Happiness Is . . . Having Quadruplets

Most mothers might go crazy with four 10-week old babies. But KAREN HOLLIDGE feels that she and her husband, Kenneth, have been "blessed." Mrs. Hollidge, a very calm and confident woman, believes that lots of love and organization are the most important factors in raising four babies at once. "We're taking it little by little," she said, "I couldn't be happier." The quadruplets are, KENNETH III, (in Karen's arms), and, (from left to right), HEATHER, ELIZABETH and DAWN. (See story at bottom of columns two and three.)

GPF Eyes Rejoining SEMCOG

One of First Cities to Join Agency, Municipality to Reconsider
Position

By Wendy K. Settle

The Farms Council, at its regular meeting on Monday, October 3, discussed in depth the possibility of rejoining the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments, (SEMCOG).

Michael Glusac, representative for SEMCOG and a resident of The Farms, appeared before the council to explain the purpose and functions of the agency.

"I sincerely believe involvement in SEMCOG is very important to Grosse Pointe Farms," Mr. Glusac said. "Our purpose is to keep home rule as close to the home as possible."

Get No Benefits

Mayor James Dingeman, who openly opposed membership, said, "I never saw any use for it anyway. It's another unnecessary layer of government that I just can't approve of."

The Farms was one of the first cities to join SEMCOG when it was formed in 1967. They were active members in the organization until this July when, by a 3-2 vote, the council decided to drop its membership.

Pointe Family Receives Extra Special Blessing

By Wendy K. Settle

When a couple has their first child, they rejoice to the sound of "the patter of little feet." But when a couple has quadruplets, they think of a sound similar to parading Clydesdales.

Most women might be overcome with terror if they gave birth to four children all at once. But not Karen Hollidge, of The City.

"We feel blessed," she said. Karen and her husband, Kenneth, are the proud parents of quadruplets, three girls and one boy.

The Hollidges had been trying to have a baby for over four years when they found out Karen was pregnant. "We rejoiced," Karen beamed. "I cried for three days. I was so happy."

Chilly Weather Fails To Dampen Memorial Parkway Dedication

Estimated 200 Citizens Attend Formal Ceremony for Project Honoring American Veterans; Beautification Commission to Continue Fund Raising Drive

By Roger A. Waha

Around two years of planning and hard work by the Woods Beautification Commission and the city were climaxed with the formal dedication of the first phase of the "Veterans Memorial Parkway" project at the west end of the city, i.e., at the Harper Woods border along Vernier road, on a brisk, partly sunny Sunday afternoon, October 2.

An estimated 200 hardy citizens turned out for the initial stage of the project, including an early American-style brick wall saying "City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Veterans Memorial Parkway," necessary plumbing, electricity and three flag poles, the commission is now concentrating on an ongoing fund raising campaign to ward the development of this living memorial to the American veteran.

Getting The Shivers
The reason why it is called a living memorial, said E. D. Grady, council representative to the commission, is because each year new flowers and trees will be added, making the median one of growing and living beauty.

Architect John Grissim, whose firm of Eichstedt, Grissim, Young and Associates formulated a master landscape and site development plan for the parkway, noted the first phase provides a memorial gateway to a beautiful city. "As years go by everyone will enjoy it more and more," he said.

Meanwhile, in his keynote address, State Sen. Joseph Snyder said the parkway will "long serve as a salute to the many heroes who have served in the armed forces."

Pleased with the way the program turned out, Dr. Albert C. Howe, commission chairman, said the group will concentrate on its fund raising effort this month and next, then wind down some toward assessing the overall situation before intensifying the campaign once again in the spring.

Jean Rice, commission recording secretary, probably summed up her colleagues' feelings on Dedication Day. "Oh, I think it's fantastic. I got the shivers . . . really," she said.

Tribute to All
She praised Dr. Howe for "getting things done," (as did Wayne County Commissioner Erv Steiner during the program), and stated, with some relief, "I'm glad it cleared up. I watched the barometer since noon yesterday (i.e., Saturday), and cheered every time it rose."

For his part, Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos stated, "I want to thank the Beautification Commission for its hard work in making the project possible, especially Dr. Howe and Mrs. Rice, who were constantly involved in the preparations and work which cul-

Man Talked Out Of Taking Life After 15 Hours

Woods Police, with Aid from Others, Convince Citizen to Turn over Revolver after Grueling
Give and Take Exchanges

A 60-year-old Woods man, who threatened to take his own life, ultimately turned over his revolver to Woods police after 15 grueling, tension-filled hours which began around 7:30 p.m. Friday, September 30, and ended about 10:30 a.m. Saturday, October 1.

Det. Lt. Jack Patterson, who arrived at the scene around 8 a.m. on Saturday, was able to convince the man to surrender his revolver over four hours later.

"Time was the only salvation we had," he said in reviewing the efforts put in by other officers, particularly Sgt. James Davidson, the man's family, clergy and mental health professionals, including workers from Center Point Crisis Intervention Center.

One-on-One

The lieutenant, who actually picked up where Sgt. Davidson and the others left off at 6 a.m., said, "I talked with him about anything and everything and even got on a first name basis" in an effort to divert and win him over from his intended objective.

After ultimately working his way to an upstairs hallway, where he saw the man with the revolver in his hand, Lt. Patterson said he took the gun away gently and brought the man downstairs.

Police indicated that the man at no time threatened any officer with bodily harm. Det. Thomas Podewitz, who also responded to the man's home with Lt. Patterson and Cpl. Thomas Kervin, stated the entire situation boiled down to a one-on-one exchange between the lieutenant and the man.

"It was a touch and go type of thing, a constant selling job which Lt. Patterson had to do. We tried to convey that the man should seek help and give up the idea of committing suicide," said Det. Podewitz, who praised the lieutenant for his efforts.

To Seek Help
The man, who is married and has two married daughters, was very despondent because of employment and physical problems, police said.

Lt. Patterson said the man, after surrendering, was (Continued on Page 6)

Ferry Parents Plan Auction

The Ferry School PTO met Wednesday, October 5, at the school's annual open house to discuss plans for the group's upcoming Celebrity Auction.

Hosts for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Willis Kirkland, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rinehart, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lorenzo and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sheehy.

The auction will be held Friday, October 28, at the school, 748 Roslyn road.

Eyes Background
Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, active in Grosse Pointe affairs, having been president of both the LWV and the Board of Education, will serve as moderator.

The format will follow established LWV guidelines of written questions to be forwarded to the moderator.

This meeting, along with Voter Service, is another means used by the league to encourage active citizen participation in government.

The idea for holding a Town Meeting came last winter when a similar panel met for the benefit of LWV members. Many people at that time requested the same type of meeting to be provided for the entire community.

Possible Areas

Some areas of concern may be as follows: Are there adequate public transportation services available in the Pointes? Is adequate housing provided for the elderly and for young families?

Mother, 2 Daughters Die in GPW

Authorities Point to Possible
Electrical Problem As Investigation
Continues

It was a somber gray, cold morning as Woods authorities and officials from the fire marshal's division of the Michigan State Police sifted through the rubble of the house fire which claimed the lives of a woman and her two daughters at 1732 Prestwick road several hours earlier on Thursday, September 29.

The neighbors were stunned by the blaze and the loss of Mrs. Susan Lang, 34, and her daughters, Katherine, 8, who was to celebrate her birthday on Saturday, October 1, with a party with neighborhood children, and Jennifer, 5. Instead, that was the day of the funeral service.

As the investigation continued, charred furniture was removed from the house and placed outside as a continual stream of cars, bearing the curious, drove along the street, slowing as they approached the home to get a better look.

Electrical Problem

Det. Lt. Jack Patterson said the investigation of the cause of the fire should be completed within two weeks. "The findings are yet inconclusive although they point to a possible electrical problem in the family room structure" where the fire originated, he said.

It then spread from the paneled family room in the rear of the home and entered into the dining room, also at the rear. From there, it went to the living room adjacent to an open stairwell and then swirled upwards, the lieutenant said.

"Heat and fire damage was extensive on the first floor, while the upper floors had smoke and heat damage," continued Lt. Patterson. "We're awaiting a report from the medical examiner but it appears asphyxiation was the cause of the deaths."

The last contact with Mrs. Lang was around 11:30 p.m. on Wednesday, September 28, via a neighbor, he said. The fire was discovered around 2:57 a.m. by patrolling officers, Cpl. Robert Setchell and James DaDeppo.

So it is possible, noted Det. Thomas Podewitz, who also was at the fire scene, that the blaze could have been smoldering for some two hours before discovery. The home did not have a smoke detector.

Initial Attack

Cpl. Setchell said while patrolling along Mack avenue he smelled wood burning and immediately investigated the Severn-Mack area after calling for further assistance.

Rose Terrace Sewer Fixed

The Farms Council, at its Monday, September 19, meeting, approved the payment of a $7,625.20 bill received from the firm of Salvatore and Sons, Inc., for repair work done on the city sewer line which runs through the Dodge Estate.

City Manager Andrew Bremer took action to have the sewer repaired by the firm without taking bids, because of the "emergency and immediate nature" of the problem. Mr. Bremer's decision is warranted under "the emergency powers granted to him."

Concerning the Dodge Estate, the council also approved the final plat for the proposed single-family residential development of the Rose Terrace property.

This proposal had been approved by the council last December, but because of "timing" Wayne County requested that the council re-approve the resolution.

Retiring

By Roger A. Waha

After over 30 years of service to his community, Woods Public Safety Director HENRY MARCHAND is retiring from the department, effective Wednesday, October 12, although he spent his last day at work Friday, September 30.

While the director could have stayed five more years at the post before reaching 60 years of age, the mandatory retirement age for all sworn departmental members, he decided to leave and accept a position as chief security officer at Cottage Hospital.

"Thirty years is a long time, (as a public safety officer). I wanted to work another five years and it all boiled down to economics," he said. As an officer, he received no social security but in his new post, he will.

Nothing New

Assuming his duties at Cottage this week, Director Marchand said his responsibility will be to organize a security system, previously provided by an outside agency. "I will be responsible for the general safety and well being of employees, patients and visitors at the hospital," he stated.

Responsibility is nothing new to the director, who joined the department in June 1947 as a patrolman and worked his way through the ranks, being appointed director in 1973.

Assessing over 30 years of service is no easy task but Director Marchand said his career has been very rewarding. "I'm very proud to have been a member of the department, which is one of the finest and most efficient public safety departments in the United States," he stressed.

Woods Fire Claims Three Lives

Mrs. Susan Lang, 34, and her daughters, Katherine, 6, and Jennifer, 5, perished in a fire at their Prestwick road home early Thursday morning, September 29. A total of 29 firefighters were at the scene with the blaze, which was reported at 2:57 a.m., being brought under control over a half hour later. Authorities indicated the fire could have been smoldering some two hours before discovery.

Early Morning Blaze

(Continued from Page 1) under control, around 3:30 a.m., 29 firefighters including those from The Woods, Woods auxiliaries, Harper Woods, Shores and City were at the scene.

In his report, Lt. Peter Thomas said after the corporal's call of a heavy concentration of smoke in the area, the location of the blaze was discovered.

Upon the lieutenant's arrival, the house was found to be fully charged with smoke and flames with the fire venting itself out the family room window. The initial attack was made by Cpl. Setchell in the family room with the booster line.

After a neighbor told firefighters a woman and her children were in the home, a second alarm was called and a ladder was placed up to the west front bedroom window. Woods Officers Arthur Gekiere and Robert Kwiatkowski entered through the front door and attacked the fire in the living room with a one and a half inch line. As entry was made, the fire vented itself out the front window engulfing the ladder, making entry via this route to the second floor impossible at that time.

"Frustrating Thing"

Officers DaDeppo and Donald Schmaltz went up the stairs to the second floor along with Harper Woods firefighters to search for the family.

The lieutenant said Jennifer was found on the floor of the southeast bedroom, while Katherine was discovered in the northwest bedroom. Mrs. Lang was found in a corner of the southwest bedroom. The family was pronounced dead on arrival at Saint John Hospital.

Three neighbors said they didn't hear anything until the arrival of firefighters. One immediate neighbor said she told the firefighters there were two children inside but they couldn't immediately enter because of the heat.

"They brought them out and gave them oxygen," she said, before pausing.

"They were beautiful children."

Another neighbor said, as she watched the authorities check the home, "You can see what a tragedy this is."

In noting there were no smoke detectors in the Lang home, she stressed, "If anything can be learned by this, it's to get yourself a smoke detector."

Meanwhile, another neighbor said, "It's really terrible, I still can't believe it." In noting her house was quite near the Lang home, the lady said, "The houses are so close, that's the frustrating thing about it—I didn't see or hear anything."

