least 49 injured. Looting was reported, and a discount store was set on fire, authorities said. The problems began at Humboldt Park, where authorities said at least nine persons, including the two dead persons, were shot.

Monday, June 6

ROCKETS FIRED FROM Zambia during the weekend blasted a hole in an Army barracks and scattered shrapnel throughout the Rhodesian border military town of Kariba, the Rhodesian military command reported Sunday. At least two persons were reported slightly injured. The Army Sunday beefed up its forces in the dense woods around the lakeside resort and military sources said Rhodesia will respond vigorously if there are any more attacks.

Tuesday, June 7

JOHN MITCHELL and H. R. Haldeman were ordered Monday to start serving their Watergate prison sentences June 22, yet another step in the scandal that toppled a president. Nearly five years after the break-ins, U.S. District Judge John Sirica rejected petitions for delay during a four-minute proceeding attended by both Mitchell, the former attorney general, and Haldeman, Richard Nixon's former chief of staff. During the brief hearing, Judge Sirica signed an order committing the men to prison. No pleas were made by their lawyers in court and neither man spoke.

Firemen in Park Have 3 Busy Days

Trio of Blazes Brings Needed Assistance from Mutual Aid Partners

Three fires occurred in as many days in The Park on Sunday-Tuesday, May 29-31, according to information released by Fire Chief Phillip Costa. The chief said the first fire was caused without assistance from The City, which normally responds automatically to any Park alarm; the second was a three-alarm blaze, to which City and Farms firefighters responded; and the third, a four-alarm fire, required the assistance of City, Farms and Woods personnel. In the three-alarm, two City firefighters were slightly hurt. Steven Madar fell through the roof of a house and sprained his wrist, and Alfred Fincham suffered slight burns on the back of his legs after sliding on the hot roof. Views Vandalized Firefighter Madar was treated at Bon Secours and released, but Firefighter Fincham did not require medical attention, according to an official report. Chief Costa said the May 29 alarm was for a garage fire at the rear of the property occupied by Mary Bahalis, of 1221 Nottingham road. It was believed to have been started by vandals setting fire to a pile of trash against the garage building. The chief said the blaze (Continued on Page 4)

Find Bodies In Double Drowning

Deaths of Couple Ruled Accidental in First Such Incident in Farms' History

By Tom Greenwood
A funeral Mass for the victims of an accidental double drowning in Lake St. Clair was held Saturday, June 4, at Saint Paul-on-the-Lakeshore Church. The tragedy, which claimed the lives of William T. Kane Jr. and his wife, Barbara, marked the first accidental double drowning in the history of The Farms. Mr. Kane, 38, and his wife, 36, were last seen alive about 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, May 28, when they left the Pier Park in their newly purchased used boat. The craft was spotted 30 minutes later circling an intake buoy about 200 yards out from the harbor. The Kanes were not on board. An immediate search of the area by the Coast Guard and Wayne County Sheriff's Water Patrol proved fruitless. Boat Checked Mrs. Kane's body was found Tuesday, May 31, by the Detroit Harbor Master near the Ambassador Bridge. Mr. Kane's body was recovered the next day by the Coast Guard near the Rouge River. Post mortem examinations showed both had drowned. William T. Kane Sr. and Carl Hedeon, Mrs. Kane's father, identified the bodies. Police said a marine engineer checked the yellow, 18-foot speedboat, ironically christened "The Lucky 1," and stated the motor would still be because of a loose fuel line. He also said the accelerator would sometimes open up without moving the throttle. The opening of the accelerator would cause the boat to suddenly jolt forward at a high rate of speed, possibly knocking the young Lewiston road couple into the water. The vessel was circling the intake buoy at about 10-12 mph when the Coast Guard boarded it. Six orange life vests sold with the boat were still on board. Met at U-D Mr. Kane was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and came to Michigan on a football scholarship to the University of Detroit. After being injured in his freshman year, he turned to coaching at U-D and was one of the youngest football coaches in the U.S. He also was a member of (Continued on Page 6)

School Board Resolution Gets Support

Wayne County School District Representatives Adopt Locally Approved Measure Against Proposed Teacher Licensure Bill

By Susan McDonald
Representatives from all 36 Wayne County school districts last week took a united stand against a proposed teacher licensure bill, adopting a resolution written and approved by the Pointe Board of Education in April.

The resolution was approved at the Thursday, June 2, meeting of the Wayne County Assoc. of School Boards in opposition to House Bill, (HB), 4242.

Pointe Trustee Joan Hanpeter, who authored the resolution, said she found the association's action significant because it indicates the systems are beginning to work together.

"This is about the first time I know of that all Wayne County districts have done anything in concert," Mrs. Hanpeter said.

Commission Viewed "School districts are very independent, and I like them that way, but we must work together on some issues."

The Michigan Education Assoc., (MEA), backed bill calls for the establishment of a seven-member commission to set professional standards and license the state's teachers.

The proposed commission would include five teachers, recommended by the MEA, and other large teacher unions, and two members of the public, appointed by the State Board of Education.

The Board statement reads in part, "We do not favor HB 4242 because we are opposed to the control of public education by a special interest group."

"If the bill were passed in its present form, public school teachers would receive self-licensing and policing powers," it continues. The bill was jointly introduced by 32 representatives in early March and is currently being considered by a House sub-committee on education.

Defends Proposals The panel it calls for would promulgate rules and standards for licensing teachers. (Continued on Page 8)

Driver Suffers Multiple Fractures in Accident

A St. Clair Shores motorist who should not have been driving, crashed his pickup truck into two trees on the front lawn of the Shores Municipal Building Tuesday, May 31, according to an official accident report. The driver suffered six fractured ribs and fractures of both arms, it was disclosed by doctors at Saint John Hospital.

Injured was Walter Lawrence Supanich, 44, of 29336 Rosebriar, who was conveyed to the hospital by Shores ambulance. Damage to the man's vehicle was total, officers said.

The impact was such that it caved in the front end of the pickup, jamming both doors so tight that the use of a pry bar to open them was unsuccessful.

Voters to Choose Two Candidates

Polls at 10 Elementary Schools Will Be Open from 7 a.m.-8 p.m.

By Susan McDonald

Local control of schools, curriculum improvements and teacher-administration relations have become major issues in the race to fill two Board of Education seats in the Monday, June 13, annual election.

Voters will choose between eight candidates, including Barbara Youngs, Frances Twiddy, Paul M. Quint, Paul McCarthy, Dorothy Kennel, Laurance Harwood, Richard Robbins and Ann Ardussi.

Polls at 10 local elementary schools will be open from 7 a.m.-8 p.m. The League of Women Voters will make available non-partisan voter guides at the polls as well as at local libraries.

In the wake of a bitter, year-long contract dispute, discussions of mistrust and a poor working relationship between local teachers and the Board have dominated candidate meetings thus far.

The conflict has figured largely in several candidate platforms, and two former teachers running for trustee seats have been attacked because of their past or present association with the teacher's union, the Grosse Pointe Education Assoc., (GPEA).

An incumbent candidate, Mr. Harwood, said at the PTO Council forum Tuesday, May 31, he doubts the ability of a former GPEA member to be objective in dealing with teachers. Current Board President Robert Warner and Trustee William Huetteman both voiced similar concerns at that meeting.

Unity Church Sets Meeting

An open meeting concerning future plans for the Punch and Judy Theater will be held tonight, June 9, at the theater, 21 Kercheval avenue, by members of the Unity Church, according to Unity Church Minister Jack Boland.

Beginning at 8 p.m., members of the church will be on hand to discuss their plans for the theater and adjoining buildings and to answer questions from concerned citizens. Robert G. Edgar, one of the present owners of the theater, is scheduled to participate.

The Unity Church has entered into a contract to purchase the Punch and Judy, and as prospective buyers, must appear before the Farms Council. Their appearance before the council is scheduled for Monday evening, June 20, beginning at 8 p.m.

According to Mr. Boland, the meeting at the theater is being held to dispel "rumors and misinformation that have circulated about the nature of our church and its membership."

(Continued from Page 1) position, said, in response, that an educator could bring a much needed balance to the Board.

"Teacher morale is at an all-time low," she said. "We have to stop looking at teachers and administrators as antagonists."

"Both groups work for the same thing—the good of the children. If an ex-school teacher were on the Board, maybe the two groups would be better able to work together."

Responds to Charge

Also labeled with the potential conflict of interest was Mrs. Twiddy. She retired several years ago from an English teaching position and her husband is still employed by the system.

She responded to the charge by pointing out that past Board President William Adams served while his wife was employed by the system and that Mr. Warner's wife also works on a part-time basis at the schools.

Her working understanding of the system and the staff will help her resolve some of the conflicts between the Board and teachers, Mrs. Twiddy said.

But the two former teachers are not the only candidates concerned with the working climate in the schools.

An insurance man, Richard Robbins calls the teacher morale problem "top priority" in improving the system.

"The cardinal need right now is to bring to all groups an atmosphere of understanding and trust," he said at the Tuesday forum.

Cites "Rough Time"

Mrs. Ardussi, a housewife who has been associated through much of the campaign with Mr. Harwood, said the school system "needs more effective communication between concerned groups to promote understanding, cooperation and common goals."

Mrs. Youngs proposes treating "teachers as the professionals they are" to help resolve the dispute.

"I think these teachers should get a little more credit," she said. "I'd like to point out that none of our teachers left the school with blackboard flu last year, although they were having a very rough time," she said.

On the other hand, Paul McCarthy has expressed a mistrust of the teachers union, and sees the state union's attempt to promote regional bargaining as a threat to local control.

Mrs. Ardussi also has expressed concerns about repressed concerns about retaining local management of the system.

In her campaign literature, which also includes her recipe for spaghetti, she warns that "Pointers must remain vigilant against forces that would have us combine into larger political units."

Work Together

"I believe a larger voter population means a less responsible body of elected officials—our children's education is too important to give up local control."

Mrs. Twiddy takes a different view of the control issue.

"The best thing we can do to maintain local control is to get off our pedestals and start working together," she said.

"Then maybe we can avoid bringing an outsider in to settle our contracts," she added, referring to the fact that a state-appointed fact-finder's report was used as the basis for the recent teacher contract settlement.

Suggestions for improvement of curriculum during the campaign have centered on vocational and English areas.

Mr. Harwood, a retiree who is anxious to represent that group on the Board, says the schools "must do better for non-college bound students" by providing vocational programs.

English Skills

Mrs. Youngs said the South High School industrial arts complex, which serves as the center for many vocational courses there, is in "sorry shape" and should be rebuilt.

Development of English skills have been important aspects of both the Ardussi and Twiddy campaigns.

"The ability to read and comprehend efficiently is the most important skill needed to acquire knowledge," according to Mrs. Ardussi. "We must insure that students are given the foundation for learning and the skills necessary to communicate."

Mrs. Twiddy, who still serves as executive secretary of the Michigan Council of Teachers of English, promises a strong, knowledgeable emphasis on improving the English program.

She also is pushing for changes in the evaluation system for Pointe teachers.

"Getting tenure after just one and a half hours of supervision is not sufficient evaluation," she said.

Mr. Quint didn't attend any of the forums or respond to any questionnaires, sources report.

Child Safety Program Subject of Two Meetings

By Roger A. Waha

A progress report on the status of the community-wide child safety program, coordinated by the Youth Service Division (YSD), was viewed at meetings between YSD officers and school officials on Thursday, June 2, at school offices.

Two sessions were held between division detectives and Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, assistant superintendent-instruction and the School Board's representative on the YSD's board of managers. One was with the 10 elementary school principals and the other with the three middle school principals.

"We discussed the Emergency 'E' program and the responsibility of the school system," said Dr. Spagnoli. "The general impression from the YSD and the principals was that each PTO at the elementary school level should have someone responsible for the coordination of the program."

He noted the draft of suggested guidelines for the program, prepared by YSD Det. Patrick Fagan, were distributed to principals needing them. "I also asked for additional copies of the booklet to be sent to the Board of Education last week," added Dr. Spagnoli.

"We rehearsed the program and where we stood, and advised them of what we have done," said Det. Fagan. He said the principals were told that Emergency "E" cards and bumper stickers saying, "Kids, Don't Go with Strangers," are available at all local police departments, including Harper Woods.

He assessed the sessions as primarily an update as to where the program stands, while noting, "No one expressed any particular problems or complaints."

Hopefully, he added, a poll will be taken sometime during the summer as to the number of "E" cards in the community.

For his part, YSD Det. Wayne Baum indicated that the entire scope of the program was reviewed with an emphasis upon making certain it is initiated in each of the Pointes and Harper Woods. He said it appears to be going well, and wants each of the PTO's to become completely involved.

Woods Det. Lt. Jack Patterson echoed this positive reaction, while citing the need for the program to continue on an ongoing basis.

The YSD office reports that pamphlets viewing the child molester and providing safety tips for parents can be obtained. At the same time, division detectives are available to speak to any group or organization on the subject of child safety.

For further information, call the YSD office at 886-2908.

Ghana Project Big Success

The combined efforts of North and South High Schools to help build a middle school in Agona, Ghana, West Africa were a huge success thanks to recent fund raising efforts.

