Lake Pollution Discussed At Conference in Lansing

Park Manager Lane Told Government Is Deeply Interested in Problem, Which Plagues Grosse Pointe

Park Village Manager Everitt B. Lane was in Lansing on Wednesday, May 29, and while there had an extended talk with W. F. Shephard, Chief of the Division of Drainage and Sewage Treatment and Engineer of the Michigan Department of Health.

Mr. Shephard assured him that the problem of the pollution of the waters of the Great Lakes system is a hot problem that is already receiving more serious attention from national and international authorities than most citizens realize.

The whole question stands high on the agenda of the Joint International Commission, and its engineering and sanitation authorities are closely studying the matter. Mr. Shephard says that the whole problem of the Great Lakes is coming in for a sanitary survey. It is also probable that this will inaugurate a similar survey in all of the states of the Union and that Dominion authorities will undertake a similar examination of the Canadian side of the line.

One of the important angles of this work will be to inaugurate a practice throughout the whole littoral of the Great Lakes of making a separation of the surface water drainage from the sanitary sewage. This, of course, is a program that will take many years for its accomplishment and will involve vast sums of money, but is regarded by international sanitarians and engineers as an unavoidable problem, whose solution will grow increasingly important with the growth of population and industry in this great area.

It is of deep concern to the Grosse Pointers across whose front flows all drainage of the Great Lakes system, for good or ill.

Mr. Lane's talk was largely a confirmation of the subject matter of the transmittals from Secretary of State Byrnes, noted in the NEWS a few weeks ago.

Guest of Park Police

FOUND ON THE DOORSTEP of the Doyle home at 1021 Lakepointe on May 26, Mr. Coon was taken in charge by the Park police. He was given the courtesy of the house until his owner, a resident of Roseville, hard of his whereabouts, went to the Park and identified him through a broken toe. He has gone back to his Roseville home.

City's Land Sale Closed

Check for $35,000 Received, Ending Transaction with Augustinian Order

The City of Grosse Pointe received a check for $35,000 last Monday from Attorney J. H. Brennan, acting for the Augustinian Order, in payment in full for the tract of land which the City has owned for many years in Detroit extending from Mack to Canyon avenue along the line of Radnor.

This marks the final transaction in a deal which has long been pending involving Grosse Pointe City, the Augustinian Order and the City of Detroit. Some of the tract will eventually be incorporated into the park system of Detroit.

The Augustinian Order is proceeding rapidly with the plans for the high school which it will erect on the end of the plot touching Mack avenue. It is understood that the floor plans for the 1,500 capacity school are already decided upon, but an elevation sketch for the building is not yet available.

Park's Garage May be Enlarged

Park Village Manager Lane is displaying plans for a substantial addition to the Village garage in the rear of the municipal building. The proposed addition will bring the dimensions of the property to 45 x 90 feet.

The plans have been made pursuant to the decision of the committee named some weeks ago, composed of Commissioners Gillett and Sage and Manager Lane, following a discussion of the growing needs of the village's plant on Jefferson avenue.

When the proposal was made to convert the garage in the rear part of the municipal building into two stories to make more room, Commissioner Gillett raised the question of the timeliness of making a study of this and other needed additions that would shortly have to be provided, and was promptly made chairman of a special committee to make such a survey and bring in a recommendation.

The addition to the garage plant would cost about $22,000. The committee is also figuring on providing more office space in the building proper where the Clerk, the Treasurer and the Controller now have their offices.

EARRINGS MISSING

The disappearance of a pair of earrings valued at $3,000 has been reported to the city police by Mrs. Harold Boyer of 17700 East Jefferson avenue. The earrings, pearls and square-shaped diamonds, are believed to have been stolen. They were not insured, Mrs. Boyer stated.

Beach Attracts Holiday Crowd

The Park Village Beach had a big day Memorial Day. Superintendent William M. Brown reports that more than 3000 persons visited there.

