SECRETARY OF STATE
Cyrus Vance has been granted an interview with Communist party chairman Hua Kuo-feng. Mr. Vance, who arrived in China last Monday, said he was gaining some ground toward normalizing U.S. and Chinese relations. The interview with Mao Tse-tung's successor was announced after a two and a half hour meeting with chief Chinese negotiator Teng Hsiao-ping. Mr. Vance's trip to China will be regarded a success by American officials, after the interview takes place. It is hoped that Mr. Vance can restore full diplomatic relations between the two countries.

GENERAL MOTORS expects 1978 to be a record sales year. The company predicts around 15.5 million passenger cars and trucks will be sold. Confident that the overall economy will remain healthy, GM chairman Thomas A. Murphy forecasts deliveries of 11.75 million cars and 3.75 million trucks in the year beginning October 1. Mr. Murphy expects the increased deliveries to be from U.S. manufacturers rather than foreign firms.

THE SECURITIES AND Exchange Commission (SEC), charged that Mayor Abraham Beame of New York City misled the public in order to sell a record $4 billion in bonds to keep New York City afloat in 1974 and 1975. In a huge report, released yesterday, the SEC also accused Mr. Beame of causing hardship to investors and prolonging the city's financial crisis through "deliberate deceit." The report was the result of a 19-month investigation into New York's financial situation. Mr. Beame, now running for reelection, termed the report a "hatchet job" and a "shameless, vicious political document."

VOLKSWAGEN OF AMERICA has announced the end of U.S. sales of the Volkswagen Beetle. They said the rear-engine Beetle was no longer selling well because of new and stiffer competition from the American companies in the small car market. This ends 28 years and five million sales of Beetles in the U.S. With the German mark and U.S. emission standards, the car became too expensive to build for this country. The "round, humpy, fat and squat" little car was first imported to the states in 1949.

A YOUNG NEW JERSEY man fell 40 floors to his death in the Detroit Plaza Hotel early yesterday morning. James Cunningham was in an elevator car when it stopped just above the 39th floor. Somehow the two sets of doors, one on the elevator and one on the wall shaft leading to the corridor, were opened. Mr. Cunningham jumped from the car to the 39th floor, a distance of five to six feet. He landed on the edge of the floor, but lost his balance and fell backward down the shaft to the sub-basement level.

AFL - CIO PRESIDENT George Meany endorsed the new Panama Canal treaty Monday, giving President Jimmy Carter a powerful ally in his drive for ratification of the agreement against mounting conservative opposition. Mr. Meany told a news conference that American involvement in the canal, built "in the days of gunboat diplomacy," is nothing to be proud of and there is no reason "why we should lay claim to territory 6,000 miles away."

City Wins Round in Merger Plan

Judge Dismisses Unfair Labor Practices Charge Filed by Firefighters' Union

By Susan McDonald

The City won a round in its battle to implement a public safety plan this month with the dismissal of an unfair labor practices charge filed against the municipality by the local firefighters' union.

The City Council passed a law almost a year ago aimed at cutting costs by combining police and fire forces into a public safety department. The firefighters' union, however, alleged that by passing the law, the City violated its obligation to bargain changes in the terms and conditions of employment.

Cites Position
Michigan Employment Relations Commission Judge James P. Kurtz disagreed with the union's contention. Based on the firefighters' refusal to discuss public safety at the bargaining table, the judge dismissed the case.

He noted, however, that his decision applies only to the passage of the ordinance, and does not allow The City to implement the public safety plan without bargaining. (Continued on Page 4)

Vandalism to Equipment Fails to Mar Field Day

By James J. Njaim

For the first time in the 36 years that the Grosse Pointe Metropolitan Club has held its Field Day, vandals attempted to ruin the latest event through senseless destruction, it was disclosed by David Taylor, Park assistant fire chief and co-chairman of the annual event.

The Field Day, which was held on the grounds of the Brownell Middle School playground on Saturday, August 27, drew approximately 2,000 children and adults, in spite of the vandalism and the threat of rain.

Chief Taylor said that the vandalism occurred after the school watchman left at 1 a.m.

Disappointment Expressed Over Demise of Middle School Athletic Proposal

Two Citizens, Along with 300 Petitioners, Proposed $75,000 Program Allowing Students to Compete Against Others But Board Nixes Plan at This Time

By Susan McDonald

Athletic programs took quite a beating last week, as the Board of Education hacked away at accounts in order to balance the books for the coming school year. The demise of one proposed program in particular — interscholastic athletics for middle schools — left two Pointers fuming.

Hal Suminski and Ron Lucas, along with about 300 petitioners, supported a $75,000 program that would allow Pointe middle school students to compete against other school systems in football, baseball, basketball and track.

The two men presented the plan to the Board at its Monday, August 8, meeting, but when final budget documents were made public last week, it was clear that no part of the program would be funded.

In fact, the trustees had cut out an additional $70,000 they hoped to spend this year on athletic programs.

Real Voids Cited

But Mr. Suminski and Mr. Lucas, both of The Park, feel the Board's action was unnecessary and they don't think the trustees gave adequate thought to their proposal.

"All we're asking for is something that every other school system in this area already has," Mr. Lucas said. "This is a normal program all over Detroit, even in districts that are struggling without a dime to their name."

After sitting through a three-hour budget hearing to find out the fate of his proposal, Mr. Suminski was equally disappointed.

"I don't think I got a chance to state my case to the Board," he said. "I sat for nearly three hours, and didn't get an opportunity to speak until they were all through discussing athletic programs. I don't even think some of the Board members ever saw our proposal."

Both men think there is a real void in the sports program for middle school students, and feel that a strong program there also would strengthen high school athletics.

Will View Ideas

Board President John Bruce said he sympathized with both men's frustration, but explained that, in light of the many cutbacks the trustees were forced to make, the $75,000 interscholastic program was just not feasible. (Continued on Page 4)

Church to Host Red Cross Unit

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Saint Peter Parish, 19670 Anita avenue, Harper Woods, on Sunday, September 25, from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Persons between the ages of 17 and 65, in good health, are eligible to donate blood. For more information, call 343-9417.

Every day, Red Cross must supply almost 1,000 units of blood to patients in more than 80 hospitals in southeastern Michigan.

To Study Cause of Pollution

Second Possible Source Viewed in Relation to Lake Contamination

By Wendy K. Settle

The Wayne County Health Department will conduct an investigation this fall on the contaminants in the water at the Farms Pier Park.

Mike Andrews, of the health department, said, "The pollution levels are still high. We're going to investigate to see if the Kerby road sewer collapse is the only source of the contamination."

The beach in the area of the park and the Crescent Sail Yacht Club has been closed most of the summer because of the contamination.

Wayne County Commissioner Ervin A. Steiner has requested that the report on the investigation be "quick and detailed."

There has been bi-weekly testing of the water all season. The pollutant levels have decreased, but not enough to permit safe swimming.

Had a Handle

"Up until now," Mr. Andrews said, "the sewage discharge seemed to be the problem, but it hasn't cleared up. We're wondering if there isn't another source involved."

Mr. Steiner suggested, "I think the health department is doing a good job, but they've had 90 days to look at this problem. They should have had a handle on it earlier."

Regarding other potential sources of pollutants, Mr. Steiner noted, "There are possibilities that there are other sources" (other than sewage).

The major concern of both the health department and the commissioner's office is finding the source, localizing it and getting the water cleaned up so the beach can be opened again.

Mr. Andrews and Mr. Steiner don't foresee reopening of the beach this season.

Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer noted, "We're all for any study Mr. Andrews is going to do. I'm concerned about the pollution clearing up, but we know there's no other source involved from our system."

YSD Prepares For Opening Of School Year

Flexibility Remains Keynote of Division's Plans As Classes Set to Resume; Child Safety, Emergency 'E' Programs to Receive Main Focus of Attention

By Roger A. Waha

While no new programs are planned at this time, the Youth Service Division (YSD), remains flexible and responsive to the needs of the schools and the community at large as the bureau prepares for the new year at the high, middle and elementary school levels.

A primary focus will continue to be the Pointe-wide child safety and Emergency "E" programs and the continuation of present services throughout the school system.

"If it's necessary to make any adjustments, we will make them," said Woods Det. Lt. Jack Patterson, YSD supervisor in the detective bureau. But at this point, he foresees no changes based upon the past school year, which division detectives said was a good one, and summer activity.

Always Available

Citing an increased case load through July in comparison to last year, Lt. Patterson said the division will attempt to provide the same services throughout the system despite the higher load.

(From this January through July, 468 cases have been referred to the YSD for investigation in comparison to 422 for the same period last year.)

And as always, the lieutenant emphasized the division will be available to all schools and groups who need the bureau's services.

The YSD's four detectives, Patrick Fagan and Jack Treppa, South District, and John Albrecht and Wayne Baum, North District, all indicated they are looking forward to the new school year.

"I will be more than pleased in the upcoming year if we have a repeat of last year," said Det. Fagan. Saying participation in school activities and functions on the part of students was on the rise last year, in conjunction with an increased spirit, he expressed his optimism that this will continue, while (Continued on Page 2)

ACLU Joins Fight Against Park Charter Provisions

By James J. Njaim

The Metropolitan Detroit Branch of the Michigan American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), voted at its Tuesday, August 23, meeting, to intervene in The Park's appeal of Wayne County Circuit Judge Thomas Roumell's order that four petitions for the office of municipal judge be accepted by Park City Clerk Nunzio Ortizi despite the fact they did not meet the provisions of two charter requirements.

The ACLU has a policy not to intervene in any matter until asked, and this was what was done, Ms. Svenson said.

The provisions of the Park City Charter under fire are Section 5.1, which requires that any person seeking municipal office in the city be a resident for at least two years prior to the last day of filing an election petition.

Section 15.3, which applies to those seeking the office of municipal judge, also is (Continued on Page 4)

Solons Act On Sewer Projects

Approach Taken After Long Discussion on Priorities, Modes of Financing

By Roger A. Waha

Expressing concern over the public health, while giving the nod to sewer improvements over those of water, the Woods Council concurred in a Committee of the Whole recommendation, made moments before, to go the bond issue route after establishing priorities for proposed sewer projects.

This action was taken at a special council meeting Monday evening, August 29.

The motion of approval authorized the city to issue one million dollars worth of general revenue bonds for the purpose of sewer construction pursuant to the list of priorities recommended by City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

Eye Ballot Question

It also stressed that all steps be taken to place the question before the voters at the earliest possible date.

The decision to go this specific way was made after a long discussion at the committee level on what priorities to consider, based upon Mr. Petersen's list and the varied methods of financing the proposed work.

As planned, City Controller-Assessor Frederick G. Hornfisher indicated the proposed issue would probably be over a 20-year period, and would raise taxes around six-tenths of a mill per year.

Several steps will now have to be taken, including the drafting of a bonding resolution with the specific wording needing approval from the Attorney General's Office, said Mr. Hornfisher. A bonding attorney will have to draft the measure.

He said a special election on the question could transpire in January or February and upon voter approval, it would take between three to six months to obtain bond monies with construction slated to begin in the fall.

Seek Quick Start

Mr. Hornfisher also noted that the Municipal Finance Commission would have to approve the bond issue itself so it would be properly financed after a favorable election.

If, in fact, voters do not approve the question, other alternate methods of financing construction, including approaches discussed Monday night, would have to be considered.

These include a two-mill tax levy over a 10-year period with construction scheduled on a pay-as-you-go basis with the council having authority to decrease millage if federal funds could be obtained, or going the Chapter 20, State Drain Code route.

It was the council's overall feeling that sewer construction work should begin as quickly as possible, not only to alleviate problems in certain areas of the city but also to avoid, as much as possible, future higher costs via inflation.

The bond issue route contains some flexibility for officials in the area of funding as City Attorney George Catlin pointed out, if the city (Continued on Page 2)

Farms Youth No Mailman

Last week's story on the accident, which claimed the life of a Detroit man after he drove his car into Lake St. Clair Saturday, August 20, reported that Michael P. Lardner, a mailman, led Farms police to the initial rescue.

Michael is a student at South High School, not a mailman. He did, however, hail a mailman for assistance while he went to give the initial report to the department.

Youth Service Division Set for New School Year

On the child safety program, Det. Fagan stated letters will be sent to the schools, PTA's and PTO's reminding everyone that the program is still in effect.

We want to reinforce the plan in people's minds, he noted, while indicating it will be emphasized at all age levels within the schools.

Magic Remains

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club, which initially donated $200 for the printing of 1,500 Emergency "E" cards early last summer, is donating another $200 for the printing of more cards toward keeping all Pointe police departments, along with Harper Woods, in full supply, said Det. Fagan.

The detective also said he would like, if possible, to get back into the middle schools on a regular schedule.

Two years ago, an attempt was made in this direction but last year, he stated, problems arose in keeping a set time. "This is very important. We didn't do it to the extent we wanted" (last year), he noted.

As part of his classroom presentations, Det. Fagan attended a school of magic and last spring began incorporating illusions as part of his safety-oriented talks.

With a year of experience under his hat, (sans rabbits), and additional equipment, he expects further success in this area.

Stressing that magic is only a means to obtain, and keep, the attention of youngsters, he said illusions get a point across visually to the children, who have been most receptive to this technique.

Unlike his colleague, who has been a division member for over three years, Det. Treppa was named to the YSD by Public Safety Director Henry Marchand on July 1. And so far, the initiation has been a pleasant one.

