Number of Draftees to be Inducted Next Week Is Cut Drastically by Heavy Voluntary Enlistment of Pointers

Pointe Area to Have Own Induction Board

Acquire, Henry Buhl and "Red" Murphy Named by State Director of OPA

Grosse Pointe and Gratiot county are to have a training board of their own, according to an announcement by Arthur H. Sarva, director of the Office of Price Administration.

The board, as announced by Sarva, will include Alvin A. Gault, president of Grose Pointe Woods; C. Henry Buhl, Elmer White and C. Thorne of Edward boulevard. It is understood Mr. Gault is to act as chairman of the board.

Area Included

The district to be under the jurisdiction of the board includes the five Pointes and their outlying territory. An office is being sought. There has been some talk of locating it in the school buildings, but plan is considered impractical for several reasons. The schools are already so crowded that more than likely the board will have to vacate when classes resume in the fall. It is also being a more central location be found than any of the schools.

Executive secretary is to be Mr. H. J. Underwood at a salary of $2000. He will be selected for the Civil Service laws. It is also understood that at least five and possibly three will be engaged to carry on the work of the board.

Ready For Pointers

With the establishment of this board will no longer be necessary for persons from the five Pointes to go into Detroit to settle their own problems. The board has jurisdiction over all persons living in the area, those already being rationed, rationing, curfew and sugar, or additional ones.

Happy Ending is Supplied To Story of Little Kenneth

Happy ending is supplied to the story of little Kenneth, the baby French poodle who was lost last week and asked the News to publish his appeal for a home, is now the very prized possession of a little boy named Donald.

"No More Classes, No More Books . . ."

Grosse Pointe's public schools closed for the long and welcome summer vacation period this week. Although the youngsters have to go back once more to collect their reports cards tomorrow, the tedious grind ended earlier in the week. This group, fairly bursting out of the doors of the Gabriel Richier school on McKinley road in the Farms, is typical of similar groups not only throughout the Pointe, but throughout America. Nothing to do now until September, and that's a long, long way off to minds as young as these. The Pointe's parochial schools closed last week.

Happy Ending is Supplied To Story of Little Kenneth

Kenneth, the baby French poodle who was lost last week and asked the News to publish his appeal for a home, is now the very prized possession of a little boy named Donald, a 12-year-old boy on Maryland avenue. The News first saw Kenneth a week ago when he was the stray pup of the Grose Pointe Park police department. The puppy was turned over to the Michigan Humane Society and the News wrote a story describing Kenneth's plight and asking one of its readers to give the little fellow a home. All day Thursday, Friday and Saturday the police department, the News office, and the Humane Society were deluged with telephone calls. A drunk from an East Jefferson bar called the police and sobbed that he wanted to buy the pup a drink and a woman phoned to say that a puppy with the name of Kenneth would be available and she wanted him. . . a man phoned the News and said that while he was digging his own, he would certainly give the dirty little guy a bath and buy him a license so as to enhance his chances for a home. . . and there were many other calls.

July's Draft Quota is 122

Board 57 Reveals That Number Area Scheduled to Be Inducted Next Month

It was learned this week that 122 men are tentatively scheduled to be inducted from local Draft Board 57 sometime early in July.

The State Selective Service Board has notified 57's officials to be prepared to send that number at a date not yet assigned. The Board refused to comment on a tip that the News received that perhaps another induction quota would be set in June following the sending next Monday of 70 selectees.

That 57 might have another June quota is considered plausible because the Board is able to furnish only 70 of the 152 men originally asked for in this next draft call. Questionnaires are now being sent out at the rate of 200 per week to prepare for the next draft being made.

Plans are now being completed for the Board's fifth registration day as set by the President for June 30.

Pointers Jam Pierce School For Big Revue

"You Can Defend America" Plays to Standing Room as Area's Morale Ups

An enthusiastic crowd of nearly 1,000 took every seat in the Pierce Junior High School auditorium Tuesday night for the Grosse Pointe presentation of the nationally-famed patriotic revue for total victory, "You Can Defend America."

The revue was presented at the invitation of the Grose Pointe Area Council of Defense and a local committee under the chairmanship of Charles A. Parcell, president of the School Board.

They saw a great show, that moved with precision and brilliant variety through its eleven scenes, with music, laughter and drama. But they saw much more, for "You Can Defend America" is a dramatization of a pattern for war-time living, an answer to probable bottlenecks in industry, and a program for total victory that offers a chance of immediate, constructive action for every citizen today.

As they went home after the show, the audiences whistled the catchy victory songs of the revue, and thought about their message: "You can defend America."

