HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, June 30
THE HOUSE voted Wednesday to keep the $12,900 annual pay increase that it accepted in March without a vote, and it defeated an amendment by Rep. Charles Grassley, R-Iowa, to delete funds for the raise from a legislative appropriations bill by a vote of 241-181. The entire bill now goes to President Carter, who is expected to sign it. A congressman's salary will thus remain at a $57,500 a year level, but would have reverted to $44,600 had the Grassley amendment been approved. About 22,000 upper-level bureaucrats also got to keep similar increases.

Friday, July 1
PRESIDENT CARTER fulfilled a major campaign promise Thursday and ordered production of the B1 bomber halted. Speaking at a morning press conference, Mr. Carter said the plane was too costly at $110 million each and unnecessary to the nation's defense in light of the development of the cruise missile. The President had been expected to approve at least limited production of the plane, which would replace the aging B52 in the U.S. arsenal. The cruise missile is an unmanned nuclear weapon which can be directed to targets at low altitude through a sophisticated computer guidance system.

Saturday, July 2
THE GOVERNMENT IS continuing to lose ground in the battle against inflation, the new economic report from the Carter administration showed Friday. The job situation, however, is showing more improvement than expected. The report said consumer prices will increase 6.9 percent this year and 6.1 percent in 1978, somewhat worse than previously forecast.

Sunday, July 3
DETROIT'S HOMICIDE rate has dropped by 29 percent from last year. The number of homicides from January 1 through June 30 declined from 357 in 1976 to 254 this year. In fact, the rate has dropped even faster in the last two months, according to police. In June, fewer than half as many people were killed this year, (30), than last, (67).

Monday, July 4
THE CARTER administration is considering establishment of a U.S. military base in Israel to demonstrate firm commitment to the Jewish state, it was learned Sunday. It is one of several proposals being considered. President Jimmy Carter has ordered discussions of U.S. Mideast policy kept quiet until after he meets with Israeli Premier Menachem Begin in Washington later this month.

Tuesday, July 5
A SPANISH SPEAKING gunman, who hijacked a Vermont bound bus to Kennedy Airport in New York, killed the driver and a woman passenger and kept police at bay for more than eight hours before surrendering late Monday. He released his hostages unharmed. A third passenger was wounded before the hijacker was cornered near an airport hangar after moving the bus toward a DC8 cargo plane.

Church Slates Bible School

The Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, will hold Vacation Bible School Monday through Friday, August 8 to 12, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. The school will serve children ages three through 11. The charge, per child, is $1.75. If three or more children in the same family enroll, the cost will be $5. For further information, call Nan Strandhagen at 881-3811.

Pair Want to Keep Smiling at GPW Recreation

Feeling the issuance of a Class C license will stem the tide of gradually declining profits, thus making sure their business will not ultimately be forced to close, BOB DEGRIEK, (left), and his father, JIM, of Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation, 20422 Mack avenue, hope to coordinate an initiatory petition drive to put this question on the November election ballot in The Woods. Jim says he's currently at the warning stage, not the panic stage, regarding his operation, while feeling a Class C license will do the trick for his bowling alley business.

Interest in Future of Punch High

While No Hard Proposals Apparent, Merchant Association Has Some Ideas

By Tom Greenwood
Citizen interest in the fate of the Punch and Judy Theater is still running high, but hard proposals concerning the Pointe landmark are nonexistent, according to Robert G. Edgar, co-owner of the cinema.

"Since our zoning variance was denied by the Farms Council three weeks ago, we haven't received any viable solutions to the problem," said Mr. Edgar.

"My partner, Dick Crawford, and I aren't really surprised either. We've received phone calls from residents, and people on the street talk to us, but their suggestions aren't realistic."

Awaits Word
Mr. Edgar said he had showed the theater to a businessman who runs movie houses, but "although we shook hands, there were no commitments made."

"We haven't heard anything from the Hill Businessmen's Assoc. either," continued Mr. Edgar. "Shep Norton approached me after the council meeting and said he and the association would get in touch with us to work out ideas concerning the theater. It has been weeks now since the meeting and I still haven't heard from them."

Contacted by the NEWS, Mr. Norton admitted the association hadn't talked yet. (Continued on Page 6)

County Nutrition Site For Seniors Develops Into Something More

Once Only Noontime Meals, Socialization Were Keynote But Now Location at Woods Church Provides Foundation for Exploration of Citizens' Needs on Community-Wide Basis

By Roger A. Waha
When Wayne County's Food and Nutrition Program for senior citizens 60 and over opened its temporary headquarters at the American Legion Hall last November, and when it opened its permanent headquarters at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, in January, no one ever dreamed it would develop as a nucleus for senior citizens activities, while providing the foundation for an exploration of their needs on a community-wide basis.

But this is what is currently happening with the program, which provides noontime meals free of charge five days a week, (Monday through Friday), via federal funds under the Older Americans Act. It is beginning to take on a wider dimension.

Its original purpose, besides providing meals, was to feature an emphasis upon socialization—giving seniors an opportunity to visit, hear speakers on a wide range of subjects, participate in arts and crafts, to take trips and to receive such additional services as legal aid and counseling.

Harwood Volunteers
However, under the guidance of Mary Alej and Diane Heavner, co-directors, and with the interest and cooperation of many individuals and organizations in the community, the nutrition site, perhaps in spite of itself, is becoming a major focal point toward looking into the needs of seniors.

At a meeting of the group late last month, School Board Trustee Laurence J. Harwood volunteered to be acting chairman, and he is looking forward to making the commission a viable one.

In relation to the overall senior spectrum, Mrs. Alej stressed the group has to determine "what we need, where we are to go and how deep are a variety of problems affecting seniors," plus how they can be resolved.

These problems not only include physical and financial considerations but also the wide-ranging one of service.

As part of the planned program, members will view a trio of areas including needs, by-laws and funding. Mrs. Alej said a meeting of the group has been scheduled for early July toward a (Continued on Page 2)

Bad Water Closes GPW Shoreline

Health Department Cites Bacteriological Contamination in Area of Pier Park, Crescent Sail Yacht Club

By Tom Greenwood
High levels of bacteriological contamination have caused the temporary closing of natural beaches at the Pier Park and the Crescent Sail Yacht Club.

The high pollution levels, considered by the Wayne County Health Department to be a factor of 25 to 50 times the state standard, is thought caused by a partial sewage discharge from The Farms' Kerby Road Sewage Project into Lake St. Clair.

Officials at The Farms and yacht club immediately posted no swimming signs when notified Friday, July 1, by the health department.

Officials Cooperative

"We've been monitoring the water pollution levels for years along areas where public bathing is allowed," said Glenn Brown, director of environmental health for the county.

"This is the first time I can remember that we've had to issue warnings in this area. We believe the problem is caused by diverted sewage passing into the lake while the Kerby road sewer is being repaired."

"When we notified officials at The Farms and the yacht club, they were very cooperative and immediately set about posting warnings to their members."

Mr. Brown believes once the sewer is repaired, the problem should correct itself. "It will take several days to clean itself up," he said. "There's not much of a flow of water through that area. It's either wait until it washes itself away, or until the organisms die off."

"We will continue to monitor the area, but it could take anywhere from two days to two weeks to clean up. There's no set timetable. One thing is certain, though, presently that area is a hazard."

Repairs Nearly Done

A spokesman at The Farms acknowledges the city had been notified and was taking steps to warn patrons of the Pier Park.

"We've erected signs at the natural beach warning against bathing there. We've also got guards there to keep people out of the water. We'll still allow sunning on the beach," said the official, "but no bathing until we get the (Continued on Page 4)

Business Seeks Liquor License To Stem Decline

Owner of GPW Recreation Cites Gradually Falling Profits at Bowling Alley, Expresses Concern Before Council That Unless Tide Changes, Establishment May Be Forced to Close

By Roger A. Waha

A popular family-owned business, Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation, 20422 Mack avenue, which has been operating a bowling alley in the city since 1940, is gradually reaching a point of diminishing returns. As a result, the owners feel the issuance of a Class C license, (selling liquor by the glass), to the establishment will be a saving factor for the business in the future.

Because of this, a bid from Jack E. Degriek, backed by referendary petitions bearing around 350 signatures, to have the Woods Council place this question on the ballot, i.e., whether the current ordinance should be amended or changed to permit the issuance of a "C" license via the Liquor Control Commission, (LCC), to the business, was viewed by the solons at their regular meeting Monday, June 20.

City Attorney George Catlin said the petitions were not legally binding but only indicated the overall feeling of the petitioners that the question should be placed on the November ballot in some form for the approval or disapproval of the voters.

Wants Citizen Input

The final result was that the council declined to place this matter by direct action before the electorate, with Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos stressing he personally wanted an indication from the people regarding their receptiveness toward the issuance of "C" licenses.

So Mr. Degriek said he plans to go the initiatory petition route based upon rules set down in the city charter toward drafting a question in proper ordinance form.

Such petitions must contain a minimum 10 percent signatures of registered voters in the community. At this point, there are just over 14,000 registered voters so Mr. Degriek would need, to be on the safe side, some 1,500 signatures, (as all must be properly certified).

In reviewing the problems he has faced on the cost (Continued on Page 4)

Grady Named To GPW Group

Woods Councilman E. D. Grady was appointed by Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos as the council representative to the Beautification Commission at the regular meeting Monday, June 20.

Dr. Albert C. Howe, commission chairman, requested such an appointment to the group after the post was left vacant due to the recent resignation of Joan M. Mullan from the council.

"We are grateful for the guidance and assistance provided by Councilwoman Joan Mullan during her term of office," added Dr. Howe.

Although the total available grant for the current program is large, The Shores' portion is only $1,580; The City's, $7,299; The Farms', $14,804; The Park's, $43,778; and The Woods', $52,020.

Under this particular CETA program, cities must involve a non-profit community agency or school system in the project and split at least (Continued on Page 8)

Woods Jewelry Store Victimized by Robbers

Bijouterie, Inc., 19860 Mack avenue, was victimized by two persons who, at gun point, took several thousand dollars worth of jewelry and around $3,000 in cash Saturday afternoon, July 2, reported Woods police.

Numerous precious stones, including diamonds, sapphires, rubies and opals were taken with Det. Lt. Jack Patterson saying specific values of the items haven't been determined as yet. The owner, along with two employees and two customers, were in the store when a man and woman entered the premises. After asking to see wedding bands in the $1,500 range, and after checking merchandise for some 15 minutes, the man produced

Pointes Eye New CETA Program

Officials See Possibility of Communities Forming Consortium to Solicit, Distribute Funds

By Susan McDonald and Roger A. Waha

Federal funding to the five Pointes could be substantially increased this year under a new CETA program that allows cities to jointly apply for grants.

Wayne County, which administers CETA, (Comprehensive Employment Training Act), in this area, gave approval last month to the practice of small communities forming consortiums to solicit and distribute federal funds.

The practice would reduce overhead enough to make it feasible for small communities to participate in the program. Because of the exorbitant administrative costs involved, (it takes three weeks of one staffer's time to complete an application), few municipalities can justify soliciting funds separately.

Non-Profit Agency

If Pointe officials can cooperate in forming a consortium within the next few weeks, they will qualify for about $20,000 toward employing residents in public works projects.

In addition, it is likely that future CETA programs, including a proposed Title 8 for youth employment and Title 9 to provide training for senior citizens, will be distributed in the same manner.

Although the total available grant for the current program is large, The Shores' portion is only $1,580; The City's, $7,299; The Farms', $14,804; The Park's, $43,778; and The Woods', $52,020.

Under this particular CETA program, cities must involve a non-profit community agency or school system in the project and split at least (Continued on Page 8)

Officials Hear Talk Of Planner

Brandon Rogers Makes Presentation to Planning Commission, Which Recommends Hiring of Firm to Council

By Roger A. Waha

The Woods Planning Commission, after hearing an hour-long presentation from Brandon M. Rogers, executive vice-president of Parkins, Rogers and Associates, Inc., unanimously recommended to the council that the firm be hired as the city's planning consultant and that the proposed contract between both parties be approved.