Gets True Picture

Saying he'll be just like a freshman entering high school on opening day, (Thursday, September 8, at both South and North), the detective is looking forward to meeting the students and becoming a pleasantly familiar face to the South community.

Unlike only writing up a report as a member of the road patrol, he is learning first hand the necessary follow-through that a YSD detective must perform.

"It's more involved than I originally thought," he said. "There's a lot more paper work and in following up cases, they all appear different. Each youth seems to have a different problem regarding why he (or she) does something."

In exploring the background of each report which crosses his desk, he not only has the opportunity to meet with the offender but with parents and other officials. "The kids and the parents haven't been on the defensive. They've all been open toward helping and have been more than cooperative," he said.

If it's too soon for Det. Treppa to completely assess the transition from the uniform division to the YSD, this isn't the case for Det. Albrecht, who joined the bureau last November.

Not really knowing what to expect upon his assignment, he felt members of the road patrol really don't see the true side of what the detectives do—the time involved in investigating a case, the phone calls, the meetings with parents and other officials, et al.

As a result, that cup of coffee a road patrol officer may see a detective enjoying, is usually a short break from ongoing investigative demands rather than an indication of not having much to do.

On Being Visible

"It's certainly a challenge, something you can really get involved in," stressed Det. Albrecht of his new position and the "complete follow-through" which it necessitates.

The diversity of subject matter, (i.e., cases investigated), getting to know many "nice people" from the schools and police departments, along with getting the job done by talking to a youth on a one-on-one basis, has been gratifying to him.

"The main part of the job is being visible to the schools, to people," he emphasized, while noting the detectives are "always jumping," handling several cases at one time.

This year, he hopes to become immediately involved with the PTA's and PTO's at their meetings, while reinforcing the child safety program to all. "Generally, I want to keep things calm and get to know the kids better," he said.

He plans on organizing a Due Process Workshop at North, something that will be done for the third time this year at South for business law classes under the guidance of Det. Fagan.

At the same time, talks to social studies classes on wide ranging law enforcement topics, plus an effort to re-establish regular periods at the middle school level and visiting elementary schools on a more regular basis are on his agenda.

Eyes "Super Year"

For Det. Baum, his years of service in the YSD are coming to a close. He is scheduled to leave the division, and a job he loves, on February 1 as part of the rotation system affecting YSD personnel.

As a result, he plans on letting Det. Albrecht take more of a leadership role this school year.

"I anticipate a super year because of the way things have progressed with the students, the faculty and staff. We have a close working relationship," he noted, while citing a continuing improvement in attitude.

"We will continue to meet the needs of the schools and the community and strive to improve in areas which may need improvement," (e.g., problems which would arise along the way and have to be met.)

"The tone was set last year by the students—everything is under control," continued Det. Baum.

However, if any problems occur, he stressed, "We will not put up with any uncalled for shenanigans."

The community-wide child safety and Emergency "E" programs, coordinated by the YSD, are scheduled to be strongly emphasized again as classes resume by both police and school personnel.

While many officials have indicated there has been a summer lull in the program, all feel it remains alive and well at this time.

Local police departments, (including Harper Woods), received red "E" cards in varying amounts this summer and all report some distribution of the visuals.

Indicating their support for the program and the co-operation received from the schools and PTA-PTO "reps," police officials expressed support for the plan on an ongoing basis with Shores Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale saying with the coming school year, the program should realize its full potential.

The Shores originally received 100 cards with 31 already being distributed, while Park Lt. Gordon Duncan said his department was given 200 cards and has distributed 75.

Meanwhile, many of The Farms' original 200 cards have been distributed, while City Lt. Robert Van Tiem said only a few of the department's 100 cards have been given out.

Lt. Van Tiem noted that the objective is to have at least one card per block as against having an influx of cards all over.

Keeping It Alive

Meanwhile, Harper Woods Police Chief Nick Mayer said the estimated 200 to 250 cards his department received are all gone and he's in need of more.

For his part, Woods Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook stated 250 cards are already out to the schools for distribution. "My job, along with the YSD's, is to see that the program remains active and to update it. I don't want it to die out," he said.

All departments have records on the "E" card distributions and Officer Crook added he plans on contacting the schools in his community regarding new participants on the updating front.

Alfreda Frost, director of elementary education, Grosse Pointe School System, said, as originally planned, each principal was to work with the school's own PTA or PTO group toward obtaining volunteers within each block. After names were received, they would be given to the local police department.

With the summer vacation period, she indicated, as did Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, assistant superintendent-instruction, that the program would be looked at again after school commences.

Dr. Frost said she expected each principal to call attention to the plan once again via school newsletters after classes commence.

In a final note, interest in the child safety program hasn't been limited to public schools only. Local private and parochial schools also have participated in the plan.

Bond Issue Approved

is fortunate enough to obtain federal funds, (probably via the Community Development Block Grant program), new projects, not incorporated under the bond issue package, could be started.

Main Areas

Sewer projects focused upon under the bond issue in Mr. Petersen's list included the following main priorities:

The southwest area from Kingsville to Bournemouth at an estimated cost of $22,500, followed by the northeast area comprising Blairmoor court to Perrien place and Van K drive to the Milk River at an estimated cost of $458,000.

Others include Brys drive from Marter road to Goethe, $185,800, and Hawthorne road from Marter to the east city limits, $287,800.

It's possible while the aforementioned four areas are tops on the list that the issue might cover other locations which follow. But this depends on the final issue itself and the potentially changing cost picture.

Councilman Ronald R. Kefgen cast the lone dissenting vote on the committee's recommendation to the council.

He felt the cost of the proposed project will increase the longer implementation is delayed, while noting the two-mill tax levy over 10 years approach was the best.

When the vote on the committee motion was considered by the council, Mr. Kefgen didn't cast a negative vote at that time but still stressed his opposition to the motion.

Board Approves Goals For 1977-78 School Year

By Susan McDonald
Strengthening administrative control over curriculum and putting a strong emphasis on basic skills are two of the major goals for the 1977-78 school year that were formally approved by the Board of Education at its Monday, August 22, meeting. The 22 goals are similar to those considered by the trustees in working draft form at their Monday, August 8, meeting. They include the following:

- Improve communication with parents through counseling services and assisting teachers to understand testing data evaluation systems.
- Involve people in the decision-making process, through working committees that include parents, students, staff and especially chairpersons and first assistants.
- Improve administrative relations with employee groups.
- Reorganize central office departments.
- Develop and implement a "Management by Objectives" model that would have administrators develop specific objectives, relate them to general school system objectives and initiate projects to see they are achieved.

- Review Board of Education policies.
- Adopt and implement a new system of teacher evaluation, which would differentiate among various levels of performance and identify strengths and needs for improvement.
- Review and modify the administrative evaluation system.
- Increase in-service training related to personnel, supervision of instruction, evaluation systems and other new programs.
- Update personnel policies, practices and forms, and re-evaluate local qualifications for all teachers.
- Improve business practices, with emphasis on zero-based budget development, accuracy of reporting systems and improved purchasing and investment.
- Review scope and sequence for art, foreign language, math and physical education curricula.
- Extend testing programs for basic skills to include the high schools.
- Provide citizenship opportunities for students.
- Develop honors-type programs, such as skills-talent, advanced placement programs and independent study opportunities.
- Modify curricula to improve opportunities for cultural development of students.
- Study and make recommendations regarding attendance areas and improve utilization of buildings, with an eye to the continued drop in enrollment.

Youths Sought In Tar Incident

Farms police reported Friday, August 26, that they are seeking three youths in connection with the dumping of tar at the intersection of Williams and Stephens roads Wednesday, August 3.

Area residents reported seeing the trio in a car at the scene of the accident. The boys allegedly rolled the 55 gallon drum of tar into the street, broke it open and let the tar ooze onto the intersection.

A Farms resident notified police after reading the story about the accident in the August 11 issue of the NEWS. The article reported that it was suspected that Amro Co. had dropped the drum. The company was transporting the tar to Brownell School where the roof was being retarded.

The citizen who informed the police felt the company should not be blamed if they really didn't create the mess. Farms police are interested in talking with the youths involved before considering any possible charges.

"Our major concern," Chief Robert Ferber said, "is collecting the cost for the broken drum and the clean up of the street."

Bart Leu, of McKinley road, won a trophy for being named the outstanding defensive player in the 11-13 age group at Michigan Tech's recent summer basketball school. Bart was one of 55 boys attending the recent one-week session on the Michigan Tech campus.

Motorist Takes Woman's Purse

A Park woman, who asked that her name not be used, was forced to hand over her purse to a motorist on Sunday, August 28, when the driver claimed he had a gun and would shoot her if she did not comply, reported Police Lt. Gordon Duncan.

The woman told authorities she was walking north on Bedford at about 7:15 p.m., and had stopped for a traffic signal light to change, when a black male pulled up in his car.

She said the man got out of his vehicle and asked for information about a bus but before she could answer the thief said, "I have a gun. Give me your purse, or I'll shoot."

The victim handed the purse to the man and then she turned and ran toward her house, which was close by, and called police.

In the meantime, the robber jumped back into his car and drove off. The purse contained personal items and a small amount of money.

She described the thief as being about 5'6" tall, weighing about 140 pounds, dark complected, clean shaven and having short hair over which he had a hair net. He was wearing dark trousers and a white shirt, she said.

At 7:30 p.m. the same night, Park authorities received a call from a woman who stated she had found the purse on Alter road near Jefferson. Officers picked up the purse from the citizen who was waiting at that location. They found everything intact, but the money missing.

CAZABON HONORED

If you are thinking of jogging, are over thirty-five, and haven't gotten substantial exercise in the past ten or fifteen years, better check with your doctor before you start. For your age group in particular, it is important to have your heart checked out before you take to the road. But, that does not mean you can't exercise. There are now exercise programs for citizens of all ages and conditions. The condition of your body, rather than your age, is the most important factor. Generally, the older you get, the worse condition you are likely to be in, so the more care you will have to take in not overstraining yourself.

If you're involved in body building, VIM & VIGOR HEALTH FOODS, 21151 Mack, 886-9466 should be your headquarters. ACLU Joins Fight Against Park Charter

(Continued from Page 1) viewed. This provision states that a person seeking this office must be an attorney and must have practiced law in the State of Michigan for at least five years preceding the date of election.

In 1973, these sections of the charter were challenged in court by Municipal Judge John Urso, who is not seeking re-election for another four-year term, and Beverly C. Grobbel, a successful candidate in the August primary. The court ruled in their favor, and Judge Urso won the election.

Four municipal judge aspirants, whose petitions were rejected by Mr. Ortisi because they did not meet the charter provisions, took the matter to court and won.

They are Joseph Grano, Karen Smith Kienbaum, Robert Lech and Daniel Castner, all residents of The Park, and all unsuccessful in the bid for the judgeship. Besides Mrs. Grobbel, Alan

R. Devine Jr. is vying for the post in the November election.

In a joint statement, after being informed of the ACLU's action, City Manager Robert A. Slone and Mr. Ortisi stated that that is exactly what the city wants to do—have the courts decide whether or not the two provisions in the charter are unconstitutional.

"We, prior to the primary election, sought to uphold the city charter as it was approved by the people in 1950," they said. "When the court ruled against the city, the city reversed itself and, in compliance with the court order, placed the names of all those who filed petitions for municipal judge on the ballot."

The city officials said that if the appeals court rules Sections 5.1 and 15.3 unconstitutional, then it will have to be deleted from the charter, unless the issue is taken to a higher court.

At a regular meeting held early in July, when the charter was challenged by Mr. Grano, Mayor Matthew C. Patterson and the council pointed out that the provisions had never been challenged until 1973, and that the two sections had been in effect since 1950.

"I do not care whether or not we win or lose," Mr. Patterson said at the July session, "as long as we find out if these sections of the charter are valid or not. It was the people themselves who voted for the charter. If we lose, then we'll have to ask them for a change of these sections."

Then the mayor and the council authorized City Attorney Richard Rohr to file an appeal in the Michigan Court of Appeals to seek a reversal of Judge Roumell's decision, and to consider appeals to higher courts if it is necessary.

Mr. Rohr said he has filed a claim with the court of appeals on behalf of The Park. Before anything else can be done, "We will have to wait until the court files a transcript and then we can go from there," he stated.

He said it will be at least until October before the higher court will hear the appeal and make its decision.

Wins First Round in Merger

City Manager Thomas Kressbach said he was "pleased at this favorable decision."

"The city's position has been and remains that it will negotiate, as required by law, any changes that may be required in hours, wages and other conditions with respect to public safety implementation."

Negotiations, he continued, have been difficult with the firefighters as they have "taken a 'no' position in all our public safety discussions."

"Shot in Dark" Mr. Kressbach agreed that the ruling, though favorable, does not, however, The City to implement the plan. They are waiting for still another decision, this one from a Michigan arbitrator, on The City's right to force firemen to take police training — a key element of the consolidation plan.

Denise of Plan

"Their ideas deserve serious study and they will be considered," Mr. Bruce said. "But the proposal came very late in the budget-making process, and we just did not feel we could afford it."

Mr. Bruce pointed out that the Board had hoped to improve athletics in a number of areas next year, in line with recommendations made by a Board-appointed Athletic Study Committee last year.

Among the items considered were employment of a system-wide athletic director and secretary to coordinate programs at all levels, improvements in salaries for some coaches and increased travel allotments for teams.

All of the items were eventually deleted from the budget, at a savings of about $70,000.

The schools will offer virtually the same athletic programs at all levels next year, although the cost will be about $5,000 higher, according to Director of Finance Tom Ott.