Our country to defend. But not the hearts of men. To us it's the end. That is the theme of the No. 1 hit-song of the show, which was the opening item, sung by a huge red-shirted and blue-shirted chorus of business men, professional men and workers—some of them Grose Pointers who make up the cast.

Gets Name from Wilby

Another striking scene in the "Army Behind the Army," was sung by the entire cast. Like all the rest of the show, it was written by the cast themselves; and a speaker announced that the name of the show was given them by General Francis B. Wilby, superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy, West.

Osius Has Plan to Obtain Home Rule for County and Give Pointe Representation

Enlarging of Proposed Body of Supervisors and Commissioners or Enabling Act by Legislature Aro Suggested

Theodore C. Osius, treasurer of the City of Grose Pointe and chairman of the out-county committee for the study of the proposed constitutional amendment on Home Rule for Wayne County, has prepared a report to support his theory that there is a remedy for the present antiquated form of government in the county without depriving the Grose Pointe-Gratiot Township area of representation.

Mr. Osius also contends that the present plan for which an attempt is made, would be most unjust to this area.

Refer to a map of the county, showing the location of the various cities, villages and townships, with the population of each according to the 1940 census.

First, he shows that the Grose Pointe-Gratiot area, because of its peculiar geographical position in the county, has no chance of having a supervisor and little or no chance of a charter commission if the present proposed amendment passes. He then develops two remedies, one under a constitutional amendment and the other under an enabling act passed by the state legislature. Fisher was the architect that the Grose Pointe-Gratiot Township area would have one charter commissioner elected from its electorate and at all times be assured of one supervisor from its electorate.

Mr. Osius admits that there may be other solutions equally as just. But he does demand that whatever the remedy may be, this area be given its just representation.

SEVERAL SUPERVISORS

The proposed amendment reads in part that the County Charter shall provide: "71 members elected from single districts arranged as follows: . . ."

Each bud resembles a wild rose in form. The flower, which one has just identified, only blooms at night, and then it bursts into flowers so rapidly that one can watch it unfold. The blossom, according to Mr. Thompson, measures about two inches across, is bright yellow, and somewhat resembles a wild rose in form.

Eligible List Is Shrunk by Volunteers

Study of Figures Reveals That About 50 Have Joined Armed Forces Since May

Army and Navy enlistments have drastically cut local Draft Board 57's active I-A list, and as a result the Selective Service officials announced this week that the Board will be able to supply only 70 men for the induction call of June 22.

Previous announcements had set 57's June 22 quota for 152 men.

Board 57 revealed Monday that all men who as of Friday, June 12, were on the active I-A list will be inducted. However, it also was stated that a great increase in the number of enlistments has greatly reduced the number of men liable for the June induction.

No Figures Available

There were no figures available as to the actual number of men who have come out of the U. S. Armed Forces in the last month or two, but late in May the Board received more than 125 men classified and waiting induction orders. Therefore with this as a basis, it was estimated that probably 50 men in the Pointe who were liable for immediate call have been drafted and inducted in the service.

Board 57 revealed Monday that the Board's next induction notices for June 22. They will be the first from the Pointe since the new War Relocation Authority after induction.

Police Learn of Accident Before it Occurs; Two Hurt

Two young people miraculously escaped death Monday afternoon in an automobile which didn't negotiate the curve and crashed into a tree at the Edsel Ford turn on Lake Shore road in Grose Pointe Shores.

The car was completely demolished and the occupants, Joseph Landon, 20, of 1225 Fisher, and Lena Vansay, 22, of 8874 Lorman avenue, Detroit, were taken to the Sargus hospital where they were released the next day. They suffered injuries but not of a serious nature, according to police.

Blackout

(Continued from Page 1) here. Chrysler is now making some specific plans which are expected to be heard for eight miles. Detroit has ordered 20 of them, one of which is expected to be erected on the outside in the Hudson-Chrysler plant region. It is believed this would also serve as a warning for the entire Pointe-Grosset area.

Also Have Smaller One Chrysler is also making a smaller size which is expected to be much superior to anything now on the market, which the Pointe municipality is very interested in purchasing in numbers. Mr. Elworthy also revealed he has sent a registered letter to Col. Harry Furlong, state administrator of the OGD asking for equipment which has been long forthcoming. It is understood Detroit is about to receive a supply of armbands, helmets, stirrup pumps and other equipment and the Pointe does not want to be left out of the distribution.

LABOR SUFFLY ASSURED

Michigan is close to having licked its threatened farm labor shortage, it was indicated following release of a labor supply survey made by veterans' organizations and their auxiliaries of the request of Gen. Dwight D. Van Wagoner. The tabulation counted 135,791 persons registered with the U. S. Employment Service as available for jobs; 65,677 of them women. Of this number, 22,222 are registered as desiring farm work and 6,348 received employment in the canning industry.

