TEAMSTERS PRESIDENT
Frank Fitzsimmons said yesterday, that former Attorney General Richard Kleindienst did not tell the truth when he testified that he worked through Fitzsimmons to help an accused insurance swindler get a lucrative Teamster contract. Mr. Fitzsimmons told a Senate sub-committee investigating the 1976 Teamster's award of a $23 million welfare fund insurance contract to Kleindienst's client, insurance promoter Joseph Hauser, "... Mr. Kleindienst has a very large imagination."

THE GOVERNMENT reported yesterday that grocery prices are probably headed up again this winter. Farm prices rose in October for the first time in six months, according to the Labor Department, and this is expected to be reflected in supermarket prices in the months ahead. Farm prices jumped 2.4 percent last month and combined with the higher prices for new 1978 model cars and trucks, the percentage hike could be up to 0.8 for overall wholesale prices. This is the biggest wholesale jump since last April, when the rise was 1.1 percent.

Saturday, November 5
THE UNITED NATIONS yesterday imposed a permanent world arms embargo against South Africa. This is the first time a UN member has been subjected to such action. United States Ambassador Andrew Young called the sanction a "stigma" that he hoped would goad the Pretoria government into ending its racial separation policies. Shortly after the UN Security Council announced its action, the South African government voiced defiance, saying that the move would stiffen the resolve of South Africans to defend their country.

Sunday, November 6
BANDLEADER GUY LOMBARD, 75, whose "Auld Lang Syne" was a New Year's Eve mainstay for nearly a half century, died late last night in Houston. Mr. Lombardo died of a breathing problem related to the heart trouble for which he had been admitted to the hospital on Thursday, October 27, a hospital spokesman said. His wife, Lillie Bell, was with him when he died about 10:45 p.m. Detroit time. Mr. Lombardo started his musical career in 1914 at the age of 12. He began his New Year's Eve performances in 1929, with the Royal Canadians, (his band), on the radio.

Monday, November 7
AN EARTHEN DAM burst early yesterday in Toccoa, Ga., sending a 30-foot wall of water smashing down onto the little town. At least 38 people died, most of them students and their families, at a small Bible college located in Toccoa. Two persons were still missing last night as rescue workers searched the three miles of destruction left by the flood. Forty-five persons were injured, 10 seriously enough to require hospitalization. The dam, built on Toccoa Creek about two miles southwest of the town, gave way shortly before 1 a.m. after four days of heavy rain.

Tuesday, November 8
PRESIDENT Jimmy Carter formally postponed his nine-nation foreign trip yesterday in order to be able to "involve himself personally" in the intensive legislative struggle over his national energy program. Mr. Carter had threatened to delay the trip, scheduled for November 22 to December 2, if Congress had not completed action on his program by the departure date. The Congress remains split on the program.

Cars Destroyed But Injuries Are Minor

When traffic in The City was at its heaviest Saturday, November 5, after the North-South High School football game, two cars collided at the intersection of Washington road and Waterloo avenue. Joyce M. Hoskins, 52, of Loraine road, was traveling south on Washington when her auto smashed into a car driven by Beverly Leu, 50, of McKinley avenue. Upon impact, Mrs. Leu's car flipped over onto a corner lawn. Miraculously, both women received only minor cuts and bruises. Mrs. Hoskins was treated at Cottage Hospital, while Mrs. Leu was taken to Bon Secours. Both were released only hours after the accident, and Mrs. Hoskins was issued a ticket for careless driving.

GPT Ready To 'Stop The World'

Group Opens 30th Season with Hit Musical, Which Had 555 Broadway Performances

Grosse Pointe Theater, (GPT), opens its 30th season with the hit musical, "Stop the World—I Want to Get Off," November 9-13 and November 15-19.

It's womb to tomb with "Littlechap," a musical Everyman, in this bright, tuneful and imaginative musical morality play that ran for 555 performances on Broadway.

By turns heartwarming, melodious, insightful and downright funny, the show features such songs as "What Kind of Fool Am I?" and "Gonna Build a Mountain."

Unique Show
"The show is unique," says director Jeanne Chrisman of Harper Woods. "We're having great fun working with a show that has something for everyone. As you sit and watch 'Littlechap' grow you will see segments of your own life on stage. I hope they will enjoy it as much as we have."

A theatrical veteran in Detroit and Grosse Pointe, she is making her GPT debut in this demanding job. She has worked on several of the group's productions, both backstage and on. She plays (Continued on Page 2)

Austin Catholic Prep Parents Rally to Prevent Closing of Institution

After Meeting Several Times, Group Prepares Formal Proposal to Lease School under Lay Board of Trustees

By Susan McDonald
Within days of the recent announcement that the Augustinian Order will close Austin Catholic Prep at the end of this school year several shocked parents began action to try to save the 25-year-old institution.

The parents, who have held several meetings during the past weeks, are now in the process of preparing a formal proposal that would allow them to lease the school and continue its operation under a lay board of trustees.

Austin staff received news of the closing Wednesday, October 26. The Augustinians' midwest Provincial Council, which made the decision, cited a severe shortage of Augustinian teachers, Austin's five-year decline in enrollment and the plentiful supply of seats in other local Catholic schools as reasons for the closing.

Seek Approval
But an energetic committee of about 24 parents is already hard at work exploring every avenue to keep the school operating.

"Austin's a superior school and I want to see Catholic education continue on the east side," said Brad Lundy, one of the parents working on the committee.

"The building is there and the money is there. We need the Provincial's approval and priests from other orders to teach."

Legionnaires Disease Strikes Two Pointers

Between May and August of this year two Pointe residents contracted and recovered from legionnaires disease.

According to Dr. Norman Hayner, State Department of Public Health epidemiologist, a 51-year-old Woods physician was hospitalized in late May and a Farms woman, the wife of a physician, was hospitalized in August. Both were suffering from the rare disease.

Dr. Hayner said that an investigation by the state and the Wayne County Health Departments, did not show any connection between the two victims.

Both patients were treated by the same physician. On September 29, Dr. Hayner came from Lansing to meet with the patients and their physician at Saint John Hospital.

During that meeting, the two Pointers filled out a questionnaire from the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta. The questionnaires, along with the patients' serum samples, were sent to Atlanta to be studied to find a possible connection with other cases of the disease.

There have been four confirmed cases of legionnaires disease in Michigan, and one death, since the mysterious illness swept through an American Legion convention in Philadelphia in July 1976. Twenty-nine persons died during that convention.

There have been 28 deaths from the disease since that convention.

Detectors Sale Set for Nov. 15

Many calls have been received at Woods offices in relation to the city's announcement that it will make smoke detectors available to its citizens.

Building Inspector Earl Wakely, who apparently has been getting the majority of the calls, said he hopes 250 detectors, which have a test button, will be received by Tuesday, November 15. They will be sold at $22 apiece, nine-volt battery included, on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Around 175 of the detectors have already been accounted for by citizens and city employees, so about 75 will be ready for sale "over the counter."

If the response is good, there's a possibility that more will be ordered.

Brys Drive Subject of Discussion

Traffic Flow Problems Viewed by Officials at Meeting in Woods

By Roger A. Waha
A meeting between Woods public safety officials, city planner Brandon Rogers and representatives from AAA and the St. Clair Shores and Harper Woods Police Departments toward a plan of attack to alleviate heavy traffic conditions in Brys drive and Old Eight Mile road was held Monday morning, November 7, in The Woods.

This session is a major step toward arriving at a final report with recommendations which will be before the Woods Council at its regular meeting Monday, November 21, the target date given to concerned residents at the October 3 meeting.

Woods Traffic Safety Officer Paul Crook, who represented his city along with Lt. Peter Thomas at the session, said he will meet with the lieutenant and Mr. Rogers this week to come up with a final report and a list of recommendations.

Reroute Traffic
Saying everyone was helpful in the exchange of ideas at the two-hour gathering, Officer Crook stated every one viewed the problem regarding the volume of traffic in the immediate area, along with the flow of commercial vehicles.

"We are going to try to make motorists coming off the expressway know exactly where they are by way of instructional signs," he said, so motorists might, for instance, stay on and use Vernier road rather than Brys or Roslyn.

Another related objective toward eliminating traffic along Brys is to reroute the flow to different areas such as to the main arteries, Vernier and Harper roads. "We want traffic to stay off of small, residential streets toward a reduction in volume," noted Officer Crook.

Potential Remains
The initial goal is to come up with concrete recommendations to alleviate the problem immediately, while Mr. Rogers is scheduled to come up with a long-term proposal, the officer said.

As for traffic counts, Officer Crook said 13 different

Board Views Renovation of SH Complex

Four Architectural Firms Present Bids on Plans to Study Improvement of Industrial Arts Facility

By Susan McDonald
The Board of Education heard bid presentations from four local architectural firms Monday, November 7, on plans to study renovation of South High School's industrial arts complex.

Maximum prices for the study ranged from a high of $13,000 from William Kessler and Assoc. to the low bid of $3,500, (plus printing at cost), from John Stevens Assoc. Wakely-Kushner Assoc. submitted a $10,000 maximum bid and Ellis-Naeyert-Genheimer Assoc., $12,200.

The study will be just the first step toward renovating the facility, which houses most of the vocational education and many art classes at South.

Eye Bond Issue

Students and teachers have long complained about the building and last year the facility received 23 building code violations from The Farms and the Michigan Labor Department. School officials report that those violations have been corrected.

But many of the problems in the complex remain. As a recent North Central Ass'n. report pointed out, there are hazardous ventilation problems in the auto shop, located in the basement of the building, and severe crowding.

Ten local firms were invited to get involved in the project, but only the four that made presentations Monday accepted. The Board has allocated $15,000 in this year's budget for the study.

Beyond the study, the means of financing the renovation are still up in the air. Several of the architects presenting their bids alluded to the possibility the school will float a bond issue to renovate the building.

Might Need Addition

Three of the architects apparently agreed that, though the existing building can be refurbished to house most of the vocational programs held at South, an addition of some kind will be needed to house the automotive shop.

All four firms have had experience designing educational facilities in the Detroit area. Board members agreed to visit some of the firms' work and will review the extensive background information provided for them before making a decision on the bid.

About 600 South students use the industrial arts facility each year. The complex was added on to South High in the early 1940's and 10 years later the basement, which had been used for storage and as an air raid shelter, was converted into an automotive shop.

Kerby Sewer Repairs Almost Double in Cost

By Wendy K. Settle
The final cost of the Kerby road sewer repairs will be double what the Farms Council originally planned.

The approximate final bill will be $425,000 for both engineering and construction. The original quote was $230,000.

These amazing facts were faced by the council at its regular meeting Monday, November 7, when the solons received the final statement from Mancini Construction Co. for the repair and pipe cost.

The construction alone brought the bill up to approximately $405,015 not including the engineering cost. Adding the latter, City Mana-

Petitions For Soccer Circulated

Local Fans Hope Board Will Include Sport at Middle, High School Level

By Susan McDonald
Four years ago the Neighborhood Club started up The Pointe's soccer league with four teams. Since then, the sport has mushroomed to include 39 teams at the club, involving more than 600 kids between the ages of six and 13.

As if that's not enough to convince anyone that soccer is indeed catching on in The Pointe, two local fans have started up a petition drive to persuade the Board of Education to include soccer in the physical education program at the middle and high school levels.

Soccer is cheaper, less dangerous and can involve more kids than other organized sports, says Tom Landauer, one of the organizers of the petition drive.

Comparison Eyed
"At the most, it costs $50 to suit up a player for soccer," he pointed out. "A football helmet alone costs that much."

"Physicians say the injury rate in the sport is very low, but it's excellent exercise. And you don't have to weigh 200 pounds to play it—girls, boys, adults—just about anyone can enjoy it."

Mr. Landauer hopes that if the Board agrees to set up the program that public school students could compete in intramural leagues as well as against some of The Pointe's private schools.

Right now Mr. Landauer and another soccer booster, Jan McCormick, have about six helpers distributing the petitions in the community, and response so far has been great, they say.

"With the new team coming to Detroit and all the recent publicity the sport has been getting, people are starting to realize what a great sport soccer is," Mrs. McCormick said.

Petitioners' Goal
"It's a shame that these kids get so involved in playing soccer at the Neighborhood Club when they're younger and when they enter high school they're just cut out."

Incumbents Do Well in All Races

It's 'Ladies Day' in Park As Ann MacDonald Tops Council Race, Beverly Grobbel Wins Judgeship

For the incumbents in The Woods, Park, City and Farms, the Tuesday, November 8, election results proved gratifying, while The Park celebrated a "ladies day" of sorts with newcomer Ann MacDonald, 34, topping all candidates in the council race and Beverly C. Grobbel, 49, capturing the municipal judge post. Meanwhile, The Park with keen competition for seats on the council, plus the judgeship race, had the highest voter turnout, about 38 percent. The Woods was second at 28.5 percent, followed by The Farms at around 25 percent and The City at 20 percent.

In The Woods, incumbent Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos, 60, defeated William Wilson, 43, by 2,179 to 1,728.

Class C Wins
Planning Commissioner Thomas Fahrner, 47, led the race for three, four-year seats on the council with 2,490 votes. He was followed by incumbent Councilmen E. D. Grady, 46, with 2,267 votes and John Sabol, 50, with 2,156. David McQueen, 66, garnered 1,654 votes.

In the race for an unexpired two-year council term, Robert E. Novitke, 31, defeated Arthur J. Kuehnel, 28, by 2,206 to 875.

Finally, the advisory vote on an additional Class C liquor license breezed to a 2,937 to 960 victory.

In The Park, Mrs. MacDonald received 1,726 votes, while incumbents Douglas G. Graham, 53, with 1,619 votes, and George J. Verdonck, 58, with 1,600 were re-elected to the council.

James Ferriole Jr., 37, barely missed out as he received 1,572 votes. Mado O. Lie, 1,133 votes and Charles T. Slusser, 59, 970.

In the battle for municipal judge, Mrs. Grobbel defeated Alan R. Devine Jr., 48, by 1,993 to 1,362.

Mayor Matthew C. Patterson, running unopposed, received 2,500 votes.

Pyttel Re-elected
In The City, incumbent Councilmen David Robb, 50, with 658 votes, Robert Nugent, 52, with 620, and George Henry, 49, with 610, readily defeated challengers George Cotichio, 47, with 336 votes, Kelly Ketterman, 25, with 231, and John Rudnick, 24, with 93, for four-year council seats.

Meanwhile, Mayor John L. King, 53, also unopposed, had 786 votes.

In The Farms, incumbent Municipal Judge Robert Pyttel, 51, defeated challenger Anthony Penta, 34, by 1,656 to 701.

Both charter amendments were soundly approved by voters. The amendment giving the council the right to set the annual salary of the judge was okayed, 1,497 to 797, while the amendment giving the council the right to appoint a clerk and deputy clerk for the judge, while establishing the compensation and duties for officers was approved, 1,536 to 759.

In the race for council, incumbents Joseph L. Fromm, 47, with 1,902 votes, Nancy Waugaman, 46, with 1,753, Jack Cudlip, 52, with 1,736 and Harry Fruehauf, 47, with 1,671, were re-elected, while challenger Catherine Raynal, 43, with 855 votes, missed out.

Family Fun Set At North High

The next family fun night will be held at North High School, 707 Vernier road, on Friday, November 11, from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

The charge is $2 per family or $1 per person. Cost for crafts is 50 cents.

School Board Meets Nov. 14

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education will be held on Monday, November 14, in the gymnasium of Kerby Elementary School, 285 Kerby road. It begins at 8 p.m.

The meeting is open to the public.

Brys Drive

Citing this volume problem, the officer also noted there have not been that many accidents with only 10 being reported on Brys and East Eight Mile since 1971.

However, because of the heavy volume, the potential remains, he added.

The price paid for experience is negligible — it's the knowledge you gain that counts.

Chrisman of Harper Woods has filled this position on many GPT productions. He is the other half of the Chrisman team.

In addition to being technical director, he also is doing set design and lighting for the show. A GPT member for 14 years, he has won eight Clarence awards.

Making his debut as orchestra director is Keith Sipos of Anita avenue. He has been a member of the orchestra for 10 years and is emerging into the difficult job of orchestra director with the best of credentials.

The lead role in the play is in the experienced hands of Ciro Vitale of Roseville. He has appeared in several GPT productions including roles in "One Flew over The Cuckoo's Nest" and "Applause," winning Clarence for both performances.

"Littlechap's" wife, Evie, is played by Aden Russell of Sunningdale drive. She brings with her a wealth of experience. She has sung with Fred Waring and has a background of modeling with Este Lauder and several auto companies in auto shows.

Others in the cast include Sheila Carroll of Detroit, Sandi Phelan of Warren, Julie Martin of Westbrook court, Jan Perous of Detroit, Cathie Foxa of Detroit, Pat Villegas of Lincoln road, Mary Jane Kent of South Oxford road and Miranda Hebert of St. Clair avenue.

