A FORMER HIGH-RANKING South Korean official told a House sub-committee Wednesday that the Korean Central Intelligence Agency helped furnish funds to wine, dine and bribe members of Congress. Gen. Kim Hyung Wook, former director of the South Korean CIA and later a member of his country's National Assembly, recalled one incident in 1971 when he saw a list of 15 to 20 members of Congress who were supposed to receive payments totaling about $200,000. The list came from the KCIA, he said. But he burned it before fleeing South Korea for the U.S., and he couldn't remember who was on the list because he could not distinguish American names.

MICHIGAN'S TWO LARGEST natural gas utilities said Thursday that they expect to have enough gas for their two million customers this winter, but that prices will be higher than ever. Their comments came one day after the Federal Power Commission warned that some areas of the country will experience severe natural gas shortages this winter. Fred McIntire, a vice-president at Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., predicted that rates for the company's one million customers will rise about 12.5 percent by next spring due to price increases by pipeline suppliers.

THE MICHIGAN SENATE voted Friday, with almost no opposition, to repeal the income tax levied by Detroit and 15 other cities on non-residents who work in those cities. The action came as the Senate lumped a host of controversial budget issues together yesterday and fought a five-hour battle that ended with approval of several major spending plans. The tax amendment must now clear the House.

ENOUGH WEAPONS-grade uranium to make almost 20 atomic bombs is missing from a factory in Apollo, Pa., that makes nuclear fuel for atomic submarines, sources say. Faulty accounting and handling procedures are being blamed for the loss of 280 pounds. The uranium has been lost over the 18 years since the factory began producing nuclear submarine fuel.

FIRE IN A FOAM-PADED cell in a Columbia, Tenn., jail pumped "killing gas" through the fireproof Maury County Jail Sunday, and deputies trying to free the prisoners collided with panicked visitors, losing keys to the cell block. At least 42 persons died. It took the deputies 12 minutes to find the keys in the clouds of smoke and by then the lethal gas from the burning foam had traveled through the ventilating system into the cell block. The screams from the cell block stopped after four minutes. Seventy persons were rushed from the jail; 42 of them, including five women and two persons visiting the jail, were dead.

IN A DECISION that could lead to lower prices and more information for consumers, the Supreme Court ruled Monday that lawyers may advertise fees for services they provide in such routine matters as uncontested divorces and drawing up wills. The 5-4 ruling struck at one of the legal profession's longest and most sacred traditions — that lawyers do not openly peddle their services in the market place. The ruling could greatly change the practices of law and medicine which cling to similar traditions and rules against price advertising.

But How Are They in a High Wind?

No, they're not really halos. They're "Broccabrellas," sort of a cross between an Easter bonnet and an umbrella. At least that's what GINA BAUBIE, (left), JOAN KNIES, (center), and KATE RENOUF of the Blind Pig in the Pointe Pedlar building swear. Ideal for the hot sun, the popular items have caused more than one driver on Fisher road to do a double take when passing these walking umbrellas.

New Officer Joins YSD On July 1

Jack Treppa Replaces Donald Schmalz As Part of Division Rotation System

By Roger A. Waha
Woods Officer Jack Treppa has been named to the Youth Service Division, (YSD), effective Friday, July 1, by Public Safety Director Henry Marchand.

He will replace YSD Det. Donald Schmalz, who has been assigned to the uniform division, as part of the rotation system affecting division personnel usually on a four-year basis.

"I was very happy to be selected and I'm looking forward to the position very much," said Officer Treppa, who joined the department in July 1970 after serving in the U.S. Navy Reserve.

Served in Vietnam
Saying he's very interested in working with young people in a role that's somewhat different from a uniformed officer's, Officer Treppa stated, "I've talked to different officers in the YSD and they have done a very good job. I hope I can do the same, if not better. I'm really looking forward to it."

As part of his active Navy service, he was stationed in Vietnam for 16 months where he was a security policeman working with the First Marine Air Wing. "This really turned me on to police work," he said.

A graduate of Denby High School, the officer is attending classes at Wayne County Community College and also has taken some classes at Wayne State University. He expects to receive an associate degree in law enforcement this year.

Woods Council Okays New Law Governing Use of Ice Cream Trucks

Measure, Patterned After Detroit Ordinance, Incorporates Stiff Requirements for Vehicles; Emphasis Is on Safety of Youngsters

By Roger A. Waha
An ordinance amending the city code entitled "Peddlers," adding sections on certain equipment requirements for ice cream trucks and requiring motorists to stop before passing such trucks, was approved by the Woods Council, 5-1, as an emergency measure.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, June 20.

City Attorney George Catlin said the ordinance, patterned after a similar law in Detroit, incorporates strict requirements for vendors, who also have to meet the general requirements toward obtaining a vendor's license, in making certain their vehicles contain all necessary equipment.

Cites Problems
The emphasis of the law is on the safety of the youngsters, and City Administrator Chester E. Petersen told the council there have been some safety oriented problems in the past, e.g., a child, running across the street to an ice cream truck, was almost struck by another vehicle.

Councilman John Sabol, who cast the lone dissenting vote, expressed a concern if an ice cream vendor stops for a long period of time, traffic could be backed up and waiting motorists could become aggravated.

He also said it could be an expensive package for companies in bringing their trucks up to the standards incorporated into the law.

Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen, who moved that the amendment be adopted, responded by noting, based upon his experience in practicing law, he was aware of similar measures just as strong or even some more restrictive.

Equipment Needed
At the same time, he added he was unaware of any traffic tie ups in communities with such an ordinance.

Equipment which must be on ice cream trucks include signal lamps mounted at the same level and as high and as widely spaced laterally as practicable.

The lamps must be five to seven inches in diameter and shall display two alternately flashing amber lights at the front and two alternately flashing red lights at the rear.

Both front and rear lights must be visible at a distance of 500 feet in ordinary sunlight.

A stop signal arm which can be extended horizontally from the truck's left side also is required.

City Acts On Smoke Detectors

Council Adopts Ordinance Making It Mandatory All Homes Eventually Have Device

By James J. Njaim

Acting on the recommendation of City Manager Thomas Kressbach and Fire Chief Robert Marshall, the City Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 20, approved an ordinance making it mandatory that all homes eventually have at least one smoke detector for each sleeping area.

Mr. Kressbach informed the council that a study of the increased use of such devices for residential dwellings concluded that a program requiring their installation in city dwellings over a gradual period of time would be both beneficial and desirable.

"Installations of smoke detectors on either a voluntary basis, a local government code requirement basis, or a combination of both, appears to be increasing throughout the United States," Mr. Kressbach said.

Will Save Lives
"Fire Chief Marshall advises that such detectors are primarily useful in reducing the potential loss of life from fires in homes. As a by-product, early fire detection also may reduce property loss."

"During 1976 in Michigan, 78 percent of fire fatalities occurred in residential occupancies, and 34 percent of the victims were asleep at the time of the fire."

The city manager reported that presently smoke detectors are required in new residential construction in The City under existing codes.

Homes which do not have detectors will be required to have them installed over a gradual period of time.

The program requires installation of one battery operated detector at the time a dwelling unit is reoccupied.

Fireman Will Help
The installation of such a device also will be required, under the new ordinance, when a permit is obtained to do any home remodeling costing $2,500 or more.

Mr. Kressbach said existing homes need not have a smoke detector unless new occupants take over, but it is strongly recommended that residents do so for the safety of their family.

Many home owners and tenants who are not aware of the importance of smoke detectors should be educated on this subject, Mr. Kressbach said.

Honorary Park Permits Given Okay in GRW

For First Time, List Approved by Council at Public Meeting; Issuance of Permits, An Apparent Practice Since Around 1950, Has Public Relations Emphasis

By Roger A. Waha
The issuance of honorary park permits in The Woods has apparently been a practice since around 1950, (according to the best guess of some officials), but this practice, sources say, never reached the council agenda at a public meeting until the regular session Monday, June 20.

At that time, a 1977 honorary park permit list with additions, plus a request for an annual review of the information, was approved by the council, based upon a Committee of the Whole, (C-W), recommendation.

The C-W motion made by Councilman E. D. Grady to the council for its action asked that the 1977 list, as submitted by City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, be approved with the additional issuance of four honorary permits for use by the Lochmoor Club's administrative staff, plus the issuance of one additional permit for the Harper Woods' municipal judge.

Submit for Review
Those receiving such permits include individuals from the Ford Estate, (39 in all including the families of 21 persons), city officials from St. Clair Shores, (22 in all), officials from Harper Woods, (11 in all including their families), and, under a miscellaneous category, 11 in all with the families of nine being included.

The latter category includes officials from the Wayne County Drain Commissioner's office and their families, and Sens. John Hertel and Joseph Snyder and Rep. William R. Bryant and their families.

With the four permits to the Lochmoor Club's administrative staff and the additional permit for the Harper Woods judge, 88 in all were approved. (A total of 96 were approved for issuance in 1976 with the majority including families).

The C-W motion also stipulated that with the start of the 1978 season, the list of honorary permits will be submitted for council review and approval in March of each ensuing year. Meanwhile, the subject of non-resident park permits will remain on the C-W agenda.

'One Winged' City Officer Subdues Pair of Suspects

Broken arm or not, City Police Sgt. Duncan MacEachern means business. With his arm broken from subduing a violent prisoner recently, Sgt. MacEachern took on two Detroit men bent on escaping after allegedly stealing wheel covers from a car parked behind a Mack avenue department store Tuesday evening, June 21.

When the two men, later identified as Norman Wilson, 27, of 5369 Belvedere, and David V. Merrill, of 1035 Navaho, sideswiped his car in an attempt to flee, Sgt. MacEachern was trying to stop them when an unidentified citizen shouted that the two men had stolen the wheel covers.

Identifying himself as a police officer, the sergeant ordered the men to exit the car. When they refused and started to drive away, Sgt. MacEachern reached through the window and grabbed the driver around the neck with his good arm.

The driver then backed up, forcing Sgt. MacEachern to release him or be crushed between two cars. The sergeant ran to the other side of the vehicle, opened the door and attempted to remove the car keys.

He was then allegedly assaulted by the two men, (Continued on Page 4)

Tax Levy Rises .50 Of a Mill

Higher Cost of Running Municipality Cited As Reason for Increase

By James J. Njaim

At a public hearing held Tuesday morning, June 21, the Shores Council approved a budget of $1,378,084 for the Village's fiscal year 1977-78, and upped its tax levy by .50 of a mill for a total of 17.25 mills, ($17.25 per $1,000 state equalized assessed valuation).

The new budget is up from the $1,252,630 total for fiscal year 1976-77.

The Shores' fiscal year is from April 1 through March 31, but the budget is not acted upon until a public hearing, which is normally scheduled for the third Tuesday in June.

In the 1976-77 fiscal budget, the tax levy was cut by .50 of a mill, but because of the higher cost of government, the cut had to be restored for the current fiscal year.

Operate on Deficit

Village President Gerald C. Schroeder disclosed that under a state law, The Shores' property valuation this year is $55,489,223, state equalized, compared to a state equalized valuation of $51,355,821 last year.

Local tax collection percentage as of March 31 was very good, with 98.64 percent collected before the end of the fiscal year, or $1,900 more than expected, Mr. Schroeder said.

Due to wage increases, the Village expended $3,754.77 more than it took in last year, operating on a deficit for the first time in years.

The reason the Village lost money, Mr. Schroeder said, was because it did not realize its expected water sales of $190,000. Revenue for this was $164,000, a drop of $26,000.