Home Rule

(Continued from Page 1) said members shall be from the City of Detroit. He thinks it is not unreasonable to conclude that Detroit with a population of 1,022,452 will have less than 15 members. This leaves seven members for the remainder of the county. Inasmuch as a remainder of the county has a population of 392,171 and there are to be seven districts, each district, according to population, will be one-seventh of 392,171 or 56,024, as near as may reasonably be. The question at issue arises as to the make-up of these districts. Dearborn has a population of 63,824. Highland Park has 50,810 and Hamtramck has 49,839. It seems reasonable to assume that each of these municipalities is of sufficient size to demand one supervisor each. There are four supervisors to be distributed in the rest of the county.

Should He Added It may be argued that inasmuch as each district is to be about 56,000, as heretofore shown, and inasmuch as Hamtramck is only 49,839, Highland Park 50,810, the Grosse Pointe area with a population of approximately 300,000 should be added to one or the other of Hamtramck or Highland Park. But by doing so, it will be seen that the resulting district would be far and beyond the 56,000 average. So that is out. Therefore we are forced to select four districts from the county aside from Detroit, Highland Park, Hamtramck and Dearborn. Necessarily in doing so the Grosse Pointe area will be a part of a district which geographically is miles away because the Grosse Pointe-Grosset Township area on the north is bounded by Macomb County, on the south by the city and Detroit on the west by Detroit. Now, how shall the four districts be constituted, remembering that Grosse Pointe-Grosset Township will comprise about one of those four districts? It makes little difference for the purpose of showing that Grosse Pointe will be without representation on the Board of Supervisors. The five districts from the north end of the county or the south end of the county, just for an example let's see what would happen if we lay out the four districts beginning at the south end of the county. District IV—52,537 total population: 30,618—Wyandotte—City 1,675—Ecorse—Township 1,286—Belleville—Village 23—Monroeville—Township 5,284—Freston—Village 2,206—Grosse Ile Township 2,233—Huron—Township 3,658—Huron Township 4,591—Brownstown Township 11,192—Fias Township 1,147—Rockwood—Village District V—53,704 total population: 15,235—Lincoln Park—City 12,205—Ecorse—City 17,008—River Rouge—Village 4,400—Michigandale—Village 4,847—Allen Park—Village District VI—56,767 total population: 8,825—Taylor Township 6,880—Romulus Township 1,772—Van Buren Township 4,223—Wayne—Village 7,044—Dexter—Village 16,323—Nankin Township 7,563—Dearborn—Township 4,096—Garden City District VII—61,930 total population: 2,111—Canton Township 1,823—Plymouth Township 2,270—Plymouth Township 3,084—Northville Township 3,432—Livonia Village 8,728—Livonia Township 6,867—Redford Township 12,646—Grosse Pointe Park—Village 6,178—Grosse Pointe City 7,217—Grosse Pointe Farms—Village 777—Grosse Pointe Shores—Village 2,805—Grosse Pointe Woods—Village 858—Grosset Township

It may be noted by those who favor the plan that the language of the proposed amendment is that the district shall be according to population "as nearly as may be" and that inasmuch as the Grosse Pointe-Grosset Township area is completely segregated, it will constitute a district. The Grosse Pointe-Grosset area is unpermeable obstacles against such a result. (1) The population of the Grosse Pointe-Grosset district is 304,822. Wyandotte has a population of 30,618 and if the Grosse Pointe-Grosset area is with a supervisor, certainly Wyandotte could be entitled to one. The would River Rouge, combined with its neighbor, Ecorse, with a population of 30,217. (2) The present number of seats on the Grosse Pointe-Grosset Township a supervisor, you would at once increase the average population of the remaining three districts to 65,818 or twice that of Grosse Pointe-Grosset Township. (3) And if the Grosse Pointe-Grosset area, Wyandotte and River Rouge, were each made a district, then there would be but one district remaining for all the rest of the unincorporated area with a population of 136,600. From the above it is evident that beyond a question of a doubt the Grosse Pointe-Grosset area will not have a supervisor. It is equally as true that that area would be looked up with some other area of about equal population which must necessarily be some miles removed from the Grosse Pointe-Grosset area.

