Woods voters put a limit on liquor, tavern licenses

By Gregory Jakub

application for a liquor license to voters.

THE NEED FOR a new ordinance was prompted by ambiguous language in the Woods' former ordinance which embroiled the council in a six-month legal battle with a popular Woods restaurant — Le Cafe Francois.

The controversy started last January when the council refused to consider Le Cafe's tavern license application on the grounds that the tavern license ordinance prevented it from hearing and acting on more than one application. The one application that was approved in January was from another specialty restaurant — Da Edoardo on Mack.

Le Cafe owners Charles Moraco and Ronald Serba felt that they too were entitled to have their application reviewed and started legal action to have their request heard by the council.

The central question in the case was whether the Woods ordinance allowed the council to consider more than one tavern license application.

That question finally had to be answered by Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Neal Fitzgerald who ruled that the ordinance was "poorly worded" and did not clearly state the city's policy toward granting licenses.

BUT THE COUNCIL still refused to hear Le Cafe's application and filed an appeal to Judge Fitzgerald's ruling that is still pending. Hearing Le Cafe's application would encourage a flood of other applications, the council contended.

In the meantime, citizens collected 2,000 petition signatures to convince the council that Le Cafe was an asset to the community and would financially flounder unless it could serve beer and wine with its French cuisine.

In May, Judge Fitzgerald again stepped in and ordered the council to review and act on Le Cafe's application. On June 16, at a public hearing packed with Le Cafe supporters, the council finally approved Le Cafe's application after a six month stand-off.

Woods Mayor George Freeman said that the council had been "on the fence" concerning the Le Cafe issue all along but were convinced that owners Moraco and Serba would "run a fine business" with their new license. At the same meeting, the council proposed the new ordinance approved this week.

As of last week, Le Cafe still had not received its license from the state Liquor Control Commission. Owner Moraco said that Le Cafe has passed the necessary inspections and attributed the license delay to summer work slow-downs in Lansing.

Although LCC allots licenses to the municipalities in proportion to their population, some cities set their own limit, according to City Attorney George Catlin who drafted the Woods' new ordinance.

One such city is Grosse Pointe Farms where the council policy has been to limit licenses to the current five, less than the eight licenses allowed by LCC for the Farms' 12,000 population.

However, Grosse Pointe Park, with a population of 16,000, has 14 Class C licenses, many of which have been active since prohibition times, according to Police Chief Henry Counce. Many of the older licenses were grandfathered in when LCC population formulas changed, Counce said.

He added that the proportionately high number of liquor serving businesses does not pose any significant law enforcement problems.

Begin work on one city's Lakeshore

By Dean Brierly

The Wayne County Road Commission began the long-awaited resurfacing of Lakeshore road in the Shores last week, but remains locked in a stalemate with the Farms' City Council regarding work on that city's section of the road.

The road commission asked both cities in 1976 to each pay one-third the cost of resurfacing Lakeshore, claiming the state wasn't providing enough aid for the commission to finance the project itself. Subsequent federal contributions brought that figure down to about 8 percent per city.

THE SHORES came to terms with the county last summer, agreeing to reimburse the road commission approximately $40,000 spread over a four-year period. The Farms refused and continues to refuse to cooperate with the commission.

County Commissioner Ervin Steiner said the Shores village council "made the best decision out of a bad situation." Steiner felt the Farms should have followed the Village's lead, claiming the longer the council waits, the greater the eventual cost will be to repair the road.

However, the city council holds firm to its stance that since Lakeshore is a county jurisdiction road, the road commission has no authority to ask for community participation to help repair it.

Farms City Manager Andrew Bremner has said the city spent more than $200,000 repairing its own roads last year and that helping the road commission would not be economically feasible.

Councilman Lloyd Semple is worried that if the Farms gives in to the commission on Lakeshore, it will be spots put in. Shores Village manager Thomas K. Jefferis says the work should be completed sometime in October. Work on the Farms' section is likely to remain in the distant future, however, as the city council and the road commission remain at odds on the matter of financing.

Landmark suffers old age

By Gregory Jakub

The future of the Lochmoor Hardware building, one of Grosse Pointe Woods' few remaining landmarks, could be decided this week by city officials who say numerous building code violations have put the structure "on the borderline" between restoration and condemnation.

The building on Mack and Lochmoor has housed Lochmoor Hardware since it was built in 1927. It still retains an old-fashioned hardware store atmosphere with its original tin ceiling, wooden floors, and shelves piled high with everything from turkey roasters to galvanized pails. Old timers lean on the wooden counters on summer afternoons and remember when Mack was a dirt road traveled by the ice man and coal wagons.

BUT THE OUTDATED wood and cement structure has problems meeting modern safety standards and codes, according to Earl Wakely, Woods' director of buildings and grounds. It may be cheaper to level the structure and rebuild than try to repair it, Wakely said.

Wakely and two other building inspectors scrutinized the ancient edifice several weeks ago and cited a sagging outer wall and a roof in disrepair, according to Mr. and Mrs. William Baiocchi of the Woods, who have owned the building since 1937.

"I'm optimistic. There's always hope," said Mrs. Baiocchi who already has contractors waiting to do the necessary repairs.

"I wouldn't want to see it go. It is a landmark," she said adding that city officials would not tell her too much about the findings of their inspection. She expects to have a decision from them on the building's fate by week's end.

Whatever that decision may be, Mrs. Baiocchi said the building or property will not go vacant since she already has a buyer waiting to assume the business or rebuild on the lot. She estimated that repairing the sagging wall and roof and modernizing the store's front could cost $20,000.

"I wouldn't want to see the store go"

IRONICALLY, Mrs. Baiocchi said the city may have been the cause of some of the building's problems. Ten years ago, the old city hall and fire department were housed in a building adjacent to Lochmoor Hardware. The city buildings were knocked down and the south wall of Lochmoor Hardware "hasn't been the same since," Mrs. Baiocchi said.

Also noticeable are sagging wooden floors which because of sinking wooden joists slope severely in some spots.

That's because the building has no basement, according to Richard St. James who has worked at Lochmoor Hardware for the last 15 years.

St. James said the store is in the second oldest building in Grosse Pointe and was built on wooden joists that were laid over what used to be the Milky River.

In an adjacent room is the building's original cast-iron boiler which still works but could demolish the whole building if it ever blew up, St. James said.

Walter Van Noy, 78, owns a home behind Lochmoor Hardware and used to help out at the store after he retired. He said he just visits the store now and lingers sometimes to talk with his old friends.

Park Has Plans For Separate District Court

By Joanne Gouleche

Saying he doesn't want to wait until Coleman Young "is ready to tell us what to do," Park Mayor Matthew Patterson said last week that Grosse Pointe's second largest community is pursuing creation of its own district court.

The revelation comes one month after a plan to combine all Grosse Pointe cities, including the Park, into a one-judge, one-court district system fell through when local officials failed to meet a deadline with the Detroit office of the State Court Administrator.

It's too early to tell if a plan for a district court in the Park will be able to make its way through the legislature, said State Rep. William Bryant, but he admitted lawmakers would have difficulty supporting the idea.

HERB LEVITT of the court administrator's office agreed.

"I doubt very seriously that the legislature would entertain a separate district court for Grosse Pointe Park, especially when the Pointes didn't react in time to the last proposal," Levitt said.

Mayor Patterson said he has asked local legislators to "investigate" a district court for "Grosse Pointe Park alone."

"We've asked Sen. (John) Kelly and the representative (Bryant) whether or not there was a way to get started on the court issue again. I don't want to wait until Coleman is ready to tell us what to do," Patterson said.

But the mayor said he is not getting too many answers right now because legislators are "electioneering and doing nothing else."

It appears Park administrators are afraid of being forced into a Detroit district court setup.

A 1974 state law mandates that all municipal courts switch to the district court process. Besides the Grosse Pointes, only East Detroit and Detroit still function under a municipal court.

All civil cases more than $1,500 and less than $10,000 are handled through a district court, in addition to regular criminal cases.

TO COMPLICATE matters further, lawmakers in Lansing will continue debate this fall on complex legislation to reorganize Detroit's court system. If that reorganization is completed before Grosse Pointe's district court is formed, a jurisdictional gap will be created. In effect, hundreds of local civil cases will have no court to be heard in.

SMW, your order has arrived—7 years late

It was Christmas in July last week for Judy Davis when the Post Office delivered a package to her that was mailed seven years ago.

Ms. Davis owns "Personally Yours," a popular shop on the Hill which for eight years has thrived on Painters' penchant for monogramming everything from sweaters to jewelry.

Some of the items in her shop are special ordered like "the sterling silver money clip with the initials SMW—someone ordered as a Christmas gift back in 1973."

Ms. Davis said she doesn't remember who ordered the gift or whether it was reordered after it failed to arrive from New York in time for

Last year Sen. Kelly drafted legislation for creating two separate district courts in Grosse Pointe after learning that the Pointes may be included in the Detroit plan. Later, Rep. Bryant introduced legislation proposing a one-judge setup, which eventually won favor with all the Grosse Pointe communities.

Gattorn and McIntyre win County vote

Grosse Pointers Tuesday overwhelmingly endorsed a plan to reorganize Wayne County and nominated Republican Barbara Gattorn and Democrat Anita McIntyre to a commission that will draw up a new charter.

Almost one-quarter of Grosse Pointe's voters went to the polls in Tuesday's primary to hand overwhelming victories to Vic Caputo, for Republican nomination to the 14th District Congressional seat, William Bryant Jr., Republican, for 13th District House of Representatives, and Erv Steiner, for Wayne County Commissioner.

Local voters also helped secure a spot on the November ballot for presidential hopeful John Anderson, with more than 1,000 votes for his coalition.

Voting tallies received by the News on election night were not official and, in the Farms, did not include some absentee ballots. They show a solid victory in the Pointe for Democrat Dennis Hertel over John Kelly and six other candidates for the 14th District Congressional nomination. Hertel received 971 votes to Kelly's 596 and Helen Irving's 173.

Caputo won in the Pointe with 5,476 votes to John Lauve's 1,067 in the race for Republican nomination in the 14th Congressional District.

Incumbent State Rep. William Bryant received 4,626 votes to challenger Pat Higgins' 1,190 in the race for re-nomination to his seat. Bryant will face Democrat Bernard Simbole in the November election. Another incumbent, Commissioner Erv Steiner solidly beat Buck Rogers by 4,779 to 588 Proposition A, to reorganize Wayne County, was approved by 6,710 to 1,222.

Christmas in 1973 she probably wrote off the lost money clip figure, it disappeared in that year's deluge of Christmas mail, she said.

Last week, the wayward money clip appeared in her mailbox intact—except for its value which had increased from $15 in 1973 to $60 today.

"I can't believe they would deliver it after so many years," said Ms. Davis adding that she now has faith in the integrity of the Post Office.

Ms. Davis said it will probably take her a couple of days to search the store's basement for records of who ordered the money clip. If it isn't found, she said she'll put it in the display case and wait for a customer with the initials "SMW."

Owners determined to re-open Bronze Door

By Dean Brierly

The property at 123 Kercheval, having gone through a number of transformations and owners down through the years, will once again open its doors when it becomes a new restaurant this fall under the ownership of the same people who once ran the Bronze Door at that location.

David Ruwart, president of the Kercheval Investment Corporation, appeared before the Farms city council at its July 28 meeting requesting approval of a liquor license transfer back to his company after having sold it to Charlie Pappas in 1977.

RUWART TOLD the council his firm's intent was to open a restaurant similar in style and quality to the old Bronze Door, although he wasn't sure if that name would be used for the new establishment.

"We as former owners want to re-establish it (the property) as a first-class restaurant," he said. "There are no others like it in Grosse Pointe and we think the area needs one. The people of Grosse Pointe have always supported us in the past and I think they will in the future."

Ruwart informed the council members that work is presently being done cleaning and restoring the interior of the building and that it should be ready for health and electrical inspections within the next couple of weeks.

The council members approved the transfer and Mayor James H. Dingeman commented, "We hope you can come up with something that will be very beneficial to the Hill area."

The council action followed the corporation's filing an application for the license's transfer from the Michigan Liquor Control Commission. With the Farms' approval, the application now goes back to Lansing for a final decision, which Ruwart is convinced will be in his firm's favor.

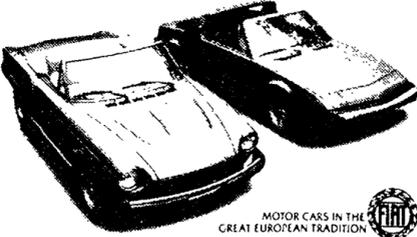

"In this type of situation, it's virtually a formality," he explained, adding, "Everything else has been approved up till now."

Ruwart says a manager and a chef have already been lined up and that hiring of the staff will take place in the Grosse Pointe area in the near future. He added the hours of operation would be the same as those of the Bronze Door, from 11 a.m. to 2 a.m. and for six, possibly seven days a week.

The building originally housed the Punch and Judy Bar which began in the 1930's. Over the years, it became the London East House, owned by the Gruber brothers of London Club House fame. Al Green's Restaurant, which burned down and was rebuilt, and eventually the Bronze Door, from 1982 to 1976, when it was sold to Charlie Pappas who folded his operation in 1978.

Truck Accident Brings Suit

A Grosse Pointe Woods man whose son was hit and run over by a Woods garbage truck last October, has filed suit in Wayne County Circuit Court charging the city with negligence.

William Janci of Saddle Lane is seeking more than $10,000 in damages from the Woods for his five-year-old son who suffered a fractured pelvis, damage to the bladder and urethra, and back abrasions, the suit says.

The suit claims the truck was dispatched without warning devices and was driven by an incompetent person who failed to look in the rear view mirror before moving the truck.

The suit was filed on June 26 and if it goes to a jury trial, would probably be heard in about four years.

WSU Approves Funds For Historic Home

The Budget and Finance Committee of the Wayne State University Board of Governors has approved a $188,000 budget for the restoration of the David Mackenzie House on the WSU campus.

Funds for the restoration will come from a contract from the State of Michigan Department of State, the Mackenzie Lounges Fund, and private gifts.

Pointer Charles Montgomery, president of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, spearheaded a corporate fund raiser for the house last year.

The Mackenzie House, located on Cass between Forest and Hancock, was the home of Dean David Mackenzie.

Exchange Program Promotes Unity

"Promoting international understanding through youth," is the objective of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club's Youth Exchange Program as it gears up for another year of student exchanges.