This action was taken by the commission at its regular meeting Tuesday evening, June 28, with the group's recommendation scheduled to be considered by the council at its rescheduled regular meeting Monday, July 11.

Mr. Rogers, who reviewed his proposals to update the city zoning ordinance and to formulate a land use plan, said he is looking forward to working with city officials on these projects.

Catalyst Needed

His firm was one of six which was scrutinized by a selection committee made up of Peter Gilezan, commission chairman, and Commissioners Robert Trinklein and John Kennedy, along with Councilmen George Freeman and George Cueter.

Based upon the selection committee's recommendation, the council on April 4 unanimously selected the firm for the work program.

"I was favorably impressed with Mr. Rogers' presentation," said Mr. Gilezan. "We need a catalyst to pull things together and I feel he's the man."

Meanwhile, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen stated he thought Mr. Rogers made a very good, and knowledgeable, presentation. If the council proceeds to approve his contractual agreement, he felt it would be a step in the right direction for the community.

Saying he was highly honored to be selected by the city, (in reference to the tough competition he faced), Mr. Rogers, who lives in The Farms, said he can bring an extra appreciation to the problems and concerns faced by the city because of his "grass roots" experience in the area.

Eyes Renovation

The firm was appointed as planning consultant to the City of Harper Woods by that city's first council in 1953, and has served as consultant continuously for Grosse Pointe City since 1968. It also prepared the officially adopted, (as an ordinance), land use plan for The Farms in 1972.

Noting The Woods is a key piece of the eastern part of Wayne County and that it cannot be isolated, Mr. Rogers (Continued on Page 2)

The NEWS is announcing new business hours for the classified, circulation and accounting departments currently in effect. They are as follows: Monday, Thursday and Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Tuesday, 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

All classified advertising must be in no later than 12 noon on Tuesday. All corrections or cancellations must be in no later than 4 p.m. on Monday.

It is suggested that our customers call in their ads early Wednesday, Thursday and Friday as it is often difficult to get through to the classified advertising department on Monday and Tuesday.

Planning Consultant Views Future of Woods

ers stated the community is facing a period of transition. The area north of Vernier road, for instance, is built up with The Woods being in a similar position to The Farms and City—little land for building is available and the housing stock is older, although there are some newer homes going up, he said.

For his part, Mr. Rogers sees a tremendous market in renovating older homes as against building newer ones.

To remain alive and active, the city must have good schools, churches, clubs and a high degree of home maintenance with consistent enforcement of all codes to keep the community forever new, he stated.

Moving Ahead
Mr. Rogers also cited the community's "strategic location" in relation to its access to Canada, the RenCen and downtown Detroit, Port Huron and the Eastland Shopping Center, (he even foresees parking decks at Eastland in the near future). As for the shopping complex in the Village, he felt it was decidedly viable.

"You are fortunate to be surrounded by communities, as well as your own, who have moved ahead rather than sitting back," Mr. Rogers told the commission.

But he sees a problem of identity for The Woods in relation to the city's commercial district, i.e., Mack avenue. "The quality of the business strip will take a lot of care and concern," he noted, while citing a concern over the store mix, ("it shouldn't develop into a medical office center").

At the same time, he mentioned the overall lack of off-street parking toward generating major commercial uses.

Saying he was given the impression from officials that the updating of the zoning ordinance was what was needed most, Mr. Rogers emphasized, "This is the most comprehensive ordinance which is adopted. It must be based upon far sighted planning and be in conformance with the law."

Need of Flexibility
Stressing he will work closely with City Attorney George Catlin in the preparation of the measure with its many ingredients, Mr. Rogers said he will look at a variety of items including rights-of-way, the parking of vehicles on service station property, signs, et al., along with the types of uses permitted in certain districts.

In looking specifically at Mack avenue, Mr. Rogers said he would like to see more flexibility on the uses front, i.e., quasi-uses, while keeping a solid eye on architectural control, which he felt, while decidedly important, should actually be a secondary purpose.

A style must be established but flexibility within the style must transpire.

He also feels there's a need in the future for multiple housing for all age groups.

On the question of legislative and legal restraints on zoning, he said, "My hope is to keep you out of court" in regards to potential lawsuits, while reiterating that he will work closely with Mr. Catlin to head off all possible confrontations.

"But if you have to go to court, go to court and win," he added, not without a touch of dry humor.

The final product, which he called a "living document" for future development, should be ready by the end of this year.

Input Important
On the formulation of a land use plan, Mr. Rogers said it must fit the needs of all citizens. Saying he sees the ultimate closing of schools in the Grosse Pointe School District, (while citing declining enrollment), he emphasized the demographic character of the people and school children must be viewed.

He feels such a plan, which also must consider permanent features which cannot be removed, must keep city officials and the public aware of changing population and economic conditions and development opportunities in the community.

If any land is ultimately condemned, he emphasized that it must be put back to use.

In the case of both the updating of the zoning ordinance and in the development of a land use plan, input from not only officials but from the public is necessary toward formulating goals and objectives.

In relation to the Seven-Mack Shopping Center area, he termed J. C. Penney's "an anchor," while expressing his feeling that the days of the other stores located in Detroit are numbered.

Sees Big Complex
In that immediate location, he foresees a multi-purpose complex with an interior mall and a high rise above, separate from any single family neighborhood.

He envisions the possibility of a relocation of businesses in that area, e.g., Detroit and Northern Savings and Loan and Merit Woods Pharmacy, into such a complex if one were built.

Nothing such an approach would take a tremendous amount of financing, Mr. Rogers indicated, a bank could probably take the initiative in this direction.

Councilman John Sabol, who attended the session with Mr. Cueter, asked Mr. Rogers several questions. One was in relation to having an ordinance regarding the inspection of properties prior to sale, (The Woods, it was said, currently has no such measure).

Mr. Rogers felt this was something which should be considered toward preventing a new owner from being saddled with unsuspecting problems.

Must Reach Owners
"It would help to insure that a house would not burn down because of defective wiring or have major water damage. Some may object to such an ordinance but it's a coming thing."

In response to other questions, Mr. Rogers shared his view that the beauty of any shopping center is in the variety of its style which must, he emphasized, be harmonious, plus the necessity of reaching so-called absentee owners of Mack avenue businesses, (i.e., non-residents of the city), regarding improvements to their structures.

The proposed contract which the council will consider stipulates fees of $4,400 for the updating of the zoning ordinance and $9,200 for the formulation of a land use plan.

Arguments settle nothing—discussions bring out facts that solve most of the problems.

Initiative is the thing that boosts one up the ladder. Time may heal wounds, but it seldom removes the scars.

County Nutrition Site

further identification of seniors' problems and for viewing priorities.

For her part, Mrs. Heavner indicated the commission will focus upon problems not served by the site. "We'll assess the needs of seniors, see what help is already available, seek a non-profit status to obtain funding and educate the community to seniors' problems."

"We'll try to unify everyone regarding what is being done and to see what isn't being done."

Meanwhile, Mr. Harwood participated in several earlier meetings and said, while attending one session in The Woods during the School Board election campaign, Mrs. Aley and Mrs. Heavner made a presentation on problems affecting seniors. "After their presentation, the meeting was opened to the audience and there was a good amount of discussion of where we are going and what are we going to do," he noted, while reviewing how he became a part of the program.

At the time, Mr. Harwood stated he was running for reelection to the Board, and while not being able to speak as a Board member because he might not have been re-elected, he said he was certain the school system would make facilities available for seniors. But he indicated he would like to see a total group of seniors, as against many different seniors' groups, come before the trustees to express their needs.

The ultimate result was that Mr. Harwood was asked to become temporary chairman of the group to get the ball rolling.

An immediate concern is the confusion and the frustration involved on the coordination front.

In citing the preponderance of seniors' groups in the community, i.e., Woods seniors, Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe, other church-related senior organizations, et al., Mr. Harwood noted these groups don't want to lose their identity, and are "very parochial," while doing great jobs in their own right.

An objective is ultimately to have all the groups talk to each other toward reaching a unified consensus of need.

We have to determine all the senior citizen groups existing in the community today, he said, and we must assess the needs of the total community. He added his hope that an umbrella group could be developed to tie all these things together.

Pinned Man, Five Others Hurt in Lakeshore Mishap

Six of seven persons were injured in an accident in The Shores Wednesday, June 29, at 10:07 p.m., with a passenger being pinned in one of the colliding vehicles.

Both cars were demolished by the force of the impact, according to a Shores Police Department of Public Safety report.

Police officers from The Shores, Farms and Woods, plus firemen from The Farms and Harper Woods, were called upon to assist at the scene.

Harper Woods dispatched its Hurst truck with tools and hydraulic jaws, the "Jaws of Life," which pulled apart the car holding the pinned in passenger, before he could be removed from the vehicle.

According to Shores police, a small car driven by Christopher Holmes Smith, 17, of 60 Lewiston road, was traveling south on Lakeshore in the west lane when it rammed broadside into a car driven by Edward Gregory Mangold, 19, of 22380 Maplewood, Southfield.

It was disclosed that Mangold, the only person not injured, drove into the path of the other vehicle.

Mangold was traveling north on Lakeshore and pulled into the crossover at Clairview, came to a stop and then started up and crossed into southbound traffic, resulting in front of Smith's car. Smith, unable to stop in time, smashed broadside into Mangold's vehicle.

Police and firemen at the scene were able to aid the drivers and passengers of both autos, except Michael Jansen, 20, of 10105 Vernors, Huntington Woods, who was pinned in the Mangold car. Efforts to free him proved futile.

A call to Harper Woods, which had the "Jaws of Life" machine, brought firemen to the scene. The hydraulic tool is used to pull apart metal using tremendous pressure, and is made available to all the points. It is believed that this saved Jansen's life.

Riding in Smith's car were Heidi Cox, 18, of 830 Oxford road, who suffered head and back injuries, and David Danaher, 17, of 69 Cloverly road, who complained of an injury, apparently not serious.

In Mangold's car, besides Jansen, were Ann Barret, 19, of 285 Touraine, who was reported to have suffered a hip injury, and Lisa Mann, 18, of 1580 Blairmore, who complained of an unspecified injury. Jansen suffered ankle and back injuries, it was disclosed.

Taken to Bon Secours by Shores ambulance, were Miss Cox, Danaher and Jansen, and taken to Cottage Hospital by Farms ambulance were Smith, Miss Barret and Miss Mann.

A call to Bon Secours Hospital by Shores authorities showed that Miss Cox and Jansen were in stable condition. These were the two most seriously injured. According to the authorities, the others were treated for their injuries and released.

Mangold was taken to The Shores station to make out a written statement and later was released to his parents.

Shores Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale said no violation tickets were issued pending further investigation in the matter.

"I do not have the proper words to thank the officers and firefighters of The Farms, Woods and Harper Woods for the tremendous assistance they rendered at the accident scene," said Chief Vitale.

"The vehicle received from the personnel of these departments, especially Harper Woods, which dispatched its 'Jaws of Life' hydraulic machine, is invaluable.

"I wish to express my own personal thanks to all those who helped at the accident, including the personnel from my department. They all were great.

"This is a perfect example of how we can help each other through mutual assistance in any emergency."

JC's Circus Big Success

The Grosse Pointe Jaycees All-star International Circus, presented Tuesday, June 28, at South High School was the second annual such event in the community and a huge success, said co-chairmen John Falck, Jim Ferriole and Doug Dold.

They expressed pleasure over the enthusiasm the community displayed in purchasing sponsor tickets at $7.50 for six children. These were presented on behalf of the sponsor to needy and deserving youngsters, including the handicapped and mentally retarded.

The circus ended with the children having Elephant rides around the South high gym.

It was a fund raiser for the Jaycees with profits being used for charitable purposes only, as designated by the organization.

Mr. Ferriole added if anyone is interested in helping the Jaycees in their community projects, he should be called at 921-2555.