It was estimated that the violation bureau would take in $15,000 during the last fiscal year, but violators paid approximately $18,700, which helped somewhat in making up for the loss in water sales, he said.

Didn't Do Badly

Mr. Schroeder reported other losses and gains and remarked that, overall, revenue from different sources showed that the Village did not do badly, in spite of the increase in the cost of government.

Among other things, Mr. Schroeder pointed out that The Shores owns its own lighting system, purchased from Detroit Edison last year, and the municipality has a bonded debt of $300,000 on this. The total bonded debt of the community is about $5,200,000, with bills being paid as they come.

The Shores' assets amount to $4,700,000, and its net worth amounts to $3,200,000, he pointed out.

The council, accepting Mr. Schroeder's recommendation, authorized Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jefferis, as Village treasurer, to collect all taxes.

Woods Changes Meeting Date

The first regular meeting of the Woods Council next month would fall on Monday, July 4, so the solons at their regular meeting Monday, June 20, unanimously changed the date to Monday, July 11.

The second regular meeting of the council is set for Monday, July 18.

Correction

Lisa Poplawski will be sophomore class president next year at South High School, not Virginia Berry, as the NEWS reported in its Thursday, June 23, issue.

Woods Council Approves Honorary Park Permits

 While the history of the issuance of such permits is on the busy side as to when the practice actually started, the basic intent, officials say, is that it makes for good public relations.

City Code Viewed
 As for the reason, (or reasons), why final council action on the issuance of the permits hasn't been conducted at a public meeting until now, the answers are varied.

"Such permits were in existence before I came to the city," (in 1961), said Mr. Petersen. He stated such permits were issued via council policy prior to 1962 when regulations governing them were set down in ordinance form. The city administrator also noted he was instrumental in making this matter part of the ordinance at that time.

A section of the city code on entrance to the Lake Front Park and use of facilities says special permits... may be authorized by the city council to visiting dignitaries, officers of other governmental agencies, city employees and in such other special instances where, in the council's judgement, the issuance of a special permit will serve the public benefit and welfare.

The section also says that the council must annually in January provide rules and regulations and authority for the issuance of special permits.

(Since the early 1960's, Mr. Petersen said in April or May a proposed list of honorary park permits were submitted to the council sitting as the C-W, (in executive session), with the solons voicing no objection to such issuance after making any adjustments to the list.)

Comply with Law
 Nothing in the aforementioned section governing the issuance of special permits makes it mandatory for the council to take final action at a public meeting.

However, with the "Open Meetings Law" taking effect this April, it was determined that this matter be placed on the agenda at a public meeting to be in compliance with the law's provisions.

Calling such permits "really an honorary status symbol," (as they are reportedly minimally used during a season), Mr. Petersen noted they were primarily issued to Ford Estate personnel and to St. Clair Shores officials. (The Woods' park is located in that community), toward continuing good relations with them.

Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos, who has served on the planning commission, plus the council for 15 years, said he first learned of this practice some six years ago when it was brought to the attention of the entire council by another councilman.

Indicating he was perturbed at the time over the information, he said they had been issued to Ford Estate personnel at the gate along the way, and that some had been issued to persons other than taxpayers.

At that time and now, he feels the council should make the final determination on the issuance of the permits.

Saying he doesn't know how far back the practice goes, Mr. Pinkos stated, "At no time do I recall that either I or any councilman requested that it be placed on the C-W agenda."

When asked why the council never acted upon the issuance of the permits at a public meeting, Mr. Pinkos theorized that some council members apparently didn't want to air this matter at a public session, preferring to handle it at the C-W level.

He added, however, that this question could have been placed on the public council agenda but no one over the years "made a move in that direction." This is in relation to the possibility that some may have felt this matter could become an issue.

Stressing he wants such a list reviewed on an annual basis, Mr. Pinkos said the entire park permit program from one end to the other has to be monitored and that he wanted the council to do it as its members are responsible to the people.

Meanwhile, Councilman Ronald R. Keegen, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Committee who's in his fourth year on the council, acknowledged that the main purpose of the issuance of the permits was public relations.

Having worked at the park for eight years, Mr. Keegen recalled that such permits are used on a minimal basis but felt some who did use them over the years abused such usage.

No Conscious Effort
 For his part, he speculated that the overall intention of the council wasn't to intentionally hide its action on issuing the permits.

"It was for so long a tradition that no one gave it a second thought. It was as much a part of the year, (for the council), as the budget. No one questioned the valid."

Speed Limit

 hill, ballfield, schools, (Ferry Elementary and North High), and to the lakeside.

3. A 25 mph speed limit on Vernier would be desirable for traffic control in that all traffic eastbound must slow or stop at Lakeshore.

4. Numerous accidents on Vernier involving parked cars, and at the Lakeshore-Vernier intersection, are the result of the inability of Vernier road to handle 35 mph traffic.

5. The precedent for the reduced speed limit on Vernier exists in comparable portions of Moross road adjacent to Lakeshore road in The Farms, (30 mph between Mack avenue and Ridge road, then 25 mph from Ridge to Lakeshore.)

Village President, Gerald C. Schroeder said that Mr. Tenkel presented his case very well, the council shares the concern of the residents and that the matter will be referred to the public safety department for its study and review.

Always remember that worry contributes to the wear and tear of the thinking apparatus.

ity of it," he said.

Mr. Keegen added, "There was no conscious effort to suppress this information from the public," while noting the practice was initiated long before any member of the present council was elected.

At the C-W meeting Monday, June 13, Mr. Grady said he saw merit in maintaining relations with the Ford Estate and cited the mutual concerns between Woods and St. Clair Shores and Harper Woods officials.

On the public relations theme, Councilman John Sabol asked if the other communities reciprocate with favors for Woods officials and Mr. Pinkos cited Harper Woods' assistance, along with representatives from the Wayne County Drain Commissioner's office, toward getting sheet piling installed at the Lake Front Park.

St. Clair Shores also was cited for adopting the Lake Front Park control ordinance on the regulatory front.

Because of the cooperation of Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores officials in such instances, Woods officials feel that the issuance of the permits is serving the public benefit and welfare, as noted in the section of the ordinance.

Express Interest
 In relation to the Ford Estate, Woods officials have expressed an interest in obtaining more property bordering the park and a request from the city is currently before the estate's executors.

Mr. Petersen said the most recent word he has received from the executors is that the city's request would be considered. "We're primarily interested in an additional 14 acres of the estate located in Macomb County which directly abuts the park, plus the authority to utilize the gate off of Jefferson avenue," he said. The latter precedes the main entrance to the park.

At the C-W meeting, Mr. Pinkos noted such permits should be considered on a yearly basis, giving citizens an opportunity to object to their issuance if they desire. Some, it was said, are issued to city retirees, even if they aren't residents, as a part of municipal contracts with employees; this, however, is a negotiable item.

ULS Prepares for Centennial

The rambling complex of buildings in Cook road may be most modern, but don't be deceived. Next fall, University Liggett School, (ULS), will celebrate its 100th year of educating Detroit-area youth.

Friends of ULS are already at work collecting bits and pieces of the school's 100-year history for publication next fall.

The 1977 graduating class got a sneak preview of what promises to be an interesting chronicle in a commencement day speech by Stanley R. Day, former president of the ULS board of directors.

ULS actually came into being in 1965 as the final merging of three very old Detroit institutions—Detroit University, Detroit Home and Day and Grosse Pointe Country Day Schools.

The anniversary the school will celebrate next fall will be the founding of Detroit Home and Day, (later Liggett School) by the Rev. James D. Liggett and his three daughters.

The school began in what is now called Broadway avenue, with the prime objective of preparing Detroit's socially prominent young women for study at eastern women's schools such as Vassar and Smith.

Winifred Dodge, Marie Stroh, Florence Olds and Josephine Clay were among the school's most famous graduates. But one little-known alumnus, according to Mr.

Day, was Harry P. Lincoln, the only man to graduate from the school in its 91-year history.

Another ULS predecessor, Detroit University School, limited its enrollment to boys and counts among its graduates Edsel Ford.

It also was known, according to Mr. Day, for its unrivaled athletic programs, marking such feats as a 160-0 football win over Bay City in 1906 under athletic director E. L. Knickerbocker.

A whooping cough epidemic in the founding of another ULS antecedent, Grosse Pointe Country Day.

In the face of a general quarantine on all of Detroit, Pointe parents started their own co-educational private school to guarantee the continuity of their children's education.

It began in a small white-frame house in Roosevelt place, later merging with Detroit University, (in 1954), and then with Liggett, (in 1968).

Jeanne Views Swedish Track

It may be another first for Jeanne Bocci, the 33-year-old mother of two and first Michigan woman to run in the Boston Marathon.

On the basis of her performance Saturday, June 18, in Palo Alto, Calif., she has been selected to represent the U.S. in the World Cup International Track and Field meet in Sweden this summer.

Mrs. Bocci will compete on August 20 in the 10,000 Meter, (6.2 mile), race-walk, somewhere in Sweden.

Trio Await Sentencing July 5 on Shores Charges

Three men arrested on separate charges brought against them by Shores authorities will be sentenced by Wayne County Circuit Court Judge James N. Canham on Tuesday, July 5, it was disclosed by Shores Det. Sgt. Frank Mustazza.

Awaiting sentences are Larry Anderlite, 18, of The Shores, who entered a plea of nolo contendere, (no contest), on Wednesday, June 8, to negligent homicide, in the traffic death of Mark Schoenith; Dennis E. Ogg, 25, of Sterling Heights, who pled guilty to possession of PCP, an animal tranquilizer drug; and Michael Frank Auito, 23, of East Detroit, who was charged with third degree criminal sexual conduct, but pled guilty to attempted criminal sexual conduct.

Anderlite is accused of causing the death of Mark, 17, the son of J. Lee and Shirley Schoenith of Lake-shore road, last August.

Mark was a passenger in Anderlite's car, when Anderlite lost control of the vehicle and struck a tree broadside in front of 914 Lakeshore. The automobile was sheared in half from the force of the impact with the accident occurring a short distance from the Schoenith residence, 777 Lakeshore.

The two had not been drinking, police said.

Anderlite suffered head and knee injuries, for which he was treated at Bon Secours Hospital, where he and young Schoenith were taken by emergency ambulances.

Mark, who suffered head and multiple body injuries, died several hours after admission to the hospital.

Depending on the judge, Anderlite faces either probation, or up to two years in prison, for the offense.

Ogg, who was tried on Tuesday, June 14, was arrested last November, following an 90 mph speed chase in The Shores. He lost control of his station wagon, which skidded 225 feet after leaving the roadway, sheared off a six-inch tree and flew through the air, landing 60 feet out into Lake St. Clair.

He was rescued by two Farms officers, who pulled him out of his rapidly sinking auto.

When the station wagon was pulled out of the water, officers saw numerous radio equipment, including recording tapes, and many currency bills inside the car. When the vehicle was drained the radio equipment and money was retrieved.

Officers said they counted a total of $1,140 in 100s, 50s and 20s. Ogg claimed at the time that he had had about $4,000 in currency.

Auito, who went to trial on Thursday, June 9, followed a 22-year-old woman through the streets of The Shores in April. When she parked in the driveway of her house, the man jumped out, clad only in a tee-shirt, and tackled the woman on her front lawn.

The woman's screams, as she fought off her assailant, awakened her mother, sister and a neighbor, frightening Auito away.

Auito was arrested in front of Mason School by two Woods public safety officers, after Shores police broadcast a description of the vehicle and of the suspect.

The woman picked out Auito in a Wayne County Jail line-up as her would-be attacker.