Interscholastic middle school sports were recommended by the athletic committee as a long-term goal for the system.

Before that program is initiated, however, the committee suggested formation of intramural programs, new physical education curriculums and tri-school events, such as junior olympics.

The Board has already implemented each of these programs, according to Mr. Bruce.

"We have made a commitment to improving athletics, and we're continuing to live up to committee suggestions."

"It would help if Mr. Suminski and Mr. Lucas would work with that group," he added.

Local Firefighters International President Lt. Tim Champagne said he did not consider Judge Kurtz's ruling especially detrimental to the men's fight against public safety.

"We took a shot in the dark, and ended up right where we started from," Lt. Champagne said. "They still haven't implemented the plan."

Firefighters' attorney, Eugene Bolanowski, could not be reached for comment on the judge's decision. He is not expected to appeal the ruling, however.

In the meantime, the police department has already begun a cross-training program, with the men learning firefighting skills in the local offices and at a firefighters' school in Ann Arbor.

Expects to Save Money The council approved the consolidation ordinance last October saying the program could save the financially strained city about $80,000 a year in personnel costs.

By training both forces in both police and fire work, the plan would allow for an eventual reduction in the work force.

The firefighters, though, claim that a consolidation would cutback on services in both areas. They have received backing from the International Firefighters Assoc. in the legal battle to stop the merger.

Burgundy, the heavy red or white wine from the golden slopes of Burgundy, has inspired many stories and references in literature. It has been rather expensive and often hard to obtain. It wasn't until the sixteenth century, when Charles V of Spain and the Holy Roman Empire handed the Duchy of Burgundy to the King of France, that Parisians had a chance to really taste the wine at their leisure. Shakespeare mentions in King Lear, describing it as waterish. It is doubtful he was talking about the real thing. In the 18th century, the Crown put prohibitively high tariffs on French wines, and the colonies and England had to smuggle in all that they could drink, and that wasn't easy.

Now you can enjoy Burgundy at your leisure — see our fine selection of red and white Burgundies at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626. Indeed, we feature a full selection of imported and domestic wines as well as a complete array of champagnes, beers and distilled spirits for your selection. R/A Suspect Arraigned; Second Faces Circuit Court

One suspect who allegedly held up Bijouterie, Inc., 19860 Mack avenue, on July 2, was arrested last week after Detroit police received information as to where he was hiding, reported Woods Det. Charles Philip Hamel.

With this action, Roderick Simpson, 26, of San Juan, Detroit, was arraigned on a charge of robbery armed, (R/A), with a gun before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis on Friday, August 26.

The suspect stood mute, a plea of not guilty was entered in his behalf and bond was set at $30,000, two sureties or 10 percent. His examination was scheduled for yesterday, August 31.

Meanwhile, the second suspect in the incident, Suzanne Barber, 28, of Washburn, Detroit, was bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court for trial on a similar charge.

This action was taken at her Wednesday, August 24, examination. Bond in the amount of $15,000, two sureties or 10 percent, was continued and she was transported to the Wayne County Jail afterwards, pending her circuit court pre-trial, scheduled for Thursday, September 8.

Det. Hamel received information on Tuesday, August

16, from the armed robbery unit, Detroit Police headquarters, that she was arrested in connection with an armed robbery in Detroit. Police then learned, after questioning witnesses, that Simpson also was allegedly involved in the holdup.

In the incident, an estimated $115,000 in precious stones and around $3,000 in cash were taken. An estimated $2,000 in missing jewelry were identified by the store's owner after Detroit police arrested four men on July 11. The men were found to be in possession of several jewelry items in settings.

Woman Victim of 'Gardeners'

City police are looking for two men they say bilked an 89-year-old "pointe" woman out of $100 on Friday afternoon, August 12.

The woman told police she was sitting on the front porch of her Rivard boulevard home when two men pulled up in front of her house in a pickup truck and informed her that her front lawn needed seeding.

While one of the men sat with the woman on the porch, the other spread two pails of peat humus over the lawn, according to police.

When he was finished, the man told the woman she owed them $100 for the job, and allegedly followed her into the house while she looked for her wallet.

She gave the men a check for $100. Upon hearing of the incident the next day, the woman's daughter attempted to stop payment on the check but found she was too late.

City Lt. Robert Van Tiem called the incident a larceny by trick and said he is investigating leads in the case.

Police Recover Stolen Vehicle

Good police work on the part of three Park officers resulted in the arrest of a person in possession of a car reported to have been stolen last October, according to information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan.

Arrested and charged with receiving and concealing stolen property was Oliver A. Cook, 36, no known address, who, when arrested, refused to talk to police officers. He had no operator's license on his person and his identification, (name), was established through other legal means, the lieutenant said.

Cook was arraigned before Park Municipal Judge John Urso on Friday, August 26, for a preliminary hearing on a warrant of possession and concealing. The Judge set yesterday, September 1, as the date of examination and ordered Cook released on $1,000 cash bond.

Lt. Duncan said that Cpl. William Furtaw was on routine patrol on Jefferson avenue on Thursday, August 25, when he observed a car being parked in front of the Esquire Theater. A male and female emerged and entered the theater after purchasing admission tickets.

The corporal called in a routine check on the license plate number and a Law Enforcement Information Network, (LEIN), reply showed that the license was clear, but registered to another vehicle.

The officer looked the auto over and found a vinyl plate tag number next to the windshield and radioed for information on that number. The reply disclosed that the car had been reported stolen in Oakland County last October.

The corporal called for assistance and he and Officers Edward Serwach and Ralph Moore staked out the vehicle and arrested the man exiting the theater.

Assault Case Trial Date Set

A pre-trial for a 24-year-old Warren man, originally charged with intent to do great bodily harm less than murder for his alleged assault of a Woods officer, was held in the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office on Thursday, August 18, reported Woods police.

At that time, the attorney for the defendant, Donald Michael Zielinski, wasn't present and a conference between the prosecutor and Det. Charles Philip Hamel took place. It was agreed that the department would go along with a felonious assault plea.

On Monday, August 22, Det. Thomas Podszewski contacted the prosecutor's office, learned that the defendant will not plead in the case and that a trial date has been scheduled for Monday, September 19.

Zielinski allegedly struck Officer Carl Schuster five times with a wooden stick on July 21 after being chased through several yards. The officer reported the suspect was first stopped after he and another man, who was later released, made trips from the side of a home in Vernier road at Charlevoix to their car.

Loses Clubs, Tools in B-E

A set of golf clubs, along with a tool box, were taken from the unlocked garage of a Hampton road citizen, according to a report received by Woods police on Thursday, August 25.

The citizen said sometime between Tuesday afternoon, August 23, and Thursday morning one putter, four woods and 13 irons in a black golf bag were removed. At the time of purchase, the set was valued at around $460.

A tool box with miscellaneous tools, valued at $109, also was missing.

Field Day Vandalism

(Continued from Page 1) to 35-gallon containers of Coca Cola, dumped and emptied out six unattached containers of the soft drink on the ground and did damage to a semi-trailer left on the field.

"We worked hard on Friday so that there would not be too much to be done on Saturday," Chief Taylor said.

"Fortunately there were enough of us who arrived early to put things back in order before the Field Day started. This is the first time in the history of the annual event that anything like this has ever happened. It is so senseless, I find it hard to understand why persons would do something like this. It is unbelievable."

The chief said although the vandals tried to ruin the day, the event was still successful because of the turnout. There was only one minor problem—a slight shortage of Coca Cola.

Chief Taylor added he reported the vandalism to Farms authorities who have the matter under investigation.

Auto Club Eyes Traffic Safety

Even though school buses have proven to be a reliable and safe method of travel, the traffic safety dangers involved in transporting one million students 125 million miles this school year in Michigan are considerable, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"Since school-aged children are unpredictable and impulsive, it is important that motorists be extra alert, especially for the 160,000 students starting kindergarten this month," said Arthur C. Gibson, Auto Club's Safety and Traffic Engineering manager.

About 40 percent of the state's 2.5 million students in grades kindergarten through 12 ride buses to class," pointed out Mr. Gibson, who urged motorists, including school bus drivers, to drive cautiously and reduce their speed in school areas.

Through its "School's Open—Drive Carefully" campaign, now in its 31st year, the Auto Club promotes the importance of traffic safety to motorists, parents and students during the school year.

"It is essential that those three groups take the necessary safety steps to help Michigan cut down on traffic deaths and injuries involving school-aged children," said Mr. Gibson.

In the 1976-77 school year, five youngsters lost their lives in bus-related accidents, an increase of two deaths over the previous year.

A number of 72 school-aged pedestrians, (ages five to 14 years), were killed last year—many of them while walking to and from school.

"Many of these deaths occurred because students were unaware of the danger of crossing streets to and from school and because motorists were inattentive or driving too fast for conditions," Mr. Gibson explained.

Auto Club warned that rear-end collisions occur too frequently because drivers realize too late that vehicles in front of them have stopped for school buses.

Auto Club suggests that parents teach children these simple rules for riding the bus or walking to school:

- Walk only on the sidewalk. If there is none, walk facing traffic on the shoulder of the road.

- Watch for turning cars and never cross between parked vehicles.

- Leave home in plenty of time to arrive at the bus stop and stay well off the roadway while waiting to be picked up.

- Remain seated while the bus is moving and keep hands and arms inside at all times.

- After leaving the bus, walk at least 10 steps ahead of it before crossing the road, waiting for the driver to signal it is safe. Never cross at the back of the bus.

Motorists also are reminded to be extra cautious when seeing a bus in the distance since children running to catch it sometimes forget to look before crossing roadways.

Drivers also should stop at least 10 feet in front or in back of a bus when it is picking up or dropping off children on any road without barriers or dividers between lanes. That is a state law.

Updating of Court in GPF

This system is expensive. "We only have about two jury trials a year," Mr. Semple said. "I'm still not sure that having a panel would solve our problems. I also don't think our court volume warrants the expense."

The second proposal was not approved.

Third is the question of the court clerk. "Having done some research, the creation of a court clerk would definitely help," Mr. Semple noted. A clerk would take some of the burden off the judge. "It would certainly speed things up," Mr. Semple said.

The suggestion was approved and will be on the November ballot.

The fourth and last proposal views courtroom security. In Judge Pytell's opinion, the security of the courtroom needs "beefing up." At present, a police officer is not available in the courtroom as a security measure. If the acting judge sentences a suspect, and an officer is not present to take the suspect into custody, the judge calls a recess, goes into the back room and calls the police department to request an officer. Then everyone waits until the officer shows up.

Mr. Semple suggested that the police chief, the administrator and the judge get together to talk about this problem. The council agreed with this suggestion.

The proposal was not voted upon, with the administration being instructed to meet with police and the judge, then propose a resolution at a future council meeting.

Mr. Semple's report was complete, detailed and informative, the council said, with the report and Judge Pytell's recommendations pointing out definite voids in The Farms municipal court system.

Woods Seeks More Guards

The Woods Department of Public Safety is seeking alternate crossing guards for the school year to back up the regular force of 12 guards.

At a pre-school meeting Thursday morning, August 18, 10 returnees from last year, plus two new guards, were briefed by Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook on their duties.

They received the thanks of the department for their role in the department's recent honor from the American Automobile Assoc., (AAA).

The Woods recently received its 11th straight Award of Excellence, the AAA's second highest pedestrian safety honor, for its outstanding pedestrian safety record last year.

With one alternate returning, Officer Crook said the department still needs at least five more alternates toward setting up a platoon to avoid scheduling problems during the year when the regulars are on vacation or are ill.

The guards work four crossings during the school day, each for a half hour, at 8:20 a.m., 11:20 a.m., 12:20 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

They receive $4.40 per hour or $8.80 per day, and are provided articles of clothing, e.g., raincoats and belts, and whistles, along with insurance.

Those interested in applying for the alternate crossings guard position should visit departmental headquarters, 20025 Mack avenue, and fill out an application, available at the front desk.

SELL HOME YOURSELF?
I'm sure you've heard it said: "Why should I sell my home through a REALTOR? I can sell it myself and save a lot of money." Right? . . . Wrong!

This kind of thinking usually turns out to be financially unwise. The prospects will usually start by mentally deducting the commission and then start negotiating from there. On the average, a homeowner saves NO money when he sells his own home. In fact, the opposite is true. Studies over a ten year period show that the net proceeds from owner-sold property are LESS than the REALTOR-sold piece of real estate, even after the payment of commission.

As a private seller you're at a great disadvantage in the intricate areas of financing, negotiating and protecting yourself from all sorts of do-it-yourself pitfalls. You've got a lot invested in your home. It makes sense to list it with a REALTOR. He'll sell it for you — without hitches — for the best price and in the shortest amount of time.

Double Winner In Horse Show

A Farms woman, who was a nationally-ranked junior hunter seat equitation rider, rode to two first place finishes Thursday, August 25, in her first horse show in 15 years.

Aboard her newly-acquired thoroughbred mare, Water Music, Jennifer Holmes, 31, of Maison road, won both the Regular Working Hunter and Adult's Working Hunter Under Saddle classes at the Michigan Hunter Jumper Association "C" Circuit finals at Stony Ridge Farm, Chelsea.

She also took second in Model Hunter and Regular Working Hunter Under Saddle.

Kate Phillips, 13, of Prestwick road, also rode Ms. Holmes' mare to a third place finish in Novice Equitation.