GPW Recreation Seeks Liquor License

front over the past five years, while trying to peer into the future, Mr. Degriek said, "We're currently at the warning stage, not the panic stage," while stressing he's been fighting for 37 years to get a Class C license.

While emphasizing he's not going to close and that he's still making money, (but it's not what it should be), he said he first became aware of the profit decline about five years ago.

"We're still doing good business, we're still at maximum, (running some four to five leagues a day), but every year our overhead is higher," he stated, and each year his profits have fallen.

Feeling a Class C license would definitely stem this decline, Mr. Degriek estimated he could survive five years without one before a "break-even" time would occur.

If he's ultimately able to acquire a "C" license, Mr. Degriek said the business would only have a small stand-up bar and a few stools, no lounge. "The license would serve our existing customers only. We would have no saloon," chimed in Mr. Degriek's son, Bob.

The problems the Degrieks are facing are decidedly unsettling to them, with Mr. Degriek saying, "I've been in business for 37 years without a bar, while others are getting rich," and "For me, I'd sell out now if it wasn't for my two sons."

The latter point reflects the strong family ties involved, (presently the third generation of Degriek's is active in the business), and family pride in running a popular establishment for the benefit of the total Pointe community.

(Mr. Degriek, for instance, has given special rates to high school bowlers, senior citizens, the retarded, i.e., 45 or 50 cents per game against the Saturday and Sunday open bowling rate of 85 cents per game and the Monday through Friday to 6 p.m. rate of 70 cents.)

Not without a touch of bleakness, Mr. Degriek ran down the ever-increasing costs of running a large operation, while stressing his effort at making some $2,000 to $3,000 in improvements on an annual basis. — $9,000 in cement work, a $3,500 roof job, six new lanes, (there are 18 in all), two years ago at $25,000 and the prospect of putting in 12 new lanes at an estimated $75,000 in the near future.

Then, of course, there are increases in taxes, utilities and gas, which are faced by everyone.

What all this means to the Degriek's is that while other bowling establishments are able to serve hard liquor and beer, he cannot, and, as a result, leagues which presently enjoy his facilities may be forced to bowl elsewhere where alcoholic beverages are available.

At the same time, he has no games such as pinball to help offset the cost of the overall operation.

In a letter to the council, he said, "Other leagues have inquired about the possibility of bowling with us, but when they found out that alcoholic beverages could not be served here at the present time, they stated that they would be unable to sign a contract to bowl with us because their members would enjoy having an alcoholic beverage while bowling."

He feels, since GPW Recreation is the only bowling alley within the five Pointes, citizens would be greatly inconvenienced, (those who bowl here and their children, too), if "we were forced to discontinue our business, and sell our building and real estate, because of our inability to offer what other alleys can and do at this time.

"If this trend of declining business continues, we may be forced to do so."

As for other officers, Mr. Degriek said Borman's Inc. expressed an interest in his business two years ago regarding the construction of a new Farmer Jack supermarket.

"A big chain outfit also wants my building and property and I get calls from them every six months. But I have no interest because I want to keep my sons in the business," he stated.

In reviewing the background of Class C licenses in the community, an ordinance was adopted by referendum in November 1952 limiting the right of the council to approve the issuance of such licenses beyond the number of three then in existence. (That total currently stands.)

In relation to this, the LCC notified the city that, under the 1970 federal census, the municipality's population was such that The Woods was entitled to have 15 Class C licenses.

According to the population formula contained in state statutes, At this point, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said approximately a dozen requests for "C" licenses are on the waiting list. GPW Recreation claims it's number one on that list.

The municipality, which has in the past been at odds with the LCC over the issuance of "C" licenses in the community, instituted a lawsuit against the commission in Wayne County Circuit Court in April 1975.

At that time, a temporary restraining order stopped the LCC from issuing any additional licenses during the pendency of the suit or until further order of the court was given.

However, with legislation being signed into law around the first of this year by Gov. William Milliken, the city dropped the lawsuit. That legislation gave cities in a county with a population of one million or more the right to determine the amount of "C" licenses in the community. It applies to all cities in the state.

Previously, such cities had no such voice or approval authority over the issuance of the licenses.

At the council meeting, a motion from Councilman George Cueter to place this question on the ballot died for lack of support. An ensuing motion from Councilman George Freeman to refer the entire matter on the issuance of "C" licenses to the Committee of the Whole, (C-W), for further study, was defeated 4-2.

Councilman Ronald R. Kegen and John Sabol voted for the motion sending this matter to the C-W.

While the petitioners, including Mr. Degriek and attorney Norman Burau, would have liked the council to place this question directly on the ballot, an overall feeling, most prominently expressed by Mr. Pinkos, that this wouldn't be a feasible approach was apparent.

While acknowledging that the council has the authority to issue such licenses, Mr. Pinkos felt citizens should start a petition drive to have this question placed on the ballot. "Personally, I wouldn't initiate further Class C licenses in Grosse Pointe Woods," he stated.

The mayor also expressed sympathy to the problems confronting Mr. Degriek but indicated the possibility that 12 such licenses could be issued via an explosive issue.

In fact, he called this matter a "real political football" regarding a potential criteria of some voters toward electing council members.

Overall, he said that wouldn't be the kind of city he would like if this occurred.

So, at this stage, the framing of the question as part of an initiatory petition drive remains.

Approaches which could be taken, according to Mr. Catlin, is that the question could be placed as an amendment to the 1952 ordinance asking

"all clear" sign from the health department."

The spokesman also said the sewer repairs are nearly completed and that the sewer itself is in operation. "All that's left to do is install some manholes and do some backfilling," he said. "The pipeline itself is operational and in use."

At the yacht club, "Bosun" James Bruce said signs forbidding swimming were being erected. "We're putting up large 'no swimming' signs," he said. "Our members are aware the levels are high and won't go into the lake. We only have one small beach in plain view."

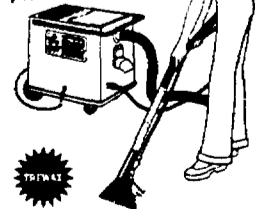

"If anyone ignores the sign and goes in, we'll just tell him to get out."

The problems with the Kerby road sewers began last winter when hundreds of feet of pipe beneath that thoroughfare collapsed. The Farms has spent between $200,000-$300,000 to repair the damages so far.

The French government is concerned about the quality and legitimacy of its wine. It is aware that it is known as the country of high fashion, good dining, and especially fine wines. It does not want to lose its reputation by presenting to the world wines that are supposed to be one thing and turn out to be another. So there are a number of laws pertaining to the labeling of wines. These are especially concerned with making sure a wine grower does not say his wine is from one region that may be especially known for its fine wines, when it is really from a lesser known, and not as fine a region.

You'll find fine wines from all over the world at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626. ## New Laws on Awnings, Alarms Eyed by Woods

Two ordinances, which passed their first reading at the Monday, June 20, meeting of the Woods Council, are scheduled for adoption at their second reading stage at the rescheduled regular meeting Monday, July 11.

One measure proposes to amend the BOCA Basic Building Code and set forth regulations and fees for awnings, while the other is an amendment to the city code providing for penalties for false alarms and the authority to order an alarm disconnected under "automatic alarms."

While permit fees for building permits, zoning fees, et al., are contained in the BOCA code, permit fees for awnings and the setting forth of regulations for the installation of commercial awnings also are viewed.

The proposal eyes retractable awnings, fixed or permanent awnings, fixed or suspended canopies and temporary or supported canopies.

Under the measure, a permit shall be obtained from the Division of Safety Inspections for the erection, repair or replacement of any awning or canopy extending over the public street, right-of-way, sidewalk or alley and over any portion of a court or yard beside a building serving as a passage from a required exitway or exitway discharge to a public area.

Before any permit is issued for any awning or canopy extending over the right-of-way of Mack avenue, a permit for such installation must be secured by the applicant from Wayne County, and a copy of it must be attached to the application for an installation permit.

Under permit exemptions, no permit shall be required for the erection, repair or replacement of any awnings or canopies installed on any dwellings, unless they project over public property, or where such does not project over the public street or over any court or yard serving as a passage from a required exitway to a public street.

The proposal also includes installation requirements for awnings and canopies within the city, e.g., all awnings and canopies shall have a minimum clearance of seven feet from the sidewalk or ground to the lowest part of the framework or any fixed portion of such awning or canopy.

This section also notes that a valance may contain advertising, address or the telephone number related to the occupancy of the building to which the awning or canopy is attached. But any letter or numerals shall not exceed eight inches in height.

At the same time, the proposal says that business logos, pictures and other forms of advertising or signs shall not be permitted on the face or sides of any awning or canopy.

Awnings or canopies not complying with the provisions of the section, shall be considered as non-conforming and shall not be repaired, refurbished, replaced or altered in any manner so as to continue to be in violation of the section.

The final vote on the first reading was 5-1 with Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen voting the motion to Kefgen nixing because he felt the restrictions were too severe.

The objective of the "automatic alarms" proposal is to curtail the preponderance of false alarms from not only businesses but from residences, according to City Attorney George Catlin.

The public safety department, he noted, responds to these alarms and the expressed a concern that because of the amount of false alarms, an officer might get nonchalant in responding and citizens, including the officer, could get hurt.

Mr. Catlin added many citizens, both businessmen and home owners, don't properly take care of their alarm equipment, thus causing unnecessary runs.

The proposal says the public safety director, upon notice of receipt of a fourth false alarm from the same originator within 180 days, shall cause an invoice in the amount of $50 to be sent from the city to the originator for each such false alarm received by the public safety department beginning with the fourth false alarm within the 180-day period.

Each false alarm shall initiate its own 180-day period in addition to falling within any already running 180-day period.

The measure also says that the public safety director is authorized to order an originator who fails, neglects or refuses to pay the invoice for a false alarm within 30 days of the date of mailing to disconnect the alarm system and render same inoperable.

Failure of an originator to disconnect an alarm system when ordered shall constitute a violation of the chapter, the proposal says.

Center Offers Fleet Review

The War Memorial again is making it possible to enjoy a send off for the great Mackinac sailing fleet at the start of the race in Port Huron Saturday morning, July 23.

A charter bus will leave the Center, 32 Lakeshore road, at 7:30 a.m. loaded with patrons, champagne, fresh fruits and thermal containers of hot scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage and sweet rolls.

The first stop will be in Port Huron at the Black River where a champagne toast will be given to the fleet.

Then as the boats move into position for the start of the race, the bus will move slowly across the Blue Water Bridge to Canada to view the parade of boats.

On the Canadian shore, patrons will disembark to Canastota Park where breakfast will be served with champagne.

Only a few places still remain open for this excursion. The cost of round trip transportation, champagne toast and the full breakfast is $12.50.

the culprits escaped.

No one was hurt in the incident.

The man was described as black, between 23-35 years of age, around 5'10" tall and of a thin build. His skin was on the light side, he had a thin, neatly trimmed mustache and manicured fingernails. He wore a light brown suit and a tan straw hat with brim, (orange stripe on a blue background), plus sunglasses.

The woman also was black, in her early 20's, about 5'5" tall and of a thin build. Her skin was dark and she had a very bushy Afro, (possibly a wig). She wore an orange striped dress and sunglasses.

Candidates Eye Seats in Farms

Five Farms residents met the Tuesday, June 14, nomination petition filing deadline for four seats on the Farms Council, according to City Clerk Richard Solak.

Two other persons also have filed for the office of municipal judge. Incumbents filed for re-election to the council include Jack M. Cudlip, Harry R. Fruehauf Jr., Nancy J. Waugaman and Joseph L. Fromm.

Cathryn M. Raynal, of Lewiston road, also filed for council. There is no primary election in The Farms this year, with the general election being held November 8.

The top three vote getters in the council election will serve four-year terms, while the fourth seat yields a two-year term.

In the race for municipal judge is Anthony C. Penta, who's running against incumbent Judge Robert H. Pytell. The four-year terms pay $3,000 annually.

Trying to avoid trouble will keep anyone mighty busy.