The program has been in existence in the Pointes for the last five years, according to co-chairman Tom Persing, and is part of the International Rotary Association, which has been involved in exchanges for the past 15.

With rotary clubs in 150 countries participating in the program, students have a wide field of nations from which to choose. The only requirements for applicants are that they be at least 16 years old at the time of the exchange, be in one of their last two years of high school and be in the upper third of their class scholastically.

Persing says the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club has each year sponsored two outbound and two inbound students from Sweden, Mexico, Germany, Peru, the Netherlands, Australia and dozens of other countries. Students spend a total of 10 months in their country, from August to June and stay with several different families.

The reason for living with different families, says Persing, is to give the student "a broader base for understanding the culture of the country they've chosen."

It also makes things easier for the families hosting the students by not having to put them up for close to a whole year.

While living in the foreign country, the student attends high school in the area he or she is staying, participates in rotary club meetings and activities, and has the opportunity to learn about the culture and traditions of their hosts.

The two foreign students coming to Grosse Pointe this month are Daniela Kaschka, 16, from Hamburg, Germany and Patrick Selling, also 16, from Jernavik, Sweden. Kaschka will be attending South High, while Selling will go to North.

Outbound Grosse Pointers are Shores resident Lars Lohmann, 17, who will be traveling to Germany, and Tom Persing, 16, of the City, who is bound for Cuernavaca, Mexico.

The two Pointers returning this year from their stay abroad are Barry Burton, 17, of the Farms, returning from Finland, and 17-year-

How to Find Your Lost Pet

Action, Respect and Kindness, (ARK), Humane Education Service, warns that lost pets should be sought after quickly.

If an animal is taken in by an animal shelter in Michigan the shelter is under no obligation to keep a stray (the law does not apply to turn-ins) for only four days if it has no identification.

If it is licensed or has some kind of identification the shelter must notify the owner and keep it for seven days.

After that time it may be sold to a new owner, to a research laboratory or destroyed, depending on which shelter it is.

If the animal is injured or ill, however, the shelter can put the animal out of its misery immediately, and this disposition decision is not always made by a veterinarian.

For copies of these laws, and other facts about pets in the metropolitan Detroit area, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to ARK at Post Office Box 65, Warren, MI 48090.

Local Vets Warn of New Canine Disease

By Elsa Frohman

Parvovirus infection, a new disease that affects the gastro-intestinal tract of dogs, is rapidly becoming a threat to canines in the Grosse Pointe area. The Southeastern Michigan Veterinary Medical Association has issued a warning to all dog owners in the area that the disease, which in its early stages could be mistaken for the effects of summer heat, could become lethal within a day or two if left untreated.

Dr. James Rheume, of the Harper Woods Veterinary Hospital, confirmed that more than 50 dogs with a gastro-intestinal ailment suspected to be parvovirus have been treated at the facility in the past few weeks. Of those 50 cases 20 were serious enough to warrant hospitalization and four or five cases were fatal.

Parvovirus usually infects the lining of the dog's intestinal tract causing severe diarrhea and sometimes vomiting. It is also known to affect the bone marrow and heart. When it affects the heart, the virus can cause quick death without any indication of illness. When the bone marrow is affected, dogs usually have diarrhea and are vulnerable to additional bacterial infections.

Neal McCall, an administrator at the James A. Baker Institute of Animal Health, said that a healthy adult dog stands an excellent chance of recovering from the disease with prompt veterinary care. The Baker Institute is affiliated with Cornell University and is the leading researcher in the field of parvovirus.

McCall said the main threat of the disease is to young puppies.

The Baker Institute discovered parvovirus in 1978. According to McCall, the following year the disease made the rounds of the dog shows. This year is the first year that the parvovirus has been a threat to ordinary pets, he said.

There are vaccines that will prevent parvovirus and McCall recommends dog owners have their pets vaccinated as soon as possible. The Southeastern Michigan Veterinary Medical Association reports that there is a shortage of vaccine, but local veterinarians contacted by the Grosse Pointe News all said they had an adequate supply on hand.

Dr. Rheume explained that there is more than one vaccine for the disease. One of those is approved by the government. The manufacturer of that vaccine is more than 2.5 million doses behind in production, he said. That vaccine is simply not available.

Fortunately, there is another vaccine that is readily available. Though the government has not approved it for use on dogs yet, most experts agree that it is just as safe as the approved substance.

McCall explained the difference between the two preparations is minor. Parvovirus is a member of a group of viruses that veterinarians have known about for some time. Another member of that group is the virus that causes feline distemper.

Researchers at the Baker Institute have found that the vaccine usually used against feline distemper is effective against parvovirus. However a vaccination with the feline vaccine does not last as long as a vaccination with the vaccine developed specifically for parvovirus. Though the government has not had time to approve the use of the feline vaccine for dogs, McCall said that it is generally considered safe and effective.

McClain said that a rush to vaccinate a large number of dogs could cause a shortage of the feline vaccine for use on cats, but individual veterinarians will have to make their own allocation decisions as to the use of the vaccine that they have on hand.

Dr. Rheume had several suggestions for dog owners who want to protect their pets.

- Isolate your dog. The virus is transmitted through the feces. The dog should be kept away from any place other dogs have been or defecated.

- The virus can also be transmitted by humans on shoes, clothes, or from having petted an infected dog.

- Diluted chlorine bleach is the best disinfectant for killing the virus on surfaces such as kennels, or the area where the dog stays.

- When traveling with your dog, be wary of the dog walking area of rest stops.

- Do not take your dog for grooming, boarding or hospitalization unless absolutely necessary—the places where dogs gather are the best places to pick up the virus.

- Most important of all, have your dog vaccinated.

In addition, the Southeastern Veterinary Medical Association recommends that if your pet seems to display depressed, quiet, and/or listless behavior, take immediate action, as these signs indicate the possibility of the parvovirus infection already existing in its acute form. Without immediate attention the dog may succumb in as short a time as a day or two.

Warnings issued by the SVMA indicate that the most critical danger of contracting parvovirus will be during the next two weeks.

Punch to Host Benefit Concert for WDET

The Punch and Judy Theater will be the setting for an August 11 benefit concert for Detroit Public radio station WDET featuring the musical talents of "October" and "Mary Roberts and the Inside/Outside Band."

"October" a Detroit-based band, has been together for two years and plays all original material consisting of progressive jazz-rock. The lineup features Jeff Rozany on electric and string bass and vocals; Brad Tolinski on electric and acoustic violins and guitars; Mark Sterling on piano, synthesizers and vocals; Craig Furkus on piano and synthesizer and Pat Carson on drums, percussion, glockenspiel and gong.

"Mary Roberts and the Inside/Outside Band" a three-year-old Detroit group, includes Mary Roberts on vocals, Ralph Koziarski on tenor and alto saxophones, Dan Prislis on bass, Jim Thunder on guitar and Riz Everson on drums.

Roberts band is actually three bands in one, explains WDET spokesman Frank Angelucci. The group alternates as a five-person ensemble, duo and trio, with several members switching instruments. Like "October," they play all original compositions in a style described by Angelucci as a combination of jazz, rock and punk.

Tickets for the concert, which begins at 8 p.m., are tax-deductible and proceeds go towards helping WDET remain in operation. Tickets are available at Sam's Jam's, Dearborn Music, Car City Classics, and the Punch and Judy Theater. For further information, call the Punch at 881-4511.

Lakeshore Repairs

asked to help pay for improvements to Mack and Moross as well, since both are county roads.

The road commission is basing its position on Act 51 of Public Act 1951, which it claims gives it the legal right to ask community participation in funding the repair of county roads.

STEINER, A Farms resident, has filed a lawsuit against the road commission to force it to repave Lakeshore, but says it's not due for consideration for another year. The Farms city council, too, is deliberating whether to take legal action against the commission.

At its June 16 meeting, the council directed City Attorney Lawrence Campbell to investigate the cost and merits of a city lawsuit regarding Lakeshore.

At its most recent meeting on July 28, Campbell was asked to draft a formal complaint, which he termed the first step in initiating a lawsuit. Campbell was quick to add, however, that the decision of whether or not to file the complaint rests with the city council members.

Bremer says the issue is not yet on the next meeting's agenda, slated for August 18, but didn't rule out that possibility. As it is, no affirmative action against the road commission will take place "at least until then," he said.

According to Village Manager Thomas K. Jefferis, Cadillac Asphalt company of Novi, the prime contractor for the resurfacing job, began work on Tuesday of last week and expects to have the section of Lakeshore from Vernier road to the Village limits completed by the middle of October, contrary to an earlier statement by Joe Hartmann of the road commission that the project would be completed in about a month.

"It's a big job," he explained. "There's a lot of different segments to be done. New curbs have to be put in at spots, some sewer work has to be done in connection with the new curbs, old asphalt has to be planed and new asphalt put in," Jefferis said.

Also being worked on is the installation of a left-hand turn lane at the intersection of Lakeshore and Vernier. Presently, a left-hand turn onto Vernier is allowed after oncoming traffic has cleared. The traffic light there will be modified to incorporate a turn signal for that lane, facilitating safer traffic flow, according to Jefferis.

Park Court

said a district court in the Park makes sense right now.

"OUR MUNICIPAL court costs are about the same or close to that of a district court operation. The big thing would be the judge's salary. I think the Park should plan ahead or else we will be forced into Detroit's package," Crawford said.

Patterson said if a district court did come about the facility would be housed in the Park's municipal building.

"We'd put it in our current building. We've been trying to get some parking from St. Ambrose Church, and that may work. We'll work something out. Our parking problem would decrease. Instead of having court one day a week as we do now, we'd have the cases coming in five days a week," Patterson said.

Patterson added that if the Park succeeds in forming a district court, the city would be willing to handle civil cases from the other Pointes as well.

Cable TV Turn On Delayed Until August 18

By Dean Brierly

Originally scheduled for an August 1 "turn-on," cable TV in the Woods is not expected now until August 18, according to Michael Reynolds, president of the company providing cable for four Grosse Pointe cities.

Reynolds says his company is still waiting for certain equipment before the first section in the Woods — Bournemouth to Brys between Mack avenue and the Harper Woods boundary line — can be "energized."

That equipment includes character generators for keying messages originating at the local office into a specific channel, automated services, which include the public access, consumer shopping, TV program guide and 24 hour radar weather channels, and FM and satellite receiving equipment.

Cable in the first section of the city, all 25 miles of it, has been installed by crews from the Burnip and Sims construction company, who have been working on the project since April.

Reynolds says the system will be turned on next week and will be given a two-week run to make sure everything's going smoothly. Prospective subscribers will begin receiving mailers notifying them that cable is in their area the Wednesday prior to the 18th. The mailers will be followed by sales people going door to door.

Six to eight weeks should be sufficient to finish the first strip of the Woods, says Reynolds. The rest of the city will then be worked on a section at a time, until all the Woods has cable by the end of November.

Cox Cable TV, the company servicing the Shores, is already providing a number of Village residents with cable. However, Cox's plans to install cable along Lakeshore road have been held up for the past few weeks by a directive from the Wayne County Road Commission demanding to see Cox's plans before allowing it to go ahead with the work.

Weston Croft, general manager of Cox, says the plans came back from the road commission last Wednesday. Although Cox still has "some paperwork in front of us, everything else is approved," he said.

As soon as the official go-ahead is given, says Croft, work on the Lal shore section should take about three weeks to complete. Croft says 1 crews won't interfere with the road commission's work on Lakeshore since the cable will be installed inches from the curbside.

Board A Boat and Balloon for Summer Trips

For an unusual ride in Michigan, hang glide off a Lake Michigan sand dune, soar above the countryside in a hot-air balloon, hang from a strap on a double-decker trolley or skim over car tops on a futuristic people-mover, suggests Automobile Club of Michigan.

If you love the water, ride a ferry or riverboat or paddle your own Voyageur Canoe. Other ways to go include horse-drawn carriage, Model T car, steam engine and dune buggy.

Sixty dollars will buy you one day of lessons from the Midwest School of Hang Gliding at Bridgman (616-426-3100). Students are strapped into a harness attached to a 30-foot-wide sail, then coaxed off a 20-foot training slope in Warren Dunes State Park along Lake Michigan.

An eight- to 10-mile ride in the wicker basket of a hot-air balloon takes just under an hour and costs between $87.50 and $90 each for two persons. For reservations, call Cameron Balloons US (313-995-0011), Balloon Corp. of America (313-767-2120), Balloon Depot (313-682-3039) and HighAmerica Balloon-center (313-852-0666).

A quarter gets you a trolley car ride between Grand Circus Park and the Renaissance Center in downtown Detroit. A double-decker trolley was added to the run this summer.

There is no charge to ride the computer-controlled electric people-mover linking Dearborn's Fairlane Town Center and the Hyatt Regency Hotel. It takes less than two minutes to cover the 2,600 feet of elevated guideway.

You and your car can be transported by ferry across the St. Clair River to Canada and across Lake Michigan to Wisconsin.

Daily service in southern Michigan is offered between these points: Algonac and Walpole Island-Wallaceburg, Ont.; Marine City and Sombra, Ont., and Roberts Landing and Port Lambton, Ont.

To travel from Michigan to Wisconsin, take the Chesic System Autoferry (800-632-0064) from Ludington to Manitowoc, Milwaukee and Kewaunee or ride the Ann Arbor ferry (800-632-0972) from Frankfort to Kewaunee. The crossing takes four to six hours, and regularly scheduled trips are made only during summer.

A much shorter trip is the Ironton Ferry crossing of Lake Charlevoix from Ironton to Boyne City. The ferry is pulled across the lake on cables, and the five-minute ride costs $1.

Take a journey into the past aboard a paddle-wheel boat. The Au Sable River Queen Boats (617-728-9871), west of Oscoda at Foote and Five Channels dams, offer two-hour narrated cruises. A much shorter cruise is available aboard the Suwanee, a restored 1888 paddle-wheel riverboat at Dearborn's Greenfield Village (313-271-1820).

The Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority has two paddle-wheelers—the Island Queen at Kensington Metropark near Milford (313-685-1561) and the Dixie Belle at Metro Beach Metropark near Mount Clemens (313-963-3022).

New this year at Metro Beach is the Voyageur Canoe, a 34-foot replica of the Montreal canoe used by the fur traders. The canoe holds 20, including the licensed boat operator, and everyone paddles for an hour's trip around the lake while listening to a narrated history of the Great Lakes.

