Young Pointer Discovers 'Old Time' Look

Young JOEL NICEAO of Grosse Pointe recently discovered that downtown Detroit has a "turn of the century" look with several Detroit police officers donning uniforms of bygone eras. The officers are actually "on police duty" but are more than happy to pose with people. Wayne

Redlining Is Subject of Concern in GP

Inter-Faith Center Accuses Some Realtors of Steering Buyers Away from Areas Bordering Detroit; President of Real Estate
Board Denies Charge

By Susan McDonald

Redlining and steering are practices long associated with the inner city—the run-down neighborhoods, (or nearly so), in which bankers refuse to loan money and realtors advise their good customers to avoid. But according to several Pointers, including the area's representative to state congress, the practices also have occurred in The Pointe. Based on their audit of several Pointe real estate firms, the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice concluded that some local salespeople are steering prospective buyers away from certain areas of The Pointe, especially those that are close to the border with Detroit.

The practice tends to depress home values in the area, and according to State Rep. William Bryant, becomes a "self-fulfilling prophecy of decay."

Permanent Stop

Rep. Bryant said he also is aware that agents had been steering buyers away from the area and added he was told by a "well-known Grosse Pointe realtor" that "in recent years certain Detroit banks would not make mortgage loans on the three or four streets closest to Alter road in The Park."

The withholding of mortgage money was temporary, he said, and took place three or four years ago. "I haven't heard if they, (the banks), were doing it lately, so I assume the practice has stopped."

As sponsor of a key piece of anti-redlining legislation, House Bill 4227, Rep. Bryant hopes to put a permanent stop to the alleged problem to protect both The Pointe and other older communities that border on decaying areas.

Both local realtors and Park city officials deny that either redlining or steering ever took place in The Pointe.

Park City Manager Robert A. Slone said he "never heard" of any redlining or steering in his community and vowed if he ever does he will file charges immediately.

Car Plunges Into Lake; Man Dies

Mishap Occurs Along
Lakeshore, East of Warner; Need for Barriers, Railings
Viewed

By Roger A. Waha

A 63-year-old Birmingham man lost his life after the car he was driving plunged into Lake St. Clair Thursday evening, July 28, shortly before 10 p.m. The mishap, which was the fourth incident in The Farms this year in which a vehicle has ended up in the water, occurred along Lakeshore, east of Warner road.

The victim, Edward Glen Buffmyer, was traveling eastbound, failed to negotiate the curve and drove off the roadway across some 120 feet of grass and concrete into the lake, police said.

He was removed from the vehicle by scuba divers Leon Sehoyan and Shores Officer John Frasad and rushed to Bon Secours Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Difficult Attempt
Four other citizens at the scene also attempted to rescue Mr. Buffmyer before police arrived.

At this time, police are awaiting a report from the Wayne County Medical Examiner's Office regarding the cause of death. Farms Police Chief Robert K. Ferber indicated, based upon a verbal report from the office, that apparently there was no sign of apparent trouble.

Mr. Sehoyan said he and Officer Frasad removed the body from the car within 10 minutes after their arrival at the scene. An accomplished diver, he indicated, because the vehicle was resting in a 15- to 20-foot hole, the rescue attempt was difficult because of the lack of visibility.

For his part, Mr. Sehoyan felt there was a need for barriers at some locations along Lakeshore road in an effort toward preventing such an (Continued on Page 2)

Incumbent Park Councilman George J. Verdonckt received the most votes of 12 council candidates, while Beverly C. Grobbel and Alan R. Devine Jr. were the choices of voters for the post of municipal judge after the city's primary election Tuesday, August 2.

Mr. Verdonckt, with 935 votes, will be one of six candidates vying for three council seats in the November election. At the same time, Mrs. Grobbel with 670 votes and Mr. Devine with 505 votes will battle for the position of judge.

Other council candidates who will be on the November ballot are James Ferriole Jr., 929 votes; incumbent Councilman Douglas G. Graham, 723 votes; Mado O. Lie, 661 votes; Charles Thomas Slusser, 631 votes; and Ann McDonald, 575 votes.

Miss Qualifying
Those who missed finishing in the top six include Patrick J. McCarroll, 554 votes; former Councilman Warren D. Couger, 522 votes; Dean P. Brunke, 286 votes; Raymond C. DeRyck, 226 votes; Sarge Yanchuk, 196 votes; and Rita Riggins Swan, 110 votes.

Finishing third in the race for judge was Joseph D. Grano with 368 votes. He was followed by Karen Smith Kienbaum, 278 votes; David E. Kasunic, 260 votes; and Timothy J. Sullivan, 202 votes.

More include John G. Bacon, 186 votes; George Menendez, 57 votes; Robert J. Lech, 37 votes; and Daniel E. Castner, 18 votes.

A total of 2,616 citizens out of an estimated total of 9,000 registered voters went to the polls. This response totals around 29 percent.

Deadlines Set In Woods, City

Time remains for prospective candidates in The Woods and City to circulate nominating petitions toward running for office in the November election.

Four council posts and the mayoral seat in The Woods and three council positions and the mayoral seat in The City will be eyed by voters.

Petitions must be filed in The Woods by 5 p.m. on September 12, while the filing deadline in The City is 12 noon on October 15.

In The Woods, petitions for each candidate shall be signed by not less than 100 nor more than 150 registered voters. No person shall sign his name to a greater number of petitions for any one office than there are persons to be elected to that office.

Meanwhile, between 20 and 40 signatures of registered voters are required on a petition to file for candidacy in The City.

The posts currently held by Woods Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos, (a two-year term), and Councilmen Ronald R. Keffen, John Sabol and E. D. Grady, (four-year terms), plus a two-year council term, (to fill the vacancy from the recent resignation of Joan M. Mullan), will be viewed by voters.

In The City, the posts currently held by Mayor John King and Councilmen George Henry, Robert Nugent and David Robb will be filled in the election.

For further information on nominating petitions, call Woods offices at 884-6800 and City offices at 885-5800.

GPF Okays Counsel for Detectives

Authorize City Attorney to Aid Officers Involved in Mistaken Identity
Shooting Following
Hold Up

By James J. Njaim

The Farms Council on Monday, August 1, unanimously decided to back two city detectives who are charged in a civil suit with allegedly shooting a Woods man in a mistaken identity case following a holdup of the Detroit and Northern Savings and Loan Assoc., 19307 Mack avenue, in February.

The council contends that the officers, at the time, acted in conformance to their sworn duty.

To show their support, council members authorized City Attorney George McKean to assist in defending the officers, Dets. Earl Field and Samuel Cardella. This action was endorsed by Police Chief Robert K. Ferber.

Cites Concern
The chief, who expressed his full support of the action taken by the officers at the time of the chase after the holdup, informed the council in a written memorandum that The Farms' insurer, located in East Detroit, advised that the wage used in the suit, (Mark and Susan Monterosso vs. the City of Grosse Pointe Farms), may negate (Continued on Page 6)

Big Fund Raiser Planned By League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe

'Bizarre Bazaar' Scheduled on September 3 at South High School's Gridiron to Offset
Declining Contributions from Businesses,
Total Community; Group to Rent
Space to Anyone for Selling of Articles

By Roger A. Waha

Concerned over the current state of declining contributions, the League of Women Voters, (LWV), of Grosse Pointe is taking a new approach toward obtaining funds necessary for the organization to continue its wide range of services to the community.

In the hope of making this an ongoing event, the LWV is having its first annual "Bizarre Bazaar, Flea Market and Craft Sale" on Saturday, September 3, at South High School's football field from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. In case of rain, the event will be held on Saturday, September 10.

As part of the bazaar, the league will have its own booths selling crafts, food, baked and canned goods and art items. At the same time, anyone who wishes to rent space to sell any article, from toys, to crafts, to antiques, can do so for a $10 rental fee.

Take New Tact
While the main objective of the event is to raise funds for The Pointe chapter via involving the total community, it also will provide a day of fun and enjoyment for all.

Co-chairing the bazaar are Barbara Stickford and Karen Fahle, and both hope an additional $1,000 will be obtained for this fiscal year.

Dues Even Raised
The process of league members spending their own money for a variety of activities, e.g., mileage toward attending conventions, phone calls, postage, et al., also continues. And the current membership roster of 128 has often pitched in financially to keep the group on an even keel—something members hope can be avoided in the future.

"The LWV is so well known and is taken for granted (by many) that even some league members as (Continued on Page 4)

School Board Meets Monday

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education will be held Monday, August 8, in the Board Room of the school system's Administration Building, 389 St. Clair avenue, beginning at 8 p.m.

The meeting is open to the public. The trustees have tentatively planned to begin discussion of the 1977-78 budget and system-wide goals and objectives at the session.

Drives for 'C' Licenses Accelerate

Woods Businessmen Circulate Petitions for One
Additional Permit,
Three Additional Permits, Respectively

By Roger A. Waha

Interest in circulating initiatory petitions toward drafting a question in ordinance form on the issuance of additional Class C liquor licenses in The Woods is accelerating.

First, Jack E. Degriek, owner of the only bowling alley in The Pointe, Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation, 20422 Mack avenue, appeared before the Woods Council on June 20 to ask if the solons would place this question directly on the ballot.

When the council declined, Mr. Degriek said he would conduct a petition drive toward obtaining one additional license in the community in the hope that his business would get it to thwart gradually falling profits and a loss of leagues because he cannot sell liquor by the glass.

Go It Alone
In fact, he indicated if his establishment didn't receive such a license, it "would be out of here."

Mr. Degriek now says others are jumping on the band wagon. The owner of Gabby's Restaurant, 19299 Mack avenue, is planning on circulating similar petitions for the issuance of three additional Class C licenses in the city.

At the same time, the NEWS has learned that two other local businesses have expressed an interest to city officials regarding the circulation of petitions.

Alex Bardy of Gabby's said he approached Mr. Degriek about a possible joint effort in this respect but was told that GPW Recreation would rather go it alone.

To Start This Week
Mr. Degriek confirmed the discussion and said he preferred to conduct his own drive because the Woods Council might approve one such license rather than three.

For his part, Mr. Bardy, a South High School graduate and former owner of the Hawthorne House in The Farms, said, "My restaurant is large, (and) could accom- (Continued on Page 2)

An Outgrowth of Concern, Bike Safety School Starts

By Roger A. Waha
The opening session of the Woods Department of Public Safety's bicycle safety school is scheduled to commence today, August 4, at departmental headquarters, 20025 Mack avenue, from 9 to 11 a.m.

A total of 22 letters from Public Safety Director Henry Marchand to parents of youngsters, who received violations, were mailed last week informing them of the program, which is voluntary and includes films, an exploration of laws, care and security and a test and discussion.

Hoping for a good response at the opening session, Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook said the youngsters who he hopes will attend will be grouped in ages nine through 12. "We want to keep kids of the same age together and show different films to the different groups," (e.g., Walt Disney safety-oriented movies) to the younger set, he stated.

Saying parents are welcome to sit in on any given session, Officer Crook hopes for a good response to the program, which will be scheduled upon demand, i.e., the number of juvenile safety violations issued to youngsters by the department.

After school begins in the fall, he plans on scheduling sessions after classes end or possibly on weekends. But the big need at this initial stage is parental cooperation toward having their children (Continued on Page 6)

City, Park Having Good Luck with Block Grants

By Susan McDonald
The Pointe's share of federal Community Development Block Grants may double this year to more than a quarter million dollars pending talks this week between Wayne County and Farms officials.