Interest in Punch Still High

with Mr. Edgar, but that "we will be talking very soon."

The association has been very busy lately, he said. "We've just had Father's Day, traditionally a busy time for Hill merchants, and the association has been busy electing a new steering committee. But we hope to work very closely with Mr. Edgar in the future."

"We do have a number of ideas to present to Mr. Edgar," said Mr. Norton. "One is to tear down the auditorium and resurface the space for parking."

"The historical landmark part of the building could be used for a retail shop. The second floor could be then used for office space, which is in great demand around here."

"Another idea is to reopen the Punch as a commercial theater on a subscription type basis. One movie or play could be shown a night. The lounge upstairs could be used as a clubhouse, where snacks and drinks could be served."

"We could make it something special," said Mr. Norton. "The money from the subscription holders could help maintain the theater."

"A third solution would be to work out a plan where the city and the association could help the theater to the point of possibly supplementing losses in case it ever opened again as a movie house."

Meanwhile, Wes Wallin, associate minister of Unity Church, proposed buyers of the Punch until turned down by the council, said there were no ill feelings on behalf of the church and its members.

"We have a very understanding attitude about what happened," said Mr. Wallin. "We're open to suggestions. We're still looking for other property, and although we would have liked to move into the Punch, we know something good will come along for us."

"Until then, we'll keep on doing our thing."

Constant worry is the treadmill of life — plenty to do, but it gets you nowhere.

GP Park Loses Suit

Grano, of Balfour road, who filed the show cause suit; Karen Smith Kienbaum, of Grand Marais boulevard; Robert J. Lech, of Somerset road; and Daniel E. Castner, of Barrington road.

At the regular council meeting held on Monday, June 13, Mr. Grano, who has been a resident of The Park for 11 months, at the time, sought to have the council set aside the provisions of the charter, and cited a precedent when the present municipal judge, John Urso, who, too, had been rejected as a candidate for the office because he did not meet the provisions of the charter, filed a show cause suit and won.

In 1972, Judge Urso's petition to have his name put on the ballot for the office of judge, was rejected by Mr. Orisi because the judge had been a resident of The Park for only 14 months, and a practicing attorney for less than four years. He is not seeking re-election.

At the June 13 meeting, the council instructed City Attorney Richard Rohr to look into the matter, and the city attorney said he would seek an opinion from Attorney General Frank Kelley.

The attorney general was unable to render an opinion, at least for the time being, without studying the issue, and Mr. Grano instituted the show cause proceedings and won.

Mr. Grano did not live in The Park the required number of years as specified in the charter, but he has been a resident of Michigan for six years.

Between 1971 and 1975, he taught at the University of Detroit Law School, and in 1974-75, served as interim dean of that school. He has been a full professor of law at Wayne State University since 1975. He was an assistant prosecuting attorney in Pennsylvania, but left that post when he moved to Michigan.

Other hopefuls for the four-year municipal judgeship are John G. Bacon, of Buckingham road; Alan R. Devine Jr., of Bedford road; Beverly C. Grobbel, of Three Mile drive; David E. Kasunic, of Trombley road; George Menendez, of Westchester road; and Timothy J. Sullivan, of Audubon road.

Seeking a four-year term on the city council are incumbents Douglas G. Graham, of Bishop road, and George J. Verdonck, of Harcourt road. Asking to be returned is a former councilman, Warren D. Cpuer, of Berkshire road.

Challenging the incumbents and the former councilman are Charles Thomas Slusser, of Maryland avenue; Dean P. Brunke, of Bishop road; Raymond C. DeRyck, of Harvard road; and James Ferriole Jr., of Nottingham road; Mado O. Lie, of Bedford road; Ann MacDonald, of Balfour road; Patrick J. McCarroll, of Kensington road; Rita Riggan Swan, of Barrington road; and Serge Yanchuck, of Beaconsfield avenue.

Unopposed for the two-year term of the office of mayor is incumbent Matthew C. Patterson.

Pride Keynote Of GPW Letter

The Woods Beautification Commission recently sent out 70 letters to businessmen, who, for the most part, have never been invited to the group's awards night, reported commission chairman Dr. Albert C. Howe.

The communication to The Woods business community says the city is one which takes pride in its environment. For example, when business establishments make a sincere effort to upgrade the appearance of their property, everyone benefits including the shopowner, the prospective customer, and the community.

This November the commission will again present "Certificates of Appreciation" to those individuals who demonstrate this cooperative spirit, the letter from Dr. Howe says.

The criteria for judging ranges from neat shrubbery and grass, to bright store windows, attractive awnings, clean alley entrances and "just an overall Class 1 impression."

Saying businessmen should contact the commission for any assistance, Dr. Howe concludes by stating, "Gentlemen, there are no dues to join this club, just your good will and positive response."

St. James Sets Bible School

Saint James Lutheran Church, 170 McMillan road, will again hold its vacation Bible School from Monday, July 18, to Thursday, July 28. As always, the school is open to the whole community.

A program of classes, recreation, crafts and refreshments will run from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Registration can be accepted opening day at $3 per child or $6 per family.

A true friend will tell you the truth about yourself — not what you want to hear.

THE PARK PHARMACY

Discovery of the existence of body-regulating substances, now called vitamins, marked an important milestone in the understanding of nutrition. The average person requires vitamins in extremely small amounts. They are essential for normal growth and regulation of body activities. Animals, including human beings, are not capable of synthesizing some of the vitamins within their bodies and must depend upon foods to furnish them. Vitamin insufficiencies rather than extreme deficiencies, are typical of the American population, experts say.

Our high-interest certificate savings accounts help you earn extra money by waiting.

Pretend it's six years from now.

You go to your desk drawer and look at the six-year certificate savings account you opened back in 1977. Remember the $1,000 you took to First Federal Savings of Detroit? Well, now it's $1,584.00. And all you had to do to get that additional $584.00 was wait.

Of course, if you'd rather pretend it's four years from now, or two and a half, or even just one, we can show you plans that still will turn your money into more than you might have thought possible.

And remember, too, that you can have certificate savings accounts in addition to your regular savings account (which earns 5 1/4% per year daily interest, paid and compounded quarterly). In fact, that's how many people get the money to open a certificate savings account. They save for it.

What's more, at First Federal, certificate savings accounts can entitle you to a number of special services, many not available anywhere else. We think you should know about these things because we know that money is important for you.

So don't wait to find out.

We know what money is for.

Duo Pianists to Perform At Summer Fest July 13

The War Memorial will introduce to the Detroit area for the first time acclaimed duo pianists, American twins Richard and John Continguglia, on the second program of the Grosse Pointe Summer Music Festival Series Wednesday, July 13, in the Center's Fries Auditorium, 32 Lakeshore road, at 8 p.m.

The Continguglias have premiered in London's Queen Elizabeth Hall and New York's Carnegie Hall the neglected masterpieces of Liszt and Beethoven, and have made numerous first recordings of Bartok.

For their first time performance in Detroit, and in keeping with the lighter vein of the summer festival, they will play first a group of Brahms Waltzes, Opus 39.

Brahms referred to these gems composed under the strong influence of the Viennese atmosphere as "Two books of innocent little waltzes in Schubertian form." They range from the exuberant to the lullaby.

Mozart's Sonata in D Major, K448, one of the most popular compositions ever written for two pianos, will follow. Then, there will be variations on a theme by Beethoven and Op. 35 by Saint-Saens, the sparkling finale of which even tested the composer himself.

The Continguglia brothers will end their program with Grainger's popular fantasy of George Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess."

Concert goers are encouraged to bring picnic suppers and enjoy the Memorial's gardens, lake side lawn and terrace with their marine views prior to the performance, held in the step floored auditorium where excellent reserved seats are available at $8.50.

Circuit Court Awaits Pair

Two Detroit men, charged with felonious assaulting a City police officer and with larceny over $100, faced their pre-trial examinations before Harper Woods Judge David Laudini on Wednesday, June 29.

Waiving their examinations and entering pleas of not guilty were Norman Wilson, of 5369 Belvedere, and David V. Merrill, of 1035 Nava-hoe.

The two men are alleged to have assaulted City Police Sgt. Duncan MacEachern Tuesday evening, June 21, when he tried to apprehend them after they sideswiped his car in the driveway of a Mack avenue department store.

They were believed trying to flee after stealing hub-caps from an automobile parked in the lot.

Sgt. MacEachern, off duty at the time and with his arm in a cast from a previous mishap, was allegedly pulled into the car and beaten by the two men. He was pushed from the auto and received cuts and bruises from the episode.

Both Detroit men were captured with the aid of an off-duty Detroit policeman and a passing state trooper.

At their examination, bail for Merrill was lowered from $5,000 to $2,500. Unable to post bond, he remains in the Wayne County Jail.

Wilson posted bond and has been released.

Both men face a pre-trial hearing in Wayne County Circuit Court on Thursday, July 14.

Board Candidate Cites Concerns over Campaign

By Susan McDonald

One of the winners in the recent Board of Education election, Ann Ardussi, will officially take office on Monday, June 11. But there still seems to be some controversy about the methods she used to win her post among persons involved in campaigns.

Dorothy Kennel, who was just 197 votes behind the winner in the Monday, June 13 election, maintains that Ardussi campaign tactics were unfair and unethical.

"I know the election is over but I really don't want to let this slide by and be forgotten," Mrs. Kennel said last week. "I've never known Grosse Pointe elections to be run in this kind of way and I think the community should be aware of just what happened."

Mrs. Kennel said Ardussi supporters took out an advertisement falsely implying that Mrs. Kennel was selected by the local branch of the Michigan Education Assoc. (MEA), to represent them on the Board.

Mrs. Kennel said she never accepted any financial support from any MEA organization or local and added she was an independent candidate, disagreeing with the union on many issues.

Although Mrs. Kennel said she informed Mrs. Ardussi about her finances, the charges that the union financially supported the Kennel campaign continued until June 13.

"Ardussi essentially ran a smear campaign rather than running on her merits, and that's not the way local politics should operate," said Mrs. Kennel.

"The question is, why did she need to stoop to this?"

Mrs. Ardussi, on the other hand, maintains, "I did everything fair and square. I did not try to smear anyone." She added that in public appearances she raised the issue of union support of the Kennel campaign only once. As for the advertisement having "knowledge of the material in it," but added, "I did not put the ad in the paper."

She would not comment when asked if she authorized her election committee to put it in the paper.

The advertisement ran in the Thursday, June 9 issue of the NEWS under the title "He Who Pays the Piper Can Call the Tune."

It points out that Mrs. Kennel and Fran Twiddy, another candidate, were voted support by GPAC, (Grosse Pointe Action Committee), the political arm of the local MEA. It also mentions the MEA's alleged interest in supporting political candidates throughout Michigan and states, "they, (the MEA), now want two of their candidates to be on the Board."

The ad does not note that Mrs. Kennel refused to take any MEA funds for her campaign.

Mrs. Ardussi said that all the people who signed the ad knew of its contents, including Frederic M. Sibley, Mark Valente Jr., Jose M. Borrego, Philip N. Shammass and Albert J. Ceravolo.

"I don't see any benefit to dragging this whole thing up again," said Mrs. Ardussi. "I'm looking forward to starting July 11 and serving the community and school system by working hard."

Hanson Named GPHC Net Pro

Tobey Hanson Jr., longtime tennis professional at the Country Club of Detroit, has been appointed tennis professional at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, (GPHC), "for the indoor season," according to club president Edwin V. Larson.

Mr. Hanson has been pro at the Country Club since 1967 when he succeeded his father, Tobey Hanson Sr., in that post. He had trained under his father, a giant in local tennis circles, at both the Homestead in Hot Springs, Va., and at the Country Club before taking over the top spot.

In addition, he was squash and racquetball professional at the University Club for 16 years in the winter season, and has just completed four years as a professional for the indoor season at Grosse Pointe Indoor Tennis Club.

In announcing the appointment, Mr. Larson said, "We are delighted to have a tennis professional of Tobey Hanson's stature at the Hunt Club for the indoor season."