On Mackinac Island, where motor vehicles are banned, visitors can take a 1½-hour circle tour by horse-drawn carriage. Greenfield Village also offers a carriage tour as well as a spin in a chauffeur Model T car and ride on a train pulled by 1873 steam engine.

Other Michigan railroad attractions include the steam-fired Huckleberry Railroad (313-736-7100) in Historic Crossroads Village and the Soo Locks Tour Trains (616-857-2253), which take passengers into Canada across the International Bridge.

The Soo Locks Boat Tour (906-632-6301) pass through the world's busiest and longest locks.

The Hill Association recently elected its 1980 officers. Elected to two-year posts were Pat Reynolds, president; Carl Sterr, vice-president; Wally Toloes, secretary; and Bill Johnstone, treasurer.

Pointers Named To Bank Posts

Three Grosse Pointe residents have been promoted at Detroit Bank & Trust, a principal subsidiary of Detroit-Bank Corporation. William H. Heck (top) was named vice-president, branch office administration. Heck, a Woods resident, joined the bank in 1961 as an administrative trainee. He achieved officer status as an assistant cashier in 1972 and was named assistant vice-president in 1979.

Park resident Carl M. Eckert (middle) was appointed assistant vice-president. Eckert was a trust administrator when he joined the bank in 1972 and achieved office status as an assistant trust officer in 1974. The new first vice-president, corporate planning is Park resident John D. Lewis (bottom). He joined the corporation in 1970 as an administrative assistant and was named assistant cashier in 1974. Lewis was later appointed assistant vice-president in 1976 and a vice-president in 1978.

Auto Club Cites Farms and Woods

Grosse Pointe Farms and Grosse Pointe Woods each earned the American Automobile Association's second highest pedestrian safety award in AAA's 41st annual Pedestrian Safety Inventory, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

Some 850 cities competed in the 10,000 to 25,000 population group and Grosse Pointe Farms and Woods are among eight to receive the awards. City officials will be presented plaques later this month.

Grosse Pointe Woods scored highest in its group for its outstanding pedestrian death and injury rate in 1979. It recorded no deaths and an injury rate 50 percent better than the group average.

This year's was the ninth Award for Excellence Grosse Pointe Woods has received in 10 years. The city also received the Grand Award, AAA's highest honor, in 1970, 1972, 1974 and 1977.

Grosse Pointe Farms also did not have a pedestrian traffic death during 1979 and had a pedestrian injury rate more than 50 percent below the average. It was the Farms' third Award for Excellence in six years.

Imlay City and Middleville also received AAA's Award for Excellence in their population groups for outstanding safety records.

A record 2,921 cities and 26 states participated in the nationwide program and 328 received awards for their efforts at curbing pedestrian deaths.

'79 POP Complaints Stuck in Lansing

By Joanne Gouleche

Now that the August primary is over, officials in Lansing are predicting the usual upsurge of complaints filed under the state's Campaign Finance Act.

The 1977 law requires any political group which opposes or endorses a candidate or issue in an election year to file a campaign statement detailing what type of committee has been formed, its purpose and how much money it has taken in and spent.

The division of compliance and rules scored its first victory last month when a Teamsters Union committee pleaded "no contest" to a charge it illegally distributed campaign literature during Gov. William Milliken's 1978 re-election bid.

That was the department's first success — it still has about 80 complaints before it including one filed last fall by local attorney John Axe against a group called Proud of the Park alleging it did not file the required statement in the city's mayoral election last year.

Axe, a Park resident, charged the group distributed flyers door-to-door which endorsed and opposed several candidates running for council. The flyers also pointed the finger at city administrators for getting involved in HUD's Community Development Block Grant program and demanded that City Manager John Crawford step down for accepting the federal monies into the community.

At one point during the campaign, the flyers prompted administrators to issue a legal opinion to clear up the purported untruths about its ties with HUD.

The POP group has kept a low profile in the community this election year.

This week state Administrative Law Examiner Ann Corgan said her office is waiting for additional affidavits from Axe verifying that the flyers were distributed on residents' doorsteps a year ago.

"After our initial investigation, if we feel a violation of the act has occurred, we will file notice with the defendant and conduct an informal hearing," Corgan said.

The case is turned over to Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley's office for criminal charges if evidence points to a violation, Corgan said.

POP President Mathew Connor has said publicly that his group was not required to file a campaign statement because the flyers did not endorse any candidate, but only oppose the HUD issue.

Farms Orders Parking Limit for Chalfonte

The Farms council ordered a two-hour parking restriction on a short section of Chalfonte avenue at its July 28 meeting following complaints from residents that the area was being used as a concentrated parking area for bus riders.

The four homeowners on the section of Chalfonte between Hillcrest and Morross roads have been complaining for months about non-residents parking their cars on the street while they ride the bus.

A Farms police survey revealed that an average of seven non-resident automobiles per day park in that area. Residents say the cars are an eyesore and a nuisance, making it hard to maintain their lawns along the curb.

Council member Nancy Waugaman sympathized with the homeowners' complaints. "I would hope that our residential streets would not become parking lots," she told the council. "I feel it's a great problem in that area. I don't think residents of this community should be subjected to people parking in front of their houses Monday through Friday."

A mayor's advisory committee met back in November to study the situation and found that this type of parking problem exists only in the Farms, since the other four cities all have two hour parking limits on their main thoroughfares.

In adopting the limit, the council went along with Police Chief Robert Ferber's recommendation that two-hour parking be allowed between 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Ferber also recommended that the council work with the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA) on the possibility of developing park and ride lots in the Grosse Pointe area to prevent further complaints.

Ferber said warning letters would be given to people who park on that strip of Chalfonte informing them of the new limit prior to the installation of parking signs.

MICAP Backs Drinking Age

The Michigan Council on Alcohol Problems (MICAP) voted unanimously to support a continuance of 21 as the legal drinking age in Michigan at its July board meeting.

"The six-year trial on 18 as the legal drinking age deserves at least an equal period of testing for the present legal drinking age of 21, which will have been in effect only two years in December," said Alfred Gelderloos of Grandville, president of the MICAP board.

He further explained that: "We are encouraged with the progress shown in the recently released figures by the Michigan State Police. The 21 legal drinking age has resulted in a substantial decrease in alcohol-related accidents during 1979, with collisions by drinking 18 to 20 year-olds reduced 23 percent.

"Drunk driving fatal accidents among 18 to 20 year-olds were down from 182 in 1978 to 161 in 1979 for a 12 percent decrease."

The Michigan Legislature has placed the question of lowering the state drinking age from 21 to 19 on the November ballot.

America's divorce rate has increased 96 percent, but the number of unmarried men and women living together has increased 149 percent.

Woods Police Nab Suspect

Grosse Pointe Woods police last week arrested a 28-year-old Detroit man in connection with an exposing incident which occurred in the Morross-Mack area.

A Woods woman told police that she was walking through the Woods Theater parking lot about 5:45 p.m. Wednesday, July 30, when a man rode near her on a 10 speed bicycle, exposing his genitals.

The woman called police who spotted a man near the site of the incident and arrested him.

"GOOD FOR 60 DAYS ISN'T GOOD ENOUGH FOR US."

At Bob Evans Farms® we believe in only one kind of sausage. Fresh.

So while other sausage makers may let their pork sausage sit in the store for 60 days, we date ours to sell in less than 18. Even though we know it will keep fresh longer.

And while other companies ship their sausage frozen and sell it thawed, we deliver ours farm fresh, so you can fry it up farm fresh.

Other companies may tell you their sausage will keep in the supermarket for months. But we make our Bob Evans Sausage so fresh and delicious, it's hard to keep it in the store for more than a couple of days.

Advice on Canning Food

Canning your own fruits and vegetables is a good way to save money, but you must use the right equipment and follow directions carefully, according to Eleanor Rhinesmith, Home Economist for the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service.

"You must use a pressure canner for low acid foods such as meat, fish and all vegetables, including carrots, beans, peas, corn and green beans," Mrs. Rhinesmith said. "Process high acid foods, such as fruits and tomatoes in a boiling water bath."

If you don't own a boiling water bath canner, use a large, clean kettle with a rack and tight-fitting lid. The level of the boiling water must be one or two inches above the top of the jars. Boil the vegetables for the time specified for each vegetable in order to destroy organisms that spoil food. This heating also stops undesirable changes in flavor, color and texture of the food.

Mrs. Rhinesmith advises homemakers to can only good quality produce and to wash it thoroughly before processing. Have clean, sterilized utensils to work with.

Do not use empty food jars. Use only standard canning jars and lids. These jars will not break in very hot or cold temperatures.

"Use canning lids only one time and then throw away. The screw bands can be reused. Discard cracked or chipped jars. When filling the canning jars, allow one-half inch head space," she adds.

For more information or to attend free food preservation workshops, call the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service's 4H Growing Root program at 921-8800 or 883-0960, 0981 or 0982.

Prime Time
For Senior Citizens

There's no doubt about it. Wherever there are volunteers there are senior citizens working.

St. John Hospital is no exception, according to Pepper Whitelaw, public relations director.

"Senior Citizens volunteer in every area," said Mrs. Whitelaw. "They work at the information desk, in the emergency room and the gift shop. They wheel patients to physical therapy and supervise the picture project."

"Four thousand puppets and an array of stuffed animals were made by volunteers and donated to the pediatric department. Do-it-yourself kits are assembled by volunteers and sold to patients at cost."

Mrs. Whitelaw emphasized that the volunteer program at St. John's is a dual one. "It provides interesting contacts and worthwhile work for older people and it boosts the patients' morale," she commented. "They see how cheerful and energetic our volunteers are and it strengthens their resolve to get better and get back into the mainstream."

In addition to the usual volunteer programs, St. John has one that is not so ordinary. Every Wednesday closed circuit bingo games are held for patients who wish to participate and the games are largely run by senior volunteers.

One volunteer is Leo Alter, known as "Mr. T.V." at St. John. He has manned the camera and called out the numbers as well as worked on the floors monitoring cards. He is most enthusiastic about Bingo Day.

"YOU GO ON the floors on Wednesday and you hear patients talking about the game. The enthusiasm cuts across all age groups from pediatric on up. Both men and women play. A grandmother and a 20-year-old jock will be equally anticipating the 2 p.m. starting time."

Bingo cards are passed out with menus in the morning. There is no charge to play. When the game begins, volunteers go on the floors to monitor. When a patient gets a 'bingo' the monitor calls on an extension and a certificate for the hospital gift shop or cart is presented.

Mr. Alter, who retired from the Wayne County Credit Union after a heart attack and surgery, became a volunteer because of the good treatment he received in the hospital when his pacemaker was implanted.

"They treated me so well that I resolved to do something for them," he said.

He speaks proudly of his work there and of its importance.

"Last year volunteers contributed 89,000 hours of work," he commented. "Just multiply that by even the minimum wage and it is quite a sizeable amount. Talk about cost containment—this is it. One of the administrators told me that if it were not for volunteers operating costs would be excessive."

Besides working with the television program, Mr. Alter works at the information desk one day a week. It is always a pleasure when someone comes by the desk and greets him as "Mr. T.V."

"I'm a television celebrity," he laughed, "but no one has asked for my autograph yet."

A PROJECT PURSUED in other hospitals, but made special by the dedication of Helen Van Slembrouk at St. John, is the Telephone Visitors program. These are volunteers who call patients at home after they have been released. They are usually older patients who live alone and welcome hearing from someone. Mrs. Van Slembrouk described the project as "calls of concern."

"We try to give comfort and happiness. If patients are depressed we listen and try to cheer them. We never give medical advice but we do counsel them about where they can get help. We may suggest they contact a relative or neighbor, a priest or minister for advice and we give them a telephone number if they need the services of the visiting nurse, housekeeper or a hot meal delivered," she explained.

"Sometimes our calls are short, just an inquiry about how the person is doing, but sometimes the calls may last as long as an hour if the person really wants to talk. A patient will often say 'talk a little longer.' It is

SH Gym Floor Gets Repairs

The Board of Education last month voted to hire Bauer Frampton Corp. to make complicated repairs to South High School's gymnasium floor at a cost of almost $11,000.

According to school officials, the floor at South began to rise in several locations several months ago. Assuming the cause was moisture under the floor, several sections were removed so workers could find and correct the water problem.

Apparently water isn't the problem, however. A floor specialist told administrators the floor is popping up because it is expanding. The solution is to replace the raised sections, (about 500 square feet), remove two inches of flooring adjacent to the wall, and install expansion springs along the walls to relieve pressure. Bauer's $10,760 bid on the job was the lowest of three submitted.

Local Programming
The Cable TV Connection

By Mike Reynolds
General Manager
Grosse Pointe Cable TV

This is the 10th in a series of articles explaining the services soon to be offered by Grosse Pointe Cable TV.

Grosse Pointe Cable TV will offer several channels of local programming to its subscribers this fall. Some of these channels will carry programming from Grosse Pointe Cable TV's full color studio, as well as from various sites around the community including the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Programming topics may include public affairs, cultural, entertainment, sports, plus a variety of others.

In addition to the Grosse Pointe Cable TV programming, seven channels will be reserved for "access" use. These channels will not be programmed by Grosse Pointe Cable but rather by the various groups associated with each channel.

One channel is reserved for public access use. The channel can be used by the general public on a first-come, first-served basis. The only restrictions on program content are no commercials, politics or obscenities.

The actual program time is provided, free of charge by Grosse Pointe Cable except for use of Grosse Pointe Cable personnel. A nominal charge is then assessed. Video equipment will be made available to those wishing to use this channel at no charge.

Another channel which will be used for leased access allows for commercial programming. There is no charge for use of this channel.

The other five access channels may be used by the local governments (two channels), the local education association (two channels) and the local religious community (one channel). How much these channels are used depend on the activity by the above mentioned organizations. Programming topics from these channels could include city council and school board meetings, public hearings, church services, election returns, high school drama and sports plus many others.

Grosse Pointe Cable TV will also provide a 24-hour color weather radar service, a program guide for all channels on the cable service, a community announcement channel and a consumer shopping guide channel.

The channels described in this article are for local use and provide an opportunity for local participation by the Grosse Pointe and Harper Woods residents. Who knows — you or your local neighbor could become a "local TV star."

Robert J. Allor
Services for Mr. Allor, 59, formerly of Grosse Pointe, late of Saginaw, were held on Wednesday, July 16, in St. John Vianney Catholic Church in Saginaw.

He died on Sunday, July 13, at the Bridgeport Country Club in Saginaw.