Boa Ms. Holmes and Miss Phillips are members of the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

A former pupil of Victor Hug Vidal of Connecticut, Ms. Holmes was fourth in the national finals of the AHSA Medal at Madison Square Garden in 1962. That year, she was first in the United States to qualify for the finals.

From that final victory in 1962 until this spring, Ms. Holmes did not ride a horse. She bought Water Music at the end of July, about resuming competitive riding and jumping after so many years Ms. Holmes remarked, "The thrill isn't just that's for sure."

Ms. Holmes is a "Detroit Free Press" reporter and is married to Richard E. Thoma. She is the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Thoma, of McKinley avenue.

Forgetting the past is alright, but don't forget the future.

$217,075 of Highway Funds Allocated to Pointes

Statistics released by the Michigan Highway and Transportation Department, dated Thursday, August 25, disclosed that the five Pointes will receive a bigger share of the motor vehicle fund during the second quarter of 1977, than during the same period last year.

The total figure to be divided this year is $217,075, as compared to $192,484 for the second quarter of 1976.

Department officials said that despite rising gasoline prices, Michigan motorists are driving more than ever. Receipts from State motor fuel taxes, (gasoline, diesel fuel and liquid petroleum gas), in the three-month period ending June 30 totaled $106,953,132. This is an increase of $5,185,665, or 5.1 percent, over the same quarter of 1976.

Proceeds are being distributed to the state, counties and municipalities after deductions of $14,552,083 in grants and collection costs. They include $1,256,418 to the state waterways fund, $5,960,468 for collection costs and $5,517,728 to the state general transportation fund for public transportation and rail programs.

For the second quarter of this year, April 1 through June 30, the $217,075 will be distributed among the Pointes as follows: The Woods, $77,645; The Park, $55,847; The Farms, $45,765; The City, $25,207; and The Shores, $12,611.

For the same period in 1976, The Woods received $68,855; The Park, $49,521; The Farms, $40,578; The City, $22,348; and The Shores, $11,182.

Weight taxes collected in the form of license plate fees yielded $33,133,121 in the April through June quarter, up by $8,796,073, or 36.1 percent, from the comparable period in 1976.

SEMTA Okays New Bus Pact

A contract for the purchase of 189 Advance Design Buses has been awarded by the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority, (SEMTA), reports an authority news release.

These vehicles represent the first completely redesigned coaches since the early 1960's and provide many passenger amenities including a kneeling feature to reduce entry level step heights, larger windows, temperature control, as well as exterior fiberglass panels and a modernistic design.

With the award of this contract, SEMTA becomes the first transit operator in the country to seek competitive bids on the new futuristic vehicles.

The award was made to the General Motors Corp. based on its bid price of $18,242,967. The vehicles cost between $91,000 and $96,000 each. The U.S. Department of Transportation will provide 80 percent of the funds and the Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation the other 20 percent.

The new buses will replace vehicles 12 years or older now operated by SEMTA and the City of Detroit Department of Transportation, (D-DOT). D-DOT will receive 111 vehicles and SEMTA 78.

No decision has been made as to how many buses will go to the Lake Shore Division, which serves The Pointe area, although there's a possibility the division will receive some vehicles.

Fifty-seven of the buses will be equipped with hydraulic lifts at an additional cost of $9,000 each, to make them fully accessible to people in wheelchairs.

The lift equipped vehicles will operate on the Gratiot and Michigan corridors for both SEMTA and D-DOT as part of a demonstration program and it represents the first time that wheelchair accessible regular route bus service will be offered in Michigan.

The 132 vehicles without lifts are scheduled to be delivered by October 1978 while those with lifts will follow three months later.

These will be the first new coaches received in southeast Michigan since November 1975.

Thieves Enter Parked Cars

Woods police received four larceny from auto reports on Monday, August 22, with most of the items taken being CB radios.

A Blairmoor road citizen said his car, parked in the driveway, was entered and a CB unit, valued at $96, and a radar detector, at $89, were taken. The driver's side door was left unlocked.

Then, someone broke the window in the car of a Hampton road citizen and removed a CB receiver valued at $20, mounted under the dash. Around $10 worth of tokens used to enter Canada also was taken from a glove box. This auto was parked in the street.

Another Hampton road resident also was victimized when someone punched out the lock on the passenger side door of his auto parked in the driveway. A CB radio, valued at around $60, was removed.

Meanwhile, a visitor at the citizen's home had his driver's side vent window broken with the culprits taking a CB radio, valued at $60, and an antenna, valued at $30. The value of the window was placed at $30.

South Revamps Starters As Football Season Begins

By Wendy K. Settle

"We're very quick and aggressive," coach Russ Hepner of South High School said of his 1977-78 varsity football team, "but, we're young and inexperienced."

After last year's 6-3 record, South lost its entire first string offensive line to graduation. Only five of the 11 first string players on defense will be returning as well.

That's where the "young and inexperienced" comes in. "The offensive line will have to be rebuilt," coach Hepner lamented. "And the defensive backfield is another problem."

Practice for the Blue Devils started on Thursday, August 18. Seventy juniors and seniors turned out. Fifty-three of those 70 will make the team. Two or three sophomores may play varsity, but that is not very common.

There are a few returning seniors that coach Hepner is expecting a lot from.

First is Tom Nihem, quarterback. Tom was a quarterback last year as a junior. He'll be holding that fresh offensive line together.

Second, Ken Stockwell, a two-way, (both offense and defense), player. He's a tight end for the offense, and a guard for the defense.

Third is Tom Patzer, another returnee on the defensive line.

Fourth, Dan Schwarz, a returning fullback.

Last is Pat Corbett, another two-way player.

There were 37 seniors on last year's team. This year there are 20.

"We're diversified," coach Hepner continued, "and our goal is to become a working team. That just doesn't happen overnight. The players are getting to know each other, then they'll work together as a team, and that's what counts."

"We've got the potential for a good, sound football team. But, potential never won a game."

Coach Hepner has a staff of three assistant coaches. John Rice coaches the backfield and is the defensive coordinator. Al Moebus is the line coach and Bob Schroeder is linebacker coach. All the coaches also are classroom teachers.

"If there was one thing I'd like to accomplish this year," Coach Hepner concluded, "it would be that we worked as a team and played to our potential."

South's football schedule this year starts as follows:

Notre Dame, Saturday, September 10; Port Huron, Saturday, September 17; East Detroit, home, Sunday, September 25; Stevenson, away, Friday, September 30; Mount Clemens, home, Monday, October 3; Roseville, away, Saturday, October 15; Port Huron Northern, home, Saturday, October 22; and L'Anse Creuse North, away, Saturday, October 29.

And last is the big one when South will meet North on South's field Saturday, November 5.

For the past eight years South has been battling North. This year's game should be the turning point, since North and South have won four games each.

ULS Gridders Eye Plus Year

By Dave Robertson

"We're not predicting any state championship, but we will improve on last year's 4-4 record," said University Liggett School, (ULS), varsity football coach Tom Taber.

Emphasizing that there are several good returning players, coach Taber is confident that the team will make substantial improvement.

"The boys look good and are in good condition," he said, "and we're positive that with hard work we can have a very successful season."

Coach Taber stressed that his team is very flexible, with all the boys, "and two way players."

"We also have may good sophomore prospects for the future," he said. "I'm very optimistic about the next two years."

Co-captains Will Himmel and Tom Graves, both seniors, will make excellent leaders, according to coach Taber.

Other seniors on the varsity football team this year are Bill Beardslee, end, John Engle, safety, Jim Martin, safety, John Hastings, offensive halfback, Kevin Coley, quarterback, Nobel Platt, linebacker, Chuck Vincent, end, and Mark Mushro, end.

Juniors are Bill Flehmman, quarterback, John Dorner, linebacker, Mike Block, fullback, Dave Tyr, center, John Hummel, guard, and Rick Ferrara, tackle.

The lone sophomore on varsity this year is Kevin Olson, tackle.

The 1977 varsity football schedule is as follows: Sunday, September 11, Saint Andrews, away; Friday, September 16, Hamtramck, away; Friday, September 23, Lutheran North, home; and Saturday, October 1, Harper Woods, away.

More are Friday, October 7, Cranbrook, home; Friday, October 14, Lutheran West, home; Friday, October 21, Lutheran East, away; and Saturday, October 29, DCDS, away.

Austin Views Another Title

By Dave Robertson

Austin High School is looking forward to another successful football year, one in which they hope to equal or top last season's record of 8-1.

Varsity football coach Pete Pucher feels that although their schedule this year is more difficult, Austin will go on to win its division playoffs.

"We have a good chance to win the division championship barring any injuries," coach Pucher said.

"We were league champions the last two years and I hope to repeat that for the third year," he said. "This year's seniors have always been champions, they're used to winning."

Coach Pucher said the varsity team has many talented players returning, but not as many as in previous years.

Two players singled out by the coach as key offensive players this coming season are Gil Ibanski and Joe Fikany, both seniors.

"We are going to change some of our strategy to make use of some of our talent," coach Pucher said.

Other members of the Austin varsity football team are Terry Flemming, tight end, Al Shaheen, offensive guard, Vic Long, defensive quarterback, Matt Kanar, offensive tackle, John Raines, middle guard, Ron Vaughn, offensive guard, and Guy Busquaert, guard. All are seniors.

Juniors playing for varsity this year are John Baldyga, defensive linebacker, Bill Bonnell, offensive tackle, Tom Borland defensive lineman, Bob Conway, wide out, Jerry Bric, offensive lineman, Buddy Lochbieler, guard, Bill Peseski, flanker, and Mark Van Gaeluwe, center.

The 1977 varsity football schedule is as follows: Friday, September 9, South Lake; Friday, September 16, Kalamazoo Central Open; and Friday, September 23, Mount Pleasant Open.

More are Sunday, October 2, Saint Clement; Sunday, October 9, Pontiac Catholic; Saturday, October 15, Saint Ladislaus; and Sunday, October 23, East Catholic.

Analyze intolerance and you'll find it is composed of half ignorance and half conceit.

GP Studs Take Softball Title

The Neighborhood Club team played its championship softball game on Tuesday, August 16, with the GP Studs becoming the softball champions this year.

Much praise should be given to the GPN Hustlers, who showed good sportsmanship in the 3-2 loss against the Studs. Key players for the losing team were Mark Pastorica, Vince Day and Jeff Pierick.

The winning team had three players who achieved two hits apiece, Jim Hicks, player-coach Jack Shea and Dan Hennessey.

Each member of the Studs received a plaque for their efforts. Other members included Mike Buck, Tom Nihem, Rich Fellers, Steve Olson, John Cotzias, Earl Glusac, Pete Spencer, Gordy Ely, Tom Geist, Marty Pucacas, John Hartmann and Chip Owen.

Plans in Works For Polish Day

Pointers who are graduates of the '20's, '30's, '40's or '50's of any high school in Hamtramck, Immaculate Conception, Saint Florian, Saint Ladislaus or Hamtramck, should write to the Hamtramck Homecoming Committee, 3420 Audubon street, Detroit 48224, listing their name, address, school and birthday for a chance to become Homecoming queen.

Homecoming queens for their schools will be those women who have been beautiful and regal the longest, says the committee.

The Hamtramck homecoming is a feature of the Polish Day Parade, Sunday, September 25, at 2 p.m. honoring Polish Americans everywhere.

'Great Attitude' Pervades NH Grid Team This Year

By Wendy K. Settle

North High School's football team is in good shape this season, according to varsity coach Jim Krucki, who hopes to improve upon last season's 6-3 mark.

"We have four all-league players returning," coach Krucki said. One of those all-leaguers is kicker Karl Tech.

"Our kicking team is excellent because of Karl," coach Krucki smiled. "We can really depend on him."

The other all-league players are Paul Radman, offensive end, Scott Engel, offensive guard, and Bruce Stafford, offensive back. All these players are seniors.

"I don't know how much Engel will play this year. He hurt his shoulder last week and hasn't been able to practice all week. We'll have to wait and see," coach Krucki said.

"The offensive line is much improved," he continued. "We have seven out of 11 returning players. It's the defense that needs work."

This year North will have six juniors on its defensive line. Only three returning seniors will be linemen. The other two first-string defensive players haven't been selected as yet.

"Our kicking team's all set and the offense is good, so, during practice, we're really working on rebuilding the defense," the coach stated.

The one thing that seems to make coach Krucki happy is the way his players get along. "The team's attitude is great. They want to work, and work hard. We've got 50 guys on the team and they all show up for practice."

Coach Krucki's main goal this season is directed toward his team. "I just want the boys to have a good time. We try to play every guy on the team as often as we can during the season. If I had to pick one goal it would be that," he laughed.

"Of course, it's always nice to win a lot."

North's schedule this year shows Saturday, September 10, East Detroit, home; Friday, September 16, Roseville, away; Saturday, September 24, Lake Shore, home; Saturday, October 1, Fraser, home; Saturday, October 8, L'Anse Creuse, away; Saturday, October 15, Clintondale, home; Friday, October 21, South Lake, away; and Saturday, October 29, Lakeview, home.

The Norsemen face South Saturday, November 5, at 2 p.m. on South's field.

The Neighborhood Club men's post-season slow pitch softball tournament was held Monday and Tuesday, August 15 and 16.

Charvat's Stokers defeated Mack-Moross Standard, 4-1, in the finals of the upper division tournament, while Pointer Pub defeated Village Shoes, 11-6, in the finals of the lower division tournament.

Club Slates Fall Events

A 16-inch bloopers ball tournament will be offered Saturday and Sunday, September 17 and 18. A $25 entry fee is due by Friday, September 9.