Sgt. Mustazza said Ogg could receive up to three years for possession of the drug, and Auito, up to five years on the attempt charge.

Cement Work Bids Accepted

The bids of A and T Excavating, Inc., of Mount Clemens, for sidewalk and curb cut work were unanimously accepted by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 20.

Three unit prices were accepted including the following: concrete sidewalk four inches thick, (including saw cut), 78 cents per square foot; concrete sidewalk six inches thick or driveway approach six inches thick, (including saw cut), 93 cents per square foot; and curb cut at intersections, $3 per lineal foot.

Noting these are construction costs only, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said work will begin the first part of July in the city's maintenance district four, i.e., east of Mack avenue from the south city limits up to Oxford road.

The bidding specifications stressed the furnishing of all labor, material and equipment for the repairing and/or replacement of any concrete sidewalks and any concrete drive approaches on a unit cost basis for fiscal year 1977-78.

A and T's prices were the lowest of four companies considered.

GP Woods Approves Park Rules for Special Groups

Rules and regulations governing the use of the Lake Front Park pool and bathhouse by special groups for swimming meets, events and/or workouts, (excluding the city's regularly scheduled recreation program), were unanimously approved by the Woods Council, based upon a Committee of the Whole, (C-W), recommendation.

This action was taken by the solons at the regular meeting Monday, June 20.

The Citizens Recreation Commission had spent a considerable amount of time discussing this matter toward formulating specific requirements for the council's consideration.

As part of the overall framework, the solons approved a stipulation that special groups be instructed to submit to the council a complete list of the names and addresses of those participating in the program so that verification may be made that at least 50 percent of the group live in The Woods.

This is in accordance with the current policy for group permits which requires that any such group be composed of at least 50 percent city residents.

Eight regulations, including the 50 percent requirement, were approved. Some of these include the following:

- Permission to use the pool for meets, events and/or workouts must be granted by the council. The pool and bathhouse shall be available for special swimming meets only prior to the official opening of the pool for the regularly scheduled swimming season and after the close of the season.

- Workouts, however, may be scheduled at any time except during the hours when the pool is open for the use of residents and their guests. Dates for such workouts and the time are to be established by the council.

- All expenses for holding and running meets, events and/or workouts must be totally borne by the group or groups using the pool. The city will determine the charge or charges to be levied against each individual group or organization seeking to use the pool and bathhouse and receiving permission to do so. All money charges are to be fully paid prior to any scheduled meet or workout.

- Residents of the city who hold valid park passes are not to be charged any admission to use park facilities, including admission as spectators to any swimming meet, event and/or workout.

- Full medical insurance for all swimmers, officials and spectators must be provided by the organization or groups holding the meet, event and/or workouts. Comprehensive insurance coverage damage to any property, buildings, equipment, et al., within the park caused by swimmers, officials or spectators, must be provided by groups holding these activities. The council will specify the limits of such insurance.

- Once inside the park, all swimming team members, officials and spectators must abide by all park rules and regulations, state laws and ordinances of the City of St. Clair Shores governing the use of the grounds.

- The park director has the right to grant or withhold approval governing the use of any type of equipment or activity which he deems necessary to maintain the health and safety of those within the park, or to protect and maintain the equipment and property of the city.

- He also has the authority to stop or to hold up these activities until he is satisfied that all procedures necessary to protect the interests of the city, its residents and property have been fully complied with.

School Board Eyes Contracts

they will receive a four percent flat raise and three percent divided according to merit.

Although Dr. Coats called the plan a conservative one, (he'd rather see the entire seven percent raise based on performance), he thinks it will improve performance throughout the system.

Among the criteria used to evaluate the administrators was knowledge of curriculum, supervision of budget, evaluation of staff, mileage campaign, administration of contract, relationship with staff and involvement in school activities.

Roger McCaig, director of research and development, said the staff responded well to the new system.

"Many administrators have been concerned for a long time that evaluations haven't been thorough enough," he said. "Most of them have found that responding to concerns raised this March has led to better evaluations in June."

After a first round of evaluations this March, the Board approved contract extensions for only 14 of the system's 34 administrators.

Since then, their contracts were in a sort of limbo, although Board members denied they were in probationary status.

Among the building principals passed over the first time, but receiving contract extensions this week, were Sally Bell, William Christoferson, G. Bruce Feighner, Eric Floh, John Hammel, James Hoeh, Richard Kay and William Mestdagh.

Central office staff who received Board approval this week were George T. Edgington, Alfreda Frost, Lawrence Kennedy, Mr. McCaig, Reginald Sienkiewicz, Joseph Spagnoli, Robert Welch and Benjamin Zenn.

Library Director William Peters' contract also extends through 1979.

Detectors

renters have already done this voluntarily.

Occupants who may wish to install detectors in their home, and who would like to find out the best place to attach them, have only to call the fire department at 886-3200. A firefighter will then be dispatched to the house and point out a strategic location at no cost to the home owner.

It also was pointed out that in most homes, only one device would be located on or near the ceiling, outside of, but in close proximity, to each separate sleeping area.

If the residence has a sleeping area on the first floor and on the second floor, then a device must be installed on each floor.

For extra safety, it is advisable that a smoke detector be installed in the basement of the house, too.

Each smoke detector must be of the type approved or listed by a recognized independent testing laboratory. It also must be capable of sensing visible or invisible products of combustion, and must have an alarm suitable to warn occupants within the individual dwelling unit.

New Law

signal arms must be 42 inches above the highway.

A convex mirror mounted on the front so that the driver, in his normal seating position, can see the area in front of the truck obscured by the hood is yet another requirement.

The operator of the truck, when stopped for the purpose of vending, must activate the special flashing lights and extend the stop signal arm during the time the vehicle is stationary. The special lights and signal arm must not be used while the truck is moving.

At the same time, the operator shall vend only when the vehicle is lawfully parked or stopped. The truck cannot vend to persons standing in the street, nor can it back up to make or attempt to make a sale.

Motorists also have responsibilities according to the new law. A driver meeting or overtaking an ice cream vending truck stopped on the street must stop before reaching the vehicle when the flashing lights and stop signal arm are in use.

After stopping, a motorist may proceed past the truck at a reasonable and prudent speed, not exceeding 15 mph, and shall yield the right-of-way to any pedestrian who crosses the roadway.

GP City Increases Pair Of Parking Lease Fees

By James J. Njain

The City Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 20, adopted a resolution that will hike monthly parking lease fees in two sections of the city's parking system, effective Friday, July 1.

In July 1975, the last fee revision occurred, said City Manager Thomas Kressbach, who told the council that the increase was necessary because of the higher cost of maintenance, such as personnel, snow removal, electricity and asphalt repair and resurfacing.

The existing fees are modest compared to parking rates in other locations of the metropolitan area, he pointed out.

Beginning on the 1st, those leasing surface, (regular), lot space will have their fee hiked from $9 a month to $11, and those leasing surface, (special use), lot space will have to pay $11, upped from $10.50.

Tip Aids Police In Burglary

Property valued at $2,433 was stolen from a Madison road home Wednesday evening, June 22, but was recovered the next day with the help of an anonymous caller.

A 14-year-old Farms youth was charged with the crime and later turned over to the Youth Service Division.

Farms police said the home was entered via a rear window and escape made through a side door which had been secured earlier by the home owner.

Neighbors told police they heard noises around the home about 10:30 p.m., but saw no one.

Taken from the home was one gallon of wine, a .22 caliber rifle, one Sony receiver, one Sony turntable, one set of speakers, one 35mm camera with lens and flash, seven cartridge tapes, one pair of disc washers, one disc washer container, one set of phono plugs, one stylus cleaner and one mixed package of wires, plugs and connectors.

Around 3 p.m. the next day, Det. Sgt. George Van-Tiem received an anonymous call telling where the stolen goods were located. The property was found at the youth's home and he later wrote a three-page statement confessing to the crime.

The boy also named another youth who had helped him transport the stolen property. After identification, the articles were returned to their owner.

Drain Millage Falls in Woods

The lowest drain tax millage in some 10 years, 3.00 mills per thousand assessed valuation, was approved by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 20.

City Comptroller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher, in a memo to the solons, viewed a breakdown of drain tax costs and noted that the operating maintenance of the Milk River Pumping Station has been decreased in the amount of $7,937.94.

Saying the city is making the final payment on Grosse Pointe Woods drains number two and three this year, he said the amount was reduced due to the amount in the construction fund which was transferred to the debt fund for the retirement of the bonds.

"Grosse Pointe Woods drain number one was reduced this year also due to the transfer from the construction fund to the debt funds to retire bonds. We will have one more payment next year on this drain," said Mr. Hornfisher.

The increase in assessed valuation plus the decrease in the aforementioned drains enables us to reduce the drain tax from 3.40 mills to 3.00 mills per thousand, he added.

The drain tax is paid by citizens each December.

Any action taken for spite is usually about as successful as it deserves to be.

Vehicle Hits Boy on Solex

A 13-year-old Harper Woods boy was treated at Saint John Hospital for multiple contusions and lacerations, and released, after being struck by a backing auto while he was riding his Solex bike.

The mishap occurred early Thursday evening, June 23, according to an official Woods accident report.

The boy, Steven Sunski, was going west along Roslyn road, very close to cars legally parked at the curb. While backing out from his driveway, James Sandercott, 24, was unable to see the lad because of the parked autos while stopped. He then continued into the street and struck the boy.

No enforcement action was taken in the accident, although Officer Stuart Gerow indicated the boy was going too fast for the type of vehicle he was driving and for his position on the thoroughfare.

GP Symphony Plans Concert

The Grosse Pointe Symphony has called rehearsals for Wednesday, July 6 and 13, in Parcels School, 20600 Mack avenue, at 7:30 p.m. in preparation for their third "Symphony Under the Stars" presentation.

Concert date is Friday, July 15, at Jacobson's, 17030 Kercheval avenue. Tickets for the event are $3.50. Price of both the concert and champagne buffet, (from 5:30 to 8:15 p.m.), are $10. Patron tickets are $20.

The program, featuring the orchestra under the direction of Felix Resnick, will begin at 8:30 p.m. in D'Hondt Way. It is co-sponsored by the Pointe Symphony Women's Committee and Jacobson's.

Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Michael Bucciero, 515 Coventry lane.

Chorus to Highlight Celebration in GP Park

Park residents will be entertained by the Lakeshore Chorus on the Fourth of July at the Three Mile Park.

The group is from the Grosse Pointe Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, a national group of 34,000.

The Grosse Pointe Chapter, 95 strong and the largest in Michigan, took second place in a state competition in April. Sixty singers comprise the Lakeshore Chorus, which is directed by Russ Seely.

Entertainment at Three Mile Park follows a 35-section parade which begins at the Pierce School field, 15430 Kercheval avenue, at 2 p.m. Included in the adult section of the parade will be antique cars, floats, bagpipers, clowns from the Grosse Pointe Bicentennial Clown Corps and Park dignitaries.

Any candidate for office is invited to march with an identifying sign.

The very tall Rem Purdy dressed as Uncle Sam will lead the parade again this year.

Assembly time is 1 p.m. at the Pierce field for the adult section and at Trombly School, 820 Beaconsfield avenue, for the children's section.

The parade will march south on Somerset, east on Jefferson and south on Westchester to Essex where it will merge with the children's section and continue on to Three Mile Park.

Festivities at the park will begin with a flag ceremony and then the national anthem sung by Dee Sheehan.

Jim Turnbull and Mr. Purdy will be masters of ceremonies.