Charter Commissioners The proposed amendment further provides for a charter commission, to which full power is given not only to select the districts from which supervisors will be elected, as above set forth, but also to draft the laws under which the county will hereafter operate, provided that at a subsequent election the charter so drafted is approved by the electorate. Of course the Grosse Pointe-Grosset area, which is one of the total assessed valuation of the county, should have a representative on the commission. But we say, with all fear of self-interest contradiction, that it is not likely that it will have a charter commissioner because of the very language of the proposed amendment. The amendment provides for 19 charter commissioners, of whom 11 are to be selected from large from Detroit, one from

Dearborn, one from Hamtramck, one from Highland Park, and the other five from the remainder of the county on the single basis of districts arranged by the county election commission. The state statutes provide that the county election commission shall be composed of the judge of probate, county clerk and county treasurer, the judge of probate to be chairman. It will be noted that no yardstick is stated in the proposed amendment to guide the county election commission in deciding upon the makeup of the five districts. Population is not said to be the controlling factor as we have shown in the case in laying out the districts, aside from Detroit, from which the supervisors will be chosen. For are areas or taxable valuation criteria. So that it is fair to say that the county election must be fair and reasonable. It will be guided by precedent as well. The precedent set up by the proposed amendment as to supervisors is population and undoubtedly population will play a large part in the election commission's decision as to districts from which charter members will be selected. As well, the election commission may follow the plan set forth in the constitution of this state to state representatives; "by single districts, which shall contain nearly as many as equal number of inhabitants and shall consist of convenient and contiguous territory." It must follow the population will be the controlling factor, which means that the Grosse Pointe-Grosset area is equally as unlikely to have a charter commissioner as it is to be able to select a supervisor from its own electorate. The total population of the county, aside from Detroit, Highland Park, Dearborn and Hamtramck is 227,030, to be divided into five districts, or 45,407 per district. To make up a district of approximately 45,407 it would be necessary to include Grosse Pointe-Grosset in a district with one of the other townships or cities of sufficient size and the closest to it which would mean Redford and Dearborn Townships or the City of River Rouge. If this were done, we might elect a charter commissioner, but such a move is not contemplated because then Redford-Dearborn Townships, with a combined population of 14,837 would certainly not get a charter commissioner, and if River Rouge with a population of 17,008 was joined with our area it would be without any chance of representation on the charter commission.

The Remedy There are at least two remedies which will give the Grosse Pointe-Grosset area a location according to representation. One is by amendment of the constitution of the state with home rule for the county and the other is by an enabling act of the state legislature. Home Rule. The present proposal calls for 14 supervisors from Detroit. The population of Detroit is 1,623,452, which divided by 14 is 115,961. The recent proposal is for 7 supervisors from the county outside of Detroit, the population of which area aside from Detroit is 392,171, or one supervisor per 56,024. So that under the present plan the ratio of representation by population is approximately two to one. Under the substitute plan we now propose we take the area of the Grosse Pointe-Grosset district—304,822—as the unit, which means that that district because of its segregated location, will get one supervisor. Dividing the population of the county, aside from Detroit, we find that there will be 13 supervisors from the county outside of Detroit, retaining the two to one ratio of the present plan. Detroit would have 26 supervisors. This would make a total of 39 supervisors, in place of the proposed 21 and the present 160, would give proper representation to the Grosse Pointe-Grosset area for home rule by constitutional amendment. As to the charter commission, our plan would work out as follows: Again take 304,822 as a unit outside Detroit. That assures the Grosse Pointe-Grosset Township area of one charter commissioner, which is as it should be. Then give Dearborn two, Highland Park one and Hamtramck one. Divide the rest of the county, aside from Detroit, by the unit and the remainder of the county would get seven. We retain the same ratio for Detroit as under the present plan and Detroit would have 21 commissioners. This would make a total of 39 charter commissioners, again give proper representation, and home rule by an amendment of the state constitution. To repeat, under this proposal there would be 39 supervisors in place of the present 160 and the proposed 21 and there would be 32 charter commissioners instead of 10. Enabling Act. The other remedy we suggest is by an enabling act of the state legislature. There are those who argue that the remedy should not be as proposed by amendment of the constitution because under such an amendment a shift in population would make necessary a further amendment of the constitution—admittedly a cumbersome procedure. An enabling act could well set up the number of supervisors, departments of county government, elective and appointive offices and other details reexamining the county form of government. This would avoid putting details of county government in the state constitution.

Pointe Girls Make Bow To Society

Four colorful murals on the far wall of the room by Rocco DiMareo, local artist, were the most admired part of the decorations in the gymnasium. There were many different types of uniforms at the dance—sailors' uniforms, RAF men, and one from the English Navy.

Motschall Hosts To Younger Set

One hundred and fifty members of the younger set, mostly graduates of Saint Mary's Academy and their escorts, were the guests of Mrs. and Mrs. J. M. Motschall last Sunday evening at Lochmore Club. No gayer or more carefree crowd has ever graced the club's defenses than this group of erstwhile students, newly relieved of the weighty responsibilities of high school and with a whole summer of freedom ahead.