"Tobey's long term arrangement at the Country Club will continue, he will report to the Hunt Club October 1 and return to the Country Club May 1."

"The main thrust of our tennis at the Hunt Club is indoor with the junior and adult programs, and Tobey will have complete charge of all tennis operations."

"In the summer, when he is busy at the Country Club, he will still oversee our outdoor program at the Hunt Club. His home is adjacent to the club property and he is a longtime member of the Hunt Club, thus, he is well aware of our challenges and opportunities."

Grosse Pointe Hunt Club was founded in 1911 as a riding and hunt club, but soon added outdoor tennis courts and a swimming pool for its members.

In 1971, the club built a new tennis barn and viewing lounge adjacent to its indoor riding ring. The new facility has four carpeted courts, locker rooms, sauna, etc. al.

The club completely rebuilt its four outdoor clay courts in 1973. Although it has been described as the most complete tennis facility in Grosse Pointe, the club still plays a big role at the club and has been enjoying a resurgence of interest, according to Mr. Larson.

Seniors Plan For Two Trips

A special meeting will be held by the Woods Heritage Group, comprised of senior citizens, this afternoon, July 7, in North High School at 3 p.m. to explore travel plans to South America and the Orient.

Irene Sutton, president of the group, said the meeting is open to all Pointe seniors, who are welcome to participate in the pair of trips.

The South American trip is scheduled for two weeks at the beginning of November, while the journey to the Orient is set for December 2-19, she said.

Movies will be presented at the gathering and refreshments will be served.

The fellow who gets to the top acts as his own crutch—he learned not to lean on others.

New CETA Program

one-half of the allocation with them. A typical format for the Points might be to involve the Neighborhood Club, War Memorial or Kiwanis Club in refurbishing or improving public grounds such as park facilities, providing service to senior citizens or other special groups.

Takes Lead Role

Projects must be completed within a year, must provide measurable benefit to the community or organization and provide training for employees involved.

All of the money, except for 7.5 percent allowed for administration, must be used to employ and train citizens.

Although most Pointe officials are wary of any proposal that might compromise the autonomy of each city, the consortium idea has received positive, if guarded, reception.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach of Grosse Pointe City has taken a lead role in organizing the consortium.

"If we did get together for this program we might be able to employ an outside firm to take care of all the paper work, and then split the costs," he said.

"It certainly seems logical, especially since the hunch on the part of county officials I've talked to is that Title 8 and 9 CETA programs will follow the same format."

Calls Concept Great

The cooperation of every municipality is vital to making the program a success, he added.

Farms City Clerk Richard Solak said there is a possibility this city would cooperate in such a plan.

"We discussed it some time ago, but found that there wasn't any interest in anything of this nature," he said, adding that the extra paperwork seemed to be the biggest problem.

The concept of a consortium is great, according to Shores Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jeffers, although much more preparation and examination of the approach is necessary before any action is taken.

The Shores is the only Pointe community that does not participate in any other CETA program.

"There's no way we can meet their requirements out here," he said, referring to The Shores' lack of a "pocket of poverty."

Wants Fair Share
Park City Manager Robert A. Slone felt that any way the communities can work together should be thoroughly explored.

In The Woods, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said, "We would have no objections to making this a joint effort on the part of all the Points."

"Inasmuch as The Woods' portion amounts to almost half the total allotment, though, I would want to make sure that our citizens received a proportionate share of the benefits."

One way this might be accomplished, according to Mr. Petersen, would be to provide a senior citizens program.

If you have vitamins that have been hanging around for a long time, there is a good chance that they will have lost their potency. It is exposure to light and moisture, which is practically impossible to avoid, that makes them lose their strength. Most vitamins must be disposed of after one year. As for when you take your vitamins, they can be taken any time except try not to take them on an empty stomach. The best time is after mealtime. Vitamin C should be replenished throughout the day so you can take some in the morning and some in the evening. Also, be aware that Iron and Vitamin E, for best results, should be taken about an hour apart.

At VIM & VIGOR HEALTH FOODS, 21151 Mack, 886-9466 our Vim & Vigor vitamins have an expiration date to insure freshness and a control number to assure uniform high quality; they are also free from salt, sugar, starch and artificial color. Our Vim & Vigor 100% natural Vitamin E is derived from wheat germ and soy beans. Hours: 9:30 a.m. Mon.-Sat.; 11-5 Sun.

League Champion Tigers Win GP Farms Playoffs

By Joe Fromm

The 1977 League Champion Tigers, under the tutelage of manager Blair Parsons, won the 1977 playoffs with an exciting 2-1 victory over the Yankees on Wednesday, June 29.

Winning pitcher Todd Pierce struck out 11 and had to bear down in the bottom of the sixth to preserve his win.

The Pastoria twins, Richard and John, opened the bottom of the sixth with two straight singles. Pierce struck out the next batter but George Zinn beat out a single to deep short to load the bases. Pierce got the next two batters on a strikeout and a tap back to the mound.

The Tigers opened the scoring with a run in the top of the fourth on a double by Pierce and singles by Clay VandenBussche and Richard Hunt. The Yankees tied it in the bottom of the fourth on a single by Tim Reiman and two Tiger errors.

The Tigers then scored the winning run in the fifth on a leadoff single by Todd Clavola and three straight walks.

Reinman, Yankee first baseman, kept the score within reach with two excellent fielding plays. With bases loaded and no outs, he robbed Pierce of a base hit with a backhanded stab of a grounder between first and second, and fired to the plate for a force out.

He also caught a low pop up behind first base by Henry Weymiller, the next batter, and stepped on first to double the runner for an unassisted double play.

Clavola of the Tigers and John Pastoria of the Yankees collected two singles each. Manager Parsons is product of the Farms Little Leagues, playing for the Pirates in the mid-60's.

The Tigers reached the playoff finals with a 5-2 win over the Indians on Monday, June 27. The Indians and Yankees tied for second in the final standings but the Yankees defeated the Tribe three times during the season to take the second place position.

The Tiger runs came on a two-run homer by Rick Parsons and a three-run home run by Brett Augsburger. Both hits were in deep centerfield.

The Indians runs came on a triple by Ken Fromm and a sacrifice fly by Ernie Kovanda, and a double by Craig Haase and a single by Sandy Davis.

Haase came into pitch in relief in the third after the Tigers had scored all five runs and shut out the Tigers, striking out eight in the last three innings.

Todd Clavola was the winning pitcher for the Tigers striking out five. Haase picked up two doubles for the Indians.

The Yankees reached the finals with a 7-4 win over the Phils in the second half of the Monday doubleheader.

The Phils took a 3-0 lead as Jim Zavel drove in all three runs with a single and sacrifice fly. The Yankees got one back in the second on three Phil errors and broke the game open in the third with six runs on one hit, six walks, one error and three fielder's choices.

Dave Spindler picked up the win pitching the first three innings. John Kulka pitched the last three.

Mike Connell picked up a double and single for the Phils and Richard Pastoria had two singles for the Yankees.

A 23-year-old Detroit man was sentenced to from six to 10 years in prison before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge John M. Wise on Tuesday, June 14, reported Woods Det. Thomas Podeszwick, after pleading guilty to a larceny from a person charge in May.

Anthony Smith, (alias Anthony Young), was charged in an incident when two rings, with a combined total value of $4,140, were taken from an employee at the Lochmoor Jewelry, 20925 Mack avenue, last October.

Police added that both rings were ultimately sold for $400 to $500.

Farms Netters Climb Ladder

The Ladder Tennis Tournament for youngsters living in The Farms is in action again this year.

In recent games, Nancy Wright defeated Lisa McFarlane, Ken Fromm was defeated by John Jackson and Anthony Eugene was victorious over Robbie Chown.

This repeated competition provides excellent practice for other tournament play, officials report.

The present standings in the girls listings show Kim Pierce, Pam Pierce, Mindy McFarlane, Nancy Wright, Lisa McFarlane, Suzanna Zinn and Anthony Papista.

The standings in the boys competition are Scott Wright, Bill Peattie, Mark Restum, Brian View, Raymond Chown, Todd Pierce, Mike McFarlane, Mark Brooks, Will Jackson, John Jackson, Ken Fromm, Brad Restum, Anthony Eugene and Robbie Chown.

(Any interested person is encouraged to join. For further information, call 884-2012 or 884-4181.)

The many tasks scheduled for tomorrow always look easy from today's point of view.

A 16-year-old attendant on duty at the time of the robbery said the thief came in to the front office pointing a .38 caliber snub nose pistol. The man told him to turn over all the "bills" and then fled down an alley toward Washington road.

Table mustard is prepared by mixing the powdered seeds of black mustard with water, vinegar, and spices. Powdered mustard seeds have also been used in the form of a mustard plaster which is made by spreading a paste of mustard seed, flour, and water on cloth. The pungency, odor, and the counterirritant effect of black-mustard seed is due to oil of mustard. The oil is obtained by mixing mustard seed and water and is a colorless or light yellow liquid.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

With the teaching of English well established as a topic of conversation and discussion among professionals in the field, as well as among the general public, I shall devote several more columns to it.

In order to give readers a better understanding of this important part of our curriculum, I posed a question to several staff members: "What are the complexities involved in maintaining a quality English program?"

Following is the response of Robert D. Welch, former teacher of English at South High, former assistant principal-instruction at North High and, since last fall, our system's director of secondary education.

"The Grosse Pointe Public School System has maintained a high quality English program over a period of many years. To make such a statement is not to suggest that we do not have problems with our English curriculum or that we do not need to make important improvements.

"Many varied elements go into the making of any quality instructional program.

DISILLUSIONED

The fellow who is all wrapped up in himself always finds fault with his surroundings.

"Among these are school system and community commitment to the program; a logical and coherent philosophy of instruction; administrative support; teacher competency, enthusiasm and preparation; teacher effort and commitment; (and) adequacy of budget to provide reasonable class size and quality instructional materials.

"More are an organization of the total curriculum in the subject area; effective departmental leadership; efficient and successful monitoring and evaluation of the program; student quality and degree of motivation; and school system responsiveness to the needs and desires of the community at large.

"The Grosse Pointe Public Schools are singularly well off in most of these areas. We do share common problems with many other school systems particularly in respect to developing greater sensitivity to the expectations of our community.

"In the past two years we have been working hard at developing a common philosophy for the teaching of language arts and for better organizing, monitoring and evaluating our curriculum."

Next week, Mr. Welch will comment on one of the components necessary for quality instruction: teacher preparation.

Nedzi Reveals Results of 14th District Poll

President Jimmy Carter hasn't "caught on" in Michigan's 14th Congressional District, which includes all the Pointes, the annual Nedzi Questionnaire results reveal.

"It's early yet, of course," Congressman Lucien Nedzi said in a new release, "but an unusually large number of people have not made even a tentative judgment."

"This squares with what I've personally been encountering the first five months of the Carter Administration, namely that a lot of people are taking an extended wait-and-see attitude on the new president. Something about him bothers people, but they can't put their finger on it," he noted.

"We also learned from the questionnaire response that there simply isn't much passion for or against him. It's an interesting phenomenon."

The Nedzi poll showed 32 percent approving of the overall record of the Carter Administration, 39 percent disapproving and a whopping 29 percent are undecided.

"Almost every year," Mr. Nedzi said, "those who respond tend to disapprove of the incumbent president, of whatever party. In our 1976 poll, for example, only 29.3 percent approved of the overall record of the Ford Administration, 57.6 percent disapproved and 13.1 percent were undecided.

"Yet on election day, Ford edged Carter 50 percent to 48 percent in the 14th District, with two percent of the vote going to minor candidates."

The district otherwise went heavily Democratic, with Nedzi capturing 65 percent of the vote.

The lowest rating suffered in the Nedzi Poll went to Lyndon Johnson in 1968, when the Vietnam War plunged his approval rating to 21.7 percent. In 1965, Mr. Johnson had scored the highest rating, over 65 percent.

Once again crime is viewed as the biggest problem facing our nation today.