"A Sad Day"

Both Katherine and Jennifer attended Monteith School where Katherine was in the second grade and Jennifer was in afternoon kindergarten.

"They were two delightful, wonderful children," said Principal John A. Hammel. I knew the Langs when they lived in Hunt Club drive, and they were my neighbors, he continued.

"Thursday was a sad day around school. We'll miss them."

Services for Mrs. Lang and her daughters were held on Saturday at Christ Episcopal Church. Arrangements were handled by the Verheyden Funeral Home.

Mrs. Lang is survived by her father, William Gertsenberger, one brother and one sister, Katherine and Jennifer are survived by their father, Alan D.

Memorial contributions may be made to ALSAC—Saint Jude Children's Hospital, 22148 Michigan avenue, Dearborn, Mich. 48124.

Interment was at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

NH Parents Bid Back to School

Parents of students attending North High School are again invited to Back-to-School Night, scheduled this year for Tuesday, October 11, at 7:30 p.m.

Parents will receive their son's or daughter's school schedule in the "first-hour class," and will proceed through the evening moving from class to class, to hear from each teacher the objectives of the course and the materials used.

The Parent Club will serve refreshments during the evening in the school cafeteria. Members of the service club, the Valkyries, will assist with the refreshments and at the membership tables in the corridors.

Back-to-School Night is one of a series of evenings designed to help parents become familiar with the school. Parents of freshmen met Thursday, September 22, and parents of seniors met Wednesday, October 5.

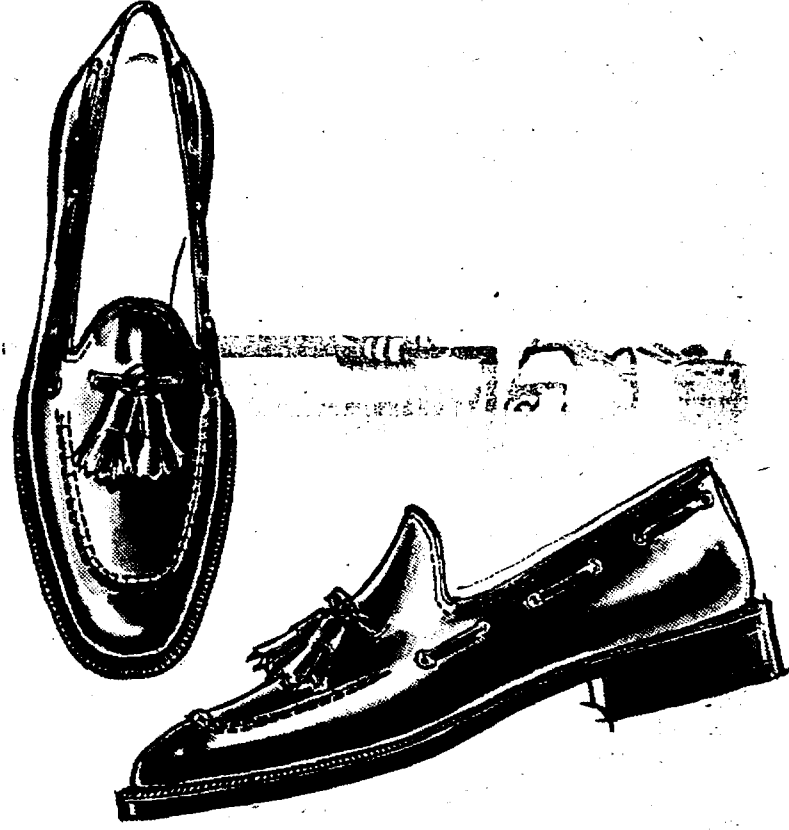

The Parent Club began its year with the first meeting of its executive board on Monday, September 19, the Athletic Boosters Club met Wednesday, September 21, and the Foreign Exchange Parent Club met for an informational meeting for students and parents on Thursday, September 29.

FLEC Launches Drive for Funds

October has been officially declared "Family Life Education Council (FLEC) Month" by the mayors of all five Pointes and Harper Woods.

In their joint proclamation, the mayors acknowledged FLEC's "great service to citizens of our communities through its many educational programs."

The official observance of October as "FLEC Month" coincides with the group's annual fund-raising campaign. FLEC president Joseph M. Beals, MD, has announced that this year's drive will occur between October 10 and November 10.

A total of $60,000 is being sought.

The funds will be used to support the organization's varied community services including Dialogue, a confidential "help" phone line for adults who need someone to listen, (881-0270); Center Point, a short-term youth counseling center located in the Unitarian Church Annex, Grosse Pointe; Medical Clinic, volunteer doctors, nurses and patient advocates providing confidential care and counseling for area youth; and Alcohol Education Project, workshops, films and pamphlets provide needed information on this misunderstood disease.

James L. Blean is chairman of the 1977 fund drive which will seek continued support from area funds and foundations, churches, doctors, civic and fraternal organizations, business and individuals.

Despite its status as a non-profit corporation, FLEC receives no financial assistance from the United Fund, state, federal or local subsidies. The organization is totally dependent on contributions for its existence.

Donations can be made to Family Life Education Council, 260 Chalfonte avenue, Grosse Pointe Farms, 48238. All contributions are tax-deductible.

Inter-Faith Task Force Studies Education in GP

The Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice has formed on-going task force groups to work for racial justice and social change in a number of different systems and institutions that exist in The Pointe area.

The Education Task Force of the Inter-Faith Center began in 1971 to evaluate books proposed for purchase by the Pointe Public School System. The books are evaluated for racism and sexism by the task force which is composed of parents and teachers.

Past efforts were concentrated on evaluating text books in U.S. history, civics and social studies on both the high school and middle school levels.

More recently, attention was given to four series of proposed textbooks which were to be piloted in the elementary grades in the school system.

The task force evaluated the books' treatment of minorities, which included blacks, Spanish speaking peoples, American Indians and women.

The 1976 Houghton-Mifflin series was found to be consistently better in its overall treatment of minorities, and this is the series that the group recommended to the school system for adoption.

The evaluations were presented to the school board, school administrators and teachers in grades one through six.

The study is available to the public at the Inter-Faith Center, 15222 East Jefferson avenue.

The school system purchased the Houghton-Mifflin series.

The study of proposed textbooks has been shared with other groups that are doing similar evaluations in this area in their own cities, especially women's groups interested in non-sexist reading materials for their children. Houghton-Mifflin has requested to use the task force findings in their advertisements.

The center feels the work of the Education Task Force is very important to the Pointe community, saying it can be summed up best by a paragraph from the introduction to the evaluation.

It says, "This is a 'multi-racial, multi-ethnic, multi-everything society. Our healthy growth, our social maturity, indeed, our peace, deeply depend upon our increasing ability to understand and deal with people different from ourselves."

"Surely our children deserve the wisest and most sensitive guidance in preparing them for their own maturity in such a society."

Anyone who is interested in assisting the Education Task Force should contact Sandy Van Doren, chairperson, at the Inter-Faith Center, at 824-0350, between 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday for more information.

Woods Nixes Fishing Derby

A fishing derby, originally planned for this fall at the Lake Front Park, was unanimously nixed by the Woods Council, based upon a recommendation from the Citizens Recreation Commission.

This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, September 18.

The council agreed with the commission's feelings that costs for the derby would be excessive, (e.g., one figure for the cost of 1,200 fish was $1,620, while personnel cost was placed at around $608); also, that interest has not been generally forthcoming from various service clubs contacted for help in this program and the questionable use of the swimming pools for this type of activity.

As originally planned, any Woods resident would have been able to participate.

Woods Public Safety Director Retires

for its success and fine reputation."

City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, in viewing the director's contributions, echoed these thoughts.

"I'm sure over the 30 years he has seen many changes in the department and has been instrumental in developing and implementing these changes," said Mr. Petersen.

Emphasis on Education
"He has pursued his education while a member of the department very conscientiously," he continued, "in noting the director will receive his Masters in management and supervision with a public administration concentration from Central Michigan University this month."

"Director Marchand also has encouraged officers under him to continually further their education," said Mr. Petersen. "He has helped to build our public safety department into a nationally recognized one. We will certainly miss him and his efforts in behalf of the city."

At this point, on one is scheduled to be appointed public safety head. "We will in all probability, as we have on other occasions, seek applications on a nationwide basis in addition to considering applications from within the department to insure we have the best person available," noted Mr. Petersen.

Until a decision is made, he said the day shift commander will act as director, while noting any one of the department's four lieutenants is "more than capable of serving as acting director."

The Woods had a public safety department since 1944 and when Director Marchand first joined the force, "We had about eight people." Now there is over four times that number.

A Better Officer
His career not only reflects the growth of the department but also accompanying improvements, many of which occurred under his leadership.

The requirement that a recruit must have at least two years of college before he is hired was implemented in 1973. To his knowledge, Director Marchand said his department was the first one in Wayne County to have such a stipulation.

"Something that is unique and innovative to our department is the rotation of specialist positions, e.g., to the detective bureau, Youth Service Division, records and for traffic safety officer, by appointment and not by testing," he said.

Director Marchand stated this approach makes for a more well rounded police officer and avoids having a man stuck in the road patrol all the time. "I hope my successor will keep it going toward having a more valued public safety officer," he emphasized.

As director, he also implemented "something unique to our specific operation" — a master key system for all patrol cars wherein each officer is issued a key.

In the case of an ambulance run with a responding patrol car where the officer aids in hospital transportation, another officer can recover the auto so it will not remain unattended.

Low Profile Cars
At the same time, Director Marchand takes pride in developing the inter-city, (all the Pointes and Harper Woods), tactical mobile unit in the mid-1960's. As a lieutenant, he was unit commander from 1965 to 1969, (when he was made captain).

He said the objective of the unit was to quickly muster manpower in case of civil disturbances, while citing the overall flexibility of the unit regarding need on the manpower front.

Other changes which he cited include the emphasis upon low profile, (darker colored), scout cars against the red "circus wagons" of the early 1970's toward fighting crime, along with the redistribution of manpower to correspond with busier times of the day.

In the latter case, Director Marchand said four to five cars with one officer patrol during the morning, six to seven during the afternoons and three during the night. These contain two cars with a pair of officers and one car with a single man.

And he is the only director not to have an assistant which he said has saved the city around $150,000 over a five-year period.

New System

Of all the changes he has been a part of, he is most proud of a new evaluation system for the troops. It emphasizes input from the command officers and views a member's productivity and absenteeism, and is specifically based upon a police-fire criteria.

Several areas are considered with each containing a precise percentage, totalling 100, e.g., job knowledge, the highest at 12 percent, initiative, attitude, care of equipment, et al.

He said all the lieutenants will conduct the evaluation every six months and, as planned, the "number one" officer during that period, along with the other top five, will have their names on a plaque to be hung in departmental headquarters. At the same time, each will wear a badge citing his accomplishment.

August ended the first six months with the director stating no selection has been made as yet based upon the new system.

Saying he will miss the people he has worked with the most, Director Marchand said the saddest thing which happened during his career occurred last week when a mother and two daughters lost their lives in a Prestwick road house fire.

Never Used to It
"Death is part of the police and fire profession but you never become used to it," he said.

Director Marchand also recalled during his second or third year on the job he and another officer recovered a four-year-old boy, previously reported missing, from Lake St. Clair.

"It's bad enough to witness the death of an adult but a child is doubly bad," he said quietly.

On a happier note, two other occurrences stick in his mind—the first time he made $100 a week and the time the department went from a 48 hour week to a 40 hour week, both in the 1950's.

Born in Grosse Pointe Township, raised in the area and a Grosse Pointe High School graduate, the director served three years as a U.S. Army military policeman in World War II before joining the department.

Besides his forthcoming Masters degree, he has a certificate in law enforcement and an associate of applied science in law enforcement, both from Macomb County Community College, and a Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice from Wayne State University.

Thanks Everyone
He also is a 1972 graduate of the FBI National Academy.

He and his wife, Shirley, have three children, a married daughter, Marcia, 30, who is expecting her first child, a daughter, Karen, 24, who will be married this month, and a son, Glenn, 25.

As the director he spent his last day in the office, he wanted to make a point of thanking all Woods citizens, the mayor and council and Mr. Petersen for their support over the years.

And to the men of the department, you know he bids them a fond farewell.

into their new four bedroom home in Lakeside court. Ken said, "It's really cheaper to furnish it with kids instead of furniture."

Just wait until they hit college, Ken.

The quadruplets, Heather, Elizabeth, Kenneth III and Dawn, were born on Sunday, July 24, at Hutzel Hospital.

First born was Heather, then for the next 37 minutes, at seven to 10 minute intervals, the others were born. All four were very small, weighing from 2.5 to approximately 3.5 pounds.

