When newly-commissioned LIEUTENANT FREDERICK J BEYER of 179 Beaupre road received his earned silver pilot's wings at graduation exercises at the AAF Training Command's twin engine advanced flying school at Pampa, Texas, his father and mother MR AND MRS FRED BEYER, were present to see that they were pinned on correctly. Lieutenant Beyer 23 is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and attended Wesleyan University at Middletown Conn where he was a member of Psi Upsilon Xi Chapter. Prior to enlisting in the Army in March of 1943, he was employed as a tool engineer in Detroit.

Married Man Facing Draft Lays His Mortgage Problem In Laps of Farms Trustees

Case involving zoning regulations is of interest to all Pointers. Bank Refuses Relief While He Is In The Army
Fred Rummels of 324 Morris road who anticipates being drafted into the Army in the near future laid a problem in the lap of the Farms Village Trustees at the meeting Monday night which was well attended by increasing numbers of citizens. Men who are heads of families are taken into the committee's consideration.
Mr Rummels is situated in a home property owned by his wife and himself. He has a mortgage on the property and is unable to pay it because he is in the Army. He has approached the bank which holds his mortgage to see what special considerations might be given him as a soldier but got a flat refusal from the bank.

BB Gun Sale Is Considered By Council

Police Chief Goulette and Attorney Berry Discourage Profitable Idea
The Woods village has three or four derelict bicycles on its hands that it wishes to get rid of and Clerk Allard was directed to dispose of them. In connection with the bicycle sale one of the Commissioners said, Why not reduce your stock of BB guns at the same time?
"Well," said Chief Goulette "the guns are not our property and I doubt whether we would dare sell them."
Attorney Berry supported the Chief's stance but the Commissioner said they figured these pistols in the hands of youngsters had already done damage to the extent of about $400.
Commissioner Burgess apparently sympathetic with the BB gun commanders said I think probably every one of these BB guns when we were young boys."
"Yes," said Commissioner Vandenberg but there weren't so many convenient electric lights to shoot at."
The Chief said it is handling of the BB gun major problem was quite a poser for the police. The guns were unquestionably private property lawfully possessed even if they were unlicensed. The police is simply to take the guns away from the boys and so far keep them out of the streets. I have yielded to tremendous pressure he said and turned them over to the fathers of the young offenders they have in variously been back in the hands of the boys again.
"Fine," said Commissioner Vandenberg with a grin, we can't do that. We can't take them back within a week and sell them over again. This looks like the end of the matter for the time being. The fathers of the young offenders they have in variously been back in the hands of the boys again."
The Police and Fire committee of the Farms Board of Trustees was requested at the council meeting Monday night to make a study and report recommendations to the board regarding the future attitude of the trustees toward the firemen and other employees of the village who are given leaves of absence when they enter the armed forces.

Great Building Boom at War's End Seen for Grosse Pointe

Shortage of Better Class Houses in Detroit Area Points to Prosperous Era of Construction in Finest Residential Section
Grosse Pointers who are in a position to know are convinced that this area is headed for the biggest building boom in its history, just as soon as the war is over and labor and materials are again available.
They figure that the nation wide sentiment to prevent wholesale unemployment in the readjustment period following the war will operate to prevent any such loss of population in the Detroit area as occurred in the deep depression years of 31-35.
There is a great house shortage among the better class of building which has disappeared since war times when building operations can be started again, these observations are shared by thousands of pairs of eyes of prospective home builders will turn to the Pointe. Any couple contemplating a new home will naturally be concerned with the character of the lot they are buying. This will automatically direct their view towards the Pointe which is the hope that it is the most desirable home locations in the whole country.
One great advantage this locality possesses is an abundance of available ground. Much of this can be purchased at reasonable cost.
The Pointe possesses another advantage in the fact that its average tax rate is still within reason.
That this early development of the Pointe is already seen by many parents Mr and Mrs Ernest C. Clair of 4843 Farmbrook, have asked the News to run this picture of 2 1/2 by 3 1/2 acre lots Sunday while skating on Lake St. Clair has not been found in the Pointe area. $205,820.08 Recorded in First Total