Suspect Faces Circuit Court

A 21-year-old Detroit man has been bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court for trial on charges of robbery armed and assault with intent to murder, reported Harper Woods police.

This action was taken at the Harper Woods Municipal Court examination of Richard Johnson on Wednesday, November 2. The suspect is charged in the case where a 30-year-old Woods woman and her six-year-old daughter were allegedly abducted at the Eastland Shopping Center on Monday, October 24.

Harper Woods Police Chief Nicholas Mayer said last week that Johnson is being held in the Wayne County Jail on a $500,000 bond, cash or sureties, pending his circuit court pre-trial, scheduled for Tuesday, November 15.

During the incident, police said the knife-wielding suspect forced the pair into their car and told them to drive on the expressway where he allegedly took $19 in cash and also slashed the woman, Mrs. Nan Tomasko, in the abdomen area.

The suspect was apprehended a short time later after the auto struck the median by Officer Albert Markesino in the area of Brys Park, St. Clair Shores.

The daughter wasn't injured in the incident, while the woman was treated at Saint John Hospital and ultimately released.

Austin Prep

The school plans to help transfer students to other nearby Catholic schools and will offer an accelerated summer program to juniors so that many of them may graduate before the school closes in September.

The Augustinian order also runs a school in Tulsa, Okla., and two in Chicago, Ill. The Provincial said that since 1972 the number of Augustinians involved in secondary school apostolate has dropped from 96 to 60 members.

Fence-Crashing Vehicle Sought

Farms police are looking for the owner of a 1968 to 1971, light green sedan, in connection with a malicious destruction of property incident.

The incident occurred Monday, October 31, at approximately 10:15 p.m. when the sedan drove through J. Robert Foley's white picket fence which surrounds his backyard in Merriweather road.

The car entered the yard through a 12-foot section of the fence and sideswiped a tree. Tire tracks cut up the back lawn before the car exited at the opposite side through a nine-foot section of the fence.

Police Chief Robert Ferber said the car would have white scratches of paint on it and probably some dents from sideswiping the tree.

The investigation is now in progress and is being handled by the Farms Detective Bureau. The Youth Service Division also is assisting in the case.

The departments are requesting parents to check their cars, if it fits the description, for any evidence of the crash.

Pleads Guilty In Sex Case

A 25-year-old Woods man originally charged with criminal sexual conduct, third degree, pled guilty to a charge of criminal sexual conduct, fourth degree, on Thursday, October 25.

The Wayne County Prosecutor's Office reported that the plea of Thomas Walter Bayer was taken under advisement by Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Theodore Bohn, with a scheduled sentencing date set for Friday, December 9.

Bayer could receive a maximum two years in prison and/or a $500 fine, police said.

Bayer was reportedly involved in having sexual relations with a 14-year-old Farms girl at his Vernier road residence in February, according to Woods police.

A warrant probably will not be issued against Bayer on a criminal sexual conduct, third degree, charge stemming from a Farms case, the prosecutor's office added.

Soccer Push

The petitioners' goal is to have a soccer program operating in the public schools by the 1978-79 school year. To that end, Mr. Landauer plans to submit the petitions at a Board meeting within the next few weeks.

Assistant Superintendent of Instruction at the public schools, Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, said the central office staff has discussed such a program but hasn't done a complete study of its feasibility.

The public schools do offer soccer as part of the middle school athletic program for girls and there is an informal soccer club at North High School.

Legionnaires Disease

Dr. Hayner cited three reasons why the two Pointers did not die from the disease.

1) At the time, neither patient had another complicating disease.

2) The type of antibiotic that was used in treatment.

3) The effect of the antibiotic.

The symptoms of legionnaires disease are similar to those of pneumonia, fever and the collection of fluid in the lungs.

However, the sickness does not respond to the antibiotics used in treating pneumonia. Other antibiotics must be used.

Since scientists at the Center for Disease Control isolated the rod-shaped bacteria, they have come to believe that the disease is more common than previously thought.

They say as many as 2,000 cases a year, most of them quite mild, may be occurring.

Woods Offers Safety Advice

The Woods Department of Public Safety is advising motorists whose autos have catalytic converters to avoid parking where leaves are piled.

Officials warn that the potentially high temperature of such converters can ignite the leaves with a car fire resulting.

Men who deceive themselves are easy marks for the deceivers.

If what the scientists think is true, then the Pointers are just two cases in many that are unknown and consequently unreported.

Proud Moment for Scouts at Dedication

Thirteen young Girl Scouts saw the results of their year-long effort to have the corner at Lakepointe and Windmill Pointe drive recognized as a State Historic Site on Saturday, November 5, when a marker telling the story of the bloody Fox Indian Massacre of 1712 was formally dedicated. State Historical Society Commissioner H. HUDSON MEAD is admiring the marker along with Mason School scout leader ARTY JONES, (left).

State Marks 2 Historic Sites

Grosse Pointe is one of Detroit's oldest suburbs, but up until last week the community was without an historical marker. Now The Pointe has two — one at the Grosse Pointe Academy honoring that school, and another at the corner of Windmill Pointe drive and Lakepointe avenue commemorating the bloody Fox Indian Massacre of 1712 that is believed to have been largely responsible for opening up the area to settlers.

The Academy, 171 Lakeshore road, is located on land purchased in 1867 by the Religious of the Sacred Heart. According to the marker, the narrow shape of the property there reflects its original use as a ribbon farm, extending inland from Lake St. Clair to beyond Ridge road.

Located on the property is an old public school house, later used by the order, that was built in 1868. A more modern building, erected in 1929, was patterned after a French convent chapel.

Mrs. Don T. Galvin Jr., former librarian at the Academy, handled much of the research and correspondence necessary to qualify the school as an Historic Site. The marker was unveiled Wednesday, November 2.

Girl Scout Troop 887 from Mason school saw its plaque dedicated at a ceremony attended by Michigan Supreme Court Justice G. Mennen Williams, State Historical Society Commissioner H. Hudson Mead, Park City Manager Robert A. Slone and Park Mayor Matthew C. Patterson on Saturday, November 5.

The Scouts had help with their research and correspondence from the Central Library staff and Pointer Dr. Alfred Whittaker.

Austin Elects NHS Officers

Recently elected officers of Austin Catholic Preparatory School's National Honor Society, (NHS), include chairman, Terrence Hopman, vice-chairman, John Herbert and trustee Darryl Schmeck.

Students recently honored as Scholastic Lettermen Club officers at the school include Henry Kodan, Mark O'Connor and David Giovannucci.

Marker Cites Academy

Former Grosse Pointe Academy librarian MRS. DON T. GALVIN JR. and Headmaster JOHN M. POPLAWSKI were among those at a reception for the Headmaster's Club on Wednesday, November 2, where the school unveiled its Michigan Historical Commission marker recognizing the school, located at 171 Lakeshore road, as "an historical educational complex in a park like setting." Mrs. Galvin initiated the correspondence and research necessary to qualify the Academy as an Historic Site.

Damman Talks To Park Group

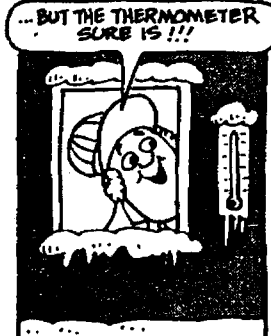

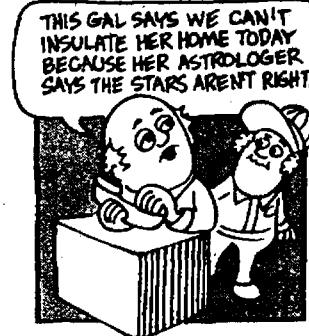

Lt. Gov. James J. Damman spoke before the Grosse Pointe Park Business and Professional Ass'n. at its meeting on Tuesday, October 25.

He was introduced by Park Mayor Matthew C. Patterson and answered questions from the group.

Lt. Gov. Damman urged them to write letters to him or their legislators when they have complaints or questions.

Forget the past—the future holds plenty to worry about.

Merchants Given Advice
Regarding Rubber Checks

The holiday season is quickly approaching. This festive time not only brings families together and diets to an end, it also brings higher volumes of sales to local merchants.

With increases in sales, a store usually has an increase in the number of personal checks accepted for the payment of articles. This in turn increases the danger of receiving fraudulent checks.

"We're interested in protecting the merchants and the people," Farms Det. Earl Field said. "I've made a list of 13 ways a business can reduce check losses."

- 1) Limit the check to the amount of purchase.
- 2) Take extra precautions on checks, when the items purchased are liquor or cigarettes, as these items can be quickly converted into cash.
- 3) Thoroughly screen applicants for courtesy cards, (if you issue them). Check with the applicant's employer and bank before issuing them.
- 4) Train check-cashing and check-accepting personnel concerning what to look for in a check, (signature, address, date, agreement on amount, et al), and supervise enforcement of your rules.
- 5) Use a cashier's booth to cash all checks. Clerks are too busy to observe each check carefully.

6) Cash checks for local residents only. Draw boundaries on a map and post it in your store.

7) Be sure the check-casher has more than one piece of identification, and be sure you know his place of employment.

8) Don't let the bad check-casher off the hook. Make every effort to collect. Don't fail to prosecute when a criminal act has been committed.

9) Use knowledgeable personnel in the store to process checks so they can expedite collection.

10) Don't spend more on collecting than the check is worth. If it is under $25, give it to a collection agency.

11) Select your collection agency carefully. Make sure they are able to collect small amounts and that they will be in business next week.

12) Always require secondary identification. A driver's license with a color picture signature and physical description is important.

13) Make definite rules for accepting checks and then enforce them.

Det. Field reminds the merchant, "you are giving away your money—you are taking the loss."

"A possible solution," he added, "would be a rubber stamp giving all information needed for prosecution, that would answer all necessary questions the prosecutor would ask of a witness or check taker."

The rubber stamp would have three questions on it for the check-taker to answer yes or no. Did the person show three pieces of identification? Does the check have the cashier's initials on it? Did the person sign the check, driver's license or social security number?

On the stamp there also would be a small area for the cashier's thumb print. Michigan state law considers forgery, fraud and check losses a felony or a misdemeanor.

"The only way to conserve check losses is not to accept a check at all," Det. Field concluded.

Dems to Hear '78 Candidates

The Grosse Pointe Democratic Club will sponsor a Fall Forum to give the public and its membership a chance to learn more about the Democratic candidates who are running for governor in 1978.

All four known candidates have accepted the invitation to speak on Sunday, November 13, in the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17150 Maumee avenue, at 4 p.m.

They include Zolton Ferency, William Fitzgerald, William Ralls and Patrick McCollough.

After opening statements, the candidates will respond to questions submitted by a panel and the audience.

Pointers Don Dungan, Bruce Sanders and Susie B. Lewis will serve as panelists. Further information may be obtained by calling 886-4415.

Police Seek Aid In Hit-Run Case

Farms police are requesting information from the public regarding an incident which occurred on Saturday, October 29, approximately between 10:30 and 11 p.m. on Kercheval avenue.

Between those times, Tom Peters, 18, of Moselle place, was walking along Kercheval when he was allegedly hit by a car while on his way to a Halloween party.

Because of cuts and markings on Tom's clothing, the police suspect that he was hit by a van or truck with a large mirror on the driver's side.

The last thing he remembers is seeing headlights at the corner of Kercheval and Kercheval when he turned the corner.

About an hour later, the dazed youth appeared at the front door of Stroh's Ice Cream Parlor, 74 Kercheval avenue, with a broken collar bone and bruises about his head and back. An employee at Stroh's, Bob Smith, recognized Tom as a schoolmate and let him in.

Mr. Smith then called police and they transported him to Cottage Hospital.

Police suspect that Tom had been wandering about for approximately an hour in a semi-conscious state after the accident.

The Farms Detective Bureau urges any resident who might have seen something to contact the department at 885-2100. Det. Sam Cardella is handling the investigation.

Rotarians Plan
Pancake Feast

Pointe Rotarians and the public are invited to join the Harper Woods, (HW), Rotary Club at its annual pancake brunch on Sunday, November 13, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The brunch, to be held at the Harper Woods Community Center, 19748 Harper avenue, will help provide needy children with dental, medical and eye care, according to Carl Muir, of Kensington road.

Mr. Muir serves as vice-president and vocational director of the Harper Woods Rotary.

Tickets for the brunch, featuring all the pancakes you can eat as well as sausage, milk and coffee, are $1.75 per person.

For more information, call David Sawyer at 778-7053.

Invite Parents To 4 Schools

Although all the public schools in The Pointe system have already held successful back-to-school nights and other parent visitation and orientation activities, four are conducting special programs in connection with American Education Week which begins Sunday, November 13.

Principal William Christofferson of Brownell Middle School, 280 Chalfonte avenue, reports that he is extending an open invitation to parents to visit the school, especially the reading lab and writing classes.

There will be a special meeting of home room mothers at 10 a.m. Tuesday, November 15, when administrators and counselors will meet with the group.

William A. Mestdag, principal of Mason Elementary School, 1640 Vernier road, announces open school on Wednesday, November 16, from 9 to 11 a.m. Teachers have special activities planned and will invite parents to visit during the week. The halls are being decorated with student projects — particularly art work.

Principal Morris Hanzek of Parcels Middle School, 20600 Mack avenue, says that his staff will hold a session today, November 10, from 10 to 11:15 a.m. to explain to parents the new report card, the school records policy and homework expectations for students.

Meanwhile, Dr. Eric Fello, principal of Trombley Elementary School, 820 Beaconsfield road, has scheduled a general PTO meeting for November 16 at 7:30 p.m. The session will focus on the parent, teacher and child relationship with a special speaker, Dr. Ronald Friedman.

Kids Will Rock For Olympics

The Business Office Education Clubs, (BOEC), from North and South High School, along with the Distributive Education Club, (DECA), from North will be having a Rock-A-Thon for Special Olympics on Saturday, November 19.

In fact, 300 chapters of BOEC throughout the nation will be either rocking or walking sometime in the near future to raise money for this cause.

The students will bring their rocking chairs to Eastland Shopping Center, 18000 Vernier road, where the South Court will be reserved for them from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Films concerning Special Olympics will be shown during the Rock-A-Thon and other entertainment, such as guitar and singing, will be featured.

Sponsors are to sign, in advance, a pledge sheet which contributes so much money to Special Olympics per-hour rocked.

The Eastland Center Merchant Assn. has contributed $100 for the Special Olympics Rock-A-Thon. BOEC is counting on more contributions to help raise money for the cause.

Serene Seven Ponds Has Big Pointe Membership

By Wendy K. Settle
"I think that I shall never see
A poem as lovely as a tree.
A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast."

Joyce Kilmer
There is a place not far away where God and some dedicated people have created a center for children and adults alike to go and be consumed by the wonders of nature.

Seven Ponds Nature Center, in Dryden, (about 40 miles north of Detroit), is not only an educational center but a fun center for school groups and families to enjoy the outdoors and maybe learn a little in the process.

Started in 1966 by a former Pointe couple, Rip and Patty Schemm, the 250-acre center supports hundreds of species of animals, reptiles, insects and other assorted critters.

The grounds range from the seven kettle lakes to a prairie, and every tree and flower one could think of, all native to Michigan, of course.

And the birds! The lakes and trees at Seven Ponds are filled with birds, from the smallest Hummingbird to the Great Blue Heron.

"The center has been growing steadily," said Don Naish, center director. "But it isn't as crowded as we'd like to see it."

"About 18,000 students go through Seven Ponds a year. In order to keep the center the way it should be, we wouldn't want more than 30,000 people coming through per year."

Tours through Seven Ponds are free to any educational group. The center also has craft workshops, nature studies, bird watching and a host of other activities, all of which are open to the public at a very small fee.

Anyone can join Seven Ponds. Memberships are available at $15 per year for a family, $25 for a group and $100 for a corporate membership.

"Seven Ponds is supported totally by memberships and contributions," said Charles Turner, of Notre Dame avenue. Mr. Turner is on the board of directors of the center and is handling all promotions for Seven Ponds. "Sometimes we don't know how we make financial ends meet," he laughed, "but there's a spirit at Seven Ponds. I guess that's what it's really about."

There are four Pointe residents on Seven Ponds' board of directors and five Pointers on the board of sponsors. Altogether, there are 250 Pointe residents who are members of Seven Ponds.

Pat McFadden, another Pointe resident on the board of directors, is a prime example of that "spirit."

"It's a perfectly beautiful place," she said, while flipping through piles of notebooks and literature on Seven Ponds. "I've been a member here since it began and I've learned so much. It's just a wonderful thing! When I go up there, it's just like a vacation, like going to another world."

Becky Radcliff is one of two staff naturalists at Seven Ponds. "We help the children to understand nature," she said. "I don't try to teach them the names of things, the names aren't important."