The occasion was to celebrate the graduation of Betty and Dorothy Motschall which had taken place earlier in the day at the Academy in Monroe, Michigan. Following the graduation exercises almost the entire class joined in a motor cavalcade back to Detroit for the party. Part of the group went to the Motschall home at 1163 Three Mile Drive for dinner and then to Lochmore later in the evening where they rejoined the rest of the crowd.

At the club, refreshments were served and the crowd danced to the music of Al Whyte and his orchestra. A little impromptu entertainment was provided by Anthony Motschall, self-appointed master of ceremonies, who kept the crowd in a hilarious mood with his imitations and nonsense. Jack Gallagher of Boston added a near professional touch to the "floor show" with his songs and remarkably skillful tap routines.

HOWARD FOX, of Nett road, has returned home from Howe Military School where he has finished his first year. He will leave next week to spend the summer at camp in northern Michigan.

MAKING ONE ITEM DO FOR TWO-

how standardization saves money for Detroit Edison customers

Why have 41 different styles of outlet boxes when half-a-dozen will suffice? Why buy 16 different cleaning powders when four will do the job? All departments of the Company are cooperating in reducing many questions similar to these. As a result, the Big Catalog shows above loans large in helping us to make savings. It lists some 30,000 items, all indexed and classified, that are purchased for use in our business. And every one of these items is standardized to achieve important economies in their use.

These economies are twofold: (1) the direct dollar saving in the initial cost of the item, and (2) the saving effected through cutting down the number of items, with a consequent lessening of storage, handling, and ordering expense. A few examples will illustrate the point: In our purchases of printed forms, we planned for fewer sizes, weights, and grades of paper, as well as fewer forms. This reduced the number of forms 43%, and saved $40,000 annually.

The apparently simple problem of washing floors, windows, walls and woodwork would not seem to present much opportunity for saving through the standardization of the materials involved. Yet by having cleaning powders made to our specification, we cut the cost more than half and saved over $5,000 a year. The substitution of wool felt for cork in pipe insulation saved $8 per cent of the cost. . . . As a total of $1,799 on one job. These examples can be multiplied—pipes and fittings, tools, wiring, lumber, metal polish, fly exterminators, rope and cord, drain solvent, etc. The list is almost endless.

Today we hear much about standardization in industry to help the war effort. Our standardization has been achieving economies for the past 20 years. These economies are reflected in our service and rates. The average price per kilowatt-hour paid by our residence customers for electric has dropped 40 per cent in the last 20 years. The Detroit Edison Company

War Demanding More Mothers in Industry

Ruth Flom Appointed Head of Group to Survey Situation Here; Will Investigate Facilities Available

It has been increasingly clear that thousands of mothers will be drawn into war industry to replace the men called up for military service. Many of these women will have no children for whom the community can make the same provisions for care and protection which are made at work.

In order to plan intelligently in this situation, the Wayne County Council of Defense has appointed a committee on "Day Care of Children." This committee is representative of child care and educational needs of the entire county, was selected to make an analysis of the problem and report its findings to the Wayne County Council.

One of the important committees under the Wayne County Council of Defense is the Committee on Day Care of Children. Dr. Paul L. ...

Jean Gabin Film At Krim Theatre

Prompted by many requests from theatergoers all over the city, the Krim Theatre, at Woodward and Mile roads, has arranged a special week's showing of the two great French productions "Pepe le Moko" and "Les Femmes d'Alger" by Jean Gabin, who has recently made a name for himself in Hollywood, and "His Master's Mistress" (from the exciting novel "Katala"), starring Danielle ...

"Pepe le Moko" was actually directed by Jean Renoir, the Algerian, the Cashah, sanctuary of those who have reason to avoid the forces of law, and who are as restless as animals, and whose code of living seems patterned after the life of the creatures of prey. It is the exciting story of a fascinating prince of the underworld, played by Jean Gabin, whose interest in women and crime are equal. It was from his outstanding performance in this picture that prompted Hollywood to sign him up for a long-term contract.

"His Master's Mistress" is based on the novel "Katala" by the Princess Marthe Bibesco. It is the story of a young girl who, at the tender age of fifteen meets and falls in love with the czar of Russia. Her romantic love and receives great criticism from his followers. Co-starred with Jeanette Godwin, John Loder, great English actor.

The Krim Theatre, one of the newest theaters in the north section of Detroit, has many ultra-modern innovations including push-button seats, special cushions for the hard of hearing, love seats, and the very latest in sound engineering.

Reservations for French classes or party groups may be made by calling the theatre, TR-4110.

The theatre will hold an extra late show on Saturday night, with the last complete show starting at 11:30 p. m.