While the park is open all the year round the boat season, as it is called, dates from May 1 to November 1.

During this six months stretch boat owners are assured a continuous 24 hour watch. The park has 55 boat wells at its small and long piers. The wells at the small pier are reserved strictly for Park village residents. The local residents also have first call on the wells at the big pier, but if any are not used by local residents they are rented out to others.

Superintendent Brown says the big season at the park is in June and July. By August 15 there is a marked letdown. He says this is because many residents take their annual vacations in August, timing them to get back home by the time school opens early in September right after Labor Day.

Search for Son Unsuccessful

Sunday evening the residents at 904 Whittier discovered an aged man resting on their lawn. He seemed to be lost and in a dazed condition. The Park police found he was a man 86 years old, who had in his pocket a three-days' leave from the Eloise hospital.

He had started to find his son, who he thought lived somewhere out here. He had left the hospital Thursday and had been wandering around ever since, with a very meagre account of where he had been. The police kindly returned the old fellow to the hospital as he was unable to give them any clue as to where his son might be found. He gave the name of Mike Kochan.

SUFFERS HEART ATTACK

The City police were called to the Grosse Pointe Hardware store on Jefferson avenue at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon to remove Howard C. Craven of 18960 Evergreen avenue, Redford, to the Bon Secours Hospital. Mr. Craven had been overcome by a heart attack.

Did our boys die hard deaths that we might live soft lives?

Service Honors Pointe Heroes

Memorial services for Pointers of the armed forces who gave their lives in World War II, were held on Memorial Day morning at the Honor Roll Shrine on the High School campus.

The names of those who made the supreme sacrifice were read by Charles Parcells, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

The principal address was given by the Rev. James D. Clark, O. S. A., of St. Clare de Montefalco, Church. He said:

We pause in the warfare of daily life to remember the heroes who died for us. More than four centuries before the Christian era, Pericles, the Greek Orator, when asked to speak of the first Athenians who fell in the Peloponnesian war declared that when men's deeds have been great, they should be honored in deed only.

The heroes whom we remember and honor today were our friends in great deed. Our Blessed Savior who practiced what he preached has taught us "Greater love than this no man hath that a man lay down his life for his friends."

And so, though nothing that we can say will soften the pain of loss in the hearts of those who love and mourn them, we offer our homage and honor at the same time that we offer condolences. For theirs has been the sacrifice of greatest love gallantly made that we might live, our churches and schools be protected, truth and justice vindicated, and peace restored to the world.

We beg Almighty God to comfort all who have been separated from those they love by the cross of war. May He give hope to broken hearts. May Our Heavenly Father teach us who mourn the martyred heroes of world wars, that "we have not here a lasting city," but look for one to come where we shall be reunited to those whom we have loved and lost awhile.

We thank Thee, O Prince of Peace, for having returned to the safety of civilian life, the many men and women who bravely bore the brunt of warfare. We thank Thee, most gracious God, for the Victory and Peace which those who died and those who lived have merited for us. May all who remember our gallant warriors of yesteryear and are grateful for their sacrifice, honor them in DEED—as the Orator of Athens would have us DO. Let us preserve the peace in personal and social life by LIVING the prayer for peace of Francis of Assisi:

"Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love.

Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; And where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to understand, To be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life."

The Rev. Andrew F. Rauth, pastor of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, gave the benediction.

Belles to Model Gowns of Yore At League Fair

One of the outstanding events at the Junior League Country Fair, to be held next Thursday, June 13, on the Emory L. Ford estate on Lake Shore road, will be the fashion show tea, to be held at 3:30 p.m. SHARP. The Fair, as you know, will be continuous from 11 in the morning UNTIL!

The Fashion Show, one of the few of its kind ever to be held in the Pointe, will feature costumes old and new, the old ones authentic gowns worn in the olden days by prominent Pointe women.