We talk about the excitement in nature and the roles that it plays in their lives."

The tours are walks through the wooded trails, in groups of about 15. Groups that come to the center for tours range in age from pre-school to senior citizens.

Becky works with about 30 other volunteer naturalists who are members of Seven Ponds and have taken the naturalist training classes at the center.

"We couldn't do it without all the volunteers," Becky noted. "If there's a group of 30 people, we really need to break them into two groups, that's when the volunteers come in."

When Rip and Patty Schemm started Seven Ponds by giving 100 acres of land and some money to the Michigan Audubon Society, they never thought it would turn out like this.

"It's a wonderful thing," Mr. Schemm smiled.

But this "wonderful thing" depends solely on love and funds from its members and contributors. And like any non-profit, public-supported agency those funds are often not enough.

The budget in 1977 was $68,000. The center's operating income was $33,000. That left $35,000 to be made up in contributions.

"I wish more people could see what we do up here," Mr. Turner said, "and what a benefit it is to these kids."

Mr. Naish cited two reasons why people come to Seven Ponds. "I think some people are just plain lonely. They come up here and they're immediately accepted. It's also good therapy to be out here with nature. You just can't beat it."

With all our concrete and cities and air pollution, it seems that places like Seven Ponds and the people affiliated with it are a unique breed. Something like a tree. Something only God can make.

"Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree."

Joyce Kilmer

Security Guard Good Detective

A local security guard's personal investigation has solved a malicious destruction of property case that Farms police had been working on.

Jerry Howe of Questors Security Specialist is employed by the Provincial Road Home Owners Ass'n. as a security guard.

The crime that Mr. Howe solved happened on October 14, when a car entered the Country Club of Detroit, off Provincial road, drove on to the fourth fairway for a distance of about 400 feet and did extensive damage to the turf by turning, skidding and sliding.

In a letter to Mr. Howe, Chief Robert Ferber stated, "As the result of your investigation, the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Department located the suspect, a confession was obtained, restitution for the damages at the Country Club of Detroit is being made and the case is cleared."

Chief Ferber also said Mr. Howe performed an "excellent piece of police work."

A resident of Madison Heights, Mr. Howe started his investigation when he was advised of the incident by Farms investigating officers. He had not been on duty the night in question.

He then obtained the nightly report for October 14 and checked all the cars which entered Provincial road against their stated destination.

Through the process of elimination, Mr. Howe located a suspect, the vehicle and an area resident eye-witness, (the witness never notified Farms police).

He then called Farms police and gave Det. Sam Cardella, the officer in charge of the case, the results of his investigation.

Chief Ferber concluded his letter by noting that Mr. Howe had done an "invaluable service to the Provincial Home Owners Ass'n. and the Country Club of Detroit."

The name of the suspect is being withheld because no formal charges have been made. Under the Freedom of Disclosure Act, Chief Ferber noted, a name can not be released until charges are made. In this case, those charges may not be filed.

Those who take time to live have found the secret of success.

NOW...distill 11 gallons of pure, clean drinking water per day right in your home.

ARE YOU CONCERNED WITH THE QUALITY OF YOUR WATER?

The Kirschmann Home Still is the answer to pure, clean water for your family.

DISTILLED WATER IS THE BEST

The need and availability of pure water is rapidly becoming a critical problem. Home Still, Inc. met the challenge by developing a superior water distiller that is economical for anyone to own.

DISTILLING WATER IS SIMPLE

The Kirschmann Home Still boils the water, converting it into steam vapor which is then condensed back into water that is free of chemical, mineral and bacteriological pollutants. Rain, snow and water found in fruits and vegetables are Nature's examples of distilled water.

GET QUALITY WATER INEXPENSIVELY

The Home Still is water cooled and much more economical than any other distiller. The unit will produce 11-12 gallons of water in 24 hours at a cost of less than 8¢ per gallon distilled.

THE "HOME STILL" PAYS FOR ITSELF

Bottled drinking water is expensive. Quality distilled water costs up to 75¢ per gallon, compared to approximately 8¢ per gallon with the Home Still. If your family uses only 1 gallon of distilled water per day, the savings created by using a Home Still #400 will pay for the distiller, plus water and electricity used to produce distilled water, in less than one year.

STEAM DISTILLATION IS THE MOST DEPENDABLE AND ECONOMICAL METHOD OF REMOVING HARDNESS, SALTS, DISSOLVED SOLIDS, POLLUTANTS, FLUORIDE, CHLORINE AND HARMFUL BACTERIA FROM DRINKING WATER.

this month. The public is invited to attend the showing Monday through Friday at the school, 1045 Cook road, from 8:30 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Mr. Oestreich is a professor and the chairman of the Department of Art at Westminster College, New Wilmington, Penn. He has exhibited his woodcuts in over 150 local, regional and national shows. His most recent one-man show was at the Massillon Museum in Massillon, O.

Mr. Oestreich has recently entered the field of illustration. In collaboration with poet James Perkins he has executed woodcuts for the books, "Amish: 2 Perceptions." In late November, a second book, "The Woodcutters," is due to be published.

About his woodcuts Mr. Oestreich notes, "I enjoy the resistance of the wood to my knife. It forces me to work with greater concentration than when working with other materials. This seems to force me to clarify my ideas."

Youth's Arrest Solves 8 Park B-E's

The arrest of a 13-year-old Park boy early last month and subsequent investigation by Youth Service Division Det. Patrick Fagan led to the clearance of eight break-ins and enterings of residences which occurred in September and the first part of October.

Because of the nature of these cases in relation to the suspect, Det. Fagan said last week the eight clearances were only an estimate. The involved youth has been referred for professional help with no criminal prosecution scheduled to transpire. "I feel any criminal prosecution would interfere with the professional help the boy is getting," said Det. Fagan. Based upon his investigation and ensuing interviews, the detective felt the boy, who apparently fantasized he had an accomplice, was playing a game, e.g., playing hide and seek from cruising patrol cars.

In six of the incidents, no articles were taken with entry being gained during the early morning hours. In two other cases, a total of around $880 in restitution was paid to citizens for articles apparently taken.

Park Det. Cpl. William Furtaw, who was involved in investigating the reported break-ins, put together a modus operandi, (MO), sheet for the road patrol, which subsequently apprehended the youth.

Det. Fagan praised both Det. Cpl. Furtaw for his MO package and the road patrol, while Det. Cpl. Furtaw cited Sgt. Bobby McAllister and patrolling units for making the arrest.

After entering a Devonshire road home, taking some cash and keys to a car, the youth returned the auto after a joyride, Det. Fagan said. While the youth never admitted to taking the car at this point, he did admit taking the same car the following day. This action led to his apprehension by the watchful patrol officers.

Det. Fagan admitted this particular case was an unusual one regarding the apparent motivation of the youth and the fact that in many break-ins, articles often are taken and are subsequently fenced to other contacts.

For his part, Det. Cpl. Furtaw said, in calling the boy a "very sick young man," he was glad the arrest was made for the sake of the youth and for any other potential citizens he might have victimized.

North Seniors Win Spirit Jug

"We're number one!", the seniors chanted at the Pep Assembly at North High School on Friday, October 28. Their enthusiasm won them the spirit jug, to hold until the next competition.

Under the direction of cheerleaders Diane Rauen, Patti Pope and Joy Promack, each class cheered the introductions of the athletic teams that participated in sports this fall. The pep assembly climaxed two days of activities. On Thursday students were invited to dress in outfits of green and gold, North's colors, and on Friday to wear tee-shirts of their choice. Seniors wore hats, to help identify them as members of the Class of '78.

Hospital Opens Prayer Room

Bon Secours Hospital recently dedicated the opening of its new prayer room, Sacre Secours, with the dedication services being led by Bishop Arthur Krawczak.

Sacre Secours, meaning Holy Aid, is located on the northwest wing and is open to both patients and family members for daily meditation as well as for services held on Sundays.

Two artists from Adrian, Mich., Sr. Barbara Chenecek and Sr. Rita Schiltz, having acted as consultants to Bon Secours during previous art acquisitions, were invited to design and build the prayer room.

In order to design the room to meet patient needs, the sisters spent several days observing how patients used the room. It was then built to accommodate the expressed needs of patients and family members.

All of the materials used in the construction were authentic. The sisters searched rural Michigan for suitable barnwood to be used in building the altar, and also imported natural cork for acoustical paneling.

Sacre Secours blends with the contemporary design of Bon Secours, while creating an appropriate spiritual atmosphere in which patients and family members may enjoy moments of reflection.

Florida Wants Caught Speeder

Josue Cruz, also known by his true name of Joshua Cruz, 21, arrested by a Shores public safety officer on Thursday, November 3, for speeding and driving without ever acquiring a Michigan operator's license, was found to be wanted on a felony warrant via Clearwater, Fla., authorities and is awaiting extradition, according to an official report.

Cruz, whose last known address was 30108 Iroquois, Warren, was arrested by Sgt. James Jurcak at 4:30 a.m. after the officer monitored Cruz's speed at 48 mph while traveling north on Lakeshore road.

The sergeant cruising south, clocked the speed when the motorist came into range of the new MR9 moving radar unit which the Shores Public Safety Department recently acquired. The unit can be maneuvered to focus upon any moving vehicle while an officer is patrolling in his scout car.

Sgt. Jurcak said he turned his car around and gave chase. Cruz became confused and turned into the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's drive, apparently under the assumption that it was a road.

Realizing his mistake, the motorist attempted to make a "U" turn around the guardhouse near the club's entrance, but the officer shouted to him to stop.

Cruz complied with the command, exited his auto with his hands in the air and offered the information that he had no operator's license.

The man was handcuffed and taken to the station, where a Law Enforcement Information Network, (LEIN), message was sent to Lansing. The return information disclosed that Cruz was wanted by the Florida authorities on a warrant charging him with possession of dangerous drugs. Cruz said he came from Florida.

The man was issued a violation ticket for speeding 48 mph in a 35-mile zone and another for driving an automobile without ever acquiring an operator's license.

He was placed in the local cell without bond, and later transferred to the Wayne County Jail to await extradition proceedings to be instituted by Clearwater, Fla., police.

Open House Set At Notre Dame

Notre Dame High School, 20254 Kelly road, will hold an Open House on Thursday evening, November 15, from 7 until 10 p.m. The entire staff including teachers and coaches will be present.

There will be no formal presentations, but everyone is invited to see the school in action. Demonstrations in all academic areas will run for the length of the evening.

A good portion of activity will be taking place in the art room and the gym area. The reading and science labs will be in full operation, also. Tuition information will be available and payment schedules will be explained.

Notre Dame requires four years of English for graduation, with a two-year emphasis on composition. Academics and curriculum for the entire four-year high school period can be discussed.

Notre Dame invites parents of intended students to partake in the activities with their sons, to form their own impressions and to have their questions answered.

Soccer Finals Held at Club

The 1977 Neighborhood Club Youth Soccer League came to a close at Brownell Middle School on Saturday, November 5. The finals of the Pro League found New York nipping Baltimore, 1-0.

Richard Roberts of Bill Lorenz's New York team scored in the final minutes of the game to defeat Jed Mooney's Baltimore squad.

Erich Schunter's Houston team nudged John McKee's Atlanta team in the Giant League, 5-3. Scoring goals for Houston were Tedd Aurelius with two and Marc Augier, Charles Janson and Joe Schultz with one each.

Scott White led Atlanta with two goals, while Jim Dolan scored one.

Team Teaching Proves Beneficial

St. Paul Has New Approach

A new concept of grade school teaching which includes teachers, parents and students has brought a new spirit and success to the sixth grade classroom, according to teachers at Saint Paul's School, 170 Grosse Pointe boulevard.

The program is under the guidance of Dave Giles, principal, who has encouraged the two teachers, Phyllis Lopez and Jacqueline Curtin, to conduct the unusual experiment.

The teachers recruited a volunteer staff of mothers of sixth grade students who participate jointly to complete the "team teaching triangle," involving teachers, mothers and students.

Here is how it worked: a large dual school classroom was converted to accommodate students of two sixth grade classes who would study together. The two teachers work side by side, mutually involved in all major subject areas, and author lesson plans and write the curriculum for the courses.

Sixty-seven youngsters are arranged in working groups of six or seven for the major part of the sixth grade curriculum in their dual classroom. The participating parents, as teachers, help complete the "team teaching" approach.

Regular sized classrooms, adjacent to the experimental room, allow for smaller group learning and reinforcement when needed.

When Mrs. Lopez and Miss Curtin first presented the new idea to parents it was received with enthusiasm. Fifteen volunteers responded to the call for the Parent-Teacher concept.

The team became a full circle when parents volunteered for a seminar program meeting each Friday through November 18.

Parents are part of the teaching vehicle in the areas of spelling, handwriting, math enrichment, map skills, Bible history and topic research.

With the success of the pilot program, the parent seminars will continue throughout the year with varied offerings and an expanded program.

North Students At Conference

All of the elected officers from the Business, Office Education Clubs, (BOEC), from Region 4 of Michigan attended a Leadership Conference at the Warren Chateau Hall on Wednesday, October 19.

At the conference, each chapter of BOEC in the region did an individual or group speech, explaining what their future goals were for the year.

North High was led by Debbie Brown, president; Terry Gardner, vice president; and Mary Monte, secretary, who presented the vocal part of the speech. Bill Elsengruber, treasurer, Robin Fisher, reporter, and Sharon Thams, parliamentarian, assisted by holding up huge visual aids of calendars for the months of October and November.

The BOEC state officers, including Eight Ann Mueller from North, who is the state treasurer, were present and ran much of the conference.

They demonstrated and taught parliamentary procedures to the entire group and taught to the officers, in groups of their office, what their responsibilities and duties were in their individual leadership.

Mrs. Mary Albright, BOEC project consultant, spoke on BOEC's largest goal, raising money for the Special Olympics.

North High officers left the BOEC Leadership Conference with a better understanding of their responsibilities, and more ideas in learning and creating a progressive year.

Dinner Honors Pointe Banker

Chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Manufacturers National Bank, Dean E. Richardson, of Cloverly road, was honored with the State of Israel's Prime Minister's Medal at a recent tribute dinner attended by more than 600 persons at Cobo Hall.

The event produced more than $1,288,000 for Israel's economy, and was sponsored by the State of Israel Bonds, located in Oak Park.

Principal speaker at the tribute was Yitzhak Modai, Israel's minister of energy and infrastructure.

Mr. Modai presented the medal to Mr. Richardson for his "achievements in encouraging the strengthening of free enterprise in all free countries of the world and for outstanding support of Israel's economic development as a sister democracy."

Among the honorary dinner chairmen were Henry Ford II, Gov. William G. Milliken, Detroit Mayor Coleman Young, and Circuit Court Judge Alice Gilbert.

Israel Bond General Chairman Merrill Gordon said the Richardson dinner was one of six recently held in the United States.

It's Only Natural
by L.C. Termini N.D.

Salt in the diet has become a concern for many years to everyone since it was discovered that it contributes to high blood pressure. This does not mean that everyone should cut out all salt to keep the blood pressure down. But, anyone who has high blood pressure problems should regulate the salt intake. Also, it would not be a bad idea for everyone to be somewhat conscious of the amount of salt in their everyday diet. Cutting down a little probably wouldn't hurt.

And it might be a good idea for you to come in to VIM & VIGOR HEALTH FOODS, 21151 Mack, 886-9466, and talk to us about the benefits of using natural foods. Kids' Book Fair at Defer Offers Christmas Idea

By Katie Elzila
Imagine it's Christmas and you open your first gift. It's wrapped beautifully and looks exciting. You tear it open and it's a book. What would your reaction be?

Recently, seven Defer Elementary School students answered this question and, judging from their reactions, it would seem that some young people are happy to receive books as gifts.

Meg Kinder, a first grader who likes animal stories, said she'd be happy to find books under her Christmas tree.

Mahesh Nayak, second grade, reported, "I'd be excited to receive a book for Christmas."

Christmas. I like to read books. It's my favorite thing to do. Whenever it's raining, I just read books. I like Dr. Seuss books."

Third grader Sean Bruce agreed. "I like reading books — especially at night. I like books about sports," he said.

Matthew Wietrykowski, fourth grade, said, "I think reading is fun. I like detective stories and right now I'm reading the Danny Dunn books by Jay Williams."

Fifth grader Tom Desarmieux, stated he'd be "very delighted" to receive a book as a gift. Tom especially likes "Charlotte's Web" and "Stuart Little" by E. B. White.

Christopher Baechler, sixth grade, commented, "I'd be glad to receive a book for Christmas, but I'd hope it would be a sports book or good fiction."

Of course, not everybody would be as enthusiastic about finding a book in that beautifully wrapped Christmas package. When asked how he would feel about it, one kindergarten candidate hollered, "Yuk, I want a silver whistle!"

There won't be silver whistles, but there will be hundreds of books perfect for holiday giving for sale at the Defer Elementary School Book Fair.