Trophies will be awarded to the winning parade participants. To personalize the trophies, Jeff Thomas will be available to engrave name plates.

Grosse Pointe dignitaries will be introduced including Julie Edlund, Miss Grosse Pointe Park, and her court.

Following the entertainment by the Lakeshore Chorus, Dick Donavan will organize games for children two to 15. Included will be a penny scramble, running and relay races. Prizes will be awarded.

For adults there will be a volleyball tournament organized by Peg Lintvedt.

Everyone is invited to bring picnic lunches. There will be hot dogs, pop and ice cream for sale.

Woods Studies Road Vacation

A request for a street vacation from a Raymond road citizen was unanimously referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study by the Woods Council at its regular meeting, Monday, June 20.

Richard Rancilio, the owner of property in Raymond road at the corner of Kingsville road, asked that Kingsville road be vacated from its intersecting point at Raymond east to the present property line of Saint John Hospital.

Because of the expansion of the hospital, Kingsville road was closed at a point parallel to the end of his property, said Mr. Rancilio. "Since that road has been closed, that vacant street has been a congregating point for young people who use it to drink and generally be rowdy."

He said people also walk their dogs and children play in the area, causing him and his family a loss of privacy. Mr. Rancilio felt if the street is vacated and he is allowed to maintain the property, he will at least be able to control the area by installing a fence.

The city placed "no parking" signs in the immediate area but Mr. Rancilio said they didn't do any good. In fact, he indicated he almost received a ticket himself. Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos stated that area has been a headache to both the city and its citizens for around 20 years. "We should be able to reach a sensible conclusion if we have all the background information for the committee to review," he added.

Is there any way we can keep from growing old? It does not seem so, at least not yet. But there are people who believe that certain vitamins can slow down the aging process. Aging is really caused when our cells can no longer reproduce themselves as well as they used to. This happens as the result of cells being under attack by chemical agents in the air, not just what we call pollutants—all sorts of things work on cells for years. The walls break down under this stress and we grow old. But, some experiments have shown that Vitamin E and Selenium strengthen cell walls to slow down this process. Of course, the experiments are not conclusive. All we know for sure now is that a good diet and reasonable exercise and our supplements seem to be our best weapons against disease and old age.

If good health is important to you, stop by VIM & VIGOR HEALTH FOODS, 21151 Mack, 886-9466, enjoy a complimentary cup of herb tea and talk to us about your health. Metro Club Indians Take Ruth Title

With a 4-1 victory over the D. M. Eagan Tigers Friday, June 24, the Metro Club Indians clinched the Farms-City Babe Ruth second half championship.

The win sets the stage for the league championship game on today, June 30, between the same two teams. Game time is 5:30 p.m. at Kerby Field.

Both the Tigers and Indians also will be representing the Farms-City League in the "All Pointe World Series" with this tournament scheduled for Kerby Field Wednesday through Friday, July 6 to 8. All games will be at 5:30 p.m.

On Monday, June 20, the Tribe trounced the Rams Horn Angels, 20-3. John Baldyga and Mike Mahon each had a double and a triple, and Tom Borland had three hits.

The Indians' only defeat in the second half came at the hands of the Nothdurft Red Sox Saturday, June 25, 9-8. Kevin Chown smashed a home run and a triple and Baldyga tripled for the losers.

The Farms-City All Stars will be playing in the District II All-Star Tournament Friday through Sunday, July 15 to 17, at L'Anse Creuse North. Entering the final week of play in the All-American League, it appears likely there will be a four-way tie for the Farms-City All American Division championship. The playoffs will be held at Elworthy Field on Tuesday, July 5, with games at 2:30 and 5:30 p.m.

The winners of these will play off for the championship on July 7 at Kerby Field. Game time will be 2 p.m.

The Farms-City Babe Ruth League reports the league will host the 1978 Babe Ruth State Tournament.

As is traditional with this tournament, the host team will be playing in the tournament against seven other district champions for the right to represent Michigan in the National Babe Ruth World Series.

Trailing 6-3 in the top of the sixth with two outs, the Indians rallied on two errors, and doubles by Haase and C. H. Crane to tie the score at 6-6. Manager Andy Pastoria brought in relief pitcher John Kulka who fanned the last batter.

In the bottom of the sixth, Richard Suhrheinrich and Tom Dow singled. Kulka drove in the winning run with a long fly ball to right and picked up the win for his one-out performance.

Some people spend more than they can afford when buying a house. Equally painful is the mistake of buying the cheapest possible house and then suffering through its shortcomings.

I have no intentions of stating how much anyone can afford for a house. This is a very personal decision. There are guidelines of monthly averages that lending institutions use for housing expenses. But - like the "height/weight" charts printed on scales - these are only averages.

Don't hold back if you feel you can exceed the guidelines. When you are willing and sufficiently disciplined to economize on other expenses, you can get a better house than the average calls for. A good house may seem costly, but the rewards are well worth it. Investing in a house that's a little more expensive gives you an excellent inflation hedge while your whole family enjoys a better place to live. And often, the resale opportunity is brighter.

CITY MAJORS

The Braves maintained their top position in the Major League last week by taking two close games from the Dodgers, 6-2 and 4-3.

In the first game on Monday, June 20, Rick Richner threw a neat two-hitter against the Dodgers, striking out 10, while walking only one. For the Dodgers, John Strabel did the pitching chores, walking five and whiffing six, while allowing 11 Braves hits.

Paul Martinelli led the Braves at the plate with two doubles and a single, knocking in four runs and scoring a fifth himself. Supporting the attack at the plate were Kurt Maunz, Ned Sparrow, Rick Richner, Brad Langs and John Zerweck.

The Dodger's only scoring came on Dave Hume's single followed by Kurt Allen's home run.

On Wednesday, June 22, an exciting duel between Dave McKee of the Dodgers and Kurt Maunz of the Braves occurred. The Braves were able to muster four hits off of McKee, while Maunz allowed only two hits. The Braves won 4-3.

The two Dodgers tallies in the fourth resulted from a Braves error on John Strabel's grounder followed by a round-tripper by Kurt Allen. The third Dodger run was scored by Tread Huntington.

With the Dodgers leading in the bottom of the fifth, and with two outs, Ned Sparrow of the Braves singled, Brad Langs was safe on an error and Scott White drew a walk, loading the bases.

This set the scene for Rick Richner's thrilling second grand slam homer of the season, providing the winning margin for the Braves.

WOODS MAJORS

By Steven Rusing
 Tom Reigler led the Indians to a 6-4 victory over the Twins, fanning nine, giving up three hits and walking seven. Reigler also hit a three-run homer. Catcher Bob Luberto tagged out two Twin runners as they attempted to score.

Elsewhere Monday, June 20, the Orioles blasted the Yankees, 15-0, and the Tigers bombed the A's, 28-8.

The National League pennant was won for the second year in a row by Jim Rini's Cincinnati Reds on Tuesday, June 21. Mr. Rini's Reds have won the pennant five times during the past seven seasons.

Shelly Ireland sparked the pennant clinching victory over the Phillies with two hits and three RBI's. John Menzo and Pat Ireland pitched to win, 7-1. The Reds hope to be the first team in the Woods-Shores Little League to have an undefeated season.

In other games, the Dodgers whipped the Pirates, 10-4, and the Braves edged the Cub's, 6-5, in seven innings. The Orioles showed power Wednesday, June 22, by pounding out 16 hits including a five-for-five performance by Geoffrey Tishbein.

Miss GP Places in Top Eleven

Vanessa Helin, 21, Miss Grosse Pointe for 1976-77, placed among the 11 top finalists in the Miss Michigan competition held last week in Muskegon, and also was one of two winners in talent competition for her rendition of Juliet's Waltz from Gounod's "Romeo and Juliet."

For placing in the top 11, she was awarded $200, and for being a winner in the talent competition, she received a $250 scholarship.

An estimated 25 persons, including members of Miss Helin's family, Grosse Pointe Jaycees and their wives, made up the local contingent and many expressed disappointment over the final result.

Carter Billiu, executive director of the local pageant, said he was upset that Miss Helin didn't place higher, at least in the top five, as her "talent was superior to any of the other girls."

Meanwhile, Mrs. Mary Helin, her mother, said the final decision left many with a "heavy disappointment."

For her part, Miss Helin said she wasn't really sure she wanted to win but indicated, based upon the impression shared by others, that she should have placed at least in the top five because of her talent honor.

"I was approached by many persons afterwards and they said they felt I was going to win," stated Miss Helin.

Despite some disappointment, Miss Helin said she had an exciting time, enjoyed meeting all the girls, numbering 28 in all, and was kept very busy.

Lake Suicide Attempt Fails

An attempted suicide by a Park girl was thwarted early Sunday morning, June 26, when she was pulled from her car in Lake St. Clair by members of the Farms Fire Department.

Taken to Bon Secours Hospital in good condition with minor cuts was the 18-year-old girl. According to police reports, she felt despondent and decided to kill herself.

She left a note, her wrist-watch and some money on a porch before driving down Provincial road, across Lakeshore road and into the lake. Shores Officer Michael Kenyon responded to the scene with Farms Firemen Gary Luzier and Robert Beers. The girl was seen sitting on the roof of the car and requested aid.

Firefighter Beers waded to the vehicle and brought the girl to shore, and she was conveyed to the hospital.

School System Views Erosion

A concern on the part of some Hidden Lane residents over the erosion of the embankment alongside the service drive at North High School will be resolved by the school system.

The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 6, heard a plea from Jack Thorpe for assistance in resolving the situation which, he said, affects many homes on the north side of the street.

As a result, Woods officials arranged a joint meeting with school personnel on Tuesday, June 21, and Ben Zenn, director of support services for the school system, said the problem will be taken care of within the next few months.

For his part, Mr. Zenn felt the erosion, while apparent, wasn't as serious as has been indicated and would have probably occurred even without the school being constructed.

"But we want to be a good neighbor and we'll resolve it," he added.

Wine Lines
 by John Lundberg

Great wines are often discovered by mistake. The science of wine making has a lot of magic to it. For instance, one of the great Sauterne wines, Chateau d'Yquem, was discovered as a result of instructions carried out too literally. The story goes that generations ago, the chateau owner had to make a trip before the grapes in his vineyard were ripe. He left instructions that the grapes not be picked until he returned. He was unexpectedly delayed quite a while and returned to find that his instructions had been carried out and the grapes were still on the vines, shriveled and terribly overripe. But the chateau owner decided he might as well try to redeem some of his losses and made those grapes into wine. When he tasted the result he vowed never to pick his grapes again until they were overripe, and wine lovers around the world have been thankful for this ever since.

At PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626, we have wines from around the world to suit the taste of the most discriminating wine lover. We also feature a full selection of beers, champagnes and distilled spirits. If you're planning a summer barbeque, come in and find out the advantages of serving keg beer; your guests will love it. Open: 10-10 Mon.-Thurs.; 10-11 Fri., Sat.

WINE WISDOM:

Sauterne is an excellent dessert wine.

Money could do more for folks if they expected it to do less. It's a safe bet that folks who sleep like a baby haven't one.

Demand Builds For Merit Taste Technology.

High and low tar smokers converted as news of 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco spreads.

There is a way to pack flavor—extra flavor—into a low tar cigarette.

MERIT proved it.

By cracking cigarette smoke down into separate elements, researchers were able to isolate certain "flavor-rich" ingredients that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar.

The result was 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco. Tobacco that delivers the kind of taste smokers can switch to. And stick with.

"I tell you that they are fantastic!...if you can change me, you can change anyone."