A seven-man touch football league also will be offered. The $130 entry fee is due by September 9.

A men's soccer league is planned with the $95 entry fee due by Monday, September 12.

Registration for the Grosse Pointe Swim Club, (GPSC), will be held Wednesday, September 7, in North High School at 7:30 p.m.

Youngsters should arrive at the pool and gym entrance with the registration and meeting explaining the program to be held in the gym.

Parents must attend and bring the child's birthdate, AAU card and a list of the swimmer's times if they have them.

Swim practice for the GPSC will start on Wednesday, September 21.

Hours of practice, fee schedule, AAU membership and meet information will be fully explained and discussed at registration. Coach

John Sfere and his staff will be there to answer any questions.

GPSC is open to all Pointe swimmers who wish to compete in AAU sanctioned swim meets, held on all levels of competition.

Swimmers ages six through college age may swim in the Michigan AAU.

The GPSC is co-sponsored by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe School System.

Nancy Dickerson, prominent national correspondent, reports for Detroit Edison:

"See how homes winning Detroit Edison EEE Awards are built to save on energy costs from top to bottom."

Detroit Edison is a concerned participant in America's crusade for conservation. The wise use of energy is a national goal, but it requires a working relationship between those who supply energy and those who use it. To demonstrate publicly the desire to take a leadership role in this crusade, Detroit Edison has established the Energy Efficiency Excellence (EEE) Award to encourage the building of more energy-efficient homes.

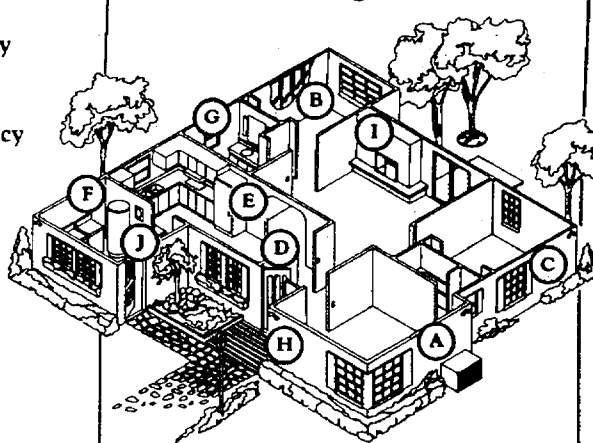

EEE Award homes are designed with conservation in mind.

Detroit Edison presents the Energy Efficiency Excellence (EEE) Award to builders whose homes meet maximum standards in insulation, lighting, wiring, appliances and are comfort-conditioned with an energy-efficient electric heat pump.

From attic to basement, EEE Award homes are designed to keep your heat inside during winter and your utility costs down. These same features also make EEE Award homes easier to cool in summer. The heat pump that keeps EEE Award homes comfortable all year round is an efficient way to heat, cool, filter and dehumidify electrically.

If you're planning on buying or building a new home, take a look at the Detroit Edison EEE Award homes. These homes will help you conserve energy and keep your operating costs at rock bottom.

Detroit Edison EEE Award homes must meet or surpass the following standards:

A. Energy-efficient heat-pump heating and cooling system which conforms to design and installation standards established by the electric utility industry.

B. Maximum insulation including R-17 material in exterior walls, R-44 in attic, and fully insulated basement walls with an R-13 value.

C. Windows with wood sash and insulating glass or single glass with full storm. Or aluminum sash with thermal break and insulating glass or single glass with full storm.

D. Exterior doors with foam core and magnetic seal.

E. Refrigerator and freezer must be energy-efficient if provided by builder.

F. Water heater is energy-saving type, located as close as practical to point of use. Hot water lines wrapped in insulation are recommended.

G. Interior lighting that conforms to the Illuminating Engineering Society standards for energy efficiency in residential lighting.

H. Exterior security lighting, if provided, has automatic dusk-to-dawn control.

I. If home has a fireplace, it must have a tight-fitting damper and glass screen, and if practical, an outside fresh-air supply.

J. Materials, equipment, design and construction of all electric devices and wiring must comply with all local and national codes.

If you're interested in finding out more about energy-efficient living, call these builders. They'll be happy to give you more details about the benefits you enjoy in EEE Award homes.

Yes, you can make your present home more energy efficient.

Detroit Edison's Home Insulation Finance Plan is designed to help you bring your present home up to today's energy-saving standards. Ask about it at your Detroit Edison Customer Office. Here are other things you can do to help conserve energy and also save money: Put up storm windows and doors; Check weatherstripping and caulking; Dial down in winter and dial up in summer; Lower furnace fan settings; Keep electric appliances in good repair. That way, we'll all be using energy more wisely.

Pick up a free copy of "Planning a New Home" at any Detroit Edison Customer Office. Or call Detroit Edison for more information.

Launch Intensive Drive Promoting Seatbelt Use

"Somebody Needs You", the intensive information and education program that produced such a reported dramatic increase in safety belt usage in Western Michigan recently was unveiled in the Detroit area Monday, August 29.

Sydney L. Terry, vice-president, Public Responsibility and Consumer Affairs, Chrysler Corporation, a spokesman for Motorists Information, Inc., told reporters at a press conference Thursday that "the program has clearly demonstrated that a well conceived campaign using the right messages supported by facts and effective communications techniques, can indeed persuade people to wear safety belts despite the claims to the contrary and the failure of past campaigns."

Although practically every previous communications effort to get people to fasten their safety belts has failed, the "Somebody Needs You" campaign conducted in Western Michigan from April 4, to May 14, 1977, produced significant results according to Mr. Terry.

Using television and radio, supported by outdoor posters, newspaper advertising, and a Speakers Bureau, the Grand Rapids campaign appealed to people to wear safety belts because "Somebody Needs You," and then added facts showing the lives and injuries that would be saved if everybody wore the belts now in their automobiles.

The research study by Lin-corp Corporation showed that those who said they wore safety belts "always" or "most of the time" reported an increase from 29 percent to 41 percent, with a corresponding decrease in the number who said they never wore their belts from 42 percent to 32 percent. Replies to other survey questions reflecting attitudinal change were similarly encouraging and consistent.

A question designed to validate attitudes expressed in other studies asked people if they would support, object or not care about a requirement that everyone wear safety belts. Before the campaign, 48 percent said they would support such a requirement or not care one way or the other. Following the campaign, 62 percent said they would support the requirement or not care.

Following the success of the campaign in the Grand Rapids / Kalamazoo / Muskegon/Battle Creek markets, it will now be conducted throughout the entire State of Michigan.

In addition to coverage in the Metro Detroit, Flint/Saginaw/Bay City/ Midland and Lansing / Jackson markets, the program was introduced into the Marquette and Traverse City/ Alpena areas the previous week. The entire campaign will run until November 7, 1977.

Speakers will be available for presentations to civic, educational, business and fraternal organizations throughout the State. Arrangements may be made by contacting Ross Roy, Inc., 2751 East Jefferson, Detroit, Michigan 48207.

The safety belt program is sponsored by Motorists Information, Inc., a non-profit corporation initially funded by the domestic automobile manufacturers to conduct information and education and education programs on public issues related to the motor vehicle. MII is not an advocate of any particular viewpoint, but is formed solely to inform and educate, Mr. Terry said.

The safety belt campaign is the first program undertaken by the new corporation, formed December 1, 1976. Government reports indicate that more than 16,000 lives can be saved and 900,000 injuries can be prevented each year if everyone would wear the safety belts now installed in their cars.

Houses Array

The rotary motion washing machine was patented long before such machines were electric. Hamilton Erastus Smith gained a patent on October 26, 1858, for a device which used a hand crank, causing a perforated cylinder within a wooden shell to revolve, turning and washing clothes at the same time. The many fascinations of early domestic living are part of the lure of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, which houses a wide array of domestic items in its collections.

Enjoy distinctive dining at LAMBARDI'S RESTAURANT, 17125 E. Warren at Cadieux, TU 5-9100. We feature many Italian specialties, seafoods, chickens, steaks and chops. Also enjoy our specially selected house wines, California's finest Burgundy, Rose' and Chablis, served by the glass, 1/2 litre and full litre. Cocktails available for your pleasure as well as premium draft beer.

Horace said that "the chief pleasure in eating does not consist in costly seasoning or exquisite flavor but in yourself." For today's world, the statement might be somewhat altered to the effect that the chief pleasure in eating does not consist of costly seasoning or exquisite flavor but in yourself and a dish attractively served. Even simple dishes can attain elegance if served with a pretty place setting, cloth rather than paper napkins, in napkin holders, the food arranged nicely on the plate with perhaps a simple sprig of parsley or a slice of lemon for decoration, and a single flower in a vase.

Design Honor Award Won By Bon Secours Hospital

The interior of Bon Secours Hospital, created by Rossetti Associates/Architects Planners, recently received the Design Honor Award for 1977, presented annually for outstanding architectural achievement by the Michigan Society of Architects.

To improve medical services, Bon Secours initiated a renovation program in 1972. Since then, Rossetti Associates have worked closely with hospital personnel to design space which offers optimal health care delivery.

The designs used at Bon Secours have received two state awards.

Renovation of the hospital's interiors included the application of large wall graphics. The forms and colors used reduced the institutional atmosphere, in an attempt to provide a pleasant environment for patient recovery.

A striking example of the use of graphics is Bon Secours' pediatrics unit. Bright colored designs illuminate walls with dancing clowns and flying balloons. The graphics surround the play room and other patient rooms designed especially for youngsters.

To receive the award, an architect must accomplish more than aesthetic achievement. Designs must also be practical.

At Bon Secours, Rossetti Associates faced a difficult problem because construction could not disturb the hospital's on-going patient and community services. Consequently, the renovation had to be done in carefully planned phases.

In 1975, the firm also received the Design Honor Award in Masonry, an award co-sponsored by the Masonry Institute of Michigan and the Michigan Society of Architects.

Respecting the architectural character of surrounding neighborhoods, Rossetti Associates made extensive use of masonry in constructing Bon Secours' exterior.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

Last week I began the first of two columns on our Project GO, (Goals and Outcomes), for 1977-78 in the school system.

I mentioned that a tentative draft for the coming year had been prepared which contains a record of the operation of all centralized departments and organized in the following format: Major Achievements, Status Report, Goals and Outcomes, Unfinished Projects and New Problems and Recommendations for Future Action.

Since then, the Board of Education has approved system-wide goals for the 1977-78 year. They acted officially at the Monday, August 22, special meeting.

In order that readers of this paper will understand the evaluation of some of our goals for the new year, let us examine in this context the accomplishments of one of our most important components of the central office, the Department of Instruction.

In the last year, the Department of Instruction was reorganized so that its staff could perform more efficiently the many important supportive tasks required for the smooth functioning of our educational program at the elementary, middle and senior high levels.

Currently, the Department of Instruction, headed by Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, is composed of an Office of Elementary Education, an Office of Secondary Education and three other divisions including: Career and Vocational Education, Community Services and Media Services.

Let's look at the listing of major achievements of the Department of Instruction. The basic statement covering 21 points for 1975-76 and 1976-77 contains such summary items as these:

"Coordinated the process of administrative evaluation; coordinated and prepared the proposal for senior high school final examinations; worked with the directors of elementary and secondary education in the development of in-service programs, staff development activities, hand-book for extra pay for extra duty and departmental budgets."

The status report for the Department of Instruction begins with this statement: "The Reorganization of the Department of Instruction in 1976-77 into three major divisions of Research and Development, Elementary Education and Secondary Education has increased the quantity and improved the quality of the services to each level of the school system."

"Although responsibilities are still being defined, the willingness of the people involved to compromise and see each other's point of view has made a success of this major change. Not to be overlooked is the high capability of the people selected for each of the positions."

The listing of Goals and Outcomes for 1975-76 for the Department of Instruction contains three sections: goal, responsibility and process and outcome. The following is an example which will enable the reader to understand the format.

Here is one of the 11 three-part statements, "Goal: Utilize Citizens Study Committee for input in major decisions in the K-12 English curriculum." "Responsibility and Process: Ad Hoc Committee of the PTA/PTO Council" and "Outcome: K-12 Language Arts Scope and Sequence completed. Materials selected and recommended for program implementation. Work begun on a required writing workshop course of study."

Under "Unfinished and Ongoing Projects" we note that among the eight statements is the following: "Study and assess the performance effectiveness of the elementary school first assistants and the secondary school department chairpersons."

And among the 11 "Recommendations for Future Action" is this: "Work with the principals and the superintendent of schools in the continued improvement of administrative evaluations."

As a result of this column, I hope that readers will gain a better understanding of what implementation of the Project GO model means to the school system. It has added, and is adding, in a systematic way, an important new dimension to the operation of our school district.

Advice on Tests Offered by ETS

If you are going back to school this fall, or have children who will be, chances are you or they will be taking one or more standardized tests in the coming school year.

While no special test-taking techniques can take the place of the skills and knowledge measured by such a test, Educational Testing Service, (ETS), reports there are some general guidelines that can help students do their best.

ETS designs many of the nation's major multiple-choice tests, from reading readiness exams for first graders to admission tests for prospective graduate school students.

First, says ETS, learn about the nature of the test. If it's a test of academic ability, just what skills is it supposed to measure? Are they verbal, quantitative or what? Certainly teachers can give briefings about tests used in the classroom.

But if you plan to take a major standardized test offered nationally, and if a descriptive booklet accompanies your registration form, read it carefully. In almost all cases it tells you just about all you need to know about the test, and probably includes sample questions, as well.