Both high schools had each donated $650 from their student activities treasuries. Their $1,300 was matched by funds from the local Catholic Churches and the Peace Corps.

These monies were added to those raised by the local villagers' efforts in Agona by selling sand and stones to builders in the area.

A "night of fun" in April began with the showing of the movie "Funny Lady" at North and ended at South with a dance featuring the band "Contraband."

Tom Rousseau, North's Student Assoc. president, and Greg Jay, South's president, organized the event. The monies raised were then used to reimburse each school's treasury.

Park Officer Becomes PSO

By James J. Njaim

Michael C. Kortas, 33, an eight-year veteran of the Park Police Department, switched allegiance from The Park to The Shores as of Wednesday, June 1, according to information released by Shores Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale.

Unlike in The Park, Shores officers function as both policemen and firemen.

The new public safety officer, who served a four-year hitch with the United States Marine Corps before joining The Park department on April 24, 1968, will be on probation for one year, the same as any recruit who is appointed to the Shores Public Safety Department, the director said.

Officer Kortas comes well qualified as both a police officer, by virtue of his service with The Park department, and as a certified firefighter, which he gained via training in aircraft fire rescue while with the Marines, said Director Vitale.

However, the officer will still have to undergo some aspects of fire training, but will not have to undertake a complete retraining course, he added.

Officer Kortas and his wife, Diane Marie, are residents of East Detroit. They are the parents of two children, Christina, 6, and Kimberly, 4.

PSO Kortas, who comes highly recommended, filled a vacancy created by the retirement of Sgt. Donald Jacob, who had to leave the department because of failing health.

"Officer Kortas is a welcome addition to our department," said Director Vitale. "We are very fortunate to get a man of his calibre and I know that he will be an asset to both the public safety department and to our community."

"Although he must serve one year as a probationary officer, he is an experienced police officer and fireman, but still must undergo some training, to bring him up to date on present day firefighting techniques."

"His past training with the Marine Corps will stand him in good stead. He fits into our department very easily."

PSO Kortas continuously renewed and retained his certification as a firefighter since his discharge from the Marine Corps, it was disclosed.

Linda Schmidt Is Top Student

North High School senior Linda Schmidt has been awarded numerous honors for outstanding scholarship and co-curricular activities including a $1,000 four-year Student Life Merit Scholarship from Oakland University.

Joe Devine, North High counselor, said Linda has maintained an overall 3.9 honor point average at North while serving as a tutor and teacher's aide at Barnes School and playing in the clarinet trio that received the First Division Award at the Michigan Solo and Ensemble Festival.

She was awarded a Phi Beta Kappa certificate at the May Ford Auditorium Convention and received a Gold Key for her dramatic script in the "Detroit News" scholastic writing competition of 1973, as well as honorable mentions and commendations for poetry and literary articles she has entered recently.

In the Math Competitive Exams for the state, Linda scored among the top four percent. In addition, she was awarded the U.S. History Award presented by North's social studies department for outstanding scholastic achievement.

GPT Concludes Busiest Season with 'Cabaret'

Grosse Pointe Theater, (GPT), concludes its 29th—and busiest—season with a 10-night run of the hit musical, "Cabaret." Opening yesterday, June 8, the show will run consecutively through Saturday, June 18, except for Monday, June 13.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. but will be 7:30 p.m. for the Sunday and both Thursday performances, (June 9, 12 and 16).

The show is GPT's fifth in a season that also included hosting a successful convention last month for more than 200 members of the Community Theatre Assoc. of Michigan, (CTAM).

The award-winning musical is based on Christopher Isherwood's "Berlin Stories" and the 1951 Broadway adaptation, "I Am a Camera." A look at chaotic Berlin during the rise of Hitler, "Cabaret" uses novel stage techniques and memorable characters to show the coming disaster in very human terms.

One such character, the unsettling Master of Ceremonies, serves throughout the play as welcome, observer and mirror of everyone's reactions to the irreversible flow of events. The role catapulted Joel Grey to stardom when the show opened on Broadway in 1968.

Director John Diebel, of University place, sees the MC as only one of the play's original and brilliant conceptions.

"The MC is the perfect device for keeping the audience involved and aware that what happened almost 50 years ago should never be forgotten," Mr. Diebel says. "His reappearances constantly pick at any complacency we might have about the story that's developing."

"But other ideas used by the creators also add to the sense of involvement—the mirror, the tacky Kit Klub and the basic structure of the play. It builds as it goes, until we know and understand why the ending is, (and was), inevitable."

"There are few musicals that move so easily and skillfully through moods that are alternately funny and serious, stimulating and chilling."

Directing his second GPT production, Mr. Diebel has appeared in nearly 20 of the group's shows and stage managed several others. A member of the GPT board of directors, his most recent roles were the Common Man in "A Man for All Seasons," General Burgoyne in "The Devil's Disciple" and Alfred P. Doolittle in "My Fair Lady."

Another veteran performer and director, Robert McKenna, of St. Clair Shores, is the show's producer. Equally at home in small roles, ("The Imaginary Invalid" and "A Man for All Seasons"), and lead parts ("Inherit the Wind," "The Man Who Came to Dinner" and "My Fair Lady"), Mr. McKenna has directed five GPT productions.

Stage manager Chancey Miller, of St. Clair Shores, has twice won GPT awards for his handling of this job, and is a board member of the CTAM.

The technical director for "Cabaret" is Charles Christian, of Harper Woods. In his 14 years with GPT, he has built at least eight productions and has served on the board of directors.

Arlene Schoenherr, of Lakepointe avenue, is again serving as choreographer, a demanding task she first undertook with last season's "Applause." She has appeared on stage in nearly all GPT musicals for the past decade.

David McDonald, of Sterling Heights, also is repeating the dual function he handled on "Applause"—as vocal and musical director. He made his GPT stage debut in the season opener, "A Little Night Music."

Others on the staff include costumes, Mrs. Walter Maher, of Whittier road, and Cheryl Berteel, of Sterling Heights; props and set dressing, Mrs. Gwen Samuel, of Moran road, and Mrs. Dennis Wickline, of Detroit; make-up, Barbara Trudel, of Nottingham road, and Kathleen Grabruck, of Detroit; lighting, Dale Pegg, of Fairholme drive; sound, Dennis Wickline, of Detroit; and set design, Harry Albertson, of Warren.

Appearing as the MC is Don Ross, of Warren, a familiar performer who has acted, danced and sung many GPT plays and musicals. The legendary Sally Bowles is played by Mrs. Arthur Rutledge, of Detroit, who again sings the title song, as she did in her GPT debut, in "Applause."

The role of Clifford Bradshaw, (the autobiographical Isherwood), is performed by Ciro Vitale, of Roseville. Another veteran musical performer, he recently appeared as the stammering Billy of "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest."

Mrs. John Diebel, of University place, brings 14 years of GPT work as actress, singer and director to the part of Fraulein Schneider. Herr Schultz is played by Albert Berteel, of Warner road, who has played a wide variety of roles in his more than 20 years with GPT.

Ernst Ludwig, the nice-guy-turned-Nazi, is played by Clarke Scholes, of Alter road, a 13-year member of GPT. Appearing as the scandalous Fraulein Kost is Mrs. Lois Bendler, of St. Clair Shores. The most recent of her many GPT shows was "A Little Night Music."

Other Pointers in the cast include Duncan Erley, of Three Mile drive, Jon Hart, of Roslyn road, Michele Karl, of St. Clair avenue; Mrs. Jac Purdon, of Village lane; Geraldine Reeves, of Ridge road; and Aden Russell, of Sunningdale drive.

GPT is sorry to announce that tickets to "Cabaret" are virtually unavailable—but is grateful to all of its patrons for the support that has made the season successful, and this show a sellout.

GP Park Firefighters Have Three Busy Days

 was extinguished in about 20 minutes, but not before the rear wall of the building was burned and scorched. No other damage was reported.
 This led to a warning from the chief to all residents—do not pile trash or debris against or near buildings of any type because there are always persons tempted to set them ablaze.

 A fire of this nature can easily spread to other property, especially if there is a high wind blowing, he added.
 The other two fires were of a more serious nature and took longer to bring under control and put out, Chief Costa said.
Wasted Time
 The May 30 alarm was sounded at 3:27 p.m. and the fire had a good start because of the difficulty Park and City firemen had in trying to enter a house at 589 Pemberton road, occupied by Florence Flora.
 Time was wasted when the firefighters tried to force their way through a front door, which was blocked by furnishings. They had to enter by chopping a hole through the roof and the Farms Fire Department was called to assist.
 The Park dispatched six on-duty and four off-duty men and all equipment. The City sent four men and two fire trucks and The Farms, four men and one fire truck. The Shores dispatched a fire engine to cover for The City for the duration of the fire.

 The chief said the fire, of an unknown origin, originated in a bedroom and adjoining bathroom. It was a full hour before the flames were brought under control and put out. Firemen were at the scene for nearly three hours before they returned to their respective stations.
 Chief Costa said the fire was confined to the bedroom and bathroom, but it had burned through the ceiling into the attic. There was extensive smoke and heat damage throughout the house.
 On May 31, at 7:25 p.m., a Lakepointe resident phoned in an alarm that a gasoline service station, owned by Anthony Joseph, located at Kercheval and Lakepointe, was on fire.
 Park and City firefighters and equipment arrived at the station to find it closed for the evening. The firemen had to force open the large overhead doors to enter.
 They found this fire, also of unknown origin, had started in the storage room, where many cartons of engine oil and other combustible materials were stored.

Chief Costa said because of the nature of the fire, and the possibility that the flames might spread to the gas pumps and tanks, a third and fourth alarm were called in to The Farms and Woods for assistance.
 At the scene, The Park had seven men and all equipment, including its ambulance. The City had five men and its two fire engines, The Farms, five men, an engine and ladder truck, and The Woods, five men, an engine and the snorkel truck.
 Chief Costa said the new type of paper cans, with metal end covers, containing the oil, burned easily and fiercely, causing the fire to extend itself.

A tow truck had to be pulled out of the building before the firefighters could battle the searing flames, which they brought under control in about 30 minutes, with all firemen concentrating on the storage room.
 The Park firemen remained at the scene for three hours, but the other fire departments were permitted to return to their stations at 8:05 p.m.—with the thanks of Chief Costa for their aid.
Ready to Assist
 "It is very difficult to say how much I appreciate the assistance from The City, Farms and Woods," said Chief Costa. "I know for a certainty that without their help we would have had a much harder time in putting out the last two fires."
 "The situations being what they were in both of these fires, we again note how much the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Mutual Fire Aid Pact means when we are in a desperate spot and need help. The other departments are ready to help us at any time, just as we are ready to assist them when they need us."

Suffers Multiple Fractures

 to the accident scene, while PSO Darlington raced to the ambulance. The policemen found Supanich unable to move. The report did not disclose whether the man was or was not unconscious.
 At the side of the building, the officers said they found that Supanich first ran into a tree 12" in diameter, while the truck was wedged against another tree, 5 1/2" in diameter.
 A resident of Pear Tree lane, who witnessed the accident, told authorities he had seen Supanich traveling south on Lakeshore road, and as he approached the traffic signal light, Supanich's truck began to wobble and swerve to the right.

 It then left the roadway and knocked down a Vernier road sign 12 feet north of 799 Lakeshore. The driver then continued across the front lawn of the municipal building, hit one tree, continued another 95 feet and struck the second tree before coming to a stop.
 When the accident victim is released from the hospital, he will find violation tickets waiting for him. He is charged with failing to stop within an assured clear distance ahead, and another for operating a motor vehicle without a valid Michigan operator's license.
 The report from Saint John disclosed that not only did Supanich suffer the multiple fractures, but that he also is subject to epileptic seizures.
 Shores authorities sent a report to the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing requesting that Supanich's driving ability be re-examined.

THE PARK PHARMACY Footnotes
 by Fred Seltzer R.Ph.
 THE PARK PHARMACY

The widespread use of frozen foods is one of the major changes in the food industry. Results of studies show that there is only slight loss in nutrient value of freshly frozen foods. The high retention of vitamin C in frozen citrus juices makes these concentrates a dependable source of one of the nutrients commonly lacking in American diets. Failing to serve vegetables immediately after cooking, storing fruits and vegetables improperly, throwing away the greens and skins of vegetables, using large amounts of cooking water—these waste natural nutrients.
 Make sure your family diet includes the nutrients for good health! Visit THE PARK PHARMACY, 15324 East Jefferson, Grosse Pointe Park, for quality vitamins, minerals and other food supplements. We also have a complete professional prescription department offering prompt, personalized and dependable service. Our friendly pharmacists are always happy to advise you and answer questions on medications. Stop in for greeting cards, convalescent aids, baby supplies, and liquor, beer or wine. We are open daily from 9 A.M. until 8 P.M., Fridays and Saturdays until 9 P.M., and Sundays from 10 A.M. until 3 P.M. Call us at 822-2580.