Sponsored by the Defer PTO, and typical of the many worthwhile PTO-sponsored activities staged annually throughout The Pointes, the fair will offer books to capture the imagination of everybody, pre-schoolers on up.

Featured will be "Martin's Invisible Weapon" written by Pointer Jo Ann Steger Hoffman, the mother of two Defer students, Martin and Emily.

The fair will be held at Defer School, 15425 Kercheval, on Thursday and Friday, November 10 and 11, during regular school hours, 8:45 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in room 112. The public is welcome.

Recycle Cans at Eastland

With Thanksgiving coming, Pointers will be given an extra opportunity to recycle aluminum. All of the extra holiday cooking and beverage consumption can mean extra money for those who save these aluminum household items and turn them in to a Reynolds mobile unit truck at the rate of 17 cents per pound.

The Reynolds Metals Co. subsidiary pays 17 cents a pound for all-aluminum cans and other clean household aluminum such as pie plates, aluminum foil, frozen food and dinner trays, dip, pudding and meat containers.

Certain other items, including aluminum siding, gutters, aluminum storm door and window frames, and lawn furniture tubing are also worth 17 cents a pound if properly prepared.

This aluminum must be free of all foreign materials, cut to lengths not exceeding three feet and should not be mixed with aluminum cans.

During November the mobile recycling unit will visit Eastland Shopping Center, 18000 Vernier road, (parking lot 5—rear), from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, every Tuesday, November 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29.

Former Pointer Guest Preacher

The Rev. Craig Dykstra, assistant professor of Christian Education at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., will preach at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, at the 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. services Sunday, November 13. His sermon topic will be "Educating for Faith."

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dykstra of Balfour road, Professor Dykstra was trained at Princeton Theological Seminary.

He received his Master of Divinity degree there in 1973 and expects to receive his Ph.D. in interdisciplinary studies in philosophy and Christian Education there this spring.

Professor Dykstra and his wife, Betsy (the former Elizabeth Hanson) both grew up in Grosse Pointe. They were members of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, and are graduates of Grosse Pointe High.

A member of the Association of Professors and Researchers in Religious Education and the Religious Education Association, Professor Dykstra has published a number of sermons and reviews in the field of religious education. He is presently writing adult curriculum materials to be published for the United Presbyterian Church and 10 other denominations.

In time courtesy proves to be a boomerang — it has a habit of coming home to roost.

Lakeshore Road Subject Of Beautification Plans

An extensive project for the beautification of Lakeshore road is being undertaken by the Grosse Pointe Garden Clubs Council. Plans call for the planting of trees along the median and lakefront from Warner to Moross roads.

Mrs. H. A. Powell, president of the group, said they are awaiting a permit from the Wayne County Road Commission to begin planting. The commission has approved the idea, but must rule on the types of trees and their placement, taking into consideration safety aspects such as obstruction of drivers' vision.

"Although we can't say the specific types yet, we do plan to plant larger trees as many of the small flowering types have died because of the salt on the road," Mrs. Powell said.

Wayne County Commissioner Ervin A. Steiner Jr. presented the plans for the project to the road commission. Mr. Steiner said he has been promised the commission's cooperation on the project.

"We believe this is the most ambitious beautification program ever undertaken on a private basis in our area," he commented.

The project will be financed by the Garden Council which raises funds by its annual spring garden tour and by donations from member clubs. Mrs. H. James Gram and Mrs. Carl Sultzman are coordinating the program which is expected to take two or three years to complete.

The council is made up of 17 local garden clubs whose most recent project was the beautification of the grounds of South High School.

Wine Lines
by John Lundberg

'Softness' is in demand in the wine world. When applied to wines, 'soft' means wines that are lower in alcohol content than more standard wines, and are a bit sweeter than the very dry wines. These soft wines are gaining popularity for before and during meal sipping. California vintners are producing more soft wines, and German wine makers are continuing to produce their soft standards—the Mosels, Rieslings, and Rhines.

From soft wines to hard liquors, you'll find a full selection of your favorite spirits at PARKIE'S PARTY SHOPPE, 17255 Mack, corner of St. Clair, 885-0626. Choose from imported and domestic wines, beers, champagnes, whiskeys, and cordials as well as a wide array of mixes, fancy spreads, plastic glasses, cheeses, party crackers and party snacks. Hours 10-10 Mon-Thur; 10-11 Fri., Sat.

WINE WISDOM:
Most soft wines can be found at reasonable prices.

Bowl Tilt Held By UL Faculty

In the annual faculty bowl at University Liggett School, (ULS), on Sunday, November 6, the Middle School defeated the Upper School, 33-27, before an enthusiastic crowd.

The Upper Bowl jumped out to an early lead with touchdown passes to end Raymond Robbins and flanker Chip MacKelan. The Middle School was unable to penetrate Upper School territory until late in the first half on long touchdown passes to Barry Cogan and Greg Grote.

The Upper School was led by the air attack of George Andrews. He found open receivers readily and when his offensive line broke down Andrews was able to scramble successfully. He was 18 for 26 and 173 yards, while rushing for 54 yards.

The Middle School aerial show was engineered by Jim Wright who picked apart the zone defense he faced. Wright, a last minute starter at quarterback, was 16 for 22 and 170 yards.

Following the game, the Faculty Trophy, which has exchanged hands several times the last few years, was presented to Middle School Captain Larry Griffin by Mr. Andrews.

Center to Host Antique Talks

Two antique lectures will be given in the library of the War Memorial's Alger House, 32 Lakeshore road, on Thursdays, November 10 and 17, at 10 a.m.

The lectures will be illustrated with slides, and after the presentation there will be time for questions and open discussion.

The lecture on the 10th will deal with furniture from 1620 to the Victorian Period. The lecture on November 17 will concern "Collectibles of the Future—Tomorrow's Investment."

Speaker is J. Jordan Humberstone, who was born in Greenfield Village and who is on the Acquisition Committee of the Detroit Historical Society and an appraiser for the Henry Ford Museum. Admission to the lectures is $5.50.

FIRST TIME OFFERED

DIRECTED TO YOU who want that four bedroom house which is architecturally and structurally sound but requires redecorating. You want to buy into a neighborhood where the surrounding houses are higher priced than yours. You want to be near Kercheval, midway between Hill Shopping and the Village. You'll want to call on this one before it's snapped up.

BY APPOINTMENT PLEASE

EVERY SO OFTEN there is an opportunity to buy a house in the Farms which is located just a block to Hill shopping, both public and Parochial schools and a bus line. Combine these features with a price tag of $28,500 and it's a happening. The exterior of this two bedroom house has been wrapped in aluminum, as has the garage.

WHAT SO MANY WANT is a little house with large rooms, and most importantly that master suite on the first floor. Tonnancour Road has always been popular, and it is houses like this one that made it so. Upstairs are three bedrooms and two full baths. To complement the formal living room and dining rooms is a step-down garden room. Located only a few doors from the Country Club golf course and Lake Shore Drive.

FARMS LOCATION. All brick custom built ranch, formal dining room, living room, family room, large kitchen, two bedrooms, bath and a half. Two and one half car attached garage. We're so excited about this one which is a block from Lake Shore.

A HOUSE FOR ALL REASONS is this deceiving property on the curve of Woodland Shores. For the family that desires first floor bedrooms, there are two. For those who want bedrooms on the second floor, there are four. If a separate apartment within the house is necessary, this has one. Have you always wanted a greenhouse? One comes with our house. How about spending some leisure time around your own swimming pool? We have one here. The large family room has a window wall which faces the pool and patio. The above should be reason enough to see 85 Woodland Shores. This home is also available for lease with an option to purchase.

THIS IS A BLOCK FROM THE LAKE is this farm colonial with something for everyone. Custom built for the present owner, it has a sumptuous master suite on the main floor. Upstairs are three spacious bedrooms and two baths. The enormous living room features a cathedral ceiling with open rafters, fireplace and wide bay windows. The early American family room also has a fireplace, wet bar and random width, oak pegged floors. Two lavatories are on the main floor and a large utility room contains the laundry and plenty of cupboard storage. A formal dining room and wide, brick foyer welcome you to this magnificent home. The swimming pool and walled yard are completely private.

St. Clare Girls Win CYO Title

The Saint Clare girls varsity volleyball team qualified for the Catholic Youth Organization's (CYO), city-wide volleyball tournament by winning its division crown with a perfect 20-0 match play record.

In the first tournament match Saturday, October 29, the girls defeated Saint Lawrence of Utica in two straight games. The Saint Clare Falcons then played Holly Innocents of Roseville, another division champion, and again won two straight games to advance to the semi-final round of the tournament on Sunday, October 30.

In the semi-final game, the Falcons faced a strong team from Guardian Angels of Clawson. In a close first game, Saint Clare was defeated, 19-17, but they won the next two games and the match to advance to the city final match later that afternoon.

The final match paired Our Lady of Grace, (from the west side of Detroit), against Saint Clare. In the first game, Saint Clare was soundly defeated by a 15-5 score. However, the Falcons warmed up fast and quickly won the next two games, 15-4 and 15-6.

This is the first time that a girls team from Saint Clare has ever won an official city championship.

Team members are Donna Broderick, Jo Williford, Liz Rantz, Cathy Maher, Lynn Pellerito, Jeanne Gough, Diane Purcell, Meg Fielding, Patty Williams, Janet Gross, Stacey Sullivan, Michelle Quinn, Linda Feola, and student managers Joyce Broderick and David Hines.

The team was coached by Larry and Fusako Hines.

Grid Standings Listed by Club

The Neighborhood Club Men's Touch Football League standings have been announced and Sierra Lounge at 7-0 holds top spot.

Other results show East Side Sporting Goods, 6-1; Stooges, 4-1-2; Davalliers, 4-2-1; Custom Printing, 4-2-1; National Electric Sparks, 3-4; Grosse Pointe Painters, 2-4-1; Weekend Wonders, 2-5, and the Gridders, 0-5-2.

A post season tournament will be held at McMillan Field on Sunday mornings, November 13 and 20.

North High Rallies to Hand South Its First Loss of Year

By Joe Szary

North High School's varsity football team boosted its season record to 7-2 Saturday, November 5, by defeating South, 10-7. This was the Devils' first loss of the season in the ninth annual North-South football game.

The Devils came into the game as the favorites but North ended South's eight-game winning streak.

The entire first quarter developed into a defensive battle and neither team could score. Tom Patzer and Ken Stockwell contributed several key tackles for South while John Pierick and Rick Stralatak did the job for North.

But late in the quarter, North's defense forced a bad punt and the green and gold offense started to advance. Running backs Steve Arthur and Bruce Stafford ate up some yardage with several key runs to get North to South's 24-yard line.

Then quarterback Harry Genuend followed with a 12-yard keeper which brought North inside the Devil 15. But Devil Pat Corbett put a stop to the drive and North settled for a 22-yard field goal from Karl Tech.

After stopping the Blue Devil offense the Norsemen got the ball again but South's John Hartman picked up a North fumble and exploded for an exciting sideline 44-yard touchdown run, and South jumped out to a 7-0 lead following Gordon Erley's extra point.

Hartman picked up another turnover later in the half, this time an interception. The Devils, however, couldn't capitalize on the play and the score remained 7-3 at the half.

The seriousness of football then took a break as the half-time show included a tricycle race and a tug-of-war championship between North and South seniors. South won the competition for the second straight year, but soon it was back to football.

The second half started with turnovers plaguing both teams. Erley picked up a Norsemen fumble for South, but Norsemen Rob Stewart gave the ball right back to North on an interception.

North's offense threatened as they came deep inside Devil territory, but Frank Coates, Steve Brandt and Corbett stopped the drive short and the Devils had the ball on their own 20-yard line.

Then, it was North's defense who came up with some fine plays forcing South to punt. Clay Ottoni broke through the offensive line and blocked the punt which turned the game around as North found themselves inside the South five-yard line.

Genuend then scored on a keeper and North led 10-7 after Tech's extra point. However, South continued to threaten.

A fake punt play fooled the Norsemen as punter Erley unloaded a first down pass to Kevin Rinke. Bob Baker then came through with some fine runs which eventually saw the Devils inside the Norsemen 20-yard line. But Tony Ferlito and Tech added key tackles for Corbett from the Norsemen 37, but Tech came through with an interception.

Later, Mike McBrien, Tony Tocco, Mark Pfeffer, Mike Lesha and the rest of the Norsemen defense held South off.

Norsemen coach Jim Krucki said, "This was a tremendous victory for our football team and the Bi-County League. Beating a well coached team like South was a great way for us to end the season."

The Devils still have play-off action on Friday, November 11, as they face the Lake Shore Shorians for the regional championship.

Barons Play Strong Games

The Grosse Pointe Red Barons played host to the Denby Bulldogs at North High School on Sunday, November 6. The muddy field affected the running game of both teams but the weather was not a factor despite a brief shower in the second half of the junior varsity game.

In the freshmen game, David Fleming played the finest game of his career as the Red Barons defeated the Bulldogs, 35-7. Fleming returned a kickoff 85 yards, rushed for an additional 75 yards and scored one TD to pace the offense.

Mike McFarlane, Greg Lambrecht, David Balcerzak and Mike "Pow" Crow each netted a TD. Crow, Balcerzak and Lambrecht added the extra points to complete the scoring. The solid leadership of QB Greg Lambrecht and the solid blocking of the offensive line played big roles in the win.

Defensively, the Red Barons were near perfect. The Bulldogs earned two first downs and crossed midfield only once all afternoon. Steve Zehnennig, Matt Calcaterra, Terry McGivern, Craig Engel and Fleming repeatedly tackled Bulldog runners for huge losses.

At the junior varsity level, Will Secor scored three TDs, Jim Seagram, two TDs, and Greg Fleming and Brian Patmon one each as the Red Barons won, 46-0. Phillip Garner, Chris Bingaman and Seagram added the extra points to round out the scoring.

Tom Poirer, Steve Goodrich, Blair Schoof and Pat Armstrong provided the blocking up front. Joe Barolo, George Kasza, Mike Bleau, Nino Cueter, Pete Strainovic, Chris Schade and Bob Mouthpour played fine defensive football to contribute to the win.

Head coach Paul Trupp expressed his happiness over the quality of play and the attitude of his players.

Bob Luberto and Chris Neal each scored two TDs and Scott DeClaire, Ken Sanders and Bill Crow one as the Red Barons overwhelmed Denby, 56-0. The Baron "Crimson Tide" did everything possible to hold down the score, playing linemen and backs in new positions. Sam Abdo, John Fisher, Jeff Austin and Jay Hartl opened the holes for the backs to crash through.

On defense, the Barons could do no wrong. Vince Giacalone, Billy Raven, Bill Crow, Matt Krato, Ross Palombi, Paul Grammatico, Mike Counsman, Fred Schultz, Garrett Rice and Geoffrey Tischbein played very well.

The season finale for the Barons will be Sunday, November 13, at NHS against cross-town rival, the Grosse Pointe Lions.

NHS Harriers End Big Year

By Karen Nickoloff
Finishing its 1977 cross country season, the North High School harriers have much to be proud of. This past week, the harriers won their eighth consecutive Bi-County League meet title and also finished second in the State Championship.

On Tuesday, November 1, North NHS visited Huron Park and won the Bi-County meet. Competing against five teams and 35 runners, North won with a total of 20 points.

Phil Stevenson of Lake Shore was first at 14:57. North's Ed Hammer was second at 14:59, followed by Dave Denis at 15:02; Steve Brandt was fourth at 15:07; Jim Schmidt, fifth, at 15:24; Paul Lewis, sixth, at 15:37; Wright Wilson, seventh, at 15:43; and Dave Hofmann, ninth, at 15:59.

The JV also did well, taking the first six places. John Bucacink was first at 16:08; Jerry Stitzel, second, at 16:26; Dave Schepke, third, at 16:31; Dan VanVliet, fourth, at 16:34; Tom Fenton, fifth, at 16:48; and Chris Lynch, sixth, at 16:57.

Then on Saturday, November 5, the harriers traveled to Grand Rapids to compete in the state meet. Two buses were chartered to hold North's cheering section.

Running against 21 teams and 146 runners, North finished second with a total of 86 points, behind Grand Blanc's total of 51 points. Coming in third was Jackson with 165, while Royal Oak Kimball was fourth with 200 points.

Mark Mesler of Grand Blanc finished first with a time of 14:58. Finishing fourth for North and winning All-State honors was Hammer with a time of 14:53. Brandt, also winning All-State honors, was 11th at 15:12.

Denis was 13th at 15:16; Schmidt, 17th, at 15:22; Wilson, 41st, at 15:49; Lewis, 47th, at 15:52; and Hofmann, 109th, at 16:37.

Travel Series Features Egypt

King Tut's golden treasures, the Sphinx and great pyramids are among the highlights of the color movie, "Egypt — Gift of the Nile," to be shown for the World Adventure Series Sunday, November 13, in the Detroit Institute of Arts at 2:30 p.m.