GPW Deletes EMS Letters

The Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, June 20, unanimously concurred in a Committee of the Whole recommendation to delete two letters viewing Emergency Medical Services (EMS), from City Attorney George Catlin.

A trio of EMS bills, which were signed into law by Gov. William Milliken last December, have been viewed with alarm by the Woods Council as well as officials of all the Pointes.

The legislation created guidelines for the formation of a statewide emergency medical system, increased medical training for emergency attendants and more sophisticated equipment.

Mr. Catlin had earlier indicted, while the bills were held intended, he felt they may work a hardship on many cities regarding cost factors and other necessary adjustments needed to comply.

But, after re-reading the trio of statutes, he noted if a city doesn't voluntarily go into providing EMS type treatment, it wouldn't be compelled to do so.

"Our people, (i.e., public safety officers), are trained to that proficiency, (as spelled out in the statutes), already," he stated.

Mr. Catlin said he discovered a clause in the overall package saying if a city isn't into an EMS type conveyance, such personnel would not be needed by the municipality.

In a letter to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, Mr. Catlin explored this matter by saying in re-reading the trio of statutes, "it appears that an ambulance provider must furnish a qualified driver, a licensed attendant and an emergency medical technician after January 1, 1979. The driver and the licensed attendant and an emergency medical technician must be licensed by the state."

He noted the fourth category, advanced emergency medical technician, is not required to be furnished, as a section of one bill provides, "This act shall not be construed to require an ambulance operation to provide advanced mobile emergency care service."

Advanced mobile emergency care service, according to the bill, is defined as requiring an advanced emergency medical technician in attendance.

"Therefore, it appears that the public safety department should be able to meet the requirements of these statutes," he added.

GPYC Tops Plum Hollow

By Margie Smith

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club (GPYC), swimming team chalked up its second straight victory Thursday, June 23, with a 44½-42¾ win over the Plum Hollow Golf Club team at GPYC.

Six more GPYC records were broken by team members. Hans Brieden set a new time for the boys' 10 and under 50-meter breaststroke, 43.4 seconds, while Sara Brieden set a record time for the girls' 13 and 14, 50-meter breaststroke, 38.1 seconds.

Larry MacDonald swam the boys' 11 and 12, 50-meter butterfly in 34.3 seconds, and Mark Clark swam the boys' 13 and 14, 50-meter butterfly in a record 31.9.

A record time was set by Pam Rinke in the girls' 15 and 16, 50-meter butterfly, 33.2, and Cindy Gannon set a record for the girls' 11 and 12, 50-meter freestyle, 30.5.

Other good times were turned in by GPYC swimmers. In the girls' eight and under, 25-meter freestyle, Katie Harper, Katie MacDonald and Sandy Smith won first, second and third place, respectively.

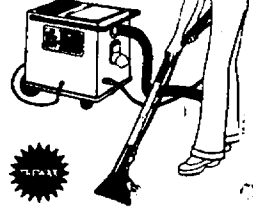

In the girls' 10 and under 50-meter backstroke, Krystin Strong, Nancy Georgi and Meg Maghielse placed one, two and three.

The boys' 13-14, 50-meter backstroke saw first, second and third place taken by Jeff Colton, Gene Miszczak and Paul Treder. The same trio swept the boys' 13-14, 50-meter freestyle with Miszczak first, Treder, second, and Colton, third.

GPW Center Eyes New Name

The Senior Citizens Center, held daily at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, is looking for a new name.

"The Out-Wayne County Nutrition Site is a misleading title," said Diane Heavener, co-director. "When we first opened our doors seven months ago we were primarily a lunch program, but now we have classes, crafts, entertainment, speakers, bus trips and medical tests."

Plan Car Wash To Aid Retarded

To help raise funds for the financially-troubled summer program for the trainable mentally impaired, the Neighborhood Club is sponsoring a series of car washes this summer.

They will be held at Barnes School, 20090 Morningside Drive, on Thursdays, June 30, July 7, July 21 and July 28 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. The $1 fee per car will help finance summer field trips for the students.

A cutback in Wayne County special education funds earlier this year threatened to close down the summer program for the trainable mentally impaired.

A $1,000 grant from the Neighborhood Club along with parents' fund raising efforts has helped salvage part of the program for one more year.

to 2 p.m. Monday through Friday, and the lunch program is just one part of a busy four hours."

The name contest will end tomorrow, July 1. A prize will be awarded to the person submitting the winning name.

"I know many senior citizens are not coming to our center because our title makes us sound like a depression soup kitchen," remarked Mary Ale, co-director.

"As a senior enters his or her 'senior' part of life, the support systems that helped him cope with everyday living crumbles. The spouse dies, the children move away and retirement takes away his status in the community. We are trying to act as substitute supports."

Our latest project is a telephone reassurance program so elderly people who live alone will not live in fear that if they should have an accident, no one would know, she added.

Elderly people who desire this service will be called every day.

LOOTENS HONORED

Laurie Lootens, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Lootens, of Still Meadow Lane, was recently named co-vicepresident of her Lutheran High School East graduating class and the student "most likely to succeed." Miss Lootens will attend Kalamazoo College with a merit scholarship in the fall.

Pointer Enjoys 'Up with People'

The internationally known group "Up with People" will be appearing for the second consecutive year at the Howard C. Baldwin Pavilion Sunday, July 3, at 7:30 p.m., sponsored by the Meadow Brook Music Festival.

Jan Sturges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sturges of The Shores and a graduate of Grosse Pointe University School, will be involved with the company that is performing at Meadow Brook.

She has been a part of "Up with People" since 1971 and has served in various capacities, from singing with a cast, to being musical director for the group that appeared in Detroit during the fall of 1974.

During 1976, nine companies of "Up with People" performed live before over four million people in over 800 cities. I was with the cast that performed at last year's Kentucky Derby, the Indianapolis 500 and the half time at Super Bowl X.

"The people I've met, and the ideas I've exchanged with individuals around the world has given me a broader perspective on life. At the same time, I have learned to appreciate my own home town of Grosse Pointe," she said.

"Up with People's" return visit to Meadow Brook is a result of last year's Fourth of July performance before a capacity crowd of 7,000.

Tickets for this year's show are still available at Hudson's, Sears, Wards and the Meadow Brook Box Office. Following the performance there will be a special fireworks display.

It pays to stick to a course of action — every endeavor has its up-and-downs, but has no place for in-and-outers.

Section H-405.1. Certificate of Occupancy, Conformance with Minimum Standards. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to here occupy or for any owner or agent thereof, for any purpose, unless a Certificate of Occupancy has been issued by the Building Department with respect to such dwelling or structure under a date which is not more than three (3) years prior to the date of such occupation. The Certificate of Occupancy shall state that the Building Department has inspected the dwelling or structure and that said Department has determined that the dwelling or structure may be occupied. The Certificate of Occupancy shall bear this legend in capital letters or bold-face type: "THIS CERTIFICATE DOES NOT CONSTITUTE ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY AS TO THE CONDITION OF THE DWELLING OR OTHER STRUCTURES ON SAID PREMISES DESCRIBED HEREIN (OR ANY ASPECT OF SUCH CONDITION), AND INTERESTED PERSONS ARE ADVISED AND ENCOURAGED TO MAKE THEIR OWN INSPECTION OF THE PREMISES IN ORDER TO DETERMINE THE CONDITION THEREOF."

This section shall not apply to any occupancy in existence at the time of the adoption of the Chapter.

H-405.2. Application and Fee. Application for a Certificate of Occupancy may be made by the owner, or his designated agent, of a dwelling upon a form provided by the Building Department and the payment of an inspection fee as established from time to time by resolution of the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe.

H-405.3. Inspection; Conformance with Minimum Standards. Upon receipt of the application and fee, an Inspector shall inspect the owner's dwelling within five (5) days and, if such dwelling is in conformance with the minimum standard set forth in Articles 3, 4 and 5 hereof, a Certificate of Occupancy shall be issued. If the dwelling is not in conformance with the minimum standards set forth in Articles 3, 4 and 5 hereof, the Inspector shall request remedy thereof and a Certificate of Occupancy shall not be issued until such standards are complied with to the reasonable satisfaction of the Inspector.

H-405.4. Conditional Certificate of Occupancy. In the event, for any reason, an owner or purchaser requests that a Certificate of Occupancy be issued prior to complete conformance with the minimum standards of this Code and if the absence of complete conformance does not, in the judgment of the Inspector, constitute material health or safety hazards, a Conditional Certificate of Occupancy may be issued upon the condition that complete conformance be achieved within a reasonable time specified by the Inspector, not less than seven (7) days, and the owner's or purchaser's assurance that complete conformance will be achieved by deposit with the City of Grosse Pointe in the amount of not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars or fifty (50%) per cent of the estimated repair costs (which estimate must be acceptable to the City of Grosse Pointe) whichever is the greater. In the event of issuance of a Conditional Certificate of Occupancy, the owner or purchaser shall notify the Inspector, by or before the end of the time period specified by the Inspector for achieving conformance, that said conformance has been achieved, and a Certificate of Occupancy shall be issued and the owner's or purchaser's bond returned if the Inspector is satisfied as to the owner's or purchaser's compliance. If the owner or purchaser fails to comply as agreed, the Building Department may use so much of the cash or bond necessary to instigate legal action to secure conformance or to undertake the specified work with return of any balance to the owner or purchaser. In the event that the amount of the cash or the bond is not sufficient to cover the entire cost of conformance, then any additional cost hereunder shall be charged against the premises and the owner of said premises, and shall be collected as provided for single lot assessments in section 1.13 of the Grosse Pointe City Code.

H-402.8.5. Access for Repairs. Every occupant of a dwelling or structure shall give the owner or his authorized agent (which may include the Building Department or its designees effecting repairs or alterations pursuant to cash or bond) access to the dwelling and any accessory building at any reasonable time for purposes of making such repairs or alterations as are necessary to insure compliance with this Ordinance and enable the issuance of a Certificate of Occupancy.

Bell Offers New Service

A new optional telephone service that will enable Pointe customers to make short-haul long distance calls at a discount rate is now available.

The new offering, named "Circle Calling," has been developed by Michigan Bell for residence customers who make a substantial number of calls outside their local calling area.

"Circle Calling" provides discounts for dialed calls within a 30-mile radius of The Pointe.

It costs an additional $2.50 a month, with a call allowance of $1.50 and a 30 percent discount on long distance calls to exchange centers located within 30 miles of the central office in The Pointe, explained Jim Oberliesen, manager here for Michigan Bell.

"This new offering gives those who have such calling needs a plan they may subscribe to, and those who don't have such needs do not have to pay for such service," he said.

"Circle Calling" discounts apply at all times except from 7 a.m.-12 noon Monday-Fridays.

Under the plan, if a customer is accustomed to calling from The Pointe to an individual 21-25 miles away, for example, the regular day rate is 11 cents a minute.

With "Circle Calling," the day rate would be discounted at 30 percent and the evening rate would be discounted an additional 30 percent.

The allowance of $1.50 would give this customer up to 19 "free" or "allowable" day minutes, or up to 27 "free" or "allowable" evening minutes.

After the allowance of "free" minutes is used up, the rate would then be 7.7 cents per minute between 12-5 p.m., and 5.39 cents after 5.

Telephone users interested in "Circle Calling" may contact the local Michigan Bell business office, at 245-0000, for additional information and rates.

Dismiss Two Counts in Case

Two counts of criminal sexual conduct, third degree, stemming from an incident in January, were dismissed against a 45-year-old Woods man at his non-jury trial Wednesday, June 22, before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Michael L. Stacey, reported Woods police.