Girls Facing R/A Charge
Three 17-year-old girls were arraigned on robbery charges (R/A), charges before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis on Thursday, June 2, for their alleged involvement in robbing a man who had picked up the hitchhiking trio early Wednesday morning, June 1, in Detroit. Those charged in the incident are two girls from Roseville, Sheryl Lynn Woodring and Sandra Lynn Brasure, and one girl from Fraser, Laure Ann Trexilis, police said. All three stood mute at their arraignment and a plea of not guilty was entered in their behalf. They were then transported to the Wayne County Jail after a $5,000 bond, two sureties each or 10 percent, was set. Their examination was scheduled for yesterday, June 8, reported Det. Charles Philip Hamel. The complainant, a Detroit man, said, after picking up the girls, he ultimately drove the trio to the rear of Parcels School, 20600 Mack avenue, to drop them off. At this time, the girls produced two pocket knives and a night stick, while demanding his wallet and car. He said he gave them his wallet, containing around $13 in cash. When they began to argue, he jumped from the auto, ran to the Jack in the Box restaurant, 20599 Mack, and called police. Officer Paul Shields broadcast the description of the vehicle and the suspects and, a short time later, Officers Ronald Hayden and Donald Sun found the 1977 car in front of a Christine court residence. At the same time, Woods police learned that Harper Woods officers had apprehended three girls matching the description which was broadcast. They proved to be the trio allegedly involved in the incident. At the Woods station, two pocket knives, cash, clothing and other articles were confiscated from the girls, while the night stick was found in the car.

ANN ARDUSSI
The Independent Candidate for Grosse Pointe Board of Education
Ann believes in...
• LOCAL CONTROL
Local control is one of the key issues in this campaign. I believe in local control of our schools. We have the power to avoid loss of local control by remaining vigilant against forces that would have us combine into larger political units. When a community loses control of its schools and government through dilution of voter power, or where citizen indifference allows elected officials to be unaccountable, bureaucratic units become self-perpetuating and citizen groups form to deal with elected representatives. Our children's education is too important to give up local control.
• BASIC ENGLISH SKILLS
"I believe in the importance of basic skills in reading and writing. Every instructor must have a responsibility to be involved in helping students communicate effectively. We must insure that students are given the foundation for learning and the skills necessary to communicate."
• FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY
"I believe in the need for fiscal responsibility. I believe fiscal responsibility means following through with a program of responsible budgeting, effective controls on costs, and timely evaluation of results by the Board of Education."
• LIBRARIES
"I believe in the great value of our public libraries to our community. Their programs must be strengthened and supported."
I am a member of Friends of the Library
• IMPROVED COMMUNICATION
"I believe in response to public concerns about education. Response to public concern should be a matter of positive acts, not defensive maneuvering. As a member of the Board, I would make myself available to all groups for discussions. The strength of concerned groups in Grosse Pointe is the basis for many of the positive things that happen in our schools."
ARDUSSI CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE
"We support the candidacy of Ann Ardussi for the Grosse Pointe Board of Education and urge all our friends to vote for her in the election on Monday, June 13th."

Park Judge Urso Will Not Seek Second Term
In a letter to Mayor Matthew C. Patterson and the city council, Park Municipal Judge John R. Urso announced his intention not to seek re-election this fall. The judge will complete his first and only four-year term in January.

Pair to Face Murder Trial
Two men who are charged with first degree murder in the slaying of a Woods man in January, were bound over to Macomb County Circuit Court for trial. This action was taken after the examination of two Louisiana men, Donald B. Clements, 30, and James A. Dunn, 34, concluded on Wednesday June 1, after four days of testimony which began the latter part of May, said St. Clair Shores Police Sgt. William Hannah. The suspects are currently being held in the Macomb County Jail, pending their circuit court arraignment date. They were extradited in April from Pittsburgh, Pa., to Macomb County for the murder of Jack Whiteley, 60, whose body was found at the Shorian Motor Inn, 20000 Nine Mile road. The pair were arrested in early February in a Pittsburgh cafe after police spotted an illegally parked pickup truck which matched a description given by Michigan authorities in the incident. Police had earlier learned from witnesses that the suspects were motel guests, who gave Louisiana addresses and who had arrived in a pickup with Louisiana license plates. After officers traced the vehicle's plates, an all-points bulletin was put out. The extradition of the pair was approved by a Pittsburgh judge after a hearing was held on Michigan's request.

It's Only Natural

There has been a lot of talk about high fiber food these days. Especially now that we have many convenience foods that have been processed and smoothed out so that they are very easy to digest, there is some question whether or not our digestive system is getting enough exercise. Some claim also that in the long run, fibrous foods will save us money. They can serve to displace the most expensive portion of the diet, meat. They are in themselves less expensive than processed foods. Finally, they are very filling and will satisfy anyone's appetite with less food. So, for the health of your body and your pocket-book, add fiber to your life. The knowledgeable people at VIM & VIGOR HEALTH FOODS, 21151 Mack, 886-9466 invite you to come in and talk to us about your health needs; we'll treat you to a cup of herb tea while we talk. If you would like professional naturopathic consultation for nutritional guidance, please call for an appointment. Hours: 9:30-9 Mon.-Sat.; 11-5 Sun. HEALTH TIP: For more fiber, try a fresh orange in the morning instead of orange juice.

Judge Urso, who was elected to office in November 1973, cited his plans to enter the private practice of law. He expressed his appreciation to the mayor and council for their cooperation, and recommended that they consider the possibility of a District Court System for The Pointe. Mr. Patterson's term also will expire in January, as will that of Councilmen Douglas Graham and George Verdoneck and Councilwoman Camille Peterson. The mayor's tenure is for two years, while councilmen serve for four years.

City Clerk Nunzio J. Ortisi said that petitions from persons seeking the post of judge, mayor and councilmen must be presented with at least 25 signatures and filed by 4 p.m., Tuesday, June 14, at his office in the Municipal Building, 15115 East Jefferson avenue.

If enough petitions are received to warrant a primary election, this will be held in August. The regular election is held in November, with the successful candidates taking their oath of office in January 1978.

The mayor and council members serve without compensation. The judge's salary is $6,000 a year.

He was the owner of Kane and Co., a supplier of class rings and graduation announcements.

Mrs. Kane was a graduate of the University of Detroit, where she met her husband, and worked as an art instructor at Mason School before her marriage.

The Kanes had two daughters, Kelly, 11, and Kerry, 7. According to their uncle, Robert Kane, of Philadelphia, Pa., the girls "have done some crying, but they're holding up pretty well."

"Children are amazingly resilient at that age," he said.

Mr. Kane had praise for his brother's neighbors, saying, "The citizens of Grosse Pointe responded fantastically to our tragedy. It's a shame I had to come from Philadelphia under these circumstances to meet such wonderful people." The children are currently being cared for by Mrs. Kane's parents, who reside in The Shores.

A rosary for the Kanes was recited at the A. H. Peters Funeral Home on Friday, June 3. They were buried side-by-side at Resurrection Cemetery the next day.

All the city offices contacted have received Dr. Coats' letter, dated Monday, May 16, but some don't plan to consider the issue until late June or July.

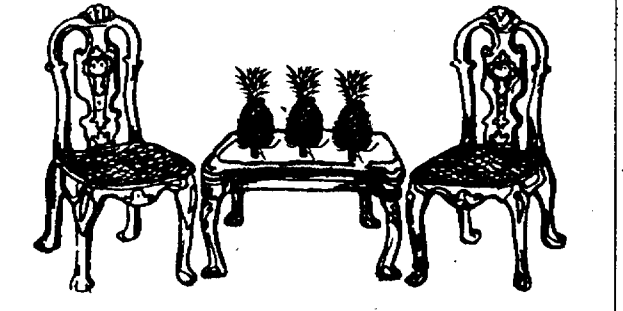

Dr. Coats' letter states that if the plan is implemented, "the interest now being paid for such borrowing could be used to provide educational opportunities for students."

The summer collection proposal has been raised recently by a few candidates running for Monday, June 13, election to the Board of Education, Assistant to the Superintendent Dr. George T. Eddington said the issue has come up several times in the past years but has never been formally acted on.

Youth Nabbed In MDP Case

A 13-year-old Harper Woods boy, who threw a smoke bomb into the interior of a parked car, will be placed on the Youth Service Division, (YSD), counseling program with restitution forthcoming, reported YSD Det. Wayne Baum last week.

The incident, malicious destruction of property, (MDP), was reported to Woods police on Monday afternoon, May 30, by a 24-year-old Park citizen, who was visiting at an Ida Lane home.

He told Officer Robert Kwiatkowski he observed the boy throw the smoke bomb, which burned a hole in the velour front seat. The man pursued the boy, who attempted to escape from the area on his orange three-speed bicycle.

After stopping him at Manchester boulevard and Chester, the boy said he lived in Huntington road, Harper Woods, and gave what proved to be a fictitious street number. The boy ultimately escaped from the following complainant by cycling along the I-94 expressway via the pedestrian walkway.

Later that day, however, the complainant's mother spotted an orange bike outside a party store at Manchester and Harper. Det. Baum said her follow-through at this point with store employees led to the identity of the youth.

The detective added he talked with the boy, who admitted his involvement in the incident, and his parents on Wednesday, June 1, and the decision was reached to place the boy on the counseling program.

Whittier Hosts SH Stage Band

South High School's Stage Band, under the direction of music director Russell Reed, entertained about 300 persons on Wednesday, June 8, at the Whittier Towers retirement center, in Jefferson avenue.

The occasion was the Whittier's second annual Resident's Banquet held in the former hotel's Crystal Ballroom.

The students performed a number of big band era songs for the retirees and their guests.

Guard Battles Biting Woman

A J. C. Penney security officer in the Seven-Mack Shopping Center battled a woman shoplifter and received three bite wounds for his efforts Tuesday evening, May 31, according to a Woods police report.

Officer Carl Schuster received a run on the man chasing the woman through the shopping center area but met with negative results in locating the suspect, who escaped with a shopping bag, contents unknown.

The security officer said he spotted the woman placing pants suits in another shopping bag before leaving the store. After identifying himself, he requested that she re-enter the store.

At this point, the suspect handed him a bag later found to contain seven women's pants suits, valued at around $163.60, that she had taken without paying. She wouldn't let him have the other bag.

The woman then began pulling the security officer in the direction of Woolworth's and a struggle ensued. Saying she was pregnant, the man said he didn't use much force.

While in front of Lerner's Shop in the Seven-Mack complex, the security officer stated he was bitten on the left forearm, right hand and on his chest, police said.

After breaking away, the suspect ran south along Mack with the man giving chase but he ultimately lost her, while the woman lost her right shoe.

Officer Schuster noted that teeth marks and blood were prominent on the man, who was advised to seek medical treatment.

The suspect was described as black, around 5'8" tall and between 160-170 pounds. She had black medium length wavy hair and was wearing a blue bandana, a blue or beige shirt, white shorts and blue shoes.

Advice Offered on Preventing Burglaries

citizens are becoming more aware. People are taking precautions. "It can't happen to me" is no longer the attitude. This type of approach can pay off."

Contrary to popular belief, the average thief is not a member of a professional burglary ring. He's under 25, of normal intelligence, minimally educated and has a history of juvenile trouble.

"The average burglar is usually not an ambitious, hard working person. That's why he's a sneak thief," said Agent Mull. "He will probably by-pass homes hard to negotiate, and move to houses posing less problems security wise."

"Fully 20 percent of all vandalized homes are left unlocked. That's why we call them 'crimes of opportunity.' Home owners should protect their homes internally and externally to stop rip-off artists."

Outside protection of homes begins with installing fences, wherever possible. Trim shrubs away from windows, so intruders are not hidden from view. Exterior lights are recommended, especially in back and hidden areas of the home. Don't use the lights only on nights you are away, this only advertises your absence.

Obtaining a dog always adds to home security. They can create a lot of noise, but a determined burglar will find ways to by-pass them so don't depend entirely on a dog for household safety.

Don't store ladders outside. If you cannot put it safely inside, lock it securely. Suggest your neighbor do the same. Don't hide keys outside the door, under mats or in flower pots. If you can hide it, a burglar can find it. Store extra keys with trusted neighbors.

The most neglected area of home protection are garages. Thieves love garages. They contain boats, bikes, cycles, tools and other property on his shopping list.

In attached garages, replace hollow doors with solid types and install locks. Close and lock your garage doors, even while at home. Often burglars enter a garage, then the home, looting at leisure.

For internal security, place solid locks on doors and glass patio doors. Use tempered glass where possible. A simple and effective way to lock patio doors is to cut off an old broom handle to the proper length and fit it into the door track to prevent the sliding glass from being lifted up and out of the track.

Sixty-five percent of all burglars come through a home's doors, the rest pry up or break windows.

Have effective window locks. The commonly used latch can be opened too easily with a knife from the outside. A safe and effective lock can be made by drilling through the top of the bottom window sash and the bottom of the top sash and inserting a small nail into the hole.

Install alarm systems. The two basic categories are perimeter alarms and motion detectors. Perimeter alarms systems use forms of contact devices on doors, windows and other strategic locations around the home. This type of detector is not recommended for most homes because of its history of false alarms.