Mrs. Robert K. Slaymaker, of Kensington road, is the sister of Admiral Aubrey Fitch, who was the commander of the United States Naval Forces in the Battle of Coral Sea.

"I've always felt that would, when the time came, be equal to the occasion," Mrs. Slaymaker said in reference to her brother, Mr. Slaymaker, who has returned the Royal Academy of Music in London for three years, where she studied piano and singing.

For favorite sports are riding and golf, and her hobby is gardening. She likes fringes above everything in people, and dislikes insincerity. She practices fringes in sport clothes.

Soldier Steals Show At Debutantes' Party

Hitch Hiker From Fort Perry Doesn't Have to "Crash" Ball He'd Read About in Sunday Papers

At the party held in the Country Club Monday night at which 17 Grosse Pointe debutantes of 1942 made their bow, we know of at least one person who was not invited, yet had a marvelous time.

That one was a soldier from Ft. Perry, O., who read about the party in the Sunday paper quip. Stephen Edith and Label Seyburn, and Joanne good.

Miss Sara Burnham asked the soldier why he just didn't quietly slip in and the soldier obligingly replied that he wasn't going to be sneaky about it. He also said that he wanted to be introduced to some of the parents and debs, and he was "he even got permission to write all the gals, whose names he jotted down in a little book.

The 17 girls who "came out" were Cynthia Banks, Mark Bulkeley, Christine Calkins, Elizabeth Cooper, Josephine Ford, Peggy Fenley, Betty Harpner, Mary Elizabeth Hodges, Ann Keane, Marian Miller, Molly Moore, Esther Palmer, Jean Preble, Jar. Bulkers are giving a tea for their daughter, Mary, at the Bulkeley's home on Edgemont Park. Mrs. Bulkeley and Mary will stand in the receiving line to some of the parents and debs, as Ann McMillan, Esther Palmer, Mrs. Harry C. Bulkeley, Mr. Bulkeley's mother, Mrs. Robert Stoepe, Mrs. Hugh McMillan, Miss Helen Stoepe and Miss Patricia Perley, roommate at Smith.

At this Saturday M. and Mrs. Gail Stephens are giving a (Continued on Page 8)

THE CONSTRUCTIVELY smart suit: frock, devoid of trimming and relying on cut and handling, is a good prop in the busy girl's wardrobe. Here is a frock of this type, fashioned in dark green, light weight wool, cut in a classic, waist like a plectrum. A knife pleated section at the front of the skirt lends it a touch of otherwise plain silhouette. The self buttons are edged with gilt metal.

It is sense saying anything at the deb party at the Country Club Monday night, because all know all about it, anyway.

It is not known about the party given for Kay Henderson sponsored it, the gang of about 20 met at Mrs. Sullivan's house on Jefferson, and then went on to the Grosse Pointe Park, where Donna brought Kay minutes later.

Ma, Kay, Nina, Sally Ann, Emily, Marilyn Nette, Catherine, Marion, Marilyn Bucklow, and Mrs. Hensch were the girls, and SOME of the fellows: Chuck Lee, Jack Castille, Dick Dilworth, Jim Shup, Paul Russell, Conrad Sims, Al Meisner, Renay and Bill Chase.

It is not known about the gang trooped back to Nina's for tea and what-not.

I Wake Up Screening

By H. E. LUBBECK

Cecil B. DeMille's "Reap the Wild Wind" is probably the most spectacular and breath-taking movie since the gray-haired movie mogul created the idea of having Claudette Colbert take a milk bath before her cameras.

Opening Friday at the Michigan theater, the picture should bring audiences from the neighborhood to see one of the most realistically horrible scenes in celluloid history when two men battle with a giant octopus in technicolor.

"Reap the Wild Wind" goes along at a pleasantly thrilling pace until the final scenes when DeMille, at his best, brings in the devil and his right arm. You've never seen anything like it before in motion picture history, and you can catch for that.

Two divers, John Wayne and Ray Milland, go deep in the waters off the southern coast to bring up evidence from a sunken ship which will convict a gang of thieves and pirates. For some time they explore the ship amid harmless life fish. Then the octopus arrives on the scene and the horror begins.

Probably it's the technicolor which makes the shots more exciting than usual, but for certain glad that during those scenes no one touched me with a wet foot. I would have jumped right out of the projection room.

The casting is good, with

Wayne and Milland fighting for the honor, if that's the proper word, of Paulette Goddard. But when you come right down to it, Paulette is worth fighting any octopus for.

Crowds Thrilled By Mills Troupe

Of all the daring high wire artists ever to appear in any amusement park or under any of the white tops, the great duo, Mills and Mills, receive the crown. Either they do not fear death, or they don't care when it comes for anything they do even impossible human performance.