The City and Park have already secured $179,000 for public works projects under the program. The City's $80,000 will pay for street resurfacing, lighting, sidewalk ramps and bike racks in the Kercheval avenue shopping area.

Park officials say their $99,000 will help resurface streets and sidewalks. A $100,000 Farms application was rejected by Wayne County because it failed to meet program criteria, according to Farms City Clerk Richard Solak.

But Mr. Solak said he is "hopeful" the city can hammer out an acceptable application after its scheduled meeting with county officials yesterday, August 3.

A Shores application for $80,000 to renovate the old Vernier School for use by senior citizens also was rejected, according to Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jeffers.

This is the third year of City and Park involvement in the federal program. The City began with a $26,000 grant in 1975, increased its share to $53,000 last year and to $80,000 this year. The Park has had equally good luck, advancing from a (Continued on Page 4)

Motorist Dies As Car Plunges into Lake

A resident in the immediate area of this latest mishap also expressed a similar feeling that something should be done in this respect.

In relation to this question, Chief Ferber said since 1972 between 15 and 20 vehicles have ended up in the lake in his city with around 40 percent of the incidents resulting in death.

Suicidal in Nature
The chief also pointed out the majority of these reports were suicide related, i.e., suicide-murder and attempted suicide, rather than vehicular accidents, which he estimated at around 20 percent of the total.

Noting that the barricade or railing question has been considered in the past by the council and the Wayne County Road Commission, (Lake-shore is a county thoroughfare), Chief Ferber said the whole Lake-shore stretch would have to be looked at with the final decision resting with the county if, in fact, such a consideration was thoroughly explored.

When asked for his comments on the potential need of barriers or railings, Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer said he really hadn't given the matter that much thought, while noting most of the vehicle-into-lake-related accidents were suicidal in nature.

If a decision is ever made regarding the possible installation of some protective device by the county in the future, Mr. Bremer said he hoped the city would be consulted.

He added that this matter was briefly touched upon in the past with county officials as a sidelight to other conversations.

Not Be Deterred
While most of the mishaps have occurred in The Farms, The Shores has had similar incidents.

Shores Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale reported between 1972 and 1976, four vehicles have ended up in the water in his community. (Another vehicle was deposited in the lake last month but this was reported to be a stolen auto.)

Between 1954 and 1970, he noted, six vehicles were driven into the lake.

Of the four cases since 1972, Director Vitale said one was the result of careless driving, another occurred during a chase with public safety officers, one resulted from a brake failure and the other happened because of drunk driving with this incident resulting in a death.

A few sources in The Farms felt barriers or railings at locations along Lake-shore road would be a positive step toward preventing serious vehicular mishaps and possible deaths, although they stressed that if anyone was definitely going to attempt suicide by driving into the lake, that individual would not be deterred by any protective device.

No Need in Shores
Another consideration cited regarding barriers or railings, (besides those of specific locations, overall feasibility, et al.), was the fact that such devices could detract from the aesthetic beauty of the roadway.

For his part, Director Vitale feels any barriers or railings are unnecessary in his community. "I don't see a problem in Grosse Pointe Shores because of the amount of turf between the street and the lake itself," he stated.

Unlike The Farms, there is a greater area of grass between the roadway and the water in The Shores.

Director Vitale also noted, "We don't have that many vehicles go into the lake."

Drives for 'C' Licenses

At the same time, Mr. Bardy said if his business received such a license, there would be no encroachment of residential areas and parking is plentiful near his building.

He stressed that the tenor of his drive toward obtaining a Class C permit is "I will let it set on merit." Feeling his restaurant is worthy of a license, he also said GPW Recreation also is deserving.

While Mr. Degriek is well into obtaining signatures on his petitions, Mr. Bardy said he will start his drive this week.

Such petitions must contain a minimum 10 percent signatures of registered voters in the community. At this point, there are just over 14,000 registered voters so around 1,500 signatures would be needed, (as all must be properly certified.)

Mr. Degriek said he would turn in his petitions, (incorporating around 1,900 signatures for safety's sake), by around Friday, August 19, while Mr. Bardy said his documents would be turned in by Thursday, September 1.

Potential Confusion
After the petitions are submitted to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, the signatures will be certified based upon voter registration records. Then the matter will go before the council for consideration on placing the question on the ballot.

If a question (or questions) is approved by voters, the council will then make a determination what business (or businesses) will receive an additional Class C license (or licenses).

This decision, noted Mr. Petersen, doesn't have to be made on a seniority basis based upon the list of applicants on file with the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, (LCC), and the date the applications were received.

The possibility of potential confusion is directly proportional to the number of businesses who decide to circulate similar petitions in the community.

Will Explore
The question then remains if the documents of two or more businesses pass the certification hurdle, will the council approve the petition bearing one additional license, the petition bearing three additional licenses, the potential petition bearing another number of licenses or all?

And is two (or more) questions are approved, will voters then consider all these on the November ballot? City Attorney George Catlin, who is currently playing this entire matter by ear pending further developments, said he will definitely explore these questions if, in fact, it becomes necessary to do so.

A total of three Class C licenses are now in the community. The city could have up to 12 more pending council approval.

Arm Wrestler Makes Finals

Ken Stockwell, 17, repeating his performance in last year's contest, was again a finalist in the 5th Michigan Ontario Arm Wrestling Classic to benefit muscular dystrophy.

Ken and Peter Hendrie, Mark West, Pat Harrity, Brian Helin and Rudy Vanderbroek, students at South High School, were the youngest contestants of 160 entries.

The tournament, sponsored by the World Professional Arm Wrestling Assoc., was held Saturday, July 30, at Bob-Lo.

Immunization Clinic Opens

Health Department Immunization Clinics in this area have expanded their schedules in order to provide free protection to kindergartners entering school this fall.

Pointers may take their children to the Harper Woods Community Center, 19746 Harper, on Wednesday, August 24, between 9 and 11 a.m. or 1 and 3 p.m. Michigan law requires that a child enrolling in school for the first time be immunized or protected against diphtheria, measles, polio, rubella and tetanus.

Written proof of immunizations must be presented to school officials upon enrollment.

For more information call the Wayne County Health Department, health education bureau, at 729-2211 or 274-2800, weekdays between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Art Festival a Success

The day was perfect — the entertainment marvelous as the 3rd Annual Sidewalk Art Festival last Saturday, July 28 (sponsored by Needles and Knots, Inc.) came off with a bang. There was something at the Festival to suit everyone's taste — from macramé to watercolors, weavings to oil paintings, soft sculptured toys to pottery, hand-crafted sterling jewelry to batiks.

Linda Williamson (who, by the way, did the soft sculptured toys) introduced a fantastic troupe of mimes who hail from L'Anse Creuse High School. They were: Ken Rose, Todd Oxendine, Lyn Bastian, Ros Bondy and Lesley Ebert. They kept everyone in stitches with their antics, including a gypsy fortune teller.

Josef of Josef's French Pastry Shop created the world's largest éclair — it weighed in at 24 1/2 lbs. and was 3 feet long. You'd have to see it to believe it, but take it from me — it was yummy!!!

Speaking of yummy, there were also hot and cold sandwiches, cold drinks, ice cream and other delectables at Marv's Outside Cafe. Everyone who came to Marv's also got the added treat of listening to some really fine live guitar music and singing provided by: David Ernst and David Bayer.

After all is said and done, I don't think we could have asked for a more perfect day for our 3rd Annual Festival — we're looking forward to next year and our fourth Festival. Now THAT'S planning ahead.

Woods Okays Repair Work

Two recommendations from the city engineering firm of Pate, Hirm and Bogue, Inc., on asphalt pavement resurfacing and miscellaneous asphalt repair, plus miscellaneous concrete pavement repair work, received the unanimous concurrence of the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, July 18.

The council awarded the asphalt pavement contract to National Asphalt Paving Co., of Utica, in the total amount of $164,338.96, the lowest bid received. The monies will come from the local and major street improvement fund.

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said such work will be primarily in the areas of Broadstone, Littlestone and Severn roads from Mack to the west, in Lochmoor boulevard from Mack to Sunningdale and in Roslyn and Hampton roads from Mack to the Milk River.

On concrete repair, the council awarded the pact to T and T Contracting Co., of Fraser, in the amount of $36,038.50, the lowest bid received.

This contract also will include further concrete repair work to be done in Prestwick, Severn and Bramcas-

Senior Citizens Housing Subject of Planner's Talk

By Dave Robertson

The prospects for senior citizen housing in The Woods and a land use policy for the future were the subjects of a talk given by Brandon M. Rogers to the Woods Senior Citizens Commission.

Mr. Rogers, executive vice-president of Parkins, Rogers and Associates, Inc., recently hired by the Woods Council as the city's planning consultant, spoke at the commission's regular meeting Tuesday, July 26, in the council chamber.

According to Mr. Rogers, his firm hopes to report back with its findings in late fall. As a result, the commission voted unanimously to postpone any action on its bid for senior housing, pending the release of Mr. Rogers' report.

The commission and the approximately 40 seniors present were interested in how a new land use study might influence the prospects for senior citizen housing in The Woods.

In his address to the seniors, Mr. Rogers stressed the importance of evolution in a community and the changing lifestyles that create a need for effective land use.

"Our land use policy is meant to forecast for the year 2000," said Mr. Rogers. "Cities are made up of people with different lifestyles," he said. "Today's community of over 20,000 is a built up city, the land pretty well occupied. The Woods is similar to The Farms and other older Pointe communities in this regard."

Mr. Rogers felt that The Woods shares a problem with her sister city, Harper Woods. "Both cities have the problem of growing old gracefully," he said.

"Today you can count on two hands the number of large estates between Alter and Vernier," he said. "Large estates are being subdivided for economic reasons, the Dodge estate is an example."

Mr. Rogers stressed that in the search for senior housing sites, seniors must recognize the needs of the total community. He reminded them that over 50 percent of Woods voters chose recreation over senior housing in a past referendum. However, he added, "In two years that could change."

He told the seniors that before they move to build housing on park land, they should make sure that there are plenty of recreational facilities for everyone.

"Before you look again to Ghesquiere Park for a housing sight, look elsewhere," Mr. Rogers said.

He expressed hope that perhaps some of the schools in the area, either vacant or with a reduced pupil load due to declining birth rates, might provide good sites for senior housing.

Acknowledging he had no inside information, Mr. Rogers conceded that it might be possible to have senior housing located on a portion of the late Mrs. Edsel Ford's estate.

In the event senior housing is built, Mr. Rogers expressed confidence that there will be a market for the homes sold by Woods seniors.

"A number of people will want to live in the Pointes, near the RenCen, Lake St. Clair and fine schools. People will pay good money for your homes if you want to live in senior housing," he said.

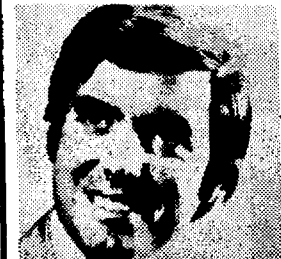

"In building housing, you have to gear it to different phases of life if you are to keep a family in the city after the children have left."

When asked about his commitment to senior housing, he replied, "I think you need it. You people are good taxpayers and long time residents."