Motion detectors establish a "trap zone" within the home, but the intruder must be inside before these devices are effective. Motion detectors available include ultrasonic, radar, microwave, infrared photocell and passive infrared.

Both types of alarm systems can be tied in with local police departments or private security firms.

Use common sense when leaving for vacations. Have inside and outside lights on timers or photocells. Lights left on all day will stand out. Cancel deliveries of milk and newspapers. Ask the post office to hold your mail or have a neighbor pick up deliveries daily.

Make arrangements to have your lawn mowed, or snow shoveled from walks. Leave a second car parked in the driveway, and if neighbors are watching your home, have them reposition the car every day.

Put as many valuables as possible in safekeeping such as a safe deposit box. Don't discuss vacation plans in public, and don't publicize upcoming trips in local newspapers. Always notify the police to watch your home while away.

If, in spite of all precautions, your home is vandalized, don't panic, don't touch anything and call the police and your insurance agent. Don't clean up the ransacked area or touch it in any way.

A previously prepared inventory list of goods will help itemize stolen articles. Property engraved with social security or license numbers will make identification easier if recovered later. If a lock has been forcibly bypassed, take photos of the damaged area. Don't repair the damage until police and insurance agents have made their inspections.

If you suspect no force was used to gain entry, have a locksmith change the locks immediately. The burglar may have a duplicate of your key in his possession.

The best advice to prevent burglaries is for you and your neighbors to keep a watchful eye on your properties and the surrounding area.

Cooperative community efforts lessen criminal activities in concerned neighborhoods. Neighbors should share responsibilities in safeguarding a neighborhood. Report all suspicious persons to the police. Request adequate lighting on city streets and encourage neighbors to join in engraving property for future identification.

"Intruders do not operate in a vacuum," said Agent Mull. "He has pressures on him to complete his job quickly, quietly and in seclusion. Anything you can do to make him take more time, make noise or put fear into him will be a plus for your security program."

East Detroiter Awaits Trial

Frank Michael Aiuto, 23, of 18555 Michael, East Detroit, was bound over for trial at the next session of Wayne County Circuit Court by Shores Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis on Wednesday, May 25.

The suspect remains free on $2,000 bond pending his trial date.

Aiuto is charged in a warrant with third degree criminal sexual conduct in the attempted April 21 rape of a 22-year-old Shores woman on the front lawn of the woman's home.

The accused man, who stood mute at the examination, followed the woman through several Shores streets as she tried to elude him on the April 21 date shortly after 2 a.m., police said.

When the woman got out of her car in front of her home, Aiuto jumped out of his light colored van, clad only in a tee-shirt, and tackled the victim, according to the report.

The woman's screams and sounds of the struggle awakened her mother, sister and a neighbor. All three witnessed the struggle as the victim fought her assailant, who was frightened away when the trio went to her aid.

Aiuto was arrested by Woods public safety officers a short time later in front of Mason School, 1640 Vernier road, after Shores authorities broadcast a description of the would-be rapist and his vehicle. When arrested, Aiuto was fully clothed.

The victim positively identified Aiuto in a Wayne County Jail line-up as the man who attacked her.

If convicted of the charge, Aiuto can receive up to 15 years in prison, according to Shores Det. Sgt. Frank Mustazza, who was assigned to the case and who obtained the warrant against the accused man.

Resolution

cooperate with universities on teacher education curricula, develop criteria for accreditation of schools and review complaints against teachers.

Local Education Assoc. President Doris Cook defended the proposals saying, "Teachers feel a strong responsibility for their actions and the future of their profession."

"All other professions and trades, from doctors to plumbers and lawyers to barbers, have members on their licensing and certification boards," she said, adding that teachers currently "have no voice on who is granted a teaching certificate."

School Board Fetes Retirees

More than 500 friends and colleagues of public school and library staff members who are retiring this month paid tribute to them at an open house and reception hosted by the Board of Education on Wednesday, May 25.

During a social hour in the lobby of North High School, honored guests and Board trustees greeted visitors in a reception line.

Activity then shifted to the auditorium where Superintendent Dr. William Coats, Board President Robert Warner and the other trustees presented the retirees with a resolution, a certificate of retirement, a book, a lifelong public library card, and a "gold card" from the schools' Department of Community Services, entitling them to admission to various system activities.

Twenty-one employees who will leave the employ of the schools and libraries were honored at the reception.

Center Offers Variety Of Classes for Summer

Art, Bridge, Dance, (both Ballet and Ballroom), Karate and Nursery School are all included in the War Memorial's schedule of classes this summer.

There will be three art camps for children taught by Donald Schrom. Art Camp I is on weekdays, June 20-July 1, Art Camp II, July 5-15, and Art Camp III, July 18-28. In each camp, younger students ages five-nine meet from 9:10-10:30 a.m. and boys and girls ages 10-15 convene from 10:30-noon. Classes will meet outdoors on the lake side terrace whenever possible.

Pupils work in all media. Both the materials fee and tuition are the same as last year, $5 for materials, $30 for instruction. Art Camp II is only $27 due to the loss of one teaching day on July 4.

Memorial bridge lessons for beginners will start Wednesday, June 22 and continue on Wednesday nights through August 10 from 8-10 p.m. Mrs. Carrie Kiley, who teaches for the Board of Education through the winter, is the instructor.

The basics of the Goren system of contract bridge are taught for a fee of $12.50 for eight two-hour classes.

A refresher bridge course for those with basic knowledge of contract who wish to be brought up to date on bidding and the nuances of play, and who wish some introduction to duplicate bridge, will be held on Thursday nights, June 28-August 11, from 8-10 p.m.

Ballet classes for children, ages four through their teens, will be held Tuesdays through the days beginning June 28 and continuing through August 2. On the same dates in the evenings, classes will be held for adults.

The classes will be taught by Mary Ellen Cooper, master teacher of the Center's Corps de Ballet for the past two decades.

A graduate of the Royal Conservatory, Toronto, Miss Cooper is on the International Board of Directors of Teachers of the Cecchetti method, (traditional Italian ballet).

Those wishing to study with Miss Cooper are asked to come for interviews Saturday, June 25 between 10 a.m.-12 noon so they may be placed according to age and ability. The instructional fee is $15 for the six weeks summer session.

Two ballroom dancing clubs are scheduled this summer at the Center under the direction of Ted and Lillian Forrest. They will be held on Thursday evenings, June 23-August 18.

The group meeting from 7:30-8:30 p.m. will be for collegians, young adults and young marrieds and, in addition to basic ballroom, will include the latest in disco dancing. The group for the more mature single and married people will meet 8:30-9:30 p.m. Membership in both groups is $18.

Karate will be taught on the lake side lawn on Friday evenings, June 17-August 5, from 7-9 p.m. This class is taught by members of the Karate Club under the direction of Sang Kyu Shim, who introduced Korean Karate to the art of the open hand.

The course emphasizes mental and physical discipline and alertness and enables one to become self protective. Different colored belts are added to the loose fitting exercise uniforms to indicate degree of proficiency reached.

Both sexes and both students and adults may enroll. The fee is $25 for eight weeks.

A new nursery school is starting this summer at the Center for children three-five years of age. It will be under the supervision of Mrs. Ronna Wagner York, MA, the University of Michigan, whose permanent teaching certificate is in elementary education.

Registration will be by interview only on Wednesday, June 29, from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. in the Terrace Room of the Alger House.

Groups will be scheduled for five different, two-hour sessions, Mondays and Wednesdays, July 11-August 17. Tuition is $48 plus $2.50 for supplies. Each group will be limited to 15-18 pupils.

BEST IN NATION

Michigan has the highest percentage of women on its State Board of Education — four of eight members — of any state in the nation.

Club to Offer Camping Trips

The Neighborhood Club will again be offering extended wilderness trips this summer for area teens.

For teens in grades seven-nine, two trips are offered. The first is a backpacking trip in the Porcupine Mountains Wilderness State Park from July 5-11. Backpackers will hike to the famous Lake of the Clouds and along the beautiful Lake Superior shoreline.

Another trip is a canoe-camping adventure in Ontario's Algonquin Provincial Park from August 2-8. The fee for each trip is $95.

Senior high students, grades nine-12, should be sufficiently challenged by the club's planned backpacking trip to Isle Royale National Park.

The nine-day trip, (July 19-27), will include an overnight stay in a farmhouse on Lake Superior, visits to historic copper mines, geologic history of the island and a backpack across the island. The fee is $165.

Another option for senior high students is a 10-day outing in Algonquin Provincial Park from August 16-25 at a fee of $145. Participants will experience canoe-camping with ample time for fishing, swimming and sightseeing.

All Neighborhood Club trips are suitable for beginner or advanced campers. Trip fees include all transportation, meals, tents and qualified instruction and supervision. Each trip is limited to 10 teens, with three trip leaders.

For further information, call the Neighborhood Club at 885-4600.

If you want a Bordeaux wine from France, you do not have to pay an extraordinary price. The Bordeaux region is known for the extraordinary variety and quality of its wines. From delicate, full-bodied reds, to dry, sweet wines, you can find almost any kind of wine you would like. You can buy Bordeaux for pennies a bottle if you are in France and hit a place where the wine is not worth enough for shipping, or you could easily pay $10.00 per bottle in New York for a good vintage. The quality varies as much as the price, but when they are good they are extraordinary, and that, of course means a high price. If you are looking for a better Bordeaux, look for a wine labelled not just Bordeaux, but Bordeaux from a certain region.

And if you are looking for any kind of wine, from Bordeaux to Burgundy, see us at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626. See us too for gift suggestions for Father's Day; we can custom create a gift basket filled with your choices of wines and cheeses, or you may choose a bottle of special wine or champagne. Free delivery. Hours: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs; 10-11 Fri., Sat.

"He Who Pays the Piper Can Call the Tune"

In a recent article in The Detroit News, columnist David Ashenfelter revealed the extent to which the Michigan Education Association (MEA) is willing to commit union funds to support candidates favorable to their point of view. Last year $136,000 was spent to elect their candidates.

The same kind of support is being given local candidates for the Grosse Pointe Board of Education by the union-sponsored Grosse Pointe Action Committee (GPAC). In the GPEA newsletter dated May 17th they disclosed, "The GPAC Committee voted a monetary donation to Mrs. Kennel. As stipulated in the letter of arrangements to the candidates, the financial and people resources of GPAC are to be available to any preferred candidates. Mrs.
Twiddy will be informed of this help that is now available to her."

The MEA has admitted spending more money than any other special interest group in Michigan including the UAW in support of political candidates.

The voters of Grosse Pointe should be told that electing candidates who are supported by this special interest group to Boards of Education in the State of Michigan is one of MEA's objectives for 1977.

... And we question the wisdom of electing union financed and supported Board members who will be voting for salaries and working conditions of teachers.

After all, there are only 7 Board members and about 600 members of the union. They now want two of their candidates to be on the Board — and we are concerned with local control of the school system remaining with the residents of Grosse Pointe and not with any special interest group.

Nancy Dickerson, prominent national correspondent, reports for Detroit Edison:

"See how homes winning Detroit Edison EEE Awards are built to save on energy costs from top to bottom."

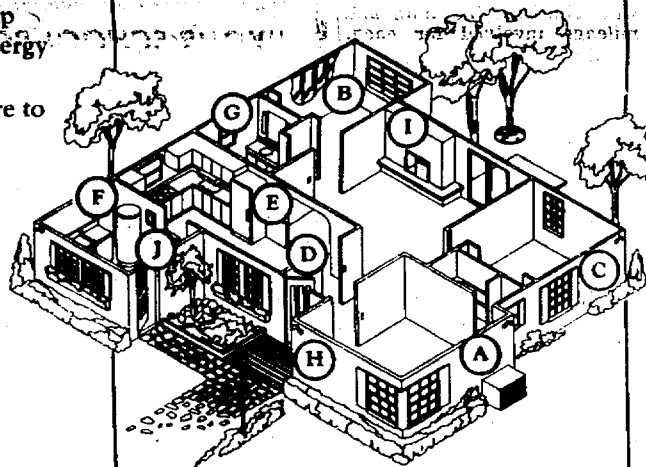

Detroit Edison is a concerned participant in America's crusade for conservation. The wise use of energy is a national goal, but it requires a working relationship between those who supply energy and those who use it. To demonstrate publicly the desire to take a leadership role in this crusade, Detroit Edison has established the Energy Efficiency Excellence (EEE) Award to encourage the building of more energy-efficient homes.

EEE Award homes are designed with conservation in mind.

Detroit Edison presents the Energy Efficiency Excellence (EEE) Award to builders whose homes meet maximum standards in insulation, lighting, wiring, appliances and are comfort-conditioned with an energy-efficient electric heat pump. From attic to basement, EEE Award homes are designed to keep your heat inside during winter and your utility costs down. These same features also make EEE Award homes easier to cool in summer. The heat pump that keeps EEE Award homes comfortable all year round is an efficient way to heat, cool, filter and dehumidify electrically. At today's energy costs, an EEE Award home could save you more than $260 a year, compared to homes using oil, propane or electric resistance heating.