Lawrence Marco had been previously charged with forcing or coercing a 17-year-old Detroit boy to perform two different sex acts with him, one in his car and the other at his home.

However, Det. Thomas Podewick reported, after testimony was taken at the trial, Judge Stacey dismissed both counts because the prosecution was unable to show force or coercion had been used to accomplish the acts.

With this action, the case was closed by the public safety department.

This year's Torch Drive, which runs from October 18 through November 10, will raise operating funds for almost 140 health and community service agencies in the Detroit area.

Mr. Dow is director of advertising for Chrysler Corp., U.S. Automotive Sales and Service. A graduate of the University of Michigan, he is a corporate member of the Boys' Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit.

Mr. Phillips is a Harvard Law School graduate and partner in the firm of Hill, Lewis, Adams, Goodrich and Tait. Mr. Otto, a partner in Ernst and Ernst, is a board member of both the United Foundation and Metropolitan Detroit YMCA.

It is simple to make an unforgettable glaze for a delicious ham: just combine one six-oz. can of frozen pineapple-orange juice concentrate, thawed, 1/2 cup light corn syrup, 1/2 tsp. ground cinnamon, and 1/4 tsp. of ground cloves and bring to a boil. Half an hour before heating or cooking time is up, remove ham from the oven, score it in fat diamonds, spoon on the glaze. Baste with the glaze two or three times, while cooking, remove to a platter, and pass the remaining glaze with the ham. It is delicious!

'Sports Theater of Air' Brings Back Memories

By Tom Greenwood

Can a former sports writer covering the Grand Canyon College Antelopes find happiness hosting a sports program intent on reviving that old time radio atmosphere, complete with sound effects man?

You'd better believe it. In the 30's and 40's, imagination brought new and unique dimensions to radio presentations like "Let's Pretend," "The Green Hornet," "Fibber McGee and Molly" and "The Lone Ranger."

In 1977, much of that atmosphere has been recaptured on WBBR-FM's "Sports Theater of the Air," hosted and produced by Farms resident Phil Loranger.

Light hearted, but informative, the program alternates between group discussions, scripted programs on sports figures from the past and comedy sketches involving Bob and Ray inspired added athletes.

"The program debuted here on May 18th," said Phil, an independent public relations counselor for Kenneth Drake and Assoc. "Our first guest was sportswriter Joe Falls. We ranged over a wide variety of subjects, then played the 'name game' during our last half hour."

"I threw names of celebrities at Joe and he gave capsule opinions on them. Names like 'Billy Martin,' 'Henry Ford,' 'Russ Thomas' and 'Seattle Slew.' It was completely spontaneous and our audience ate it up."

Broadcast Monday and Wednesday evenings from 9 to 10 p.m. on 102.7 FM, the show also features a call in portion and sports quiz for the listening audience.

As a lover of lunacy, Phil's fun begins when he and his partner, 6'6", mustachioed sound effects man Marvin Mews conduct sketches starring half-baked athletes.

Among them are a ball-player in the world's worst batting slump because he forgets to remove the iron warm-up rings from his bat before coming to the plate, and a wad-chewing coach demonstrating his bullet, spray and change-of-pace spitting techniques.

"We also include some slightly screwy commercials among our real sponsors," said Phil, with a grin. "They've included ads for eight-fingered baseball gloves, or a coach pushing solid lead bats. We approach them absolutely seriously, except they just don't make sense."

The idea for "Sports Theater of the Air" was born in Arizona when Phil covered the Grand Canyon College

Antelopes for the "Arizona Republic."

"The manager of a TV station with dismal ratings talked me into hosting a half-hour sports program," said Phil.

"On one show I interviewed two All-Star baseball players from an Indian school, their coach, who was pretty well oiled that evening, and a Franciscan monk in charge of the school."

"The show just started falling apart. The Indians were from different tribes and hated each other. They started throwing punches, the coach kept slurring platitudes about 'the grand old game,' and the monk started a pitch for donations all at the same time."

On another occasion, we had a very nervous archer intent on demonstrating his sport in the studio, he said. "Unfortunately, the set was only about 10-feet long and he missed his target. The arrow zinged through the wall and into the next studio, where a religious program was being taped."

"A lady evangelist came storming on camera and told us in very un-Christian like terms what we could do with the arrow."

"The audience loved it. Our ratings zoomed up, and when I left, it was one of the most popular shows in the area. I decided then that if audiences wanted zaniness with their sports, that's what I'd give them."

"It's even better with radio. Marvin is marvelous as a sound effects man. He can recreate the sound of cheering crowds, a ball hitting a bat or anything else you can think of."

So far the show has been pretty popular. "Our greatest competition is the Tiger baseball games," said Phil. "Our luck has been pretty good. WBBR has a great listening audience."

Married and the father of four children, Phil has worn many hats in the communications field. Sports writer, TV and radio talk show host, public relations man and author.

He's written two books, "If They Played Hockey in Heaven," about Jack Adams, former manager and coach of the Red Wings, and "Cowboy on Ice," the story of Howie Young, the "Denny McLain" of the Red Wings. "I'm really excited about our next program," said Phil. "It's about ex-Tiger Gates Brown, the greatest pinch-hitter in the history of baseball. I'm calling it 'Gator to the Aid.'"

"You don't think it's too subtle, do you?" he asked, anxiously.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

As I indicated in my column of Thursday, June 2, practically anything to do with teaching of English, (or the alleged lack of it), is grist for comment by a superintendent of schools.

How true this is has been demonstrated by three items that appeared in the press after that column was written. For example:

A front page article of no less a periodical than "The New York Times" for Sunday, May 29, was headlined "Decline in Reading of the Classics in Public Schools Causes Concern."

A national spot check of English teachers and students at more than 30 public high schools in 15 cities and suburbs by the newspaper's staff revealed that "it is clear that tomorrow's Renaissance men are feeding on science fiction, not Caesar; on 'Seventh Avenue' not Dickens."

"Brevity is the soul of their lit, and many teachers say they have lesser, not greater expectations of their students."

How serious a state of affairs is this? According to the "Times" in the short run, those who go to college face inevitable difficulties in courses with strict academic standards. In the long run, educators say they see a weakening intellectual grasp that could have devastating effects on adults trying to survive in this society.

Three days later, on Wednesday, June 1, two more stories appeared in the press to underline the importance of the need for quality instruction in English.

An article headlined "Translating the language of government into plain English is job of N. Y. firm," which appeared in the "Detroit News," describes the efforts of a New York communications and design firm to simplify the language used by Washington agencies to communicate with the outside world.

It seems that recently issued regulations by the Department of Labor to implement the Employee Retirement Income and Security Act have helped create such resistance to the act that "thousands of companies have decided to drop their employee benefit plans rather than try to cope with the law's complexities and expense."

The same day a report appeared in the "New York Times" giving opinions and reactions of literature professors regarding the amount of work today's students are required to do today compared to the load they carried in the past.

The matter was critically debated, with professors divided on the outcome. One said, "If we do read less, and I'm not ready to concede this in every case, it is partly a function that we ask them to do more with what they read. I think students do more interesting and better things."

Another professor is quoted as saying that since he started teaching in 1945 his reading lists had shrunk. He

Citizen's Effort Shows Results

A resident's concern over parking in the area of the front lawn has led to the Woods Council instructing City Attorney George Catlin to prepare an ordinance to prohibit parking on any portion of the front setback of a lot measuring 40 feet in width or less.

This action was taken by the council, based upon a Committee of the Whole recommendation, at its regular meeting Monday, June 20. Philip A. Lopiccolo, of Brys drive, who has appeared before the council on several occasions, said he supports an ordinance restricting front lawn parking.

He told the council parking should only take place in the driveway of a residence or in the garage. He strongly felt that no parking should be permitted on any portion of a front setback of a lot measuring 40 feet in width or less.

The citizen's persistence in this respect, along with his arguments, played a big role in the council's action.

stated, "Really, I avoid anything that involves sustained attention to connected thought. Students can no longer face stringent reading. It's got to have a story, and it's got to move pretty fast to keep their attention."

"Tough, tough-reasoned prose has almost disappeared—it's not part of the culture around us, or part of college requirements. Students are not accustomed to difficult works."

More recently we learned, via the daily press and television reports, that half of the eighth graders in one of the Chicago districts will not be promoted into the ninth grade until they improve in reading.

Special summer classes are being held for those students who are unable to read at sixth grade level. They will not be sent to the ninth grade until they reach the 6.5 grade level on the reading comprehension part of the Iowa Test of Basic Skills.

On the national television news on Monday, June 6, we learned of a lawsuit against the Fort Lauderdale, Fla. board of education by parents of a graduating senior who claim that the system was negligent in providing their daughter with basic skills, (reading and computation), necessary to function.

And so the controversy rages. Having quoted liberally from educators across the land in two columns devoted to the teaching of English, next week I shall begin to present the reaction of members of our school system's staff to the dilemma of teaching English in the high school.

Concert Band Opens Big Fest

The Detroit Concert Band, which opens the Grosse Pointe Summer Music Festival on Wednesday, July 6, is internationally renowned for its very special musical qualities.

Many critics and musicians in America and Europe have admired the group's crisp coherence, tonal color and musical taste.

The John Philip Sousa quality is what the band has under the leadership of Leonard B. Smith, according to one producer. It's a quality of refinement, of shading and expression, brilliance, dash, splendor of effects and showmanship that sets it apart.

Versatility counts too, and the band has a tremendous repertoire of more than 1,200 compositions ranging from classics to pops.

By way of illustration, the July 6 program will include

What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters,
Director of Public Libraries

Samuel Butler, the English novelist, once wrote, "You may make a fool of yourself with a dog, and not only will he not scold you, he will make a fool of himself too."

The relationship you have with a cat is entirely different from the one you have with a dog. A cat is not even remotely interested in doing something just to please you. If you are happy with him, that's your doing not his.

Cats make wonderful pets, and properly trained and cared for, they will reward and delight you beyond your expectations. If you have a cat, or are planning to acquire one, the library has a number of books that may help you understand this seemingly distant and inscrutable being.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR CAT, by Michael W. Fox, (Coward, McCann and Gloghagan, Inc., 1974), is written by a man who not only holds a veterinarian degree but also a PhD from London University. Dr. Fox reveals in detail the evolutionary, physiological and psychological roots of feline behavior.

In addition, Dr. Fox tells you how to choose, train and live happily with Sam, Hor-tense, Satan or whatever you name your cat. Provocative questions are, What is purring? Why do cats claw the furniture? Is the cat color-blind? How can you test a tiny kitten as a potential companion? are answered.

From the significance of caterwauling to the aphrodisiac properties of catnip, here is an absorbing look at the entirely intriguing persons behind the aloof facade of slitted eyes and gently twitching tail.

THE WELL CAT BOOK, by Terri McGinnis, (Random House, 1975), is also written by a veterinarian. It was conceived as a way for every cat owner to understand common signs of illness or injury his animal may sustain in the course of his life.

It is designed to give the reader quick reference to information which will help him make a correct evaluation of whether the need is for veterinary care or for home treatment.

Hopefully, unnecessary and expensive emergency calls will be reduced and more effective action taken sooner. In this way the book serves, in addition to general well cat care, a para-medical function halfway between the veterinarian's training and the average cat owner's skills.

CATS AROUND THE ZODIAC, by Leslie W. Strom, (Prentice-Hall, 1975), is a unique book in that it examines cats from an astrological point of view setting forth the characteristics you can expect to find in a cat of any given sun sign in the zodiac.