For the first four weeks of their lives the children lived in the premature nursery. During that time they were transferred in and out of incubators.

The week of Labor Day, Karen and Ken started bringing their crew home.

Now, at 10-weeks-old, the foursome is settled in their nursery, which is fully equipped with four cribs, one donated by Hudson's, four stuffed ducks, four teddy bears and four of everything else a baby would need.

Karen estimates she uses over 400 diapers and 700 ounces of formula in one week. "It is expensive," she smiled, "but, we take it one day at a time."

Of course Karen is not alone. She has a woman come in from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m., and during the day, her friend Gerry, who has moved into the house, helps her out.

On Saturdays two students from Merrill Palmer in Detroit come out to help while receiving credits toward their degrees.

"The main thing is love and organization," Karen laughed as she pointed to feeding charts, sleeping charts, toilet charts and weight charts.

"I just thank God for this blessing."

"Everyone's been so helpful," she said with an emotional nod—"everything and everybody's been just super."

Officer Injured Answering Call

Farms Patrolman David Beckman, 23, hit an Edison pole on Friday, September 28, at 11:14 p.m. while responding to a breaking and entering call in Moross road in The Farms.

Officer Beckman was driving north in his patrol car on Moross to the National Bank of Detroit on Mack avenue, when the brakes on his car locked and it skidded head on into the pole.

Fellow Officer Philip Miglio and Cpl. Otto Galnert also were responding to the alleged robbery at the bank when they spotted Patrolman Beckman's car lodged up against the pole.

They transported him to Saint John Hospital where the doctors determined that Officer Beckman was suffering from Class B injuries, (i.e. incapacitating injuries, many bruises, cuts about the face). He was treated and released.

It is expected that Officer Beckman will return to his police duties in a few weeks. For the time being he is recuperating at home.

Woods Passes Law on Litter

An ordinance aimed at the control of litter in commercial districts was unanimously adopted by the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, September 19.

The law stipulates that the presence of dirt, trash, rubbish or weeds on the sidewalks and street right-of-way adjoining commercial business establishments is "hereby declared to be a public nuisance."

Under the measure, it is unlawful for the owner, lessee or occupant, or any firm or corporation having charge of any lot or parcel of land being used for commercial or business purposes of any nature, to permit or allow "an unsightly amount" of such litter to accumulate upon the sidewalks and street right-of-way adjoining the lot or parcel of land.

A motion to table action on the law and refer it back to City Attorney George Catlin so a requirement on the removal of all ice and snow from the front of a commercial property could be incorporated failed after a 3-3 vote.

However, after some discussion, it was felt that the ordinance should be adopted and a second measure requiring the removal of ice and snow be drafted.

With that, the council approved the new law which had support from the Beautification Commission, the Grosse Pointe Merchant's Ass'n. and residents.

The measure was primarily an outgrowth of citizen complaints to officials over the patches of litter along Mack avenue.

ON CHILD LABOR

The first federal child labor legislation was the Keating-Owens Act of 1916, which prohibited carrying in interstate of foreign commerce and goods produced by firms employing children who were under 14 or who worked 14 to 16 hours a day, according to "Labor Firsts in America," published by the U.S. Department of Labor.

Man Swayed from Suicide in GPW taken to Cottage Hospital for examination, and was then committed to the Detroit Psychiatric Institute. He indicated the family will probably seek help for him.

In his report, Officer Carl Schuster said, upon arrival at the home, he saw the man standing just inside a screen door entrance. After entering, he spotted the man at the top of a flight of stairs. While not seeing a gun, the man's wife, who notified authorities, said he was armed.

After calling for assistance, Officer Schuster noted that the man said he would shoot himself if the officers tried to rush him. Then, Sgt. Davidson attempted to talk the man into dropping his gun and coming downstairs. But he refused, with police stating he said his life wasn't worth living.

Appeals, Officer Schuster said, also were made by the others with all going unheeded. The officer also stated that several times during the conversations the man became very angry and on a few occasions put the barrel of the gun in his mouth.

Risk Too Great

The exchanges continued non-stop through the night until the man's surrender in the morning.

Sgt. Davidson, still physically exhausted, said on Monday morning, October 3, that in all his years with the department, (since November 1963), this was the longest such incident which has been encountered.

"I was just three or four stairs from him at times," he said. "It was too risky to jump him for me and mainly for him."

When the officers first arrived, the house was surrounded, stated Sgt. Davidson. As time passed, the men got closer and the exchanges which began in a small vestibule progressed up the stairway.

"We apparently wore him right down," the sergeant said of the man, who reportedly shot his gun once into the floor before police arrived.

"These things can go either way so quickly," noted Sgt. Davidson, who said those who may have set the man off were quickly removed from conversing with him based upon the advice given by mental health professionals.

No Better Men

Saying he appreciated the assistance of everyone at the scene, Sgt. Davidson had special praise for his men, who "worked extremely well under the situation."

They included Officers Ronald Hayden, who praised the sergeant for his efforts, Thomas Hunke, Mike Cavanagh, Jack Treppa, Donald Sun and, after 11 p.m., Sgt. Thomas Kane.

All of the officers' wives were notified of the incident as it unfolded and informed the men wouldn't be coming home after their normal shift time.

"My thanks go to the wives, too," said Sgt. Davidson. "I appreciate their patience."

Noting his men worked two complete shifts, the sergeant added, "I couldn't ask for any better men at the scene than the ones I had."

Farms Views SEMCOG

"We weren't getting any benefits from it," Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman said. "If you're not on the executive board, you don't have any say. Just one voice in the general assembly isn't heard."

SEMCOG is an organization made up of local city governments, representing its members as a "go between" with the state and federal governments.

In some situations, SEMCOG helps local governments to get funding but its main purpose is to give the local governments more say as to what happens to their communities.

Membership dues for SEMCOG would be $700 for The Farms in the 1978 fiscal year.

"SEMCOG would help represent The Farms in Lansing," Mr. Glusac commented. "It would give you more say as to what happens to your community."

"I don't mind saying," Mr. Dingeman frowned, "those nineties in Lansing are destroying home rule."

The council's opinions are split on this decision. In the past, the votes on joining SEMCOG have been very close.

Richard Solak, city clerk, said, "I really think they, (the council), could go either way."

Meanwhile Mr. Glusac handed out packets he had prepared for each council member.

The council was instructed by the mayor to review the information and a vote will be taken at a future meeting.

Andrew Bremer, city manager, who has been an advocate of SEMCOG, was asked to do some research and present his opinion at that future meeting.

Hike in Park

quarterly service charges by $4, from $3 to $7 every four months.

Mr. Ortisi said the service charge increase was designed to spread evenly throughout the community the extra cost of processing rain water, consumption which he feels should not be tied to the citizens' rate of water consumption.

As an alternative to passing along the Detroit rate increase to residents, Mr. Ortisi pointed out that the council would have had to raise its tax rate by 1.5 mills to collect the needed revenue.

The City approved a 33 percent rate increase in September. The Farms, a 39 percent increase, The Woods, a 38 percent increase, and The Shores, a 19.5 percent increase.

CHANGE IN PLANS

The steam organ, which has been a main attraction through the years, was originally planned for church use. Joshua Stoddard, when he patented his eight-note device on October 9, 1855, felt it was ideal for calling people to worship. Instead, riverboats and big tops picked up the instrument. The Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, offers a later development of Stoddard's machine in its 53 note keyboard calliope mounted in a 1929 REO truck. The museum's calliope operates on compressed air and is still used for some of the festive events which occur in adjacent Greenfield Village.

"The project is a tribute to the community, too, and provides a beautiful entrance to a beautiful city."

Highlights of the program and dedication service included a parade made up of the American Legion Beaudry Post 126 color guard, the Regina Blue Angels Junior Color Guard and the North High School band which culminated in the flag raising ceremony, musical selections from the First Michigan Colonial Fife and Drum Corps and the donation of the memorial wreath from the National Society, Michigan Chapter of Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America.

Other highlights included the playing of Taps by Brodhead Naval Armory Sea Cadets Tom Matlock and Tim Torok and the singing of a verse of "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "America the Beautiful."

A real crowd pleaser was the Colonial Fife and Drum Corps from Sterling Heights who performed, under the direction of Mark Logsdon, a number of 18th century musical selections.

Many officials, as announced, attended the ceremony including Woods Councilmen John Sabol, George Cueter and Ronald R. Kefgen, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, Harper Woods City Manager Joseph Dorsky, Harper Woods Mayor Fred Shaening, Farms Mayor James Dingeman, State Rep. William R. Bryant Jr. and Shores Village President Gerald Schroeder.

Two officials who sent their regrets included U.S. Congressman Lucien Nedzi and U.S. Senator Robert Griffin. In his letter of regret read by Dr. Howe, Mr. Nedzi praised Woods officials and citizens for their dedication and talent in "getting things done."

The cost of west end work totaled $9,962 including contingency out of a maximum $16,000 authorized by the council for the project. Another $2,850 for the inclusion of a three-inch irrigation tap sometime in the future also was approved.

With these expenses, just over $3,000 remains to be utilized for proposed east end work, (east of the Vernier-Mack avenue intersection), pending recommendations from the commission.

As part of its fund raising campaign, the commission, which has assumed responsibility for site development of the project, said contributions from citizens in any amount will be appreciated.

Those who contribute $100 or more will have their names inscribed in a record book which will be kept on public display at the Woods Municipal Building.

Checks should be made payable to "City of Grosse Pointe Woods Memorial Parkway Fund," and sent to city offices, 20025 Mack avenue, Grosse Pointe Woods 48236.

Besides Dr. Howe and Mrs. Rice, other commission members include Margaret Carlson, William Kozara, Joan Smith, Michael Zolik, Donald Riddell, Angelo Di Clementi, Judy Miller, Peter Coutsos and Othello Colechia.

Former Councilwoman Joan M. Mullan also played a role in making the project a reality as council representative to the commission.

Contemporary silver design, largely influenced by Scandinavia, favors elegant simplicity of style. How different this trend is from those of other eras! In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, silversmiths displayed their talents in the ingenuity, ornateness, and range of their patterns. Even small items were treated lavishly. The caddy spoon, for example, was created in an astounding variety of forms. This spoon was used for measuring tea from its container — the caddy — into the pot. Today, one can see examples that are embossed and chased, filigreed and stamped, pierced and engraved. The bowl was shaped as a seashell, a bunch of grapes — even as a jockey cap!

Farms Okays Sale of Lot

The Farms Council, at its regular meeting on Monday, September 19, adopted a resolution authorizing the sale of the parking lot adjacent to the U.S. Post Office, 18640 Mack Avenue, to the U.S. Postal Service.

The price the city is asking is $195,000 plus payment of any "back rent" the post office owes to The Farms from leasing the lot.

George McKean, Farms city attorney, has been negotiating with the Postal Service. Now that the council has approved the sale, Mr. McKean will approach the Postal Service and proceed with final negotiations.

Andrew Bremer, Farms city manager, said, "We expect to conclude the transaction within a month."

True character is measured by living the kind of life other people think you do.

Jay-Teen Chapter Moves Forward

By Roger A. Waha

A positive first step was taken in the Grosse Pointe Jaycees' effort to form a Jay-Teen chapter for Pointe young people, both boys and girls between 13 and 18 years of age, when five youths attended a meeting with Jaycee representatives Thursday, September 29, at the Neighborhood Club.

Program chairman Bill Marr of the parent organization was pleased with the response, and interest, of Marguerite Johnston, 15, of The Farms, Kathy Cerre, 16, of The Farms, Kathy Kaess, 16, of The Farms, Dawn Ottoloni, 16, of The Woods, and John Beaudoin, 16, of The Park.

The idea of the teen chapter, which will be patterned after the parent organization with the participants electing their own officers and drafting their own by-laws, is to increase their personal growth, to make them aware of the beauties and values of The Pointe and to provide leadership training, among other areas.

Questionnaires were completed by the young people at this opening session and Mr. Marr said the key point reflected in all forms was the importance of how they see themselves and how others see them.

In the latter case, they all expressed a concern over the "stuck up" image some people have over citizens living in The Pointe, he noted.

We talked about more effective communication, leadership training and employment interview counseling, he said, along with such external projects as dance-a-thons to raise funds, paper drives, forming a baby-sitting service, a tutoring service, dinners and parties.

As with the parent organization, direct involvement in the community is an important consideration.

Saying the input he has so far received from school officials and citizens has been positive, Mr. Marr has scheduled a meeting for Tuesday, October 11, at the club, 17150 Waterloo Avenue, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

He urged all young people to attend and bring their friends along toward getting started on a project even before the chapter is formed. (A minimum of 25 youths are needed to do this.)