A graduate of St. Paul High School and Cleary College in Ypsilanti, Mr. Allor was treasurer of the Professional Management Company and Abortion Alternative, Inc., both in Saginaw. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, the DAV, VAW, and served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He is survived by his wife, Cecilia; one daughter, Patricia; one son, Thomas; his mother, Mrs. Fred H. Allor Sr.; one sister; one brother and one granddaughter.

Interment was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Bridgeport.

Mrs. Edythe C. Modrack

A private memorial service for Mrs. Modrack, 82, formerly of Grosse Pointe, late of Grand Blanc was held at the Kirkridge Presbyterian Church.

She died on Wednesday, July 30, in St. Joseph Hospital in Flint.

Born in Chicago, Mrs. Modrack lived most of her life in Grosse Pointe. The daughter of Andrew and Ann Conklin of Grand Haven, she was a member of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and the Grosse Pointe Artist's Association. She was the wife of the late William J. Modrack.

Mrs. Modrack is survived by two sons, Charles W. and William B.; one niece; seven grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren, Scott and Amy.

Contributions may be made to the charity of one's choice.

Cremation was at Forest

Lawn Cemetery in Grand Haven.

Mrs. Edna M. Schuetz
Services for Mrs. Schuetz, 90, of the Woods were held on Tuesday, August 5, in the Verheyden Funeral Home.

She died on Saturday, August 2, at her home on Cook road.

Mrs. Schuetz is survived by three sons, George, Robert C. and Gerald; two daughters, Mrs. Viola Barel and Mrs. Charlotte Conroy; 15 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Interment was in White Chapel Cemetery.

Mrs. Harriette Gray Barrett

Services for Mrs. Barrett, 73, formerly of Grosse Pointe, late of Clarkston, were held on Wednesday, August 6, in St. Mary-in-the-Hills Episcopal Church in Lake Orion.

She died on Monday, August 4, in Pontiac General Hospital.

A graduate of the first class of the Henry Ford

Hospital School of Nursing, Mrs. Barrett was a noted horticulturist and was active in a number of clubs and civic organizations.

She was a charter member and officer of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club and served as chairperson of that club's horticultural committee for more than 20 years. She was also charter member and officer of the Clarkston Farm and Garden Club and was a member of the Village Women's Club of Birmingham.

Mrs. Barrett is survived by her husband, Arnold L.; one daughter, Mrs. Maria Barrett; Arnold and one grandson.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Mary-in-the-Hills Episcopal Church. Burial arrangements are incomplete.

Animal Abuse Is Illegal

Cruelty to animals is against the law.

Public Act No. 91 of 1974, State of Michigan, makes cruelty to animals a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment of not more than three months or a fine of not more than $500.

The law provides protection for animals who are tortured, tormented, deprived of necessary sustenance, cruelly beaten, overdriven, mutilated or cruelly killed.

No one, owner or otherwise can legally withhold proper food, drink, or shelter from an animal.

especially rewarding when they say, 'your call has made my day.'"

The Telephone Visitor program is a structured one. Volunteers are instructed how to express concern without making comments or commitments involving the hospital in three, two-hour sessions. A set of easy rules covering the do's and don'ts of the procedure has been drawn up by Mrs. Van Slembrouck that has largely eliminated the need for a formal training session.

The patients who are called are referred to the program by chaplains Father Lawrence Du Charme, Father Tim Kremens or six designate chaplains who are nuns. Visiting ministers of all denominations also make referrals.

One of the features of volunteering as a Telephone Visitor is that it can be done from the home at any time that is convenient.

"There are those who want to do something for others," said Mrs. Van Slembrouck, "but find it difficult to come to the hospital for work, such as Tillie Lysaght, who is in her mid-80's." Mrs. Van Slembrouck laughed as she said it, "I'm over 70 myself."

She may be in her 70's, but the years have not slowed Mrs. Van Slembrouck. She is active in the St. Clair Shores Garden Club, the symphony and the homeowners association in her area. She maintains her own home and a rose garden.

"WHEN MY HUSBAND was alive we had 222 rose bushes in our yard," she reminisced. "Now I have about 30."

"I've always been active," she said. "I owned and operated a bookstore for 25 years. I am a practical nurse and I worked in a florist arranging flowers."

The pattern of activity for many senior citizens seems to have been set early in life.

Lutti Luttenberger, who is 94, checks candy into the gift shop. Besides raising nine children and maintaining a home on a 140 ft. lot as a younger woman, she was a social worker for the League of Catholic Women, a parish director at St. Catherine church and a counselor.

Now she takes two buses to St. John oftentimes twice a week.

"Last week I checked in $900 worth of candy and paid the bills," she said. She also keeps the stockroom straight.

Luttie, as she is called by everyone in the hospital, has been volunteering at St. John since the doors opened 28 years ago. She was designated Volunteer of the Year last year and appeared on television.

"I didn't know it was happening," she exclaimed. "This man came into the shop to take my picture, and when I went home that night, my phone kept ringing to tell me that I was on the news program."

Mrs. Luttenberger maintains her own apartment. Her children are scattered but all of them, including grandchildren and great-grandchildren, try to get together for her birthday.

Besides her volunteer work, she belongs to the Senior Citizen group at St. Ambrose.

All three volunteers are typical of the senior citizens who give of themselves so generously to St. John. The words of Eugenia Divine, a retired executive secretary who volunteers in the emergency room, seem to reflect their philosophy.

"Everyone benefits when someone gives that little bit extra to the world."

Readers may want to note on their fall calendar that St. John is planning a Senior Citizen week, October 27-30 when there will be programs and speakers featuring health education for older people.

Collectors' Car Fair at Cobo

Entries are now being accepted for the second annual collector car auction at Cobo Hall on Saturday and Sunday, September 13 and 14.

The auction will feature hundreds of antiques, classics, special interest vehicles and popular cars of the 50's, 60's and 70's on sale.

There will be a special muscle car sale, exotic sports car sale and a $1,000 and under restorable collector car corral.

For information contact Williams Contemporary Classic Cars at 776-5322.

Hutzel Hospital Receives $750,000 Kresge Grant

Hutzel Hospital's efforts to finance substantial construction and renovation projects, under fund raising chairman William Dahling, of Hawthorne road, received a significant boost recently when The Kresge Foundation announced its intention to contribute $750,000 in the form of two challenge grants.

Hutzel Hospital has begun construction of a 140,000 square foot addition to its facilities at 4707 St. Antoine and is also undertaking a major renovation of its Maternity Center Building. These projects, designed to improve the overall health care delivery capability of the hospital, represent an investment of $27.2 million.

Most of this development program will be financed by a recent bond sale which the hospital issued through the Michigan State Hospital Finance Authority, but $3.5 million must be raised through its fund raising program.

The Kresge commitments — $350,000 in 1982 and $400,000 in 1983 — were announced by William H. Baldwin, Kresge Foundation Board Chairman, as contributions to this effort, but were made contingent upon the successful completion of Hutzel's fund drive.

Dahling expressed confidence that this goal would be met. "The Kresge grants are a vote of confidence in the need for this project and, with their challenge aspect, will be an incentive for our efforts to obtain support from all elements of this community," he said.

"Hutzel Hospital is approaching its medical staff, auxiliaries, employees and trustees as well as seeking funds from foundations, businesses and private individuals. We have already received commitments of over a million dollars from our internal sources, and these Kresge Foundation grants signal the beginning of an expanded phase of this campaign as we approach funding sources outside the hospital family," Dahling said.

When this development program is completed in late 1982, Hutzel Hospital will have one of the most modern health care treatment facilities in the nation. The program includes new operating rooms, intensive and coronary care units, expanded ambulatory patient services, as well as an improved materials management system.

"Former high tar brands not missed," report
MERIT smokers in latest survey.

Taste Quest Ends

Latest research provides solid evidence that MERIT is a satisfying long-term taste alternative to high tar cigarettes.

Long-Term Satisfaction: In the latest survey of former high tar smokers who have switched to MERIT, 9 out of 10 reported they continue to enjoy smoking, are glad they switched, and reported MERIT is the best tasting low tar they've ever tried.

Smoker Tests Offer More Proof

Blind Taste Tests: In tests where brand identity was concealed, a significant majority of smokers rated the taste of low tar MERIT as good as—or better than—leading high tar brands. Even cigarettes having twice the tar.

Smoker Preference: Among the 95% of smokers stating a preference, the MERIT low tar/good taste combination was favored 3 to 1 over high tar leaders when tar levels were revealed.

MERIT is the proven alternative to high tar smoking. And you can taste it.

A common point of view

For once, Mayor Coleman Young of Detroit and officials of Grosse Pointe Woods find themselves on the same side of an issue: the preliminary 1980 census figures. Why? Because the decennial body count appears likely to cost both cities substantial amounts of money.

Mayor Young has charged the methodology of the census was "sloppy" and claimed the preliminary returns showing population declines in the northeast and northwest districts of Detroit were as inaccurate as the undercounts in the last four censuses. The preliminary 1980 figures showed a 13.8 percent decline in the northeast district of Detroit and a 9.6 percent drop in the northwest district.

WOODS CITY Administrator Chester Petersen contended that the preliminary 1980 figures were off as much as 20 percent for his community. The report showed a 14.7 percent decrease, from 21,878 to 18,663, for the Woods in the last decade. The only Grosse Pointe community to gain, according to the preliminary count, was the Shores which grew by only 40 people.

The Detroit and Woods officials are disappointed with the census because the figures, when finally approved, will become the basis for per capita payments of federal and state aid. And these days state and federal aid amounts to important revenue not only for financially-distressed Detroit but for the relatively affluent Woods as well.

Another factor that explains the interest by Mayor Young and some suburban officials in the census figures is the future representation of their communities in the state legislature and Congress. Detroit is expected to lose representation in Congress and perhaps in the legislature as a result of the reapportionment that will follow the official census returns. But some fast-growing suburbs will gain greater representation. Hence their interest in a count that accurately reflects their increasing population. Mayor Young, on the other hand, wants to keep Detroit's population losses as small as possible to avoid losing clout in Lansing and Washington.

There are, of course, different explanations for the decline in the population of the Woods and Detroit. Detroit is an old city, with an aging population, a declining school enrollment and "white flight" still continuing. The Woods, on the other hand, is a much younger community, both in its history and the average age of its residents, and its population dip can be blamed largely on the declining birth rate.

While it is not the first time the mayor of Detroit and suburban officials have agreed on an issue—the mayor and some suburban officials opposed the proposed charter commission, for example — reaching a common point of view on some of the major problems confronting the metropolitan area could be beneficial to all concerned.

If the city and its suburbs could more often present a common front in the legislature, for example, more legislation beneficial to both segments could be approved. Unfortunately, that's not likely to happen—until the day water runs uphill, the Tigers win the pennant and Mayor Young welcomes a strong, elected executive for Wayne County.

Goodbye to an old friend

For many Americans, the recent death of C. P. Snow, the British novelist, physicist and public official, was as deeply felt as if he had been an old friend. In fact, he was an old friend for those who welcomed his challenging views on many controversial issues in books available on the shelves of the nearest library and bookstore.

Because of the increasing complexity of modern society and the technological and scientific marvels that support it, the average man sometimes feels lost in ignorance even if he tries to understand the forces at work. The threat to a democratic society arises from the inability of the average voter to know even the right questions to ask of the specialists, scientists and experts who increasingly seem to make decisions for him.

SNOW'S SOLUTION for this problem was to call for better understanding by those in the arts of what is happening in science and an equal awareness by scientists of the literary and artistic thoughts of the time. In a celebrated 1959 lecture at Cambridge University, "The Two Cultures and the Scientific Revolution," he deplored the lack of mutual comprehension between the scientific community and the literary one. Today some observers feel the two cultures are converging, as in the environmental alliance, although there still is a long way to go before they achieve the mutual understanding Snow sought.

Snow's literary masterpiece, however, is the collection of 11 novels, published in an omnibus edition under the title, "Strangers and Brothers," which covers the life story of an Englishman, Lewis Eliot, from 1914 to 1968. For those of us who lived in that era, the novels revealed how much the English and Americans had in common in the problems, issues and challenges they faced during that period.

Eliot and his friends and colleagues dealt with such issues as pacifism in the face of the Nazi threat, the sharp controversy among scientists as well as the public over the U. S. use of the atomic bomb on Japan, the leaking of nuclear secrets by British scientists to their Soviet counterparts, the nature of the post-industrial society that emerged in the West after World War II and the pressures of such a society in the individual.

In a 1967 interview with Aiden Whitman, the obituary editor of the New York Times, Snow described his writing this way: "All my novels are part of one complicated theme, which is power in the modern state. People are prudish about power when now they are not prudish about sex. And in writing about power, I have been trying to show how it is really exerted in Britain, for its hidden ways are surely as elaborate as those of sex."

SNOW PUT IT another way in a 1960 lecture at Harvard: "To get anything done in any highly articulated organization, you have got to carry people at all sorts of levels. It is their decisions, their acquiescence or enthusiasm (above all, the absence of their passive resistance), which are going to decide whether a strategy goes through in time."

Americans who have tried to force action by any organization, private or public, know the truth of those comments. But Snow also understood the pursuit of power on a lower level. Describing an idealistic but flawed character, George Passant, in one of his novels, he wrote: "He wanted to build a better world... but it's fatal to build better worlds until you know what human beings are like and what you're like yourself. If you don't, you're liable to build, not a better world, but a worse one."

Good advice, from an old friend.

Know Your Schools

By Superintendent William Coats

From Book Worms to Computer Mathematics, the elementary and middle school summer program offered a variety of courses to 433 students over a five week session that ended late last month.

Under the direction of Brownell Middle School Principal Bill Christofferson, a dedicated group of teachers led second through ninth grade students from the community's public, private and parochial elementary and middle schools in Summer learning activities.

As an indication of the popularity of the music offerings, one-third of the 443 students received instruction in instrumental music classes taught by May Krager and Barry Scates. Students learned beginning techniques in playing the major instruments used in concert band and orchestra as well as receiving advanced training in percussion, strings and brass and woodwinds ensembles.

In addition to these music offerings, art instruction for both elementary and middle school students was provided by Keith Kawa. Students experienced the use of various art media in drawing, painting, and crafts projects.

Other enrichment activities were the elementary and middle school Computer Mathematics courses taught by Harvey Richardson where students learned computer logic and programming techniques; On-Stage workshops led by Wayne Bolden; a "hands-on" science class taught by Richard Benoit; and a combination Creative Writing and Book Worms class in which teacher Rose Figas helped students develop their writing interests and abilities and led them in reading and discussing a variety of children's literature.