Each of the 12 signs are treated equally. The author first treats with the mystique of cats born under a particular sign, then habits and finally relationships and romance. If the author's views leave you less than excited, a saving grace is the fine black and white photographs by Judy Ross.

CATS, by Marjorie F. Schrody, (Galahad Books, 1966), is written in a clear, slightly style by a professional breeder and owner of many cats. Everything about cats is here—from selecting a kitten for training to exhibiting your prize registered cat at a show.

The author favors keeping two or more cats rather than one. "They have each other for company. Of course the cat has you, but would you like it if you never saw another human?"

Filled with photographs this short, (128 pages), book is packed with information. Aliourophiles will find the library a convenient place to find out all they want to know about cats—and more.

Jewels & gems
by Jerry Valente

August has two birthstones, the peridot and the sardonyx. Peridot comes in one color—a warm olive green—and is often called the 'evening emerald'. Known as chrysolite to mineralogists, peridot is a silicate of magnesium and iron. It is a transparent gem, and if you look through a large faceted one, you will notice the double refraction image peculiar to the peridot. Agate is a striped chalcedony stone—a form of quartz. When light layers of stone alternate with red or brown the stone is called sardonyx. This opaque gem is one of the most popular stones for men's rings. Striking cameos are often carved out of it. Friendship is the sentiment for both August birthstones.

Come in and select your birthstone at VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800. We're open from 9 'til 5:30 Mon. thru Sat. You may use your BankAmericard or MasterCard. From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

A grand, glorious and Gallic weekend is coming up at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, where the French Festival of Detroit, Inc., will present its 1977 French Market.

It's set for Saturday, July 9, from 11 in the morning until 10 in the evening, and Sunday, July 10, from noon until 7 o'clock.

It will be held on the lawns on either side of the driveway, weather permitting — in the ballroom, in case of rain. Entertainment will be continuous. Admission is free.

If you don't go, you'll only be cheating yourself. This French Market is fantastic fun: much more than a bazaar, (although it is that, too), or a Marche aux Pucés, (that's a Flea Market — and the French Market, is that, too).

There'll be can-can dancers, and drills by the Compagnie Franche de la Marines.

There'll be flowers and wine, champagne and beer, art and pottery. There'll be cheese, fruits, vegetables, French bread, Quiche Lorraine and ice cream. There'll be a balloon man.

There'll be an epicure, and a patisserie, and Mireille Wilkinson will be making her famous crepes on the spot.

Mireille's husband, Warren, has arranged to have Indians from the North American Indian Association.

A Glorious Sunset At Detroit's Zoo

Members of Zoological Society Enjoy Their Own Very Special Evening, with Refreshments and Exhibit Tours

It was a beautiful Sunset at the Zoo last week as 600 or so members of the Detroit Zoological Society gathered to walk and talk with the animals, sample hors d'oeuvres, sip cocktails, munch hamburgers and generally have a grand and glorious time.

There was music. There were Tractor Train tours for those who preferred to "take the easy way" of visiting the exhibits.

For tired tour-ers and people watchers, there were tables at the edge of the lagoon, where sippers, suppers and sitters, in the shade of fringed, yellow and green umbrellas, watched the world go by.

The party is an annual event for Detroit Zoological Society members: their own Very Special Evening at the Zoo in appreciation of their loyal support and interest.

The society, a non-profit, charitable organization existing for the sole purpose of promoting and helping the Detroit Zoo, makes possible new exhibits, renovation of old exhibits, purchase of animals—even labor-saving devices—through membership dues and contributions.

Its growth in recent years has been phenomenal: from 360 memberships, (approximately 700 persons) in 1965 to 1,700 memberships, (3,900-plus persons), in 1977.

Its help has been of the utmost importance since it first built the zoo and gave it to the City of Detroit in 1924. Its aid is even more important now, when severe economic problems have so plagued the city.

Pointers have always been very active in the Detroit Zoological Society, which is governed by a board of 18 directors whose current president is Lawrence D. Buhl, Jr., of Grosse Pointe boulevard, with help and advice from members of an advisory board.

Memberships are needed, and all who are interested are warmly welcome. Membership categories range from $35 to $1,000 annually. Further information may be obtained by calling the society office, 399-1310.

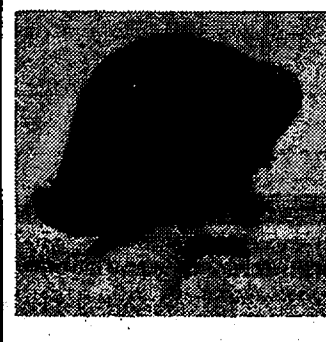

The society's most recent gifts to the zoo include completion of the Prairie Dog Exhibit, reconstruction of Baboon Rock and the Cheetah Enclosure, completion of the Snow Leopard Exhibit and paving of the zoo entrance, as well as purchase of various types of equipment, (hospital, mowers, etc.).

These projects and equipment came to a total cost of approximately $100,000.

Volare...Italian Elegance For The American Budget

Volare, It's Italian. It's straightforward, simple, yet as elegant as a Venetian palace. In this all wood collection, Stanley has captured the spirit of 18th Century Italian furniture. Even the handsome moldings—framed with richly embossed burl—follow the lines dictated by designers centuries ago. And that hallmark of the Baroque era, the velvet painted finish, has been duplicated in antique white with a grey accent stripe. For fine craftsmanship, extraordinary value (and a bit of Italian romance), bring Volare into your home.

Miss Coleman was graduated from Our Lady Star of the Sea High School and received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from Barry College of Miami, Fla. Her fiancé was graduated from University of Detroit High School. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Georgetown University, and is a member of the Georgetown University Rowing Association.

Torkanowsky Coming Here

Antal Dorati, Detroit Symphony music director, has announced the appointment of Werner Torkanowsky as guest conductor and associate to the music director.

Torkanowsky, formerly music director of the New Orleans Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra, will assume the post in September. Commenting on his selection Maestro Dorati stated: "It has been a top priority since my own appointment last November to obtain the most experienced conductor of strong musical abilities to serve as my associate in Detroit."

"I am extremely delighted to welcome Werner Torkanowsky, who enjoys a fine international reputation for his musical accomplishments and for his work during the past 14 seasons as music director in New Orleans, to the conducting staff of the Detroit Symphony."

Torkanowsky made his Detroit Symphony conducting debut in January of 1961 and has appeared before the orchestra frequently since that time, most recently in November, 1976, when he stepped in to replace the ailing Klaus Tennstedt.

Last month Torkanowsky was selected by Isaac Stern

The David Hendries

Marriage vows were spoken Saturday, June 18, in Saint Paul's Catholic Chapel, Big Rapids, by PATRICIA ANN CRITCHFIELD, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Brian Critchfield and L. W. Critchfield, both of Reed City, and Mr. Hendrie, son of the John Alexander Hendries, of Deming lane.

to conduct the Paris premiere performance of George Rochberg's Concerto for Violin and Orchestra, a work written for Stern as part of a National Endowment for the Arts commissioning project.

Marshall W. Turkin, DSO executive director, stated as he discussed the present conducting staff: "Paul Freeman remains our conductor-in-residence, although his busy international schedule and demands on his time for increased recording activities require frequent time away from Detroit."

"Philip Greenberg, recent winner of the Nicolai Malko International Orchestra Competition for Young Conductors in Denmark, remains our assistant conductor with the continuing responsibility for development of the Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra in addition to his DSO conducting schedule."

"The addition of Werner Torkanowsky lends additional strength to our conducting staff and definitely assists the orchestra in maintaining its extremely active schedule."

Werner Torkanowsky made his debut as an orchestral conductor with the Minneapolis Symphony, (now the Minnesota Orchestra), in 1960. Since that time he has conducted nearly every major orchestra in the United States.

Torkanowsky, born in Germany in 1926, emigrated with his parents to Israel when he was six years old.

He received his earliest training from his mother, a concert pianist, and later began studying violin with members of the orchestra in Tel Aviv.

In 1948 Torkanowsky arrived in New York to study violin with Raphael Bronstein. From 1954 to 1959 he studied conducting at L'Ecole Montoux.

In 1961, as winner of the coveted Naumberg Award, Torkanowsky made his first guest conducting appearance with the New York Philharmonic.

He has subsequently made appearances with the orchestras of cities such as Philadelphia, Boston, Detroit, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

He also has conducted performances at festivals such as Ravinia, Aspen and the Festival of Two Worlds in Spoleto, Italy.

In the past three seasons Torkanowsky has conducted major orchestras in France, Spain, Italy, South America and Israel.

In the summer of 1974 he took the Israel Philharmonic on tour in South Africa; in 1975 he appeared with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in both England and Spain.

Recently he appeared with the London Symphony at the Casals Festival in Mexico.

Within the month Torkanowsky will be wed to Ragna Bruno, of Madrid, Spain, aboard ship enroute to South America.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Friends, acquaintances and associates keep asking us about the progress of Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co.'s Community Development Program. "Will it ever truly be a reality?" "Will it be soon?" "What can we do?" Well, here's what we are doing: About twenty of our associates are contacting Grosse Pointe home owners daily. They are leaving a brochure which explains our cul-de-sac idea and its benefits. It's a slow, slow thing but it must be done for a true and equitable readout of your feelings. To date the feeling is an overwhelming favorable response! Grosse Pointe residents want our cul-de-sac program and they want it now.

To speed things up many wonderful people have volunteered their time and are forming "block captains" and having get-togethers with the neighbors. This is a community spirit so fantastic that we feel we'd like to print their names in headlines.

When people ask us why our Grosse Pointes are so attractive—aside from our beautiful homes and unparalleled schools—we search for the words that adequately spell out our community spirit. This doesn't mean we live in our neighbors' backyards and discard our privacy. It's something else that we all have in common—something we all want to love and protect and make better!

If you would like to know more and haven't yet been contacted by one of our associates please call us at Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. 882-0087. And—oh yes if you are interested in selling or buying through the finest and most aggressive Real Estate Co.—we're available!

TAKE THE PLUNGE

But we suggest you do so from the diving board. Or maybe just slip gently from the curving slide at poolside. Where do you fit in the picture? Maybe you are napping in the sumptuous, first floor master suite? Maybe you have escaped to the private apartment which is in a separate wing of the house? Perhaps you are putting in the greenhouse? We suggest you spend a good part of the summer on a chaise by the pool. But take the plunge. We think you'll like it.

Pointer Receives Kudos For One-Day Jury System

David E. Kasunic, of Trombley road, has been informed that the One-Day/Trial Jury System, which he planned and directed for Wayne County Circuit, Probate and Common Pleas Courts, has been nominated to receive a 1977 County Achievement Award.

The award, presented by the National Association of Counties in Washington gives national recognition to progressive county developments that demonstrate improvement in county government's structure and management and expand county services to citizens.

The County Achievement Awards will be presented at the National Association of Counties annual conference, which will be held in Detroit this year from July 24 to 27.

This marks the second major award garnered by the streamlined jury system which has jurors serving for one day or the duration of one trial rather than 30 days.

Earlier this year the coveted U. S. Department of Justice Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA), Exemplary Award, one of the three conferred throughout the country. Selection was based on overall effectiveness in improvement in the operations and quality of the justice system, demonstrated cost effectiveness and adaptability to other jurisdictions.

An 11-member LEAA Review Board established that the Wayne County jury project met all the criteria and added it was one of the most innovative and productive court programs seen in years of selecting new programs.

Currently, the LEAA is producing a manual and brochure, based on the Wayne County experience, which will be disseminated to 3,000 courts in the United States to assist them in developing their own One-Day / One-Trial system.