Junior Senior High School Progress Unknown as Yet
DUS Given Well
Kenneth L. Moore chairman of the Fourth Bond campaign for the Pointe area reported a fairly satisfactory progress for the first 15 days of the campaign out here. The sales thus far have been in the smaller denominations. An announcement issued from the office of Frank Liberatore chairman of the drive that all sales in the Detroit area should be reported direct to the Detroit office of the drive. Mr Moore says, in so far as applies to Grosse Pointe. This area is still on its own and sales made here will be reported to the AWB headquarters as in the previous campaign. From there they will be transmitted to the Detroit office.
Some of the Totals
Figures tabulated up to Tuesday night show that the actual cash taken in for bond sales at the Grosse Pointe bank which closed last week was $205,820.08. The DUS has sold $43,350.00. The Country Day School $30,000.00. The elementary schools $24,190.00. No reports have yet been made on sales by the Junior High School or the Grosse Pointe High School.
Among the elementary schools the Kerby school is out in front with subscriptions of slightly over $10,000.00.
The AWB headquarters reported on Wednesday noon subscription totals for the Grosse Pointe banks a figure, totaling $84,711.57.
The total sales reported to date amount to $205,820.08.
Mr Moore's concerned over the lack of exact information regarding the status of the Bond sales force. He desires that the information on that was carried last week be corrected. A Bond force which has previously been informed to only fathers of men on young soldiers in the combat services, now includes sales by the women as well. This new group should give extra credit to the Bond sales force and the campaign directors naturally look to the women as well. Mr Moore is the most personal and intimate to take a leading part in the campaign.
Slackers Being Used
The use of the window stickers, which is a new feature in this year's drive, is being used to stimulate a patriotic rally among bond buyers as well as to give a more complete picture of the situation. The stickers are being used to stimulate a patriotic rally among bond buyers as well as to give a more complete picture of the situation.
The stickers accompanying the bond which is delivered by the media are urged to display them immediately.

An investigation was made by Officer LaBrooki. He found a gas thief in the rear of the police he had seen two boys throwing stones at the house late Friday afternoon.

Pointers Urged To Save Paper

All Grosse Pointe public officials urge the residents to keep in mind the drive for waste paper. The Government is stressing paper salvage at this time as one of the most important war services for the civilian back home.
The Park Farms and City collect on trucks are gathering up paper and taking it to the C. V. A reduction plant for preparation for shipment. Wherever possible citizens are requested to have their old newspapers tied in bundles for quick and clean handling by the trucks. Green Heavy paper and cardboard are especially needed. Musical Instruments Needed By Students, Sell Yours Now

Every year more than 100 students in Grosse Pointe public schools begin the study of instrumental music and require instruments. The war has made it extremely difficult for them to buy medium priced instruments. The manufacturers are now making war materials.
Cornets, flutes, saxophones and trombones are most in demand.
The News has a suggestion for these students and for those who may have unused instruments tucked away in the closet or attic. A Want Ad placed in the columns of this paper is the logical way for the student to locate the instrument he needs or for the owner to get rid of something he no longer uses and put the money into War Bonds.
Mrs. Buhle's interest was in not leaving care for Queenies children and Frank's letter convinced her that the committee is a better matter for one of the trustees.
The Hillman was distributed last Saturday and Frank carried off a male He won't have to worry about the financial arrangements. There was no charge.

Some of the trustees maintained that the two or three former firemen or policemen who had already gone into service had been granted leave with the understanding that their places were to be kept open for them.

Let's BUST EM Wide Open

ITS IN THE AIR. You can feel it, every time the bus is struck. This is the climax year, the year of decision.

In history, 1944 will be the big year of the war—every stroke for victory counts more now. That's why it's vitally important for every American to be busy post, doing his part right now.

You, personally, have an important job in winning the war—buying War Bonds. It's not glamorous—no, not even a sacrifice really, because you are only lending your money, to be returned with interest. But it is essential to complete victory.

Your part in this year of decision is at least one extra $100 Bond, above your regular Bond buying. That is your minimum individual quota. But don't stop there. Remember wars are won only by all-out effort. So buy $200, $300 $500 worth—buy more than you can afford. And buy your Bonds where you work—at the plant or at the office.

Your country is counting on you—let's make the year of decision OUR year!