Review courses in arithmetic, language and reading basic skills at the elementary level featured individualized instruction. Working to strengthen fundamental processes of computation and problem solving; composition, grammar, language usage and spelling; and vocabulary and comprehension were teachers Carol Bartos, Barbara Goodwin and Norine Kittel.

With the addition of a course in study skills to strengthen work habits and develop effective study procedures, a similar set of review classes in arithmetic, language and reading was conducted for middle school students. Those classes were taught by Frank Bozarth, John Lambka, Elizabeth Soby, George Sperry and Joan Stout.

Two other offerings which were available to middle school students on an enrichment basis were a combination Adventures in Literature and Creative Writing class taught by Elsie Onychuk and a typing class taught by Karen Clein.

Although these activities ended on July 25, the final phase of the Summer School Program is yet to come. Twelve hours of intensive review in reading, arithmetic, grammar, study skills and preparing for the Scholastic Aptitude Test will be available in a six-day Mini-Course Session for students from second grade through high school and adults.

Enrichment classes in puppetry and microcomputers and classes entitled "Grosse Pointe Treasure Hunt," "Merry Musicians" and "Summer Singers" will also be offered. For further information on these classes which will be offered from August 12 to 14 and August 19 to 21, call 343-2023.

What Goes On at Your Library

By William Peters

Our Grosse Pointe public libraries subscribe to over 300 periodicals. They range all the way from newsmagazines with broad popular appeal to magazines that are of special interest to a small number of people.

A specialty periodical is AMERICAN ARTIST. It is published monthly by Billboard Publications, Inc. and has a circulation of 10,000 copies.

It is a magazine for and about the American artist, especially the young artists, with articles describing various artists' style, technique and subject matter. Sections on art books, gallery happenings and the art market appear each month. The July, 1980 issue featured "Art in the Midwest." Illustrations in black and white and color abound.

One of the best and most comprehensive journals in the field of planning and city management is THE AMERICAN CITY AND COUNTY, published monthly by Morgan-Grampian Publishing Co.

This magazine, with a circulation of 37,000, was originally entitled AMERICAN CITY MAGAZINE. Features in the June, 1980 issue included: "Water Filter Design: What the Eighties Will Bring," "Industrial Cost Recovery: Why It Should Be Killed," "Mosquito Control: The Battle Never Ends," "Take a Fresh Look at Traffic Signs" and "Used Oil Latest Garage Concern."

Reviews of new products make up a large part of each issue. Legislation and other government activities are presented and the implications clearly explained. The non-technical style will appeal to the average reader.

AMERICAN CRAFT is a new title for a magazine that has been published for 40 years. The original title was CRAFT HORIZONS. Despite the name change this bi-monthly magazine published by the American Crafts Council is written for the serious artist, teacher, and buyer interested in the arts and crafts of ceramics, weaving, metal and woodworking, film, jewelry, glass, mosaics and enameling.

High-quality paper, a pleasing layout, and a liberal use of artistic color and black and white photography combine to make this a beautiful magazine useful to both the advanced lay person and the student of design and crafts.

One not to be missed article in the June/July, 1980 issue is "Firecraft" by Stephen DiLauro and photographs by Ken Clark. The article is about the Gruccis family who are the present world fireworks champions.

An outstanding historical journal which succeeds in presenting scholarly material at a popular level is AMERICAN HERITAGE.

A bi-monthly publication of the American Heritage Publishing Company, this expensive ($21 a year) periodical has a circulation of 200,000. Articles are often written by leading authorities in the field of American history and cover every conceivable aspect of American history from major to minor events and personalities.

The magazine's primary attraction for adults and young people alike is the handsome format and the numerous illustrations and photographs, many in color.

AMERICAN RECORD GUIDE is an independent journal of opinion, published monthly by ARG Publishing, Inc.

The reviews are excellent and as a buying guide to classical music on phonodisc, there are few equals to this magazine. Each month there is a section on the Spoken Word and on Film Music.

This is an easy way to keep up with the best in new recordings.

You may have noticed that all the periodicals mentioned started with the word American. American is a word I like — has a nice ring to it.

Letters to The Editor

She shall be called "Siochail"

To the Editor:
I would like to correct an error in an article printed in your paper and also comment on that article.

The article, "Good Bight Wins Coveted Mackinac Pickle Boat Honor," by W. B. Rabe, purports to be an interview in which the pronunciation of my boat's name was again mispronounced. I must say that the author quoted one of the more popular mispronunciations of the Gaelic word for peaceful "siochail," with his use of the English "sea shell."

The correct pronunciation, in an English parallel, would be "she shall," and if I ever meet the interviewer, I will be happy to pronounce it.

The comment would be that my crew and myself consider the Mackinac race just that, a race. Our boat has the highest handicap in the race and we expect to be one of the last boats to finish.

This year we beat ten boats that finished, one of which was "Good Bight." We were competitive in that the boat ahead of us in our class was only 10 minutes ahead and we were two and a half hours out of fifth place.

Although "Good Bight" should have finished seven hours ahead of us instead of seven hours behind we will look forward to them seeing our stern next year as they did in 1978 when the pickle award was not in contention between us.

Wayne State Hikes Tuition 15 Percent

Wayne State University's Board of Governors, expressing reluctance but citing inflationary pressures and uncertain state funding, recently approved a tuition schedule boosting rates effective with the fall semester.

Increases in the new schedule average out to 15.5 percent. They range from 13.1 to 15 percent for undergraduate and graduate students while students in law and medicine will pay 20 percent more.

WSU thus becomes the latest addition to the list of Michigan educational institutions to increase tuition. The University of Michigan, Michigan State and several smaller colleges already have boosted their rates. Annual tuition at WSU increased 13.1 percent to $1,399.50 for full-time resident freshmen and sophomores.

For resident juniors and seniors it went up 14.3 percent to $1,531.50 and the rate for resident graduate students went up 12 percent to $1,632.

Martin Barr, vice provost for academic administration and health affairs, said the tuition schedule still holds increases well below the inflation rate, despite an expected lower rate of state appropriations.

He explained that WSU will meet its own increased operating costs through "even more judicious financial management than we have been forced to exercise in the last decade," since tuition hikes were kept to a

Japanese Taxes

In Japan, a household with an income of $25,000 a year pays only 7.7 percent in federal income tax (about 13 percent including local tax). The country's top rate of 75 percent applies only to incomes over $320,000, of which there are relatively few.

This Saturday afternoon, up at Interlochen, the Friends of Polish Art will make a very special presentation.

Their gift is a stainless steel bust of Polish composer Karol Szymanowski, and they're giving it to the world-famous Interlochen School for the Arts in commemoration of the school's 50th anniversary.

Saturday evening, the Interlochen World Symphony will play fragments of Szymanowski's "Harnasie."

Several Pointers are actively involved in the presentation project. Among them are Dr. and Mrs. John Zukowski—Mrs. Zukowski is chairman of the Szymanowski Bust committee—and Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Chrypinski.

Mrs. Chrypinski is president of the American Council of Polish Cultural Clubs, of which the Detroit-based Friends of Polish Art is a member.

Another local lady who is very involved with the project is Irene Moran, affiliated with the Interlochen Schools.

They all join in inviting everyone "up north" during these halcyon midsummer days to come over to Interlochen for the dedication ceremony. They all predict that those who come over will

Sunset Serenade to Enlist Orchestra Hall Friends

Reviewing details for Sunset Serenade are a quartet of Pointers, (left to right), MRS. HUGH V. MUNCE, MRS. ROBERT TEEG, MRS. RUSSELL BAUER and MRS. JAMES AGNEY, members of the committee planning the special event to recruit new members for the Friends for Orchestra Hall. Addie Bauer's beautiful home in Grosse Pointe Shores will be the setting for the 5 to 7 o'clock party next Wednesday, August 13. Another committee member is Mrs. Judie Mozer; unfortunately, she was not present when the picture was taken.

The Brio Trio—Brian Schweikhardt, clarinet, Marcy Chanteaux, cello, and Bernard Katz, piano—will provide the "serenade" poolside on the lakeside lawn of the Bauer estate.

Addie, who has long been active in restoration projects for the historic concert hall, is beginning her second term on the Orchestra Hall Friends' board. The Sunset Serenade is open to all individuals on the East Side who purchase memberships in the Friends organization. Those interested may call 833-3702 for more information.

Memberships begin at $15.

The Friends group was founded in May, 1978, to help Orchestra Hall in its operations and restoration. It has grown from an initial membership of 400 to more than 2,400 in all membership categories. Through membership parties such as the one Addie Bauer is sponsoring, the Friends hope to increase membership by another 1,000.

Susan Lois Ottens Is A Summer Bride

She Speaks Vows to David Joseph Howard, Who Is Attended by Four Brothers at Afternoon Ceremony

The wedding of Susan Lois Ottens and David Joseph Howard Saturday, June 21, in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church was followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, after which the newlyweds left to vacation in Quebec City and Montreal. They are now at home in Detroit.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ottens, of Greenbriar lane, chose a traditional long gown for the 2 o'clock ceremony.

Her bodice of Chantilly lace and seed pearls featured a Queen Anne neckline. Her sheer nylon skirt was styled with an accordion pleated hem and Chantilly lace appliques.

Matching lace bordered her silk illusion veil, which fell from a Camelot cap, and she carried a cascade of peach Sonia roses and white miniature carnations.

Amy Ottens, in a straight, slitted, floor length dress of dusty peach crepe, was her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids, dressed identically, were Laura Bashara, Kathleen Suzor and Suzanne Howard, the bridegroom's sister.

Each carried a spray of peach Sonia roses and blue-tinted baby's-breath, with peach streamers.

John T. Howard was his brother's best man, and three other brothers, Stephen, Andrew and Daniel Howard, ushered. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Howard, of Detroit.

The mother of the bride wore a pale peach, waltz length dress with a butterfly jacket. The bridegroom's mother also selected a waltz length dress, of salmon chiffon. White orchids and peach ribbon formed both mothers' corsages.

Special guests included Mrs. J. G. Hergenroether, grandmother of the bridegroom, Ms. M. M. Fuchs and Mrs. D. J. Almond, great-aunts of the bridegroom, and the bridegroom's great-uncle, F. J. Fuchs.

The bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bergemann, came from Fair Lawn, N.J. Her brother, Douglas Ottens, came from San Diego, Calif.

Nonce Offers Workshop At Rackham in August

Nonce, the dance company in residence at Rackham Auditorium, located at Farnsworth and Woodward avenue directly south of the Detroit Institute of Arts, will hold a nine-day modern dance workshop August 18 through 28, Monday through Thursday, at Rackham.

Day and evening classes in modern dance, jazz and dance composition will be taught by Denise Szykula, founder/director of the Nonce Dance Ensemble, and company members Dru Cagnoni and Mary Auty, all of whom are well known in The Pointe.

Workshops will be strictly limited, and will be conducted at the beginning, intermediate and advanced levels. Registration information may be obtained by calling 832-7400.

Szykula studied modern dance under Martha Graham, Jose Limon and Merce Cunningham. Her ballet training was with Richard Englund. She is known for training dancers from an anatomical point of view.

She emphasizes varying energy levels and textures, while stressing performance skills in both the classroom and on stage. Avoidance of typical dancers' injuries is incorporated into her classroom technique.

Szykula, the only Michigan choreographer who has had a dance notated by the Dance Notation Bureau in New York — it is "Intrusions" (1977), and was made possible by a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts — will teach a class in choreographic skills at 1:30 o'clock daily during the workshop.

Nonce is made up of dancers trained by Szykula to work in her own style and technique and to perform her original compositions.

"Ours is the only dance workshop offered in the city August 18 through 28," the Nonce director says. "We work intensively during this time to prepare dancers, dance teachers and those who would like a professional introduction to the dance world for the coming season."

In conjunction with the workshop, auditions for new company members will be held at 3:30 o'clock Thursday, August 28, at Rackham.

Speaking their marriage vows at an early afternoon ceremony Saturday, June 21, in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church were SUSAN LOIS OTTENS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ottens, of Greenbriar lane, and Mr. Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Howard, of Detroit.

The W. E. Kennedys, Jr.

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday, June 7, in Ypsilanti's First United Methodist Church were LORI LEE NELSON, daughter of the Denver Ray Nelsons, of Ypsilanti, and Mr. Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kennedy, of Prestwick road.

Kennedy-Nelson Rites Revealed

Alencon Lace and Seed Pearls Accent Bride's Gown and Veil; Her Attendants Wear Colonial Dresses of Blue Silk

Ypsilanti will be home for Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Kennedy, Jr., who vacationed at Niagara Falls, N.Y., following their early June wedding in Ypsilanti's First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Kennedy is the former Lori Lee Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Ray Nelson, of Ypsilanti. Mr. Kennedy is the son of the William E. Kennedys, of Prestwick road.

The 5 o'clock rites Saturday, June 7, at which The Reverend Perry Thomas presided were followed by a reception at Win Schuler's in Ann Arbor.

The bride wore a traditional satin gown, styled with a Victorian collar, long sleeves trimmed with Alencon lace and seed pearls, a fitted bodice and an A-line skirt with a detachable, cathedral length train.

A Camelot cap caught her long veil, trimmed with matching lace and pearls. White roses, baby's-breath, gardenias, stephanotis, baby carnations and ferns formed her round bouquet.

In Colonial style dresses of blue silk and matching garden hats, carrying bouquets of mixed spring flowers, were honor maid Brenda Watkins and bridesmaids Sherry Nelson and Patricia Bell.

Best man was William Shikany. Ushering were John P. Kennedy, brother of the bridegroom, Denver Ray Nelson, II, brother of the bride, Bruce Nichol, of Indianapolis, and Michael McGee, of Ann Arbor.

The mother of the bride wore floor length blue chiffon, with a matching cape-let. Her flowers were white carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose yellow Qiana, also floor length, with a matching cape of flowered yellow chiffon. Her flowers were yellow carnations.

Museum Trips for Seniors

The Detroit Historical Department has announced the availability of senior citizen tours for the summer at its three museums. Tours of Historic Fort Wayne, the Dossin Great Lakes Museum and The Detroit Historical Museum are available.

Transportation to the museums is provided by the department on the colorful Historymobile.

Tours may be scheduled for mornings or afternoons.

At the Detroit Historical and Dossin Great Lakes Museums, groups will be free to enjoy the many changing and permanent exhibits de-pecting aspects of Detroit's long history.