Despite concern over inflation, energy and unemployment, respondents placed crime at the top of their worries.

"You can build fancy buildings and announce various transportation innovations," Mr. Nedzi said, "but unless people feel safe the Detroit area will continue to go downhill. This is absolutely fundamental.

Self-confidence must be built up from the past to give us faith to face the future.

Reflecting their concern over the worsening crime problem, Mr. Nedzi's constituents favor, 72 percent to 20 percent, spending substantially more for construction and staffing of penal and correctional institutions.

"I agree," he said. "Rehabilitation is, unfortunately, a mirage. It is imperative that juvenile offenders, especially those who are hardened felons, be removed from law-abiding society."

Mr. Nedzi also shares his district's overwhelming opposition to busing, and is the sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment which would prohibit forced busing. His constituents favor this approach, 87 percent to 11 percent, with two percent undecided.

The poll indicates that 14th District residents are looking for some other, generally undefined remedy to oil and energy problems.

Only 12 percent would raise the tax on gasoline, 25 percent would impose a tax on large cars and 27 percent would ration gasoline.

In contrast, 36 percent are for that mysterious "other," that hoped-for breakthrough which might solve the problems, usually described as "research into new and alternative sources" or "free market pricing."

As for unemployment, 51 percent favor using tax credits to stimulate new jobs among private businesses, 15 percent would create more government jobs and 34 percent would leave the economy alone.

With the memory of the Vietnam War receding, public attitudes on the military are changing.

Sixty percent of the respondents on the Nedzi questionnaire favor legislation giving the President standby authority to reestablish the military draft, 33 percent are against and 33 percent are undecided.

The move towards normalization of diplomatic relations and trade with Cuba is meeting a mixed reception, with 44 percent in favor, 46 percent against and 10 percent undecided.

With college tuition costs spiraling, a popular idea is legislation allowing parents tax deductions for the costs of financing their children's college education. A total of 72 percent were in favor, 25 percent were against and three percent were undecided.

Sentiment on the abortion issue remains virtually identical with that expressed a year ago. A total of 36 percent favor an amendment to the U.S. Constitution to outlaw abortion, 56 percent are opposed and nine percent are undecided.

The results on possession of marijuana for personal use also were little changed. Fully 50 percent believe it should be subject to criminal penalty, 36 percent say no and 12 percent are undecided.

The 14th District also includes part of Detroit's east side, Harper Woods, Hamtramck, East Detroit, the southern half of Warren and Centerline.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On Friday noon of last week, (i.e., June 17), I went to your neighborhood Salem Square Market for groceries. I have a fractured knee and arthritis and your business district is as far as I can walk.

When I got to your place of business I saw a mother with I judge, her daughter, a beautiful little girl of about two years. I went on to Salem to get my groceries. The mother had met two ladies and stopped to talk with them as I went in.

When I came out, I was horrified. The women were still talking half an hour later. The beautiful little girl? She was trying to get in the store through the heavy door going out. I can't shout or scream as I learned during my lifetime we accomplish more by talking reasonably and quietly.

I did make some kind of noise which brought the mother's attention and she grabbed her daughter. I was so thankful that baby could have been seriously hurt.

Her mother hit her many times and the baby screamed. I haven't slept for three nights as I still see and hear her. Our papers are full of child neglect elsewhere, but Grosse Pointe has its unkind treatment, too.

If you have space, could you appeal to the mothers to watch their babies around these heavy, glass electrical doors? I would appreciate it.

I am in my 80's and have three children and a granddaughter but I do have time to appreciate any children I meet on the street.

Thanking you for your interest and, I hope, help.
Sincerely,

GP Series Visits England July 13

The War Memorial is extending its Grosse Pointe Adventure Series into July for a one evening only international dinner and personally presented color travelogue of "England, Scotland and Wales" by Ted Bumiller on Thursday evening, July 14.

This evening is not included in the regular series and should be subscribed to separately. Dinner is at 7 p.m. in the Crystal Ballroom, while the show is at 8:15 p.m. in the Fries Theatre, 32 Lakeshore road.

This film will be a curtain raiser for War Memorial members going on the Center's charter trip to Great Britain this fall.

The color film shows the scenic splendor, pageantry and people of Britain from Land's End, England, to the top of Scotland at John O'Groats. Scenes will include the prehistoric Stonehenge on the Salisbury Plain, the colorful harbor of Cornwall and St.

Ives, St. Michael's Mount, Tintagel, legendary castle of King Arthur, the seaside resort of Torquay, the quaint villages of Cockington and Clovelly, Wells Cathedral, the Roman Baths and Windsor Castle.

In Wales, Mr. Bumiller shows stained glass windows being made in Swansea, takes his viewers fishing from ancient coracles and for a climb of Mt. Snowdon. Digging for cockles along the Gower Peninsula also is seen.

The views of Scotland feature Edinburgh's old world charm, St. Andrews, the mecca for golfers, Loch Ness, (of monster fame), Aberdeen and Inverness, the island of Skye with its old crofts, the Highland Games at Fort Williams and the gathering of bagpipers at John O'Groats.

Local Jeweler Is 'Hero' In DIA Stolen Art Case

By Susan McDonald

He's received letters from as far away as Texas commending his courage and honesty, yet it seems some people here in The Pointe still don't understand the role W. Michael Williams played in helping recover missing art treasures.

Detroit Institute of Arts, (DIA), spoke s men have named Mr. Williams, president of Charterhouse and Co., the "hero" in their search for more than $500,000 in stolen art.

But Mr. Williams says being associated with the case in newspaper headlines has tarnished his image in the eyes of some customers. "People who just skimmed the papers and didn't really follow the details just assumed that we were somehow involved in the theft," he said. "I just hope they eventually understand we were the good guys in the whole thing."

DIA officials certainly think so. According to spokesman Robert Rodgers, "We wouldn't have been able to develop a case, issue a warrant, uncover the middle man or accuse a museum employee if it hadn't been for Mr. Williams' interest, concern and scholarship."

Sky officials think he's a hero, too. The council passed a resolution of commendation for the jewelry store owner at its Monday, June 20, meeting, citing his "honesty and careful and thorough research which led to the discovery and return of art treasures."

In fact, when sent out over the wire services, Mr. Williams' plight attracted sympathetic letters and phone calls from across the country. One letter, from the witness to a murder in Texas told of his own plight and fear for his life after cooperating with police.

The DIA case began to unravel last spring when Mr. Williams reported to police that he had purchased silver from a Farmington Hills man that he believed to be DIA property.

Mr. Williams said he paid $2,500 for 13 pieces and while researching them in a reference book discovered they were rare examples of Early American work, belonging to the DIA.

Their total value was set at $45,200.

The arraignment in May of Norman Goodman, of Farmington Hills, on charges of concealing and selling stolen property followed Mr. Williams' discovery.

In the weeks following, police recovered more than $500,000 more in missing treasures. A museum employee was eventually arrested in connection with the theft.

Mr. Williams said he thinks the DIA also is taking some unfair criticism in the case. "I feel sorry for the DIA," he said. "It appears they were careless about control but I don't think that's true. You have to trust the people who work for you."

TAKES ABILITY

Almost anyone can keep an expense account today, but it takes a real genius to make it tally with the cash.

Does the man in your life have a birthday soon? If you want to buy him a special gift, you should consider one of the many different jewelry items for men. Many men enjoy gold signet rings set with monogrammed lapis lazuli or jade. These are worn on the little finger of the left hand. Plain gold cufflinks will add simple elegance to a daytime look. Some are made with star sapphire, or with semi-precious agate or onyx. For evening dress, platinum cufflinks are most appropriate. Or—for a real splurge—you might purchase a complete set of matching cufflinks, dress shirt studs and waistcoat buttons. Mother-of-pearl moonstone are popular for formal dress sets; for dinner clothes, try pearl or dark onyx.

If you are looking for something truly different for that man, come in and see us at VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800. We have been designers of fine jewelry since 1934 and are very favorably known throughout the area for our integrity and high degree of personal workmanship. We do our own engraving on the premises. VALENTE JEWELRY is open Mon. thru Sat. from 9 'til 5:30.

GEM TIP:

A tie-tack composed of a single pearl is a handsome gift.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

The St. Louis Boys' Choir flies from Paris to America Monday, to present concerts in Louisiana and Texas, spend two weeks touring in the United States—and appear in concert Sunday, July 31, at 8 o'clock, at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

The choir, composed of boys aged 10 to 18 who meet three times a week for practices and several times a month for auditions, was formed in 1951 by the parish of the lycee Janson-de-Sailly of Paris and joined the Federation of Petits Chanteurs in 1953.

The boys' musical repertoire includes religious and classical music, French and universal, from the 16th century to the present.

Each year they perform at least one work with orchestra, such as Mozart's Mass in D Major, in B Flat Major, in C Major (Birds) . . . or Haydn's Mass Saint Nicholas . . . or Schubert's Mass in G Major . . . or Mahler's Third Symphony . . . or Honegger's "King David" . . .

New Faces for New Season at Music Hall

The board of directors of Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts, in a move designed to strengthen the center's position as a showcase for quality entertainment, has announced the appointment of Herman Krawitz, of New York, as artistic consultant for the center.

Krawitz is one of America's leading authorities on theater management. From 1963 to 1972 he was assistant general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company under Rudolph Bing. He was responsible for planning the New Metropolitan Opera House at Lincoln Center with the architect, Wallace Harrison.

At Music Hall, Krawitz will be responsible for selecting and scheduling various attractions and shows, and will participate in the center's overall management.

Music Hall's Dr. David DiChiera has been named founding director and elected to the Music Hall board of directors.

DiChiera, who most recently held the title of artistic director for Music Hall, will now devote his full energies to Michigan Opera Theatre, the state's professional opera company.

DiChiera has served as the opera's general director since he established the com-

Local Toastmistresses To Host Special Guest

South African Region Toastmistress supervisor Zoe Henning is winging her way to Grosse Pointe early this month. The Mid-Century International Toastmistress Club will be playing host to this fascinating lady, who brings news and views of cultures so foreign to the local orators.

After a brief stay at the Carl Nolte home in Claireview road, she'll be off to Washington, D.C., for the July 17 to 21 International Toastmistress Clubs convention.

Mid-Century's slate of officers for 1977-78 is headed by Dorothy Adams, president, and Margaret Vincent, vice-president. Mary Evelyn Self will serve as recording secretary, Dorothy Brantley as treasurer.

New club delegate is Mary Ann Jancil, who has just completed a most successful year as Mid-Century president.

Many more than 10 years ago. He will continue to serve Music Hall as artistic advisor.

Music Hall board chairman Ruth Glancy notes: "David DiChiera has served Music Hall with talent and dedication since its beginning, four years ago. We are grateful that we will enjoy his contributions to the center's success as an artistic advisor and member of the board."

"It is also a pleasure to recognize that through this structural change, Music Hall is affirming its stature as Detroit's center for the highest cultural programs available in America."

"It is significant that Mr. Krawitz has expressed to me his enthusiasm for our city, our theater and our audiences."

Krawitz, whose appoint-

List Children's Center's Aims

At the annual meeting of the Children's Center of Wayne County June 28, Alfred R. Reuther, Jr., president, reviewed some of the center's long-term objectives.

Among the more important of these are to offer a broader range of programs to the center to children up to 18 years of age; to increase contracting with federally-supported community mental health centers; to provide child care activities; to attract more private capital through establishing a Children's Center Foundation; and to continue to decentralize operations.

The Children's Center, located in the Medical Center, serves the Detroit area. It was established in 1930; the first such agency in Michigan and one of the first in the nation to provide mental health care for children.

Other Pointe residents elected to the center's board of directors for the 1977-78 year are George N. Munro, III, chairman, Mrs. Jack Pickering, vice-president, Mrs. Perry TeWalt, secretary, Donald E. McKnight, Richard E. Hinks, Dr. Max Gardner, Mrs. Edward Guahoe and Mrs. Joseph Marshall.

ment becomes effective July 1, will execute his responsibilities from New York, while Diana Price, formerly the business manager and controller of the Cleveland Play House, joins the Music Hall staff in Detroit as the center's manager.