Mr. Rogers told the seniors that to get a site for senior housing, they will have to educate their neighbors, seek financing and support the condemnation of some land. "There has to be some balance," he noted.

As to the future of The Woods, Mr. Rogers eyes a continued commitment to single family homes and a rebirth of the Mack-Moross area. Additions to Saint John Hospital and multiple-level construction of both business and parking will all help facilitate this rebirth.

Ebenezer Baptist Church to Present Concert

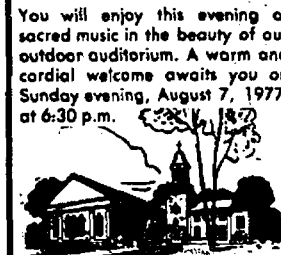

Don Wyrzban, outstanding pianist, will be presenting a concert in music at the Chapel in the Trees of the Ebenezer Baptist Church, 21001 Moross Road, Detroit. The concert will begin on Sunday evening, August 7, 1977, at 6:30 p.m.

Mr. Wyrzban has arranged and composed over 100 anthems and sacred songs including "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" and "Love Was When." He authored and conducted the orchestral scores for John W. Peterson's work "The Good Life," "Jesus is Coming," "King of Kings," "The Last Week," and "Christ is Born." He recently collaborated with John W. ## Pair Injured in Park Mishap

The driver of a totally demolished automobile emerged from the vehicle with minor injuries, but his passenger, with temporarily serious injuries, remains hospitalized in Bon Secours Hospital after the Tuesday, July 26, mishap reported Park Police Chief Henry O. Coonce.

He disclosed that the accident occurred at 6:48 a.m. The driver of the car, Timothy McCormack, 18, of 327 Merriweather road, according to witnesses, was traveling east on Jefferson at what appeared to be about 60 mph.

At the Bishop Lane intersection, the driver lost control and the vehicle left the roadway, struck one tree between the curb and the sidewalk, traveled several feet and hit a second tree. Then the car rolled over three times on the pavement.

Police officers and firefighters manning the emergency ambulance, who were dispatched to the scene, said it was a mystery how McCormack and his passenger, Robert Warren Fradeneck, 18, of 1024 Nottingham road, were able to get out of the smashed auto.

They said when they arrived, McCormack suffering cuts and bruises about the face and arms, was walking around the smashed car.

Fradeneck, who was suffering from a broken jaw and head concussion, plus abrasions, contusions and lacerations about the body, was laying on the pavement. Both were taken to the hospital where McCormack was treated and released and Fradeneck was placed in intensive care in temporary serious condition. At last report, he was doing well.

Chief Coonce said that McCormack, who admitted that there had been some drinking, was issued a violation ticket for leaving the roadway and hitting a fixed object.

The violation was given as a matter of course, until a thorough investigation has been completed, the chief said.

It is possible that following the investigation, McCormack may face a more serious charge.

A date is pending the completion of the investigation.

Repair or Remove Dump Bar Building, Owner Told

By James J. Njaim
Mrs. Betty A. Lingon, of Maryland road, failed to appear before the Park Council on Monday, July 25, with her attorney to determine what steps she will take regarding the renovation or demolition of the former Dump Bar Building, 15023 Kercheval avenue.

Action on the building has been delayed twice by the council since Park Municipal Judge John Urso, following a hearing, ordered the building torn down by June 11, if no permits for construction were issued.

The council on the 25th decided to be lenient and granted the absent Mrs. Lingon 60 days, as required by ordinance, to either alter, repair or tear down, or remove the edifice within 60 days because the building has reached a status of being a public nuisance and subject to condemnation.

Mrs. Lingon, who did appear at the Monday, July 11, council session, informed the council at that time she had hired a contractor who claimed he had filed for a permit to do the necessary work on the building to bring everything up to code.

She had given the man a partial payment and has not seen him since, she said. Mrs. Lingon claimed at this meeting that she had expended $8,000 on a new roof and $400 in removing debris from the building.

She further claimed that the structure, with two living quarters above it, was part of an estate for her grandchildren and that she is making an effort to buy the place from them.

Paul Carter, deputy director of public service, said that the owner is definitely in violation of the ordinance. He also pointed out that the man Mrs. Lingon had hired did not obtain a permit because he was not qualified to do this job. He said he put a stop order on the work on the building because no permits, except for plumbing, were applied for.

Mr. Carter said the plumbing and heating, the electrical system must be repaired and brought up to present code, and the inside of the property must be constructed in such a manner as to protect it from fire. There is peeling plaster and paint throughout most of the building.

The outside stairs and landing had to be torn down because of their condition. The deputy director said the ceilings and floor of the first section of the building have been heavily damaged by leaking radiators and broken windows through which the rain came, resulting in the falling plaster and peeling paint, and warping the flooring wood.

If Mrs. Lingon renovates

the building, she will have to replace the outside steps and landing, Mr. Carter added. At the July 11 meeting, Mrs. Lingon said that she not only has hopes of purchasing the property from the estate but would consider converting the place into an ice cream parlor. It was brought out that no one now lives in the upstairs apartments, which have been empty for the past several weeks. Mrs. Lingon said she is having difficulty in collecting past rent.

City Manager Robert A. Slone said the bar itself has been closed down for the past two years, and according to a report submitted by Mr. Carter, the basement is badly in need of repairs and dead rats were found lying on the floor, indicating that the walls were not rodent proof.

Under Judge Urso's ruling, it would be the council's prerogative to declare the building a nuisance and give the owner notice of proceedings to condemn, naming the violations.

If Mrs. Lingon does not comply with the renovation and bring the entire building under code, then the building can be torn down at the expense of the owner. Mr. Carter said that it would cost an estimated $20,000 to $30,000 to fix up the building.

If the edifice does come down, it can be purchased by the city and used as an extension to an adjacent parking lot, which would be a big advantage to the Kercheval business area.

In addition to declaring the Dump Bar building a nuisance, a garage at the rear of Mrs. Lingon's property in Maryland road also was declared a nuisance and was condemned.

It has since been torn down and removed.

Book Explores Job Openings

What kind of job will a high school education get you? How good are your chances of getting a job in the teaching profession? Will tool and die workers be in more demand than engineers a few years from now?

These and other pertinent questions are answered in a booklet recently released by the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC). It is available to the public free of charge through MESC's 70 job-service offices statewide, according to an MESC news release.

The booklet describes the number and kinds of white collar, blue collar and service job openings that will be available in Michigan through 1980.

It provides for an overall job outlook helpful in initial career planning for high school graduates, college students or those considering a job change.

MESC Director S. Martin Taylor, in his introduction to the booklet says, "We see far too many people who have spent years of their lives and thousands of their dollars preparing for jobs that just aren't there at graduation time."

Mr. Taylor claims that information on "where the job openings will be and what you'll need to get them is essential in career planning."

According to "Michigan Job Scene," white collar jobs, which include professional and technical occupations, managerial and administrative jobs, sales and clerical positions, account for about 48 percent of all jobs in Michigan.

Approximately 105,000 openings per year are anticipated in this area, with a steep increase in demand for medical professionals and

CLEAN SWEEP

After generations had learned to sweep the dust under the carpet, Melville Bissell of Grand Rapids introduced the first practical sweeper in 1876. He improved on earlier sweepers through a "broom-action" principle by which the sweeper could handle different grades of carpeting. A selection of early sweepers, showing their sophisticated development, is part of the Domestic Arts Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

WHAT GOES WITH HOUSE?

Real estate is usually defined as the land and everything attached to it, such as: buildings, trees, shrubs, etc. The buyer normally gets all of the real estate, but none of the owner's personal property. The problem arises when personal property has become a part of the real estate. This is called a fixture and does pass with the real estate.

There are three usual tests which must be satisfied. Has the personal property been permanently annexed to the real estate? Is it intended to become part of the real estate? And finally, what is the local custom? Usual fixtures might include: shades, heaters, ranges, screens, storm windows, lighting fixtures, etc.

It is important that the seller spell out specifically in his sales agreement exactly what he intends to give to the buyer as part of real estate. This will save misunderstanding at the closing, and sometimes save a sale.

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit the War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom, 32 Lakeshore road, on Thursday, August 11, from 2 to 8 p.m.

The blood drive will help replenish the Grosse Pointe Community Blood Bank, which is maintained by the War Memorial for free loan to Pointers in case of emergency.

The effort is backed by the Grosse Pointe Community Blood Council of Churches and local civic and commercial groups.

Shirley Goolsby, assisted by members of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club, will direct the drive as they have for the past several years.

An appointment for the Blood Bank helps to reduce waiting and enables professionals on hand to space out their work.

Appointments may be made by cards distributed in local churches or by calling the center's office at 881-7511.

Persons ages 18 to 60 may donate blood unless they are pregnant, or have a history of heart or blood disease.

Farms Okays Counsel for Officers

The communication also advised that the officers obtain personal legal counsel because of this, the chief added.

"In that my personal experience indicates that 'willful, wanton and reckless negligence' is standard verbiage in a civil suit," Chief Ferber noted in the memorandum, "and in fact is the only means available to proceed in a civil suit of this nature, I am greatly concerned with the impact of the insurer's notification."

The chief pointed out that the insurance firm suggested that the city is privileged, and perhaps ought to, in this instance, retain counsel "of your choice, at your expense" to associate with the law firm it had already selected.

Supports Action Without hesitation, the members of the Farms Council authorized the city attorney to act with the attorney picked by them, David Dickinson, rather than have Dets. Field and Cardella retain their own counsel.

The chief said he is entirely in support of the council's authorization of the city attorney's office in providing legal counsel for the officers' personal welfare.

"I make this statement not only because I believe the officers' actions were not 'willful, wanton and reckless,' or because they are proven valuable employees of the police department, but that the potential for similar actions remains a constant threat to each and every member of the police department in the course of the performance of their sworn duties.

"In my opinion, to do otherwise, would lead to a major morale crisis within the department which will reflect in our operational efficiency and the quality of the service rendered to the public we serve."

The lawsuit was filed in behalf of Mr. Monterosso, the shooting victim, and Susan Monterosso, against The Farms and Dets. Field and Cardella.

Long Wait Seen The case is scheduled to be heard before a jury, but because of a large backlog of cases, the trial may not take place for at least two to three years, it was said.

Mr. Monterosso was shot during a pursuit by Dets. Field and Cardella on February 18 when he failed to stop when ordered by the officers, who reportedly identified themselves as police officers of the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Department. The man fitted the description of the suspect who held up Detroit and Northern.

Mr. Monterosso suffered a through and through wound to the top of his right shoulder and a grazing wound at the base of his skull. His van was hit at least 14 times by bullets, police said.

The shooting victim was taken to Saint John Hospital for treatment of his wounds. At the hospital, one of the bank tellers said Mr. Monterosso definitely was not the holdup man; and he was released by the FBI after treatment.

Mr. Monterosso's attorney,

Find Jewelry Taken in R/A

A few articles of jewelry were identified by the owner of Bijouterie, Inc., 19860 Mack avenue, after the Woods Department of Public Safety recently received information from the Detroit Police Department's 12th Precinct that four men arrested on July 11 were found to be in possession of several jewels not in settings.

Bijouterie was held up by two suspects, a man and a woman, on July 2, and Woods Det. Charles Philip Hamel reported an estimated $115,000 in precious stones including diamonds, sapphires, rubies and opals were taken along with an estimated $3,000 in cash.