"We want to give them a little bit of success" right away, he stressed, on the accomplishment front.

Hoping to have a chapter started by mid-November, Mr. Marr added any young person or parent may contact him for further information at 886-0400 during the day.

Besides Mr. Marr, Mike Proffitt, who is assisting in forming the chapter, and Charles "Ric" Rutan of the GP Jaycees attended the opening session.

Family Films Begin Oct. 13

The 1977-78 Family Film Nights series gets under way on Thursday, October 13, in the Exhibition Room of the Central Library, 10 Kercheval Avenue, at 7:30 p.m.

The entire family is bound for a traveler's delight in southern Ontario with the film "Adventure-Trent Severn Style." The 26 minute, color film relives a boating dream come true on the 240-mile, inland Trent Severn Waterway.

The chilling cold of the far north makes for strong family values and reciprocal sharing as the drama of "Three Stone Blades" unfolds. A legend of the Bering Strait Eskimos in color, it's 15 minutes long.

Youngsters of all ages will wonder at the friendly "Beast of Monsieur Racine." This nine-minute color film is for the little ones in the family.

No narration is used, nor is any needed to depict the love of a Paris orphan for his dog "Clown." In this 15 minute color film the love, loss and discovery, but unavailability, of his dog will hold all spell-bound.

"Really Rosie" is a 26 minute color film that is meant for younger viewers but will be enjoyed by everyone. Rosie is crammed full of talent, charm, drive and ability and intends to turn these traits into a life-style. The film is based on the creation of a house, a dog, a soil, a bird, a house, a dog, a soil, a bird.

STRATEGY

Plan your next move carefully — it's easier to get the other fellow to compromise if he realizes you have the best of it.

Our high-interest certificate savings accounts help you earn extra money by waiting.

Pretend it's six years from now.

You go to your desk drawer and look at the six-year certificate savings account you opened back in 1977. Remember the $1,000 you took to First Federal Savings of Detroit? Well, now it's $1,584.00. And all you had to do to get that additional $584.00 was wait.

Of course, if you'd rather pretend it's four years from now, or two and a half, or even just one, we can show you plans that still will turn your money into more than you might have thought possible.

And remember, too, that you can have certificate savings accounts in addition to your regular savings account (which earns 5 1/4% per year daily interest, paid and compounded quarterly). In fact, that's how many people get the money to open a certificate savings account. They save for it.

What's more, at First Federal, certificate savings accounts can entitle you to a number of special services, many not available anywhere else. We think you should know about these things because we know that money is important for you.

So don't wait to find out.

We know what money is for.

He was followed by Burns at 17:13, Bill Cobau at 17:27, Jerry Stitzel at 17:33 and Jim Vermuelen at 17:37. Others finishing were Bob Arbaugh and Marc Rolan, sixth and seventh, respectively.

Then on Saturday, October

1, the Norsemen traveled to Oakland University for the Oakland Invitational. Along with the chilly and rainy winds came another victory for the harriers.

Competing against 18 teams and 126 runners, North finished first with a total of 28 points. Coming in second was Royal Oak Kimball with 84 points and Dearborn Fordson was third with 167 points.

Finishing first for North was Denis in third place. Brandt finished fourth, Schmidt, fifth, Wilson, sixth, Hammer, 10th, Lewis, 11th and Hofmann, 17th.

The JV team also won with a total of 15 points. Out of 170 runners, North finished in the top eight consecutive places.

Coach Tom Gauerke was very pleased with the results of the teams' competition and was especially proud at the Oakland Invitational.

The next scheduled meet for the harriers is Saturday, October 8, at Rouge Park. The race begins at 11 a.m.

GPW Man Sets Himself on Fire

A 24-year-old Woods man set himself on fire Monday, October 3, after apparently dousing himself with gasoline, according to St. Clair Shores police.

The man, Peter Reberry, of Hampton road, was still listed in critical condition at Detroit General Hospital's burn center at the NEWS' press time on Tuesday.

St. Clair Shores Police Chief Leo Warfield said police received a call at 6:15 p.m. on Monday that a Plymouth was burning in the street in front of 22425 St. Joan, St. Clair Shores.

When they arrived, police said they found Reberry wrapped in blankets next to the blazing car. Chief Warfield said he had serious burns over all of his body.

Police said they are not sure whether Reberry crawled out of the car by himself or whether neighbors pulled him out. A witness told police he saw Reberry get into the car and light a match. Officers said they also found a can of gasoline in the auto.

Fire engines were called immediately to the scene. The car was completely destroyed in the blaze.

Reberry was reportedly arguing with his girlfriend shortly before the incident. Police said they are questioning several neighbors in addition to the girlfriend, a 19-year-old St. Clair Shores resident.

Map out your plans for the present very carefully — it will be a determining factor in what your future will be.

Hummel Leads Knights' Attack

By Mike Merlo
Will Hummel came up with two key touchdowns for the University Liggett School (ULS), Knights in the first quarter of their football game against the Harper Woods Pioneers to lead ULS to a 13-7 victory.

The game was played on Saturday, October 1, under cloudy skies and on a rain-drenched playing surface. Poor conditions as well as a tough Harper Woods defense held Hummel, the Knights' leading ground gainer, to only 72 yards. He capitalized on a blocked punt and a fumbled ball to lead the ULS attack.

This brings University Liggett's record to 3-1 overall, 2-1 in the Metro Conference.

Beach Honored by Kiwanians

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club recently honored Richard H. Beach, of Harcourt road, by awarding him a "Life Membership" in Kiwanis International.

This presentation took place at a special meeting at the German-American Culture Center following a speech given by Mr. Beach on the 35 year history of the club.

Mr. Beach, a past president of the club, organized the first Key Club in South High School 12 years ago and has continued to be a faculty advisor for this organization ever since its inception.

In the past, as a district chairman, he has organized other Key Clubs in various schools in the state.

Several years ago, Mr. Beach also was awarded a plaque bestowing a special title of "Kiwanian of the Year." He is a member of the board of directors and, in the capacity of chairman of youth activities, he is in charge of the annual Kiwanis Plaque Day, presenting plaques to the outstanding Co-op education students in North and South High Schools.

Mr. Beach continues his busy life by sponsoring the Key Club, the Future Teachers Club and he also assists the Dads' Club and the athletic director in organizing ticket sales at football, basketball and all swim meets at South.

There's nothing wrong if your opinions differ with others — it's positive proof that you do your own thinking.

Sincerity is almost a lost art — too few practice it today. A really busy person never has too much time on his hands.

In the second half of the 19th century, almost all of the vineyards of Europe were destroyed by a vineyard disease called phylloxera. It was found that East coast American rootstocks were resistant to phylloxera and were used as the base for the new vineyards in Europe. To this day, all over the world, the vines in all vineyards are grafted onto this native American rootstock. Even California wines have a New England base.

And you can enjoy wines from all over the world at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626. Fire Prevention Week Slated for October 9-15

President Jimmy Carter has proclaimed Sunday, October 9, through Saturday, October 15, as Fire Prevention Week.

A majority of fire departments throughout the country are preparing programs so that the citizens of their respective communities will know how to prevent fires and what to do in case a fire hits their home.

According to the National Fire Protection Ass'n., (NFPA), family life centers around the home, but at the same time the home is one of America's greatest fire hazards. More than 70 percent of all fires occur in dwellings, and even more tragic, approximately 6,800 deaths are caused by them.

If families have not yet taken the necessary steps, now is the ideal time, advises the National Information Institute, (NII), to prepare plans for what must be done in a home fire. When the plans are ready, then long range steps can be taken to prevent fires.

Be sure to follow these rules, states the NII: Above all, make sure that each member of your family knows how to get out of the house quickly and also knows alternate routes. Have a pre-arranged meeting place outside the house where the family can assemble.

Many a father or mother has perished in flames because of rushing back into a fire to save a child, when that child is safely outdoors on another side of the house.

Once out of the building, call the fire department, either through an alarm box, or a neighbor's phone. Don't go back into the house to rescue anything, whatever its sentimental or real value.

Careless use of smoking materials heads the list of home fire causes. The rules to prevent this are simple, never smoke in bed, have large ash trays handy in every room, don't carelessly discard burning butts and matches and see that matches are kept out of the reach of children.

Defective electrical wiring and equipment account for many home fires. Installing are extending home wiring is not a do-it-yourself job — call a qualified licensed electrician. Extension cords placed under rugs are extremely hazardous.

Grease should always be cleaned from ranges and curtains should not be near enough to blow over it.

A portable gas or oil heater can be a pleasant feature of a cold bedroom, but don't neglect to turn it off at bedtime. Always leave a door or window slightly open, so that oxygen the heater uses will be replaced.

The basement closets have their uses, but not as accumulation spots for papers, rags and old furniture. Using kerosene or other flammable liquids to start a fire in a furnace, fireplace or stove is a very dangerous practice. So is cleaning your clothes with benzene or gasoline. It is better to take your suits, et al., to the local cleaners.

Shores Director of Public Safety Joseph Vitale said that his department has no specific program for Fire Prevention Week, but does recommend that residents have their central heating systems inspected by experienced, licensed servicemen before the cold weather arrives.

Another point, have the heating unit motors properly maintained and filters changed regularly to obtain the maximum amount of heat. One of the greatest inventions to come out today, the chief said, is smoke detectors. Many, many lives have been saved by them, he pointed out. The Village fire marshal, Lt. Charles Wenrich, will be more than glad to inform residents where to locate the best spot to place the detectors.

Chief Vitale also stressed, fire inspection is available throughout the entire year on request. All The Shores home owners have to do is dial 881-5500. There is no charge for the inspection, he added.

Park Fire Chief Phillip Costa said that an annual poster contest will be held in the city schools and fire prevention literature will be distributed to students to take home to their parents.

This year, there will be home to home fire inspections south of Jefferson from Audubon to Grand Marais and from Lake court to Whittier. Firefighters in uniform and badges, and carrying identification cards, will be making the inspections. If no one is home at the time the inspectors come around, they will only be too happy to return on request by calling VA 2-6400.

Chief Costa said identification cards will be presented on demand, and no firefighter will enter any home without permission.

The inspections are not restricted to the area picked for this year — any resident can ask to have his house inspected.

Smoke detectors are a good thing to have and the inspectors will pick the best location for them, if asked, the chief added.

City Fire Chief Robert Marshall said his inspectors, properly attired and with identification, will be glad to inspect homes on request. Firefighters and equipment will systematically drive up and down the streets and those wanting inspections can make an appointment to do so.

Chief Marshall said his inspectors will recommend smoke detectors to all home owners having their houses inspected, and will pick the best location in the building where they should be installed. The number to call is 886-3200.

Woods Lt. Allan Selby, who this month is the acting director of public safety, (the day shift lieutenant acts in that capacity) since Director of Public Safety Henry Marchand's retirement, said The Woods does not have any particular program. He said the lack of manpower does not permit this.

However, home inspections can be made on request by calling 886-2700, the lieutenant said. He also pointed out, and very strongly, that smoke detectors should be installed in every home.

Farms Fire Chief Warren Schultz disclosed that do to certain circumstances, no definite program has been planned for Fire Prevention Week.

However, he did say that members of his department will inspect homes for fire hazards and the inspectors will make recommendations on how to eliminate them.

Inspections are strictly up to the householders, if they want this done. Inspections are by appointment and the number to call is 885-1000.

He also said there will be an open house at the fire department throughout the entire week from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

Pact Approved for Lieutenants

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods Council unanimously concurred with a finance committee recommendation and approved a two-year agreement between the city and the Grosse Pointe Woods Lieutenants Ass'n.

St. John Gets Accreditation

Saint John Hospital has again been awarded a two-year accreditation, the longest accreditation awarded to any hospital by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals (JCAH).

This decision was made by the JCAH Board of Commissioners after a review of the findings from its recent survey of the hospital.

Accreditation is awarded to hospitals that are found to be in substantial compliance with the joint commission's high standards for the quality of patient care provided.

The standards are considered to be optimal achievement and represent goals of excellence against which a facility can measure itself and be measured by the joint commission's accreditation survey team.

"Voluntary accreditation has made a significant contribution to this country's unmatched excellence in health care. It continues the American tradition of self-reliance and it supports the belief that positive motivation is the most effective impetus to change," the hospital says.

The joint commission, founded in 1951, is a private, not-for-profit organization. Member organizations of its Board are the American College of Surgeons, the American College of Physicians, the American Hospital Ass'n. and the American Medical Ass'n.

marked the end of the negotiation process which began earlier this year and which, with intermittent statements, caused concern to both the four lieutenants and to the city.

"We're glad we were able to arrive at a compromise solution toward reaching a final agreement," said City Administrator Chester E. Peterson, while Det. Lt. Jack Peterson said he was personally pleased with the pact.