At Historic Fort Wayne, groups will be able to organize their own picnic lunches as well as explore the battlements and barracks and the Indian Interpretive Center.

Although there is no charge for the bus service, there is an admission fee of 50 cents per person at Historic Fort Wayne. Both the Dossin Great Lakes and the Detroit Historical Museums have a voluntary donation admissions policy.

Interested parties may call 833-9721 for further information.

Julie Juenemann Wed in Mid-June

Kurt Edward Stanley Surprises His Bride With Vacation Trip to Paris, France; Pair Are at Home in Lansing

Julie Ann Juenemann, daughter of Joseph Guy Juenemann, Jr., of South Brys drive, and the late Betty Juenemann, wore her mother's wedding gown for her mid-June marriage to Kurt Edward Stanley.

The gown featured a bodice of Rosepointe Chantilly lace and a lace and tulle, floor length skirt. The lace sleeves ended in wrist points.

Her veil was fingertip length. Pink Sweetheart roses, white miniature carnations, stephanotis and baby's-breath formed her round bouquet.

A reception at Lochmoor Club followed the 5 o'clock rites Saturday, June 21, in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church. Dr. Robert Linthicum presided at the early evening service.

The newlyweds' vacation destination—Paris, France—was a surprise from the bridegroom to the bride. They will be making their home in Lansing.

Honor maid was Elaine Queller, of Houston, Tex. Bridesmaids were Karla Stanley, the bridegroom's sister, Katherine Fedder, of Manistee, and Susan Sink, of Reese, Mich.

Their floor length, capelet-sleeved dresses of rose floral print were sashed in rose. They wore pink carnations and baby's-breath in their hair, and carried round bouquets of matching flowers.

Lieutenant Lawrence Wilhelm traveled from Presque Isle, Me., to serve as best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Roland Glenn Stanley, of Kalamazoo.

Ushering were Jeffrey Juenemann, brother of the bride, Steven Kelley, of State College, Pa., and John Maskin, of New Brunswick, N.J.

The bridegroom's mother's floor length, Empire-waisted gown, beige in color, featured a pleated skirt and capelet sleeves of chiffon. A gardenia and pink Sweetheart roses formed her corsage.

Out-of-state guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Carolyn Juenemann, of Scotch Plains, N.J., the bride's great-uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Mundy, of Middletown, N.J., the bride's aunt, Mrs. Barbara Reusmann, of Scotch Plains, the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Brigham, of Dundee, Fla., and the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ceccato, of Columbus, Ga.

More were Miss Betsy Cross, who came from Washington, D.C., and Mr. and Mrs. Steven Davio, of Lafayette, Ind.

The Kurt E. Stanleys

Married Saturday, June 21, in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church to Mr. Stanley, son of Dr. and Mrs. Roland Glenn Stanley, of Kalamazoo, was JULIE ANN JUENEMANN, daughter of Joseph Guy Juenemann, Jr., of South Brys drive, and the late Betty Juenemann.

Offer Refresher Course for Registered Nurses

An eight-week program especially designed and organized for the Michigan Registered Nurse not currently working in the profession who would like to brush up on job skills and return to work begins Tuesday, September 9, at Detroit Memorial Hospital, St. Antoine at Gratiot, Detroit. The refresher course will provide theoretical instruction and clinical practice in general medical, surgical, obstetrical and psychiatric nursing. Further information may be obtained by calling 821-6000, Extension 236, before Friday, August 15.

YFU Seeks Host Families for Next School Year

Youth for Understanding is seeking homes in the tri-county area for three young people who will arrive in this country in August and live in the area for a year, reports Marianne Majeska, field coordinator for YFU, the Washington, D.C., based program which has organized exchanges between the United States and other countries since 1951.

The students participate as normal family members and do whatever the parents expect of their own children in terms of responsibilities, hours, housework, et al.

The host family is not expected to bear any financial burden for the new family member beyond the normal necessities of food and housing. The students bring sufficient spending money with them.

The main ingredients to make everything work, says Majeska, are love, patience and understanding.

Isabel Sagastiberri, 18 years old, from Spain, is one of four children and has requested an active, close knit family. Isabel, a 5'10" basketball player who plays three days a week, says it is important to her to be able to continue this sport. She also likes to knit, teaches guitar and has been active in scouting. Isabel has had five years of English and two years of French.

Jean Canonge, 16 years old, arrived from France in July and is patiently awaiting a permanent home. He plays the cello and enjoys snow skiing, but his greatest love is soccer. He has played on the International Soccer Team of Europe and hopes to continue the sport in this country. His temporary family has already taken him to see the Detroit Express play; "he smiled from ear to ear," they report. They note, too, that Jean is affectionate and eager to learn American customs. He has brought his own tennis racquet to the States, and wants to learn the American way of playing. He has had two years of English, three years of German and five years of Latin. He wants to be a journalist.

Reception at Detroit Yacht Club Follows Ceremony; Pair Vacation in Eastern United States and Canada

Old Saint Mary's Church was the setting for the early evening wedding of Mary Catherine Tiedeck and Daniel Jerome Gillis Friday, July 11. Father Robert McGrath officiated at the 6:30 o'clock rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Tiedeck, of Kensington road. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gillis, of Plymouth.

After a reception at the Detroit Yacht Club, the newlyweds left to vacation in the Eastern United States and Canada. They will make their home in Plymouth.

The bride wore a long gown of white cotton eyelet lace and a matching picture hat. Her all-white bouquet featured stephanotis, baby's-breath and Sweetheart roses, with English ivy.

Nancy Ann Sertich, honor attendant for her sister, and bridesmaid Jeanne Houghton wore floor length dresses of pink taffeta with a white overlay. Chantilly lace accented their scoop necklines. Pink Sweetheart roses, purple status and baby's-breath formed their bouquets.

Ann Sertich, flower girl for her aunt, was in a long dress of polished cotton, printed in a small, floral pattern, with matching pink ribbon. She carried a basket of the pink roses, status and baby's-breath.

Jerry Kregger was best man, Ushering were Joseph M. Tiedeck, Michael Tiedeck, James Gillis and Andrew Gillis.

 stay on, to marvel at the marvelous music made at Interlochen's summer camp by young people from all over the world who play (in both the musical and recreational senses) at the world-famous facility.
 Szymanowski (1882-1937), often called "The Father of Polish Modern Music," enjoyed an international reputation in Western Europe long before Poland accepted his avant garde work.
 Yet he used Polish folk motifs in a number of his later works, especially the ballet Harnasie, based on a Tatra mountain motif.
 He was extremely interested in Eastern and archaic musical motifs, and this interest is reflected in his Second and Third Symphonies, the latter based on the writings of a 13th century Persian poet.
 The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, under Antal Dorati, recently performed these two symphonies, recording them a week later. The records will soon be available to the public.
 Szymanowski's stainless steel portrait is the work of Polish-born sculptor Marian Oweczarski, currently artist-in-residence at Saint Mary's College, Orchard Lake, and director of the campus Galeria.

Michaela Is A Star Performer
 The highest performing distinction an Interlochen camper can achieve is to be named a winner in the National Music Camp's Annual Concerto Competition.
 It's a rigorous test of both talent and poise, for audition procedures are designed to evaluate the student's nerve as well as his/her ability and perseverance.
 This year, among the eight university-age winners who survived the extensive three-day audition session is Michaela Kemp, the VERY talented, VERY dedicated daughter of Pat and Bill Kemp, of Three Mile drive.
 Michaela's instrument is the viola, and she will perform the solo she played during the three-day competition a week from this Saturday, August 16, with Interlochen's University Division Orchestra, at an evening concert on the National Music Camp grounds.

Autumn Art Opportunity
 The Detroit Institute of Arts' "Art to the Schools" program of the Founders Society Volunteer Committee needs men and women who would enjoy learning more about art and sharing their knowledge with fourth, fifth and sixth grade students in the metropolitan area.
 Training, including an Art History course, begins in September. It is conducted by the DIA's Education Department, and it's required before the fun begins and the individual becomes part of the team which takes the museum into public, private and parochial school classrooms.
 It's a unique opportunity for the volunteer "teachers." Not only is it a worthwhile program for the children, but the volunteers are entitled to take advantage of special programs, tours, visits to private art collections and special exhibitions outside the Art Institute.
 Interested? Call James Bridenstein, assistant curator of Education, Detroit Institute of Arts, at 833-7885, Monday through Friday, between 9 and 5 o'clock. No special art background is required.

The Difference Between D and V
 The difference between "Dance" (as in ballroom) and "Vance" (as in ex-Secretary of State Cyrus or ad-) is one little letter... but that makes a whale of a difference when you're trying to identify the person whose last name begins with the D or the V.
 All of which leads up to the fact that last week we goofed. The International Visitors Council of Metropolitan Detroit's current president is, of course, William DANCE, not Vance. The Vance on the IVC board is Ruth (Mrs. Joseph) Vance, and although they both share a great interest in assuring the success of Sunday on the Seaway, the IVC's fund raiser set for this weekend, August 10, at the Roostertail, they don't share the same last name.
 They do, though, join forces in urging you to call 259-2680 for Sunday on the Seaway ticket information.

German Day Festival Slated Aug. 9, 10
 The German-American Cultural Center and its 20 affiliated organizations will present the Annual German Day Festival Saturday and Sunday, August 9 and 10, at the Dollier-Gallinee Park on 16 Mile road between Schoenherr and Utica road in Macomb County.
 German foods will be available, as will German beer and wine, and a variety of imported articles will be for sale. Hours are noon to 11 in the evening each day.

The Louis A. Zedans

In Our Lady Star of the Sea Church Friday evening, May 9, JUDITH LYNN MONTAGNE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel J. Montagne, of St. Clair Shores, became the bride of Mr. Zedan, son of the George L. Zedans, of North Oxford road.

Judith Montagne Wed to Mr. Zedan

Bride is Attended by Three Sisters and Two Sisters of the Bridegroom; Reception at Thomas Manor Follows May Rites

Father Peter Lentine, a family friend and pastor of Saint Philomena Church, officiated at the spring wedding of Judith Lynn Montagne and Louis Abraham Zedan in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

The bride is the daughter of the Lionel J. Montagnes, of Gary Lane, St. Clair Shores. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Zedan, of North Oxford road.

The 5:30 o'clock ceremony Friday evening, May 9, was followed by a reception at Thomas Manor, after which the newlyweds left to cruise the Caribbean. They are now at home in St. Clair Shores.

The bride, an Accounting Officer in the Controllers Department at Manufacturers Bank of Detroit, was escorted down the aisle by both her parents. She wore a white organdy gown, floor-length, long-sleeved and high-necked, accented at hem and bodice with Alencon lace.

Seed pearls trimmed both the bodice and skirt of the dress, which was designed and first worn by the bride's sister, Mariann Kotas, and featured a cathedral train.

A headpiece made to match the gown caught the former Miss Montagne's fingertip veil. She carried an arrangement of silk flowers, with roses.

Kathleen M. Czubik came from Gaylord to serve as her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Barbara Koch and Mrs. Kotas, two other sisters, and two sisters of the bridegroom, Diane and Anne Marie Zedan.

They wore floor length dresses of rose floral print on an ivory background, sashed in rose and featuring pleated skirts, and carried hand-tied bouquets of silk flowers in varying shades of pink and rose.

The bridegroom, who works in the Commercial Credit Department at City National Bank of Detroit, asked Daniel A. Caramagno to act as best man.

In the usher corps were James Montagne, brother of the bride, Joseph Deeb, David Frisby and Anthony Zedan, the bridegroom's cousin.

Julie Czubik, the bride's niece, was flower girl. Her brother, Gregg Czubik, the bride's godson, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length dress, Wedgwood blue in color, V-necked and Empire-waisted, and a wrist corsage of silk roses. The bridegroom's mother's long, peach-colored gown, gathered at waist and wrists, was styled with a scooped neck. Peach silk flowers formed her wrist corsage.

More Meadow Brook Music

The Tonight Show's Doc Severinsen stars at Meadow Brook Music Festival tomorrow, Friday, August 8, in a week that featured the Dirt Band and Levon Helm in a double bill Tuesday, August 5, and offers a laser light show Sunday, August 10.

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra performs its final two symphonic concerts of the 1980 Meadow Brook season under the baton of Stanislaw Skrowaczewski tonight, Thursday, August 7, with pianist David Golub as featured soloist, and Saturday, August 9, with pianist Leon Fleisher and the Kenneth Jewell Chorale.

The Sunday night Meadow Brook audience will take a trip into outer space when Richard Hayman conducts the DSO Pops in music from "Star Wars," "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" and Holst's "The Planets." This program, which includes a laser light show, will be repeated Monday, August 11, at 8:30 o'clock.

Sunday night's performance is sold out, but good tickets remain for the Monday concert.

All concerts start at 8:30 o'clock in Baldwin Pavilion on the Oakland University campus in Rochester, with entrances on Walton boulevard and Adams road. The grounds are open two-and-a-half hours prior to the concerts for picnicking or dining at Trumbull Terrace. Over 7,000 people can sit in the pavilion and on the lawn.

Tickets, dinner reservations and program information may be obtained by calling the festival box office, 377-2010. Tickets also are available at Hudson's and other Convenient Ticket Company locations, Sears, Grinnell's and Discount Records.

Greek Festival at Assumption in Mid-August

The fun begins at the Fourth Annual Greek Festival presented by members of the Assumption Greek Orthodox Church and Cultural Center on Friday, August 15, from 1 in the afternoon to 11 at night, and continues Saturday and Sunday, August 16 and 17, from 11 to 11 o'clock each day on the center's Marter road grounds, at the boundaries of Grosse Pointe Woods and St. Clair Shores.

Friends and neighbors are welcome. Admission to the three-day festivities is $1 per person; children 12 and under are admitted free. There is ample free parking. Visitors may get a taste of life the way the Greeks live it by strolling through the center itself, visiting tents and booths and stopping to watch costumed dancers and entertainment on the outdoor stage. Greek dishes will be served, boutiques will feature Greek artifacts and a taverna and coffee house will offer beverages. Students in Assumption's Cultural Center classes will be exhibiting their work in calligraphy, needle arts, drawing, painting, macrame, the martial art of karate, gymnastics, tap, ballet and cooking during the festival. There will be prizes — the big one is a 1980 Plymouth Volare — and games and rides for the youngsters. Further details may be obtained by calling 779-6111.