If you're planning on buying or building a new home, take a look at the Detroit Edison EEE Award homes. These homes will help you conserve energy and keep your operating costs at rock bottom.

Detroit Edison EEE Award homes must meet or surpass the following standards:

A. Energy-efficient heat-pump heating and cooling system which conforms to design and installation standards established by the electric utility industry.

B. Maximum insulation including R-17 material in exterior walls, R-44 in attic, and fully insulated basement walls with an R-13 value.

C. Windows with wood sash and insulating glass or single glass with full storm. Or aluminum sash with thermal break and insulating glass or single glass with full storm.

D. Exterior doors with foam core and magnetic seal.

E. Refrigerator and freezer must be energy-efficient if provided by builder.

F. Water heater is energy-saving type, located as close as practical to point of use. Hot water lines wrapped in insulation are recommended.

G. Interior lighting that conforms to the Illuminating Engineering Society standards for energy efficiency in residential lighting.

H. Exterior security lighting, if provided, has automatic dusk-to-dawn control.

I. If home has a fireplace, it must have a tight-fitting damper and glass screen, and if practical, an outside fresh-air supply.

J. Materials, equipment, design and construction of all electric devices and wiring must comply with all local and national codes.

If you're interested in finding out more about energy-efficient living, call these builders. They'll be happy to give you more details about the benefits you enjoy in EEE Award homes.

Yes, you can make your present home more energy efficient.

Detroit Edison's Home Insulation Finance Plan is designed to help you bring your present home up to today's energy-saving standards. Ask about it at your Detroit Edison Customer Office. Here are other things you can do to help conserve energy and also save money: Put up storm windows and doors; Check weatherstripping and caulking; Dial down in winter and dial up in summer; Lower furnace fan settings; Keep electric appliances in good repair. That way, we'll all be using energy more wisely.

Pick up a free copy of "Planning a New Home?" at any Detroit Edison Customer Office. Or call Detroit Edison for more information.

Conserve for all it's worth. The power is in your hands.

Facing Charge in Theft Case

A 20-year-old Detroit man charged with receiving and concealing stolen property over $100, was arraigned in the Woods Municipal Court Thursday, June 2, after being charged in an incident which occurred Tuesday, May 31.

The suspect, Mark Raymond Marcin, stood mute and a plea of not guilty was entered in his behalf, police said. Bond in the amount of $20,000, two sureties, or 10 percent was set and the suspect was transported to the Wayne County Jail pending his examination, which was scheduled for yesterday, June 8.

In his report, Officer Michael Van DeGinste said he responded to the Saint John Hospital parking lot on a burglary of a vehicle report.

At the scene, a hospital employee said he spotted four men loosening the lugs on the previously stolen van.

Upon seeing the employee, the men ran to a blue van and fled east through the lot to Mack avenue.

The victimized vehicle, reported stolen to Utica police three and a half hours earlier, had two front seats removed, the radio apparently missing and the air conditioning unit had been tampered with.

The arrest was made when patrolling Officer John Harwood spotted a blue van going north on Mack several hours later. Because a vehicle fitting the description of the wanted van had been sought earlier, the officer checked the license number and it proved to be the vehicle in question.

It was stopped at Mack and Cook and the five occupants, including Marcin, were transported to the station.

Det. Thomas Podewick said the other occupants, including three Detroit boys and a Detroit girl, will not be charged at this time, although the investigation is continuing.

Single Parents Slate Auction

A White Elephant Auction will highlight the Friday, June 10, meeting of The Pointe Chapter of Parents Without Partners (PWP), at the War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The Pointe PWP meets on the second and fourth Fridays of each month at the War Memorial. All PWP members are invited, as well as eligible guests; (widowed, divorced and separated).

Residency in one of the Pointes is not a prerequisite for attendance.

For more information, call 779-1490 or 882-0316.

Disco Dancing Set at Center

These are full evenings of uninhibited music and dance with everyone participating and becoming at ease with all the new movements, dances and styles in vogue in the country's leading discos.

Admission is $4.50 and refreshments are available.

The Center is located at 32 Lakeshore road.

Grosse Pointe Woods MICHIGAN

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council, meeting as a Board of Appeals under the provisions of Section 5-11-6 of the 1975 City Code of Grosse Pointe Woods, will meet in the Council-Court Room of the Municipal Building, 20025 Mack Avenue, Grosse Pointe Woods, on at 7:30 p.m. o'clock to hear the appeal of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gregory of 495 Deeplands, Grosse Pointe Woods, who are appealing the denial of the Building Inspector to issue a Building Permit for property described as:

Lot 231 of Deeplands No. 3 Subdivision and being Private Claims 620 and 621 and recorded on Liber 78, Page 2 of Wayne County Records.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory propose to construct a rear addition to the back of their home at 495 Deeplands. What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters,
Director of Public Libraries

Despite jets, missiles and electronic devices, man has still not invented anything that goes faster than a vacation.

Our libraries are full of books about faraway places with strange sounding names, but let me suggest some books that tell about unusual vacations that are within easy reach of your home and your pocketbook.

The remnants left in mid-America whereby we may achieve a wilderness experience are comparatively few, yet they do exist. In the book MID-AMERICA TRIPS AND TRAILS, by Bill Thomas, (Stackpole Books, 1975), there are descriptions of over 50 unspoiled wilderness areas in 17 states.

The first section of the book is about Michigan. The Hiawatha National Forest of Michigan's Upper Peninsula, Isle Royale National Park, Seney National Wildlife Refuge and Sleeping Bear Dunes are described using a simple format which is followed throughout.

First, a three or four paragraph description of the area, how to reach it, where to drive, where to hike, where to camp and where to obtain information and a line map of the wilderness area.

States covered in addition to Michigan are Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Nebraska, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas.

INTRODUCTION TO FOOT TRAILS IN AMERICA, by Robert Colwell, (Stackpole Books, 1972), gives location, trail data, maps and references to 81 day hikes, overnights or long day outings in the wilderness—a selector to trails in the East, Midwest, West and Far West. This book is a starter for beginners, a ready reference for the experienced.

It rates trails according to their ease or difficulty, their suitability for a family group with children, the time and mileage involved for each. All the specifics are here on how each trail is marked, what landmarks to watch for, where water and shelter are available, what wildlife might be sighted and what scenic views to enjoy along the way.

Michigan has a 210 mile trail which winds its way across the northern part of the Lower Peninsula from Lake Superior to Lake Huron. However, some of the state's best trails are in the Porcupine Mountains. They vary in length from three miles to 36.

Tired of walking? Try a horseback vacation. Steven D. Price, author of HORSEBACK VACATION GUIDE, (Stephen Greene Press, 1975), considers his book the Bae-deker of the horse trails.

Including the National Parks, this book blazes a clear trail to a variety of horseback vacation opportunities in the U.S., Canada and on the Continent. Specific and practical chapters deal with pack-tripping, trail rides, dude-ranching, fox hunts and outstanding rodeos, shows and information on summer riding camps for youngsters.

Cervantes observed that, "Riding a horse makes gentlemen of some and grooms of others." The neophyte will find that learning to ride a horse may be difficult; the animal is uncomfortable in the middle, and dangerous at both ends.

Camping today is segmented, departmentalized and personalized. The purists still hike deep into the woods carrying spartan supplies on their backs, but now there are also campers who don't mind spending up to $200,000 on deluxe motor homes.

Others prefer the "theme camper" with a personalized interior, like the Winnebago Coach Car decorated in plush scarlet and dark grain wood. Of course your little castle on wheels may be an inexpensive trailer with a canvas pop-up top or a van, suitably decorated.

A publication that meets the many needs of the recreational vehicle, (RV), owner, except money, is TRAILER LIFE'S 1977 RV CAMP-GROUND AND SERVICES DIRECTORY, edited and published by Trailer Life. A complete guide to RV parks and campgrounds in the U.S.A., Canada and Mexico, this 1,000 plus page guide will help you plan your trip; give the rules of the roads for each state, customs' information and detailed maps.

One thing these books don't mention when writing of the great out of doors are black flies, mosquitoes, gnats, deer flies and all the other flying, crawling and biting insects that can ruin an otherwise beautiful holiday—so pack a can or two of Off, or some other effective spray, before you venture forth.

Party Honors DPW Director

Woods Department of Public Works Director Anthony Guaresimo, 57, who joined the city in May 1948, will officially retire on Thursday, July 5.

In his honor, a retirement party will be held Wednesday, June 15, at the Harper Woods Community Center, 19748 Harper, beginning with dinner at 7 p.m. Tickets at $8 per person include the cost of the dinner, dancing, a gift, beer and mix, and are available at the Woods Municipal Building, 20025 Mack avenue. "He has certainly been a most dedicated and loyal employee," said City Administrator Chester E. Petersen. "He has done an outstanding job as an employee, (including work as a highway department laborer and water and sewer superintendent), and as director of the public works department."

Mr. Guaresimo was named DPW director in 1968 after holding the post of assistant director.

"He has always been very cost conscious in his direction of departmental affairs as well as in maintaining the high level of services our residents have become accustomed to. He will be missed in our city," said Mr. Petersen.

The NEWS attempted to contact Mr. Guaresimo on his career with the city but he was reported to be out of town last week.

No decision as to a replacement will be made until early July.

It takes some dissatisfaction to make for efficient government.

To Show Films to Tour Group

Prior to its limited educational group tour to study and view the ancient glories of Persia, Amritsar—the Mecca of the Sikhs, the mysteries of Kashmir and the Taj Mahal, the War Memorial is hosting an informative evening for interested participants on Thursday, June 23, in the Crystal Ballroom, 32 Lakeshore road, at 8 p.m.

Bahman Armajani, native of Iran, will tell of the splendors of his country, also seen in the color film, "Sights of Iran." Another film, "Glimpses of Northern India," will be presented, while Grosse Pointe's own world traveler, Raymond Walk, will tell of his experiences in Afghanistan, Iran and India, incorporating slides.

Property Owners to Meet

The annual meeting of the Audubon-Whittier Property Owners' Assoc. was held at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Wednesday, June 1.

The president, Murray Fordree, introduced George P. Johnson, 89, honorary life member, who is remembered for the Christmas displays at his Whittier avenue home over the years, as well as his beautiful garden.

Four block directors on the two streets, who will remain in office for one more year, are Joe Gaspar, John Moran, Ed Flemming and Wilhelm Vermet.

New directors elected were Bruno Domzowski, David Lynn, Hank Gilliam and William Mortimer.

John Prost, a Park resident, and a member of the Grosse Pointe Park Civic Assoc., spoke of the history of his group and invited members to join.

At the director's meeting which was held immediately after the annual gathering, the following officers were elected for 1977-1978: Donald R. Berschback, president, Herb Schervish, vice-president, and Bruno Domzowski, treasurer.

The Audubon-Whittier Property Owner's Assoc. has been active since 1941.

The man who brings up the rear in the race of life isn't always the last to reach the goal.

Sale to Offer 'Fine Junque'

Grosse Pointe Academy's (GPA), newly refurbished barn will be the scene of the school's "fine junque" sale scheduled Friday-Saturday, June 10-11, from 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

Two Saturdays last month found GPA parents and faculty garbed in blue jeans and wielding paint brushes to restore the drab structure, dating back to the early 1900's, into an eye-catching, white-shuttered, red barn worthy of its origin.

The barn was among the original buildings of the Convent of the Sacred Heart School, where a farm was once maintained to produce food for nuns and students.

The first school building was constructed in 1883, and the grounds have been designated an historic site by the Michigan Historic Commission.

Chairman Mrs. Jesse Cardellio and parent committee members Mrs. George Bay, Mrs. Richard Bauhof, Mrs. Patrick Blohm, Mrs. Joseph Ingrao and Mrs. Angus McGarvah are collecting rummage, including furniture, carpeting, sporting equipment, fine clothes and a limited number of antiques for the event.

To add to the "down on the farm" atmosphere, fresh fruit and vegetables direct from Eastern Market will be offered for sale.

Proceeds from the Barn Sale will be used to expand the recreational and athletic facilities at GPA.

Pool Hours Set for City Park

Grosse Pointe City has established schedules for pool hours, swimming lessons, team meets and tennis courts for this summer.

The large pool at Neff Park will be open Monday-Friday for early bird swim from 7-8 a.m. and open swim from 10 a.m.-10 p.m.

On Saturdays and Sundays, the large pool will be available for open swim from 10 a.m.-10 p.m.

Open swim hours for the wading pool at Neff Park are identical to those for the large pool except the wading pool will be closed at 9 p.m. all days.

During the swim lesson season, June 20-August 5, open swim at both pools will not begin until 12 noon.

Lessons will cost $3 per lesson and will be held daily, Monday-Friday, for one hour.

The swim team class meets between 8-10 a.m., advanced lifesaving from 8-9 a.m. and basic rescue and survival from 9-10 a.m. Intermediate, non-swimming toddler, (ages three-four), young adult beginner and diving courses will meet 10-11 a.m.