Det. Hamel took the owner to the Detroit Police Department property room and one container with several garnets and a few opals included some jewels taken from Bijouterie.

A second container with an emerald, several garnets, diamonds and opals also included a jewel which was identified as being stolen. This was a green emerald which, the owner said, was one of three taken.

Det. Hamel said the recovered jewelry had an estimated value of $2,000.

The male suspect was described as black, between 25-30 years of age, around 5'10" tall and of a thin build. His complexion was light and he had a neatly-trimmed mustache. He wore a light brown suit, a tan straw hat and sunglasses. His nails, witnesses said, were manicured. This suspect was armed with a revolver.

Meanwhile, the woman was black, in her early 20's, about 5'5" tall and of a thin build. She had a dark complexion and a very busy Afro, (possibly a wig). Her face was round and she, too, wore sunglasses. Her dress was described as black, orange and white.

LABOR ACT The Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training promotes apprenticeship programs in skilled trades under the National Apprenticeship Act. This office is part of the U.S. Labor Department's Employment and Training Administration.

Bike Safety School Starts

"Parents have called in the past saying they want something done and now they have an opportunity to respond," emphasized Officer Crook. He also noted the school provides an extra edge on the overall enforcement front for everyone, including officers who issue such violations and know the department has such a program to help offending youngsters.

A concern over the enforcement of regulations regarding bicycles has been a prominent one for City Administrator Chester E. Petersen for several years. He initially requested that the public safety department formulate an intensive bicycle safety program with the school, becoming an outgrowth of this effort.

"I've been highly interested in motivating the public safety department and all the Grosse Pointe communities in enforcing traffic regulations for bicyclists," he said.

"I feel the Grosse Pointes have been lucky in not having had some very serious accidents and (several) bike fatalities because of an apparent lack of enforcement of traffic regulations pertaining to bicycles and the apparent disregard of such regulations themselves," continued Mr. Petersen.

He then cited offenses as cyclists running red traffic signals and stop signs and not having proper equipment on their bikes. "Bicyclists, whether they are juveniles or adults, have got to be educated in that they must follow the state vehicle traffic code," he added, while noting that perhaps the bicycle safety school might be carried a step further in the future and include adults.

In relation to bicycle fatalities, a 10-year-old Park boy was killed instantly last April while two other boys were injured when they were struck from behind as they rode their bikes single file along Lakeshore road in The Farms.

Data on Where HS Grads Go Proves Worthwhile

By Susan McDonald

Traditional four-year colleges aren't as popular among Pointe students as they once were, according to a school system report.

The number of students attending four-year institutions after high school graduation has decreased radically in recent years, school officials say.

A comparison of 1975 and 1976 public school graduating classes shows a 14 percent decrease in attendance at degree-granting institutions in the latter year.

That data reflects a trend of the past several years, away from the four-year school and toward junior colleges, special technical schools and jobs, according to Director of Instruction Dr. Joseph Spagnoli.

The study was based on questionnaires answered by about 95 percent of the 1975 South High class, (610 students), and the 1976 North High class, (556 students).

Woods Nixes House Bills

A trio of bills which would affect the election process were slammed by the Woods Council via a resolution at its regular meeting Monday, July 18.

The House is considering HB 4563, which would remove virtually all restrictions on the use of absentee voter ballots, HB 4796, which would require that each local clerk include varied information on all voter identification cards, (including various districts in which the voter resides), and HB 4853, which would establish uniform procedures for handling cancellation notices both in and out of state.

The net effect of such proposed legislation would be "to increase the burden upon local units of government without any appreciable gain or improvement in the method of voter registration," says the resolution, which was unanimously adopted by the council.

Copies of the measure were sent to Gov. William G. Milliken, Senators Joseph Snyder and John C. Hertel and Representatives William R. Bryant Jr. and Dennis O. Cawthorne.

Center Point Not Victimized

Center Point Crisis Center officials say that a breaking and entering which occurred last month actually did not take place at Center Point but at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church fellowship hall and kitchen, in a building shared by the two groups.

Police records showed that the entire building in the rear of the property, at 17150 Maumee avenue, belonged to Center Point. That is not the case, according to Pat Horne, director.

She said police records have been altered to acknowledge that the Unitarian Church and Center Point share the building.

In the robbery, young thieves netted a stereo and speaker set, 34 record albums, beer and wine, a tool box, axe, butcher knives and two backpacks. A trainer belonging to Boy Scout Troop No. 86 also was ransacked.

In some instances money will go a little further today, but there's no way it will stretch as far as next payday.

Distinctive Dining by Larry Lavigne

The thrifty hostess can never have too many tasty, inexpensive recipes on hand. These are especially important for that large dinner party which can cost the inexperienced cook a fortune. Many vegetarian dishes are admirably economical. Meatless lasagna, for example, is a delicious and filling dish when made with cabbage instead of pasta. Lightly saute cabbage leaves in oil and paprika. Combine three cups of cottage cheese with three eggs. In a large rectangular pan, alternate layers of cabbage, the cottage cheese mixture, meatless tomato sauce, and slices of mozzarella cheese. Cook in a hot oven until bubbly, about one hour.

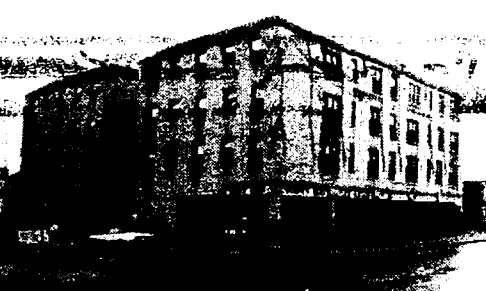

The easiest way to treat guests to a delicious meal, is to treat them to dinner at LAMBARDI'S RESTAURANT, 17125 E. Warren at Cadieux, Detroit, TU 5-9100. You will all enjoy the distinctive dining at our warm, cozy restaurant with courteous waitresses to serve you. We are famous for our Italian pasta which we make from scratch in our own kitchen. ## Farms Stars Drop Contest

By Joe Fromm
The Farms Major League all-stars were defeated in the quarter-finals of the District Six regional tournament by the Harper Woods Nationals, 5-0, on Tuesday, July 26.

Matt Lehue, Harper Woods pitcher, had a no-hitter going against The Farms until Craig Haase singled with two out in the sixth. Todd Pierce followed with a high fly to deep left center but it was caught a foot from the fence, ending the game.

Earlier in the sixth, Mike Connell hit a fly to deep center near the fence. The Harper Woods centerfielder got a glove on the ball but dropped it. The official scorer called it an error. Connell stopped at third on Haase's hit.

The Farms put only three men on base before the sixth inning. Bart Leu reached first base in the first as the third baseman bobbled his grounder. Pierce reached first in the second when the catcher interfered with his swing.

Todd Ciavola walked in the second.
Lehue retired the next 11 batters before Connell's hit. He struck out 11 Farms batters.

Harper Woods scored two runs in the second and fourth innings and one in the third inning. Only two of the runs were earned. All five runs and three hits were picked up off starter Haase. Ernie Kovanda finished the last inning and a third with his off-speed pitches.

Three good fielding plays were turned in by The Farms. Leu made a fine running, backhanded catch of a fly ball into right center. Rick Parsons caught a "Texas League" blooper in short right field and third baseman John Kulka cut off a grounder in the hole between short and third and retired the batter by a step with a quick throw to first.

District Six Director Arnold Getz indicated this year's Farms team was the first team in the 26-year history of Farms Little League to win more than one game in the regional tournament.

Manager Blair Parsons used all 14 players in the three games. Haase picked up six of the 19 hits by The Farms including a game winning home run in the second contest. Leu picked up three hits, all in the first game. Pierce, Ken Fromm and Brian Socia picked up two hits each with one of Pierce's hits a home run.

The team members include Parsons, Mark Brooks, Ciavola and Pierce of the Tigers; Haase, Fromm and Kovanda of the Indians; Connell, Jim Zavell and Bill Crow of the Phils; Leu and David Nurmi of the Red Legs; Socia of the Pirates; and Kulka of the Yankees.

Five GPF Officers Eye Position of Detective

By James J. Njaim

Five officers of patrolman rank in The Farms have filed for the position of detective after Chief Robert K. Ferber admitted that filling the vacancy was not done according to proper procedure, said Patrolman Clarence Reichling, president of the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Officers Association, (GPF-POA), last week.

In a memorandum posted on the station bulletin board, Chief Ferber said he had received the collective bargaining agreement concerning the filling of a previous vacancy in the detective bureau without first posting the vacancy.

In the meantime, the chief disclosed in the memorandum, Samuel A. Cardella, (who had been appointed to the position last September 13), will continue to temporarily fill the position until a permanent decision is made.

Officer Reichling said when Det. Cardella was appointed to the detective bureau, the GPFPOA filed a grievance with the American Arbitration Assoc. Three days before the hearing was to have been heard by an arbitrator, Chief Ferber posted the memorandum, dated this June 9.

Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem said the deadline for filing for the post in the detective bureau was Friday, July 8, and five members of the department have submitted applications to take the examination for detective.

"As a result of the nature of the work and the additional responsibilities," it was stated in the notice, "Sgt. Van Tiem is seeking only volunteers. The final selection for this position will be made by the sergeant, with the approval of Chief Ferber."

Officer Reichling said initially the appointment of Det. Cardella did not follow a procedure according to a bargaining agreement with the GPFPOA.

Now, the association's main concern is to go ahead, in good faith, according to the collective bargaining agreement, which should have been done in the first place, he said.

Both Chief Ferber and Sgt. Van Tiem said they were satisfied with the work that Det. Cardella has been doing. Since his appointment to the post, they called his work excellent.

One of the officers applying for the detective job will be appointed on the basis of ability, qualification and seniority, it was said. "If we do not get any satisfaction this time," said the president of the association, "we will have no other recourse but to have this issue settled by arbitration."

Those who have applied for the detective position are Det. Cardella and Patrolmen Reichling, Timothy Morrison, Thomas Kelly and Gerald Deburghgrave.

DELAYED ACTION
Second thoughts are usually best, but the trouble is they don't always arrive on time.

Thieves Enter Moored Boats

Four boats were entered while moored at the Crescent Sail Yacht Club, according to a report received by Farms police on Saturday, July 30.

The culprits boarded a sloop moored in the small harbor on the club's west side, and two stainless steel "bailers" on the bottom of the hull were broken off causing the boat to sink. Two elastic shock cords with attached hooks also were taken.

Police said the replacement value of the bailers was placed at $56, while the cords were valued at $5 each.

A yawl was entered with the forward cabin hatch being pried open damaging the hinges, which can be replaced. The cabin area was searched but nothing was found missing at this time. This craft was moored on the east side of the large harbor.

Two other boats on the west side of the main harbor also were entered. A stop watch was taken from one, while a hand compass was removed from the other.

One attempted entry on another boat also was reported.

The men who get ahead are those who go ahead alone.

The path that leads to success is well strewn with thorns.

Blaze Kills Family Dog

A faulty air conditioner is thought to have been the cause of a fire Sunday, July 29, that killed a family dog, gutted a back room and spread smoke damage throughout a house at 16900 Village lane.

City and Park firefighters responded to the phone alarm at about 10:26 p.m. and found a family room in the rear of the house engulfed in flames.