Explain Dance Slimnastics

Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church on Mack avenue will be the setting for a free demonstration of the Dance Slimnastics, Ltd., aerobic fitness program next Thursday, August 14, at 7 in the evening, and a training session for potential instructors on Saturday, August 16. Dance Slimnastics, Ltd., a non-profit corporation based in Wisconsin with classes located in several states, involves exercises and dance steps in choreographed routines that have been set to music. Men and women joggers find it an excellent way to maintain flexibility. Participants need not have any dance training. Everyone works at his/her own level. The program is designed to improve cardiovascular condition and muscle tone and enable the dancers to lose inches and gain energy. Preregistration is required for the August 16 training session and may be made by calling 886-3878. No fee is required. Potential instructors will meet from 9 in the morning to 4 in the afternoon will be informed of the requirements to become an instructor for Dance Slimnastics, Ltd., and will be assessed on their abilities and techniques in the teaching situation.

equal opportunities

With two seemingly equal advertising opportunities available, how would you decide which was to carry your sales messages?

We have a suggestion—take a few minutes to find out just how seemingly equal they really are.

Ask questions—how big is their circulation audience? Where do readers live? How much do they PAY? And others.

Then ask for proof! Don't be fooled by give-aways.

Ask to see a copy of their latest report from the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Equal opportunities? Be ABC-sure!

NEW OFFERING

Charming Early American one story sitting deep on a lovely treed lot close to Jefferson. Two bedrooms, spacious living room, modern kitchen and first floor utility room. As a little extra we have a loft third bedroom and a screened porch.

CONDOMINIUM

Truly an elegant way to live!! Cathedral ceiling in the living room with a circa "38" Crystal chandelier. Portuguese marble facing and hearth on the fireplace. All parquet floors throughout the first floor, and fresh new carpet throughout the Second. Definitely an upgraded unit, with loft den, two bedrooms two and a half baths, finished basement and two car attached garage.

CONDOMINIUM

Pleasantly decorated two bedroom townhouse style, close to Eastland and excellent transportation. Lovely kitchen with all appliances, generous living, dining area, plus walled patio leading to your two car carport.

DUTCH COLONIAL

Many charming features of the truly authentic farm house, hardwood floors throughout, lovely beamed ceiling, family room with Franklin stove, natural fireplace in the living room. Of course the large screened in porch will catch the late afternoon sun.

RANCH HOME

Very reasonably priced, very well maintained, and most of all a very private little cul-de-sac. Three bedrooms, spacious living-dining area and large workable kitchen. A must see!!

FOR THE DO-IT-YOURSELFER!

Large center entrance colonial, four bedrooms, two full baths, plus two half baths, large family room, and even larger living room with natural fireplace. Formal dining room and large kitchen with eating area that overlooks nearly ¾ of an acre of property. Solid well built home in excellent condition just waiting for the right buyer to give it some T.L.C.

MODERN HOME AND A BEAUTIFUL STREET!

Designed by an associate of Frank Lloyd Wright this splendid open floor plan is a dream come true for the home buyer that will dare to be different. Mutschler Kitchen, terrazzo and parquet floors, family room that opens onto a terrace and yard with artifacts from Rose Terrace. Excellent and flexible terms available.

ST. CLAIR SHORES

A great three bedroom ranch on a very desirable street. Large kitchen with eating area, cozy family room, spacious living-dining area with natural fireplace. Attached two car garage, and well landscaped yard definitely give this house that little extra in eye appeal.

FOUR BEDROOMS

And two full baths, located on a quiet court. Slate foyer, living room with fireplace, and dinette make this a terrific buy in the mid eighties.

GROSSE POINTE SHORES

Everything has been replaced, renovated or refurbished and is "Better Than New" Tastefully decorated with white on white accented with natural wood floors. Five bedrooms, Mutschler kitchen, family room with fireplace and immaculate condition. Owner transferred and is ready to deal.

EXCELLENT PRICE

On this three bedroom two story on one of Grosse Pointe Farms most desirable streets. A beautiful combination of natural hardwood floors and brand new carpet. Tastefully decorated immaculately cared for, and ready to move in. Large modern kitchen, with breakfast nook and a finished basement.

VACANT LOT

In prime Grosse Pointe Park location South of Jefferson. Dead end street with private park privileges at the corner.

EXCELLENT INVESTMENT

Ever popular Lincoln Road in the first block off of Jefferson. What was once a carriage house has been attractively added on to, to create two separate apartments, with a heated garage and stables.

LINCOLN ROAD

Located close to Jefferson, an unusual center hall plan with a Gambrel roof. The first floor rambling rooms lead to several slate patios and a walled garden. Six bedrooms and four baths provide ample spaces for the larger family.

Open Sunday 2-5

Pointe Counter Points

By Pat Rousseau

Fashion Plans for fall should include velvet. At Walton-Pierce you can start with a black velvet or burgundy velvet all weather or all time coat. It's double breasted and self sashed. From Drizzle, it comes in petite sizes and is water repellent. This coat will take on sunny or rainy days from dawn thru dark... over pant outfits and party dresses. There are velvet blazers in black, wine, navy, gray, brown and in a paisley print in tones of gray or brown. There are also paisley velvet skirts. A seina, white and navy plaid velvet skirt would be great with the navy velvet blazer. You could pair the black velvet blazer with the black, red and white knit from F. A. Chatta. There are many fashion-wise choices to make. A black velvet wrap dress is trimmed with a white satin ruffle at the cross-over neckline and at the cuffs of the long slender sleeves. The look for fall is put together whether you do it yourself with separates or whether you wear ensembles like the camel knit two piece suit closed with small gold buttons and accessories with its own black and camel kerchief. Pedestal's dress and jacket of dove gray suede cloth is belted with gray and tan. There's a new two piece dress from Eva for Robert Janan, sophisticated black, red and gray print. Purple is an important color this fall and David Hayes has used it in a wool crepe suit. The jacket is shorter and shaped... buttoned once. The skirt is stitched to release pleats. For those who wear half sizes, Kohler Couture has a classic gray flannel suit for you of 100% wool. Amy Adams another half size designer chose black and purple plaid polyester for a jacket top and pleated skirt. Lots more fall fashions to preview at Walton-Pierce... now.

We Watched Nino... at the Edward Nepi Salon comb out a customer. He pulled one side back and braided it. The other side waved softly to her shoulder for an asymmetrical look. It's an interesting way to wear longer hair. The shorter styles of the Eighties have the look of longer hair and a softness approaching the romantic. They are contoured to follow a graceful neckline freeing the neck and shoulders for fall fashion ruffles and petal collars. Call 884-8858.

Special... at the Notre Dame Pharmacy is Vitabath Gelee, the 10.50 oz. size for $11. When you purchase it, you get Vitabath body lotion free.

Tony Cueter... craftsman... fine jeweler... Bijouterie... they all mean the same thing. Tony Cueter will make your old rings like new at a very modest cost to you and all work is done at Bijouterie by Tony Cueter, Grosse Pointe's fine jeweler. ## Happy Hostesses Plan A Marvelous Midsummer Menu

By Janet Mueller

One is dark, the other fair; they do not look a bit alike and yet... there's something about the two of them together. Somehow, you're not surprised to learn that they both were born on the same day, in the same year. Their tastes are similar. They both have a passion for animals, stuffed, ceramic, live, what you will. Judy Sieber even has a merry-go-round horse in her Sunset lane living room.

She had the horse in her Bedford road living room, too. That was last year, before the Thomas Siebers and their children moved to the house at the end of Sunset lane.

Guess who bought the Siebers' Bedford road house? The Cameron MacMillan, that's who.

So, although Judy Sieber and Wendy MacMillan are not related, they certainly do make you think there's something to astrology. The old Soul Mates Born Under the Same Sign bit.

Currently, they're working together: co-chairmen of sales for "The Happy Hostess Vol. III." That's the third edition of the cookbook put out by the Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center. It's a collection of recipes contributed by local and national celebrities as well as Grosse Pointe residents, and Wendy and Judy urge you to try Mrs. William Milliken's cheesecake. Compare Jerry Hodak's Chicken and Rice Casserole, (noting that Mr. Hodak combines the two categories, celebrity AND Grosse Pointe resident), with Marilyn Turner's Hawaiian Chicken. Top it all off with Betty Ford's Strawberry Blitz Torte.

This is a well-coordinated cookbook with an easy, thumbnail index for various courses, plus a wonderful section on microwave cooking and kitchen aids. The artwork is by Grosse Pointe's Judi Zak. Even the bright cover tempts the tastebuds, hinting at the tantalizing dishes within.

The recipes are well-written and easy to follow, for the cookbook has been carefully and well-edited. And "The Happy Hostess" avoids the common mistake of including only heart-burn meals. You can build a simple family meal as well as an elegant dinner party from its pages.

"The Happy Hostess" was created as a fund raising project for the Northeast Guidance Center, the comprehensive mental health facility serving the Grosse Pointes and adjacent areas of metropolitan Detroit.

Fifteen years ago, a group of Pointe women met and established the Assistance League to help the nascent community mental health facility. Today, the Northeast Guidance Center provides direct counseling for people of all ages as well as education and preventative services to schools and other groups. The center is supported by county, state and federal funds, private fees and private contributions. No one is refused service because of inability to pay. And that's where fund raising projects like "The Happy Hostess" come in, for the sharing of recipes and purchase of this cookbook do more than satisfy the appetites of hungry gourmets. The funds raised via "Happy Hostess" sales give perceptible help to young and old who need the aid provided by the non-profit Northeast Guidance Center. The cookbooks, at $7.50 each (tax deductible), are available from any Assistance League member and at many stores in the Grosse Pointe and Detroit area. Now, to really whet your appetites, here is a delicious menu selected by Judy and Wendy for a Full Course Happy Hostess Dinner. Recipes One, Three and Five are from the special microwave section. Recipe Four was contributed by Mrs. George Romney. Recipe Six is a special favorite of WKBD-TV's Bill Kennedy.

HOT CHEESE DIP

(Recipe One—Microwave Section)
1 7-oz can minced clams or shrimp, drained
1 5-oz jar sharp cheddar cheese spread
1/4 green pepper, minced
2 green onions, including stems, minced
3 dashes hot pepper sauce
garlic salt

Combine all ingredients in small glass serving dish and microwave 2 1/2 to 3 minutes, stirring every minute. Serve hot with tortilla or corn chips. Dip may be frozen. Chilled, it can be used as a filling for sandwiches. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

SPINACH SALAD

(Recipe Two—Salads and Dressings)
1 can bean sprouts, drained
1 pkg. fresh spinach
3 hard boiled eggs, diced
1/2 lb. crisp bacon, crumbled
Dressing:
1 cup vegetable oil
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup catsup
1/4 cup vinegar
1 Tbsp. wine
1 medium onion, chopped fine
little salt and pepper
Mix dressing ingredients in blender and chill. Pour over salad when ready to serve.

CARROT PENNIES

(Recipe Three—Microwave)
2 lbs. carrots, sliced
1 large onion, sliced
1 large green pepper, cut in strips
1 can tomato soup
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup vegetable oil
3/4 cup vinegar
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. pepper
Cook carrots, covered, 14 minutes. Combine soup, sugar, oil, vinegar, salt and pepper and cook, uncovered, until mixture comes to a boil: about 5 minutes. Pour tomato soup mixture over carrots, onions and pepper strips. Refrigerate overnight.

SCALLOPED POTATOES

(Recipe Four—Vegetables)
3 cups thinly sliced onions (about 4 medium onions)
2 cloves garlic, crushed
2 Tbsp. olive oil
4 Tbsp. butter

CHOCOLATE MOUSSE

(Recipe Six—Desserts)
3 eggs, separated
3/4 cup superfine sugar
3 Tbsp. brandy
1 tsp. vanilla
5 oz. unsweetened chocolate
4 Tbsp. soft butter
3 Tbsp. strong coffee
1 Tbsp. superfine sugar
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped

In the top of a double boiler, beat the egg yolks with the sugar, brandy and vanilla until the mixture is thick and pale yellow. Use a small, electric hand mixer for this. Place over barely simmering water and continue beating until the mixture is slightly foamy—about 5 minutes. Remove mixture from simmering water and let it cool to room temperature.

In a small sauce pan, melt the chocolate. Remove from heat and gradually stir in the butter. Stir this mixture into the egg yolk-sugar mixture until smooth and creamy. Stir in the coffee. Beat the egg whites until foamy. Sprinkle the additional 1 Tbsp. sugar over them and continue beating until stiff peaks form. Stir part of this into the chocolate mixture; then fold in the rest until no white streaks remain. Fold in the whipped cream. Spoon the mousse into individual serving dishes or serving bowl. Chill at least 4 hours before serving.

FLOUNDER VERA CRUZ

(Recipe Five—Microwave)
1 small tomato, seeded and chopped
1/2 cup onion, chopped
1/2 cup green pepper, chopped
1/4 cup butter or margarine
3 Tbsp. chili sauce
2 Tbsp. lemon juice
1 Tbsp. beef extract
1 Tbsp. capers
1 Tbsp. parsley, snipped
1/2 tsp. dried thyme
1/4 tsp. salt
1 clove garlic, minced
several dashes bottled hot pepper sauce
1 4 1/2-oz. can small shrimp, drained
1 3-oz. can sliced mushrooms, drained
1/4 cup dry white wine
2 lbs. flounder fillets

In 12x7-inch baking dish, combine all ingredients except shrimp, mushrooms, wine and fish. Cover with waxed paper. Microwave for 6 minutes; stir once. Stir in shrimp, mushrooms and wine. Place fish fillets on top; spoon some of the sauce over them. Cover with plastic wrap. Microwave 7 to 8 minutes, or until fish flakes when tested with a fork.

LUV RUN Goes on in The Rain

Over 130 runners, from a field of 180 entrants, turned out in thunderstorms last Saturday, August 2, for Tennis and Crumpets' first LUV RUN, a benefit for Children's Hospital of Detroit and the hospital's Renal Dialysis Program.

The 5,000 meter run, sponsored by Seymour Cadillac of Detroit, began at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Domzalski and continued down Windmill Pointe drive. Refreshments and awards followed the event. Les Steele, of the Park, captured first place. Paul Lewis, of the Woods, took second and John Rosculet, of the Woods, finished third.

Seymour Cadillac owner Dick Seymour, of the Shores, also participated in the race.

The event was organized by Kamy Neumann, Grosse Pointe chairman of Tennis and Crumpets, Dodie Giroux, Kathy Heitman and Andriene Papalexioiu.