Among the collection of gowns worn in days of yore will be that of Mrs. James Ford, mother of Mrs. Frederick C. Ford, in 1890, (to be modeled at the Fair by Mrs. Walter Buhl Ford, the former "Dody" Ford). Mrs. Edwin A. Bell, mother of Mrs. George Vooke, wore a gown in 1885 that will be modeled by Mrs. Lewis Robinson. Another frock to be shown will be that of Mrs. Hazen Pingree, whose husband was the former governor of Michigan and father of Mrs. Wilson Mills. A linen suit that Mrs. William Rust Pierce wore in 1908 at Niagara Falls, will be modeled by her daughter, Mrs. John T. Huntington.

Mrs. Book Baker will wear the wedding dress of her mother, Mrs. Frank P. Book. Mrs. William P. Bonbright will show the dress that her husband's grandmother, (Mrs. Frederick Hodges), wore to the Murray Sales wedding in 1892. Bringing this group 'up to date' there will be modeled a dress worn by Mrs. Wesson Seyburn in 1920. The women pictured on this page will also model the gowns they are wearing here, at the Fashion Tea.

To contrast the old with the new, the following Detroit shops will show the modern clothes of 1946 and 1947. Among these will be Irvings, Sax Kay, Walton-Pierce, Julie Inc. and Furs by Robert.

Please make your reservations early. Tickets for the tea and show are $2.50 and can be bought at either of the Junior League Shops or by calling Mrs. C. Thorne Murphy at Niagara 8668. Tables are arranged for four or eight or individual seats. The show starts at 3:30 promptly... and please make your reservations in advance.

Dinner Dance Sounds Grand

Another high spot at the Junior League Country Fair, will be the buffet dinner dance to be held in the sunken gardens of the E. L. Ford estate. A buffet dinner will be served from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. and there will be dancing from 7 until midnight to the melodic tunes of Jack Rosevear's orchestra.

Tables are arranged to seat four and tickets for the dinner and dance are $5.00 per person. For those who would rather dance than eat, tickets are available at $1.50 and usable after 9 p. m. Since Al Green is supplying the dinner, we can't imagine anyone passing up the eating end of the fun.

However, all tickets can be bought at the following places, but don't wait until they're gone! Country Club, Grosse Pointe Club, Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Detroit Golf Club, University Club, Kerns, Junior League Shop downtown and Junior League Little Shop on Kercheval.

Who's Who

MRS. REUBEN MILLER WATERMAN, top left, wears the gown worn by her husband's grandmother, Mrs. Reuben Miller, who is shown in the portrait wearing the same gown.

MRS. JOHN N. LORD, lower left, pictured wearing the gown her mother, Mrs. John S. Newberry, wore when she sat for her portrait by Peter Wilde, in 1913.

MRS. HENRY FORD II, lower right, wears one of the evening gowns that was part of the trousseau of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Edsel Ford, in 1916.

Bell Telephone Honors War Dead

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company paid solemn tribute to the dead of World War II in memorial services on May 29 at ten points throughout its territory. Bronze plaques bearing the names of employees who lost their lives in the war were dedicated at the services held simultaneously at Detroit, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Ann Arbor, Pontiac, Flint, Saginaw, Traverse City, and Menominee.

Relatives of those who died in service were special guests. Sixty-six Michigan Bell employees died for their country during the war and one is still on the list of missing. At one time, the company had 3,062 in uniform. The number is now down to 400.

A NEW CONJURE HOUSE BOOK BY GROSSE POINTE AUTHOR

Let's Go to Australia by GEORGE F. TAUBENECK

AN exciting new book on this Down-Under Land—its cities, people, sports, industries and politics—interestingly, fascinatingly told. It pictures the Australia of today as an "object lesson" in Labor-dictated economics with which every thinking American should be acquainted.