If you're scheduled for an achievement test in a particular subject, it's best to review the subject matter.

What Goes On at Your Library

Agatha Christie, Dorothy Sayers and Margery Allingham are immediately called to mind when considering female mystery writers. But how many of us are acquainted with the female mystery masters of the 1970's? The following authors may well be considered the bright lights of the future:

Ruth Rendell, 47-years-old and a former journalist, has written 15 mysteries which span the years 1964 to the present time.

Her latest, A DEMON IN MY VIEW, (Doubleday, 1976), is a story of psychological suspense complete with macabre twists of fate that have become Ms. Rendell's trademark and earned her a large following of who-dunit fans.

The title is borrowed from a poem written by Edgar Allan Poe which has disturbing psychological overtones that have been neatly fitted into the story's plot.

Sara Woods, an English mystery novelist, has had enough experience in a law office to be praised for her handling of courtroom scenes.

All her books have been about English lawyer-detective Anthony Maitland, and all her titles are lines from Shakespeare.

IN ENTER THE CORPSE, (Holt, Rinehart, 1974), the body is found in a private home's hallway and all suspects are naturally connected in some way with the family. The title of this book was taken from Shakespeare's RICHARD III. Here, Maitland helps save a friend's uncle from a murder charge, solves the murder and recovers a fortune in gold!

Hot off the press is LAWS DELAY, (St. Martin Press, 1977), Ms. Wood's most recent mystery. This title has been gleaned from Shakespeare's HAMLET and the legal delay is that the modus operandi was derived from a bizarre double-murder which had taken place 20 years earlier.

Again Anthony Maitland must shift from barrister to detective in order to unravel the mystery and save his client from a murder charge.

Catherine Aird, also English, has written some 10 mysteries—most of them are about CID Inspector Sloan, an intelligent sleuth.

One of her earlier books, HENRIETTA WHO, (MacDonald, 1968), was selected as one of the best books of that year because many critics were intrigued by the plight of the daughter who is told that her mother, just killed by a hit-and-run driver, had never borne children.

Her newest book, SLIGHT MOURNING, (Doubleday, 1976), is a well-plotted tale of a dinner party for eight guests who survive the host. The characters are quite amusing especially Miss Cynthia Paterson who considers herself a "connoisseur" of a good funeral! A gossipy, leisurely mystery.

Elizabeth LeMarchand, writer of some half dozen mysteries thus far, recently published STEP IN THE DARK, (Walker, 1976).

Ms. LeMarchand provides the reader with a listing of the characters plus a detailed diagram of the murder site.

The setting is the Ramsden Literary and Scientific Society, England, where a corpse with a fractured skull is found and Detective-Superintendent Tom Pollard is called in to solve the most difficult mystery of his career!

In addition to her writing, Ms. LeMarchand took honors at the University of Exeter in history and is most interested in local history and archaeology.

The newest of these mystery writers, Marie R. Reno has only one mystery yet attributed to her but is worth mentioning because she has demonstrated real talent in this genre.

FINAL PROOF, (Harper and Row, 1976), is a murder-mystery set within the New York publishing world. The author can comfortably create this environment because of her own long and notable career in the book-club world. While the book surely has the necessary elements of a good whodunit, the business of publishing chronicled herein provides more fascinating reading.

After reading this book, one would hope that Ms. Reno will soon come back with another one!

Watch for these five mystery writers because they each have their own gimmicks and can provide much reading pleasure for years to come. These and many other good mysteries are available at the library.

Jewels & gems

by Jerry-Valente

The definition of "crystal" is simply clear, uncolored glass. Most people, however, use the word to refer to fine glassware, especially to the type made with lead. There are legal standards of composition, by which glass must have a certain amount of lead oxide in order to be called "lead crystal." This added lead gives glass extra weight, resilience, and sparkle. A slight tinge of blue can help identify leaded glass; it also rings when tapped with a pencil. But much fine glassware is produced from plain lead glass, so the lead content should never determine the choice of a stemware pattern.

Bayview Takes Scherer Honor

Skipper Stu Argo of the Bayview Yacht Club and his crew, Tim Askew, took a first, second and third to win the J. Otto Scherer Memorial Junior Sailing Championship on Sunday, August 28, at the Crescent Sail Yacht Club.

Fresh 18 to 20-knot south-west winds provided a real challenge to the competitors sailing the three races in 15-foot flying junior sloops.

Before and during the races, there were four capsize but all boats managed to finish. The Argo-Askew pair, winners with five and three-quarter points, were followed by skipper John McAllister and Jane Sherry of Crescent Sail with six and three-quarter points.

Skipper Greg Drais and Andy Sloss of the Bayview Yacht Club were third with eight points.

Following were skipper Ron Sherry and John Sherry of Crescent Sail, fourth; skipper Glen Gardner and Mark Shostak of the Great Lakes Yacht Club, fifth; skipper Steve Webster and Henry Bogle of the Grosse Pointe Club, sixth; and skipper Bernie VanAntwerp and Ann Lootens of Great Lakes, seventh.

Commodore Herbert J. Mainwaring, race chairman of the event for 14 years, was assisted by Vice Commodore Roy R. Broman, Mrs. Herbert Mainwaring, John C. Groschner, Bernard Tonowski, Edwin Boothroyd, William R. Sadler and Jo Dan Harting.

Letters to The Editor

To the Editor:
Last weekend, we had out-of-town relatives staying at the Parkcrest Motel. On the way from the motel to our house, one couple became lost near Whittier and Mack. They spotted a Park Police car and asked for directions. The officer's reply was, "Follow me."

Were we surprised to see our aunt and uncle arrive with a police escort?

This little act of courtesy prompted me to take the time to acknowledge our appreciation of our fine police force.

What would you give for a love letter in Ernest Hemingway's handwriting?

How would you like to own the original 1931 press pass issued to sportswriter Ring Lardner?

These are two of the many rare and interesting items already donated to the Friends of the Detroit Public Library, to be auctioned off Friday, October 28, at the Detroit Public Library's Main Branch in Woodward avenue.

The auction part of the Rare Book and Manuscript Sale and Auction begins at 8:30 in the evening in the Friends Auditorium.

It will be preceded by an all-day Antiquarian Book Fair during which some 30 midwest dealers will set up booths on the library premises, and by a 7 o'clock, reserved-seat, gourmet dinner in Adam Stroh Hall.

It's all being planned under the leadership of general chairperson Joanne (Mrs. Ned) Chalat, of Middlesex boulevard.

The festival's continued success and expansion are due in large part to the hard work of festival committees past and present.

has been arranged from Grosse Pointe South High School for the exhibitors, increasing the amount of guest parking at the War Memorial. Additional guest parking will be available on the south side of Lakeshore road and at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church lot.

Bells will peal from the Memorial Church carillon to delight artists and browser/shoppers alike, and there will be prizes: art work and crafts donated by members of the GPAA and exhibitors.

The Grosse Pointe Artists Association's Fall Festival has come a long way from the first Curbstone Art Fair held in the Village in 1959. To maintain a high quality, all artists are juried before being accepted as exhibitors.

Proceeds from artists' entry fees and prize tickets will be donated to the Memorial Center's new Art Wing, which will accommodate expanding classes in many phases of art, lectures and exhibitions.

The festival's continued success and expansion are due in large part to the hard work of festival committees past and present.

Michigan State University Alumni Are at Home in Kansas City; May Rites Are Followed by Dinner at Grosse Pointe Hunt Club

At Timothy R. Miller whose wedding Saturday, May 14, in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church was followed by a reception at the church and dinner at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

Mrs. Miller is the former Beth Ann Kray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kray, of Aline drive.

Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred H. Miller, of Lockport, N.Y.

Dr. Robert Linthicum presided at the 4:30 o'clock ceremony for which the bride chose a white Qiana gown.

Her y-necked bodice and flared cuffs were accented with pearls and Alencon lace.

She wore a tiara of baby's breath in her hair and carried a cascade of white Sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Honor maid Sally Fairless and bridesmaids Sue Reed, a former Pointer who now resides in Bay City, Jo Nevill, of Hollywood, Fla., a former Michigan State University classmate of the bride, and Barbara Campbell, of Shawnee, Kans., a co-worker at The Drovers' Journal where the bride is feature editor, carried Colonial bouquets of white daisies and blue bachelor buttons.

They tucked daisies in their hair and wore matching, princess style frocks of Qiana, in four shades of blue.

Best man was Dennis Crenshaw, of Dallas, Texas, a Michigan State University friend of the bridegroom who recently completed a Masters program in Meat Science at MSU and is now working for the Williams Meat Company in Kansas City.

Tom Miller and Terry Miller, brothers of the bridegroom, and George Good, of East Lansing, another MSU friend, ushered.

Children in the wedding party were Sheila, Sharon and Sharlene Swing, of Newfane, N.Y., who wore floor length, pale blue polyester knits, lace-edged at yokes and sleeves. With them walked Frank, Craig and Donny Cugini, of St. Clair Shores, wearing blue suits and boutonnieres.

Mrs. Kray chose a floor length, pastel aqua knit and a matching jacket, featuring finely-pleated sleeves, for her daughter's wedding. She pinned a corsage of white cymbidium orchids to her ensemble.

A chiffon print overlay covered the bridegroom's mother's formal length gown of mint green polyester crepe. She wore a wrist corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds vacationed in northern Michigan and Lockport, where the bridegroom's parents held a reception in their honor.

Cottage Trains Medical Aides

Fourteen senior high school students were graduated August 24 from a Medical Aide Co-op class at Cottage Hospital and are now qualified to work as nurse aides and orderlies in hospitals and nursing homes.

The five-week course, jointly sponsored by the Grosse Pointe high schools and Cottage Hospital, was the second session of the summer. It took the place of the usual winter course.

Families and friends attended the graduation ceremony. The students were greeted by Cottage Administrator Ralph L. Wilgarde, who presented them with diplomas and pins.

Loujane Beynon, Co-op coordinator of Grosse Pointe schools, introduced special guests Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, assistant superintendent of Instruction, Rose Bellanca, Co-op coordinator, Grosse Pointe North High, and Elizabeth Gray, a Medical Aide Co-op graduate.

Also taking part were Erika Gentsch and Victoria Boyce, Cottage Inservice Education instructors.

During their training, the students divided their five weeks between classroom work and work on the medical-surgical units on afternoon and evening shifts. Some of them will be employed by Cottage Hospital while they finish their last year of high school.

From Grosse Pointe South, the graduates are Lisa Davis, Renee DuFour, Maryellen Gleason, Gwen Gloss, Elizabeth Gray, Aileen Kiska and Rick Saier.

From Grosse Pointe North, they are Carolyn Freismuth, Shari Gardner, Ann Harned, Deanne Pack, Bradley Van Assche, Patti Wieckowski and Mary Hallman.

Audition Dates Set by DSYO

Auditions for Membership in the Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra, presenting its eighth season in Ford Auditorium during 1977-78, will be held at the auditorium during two weekends next month: September 17, 18 and 19 for wind and percussion; September 23, 24 and 26 for string players.

Any talented musician between 11 and 30 living in the Detroit metropolitan area is eligible to audition.

Audition materials, (excerpts selected from the regular orchestral repertoire), and information about the coming DSYO season may be obtained by calling the orchestra at 961-0700.

Besides the regular full DSYO rehearsals, held most Saturdays from late September through April, sectional rehearsals are held under the guidance of members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, whose coaching and assistance has been an important contribution to the general development of the youth orchestra.

In addition, this year DSO music director Antal Dorati and several of the DSO's guest conductors have been invited to conduct DSYO rehearsals as their schedules permit.

The DSYO also has a number of scholarships available for the purpose of providing deserving students with the opportunity to study privately with Detroit Symphony players.

This season's schedule in Ford Auditorium includes concerts on November 27, January 22 and March 5, all under the direction of DSYO conductor Philip Greenberg.

Wind and percussion auditions will be held in Ford Auditorium: September 17 and 18, Saturday and Sunday, from 9 in the morning to 10 in the evening, and September 19, Monday, from 1:30 to 10 in the evening.

String auditions will be held in the Auditorium September 23, Friday, from 1:30 to 6 o'clock, September 24, Saturday, from 9 to 6 o'clock, and September 26, Monday, from 9 in the morning to 10 in the evening.

GPYC Commodore Reviews His Fleet

Traditional Mid-Summer Festivity Concludes with Formal, Candlelight Dinner Dance on Lakeside Lawn

Commodore William Plante, with respect for the long-established customs of the sea, authorized the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club fleet to dress ship under sail and to use cannon in salute for the 48th annual GPYC Commodore's Fleet Review Saturday, August 13.

Commodore Plante and his wife Shirlee were honored on board the flagship Helene, a 110-foot yacht which sailed out of the harbor under full dress, serenaded by Mexican mariachis, and anchored in front of the club.

Fleet Captain Fred Schriever then led the fleet in formal review and an exchange of salutes.

Each yacht's cannon fired a salute. Hand salutes were held until the Commodore returned them and his flagship answered with cannon fire, a tradition adopted by yachtsmen in the early 19th century.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Verbiest were hosts aboard the Helene, celebrating her 50th year on the Great Lakes.

Among those on board were GPYC Vice Commodore and Mrs. James Taylor, Rear Commodore and Mrs. Sheldon Hall, Secretary and Mrs. Paul Eagan and directors Roy Barbier, James Daoust, George Kriese and their wives.

Past GPYC Commodores and their wives on hand for the festivities were the Harold De Orlows, the George Beards, (who flew in from Chicago for the event), the Curtis Carmichaels, the Ralph Klibers, the Harold Crosses, the Roger Smiths and the Paul Marcos.