List Park Tourney Champs

Despite a delay in the start of the matches, the Grosse Pointe Park Tennis Tournament was again a successful event. Due to rain, the tourney was extended to Sunday, July 27.

As competition progressed, the players experienced long, but exciting games. The spectators involved themselves in each match, following every point and crowds grew larger each night.

In the Girls' 12 and under singles, Stephanie Schulte took Sarah Mayer, 6-3, 6-1. Amy Leverenz beat Kris Schulte, 6-7, 3-6, 6-1, to win the Girls' 14 and under singles title.

Annie Day topped Beth Carrier, 6-2, 6-4, to capture the Girls' 18 and under singles.

In the boys' 16 and under singles, Larry Bauer outpointed Brian Doyal, 6-0, 6-1. In doubles action, the team of Kristen and Stephanie Schulte defeated Kathy Turner and Cindy Tewes, 6-3, 6-1, to take the Girls' 14 and under category.

The Mother-Daughter event was won by Ruth and Annie Day, as they beat Chee-Chee and Patty Williams, 7-5, 6-3. The Father-Daughter team of Mick and Karen Miller took Charles and Katy Turner, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

The Father-Son finals turned out to be the first action for both teams, as they had reached the finals for forfeit. Jimmy and Jerry Williams outpointed James and Rankin Barker, 6-4, 6-3. The Mother-Son title was taken by Al Turner and

Honor Pointe Net Coaches

Stephanie Prychitko (Grosse Pointe South High School) and George Andrews (University Liggett School) were named Class A and Class C-D Girls Tennis "Coaches of The Year" by the Michigan High School Tennis Coaches Association.

Stephanie, in her seventh year as varsity tennis coach at Grosse Pointe South, has compiled a record of 92 wins-6 losses. She has led squads to five league championships, six regional championships, and four state championships.

George was honored in his first year as ULS Girls' Tennis Coach. He has coached the boys junior varsity team and his J.V. team has compiled a record of 70 wins and 11 losses over five years. Last fall his girls' team was 7-3 and were regional and state runners-up to Kingswood.

Prychitko and Andrews will be honored along with the other coaches of the year at the annual MHS/TECA workshop, February 6 and 7.

Blame Geography for Nasty Weather

By Margie Reins Smith

Grosse Pointe has a unique location on the edge of a small inland lake—Lake St. Clair. Yet we are also in the midst of the larger system of Great Lakes, and that position accounts for both the good news and the bad news, weather-wise.

First the good news. Grosse Pointe boaters are part of the privileged few in the United States that have access to a large fresh water lake for cruising. We are, in fact, within one day's cruise of two large bodies of water—Lake Huron and Lake Erie.

We're also within a few days of Lake Michigan, Lake Superior, and Georgian Bay—often called the sixth Great Lake, and one of the most popular vacation spots for Detroit area cruising families. We are a few days cruise from Lake Ontario and the New York State Barge Canal (formerly the Erie Canal) which connects the Great Lakes to the Hudson River and the Atlantic coast.

"Typical summer weather in Grosse Pointe means two or three days of warm weather with light winds and clear skies, followed by a cold front with winds from the northwest," says Dave Clark of the Federal Aviation Administration who reports weather to pilots at Detroit City Airport. "A cold front replaces the warm mass of air with cooler air. It is usually preceded by a squall or a thunderstorm. The weather then clears and cools, a high pressure system moves in, and we have the cycle repeating itself again with clear skies, light winds, and a warming trend," Clark said.

Now the bad news, Michigan's changeable weather is also due to its proximity to the lakes. "Moisture generates condensation and clouds," says Ken Castor, weather instructor for the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron.

"Since Grosse Pointe is east of Lake Michigan, we get the results of winds that have blown across Lake Michigan and have picked up its moisture. We get some extremes of weather that are not possible in the plains states," Castor said.

More bad news. Lake St. Clair has an unusual wave pattern for several reasons. It is a small, shallow body of water, thereby giving rise to short, choppy waves that kick up quickly when a squall line moves in. These short, confused waves are particularly treacherous for small craft.

"Lake St. Clair waves are mostly wakes," said Dave Clark. "Also, the lake has practically no beaches. Waves that are generated tend to hit breakwalls and bounce back, creating a confusing non-pattern of waves."

Lake Huron, on the other hand, has longer, rolling waves that are predictable and less dangerous to boaters that are riding out a storm.

Lake Erie is shallow like Lake St. Clair and usually has the same short, steep "Lake Erie chop" that is quite dangerous. In addition, Lake Erie's great length from northeast to southwest means that a northeast wind has hundreds of miles of water surface to build a devastating wave pattern.

Typically, Lake St. Clair and Grosse Pointe have winds that prevail from the southwest in summer, northwest in winter, with summer storms coming in from the northwest.

"The storms we experience are not as sudden as we sometimes think," said Ken Castor, "since weather acts over a large area." There is usually ample warning to boaters that bad weather is on its way, he said.

Boaters are advised to check weather conditions before leaving the dock and to observe small craft warnings. There is a local marine weather channel available to boaters with radios. This channel broadcasts continuous weather information for boaters, updated hourly or when conditions change. In addition, most Detroit radio stations carry marine weather information. Round-the-clock weather reports are available for boaters by calling 881-7787.

Red Cross Urges Boaters To File Float Plans

What is the most neglected safety measure when people take to our rivers, lakes and seas in boats? Is it failure to wear a life jacket? Is it failure to yield the right of way to sailboats when operating a motor-powered craft?

Kevin Killeen, safety services director of the South-eastern Michigan Chapter of the American Red Cross, thinks it may be a failure to file a "float plan" before venturing onto the water.

If you doubt his word, think of the last time you went deep-sea fishing, white-water rafting, or took a day or overnight trip on any body of water. Did you file a float plan?

"Don't put yourself beyond reach through oversight," says Killeen. "Before leaving, file a float plan with friends or family ashore."

"This plan should tell when and where you will depart, where you will be cruising, and when and where you will return. Should you fail to return in a reasonable length of time, the person holding your plan can notify the U.S. Coast Guard, the police or other authorities."

Killeen says that a float plan should also include a full description of your boat (such as color, length, type, number and name); name, sex and age of everyone on board (addresses and phone numbers are also helpful); data about your marine radio (frequencies, channels) and information about life-saving devices, flares and other emergency gear on board.

"It's tempting to just get in that boat and head downriver, but a little foresight and some time spent filling out a float plan before doing so may just save your life," says Killeen.

Area residents can learn about safe boating by enrolling in one of the basic Red Cross courses in sailing, rowing, canoeing or outboard boating.

Further information may be obtained by calling 833-4440.

South Girls' Basketball Set

Grosse Pointe South girls' basketball teams will begin tryouts on Monday, August 11, at 7 p.m. Coaches John Bruce, Karl Geisler, and Dave Ferris hope to improve on the varsity team's 1979-80 18-4 record with an expanded program. The program includes both junior varsity and freshman teams.

Tryouts are open to all girls who will attend Grosse Pointe South this fall. Interested players are encouraged to report to South's Big Gym ready for play. Those who are unable to attend the first session should contact Mr. Bruce at 885-4600, on weekdays from 8:30 to 4:30.

MIKESSELL LETTERS

Daniel C. Mikesell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. David Mikesell, of Lakeland avenue, was awarded a junior varsity letter from Trinity College. Mikesell, a freshman, rowed on the freshmen men's lightweight boat.

Winning Park Swim Team Proves "Park Is Back"

Happy members of the Grosse Pointe Park Swim team pose with trophies awarded them as Inter-City and Dual Meet champions. The Park team, coached by Tim Kennary, Jed Kuhn, John Hessburg, Betsy Cross and Patty Gibney, won the championship for the ninth time in eleven years. The Inter-City finals took place on July 23 and 24 at Grosse Pointe City Park.

By Kathy Roarty

The Grosse Pointe Park Swim Team entered the site of the Inter-City Finals on July 23 and 24 at Grosse Pointe City park, team shirts portraying their motto — The Park Is Back . . . And Here To Stay!

The young Park team proved itself by breaking four pool records, attaining eight first places, and by winning many other medals. Amidst constant cheering, the Park became the Inter-City and Dual Meet Champions for the ninth time in the eleven years under coach Tim Kennary.

The coaching staff aiding Tim Kennary, included Jed Kuhn, John Hessburg, Betsy Cross and Patty Gibney, who all were age-group leaders in their younger years.

Kennary says of his assistants, "I was greatly pleased with their dedication and spirit. I feel that we could not have won the finals without their superb coaching abilities."

Following the meet, trophies were awarded at the team dance for the top three high-point winners in each age group. The winners were, respectively:

- Eight and under: (boys) Mike Montagne, Jerry Mitchell, Jeff Jogan; (girls), Ann Eckel, Chrissy Schulte, and Geralyn Bocci.

- Ten and under: (boys) Ian Thompson, Bill Thompson, Aaron Smith; (girls), Katie Turner, Meg Peterson, and Brittain Monroe.

- Twelve and under: (boys) Matt Smith, Pat Brennan, Sean Hoye; (girls), Nancy Vettorello, Maryann Montagne, and Margaret Eckel.

- Fourteen and under: (boys) Marty Montagne, Peter Ecklund, Ian MacConachie; (girls) Heather Amburg, Katy Eckel, and Maureen O'Meara.
- Seventeen and under: (boys) Dan Levitt, David Centner, Vince Brennan; (girls) Kathy Roarty, Christy Deutsch, and Maureen Cross.

Named "Park Mother of the Year", was Mrs. Bryan Thompson, who not only came to cheer and time for every meet, but promised to dive off the high board if the team won—a feat she never dreamed of attempting. Great appreciation is extended to everyone who helped the Park this season.

SAFARI!—For your shopping pleasure, knowing full well the travel and danger that awaited him, Wacky Jack launched an expedition that took him deep into the heart of the urban jungle. In search of "Big Game", that rare and exclusive species, antiques collectors. Not only did Wacky manage to sight some of these magnificent creatures, but armed only with his legendary check book and a common Bic pen, he bagged his full legal limit and transported them back to the Colonial Shop, over the treacherous rut-infested Lakeshore Drive, where they await your visit. Some of the treasures the wild man hunted down for you include: A beautiful pair of Dresden candlesticks, an 18th Century Berlin porcelain vase, some Chinese paperweights, an interesting collection of miniature pitchers. A huge Roseville Peony vase, a magnificent hand-painted Nippon plaque, 6 sleek 1830's crystal wine goblets with Ebony stems, a fantastic Rosenthal tea pot, a Penton rustic pattern carnival vase, an 80-ounce Madrid pitcher. Several pieces of occupied Japan, 2 hand-cut rock crystal compotes, 10 Paragon bone china cups and saucers, a crystal wedding covered compote, a large selection of collectible costume jewelry, much more! THOROUGHbred HORSE-BREEDING FARM

Pine Valley Farm, located 55 miles north of Detroit between the towns of Metamora and Lapeer, is one of the outstanding horse breeding farms in the state.

The meticulously-maintained farm buildings are furnished with the latest labor-saving equipment, such as heated, automatic watering troughs, closed-circuit TV, intercom system and automatic horse exerciser. Two masonry block stables with asphalt floors contain 26 box stalls with movable partitions and 2 tack rooms. Three isolation box stalls are located in the 3,000-square foot equipment building. All 11 paddocks have automatic, thermostatically controlled water supplies, 8 with separate shelters.

Surrounded by 80 acres of rolling fields and woods, the main residence enjoys a panoramic view of the South branch of the Flint River meandering through the property. A dam has created a scenic lagoon and private island, attracting fish, wildfowl and deer. Special planning and materials have been blended to provide all the comfort and luxury you would expect in a home of this quality. Accommodations include a living room with a 24-foot high beamed cathedral ceiling, dining room Florida room with imported marble floor and fountain, paneled family room with cathedral ceiling, glassed porch, ultra-modern kitchen, breakfast room and basement recreation room. Three rooms contain attractive fireplaces. In addition to 4 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms, there is an attached 3-room apartment with attached garage. A caretaker's house and 6-car garage are nearby.

This choice property is fully equipped to continue its use as a horse farm, or is ideally suited for use by an institution or as a corporate retreat. Adjacent land is available.

Breathers Club Meets Aug. 19

The American Lung Association's Breathers' Club for persons with emphysema and chronic bronchitis will meet Tuesday, August 19, at 1:30 p.m. at Georgian East Extended Care Facility, 21401 Mack avenue. Nutrition for the chronic lung disease patient will be the topic of the meeting. Erma Powers of Total Health Care will discuss the importance of a well-balanced diet, which foods to avoid eating and which foods are especially good for persons with lung disease. Breathers Club meetings are held every third Tuesday of the month at Georgian East. Membership is open to chronic lung disease patients and their families. There are no dues. For more information, call Kathy Robinson at the American Lung Association of Southeastern Michigan at 961-1697.

Local Man Win Waiter Race

Ray Marcil, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond P. Marcil of North Brys drive in Grosse Pointe Woods, took first place in Detroit's Annual Waiter and Waitress walking foot race June 22. It was the third time in six years Marcil has taken that title. Marcil is a free-lance commercial artist who also works as a waiter. He was representing the Hillcrest Country Club in the race. In the quarter mile foot race the contestants carried trays of four, five and a half ounce glasses filled to the brim with red pop. At the finish line all contestants who had less than 16 ounces of liquid left in their glasses were disqualified. Marcil won $500 for his speedy but not sloppy run.

Officer Retires After 33 Years

The Grosse Pointe Park Police Department honored Patrolman William Crandall with a retirement party Tuesday, July 29, at St. Maron's Hall, St. Jean and Kercheval. Crandall, 58, leaves the department after 33 years on the force.

In an attempt to settle the anthracite coal strike of 1902, Theodore Roosevelt became the first U. S. President to act as a mediator in a labor dispute.

memo to advertisers
HOW MANY WHATS ARE YOU BUYING?

Advertising costs are not based on the number of eyes that see your message, the number of fingers turning these pages, or the number of hats a reader wears—at least they shouldn't be. Some media projections leave you guessing, though. We figure it is the nose that counts—one per customer. In fact, we feel accurate circulation figures are so important to you that we have the Audit Bureau of Circulations do our nose counting for us. ABC sets the standards. Their specially-trained auditors do the counting. And they publish a report on the facts as they found them to be. Your assurance that you get full circulation value when you advertise in

Grosse Pointe News

As a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, our circulation records and practices are subject to the scrutiny of regular field audits and the discipline of ABC-determined standards.