"Now we can settle down without the problem of on-going bargaining," the lieutenant added.

This agreement marks the first time the lieutenants have worked on a non-professional package and the first time the city has had a formal, written agreement with the command officers, noted Mr. Peterson. Previously, the city had memorandums of understanding with the lieutenants.

In fiscal year 1975-76 when the officers were on a professional package, they received an average of $21,274 including overtime. Under the non-professional approach, the lieutenants will receive a base salary of $22,090 in 1976-77 and a base salary of $23,465 in 1977-78.

Feature Mexico In Film Series

International Travel Lecturers Film Series will present the second of seven films, "Mexico's Golden Sea of Cortez," with Clint Denn narrating on Friday, October 7 at 8:30 p.m. at Dominican High School Auditorium, 9740 McKinney road.

Tickets are $2.50 each or $12 for the season. For more information, call 882-8500.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

Reports of changes and improvements in curriculum and research across the nation reach us almost daily.

It is the task of the staff to sift what at times seems a staggering array of ideas to determine what elements of these innovations, if any, should find their way into the daily operation of the Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Among the topics which have generated some interesting data recently are class size, high school diplomas and the effect of television on school work.

Class Size

What effect does class size have on learning?

This is a question that has been debated, discussed and reviewed for years and years—with inconclusive evidence.

Now we learn of a study done under the auspices of the South Carolina Department of Education which analyzed the impact of reducing the size of first-grade classes in 23 of the state's 92 public school districts.

The outcome, reported in the "New York Times" of Wednesday, June 22, stated, "It was found that the experiment had led to 'significantly higher achievement in reading, though achievement in arithmetic was virtually no different in smaller classes.'"

The State of South Carolina has yet to decide whether the increase in reading is large enough to warrant a substantial financial investment. The report on the South Carolina First Grade Pilot Project states that "additional information which may affect such decisions will be forthcoming from the second year evaluation of the project which is now in progress."

Regardless of research on the topic, we know that small enrollments are preferable to large enrollments in terms of the important issue of classroom management and the ability of teachers to individualize and to personalize the teaching-learning process.

Therefore, we will continue to strive for class enrollments which are as favorable as possible, given the realities and constraints placed upon us by our financial circumstances.

High School Diplomas

A recent Sunday supplement article, "A Diploma That Means Something Extra," has done its bit to focus attention on current practices of granting diplomas.

Denver, Colo., operates a testing program reportedly designed to assure that every one of its high school graduates possesses minimum competency in these basic areas: arithmetic, spelling, grammar and reading comprehension.

As we understand it, if a senior does not pass these four examinations, he or she will receive a certificate of attendance rather than a diploma.

Although Denver's Proficiency and Review examination must be passed in order to get a high school diploma, it is administered beginning in the ninth grade and the content is not actually on the high school level, much of it being material that a sixth or seventh grader ought to know.

Apparently, however, the fact that such a test awaits all of Denver's students has encouraged greater emphasis on the teaching of basic skills and the availability of more remedial studies at the secondary level for students who are falling below minimum standards.

Television's Effect on School Work

A study of children in New Milford, Conn., whose television viewing time was limited to no more than an hour a day reports that the youngsters "became calmer and more outgoing and performed better in school."

The study, which was conducted by "Redbook" magazine, reports that when TV time was first reduced, children were cranky. However, soon parents and teachers began to see improvements in the youngsters' behavior.

Within a short time the report says that they appeared more happy, became less passive and less boisterous, and showed more concentration in their school work.

The preceding three topics may provide food for thought for parents, teachers and for anyone interested in the learning process.

What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters,
Director of Public Libraries

Each year many thousands of new books are published. Some are very popular, are in great demand for a few months and then are forgotten. A few are those rare books that change the course of history.

Books of this nature are inevitably greeted with a roar of protest—and of approval.

Today all of us are concerned, and most are in some way actively involved, in monitoring our ecological environment. We can thank Rachel Carson, a biologist and author, who wrote a book in 1962 that set off a chain of events that have drastically changed the way we live.

Rachel Carson, SILENT SPRING, (Houghton Mifflin, 1962). In terms any layman could understand Ms. Carson explained what was meant by the "balance of nature." She showed how careful we must be, with the great power now at our command, not to disturb this balance in a way that would ultimately do us more harm than good.

Despite efforts to discredit Ms. Carson the facts proved her right. Now 15 years later the fight still goes on but she woke us up to the danger of uncontrolled use of pesticides and herbicides.

Ralph Nader, a young attorney serving as an advisor to the Senate subcommittee investigating automobile hazards, wrote a hardhitting expose in 1965 of the automobile industry. His book, UNSAFE AT ANY SPEED, (Grossman, 1965), snooked the automobile buying public and angered all automobile executives.

In these pre-seatbelt days the American public seemed to accept as fact that the car was as safe as it could be. He devoted a whole chapter to the faultily designed 1959-64 Corvair.

Ralph Nader is now thought of as the country's outstanding consumer advocate. Our cars are safer today because of Ralph Nader.

Betty Friedan, THE FEMININE MYSTIQUE, (Norton, 1963). The women's rights movement started long before 1963, but it was moving along slowly and without positive direction until Ms. Friedan wrote this damning indictment of the social, educational and commercial pressures which cause a harmful discrepancy between what women really are and what they are told they should be.

Written with a passionate drive, she charts a course for women in search of themselves. Millions of women responded so much that the next amendment to the U.S. Constitution may be the Equal Rights for Women Amendment.

Another book that set America to thinking was CHARLES A. REICH, THE GREENING OF AMERICA, (Random House, 1970). This book, written by a professor of law at Yale University, was a serious attempt to analyze sympathetically the youth culture. He saw a movement in America led by youth away from the producer-consumer treadmill and toward a community based on human rather than material values.

Professor Reich didn't write his book for youth. He wrote it for the establishment generation. The youth he wrote about are now taking their places in the establishment, but much has changed since 1970.

A book calculated to put its readers into shock is ALVIN TOFFER's FUTURE SHOCK, (Random House, 1970); an immensely readable yet disquieting study of social and technological change that will drastically affect us in the future. The book has come in for more than its share of criticism, but it does have a way of summarizing and updating an awful lot of futurist conjecture.

Despite the spread of multimedia communication systems, the written word still ranks first as a way of arousing citizens to the dangers and concerns of our society.

QUALMS

No man's conscience can be trained to make him feel right if he's unwilling to do right.

the assurance that when they go to bed at night they are being watched over and will be awakened in case a fire should break out.

As Fire Prevention Week approaches, (October 9-15), do something positive in the prevention of loss of life by fire and smoke. Call your local fire department for information on smoke detectors and their proper installation. Do it for your families. Don't let this tragedy go by unnoticed.

A smoke detector can be your best friend—it can save your life!

Sincerely,
Al Fincham,
Grosse Pointe City Firefighter

(Editor's Note: Woods authorities reported the home involved did not have a smoke detector.)

To the Editor:
Perhaps you would consider publishing this copy of a letter which I sent to the Fraternal Order of Police, G. P. Lodge No. 102.

So often our police officers are taken for granted. I feel they deserve much praise for a job well done.

Sincerely,
Audrey Ehler,
Of Oxford road,
Grosse Pointe Woods

To the Officers of the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Department:

May I take this opportunity to offer my sincere thanks to the many fine officers of the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Department?

Enclosed is a contribution to you, as a memorial to my late husband, David T. Ehler. Dave passed away on July 31, 1977, after an eight month battle against cancer.

I know that many of you knew him as a teacher at Monteith School for the past 20 years. Also, many of you came to our aid with ambulance service on several occasions when you were needed. You were always so prompt, and so kind and considerate.

I cannot, adequately, thank you for your many wonderful services, truly "above and beyond the call of duty." Please accept my sincere thanks.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

It was a sad day for many people on September 28, 1977. It was a day for unanswered questions and tears. It was early in the morning when the killer struck, reaching out of the darkness and unmercifully snuffing out three precious lives.

That killer I speak of is the incomplete particles of combustion known as smoke. In its wake it left three victims, two of them children.

I first learned of this tragedy when I reported for work at the fire station later that morning. My first thoughts were of my own family and the assurance I had known my loved ones were safe.

Then I became angry that such a terrible thing could happen and does happen with every passing day. Finally, I was filled with sorrow for the victims and their family and asked myself the question I'm sure has been asked a thousand times over, why would God in all His wisdom and glory allow such a tragic thing to happen, especially to a young mother and her two innocent children.

The only thing that eases the pain is that maybe we can learn something from this tragedy and perhaps prevent it from happening again.

As a firefighter, I know what fire can do to a building, and more importantly, what smoke can and will do to anyone unfortunate enough to be trapped in it. A small fire in a chair or cushion can completely fill a house with smoke with no appreciable rise in temperature.

It will seep up stairways, under closed bedroom doors and suffocate the unaware sleeper without mercy, whether it be a man, woman, child or infant.

There is something we can do to prevent this needless waste of life and I strongly urge everyone who reads this letter to show your family and loved ones that you really do care about their safety.

You can own a smoke detector and give your families

Improved Bus Service Sought

Wayne County Commissioner Ervin A. Steiner Jr., (Grosse Pointe), has asked officials of the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority, (SEMTA), to improve service on the evening Charlevoix line that runs through the Grosse Pointes from downtown Detroit.

Mr. Steiner made his request at a Tuesday, September 27, meeting of the Public Works Committee of the Board of Commissioners, according to a news release from the board.

The board, along with other government agencies, has been invited to comment on SEMTA's proposed 1979 Public Transportation Plan before it is submitted to the state for final approval.

"People who use this line regularly have complained to me that service in the morning is generally fine—but just try to get a bus home in the evening," Mr. Steiner said.

"Several Wayne County employees show up at work five minutes early so that they can leave five minutes early in order to catch the 4:37 Charlevoix line in front of the National Bank Building," he explained.

"It's impossible to leave at 4:30, make it down the elevators and get to the bus stop a few blocks away," he said. "If they miss this bus, the next one doesn't come until 4:55—which, of course, is equally frustrating for office workers who don't get out until 5 p.m."

Mr. Steiner also pointed out that several Grosse Pointe-downtown Detroit lines are jammed in the evening and morning, forcing people to stand for the long trip to and from the city.

He said he also has been asked by senior citizens to see if something could be done about improving weekend service so that they could get to Renaissance Center and other downtown attractions.

Other commissioners joining Mr. Steiner in an appeal for better bus service to suburban communities include Commissioners Mary E. Dumas of Livonia, Edgar L. Harris of Taylor, Royce E. Smith of Belleville, Thomas Presnell of Westland and Alex Pilch and George Hart of Dearborn.

SEMTA officials John Savoyec, manager of bus service planning, and Harry L. Rogers, manager of SEMTA's program management office, told the commissioners they would look into the situation again and get back to them with a report.

However, they said SEMTA couldn't expand service now without cutting service somewhere else.

The University Liggett School Ecology Club will be holding its first paper drive on Friday and Saturday, October 7 and 8.

Paper may be brought to the school parking lot, at 1045 Cook road, either day between 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For pick ups please call the school on Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a.m. through 4 p.m., at 884-4444.

The Ecology Club, organized in 1973 Upper School math teacher Frank Gunnip, has used proceeds from past paper drives to support the World Wildlife Society, Save the Eagle Committee and the Detroit Audubon Society.

The club also has adopted a deer at the Detroit Zoo and made gifts of nature oriented magazines to the school libraries.

Roberts-Gray Rites Are Read in The North

Saint Monica's Catholic Church was the setting for the wedding of Kathy Maria Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Gray, of Kalamazoo, and Donald George Roberts, son of Mrs. Marian C. Roberts, of Blairmoor court, and George C. Roberts, of Houghton Lake, Saturday, August 20.

The Reverend Adolph Nadrach officiated at the 2 o'clock rites which were followed by a reception at the Elk's Club, Kalamazoo.

The bride's soft white long-sleeved gown featured a high neck with a cameo-cut-out, backed with lace and seed pearls. The skirt extended to a long train.

In a chapel-length veil trimmed with lace, she carried a mixed bouquet of white roses, baby's-breath, pom poms, miniature carnations and stephanotis, all backed with lemon leaves.

In pale aqua mint gowns detailed with gathers at the shoulder, high neck and flounce sleeves, were maid-of-honor Linda Price, of Kalamazoo, and bridesmaids Nancy Roberts, the bridegroom's sister, Nancie Boltjes, Eileen Simmons, and Cheryl Voss, all of Kalamazoo.

Their hats matched their dresses and featured a rose made from the dress material. They carried arrangements of peach sonora roses, baby's breath and stephanotis with streams of knotted white ribbon.