While the fleet review was in progress, shore members and their guests, in summer formal, watched the spectacle from the pool deck, enjoying cocktails and the mariachi guitars.

After the boat parties and poolside party there was a candlelight dinner and dancing to the 17-piece Austin Moro Orchestra.

Alpha Phi Alumnae Aid Saint John

Viewing Saint John Hospital's Coronary Care Unit's existing Telemetry Units are, (front row, left and center), MRS. RICHARD TERRIEN and MRS. OLE CHRISTENSEN, past-president and current president, respectively, of the Detroit East Suburban Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Phi fraternity, and MRS. SAM ULMER, co-chairman of the alumnae's most recent Lollipop Sale with MRS. FRANK P. McBRIDE, (back row, left), and JAMES T. FARLEY, president and chief executive officer of the hospital.

Cardiac Aid has been Alpha Phi's national philanthropy since 1946. The local alumnae have presented a check for $1,500, raised over the past year through lollipop sales, to Saint John.

The funds will go toward the purchase of a Memory Loop for the Telemetry Units.

Lollipop cannisters were placed all over the East Side area, in tennis houses, beauty salons, dry cleaners and banks. They were used by teachers for parties through-out the elementary school year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robert Duncan, whose wedding Saturday, June 11, in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, was followed by a reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Ballroom, are at home in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Duncan is the former Barbara Jane Haigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Haigh, of Hawthorne road. Co-officiating at the 12:30 o'clock rites with The Reverend Paul Hiyama, of Christ Church, was Dr. Donald C. Wilson, of Lancaster, Pa., the bride's uncle, who performed the service at the bride's parents' wedding 29 years before, in the same church.

Duchess lace accented the bodice and hem of the former Miss Haigh's Empire-waisted, pointe d'esprit gown. Matching lace trimmed her cathedral length veil.

She carried a nosegay of white daisy mums and yellow Sweetheart roses.

Honor maid Kathleen Kiley and bridesmaids Constance Fitch, cousin of the bride, Carol McQueen and Barbara Duncan, the bridegroom's sister, carried nosegays of white and yellow daisy mums.

They wore floor length, high-necked, sleeveless, emerald green gowns. Each had a small floral headpiece.

Mr. Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Duncan, Jr., of Michaux lane, asked Jim Carnes to act as best man.

Guests were seated by Tim Freeland, Bruce Duncan, brother of the bridegroom, and Gordon Haigh, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride pinned a white cymbidium orchid to her long-sleeved, floor length, floral-printed gown. The bridegroom's mother, in a pale blue, floor length dress and jacket ensemble, carried a yellow cymbidium orchid.

The newlyweds vacationed in Milbridge, Me.

Let's Talk Real Estate

by John E. Brink

Back in the early days, when our ancestors were fighting off Indians and carving homesteads out of virgin forests, our greatest assets were a fierce spirit of independence and complete confidence in community cooperation.

Whether the newcomer needed a home for his family, a barn for his livestock, stumps pulled or raw sod plowed under, he knew he could count on the voluntary help and free labor of every neighbor to get the job done quickly and without cost or obligation.

Nowhere is that heritage more cherished than in Grosse Pointe, and it is becoming more apparent every day.

According to our records, more than 90% of the Grosse Pointe homeowners interviewed have indicated they'd like safer streets, more beautiful neighborhoods and higher property values throughout the community.

... and like their forefathers, they're joining forces to accomplish that objective.

These modern pioneers are not using axes, plows or shovels, they are simply endorsing the Grosse Pointe Real Estate Company's Cul De Sac plan, completing the one page questionnaire, describing the program to friends and neighbors, and setting up meetings with their block clubs, church groups, social clubs and business associations for our speakers presentations.

When all of the survey forms have been tabulated and our analysis completed, the findings will be presented to each of our municipalities.

... the voters will have spoken!

Don't forget. Call us at 882-0087 to buy or sell a Grosse Pointe home quickly.

Star of Sea Rites For Shelley Rauss

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Is Setting for Reception Following Early Evening Ceremony at Which She Says Vows to Arthur Barone, Jr.

Shelley Anne Rauss chose a gown of ivory Alencon lace applied on English net, its bell sleeves, hem and chapel train bordered with ivory satin, for her Saturday, July 23, wedding to Arthur Peter Barone, Jr.

A lace Juliet cap beaded with seed pearls, matching the seed pearl beading at the neckline of the dress, held her triple-tiered, lace-edged illusion veil.

She carried Sweetheart roses, baby-breath and ivy. The former Miss Rauss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Francis Rauss, of Oxford road, was given in marriage by her father.

Father Hector J. Saulino presided at the 5:15 o'clock rites in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, where a harpist performed a classical selection. A reception followed

The Arthur Barones, Jr.

Wedding vows were spoken Saturday, July 23, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church by SHELLEY ANNE RAUSS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Francis Rauss, of Oxford road, and Mr. Barone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peter Barone, of Brooklyn, N.Y.

at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The newlyweds, who vacationed in northern Michigan and Canada, are making their home in Virginia.

The bride was attended by Mary Helen Werner, of Mount Pleasant, as honor maid, and by bridesmaids Mary Ellen Gallup, Barbara Barone and Mrs. Jon Argularr, sisters of the bridegroom, both from Brooklyn, N.Y., and Mrs. Dennis Rauss, of Ann Arbor.

They wore green, white and yellow paisley peasant dresses of voile, styled with scoop necklines, long sleeves and hem ruffles, and picture hats of natural straw banded in emerald green grosgrain ribbon, and carried Edwardian bouquets.

Mr. Barone, son of the Arthur Peter Barones, of Brooklyn, N.Y., asked Steven Best, of East Brunswick, N.J., to act as best man.

In the usher corps were Dr. Richard Barone, of Bronxville, N.Y., brother of the bridegroom, Dennis Rauss and Kevin Rauss, the bride's brothers, and Dennis Cahill, of Brooklyn.

The bride designed and fashioned her mother's formal length gown of yellow Alencon lace, mandarin-collared and long-sleeved. Mrs. Rauss' corsage was fashioned of green cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore silver blue, tiered chiffon, also floor length. Their corsage was a gardenia.

Among those attending the ceremony were Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. O'Keefe, grandparents of the bride. The O'Keefes have 46 grandchildren—and this was the first granddaughter's wedding they were able to attend.

New Freshmen Camp and Sail

Among Kalamazoo College students beginning their freshman year by participating in a unique Land/Sea orientation program designed to teach them the techniques of coping with changing environments and stressful situations are Joan Thomson, of Three Mile drive, and Laurie Loutens, of Stillmeadow lane.

The Land/Sea experience consists of two weeks of backpacking and canoeing at Ontario's 84,000-acre Killarney Provincial Park, followed by another week aboard the 60-foot square-rigged brigantine Playfair.

While on the Playfair, owned and operated by Toronto Brigantine Corporation, the students are responsible for sailing and maintaining the vessel under the supervision of the ship's captain and mates.

The two weeks in Killarney Provincial Park present students with an opportunity to study nature and the environment through canoeing, sailing, backpacking and rock climbing.

The college provides student and faculty leaders who participate in a week-long training session prior to the start of the program.

Staff members, including faculty leaders who will then serve as the student's academic counselors during their freshman year, accompany the students throughout the program, offering expert guidance in such skills as sailing, navigation, orienteering, canoeing, first aid, cooking, campcraft and biology.

The participating freshmen undergo a brief pre-program training session, which includes a test of swimming ability while fully clothed, to prepare them for the experience ahead.

Now in its fourth year, the Land/Sea program is offered as an alternative to a two-week freshman orientation held on the Kalamazoo College campus.

A catalog will be published prior to the event. Inquiries concerning donations or participation in the Auction/Sale should be addressed to Paul T. Scuphohn, executive secretary, Friends of the Detroit Public Library, 5201 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48202.

Miss Maskey Speaks Vows

Margaret Celia Maskey was the fourth generation to be married at Saint Joseph's Church, Canfield avenue and the Chrysler expressway, when she became the bride of William Roger Harrison Saturday, August 27.

The 4 o'clock rites were followed by a reception at Dearborn Inn. The couple will be residing in Toledo.

A Volunteer Summer For Carter Brothers

Stephen Carter, 14, and his brother Mike, 16, of Roslyn road, have been "in uniform" — short-sleeved, red battle jackets — this summer.

The Carter Brothers are two of 11 young men and women working as teen volunteers at the Harper Hospital Division of Harper-Grace Hospitals through tomorrow.

The program is scheduled to end September 2, for school re-opens after Labor Day. It is not a new service. Prior to 1975, Harper's teen volunteers were known as Candy Strippers, named for their candy-striped, pink and white pinafores.

Then boys were accepted in the program . . . and "I didn't think they would want to be called Candy Strippers," says Carol Cobane, Harper's director of volunteers. Now all the teens are known simply as teen volunteers.

Stephen Carter has been volunteering his time to the staff of Harper's Central Processing and Distribution. Mike has been in the Graphic Arts Department.

The former Miss Maskey is the daughter of Mrs. Henry C. Maskey, a one-time Pointe resident who now makes her home in Southfield, and the late Mr. Maskey, who were married October 25, 1947, at Saint Joseph's.

The bride's great-grandmother and great-grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rostanowski, started the tradition in September, 1892. Her grandmother and grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Kosowski, were married September 20, 1921, in the same parish.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harrison, of Toledo.

Top Designer to Attend Bon Secours Benefit

Kasper, a three time Coty Award winner, will attend the black-tie benefit sponsored by Jacobson's for the Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League. The cocktail party and fashion show will feature Kasper's complete fall collection the evening of Saturday, September 10. Tickets still available from Mrs. Chilton Drysdale, 882-7250.

This evening promises to be even more exciting than in past years since Kasper arrives with his entourage of Choreographer, Mallory Hathaway plus his favorite model, Mary. All are flying in from New York to rehearse the seventeen local models with especially prepared music for the event. Sumptuous hors d'oeuvres are being created and, of course, beverages for each particular palate will be served.

One of the top creative designers in contemporary fashion, Kasper has always been noted for superb ability to anticipate trends, as well as combine exciting prints, textures, and colorations. His collections reflect a youthful but sophisticated spirit with a wide range of design from casual town and country clothes to elegant and luxurious later day and evening ensembles.

Always a student of lifestyles, Kasper attended New York University to formally study English and advertising. When his college days were cut short by World War II to serve with our Occupation Forces in Germany, he surprised himself by designing for Army shows.

Returning to his native New York after the war, Kasper entered Parsons School of Design, because of a protegee of Fred Frederics, (partner of the original millinery firm of John Frederics). Then at Fred Frederics's suggestion went on to Paris for further study.

Through the Chambre Syndicate de la Couture Parisienne, he worked for Jacques Farh, Marcel Rochas and as a free lance designer-sketcher for "Elle" magazine.

Back in New York, Kasper designed hats for John Frederics and costumes for Broadway musicals before joining Arnold and Fox in 1953 where he remained for seven years.

Kasper's lifestyle involves a lot of personal and social contact with customers and friends. Each year he travels to Europe. Weekend evenings he often finds himself at a preview of a gallery or museum presentation, or attending the theatre or sampling one of the new restaurants in town.

Weekends he's on the tennis courts (an avid player) or in the country enjoying quiet relaxation and a respite from the activity of the week.

Occasionally, too, he travels throughout the U.S. on trips that bring him into contact with his customers; it's a part of his schedule, he describes as not only interesting, but extremely pleasant and stimulating to creative thinking.

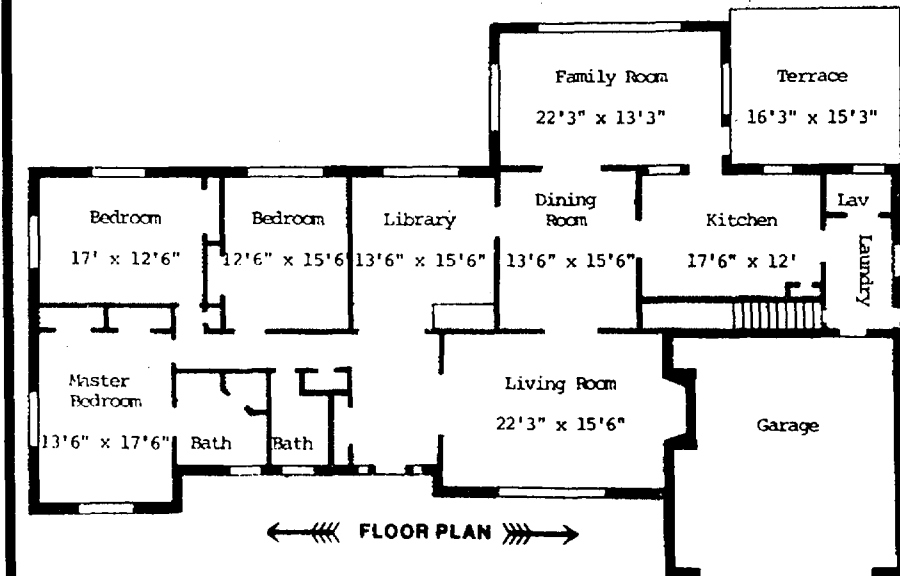

In 1976, Kasper won his third Coty Award which has put him into the Hall of Fame. This is the highest award that can be given to an American Fashion Designer.