Mr. Kasunic reported that he had not anticipated the extent of the impact the new jury system would have.

"We have just about run out of the hundreds of copies of our publications, explaining how the system was planned and implemented," Mr. Kasunic said.

"Administrative and judicial personnel from all over the United States have called or written and requested information. And we have had visitors from several states who are using our experience and information to adapt the One-Day/One-Trial to their courts."

"Locally, other Michigan counties have sent representatives to Detroit, especially after Governor Milliken, in his State of the State Message in January, announced that he supported the commission's proposal for reform of the jury duty system so that persons called for jury duty would serve for one day or one trial."

Mr. Kasunic, an attorney with both judicial and administrative experience, is currently assisting Chief Judge Samuel C. Gardner and administrative personnel of Detroit's Recorder's Court with their changeover preparations to the One-Day/One-Trial system on Tuesday

Ultra Suede, Real Suede, Suede Cloth . . . are all part of the softness of fall fashion at Walton-Pierce. There is a good selection of Ultra Suede dresses. One by Jerry Silverman is zipped down the side to a slit hem. A zip pocket accents the other side. An Ultra Suede and knit combination comes in camel or slate blue. Then there is a winter violet Ultra Suede dress with self-laced closing. Real suede is the front of a snap-closed, heavenly blue jacket that is ensembled with a blouson jersey top and matching blue knit pants for a put-together sporty look. A dusty pink suede cloth jumper pairs with a good looking silky shirt. Corduroy is also a softy that's in fashion. At Walton-Pierce there's a great wrap and side button corduroy skirt from a collection of separates that includes many wool skirts in many new interesting styles and fall colors. One of the most fashionable new blouses is by Alice Stuart. It is a blouson with a round neck, three buttons, long full sleeves and a detachable scarf. It comes in a luscious chocolate brown and a creamy white. Long dresses are beginning to arrive. Many of them have a year-round approach to partying. We like the long brown jersey, styled with a blouson effect and a pleated skirt. By the way, we know you'll be interested to learn the St. John knits are now coming in and are they good looking!

They're Both 'Women of Distinction'

Congratulating BLANCHE KEFGEN, (left), chosen 1977's Woman of Distinction by the Alpha Mu chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma international honorary organization for women in education, is last year's Alpha Mu Woman of Distinction GERRY BERTOVICK. Blanche, currently Alpha Mu's recording secretary, has served the chapter as publicity chairman and head of the membership committee, and this year organized the highly successful Kefgen Choir.

Her interest in music and composition began with a traveling circus!

The circus was her uncle's, and there teenage Blanche first learned and performed the Highland Fling and Sword Dance.

When her family moved to Grosse Pointe, she attended and was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School. Four years later she received her Bachelor of Science degree from Eastern Michigan University.

She began her teaching career in Muskegon, moved to the Mount Clemens School District and shortly thereafter joined the Richard Elementary School staff in the Pointe. She recently retired from the Grosse Pointe School System as a Reading Consultant.

Over the years, Blanche completed requirements for an advanced degree at Wayne State University, worked as a volunteer for the March of Dimes and the Cancer Society and taught Sunday School as well as serving as secretary of the Saint Columba Altar Society.

She married Robert Kefgen. They have two sons: Ronald, who followed his father into law, and Bruce, who followed his mother into education.

Blanche has served as vice-president and president of the College Women's Club. She maintains active membership in the American Association of University Women and the Detroit Review Club. She has cooperated in reading workshops for other school systems, and for six years conducted the workshop at the annual meeting of the Michigan Reading Association.

She also served on the State Committee for Remedial Reading.

She has worked tirelessly to assure the smooth operation of the Wayne County Reading Association, serving as its corresponding secretary, recording secretary, membership chairperson and nominating chairperson.

She organized the Grosse Pointe Education Association's Professional Library, and served two terms as GPEA corresponding secretary.

She is co-author, with Kay Goodnuff, of "The Grosse Pointe Handwriting Manual" which established a unique manuscript alphabet designed to help eliminate reversals and flow easily into cursive writing.

Capture Rose Show Prizes

Beautiful blooms filled the winners' table at the Grosse Pointe Rose Show, held June 17 and 18 at the Grosse Pointe Central Library, with the Gold Medal Certificate for Best Hybrid Tea going to Dr. Woodburn Ross for Miss All American Beauty and, in the Miniature Division, the Gold Medal Certificate for Best Cluster of Blooms awarded to David Borgart for Sherri Ann.

Andrea Parent, president of the Grosse Pointe Rose Society, and Ron O'Bryan, show chairman, announced the winners.

The Silver Medal Certificate went to Robert Seiber for Annabelle, the Best Floribunda. The Bronze Medal Certificate was claimed by Margaret Young for the Best Grandiflora, Comanche.

In the Miniature Division, the Silver Medal Certificate for Best Single Bloom was awarded to Harold Lee for Beauty Secret. The Bronze Medal Certificate went to Hixie Sanford for the Best English Box, consisting of Starina, Mary Marshall, Baby Betsy McCall, Yellow Doll, Chipper and Janna.

There were many winners. Especially exciting was the interest shown by non-members of the Grosse Pointe Rose Society, enthusiastically entering their roses for the first time.

Short and to The Pointe

PAUL A. LESLIE, son of MR. and MRS. ARTHUR LESLIE, of Merriweather road, has been named to the Wittenberg University Winter Term Dean's List.

FRANCIS M. MOYNIHAN, of Washington road, executive director of Family Service of Detroit and Wayne County, participated in the 104th annual forum of the National Conference on Social Welfare, held May 15 through 18 in Chicago. Topic for his presentation was "Violence in the Family."

Grosse Pointe South High School graduate SAULT DECLERCQ has been appointed editor of Eastern Michigan University's literary magazine "Cellar Roots."

MR. and MRS. THOMAS ROBINSON WOOD, of Lennox road, announce the birth of a son, GEOFFREY HALLMANN WOOD, May 5. Mrs. Wood is the former DEBRA HALLMANN, daughter of the DONALD HALLMANNs, of Robert John road. Paternal grandparents are the DONALD WOODs, of Sunningdale drive.

MAUREEN ELIZABETH KENNEDY, who has just completed her junior year at Grosse Pointe South High School, daughter of the WILLIAM EDWARD KENNEDYs, of Balfour road, is one of 40 students selected from 270 outstanding candidates to attend a School of Agriculture - sponsored Student Science Training Program in the Life Sciences at Purdue University this summer.

Among those named to Kalamazoo College's Winter Quarter Dean's List are Pointers DIANE DUPUIS, ERNEST CHIODO, KATHRYN MCENROE and SUSAN OTEY, freshmen; JUDITH KIENLE, JAMES KLIMCHUK and WILLIAM SPENCER, sophomores; and SHAHEEN RUSHD and CHRISTOPHER SOURIS, seniors.

sociation perform two half-hour shows daily, free of charge.

There'll be lots of other things to see and do, but the most fun, (take it from a French Market veteran), is simply to wander, and watch, and listen to conversations in another language . . . and EAT!

The only thing wrong with the French Market is that it's very fattening.

William E. Barry, of Lakeview avenue, is general chairman of the Market this year, assisted by Dorothea Vermeulen, of Lakeshore road. Treasurer is George Romain, of Westland.

Committee chairmen include the Wilkinsons, Mrs. Frederick Van Assche, Mrs. Robert Sillery, Mrs. Peter Stroh, Madeleine Goodrich, William Bostick, Mrs. George Kappaz, Mrs. L. Depuma, Mrs. George Mikhail, Girard Pito, Kathleen Shaus and Denise Controulis.

More are Lily Tawile, Yves Carbonneau, George de Bary and the Mesdames Sydney Newhouse, Frances Sheridan and William Barry.

The French Festival, Inc., is comprised of participating members of the Alliance Francaise de Detroit, the Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe, the French Women's Benevolent Club, Le Club LaSalle, Inc., Paroisse St. Joachim de Detroit and the Societe St. Jean Baptiste de Detroit.

The Festival's goal over the next few years is to acquire a building at historic Fort Wayne and, in cooperation with the Detroit Historical Society, decorate and furnish it in the style of the City of Detroit's early French settlers.

Across the Pacific

Nancy Ann Rausch is heading across the Pacific for a year's study during which she'll live as a member of a Japanese family in Sendai-city, in the South of Japan.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rausch, of Van Antwerp road, is a "natural" for selection as a foreign exchange student.

At Dominican High, (she was graduated this year), she was in an accelerated three-year, independent Honors Program, was elected to the National Honor Society, earned her varsity letter with the Dominican Band and Orchestra and won first place in the Michigan Band and Orchestra Association competition for flutists.

She recently received a Certificate for Outstanding Academic Achievement in the State of Michigan Scholarship Competition.

All In The Family

It's been Togetherness Time for Pointers at this year's professional school graduation ceremonies.

A case in point: Daniel and Anita Watson, of Lakepointe avenue, one of seven married couples — more than old hands at the Wayne State University Law School could recall ever having graduated in a single class — who picked up their Law degrees from WSU this June.

Another case in point: James Bavinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bavinger, Jr., of Lakeland avenue, and his wife, Catherine Clayton, of Troy by way of Columbus, O., both of whom received M.D. degrees June 3 from the University of Michigan Medical School.

And the Generation Gap was bridged at Wayne County Community College by Barbara and Stephanie Jeffrey, among WC3's 69 Nursing Program graduates.

The mother-daughter team received their pins at a formal Pinning Ceremony last Sunday evening, at Saint Aloysius Church in downtown Detroit.

ADK's '77 Scholarship Goes to Marla

MARJORIE PAQUETTE, (front right), of the Alpha Delta Kappa sorority of women educators, presents Grosse Pointe North High School graduate MARLA RUDICK with an ADK scholarship check as Marla's mother JEAN O'NEILL, (back left), and PAM KOCIS, of the Grosse Pointe teaching staff, (back right), look on. The presentation was made at a recent luncheon at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Marla will continue her studies at Michigan State University in the fall. The scholarship is one of ADK's many altruistic projects developed on the local level. Another, the ADK International Teacher Education Program, brings a foreign student to the United States every year for a year's study at a leading American college.

Heat Is a 'Must' for Successful Growth of Anthurium

The Anthurium, or flamingo flower, (Anthurium scherzerianum) is grown for its colorful spathes, or flower bracts. These waxy white, pink or red bracts may never appear on an Anthurium grown in the home, however.

According to Michigan State University horticulturists, the Anthurium will survive in the home environment but requires a particular combination of light and humidity to thrive and flower.

High humidity is a must, the specialists point out. Warm temperatures—80-to-85 degrees F during the day with a minimum of 62 to 65 degrees at night—are another hard-to-come-by ideal.

A humus soil, made of one-half standard houseplant potting soil and one-half peat, should be kept moist at all times but not soaking wet. Too much water in the soil, whether it is due to over-watering or poor drainage, will cause the roots to rot. The Anthurium does not require a lot of light, but if it does not get enough it will not flower. Partial shade is usually recommended.

Under the proper conditions, the Anthurium can bloom at any time of the year. It most often flowers from February to July.

Red spider mites can be a problem on Anthurium. Inspect the undersides of the leaves occasionally with a hand lens and treat any infestations with a miticide such as dicofol, (Kelthane).

If you succeed in growing Anthurium and want to propagate it, you can do so by division and fresh seeds. Some Anthuriums are hybrids and will not grow true from seed.

If you chose to propagate by seed, be prepared to get offspring different from the parent plant.