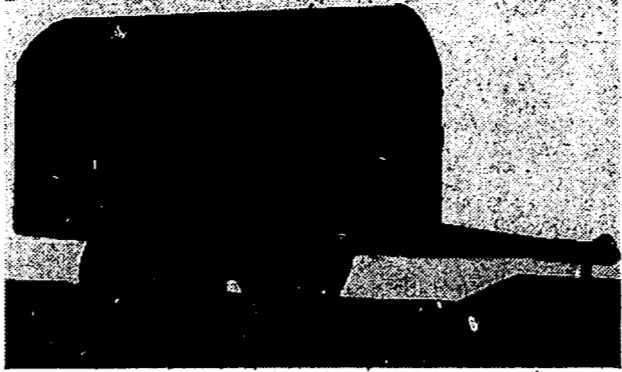

The New Deal borrowed many of its false ideals and concepts from Australia—and that which has happened in Australia portends what can happen in our own country. In this book an interesting parallel is drawn for the reader between the Labor-dictator legislation of Australia and its effects, and the similar, disastrous course now being followed by the United States.

Sugar-Scant Cake Fillings

By BETSY NEWMAN
IF YOU make a cake for Sunday on your baking day, you'll probably like to make some kind of filling. I've been leafing through cook books picking up recipes that use little if any sugar. Maybe you can find one or two that will answer your needs.

- Today's Menu
Swiss Steak Mashed Potatoes
Creamed Cabbage
Fresh Young Carrots
Cake Coffee
Maple Cream Filling
- 2 c. maple 1 tsp. butter
syrup Salt
1/4 c. milk
Cook syrup, milk, butter and salt together to the soft stage (238 deg. F.). Cool and beat until creamy. Use as cake filling.
- Orange Filling
2 tbsp. butter 2 eggs, beaten or margarine 1 tsp. grated
1/4 c. granulated orange rind
sugar 1 tsp. lemon
1/2 c. orange juice
- Combine all ingredients and mix well. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until well thickened, about 10 mins. Chill well before spreading on cake.

Whipped Cream Filling
1/2 tsp. gelatin 2 c. cream
1/4 c. cold water 1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 c. powdered 1/4 c. boiling sugar water

Soak gelatin in the cold water until softened. Whip the cream in a pan set in ice water and sift sugar over it; add vanilla. Pour the boiling water upon the gelatin, and when it is dissolved and cooled, strain it over the whipped cream, then beat rapidly with a flat whip, turning the pan with the left hand while beating with the right.

Beat until the gelatin is thoroughly blended with the cream. Set in a cool place and when filling is nearly stiff, spread on cake layers.

Whipped Cream Mocha Filling
1/2 pt. whipping 1 1/2 tsp. mocha cream extract or
2 tsp. sugar strong coffee

Whip the cream in a bowl set in ice water, if the cream, bowl and beater are all thoroughly chilled beforehand, this will not be necessary. Add the extract or coffee and sugar; beat well. If the top of the cake is spread with this filling, 3/4 cup of chopped nut meats may be sprinkled over it.

Pen Women Plan Annual Dinner

The Detroit Branch of the National League of American Pen Women will hold their Annual Creative Arts Dinner on Thursday, June 6, 8:30 p. m., in the Mural Room, Buoyler's L'Aiglon.

Honored guests will be: Frances Amy, national short story contest winner; Helen Bower, winner of award for outstanding journalist of Theta Sigma Phi; Andrina Iverson Gilmartin, Avery Hopwood prize winner; Florence Maple, author of "Family Tree"; Iris Miller, artist; Erythe Fern Melrose and Marie Margaret Winthrop, winners of national advertising awards; Jennifer Stevens, McKenzie high school student, Scholastic Magazine prize winner.

Proper Storage Thwarts Moths

The moths may be hungry, but wool clothing is still hard to find and expensive.

Spring never fails to bring up questions about storing winter woollens to prevent moth damage while the garments are "out of circulation." Prof. E. I. McDaniel, Michigan State College entomologist, points out that the prevention is easy, but the cure is difficult—sometimes impossible.