Pointier Raymond De-craene was best man. Ushering were Bob Roberts, brother of the bridegroom, David Vroom, and Keith Nickoloff, both of Grosse Pointe. More were the bride's brothers Jeff and Craig Gray.

The bride's mother chose a sleeveless creamy peach knit with a matching long-sleeved jacket.

Her corsage of peach sonora roses was surrounded with baby's-breath.

The mother of the bridegroom selected a lettuce green gown with overlays of shear chiffon. Yellow sonora roses and baby's breath were in her corsage.

After a wedding trip to Mackinac Island, the newlyweds are at home in Kalamazoo.

AAUW Quilt Makes History

War Memorial. Holding the quilt are, (standing left to right behind Mr. Lake and Mrs. Leibbrand), are MRS. URBAN BORESCH, of Kercheval avenue, and MRS. DAVID RIEVEN, of Detroit, co-chairmen of the project, and MRS. OSCAR NORREN, of McKinley avenue, who served as ticket chairman.

Others who assisted Mrs. Noren were Mrs. John Brewster, of Lochmoor boulevard, Mrs. Russell Nahat, of Severn road, and Mrs. Michael Smith, of Village Lane. The winner of the quilt was Mrs. D. G. Schneider, of St. Clair avenue, who intends to share it on special occasions with school children and other interested groups.

The 68 inch by 104 inch quilt, designed and quilted as a Bicentennial project by the 55 women of the Grosse Pointe branch of the AAUW, has 24 blocks, each representing a different period of Michigan history.

The history of the quilt was made possible through the photography of Sheldon Drennan, whose wife is an AAUW member. His pictures were placed on posters made by Mrs. Robert De Maggio, of Detroit, assisted by Mrs. Richard Beaudry, of Bishop road.

These posters were then placed in the Grosse Pointe Public Library and a number of store windows and at the Grosse Pointe Artists May Tea and Fair.

The War Memorial assisted by selling chances on the quilt.

Merry Mart '77 Set for Oct. 13

Fashion Luncheon to Feature Styles for Men and Women; All Items in Booths and Departments Are Handmade this Year

There is good news and bad news for friends and members of the Christ Child Society of Detroit. The good news is that Merry Mart '77 will be held next Thursday, October 13, from 10 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon at the Raleigh House in Southfield.

The bad news is that this year's Merry Mart will be a one-day-only affair—so, in order to stock up on the hand-made boutique items for which Merry Mart is famous, and to enjoy a super luncheon and fashion show, plans should be made RIGHT NOW.

The fashion luncheon, beginning at noon, is by reservation only. Chairmen Marge Amberg and Peg Goldsmith promise an exciting display of styles from B. Siegel plus the outstanding Adolpho collection of men's wear from Osmun's.

John Leitzes, fashion coordinator and director of Adolpho will be flying in from New York to commentate. Modeling the men's and women's styles will be Christ Child members and their "celebrity" husbands.

Accepting fashion luncheon reservations at a $10 person donation is Pointer Sue Grambo, 882-2691.

The Mart itself, under chairman Joann Donnelly and co-chairman Janet Francis, will feature all hand-made items this year, including sweaters for which special orders are being taken by Mary Ann Rejent, 881-0254.

There'll be original hand-painted skirts and accessories, crewel and needlepoint pillows, pettipoint items for miniature collectors and fantastic Christmas decorations.

The Pantry Booth will be overflowing with baked goods, jellies and jams and brandy French dressing, and will feature the popular lucite box filled with Christ Child members' culinary secrets: a great gift for the holiday hostess.

There'll be special prizes. All proceeds will, as always, go toward the support and maintenance of Christ Child House and Christ Child

School, for Christ Child Society of Detroit, which exists to help restore happiness through personal service to needy children.

Christ Child House in Detroit is a residence for neglected children referred through the courts and various social agencies. Christ Child School in Birmingham is for children with learning disabilities.

Both facilities serve children of all races, creeds and national origins.

Among Christ Child members actively involved in Merry Mart '77 booths and departments are Mary Tulloch, Lynn McGann, Peg Colby, Pat Alandt, Marian Mayday, Betty Ireland, Ann Browning and Pat Pokorny.

Mrs. Paul Weber and Mrs. William Reid, program coordinators, have planned a trip by bus to Kensington State Park where they will have an hour boat ride on the Island Queen Boat, a nature hike and a lecture on all the wild flowers.

The bus will leave the church parking lot at 9:30 o'clock sharp in the morning and will return about 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The trip will also include a box lunch.

All women of the church are invited. Reservations must be made in the church office before Friday, October 7.

Health Tests At Eastland

Free health screening tests will be available to tri-county area residents during the United Foundation Healthorama, from 9:30 o'clock in the morning to 9 o'clock in the evening, October 10 through 13 at the Eastland Shopping Center in Harper Woods.

Sponsored by United Health Organization, a Torch Drive-supported service, and Women for United Foundation, tests will be available to detect signs of high blood pressure, cervical cancer, anemia, heart disease, kidney disease, hearing and vision loss.

Appointments for Pap tests, used in detecting cervical cancer, can be made by calling 833-6783 or 833-6784.

According to William Hansen, Healthorama coordinator, Healthorama provides free medical testing to persons 18 or over. Medical tests are conducted by qualified medical personnel who volunteer their time.

Individuals whose test results are abnormal for any phase of screening will be referred to physicians for more precise tests and examination.

Of the 7,000 people who attended Healthorama last year, over 30 percent had not had a complete physical in more than five years. Hansen emphasizes, however, Healthorama does not take the place of a complete physical examination.

The most common problem detected is obesity. Referrals are made to the Michigan Heart Association, a Torch Drive agency, which offers diet classes to those who are overweight.

In addition to the health tests, there will be educational exhibits focusing on health and social problems from Community Information Services, another Torch Drive-supported service.

These exhibits will include information on alcoholism, the aged, speech and hearing difficulties, money management, legal aid, and recreational services.

Miss March of Dimes Contest Deadline Near

The Metropolitan Detroit Chapter March of Dimes will hold its annual "Miss March of Dimes" contest for teens 14 to 18 years of age, from Wayne and Macomb Counties.

Traditionally, more than 100 area high-school students participate in the contest, where votes are collected at the rate of 10 cents per vote. The teen with the most votes at the end of the competition, December 2, wins the crown and will reign during the coming year as MISS MARCH OF DIMES!

The deadline for entering the contest is Monday, October 17. Each participant is encouraged to use imagination and creativity in planning projects or events to raise money which will be used by the March of Dimes in the fight against birth defects.

Let's Talk Real Estate

We've often entertained the idea of having a Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co. award for "Best home on the block". We would have a committee made up of various people in different walks of life. This award could be displayed prominently perhaps as a door knocker or medallion someplace.

The award would take into consideration the houses general condition, how well decorated it was, and the general "feeling" of the house. Money wouldn't be the contributing factor as much as how functional and creative the owner is. Now what would this do for the owner, the street and the community?

We feel many home owners would strive for this award. It would possibly cause a whole revolution of home owners fixing up their homes. Imagine the advertising when the owner decides to sell, "award winner for 1977 Best home on the block". It's conceivable that this simple award could add prestige and value to an award winning home. This would pay the home owners for their "extra" time spent in making their home even more desirable. It could also simply be a fun thing for the Grosse Pointes!

Our Community Development Program (Cul-de-Sacs) is Grosse Pointe Real Estate Co's, 882-0087, way of proving that we are attempting to help our community. It's business with us, naturally, but it's so nice to have something worthwhile that we can do as Real Estate People and also earn a livelihood while doing it!

Now is a great time to list a home, contrary to what you might think. The inventory of homes for sale is lower at this time of the year. It's at this time that the serious buyers are out looking. Call us for an appraisal—882-0087—you'll probably be surprised at the value of your home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Graham

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Helen Piotrowski, of Detroit, asked his brother Walter Graham, of Detroit, to serve as best man.

Gary Olkowski, of Detroit, cousin of the bridegroom, and Jack D. Totty, the bride's brother, were ushers. Following a wedding trip to Toronto, the newlyweds are at home in Warren.

Drivers Needed at Cancer Unit

The Michigan Cancer Foundation's East Unit office, 21312 Mack avenue, needs volunteers who can drive cancer patients to and from their treatment centers.

"Each day we receive calls from people who need our help," said Maya Elmer, volunteer coordinator.

"People who are too old or too sick to get to treatment centers by themselves, or who have no one who can drive them there, call and ask if we can help."

"For many of these people, the treatments mean the difference between life and death. And we want so much to help give them a chance for life," she said.

"But we can't do it alone. We need help."

Last month, volunteer drivers in the east area made 204 trips to and from treatment centers and served 27 patients.

During the typical trip, the volunteer meets the person at home, drives him to the treatment center, waits while he receives the treatment and then takes him home again. The entire process takes about three hours, and volunteers can drive as often as they wish.

"It's such a rewarding experience," said Mr. and Mrs. William Wills, of Cloverly road, who have been drivers in the Michigan Cancer Foundation's Transportation program for 12 years.

"For us, it's not a big thing, but for the patient we drive, it really means a lot."

Any person with the time to help a cancer patient should call the East Unit office, at 881-2413, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays.

The Michigan Cancer Foundation offers programs in cancer research, screening and detection and patient and family care. It is a Torch Drive—United Way agency.

Ambition and enthusiasm are the best tools in the kit of men who want to reach the top.

Animals Offer Weather Clues

To many scientists, Chick Little's warning, "the sky is falling, the sky is falling," may be more than a nursery tale.

Many experts now agree that some animals may get advance warning of the earth's natural disasters and weather patterns well before man's most sophisticated instruments can detect them, according to the current September-October issue of International Wildlife Magazine.

From the beginning of recorded history, human beings have been intrigued by specific animal behavior that seemed to indicate some supernatural power to predict weather changes or disasters.

Just recently, scientists have begun taking this unusual animal behavior seriously, says the bi-monthly magazine of the National Wildlife Federation.

Scientists in the United States, the Soviet Union and China are using animals to determine if they can accurately predict earthquakes.

Several months before a massive earthquake shook China's Liaoning Province in 1974, the animals there were acting strangely.

Hibernating snakes crawled up from the ground, pigs climbed walls and bit each other's tails and agitated rats appeared in packs.

Chinese scientists, who have long had an abiding respect for the earthquake sensing abilities of animals, were alerted by this strange behavior and began checking the area's water levels. They were able to predict the earthquake accurately enough to save perhaps a million lives.

This phenomenon, however, does not always work. Last year one of China's deadliest earthquakes struck, killing an estimated 655,000 persons. Unusual behavior was reported for 33 species of animals before the quake, but not in enough time for a warning to be issued.

In the United States, scientists have stationed chimpanzees, kangaroos and cockroaches along earthquake zones in California, hoping to learn more about these baffling behavior patterns that are termed "pre-quake agitation," the National Wildlife Federation publication reports.

At a recent United States Geological Survey conference, scientists, speculating about possible causes for the bizarre agitation, suggested it was caused by changes in air pressure, the magnetic field, or animals hearing low frequency sounds. Others thought that gasses released from the ground before earthquakes might be perceived by the animals.

Since at least 1969, the Russians have established animal warning centers in quake-prone areas of the U.S.S.R. One Soviet geophysicist believes that once you can read the animals' behavior, they are the most sensitive barometers known to science.

For thousands of years animals have been better known for their ability to detect weather changes.

If horses yawned or roosters crowed in Finland, it meant upcoming drizzles. When flies bit eagerly and fish broke water, early Americans knew a rainstorm was on its way. If geese flew south early and turkeys grew thicker feathers, one could expect a cold winter.

American scientists want to find out what the animals are sensing so they can build instruments to pick up the same signals. But this may be difficult.

Our radar, for instance, which many think is a marvel of modern science, is primitive in comparison with that of a bat. The bat's radar, weighing less than half an ounce, was "invented" by nature several million years ago.

Until these instruments are built, if ever, scientists may have to pay heed to Chick Little and watch for agitated rats, frenzied pigs and other peculiar animal behavior to predict earthquakes and other important changes in nature.

Red Barons Win, Lose, Tie

The Grosse Pointe Red Barons hosted archrivals St. Clair Shores Black Knights at North High's field on Sunday, September 25. A large crowd was on hand.

In the freshman game, Dan Kopitzke scored the lone Red Baron touchdown on a 2 yard unassisted burst up the middle as the Barons experienced yet another disappointing 6-6 tie.

Despite the lack of scoring, the Red Barons mounted several long drives on the running of Ty Fiegel, Robbie Chown, David Fleming, David Balcerzak and Kopitzke.

The Black Knights touchdown came after a fumbled snap from center was recovered in the end zone.