From 11 a.m.-12 noon, beginners, advanced beginners and introduction to competitive swimming will hold class. Adult women will meet on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 12 noon-1 p.m.

Residents can register for session one, running from June 20-July 8, on Saturday, June 11, through Sunday, June 19. Session two, from July 18-August 5, registration will be held on Saturday, July 17.

Registrations will be taken at the Neff Park bathhouse.

The schedule for the City swimming team meets includes June 25, relay meet; June 29, City at The Farms; July 6, City at The Shores; July 13, Woods at The City; July 16, St. Clair Shores at The City; and July 20, Park at The City.

On July 27-28, league championships will be held at St. Clair Shores. All Wednesday meets are held from 5:30-7:30 p.m. and Saturday meets from 9-11 a.m.

Tennis court reservations, at a $1 fee per court hour, will be taken daily beginning at 7:45 a.m. Playing hours are from 8 a.m.-10 p.m. seven days a week.

Park Opens Swim Tryouts

Applications for The Park's Recreational Swim Team, sponsored by the parks and recreation department, are now available in the pool office at Windmill Pointe Park.

The team is open to all boys and girls between the ages of six-17. Practices will begin Monday, June 20, and will continue through July 28.

Twiddy, Harwood Get Nod

Eight candidates are vying for two Board of Education seats in the Monday, June 13, election. It is the consensus of the NEWS that five of the candidates are qualified for the posts based upon their experience, interest, viewpoints on the issues and responsiveness in public forums and to questionnaires.

They include Frances Twiddy, incumbent Laurence J. Harwood, Barbara Youngs, Ann Arducci and Dorothy M. Kennel. Of these candidates, the two who appear best qualified for the four-year terms are Mrs. Twiddy and Mr. Harwood.

Mrs. Twiddy, 30, of Rivard boulevard, is a former teacher of English at North High School and Wayne State University. She has demonstrated a solid expertise in education and would be responsive in tackling the problems of the day-to-day operations of the school system.

The NEWS feels Mrs. Twiddy has shown a steadfast independence in stating her views. She has an understanding of the educational process and a sympathy to the needs of the system on all fronts.

She sees her role as a Board member in representing the interests of the community and in directing the administration of the school system for the benefit of the children, whom she calls "the clients of our school system."

Mr. Harwood, 65, of Moran road, would bring four years of needed experience to the Board. A retired business executive, he shows a community-oriented interest to all groups with an added focus on the needs of senior citizens.

He has shown a willingness to speak out and raise controversial issues at Board meetings, especially since the "Open Meetings Law" took effect on April 1, and has taken stands when necessary in what has often been a "rubber stamp" operation, i.e., attempting to resolve certain issues in private before going to the public thereby negating healthy, open discussions.

While the NEWS gives its nod to Mrs. Twiddy and Mr. Harwood, it would be doing a disservice in not recognizing Mrs. Youngs, Mrs. Arducci and Mrs. Kennel.

Mrs. Youngs, 47, of McKinley road, has shown a strong interest in the operations of the school system. Her attendance at Board meetings this year is worthy of admiration as is her stand in attempting to drum up more community attendance at such sessions.

Having been actively involved in two different school systems including The Pointe and one in Ohio, Mrs. Arducci, 38, of Pemberton road, has stressed the importance of writing skills in all classes and wants to strive toward getting the most educational value out of each dollar.

Mrs. Kennel, of Middlesex boulevard, emphasizes listening as well as informing toward obtaining excellence in education on the part of all groups, along with a concern for the welfare of the children.

Most candidates in their varied responses have cited the importance of the local control of the school system, eyed curriculum improvements and teacher-administration relations. These areas, along with the candidates' overall abilities and drive, must be considered by the voters.

The NEWS urges all Pointers to cast their ballots on June 13 for those whom they feel would be most beneficial to the system and the community it represents. R.A.W.

by Jerry Valente

Pearls, age old symbols of status, are now more expensive than ever. As recently as ten years ago, a 14-inch pearl necklace retailed for $7500. By 1970 the price doubled, and today it would range from $300 to $500 depending on quality. The reasons for this price increase transcend even the soaring inflation. The prime cause for the current high cost of pearls is the pollution of oyster beds in Japan, the center of the cultured pearl industry. The pollution has accumulated from industrial waste and water traffic, despite strict government regulations. Japan produces 85% of the pearls that the U.S. imports.

At VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800, we carry a fine stock of pearl items and invite you to browse through them whether you are presently in the market for jewelry or not. We are very favorably known throughout the area for our integrity and high degree of professional workmanship. While you're here, be sure and see our many gift items for that man in your life for Father's Day — watches, men's rings, etc.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

I wish to commend your excellent editorial in the May 19 "Grosse Pointe News" concerning the proposed purchase of the old Punch and Judy Theater by Unity Church. This letter is to express my own viewpoint in support of the Unity proposal.

Some persons are resisting the proposed plan because of a misconception that the Unity Church might be a fly-by-night cultist group, which might serve only to drag the neighborhood down.

Nothing could be further from the truth.

The church is affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, headquartered in Lee Summit, Mo., where the Unity Press publishes the well-known "Daily Word" magazine and other material of a religious nature.

This is a solid, respected denomination established 100 years ago, with churches all over the country, which attest to the vigorous growth of the Unity Church.

The local Unity Church was situated in the Grosse Pointe area from 1950-1970, when it moved to 14843 Coram from the Grosse Pointe War Memorial location. It is therefore only natural for the church to return to Grosse Pointe to establish its permanent home.

As Grosse Pointe residents for a great many years, my wife and I and family have attended this church regularly and received great spiritual, Christian inspiration from the services.

I would of course prefer to worship in the church of my choice in my own community, if possible. I'm sure that many other Pointers, who attend this church, would like to enjoy the same privilege.

As to the proper upkeep of the proposed church property, I would like to suggest that one need only attend a service at the Coram location in order to see that this is an obviously successful church with orderly, inspiring services and well-maintained premises.

There is a further objection that a parking problem is apt to occur with 600 persons attending services. However, this total of people is, of course, divided between the 9 and the 11 a.m. Sunday morning services, when ample parking space is available in the empty city parking lot behind the stores and would also be available on Wednesday evenings.

It would appear to be a fine gesture on the part of the church to offer the use of its auditorium when available to other groups in the community.

However, I am sure the church can be entirely self-supporting, even without such possible revenue, a fact which should convince any doubtful person of the underlying strength of the church.

In short, it would be an enormous loss to the community if this highly responsible church is prevented from returning to Grosse Pointe now. It could easily result in the deterioration of the historic Punch and Judy building and the eventual demolition of it.

Sincerely yours,
Frederic M. Sibley,
Of Vendome road

To The Editor:

Attached is a copy of a letter to Mayor James H. Dingeman of Grosse Pointe Farms. I have his verbal permission to give you this copy for publication. Thank you for all your help in this matter.

Alger Sheldon Jr.

Dear Mayor Dingeman:

As you know the Unity Church is in the process of buying the Punch and Judy Theater—all subject to council's approval of a zoning variance.

I heartily endorse Unity's action here and urge the city council to approve the zoning variance.

I've been a member of the Unity Church for four years, serving now on its board of directors as vice-president and treasurer, and I can assure you that the church is no "store front church" or "cult" as we have been called by some rumors circulating in Grosse Pointe Farms.

Unfortunately, these rumors have frightened many people and have caused much unnecessary concern.

I have lived in Grosse Pointe just about all of my life and my parents have lived in The Farms on Provenance road for 30 years. I would have no part of, nor would I endorse, any group or organization that I did not believe would be a credit to our beloved community.

Unity has played a very important role in my life and I know that it has been a great help to many of my friends who live in the Grosse Pointes.

The Unity Church is seeking to move to the Punch and Judy so that it can make its home in the community in which it started 27 years ago.

If council denies our entry into the Punch and Judy, I'll feel a great sadness, for I honestly feel the people of Grosse Pointe Farms will be the real losers.

Sincerely yours,
Alger Sheldon Jr.

To the Editor:

I am a member of Unity of the Infinite Presence now on Coram street, Detroit.

I would like very much to have my church move to the Pointes. I feel that we would be a spiritual and personal asset to the community.

Florence Cossey,
Of Nottingham road,
Grosse Pointe Park

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

In addition to finishing the 1976-77 year and laying concrete plans for a successful 1977-78 year, a number of important legislative issues also are receiving the attention of Board members and the administrative staff.

For example, as a result of recently passed legislation which became effective Wednesday, June 1, all present members of boards of education must form a "candidate committee" and file a statement of organization for that committee.

Incumbents who are not seeking re-election this year need not file pre-election and post-election reports of contributions and expenditures under the Campaign Finance Reform Act.

Readers of this paper know that the Board of Education and many members of the community have taken an active part in attempting to raise the legal drinking age in Michigan.

The Board's rationale was that certain 18-year-olds were making it relatively easy for school-age young people to secure alcoholic beverages. As a result, they offered their support by collecting petitions to raise the age.

Senate Bills 31 and 32 passed the Senate on Tuesday, May 31, and went to the House of Representatives, where there is some sentiment for raising the age to 20 or 21.

We sent telegrams to Gov. William Milliken, Sens. William Fitzgerald, Joseph Snyder and John Hertel, and to Rep. William Bryant urging all of them to support the House Education Committee's substitute version of Senate Bill 170.

We favor this piece of legislation because it would: (1) clarify the school census provisions to make them optional, and delete the "alternate procedures" language; (2) correct the conflicts in current school board members' compensation language;

(3) Change the new mandatory school breakfast program to an optional one, left to the choice of the local communities and school boards; and (4) permit an optional delay for up to one year of the new mandatory school lunch program, (this delays changes in the implementation date from October 1, 1977, to October 1, 1978).

Four members of the force hold associate degrees in police administration and five City firefighters are pursuing degrees in fire science.

People feel intensely about food. Sydney Smith once proclaimed to a lady: "Madam, I have been looking for a person who disliked gravy all my life; let us swear eternal friendship." On another occasion, Mr. Smith said that "soup and fish explain half of the emotions of life"; and Mark Twain, thinking along similar savory lines, said "nothing helps scenery like ham and eggs." The Chinese have made eating an art, appreciating it, like true art connoisseurs, for its every aspect. The writer Lin Yutang observed: "We (the Chinese) eat for its texture, the elastic or crisp effect it has on our teeth, as well as for fragrance, flavor and color."

Our family has been in the restaurant business for over 100 years and we look forward to many more years of excellent service to our customers. It will be A Gala of Note at Smiley Brothers Music Company in Woodward avenue next Wednesday when the board of trustees of the Detroit Community Music School pays tribute to Anna Husband.

She's a Pointer, one of "ours" . . . but more than ours alone. She has influenced, and is loved and respected throughout, the entire metropolitan Detroit community.

Ms. Husband retires this August after 13 years as director of the fine music school founded 50 years ago by the late Mrs. Edsel Ford and her friends.

Located at Kirby and John R in the Detroit Cultural Center, it offers class lessons in all phases of dance, piano, theory, beginning music, history of music, accompanying sight reading and opera workshop, as well as private lessons in piano, voice, harpsichord, organ and all orchestral instruments.

Its diversity of curriculum and teaching talent provide a broad experience not generally available from private teachers and studios. Ms. Husband is responsible for much of this: under her direction, the Detroit Community Music School has expanded, both in quality of instruction and number of students enrolled.

It was the first institution of its kind in Michigan accredited by the National Guild of Community Schools of the Arts.

Honorary chairmen of the 5 to 8 o'clock farewell, a champagne reception featuring television personality Bob Allison at the piano, the Red Garter Band and a youthful string ensemble from the school, are Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Ford.

That's fitting, for Mrs. Ford is the former Josephine Ford, a "Ford Ford," only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Ford.

Pointe Symphony Women End Year

Officers for 1977-78 to Be Elected at Annual Luncheon Meeting Next Thursday; Piano Duettists to Perform

The annual luncheon meeting of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee is set for next Thursday, June 16, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, with the business session scheduled for 11 o'clock, luncheon for noon.

Grand finale of the day will be a musical program by piano duettists Alice Ellison and Laurie Lindemulder who have been performing together throughout Michigan since 1963, first as duo pianists, later in their present capacity.

The two artists, who both teach privately in the Pointe area, perform regularly on the concert series "Music For A While" at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Mrs. Robert J. Crossen, program chairman for the Women's Committee, made the arrangements for their June 16 appearance.

Mrs. Ralph Urso is overall chairman of the day, assisted by Mrs. Edward F. Suits, Mrs. Henry Drettmann, Mrs. Richard Mertz and Mrs. Eugene K. Groves. The hostess list includes Mrs. Richard O. Burr, Jr., Mrs. E. D. Flintermann, Mrs. Arthur O. A. Schmidt and Mrs. Floyd Straith.

Decorative theme for the luncheon will be keyed to "Musical Melange," with real musical instruments and fresh flowers forming centerpieces for the tables.

There also will be an interesting display of antique and "conversation piece" instruments, including a euphonium, a tuba-type German horn of the early 1900's—its owner still plays it in a German band — as well as fine violins with handmade coffin cases, rare in the United States.