The movie, completed this summer, covers both ancient and modern Egypt including King Tut's tomb in Thebes and its treasures in the Cairo museum, a tour inside the pyramids, Luxor, Karnak, the Valley of the Kings and the celebrated temple at modern Cairo with its sky-Abu Simbel.

There is complete coverage of scorpions, bazars, mosques and belly dancers. Other sequences show Alexandria, Port Said, the Suez Canal, Aswan Dam and Arab life today.

For ticket information, call the World Adventure Series at 832-7676 any day between 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

The movie will be introduced by Detroit travel host George Pierrot and narrated in person by world traveler Doug Jones.

Know Your Schools

By Dr. William Coats,
Superintendent of Schools

Last week I commented on some of the improvements planned by the staff for the mathematics curriculum in response to Board-approved goals for 1977-78.

In this column I shall provide some information on proposed improvements in the reading program.

At the elementary level administrators are reviewing with the teaching staff all the expectations for instruction in reading and literature, including materials, grouping, pacing and record keeping.

Since this school year began, teachers have been reviewing guidelines and other background material on this topic prior to the beginning of an in-service program.

It will be the responsibility of the district-wide reading committee to develop a plan to record student progress in the new Harcourt Brace, Reading series. The proposal, to be submitted to the department of instruction by the end of January, will be implemented during the second semester of this year.

We are placing more emphasis on increasing pupils' reading achievement through more systematic observations of classroom instruction and working with teachers to analyze test scores.

Our new reading materials represent, we believe, a great improvement to our elementary instructional program. They are organized to individualize and to personalize pupils' reading experiences on a continuous progress basis.

At Brownell, Parcels and Pierce Middle School, students continue to receive individual attention in reading in the skills centers. And all our middle school teachers, as well as those in the elementary and high schools, stand ready to help students improve and expand their ability to read.

In our high schools, plans are moving ahead to select and to administer a reading test for ninth and 10th grade students, with the target date for completion of the project set for the spring.

Readers of this paper may be unaware of the fact that two special reading programs, each one with its own focus on the needs of the student population it serves, are currently offered at North and South High Schools.

Elizabeth Soby, reading consultant at North, estimates that during her one-semester assignment, she will average 200 student contacts weekly. She terms her program as "not specifically remedial; those who fit the remedial category have a number of specific programs available to them."

During the semester that she will be reading consultant at North, she plans to offer, in addition to the services of the Reading Laboratory, three special workshops: (1), Speed Reading, (2), Study Skills and (3), Preparation for College Board Tests.

This fall at South High, entering ninth graders were screened according to the results of standardized tests in reading, spelling, vocabulary and reading comprehension and those with problems are placed in English classes catering to their special needs.

These courses focus on all the basic skills — writing, spelling and vocabulary — which are taught in English classes, but have an emphasis on reading improvement. The staff says that "whether or not the screening of entering ninth graders will be as successful as it seems, will depend on next spring's test results."

In addition to teaching specially designed English classes, the South High reading specialists, Alice Wellpott and Jon Rice, spend much of the day working intensively with small groups of students referred to them by the English teachers. When their particular problems have been improved, they go back to their regular classes.

Regardless of the approach, help for students in improving reading skills is available.

Letters to The Editor of The NEWS

To the Editor:

As a resident of Grosse Pointe and an officer of Michigan Mutual Insurance Co., I viewed your recent page one article on the city's insurance problems, "City Okay's Big Insurance Hike after Long Struggle"—October 27, from a special perspective.

It would appear that once again the onus has been placed on the insurance industry in general and on my company in particular for having to effect a "staggering 500 percent increase" in premiums for general liability and workers' compensation coverage.

As the article pointed out, Michigan Mutual was the only one of some 20 companies that was willing to insure the city... at any price.

It is also ironic that those 20 companies—including the one that cancelled its policies with the city—escaped being named in your article.

The writer chose, instead, to point to Michigan Mutual as the villain when, in fact, we were trying to help the city solve its problems. We don't expect praise, but we certainly cannot accept condemnation.

I also want to correct several errors in the article concerning the amount of increase in premiums from last year to the current year. According to our records, the city will pay a premium of $31,732 for its property and liability coverage in 1977-78. This represents an increase of 320 percent over the $7,561 premium for the year before.

Premiums for workers' compensation insurance will total $26,320 for 1977-78, or 17 percent over the $22,464 in premiums in 1976-77.

Total premiums for both lines of insurance in 1976-77 were $30,005, compared to $58,052 in 1977-78. That—according to our calculations—represents an increase of 93 percent. This is certainly not "five-fold" and does not even approach "500 percent."

Aside from these misstatements of fact, I believe it is unfortunate that the article really did not deal with the underlying causes of the rate increase. It is true that cities—once relatively immune from civil actions for damages—have been perceived by some as a relatively untapped source of wealth.

In general, more people are suing more municipalities and receiving larger awards from more juries. Those juries are composed, of course, of citizens living in the very communities that become the corporate defendants in such action.

I am afraid that when the average citizen, sitting in judgment on such a case, examines the facts surrounding a suit of this kind, he or she most often identifies with the plaintiff... the aggrieved fellow citizen who is going to collect that award from a big insurance company.

And we all know insurance companies can afford that kind of penalty, don't we?

What those jurors fail to realize is that insurance is basically a means of spreading a risk. The higher the risk, the higher the cost of meeting it. And in the case of public liability coverage for a municipality, it is the taxpayers who, in the end, will be paying for these awards.

Until jurors and other citizens realize they are the ones who actually will be paying for excessive awards through higher taxes, I am afraid this intolerable situation will only worsen.

Sincerely,
E. C. Foote,
Vice-President,
Michigan Mutual Insurance Group

To The Editor:

The caption on the front page of your October 27 issue: "Representatives Respond to Questions of Citizens" at the town meeting held October 19, at the Woods Council chambers, misinforms your readers and does not tell it like it is.

It should have read, "Representatives Respond to Written Questions of Citizens." The questions to which the panel responded were not oral questions, but had to be written on a piece of paper or a card.

This is far from the course for the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters and moderator Mrs. Barbara Thompson.

Objecting to oral questions and viewpoints from the citizens at an open meeting is not in the public interest. It leads one to believe that the purpose of this policy is to establish a procedure that borders on suppressing free speech.

The Town Meeting was a big deal. There are approximately 20,650 homes in the five Grosse Pointes; yet less than 30 persons attended this meeting. Incidentally, I talked on the phone to one of the six representatives who answered the written questions, and he told me the whole thing was a waste of his time.

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters and Mrs. Thompson have not shown much interest in the problems of the senior citizens in the five Pointes.

Many of them are living on incomes below the poverty level set by the federal government. Their so-called "golden years" are tarnished by a body that aches and groans, and they do not have enough money to get a set of new dentures so they can eat their food properly.

All of the taxpayers, including the senior citizens of the five Pointes, whose income falls at or below the poverty level set by the federal government for one person, $3,713 per year, two persons, $4,913, have been forced by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education to pay school taxes that permit the 38 administrators, whose salaries including the super fringe benefits and pensions, range from approximately $26,308 to $35,975 per year to be reimbursed for dentures up to 90 percent of the total cost not to exceed $800 in one year.

The taxpayers also have to pay the bill, (it is included in your school taxes), for the teachers' dentures—they are reimbursed 60 percent of cost to a total of $800 per year.

Here you have a situation where approximately 2,200 senior citizens, most of whom need new dentures for themselves and cannot afford to pay for them, have to pay in school taxes so that the 38 administrators in a salary range of $26,308 to $35,975 can get reimbursement up to 90 percent for the cost of dentures. JUSTICE for ALL.

Stanley Fisher,
Grosse Pointe City

(Editor's Note: A copy of this letter to U.S. Attorney General Griffin Bell was sent to the NEWS from Gilder D. Jackson, of Grosse Pointe City.)

I enclose the enclosed, (the NEWS' article, "Complaint Not Signed in Probe," October 27 edition), and I ask, "What the hell?"

I am reminded of the occasion many years ago when the then Rep. Eugene McCarthy suggested on the floor of the House that if the Postmaster, (Arthur Summerfield), would spend less time reading dirty books and more time delivering the mail, our society might be better off.

Similarly, there must be more serious threats to the well-being of our society which the Justice Department could pursue, with its limited resources, than the menace of a proposed street plan for a small midwestern community.

Your employee is quoted as saying that "only three conclusions can result from an investigation of this sort." Surely there is a fourth possible conclusion, which is that anyone who would waste even an hour's worth of the taxpayers' money on this kind of nonsense automatically becomes the leading candidate for the job of U.S. Attorney for Outer Michigan, stationed at Maloelap, with occasional side trips to Wotje and Jaluit.

Has the Justice Department really so little to do that, in order to drum up business, its minions must roam the country, reading material which they later cannot remember, in the hope of receiving "an indication that there may be a violation involved?"

If such is the case, it will at least be no problem for the President to know where to look first in his quest to balance the budget.

I can well imagine that you didn't hire the man and you can't fire him, but can't you at least leash and muzzle him?

If there has been any question in your mind about why an increasing number of citizens view the present administration as the inept in pursuit of the inadvisable via the impractical, you should now at least have a clue.

I would hardly suggest that Mr. Gable (Carl Gable, justice department attorney), is a likely well-spring of the Great American Revolution of the 20th century. But I would point out that revolutions normally stem from a multiplicity of small grievances rather than one large one, and that they generally originate with a fed-up middle class.

To the Editor:

Yesterday was Halloween and as I reflect on this fall event our children so enthusiastically anticipate, I find my feelings are dominated by sadness and hope of survival.

Sadness because after preparing our treats only 13 "beggars" arrived at our decorated and brightly lighted home to claim their rewards. One can't help but wonder why so few?

Sadness because my third-grade daughter proudly presented her creative writing efforts from school. It related how the children received poisoned candy bars for their Halloween treat.

Survival enters the picture as my husband and I catch a glimpse of the youths who have just finished destroying our yard decorations and smashing our children's artistic efforts. As we clean up, we are thankful they didn't break the gaslight as they tore down the display.

Finally, we are relieved that after a thorough check we are able to turn over those collected goodies to our children for all the fun of sorting, counting and trading of treats.

What a sad commentary on the times we live in. One can only hope that today's children will somehow manage to gain the happy Halloween memories we parents retain from the "older times" our children so often ask us about.

Sincerely,
Mrs. John Judge,
Of Cook road,
Grosse Pointe Woods

To the Editor:

I am writing in response to a campaign advertisement in Thursday's "Grosse Pointe News," (November 3 edition), which featured a picture of a farmhouse with a caption reading, "Vernier Road—Condemned for over two years."

Once farmland, the property surrounding the condemned farmhouse is the site of Grosse Pointe North. As a vestige of an earlier way of life in the Pointe, this farmhouse is of historical significance to the community. I feel it could be "saved" as follows:

1. Renovation by the City of Grosse Pointe Woods to be used for educational purposes.

To minimize expenses, the work could be delegated to students under the direction and supervision of their industrial education teachers—what a great way for students to master the skills of carpentry, electrical wiring and plumbing!

2. Renovation and use by the city as a "mini" historical museum, displaying artifacts native to the area.

3. Sale to a private individual interested in preserving our heritage. With the recent renovation of old farmhouses on Vernier, surely a buyer could be found.

Hoping a spark of interest has ignited on this matter, I remain,

To the Editor:

This is an open letter to Felix Resnick and the Grosse Pointe Symphony.

Dear fellow musicians. Sincere thanks and appreciation for your fine symphony concert last Sunday. The program was interesting, the musicians excellent, especially the brass and winds, and the soloist, Misha Kottler, outstanding.

It's especially nice to see so many involved, dedicated young instrumentalists enjoying music making. As a professional organist and choir director, I know the many hours involved in presenting anything worthwhile.

While Detroit may be having a symphonic rebirth under Antal Dorati, the Grosse Pointes are not just taking a back seat to their sister city.

Keep up the good work and thanks again.

What Goes On at Your Library

By William T. Peters,
Director of Public Libraries

Films, like books, are a part of our heritage. The library has a fine collection of 16mm films which introduce us to people we've never met, and take us to places we've never been.

Some new films teach, most films entertain and the best films make us think.

Most countries produce 16mm films, but no country produces as many outstanding films as Canada. The National Film Board, (NFB), of Canada, created in 1939 by an Act of Parliament, is a national film-making and film-distributing concern. It is estimated that the world audiences for NFB films have surpassed the one billion mark.

Only a few of the excellent NFB films in the library's permanent collection can be mentioned in this column.

BEGONE DULL CARE is a lively interpretation, in fluid lines and color, of jazz music played by the Oscar Peterson Trio. It is printed directly on film by Norman McLaren, a genius who revolutionized modern animation, and is a visual treat in eight minutes.

FINE FEATHERS is a fable about two birds who exchange their plumage for brightly colored leaves. They admire themselves and each other; their vanity knows no bounds. When the wind blows the leaves away, the moral is well told. It is a cut-out color cartoon by film artist Evelyn Lambert.

NAHANNA is the legend of a lost gold mine in the Northwest Territory and a river that lures men to their doom. Albert Faile, an aging prospector, sets out time after time to find hidden gold. His route is through a wild and awesome land, particularly suited to the mood of this odyssey.

IN QUETICO photographer Chapman captures the beauty of one of the most beautiful natural wildernesses in the world, over one million acres located in the Thunder Bay area on the boundary of Minnesota and Ontario.

TOYS is by Gran Munro, another of the National Film Board's brilliant film animators, who has produced a startlingly revealing film without commentary designed to show the desensitizing effect of war toys on children.

PADDLE TO THE SEA, an award-winning film directed by William Mason and produced by Julian Baggis, is a children's odyssey—the journey of a hand-carved toy canoe from Canada's northern forest downstream to the distant sea.

The film is from a story of the same name by Holling C. Holling, author of many children's books and a wilderness crafts and travel enthusiast. It is a memorable film voyage with vivid impressions of a vital and scenic part of North America.

TWENTY-THREE SKIDOO, although produced a number of years ago, is as up-to-date as tomorrow's newspaper. It dramatizes the horror of the neutron bomb by showing a metropolis without a trace of human life, then focusing on a newscaster who has stopped halfway through his message, reporting the explosion of the world's first neutron bomb.

All of the library's 16mm films are available for free loan at the Central Library Audio-Visual Department to groups or individuals. Persons should call and make reservations at 884-2200.

An annotated film catalog is available but the library does not provide projection equipment.

The play will be presented on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 17, 18 and 19, at the Performing Arts Center, 707 Vernier road. Curtain time is 8 p.m. and general admission is $2.

Pointers Join 'The Smokeout'

Pointer Jerry Schoenith has agreed to give up cigarettes for one day on Thursday, November 17, as local chairman of the American Cancer Society's "The Great American Smokeout," the society announced.

The "Smokeout" campaign is aimed at getting 10 million American smokers to pledge a day without smoking.

"Most of us who smoke have considered giving up the habit," said Mr. Schoenith, "but the thought of never lighting up another cigarette is too hard to face."

"The American Cancer Society is telling us to take a day at a time."

So far, Mr. Schoenith has obtained pledges from Pointers Shirley and Lee Schoenith and Penny and George Simon not to smoke on November 17. His employees have also joined the campaign and will encourage patrons of Schoenith's restaurants to quit for a day, too.

The campaign will begin in the morning of the 17th with a rally at Kennedy Square where WDRQ radio will sponsor a "Burn Out" at which time persons may rid themselves of any leftover cigarettes.

Mr. Schoenith will provide additional incentive for the non-smokers by passing out coupons for a free cocktail at Jerry's Marine Restaurant that evening.

Joining the campaign will be the South High National Honor Society which, according to chairman Abby Frame, will solicit non-smoking pledges at school on the 17th.

For more information, call the Cottage Hospital Branch of the Cancer Society at 343-9006.