On a high wire, not merely a few feet in the air, but forty to fifty feet above the ground, they perform death-defying stunts with a readiness never before witnessed. There is not a dull moment in the entire attraction. It is usually any wire act ever seen before, and truly beggars description.

These artists do stunts upon the high wire that the reader would find it difficult to do upon the ground, and yet they are as untroubled and as accurate as if they were tied in the air. Seeing is believing, and Park visitors have been of one accord that the Mills Troupe are truly the world's greatest high wire acrobats.

They are at Jefferson Beach, the entire week of June 15-22 inclusive, with free performance afternoons and evenings.

Abbott, Costello Coming to Punch

Hailed as the most elaborate as well as the funniest of the Abbott and Costello star comedies, "Ride 'em Cowboy" takes over Friday and Saturday at the Punch and Judy Theatre. Backed by the large supporting cast are Dick Folan, Johnny Mack Brown and the Merry Maes. Backed against an Arizona dude ranch, "Ride 'em Cowboy" which comes every thing necessary in the way of parade grounds for the antics of the two stellar stars in every Indiana, rodeo aces, bucking broncos, and wild steers.

The talent for comedy first revealed by Greta Garbo in "Ninotchka" reaches a new high in the brilliant actress's latest appearance in a comedy and again with Melvyn Douglas, in "Two Faced Woman".

Comes to the Punch and Judy Theatre this Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Playing "Two Faced Woman" is the wily, sophisticated tale offers Garbo a role unlike anything she has ever attempted before. She inherits and, truly, abandons her famous leg-bobs for an ultra-modern hair-dress, makes her first appearance in a bathing suit, and carries on a brilliant verbal duel with her rival in love, played by Constance Bennett.

Sweet and low-down. The soft voice of the actress is in every dull pulsating rhythms of a bass drum. Music of the people. The Street of dancing doors and roaring trains. That's the sort of music you hear in "Blues in the Night", which comes to the Punch and Judy Theatre this Wednesday and Thursday. In the starting roles are a newcomer, Richard Whorf, lovely Priscilla Lane and Betty Field. Wally Ford and Nolan all contribute their share in making "Blues in the Night" something really different in the way of film musicals.

Will Stage Show For Service Men

The postponed soldiers and sailors' wrestling boxing show under the auspices of the H. P. Ford Local No. 490 will be held at Maple Park Friday evening with practically the same program of five mat and two four-round boxing bouts presented plus music and entertainment.

The main grappling test is one in which two former mystery men of the mat, Leo Wallick and "Flash" Gordon meet in a "rubber" match. They have been rivals since the days when Gordon followed in Leo's footsteps to the main mat and had one four times with a win for each and two draws. Both are clever matmen who can go the pace.

Other wrestling bouts are Bert Ruhl vs. Walter Roxy, Louis Kline vs. Al LaFoon, Rufus Jones vs. Harold Chappell, Gene Fox and emergency medical personnel than any other Defense Corps in the region.

rol Lombard's Last Film ens at Alger Theatre

... or Not To Be" slated for the theatre starting Friday night as a comedy spy picture. The picture is about the reactions of a group of "harm" actors who all mixed up with the group after Warsaw had fallen.

The invasion started the actors had been rehearsing the play, which they were allowed to present. As a result of the rehearsals, some storm troopers uniforms which came in very handy when the plot turned to melodrama and the members of the theatre stock company present, for spy purposes, to be part of the Polish resistance.

This film marks Carol Lombard's last appearance on the screen. She shares the comedy with Jack Benny.

Jack Oakie, the All-American chowderhead; George Murphy, the guy who returns romance from the rumpus; Walter Brennan, a grandpa who romances the girl; Linda Starnell, the loveliest love interest that ever gave a heart a lift—she sings, too—and Milton Berle, a whimsical Scabiscuit, are the fun mad people of Mark Hellinger's "Rise and Shine," the new musical comedy which dances into the Alger as the second feature.

Duffield Slaymaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Slaymaker of Kensington road, will arrive home Sunday for a three weeks' leave from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, where he is a second classman.

At Whittier

HERMAN FINE, who is playing a return engagement with his orchestra in the Gold Cup room of the Whittier Hotel. Fine is well known in Detroit, having previously played in the Book Cadillac. He was also heard in the Riptide club in Miami Beach, Fla.

Will and Gladys Ahren, Broadway's brightest musical comedy stars, come into Club Royale this Friday to head the new show that is packed with appeal. Will mixes his rope twirling, dancing and humor much in the same manner as the late Will Rogers, while Gladys of the combination lends her wit to Will's subtleties.

Raises Havoc With Pilots

BRENDA MARSHALL is the lovely eyelid who plays hob with the hearts of the gallant fliers in "Captains and Clouds," the new Technicolor six drama coming to the CINDERELLA screen Friday.