Record of 35 Tons of Tin Collected in Latest Pickup

The ninth and most recent collection of tin cans in the history of the village was made in the latest pickup. Thirty five tons were collected in the last pickup. The fact that food in this village has increased a low level since the last pickup on October 15, 1943, is a reflection of the fact that the Government's food policy has not only encouraged the production of canned vegetables and other high point value items placed on food in this area ever since the OPA took effect.

STAY ON THE JOB!
WITH VITAMINS and MINERALS
Under rationing no one gets gasoline enough to drive as much as he'd like to and automobile mileage is declining rapidly. The number of accidents, deaths and injuries is going down too - but not the accident rate! That's actually going up - there are more accidents occurring and more people being hurt in proportion to the amount of driving being done!
You have MORE to lose! Obviously this is no time to try to get by without Automobile Damage & Liability Insurance. If you're using your car at all your chances of having an accident followed by a damage claim are proportionately greater than ever. Also, if you're making more money and saving more - buying War Bonds and building up your assets - you have more to lose than ever before.
Auto Insurance Cost is DOWN!
Why take such risks when you can be safe at small expense? Automobile Damage & Liability Insurance costs less now than it ever did - substantial wartime emergency reductions recently made by the Hartford Accident and Indemnity Company have brought rates down to the lowest point in history. So for yourself - here's the present cost for a whole year of Hartford protection -

I HEAR A LOT OF FOLKS AT HOME CLAIM THEY CAN'T AFFORD TO BUY AN EXTRA WAR BOND!
WHAT WOULD a wounded soldier think if you if he could hear you say: "I can't afford to buy an extra War Bond?" He might remind you that he couldn't "afford" to go to war! But he went, and now he's making more sacrifices for you. No wonder he expects you to do something that will help him!
Especially when all you've asked to do is to buy an extra $100 War Bond this month. So check over your budget - if you can't swing at least an extra $100 or $200 or $300 or even $500 for your War Bonds. You'll find that you can - and it's no sacrifice, either for War Bonds are the best investment in the world today!

Disappearing Skaters Worry Park Resident

Mrs. Richard D. Stal of 714 Grand Marais who has frequently been annoyed by children and swimmers in the sea son, now has the possible fate of skaters added to her worry. Last Friday about nine o'clock she called the Park police and told them two small boys whom she had observed skating in front of her place had suddenly disappeared and she feared they might have gone through the ice.

The police hurried around there but no boys in sight. Neither was there evidence of anyone having broken through the ice recently. A thorough search of the neighboring ice cap failed to reveal any disturbing signs. All came to the conclusion that when Mrs. Stal's first and second glance the youngsters somewhat like the Arabs must have silently stolen away.

Nevertheless the police who feel themselves responsible for the safety of the youngsters, deeply appreciated Mrs. Stal's caution.

Planning for Grosse Pointe

The announcement by Pres. Dent Karl B. Godda of the Grosse Pointe Park that he will not be a candid...

The Pointe area represents largely successive real estate developments by real estate promoters who planned...

This piecemeal development of the Pointe resulted in the erection of five separate municipalities within the same...

This division of all other municipal functions among five separate municipalities is somewhat unfortunate...

The Pointe area is in all essential respects a single community. Its civic unity is already well reflected in...

Would it not however be wise before the Park or any of the other Pointe municipalities progress to the point...

Anything in the way of planning for the region should be undertaken as a movement of local concern...

Prohibition Threat

The public recollection of the dismal failure of prohibition is still too fresh to permit either the people or their representatives in Congress to give serious heed to the proposal...

We have had one lesson in the disastrous results that can come out of the attempt to enforce an unenforceable law...

The attempt to make prohibition a living workable provision in the laws of the nation is not only a breakdown of the prohibition law itself but brought in its train...

The attempt to bring this law back again into the private lives of the people who are already harassed by a myriad of restrictions...

It would not reduce drinking by a gill. It would introduce another gigantic flood of law violations when the country is already struggling against a tidal wave of lawlessness...

It is an ill-considered and unwise suggestion and sensible citizens will hope that the proposed measure will meet a quick demise...

Flu Wanes

Good news came from the Census Office last week in the announcement that the flu epidemic which struck this high point just before New Year's is receding...