Professor McDaniel outlines safe storage of woollens as follows:

1. Dry clean or wash woollens before storing. This removes all forms of moths present but does not protect against future infestation.
2. Garments may also be hung in the sun for several hours, if the colors are sunfast; then all seams, pockets, and other hiding places for moths should be brushed thoroughly. Pressing garments before storage is also a method of insuring the destruction of all moth life.
3. For storage, woollens should be put away in a trunk, box, or package that seals tightly. In this container put about one-fourth pound of paradichlorobenzene (PDB) crystals or balls to every ten cubic feet of space. Then seal the container completely. Label it as to contents so that woollens can be located easily when needed.

LEARN TO DIAL BY EAR

1. Pick up the receiver and listen before starting to dial.
2. If the dial tone is delayed, wait until you hear that steady hum-m-m.
3. When you hear the dial tone, dial the number carefully.

THAT dial tone is mighty important. It means that the switching equipment in the central office is ready to handle your call. If you dial before you hear it, you'll get a wrong number or no number at all.

Right now there are times when the dial tone is delayed. That's because, in a continuing effort to give some kind of service to as many waiting applicants as possible, we are loading our central office equipment far beyond its normal capacity—even at the risk of lowering the quality of service.

This situation is only temporary. We will restore service to normal as quickly as enough dial equipment can be provided.

Meantime, please remember to listen for the dial tone before you dial.

Cubs Will Stage Minstrel Show

Grosse Pointe Woods Cub Pack 290 members are busy boys these days, putting the finishing touches to their Minstrel Show. The performance will be given Friday evening, June 14, at 7:30 p.m. at the Mason School, Vernier near Mack.

Mrs. L. Montgomery, Mrs. M. L. Nelson and Mrs. J. W. Riehl, who are directing the program, report "progress on schedule" and are confident the Cubs will put on a first class show. The directors are being ably assisted by Mrs. G. M. McDonald, Mrs. O. Schmidt and Mrs. R. I. Zeeb. Mrs. F. Kreuger will be at the piano and Mr. J. Stapleton is dialect coach.

Anyone interested in the boys' work is invited to attend. Although the performance is free, a voluntary contribution can be made to aid the Cubs in their "World Friendship Fund" drive. The purpose of this fund is to make possible the rehabilitation of Cubbing and Scouting activities in war torn countries all over the world. The fund is derived entirely from money actually earned and given by Cubs and Boy Scouts throughout the country.

Pointers Backing Piel's Candidacy

Grosse Pointers have a peculiar interest in the candidacy of Henry W. Piel for the Republican nomination for Sheriff of Wayne county at the primaries on June 18.

When Mr. Piel, who had been chief of detectives of the Detroit police department, was invited by the Commissioners of Grosse Pointe Park to undertake in 1940, the reorganization of the Park's police department, he did such a satisfactory job for the village that he quickly won for himself the respect and approval of his new found employers.

The Chief's whole record, as head of the local police was excellent.

His long service with the Detroit department has especially qualified him to carry on the duties of the sheriff's office. He is alert, well informed and commonsensical. He is right in the prime of life, 58, of which 30 years were passed in the Detroit department. His host of friends in the whole Pointe area wish him well.

JEAN WILCOX and CAROL LECKLIDER gave a tea on Saturday afternoon for the girls in their class. Thelma Fife, Barbara Greenleaf and Marion Anderson were chosen to pour, and the guests included Martha Armstrong, Sue Matson, Louise Mohn, Cecily King, Sue Hoffman, Jane Baldwin, Pat Sibbert, Jo Reinstein, Mary Jane Sheaffer, Mary Lodes, Mary Trumbull, Miriam Walker, Jeanne Simmons, Rosemarie Johnson, Pat Hollister, Dorothy Lisse and Margie Moschell.