Krawitz's background is one of heavy involvement at all levels in the performing arts. He is currently chairman of the Theater Administration Program at Yale University, and has served as a consultant to the Joffrey Ballet, the Alvin Ailey Dance Company, the Miami Opera Association, the Vancouver Opera and the Rockefeller Foundation.

He was co-producer of the Paris, France, production of "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown," and helped produce the recent Marian Anderson 75th Birthday Gala at Carnegie Hall.

As executive producer of JODAV Productions, Inc., in New York, Krawitz has produced television specials for CBS, including "Alley Celebrates Ellington," which received an Emmy nomination; "A Child's Christmas in Wales," with Sir Michael Redgrave; and "G.I. Schicchi," with Zero Mostel, a co-production with the British Broadcasting Corporation.

Krawitz was founder and general manager of the Fal-mouth Playhouse, the Hyannis Music Circus and the South Shore Music Circus, all in Massachusetts.

His current major project is the recording of a 100-record anthology of American history through the nation's music. As president of the non-profit New World Records, he is operating under the auspices of the Rockefeller Foundation.

Speaking from New York, Krawitz commented: "I look forward to the challenge of guiding Music Hall's continued development as a visible and vital part of Detroit's cultural and artistic life."

"The foundation which has been laid in the presentation of dance, theater and important musical attractions will be the basis of an exciting future for the center."

Diana Price, who assumed her Music Hall duties June 20, previously worked as general manager of Musicarnival, Inc., a summer theater in Cleveland, and was treasurer of the off-Broadway show "Long Time Coming."

Each monthly tour takes place on a Monday starting at 10:30 in the morning and covers five churches. Transportation is via the Society's colorful Historymobile.

The next tour, scheduled for July 11, features First Presbyterian, St. Stanislaus, Trinity Episcopal, Trumbull Presbyterian and St. Anne's.

This year's program has been expanded to include three Thursday evening tours, planned for July 28, August 18 and September 15, starting at 5:30 o'clock and including a church supper at a cost of $8 per person.

The July and September tours spotlight tracker organs, with demonstrations by local artist Thomas M. Kuras.

Summer Days Are Full At Historical Museum

Focal point of the Education Department of the Detroit Historical Museum's extensive and varied summer calendar of programs and events is a series of 13 different craft workshops, repeated at regular daily or weekly intervals throughout the summer, including demonstrations in basketry, macrame, quilting, corn husk dolls, puppetry and ice cream making.

Participants will practice the crafts first-hand and may take their creations with them.

Also by advance reservation are general tours of the museum and the very popular "spits and spiders" demonstrations in a typical pioneer kitchen.

Saturday afternoons throughout the summer and Wednesday evenings during July and August there are a number of drop-in activities centered in the museum's famous "Streets of Old Detroit," including silent movies in the casino, old-fashioned candy in the general store and an operating 1840 printing press.

The museum is open during the summer on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 9:30 to 5:30, and on Wednesdays from 1 to 9 o'clock.

Further information may be obtained by calling the Education Department at 833-9720 or 833-1805.

Varied Fare for Festival

A dazzling variety of classical, jazz and pop entertainment is offered at Meadow Brook Music Festival in seven performances beginning tonight, Thursday, July 7.

The bonanza runs the gamut from a daytime lecture-demonstration and two evening performances by eight soloists from the celebrated Royal Danish Ballet to a light-rock concert by England Dan and John Ford Coley, and includes guest soloist appearances with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra by soprano Grace Bumbry, violinist Eugene Fodor and the 1976 winner of the Meadow Brook Festival Youth Artist's Competition, pianist Miryo Park.

A native of South Korea, Miss Park began her piano studies at the age of four and had progressed to guest soloist appearances with the Seoul Philharmonic Orchestra by the time she was seven.

She resides in New York and is continuing her piano studies at Juilliard School. Now 18, she prevailed over three other semi-finalists last summer with a sparkling and powerful interpretation of Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto. She will be guest soloist in the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's pops concert Sunday evening, July 10, with Morton Gould conducting.

The Detroit Symphony's guest soloist this evening is Eugene Fodor. Under the direction of Maestro Aldo Ceccato, he will be featured in Glazunov's Violin Concerto, Bruckner's Symphony No. 7 in E and also be heard in the Thursday evening concert.

Three newcomers to Meadow Brook are billed for the Friday night jazz attraction, a light-rock concert by England Dan and John Ford Coley with Mary MacGregor, best known for her popular single "Torn Between Two Lovers," from her Ariola American album.

Pavilion seats for the evening are sold out, but lawn tickets are still available at $4.

Next Tuesday and Wednesday at Meadow Brook are devoted exclusively to ballet, with three programs featuring eight soloists from the world-famous Royal Danish Ballet. They will present a lecture-demonstration at 1 o'clock Tuesday, with attendance limited to 1,000. Tickets for this daytime attraction are $3.

Their concert at 8:30 Tuesday evening, July 12, features "Konservatorium," "Pas de Deux" from Flower Festival in Genzano, "Septet Extra" and "Pas de Six and Tarantella" from Napoli, Act III.

Their Wednesday evening performance will feature "Dream Pictures," "Pas de Deux" from William Tell and "Pas de Six and Tarantella" from Napoli, Act III.

Meadow Brook concerts are performed in the open-air Baldwin Pavilion on the Oakland University campus.

Pre-concert dining options range from brown-bag picnics on the lawn and box suppers for large groups in a party tent to buffet and sit-down dinners in adjacent Trumbull Terrace.

All evening concerts begin at 8:30, with the exception of Sunday pops which start an hour earlier, at 7:30 o'clock.

Dinner reservations and ticket and program information are available during regular business hours at the Festival office, 377-2010.

Actors, singers, musicians and dancers have been working on this performance since January.

Over 400,000 people have already seen "Saturday's Warrior" in other parts of the country, primarily in the west; those who have seen it say to plan on attending AT LEAST twice.

Remaining seats are $2 and may be obtained by writing to Saturday's Warrior, 5555 Shadow lane, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, or by calling any Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

1006 WHITTIER
GROSSE POINTE PARK
OPEN SUNDAY 2 - 5 P.M.

To see this splendid, custom built southern colonial from the front yard is to see only half the story. Built by a family of lumbermen in 1936, the interior woodwork is of a quality rarely seen in today's newer homes. All floors are random width pegged planks while the paneling and moldings are outstanding. Five bedrooms and three and one half baths offer plenty of room for the growing family. Owner furnishing city certification and is able to give quick possession.

SPECIAL VALUE IN THE FARMS
Those looking for a delightful, cozy English style home in the Chalfonte-Moran area really should take a look at this fine offering. Who would believe only $43,500 would buy a brick home featuring three bedrooms and two full baths. Of course, there is a formal dining room and natural fireplace in the living room. This home is fully city certified. Call now for a personal inspection and be able to move in well before school opens.

FOR THE YOUNGER SET
Let's be frank! Not everyone starting out feels they can afford the prestigious prices found in Grosse Pointe. So, here is a 2 bedroom bungalow with dining room, living room, full basement and full aluminum siding for only $19,900 — and it is in an older area of a fine North-Woodward suburb. The home is beautifully clean and ready now for your furniture. Priced slightly higher, we are fortunate to have another similar home in the same area which we would be glad to show you at the same time.

WATERFRONT VACATION PACKAGE
It doesn't happen often, but we are offering TWO waterfront summer homes both situated on about 6.5 acres. One home features 4 bedrooms, the other has two. The view of the South Channel of the St. Clair River is absolutely unsurpassed. Extensive steel breakwall and boat well, too. And here is a plus — both homes are high and dry. The entire package is available for the value of the breakwall alone. Immediate possession.

If you review the above advertisement, you will note we are able to furnish you a wide variety of real estate offerings throughout Grosse Pointe and Macomb, Oakland and St. Clair Counties. Our real estate services range from the simple drafting of a deed to a complete Multiple Listing Sales Effort. Simply decide the degree of help you need — then give us a call. And you never pay for more than the actual assistance you require.

Bob-Lo Cruise To Aid St. Paul

The ninth annual Bob-Lo Boat Cruise, sponsored by the Saint Paul-on-the-Lake-shore Athletic Assoc., is set for Wednesday, July 13.

Chairman of the event, Dr. Dave Corbett, has planned an informal, relaxed evening for everyone. The boat leaves at 7:30 p.m. from the new Bob-Lo dock behind Cobo Hall. Once under way, there will be music, dancing and a complete roast beef box lunch, including a bottle of wine. Soft drinks and set-ups will be supplied for those who bring their own alcohol.

All proceeds from the affair will be used to support the athletic program at Saint Paul.

More than 300 youngsters from the third through eighth grades participated in inter-scholastic competitive sports during the past school year and more than 700 students from first grade through college used parish facilities.

"Such an all-encompassing program costs a great deal of money," said association president Harold Connell, of McMillan Road.

"Coaches salaries, uniforms, equipment, team entry fees, facility maintenance and travel expenses all call for a substantial yearly budget, provided mostly by the athletic association. The Bob-Lo Boat Cruise is their major fund-raiser."

Cruise tickets are $12 per person. They are available from association members or by calling Jim Fitzsimmons at 885-7170.

Ruling Delayed In Sillery Trial

According to a spokesman at the St. Clair Shores Municipal Court, a ruling in the Medicaid fraud trial of Dr. Robert J. Sillery, of Lakeland Avenue, has been adjourned until Monday, July 11.

The spokesman said the delay was due to a "problem getting the legal briefs together for Judge Craigen Oster."

Dr. Sillery's Attorney, Robert Harrison, had earlier made a motion for dismissal of the charges that his client filed, phony claims to defraud the Michigan Medicaid program of more than $1,500.

Judge Oster had requested legal briefs from both attorneys and was originally expected to hand down a ruling on Monday, June 27.

SHS Students Given Awards

The first John S. Thursty memorial awards were given to scholars and athletes David McHugh and Lisa Wood at the recent South High commencement exercises.

The award, in honor of the late Mr. Thursty, who served South High for many years as assistant principal, goes to boy and girl graduates who have received the most varsity letters and are in the top 20 percent of their class academically.

David has been involved in both track and cross country, while Lisa is a ranking tennis player. Terry Berg was also honored at the ceremonies, receiving the Grosse Pointe Rotary award of a watch for senior leadership and service.

Heartworm Infection Poses Threat to Dogs

Heartworm, a life-threatening but preventable infection of dogs, is becoming a "major veterinary health problem," reports Dr. Douglas C. Maplesden, director of animal health research and development at The Squibb Institute for Medical Research, Princeton, N.J.

Mosquitoes are responsible for the spread of the disease from infected to uninfected dogs. The mosquito carries the immature parasitic worm which lives, develops and grows into an adult heartworm in the dog's heart.

More than 60 species can transmit the disease. Until recently, the disease was confined to the warm, mosquito-infested southeastern coastal regions. Now it has spread to the midwest including Michigan.

"I have seen it in dogs for over 30 years, but it has never been publicized," said Dr. Milton Lipson, of the Harvey Animal Hospital, 18479 Mack Avenue.

There is a greater concentration of dogs in the area now and several cases of heartworm have appeared in Grosse Pointe, he explained.

Dr. Lipson recently returned from Massachusetts and said that the disease is much more prevalent there.

With the warm weather approaching, concerned dog owners should have their dogs tested by a veterinarian, both Dr. Maplesden as well as Dr. Lipson recommends.

Symptoms of this disease are coughing, weight loss, weakness and heavy breathing. But by the time one spots such signs, chances are the dog already is seriously ill.

Symptoms can develop so slow that possibly the problem may be detected too late. Fortunately, most infected dogs can be treated successfully if the disease is diagnosed in time.