Defensively, the Red Barons attack was spearheaded by the aggressive play of Hobey Echlin, Buster Lucido, Vince Brinker, Steve Zehnfeint, Jim Raugh and Jeff Cichocki. The turning point of the game occurred when Echlin blocked a Black Knight punt and the ball was covered by Lucido deep in Black Knight territory.

At the junior varsity level, the Red Barons bested their opponents by a score of 19-0. Jim Seagram tallied two touchdowns and Greg Fleming one to pace the attack.

The powerful end sweeps of Fleming, Willie Secor, and Cedric Patmon set the stage for the strong inside penetration of Seagram.

Quarterback Ross Kovanda passed successfully to his favorite receivers, Joe Barolo and David Spindler.

The offensive line was sparked by the play of Paul Bautista and Eric Kratochwill. Nino Cueter, Tom Petzold, Matt Spadafora, Larry Calcaterra, Pat Armstrong, David Fitzsimmons and Doug Annas played tough defense to contribute to the win.

The final game of the day saw the Red Baron varsity come up on the short end of a lopsided and mistake ridden 32-6 thrashing. The lone Red Baron score came on a pass from quarterback Scott DeClaire that was tipped into the hands of an alert David Babcock by a Black Knight defensive back. DeClaire and Bill Crow ran well. Missed assignments, fumbles and mistakes in key situations proved fatal to the Red Baron game plan.

Even the people who travel in the best circles find it mighty hard to make both ends meet.

LOOM Wants Local Lodge

Walter F. Norge, Jr., membership director for the Supreme Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, (LOOM), headquartered in Mooseheart, Ill., is seeking 150 signatures of residents of The Pointe area toward forming a Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Lodge.

Those who sign up will become charter members of the local organization.

Mr. Norge, of St. Clair Shores, is secretary and past governor of his lodge. He also is a former secretary of Hamtramck Lodge, and holds the second highest degree in the fraternity "Fellowship" for his humanitarian work in various Michigan communities.

Male residents of The Pointe, East Detroit and Harper Woods, 21 years or older, interested in becoming charter members of the lodge, may obtain further information by phoning Mr. Norge at 294-1923.

A special $10 charter fee is being charged for the enrollment, while regular enrollment fees are $25. Annual dues will be fixed at $25 once the charter is issued.

LOOM was founded 89 years ago in Louisville, Ky., by Dr. John Henry Wilson, who wanted to organize a group of friends into a fraternal order.

Mooseheart, the "Child City," was established in 1913, for the purpose of caring for and educating the sons and daughters of deceased members. Moosehaven, the "City of Contentment" was founded in 1922, near Jacksonville, Fla., to provide a home for the senior citizens of the fraternity and to care for them in their declining years.

Today, LOOM's membership totals more than one and a half million, with more than 2,800 lodges in the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom. The Golden Rule has become the axiom of the fraternity, which now is engaged in nationwide community civic affairs programs.

The Moose Family Fraternity is a patriotic organization, demanding loyalty to country and deep respect for our country's flag from all its members.

For years, you couldn't get real tobacco flavor without high tar. Low tar cigarettes just couldn't measure up. Until MERIT.

The result was 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco.

MERIT and MERIT 100's were packed with this special tobacco. And taste-tested against a number of higher tar cigarettes.

Drivers Needed at Cancer Unit

The Michigan Cancer Foundation's East Unit office, 2132 Mack avenue, needs volunteers who can drive cancer patients to and from their treatment centers.

"Each day we receive calls from people who need our help," said Maya Elmer, volunteer coordinator.

"People who are too old or too sick to get to treatment centers by themselves, or who have no one who can drive them there, call and ask if we can help."

"For many of these people, the treatments mean the difference between life and death. And we want so much to help give them a chance for life," she said.

"But we can't do it alone. We need help."

Last month, volunteer drivers in the east area made 204 trips to and from treatment centers and served 27 patients.

During the typical trip, the volunteer meets the person at home, drives him to the treatment center, waits while he receives the treatment and then takes him home again. The entire process takes about three hours, and volunteers can drive as often as they wish.

"It's such a rewarding experience," said Mr. and Mrs. William Wills, of Cloverly road, who have been drivers in the Michigan Cancer Foundation's Transportation program for 12 years.

"For us, it's not a big thing, but for the patient we drive, it really means a lot."

Any person with the time to help a cancer patient should call the East Unit office, at 881-2413, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays.

The Michigan Cancer Foundation offers programs in cancer research, screening and detection and patient and family care. It is a Torch Drive—United Way agency.

Ambition and enthusiasm are the best tools in the kit of men who want to reach the top.

Animals Offer Weather Clues

To many scientists, Chicken Little's warning, "the sky is falling, the sky is falling," may be more than a nursery tale.

Many experts now agree that some animals may get advance warning of the earth's natural disasters and weather patterns well before man's most sophisticated instruments can detect them, according to the current September-October issue of International Wildlife Magazine.

From the beginning of recorded history, human beings have been intrigued by specific animal behavior that seemed to indicate some supernatural power to predict weather changes or disasters.

Just recently, scientists have begun taking this unusual animal behavior seriously, says the bi-monthly magazine of the National Wildlife Federation.

Scientists in the United States, the Soviet Union and China are using animals to determine if they can accurately predict earthquakes.

Several months before a massive earthquake shook China's Liaoning Province in 1974, the animals there were acting strangely.

Hibernating snakes crawled up from the ground, pigs climbed walls and bit each other's tails and agitated rats appeared in packs.

Chinese scientists, who have long had an abiding respect for the earthquake sensing abilities of animals, were alerted by this strange behavior and began checking the area's water levels. They were able to predict the earthquake accurately enough to save perhaps a million lives.

This phenomenon, however, does not always work. Last year one of China's deadliest earthquakes struck, killing an estimated 655,000 persons. Unusual behavior was reported for 33 species of animals before the quake, but not in enough time for a warning to be issued.

In the United States, scientists have stationed chimpanzees, kangaroo rats and cockroaches along earthquake zones in California, hoping to learn more about these baffling behavior patterns that are termed "pre-quake agitation," the National Wildlife Federation publication reports.

At a recent United States Geological Survey conference, scientists, speculating about possible causes for the bizarre agitation, suggested it was caused by changes in air pressure, the magnetic field, or animals hearing low frequency sounds. Others thought that gasses released from the ground before earthquakes might be perceived by the animals.

Since at least 1969, the Russians have established animal warning centers in quake-prone areas of the U.S.S.R. One Soviet geophysicist believes that once you can read the animals' behavior, they are the most sensitive barometers known to science.

For thousands of years animals have been better known for their ability to detect weather changes.

If horses yawned or roosters crowed in Finland, it meant upcoming drizzles. When flies bit earegally and fish broke water, early Americans knew a rainstorm was on its way. If geese flew south early and turkeys grew thicker feathers, one could expect a cold winter.

American scientists want to find out what the animals are sensing so they can build instruments to pick up the same signals. But this may be difficult.

Our radar, for instance, which many think is a marvel of modern science, is primitive in comparison with that of a bat. The bat's radar, weighing less than half an ounce, was "invented" by nature several million years ago.

Until these instruments are built, if ever, scientists may have to pay heed to Chicken Little and watch for agitated rats, frenzied pigs and other peculiar animal behavior to predict earthquakes and other important changes in nature.

Red Barons Win, Lose, Tie

The Grosse Pointe Red Barons hosted archrivals St. Clair Shores Black Knights at North High's field on Sunday, September 25. A large crowd was on hand.

In the freshman game, Dan Kopitzke scored the lone Red Baron touchdown on a 2 yard unassisted burst up the middle as the Barons experienced yet another disappointing 6-6 tie.

Despite the lack of scoring, the Red Barons mounted several long drives on the running of Ty Fiegel, Robbie Chown, David Fleming, David Balcerzak and Kopitzke.

The Black Knights touchdown came after a fumbled snap from center was recovered in the end zone.

Defensively, the Red Barons attack was spearheaded by the aggressive play of Hobey Echlin, Buster Lucido, Vince Brinker, Steve Zehnfennig, Jim Raugh and Jeff Cichocki. The turning point of the game occurred when Echlin blocked a Black Knight punt and the ball was covered by Lucido deep in Black Knight territory.

At the junior varsity level, the Red Barons bested their opponents by a score of 19-0. Jim Seagram tallied two touchdowns and Greg Fleming one to pace the attack.

The powerful end sweeps of Fleming, Willie Secor, and Cedric Patmon set the stage for the strong inside penetration of Seagram.

Quarterback Ross Kovanda passed successfully to his favorite receivers, Joe Barolo and David Spindler.

The offensive line was sparked by the play of Paul Bautista and Eric Kratochwill. Nino Cueter, Tom Petzold, Matt Spadafora, Larry Calcaterra, Pat Armstrong, David Fitzsimmons and Doug Annas played tough defense to contribute to the win.

The final game of the day saw the Red Baron varsity come up on the short end of a lopsided and mistake ridden 32-6 thrashing. The lone Red Baron score came on a pass from quarterback Scott DeClaire that was tipped into the hands of an alert David Babcock by a Black Knight defensive back. DeClaire and Bill Crow ran well. Missed assignments, fumbles and mistakes in key situations proved fatal to the Red Baron game plan.

Even the people who travel in the best circles find it mighty hard to make both ends meet.

LOOM Wants Local Lodge

Walter F. Norge, Jr., membership director for the Supreme Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, (LOOM), headquartered in Mooseheart, Ill., is seeking 150 signatures of residents of The Pointe area toward forming a Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Lodge.

Those who sign up will become charter members of the local organization.

Mr. Norge, of St. Clair Shores, is secretary and past governor of his lodge. He also is a former secretary of Hamtramck Lodge, and holds the second highest degree in the fraternity "Fellowship" for his humanitarian work in various Michigan communities.

Male residents of The Pointe, East Detroit and Harper Woods, 21 years or older, interested in becoming charter members of the lodge, may obtain further information by phoning Mr. Norge at 294-1923.

A special $10 charter fee is being charged for the enrollment, while regular enrollment fees are $25. Annual dues will be fixed at $25 once the charter is issued.

LOOM was founded 89 years ago in Louisville, Ky., by Dr. John Henry Wilson, who wanted to organize a group of friends into a fraternal order.

Mooseheart, the "Child City," was established in 1913, for the purpose of caring for and educating the sons and daughters of deceased members. Moosehaven, the "City of Contentment" was founded in 1922, near Jacksonville, Fla., to provide a home for the senior citizens of the fraternity and to care for them in their declining years.

Today, LOOM's membership totals more than one and a half million, with more than 2,800 lodges in the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom. The Golden Rule has become the axiom of the fraternity, which now is engaged in nationwide community civic affairs programs.

The Moose Family Fraternity is a patriotic organization, demanding loyalty to country and deep respect for our country's flag from all its members.

QUAINT CHARM—WASHINGTON ROAD

Here is a home that's typical of what we mean by charm. A 4 bedroom colonial that just stepped out of New England. It features a raised hearth fireplace on a paneled wall with built-in bookcases. A cozy private sunroom that can be used as a TV or family room. The master bedroom has a beamed ceiling and an attached study. The upstairs bath has been recently updated. The furnace and roof are almost new. Truly a home for the family that wants something unique. The price only adds to the charm.

CONVENIENCE PLUS—MAPLETON

Before it gets dark tonight take a drive down Mapleton in the Farms. The first thing you'll notice is the quiet atmosphere of the tree lined street. Notice how well maintained all the homes are, an important consideration if you're about to invest. Drive around a bit and you'll find that from Mapleton it is only a short walk to shopping on the Hill. Want to walk along the Lake—it's only a block and a half away. Bus lines to downtown Detroit or to Eastland are just a half block away, as is Cottage Hospital. It is close enough to everything so you won't need a second car.

We have two very good listings on Mapleton. First there is a three bedroom bungalow that is an outstanding investment in the mid-thirties price range. It has an updated kitchen, French doors with beveled glass leading to the patio—and the back yard is a brick and stone patio that is almost maintenance free.

The second listing is a two bedroom colonial. The two bedrooms are large and the living room and dining room large windows that make the inside bright and cheerful. A new garage gives you inside storage for the winter ahead. Need a family room—we can give you the plans for an addition that would be worth twice the installation cost—a sound buy on a street that is unique in character.

ENGLISH COLONIAL

Large family? Love to entertain? Hate to "fix-up" when you move? If yes to any of these then this home on Pemberton is for you. This exceptional home has been cultivated and maintained in absolutely perfect condition and the leaded glass doors and natural wood trim set it a cut above the others. The four bedrooms are large, a library and Florida room—and the living room has the space for the conversational area that make for comfortable entertaining. The basement recreation room is finished in hardwood flooring. Energy conscious? The heating bill for last season was less than for many homes half the size.