BILL MURPHY arrived home from Colorado Saturday, and there was a surprise dinner for him on Saturday night before the Country Club dance. His date was Joanie Cochrane; Libby Powell was with Tom Parker, Joanie Gehlert was with Bob Cudlip, and Janie Gehlert with Bill Bokram.

IONE HEDGES entertained on Saturday, with a dinner at her home before the Senior Prom. She was with George Cherpelis, Andy Klingbeil with Ted Likert, Sue Hughes with Marty Beer, Nancy Dalrymple with Bill Drew, Shirley Somers with Bill Moll, Evie Osborn with Carl Stein, Gerry Morse with Jack Galdoni, and Sue Rogers with Jerry Thiede.

Another party before the Prom was given by DON HILES. Those who gathered at his home for dinner that night were his date, Beth Klaver, Judy Zick, Ched Swenson, Barb Klenk, Ray Schumann, Mitz Cronin, Don Winslow, Marie Smith, Dick Fox, Barbara Molyneux, and Dick Phillips.

Still another dinner was given by BOB NETTE, over at the Detroit Yacht Club. His date was Ann Leininger, Annie Wakeman was with Fred Auch, Marilyn Lamb with Bill Queen.

More parties, both before and after the dance, were given by TOM REDMOND, BILL LORD, SUE MATSON, and DALE RAMSEY.

Something must be said of the 12B's who worked so hard to make this Prom a grand one for everyone to remember. Their decorations were all prepared in advance, and on Friday they left them in the school basement, where they would be perfectly safe until Prom-time. Unfortunately, however, the rain storm on Friday caused the basement to flood, and everything was saved just in the nick of time. Then, on Saturday, after the gym was decorated and everyone had gone home to get ready for the months at an expense of nearly $265,000 apparently did the trick.

 With the exception of a new building at Oxford and Mack in the course of erection where the wall had not been completed, and a couple of single family houses on Norwood and Sunningdale there were no other reports of trouble.
 The places on Norwood and Sunningdale had dry neighbors on both sides, which lead the village authorities to believe the trouble there was of local origin. All told it was the driest wet period the village has ever known.
 The Farms appears to have been as badly hit, if not worse, than the other Pointe villages. Judging by the letters received at the NEWS office, the residents are madder there than elsewhere. No record was kept of the complaints received at the village offices. One resident reported that after trying to get a call through for an hour to complain about his flooded basement, he was finally successful.
 Before he had a chance to say anything, the voice on the other end of the wire said: "I know what you want and it is any comfort to you, the whole village is flooded."
 Murray Smith, village engineer, talked frankly about the storm's havoc, but didn't want to make any conclusive statements or recommendations until he has had a chance to check all avenues of information. His department is conducting a spot check survey of a large section of the village, and he is seeking information from Detroit.
 The Farms has a contract with Detroit to carry off its storm drainage water, no matter how much there is, and indications are that Detroit didn't do a very good job last Friday, Mr. Smith said.
 According to Mr. Smith everything went wrong that could go wrong on Friday. It was an engineer's nightmare. He spent most of his time at the sewer pumping station, where the water rose 10 feet and the pumps faltered under the terrific task of fighting against a high head of pressure. Efficiency was cut from a quarter to a third, Mr. Smith estimated.
 Bolted down manholes, blew their bolts and shot water 36 feet into the air.
 Another thing which caused a lot of unusual trouble was the fact that the lake, now two feet above normal height, did not help carry off any of the excessive water. Ordinarily there are outlets open which would take off the storm water from 180 acres of Farms land.
 Due to the height of the lake, these outlets have had to be closed to keep the lake from coming into the water system, so all of this area had to be drained through the other channels.
 Mr. Smith said he believes that Detroit was pulling water from as far east as Eight Mile road, with the result that the sewers were so jam packed full they couldn't hold any more.
 Another little detail that gave the Farms many headaches, was the zealotness of some employees and residents to help out the sewer system.
 There had been a great deal of grass and weed cutting in the village during the morning before the storm and many catch basin grates were clogged by these cuttings and other accumulations. The result was that water gathered on top and formed great lakes that flooded over the curbs.
 Some of the highway employees and many residents, seeing this condition, raked off the grills and in some cases removed them. This added to the pressure of the overloaded sewers and backed the water up into homes that had never had any before. If the water had been allowed to stand and seep through the grills grad-