Adult worms can be killed with a series of intravenous injections of an arsenic compound, but other organs must be functioning properly to eliminate the arsenic from the dog's system. Reactions to this drug are common, but fatalities are rare among otherwise healthy pets.

An alternative to the drug treatment is open-heart surgery to literally remove the heartworms. This is a risky procedure and is considered only as a last resort.

If treatment is necessary, during and for nearly six weeks afterward, the pet's exercise and activity must be restricted.

If uninfected, the veterinarian will suggest an effective preventative, starting just prior to the mosquito season, during the season and continuing for up to two months thereafter.

According to Dr. Maplesden, the dog is protected only for as long as he is medicated. The dog that rejects his medicine is a candidate for heartworm, the "silent summertime killer."

The disease is spreading, some scientists say, because mosquitoes have learned to adapt to colder climates, while others point out that the rising mobility of Americans allows them to take their dogs in and out of infected areas easily.

Dr. Lipson says that the chances of area dogs contracting the disease is "pretty good" and it is a "problem." He urged people to check their dogs. The cost depends on the weight of the dog.

Pointe Doctors Receive Honors

The Michigan State Medical Society, (MSMS), recently held its Annual House of Delegates meeting in Troy.

James C. Danforth Jr., MD, of Willow Tree Place, and Donald N. Sweeney Jr., MD, of Lee Gate, were re-elected as delegates to the American Medical Association, (AMA), for two-year terms by their colleagues in the MSMS.

Both will attend the upcoming AMA annual convention in San Francisco.

Frank B. Walker II, MD, of DePetrus Way, was elected to a one-year term as a Michigan delegate to the AMA. He also will join the rest of the 16-member Michigan delegation in San Francisco.

Benjamin Jeffries, MD, of Park Lane, was re-elected to a second three-year term on the council, (board of directors), of the MSMS.

In the council organization meeting held immediately following the House elections, Dr. Jeffries was elected chairman of the council's Committee on Scientific and Educational Affairs.

Pointe Counter Points

The Coat Collection . . . at Walton-Pierce . . . is growing every day with all the new fall and winter coats arriving. We like the ones that span seasons via removable linings. A smartly styled single breasted poplin with deep tab buttoned pockets comes in cashew, poppy and cinnamon. Its cozy plaid lining buttons in or out. A good looking teal blue coat is collared with black pile and a black pile lining that is removable. Our favorite is a black wool double breasted coat with a natural beaver collar and a "take out" natural beaver lining. All weather travelers from Count Romi have arrived. One is a red poplin with a natural raccoon collar and a permanent red pile lining. A black velvet coat serves in all weather for day and evening. Beige poplin combines with beige corduroy. There are four separate pockets and a band of corduroy closes the neckline. Come see all the coats at Walton-Pierce before you make this important buy. In the fashion accessory department, you'll find new fall bags of washable Ultra Suede to taupe, gray and deep rich berry red. EDWIN WENDT, RETIRING PRINCIPAL OF POUPARD ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

By Susan McDonald

After 41 years, the Grosse Pointe Schools will hardly seem the same next fall without Edwin Wendt. He's taught at almost every level, at five different schools since he came to The Pointe in 1936, and there's no doubt that many of his fellow workers, students and parents will miss him.

"He's been the absolutely greatest boss," says his secretary for nine years, Phoebe Cloud. "He's always very fair and calm . . . no one really wants to see him go."

Ed, along with Frank Walenbach, who retired a few years ago, were both recruited from their native Milwaukee, Wis., where they attended the Milwaukee State Teachers College.

Dr. Sam Brownell was superintendent of schools then, and the district included just seven buildings.

First and Last Job It was Ed's first teaching job . . . and his last. It seems the Wendts just found a home in The Pointe, and never felt any need to move on.

"It's a fine community," says Ed. "The schools are great, and getting better every year. We never had any regrets about staying so long."

He started out at Richard Elementary School, as an intern, and after a break for service in the army in 1943, he went on to Pierce in 1946, and Parcels, when it opened in 1951, as an English teacher.

He opened the brand new Ferry Elementary School in 1954 as its first principal, and in 1968 moved to Poupard, where he stayed until he retired.

He's seen a lot of change in all those years—the school system's doubled in number of buildings and gone from an enrollment of 3,000 to over 10,000.

"As you get bigger, you lose some of the opportunity for closeness, the feeling you know all of your staff," he says. But there's no question that, with 40 or four teachers in his command, Ed Wendt would make it a point to know them all.

Like It at the Top Of all the positions he's held—intern, teacher, principal—he likes the top job best. "I enjoyed teaching immensely, but as an administrator your job has more variety. You can still maintain close contact with the children, but you also deal with parents, teachers and other administrators and a variety of problems."

As principal, the best challenge of all was saved until last, when the trainable mentally impaired program was started at Poupard school.

Being put in charge of overseeing the program "has been the most gratifying experience in all these years," according to Ed. "I can't think of any better way to end my career."

The program offers special instruction for about 30 trainable mentally impaired children from throughout the system. It was piloted at Poupard and became such a success it has grown steadily every year since.

"I didn't have any background at all in dealing with mentally impaired children," he admits, "but we had the space here, so it landed in my lap."

"At first I have to admit, I wasn't too sure about the prospect of having a whole group of mentally impaired kids here, some of them as old as 25 years."

A Grand Experience "But now I can say that it has been a wonderful experience, not only for me but for the entire school."

What has really helped most to make the new program such a big success, for both regular classroom students as well as the special kids, was the parents' attitude, he says.

"When I first told the parents at a PTO meeting that the program was coming here, one woman said, 'What a good way for us to serve the whole community.'"

"It's that kind of attitude that caught on and filled the entire school. Parents, students and the staff welcomed the program with open arms."

"It became a great experience for all the kids," Ed explains. "They've learned that everyone is not alike, that some have talents others don't, and I have yet to hear any child enrolled in the regular program refer to one of the mentally impaired students in a demeaning or critical manner," he says with obvious pride.

He capitalized on the potential for meaningful involvement by encouraging the older students at Poupard to work with the mentally impaired in a one-to-one tutoring program.

Fireworks! But it hasn't been all work for the past 41 years. There's been a lot of time for family too, starting in 1940 when he met his wife Dorothy. He was on a vacation in Wisconsin visiting a childhood chum when the two met on the Fourth of July. The following June they were married.

Dorothy also worked for the Pointe schools as a nurse until the Administration decided several years ago, that nurses weren't needed any more. Now, she takes only an occasional job. "And she's gotten fussy about where she works too," according to Ed. She calls her own shots wherever she goes.

There are also two daughters. Cathy, married last March, is a graduate of Michigan State University with a degree in Communications. After a couple of different jobs, the 24-year-old has settled down selling advertising space for the Birmingham Observer Eccentric chain of newspapers.

Daughter Susan, 27, is also married, living in Rivard boulevard and buying fine jewelry for the J. L. Hudson Co.

The interest in jewelry seems to run through the family. Ed advertises his wife's family's turquoise jewelry business, based in Albuquerque, N. M., by sporting a huge blue ring himself.

West Is a Favorite Out west is one of the Wendts' favorite places to travel, next to the cottage in Wisconsin that they plan to make their home from now on between May and October.

It's a long way to travel, (more than 600 miles), "but once we get there, it's ideal." The cottage is part of a privately-owned club—with a golf course out the back door and Bass Lake stretching out in front.

Now that the work's over, Ed has no worries about how to occupy himself.

"I've always been the kind of guy who never had the time to do what he wanted to do. Now, I've got a lot of catching up to do on the golf course and on my bridge game, besides all the putter projects I never finished."

Busy or not, it was rough for Ed Wendt to give up his cluttered corner office at Poupard School. But there are a few things he'll be taking along with him—like the glazed porcelain plate on the wall, with the names of students in the trainable mentally impaired class on it.

"You don't realize what an accomplishment it was for these kids to be able to write their names on this," he said. "And I'm just glad I had a chance to be a part of that."

School graduate NANCY BROWN, daughter of the FRANK BROWNS, of Hamilton court, recently received the State of Indiana's Community Service Award as Alpha Phi's representative at DePauw University, where she is a junior.

Meadow Brook Hall Tea Room Is Open

The new Summer Tea Room opened July 1 at Meadow Brook Hall, with all guests touring the hall during the first two weeks of July invited to enjoy the decorations and atmosphere by relaxing with a glass of iced Sun Tea—on the house.

And quite a house it is, with 100 rooms, secret stairways, silk wall coverings, handwoven stonework, gold bathroom fixtures, crystal chandeliers, handcarved paneling, 300-year-old needlework draperies—to name a few of the attractions of this Tudor-style mansion at Oakland University, Rochester.

The Sun Tea, served free through this Saturday July 9, is one of the Summer Tea Room specialties. It is made with cold water and brewed in the sun for several days. Other tea room creations for the summer menu include a wide variety of beverages, salads, sandwiches and desserts, some light enough for dieters, others hearty and satisfyingly rich.

Fresh flowers decorate tables covered with cloths from the original Meadow Brook Hall linen collection. A view of formal gardens and rolling hills can be seen from inside windows as well woman ever elected to that office), of the Scarab Club.

A Really Big Band Sound

Those of you who were lucky enough to hear the Detroit Concert Band perform last evening at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial know what a REALLY BIG BAND SOUND is . . . and you'll be delighted to learn that the DCB has a new record out, "Soloists of the Detroit Concert Band," and that it's as much a corker as DCB's five previously released Sousa American Bicentennial Collection LP's.

The 10 artists featured in the latest album are all newcomers to the solo recording field—which doesn't mean they're not very good; just that they haven't been discovered yet—with the exception of Pointer Leonard B. Smith, DCB's music director.

You've all heard Dr. Smith before. You may have missed him on such famous network radio programs as The Firestone Hour, Music America Loves Best and The Ford Sunday Evening Hour; but it's dollars to doughnuts you caught him on one classic show.

His was the trumpet that heralded the appearance of The Lone Ranger.

Oh, How They Danced . . .

. . . at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club last week, as Jessie and Walter Bernard, of Buckingham road, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary.

And oh! . . . how Dr. and Mrs. Bernard's daughter, Susan Senkowski, back from Grand Rapids for the evening. (Susan and her husband have just moved), snapped pictures all during the party.

We're sure Susan's photos will make a perfectly beautiful album—almost as much fun as the one that was making the dinner table rounds during the anniversary festivities, with its classic shot of Jessie and Walter honeymooning in Quebec.

Family Day at Pewabic

Family Day at Michigan State University's Pewabic Pottery this Sunday, July 10, will feature a demonstration of Raku, the spectacular Japanese technique for firing pottery.

Admission to the demonstration and student shows and parking at the historic art facility in East Jefferson avenue, across the street from Detroit's Water Works Park, is free. Family Day hours are noon to 5 o'clock.

This year's Family Day also will be the final day for the Commemorative Exhibit of Pewabic Pottery and Tile honoring the pottery's 70th anniversary.

Admission to this special display, made possible in part as the outdoor porch setting just off the cobblestone courtyard.

A la carte selections are available in the Summer Tea Room only. The Christopher Wren dining room is open for guests who prefer a full luncheon menu.

Further information about the tea room or tours of Meadow Brook Hall may be obtained by calling 377-3140.

by grants from the Michigan Council for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts, is $1 for adults, and includes a lifetime membership. Children are free.

In the Raku demonstration, visitors see red hot pots taken from the kilns with long tongs and placed in sawdust-filled containers. After a few minutes of "smoking," the pots are removed, cooled and scrubbed free of soot and sawdust to reveal beautiful metallic lusters and iridescent glazes on the blackened clay bodies.

The Japanese are believed to have originated the Raku technique in the 16th century to meet the aesthetic needs of tea masters who used the resulting bowls in a quasi-religious ceremony of tea drinking and quiet contemplation of things which are beautiful.

Of the technique and its unpredictable results, Paul Soldner, first American to use it, said, "In the spirit of Raku, make no demands. Expect nothing, follow no absolute plan. Be secure in change. Learn to accept another solution. Prefer to gamble on your intuition."