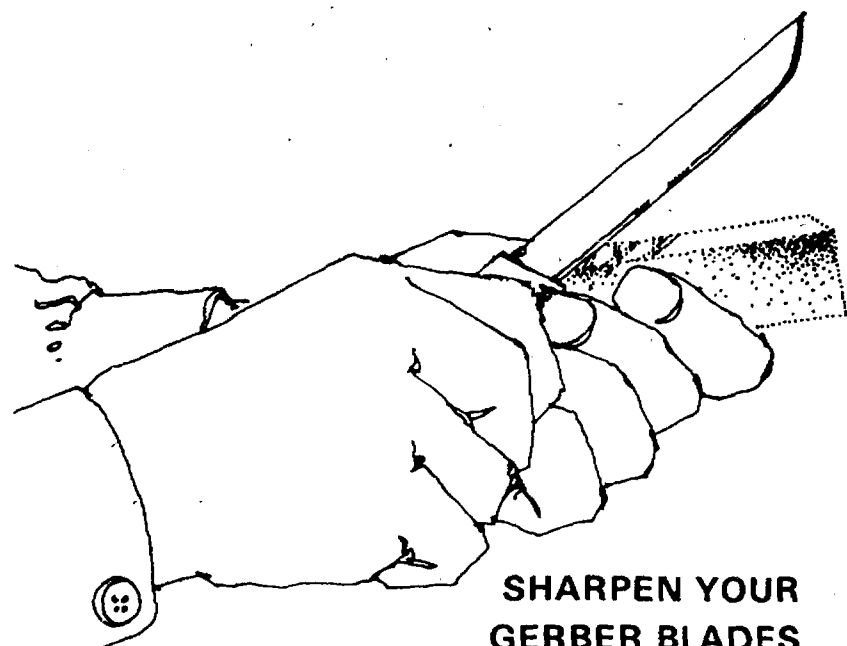

Many types of silver boxes were made in the preceding centuries. Today, one may see some of these boxes on display in museums, or as prized items for sale in antique and jewelry stores. Some boxes were used by women for their dressing tables to hold hairpins and other items. As early as the seventeenth century, patch boxes were produced. These boxes were circular and had push-on lids with engraved designs. Every gentleman in days of yore had a tobacco box. These were usually oval in shape, and no more than 1/2" deep so that they would fit easily in a pocket.

VALENTE JEWELRY, 16601 East Warren at Kensington, 881-4800, has many gift items for any occasion to suit any budget. We invite you to come in whether or not you are presently contemplating the purchase of a piece of fine jewelry. We do engraving right here on the premises. Feel free to come in and browse and see the beautiful jewelry and watches on display as well as the many antique items we have on consignment. VALENTE JEWELRY is open from 9 'til 5:30 daily and Fri. Rare Birds in a Rare Environment

TERRY GLANCY began by using his experience, based on scientific study and culture of tropical plants, to make "house calls," diagnosing and curing problems with plants in such difficult situations as dimly-lit offices and malls, houses with low humidity

An Exotic Touch To Berry Lecture

Glancys to Feature Unique Ideas on Holiday Decor in Their Talk for Grosse Pointe Garden Center November 18

Terry and Barbara Glancy will talk about exotic house plants, and how they may be used as living Christmas decorations, at this year's Berry Memorial Lecture.

It's set for a week from tomorrow, Friday, November 18, at 11 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium.

It's free, endowed by the Eska and Raymond Berry Memorial Fund. It's the Grosse Pointe Garden Center's annual "thank you" to members and friends for their support during the year.

It will be followed by a $5-per-person subscription luncheon in Fries Crystal Ballroom, for which reservations, according to Mrs. Charles A. Parcells, Jr., chairman, must be in by today, Thursday, November 10, at the Garden Center Room in the War Memorial's Alger House.

Dr. Glancy has a Ph.D. degree in Viral Oncology (cancer research). He followed this with a Ph.D. in Ornamental Horticulture.

He was at the Meyer-Prenth Cancer Foundation until his horticulture "hobby"—making house calls for ailing plants, building greenhouses of all—became a profession: now he and his wife own Grosse Pointe Botanical Gardens in Kercheval avenue where, they say, "the unusual is the usual."

The Grosse Pointe Botanical Gardens houses an extensive collection of rare and exotic plants and specially-formulated materials and tools that allow many plants to be easily grown in simple conditions.

"Because of our interests in botany and indoor gardening, we would like to share our experience and knowledge with other people who have the same enthusiasm for plants," the Glancys say.

Terry will start the lecture, "An Unusual Christmas Rich in Color and Fragrance," opening his talk with observations on the care of plants, touching on fertilizing, watering, light and soil mixes.

He will continue with a report on exotic and unusual tropicals for the home, including orchids and Bonsai for indoors and out.

Barbara follows, presenting Christmas ideas, "Deck the Halls with Holly 'Ferns,'" with such intriguing subtitleds as "Holiday Wrap-Ups," "Red Hots, Candy Cane Stripes and Peppermints," "Orchids Mean Christmas," "Bright Bowls of Cheer" and "All I Want for Christmas"—innovative ideas for gifts for the avid and not-so-avid gardener.

A question-and-answer period will follow the talks.

Both Glancys have interesting backgrounds. Barbara received her Bachelors degree in Fine Arts after studying at Arts and Crafts. She spent three years at Pewabic Pottery.

Goodwill Juniors Feature Antiques

Fifty-Two Dealers Are Exhibiting at Annual Market and Sale, which Opens Today and Will Run Through Saturday at Fairlane Manor

The annual Antiques Market and Sale sponsored by the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries marks its 30th year as it opens today, Thursday, November 10, at Fairlane Manor in Dearborn. Fifty-two dealers are on hand to help make the three-day show the largest the Juniors have held.

Welcoming patrons at a gala preview party last evening were honorary show chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Ray Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. McCarthy and Mr. and Mrs. William Freehan.

An exhibit of two antique cars, a 1923 Willys Knight and a 1928 Reo Rumbleseat, owned by William McMillan, of Northville, greeted the guests.

Dealers from the east, south, midwest and London are showing American, English, French and Oriental furniture, glass, jewelry, prints, clocks, silver, china, pewter, dolls and other fine items.

The emphasis at this year's market is on affordables: those items of quality that can be purchased by collectors who do not wish to make a major financial investment. Planning for the 1977 market began well before last year's market opened. Overseeing the committees is Mrs. John A. Bartlett, of Birmingham. Handling the dealers is Pointer Mrs. Joseph H. Perry, III.

Throughout the year, members of the Junior Group have been preparing gift and holiday items for their boutique. Pine cone and calico wreaths, needlepoint ornaments and coasters, pillows and other handcrafted items are offered.

A cookbook featuring soups, ranging from thick and hearty to delicate desserts, is on sale. The soup cookbook is the first section of what is planned as an ongoing project, with new chapters to be offered at each year's show.

There will be an opportunity to sample some of the soups in the Calico Kitchen, where luncheon and ice cream snacks are served daily. On Saturday, an antique's brunch will feature Eggs Benedict.

Kitchens have been bustling throughout the summer

as Juniors canned more than 1,000 jars of specialty goods for their Pantry Shelf. Showgoers may select from more than 20 types of jams, jellies, pickles and sauces, some of which were among a group of a dozen canned items which received a blue ribbon this summer at the Michigan State Fair.

The Country Store, in its traditional old-fashioned setting, features cheeses, candies, pecans, party snack treats and sponge candy.

Also featured is the Washing Well, offering such items as a spinning wheel, a portrait, a Civil War print and an antique china tea set.

Free lectures are scheduled at 2 o'clock each show day. Speaking today is Kenneth M. Wilson, director of collections at Henry Ford Museum, who will discuss glass. Robert B. Lyons, of Ann Arbor, will discuss toys tomorrow.

Holiday Table Settings of Yesterday, is the Saturday topic for George Bird, retired senior curator of Henry Ford Museum.

Proceeds from the market, the major fund-raiser of the Junior Group, are used to benefit the clients of League-Goodwill.

Cottage Hospital Cites Its Young Volunteers

Ninety young men and women were honored at Cottage Hospital Wednesday evening, October 26, for the service they have given as junior volunteers during the past year.

With families and friends attending, they received congratulations from Ralph L. Wilgarde, Cottage administrator, Mrs. James E. St. Denis, auxiliary president, and Mrs. Margaret Hutchings, director of volunteers.

"The only reason for the existence of Cottage Hospital — and the only reason for any of us being here — is the patient. Everything you have done has been directed toward the patient's comfort and recovery," Mr. Wilgarde told the honorees.

Four girls received both pins and caps, indicating a total of more than 100 service hours during the year. They are Pointers Polly Garaka, Christine Kallardos and Kathy Kane, and Doreen Golechowitz, of St. Clair Shores.

A special award, an initialed key ring, was given to Pointer Russell Herschelmann for more than 100 hours service.

Girls receiving caps for 100 hours service or more were Janice Brooks, Karen Mueller and Michelle Wojcik, of St. Clair Shores, and Pointers Janine Blanchard, Thayer Carlson, Chris Chapelle, Margaret Counen and Cathy Gaskin.

Receiving pins for 50 hours service were Pointers Jenny Baumstark, Anne Cavazos, Connie Capps, Debbie Conlon, Lori Conlon, Tammy Davis, Marcel Germain, Laura Johnston and Janet Suminski and, from St. Clair Shores, Beth Bramwell, Vicki Bullock, Diane Fearn, Sylvia Paul and Susan Schultz, as well as Detroiters Leslie Cackowski, Susan Demres and Christine Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Santa, aka MR. and MRS. DOUGLAS COOKE, dropped by the Mole Hole a few days ago to invite MRS. GARY MITCHELL, CLARENCE WASHER — and the world! — to "Supper with Santa" at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Sunday, November 27. Admission to the 6 to 10 o'clock event is $10 per person, including a buffet supper, a tour through the Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center's Santa Haus, and informal modeling of furs, jewelry and lingerie by Jacobson's from 7 to 9 o'clock... plus a try-to-guess-who-he-is Celebrity Santa Claus. Reservations are being accepted through Wednesday, November 23, by Mrs. Jackson at 824-8000.

Mrs. Mitchell is chairman of the Assistance League's Santa Supper Party. Mr. Washer is manager of Jacobson's in-the-Village. Mrs. Cooke and Mrs. David Kingwell are in charge of scheduling for the Santa Haus, a Christmas Fantasy featuring boutique and bake shops, Santa's own workshop, a "Children's Only" store, entertainment, story hours, visits with and gifts from Santa.

The Mesdames Robert Waldeck, Christopher Mannino and George Shammass are general co-chairmen of the Santa Haus, which will be open November 25 through December 18 at the GPHC. Monday through Friday hours will be 5 to 9 in the evening. Saturday hours will be 10 to 5, Sunday hours 1 to 5 o'clock.

Admission is $1 per person for "one magic hour," and special times are being set aside to accommodate children's groups. Reservation information may be obtained by calling 888-4963.

New Hilberry Season Begins

The Hilberry Theatre's production of Moliere's "School for Wives," opening officially Wednesday, November 16, will be presented in a musical adaptation which was first produced in 1964.

The comedy will be performed especially for Sponsors Friday, November 11, at the President's Preview, official celebration of the Theatre's 15th season. It will continue in repertory through February 18.

This musical version first opened at the East 78th Street Playhouse in New York City on February 17, 1964, under the title "The Amorous Flea." The book was written by Jerry Devine, music and lyrics by Bruce Montgomery.

Moliere's "School for Wives" originally opened December 26, 1662, at the Palais-Royal in Paris, and was performed without interruption to full houses until Easter season of the following year.

Immediately after the holiday it was revived, and remained on the bill through August.

"The Amorous Flea" musically brings to the stage all the characters Moliere created in "The School for Wives."

At the center is Arnolphe, a middle-aged bachelor who attempts to control his chosen bride, Agnes, by controlling her education, or lack of it, from the age of four.

Complications arise from the bumbling of his two servants, Alain and George, charged with guarding the girl in his house, and from Horace, a handsome young man who falls in love with Agnes and makes things worse by making the old man his confidant.

Appearing in the cast are

East Side Delta Zetas Fashion Hand Puppets

This month's East Side Delta Zeta program will be a general group get-together to complete hand puppets to be given to children who enter the emergency room or are admitted to the Pediatric Unit of Saint John Hospital.

Members gather next Thursday, November 17, at the home of Elaine Lootens at 7:30 o'clock. Co-hostesses are Michelle Nerone and Gertrude Etzler.

Delta Zetas wishing additional information may call Mrs. Lootens at 886-0649.

Erick Devine as Arnolphe, Cynthia Dozier as Agnes, Bruce Matley as Horace, Gerald B. Roe as Alain, Rhonda Smith as George, George Christopher Kappas as Chrysalde, John Morgan Lund as Enrique and Andrew Leo Dunn as Oronte.

"The Amorous Flea" is directed by Robert T. Hazzard, with scenery by Russell Smith, costumes by Ellen Ryba and lighting by James A. Hatfield.

Complete schedule and ticket information for the Hilberry repertory is available from the box office, 577-2972.

DBE Chapter Plans a Party

The Vincent Massey Chapter, Daughters of the British Empire in Michigan, is planning a dessert and afternoon of bridge at the home of Mrs. G. Paul Olson in Lakeview on Monday, November 14, starting at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. J. J. Carradus, regent, and her committee have made Christmas table prizes and other articles for sale, along with homemade baked goods and preserves, to raise funds to help support the British Home at Brookfields, Ill., one of three DBE-supported regional homes for the elderly in the United States.

Assisting on the committee are Pointers Mrs. Arthur B. Hilliges, Mrs. Ivor Carter, Mrs. William Drake, Mrs. W. G. Robrecht, Mrs. Austin Wheatley and Miss Myrtle Nancekivell.

Cocktail Benefit Set By Notre Dame Club

The Notre Dame Club of Detroit will sponsor a benefit cocktail party for its scholarship fund this Sunday, November 13, from 4 to 7 o'clock at Jacques in Telegraph road, just north of Twelve Mile road.

Admission is $5 per person. The scholarship fund is used to support partial scholarships for a number of Notre Dame students from the Detroit metropolitan area.

Reservations and contributions may be made by calling program chairman Ed Stenger at 373-6000 or co-chairman Lee Elsey at 886-9700.

Planning Christmas Street at Austin

GINNY BORLAND, PAT ANTONELLI and SALLY MURRAY, (left to right), got together recently to make final plans for Austin Mothers Club's "Olde Type Christmas Street of Shoppes," to be presented Saturday, November 12, from 10 to 6 o'clock at Austin Prep School. Christmas wreaths, arts, crafts and hobby items, plus a Bake Sale, will be featured. All are welcome to enjoy lunch, browse and buy.

Engaged

Plans for a December 17 wedding are being made by DIANE R. McLEOD and Brian R. Smith whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McLeod, of Warner road.

The bride-elect, a Grosse Pointe South High School alumna, holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Special Education from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Mr. Smith, son of the Caddie Smiths, of Marshall, was graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering.

Phyllis Curtin Sings Friday

Historic Orchestra Hall has been chosen by the Detroit Seven Eastern Colleges Committee as the appropriate acoustical setting for a recital by Phyllis Curtin, internationally-known opera and concert singer.

Scheduled for 8 o'clock Friday, November 11, the program will include works by Villa-Lobos, Poulenc and Cole Porter.

Tickets at $5 general admission may be purchased at the Orchestra Hall box office or by phoning 626-0241.

Proceeds will underwrite scholarships for Michigan students to attend Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar and Wellesley.

Phyllis Curtin, familiar to audiences in the Motor City where she has appeared with the Metropolitan Opera and the Detroit Symphony, is herself a Wellesley alumna.

She has sung repeatedly at the White House, on television and with all the major United States symphonies.

In recitals across the country and performances for heads of state and other dignitaries around the globe, Miss Curtin has premiered more works than any other American soprano and earned acclaim as a resourceful innovator in her choice of repertoire.

Orchestra Hall, now undergoing restoration, is listed on the National Register of Historic Sites.

Built in 1919 to be the home of the Detroit Symphony, it was hailed as "an acoustical marvel, a gem among the world's concert halls" by the late cellist Pablo Casals.

Since its formation in 1938, the Detroit Seven Eastern Colleges Committee has provided several hundred Michigan students with scholarship funds from some $210,000 netted through its projects.

Set Woman's Club Scholarship Lunch

Party Will Raise Funds for Achievement Awards to Be Presented to Grosse Pointe North and South High Graduates

The Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will present its 1977 scholarship luncheon next Wednesday, November 16, at noon in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom. Featured will be Autumn Splendor in Fashions from Margaret Diamond. Commentator will be Mary Morgan.

Mrs. Edward Eissa, general chairman, has asked a group of Woman's Club members to model.

They include the Mesdames Walter Bovol, Chester Bogan, John J. Bourne, Joseph Chojnowski, John V. Crane and William Koontz.

Music for the show will be by Mrs. Bewley D. Priestman.

Assisting Mrs. Eissa in overall planning are co-chairmen Mrs. Andrew Bremer, Jr., and Mrs. Samuel D'Angelo.

Others on party committees are the Mesdames Bogan, William Kabbush, Henry D. Lampman, Robert F. Maddox, Stuart Micklethwaite, Henry Mistele and Mrs. Dallas E. Newkirk, ticket chairman.

Programs have been designed by Mrs. Vene L. Whims. Mrs. John Elias has planned the decorations.

Chairman for the post-fashion show bridge is Mrs. Dick Warner.

Benefit luncheon tickets and table reservations are available from Mrs. John J. Kelly, 881-7683.

Party proceeds provide funds for Achievement Awards, based on high scholastic achievement, character, citizenship, leadership and the need for financial assistance, to be presented to a 1978 graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School and a 1978 graduate of Grosse Pointe North High School.