Important items on the day's agenda include announcement of the amount the Women's Committee raised during the 1976-77 season to benefit the Grosse Pointe Symphony, announcement of winners of the Tribute Fund Awards and the election of officers for the coming year.

Luncheon reservations, at $6 each, are being taken by Mrs. Urso at 882-0588.

Miss Meehan Wed June 4

Margaret Ann Meehan and John Hiram Longstreet exchanged marriage vows Saturday, June 4, at a 1 o'clock ceremony in Saint Joan of Arc Church.

Father Edward Mitchell presided at the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at Hillcrest Country Club.

The newlyweds are vacationing in Toronto. They will make their home in Southampton, Long Island, N.Y.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Meehan, of Oxford road, wore her mother's wedding gown of pale ivory parchment satin. Pearls and sequins trimmed the deep, square neckline of her long-sleeved, fitted bodice.

Her full, gathered skirt ended in a train, and her fingertip veil, fashioned of silk illusion, fell from a half-hat of ivory lace. She carried white roses.

In pale blue frocks, styled with horseshoe necklines and angel sleeves, were honor maid Amy Slaven and bridesmaids Chris Brown and Ann Cusmano.

They carried arrangements of carnations and blue daisies, and wore matching daisies in their hair.

Gordon Longstreet, Jr., was best man for his brother. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon C. Longstreet, of Sharon, Pa.

Glen Corlett, of Columbus, O., the bridegroom's brother-in-law, and Joseph Meehan, the bride's brother, seated the guests.

The bride's mother wore pale yellow tulle. The bridegroom's mother was in melon. Both mothers selected corsages of roses and carnations complementing their gowns.

The former Miss Meehan, a Grosse Pointe North High School alumna, will be graduated from Cornell University's School of Hotel Administration in December. The bridegroom is a Cornell Hotel Administration graduate, and has accepted a position as a management consultant with Hotel Enterprises.

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was the setting Saturday, May 28, for the marriage of Barbara Ann Brucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, Jr., of Merriweather road, and Steven David Triggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Triggs, of Largo, Fla.

The Reverend Ray H. Kiely presided at the 12:30 o'clock ceremony, after which the newlyweds were transported by horse and carriage from the church to their luncheon reception at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club by Leroy McNally, a law partner of Mr. Brucker's.

For this memorable ride out Lakeshore road, the bridegroom donned the stovepipe hat worn by the bride's grandfather when he was inaugurated Governor of Michigan in 1931.

Barbara wore her mother's wedding gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The close-fitting bodice was styled with a round collar and bishop sleeves. The full skirt extended into a cathedral train.

Her fingertip veil was her grandmother's Spanish mantilla.

She carried a cascade of Eucharis lilies, stephanotis, cornflowers and ivy.

Sara Barrett was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sandra Baker, of Towson, Md., Deborah Kelley and Carey Moler, of Darien, Conn. Carol Scherer, of Ann Arbor, the bride's cousin, was flower girl.

They wore long, royal blue linen skirts and white embroidered overblouses tied at their waists, styled with three-quarter length puffed sleeves and round collars.

They carried cascades of white Eucharis lilies, cornflowers and ivy, and wore tiny floral wreaths in their hair.

Walter C. Chamberlain, Jr., of New Canaan, Conn., acted as best man. Guests were seated by Wilber M. Brucker.

III, and Paul Bradford Brucker, the bride's brothers, Stephen Gilligan, of New Canaan, and Roger Schreck, of Cleveland, O.

The mother of the bride wore blue, green and white chiffon, styled with a V-neckline, tucked bodice and floating panel.

The bridegroom's mother selected sky blue tiered chiffon with a royal blue sash and rounded neckline.

Each mother pinned Eucharis lilies to her dress.

The bride was graduated from University Liggett

School and Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker and the late Mr. Brucker, former Governor of Michigan and Secretary of the Army, and of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram P. Shover, all of Grosse Pointe.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

"Why Grosse Pointe? What makes it a better community for my family to grow up in?"

That's a question our associates are answering repeatedly for out-of-town buyers—and one which we answer with ease.

By showing a map of the metropolitan area, we are able to point out the proximity of our secluded communities to world famous industrial, commercial, financial and professional centers.

We can call their attention to beautiful Lake St. Clair, its exceptional fishing, boating and numerous social clubs. We explain the layout of the historic French "strip" farms and show how they have influenced our City layouts.

Our associates drive them along the tree-shielded avenues, pointing out the mansions of our famous residents, the splendid schools, the water-front parks, the magnificent churches and convenient shopping centers.

... and after we've acquainted them with our outstanding Police, Fire and Public Service Departments, and shown them the reasonable tax bases, our only remaining job is to help them select a home to fit their budget!

Grosse Pointe Real Estate Company specializes in finding prestige Grosse Pointe homes for out-of-town buyers. If you want to sell your property quickly—and for top price, call us at 882-0087 for full particulars and a free appraisal.

Splash/Bash '77 Aids Youtheatre

"Celebrity Fashion Doubles" Is Theme for Poolside Party at The Pontchartrain, Chaired by Andrew and Gayle Camden

Entertainment, dancing, refreshments, fashions and fun for everyone... the Junior Council of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts extends its open invitation to Splash/Bash '77. The gala benefit happens at the Hotel Pontchartrain this Monday, June 13, from 6 to 10 o'clock.

The Junior Council annually sponsors Splash/Bash on the hotel's open-air poolside terrace, to help support the museum's Youtheatre.

Familiar celebrity faces and figures will model and receive bids on the latest in sportswear, equipment and accessories, many with matching bonus prizes, in keeping with the theme of the evening: "Celebrity Fashion Doubles."

Following last year's successful format, Splash/Bash will again offer dancing competitions, light refreshments, cocktails and the disco music of popular spinner Donnie Oak.

Junior Council president Henry Wineman, of Huntington Woods, and Splash/Bash chairpersons Andrew and Gayle Camden, of Rivard boulevard, are being abetted by Marvin and Peggy Daitch, of Huntington Woods, coordinating ticket sales and celebrities respectively.

Patron supporters include restaurateur Chuck Muer and Hughes & Hatcher.

Splash/Bash '77 tickets at $8.50 per person are available from Junior Council members and at the Art Institute ticket office, 832-2730.

The Junior Council concentrates on promoting membership in the Founders Society by offering lectures, Saturday art seminars, behind-the-scenes museum tours and dinner tours of exhibitions. Membership in the Founders Society, open to the public, qualifies those under age 40 for the Junior Council at no additional cost.

The Detroit Institute of Arts' Youtheatre—the nation's largest program of its kind—sets a high standard in professional performing arts.

It annually serves nearly half a million young people, their parents and teachers.

Youtheatre presents films, puppet shows, concerts, musicals and plays in the museum auditorium and school locations throughout the state.

Essentially self-supporting through ticket sales and educational grants from the Michigan State Legislature, Youtheatre welcomes the assistance of the annual Junior Council benefit.

Fall Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Chenoweth, formerly of Morran road, now of Akron, O., have announced the engagement of their daughter ELIZABETH TOMKINSON, of Mapleton road, to Arthur H. Getz, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Getz, of Buckingham road.

An October 22 wedding is planned.

Betsy, who is also the daughter of the late Richard F. Tomkinson, was graduated from University Liggett School, Pine Manor Junior College and Denison University.

Her fiancé attended University Liggett School and Wake Forest University.

Grand Marais Ends Season

Grand Marais Garden Club members end their year with a field trip Monday, June 13. They'll gather at 10:30 in the morning at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church parking lot, from where they'll travel to Windsor to visit the Jackson Park rose gardens.

A subscription luncheon in Windsor will precede return to Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Edward Harrigan is hostess for the day.

The club's slate of officers for 1977-78 is headed by Mrs. Donald Schuur, president, and Mrs. Philip Skillman, vice-president. Mrs. Don Miller and Mrs. John Foley are corresponding and recording secretaries, respectively. Treasurer is Mrs. Kenneth Locke.

Pre-Nuptial Tea Party Honors LuAnn Parthum

Bride-elect LuAnn Parthum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Parthum, of Harper Woods, was honored Sunday, May 15, at a tea given by her aunt, Mrs. James Masten, of Lancaster road.

Miss Estelle Gundeau, another aunt, poured at the event.

Miss Parthum is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parthum, of Nottingham road.

Guild Gives Its Gift to Bon Secours

Highlight of the May annual meeting of the Bon Secours Hospital Guild was the official presentation of $6,500 to BARRY M. SPERO, hospital executive director, by MRS. ELWOOD WACHTER, Guild president, and Mrs. Raymond Victor, incoming president. The contribution will pay for construction of a consultation room. A portion will be used to meet next year's pledge for a labor room.

During the business meeting, annual reports were read by Mrs. Raymond Kraus, second vice-president, Mrs. Roderrick McKnight, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Herbert Kelleher, financial secretary, Mrs. Edward Howell, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Raymond Victor, courtesy chairman.

The treasurer's report was read by Mrs. Frank Hinton in the absence of Mrs. Louis Decker, treasurer, who was unable to attend.

Post-meeting, Guild members were feted by the Sisters of Bon Secours with tea sandwiches and petite pastries.

Symphony's Season Ticket Sales Climb

If the pace of early returns continues, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will open next season with a record number of season ticket holders and an accompanying record high in revenue from ticket sales.

According to DSO reports made public recently, subscriptions for next season topped $420,000 in the six-week period ending May 1.

That figure amounts to 73 percent of the total realized through season ticket sales for the 1976-77 season, and represents subscriptions by 9,500 individuals.

Most of the sales to this point have been renewals by persons already holding season tickets.

The campaign for new season subscriptions was officially launched Monday, May 2, with a goal of increasing the number of season ticket holders to a record high 18,300.

The total season subscription revenue goal is $726,000.

"The excitement in anticipation of Maestro Antal Dorati's arrival as music director is reflected in the record success of our renewal al campaign which was spearheaded by Mrs. Joseph Stern and her committee," says Wayne Brown, DSO assistant manager in charge of season ticket sales.

"We feel confident that the new sales campaign, under the leadership of Pointer Mrs. John Deaver and her assistant co-chairmen, Mrs. Paul Schaller and Mrs. Felix Resnick, will surpass all previous campaigns and achieve this year's ambitious goal."

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra is offering 15 different series next season, ranging from as many as 20 concerts to as few as four per series, including family concerts, Young People's Concerts, pops concerts, chamber concerts and coffee concerts in addition to the more traditional symphonic programming.

Also, next fall there will be a special two-week festival devoted to the life and works of Beethoven, commemorating the 150th anniversary of the great composer's death.

Season ticket information is available by writing Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Ford Auditorium, Detroit, Michigan 48226, or by calling 962-0975.

SELLING YOUR HOUSE?

Then think about this . . .

Who better than you can show your own house — really point out its advantages, its nooks and crannies, and its good points?

Grosse Pointe homeowners are lucky—most of our houses don't need "selling", they just need exposure.

If you're thinking about selling, and decide to, try "by-owner" first.

- 1) Have your house independently appraised.
- 2) Retain a lawyer.
- 3) Then ADVERTISE.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Woods MICHIGAN

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council will be considering the following proposed ordinance for second reading and final adoption at its meeting scheduled for June 20, 1977. The proposed ordinance is available for public inspection at the Municipal Building, 20025 Mack Avenue, between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday:

ORDINANCE

PROPOSED AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND TITLE IV, CHAPTER 1 OF THE CITY CODE OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS OF 1975, ENTITLED "PEDDLERS", BY ADDING THERETO SECTIONS REQUIRING CERTAIN EQUIPMENT REQUIREMENTS FOR ICE CREAM TRUCKS AND REQUIRING MOTORISTS TO STOP BEFORE PASSING SUCH TRUCKS.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS ORDAINS:

Section 1. That Title IV, Chapter 1 of the City Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods of 1975 shall be amended by adding thereto the following Sections:

4-1-12: ICE CREAM VENDOR: Any Vendor as defined in this Chapter who utilizes a motor vehicle to sell or offer for sale, ice cream, ice milk, frozen dairy products or ice flavored with syrup, to persons other than at the entrance to the residence of such persons, shall, in addition to the meeting the general requirements for a Vendor's license, have such vehicle equipped with the following:

(A) Signal lamps mounted at the same level and as high and as widely spaced laterally as practicable. These lamps shall be five (5) to seven (7) inches in diameter and shall display two (2) alternately flashing amber lights on the front of the vehicle and two (2) alternately flashing red lights on the rear of the vehicle. Both front and rear lights shall be visible at a distance of five hundred (500) feet in ordinary sunlight.

(B) A stop signal arm that can be extended horizontally from the left side of the truck duplicating the design sign size and specifications shown in Sub-Section (D). This arm shall be red and white in color and contain two (2) alternately flashing lights on each face of the arm, three (3) to five (5) inches in diameter and visible at a distance of three hundred (300) feet in ordinary sunlight. The color of the two (2) lights facing to the front shall be amber and the color of the two (2) lights facing to the rear shall be red. The bottom of the signal arm shall be forty-two (42) inches above the highway.