Pancho and Dolores, ballroomologists, cover the field from waltz to rumba all with grace and ease, and blond Margery Daye, one of America's greatest crochetic dance stars, fill the dance offerings for the evening. Coming direct from the Campbell House of the Drake Hotel, Tony Fonti Hart presents songs styled as only she can do them. The Fun American Dancers round out the show with new production numbers and Bill McCune and his orchestra do the music for the show and dancing.

Jars, fountain pens and musical instruments.
To give an idea of what this means to our fighting forces, the copper that went into building materials for American homes last year will provide all the brass and copper fittings for twenty-three 10,000-ton cruisers. Copper that was used in costume jewelry, gifts and novelties was the same for forty 1500-ton destroyers.

81% Registered
Preliminary figures show that 122,604,000 persons were registered for sugar rationing, or about 91 per cent of the total population. . . . Not so pleasing, was the fact that 8,400,000 persons who registered didn't get their War Ration Book No. 1 because they had more than the allowable six-pound "hoard".
They're advised to cut their sugar use to half-pound a week, for till be that long before they can get more sugar. . . . Fruits can be canned without sugar, then sweetened as used. King Cotton hasn't been snubbed in the war effort. . . . Cotton is being used among other things in modern camouflage. . . . OPA offers a three-point guide for milady's wardrobe: "Buy Practical Outfits", "Mix Them Up", "Make Them Last". . . . Beruffled nightgowns are out for the duration. . . . By the end of next year, living standards will be at the 1932 depression level. . . .

Spices, such as black and white pepper, allspice, nutmeg and ginger, have joined the sugar bowl in the "hand-to-mouth" category. . . . The War Department has announced it can not answer individual queries as to the whereabouts of Army personnel or as to whether men are casualties or have been taken prisoner. . . . Nearest kin of casualties will be notified by official telegram immediately upon receipt of information from the field. . . . It has been impossible to get mail through the Japanese blockade of the Philippines. No mail is being sent to and none has been received from American forces in the Islands since Dec. 8. . . .

Like a big game baby, Michigan is getting used to price-control and likes it.
If you or Mrs. Jones are still confused about it, here are a few reminders.
Price control is our charter of security. Without it, the cost of living would rise to heights which would bring suffering to many thousands of our people.
There are a number of exceptions to the seasonal foods such as fresh fruit, vegetables, fish and game. Excluded also are butter, cheese, canned milk, flour, mutton, lamb, poultry and eggs.
It seems kind of funny that there is a ceiling price on pork and beef but none on ammunition. The Office of Price Administration sets a maximum price on any farm products until the price of a product reaches 110 per cent of parity. If the price of mutton goes up until it reaches this parity, then a ceiling price can be placed on it—and probably will.

Coming To Vogue

BUD ABBOTT (Right) and LOU COSTELLO, celebrated screen comedians, starting in University's famous Elmwood, "RIDE 'EM COWBOYS", comes to the VOGUE THEATRE on Friday.

You're not a price policeman—at least not yet.
Be patient and tolerant with your merchants. Give them until July 1 anyway to get this thing to working. Only flagrant and unmistakable violations should be reported—to your local War Price and Rationing Board.

We're All at War
President Roosevelt recently directed a message to newspaper editors, which will be applied to everyone on the Home Front.
The men and women of a nation at war have the right to expect . . . the same loyalty with which they send their men to join our fighting forces. The same energy with which they raise food and make arms for America and the other United Nations. The same courage with which they face an enemy who would destroy the world, the same vision with which they foresee the world of freedom for which we are fighting. . . .

When a tanker loaded with gasoline is sunk by an Axis submarine enough gasoline is lost to have driven 5,000 autos for a whole year at the normal rate.
United We Stand
How about a quiz program on the price control regulations the news at the Bay Bee Sewing Club meets? The quicker everyone gets acquainted with these regulations, the smoother and better it will work.
There are some other exceptions which do not touch the family larder, including newspapers, magazines, books, admissions to movies and other amusement places, collectors' items such as antiques, pictures, stamps, coins and precious stones.
Of course, you know that the price of a can of corn can be 15 cents at one store and 13 cents at the store down the street. A merchant is entitled to set his price at the highest level he can get away with, and that particular article in the month of March, 1942. That's No. 1 on the things you must remember.
You still can shop around.
America Is One
The ceiling on retail service charges doesn't go into effect until July 1. Retail service charges are to be controlled only if they are performed in connection with a commodity. This means the price of automobile and radio repairing and such will be controlled. Personal services such as hair dressing or dental work will not be controlled, even after July 1.