When the flu first appeared in this country early in the Fall a deep and persistent griping of the whole country...

It was considered of ill omen to bring his son in law Count Ciano into the country of being shot in the back at his execution...

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

'What stronger breakfast than a hearty substantial? 'This is the answer that I am sure you will give me. And he said through locked up steel? Whose conscience with injustice is corrupted?'

By all that's holy, this column ought to be called grosse injustice this week, because we have been asked by a local woman to use the column as a medium for an apology she wishes to make to a man, who certainly deserves it.

The story concerns one whom we shall call John Doe. The local woman met him years ago and stalked him on sight. They met casually at parties for years after that and as it turned out, the man disliked her too.

About 2 weeks ago our heroine received a call from a friend and she learned that John Doe had a new wife here and was in Grosse Pointe. She had a new job here and would not see her unless to meet them in the city.

Came New Year's Eve and the woman attended a party along with about 30 other guests not knowing that John Doe would be present.

She had to do at a large party if she concentrated on it. The party moved on to the Club for dinner and then to her at the table. She thought it had been a "fixed job on the part of her friends."

When she sat down, she turned her back to him and all during dinner addressed the man on her right with "unrestrained concentration."

She had never seen the man in all her life before. He had a horrible accident once he happened to have the same name as the man who had been in the club.

Our heroine hopes that John Doe will read this and accept her most humble apology.

Questions like the following will certainly open the boy's eyes to America when they return from the wars.

After the address a sweet looking sixteen year old girl asked if she might ask a question.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sirs I received a copy of your Grosse Pointe News today, Wednesday, January 12th, 1944. I am very glad to know that my letter was accepted with such interest and I can only say that I meant everything in what I said regarding the grand work done by the USO and Clubs like the Grosse Pointe Neighborhood Club.

I have had the real pleasure of being able to show your swell write up to members of the USO and staff of the G. S. C. A. M. S. here at Queens Park Barracks who were very pleased to have such interest shown by their American friends.

My work here in Canada with the Vocational Training School is very interesting and many of our students have been guests over in your fair city and always return with a high satisfaction of having had a wonderful time there.

I would like to see the young men who are being sent to the front and to see them in the future publications of such a fine paper and to the readers of same my best wishes in the future months ahead and to a New Year VICTORIOUS!

Sgt. Borworth, H. H. No. 11 St. London, Ontario Canada.

To the Editor Your Jan. 8 issue carried a story on the Pointers telling us a few things about them which was written by a girl in the High School who writes by the policy taught in the school journalism class nice to everybody and everything at all connected with the school.

As you make it your policy to write the complete truth and this is something that demands the complete truth, I will fill in a slight gap left by Doris Massey, the author of last week's article.

Charles Stackman was going to open a combination soda bar and dance hall on a membership basis for the Pointe teen agers.

they way The building which was already being held from an other prospective center for the Stackman they gave back to the owner. While I was asking Mr. Salzer assistant principal of the school to do next, a group of them were already skipping school and were in at the Neighborhood Club making a deal as the article was said, anyone joining the Neighborhood Club that means one can go down there and shoot high school, what they were going to do next, the potential dancer could shoot pool.

Car of Louis W. Behn Stolen from Driveaway Last Friday evening between 10:30 and 11 o'clock a Cadillac belonging to Louis W. Behn of Berkshire, was stolen from the driveaway at 1314 Balfour.

The car was not locked for the convenience of a neighbor and parties, the station key left in the lock. In the car was a purse belonging to Miss Patricia McCarty.

Knowing the number of the car and its complete description the Park police anticipate difficulty in getting it back.

Long ago, coal acquired the title "BLACK DIAMOND" Coal is precious today because it is a critical war material, because it is needed to run steel mills and railroads and power plants as well as to heat our homes.

Thousands of tons of coal are required every day in Edison power plants to make the electricity used by war plants and homes and business places in this area. If you use less electricity less coal will be burned. The problem is not in saving coal, it is in showing you can do to save electricity also save coal.

These things are small in themselves. But this conservation program, which includes ALL utility services, will save thousands of tons of coal vitaly needed for war. The Detroit Edison Company