The first award was given in 1952. In 1977, four awards were presented.

Mueller-Johnson Vows Exchanged

Shoulder-to-Hem Rows of Lace Accent Bride's Traditional Gown; Peach Qiana Is Selected by Her Attendants

At home in Birmingham following a vacation in Madrid and the Canary Islands are Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton Mueller, who were married Friday, June 24, at an evening ceremony in First Presbyterian Church of Northville.

Mrs. Mueller is the former Linda Marguerite Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Johnson, of Detroit.

Mr. Mueller is the son of Mrs. John H. Mueller, of Deming lane, and the late Mr. Mueller.

For the 6 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Lloyd G. Brasure presided, followed by a dinner reception at the Plymouth Hilton, the bride chose a traditional gown, long-sleeved and high-necked, featuring rows of lace running from shoulder to hem. Matching lace accented her veil. She carried a cascade of white and pale peach roses, with baby's-breath.

Sheryl Wolgram, who came from Revelstoke, B.C., to serve as her cousin's honor attendant, and bridesmaids Nancy Silver, Diane Moore and Trudy Johnson, the bride's sister-in-law, wore pale peach Qiana and carried cascades of peach roses.

Soloist was Colleen Burcar Gallerani, who sang "Day by Day."

Best man was John O'Gorman. Guests were seated by Sam Behringer, Steve Sholty and Frank Roberts.

The John H. Muellers

Marriage vows were spoken Friday evening, June 24, in First Presbyterian Church of Northville by LINDA MARGUERITE JOHNSON, daughter of the Elmer E. Johnsons, of Detroit, and Mr. Mueller, son of Mrs. John Hamilton Mueller, of Deming lane, and the late Mr. Mueller.

Mr. Humphreys To Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. James Edwin Benjamin, of Sherman Oaks, Calif., have announced the engagement of her daughter, Laura Trent Chally, to John Ford Jones Humphreys, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Arthur Humphreys, Jr., of Cadieux road and Paget, Bermuda.

Miss Chally is presently a student nurse at Los Angeles Pierce College School of Nursing.

Her fiancé was graduated from the Choate School in Wallingford, Conn., and the University of Pennsylvania, Wharton School of Business, Class of 1976. He is presently in the Management Training Program at the Security Pacific National Bank in Los Angeles.

A late December wedding is planned.

Sigma Kappa Alumnae To Make Xmas Favors

Grosse Pointe Alumnae of Sigma Kappa will meet Wednesday, November 16, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Donald Littlefield, to make Christmas favors for the Detroit Senior Center.

Park Garden Club to Meet

Following a noon luncheon Monday, November 14, at the Old Place, co-hosted by Mrs. Albert Raisch and Mrs. Frederick Schumann, Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club members will adjourn to Mrs. Raisch's Whittier road home for a program on the Philippine Islands presented by Mrs. Walter Levick.

Present Pillow Talk Workshop

A Pillow Talk Workshop—a chance to make a special Christmas gift for a relative or friend—will be presented Saturday, November 19, from 9 in the morning until 3 in the afternoon at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Kits, including canvas and a choice of yarn colors, will be furnished at $10 per participant. Instruction is $12. Sack lunches are the order of the day; coffee will be served.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. John Horn, 884-3018, or Mrs. David Brown, 757-4794.

Maria Davila Wed in West

Maria Cristina Davila, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Julio Davila, of Lincoln road, was married Sunday, August 14, in La Cienega, N.M., to Robert Derby Brodsky, son of Mrs. Robert Shuster, of Chula Vista, Calif., and Dr. Robert Brodsky, of Ames, Iowa.

The bride was attended by a sister, Victoria Davila, of Pietrasanta, Italy, and by Mrs. Robert McKenna, of Oakland, Calif.

Best man was Stanton Welsh, of Alfred, N.Y. Ushers were Richard Masterson, of La Cienega, and David Anderson, of San Francisco.

Setting for the ceremony was the historic, 17th century chapel of Rancho Las Golondrinas, near Santa Fe.

The bride, an artist, attended Kimberton Farms School in Pennsylvania and received her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the California College of Arts and Crafts, as did the bridegroom, a potter.

They have collaborated in a ceramics enterprise: The Rabbit Art Works. Their work is displayed in galleries in Connecticut, Colorado, Pennsylvania, California and throughout the Southwest.

The bride's father is chief of the Division of Thoracic and Cardiovascular Surgery at Henry Ford Hospital. The bridegroom's father is head of the Department of Aerospace Engineering at Iowa State University.

The newlyweds vacationed in Mexico, in Yucatan and Oaxaca.

Alencon Lace Accents White Organza Gown in Which Janet Susan Galton Speaks Her Marriage Vows

At home in Hunt Club drive, Grosse Pointe Woods, are Mr. and Mrs. Joel Reynolds Caskey, who vacationed at Woodstock, Vt., following their wedding Saturday, August 20, in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

The 4 o'clock rites with The Reverend Paul Hiyama and The Reverend Plummer Whipple presiding were followed by a reception at the Country Club of Detroit. The bride, the former Janet Susan Galton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex M. Galton, of Traverse City, chose an Elizabethan-necked gown of white organza.

Alencon lace appliques accented her bodice. Matching lace panels trimmed her skirt. Her lace-trimmed veil fell from a white lace Juliet cap, and she carried white Sweetheart roses set in baby's breath and ivy.

In a peach Qiana frock styled with bows at the base of spaghetti straps, and matching stole, was Kathy Larsen, who came from Arnold, Md., to serve as her sister's honor attendant.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically, were Debra Cohee, of Chestertown, Md., Cynthia Valice, the bridegroom's sister, Mary Whitmer, of Clarkston, the bride's cousin, Ann McMullen, Denise Terrill and Kathy Matzinger.

They carried natural straw baskets filled with zinnias and yellow carnations, baby's breath and ferns.

Mr. Caskey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Caskey, of Vendome court, asked James B. Perry to serve as best man. Guests were seated by Alex Galton, Jr., and Chris Galton, brothers of the bride, John Skae, of Denver, Colo., Jim Valice, Jamie McMullen, Jim Kerr, the bridegroom's cousin, and Mark Brooks.

Multicolored floral print accented the hem and sleeves of the bride's mother's full-skirted, white voile gown. The bridegroom's mother's dress of powder blue dotted voile was tied at the waist with white grosgrain ribbon and silk flowers. Both mothers pinned Eucharis lilies to their purses.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Whitmer, and their family, the Richard Lowrie family, the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stackpole, and the Richard Chenoweths.

More are the Mesdames Raymond Kokowicz, Herbert W. Devine, Thomas J. McBryan, James H. Dingeman, William B. McIntyre, Frank Couzens, Jr., James Dingeman, Jr., John Ottaway, Jr., and Thomas W. Baumgarten.

Still others are the Mesdames Robert E. Birk, Raymond M. Whyte, K. Michael Beizai, John B. Renick, Willard Kerr, Charles E. Swenson, Thomas Beard, Roland Rinke and Carl Reichert.

Still others—if just these show up, with husbands and friends, the Renaissance Ballroom will be full to overflowing!—are Mrs. Robert Reisig, Mrs. John Luzadrow, Mrs. Michael Burke and Ms. Pepper Whitelaw.

Care to join the fun? You'll be most welcome, and you'll have a ball. Party information may be obtained by contacting Saint John's Fontbonne office, 881-8200, Extension 545.

All proceeds from the gala evening will go toward improving the diagnosis and treatment of the hospital's critically ill patients.

SUN SPOT — "ST. LUCIA"
ST. LUCIA — One of the most scenic islands in the Eastern Caribbean offers lush mountain and powdery white sandy beaches and balmy 70° to 90° temperature year-round. Dress is light and casual. Excellent tennis and golf facilities as well as all water sports are available. The language is English and cuisine is an adventure of English, French and Creole dishes. Night life centers around the hotels where you may choose from plush, modern discotheques and Nightclubs or dancing to Calypso Rhythms. The people of St. Lucia are old fashioned, they insist on treating you like a guest, not like a tourist.

Mrs. Raymond J. Tatu

Exchanging marriage vows in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Saturday evening, August 27, were KAREN LYNN KODIDEK, daughter of the Milton James Kodideks, of Roslyn road, and Mr. Tatu, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Raymond Tatu, of Crestwood drive.

End Beethoven Festival Sunday

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra's Beethoven Festival concludes this week with five concerts in Ford Auditorium. Antal Dorati, DSO music director, will conduct two concerts of the full orchestra, presenting Symphonies No. 6, 7, 8 and 9.

Three chamber music concerts feature the Juilliard Quartet, the Istomin-Stern-Rose Trio and an ensemble with pianist Ilse von Alpenheim, (Mrs. Dorati).

The week's activities began with the Juilliard Quartet concert Tuesday evening. The world-renowned ensemble—Robert Mann and Earl Carlys, violins, Samuel Rhodes, viola, and Joel Krosnick, cello—performed Beethoven's Quartet in E-flat major, Op. 127 and Quartet in E minor, Op. 59, No. 2.

This evening, Thursday, November 10, Dorati will conduct Beethoven Symphonies No. 6 and 7. Both the Thursday evening concert and Saturday evening's sold-out performance of Symphonies No. 8 and 9 will be videotaped by WTVS for the DSO's nine-program Beethoven series, to be broadcast next year over the PBS network.

A chamber music concert is scheduled for Friday morning, November 11, at 10:45 o'clock, featuring pianist von Alpenheim and five DSO principal players: concertmaster Gordon Staples, violin, Paul Schaller, clarinet, Donald Baker, oboe, Robert Williams, bassoon, and Eugene Wade, horn.

The program will be Beethoven's Piano Sonata No. 21 in C major, Op. 53, ("Waldstein"), Violin Sonata No. 9 in A major, Op. 47, ("Kreutzer") and Quintet for Piano and Winds, Op. 16. Ticket prices are $8, $6.50 and $5.

The Saturday evening, November 12, performance of the Eighth and Ninth Symphonies was the first Beethoven Festival event to sell out completely, with every seat in Ford Auditorium reserved more than a month ago.

Joining Maestro Dorati and the orchestra for the 8:30 o'clock concert will be soprano Sarah Beatty, mezzo-soprano Claudine Carlson, (both making their DSO debuts), tenor George Shirley, bass Ezio Flagello and the Wayne State University Symphony Choir.

The Festival concludes Sunday evening, November 13, at 8:30 with a concert by the Istomin-Stern-Rose Trio.

Pianist Eugene Istomin, violinist Isaac Stern and cellist Leonard Rose all enjoy individual international careers at the highest level. Together, "the mighty musical triumvirate" has established a reputation as "a matchless trio... the finest imaginable" in more than 15 years of international performances.

Tickets for Beethoven Festival concerts may be purchased at the Ford Auditorium box office. Telephone inquiries as to ticket availability may be made by calling 961-0700.

The institution of an annual mid-season festival was one of Antal Dorati's first acts after accepting the post as DSO music director.

Summer Wedding For Miss Kodidek

Susan Bell Comes from California to Serve as Honor Attendant at Her Sister's Wedding to Raymond John Tatu

A dinner reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club followed the late summer wedding of Karen Lynn Kodidek and Raymond John Tatu. The newlyweds vacationed in Traverse City and are at home in St. Clair Shores.

Presiding at the evening rites Saturday, August 27, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was Dr. Ray Kiely.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton James Kodidek, of Roslyn road, selected a white silk organza gown for the 7 o'clock nuptials.

Her high neck, long sleeves and hem were trimmed with re-embroidered Alencon lace and pearls. Matching lace and pearl appliques accented her shoulder length, tulle veil, falling from an off-the-face cap.

The same headdress had been worn by her sister, Susan, for her marriage to John Bell.

White roses, ivy, greens and baby's breath formed the bridal bouquet.

Susan Bell, who came with her husband from Mountainview, Calif., to serve as honor attendant, and bridesmaid Julie Zaenglein, the bridegroom's sister, whose husband, John, was best man, wore floor length, long-sleeved frocks of smokey blue Qiana.

They carried old-fashioned bouquets of white mums and blue baby's-breath, with ribbon streamers, and wore matching flowers in their hair.

The Zaengleins reside in Waterville, O.

The bridegroom, son of the John Raymond Tatus, of Crestwood drive, asked Joseph Girardi and Timothy Kelley to usher.

The bride's mother chose a formal length gown of dusty rose silk jersey, long-sleeved and styled with a cowl neckline.

The bridegroom's mother wore a long, sleeveless dress and matching coat of aqua Qiana, Empire-waisted and V-necked. White gardenias formed both mothers' wrist corsages.

Guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Herschleb, of Hendersonville, N.C., and Boca Raton, Fla., formerly of Lochmoor boulevard, and the Charles Kodideks, of Dearborn, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. John Ignat, of St. Clair Shores.

Miss Wright Wed to Thomas H. Riss

West Palm Beach Is Their Vacation Destination Following Early Autumn Rites and Reception at Lochmoor Club

An Empire-waisted gown of silk Qiana trimmed with pearls and Viennese lace was selected by Mary Anne Wright for her marriage Saturday, September 3, to Thomas H. Riss.

Her long veil fell from a Juliet cap. She carried a cascade of white roses, baby's-breath and ivy.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Wright, of Saddle Lane. Mr. Riss is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Riss, of Balfour road, Detroit.

Presiding at the 11 o'clock rites in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church were Father Edmund Binsfeld, the bridegroom's uncle, Father Ralph Barton, pastor of Our Lady Star of the Sea, and Father John Schweder, pastor of St. Matthews.

The readings were given by Meagan Keane, of University place, and Kim Barry, of Mount Vernon road.

Sue Pinney, honor attendant for her sister, and bridesmaid Gloria Justice wore yellow linen frocks and carried baskets of daisies.

Gerald Riss was his brother's best man. In the usher corps were Lawrence Riss, another brother, who came from Indiana for the ceremony, Robert Wright, brother of the bride, and Frank Haas.

The mother of the bride wore beige chiffon. Her corsage was a cymbidium orchid. The bridegroom's mother selected pale blue crepe and an orchid corsage.

After a reception at Lochmoor Club, the newlyweds left to vacation in West Palm Beach, Fla. They are at home in Detroit.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bick, of St. Louis, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reid, of Falmouth, Va., and her cousins, the Charles Coyles, of St. Louis.

Mrs. Thomas H. Riss

Speaking her wedding vows to Mr. Riss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Riss, of Balfour road, Detroit, Saturday, September 3, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church was MARY ANNE WRIGHT, daughter of the Robert A. Wrights, of Saddle Lane.

Detroit Medical Society Auxiliary Plans Bazaar

The Detroit Medical Society Auxiliary will hold its second fall and holiday bazaar in the Fisher Building lobby next Wednesday, November 16, from 9 to 5:30 o'clock.

Monies raised go to the auxiliary's scholarship fund for medical students at Wayne State University.

Auxiliary members, under the direction of co-chairwomen Mrs. John Feemster and Mrs. James Johnson, have been making and collecting items all year for the sale. Also included will be baked goods and plants.

The auxiliary is a non-profit organization, comprised of spouses of black physicians in the Detroit metropolitan area.

Slate General AAUW Meeting

The Grosse Pointe Branch American Association of University Women's general meeting this month is set for next Thursday morning, November 17, in Christ Church's Miller Hall.

Yachtswomen Meet Tonight

Yachtswomen meet tonight, Thursday, November 10, at the Great Lakes Yacht Club, where hostesses for the evening will be Florence Robair, Emily Abele, Lois Williams, Clair Johnston and Lori Kettler.

Elections for the 1977-78 boating year will be held, with installation of officers to follow.

CCS Hosting Craft Exhibit

Works by 50 craftspeople from across the country have been installed in the Center for Creative Studies — College of Art and Design for a representational exhibition by CCS Crafts Alumni: 1946 to 1976.

The show runs through tomorrow, Friday, November 11, from 9 to 9 o'clock Monday through Thursday, 9 to 4 o'clock Friday.

CCS is located in East Kirby street, between John R and Brush streets in Detroit's University-Cultural Center.

Featured in the all-crafts exhibit is hand-blown furnace glass by Mike O'Keefe, Richard Ritter, Jon VanAmerongen, Chuck Wright and Terry Yank.

Fabric design includes silk screen, soft sculpture, quilting and stitchery, fabric construction and weaving. Metalcraft, jewelry and wood craftsmanship are also featured.

Ready for Saint James Candy Cane Fair

Delighted by the selection of items to be offered at the 1977 Candy Cane Fair presented by the Women of Saint James Lutheran Church are general co-chairmen MRS. FRANCIS SCHULZE and MRS. FRANKLIN QUALE, (seated, left and right), and MRS. FRANK BAKEWICZ, holding one of the beautiful baskets she has fashioned for the Christmas Room, which also will feature handmade ornaments, wreaths, felt items . . . and much, much more. Fair date is next Thursday, November 17. Hours are 10 to 5 o'clock. Place is Saint James Church, located in McMillan road just off Kercheval avenue, behind "the Hill."