Detroit Killers Invade Pointe's Chicken Coops

The dogs of Grosse Pointe are on the loose again. This time they have added killing to their repertoire. On May 28, E. Del Barba, of 420 Notre Dame, reported to the City police that two cocker spaniels, a black and white and a brown and white, had killed seven of his chickens.
 For good measure they had added four large rabbits to the mortuary list. The rabbits belonged to Verne Tyrell of 456 Notre Dame.
 The ownership of the dogs was traced to George M. Letterman, Jr. Mr. Letterman paid a $4.80 impounding fee and was served with a court notice for permitting the animals to run at large.
 Two days later word came from Mrs. Edith Van Damme of 838 St. Clair that two dogs had killed 17 of her chickens. He had seen the dogs and reported one as a small dark grey police dog and the other a small black dog with a white stomach.
 Again the dog squad went into action. They learned from Mrs. William Blaess of 873 Neff that she had just seen two dogs answering the description of the wanted ones, running out of her garage. Soon the police sighted them and gave chase. The dogs high-tailed it for Detroit and the Pointe gendarmes pursued them far enough into foreign territory to see one of them go into the residence of a Mr. Cleveland at 17221 Minneapolis avenue.
 They reported the pair to the Detroit police who got both of them, but later reported with some chagrin that the police dog had escaped.
 At last reports it was not known whether the dog "affair" would result in an inter-city incident, but at least the killers have not been brought to justice.

 piano as she sang on May 28 at the Memorial exercises in the House of Representatives in Washington.

Mrs. Farr took a deep interest in all branches of child welfare work, with particular concern for unfortunate children. She was a trustee of both the Michigan Children's Aid Society and Children's Hospital and at the time of her death was a trustee of the Protestant Children's Home and the Young Woman's Club.
 The funeral services were held in her home on Cloverly road at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

Township Works On Tax Rolls

Township Supervisor Carl Schuelkart and his assistants are busily engaged in preparing the township tax rolls for the attention of the Board of Review. This Board will sit on June 4 and 5, with a final session on June 10.
 At this time any taxpayer who feels that his assessment should be reviewed will have an opportunity to have his case examined by the board.
 The sessions will last from 9 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. on the above dates and will be held in the Grosse Pointe Township offices on the second floor of the Park Municipal Building on Jefferson avenue.

Representative Rabaut, well-known as a singer in Detroit for more than a quarter of a century, was chosen to be the soloist at the services which are held annually in memory of the members of Congress who have died during the preceding year. The United States Army Band Orchestra played sacred selections as a prelude and the invocation and benediction were given by the Chaplain. There was a roll of deceased members and addresses by two other representatives.
 Miss Rabaut began her musical studies under the Dominican Sisters at St. Clare school. She continued with a course in syncopation with Mr. Jack Allan, and studied harmony under Mr. Bendetson Netzorg at Marygrove College. Her father, known as "the Singing Congressman" was a soloist in the Jesuit Church for many years.
 The Army must replace as soon as possible men who have served their country long and arduously. Enlist today at 21 Cadillac Square.

A COMMON BOND

We are quite sure . . . that Detroit's Automotive Golden Jubilee brought these women together for the first time . . . Many of them, naturally, have been old friends for years . . . But we felt . . . as we watched them that evening . . . that they had a definite bond . . . and we felt that they, too, had played a significant part in the building of this great Detroit . . . for the automobile has brought the city its outstanding wealth . . . its place of importance in the world . . . its monumental achievement . . .