(C) The vehicle shall contain a convex mirror mounted on the front so that the driver, in his normal seating position, can see the area in front of the truck obscured by the hood.

(D) The stop signal arm required by Sub-Section (B) shall be constructed in such a manner that it substantially complies with the diagram contained herein.

4-1-13: USE OF SPECIAL LIGHTS AND SIGNAL ARM: The operator of an ice cream vending truck shall, when stopped upon the streets of this City for the purpose of vending, activate the special flashing lights and extend the stop signal arm during the time such truck is stationary. The special lights and signal arm shall not be utilized while moving.

4-1-14: OPERATION OF ICE CREAM VENDING TRUCKS: The driver of an ice cream vending truck shall vend only when the truck is lawfully parked or stopped. Such truck shall not vend to persons standing in the street, nor shall such truck be backed up to make or attempt to make a sale.

4-1-15: DUTIES OF MOTORISTS: The driver of a motor vehicle meeting or overtaking an ice cream vending truck stopped on the street shall stop before reaching the vending truck when the flashing lights and stop signal arm are in use. After stopping, a driver may proceed past such truck at a reasonable and prudent speed, not exceeding fifteen (15) miles per hour, and shall yield the right of way to any pedestrian who crosses the roadway to or from the ice cream vending truck.

THE WALTER E. SIMMONS, II, FAMILY, OF MERRIWEATHER ROAD

By Janet Mueller

University Liggett School runs in the family. So do exhibits. Until school ended, Linda, 11, and Richard, six, had one of theirs on display in the ULS Lower School: a collection of antique circus animals by Schoenhut, made in Philadelphia in the early decades of the 20th century.

The Simmons Kids Collection began when Richard was born, and an antique dealer family friend sent him a Schoenhut elephant.

"We have a tent, too, that's THIS big," says Richard, holding his hands a foot out on either side of his body, "but it wouldn't work, (fit), in the display case, so we couldn't use it."

Tentless, it was still a grand exhibit. The Humpty Dumpty Circus is home now, on its shelf in Richard's bedroom, and it's Walter's turn to do his exhibition thing at ULS.

Borrow Club Exhibit
Mr. Simmons has arranged for the Henry Ford Museum and the Detroit Institute of Arts to lend the school a collection of items donated by the late Mrs. Edsel B. Ford to the DIA and the Ford Museum over the past 50 years.

The Eleanor Clay Ford Loan Exhibit will be a highlight of the 12th Annual University Liggett Antiques Show and Sale, running next Thursday through Saturday, June 16, 17 and 18, at ULS' Middle School campus in Briarcliff drive.

Wednesday evening, prior to the public opening, there's a gala Preview Party planned, complete with cocktails, dinner and a chance to browse and buy, to wander at leisure through and choose from displays presented by some 40 dealers from 17 states whose wares range from 18th century English and American furniture to early silver, pewter and Oriental and American Indian arts.

Boosts Endowment
The $35-per-person Preview, (ticket information is available by calling 885-4911), is a benefit for the school's Endowment Fund.

So is the entire show, sponsored by University Liggett parents and alumni. Walter Simmons, II, qualifies on both counts.

He was graduated from Grosse Pointe University School in pre-GPUS/Liggett merger days: 1955. He went on to attend Oberlin College, then Wayne State University, receiving both his Bachelor of Arts degrees and Master of Arts in Art History from WSU.

He's worked at Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum since 1961. That's where he met Kathleen, a born and bred Dearbornite who was with the museum's public relations department.

Their daughter, Linda, entered ULS in the first grade. She's a Middle Schooler now, just graduated from the sixth grade. Richard has completed the first.

He's An Associate Curator
Walter is the Ford Museum's associate curator. Metals, and also in charge of the Painting, Sculpture and Folk Art collections.

He's been involved with the ULS Antiques Shows for some time; they, too, run in the family. "My father had run the catalogue articles and loan exhibits. I helped. Now he's retired, and I've taken over."

Actually, it was Kathy who first became legally involved with the antiques show committee. This will be her third year as general admission tickets chairman, (since Richard's finished first grade, Kathy figures she only has 11 more to go), so she's a veteran at "roller-skating" from one end of the school to the other all during show days.

This year, though, she may find time to take a break. This year they've given her an assistant, Dee (Mrs. Ramon M.) Brinkman. Kathleen Simmons is delighted to be working with Dee — and extremely grateful to and for her.

Walt Simmons, besides coordinating the Eleanor Clay Ford Loan Exhibit, is in charge of this year's catalogue feature articles. The ULS Antiques Catalogue is a show highlight in itself: beautiful, glossy, informative, scholarly . . . and interesting.

Comes with Ticket
It's included in the $3 general admission ticket. It's generally agreed that it's worth the $3 admission in itself.

This year's catalogue promises to be especially interesting, and especially fat, for besides several articles on the late Mrs. Ford's gifts to the Ford Museum and the DIA there will be two on her Lakeshore road home.

One, by Jerome Smith, focusses on how Mrs. Ford lived with her antiques. The other, by Craig Morrison, covers the architecture of the house and the architecture of the grounds in which it is set.

The exhibit, named the Eleanor Clay Ford Loan Exhibit in honor of the dedication and support Mrs. Ford extended the ULS Antiques Show throughout the past 11 years, will be placed in the foyer of the Middle School's main entrance.

Great Finds Included
It will be very much a ULS Antiques Show exhibit, spanning those first 11 years, for it will feature, from the Ford Museum, the Baltimore high chest of drawers Mrs. Ford discovered at the first show, (termed by Walter Simmons, II, "a great piece"), and her last year's find: a 1915 copper weathervane, three-dimensional miniature version of a touring car.

Also on display and from last year's show, on loan from the Ford Museum, will be a Map of the British and French Dominions in North America with the Roads, Distances, Limits and Extent of the Settlements, drawn and published by John Mitchell, dated February 13, 1755 — and used up to the present century to adjudicate boundary disputes between contiguous states and between the United States and Canada.

It is not a difficult exhibit to install, for it consists basically of three pieces of furniture and a single, long display case containing smaller pieces, (silver, pewter, the map, weathervane, et al.).

That's a breeze compared to the exhibit Walter Simmons, II, and his father collaborated on for the ULS Antiques Show two years ago: a display of well over 100 objects — "fortunately, from well under 100 collectors" — designed to show the variety and depth of collecting interest in the Detroit metropolitan area, ranging from modern glass to an 18th century Russian icon.

Praises Parents' Help

"One of the things I appreciate as much as anything about University Liggett," says Walter Simmons, "is the involvement of the parents." He and Kathleen are perfect examples of that.

They think the children feel a strong attachment for the school, too. Richard certainly enjoys it: so much so that he'll be back this summer, at University Liggett's day camp where, hopefully, they'll play a lot of baseball. Richard likes baseball.

Linda likes to sew, and she's good at it. She learned how at ULS. Kathleen could not help her daughter at that; Kathy enjoys needlepoint, and she's good at it, but sewing's quite a different matter.

Linda also likes to listen to music, and to babysit. ("But not for my brother!"), and to play backgammon, which is THE family game. Even Richard plays. His parents and big sister wonder sometimes if Richard has a clue as to what he's doing, but Richard breezes along . . . and he's either incredibly smart or awfully lucky.

Linda Keeps Busy

This summer, Linda's looking forward to a trip to Washington, D.C., "to visit Uncle Dan," (so is Richard), and to the Antiques Show. She's on the junior committee, one of the ULS students who make themselves indispensable before, during and post-show, helping out on everything from decorating to clean-up.

Linda will be a "runner" this year. That's an extra pair of arms and legs for the exhibitors and senior committee members. She'll carry messages, fetch coffee, go-for and booth-sit. "I've done it before," she says. "I like it."

Walt likes to bowl and golf. Kathy, given her athletics choice, would head every time for the water and some serious swimming. What she'd really love is a backyard pool, but that would mean giving up the vegetable garden — and that is unthinkable.

Both Love Gardening

Walt loves his vegetable garden. Kathy enjoys gardening with her husband. Linda likes to grub around in the dirt, too: flowers are her forte.

Schedule Rose Show June 17

The Grosse Pointe Rose Society opens its June Rose Show Friday, June 17. It will continue through Saturday, June 18, in the Grosse Pointe Central Library, Kercheval avenue at Fisher road.

Friday hours are 1 to 9 in the evening. Saturday hours are 9 in the morning to 3:30 in the afternoon.

Residents of Grosse Pointe, Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores are invited to exhibit their blooms in the non-member section. Ribbons will be awarded, and the show will be judged by accredited American Rose Society judges.

Stems, with the exception of miniatures, should be at least 12 inches long. Vases, entry tags and assistance in entering blooms will be provided.

The show is NOT open to members of any other Rose Society in the Great Lakes District. It is NOT open to residents of any communities other than Grosse Pointe, Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores.

Chairman of the Grosse Pointe Rose Show is Ronald O'Bryan. Committee members assisting him include Forrest Geary, judges and clerks; Kenneth Wheeler, registration; Andrea Parent and Muriel Stotter, publicity; Wanda Frank, information; Elmore Frank, Consulting Rosarian; Marguerite Urso, bloom maintenance; and Dr. and Mrs. Woodburn Ross, hosts and hostesses.

The public is invited, as always, to view the exhibit.

on how to approach their collections.

This year he's not an author; this year he's a coordinator, but what with the catalogue articles AND the Eleanor Clay Ford Loan Exhibit, he's managed to keep busy enough.

He's been busy at the Ford Museum, too. The Mechanical Arts Hall is in the process of being completely re-done on a display basis, with a new, comprehensive labeling and interpretive system.

It will open in 1978: our 50th anniversary year. Meanwhile, business goes on as usual. As far as visitors to the Mechanical Arts Hall are concerned, there is only a minor visual disruption.

Things Are Happening

But things are happening. Centering the Hall in 1979 will be a 30,000-square-foot Interpretive Center where visitors may get an overview of the floor. Exit points with specific introductions will lead from the Interpretive Center to the major curatorial areas involved: automobiles, home arts, power machinery . . .

There'll be a Time Capsule providing a visual interpretation of the mechanization of America, a "trip" through the Industrial Revolution from its causes in the 19th century to the mid-1940's, with appropriate displays of the decorative arts to set the design styles of the periods.

The idea is to provide a wide-angle lens so visitors may comprehend the whole and appreciate the parts.

"I think it will give us at the Ford Museum something that is unique," says Walt Simmons. Henry Ford once said, "An object is like a book—if you can read it." The museum that bears his name is concerned that its visitors not only see, but understand: that they "read."

On The Threshold

Marcella Katherine Lilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Richard Lilly, of Riverside, Conn., will be among the 21 young women presented to His Eminence, Terence Cardinal Cooke, Archbishop of New York, at the St. Vincent Debutante Ball at the Apawamis Club in Rye, N.Y., tomorrow evening.

Muffet was graduated this month from the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Greenwich, Conn., and will attend Trinity College, Washington, D.C., in the fall—much to the delight of her grandmother, Mrs. Bartholomew A. Seymour, another Marcella, one of Trinity's most loyal alumnae.

Mrs. Seymour won't be back in Grosse Pointe until after the ball. She was in Washington in May, where she participated in Trinity's Alumnae Weekend activities.

Actually, she was part of them, for she received the Alumnae Service Award at the Alumnae Luncheon, and among those on hand to applaud Trinity's First Marcella were Muffet's mother, the Middle Marcella, and Isabel Seymour Fitzer, who is on the Alumnae Board: Trinity, like the name Marcella, runs in the family.

The Third Marcella is very interested in art. She has taught it, as a volunteer, at the Purchase, N.Y., Nursery School. She designed her own debutante gown.

Her other interests are interior design, tennis and travel. Not necessarily in that order . . .

Muffet and her fellow 20 debutantes will be presented at ceremonies in the Apawamis Club ballroom. The Cardinal will receive their parents and guests later in an adjoining suite. Preceding the presentation, the debs' parents will entertain at a dinner dance, with Lester Lanin and his orchestra providing the music.

The ball, culmination of a series of three Christmas dances for preparatory students and a spring dinner dance for beneficiaries of St. Vincent's, benefits the 100-bed institution in Harrison, N.Y., founded more than 90 years ago exclusively for the treatment and rehabilitation of psychiatric patients.

A Summer Tradition

Among the signs that summer has REALLY come to Grosse Pointe is Memorial Church's annual Ice Cream Social.

It's set this year for next Monday evening from 6 to 8:30 o'clock, rain or shine, and either way it's great fun. Homemade cupcakes, cones, a variety of sundaes and hot coffee are served, in the church's rear parking area if the skies smile, indoors in Fellowship Hall if they frown.

Tickets will be available that evening, at 50 cents for children under six, 75 cents for everybody else.

Assisting general chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Richard Marks are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roberts, in charge of volunteers; Mr. and Mrs. William Scott, in charge of finance; Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, in charge of publicity; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hicks, in charge of decorations; Mr. and Mrs. David Robinson, in charge of purchasing; and Mrs. Paul Kelley, in charge of the Church Women's Association calling committee.