When inspecting the house, after the fire was doused, the firemen found the family's gray poodle dead in a second floor hallway.

The firemen left the scene at 12:10 a.m. Although the fire was contained to the family room, the entire home suffered smoke damage, according to City fire reports.

Most of us know the qualities we would like to see in others, but only a few try to practice what they preach.

Superintendent of Schools

Last week I began to present my philosophy of instruction in English at the elementary and middle school level. In this column I shall comment on grades nine through 12.

The high school years should be a time to finish and polish all basic skills, especially those of literature, writing and grammar and usage, and to guide students to pursue their unique interests and abilities as they move toward the time when they will choose a place in the world of work, a role in community living and modes of recreational and leisure-time activities.

To implement these beliefs, our program requires all students to take at least three years of English, four if a student hopes to receive the principal's recommendation for admission to college.

In addition, all students are required to take a common course in the ninth grade entitled Introduction to High School English and a common one-semester course in the 10th grade entitled Writing Workshop.

This latter requirement is new this coming year and is a response to the concern of the Community, the Board of Education and the administration that our elective program in grades 10 through 12 has allowed students, despite the best guidance the school has offered, to "elect out" of courses emphasizing the more practical and more rigorous experiences in English instruction.

These include the advanced forms of exposition, practical writing as contrasted to papers on literary topics, experiences in reading and analyzing contemporary articles and nonfiction and advanced problems in usage and grammar.

The elective program for the one semester in the 10th grade and for the two full years in grades 11 and 12 remains unchanged.

Since an underlying theme in this article is the stress on basic skills, I probably should remind or inform all readers that every course which carries English credit in the high school, regardless of title, must meet minimum requirements for instruction in writing.

Just last year, as a result of a reorganization at the central office, our Board of Education established an Office of Research and Development which will be instrumental in the systematic collection of pertinent data to monitor and evaluate this program as well as others and to assist in the needed development of new programs.

As a result of this reorganization, we have already been able to conduct needed research into children's writing to assess performance levels, establish a reality-based elementary curriculum for punctuation and capitalization, produce a local skills workbook and evaluate program effectiveness.

Another example of our new capability is that our program to evaluate achievement in writing, which has been conducted for several years, has already been extended to the middle school this past year for the first time and is planned for the high school next year.

This capability not only allows us to evaluate programs but also to make recommendations for future courses for individual students.

Did you know that glass can be painted, silk-screened, even decal? As soon as the decoration has been applied, the glass is fired. In this way the design becomes durable. It is important to remember, though, that painted glassware cannot stand the dishwasher. The heat and the abrasive action of detergent will destroy the paint. This is especially true for any gold or silver designs, which have been fired at lower temperatures. Frosted glassware — also called "satin glass" — has been dipped into an acid bath to produce its matte finish. It is dishwasher safe, and is available in both formal and informal pieces.

Did you know that everything in quality jewelry can be found at VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, Detroit, 881-4800? Do drop by soon and see our large displays of diamonds, pearls, gold and silver jewelry. Whether you are making a purchase or having an item repaired, our reputation is your guarantee of satisfaction. ## Thousands Participate in Big GP Farms Regatta

Even the weather conspired to make the 25th Annual Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club Regatta an outstanding celebration as thousands flocked to the Farms Pier Park to participate in the variety of events planned for Friday through Sunday, July 22 to 24.

According to the official attendance records, 4,310 persons came for picnics, races and games on Saturday and 3,700 used the facilities on Sunday. Records also show that more than 3,000 came through the gate Friday with one official estimating attendance at the Teen Dance in the thousands.

George Toy is Farms Boat Club commodore, and vice-commodore Rich Shannon planned the regatta.

On Saturday morning the power boat races began at 9:30 with Randy Walworth and Adrian Allen taking first and second place, respectively, in the hydroplane under 10-foot race. Outboards under 15 feet was won by Pat Vander Boom. Eugene Binder was second and Jim Allor took third place.

In the 15- to 20-foot event, Peter Albrecht, David Warren and John Fleming finished one, two, three. For the 300 h.p. and over Michelle Zoblacki took first, while Robert Stockwell and Mike Lardner came in second and third, respectively.

The sailboat races began on a spinnaker run with John Sauer taking the winner's trophy for keel boats, Rick Schrage coming in second and Ross Naidow taking third.

In the centerboard class, Bob Hamilton, Howard Krieger and Stan Davis finished one, two, three.

Jim Verbeke won in the board boat class with Peter Schmidt runner-up and Bill Waugaman third. For the novice class, John Mecke set the winning pace, Gary Vasher was second and Claire Colby took third place.

A special trophy was awarded to Sterling Graham for his outstanding performance in his catamaran.

Lakeshore Sail Club, in the spirit of comradeship, donated the flags and the starting gun used in the races. The starting gun was a 12-gauge shotgun using blanks and courageously manned by P/C Jack Boland. The sail races were under the direction of Sonny Gorenflo.

One of the highlights of the weekend was the crowning and selection of Miss Grosse Pointe Farms. This year's winner was Kobbie Blough, 16, of Lohrop road, who attends South High School.

Jane D'Hondt, of Hamilton court, was selected runner-up. The court consisted of Carol Ann Hicks, Jackie Weskel, Liz Gracey, Nancy Stewart, Patty McSorley and Robin Reinowski.

"Snow Bound" entertained during the pageant and the cabaret dance held later that evening. A former runner-up in the pageant, Ellen Malooly, emceed the event, with Diane Shannon Honstain acting as pageant organizer.

Saturday afternoon was taken over by the younger generation as they jammed the park grounds with decorated bikes.

Problem of Stolen Checks Remains Point of Concern

By Dave Robertson

The value of a blank check is never fully realized until one is stolen and cashed by a thief, according to John Kennedy, vice-president of Manufacturers National Bank.

Bank and police officials report that there appears to be a gang operating in the Pointes and elsewhere who make a living stealing blank checks, filling them in and cashing them, often for large amounts at local banks.

Mr. Kennedy, who heads the loss prevention department at Manufacturers, stresses that people should keep their checkbooks locked at all times when not in use.

The pattern in this area suggests the main victims are local businessmen, particularly doctors, but individuals can be victimized as well.

According to Mr. Kennedy, the typical pattern is as follows: Two people enter a local doctor's office and while one distracts the receptionist or doctor on some pretense, the other is free to search for the office checkbook. The individual then takes several checks, usually from the middle of the book, and replaces the checkbook exactly.

The pair then leave the office with the stolen checks, while office personnel are unaware that the checks are missing because they were taken from the middle of the book.

The check thieves proceed to a nearby bank where they attempt to cash the checks, often for large amounts and often succeeding.

Another way in which individuals obtain stolen checks, according to Mr. Kennedy, is by waiting in a local office building until everyone has left.

The thief then has free reign to search the office for the checkbook and then leave, with no one realizing what has happened until the missing checks are discovered, often too late.

"Check passing is the largest single crime in America today," said Mr. Kennedy. "People don't want to carry cash so checks are a necessity," he said. "Merchants are forced to accept checks even with the bad check problem just to stay in business."

Bill Hutton, assistant manager of The Woods Manufacturers branch cited two instances in the last two weeks of this type of crime.

Doctors offices are particularly vulnerable, according to Mr. Hutton, because of the large balances doctors usually carry in their checking accounts.

"The thief knows there is a good chance the doctor will have at least $1,500 in his account," Mr. Hutton said.

Farms Det. George Van Tien said that if a business suspects someone may have entered the office, the office checkbooks should be gone over page by page to look for any missing checks.

In the event that some have been taken, a Check Alert can be issued to all banks and police in an attempt to catch the thief when he tries to pass the check.

Det. Van Tien told of an incident which occurred in recent months: A man stole some checks from a doctor's office in Mack avenue. He made the check out to himself and attempted to cash it using his own identification.

A suspicious bank clerk, doubting the legitimacy of the check, kept both the check and man's identification and the man left the bank.

Later, when the man called the bank and demanded his identification be returned, the bank agreed. As the man returned to pick up his identification, Detroit police were waiting.

Not all check passing crimes end as this one. Mr. Kennedy told of one man, a manufacturer's representative who had some blank checks stolen from his glove box.

The man, although he lost no money directly as a result of the stolen checks, had to appear in court four times.

"Every hour I'm here and not on the road I'm losing money. This whole thing has cost me about $1,500," he said to Mr. Kennedy, while adding, "I never realized how important blank checks were."

pro" — those who had help — saw Helen Ann D'Allesandro win with "Alice's Tea Party." John and Will Packman took second with "Dragon," and Sandra Flaggler and Becky Steffes came in third with "Mickey and Minnie Mouse."

Children's games and races filled the afternoon with categories for every age and ability.

Chairman Archie Ameiz with his judges, Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer, Chief of Police Robert Ferber and Dr. Richard Ryzewski kept the games moving.

Former winner Karen Kolp once again demonstrated a winning style in the women's shoe kick while the record breaking egg toss was won by a husband and wife team, the Jeff Bremers. Proof that the eggs were not hard-boiled immediately followed the contest.

Sunday was Parade Day. More spectators than ever lined the curb to watch as convertibles, antique cars, an antique fire engine driven by Chief Ferber, motorcycles and a marching pipe band wind through the city ending up at the pier.

Guests included Sheriff William Lucas, Mayor Protem of The Farms James Mast, and council members Nancy Waugaman, Joe Fromm, Jack Cudlip and Harry Freuhaut Jr.

Commodore and Mrs. Robert Lewis of the Woods Boat Club, Commander and Mrs. Fred Brauning of the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron, Commander and Mrs. Del Younglove of the Coast Guard Auxiliary and P/C and Mrs. Harvey Freeman of Crescent Sail Yacht Club also participated.

A show by the Highlanders of the Moslem Temple of the Shriners and the Americans as well as the release of hundreds of helium-filled balloons highlighted the close of the parade.

Beth Boerner, in charge of the synchronized swim event, put on a show-stopping demonstration. The club presented her with a watch in appreciation of her efforts in this very special event for the past years.

All through the weekend another face familiar could be seen passing out candy, entertaining the crowd and helping lost children. Behind the clown makeup was Frank Dansbury.

GPP Sidewalks Set for Repairs

The Park Council at its regular meeting Monday, July 25, acting on the recommendation of City Manager Robert A. Slone, awarded a contract to the firm of J. J. Barney to replace 200,000 square feet of sidewalks throughout the city.

The company, which submitted the lowest of two bids, offered to replace 190,000 square feet of four-inch deep sidewalks at a cost of $1.11 per square foot, and 10,000 square feet of six-inch deep sidewalks, i.e., that portion going over the sidewalk into the driveway, at a cost of $1.31 per square foot.

Mr. Slone said the company will start on the program immediately, and the work will be done on the north side of Jefferson from Cadieux to Wayburn. The 1978 repair program will effect the south side of the avenue.

The city manager said that the cost of the replacements will be borne by the property owners in front of whose homes the sidewalks will be repaired and the crosswalks by the city.

He pointed out that property owners have the option of hiring their own contractors to do any work needed, but permits must first be obtained.

The work also will be inspected to make sure it conforms to specifications.

Owners wishing to hire their own contractors have until 15 days after Thursday, September 1, to make up their minds.