GLASS IS MEANT TO SEE THROUGH . . . That's why so much of it went into the construction of this five bedroom, skylighted, contemporary home in the heart of the Farms. Verdant vistas drenched in the shade of mature trees remain just a window away. The spectacular suite-down, thirty foot long living room, master suite with private patio, the barn siding in the large family and breakfast room, extra wide fireplaces, first floor utility room, parquet floors, atrium, and recreation room are just a few extra details that give a hint of the thought and attention that the present owner gave to functional living when he built the home in 1961. Convenient location. Early possession.

NATURE PROVIDES MUCH OF THE DECOR that compliments this charmingly decorated four bedroom center entrance Colonial. Meticulously maintained by the present owner, for example: painted two years ago, gutters are 3 years old, family room was built 4 years ago, Mutschler kitchen was built 8 years ago. Fireplaces in the library, family room and living room.

A LITTLE TENDER LOVING CARE . . . is all this house needs to give its new owner years of satisfactory service. Cut glass windows and doors, a magnificent fireplace, large kitchen, living room and dining room are outstanding features of this four bedroom English home in the Farms. Convenient to schools, transportation and shopping.

DON'T JUDGE . . . this spacious ranch until you've seen it. Two large bedrooms, large living room, dining and family rooms. Oak paneled library that could be used as a third bedroom. Tiled recreation room with fireplace. Convenient to schools.

WELL CARED FOR . . . Center Entrance Cape Cod, located in the Farms. Featuring large living room, dining room, library and 1st floor lav. Upstairs, large master bedroom + 2 additional bedrooms and bath. Finished recreation area in basement. Quick possession can be negotiated. Priced realistically under $55,000.

THE SUMMER RUSH IS OVER—OR IS IT?

Not at Strongman, Kelly. We're busier than any August in History. If you're trying to decide who will help you; whether to intelligently and creatively merchandise your home for its peak market value, or to help you intelligently invest in "a lot of happiness" with a roof over it, give us a call. The chance is "yours" why not pick a winner!

OPEN SUNDAY 2-5

1380 DEVONSHIRE

Picture an all brick center entrance colonial set back on a spacious 70' lot with attractive landscaping. Three bedrooms and two full baths are on the second floor. There's a formal dining room, and inviting living room on either side of the front hall, and a lavatory, of course. But the big exciting news is the family room. It's dramatic, extra big, and the cathedral ceiling just adds to the charming presentation this entire home makes. The last reason to make this the first house you see Sunday is the price . . . it's just been reduced, and immediate occupancy is possible!

OPEN SUNDAY 2-5

FIRST OFFERING
I Absolutely clean as a pin and ideal for a young couple or single owner, this two bedroom ranch has an extra big living room-dining room combination with fireplace, gas heat, low taxes, generous lot and attached garage, all for . . . are you ready for this $31,000!

GRACIOUS, SPACIOUS, AND IN THE CITY!
Not only are there 6 bedrooms and 3½ baths, there's that special something called charm which is evident throughout this fine 11 room house. Delayed possession allows you plenty of time for a spring occupancy . . . $85,500.

FAMILY SIZED COLONIAL
If you're tired of tiny colonials, rejoice! There's enough room, closet space, and bathrooms for your family in this value-packed four bedroom, 2½ bath colonial. And the list of extras that fill this fine home include: Central air, with electronic filtration, attached automatic 2½ car garage, spacious 80' lot, new carpeting in almost all the rooms, and a family room, too. Top value in the low 80's!

ONE OF THE FEW TRULY UNIQUE MANSIONS NOW AVAILABLE.

Why try to do this special investment justice with words; when you're discussing an 18 room home with carriage house, only an inspection of the premises will answer your many questions. For a sneak preview turn to page 12.

WHO NEEDS IT?
Let's face it. Not everyone who wants and needs both Grosse Pointe's fine school system and the beautiful parks can afford the "forty-plus" that most starter homes are priced at. We'd like to tell you about $21,000, and the excellent 3 bedroom, two bath frame home that it will buy. Who needs it? Maybe you do.

EDGAR

DOESN'T SOUND LIKE GROSSE POINTE, however this mini estate is in the heart of the Farms and tucked away at the end of a private drive. The acre-plus lot is densely wooded with enough room for tennis court and pool. Designed by Girard and Yamasaki, this contemporary home "opens up" to the outdoors, yet is completely private. There are four bedrooms and four baths in the owner's wing. Two more bedrooms are in the service wing. Living here you'll enjoy the best of two worlds... both inside and out.

THAT LITTLE BIG HOUSE with the first floor master suite is now on the market. It comes neatly packaged on Tonnancour Road in the center of the Farms, just a block from the Lake Shore and the Country Club. There are two fine bedrooms on the second floor with a large connecting bathroom. There also is a third bedroom and bath for live-in help. If this is what you have been waiting for, the wait was worth it.

ENJOY CONDOMINIUM living at its best in a fabulous colonial building in Shorepointe. This spacious, two bedroom apartment has a large sitting room off the master bedroom and a large formal dining room. The two story living room is most impressive with its French fireplace and high ceilings.

YOU'LL BE A BELIEVER when you find this house has two first floor family bedrooms and two more on the second floor. In addition there is a separate apartment with living room and fireplace. These quarters have direct access to the main house and by separate outside entrance. All this on an acre-sized lot with heated swimming pool and greenhouse.

WHAT A STARTER HOUSE! This little colonial has aluminum siding and has a first floor bedroom and another upstairs. There is a one car garage and the furnace and roof are less than two years old. Total price, $15,000.

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE to get away from it all? Get out in the Woods where you share your surroundings with only the birds and squirrels. Each year creeping urban sprawl makes it more difficult to find such a haven. It now takes over an hour to drive out of town. We can offer you your own private woods right here in Grosse Pointe Farms. They come with a contemporary house so special it has been featured in several architectural books.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms MICHIGANNOTICE OF HEARING ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

Notice is hereby given that the Zoning Board of Appeals will meet in the City Hall at 90 Kerby Road, Grosse Pointe Farms, on at 8:00 p.m. to hear the appeal of Miss Marguerite Stroh, owner of the premises located at 30 Lee Gate, for a variance from the provisions of Article XIII, Section 1300 of the City's Zoning Ordinance, which requires a side yard of at least 10% of the lot width. Miss Stroh proposes to create buildable parcels of land on the westerly and easterly portions of her property, each having a width of 150 feet for the center parcel on which her home is located, legally described as lots 19 through 25 and the westerly 10 feet of lot 26. The proposed parcel of 150 feet width would require a side yard of 10% of width, or a minimum of 15 feet. The side yard created on the westerly side of the existing building, however, is 12 feet, thereby requiring a variance as requested. A copy of the plan is on file with the City Clerk.

Miss Stroh will submit to the City requests to create separate tax parcels of the appropriate buildable size as indicated above at or prior to the time of the aforesaid hearing.

The Hearing will be public. Interested property owners or residents of the City are invited to attend.

Notice is hereby given that the Zoning Board of Appeals will meet in the City Hall at 90 Kerby Road, Grosse Pointe Farms, on Monday, September 19, 1977

at 8:00 p.m. to hear the appeal of Mr. Walter V. Bernard, owner of the premises located at 251 Hamilton Court, from the denial of the Building Department to issue a Permit for the construction of a new family room to the rear of his home at the foregoing address. Such Permit issuance was denied for reason that:

1. The residence located on the foregoing premises is non-conforming for reason that it projects into the required open rear yard space in violation of the provisions of Article XIII, Section 1300 of the City's Zoning Ordinance, and in accordance with the provisions of Article XV, Section 1502 Item 4-A of the City's Zoning Ordinance, no such structure may be enlarged or structurally altered unless a variance is granted.

2. The proposed addition of a family room to the rear of the home located at the foregoing address further infringes upon minimum required open rear yard space of 30 feet, leaving a rear yard of 14 feet, and thereby requiring a variance from the provisions of Article XIII, Section 1300 of the City's Zoning Ordinance.

The Hearing will be public. Interested property owners or residents of the City are invited to attend.

Pointer of Interest

PHILIP VAN TIEM, OF KENSINGTON ROAD

By Dave Robertson

The "Roots" phenomenon, the search for one's ancestors did not begin with Alex Haley. Philip M. Van Tiem, of Kensington road, began his search years before Mr. Haley even dreamed of his roots.

Mr. Van Tiem, patient accounting manager for Saint John Hospital, and his wife Darleen have two children, Bradford, seven, and Molly, three, who will always be aware of their ancestry because of their father's efforts.

Mr. Van Tiem has made the study of The Pointe, and particularly the Van Tiem family history, a lifetime hobby and pleasure.

Mr. Van Tiem's search for his roots has carried him into libraries, city offices, church file cabinets, foreign countries and even graveyards.

Both Are Fascinating The Van Tiem story and the history of The Pointe which have emerged from his work are both fascinating. Mr. Van Tiem's ancestors came from Holland in the mid-19th century.

"They came for several reasons," he explains, "one being the religious persecution at that time in Holland. The 'buchenriders,' a sort of Protestant KKK in Holland, would ride through Catholic communities, burning houses and destroying crops."

Another reason, according to Mr. Van Tiem, was the Franco-Prussian War brewing at that time.

One of the first ancestors Mr. Van Tiem can trace back to is Peter Frances Van Assche, who, with his wife, Petronella Back Van Assche, left Holland in 1856. The voyage across the Atlantic reportedly took several months.

Settled on Pointe Farm They settled in The Pointe on a farm just north of Vernier road. Their house, pictured in a historical volume of the area, was unusual because of its octagonal shape.

On September 26, 1857, Peter and Petronella had a baby girl, Mary Ann Antonio Van Assche, destined to become Philip Van Tiem's grandmother.

Mary Ann Van Assche was baptized in Saint Paul's Church, still the house of worship for Philip Van Tiem and many of his relatives.

Mary Ann Van Assche married Henry Van Tiem in 1879. Henry had come to The Pointe in 1870, also from Holland, with his mother Arnolda Van Tiem, a widow, and his three brothers and four sisters.

Henry and Mary had six boys and three girls, one of whom was August Gerald Van Tiem, Philip Van Tiem's father.

Henry and Mary lived in Moran road near the Sacred Heart Convent and Academy for Young Girls, established in 1883, where Henry worked.

Served in WW I After service with the 20th Combat Engineers in World War I, August Van Tiem returned to The Pointe where he began work as a farmer and landscaper for several of the large estates.

In 1922, August Van Tiem married Mary Margaret Power, an immigrant from Ireland. They too lived in The Pointe, building their home as August established his own landscaping business. August and Mary had five sons and three daughters, of whom Philip Van Tiem is one. True to the family roots, all the boys still live in The Pointe.

With all those Van Tiems having so many children and remaining in the area, it's not surprising that most Pointers will run across a Van Tiem or two in their lifetime.

"There are at least a dozen Van Tiems inscribed on the plaques to Pointe servicemen at the War Memorial," Mr. Van Tiem says.

Hundreds at Reunion When the Van Tiems congregated at Roma Hall recently, there were several hundred Van Tiems from all over in attendance. "There were Van Tiems I had never seen before," Philip Van Tiem says.

Mr. Van Tiem believes it is a little bit of the old country that seems to keep the Van Tiems together and not scattered like many families today.

"They all left together and they all settled in the same neighborhood," he says. "I guess that characteristic has been passed on from generation to generation."

No matter how far we go, we always come back to The Pointe. Myself, I used to live in Lansing, but I came back to make my home in The Pointe."

Joined Newcomers Although he is a Pointer from way back, in addition to Mr. Van Tiem's many civic and church activities, he belongs to the Pointe Newcomers, an organization designed to help incoming Pointers adjust and make the most of Grosse Pointe.

"I want to help citizens participate in local affairs and politics," Mr. Van Tiem says. "It's the American democratic way. When you're involved it helps make a better environment in which all can live, and helps the social fiber in the community."

Mr. Van Tiem feels the continuity present in The Pointe is what helps make it a great place to live and raise a family.

"My children go to the same school I did as a child," Mr. Van Tiem says.

"Very often in The Pointe, you find children buying their parents' or grandparents' homes when they grow up. The neighborhood and family ties are retained."

Good Place to Live Commenting on the area, Mr. Van Tiem says that The Pointe is a good place to live. "You're near Detroit with its income security, cultural activities and short commuting time."

"People don't want to spend a lot of time driving to and from work. They would rather spend it with their families at home."

Mr. Van Tiem began looking into the history of The Pointe back in his freshman year at high school, and ever since it has been a favorite endeavor. Between his research into family history and what he has been told or remembers, The Pointe Mr. Van Tiem describes bears little resemblance to The Pointe of today.

"In the mid-19th century the Grosse Pointes were farmlands and most of the people farmers," Mr. Van Tiem explains.

With the rise of the industrial wealth, the end of the 19th and beginning of the 20th century, many people moved and built estates in the Pointes.

"Then followed many people who came to perform services and work on the large-wealth estates," he says. "Many Pointers began working on these estates and then moved into the Pointes as well, my father an example."

Topography Has Changed Mr. Van Tiem remembers running his dog in Harper Woods, at that time a heavily wooded area. He even recalls hunting in The Pointe.

Mr. Van Tiem believes in The Pointe and the values he feels are present in the community.

"This is a stable community and I believe it will remain so for a long time."

"Very often when persons are starting out they can't afford to live in The Pointe, but after they've gone away and made their fortune so to speak, they like to return."

"I guess the bottom line is that The Pointe is a good place to live," Mr. Van Tiem says. "It was for my ancestors and I'm confident it will be for my children."