And we also felt very sure . . . that those two tables of handsome women "liked one another" . . . in a very humble way . . .

That, almost without exception, the invention that revolutionized the world . . .

Had cost them dearly . . . It seemed their unspoken bond . . .

Miles Culehan States Platform

Miles Culehan, Republican candidate for 14th District Congress, claims that bureaucratic regulations must be removed from businessmen or they can't continue to operate.

Campaigning under the slogan, "Put the Shirts and the Meat Back in the White Market," Culehan is carrying his message to east side citizens. He said:

"The OPA regulations, such as rent control, were basically good during the war but now there are too many restrictions which hinder all business from returning to a peacetime economy. I am not for removing all price control suddenly or entirely, but there rules must be elastic enough to take care of the majority and prevent people from violating the law by dealing in black markets."

He cited the restrictions on building as one factor contributing greatly to the housing shortage, and stated that only 1/2 of 1 percent of returning veterans have been able to get home loans. Culehan said that if the rules were right, there would be at least 1,000,000 veterans with approved applications for home building.

Culehan is firmly against socialized medicine. He said: "I saw regimented doctors during my service in the army and they did a good job. But in civilian life this system would kill the doctors' initiative and away with the personal attention that most people want."

Culehan said that taxation on production should be reduced to permit the expansion of business, which would create more supply and more jobs. This would automatically eliminate the black markets, he said.

Culehan is 48 years old, a successful practicing attorney for 23 years, was Assistant Prosecuting Attorney from 1930 to 1935 and Assistant Attorney General of Michigan in 1935.

He was a fier in the first World War and saw active service in the 7th Corps, U. S. First Army, during World War II. He participated in the liberation of France and Belgium.

These 5 Men May Save the World

This group of 5 distinguished Americans was cloistered together by Uncle Sam for 8 long weeks. They had a supply of midnight oil to burn. And the toughest problem of the century to lick.

The problem: To draw up a plan by which mankind can conquer, not be conquered by, Atomic Energy.

Now that their plan has been drawn up, it's being hailed both here and abroad. But it still lacks a most important element.

In the words of one of the group, TVA's David E. Lilienthal: "... our plan must be understood and wanted by you and all the people of the world. We have the frame of a plan, but it's your living room talk, your arguments around the table, in your clubs and union headquarters, which will put life in it."

That's the job "This Week" Magazine has set for itself. We've invited Mr. Lilienthal to give you the plan in our pages.

Here's an article that offers the lives of every man and woman in the land. Written in plain language... so that you'll read it Sunday in "This Week" Magazine... and help America do something about it... before it's too late.

"Friends of Library" Favor New Building for Memorial

A very successful meeting was held Monday, May 27, at the Grosse Pointe Public Library, 15470 Kercheval avenue by the "Friends of the Library." Mrs. Lloyd G. Hooker, the president, presided. Many new members joined the association and the work will be carried on with renewed enthusiasm.

The "Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library" went on record as favoring a public library building as a memorial to those who gave their lives and to those who served in World War II.

Miss Florence Severs, the director of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, gave a history of the library and outlined its needs. The members decided that a building program would be their first objective. At the same time, discussion groups and other adult education programs will be planned to bring the community in closer touch with the cultural advantages which the library has to offer.

HAVE YOU A ROOM THE SUN MAKES "LIKE AN OVEN"?

KOOLSHADE* Sun Screen will make it delightfully cooler!

Put an end to sweltering in rooms on the sunny side.

It's Sun Heat pouring through windows that makes some rooms unbearably hot! KOOLSHADE stops that heat outside... often keeps rooms 15 degrees cooler! This bronze fabric (made like a tiny Venetian blind—set fine as insect screen) is automatic, completely effective. No glare... reduces sun-fading. Full view and ventilation. Keeps out insects.

Ingersoll KOOLSHADE* Sun Screen