Mr. Slone recommended that a mark up of four cents be added to the bid cost, making the total price $1.15 for the four-inch and $1.35 for the six-inch deep sidewalks, to offset the overhead cost of engineering, inspections, et al.

In other business, the city council approved, under protest, the tax payment to the City of Detroit of half of the $10,866.60 assessed against that portion of the Windmill Pointe Park property located in Detroit. The second half of the tax bill will be paid in six months.

It was noted that last year's taxes to Detroit also were paid under protest, and that this year's tax payment is $40 less than for 1976.

The council also approved a payment of $2,000 Wayne County tax on the park property, also under protest.

Wine Lines

by John Lundberg

There are all sorts of prejudices about wines, all sorts of dos and don'ts, shoulds, and shouldn'ts. For instance, many people are embarrassed to admit they like sweet wines, as though it is less sophisticated than liking dry wines. Sauternes are often a victim of this prejudice. It may come from Victorian adage that, "the Ladies, God bless them, liked a glass of something sweet." So, sweet wines were not real wines, they were women's wines. This kind of prejudice tends itself to mixed drinks also. The sweet mixed drinks were the ladies' drinks. Rarely would a woman order a drink straight, or order one of the more manly drinks, like a martini. Now that we are in a world that is a little bit more enlightened, anyone can order a martini and not receive a second look.

Whether your preference in wine is sweet or dry, you'll find a wide selection to choose from at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626. We also feature a full selection of distilled spirits to enjoy mixed or straight as well as a wide array of tasty party snacks and interesting mixes. Hours: 10-10 Mon.-Thur.; 10-11 Fri., Sat.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

I would like to comment on (Hal) Suminski's letter printed in the July 28 editorial section of the NEWS.

It seems that Mr. Suminski feels that CETA is practically a cure-all for the unemployed and beneficial to the Grosse Pointes, but it certainly is not helpful to all the unemployed.

Do Mr. Suminski and others realize all of the "strings" attached to be eligible for a job that is funded by CETA?

I'm sure that I am not aware of all the red tape, but allow me to present a few facts that I have learned this past week through first-hand experience.

With CETA, the following points are not taken into consideration by this federal program:

1. It does not matter if one is ambitious and qualified for a CETA position.

2. It does not matter if one desires to be a productive worker and wants off of the unemployment rolls.

3. It does not matter if an unemployed person is willing to take a job that pays less than their previous job.

4. It does not matter if the unemployed person has the education, (in my case college), job experience, (over two years in my field), the desire and motivation to do good work for the prospective employer.

All of these points do not qualify an unemployed person for a job funded by CETA.

The two points that CETA does take into consideration are:

1. Where do you live.
2. How much money did you make in the last 12 months, not including unemployment checks.

I've been out of work for eight months. But the first four points I mentioned above do not come close in qualifying me for a job that is funded by CETA. Why? Because I made too much money in the last four months I worked.

Money is the key factor; it's the name of the game.

So, to Mr. Suminski and others, when you hear or know of a person who is unemployed, please don't jump to the conclusion that we're lazy people who just want a vacation, for on this type of vacation the only place it travels through is hell.

Signed, a 25-year resident of The Woods who requested her name be withheld.

Christ Church Hosts Speaker

A Waldorf School teacher will speak on the school and its curriculum this evening, August 4, at Christ Church, 61 Grosse Pointe boulevard, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Pointer Irene Robson, who teaches kindergarten at the school, located in Detroit, said this approach offers a high quality academic curriculum balanced by a rich, lively program of foreign languages, art and crafts and a musical instrument from first grade onwards.

Saying that this method prepares a child for life, she emphasized it focuses upon, not only the intellectual aspects of the educational process, but also upon a child's soul and heart.

Special recognition also was received by the public TV station for doubling its growth in local program underwriting by area corporations and institutions, with efforts in this area spearheaded by Corporate Underwriting Manager Steve Futernick.

"The awards are important in that they show we've been successful in delivering our message of need to the community; the public sympathizes with that need and is showing it in its financial support of the station," said Ms. Scott.

She also cited a further trend in viewer support: "More and more kinds of people are watching public TV — we are broadening our demographic spectrum. More people are realizing that there is something on public TV for them."

Seems that, in the spring of 1976, Haeckel Boyd, a former president of the Grosse Pointe Men's Garden Club who has retired and lives now with his wife, Prudence, in Port Charlotte, Fla., sent his friend, George Pierrot, some Cuban squash seeds.

Plans In Progress For Garden Show

Gourmet Bake Sale Is Added Attraction for This Year's Horticulture and Bonsai Exhibit, to Be Presented September 8 at War Memorial Absenteeism is definitely NOT a Grosse Pointe Garden Center problem. Sixteen—out of a possible 19—committee chairmen working on the fall Horticulture and Bonsai Show managed a midsummer muster last week.

They arrived, sandwiches in hand, at the Lochmoor boulevard home of their president, Mrs. Clarence E. Maguire, to talk about exciting plans and new features for this annual event that involves the Garden Center board, its members, members of all area garden clubs and all Pointers interested in gardens.

The show, co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, is always held early on in autumn. This year's date is Thursday, September 8.

Everyone is not only invited but URGED to enter exhibits and show results of work in his/her own garden: fruits, flowers and vegetables.

President/hostess Virginia Maguire provided such delicious desserts, ("Hello Dollies," tarts and dreamy chocolate and butterscotch bars), that everyone suggested she do the whole Gourmet Bake Sale herself September 8.

PAL Is Tuned in to Music

The Police Athletic League program has been able to tune in to music thanks to a recent grant from the Webber Foundation to the Detroit Community Music School for an outreach program.

PAL centers at Sacred Heart in West Chicago boulevard and Cathedral High at Belmont and John R have the advantage of youthful percussion instructor Gary Laura, composer, alternate member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and instructor at DCMS.

Laura brings talent, easy-going temperament and enthusiasm each Tuesday and Thursday to each of the centers.

"It's beautiful," he notes. "Between 15 and 30 young people show up each time. A group of girls watched for a while and I invited them to join us. They loved it! I can't wait to have enough instruments for these kids. I'm so encouraged by their interest and respect."

Special Certificates of Achievement have been designed for the program by Campbell Ewald.

Outreach director for DCMS Mrs. Fred (Sharon) DeHaven comments, "We're indebted to the Webber Foundation."

Our objective is to offer music excellence to any child in the area.

"DCMS outreach musical program is an alternative in a neighborhood center that is already there."

A four-week program also has begun at Holy Trinity as part of a comprehensive enrichment program geared to Holy Trinity elementary school students. "They are not really aware of it," Mrs. DeHaven laughs, "but, appropriately, they'll be learning Renaissance music."

Gary Laura's enthusiasm has sent him from door to door in the two PAL center areas to deliver flyers and talk with parents and youth. "There's nothing else like the Detroit Community Music School in the City, and thanks to Webber Foundation this outreach program adds to the uniqueness and excitement."

Future plans include additional PAL centers, musical therapy in selected special education classes and mental health programs, dance classes at the Detroit House of Correction and a conference in Musical Therapy co-sponsored by the Webber Foundation and the Michigan Council for the Arts.

At a late afternoon ceremony Saturday, July 9, in Christ Church, Watertown, Conn., ELIZABETH WAY LOZIER, daughter of Mrs. William S. Walcott, III, of Middlebury, Conn., and the late John W. M. Lozier, became the bride of Mr. Chapin, son of Mrs. Arthur Smith, Jr., of Moross road, and John C. Chapin, of Manchester, Vt.

John Chapin, Jr. Weds In The East

He Claims Elizabeth Way Lozier As His Bride at Early July Ceremony in Christ Church, Watertown, Conn.

John C. Chapin, Jr., and his bride, the former Elizabeth Way Lozier, daughter of Mrs. William S. Walcott, III, of Middlebury, Conn., and the late John W. M. Lozier, vacationed on Antigua in the British West Indies following their Saturday, July 9, wedding.

The Very Reverend William Hale, dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, Syracuse, N.Y., and The Reverend Jeffrey Kittredge presided at the 4 o'clock rites in Christ Church, Watertown, Conn.

A reception followed at the Highfield Club, Middlebury.

Embroidered daisies accented the bodice and sleeves of the bride's white linen gown. More daisies panelled her skirt and outlined her train.

Both her headband and bouquet were fashioned of white daisies, lily-of-the-valley and bachelor buttons.

Her attendants, in floral Lily skirts and yellow blouses, carrying white daisies and ivy, were honor matron Mrs. William K. Most of us dream of having hair that is thick, with enough body for curls, without the frizz that sometimes accompanies curly hair. Don't despair, for with today's "cut for you" hairdo's, things that seemed impossible are really happening. Among these are styles that need only be washed and combed to look nice, cuts that compliment face and head shape; styles that need only an occasional trim to look nice. At Grosse Pointe Coiffures they make the perfect hair shape and texture possible for everyone.

South African Visitors Enjoy Pointe

Members of Mid-Century, Alpha-Oakland, Dearborn and Greater Detroit Toastmistress Clubs, their husbands and friends, enthusiastically welcomed DR. and MRS. HARVARD HENNING, (right), of Johannesburg, South Africa, at a Toastmistress meeting Monday evening, July 11, in the Exhibition Room of Grosse Pointe's Central Library. During their stay here, the Hennings were guests of Mr. and Mrs. CARL NOLTE, (left), at their Claireview road home, and the Noltes saw to it that their visitors saw everything, from Henry Ford Hospital to the River Rouge Ford Plant to Renaissance Center to all the interesting drives and places in Grosse Pointe—including the Shores Park, where a dip in the pool was especially enjoyable.

At the library meeting, Mrs. Henning spoke about her country and her interest in Toastmistress. She joined 10 years ago, rising from club president to Council chairperson to regional supervisor to vice president of Over Seas Club No. 5, the position in which she was installed at the International Toastmistress convention in Washington, D.C., just a few days after her Pointe visit:

July 20. Following her talk, she and her husband answered questions from the audience about South Africa. A reception in their honor concluded the evening.

Schedule Free Breast Exams Next Week

Breast examinations will be offered next Thursday, August 11, as a free service of Cancer Action Now, the cancer control program co-sponsored by the Michigan Cancer Foundation and the American Cancer Society.

The examinations will be conducted from 8:30 to 5 o'clock at the MCF East Service Center, located at 21312 Mack avenue, in Grosse Pointe Woods. All women over 40 years of age are invited to make an appointment.

The examination, which will be conducted by a trained nurse-examiner, includes a thorough physical palpation of the breast and the compilation of a complete family medical history.

In addition, an ACS

"Straight Talk" health educator will be present to give one-on-one instruction in the life-saving technique of breast self-examination.

"Monthly BSE is a woman's best protection against developing a fatal breast cancer," notes Patricia Sullivan, R.N., manager of the MCF's Breast Cancer Detection Center.

"If every woman would examine her breasts regularly, more breast cancers could be found in their early and most curable stages," Mrs. Sullivan adds.

Women interested in having a breast cancer examination should make an appointment by calling either the MCF East Service Center, 881-2413, or the MCF Macomb Unit office, 468-0551.

Appointments will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Cancer Action Now, the citizens' action campaign against cancer, is funded by the National Cancer Institute and the United Cancer Institute.

Special Days for Meadow Brook Festival

Three early-week "specials" are offered by Meadow Brook Music Festival starting Monday, August 8, and including two standing-room-only concerts by singer-actor Kris Kristofferson.