FARMS LOCATION—MORAN

Another proud offering of a home that is in perfect move-in condition, a desirable street in the Farms and yet within walking distance of shopping, schools and transportation. A 3 bedroom colonial with a tiled foyer, new kitchen, paneled family room, cedar closet, central air. All of this in a very reasonably priced package. Awaiting your offer.

GATSBY DAYS—

Seem to come to life as you stroll through this truly mansion-styled lovely home. Huge rooms all with high ceilings. There's probably more fireplaces than you would ever order but they are a warmth that isn't available today. A Gatsby sun room overlooks view of lake and seems eternally bedrenched with sunlight. A great home to call your residence. Price high!

READY TO INVEST?

Ask your banker or accountant why real estate is a preferred investment these days. Then, explore this opportunity on Wayburn. A 5 and 5 flat that can be conventionally financed or a land contract is available. Have your accountant call us. We have another investment property on Wayburn where the current owners would like to remain as tenants. A 5/5 in good condition at a fair price. Now is the time for protection against inflation and protect your money in real estate.

FIRST OFFERING—Harper Woods

A perfect starter home at a price that is truly affordable. A cute white frame bungalow that has 2 bedrooms down and a third, very large, bedroom on the second floor. New kitchen, new carpeting, a cement patio with gas grill. In excellent condition. The home, its condition, and the asking price add up to a formula that won't last long. Act now.

CHANDLER PARK DRIVE, DETROIT

A lovely 3 bedroom Southern Colonial built by Cox & Baker. It has a formal dining room, paneled rec room, large bedrooms. The attention of the owners to detail is reflected in its superb condition. A rare value at $34,900.

Rain Affects North's Loss

By Joe Sazy
It was another rain-filled unlucky afternoon which greeted the North High varsity football team as Fraser edged the Norsemen in a 20-17 heartbreaker Saturday, October 1.

Fraser jumped off to a quick 7-0 lead on a 45-yard drive after forcing North's offense to punt.

But North's offense began to move in the second quarter.

Quarterback Harry Gemund started the drive with a 12-yard pass to Rich Vermeulen and the same pair connected again for another 20 yards to bring North deep into Fraser's territory.

Pointer of Interest

GRACE OLIVER, OF NEFF ROAD

By Donna Lee Moran

Grace Oliver is a little person who thinks big. She is 34 inches tall, in her stocking feet, and tips the scales at 65 pounds. "I don't consider myself handicapped," she says, "as everyone in the world is limited in some way. My 'limitations' are just more obvious than other peoples'."

Grace recently was elected National Queen of the Little People of America at their yearly convention in Portland, Ore. It's a big title for a "little" girl, but she wears her crown well. "I look forward to the conventions," she says. "Each year they get bigger and better, with more new and interesting 'little people' with whom to become acquainted."

"I've traveled to meetings in Florida, North Carolina, California, Southfield and Portland. Each time I come back renewed, and feel that I can conquer anything that lies ahead. "At our conventions, it takes a while for the other guests and the hotel management to get used to the presence of 400 lively 'little people,'" she laughs. "But we have so much fun that when we leave, they're sorry to see us go."

Promote Sobriety "They try not to be obviously interested in our short stature... but people's curiosity is usually aroused, particularly on elevators, where all the 'giants' tower over us. In the cocktail lounges, guests often can't believe their eyes when a large group of 'little people' walks in."

"Many might become teetotalers because of us!" Several doctors who specialize in dwarfism accompany all the LPA conventions. "We call them Camp Followers," Grace chuckles. "Some are geneticists and radiologists, and some are orthopaedic specialists who are learning more about the various types of dwarfism that occur."

"My own particular type is called parastigmatic dwarfism, and there are only two of us known to date. With this particular affliction, the joints are loose and become dislocated."

On the first day of the Portland convention, one of Grace's elbow joints popped out of place.

Pain and Humor Mix "I was in a great deal of pain during the night, and at 7 in the morning I called the doctors, who were staying down the hall. My four roommates all got up and dressed to wait for their arrival, and were surprised to open the door to two very sleepy doctors in bathrobes and pajamas."

"They quickly put my elbow back in place and left—but a fellow 'little person' who was waiting for an elevator observed the doctors leaving our room, in their pajamas, and teased us throughout the rest of the convention."

Little People of America was founded in 1957 by Billy Barty, the television actor who wanted to prove that short-statured individuals could have better occupations in life than being circus clowns.

Twenty people attended LPA's first convention in Las Vegas. Since then, the organization has grown to 2,600 nationally. It plans to go international soon.

"At the LPA conventions we learn that we are not alone," Grace explains. "LPA does not withdraw from the average Big World—but we've banded together to learn to cope with it."

Measurements Differ "People sometimes ask me if we measure each other at meetings. I tell them that we measure each other by our accomplishments, and by what we are. Not by height."

There is a short-statured group in England, the Foundation for Restricted Growth, and there is a Lilliputian town in Germany, near Leipzig, especially designed for small-sized living.

All the townspeople are 'little people' of all occupations, and they come from all over Europe to form a miniature United Nations, with everyone contributing to the life and growth of the community.

It is exactly like a middle-sized town anywhere... except that the residents are smaller in size and live in houses and work in buildings especially constructed to meet their unique needs.

Hopes to Teach Grace entered Rochester's Oakland University as an Elementary Education major last month. She hopes eventually to teach the deaf or the blind.

Another of her aspirations is to become a professional singer: she sings folk music and ballads at parties, weddings and ethnic festivals. She auditioned for Gong Shows in several nightclubs in the Detroit area. She was never "gonged," but always placed.

For two years, she was a student at Macomb Community College.

"I felt very comfortable there. The people at the school, the board of directors in particular, were very warm, and understanding of the problems of the handicapped."

"At first, the disabled students had several grievances, so we met with the board... and they were happy to listen to us, and did everything they could to rectify and improve our situation."

They Really Helped "For instance: they got doors with automatic electric eyes, so we didn't have to open heavy doors alone. And they enforced a ruling that only handicapped people could park in certain areas."

"Macomb County Community College also has a specially-made tunnel between the various buildings on campus, for handicapped students' use, as Michigan's climate can be very severe."

And the MCCC Public Safety Department, (members are police officers in training), was very helpful. Public Safety personnel helped get people with wheelchairs in and out of cars.

"In my case," says Grace, "they helped me with my specially-made four-wheeled bike, which is my special kind of transportation. They scraped snow off car windows, helped us in the cafeteria and bookstore, and did it all with a smile. We even got a little teasing from them now and then—like when I locked my keys in my car, and they had to break in for me."

Was Honor Student As a student at Grosse Pointe South High School, Grace was in the choir and the National Honor Society. She also was a co-op student, and worked for two years at the J. L. Hudson store in Eastland, in the Credit Department, doing the same job as everyone else... but in a slightly different manner. She used her bike to "run" the necessary errands around the store. A specially-built ramp was installed in front of the Xerox machine so she could make copies of credit reports. She climbed a short, carpeted stairway to reach the filing cabinets.

"It always seemed to me that I got all of the extremely large customers for credit applications," she laughs, "and I would have to ask them to sit down so I could see them."

Children were especially intrigued with me, and would ask me why I was so short. One little girl particularly stands out in my mind. I knelt rather than sat on the seat behind my desk, and this girl kept asking me where my legs were. I told her I had very short legs, and was shorter than she was.

Amazed, Sympathetic "Naturally, she didn't believe me, and wanted me to stand up to 'prove it'—and when I finally did stand up, to go to the filing cabinet, the girl was amazed."

"She said, 'You really are shorter than me,' patted me on the head and left!"

"When I was a teenager, I had a little difficulty getting baby sitting jobs, because the parents were not confident that I could do the job. Grace reports matter-of-factly, "I had several 'firsts'; but was never called back."

The best experience she had was with two "terrible towheads" little boys, six and seven years old. "I read them a bedtime story, and they were flabbergasted that I could read!" Their mother called Grace back several times. "She said I was the only sitter she'd ever had who could keep her boys under control!"

Our Lady Star of the Sea High School graduate CLARE DeYONKER, who received a Bachelors degree from Michigan State University this spring, daughter of CLARA J. MR. and MRS. TERRY WELF, of Highland, Ind., announce the birth of a son, their first child, KRISTEN ROGIER WELF, August 29. Mrs. Welf, formerly Rosemary Rogier, is the daughter of the CYRIEL H. ROGIER, of Manchester boulevard. The paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. ROBERT WELF, of Strongsville, O.

DAVID L. HELM, III, of Stephens road, was awarded a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a major in Marketing by Xavier University, Cincinnati, O.

CADET TODD M. REMUS, son of Pointers MR. and MRS. STANLEY R. REMUS, has been promoted to Cadet Second Lieutenant for his fourth year at the Howe Military School.

Grosse Pointe South High School 1977 graduate, AIRMAN JEFFREY HOLDER, son of MRS. JOAN M. HOLDER, of Wayburn road, has been assigned to Lowry Air Force Base, Colo. where he will receive specialized training in the munitions and weapons maintenance field.

Had Good Rapport Grace has good rapport with children on a physical level. "I don't represent a 'giant' figure to them, as most adults do. I can swim in their depth of water, we can ride bikes and play games together, and we're all friends—although they respect me and know I'm in charge."

She's very grateful to the people who have helped her along the way. "When I was a senior (in South) high school, Mrs. Louise TeWalt, who was head of a volunteer group, obtained contributions from the faculty and individuals in the community to buy me a car, so I could go to and from college."

"It has specially-made hand controls, and I have to steer, shift gears and operate the brakes and gas pedal by hand."

"Believe me, sometimes I wish I had three hands! I could use them in heavy traffic."

Grateful to Shriners When she was nine years old, Grace met a Very Special Person. Robert Krause is with the Shriners. "I was quite depressed at the time, as I felt isolated in the 'big' world."

"Mr. Krause took me to the Shrine Circus and introduced me to the first other 'little people' I had ever seen. They happened to be clowns, who give others the gift of laughter."

"Mr. Krause got me in touch with other Shriners, and I had surgery at their hospital in Oak Park, Ill., in 1967. I had wedge resections of the tibias, to try to make me taller and to try to straighten my legs."

"Since then, the Shriners have invited me to sing at their conventions, circuses and Christmas parties. In 1968 I was the Shriner Queen, and sang at the All-Star football game in Indiana. The Shriners also gave me my little bike, which makes it much easier for me to get around."

along with Suppe's "Light Cavalry Overture" and "The Irish Washerwoman," from Anderson's "Irish Suite," is also scheduled. To help celebrate Columbus Day October 12, the orchestra will also play "Funiculi, Funicula."

A limited number of season tickets for both concerts are still available and may be purchased at the DSO season ticket office at Ford Auditorium through Friday afternoon, October 7.

This week's DSO radio broadcast over WDET-FM (101.9) Wednesday evening, October 5 at 8:30 o'clock will be the July 23 performance at Meadow Brook.

Pianist Andre Watts is featured in Brahms' Piano Concerto No. 2 in B-flat, with Neville Martin conducting.

Also on the program are Britten's "Young Persons' Guide to an Orchestra" and the Shostokovich Symphony No. 1.

To continue with more musical notes... Named Conservatory Director

The Grosse Pointe Conservatory of Music, 20758 Mack avenue, has announced the appointment of professional jazz pianist and teacher Bess Bonnier and classical pianist and teacher, Pointer Doris Eubank as its directors.

Miss Bonnier has performed in clubs, concerts, on television and radio, and with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at Orchestra Hall. She has given lecture-demonstrations to school groups of all ages, churches and Michigan colleges.

Currently she is musical director of a new series in the Kresge Court of the Detroit Institute of Art entitled, "Jazz at the Institute."

The series is similar to another series at the Institute, "Brunch with Bach," which has been extremely successful.

Doris Eubank has been teaching and performing for many years throughout the mid-west. Among her present activities are performing two-piano recitals, joining with the Detroit Community Music School Faculty Woodwind Quintet in a winter series of recitals, giving solo performances and serving as musical director of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

New courses at the conservatory include, naturally, jazz improvisation, creative drama and instruction in reading braille music.

"There's Billy Barty, the TV actor, and Michael Dunn, the very fine actor who starred in the movie 'Ship of Fools'—and everyone knows what an outstanding artist Toulouse-Lautrec was: his Moulin Rouge posters, depicting the French cafe life of his time, are world-famous."

"And there's Michu, the Hungarian clown, who's making his mark in the world by making people laugh."

Sometimes Grace is asked if the rest of the family is "normal." "Yes," she replies. "And so am I!"