Mrs. Schulze is doubling as chairman of a luncheon to be served from 11 to 1:30 o'clock, at $2.75 per person. Mrs. Ralph Jewell is dining room chairman.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served throughout the day by Mrs. Fred Martin and

Mrs. Norman Reynolds. Mrs. Quale is doubling as chairman of the Christmas Room. Mrs. Arthur Rolf is chairing a Country Store and Bakery featuring homemade delicacies. Mrs. Ralph Huizinga is in charge of something new this year: a collection of live plants for the home.

The popular Attic Treasures are under the aegis of Mrs. Elizabeth Wible.

The Youth of Saint James are helping with overall decorations.

Lions' Varsity Rolls to Wins

The Grosse Pointe Lions varsity football team is having its best season in 10 years, but it hasn't been an easy one.

On Halloween eve, October 9, the Lions played the northeast Detroit Shamrocks, and a scare thrown into them out won 28-12. The win gave the Lions a 4-2 record for the season.

The Lions faced a well-coached and innovative team when they met the St. Clair Shores Green Hornets Sunday, November 6, at Elworthy Field.

The Lions coaching staff headed by Bill Edgar was worried that the drizzle falling at the kickoff would hurt the game plan. However, all ears were soon put to rest as the Lions took the opening kick and marched 65 yards.

That drive was capped by John Strabel's run into the end zone. The Lions were penalized on the extra point and attempted a 17-yard extra point which fell short.

ULS to Hold 3 Open Houses

University Liggett School (ULS), will hold an Open House for parents and students interested in admission for grades nine through 12 next fall on Tuesday, November 15, at 7:30 p.m. The school is located at 1045 Cook road.

Following introductory remarks by the head of Upper School, Douglas MacKelcan, parents and students will have an opportunity to tour the school, meet with faculty members and talk with present parents and students.

Curriculum and admission information also will be available.

An Open House for the Middle School, grades six through eight, is scheduled on Sunday, November 20, at 2:30 p.m. Open House for the Lower School, pre kindergarten through grade five, is scheduled for January 22, at 2:30 p.m.

For further information, call the director of admissions at 884-4444.

The linebackers and safeties, Jim Hartman, Jamie Harrison, Greg Buck, Rich Moellering, Strabel and Robbie Coddens, bottled up the Hornets receivers so that the volatile Hornet offense was held scoreless in the first half.

The Hornets scored their only touchdown in the third quarter to tie the game. After a defensive struggle that lasted into the fourth quarter, the Lions offense came alive and scored its final touchdown on a 38-yard run by Steve Suminski. That left the Lions defense to hold the edge given to it. Spencer Weldig, John Kline, Scott Lahey, Tom King, Joe Sharp, Mike McDonald and Mark Houser shored up the defense in its closing moments.

Doug Ross, Robin Corley and Jeff Bodkin all gave the Lions what support they could from the sidelines as they recover from injuries sustained earlier this season. The Lions' season finale is against the Grosse Pointe Red Barons Sunday, November 13, at North High School.

One View from the Capitol

By William Bryant

Unemployment compensation, that lever of the ups and downs of a free market economy, necessary as a social program to alleviate the periodic severe hardship of the periodically unemployed or the seasonally unemployed person, hits the news again.

This time a leftover problem from the recent mini-depression in Michigan had to be addressed.

Prior to the recent very high unemployment the fund used to pay unemployment benefits was some $200 million in debt to the federal government.

The benefits are paid from a combination of the fund generated by an unemployment "tax" on employers plus federal payments. When the employer-paid fund is exhausted then the federal government pays the entire amount, in effect loaning employers the amount of the deficit in the fund.

Due to the recession the deficit, the amount loaned by the feds, grew to $624 million. Attempts to get the Carter administration and Congress to forgive and forget this debt were unsuccessful.

By federal law the deficit must be repaid in installments by an across-the-board tax rate increase unless the legislature, by state law, revises the financing of the fund to work out the deficit.

The proposed bill, S.B. 801, to refinance the system, costs far less than the federal alternative and shifts costs more toward payment based on the actual unemployment experience of the employer.

Main arguments against the bill were by the seasonal, tourist-related businesses whose payments would be based more on their high incidence of off-season layoffs, and the Republican caucus argument over voluntary quit abuse.

We argued that there are two ways to eliminate a deficit, not just one. The bill

Trowel, Error Club to Meet

Trowel and Error Garden Club members, bearing luncheon sandwiches, will converge on the Woodbridge Community House next Thursday morning, November 17, at 10:30 o'clock for a Christmas workshop. Dessert will be served by the members. Philip, Patanis and Jon Cook.

increases the fund revenue. We wanted to go further and also reduce the claims against the fund by getting rid of the abuse of claims by people who voluntarily quit their jobs.

The majority refused even to talk about voluntary quits, blocking even any consideration of our proposed amendments.

We appealed the decision of the Speaker blocking consideration. The debate showed, again, the Speaker admits the abuse exists but is unwilling to deal with it except to "study" the problem.

While we claim it is a $60 million abuse, Speaker Bobby Crim claims it is "only" a $20 million abuse.

Mr. Crim, we await even your $20 million savings to employers. But we already have waited far too long.

SEMTA Holds Big Conference

The first region-wide conference on public transportation in southeast Michigan is being held by the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA), on Thursday, November 17, at Cobo Hall.

The conference will cover all aspects of public transportation, including the status of present services, SEMTA's plans for future services and the social, political and economic impacts those future services will have on the region.

Richard S. Page, administrator of the Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA), will deliver the luncheon keynote address. UMTA has final approval of any transit plans developed by SEMTA, and will provide 80 percent of the funds for the implementation of those plans.

Other scheduled participants will include Gov. William G. Milliken, Detroit Mayor Coleman A. Young, State Sen. David A. Plawewski, State Representative William Ryan and elected officials from Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties.

All citizens of southeast Michigan will be affected by the outcome of the transit plans now being developed by SEMTA. Residents are urged to register for this one-day conference as soon as possible.

Registration forms and additional information can be obtained by calling SEMTA at 862-9800. Forms also are available at all Detroit neighborhood city halls.

Registration for the conference is $10. The luncheon, which is optional, will be $7.50. To make it possible for all interested citizens to attend, financial assistance will be provided for those who are unable to pay the entire conference fee. It will run from 8:45 a.m. to 6 p.m.

16th Century Play Set at UL

In preparation for the Friday, November 18, production of "The Servant of Two Masters," University Liggett (UL), Middle School students have been rehearsing since mid-September. This play by Carlo Goldoni is a 16th century Italian comedy of stock characters, improvisation and mistaken identity.

Under the direction of Gerald Elsworth, the following students form the cast of the play: John Martin, Jerry Steketee, Beverly Foster, Dwight Kelsey, Michael Paolucci, Beth Russell, Dan Garin, Bill Morin, Julie Kotcher, Liz Endicott, Tracy Edwards, Christina Fink, Amy McDonnell, Beth Rizzo, Maria Spada and Suzanne Zinn. Tedd Parr is assistant director and Rob Swaney is the guitarist. The public is invited to the 8 p.m. performance at the Middle School, 850 Briarcliff road. Admission is free.

SH Musicians To Sell Fruit

The South High School Bands and Orchestra's fourth annual Citrus Fruit Sale started Wednesday, November 9.

Orders for fresh Florida Indian River tangelos and grapefruit will be taken by any band or orchestra member up until Monday, November 28.

The profit from this venture will be used to purchase instruments, music, tours and keep a fund for summer music camp scholarships.

For more information, contact any band or orchestra member, or call 884-3200 extension 29, or 343-0118 to order by phone.

Tree Survey Held in GPW

Approximately 65 students from Michigan State University's Forestry and Horticulture Departments under the direction of Dr. James Kielbaso, department of forestry, conducted a tree survey in The Woods Friday and Saturday, October 21 and 22.

"In January or February, we expect to get the necessary information for a complete tree management program for the city," said Beautification Commission recording secretary Jean Rice regarding the survey which was started last year.

"Students charted the location, condition and size of all trees on city rights-of-way and will make recommendations on replacements or additional trees needed," she stated.

"They will provide tree varieties which can accommodate themselves to an urban tree situation and cut down on maintenance, spraying and potential storm damage."

The city paid for the cost of transportation, insurance, the opening and preparing of the bathhouses and providing 24-hour guards while the students were there, she said. Administrative Aide Gerard E. McNamara helped coordinate this part of the program.

Community organizations donated $645 to cover the cost of most of the meals. The women of Saint Michael's Church and the women's organization of Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church gave $100 each.

Meanwhile, the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club donated $200 and the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club gave $245 from the educational fund. Meal costs not covered by the donations will be paid by the city.

The students arrived about 6 p.m. on Friday and ate dinner in the old Lake Front Park bathhouse. They slept on cots set up in the new bathhouse, courtesy of Alfred Wyborak, manager of the Light Guard Armory.

After eating breakfast at the Lochmoor Club on Saturday, the students were greeted by City Administrator and Mrs. Chester E. Petersen. Then, team assignments and routes to be covered were discussed. Lunch was served buffet style in the community room, (the headquarters), at The Woods city hall.

Mrs. Rice added that Beautification Commission members helped serve all meals, clean up and keep the headquarters open. Those members participating included Peter Coutos, Judy Miller and Joan Smith, along with Mrs. Rice.

Club to Host Seniors' Night

A night of recreational activities for senior citizen residents of the Pointe Public School District and members of the Village Club has been scheduled by the Department of Community Services and the Neighborhood Club for Saturday, November 19, at Brownell Middle School, 260 Chalfonte avenue.

The evening will begin with a cold-cut luncheon at 6:30 p.m. Activities will include square and ballroom dancing, swimming, cards and other games.

The price is $3 per person and $5 per couple for lunch and activities. Reservations are required. Call 885-3808 or 885-0271 by 4 p.m. Tuesday, November 15.

The activity will have to be cancelled if enough reservations are not received.

Club to Hold Fashion Show

Clothes for the teenage girl will be featured at a Fall/Winter Fashion Show sponsored by the Yakoneia Discovery Club in cooperation with Kay Baum's and Mary Kay Cosmetics on Friday, November 11, at 8 p.m.

The show will be held at Pierce Middle School, 15430 Kercheval avenue. Admission is 50 cents and parking is available directly across the street at Defer Elementary School.

The Discovery Club is composed of Pierce eighth graders Renee Bradley, Renee Colletti, Maureen Cross, Debby Gibney, Paula Hanpeter, Betsy Hirt, Grace Lucido, Debra McAllister, Patty O'Brien, Kathy Paton, Susan Prosky and Kelly Smith.

For tickets, call Grace Lucido at 885-8135.

UNIVERSITY LIGGETT FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS
JENNIFER TEBBS AND GRAHAM BULLEN

By Ann Wallace

At University Liggett this year are two American Field Service exchange students, Jennifer Tebbs, from Wellington, New Zealand, and Graham Bullen, from Johannesburg, South Africa. Both are 18 years old and have already received their high school diplomas from their schools at home.

At University Liggett, their courses have been selected to further their knowledge of American culture and history which they will share when they return to their homes next summer.

Jennifer, who was born and raised in Wellington, is living with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Meathe, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, who have a daughter Carol, a student at University Liggett, a son, James, a student at John Carroll University, and a son Larry, a graduate of John Carroll University.

Jennifer arrived in Grosse Pointe this past July, her first trip abroad, leaving winter, a very rainy season, behind in her native New Zealand.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bruce Tebbs, and has a sister Diane, a student at Victoria University, Wellington, and a brother Richard, a 10th grade student in the local high school.

Her father is a sales manager with the Electricity Power Board, which is affiliated with the government. Her mother is a secretary.

Became a Teacher Jennifer completed work toward her high school diploma last December. She was then given an opportunity to teach a lower grade in her school for six months, the length of time before she would leave for America. Since she plans to continue her education in the teaching field, this proved to be an invaluable opportunity.

Since she arrived in the Grosse Pointe area, Jennifer has enjoyed seeing some Detroit Tiger baseball games. She also enjoys the athletic programs at University Liggett School, particularly the girls' field hockey team of which she is an active member.

Her study subjects include history, which she "just loves," mathematics, English, physiology and Ethics and Religion. She used to play the violin, but now enjoys singing and plans to join the choral society at University Liggett. She also has great enthusiasm for art and theater.

Guest of Schaefer's Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis William Bullen, is a guest in the home of the G. Fred Schaefer's, of Cloverly road, and their sons Michael Buhler, 16 years old, in grade 11 at University Liggett, and Kurt Buhler, 14 years old, also a University Liggett School student, in the ninth grade.

Graham was born in England and moved to Australia when he was three years old.

Have Trade Schools "There are schools that offer metal and woodworking crafts," he continues, "as well as other trades."

"National exams at the 10th and 11th grade levels are given in my school," adds Jennifer, "and we must pass these if we expect to continue in school. A student can take them over again if the exam is failed, even more than once."

Rugby is one of the most popular sports in their schools. It resembles American football, although once play begins it does not stop, except for a half-time break. "There are no cheerleaders or bands such as we have here in this country," add both Jennifer and Graham. "But we do have a cadet pipe and bugle corps," continues Graham.

Asked what is the most impressive aspect of living in this country, both Jennifer and Graham say without hesitation "The pace of life here is incredible! There is much hustle and bustle and we are enjoying it very much." They add, "People are in a rush to be everywhere."

Country Measures Up "Before we came here, we, of course, had seen many pictures of this country and had visualized it to be a certain way. It measures up to what we had imagined, in every way."

"We enjoy the 'openness' of the American people and their friendliness."

"Many students here at 'Liggett' have been to Europe," notes Graham, "and therefore we are able to share a common bond of travel which helps at times, as we do get homesick."

At the end of the school year, Jennifer will return to Wellington to begin her studies in art, history and geography at Victoria University. She also will share with her family, friends and classmates her impressions of this country in regard to its people, philosophy and way of life.

Graham also will share the same feelings in his home next year, while continuing his studies at the University of Witwatersrand.

Sponsored by AFS The American Field Service organization, which is sponsoring Jennifer and Graham, is a worldwide service involving students from many countries. It began during World War I and continued during World War II as an ambulance service. Wounded men were brought by AFS ambulances from the front lines to hospitals.

When World War II ended, the American Field Service decided that an exchange of knowledge of countries throughout the world would help to prevent future wars. It was then decided to begin sending young people 16 to 18 years of age between the United States and countries in Europe to live for one year with a host family which would be chosen by the American Field Service.

The students would act as "ambassadors of good will" between countries. The program has been so successful that it now involves countries all over the world.

Some 2,000 students are sent to the United States each year, for one year, with about 25 in the Detroit area alone. About 2,500 are sent from the United States to other countries for an eight-week summer program.

Matches Them Up The American Field Service matches up a host family and student after much research so that the personalities of all involved will be as compatible as possible. Many interviews are also conducted.

Applications are made, by both the student and host family, that include questions as to why one would want to participate in the American Field Service program. Jennifer notes, "You find

What it is is fun, from the Celebrity Recipe section to an account of Mary's week at a Fat Farm, which is something I've always wanted to do: hope springs eternal, and I KNOW there's a New Me somewhere under this Old Shell.

Trouble is, the Old Shell's so comfortable . . . Now, since I've spent the last half hour leafing through ME&D, my mouth is watering. I think I'll take an early lunch.

Autumn Interlude

Any autumn day, around noon, if you happened to be driving down Lakeshore, you might have seen them. Three men in wheelchairs, parked on the sidewalk near the foot of Newberry place, enjoying Lake St. Clair, the view of the boats, the sunshine and the friendly people who pass and greet them. It's been a lovely autumn interlude for Dr. Ed Lauppe, Henry Mertins and Dick Reins, Newberry place neighbors, who've been meeting almost daily to visit and celebrate the fact that they live in beautiful Grosse Pointe.

Seeing them there has been a lovely autumn interlude for all of us.

The Merry Month of May

In this season of Christmas fairs, Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, is making plans for a May Party. It will take the place of the '78 Christ Church Fair, and will be entirely different in feeling.

Party setting will be a stage of attractively arranged antiques, with fresh flower arrangements in collectable containers. There will be a punch bowl and informal modeling.

The Paris Table and Smocked Dresses, long-time Christ Church Christmas Fair favorites, will have a shop, and there will be a fine Country Kitchen offering gourmet foods.

There'll be a Penny Wise and Pound Foolish section, featuring affordable items for every size purse.

It's all planned for mid-May—the 18th, to be exact—and the central committee held a formative meeting in late October at the Ridge road home of Mrs. Allen Lomax who, with Mrs. Orville Thompson and Mrs. J. Crawford Frost, Jr., will run the whole shebang.