The third extra added attraction is an open rehearsal next Wednesday afternoon featuring the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and guest conductor Otto-Werner Mueller, who will rehearse the orchestra for its regular Thursday evening classical concert, which includes Copland's Appalachian Spring Suite and Stravinsky's Pulcinella Suite.

Garrick Ohlsson, pianist, is guest soloist.

Kristofferson and Rita Coolidge, with Billy Shaw, were originally scheduled for a single concert Tuesday evening, August 9.

Pavilion seats were sold out so quickly that the Festival management arranged a second Kristofferson concert, back-to-back with the originally scheduled one, for Monday evening.

A few lawn tickets at $5 may still be available, according to Leon C. Petrus, Festival managing director.

Tickets for the Wednesday afternoon open rehearsal of the Detroit Symphony are $3. Two of the specials begin at 8:30 o'clock, the open rehearsal at 1 o'clock.

Meadow Brook Festival concerts are presented in the open-air Baldwin Pavilion on the Oakland University campus.

Further information is available from the Festival offices, 377-2010.

Kristen Schomig Is A June Bride

Lochmoor Club Is Scene of Reception Following Candlelight Rites at Which She Speaks Vows to Douglas Allen Ryckman

Christ the King Lutheran Church was the setting for the Friday, June 10, wedding of Kristen Elaine Schomig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lud Schomig, of River road, and Douglas Allen Ryckman.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Ryckman, of Sanibel Island, Fla., formerly of Birmingham. Officiating at the candlelight service was Pastor Joseph Fabry. Enrico LaRicca was soloist. John T. Miller was organist.

After a reception at Lochmoor Club, the newlyweds left to vacation in Europe. They are at home at Lake in the Woods, Ypsilanti.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of ivory re-embroidered Alencon lace applied on white organza. Alencon lace detailed her fitted bodice, and white Venice lace bordered her full, princess hemline.

Matching Venice lace formed the cap from which her veil extended to cathedral length. Her flowers, yellow Sweetheart roses and carnations, were set in baby's breath and trailing ivy.

Honor attendant Mrs. Jonathan Schomig, of Bay Village, O., and bridesmaids Kathleen Stefani Schultz, Pam Hooper and Cathy Ryckman wore halter frocks of jade green silk jersey with matching, fingertip length silk voile capelets.

Yellow satin ribbon tied their bouquets of white daisies and baby's-breath.

Serving as groomsmen were Dr. Fred Ryckman, brother of the bridegroom, Joseph Katulic, Steve Williams and Jonathan Schomig. Usher was Dean Schomig. Ring bearer was four-year-old Keith Schomig, nephew of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a floor length, cream jersey gown. Her corsage was a deep lavender cymbidium orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore lemon yellow organza, with a corsage of yellow cymbidium orchids. Out-of-town guests included Debbie Richman, of New York City, a Zeta Tau sorority sister of the bride, Mrs. Meta Avera, of Austin, Tex., the bride's maternal grandmother, and the John Wortleys, of North Tarrytown, N.Y., the bridegroom's uncle and aunt.

MSCCA Offers Guide to Child Development

Two questions — "Is our baby normal?" and "How will we know if our child is developing normally during his early years?" — are foremost in the minds of new parents.

Fortunately, the attending doctor can generally say, "Yes, your child is a normal, healthy baby." An immediate answer to the second question is more complex.

The fact is: a majority of new parents do not have a source of accurate information that will help them monitor their child's development during the early years.

The situation becomes more complex when conflicting advice is given by well-meaning friends and relatives.

How often have parents heard a friend say, "Leave him alone. He'll grow out of it." The facts are to the contrary, for all too often the child will not grow out of the problem and valuable time has been wasted when therapy or treatment could have been most helpful.

To help new parents recognize the milestones of normal development, the Metropolitan Society for Crippled Children and Adults offers a new publication, "Normal Growth and Development, Birth Through Three Years." It is free and available by calling MSCCA at 341-4900.

This easily-understood brochure gives a series of milestones for development from one - and - a - half months through the third year. Representative of the kinds of questions the brochure asks parents are the following:

At four months can your child . . .

Hold head and chest up when on stomach?

Hold head up constantly when held in a sitting position?

Turn head to sides when in sitting position?

Get hands together while playing?

Try to reach for object but "overshoot" it?

Maintain hold on object but cannot pick it up again if it is dropped?

Laugh aloud?

Show excitement when food is prepared, or toys seen?

Enjoy sitting when propped up?

Milestones for other ages are equally easy to follow and provide parents with a guide through the third year.

However, it should be added that the milestones are not absolute. Some children will develop more slowly and others will develop more rapidly.

The brochure is simply a guide—but if the child departs markedly from normal development for his age, professional help should be sought.

The dual objective of MSCCA is to alert parents to early signs of disabilities in their children and the need for immediate diagnosis and care, and to help handicapped children achieve peak performance levels in all areas of daily living: at home, in school and in the community.

To assist the handicapped child reach peak performance levels in daily living, the MSCCA accepts the child as a Total Being, recognizing that attention must be given to his entire physical, social and mental well-being, not just to his apparent handicap.

With this concept as a guide, the MSCCA employs a comprehensive team headed by the medical director. It includes a physical therapist, occupational therapist, psychologist, education specialist and other specialists as needed.

The MSCCA office is located in Schaefer highway, Detroit, between McNichols and Outer drive. It is open Monday through Friday from 9 to 5 o'clock. Inquiries are welcome.

sippi, put several of the squash away and let them disintegrate. She saved the seeds."

And Mr. Pierrot, ever one to share the wealth, decided to let his fellow gardeners/friends in on his great, thanks to Haeckel Boyd, find.

So this spring he distributed a lot of Velma's saved seeds—to Pointers John Cook and Frank A. Morgan, (Frank himself retired as manager of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts as of last Monday; he and his wife will be leaving for Sarasota, which is full of ex-Pointers).

To Seth Mattingly, retired Detroit News staffer, in Dearborn. To Judd Arnett in Howell. George also planted them in his own garden.

"I warned everybody that he should allow plenty of space for these magnificent vines, capable of holding three Jack-in-the-Beanstalks at one time."

Well . . . the seeds just didn't sprout. Not a one. "John Cook facetiously threatened to sue me for a million dollars. He said, due to my admonitions, that after he planted his squash seeds he jumped back, lest they sprout so fast as to put out his eye."

"In so doing, he says, he severely wrenched his back. He thought a million dollars would be the right amount to sue for."

Fall Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sears, of Yorktown road, are announcing the engagement of their daughter SUZANNE to Robert Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon, of Detroit. A fall wedding is planned.

Show Plans

(Continued from Page 11) in jest — but promised several contributions . . . and this set the board members to thinking of what they could produce and deliver to the loggia of the War Memorial's Fries Building between 8:30 and 10:30 o'clock the morning of the show.

The Bake Sale is new this year: an added feature of the day when the public is invited to see Grosse Pointe's garden harvest from 2 in the afternoon until 9 in the evening.

To be sure that all these best-laid plans move along to completion, general chairman Mary Lou (Mrs. J. Crawford) Frost, has asked Ruth (Mrs. Henry S.) Walker to host another get-together Wednesday, August 24, at her home in Village lane.

Mrs. E. D. D'Arcy, Jr.

Setting for the Saturday, June 25, wedding of LINDA LEE SEYMOUR, daughter of the Thomas Lee Seymour, of Wedgewood drive, and Mr. D'Arcy, son of the Edward Dyer D'Arcys, of Joliet, Ill., was Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

D'Arcy-Seymour Vows Exchanged

Late June Ceremony Is Followed by Refreshments in War Memorial Garden and Evening Reception at Gourmet House

A white organza gown styled with a fitted bodice appliqued with Chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls and crystals was Linda Lee Seymour's choice for her Saturday, June 25, wedding to Edward Dyer D'Arcy, Jr.

Lace trimmed the five tiers of organza forming her skirt, and lace edged her cathedral length veil, which fell from a Juliet headpiece of lace.

She carried a large, oval bouquet of white roses, white carnations, white orchids and stephanotis.

The former Miss Seymour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee Seymour, of Wedgewood drive, was graduated last year from St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind.

Mr. D'Arcy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dyer D'Arcy, of Joliet, Ill., is a 1976 Notre Dame University graduate.

Following the 2:30 o'clock rites in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, The Reverend Ralph V. Barton presiding, assisted by The Reverend Hector J. Saulino and Deacon Rick, the wedding guests enjoyed cocktails and hors d'oeuvres in the gardens of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial before proceeding to the Gourmet House for the 5:30 o'clock reception.

In floor length frocks of powder blue organza were honor attendant Mrs. Joseph Lucido, of Mount Clemens, and bridesmaids Lee Ann Seymour, sister of the bride, Kathy Clapp, Lorri Aldonna, cousin of the bride, and Kathy McGuiness.

Late June Nuptials For Miss Lasher

Michael Belloli Asks His Twin Brother to Be Best Man; Reception Is Held at Hillcrest Country Club

Kimberly Anne Lasher and Michael F. Belloli exchanged marriage vows at a late afternoon ceremony in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. The Reverend Hector J. Saulino presided at the Saturday, June 25, rites.

Hillcrest Country Club was the scene of the reception following the 5:30 o'clock ceremony. After a trip to Montreal, the newlyweds are at home in Warren.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lasher, of Oxford road, chose a wedding gown of chiffonette detailed with Venice lace.

Her cathedral length veil was also detailed with Venice lace, and she carried a cascade of white rosebuds.

Honor maid Patricia Ann Bichler and bridesmaids Debra Irene Stenzel and Beth Ann Bichler selected pale blue chiffon gowns, with capelets. They carried mixed bouquets of white rosebuds, blue-tipped carnations and baby's-breath.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Belloli, Jr., of Manchester boulevard, asked his twin brother, Thomas, to serve as best man. Ushering were Dale Ellis and Matt Furgal.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of amethyst silk chiffon. She pinned a cymbidium orchid to her purse. The bridegroom's mother chose a creamy beige knit with lace insets. She wore a cymbidium orchid wrist corsage.

The first reading of the nuptial mass was read by Ann Belloli, sister of the bridegroom.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

What makes the Grosse Pointes a unique area in the country? Many things enough to write a book (or several books) about. Physically, the location for sure. The park-like atmosphere of its streets, the proximity to major industrial, business, and educational centers, beautiful Lake St. Clair, the recreational complexes, and the attractive, well maintained homes.

Most important, people make an area unique—and here is where it's reflected the best. Grosse Pointes are people who care. The care is reflected in the quality of the school system—a system supported by the people. Care that is reflected in electing responsive public officials. Care reflected in the way people maintain their homes and neighborhood. Care in the way people respond to community needs. Care reflected in civic pride.

Well, the Community Development Program proposed by Grosse Pointe Real Estate Company is another way of saying "we care". We feel strongly that the mini-parks created by the proposed cul-de-sacs and the reduced traffic flow on residential streets will contribute to the quiet atmosphere and to safer streets.

Thus far, about 98 percent of the people we have surveyed agree that the program has merit and would reduce traffic problems. We are continuing our survey and welcome your response—pro or con, because it is important that all voices in the community be heard.

In the meantime, if you are thinking of selling your present home and buying a new home that better suits your current needs, we would be pleased to assist you—with the same dedication and professionalism that we are applying to the community Development Program. Because we care!

The Michael Bellolis

Married Saturday, June 25, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church were KIMBERLY ANNE LASHER and Mr. Belloli. Their parents are the William J. Lashers, of Oxford road, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Belloli, Jr., of Manchester boulevard.

They carried baskets filled with blue carnations, white daisies and baby's-breath.

Douglas D'Arcy was his brother's best man. Ushering were Joseph Olson, Patrick McKay, Thomas Fitzgerald and Robert Ranzini, all of Joliet.

Flowergirl was Meghan Adcock, of Morris, Ill., the bridegroom's godchild. Ring bearer was Eric Moll, of Warren, godchild of the bride.

Yellow seed pearls and crystal beads trimmed the shoulders and waist of the bride's mother's long, Grecian style, lemon yellow gown. Her corsage was a yellow orchid.

The bridegroom's mother was in a rose-beige, cocktail length dress. White gardenias formed her corsage.

The newlyweds vacationed on Jamaica and are making their home in Downers Grove, Ill.

Receiving degrees from Wayne State University Medical School at June 5 commencement exercises were Pointers JOHN P. KOSINSKI, WILLIAM D. NELSON, KENNETH M. LOUIS, JOHN FOUNTAIN, NORMAN AL-EXANDER, D. BRADFORD BARKER, MARY F. BRENNAN and FREDERICK W. CAMPBELL.

Dr. Janice Lauer, professor of English at Marygrove College, is the conference's 1977 director.

Among the 40 participants accepted from Michigan universities, colleges and community colleges is Carrie Smith, of Grosse Pointe Park. More than 85 applicants submitted manuscripts for the competitive selections.

BUSINESS IS FANTASTIC!

It's true. It's a record year for Grosse Pointe Real Estate in General, and Strongman, Kelly specifically. Make no mistake: Although houses are our product, people and their needs are our business. The key to being successful in this business is the skill with which we solve your Real Estate problems. If frustration is all you have to show for your efforts to purchase or sell a house in Grosse Pointe, let's talk. It could be the beginning of a mutually satisfying experience.

FIRST OFFERING

THE GOOD NEWS IS This Center Entrance Colonial is in a class by itself; three spacious bedrooms, exceptionally big closets, gracious fresh decor, and a big kitchen. The all brick 2 1/2 car garage has an almost new, extra wide drive which leads into one of the most distinctive streets in Grosse Pointe... Whittier Road. And it's only $62,500!

THE BAD NEWS IS... it won't last. At least call before this "charmer" is history!

FIRST OFFERING

QUESTION: Do all beautiful English Colonials have to cost a Kings Ransom?

ANSWER: Happily, no! This family sized four bedroom 1 1/2 bath delight could be the answer to your families prayers... and at $67,500 your pocket book, too!

OPEN HOUSE SUNDAY, 2-5

1123 YORKSHIRE: In the first block off Kercheval toward the lake, and in the company of other exceptionally fine Colonial and English homes, this handsome four bedroom, 1 1/2 bath home awaits your review. Although the lot is 62' wide, a family room is included, and the kitchen is spacious, the price isn't. In fact, after looking this special home over, you may wonder if the price isn't a misprint.

1343 BERSHIRE: "COOL, IT" with us Sunday in this fine, newer Center Entrance Colonial, complete with central air conditioning. For you property lovers, the 85'x180' lot will give the children all the room they need... under your watchful eye. And with four big bedrooms and 2 1/2 baths there's enough room for a good sized family. A family room? Of course. We'll be expecting you.

AND

BISHOP ROAD IS THE SETTING of this gracious, and spacious home. This isn't a home that is with the limits of most buyers; rather it is to be considered by those who seek and can afford the elegance of a home that could not be duplicated now at any cost. And to wet your curiosity even further there's a carriage house plus a saleable side lot, unless a pool or tennis court are more in keeping with your life style.

GROSSE POINTE SCHOOLS—MID 30's PRICE! How about an extra clean 3 bedroom home close to shopping and transportation, that is available immediately! And to add "frosting" to this piece of cake, a beautiful lower level games room. Call now; this one deserves your attention.

CONDO'S ARE SCARCE NOW... ESPECIALLY AT $28,500! And this two bedroom won't last long.

The suede cloth dusty pink ensemble at Walton-Pierce really spans seasons looking pretty all the way. ## Ice Cream Tastes Good Indoors, Too

The rains came, and the 1977 Ice Cream Social given by the Cottage Hospital Auxiliary for Cottage employees and staff, usually held on the hospital's roof terrace, had to move inside—but ice cream tastes good indoors, too, as DEBRA ROLAND, (left), and PAULA SIMON, being served their sundaes by MRS. HOW-ARD SIMON, can attest. KENNETH CROSSMAN, (background), thought the third annual Cottage Hospital Auxiliary Ice Cream Social was pretty good, too. With strolling musicians, colored balloons and a surprise prize—who needed sunshine to keep spirits high?

Bubbly 'Thank-You' from Bon Secours

Reaching for a bit of the bubbly at the champagne reception and recognition dinner sponsored recently by Bon Secours Hospital to honor its 71 Red Cross volunteers who have contributed over 60,000 hours in the past five years are a pair of the honorees, IRENE DECKER, (left), and JO CODISPOTI, (right), flanking

Three other leading Red Cross volunteers who chair state and city activities—Mrs. Gordon MacFarlane, deputy volunteer chairman for Southeastern Michigan, Mrs. Robert Busey, chairman of volunteers for the Central Region, and Mrs. James McDonald, chairman of Red Cross hospital volunteers—attended the dinner and presented Red Cross Service Pins to 57 Bon Secours volunteers.

The evening event began with a fountain of champagne in the hospital's private dining room. This was followed by a prime rib dinner, complimented by duchess potatoes, a steamed vegetable medley, fresh fruit compote and pastry.

Pointers Mrs. Joseph Cox and Mrs. Gerald Kane received pins in recognition of five years of patient care.

Bon Secours administrator Lawrence Leaman presented Bon Secours service pins to eight leading Red Cross volunteers, including Mrs. Philip Davis and Miss Maxine Krause, who received pins honoring their 15 years of patient service; plus Red Cross awards.

The six volunteers who received Bon Secours awards honoring five years of service were Mrs. Frederick Beddow, Mrs. J. F. Condon, Mrs. Ralph Peters, Mrs. Harvey Dickson and Mrs. James Youngblood.

Barry Spero, executive director of Bon Secours, told the assembly: "Your dedication and caring attitude are outstanding. From the patients, the staff and the entire hospital, I want to say thank you."

Seven days a week, Red Cross volunteers provide many patient services at Bon Secours. Acting as liaison between the medical staff and families, they inform waiting relatives when their loved ones leave surgery and reach the recovery room.

They escort patients being admitted to and discharged from the hospital, and personally deliver flowers and mail.

They also assist in the emergency room, reassuring patients and families caught in crisis.

Musical 'Mix' This Weekend

Concerts at Meadow Brook Music Festival this weekend can be described as nothing less than an extraordinary mix of musical entertainment blockbusters.

For openers, Poland's celebrated avant garde composer-conductor Krzysztof Penderecki will direct the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in two classical concerts featuring three of his own compositions.

His conducting appearances tonight and Saturday evening will be his only United States performances this summer.

As counterpoint to this classical giant, Meadow Brook offers an exciting jazz triple-header Friday evening. Contributing to the extravaganza will be Lionel Hampton and his quartet, Marian McPartland and her trio and the Wolverine Classic Jazz orchestra.

Detroit's own bandmaster Leonard B. Smith will direct the Detroit Concert Band in a program of popular marches and musical comedy hits at Sunday evening's pops concert. Guest soloists will be baritone Earl Wrightson and soprano Lois Hunt.

The identical programming for the Thursday and Saturday symphony concerts this week features guest conductor Penderecki's Psalm of David, Awakening of Jacob and The Magnificat.

Assisting the DSO will be the Kenneth Jewell Chorale and seven guest soloists: countertenors John Goldsmith and John Rudzinski, tenor Stephen Young, baritone Richard Steen and Michael Richardson and basses Leroy Lehar and Timothy Cadan.

Only lawn seats at $5 are available for the Friday evening jazz concert, according to Leon C. Petrus, Festival managing director. Pavilion seats are still available for all other weekend concerts.

Except for Sunday evening pops concerts at 7:30 o'clock, all Meadow Brook evening concerts begin at 8:30 o'clock. Sit-down or buffet dining at adjoining Baldwin Terrace is available before each concert.

Dining reservations and ticket and program information may be obtained during regular business hours at Festival offices, 337-2010.

From Another Pointe of View

"And Seth Mattingly reported that due to my exaggerations he saved a space as large as a tennis court to give these vines full scope. They didn't appear, thus exposing him to the humiliation and ridicule and jeers of his fellow gardeners. He, too, suggested suing for a million dollars."

Had the seeds been cursed? Mr. Pierrot, determined to get to the root of the problem, sat down and wrote to Mr. Boyd, enclosing some of the evidence.

Mr. Boyd examined Mr. Pierrot's seeds—and lo!, there were no kernels within the shells . . . "which leads me to believe the seed came from a squash that was not mature."

"We save our seed from a mature squash that we cut to eat. The squash can be eaten almost anytime after they drop their bloom—at that stage they are like summer squash—but of course the seeds are not mature and would not germinate."

So the mystery is solved, and Mr. Boyd has sent more, (mature), seed to Mr. Pierrot, advising him that if it should prove too late to grow-your-own-Calazaba in Michigan this year, still more seed will be coming up from Florida in time for planting next year.

Haeckel Boyd, in his seed-reply to George Pierrot, also included a bit of what the Boyds' life is like in Port Charlotte:

"Tomorrow our neighborhood is having a four-stop party. Breakfast at one place, they come to our place at 4 o'clock for mint juleps, then we all go to another neighbor for hamburgers."

"Then at sundown we all go to the Gulf, to see the sun sink into the water and watch fireworks, (his letter is postmarked July 3), after dark."

But isn't it HOT in Florida in the summer? Well . . . what could be hotter than Michigan this summer? "We are not uncomfortable. With central air in the house, we stay indoors most of the time—work in the yard and garden a couple of hours early in the morning and/or near sundown."

It's a lovely life, actually. Both Boyds love retirement. They have wonderful neighbors and, as Haeckel notes, "This retirement town provides lots of entertainment all the year."

Not the least of which is watching those Calazaba vines run all over the place!

Cryptanthus Goes It Alone

Cryptanthus is a good plant for the person who treats his plants with tender, loving neglect. Give it a drink of water now and again and it does fine.

Cryptanthus—or earth star, as it's often called—grows in the form of a rosette of stiff, ripple-edged, sword-shaped leaves. The leaves are striped lengthwise in shades of pink, purple, purple-green, beige and cream.

Cryptanthus does well in average home temperatures, with a minimum night temperature of 60 to 65 degrees F.

Propagate by cuttings or offsets, lateral shoots or branches that develop from the base of the main stem. Pot these in loose soil and do not let the soil dry out.

Water it thoroughly; then allow the soil to dry out before watering again.

Fertilize every four months with a standard houseplant fertilizer.

Place the plant where it will get diffused sunlight or partial shade. It will tell you if it's not getting enough light by losing the red coloring in its spiky leaves.
